they do not cry out when He binds them.
14 They die in youth,
and their life ends among the unclean.
15 He delivers the poor in their affliction,
and opens their ears in oppression.
16 "Even so He would have removed you out of distress
into a broad place where there is no restraint;

and that which was set on your table would be full of richness.
17 But you are filled with the judgment due the
wicked;
judgment and justice take hold of you.
18 Because there is wrath, beware lest He take you away with a blow;
even a great ransom cannot deliver you.
19 Will He esteem your riches?
No, not gold, nor all the force of your strength.
20 Do not desire the night,
when people are cut off in their place.
21 Take heed! Do not turn to iniquity, for you have chosen this rather than affliction.
22 "Behold, God is exalted in His power;
who teaches like Him?
23 Who has prescribed His way for Him?
Or who can say, 'You have worked iniquity?'
24 Remember to magnify His work, which men behold.
25 Every man may see it;
man may behold it from afar.
26 Look, God is great, and we do not know Him,
nor can the number of His years be searched out.
27 "For He draws up the drops of water;
they distill rain according to its mist, 28 which the clouds drop down,
and drip upon man abundantly.
29 Indeed, can anyone understand the spreading of clouds,
or the noise of His tent?
30 See, He spreads His light upon it and covers the bottom of the sea.
31 For by these He judges the people;
He gives food in abundance.
32 With clouds He covers the light,
and commands it to strike the mark.
33 Its thunder declares it,
the cattle also, concerning the rising storm.
37 "At this also my heart trembles and moves out of its place.
2 Hear attentively the thunder of His voice,
and the sound that goes out of His mouth.
3 He lets it loose under the whole heaven,
and His lightning unto the ends of the earth.
4 After it a voice roars; He thunders with His majestic
voice,
and He does not restrain them when His voice is heard.
5 God thunders marvelously with His voice;
He does great things that we cannot comprehend.
6 For He says to the snow, 'Come on the earth,' likewise to the gentle rain and to the heavy rain of His strength.
7 He seals up the hand of every man,
that all men may know His work.
8 Then the beasts go into dens
and remain in their places.

9 Out of the south comes the whirlwind,
 and cold out of the north.
 10 By the breath of God frost is given,
 and the broad waters are frozen.
 11 Also He loads the thick clouds with moisture;
 He scatters His bright clouds,
 12 and they are turned about by His guidance,
 that they may do whatever He commands them
 upon the face of the inhabited earth.
 13 He causes it to come, whether for correction,
 or for His land or for mercy.
 14 "Listen to this, Job; stand still and consider the wondrous works of God.
 15 Do you know when God dispatches them and causes the light of His cloud to shine?
 16 Do you know how the clouds are balanced,
 the wondrous works of Him who is perfect in knowledge?
 17 How your garments are warm,
 when He quiets the earth by the south wind?
 18 Have you, with Him, spread out the sky,
 which is strong and is like a molten mirror?
 19 "Teach us what we will say to Him, for we cannot prepare our speech because of the darkness.
 20 Will it be told Him that I speak?
 If a man speaks, surely he will be swallowed up.
 21 Now men do not see the bright light which is in the clouds,
 but the wind passes and cleanses them.
 22 Fair weather comes out of the north;
 with God is terrible majesty.
 23 Concerning the Almighty, we cannot find Him out;
 He is excellent in power, and in judgment,
 and in much righteousness He will not oppress.
 24 Men therefore fear Him;
 He shows no partiality to those who are wise in
 heart."

The LORD Speaks to Job

38 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said:
 2 "Who is this who darkens counsel
 by words without knowledge?
 3 Prepare yourself like a man;
 for I will question you,
 and you shall answer Me.
 4 "Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
 Declare, if you have understanding.
 5 Who has determined its measurements, if you know?
 Or who has stretched the line upon it?
 6 To what are its foundations fastened?
 Or who laid its cornerstone 7 when the morning stars sang together,
 and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
 8 "Or who shut up the sea with doors

when it broke forth and went out of the womb?
 9 When I made the cloud its garment,
 and thick darkness its swaddling band,
 10 and broke up for it My decreed place,
 and set bars and doors,
 11 and said, 'This far you will come but no farther,
 and here your proud waves will be stopped?'
 12 "Have you commanded the morning in your days,
 and caused the dawn to know its place, 13 that it might take hold of the ends of the earth,
 that the wicked might be shaken out of it?
 14 It is turned like clay by the seal,
 and it stands out as a garment.
 15 From the wicked their light is withheld,
 and the high arm will be broken.
 16 "Have you entered into the springs of the sea?
 Or have you walked in search of the depths?
 17 Have the gates of death been opened to you?
 Or have you seen the doors of the shadow of death?
 18 Have you perceived the breadth of the earth?
 Declare, if you know it all.
 19 "Where is the path where light dwells?
 And as for darkness, where is its place,
 20 that you should take it to its boundary,
 and that you should know the paths to its house?
 21 Do you know it because you were born then,
 or because the number of your days is many?
 22 "Have you entered the treasuries of the snow?
 Or have you seen the treasures of the hail,
 23 which I have reserved against the time of trouble,
 against the day of battle and war?
 24 By what way is the light diffused,
 or the east wind scattered upon the earth?
 25 Who has divided a channel for the overflowing waters,
 or a path for the thunderbolt, 26 to cause it to rain on the earth where no man is,
 on the wilderness in which there are no people, 27 to satisfy the desolate waste, and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring
 forth?
 28 Does the rain have a father?
 Or who has produced the drops of dew?
 29 From whose womb came the ice?
 And the frost of heaven, who gives it birth?
 30 The waters harden like stone,
 and the surface of the deep is frozen.
 31 "Can you tie the cords to the Pleiades or loosen the belt of Orion?
 32 Can you bring out the constellation in its season?
 Or can you guide the Bear with its cubs?
 33 Do you know the ordinances of heaven?
 Can you set their dominion over the earth?
 34 "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds,
 that abundance of waters may cover you?
 35 Can you send lightning that they may go forth, and say to you, 'Here we are?'
 36 Who has put wisdom in the inward parts, or who has given understanding to the heart? †

³⁷ Who can number the clouds by wisdom?
 Or who can empty out the bottles of heaven, ³⁸ when the dust turns into hard clumps
 and the clods stick together?
³⁹ "Will you hunt the prey for the lion?
 Or fill the appetite of the young lions,
⁴⁰ when they crouch in their dens
 and lie in the thicket to wait in ambush?
⁴¹ Who provides for the raven his food
 when his young ones cry unto God,
 and they wander about for lack of food?
39 "Do you know the time when the wild mountain goats produce offspring?
 Or can you observe when the deer gives birth?
² Can you number the months that they fulfill,
 or do you know the time when they bring forth?
³ They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones,
 they get rid of their labor pains.
⁴ Their young ones are healthy, they grow strong with grain;
 they go forth and do not return to them.
⁵ "Who has sent out the wild donkey free?
 Or who has loosed the bands of the wild donkey,
⁶ whose home I have made the wilderness,
 and the barren land his dwelling?
⁷ He scorns the multitude in the city and does not regard the shouts of the driver.
⁸ The range of the mountains is his pasture,
 and he searches after every green thing.
⁹ "Will the wild ox be willing to serve you or spend the night by your manger?
¹⁰ Can you bind the wild ox in the furrow with ropes?
 Or will he plow the valleys behind you?
¹¹ Will you trust him because his strength is great?
 Or will you leave your labor to him?
¹² Will you trust him to bring home your grain and gather it into your barn?
¹³ "Did you give the beautiful wings to the peacocks?
 Or wings and feathers to the ostrich, ¹⁴ who leaves her eggs in the earth,
 and warms them in dust,
¹⁵ and forgets that a foot may crush them,
 or that the wild beast may break them?
¹⁶ She is hardened against her young ones,
 as though they were not hers;
 her labor is in vain, without concern,
¹⁷ because God has deprived her of wisdom,
 nor has He imparted understanding to her.
¹⁸ When she lifts up herself on high,
 she scorns the horse and his rider.
¹⁹ "Have you given the horse strength?
 Have you clothed his neck with thunder?
²⁰ Can you make him afraid like a grasshopper?
 The glory of his nostrils is awesome.
²¹ He paws in the valley and rejoices in his strength;

† The Heb. may refer to celestial bodies.

he goes on to meet the armed men.
²² He mocks at fear and is not frightened,
 nor does he turn back from the sword.
²³ The quiver rattles against him,
 the glittering spear and the shield.
²⁴ He devours the distance with fierceness and rage, and he does not stand still at the sound of the trumpet.
²⁵ At the sound of the trumpet he says, 'Aha';
 he smells the battle afar off,
 the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
²⁶ "Does the hawk fly by your wisdom,
 and stretch her wings toward the south?
²⁷ Does the eagle mount up at your command
 and make her nest on high?
²⁸ She dwells and remains on the rock,
 upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.
²⁹ From there she seeks the prey,
 and her eyes see it from afar.
³⁰ Her young ones also suck up blood, and where the slain are, there she is."
40 Moreover, the LORD answered Job and said:
² "Will he who argues with the Almighty instruct Him?
 He who rebukes God, let him answer it."

Job Replies to the LORD

³ Then Job answered the LORD and said:
⁴ "Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer You?
 I will lay my hand over my mouth.
⁵ Once have I spoken, but I will not answer;
 yes, twice, but I will proceed no further."

The LORD Challenges Job

⁶ Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said:
⁷ "Prepare yourself now like a man;
 I will question you,
 and you will answer Me.
⁸ "Will you indeed annul My judgment?
 Will you condemn Me, that you may be righteous?
⁹ Have you an arm like God?
 Or can you thunder with a voice like Him?
¹⁰ Adorn yourself now with majesty and excellence,
 and array yourself with glory and beauty.
¹¹ Let loose the rage of your wrath,
 and look on every one who is proud and abase him;
¹² look on every one who is proud and bring him low,
 and tread down the wicked in their place.
¹³ Hide them in the dust together,
 and imprison them in the hidden place of the grave.
¹⁴ Then I will also confess to you that your own right hand can save you.
¹⁵ "Look now at the behemoth which I made along with you;
 he eats grass like an ox.
¹⁶ See now his strength is in his hips,

and his power is in the muscles of his belly.
¹⁷ He moves his tail like a cedar;
 the sinews of his thighs are wrapped together.
¹⁸ His bones are like strong pieces of brass;
 his bones are like bars of iron.
¹⁹ He is the first of the works of God;
 He who made him can bring near His sword.
²⁰ Surely the mountains bring forth food for him,
 where all the beasts of the field play.
²¹ He lies under the shady trees,
 in the thicket of the reed and marsh.
²² The shady trees cover him with their shadow;
 the willows of the brook surround him.
²³ Look, the river rages, but he is not alarmed;
 he trusts that he can draw up the Jordan into his mouth.
²⁴ Can anyone catch it by its eyes,
 or pierce its nose with a snare?
41 “Can you draw out Leviathan with a hook † or snare his tongue with a line which you let down?
² Can you put a cord into his nose,
 or pierce his jaw with a hook?
³ Will he make many supplications to you?
 Will he speak soft words to you?
⁴ Will he make a covenant with you?
 Will you take him for a servant forever?
⁵ Will you play with him as with a bird?
 Or will you put him on a leash for your maidens?
⁶ Will your companions make a banquet of him?
 Will they divide him among the merchants?
⁷ Can you fill his skin with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?
⁸ Lay your hand on him;
 remember the battle—you will do it no more.
⁹ Notice, any hope of overcoming him is in vain;
 shall not one be overwhelmed at the sight of him?
¹⁰ No one is so fierce that he dares to stir him up.
 Who then is able to stand before Me?
¹¹ Who has preceded Me that I should repay him?
 Everything under heaven is Mine.
¹² “I will not conceal his limbs,
 nor his power, nor his graceful proportions.
¹³ Who can remove his outer garment?
 Or who can approach him with a double bridle?
¹⁴ Who can open the jaws of his face?
 His teeth are terrible all around.
¹⁵ His scales are his pride, shut up tightly as with a seal.
¹⁶ One is so near to another that no air can come between them.
¹⁷ They are joined to each other;
 they stick together that they cannot be separated.
¹⁸ His sneezing flashes forth light,
 and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
¹⁹ Out of his mouth go burning lights,
 and sparks of fire leap out.

²⁰ Out of his nostrils goes smoke
 as out of a seething pot or cauldron.
²¹ His breath kindles coals,
 and a flame goes out of his mouth.
²² In his neck remains strength,
 and sorrow is turned into joy before him.
²³ The folds of his flesh are joined together;
 they are firm on him; they cannot be moved.
²⁴ His heart is as firm as a stone,
 yes, as hard as a piece of the lower millstone.
²⁵ When he raises up himself even the gods are afraid;
 because of his crashings they are beside themselves.
²⁶ The sword that reaches him cannot avail,
 nor does the spear, the arrow, or the javelin.
²⁷ He counts iron as straw,
 and brass as rotten wood.
²⁸ The arrow cannot make him flee;
 sling stones are turned into stubble by him.
²⁹ Arrows are counted as straw;
 he laughs at the shaking of a spear.
³⁰ Sharp stones are his underside;
 he leaves a mark in the mire like a sharp threshing sledge.
³¹ He makes the deep to boil like a pot;
 he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
³² He leaves a shining wake behind him;
 one would think the deep had white hair.
³³ On earth there is nothing like him,
 a creature made without fear.
³⁴ He beholds all high things;
 he is a king over all the children of pride.”

Job's Repentance

42 Then Job answered the LORD and said:
² “I know that You can do everything,
 and that no thought can be withheld from You.
³ ‘Who is he who hides counsel without knowledge?’
 Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me which I did not know.
⁴ “Hear, please, and I will speak;
 I will question you,
 and you declare to Me.’
⁵ I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear,
 but now my eye sees You.
⁶ Therefore I abhor myself and repent in dust and ashes.”

Epilogue

⁷ And so it was, that after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, “My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken of Me what is right as My servant Job has. ⁸ And now, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and My servant Job will pray for you. For him I will accept, lest I deal with you according to your folly, in that you have not spoken of Me the thing which is right like My servant Job.”⁹ So Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as the LORD had commanded them; the LORD also accepted Job.

¹⁰ And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he prayed for his friends, and also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. ¹¹ Then all of his brothers, and all his sisters, and all of those who had been of acquaintance before came to Job, and they ate bread with him in his house, and they consoled him and comforted him for all the adversity that the LORD had brought upon him. Every man also gave him a piece of money and an earring of gold.

¹² So the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning, for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys. ¹³ He had also seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴ He called the name of the first Jemimah; and the name of the second Keziah; and the name of the third Keren-Happuch. ¹⁵ In all the land, there were no women as beautiful as the daughters of Job, and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.

¹⁶ After this, Job lived a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and their sons to the fourth generation.

¹⁷ So Job died, being old and full of days.

PSALMS

Some of the most beautiful poetry ever written is found in the book of Psalms. No wonder believers throughout the ages have turned to this powerful collection of inspired writings for wisdom, understanding, and especially comfort. The Psalms were written over a span of many centuries, with the earliest (Psalm 90) by Moses and the latest (probably Psalm 137) during the time of captivity in Babylon. They were compiled into their present form by Jewish scribes shortly after the captivity ended in about 537 BC. Many authors contributed to these timeless and inspired writings. King David is associated with 73 of them; other writers include Asaph, Solomon, Moses, and the sons of Korah. Originally these 150 poems were meant to be sung, accompanied by musical instruments, to specific melodies. In addition to being tributes of praise to God, these poems are rooted in mankind's struggles, fears, and deep concerns. They are deeply thoughtful and honest prayers expressing the joys and pains of life. To pray the Psalms is to touch the heart of God in a deep and meaningful way.

BOOK ONE

Psalms 1–41

1 Blessed is the man
 who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly,
 nor stands in the path of sinners,
 nor sits in the seat of scoffers;
² but his delight is in the law of the LORD,
 and in His law he meditates day and night.
³ He will be like a tree planted by the rivers of water,
 that brings forth its fruit in its season;
 its leaf will not wither,
 and whatever he does will prosper.
⁴ The ungodly are not so,
 but are like the chaff
 which the wind drives away.
⁵ Therefore the ungodly will not stand in the judgment,
 nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
⁶ For the LORD knows the way of the righteous,
 but the way of the ungodly will perish.

2 Why do the nations rage,
 and the peoples plot in vain?
² The kings of the earth set themselves,
 and the rulers take counsel together,
 against the LORD
 and against His anointed, saying, ³ "Let us tear off their bonds and cast away their ropes from us."
⁴ He who sits in the heavens laughs;
 the LORD ridicules them.
⁵ Then He will speak to them in His wrath
 and terrify them in His burning anger:
⁶ "I have installed My king
 on Zion, My holy hill."
⁷ I will declare the decree of the LORD:

He said to me, "You are My son;
 this day have I begotten you.

⁸ Ask of Me,
 and I will give you the nations for your inheritance,
 and the ends of the earth for your possession.
⁹ You will break them with a scepter of iron;
 you will dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."
¹⁰ Now then, you kings, be wise;
 be admonished, you judges of the earth.
¹¹ Serve the LORD with fear;
 tremble with trepidation!
¹² Kiss the son, lest He become angry,
 and you perish in the way,
 for His wrath kindles in a flash.
 Blessed are all who seek refuge in Him.

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

3 LORD, how my foes have multiplied!
 Many rise up against me!
² Many are saying about my life,
 "There is no help for him in God." Selah † ³ But You, O LORD, are a shield for me,
 my glory and the One who raises up my head.
⁴ I cried to the LORD with my voice,
 and He answered me from His holy hill. Selah
⁵ I lay down and slept;
 I awoke, for the LORD sustained me.
⁶ I will not be afraid of multitudes of people who have set themselves against me all around.
⁷ Arise, O LORD;
 save me, O my God!
 For You have struck all my enemies on the cheek;
 You have broken the teeth of the wicked.
⁸ Salvation belongs to the LORD.
 Your blessing is on Your people. Selah

For the Music Director. With stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

† Musical term for a pause or change in the music.

4 Hear me when I call,
 O God of my righteousness!
 You have given me relief when I was in distress;
 have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.
 2 O people, how long will you turn my glory into shame?
 How long will you love vanity and seek after lies? Selah
 3 Know that the LORD set apart the faithful for Himself;
 the LORD hears when I call to Him.
 4 Tremble in awe, and do not sin.
 Commune with your own heart on your bed,
 and be still. Selah 5 Offer sacrifices of righteousness, and trust in the LORD.
 6 Many are saying, "Who will show us any good?"
 Lift up the light of Your face over us.
 7 You have placed gladness in my heart that is better than when their corn and their new wine abound.
 8 I will both lie down in peace and sleep;
 for You, LORD,
 make me dwell safely and securely.

For the Music Director. With the flutes. A Psalm of David.

5 Give ear to my words, O LORD;
 consider my meditation.
 2 Listen to the voice of my cry,
 my King and my God,
 for to You will I pray.
 3 O LORD, in the morning You will hear my voice;
 in the morning I will direct my prayer to You,
 and I will watch expectantly.
 4 For You are not a God who has pleasure in wicked-
 ness,
 nor will evil dwell with You.
 5 Those who boast will not stand in Your sight;
 You hate all workers of iniquity.
 6 You will destroy those who speak lies;
 the LORD abhors
 the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.
 7 But as for me, in the abundance of Your mercy
 I will enter Your house;
 in fear of You I will worship
 at Your holy temple.
 8 Lead me, O LORD, in Your righteousness
 because of my enemies;
 make Your way straight before me.
 9 For there is no uprightness in their mouth;
 destruction is in their midst;
 their throat is an open tomb;
 they flatter with their tongue.
 10 Declare them guilty, O God;
 may they fall by their own counsels;
 cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions,

for they have rebelled against You.
 11 But may all those who seek refuge in You rejoice;
 may they ever shout for joy,
 because You defend them;
 may those who love Your name be joyful in You.
 12 For You, LORD, will bless the righteous;
 You surround him with favor like a shield.

For the Music Director. With stringed instruments. According to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

6 O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your anger,
 nor discipline me in the heat of Your anger.
 2 Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am weak;
 O LORD, heal me, for my bones are terrified.
 3 My soul is greatly troubled,
 but You, O LORD, how long?
 4 Return, O LORD, rescue my soul.
 Save me for the sake of Your lovingkindness.
 5 For in death there is no remembrance of You;
 in Sheol who will give You thanks?
 6 I am weary with my groaning;
 all night I flood my bed with weeping;
 I drench my couch with my tears.
 7 My eye wastes away from grief;
 it grows weak because of all those hostile to me.
 8 Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity;
 for the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping.
 9 The LORD has heard my supplication;
 the LORD accepts my prayer.
 10 May all my enemies be ashamed and greatly terrified;
 may they turn back and be suddenly ashamed.

A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjamite.

7 O LORD my God, in You I put my trust;
 save me from all those who persecute me, and deliver me,
 2 lest they tear my soul like a lion,
 rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.
 3 O LORD my God, if I have done this,
 if there is iniquity in the palms of my hands,
 4 if I have repaid evil to him who was at peace with
 me,
 or have delivered my adversary without cause,
 5 then may the enemy pursue my life and overtake
 me;
 may my enemy trample my life to the ground,
 and lay my honor in the dust. Selah
 6 Arise, O LORD, in Your anger;
 rise up because of the rage of my adversaries,
 and awaken Yourself for me; You have commanded justice.
 7 The congregation of the peoples surround You;
 return above it to heaven's heights.
 8 The LORD will judge the peoples;
 grant me justice, O LORD, according to my righteousness,

and according to my integrity within me.
 9 May the evil of the wicked come to an end;
 may You vindicate the righteous one;
 You are a righteous God who examines the minds and hearts.
 10 My defense depends on God,
 who saves the upright in heart.
 11 God is a righteous judge,
 and God has indignation every day.
 12 If one does not repent,
 God will sharpen His sword;
 He has bent His bow and made it ready.
 13 He has prepared for Himself deadly weapons;
 He makes His arrows flaming shafts.
 14 The wicked man writhes in pain of iniquity;
 he has conceived mischief and brought forth falsehood.
 15 He who digs a hole and hollows it will then fall into his own pit.
 16 His mischief will return on his own head;
 his violence will descend on the crown of his own head.
 17 I will thank the LORD according to His righteousness,
 and will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

For the Music Director. According to The Gittith. A Psalm of David.

8 O LORD, our Lord,
 how excellent is Your name in all the earth!
 You have set Your glory
 above the heavens.
 2 Out of the mouth of babes and nursing infants
 You have ordained strength
 because of Your enemies,
 to silence the enemy and the avenger.
 3 When I consider Your heavens,
 the work of Your fingers,
 the moon and the stars,
 which You have established,
 4 what is man that You are mindful of him,
 and the son of man that You attend to him?
 5 For You have made him a little lower than the angels,
 and crowned him with glory and honor.
 6 You have given him dominion over the works of Your hands;
 You have put all things under his feet,
 7 all sheep and oxen,
 and also the beasts of the field, 8 the birds of the air,
 and the fish of the sea,
 and whatever travels the paths of the seas.
 9 O LORD, our Lord,
 how excellent is Your name in all the earth!

For the Music Director. To the melody of "The Death of the Son." A Psalm of David.

9 I will give thanks to You, O LORD, with my whole
 heart;
 I will declare all Your marvelous works.
 2 I will be glad and rejoice in You;
 I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High.
 3 When my enemies are turned back,
 they will stumble and perish at Your presence.
 4 For You have maintained my right and my cause;
 You sat on the throne judging what is right.
 5 You have rebuked the nations,
 You have destroyed the wicked,
 You have wiped out their name forever and ever.
 6 O you enemy, destructions have come to you for a perpetual end.
 You have destroyed cities;
 their memory perished with them.
 7 But the LORD remains forever;
 He has established His throne for judgment.
 8 He will judge the world in righteousness;
 He will give judgment to the peoples in uprightness.
 9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed,
 a refuge in times of trouble.
 10 Those who know Your name will put their trust in
 You,
 for You, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek
 You.
 11 Sing praises to the LORD who dwells in Zion;
 declare His deeds among the people.
 12 He who avenges deaths remembers them;
 He does not forget the cry of the humble.
 13 Be gracious to me, O LORD; consider my trouble
 from those who hate me,
 O You who lifts me up from the gates of death,
 14 that I may recount all Your praise
 in the gates of the daughter of Zion,
 that I may rejoice in Your salvation.
 15 The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made;
 their own foot is caught in the net which they hid.
 16 The LORD is known by the judgment that He executes;
 the wicked one is snared in the work of his own hands. Meditation. Selah 17 The wicked will be turned to Sheol, and all the nations that forget God.
 18 For the needy will not always be forgotten,
 nor will the hope of the poor perish forever.
 19 Arise, O LORD, may mortals not prevail;
 let the nations be judged in Your sight.
 20 Put them in fear, O LORD, that the nations themselves may know they are mortals. Selah
 10 Why do You stand far off, O LORD?
 Why do You hide Yourself in times of trouble?
 2 In arrogance the wicked persecutes the poor;
 let them be caught in the devices they have planned.
 3 For the wicked boasts of his soul's desire;

he blesses the greedy and despises the LORD.
⁴ The wicked, through the pride of his countenance,
 will not seek God;
 God is not in all his thoughts.
⁵ His ways are always prosperous;
 Your judgments are high and distant from him;
 as for all his enemies, they scoff at him.
⁶ He says in his heart, "I shall not be moved;
 for generations I shall not meet adversity."
⁷ His mouth is filled with cursing and deceit and oppression;
 under his tongue is mischief and iniquity.
⁸ He sits in the lurking places of the villages;
 in the secret places he murders the innocent;
 his eyes lurk against the unfortunate.
⁹ He lies in wait secretly as a lion in his den;
 he lies in wait to catch the poor;
 he catches the poor, drawing them into his net.
¹⁰ He crouches; he lies low,
 so that the unfortunate fall by his strength.
¹¹ He says in his heart, "God has forgotten;
 He hides His face; He will never see it."
¹² Arise, O LORD! O God, lift up Your hand!
 Do not forget the humble.
¹³ Why do the wicked despise God?
 He says in his heart,
 "You will require an account."
¹⁴ You have seen it, for You observe trouble and grief,
 to repay it with Your hand.
 The unfortunate one entrusts it to You;
 You are the helper of the orphan.
¹⁵ Break the arm of the wicked and the evil man;
 seek out his wickedness
 until You find none.
¹⁶ The LORD is King forever and ever;
 the nations perished from His land.
¹⁷ The desire of the humble You have heard, O LORD;
 You make their heart attentive; You bend Your ear ¹⁸ to judge the orphan and the oppressed;
 man on earth no longer trembles.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

11 In the LORD I seek refuge;
 how do you say to my soul,
 "Flee as a bird to your mountain, ² for the wicked bend their bow;
 they make ready their arrow on the string,
 that they may treacherously shoot
 the upright in heart.
³ If the foundations are broken,
 what can the righteous do?"
⁴ The LORD is in His holy temple,
 His throne is in heaven;
 His eyes see,
 His eyes examine mankind.
⁵ The LORD tests the righteous,
 but the wicked and one who loves violence
 His soul hates.

⁶ Upon the wicked He will rain
 coals of fire and brimstone and a burning wind;
 this will be the portion of their cup.
⁷ For the righteous LORD
 loves righteousness;
 His countenance beholds the upright.

For the Music Director. According to The Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

12 Help, LORD, for the godly man comes to an end,
 for the faithful disappear from sons of men.
² They speak empty words, each with his own neighbor;
 they speak with flattering lips and a double heart.
³ The LORD will cut off all flattering lips,
 and the tongue that speaks proud things,
⁴ who have said, "With our tongue will we prevail;
 our lips are in our control, who is master over us?"
⁵ "Because the poor are plundered,
 because the needy sigh,
 now I will arise," says the LORD;
 "I will place him in the safety for which he yearns."
⁶ The words of the LORD are pure words;
 they are silver tried in an earthen furnace refined seven times.
⁷ You will keep them, O LORD;
 You will preserve them from this generation.
⁸ The wicked walk on every side,
 when the worthless of mankind are exalted.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

13 How long, O LORD? Will You forget me for good?
 How long will you hide Your face from me?
² How long will I harbor cares in my soul
 and sorrow in my heart by day?
 How long will my enemy loom over me?
³ Take note and answer me, O LORD my God!
 Brighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death,
⁴ lest my enemy say, "I have him,"
 lest my foes exult when I stumble.
⁵ I for my part confide in Your kindness;
 may my heart exult in Your salvation!
⁶ I will sing to the LORD,
 because He has dealt bountifully with me.
 Ps 53:1-6

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

14 The fool has said in his heart,
 "There is no God."
 They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds,
 there is none who does good.
² The LORD looks down from heaven
 on the children of men,
 to see if there are any who understand,
 who seek God.
³ They all turn aside,
 together they become corrupt;

there is none who does good,
not even one.
4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
who eat my people as they eat bread,
but do not call on the LORD?
5 There they were in great fear,
for God is with the generation of the righteous.
6 You shame the counsel of the poor,
but the LORD is his refuge.
7 Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!
When the LORD turns back the captivity of His people,
Jacob will rejoice, and Israel will be glad.

A Psalm of David.

15 LORD, who will abide in Your tabernacle?
Who will dwell in Your holy hill?
2 He who walks uprightly,
and does righteousness,
and speaks truth in his heart;
3 he who does not slander with the tongue
and does no evil to his neighbor,
nor bears a reproach against his friend;
4 in whose eyes a vile person is despised,
but who honors those who fear the LORD;
he who swears to avoid evil
and does not change;
5 he who does not put his money out to usury,
nor take a bribe against the innocent.
He who does these things will never be moved.

A Miktam of David.

16 Preserve me, O God,
for in You I take refuge.
2 I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord;
my welfare has no existence outside of You."
3 For the holy ones who are in the land,
they are the majestic ones; in them is all my delight.
4 Those who chase after other gods,
their sorrows will be multiplied;
their drink offerings of blood I will not offer,
nor lift their names on my lips.
5 The LORD is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup;
You support my lot.
6 The lines have fallen for me in pleasant places;
yes, an inheritance is beautiful for me.
7 I will bless the LORD who has given me counsel;
my affections also instruct me in the night seasons.
8 I have set the LORD always before me;
because He is at my right hand,
I will not be moved.
9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices;
my flesh also will rest in security.
10 For You will not leave my soul in Sheol,
nor will You suffer Your godly one to see corruption.

11 You will make known to me the path of life;
in Your presence is fullness of joy;
at Your right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

A Prayer of David.

17 Hear a just cause, O LORD, attend to my cry;
give ear to my prayer
that is not spoken from deceitful lips.
2 May my sentence go out from Your presence;
may Your eyes see rightly.
3 You have examined my heart; You have visited me in the night;
You have tried me and found nothing;
I have purposed that my mouth will not transgress.
4 Concerning the works of men,
by the word of Your lips
I have avoided
the paths of the violent, 5 placing my steps in Your paths,
that my footsteps do not slip.
6 I called on You, for You will answer me, O God;
incline Your ear to me, and hear my speech.
7 Show marvelously Your lovingkindness,
O Deliverer of those who seek refuge
by Your right hand from those who arise in opposition.
8 Keep me as the apple of Your eye;
hide me under the shadow of Your wings, 9 from the wicked who bring ruin to me,
from my deadly enemies who surround me.
10 They close their hard hearts;
with their mouth they speak proudly.
11 They have now encircled us in our steps;
they have set their eyes to bend down to the earth;
12 it is like a lion that is anxious to rip its prey,
and as a young lion lurking in secrecy.
13 Arise, O LORD! Confront him, cast him down!
Deliver my soul from the wicked by Your sword, 14 from men by Your hand, O LORD,
from men of the world whose portion is in this life.
You fill their belly with Your treasure;
they are satisfied with children,
and they leave their abundance to their infants.
15 As for me, I will see Your face in righteousness;
I will be satisfied when I awake with Your likeness.

2Sa 22:1-51

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David the servant of the LORD. He spoke to the LORD the words of this song on the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said:

18 I love You, O LORD, my strength.
2 The LORD is my pillar, and my fortress, and my deliverer;
my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge;
my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.

³ I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised,
 and I will be saved from my enemies.
⁴ The cords of death encircled me,
 and the torrents of destruction terrified me.
⁵ The cords of Sheol surrounded me;
 the snares of death confronted me.
⁶ In my distress I called on the LORD,
 and cried for help to my God;
 He heard my voice from His temple,
 and my cry for help came before Him to His ears.
⁷ Then the earth shook and quaked;
 the foundations of the hills also moved;
 they reeled because His anger burned.
⁸ Smoke went up out of His nostrils,
 and fire from His mouth devoured;
 coals were kindled by it.
⁹ He bent the heavens and came down,
 and darkness was under His feet.
¹⁰ He rode on a cherub, and flew;
 He flew swiftly on the wings of the wind.
¹¹ He made darkness His secret place;
 His pavilion was surrounding Him,
 dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.
¹² At the brightness before Him His thick clouds passed by,
 hailstones and coals of fire.
¹³ The LORD also thundered in the heavens,
 and the Most High gave His voice,
 hailstones and coals of fire.
¹⁴ He sent out His arrows and scattered them,
 and He shot out lightning and distressed them.
¹⁵ Then the channels of waters appeared,
 and the foundations of the world were discovered
 at Your rebuke, O LORD,
 at the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.
¹⁶ He sent from above, He took me;
 He drew me out of many waters.
¹⁷ He delivered me from my strong enemy,
 and from those who hated me,
 for they were too strong for me.
¹⁸ They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
 but the LORD was my support.
¹⁹ He also brought me forth into a large place;
 He delivered me because He delighted in me.
²⁰ The LORD rewarded me according to my righteous-
 ness;
 according to the cleanness of my hands He has repaid me.
²¹ For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
 and have not wickedly departed from my God.
²² For all His judgments were before me,
 and I did not put away His statutes from me.
²³ I was also upright before Him,
 and I kept myself from my iniquity.
²⁴ Therefore the LORD has repaid me according to my righteousness,
 according to the cleanness of my hands in His view.
²⁵ With the merciful You will show Yourself merciful;

with the blameless man You will show Yourself
 blameless;
²⁶ with the pure You will show Yourself pure;
 and with the crooked You will show Yourself
 crooked.
²⁷ For You will save the afflicted people,
 but will bring down prideful eyes.
²⁸ For You will cause my lamp to shine;
 the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.
²⁹ For by You I can run through a troop,
 and by my God I can leap a wall.
³⁰ As for God, His way has integrity;
 the word of the LORD is proven;
 He is a shield
 to all those who take refuge in Him.
³¹ For who is God except the LORD?
 Or who is a rock besides our God?
³² It is God who clothes me with strength,
 and gives my way integrity.
³³ He makes my feet like the feet of a deer,
 and causes me to stand on my high places.
³⁴ He trains my hands for war,
 so that my arms bend a bow of bronze.
³⁵ You have given me the shield of Your salvation,
 and Your right hand has held me up,
 and Your gentleness has made me great.
³⁶ You have lengthened my stride under me,
 so that my feet did not slip.
³⁷ I pursued my enemies and overtook them;
 I did not return until they were destroyed.
³⁸ I wounded them, and they were not able to rise;
 they are fallen under my feet.
³⁹ For You clothed me with strength for the battle;
 You subdued under me those who rose up against
 me.
⁴⁰ You gave me the necks of my enemies,
 and I destroyed those who hate me.
⁴¹ They cried for help, but there was none to save
 them;
 even to the LORD, but He did not answer them.
⁴² Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind;
 I cast them out as the dirt in the streets.
⁴³ You have delivered me from the hostilities of the people,
 and You have made me the head of nations;
 a people whom I have not known serve me.
⁴⁴ At hearing a report, they obey me;
 foreigners come cringing to me.
⁴⁵ Foreigners fade away,
 and come quaking out of their prisons.
⁴⁶ The LORD lives! And blessed be my Rock!
 May the God of my salvation be exalted.
⁴⁷ It is God who avenges me
 and subdues the people under me;
⁴⁸ He delivers me from my enemies.
 You lift me up above those who rise up against me;
 You have delivered me from the violent man.

⁴⁹ Therefore I will give thanks to You, O LORD,
among the nations,
and sing praises to Your name.
⁵⁰ He gives great deliverance to His king,
and shows lovingkindness to His anointed,
to David and to his descendants for evermore.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

19 The heavens declare the glory of God,
and the firmament shows His handiwork.
² Day unto day utters speech,
and night unto night declares knowledge.
³ There is no speech and there are no words;
their voice is not heard.
⁴ Their line has gone out through all the earth,
and their words to the end of the world.
In them has He set a tent for the sun,
⁵ which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber;
it rejoices as a strong man to run a race.
⁶ Its going forth is from one end of the heavens,
and its circuit extends to the other end,
and there is nothing hidden from its heat.
⁷ The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul;
the testimony of the LORD is sure,
making wise the simple;
⁸ the statutes of the LORD are right,
rejoicing the heart;
the commandment of the LORD is pure,
enlightening the eyes;
⁹ the fear of the LORD is clean,
enduring forever;
the judgments of the LORD are true
and righteous altogether.
¹⁰ More to be desired are they than gold,
yes, than much fine gold;
sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
¹¹ Moreover by them is Your servant warned,
and by keeping them comes great reward.
¹² Who can understand his errors?
Cleanse me from secret faults.
¹³ Keep back Your servant also from presumptuous sins;
may they not rule over me.
Then I will be upright
and innocent from great transgression.
¹⁴ Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
be acceptable in Your sight,
O LORD, my strength and my Redeemer.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

20 May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble;
may the name of the God of Jacob defend you;
² may He send you help from the sanctuary,
and strengthen you from Zion;
³ may He remember all your offerings,

and accept your burnt offering. Selah
⁴ May He grant you according to your own heart, and fulfill all your counsel.
⁵ We will rejoice in your salvation,
and in the name of our God we will set up our banners;
may the LORD fulfill all your petitions.
⁶ Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed;
He will answer him from His holy heaven
with the saving strength of His right hand.
⁷ Some trust in chariots, and some in horses,
but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.
⁸ They are brought down and fallen,
but we arise and stand upright.
⁹ Save, LORD!
May the King answer us when we call.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

21 The king will rejoice in Your strength, O LORD, and in Your salvation how greatly will he rejoice!
² You have given him his heart's desire,
and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah
³ For You meet him with the blessings of goodness;
You set a crown of pure gold on his head.
⁴ He asked life of You, and You gave it him,
length of days forever and ever.
⁵ His glory is great in Your salvation;
honor and majesty You set on him.
⁶ For You place blessings on him forever;
You make him rejoice with gladness with Your presence.
⁷ For the king trusts in the LORD,
and by the lovingkindness of the Most High
he will not be moved.
⁸ Your hand will find out all Your enemies;
Your right hand will find out those who hate You.
⁹ You will make them as a fiery oven
in the time of Your appearance;
the LORD will swallow them up in His wrath,
and fire will devour them.
¹⁰ You will destroy their offspring from the earth, and their descendants from among the children of men.
¹¹ For they intended evil against You;
they devised evil thoughts they will not be able to accomplish.
¹² For You will make them turn their back, when You aim with Your bowstrings against their face.
¹³ Be exalted, LORD, by Your strength;
may we sing and make music to Your might.

For the Music Director. To the melody of "The Doe of the Dawn." A Psalm of David.

22 My God, my God, why have You forsaken me?
Why are You so far from delivering me,

and from my roaring words of distress?
² O my God, I cry in the daytime, but You do not answer;
 and at night, but I have no rest.
³ But You are holy,
 O You who inhabits the praises of Israel.
⁴ Our fathers trusted in You;
 they trusted, and You did deliver them.
⁵ They cried to You and were delivered;
 they trusted in You and were not put to shame.
⁶ But I am a worm, and not a man;
 a reproach of men and despised by the people.
⁷ All who see me laugh me to scorn;
 they sneer with the lip, they shake the head, saying,
⁸ "Trust in the LORD ,
 let Him deliver him;
 let Him rescue him,
 seeing He delights in him."
⁹ But You are He who took me out of the womb;
 You caused me to trust
 while I was on my mother's breasts.
¹⁰ I was cast on You from birth;
 You are my God from my mother's womb.
¹¹ Be not far from me
 for trouble is near,
 for there is none to help.
¹² Many bulls encircle me;
 strong bulls of Bashan surround me.
¹³ They open their mouths against me,
 as a preying and roaring lion.
¹⁴ I am poured out like water,
 and all my bones are out of joint;
 my heart is like wax;
 it is melted inside my body.
¹⁵ My strength is dried up like a potsherd,
 and my tongue cleaves to my jaws;
 and You have set me toward the dust of death.
¹⁶ For dogs have encompassed me;
 the assembly of the wicked has enclosed me;
 like a lion they pin my hands and my feet;
¹⁷ I can count all my bones;
 they look and stare on me.
¹⁸ They part my garments among them
 and cast lots for my clothes.
¹⁹ But do not be far from me, O LORD ;
 O my Help, hasten to my aid.
²⁰ Rescue my soul from the sword,
 my only life from the power of the dog.
²¹ Save me from the lion's mouth,
 and from the horns of the wild ox, answer me!
²² I will declare Your name to my community;
 in the midst of the congregation I will praise You.
²³ You who fear the LORD , praise Him;
 all you descendants of Jacob, glorify Him,
 and stand in awe of Him, all you descendants of Israel.
²⁴ For He has not despised nor abhorred
 the affliction of the afflicted;

nor has He hid His face from him;
 but when he cried to Him, He heard.
²⁵ From You my praise will be in the great congregation;
 I will pay my vows before those who fear Him.
²⁶ The meek will eat and be satisfied;
 those who seek Him will praise the LORD .
 May your hearts live forever.
²⁷ All the ends of the world will remember and turn to the LORD , and all the families of the nations
 will worship before You.
²⁸ For kingship belongs to the LORD ,
 and He rules among the nations.
²⁹ All the prosperous ones of the earth will eat and worship;
 all who go down to the dust will bow before Him,
 even he who cannot keep his own soul alive.
³⁰ Posterity will serve Him;
 it will be told to generations about the Lord;
³¹ they will come and declare His righteousness
 to a people yet to be born, that He has acted.

A Psalm of David.

23 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
² He makes me lie down in green pastures;
 He leads me beside still waters.
³ He restores my soul;
 He leads me in paths of righteousness
 for His name's sake.
⁴ Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil;
 for You are with me;
 Your rod and Your staff,
 they comfort me.
⁵ You prepare a table before me
 in the presence of my enemies;
 You anoint my head with oil;
 my cup runs over.
⁶ Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
 all the days of my life,
 and I will dwell in the house of the LORD
 forever.

A Psalm of David.

24 The earth belongs to the LORD , and its fullness,
 the world, and those who dwell in it.
² For He has founded it on the seas,
 and established it on the floods.
³ Who may ascend the hill of the LORD ?
 Who may stand in His holy place?
⁴ He who has clean hands and a pure heart;
 who has not lifted up his soul unto vanity,
 nor sworn deceitfully.
⁵ He will receive the blessing from the LORD ,
 and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

⁶ This is Jacob, the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face. Selah

⁷ Lift up your heads, O you gates;
and be lifted up, you everlasting doors,
that the King of glory may enter.

⁸ Who is this King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
the LORD mighty in battle.

⁹ Lift up your heads, O you gates;
lift up, you everlasting doors,
that the King of glory may enter.

¹⁰ Who is He—this King of glory?
The LORD of Hosts,
He is the King of glory. Selah

A Psalm of David.

25 To You, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

² O my God, I trust in You;
may I not be ashamed;
may my enemies not triumph over me.

³ Yes, let none who wait on You be ashamed;
let them be ashamed
who transgress without cause.

⁴ Make me to know Your ways, O LORD;
teach me Your paths.

⁵ Lead me in Your truth and teach me,
for You are the God of my salvation;
on You I wait all the day.

⁶ Remember Your mercies, O LORD, and Your lovingkindness,
for they are from old.

⁷ Do not remember the sins of my youth
or my transgressions;
according to Your lovingkindness remember me,
on account of Your goodness, O LORD.

⁸ Good and upright is the LORD;
therefore He will teach sinners in the way.

⁹ The meek will He guide in judgment,
and the meek He will teach His way.

¹⁰ All the paths of the LORD are lovingkindness and
truth,
for those who keep His covenant and His testimonies.

¹¹ For Your name's sake, O LORD, pardon my iniquity, for it is great.

¹² Who is the man who fears the LORD?
He will teach him in the way He should choose.

¹³ He will dwell at ease,
and his descendants will inherit the land.

¹⁴ The counsel of the LORD is with those who fear
him,
and He will make His covenant known to them.

¹⁵ My eyes are ever toward the LORD,
for He will lead my feet from the net.

¹⁶ Turn to me, and be gracious to me,
for I am isolated and afflicted.

¹⁷ The troubles of my heart are enlarged;

bring me out of my distresses.

¹⁸ Look on my pain and misery,
and forgive all my sins.

¹⁹ Consider my enemies, for they are many,
and they hate me with violent hatred.

²⁰ Watch over my life, and deliver me!
Let me not suffer shame,
for I seek refuge in You.

²¹ Truth and integrity will preserve me
while I wait for You.

²² Redeem Israel, O God,
out of all their troubles.

A Psalm of David.

26 Judge me, O LORD,
for I have walked in my integrity.

I have trusted in the LORD;
I will not slip.

² Examine me, O LORD, and test me;
try my affections and my heart.

³ For Your lovingkindness is before my eyes,
and I have walked in Your truth.

⁴ I have not sat with the worthless,
nor will I go with hypocrites.

⁵ I have hated the congregation of evildoers,
and will not sit with the wicked.

⁶ I will wash my hands in innocence;
thus I will go around Your altar, O LORD,

⁷ that I may proclaim with the voice of thanksgiving,
and tell of all Your wondrous works.

⁸ LORD, I have loved the refuge of Your house, and the place where Your honor dwells.

⁹ Do not gather my soul with sinners,
nor my life with murderers,

¹⁰ in whose hands is wickedness,
and their right hand is full of bribes.

¹¹ But as for me, I will walk in my integrity;
redeem me and be gracious to me.

¹² My foot stands in an even place;
with the congregations I will bless the LORD.

A Psalm of David.

27 The LORD is my light and my salvation;
whom will I fear?

The LORD is the strength of my life;
of whom will I be afraid?

² When the wicked came against me to eat my flesh—

my enemies and my foes—
they stumbled and fell.

³ Though an army should encamp against me,
my heart will not fear;

though war should rise against me,
in this will I be confident.

⁴ One thing I have asked from the LORD, that will I seek after—

for me to dwell in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,

to see the beauty of the LORD ,
 and to inquire in His temple.
 5 For in the time of trouble
 He will hide me in His pavilion;
 in the shelter of His tabernacle He will hide me;
 He will set me up on a rock.
 6 Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies encircling me;
 therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tabernacle;
 I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD .
 7 Hear, O LORD , when I cry with my voice!
 Be gracious to me and answer me.
 8 When You said, "Seek My face," my heart said to You, "Your face, LORD , I will seek."
 9 Do not hide Your face far from me;
 do not thrust Your servant away in anger;
 You have been my help.
 Do not leave me nor forsake me,
 O God of my salvation.
 10 If my father and my mother forsake me,
 then the LORD will take me in.
 11 Teach me Your way, O LORD ,
 and lead me in an upright path,
 because of my enemies.
 12 Do not deliver me to the will of my enemies;
 for false witnesses have risen against me,
 and they breathe out violence.
 13 I believe
 I will see the goodness of the LORD
 in the land of the living.
 14 Wait on the LORD ;
 be strong, and may your heart be stout;
 wait on the LORD .

A Psalm of David.

28 To You, O LORD , will I cry;
 my Rock, do not be silent to me;
 lest if You were silent to me, then I would become like those who go down to the pit.
 2 Hear the voice of my supplications
 when I cry to You,
 when I lift up my hands
 toward Your most holy place.
 3 Do not draw me away with the wicked
 and with the workers of iniquity,
 who speak peace to their neighbors,
 but mischief is in their hearts.
 4 Give them according to their deeds,
 and according to the wickedness of their endeavors;
 give them according to the work of their hands;
 return to them what they deserve.
 5 Because they do not regard the works of the LORD ,
 nor the work of His hands,
 He will destroy them
 and not build them up.
 6 Blessed be the LORD ,
 because He has heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield;
 my heart trusted in Him, and I was helped;
 therefore my heart rejoices,
 and with my song I will thank Him.
 8 The LORD is the strength of His people,
 and He is the saving strength of His anointed.
 9 Save Your people,
 and bless Your inheritance;
 feed them and lift them up forever.

A Psalm of David.

29 Give to the LORD , you heavenly beings,
 give to the LORD glory and strength.
 2 Give to the LORD the glory of His name;
 worship the LORD in holy splendor.
 3 The voice of the LORD is over the waters;
 the God of glory thunders;
 the LORD is over many waters.
 4 The voice of the LORD sounds with strength;
 the voice of the LORD —with majesty.
 5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars;
 the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon.
 6 He makes them skip like a calf,
 Lebanon and Sirion like a wild ox.
 7 The voice of the LORD flashes like flames of fire.
 8 The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness;
 the LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh.
 9 The voice of the LORD makes the deer to give birth,
 and strips the forests bare;
 and in His temple everyone says, "Glory!"
 10 The LORD sits enthroned above the flood,
 the LORD sits as King forever.
 11 The LORD will give strength to His people;
 the LORD will bless His people with peace.

A Psalm of David. A Song at the dedication of the temple.

30 I will extol You, O LORD , for You have drawn me up,
 and have not caused my foes to rejoice over me.
 2 O LORD my God, I cried to You, and You healed me.
 3 O LORD , You have brought up my soul from the grave;
 You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
 4 Sing to the LORD , O you saints of His,
 and give thanks at the remembrance of His holiness.
 5 For His anger endures but a moment,
 in His favor is life;
 weeping may endure for a night,
 but joy comes in the morning.
 6 In my prosperity I said,
 "I will never be moved."
 7 LORD , by Your favor
 You had set me strong as a mountain;
 You hid Your face,

and I was terrified.
⁸ I cried to You, O LORD,
 and to the LORD I made supplication:
⁹ "What profit is there in my death,
 if I go down to the pit?
 Will the dust give You thanks?
 Will it declare Your truth?
¹⁰ Hear, O LORD, and be gracious to me;
 LORD, be my helper."
¹¹ For You have turned my mourning into dancing;
 You have put off my sackcloth and girded me with gladness,
¹² so that my glory may sing praise to You and not be silent.
 O LORD my God, I will give thanks to You forever.

Ps 71:1-3

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

31 In You, O LORD, do I seek refuge;
 may I never be ashamed;
 deliver me in Your righteousness.
² Incline Your ear to me;
 deliver me speedily;
 be my strong rock,
 a strong fortress to save me.
³ For You are my rock and my fortress;
 for Your name's sake lead me and guide me.
⁴ Lead me out of the net that they have hidden for
 me,
 for You are my strength.
⁵ Into Your hand I commit my spirit;
 You have redeemed me, O LORD, God of truth.
⁶ I have hated those who regard worthless vanity,
 but I trust in the LORD.
⁷ I will be glad and rejoice in Your lovingkindness,
 for You have seen my trouble;
 You have known my soul in adversities, ⁸ and have not delivered me up into the hand of the enemy;
 You have set my feet in a broad place.
⁹ Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am in trouble;
 my eye wastes away with grief,
 yes, my soul and my body.
¹⁰ For my life is spent with grief,
 and my years with sighing;
 my strength fails because of my iniquity,
 and my bones waste away.
¹¹ I became a reproach among all my enemies,
 but especially among my neighbors,
 and a dread to my acquaintances;
 those who saw me outside fled from me.
¹² I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind;
 I am like a broken vessel.
¹³ For I have heard the slander of many;
 fear was on every side;
 while they took counsel together against me,
 they planned to take away my life.
¹⁴ But I trusted in You, O LORD;

I said, "You are my God."
¹⁵ My times are in Your hand;
 deliver me from the hand of my enemies
 and my pursuers.
¹⁶ Make Your face to shine on Your servant;
 save me by Your lovingkindness.
¹⁷ Do not let me be ashamed, O LORD,
 for I have called on You;
 let the wicked be ashamed,
 and let them be silent in the grave.
¹⁸ Let the lying lips be put to silence,
 who speak arrogantly
 in pride and contempt against the righteous.
¹⁹ Oh, how great is Your goodness,
 which You have laid up for those who fear You,
 which You have done for those seeking refuge in You before people!
²⁰ You will hide them in the secret of Your presence
 from conspirators;
 You will keep them secretly in a shelter
 from the strife of tongues.
²¹ Blessed be the LORD,
 for He has shown me His marvelous lovingkindness
 in a fortified city.
²² For I said in my haste,
 "I am cut off from before Your eyes."
 Nevertheless You heard the voice of my supplications
 when I cried to You.
²³ Oh, love the LORD, all you His saints,
 for the LORD preserves the faithful,
 but amply repays the one who acts in pride.
²⁴ Be strong, and He will strengthen your heart,
 all you who wait for the LORD.

A Psalm of David. A Contemplative Maskil.

32 Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven,
 whose sin is covered.
² Blessed is the man
 against whom the LORD does not count iniquity,
 and in whose spirit there is no deceit.
³ When I kept silent,
 my bones wasted away
 through my groaning all day long.
⁴ For day and night
 Your hand was heavy on me;
 my strength was changed
 into the drought of summer. Selah
⁵ I acknowledged my sin to You,
 and my iniquity I did not conceal.
 I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
 and You forgave
 the iniquity of my sin. Selah
⁶ For this cause everyone who is godly will pray to You in a time when You may be found;
 surely in the floods of great waters
 they will not reach him.

⁷ You are my hiding place;
 You will preserve me from trouble;
 You will surround me with shouts of deliverance. Selah

⁸ I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;

I will counsel you with my eye on you.

⁹ Do not be as the horse or as the mule that are without understanding,
 that must be restrained with bit and bridle,
 or they will not come near you.

¹⁰ Many sorrows come to the wicked,
 but lovingkindness will surround
 the man who trusts in the LORD .

¹¹ Be glad in the LORD , and rejoice, you righteous
 one;
 and shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

The Sovereignty of the LORD .

33 Rejoice in the LORD , O you righteous,
 for praise is fitting for the upright.

² Give thanks to the LORD with the harp;
 make music to Him with an instrument of ten strings.

³ Sing to Him a new song;
 play an instrument skillfully with a joyful shout.

⁴ For the word of the LORD is upright,
 and all His work is done in truth.

⁵ He loves righteousness and justice;
 the earth is full of the lovingkindness of the LORD .

⁶ By the word of the LORD the heavens were made,
 and all their host by the breath of His mouth.

⁷ He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap;

He puts the depths in storehouses.

⁸ Let all the earth fear the LORD ;
 let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of
 Him.

⁹ For He spoke, and it was done;
 He commanded, and it stood fast.

¹⁰ The LORD frustrates the counsel of the nations;
 He restrains the purposes of the people.

¹¹ The counsel of the LORD stands forever,
 the purposes of His heart to all generations.

¹² Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD ,
 the people whom He has chosen as His inheritance.

¹³ The LORD looks from heaven;
 He sees all the sons of men.

¹⁴ From the place of His habitation He gazes
 on all the inhabitants of the earth;

¹⁵ He fashions their hearts alike;
 He considers all their works.

¹⁶ No king is saved by a great army;
 a mighty man is not delivered by great strength.

¹⁷ A horse is a vain hope for safety;
 it will not deliver by its great strength.

¹⁸ The eye of the LORD is on those who fear Him,
 on those who hope in His lovingkindness,

¹⁹ to deliver their soul from death,
 and to keep them alive in famine.

²⁰ Our soul waits for the LORD ;
 He is our help and our shield.

²¹ For our heart will rejoice in Him,
 because we have trusted in His holy name.

²² Let Your lovingkindness, O LORD , be on us,
 just as we hope in You.

A Psalm of David, when he feigned madness before Abimelek, who drove him away, and he departed.

34 I will bless the LORD at all times;
 His praise will continually be in my mouth.

² My soul will make its boast in the LORD ;
 the humble will hear of it and be glad.

³ Oh, magnify the LORD with me,
 and let us exalt His name together.

⁴ I sought the LORD , and He answered me,
 and delivered me from all my fears.

⁵ They looked to Him and became radiant,
 and their faces are not ashamed.

⁶ This poor man cried, and the LORD heard,
 and saved him out of all his troubles.

⁷ The angel of the LORD camps around those who fear Him,
 and delivers them.

⁸ Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good;
 blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him.

⁹ Oh, fear the LORD , you His saints;
 for the ones who fear Him will not be in need.

¹⁰ The young lions are in want and suffer hunger, but the ones who seek the LORD will not lack any good thing.

¹¹ Come, you children, listen to me;
 I will teach you the fear of the LORD .

¹² Who is the man who desires life,
 and loves a long life in order to see good?

¹³ Keep your tongue from evil,
 and your lips from speaking deceit.

¹⁴ Turn away from evil, and do good;
 seek peace, and pursue it.

¹⁵ The eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their cry.

¹⁶ The face of the LORD is against the ones doing evil,
 to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

¹⁷ The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears,
 and delivers them out of all their troubles.

¹⁸ The LORD is near to the broken-hearted,
 and saves the contrite of spirit.

¹⁹ Many are the afflictions of the righteous,
 but the LORD delivers him out of them all.

²⁰ A righteous one keeps all his bones;
 not one of them is broken.

²¹ Evil will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned.

²² The LORD redeems the life of His servants, and all who take refuge in Him will not be punished.

A Psalm of David.

35 Plead my cause, O LORD, with my adversaries;
fight those who fight me.
² Take hold of the large shield and small shield,
and rise up for my help.
³ Draw the spear and javelin against those who pursue me.
 Say to my soul,
 "I am Your salvation."
⁴ May those who seek my life
be ashamed and humiliated;
 may those who plan my injury
be turned back and put to shame.
⁵ May they be as chaff before the wind,
and may the angel of the LORD cast them down.
⁶ May their way be dark and slippery,
and may the angel of the LORD pursue them.
⁷ For without cause they have hidden their net for me in a pit,
 which they have dug without cause for my soul.
⁸ Let destruction come on him without warning,
and let the net that he hid ensnare him;
 let him fall into it, to his destruction.
⁹ My soul will be joyful in the LORD;
it will rejoice in His salvation.
¹⁰ All my bones will say,
 "LORD, who is like You,
 who delivers the poor from a stronger one,
 the poor and the needy from the one who robs
them?"
¹¹ Witnesses intent on violence rose up;
 they accused me of things I knew nothing about.
¹² They rewarded me evil for good,
 the bereavement of my soul.
¹³ But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth;
 I humbled my soul with fasting;
 and my prayer returns to my own heart.
¹⁴ I paced as though he were my friend or brother;
 I bowed down lamenting,
 as one who mourns for a mother.
¹⁵ But in my adversity they rejoiced and gathered together;
 assailants gathered together against me, though I was unaware;
 they tore me apart and did not stop;
¹⁶ with hypocritical mockers in feasts,
 they gnashed on me with their teeth.
¹⁷ Lord, how long will You look on?
 Rescue my soul from their destructions,
 my life from the lions.
¹⁸ I will give You thanks in the great congregation;
 I will praise You among a mighty people.
¹⁹ May my deceitful enemies
 not rejoice over me;
 nor may those who hate me without cause
 wink with their eye.
²⁰ For they do not speak peace,

but they devise deceitful matters
 against the restful ones in the land.
²¹ They opened their mouth wide against me,
 and said, "Aha, aha, our eye has seen it."
²² This You have seen, O LORD; do not be silent;
 O Lord, be not far from me.
²³ Rouse Yourself and awake for my judgment,
 for my cause, my God and my Lord.
²⁴ Judge me, O LORD my God, according to Your righteousness,
 and may they not rejoice over me.
²⁵ May they not say in their hearts, "Ah, we have our soul's desire."
 May they not say, "We have swallowed him up."
²⁶ May those who rejoice at my harm be ashamed and altogether put to shame;
 may they be clothed with shame and dishonor
 who magnify themselves against me.
²⁷ May those who favor my righteous cause
 shout for joy and be glad;
 may they say continually, "The LORD be magnified, who delights in the peace of His servant."
²⁸ My tongue will speak of Your righteousness and of Your praise all the day long.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

36 An oracle within my heart
 about the transgression of the wicked:
 There is no fear of God
 before their eyes.
² For they flatter themselves in their own eyes,
 that their iniquity cannot be found out and hated.
³ The words of their mouth are wickedness and deceit;
 they have ceased to be wise and to do good.
⁴ They devise mischief on their bed;
 they set themselves on a path that is not good;
 they do not reject evil.
⁵ Your mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens,
 and Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
⁶ Your righteousness is like the great mountains,
 Your judgments like the great deep;
 O LORD, You preserve man and beast.
⁷ How excellent is Your lovingkindness, O God!
 Therefore mankind
 seeks refuge in the shadow of Your wings.
⁸ They will drink their fill from the abundance of Your house,
 and You will cause them to drink from the river of Your pleasures.
⁹ For with You is the fountain of life;
 in Your light we see light.
¹⁰ Oh, continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You,
 and Your righteousness to the upright in heart.
¹¹ Do not let the foot of the arrogant come against
 me,

and do not let the hand of the wicked cause me to wander.

¹² There the workers of iniquity have fallen;
they are cast down and not able to rise.

A Psalm of David.

37 Do not fret because of evildoers,
nor be jealous of those who do injustice.

² For they will quickly wither like the grass,
and fade like the green herbs.

³ Trust in the LORD, and do good;
dwell in the land, and practice faithfulness.

⁴ Delight yourself in the LORD,
and He will give you the desires of your heart.

⁵ Commit your way to the LORD;
trust also in Him, and He will bring it to pass.

⁶ He will bring forth your righteousness as the light,
and your judgment as the noonday.

⁷ Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for Him;
do not fret because of those who prosper in their way,

because of those who make wicked schemes.

⁸ Let go of anger, and forsake wrath;
do not fret—it surely leads to evil deeds.

⁹ For evildoers will be cut off, but those who hope in the LORD will inherit the
earth.

¹⁰ For yet a little while, and the wicked will not be;
you will look diligently for their place, and it will not be.

¹¹ But the meek will inherit the earth, and will delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

¹² The wicked plot against the righteous,
and grind their teeth against them.

¹³ The Lord will laugh at him,
for He sees that his day is coming.

¹⁴ The wicked have drawn out the sword
and have bent their bow,

to cast down the poor and needy,
and to slay those on the upright path.

¹⁵ Their sword will enter into their own heart,
and their bows will be broken.

¹⁶ Better is a little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked.

¹⁷ For the arms of the wicked will be broken,
but the LORD supports the righteous.

¹⁸ The LORD knows the days of people of integrity,
and their inheritance will be forever.

¹⁹ They will not be ashamed in the evil time,
and in the days of famine they will be satisfied.

²⁰ But the wicked will perish, and the enemies of the LORD will be like the glory of pastures;

they will waste away, in smoke they will waste away.

²¹ The wicked borrows and does not repay,
but the righteous is gracious and gives.

²² For those who are blessed of Him will inherit the
earth,

but those who are cursed of Him will be cut off.

²³ The steps of a man are made firm by the LORD;
He delights in his way.

²⁴ Though he falls, he will not be hurled down,
for the LORD supports him with His hand.

²⁵ I have been young, and now am old;
yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
nor their offspring begging bread.

²⁶ The righteous are gracious and lend,
and their offspring are a source of blessing.

²⁷ Depart from evil and do good,
and abide forevermore.

²⁸ For the LORD loves justice,
and does not forsake His saints;

they are preserved forever,
but the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.

²⁹ The righteous will inherit the land,
and dwell on it forever.

³⁰ The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom,
and their tongue speaks justice.

³¹ The law of their God is in their heart;
none of their steps will slip.

³² The wicked watch the righteous, and seek to kill them.

³³ The LORD will not forsake them to their hand,
nor condemn them when they are judged.

³⁴ Hope in the LORD,
and keep His way,

and He will exalt you to inherit the land;
when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

³⁵ I have seen the wicked in great power,
and spreading himself like a luxuriant tree.

³⁶ Yet he passed away, and he was not;
I sought him, but he could not be found.

³⁷ Mark the blameless man, and consider the upright,
for the end of that man is peace.

³⁸ But the transgressors will be destroyed together;
the end of the wicked is to be cut off.

³⁹ But the salvation of the righteous is from the LORD

He is their refuge in the time of distress.

⁴⁰ The LORD will help them and deliver them;
He will deliver them from the wicked,
and save them, because they take refuge in Him.

A Psalm of David. To bring remembrance.

38 O LORD, do not rebuke me in Your wrath,
nor chasten me in Your hot displeasure.

² For Your arrows pierce me,
and Your hand presses down on me.

³ There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your indignation,

nor is there health in my bones because of my sin.

⁴ For my iniquities have passed over my head;
as a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

⁵ My wounds grow foul and fester

because of my foolishness.
⁶ I am bent, I am bowed down greatly;
 I go mourning all the day long.
⁷ For my sides are filled with burning,
 and there is no soundness in my flesh.
⁸ I am numb and completely crushed;
 I have roared because of the groaning of my heart.
⁹ Lord, all my desire is before You,
 and my sighing is not hidden from You.
¹⁰ My heart throbs, my strength fails me;
 as for the light of my eyes, it also is gone from me.
¹¹ My friends and my companions stand back because of my affliction,
 and those close to me stand at a distance.
¹² The people who seek my life strike at me;
 those who seek my harm speak destruction,
 and plan treacheries all the day long.
¹³ But I, like a deaf man, did not hear;
 and like a dumb man, did not open my mouth.
¹⁴ Thus I was as a man who does not hear,
 and in whose mouth are no reproofs.
¹⁵ For in You, O LORD, do I hope;
 You will answer, O Lord my God.
¹⁶ For I said, "Lest otherwise they should rejoice over
 me.

When my foot slips, they magnify themselves
 against me."

¹⁷ For I am ready to stumble,
 and my pain is continually before me.
¹⁸ For I will declare my iniquity;
 I am anxious because of my sin.
¹⁹ But my enemies are lively, and they are strong;
 and those who wrongfully hate me are many.
²⁰ Those also who repay evil for good are my adversaries,
 because I pursue good.
²¹ Do not abandon me, O LORD;
 O my God, do not be far from me.
²² Make haste to help me,
 O Lord, my salvation.

For the Music Director. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

39 I said, "I will take heed of my ways
 so that I do not sin with my tongue;
 I will keep my mouth muzzled
 while the wicked are before me."
² I was speechless in silence;
 I was silent to no avail,
 but my anguish was stirred up.
³ My heart was hot within me;
 while I was musing, the fire burned,
 then I spoke with my tongue:
⁴ "LORD, make me to know my end,
 and what is the measure of my days,
 that I may know how transient I am.
⁵ Indeed, You have made my days as a handbreadth,
 and my age is as nothing before You;
 indeed every man at his best is as a breath." Selah

⁶ Surely every man walks in a mere shadow;
 surely he goes as a breath;
 he heaps up riches, and does not know who will gather them.

⁷ Now, Lord, what do I wait for?
 My hope is in You.
⁸ Deliver me from all my transgressions;
 do not make me the reproach of the foolish.
⁹ I was speechless, I did not open my mouth,
 because You did it.
¹⁰ Remove Your blow from me;
 I am consumed by the hostility of Your hand.
¹¹ When with rebukes You correct a man for iniquity,
 You consume like a moth what is dear to him;
 surely every man is vapor. Selah
¹² Hear my prayer, O LORD,
 and give ear to my cry;
 do not be silent at my tears,
 for I am a stranger with You,
 and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.
¹³ Turn Your gaze of displeasure from me, that I may smile,
 before I go away and am no more.

Ps 70:1-5

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

40 I waited patiently for the LORD,
 and He turned to me, and heard my cry.
² He also brought me up out of a horrible pit,
 out of the miry clay,
 and set my feet on a rock,
 and established my steps.
³ He has put a new song in my mouth,
 even praise to our God;
 many will see it, and fear,
 and will trust in the LORD.
⁴ Blessed is the man who places trust in the LORD,
 but does not turn toward the proud,
 nor those falling away to falsehood.
⁵ O LORD my God,
 You have done many wonderful works,
 and Your thoughts toward us
 cannot be compared;
 if I would declare and speak of them,
 they are more than can be numbered.
⁶ Sacrifice and offering You did not desire;
 You have opened up my ears to listen.
 Burnt offering and sin offering
 You have not required.
⁷ Then I said, "Behold, I have come;
 in the scroll of the book it is written of me,
⁸ I delight to do Your will, O my God;
 Your law is within my inward parts."
⁹ I have proclaimed righteousness in the great congregation;
 I have not held back my lips,
 O LORD, You know.

¹⁰ I have not hidden Your righteousness within my heart;
I have declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation;
I have not concealed Your lovingkindness and Your truth
from the great congregation.

¹¹ Do not withhold Your compassion from me, O LORD;
may Your lovingkindness and Your truth always guard me.

¹² For innumerable evils have surrounded me;
my iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up;
they are more than the hairs of my head
so that my heart fails me.

¹³ Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me;
O LORD, make haste to help me.

¹⁴ May those seeking to snatch away my life
be ashamed and confounded together;
may those who desire my harm
be driven backward and dishonored.

¹⁵ May those who say to me "Aha, aha!"
be appalled on account of their shame.

¹⁶ May all those who seek You
rejoice and be glad in You;
may those who love Your salvation say continually,
"The LORD is magnified."

¹⁷ But I am poor and needy;
yet the LORD thinks about me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
do not delay, O my God.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

41 Blessed are those who consider the poor;
the LORD will deliver them in the day of trouble.

² The LORD will preserve them and keep them alive,
and they will be blessed on the earth,
and You will not deliver them to the will of their enemies.

³ The LORD will sustain them on the sickbed;
You will restore all his lying down in his illness.

⁴ I said, "LORD, be gracious to me;
heal my soul, for I have sinned against You."

⁵ My enemies speak evil of me:
"When will he die, and his name perish?"

⁶ And if people come to see me, they speak insincerely;
their heart gathers iniquity to itself,
when they go outside, they tell it.

⁷ All who hate me whisper together against me;
they devise harm against me.

⁸ "An evil disease clings to him.
And now that he lies down, he will not rise up again."

⁹ Yes, my own close friend,
in whom I trusted, who ate of my bread,
has lifted up the heel against me.

¹⁰ But You, O LORD, be gracious to me,
and raise me up, that I may repay them.

¹¹ By this I know that You favor me,
because my enemy does not triumph over me.

¹² As for me, You uphold me in my integrity, and set me before You forever.

¹³ Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting and to everlasting.
Amen and Amen.

BOOK TWO

Psalms 42–72

For the Music Director. A Contemplative Maskil of the sons of Korah.

42 As the deer pants after the water brooks,
so my soul pants after You, O God.

² My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When will I come and appear before God?

³ My tears have been my food
day and night,
while they always say to me,
"Where is your God?"

⁴ When I remember these things,
I pour out my soul within me.
For I would travel with the throng of people;
I proceeded with them to the house of God,
with the voice of joy and thanks,
with a multitude making a pilgrimage.

⁵ Why are you cast down, O my soul?
And why are you disquieted in me?

Hope in God,
for I will yet thank Him
for the help of His presence.

⁶ O my God, my soul is cast down within me;
therefore I will remember You
from the land of Jordan,
and of the Hermon, from the hill of Mizar.

⁷ Deep calls to deep
at the noise of Your waterfalls;
all Your waves and Your billows passed over me.

⁸ Yet the LORD will command His lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night His song will be with me,
a prayer to the God of my life.

⁹ I will say to God, my rock,
"Why have You forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning
because of the oppression of the enemy?"

¹⁰ With shattering in my bones,
those harassing me reproach me,
when they say to me every day,
"Where is your God?"

¹¹ Why, my soul, are you cast down?

Why do you groan within me?
 Wait for God;
 I will yet thank Him,
 For He is my deliverance and my God.

43 Vindicate me, O God,
 and plead my cause against an ungodly nation;
 deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

² For You are the God of my refuge;
 why have You rejected me?
 Why do I walk about mourning
 because of the oppression of the enemy?

³ Send out Your light and Your truth.
 Let them lead me;
 let them bring me to Your holy hill,
 and to Your dwelling place.

⁴ Then I will go to the altar of God,
 to the God of my joyful gladness;
 with the harp I will give thanks to You,
 O God, my God.

⁵ Why are you cast down, O my soul?
 And why are you disquieted within me?
 Hope in God;
 for I will yet give Him thanks,
 the salvation of my countenance and my God.

For the Music Director. A Contemplative Maskil of the sons of Korah.

44 We have heard with our ears, O God,
 our fathers have told us
 what work You did in their days,
 in the days of old:

² how You drove out the nations with Your hand,
 and planted others instead;
 how You afflicted peoples,
 and sent them away.

³ For they did not take possession of the land by their own sword,
 nor did their own arm save them;
 but it was Your right hand, and Your arm,
 and the light of Your countenance, because You had favor on them.

⁴ You are my King, O God;
 command deliverances for Jacob.

⁵ Through You we will push down our opponents;
 through Your name we will trample those who rise up against us.

⁶ For I will not trust in my bow,
 nor will my sword save me.

⁷ But You have saved us from our opponents,
 and have put to shame those who hate us.

⁸ In God we boast all the day long,
 and give thanks to Your name forever. Selah

⁹ But You have rejected us and put us to shame, and do not go out with our armies.

¹⁰ You make us to turn back from the opponent,
 and those who hate us make us their spoil.

¹¹ You have placed us like sheep for prey,

and have scattered us among the nations.

¹² You sell Your people for nothing,
 and do not increase Your wealth by their sale.

¹³ You make us a reproach to our neighbors,
 a scorn and a derision to those who surround us.

¹⁴ You make us a byword among the nations,
 a shaking of the head among the people.

¹⁵ All day long my reproach is before me,
 and the shame of my face covers me,

¹⁶ from the voice of him who reproaches and reviles,
 by reason of the enemy and avenger.

¹⁷ All this is come on us,
 yet we have not forgotten You,
 nor have we dealt falsely in Your covenant.

¹⁸ Our heart is not turned back,
 nor have our steps deviated from Your way,
¹⁹ though You have crushed us in the place of jackals,
 and covered us with the shadow of death.

²⁰ If we have forgotten the name of our God,
 or stretched out our hands to a strange god,
²¹ would not God search this out?
 For He knows the secrets of the heart.

²² Yes, for Your sake we are killed all the day long;
 we are considered like sheep for the slaughter.

²³ Awake; why do You sleep, O Lord?
 Arise; do not reject us forever.

²⁴ Why do You hide Your face,
 and forget our affliction and our oppression?

²⁵ For our soul is bowed down to the dust;
 our body cleaves to the earth.

²⁶ Arise, be our help,
 and redeem us for the sake of Your lovingkindness.

For the Music Director. To the melody of "Lilies." A Contemplative Maskil of the sons of Korah. A love song.

45 My heart is overflowing with a good thought;
 I am speaking my works for the king;
 my tongue is the pen of a skilled scribe.

² You are fairer than all the sons of men;
 favor is poured on your lips;
 therefore God has blessed you forever.

³ Gird your sword on your thigh, O mighty one,
 with your splendor and your majesty.

⁴ In your majesty ride prosperously
 because of truth and meekness and righteousness;
 and your right hand will teach you awesome things.

⁵ Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies;
 peoples will fall under you.

⁶ Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
 the scepter of Your kingdom is an upright scepter.

⁷ You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
 therefore God, your God, anointed you with the oil of gladness above your companions.

⁸ All your garments are fragrant with myrrh and aloes
 and cassia;
 from the ivory palaces stringed instruments make you glad.

⁹ Kings' daughters are among your honorable women;
 at your right hand stands the queen in gold of Ophir.
¹⁰ Listen, O daughter, consider and incline your ear;
 forget your own people, and your father's house,
¹¹ and the king will desire your beauty.
 Since he is your lord, bow to him.
¹² The daughter of Tyre will be there with a gift;
 even the rich among the people will entreat your favor.
¹³ The royal daughter is all glorious within her chamber;
 her clothing is plaited gold.
¹⁴ She shall be brought to the king in embroidered garments;
 the virgins, her companions who follow her,
 shall be brought to you.
¹⁵ With gladness and rejoicing they shall be brought;
 they shall enter into the king's palace.
¹⁶ Your sons shall succeed your fathers;
 you will make them princes in all the land.
¹⁷ I will cause your name to be remembered in all generations;
 therefore the people will praise you forever and ever.

*For the Music Director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.
 According to Alamo. A Song.*

46 God is our refuge and strength,
 a well-proven help in trouble.
² Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be removed,
 and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;
³ though its waters roar and foam,
 though the mountains shake with its swelling. Selah
⁴ There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy dwelling place of the Most High.
⁵ God is in the midst of her; she will not be moved;
 God will help her in the early dawn.
⁶ The nations roared; the kingdoms were moved;
 He uttered His voice; the earth melted.
⁷ The LORD of Hosts is with us;
 the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah
⁸ Come, see the works of the LORD, who makes desolations in the earth.
⁹ He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
 He breaks the bow and cuts off the spear;
 He burns the chariot in the fire.
¹⁰ Be still and know that I am God;
 I will be exalted among the nations,
 I will be exalted in the earth.
¹¹ The LORD of Hosts is with us;
 the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

For the Music Director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

47 Clap your hands, all you people!
 Shout to God with a joyful voice.
² For the LORD Most High is awesome;
 He is a great King over all the earth.
³ He subdued peoples under us,
 and nations under our feet.
⁴ He chose our inheritance for us,
 the excellency of Jacob whom He loved. Selah ⁵ God went up with a shout,
 the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
⁶ Sing praises to God, sing praises;
 sing praises to our King, sing praises.
⁷ For God is the King of all the earth;
 sing praises with understanding.
⁸ God reigns over the nations;
 God sits on His holy throne.
⁹ The princes of peoples are gathered together,
 even the people of the God of Abraham.
 For the shields of the earth belong to God;
 He is greatly exalted.

A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

48 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in His holy mountain.
² Beautiful in elevation,
 the joy of the whole earth,
 is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north,
 the city of the great King.
³ God is known in her citadels
 as a refuge.
⁴ For the kings were assembled,
 they passed by together.
⁵ They saw it, and so they were astounded;
 they were alarmed, they hurried away.
⁶ Trembling seized them there,
 and pain like a woman in labor;
⁷ You break the ships of Tarshish with an east wind.
⁸ As we have heard,
 so have we seen
 in the city of the LORD of Hosts,
 in the city of our God;
 God will establish it forever. Selah
⁹ We have thought of Your lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of Your temple.
¹⁰ According to Your name, O God,
 so is Your praise to the ends of the earth;
 Your right hand is full of righteousness.
¹¹ May Mount Zion rejoice, may the daughters of Judah be glad,
 because of Your judgments.
¹² Walk about Zion, and go round about her;
 count her towers;
¹³ mark well her bulwarks;
 consider her citadels;
 that you may tell it to the generation following.
¹⁴ For this God is our God forever and ever;
 He will be our guide even to death.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

49 Hear this, all you people;
 give ear, all you inhabitants of the world,
² both low and high,
 rich and poor together.
³ My mouth will speak wisdom,
 and the meditation of my heart will be understanding.
⁴ I will incline my ear to a parable;
 I will expound my riddle with a harp.
⁵ Why should I fear in the days of evil,
 when the iniquity of my stalkers surrounds me?
⁶ Those who trust in their wealth,
 and boast in the multitude of their riches,
⁷ none of them can by any means redeem the other,
 nor give to God a ransom for anyone,
⁸ for the redemption of their souls is costly;
 even so people cease to exist forever,
⁹ making efforts to live eternally,
 and not see the pit.
¹⁰ For one sees that wise men die,
 together the fool and the brute perish,
 and leave their wealth to others.
¹¹ Their graves become their perpetual homes,
 and their dwelling places to all generations,
 though they call their lands after their own names.
¹² But a man does not abide in honor;
 mankind is like the beasts that come to ruin.
¹³ This is their way, it is their folly;
 yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah
¹⁴ Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol;
 Death shall be their shepherd;
 the upright shall rule over them in the morning,
 and their form shall waste away in Sheol,
 far from their dwelling.
¹⁵ But God shall redeem my soul from the power of Sheol,
 for He shall receive me. Selah ¹⁶ Do not fear when one is made rich,
 when the glory of his house is increased, ¹⁷ for he takes nothing away in death;
 his glory does not descend after him.
¹⁸ Though while he lives he blesses his soul—and men will praise you when you do well for yourself—
¹⁹ that soul will go to the generation of his fathers;
 they will never see light.
²⁰ A man in honor, and yet without understanding,
 is like the animals that perish.

A Psalm of Asaph.

50 The Mighty One, God, is the LORD ;
 He has spoken and summoned the earth
 from the rising of the sun to its setting.
² Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
 God has shined.
³ Our God will come, and will not keep silent;
 a fire consumes before Him,

and a strong tempest is around Him.
⁴ He calls to the heavens above,
 and to the earth, that He may judge His people:
⁵ "Gather My faithful ones together to Me,
 those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice."
⁶ The heavens will declare His righteousness, for God Himself is judge. Selah
⁷ "Hear, O My people, and I will speak,
 O Israel, and I will testify against you;
 I am God, even your God.
⁸ I will not reprove you for your sacrifices or for your burnt offerings that are continually before Me.
⁹ I will take no young bull out of your house,
 nor male goats out of your folds.
¹⁰ For every wild animal of the forest is Mine,
 and the cattle on a thousand hills.
¹¹ I know every bird of the mountains,
 and the creatures that move in the field are Mine.
¹² If I were hungry, I would not tell you;
 for the world is Mine, and all its fullness.
¹³ Will I eat the flesh of bulls,
 or drink the blood of goats?
¹⁴ Sacrifice a thank offering to God,
 and pay your vows to the Most High,
¹⁵ and call on Me in the day of trouble;
 I will deliver you, and you will glorify Me."
¹⁶ But to the wicked God says:
 "What right have you to declare My statutes,
 or take My covenant in your mouth?
¹⁷ You hate instruction,
 and cast My words behind you.
¹⁸ When you see a thief, you are pleased,
 and have a share in those who commit adultery.
¹⁹ You let loose your mouth to evil,
 and your tongue is bound to deceit.
²⁰ You sit and speak against your brother;
 you accuse your own mother's son.
²¹ These things have you done, and I kept silent;
 you thought that I was indeed like you;
 but I will reprove you
 and make a case before your eyes.
²² "Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver:
²³ Whoever sacrifices a thank offering glorifies Me and makes a way;
 I will show him the salvation of God."

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the Prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

51 Have mercy on me, O God,
 according to Your lovingkindness;
 according to the abundance of Your compassion,
 blot out my transgressions.
² Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,

and cleanse me from my sin.
³ For I acknowledge my transgressions,
 and my sin is ever before me.
⁴ Against You, You only, have I sinned,
 and done this evil in Your sight,
 so that You are justified when You speak,
 and You are blameless when You judge.
⁵ I was brought forth in iniquity,
 and in sin my mother conceived me.
⁶ You desire truth in the inward parts, and in the hidden part You make me to know wisdom.
⁷ Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean;
 wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
⁸ Make me to hear joy and gladness,
 that the bones that You have broken may rejoice.
⁹ Hide Your face from my sins,
 and blot out all my iniquities.
¹⁰ Create in me a clean heart, O God,
 and renew a right spirit within me.
¹¹ Do not cast me away from Your presence,
 and do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.
¹² Restore to me the joy of Your salvation,
 and uphold me with Your willing spirit.
¹³ Then I will teach transgressors Your ways,
 and sinners will return to You.
¹⁴ Deliver me from blood guiltiness, O God,
 God of my salvation,
 and my tongue will sing aloud of Your righteousness.
¹⁵ O Lord, open my lips,
 and my mouth will declare Your praise.
¹⁶ For You do not desire sacrifice, or I would give it;
 You do not delight in burnt offering.
¹⁷ The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit;
 a broken and a contrite heart,
 O God, You will not despise.
¹⁸ Do good to Zion in Your good pleasure;
 build the walls of Jerusalem.
¹⁹ Then You will be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness,
 with burnt offering and whole burnt offering;
 then they will offer young bulls on Your altar.

For the Music Director. A Contemplative Maskil. A Psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, "David has come to the house of Ahimelek."

52 Why do you boast in evil, O mighty man?
 The goodness of God endures continually.
² Your tongue devises calamities,
 like a sharp razor, you worker of treachery.
³ You love evil more than good,
 and lying rather than speaking righteousness. Selah
⁴ You love all devouring words,
 O you deceitful tongue.
⁵ God will likewise break you down forever;
 He will snatch you away and pluck you from your home,

and uproot you from the land of the living. Selah
⁶ The righteous also will see and fear,
 and will laugh in contempt,
⁷ "See, this is the man who did not make God his refuge,
 but trusted in the abundance of riches,
 and grew strong in his own wickedness."
⁸ But I am like a green olive tree
 in the house of God;
 I trust in the mercy of God
 forever and ever.
⁹ I will give thanks to You forever, because You have acted;
 and I will wait on Your name,
 for it is good before Your saints.

Ps 14:1-7

For the Music Director. According to Mahalath. A Contemplative Maskil of David.

53 The fool has said in his heart,
 "There is no God."
 They are corrupt, and have done abhorrent injustice;
 there is none who does good.
² God looked down from heaven
 on the children of men,
 to see if there were any who have insight,
 who seek God.
³ Every one of them has turned aside;
 they are altogether corrupt;
 there is no one who does good,
 not even one.
⁴ Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
 who eat up my people as they eat bread,
 and do not call on God?
⁵ There they were in fear,
 where there was nothing to fear,
 for God has scattered the bones of him who camps
 against you;
 you have put them to shame, because God has rejected them.
⁶ Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion!

When God brings back the captivity of His people,
 Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad.

For the Music Director. With stringed instruments. A Contemplative Maskil of David, when the Ziphites went and told Saul, "Is David not hiding among us?"

54 O God, save me by Your name, and judge me by Your strength.
² O God, hear my prayer;
 give ear to the words of my mouth.
³ For strangers rise up against me,
 and formidable adversaries seek my life;
 they do not set God before them. Selah
⁴ God is my helper;
 the Lord is with those who support my life.
⁵ He will repay my enemies for their evil.
 In Your faithfulness, destroy them.

⁶ I will sacrifice a freewill offering to You;
I will give thanks to Your name, O LORD,
for it is good.
⁷ For He has delivered me out of all trouble;
and my eye has looked down on my enemies.

Contemplative Maskil of David.*

55 Give ear to my prayer, O God,
and do not hide Yourself from my supplication.

² Attend to me, and answer me;
I am restless in my complaint, and I murmur,
³ because of the voice of the enemy,
because of the pressure of the wicked,
for they cause trouble to drop on me,
and in wrath they have animosity against me.

⁴ My heart is in pain within me,
and the terrors of death have fallen on me.

⁵ Fear and trembling come into me,
and horror has overwhelmed me.

⁶ I said, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove!
For then I would fly away and be at rest.

⁷ Indeed, then I would wander far off,
and remain in the wilderness. Selah

⁸ I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest."

⁹ Confuse, O Lord, divide their tongues,
for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

¹⁰ Day and night they go around it on its walls;
trouble and sorrow are in its midst.

¹¹ Destruction is in its midst; oppression and treachery do not depart from its streets.

¹² For it is not an enemy who reproaches me;
then I could bear it.
Nor is it one who hates me who has exalted himself
against me;

then I could hide from him.

¹³ But it was you, my peer,
my guide, and my acquaintance.

¹⁴ We took pleasant counsel together,
and walked to the house of God in company.

¹⁵ May death surprise them,
and may their lives go down to Sheol,
for wickedness is in their dwellings and among
them.

¹⁶ As for me, I will call on God,
and the LORD will save me.

¹⁷ Evening and morning and at noon,
I will make my complaint and murmur,
and He will hear my voice.

¹⁸ He has ransomed my life in peace
from the battle against me,
for there were many against me.

¹⁹ God will hear and afflict them,
even He who sits enthroned from of old. Selah
Because they do not change,
therefore they do not fear God.

²⁰ My friend has set his hands against those at peace with him;

he has violated his covenant.

²¹ The words of his mouth were smoother than butter,

but battle was in his heart;
his words were softer than oil,
yet they were drawn swords.

²² Cast your burden on the LORD,
and He will sustain you;

He will never allow
the righteous to be moved.

²³ But You, O God, will cast the wicked down into the pit of destruction;

men of blood and deceitful men will not live out half their days.

But I will trust in You.

For the Music Director. To the melody of "Silent Dove at a Distance." A Miktam of David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

56 Be gracious to me, O God, for man would crush
me;

all day long he who battles oppresses me.

² All day long my enemies would crush me,
for there are many who arrogantly battle against
me.

³ In the day when I am afraid,
I will trust in You.

⁴ In God whose word I praise,
in God I have trusted; I will not fear.

What can mere flesh do to me?

⁵ Every day they twist my words;
all their thoughts are against me for evil.

⁶ They stir up strife, they lurk,
they watch my steps,
when they wait for my life.

⁷ Should there be deliverance for them on account of wickedness?

In Your anger cast down the peoples, O God.

⁸ You take account of my wandering;
put my tears in Your bottle;

are they not in Your book?

⁹ In the day I cry to You,
then my enemies will turn back;
this I know, that God is for me.

¹⁰ In God whose word I praise,
in the LORD whose word I praise,

¹¹ in God I trust, I will not fear;
what can a man do to me?

¹² Your vows are on me, O God;

I will complete them with thank offerings to You;

¹³ for You have delivered my soul from death,
even my feet from stumbling,
to walk before God

in the light of the living.

Ps 108:1-5

For the Music Director. To the melody of "Do Not Destroy." A Miktam of David when he fled from Saul in the cave.

57 Be gracious to me, O God, be gracious to me!
 For my soul seeks refuge in You;
 in the shadow of Your wings I will make my refuge,
 until the ruinous storm passes by.
² I will cry to God Most High,
 to God who vindicates me.
³ He will send from heaven and save me
 from the taunt of the one who crushes me. Selah
 God will send forth His mercy and His truth.
⁴ My soul is among lions,
 and I lie among the sons of men who blaze like fire,
 whose teeth are spears and arrows,
 and their tongue a sharp sword.
⁵ Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
 may Your glory be above all the earth.
⁶ They have prepared a net for my steps;
 my soul is bowed down;
 they have dug a pit before me,
 but they have fallen into it. Selah
⁷ My heart is fixed, O God,
 my heart is fixed;
 I will sing and give praise.
⁸ Awake, my glory!
 Awake, psaltery and harp!
 I will awake the dawn.
⁹ I will thank You, O Lord, among the peoples;
 I will sing to You among the nations.
¹⁰ For Your mercy is great up to the heavens,
 and Your truth extends to the clouds.
¹¹ Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;
 may Your glory be above all the earth.

For the Music Director. To the melody of "Do Not Destroy." A Miktam of David.

58 Do you truly speak righteousness, O heavenly gods?
 Do you judge uprightly, O earthly men?
² Indeed, in the heart you work wickedness;
 you weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.
³ The wicked are estranged from the womb onward;
 those who speak lies go astray from birth.
⁴ Their poison is like the poison of a serpent;
 they are like the deaf adder that plugs its ear,
⁵ and will not listen to the voice of charmers,
 even the best and wisest enchanter.
⁶ Break their teeth in their mouth, O God;
 break out the great teeth of the young lions, O
LORD.
⁷ May they melt away as waters which run continually;
 when he bends his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be trodden under.
⁸ May they become as a snail that melts as it goes,

like the untimely birth of a woman, may they not see the sun.

⁹ Before your pots can feel the thorns' heat, green or burning,
 may He sweep them away.

¹⁰ The righteous will rejoice when he sees the vengeance;
 he will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked;
¹¹ and people will say,
 "Surely there is a reward for the righteous;
 surely there is a God who judges on the earth."

For the Music Director. To the melody of "Do Not Destroy." A Miktam of David, when Saul sent men, and they watched the house to kill him.

59 Deliver me from my enemies, O my God;
 give me refuge from those who rise up against
 me.
² Deliver me from the workers of iniquity,
 and save me from bloodthirsty people.
³ For they lie in wait for my life;
 the mighty are gathered against me,
 not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.
⁴ For no guilt of mine, they run and prepare themselves.
 Arise to help me, and take notice.
⁵ You, O LORD God of Hosts, the God of Israel, awake to punish all the nations;
 do not be gracious to any wicked transgressors. *Se-
 lah*
⁶ They return at evening,
 they growl like a dog,
 and go around the city.
⁷ Indeed, they burst out with their mouth;
 swords are in their lips;
 for who listens?
⁸ But You, O LORD, will laugh at them;
 You will have all the nations in derision.
⁹ O my strength, I will wait on You;
 for God is my refuge.
¹⁰ The God of lovingkindness will go before me;
 God will cause me to look in triumph on my enemies.
¹¹ Do not slay them,
 lest my people forget;
 scatter them by Your power,
 and bring them down, O Lord our shield.
¹² For the sin of their mouth
 and the words of their lips,
 may they be snared by their pride,
 and because of curses and lies that they speak.
¹³ Consume them in wrath,
 consume them so they no longer exist;
 and let them know that God rules in Jacob to the ends of the earth. Selah ¹⁴ At evening they return,
 and growl like a dog,
 and go around the city.

¹⁵ They roam about to eat,
and if they are not satisfied, they complain.
¹⁶ But I will sing of Your power;
I will sing aloud of Your lovingkindness in the morning,
for You have been my refuge
and escape in the day of my trouble.
¹⁷ To You, O my strength, I will sing, for God is my refuge, and the God of my lovingkind-
ness.

Ps 108:6-13

For the Music Director. A Miktam of David to teach. To the melody of "Lily of the Testimony," when he struggled with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah and when Joab returned from striking down twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

60 O God, You have rejected us, You have scattered us;
You have been displeased; take us back.
² You have made the earth tremble; You have split it open;
heal its breaches, for it shook.
³ You have shown Your people hard times;
You have made us drink wine, causing us to stagger.
⁴ You have given a banner to those who fear You,
that they may flee to it from the bow. † Selah
⁵ That Your beloved ones may be delivered, save with Your right hand and answer us.
⁶ God has spoken in His holiness:
"I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and measure out the Valley of Sukkoth.
⁷ Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine;
Ephraim also is My helmet;
Judah is My scepter;
⁸ Moab is My wash basin;
over Edom I will cast My shoe;
shout the alarm, O Philistia, because of Me."
⁹ Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will lead me into Edom?
¹⁰ You, O God, have You not cast us off?
And You, O God, did not go out with our armies.
¹¹ Give us help from trouble,
for the help of man is worthless.
¹² Through God we will do valiantly,
for He will tread down our enemies.

For the Music Director. With stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

61 Hear my cry, O God,
attend to my prayer.
² From the end of the earth I will cry to You;
when my heart faints,
lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
³ For You have been a refuge for me,
and a strong tower from the enemy.
⁴ I will abide in Your tent forever;

† Or a for the truth.

I will seek refuge in the covering of Your wings. Selah
⁵ For You, O God, have heard my vows;
You have given me the heritage of those who fear Your name.
⁶ May You prolong the king's life,
and may his years be as many generations.
⁷ May he sit enthroned before God forever;
oh, prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.
⁸ Thus will I sing praise to Your name forever,
that I may fulfill my vows day by day.

For the Music Director. According to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

62 My soul waits in silence on God alone;
from Him comes my salvation.
² He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my refuge; I will not be greatly shaken.
³ How long will you attack a man,
to batter him, all of you,
as you would a leaning wall, a tottering fence?
⁴ They only conspire to cast him down
from his high position;
they delight in lies,
they bless with their mouth,
but they curse inwardly. Selah
⁵ My soul, wait silently for God,
for my hope is from Him.
⁶ He only is my rock and my salvation;
He is my refuge; I will not be moved.
⁷ In God is my salvation and my glory;
the rock of my strength, and my shelter, is in God.
⁸ Trust in Him at all times;
you people, pour out your heart before Him;
God is a shelter for us. Selah
⁹ Surely people of low degree are a breath,
and men of high degree are a lie;
if they are placed in the balance,
they are altogether lighter than vapor.
¹⁰ Do not trust in oppression,
and do not become vain in robbery;
if riches increase,
do not set your heart on them.
¹¹ God has spoken once,
twice have I heard this:
that power belongs to God.
¹² Also to You, O Lord, belongs mercy;
for You render to each one
according to his work.

A Psalm of David, when he was in the Wilderness of Judah.

63 O God, You are my God;
early will I seek You;
my soul thirsts for You,
my flesh faints for You,
in a dry and thirsty land

with no water.

² I have seen You in the sanctuary,
to see Your power and Your glory.

³ Because Your lovingkindness is better than life,
my lips will praise You.

⁴ Thus will I bless You while I live;
I will lift up my hands in Your name.

⁵ My soul will be satisfied as with marrow and fatness,
and my mouth will praise You with joyful lips.

⁶ When I remember You on my bed,
and meditate on You in the night watches,

⁷ because You have been my help,
therefore in the shadow of Your wings I will rejoice.

⁸ My soul clings hard to You;
Your right hand upholds me.

⁹ But those who seek my soul to destroy it will go into the lower parts of the earth.

¹⁰ They will fall by the sword;
they will be a portion for jackals.

¹¹ But the king will rejoice in God;
everyone who swears by Him will glory,
because the mouth of liars will be stopped.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

64 Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint;
guard my life from dread of the enemy.

² Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked,
from the throng of the workers of iniquity;

³ they sharpen their tongue like a sword,
and bend their bows to shoot their arrows—bitter
words,

⁴ that they may shoot in secret at the blameless;
suddenly they shoot at him and do not fear.

⁵ They harden themselves in an evil matter;
they talk privately of laying snares;
they say, "Who will see them?"

⁶ They devise injustice,
saying "We have perfected a secret plot."

Both the inward thought of man and the heart are deep.

⁷ But God will suddenly shoot them with an arrow;
they will be wounded.

⁸ They will bring ruin on themselves
by their own tongues;
all who see them will flee away.

⁹ All people will fear,
and declare the work of God;
they will wisely consider His deeds.

¹⁰ The righteous will be glad in the LORD,
and seek refuge in Him,
and all the upright in heart will glory.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David. A Song.

65 Praise awaits You, O God, in Zion;
and to You a vow will be fulfilled.

² O You who hears prayer,
to You all flesh will come.

³ Iniquities are stronger than me;

as for our transgressions, You atone for them.

⁴ Blessed is the man You choose and allow to draw near;

he will dwell in Your courts.

We will be satisfied with the goodness of Your house,
even of Your holy temple.

⁵ In righteousness You will answer us gloriously,
O God of our salvation,

You, who are the confidence of all the ends of the
earth,

and of those who are afar off on the sea;

⁶ who established the mountains by His strength, being clothed with might;

⁷ who stills the noise of the seas,
the noise of their waves,
and the tumult of peoples.

⁸ Those who dwell in the uttermost parts are in awe because of Your signs;

You make the going out of the morning and evening
rejoice.

⁹ You visit the earth, and water it;

You enrich it

with the river of God, which is full of water;

You prepare their grain,
for thus You have established it.

¹⁰ You water its furrows abundantly;

You settle its ridges;

You soften it with showers;

You bless its sprouting.

¹¹ You crown the year with Your goodness, and Your paths drip abundance.

¹² They drip on the pastures of the wilderness,
and the hills clothe themselves with rejoicing.

¹³ The pastures are clothed with flocks;
the valleys also are covered with grain;
they shout for joy, they also sing.

For the Music Director. A Song. A Psalm.

66 Shout joyfully to God, all you lands!

² Sing out the glory of His name;

make His praise glorious.

³ Say to God, "How awesome are Your works!

Through the greatness of Your power
Your enemies cringe before You.

⁴ All the earth will worship You and will sing to You;

they will sing to Your name." Selah

⁵ Come and see the works of God;

He is awesome in His doings toward mankind.

⁶ He turned the sea into dry land;

they crossed the river on foot;

there we rejoiced in Him.

⁷ He rules by His power forever;

His eyes keep watch on the nations;

do not let the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah

⁸ Oh, bless our God, you people, and make the voice of His praise to be heard,

⁹ who keeps our soul among the living,

and does not allow our feet to slip.

¹⁰ For You, O God, have proved us;

You have refined us, as silver is refined.

¹¹ You brought us into the net;

You placed distress on our backs.

¹² You have allowed people to ride over our heads;

we went through fire and through water;
but You brought us out into a well-watered place.

¹³ I will go into Your house with burnt offerings;

I will fulfill my vows to You,

¹⁴ which my lips have uttered,

and my mouth spoke when I was in trouble.

¹⁵ I will offer You burnt sacrifices of fat animals,
with the incense of rams;

I will offer bulls with goats. Selah

¹⁶ Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will declare what He has done for my soul.

¹⁷ I cried to Him with my mouth,

and He was extolled with my tongue.

¹⁸ If I regard iniquity in my heart,

the Lord will not hear me;

¹⁹ but certainly God has heard me;

He has attended to the voice of my prayer.

²⁰ Blessed be God,

who has not turned away my prayer,
nor His mercy from me.

For the Music Director. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song.

67 May God be gracious to us, and bless us,
and cause His face to shine on us; Selah

² that Your way may be known on earth,
Your salvation among all nations.

³ Let the peoples praise You, O God;
let all the peoples praise You.

⁴ Oh, let the nations be glad and sing for joy;
for You will judge the people uprightly,
and lead the nations on earth. Selah

⁵ Let the peoples praise You, O God;
let all the peoples praise You.

⁶ Then will the earth yield its produce,
and God, our God, will bless us.

⁷ God will bless us,
and all the ends of the earth will fear Him.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David. A Song.

68 Let God arise, let His enemies be scattered;
let those who hate Him flee before Him.

² As smoke is driven away,
You drive them away;
as wax melts before the fire,
so may the wicked perish before God.

³ But let the righteous be glad;
let them rejoice before God;
let them rejoice exceedingly.

⁴ Sing to God, sing praises to His name;
raise a song to Him who rides through the deserts—
His name is the LORD;

exult before Him.

⁵ A father of the fatherless, and a protector of the widows,
is God in His holy habitation.

⁶ God sets the deserted in families;
He brings out prisoners into prosperity,
but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.

⁷ O God, when You went forth before Your people, when You marched through the wasteland, Selah

⁸ the earth shook;

the heavens also poured down rain
at the presence of God; even Sinai shook at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

⁹ You, O God, sent plentiful rain;

You established Your inheritance when it was weary.

¹⁰ Your congregation has lived in it;

You, O God, by Your goodness have prepared for the poor.

¹¹ The Lord gave the word;

great was the company of women who proclaimed
it:

¹² "Kings of armies flee; they flee!"

Even the women who were at home divided the spoil.

¹³ Though you sleep between the sheepfolds, yet you will be like the wings of a dove overlaid with silver,

and its feathers with yellow gold.

¹⁴ When the Almighty scattered kings in it,
it was white as snow on Mount Zalmon.

¹⁵ The mountain of God is as the mountain of Bashan;
a mountain of many peaks like the mountain of Bashan.

¹⁶ Why are you envious, you mountains of many peaks?

This is the mountain which God desires to dwell in;
yes, the LORD will dwell in it forever.

¹⁷ The chariots of God are twice ten thousand, even thousands of thousands;
the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.

¹⁸ You have ascended on high,

You have led captivity captive;

You have received gifts from people,

yes, even from the rebellious,
that the LORD God might dwell among them.

¹⁹ Blessed be the Lord, who daily loads us with benefits,

even the God who is our salvation. Selah

²⁰ That God is for us, the God of saving acts;
and to GOD the Lord belongs escape from death.

²¹ But God will shatter the head of His enemies,
and the scalp of one who walks in his trespasses.

²² The Lord said, "I will cause them to return from Bashan,

I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea,

²³ that your foot may stomp in the blood of your enemies, and the tongue of your dogs may have a portion in it."

²⁴ They have seen Your processions, O God,
the processions of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.

²⁵ The singers went before,
the players on instruments followed after;
among them were the young women playing tambourines.

²⁶ Bless God in the congregations,
the LORD, from the fountain of Israel.

²⁷ There is little Benjamin leading them,
the princes of Judah and their throng of people,
the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

²⁸ Your God has commanded your strength;
strengthen, O God, what You have done for us.

²⁹ From Your temple above Jerusalem, kings will bring gifts to You.

³⁰ Rebuke the animals that live among the reeds,
the herd of bulls, with the calves of the people,
until everyone submits himself with pieces of silver;
scatter peoples who delight in war.

³¹ Ambassadors will come out of Egypt;
Ethiopia will stretch out its hands to God.

³² Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth;
oh, sing praises to the Lord; Selah

³³ to Him who rides on the heavens, the ancient heavens;

He who sends out His voice, a mighty voice.

³⁴ Ascribe strength to God;
His majesty is over Israel,
and His strength is in the clouds.

³⁵ O God, You are awesome from Your sanctuaries;
the God of Israel is He who gives strength and power to people.

Blessed be God!

For the Music Director. To the melody of "Lilies." A Psalm of David.

69 Save me, O God!
For the waters have come up to my throat.

² I sink in deep mire;
there is no standing place;
I have come into the watery depths,
and a stream overflows me.

³ I am weary of my crying;
my throat is parched;
my eyes fail
while I wait for my God.

⁴ Those who hate me without cause
are more than the hairs of my head;
they are mighty
who would destroy me, being my wrongful enemies,
so that I must pay back
what I did not steal.

⁵ O God, You know my folly,

and my sins are not hidden from You.

⁶ May those who wait on You,
O Lord GOD of Hosts,
not be ashamed because of me;
may those who seek You
not be humiliated because of me,
O God of Israel.

⁷ Because for Your sake I have endured insult;
humiliation has covered my face.

⁸ I have become estranged to my relatives,
and a foreigner to my mother's children;

⁹ for the zeal of Your house has consumed me,
and the insults of those who insulted You fell on me.

¹⁰ When I wept with fasting for my soul,
it became an insult to me.

¹¹ I also made sackcloth my garment,
and I became a byword to them.

¹² Those who sit in the gate speak against me,
and I am the song of the drunkards.

¹³ But as for me, my prayer is to You, O LORD;
in an acceptable time, O God,
in the abundance of Your mercy,
answer me in the truth of Your salvation.

¹⁴ Deliver me out of the mire
that I may not sink;
may I be delivered from those who hate me,
and out of the watery depths.

¹⁵ May the stream not overflow me;
neither may the deep swallow me up,
nor the pit close its mouth on me.

¹⁶ Answer me, O LORD, for Your lovingkindness is good;
turn Your face to me according to the abundance of Your tender mercies.

¹⁷ Do not hide Your face from Your servant,
for I am in trouble; answer me quickly.

¹⁸ Draw near to my soul, and redeem it;
deliver me because of my enemies.

¹⁹ You have known how I am insulted, and my shame and my dishonor;
my adversaries are all before You.

²⁰ Insults have broken my heart,
and I am sick;
and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none;

and for comforters, but I found none.

²¹ They also gave me poison for my food,
and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

²² May their table become a snare before them,
and may security become a trap.

²³ May their eyes be darkened so they do not see,
and make their sides shake continually.

²⁴ Pour out Your indignation on them,
and may Your wrathful anger overtake them.

²⁵ May their habitation be desolate,
and may no one dwell in their tents.

²⁶ For they persecute him whom You have struck down,

and they recount the pain of those You have wounded.

²⁷ Add punishment to their iniquity,
and do not let them come into Your righteousness.

²⁸ Let them be blotted out of the book of the living,
and not be written along with the righteous.

²⁹ But I am poor and in pain;
may Your salvation, O God, set me secure on high.

³⁰ I will praise the name of God with a song,
and will magnify Him with thanksgiving.

³¹ This also will please the LORD
more than an ox or bull with horns and hoofs.

³² The humble will see this and be glad;
and you who seek God, may your heart live.

³³ For the LORD hears the poor, and does not despise His prisoners.

³⁴ Let heaven and earth praise Him,
the seas and everything that moves in them.

³⁵ For God will save Zion,
and will build the cities of Judah;
that they may dwell there, and take possession of it.

³⁶ The descendants of His servants will inherit it;
and those who love His name will dwell in it.

Ps 40:13-17

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David. To bring remembrance.

70 Make haste, O God, to deliver me!
Make haste to help me, O LORD .

² May those who seek my life
be ashamed and confused;
may those who desire my harm
be driven back and humiliated.

³ May they turn back as a consequence of their shame

who say "Aha! Aha!"

⁴ May all those who seek You
rejoice and be glad in You;
and may those who love Your salvation continually
say,

"God be magnified!"

⁵ But I am poor and needy;
make haste to me, O God!

You are my help and my deliverer;
O LORD , do not delay!

Ps 31:1-4

71 In You, O LORD , I seek refuge;
may I never be put to shame.

² Deliver me in Your righteousness and help me escape;

incline Your ear to me and save me.

³ Be my rock of refuge
to enter continually;

You have given commandment to save me;
for You are my rock and my stronghold.

⁴ Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the
wicked,

out of the hand of the unjust and cruel man.

⁵ For You are my hope, O Lord GOD ;

You are my confidence from my youth.

⁶ On You I have supported myself from the womb;
You took me out of my mother's womb.

My praise will continually be about You.

⁷ I am like a wondrous sign to many;
You are my strong refuge.

⁸ My mouth will be filled with Your praise and with Your glory all the day.

⁹ Do not cast me off in the time of old age;
do not forsake me when my strength fails.

¹⁰ For my enemies speak against me;
and those who watch for my life take counsel together,

¹¹ saying, "God has forsaken him;
pursue and catch him,
for there is none to deliver him."

¹² O God, do not be far from me;
O my God, act quickly to help me.

¹³ May the adversaries of my life be ashamed and confused;

may those who seek my harm
be enveloped in scorn and dishonor.

¹⁴ But I will hope continually, and will add to all Your praise.

¹⁵ My mouth will declare Your righteousness and Your salvation all the day,
for I cannot know their numbers.

¹⁶ I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD ;
I will make mention of Your righteousness, of Yours
only.

¹⁷ O God, You have taught me from my youth;
and until now I have proclaimed Your wondrous works.

¹⁸ Now also when I am old and gray,
O God, do not forsake me,
until I have proclaimed Your strength to this generation,

and Your power to everyone who is to come.

¹⁹ Your righteousness, O God, reaches to the heights;
You have done great deeds;
O God, who is like You?

²⁰ You who have shown me great distresses and troubles

will revive me again,
and will bring me up again
from the depths of the earth.

²¹ You will increase my greatness,
and You will encircle and comfort me.

²² I will give You thanks with the harp,
even Your truth, O my God;
to You I will sing with the lyre,
O Holy One of Israel.

²³ My lips will rejoice
when I sing to You,
and my soul, which You have redeemed.

²⁴ My tongue also will speak of Your righteousness
all the day long;
for those who seek my harm are ashamed,

for they have been put to shame.

A Psalm of Solomon.

72 Give the king Your judgments, O God,
and Your righteousness to the king's son.
² May he judge Your people with righteousness,
and Your poor with justice.
³ May the mountains bring well-being to the people,
and the hills, in righteousness.
⁴ May he judge the poor of the people,
may he save the children of the needy,
and crush the oppressor.
⁵ May they fear You as long as the sun endures,
and the moon, throughout all generations.
⁶ May he descend like rain on the mown grass, as showers dripping on the earth.
⁷ In his days may the righteous flourish,
and abundance of peace until the moon is no more.
⁸ May he have dominion from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.
⁹ May those who dwell in the wilderness bow before
him,
and his enemies lick the dust.
¹⁰ May the kings of Tarshish and of the isles
bring presents;
the kings of Sheba and Seba
offer a gift.
¹¹ May all kings bow down before him;
may all nations serve him.
¹² Indeed, may he deliver the needy when he cries;
the poor also, and him who has no helper.
¹³ May he have compassion on the poor and needy,
and save the lives of the needy.
¹⁴ May he redeem their life from deceit and violence;
and may their blood be precious in his sight.
¹⁵ May he live long,
and may one give him the gold of Sheba;
and pray for him continually;
and all day long may he be blessed.
¹⁶ May there be abundance of grain in the earth
on the top of the mountains;
may its fruit shake like Lebanon;
and may those from the city flourish like grass of the
earth.
¹⁷ May his name endure forever;
may his name increase as long as the sun.
May men be blessed in him;
may all nations call him blessed!
¹⁸ Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel,
who alone does wondrous deeds.
¹⁹ Blessed be His glorious name forever;
and may the whole earth be filled with His glory.
Amen, and Amen.
²⁰ The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

BOOK THREE

Psalms 73–89

A Psalm of Asaph.

73 Truly God is good to Israel,
to the pure in heart.
² But as for me, my feet almost stumbled;
my steps had almost slipped.
³ For I was envious at the boastful;
I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
⁴ For there are no pains in their death;
their bodies are fat.
⁵ They are not in trouble as other people;
nor are they plagued like others.
⁶ Therefore pride is their necklace;
violence covers them as a garment.
⁷ Their eyes bulge with fatness;
they have more than a heart could wish.
⁸ They mock and speak with evil oppression;
they speak loftily.
⁹ They set their mouth against the heavens,
and their tongue struts through the earth.
¹⁰ Therefore people turn to them,
and abundant waters are drunk by them.
¹¹ They say, "How does God know?
And is there knowledge with the Most High?"
¹² Observe, these are the wicked, always at ease;
they increase in riches.
¹³ Surely I have kept my heart pure for nothing,
and washed my hands in innocence.
¹⁴ For all the day long I am plagued,
and chastened every morning.
¹⁵ If I said, "I will speak thus,"
I would have betrayed the generation of Your children.
¹⁶ When I thought to understand this,
it was troublesome in my eyes, ¹⁷ until I went into the sanctuary of God;
then I understood their end.
¹⁸ Surely You have set them in slippery places;
You have brought them down to ruin.
¹⁹ How they come to desolation, as in a moment!
They have come to an end, utterly consumed with terrors.
²⁰ As a dream when one awakes,
so, O Lord, when You awake,
You will despise their form.
²¹ Thus my heart was embittered,
and I was pierced in my feelings.
²² I was a brute and did not understand;
I was as a beast before You.
²³ Nevertheless I am continually with You;
You have held me by my right hand.
²⁴ You will guide me with Your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

²⁵ Whom have I in heaven but You?

And there is nothing on earth that I desire besides You.

²⁶ My flesh and my heart fails,
but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.

²⁷ For those who are far from You will perish;
You destroy everyone who is unfaithful to You.

²⁸ But it is good for me to draw near to God;
I have taken my refuge in the Lord GOD,
that I may declare all Your works.

A Contemplative Maskil of Asaph.

74 O God, why have You cast us off forever?
Why does Your anger smoke against the sheep
of Your pasture?

² Remember Your congregation, which You have purchased of old,
the rod of Your inheritance, which You have redeemed,
this Mount Zion, where You have lived.

³ Move Your footsteps to the perpetual desolations,
to all the harm the enemy has done in the sanctuary.

⁴ Your enemies roar in the midst of Your meeting place;

they set up their miracles for signs.

⁵ They seem like men who lift up axes
on a thicket of trees.

⁶ But now they strike down its carved work altogether with axes and hammers.

⁷ They have cast fire into Your sanctuary;
they have defiled the dwelling place of Your name to the ground.

⁸ They said in their hearts, "Let us destroy them together."

They have burned up all the meeting places of God in the land.

⁹ We do not see our signs;
there is no longer any prophet,
nor is there among us any who knows how long.

¹⁰ O God, how long will the adversary scorn?
Will the enemy blaspheme Your name forever?

¹¹ Why do You withdraw Your hand, Your right hand?
Draw it out of Your bosom and destroy them!

¹² For God is my King of old,
working salvation in the midst of the earth.

¹³ You divided the sea by Your strength;
You broke the heads of the dragons on the waters.

¹⁴ You crushed the heads of Leviathan in pieces, and gave him for food to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

¹⁵ You split the fountain and the flood;
You dried up ever-flowing rivers.

¹⁶ The day is Yours, the night also is Yours;
You have prepared the light and the sun.

¹⁷ You have established all the borders of the earth;

You have made summer and winter.

¹⁸ Remember this, that the enemy has scorned, O
LORD,

and that the foolish people have blasphemed Your
name.

¹⁹ Do not give the life of Your turtledove to a wild animal;

do not forget the life of Your poor forever.

²⁰ Have regard for the covenant;
for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of violence.

²¹ May the oppressed not return ashamed;
may the poor and needy praise Your name.

²² Arise, O God, plead Your own cause;
remember how the fool insults You daily.

²³ Do not forget the voice of Your enemies,
the tumult of those who rise up against You continually.

For the Music Director. To the melody of "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

75 We give thanks to You, O God;
we give thanks, and Your name is near;
Your wondrous works declare it.

² When I select an appointed time,
I will judge with equity.

³ Though the earth and all its inhabitants are swaying,

I steady its pillars. Selah

⁴ I said to the boastful, "Do not boast,"
and to the wicked, "Do not lift up your horn.

⁵ Do not lift up your horn on high,
or speak with an arrogant neck."

⁶ For neither from the east nor west,
nor from the wilderness comes victory.

⁷ But God is the judge;
He brings one low, and lifts up another.

⁸ For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
and it is full of mixed, foaming wine,
and He pours from it;
surely all the wicked of the earth will find and drink
its dregs.

⁹ But I will declare forever,
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

¹⁰ All the horns of the wicked I will cut off,
but the horns of the righteous will be exalted.

For the Music Director. With stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

76 In Judah God is known;
in Israel His name is great.

² In Salem is His abode,
and His dwelling place in Zion.

³ There He broke the fiery arrows of the bow,
the shield, the sword, and the weapons of war. Selah

⁴ You are more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey.

⁵ The strong of heart have been plundered;

they have been put to sleep;
 and none of the mighty men
 could use their hands.
⁶ At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob,
 both the chariot and horse lay stunned.
⁷ You, even You, are to be feared;
 and who may stand in Your sight from the moment of Your anger?
⁸ From the heavens You gave their judgment,
 and the earth feared and was silent,
⁹ when God arose to judgment,
 to save all the meek of the earth. Selah
¹⁰ Surely the wrath of people shall bring You praise;
 the remainder of wrath You shall put on.
¹¹ Make your vows to the LORD your God, and fulfill
 them;
 let all who surround Him
 bring tribute to Him who is to be feared.
¹² He reduces the spirit of princes,
 and is feared among the kings of the earth.

For the Music Director. To Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

77 I cried out to God with my voice, even to God with my voice; and He listened to
 me.
² In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
 in the night my hand is stretched out and does not weary,
 my soul refuses to be comforted.
³ I remember God, and I groan;
 I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed. Selah
⁴ You hold my eyelids open;
 I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
⁵ I have considered the days of old,
 the years long ago.
⁶ May I remember my song in the night;
 may I meditate in my heart;
 my spirit made a diligent search:
⁷ "Will the Lord cast off forever,
 and will He be favorable no more?
⁸ Has His mercy ceased forever,
 and have His promises failed for all time?
⁹ Has God forgotten to be gracious,
 and has He in anger shut up His tender mercies?"
Selah
¹⁰ Then I said, "This is my grief;
 yet I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High."
¹¹ I will remember the works of the LORD;
 surely I will remember Your wonders of old.
¹² I will meditate also on all Your work and ponder on Your mighty deeds.
¹³ Your way, O God, is holiness;
 what god is as great as our God?
¹⁴ You are the God who can do wonders;
 You have declared Your strength among the nations.
¹⁵ You have with Your arm redeemed Your people,
 the children of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

¹⁶ The waters saw You, O God.
 The waters saw You; they were afraid;
 the depths also trembled.
¹⁷ The clouds poured out water;
 the skies thundered.
 Your arrows flashed about.
¹⁸ The sound of Your thunder was in the whirlwind, and Your lightning lit up the world;
 the earth trembled and shook.
¹⁹ Your way is through the sea,
 and Your path in the great waters,
 and your footsteps are not seen.
²⁰ You led Your people like a flock
 by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

A Contemplative Maskil of Asaph.

78 Give ear, O my people, to my teaching;
 incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
² I will open my mouth in a parable;
 I will utter insightful sayings of old,
³ which we have heard and known,
 what our fathers have told us.
⁴ We will not hide them from their children,
 but will tell the coming generation
 the praises of the LORD, and His strength, and the wonderful works that He has done.
⁵ For He established a rule in Jacob,
 and appointed a law in Israel,
 which He commanded our fathers
 that they should make them known to their children, ⁶ that the generation to come might know them,
 even the children who are not yet born,
 who will arise and declare them to their children:
⁷ that they might set their hope in God and not forget the works of God,
 but keep His commandments,
⁸ and they might not be as their fathers,
 a stubborn and rebellious generation,
 a generation that did not set their heart steadfast,
 and whose spirit was not faithful to God.
⁹ The people of Ephraim, being armed with bows,
 turned back in the day of battle.
¹⁰ They did not keep the covenant of God and refused to walk in His law;
¹¹ and they forgot His works and the wonders that He had shown them.
¹² In the sight of their ancestors He did marvelous wonders
 in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
¹³ He divided the sea and caused them to pass through,
 and He made the waters to stand as a heap.
¹⁴ In the daytime He led them with a cloud,
 and all the night with a light of fire.
¹⁵ He split rocks in the wilderness and gave them abundance to drink as out of the great depths.

16 He brought streams out of the rock
 and caused waters to run down like rivers.
 17 They sinned yet more against Him
 by provoking the Most High in the wilderness.
 18 They tested God in their heart
 by demanding the food that they craved.
 19 They spoke against God by saying,
 "Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?
 20 Behold, He struck the rock, so that the waters gushed out
 and the streams overflowed.
 Can He give bread
 or provide meat for His people?" 21 Therefore the LORD heard this and was full of wrath;
 a fire was kindled against Jacob,
 and anger also came up against Israel, 22 because they did not believe in God
 nor trust in His deliverance.
 23 Yet He had commanded the skies above
 and opened the doors of heaven, 24 and He rained down manna upon them to eat and gave them the grain of heaven.
 25 Man ate the food of mighty angels;
 He sent them bread in abundance.
 26 He caused an east wind to blow in the heavens,
 and by His power He brought out a south wind.
 27 He rained meat on them as dust,
 and winged birds as the sand of the sea;
 28 and He let them fall in the midst of their camp
 all around their habitations.
 29 So they ate and were satisfied,
 for He gave them their own desire; 30 while they were not yet filled up,
 and while the meat was still in their mouths, 31 the wrath of God came upon them,
 and He killed the strongest of them
 and struck down the young men of Israel.
 32 For all this they sinned still,
 and did not believe despite His wondrous works.
 33 Therefore He made their days vanish like a breath,
 and their years in trouble.
 34 When He killed them, then they sought Him;
 they turned back and longed for God.
 35 They remembered that God was their rock,
 and the Most High God their redeemer.
 36 Nevertheless they flattered Him with their mouth,
 and they lied to Him with their tongues;
 37 for their heart was not devoted to Him,
 neither were they committed to His covenant.
 38 But He being full of compassion forgave their iniquity
 and did not destroy them.
 He constantly restrained His anger,
 and did not stir up all His wrath;
 39 for He remembered that they were but flesh,
 like a wind that passes away and does not return.
 40 How often they provoked Him in the wilderness and grieved Him in the desert!

 41 Yes, they tested God over and over,
 and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
 42 They did not remember His power, nor the day when He delivered them from the enemy,
 43 how He had performed His signs in Egypt and His wonders in the fields of Zoan:
 44 and He turned their rivers into blood,
 so that they could not drink from their streams.
 45 He sent swarms of flies among them, which devoured them,
 and frogs, which destroyed them.
 46 He gave also their crops to the grasshopper
 and the fruit of their labor to the locust.
 47 He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore trees with frost.
 48 He gave up their cattle also to the hail and their flocks to thunderbolts.
 49 He cast upon them the fierceness of His anger,
 wrath, indignation, and trouble,
 by sending angels bringing disaster.
 50 He made a path for His anger;
 He did not spare them from death,
 but gave their lives over to the plague, 51 And struck down all the firstborn in Egypt,
 the first fruits of their strength in the tents of Ham.
 52 Then He led out His own people like sheep
 and guided them in the wilderness like a flock;
 53 He led them in safety, so that they were not afraid,
 but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
 54 He brought them to the border of His holy land, to the mountain that His right hand had acquired.
 55 He cast out the nations also before them,
 and divided for them their tribal allotments,
 and made the tribes of Israel dwell in their tents.
 56 Yet they tested and provoked the Most High God,
 and did not keep His commands, 57 but turned back and acted unfaithfully like their fathers;
 they turned aside like a deceitful bow.
 58 For they provoked Him to anger with their high places
 and moved Him to jealousy with their graven images.
 59 When God heard this, He was full of wrath
 and greatly rejected Israel 60 so that He left the tabernacle at Shiloh,
 the tent where He lived among people, 61 and delivered His strength to captivity
 and His glory into the enemy's hand.
 62 He gave His people over also to the sword;
 He was enraged with His inheritance.
 63 The fire consumed their young men, and their maidens were not given to marriage in song.
 64 Their priests fell by the sword,
 and their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awoke as one out of sleep,
and like a mighty man who shouts because of wine.
66 He routed His enemies back,
and He made them a perpetual reproach.
67 Moreover, He rejected the tent of Joseph,
and He did not choose the tribe of Ephraim, 68 but chose the tribe of Judah,
Mount Zion which He loves.
69 He built His sanctuary like the high heavens,
like the earth that He has established perpetually.
70 He chose David His servant
and took him from the sheepfolds;
71 from following the nursing ewes He brought him to shepherd Jacob His people, and Israel His inheritance.
72 So he shepherded them according to the integrity of his heart
and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

A Psalm of Asaph.

79 O God, the nations have come into Your inheritance;
Your holy temple they have defiled;
they have laid JERusalem in ruins.
2 The dead bodies of Your servants
they have given to the birds of the sky for food and the flesh of Your faithful to the animals of the land.
3 Their blood they have poured out like water
all around Jerusalem,
and there was no one to bury them.
4 We have become a reproach to our neighbors,
a scorn and derision to those who are around us.
5 How long, O LORD? Will You be angry forever?
Will Your jealousy burn like fire?
6 Pour out Your wrath
upon the nations who do not know You,
and upon the kingdoms
who have not called upon Your name.
7 For they have devoured Jacob,
and laid waste his dwelling place.
8 Do not choose to remember our former iniquities;
let Your tender mercies come swiftly to us,
for we are brought very low.
9 Help us, O God of our salvation,
for the glory of Your name;
deliver us, and purge away our sins,
for Your name's sake.
10 Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
May the avenging of the shed blood of Your servants
be known among the nations before our eyes.
11 Let the groans of the prisoners come before You;
according to the greatness of Your power
preserve those who are appointed to die.
12 And render unto our neighbors sevenfold into their lap
the reproach that they have reproached You, O Lord.

13 But we are Your people, the sheep of Your pasture, and will give You thanks forever;
we will declare Your praise
to all generations.

For the Music Director. To the melody of "Lilies of the Testimony." A Psalm of Asaph.

80 Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel,
You who lead Joseph like a flock;
You who are enthroned between the cherubim, shine
forth.
2 In the sight of Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh,
stir up Your strength,
and come and rescue us.
3 Restore us again, O God,
and cause Your face to shine,
and we shall be delivered.
4 O LORD God of Hosts,
how long will You be angry
against the prayers of Your people?
5 You have fed them with the bread of tears and have given them tears to drink in great measure.
6 You make us contention for our neighbors,
and our enemies laugh among themselves.
7 Restore us again, O God of Hosts,
and cause Your face to shine,
and we shall be delivered.
8 You have brought a vine out of Egypt;
You have cast out the nations and planted it.
9 You cleared the ground for it;
it took deep root and filled the land.
10 The mountains were covered with its shadow
and the mighty cedars with its branches.
11 It sent out its branches to the sea
and its shoots to the River.
12 Why have You then broken down its walls,
so that all those who pass by the way pluck its fruit?
13 The boar from the woods ravages it,
and the insects of the field devour it.
14 Return again, O God of Hosts;
look down from heaven, and behold,
have regard for this vine
15 and the root that Your right hand has planted, and the shoots that You made strong for Yourself.
16 It is burned with fire; it is cut down;
may they perish at the rebuke from Your presence.
17 Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand,
the son of man whom You made strong for Yourself.
18 So we will not turn back from You;
give us life, and we will call upon Your name.
19 Restore us again, O LORD God of Hosts;
cause Your face to shine,
and we shall be delivered.

For the Music Director. According to The Gittith. A Psalm of Asaph.

81 Sing aloud unto God our strength;
 make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.
² Lift up a melody, and sound the tambourine,
 the pleasant lyre with the harp.
³ Blow the trumpet at the New Moon,
 at the full moon on our feast day.
⁴ For this is a statute for Israel,
 a decree of the God of Jacob.
⁵ This He ordained in Joseph as a decree
 when He went out against the land of Egypt.
 I heard a voice that I had not known:
⁶ "I removed his shoulder from the burden;
 his hands were released from holding the basket.
⁷ You called in trouble, and I delivered you;
 I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
 I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah
⁸ Hear, O My people, and I will testify against you.
 O Israel, if you would listen to me!
⁹ There shall be no strange god among you;
 neither shall you bow down to any strange god.
¹⁰ I am the LORD your God,
 who brought you out of the land of Egypt;
 open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
¹¹ "But My people would not listen to My voice;
 Israel would not submit to Me.
¹² So I gave them up to their stubborn hearts,
 to walk in their own counsels.
¹³ "Oh, that My people would listen to Me,
 and Israel would follow in My ways!
¹⁴ I would soon subdue their enemies,
 and turn My hand against their adversaries.
¹⁵ Let those who hate the LORD cower before Him
 and their fate might last forever.
¹⁶ But I would feed them with the finest of wheat, and with honey out of the rock I would satisfy you."

A Psalm of Asaph.

82 God stands among the divine council;
 He renders judgment among the gods.
² "How long will you all judge unjustly and accept partiality of the wicked? Selah
³ Defend the poor and fatherless;
 vindicate the afflicted and needy.
⁴ Grant escape to the abused and the destitute,
 pluck them out of the hand of the false.
⁵ "They have neither knowledge nor understanding;
 they walk in darkness:
 all the foundations of the earth are shaken."
⁶ I have said, "You are gods,
 sons of the Most High, all of you,
⁷ but you all shall die like men,
 and fall like a man, O princes."
⁸ Arise, O God, judge the earth,
 for You shall inherit all nations.

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

83 Do not keep Your silence, O God;
 do not hold Your peace or be still, O God.

² For, look, Your enemies make an uproar,
 and those who hate You have lifted up their heads.
³ They have given crafty counsel against Your people,
 and have consulted against Your treasured ones.
⁴ They have said, "Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation,
 that the name of Israel may be no more remembered."
⁵ For they have conspired together;
 they make a covenant against You—⁶ the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, even Moab and the Hagrites;
⁷ Gebal and Ammon and Amalek,
 the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;
⁸ Assyria also is joined with them,
 they are the strength of the descendants of Lot. *Se-
 lah*
⁹ Do to them as You did to the Midianites,
 as to Sisera and Jabin at the river of Kishon, ¹⁰ who perished at Endor;
 they became as dung for the ground.
¹¹ Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb;
 yes, all their princes as Zebah and Zalmunna, ¹² who said, "Let us take for ourselves
 the pastures of God as a possession."
¹³ O my God, make them like a tumbleweed, as stubble before the wind.
¹⁴ As fire burns a forest,
 and as the flame sets the mountains ablaze, ¹⁵ so pursue them with Your storm,
 and make them afraid with Your hurricane.
¹⁶ Fill their faces with shame,
 that they may seek your name, O LORD .
¹⁷ Let them be confounded and troubled forever;
 yes, let them be put to shame and perish, ¹⁸ that they may know that You, whose name alone is
 the LORD ,
 are the Most High over all the earth.

For the Music Director. According to The Gittith. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

84 How lovely is Your dwelling place,
 O LORD of Hosts!
² My soul longs, yes, even faints
 for the courts of the LORD ;
 my heart and my body cry out for the living God.
³ Yes, the sparrow has found a home
 and the swallow a nest for herself,
 where she may lay her young,
 even at Your altars,
 O LORD of Hosts, my King and my God.
⁴ Blessed are those who dwell in Your house;
 they continually praise You. Selah
⁵ Blessed is the man whose strength is in You,
 in whose heart are the paths to Zion .
⁶ As they pass through the Valley of Baca,
 they makes it a spring;

the early rain also covers it with pools.
⁷ They go from strength to strength;
 every one of them appears in Zion before God.
⁸ O LORD God of Hosts, hear my prayer,
 and give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah
⁹ Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of Your anointed.
¹⁰ For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.
 I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God
 than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
¹¹ For the LORD God is a sun and shield;
 the LORD will give favor and glory,
 for no good thing will He withhold from the one who walks uprightly.
¹² O LORD of Hosts,
 blessed is the man who trusts in You.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of the songs of Korah.

85 LORD, You have been favorable to Your land;
 You have brought back the captivity of Jacob.
² You have forgiven the iniquity of Your people;
 You have covered all their sin. Selah
³ You have withdrawn all Your wrath;
 You have turned from the fierceness of Your anger.
⁴ Restore us, O God of our salvation,
 and put away Your indignation toward us.
⁵ Will You be angry with us forever?
 Will You draw out Your anger to all generations?
⁶ Will You not revive us again,
 that Your people may rejoice in You?
⁷ Show us Your mercy, O LORD,
 and grant us Your deliverance.
⁸ I will hear what God the LORD will speak, for He will speak peace to His people and to His saints,
 but let them not turn again to folly.
⁹ Surely His salvation is near to them who fear Him,
 that glory may dwell in our land.
¹⁰ Mercy and truth have met together;
 righteousness and peace have kissed.
¹¹ Truth springs from the ground,
 and righteousness looks down from the sky.
¹² Yes, the LORD gives that which is good,
 and our land shall yield its increase.
¹³ Righteousness shall go before Him and prepare a way for His footsteps.

A Prayer of David.

86 Incline Your ear, O LORD, and answer me,
 for I am oppressed and needy.
² Preserve my soul, for I am godly;
 You are my God; save Your servant
 who trusts in You.
³ Have mercy on me, O Lord,
 for to You I cry all day long.
⁴ Gladden the soul of Your servant,
 for to You, O Lord,

I lift my soul.
⁵ For You, Lord, are good, and forgiving,
 abounding in kindness to all who call on You.
⁶ Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer,
 and attend to my plea for mercy.
⁷ In the day of my trouble I will call upon You,
 for You will answer me.
⁸ Among the gods there is none like You, O Lord;
 neither are there any works like Your works.
⁹ All nations whom You have made shall come and worship before You, O Lord,
 and shall glorify Your name.
¹⁰ For You are great and do wondrous deeds;
 You are God alone.
¹¹ Teach me Your way, O LORD,
 that I will walk in Your truth;
 bind my heart
 to fear Your name.
¹² I will give You thanks, O Lord my God, with all my
 heart,
 and I will glorify Your name forever.
¹³ For great is Your mercy toward me,
 and You have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.
¹⁴ O God, insolent men have risen against me,
 and bands of violent men have sought my life;
 they have not set You before them.
¹⁵ But You, O Lord, are a God full of compassion and gracious,
 slow to anger, and abundant in mercy and truth.
¹⁶ Turn to me and have mercy on me;
 give Your strength to Your servant,
 and save the humble son of Your female servant.
¹⁷ Show me a sign of Your favor, that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed
 because You, LORD, have helped and comforted
 me.

A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song.

87 The city of His foundation is on the holy mountain.
² The LORD loves the gates of Zion
 more than all the dwelling places of Jacob.
³ Glorious things are spoken of you,
 O city of God. Selah.
⁴ I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon
 to those who know Me;
 look, Philistia and Tyre with Ethiopia;
 "This man was born there."
⁵ But of Zion it shall be said,
 "This one and that one were born in her,"
 for the Most High shall make her secure.
⁶ The LORD shall count when He registers the people,
 "This one was born there." Selah
⁷ As well the singers and the players of instruments
 say,
 "All my springs are in you."

For the Music Director. A Song. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. To the melody of "Suffering of Affliction." A Contemplative Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.

88 O LORD, God of my salvation,
I cry out day and night before You.
² Let my prayer come before You;
incline Your ear to my cry.
³ For my soul is full of troubles,
and my life draws near to Sheol.
⁴ I am counted with those who go down to the grave;
I am a man who has no strength,
⁵ like one who is set free among the dead,
like the slain who lie in the grave,
like those whom You remember no more,
for they are cut off from Your hand.
⁶ You have laid me in the depths of the pit,
in dark and deep regions.
⁷ Your wrath lies heavy upon me,
and You have afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah
⁸ You have caused my companions to be far from me;
You have made me an abomination to them;
I am shut up, and I cannot escape;
⁹ my eye is dim from my affliction.
LORD, I call daily upon You,
and I have stretched out my hands to You.
¹⁰ Will You show wonders to the dead?
Shall the dead rise up to praise You? Selah
¹¹ Shall Your lovingkindness be declared in the grave, or your faithfulness in Abaddon?
¹² Shall Your wonders be known in the darkness or Your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
¹³ But unto You have I cried, O LORD,
and in the morning my prayer comes before You.
¹⁴ O LORD, why do You cast away my soul?
Why do You hide Your face from me?
¹⁵ I am afflicted and close to death since my youth;
while I suffer Your terrors I am helpless.
¹⁶ Your fierce wrath sweeps over me;
Your terrors destroy me.
¹⁷ They come around me daily like a flood;
they encircle me together.
¹⁸ You have caused to be far from me my lovers and friends,
and my companion is darkness.

A Contemplative Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

89 I will sing of the mercies of the LORD forever;
with my mouth I will make known Your faithfulness to all generations.
² For I have said, "Mercy shall be built up forever;
Your faithfulness shall be established in the heavens."
³ You have said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one;
I have sworn to David my servant:
⁴ "Your offspring I will establish forever,
and build up your throne for all generations." Selah
⁵ Let the heavens praise Your wonders, O LORD;

Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy
ones.
⁶ For who in the skies can be compared to the LORD?
Who among the heavenly sons is like the LORD?
⁷ God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the holy ones
and awesome to all those who surround Him.
⁸ O LORD God of Hosts, who is a mighty LORD like
You,
with Your faithfulness all around You?
⁹ You rule the raging of the sea;
when the waves arise, You still them.
¹⁰ You crushed Rahab like a corpse;
You scattered Your enemies with Your strong arm.
¹¹ The heavens are Yours; the earth also is Yours;
the world and all that is in it, You have founded
them.
¹² The north and the south, You have created them;
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in Your name.
¹³ You have a mighty arm,
and strong is Your hand, and victorious is Your right hand.
¹⁴ Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne;
mercy and truth shall go before Your presence.
¹⁵ Blessed are the people who know the joyful shout.
They walk, O LORD, in the light of Your presence.
¹⁶ In Your name they rejoice all the day,
and in Your righteousness they shall be exalted.
¹⁷ For You are the beauty of their strength;
by Your favor our horn is exalted.
¹⁸ For the LORD is our shield of defense,
and the Holy One of Israel is our king.
¹⁹ Long ago You spoke in a vision
to Your godly one and said:
"I have given help to one who is mighty;
I have exalted one chosen from the people."
²⁰ I have found David, My servant;
with My holy oil I have anointed him:
²¹ By whom My hand shall be established;
My arm also shall strengthen him.
²² The enemy shall not take tribute from him,
nor the wicked humiliate him.
²³ I will beat down his foes before him
and strike down those who hate him.
²⁴ My faithfulness and My mercy shall be with him,
and in My name his horn shall be exalted.
²⁵ I will set his hand on the sea
and his right hand on the rivers.
²⁶ He shall cry unto Me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the Rock of my salvation.'
²⁷ Also I will make him my firstborn,
the highest of the kings of the earth.
²⁸ In My mercy I will keep him forever,
and My covenant shall stand firm with him.
²⁹ His offspring also I will establish forever
and his throne as the days of heaven.
³⁰ "If his children forsake My law

and do not walk in My judgments, ³¹ if they break My statutes and do not keep My commandments, ³² then I will punish their transgression with the rod and their iniquity with lashes.
³³ Nevertheless My lovingkindness I will not remove from him
 nor be false in My faithfulness.
³⁴ My covenant I will not violate nor alter the word that has gone out from My lips.
³⁵ Once and for all I have sworn by My holiness that I will not lie to David:
³⁶ His offspring shall endure forever,
 and his throne as the sun before Me;
³⁷ it shall be established forever as the moon
 and as a faithful witness in the heavens." Selah ³⁸ But now You have cast off and rejected him ,
 You have been wrathful with Your anointed king.
³⁹ You have renounced the covenant with Your servant;
 You have defiled his crown by casting it to the ground.
⁴⁰ You have broken down all his walls;
 You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
⁴¹ All who pass by the way plunder him;
 he is a reproach to his neighbors.
⁴² You have set high the right hand of his adversaries;
 You have made all his enemies rejoice.
⁴³ You have also turned back the edge of his sword and have not made him stand in battle.
⁴⁴ You have made his glory cease and cast his throne down to the ground.
⁴⁵ The days of his youth You have shortened;
 You have covered him with shame. Selah
⁴⁶ How long, O LORD? Will You hide Yourself forever?
 How long shall Your wrath burn like fire?
⁴⁷ Remember how short my time is!
 Why have You made all people in such emptiness?
⁴⁸ What man can live and not see death?
 Who can deliver his soul from the power of Sheol?
Selah
⁴⁹ Lord, where are Your former lovingkindnesses, which You swore to David in Your faithfulness?
⁵⁰ Remember, O Lord, the reproach of Your servants and how I bear in my heart the insults of the many nations,
⁵¹ which Your enemies taunt, O LORD ,
 with which they mock the footsteps of Your anoint-ed king.
⁵² Blessed be the LORD forever!
 Amen and Amen.

BOOK FOUR

Psalms 90–106

A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.

90 Lord, You have been our dwelling place
 in all generations.
² Before the mountains were brought forth,
 or You had formed the earth and the world,
 even from everlasting to everlasting You are God.
³ You return man to the dust and say, "Return, you children of men."
⁴ For a thousand years in Your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a night watch in the night time.
⁵ You carry them away as with a flood;
 they are as a dream, like renewed grass in the morning:
⁶ In the morning it flourishes and grows up;
 in the evening it fades and withers.
⁷ For we are consumed by Your anger,
 and by Your wrath we are terrified.
⁸ You have set our iniquities before You,
 even our secret sins in the light of Your presence.
⁹ For all our days pass away in your wrath;
 we end our years with a groan.
¹⁰ The years of our life are seventy,
 and if by reason of strength eighty;
 yet their length is toil and sorrow,
 for they soon end, and we fly away.
¹¹ Who knows the power of Your anger?
 Or Your wrath according to Your fear?
¹² So teach us to number our days,
 that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.
¹³ Return, O LORD , how long?
 Have mercy on Your servants.
¹⁴ Satisfy us in the early morning with Your mercy,
 that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
¹⁵ Make us glad according to the days that You have afflicted us,
 and the years that we have seen evil.
¹⁶ Let Your work be displayed to Your servants and Your glory to their children.
¹⁷ Let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us,
 and establish the work of our hands among us;
 yes, establish the work of our hands.
91 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
² I will say of the LORD , "He is my refuge and my fortress,
 my God in whom I trust."
³ Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the hunter
 and from the deadly pestilence.
⁴ He shall cover you with His feathers,
 and under His wings you shall find protection;
 His faithfulness shall be your shield and wall.
⁵ You shall not be afraid of the terror by night,
 nor of the arrow that flies by day;
⁶ nor of the pestilence that pursues in darkness,
 nor of the destruction that strikes at noonday.
⁷ A thousand may fall at your side
 and ten thousand at your right hand,

but it shall not come near you.
⁸ Only with your eyes shall you behold
 and see the reward of the wicked.
⁹ Because you have made the LORD, who is my refuge,
 even the Most High, your dwelling, ¹⁰ there shall be no evil befall you,
 neither shall any plague come near your tent;
¹¹ for He shall give His angels charge over you to guard you in all your ways.
¹² They shall bear you up in their hands,
 lest you strike your foot against a stone.
¹³ You shall tread upon the lion and adder;
 the young lion and the serpent you shall trample underfoot.
¹⁴ Because he has set his love upon Me, therefore I will deliver him;
 I will set him on high, because he has known My
 name.
¹⁵ He shall call upon Me, and I will answer him;
 I will be with him in trouble,
 and I will deliver him and honor him.
¹⁶ With long life I will satisfy him
 and show him My salvation.

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath day.

92 It is good to give thanks to the LORD, and to sing praises unto Your name, O Most High:
² to declare forth Your lovingkindness in the morning and Your faithfulness in the night, ³ on a ten-stringed lute and on the harp,
 and on the lyre with a solemn sound.
⁴ For you, O LORD, have made me glad through Your work;
 I will sing joyfully at the works of Your hands.
⁵ O LORD, how great are Your works!
 Your thoughts are very deep!
⁶ A brutish man does not recognize,
 neither does the fool understand this.
⁷ Though the wicked spring up as the grass and all those who do iniquity flourish,
 they shall be destroyed forever:
⁸ But You, O LORD, are on high forever.
⁹ For Your enemies, O LORD,
 for Your enemies shall perish;
 all those who do iniquity shall be scattered.
¹⁰ But my horn You have exalted like the horn of the wild ox;
 You have anointed me with fresh oil.
¹¹ My eyes also shall see the downfall of my enemies, and my ears shall hear the doom of my wicked adversaries.
¹² The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
¹³ Those that are planted in the house of the LORD
 shall flourish in the courts of our God.
¹⁴ They shall still bring forth fruit in old age;

they shall be filled with vitality and foliage,
¹⁵ to show that the LORD is upright;
 He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.
93 The LORD reigns; He is robed in majesty;
 the LORD is robed; He has put on strength as His belt.
 Indeed, the world is established;
 it cannot be moved.
² Your throne is established of old;
 You are from everlasting.
³ The floods have lifted up, O LORD,
 the floods have lifted up their voice;
 the floods lift up their roaring waves.
⁴ The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters,
 yes, than the mighty waves of the sea.
⁵ Your statutes are very sure;
 holiness is becoming to Your house,
 O LORD, forever.
94 O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongs;
 O God to whom vengeance belongs, shine
 forth.
² Rise up, O Judge of the earth;
 render to the proud what they deserve.
³ O LORD, how long shall the wicked,
 how long shall the wicked triumph?
⁴ They spew forth their arrogant words;
 all those who do iniquity boast.
⁵ They break in pieces Your people, O LORD,
 and afflict Your inheritance.
⁶ They kill the widow and the sojourner,
 and murder the fatherless.
⁷ Yet they say, "The LORD does not see,
 neither does the God of Jacob regard it."
⁸ Understand, you brutish among the people;
 fools, when will you be wise?
⁹ He who made the ear, shall He not hear?
 He who formed the eye, shall He not see?
¹⁰ He who chastises the nations, shall He not correct?
 He teaches people knowledge!
¹¹ The LORD, He knows the thoughts of people,
 that they are a breath.
¹² Blessed is the man whom You chasten, O LORD,
 and teach from Your law,
¹³ that You may give him rest from the days of adversity,
 until a pit is dug for the wicked.
¹⁴ For the LORD will not forsake His people;
 neither will He abandon His inheritance.
¹⁵ But justice shall return to those who are righteous,
 and all the upright in heart shall follow it.
¹⁶ Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
 Who will stand up for me against those who do iniquity?
¹⁷ Unless the LORD had been my help,
 my soul would have lived in the land of silent death.
¹⁸ When I said, "My foot slips,"

Your mercy, O LORD, held me up.
 19 When there is a multitude of worries within me,
 Your comforts delight my soul.
 20 Shall wicked rulers, who make oppressive laws, align with You?
 21 They conspire together against the life of the righteous and condemn innocent blood to death.
 22 But the LORD is my defense,
 and my God is the rock of my refuge.
 23 He shall bring upon them their own iniquity and shall cut them off for their own wickedness;
 yes, the LORD our God shall destroy them.

95 O come, let us sing unto the LORD;
 let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!
 2 Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving;
 let us make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms!
 3 For the LORD is a great God,
 and a great King above all gods.
 4 In His hand are the deep places of the earth;
 the heights of the mountains are also His.
 5 The sea is His, for He made it,
 and His hands formed the dry land.
 6 O come, let us worship and bow down;
 let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker.
 7 For He is our God,
 and we are the people of His pasture
 and the sheep of His hand.
 Today if you hear His voice,
 8 do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah,
 and as in the day of Massah in the wilderness, 9 when your fathers tested Me and tried Me,
 though they had seen My deeds.
 10 For forty years I loathed that generation and said, "They are a people who go astray in their
 heart,
 and they have not known My ways."
 11 Therefore I swore in My wrath,
 "They shall not enter into My rest." 1Ch 16:23-33

96 O sing unto the LORD a new song;
 sing unto the LORD, all the earth!
 2 Sing unto the LORD, bless His name;
 declare His salvation from day to day.
 3 Proclaim His glory among the nations,
 His wonders among all peoples.
 4 For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised;
 He is to be feared above all gods.
 5 For all the gods of the nations are worthless,
 but the LORD made the heavens.
 6 Honor and majesty are before Him;
 strength and beauty are in His sanctuary.
 7 Give unto the LORD, O families of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.
 8 Give unto the LORD the glory due His name;
 bring an offering, and come into His courts.
 9 Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness;

tremble before Him, all the earth.
 10 Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns!
 Indeed, the world is established; it shall not be moved;
 He shall judge the peoples righteously."
 11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
 let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
 12 let the field be joyful, and all that is in it;
 then all the trees of the forests shall rejoice 13 before the LORD, for He comes,
 for He comes to judge the earth.
 He shall judge the world with righteousness
 and the peoples with His faithfulness.

97 The LORD reigns; let the earth rejoice;
 let the many coastlands be glad!
 2 Clouds and darkness are all around Him;
 righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.
 3 A fire goes before Him
 and burns up His enemies all around.
 4 His lightning bolts light up the world;
 the earth sees and shakes.
 5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD,
 at the presence of the Lord of the earth.
 6 The heavens declare His righteousness,
 and all the peoples see His glory.
 7 All who serve graven images are ashamed,
 who boast in worthless idols;
 worship Him, all you gods.
 8 Zion hears and is glad,
 and the daughters of Judah rejoice
 because of Your judgments, O LORD.
 9 For You, O LORD, are Most High above all the earth;
 You are exalted far above all gods.
 10 You who love the LORD, hate evil!
 He preserves the lives of His devoted ones;
 He delivers them from the hand of the wicked.
 11 Light goes out for the righteous,
 and gladness for the upright in heart.
 12 Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous,
 and give thanks at the memory of His holy name.

A Psalm.

98 Oh, sing to the LORD a new song,
 for He has done marvelous deeds!
 His right hand and His holy arm
 have accomplished deliverance.
 2 The LORD has made known His salvation;
 His righteousness He has revealed in the sight of the nations.
 3 He has remembered His mercy
 and His faithfulness toward the house of Israel;
 all the ends of the earth have seen
 the deliverance of our God.
 4 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth;
 break out in loud songs, and sing praises.
 5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp,

with the harp and the sound of melody,
 6 with trumpets and sound of the horn;
 make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.
 7 Let the sea roar, and all that fills it,
 the world and those who live in it;
 8 let the rivers clap their hands;
 let the hills be joyful together 9 before the LORD,
 for He is coming to judge the earth.
 With righteousness He will judge the world,
 and the peoples with justice.

99 The LORD reigns;
 let the peoples tremble!
 He sits enthroned between the cherubim;
 let the earth shake.
 2 The LORD is great in Zion;
 He is high above all the peoples.
 3 Let them praise Your great and awesome name—
 He is holy!
 4 The King's strength loves justice;
 You establish righteousness,
 and You execute judgment
 and fairness in Jacob.
 5 Exalt the LORD our God,
 and worship at His footstool—
 He is holy!
 6 Moses and Aaron were among His priests, even Samuel was among them who called upon His
 name;
 they called upon the LORD,
 and He answered them.
 7 He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud;
 they kept His statues and the ordinance that He gave them.
 8 You answered them,
 O LORD our God;
 You were a God who forgave them,
 though You took vengeance on their wrongdoing.
 9 Exalt the LORD our God,
 and worship at His holy mountain;
 for the LORD our God is holy!

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

100 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the
 earth!
 2 Serve the LORD with gladness;
 come before His presence with singing.
 3 Know that the LORD, He is God;
 it is He who has made us, and not we ourselves;
 we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.
 4 Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,
 and into His courts with praise;
 be thankful to Him, and bless His name.
 5 For the LORD is good; His mercy endures forever,
 and His faithfulness to all generations.

A Psalm of David.

101 I will sing of mercy and justice;

to You, O LORD, I will sing.
 2 I will consider the path that is blameless.
 When will You come to me?
 I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.
 3 I will set no wicked thing
 before my eyes.
 I hate the work of those who turn aside;
 it shall not have part of me.
 4 A perverted heart shall be far from me;
 I will not know anything wicked.
 5 Whoever privately slanders his neighbor,
 him I will destroy;
 whoever has a haughty look and a proud heart
 I will not endure.
 6 My eyes shall be favorable to the faithful in the land,
 that they may live with me;
 he who walks in a blameless manner,
 he shall serve me.
 7 He who practices deceit
 shall not dwell within my house;
 he who tells lies
 shall not remain in my sight.
 8 Every morning I will destroy all the wicked in the land, that I may cut off all wicked doers
 from the city of the LORD.

A Prayer of one afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

102 Hear my prayer, O LORD,
 and let my cry come unto You.
 2 Do not hide Your face from me
 in the day when I am in trouble;
 incline Your ear to me;
 in the day when I call answer me quickly.
 3 For my days are consumed like smoke,
 and my bones are burned as a furnace.
 4 My heart is struck down and withered like grass,
 so that I forget to eat my bread.
 5 Because of the sound of my groaning
 my bones cling to my skin.
 6 I am like an owl of the wilderness,
 like a screech owl of the desert.
 7 I stay awake and am
 as a sparrow alone upon the housetop.
 8 My enemies reproach me all the day,
 and those who taunt me curse my name.
 9 For I have eaten ashes like bread and mixed my drink with weeping, 10 because of Your indignation and Your wrath,
 for You have lifted me up, and cast me down.
 11 My days are like an evening shadow that vanishes,
 and I wither away like grass.
 12 But You, O LORD, shall endure forever enthroned and Your reputation to all generations.
 13 You shall arise, and have mercy upon Zion,
 for the time to favor her,

indeed, the appointed time has come.
¹⁴ For Your servants take pleasure in her stones,
 and have pity on her dust.
¹⁵ So the nations shall fear the name of the LORD,
 and all the kings of the earth Your glory.
¹⁶ For the LORD shall build up Zion;
 He shall appear in His glory.
¹⁷ He will regard the prayer of the destitute
 and will not despise their prayer.
¹⁸ Let this be written for the generation to come,
 that a people who shall be created shall praise the
LORD.
¹⁹ For He has looked down from the height of His sanctuary;
 from heaven the LORD looked down on the earth, ²⁰ to hear the groaning of the prisoners
 and to set free those who are appointed to death, ²¹ that they may declare the name of the LORD in Zion
 and His praise in Jerusalem;
²² when the peoples are gathered together,
 and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.
²³ He has weakened my strength in my midlife;
 He has shortened my days.
²⁴ I said,
 "O my God, do not take me away in the midst of my days—
 Your years endure throughout all generations."
²⁵ From before You have laid the foundation of the
 earth,
 and the heavens are the work of Your hands.
²⁶ They shall perish, but You shall endure;
 indeed, all of them shall wear out like a garment;
 like a robe You shall change them,
 and they shall pass away,
²⁷ but You are the same,
 and Your years shall have no end.
²⁸ The children of Your servants shall be secure,
 and their offspring shall be established before You.

A Psalm of David.

103 Bless the LORD, O my soul,
 and all that is within me, bless His holy
 name.
² Bless the LORD, O my soul,
 and forget not all His benefits,
³ who forgives all your iniquities,
 who heals all your diseases,
⁴ who redeems your life from the pit,
 who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies,
⁵ who satisfies your mouth with good things,
 so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
⁶ The LORD does righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed.
⁷ He made known His ways to Moses,
 His acts to the people of Israel.
⁸ The LORD is merciful and gracious,
 slow to anger, and abounding in mercy.

⁹ He will not always accuse,
 neither will He keep his anger forever.
¹⁰ He does not treat us according to our sins,
 nor repay us according to our iniquities.
¹¹ For as the heavens are high above the earth,
 so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him;
¹² as far as the east is from the west,
 so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
¹³ Like a father shows compassion to his children,
 so the LORD gives compassion to those who fear
 Him.
¹⁴ For He knows how we are formed;
 He remembers that we are dust.
¹⁵ As for man, his days are as grass;
 as a flower of the field he flourishes.
¹⁶ For the hot wind passes over it, and it is gone;
 the place where it was is not known.
¹⁷ But the mercy of the LORD
 is from everlasting to everlasting upon those who fear Him,
 and His righteousness to children's children, ¹⁸ to those who keep His covenant,
 and to those who remember to do His commandments.
¹⁹ The LORD has established His throne in the heavens,
 and His kingdom rules over all.
²⁰ Bless the LORD, you His angels,
 who are mighty, and do His commands,
 and obey the voice of His word.
²¹ Bless the LORD, all you His hosts;
 you servants who do His pleasure.
²² Bless the LORD, all His works,
 in all places of His dominion.
 Bless the LORD, O my soul!
104 Bless the LORD, O my soul!
 O LORD my God, You are very great!
 You are clothed with honor and majesty,
² covering Yourself with light as a garment,
 who stretches out the heavens like a tent curtain, ³ who lays the upper beams of His chambers on the waters above,
 who makes the clouds His chariot,
 who rides upon the wings of the wind,
⁴ who makes His angels as winds,
 His ministers a flaming fire.
⁵ You laid the earth on its foundations,
 so that it should never be moved.
⁶ You covered it with the deep as a garment;
 the waters stood above the mountains.
⁷ At Your rebuke they fled;
 at the sound of Your thunder they departed away.
⁸ The mountains rose up;
 the valleys went down to the place that You appointed them.
⁹ You set a boundary that they may not pass over,
 that they may not again cover the earth.
¹⁰ You send the springs to gush forth in the valleys,

which flow between the hills.
¹¹ They give drink to every animal of the field;
 the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
¹² By them the birds of the heavens have their habitation;
 they sing among the branches.
¹³ You water the mountains from Your lofty chamber;
 the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your works.
¹⁴ You cause the grass to grow for the cattle and plants for the cultivation of man,
 that he may bring forth food from the earth ¹⁵ and wine that makes glad the heart of man,
 and oil that makes shine his face,
 and bread that strengthens his heart.
¹⁶ The trees of the LORD are well watered,
 the cedars of Lebanon that He has planted, ¹⁷ where the birds make their nests,
 where the stork has its home in the fir trees.
¹⁸ The high mountains are for the wild goats,
 and the rocks a refuge for the badgers.
¹⁹ He set the moon to mark the appointed seasons;
 the sun knows its time for going down.
²⁰ You make darkness, and it is night,
 when all the animals of the forest go forth.
²¹ The young lions roar after their prey
 and seek their food from God.
²² When the sun arises, they gather themselves together and lay down in their dens.
²³ Man goes forth to his work and to his labor until the evening.
²⁴ O LORD, how manifold are Your works!
 With wisdom You have made them all;
 the earth is full of Your creatures—²⁵ so is this great and wide sea,
 which is full of innumerable creatures,
 living animals both small and great.
²⁶ There go the ships, and there is Leviathan, which You have made to play
 in it.
²⁷ These all wait upon You,
 that You may give them their food in due season.
²⁸ When You give it to them,
 they gather it;
 when You open Your hand,
 they are filled with good food.
²⁹ When You hide Your face,
 they are troubled;
 You take away their breath,
 and they die and return to their dust.
³⁰ When You send forth Your Spirit,
 they are created,
 and You renew the surface of the ground.
³¹ May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
 may the LORD rejoice in His works.
³² He looks on the earth, and it trembles;
 He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
³³ I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live;

I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.
³⁴ May my meditation be sweet to Him,
 for I will be glad in the LORD.
³⁵ Let sinners be consumed from the earth,
 and let the wicked be no more.
 Bless the LORD, O my soul!
 Praise the LORD!

1Ch 16:8-22

105 Oh, give thanks unto the LORD; call upon His name;
 make known His deeds among the peoples.
² Sing unto Him, sing praises unto Him;
 proclaim all His wondrous works.
³ Glory in His holy name;
 let the heart rejoice for those who seek the LORD.
⁴ Seek the LORD and His strength;
 seek His presence continuously.
⁵ Remember His marvelous works that He has done;
 His wonders and the judgments from His mouth,
⁶ O offspring of Abraham, His servant,
 O children of Jacob, His chosen ones.
⁷ He is the LORD our God;
 His judgments are in all the earth.
⁸ He remembers His covenant forever,
 the word that He commanded, to a thousand generations, ⁹ that covenant He made with Abraham,
 and His oath to Isaac,
¹⁰ and confirmed to Jacob as a decree,
 and to Israel for an everlasting covenant, ¹¹ saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan
 as the portion of your inheritance."
¹² When they were but a few people in number,
 indeed, very few, and strangers in it, ¹³ when they went from one nation to another,
 from one kingdom to another people, ¹⁴ He did not permit anyone to do them wrong;
 indeed, He reprov'd kings on their behalf, ¹⁵ saying, "Do not touch my anointed ones,
 and do no harm to my prophets."
¹⁶ Moreover He called for a famine upon the land;
 He broke the whole supply of bread.
¹⁷ He sent a man before them,
 Joseph, who was sold as a slave.
¹⁸ They hurt his feet with fetters;
 his neck was put in an iron collar.
¹⁹ Until the time that his word came to pass,
 the word of the LORD tested him.
²⁰ The king sent and released him;
 the ruler of the people let him go free.
²¹ He made Joseph lord of his house and ruler of all his possessions, ²² to imprison his princes at Joseph's pleasure and to teach his elders wisdom.
²³ Then Israel came into Egypt,
 and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
²⁴ The LORD increased His people greatly and made them stronger than their enemies.

25 He turned their hearts to hate His people,
 to deal cleverly with His servants.
 26 He sent Moses, His servant,
 and Aaron whom He had chosen.
 27 They showed His signs among them
 and wonders in the land of Ham.
 28 He sent darkness and made the land dark,
 and Moses and Aaron did not rebel against His word.
 29 He turned their waters into blood
 and caused their fish to die.
 30 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance,
 even in the chambers of their kings.
 31 He spoke, and there came swarms of flies
 and gnats in all their country.
 32 He gave them hail for rain
 and flaming lightning in their land.
 33 He struck their vines and their fig trees
 and shattered the trees of their country.
 34 He spoke, and the locusts came,
 and caterpillars without number,
 35 that devoured all the vegetation in their land,
 and ate all the fruit of their ground.
 36 He struck down all the firstborn in their land,
 the first fruits of all their strength.
 37 Then He brought them out with silver and gold,
 and no one among their tribes faltered.
 38 Egypt was glad when they left,
 for the fear of Israel fell upon them.
 39 He spread a cloud for a covering,
 and fire to give light in the night.
 40 The people asked, and He brought quail,
 and satisfied them with abundant bread of heaven.
 41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out;
 they ran in the desert like a river.
 42 For he recalled His holy promise to Abraham His servant.
 43 He brought forth His people with joy,
 and His chosen ones with gladness, 44 and gave them the lands of the nations,
 and they took possession of the fruitful labor of the
 people,
 45 that they might observe His statutes
 and keep His laws.
 Praise the LORD!

1Ch 16:34-36

106 Praise the LORD!
 Oh, give thanks unto the LORD, for He is
 good,
 for His mercy endures forever.
 2 Who can recount the mighty acts of the LORD
 or declare all His praise?
 3 Blessed are those who keep justice and who do righteousness at all times.
 4 Remember me, O LORD, when You give favor to Your people;
 visit me with Your deliverance,
 5 that I may see the goodness over Your chosen ones,

that I may rejoice in the gladness of Your nation,
 that I may glory with Your inheritance.
 6 We have sinned with our fathers;
 we have committed iniquity; we have done wickedly.
 7 Our fathers did not consider Your wonders in Egypt;
 they did not remember the greatness of Your mercy,
 but rebelled against Him at the sea, by the Red Sea.
 8 Nevertheless He saved them for His name's sake,
 that He might make His mighty power known.
 9 He rebuked the Red Sea, and it was dried up, so He led them through the depths as through the wilderness.
 10 He saved them from the hand of him who hated
 them
 and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
 11 The waters covered their enemies;
 there was not one of them left.
 12 Then they believed His words;
 they sang His praise.
 13 But they soon forgot His works;
 they did not wait for His counsel, 14 but they lusted exceedingly in the wilderness
 and tested God in the desert.
 15 He gave them their request,
 but He sent a wasting disease on them.
 16 They envied in the camp Moses and Aaron, the holy priest of the LORD.
 17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan
 and engulfed those led by Abiram.
 18 A fire broke out among their company;
 the flame burned up the wicked.
 19 They made a calf at Horeb,
 and worshipped the molded image.
 20 Thus they changed the glory of God
 for the image of an ox that eats grass.
 21 They forgot God, their Deliverer,
 who had done great things in Egypt, 22 wondrous works in the land of Ham,
 and marvelous deeds by the Red Sea.
 23 Therefore He said that He would destroy them, had not Moses, His chosen one,
 stood before Him to intercede,
 to turn away His wrath from destroying them.
 24 Then they despised the pleasant land;
 they did not believe His promise, 25 but they grumbled in their tents,
 and did not listen to the voice of the LORD.
 26 Therefore He lifted up His hand against them
 and swore to overthrow them in the wilderness, 27 and to overthrow their offspring among the nations,
 and to scatter them in the lands.
 28 They joined themselves to Baal of Peor
 and ate the sacrifices given for the dead.
 29 Thus they provoked Him to anger with their acts,
 and a plague broke out upon them.
 30 Then Phinehas stood up and interceded,

and so the plague ceased.
³¹ That was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations forever.
³² They angered Him also at the waters of Meribah,
 so that Moses suffered because of them, ³³ because they provoked his temper,
 so that he spoke impulsively with his lips.
³⁴ They did not destroy the nations
 as the LORD commanded them, ³⁵ but they mixed among the nations
 and learned their deeds;
³⁶ they served their idols,
 which were a snare to them.
³⁷ Yes, they sacrificed their sons
 and their daughters to demons, ³⁸ and poured out innocent blood,
 even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
 whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan,
 and the land was polluted with blood.
³⁹ Thus were they defiled by their acts and acted like whores with these actions.
⁴⁰ Therefore the wrath of the LORD was kindled against His people,
 and He abhorred His own inheritance.
⁴¹ He gave them into the hand of the nations,
 and those who hated them ruled over them.
⁴² Their enemies also oppressed them, and Israel was brought into subjection under their powerful hand.
⁴³ Many times He delivered them, but they were rebellious against Him with their counsel,
 and were afflicted for their iniquity.
⁴⁴ Nevertheless, He regarded their affliction,
 when He heard their cry:
⁴⁵ and He remembered on their behalf His covenant and relented according to the greatness of His mercies.
⁴⁶ He made them pitied
 among all those who held them captive.
⁴⁷ Save us, O LORD our God,
 and gather us from among the nations,
 to give thanks unto Your holy name
 and to boast in Your praise.
⁴⁸ Blessed be the LORD God of Israel,
 from everlasting to everlasting,
 and let all the people say, "Amen!"
 Praise the LORD!

BOOK FIVE

Psalms 107–150

107 Oh, give thanks unto the LORD, for He is
 good,
 for His mercy endures forever!
² Let the redeemed of the LORD speak out,

whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy,
³ and gathered them from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
⁴ They wandered in the wilderness on a deserted path;
 they found no city to dwell in.
⁵ Hungry and thirsty,
 their soul fainted in them.
⁶ Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,
 and He delivered them out of their distresses.
⁷ He led them on a level road,
 that they might go to a city to live in.
⁸ Let them praise the LORD for His goodness
 and for His wonderful works to the people!
⁹ For He satisfies the longing soul
 and fills the hungry soul with goodness.
¹⁰ Some sit in darkness and in the shadow of death,
 being prisoners in affliction and irons,
¹¹ because they rebelled against the words of God and rejected the counsel of the Most High.
¹² Therefore He brought down their hearts with hard labor;
 they fell down, and there was none to help.
¹³ Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,
 and He delivered them out of their distress.
¹⁴ He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death
 and broke apart their bonds.
¹⁵ Let them praise the LORD for His goodness
 and for His wonderful works to the people!
¹⁶ For He has broken the gates of bronze and cut the bars of iron in two.
¹⁷ Some were fools because of their transgressions,
 and because of their iniquities they are afflicted.
¹⁸ They loathed all manner of food,
 and they drew near to the gates of death.
¹⁹ Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,
 and He saved them out of their distress.
²⁰ He sent His word and healed them
 and delivered them from their destruction.
²¹ Let them praise the LORD for His goodness
 and for His wonderful works to the people!
²² And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving and declare His works with rejoicing.
²³ Some went down to the sea in ships,
 to do business in the vast waters;
²⁴ they saw the works of the LORD
 and His wonders in the deep water.
²⁵ For He commands and raises the stormy wind,
 which lifts up the sea waves.
²⁶ The sailors went up to the sky, they came down to the depths;
 their strength melted because of the great danger.
²⁷ They reeled to and fro and staggered like drunken
 men,
 and were completely confused.

28 Then they cried out to the LORD in their trouble,
 and He saved them out of their distress.
 29 He made the storm calm,
 and the sea waves were still.
 30 They were glad because the waters were quiet,
 so He brought them to their desired harbor.
 31 Let them praise the LORD for His goodness
 and for His wonderful works to the people!
 32 Let them exalt Him in the congregation of the people,
 and praise him in the assembly of the elders.
 33 He turns rivers into a desert,
 water springs into dry ground, 34 a fruitful land into salty wasteland,
 because of the wickedness of those living there.
 35 He turns a wilderness into pools of water,
 a parched ground into springs of water.
 36 There He makes the hungry dwell,
 and they prepare a city to live in;
 37 they sow fields and plant vineyards,
 and yield a fruitful harvest.
 38 He blesses them, so that they are greatly multiplied,
 and He does not let their livestock decrease.
 39 But when they are diminished and brought down through oppression, affliction, and sorrow, 40 He pours contempt upon princes,
 and causes them to wander in a wilderness with no
 road;
 41 yet He raises up the poor from affliction
 and cares for their families like flocks of sheep.
 42 The righteous shall see it and rejoice,
 and all evil people shall stop their mouth.
 43 Whoever is wise let him observe these things;
 let them consider the lovingkindness of the LORD .
 Ps 57:7-11; 60:5-12

A Song. A Psalm of David.

108 O God, my heart is determined;
 I will sing and give praise with my whole
 heart.
 2 Awake, O lyre and harp!
 I will awake at dawn!
 3 I will praise you, O LORD , among the peoples,
 and I will sing praises unto You among the nations.
 4 For Your mercy is great above the heavens;
 Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
 5 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
 may Your glory be above all the earth.
 6 That Your beloved ones may be delivered, provide salvation with Your right hand and answer
 me.
 7 God has spoken in His sanctuary:
 "I will triumph and will divide up Shechem and portion out the Valley of Sukkoth.
 8 Gilead is Mine; Manasseh is Mine;
 Ephraim is My helmet;
 Judah is My royal scepter;

9 Moab is My washbasin;
 on Edom I throw My shoe;
 over Philistia I shout in triumph."
 10 Who will bring me into the fortified city?
 Who will lead me into Edom?
 11 Have You not rejected us, O God?
 You surely do not go out, O God, with our armies.
 12 Grant us help against the foe,
 for the help of man is worthless.
 13 Through God we shall be valiant,
 for He shall tread down our enemies.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

109 Do not remain silent,
 O God of my praise!
 2 For the mouth of the wicked and deceitful are opened against me;
 they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.
 3 They encircled me with words of hatred
 and fought against me without cause.
 4 In return for my love they are my adversaries,
 but I give myself to prayer.
 5 They have rewarded me evil for good and hatred for my love.
 6 Set a wicked man against him,
 and let an accuser stand at his right hand.
 7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned,
 and let his prayer be reckoned as sin.
 8 Let his days be few,
 and let another take his office.
 9 Let his children be fatherless
 and his wife a widow.
 10 Let his children be wandering beggars;
 let them seek their bread far from their desolate
 places.
 11 Let the creditor seize all that he has;
 let the strangers plunder the fruit of his labor.
 12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him, neither let there be any to pity his fatherless children.
 13 Let his posterity be cut off,
 and in the generation following let his name be blotted out.
 14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with
 the LORD ,
 and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.
 15 Let them be before the LORD continually, that the LORD may cut off the memory of them from
 the earth.
 16 For he did not remember to show kindness, but pursued the poor and needy and broken-hearted
 to their death.
 17 As he loved cursing,
 so let it come over him;
 as he did not delight in blessing,
 so let it be far from him.
 18 As he clothed himself with cursing like a garment,

so let it soak into him like water,
and like oil into his bones.
¹⁹ Let it be unto him as the garment that covers him,
and a belt that he continually wears.
²⁰ Let this be the reward of my adversaries from the LORD,
and of those who speak evil against my soul.
²¹ But You, O GOD my Lord, work on my behalf for your name's sake;
because your mercy is good, deliver me.
²² For I am poor and needy,
and my heart is wounded within me.
²³ I am gone like a shadow in the evening;
I am tossed as the locust.
²⁴ My knees are weak through fasting,
and my body is thin with no fat.
²⁵ I am a reproach to my accusers;
when they look upon me, they shake their heads.
²⁶ Help me, O LORD my God!
Save me according to Your mercy,
²⁷ that they may know that this is by Your hand,
that You, O LORD, have done it.
²⁸ Let them curse, but You will bless;
when they arise, let them be ashamed,
but let Your servant rejoice.
²⁹ Let my adversaries be clothed with shame,
and let them cover themselves with their own disgrace like a cloak.
³⁰ I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth;
indeed, I will praise Him among the multitude.
³¹ For He stands at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those who condemn his soul to death.

A Psalm of David.

110 The LORD said to my lord,
"Sit at My right hand,
until I make your enemies
your footstool."
² The LORD shall send your mighty scepter out of Zion;
rule in the midst of your enemies.
³ Your people will follow you in the day of your battle;
on the holy mountains
at dawn of the morning,
the dew of your youth belongs to you.
⁴ The LORD has sworn and will not change,
"You are a priest forever
after the order of Melchizedek."
⁵ The Lord is at your right hand;
He shall strike down kings in the day of His wrath.
⁶ He shall judge among the nations; He shall fill them
with dead bodies;
He shall scatter heads all over the land.
⁷ He shall drink of the brook in the path;
then He shall lift up the head.

111 Praise the LORD!
I will praise the LORD with my whole heart,
in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.
² The works of the LORD are great,
sought out by all who have pleasure in them.
³ His work is honorable and glorious,
and His righteousness endures forever.
⁴ He has made His wonderful works to be remembered;
the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.
⁵ He has given food to those who fear Him;
He will ever be mindful of His covenant.
⁶ He has shown His people the power of His works, that He may give them the inheritance of the nations.
⁷ The works of His hands are true and just;
all His commands are sure.
⁸ They stand forever and ever,
and are done in truth and uprightness.
⁹ He sent redemption to His people;
He has commanded His covenant forever;
holy and fearful is His name.
¹⁰ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;
all who live it have insight.
His praise endures forever!
112 Praise the LORD!
Blessed is the man who fears the LORD,
who delights greatly in His commandments.
² His offspring shall be mighty in the land;
the generation of the upright shall be blessed.
³ Wealth and riches shall be in his house,
and his righteousness endures forever.
⁴ To the upright there arises light in the darkness;
he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.
⁵ A good man shows generous favor, and lends;
he will guide his affairs with justice.
⁶ Surely the righteous man shall not be moved;
the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.
⁷ He shall not be afraid of evil tidings;
his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.
⁸ His heart is established; he shall not be afraid,
until he sees triumph upon his enemies.
⁹ He has given away freely; he has given to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever;
his horn shall be exalted with honor.
¹⁰ The wicked shall see it and be grieved;
he shall gnash his teeth and melt away;
the desire of the wicked shall perish.
113 Praise the LORD!
Praise, O you servants of the LORD,
praise the name of the LORD.
² Blessed be the name of the LORD
from this time forth and for evermore.
³ From the rising of the sun to its going down,
the LORD's name is to be praised.
⁴ The LORD is high above all nations,

and His glory above the heavens.
⁵ Who is like the LORD our God,
 who dwells on high,
⁶ who looks down on the things that are in heaven and on the earth?
⁷ He raises up the poor out of the dust
 and lifts the needy out of the ash heap, ⁸ to make them sit with princes,
 even with the princes of His people.
⁹ He gives the barren woman a dwelling,
 making her the joyful mother of children.
 Praise the LORD!

114 When Israel went out of Egypt,
 the house of Jacob from a people of strange language,

² Judah was His sanctuary,
 and Israel His dominion.
³ The sea saw it and fled;
 the Jordan was driven back;
⁴ the mountains skipped like rams and the hills like lambs.
⁵ What alarmed you, O sea, that you fled,
 O Jordan, that you turned back,
⁶ O mountains, that you skipped like rams,
 O hills, like lambs?
⁷ Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
 at the presence of the God of Jacob ⁸ who turned the rock into a pool of water,
 the hard stone into a spring of waters.

Ps 135:15-20

115 Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
 but unto Your name give glory,
 for the sake of Your mercy, and for the sake of Your truth.

² Why should the nations say,
 "Where now is their God?"
³ But our God is in the heavens;
 He does whatever He pleases.
⁴ Their idols are silver and gold,
 the work of men's hands.
⁵ They have mouths, but they cannot speak;
 eyes, but they cannot see;
⁶ they have ears, but they cannot hear;
 noses, but they cannot smell;
⁷ they have hands, but they cannot feel;
 feet, but they cannot walk;
 neither can they speak with their throat.
⁸ Those who make them are like them;
 so is everyone who trusts in them.
⁹ O Israel, trust in the LORD;
 He is their help and their shield.
¹⁰ O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD;
 He is their help and their shield.
¹¹ You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD;
 He is their help and their shield.
¹² The LORD has been mindful of us; He will bless us;
 He will bless the house of Israel;
 He will bless the house of Aaron.

¹³ He will bless those who fear the LORD,
 both the small and great ones.
¹⁴ The LORD shall increase you more and more,
 you and your children.
¹⁵ You are blessed of the LORD,
 who made heaven and earth.
¹⁶ The heavens belong to the LORD,
 but the earth He has given to the children of men.
¹⁷ The dead do not praise the LORD,
 nor do any who go down into silence.
¹⁸ But we will bless the LORD
 from this time and for evermore.
 Praise the LORD!

116 I love the LORD, because He has heard my voice
 and my supplications.

² Because He has inclined His ear to me,
 therefore I will call upon Him as long as I live.
³ The cords of death encircled me,
 and the pains of Sheol took hold of me;
 I found trouble and sorrow.
⁴ Then called I upon the name of the LORD:
 "O LORD, I plead with You, deliver my soul."
⁵ Gracious is the LORD, and righteous;
 indeed, our God is merciful.
⁶ The LORD protects the simple;
 I was brought low, and He helped me.
⁷ Return to your rest, O my soul;
 for the LORD has vindicated you.
⁸ For You have delivered my soul from death,
 my eyes from tears,
 and my feet from falling.
⁹ I will walk before the LORD
 in the land of the living.
¹⁰ I believed, indeed I have spoken:
 "I am greatly afflicted."
¹¹ I said in my haste,
 "All men are liars."
¹² What shall I render unto the LORD
 for all His benefits toward me?
¹³ I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the LORD.
¹⁴ I will pay my vows unto the LORD
 now in the presence of all His people.
¹⁵ Precious in the sight of the LORD
 is the death of His godly ones.
¹⁶ O LORD, I am Your servant;
 I am Your servant, the son of Your female servant;
 You have loosed my bonds.
¹⁷ I will offer to You the sacrifice of thanksgiving and will call upon the name of the LORD.
¹⁸ I will pay my vows unto the LORD
 now in the presence of all His people, ¹⁹ in the courts of the house of the LORD,
 in your midst, O Jerusalem.
 Praise the LORD!

117 Praise the LORD, all you nations!
 Exalt Him, all you peoples!

² For His merciful kindness is great toward us,
and the faithfulness of the LORD endures forever.
Praise the LORD !

118 Oh, give thanks unto the LORD , for He is
good,
because His mercy endures forever.

² Let Israel say,
"His mercy endures forever."

³ Let the house of Aaron say,
"His mercy endures forever."

⁴ Let those who fear the LORD say,
"His mercy endures forever."

⁵ I called upon the LORD from my distress;
the LORD answered me and set me in an open
place.

⁶ The LORD is on my side; I will not fear.
What can people do to me?

⁷ The LORD is on my side to help me;
I shall look in triumph upon those who hate me.

⁸ It is better to trust in the LORD
than to put confidence in man.

⁹ It is better to trust in the LORD
than to put confidence in princes.

¹⁰ All nations encircled me,
but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

¹¹ They circled me; indeed, they surrounded me,
but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

¹² They circled me like bees;
they went forth as a fire over thorns,
but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

¹³ You have pushed against me, that I was falling,
but the LORD helped me.

¹⁴ The LORD is my strength and song;
He has become my salvation.

¹⁵ The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous:

"The right hand of the LORD is valiant.
¹⁶ The right hand of the LORD is exalted;
the right hand of the LORD is valiant."

¹⁷ I shall not die, but I shall live and declare the works of the LORD .

¹⁸ The LORD has severely chastened me,
but He has not given me over unto death.

¹⁹ Open to me the gates of righteousness;
I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD .

²⁰ This is the gate of the LORD ;
the righteous shall enter through.

²¹ I will thank You that You have heard me and have become my deliverance.

²² The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.

²³ This is what the LORD has done;
it is marvelous in our eyes.

²⁴ This is the day that the LORD has made;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

²⁵ Save us, we ask You, O LORD ;
O LORD , we ask You, send now success.

²⁶ Blessed be he that comes in the name of the LORD
we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD .

²⁷ The LORD is God,
and He has shown us His light;
bind the sacrifice with cords,
even unto the horns of the altar.

²⁸ You are my God, and I will praise You;
You are my God, I will exalt You.

²⁹ Oh, give thanks unto the LORD , for He is good,
for His mercy endures forever.

κ ALEPH

119 Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD .

² Blessed are those who keep His testimonies,
and who seek Him with all their heart.

³ They also do no wrong;
they walk in His ways.

⁴ You have commanded us
to keep Your precepts diligently.

⁵ Oh, that my ways were established to keep Your statutes!

⁶ Then I shall not be ashamed,
when I have my focus on all Your commandments.

⁷ I will praise You with an upright heart,
when I have learned Your righteous judgments.

⁸ I will keep Your statutes;
do not completely abandon me.

⊃ BETH

⁹ How shall a young man keep his way pure?
By keeping it according to Your word.

¹⁰ With my whole heart I seek You;
do not allow me to wander from Your commandments.

¹¹ Your word I have hidden in my heart,
that I might not sin against You.

¹² Blessed are You, O LORD ;
teach me Your statutes.

¹³ With my lips I declare
all the decrees of Your mouth.

¹⁴ I rejoice in the way of Your testimonies,
as much as in all riches.

¹⁵ I will meditate on Your precepts and keep my eyes on Your ways.

¹⁶ I will delight in Your statutes;
I will not forget Your word.

λ GIMEL

¹⁷ Deal kindly with Your servant, that I may live and keep Your word.

¹⁸ Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things from Your law.

¹⁹ I am a sojourner in the land;
do not hide Your commandments from me.

²⁰ My soul is consumed all the time with a longing for Your decrees.

²¹ You have rebuked the proud, those cursed,

who depart from Your commandments.
 22 Remove from me reproach and contempt,
 for I have kept Your testimonies.
 23 Even if princes sit and conspire against me,
 Your servant will meditate on Your statutes.
 24 Your testimonies are my delight and my counselors.

τ DALETH

25 My soul clings to the dust;
 revive me according to Your word.
 26 I have declared my ways, and You heard me;
 teach me Your statutes.
 27 Make me to understand the way of Your precepts;
 then I shall contemplate on Your wondrous works.
 28 My soul collapses on account of grief;
 strengthen me according to Your word.
 29 Remove from me the way of falsehood,
 and graciously grant me Your law.
 30 I have chosen the way of faithfulness;
 Your judgments I have laid before me.
 31 I have stayed with Your testimonies, O LORD;
 may I not be put to shame.
 32 I will run in the way of Your commandments,
 when You set my heart free.

η HE

33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of Your statutes, and I shall keep it to the end.
 34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep Your law
 and observe it with my whole heart.
 35 Lead me in the path of Your commandments,
 for I delight in them.
 36 Incline my heart unto Your testimonies,
 and not for unjust gain.
 37 Turn away my eyes from beholding worthlessness,
 and revive me in Your way.
 38 Establish Your word to Your servant,
 so that You are feared.
 39 Turn away my reproach that I dread,
 for Your judgments are good.
 40 Behold, I have a longing for Your precepts;
 revive me in Your righteousness.

ι WAW

41 Let Your mercies come to me, O LORD,
 even Your deliverance according to Your word.
 42 So I shall have an answer for him who reproaches
 me,
 for I trust in Your word.
 43 Do not take the word of truth out of my mouth,
 for I have hoped in Your judgments.
 44 So I shall keep Your law continually,
 forever and ever.
 45 I will walk in an open space,
 for I seek Your precepts.
 46 I will speak of Your testimonies also before kings and will not be ashamed.
 47 I will delight in Your commandments,

which I have loved.
 48 My hands I will lift up unto Your commandments,
 which I have loved;
 I will meditate on Your statutes.

κ ZAYIN

49 Remember Your word to Your servant,
 on which You have caused me to hope.
 50 This is my comfort in my affliction,
 for Your word revives me.
 51 The proud ones have derided me,
 yet I have not forsaken Your law.
 52 I remembered Your judgments of old, O LORD,
 and I have comforted myself.
 53 Fury has taken hold of me because of the wicked who forsake Your law.
 54 Your statutes have been my songs
 in the house of my temporary dwelling.
 55 I have remembered Your name, O LORD, in the night,
 and have kept Your law.
 56 This is my blessing,
 because I have kept Your precepts.

λ HETH

57 You are my portion, O LORD;
 I have said that I would keep Your words.
 58 I seek Your favor with my whole heart;
 be merciful to me according to Your word.
 59 I consider my ways,
 and I turn my feet to Your testimonies.
 60 I made haste, and I did not delay
 to keep Your commandments.
 61 The bands of the wicked have trapped me,
 but I have not forgotten Your law.
 62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks to You,
 because of Your righteous judgments.
 63 I am a companion of all who fear You,
 and of those who keep Your precepts.
 64 The earth, O LORD, is full of Your mercy;
 teach me Your statutes.

υ TETH

65 You have been good to Your servant,
 O LORD, according to Your word.
 66 Teach me good discernment and knowledge,
 for I have believed Your commandments.
 67 Before I was afflicted I wandered,
 but now I keep Your word.
 68 You are good and do good;
 teach me Your statutes.
 69 The proud have spoken lies against me,
 but I keep Your precepts with my whole heart.
 70 Their heart is as thick as fat,
 but I delight in Your law.
 71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I might learn Your statutes.
 72 The law from Your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver coins.

י YODH

⁷³ Your hands have made me and fashioned me;
give me understanding, that I may learn Your commandments.

⁷⁴ Those who fear You will be glad when they see me, because I have hoped in Your word.

⁷⁵ I know, O LORD, that Your judgments are right,
and that You in faithfulness have afflicted me.

⁷⁶ Let Your merciful kindness comfort me,
according to Your word to Your servant.

⁷⁷ Let Your compassion come to me, that I may live,
for Your law is my delight.

⁷⁸ Let the proud be ashamed, for they have been wicked to me in falsehood,
but I will meditate on Your precepts.

⁷⁹ Let those who fear You turn to me,
that they might know Your testimonies.

⁸⁰ Let my heart be blameless in Your statutes, that I may not be ashamed.

כ KAPH

⁸¹ My soul longs for Your deliverance, but I hope in Your word.

⁸² My eyes are weary for Your word, saying, "When will You comfort me?"

⁸³ For I have become like a wineskin dried in the smoke,
yet I have not forgotten Your statutes.

⁸⁴ How many days are given to Your servant?
When will You provide judgment on those who persecute me?

⁸⁵ The proud have dug pits for me,
and they do not live in accordance to Your law.

⁸⁶ All Your commandments are faithful;
I am persecuted without cause; help me!

⁸⁷ They have almost consumed me on the earth,
but I have not abandoned Your precepts.

⁸⁸ Revive me according to Your lovingkindness, that I may keep the testimony from Your mouth.

ל LAMEDH

⁸⁹ Forever, O LORD, Your word is established in heaven.

⁹⁰ Your faithfulness is for all generations;
You have established the earth, and it is firm.

⁹¹ They continue this day according to Your ordinance,
for all are Your servants.

⁹² Unless Your law had been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.

⁹³ I will never forget Your precepts,
for with them You have revived me.

⁹⁴ I am Yours; deliver me,
for I have sought Your precepts.

⁹⁵ The wicked have waited to destroy me,
but I will consider Your testimonies.

⁹⁶ I have seen that all perfection has an end,
but Your commandment is quite broad.

מ MEM

⁹⁷ Oh, how I love Your law!

It is my meditation all the day.

⁹⁸ Your commandments have made me wiser than my enemies,
for they are continually with me.

⁹⁹ I have more understanding than all my teachers,
for Your testimonies are my meditation.

¹⁰⁰ I understand more than the elders,
because I keep Your precepts.

¹⁰¹ I have restrained my feet from every evil way,
that I might keep Your word.

¹⁰² I have not departed from Your judgments,
for You have taught me.

¹⁰³ How sweet are Your words to the taste of my
mouth!

Sweeter than honey to my mouth!

¹⁰⁴ Through Your precepts I receive understanding;
therefore I hate every false way.

נ NUN

¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp to my feet
and a light to my path.

¹⁰⁶ I have sworn, and I will perform it,
that I will keep Your righteous judgments.

¹⁰⁷ I am greatly afflicted;
revive me, O LORD, according to Your word.

¹⁰⁸ Accept the freewill offerings of my praise, O LORD, and teach me Your judgments.

¹⁰⁹ My soul is continually in my hand,
yet I do not forget Your law.

¹¹⁰ The wicked have laid a trap for me,
yet I do not depart from Your precepts.

¹¹¹ Your testimonies are my inheritance forever,
for they are the rejoicing of my heart.

¹¹² I have inclined my heart to perform Your statutes always,
even unto the end.

ס SAMEKH

¹¹³ I hate those who are double-minded,
but I love Your law.

¹¹⁴ You are my hiding place and my shield,
I hope in Your word.

¹¹⁵ Depart from me, you who are wicked,
for I keep the commandments of my God.

¹¹⁶ Uphold me according to Your word, that I may live,
and let me not be ashamed with my hope.

¹¹⁷ Hold me up, and I shall be safe,
and I will have respect for Your statutes continually.

¹¹⁸ You have rejected all those who stray from Your statutes,
for their deceit is falsehood.

¹¹⁹ You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross;
therefore I love Your testimonies.

¹²⁰ My body trembles for fear of You, and I am afraid of Your judgments.

ע AYIN

121 I have done what is right and just;
do not abandon me to my oppressors.
122 Be true to Your servant for good;
let not the proud ones oppress me.
123 My eyes long for Your deliverance
and for the promise of Your righteousness.
124 Deal with Your servant according to Your mercy,
and teach me Your statutes.
125 I am Your servant; grant me understanding,
that I may know Your testimonies.
126 It is time for You, O LORD, to act,
for they have broken Your law.
127 Therefore I love Your commandments above gold, even fine gold.
128 For I follow all Your precepts to be right,
and I hate every false way.

פ PE

129 Your testimonies are wonderful;
therefore my soul keeps them.
130 The giving of Your words gives light;
it grants understanding to the simple.
131 I opened my mouth and panted,
for I long for Your commandments.
132 Look upon me, and be merciful to me,
as You are for those who love Your name.
133 Order my steps according to Your word,
and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.
134 Deliver me from the oppression of man,
so I will keep Your precepts.
135 Make Your face to shine upon Your servant,
and teach me Your statutes.
136 Rivers of waters run down my eyes,
because people do not keep Your law.

י TSADHE

137 You are righteous, O LORD,
and upright are Your judgments.
138 You have set Your testimonies in righteousness and faithfulness.
139 My zeal has consumed me,
because my enemies have forgotten Your words.
140 Your word is pure and true;
therefore Your servant loves it.
141 I am small and despised,
yet I do not forget Your precepts.
142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness,
and Your law is true.
143 Trouble and anguish have discovered me,
but Your commandments are my delight.
144 The righteousness of Your testimonies is everlast-
ing;
grant me understanding, and I shall live.

ק QOPH

145 I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O LORD,
I will keep Your statutes.
146 I cried unto You; deliver me,

and I shall keep Your testimonies.
147 I arose before the dawn of the morning and cried
for help;
I hope in Your words.
148 My eyes are awake before the night watches,
that I might meditate on Your word.
149 Hear my voice according to Your lovingkindness, O
LORD;
revive me according to Your judgment.
150 They draw close, those who persecute me with evil;
they are far from Your law.
151 But You are near, O LORD,
and all Your commandments are true.
152 I have known of old
that You have established Your testimonies forever.

ר RESH

153 Consider my affliction, and deliver me,
for I do not forget Your law.
154 Plead my cause, and defend me;
revive me according to Your word.
155 Salvation is far from the wicked,
for they do not seek Your statutes.
156 Great are Your compassions, O LORD; revive me according to Your judgments.
157 Many are my persecutors and my enemies,
yet I do not turn from Your testimonies.
158 I behold the transgressors with disgust,
because they have not kept Your word.
159 Consider how I love Your precepts;
revive me, O LORD, according to Your lovingkind-
ness.
160 Your word is true from the beginning,
and every one of Your righteous judgments endures
forever.

ש SIN AND SHIN

161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause,
but my heart stands in awe of Your words.
162 I rejoice at Your word,
as one who finds great plunder.
163 I hate and abhor lying,
but I love Your law.
164 Seven times a day I praise You,
because of Your righteous judgments.
165 Those who love Your law have great peace,
and nothing shall cause them to stumble.
166 LORD, I have hoped for Your deliverance, and I carry out Your commandments.
167 My soul has kept Your testimonies,
and I love them greatly.
168 I have kept Your precepts and Your testimonies,
for all my ways are before You.

ת TAW

169 Let my cry come near before You, O LORD;
give me understanding according to Your word.
170 Let my supplication come before You;

deliver me according to Your word.
¹⁷¹ My lips shall declare praise,
 for You have taught me Your statutes.
¹⁷² My tongue shall speak of Your word,
 for all Your commandments are right.
¹⁷³ Let Your hand help me,
 for I have chosen Your precepts.
¹⁷⁴ I have longed for Your salvation, O LORD,
 and Your law is my delight.
¹⁷⁵ Let my soul live and praise You,
 and let Your judgments come to my aid.
¹⁷⁶ I have wandered like a lost sheep;
 seek Your servant,
 for I do not forget Your commandments.

A Song of Ascents.

120 In my distress I cried unto the LORD,
 and He heard me.
² Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips
 and from a deceitful tongue.
³ What shall be given to you,
 or what shall be done to you, you false tongue?
⁴ Sharp arrows of the warrior,
 with coals of the broom tree!
⁵ Woe is me, that I have sojourned in Meshek,
 or that I have dwelled among the tents of Kedar!
⁶ My soul has long lived with those who hate peace.
⁷ I am for peace,
 but when I speak, they are for war!

A Song of Ascents.

121 I will lift up my eyes to the hills,
 from where does my help come?
² My help comes from the LORD,
 who made heaven and earth.
³ He will not let your foot slip;
 He who keeps you will not slumber.
⁴ Behold, He who guards Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.
⁵ The LORD is your guardian;
 the LORD is your shade at your right hand.
⁶ The sun shall not harm you during the day,
 nor the moon during the night.
⁷ The LORD shall protect you from all evil;
 He shall preserve your soul.
⁸ The LORD shall preserve your going out and your coming in from now and for evermore.

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

122 I was glad when they said to me,
 "Let us go into the house of the LORD."
² Our feet shall stand within your gates, O Jerusalem.
³ Jerusalem is built as a city that is designed for a multitude, ⁴ where the tribes go up,
 the tribes of the LORD,

as a decree of Israel,
 to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.
⁵ There are set thrones of judgment,
 the thrones of the house of David.
⁶ Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
 "May they prosper who love you!
⁷ Peace be within your walls and security within your towers!"
⁸ For my brothers and companions' sake,
 I will now say, "Peace be within you."
⁹ Because of the house of the LORD our God,
 I will seek your good.

A Song of Ascents.

123 To You I lift up my eyes,
 O You who dwell in the heavens.
² Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master,
 and as the eyes of a maiden to the hand of her mistress,
 so our eyes look upon the LORD our God,
 until He has mercy upon us.
³ Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us,
 for we have been completely filled with contempt.
⁴ Our soul is exceedingly filled with the ridicule of those who are at ease,
 and with the contempt of the proud ones.

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

124 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
 now may Israel say,
² if it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
 when men rose up against us,
³ then they would have swallowed us up,
 when their wrath was kindled against us;
⁴ then the flood would have overwhelmed us,
 the torrent would have passed over our lives;
⁵ then the surging waters
 would have gone over us.
⁶ Blessed be the LORD,
 who has not given us for a prey to their teeth.
⁷ We have escaped
 as a bird out of the snare of the hunters;
 the snare is broken,
 and we have escaped.
⁸ Our help is in the name of the LORD,
 who made heaven and earth.

A Song of Ascents.

125 Those who trust in the LORD shall be as Mount Zion,
 which cannot be removed, but abides forever.
² As the mountains are around Jerusalem,
 so the LORD surrounds His people,
 from now and forever.
³ For the scepter of the wicked shall not rest upon the land allotted to the righteous, lest the righteous put forth

their hands to do iniquity.

⁴ Do good, O LORD, for those who are good,
and to those who are upright in their hearts.

⁵ As for those who turn aside to their twisted ways,
the LORD shall lead them away with the other workers of iniquity.

Peace be upon Israel!

A Song of Ascents.

126 When the LORD restored the captives of Zion,
we were like those who dream.

² Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with singing.

Then they said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."

³ The LORD has done great things for us;
we are glad.

⁴ Restore our captives, O LORD,
as the streams in the Negev.

⁵ Those who sow in tears
shall reap in joy.

⁶ He who goes forth and weeps,
bearing precious seed to sow,
shall come home again with rejoicing,
bringing his grain sheaves with him.

A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.

127 Except the LORD build the house,
those who build labor in vain;

except the LORD guards the city,
the watchman stays awake in vain.

² It is in vain for you to rise up early,
to stay up late,
and to eat the bread of hard toil,
for He gives sleep to His beloved.

³ Look, children are a gift of the LORD,
and the fruit of the womb is a reward.

⁴ As arrows in the hand of a mighty warrior,
so are the children of one's youth.

⁵ Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them;
he shall not be ashamed
when he speaks with the enemies at the gate.

A Song of Ascents.

128 Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD,
who walks in His ways.

² For you shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands;
you will be happy, and it shall be well with you.

³ Your wife shall be as a fruitful vine
in your house,
your children like olive shoots
around your table.

⁴ Behold, this man shall be blessed who fears the LORD.

⁵ The LORD shall bless you from Zion, and may you see the welfare of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.

⁶ Indeed, may you see your children's children.

Peace upon Israel!

A Song of Ascents.

129 "Often they have afflicted me from my youth,"
may Israel now say,

² "often they have afflicted me from my youth,
yet they have not prevailed against me.

³ The plowmen plowed upon my back;
they made their furrows long."

⁴ The LORD is righteous;
He has cut the cords of the wicked.

⁵ Let all those be shamed and turned back who hate Zion.

⁶ Let them be as the grass on the housetops,
which withers before it even grows,

⁷ where the reaper is unable to fill his hand,
or he who binds sheaves, his arms.

⁸ Neither do they who pass by say,
"The blessing of the LORD be upon you;
we bless you in the name of the LORD!"

A Song of Ascents.

130 From the depths I call on You, O LORD!
² O Lord, hear my voice;

let Your ears be attentive
to the sound of my supplications.

³ If you, O LORD, should keep track of iniquities,
O Lord, who shall stand?

⁴ For there is forgiveness with You,
that You may be feared.

⁵ I wait for the LORD, with bated breath I wait;
I long for His Word!

⁶ My soul waits for the Lord,
more than watchmen for the morning,
more than watchmen for the morning.

⁷ Let Israel wait for the LORD!
For mercy is found with the LORD;
with Him is great redemption.

⁸ He shall redeem Israel
from all their iniquities.

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

131 LORD, my heart is not haughty,
my eyes are not raised too high.

I have not striven for enormities,
for things too wonderful for me.

² I composed and quieted my desire,
like a child given suck by his mother;
like a child who sucks is my desire within me.

³ Let Israel hope in the LORD
from now and forever.

2Ch 6:41-42

A Song of Ascents.

132 O LORD, remember David and all his afflictions,

² how he swore unto the LORD,
and vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob:

³ "I will not come into my house,

nor go up to my bed;
⁴ I will not give sleep to my eyes,
 or slumber to my eyelids,
⁵ until I find a place for the LORD ,
 a dwelling for the mighty God of Jacob."
⁶ We heard of it in Ephrathah;
 we found it in the fields of Jaar.
⁷ "We will go to His dwelling place,
 we will worship at His footstool."
⁸ Arise, O LORD , go to Your resting place,
 You and the ark of Your strength.
⁹ Let Your priests be clothed with righteousness,
 and let Your godly ones shout for joy.
¹⁰ For Your servant David's sake,
 do not turn away Your anointed king.
¹¹ The LORD has sworn with a sure oath to David that He will not turn from it:
 "From the fruit of your body
 I will set a son on your throne.
¹² If your children will keep My covenant
 and My testimonies that I shall teach them, then their children shall also sit upon your throne forever."
¹³ For the LORD has chosen Zion;
 He has desired it for His dwelling:
¹⁴ "This is My resting place forever;
 here I will dwell, for I have chosen it.
¹⁵ I will abundantly bless her provisions;
 I will satisfy her poor with bread.
¹⁶ I will also clothe her priests with salvation,
 and her godly ones shall shout for joy.
¹⁷ "There I will make a horn sprout for David;
 I have prepared a lamp for My anointed one.
¹⁸ His enemies I will clothe with shame,
 but on him his crown will shine."

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

133 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity!
² It is like precious oil upon the head,
 that runs down on the beard—
 even Aaron's beard—
 and going down to the collar of his garments;
³ as the dew of Hermon,
 that descends upon the mountains of Zion,
 for there the LORD has commanded the blessing,
 even life forever.

A Song of Ascents.

134 Come, bless the LORD , all you servants of the LORD ,
 who by night stand in the house of the LORD .
² Lift up your hands in the sanctuary,
 and bless the LORD .
³ May the LORD who made heaven and earth
 bless you from Zion.

Ps 115:4-11

135 Praise the LORD !
 Praise the name of the LORD

praise Him, O servants of the LORD , ² you who stand in the house of the LORD ,
 in the courts of the house of our God!
³ Praise the LORD , for the LORD is good;
 sing praises unto His name, for it is pleasant.
⁴ For the LORD has chosen Jacob for Himself, and Israel for His special possession.
⁵ For I know that the LORD is great,
 and that our Lord is above all gods.
⁶ Whatever the LORD pleases,
 He does in heaven and on earth,
 in the seas and all the depths.
⁷ He causes the clouds to ascend from the ends of the
 earth;
 He makes lightning for the rain;
 He brings the wind out from His storehouses.
⁸ He struck down the firstborn of Egypt,
 both of man and animal.
⁹ He sent signs and wonders into your midst, O
 Egypt,
 against Pharaoh and all his servants;
¹⁰ He struck down great nations and slew mighty kings—¹¹ Sihon, king of the Amorites,
 and Og king of Bashan,
 and all the kingdoms of Canaan—
¹² and gave their land for an inheritance,
 a possession to Israel His people.
¹³ Your name, O LORD , endures forever;
 and Your renown, O LORD , throughout all generations.
¹⁴ For the LORD will defend His people,
 and He will have compassion on His servants.
¹⁵ The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
 the work of men's hands.
¹⁶ They have mouths, but do not speak;
 they have eyes, but do not see;
¹⁷ they have ears, but do not hear;
 neither is there any breath in their mouths.
¹⁸ Those who make them are like them;
 so is everyone who trusts in them.
¹⁹ Bless the LORD , O house of Israel;
 bless the LORD , O house of Aaron.
²⁰ Bless the LORD , O house of Levi;
 you who fear the LORD , bless the LORD .
²¹ Blessed be the LORD from Zion,
 who dwells at Jerusalem.
 Praise you the LORD !

136 Oh, give thanks unto the LORD , for He is
 good,
 for His mercy endures forever.
² Oh, give thanks unto the God of gods,
 for His mercy endures forever.
³ Oh, give thanks to the Lord of lords,
 for His mercy endures forever:
⁴ to Him who alone does great wonders,
 for His mercy endures forever;
⁵ to Him who by wisdom made the heavens,

for His mercy endures forever;
⁶ to Him who stretched out the earth above the waters,
 for His mercy endures forever;
⁷ to Him who made the great heavenly lights,
 for His mercy endures forever;
⁸ the sun to rule over the day,
 for His mercy endures forever;
⁹ the moon and stars to rule over the night,
 for His mercy endures forever;
¹⁰ to Him who struck down in Egypt their firstborn,
 for His mercy endures forever;
¹¹ and brought out Israel from among them,
 for His mercy endures forever;
¹² with a strong hand and a stretched-out arm,
 for His mercy endures forever;
¹³ to Him who divided the Red Sea into two,
 for His mercy endures forever;
¹⁴ and made Israel to pass through the midst of it,
 for His mercy endures forever;
¹⁵ but overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red Sea,
 for His mercy endures forever;
¹⁶ to Him who led His people through the wilderness,
 for His mercy endures forever;
¹⁷ to Him who struck down great kings,
 for His mercy endures forever;
¹⁸ and slew mighty kings,
 for His mercy endures forever;
¹⁹ Sihon king of the Amorites,
 for His mercy endures forever;
²⁰ and Og king of Bashan,
 for His mercy endures forever;
²¹ and gave their land for a possession,
 for His mercy endures forever;
²² even an inheritance to Israel His servant,
 for His mercy endures forever.
²³ Who remembered us in our low place,
 for His mercy endures forever;
²⁴ and has redeemed us from our enemies,
 for His mercy endures forever;
²⁵ who gives food to all people,
 for His mercy endures forever.
²⁶ Give thanks unto the God of heaven,
 for His mercy endures forever.

137 By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down and wept
 when we remembered Zion.
² We hung our harps
 upon the poplars.
³ For there our captors made us sing
 and our tormentors made us entertain, saying, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion."
⁴ How shall we sing the song of the LORD
 in a foreign land?
⁵ If I forget you, O Jerusalem,
 let my right hand forget its skill.
⁶ If I do not remember you,
 let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth,

if I do not have Jerusalem
 as my highest joy.
⁷ Remember, O LORD, the people of Edom
 in the day of Jerusalem,
 who said, "Raze it, raze it,
 down to its foundations."
⁸ O daughter of Babylon, who is to be destroyed, blessed is the one who rewards you
 as you have done to us.
⁹ Blessed is the one who takes and dashes your little ones against the rocks.

A Psalm of David.

138 I will praise You, O LORD, with my whole
 heart;
 before the gods I will sing Your praise.
² I will worship toward Your holy temple,
 and praise Your name
 for Your lovingkindness and for Your truth;
 for You have exalted Your word
 above all Your name.
³ On the day I called, You answered me,
 and strengthened me in my soul.
⁴ All the kings of the earth shall praise You, O LORD,
 for they have heard the words of Your mouth.
⁵ Indeed, they shall sing of the ways of the LORD,
 for great is the glory of the LORD.
⁶ Though the LORD is exalted, yet He has concern for the lowly,
 but the proud one He knows from a distance.
⁷ Though I walk in the midst of trouble,
 You will preserve me;
 You stretch forth Your hand against the wrath of my enemies,
 and Your right hand saves me.
⁸ The LORD will fulfill His purpose for me;
 Your mercy, O LORD, endures forever;
 do not forsake the works of Your hands.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

139 O LORD, You have searched me
 and known me.
² You know when I sit down and when I get up;
 You understand my thought from far off.
³ You search my path and my lying down
 and are aware of all my ways.
⁴ For there is not a word on my tongue,
 but behold, O LORD, You know it fully.
⁵ You put Yourself behind and before me,
 and keep Your hand on me.
⁶ Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
 it is lofty, and I cannot fathom it.
⁷ Where shall I go from Your spirit,
 or where shall I flee from Your presence?
⁸ If I ascend to heaven, You are there;
 if I make my bed in Sheol, You are there.
⁹ If I take the wings of the morning and dwell at the end of the sea,

¹⁰ even there Your hand shall guide me,
and Your right hand shall take hold of me.
¹¹ If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me,
and the light shall be as night about me," ¹² even the darkness is not dark to You,
but the night shines as the day,
for the darkness is like light to You.
¹³ You brought my inner parts into being;
You wove me in my mother's womb.
¹⁴ I will praise you, for You made me with fear and wonder;
marvelous are Your works,
and You know me completely.
¹⁵ My frame was not hidden from You
when I was made in secret, and intricately put together in the lowest parts of the
earth.

¹⁶ Your eyes saw me unformed, yet in Your book
all my days were written,
before any of them came into being.
¹⁷ How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
¹⁸ If I should count them,
they are more in number than the sand;
when I awake,
I am still with You.
¹⁹ If only You would slay the wicked, O God!
O violent men, depart from me.
²⁰ For they speak against You with malice,
and Your enemies take your name in vain.
²¹ Do I not hate those, O LORD, who hate You?
And do I not abhor those who rise up against You?
²² I hate them with perfect hatred;
I count them my enemies.
²³ Search me, O God, and know my heart;
try me, and know my concerns,
²⁴ and see if there is any rebellious way in me,
and lead me in the ancient way.

For the Music Director. A Psalm of David.

140 Deliver me, O LORD, from evil men;
protect me from violent men,
² who plan evil deeds in their heart
and continually gather together for conflicts.
³ They have tongues as sharp as a serpent;
adders' poison is with their lips. Selah
⁴ Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked;
preserve me from the violent men who have planned to overthrow me.
⁵ The proud have hid a snare for me,
and with cords they have spread a net;
they have set traps for me. Selah
⁶ I said to the LORD, "You are my God;
hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD."
⁷ O GOD my Lord, the strength of my salvation,
You have covered my head in the day of battle.
⁸ Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked;

do not allow his evil plot,
lest he be raised up. Selah
⁹ As for the head of those who encompass me,
let the mischief of their own lips overwhelm them;
¹⁰ let burning coals fall upon them;
let them be cast into the fire,
into deep pits that they do not rise up again.
¹¹ Let not an evil speaker be established in the land;
let evil hunt the violent man to overthrow him!
¹² I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted
and will give justice to the poor.
¹³ Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto Your
name;
the upright shall dwell in Your presence.

A Psalm of David.

141 LORD, I cry unto You; make haste to me;
give ear to my voice, when I cry unto You.
² Let my prayer be set forth before You as incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.
³ Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth;
keep watch over the door of my lips.
⁴ Do not let my heart be drawn to any evil,
to practice wicked deeds
with men who do iniquity,
and do not let me eat of their delights.
⁵ Let the righteous man strike me;
it shall be a kindness.
Let him rebuke me;
it shall be oil for my head;
let my head not refuse it.
For my prayer is continually against their evil deeds.
⁶ When their judges are thrown to stony places,
then they shall hear my words, for they are sweet.
⁷ As when one plows to break up the land,
so our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.
⁸ But my eyes are unto You, O GOD my Lord,
in You is my trust; do not leave my soul defenseless.
⁹ Keep me from the snares that they have laid for me,
and the traps of those who do iniquity.
¹⁰ Let the wicked fall into their own nets,
while I pass by and escape.

A Contemplative Maskil of David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

142 I cried unto the LORD with my voice;
with my voice I made my supplication unto
the LORD.
² I poured out my complaint before Him;
I declared to Him my trouble.
³ When my spirit was overwhelmed within me,
then You knew my path.
In the way where I walk,
they have laid a snare for me.
⁴ I looked on my right and noticed,
but there was no one who would care for me;

there is no refuge for me;
 no one cares for my soul.
⁵ I cried unto You, O LORD;
 I said, "You are my refuge and my portion in the land of the living."
⁶ Attend to my cry,
 for I am brought very low;
 deliver me from my persecutors,
 for they are stronger than me.
⁷ Bring my soul out of prison,
 that I may praise Your name;
 the righteous shall surround me,
 for You shall deal bountifully with me.

A Psalm of David.

143 Hear my prayer, O LORD,
 give ear to my supplications;
 in Your faithfulness answer me,
 and in Your righteousness.
² Enter not into judgment with Your servant,
 for in Your sight no one living is righteous.
³ For the enemy has persecuted my soul;
 he has crushed my life down to the ground;
 he has made me to dwell in darkness,
 as those who have been long dead.
⁴ Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within me;
 my heart within me is desolate.
⁵ I remember the days of old;
 I meditate on all Your works;
 I consider the work of Your hands.
⁶ I stretch forth my hands unto You;
 my soul thirsts after You as a thirsty land. Selah
⁷ Respond to me quickly, O LORD,
 my spirit fails;
 do not hide Your face from me,
 lest I be like those who go down into the pit.
⁸ Cause me to hear Your lovingkindness in the morning;
 for in You I have my trust;
 cause me to know the way I should walk,
 for I lift up my soul unto You.
⁹ Deliver me, O LORD, from my enemies;
 I flee unto You for my protection.
¹⁰ Teach me to do Your will,
 for You are my God;
 may Your good spirit
 lead me onto level ground.
¹¹ Revive me, O LORD, for Your name's sake, for Your righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.
¹² In Your mercy cut off my enemies,
 and destroy all them who afflict my soul,
 for I am Your servant.

A Psalm of David.

144 Blessed be the LORD my strength,
 who prepares my hands for war,
 and my fingers to fight;

² my goodness, and my fortress;
 my high tower, and my deliverer,
 my shield, and in whom I trust;
 who subdues nations under me.
³ O LORD, who is man that You take notice of him or the son of a man that You make account of him?
⁴ Man is like a breath;
 his days are as a shadow that passes away.
⁵ Bow your heavens, O LORD, and come down;
 touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
⁶ Cast forth lightning, and scatter them;
 shoot out Your arrows, and destroy them.
⁷ Send Your hand from above;
 rescue me, and deliver me
 out of the great waters,
 from the hand of foreigners,
⁸ whose mouth speaks lies,
 and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
⁹ I will sing a new song unto You, O God, on a harp and an instrument of ten strings I will sing
 praises unto You;
¹⁰ it is He who gives victory to kings,
 who delivers David His servant from the cruel sword.
¹¹ Rescue me and deliver me
 from the hand of foreigners,
 whose mouths speak lies
 and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
¹² May our sons in their youth
 be like plants full grown,
 and our daughters like cornerstones,
 cut in the similitude of a palace, ¹³ that our granaries may be full,
 providing all manner of produce,
 that our sheep may bring forth
 thousands and ten thousands in our fields, ¹⁴ and may our cattle be strong in labor.
 May there be no breaking in or going out,
 and no wailing in our streets.
¹⁵ Blessed are the people who have such things;
 indeed, blessed are the people whose God is the LORD.

A Psalm of Praise. Of David.

145 I will exalt you, my God and King,
 and I will bless Your name forever and ever.
² Every day I will bless You,
 and I will praise Your name forever and ever.
³ Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised,
 and His greatness is unfathomable.
⁴ One generation shall praise Your works to another and shall declare Your mighty acts.
⁵ I will speak of the glorious honor of Your majesty and of Your wondrous works.
⁶ They shall speak of the might of Your awesome acts, and I will declare Your greatness.

7 They shall abundantly declare the fame of Your great goodness and shall sing of Your righteousness.
 8 The LORD is gracious and full of compassion, slow to anger, and great in mercy.
 9 The LORD is good to all, and His compassion is over all His works.
 10 All Your works shall praise You, O LORD, and Your godly ones shall bless You.
 11 They shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom and talk of Your power, 12 to make known to people His mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of His kingdom.
 13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Your dominion endures throughout all generations.
 14 The LORD upholds all who fall, and raises up all who are bowed down.
 15 The eyes of all wait upon You, and You give them their food in due season.
 16 You open Your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
 17 The LORD is righteous in all His ways and loving in all His works.
 18 The LORD is near to all those who call upon Him, to all who call upon Him in truth.
 19 He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him; He also will hear their cry and will save them.
 20 The LORD preserves all those who love Him, but all the wicked He will destroy.
 21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD, and let all people bless His holy name forever and ever.

146 Praise the LORD !
 Praise the LORD, O my soul!
 2 While I live I will praise the LORD ; I will sing praises unto my God while I have my life.
 3 Do not put your trust in princes, nor in a son of man, in whom there is no help.
 4 His breath leaves him, and he returns to the earth; on that very day his plans perish.
 5 Blessed is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God,
 6 who made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, who keeps faithfulness forever,
 7 who executes justice for the oppressed, who gives food to the hungry.
 The LORD releases the prisoners.
 8 The LORD opens the eyes of the blind; the LORD raises those who are brought down; the LORD loves the righteous.
 9 The LORD preserves the sojourners; He lifts up the fatherless and widow, but on the way of the wicked He brings disaster.
 10 The LORD shall reign forever, your God, O Zion, unto all generations.
 Praise you the LORD !

147 Praise the LORD !
 For it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant, and a song of praise is fitting.
 2 The LORD builds up Jerusalem; He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
 3 He heals the broken in heart, and binds up their wounds.
 4 He counts the number of the stars; He calls them all by their names.
 5 Great is our Lord and great in power; His understanding is without measure.
 6 The LORD lifts up the meek; He casts the wicked down to the ground.
 7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God:
 8 who covers the heaven with clouds, who provides rain for the earth, who makes grass to grow upon the mountains.
 9 He gives food to the animals and to the young ravens that chirp.
 10 He delights not in the strength of the horse, nor does He take pleasure in the legs of a man, 11 but the LORD takes pleasure in those who fear Him,
 in those who hope in His mercy.
 12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise your God, O Zion.
 13 For He has strengthened the bars of your gates; He has blessed your children within you.
 14 He makes peace in your borders, and fills you with the finest of the wheat.
 15 He sends forth His commandment on the earth; His word goes out swiftly.
 16 He gives snow like wool; He scatters the frost like ashes;
 17 He casts forth His ice like morsels; who can stand before His cold?
 18 He sends out His word and melts them; He causes His wind to blow and the waters flow.
 19 He shows His word to Jacob, and His statutes and His judgments to Israel.
 20 He has not dealt so with any other nation; they have not known His judgments.
 Praise the LORD !

148 Praise the LORD !
 Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise Him in the heights.
 2 Praise Him, all His angels; praise Him, all His heavenly hosts.
 3 Praise Him, sun and moon; praise Him, all you stars of light.
 4 Praise Him, you highest of heavens, and you waters that are above the skies.
 5 Let them praise the name of the LORD, for He commanded, and they were created.
 6 He has also established them forever and ever; He has made a decree that shall not pass away.
 7 Praise the LORD from the earth,

you great sea creatures, and all you depths, ⁸ fire and hail, snow and mist,
 storming wind fulfilling His word, ⁹ mountains and all hills,
 fruitful trees and all cedars;
¹⁰ animals and all cattle,
 creeping things and flying birds;
¹¹ kings of the earth and all peoples,
 princes and all rulers of the earth;
¹² both young men and maidens,
 old men and children.
¹³ Let them praise the name of the LORD ,
 for His name alone is excellent;
 His glory is above the earth and heaven.
¹⁴ He has raised up a victory horn for His people,
 praise for all His saints,
 even for the people of Israel near Him.
 Praise the LORD !

149 Praise the LORD !
 Sing unto the LORD a new song,
 and His praise in the assembly of the godly ones.
² Let Israel rejoice in its Maker;
 let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
³ Let them praise His name with dancing;
 let them sing praises unto Him with the tambourine
 and harp.

⁴ For the LORD takes pleasure in His people;
 He will beautify the meek with salvation.
⁵ Let the godly ones be joyful in glory;
 let them sing for joy on their beds.
⁶ Let the high praises of God be in their mouths,
 and two-edged swords in their hands,
⁷ to execute vengeance on the nations,
 and punishments on the peoples;
⁸ to bind their kings with chains,
 and their nobles with shackles of iron;
⁹ to execute upon them the written judgment;
 this is honor for all His godly ones.
 Praise the LORD !

Praise the LORD !
150 Praise God in His sanctuary;
 praise Him in the firmament of His power!
² Praise Him for His mighty acts;
 praise Him according to His excellent greatness!
³ Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet;
 praise Him with the lyre and harp!
⁴ Praise Him with the tambourine and dancing;
 praise Him with stringed instruments and flute!
⁵ Praise Him with loud cymbals;
 praise Him with the clanging cymbals!
⁶ Let everything that has breath praise the LORD .
 Praise the LORD !

PROVERBS

Proverbs is wisdom literature, especially divine virtue for practical daily living. These proverbs were an anthology of Solomonic sayings. They were likely written in about 900 BC. King Solomon, famous for his wisdom, was responsible for a core of the material, but others include King Lemuel and Agur. The style is short, to the point, and often poetic; the use of contrast and comparison is found throughout the collection. While these proverbs were addressed to the Hebrews, their wisdom is timeless, and Christian believers today find in them a source of comfort and guidance. Further, the practical wisdom in Proverbs is beneficial to any person who wants to live a virtuous and God-fearing life.

The Purpose and Theme

- 1 The proverbs of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel:
- ² To know wisdom and instruction,
to perceive the words of understanding,
³ to receive the instruction of wisdom,
justice, judgment, and equity;
⁴ to give subtlety to the simple,
to the young man knowledge and discretion—
⁵ a wise man will hear and will increase learning,
and a man of understanding will attain wise counsel,
⁶ to understand a proverb and the interpretation,
the words of the wise and their riddles.
⁷ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge,
but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

The Prologue: Embrace Wisdom

- ⁸ My son, hear the instruction of your father,
and do not forsake the teaching of your mother;
⁹ for they will be a garland of grace on your head,
and chains about your neck.
¹⁰ My son, if sinners entice you,
do not consent.
¹¹ If they say, "Come with us,
let us lie in wait for blood;
let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause;
¹² let us swallow them up alive as the grave,
and whole, as those who go down into the pit;
¹³ we will find all kinds of precious possessions;
we will fill our houses with spoil;
¹⁴ cast in your lot among us,
let us all have one purse"— ¹⁵ my son, do not walk in the way with them,
keep your foot from their path;
¹⁶ for their feet run to evil
and make haste to shed blood.
¹⁷ Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.
¹⁸ They lie in wait for their own blood;

- they lurk secretly for their own lives.
¹⁹ So are the ways of everyone who is greedy of gain,
which takes away the life of its owners.

The Call of Wisdom

- ²⁰ Wisdom cries out in the street;
she utters her voice in the markets.
²¹ She cries at the corner of the streets, in the openings of the gates;
she speaks her words in the city, saying:
²² "How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity?
For the scorners delight in their scorning,
and fools hate knowledge.
²³ Turn at my reproof;
surely I will pour out my spirit on you;
I will make my words known to you.
²⁴ Because I have called and you refused,
I have stretched out my hand and no man regarded,
²⁵ because you neglected all my counsel,
and would have none of my reproof,
²⁶ I also will laugh at your calamity;
I will mock when your fear comes,
²⁷ when your fear comes as desolation
and your destruction comes as a whirlwind,
when distress and anguish come upon you.
²⁸ "Then they will call on me, but I will not answer;
they will seek me early, but they will not find me.
²⁹ Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD, ³⁰ they would have none of my counsel and despised all my reproof.
³¹ Therefore they will eat of the fruit of their own way,
and be filled with their own devices.
³² For the turning away of the simple will slay them,
and the prosperity of fools will destroy them.
³³ But whoever listens to me will dwell safely,
and will be secure from fear of evil."

The Value of Wisdom

2 My son, if you will receive my words,
 and hide my commandments within you,
² so that you incline your ear to wisdom,
 and apply your heart to understanding;
³ yes, if you cry out for knowledge,
 and lift up your voice for understanding,
⁴ if you seek her as silver,
 and search for her as for hidden treasures,
⁵ then you will understand the fear of the LORD,
 and find the knowledge of God.
⁶ For the LORD gives wisdom;
 out of His mouth come knowledge and understanding.
⁷ He lays up sound wisdom for the righteous;
 He is a shield to those who walk uprightly.
⁸ He keeps the paths of justice,
 and preserves the way of His saints.
⁹ Then you will understand righteousness and judgment
 and equity, and every good path.
¹⁰ When wisdom enters your heart,
 and knowledge is pleasant to your soul, ¹¹ discretion will preserve you;
 understanding will keep you,
¹² to deliver you from the way of the evil man,
 from the man who speaks perverse things,
¹³ from those who leave the paths of uprightness
 to walk in the ways of darkness;
¹⁴ who rejoice to do evil,
 and delight in the perversity of the wicked;
¹⁵ whose ways are crooked,
 and who are devious in their paths;
¹⁶ to deliver you from the immoral woman,
 even from the seductress who flatters with her
 words,
¹⁷ who forsakes the guide of her youth,
 and forgets the covenant of her God.
¹⁸ For her house leads down to death,
 and her paths to the departed spirits;
¹⁹ none who go to her return again,
 nor do they take hold of the paths of life.
²⁰ So you may walk in the way of good men and keep the paths of the righteous.
²¹ For the upright will dwell in the land,
 and the innocent will remain in it;
²² but the wicked will be cut off from the earth,
 and the transgressors will be rooted out of it.

The Rewards of Wisdom

3 My son, do not forget my teaching,
 but let your heart keep my commandments;
² for length of days and long life
 and peace will they add to you.
³ Do not let mercy and truth forsake you;
 bind them around your neck,

write them on the tablet of your heart,
⁴ so you will find favor and good understanding in the sight of God and man.
⁵ Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
 and lean not on your own understanding;
⁶ in all your ways acknowledge Him,
 and He will direct your paths.
⁷ Do not be wise in your own eyes;
 fear the LORD and depart from evil.
⁸ It will be health to your body,
 and strength to your bones.
⁹ Honor the LORD with your substance,
 and with the first fruits of all your increase;
¹⁰ so your barns will be filled with plenty,
 and your presses will burst out with new wine.
¹¹ My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD
 nor be weary of His correction;
¹² for whom the LORD loves He corrects,
 even as a father the son in whom he delights.
¹³ Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
 and the man who gets understanding;
¹⁴ for her benefit is more profitable than silver,
 and her gain than fine gold.
¹⁵ She is more precious than rubies, and all the things you may desire are not to be compared with her.
¹⁶ Length of days is in her right hand,
 and in her left hand riches and honor.
¹⁷ Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
 and all her paths are peace.
¹⁸ She is a tree of life to those who take hold of her,
 and happy is everyone who retains her.
¹⁹ The LORD by wisdom has founded the earth;
 by understanding He has established the heavens;
²⁰ by His knowledge the depths are broken up,
 and the clouds drop down the dew.
²¹ My son, let them not depart from your eyes—
 keep sound wisdom and discretion;
²² so they will be life to your soul
 and grace to your neck.
²³ Then you will walk safely in your way,
 and your foot will not stumble.
²⁴ When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
 yes, you will lie down and your sleep will be sweet.
²⁵ Do not be afraid of sudden terror,
 nor of trouble from the wicked when it comes;
²⁶ for the LORD will be your confidence,
 and will keep your foot from being caught.
²⁷ Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
 when it is in the power of your hand to do it.
²⁸ Do not say to your neighbor,
 “Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give it,”
 when you have it with you.
²⁹ Do not devise evil against your neighbor,
 seeing he dwells securely by you.
³⁰ Do not strive with a man without cause,

if he has done you no harm.
³¹ Do not envy the oppressor,
 and choose none of his ways;
³² for the perverse is an abomination to the LORD,
 but His secret counsel is with the righteous.
³³ The curse of the LORD is on the house of the
 wicked,
 but He blesses the habitation of the just.
³⁴ Surely He scorns the scornful,
 but He gives favor to the humble.
³⁵ The wise will inherit glory,
 but shame will be the legacy of fools.

Wisdom Is Supreme

4 Hear, O children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.
² For I give you good precepts;
 do not forsake my teaching.
³ For I was my father's son, tender and the only beloved in the sight of my mother.
⁴ He also taught me and said to me,
 "Let your heart retain my words;
 keep my commandments, and live."
⁵ Get wisdom! Get understanding!
 Do not forget it, nor turn away from the words of my mouth.
⁶ Do not forsake her, and she will preserve you;
 love her, and she will keep you.
⁷ Wisdom is principal; therefore get wisdom.
 And with all your getting, get understanding.
⁸ Exalt her, and she will promote you;
 she will bring you honor, when you embrace her.
⁹ She will place on your head an ornament of grace;
 a crown of glory she will deliver to you."
¹⁰ Hear, my son, and receive my sayings,
 and the years of your life will be many.
¹¹ I have taught you in the way of wisdom;
 I have led you in right paths.
¹² When you walk, your steps will not be hindered,
 and when you run, you will not stumble.
¹³ Take firm hold of instruction, do not let her go;
 keep her, for she is your life.
¹⁴ Do not enter the path of the wicked,
 and do not go in the way of evil men.
¹⁵ Avoid it, do not travel on it;
 turn from it and pass on.
¹⁶ For they do not sleep unless they have done mischief;
 and their sleep is taken away unless they cause
 some to fall.
¹⁷ For they eat the bread of wickedness
 and drink the wine of violence.
¹⁸ But the path of the just is as the shining light,
 that shines more and more unto the perfect day.
¹⁹ The way of the wicked is as darkness;
 they do not know at what they stumble.
²⁰ My son, attend to my words;

incline your ear to my sayings.
²¹ Do not let them depart from your eyes;
 keep them in the midst of your heart;
²² for they are life to those who find them,
 and health to all their body.
²³ Keep your heart with all diligence,
 for out of it are the issues of life.
²⁴ Put away from you a deceitful mouth,
 and put perverse lips far from you.
²⁵ Let your eyes look right on,
 and let your eyelids look straight before you.
²⁶ Ponder the path of your feet,
 and let all your ways be established.
²⁷ Do not turn to the right or to the left;
 remove your foot from evil.

Warning Against Adultery

5 My son, attend to my wisdom,
 and bow your ear to my understanding,
² that you may regard discretion,
 and that your lips may keep knowledge.
³ For the lips of an immoral woman drip as a honeycomb,
 and her mouth is smoother than oil.
⁴ But her end is bitter as wormwood,
 sharp as a two-edged sword.
⁵ Her feet go down to death,
 her steps take hold of Sheol.
⁶ She does not ponder the path of life;
 her ways are unstable, and she does not know it.
⁷ Hear me now therefore, O children,
 and do not depart from the words of my mouth.
⁸ Remove your way far from her,
 and do not go near the door of her house, ⁹ lest you give your honor to others,
 and your years to the cruel;
¹⁰ lest strangers be filled with your wealth,
 and your labors go to the house of a stranger;
¹¹ and you mourn at the last,
 when your flesh and your body are consumed, ¹² and say, "How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof!"
¹³ And I have not obeyed the voice of my teachers,
 nor inclined my ear to those who instructed me!
¹⁴ I was almost in utter ruin
 in the midst of the congregation and assembly."
¹⁵ Drink waters out of your own cistern,
 and running waters out of your own well.
¹⁶ Should your fountains be dispersed abroad,
 streams of water in the streets?
¹⁷ Let them be only your own,
 and not for strangers with you.
¹⁸ Let your fountain be blessed,
 and rejoice with the wife of your youth.
¹⁹ Let her be as the loving deer and pleasant doe;
 let her breasts satisfy you at all times;
 and always be enraptured with her love.

²⁰ Why should you, my son, be intoxicated by an immoral woman,
and embrace the bosom of a seductress?

²¹ For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD,
and He ponders all his goings.

²² His own iniquities entrap the wicked himself,
and he is snared in the cords of his sins.

²³ He will die for lack of instruction, and in the greatness of his folly he will go astray.

Warning Against Pledges

6 My son, if you put up a security for your friend,
if you have shaken hands with a stranger,
² you are snared with the words of your mouth;
you are taken with the words of your mouth.
³ Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself;
when you have come into the hand of your friend,
go and humble yourself;
plead with your friend.
⁴ Give no sleep to your eyes,
nor slumber to your eyelids.
⁵ Deliver yourself as a doe from the hand of the hunter,
and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

The Folly of Idleness

⁶ Go to the ant, you sluggard!
Consider her ways and be wise.
⁷ Which, having no guide,
overseer, or ruler,
⁸ provides her bread in the summer,
and gathers her food in the harvest.
⁹ How long will you sleep, O sluggard?
When will you arise out of your sleep?
¹⁰ Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep—
¹¹ so will your poverty come upon you like a stalker,
and your need as an armed man.

The Wicked Man

¹² A wayward person, a wicked man, walks with a perverse mouth.
¹³ He winks with his eyes,
he signals with his feet,
he motions with his fingers;
¹⁴ perversity is in his heart,
he devises mischief continually, he sows discord.
¹⁵ Therefore his calamity will come suddenly;
in a moment he will be broken without remedy.
¹⁶ These six things the LORD hates,
yes, seven are an abomination to him:
¹⁷ a proud look,
a lying tongue,
and hands that shed innocent blood, ¹⁸ a heart that devises wicked imaginations,
feet that are swift in running to mischief,

¹⁹ a false witness who speaks lies,
and he who sows discord among brethren.

Warning Against Adultery

²⁰ My son, keep your father's commandment, and do not forsake the instruction of your mother.
²¹ Bind them continually upon your heart,
and tie them around your neck.
²² When you go, they will lead you;
when you sleep, they will keep you;
and when you awake, they will speak with you.
²³ For the commandment is a lamp, and the law is light;
and reproofs of instruction are the way of life, ²⁴ to keep you from the evil woman,
from the flattery of the tongue of a seductress.
²⁵ Do not lust after her beauty in your heart,
nor let her allure you with her eyelids.
²⁶ For by means of a harlot a man is reduced to a piece of bread, and the adulteress will prey upon his precious life.
²⁷ Can a man take fire in his bosom,
and his clothes not be burned?
²⁸ Can one walk upon hot coals,
and his feet not be burned?
²⁹ So he who goes in to his neighbor's wife;
whoever touches her will not be innocent.
³⁰ Men do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry.
³¹ But if he is found, he will restore sevenfold;
he will give all the substance of his house.
³² But whoever commits adultery with a woman lacks understanding;
he who does it destroys his own soul.
³³ A wound and dishonor will he get,
and his reproach will not be wiped away.
³⁴ For jealousy is the rage of a man;
therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.
³⁵ He will not regard any ransom,
nor will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

Beware of the Adulteress

7 My son, keep my words,
and lay up my commandments within you.
² Keep my commandments and live,
and my teaching as the apple of your eye.
³ Bind them on your fingers;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
⁴ Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
and call understanding your kinswoman, ⁵ that they may keep you from the immoral woman,
from the seductress who flatters with her words.
⁶ For at the window of my house
I looked through my casement,
⁷ and saw among the simple ones,
I discerned among the youths,
a young man void of understanding,

8 passing through the street near her corner;
 and he went the way to her house 9 in the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night.
 10 And there a woman met him,
 with the attire of a harlot, and subtle of heart.
 11 She is loud and stubborn;
 her feet do not abide in her house.
 12 Now she is without, now in the streets,
 and lies in wait at every corner.
 13 So she caught him, and kissed him;
 and with an impudent face said to him:
 14 "I have peace offerings with me;
 this day have I paid my vows.
 15 Therefore I came out to meet you, diligently to seek your face, and I have found you.
 16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry,
 with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.
 17 I have perfumed my bed
 with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
 18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning;
 let us solace ourselves with love.
 19 For my husband is not at home;
 he has gone on a long journey;
 20 he has taken a bag of money with him,
 and will come home at the day appointed."
 21 With her enticing speech she caused him to yield,
 with the flattering of her lips she seduced him.
 22 He went after her straightway,
 as an ox goes to the slaughter,
 or as a fool to the correction of the stocks,
 23 until a dart struck through his liver.
 As a bird hastens to the snare,
 he did not know that it would cost him his life.
 24 Listen to me now therefore, O children,
 and attend to the words of my mouth:
 25 do not let your heart turn aside to her ways,
 do not go astray in her paths;
 26 for she has cast down many wounded,
 and many strong men have been slain by her.
 27 Her house is the way to Sheol,
 going down to the chambers of death.

The Virtue of Wisdom

8 Does not wisdom cry out,
 and understanding lift up her voice?
 2 She stands on the top of high places,
 by the way in the places of the paths.
 3 She cries out at the gates,
 at the entry of the city, at the entrance of the doors:
 4 "To you, O men, I call,
 and my voice is to the sons of men.
 5 O you simple, understand wisdom,
 and you fools, be of an understanding heart.
 6 Hear, for I will speak of excellent things,
 and from the opening of my lips will be right things;
 7 for my mouth will speak truth,
 and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness;
 there is nothing crooked or perverse in them.
 9 They are all plain to him who understands,
 and right to those who find knowledge.
 10 Receive my instruction, and not silver,
 and knowledge rather than choice gold;
 11 for wisdom is better than rubies, and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.
 12 "I, wisdom, dwell with prudence,
 and find out knowledge and discretion.
 13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil;
 pride and arrogance
 and the evil way and the perverse mouth I hate.
 14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom;
 I am understanding, I have strength.
 15 By me kings reign,
 and princes decree justice.
 16 By me princes rule,
 and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.
 17 I love those who love me,
 and those who seek me early will find me.
 18 Riches and honor are with me,
 yes, enduring riches and righteousness.
 19 My fruit is better than gold,
 yes, than fine gold, and my revenue than choice silver.
 20 I lead in the way of righteousness,
 in the midst of the paths of justice, 21 that I may cause those who love me to inherit wealth,
 and I will fill their treasuries.
 22 "The LORD possessed me in the beginning of His
 way,
 before His works of old.
 23 I was set up from everlasting,
 from the beginning, before there was ever an earth.
 24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth, when there were no fountains abounding with water.
 25 Before the mountains were settled,
 before the hills I was brought forth;
 26 while as yet He had not made the earth or the fields,
 or the first dust of the world.
 27 When He prepared the heavens, I was there,
 when He drew a circle on the face of the deep, 28 when He established the clouds above,
 when He strengthened the fountains of the deep, 29 when He gave to the sea His decree,
 that the waters should not pass His commandment,
 when He appointed the foundations of the earth, 30 then I was by Him, as one brought up with Him;
 and I was daily His delight,
 rejoicing always before Him,
 31 rejoicing in the habitable part of His earth,
 and my delights were with the sons of men.
 32 "Now therefore listen to me, O you children,

for blessed are those who keep my ways.

³³ Hear instruction, and be wise,
and do not refuse it.

³⁴ Blessed is the man who hears me,
watching daily at my gates,
waiting at the posts of my doors.

³⁵ For whoever finds me finds life,
and will obtain favor of the LORD ;

³⁶ but he who sins against me wrongs his own soul;
all those who hate me love death."

The Way of Wisdom

9 Wisdom has built her house,
she has hewn out her seven pillars;

² she has killed her beasts, she has mixed her wine,
she has also furnished her table.

³ She has sent out her maidens,
she cries out from the highest places of the city,

⁴ "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here."

As for him who wants understanding, she says to him,

⁵ "Come, eat of my bread,
and drink of the wine which I have mixed.

⁶ Forsake foolishness and live,
and go in the way of understanding."

⁷ He who reproves a scorner gets shame for himself, and he who rebukes a wicked man gets hurt.

⁸ Do not reprove a scorner, lest he hate you;
rebuke a wise man, and he will love you.

⁹ Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser;

teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

¹⁰ The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

¹¹ For by me your days will be multiplied,
and the years of your life will be increased.

¹² If you are wise, you will be wise for yourself,
but if you scorn, you alone will bear it.

The Way of Foolishness

¹³ A foolish woman is clamorous;
she is simple, and knows nothing.

¹⁴ For she sits at the door of her house,
on a seat in the high places of the city,

¹⁵ to call those who pass by who go right on their way:

¹⁶ "Whoever is simple, let him turn in here."

And as for him who lacks understanding, she says to him,

¹⁷ "Stolen waters are sweet,
and bread eaten in secret is pleasant."

¹⁸ But he does not know that the dead are there, and that her guests are in the depths of the grave.

The Proverbs of Solomon

10 The proverbs of Solomon.

A wise son makes a glad father,
but a foolish son is the grief of his mother.

² Treasures of wickedness profit nothing,
but righteousness delivers from death.

³ The LORD will not allow the soul of the righteous to famish,

but He casts away the desire of the wicked.

⁴ He becomes poor who deals with a slack hand,
but the hand of the diligent makes rich.

⁵ He who gathers in summer is a wise son,
but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.

⁶ Blessings are on the head of the just,
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

⁷ The memory of the just is blessed,
but the name of the wicked will rot.

⁸ The wise in heart will receive commandments,
but a prating fool will fall.

⁹ He who walks uprightly walks surely,
but he who perverts his ways will be known.

¹⁰ He who winks with the eye causes sorrow,
but a prating fool will fall.

¹¹ The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life,
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

¹² Hatred stirs up strife,
but love covers all sins.

¹³ In the lips of him who has understanding wisdom is found,

but a rod is for the back of him who is void of understanding.

¹⁴ Wise men store up knowledge,
but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

¹⁵ The rich man's wealth is his strong city;
the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

¹⁶ The labor of the righteous tends to life,
the fruit of the wicked to sin.

¹⁷ He who keeps instruction is in the way of life,
but he who refuses reproof errs.

¹⁸ He who hides hatred has lying lips,
and he who spreads slander is a fool.

¹⁹ In the multitude of words sin is not lacking,
but he who restrains his lips is wise.

²⁰ The tongue of the just is as choice silver;
the heart of the wicked is worth little.

²¹ The lips of the righteous feed many,
but fools die for lack of wisdom.

²² The blessing of the LORD makes rich,
and He adds no sorrow with it.

²³ To do mischief is like sport to a fool,
but a man of understanding has wisdom.

²⁴ The fear of the wicked will come upon him,
but the desire of the righteous will be granted.

²⁵ As the whirlwind passes, so is the wicked no more,
but the righteous has an everlasting foundation.

²⁶ As vinegar to the teeth and as smoke to the eyes,

so is the sluggard to those who send him.
²⁷ The fear of the LORD prolongs days,
 but the years of the wicked will be shortened.
²⁸ The hope of the righteous will be gladness,
 but the expectation of the wicked will perish.
²⁹ The way of the LORD is strength to the upright,
 but destruction will come to the workers of iniquity.
³⁰ The righteous will never be removed,
 but the wicked will not inhabit the earth.
³¹ The mouth of the just brings forth wisdom,
 but the perverse tongue will be cut out.
³² The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, but the mouth of the wicked speaks what is perverse.

11 A false balance is abomination to the LORD ,
 but a just weight is His delight.
² When pride comes, then comes shame;
 but with the humble is wisdom.
³ The integrity of the upright will guide them,
 but the perverseness of transgressors will destroy
 them.
⁴ Riches do not profit in the day of wrath,
 but righteousness delivers from death.
⁵ The righteousness of the upright will direct his way,
 but the wicked will fall by his own wickedness.
⁶ The righteousness of the upright will deliver them,
 but transgressors will be taken by their schemes.
⁷ When a wicked man dies, his expectation will perish,
 and the hope of unjust men perishes.
⁸ The righteous is delivered out of trouble,
 and the wicked comes in his place.
⁹ A hypocrite with his mouth destroys his neighbor,
 but through knowledge the just will be delivered.
¹⁰ When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices;
 and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.
¹¹ By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted,
 but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
¹² He who is void of wisdom despises his neighbor,
 but a man of understanding holds his peace.
¹³ A talebearer reveals secrets,
 but he who is of a faithful spirit conceals the matter.
¹⁴ Where there is no counsel, the people fall;
 but in the multitude of counselors there is safety.
¹⁵ He who puts up a pledge for a stranger will suffer
 for it,
 and he who hates being a pledge is secure.
¹⁶ A gracious woman retains honor,
 but ruthless men retain riches.
¹⁷ The merciful man does good to his own soul,
 but he who is cruel troubles his own body.
¹⁸ The wicked works a deceitful work, but to him who sows righteousness will be a sure reward.
¹⁹ As righteousness tends to life,
 so he who pursues evil pursues it to his own death.
²⁰ Those who are of a perverse heart are abomination
 to the LORD ,

but such as are upright in their way are His delight.
²¹ Though be assured, the wicked will not be unpun-ished,
 but the posterity of the righteous will be delivered.
²² As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout,
 so is a fair woman who is without discretion.
²³ The desire of the righteous is only good,
 but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.
²⁴ There is one who scatters, yet increases;
 and there is one who withholds more than is right,
 but it leads to poverty.
²⁵ The generous soul will be made rich,
 and he who waters will be watered also himself.
²⁶ The people will curse him who withholds grain,
 but blessing will be upon the head of him who sells
 it.
²⁷ He who diligently seeks good procures favor,
 but he who seeks mischief, it will come to him.
²⁸ He who trusts in his riches will fall,
 but the righteous will flourish as a branch.
²⁹ He who troubles his own house will inherit the wind,
 and the fool will be servant to the wise of heart.
³⁰ The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,
 and he who wins souls is wise.
³¹ If the righteous will be recompensed in the earth,
 how much more the wicked and the sinner.

12 Whoever loves instruction loves knowledge,
 but he who hates reproof is brutish.
² A good man obtains favor of the LORD ,
 but a man of wicked devices will He condemn.
³ A man will not be established by wickedness,
 but the root of the righteous will not be moved.
⁴ A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband, but she who brings shame is as rotteness in his bones.
⁵ The thoughts of the righteous are right,
 but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.
⁶ The words of the wicked are, "Lie in wait for blood,"
 but the mouth of the upright will deliver them.
⁷ The wicked are overthrown, and are not,
 but the house of the righteous will stand.
⁸ A man will be commended according to his wisdom,
 but he who is of a perverse heart will be despised.
⁹ He who is lightly esteemed and has a servant is better
 than he who honors himself and lacks bread.
¹⁰ A righteous man regards the life of his animal,
 but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
¹¹ He who tills his land will be satisfied with bread, but he who follows vain persons is void of understanding.
¹² The wicked covet the plunder of evil men,
 but the root of the righteous yields fruit.
¹³ The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips,
 but the just will come out of trouble.

14 A man will be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth, and the recompense of a man's hands will be rendered to him.

15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
but he who listens to counsel is wise.

16 A fool's wrath is presently known,
but a prudent man covers shame.

17 He who speaks truth shows forth righteousness,
but a false witness deceit.

18 There is one who speaks like the piercings of a sword,
but the tongue of the wise is health.

19 The truthful lip will be established forever,
but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of those who imagine evil,
but to the counselors of peace is joy.

21 There will no evil happen to the just,
but the wicked will be filled with mischief.

22 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD,
but those who deal truly are His delight.

23 A prudent man conceals knowledge,
but the heart of fools proclaims foolishness.

24 The hand of the diligent will rule,
but the slothful will be put to forced labor.

25 Heaviness in the heart of man makes it droop,
but a good word makes it glad.

26 The righteous is a guide to his neighbors,
but the way of the wicked leads them astray.

27 The slothful man does not roast that which he took
in hunting,
but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

28 In the way of righteousness is life,
and in its pathway there is no death.

13 A wise son heeds his father's instruction,
but a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.

2 A man will eat well by the fruit of his mouth,
but the soul of the transgressor will eat violence.

3 He who guards his mouth preserves his life,
but he who opens wide his lips will have destruction.

4 The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing;
but the soul of the diligent will be made fat.

5 A righteous man hates lying,
but a wicked man is loathsome and comes to shame.

6 Righteousness keeps him who is upright in the way,
but wickedness overthrows the sinner.

7 There is one who makes himself rich, yet has nothing;
there is one who makes himself poor, yet has great riches.

8 The ransom of a man's life is his riches,
but the poor does not hear rebuke.

9 The light of the righteous rejoices,
but the lamp of the wicked will be put out.

10 Only by pride comes contention,
but with the well-advised is wisdom.

11 Wealth gained by vanity will be diminished,

but he who gathers by labor will increase.

12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
but when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoever despises the word will be destroyed,
but he who fears the commandment will be rewarded.

14 The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life,
to depart from the snares of death.

15 Good understanding gives favor,
but the way of transgressors is hard.

16 Every prudent man deals with knowledge,
but a fool lays open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger falls into mischief,
but a faithful envoy is health.

18 Poverty and shame will be to him who refuses instruction,
but he who regards reproof will be honored.

19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul,
but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

20 He who walks with wise men will be wise,
but a companion of fools will be destroyed.

21 Evil pursues sinners,
but to the righteous good will be repaid.

22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

23 Much food is in the tillage of the poor,
but for lack of justice it is destroyed.

24 He who spares his rod hates his son,
but he who loves him disciplines him early.

25 The righteous eats to the satisfying of his soul,
but the stomach of the wicked will want.

14 Every wise woman builds her house,
but the foolish pulls it down with her hands.

2 He who walks in his uprightness fears the LORD,
but he who is perverse in his ways despises Him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride,
but the lips of the wise will preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean;
but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A faithful witness will not lie,
but a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeks wisdom and does not find it,
but knowledge is easy to him who understands.

7 Go from the presence of a foolish man,
when you do not perceive in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way,
but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 Fools make a mock at sin,
but among the righteous there is favor.

10 The heart knows its own bitterness,
and a stranger does not share its joy.

11 The house of the wicked will be overthrown,
but the tent of the upright will flourish.

12 There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful,
 and the end of that cheer is grief.
 14 The backslider in heart will be filled with his own ways,
 but a good man will be satisfied with his.
 15 The simple believes every word,
 but the prudent man considers his steps.
 16 A wise man fears and departs from evil,
 but the fool rages and is self-confident.
 17 He who is quick-tempered deals foolishly,
 and a man of wicked devices is hated.
 18 The simple inherit folly,
 but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
 19 The evil bow before the good,
 and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.
 20 The poor is hated even by his own neighbor,
 but the rich has many friends.
 21 He who despises his neighbor sins,
 but he who has mercy on the poor, happy is he.
 22 Do they not err who devise evil?
 But mercy and truth will be to those who devise
 good.
 23 In all labor there is profit,
 but mere talk leads only to poverty.
 24 The crown of the wise is their riches,
 but the foolishness of fools is folly.
 25 A true witness delivers souls,
 but a deceitful witness speaks lies.
 26 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence,
 and His children will have a place of refuge.
 27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,
 to depart from the snares of death.
 28 In the multitude of people is a king's honor, but in the lack of people is the destruction of a prince.
 29 He who is slow to wrath is of great understanding,
 but he who is hasty of spirit exalts folly.
 30 A sound heart is the life of the flesh,
 but envy the rottenness of the bones.
 31 He who oppresses the poor reproaches his Maker,
 but he who honors Him has mercy on the poor.
 32 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness,
 but the righteous has hope in his death.
 33 Wisdom rests in the heart of him who has understanding,
 but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.
 34 Righteousness exalts a nation,
 but sin is a reproach to any people.
 35 The king's favor is toward a wise servant,
 but his wrath is against him who causes shame.
15 A soft answer turns away wrath,
 but grievous words stir up anger.
 2 The tongue of the wise uses knowledge aright,
 but the mouth of fools pours out foolishness.
 3 The eyes of the LORD are in every place,
 keeping watch on the evil and the good.
 4 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life,

but perverseness in it crushes the spirit.
 5 A fool despises his father's instruction,
 but he who regards reproof is prudent.
 6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure,
 but in the revenue of the wicked is trouble.
 7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge,
 but the heart of the foolish does not do so.
 8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD ,
 but the prayer of the upright is His delight.
 9 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD ,
 but He loves him who follows after righteousness.
 10 Correction is grievous to him who forsakes the way,
 and he who hates reproof will die.
 11 Death and destruction are before the LORD ;
 so how much more the hearts of the children of
 men.
 12 A scorner does not love one who reproves him,
 nor will he go to the wise.
 13 A merry heart makes a cheerful countenance,
 but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.
 14 The heart of him who has understanding seeks knowledge,
 but the mouth of fools feeds on foolishness.
 15 All the days of the afflicted are evil,
 but he who is of a merry heart has a continual feast.
 16 Better is little with the fear of the LORD
 than great treasure with trouble.
 17 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is than a fatted calf with hatred.
 18 A wrathful man stirs up strife,
 but he who is slow to anger appeases strife.
 19 The way of the slothful man is as a hedge of thorns,
 but the way of the righteous is made plain.
 20 A wise son makes a father glad,
 but a foolish man despises his mother.
 21 Folly is joy to him who is destitute of wisdom,
 but a man of understanding walks uprightly.
 22 Without counsel, purposes are disappointed,
 but in the multitude of counselors they are established.
 23 A man has joy by the answer of his mouth, and a word spoken in due season, how good it is!
 24 The way of life leads above for the wise,
 that he may depart from Sheol below.
 25 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud,
 but He will establish the border of the widow.
 26 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to
 the LORD ,
 but the words of the pure are pleasant words.
 27 He who is greedy of gain troubles his own house,
 but he who hates bribes will live.
 28 The heart of the righteous studies to answer,
 but the mouth of the wicked pours out evil things.
 29 The LORD is far from the wicked,
 but He hears the prayer of the righteous.
 30 The light of the eyes rejoices the heart,

and a good report makes the bones healthy.
³¹ The ear that hears the reproof of life abides among the wise.
³² He who refuses instruction despises his own soul, but he who hears reproof gains understanding.
³³ The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom, and before honor is humility.

16 The preparations of the heart belong to man, but the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.

² All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes, but the LORD weighs the spirit.
³ Commit your works to the LORD, and your thoughts will be established.
⁴ The LORD has made all things for Himself, yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.
⁵ Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD;
 be assured, he will not be unpunished.
⁶ By mercy and truth iniquity is purged; and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.
⁷ When a man's ways please the LORD, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.
⁸ Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues with injustice.
⁹ A man's heart devises his way, but the LORD directs his steps.
¹⁰ A divine sentence is in the lips of the king; his mouth does not transgress in judgment.
¹¹ A just weight and balance belong to the LORD; all the weights of the bag are His work.
¹² It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness,
 for the throne is established by righteousness.
¹³ Righteous lips are the delight of kings, and they love him who speaks right.
¹⁴ The wrath of a king is as messengers of death, but a wise man will pacify it.
¹⁵ In the light of the king's countenance is life, and his favor is as a cloud of the latter rain.
¹⁶ How much better to get wisdom than gold! And to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver!
¹⁷ The highway of the upright is to depart from evil; he who keeps his way preserves his soul.
¹⁸ Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.
¹⁹ Better it is to be of a humble spirit with the lowly than to divide the spoil with the proud.
²⁰ He who handles a matter wisely will find good, and whoever trusts in the LORD, happy is he.
²¹ The wise in heart will be called prudent, and the sweetness of the lips increases learning.
²² Understanding is a wellspring of life to him who has it,
 but the instruction of fools is folly.
²³ The heart of the wise teaches his mouth, and adds learning to his lips.

²⁴ Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and health to the bones.
²⁵ There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death.
²⁶ He who labors, labors for himself, for his mouth craves it of him.
²⁷ An ungodly man digs up evil, and in his lips there is as a burning fire.
²⁸ A perverse man sows strife, and a whisperer separates the best of friends.
²⁹ A violent man entices his neighbor, and leads him into the way that is not good.
³⁰ He shuts his eyes to devise perverse things; moving his lips he brings evil to pass.
³¹ The gray-haired head is a crown of glory, if it is found in the way of righteousness.
³² He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city.
³³ The lot is cast into the lap, but the whole outcome is of the LORD.

17 Better is a dry morsel with quietness than a house full of sacrifices with strife.

² A wise servant will have rule over a son who causes shame,
 and will have part of the inheritance among the brothers.
³ The refining pot is for silver and the furnace for gold,
 but the LORD tries the hearts.
⁴ A wicked doer gives heed to false lips, and a liar gives ear to a wayward tongue.
⁵ Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker, and he who is glad at calamities will not be unpunished.
⁶ Grandchildren are the crown of old men, and the glory of children are their fathers.
⁷ Excellent speech is not becoming to a fool, much less lying lips to a prince.
⁸ A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him who has it;
 wherever he turns, it prospers.
⁹ He who covers a transgression seeks love, but he who repeats a matter separates friends.
¹⁰ A reproof enters deeper into a wise man than a hundred stripes into a fool.
¹¹ An evil man seeks only rebellion; therefore a cruel messenger will be sent against him.
¹² Let a man meet a bear robbed of her cubs rather than a fool in his folly.
¹³ Whoever rewards evil for good, evil will not depart from his house.
¹⁴ The beginning of strife is as when one lets out water;
 therefore abandon contention before a quarrel starts.
¹⁵ He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the just,

both of them are abomination to the LORD .

¹⁶ Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he has no heart for it?

¹⁷ A friend loves at all times,
and a brother is born for adversity.

¹⁸ A man void of understanding shakes hands,
and becomes a pledge in the presence of his friend.

¹⁹ He loves transgression who loves strife,
and he who exalts his gate seeks destruction.

²⁰ He who has a deceitful heart finds no good,
and he who has a perverse tongue falls into mischief.

²¹ He who fathers a fool does it to his sorrow,
and the father of a fool has no joy.

²² A merry heart does good like a medicine,
but a broken spirit dries the bones.

²³ A wicked man takes a bribe out of a hidden place to pervert the ways of judgment.

²⁴ Wisdom is before him who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

²⁵ A foolish son is a grief to his father,
and bitterness to her who bore him.

²⁶ Also to punish the just is not good,
nor to strike princes for their uprightness.

²⁷ He who has knowledge spares his words,
and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

²⁸ Even a fool, when he holds his peace, is counted wise;
and he who shuts his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

18 He who separates himself seeks his own desire;
he seeks and quarrels against all wisdom.

² A fool has no delight in understanding,
but in expressing his own heart.

³ When the wicked comes, then comes also contempt,
and with dishonor reproach.

⁴ The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters,
and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

⁵ It is not good to favor the wicked,
or to turn aside the righteous in judgment.

⁶ A fool's lips enter into contention,
and his mouth calls for flogging.

⁷ A fool's mouth is his destruction,
and his lips are the snare of his soul.

⁸ The words of a talebearer are as wounds,
and they go down into the innermost parts of the body.

⁹ He also who is slothful in his work is brother to him who is a great waster.

¹⁰ The name of the LORD is a strong tower;
the righteous run into it and are safe.

¹¹ The rich man's wealth is his strong city,
and as a high wall in his own conceit.

¹² Before destruction the heart of man is haughty,
and before honor is humility.

¹³ He who answers a matter before he hears it,

it is folly and shame to him.

¹⁴ The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity,
but a wounded spirit who can bear?

¹⁵ The heart of the prudent gets knowledge,
and the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

¹⁶ A man's gift makes room for him,
and brings him before great men.

¹⁷ He who is first in his own cause seems just,
but his neighbor comes and searches him.

¹⁸ The lot causes contentions to cease,
and keeps the mighty ones apart.

¹⁹ A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city,
and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

²⁰ A man's stomach will be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth;
and with the increase of his lips will he be filled.

²¹ Death and life are in the power of the tongue,
and those who love it will eat its fruit.

²² Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing,
and obtains favor of the LORD .

²³ The poor man uses entreaties,
but the rich man answers roughly.

²⁴ A man who has friends must show himself friendly, and there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

19 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.

² Also, it is not good for the soul to be without knowledge, and he who hastens with his feet sins.

³ The foolishness of man perverts his way,
and his heart frets against the LORD .

⁴ Wealth makes many friends,
but the poor is separated from his neighbor.

⁵ A false witness will not be unpunished,
and he who speaks lies will not escape.

⁶ Many will entreat the favor of the prince,
and every man is a friend to him who gives gifts.

⁷ All the brothers of the poor hate him;
how much more do his friends go far from him!
He pursues them with words,
yet they abandon him.

⁸ He who gets wisdom loves his own soul;
he who keeps understanding will find good.

⁹ A false witness will not be unpunished,
and he who speaks lies will perish.

¹⁰ Delight is not seemly for a fool,
much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

¹¹ The discretion of a man defers his anger,
and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

¹² The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion,
but his favor is as dew upon the grass.

¹³ A foolish son is the calamity of his father, and the contentions of a wife are a continual dripping of water.

¹⁴ House and riches are the inheritance of fathers, and a prudent wife is from the LORD .

 15 Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep,
 and an idle soul will suffer hunger.
 16 He who keeps the commandment keeps his own soul,
 but he who is careless in his ways will die.
 17 He who has pity on the poor lends to the LORD ,
 and He will repay what he has given.
 18 Chasten your son while there is hope,
 and let not your soul spare for his crying.
 19 A man of great wrath will suffer punishment;
 for if you deliver him, yet you must do it again.
 20 Hear counsel and receive instruction,
 that you may be wise in your latter days.
 21 There are many plans in a man's heart,
 nevertheless the counsel of the LORD will stand.
 22 The desire of a man is his kindness,
 and a poor man is better than a liar.
 23 The fear of the LORD tends to life, and he who has it will abide satisfied; he will not be visited with evil.
 24 A slothful man hides his hand in his bowl,
 and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
 25 Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware;
 and reprove one who has understanding, and he will understand knowledge.
 26 He who mistreats his father and chases away his mother
 is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.
 27 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction
 that causes to err from the words of knowledge.
 28 An ungodly witness scorns judgment,
 and the mouth of the wicked devours iniquity.
 29 Judgments are prepared for scorners,
 and beatings for the back of fools.
20 Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging,
 and whoever is deceived by it is not wise.
 2 The terror of a king is as the roaring of a lion;
 whoever provokes him to anger sins against his own
 soul.
 3 It is an honor for a man to cease from strife,
 but every fool will be meddling.
 4 The sluggard will not plow because of the cold;
 therefore he will beg during harvest and have nothing.
 5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water,
 but a man of understanding will draw it out.
 6 Most men will proclaim everyone his own goodness,
 but who can find a faithful man?
 7 The just man walks in his integrity;
 his children are blessed after him.
 8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment
 scatters away all evil with his eyes.
 9 Who can say, "I have made my heart clean,
 I am pure from my sin"?
 10 Diverse weights and diverse measures,
 both of them alike are an abomination to the LORD .
 11 Even a child is known by his doings,

whether his work is pure and whether it is right.
 12 The hearing ear and the seeing eye,
 the LORD has made both of them.
 13 Do not love sleep, lest you come to poverty;
 open your eyes, and you will be satisfied with bread.
 14 "It is bad, it is bad," says the buyer;
 but when he has gone his way, then he boasts.
 15 There is gold and a multitude of rubies,
 but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
 16 Take the garment of him who is a pledge for a stranger,
 and hold it as a security when it is for a wayward
 woman.
 17 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man,
 but afterwards his mouth will be filled with gravel.
 18 Every purpose is established by counsel,
 and with good advice wage war.
 19 He who goes about as a talebearer reveals secrets;
 therefore do not meddle with him who flatters with his lips.
 20 Whoever curses his father or his mother,
 his lamp will be put out in obscure darkness.
 21 An inheritance may be gained hastily at the beginning,
 but the end of it will not be blessed.
 22 Do not say, "I will recompense evil";
 but wait on the LORD , and He will save you.
 23 Diverse weights are an abomination to the LORD ,
 and a false balance is not good.
 24 Man's goings are of the LORD ;
 how can a man then understand his own way?
 25 It is a snare to the man who dedicates rashly that which is holy,
 and after the vows to make inquiry.
 26 A wise king sifts out the wicked,
 and drives the threshing wheel over them.
 27 The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD ,
 searching all the inward parts of the heart.
 28 Mercy and truth preserve the king,
 and his throne is upheld by mercy.
 29 The glory of young men is their strength,
 and the beauty of old men is the gray head.
 30 The blows of a wound cleanse away evil,
 so do stripes the inward parts of the heart.
21 The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD , as the rivers of water; He turns it to any place
 He will.
 2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes,
 but the LORD weighs the hearts.
 3 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.
 4 A high look, a proud heart,
 and the plowing of the wicked are sin.
 5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenty,
 but of everyone who is hasty only to want.
 6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed back and forth by those who seek
 death.

7 The violence of the wicked will destroy them,
because they refuse to do justice.

8 The way of a guilty man is perverse;
but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop
than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

10 The soul of the wicked desires evil;
his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.

11 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise;
and when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.

12 The righteous man wisely considers the house of the wicked,
but God overthrows the wicked for their wickedness.

13 Whoever shuts his ears at the cry of the poor,
he also will cry himself, but will not be heard.

14 A gift in secret pacifies anger,
and a concealed bribe strong wrath.

15 It is joy to the just to do justice,
but destruction will come to the workers of iniquity.

16 The man who wanders out of the way of understanding
will remain in the congregation of the dead.

17 He who loves pleasure will be a poor man;
he who loves wine and oil will not be rich.

18 The wicked will be a ransom for the righteous,
and the transgressor for the upright.

19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness
than with a contentious and angry woman.

20 There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise,
but a foolish man squanders it.

21 He who follows after righteousness and mercy finds life, righteousness, and honor.

22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty,
and casts down the strength of its confidence.

23 Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from trouble.

24 Proud and haughty—scorner is his name,
who deals in proud wrath.

25 The desire of the slothful kills him,
for his hands refuse to labor.

26 He covets greedily all the day long,
but the righteous gives and does not spare.

27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination;
how much more when he brings it with a wicked intent!

28 A false witness will perish,
but a man who listens will speak forever.

29 A wicked man hardens his face,
but as for the upright, he directs his way.

30 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel
against the LORD.

31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle,
but victory is of the LORD.

22 A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches,

and loving favor rather than silver and gold.

2 The rich and poor have this in common,
the LORD is the maker of them all.

3 A prudent man foresees the evil and hides himself,
but the simple pass on and are punished.

4 By humility and the fear of the LORD
are riches, and honor, and life.

5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse;
he who guards his soul will be far from them.

6 Train up a child in the way he should go,
and when he is old he will not depart from it.

7 The rich rules over the poor,
and the borrower is servant to the lender.

8 He who sows iniquity will reap vanity,
and the rod of his anger will fail.

9 He who has a bountiful eye will be blessed,
for he gives of his bread to the poor.

10 Cast out the scorner, and contention will go out;
yes, strife and reproach will cease.

11 He who loves pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips
the king will be his friend.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge,
and He overthrows the words of the transgressor.

13 The slothful man says, "There is a lion without!
I will be slain in the streets!"

14 The mouth of an immoral woman is a deep pit;
he who is detested by the LORD will fall therein.

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child,
but the rod of correction will drive it far from him.

16 He who oppresses the poor to increase his riches, and he who gives to the rich, will surely come to want.

Thirty Sayings of the Wise

Saying One

17 Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise,
and apply your heart to my knowledge;

18 for it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within
you;
they will readily be fitted in your lips.

19 That your trust may be in the LORD,
I have made known to you this day, even to you.

20 Have I not written to you excellent things
in counsels and knowledge, 21 that I might make you know the certainty of the words of truth,
that you might answer the words of truth
to those who send to you?

Saying Two

22 Do not rob the poor because he is poor,
neither oppress the afflicted in the gate;

23 for the LORD will plead their cause,
and spoil the soul of those who spoiled them.

Saying Three

²⁴ Make no friendship with an angry man,
and with a furious man you will not go, ²⁵ lest you learn his ways
and get a snare to your soul.

Saying Four

²⁶ Do not be one of those who shakes hands in a pledge,
or of those who use securities for debts;
²⁷ if you have nothing to pay,
why should he take away your bed from under you?

Saying Five

²⁸ Do not remove the ancient landmark which your fathers have set.

Saying Six

²⁹ Do you see a man diligent in his business?
He will stand before kings;
he will not stand before obscure men.

Saying Seven

23 When you sit to eat with a ruler,
consider diligently what is before you;
² and put a knife to your throat,
if you are a man given to appetite.
³ Be not desirous of his delicacies,
for they are deceptive food.

Saying Eight

⁴ Do not labor to be rich;
cease from your own wisdom.
⁵ Will you set your eyes on that which is not?
For riches certainly make themselves wings;
they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

Saying Nine

⁶ Do not eat the bread of him who has an evil eye,
neither desire his delicacies;
⁷ for as he thinks in his heart,
so is he.
“Eat and drink!” he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.
⁸ The morsel you have eaten, you will vomit up,
and lose your sweet words.

Saying Ten

⁹ Do not speak in the ears of a fool,
for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

Saying Eleven

¹⁰ Do not remove the old landmark,
nor enter the fields of the fatherless;

¹¹ for their Redeemer is mighty;
He will plead their cause with you.

Saying Twelve

¹² Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge.

Saying Thirteen

¹³ Do not withhold correction from a child,
for if you beat him with the rod, he will not die.
¹⁴ You shall beat him with the rod,
and deliver his soul from death.

Saying Fourteen

¹⁵ My son, if your heart is wise,
my heart will rejoice—even mine.
¹⁶ Yes, my inmost being will rejoice
when your lips speak right things.

Saying Fifteen

¹⁷ Do not let your heart envy sinners, but continue in the fear of the LORD all day long;
¹⁸ for surely there is an end,
and your expectation will not be cut off.

Saying Sixteen

¹⁹ Hear, my son, and be wise;
and guide your heart in the way.
²⁰ Do not be among winebibbers,
among riotous eaters of meat;
²¹ for the drunkard and the glutton will come to poverty,
and drowsiness will clothe a man with rags.

Saying Seventeen

²² Listen to your father who gave you life,
and do not despise your mother when she is old.
²³ Buy the truth, and do not sell it,
also wisdom and instruction and understanding.
²⁴ The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice,
and he who fathers a wise child will have joy of him.
²⁵ Your father and your mother will be glad,
and she who bore you will rejoice.

Saying Eighteen

²⁶ My son, give me your heart,
and let your eyes observe my ways.
²⁷ For a prostitute is a deep ditch,
and a seductress is a narrow pit.
²⁸ She also lies in wait as for a prey,
and increases the transgressors among men.

Saying Nineteen

²⁹ Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has contentions? Who has babbling?

Who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes?

³⁰ Those who tarry long at the wine,
those who go to seek mixed wine.
³¹ Do not look on the wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it swirls around smoothly;
³² at the last it bites like a serpent,
and stings like a viper.
³³ Your eyes will see strange things,
and your heart will utter perverse things.
³⁴ Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst of the sea,
or as he who lies upon the top of a mast.
³⁵ "They have stricken me," you will say, "and I was not sick;
they have beaten me, and I did not feel it.
When will I awake?
I will seek it yet again."

Saying Twenty

24 Do not be envious against evil men,
nor desire to be with them;
² for their heart studies destruction,
and their lips talk of mischief.

Saying Twenty-One

³ Through wisdom is a house built,
and by understanding it is established;
⁴ and by knowledge the rooms will be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

Saying Twenty-Two

⁵ A wise man is strong;
yes, a man of knowledge increases strength.
⁶ For by wise counsel you will wage your war,
and in multitude of counselors there is safety.

Saying Twenty-Three

⁷ Wisdom is too high for a fool;
he does not open his mouth in the gate.

Saying Twenty-Four

⁸ He who devises to do evil
will be called a schemer of plots.
⁹ The thought of foolishness is sin,
and the scorner is an abomination to men.

Saying Twenty-Five

¹⁰ If you faint in the day of adversity,
your strength is small.
¹¹ If you refrain to deliver those who are drawn unto
death,
and those who are ready to be slain;
¹² if you say, "Surely we did not know this,"
does not He who ponders the heart consider it?

And He who keeps your soul, does He not know it?
And will He not render to every man according to his works?

Saying Twenty-Six

¹³ My son, eat honey because it is good,
and the honeycomb that is sweet to your taste;
¹⁴ so shall the knowledge of wisdom be to your soul;
when you have found it, then there will be a reward,
and your expectation will not be cut off.

Saying Twenty-Seven

¹⁵ Do not lie in wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous;
do not spoil his resting place;
¹⁶ for a just man falls seven times and rises up again,
but the wicked will fall into mischief.

Saying Twenty-Eight

¹⁷ Do not rejoice when your enemy falls,
and do not let your heart be glad when he stumbles;
¹⁸ lest the LORD see it, and it displease Him,
and He turn away His wrath from him.

Saying Twenty-Nine

¹⁹ Do not fret because of evil men,
nor be envious of the wicked;
²⁰ for there will be no reward to the evil man;
the candle of the wicked will be put out.

Saying Thirty

²¹ My son, fear the LORD and the king; and do not meddle with those who are given to change;
²² for their calamity will rise suddenly,
and who knows the ruin of them both?

More Sayings of the Wise

²³ These things also belong to the wise:
It is not good to show partiality in judgment.
²⁴ He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous,"
him the people will curse; nations will abhor him.
²⁵ But to those who rebuke him will be delight,
and a good blessing will come upon them.
²⁶ Every man will kiss his lips
that gives a right answer.
²⁷ Prepare your work outside,
and make it fit for yourself in the field;
and afterwards build your house.
²⁸ Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause,
and do not deceive with your lips.
²⁹ Do not say, "I will do so to him as he has done to
me;
I will render to the man according to his work."
³⁰ I went by the field of the slothful,

and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

³¹ and it was all grown over with thorns,
and nettles covered its surface,
and the stone wall was broken down.

³² Then I saw, and considered it;

I looked on it and received instruction:

³³ Yet a little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep,

³⁴ so your poverty will come like a stalker,
and your need as an armed man.

More Proverbs of Solomon

25 These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied.

² It is the glory of God to conceal a thing,
but the honor of kings is to search out a matter.

³ As the heaven for height, and the earth for depth,
so the heart of kings is unsearchable.

⁴ Take away the dross from the silver,
and there will come forth a vessel for the refiner.

⁵ Take away the wicked from before the king,
and his throne will be established in righteousness.

⁶ Do not exalt yourself in the presence of the king,
and do not stand in the place of great men;

⁷ for it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here," than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince,

whom your eyes have seen.

⁸ Do not go forth hastily to strive;
lest you do not know what to do in the end,
when your neighbor has put you to shame.

⁹ Debate your cause with your neighbor himself,
and do not disclose a secret to another;

¹⁰ lest he who hears it put you to shame,
and your reputation be ruined.

¹¹ A word fitly spoken
is like apples of gold in settings of silver.

¹² As an earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold,
so is a wise reprover to an obedient ear.

¹³ As the cold of snow in the time of harvest,
so is a faithful messenger to those who send him,
for he refreshes the soul of his masters.

¹⁴ Whoever boasts himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.

¹⁵ By long forbearing is a prince persuaded,
and a soft tongue breaks the bone.

¹⁶ Have you found honey? Eat only as much as is sufficient for you,
lest you be filled with it and vomit it.

¹⁷ Withdraw your foot from your neighbor's house,
lest he be weary of you and so hate you.

¹⁸ A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is like a club, a sword, and a sharp arrow.

¹⁹ Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth and a foot out of joint.

²⁰ As he who takes away a garment in cold weather,

and as vinegar on soda,
so is he who sings songs to a heavy heart.

²¹ If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat;
and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink;

²² for you will heap coals of fire upon his head,
and the LORD will reward you.

²³ The north wind brings rain,
and a backbiting tongue an angry countenance.

²⁴ It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop
than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

²⁵ As cold waters to a thirsty soul,
so is good news from a far country.

²⁶ A righteous man falling down before the wicked
is as a troubled fountain and a corrupt spring.

²⁷ It is not good to eat much honey;
so for men to search their own glory is not glory.

²⁸ He who has no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down and without walls.

26 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest,
so honor is not seemly for a fool.

² As the bird by flitting, as the swallow by flying,
so the curse without cause will not alight.

³ A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey,
and a rod for the fool's back.

⁴ Do not answer a fool according to his folly,
lest you also be like unto him.

⁵ Answer a fool according to his folly,
lest he be wise in his own conceit.

⁶ He who sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off the feet and drinks violence.

⁷ The legs of the lame are not equal;
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

⁸ As he who binds a stone in a sling,
so is he who gives honor to a fool.

⁹ As a thorn goes into the hand of a drunkard,
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

¹⁰ The great God who formed all things rewards the fool and rewards the transgressor.

¹¹ As a dog returns to its vomit,
so a fool returns to his folly.

¹² Do you see a man wise in his own conceit?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

¹³ The slothful man says, "There is a lion in the way!
A lion is in the streets!"

¹⁴ As the door turns upon his hinges,
so does the slothful upon his bed.

¹⁵ The slothful buries his hand in his bowl;
it grieves him to bring it again to his mouth.

¹⁶ The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men who can answer reasonably.

¹⁷ He who passes by and meddles with strife not belonging to him is like one who takes a dog by the ears.

¹⁸ As a madman who casts firebrands, arrows, and death,

¹⁹ so is the man who deceives his neighbor,
and says, "I was only joking."

²⁰ Where there is no wood, the fire goes out;

so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceases.
²¹ As charcoal is to burning coals, and wood to fire,
 so is a contentious man to kindle strife.
²² The words of a talebearer are as wounds,
 and go down into the innermost parts of the body.
²³ Burning lips and a wicked heart
 are like earthenware covered with silver dross.
²⁴ He who hates dissembles with his lips,
 and lays up deceit within him;
²⁵ when he speaks kindly, do not believe him,
 for there are seven abominations in his heart;
²⁶ though his hatred is covered by deceit,
 his wickedness will be shown before the whole congregation.
²⁷ Whoever digs a pit will fall into it,
 and he who rolls a stone, it will return upon him.
²⁸ A lying tongue hates those who are afflicted by it,
 and a flattering mouth works ruin.
27 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth.
² Let another man praise you, and not your own
 mouth;
 a stranger, and not your own lips.
³ A stone is heavy and the sand weighty,
 but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.
⁴ Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous,
 but who is able to stand before envy?
⁵ Open rebuke is better than secret love.
⁶ Faithful are the wounds of a friend,
 but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.
⁷ The full soul loathes a honeycomb,
 but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.
⁸ As a bird that wanders from her nest,
 so is a man who wanders from his place.
⁹ Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart,
 so does the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty
 counsel.
¹⁰ Do not forsake your own friend or your father's friend,
 nor go into your brother's house in the day of your calamity;
 for better is a neighbor who is near than a brother
 far off.
¹¹ My son, be wise, and make my heart glad,
 that I may answer him who reproaches me.
¹² A prudent man foresees the evil and hides himself,
 but the simple pass on and are punished.
¹³ Take his garment that is security for a stranger,
 and take a pledge of him for an adulterous woman.
¹⁴ He who blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning,
 it will be counted a curse to him.
¹⁵ A continual dripping on a very rainy day
 and a contentious woman are alike;
¹⁶ whoever restrains her restrains the wind,
 and grasps oil in his right hand.

¹⁷ Iron sharpens iron,
 so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend.
¹⁸ Whoever keeps the fig tree will eat its fruit;
 so he who waits on his master will be honored.
¹⁹ As in water face answers to face,
 so the heart of man to man.
²⁰ Death and destruction are never full;
 so the eyes of man are never satisfied.
²¹ As the refining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold,
 so is a man to his praise.
²² Though you should grind a fool in a mortar
 among wheat with a pestle,
 yet his foolishness will not depart from him.
²³ Be diligent to know the state of your flocks,
 and look well to your herds;
²⁴ for riches are not forever,
 nor does the crown endure to every generation.
²⁵ The hay appears, and the tender grass shows itself,
 and herbs of the mountains are gathered.
²⁶ The lambs are for your clothing,
 and the goats are the price of the field.
²⁷ You will have goats' milk enough for your food, for the food of your household,
 and for the maintenance of your maidens.
28 The wicked flee when no man pursues,
 but the righteous are bold as a lion.
² Because of the transgression of a land, many are its princes;
 but by a man of understanding and knowledge, it shall be prolonged.
³ A poor man who oppresses the poor
 is like a sweeping rain that leaves no food.
⁴ Those who forsake instruction praise the wicked,
 but such as keep instruction contend with them.
⁵ Evil men do not understand justice,
 but those who seek the LORD understand all things.
⁶ Better is the poor who walks in his uprightness than he who is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.
⁷ Whoever keeps the law is a wise son,
 but he who is a companion of riotous men shames
 his father.
⁸ He who by usury and unjust gain increases his substance
 will gather it for him who will pity the poor.
⁹ He who turns away his ear from hearing instruction,
 even his prayer will be an abomination.
¹⁰ Whoever causes the righteous to go astray in an evil way,
 he himself will fall into his own pit;
 but the upright will have good things in possession.
¹¹ The rich man is wise in his own conceit,
 but the poor who has understanding searches him out.
¹² When righteous men rejoice, there is great glory;
 but when the wicked rise, a man hides himself.
¹³ He who covers his sins will not prosper,

but whoever confesses and forsakes them will have mercy.

¹⁴ Happy is the man who always fears,
but he who hardens his heart will fall into mischief.

¹⁵ As a roaring lion and a charging bear,
so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

¹⁶ The prince who lacks understanding is also a great oppressor,
but he who hates covetousness will prolong his days.

¹⁷ A man burdened with bloodshed of any person will flee until death;
let no man help him.

¹⁸ Whoever walks uprightly will be saved,
but he who is perverse in his ways will fall at once.

¹⁹ He who tills his land will have plenty of bread,
but he who follows after vain things will have poverty enough.

²⁰ A faithful man will abound with blessings,
but he who makes haste to be rich will not be innocent.

²¹ To show partiality is not good,
because for a morsel of bread that man will transgress.

²² He who hastens to be rich has an evil eye,
and does not consider that poverty will come upon him.

²³ He who rebukes a man will find more favor afterward than he who flatters with the tongue.

²⁴ Whoever robs his father or his mother and says, "It is no transgression,"
the same is the companion of a destroyer.

²⁵ He who is of a proud heart stirs up strife,
but he who puts his trust in the LORD will prosper.

²⁶ He who trusts in his own heart is a fool,
but whoever walks wisely will be delivered.

²⁷ He who gives to the poor will not lack,
but he who hides his eyes will have many a curse.

²⁸ When the wicked rise, men hide themselves;
but when they perish, the righteous increase.

29 He who is often reprov'd, yet hardens his neck,
will suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

² When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice;

but when the wicked rule, the people mourn.

³ Whoever loves wisdom rejoices his father,
but he who keeps company with harlots spends his substance.

⁴ The king establishes the land by judgment,
but he who receives bribes overthrows it.

⁵ A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.

⁶ In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare,
but the righteous sing and rejoice.

⁷ The righteous considers the cause of the poor,
but the wicked regards not to know it.

⁸ Scornful men bring a city into a snare,
but wise men turn away wrath.

⁹ If a wise man contends with a foolish man,
whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

¹⁰ The bloodthirsty hate the upright,
but the just seek his soul.

¹¹ A fool utters all his mind,
but a wise man keeps it in until afterwards.

¹² If a ruler listens to lies,
all his servants are wicked.

¹³ The poor and the deceitful man have this in common:

The LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

¹⁴ The king who faithfully judges the poor,
his throne will be established forever.

¹⁵ The rod and reproof give wisdom,
but a child left to himself brings his mother to shame.

¹⁶ When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increases;

but the righteous will see their fall.

¹⁷ Correct your son, and he will give you rest;
yes, he will give delight to your soul.

¹⁸ Where there is no vision, the people perish;
but happy is he who keeps the teaching.

¹⁹ A servant will not be corrected by words,
for though he understands he will not answer.

²⁰ Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

²¹ He who delicately brings up his servant from a child will have him as a son in the end.

²² An angry man stirs up strife,
and a furious man abounds in transgression.

²³ A man's pride will bring him low,
but honor will uphold the humble in spirit.

²⁴ Whoever is partner with a thief hates his own soul;
he hears the oath but tells nothing.

²⁵ The fear of man brings a snare,
but whoever puts his trust in the LORD will be safe.

²⁶ Many seek the ruler's favor,
but every man's judgment comes from the LORD.

²⁷ An unjust man is an abomination to the just,
and he who is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

The Sayings of Agur

30 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the oracle.
The man declares to Ithiel,
to Ithiel and Ukal:

² Surely I am more brutish than any man,
and have not the understanding of a man.

³ I neither learned wisdom,
nor have the knowledge of the holy.

⁴ Who has ascended up into heaven, or descended?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?

Who has bound the waters in a garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?

What is His name, and what is the name of His son,

if you know?
⁵ Every word of God is pure;
 He is a shield to those who put their trust in Him.
⁶ Do not add to His words,
 lest He reprove you, and you be found a liar.
⁷ Two things I have required of you;
 do not deny me them before I die:
⁸ Remove vanity and lies far from me—
 give me neither poverty nor riches;
 feed me with food convenient for me;
⁹ lest I be full, and deny You,
 and say, "Who is the LORD?"
 or lest I be poor, and steal,
 and take the name of my God in vain.
¹⁰ Do not accuse a servant to his master,
 lest he curse you, and you be found guilty.
¹¹ There is a generation that curses their father,
 and does not bless its mother.
¹² There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes,
 and yet is not washed from its filthiness.
¹³ There is a generation—oh, how lofty are their eyes!
 And their eyelids are lifted up.
¹⁴ There is a generation whose teeth are as swords,
 and their jaw teeth as knives,
 to devour the poor from off the earth,
 and the needy from among men.
¹⁵ The leech has two daughters, crying, "Give, give."
 There are three things that are never satisfied, indeed, four things never say, "It is enough":
¹⁶ the grave, the barren womb,
 the earth that is not filled with water,
 and the fire that never says, "It is enough."
¹⁷ The eye that mocks at his father,
 and despises to obey his mother,
 the ravens of the valley will pick it out,
 and the young eagles will eat it.
¹⁸ There are three things which are too wonderful for
 me,
 indeed, four which I do not know:
¹⁹ the way of an eagle in the air,
 the way of a serpent on a rock,
 the way of a ship in the midst of the sea,
 and the way of a man with a maid.
²⁰ Such is the way of an adulterous woman;
 she eats and wipes her mouth,
 and says, "I have done no wickedness."
²¹ For three things the earth is disquieted,
 and for four which it cannot bear:
²² for a servant when he reigns,
 and a fool when he is filled with food, ²³ for a hateful woman when she is married,
 and a handmaid who is heir to her mistress.
²⁴ There are four things which are little upon the
 earth,
 but they are exceeding wise:
²⁵ The ants are a people not strong,
 yet they prepare their food in the summer;

²⁶ the badgers are but a feeble folk,
 yet they make their houses in the rocks;
²⁷ the locusts have no king,
 yet they go forth all of them by bands;
²⁸ the spider takes hold with her hands,
 and is in kings' palaces.
²⁹ There are three things which go well,
 indeed, four are comely in going:
³⁰ a lion which is strongest among beasts,
 and does not turn away for any;
³¹ a strutting rooster, a male goat also,
 and a king, against whom there is no rising up.
³² If you have been foolish in lifting up yourself,
 or if you have thought evil,
 put your hand on your mouth.
³³ Surely the churning of milk brings forth butter,
 and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood,
 so the forcing of wrath brings forth strife.

The Sayings of King Lemuel's Mother

31 The words of King Lemuel, an oracle that his mother taught him:
² What, my son? And what, the son of my womb?
 And what, the son of my vows?
³ Do not give your strength to women,
 nor your ways to that which destroys kings.
⁴ It is not for kings, O Lemuel,
 it is not for kings to drink wine,
 nor for princes strong drink;
⁵ lest they drink and forget the law,
 and pervert the justice of any of the afflicted.
⁶ Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish,
 and wine to those who are of heavy hearts.
⁷ Let him drink, and forget his poverty,
 and remember his misery no more.
⁸ Open your mouth for the speechless in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.
⁹ Open your mouth, judge righteously,
 and plead the cause of the poor and needy.

Epilogue: The Virtuous Wife

¹⁰ Who can find a virtuous woman?
 For her worth is far above rubies.
¹¹ The heart of her husband safely trusts in her,
 so that he will have no lack of gain.
¹² She will do him good and not evil
 all the days of her life.
¹³ She seeks wool and flax,
 and works willingly with her hands.
¹⁴ She is like the merchant ships,
 she brings her food from afar.
¹⁵ She also rises while it is yet night,
 and gives food to her household,
 and a portion to her maidens.
¹⁶ She considers a field and buys it;
 with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.

¹⁷ She clothes herself with strength,
and strengthens her arms.
¹⁸ She perceives that her merchandise is good;
her candle does not go out by night.
¹⁹ She lays her hands to the spindle,
and her hands hold the distaff.
²⁰ She stretches out her hand to the poor;
yes, she reaches forth her hands to the needy.
²¹ She is not afraid of the snow for her household,
for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
²² She makes herself coverings of tapestry;
her clothing is silk and purple.
²³ Her husband is known in the gates,
when he sits among the elders of the land.
²⁴ She makes fine linen and sells it,
and delivers sashes to the merchant.

²⁵ Strength and honor are her clothing,
and she will rejoice in time to come.
²⁶ She opens her mouth with wisdom,
and in her tongue is the teaching of kindness.
²⁷ She looks well to the ways of her household,
and does not eat the bread of idleness.
²⁸ Her children rise up and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:
²⁹ "Many daughters have done virtuously,
but you excel them all."
³⁰ Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised.
³¹ Give her of the fruit of her hands,
and let her own works praise her in the gates.

ECCLESIASTES

The book of Ecclesiastes is part of the wisdom literature and consists of hundreds of wise thoughts and sayings. This book was likely written in about 935 BC. Jewish tradition recognizes Solomon as the author. Its theme is man's reasoning concerning one's life on earth, and it represents the worldview of a Judean king who had the advantage of every opportunity and every pleasure. The writings are a series of reflections by the "Teacher" or "Preacher" on his life, which was lived in the ancient kingdom of Israel. Throughout the book the writer presents a multitude of examples showing humanity's fruitless pursuit of contentment. The book concludes with the truth that meaning in life is only found in right relationship with God and in appreciating God's earthly blessings of good food and drink and a wife and children.

All Is Vanity

1 These are the words of the Preacher, the son of David and king in Jerusalem.
2 "Vanity † of vanities," says the Preacher; "vanity of vanities, all is vanity."
3 What benefit is there to a man in all his labors that he toils under the sun?
4 A generation comes, and a generation goes, but the earth continually remains.
5 The sun comes up, and the sun goes down, and hurries to the place where it rises.
6 It moves to the south, and then moves around to the north; the wind continually travels around, and it keeps turning on its circuit.
7 All the streams flow into the sea, and the sea is never filled up. And to the place where the streams flow, there they continually return to flow.
8 All matters are wearisome; a man is not able to speak to them. The eye is not satisfied with what it sees, and the ear is not content with what it hears.
9 What has been is the same as what will be, and what has been done is the same as what will be done; there is nothing new under the sun.
10 Is there a matter where it is said, "See, this is truly new"? Long ago in the past every matter has already been in our midst.
11 There is not a memory for the former things, and moreover, there will not be a memory for the things coming after, even those things that are yet to come.

The Burden of Wisdom

12 I, the Preacher, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem. 13 I set my heart to seek and to investigate with wisdom everything that is done under heaven. It is a burdensome task that God has given to the sons of men, by which they may be occupied. 14 I have seen everything that is done under the sun, and indeed, all is vanity and like chasing the wind.
15 What is bent cannot be straightened, and what is missing cannot be counted.
16 I spoke in my heart, saying, "I have been great and increased in wisdom more than anyone else who has been before me in Jerusalem, and my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge." 17 And I set my heart to know wisdom and to know the folly of ideas and to know foolish behavior, and I know that this as well is like chasing the wind.
18 For in an abundance of wisdom is an abundance of frustration, and he who increases in knowledge also increases in sorrow.

The Vanity of Pleasure

2 And I said in my heart, "Come, and I will test you with selfish pleasures to experience desires." And notice that this too is vanity. 2 And I said of frivolous fun, "They are only senseless ideas"; and regarding selfish pleasure, "What purpose is this?" 3 I investigated how to cheer up my body with wine, while my heart was still guiding me with wisdom, in order to grasp folly until I might experience what is good for sons of men to do under heaven during the number of days that they might have life.
4 I accomplished great works. I built houses for myself, and planted myself vineyards. 5 I made for myself royal gardens and parks, and I planted in them all sorts of fruit trees. 6 I made for myself pools of water to irrigate the forests of growing trees. 7 I even bought male and female slaves; even some were born to me in my house. I had also great possessions of herds and flocks more than any who had been in Jerusalem before me. ⁸ I also gathered for myself silver and gold and treasures of kings and provinces. I obtained singers, both men and women, and the delights of the sons of men, and many concubines. ⁹ So I became great and surpassed anyone who had been in Jerusalem before me. All the while my wisdom remained with me.

¹⁰ And everything that my eyes wanted I did not refuse them.

And I did not withhold my heart from any selfish pleasure,
for my heart was glad from all my efforts;
and this was my reward for all my efforts.

¹¹ Then I turned to all the work that my hands had designed and all the labor that I had toiled to make;
and notice, all of it was vanity and chasing the wind.
And there was no benefit under the sun.

The Fate of the Wise and the Fool

¹² So I turned to consider wisdom,
the folly of ideas, and foolish behavior;
for what else can a man do who comes after the king?

Or what more than those have already done?

¹³ Then I saw that there is more benefit in wisdom
than in foolishness,
more benefit in light than in darkness.

¹⁴ A wise man has eyes in his head so he sees where he walks,
but the fool continues in darkness.

Yet I perceived
that the same fate overtakes them all.

¹⁵ Then I said in my heart,
“What happens to the fool will happen to me also.
So to what advantage is my wisdom?”
Then I said to myself,
“This also is vanity.”

¹⁶ For there is no lasting memory for the wise or the fool,
by which in the coming days everyone will be forgotten.

How the wise dies just like the fool!

¹⁷ And I began to hate life for the labor that was done under the sun was contemptible to me, for all of this was vanity and chasing the wind. ¹⁸ And I despised all the toil in which I labored under the sun, which I will give up to the man who comes after me. ¹⁹ And who knows if this man will be wise or a fool? Yet he will gain power over every labor that I have toiled and my use of wisdom under the sun. Also this is vanity. ²⁰ So I turned to give my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labors under the sun. ²¹ For there is a man who labors with wisdom, knowledge, and skill; yet to a man who did not labor for this, he leaves it as his inheritance. This also is vanity and a great distress.

²⁴ There is nothing better for a man than to eat and drink, and find enjoyment in his labor. This also, I saw, is from the hand of God. ²⁵ For who can even eat or have enjoyment more so than I? ²⁶ For to a man who is pleasing before Him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner He gives the work of gathering and collecting to give him who is pleasing before God. Also this is vanity and chasing the wind.

A Time for Everything

3 To everything there is a season,
a time for every purpose under heaven:

² a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to uproot what is planted;

³ a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;

⁴ a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

⁵ a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones;

a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

⁶ a time to gain, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

⁷ a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

⁸ a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

The God-Given Task

⁹ What benefit does the worker have in his toil? ¹⁰ I have seen the task that God has given to sons of men to be concerned with. ¹¹ He has made everything beautiful in its appropriate time. He has also put obscurity in their hearts [†] so that no one comes to know the work that God has done from the beginning to the end. ¹² I experienced that there is nothing better for them than to be glad and do good in their life. ¹³ And also that everyone should eat and drink and experience good in all their labor. This is a gift of God. ¹⁴ I have perceived that everything that God has done will be lasting. And to this there is nothing to be added, and from it there is nothing to be taken away. And God has done this so that in His presence men fear Him.

¹⁵ That which is has already been,
and what is to come has also already been;
and God seeks out what has been driven away.

† Some Heb. and Gk. texts, a apart from Him. †† Or a timelessness, or perpetuity

The Vanity of Injustice

¹⁶ Moreover I saw what was under the sun:
In the place of justice, there was wickedness;
and in the place of righteousness, there was wickedness.

¹⁷ I thought in my heart:
God will bring judgment
to the righteous and the wicked,
for there is an appropriate time
for every matter and deed.

¹⁸ Then I thought in my heart: Regarding the account of sons of men, God is making clear to them to show that they are but animals. ¹⁹ For what befalls the sons of men befalls animals; as one dies, so dies the other. There is one breath for all of them; there is no advantage for man any more than animals, for all is vanity. ²⁰ All go to one place: All are from the dust and all return to dust. ²¹ Who knows whether the spirit of man goes upward and the spirit of animals goes down to the earth?

²² So I saw that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his labor, for that is his reward. For who will bring him to see what will happen after his life?

Evil Under the Sun

4 Again I saw all types of oppression that are done under the sun:

Look! The tears of the oppressed,
and no one was there to comfort them.
And there was force from the hand of the oppressors,
and no one was there to comfort them.

² And I thought that fortunate were the dead
who had already died,
even more than the living
who were still alive.

³ And still better than both
is he who has not been,
who has not seen the evil deeds
that are done under the sun.

⁴ Then I saw that all toil and every skillful work come from one man's envy of another. This also is vanity and like chasing the wind.

⁵ The fool folds his hands and eats his own flesh.

⁶ Better is a full hand of quietness
than handfuls of toil and chasing the wind.

⁷ Again, I saw vanity under the sun:

⁸ There is a man who is alone,
neither having son or brother,
and there is not an end to all his toil,
and his eyes are not satisfied with riches to say,
"For whom do I labor and cause my life to lack good things?"

Also this is vanity
and a burdensome task.

⁹ Two are better than one,
because there is a good reward for their labor together.

¹⁰ For if they fall,
then one will help up his companion.
But woe to him who is alone when he falls
and has no one to help him up.

¹¹ Also if two lie down together, then they will keep warm;

but how can one keep warm by himself?
¹² And if someone might overpower another by himself,
two together can withstand him.
A threefold cord is not quickly broken.

The Vanity of Status

¹³ Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who will no longer be admonished. ¹⁴ For out of prison he has come to reign, even though he was born poor in the kingdom. ¹⁵ Then I saw all those who live and walk under the sun, along with the next youth who will arise in the king's place. ¹⁶ There is no end of all the people, to all who were before them. Yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and chasing the wind.

Revere God

5 Guard your steps when you enter the house of God, and draw near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they are doing evil. †

² Do not be quick to speak with your mouth, nor let your heart be hasty to utter a word
before God.

For God is in heaven,
and you are on the earth;
therefore may your words be few.

³ For a dream comes when there is a great burden,
and a foolish voice when there are many words.

⁴ When you make a vow to God, do not delay in fulfilling it because He has no pleasure in fools. Fulfill what you have vowed. ⁵ Better it is that you do not make a vow than you make a vow and not fulfill it. ⁶ Do not let your mouth cause you to sin, and do not say before the messenger that it was an error. Why should God be angry with your words and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷ For when there is an abundance of dreams and futilities, then words increase too. Therefore it is God you should fear.

The Vanity of Loving Money

⁸ If you see in a district the oppression of the poor and the violent perversion of justice and righteousness, do not be astounded at the matter; for the high official is watched over by an even higher official, and there are even higher officials over them. ⁹ But this is an advantage to the land in every way, like a king committed to a cultivated field.

¹⁰ He who loves money will not be satisfied with money;

nor he who loves abundance with increase. This also is vanity.

¹¹ When there is an increase of good things, then there is an increase of those who devour them. And what profit have the owners except to see them with their eyes?

¹² Sweet is the sleep of a laboring man, whether he eats a little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not let him sleep.

¹³ There is a grave misery that I have seen under the sun:

when riches were kept by an owner to his hurt, ¹⁴ and those riches were lost in a misfortunate business deal;

and although he has a son, there is nothing at all to put in his hand.

¹⁵ As he came from his mother's womb, naked shall he return, to go as he came; he shall take nothing from his labor which he may carry away in his hands.

¹⁶ This also is a grievous evil: Just as he came, so shall he go.

And what profit is there to him who toils for the wind?

¹⁷ Moreover, in all his days he eats in darkness, while he is greatly irritated in sickness and anger.

¹⁹ And also everyone to whom God has given wealth and possessions, and given him power to enjoy them, and to receive his reward and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. ²⁰ For he will not much remember the days of his life because God keeps him occupied with joy in his heart.

6 There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it lies heavy on mankind: ² a man to whom God gives wealth, possessions, and honor so that there is no want in his life from among anything that he desires; yet God does not give him ability to eat from them because another man eats and enjoys from his possessions. This is vanity and a tormenting injustice.

³ If a man fathers a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not satisfied with life's good things, and he has no burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he— ⁴ for it comes in vanity and departs in darkness, and in darkness its name is covered up. ⁵ Moreover, it has not seen the sun or known anything, yet it finds rest rather than he. ⁶ Though the man may live a thousand years, twice over, yet he does not see the good things. Does not everyone go to the same place?

⁷ All the labor of man is for his mouth, yet his appetite is not satisfied.

⁸ For what benefit is there for the wise over the fool?

And what more does the poor man know who walks before others?

⁹ Better to be content with the sight of eyes than to have a wandering appetite.

This is vanity and like chasing the wind.

¹⁰ Whatever happens, it has already been given a name, and it is known what man is; he cannot contend with Him who is stronger than he.

¹¹ The more words, the more vanity, so what profit is there to mankind?

¹² For who knows what is good for man while he lives the few days of his vain life which pass like a shadow? For who can tell men what will be after them under the sun?

The Value of Wisdom

7 A good name is better than precious ointment, and the day of death than the day of birth.

² It is better to go to a house of mourning than to go to a house of feasting, for this is the end of all mankind; and the living will lay it to heart.

³ Grief is better than laughter, for with a downcast face the heart considers the good.

⁴ The heart of those who are wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of those who are foolish in the house of feasting.

⁵ It is better to hear the rebuke from a wise man than a man listen to the song of fools.

⁶ For like the crackling sound of thorns under a pot, so is the mocking laughter of fools. And this is also vanity.

⁷ For oppression brings confusion to the wise man, and a bribe destroys a man's heart.

⁸ The end of a matter is better than the beginning of it, and the patient in spirit than the haughty in spirit.

⁹ Do not be quick in your spirit to be angry, for irritation settles in the bosom of fools.

¹⁰ Do not say, "Why were the earlier days better than these days?"

For it is not from wisdom that you inquire this.

¹¹ Wisdom is good with an inheritance, and an advantage to those who see the sun.

¹² For the protection of wisdom is like the protection of money, and the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

¹³ Consider the work of God:
 Who is able to make straight
 what He has made crooked?
¹⁴ In the day of prosperity be joyful,
 but in the day of distress consider:
 God has made the one
 as well as the other.
 For this reason man will not be able to understand anything that comes after him.
¹⁵ I have seen everything in my days of vanity:
 There is the righteous man who dies in his righteousness,
 and there is the wicked man who extends his life of
 evil.
¹⁶ Do not be excessively righteous,
 and do not be extremely wise;
 why should you destroy yourself?
¹⁷ Do not be overly wicked,
 and do not be a fool;
 why should you die before your time?
¹⁸ It is good that you should take hold of this,
 and from the other not withhold your hand;
 for he who fears God will come out from them all.
¹⁹ Wisdom strengthens the wise man
 more than ten rulers who are in the city.
²⁰ For there is not a righteous man on earth
 who only does good and refrains from sin.
²¹ Do not give heed to everything people say,
 lest you hear your servant cursing you.
²² Your heart knows that many times you have spoken a curse against others.
²³ All this I have tested by wisdom. I said,
 "I will be wise,"
 but it was far from me.
²⁴ That which is, is far off,
 and exceedingly deep.
 Who can find it out?
²⁵ And I turned my heart to know, and seek and search out wisdom in how things are
 and to experience wicked folly,
 even foolishness and madness.
²⁶ I find more bitter than death
 the woman whose heart is snares
 and nets,
 and whose hands are fetters.
 He who pleases God escapes her,
 but the sinner is taken by her.
²⁷ "See, this is what I found," says the Preacher,
 "adding one thing to another to find the sum, ²⁸ which my soul still seeks but I do not find:
 One man among a thousand I have found,
 but a woman among all these I have not found.
²⁹ See, this only have I found:
 that God made man upright,
 but they have sought out many schemes."

8 Who is like a wise man?
 And who knows the interpretation of a matter?
 A man's wisdom makes his face shine,
 and the harshness of his face is softened.

The Value of Obedience

² I say, "Keep the king's command, because of your oath to God. ³ Do not be hasty to leave his presence.
 Do not take a stand in an unpleasant matter, for he does whatever pleases him." ⁴ For the word of the king is powerful, and who would say to him, "What are you doing?"

⁵ He who keeps his command will know no evil thing;
 and a wise heart will know the appropriate time and just way.

⁶ For to every matter there is an appropriate time and
 just way,
 though a man's distress weighs heavily on him.

⁷ For he does not know what will happen;
 for who can declare to him what will occur?

⁸ There is not a man with mastery over the wind to restrain it,

nor with power over the day of death.

And no one can discharge a battle,
 nor can wickedness rescue the one possessing it.

⁹ All this I saw while applying my heart to every work that is done under the sun, when one man rules over another to the other's hurt.

God's Unknowable Ways

¹⁰ Then I saw the wicked buried. They used to go in and out of the holy place, and they were praised [†] in the city where they did works. This is also vanity.

¹¹ Because the sentence against an evil deed is not executed swiftly, the heart of the sons of men is fully set to do evil. ¹² Since one who sins may do evil a hundred times and extend his life, I also have experienced that it will be good for those who fear God when they have reverence before Him. ¹³ But it will not be well for the wicked, and he will not prolong his days, like a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

¹⁴ There is a vanity that takes place on the earth that there are righteous men who are treated according to the deeds of the wicked, and there are wicked men who are treated according to the deeds of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. ¹⁵ And I commend joy, for man has nothing better under the sun than to eat and drink and be joyful; for this will go with him in his labor all the days of his life that God has given him under the sun.

¹⁶ When I set my heart to know wisdom and to experience the affairs that are done on earth, though day and night there is no sleep for one's eyes, ¹⁷ then I saw all the work of God, that a man cannot comprehend the work that is done under the sun. Inasmuch as a man labors to seek, he will not understand. Even if a wise man claims to know, he cannot grasp it.

A Common Fate

9 For I considered all this in my heart, so that I could declare it all: that the deeds of the righteous and the wise are in the hand of God. No man knows whether love or hate awaits them; both are before him. ²The same fate comes to all: There is one fate for the righteous and the wicked, for the good and the evil, [†] for the clean and the unclean, for him who sacrifices and him who does not sacrifice.

As is the good,
so is the sinner;
he who takes an oath
as he who fears an oath.

³And this is an evil in all that is done under the sun: that the same event happens to all. Truly the hearts of the sons of men are filled with evil, and folly is in their hearts while they have life, and after that they go to the dead. ⁴But for him who is joined to all the living there is hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

⁵The living know that they will die,
but the dead know nothing;
they have no more reward,
for the memory of them is forgotten.

⁶What they loved, hated,
and envied has already perished;
and there is no reward for them from long ago
in everything that is done under the sun.

⁷Go and eat your food with gladness, and drink your wine with a pleasant heart; for God is already pleased with your deeds. ⁸At all times may your clothing be white, and let not oil ever lack on your head. ⁹Enjoy life with the wife whom you love all the days of your vain life which He has given you under the sun; because that is your reward in life and in your toil because you have labored under the sun. ¹⁰Whatever your hands find to do, do with your strength; for there is no work or planning or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, the place where you are going.

¹¹Again I saw under the sun that—the race is not to the swift,
nor the battle to the strong,
nor food to the wise,
nor riches to the intelligent,
nor favor to those with knowledge;
but time and chance happen to them all.

¹²For man does not know his time:
Like fish caught in an unfortunate net,
like birds caught in a snare,
so the sons of men are ensnared at a tragic, yet appointed time,
when it suddenly falls on them.

The Excellence of Wisdom

¹³I have also seen this wisdom under the sun, and it seemed great to me: ¹⁴There was a small city with a few men in it; and a great king came and surrounded it, and he built up great siege works against it. ¹⁵But a poor, wise man was found there, and he himself in his wisdom delivered the city, but no one remembered that poor man. ¹⁶Then I said, "Wisdom is better than strength; yet the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard."

¹⁷The words of the wise heard in quietness are better than the shouting of a ruler among fools.

¹⁸Wisdom is better than weapons of war,
but only one sinner can destroy much that is good.

10 A dead fly causes a stench in mixed anointing oil,

so a little folly is more weighty than wisdom and honor.

²The heart of the wise inclines to the right,
but the heart of a fool to the left.

³Even when a fool walks on the road,
he lacks sense,
and he shows everyone that he is a fool.

⁴If the anger of a ruler rises against you,
do not leave your post;
for calmness pacifies great offenses.

⁵There is an evil that I have seen under the sun
like an error that goes out from a ruler:

⁶Folly is set in many high places,
but the rich sit in a low place.

⁷I have seen slaves riding on horses,
and officials walking along the ground like slaves.

⁸He who digs a pit will fall into it, and whoever breaks through a wall will be bitten by a serpent.

⁹He who quarries stones is injured by them,
and he who splits wood is in danger from them.

¹⁰If an iron piece is blunt
and there is no one to sharpen it,
then he must prevail with more strength;
but wisdom is a benefit to succeed.

¹¹If a serpent bites before it is charmed,
there is no advantage to the charmer.

¹²The words of a wise man's mouth bring favor,
but the speech of a fool consumes him;

¹³the beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness,

and the end of his talk is evil madness.

¹⁴A fool multiplies words,
though no man knows what is to be;
who can tell him what will be after him?

¹⁵The labor of the foolish makes him weary,
such that he does not know the way to the city!

¹⁶Woe to you, O land, when your king is a lad,
and your princes are feasting in the morning!

¹⁷Happy are you, O land, when your king is from nobility,

† from Gk. is missing in some Heb. mss.

and your princes are feasting at the appropriate time—

with self-control and not drunkenness!

¹⁸ The roof beams sink in with slothfulness,
and with the idleness of one's hands the house drips.

¹⁹ They make feasts for laughter,
and wine gladdens life;

but money resolves everything.

²⁰ Even in your mind do not curse the king;
and in your bedchamber do not curse the rich;
for a bird in the sky may carry your voice,
and a winged creature may declare the matter.

The Value of Diligence

11 Cast your bread upon the waters,
for you will find it after many days.

² Give a portion to seven, or even eight,
for you do not know what calamity may happen on
the earth.

³ If the clouds are full of rain,
they empty out on the land;
and if a tree falls to the north or south,
in the place that the tree falls, there it will be.

⁴ He who observes the wind will not sow,
and he who regards the clouds will not reap.

⁵ As you do not know the way of the wind, or how the bones grow in the womb of her who is
with child;

likewise you do not know the work of God
who has made everything.

⁶ In the morning sow your seed,
and in the evening do not let your hand rest;
because you do not know which activity will find success,

this way or that way,
or if the both will be good.

Remember Your Creator in Your Youth

⁷ Light is sweet,
and good for the eyes to see the sun;

⁸ for if a man lives many years,
may he rejoice in all of them.

But let him also remember that the days of darkness are many.
Everything that comes is vanity.

⁹ Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and in your early years may your heart do you good;
walk in the path of your heart
and the desire of your eyes;
but know that in all these things
God will bring you into judgment.

¹⁰ Take away anger from your heart,
and remove distress from your body,

for youth and the dawn are vanity.

12 Remember your Creator
in the days of your youth,
before the difficult days come
and the years arrive when you say,
"I have no pleasure in them":

² before the sun, light,
moon, and stars are darkened,
and the clouds leave after the rain;
³ in the day when those watching the house tremble,
and the strong men are bent over;
when the grinders cease because they are few,
and those looking through the windows have dimmed eyes;

⁴ and the doors on the street are shut,
and the sound of grinding is low;
and one rises up at the sound of a bird,
and all the daughters of song are brought low;

⁵ when they are afraid of heights,
even the terrors along the road;
the almond tree blossoms,
the grasshopper drags itself along
and desire fails,

because man goes to his eternal home,
and the mourners go about the streets.

⁶ Remember your Creator before the cord of silver is snapped,

or the bowl of gold smashed,
or the jar by the spring broken
or the wheel at the cistern crushed.

⁷ The dust returns to the earth where it was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

⁸ It is all vanity, says the Preacher;
all is vanity.

Epilogue

⁹ And in addition to being wise, the Preacher still taught the people knowledge, and he considered, sought out, and arranged many proverbs. ¹⁰ And the Preacher sought to discover words of delight, and to write in uprightness words of truth.

¹¹ The words of the wise are like goads, and the collected sayings are like firmly embedded nails, given by one shepherd. ¹² My son, beware of anything beyond these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness to the flesh.

¹³ Now all has been heard.

Let us hear the conclusion of the matter:
Fear God and keep His commandments,
for this is the whole duty of man.

¹⁴ For God will bring every deed into judgment, including every secret thing,
whether good or evil.

SONG OF SOLOMON

Jewish tradition attributes the authorship to Solomon, who most likely wrote the song during the early part of his reign, in about 965 BC. These writings are a collection of love poems; they are expressions of God's gift of intimacy between a man and a woman. The poetry is transparent, and the characters meet multiple times and verbalize and act on their love for one another. The Song of Solomon is also part of the wisdom literature in the Old Testament or Hebrew Bible.

Introduction

1 The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.

The Woman

2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth!
For your love is better than wine.

3 Your anointing oils are fragrant,
your name is oil poured out;
therefore the virgins love you.

4 Draw me after you, let us run.
The king has brought me into his chambers.

Friends of the Woman

We will exult and rejoice in you;
we will remember your love more than wine;
rightly do they love you.

The Woman

5 I am dark, but still lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar,
like the curtains of Solomon.

6 Do not gaze at me, because I am dark,
because the sun has looked upon me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;
they made me the keeper of the vineyards,
but my own vineyard I have not kept.

7 Tell me, you whom my soul loves,
where you pasture your flock,
where you make it lie down at noon;
for why should I be like one who veils herself by the flocks of your companions?

Friends of the Woman

8 If you do not know, O fairest among women,
follow in the tracks of the flock,
and pasture your young goats
beside the shepherds' tents.

The Man

9 I compare you, my love, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots.

10 Lovely are your cheeks with ornaments,
your neck with chains of gold.

Friends of the Woman

11 We will make you ornaments of gold,
with studs of silver.

The Woman

12 While the king was on his couch,
my nard gave forth its fragrance.

13 My beloved is to me a bundle of myrrh
that lies all night between my breasts.

14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms
in the vineyards of En Gedi.

The Man

15 How fair you are, my love.
How fair you are! Your eyes are doves.

The Woman

16 How fair you are, my beloved!
Yes, pleasant!

Our bed is verdant;
17 the beams of our house are cedar,
and our rafters of fir.

2 I am the rose of Sharon,
the lily of the valleys.

The Man

2 As a lily among thorns,
so is my love among the maidens.

The Woman

3 As an apple tree among the trees of the forest,
so is my beloved among the young men.
In his shadow I sat with great delight,
and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

4 He brought me to the banquet house,
and his banner over me was love.

5 Sustain me with raisins,
refresh me with apples;
for I am faint with love.

6 His left hand is under my head,
 and his right hand embraces me.
 7 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
 by the gazelles or the does of the field,
 do not stir up or awaken love
 until it pleases.
 8 The voice of my beloved!
 Look, he comes leaping over the mountains,
 bounding over the hills.
 9 My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.
 Look, he stands behind our wall, gazing through the windows,
 looking through the lattice.
 10 My beloved speaks and says to me: "Rise up, my love,
 my fair one, and come away.
 11 For now the winter has past;
 the rain is over and gone.
 12 The flowers appear on the earth;
 the time of singing has come,
 and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.
 13 The fig tree puts forth its green figs,
 and the vines their blossoms;
 and they give forth fragrance.
 Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.
 14 O my dove, in the clefts of the rock,
 in the secret places of the cliffs,
 let me see your face,
 let me hear your voice;
 for your voice is sweet,
 and your face is lovely.
 15 Catch the foxes for us,
 the little foxes
 that spoil the vineyards,
 for our vineyards are in blossom." 16 My beloved is mine,
 and I am his;
 he feeds his flock among the lilies.
 17 Until the day breathes
 and the shadows flee,
 turn, my beloved, be like a gazelle or a young stag on the cleft mountains. †
3 On my bed by night I sought him
 whom my soul loves;
 I sought him, but found him not.
 2 I will rise now and go about the city,
 in the streets and in the squares;
 I will seek him whom my soul loves.
 I sought him, but found him not.
 3 The watchmen found me,
 as they went about the city.
 "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"
 4 Scarcely had I passed them,
 when I found him whom my soul loves.
 I held him, and would not let him go until I brought him to my mother's house,

and into the chamber of her who conceived me.
 5 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
 by the gazelles or does of the field,
 do not stir up or awaken love
 until it pleases.
 6 Who is that coming up from the wilderness,
 like columns of smoke,
 perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
 with all the fragrant powders of the merchant?
 7 Look, it is the litter of Solomon!
 Around it are sixty mighty men,
 of the mighty men of Israel, 8 all of them holding swords
 and expert in war,
 each with his sword at his thigh,
 because of terrors by night.
 9 King Solomon made himself a palanquin
 from the wood of Lebanon.
 10 He made its posts of silver,
 its back of gold,
 its seat of purple ;
 its interior was inlaid with love
 by the daughters of Jerusalem.
 11 Go forth, O daughters of Zion, and see King Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him
 on the day of his wedding,
 on the day of the gladness of his heart.

The Man

4 How fair you are, my love!
 How very fair!
 Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
 Your hair is like a flock of goats,
 streaming down the hills of Gilead.
 2 Your teeth are like a flock of shorn ewes
 that have come up from the washing,
 all of which bear twins,
 and not one among them has lost its young.
 3 Your lips are like a scarlet thread,
 and your mouth is lovely.
 Your cheeks are halves of a pomegranate
 behind your veil.
 4 Your neck is like the tower of David,
 built in rows of stone;
 on it hang a thousand shields,
 all of them shields of mighty men.
 5 Your two breasts are like two fawns,
 twins of a gazelle,
 that feed among the lilies.
 6 Until the day breathes
 and the shadows flee,
 I will go away to the mountain of myrrh
 and the hill of frankincense.
 7 You are altogether fair, my love;
 there is no flaw in you.
 8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride;
 come with me from Lebanon.

† Or a mountains of Bethel.

Depart from the peak of Amana,
 from the peak of Senir and Hermon,
 from the dens of lions,
 from the mountains of leopards.
⁹ You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride;
 you have ravished my heart
 with one glance of your eyes,
 with one jewel of your necklace.
¹⁰ How fair is your love, my sister, my bride!
 How much better than wine is your love,
 and the fragrance of your oils than any spice!
¹¹ Your lips drip honey, my bride;
 honey and milk are under your tongue;
 and the fragrance of your garments is like the scent of Lebanon.
¹² A garden locked is my sister, my bride,
 a fountain sealed.
¹³ Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates
 with all choicest fruits,
 henna with nard,
¹⁴ nard and saffron,
 calamus and cinnamon,
 with all trees of frankincense,
 myrrh and aloes,
 with all the chief spices—¹⁵ a garden fountain,
 a well of living water,
 and flowing streams from Lebanon.

The Woman

¹⁶ Awake, O north wind,
 and come, O south wind!
 Blow upon my garden,
 that its spices may flow out.
 Let my beloved come to his garden,
 and eat its choicest fruits.

The Man

5 I come to my garden, my sister, my bride;
 I gather my myrrh with my spice;
 I eat my honeycomb with my honey;
 I drink my wine with my milk.

Friends of the Man

Eat, friends!
 Drink, and be drunk with love!

The Woman

² I slept, but my heart was awake.
 A sound! My beloved is knocking. "Open to me, my sister, and my love,
 my dove, my perfect one;
 for my head is wet with dew,
 my locks with the drops of the night."
³ I had taken off my garment;
 how could I put it on again?
 I had bathed my feet;

how could I soil them?
⁴ My beloved put his hand by the latch,
 and my heart yearned for him.
⁵ I rose up to open to my beloved,
 and my hands dripped with myrrh,
 my fingers with liquid myrrh
 on the handles of the bolt.
⁶ I opened to my beloved,
 but my beloved had turned and was gone.
 My soul failed me when he spoke.
 I sought him, but found him not;
 I called him, but he gave no answer.
⁷ The watchmen found me
 as they went about the city;
 they struck me, they wounded me;
 they took away my mantle,
 those watchmen of the walls.
⁸ I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
 if you find my beloved,
 that you tell him I am faint with love.

Friends of the Woman

⁹ What is your beloved more than another beloved,
 O fairest among women?
 What is your beloved more than another beloved,
 that you so charge us?

The Woman

¹⁰ My beloved is white and ruddy, distinguished among ten thousand.
¹¹ His head is the finest gold;
 his locks are wavy,
 black as a raven.
¹² His eyes are like doves
 beside rivers of water,
 bathed in milk,
 fitly set.
¹³ His cheeks are like beds of spices,
 mounds of scented herbs.
 His lips are lilies,
 dripping liquid myrrh.
¹⁴ His arms are rods of gold,
 set with jewels.
 His body is bright ivory,
 inlaid with sapphires.
¹⁵ His legs are alabaster columns,
 set on bases of gold.
 His appearance is like Lebanon,
 choice as the cedars.
¹⁶ His mouth is most sweet,
 and he is altogether desirable.
 This is my beloved and this is my friend,
 O daughters of Jerusalem.

Friends of the Woman

6 Where has your beloved gone,
 O fairest among women?

Where has your beloved turned aside,
that we may seek him with you?

The Woman

² My beloved has gone down to his garden,
to the beds of spices,
to feed his flock in the gardens,
and to gather lilies.

³ I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine;
he feeds his flock among the lilies.

The Man

⁴ You are beautiful as Tirzah, my love,
comely as Jerusalem,
awesome as an army with banners!

⁵ Turn your eyes away from me,
for they overwhelm me!

Your hair is like a flock of goats
streaming down from Gilead.

⁶ your teeth are like a flock of ewes
that have come up from the washing;
all of them bear twins; not one among them has lost its young;

⁷ your cheeks are like halves
of a pomegranate behind your veil.

⁸ There are sixty queens
and eighty concubines,
and virgins without number.

⁹ My dove, my perfect one, is the only one,
the only one of her mother,
choice to her who bore her.

The maidens saw her and called her blessed;
the queens and concubines also, and they praised
her.

¹⁰ Who is this who looks forth like the dawn,
fair as the moon, radiant as the sun,
awesome as an army with banners?

¹¹ I went down to the nut orchard to look at the blossoms of the valley,
to see whether the vines had budded,
whether the pomegranates were in bloom.

¹² Before I was aware, my soul set me in a chariot beside my prince.

Friends of the Woman

¹³ Return, return, O Shulammitte! †
Return, return, that we may look upon you.

The Man

Why should you look upon the Shulammitte,
as upon a dance before two armies? ††

7 How beautiful are your feet in sandals,
O prince's daughter!

The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
the work of a master hand.

² Your navel is a round bowl

that never lacks mixed wine.
Your belly is a heap of wheat,
encircled with lilies.

³ Your two breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle.

⁴ Your neck is like an ivory tower,
your eyes pools in Heshbon,
by the gate of Bath Rabbim.

Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon, overlooking Damascus.

⁵ Your head crowns like Carmel,
and your flowing hair is like purple;
a king is held captive in the tresses.

⁶ How fair and pleasant you are,
O loved one, with all your delights!

⁷ Your stature is like a palm tree,
and your breasts are like its clusters.

⁸ I say I will climb the palm tree and take hold of its branches.

Oh, may your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
and the scent of your breath like apples,

⁹ and your mouth like the best wine.
It goes down smoothly for my beloved,
gliding over lips and teeth.

The Woman

¹⁰ I am my beloved's,
and his desire is for me.

¹¹ Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the fields,
and lodge in the villages;

¹² let us go out early to the vineyards,
and see whether the vines have budded,
whether the grape blossoms have opened
and the pomegranates are in bloom.
There I will give you my love.

¹³ The mandrakes give forth fragrance,
and at our doors are all choice fruits,
new as well as old,
which I have laid up for you, my beloved.

8 Oh, that you were like a brother to me,
who nursed at my mother's breasts!

If I found you outside,
I would kiss you,
and no one would despise me.

² I would lead you and bring you into the house of my mother,
she who used to instruct me.

I would give you spiced wine to drink,
the juice of my pomegranates.

³ His left hand is under my head,
and his right arm embraces me!

⁴ I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem,
do not stir up or awaken love
until it pleases.

Friends of the Woman

⁵ Who is that coming up from the wilderness,

† 7:1 in the Heb. text. †† Or a dance of Mahanaim.

leaning upon her beloved?

The Woman

Under the apple tree I awakened you.
 There your mother was in labor with you;
 there she who bore you was in labor.
⁶Set me as a seal upon your heart,
 as a seal upon your arm;
 for love is strong as death,
 passion fierce as the grave.
 Its fires of desire are as ardent flames,
 a most intense flame.
⁷Many waters cannot quench love,
 neither can floods drown it.
 If a man offered for love
 all the wealth of his house,
 it would be utterly condemned.

Brothers of the Woman

⁸We have a little sister,
 and she has no breasts.
 What will we do for our sister
 on the day when she is spoken for?
⁹If she is a wall,
 we will build upon her a battlement of silver;
 but if she is a door,

we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

The Woman

¹⁰I was a wall,
 and my breasts were like towers;
 then I was in his eyes
 as one who finds peace.
¹¹Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon;
 he leased the vineyard to keepers;
 each man was to bring for its fruit a thousand pieces of silver.
¹²My vineyard, my very own, is before me;
 you, O Solomon, may have the thousand,
 and the keepers of the fruit two hundred.

The Man

¹³O you who dwell in the gardens,
 my companions listen for your voice;
 let me hear it!

The Woman

¹⁴Make haste, my beloved,
 and be like a gazelle or a young stag
 on the mountains of spices!

ISAIAH

The book of Isaiah was probably written between 701 and 681 BC toward the end of the reign of King Uzziah and throughout the reigns of Kings Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah. Based on Jewish tradition, the author is the prophet Isaiah, and its principal theme is victory by the Holy One of Israel and the expectation of a Suffering Servant and New Creation. Throughout his fifty to sixty years of prophetic ministry, Isaiah lived in Jerusalem during a time of great political turmoil. His prophetic calling was to Judah and Jerusalem. Most of the first chapters of Isaiah are strong messages of judgment and a call to repentance. The remaining chapters present God's message of forgiveness, consolation, and hope as they point to the coming King of Israel. The final chapters beautifully describe a new creation where God will rule as King, judging the wicked and establishing eternal peace.

1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

The Wickedness of Judah

2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth.
For the LORD has spoken:
I have nourished and brought up children,
and they have rebelled against Me;
3 the ox knows his owner,
and the donkey his master's crib,
but Israel does not know;
My people do not consider.
4 Alas, sinful nation,
a people laden with iniquity,
a brood of evildoers,
children who deal corruptly!
They have forsaken the LORD ,
they have provoked the Holy One of Israel to anger,
they are estranged and backward.
5 Why should you be beaten again,
that you revolt more and more?
The whole head is sick,
and the whole heart faint.
6 From the sole of the foot even to the head
there is no soundness in it.
Wounds, bruises,
and open sores;
they have not been closed,
nor bandaged, nor soothed with oil.
7 Your country is desolate,
your cities are burned with fire;
strangers devour your land
in your presence;
and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.
8 The daughter of Zion is left
like a shelter in a vineyard,
like a hut in a field of melons,
like a besieged city.

9 Unless the LORD of Hosts had left to us a very small remnant,
we would have been as Sodom;
we would have been like Gomorrah.
10 Hear the word of the LORD ,
you rulers of Sodom;
listen to the law of our God,
you people of Gomorrah:
11 For what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices to Me? says the LORD .
I am full of the burnt offerings of rams,
and the fat of fed animals.
I do not delight in the blood of bulls,
or of lambs, or of male goats.
12 When you come to appear before Me,
who has required this at your hand,
to trample My courts?
13 Bring no more vain offerings;
incense is an abomination to Me.
New Moons, Sabbaths, and convocations—
I cannot bear with evil assemblies.
14 My soul hates
your New Moons and your appointed feasts;
they are a burden to Me;
I am weary of bearing them.
15 When you reach out your hands,
I will hide My eyes from you;
even when you make many prayers,
I will not hear.
Your hands are full of blood.
16 Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean;
put away the evil from your deeds,
from before My eyes.
Cease to do evil,
17 learn to do good;
seek justice,
relieve the oppressed;
judge the fatherless,
plead for the widow.
18 Come now, and let us reason together,

says the LORD .

Though your sins be as scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they be red like crimson,
they shall be as wool.

¹⁹ If you are willing and obedient,
you shall eat the good of the land;

²⁰ but if you refuse and rebel,
you shall be devoured with the sword;
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it.

The Degenerate City

²¹ How the faithful city has become a prostitute!

She was full of justice;
righteousness lodged in her,
but now murderers.

²² Your silver has become dross,
your wine mixed with water.

²³ Your princes are rebellious and companions of thieves;
everyone loves a bribe
and follows after rewards.

They do not defend the fatherless,
nor does the cause of the widow come before them.

²⁴ Therefore the Lord, the LORD of Hosts,
the Mighty One of Israel, says:

Ah, I will get relief from My adversaries,
and avenge Myself on My enemies.

²⁵ And I will turn My hand against you, thoroughly purge away your dross,
and take away all your impurities.

²⁶ I will restore your judges as at the first,
and your counselors as at the beginning.

Afterward you shall be called
the city of righteousness,
a faithful town.

²⁷ Zion shall be redeemed with justice and her converts with righteousness.

²⁸ But the destruction of the transgressors and sinners shall be together, and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

²⁹ For they shall be ashamed of the oaks
which you have desired,
and you shall be humiliated for the gardens
that you have chosen.

³⁰ For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades,
and as a garden that has no water.

³¹ The strong shall be as tinder,
and his work like a spark;
they will both burn together,
and no one will quench them.

The Mountain of the LORD

Mic 4:1-3

2 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

² In the last days,
the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established

on the top of the mountains,
and shall be exalted above the hills,
and all nations shall flow to it.

³ Many people shall go and say,
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD

to the house of the God of Jacob,
and He will teach us of His ways,
and we will walk in His paths."

For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

⁴ He shall judge among the nations,
and shall rebuke many peoples;
and they shall beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks;
nation shall not lift up sword against nation,
nor shall they learn war any more.

⁵ O house of Jacob, come,
and let us walk in the light of the LORD .

The Day of the LORD

⁶ For You have forsaken Your people,
the house of Jacob,
because they are replenished from the east,
and are soothsayers like the Philistines,
and they please themselves with the children of strangers.

⁷ Their land also is full of silver and gold,
and there is no end to their treasures;
their land is also full of horses,
and there is no end to their chariots.

⁸ Their land also is full of idols;
they worship the work of their own hands,
that which their own fingers have made.

⁹ And the common man bows down,
and the great man humbles himself;
therefore, do not forgive them.

¹⁰ Enter into the rock,
and hide in the dust
from the fear of the LORD
and from the glory of His majesty.

¹¹ The lofty looks of man shall be humbled,
and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down,
and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

¹² For the day of the LORD of Hosts shall be upon everything that is proud and lofty,
and upon everything that is lifted up,
and it shall be brought low;

¹³ and it will be upon all the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up,

and upon all the oaks of Bashan, ¹⁴ and upon all the high mountains,
and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

¹⁵ and upon all the high towers,
and upon every fenced wall,

¹⁶ and upon all the ships of Tarshish,
and upon all pleasant sloops.
¹⁷ The loftiness of man shall be humbled,
and the haughtiness of men shall be brought low;
the LORD alone will be exalted in that day;
¹⁸ the idols He shall utterly abolish.
¹⁹ They shall go into the holes of the rocks,
and into the caves of the earth,
from the fear of the LORD ,
and from the glory of His majesty,
when He shall arise to shake the earth mightily.
²⁰ In that day a man shall cast away
his idols of silver and his idols of gold,
which they made for themselves to worship,
to the moles and to the bats,
²¹ to enter the caverns of the rocks,
and into the clefts of the cliffs,
from the terror of the LORD ,
and from the glory of His majesty,
when He arises to shake the earth mightily.
²² Cease regarding man,
whose breath is in his nostrils;
for why should he be esteemed?

Judgment on Judah and Jerusalem

3 For now the Lord,
the LORD of Hosts,
takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah
the stock and the store,
the whole supply of bread, and the whole supply of water;
² the mighty man and the man of war,
the judge and the prophet,
and the prudent and the ancient,
³ the captain of fifty and the honorable man,
the counselor and the skillful artisan, and the eloquent orator.
⁴ I will give youths to be their princes,
and unweaned children shall rule over them.
⁵ The people shall be oppressed,
every one by another, and every one by his neighbor;
the youth shall behave himself proudly against the elder,
and the inferior against the honorable.
⁶ When a man shall take hold of his brother
in the house of his father saying,
"You have clothing; be our ruler,
and let this ruin be under your power," ⁷ in that day he shall swear saying,
"I will not be a healer.
For in my house is neither bread nor clothing;
do not make me a ruler of the people."
⁸ For Jerusalem is ruined,
and Judah is fallen,
because their tongue and their deeds are against the LORD ,
to provoke the eyes of His glory.

⁹ The expression of their countenance witnesses against them,
and they declare their sin as Sodom;
they hide it not.
Woe to them!
For they have brought evil on themselves.
¹⁰ Say to the righteous that it shall be well with them,
for they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.
¹¹ Woe to the wicked! It shall be ill with him, for the reward of his hands shall be given him.
¹² As for My people, children are their oppressors,
and women rule over them.
O My people, those who lead you cause you to err,
and destroy the way of your paths.
¹³ The LORD stands up to plead and stands to judge the people.
¹⁴ The LORD will enter into judgment
with the elders and the princes of His people:
For you have eaten up the vineyard;
the spoil of the poor is in your houses.
¹⁵ What do you mean that you beat My people to pieces
and grind the faces of the poor?
says the Lord GOD of Hosts.
¹⁶ Moreover the LORD says:
Because the daughters of Zion are haughty and walk with outstretched necks
and wanton eyes,
walking and mincing as they go,
and making a tinkling with their feet,
¹⁷ therefore, the Lord will strike with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion,
and the LORD will make their foreheads bare.
¹⁸ In that day the Lord will take away the finery of the ankle ornaments, and the headbands, and the crescent ornaments, ¹⁹ the chains, and the bracelets, and the veils, ²⁰ the bonnets, the leg ornaments, the sashes, perfume boxes, amulets, ²¹ the finger rings, nose rings, ²² festal robes, outer tunics, cloaks, purses, ²³ hand mirrors, and undergarments, hoods, and veils.
²⁴ Instead of sweet perfume there shall be a stench;
and instead of a belt, a rope;
and instead of well-set hair, baldness;
and instead of fine clothes, a girding of sackcloth;
and branding instead of beauty.
²⁵ Your men shall fall by the sword,
and your mighty in the war.
²⁶ Her gates shall lament and mourn,
and she, being desolate, shall sit on the ground.
4 And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying,
"We will eat our own bread,
and wear our own apparel,
only let us be called by your name,
to take away our reproach."

The Branch of the LORD

²In that day the branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for those of Israel who have escaped. ³He who is left in Zion and he who remains in Jerusalem shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem. ⁴When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and has purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst by the spirit of justice and by the spirit of burning, ⁵then the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night. For over all the glory shall be a covering. ⁶There shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

The Song of the Vineyard

5 Now I will sing to my well-beloved a song of my beloved concerning His vineyard:

My well-beloved has a vineyard
in a very fruitful hill.

²And He fenced it, and removed its stones,
and planted it with the choicest vine.

And He built a tower in the midst of it,
and also made a winepress in it;
and He expected it to bring forth good grapes,
but it brought forth wild grapes.

³Now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah,
judge between My vineyard and Me.

⁴What more could have been done to My vineyard that I have not done in it?

Why, when I expected it to bring forth good grapes,
did it bring forth wild grapes?

⁵So now I will tell you what I will do to My vineyard:

I will take away its hedge,
and it shall be consumed;
I will break down its wall,
and it shall be trodden down.

⁶And I will lay it waste:
It shall not be pruned or dug,
but briars and thorns shall come up.

I will also command the clouds
that they rain no rain on it.

⁷For the vineyard of the LORD of Hosts
is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah
His pleasant plant.

Thus He looked for justice, but saw oppression;
for righteousness, but heard a cry.

Woes and Judgment

⁸Woe to those who join house to house,

who add field to field,
until there is no more space
where they may live alone in the midst of the land!

⁹In my ears the LORD of Hosts said:
Truly, many houses shall be desolate,
even great and beautiful, without inhabitants.

¹⁰For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, [†]
and the homer ^{††} of seed shall yield an ephah. [‡]

¹¹Woe to those who rise up early in the morning that they may pursue strong drink;
who continue late in the evening
until wine inflames them!

¹²The lyre and the harp, the tambourine and pipe,
and wine are in their feasts;

but they do not regard the deeds of the LORD,
or consider the work of His hands.

¹³Therefore My people go into captivity
because they have no knowledge;
and their honorable men are famished,
and their multitude dried up with thirst.

¹⁴Therefore Sheol has enlarged itself
and opened its mouth without measure;
so their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp,
and he who rejoices shall descend into it.

¹⁵The common man shall be brought down,
and the great man shall be humbled,
and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled.

¹⁶But the LORD of Hosts shall be exalted in judgment,
and God who is holy shall be hallowed in righteousness.

¹⁷Then the lambs shall feed in their pasture, and strangers shall eat in the waste places of the wealthy.

¹⁸Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood
and sin as if with a cart rope,

¹⁹who say, "Let Him make speed and hasten His work,
that we may see it;

and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come,
that we may know it!"

²⁰Woe to those who call evil good,
and good evil;

who exchange darkness for light,
and light for darkness;
who exchange bitter for sweet,
and sweet for bitter!

²¹Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes and prudent in their own sight!

²²Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine,
and men of strength to mingle strong drink,

²³who justify the wicked for a reward,
and take away the justice of the righteous from him!

²⁴Therefore, as the fire devours the stubble

[†] About 6 gallons, or 22 liters. ^{††} Likely about 360 pounds, or 160 kilograms. [‡] Likely about 36 pounds, or 16 kilograms.

and the flame consumes the chaff,
 so their root shall be as rottenness,
 and their blossom shall go up as dust;
 because they have cast away the law of the LORD of Hosts
 and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.
²⁵ Therefore the anger of the LORD burns against His
 people,
 and He has stretched out His hand against them,
 and has stricken them,
 and the hills trembled.
 Their corpses were torn in the midst of the streets.
 For all this His anger is not turned away,
 and His hand is still stretched out.
²⁶ He will lift up a banner to the nations from afar and will hiss at them from the ends of the earth;
 certainly they shall come
 with speed, swiftly.
²⁷ No one shall be weary or stumble among them;
 no one shall slumber or sleep;
 neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed,
 nor the strap of their shoes be broken;
²⁸ their arrows are sharp
 and all their bows bent;
 their horses' hooves will seem like flint,
 and their wheels like a whirlwind.
²⁹ Their roaring shall be like a lion,
 they shall roar like young lions;
 they shall roar and lay hold of the prey;
 and shall carry it away, and no one shall deliver it.
³⁰ In that day they shall roar against them
 like the roaring of the sea.
 And if one looks to the land—
 only darkness and sorrow,
 and the light is darkened by the clouds.

The Commission of Isaiah

6 In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and His train filled the temple. ² Above it stood the seraphim.
 Each one had six wings. With two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew.
³ One cried to another and said:
 "Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of Hosts;
 the whole earth is full of His glory."
⁴ The posts of the door moved at the voice of him who cried, and the house was filled with smoke.
⁵ And I said: "Woe is me! For I am undone because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips. For my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of Hosts."
⁶ Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar in his hand. ⁷ And he laid it on my mouth, and said,
 "This has touched your lips, and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin purged."
⁸ Also I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"

Then I said, "Here am I. Send me."
⁹ He said, "Go, and tell this people:
 'Keep on hearing, but do not understand;
 keep on seeing, but do not perceive.'
¹⁰ Make the heart of this people dull,
 and their ears heavy,
 and shut their eyes;
 lest they see with their eyes,
 and hear with their ears,
 and understand with their heart,
 and turn and be healed."
¹¹ Then I said, "Lord, how long?"
 And He answered:
 "Until the cities are laid waste
 without inhabitants,
 and the houses without man,
 and the land is utterly desolate, ¹² and the LORD has removed men far away, and there is a great forsaking in the midst of the land.
¹³ But yet in it shall be a tenth,
 and it shall return, and shall be burned,
 as a terebinth tree or as an oak,
 whose stump remains when it is cut down,
 so the holy seed is its stump."

Isaiah Reassures King Ahaz

7 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Aram, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.
² It was said to the house of David, "Aram is allied with Ephraim." Then his heart trembled and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood tremble with the wind.
³ Then the LORD said to Isaiah: Go out now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shear-Jashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field, ⁴ and say to him, Take heed, and be quiet.
 Do not fear nor be fainthearted because of the two tails of these smoking firebrands, because of the fierce anger of Rezin with Aram and of the son of Remaliah, ⁵ because Aram, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah have taken evil counsel against you, saying, ⁶ Let us go up against Judah, and trouble it, and let us make a breach there for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeel. ⁷ Thus says the Lord GOD :
 It shall not stand,
 nor shall it come to pass.
⁸ For the head of Aram is Damascus,
 and the head of Damascus is Rezin.
 Now within sixty-five years
 Ephraim shall be broken so that it is not a people.
⁹ The head of Ephraim is Samaria,
 and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah.
 If you will not believe,
 surely you shall not be established.

The Sign of Immanuel

¹⁰ Moreover the LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying:
¹¹ Ask for a sign from the LORD your God. Make it either as deep as Sheol or as high as heaven.

¹² But Ahaz said, I will not ask, nor will I tempt the LORD.

¹³ Then he said, "Hear now, O house of David. Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will you weary my God also? ¹⁴ Therefore the Lord Himself shall give you a sign: The virgin [†] shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. ^{††}¹⁵ Curds and honey he shall eat at the time that he knows enough to refuse the evil and choose the good. ¹⁶ For before the child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good, the land that you dread shall be forsaken of both her kings. ¹⁷ The LORD shall bring upon you, and upon your people, and upon your father's house, days that have not come from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah, even the king of Assyria."

¹⁸ In that day the LORD shall whistle for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. ¹⁹ They shall come, and all of them shall rest in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and on all thorns, and on all bushes. ²⁰ In that same day the Lord shall shave with a hired razor, from regions beyond the River, [‡] with the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the legs, and it shall also remove the beard. ²¹ In that day a man shall nourish a young cow and two sheep, ²² and because of the abundance of milk that they give, he shall eat curds; for everyone who is left in the land shall eat curds and honey. ²³ In that day every place where there were a thousand vines, worth a thousand shekels ^{‡†} of silver, shall become briers and thorns. ²⁴ With arrows and with bows shall men come there because all the land shall become briers and thorns. ²⁵ On all hills that used to be cultivated with the hoe, you will not go there for fear of briers and thorns. But it shall be for pasturing oxen and for sheep to tread.

The Coming Assyrian Invasion

8 Moreover the LORD said to me, Take for yourself a large book and write in it with a man's pen: "Swift is the booty, speedy is the prey." ^{‡‡} I will take to Myself faithful witnesses for testimony, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

³ So I went in to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, Call his name Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz. ^{‡‡‡} For before the child knows how to cry "My father" and "My mother," the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

⁵ The LORD spoke to me again, saying:

⁶ Because this people refuses

[†] Heb. a young woman. ^{††} Or a God with us. [‡] Euphrates River. ^{‡†} About 25 pounds, or 12 kilograms. ^{‡‡} See v. 3. ^{‡‡‡} See v. 1.

the gently flowing waters of Shiloah and rejoices in Rezin and the son of Remaliah, ⁷ now therefore the Lord certainly is about to bring upon them the strong and plentiful waters of the River, ^{‡‡} even the king of Assyria and all his glory; and he shall come up over all his channels and go over all his banks.

⁸ And he shall pass through Judah, he shall overflow and go over,

he shall reach even to the neck, and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of your land,

O Immanuel.

⁹ Be broken, O you peoples, and be broken in pieces. And give ear, all you from far countries.

Gird yourselves, but be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, but be broken in pieces.

¹⁰ Take counsel together, but it shall come to nothing; speak the word, but it shall not stand for God is with us.

Fear God

¹¹ For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying:

¹² You should not say, "It is a conspiracy," concerning all that this people calls a conspiracy, neither fear their threats nor be afraid of them.

¹³ Sanctify the LORD of Hosts Himself, and let Him be your fear, and let Him be your dread.

¹⁴ He shall become a sanctuary, but a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense to both the houses of Israel, and a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

¹⁵ Many among them shall stumble and fall and be broken and be snared and be taken.

¹⁶ Bind up the testimony; seal the law among My disciples.

¹⁷ I will wait on the LORD, who hides His face from the house of Jacob, and I will eagerly look for Him.

¹⁸ See, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of Hosts who dwells in Mount Zion.

¹⁹ When they say to you, "Seek after the mediums and the wizards, who whisper and mutter," should not a people seek after their God? Should they consult the dead for the living? ²⁰ To the law and to the testimony; if they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. ²¹ They shall pass through the land hard-pressed and hungry; when they are hungry, they shall be furious and curse their king and their God as they look upward. ²² Then they shall look to the earth and see trouble and darkness, gloom of anguish. And they shall be driven away into darkness.

The Coming King

9 Nevertheless there shall be no more gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time He contemptuously treated the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time He shall make it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

² The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them the light has shined.

³ You have multiplied the nation and increased the joy; they rejoice before You according to the joy of harvest and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

⁴ For You have broken the yoke of his burden and the bar of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor as in the day of Midian's defeat.

⁵ For all the sandals of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

⁶ For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder. And his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.

⁷ Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David and over his kingdom, to order it and to establish it with justice and with righteousness, from now until forever.

The zeal of the LORD of Hosts will perform this.

The Message Against Israel

⁸ The Lord sent a word against Jacob, and it falls upon Israel.

⁹ All the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in the pride and stoutness of heart,

¹⁰ "The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we will replace them with cedars."

¹¹ Therefore, the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together.

¹² The Arameans shall be before and the Philistines behind;

and they shall devour Israel with open jaws.

For all this His anger is not turned away, and His hand is stretched out still.

¹³ For the people do not turn to Him who struck them, nor do they seek the LORD of Hosts.

¹⁴ Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and bulrush, in one day.

¹⁵ The elder and honorable man, he is the head; and the prophet that teaches lies, he is the tail.

¹⁶ For the leaders of this people cause them to err, and those who are led by them are destroyed.

¹⁷ Therefore the Lord shall have no joy in their young men,

nor shall He have mercy on their fatherless and widows;

for every one of them is a hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks folly.

For all this His anger is not turned away, and His hand is stretched out still.

¹⁸ For wickedness burns as a fire; it shall devour the briars and thorns, and shall ignite in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like rising smoke.

¹⁹ Through the wrath of the LORD of Hosts is the land burned up, and the people shall be as fuel for the fire; no man shall spare his brother.

²⁰ They shall snatch on the right hand, but still be hungry; and they shall eat on the left hand, and shall not be satisfied; every man shall eat the flesh of his own arm.

²¹ Manasseh consumes Ephraim, and Ephraim, Manasseh, and they together shall be against Judah.

For all this His anger is not turned away, and His hand is stretched out still.

10 Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees and who write unjust judgments which they have prescribed

² to turn aside the needy from justice and to take away the right from the poor of My people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

³ And what will you do in the day of punishment and in the desolation which shall come from afar?

To whom will you flee for help, and where will you leave your wealth?

⁴ Nothing remains but to bow down among the prisoners,

and they shall fall among the slain.

For all this His anger is not turned away,
and His hand is stretched out still.

Judgment on Assyria

⁵ Woe to Assyria, the rod of My anger and the staff in whose hand is My indignation.
⁶ I will send him against an ungodly nation, and against the people of My wrath I will give him a command,
to seize the plunder, to take the prey,
and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.
⁷ However he does not so intend,
nor does he plan so in his heart;
but his purpose is to destroy
and to cut off many nations.
⁸ For he says, "Are not my princes altogether kings?
⁹ Is not Kalno as Carchemish?
Is not Hamath as Arpad?
Is not Samaria as Damascus?"
¹⁰ As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols whose graven images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria,
¹¹ shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols,
so do to Jerusalem and her idols?"
¹² When the Lord has performed all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, He will say, "I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria and the glory of his high looks." ¹³ For he says:
"By the strength of my hand and by my wisdom,
I have done it, for I am prudent;
and I have removed the bounds of the people,
and have robbed their treasures,
and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man.
¹⁴ And my hand has found as a nest
the riches of the people,
and as one gathers eggs that are left,
I have gathered all the earth and there was no one who moved the wing or opened the mouth or peeped."
¹⁵ Shall the axe boast itself against him who hews
with it?
Or shall the saw magnify itself against him who wields it?
That is as if the rod wields itself against those who lift
it up,
or as if the staff should lift itself up as if it were not wood.
¹⁶ Therefore the Lord, GOD of Hosts, shall send leanness among his stout ones,
and under his glory he shall kindle a burning
like the burning of a fire.
¹⁷ The light of Israel shall be a fire,
and his Holy One a flame,
and it shall burn and devour
his thorns and his briars in one day, ¹⁸ and shall consume the glory of his forest,
and of his fruitful field, both soul and body;

and it shall be as when a sick man faints.
¹⁹ The rest of the trees of his forest shall be so few that a child may write them down.

The Returning Remnant of Israel

²⁰ In that day the remnant of Israel and those who have escaped of the house of Jacob shall never again depend on him
who struck them,
but shall depend on the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel, in truth.
²¹ The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob,
to the mighty God.
²² For though your people, O Israel, are as the sand of
the sea,
yet a remnant of them shall return;
the destruction is decreed,
overflowing with righteousness.
²³ For the Lord GOD of Hosts shall make a complete destruction,
as decreed, in the midst of all the land.
²⁴ Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD of Hosts:
O My people who dwell in Zion,
do not be afraid of the Assyrian.
He shall strike you with a rod and shall lift up his staff against you, after the manner of Egypt.
²⁵ For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease,
and My anger will be directed to their destruction.
²⁶ The LORD of Hosts shall stir up a scourge for him
according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb;
and as His rod was over the sea, so shall He lift it up
after the manner of Egypt.
²⁷ In that day his burden shall be taken away from off your shoulder,
and his yoke from off your neck;
and the yoke shall be destroyed
because of the anointing oil.
²⁸ He has come against Aiath,
he has passed through Migron;
at Mikmash he has laid up his carriages.
²⁹ They are gone over the pass,
they have taken up their lodging at Geba.
Ramah is afraid,
Gibeah of Saul has fled.
³⁰ Lift up your voice, O daughter of Gallim.
Listen, Laishah
and poor Anathoth.
³¹ Madmenah has fled,
the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.
³² Yet today he shall remain at Nob;
he shakes his fist
against the mount of the daughter of Zion,
the hill of Jerusalem.
³³ See, the Lord, the LORD of Hosts,

shall lop the bough with terror;
and the tall ones of stature shall be hewn down,
and the haughty shall be humbled.
³⁴ He shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron,
and Lebanon shall fall by the Mighty One.

The Righteous Branch of Jesse

11 And there shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse,
and a Branch shall grow out of his roots.
² The Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him,
the Spirit of wisdom and understanding,
the Spirit of counsel and might,
the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD.
³ He shall delight in the fear of the LORD,
and he shall not judge by what his eyes see,
nor reprove by what his ears hear;
⁴ but with righteousness he shall judge the poor,
and reprove with fairness for the meek of the earth.
He shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall slay the
wicked.
⁵ Righteousness shall be the belt of his loins,
and faithfulness the belt about his waist.
⁶ The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb,
and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together;
and a little child shall lead them.
⁷ The cow and the bear shall graze;
their young ones shall lie down together;
and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
⁸ The nursing child shall play by the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand in the viper's den.
⁹ They shall not hurt or destroy
in all My holy mountain,
for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD,
as the waters cover the sea.
¹⁰ In that day there shall be a Root of Jesse, who shall stand as a banner to the peoples. For him shall the nations seek. And his rest shall be glorious. ¹¹ In that day the Lord shall set His hand again the second time to recover the remnant of His people, who shall be left,
from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.
¹² He shall set up a banner for the nations,
and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel,
and gather together the dispersed of Judah
from the four corners of the earth.
¹³ The envy also of Ephraim shall depart,
and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off;
Ephraim shall not envy Judah,
and Judah shall not harass Ephraim.

¹⁴ But they shall swoop down on the slopes of the Philistines towards the west;
they shall plunder the sons of the east together;
they shall lay their hand on Edom and Moab,
and the children of Ammon shall obey them.
¹⁵ The LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea,
and with His mighty wind He shall shake His hand over the River, †
and shall strike it into seven streams,
and make men walk over dry-shod.
¹⁶ There shall be a highway for the remnant of His
people,
who will be left from Assyria,
as it was for Israel
when he came up from the land of Egypt.

Hymns of Praise

12 And in that day you shall say:
O LORD, I will praise You;
though You were angry with me,
Your anger has turned away,
and You comforted me.
² Certainly God is my salvation;
I will trust and not be afraid;
for the LORD GOD is my strength and my song;
He also has become my salvation.
³ Therefore with joy you shall draw water out of the wells of salvation.
⁴ In that day you shall say:
Praise the LORD, call upon His name,
declare His deeds among the peoples,
make them remember that His name is exalted.
⁵ Sing to the LORD, for He has done excellent things;
let this be known in all the earth.
⁶ Cry out and shout for joy, O inhabitant of Zion.
For great is the Holy One of Israel in your midst.

A Prophecy Against Babylon

13 The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.
² Lift up a banner on the high mountain,
exalt the voice to them,
shake the hand,
that they may go into the gates of the nobles.
³ I have commanded My sanctified ones,
I have also called My mighty ones for My anger,
even those who rejoice in My exaltation.
⁴ The noise of a multitude in the mountains,
like as of a great people!
A tumultuous noise of the kingdoms
of nations gathered together!
The LORD of Hosts musters
the army for battle.
⁵ They come from a far country,
from the end of heaven,

† Euphrates River.

the LORD and the weapons of His indignation,
to destroy the whole land.
⁶ Wail, for the day of the LORD is at hand!
It shall come as destruction from the Almighty.
⁷ Therefore all hands shall be faint,
and every man's heart shall melt,
⁸ and they shall be afraid.
Pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them;
they shall be in pain as a woman who travails;
they shall be amazed one at another;
their faces shall be as flames.
⁹ See, the day of the LORD comes,
cruel, both with wrath and fierce anger,
to lay the land desolate,
and He shall destroy its sinners out of it.
¹⁰ For the stars of heaven and their constellations shall not give their light;
the sun shall be dark when it rises,
and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.
¹¹ I will punish the world for its evil,
and the wicked for their iniquity;
and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease,
and will lay low the haughtiness of the ruthless.
¹² I will make a man more rare than fine gold,
and mankind than the golden wedge of Ophir.
¹³ Therefore, I will shake the heavens,
and the earth shall be shaken out of her place at the wrath of the LORD of Hosts and in the day of His fierce anger.
¹⁴ It shall be as the chased roe,
and as a sheep that no man takes up;
every man shall turn to his own people
and flee every one into his own land.
¹⁵ Every one who is found shall be thrust through,
and every one who is joined to them shall fall by the
sword.
¹⁶ Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes;
their houses shall be devastated and their wives rav-
ished.
¹⁷ See, I will stir up the Medes against them,
who shall not regard silver;
and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.
¹⁸ Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces,
and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb;
their eye shall not spare children.
¹⁹ Babylon, the glory of kingdoms,
the beauty of the Chaldean's excellency,
shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
²⁰ It shall never be inhabited,
nor shall it be lived in from generation to generation,
nor shall the Arabian pitch a tent there,
nor shall the shepherds make their fold there.
²¹ But wild beasts of the desert shall lie down there,
and their houses shall be full of owls,

ostriches also shall dwell there,
and shaggy goats shall dance there.
²² The wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses
and jackals in their pleasant palaces.
And her time is near to come,
and her days shall not be prolonged.

The Restoration of Judah

14 For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob,
and will yet choose Israel,
and set them in their own land.
Then the strangers shall be joined with them,
and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.
² The people shall take them
and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel shall possess them
in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids;
and they shall take them captive, whose captives they were,
and they shall rule over their oppressors.

The Fall of Babylon's King

³ In the day the LORD gives you rest from your sorrow, and from your fear, and from the hard bondage
in which you were made to serve, ⁴ you shall take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say:
How has the oppressor ceased!
The golden city ceased!
⁵ The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked,
and the scepter of the rulers;
⁶ he who struck the people in wrath with unceasing strokes,
he who ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted,
and no one hinders.
⁷ The whole earth is at rest and is quiet;
they break forth into singing.
⁸ Indeed, the fir trees rejoice at you,
and the cedars of Lebanon, saying,
"Since you are laid down,
no tree cutter has come up against us."
⁹ Hell from beneath is moved for you to meet you at your coming;
it stirs up the dead for you,
even all the chief ones of the earth;
it has raised up from their thrones
all the kings of the nations.
¹⁰ They all shall speak
and say to you:
"Have you also become as weak as we have?
Have you become like us?"
¹¹ Your pomp is brought down to Hell,
and the noise of your harps;
maggots are spread under you,
and the worms cover you.
¹² How are you fallen from heaven,
O Lucifer, son of the morning!

How you are cut down to the ground,
 you who weaken the nations!
¹³ For you have said in your heart,
 "I will ascend into heaven,
 I will exalt my throne
 above the stars of God;
 I will sit also on the mount of the congregation,
 in the recesses of the north;
¹⁴ I will ascend above the heights of the clouds,
 I will be like the Most High."
¹⁵ Yet you shall be brought down to Hell,
 to the sides of the pit.
¹⁶ Those who see you shall stare at you and ponder over you:
 "Is this the man who made the earth
 to tremble and shook kingdoms, ¹⁷ who made the world as a wilderness
 and destroyed its cities,
 who did not open the house of his prisoners?"
¹⁸ All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory,
 each one in his own tomb;
¹⁹ but you are cast out of your grave
 like an abominable branch and clothed with those who are slain, thrust through with a sword,
 who go down to the stones of the pit
 as a corpse trodden underfoot.
²⁰ You shall not be joined with them in burial
 because you have destroyed your land and slain your people.
 The seed of evildoers
 shall never be renowned.
²¹ Prepare a place of slaughter for his children
 for the iniquity of their fathers;
 they must not rise nor possess the land,
 nor fill the face of the world with cities.
²² For I will rise up against them,
 says the LORD of Hosts,
 and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant,
 and son, and nephew,
 says the LORD.
²³ I will also make it a possession for the hedgehog
 and pools of water,
 and I will sweep it with the broom of destruction,
 says the LORD of Hosts.

An Oracle Concerning Assyria

²⁴ The LORD of Hosts has sworn, saying:
 Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass,
 and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:
²⁵ that I will break the Assyrian in My land,
 and on My mountains tread him under foot.
 Then shall his yoke depart from off them
 and his burden depart from off their shoulders.
²⁶ This is the purpose that is purposed on the whole
 earth,

and this is the hand that is stretched out on all the nations.
²⁷ For the LORD of Hosts has purposed, and who shall disannul it?
 And His hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

An Oracle Concerning Philistia

²⁸ In the year that King Ahaz died was this oracle:
²⁹ Rejoice not, O Philistia, all of you,
 because the rod that struck you is broken;
 for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a viper,
 and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.
³⁰ The firstborn of the poor shall feed,
 and the needy shall lie down in safety:
 and I will kill your root with famine,
 and he shall slay your remnant.
³¹ Wail, O gate. Cry, O city.
 Melt away, O Philistia, all of you;
 for smoke shall come from the north,
 and there is no straggler in his ranks.
³² What shall one then answer
 the messengers of the nation?
 That the LORD has founded Zion,
 and the poor of His people shall trust in it.

A Prophecy Against Moab

Jer 48:29-36

15 The oracle of Moab.
 Surely in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste
 and brought to silence,
 surely in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste
 and brought to silence,
² he has gone up to the temple and to Dibon,
 the high places, to weep.
 Moab shall wail over Nebo and over Medeba;
 on all their heads shall be baldness,
 and every beard cut off.
³ In their streets they shall clothe themselves with sackcloth;
 on the tops of their houses and in their streets,
 everyone shall wail,
 weeping abundantly.
⁴ Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh;
 their voice shall be heard even to Jahaz;
 therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out;
 his life shall be grievous to him.
⁵ My heart shall cry out for Moab;
 his fugitives shall flee to Zoar,
 like a three-year-old heifer.
 For by the Ascent of Luhith
 they shall go up with weeping;
 for in the way of Horonaim
 they shall raise up a cry of destruction, ⁶ for the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate;
 surely the grass is withered away;
 the grass fails,
 there is no green thing.

⁷ Therefore the abundance they have gained, and that which they have laid up,
they shall carry away to the Brook of the Willows.

⁸ For the cry has gone all around the borders of Moab;

its wailing to Eglaim,
and its wailing to Beer Elim.

⁹ For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood;
for I will bring more woes on Dimon,
lions on the fugitives of Moab,
and on the remnant of the land.

16 Send the lamb
to the ruler of the land
from Sela by way of the wilderness,
to the mount of the daughter of Zion.

² For it shall be that as a wandering bird
cast out of the nest,
so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

³ "Take counsel,
execute justice,
make your shadow as the night
at the height of noon.

Hide the outcasts,
do not betray the fugitive.

⁴ Let my outcasts dwell with you, Moab;
be a hiding place to them from the face of the destroyer."

For the extortioner has come to an end;
the destroyer ceases;
the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

⁵ In mercy the throne shall be established;
and one who judges and seeks justice and is diligent in righteousness shall sit on it in truth

in the tabernacle of David, judging.

⁶ We have heard of the pride of Moab;
he is very proud,
even of his haughtiness and his pride and his wrath;
but his lies shall not be so.

⁷ Therefore Moab shall wail for Moab;
everyone shall wail.

For the loss of raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth you shall mourn;
surely they are destroyed.

⁸ For the fields of Heshbon languish,
and the vine of Sibmah;
the lords of the nations
have broken down its choice plants;
they have come as far as Jazer
and wandered through the wilderness.

Her branches are stretched out;
they are passed over the sea.

⁹ Therefore I will weep bitterly for Jazer,
the vine of Sibmah;

I will water you with my tears,
O Heshbon and Elealeh.

For the shouting for your summer fruits and for your harvest has fallen away.

¹⁰ Gladness and joy are taken away out of the plentiful field,

and in the vineyards there shall be no singing,
nor shall there be shouting;

the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses.
I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

¹¹ Therefore my heart shall sound like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir Hareseth.

¹² When it is seen that Moab
is weary on the high place,
he shall come to his sanctuary to pray;
but he shall not prevail.

¹³ This is the word that the LORD has spoken earlier concerning Moab. ¹⁴ But now the LORD has spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of a hireling, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt with all his great population, and his remnant shall be very small and feeble.

An Oracle Concerning Damascus

17 The oracle of Damascus.
See, Damascus will cease from being a city;
it shall be a ruinous heap.

² The cities of Aroer are forsaken;
they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down,
and no one shall make them afraid.

³ The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim,
and the kingdom from Damascus,
and the remnant of Aram;
they shall be as the glory of the sons of Israel,
says the LORD of Hosts.

⁴ In that day the glory of Jacob shall decrease,
and the fatness of his flesh shall grow lean.

⁵ It shall be as when the harvestman gathers the corn and reaps the ears with his arm, and it shall be as he who gathers ears
in the Valley of Rephaim.

⁶ Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it,
as the shaking of an olive tree,
two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough,

four or five in its outmost fruitful branches,
says the LORD God of Israel.

⁷ On that day a man shall look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect for the Holy One of Israel.

⁸ He shall not look to the altars,
the work of his hands,
nor shall he respect what his fingers have made,
either the groves or the images.

⁹ In that day his strong cities shall be as a forsaken bough and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the sons of Israel; and there shall be a desolation.

¹⁰ Because you have forgotten the God of your salvation and have not been mindful of the rock of your strength, therefore you plant pleasant plants

 and set them with vine slips of a strange god;
¹¹ in the day that you plant it, you carefully fence it in,
 and in the morning you make your seed to flourish;
 but the harvest shall be a heap of ruins
 in the day of grief and desperate pain.
¹² Woe to the multitude of many people who make a noise like the noise of the seas,
 and the rushing of many peoples
 who make a rumble like the rumbling of mighty waters!
¹³ The nations rumble like the rumbling of many waters;
 but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off,
 and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind,
 and like rolling dust before the whirlwind.
¹⁴ At evening time, sudden terror!
 And before the morning, they are no more.
 This is the portion of those who plunder us,
 and the lot of those who rob us.

An Oracle Concerning Ethiopia

18 Woe to the land vibrating with wings,
 which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,
² which sends ambassadors by the sea,
 even in vessels of reeds on the waters, saying,
 "Go, swift messengers,
 to a nation tall and smooth,
 to a people feared far and wide,
 a nation strong and oppressive,
 whose land the rivers have divided."
³ All you inhabitants of the world,
 and dwellers on the earth:
 When he lifts up a banner on the mountains,
 you will see it;
 and when he blows a trumpet,
 you will hear it.
⁴ For so the LORD said to me:
 I will look from My dwelling place quietly,
 like dazzling heat in the sunshine,
 like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.
⁵ For before the harvest, when the bud is perfect and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, then He shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks and take away and cut down the branches.
⁶ They shall be left together for the fowl of the mountains and for the beasts of the earth;
 and the fowl shall spend the summer feeding on them,
 and all the beasts of the earth shall spend the winter on them.

⁷ In that time a present shall be brought to the LORD of Hosts from a people tall and smooth,
 and from a people feared far and wide,
 a nation strong and oppressive,
 whose land the rivers have divided,
 to the place of the name of the LORD of Hosts, even Mount Zion.

An Oracle Concerning Egypt

19 The oracle of Egypt.
 See, the LORD is riding on a swift cloud
 and shall come into Egypt;
 and the idols of Egypt shall tremble at His presence,
 and the heart of Egypt shall melt in its midst.
² I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians,
 and they shall fight every one against his brother,
 and every one against his neighbor,
 city against city,
 and kingdom against kingdom.
³ The spirit of Egypt shall be discouraged in their midst,
 and I will destroy their counsel;
 then they shall seek for the idols and for the charm-ers
 and for the mediums and the sorcerers.
⁴ The Egyptians I will give over into the hand of a cruel lord,
 and a fierce king shall rule over them,
 says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts.
⁵ The waters from the sea shall dry up,
 and the river shall be parched and dry.
⁶ The canals shall emit a stench;
 the streams of Egypt shall diminish and dry up;
 the reeds and rushes shall wither.
⁷ The papyrus reeds by the brooks,
 by the mouth of the brooks,
 and everything sown by the brooks,
 shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.
⁸ The fishermen also shall mourn,
 and all those who cast a line into the brooks shall lament,
 and those who spread nets on the waters
 shall languish.
⁹ Moreover those who work with fine flax
 and those who weave white cloth shall be humiliated;
¹⁰ and the pillars of Egypt shall be crushed.
 All the hired workers shall be grieved in soul.
¹¹ Surely the princes of Zoan are fools;
 the counsel of the wise counselors of Pharaoh has become stupid.
 How can you say to Pharaoh,
 "I am a son of the wise,
 a son of ancient kings?"
¹² Where are they? Where are your wise men?
 Let them tell you now, and let them understand what the LORD of Hosts

has purposed against Egypt.

¹³ The princes of Zoan have become fools;
the princes of Memphis are deceived;
they have also seduced Egypt,
even those who are the cornerstone of her tribes.

¹⁴ The LORD has mingled
a perverse spirit in her;
so they have caused Egypt to err in her every work,
as a drunken man staggers in his vomit.

¹⁵ Nor shall there be any work for Egypt, which its head or tail, its branch or bulrush, may do.

¹⁶ In that day Egypt shall become like women. And it shall be afraid and be in dread because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of Hosts which He is about to shake over it. ¹⁷ The land of Judah shall become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom it is mentioned shall be in dread of it, because of the counsel of the LORD of Hosts which He has determined against it.

¹⁸ In that day five cities in the land of Egypt shall speak the language of Canaan and swear to the LORD of Hosts. One shall be called the City of Destruction.

¹⁹ In that day there shall be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border. ²⁰ It shall be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of Hosts in the land of Egypt. For they shall cry to the LORD because of the oppressors, and He shall send them a Savior and a Champion. And He shall deliver them. ²¹ The LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall worship with sacrifice and offering, they shall make a vow to the LORD and perform it. ²² The LORD shall strike Egypt. He shall strike and heal it. Then they shall return to the LORD, and He shall be entreated by them and shall heal them.

²³ In that day there shall be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall worship with the Assyrians. ²⁴ In that day Israel shall be the third group with Egypt and Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the earth, ²⁵ whom the LORD of Hosts has blessed, saying, "Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance."

A Prophecy Against Egypt and Ethiopia

20 In the year that the Tartan [†] came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it, ² at the same time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz saying, "Go and loosen the sackcloth from your waist and take off your shoes from your feet." And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

³ The LORD said, "Even as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder against Egypt and Ethiopia, ⁴ so the king of Assyria shall lead away the Egyptians as prisoners and the Ethiopians as captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. ⁵ Then they shall be dismayed and ashamed of Ethiopia their hope and Egypt their boast. ⁶ So the inhabitants of this coastland shall say in that day, 'Certainly such is our hope, where we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria! And how shall we escape?'"

A Prophecy Against Babylon

21 The oracle of the desert of the sea.
As whirlwinds in the Negev pass through,
so it comes from the desert,
from a terrible land.

² A grievous vision is declared to me;
the treacherous one still deals treacherously, and the destroyer still destroys.

Go up, O Elam. Lay siege, O Media.

All her sighing I have made to cease.

³ Therefore, my loins are filled with pain;
pangs have taken hold of me as the pangs of a woman who travails.

I am so perplexed at the hearing of it;

I am so dismayed at the seeing of it.

⁴ My heart panted,
fearfulness overwhelmed me;
the night for which I longed has turned into trembling for me.

⁵ Prepare the table,
watch in the watchtower,
eat and drink.

Arise, you princes,
and oil the shields.

⁶ For thus the Lord has said to me:

"Go, station a watchman;
let him declare what he sees.

⁷ When he sees chariots
with horsemen in pairs,
a chariot of donkeys,
and a chariot of camels,
then let him pay close attention,
very close attention."

⁸ Then the watchman called:
"O Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and I am stationed at my guard post every night.

⁹ Look, here comes a chariot of men,
horsemen in pairs."

And he answered and said,

"Fallen, fallen is Babylon.

And all the graven images of her gods lie shattered on the ground."

¹⁰ O my threshed people and my afflicted of the threshing floor!

What I have heard from the LORD of Hosts,
the God of Israel,

I have declared to you.

[†] Possibly a Commander-in-Chief.

A Prophecy Against Edom

¹¹ The oracle of Dumah.
He calls to me out of Seir,
"Watchman, how far gone is the night?
Watchman, how far gone is the night?"
¹² The watchman says,
"The morning comes and also the night.
If you would inquire, inquire;
return again."

A Prophecy Against Arabia

¹³ The oracle about Arabia.
In the forest of Arabia you shall lodge,
O traveling companies of Dedanites.
¹⁴ Bring water for the thirsty,
O inhabitants of the land of Tema;
meet the fugitive with bread.
¹⁵ For they fled from the swords,
from the drawn sword,
and from the bent bow,
and from the grievousness of war.
¹⁶ For thus the Lord has said to me: Within a year, according to the years of a hireling, all the glory of Kedar shall fail. ¹⁷ And the remainder of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished, for the LORD God of Israel has spoken it.

An Oracle Concerning Jerusalem

22 The oracle of the Valley of Vision.
What ails you now,
that you all have gone up to the housetops,
² you who were full of noise,
a tumultuous city, a joyous city?
Your slain are not slain with the sword,
nor did they die in battle.
³ All your rulers have fled together;
they are captured by the archers.
All of you who were found were taken captive together,
although they had fled from afar.
⁴ Therefore, I say, "Look away from me,
I will weep bitterly;
do not try to comfort me
because of the destruction of the daughter of my people."
⁵ For it is a day of trouble and of treading down and of perplexity
by the Lord GOD of Hosts
in the Valley of Vision,
a breaking down of the walls
and a crying to the mountains.
⁶ Elam took up the quiver
with chariots of men and horsemen,
and Kir uncovered the shield.
⁷ Your choicest valleys shall be full of chariots,

and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.
⁸ And He shall remove the protection of Judah.
You shall depend in that day
on the weapons of the house of the forest;
⁹ you have seen also that the breaches of the City of David are many;
and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool.
¹⁰ You have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses you have broken down to fortify the wall.
¹¹ You also made a reservoir between the two walls
for the water of the old pool.
But you have not looked to its Maker,
nor did you respect Him who fashioned it long ago.
¹² In that day the Lord GOD of Hosts called you to weeping and mourning,
and to tear your hair and wear sackcloth.
¹³ Yet, there is joy and gladness,
slaying of oxen and killing of sheep,
eating of meat and drinking wine:
"Let us eat and drink,
for tomorrow we may die."
¹⁴ It was revealed in my hearing by the LORD of Hosts: Surely this iniquity shall not be forgiven you until you die, says the Lord GOD of Hosts.
¹⁵ Thus says the Lord GOD of Hosts:
Come, go to this treasurer,
even to Shebna, who is over the royal household,
and say:
¹⁶ What right do you have here? And whom do you have here that you have dug out for yourself a tomb here,
as he who hews out for himself a tomb on high,
and who cuts a habitation for himself in a rock?
¹⁷ Indeed, the LORD is about to hurl you headlong, O man;
He is about to seize you firmly.
¹⁸ He will surely violently turn and toss you like a ball into a large country;
there you shall die,
and there the chariots of your glory shall be the shame of your lord's house.
¹⁹ I will drive you from your office
and pull you down from your station.
²⁰ In that day I will call My servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah. ²¹ And I will clothe him with your robe and tie him securely with your sash. And I will entrust him with your authority, and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah.
²² The key of the house of David I will lay on his shoulder. Then he shall open, and no one shall shut. And he shall shut, and no one shall open. ²³ I will fasten him as a nail in a firm place, and he shall become a glorious throne to his father's house. ²⁴ They shall hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the bowls to all the jars.

²⁵ In that day, says the LORD of Hosts, the nail that is fastened in the firm place shall be removed, and be cut down and fall. And the load that was on it shall be cut off, for the LORD has spoken it.

An Oracle Concerning Tyre

23 The oracle of Tyre.
Wail, O ships of Tarshish,
for Tyre is laid waste
so that there is no house or harbor;
from the land of Cyprus
it is reported to them.
² Be still, you inhabitants of the coastland,
you merchants of Sidon;
your messengers passed over the sea, ³ and were on many waters;
the grain of the Nile,
the harvest of the River † was her revenue;
and she was the market of nations.
⁴ Be ashamed, O Sidon; for the sea has spoken,
even the stronghold of the sea, saying,
"I have not travailed nor brought forth children;
neither have I brought up young men nor raised vir-gins."
⁵ When the report reaches Egypt,
they shall be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.
⁶ Pass over to Tarshish;
wail, O inhabitants of the coastland.
⁷ Is this your joyous city,
whose origin is from ancient days,
whose feet used to carry her
to sojourn in distant locations?
⁸ Who has planned this against Tyre,
the crowning city,
whose merchants are princes,
whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth?
⁹ The LORD of Hosts has purposed it,
to stain the pride of all glory and to bring into contempt all the honorable of the
earth.
¹⁰ Pass through your land as the Nile,
O daughter of Tarshish;
there is no more restraint
¹¹ He stretched out His hand over the sea,
He shook the kingdoms;
the LORD has given a command against the merchant city,
to destroy its strongholds.
¹² He said: You shall rejoice no more,
O oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon.
Arise, pass over to Cyprus;
there also you shall have no rest.
¹³ Look at the land of the Chaldeans;
this was a people who was not;
Assyria founded it

† Nile River.

for those who dwell in the wilderness.
They set up their siege towers,
they stripped its palaces,
and brought it to ruin.

¹⁴ Wail, O ships of Tarshish,
for your stronghold is laid waste.

¹⁵ In that day Tyre shall be forgotten for seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years Tyre shall sing as a harlot:

¹⁶ Take your harp, go about the city,
O forgotten harlot;
make sweet melody, sing many songs,
that you may be remembered.

¹⁷ At the end of seventy years, the LORD will punish Tyre. Then she shall turn to her harlot's wages and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms on the face of the earth. ¹⁸ Her merchandise and her harlot's wages shall be set apart to the LORD. It shall not be treasured nor stored up, for her merchandise shall be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for choice clothing.

Judgment on the Earth

24 Now the LORD makes the earth empty,
and makes it waste,
and turns it upside down,
and scatters its inhabitants abroad.

² It shall be:
as with the people, so with the priest;
as with the servant, so with his master;
as with the maid, so with her mistress;
as with the buyer, so with the seller;
as with the lender, so with the borrower;
as with the creditor, so with the debtor.
³ The land shall be utterly emptied,
and utterly despoiled,
for the LORD has spoken this word.
⁴ The earth mourns and fades away,
the world languishes and fades away,
the haughty people of the earth languish.
⁵ The earth also is defiled by its inhabitants because they have transgressed the laws, violated the ordinances,
broken the everlasting covenant.
⁶ Therefore, the curse devours the earth,
and those who dwell in it are held guilty.
Therefore, the inhabitants of the earth are burned,
and few men are left.
⁷ The new wine fails, the vine languishes,
all the merry-hearted sigh.
⁸ The joy of tambourines ceases,
the noise of those who rejoice ends,
the joy of the harp ceases.
⁹ They shall not drink wine with song;
strong drink shall be bitter to those who drink it.
¹⁰ The city of confusion is broken down;
every house is shut up so that no one may come in.
¹¹ There is an outcry for wine in the streets,

all joy is turned to gloom,
 the joyfulness of the earth is gone.
¹² Desolation is left in the city,
 and the gate is battered to destruction.
¹³ For thus it shall be in the midst of the earth
 among the peoples,
 as the shaking of an olive tree,
 and as the gleaning of grapes when the vintage is done.
¹⁴ They lift up their voices; they sing for the majesty of
 the LORD;
 they cry aloud from the west.
¹⁵ Therefore glorify the LORD in the east,
 even the name of the LORD God of Israel
 in the coastlands of the sea.
¹⁶ From the uttermost part of the earth we hear songs,
 that is, "Glory to the Righteous One."
 But I say, Woe to me! Woe to me!
 Alas for me!
 The treacherous deal treacherously;
 indeed, the treacherous deal very treacherously.
¹⁷ Terror and the pit and the snare are upon you,
 O inhabitant of the earth.
¹⁸ He who flees from the report of disaster
 shall fall into the pit,
 and he who comes up out of the midst of the pit
 shall be taken in the snare.
 For the windows from on high are open,
 and the foundations of the earth shake.
¹⁹ The earth is utterly broken down,
 the earth is split through,
 the earth is shaken violently.
²⁰ The earth reels to and fro like a drunkard,
 and it totters like a shack,
 and its transgression is heavy upon it,
 and it shall fall, never to rise again.
²¹ In that day the LORD shall punish the host of heaven on high and the kings of the earth on the earth.
²² They shall be gathered together,
 as prisoners are gathered in the dungeon,
 and shall be shut up in the prison,
 and after many days they shall be punished.
²³ Then the moon shall be humiliated and the sun
 ashamed,
 when the LORD of Hosts reigns
 in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and His glory shall be before His elders.

Praise to the LORD

25 O LORD, You are my God.
 I will exalt You, I will praise Your name,
 for You have done wonderful things;
 Your plans formed of old
 are faithfulness and truth.
² For You have made a city into a heap,
 a fortified city into a ruin;

a palace of strangers is a city no longer;
 it shall never be built.
³ Therefore a strong people shall glorify You;
 cities of ruthless nations shall fear You.
⁴ For You have been a defense to the poor,
 a defense to the needy in his distress,
 a refuge from the storm,
 a shadow from the heat;
 for the breath of the ruthless ones
 is as a storm against the wall.
⁵ You bring down the noise of strangers,
 as heat in drought;
 as the heat by the shadow of a cloud,
 the song of the ruthless ones shall be brought low.
⁶ In this mountain the LORD of Hosts shall prepare for all people a lavish feast,
 a feast of aged wines,
 choice pieces full of marrow, and refined, aged wines.
⁷ He will destroy in this mountain
 the covering which is over all peoples,
 even the veil that is spread over all nations.
⁸ He will swallow up death for all time,
 and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears
 from all faces;
 and the reproach of His people He shall take away
 from all the earth,
 for the LORD has spoken it.
⁹ It shall be said in that day:
 Look, this is our God
 for whom we have waited that He might save us.
 This is the LORD for whom we have waited;
 we will be glad and rejoice in His salvation.
¹⁰ For in this mountain the hand of the LORD shall rest,
 and Moab shall be trodden down in his place
 as straw is trodden down in the water for the manure pile.
¹¹ He shall spread out his hands in the midst of it,
 as a swimmer spreads out his hands to swim,
 yet the LORD shall bring down his pride together with the trickery of his hands.
¹² The unassailable fortresses of your walls
 He shall bring down, lay low,
 and bring to the ground,
 even to the dust.

A Song of Victory

26 In that day this song shall be sung in the land of Judah:
 We have a strong city;
 He appoints walls
 and bulwarks for security.
² Open the gates,
 that the righteous nation may enter,
 the one who remains faithful.
³ You will keep him in perfect peace,
 whose mind is stayed on You,

because he trusts in You.
⁴ Trust in the LORD forever,
 for in GOD the LORD we have an everlasting rock.
⁵ For He brings down those who dwell on high,
 the lofty city; He lays it low; He lays it low,
 even to the ground;
 He brings it even to the dust.
⁶ The foot shall tread it down,
 even the feet of the poor
 and the steps of the needy.
⁷ The way of the righteous is smooth;
 O Upright One, make the path of the righteous level.
⁸ In the way of Your judgments, O LORD ,
 we have waited for You eagerly;
 the desire of our souls is Your name,
 even Your memory.
⁹ With my soul I have desired You in the night;
 my spirit within me seeks You diligently;
 for when Your judgments are in the earth,
 the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.
¹⁰ Though favor is shown to the wicked,
 yet he will not learn righteousness;
 in the land of uprightness he deals unjustly
 and does not perceive the majesty of the LORD .
¹¹ LORD , Your hand is lifted up,
 but they do not see it.
 They see Your zeal for the people and are put to
 shame;
 the fire of Your enemies shall devour them.
¹² LORD , You will ordain peace for us,
 for You also have done all our works for us.
¹³ O LORD our God, other lords besides You have had dominion over us,
 but through You alone we confess Your name.
¹⁴ The dead shall not live;
 the departed spirits shall not rise.
 Therefore, You have punished and destroyed them
 and made all remembrance of them to perish.
¹⁵ You have increased the nation, O LORD ,
 You have increased the nation;
 You are glorified;
 You have extended all the borders of the land.
¹⁶ LORD , in trouble they have sought You;
 they poured out a prayer
 when Your chastening was on them.
¹⁷ Like a woman with child, who is in pain and cries out in her pangs
 when she draws near the time of her delivery,
 so have we been in Your sight, O LORD .
¹⁸ We have been with child, we have been in pain,
 we have, as it were, brought forth wind;
 we have not accomplished any deliverance in the
 earth,
 nor were the inhabitants of the world born.
¹⁹ Your dead shall live,
 their corpses shall arise.
 Awake and sing,
 you who dwell in dust,

for your dew is as the dew of the dawn,
 and the earth shall give birth to the departed spirits.
²⁰ Come, my people, enter your chambers,
 and shut your doors behind you;
 hide for a little while until the indignation is over.
²¹ For the LORD comes out of His place
 to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity;
 the earth also shall disclose her bloodshed
 and shall cover her slain no more.

The Deliverance of Israel

27 In that day
 the LORD with His fierce and great and strong sword shall punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent,
 even Leviathan the twisted serpent;
 and He shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.
² In that day:
 Sing of it! A vineyard of red wine.
³ I, the LORD , am its keeper;
 I water it every moment;
 lest anyone damage it,
 I protect it night and day.
⁴ I have no fury.
 Should someone give Me briars and thorns in battle,
 then I would step on them,
 I would burn them fully.
⁵ Or let him rely on My strength;
 let him make peace with Me;
 let him make peace with Me.
⁶ In the days to come Jacob shall take root;
 Israel shall blossom and bud
 and shall fill the whole world with fruit.
⁷ Has He struck them,
 as He struck those who struck them?
 Or like the slaughter of His slain,
 have they been slain?
⁸ You fought with them by banishing them, by driving them away.
 He has expelled them
 on the day of the east wind with His fierce wind.
⁹ Through this, therefore, the iniquity of Jacob shall be forgiven,
 and this will be the full price of the removal of his sin:
 when he makes all the stones of the altar
 as chalkstones that are pulverized, when the groves and incense altars
 shall not stand.
¹⁰ For the fortified city shall be desolate, a homestead forlorn and forsaken like a wilderness;
 there the calf shall graze,
 and there it shall lie down
 and eat its branches.
¹¹ When its boughs are withered, they are broken off;
 the women come and make a fire with them,

for they are not a people of understanding;
therefore, their Maker will not have mercy on them,
and their Creator will show them no grace.

¹² In that day the LORD shall thresh from the channel of the River † to the stream of Egypt, and you shall be gathered one by one, O sons of Israel. ¹³ And in that day the great trumpet shall be blown, and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria and the outcasts in the land of Egypt shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Woe to the Leaders of Ephraim and Judah

28 Woe to the proud crown of the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower
which is at the head of the fertile valley
of those who are overcome with wine!
² See, the LORD has a mighty and strong one,
as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm,
as a flood of mighty overflowing waters,
He has cast it down to the earth with His hand.
³ The proud crown of the drunkards of Ephraim is trodden under foot;
⁴ and the fading flower of its glorious beauty,
which is at the head of the fertile valley,
shall be like a first-ripe fig before the summer,
which when one sees, while it is yet in his hand,
he eats it up.
⁵ In that day the LORD of Hosts shall become a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty
to the remnant of His people, ⁶ a spirit of justice
for him who sits in judgment,
and strength
to those who turn away the battle at the gate.
⁷ But they also have erred through wine
and stagger from strong drink;
the priest and the prophet have erred through strong
drink,
they are confused by wine,
they stagger from strong drink;
they err while having visions,
they stumble when rendering judgment.
⁸ For all the tables are full of vomit
and filthiness so that there is no clean place.
⁹ "To whom shall He teach knowledge,
and to whom shall He interpret the message?
Those just weaned from the milk
and drawn from the breasts?
¹⁰ For He says,
'Precept upon precept, precept upon precept,
line upon line, line upon line,
here a little, there a little."
¹¹ For with stammering lips and foreign tongue
He will speak to this people,
¹² He who said to them,

"This is the rest. Give rest to the weary,"
and, "This is repose,"
yet they would not listen.

¹³ So the word of the LORD will be to them,
"Precept upon precept, precept upon precept,
line upon line, line upon line,
here a little, there a little,"
that they might go and fall backward,
be broken, snared, and taken captive.
¹⁴ Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, O scoffers, who rule this people who are in Jerusalem, ¹⁵ because you have said, "We have made a covenant
with death,
and with hell we are in agreement.
The overflowing scourge shall not come to us
when it passes through,
for we have made lies our refuge and under falsehood we have hid ourselves."

A Cornerstone in Zion

¹⁶ Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD :
See, I lay in Zion a stone,
a tested stone,
a precious cornerstone, firmly placed;
he who believes shall not act hastily.
¹⁷ I shall make justice the measuring line
and righteousness the plummet;
then the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies
and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.
¹⁸ Your covenant with death shall be annulled,
and your agreement with hell shall not stand;
when the overflowing scourge passes through,
then you shall be trodden down by it.
¹⁹ As often as it passes through, it shall seize you;
for morning by morning it shall pass through,
anytime by day or night.
It shall be terror only
to understand the report.
²⁰ The bed is too short to stretch out,
and the covering is too small to wrap oneself in it.
²¹ For the LORD shall rise up as at Mount Perazim,
He shall be wrathful as in the Valley of Gibeon
to do His work, His unusual work,
and bring to pass His task, His exceptional task.
²² Now therefore, do not continue as mockers,
lest your bonds be made stronger;
for I have heard from the Lord GOD of Hosts of determined destruction upon the whole earth.
²³ Give ear and hear my voice;
listen and hear my speech.
²⁴ Does the plowman plow all day to sow?
Does he continually turn and break the clods of his ground?
²⁵ Does he not level its surface and sow dill and scatter the cumin
and plant wheat in rows, barley in its place
and the rye within its area?

† Euphrates River.

²⁶ For his God instructs and teaches him appropriately.
²⁷ For the dill is not threshed with a threshing instrument, nor is a cartwheel driven over the cumin;
but the dill is beaten out with a staff,
and the cumin with a rod.
²⁸ Grain for bread is crushed;
so he does not continue to thresh it forever,
nor break it with the wheel of his cart,
nor crush it with his horsemen.
²⁹ This also comes from the LORD of Hosts,
who is wonderful in counsel and excellent in wisdom.

Woe to the City of David

29 Woe to Ariel, to Ariel,
the city where David lived!
Add year to year,
observe your feasts on schedule.
² Yet I will distress Ariel,
and she shall be a city of lamenting and sorrow,
and she shall be as an Ariel to me.
³ I will encamp against you all around,
and will lay siege against you with a mound,
and I will raise forts against you.
⁴ You shall be brought down, and shall speak from
the ground,
and from the dust where you are prostrate your speech shall come;
your voice shall also be as that of a ghost from the
ground;
and your speech shall whisper from the dust.
⁵ Moreover the multitude of your enemies shall become like fine dust,
and the multitude of the ruthless ones as chaff
which blows away;
and it shall happen in an instant, suddenly.
⁶ You shall be punished from the LORD of Hosts with thunder and earthquake and loud noise,
with storm and tempest, and the flame of a devouring
fire.
⁷ The multitude of all the nations who fight against Ariel,
even all who fight against her and her stronghold,
and who distress her,
shall be as a dream
of a night vision.
⁸ It shall even be as when a hungry man dreams, and he eats;
but when he awakens, his hunger is not satisfied;
or as when a thirsty man dreams, and he is drinking;
but when he awakens, he is faint, and his thirst is not quenched;
so shall the multitude of all the nations be who fight against Mount Zion.
⁹ Be delayed and wait,
blind yourselves and be blind.

They are drunk, but not with wine.
They stagger, but not with strong drink.
¹⁰ For the LORD has poured out on you the spirit of deep sleep
and has closed your eyes, the prophets;
and He has covered your heads, the seers.
¹¹ The whole vision will be to you as the words of a book that is sealed, which when they deliver it to one who is learned, saying, "Read this, please," he shall say, "I cannot, for it is sealed." ¹² Then the book shall be delivered to him who is not learned, saying, "Read this, please." And he shall say, "I cannot read."
¹³ Therefore, the Lord said:
Because this people draw near with their mouths
and honor Me with their lips,
but have removed their hearts far from Me,
and their fear toward Me
is tradition by the precept of men, ¹⁴ therefore I will once again do a marvelous work
among this people,
even a marvelous work and a wonder;
for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish,
and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hidden.
¹⁵ Woe to those who deeply hide their counsel from the LORD
and whose works are done in the dark, and they say,
"Who sees us?" and "Who knows us?"
¹⁶ Surely you turn things upside down!
Shall the potter be esteemed as the potter's clay?
Shall what is made say to its maker,
"He did not make me"?
Or shall the thing formed say to him who formed it,
"He has no understanding"?
¹⁷ Is it not yet a very little while before Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field,
and the fruitful field shall be counted as a forest?
¹⁸ And on that day the deaf shall hear the words of a book,
and the eyes of the blind shall see
out of obscurity and darkness.
¹⁹ The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy
One of Israel.
²⁰ For the ruthless shall come to nothing,
and the scorner will be consumed,
and all who are intent on doing iniquity shall be cut off—
²¹ those who cause a man to be indicted by a word, and lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate,
and turn aside the righteous with meaningless arguments.
²² Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed
Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob:
Jacob shall not now be ashamed,
nor shall his face now turn pale;
²³ but when he sees his children,
the work of My hands, in his midst,

they shall sanctify My name
and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob,
and fear the God of Israel.
²⁴ Those also who err in spirit shall know the truth,
and those who murmured shall accept instruction.

The Warning of Judah

30 Woe to the rebellious children,
says the LORD ,
who take counsel, but not from Me,
and make an alliance, but not of My Spirit,
in order to add sin to sin;
² they walk down to Egypt and have not asked from My mouth, to strengthen themselves in the safety of Pharaoh
and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
³ Therefore the safety of Pharaoh shall be your shame
and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your humiliation.
⁴ For their princes were at Zoan,
and their ambassadors came to Hanes.
⁵ They all will be ashamed of a people who cannot profit them,
who are not a help or profit,
but a shame and also a reproach.
⁶ The burden of the beasts of the Negev.
Through a land of trouble and anguish,
from which comes the lioness and lion,
the viper and fiery flying serpent,
they will carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys,
and their treasures on the humps of camels,
to a people who shall not profit them.
⁷ For the Egyptians shall help in vain and to no purpose.
Therefore, I have called her,
"Rahab who has been exterminated."
⁸ Now go, write it before them on a tablet,
and note it in a book,
that it may serve in the time to come
as a witness forever;
⁹ for this is a rebellious people, lying children, children who refuse to listen to the law of the LORD ;
¹⁰ they say to the seers,
"You must not see visions ,"
and to the prophets,
"You must not prophesy to us right things;
speak to us pleasant things,
prophesy illusions.
¹¹ Get out of the way,
turn aside from the path,
let us hear no more about the Holy One of Israel."
¹² Therefore, thus says the Holy One of Israel:
Because you despise this word
and trust in oppression and perverseness,
and rely on them,

¹³ therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling up in a high wall,
whose collapse comes suddenly, in an instant.
¹⁴ He shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel
that is broken in pieces;
He shall not spare so that there shall not be found in the breaking of it a shard
to take fire from the hearth
or with which to take water out of a cistern.
¹⁵ For thus says the Lord GOD , the Holy One of Israel:
In returning and rest you shall be saved;
in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength.
Yet you were not willing,
¹⁶ and you said, "No, for we will flee on horses";
therefore you shall flee.
"And we will ride on swift horses";
therefore those who pursue you shall be swift.
¹⁷ One thousand shall flee
at the threat of one man;
at the threat of five you shall flee
until you are left
as a flag on the top of a mountain
and as a banner on a hill.

God's Promise to Zion

¹⁸ Therefore, the LORD longs to be gracious to you, and therefore, He waits on high to have mercy on
you;
for the LORD is a God of justice;
how blessed are all who long for Him.
¹⁹ O people in Zion, inhabitants in Jerusalem, you shall weep no more. He will be very gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When He hears it, He will answer you. ²⁰ Though the Lord has given you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet He, your Teacher, will no longer hide Himself, but your eyes shall see your Teacher. ²¹ Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way, walk in it," whenever you turn to the right hand and when you turn to the left. ²² You shall defile also your graven images overlaid with silver, and your molded images ornamented with gold. You shall scatter them as an impure thing, and say to them, "Be gone!"
²³ Then He shall give you rain for the seed which you shall sow in the ground and bread of the increase of the earth. And it shall be rich and plentiful. On that day your cattle shall feed in large pastures. ²⁴ The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that work the ground shall eat cured fodder, which has been winnowed with the shovel and fork. ²⁵ There shall be on every high mountain and on every high hill rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. ²⁶ Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD binds up the breach of His people and heals the wound from His blow.

Judgment on Assyria

²⁷ See, the name of the LORD comes from afar, burning with His anger, and its burden is heavy; His lips are full of indignation, and His tongue as a devouring fire.
²⁸ And His breath is as an overflowing stream which reaches to the middle of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity; and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.
²⁹ You shall have songs, as in the night when a festival is kept, and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the Mighty One of Israel.
³⁰ The LORD shall cause His glorious voice to be heard, and shall show the descending of His arm with the indignation of His anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and cloudburst, and hailstones.
³¹ For through the voice of the LORD the Assyrian shall be beaten down when He strikes with a rod.
³² And every blow of the rod of punishment which the LORD shall lay on him shall be with tambourines and harps; and in battles, brandishing weapons, He will fight them.
³³ For Topheth has been long prepared, indeed, for the king it has been prepared. He has made it deep and large, a pile of fire with much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, kindles it.

Woe to Those Who Trust Egypt

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses, and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they do not look to the Holy One of Israel nor seek the LORD!
² Yet He also is wise and will bring disaster and will not call back His words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers and against the help of those who work iniquity.
³ Now the Egyptians are men and not God; and their horses flesh and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out His hand, both he who helps shall fall and he who is helped shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

⁴ For thus the LORD has spoken to me: Like the lion, and the young lion, roars over his prey, against which a multitude of shepherds is called out against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor disturbed at their noise, so shall the LORD of Hosts come down to fight for Mount Zion, and for its hill.

⁵ Like flying birds, so the LORD of Hosts will defend Jerusalem. He will defend and deliver it; He will pass over and preserve it.

⁶ Turn to Him whom you have deeply betrayed, O sons of Israel. ⁷ For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold which your own hands have made for you as a sin.

⁸ "Then the Assyrian shall fall by the sword that is not of man, and the sword not of man shall devour him. So he shall not escape the sword, and his young men shall become forced laborers. ⁹ He shall cross over to his stronghold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the banner," says the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

The Kingdom of Righteousness

32 See, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule justly.

² A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a shelter from the tempest, as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

³ The eyes of those who see shall not be blinded, and the ears of those who hear shall listen.

⁴ The heart also of the hasty shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.

⁵ The vile person shall no more be called noble, nor the rogue be spoken of as generous;

⁶ for the vile person will speak nonsense, and his heart will work iniquity: to practice hypocrisy and to utter error against the LORD, to keep the hungry unsatisfied and to withhold drink from the thirsty.

⁷ The instruments also of the rogue are evil; he devises wicked schemes to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaks right.

⁸ But the noble devises noble things, and by noble things he stands.

The Women of Jerusalem

9 Rise up, you women who are at ease,
 hear my voice;
 you careless daughters,
 give ear to my speech.
 10 Within a year and a few days
 you shall be troubled, you careless daughters;
 for the vintage is ended
 and the fruit gathering shall not come.
 11 Tremble, you women who are at ease;
 be troubled, you careless daughters;
 strip, undress,
 and put sackcloth on your waist.
 12 Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields,
 for the fruitful vine,
 13 for the land of my people
 in which thorns and briers shall come up,
 yes, for all the joyful houses
 and for the jubilant city; 14 because the palaces have been forsaken,
 the populated city is forsaken.
 The forts and towers shall be caves forever,
 a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks, 15 until the Spirit is poured on us from on high,
 and the wilderness is a fruitful field,
 and the fruitful field is counted as a forest.

The Peace of God's Reign

16 Then justice shall dwell in the wilderness,
 and righteousness will abide in the fruitful field.
 17 The work of righteousness shall be peace,
 and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever.
 18 My people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation
 and in secure dwellings
 and in quiet resting places;
 19 and it shall hail when the forest comes down,
 and the city shall be utterly laid low.
 20 How blessed are you
 who sow beside all waters,
 who send out freely the ox and the donkey.

A Prophecy of Deliverance

33 Woe to you, O destroyer, though you were not destroyed,
 and he who is treacherous,
 though others did not deal treacherously with you!
 When you cease destroying,
 you shall be destroyed;
 and when you finish dealing treacherously,
 others shall deal treacherously with you.
 2 O LORD, be gracious to us;
 we have waited for You.
 Be our strength every morning,
 our salvation also in the time of trouble.
 3 At the noise of the tumult, the people flee;

at the lifting up of Yourself, the nations scatter;
 4 your spoil is gathered like the caterpillar gathers;
 as locusts rush about, men rush about on it.
 5 The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high;
 He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.
 6 He shall be the stability of your times,
 a wealth of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge;
 the fear of the LORD is His treasure.
 7 Listen! Their valiant ones cry in the streets;
 the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly.
 8 The highways lie waste,
 the wayfaring man ceases.
 He has broken the covenant,
 he has despised the cities,
 he has no regard for man.
 9 The earth mourns and languishes;
 Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down.
 Sharon is like a wilderness,
 and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits .

Impending Judgment on Israel

10 "Now I will rise," says the LORD ,
 "now I will be exalted,
 now I will be lifted up.
 11 You have conceived chaff,
 you shall bring forth stubble;
 My breath, as fire, shall devour you.
 12 The people shall be burned to lime,
 as thorns cut up are burned in the fire."
 13 Hear what I have done, you who are far away;
 and you who are near, acknowledge My might.
 14 The sinners in Zion are afraid;
 fearfulness has seized the hypocrites:
 "Who among us can live with the continual fire?
 Who among us can live with everlasting burning?" 15 He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly,
 he who rejects unjust gain
 and shakes his hands from holding bribes,
 who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed,
 and shuts his eyes from seeing evil:
 16 He shall dwell on high;
 his place of defense shall be the impregnable rock;
 his bread shall be given him,
 his waters shall be sure.

The Land of the Majestic King

17 Your eyes shall see the King in His beauty;
 they shall see the land that is very far away.
 18 Your heart shall meditate on terror:
 "Where is he who counts?
 Where is he who weighs?
 Where is he who counts the towers?"
 19 You shall not see a fierce people any more,
 a people of unintelligible speech which no one com-
 prehends,
 of a stammering tongue which no one understands.

²⁰ Look upon Zion, the city of our appointed feasts;
 your eyes shall see Jerusalem,
 a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down;
 not one of its stakes shall ever be removed,
 nor shall any of its cords be broken.
²¹ But there the glorious LORD will be to us a place of broad rivers and streams
 on which no boat with oars shall go and on which no gallant ship shall pass, ²² for the LORD is our judge,
 the LORD is our lawgiver,
 the LORD is our king;
 He will save us.
²³ Your tackle hangs loose;
 it cannot hold the base of its mast securely,
 nor spread out the sail.
 Then the prey of an abundant spoil shall be divided;
 the lame shall take the prey.
²⁴ The inhabitant shall not say, "I am sick";
 the people who dwell there shall be forgiven their iniquity.

Judgment on the Nations

34 Come near, O nations, to hear;
 and listen, O peoples!
 Let the earth hear, and all that is in it,
 the world, and all that comes from it.
² For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations and His fury upon all their armies;
 He has utterly destroyed them,
 He has delivered them to the slaughter.
³ Their slain also shall be cast out,
 and their corpses shall emit their stench,
 and the mountains shall be drenched with their blood.
⁴ All the host of heaven shall be dissolved,
 and the heavens shall be rolled together as a book;
 and all their host shall fall down
 as the leaf falls from the vine,
 and as a falling fig from the fig tree.
⁵ For My sword is filled in heaven;
 see, it shall come down for judgment on Edom,
 and on the people whom I have devoted to destruction.
⁶ The sword of the LORD is filled with blood,
 it is made full with fatness,
 and with the blood of lambs and goats,
 with the fat of the kidneys of rams.
 For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
 and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
⁷ The wild oxen shall also fall with them,
 and the young bulls with the mighty bulls;
 so their land shall be soaked with blood,
 and their dust become greasy with fat.
⁸ For it is the day of the vengeance of the LORD,
 and the year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
⁹ Its streams shall be turned into pitch,

and its dust into brimstone,
 and its land shall become burning pitch.
¹⁰ It shall not be quenched night or day;
 its smoke shall go up forever.
 From generation to generation it shall lie waste;
 no one shall pass through it forever and ever.
¹¹ But the cormorant and the hedgehog shall possess it,
 the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it.
 And He shall stretch out on it
 the line of desolation,
 and the plumb line of emptiness.
¹² They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, but no one shall be there,
 and all her princes shall be nothing.
¹³ Thorns shall come up in her palaces,
 nettles and brambles in the fortresses;
 and it shall be a habitation of jackals
 and a home for owls.
¹⁴ The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wolves,
 and the wild goat shall cry to its kind;
 the screech owl also shall rest there
 and find for herself a place of rest.
¹⁵ There shall the tree snake make its nest and lay eggs,
 and it shall hatch and gather them under its protection;
 yes, there shall the vultures also be gathered,
 every one with its kind.
¹⁶ Seek from the book of the LORD, and read.
 Not one of these shall be missing,
 not one shall lack its mate.
 For His mouth has commanded,
 and His Spirit has gathered them.
¹⁷ He has cast the lot for them,
 and His hand has divided it to them by line.
 They shall possess it forever,
 from generation to generation they shall dwell in it.

The Future Glory of Zion

35 The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad,
 and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as the rose;
² it shall blossom abundantly
 and rejoice even with joy and singing.
 The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it,
 the excellency of Carmel and Sharon.
 They shall see the glory of the LORD
 and the excellency of our God.
³ Strengthen the weak hands,
 and support the feeble knees.
⁴ Say to those who are of a fearful heart,
 "Be strong, fear not.
 Your God will come
 with vengeance,
 even God with a recompense;
 He will come and save you."

⁵ Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened,
and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

⁶ Then the lame man shall leap as a deer,
and the tongue of the mute sing for joy.
For in the wilderness waters shall break out and streams in the desert.

⁷ The parched ground shall become a pool,
and the thirsty land springs of water;
in the habitation of jackals where each lay,
there shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

⁸ A highway shall be there, a roadway,
and it shall be called the Highway of Holiness.
The unclean shall not pass on it,
but it shall be for the wayfaring men,
and fools shall not wander on it.

⁹ No lion shall be there,
nor any ravenous beast shall go up on it;
these shall not be found there,
but the redeemed shall walk there,

¹⁰ and the ransomed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with songs
and everlasting joy upon their heads.
They shall obtain joy and gladness,
and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Sennacherib Invades Judah

2Ki 18:13-37; 2Ch 32:9-19

36 Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and took them. ² The king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh † from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field. ³ Then Eliakim came to him, the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder.

⁴ The Rabshakeh said to them:

"Say now to Hezekiah: Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: What confidence is this that you have?

⁵ I say, Your counsel and strength for war are only empty words. Now on whom do you rely that you rebel against me? ⁶ You rely on the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who rely on him. ⁷ But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar'?

⁸ "Now therefore, come make a bargain with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. ⁹ How then will you turn away one captain of the least of my master's servants and rely on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ¹⁰ Have I now come up without the approval of the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it."

¹¹ Then Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Speak now to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. And do not speak to us in Hebrew in the ears of the people who are on the wall."

¹² But the Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words? Has he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

¹³ Then the Rabshakeh stood and cried out with a loud voice in Hebrew, and said, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. ¹⁴ Thus says the king, 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he shall not be able to deliver you; ¹⁵ nor let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us. This city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

¹⁶ "Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make your peace with me and come out to me, and eat every one of his vine and every one of his fig tree, and drink every one the waters of his own cistern, ¹⁷ until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

¹⁸ " Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Has any one of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? And when have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? ²⁰ Who are they among all the gods of these lands that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"

²¹ But they held their peace, and answered him not a word, for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."

²² Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Isaiah Foretells Deliverance

2Ki 19:1-13

37 And it came to pass when King Hezekiah heard it that he tore his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. ² He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³ They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy. For children have come to birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth. ⁴ Perhaps the LORD your God will hear the words of the Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore, lift up a prayer for the remnant that is left."

⁵ So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

⁶ Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. ⁷ Listen! I will put a spirit in him so that he shall hear a rumor, and return to his own land. And I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

⁸ So the Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah. For he had heard that the king had left Lachish.

⁹ He heard them say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to make war with you." And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰ "Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, 'Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.' ¹¹ Certainly you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by utterly destroying them. So shall you be delivered? ¹² Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, even Gozan and Harran and Rezech and the sons of Eden who were in Tel As-sar? ¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the kings of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?"

The Prayer of Hezekiah

¹⁴ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. ¹⁵ Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying, ¹⁶ "O LORD of Hosts, God of Israel, who dwells above the cherubim, You are the God, even You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. ¹⁷ Incline Your ear, O LORD, and hear. Open Your eyes, O LORD, and see, and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to reproach the living God.

¹⁸ "Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their countries, ¹⁹ and have cast their gods into the fire. For they were not gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. Therefore, they have destroyed them. ²⁰ Now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone, LORD, are God."

The Fall of Sennacherib

²¹ Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Because you have prayed to Me about Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²² this is the word which the LORD has spoken against him:

The virgin daughter of Zion

has despised you and mocked you;
the daughter of Jerusalem
has shaken her head at you.

²³ Whom have you reproached and blasphemed?
And against whom have you raised your voice,
and lifted up your eyes haughtily?

Against the Holy One of Israel!

²⁴ Through your servants
you have reproached the Lord
and have said,

'With my many chariots
I have come up to the heights of the mountains,
to the remotest parts of Lebanon;
and I cut down its tall cedars,
and its choice fir trees;
and I will go to its highest peak,
its thickest forest.

²⁵ I have dug wells
and drunk water,
and with the sole of my feet
I have dried up all the rivers of Egypt.'

²⁶ "Have you not heard?
Long ago I have done it,
from ancient times I have formed it.
Now I have brought it to pass,
that you should turn fortified cities
into ruinous heaps.

²⁷ Therefore, their inhabitants were short of strength;
they were dismayed and humiliated;
they were as the grass of the field
and as the green herb,
as the grass on the housetops
is scorched before it is grown up.

²⁸ "But I know your abode, and your going out and your coming in,
and your rage against Me.

²⁹ Because your rage against Me
and your tumult have come up into My ears, therefore I will put My hook in your nose,
and My bridle in your lips,
and I will turn you back on the way by which you came.

³⁰ "This shall be a sign to you:
You shall eat this year what grows of itself,
and the second year what springs from the same,
and in the third year sow and reap
and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

³¹ The surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward and bear fruit upward.

³² For from Jerusalem shall go out a remnant,
and those who escape out of Mount Zion.
The zeal of the LORD of Hosts shall do this.

³³ "Therefore, thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:
He shall not come into this city,
nor shoot an arrow there,

nor come before it with shields,
nor build a siege ramp against it.
³⁴ By the way that he came, by the same shall he return,
and shall not come into this city,
says the LORD.
³⁵ For I will defend this city to save it for My own sake and for the sake of My servant David."

³⁶ Then the angel of the LORD went out and struck one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When others woke up early in the morning, these were all dead bodies. ³⁷ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and returned home and lived in Nineveh.

³⁸ It came to pass as he was worshipping in the house of Nisrok, his god, that Adrammelek and Sharezer, his sons, struck him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

Hezekiah's Illness

38 In those days Hezekiah was mortally ill. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD. Set your house in order, for you shall die, and not live."

² Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to the LORD, ³ and said, "Remember now, O LORD, I beseech You, how I have walked before You in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done what is good in Your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴ Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying: ⁵ "Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears. Surely I will add to your days fifteen years. ⁶ I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city.

⁷ "This shall be a sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that He has spoken: ⁸ I will cause the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down with the sun on the sundial of Ahaz, to go back ten steps." So the sun's shadow returned ten steps on the sundial by which it had gone down.

⁹ This is the writing of Hezekiah king of Judah after his illness and recovery:

¹⁰ I said: In the middle of my days,
I shall go to the gates of Sheol;
I am to be deprived of the rest of my years.

¹¹ I said, I shall not see the LORD,
even the LORD, in the land of the living;
I shall see man no more
with the inhabitants of the world.

¹² My dwelling is pulled up and removed from me as a shepherd's tent;
I rolled up my life like a weaver.
He cuts me off from the loom;
from day even to night You make an end of me.

¹³ I composed my soul until morning,
like a lion, so He breaks all my bones;
from day even to night You make an end of me.

¹⁴ Like a crane or a swallow, so I twitter;
I mourn as a dove;
my eyes look wistfully upward.

O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me.

¹⁵ What shall I say?

For He has spoken to me, and He Himself has done it.

I shall wander about all my years
in the bitterness of my soul.

¹⁶ O Lord, by these things men live,
and in all these things is the life of my spirit;

O restore me to health
and make me live!

¹⁷ Surely it was for my own peace
that I had great bitterness;

but You have kept my soul
from the pit of corruption,
for You have cast all my sins behind Your back.

¹⁸ For Sheol cannot thank You,
death cannot praise You;
those who go down into the pit
cannot hope for Your faithfulness.

¹⁹ It is the living who give thanks to You,
as I do this day;

a father explains to his sons
about Your faithfulness.

²⁰ The LORD shall surely save me;

therefore, we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments

all the days of our lives in the house of the LORD.

²¹ For Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs and lay it on the boil, and he shall recover."

²² Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?"

Envoys From Babylon

2Ki 20:12-19

39 At that time Marduk-Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that he had been sick and had recovered. ² Hezekiah was glad and showed them the house of his precious things: the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and his whole armory, and all that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them.

³ Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?"

And Hezekiah said, "They have come to me from a far country, from Babylon."

⁴ Then he said, "What have they seen in your house?"

And Hezekiah answered, "All that is in my house they have seen. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

⁵ Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of Hosts. ⁶ The days are surely coming when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left, says the LORD. ⁷ And some of your sons who descend from you, whom you shall father, shall be taken away. And they shall become officials in the palace of the king of Babylon."

⁸ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good." For he said, "For there shall be peace and truth in my days."

Comfort for God's People

40 Comfort, O comfort, My people, says your God.

² Speak kindly to Jerusalem, and cry to her
that her warfare has ended,
that her iniquity has been pardoned,
that she has received of the hand of the LORD
double for all her sins.

³ The voice of him who cries out,
"Prepare the way of the LORD
in the wilderness,

make straight in the desert
a highway for our God.

⁴ Let every valley be lifted up,
and every mountain and hill be made low,
and let the rough ground become a plain,
and the rough places a plain;

⁵ then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
and all flesh shall see it together,
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it."

⁶ The voice said, "Cry out."
And he said, "What shall I cry out?"

All flesh is grass,
and all its loveliness is as the flower of the field.

⁷ The grass withers, the flower fades
because the Spirit of the LORD blows upon it;
surely the people are grass.

⁸ The grass withers, the flower fades,
but the word of our God shall stand forever.

⁹ O Zion, bearer of good news,
get yourself up onto a high mountain;

O Jerusalem, bearer of good news,
lift up your voice with strength,
lift it up, do not be afraid;
say to the cities of Judah,
"Here is your God!"

¹⁰ See, the Lord GOD will come with a strong hand,
and His arm shall rule for Him;

see, His reward is with Him,
and His recompense before Him.

¹¹ He shall feed His flock like a shepherd;
He shall gather the lambs with His arm,

and carry them in His bosom,
and shall gently lead those that are with young.

¹² Who has measured the waters in the hollow of His hand,

and meted out heaven with the span,
and calculated the dust of the earth by the measure,
and weighed the mountains in scales,
and the hills in a balance?

¹³ Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD,
or as His counselor has taught Him?

¹⁴ With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed
Him,

and taught Him in the path of justice,
and taught Him knowledge,
and showed to Him the way of understanding?

¹⁵ Certainly the nations are as a drop in a bucket,
and are counted as the small dust of the balance;
He takes up the coastlands as a very little thing.

¹⁶ Lebanon is not sufficient to burn,
nor the beasts sufficient as a burnt offering.

¹⁷ All nations before Him are as nothing, and they are counted by Him as less than nothing and meaningless.

¹⁸ To whom then will you liken God?
Or what likeness will you compare to Him?

¹⁹ The workman melts a graven image,
and the goldsmith spreads it over with gold,
and casts silver chains.

²⁰ He who is too impoverished for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot;

he seeks for himself a skillful workman
to prepare a graven image that shall not totter.

²¹ Have you not known?

Have you not heard?

Has it not been told to you from the beginning?

Have you not understood from the foundations of
the earth?

²² It is He who sits upon the circle of the earth,
and the inhabitants are as grasshoppers,
who stretches out the heavens as a curtain,
and spreads them out as a tent to dwell in.

²³ He brings the princes to nothing;
He makes the judges of the earth meaningless.

²⁴ Scarcely shall they be planted;
scarcely shall they be sown;

scarcely shall their tree take root in the earth,
when He will also blow on them,

and they will wither,
and the whirlwind will take them away as stubble.

²⁵ To whom then will you liken Me, that I should be equal to him? says the Holy One.

²⁶ Lift up your eyes on high,

and see who has created these things,
who brings out their host by number;

He calls them all by name,
by the greatness of His might and the strength of His power;

not one of them is missing.

²⁷ Why do you say, O Jacob,
and assert, O Israel,
"My way is hidden from the LORD ,
and my justice escapes the notice of my God?"
²⁸ Have you not known?
Have you not heard,
that the everlasting God, the LORD ,
the Creator of the ends of the earth,
does not faint, nor is He weary?
His understanding is inscrutable.
²⁹ He gives power to the faint, and to those who have no might He increases
strength.
³⁰ Even the youths shall faint and be weary,
and the young men shall utterly fall, ³¹ but those who wait upon the LORD
shall renew their strength;
they shall mount up with wings as eagles,
they shall run and not be weary,
and they shall walk and not faint.

The LORD Helps Israel

41 Keep silent before Me, O islands,
and let the peoples renew their strength.
Let them come near, then let them speak;
let us come near together to judgment.
² Who raised up the righteous man from the east,
called him to His foot,
gave the nations before him,
and made him rule over kings?
He makes them as the dust with his sword,
and as driven stubble with his bow.
³ He pursued them, and passed safely,
by paths his feet have not traveled.
⁴ Who has performed and done this,
calling the generations from the beginning?
I, the LORD , am the first,
and with the last. I am He.
⁵ The coastlands saw it and feared,
the ends of the earth were afraid;
they drew near and came.
⁶ Every one helped his neighbor,
and every one said to his brother, "Be of good courage."
⁷ So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he who smooths metal with the hammer encourages him who strikes the anvil, saying, "It is ready for the soldering";
and he fastened it with nails so that it should not totter.
⁸ But you, Israel, are My servant,
Jacob whom I have chosen,
the seed of Abraham, My friend.
⁹ You whom I have taken from the ends of the earth,
and called from its remotest parts,
and said to you, "You are My servant;
I have chosen you and have not rejected you."
¹⁰ Do not fear, for I am with you;

do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you, I will help you,
yes, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.
¹¹ Certainly all those who were incensed against you shall be ashamed and humiliated;
they shall be as nothing,
and those who strive with you shall perish.
¹² You shall seek them
and shall not find them, even those who contended with you.
Those who war against you shall be as nothing, as a thing of nonexistence.
¹³ For I, the LORD your God,
will hold your right hand,
saying to you, "Do not fear;
I will help you."
¹⁴ Do not fear, you worm Jacob,
and you men of Israel.
I will help you, says the LORD
and your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.
¹⁵ See, I will make you a new sharp threshing instrument
with double edges;
you shall thresh the mountains, and beat them small,
and shall make the hills as chaff.
¹⁶ You shall fan them, and the wind shall carry them
away,
and the whirlwind shall scatter them;
and you shall rejoice in the LORD ,
and shall glory in the Holy One of Israel.
¹⁷ When the poor and needy seek water,
and there is none,
and their tongues fail for thirst,
I, the LORD will hear them,
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
¹⁸ I will open rivers in high places,
and fountains in the midst of the valleys;
I will make the wilderness a pool of water,
and the dry land springs of water.
¹⁹ I will plant in the wilderness
the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive tree;
I will set in the desert
the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together, ²⁰ that they may see, and know,
and consider, and understand together,
that the hand of the LORD has done this,
and the Holy One of Israel has created it.

The Futility of Idols

²¹ Present your case, says the LORD .
Bring forth your arguments, says the King of Jacob.
²² Let them bring them forth, and show us
what shall happen;
let them show the former things, what they were,
that we may consider them
and know their outcome,
or declare to us things to come.
²³ Show the things that are to come hereafter,

that we may know that you are gods;
do good, or do evil,
that we may be dismayed and see it together.
²⁴ Indeed you are nothing,
and your work amounts to nothing;
he who chooses you is an abomination.
²⁵ I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come;
from the rising of the sun he shall call on My name;
and he shall come on princes as on mortar,
and as the potter treads clay.
²⁶ Who has declared from the beginning, that we may know?
And from former times, that we may say, "He is right!"?
There is no one who shows,
no one who declares,
no one who hears your words.
²⁷ Formerly I said to Zion, "Look, here they are,"
and to Jerusalem, "I will give one who brings good news."
²⁸ But when I look, there is no man,
even among them, and there is no counselor
who, when I ask of them, could answer a word.
²⁹ See, they all are vanity;
their works are nothing;
their molded images are wind and emptiness.

The Servant of the LORD

42 Here is My servant, whom I uphold,
My chosen one, in whom My soul delights.
I have put My Spirit upon him;
he shall bring forth justice to the nations.
² He shall not cry out, nor lift up his voice,
nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.
³ A bruised reed he shall not break,
and the smoking flax he shall not quench;
he shall bring forth justice faithfully.
⁴ He shall not be disheartened nor be discouraged,
until he has set justice in the earth;
and the coastlands shall wait for his law.
⁵ Thus says God the LORD,
who created the heavens and stretched them out,
who spread forth the earth and that which comes out of it,
who gives breath to the people on it,
and spirit to those who walk in it:
⁶ I the LORD have called You in righteousness,
and will hold Your hand,
and will keep You and appoint You for a covenant of the people,
for a light of the nations,
⁷ to open the blind eyes,
to bring out the prisoners from the prison,
and those who sit in darkness out of the prison
house.
⁸ I am the LORD, that is My name;
and My glory I will not give to another,

nor My praise to graven images.
⁹ See, the former things have come to pass,
and new things I declare;
before they spring forth
I tell you of them.

A Song of Praise

¹⁰ Sing to the LORD a new song,
and His praise from the ends of the earth,
you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,
the coastlands, and the inhabitants.
¹¹ Let the wilderness and the cities lift up their voices,
the villages that Kedar inhabits.
Let the inhabitants of Sela sing,
let them shout from the top of the mountains.
¹² Let them give glory to the LORD,
and declare His praise in the islands.
¹³ The LORD shall go forth like a mighty man;
He shall stir up zeal like a man of war.
He shall cry out, yes, raise a war cry;
He shall prevail against His enemies.

The LORD's Help Is Promised

¹⁴ I have for a long time held My peace;
I have been still and refrained Myself.
Now I will cry like a travailing woman;
I will destroy and devour at once.
¹⁵ I will lay waste mountains and hills
and dry up all their vegetation,
and I will make the rivers islands,
and I will dry up the pools.
¹⁶ I will bring the blind by a way that they did not
know;
I will lead them in paths that they have not known.
I will make darkness light before them
and crooked things straight.
These things I will do for them
and not forsake them.
¹⁷ They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly
ashamed,
who trust in graven images,
who say to the molded images, "You are our gods."

Israel's Disobedience

¹⁸ Hear, you deaf;
look, you blind, that you may see.
¹⁹ Who is blind, but My servant?
Or deaf, as My messenger whom I sent?
Who is blind as he who is at peace with Me,
and blind as the servant of the LORD?
²⁰ You have seen many things, but you do not observe them;
your ears are open, but no one hears.
²¹ The LORD is well pleased for His righteousness' sake
to magnify the law and make it honorable.
²² But this is a people robbed and despoiled;

they are all snared in holes,
 and they are hidden in prison houses;
 they are for a prey,
 and no one delivers,
 for a spoil,
 and no one says, "Restore them."
²³ Who among you will give ear to this?
 Who will listen and hear for the time to come?
²⁴ Who gave up Jacob as spoil,
 and Israel to the robbers?
 Did not the LORD ,
 against whom we have sinned?
 For they would not walk in His ways,
 nor were they obedient to His law.
²⁵ Therefore, He has poured on him the fury of His anger
 and the strength of battle;
 and it has set him on fire all around, yet he did not recognize it;
 and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

The Redeemer of Israel

43 But now, thus says the LORD
 who created you, O Jacob,
 and He who formed you, O Israel:
 Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
 I have called you by your name; you are Mine.
² When you pass through waters,
 I will be with you.
 And through the rivers,
 they shall not overflow you.
 When you walk through the fire,
 you shall not be burned,
 nor shall the flame kindle on you.
³ For I am the LORD your God,
 the Holy One of Israel, your Savior;
 I gave Egypt for your ransom,
 Ethiopia and Seba in your place.
⁴ Since you were precious in My sight, you have been honorable,
 and I have loved you;
 therefore, I will give men for you,
 and people for your life.
⁵ Do not fear, for I am with you;
 I will bring your descendants from the east,
 and gather you from the west;
⁶ I will say to the north, "Give them up,"
 and to the south, "Do not keep them back.
 Bring My sons from afar,
 and My daughters from the ends of the earth, ⁷ even everyone who is called by My name,
 for I have created him for My glory;
 I have formed him, and I have made him."
⁸ Bring forth the blind people who have eyes,
 and the deaf who have ears.
⁹ Let all the nations be gathered together,
 and let the people be assembled.
 Who among them can declare this,

and show us former things?
 Let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified;
 or let them hear and say, "It is true."
¹⁰ You are My witnesses, says the LORD , and My servant whom I have chosen that you may know and believe Me,
 and understand that I am He.
 Before Me there was no God formed,
 nor shall there be after Me.
¹¹ I, even I, am the LORD ,
 and besides Me there is no savior.
¹² I have declared, and have saved, and I have shown,
 when there was no strange god among you;
 therefore, you are My witnesses, says the LORD , that I am God.

¹³ Indeed, from eternity I am He;
 there is no one who can deliver out of My hand;
 I act, and who can reverse it?

¹⁴ Thus says the LORD ,
 your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
 For your sake I have sent to Babylon,
 and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans,

into the ships in which they rejoice.
¹⁵ I am the LORD , your Holy One,
 the Creator of Israel, your King.
¹⁶ Thus says the LORD ,
 who makes a way in the sea
 and a path in the mighty waters, ¹⁷ who brings forth the chariot and horse,
 the army and the mighty men (they shall lie down together, they shall not rise;
 they are extinguished, they are quenched like a wick):

¹⁸ Do not remember the former things
 nor consider the things of old.
¹⁹ See, I will do a new thing, now it shall spring forth; shall you not be aware of
 it?

I will even make a way in the wilderness,
 and rivers in the desert.

²⁰ The beast of the field shall honor Me,
 the jackals and the owls,
 because I give waters in the wilderness,
 and rivers in the desert,
 to give drink to My people, My chosen ones.

²¹ This people I have formed for Myself;
 they shall declare My praise.

Pleading With Israel

²² But you have not called upon Me, O Jacob;
 but you have been weary of Me, O Israel.

²³ You have not brought Me the sheep for your burnt offerings,
 nor have you honored Me with your sacrifices.
 I have not burdened you with offerings,
 nor wearied you with incense.

²⁴ You have bought Me no sweet cane with money,
nor have you filled Me with the fat of your sacrifices;
but you have made Me burdened with your sins;
you have wearied Me with your iniquities.
²⁵ I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake,
and will not remember your sins.
²⁶ Put Me in remembrance;
let us plead together;
state your cause, that you may be justified.
²⁷ Your first father has sinned,
and your teachers have transgressed against Me.
²⁸ Therefore, I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary,
and have given Jacob to the curse,
and Israel to reproaches.

God's Blessing on Jacob

44 Yet now listen, O Jacob, My servant,
and Israel, whom I have chosen.
² Thus says the LORD
who made you, and formed you from the womb,
who will help you:
Do not fear, O Jacob, My servant, and you,
Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
³ For I will pour water on him who is thirsty,
and floods on the dry ground;
I will pour out My Spirit on your descendants,
and My blessing on your offspring;
⁴ and they shall spring up as among the grass,
as willows by the water courses.
⁵ One will say, "I am the LORD's";
another will call himself by the name of Jacob;
and another will write on his hand, "Belonging to the LORD,"
and name himself by the name of Israel.

Idolatry Condemned

⁶ Thus says the LORD the King of Israel,
and his Redeemer the LORD of Hosts:
I am the first, and I am the last;
besides Me there is no God.
⁷ Who is like Me? Let him proclaim and declare it, and recount it in order for Me,
since I appointed the ancient people.
And let them declare to them the things that are coming,
and shall come.
⁸ Do not fear, nor be afraid;
have I not told you from of old, and declared it?
You are My witnesses!
Is there a God besides Me?
There is no Rock; I know not any.
⁹ Those who make a graven image are, all of them,
vain,
and their delectable things shall not profit;
and they are their own witnesses;

they do not see nor know, that they may be ashamed.

¹⁰ Who has formed a god or molded a graven image that is profitable for nothing?
¹¹ All his companions shall be ashamed;
and the workmen, they are mere men.
Let them all be gathered together; let them stand up,
yet they shall fear; they shall be ashamed together.
¹² The smith with the tongs
both works in the coals
and fashions it with hammers,
and works it with the strength of his arms.
He becomes hungry, and his strength fails;
He drinks no water and is faint.
¹³ The carpenter stretches out his measuring line;
he marks it out with a line;
he fits it with planes,
and he marks it out with the compass,
and makes it after the figure of a man,
according to the beauty of a man,
that it may remain in the house.
¹⁴ He hews down cedars for himself,
and takes the cypress and the oak,
which he raises for himself among the trees of the forest.
He plants a fir, and the rain makes it grow.
¹⁵ Then it shall be for a man to burn,
for he will take some of it and warm himself;
he kindles it and bakes bread;
he also makes a god and worships it;
he makes it a graven image and bows down to it.
¹⁶ He burns half of it in the fire;
over this half he eats meat;
he roasts it and is satisfied.
Also he warms himself and says,
"Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire."
¹⁷ And the rest he makes into a god, even his carved image.
He falls down to it, and worships it,
and prays to it, and says,
"Deliver me, for you are my god."
¹⁸ They have not known nor understood;
for He has shut their eyes so that they cannot see,
and their hearts so that they cannot understand.
¹⁹ No one considers in his heart,
nor is there knowledge nor understanding to say,
"I have burned part of it in the fire;
I also have baked bread on the coals;
I have roasted meat and eaten it;
and shall I make the rest into an abomination?
Shall I fall down to a block of wood?"
²⁰ He feeds on ashes; a deceived heart has turned him aside
so that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say,
"Is there not a lie in my right hand?"

Israel Not Forgotten

²¹ Remember these things, O Jacob,

and Israel, for you are My servant;
 I have formed you; you are My servant;
 O Israel, you shall not be forgotten by Me.
²² I have blotted out, as a thick cloud,
 your transgressions, and your sins, as a cloud.
 Return to Me,
 for I have redeemed you.
²³ Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it.
 Shout joyfully, you lower parts of the earth;
 break forth into singing, you mountains,
 O forest, and every tree in it.
 For the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
 and glorified Himself in Israel.

Jerusalem to Be Inhabited

²⁴ Thus says the LORD , your Redeemer, and He who formed you from the womb:
 I am the LORD
 who makes all things,
 who stretches out the heavens alone,
 who spreads abroad the earth by Myself, ²⁵ who frustrates the omens of the boasters
 and makes fools out of diviners, who turns wise men backward
 and makes their knowledge foolish, ²⁶ who confirms the word of His servant
 and performs the counsel of His messengers, who says to Jerusalem, "You shall be inhabited,"
 and to the cities of Judah, "You shall be built."
 And I will raise up her ruins again;
²⁷ it is I who says to the deep, "Be dried up!"
 And I will dry up your rivers;
²⁸ it is I who says of Cyrus, "He is My shepherd, and shall perform all My desire";
 and he declares to Jerusalem, "You shall be built,"
 and to the temple, "Your foundation shall be laid."

Cyrus, God's Anointed

45 Thus says the LORD to Cyrus, His anointed, whose right hand I have held—
 to subdue nations before him
 and to loosen the loins of kings, to open doors before him
 so that the gates will not be shut:
² I will go before you
 and make the crooked places straight;
 I will break in pieces the gates of bronze
 and shatter the bars of iron.
³ And I will give you the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places
 so that you may know that I, the LORD , who calls you by your name, am the God of Israel.
⁴ For Jacob My servant's sake
 and Israel My chosen one,
 I have even called you by your name;
 I have named you,

though you have not known Me.
⁵ I am the LORD and there is no other;
 there is no God besides Me.
 I strengthen you,
 though you have not known Me,
⁶ so that they may know from the rising of the sun and from the west
 that there is no one besides Me.
 I am the LORD , and there is no other;
⁷ I form the light and create darkness;
 I make peace and create calamity;
 I, the LORD , do all these things.
⁸ Drip down, O heavens, from above,
 and let the clouds pour down righteousness;
 let the earth open up,
 and let them bring forth salvation,
 and let righteousness spring up together.
 I, the LORD have created it.
⁹ Woe to him who strives with his Maker,
 the potsherd with the potsherd of the earth!
 Shall the clay say to the potter,
 "What are you making?"
 Or the thing you are making say,
 "He has no hands" ?
¹⁰ Woe to him who says to his father,
 "What are you begetting?"
 Or to the woman,
 "To what are you giving birth?"
¹¹ Thus says the LORD ,
 the Holy One of Israel and his Maker:
 Ask Me of things to come concerning My sons,
 and you shall commit to Me the work of My hands.
¹² I have made the earth
 and created man on it.
 I, even My hands, have stretched out the heavens,
 and I have ordained all their host.
¹³ I have raised him up in righteousness,
 and I will direct all his ways;
 he shall build My city,
 and he shall let My captives go,
 neither for price nor reward,
 says the LORD of Hosts.

The Only Savior

¹⁴ Thus says the LORD :
 The products of Egypt and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans—men of stature—
 shall come over to you,
 and they shall be yours;
 they shall come after you;
 in chains they shall come over,
 and they shall fall down before you.
 They shall make supplication to you, saying,
 "Surely God is with you, and there is no other;
 there is no other God."
¹⁵ Truly You are a God who hides Yourself,
 O God of Israel, the Savior.

¹⁶ They shall be ashamed and also humiliated, all of them;
the craftsmen of idols shall go away in confusion together,

¹⁷ but Israel shall be saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation;
you shall not be ashamed nor humiliated to all eternity.

¹⁸ For thus says the LORD, who created the heavens, who is God, who formed the earth and made it, who has established it, who did not create it in vain, who formed it to be inhabited:
I am the LORD, and there is no other.

¹⁹ I have not spoken in secret in a dark place of the earth;
I did not say to the descendants of Jacob, "Seek Me in a waste place";
I, the LORD, speak righteousness;
I declare things that are right.

²⁰ Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, you fugitives of the nations. They have no knowledge who set up the wood of their carved image, and pray to a god that cannot save.

²¹ Declare and set forth your case; let them take counsel together.
Who has declared this from ancient times?
Who has told it from that time?
Have not I, the LORD?
And there is no God besides Me, a righteous God and Savior;
there is no other besides Me.

²² Turn to Me and be saved, all the ends of the earth.
For I am God, and there is no other.

²³ I have sworn by Myself, the word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness and shall not return,
that to Me every knee shall bow,
every tongue shall take an oath.

²⁴ Surely, one shall say, "Only in the LORD are righteousness and strength."
Men shall come to him,
and all who are incensed at Him shall be ashamed.
²⁵ In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified and shall glory.

The Idols of Babylon

46 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops,
their idols are appointed to the beasts and the cattle.
The things that you carry are burdensome;
they are a burden to the weary beast.

² They stoop, they bow down together;
they could not deliver the burden,
but themselves have gone into captivity.

³ Listen to Me, O house of Jacob,
and all the remnant of the house of Israel,
who are borne by Me from birth
and are carried from the womb:

⁴ And even to your old age I am He,
and even to your graying years I will carry you;
I have done it, and I will bear you;
even I will carry, and will deliver you.

⁵ To whom will you liken Me, and make Me equal,
and compare Me that we may be alike?

⁶ They lavish gold out of the bag,
and weigh silver on the scales;
they hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a god;
they fall down and worship it.

⁷ They lift it on the shoulder, they carry it,
and they set it in its place, and it stands;
from its place it does not move.

If one shall cry to it, it cannot answer
nor save him out of his trouble.

⁸ Remember this, and show yourselves men;
bring it to mind again, O transgressors.

⁹ Remember the former things of old,
for I am God, and there is no other;
I am God, and there is no one like Me,
¹⁰ declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying,

"My counsel shall stand,
and I will do all My good pleasure,"

¹¹ calling a ravenous bird from the east,
the man who executes My counsel from a far country.

Indeed, I have spoken it; I will also bring it to pass.
I have purposed it; I will also do it.

¹² Listen to Me, you stubborn-hearted,
who are far from righteousness;

¹³ I bring My righteousness near;
it shall not be far off,
and My salvation shall not tarry.

And I will grant salvation in Zion,
and My glory for Israel.

The Fall of Babylon

47 Come down, and sit in the dust,
O virgin daughter of Babylon;
sit on the ground; there is no throne,
O daughter of the Chaldeans.
For you shall no more be called tender and delicate.

² Take the millstones and grind meal.
Uncover your veil,
strip off the skirt, uncover the leg,
pass over the rivers.

³ Your nakedness shall be uncovered,
and your shame shall be seen;

I will take vengeance,
and I will not meet you as a man.
⁴As for our Redeemer, the LORD of Hosts is His name,
the Holy One of Israel.
⁵Sit silently, and go into darkness,
O daughter of the Chaldeans;
for you shall no more be called
the queen of kingdoms.
⁶I was angry with My people;
I have polluted My inheritance
and given them into your hand.
You did not show them mercy;
on the aged
you have laid your yoke very heavily.
⁷You said, "I shall be a queen forever,"
but you did not take these things to heart,
nor remember the outcome of them.
⁸Therefore, now hear this, you who are given to pleasures,
who dwell carelessly,
who say in your heart,
"I am, and there is no one besides me;
I shall not sit as a widow,
nor shall I know the loss of children"; ⁹but these two things shall come to you
in a moment, in one day,
the loss of children and widowhood.
They shall come upon you in their fullness
because of the multitude of your sorceries
and for the great abundance of your enchantments.
¹⁰For you have trusted in your wickedness;
you have said, "No one sees me";
your wisdom and your knowledge have perverted you;
and you have said in your heart,
"I am, and there is no one besides me."
¹¹Therefore, evil shall come upon you,
which you shall not know from where it rises.
And disaster shall fall upon you,
for which you shall not be able to atone.
And desolation shall come upon you suddenly,
which you shall not know.
¹²Stand fast now with your enchantments,
and with the multitude of your sorceries
in which you have labored from your youth.
Perhaps you shall be able to profit,
perhaps you may cause trembling.
¹³You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels;
let now the astrologers, the stargazers,
the monthly prognosticators stand up and save you from these things that shall come upon you.
¹⁴Surely they shall be as stubble,
the fire shall burn them;
they shall not deliver themselves
from the power of the flame;
it shall not be coal to be warmed by nor a fire to sit before.

¹⁵Thus those shall be to you
with whom you have labored,
even your merchants, from your youth;
they shall wander, everyone to his quarter.
No one shall save you.

Israel Refined for God's Glory

48 Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel,
and have come forth from the waters of Judah;
who swear by the name of the LORD ,
and invoke the God of Israel,
but not in truth or in righteousness;
²for they call themselves after the holy city,
and lean on the God of Israel;
the LORD of Hosts is His name:
³I have declared the former things from the beginning;
and they went forth from My mouth, and I announced them.
Suddenly I did them, and they came to pass.
⁴Because I knew that you are obstinate,
and your neck is an iron sinew,
and your brow bronze;
⁵I have even from the beginning declared it to you;
before it came to pass I announced it to you,
lest you should say,
"My idol has done them,
and my carved image and my molded image has commanded them."
⁶You have heard; see all this.
And will you not declare it?
I have shown you new things from this time,
even hidden things, and you did not know them.
⁷They are created now and not from the beginning;
even before the day when you did not hear them,
lest you should say,
"Yes, I knew them."
⁸You have not heard, you have not known,
indeed, from long ago your ear has not been open.
For I knew that you would deal very treacherously,
and that from birth you have been called a rebel.
⁹For My name's sake I will defer My anger, and for My praise I will restrain it for you
so that you are not cut off.
¹⁰See, I have refined you, but not with silver;
I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction.
¹¹For My own sake, even for My own sake, I will do it;
for how can My name be polluted?
And I will not give My glory to another.

The LORD's Call to Israel

¹²Listen to Me, O Jacob and Israel, whom I called:
I am He;
I am the First, and I am the Last.

¹³ My hand also has laid the foundation of the earth, and My right hand has spanned the heavens;
when I call to them,
they stand up together.

¹⁴ Assemble, all of you, and listen.
Who among them has declared these things?
The LORD has loved him;
he will do His pleasure on Babylon,
and His arm shall be against the Chaldeans.

¹⁵ I, even I, have spoken,
and I have called him;
I have brought him,
and his way will prosper.

¹⁶ Come near to Me, hear this:
I have not spoken in secret from the beginning;
from the time that it was, there I am.
And now the Lord GOD has sent me and His Spirit.

¹⁷ Thus says the LORD ,
your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
I am the LORD your God,
who teaches you to profit,
who leads you in the way you should go.

¹⁸ Oh, that you had listened to My commandments!
Then your peace would have been as a river and your righteousness as the waves of the sea.

¹⁹ Your descendants also would have been as the sand
and your offspring like grains of sand;
their name would not have been cut off
nor destroyed from before Me.

²⁰ Go forth from Babylon!
Flee from the Chaldeans!
With a voice of singing declare,
proclaim this,
utter it even to the ends of the earth;
say, "The LORD has redeemed His servant Jacob."

²¹ They did not thirst when He led them through the deserts;

He caused the waters to flow out of the rock for
them;

He also split the rock,
and the waters gushed out.

²² "There is no peace," says the LORD , "for the
wicked."

The Servant of the LORD

49 Listen to me, O coastlands, and pay attention, you peoples from afar.
The LORD called me from the womb;
from the body of my mother He named me.

² He has made my mouth like a sharp sword;
in the shadow of His hand He has hidden me
and made me a select arrow;
in His quiver He has hidden me.

³ He said to me, "You are My servant,
Israel, in whom I will be glorified."

⁴ Then I said, "I have labored in vain;

I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity,
yet surely the justice due to me is with the LORD ,
and my reward with my God."

⁵ Now says the LORD ,
who formed me from the womb to be His servant,
to bring Jacob back to Him,
so that Israel might be gathered to Him (yet I am honored in the eyes of the LORD , and my God is my strength),

⁶ He says,
"It is a light thing that you should be My servant
to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the preserved ones of Israel;
I will also make you a light to the nations
so that My salvation may reach to the ends of the
earth."

⁷ Thus says the LORD ,
the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One,
to the despised one, to the one whom the nation abhors,
to the servant of rulers:
"Kings shall see and arise,
princes also shall worship,
because of the LORD who is faithful and the Holy One of Israel who has chosen you."

The Restoration of Israel

⁸ Thus says the LORD :
In an acceptable time I have heard you,
and in a day of salvation I have helped you;
and I will preserve you, and give you
as a covenant of the people,
to restore the earth,
to make them inherit the desolate heritages,
⁹ saying to the prisoners, "Go forth,"
to those who are in darkness, "Show yourselves."
They shall feed along the paths,
and their pastures shall be in all desolate heights;
¹⁰ they shall not hunger nor thirst,
neither shall the heat nor sun strike them;
for He who has mercy on them shall lead them,
even by the springs of water He shall guide them.

¹¹ I will make all My mountains a road,
and My highways shall be raised up.
¹² See, these shall come from afar;
and these will come from the north and from the west,

and these from the land of Sinim.

¹³ Sing, O heavens!

And be joyful, O earth!

And break forth into singing, O mountains!
For the LORD has comforted His people
and will have mercy on His afflicted.

¹⁴ But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me,
and the Lord has forgotten me."

¹⁵ Can a woman forget her nursing child,
and have no compassion on the son of her womb?
Even these may forget,

yet I will not forget.
¹⁶ See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands ;
 your walls are continually before Me;
¹⁷ your builders hurry;
 your destroyers and those who devastated you shall depart from you.
¹⁸ Lift up your eyes and look all around;
 all these gather themselves together and come to you.
 As I live, says the LORD ,
 you shall surely put on all of them as ornaments
 and bind them on you as a bride does.
¹⁹ For your waste and your desolate places,
 and the land of your destruction,
 shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants,
 and those who swallowed you up shall be far away.
²⁰ The children whom you shall have, after you have lost the others, shall say again in your ears,
 "The place is too cramped for me;
 make room for me that I may dwell here."
²¹ Then you shall say in your heart,
 "Who bore these for me,
 since I have lost my children and am barren,
 a captive and a wanderer?
 And who has brought these up?
 I was left alone;
 from where did these come?"
²² Thus says the Lord GOD :
 See, I will lift up My hand to the nations
 and set up My standard to the peoples;
 and they shall bring your sons in their arms,
 and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders;
²³ kings shall be your foster fathers and their queens your nursing mothers;
 they shall bow down to you with their faces toward
 the ground
 and lick up the dust of your feet.
 And you shall know that I am the LORD ,
 for those who wait for Me shall not be ashamed.
²⁴ Can the prey be taken from the mighty or the captives of a tyrant be delivered?
²⁵ For thus says the LORD :
 Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away,
 and the prey of the tyrant shall be delivered;
 for I will contend with him who contends with you,
 and I will save your sons.
²⁶ I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh,
 and they shall be drunk with their own blood as with sweet wine.
 And all flesh shall know that I, the LORD am your Savior
 and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

The Servant, Hope of Israel

50 Thus says the LORD :
 Where is the certificate of divorce
 by which I sent your mother away?
 Or to which of My creditors
 did I sell you?
 For your iniquities you were sold,
 and for your transgressions your mother was sent
 away.
² Why, when I came, was there no man?
 When I called, was there no one to answer?
 Is My hand so short that it cannot redeem?
 Or have I no power to deliver?
 Indeed, at My rebuke I dry up the sea,
 I make the rivers a wilderness;
 Their fish stink because there is no water,
 and die for thirst.
³ I clothe the heavens with blackness,
 and I make sackcloth their covering.
⁴ The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of the learned,
 that I may know how to sustain him who is weary
 with a word;
 He awakens me morning by morning;
 He awakens my ear to listen as the learned.
⁵ The Lord GOD has opened my ear,
 and I was not rebellious,
 nor did I turn back.
⁶ I gave my back to those who struck me,
 and my cheeks to those who plucked out my beard;
 I did not cover my face
 from shame and spitting.
⁷ For the Lord GOD will help me;
 therefore, I shall not be disgraced;
 therefore, I have set my face like a flint,
 and I know that I shall not be ashamed.
⁸ He who vindicates me is near;
 who will contend with me?
 Let us stand up to each other.
 Who is my adversary?
 Let him come near to me.
⁹ Certainly the Lord GOD will help me;
 who is he who condemns me?
 Indeed they all shall grow old as a garment;
 the moth shall eat them up.
¹⁰ Who among you fears the LORD ,
 who obeys the voice of His servant,
 who walks in darkness
 and has no light?
 Let him trust in the name of the LORD ,
 and rely upon his God.
¹¹ But now, all you who kindle a fire,
 who encompass yourselves with sparks:
 Walk in the light of your fire
 and among the sparks that you have ignited.
 This you shall have from My hand:
 You shall lie down in sorrow.

The Eternal Salvation of Zion

51 Listen to Me, you who pursue righteousness,
 you who seek the LORD :
 Look to the rock from which you were hewn
 and to the quarry from which you were dug.
 2 Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you;
 for I called him alone,
 and blessed him, and multiplied him.
 3 For the LORD shall comfort Zion,
 He will comfort all her waste places;
 He will make her wilderness like Eden,
 and her desert like the garden of the LORD ;
 joy and gladness shall be found in it,
 thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.
 4 Listen to Me, O My people;
 and give ear to Me, O My nation:
 for a law shall proceed from Me,
 and I will set My justice as a light of the peoples.
 5 My righteousness is near,
 My salvation has gone forth,
 and My arms shall judge the peoples;
 the coastlands shall wait for Me,
 and for My arm they shall expectantly wait.
 6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
 and look on the earth beneath.
 For the heavens shall vanish away like smoke,
 and the earth shall grow old like a garment,
 and those who dwell in it shall die in like manner;
 but My salvation shall be forever,
 and My righteousness shall not be abolished.
 7 Listen to Me, you who know righteousness,
 the people in whose heart is My law;
 do not fear the reproach of men
 nor be afraid of their revilings.
 8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment,
 and the worm shall eat them like wool;
 but My righteousness shall be forever
 and My salvation from generation to generation.
 9 Awake, awake, put on strength,
 O arm of the LORD .
 Awake as in the ancient days,
 in the generations of old.
 Was it not You who cut Rahab to pieces
 and wounded the dragon?
 10 Was it not You who dried up the sea,
 the waters of the great deep,
 who made the depths of the sea a pathway
 for the ransomed to pass over?
 11 Therefore, the redeemed of the LORD shall return and come with singing to Zion,
 and everlasting joy shall be upon their head.
 They shall obtain gladness and joy,
 and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.
 12 I, even I, am He who comforts you.
 Who are you that you should be afraid of a man who shall die,

and of the son of man who shall be made as grass, 13 and forget the LORD your maker
 who has stretched out the heavens
 and laid the foundations of the earth?
 And have feared continually every day
 because of the fury of the oppressor
 as he makes ready to destroy?
 Yet where is the fury of the oppressor?
 14 The exile shall soon be freed,
 and shall not die in the dungeon,
 nor will his bread be lacking.
 15 But I am the LORD your God who divided the sea whose waves roared;
 the LORD of Hosts is His name.
 16 I have put My words in your mouth, and I have covered you in the shadow of My hand
 that I may plant the heavens,
 and lay the foundations of the earth,
 and say to Zion, "You are My people."

The Wrath of God Ceases

17 Awake, awake,
 stand up, O Jerusalem,
 you who have drunk at the hand of the LORD
 the cup of His fury;
 the cup of reeling
 you have drained to the dregs.
 18 There is no one to guide her among all the sons she has brought forth;
 nor is there anyone to take hold of her hand
 of all the sons that she has brought up.
 19 These two things have befallen you;
 who shall be mournful for you?
 Desolation, and destruction, and famine, and
 sword—
 how shall I comfort you?
 20 Your sons have fainted;
 they lie at the head of all the streets
 as an antelope in a net;
 they are full of the fury of the LORD ,
 the rebuke of your God.
 21 Therefore please hear this,
 you afflicted who are drunk but not with wine.
 22 Thus says your Lord, the LORD ,
 and your God who pleads the cause of His people:
 See, I have taken out of your hand
 the cup of reeling,
 even the dregs of the cup of My fury;
 you will never drink it again.
 23 But I will put it into the hand of those who afflict
 you,
 who have said to you,
 "Lie down that we may walk over you."
 And you have laid your back as the ground
 and as the street for those who walk on it.
 52 Awake, awake!
 Put on your strength, O Zion;
 put on your beautiful garments,

O Jerusalem, the holy city,
 For the uncircumcised and the unclean
 will no longer enter you.
² Shake yourself from the dust;
 arise, O captive Jerusalem.
 Loose yourself from the bonds of your neck,
 O captive daughter of Zion.
³ For thus says the LORD :
 You were sold for nothing,
 and you shall be redeemed without money.
⁴ For thus says the Lord GOD :
 My people went down at the first into Egypt to sojourn there;
 then the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.
⁵ Now therefore, what do I have here, says the LORD
 seeing that My people have been taken away for nothing?
 Those who rule over them make them wail,
 says the LORD ,
 and My name is continually blasphemed
 all day long.
⁶ Therefore, My people shall know My name;
 therefore, they shall know in that day
 that I am He who does speak:
 Here I am.
⁷ How beautiful upon the mountains
 are the feet of him who brings good news,
 who proclaims peace,
 who brings good news of happiness,
 who proclaims salvation,
 who says to Zion,
 "Your God reigns!"
⁸ Your watchmen lift up their voices;
 they sing joyfully together;
 for they shall see with their own eyes
 when the LORD brings Zion back.
⁹ Break forth into joy, sing together,
 you waste places of Jerusalem.
 For the LORD has comforted His people;
 He has redeemed Jerusalem.
¹⁰ The LORD has bared His holy arm
 in the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see
 the salvation of our God.
¹¹ Depart, depart, go out from there,
 touch no unclean thing;
 go out of the midst of her; be clean,
 you who bear the vessels of the LORD .
¹² For you shall not go out with haste
 nor go by flight.
 For the LORD will go before you,
 and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

The Suffering Servant

¹³ See, My servant shall deal prudently;
 he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.
¹⁴ Just as many were astonished at you,

his visage was so marred, more than any man,
 and his form more than the sons of men;
¹⁵ so he shall sprinkle many nations.
 Kings shall shut their mouths at him;
 for that which had not been told them they shall see,
 and that which they had not heard they shall consider.

53 Who has believed our report?
 And to whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?
² For he grew up before Him as a tender plant and as a root out of a dry ground.
 He has no form or majesty that we should look upon
 him
 nor appearance that we should desire him.
³ He was despised and rejected of men,
 a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.
 And we hid, as it were, our faces from him;
 he was despised, and we did not esteem him.
⁴ Surely he has borne our grief
 and carried our sorrows;
 Yet we esteemed him stricken,
 smitten of God, and afflicted.
⁵ But he was wounded for our transgressions,
 he was bruised for our iniquities;
 the chastisement of our peace was upon him,
 and by his stripes we are healed.
⁶ All of us like sheep have gone astray;
 each of us has turned to his own way,
 but the LORD has laid on him
 the iniquity of us all.
⁷ He was oppressed, and he was afflicted,
 yet he opened not his mouth;
 he was brought as a lamb to the slaughter,
 and as a sheep before its shearers is silent,
 so he opened not his mouth.
⁸ By oppression and judgment he was taken away,
 and who shall declare his generation?
 For he was cut off out of the land of the living;
 for the transgression of my people he was struck.
⁹ His grave was assigned with the wicked,
 yet with the rich in his death,
 because he had done no violence,
 nor was any deceit in his mouth.
¹⁰ Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; He has put him to grief.
 If he made himself as an offering for sin,
 he shall see his offspring, he shall prolong his days,
 and the good pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.
¹¹ He shall see of the anguish of his soul
 and be satisfied.
 By his knowledge My righteous servant shall justify the many,
 for he shall bear their iniquities.
¹² Therefore, I will divide him a portion with the great,
 and he shall divide the spoil with the strong,
 because he poured out his soul to death,

and he was numbered with the transgressors,
thus he bore the sin of many
and made intercession for the transgressors.

The Covenant of Peace

54 Sing, O barren,
you who did not bear a child.
Break forth into singing and cry aloud,
you who did not travail with child.
For more are the children of the desolate
than the children of the married wife,
says the LORD .
²Enlarge the place of your tent,
and let them stretch out the curtains of your habita-
tions;
spare not,
lengthen your cords,
and strengthen your stakes.
³For you shall spread out to the right hand and to the left,
and your descendants shall inherit the nations
and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.
⁴Do not fear, for you shall not be ashamed nor be humiliated;
for you shall not be put to shame,
for you shall forget the shame of your youth and shall not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore.
⁵For your Maker is your husband,
the LORD of Hosts is His name;
and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel;
He shall be called the God of the whole earth.
⁶For the LORD has called you as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth
when you were refused, says your God.
⁷For a small moment I have forsaken you,
but with great mercies I will gather you.
⁸In a little wrath
I hid My face from you for a moment;
but with everlasting kindness
I will have mercy on you,
says the LORD your Redeemer.
⁹For this is as the waters of Noah to Me;
for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should
no longer cover the earth,
so I have sworn that I would not be wrathful with you nor rebuke you.
¹⁰For the mountains may be removed,
and the hills may shake,
but My kindness shall not depart from you,
nor shall My covenant of peace be removed,
says the LORD who has mercy on you.
¹¹O afflicted one, tossed with tempest and not comforted,
I will lay your stones with fair colors
and lay your foundations with sapphires.
¹²I will make your windows of agates,

and your gates of crystal,
and all your borders of precious stones.
¹³All your sons shall be taught of the LORD ,
and great shall be the peace of your sons.
¹⁴In righteousness you shall be established;
you shall be far from oppression,
for you shall not fear,
and from terror,
for it shall not come near you.
¹⁵Indeed they shall surely assail you fiercely, but not from Me.
Whoever assails you shall fall for your sake.
¹⁶See, I have created the smith
that blows the coals in the fire
and who brings forth an instrument for his work;
and I have created the destroyer in order to cause ruin.
¹⁷No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper,
and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment, you shall condemn.
This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD ,
and their vindication is from Me,
says the LORD .

The Invitation to the Waters

55 Ho! Everyone who thirsts, come to the waters;
and you who have no money,
come, buy and eat.
Come, buy wine and milk
without money and without price.
²Why do you spend money for that which is not bread,
and your labor for that which does not satisfy?
Listen diligently to Me, and eat what is good,
and let your soul delight itself in abundance.
³Incline your ear, and come to Me.
Listen, so that your soul may live,
and I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
even the sure mercies of David.
⁴See, I have given him as a witness to the people,
a leader and commander to the people.
⁵Surely you shall call a nation that you do not know,
and nations that did not know you shall run to you because of the LORD your God, even the Holy One of Israel;
for He has glorified you.
⁶Seek the LORD while He may be found,
call you upon Him while He is near.
⁷Let the wicked forsake his way,
and the unrighteous man his thoughts;
and let him return to the LORD , and He will have mercy upon him,
and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.
⁸For My thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are your ways My ways,
says the LORD .

⁹ For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
 so are My ways higher than your ways,
 and My thoughts than your thoughts.
¹⁰ For as the rain comes down,
 and the snow from heaven,
 and do not return there
 but water the earth
 and make it bring forth and bud that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater,
¹¹ so shall My word be that goes forth from My
 mouth;
 it shall not return to Me void,
 but it shall accomplish that which I please,
 and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.
¹² For you shall go out with joy,
 and be led out with peace;
 the mountains and the hills
 shall break forth into singing before you,
 and all the trees of the field
 shall clap their hands.
¹³ Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree,
 and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree;
 and it shall be to the LORD for a memorial,
 for an everlasting sign
 that shall not be cut off.

Salvation for the Nations

56 Thus says the LORD :
 Preserve justice
 and do righteousness,
 for My salvation is about to come and My righteousness to be revealed.
² Blessed is the man who does this,
 and the son of man who takes hold of it,
 who keeps from polluting the Sabbath
 and keeps his hand from doing any evil.
³ Do not let the son of the foreigner who has joined himself to the LORD speak, saying,
 "The LORD has utterly separated me from His people";
 do not let the eunuch say,
 "I am only a dry tree."
⁴ For thus says the LORD :
 To the eunuchs who keep My Sabbaths,
 and choose the things that please Me,
 and take hold of My covenant,
⁵ to them I will give in My house and within My walls
 a memorial, and a name
 better than that of sons and of daughters;
 I will give them an everlasting name
 that shall not be cut off.
⁶ Also the sons of the foreigner who join themselves
 to the LORD
 to serve Him,
 and to love the name of the LORD ,
 and to be His servants,

to everyone who keeps from polluting the Sabbath
 and takes hold of My covenant, ⁷ even them I will bring to My holy mountain and make them joyful in My house of prayer.
 Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted on My altar;
 for My house shall be called a house of prayer for all people.
⁸ The Lord GOD
 who gathers the outcasts of Israel says,
 Yet I will gather others to them
 besides those who already are gathered to him.

God Accuses the Wicked

⁹ All you beasts of the field,
 all you beasts in the forest, come to devour.
¹⁰ His watchmen are blind;
 they all are ignorant;
 they all are dumb dogs,
 unable to bark;
 sleepers lying down,
 who love to slumber.
¹¹ They are greedy dogs
 which can never have enough,
 and they are shepherds who cannot understand;
 they all turn to their own way,
 every one for his gain, from his territory.
¹² "Come," they say , "let us get wine,
 and let us fill ourselves with strong drink;
 and tomorrow shall be as today,
 only more so."

Israel's Futile Idolatry

57 The righteous man perishes,
 and no man lays it to heart;
 and merciful men are taken away
 while no one understands,
 for the righteous man is taken away from the evil to come.
² He shall enter into peace;
 they shall rest in their beds,
 each one walking in his uprightness.
³ But draw near to here, you sons of a sorceress,
 offspring of an adulterer and prostitute.
⁴ Whom do you mock?
 Against whom do you open wide your mouth
 and stick out your tongue?
 Are you not children of transgression,
 offspring of falsehood,
⁵ inflaming yourselves with idols
 under every green tree,
 slaying the children in the valleys
 under the clefts of the rocks?
⁶ Among the smooth stones of the stream is your portion;
 they are your lot.
 Even to them you have poured out a drink offering;

you have offered a grain offering.
 Should I relent concerning these things?
⁷ On a lofty and high mountain you have set your bed;
 even there you went up to offer sacrifice.
⁸ Behind the doors and the doorposts
 you have set up your memorial;
 far removed from Me, you have uncovered yourself;
 you have enlarged your bed and made a covenant
 with them;
 you have loved their bed,
 you have looked on their nakedness.
⁹ You went to the king with ointment,
 and increased your perfumes,
 and sent your messengers far off,
 and made them go down to Sheol.
¹⁰ You were wearied by the length of your road;
 yet you did not say, "There is no hope."
 You have found renewed strength;
 therefore, you did not faint.
¹¹ Of whom were you afraid or fearful
 when you lied
 and you did not remember Me,
 nor give Me a thought?
 Have I not held My peace for a long time
 so that you do not fear Me?
¹² I will declare your righteousness, and your works,
 yet they shall not profit you.
¹³ When you cry out,
 let your collection of idols deliver you.
 But the wind shall carry them all away,
 a breath shall take them away.
 But he who puts his trust in Me shall possess the land and shall inherit My holy mountain.

Healing for the Contrite

¹⁴ And it shall be said,
 "Build up, build up, prepare the way, take up every stumbling block out of the way of My
 people."
¹⁵ For thus says the High and Lofty One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy:
 I dwell in the high and holy place and also with him who is of a contrite and humble spirit,
 to revive the spirit of the humble,
 and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.
¹⁶ For I will not contend forever,
 nor will I always be angry;
 for the spirit would grow faint before Me,
 and the souls whom I have made.
¹⁷ For the iniquity of his unjust gain I was angry and struck him;
 I hid My face and was wrathful,
 and he went on turning away in the way of his heart.
¹⁸ I have seen his ways but will heal him;

I will lead him and restore comfort to him and to his mourners,
¹⁹ by creating the fruit of the lips.
 Peace, peace to him who is far off and to him who is near,
 says the LORD, and I will heal him.
²⁰ But the wicked are like the troubled sea when it cannot rest,
 whose waters cast up mire and dirt.
²¹ There is no peace, says my God, for the wicked.

The Chosen Fast

58 Cry aloud, do not hold back;
 lift up your voice like a trumpet,
 and show My people their transgression
 and the house of Jacob their sins.
² Yet they seek Me daily and delight to know My ways,
 as a nation that has done righteousness
 and has not forsaken the ordinance of their God.
 They ask Me for the ordinances of justice;
 they take delight in approaching God.
³ "Why have we fasted
 and You do not see?
 Why have we humbled ourselves
 and You take no notice?"
 Certainly, on the day of your fast you find your desire and are exacting on all your laborers.
⁴ Certainly, you fast for strife and debate and to strike with the fist of wickedness.
 You do not fast as you do this day,
 to make your voice to be heard on high.
⁵ Is it such a fast that I have chosen,
 a day for a man to humble himself?
 Is it to bow down his head as a bulrush,
 and to spread out sackcloth and ashes under him?
 Will you call this a fast
 and an acceptable day to the LORD?
⁶ Is not this the fast that I have chosen:
 to loose the bonds of wickedness,
 to undo the heavy burdens,
 and to let the oppressed go free,
 and break every yoke?
⁷ Is it not to divide your bread with the hungry and bring the poor who are outcasts into your house?
 When you see the naked, to cover him
 and not hide yourself from your own flesh?
⁸ Then your light shall break forth as the morning,
 and your healing shall spring forth quickly,
 and your righteousness shall go before you;
 the glory of the LORD shall be your reward.
⁹ Then you shall call, and the LORD shall answer;
 you shall cry, and He shall say, Here I am.
 If you take away the yoke from your midst,
 the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness,
¹⁰ and if you give yourself to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted soul,

then your light shall rise in obscurity,
 and your darkness shall become as the noonday.
¹¹ And the LORD shall guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in drought,
 and strengthen your bones;
 and you shall be like a watered garden,
 and like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail.
¹² Those from among you shall rebuild the old waste
 places;
 you shall raise up the foundations of many generations;
 and you shall be called, the Repairer of the Breach,
 the Restorer of Paths in which to Dwell.
¹³ If because of the Sabbath you turn away your foot
 from doing your pleasure on My holy day,
 and call the Sabbath a delight,
 the holy day of the LORD honorable,
 and honor it, not doing your own ways,
 nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words,
¹⁴ then you shall delight yourself in the LORD , and I will cause you to ride upon the high places of
 the earth,
 and feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father.
 For the mouth of the LORD has spoken it.

The Consequence of Sin

59 Certainly, the hand of the LORD is not so short that it cannot save,
 nor is His ear so dull that it cannot hear.
² But your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God,
 and your sins have hidden His face from you
 so that He will not hear.
³ For your hands are defiled with blood and your fingers with iniquity;
 your lips have spoken lies,
 your tongue has muttered perverseness.
⁴ No one calls for justice,
 nor does anyone plead for truth.
 They trust in vanity and speak lies;
 they conceive mischief and bring forth iniquity.
⁵ They hatch adders' eggs
 and weave the spider's web;
 he who eats of their eggs dies,
 and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper.
⁶ Their webs shall not become garments,
 nor shall they cover themselves with their works;
 their works are works of iniquity,
 and an act of violence is in their hands.
⁷ Their feet run to evil,
 and they make haste to shed innocent blood;
 their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity;
 devastation and destruction are in their paths.
⁸ The way of peace they do not know,
 and there is no justice in their ways;
 they have made their paths crooked;
 whoever walks in them does not know peace.

The Confession of Sin

⁹ Therefore, justice is far from us,
 nor does righteousness overtake us;
 we wait for light, but there is darkness,
 for brightness, but we walk in gloom.
¹⁰ We grope along the wall like the blind,
 and we grope as if we had no eyes;
 we stumble at noonday as in the night;
 among those who are vigorous, we are as dead
 men.
¹¹ We all roar like bears
 and mourn sadly like doves;
 we look for justice, but there is none;
 for salvation, but it is far from us.
¹² For our transgressions are multiplied before You,
 and our sins testify against us;
 for our transgressions are with us.
 And as for our iniquities, we know them:
¹³ transgressing, and lying against the LORD ,
 and departing away from our God,
 speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.
¹⁴ Justice is turned backward,
 and righteousness stands far off;
 for truth is fallen in the street,
 and equity cannot enter.
¹⁵ Truth is lacking,
 and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey.

The Redeemer of Zion

Then the LORD saw it, and it displeased Him
 that there was no justice.
¹⁶ He saw that there was no man
 and was astonished that there was no intercessor;
 therefore, His own arm brought salvation to Him,
 and His righteousness sustained Him.
¹⁷ For He put on righteousness as a breastplate
 and a helmet of salvation on His head;
 He put on the garments of vengeance for clothing
 and was clad with zeal as a cloak.
¹⁸ According to their deeds,
 accordingly He will repay:
 fury to His adversaries,
 recompense to His enemies;
 to the islands He will make recompense.
¹⁹ So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west
 and His glory from the rising of the sun;
 when the enemy shall come in like a flood,
 the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against
 him.
²⁰ The Redeemer shall come to Zion
 and to those who turn from transgression in Jacob,
 says the LORD .

²¹ As for Me, this is My covenant with them, says the LORD: My Spirit who is upon you, and My words which I have put in your mouth shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your descendants, nor out of the mouth of your descendants' descendants, says the LORD, from this time forth and forever.

The Glory of Zion

60 Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.
² For the darkness shall cover the earth and deep darkness the peoples; but the LORD shall rise upon you, and His glory shall be seen upon you.
³ The nations shall come to your light and kings to the brightness of your rising.
⁴ Lift up your eyes all around, and see: They all gather themselves together; they come to you; your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be carried at your side.
⁵ Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and rejoice because the abundance of the sea shall be converted to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you.
⁶ The multitude of camels shall cover your land, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and incense and shall bear good news of the praises of the LORD.
⁷ All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall come up with acceptance on My altar, and I will glorify My glorious house.
⁸ Who are these who fly as a cloud and as the doves to their roosts?
⁹ Surely the coastlands shall wait for Me, and the ships of Tarshish shall come first, to bring your sons from afar, their silver and their gold with them, to the name of the LORD your God and to the Holy One of Israel because He has glorified you.
¹⁰ The sons of foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you; for in My wrath I struck you, but in My favor I have had mercy on you.
¹¹ Therefore, your gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night, so that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations, and that their kings may be brought.
¹² For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish, and those nations shall be utterly destroyed.

¹³ The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of My sanctuary; and I will make the place of My feet glorious.

¹⁴ The sons also of those who afflicted you shall come bowing before you, and all those who despised you shall bow themselves down at the soles of your feet; and they shall call you, The City of the LORD, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
¹⁵ Whereas you have been forsaken and hated so that no man went through you, I will make you an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.
¹⁷ Instead of bronze I will bring gold, and instead of iron I will bring silver; and instead of wood, bronze; and instead of stones, iron. I will also make your officers peace and your exactors righteousness.
¹⁸ Violence shall no more be heard in your land, nor devastation or destruction within your borders; but you shall call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.
¹⁹ The sun shall no longer be your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give light to you; but the LORD shall be an everlasting light to you and your God for your glory.
²⁰ Your sun shall no more go down, nor shall your moon wane; for the LORD shall be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning shall end.
²¹ Then all your people shall be righteous; they shall inherit the land forever, the branch of My planting, the work of My hands, that I may be glorified.
²² A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation. I, the LORD, will hasten it in its time.

The LORD's Favor

61 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me because the LORD has anointed me to preach good news to the poor; He has sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound;
² to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn,
³ to preserve those who mourn in Zion,

to give to them beauty
 for ashes,
 the oil of joy
 for mourning,
 the garment of praise
 for the spirit of heaviness,
 that they might be called trees of righteousness,
 the planting of the LORD,
 that He might be glorified.
⁴ They shall build the old ruins;
 they shall raise up the former desolations,
 and they shall repair the waste cities,
 the desolations of many generations.
⁵ Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.
⁶ But you shall be named the priests of the LORD;
 men shall call you the ministers of our God.
 You shall eat the riches of the nations,
 and in their glory you shall boast.
⁷ Instead of your shame
 you shall have double honor, and instead of humiliation
 they shall rejoice over their portion.
 Therefore, in their land they shall possess a double
 portion;
 everlasting joy shall be theirs.
⁸ For I, the LORD, love justice,
 I hate robbery in the burnt offering;
 and I will faithfully give them their recompense
 and make an everlasting covenant with them.
⁹ Their descendants shall be known among the nations
 and their offspring among the peoples.
 All who see them shall acknowledge them because they are the descendants whom the LORD has blessed.
¹⁰ I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
 my soul shall be joyful in my God;
 for He has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
 He has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
 as a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments,
 and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
¹¹ For as the earth brings forth her buds,
 and as the garden causes the things that are sown
 in it to spring forth,
 so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise
 to spring forth before all the nations.

The Salvation of Zion

62 For the sake of Zion I will not keep silent, and for the sake of Jerusalem I will not rest until her righteousness goes forth as brightness and her salvation as a lamp that burns.
² The nations shall see your righteousness,
 and all kings your glory.
 And you shall be called by a new name,

which the mouth of the LORD shall name.
³ You shall also be a crown of glory in the hand of the
 and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
⁴ You shall no more be termed Forsaken,
 nor shall your land be termed Desolate;
 but you shall be called My Delight Is In Her,
 and your land Married;
 for the LORD delights in you,
 and your land shall be married.
⁵ For as a young man marries a virgin,
 so your sons shall marry you;
 and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
 so your God shall rejoice over you.
⁶ I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem,
 who shall never hold their peace day nor night.
 You who remind the LORD,
 do not keep silent;
⁷ give Him no rest until He establishes and makes Jerusalem a glory in the earth.
⁸ The LORD has sworn by His right hand
 and by His strong arm:
 Surely I will no longer give your grain
 as food for your enemies;
 and the sons of the foreigners shall not drink your wine
 for which you have labored.
⁹ But those who have gathered it shall eat it and praise the LORD;
 and those who have brought it shall drink it
 in the courts of My sanctuary.
¹⁰ Go through, go through the gates.
 Prepare the way of the people;
 build up, build up the highway.
 Remove the stones;
 lift up a standard over the peoples.
¹¹ The LORD has proclaimed to the ends of the earth:
 Say to the daughter of Zion,
 "See, your salvation comes;
 see, His reward is with Him,
 and His recompense before Him."
¹² They shall call them The Holy People,
 the Redeemed of the LORD;
 and you shall be called Sought Out,
 a City Not Forsaken.

The Revenge of God

63 "Who is this who comes from Edom with dyed garments from Bozrah?
 This one who is glorious in His apparel,
 traveling in the greatness of His strength?"
 "It is I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."
² "Why is Your apparel red,
 and Your garments like him who treads in the wine vat?"
³ "I have trodden the winepress alone;

and from the peoples there was no one with Me.
 For I will tread them in My anger,
 and trample them in My fury,
 and their blood shall be sprinkled upon My garments,
 and I will stain all My raiment.
⁴ For the day of vengeance is in My heart,
 and My year of redemption has come.
⁵ I looked and there was no one to help, and I was astonished, and there was no one to uphold;
 therefore, My own arm brought salvation to Me;
 and My fury upheld Me.
⁶ I will tread down the peoples in My anger
 and make them drunk in My fury,
 and I will pour out their lifeblood on the earth."

The Mercy of God Remembered

⁷ I will mention the steadfast love of the LORD and the praises of the LORD,
 according to all that the LORD has bestowed on us,
 and the great goodness toward the house of Israel,
 which He has bestowed on them
 according to His mercy,
 and according to the multitude of His kindnesses.
⁸ For He said, "Surely they are My people, sons who will not lie."
 So He became their Savior.
⁹ In all their affliction He was afflicted,
 and the angel of His presence saved them;
 in His love and in His mercy He redeemed them;
 and He lifted them and carried them
 all the days of old.
¹⁰ But they rebelled
 and grieved His Holy Spirit;
 therefore, He turned Himself to be their enemy,
 and He fought against them.
¹¹ Then His people remembered the days of old,
 of Moses, saying:
 Where is He who brought them up out of the sea
 with the shepherds of His flock?
 Where is He who put
 His Holy Spirit in their midst, ¹² who led them with His glorious arm
 by the right hand of Moses,
 dividing the water before them,
 to make Himself an everlasting name, ¹³ who led them through the deep,
 as a horse in the wilderness,
 that they should not stumble?
¹⁴ As the cattle which go down into the valley,
 the Spirit of the LORD caused them to rest,
 so You led Your people,
 to make Yourself a glorious name.

A Prayer of Penitence

¹⁵ Look down from heaven and see,
 from Your holy and glorious habitation.

Where are Your zeal and Your strength?
 The stirrings of Your heart and Your mercies toward me are restrained.

¹⁶ For You are our Father, though Abraham is ignorant of us
 and Israel does not recognize us.
 You, O LORD, are our Father, our Redeemer;
 Your name is from everlasting.
¹⁷ O LORD, why have You made us to err from Your ways
 and hardened our heart from fearing You?
 Return for Your servants' sake,
 the tribes of Your inheritance.
¹⁸ Your holy people possessed Your sanctuary for a little while;
 our adversaries have trodden it down.
¹⁹ We have become
 as those over whom You have never ruled,
 as those who were not called by Your name.

64 Oh, that You would rend the heavens and come down,
 that the mountains might shake at Your presence, ² as when the melting fire burns,
 as the fire causes the waters to boil,
 to make Your name known to Your adversaries,
 that the nations may tremble at Your presence!
³ When You did awesome things for which we did not look,
 You came down; the mountains quaked at Your presence.
⁴ For since the beginning of the world men have not heard,
 nor perceived by ear,
 neither has the eye seen a God besides You,
 who acts for the one who waits for Him.
⁵ You meet him who rejoices in doing righteousness,
 those who remember You in Your ways.
 Indeed, You were angry, for we had sinned;
 in our sins we remained a long time,
 and shall we be saved?
⁶ But we all are as an unclean thing,
 and all our righteousness is as filthy rags;
 and we all fade as a leaf,
 and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.
⁷ There is no one who calls on Your name,
 who stirs up himself to take hold of You;
 for You have hidden Your face from us
 and have consumed us because of our iniquities.
⁸ But now, O LORD, You are our Father;
 we are the clay, and You are our potter;
 and we all are the work of Your hand.
⁹ Do not be wrathful beyond measure, O LORD, nor remember iniquity forever;
 look upon us, we pray,
 we all are Your people.
¹⁰ Your holy cities are a wilderness;
 Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

¹¹ Our holy and beautiful house where our fathers praised You
is burned up with fire;
and all our precious things are laid waste.
¹² Will You refrain Yourself from these things, O LORD
Will You hold Your peace and afflict us beyond measure?

Judgment and Salvation

65 I was sought by those who did not ask for Me;
I was found of those who did not seek Me.
I said, "Here I am, here I am,"
to a nation that did not call on My name.
² I have spread out My hands all day
to a rebellious people who walk in a way that was not good,
after their own thoughts;
³ a people who provoke Me continually
to My face,
presenting sacrifices in gardens and burning incense on altars of brick; ⁴ who sit among the graves
and lodge in the monuments;
who eat swine's flesh,
and the broth of abominable things is in their vessels;
⁵ who say, "Stand by yourself; do not come near to
me,
for I am holier than you!"
These are smoke in My nose,
a fire that burns all day.
⁶ See, it is written before Me:
I will not keep silent, but I will recompense,
even recompense into their bosom,
⁷ your iniquities and the iniquities of your fathers together,
says the LORD;
because they have burned incense on the mountains and blasphemed Me on the hills, therefore, I will measure their former work into their bosom.
⁸ Thus says the LORD:
As the new wine is found in the cluster,
and one says, "Do not destroy it for a blessing is in it,"
so I will do for the sake of My servants
that I may not destroy them all.
⁹ I will bring forth descendants from Jacob,
and out of Judah an inheritor of My mountains;
and My chosen ones shall inherit it,
and My servants shall dwell there.
¹⁰ Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the Valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in,
for My people who seek Me.
¹¹ But you are those who forsake the LORD,
who forget My holy mountain,

who prepare a table for Fortune,
and who furnish the drink offering for Destiny.
¹² I will destine you for the sword,
and you all shall bow down to the slaughter;
because when I called, you did not answer;
when I spoke, you did not hear
but did evil before My eyes
and chose that in which I did not delight.
¹³ Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD:
My servants shall eat,
but you shall be hungry;
My servants shall drink,
but you shall be thirsty;
My servants shall rejoice,
but you shall be ashamed;
¹⁴ My servants shall sing for joy with a glad heart,
but you shall cry
with a heavy heart
and shall wail with grief of spirit.
¹⁵ You shall leave your name for a curse to My chosen ones;
for the Lord GOD shall slay you,
but My servants shall be called by another name;
¹⁶ because he who is blessed in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth;
and he who swears in the earth
shall swear by the God of truth;
because the former troubles are forgotten
and because they are hidden from My eyes.

The New Creation

¹⁷ For I create
new heavens and a new earth;
the former things shall not be remembered
or come to mind.
¹⁸ But be glad and rejoice forever
in that which I create;
for I create Jerusalem for rejoicing
and her people for joy.
¹⁹ I will rejoice in Jerusalem and be glad in My people;
and the voice of weeping shall no longer be heard in
her,
nor the voice of crying.
²⁰ There shall no longer be an infant who lives only a few days
nor an old man who has not filled out his days.
For the child shall die
a hundred years old,
but the sinner being a hundred years old
shall be accursed.
²¹ They shall build houses and inhabit them;
and they shall plant vineyards and eat the fruit of
them.
²² They shall not build and another inhabit;
they shall not plant and another eat;
for as the days of a tree

are the days of My people, and My chosen ones shall long enjoy
the work of their hands.
²³ They shall not labor in vain
nor bring forth children for trouble;
for they are the descendants of the blessed of the LORD
and their offspring with them.
²⁴ Before they call, I will answer;
and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.
²⁵ The wolf and the lamb shall feed together,
and the lion shall eat straw like the bull,
and dust shall be the serpent's food.
They shall not hurt nor destroy
in all My holy mountain,
says the LORD.

True Worship

66 Thus says the LORD :
Heaven is My throne,
and the earth is My footstool.
Where then is the house that you could build for Me?
And where is the place of My rest?
² For My hand made all those things,
thus all those things have come to be,
says the LORD .
But to this man I will look,
even to him who is poor and of a contrite spirit,
and trembles at My word.
³ He who kills a bull
is as if he kills a man;
he who sacrifices a lamb,
as if he breaks a dog's neck;
he who offers a grain offering,
as if he offers swine's blood;
he who burns incense,
as if he blesses an idol.
They have chosen their own ways,
and their soul delights in their abominations;
⁴ I also will choose their punishments
and will bring their fears on them,
because when I called, no one answered;
when I spoke, they did not listen;
but they did evil before My eyes
and chose that in which I did not delight.

The Vindication of Zion

⁵ Hear the word of the LORD ,
you who tremble at His word:
Your brothers who hate you,
who cast you out for My name's sake, said,
"Let the LORD be glorified that we may see your joy."
Yet they shall be ashamed.
⁶ A voice of noise from the city,
a voice from the temple,
the voice of the LORD

who renders recompense to His enemies.
⁷ Before she was in labor,
she gave birth;
before her pain came,
she delivered a son.
⁸ Who has heard such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day?
Shall a nation be born at once?
For as soon as Zion was in labor,
she brought forth her sons.
⁹ Shall I bring to the point of birth and not cause delivery? says the LORD .
Shall I who cause delivery
shut the womb ? says your God.
¹⁰ Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad for her,
all you who love her;
rejoice exceedingly with her,
all you who mourn for her,
¹¹ that you may feed and be satisfied with her consoling breasts,
that you may feed
and be delighted with the abundance of her bosom.
¹² For thus says the LORD :
I will extend peace to her like a river
and the glory of the nations like a flowing stream.
Then you shall nurse, you shall be carried on her sides,
and dandled on her knees.
¹³ As one whom his mother comforts,
so I will comfort you;
and you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

God's Reign and Final Judgment

¹⁴ Then you shall see this, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb;
and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward His servants,
and His indignation toward His enemies.
¹⁵ For the LORD shall come with fire and with His chariots like a whirlwind, to render His anger with fury
and His rebuke with flames of fire.
¹⁶ For by fire and by His sword on all flesh,
the LORD shall execute judgment;
and the slain of the LORD shall be many.
¹⁷ Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and abominable things, and mice shall be consumed together, says the LORD .
¹⁸ For I know their works and their thoughts. The time shall come to gather all nations and tongues. And they shall come and see My glory.
¹⁹ I will set a sign among them, and send from them survivors to the nations: to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud—who draw the bow—to Tubal, and Javan, to the coastlands afar off who have not heard My fame nor seen My glory. And they shall declare My glory among the nations. ²⁰ They shall bring all your brothers out of all nations as an offering to the LORD on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on swift beasts to My holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD , as the sons of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD . ²¹ I will also take some of them for priests and for Levites, says the LORD .

²² For as the new heavens and the new earth which I will make shall remain before Me, says the LORD , so shall your descendants and your name remain.

²³ From one New Moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, all flesh shall come to worship before Me, says the LORD . ²⁴ And they shall go forth and look on the corpses of the men who have transgressed against Me. For their worm shall not die, nor shall their fire be quenched. And they shall be an abhorrence to all flesh.

JEREMIAH

The book of Jeremiah announces the warning and judgment of Judah regarding the Babylonians. The prophet Jeremiah is the author, and it was probably written between 630 and 580 BC. Jeremiah lived in Judah during his early years of prophetic ministry, but later he was taken to Egypt, where he probably remained until his death. Jeremiah is often called the “weeping prophet” because of his sorrow over the continual messages of God’s judgment to the nation of Judah, starting with the reign of King Josiah in 627 BC and continuing until sometime after the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 BC. He prophesied of the seventy years of captivity in Babylon. However, Jeremiah also declared God’s desire for repentance and righteousness regarding individuals and nations. Jeremiah was called not only “to root out and to pull down” but also “to build and to plant.” He prophesied of a future day when God would write His law on human hearts.

The Commission of Jeremiah

1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, ² to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. ³ It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the captivity of Jerusalem in the fifth month.

⁴ Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

⁵ “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you; and before you were born I sanctified you, and I ordained you a prophet to the nations.”

⁶ Then I said, “Ah, Lord GOD! Truly, I cannot speak, for I am a youth.”

⁷ But the LORD said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am a youth.’ For you shall go everywhere that I send you, and whatever I command you, you shall speak. ⁸ Do not be afraid of their faces. For I am with you to deliver you,” says the LORD.

⁹ Then the LORD put forth His hand and touched my mouth. And the LORD said to me, “Now, I have put My words in your mouth. ¹⁰ See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out and to pull down, to destroy and to throw down, to build and to plant.”

The Almond Rod and Boiling Pot

¹¹ Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, “Jeremiah, what do you see?”

And I said, “I see a branch of an almond tree.”

¹² Then the LORD said to me, “You have seen well. For I will hasten My word to perform it.”

¹³ The word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, “What do you see?”

And I said, “I see a boiling pot, and it is facing away from the north.”

¹⁴ Then the LORD said to me: Out of the north calamity will break forth on all the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁵ For I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, says the LORD.

And they will come and they will set each one his throne

at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls all around, and against all the cities of Judah.

¹⁶ I will utter My judgments against them concerning all their wickedness, whereby they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods, and have worshipped the works of their own hands.

¹⁷ You therefore gird up your loins and arise, and speak to them all that I command you. Do not be dismayed at their faces, lest I confound you before them.

¹⁸ For indeed, I have made you this day a fortified city and an iron pillar and bronze walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the officials, against the priests, and against the people of the land.

¹⁹ They will fight against you, but they will not prevail against you, for I am with you, says the LORD, to deliver you.

God Pleads With Israel to Repent

2 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ² Go and proclaim in the ears of Jerusalem, saying,

Thus says the LORD:

I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your espousals, when you followed Me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

³ Israel is holy to the LORD, and the first fruits of His harvest.

All who eat of it will become guilty; disaster will come upon them, says the LORD.

4 Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob and all the families of the house of Israel.
 5 Thus says the LORD:
 What iniquity have your fathers found in Me, that they have gone far from Me, and have walked after vanity and have become vain?
 6 They did not say, "Where is the LORD who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through and where no man lived?"
 7 And I brought you into a plentiful country to eat its fruit and its goodness. But when you entered, you defiled My land and made My heritage an abomination.
 8 The priests did not say, "Where is the LORD?" And those who handle the law did not know Me; the shepherds also transgressed against Me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal and walked after things that do not profit.
 9 Therefore I will yet contend with you, says the LORD, and with your sons' sons I will contend.
 10 For pass over the coastlands of Cyprus and see, and send to Kedar and consider diligently, and see if there is such a thing.
 11 Has a nation changed their gods, though they are not gods? But My people have changed their glory for that which does not profit.
 12 Be astonished at this, O heavens, and be horribly afraid, be very desolate, says the LORD.
 13 For My people have committed two evils. They have forsaken Me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed out for themselves cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.
 14 Is Israel a servant? Is he a homeborn slave? Why has he been plundered?
 15 The young lions roared at him and roared loudly, and they made his land a waste; his cities have been destroyed, without inhabitant.
 16 Also the men of Memphis and Tahpanhes have shaved the crown of your head.
 17 Have you not brought this on yourself, in that you have forsaken the LORD your God when He led you in the way?
 18 And now what are you doing in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of the Nile? Or what are you doing in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the River?

19 Your own wickedness will correct you, and your backslidings will reprove you. Know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter for you to have forsaken the LORD your God, and the fear of Me is not in you, says the Lord GOD of Hosts.
 20 For long ago I have broken your yoke and burst your bonds; and you said, "I will not serve." For upon every high hill and under every green tree you wander, playing the harlot.
 21 Yet I had planted you a noble vine, a wholly faithful seed. How then have you turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine to Me?
 22 For though you wash yourself with lye, and take much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before Me, says the Lord GOD.
 23 How can you say, "I am not polluted, I have not gone after the Baals"? See your way in the valley. Know what you have done. You are a swift young camel entangling her ways, 24 a wild donkey used to the wilderness that sniffs the wind in her passion. In the time of her heat, who can turn her away? All those who seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.
 25 Withhold your foot from being unshod and your throat from thirst. But you said, "There is no hope. No! For I have loved strangers, and after them I will go."
 26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed. They, their kings, their officials, and their priests, and their prophets
 27 say to a tree, "You are my father." And to a stone, "You gave birth to me." For they have turned their back to Me, and not their face. But in the time of their trouble they will say, "Arise and save us."
 28 But where are your gods that you have made for yourself? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble; for according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah.
 29 Why will you plead with Me? You all have transgressed against Me, says the LORD.
 30 In vain I have smitten your children; they received no correction.

Your own sword has devoured your prophets like a destroying lion.

³¹ O generation, consider the word of the LORD :
Have I been a wilderness to Israel?
A land of darkness?

Why do My people say, "We are free to roam.
We will come no more to You"?

³² Can a virgin forget her ornaments,
or a bride her attire?

Yet My people have forgotten Me
for days without number.

³³ You prepare your way very well to seek love.

Therefore you have also taught the wicked women
your ways.

³⁴ Also in your skirts is found
the blood of the souls of the innocent poor.
I have not found it by breaking in,
but in spite of all these things.

³⁵ Yet you say, "Because I am innocent, surely His anger shall turn away from me."

Now I will plead with you, because you say, "I have not sinned."

³⁶ Why do you go about so much to change your way?

You also shall be ashamed of Egypt,
as you were ashamed of Assyria.

³⁷ Indeed, you shall go forth from him
with your hands upon your head;
for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust,
and you shall not prosper in them.

Unfaithful Israel

3 If a man divorces his wife,
and she goes from him and becomes another man's,

shall he return to her again?
Shall not that land be greatly polluted?
But you have played the harlot with many lovers;
yet return again to Me,
says the LORD .

² Lift up your eyes to the high places,
and see! Where have you not been ravished?
In the roads you have sat for them
as the Arabian in the wilderness.

And you have polluted the land
with your harlotry and with your wickedness.

³ Therefore the showers have been withheld,
and there has been no latter rain.

And you had a harlot's forehead;
you refused to be ashamed.

⁴ Shall you not from this time cry to Me,
"My Father, You are the guide of my youth?"

⁵ Shall He reserve His anger forever?
Shall He keep it to the end?"

Indeed, you have spoken and done evil things as you could.

A Call to Repentance

⁶ The LORD said also to me in the days of Josiah the king: Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the harlot. ⁷ I said after she had done all these things, "Turn to Me." But she did not return. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. ⁸ I saw that for all the adulteries of backsliding Israel, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce. Yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but went and played the harlot also. ⁹ Through the lightness of her harlotry she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and with trees. ¹⁰ Yet for all this, her treacherous sister Judah has not turned to Me with her whole heart, but feignedly, says the LORD .

God Invites Repentance

¹¹ The LORD said to me: Backsliding Israel has proved herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. ¹² Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say:

Return, backsliding Israel, says the LORD ,
and I will not cause My anger to fall on you.

For I am merciful, says the LORD ,
and I will not keep anger forever.

¹³ Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against the LORD your God

and have scattered your ways to the strangers
under every green tree,

and you have not obeyed My voice,
says the LORD .

¹⁴ Return, O backsliding sons, says the LORD . For I am married to you. And I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

¹⁵ And I will give you shepherds according to My heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶ It shall come to pass when you are multiplied and increased in the land in those days, says the LORD , they will say no more, "The ark of the covenant of the LORD ." And it will not come to mind, nor will they remember it, nor will they call for it, nor will it be made any more. ¹⁷ At that time they will call Jerusalem, the Throne of the LORD , and all the nations will be gathered to it, to Jerusalem, for the name of the LORD ; nor will they walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil hearts. ¹⁸ In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel, and they will come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given to your fathers for an inheritance.

¹⁹ But I said:

How can I put you among My sons
and give you a pleasant land,
the most beautiful heritage of the nations?

And I said: You shall call Me, My Father,

and shall not turn away from Me.

²⁰ Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so you have dealt treacherously with Me, O house of Israel,
says the LORD .

²¹ A voice was heard upon the high places,
the weeping and the supplications of the sons of Israel,
because they have perverted their way,
they have forgotten the LORD their God.

²² Return, O backsliding sons,
and I will heal your backslidings.

"We come to You;
for You are the LORD our God.

²³ Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills,
and from the multitude of mountains.
Truly, in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.

²⁴ For shame has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth,
their flocks and their herds,
their sons and their daughters.

²⁵ We lie down in our shame,
and our humiliation covers us.
For we have sinned against the LORD our God,
we and our fathers,
from our youth even to this day,
and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God."

Judah Threatened With Invasion

4 If you will return, O Israel,
says the LORD ,
return to Me.
And if you will put away your abominations out of My sight,
then you shall not be moved.

² You shall swear, "As the LORD lives,"
in truth, in justice, and in righteousness;
then the nations shall bless themselves in Him,
and in Him they shall glory.

³ For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem:

Break up your fallow ground,
and do not sow among thorns.

⁴ Circumcise yourselves to the LORD ,
and take away the foreskins of your heart,
you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem,
lest My fury come forth like fire,
and burn so that no one can quench it,
because of the evil of your deeds.

⁵ Declare in Judah and publish in Jerusalem, and say:
Blow the trumpet in the land.

Cry aloud and say,
"Assemble yourselves,
and let us go into the fortified cities."

⁶ Set up the standard toward Zion.

Seek refuge, do not delay.

For I will bring disaster from the north,
and a great destruction.

⁷ The lion has come up from his thicket,
and the destroyer of the nations is on his way.
He has gone forth from his place
to make your land desolate.

And your cities shall be laid waste
without an inhabitant.

⁸ For this gird yourself with sackcloth,
lament and howl.

For the fierce anger of the LORD
is not turned back from us.

⁹ It shall come to pass in that day, says the LORD , that the heart of the king will fail and the heart of the officials;
and the priests will be astonished
and the prophets will wonder.

¹⁰ Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD ! Surely You have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'You shall have peace,' whereas the sword reaches the throat."

¹¹ At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of My people, not to fan or to cleanse, ¹² even a full wind from those places, will come to Me. Now also I will pronounce judgments against them.

¹³ Look! He shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind.
His horses are swifter than eagles.

Woe to us, for we are ruined!

¹⁴ O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness,
that you may be saved.

How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you?

¹⁵ For a voice declares from Dan,
and publishes wickedness from Mount Ephraim:

¹⁶ "Report it to the nations, now!"

Indeed, proclaim against Jerusalem:
"Besiegers come from a far country,
and lift their voices against the cities of Judah.

¹⁷ As watchmen of a field, they are against her all around,

because she has been rebellious against Me,
says the LORD .

¹⁸ Your way and your deeds
have procured these things to you.

This is your wickedness.

How bitter it is!

How it touches your heart!"

Sorrow for a Doomed Nation

¹⁹ My soul, my soul!

I am pained at my very heart.

My heart makes a noise in me.

I cannot hold my peace,

because you have heard, O my soul,
the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

²⁰ Destruction upon destruction is proclaimed,
for the whole land is devastated.
Suddenly are my tents devastated,
and my curtains in a moment.

²¹ How long shall I see the standard and hear the sound of the trumpet?

²² "For My people are foolish,
they have not known Me.
They are foolish children,
and they have no understanding.
They are wise to do evil,
but to do good they have no knowledge."

²³ I looked on the earth,
and it was without form and void.
And to the heavens,
and they had no light.

²⁴ I looked on the mountains,
and they trembled,
and all the hills moved to and fro.

²⁵ I looked, and there was no man,
and all the birds of the heavens had fled.

²⁶ I looked, and the fruitful place was a wilderness,
and all the cities were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by His fierce
anger.

²⁷ For thus says the LORD :
The whole land shall be desolate.
Yet I will not make a full end.
²⁸ For this the earth shall mourn,
and the heavens above be black,
because I have spoken it, I have purposed it,
and will not relent, nor will I turn back from it.

²⁹ The whole city shall flee
for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen.
They shall go into thickets
and climb up upon the rocks.
Every city shall be forsaken,
and not a man dwell in it.

³⁰ When you are devastated, what will you do?
Though you clothe yourself with crimson,
though you deck yourself with ornaments of gold,
though you enlarge your eyes with paint,
in vain you will make yourself fair.
Your lovers will despise you;
they will seek your life.

³¹ For I have heard a voice as of a woman in labor, and the anguish as of her who brings forth her first child,
the voice of the daughter of Zion,
that bewails herself, that spreads her hands, saying,
"Ah, woe is me,
for my soul is wearied because of murderers."

The Justice of God's Judgment

5 Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, see now and know;
seek in the open places
if you can find a man,

if there is any who executes justice, who seeks the
truth,
that I may pardon her.

² Though they say, "The LORD lives," surely they swear falsely.

³ O LORD, are not Your eyes upon the truth?
You have stricken them, but they have not grieved.
You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction.

They have made their faces harder than a rock;
they have refused to return.

⁴ Therefore I said, "Surely these are the poor.
They are foolish;
for they know not the way of the LORD
or the judgment of their God."

⁵ I will go to the great men
and will speak to them,
for they have known the way of the LORD
and the judgment of their God."

But these have altogether broken the yoke
and burst the bonds.

⁶ Therefore a lion out of the forest will slay them,
and a wolf from the deserts will destroy them;
a leopard will watch over their cities.

Everyone who goes out from there will be torn in
pieces,
because their transgressions are many
and their backslidings have increased.

⁷ How shall I pardon you for this?
Your children have forsaken Me
and sworn by those who are not gods.

When I had fed them to the full,
then they committed adultery
and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

⁸ They were as fed horses in the morning;
everyone neighed after his neighbor's wife.

⁹ Shall I not punish for these things? says the LORD, and shall not My soul be avenged on such a nation
as this?

¹⁰ Go up upon her walls and destroy,
but make not a full end.
Take away her battlements.

For they are not the LORD's.
¹¹ For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against Me,
says the LORD.

¹² They have lied about the LORD,
and said, "Not He.
Neither shall evil come upon us,
nor shall we see sword or famine."

¹³ And the prophets shall become wind,
and the word is not in them.
Thus it shall be done to them!

¹⁴ Therefore thus says the LORD God of Hosts:
Because you speak this word,
indeed I will make My words in your mouth fire
and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

¹⁵ Truly, I will bring a nation upon you from far,
 O house of Israel, says the LORD .
 It is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation,
 a nation whose language you do not know,
 nor do you understand what they say.
¹⁶ Their quiver is as an open sepulcher,
 they all are mighty men.
¹⁷ They will eat up your harvest and your bread which your sons and your daughters should eat.
 They will eat up your flocks and your herds;
 they will eat up your vines and your fig trees;
 they will impoverish your fenced cities,
 in which you trusted, with the sword.
¹⁸ Nevertheless in those days, says the LORD , I will not make a full end of you. ¹⁹ It shall come to pass
 when they say, "Why does the LORD our God do all these things to us?" then you shall answer them, "As you have forsaken Me and served strange gods in your land, so you will serve strangers in a land that is not yours."
²⁰ Declare this in the house of Jacob and publish it in Judah, saying:
²¹ Hear this now, O foolish people and without understanding,
 who have eyes but do not see,
 who have ears but do not hear.
²² Do you not fear Me? says the LORD .
 Will you not tremble at My presence?
 For I have placed the sand for the boundary of the sea
 by a perpetual decree so that it cannot pass over it.
 And though the waves toss themselves, yet they cannot prevail;
 though they roar, yet they cannot pass over it.
²³ But this people has a revolting and a rebellious
 heart;
 they have revolted and gone aside.
²⁴ They do not say in their heart,
 "Let us now fear the LORD our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season.
 He reserves for us the appointed weeks of the harvest."
²⁵ Your iniquities have turned away these things,
 and your sins have withheld good things from you.
²⁶ For among My people are found wicked men.
 They lie in wait, as he who sets snares;
 they set a trap, they catch men.
²⁷ As a cage is full of birds,
 so are their houses full of deceit.
 Therefore they have become great and rich.
²⁸ They are fat, they are sleek.
 Indeed, they excel in deeds of wickedness.
 They do not judge the cause of the fatherless, so that they may prosper;
 and the right of the needy they do not defend.
²⁹ Shall I not punish them for these things?
 says the LORD .

Shall not My soul be avenged
 on such a nation as this?
³⁰ An appalling and horrible thing has been committed in the land.
³¹ The prophets prophesy falsely,
 and the priests rule by their own authority;
 and My people love to have it so.
 Yet what will you do in the end?

Siege of Jerusalem

⁶ O sons of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee from the midst of Jerusalem,
 and blow the trumpet in Tekoa,
 and set up a sign of fire in Beth Hakkerem;
 for disaster appears out of the north,
 and great destruction.
² I have likened the daughter of Zion
 to a comely and delicate woman.
³ The shepherds with their flocks will come to her.
 They will pitch their tents against her all around.
 They will pasture each in his place.
⁴ "Prepare war against her;
 arise, and let us go up at noon."
 "Woe to us, for the day declines,
 for the shadows of the evening are stretched out."
⁵ "Arise, and let us go by night and let us destroy her palaces."
⁶ For thus says the LORD of Hosts:
 Hew down trees
 and build a mound against Jerusalem.
 This is the city to be punished.
 She is full of oppression in her midst.
⁷ As a fountain casts out her waters,
 so she casts out her wickedness.
 Violence and devastation are heard in her;
 before Me continually are grief and wounds.
⁸ Be instructed, O Jerusalem, lest My soul depart from you;
 lest I make you desolate,
 a land not inhabited.
⁹ Thus says the LORD of Hosts:
 They will thoroughly glean
 the remnant of Israel as a vine.
 Turn back your hand
 as a grape gatherer into the baskets.
¹⁰ To whom shall I speak and give warning that they may hear?
 See, their ears are closed,
 and they cannot listen.
 Indeed, the word of the LORD is a reproach to them;
 they have no delight in it.
¹¹ Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD ;
 I am weary with holding in.
 I will pour it out upon the children in the street
 and upon the assembly of young men together;
 for even the husband with the wife shall be taken,
 the aged with him who is full of days.
¹² Their houses shall be turned to others,

with their fields and wives together;
 for I will stretch out My hand
 upon the inhabitants of the land,
 says the LORD .

¹³ For from the least of them even to the greatest of them,
 everyone is given to covetousness.
 And from the prophet even to the priest,
 everyone deals falsely.

¹⁴ They have healed also the brokenness
 of the daughter of My people superficially,
 saying, "Peace, peace,"
 when there is no peace.

¹⁵ Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?
 They were not at all ashamed,
 nor could they blush.
 Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
 at the time that I punish them they shall be cast
 down,
 says the LORD .

¹⁶ Thus says the LORD
 Stand in the ways and see,
 and ask for the old paths
 where the good way is and walk in it,
 and you shall find rest for your souls.
 But they said, "We will not walk in it."

¹⁷ Also I set watchmen over you, saying,
 "Listen to the sound of the trumpet."
 But they said, "We will not listen."

¹⁸ Therefore hear, O nations, and know, O congregation,
 what is among them.

¹⁹ Hear, O earth.
 I will bring calamity on this people,
 even the fruit of their thoughts,
 because they have not listened to My words,
 nor to My law, but rejected it.

²⁰ To what purpose does incense from Sheba come to Me,
 and the sweet cane from a far country?
 Your burnt offerings are not acceptable,
 nor are your sacrifices sweet to Me.

²¹ Therefore thus says the LORD :
 See, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people,
 and the fathers and the sons together will fall upon
 them.
 The neighbor and his friend will perish.

²² Thus says the LORD :
 See, a people comes from the north country,
 and a great nation will be raised
 from the remote parts of the earth.

²³ They will lay hold on bow and spear;
 they are cruel and have no mercy.
 Their voice roars like the sea,
 and they ride upon horses,
 set in array as men for war against you, O daughter of Zion.

²⁴ "We have heard the report of it;
 our hands grow feeble.
 Anguish has taken hold of us,
 and pain as of a woman in labor.
²⁵ Do not go out into the field,
 nor walk on the road.
 For the sword of the enemy
 and terror is on every side."
²⁶ O daughter of my people, gird yourself with sackcloth
 and wallow in ashes.
 Mourn as for an only son,
 a most bitter lamentation;
 for the destroyer
 shall suddenly come upon us.
²⁷ I have set you as an assayer and fortress among My people that you may know
 and try their way.
²⁸ They all are stubborn rebels
 walking about practicing slander.
 They are bronze and iron;
 they all are corrupters.
²⁹ The bellows blow fiercely,
 the lead is consumed by the fire;
 the founder melts in vain,
 for the wicked are not plucked away.
³⁰ Men will call them rejected silver,
 because the LORD has rejected them.

False Trust in the Temple

7 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD , saying: ² Stand in the gate of the house of the LORD and proclaim there this word:
 Hear the word of the LORD , all you of Judah, who enter at these gates to worship the LORD . ³ Thus says
 the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Amend your ways and your deeds, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. ⁴ Do not trust in lying words, saying, "The temple of the LORD , the temple of the LORD , the temple of the LORD ." ⁵ For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your deeds, if you thoroughly execute justice between a man and his neighbor, ⁶ if you do not oppress the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, or walk after other gods to your harm, ⁷ then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, forever and ever. ⁸ Indeed, you trust in lying words that cannot profit.
⁹ Shall you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods whom you do not know, ¹⁰ and come and stand before Me in this house, which is called by My name, and say, "We are delivered," so that you may do all these abominations? ¹¹ Has this house, which is called by My name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Certainly, even I have seen it, says the LORD .

¹² But go now to My place which was in Shiloh, where I set My name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of My people Israel. ¹³ And now, because you have done all these works, says the LORD, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear, and I called you, but you did not answer, ¹⁴ therefore I will do to this house, which is called by My name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. ¹⁵ I will cast you out of My sight as I have cast out all your brothers, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

¹⁶ As for you, do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry nor prayer for them, nor make intercession to Me, for I will not hear you. ¹⁷ Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

¹⁸ The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke Me to anger. ¹⁹ Do they provoke Me to anger? says the LORD. Do they not provoke themselves to the shame of their own faces?

²⁰ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: My anger and My fury will be poured out upon this place, upon man and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

²³ But this thing I commanded them, saying, "Obey My voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people. And walk in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well with you." ²⁴ But they did not listen, nor incline their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward and not forward. ²⁵ Since the day that your fathers came out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have even sent to you all My servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them. ²⁶ Yet they did not listen to Me, nor incline their ear, but hardened their neck. They did worse than their fathers.

²⁷ Therefore you will speak all these words to them. But they will not listen to you. You will also call to them, but they will not answer you. ²⁸ You shall say to them: This is a nation that does not obey the voice of the LORD their God, nor receive correction. Truth has perished, and has been cut off from their mouth.

²⁹ Cut off your hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath.

³⁰ For the sons of Judah have done evil in My sight, says the LORD. They have set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to pollute it.

³¹ They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I did not command them, nor did it come into My heart. ³² Therefore, truly the days are coming, says the LORD, that it will no more be called Topheth, nor the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter; for they will bury in Topheth because there is no other place. ³³ The corpses of this people shall be food for the fowl of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth; and no one will frighten them away. ³⁴ Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem the voice of laughter and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become desolate.

8 At that time, says the LORD, they will bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his officials, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem out of their graves. ² And they will spread them before the sun and the moon and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped. They will not be gathered, nor be buried. They will be as dung upon the face of the earth. ³ Death will be chosen rather than life by all the rest of those who remain of this evil family, which remains in all the places wherever I have driven them, says the LORD of Hosts.

Sin and Judgment

⁴ Moreover you shall say to them, Thus says the LORD: Do men fall and not arise?

Do they turn away and not repent?

⁵ Why then is this people of Jerusalem turned away by a perpetual backsliding? They hold fast to deceit; they refuse to return.

⁶ I listened and heard, but they did not speak what is right.

No man repented of his wickedness, saying, "What have I done?"

Everyone turned to his course, as the horse rushes into the battle.

⁷ Indeed, the stork in the sky knows her appointed times.

And the turtledove and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming.

But My people do not know the judgment of the LORD.

⁸ How do you say, "We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us"? Certainly the lying pen of the scribes has made it into a lie.

⁹ The wise men are ashamed; they are dismayed and caught.

Indeed, they have rejected the word of the LORD, and what kind of wisdom do they have?

¹⁰ Therefore I will give their wives to others,
and their fields to those who shall inherit them.
For everyone from the least even to the greatest
is given to covetousness;
from the prophet even to the priest
everyone deals falsely.

¹¹ For they have healed the brokenness
of the daughter of My people superficially,
saying, "Peace, peace,"
when there is no peace.

¹² Were they ashamed when they had committed
abomination?

They were not at all ashamed,
nor could they blush.
Therefore they will fall among those who fall;
in the time of their punishment they will be cast
down,

says the LORD.

¹³ I will surely consume them,
says the LORD.

There will be no grapes on the vine
nor figs on the fig tree,
and the leaf shall fade;
and the things that I have given them
will pass away from them.

¹⁴ Why do we sit still?

Assemble yourselves,
and let us enter the fortified cities
and let us perish there.

For the LORD our God has doomed us
and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

¹⁵ We looked for peace,
but no good came;
and for a time of health,
but there was trouble!

¹⁶ The snorting of his horses
was heard from Dan;
the whole land trembled
at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones.

For they have come and have devoured
the land and all that is in it,
the city, and those who dwell in it.

¹⁷ See, I will send serpents against you,
adders, which will not be charmed,
and they will bite you,
declares the LORD.

Jeremiah Mourns for His People

¹⁸ My sorrow is beyond healing;
my heart is faint within me.

¹⁹ Listen! The cry of the daughter of my people from a far country:

"Is not the LORD in Zion?
Is not her king in her?"

"Why have they provoked Me to anger with their graven images,
with foreign vanities?"

²⁰ "The harvest is past,
the summer is ended,
and we are not saved."

²¹ For the brokenness of the daughter of my people
am I broken;

I mourn; dismay has taken hold of me.

²² Is there no balm in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Why then has not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

Failures of Judah

9 Oh, that my head were waters
and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night
for the slain of the daughter of my people!

² Oh, that I had in the wilderness
a lodging place of wayfaring men, that I might leave my people
and go from them!

For they all are adulterers,
an assembly of treacherous men.

³ They bend their tongues like their bow;
lies and not truth prevail upon the land;
for they proceed from evil to evil,
and they do not know Me,
says the LORD.

⁴ Let everyone be on guard against his neighbor,
and do not trust in any brother;
for every brother supplants,
and every neighbor walks about with slanders.

⁵ Everyone deceives his neighbor
and does not speak the truth.
They have taught their tongue to speak lies;
they weary themselves in committing iniquity.

⁶ Your habitation is in the midst of deceit;
through deceit they refuse to know Me,
says the LORD.

⁷ Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts:
Now, I will refine them and assay them;
for what else shall I do
for the daughter of My people?

⁸ Their tongue is a deadly arrow;
it speaks deceit.

One speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his
mouth,
but in his heart he lies in wait.

⁹ Shall I not punish them for these things?
says the LORD.

Shall not My soul be avenged
on such a nation as this?

¹⁰ For the mountains I will take up a weeping and wailing,
and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up so that no one can pass through them;
nor can men hear the lowing of the cattle.

Both the fowl of the heavens and the beast have fled; they are gone.

¹¹ I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins and a den of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

¹² Who is the wise man who may understand this? And who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? Why is the land ruined and burned up like a wilderness, so that no one passes through?

¹³ And the LORD said: Because they have forsaken My law which I set before them, and have not obeyed My voice, nor walked in it, ¹⁴ but have walked after the imagination of their own heart and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them. ¹⁵ Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood and give them water of gall to drink. ¹⁶ I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. And I will send a sword after them until I have consumed them.

¹⁷ Thus says the LORD of Hosts:

Consider and call for the mourning women, that they may come;

and send for wailing women, that they may come.

¹⁸ And let them make haste and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears and our eyelids gush out with waters.

¹⁹ For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, "How devastated we are!

We are greatly humiliated, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out."

²⁰ Yet hear the word of the LORD, O you women, and let your ear receive the word of His mouth; and teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbor a lamentation.

²¹ "For death has come up into our windows; and has entered our palaces, to cut off the children from the streets, and the young men from the squares."

²² Speak, Thus says the LORD:

"The carcasses of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the sheaf after the harvester, and no one shall gather them."

²³ Thus says the LORD:

Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, and let not the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches;

²⁴ but let him who glories glory in this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am the LORD who exercises lovingkindness, justice, and righteousness in the earth.

For in these things I delight, says the LORD.

²⁵ The days are surely coming, says the LORD, that I will punish all who are circumcised and yet uncircumcised— ²⁶ Egypt, Judah, Edom, the children of Ammon, Moab, and all who dwell in the wilderness who clip the hair on their temples; for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised of heart.

The True God and Idols

Jer 51:15-19

10 Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, O house of Israel. ² Thus says the LORD:

Do not learn the way of the nations; do not be terrified at the signs of heaven, although the nations are terrified at them.

³ For the customs of the people are vain; for with the axe one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman.

⁴ They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers so that it may not move.

⁵ They are as a scarecrow in a cucumber field, but do not speak; they must be carried, because they cannot walk.

Do not be afraid of them, for they cannot do evil, nor can they do good.

⁶ There is no one like You, O LORD. You are great, and Your name is great in might.

⁷ Who would not fear You, O King of the nations? Indeed, it is Your due.

For among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is no one like You.

⁸ But they are altogether unthinking and foolish; the tree is a doctrine of vanities.

⁹ Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman and of the hands of the founder;

blue and purple are their clothing; they all are the work of skilled men.

¹⁰ But the LORD is the true God; He is the living God and an everlasting King. At His wrath the earth trembles, and the nations cannot endure His indignation.

¹¹ Thus you shall say to them: The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth and from under these heavens.

¹² He has made the earth by His power. He has established the world by His wisdom and has stretched out the heavens by His discretion.

¹³ When He utters His voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and He causes the vapors to ascend from the remote parts of the earth;

 He makes lightning with rain,
 and brings out the wind from His storehouses.
¹⁴ Every man is stupid, without knowledge;
 every goldsmith is put to shame by an idol;
 for his molded image is false,
 and there is no breath in them.
¹⁵ They are vain and a work of mockery;
 in the time of their punishment they shall perish.
¹⁶ The portion of Jacob is not like them,
 for He is the Maker of all things,
 and Israel is the rod of His inheritance.
 The LORD of Hosts is His name.

The Exile Prophesied

¹⁷ Gather up your wares out of the land,
 O inhabitant of the fortress.
¹⁸ For thus says the LORD :
 I will sling out
 the inhabitants of the land at this time,
 and will distress them
 that they may be found.
¹⁹ Woe is me because of my brokenness!
 My wound is grievous.
 But I said,
 "Truly this is an illness, and I must bear it."
²⁰ My tabernacle is devastated,
 and all my cords are broken.
 My sons have gone from me and are no more.
 There is no one to spread my tent anymore,
 and to set up my curtains.
²¹ For the shepherds have become unthinking and have not sought the LORD .
 Therefore they have not prospered,
 and all their flocks are scattered.
²² Listen! The sound of the report has come,
 and a great commotion out of the north country,
 to make the cities of Judah desolate
 and a den of jackals.

The Prayer of Jeremiah

²³ O LORD , I know that the way of man is not in himself;
 it is not in man who walks to direct his steps.
²⁴ O LORD , correct me, but with justice,
 not in Your anger,
 lest You bring me to nothing.
²⁵ Pour out Your fury upon the nations that do not know You and upon the families that do not call on Your name;
 for they have eaten up Jacob
 and devoured him, and consumed him,
 and have made his habitation desolate.

The Broken Covenant

¹¹ The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD , saying: ² Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³ And say you to them, Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant, ⁴ which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey My voice, and do according to all which I command you. So you shall be My people, and I will be your God, ⁵ that I may perform the oath which I have sworn to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day.

Then I answered and said, "So be it, O LORD ."

⁶ Then the LORD said to me: Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: saying, Hear the words of this covenant, and do them. ⁷ For I earnestly warned your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and warning, saying, Obey My voice. ⁸ Yet they did not obey or incline their ear, but everyone walked in the imagination of their evil heart. Therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but which they did not do.

⁹ The LORD said to me: A conspiracy has been found among the men of Judah and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers who refused to hear My words. And they have gone after other gods to serve them. The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers. ¹¹ Therefore thus says the LORD , Surely, I will bring calamity upon them which they will not be able to escape. And though they cry to Me, I will not listen to them. ¹² Then the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry to the gods to whom they offer incense. But they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. ¹³ For according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah. And according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem you have set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.

¹⁴ Therefore do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry or prayer for them. For I will not hear them in the time that they cry to Me because of their trouble.

¹⁵ What right has My beloved in My house,
 seeing that she has done many lewd deeds?
 Can the sacrificial meat take away from you your disaster,

so that you can rejoice while doing evil?

¹⁶ The LORD called your name,
 "A green olive tree, fair in fruit and form."
 With the noise of a great tumult
 He has kindled fire upon it,
 and its branches are broken.

¹⁷ For the LORD of Hosts, who planted you, has pronounced disaster against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke Me to anger in offering incense to Baal.

Jeremiah's Life Threatened

¹⁸ The LORD has made it known to me and I knew it; then You showed me their deeds. ¹⁹ But I was like a gentle lamb that is brought to the slaughter, and I did not know that they had devised plots against me, saying,

"Let us destroy the tree with the fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living
so that his name may be remembered no more."

²⁰ But, O LORD of Hosts, who judges righteously, who tries the feelings and the heart,
let me see Your vengeance on them,
for to You I have revealed my cause.

²¹ Therefore thus says the LORD of the men of Anathoth who seek your life, saying, "Do not prophesy in the name of the LORD so that you not die by our hand." ²² Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts: I will punish them. The young men shall die by the sword. Their sons and their daughters shall die by famine. ²³ And there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring calamity upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their punishment.

Jeremiah's Plea

12 Righteous are You, O LORD, that I plead with You.
Indeed, let me talk with You about matters of justice.
Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why are all those happy who deal very treacherously?

² You have planted them; indeed, they have taken root;
they grow; indeed, they bring forth fruit.
You are near in their mouth,
but far from their mind.

³ But You, O LORD, know me;
You have seen me and tested my heart toward You.
Pull them out like sheep for the slaughter,
and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

⁴ How long shall the land mourn
and the herbs of every field wither?
For the wickedness of those who dwell in it,
the beasts and the birds have been snatched away,
because they said,
"He will not see our latter end."

God Answers Jeremiah

⁵ If you have run with the footmen,
and they have wearied you,
then how can you contend with horses?

And if in the land of peace in which you trusted, they wearied you, then how will you do in the thicket of the Jordan?

⁶ For even your brothers and the household of your father,

even they have dealt treacherously with you.

Indeed, they have cried aloud after you.

Do not believe them

though they speak fair words to you.

⁷ I have forsaken My house,

I have abandoned My heritage;

I have given the dearly beloved of My soul into the hand of her enemies.

⁸ My heritage is to Me

as a lion in the forest.

She cries out against Me;

therefore I have hated her.

⁹ My heritage is to Me

as a speckled vulture;

the vultures all around are against her.

Come, assemble all the beasts of the field,
bring them to devour.

¹⁰ Many shepherds have destroyed My vineyard;

they have trodden My portion under foot;

they have made My pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

¹¹ They have made it desolate,

and being desolate, it mourns to Me.

The whole land has been made desolate,
because no man lays it to heart.

¹² The destroyers have come upon all high places through the wilderness,

for the sword of the LORD shall devour

from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land.

No one shall have peace.

¹³ They have sown wheat, but reap thorns;

they have strained themselves, but shall not profit.

And they shall be ashamed of your harvest

because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

¹⁴ Thus says the LORD: Against all My evil neighbors who touch the inheritance which I have caused My people Israel to inherit, I will pluck them out of their land and pluck out the house of Judah from among them. ¹⁵ It shall come to pass that after I have plucked them out, I will again have compassion on them, and will bring them back, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. ¹⁶ It shall come to pass if they will diligently learn the ways of My people, to swear by My name, "As the LORD lives," as they taught My people to swear by Baal, then they will be built up in the midst of My people. ¹⁷ But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, says the LORD.

A Linen Sash

13 Thus says the LORD to me, "Go and buy yourself a linen waistband and put it upon your loins, and do not put it in water." ² So I bought a waistband according to the word of the LORD and put it on my loins.

³The word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, ⁴“Take the waistband that you have, which is upon your loins, and arise, go to the Euphrates and hide it there in a hole of the rock.” ⁵So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD had commanded me.

⁶After many days the LORD said to me, “Arise, go to the Euphrates and take the waistband from there, which I commanded you to hide there.” ⁷Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the waistband from the place where I had hidden it. But the waistband was destroyed. It was profitable for nothing.

⁸Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁹Thus says the LORD: After this manner I will destroy the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰This evil people, who refuse to hear My words, who walk in the imagination of their hearts, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall be even as this waistband which is good for nothing. ¹¹For as the waistband cleaves to the loins of a man, so I have caused the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to cleave to Me, says the LORD, so that they might be to Me a people for renown, and for a praise, and for a glory; but they would not listen.

The Metaphor of Wine Bottles

¹²Therefore you shall speak to them this word: Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Every bottle shall be filled with wine. And when they say to you, “Do we not certainly know that every bottle should be filled with wine?” ¹³then you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD: I will fill all the inhabitants of this land—even the kings that sit on the throne of David, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—with drunkenness. ¹⁴I will dash them against one another, even the fathers and the sons together, says the LORD. I will not show pity nor spare nor have mercy, but will destroy them.

Exile Threatened

¹⁵Hear and give heed;
do not be proud,
for the LORD has spoken.

¹⁶Give glory to the LORD your God,
before He causes darkness and before your feet stumble
on the dark mountains,
and while you look for light,
He turns it into the shadow of death
and makes it gross darkness.

¹⁷But if you will not listen to it,
my soul will weep in secret places
for your pride;
and my eyes will weep sorely
and run down with tears,
because the flock of the Lord is carried away captive.

¹⁸Say to the king and to the queen mother:
“Humble yourselves, sit down,
for your beautiful crown
shall come down from your head.”

¹⁹The cities of the Negev will be shut up,
and no one will open them;
all Judah will be carried away into captivity;
it will be wholly carried away captive.

²⁰Lift up your eyes and see those who come from the north.
Where is the flock that was given to you,
your beautiful flock?

²¹What will you say when He appoints over you those you yourself had taught to be companions to
you?

Shall not sorrows take hold of you,
as a woman in labor?

²²And if you say in your heart,
“Why have these things come upon me?”
for the greatness of your iniquity your skirts have been removed and your heels made bare.

²³Can the Ethiopian change his skin
or the leopard his spots?

Then you also can do good,
who are accustomed to doing evil.

²⁴Therefore I will scatter them as the stubble
that passes away by the wind of the wilderness.

²⁵This is your lot,
the portion of your measures from Me,
says the LORD,
because you have forgotten Me
and trusted in falsehood.

²⁶Therefore I Myself have uncovered your skirts over your face
so that your shame may appear.

²⁷I have seen your adulteries and your lustful neigh-
ings,

the lewdness of your harlotry,
and your abominations
on the hills in the fields.

Woe to you, O Jerusalem!
How long will you remain unclean?

Drought, Famine, and Sword

14 The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah concerning the drought:

²Judah mourns,
and the gates languish;
they sit on the ground while mourning,
and the cry of Jerusalem has gone up.

³Their nobles have sent their servants for water;
they came to the cisterns and found no water.

They returned with their vessels empty;
they were ashamed and humiliated,
and covered their heads.

⁴Because the ground is chapped,
for there was no rain in the earth,

the plowmen were ashamed;
 they have covered their heads.
⁵ Indeed, the hind also calved in the field and abandoned her young
 because there was no grass.
⁶ The wild donkeys stand in the high places;
 they pant for air like jackals;
 their eyes fail
 because there is no grass.
⁷ O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us,
 do it for Your name's sake.
 Indeed, our backslidings are many;
 we have sinned against You.
⁸ O the Hope of Israel,
 its Savior in time of trouble,
 why should You be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to pitch his tent for a night?
⁹ Why should You be as a man dismayed,
 as a mighty man who cannot save?
 Yet You, O LORD, are in our midst,
 and we are called by Your name.
 Do not forsake us!
¹⁰ Thus says the LORD to this people:
 Even so they have loved to wander;
 they have not restrained their feet.
 Therefore, the LORD does not accept them;
 He will now remember their iniquity
 and punish their sins.
¹¹ Then the LORD said to me: Do not pray for the good of this people. ¹² When they fast, I will not hear their cry. And when they offer a burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them. But I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

False Prophets

¹³ Yet I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Here the prophets say to them, 'You shall not see the sword nor shall you have famine, but I will give you assured peace in this place.'" ¹⁴ Then the LORD said to me: The prophets prophesy lies in My name. I have not sent them nor have I commanded them nor have I spoken to them. They prophesy to you a false vision and divination, and emptiness, and the deceit of their heart. ¹⁵ Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy
 in My name though I did not send them, yet they say,
 "Sword and famine will not be in this land." By sword and famine those prophets will be consumed. ¹⁶ The people to whom they prophesy will be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword. And they will have no one to bury them, not them, nor their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters. For I will pour out their wickedness upon them.
¹⁷ Therefore you will say this word to them:
 Let my eyes run down with tears
 night and day, and let them not cease;
 for the virgin daughter of my people

has been broken with a great blow,
 with a very infected wound.
¹⁸ If I go out into the field,
 I see those slain with the sword!
 And if I enter the city,
 I see those who are sick with famine!
 Indeed, both the prophet and the priest
 go about into a land that they do not know.

The People Ask for Mercy

¹⁹ Have You utterly rejected Judah?
 Has Your soul loathed Zion?
 Why have You stricken us
 so that there is no healing for us?
 We looked for peace,
 but there was nothing good;
 and for the time of healing,
 but there is trouble!
²⁰ We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness
 and the iniquity of our fathers,
 for we have sinned against You.
²¹ Do not abhor us. For Your name's sake, do not disgrace Your glorious throne.
 Remember and do not break
 Your covenant with us.
²² Are there any among the idols of the nations that can cause rain?
 Or can the heavens give showers?
 Is it not You, O LORD our God?
 Therefore, we will wait upon You,
 for You have done all these things.

The LORD Will Not Relent

15 Then the LORD said to me: Even though Moses and Samuel were to stand before Me, yet My heart would not be with this people. Cast them out of My sight and let them go! ² It shall come to pass if they say to you, "Where should we go?" then you shall tell them: Thus says the LORD :
 Those destined for death, to death;
 and those destined for the sword, to the sword;
 and those destined for the famine, to the famine;
 and those destined for the captivity, to the captivity.
³ I will appoint over them four kinds of disaster, says
 the LORD : the sword to slay, the dogs to tear, the birds of the heaven, the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy. ⁴ I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.
⁵ For who shall have pity on you, O Jerusalem?
 Or who shall bemoan you?
 Or who shall go aside to ask how you are doing?
⁶ You who have forsaken Me, says the LORD ,
 you keep going backward.
 Therefore I will stretch out My hand against you and destroy you.

I am weary of relenting!
⁷ I will winnow them with a winnowing fork
 in the gates of the land;
 I will bereave them of children. I will destroy My people, since they did not repent from their ways.
⁸ Their widows will increase before Me
 more than the sand of the seas;
 I will bring against them, against the mother of a young man,
 a destroyer at noonday;
 I will suddenly bring down on her sorrow and terrors.
⁹ She who has borne seven sons languishes;
 she has given up the spirit;
 her sun has gone down while it was yet day;
 she has been ashamed and humiliated.
 And the rest of them I will deliver to the sword
 before their enemies,
 says the LORD .

Jeremiah's Sorrow

¹⁰ Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me as a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth!
 I have not lent with usury, nor have men lent to me
 on usury,
 yet every one of them curses me!
¹¹ The LORD said:
 Truly I will set you free for good purposes.
 Truly I will cause the enemy to entreat you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.
¹² Can anyone break the northern iron or the bronze?
¹³ Your wealth and your treasures
 I will give to the destroyer without price,
 and that for all your sins,
 even within all your borders.
¹⁴ I will make you to pass with your enemies into a land which you do not know;
 for a fire is kindled in My anger,
 which shall burn upon you.
¹⁵ O LORD , You who know, remember me,
 and take notice of me,
 and take vengeance on my persecutors.
 Because of your longsuffering, do not take me away.
 Know that for Your sake I have suffered rebuke.
¹⁶ Your words were found and I ate them.
 And Your word became to me the joy and rejoicing
 of my heart,
 for I am called by Your name,
 O LORD God of Hosts.
¹⁷ I did not sit in the assembly of mockers,
 nor did I rejoice;
 I sat alone because of Your hand,
 for You have filled me with indignation.
¹⁸ Why is my pain perpetual and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed?

 Shall You be altogether to me as a deceptive stream
 and as waters that fail?

The LORD Reassures Jeremiah

¹⁹ Therefore thus says the LORD :
 If you return, then I will bring you back,
 and you shall stand before Me;
 and if you take out the precious from the worthless,
 you will be My spokesman.
 Let them return to you,
 but do not return to them.
²⁰ I will make you to this people
 a fortified bronze wall;
 and they shall fight against you,
 but they shall not prevail against you;
 for I am with you
 to save you and to deliver you,
 says the LORD .
²¹ I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the violent.

The Day of Disaster

¹⁶ The word of the LORD came also to me, saying:
² You shall not take a wife, nor shall you have sons or daughters in this place. ³ For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who fathered them in this land: ⁴ They will die of deadly diseases. They will not be lamented, nor shall they be buried. But they will be as dung upon the face of the ground. And they will be consumed by the sword and by famine. And their carcasses will be food for the fowl of heaven and for the beasts of the earth.
⁵ For thus says the LORD : Do not enter a house of mourning, nor go to lament or bemoan them; for I have taken away My peace from this people, says the LORD , even lovingkindness and mercy. ⁶ Both the great and the small will die in this land. They will not be buried; neither will men lament for them, cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them. ⁷ Neither will men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; nor will men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.
⁸ Also you shall not go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. ⁹ For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days,
 the voice of laughter and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.
¹⁰ And when you tell this people all these words, and they say to you, "Why has the LORD pronounced all this great disaster against us? Or what is our iniquity?
 Or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?" ¹¹ then you shall say to them: Because your fathers have forsaken Me, says the LORD, and have walked after other gods and have served them and have worshipped them, but have forsaken Me and have not kept My law. ¹² And you have done worse than your fathers, for here you are, each one walking after the imaginations of his evil heart so that they do not listen to Me. ¹³ Therefore I will cast you out of this land into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers; and there you will serve other gods day and night because I will not show you favor.

God Will Restore Israel

¹⁴ Therefore, surely the days are coming, says the LORD, that it will no longer be said, "As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt," ¹⁵ but, "As the LORD lives, who brought up the sons of Israel from the land of the north and from all the lands wherever He had driven them." And I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers.

¹⁶ Now, I will send for many fishermen, says the LORD, and they shall fish for them; and afterwards I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them from every mountain and from every hill and out of the holes of the rocks. ¹⁷ For My eyes are upon all their ways; they are not hidden from My face, nor is their iniquity hidden from My eyes. ¹⁸ First I will doubly recompense their iniquity and their sin, because they have defiled My land; they have filled My inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things.

¹⁹ O LORD, my strength and my fortress,
and my refuge in the day of affliction,
the nations will come to You
from the remote parts of the earth, and will say:
Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity,
and things in which there is no profit.

²⁰ Shall a man make gods for himself,
which are not gods?

²¹ "Therefore, surely I will this once cause them to know,

I will cause them to know
My hand and My might;
and they shall know that My name is the LORD."

Judah's Sin and Punishment

17 The sin of Judah is written with an iron pen
and with a diamond point;
it is engraved on the tablet of their heart
and on the horns of their altars;
² as they remember their children,
so they remember their altars
and their groves by the green trees on the high hills.
³ O My mountain in the field,

I will give your wealth
and all your treasures to the destroyer, and your high places
for sin throughout all your borders.
⁴ You, even yourself, will discontinue from your heritage that I gave you;
and I will cause you to serve your enemies
in the land which you do not know;
for you have kindled a fire in My anger
which will burn forever.

⁵ Thus says the LORD :
Cursed is the man who trusts in man
and makes flesh his strength,
and whose heart departs from the LORD .
⁶ For he will be like a bush in the desert and will not see when good comes,
but will inhabit the parched places in the wilderness,
in a salt land and not inhabited.

⁷ Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD ,
and whose hope is the LORD .

⁸ For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters,
and that spreads out its roots by the river,
and shall not fear when heat comes,
but its leaf shall be green,
and it shall not be anxious in the year of drought,
neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

⁹ The heart is more deceitful than all things and desperately wicked;
who can understand it?

¹⁰ I, the LORD , search the heart,
I test the mind,
even to give to every man according to his ways,
and according to the fruit of his deeds.

¹¹ As the partridge sits on eggs which it has not laid,
so is he who gets riches, but not justly;
it will forsake him in the midst of his days,
and in the end he will be a fool.

¹² A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

¹³ O LORD , the Hope of Israel,
all who forsake You will be ashamed.

"Those who depart from Me in the earth will be written down,
because they have forsaken the LORD ,
the fountain of living waters."

Jeremiah Prays for Deliverance

¹⁴ Heal me, O LORD , and I will be healed;
save me, and I will be saved,
for You are my praise.

¹⁵ See how they say to me,
"Where is the word of the LORD ?
Let it come now!"

¹⁶ As for me, I have not hurried away from being a shepherd after You, nor have I desired the woeful day;
You Yourself know that which came out of my lips
was in Your presence.

¹⁷ Do not be a terror to me;
 You are my hope in the day of disaster.
¹⁸ Let those who persecute me be humiliated,
 but let me not be humiliated;
 let them be dismayed,
 but let me not be dismayed.
 Bring upon them the day of evil,
 and destroy them with double destruction.

Keep the Sabbath Day Holy

¹⁹ Thus the LORD said to me: Go and stand in the gate of the sons of the people whereby the kings of Judah come in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem. ²⁰ And say to them: Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, and all Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem who enter by these gates. ²¹ Thus says the LORD: Take heed to yourselves, and do not bear any load on the Sabbath day nor bring anything in by the gates of Jerusalem. ²² You shall not carry a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day, nor do any work, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers. ²³ But they did not obey or incline their ears, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear nor receive instruction. ²⁴ It shall come to pass, if you diligently listen to Me, says the LORD, to bring in no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but sanctify the Sabbath day to do no work in it, ²⁵ then there shall enter by the gates of this city kings and officials sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their officials, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And this city will be inhabited forever. ²⁶ They will come from the cities of Judah and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and grain offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise to the house of the LORD. ²⁷ But if you will not listen to Me to sanctify the Sabbath day and not to bear a load, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle a fire in the gates and it will devour the palaces of Jerusalem and it will not be quenched.

The Potter and the Clay

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying: ² "Arise and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words." ³ Then I went down to the potter's house, and there he was making something on the wheel. ⁴ Yet the vessel that he made of clay was spoiled in the hand of the potter; so he made it again into another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. ⁵ Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ⁶ O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter? says the LORD. As the clay is in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel. ⁷ At one moment I may speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it. ⁸ If that nation against which I have spoken turns from its evil, I will relent of the disaster that I thought to do to it. ⁹ Or at another moment I may speak concerning a nation and concerning a kingdom to build and to plant it. ¹⁰ If it does evil in My sight by not obeying My voice, then I will relent of the good with which I said I would bless it.

¹¹ Now therefore speak to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: Thus says the LORD: Look, I am shaping disaster against you and devising a plan against you. Repent now, everyone from his evil way, and make your ways and your deeds good. ¹² But they say, "There is no hope! But we will walk after our own devices, and each of us will do according to the stubbornness of his evil heart."

¹³ Therefore thus says the LORD:
 Ask now among the nations,
 who has heard such things?
 The virgin of Israel
 has done a very horrible thing.
¹⁴ Shall a man leave the snow of Lebanon,
 which comes from the rock of the field?
 Shall the cold flowing water that comes from another place be forsaken?

¹⁵ Because My people have forgotten Me,
 they have burned incense to vain gods and they have stumbled in their ways
 from the ancient paths,
 to walk in bypaths,
 not on a highway,
¹⁶ to make their land desolate,
 and a perpetual hissing;
 everyone who passes by shall be astonished
 and shake his head.
¹⁷ I will scatter them before the enemy
 as with an east wind;
 I will show them the back and not the face
 in the day of their calamity.

Jeremiah Persecuted

¹⁸ Then they said, "Come and let us devise plans against Jeremiah. For the law will not be lost from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words."

¹⁹ Give heed to me, O LORD, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me.

²⁰ Shall evil be recompensed for good?
 For they have dug a pit for my soul.
 Remember that I stood before You
 to speak good for them,
 and to turn away Your wrath from them.

²¹ Therefore, deliver up their children to the famine and pour out their blood by the power of the sword;

and let their wives be bereaved of their children and become widows and let their men be put to death;

let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

²² Let a cry be heard from their houses,

when You bring a troop suddenly upon them;

for they have dug a pit to take me and hidden snares for my feet.

²³ Yet, LORD, You know

all their counsel against me to slay me.

Do not forgive their iniquity

nor blot out their sin from Your sight;

but let them be overthrown before You;

deal thus with them in the time of Your anger.

The Broken Jar

19 Thus says the LORD: Go and buy a potter's earthen bottle, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the elders of the priests.

² Then go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, which is by the entry of the Potsherd Gate, and proclaim there the words that I will tell you, ³ and say: Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: I will bring such disaster upon this place, at which whoever hears of it, his ears shall tingle. ⁴ Because they have forsaken Me and have profaned this place by making offerings in it to other gods whom neither they, their fathers, nor the kings of Judah have known, and have filled this place with the blood of the innocent, ⁵ and have built the high places of Baal to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Baal, which I did not command or decree, nor did it come into My mind— ⁶ therefore, surely the days are coming, says the LORD, when this place shall no more be called Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

⁷ I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of those who seek their lives. And their corpses I will give to be food for the fowl of the heaven and for the beasts of the earth. ⁸ I will make this city desolate and a hissing. Everyone who passes by will be astonished and hiss because of all the wounds. ⁹ I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and everyone will eat the flesh of his friend in the siege and distress, with which their enemies and those who seek their lives will distress them.

¹⁰ Then you will break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with you, ¹¹ and say to them: Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel that cannot be made whole again; and they will bury them in Topheth until there is no other place to bury. ¹² Thus I will do to this place and to the inhabitants, says the LORD, and even make this city as Topheth. ¹³ And the houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be defiled as the place of Topheth, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven and have poured out drink offerings to other gods.

¹⁴ Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy. And he stood in the court of the house of the LORD and said to all the people: ¹⁵ Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: I am about to bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the disaster that I have pronounced against it, because they have stiffened their necks so that they might not heed My words.

Pashhur Strikes Jeremiah

20 Now Pashhur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things. ² Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet and put him in the stocks that were in the upper Gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD. ³ On the next day Pashhur brought Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, The LORD has not called your name Pashhur, but "Magor-missabib." ⁴ For thus says the LORD: I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. And they will fall by the sword of their enemies while your eyes will see it. Thus I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will carry them captive into Babylon and will slay them with the sword. ⁵ Moreover I will deliver all the wealth of this city, and all its produce, and all the precious things; and all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies who will destroy them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. ⁶ You, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house will go into captivity; and you will come to Babylon, and there you will die and will be buried there, you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied lies.

Jeremiah Dejected

⁷ O LORD, You have deceived me and I was deceived; You are stronger than I and have prevailed.

I am held in derision daily; everyone mocks me.

⁸ For each time I speak, I cry out;

I cry out, "Violence and devastation," because to me the word of the LORD has resulted in reproach and derision daily.

⁹ But if I say, "I will not make mention of Him nor speak any more in His name,"

then His word was in my heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones; and I was weary of forbearing it, and I could not endure it.

¹⁰ For I heard the defaming of many, "Terror on every side!

Denounce him. Yes, denounce him!"

† Or a Terror on Every Side.

All my familiar friends
 who watch for my fall, say,
 "Perhaps he will be enticed
 so that we can prevail against him,
 and we will take our revenge on him."
¹¹ But the LORD is with me as a dread mighty One.
 Therefore my persecutors will stumble, and will not prevail.
 They will be greatly ashamed, for they will not prosper.
 Their everlasting shame will never be forgotten.
¹² But, O LORD of Hosts, who tests the righteous and sees the mind and the heart,
 let me see Your vengeance on them,
 for to You I have presented my cause.
¹³ Sing to the LORD ,
 praise the LORD .
 For He has delivered the soul of the poor
 from the hand of evildoers.
¹⁴ Cursed be the day in which I was born.
 Let not the day be blessed in which my mother bore me.
¹⁵ Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, "A baby boy has been born to you!"
 and made him very glad.
¹⁶ Let that man be as the cities
 which the LORD overthrew and did not relent, and let him hear the cry in the morning
 and the shout of alarm at noon, ¹⁷ because he did not kill me from the womb,
 so that my mother might have been my grave,
 and her womb be always pregnant.
¹⁸ Why did I come forth from the womb
 to see trouble and sorrow,
 so that my days are spent in shame?

Zedekiah's Request Denied

21 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malkijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maa-seiah the priest, saying, ² "Please inquire of the LORD for us. For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon is making war against us. Perhaps the LORD will deal with us according to all His wondrous works, so that the enemy withdraws from us."

³ Then Jeremiah said to them: Thus you shall say to Zedekiah: ⁴ Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands with which you fight against the king of Babylon and against the Chaldeans who besiege you outside the walls; and I will assemble them into the midst of this city. ⁵ I Myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. ⁶ I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast; they will die of a great pestilence. ⁷ Afterwards, says the LORD , I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah and his servants and the people and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life. And he will strike them with the edge of the sword. He will not spare them or have pity or mercy.

⁸ To this people you shall say: Thus says the LORD : See, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death. ⁹ He who abides in this city will die by the sword and by the famine and by the pestilence. But he who goes out and falls away to the Chaldeans who besiege you, he will live, and he will have his own life as booty. ¹⁰ For I have set My face against this city for disaster and not for good, says the LORD . It will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.

Message to the House of David

¹¹ Concerning the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear the word of the LORD , ¹² O house of David; thus says the LORD :

Execute justice each morning,
 and deliver him who has been robbed
 from the hand of the oppressor, lest My fury go out like fire
 and burn so that no one can quench it,
 because of the evil of your deeds.

¹³ See, I am against you,
 O inhabitant of the valley,
 O rocky plain,
 says the LORD ,

you men who say,
 "Who shall come down against us?
 Or who shall enter our dwellings?"

¹⁴ But I will punish you according to the fruit of your deeds,
 says the LORD ,
 and I will kindle a fire in the forest,
 and it will devour all things around it.

Impending Judgment

22 Thus says the LORD : Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak this word there, ² and say: Hear the word of the LORD , O king of Judah who sits on the throne of David, you and your servants and your people who enter by these gates. ³ Thus says the LORD : Execute justice and righteousness, and deliver the robbed out of the hand of the oppressor. And do no wrong or violence to the stranger, the fatherless, or the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴ For if you indeed do these things, then kings sitting on the throne of David will enter by the gates of this house, riding in chariots and on horses, he and his servants and his people. ⁵ But if you will not obey these words, I swear by Myself, says the LORD , that this house will become a desolation.

⁶ For thus says the LORD to the king's house of Judah:

You are Gilead to Me,
and the peak of Lebanon;
yet surely I will make you a wilderness
and cities which are not inhabited.

⁷ I will prepare destroyers against you,
everyone with his weapons;
and they shall cut down your choice cedars
and cast them into the fire.

⁸ Many nations will pass by this city, and every man will say to his neighbor, "Why has the LORD done thus to this great city?" ⁹ Then they will answer, "Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them."

¹⁰ Do not weep for the dead nor bemoan him,
but weep constantly for him who goes away;
for he will return no more nor see his native country.

¹¹ For thus says the LORD concerning Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, who became king instead of Josiah his father, who went from this place: He will not return any more, ¹² but will die in the place where they have led him captive and will see this land no more.

¹³ Woe to him who builds his house with unrighteousness and his chambers with injustice,

who uses his neighbor's services without wages,
and gives him nothing for his work,

¹⁴ who says, "I will build myself a roomy house and large chambers,"
and cuts out its windows, paneling it with cedar
and painting it with vermilion.

¹⁵ Do you reign
because you compete in cedar?
Did not your father eat and drink and do justice and righteousness,
and then it was well with him?

¹⁶ He judged the cause of the poor and needy;
then it was well with him.

Is not this what it means to know Me?
says the LORD.

¹⁷ But your eyes and your heart are intent only on your covetousness
and on shedding innocent blood
and on oppression and violence.

¹⁸ Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim
the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

They will not lament for him, saying,
"Ah, my brother!" or, "Ah, sister!"
They will not lament for him, saying,
"Ah, lord!" or, "Ah, his glory!"

¹⁹ He will be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast out
beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

²⁰ Go up to Lebanon and cry out,
and lift up your voice in Bashan,

and cry out from Abarim,
for all your lovers are destroyed.

²¹ I spoke to you in your prosperity,
but you said, "I will not listen!"

This has been your manner from your youth,
that you have not obeyed My voice.

²² The wind will sweep away all your shepherds,
and your lovers shall go into captivity;
surely then you will be ashamed and humiliated
for all your wickedness.

²³ O inhabitant of Lebanon,
who makes your nest in the cedars,
how you will groan when pangs come upon you,
the pain as of a woman in labor!

²⁴ As I live, says the LORD, though Koniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on My right hand, yet would I pluck you from there. ²⁵ And I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life and into the hand of those whose face you fear, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and into the hand of the Chaldeans. ²⁶ I will cast you and your mother that bore you out into another country where you were not born, and there you shall die. ²⁷ But to the land where they desire to return, they will not return there.

²⁸ Is this man Koniah a despised broken jar?

Is he a vessel in which is no desire?
Why are he and his seed cast out and thrown into a land which they had not known?

²⁹ O land, land, land,
hear the word of the LORD!

³⁰ Thus says the LORD:
Write down this man childless,
a man who will not prosper in his days;
for no man of his seed shall prosper,
sitting on the throne of David and ruling any more in Judah.

The Righteous Branch

23 Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter
the sheep of My pasture! says the LORD.

² Therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel against the shepherds that feed My people: You have scattered My flock and driven them away and have not visited them. I am about to punish you for the evil of your deeds, says the LORD. ³ I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries wherever I have driven them and bring them again to their folds, and they shall be fruitful and increase. ⁴ I will also set up shepherds over them who will feed them; and they will fear
no more, nor be dismayed, nor will they be missing,
says the LORD.

⁵ The days are coming, says the LORD,
that I will raise up for David a righteous Branch,
and he shall reign as king and deal wisely,
and shall execute justice and righteousness in the
earth.

⁶ In his days Judah will be saved,

and Israel will dwell safely.
 And this is the name by which he will be called:
 THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.
⁷ Therefore, surely the days are coming, says the LORD
 , when they will no more say, "As the LORD lives who brought up the sons of Israel out of the land of Egypt," ⁸ but, "As the LORD lives who brought up and led the descendants of the house of Israel out of the north country and from all countries where I had driven them." Then they will dwell in their own land.

Lying Prophets

⁹ My heart is broken within me,
 because of the prophets;
 all my bones shake;
 I am like a drunken man,
 like a man overcome by wine,
 because of the LORD ,
 and because of His holy words.
¹⁰ For the land is full of adulterers;
 for the land mourns because of the curse.
 The pleasant places of the wilderness have dried up.
 And their course is evil
 and their might is not right.
¹¹ For both prophet and priest are profane;
 indeed, in My house I have found their wickedness,
 says the LORD .
¹² Therefore their way will be as slippery ways to
 them;
 they shall be driven into the darkness
 and fall in it;
 for I will bring disaster upon them,
 even the year of their punishment,
 says the LORD .
¹³ In addition, I have seen folly
 in the prophets of Samaria.
 They prophesied by Baal
 and caused My people Israel to err.
¹⁴ I have seen also among the prophets of Jerusalem
 a horrible thing.
 They commit adultery and walk in lies.
 They also strengthen the hands of evildoers,
 so that no one repents from his wickedness.
 All of them are as Sodom to Me and her inhabitants as Gomorrah.
¹⁵ Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts concerning the prophets:
 "I will feed them with wormwood
 and make them drink the water of gall,
 for from the prophets of Jerusalem
 profaneness has gone out into all the land."
¹⁶ Thus says the LORD of Hosts:
 Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you.
 They lead you into vanity;
 they speak a vision of their own heart
 and not out of the mouth of the LORD .
¹⁷ They still say to those who despise Me,

"The LORD has said, 'You will have peace';
 and they say to everyone who walks after the imagination of his own heart,

"No evil will come upon you."

¹⁸ For who has stood in the counsel of the LORD
 and has perceived and heard His word?

Who has given heed to His word and listened to it?

¹⁹ Look, a whirlwind of the LORD

has gone forth in fury,
 a tempestuous whirlwind.

It will fall tempestuously upon the head of the wicked.

²⁰ The anger of the LORD will not turn back until He has executed and performed
 the thoughts of His heart.

In the latter days

you will understand it perfectly.

²¹ I have not sent these prophets,
 yet they ran.

I have not spoken to them,
 yet they prophesied.

²² But if they had stood in My counsel and had caused My people to hear My words, then they would have turned them from their evil
 way

and from the evil of their deeds.

²³ Am I a God who is near,
 says the LORD ,
 and not a God far off?

²⁴ Can a man hide himself in secret places
 so that I do not see him?

says the LORD .

Do I not fill heaven and earth?

says the LORD .

²⁵ I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in My name, saying, "I had a dream, I had a dream!" ²⁶ How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies? Indeed, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart, ²⁷ who plan to cause My people to forget My name by their dreams, which they tell to their neighbor, as their fathers have forgotten My name for Baal. ²⁸ The prophet who has a dream, let him tell his dream. And he who has My word, let him speak My word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? says the LORD . ²⁹ Is not My word like fire, says the LORD , and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?

³⁰ See, therefore I am against the prophets, says the LORD , who steal My words, each from his neighbor.

³¹ See, I am against the prophets, says the LORD , who use their tongues and say, "The LORD says." ³² See, I am against those who prophesy false dreams, says the LORD , and recount them and cause My people to err by their lies and reckless boasting. Yet I sent them not nor commanded them. Therefore they shall not profit this people at all, says the LORD .

False Prophecy

³³ When this people or the prophet or a priest asks you, saying, "What is the oracle of the LORD?" you shall then say to them, "What oracle? I will forsake you, says the LORD." ³⁴ As for the prophet and the priest and the people who say, "The oracle of the LORD," I will punish that man and his house. ³⁵ Thus each of you will say to his neighbor and to his brother, "What has the LORD answered?" and, "What has the LORD spoken?" ³⁶ And the oracle of the LORD you shall mention no more, for every man's word will be his oracle. For you have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of Hosts our God. ³⁷ Thus you will say to that prophet, "What has the LORD answered you?" and, "What has the LORD spoken?" ³⁸ But if you say, "The oracle of the LORD"; therefore thus says the LORD: Because you say this word, "The oracle of the LORD," I have also sent to you, saying, You shall not say, "The oracle of the LORD." ³⁹ Therefore, surely, I, even I, will utterly forget you and cast you and the city that I gave you and your fathers out of My presence. ⁴⁰ And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you and perpetual shame which shall not be forgotten.

The Good and Bad Figs

24 The LORD showed me two baskets of figs that were set before the temple of the LORD after Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the officials of Judah with the carpenters and smiths from Jerusalem and brought them to Babylon. ² One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe, and the other basket had very rotten figs, which were so rotten they could not be eaten.

³ Then the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

And I said, "Figs, the good figs, very good. And the rotten, very rotten, that are so rotten they cannot be eaten."

⁴ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ⁵ Thus says the LORD the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so I will acknowledge those who are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good. ⁶ For I will set My eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land. And I will build them up and not pull them down. And I will plant them and not pluck them up. ⁷ I will give them a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD; and they will be My people, and I will be their God, for they will return to Me with their whole heart.

⁸ But as the rotten figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so rotten, says the LORD, so I will forsake Zedekiah the king of Judah and his officials, and the rest of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt. ⁹ And I will make them a horror and an evil to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a reproach and a byword, a taunt and a curse, in all places wherever I shall drive them. ¹⁰ I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them until they are consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.

Seventy Years of Captivity

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, ² which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: ³ From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you have not listened.

⁴ The LORD has sent to you all His servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, but you have not listened nor inclined your ear to hear. ⁵ They said, "Turn now again everyone from his evil way and from the evil of your deeds, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and to your fathers forever and ever. ⁶ And do not go after other gods to serve them and to worship them, and provoke Me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no harm."

⁷ Yet you have not listened to Me, says the LORD, that you might provoke Me to anger with the works of your hands to your own harm.

⁸ Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts: Because you have not obeyed My words, ⁹ I will send and take all the families of the north, says the LORD, and Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and will bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all these surrounding nations; I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, a hissing, and perpetual desolations. ¹⁰ Moreover I will take from them the voice of laughter and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the candle. ¹¹ This whole land shall be a desolation and an astonishment, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

¹² It shall come to pass when seventy years are finished that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, says the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations. ¹³ I will bring upon that land all My words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴ For many nations and great kings will make slaves of them, even them. And I will recompense them according to their deeds and according to the works of their hands.

The Cup of God's Wrath

¹⁵ For thus says the LORD God of Israel to me: Take the wine cup of this fury at My hand and cause all the nations to whom I send you to drink it. ¹⁶ They will drink, and totter, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

¹⁷ Then I took the cup from the hand of the LORD and made all the nations, to whom the LORD had sent me, drink: ¹⁸ Jerusalem and the cities of Judah and the kings and the officials, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day; ¹⁹ Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his officials, and all his people; ²⁰ and all the foreign people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines (even Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod); ²¹ Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon; ²² and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastlands which are beyond the sea; ²³ Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who cut the corners of their hair; ²⁴ and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the foreign people who dwell in the desert; ²⁵ and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; ²⁶ and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the earth which are upon the face of the earth, and the king of Sheshak shall drink after them.

²⁷ Therefore you shall say to them, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Drink and be drunk and spew and fall and rise no more because of the sword which I will send among you. ²⁸ It will be, if they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you will say to them: Thus says the LORD of Hosts: You shall certainly drink! ²⁹ For I am starting to bring calamity on the city which is called by My name, and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished. For I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, says the LORD of Hosts.

³⁰ Therefore prophesy against them all these words, and say to them:

The LORD will roar from on high,
and utter His voice from His holy habitation;
He will mightily roar against His fold.

He will give a shout, as those who tread the grapes,
against all the inhabitants of the earth.

³¹ A noise shall come even to the remote parts of the earth,

for the LORD has a controversy with the nations;
He shall enter into judgment with all flesh.

He shall give those who are wicked to the sword,
says the LORD.

³² Thus says the LORD of Hosts:

See, disaster shall go forth
from nation to nation,
and a great whirlwind shall be raised up
from the remote parts of the earth.

³³ The slain of the LORD on that day will be from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They will not be lamented or gathered or buried. They will be as dung on the ground.

³⁴ Howl, you shepherds, and cry;
and wallow in the ashes, you leaders of the flock.
For the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished;

and you will fall like a choice vessel.

³⁵ The shepherds will have no way to flee,
nor the leaders of the flock to escape.

³⁶ A voice of the cry of the shepherds and a howling of the leaders of the flock shall be heard,

for the LORD has devastated their pasture.

³⁷ The peaceable habitations are cut down
because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

³⁸ He has left His lair as the lion;
for their land is desolate
because of the fierceness of the oppressor and because of His fierce anger.

Jeremiah Threatened With Death

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD, saying: ² Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the house of the LORD, and speak to all the cities of Judah who come to worship in the house of the LORD all the words that I command you to speak to them. Do not diminish a word. ³ Perhaps they will listen and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent of the calamity which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their deeds. ⁴ You will say to them: Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to Me, to walk in My law which I have set before you, ⁵ to listen to the words of My servants the prophets, whom I sent to you, both rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened, ⁶ then I will make this house like Shiloh and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

⁷ So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. ⁸ And when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests and the prophets and all the people took hold of him, saying, "You shall surely die. ⁹ Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, 'This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant?'" And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

¹⁰ When the officials of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and sat down in the entry of the New Gate of the house of the Lord. ¹¹ Then the priests and the prophets spoke to the officials and to all the people, saying, "This man deserves to die! For he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

¹² Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and to all the people, saying, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. ¹³ Therefore now amend your ways and your deeds, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent of the disaster that He has pronounced against you. ¹⁴ As for me, here I am in your hand. Do with me as seems good and right to you. ¹⁵ But know for certain that if you put me to death, you will surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and upon the inhabitants. For truly the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

Jeremiah Spared From Death

¹⁶ Then the officials and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets, "This man is not worthy of death. For he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

¹⁷ Then certain of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying: ¹⁸ "Micah of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of Hosts:

Zion shall be plowed like a field,
and Jerusalem shall become heaps,
and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.'

¹⁹ Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and entreat the LORD, and the LORD relented of the disaster which He had pronounced against them? Thus we might procure great evil against ourselves."

²⁰ There was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah. ²¹ And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men and all the officials, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death. But when Uriah heard it, he was afraid and fled and went into Egypt. ²² And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt: namely, Elnathan the son of Akbor and certain men with him into Egypt. ²³ They brought Uriah out of Egypt and led him to Jehoiakim the king, who slew him with the sword and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

²⁴ Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, with the result that he was not given into the hands of the people to put him to death.

Judah to Serve Nebuchadnezzar

27 In the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to

Jeremiah from the LORD: ² Thus says the LORD to me: Make bonds and yokes and put them on your neck, ³ and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. ⁴ And command them to go to their masters, saying: Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Thus you shall say to your masters: ⁵ I have made the earth, the men, and the beasts which are on the ground by My great power and by My outstretched arm, and have given it to whom it seemed good to Me. ⁶ Now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant. And also I have given to him the beasts of the field to serve him. ⁷ All nations shall serve him and his son and his son's son until the time of his own land comes; and then many nations and great kings will make him their servant.

⁸ It shall come to pass that I will punish the nation and kingdom which will not serve Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, says the LORD. I will punish that nation with the sword, and with famine, and with pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. ⁹ Therefore do not listen to your prophets, or to your diviners, or to your dreamers, or to your enchanters, or to your sorcerers who speak to you, saying, "You shall not serve the king of Babylon." ¹⁰ For they prophesy a lie to you in order to remove you far from your land. And I will drive you out, and you shall perish. ¹¹ But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those I will let remain still in their own land, says the LORD, and they shall till it and dwell in it.

¹⁶ I also spoke to the priests and to all this people: Thus says the LORD: Do not listen to the words of your prophets that prophesy to you, saying, "The vessels of the house of the LORD will now soon be brought again from Babylon." For they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁷ Do not listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live. Why should this city be laid waste? ¹⁸ But if they are prophets, and if the word of the LORD is with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of Hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD and in the house of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem not go to Babylon. ¹⁹ For thus says the LORD of Hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the rest of the vessels that remain in this city, ²⁰ which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. ²¹ Indeed, thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD and in the house of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem: ²² They will be carried to Babylon and they will be there until the day that I visit them, says the LORD. Then I will bring them up and restore them to this place.

The False Prophet Hananiah

28 In that same year, at the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year and in the fifth month, Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, ² "Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³ Within two full years I will bring back into this place all the vessels of the house of the LORD that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and carried to Babylon. ⁴ And I will bring back to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah who went into Babylon, says the LORD, for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon."

⁵ Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD, ⁶ even the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen. May the LORD do so; may the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring back the vessels of the house of the LORD and all that was carried away captive, from Babylon into this place. ⁷ Nevertheless hear now this word that I speak in your ears and in the ears of all the people. ⁸ The prophets of old who have been before me and before you prophesied both against many countries and against great kingdoms, of war and disaster and pestilence. ⁹ As for the prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet comes to pass, then that prophet shall be known as one whom the LORD has truly sent."

¹⁰ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it. ¹¹ Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus says the LORD: Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all the nations within the space of two full years." Then the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

¹² Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, after Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying: ¹³ Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus says the LORD: You have broken the yokes of wood, but you have made instead of them yokes of iron. ¹⁴ For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him. And I have given him the beasts of the field also.

¹⁵ Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen now, Hananiah. The LORD has not sent you, and you make this people trust in a lie.

¹⁶ Therefore thus says the LORD: I am about to cast you from off the face of the earth. This year you shall die, because you have taught rebellion against the LORD."

¹⁷ So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

Jeremiah's Letter to the Exiles

29 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders of the captivity, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon. ² (This was after Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, and the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths had departed from Jerusalem.) ³ It was sent by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah (whom Zedekiah, king of Judah, sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying:

⁴ Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, to all who have been carried away captive whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵ Build houses and dwell in them; and plant gardens and eat their fruit. ⁶ Take wives and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, so that they may bear sons and daughters; so that you may increase there and not diminish. ⁷ Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to the LORD for it; for in its peace you will have peace. ⁸ For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Do not let your prophets and your diviners who are in your midst deceive you, and do not listen to the dreams which they dream. ⁹ For they prophesy falsely to you in My name. I have not sent them, says the LORD.

¹⁰ For thus says the LORD: When seventy years have been completed for Babylon, I will visit you and perform My good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. ¹¹ For I know the plans that I have for you, says the LORD, plans for peace and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. ¹² Then you shall call upon Me, and you shall come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. ¹³ You shall seek Me and find Me, when you shall search for Me with all your heart. ¹⁴ I will be found by you, says the LORD, and I will turn away your captivity and gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD, and I will bring you back into the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive.

¹⁵ Because you have said, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon," ¹⁶ thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your brothers who did not go out with you into exile, ¹⁷ thus says the LORD of Hosts: I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs that cannot be eaten, they are so rotten. ¹⁸ I will pursue them with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence; and will make them a terror to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse and an astonishment, a hissing and a reproach among all the nations where I have driven them, ¹⁹ because they have not listened to My words, says the LORD, which I sent to them by My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them. But you would not listen, says the LORD.

²⁰ Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you in captivity whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²¹ Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in My name: I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall slay them before your eyes. ²² And because of them a curse shall be taken up by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, "May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire," ²³ because they have committed folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken lying words in My name, which I have not commanded them. Indeed, I know and am a witness, says the LORD.

A Message to Shemaiah

²⁴ Thus you shall also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying: ²⁵ Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Because you have sent letters in your name to all the people who are in Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶ The LORD has made you priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, that you should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in the stocks and in prison. ²⁷ Now therefore why have you not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth who prophesies to you? ²⁸ For he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, " This captivity will be long; build houses and dwell in them, and plant gardens and eat their fruit."

saying, Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you though I did not send, and he caused you to trust in a lie, ³² therefore thus says the LORD: I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his seed. He will not have a man to dwell among this people, nor will he see the good that I will do for My people, says the LORD, because he has taught rebellion against the LORD.

Israel and Judah Restored

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying: ² Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. ³ For surely the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will restore the fortunes of My people Israel and Judah. The LORD says, I also will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

⁴ These are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah. ⁵ For thus says the LORD:

I have heard a sound of trembling,
of fear, and not of peace.

⁶ Ask now, and see,
can a male labor with child?

Why do I see every man
with his hands on his loins, as a woman in labor, and all faces turned pale?

⁷ Alas! for that day is great,
so that no one is like it;
it is even the time of Jacob's trouble,
but he shall be saved out of it.

⁸ For it shall come to pass in that day, says the LORD of Hosts, that I shall break his yoke from off their neck

and tear away their bonds,
and strangers shall no longer make them their slaves.

⁹ But they shall serve the LORD their God
and David their king, whom I will raise up for them.

¹⁰ Therefore do not fear, O My servant Jacob,
says the LORD,
nor be dismayed, O Israel;
for I will save you from afar,
and your seed from the land of their captivity.
And Jacob shall return and shall be in rest and be quiet,

and no one shall make him afraid.

¹¹ For I am with you, says the LORD,
to save you.

Although I make a full end of all nations
wherever I have scattered you,
yet I will not make a full end of you.

But I will correct you in measure and will not leave you altogether unpunished.

¹² For thus says the LORD:
Your bruise is incurable
and your wound is severe.

¹³ There is no one to plead your cause
that you may be bound up.
You have no healing medicines.
¹⁴ All your lovers have forgotten you;
they do not seek you;
for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy,
with the chastisement of a cruel one,
because of the multitude of your iniquities, because
your sins are numerous.
¹⁵ Why do you cry because of your affliction?
Your sorrow is incurable.
Because of the multitude of your iniquities, because
your sins are numerous,
I have done these things to you.
¹⁶ Therefore all who devour you will be devoured;
and all your adversaries, every one of them, will go into captivity.
And those who plunder you will become plunder,
and all who prey upon you I will give for prey.
¹⁷ For I will restore health to you,
and I will heal you of your wounds,
says the LORD ,
because they called you an outcast, saying,
"This is Zion whom no man cares for."
¹⁸ Thus says the LORD :
I will restore the fortunes of Jacob's tents
and have mercy on his dwelling places;
and the city will be built upon her own heap,
and the palace will remain on its rightful place.
¹⁹ Out of them will proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry;
and I will multiply them,
and they will not be few.
I will also glorify them,
and they will not be small.
²⁰ Their children also will be as before,
and their congregation will be established before
Me;
and I will punish all who oppress them.
²¹ Their leader shall be one of them,
and their ruler shall proceed from their midst;
and I will cause him to draw near and he will approach Me;
for who is this that dares to approach Me?
says the LORD .
²² You shall be My people,
and I will be your God.
²³ Look, the whirlwind of the LORD
goes forth with fury,
a continuing whirlwind;
it will fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.
²⁴ The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return until He has done it and until He has performed the intentions of His heart.
In the latter days
you will understand it.

The Exiles Return

31 At that time, says the LORD , I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be My
people.
² Thus says the LORD :
The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness,
when I went to give Israel rest.
³ The LORD has appeared to him from afar, saying:
Indeed, I have loved you with an everlasting love;
therefore with lovingkindness I have drawn you.
⁴ Again I will build you and you will be built, O virgin of Israel.
You will again be adorned with your tambourines and shall go forth in the dances of those who make merry.
⁵ You will yet plant vines
on the mountains of Samaria;
the planters will plant
and will enjoy them.
⁶ For there will be a day when the watchmen
on the hills of Ephraim will proclaim,
"Arise, and let us go up to Zion,
to the LORD our God."
⁷ For thus says the LORD :
Sing with gladness for Jacob,
and shout among the chief of the nations;
publish, praise, and say,
"O LORD , save Your people,
the remnant of Israel."
⁸ See, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the remote parts of the
earth,
and with them the blind and the lame,
the woman with child and her who is in labor with child, together;
a great company will return here.
⁹ They will come with weeping,
and with supplications I will lead them.
I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters,
in a straight way in which they shall not stumble.
For I am a Father to Israel,
and Ephraim is My firstborn.
¹⁰ Hear the word of the LORD , O nations,
and declare it in the coastlands far off, and say,
"He who scattered Israel will gather him and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock."
¹¹ For the LORD has redeemed Jacob and ransomed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he.
¹² Therefore they will come and sing in the height of Zion,
and will be joyful over the goodness of the LORD ,
for wheat and for wine and for oil
and for the young of the flock and of the herd;
and their souls will be as a watered garden.
And they will not sorrow any more at all.

¹³ Then the virgin shall rejoice in the dance,
both young men and old together;
for I will turn their mourning into joy,
and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

¹⁴ I will satiate the soul of the priests with abundance,
and My people shall be satisfied with My goodness,
says the LORD.

¹⁵ Thus says the LORD :
A voice is heard in Ramah,
lamentation and bitter weeping,
Rachel weeping for her children,
refusing to be comforted for her children,
because they are no more.

¹⁶ Thus says the LORD :
Keep your voice from weeping
and your eyes from tears;
for your work shall be rewarded,
says the LORD ,
and they shall come back from the land of the enemy.

¹⁷ There is hope for your future,
says the LORD ,
that your children will come back to their own border.

¹⁸ I have surely heard Ephraim pleading:
"You have chastised me,
and I was chastised, as an untrained calf;
turn me back and I will be turned,
for you are the LORD my God.

¹⁹ Surely after I turned back,
I repented;
and after I was instructed,
I struck myself on my thigh;
I was ashamed and even humiliated
because I bore the reproach of my youth."

²⁰ Is Ephraim My dear son?
Is he a pleasant child?
For since I spoke against him,
I surely do remember him still ;
therefore My heart longs for him.
I will surely have mercy on him,
says the LORD .

²¹ Set up road marks,
place guideposts.
Set your heart toward the highway,
even the way by which you went.
Turn back, O virgin of Israel,
turn back to these your cities.

²² How long will you go about,
O faithless daughter?
For the LORD has created a new thing in the earth:
A woman shall obtain a man.

²³ Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel:
Once again they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities when I restore their fortunes:
"May the LORD bless you, O habitation of righteousness and mountain of holiness!" ²⁴ And Judah and all its cities will dwell there, the farmer and those who go out with the flocks. ²⁵ For I satiate the weary souls and I replenish every languishing soul.

²⁶ Upon this I awoke and looked, and my sleep was sweet to me.

²⁷ Surely, the days are coming, says the LORD , when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with the seed of beast. ²⁸ It shall come to pass that as I have watched over them to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict, so I will watch over them, to build, and to plant, says the LORD . ²⁹ In those days
they will say no more:

"The fathers have eaten sour grapes,
and the children's teeth are set on edge."
³⁰ But everyone will die for his own iniquity. Every man that eats the sour grape, his teeth will be set on edge.

A New Covenant

³¹ Surely, the days are coming, says the LORD ,
when I will make a new covenant
with the house of Israel
and with the house of Judah.

³² It will not be according to the covenant
that I made with their fathers
in the day that I took them by the hand
to bring them out of the land of Egypt,
because they broke My covenant,
although I was a husband to them,
says the LORD .

³³ But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel
after those days, says the LORD :
I will put My law within them
and write it in their hearts;
and I will be their God,
and they shall be My people.

³⁴ They shall teach no more every man his neighbor
and every man his brother, saying, "Know the LORD
,"
for they all shall know Me,
from the least of them to the greatest of them,
says the LORD ,
for I will forgive their iniquity,
and I will remember their sin no more.

³⁵ Thus says the LORD , who gives the sun
for a light by day
and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars
for a light by night,
who stirs up the sea
so that the waves roar,
the LORD of Hosts is His name:

³⁶ If those ordinances depart from before Me,
says the LORD ,
then the seed of Israel also will cease
from being a nation before Me forever.

³⁷ Thus says the LORD :

If heaven above can be measured,
and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath,
I will also cast off all the seed of Israel
for all that they have done,
says the LORD .

³⁸ Surely, the days are coming, says the LORD , when the city will be built to the LORD from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. ³⁹ The measuring line shall stretch out straight to the hill Gareb, and shall then turn to Goah. ⁴⁰ The whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the Kidron Valley, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, will be holy to the LORD . It will not be plucked up nor thrown down any more forever.

Jeremiah Buys a Field

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. ² For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the house of the king of Judah.

³ For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, "Why do you prophesy? You say: Thus says the LORD : I am about to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it, ⁴ and Zedekiah king of Judah will not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but will surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and will speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye. ⁵ And he will lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he will be until I visit him, says the LORD . Though you fight against the Chaldeans, you will not succeed."

⁶ So Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came to me, saying: ⁷ Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle will come to you, saying, "Buy my field that is in Anathoth. For the right of redemption is yours to buy it."

⁸ So Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD and said to me, "Please buy my field, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance and the redemption is yours. Buy it for yourself."

Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD . ⁹ I bought the field of Hanamel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels † of silver. ¹⁰ I signed and sealed the deed, and summoned witnesses, and weighed the money from him in the balances. ¹¹ So I took the deed of purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open. ¹² And I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the sight of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the prison.

¹³ I charged Baruch in their presence, saying, ¹⁴ Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, this sealed deed of purchase and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel that they may last many days. ¹⁵ For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.

Jeremiah Prays for Understanding

¹⁶ Now when I had delivered the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD , saying:

¹⁷ Ah Lord GOD ! Truly, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm, and there is nothing too hard for You. ¹⁸ You show lovingkindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them, O great and mighty God. The LORD of Hosts is His name, ¹⁹ great in counsel and mighty in deed, whose eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to give to everyone according to his ways and according to the fruit of his deeds. ²⁰ You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, and in Israel, and among other men, and have made Yourself a name, as it is today. ²¹ And You have brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terror. ²² And You have given them this land, which You swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey. ²³ And they entered and possessed it. But they did not obey Your voice or walk in Your law. They have done nothing of all that You commanded them to do; therefore You have caused all this calamity to come upon them.

²⁴ See, the siege ramps have come to the city to take it. And the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence, and what You have spoken has come to pass, as You can see. ²⁵ O Lord GOD , You have said to me, "Buy the field for money and call in witnesses," although the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

God Promises the People's Return

²⁶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: ²⁷ Behold, I am the LORD , the God of all flesh. Is anything too hard for Me? ²⁸ Therefore thus says the LORD : I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it. ²⁹ And the Chaldeans who fight against this city will come and set this city on fire and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke Me to anger.

³⁰ Indeed the sons of Israel and the sons of Judah have only done evil before Me from their youth. For the sons of Israel have only provoked Me to anger with the work of their hands, says the LORD. ³¹ Indeed this city has been to Me a provocation of My anger and My fury from the day that they built it, even to this day, so that I should remove it from before My face, ³² because of all the evil of the sons of Israel and of the sons of Judah which they have done to provoke Me to anger, they, their kings, their officials, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³³ They have turned their back to Me and not their face. Though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened nor received instruction. ³⁴ But they set their abominations in the house which is called by My name, to defile it. ³⁵ They built the high places of Baal which are in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Molek, which I had not commanded them, nor did it come into My mind that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

³⁶ Now therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, "It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by famine, and by pestilence": ³⁷ See, I will gather them out of all countries wherever I have driven them in My anger, and in My fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely. ³⁸ And they shall be My people, and I will be their God. ³⁹ And I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear Me forever, for their good and for their children after them. ⁴⁰ And I will make an everlasting covenant with them that I will not turn away from them, to do them good. But I will put My fear in their hearts so that they shall not depart from Me. ⁴¹ Indeed, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with My whole heart and with My whole soul.

⁴² For thus says the LORD: Just as I have brought all this great calamity upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

⁴³ Fields will be bought in this land of which you say, It is desolate, without man or beast. It is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. ⁴⁴ Men will buy fields for money, sign and seal deeds, and call in witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the Negev; for I will restore their fortunes, says the LORD.

The Promise of Restoration

33 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying: ² Thus says the LORD, the Maker of the earth, the LORD who formed it to establish it; the LORD is His name: ³ Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things which you do not know. ⁴ For thus says the LORD God of Israel concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down to make a defense against the siege mounds and against the sword: ⁵ They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men whom I have slain in My anger and in My fury, all for whose wickedness I have hidden My face from this city.

⁶ I will bring it health and healing, and I will heal them; and I will reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth. ⁷ I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel, and will build them as at the first. ⁸ I will cleanse them from all their iniquity whereby they have sinned against Me. And I will pardon all their iniquities whereby they have sinned and whereby they have transgressed against Me. ⁹ It will be to Me a name of joy, praise, and honor before all the nations of the earth which shall hear of all the good that I do to them; and they will fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure for it.

¹⁰ Thus says the LORD: Again there shall be heard in this place of which you say, "It is desolate, without man and without beast," even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant, and without beast, ¹¹ the voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who shall say,

"Give thanks to the LORD of Hosts,
for the LORD is good;
for His mercy endures forever,"

and of those who bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will restore the fortunes of the land as at the first, says the LORD.

¹² Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Again in this place which is desolate, without man and without beast, and in all the cities, will be a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. ¹³ In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the Negev, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him who numbers them, says the LORD.

The Davidic Covenant

¹⁴ Surely, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will perform that good word which I have promised to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah:

¹⁵ In those days and at that time,

I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David;

and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the earth.

¹⁶ In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell safely.

And this is the name by which she will be called:
THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

¹⁹ The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: ²⁰ Thus says the LORD: If you can break My covenant of the day and My covenant of the night so that there should not be day and night in their season, ²¹ then also My covenant may be broken with David My servant, that he should not have a son to reign on his throne, and with the Levitical priests, My ministers. ²² As the host of heaven cannot be numbered nor the sand of the sea measured, so I will multiply the seed of David My servant and the Levites that minister to Me.

²³ Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: ²⁴ Have you not considered what this people have spoken, saying, "The two families which the LORD has chosen, He has cast them off"? Thus they have despised My people, that they should be no more a nation before them. ²⁵ Thus says the LORD: If My covenant for day and night does not stand, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth, ²⁶ then I would cast away the seed of Jacob and David My servant, so that I would not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Yet I will restore their fortunes and have mercy on them.

Zedekiah to Die in Exile

34 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion and all the people fought against Jerusalem and against all the cities, saying: ² Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and tell him: Thus says the LORD: I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire. ³ And you will not escape out of his hand, but will surely be taken and delivered into his hand. And you will see the king of Babylon eye to eye, and he will speak with you face to face, and you will go to Babylon.

⁴ Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: You will not die by the sword. ⁵ But you will die in peace; and as spices were burned for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they burn spices for you. And they will lament for you, saying, "Alas, lord!" For I have pronounced the word, says the LORD.

⁶ Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, ⁷ when the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and Azekah, for these fortified cities remained of the cities of Judah.

Slaves to be Free

⁸ This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were in Jerusalem to proclaim liberty to them: ⁹ that every man should let his male slave and every man his female slave, being a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, go free so that no one should keep them, a Jew his brother, in bondage.

¹⁰ Now when all the officials and all the people who had entered into the covenant heard that everyone should let his male slave and everyone his female slave go free, so that no one should keep them any more in bondage, then they obeyed and let them go.

¹¹ But afterward they turned around and caused the male slaves and the female slaves whom they had set free to return, and brought them into subjection for male slaves and female slaves.

¹² Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying: ¹³ Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying: ¹⁴ "At the end of seven years, each of you shall set free his Hebrew brother who has been sold to you; and when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you." But your fathers did not obey Me nor incline their ear. ¹⁵ You recently turned and did what was right in My sight by proclaiming liberty, every man to his neighbor; and you made a covenant before Me in the house that is called by My name. ¹⁶ But then you turned around and profaned My name when every one of you took back his male and female slaves, whom you had set free, at their pleasure, and you brought them into subjection to be your slaves.

¹⁷ Therefore thus says the LORD: You have not obeyed Me in proclaiming liberty, everyone to his brother and every man to his neighbor. I proclaim a liberty to you, says the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you a terror to all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸ I will give the men who have transgressed My covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before Me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between the parts, ¹⁹ the officials of Judah and the officials of Jerusalem, the court officers, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf, ²⁰ I will even give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be food to the fowl of heaven and to the beasts of the earth.

²¹ Zedekiah king of Judah and his officials I will give into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which has gone away from you. ²² I will command, says the LORD, and cause them to return to this city, and they will fight against it and take it and burn it with fire; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

The Rekabites' Obedience

35 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying: ² Go to the house of the Rekabites and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.

³ Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons and the whole house of the Rekabites, ⁴ and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the officials, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door. ⁵ Then I set before the sons of the house of the Rekabites pots full of wine and cups, and I said to them, "Drink wine."

⁶ But they said, "We will drink no wine. For Jonadab the son of Rekab our father commanded us, saying, 'You shall not drink wine, neither you nor your sons forever. ⁷ You shall not build a house, sow seed, plant a vineyard, nor own one; but all your days you shall dwell in tents so that you may live many days in the land where you sojourn.' ⁸ Thus we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rekab, our father, in all that he has charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters, ⁹ nor to build houses for us to dwell in; and we do not have vineyard, or field, or seed. ¹⁰ But we have lived in tents only and have obeyed and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. ¹¹ But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, we said, 'Come, and let us go to Jerusalem before the army of the Chaldeans and before the army of the Arameans.' So we have dwelt in Jerusalem."

¹² Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: ¹³ Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction by listening to My words? says the LORD. ¹⁴ The words of Jonadab the son of Rekab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed. For to this day they drink none, but they obey their father's commandment. However, I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you did not obey Me. ¹⁵ I also have sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, "Return now every man from his evil way and amend your deeds, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and you will dwell in the land that I have given to you and to your fathers." But you have not inclined your ear nor obeyed Me. ¹⁶ Indeed, the sons of Jonadab the son of Rekab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them, but this people has not obeyed Me.

¹⁷ Therefore thus says the LORD God of Hosts, the God of Israel: I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the disaster that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them but they have not listened, and I have called them but they have not answered.

¹⁸ Jeremiah said to the house of the Rekabites: Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father and kept all his precepts and done according to all that he has commanded you, ¹⁹ therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, Jonadab the son of Rekab shall not lack a man to stand before Me always.

Jeremiah's Scroll Is Burned

36 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying: ² Take a scroll of a book, and write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and against Judah and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. ³ It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the disaster which I intend to do to them, so that every man may turn from his evil way; then I will forgive their iniquity and their sin.

⁴ Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah. And Baruch wrote on a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD which He had spoken to him. ⁵ Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, "I am shut in. I cannot go into the house of the LORD. ⁶ Therefore go and read from the scroll that you have written at my dictation the words of the LORD in the hearing of the people in the house of the LORD on a fast day. And also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. ⁷ Perhaps their supplication will come before the LORD, and everyone will turn from his evil way, for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD has pronounced against this people."

⁸ Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the house of the LORD. ⁹ In the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem and to all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem. ¹⁰ Then Baruch read from the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the New Gate of the house of the LORD, in the ears of all the people.

of Hananiah, and all the other officials. ¹³ Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. ¹⁴ Then all the officials sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll from which you have read in the ears of the people and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them. ¹⁵ They said to him, "Sit down now, and read it in our ears."

So Baruch read it in their ears. ¹⁶ When they heard all the words, they turned to one another in fear and said to Baruch, "We will surely tell the king of all these words." ¹⁷ They also asked Baruch, saying, "Tell us now, how did you write all these words? Was it at his mouth?"

¹⁸ Then Baruch answered them, "He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book."

¹⁹ Then the officials said to Baruch, "Go hide, you and Jeremiah, and let no man know where you are."

²¹ So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the scroll, and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king and in the ears of all the officials who stood beside the king. ²² Now the king sat in the winter house in the ninth month, and there was a fire burning on the hearth before him.

²³ As Jehudi read three or four columns, the king cut it with a scribe's knife and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth. ²⁴ Yet they were not afraid, nor did they tear their garments, neither the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words. ²⁵ Although Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah entreated the king not to burn the scroll, yet he would not listen to them. ²⁶ But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel to seize Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD hid them.

Jeremiah and Baruch Rewrite the Scroll

²⁷ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah after the king had burned the book and the words which Baruch had written at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying: ²⁸ Take again another scroll and write in it all the former words that were in the first book, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. ²⁹ You shall say to Jehoiakim king of Judah: Thus says the LORD: You have burned this book, saying, Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will cause man and beast to cease from here? ³⁰ Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He shall have no one to sit on the throne of David. And his dead body shall be cast out to the heat of the day and the frost of the night. ³¹ I will also punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity. And I will bring upon them and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem and upon the men of Judah all the disaster that I have pronounced against them; but they did not listen.

³² Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah who wrote in it from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And there were added to them many like words.

Jeremiah Warns Zedekiah

37 And King Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Koniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. ² But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land listened to the words of the LORD, which He spoke through the prophet Jeremiah.

³ But Zedekiah the king sent Jehukal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "Please pray to the LORD our God for us."

⁴ Now Jeremiah was still coming in and going out among the people, for they had not yet put him into prison. ⁵ At that time Pharaoh's army had come out of Egypt, and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard the report of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

⁶ Then the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying: ⁷ Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Thus you shall say to the king of Judah who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: Pharaoh's army which has come out to help you shall return to Egypt, to its own land. ⁸ The Chaldeans will come again and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

⁹ Thus says the LORD: Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely depart from us," for they will not depart. ¹⁰ For though you had struck the whole army of the Chaldeans who fight against you and there remained but wounded men among them, yet every man would rise up in his tent and burn this city with fire.

Jeremiah Imprisoned

¹¹ Now when the army of the Chaldeans had withdrawn from Jerusalem at the approach of Pharaoh's army, ¹² Jeremiah set out from Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin to take possession of his property there among the people. ¹³ When he was in the Gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there whose name was Irijah the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah. And he seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are falling away to the Chaldeans!"

¹⁴ But Jeremiah said, "It is false! I am not falling away to the Chaldeans," but he did not listen to him. So Irijah seized Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

¹⁵ Therefore the officials were wrathful with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.

¹⁶ For Jeremiah had entered the dungeon, that is, the vaulted cell, and Jeremiah had remained there many days. ¹⁷ Then Zedekiah the king sent and took him out; and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from the LORD?"

And Jeremiah said, "There is!" Then he said, "You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon."

¹⁸ Moreover Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "How have I sinned against you or against your servants or against this people that you have put me in prison?"

¹⁹ Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you, nor against this land'? ²⁰ Therefore now please listen, O my lord the king. Please let my supplication be accepted before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there."

²¹ Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison and give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was finished. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Jeremiah Thrown Into a Cistern

38 Now Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jukal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malkijah heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken to all the people, saying: ² Thus says the LORD: He who remains in this city will die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence. But he who goes out to the Chaldeans shall live, for he shall have his life as plunder, and shall live. ³ Thus says the LORD: This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, and he will capture it.

⁴ Therefore the officials said to the king, "We beseech you, let this man be put to death, for he thus weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them; for this man does not seek the welfare of this people, but their harm."

⁵ Then Zedekiah the king said, "Here he is; he is in your hand; for the king cannot do anything against you."

⁶ Then they took Jeremiah and cast him into the cistern of Malkijah the son of Hammelech that was in the court of the prison, and they let Jeremiah down with cords. And in the cistern there was no water, only mud, so Jeremiah sank in the mud.

⁷ Now Ebed-Melek the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the cistern. Now the king was sitting in the Gate of Benjamin. ⁸ Ebed-Melek went forth out of the king's house and spoke to the king, saying, ⁹ "My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet whom they have cast into the cistern. And he will die by hunger in the place where he is, for there is no more bread in the city."

¹⁰ Then the king commanded Ebed-Melek the Ethiopian, saying, "Take thirty men with you from here and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies."

¹¹ So Ebed-Melek took the men under his authority and went into the house of the king under the store-room and took from there worn-out clothes and worn-out rags and let them down by cords into the cistern to Jeremiah. ¹² Then Ebed-Melek the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Now put these worn-out clothes and worn-out rags under your armpits under the cords," so Jeremiah did accordingly. ¹³ Then they drew Jeremiah up with cords and took him up out of the cistern, and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

Jeremiah Warns Zedekiah Again

¹⁴ Then Zedekiah the king sent and had Jeremiah the prophet brought to him at the third entrance that is in the house of the LORD. And the king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you something; hide nothing from me."

¹⁵ Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I declare it to you, shall you not surely put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me."

¹⁶ So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, "As the LORD lives, who made our souls, I surely will not put you to death, nor will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

¹⁷ Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel: If you will surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, then your soul will live and this city will not be burned with fire. Thus you and your household will live. ¹⁸ But if you do not surrender to the king of Babylon's officials, then this city will be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they will burn it with fire, and you will not escape out of their hand."

¹⁹ Then Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have fallen over to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand and mock me."

²⁰ But Jeremiah said, "They will not deliver you. Please obey the voice of the LORD which I speak to you, so it will be well with you and your soul will live.

²¹ But if you refuse to surrender, this is the word that the LORD has shown me: ²² Then all the women who are left in the house of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officers of the king of Babylon; and those women shall say:

'Your friends

have misled and prevailed against you; while your feet were sunk in the mud, they turned back.'

²³ "So they will bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans. And you will not escape out of their hand, but will be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon; and you will cause this city to be burned with fire."

²⁴ Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "Let no man know of these words, and you will not die. ²⁵ But if the officials hear that I have talked with you and they come to you and say to you, 'Declare to us now what you said to the king and what the king said to you; do not hide it from us and we will not put you to death,' ²⁶ then you will say to them, 'I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan, to die there.'"

²⁷ Then all the officials came to Jeremiah and asked him. And he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded; so they stopped speaking with him, for the matter was not overheard.

²⁸ So Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was captured.

The Fall of Jerusalem

2Ki 25:1-12; Jer 52:4-16

39 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army came against Jerusalem and besieged it. ² In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city wall was broken up. ³ All the officials of the king of Babylon entered and sat in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsekim the Rabsaris † Nergal-Sharezer the Rabmag, †† and all the rest of the officials of the king of Babylon. ⁴ When Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them and all the men of war, then they fled and went out of the city by night, by way of the king's garden, by the gate between the two walls. And he went out the way of the Arabah.

⁵ But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he passed sentence on him. ⁶ Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes. Moreover, the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. ⁷ He also put out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him with chains to carry him to Babylon.

⁸ The Chaldeans burned the king's house and the houses of the people with fire and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹ Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people who remained in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to him, with the rest of the people who remained. ¹⁰ But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left behind in the land of Judah the poor people who had nothing, and gave them vineyards and fields at that time.

† Possibly a Chief of Staff. †† Possibly a the high official.

The LORD Delivers Jeremiah

¹¹ Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying, ¹² "Take him and look after him, and do not harm him. But do to him just as he says to you." ¹³ So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, Nebushazban the Rabsaris, Nergal-Sharezer the Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon ¹⁴ sent and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should take him home. So he lived among the people.

¹⁵ Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying: ¹⁶ Go and speak to Ebed-Melek the Ethiopian, saying: Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: I will bring My words upon this city for harm and not for good. And they shall be accomplished in that day before you. ¹⁷ But I will deliver you in that day, says the LORD, and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. ¹⁸ For I will surely deliver you, and you will not fall by the sword; but your life will be as plunder to you, because you have put your trust in Me, says the LORD.

Jeremiah With Gedaliah the Governor

40 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all who were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried away captive to Babylon. ² The captain of the guard had taken Jeremiah, and said to him: "The LORD your God has pronounced this disaster upon this place. ³ And the LORD has brought it and done according as He has said. Because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed His voice, therefore this thing has come upon you. ⁴ Now look, I am loosening you this day from the chains which are on your hands. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come and I will look well after you. But if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, never mind. See, all the land is before you. Go wherever it seems good and right for you to go." ⁵ Now while he was not yet going back, he said, "Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people. Or go wherever it seems right for you to go."

So the captain of the guard gave him rations and a gift and let him go. ⁶ Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah and lived with him among the people who were left in the land.

Gedaliah Is Assassinated

⁷ Now all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land and had committed men to him, and women, and children, and some of the poorest of the land who were not carried away captive to Babylon. ⁸ Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maakathite, they and their men. ⁹ Then Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you. ¹⁰ As for me, I will dwell at Mizpah to serve the Chaldeans who will come to us. But you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels and dwell in your cities that you have taken."

¹¹ Likewise, also all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan.

¹² Then all the Jews returned out of all places wherever they were driven and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered very much wine and summer fruits.

¹³ Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, ¹⁴ and said to him, "Do you certainly know that Baalis, the king of the Ammonites, has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay you?" But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam did not believe them.

¹⁵ Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, "Let me go, please, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and no man shall know it. Why should he slay you so that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered and the remnant in Judah perish?"

¹⁶ But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, "You shall not do this thing, for you speak falsely of Ishmael."

41 In the seventh month Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama of the royal seed, and the officials of the king, even ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah. While they were eating bread together in Mizpah, ² Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the ten men that were with him arose and struck Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan with the sword and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. ³ Ishmael also slew all the Jews who were with him, even with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans who were found there, and the men of war.

¹⁰ Then Ishmael carried away captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

¹¹ But when Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, ¹² then they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. ¹³ And when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were with him, they were glad. ¹⁴ So all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and returned, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. ¹⁵ But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites.

¹⁶ Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were with him took all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon. ¹⁷ And they departed and lived in the habitation of Geruth Kimham, which is by Bethlehem, intending to go to Egypt, ¹⁸ because of the Chaldeans. For they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

Jeremiah Warns Against Going to Egypt

42 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest came near, ² and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Please let our supplication be accepted before you, and pray for us to the LORD your God, even for all this remnant. For we are left but a few out of many, as your eyes now see us. ³ Pray that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we should walk and the thing that we should do."

⁴ Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, "I have heard you. I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words. And it shall come to pass, that whatever the LORD will answer you, I will declare it to you. I will keep nothing back from you."

⁵ Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us, if we do not act according to all things for which the LORD your God shall send you to us. ⁶ Whether it is good or whether it is bad, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send you so that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our God."

⁷ At the end of ten days the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. ⁸ Then he called Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces that were with him and all the people from the least even to the greatest, ⁹ and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before Him: ¹⁰ If you will still abide in this land, then I will build you up and not pull you down, and I will plant you and not pluck you up; for I will relent of the disaster that I have brought on you. ¹¹ Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon of whom you are now afraid. Do not be afraid of him, says the LORD. For I am with you to save you and to deliver you from his hand. ¹² I will show mercies to you so that he may have mercy on you and cause you to return to your own land.

¹³ "But if you say, 'We will not dwell in this land,' so as not to obey the voice of the LORD your God, ¹⁴ saying, 'No, but we will go into the land of Egypt where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger for bread, and there we will dwell,' ¹⁵ now therefore hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah. Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: If you wholly set your faces to enter Egypt, and go to dwell there, ¹⁶ then it shall come to pass that the sword which you feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt and the famine of which you were afraid shall follow close after you there in Egypt. And there you shall die. ¹⁷ So it shall be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there. They shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence. And none of them shall remain or escape from the disaster that I will bring upon them. ¹⁸ For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: As My anger and My fury have been poured out upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so will My fury be poured out upon you when you go to Egypt. And you will be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. And you shall see this place no more.

¹⁹ "The LORD has said concerning you, O remnant of Judah, Do not go into Egypt! Know certainly that I have admonished you this day. ²⁰ For you have only deceived yourselves when you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, 'Pray for us to the LORD our God. And according to all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it.' ²¹ Now I have this day declared it to you. But you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, or anything for which He has sent me to you. ²² Now therefore certainly know that you will die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, in the place wherever you desire to go and to sojourn."

Jeremiah Taken to Egypt

43 When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all these words of the LORD their God, with which the LORD their God had sent him to them, ² Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men said to Jeremiah, "You speak falsely. The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'Do not go into Egypt to sojourn there.' ³ But Baruch the son of Neriah sets you against us to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death and carry us away captives into Babylon."

⁴ So Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces and all the people did not obey the voice of the LORD to dwell in the land of Judah. ⁵ But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the captains of the forces took all the remnant of Judah who had returned from all nations wherever they had been driven to dwell in the land of Judah, ⁶ even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah. ⁷ So they came into the land of Egypt because they did not obey the voice of the LORD. Thus they entered as far as Tahpanhes.

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying: ⁹ Take some large stones in your hand and hide them in the clay in the brick kiln which is at the entrance of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah, ¹⁰ and say to them, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, My servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. ¹¹ When he comes, he shall ravage the land of Egypt and deliver whoever is meant for death to death, and whoever is meant for captivity to captivity, and whoever is meant for the sword to the sword. ¹² I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt and he shall burn them and carry them away captives. And he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment, and he shall depart from there in peace. ¹³ He shall also break the images of Heliopolis that is in the land of Egypt, and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians he shall burn with fire.

Idolatry Leads to Judgment

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, who dwell at Migdol, and Tahpanhes, and Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, [†] saying, ² Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: You have seen all the calamity that I have brought upon Jerusalem and upon all the cities of Judah. Look at them; today they are a desolation, and no man dwells in them, ³ because of their wickedness, which they have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that they went to burn incense and to serve other gods, whom they did not know; they nor you nor your fathers. ⁴ However, I sent to you all My servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, "Oh, do not do this abominable thing that I hate." ⁵ But they did not listen nor incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, not to burn incense to other gods. ⁶ Therefore My fury and My anger was poured out and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are ruined and desolate, as it is this day.

⁷ Now thus says the LORD God of Hosts, the God of Israel: Why are you committing this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and infant, out of Judah, leaving you no one to remain, ⁸ provoking Me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to dwell, so that you might cut yourselves off and become a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? ⁹ Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰ They are not humbled even to this day, nor have they feared, nor have they walked in My law and My statutes that I set before you and before your fathers.

¹¹ Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: I will set My face against you for disaster, and to cut off all Judah. ¹² I will take the remnant of Judah who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they all will be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt. They will even be consumed by the sword and by the famine. They will die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they will be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. ¹³ For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem; by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence. ¹⁴ So none of the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there will escape or remain, with the result that they return into the land of Judah to which they have a desire to return to dwell there. For no one shall return except those who escape.

¹⁵ Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other gods and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying: ¹⁶ "As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you. ¹⁷ But we will certainly do whatever we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our officials, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of food, and were well off, and saw no disaster. ¹⁸ But since we left off burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have been in want of all things and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine."

¹⁹ The women also said, "When we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her and pour out drink offerings to her without our husbands?"

Calamity for the Jews

²⁰ Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men and to the women, and to all the people who had given him such an answer: ²¹ "The incense offerings that you burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you, and your fathers, your kings, and your officials, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them and did they not come into His mind? ²² So the LORD could no longer bear it because of the evil of your deeds and because of the abominations which you have committed. Therefore your land is a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as it is this day. ²³ Because you have burned incense and because you have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in His law, nor in His statutes, nor in His testimonies, therefore this calamity has happened to you, as it is this day."

²⁴ Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women, "Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt. ²⁵ Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hand, saying, 'We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink offerings to her.'

"Proceed to accomplish your vows and surely perform your vows! ²⁶ Yet hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who dwells in the land of Egypt: I have sworn by My great name, says the LORD, that My name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, 'As the Lord GOD lives.' ²⁷ I will watch over them for disaster and not for good. And all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine until there is an end of them. ²⁸ Yet a small number who escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah who have gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there will know whose words will stand, Mine or theirs.

²⁹ "This will be a sign to you, says the LORD, that I will punish you in this place so that you may know that My words shall surely stand against you for disaster.

³⁰ Thus says the LORD: I will give Pharaoh Hophra the king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his life, just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life."

A Message to Baruch

45 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying: ² Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch: ³ You said, "Alas, woe is me! For the LORD has added grief to my sorrow. I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest."

⁴ Thus you shall say to him, "Thus says the LORD: That which I have built I will break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land. ⁵ But are you seeking great things for yourself? Do not seek them. For I will bring disaster upon all flesh, says the LORD, but I will give your life to you as booty in all the places where you go."

Judgment on Egypt

46 The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the nations:

² Concerning Egypt, about the army of Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt, which was by the River Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

³ Order the buckler and shield,
and draw near to battle!

⁴ Harness the horses;
mount the steeds!

Take your positions
with your helmets,
polish the spears,
put on the armor!

⁵ Why have I seen them
dismayed and drawing back?
Their mighty ones are beaten down
and have taken refuge in flight,
and not looking back.

Terror is on every side!
says the LORD.

⁶ Let not the swift flee away,
nor the mighty man escape;
they will stumble and fall
towards the north by the River Euphrates.

⁷ Who is this that comes up as the Nile,
whose waters surge about as the rivers?

⁸ Egypt rises up like the Nile,
and his waters surge about like the rivers.

And he has said, I will go up and will cover the land.
I will surely destroy the city and its inhabitants.

⁹ Come up, O horses,
and rage, O chariots!

And let the mighty men come forth:
the Ethiopians and the Libyans who handle the shield,

and the Lydians who handle and bend the bow.

¹⁰ For this is the day of the Lord GOD of Hosts, a day of vengeance, so that He may avenge Himself of His adversaries.

And the sword will devour;

and it will be satiated and made drunk with their blood;

for the Lord GOD of Hosts has a slaughter
in the north country by the River Euphrates.

¹¹ Go up into Gilead and take balm,
O virgin daughter of Egypt;
in vain you shall use many medicines,
for you will not be cured.

¹² The nations have heard of your shame,
and your cry has filled the land;
for the mighty man has stumbled over the mighty,
and they both have fallen together.

Defeat of Egypt Foretold

¹³ The word that the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, about Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon coming to strike the land of Egypt.

¹⁴ Declare in Egypt and publish in Migdol,
and publish in Memphis and in Tahpanhes;
say, "Stand fast and prepare yourself,
for the sword will devour those about you."

¹⁵ Why have your valiant men become prostrate?
They do not stand because the LORD has thrust them down.

¹⁶ He made many to fall.

Indeed, each one has fallen upon another.
Then they said, "Arise and let us go back to our own people and to the land of our nativity, away from the oppressing sword."

¹⁷ They cried there,
"Pharaoh king of Egypt is a tumult.

He has let the time appointed pass by!"

¹⁸ As I live, says the King whose name is the LORD of Hosts, surely as Tabor is among the mountains,
and as Carmel by the sea, so he shall come.

¹⁹ O daughter dwelling in Egypt,
prepare your baggage for captivity,
for Memphis will become desolate,
it will even be burned down without an inhabitant.

²⁰ Egypt is like a very fair heifer,
but destruction comes,
it comes out of the north.

²¹ Also her mercenaries are in her midst
like fat bulls,
for they also have turned back and have fled away together.

They did not stand their ground
because the day of their calamity has come upon them,

even the time of their punishment.

²² Its sound goes along like a serpent,
for they march on as an army,
and come against her with axes,
as choppers of wood.

²³ They have cut down her forest,
says the LORD.
Surely it will not be found any more,
even though they are now more numerous than the grasshoppers,
and are innumerable.

²⁴ The daughter of Egypt has been humiliated;
she has been delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

²⁵ The LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: See, I will punish Amon of Thebes, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods and their kings, even Pharaoh and all those who trust in him. ²⁶ And I shall deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and into the hand of his servants. But afterwards it will be inhabited, as in the days of old, says the LORD.

God Will Save Israel

²⁷ But do not fear, O My servant Jacob,
and do not be dismayed, O Israel.
For I will save you from afar off,
and your seed from the land of their captivity;
and Jacob shall return and be in rest and at ease,
and no one shall make him afraid.

²⁸ Do not fear, O Jacob My servant,
says the LORD, for I am with you;
for I will make a full end of all the nations
where I have driven you.
However, I will not make a full end of you,
but correct you in measure,
and I will not leave you wholly unpunished.

Judgment on the Philistines

47 The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before Pharaoh conquered Gaza.

² Thus says the LORD:

See, waters rise up out of the north and will be an overflowing flood,
and will overflow the land, and all that is in it,
the city and those who dwell in it.
Then the men shall cry out and all the inhabitants of the land will howl ³ at the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses,
at the rushing of his chariots,
and at the rumbling of his wheels.
The fathers will not look back to their children
because of the feebleness of their hands, ⁴ because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines and to cut off from Tyre and Sidon
every helper that remains.
For the LORD will destroy the Philistines,
the remnant of the country of Caphtor.
⁵ Baldness has come upon Gaza;
Ashkelon has been cut off.
O remnant of their valley,
how long shall you gash yourself?
⁶ O sword of the LORD,
how long shall you not be quiet?
Withdraw into your sheath,
rest, and be still.
⁷ How can it be quiet,
seeing the LORD has given it a charge against Ashkelon and against the sea shore?
There He has appointed it.

Judgment on Moab

Isa 16:6-12

48 Concerning Moab:
Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel:
Woe to Nebo, for it is devastated.
Kiriathaim is humiliated and captured;
Misgab † is humiliated and dismayed.
² There is no more praise for Moab;
in Heshbon they have devised evil against her:
"Come and let us cut it off from being a nation!"
Also you will be cut down, O Madmen.
The sword will pursue you.
³ A sound of crying will be from Horonaim:
"Devastation and great destruction!"
⁴ "Moab is destroyed";
her little ones have caused a cry of distress to be heard;
⁵ for by the Ascent of Luhith they will go up with continual weeping;
for at the descent of Horonaim
they have heard a cry of destruction.
⁶ Flee, save your lives,
and be like the juniper in the wilderness.
⁷ For because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures,

† Or a the stronghold.

you will also be captured;
 and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity
 together with his priests and his officials.
 8 The destroyer will come upon every city,
 and no city will escape.
 The valley also will perish,
 and the plain will be destroyed,
 as the LORD has spoken.
 9 Give wings to Moab,
 that she may flee and get away;
 for the cities will become desolate,
 without any to dwell in them.
 10 Cursed be he who does the work of the LORD negligently, and cursed be he who keeps back his sword from blood.
 11 Moab has been at ease from his youth,
 and he has also been undisturbed,
 like wine on its dregs,
 and he has not been emptied from vessel to vessel,
 nor has he gone into captivity.
 Therefore his taste remained in him,
 and his scent has not changed.
 12 Therefore, surely the days are coming,
 says the LORD ,
 when I will send to him those who tip vessels,
 and they will tip him over,
 and will empty his vessels
 and break his bottles.
 13 Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh,
 as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel, their confidence.
 14 How do you say, "We are mighty and strong men for the war?"
 15 Moab has been devastated and gone up out of her cities, and her chosen young men have also gone down to the slaughter,
 says the King whose name is the LORD of Hosts.
 16 The calamity of Moab will come soon,
 and his affliction hastens fast.
 17 All you who are about him, mourn for him.
 And all you who know his name,
 say, "How the strong staff has been broken,
 the beautiful rod!"
 18 O daughter who inhabits Dibon, come down from your glory
 and sit on the parched ground, for the destroyer of Moab
 will come upon you,
 and he will destroy your strongholds.
 19 O inhabitant of Aroer,
 stand by the road and keep watch.
 Ask him who flees and her who escapes,
 and say, "What has happened?"
 20 Moab has been humiliated, for it has been broken down.
 Howl and cry out.

Tell it in Arnon,
 that Moab has been devastated.
 21 And judgment has come upon the plain country:
 upon Holon and Jahzah and Mephaath,
 22 and Dibon and Nebo and Beth Diblathaim,
 23 and Kiriathaim and Beth Gamul and Beth Meon, 24 and Kerioth and Bozrah, and all the cities of the land of Moab, far and near.
 25 The horn of Moab has been cut off and his arm has been broken,
 says the LORD .
 26 Make him drunk,
 for he magnified himself against the LORD .
 Moab also will wallow in his vomit,
 and he also will be held in derision.
 27 For was not Israel a derision to you?
 Or was he caught among thieves?
 For each time you speak of him,
 you shake your head in scorn.
 28 O you who dwell in Moab,
 leave the cities and dwell in the rock,
 and be like the dove that makes her nest
 in the sides of the hole's mouth.
 29 We have heard of the pride of Moab
 (he is very proud),
 of his loftiness, and his arrogance, and his pride,
 and the haughtiness of his heart.
 30 I know his wrath,
 says the LORD ,
 but it is futile. His lies have accomplished nothing.
 31 Therefore I will howl for Moab,
 and I will cry out for all Moab.
 My heart shall mourn for the men of Kir Hareseth.
 32 O vine of Sibmah,
 I will weep for you more than the weeping of Jazer.
 Your plants have stretched over the sea,
 they reach even to the sea of Jazer.
 The destroyer has fallen upon your summer fruits and upon your vintage.
 33 Joy and gladness are taken away from the plentiful field, even from the land of Moab,
 and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses;
 no one will tread with shouting.
 Their shouting will not be shouts of joy.
 34 From the outcry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, and even to Jahaz,
 they have uttered their voice,
 from Zoar even to Horonaim and to Eglath Shelishiyah;
 for also the waters of Nimrim shall become desolate.
 35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab,
 says the LORD ,
 him who offers sacrifice in the high place
 and him who burns incense to his gods.
 36 Therefore My heart will wail for Moab like pipes, and My heart will wail like pipes for the men of Kir Hareseth,

because the riches that they have gotten have perished.

³⁷ For every head will be bald
and every beard clipped;
upon all the hands will be gashes,
and upon the loins sackcloth.

³⁸ There will be lamentation everywhere upon all the housetops of Moab
and in the streets,
for I have broken Moab
like a vessel in which is no pleasure,
says the LORD .

³⁹ How it is broken down! How they have wailed!
How Moab has turned his back with shame!
So Moab will be a derision
and a terror to all around him.

⁴⁰ For thus says the LORD :
Look, one will fly as an eagle and spread his wings against Moab.

⁴¹ Kerioth has been captured,
and the strongholds have been seized,
and the mighty men's hearts in Moab in that day
will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

⁴² Moab will be destroyed from being a people because he has magnified himself against the LORD

⁴³ Fear and the pit and the snare will be upon you,
O inhabitant of Moab,
says the LORD .

⁴⁴ He who flees from the terror
shall fall into the pit,
and he who gets up out of the pit
will be taken in the snare;
for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab,
the year of their punishment,
says the LORD .

⁴⁵ The fugitives stand without strength
under the shadow of Heshbon;
for a fire will come out of Heshbon
and a flame from the midst of Sihon,
and will devour the forehead of Moab
and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

⁴⁶ Woe to you, O Moab!
The people of Chemosh have perished;
for your sons have been taken away captive
and your daughters into captivity.

⁴⁷ Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab
in the latter days,
says the LORD .
Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

Judgment on Ammon

49 Concerning the Ammonites:
Thus says the LORD :

Does Israel have no sons?
Or has he no heirs?
Why then does their king inherit Gad
and his people dwell in his cities?

² Therefore, surely the days are coming,
says the LORD ,
when I will cause an alarm of war
to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites;
and it will be a desolate heap,
and her towns will be burned with fire.

Then Israel will be heir
to those who were his heirs,
says the LORD .

³ Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai has been devastated!
Cry out, O daughters of Rabbah,
gird yourselves with sackcloth and lament,
and run to and fro inside the walls;
for their king shall go into captivity,
and his priests and his officials together.

⁴ Why do you glory in the valleys,
your flowing valley,
O backsliding daughter
who trusts in her treasures, saying,
"Who shall come against me?"

⁵ I will bring a fear upon you,
says the Lord GOD of Hosts,
from all those who are around you;
and each of you will be driven out headlong,
and no one will gather together the fugitives.

⁶ Yet afterward I will restore the fortunes of the sons of Ammon,
says the LORD .

Judgment on Edom

Ob 1-6

⁷ Concerning Edom.
Thus says the LORD of Hosts:
Is there no more wisdom in Teman?
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom vanished?

⁸ Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths,
O inhabitants of Dedan.
For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him,
the time that I punish him.

⁹ If grape gatherers came to you,
would they not leave some gleaning grapes?
If thieves came by night,
they would destroy until they had enough.

¹⁰ But I have made Esau bare,
I have uncovered his secret places
so that he will not be able to hide himself.
His seed is devastated, and his brothers, and his neighbors,
and he is no more.

¹¹ Leave your fatherless children behind. I will preserve them alive;
and let your widows trust in Me.

¹² For thus says the LORD : They whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunk. And are you the one who shall go unpunished altogether?
You will not go unpunished, but you will surely drink of
it. ¹³ For I have sworn by Myself, says the LORD , that Bozrah will become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse. And all the cities will become perpetual wastes.

¹⁴ I have heard a message from the LORD, and an ambassador has been sent to the nations: "Gather together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle!"

¹⁵ For I will make you small among the nations, and despised among men.

¹⁶ As for the terror of you, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill. Though you make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there, says the LORD.

¹⁷ Also Edom will become a desolation; everyone who goes by it will be astonished, and will hiss at all its wounds.

¹⁸ As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighboring cities, says the LORD, no man will abide there, nor will a son of man dwell in it.

¹⁹ He will come up like a lion from the thickets of the Jordan against the perpetually watered meadow; but I will suddenly make him run away from her.

And I will appoint over her whomever I choose. For who is like Me? And who will summon Me into court?

Who is the shepherd who can stand against Me?

²⁰ Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has planned against Edom, and His purposes that He has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman:

Surely the least of the flock will drag them out; surely He will make their habitations desolate because of them.

²¹ The earth has shaken at the noise of their fall; there is an outcry. Its noise has been heard at the Red Sea.

²² He will mount up and fly as the eagle and spread his wings against Bozrah; and in that day the hearts of the mighty men of Edom

will be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

Judgment on Damascus

²³ Concerning Damascus: Hamath and Arpad have been humiliated, for they have heard bad news. They are faint-hearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quieted.

²⁴ Damascus has become helpless; she has turned away to flee, and panic has seized her. Anguish and sorrows have seized her as a woman in labor.

²⁵ How the city of praise has not been deserted, the city of My joy!

²⁶ Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all the men of war will be cut off in that day, says the LORD of Hosts.

²⁷ I will kindle a fire to the wall of Damascus, and it will consume the palaces of Ben-Hadad.

Judgment on Kedar and Hazor

²⁸ Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated:

Thus says the LORD: Arise, go up to Kedar, and destroy the men of the East.

²⁹ Their tents and their flocks they will take away. They will carry away their curtains for themselves, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they will call out to one another, "Terror is on every side!"

³⁰ Flee, go far away, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Hazor, says the LORD.

For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you,

and has conceived a purpose against you.

³¹ Arise, go up to the nation at ease, that dwells securely, says the LORD.

It has neither gates nor bars; they dwell alone.

³² Their camels will become plunder, and the multitude of their cattle booty.

And I will scatter into all winds those who cut the corners of their hair, and I will bring their calamity from all sides, says the LORD.

³³ Hazor will become a dwelling for jackals and a desolation forever.

No man will abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

Judgment on Elam

³⁴ The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying: ³⁵ Thus says the LORD of Hosts:

I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

³⁶ Upon Elam I will bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds. And there will be no nation where the outcasts of Elam will not go.

³⁷ For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their life.

 And I will bring disaster upon them,
 even My fierce anger,
 says the LORD ;
 and I will send the sword after them
 until I have consumed them.
³⁸ And I will set My throne in Elam
 and will destroy from there the king and the officials,
 says the LORD .
³⁹ But it will come to pass in the latter days
 that I will restore the fortunes of Elam,
 says the LORD .

Judgment on Babylon

Jer 10:12-16

50 The word that the LORD spoke against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah
 the prophet:

² Declare among the nations and publish,
 and set up a standard;
 do not conceal it, but say,
 Babylon has been captured.
 Bel has been humiliated.
 Marduk has been broken in pieces;
 her idols have been humiliated;
 her images have been broken in pieces.
³ For out of the north there comes up a nation against her,
 which will make her land desolate,
 and no one will dwell in it.
 They will wander away;
 they will depart,
 both man and beast.
⁴ In those days and at that time,
 says the LORD ,
 the sons of Israel will come,
 they and the children of Judah together.
 They will go along weeping as they go,
 and seek the LORD their God.
⁵ They will ask for the way to Zion
 with their faces in its direction.
 They will come that they may join themselves to the LORD
 in a perpetual covenant
 that will not be forgotten.
⁶ My people have been lost sheep.
 Their shepherds have caused them to go astray;
 they have turned them away on the mountains.
 They have gone from mountain to hill
 and have forgotten their resting place.
⁷ All who found them have devoured them,
 and their adversaries said, "We are not guilty, because they have sinned against the LORD , the habitation of justice,
 even the LORD , the hope of their fathers."
⁸ Wander away out of the midst of Babylon,
 and go out of the land of the Chaldeans,

and be as the male goats before the flocks.
⁹ For I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country.
 And they shall set themselves in array against her;
 from there she shall be taken captive.
 Their arrows will be like those of a skilled warrior;
 no one shall return empty-handed.
¹⁰ Chaldea will become plunder;
 all who destroy her will be satisfied,
 says the LORD .
¹¹ Because you were glad, because you rejoiced,
 O you destroyers of My heritage, because you have grown fat as the heifer at the grass,
 and bellow as bulls,
¹² your mother will be sorely humiliated;
 she who bore you will be ashamed.
 She will be the least of the nations,
 a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.
¹³ Because of the wrath of the LORD she will not be inhabited,
 but shall be wholly desolate.
 Everyone who goes by Babylon will be astonished and hiss at all her wounds.
¹⁴ Put yourselves in battle array against Babylon all around,
 all you who bend the bow;
 shoot at her, spare no arrows,
 for she has sinned against the LORD .
¹⁵ Shout against her all around;
 she has given herself up, her foundations have fallen,
 her walls have been thrown down.
 For this is the vengeance of the LORD .
 Take vengeance on her;
 as she has done, do to her.
¹⁶ Cut off the sower from Babylon,
 and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest.
 For fear of the oppressing sword everyone will turn to his people,
 and everyone will flee to his own land.
¹⁷ Israel is a scattered flock.
 The lions have driven him away.
 First the king of Assyria
 devoured him;
 and this last one who has broken his bones
 is Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.
¹⁸ Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel:
 I will punish the king of Babylon and his land,
 as I have punished the king of Assyria.
¹⁹ I will bring Israel again to his habitation,
 and he will feed on Carmel and Bashan,
 and his soul will be satisfied
 upon Mount Ephraim and Gilead.

²⁰ In those days and at that time,
 says the LORD ,
 the iniquity of Israel will be sought for,
 and there shall be none.
 And the sins of Judah,
 but they shall not be found;
 for I will pardon those whom I leave as a remnant.
²¹ Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against
 it,
 and against the inhabitants of Pekod.
 Slay and utterly destroy them,
 says the LORD ,
 and do according to all that I have commanded you.
²² A noise of battle is in the land,
 and great destruction.
²³ How the hammer of the whole earth
 has been cut asunder and broken!
 How Babylon has become a desolation
 among the nations!
²⁴ I have laid a snare for you,
 and you were also caught, O Babylon,
 and you were not aware.
 You have been found, and also caught,
 because you have striven against the LORD .
²⁵ The LORD has opened His armory and has brought out the weapons of His indigna-
 tion,
 for this is the work of the Lord GOD of Hosts
 in the land of the Chaldeans.
²⁶ Come against her from the utmost border,
 open her storehouses;
 cast her up as heaps and destroy her utterly;
 let nothing of her be left.
²⁷ Slay all her bulls,
 let them go down to the slaughter.
 Woe to them! For their day has come,
 the time of their punishment.
²⁸ There is the sound of those who flee and escape
 out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion
 the vengeance of the LORD our God,
 the vengeance of His temple.
²⁹ Call together the archers against Babylon.
 All you who bend the bow,
 encamp against it all around;
 let no one escape.
 Recompense her according to her work;
 according to all that she has done, do to her,
 for she has been proud against the LORD ,
 against the Holy One of Israel.
³⁰ Therefore her young men shall fall in the streets,
 and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day,
 says the LORD .
³¹ I am against you, O most proud,
 says the Lord GOD of Hosts,
 for your day has come,
 the time when I will punish you.
³² The most proud will stumble and fall,

and no one will raise him up;
 and I will kindle a fire in his cities,
 and it will devour all all around him.
³³ Thus says the LORD of Hosts:
 The sons of Israel and the sons of Judah
 were oppressed together;
 and all who took them captives held them fast;
 they refused to let them go.
³⁴ Their Redeemer is strong;
 the LORD of Hosts is His name.
 He will thoroughly plead their case,
 that He may give rest to the land,
 but disquiet to the inhabitants of Babylon.
³⁵ A sword is against the Chaldeans,
 says the LORD ,
 and against the inhabitants of Babylon,
 and against her officials, and against her wise men.
³⁶ A sword is against the oracle priests,
 and they will become fools.
 A sword is against her mighty men,
 and they shall be dismayed.
³⁷ A sword is against their horses, and against their
 chariots,
 and against all the foreigners who are in her midst;
 and they will become as women.
 A sword is against her treasures,
 and they will be robbed.
³⁸ A drought is against her waters,
 and they will be dried up.
 For it is the land of graven images,
 and they are mad over their idols.
³⁹ Therefore the wild beasts of the desert
 with the wild beasts of the islands will dwell there,
 and the ostriches will dwell in it.
 It will be inhabited no more forever,
 nor will it be lived in from generation to generation.
⁴⁰ As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighboring cities,
 says the LORD ,
 so no man will abide there,
 nor will any son of man dwell in it.
⁴¹ Look! A people shall come from the north and a great nation, and many kings
 will be raised up from the remote parts of the earth.
⁴² They will hold the bow and the lance;
 they are cruel and will not show mercy.
 Their voice shall roar like the sea;
 and they shall ride on horses,
 everyone put in array, like a man to the battle, against you, O daughter of Babylon.
⁴³ The king of Babylon has heard the report of them,
 and his hands waxed feeble.
 Anguish took hold of him,
 and pangs as of a woman in labor.
⁴⁴ He will come up like a lion from the thicket of the Jordan
 to the perpetually watered meadow.
 But I will make them suddenly run away from it,

and whoever is chosen I will appoint over it.
For who is like Me? And who will summon Me into court?

And who is the shepherd that can stand before Me?
⁴⁵ Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD that He has planned against Babylon, and His purposes that He has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans:

Surely the least of the flock will drag them out.
Surely He will make their habitation desolate because of them.

⁴⁶ At the shout, "Babylon has been seized!" the earth is shaken,
and the outcry is heard among the nations.

The Destruction of Babylon

51 Thus says the LORD :
I will raise up against Babylon,
and against those who dwell in Leb Kamai,
the spirit of a destroyer.
² And I will send foreigners to Babylon that they may winnow her and empty her land.
For in the day of trouble
they will be against her all around.
³ Let not him who bends his bow bend it,
and let him not rise up in his scale-armor,
and do not spare her young men;
utterly destroy all her host.
⁴ Thus the slain will fall in the land of the Chaldeans,
and those who are thrust through in her streets.
⁵ For Israel has not been forsaken, nor Judah,
by his God, the LORD of Hosts,
though their land was filled with sin
against the Holy One of Israel.
⁶ Flee out of the midst of Babylon,
and each of you deliver his soul!
Do not be cut off in her punishment,
for this is the time of the vengeance of the LORD ;
He will render to her a recompense.
⁷ Babylon has been a golden cup in the hand of the LORD ,
that made all the earth drunk.
The nations have drunk of her wine;
therefore the nations are mad.
⁸ Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed.
Howl for her.
Take balm for her pain;
perhaps she may be healed.
⁹ We applied healing to Babylon,
but she is not healed.
Forsake her, and let us each go into his own country;
for her judgment reaches to heaven
and is lifted up even to the skies.
¹⁰ The LORD has brought forth our righteousness.
Come, and let us declare in Zion
the work of the LORD our God.
¹¹ Sharpen the arrows.
Gather the shields.

The LORD has raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes.

For His device is against Babylon, to destroy it;
because it is the vengeance of the LORD ,
the vengeance of His temple.

¹² Set up the standard against the walls of Babylon,
make the watch strong,
set up the watchmen,
prepare the ambushes.

For the LORD has both devised and done
that which He spoke against the inhabitants of Babylon.

¹³ O you who dwell by many waters, abundant in treasures,
your end has come,
and the measure of your end.

¹⁴ The LORD of Hosts has sworn by Himself, saying: Surely I will fill you with men, as with locusts,
and they will lift up shouts of victory against you.

¹⁵ He has made the earth by His power;
He has established the world by His wisdom,
and has stretched out the heaven by His understanding.

¹⁶ When He utters His voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens,
and He causes the clouds to ascend from the remote parts of the earth;

He makes lightning with rain,
and brings out the wind from His storehouses.

¹⁷ Every man is ignorant by His knowledge;
every founder is humiliated by the graven image,
for his molded image is falsehood,
and there is no breath in them.

¹⁸ They are vanity, the work of errors;
in the time of their punishment they will perish.

¹⁹ The portion of Jacob is not like them,
for He is the former of all things,
and Israel is the rod of His inheritance.
The LORD of Hosts is His name.

²⁰ He says : You are My battle-ax
and weapon of war:

for with you I will break in pieces the nations,
and with you I will destroy kingdoms;

²¹ and with you I will break in pieces the horse and his rider;
and with you I will break in pieces the chariot and his rider.

²² With you also I will break in pieces man and woman;

and with you I will break in pieces old and young;
and with you I will break in pieces the young man and the young woman.

²³ I will also break in pieces with you the shepherd and his flock;

and with you I will break in pieces the farmer and his yoke of oxen;

and with you I will break in pieces captains and rulers.

²⁴ I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, says the LORD .

²⁵ I am against you, O destroying mountain, says the LORD , who destroys all the earth.

And I will stretch out My hand against you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burned mountain.

²⁶ They will not take of you a stone for a corner, or a stone for foundations, but you will be desolate forever, says the LORD .

²⁷ Set up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz; appoint a captain against her.

Cause the horses to come up as the rough locusts.

²⁸ Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, the captains, and all the rulers, and every land of their dominion.

²⁹ So the land trembles and sorrows, for the purposes of the LORD will be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

³⁰ The mighty men of Babylon have ceased fighting; they have remained in their strongholds. Their might has failed; they became as women.

They have burned her dwelling places; the bars of her gates are broken.

³¹ One courier will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city has been captured from end to end ,

³² and the passages have been seized, and they have burned the reeds with fire, and the men of war are terrified.

³³ For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor, it is time to thresh her; yet a little while and the time of her harvest will come.

³⁴ "Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me and crushed me; he has made me an empty vessel. He has swallowed me up like a dragon; he has filled his belly with my delicacies, he has cast me out.

³⁵ May the violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon," the inhabitant of Zion will say; and, "May my blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea,"

Jerusalem will say.

³⁶ Therefore thus says the LORD :

I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you. And I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.

³⁷ Babylon will become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without an inhabitant.

³⁸ They will roar together like young lions; they will growl as lions' whelps.

³⁹ When they become heated up, I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunk, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not awake, says the LORD .

⁴⁰ I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats.

⁴¹ How Sheshak has been captured! And how the praise of the whole earth has been seized!

How Babylon has become an astonishment among the nations!

⁴² The sea has come up over Babylon; she has been covered with the multitude of the waves.

⁴³ Her cities have become a desolation, a dry land and a wilderness, a land in which no man dwells, through which no son of man passes.

⁴⁴ I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth from his mouth what he has swallowed up; and the nations will not flow together any more to him.

Indeed, the wall of Babylon will fall.

⁴⁵ My people, go out of her midst, and deliver every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD ,

⁴⁶ lest your heart grows faint, and you are afraid for the report that will be heard in the land— for the report will come one year, and after that in another year will come another report, and violence will be in the land, ruler against ruler—

⁴⁷ therefore the days are coming when I will punish the graven images of Babylon; and her whole land will be humiliated, and all her slain will fall in her midst.

⁴⁸ Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is in it, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers will come to her from the north, says the LORD .

⁴⁹ As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall,

so at Babylon the slain of all the earth will fall.
⁵⁰ You who have escaped the sword,
 go away, do not stand still.
 Remember the LORD afar off,
 and let Jerusalem come into your mind.
⁵¹ We are humiliated
 because we have heard reproach.
 Shame has covered our faces,
 for strangers have come into the holy places of the house of the LORD .
⁵² Therefore, surely the days are coming, says the LORD ,
 when I will punish her graven images,
 and the mortally wounded shall groan
 through all her land.
⁵³ Though Babylon should mount up to heaven,
 and though she should fortify the height of her
 strength,
 yet from Me will destroyers come to her,
 says the LORD .
⁵⁴ A sound of an outcry comes from Babylon,
 and great destruction
 from the land of the Chaldeans, ⁵⁵ because the LORD has devastated Babylon,
 and destroyed the great voice out of her.
 When her waves roar like great waters,
 a noise of their voice is uttered.
⁵⁶ Because the destroyer is coming against her, even upon Babylon,
 and her mighty men will be captured,
 every one of their bows are broken.
 For the LORD is a God of recompense;
 He will completely repay.
⁵⁷ I will make her officials drunk, and her wise men,
 her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men;
 and they will sleep a perpetual sleep, and not awake,
 says the King whose name is the LORD of Hosts.
⁵⁸ Thus says the LORD of Hosts:
 The broad wall of Babylon will be utterly broken,
 and her high gates will be burned with fire;
 and the peoples will labor in vain,
 and the nations become exhausted only for fire.

Jeremiah's Command to Seraiah

⁵⁹ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was a quartermaster. ⁶⁰ So Jeremiah wrote in a single scroll all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon. ⁶¹ Jeremiah said to Seraiah, "When you come to Babylon, then see that you read aloud all these words, ⁶² and say, 'O LORD , You have spoken against this place to cut it off, that no one will remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate forever.' ⁶³ It will be that when you have made an end of reading this scroll that you will bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates, ⁶⁴ and say, 'Thus Babylon will sink and not rise from the disaster that I will bring upon her, and they will become weary.'"

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

The Fall of Jerusalem Reviewed

2Ki 24:18-20; 25:1-21; 2Ch 36:11-20; Jer 39:1-10

52 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ² He did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD , according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ³ Through the anger of the LORD this came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah until He had cast them out from His presence.

Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁶ In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was so severe in the city that there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁷ Then the city was breached, and all the men of war fled and went out of the city by night by way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city, and they went by way of the Arabah. ⁸ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.

⁹ Then they took the king and carried him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath where he passed sentence on him. ¹⁰ The king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes; he also slew all the officials of Judah in Riblah. ¹¹ Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and the king of Babylon bound him in chains and carried him to Babylon and put him in prison until the day of his death.

The Temple Burned

¹² Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard who served the king of Babylon came into Jerusalem, ¹³ and burned the house of the LORD , and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem. Even all the large houses, he burned with fire. ¹⁴ And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. ¹⁵ Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poorest of the people, and the rest of the people who remained in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. ¹⁶ But Neb-

¹⁷ Also the pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the stands, and the bronze sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke and carried all their bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸ The cauldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of bronze with which they ministered, they took away. ¹⁹ The captain of the guard also took away the basins, and the fire pans, and the bowls, and the cauldrons, and the lampstands, and the spoons, and the cups, what was of fine gold, and what was of fine silver.

²⁰ The two pillars, one sea, and twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which King Solomon had made in the house of the LORD, the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weight. ²¹ Concerning the pillars: the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and it was twelve cubits in circumference and in thickness it was four fingers, † and hollow. ²² A capital of bronze was upon it, and the height of one capital was five cubits, †† with network and pomegranates upon the capital all around, all of bronze. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like these. ²³ There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were a hundred upon the network all around.

The Babylonian Exile

²⁴ The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three officers of the temple. ²⁵ He also took out of the city one official who had charge of the men of war, and seven men of the advisers of the king who were found in the city, and the scribe of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the midst of the city. ²⁶ So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. ²⁷ The king of Babylon struck them and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath.

† About 27 feet high and 18 feet in circumference, or 8.1 meters high and 5.4 meters in circumference. †† About 7 1/2 feet, or 2.3 meters.

Thus Judah was carried away captive out of its own land. ²⁸ These are the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive:

in the seventh year three thousand and twenty-three Jews.

²⁹ In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred and thirty-two persons.

³⁰ In the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred and forty-five.

All the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

Jehoiachin Released

2Ki 25:27-30

³¹ In the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin, king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month, Awel-Marduk, king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison, ³² and spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³ Therefore Jehoiachin changed his prison garments and continually ate meals before him all the days of his life. ³⁴ For his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion all the days of his life until the day of his death.

LAMENTATIONS

Jeremiah is the author of Lamentations, and it was probably written between 586 and 575 BC, shortly after the fall of Jerusalem in 586 BC. The theme of Lamentations concerns the mourning for Jerusalem. The book is comprised of five elegies or poems that mourn the destruction of Jerusalem. The purpose behind the book's graphic depictions of sorrow and suffering was to produce hope in God, whose compassion is "new every morning" and whose faithfulness is great even to those who have been condemned for their own unfaithfulness.

The Sorrows of Jerusalem

1 How lonely sits the city that was full of people!
How she has become like a widow,
who was once great among the nations!
She who was a princess among the provinces
has become a slave!
2 She weeps sorely in the night,
her tears are on her cheeks;
among all her lovers
she has none to comfort her.
All her friends have dealt treacherously with her;
they have become her enemies.
3 Judah has gone into captivity,
under affliction and great servitude;
she dwells among the nations,
she finds no rest;
all her persecutors overtook her
in the midst of distress.
4 The roads to Zion mourn
because no one comes to the solemn feasts.
All her gates are desolate;
her priests sigh,
her virgins are afflicted,
and she herself suffers bitterly.
5 Her adversaries have become her masters,
her enemies prosper;
for the LORD has afflicted her
because of the multitude of her transgressions.
Her children have gone into captivity
before the enemy.
6 From the daughter of Zion
all her beauty has departed.
Her princes have become like deer
that find no pasture;
they fled without strength
before the pursuer.
7 In the days of her affliction and misery
Jerusalem remembers all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old.
When her people fell into the hand of the enemy,
there was no one to help her.

The adversaries saw her
and mocked at her desolation.
8 Jerusalem has sinned grievously;
therefore she has become vile.
All who honored her despise her,
for they have seen her nakedness;
she herself sighs
and turns away.
9 Her uncleanness is in her skirts;
she took no thought of her future;
therefore her fall is astounding;
she has no comforter.
"O LORD, look upon my affliction,
for the enemy has triumphed!"
10 The adversary has spread his hand over all her precious things;
for she has seen the nations
enter her sanctuary,
those whom You commanded
not to enter Your congregation.
11 All her people groan,
as they search for bread;
they trade their treasures for food
to restore their strength.
Look, O LORD, and consider,
for I am despised.
12 Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look and see
if there is any sorrow like my sorrow,
which was brought upon me,
which the LORD has inflicted on the day of His fierce anger.
13 From on high He has sent fire into my bones,
and it prevailed against them;
He has spread a net for my feet;
He turned me back;
He has made me desolate
and faint all the day long.
14 The yoke of my transgressions was bound; by His hand
they were fastened together; they were set upon my neck.
He made my strength fail;
the Lord delivered me into the hands of those whom I am not able to withstand.

¹⁵ The Lord has trampled underfoot
 all my mighty men in my midst;
 He has called an assembly against me
 to crush my young men;
 The Lord has trodden the virgin daughter of Judah
 as in a winepress.
¹⁶ For these things I weep;
 my eyes flow with tears;
 for the comforter, who should relieve my soul,
 is far from me.
 My children are desolate
 for the enemy has prevailed.
¹⁷ Zion spreads out her hands,
 but there is no one to comfort her;
 the LORD has commanded against Jacob that his neighbors should be his adversaries;
 Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them.
¹⁸ The LORD is in the right,
 for I have rebelled against His commandment.
 Hear now, all peoples,
 and see my sorrow;
 my virgins and my young men
 have gone into captivity.
¹⁹ I called for my lovers,
 but they deceived me;
 my priests and my elders
 perished in the city, while they sought food
 to restore their strength.
²⁰ Look, O LORD, for I am in distress;
 my soul is greatly troubled;
 my heart is overturned within me,
 for I have grievously rebelled.
 In the street the sword bereaves,
 at home it is like death.
²¹ They have heard my groaning,
 yet there is no one to comfort me.
 All my enemies have heard of my trouble;
 they are glad that You have done it.
 Bring the day that You have announced,
 that they become like me.
²² Let all their wickedness come before You,
 and do to them
 as You have done to me
 for all my transgressions;
 for my groans are many,
 and my heart is faint.

The Anger of God Over Jerusalem

2 How the Lord has covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in His anger!
 He has cast down from heaven to the earth
 the beauty of Israel;
 He has not remembered His footstool
 in the day of His anger.
² The Lord has swallowed up without mercy
 all the habitations of Jacob;

In His wrath He has thrown down
 the strongholds of the daughter of Judah;
 He has brought them down to the ground;
 He has profaned the kingdom and its princes.
³ He has cut off in fierce anger
 all the might of Israel;
 He has drawn back His right hand
 from before the enemy.
 He has burned against Jacob
 like a flaming fire, devouring all around.
⁴ He has bent His bow like an enemy,
 with his right hand set like an adversary;
 He has killed all who were pleasant to His eye;
 in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion,
 He has poured out His fury like fire.
⁵ The Lord has become like an enemy;
 He has swallowed up Israel,
 He has swallowed up all her palaces;
 He has destroyed her strongholds,
 and has increased mourning and lamentation
 in the daughter of Judah.
⁶ He has violently taken away His tabernacle as if it were a garden;
 He has destroyed His place of assembly;
 the LORD has caused the solemn feasts and Sabbaths
 to be forgotten in Zion.
 In his fierce indignation He has despised the king and the priest.
⁷ The Lord has scorned His altar,
 He has disowned His sanctuary;
 He has given up the walls of her palaces
 into the hand of the enemy.
 They have made a noise in the house of the LORD
 as on the day of a solemn feast.
⁸ The LORD has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.
 He has stretched out a line;
 He has not withdrawn His hand from destroying;
 therefore He caused the rampart and the wall to lament;
 they languished together.
⁹ Her gates have sunk into the ground;
 He has destroyed and broken her bars.
 Her king and her princes are among the nations;
 the Law is no more,
 and her prophets find
 no vision from the LORD.
¹⁰ The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence;
 they throw dust on their heads and gird themselves with sackcloth.
 The virgins of Jerusalem
 bow their heads to the ground.
¹¹ My eyes fail with tears,
 my spirit is greatly troubled;
 my bile is poured on the ground
 because of the destruction of the daughter of my
 people,

because the children and infants faint
in the streets of the city.
¹² They say to their mothers,
“Where is grain and wine?”
 when they faint like a wounded man
in the streets of the city,
as their life is poured out
on their mothers’ bosom.
¹³ What can I say for you,
to what shall I liken you,
O daughter of Jerusalem?
 What shall I compare with you,
that I may comfort you,
O virgin daughter of Zion?
 For your devastation is great like the sea;
who can heal you?
¹⁴ Your prophets have seen for you false and deceptive visions;
they have not revealed your iniquity,
to bring back your captives,
but have seen for you oracles
that are false and misleading.
¹⁵ All who pass by clap their hands at you;
they hiss and shake their heads
at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, “Is this the city that men call
the perfection of beauty,
the joy of the whole earth?”
¹⁶ All your enemies
have opened their mouth against you;
they hiss and gnash their teeth.
 They say, “We have swallowed her up!
 Certainly this is the day that we longed for;
we have found it; we have seen it.”
¹⁷ The LORD has done what He planned;
He has fulfilled His word that He had commanded in the days of old.
 He has thrown down and has not pitied,
and He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you;
He has exalted the power of your adversaries.
¹⁸ Their heart cried to the Lord:
O wall of the daughter of Zion,
let your tears run down
like a river day and night;
give yourself no rest,
your eyes no respite!
¹⁹ Arise, cry out in the night,
at the beginning of the watches;
pour out your heart like water
before the face of the Lord.
 Lift your hands to Him
for the lives of your young children, who faint for hunger
at the head of every street.
²⁰ Look, O LORD, and consider!
To whom have You done this?
Should the women eat their offspring,

the children who were born healthy?
Should the priest and the prophet be killed
in the sanctuary of the Lord?
²¹ The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets;
my virgins and my young men
have fallen by the sword;
You have killed them in the day of Your anger,
You have slaughtered and not pitied.
²² You have invited as to a feast day the terrors all
around;
in the day of the LORD’s anger
no one escaped or survived;
those whom I held and raised
my enemy destroyed.

The Prophet’s Anguish

3 I am the man who has seen affliction
by the rod of His wrath.
² He has driven and brought me into darkness without any light.
³ Surely against me has He turned His hand continually, the whole day long.
⁴ My flesh and my skin He has made waste away;
He has broken my bones;
⁵ He has besieged and enveloped me
with gall and travail.
⁶ He has set me in dark places,
like the dead of long ago.
⁷ He has hedged me in so that I cannot get out;
He has made my chain heavy.
⁸ Even when I cry for help,
He shuts out my prayer.
⁹ He has blocked my ways with hewn stone;
He has made my paths crooked.
¹⁰ He is to me a bear lying in wait,
a lion in hiding.
¹¹ He has turned aside my ways and torn me in pieces;
He has made me desolate.
¹² He has bent His bow
and set me as a target for the arrow.
¹³ He has caused the arrows of His quiver to pierce my inward parts.
¹⁴ I have become the derision of all my people,
their mocking song all the day.
¹⁵ He has filled me with bitterness,
He has sated me with wormwood.
¹⁶ He has made my teeth grind on gravel,
and covered me with ashes.
¹⁷ My soul is bereft of peace;
I have forgotten prosperity.
¹⁸ So I say, “My strength and my hope from the LORD have perished.”
¹⁹ Remember my affliction and my misery,
the wormwood and the gall.
²⁰ Surely my soul remembers
and is humbled within me.

21 But this I call to mind,
 and therefore I have hope:
 22 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed;
 His compassions do not fail.
 23 They are new every morning;
 great is Your faithfulness.
 24 "The LORD is my portion," says my soul,
 "therefore I will hope in Him."
 25 The LORD is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul who seeks Him.
 26 It is good that a man should wait quietly
 for the salvation of the LORD.
 27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke
 in his youth.
 28 Let him sit alone in silence
 when it is laid on him;
 29 let him put his mouth in the dust—
 there may yet be hope.
 30 Let him give his cheek to the one who strikes,
 and let him be filled with insults.
 31 For the Lord
 will not cast off forever.
 32 But though He causes grief, yet He will have compassion
 according to the abundance of His mercies.
 33 For He does not afflict from His heart,
 nor grieve the sons of men.
 34 To crush underfoot
 all the prisoners of the earth, 35 to turn aside the justice due a man in the presence of the Most High, 36 to subvert a man in his cause,
 the Lord does not approve.
 37 Who is he who speaks and it comes to pass,
 unless the Lord has commanded it?
 38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that good and bad proceed?
 39 Why should a living man complain,
 a man for the punishment of his sins?
 40 Let us search and try our ways,
 and return to the LORD!
 41 Let us lift up our hearts and hands
 to God in heaven:
 42 We have transgressed and rebelled;
 You have not pardoned.
 43 You have covered Yourself with anger and pursued us;
 You have killed and not pitied.
 44 You have covered Yourself with a cloud,
 so that no prayer should pass through.
 45 You have made us filthy refuse
 in the midst of the peoples.
 46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.
 47 Panic and snare have come upon us,
 desolation and destruction.
 48 My eyes flow with rivers of tears

for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
 49 My eyes flow and do not cease,
 without respite,
 50 until the LORD from heaven
 looks down and sees.
 51 My eyes bring suffering to my soul
 at the fate of all the daughters of my city.
 52 My enemies chased me like a bird,
 without cause.
 53 They cut off my life in the pit
 and cast stones on me.
 54 Waters flowed over my head;
 I said, "I am cut off!"
 55 I called on Your name, O LORD, from the lowest pit.
 56 You have heard my plea:
 "Do not close Your ear to my cry for help!"
 57 You drew near on the day I called on You, and You said, "Do not fear!"
 58 O Lord, You have pleaded the case for my soul;
 You have redeemed my life.
 59 O LORD, You have seen the wrong done to me;
 judge my case.
 60 You have seen all their vengeance,
 all their schemes against me.
 61 You have heard their reproach, O LORD,
 all their schemes against me, 62 the lips of my enemies and their devices against me all the day.
 63 Look at their sitting down and their rising up;
 I am their mocking song.
 64 Render to them a recompense, O LORD,
 according to the work of their hands.
 65 Give them hardness of heart;
 may Your curse be upon them!
 66 In Your anger pursue and destroy them from under Your heavens, O LORD!

The Punishment of Zion

4 How the gold has become dim!
 How the most fine gold has changed!
 The stones of the sanctuary lie scattered
 at the head of every street.
 2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold,
 how they are esteemed as earthen pots,
 the work of a potter's hands!
 3 Even the jackals offer the breast;
 they nurse their young,
 yet the daughter of my people has become cruel,
 like ostriches in the wilderness.
 4 The tongue of the infant cleaves to the roof of his mouth for thirst;
 the children beg for bread,
 but no one divides it for them.
 5 Those who once ate delicacies are desolate in the streets;
 those who were brought up in scarlet embrace ash heaps.

 6 For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom,
 which was overthrown in a moment,
 and no hands were wrung for her.
 7 Her princes were purer than snow,
 whiter than milk;
 their bodies were more ruddy than rubies,
 their appearance like sapphire.
 8 Their form is blacker than coal;
 they are not recognized in the streets;
 their skin cleaves to their bones,
 it has become as dry as wood.
 9 Those killed by the sword are better off than those who die of hunger,
 for they pine away,
 stricken for want of the fruits of the field.
 10 The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children;
 they became their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.
 11 The LORD has fulfilled His fury,
 He has poured out His fierce anger.
 He kindled a fire in Zion,
 and it has devoured its foundations.
 12 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world,
 would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy could enter the gates of Jerusalem.
 13 This was for the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who poured out in her midst the blood of the righteous.
 14 They wandered,
 blind, in the streets;
 they have defiled themselves with blood,
 so that no one could touch their garments.
 15 They cried out to them, "Depart! Unclean!
 Depart, depart, do not touch us!"
 Therefore they fled and wandered;
 men among the nations said,
 "They shall live with us no longer."
 16 The presence of the LORD scattered them;
 He will regard them no more;
 they do not respect the priests,
 nor show favor to the elders.
 17 Our eyes failed us,
 watching vainly for help;
 in our watchtowers we watched
 for a nation that could not save us.
 18 They tracked our steps
 so that we could not walk in our streets.
 Our end drew near; our days were numbered,
 for our end had come.
 19 Our pursuers were swifter
 than the eagles of the skies.
 They pursued us on the mountains;

they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.
 20 The breath of our life, the anointed king of the LORD,
 was captured in their traps,
 of whom we said, "Under his shadow
 we shall live among the nations."
 21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom,
 you who dwell in the land of Uz!
 The cup shall also pass to you;
 you shall become drunk and strip yourself bare.
 22 The punishment of your iniquity, O daughter of Zion, is accomplished;
 He shall exile you no longer.
 He shall punish your iniquity, O daughter of Edom;
 He will expose your sins!

A Prayer for Restoration

5 Remember, O LORD, what has come upon us;
 look, and see our reproach!
 2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers,
 our homes to foreigners.
 3 We have become orphans and fatherless;
 our mothers are like widows.
 4 We must pay for the water we drink;
 our wood is sold to us.
 5 Our pursuers are at our necks;
 we labor and have no rest.
 6 We have given our hand to Egypt and to Assyria,
 to be satisfied with bread.
 7 Our fathers sinned and are no more,
 but we bear their iniquities.
 8 Slaves rule over us;
 there is no one to deliver us from their hand.
 9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives,
 because of the sword in the wilderness.
 10 Our skin is hot as an oven,
 because of the terrible famine.
 11 They ravished the women in Zion,
 the virgins in the cities of Judah.
 12 Princes were hung up by their hands,
 the faces of elders were not honored.
 13 Young men ground at the millstones;
 boys staggered under loads of wood.
 14 The elders have left the city gate,
 the young men stopped their music.
 15 The joy of our hearts has ceased;
 our dancing has turned into mourning.
 16 The crown has fallen from our head;
 woe to us, for we have sinned!
 17 For this our heart is faint;
 for these things our eyes grow dim;
 18 because of Mount Zion, which is desolate,
 with foxes walking upon it.
 19 You, O LORD, remain forever;
 Your throne endures from generation to generation.
 20 Why do You forget us forever,
 and forsake us for so long a time?

²¹ Restore us to Yourself, O LORD, that we may return!
Renew our days as of old,

²² unless You have utterly rejected us,
and are very angry with us.

EZEKIEL

The book of Ezekiel was probably written between 593 and 565 BC. The author is Ezekiel, and the theme involves the judgment of Judah and the glory of a restored Jerusalem temple. Ezekiel was both a prophet and priest, and his ministry was likely from 593 to 571 BC. He was exiled to Babylon in 597 BC. Ezekiel's sweeping visions of divine judgment and glory come during his exile in Babylon, far from the temple in Jerusalem where God's glory had been displayed in the past, and now recently departed. His prophecies of restoration for God's people include the vision of the valley of dry bones, which illustrates God's ability and desire to renew His people.

The Vision of the LORD's Glory

1 In the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Kebar, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God.

² On the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of the captivity of King Jehoiachin, ³ the word of the LORD came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the River Kebar. And the hand of the LORD was on him there.

¹⁹ Whenever the living creatures went, the wheels went with them. And whenever the living creatures were lifted up from the ground, the wheels also were lifted up. ²⁰ Wherever the spirit was about to go, they would go in that direction. And the wheels rose close beside them. For the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²¹ Whenever those went, these went. And whenever those stood still, these stood still. And whenever those rose from the ground, the wheels rose close beside them. For the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

²² The likeness of the expanse over the heads of the living creatures was as the awesome gleam of crystal, stretched out over their heads above. ²³ Under the expanse their wings were stretched out straight, the one toward the other. Each one also had two wings which covered its body on the one side and the other.

²⁴ When they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of abundant waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the noise of tumult as the noise of an army camp. Whenever they stood still, they let down their wings.

²⁵ There was a voice from the expanse that was over their heads whenever they stood still and let down their wings. ²⁶ Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone. And on the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man on it high up. ²⁷ Then I saw as glowing metal, as the appearance of fire all around within it, from the appearance of His loins and upward; and from the appearance of His loins and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was a brightness around Him. ²⁸ As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud on a day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around.

This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell on my face and heard a voice of one speaking.

The Call of Ezekiel

2 Then He said to me: Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak to you! ² When He spoke to me, the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. Then I heard Him speaking to me.

³ And He said to me: Son of man, I send you to the sons of Israel, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against Me. They and their fathers have transgressed against Me even to this very day. ⁴ And as for the impudent and obstinate children, I am sending you to them. And you shall say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD." ⁵ As for them, whether they listen or not (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them. ⁶ And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them or be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns be with you, and you dwell among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words or be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house. ⁷ You shall speak My words to them, whether they listen or not, for they are rebellious. ⁸ But you, son of man, hear what I say to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I give you.

⁹ When I looked, a hand was sent to me. And a scroll was in it. ¹⁰ And He spread it before me. And there was writing on the inside and on the outside, and written on it were words of lamentation and mourning and woe.

3 Moreover He said to me, Son of man, eat what you find. Eat this scroll and go speak to the house of Israel. ² So I opened my mouth, and He fed me this scroll.

³ He said to me, Son of man, feed your stomach and fill your inward parts with this scroll that I give you. Then I ate it, and it was as honey for sweetness in my mouth.

⁴ Then He said to me: Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with My words to them. ⁵ For you are not being sent to a people of foreign speech and hard language, but to the house of Israel, ⁶ nor to many peoples of foreign speech and hard language, whose words you cannot understand. But I have sent you to them who should listen to you. ⁷ But the house of Israel will not listen to you, because they will not listen to Me. For all the house of Israel is impudent and obstinate. ⁸ But I have made your face as hard as their faces and your forehead as hard as their foreheads. ⁹ As emery harder than flint, I have made your forehead. Do not be afraid of them or be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.

¹⁰ Moreover He said to me: Son of man, all My words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart and hear with your ears. ¹¹ Go to the captives, to the sons of your people, and speak to them and tell them, whether they listen or not, "Thus says the Lord GOD."

¹² Then the Spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a great thundering voice: "Blessed be the glory of the LORD in His place." ¹³ I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another and the noise of the wheels beside them, even a great rushing sound. ¹⁴ So the Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit, and the hand of the LORD was strong upon me. ¹⁵ Then I came to the captives at Tel Aviv, who lived by the River Kebar, and I sat there where they sat seven days, causing consternation among them.

Ezekiel, a Watchman for Israel

¹⁶ At the end of seven days, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ¹⁷ Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel. Whenever you hear the word from My mouth, then warn them from Me. ¹⁸ When I say to the wicked, "You shall surely die," and you do not warn him, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way that he may live, the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. ¹⁹ Yet if you warn the wicked and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity. But you have delivered your soul.

²² The hand of the LORD was upon me there, and He said to me, Rise, go out into the plain, and I will talk with you there. ²³ Then I arose, and went out into the plain. And the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Kebar, and I fell on my face.

²⁴ Then the Spirit entered me, and set me on my feet, and spoke with me and said to me: Go, shut yourself up within your house. ²⁵ As for you, son of man, they shall put bands on you and shall bind you with them, so that you cannot go out among them. ²⁶ And I will make your tongue cleave to the roof of your mouth so that you shall be mute and cannot be one to rebuke them, for they are a rebellious house. ²⁷ But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD." He who hears, let him hear. And he who refuses, let him refuse. For they are a rebellious house.

The Siege of Jerusalem Portrayed

4 You also, son of man, take a brick and lay it before you and inscribe a city on it, even Jerusalem. ² Then lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and build a mound against it; set camps and place battering rams against it all around. ³ Moreover take for yourself an iron plate and set it up for a wall of iron between you and the city. And set your face against it so that it is besieged, and lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

⁴ As for you, lie down on your left side and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it. According to the number of the days that you lie on it, you shall bear their iniquity. ⁵ For I have laid upon you the years of their iniquity according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days. So you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

⁶ When you have accomplished them, lie again on your right side, and you shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days. I have appointed you each day for a year. ⁷ Therefore you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and your arm shall be uncovered, and you shall prophesy against it. ⁸ I will lay bands upon you, and you shall not turn yourself from one side to another until you have ended the days of your siege.

⁹ Also take for yourself wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel and make bread. According to the number of the days that you lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days, you shall eat it. ¹⁰ Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels [†] a day. From time to time you shall eat it. ¹¹ You also shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin. ^{††} From time to time you shall drink it. ¹² You shall eat it as barley cake, having baked it in their sight with dung that comes out of man. ¹³ Then the LORD said, "Even so the sons of Israel shall eat their defiled bread among the nations where I drive them."

¹⁴ Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! My soul has not been defiled. For from my youth up even until now I have not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn in pieces, nor has abominable meat come into my mouth."

¹⁵ Then He said to me, "I have given you cow dung instead of man's dung over which you shall prepare your bread."

¹⁶ Moreover He said to me, Son of man, I will cut off the supply of bread in Jerusalem. They shall eat bread by weight and with anxiety and drink water by measure and with horror, ¹⁷ because bread and water will be scarce, and they will be appalled with one another, and waste away for their iniquity.

[†] About 8 ounces, or 230 grams. ^{††} About 2/3 quart, or 0.6 liter.

A Sword Against Jerusalem

5 As for you, son of man, take a sharp sword. Take and cause it to pass upon your head and upon your beard as a barber's razor. Then take balances to weigh and divide the hair. ² You shall burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city when the days of the siege are fulfilled. Then you shall take a third part and strike it with the sword all around the city. And a third part you shall scatter in the wind. And I will draw out a sword after them. ³ You shall also take a few in number from them and bind them in the edges of your robes. ⁴ Then take some of them again and cast them into the midst of the fire and burn them in the fire. For a fire shall come out into all the house of Israel.

⁵ Thus says the Lord GOD: This is Jerusalem. I have set it in the midst of the nations, with countries that are all around her. ⁶ But she has rebelled against My judgments more wickedly than the nations, and against My statutes more than the countries that are all around her. For they have refused My judgments and My statutes, and have not walked in them.

⁷ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have more turmoil than the nations that are round about you and have not walked in My statutes, or have kept My judgments, and have not even acted according to the judgments of the nations that are all around you, ⁸ therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Pay attention. I, even I, am against you and will execute judgments in your midst in the sight of the nations. ⁹ I will do in you what I have not done, and the like of which I will not do anymore, because of all your abominations. ¹⁰ Therefore the fathers shall eat their sons in your midst, and the sons shall eat their fathers. For I will execute judgments on you, and the whole remnant of you I will scatter into all the winds. ¹¹ Therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, surely, because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you, and My eye shall have no pity, nor will I spare. ¹² A third part of you shall die by pestilence or by famine; they shall be consumed in your midst. And a third part shall fall by the sword all around you. And I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

¹³ Thus My anger shall be accomplished, and I will cause My fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted. Then they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in My zeal when I have accomplished My fury in them.

¹⁴ Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are all around you, in the sight of all who pass by. ¹⁵ So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, a warning and an astonishment to the nations that are all around you, when I execute judgments in you in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it. ¹⁶ When I send upon them the deadly arrows of famine which shall be for their destruction and which I will send to destroy you, then I will also increase the famine upon you and break your staff of bread. ¹⁷ So I will send upon you famine and wild beasts, and they shall bereave you of children. And pestilence and bloodshed shall pass through you. And I will bring the sword upon you. I the LORD have spoken it.

Judgment on Idolatrous Israel

6 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, ³ and say, Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD. Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys: Pay attention. I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. ⁴ Your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken. And I will cast down your slain men before your idols. ⁵ I will lay the dead corpses of the sons of Israel before their idols. And I will scatter your bones all around your altars. ⁶ In all your dwelling places, the cities shall be laid waste and the high places shall be desolate so that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. ⁷ The slain shall fall in your midst, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

⁸ Yet I will leave a remnant, for you will have some who escape the sword among the nations when you are scattered among the countries. ⁹ Those of you who escape shall remember Me among the nations wherever they shall be carried captive, because I am broken by their whorish heart which has departed from Me, and with their eyes which play the harlot after their idols. And they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. ¹⁰ They shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would bring this calamity upon them.

¹¹ Thus says the Lord GOD: Clap your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! For they shall fall by sword, by famine, and by pestilence. ¹² He who is far off shall die of pestilence, and he who is near shall fall by the sword, and he who remains and is besieged shall die by famine. Thus I will accomplish My fury upon them. ¹³ Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols all around their altars, on every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they offered sweet savor to all their idols. ¹⁴ So, in all their habitations I will stretch out My hand upon them and make the land desolate, indeed, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblah. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

The Day of the LORD's Wrath

7 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² And you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel:

An end, the end is coming
upon the four corners of the land.

³ Now the end has come upon you,
and I will send My anger upon you,
and will judge you according to your ways,
and will recompense upon you all your abominations.

⁴ My eye shall not spare you,
nor will I have pity;
but I will recompense your ways upon you,
and your abominations shall be in your midst.
And you shall know that I am the LORD!

⁵ Thus says the Lord GOD:
A disaster, a singular disaster;
it is coming!

⁶ An end is coming,
the end has come;
it watches for you;
it has come!

⁷ Your doom has come to you,
O inhabitant in the land;
the time has come, the day of trouble is near,
and not the joyful shouting on the mountains.

⁸ Now I will shortly pour out My fury upon you,
and accomplish My anger upon you;
and I will judge you according to your ways,
and will recompense you for all your abominations.

⁹ My eye shall not spare,
nor will I have pity;
I will recompense you according to your ways,
and your abominations that are in your midst.
And you shall know that I am the LORD who strikes.

¹⁰ The day is coming!
Your doom has gone out;
the rod has blossomed,
pride has budded.

¹¹ Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness;
none of them shall remain,
none of their people,
none of their wealth,
nor anything eminent among them.

¹² The time has come,
the day has drawn near.
Do not let the buyer rejoice,
or the seller mourn,
for wrath is against all their multitude.

¹³ For the seller shall not return to that which is sold,
although they both live;
for the vision concerning the whole multitude shall not return;
nor shall any strengthen his life

by his iniquity.
¹⁴ They have blown the trumpet
 even to make all ready,
 but none goes to the battle;
 for My wrath is against all the multitude.
¹⁵ The sword is outside,
 and the pestilence and the famine within.
 He who is in the field
 shall die by the sword;
 and he who is in the city,
 famine and pestilence shall devour him.
¹⁶ Even when their survivors escape,
 they shall be on the mountains
 like doves of the valleys,
 all of them mourning,
 every one over his iniquity.
¹⁷ All hands shall be feeble,
 and all knees shall be weak as water.
¹⁸ They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth,
 and horror shall cover them;
 and shame shall be upon all faces,
 and baldness upon all their heads.
¹⁹ They shall cast their silver in the streets,
 and their gold shall become abhorrent;
 their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD;
 they shall not satisfy their souls,
 or fill their stomachs,
 for their iniquity has become a stumbling block.
²⁰ They transformed the beauty of His ornaments into pride,
 and made the images of their abominations
 and of their detestable things with it;
 therefore I will make it an abhorrent thing to them.
²¹ I will give it into the hands of the strangers as plunder and to the wicked of the earth for destruction,
 and they shall pollute it.
²² My face also I will turn from them,
 and they shall pollute My secret place;
 for the robbers shall enter and defile it.
²³ Make a chain,
 for the land is full of bloody crimes,
 and the city is full of violence.
²⁴ Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations,
 and they shall possess their houses;
 I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease,
 and their holy places shall be defiled.
²⁵ When destruction comes,
 then they shall seek peace, but there shall be none.
²⁶ Mischief shall come upon mischief,
 and rumor shall be upon rumor.
 Then they shall seek a vision of the prophet;
 but the law shall perish from the priest,
 and counsel from the elders.
²⁷ The king shall mourn,

and the prince shall be clothed with desolation,
 and the hands of the people of the land shall tremble.

I will do to them according to their way,
 and according to what they deserve I will judge
 them.

And they shall know that I am the LORD!

Abominations in the Temple

8 In the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house and the elders of Judah sat before me, the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there. ² Then I looked, and there was a likeness as the appearance of a man. From His loins and downward was the appearance of fire. And from His loins and upward was the appearance of brightness, as the appearance of glowing metal. ³ He stretched out the form of a hand and took me by a lock of my head. And the Spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heavens, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the north gate of the inner court, where the seat of the image of jealousy was, which provokes to jealousy. ⁴ The glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

⁵ Then He said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now toward the north." So I lifted up my eyes toward the north, and northward at the gate of the altar was this image of jealousy in the entrance.

⁶ He said furthermore to me, "Son of man, do you see what they do, even the great abominations that the house of Israel commits here, so that I should go far off from My sanctuary? But yet you shall see still greater abominations."

⁷ Then He brought me to the door of the court. And when I looked, there was a hole in the wall. ⁸ So He said to me, "Son of man, now dig in the wall." And when I had dug in the wall, there was a door.

⁹ He said to me, "Enter and notice the wicked abomi-nations that they do here." ¹⁰ So I went in and saw every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed upon the wall all around. ¹¹ There stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up.

¹² Then He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his images? For they say, 'The LORD does not see us. The LORD has forsaken the land.'" ¹³ He also said to me, "Yet again you shall see greater abominations that they do."

¹⁴ Then He brought me to the door of the gate of the house of the LORD which was toward the north. And women sat there weeping for Tammuz. ¹⁵ Then He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Yet again you shall see greater abominations than these."

¹⁶ He brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD, and at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east. And they worshipped the sun toward the east.

¹⁷ Then He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence and have continually provoked Me to anger. And they put the branch to their nose. ¹⁸ Therefore I will indeed deal in fury. My eye shall not spare, nor will I have pity. And though they cry in My ears with a loud voice, yet I will not listen to them."

The Slaughter of the Wicked

⁹ He cried out also in my ears with a loud voice, saying, "Cause those who have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand." ² Six men came from the way of the higher gate which lies toward the north, each with his battle weapon in his hand. And one man among them was clothed with linen with a writer's case by his side. And they went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

³ Then the glory of the God of Israel ascended from the cherub on which it had been, to the threshold of the temple. And He called to the man clothed with linen who had the writer's case by his side. ⁴ And the LORD said to him, "Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men who sigh and groan for all the abominations that are done in its midst." ⁵ To the others He said in my hearing, "Go after him through the city and strike. Do not let your eye spare or have pity. ⁶ Utterly slay old and young, both maidens and little children, and women. But do not touch any man on whom is the mark. And begin at My sanctuary." Then they began with the elders who were before the temple.

⁷ Then he said to them, "Defile the temple, and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth!" So they went out and killed in the city. ⁸ While they were killing, I was left alone; and I fell on my face and cried out, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will You destroy all the rest of Israel by Your pouring out of Your fury upon Jerusalem?"

⁹ Then He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city is full of perverseness. For they say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD does not see.' ¹⁰ But as for Me, My eye shall not spare, nor will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their heads."

¹¹ Then the man clothed with linen who had the case by his side reported the matter, saying, "I have done just as You have commanded me."

The Glory of God Leaves the Temple

¹⁰ Then I looked, and in the expanse that was above the heads of the cherubim there appeared over them, as it were, a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. ² And He spoke to the man clothed with linen and said, "Go in between the wheels under the cherubim and fill your hands with coals of fire from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city." And he entered in my sight.

³ Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the temple when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court. ⁴ Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub and stood over the threshold of the temple. And the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the glory of the LORD. ⁵ The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even in the outer court, like the voice of the Almighty God when He speaks.

⁹ Then I looked, and there were the four wheels by the cherubim, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub. And the appearance of the wheels was as the color of a beryl stone. ¹⁰ As for their appearances, all four had one likeness, as if one wheel had been in the middle of a wheel. ¹¹ When they went, they went on their four sides. They did not turn as they went, but they followed to the place wherever the head looked. They did not turn as they went. ¹² Their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels that the four had were full of eyes all round. ¹³ As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing the whirling wheels. ¹⁴ Each one had four faces. The first face was the face of a cherub, the second face was the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

¹⁵ Then the cherubim rose up. They are the living creatures that I saw by the River Kebar. ¹⁶ When the cherubim went, the wheels went by them. And when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also would not turn from beside them. ¹⁷ When the cherubim stood, the wheels stood. And when they rose up, the wheels also rose up with them. For the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

¹⁸ Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the temple and stood over the cherubim. ¹⁹ The cherubim lifted up their wings and mounted up from the earth in my sight. When they went out, the wheels were beside them. They stood at the door of the east gate of the house of the LORD; and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

²⁰ These are the living creatures that I saw under the God of Israel by the River Kebar. So I knew that they were cherubim. ²¹ Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings. And the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. ²² The likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the River Kebar, their appearances and themselves. Each went straight forward.

God's Judgment on Wicked Counselors

11 Moreover the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the house of the LORD which faces eastward. And at the door of the gate were twenty-five men, among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azzur and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, officials of the people. ² Then He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who devise mischief and give wicked counsel in this city, ³ who say, ' The time is not near to build houses. This city is the cauldron, and we are the flesh.' ⁴ Therefore prophesy against them; prophesy, son of man!"

⁵ Then the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and He said to me, Say, Thus says the LORD: Thus you have said, O house of Israel, for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them. ⁶ You have multiplied your slain in this city, and you have filled the streets with them.

⁷ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Your slain whom you have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh and this city is the cauldron. But I will bring you out of the midst of it. ⁸ You have feared the sword, so I will bring a sword upon you, says the Lord GOD. ⁹ I will bring you out of the midst of the city and deliver you into the hands of strangers and execute judgments against you. ¹⁰ You shall fall by the sword. I will judge you in the border of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹¹ This city shall not be your cauldron, nor shall you be the flesh in the midst of it, but I will judge you in the border of Israel. ¹² Thus you shall know that I am the LORD. For you have not walked in My statutes, or executed My judgments, but have done after the customs of the nations all around you.

¹³ Now while I was prophesying, Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face and cried out with a loud voice and said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will You make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

The Exiles' Return Promised

¹⁴ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ¹⁵ Son of man, your brothers, your kindred, your fellow captives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, are they to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, "Go far from the LORD. This land has been given to us as a possession."

¹⁶ Therefore say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Although I have cast them far off among the nations, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be a sanctuary to them for a little while in the countries where they have gone.

¹⁷ Therefore say, Thus says the Lord GOD: I will gather you from the peoples and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

¹⁸ When they come there, they shall take away all the detestable things and all the abominations from it. ¹⁹ I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within them. And I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and give them a heart of flesh, ²⁰ that they may walk in My statutes, and keep My ordinances, and do them. And they shall be My people, and I will be their God. ²¹ But as for those whose hearts walk after the hearts of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, says the Lord GOD.

²² Then the cherubim lifted up their wings with the wheels beside them. And the glory of the God of Israel was over them. ²³ The glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. ²⁴ Afterwards the Spirit took me up and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea to those of the captivity.

So the vision that I had seen went up from me. ²⁵ Then I spoke to those of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shown me.

Judah's Captivity Symbolized

12 The word of the LORD also came to me, saying: ² Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house, which has eyes to see but does not see, and ears to hear but does not hear. For they are a rebellious house.

³ Therefore, son of man, prepare baggage for captivity and go into captivity by day in their sight. And you shall go into captivity from your place to another place in their sight. It may be that they understand, though they are a rebellious house. ⁴ You shall bring out your belongings by day in their sight, as baggage for exile; and you shall go out at evening in their sight, as those who go into exile. ⁵ Dig a hole through the wall in their sight, and go out thereby. ⁶ In their sight you shall bear it on your shoulders and carry it out in the twilight. You shall cover your face so that you cannot see the land. For I have set you as a sign to the house of Israel.

⁷ I did so as I was commanded. I brought out my baggage by day as baggage for captivity, and in the evening I dug through the wall with my own hands. I brought it out at twilight, carrying it on my shoulder in their sight.

⁸ In the morning the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ⁹ Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, "What are you doing?"

¹⁰ Say to them, "Thus says the Lord GOD : This oracle concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel who are in it." ¹¹ Say, "I am your sign.

"As I have done, so it shall be done to them. They shall go into exile, into captivity."

¹² The prince who is among them shall bear his baggage on his shoulder in the twilight and go out. They shall dig through the wall to carry it out thereby. He shall cover his face so that he cannot see the land with his eyes. ¹³ My net also I will spread upon him, and he shall be taken in My snare. And I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans. Yet he shall not see it, though he shall die there. ¹⁴ I will scatter toward every wind all who are about him, his helpers and all his troops. And I will draw out the sword after them.

¹⁵ Then they shall know that I am the LORD when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them among the countries. ¹⁶ But I will spare a few men of them from the sword, from famine, and from pestilence, so that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they go and know that I am the LORD .

²⁰ The cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate. Then you shall know that I am the LORD .

²¹ The word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²² Son of man, what is this proverb that you people have in the land of Israel, saying, "The days are prolonged, and every vision fails"? ²³ Tell them therefore, "Thus says the Lord GOD : I will make this proverb cease so that they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel." But say to them, The days are at hand and the effect of every vision. ²⁴ For there shall be no more any vain vision or flattering divination within the house of Israel. ²⁵ For I the LORD will speak, and the word that I speak shall come to pass. It shall be no more prolonged. For in your days, O rebellious house, I will say the word, and will perform it, says the Lord GOD .

²⁶ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²⁷ Son of man, look, the house of Israel says, "The vision that he sees is for many days to come, and he prophesies of the times that are far off."

²⁸ Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD : There shall none of My words be prolonged anymore, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, says the Lord GOD .

False Prophets Condemned

13 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own hearts, "Hear the word of the LORD !" ³ Thus says the Lord GOD : Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing! ⁴ O Israel, your prophets are like the foxes in the ruins. ⁵ You have not gone up into the gaps, nor did you build up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle on the day of the LORD . ⁶ They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, "The LORD says," when the LORD has not sent them. And they have made others to hope for the confirmation of their word. ⁷ Have you not seen a vain vision, and have you not spoken a lying divination when you say, "The LORD says," yet it is not I who have spoken?

⁸ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD : Because you have spoken vanity and seen lies, therefore I am against you, says the Lord GOD . ⁹ Thus My hand shall be against the prophets who see vanity and who divine lies. They shall not have a place in the council of My people, nor shall they be written in the register of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter into the land of Israel so that you may know that I am the Lord GOD .

¹¹ Say to those who daub it with whitewash that it shall fall. There shall be an overflowing shower, and you, O great hailstones, shall fall. And a stormy wind shall break it. ¹² When the wall has fallen, will you not be asked, "Where is the whitewash with which you have daubed it?"

¹³ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD : I will make a violent wind break out in My fury. And there shall be an overflowing shower in My anger, and hailstones in My fury to consume it. ¹⁴ So I will break down the wall that you have daubed with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground so that its foundation is laid bare. And when it falls, you shall be consumed in its midst. And you shall know that I am the LORD . ¹⁵ Thus I will accomplish My wrath upon the wall and upon those who have daubed it with whitewash, and I will say to you, The wall is no more, nor those who daubed it, ¹⁶ along with the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem and who see visions of peace for her when there is no peace, says the Lord GOD .

¹⁷ Now you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who prophesy out of their own heart and prophesy against them, ¹⁸ and say, Thus says the Lord GOD : Woe to the women who sew magic bands on all wrists and make veils on the heads of persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of My people but save the souls alive of others for yourselves? ¹⁹ And you pollute Me among My people for handfuls of barley and pieces of bread to slay the souls of those who should not die and to save the souls alive of those who should not live by your lying to My people who hear your lies.

²⁰ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD : I am against your magic bands with which you hunt the souls there as birds, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that you hunt as birds. ²¹ Your veils also I will tear off and deliver My people out of your hands, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted. And you shall know that I am the LORD . ²² Because with lies you have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad, and strengthened the hands of the wicked that he should not turn from his wicked way and save his life, ²³ therefore you women shall no more see vanity or practice divinations, and I will deliver My people out of your hand. Thus you shall know that I am the LORD .

Idolatrous Elders Condemned

14 Then some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me. ² The word of the LORD came to me, saying: ³ Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart and put the stumbling block of their iniquity before their face. Should I be inquired of by them at all? ⁴ Therefore speak to them and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD : Every man of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him who comes according to the multitude of his idols, ⁵ in order to seize the heart of the house of Israel who are estranged from Me through all their idols.

⁹ And if the prophet is deceived when he has spoken a word, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out My hand against him and will destroy him from the midst of My people Israel. ¹⁰ They shall bear the punishment of their iniquity. The punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him who seeks him ¹¹ in order that the house of Israel may no more go astray from Me or be polluted anymore with all their transgressions. Thus they shall be My people, and I shall be their God, says the Lord GOD .

Jerusalem's Imminent Judgment

¹² The word of the LORD came to me again, saying: ¹³ Son of man, when the land sins against Me by trespassing grievously, then I will stretch out My hand against it, and break the staff of the bread, and send famine against it, and cut off man and beast from it.

¹⁵ If I cause wild beasts to pass through the land, and they destroy it so that it becomes desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts, ¹⁶ though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD , they could deliver neither their sons nor their daughters. They alone would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.

¹⁷ Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, "Let the sword go through the land and cut off man and beast from it," ¹⁸ though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD , they would deliver neither their sons nor their daughters, but they alone would deliver themselves.

¹⁹ Or if I send a pestilence into that land and pour out My fury on it in blood to cut off from it man and beast, ²⁰ though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD , they would deliver neither their sons nor their daughters. They would deliver only their own souls by their righteousness.

²¹ For thus says the Lord GOD : How much more when I send My four sore judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the wild beasts, and the pestilence, to cut off man and beast from it. ²² Yet a remnant shall be left in it who shall be brought out, both sons and daughters. They shall come out to you, and you shall see their way and their deeds. Then you shall be comforted concerning the disaster that I have brought against Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. ²³ Then they shall comfort you when you see their ways and their deeds. And you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Lord GOD .

Jerusalem as a Useless Vine

15 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, how is the wood of the vine tree better than any wood of a branch which is among the trees of the forest? ³ Can wood be taken from it to do any work, or can men take a peg of it to hang any vessel on it? ⁴ If it has been cast into the fire for fuel and the fire has devoured both ends of it and the middle of it is burned, is it useful for any work? ⁵ When it was whole, it was not made into anything. How much less is it useful for any work when the fire has devoured it and it is burned!

⁶ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD : As the wood of the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ⁷ I will set My face against them. Though they go out from one fire, yet the fire shall devour them. Then you shall know that I am the LORD when I set My face against them. ⁸ I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, says the Lord GOD .

Jerusalem as an Adulterous Bride

16 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, ³ and say, Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: Your birth and your nativity are from the land of Canaan. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother a Hittite. ⁴ As for your birth, on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed in water to cleanse you. You were not rubbed with salt, nor wrapped in swaddling cloths. ⁵ No eye pitied you to do any of these to you, to have compassion on you. But you were cast out in the open field, to the loathing of your person, in the day that you were born.

⁶ When I passed by you and saw you polluted in your own blood, I said to you when you were in your blood, "Live!" Indeed, I said to you when you were in your blood, "Live!" ⁷ I have caused you to multiply as the bud of the field, and you have increased and become tall, and you have reached the age of fine ornaments. Your breasts were fashioned and your hair had grown, yet you were naked and bare.

⁸ Now when I passed by you and looked upon you, you were old enough for love. So I spread My garment over you and covered your nakedness. Indeed, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you, says the Lord GOD , and you became Mine.

⁹ Then I washed you with water. Indeed, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil. ¹⁰ I clothed you also with embroidered work, and put sandals of porpoise skin on your feet, and girded you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk. ¹¹ I decked you also with ornaments, and put bracelets on your hands, and a chain on your neck. ¹² I put a jewel on your forehead, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. ¹³ Thus you were decked with gold and silver. And your raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work. You ate fine flour, and honey, and oil. And you were exceedingly beautiful and advanced to royalty. ¹⁴ Then your renown went out among the nations for your beauty. For it was perfect through My comeliness which I had put upon you, says the Lord GOD .

¹⁵ But you trusted in your own beauty, and played the harlot because of your renown, and poured out your fornications on every willing passerby. ¹⁶ Of your garments you took and decked your high places with various colors and played the harlot on them, which should never come about or happen. ¹⁷ You have also taken your fair jewels made of My gold and My silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men that you might commit harlotry with them.

¹⁸ Then you took your embroidered garments and covered them. And you have set My oil and My incense before them. ¹⁹ My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you have even set before them for a sweet savor. And thus it was, says the Lord GOD .

²⁰ Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to Me, and these you have sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your harlotries so small a matter? ²¹ You have slain My children and delivered them up to idols by causing them to pass through the fire. ²² Besides all your abominations and your harlotries you have not remembered the days of your youth when you were naked and bare and were polluted in your blood.

²³ After all your wickedness (Woe, woe to you! says the Lord GOD) ²⁴ you also built for yourself a shrine and have made yourself a high place in every street.

²⁵ You have built yourself a high place at the head of every street, and have made your beauty to be abhorred, and have spread your legs to every passerby to multiply your harlotries. ²⁶ You have also committed fornication with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, and increased your harlotries to provoke Me to anger. ²⁷ Therefore I have stretched out My hand against you and have diminished your ordinary food and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines who are ashamed of your lewd conduct.

²⁸ You have played the harlot also with the Assyrians because you were insatiable. Indeed, you have played the harlot with them, and yet could not be satisfied.

²⁹ You have moreover multiplied your fornication with the land of merchants, Chaldea. And yet you were not satisfied even with this.

³⁰ How weak is your heart, says the Lord GOD , seeing you do all these things, the works of an imperious harlot. ³¹ When you built your shrine at the head of every street and made your high place in every square, you have not been as a harlot in that you scorned payment.

³² You have been as a wife who commits adultery, who takes strangers instead of her husband! ³³ Men give gifts to all harlots. But you give your gifts to all your lovers, and hire them that they may come to you on every side for your harlotry. ³⁴ Thus you are different from other women in your harlotries in that no one follows you to commit harlotries, because you give money, and no money is given to you. Thus you are different.

³⁵ Therefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD .

³⁶ Thus says the Lord GOD , Because your filthiness was poured out and your nakedness discovered through your harlotries with your lovers, and with all the idols of your abominations, and by the blood of your children, which you gave to idols, ³⁷ therefore I will gather all your lovers with whom you have taken pleasure and all those whom you have loved with all those whom you have hated. I will even gather them from all around against you and will reveal your nakedness to them so that they may see all your nakedness. ³⁸ I will judge you as women who commit adultery or shed blood are judged. And I will bring on you the blood of fury and jealousy. ³⁹ I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your shrines, and shall break down your high places. They shall strip you also of your clothes, and shall take your fair jewels, and leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰ They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. ⁴¹ They shall burn your houses with fire and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women. And I will cause you to cease from playing the harlot, and you also shall give no hire anymore. ⁴² So I will make My fury toward you to rest, and My jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be angry no more.

⁴³ Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have enraged Me in all these things, I also will recompense your way upon your head, says the Lord GOD, so that you shall not commit this lewdness above all your other abominations.

⁴⁴ Everyone who uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, "Like mother, like daughter."

⁴⁹ This was the iniquity of your sister Sodom. Pride, abundance of bread, and careless ease was in her and in her daughters, but she did strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. ⁵⁰ They were haughty and committed abominations before Me. Therefore I took them away when I saw it. ⁵¹ Moreover, Samaria did not commit half of your sins. But you have multiplied your abominations more than they and have made your sisters appear righteous in all your abominations which you have done. ⁵² Also bear your own shame in that you have made judgment favorable to your sisters. Because of your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than you. Indeed, be humiliated also and bear your shame in that you have made your sisters appear righteous.

⁵³ Yet I shall restore their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and along with them your own captivity, ⁵⁴ in order that you may bear your own shame and may be humiliated in all that you have done in that you are a comfort to them. ⁵⁵ Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters and Samaria and her daughters, shall return to their former state, and you and your daughters shall return to your former state. ⁵⁶ As the name of your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, ⁵⁷ before your wickedness was uncovered, so now you have become the reproach of the daughters of Edom and all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, those all around who despise you. ⁵⁸ You have borne the punishment of your lewdness and your abominations, says the LORD.

An Everlasting Covenant

⁵⁹ For thus, says the Lord GOD, I will even deal with you as you have done, you who have despised the oath by breaking the covenant.

⁶⁰ Nevertheless I will remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. ⁶¹ Then you shall remember your ways and be ashamed when you receive your sisters, your elder and your younger. And I will give them to you as daughters, but not because of your covenant. ⁶² Thus I will establish My covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the LORD, ⁶³ in order that you may remember, and be humiliated, and never open your mouth anymore because of your shame, when I am pacified toward you for all that you have done, says the Lord GOD.

Two Eagles and a Vine

17 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel, ³ and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: A great eagle with great wings, long-winged, full of feathers which had various colors, came to Lebanon and took away the highest branch of the cedar. ⁴ He cropped off the top of its young twigs and carried it into a land of merchants. He set it in a city of dealers.

⁵ He took also some of the seed of the land and planted it in a fruitful field. He placed it by great waters and set it as a willow tree. ⁶ It grew and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under it. So it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

⁷ There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers. And this vine bent its roots toward him and shot forth its branches toward him, that he might water it by the bed where it was planted. ⁸ It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a splendid vine.

⁹ Say: Thus says the Lord GOD: Will it thrive? Will he not pull up its roots and cut off its fruit, so that it withers, so that all its spring leaves wither? It will not take a great power or many people to pull it from its roots. ¹⁰ Though it has been planted, will it prosper? Shall it not utterly wither when the east wind hits it? It shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

¹⁹ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely My oath that he has despised and My covenant that he has broken, I will inflict upon his own head. ²⁰ I will spread My net upon him, and he shall be taken in My snare, and I will bring him to Babylon and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against Me. ²¹ All the choice men in all his troops shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward all winds. And you shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

²² Thus says the Lord GOD: I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar and set it aside. I will crop off from the top of its young twigs a tender one and will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. ²³ On the mountain of the height of Israel I will plant it. And it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a splendid cedar. And under it all fowl of every wing shall nest. In the shadow of its branches they shall nest. ²⁴ All the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish.

I, the LORD have spoken and will do it.

The Soul Who Sins Will Die

18 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying: ² What do you mean in using this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying: "The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge"? ³ As I live, says the Lord GOD, you shall not have occasion anymore to use this proverb in Israel. ⁴ All souls are Mine. The soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is Mine. The soul who sins shall die. ⁵ But if a man is righteous and does that which is lawful and right, ⁶ and has not eaten on the mountains; nor has he lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, nor has he defiled his neighbor's wife, nor has he approached a woman during her impurity; ⁷ and he has not oppressed anyone, but has restored to the debtor his pledge; has devastated no one by violence, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; ⁸ if he has not lent at interest, nor has taken any increase, but has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man; ⁹ has walked in My statutes, and has kept My judgments to deal truly, he is righteous and shall surely live, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁰ If he begets a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood, and who does any of these things to a brother ¹¹ (though he himself does not do any of these things), but even has eaten on the mountain shrines and defiled his neighbor's wife; ¹² has oppressed the poor and needy, has devastated by violence, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination, ¹³ has lent at interest, and has taken increase, shall he then live?

He shall not live. He has done all these abominations. He shall surely die. His blood shall be upon his own head.

¹⁴ Now if he begets a son who sees all his father's sins which he has done, and considering does not do likewise:

¹⁵ He has not eaten on the mountain shrines, nor has he lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor's wife; ¹⁶ nor has he oppressed anyone, has not withheld a pledge, nor has he devastated by violence,

but has given his bread to the hungry,
and has covered the naked with a garment;
¹⁷ he keeps his hand from the poor,
has not received usury nor increase,
has executed My judgments, and has walked in My statutes.

He shall not die for the iniquity of his father; he shall surely live. ¹⁸ As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, devastated his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, he shall die for his iniquity.

Repent and Live

¹⁹ Yet you say, "Why should the son not bear the punishment of the iniquity of the father?" When the son has done what is lawful and right, and has kept all My statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live.

²¹ But if the wicked turns from all his sins that he has committed, and keeps all My statutes, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live. He shall not die. ²² All his transgressions that he has committed, they shall not be remembered against him. Because of his righteousness that he has done, he shall live. ²³ Do I have any pleasure in the death of the wicked, says the Lord GOD, but rather that he should turn from his ways and live?

²⁴ But when a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? All his righteousness that he has done shall not be remembered for his trespass that he has committed and in his sin that he has done. In them he shall die.

²⁵ Yet you say, "The way of the Lord is not right." Hear now, O house of Israel. Is not My way right? Are not your ways not right? ²⁶ When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he dies in it. For his iniquity that he has done he shall die. ²⁷ Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul. ²⁸ Because he considered and turned away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live. He shall not die. ²⁹ Yet the house of Israel says, "The way of the Lord is not right." O house of Israel, are not My ways right? Are not your ways not right?

³⁰ Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, says the Lord GOD. Repent, and turn away from all your transgressions so that iniquity shall not be your ruin. ³¹ Cast away from you all your transgressions whereby you have transgressed, and make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why will you die, O house of Israel? ³² For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone who dies, says the Lord GOD. Therefore, repent and live.

A Lament for Israel's Princes

19 Moreover take up a lamentation for the officials of Israel, ² and say:

What was your mother?

A lioness among lions!

She lay down among young lions;
she nourished her whelps.

³ When she brought up one of her whelps,
he became a lion
and learned to catch his prey;
he devoured men.

⁴ The nations also heard of him;
he was taken in their pit,
and they brought him with chains
to the land of Egypt.

⁵ Now when she saw as she had waited
that her hope was lost,
then she took another of her whelps
and made him a young lion.

⁶ He went up and down among the lions;
he became a young lion,
and learned to catch the prey,
and devoured men.

⁷ He destroyed their fortified palaces,
and he laid waste their cities;
and the land and its fullness
were appalled by the noise of his roaring.

⁸ Then the nations set against him
on every side from their provinces,
and spread their net over him;
he was taken in their pit.

⁹ They put him in a cage with hooks and brought him to the king of Babylon;
they brought him in hunting nets,
so that his voice would be heard no more on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰ Your mother was like a vine in your vineyard, planted by the waters;
it was fruitful and full of branches
by reason of many waters.

¹¹ It had strong rods
for the scepters of those who rule.
And its stature

was exalted above the clouds,
so it appeared in its height
with the multitude of its branches.

¹² But it was plucked up in fury,
it was cast down to the ground,
and the east wind dried up its fruit.

Its strong rod was broken and it withered;
the fire consumed it.

¹³ Now it is planted in the wilderness,
in a dry and thirsty ground.

¹⁴ Fire has gone out from its branch;

it has devoured its shoots and fruit, so that there is no strong rod in it, a scepter to rule. This is a lamentation, and has become a lamentation.

Israel's Continuing Rebellion

20 In the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD and sat before me.

² Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ³ Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them: Thus says the Lord GOD: Do you come to inquire of Me? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you.

⁴ Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers. ⁵ And say to them: Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up My hand to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up My hand to them, saying, I am the LORD your God, ⁶ on that day that I lifted up My hand to them to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had selected for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands, ⁷ then I said to them: Cast away, each of you, the abominations of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

⁸ But they rebelled against Me and would not listen to Me. They did not cast away the abominations of their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I will pour out My fury upon them, to accomplish My anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. ⁹ But I acted for My name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the nations among whom they were, in whose sight I made Myself known to them in bringing them out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰ Therefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹ I gave them My statutes and showed them My judgments, which if a man does them, he shall live.

¹² Moreover I gave them My Sabbaths to be a sign between them and Me, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

¹³ But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not walk in My statutes, and they despised My judgments, which if a man does them, he shall live. And My Sabbaths they greatly polluted. Then I said I would pour out My fury upon them in the wilderness to consume them. ¹⁴ But I acted for My name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the nations in whose sight I brought them out. ¹⁵ Also I lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands, ¹⁶ because they despised My judgments and did not walk in My statutes, but polluted My Sabbaths. For their hearts went after their idols. ¹⁷ Nevertheless My eye spared them from destroying them, nor did I make an end of them in the wilderness. ¹⁸ But I said to their children in the wilderness: Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols. ¹⁹ I am the LORD your God: Walk in My statutes, and keep My judgments, and do them. ²⁰ And hallow My Sabbaths. And they shall be a sign between Me and you that you may know that I am the LORD your God.

²¹ Yet the children rebelled against Me. They did not walk in My statutes, nor did they keep My judgments to do them, which if a man does them, he shall live. They polluted My Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out My fury upon them to accomplish My anger against them in the wilderness. ²² Nevertheless I withdrew My hand and acted for My name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the nations in whose sight I brought them out. ²³ I lifted up My hand to them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations and disperse them through the countries, ²⁴ because they had not executed My judgments, but had despised My statutes and had polluted My Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. ²⁵ Therefore I gave them also statutes that were not good and judgments by which they could not live. ²⁶ And I pronounced them unclean because of their gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all who opened the womb, that I might make them desolate in order that they might know that I am the LORD.

²⁷ Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed Me, in that they have committed a trespass against Me. ²⁸ When I had brought them into the land for which I lifted up My hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill and all the leafy trees, and there they offered their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering. There also they made their sweet savor and there poured out their drink offerings. ²⁹ Then I said to them: What is the high place to which you go? And the name is called Bamah to this day.

³⁰ Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Will you pollute yourselves after the manner of your fathers and commit harlotry after their abominations? ³¹ When you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, you pollute yourselves with all your idols, even to this day. And shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you.

³² That which comes into your mind shall not come about when you say, "We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone."

God Will Restore Israel

³³ As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand and with a stretched-out arm and with fury

poured out, I will rule over you. ³⁴ And I will bring you out from the peoples and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered with a mighty hand and with a stretched-out arm and with fury poured out. ³⁵ I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face. ³⁶ As I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you, says the Lord GOD. ³⁷ I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸ And I will purge from among you the rebels and those who transgress against Me. I will bring them out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the LORD.

³⁹ As for you, O house of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD: Go serve every one of you his idols, but later you shall surely listen to Me. But do not pollute My holy name anymore with your gifts and with your idols. ⁴⁰ For on My holy mountain, on the mountain of the height of Israel, says the Lord GOD, there all the house of Israel, all of them, shall serve Me in the land. There I will accept them, and there I will seek your offerings and the first fruits of your gifts with all your holy things. ⁴¹ I will accept you with your sweet savor when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered. And I will be sanctified among you before the nations. ⁴² You shall know that I am the LORD when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for which I lifted up My hand to give it to your fathers. ⁴³ There you shall remember your ways and all your deeds in which you have been defiled. And you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. ⁴⁴ You shall know that I am the LORD when I have dealt with you for My name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, or according to your corrupt deeds, O house of Israel, says the Lord GOD.

A Prophecy Against the Negev

⁴⁵ Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ⁴⁶ Son of man, set your face toward the south, preach against the south, and prophesy against the forest land in the Negev. ⁴⁷ And say to the forest of the Negev, Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the Lord GOD: I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you and every dry tree. The flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned in it. ⁴⁸ All flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it. It shall not be quenched.

⁴⁹ Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! They say of me, 'Does he not speak parables?'"

Babylon, the Sword of the LORD

21 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

² Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and speak against the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel, ³ and say to the land of Israel, Thus says the LORD: I am against you, and will draw My sword from its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. ⁴ Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore My sword shall be drawn from its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north, ⁵ that all flesh shall know that I the LORD have drawn forth My sword from its sheath. It shall not return anymore.

⁶ As for you, son of man, groan with breaking heart and bitter grief, groan before their eyes. ⁷ It shall be when they say to you, "Why do you groan?" that you shall answer, "Because of the news that is coming. And every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water. It comes and shall be brought to pass," says the Lord GOD.

⁸ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ⁹ Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the LORD! Say:

A sword, a sword is sharpened and also furbished!

¹⁰ It is sharpened to make a slaughter;
it is furbished so that it may glitter like lightning.
Should we then make cheer, the rod of My son despising every tree?

¹¹ He has given it to be furbished,
that it may be handled;
the sword is sharpened,
and it is furbished to give it into the hand of the slayer.

¹² Cry out and howl, son of man;
for it shall be against My people,
it shall be against all the officials of Israel.
Terrors by reason of the sword
shall be upon My people;
therefore strike your thigh.

¹³ Because it is a trial, and what if even the rod which despises shall be no more? says the Lord GOD.

¹⁴ You therefore, son of man, prophesy and clap your hands together.
And let the sword be doubled
the third time,
the sword of the slain.

It is the sword of the great one slain,
which surrounds them.

¹⁵ That their hearts may faint,
and many fall at all their gates,
I have given the glittering sword.
Ah! It is made for striking like lightning;
it is wrapped up for the slaughter.

¹⁶ Show yourself sharp, go to the right hand.
Set yourself. Go to the left hand,

wherever your edge is set.

¹⁷ I will also clap My hands together,
and I will cause My fury to rest;
I the LORD have spoken.

¹⁸ The word of the LORD came to me again, saying:

¹⁹ As for you, son of man, appoint two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to come. Both of them shall come out of one land. And make a signpost. Make it at the head of the way to the city. ²⁰ Appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the sons of Ammon and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified. ²¹ For the king of Babylon stands at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: He shakes the arrows, he consults the images, he looks in the liver. ²² At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem: to appoint battering rams, to open the mouth for the slaughter, to lift up the voice with a battle shout, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast up a ramp, and to build a siege tower. ²³ It shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, to those who have sworn oaths. But he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be seized.

²⁴ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your deeds your sins do appear, because, I say, that you have come to remembrance, you shall be seized with the hand.

²⁵ You, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day has come in the time of the punishment of the end, ²⁶ thus says the Lord GOD: Remove the diadem and take off the crown. This shall not be the same anymore. Exalt what is low, and abase what is high. ²⁷ A ruin, a ruin, a ruin I shall make it. And it shall be no more until He comes whose right it is, and I shall give it to Him.

A Sword Against the Ammonites

²⁸ You, son of man, prophesy and say: Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the sons of Ammon and concerning their reproach, and say,
The sword, the sword is drawn,
furbished for the slaughter,
to cause it to consume
that it may be like lightning, ²⁹ while they see vanity for you,
while they divine a lie to you to bring you upon the necks
of the wicked who are slain, whose day has come
in the time of the punishment of the end.

³⁰ Return it to its sheath.

I will judge you
in the place where you were created,
in the land of your nativity.

³¹ I will pour out My indignation upon you;
I will blow against you in the fire of My wrath,
and deliver you into the hand of cruel men,

skilled in destruction.

³² You shall be fuel to the fire;
your blood shall be in the midst of the land.
You shall be no more remembered,
for I the LORD have spoken.

The Sins of Jerusalem

22 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Now you, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? Indeed, you shall show her all her abominations. ³ Then say, Thus says the Lord GOD: The city sheds blood in her midst, that her time may come, and makes idols against herself to defile herself. ⁴ You have become guilty in your blood that you have shed and have defiled yourself with your idols which you have made. And you have caused your day to draw near and have come to your years. Therefore I have made you a reproach to the nations and a mocking to all countries. ⁵ Those who are near and those who are far from you shall mock you, you of infamy and much turmoil.

⁶ The princes of Israel in you, every one according to his power, have been bent on shedding blood. ⁷ In you they have treated father and mother lightly. In your midst they have dealt with the stranger by oppression. In you they have vexed the fatherless and the widow. ⁸ You have despised My holy things and have profaned My Sabbaths. ⁹ In you are men who carry slanders to shed blood. And in you they eat at the mountain shrines. In your midst they commit lewdness. ¹⁰ In you they have uncovered their fathers' nakedness. In you they have humbled her who was unclean in her menstrual impurity. ¹¹ One has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife, and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law. And another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter. ¹² In you they have taken bribes to shed blood. You have taken usury and increase, and you have injured your neighbors for gain by extortion, and you have forgotten Me, says the Lord GOD.

¹³ Therefore I have struck My hand toward your dishonest gain which you have made, and toward your blood which has been in your midst. ¹⁴ Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong in the days that I shall deal with you? I the LORD have spoken and will do it. ¹⁵ I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you in the countries and consume your filthiness out of you. ¹⁶ You shall profane yourself in the sight of the nations, and you shall know that I am the LORD.

Jerusalem as God's Furnace

¹⁷ The word of the LORD came to me, saying: ¹⁸ Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me. All of them are bronze and tin and iron and lead in the midst of the furnace. They are the dross of silver. ¹⁹ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you all have become dross, therefore, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. ²⁰ As they gather silver and bronze and iron and lead and tin into the midst of a furnace to blow fire on it to melt it, so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury, and I will lay you there and melt you. ²¹ Indeed, I will gather you and blow upon you in the fire of My wrath, and you shall be melted in the midst of it. ²² As silver is melted in the midst of a furnace, so you shall be melted in the midst of it. And you shall know that I the LORD have poured out My fury upon you.

Indictment of Sinful Leaders

²³ The word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²⁴ Son of man, say to her: You are the land that is not cleansed nor rained upon in the day of indignation. ²⁵ There is a conspiracy of her prophets in her midst like a roaring lion ravaging the prey. They have devoured souls. They have taken the treasure and precious things. They have made many widows in her midst. ²⁶ Her priests have violated My law and have profaned My holy things. They have made no distinction between the holy and profane, nor have they shown the difference between the unclean and the clean, and they have hidden their eyes from My Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. ²⁷ Her officials in her midst are like wolves ravaging the prey by shedding blood and destroying lives in order to obtain dishonest gain. ²⁸ Her prophets have daubed them with whitewash, seeing vanity and divining lies for them, saying, "Thus says the Lord GOD," when the LORD has not spoken. ²⁹ The people of the land have used oppression and exercised robbery and have vexed the poor and needy and have oppressed the sojourner wrongfully.

³⁰ I sought for a man among them who would build up the hedge and stand in the gap before Me for the land so that I would not destroy it, but I found no one. ³¹ Therefore I have poured out My indignation on them. I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath. Their own way I have recompensed on their heads, says the Lord GOD.

The Sins of Oholah and Oholibah

23 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying: ² Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother. ³ And they committed harlotries in Egypt. They committed harlotries in their youth. There their breasts were pressed, and there their virgin bosom was handled. ⁴ Their names were Oholah the elder and Oholibah her sister. And they were mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah.

Samaria

⁵ Oholah played the harlot when she was Mine. And she lusted after her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, ⁶ who were clothed in purple, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. ⁷ Thus she committed her harlotries with them, with all those who were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself. ⁸ She did not forsake her harlotries from the time in Egypt. For in her youth they lay with her, and they handled her virgin bosom and poured their harlotry upon her.

⁹ Therefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians after whom she doted. ¹⁰ They uncovered her nakedness. They took her sons and her daughters and killed her with the sword. And she became a byword among women, for they had executed judgments on her.

Jerusalem

¹¹ Now her sister Oholibah saw this, but she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her harlotries more than her sister in her harlotries.

¹² She lusted after the Assyrians her neighbors, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men.

¹³ Then I saw that she was defiled, that they both took the same way.

¹⁴ So she increased her harlotries. And she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion, ¹⁵ girded with belts on their loins, exceeding in dyed attire on their heads, all of them looking like officials, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity.

¹⁶ And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them into Chaldea. ¹⁷ The Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their harlotry, and she was polluted with them, and her soul became disgusted with them. ¹⁸ So she uncovered her harlotries and uncovered her nakedness. Then My soul became disgusted with her, as My soul became disgusted with her sister. ¹⁹ Yet she multiplied her harlotries while remembering the days of her youth in which she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. ²⁰ For she lusted after their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys and whose issue is like the issue of horses. ²¹ Thus you longed for the lewdness of your youth when the Egyptians handled your bosom because of the breasts of your youth.

²² Therefore, O Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD: I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom you were alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: ²³ the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them. All of them are desirable young men, captains and rulers, officers and men of renown, all of them riding on horses. ²⁴ They shall come against you with weapons, chariots and wagons, and with an assembly of peoples. They shall set themselves against you on every side with buckler and shield and helmet. And I will set the judgment before them, and they shall judge you according to their customs. ²⁵ I will set My jealousy against you, so that they deal furiously with you. They shall take away your nose and your ears. And your remnant shall fall by the sword. They shall take your sons and your daughters. And your remnant shall be devoured by the fire. ²⁶ They shall also strip you of your clothes and take away your fair jewels. ²⁷ Thus I will make your lewdness and your harlotry brought from the land of Egypt to cease from you so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them or remember Egypt anymore.

²⁸ For thus says the Lord GOD : I will deliver you into the hand of those whom you hate, into the hand of those from whom you were alienated. ²⁹ And they shall deal with you hatefully, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare. And the nakedness of your harlotries shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your harlotries. ³⁰ I will do these things to you because you have gone whoring after the nations, because you have polluted yourself with their idols. ³¹ You have walked in the way of your sister. Therefore I will give her cup into your hand.

³² Thus says the Lord GOD :

You shall drink of your sister's cup,
which is deep and wide;
you shall be laughed to scorn and held in derision;
it contains much.

³³ You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
the cup of horror and desolation,
the cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴ You shall drink it and drain it, then you shall gnaw at its fragments
and tear off your own breasts;
for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD .

³⁵ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD : Because you have forgotten Me and cast Me behind your back, now bear the punishment of your lewdness and your harlotries.

Judgment on the Sisters

³⁶ The LORD moreover said to me: Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then declare to them their abominations. ³⁷ For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands. Thus with their idols they have committed adultery and have also caused their sons whom they bore to Me to pass through the fire for them as food. ³⁸ Moreover they have done this to Me: They have defiled My sanctuary in the same day and have profaned My Sabbaths.

³⁹ For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into My sanctuary to profane it. And thus they have done in the midst of My house.

⁴⁰ Furthermore, they have even sent for men to come from afar, to whom a messenger was sent; and they came. For them you washed yourself, painted your eyes, and decked yourself with ornaments. ⁴¹ And you sat on a stately couch with a table prepared before it on which you had set My incense and My oil.

⁴⁸ Thus I will cause lewdness to cease from the land, that all women may be warned and not commit lewdness as you have done. ⁴⁹ Your lewdness shall be recompensed upon you, and you shall bear the punishment of worshipping your idols. Then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD .

The Siege of Jerusalem

24 And in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, write the name of the day, this same day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this same day. ³ Utter a parable to the rebellious house and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD :

Put on the pot, put it on,
and also pour water into it.

⁴ Gather the pieces into it,
even every good piece, the thigh and the shoulder.
Fill it with the choice bones;

⁵ take the choicest of the flock,
and also pile the bones under it;
make it boil well,
also seethe its bones in it.

⁶ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD :
Woe to the bloody city,
to the pot whose rust is in it,
and whose rust has not gone out of it!
Take out of it piece by piece
without choosing.

⁷ For her blood is in her midst;
she set it on the bare rock;
she did not pour it on the ground
to cover it with dust.

⁸ That it may cause fury to come up to take
vengeance,

I have set her blood on the bare rock,
that it may not be covered.

⁹ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD :
Woe to the bloody city!

I will also make the pile great.

¹⁰ Heap on wood,
kindle the fire;
boil the flesh,
and spice it well,
and let the bones be burned.

¹¹ Then set it empty on its coals,
so that it may be hot and its bronze may glow,
and its filthiness may be melted in it,
and its rust may be consumed.

¹² She has wearied Me with toil,
and her great rust has not gone from her.
Let her rust be in the fire.

¹³ In your filthiness is lewdness. Because I would have purged you, yet you are not purged, you shall not be purged from your filthiness anymore until I have caused My fury to rest on you.

¹⁴ I the LORD have spoken. It shall come to pass and I will act. I will not go back, nor will I spare, nor will I be sorry. According to your ways and according to your deeds, I shall judge you, says the Lord GOD .

The Death of Ezekiel's Wife

¹⁵ Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

¹⁶ Son of man, I am about to take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke. Yet you shall not mourn or weep, nor shall your tears run down.

¹⁷ Groan silently. Make no mourning for the dead. Bind on your turban and put your shoes on your feet and do not cover your mustache and do not eat the bread of men.

¹⁸ So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. And in the morning I did as I was commanded.

¹⁹ And the people said to me, "Will you not tell us what these things mean for us, that you are behaving
this way?"

²⁰ Then I answered them: The word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²¹ Speak to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD : I will profane My sanctuary, the pride of your strength, the desire of your eyes and the delight of your soul. And your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind shall fall by the sword. ²² You shall do as I have done. You shall not cover your mustache, nor will you eat the bread of men. ²³ Your turbans shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet. You shall not mourn or weep. But you shall pine away for your iniquities and groan toward one another. ²⁴ Thus Ezekiel is a sign to you. According to all that he has done you shall do. And when it comes about, then you shall know that I am the Lord GOD .

²⁵ As for you, son of man, shall it not be on the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that on which they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, ²⁶ that on that day he who escapes shall come to you to cause you to hear it with your ears? ²⁷ On that day your mouth shall be opened to him who escaped, and you shall speak and be mute no more. Thus you shall be a sign to them. And they shall know that I am the LORD .

A Prophecy Against Ammon

25 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying: ² Son of man, set your face against the sons of Ammon and prophesy against them, ³ and say to the sons of Ammon, Hear the word of the Lord GOD .
Thus says the Lord GOD : Because you said, "Aha!"
against My sanctuary when it was profaned, and against the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and against the house of Judah when they went into captivity, ⁴ therefore, I will deliver you to the men of the East for a possession, and they shall set their camps among you and make their dwellings among you. They shall eat your fruit and drink your milk. ⁵ I will make Rabbah a meadow for camels, and the sons of Ammon a couching place for flocks. Thus you shall know that I am the LORD . ⁶ For thus says the Lord GOD : Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet and rejoiced in heart with all your spite against the land of Israel, ⁷ therefore, I will stretch out My hand against you and deliver you for destruction to the nations. And I will cut you off from the peoples and cause you to perish from the countries. I will destroy you. Then you shall know that I am
the LORD .

A Prophecy Against Moab

⁸ Thus says the Lord GOD : Because Moab and Seir say, Look, the house of Judah is like all the nations, ⁹ therefore, I will deprive the side of Moab of its cities, of its cities which are on its frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim, ¹⁰ and I will give it for a possession with the Am-monites to the men of the East, so that the sons of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations.
¹¹ I will execute judgments on Moab. And they shall know that I am the LORD .

A Prophecy Against Edom

¹² Thus says the Lord GOD : Because Edom has acted against the house of Judah by taking vengeance and has greatly offended and revenged themselves upon them, ¹³ therefore thus says the Lord GOD : I will also stretch out My hand against Edom and cut off man and beast from it. And I will make it desolate. From Teman even to Dedan they shall fall by the sword. ¹⁴ I will lay My vengeance upon Edom by the hand of My people Israel. And they shall do in Edom according to My anger and according to My fury. And they shall know My vengeance, says the Lord GOD.

A Prophecy Against Philistia

¹⁵ Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge and have taken vengeance with a spiteful heart to destroy with everlasting hatred, ¹⁶ therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will stretch out My hand against the Philistines and will cut off the Kerethites and destroy the remnant of the seacoast. ¹⁷ I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes. And they shall know that I am the LORD when I lay My vengeance upon them.

A Prophecy Against Tyre

26 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, "Aha, the gateway of the peoples is broken. It has opened to me. I shall be filled now that she is laid waste," ³ therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. ⁴ They shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers. I will also scrape her dust from her and make her a bare rock. ⁵ She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea, for I have spoken, says the Lord GOD, and she shall become destruction to the nations. ⁶ Her daughters who are on the mainland shall be slain by the sword. And they shall know that I am the LORD.

⁷ For thus says the Lord GOD: From the north I will bring upon Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, with horses and with chariots and with cavalry and a great army. ⁸ He shall slay your daughters on the mainland with the sword. And he shall set up a siege wall against you and cast up a mound against you and lift up the roof of shields against you. ⁹ He shall set engines of war against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. ¹⁰ By reason of the abundance of his horses, their dust shall cover you. Your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen and of the wagons and of the chariots when he enters your gates as men enter a city that has been breached. ¹¹ With the hoofs of his horses he shall tread down all your streets. He shall slay your people by the sword, and your strong garrisons shall go down to the ground. ¹² They shall make a spoil of your riches, and a prey of your merchandise. And they shall break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses. And they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the water. ¹³ I will cause the noise of your songs to cease. And the sound of your harps shall be heard no more. ¹⁴ I will make you a bare rock. You shall be a place to spread nets upon. You shall be built no more, for I the LORD have spoken, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵ Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: Shall not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in your midst? ¹⁶ Then all the officials of the sea shall come down from their thrones and lay away their robes and take off their embroidered garments. They shall clothe themselves with trembling. They shall sit on the ground and tremble every moment and be astonished at you. ¹⁷ They shall take up a lamentation over you and say to you:

How you are destroyed, O inhabited one of the seas,
the renowned city,
which was strong in the sea,
she and her inhabitants,
who caused her terror
to be on all her inhabitants!

¹⁸ Now the coastlands shall tremble
on the day of your fall; indeed,
the coastlands that are by the sea
shall be troubled at your departure.

¹⁹ For thus says the Lord GOD: When I make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited, when I bring up the deep upon you and great waters shall cover you, ²⁰ then I shall bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old, and make you dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit so that you will not be inhabited. But I shall set glory in the land of the living. ²¹ I will bring terrors on you and you shall be no more. Though you will be sought, you shall never be found again, says the Lord GOD.

A Lament for Tyre

27 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying: ² Now you, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre. ³ And say to Tyre who is situated at the entrance of the sea, who is a merchant of the peoples for many coastlands, Thus says the Lord GOD:

O Tyre, you have said,
"I am perfect in beauty."
⁴ Your borders are in the midst of the seas.
Your builders have perfected your beauty.
⁵ They have made all your ship boards
of fir trees from Senir;
they have taken cedars from Lebanon
to make a mast for you.
⁶ Of the oaks of Bashan
they have made your oars;
with ivory they have inlaid your deck of boxwood
out of the coastlands of Cyprus.
⁷ Fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt was your sail,
so that it became your distinguishing sign;

blue and purple from the coastlands of Elishah was your awning.

⁸ The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your mariners; your wise men, O Tyre, were aboard; they were your pilots.

⁹ The elders of Byblos and her wise men were in you repairing your seams; all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise.

¹⁰ They of Persia and of Lydia and of Put were in your army, your men of war; they hung the shield and helmet in you; they set forth your comeliness.

¹¹ The sons of Arvad and your army were upon your walls all around, and the Gammad were in your towers; they hung their shields on your walls all around; they have made your beauty perfect.

¹² Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches. With silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in your wares.

¹³ Greece, Tubal, and Meshek, they were your merchants. They traded in your market with the lives of men and vessels of bronze.

¹⁴ Those of Beth Togarmah gave horses and horsemen and mules for your wares.

¹⁵ The sons of Dedan were your merchants. Many coastlands were your merchandise. They brought you for a payment horns of ivory and ebony.

¹⁶ Aram was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your wares. They paid for your wares with emeralds, purple, embroidered work, fine linen, coral, and agate.

¹⁷ Judah and the land of Israel, they were your merchants. They traded in your market with the wheat of Minnith, cakes, honey, oil, and balm.

¹⁸ Damascus was your merchant in the multitude of your wares, because of the multitude of all kinds of riches, because of the wine of Helbon and white wool.

¹⁹ Dan and Javan paid for your wares from Izal. Bright iron, cassia, and sweet cane were in your market.

²⁰ Dedan was your merchant in saddlecloths for chariots.

²¹ Arabia and all the officials of Kedar, they were your customers in lambs, rams, and goats. For these they were your merchants.

²² The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were your merchants. They paid for your wares with the best of all kinds of spices and with all kinds of precious stones and gold.

²³ Harran, and Kanneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Ashur, and Kilmad, were your merchants.

²⁴ They traded with you in choice garments, in clothes of blue and embroidered work, and in carpets of many colors and tightly wound cords, which were among your merchandise.

²⁵ The ships of Tarshish were the carriers for your market. And you were filled and were very glorious in the midst of the seas.

²⁶ Your rowers have brought you into great waters; the east wind has broken you in the midst of the seas.

²⁷ Your riches and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners and your pilots, your caulkers, and the dealers of your merchandise, and all your men of war who are in you, with all your company which is in your midst, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of your ruin.

²⁸ The meadowlands shall shake at the sound of the cry of your pilots.

²⁹ All who handle the oar, the mariners and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand upon the land.

³⁰ And they shall cause their voice to be heard against you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads; they shall wallow in ashes.

³¹ Also they shall make themselves utterly bald for you, and gird themselves with sackcloth; and they shall weep for you with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

³² Also, in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you and lament over you, saying,

"Who is like Tyre, like her who is silent in the midst of the sea?"

³³ When your wares went out by sea, you filled many peoples; you enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise.

³⁴ Now that you are broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company in your midst have fallen.

³⁵ All the inhabitants of the coastlands shall be astonished at you, and their kings shall be sorely afraid; they are troubled in countenance.

³⁶ The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you shall be a terror, and you shall cease to be forever."

A Prophecy Against the King of Tyre

28 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying: ² Son of man, say to the leader of Tyre, Thus says the Lord GOD :

Because your heart is lifted up,
and you have said, "I am a god;
I sit in the seat of gods
in the midst of the seas,"
yet you are a man, and not God,
though you set your heart as the heart of God.

³ You are wiser than Daniel;
there is no secret that is a match for you.

⁴ With your wisdom and with your understanding,
you have obtained riches for yourself,
and have obtained gold and silver
into your treasuries;

⁵ by your great wisdom, by your trade,
you have increased your riches,
and your heart is lifted up because of your riches.

⁶ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD :
Because you have set your heart
as the heart of God,

⁷ therefore, I will bring strangers upon you,
the most cruel of the nations;
and they shall draw their swords against the beauty
of your wisdom,
and defile your brightness.

⁸ They shall bring you down to the pit, and you shall die the death of those who are slain
in the midst of the seas.

⁹ Will you yet say before him who slays you,
"I am a god,"

although you are a man and not God,
in the hands of those who wound you?

¹⁰ You shall die the death of the uncircumcised
by the hand of strangers;
for I have spoken! says the Lord GOD .

A Lament for the King of Tyre

¹¹ Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ¹² Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre and say to him, Thus says the Lord GOD :

You had the seal of perfection,
full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.

¹³ You were in Eden,
the garden of God;
every precious stone was your covering:
the sardius, topaz, and the diamond,
the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper,
the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and
gold.

The workmanship of your settings and sockets was in
you;

on the day that you were created, they were prepared.

¹⁴ You were the anointed cherub that covers,
and I set you there;
you were upon the holy mountain of God;
you walked up and down in the midst of the stones
of fire.

¹⁵ You were perfect in your ways
from the day that you were created,
until iniquity was found in you.

¹⁶ By the multitude of your merchandise,
you were filled with violence in your midst,
and you sinned;
therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God;

and I have destroyed you, O covering cherub,
from the midst of the stones of fire.

¹⁷ Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty;
you have corrupted your wisdom
by reason of your brightness;

I cast you to the ground,
I lay you before kings, that they may see you.

¹⁸ You have defiled your sanctuaries by the multitude of your iniquities, by the iniquity of your trade;

therefore I have brought fire out from your midst;
it has devoured you,
and I have turned you to ashes upon the earth
in the sight of all those who see you.

¹⁹ All those who know you among the people are astonished at you;
you are a terror,
and you shall cease to be forever.

A Prophecy Against Sidon

²⁰ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

²¹ Son of man, set your face toward Sidon and prophesy against her ²² and say, Thus says the Lord GOD :

I am against you, O Sidon;
and I will be glorified in your midst;
and they shall know that I am the LORD ,
when I execute judgments in her
and display My holiness in her.

²³ For I will send pestilence into her,
and blood into her streets;
and the wounded shall fall in her midst
by the sword upon her on every side;
and they shall know that I am the LORD .

²⁴ There shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor any painful thorn among all who are around them, who despised them. Then they shall know that I am the Lord GOD .

The Future Blessing for Israel

²⁵ Thus says the Lord GOD : When I gather the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered and display My holiness in them in the sight of the nations, then they shall dwell in their land that I have given to My servant Jacob. ²⁶ They shall dwell safely in it and shall build houses and plant vineyards and dwell securely when I execute judgments on all those around them who despise them. Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

A Prophecy Against Egypt

29 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. ³ Speak, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD :

I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt,
the great dragon that lies in the midst of his rivers,
which has said, "My Nile is my own,
and I myself have made it."

⁴ But I will put hooks in your jaws, and will cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales,
and will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers,
and all the fish of your rivers shall stick to your scales.

⁵ I will abandon you to the wilderness,
you and all the fish of your rivers;
you shall fall upon the open field;
you shall not be brought together or gathered.
I have given you for food

to the beasts of the field and to the fowl of the heavens.

⁶ All the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD , because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. ⁷ When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke and tore all their hands. And when they leaned upon you, you broke and made all their legs shake.

⁸ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD : I will bring a sword upon you, and cut off man and beast out of you. ⁹ The land of Egypt shall become a desolation and waste. Then they shall know that I am the LORD .

Because you said, "The Nile is mine, and I have made it," ¹⁰ therefore, I am against you and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia. ¹¹ No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast pass through it, nor shall it be inhabited for forty years. ¹² Thus I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate for forty years. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and will disperse them among the countries.

¹³ For thus says the Lord GOD : At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples wherever they were scattered. ¹⁴ And I will turn the fortunes of Egypt and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their origin, and there they shall be a debased kingdom. ¹⁵ It shall be the basest of the kingdoms, and it shall exalt itself no more above the nations. For I will diminish them so that they shall rule over the nations no more. ¹⁶ It shall be the confidence of the house of Israel no more, bringing to mind the iniquity of their having turned to Egypt. But they shall know that I am the Lord GOD .

Babylonia to Plunder Egypt

¹⁷ In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month , on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ¹⁸ Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to labor hard against Tyre. Every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled. Yet he and his army had no wages from Tyre for the labor that he had done against it. ¹⁹ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD : I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. And he shall carry off her wealth and take her spoil and take her prey. And it shall be wages for his army. ²⁰ I have given him the land of Egypt for his labor with which he labored against it, because they acted for Me, says the Lord GOD .

²¹ On that day I will cause the horn of the house of Israel to spring forth, and I will open your mouth in their midst. Then they shall know that I am the LORD .

A Lament for Egypt

30 The word of the LORD came to me again, saying: ² Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus says the Lord GOD :

Howl,
"Woe to the day!"
³ For the day is near,
even the day of the LORD is near,
a cloudy day,
it shall be the time of doom for the nations.

⁴ The sword shall come upon Egypt,
and great pain shall be in Ethiopia,
when the slain fall in Egypt,
they take away her wealth,
and her foundations are broken down.
⁵ Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, all Arabia, Kub, and the men of the land that is in league shall fall with them by the sword.

⁶ Thus says the LORD :
Indeed, those who uphold Egypt shall fall,
and the pride of her power shall come down.
From Migdol to Syene
they shall fall in her by the sword,
says the Lord GOD .

⁷ They shall be desolate
in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

⁸ They shall know that I am the LORD
when I have set a fire in Egypt and when all her helpers are destroyed.

⁹In that day messengers shall go forth from Me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them as in the day of Egypt. For it is coming!

¹⁰Thus says the Lord GOD :

I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon.

¹¹He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

¹²I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked; and I will make the land waste and all that is in it, by the hand of strangers.

I, the LORD have spoken.

¹³Thus says the Lord GOD :

I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease from Memphis; and no more shall there be a prince of the land of Egypt.

And I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

¹⁴I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in Thebes.

¹⁵I will pour out My fury upon Pelusium, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of Thebes.

¹⁶I will set fire in Egypt; Pelusium shall have great pain, and Thebes shall be rent asunder, and Memphis shall have distresses daily.

¹⁷The young men of Heliopolis and of Bubastis shall fall by the sword, and the women shall go into captivity.

¹⁸In Tahpanhes also the day shall be darkened, when I break there the yokes of Egypt. And the pomp of her strength shall cease in her; as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

¹⁹Thus I will execute judgments in Egypt, and they shall know that I am the LORD .

A Prophecy Against Pharaoh

²⁰In the eleventh year, in the first month , on the seventh day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²¹Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And it has not been bound up to be healed or wrapped with a bandage to make it strong to hold the sword. ²²Therefore thus says the Lord GOD : I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt and will break his arms, both the strong and the broken. And I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. ²³I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the countries. ²⁴For I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of Pharaoh so that he groans before him with the groanings of a wounded man. ²⁵So I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down. Then they shall know that I am the LORD when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out upon the land of Egypt. ²⁶When I scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them among the countries, then they shall know that I am the LORD .

Pharaoh to Be Slain

31 In the eleventh year, in the third month , on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²Son of man, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude:

Whom are you like in your greatness?

³Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon, with fair branches and shade for a forest, and high stature; and its top was among the clouds.

⁴The waters made it great; the deep set it up on high. With its rivers it continually ran all around its plants, and sent out its little rivers to all the trees of the field.

⁵Therefore its height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long because of the abundance of water, as it spread them out.

⁶All the fowl of heaven made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches all the beasts of the field gave birth; and under its shadow all great nations lived.

⁷Thus it was fair in its greatness, in the length of its branches, for its roots were by many waters.

⁸The cedars in the garden of God could not match it; the fir trees were not like its boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like it in its beauty.

⁹I made it beautiful with an abundance of branches, so that all the trees of Eden envied it, that were in the garden of God.

¹⁰Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD : Because it is lifted up in height and has shot up its top among the clouds, and its heart is arrogant in its height, ¹¹I therefore will deliver it into the hand of the mighty one of the nations. He shall surely deal with it. I have driven it out for its wickedness. ¹² Aliens, the tyrants of the nations have cut it off and left it. Upon the mountains and in all the valleys its branches have fallen, and its boughs have been broken by all the rivers of the land. And all the peoples of the earth have gone down from its shadow and have left it. ¹³ Upon its ruin all the fowl of the heavens shall remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon its fallen branches ¹⁴ to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, or shoot up their tops among the clouds, or their well-watered trees stand up in their height. For they all have been delivered to death, to the nether parts of the earth in the midst of the sons of men, with those who go down to the pit.

¹⁵ Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day when it went down to Sheol I caused mourning. I covered the deep over it and restrained its rivers, and its many waters were stayed. And I caused Lebanon to mourn for it, and all the trees of the field fainted for it. ¹⁶ I made the nations to shake at the sound of its fall when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the pit. And all the well-watered trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, were comforted in the nether parts of the earth. ¹⁷ They also went down into Sheol with it to those who were slain with the sword. And those who were its power lived under its shadow in the midst of the nations.

¹⁸ To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? Yet you shall be brought down with the trees of Eden to the nether parts of the earth. You shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with those who were slain by the sword.

This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD.

A Lament for Pharaoh and Egypt

32 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him:

You likened yourself to a young lion of the nations,
but you are as the monster in the seas;
and you burst forth in your rivers,
and muddied the waters with your feet,
and made foul their rivers.

³ Thus says the Lord GOD:

I will therefore spread out My net over you with a company of many peoples,
and they shall bring you up in My net.

⁴ Then I will leave you upon the land;

I will cast you out on the open field,
and I will cause all the fowl of the heavens to remain upon you.

And I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with you.

⁵ I will lay your flesh upon the mountains,
and fill the valleys with your refuse.

⁶ I will also water the land with your blood,

as far as the mountains;
and the rivers shall be full of you.

⁷ When I put you out, I will cover the heavens
and make their stars dark;

I will cover the sun with a cloud,
and the moon shall not give its light.

⁸ All the bright lights in the heavens
I will make dark over you,
and set darkness upon your land,
says the Lord GOD.

⁹ I will also vex the hearts of many peoples when I bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. ¹⁰ Indeed, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you when I brandish My sword before them. And they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, on the day of your fall.

¹¹ For thus says the Lord GOD:
The sword of the king of Babylon
shall come upon you.

¹² By the swords of the mighty,
I will cause your multitude to fall.
All of them are tyrants of the nations;
they shall destroy the pride of Egypt,
and all its multitude shall be destroyed.

¹³ I also will destroy all the beasts
from beside many waters;
nor shall the foot of man muddy them anymore,
nor the hoofs of beasts muddy them.

¹⁴ Then I will make their waters settle,
and cause their rivers to run like oil,
says the Lord GOD.

¹⁵ When I make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country is destitute of that by which it was full,
when I smite all those who dwell in it,
then shall they know that I am the LORD.

¹⁶ This is the lamentation, and they shall chant it. The daughters of the nations shall chant it. They shall chant it over Egypt and over all her multitude, says the Lord GOD.

A Dirge for Egypt

¹⁷ In the twelfth year, on the fifteenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying:

²⁴ There is Elam and all her multitude all around her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who descended uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living and bore their shame with those who went down to the pit. ²⁵ They have set a bed for her in the midst of the slain with all her multitude. Her graves are all around it. All of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. They were put in the midst of those who are slain.

²⁸ Indeed, you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised and shall lie with those who are slain with the sword.

²⁹ There is Edom also, its kings and all its officials, who for all their might are laid by those who were slain by the sword. They shall lie with the uncircumcised and with those who go down to the pit.

³⁰ There are also the officials of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who in spite of the terror from their might have gone down in shame with the slain. So they lie down uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit.

³¹ Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his army, says the Lord GOD. ³² Though I have caused a terror of him in the land of the living, yet he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with those who are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD.

Renewal of Ezekiel's Call

33 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, speak to the children of your people and say to them: If I bring a sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them and set him for their watchman, ³ and he sees the sword come upon the land and blows the trumpet and warns the people, ⁴ then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and does not take warning, and a sword comes and takes him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. ⁵ He heard the sound of the trumpet yet did not take warning. His blood shall be upon himself. But he who takes warning delivers his soul. ⁶ But if the watchman sees the sword come and does not blow the trumpet and the people are not warned and a sword comes and takes a person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity. But his blood I will require from the hand of the watchman.

⁷ Now as for you, son of man: I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel. Therefore you shall hear a word from My mouth and warn them from Me. ⁸ When I say to the wicked, "O wicked man, you shall surely die," and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity. But his blood I will require from your hand. ⁹ Nevertheless, if you on your part warn the wicked to turn from his way and he does not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity. But you have delivered your soul.

God's Justice and Mercy

¹⁰ Therefore as for you, son of man, say to the house of Israel: Thus you have spoken, saying, "Surely our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we pine away in them. How should we then live?" ¹¹ Say to them: As I live, says the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn, turn from your evil ways! For why will you die, O house of Israel?

¹² Therefore you, son of man, say to the sons of your people: The righteousness of a righteous man shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression. As for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall by it in the day that he turns from his wickedness. Nor shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sins. ¹³ When I say to the righteous that he shall surely live and he so trusts in his righteousness that he commits iniquity, all his righteousness shall not be remembered. But for that iniquity of his that he has committed, he shall die. ¹⁴ Again, when I say to the wicked, "You shall surely die," and he turns from his sin and does that which is lawful and right, ¹⁵ if the wicked man restores a pledge, gives back what he had robbed, walks in the statutes of life without committing iniquity, he shall surely live. He shall not die. ¹⁶ None of his sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him. He has done what is lawful and right. He shall surely live.

¹⁷ Yet the sons of your people say, "The way of the Lord is not right," when their way is not right. ¹⁸ When the righteous turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he shall die by it. ¹⁹ But if the wicked turns from his wickedness and does that which is lawful and right, he shall live by them. ²⁰ Yet you say, "The way of the Lord is not right." O house of Israel, I will judge you, every one according to his ways.

The Fall of Jerusalem

²¹ In the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month, one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, "The city is taken." ²² Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, before those who escaped came. And He opened my mouth at the time they came to me in the morning. Therefore my mouth was opened and I was speechless no more.

²³ Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ²⁴ Son of man, those who inhabit these wastes in the land of Israel are saying, "Abraham was one, yet he inherited the land. But to us who are many, the land has been given for an inheritance." ²⁵ Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: You eat meat with the blood in it and lift up your eyes toward your idols as you shed blood. Should you then possess the land? ²⁶ You rely upon your sword, you work abominations, and every one of you defiles his neighbor's wife. Should you then possess the land?

²⁷ Thus you shall say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely those who are in the ruins shall fall by the sword, and him who is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and those who are in the forts and in the cave shall die of pestilence. ²⁸ For I will make the land a desolation and a waste, and the pomp of her strength shall cease. And the mountains of Israel shall be desolate so that none shall pass through. ²⁹ Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I make the land a desolation and a waste because of all their abominations which they have committed.

³⁰ As for you, son of man, the sons of your people are talking about you by the walls and in the doorways of the houses; and they speak to one another, each saying to his brother, "Come now, and hear what the word is that comes from the LORD." ³¹ They come to you as people come, and they sit before you as My people, and they hear your words; but they will not do them. For they do the lustful desires in their mouth, and their heart goes after their covetousness. ³² You are to them as a sensual song of one who has a pleasant voice and can play well on an instrument. For they hear your words, but they do not do them.

³³ When this comes to pass, and it is coming to pass, then shall they know that a prophet has been among them.

A Prophecy Against Israel's Shepherds

34 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to those shepherds, Thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flock? ³ You eat the fat and clothe yourself with the wool; you kill those who are fed without feeding the flock. ⁴ The diseased you have not strengthened, nor have you healed that which was sick, nor have you bound up that which was broken, nor have you brought back that which was driven away, nor have you sought that which was lost. But with force and with cruelty you have subjugated them. ⁵ They were scattered because there was no shepherd. And they became meat to all the beasts of the field and were scattered. ⁶ My sheep wandered through all the mountains and upon every high hill. Indeed, My flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and no one searched or sought after them.

⁷ Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ⁸ As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely because My flock became a prey, and My flock even became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock; but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock, ⁹ therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. ¹⁰ Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against the shepherds. And I will require My flock from their hand and cause them to cease from feeding the flock. Nor shall the shepherds feed themselves anymore, for I will deliver My flock from their mouth so that they may not be meat for them.

The True Shepherd

¹¹ For thus says the Lord GOD: I, even I, will search for My sheep and seek them out. ¹² As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered, so I will seek out My sheep and will deliver them out of all the places where they have been scattered in a cloudy and dark day. ¹³ I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers and in all the inhabited places of the country. ¹⁴ I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel their grazing ground shall be. There they shall lie on good grazing ground, and in a rich pasture they shall feed upon the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵ I will feed My flock, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶ I will seek that which was lost and bring back that which was driven away and bind up that which was broken and will strengthen that which was sick. But I will destroy the fat and the strong. I will feed them with judgment.

²⁵ I will make with them a covenant of peace and will cause the wild beasts to cease from the land so that they dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. ²⁶ I will make them and the places all around My hill a blessing. And I will cause the showers to come down in their season. They shall be showers of blessing. ²⁷ The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the ground shall yield its increase, and they shall be safe in their land. Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke and delivered them out of the hand of those who enslaved them. ²⁸ They shall no more be a prey to the nations, nor shall the beast of the land devour them. But they shall dwell safely and no one shall make them afraid. ²⁹ I will raise up for them a planting place of renown, and no more shall they be consumed with hunger in the land, nor shall they bear the shame of the nations anymore. ³⁰ Thus shall they know that I, the LORD their God, am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are My people, says the Lord GOD. ³¹ As for you, My flock, the flock of My pasture, you are men, and I am your God, says the Lord GOD.

A Prophecy Against Edom

³⁵ Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it, ³ and say to it, Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, O Mount Seir, and I will stretch out My hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and a waste. ⁴ I will lay your cities waste, and you shall become a desolation. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.

¹⁰ Because you have said, "These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess them," whereas the LORD was there, ¹¹ therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will treat you according to your anger and according to your envy, which you have showed out of your hatred against them. And I will make Myself known among them when I have judged you. ¹² Then you shall know that I, the LORD, have heard all your blasphemies which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, "They are laid desolate. They are given to us to consume."

¹³ Thus with your mouth you have boasted against Me and have multiplied your words against Me. I have heard them. ¹⁴ Thus says the Lord GOD: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you a desolation. ¹⁵ As you rejoiced at the inheritance of the house of Israel because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You shall be a desolation, O Mount Seir, and all Edom, all of it. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

A Prophecy to the Mountains of Israel

³⁶ As for you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say: O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. ² Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the enemy has said against you, "Aha! Even the ancient high places are our possession," ³ therefore, prophesy and say: Thus says the Lord GOD: For good reason they have made you desolate and swallowed you up on every side so that you might become a possession to the rest of the nations, and you have been taken up on the lips of talkers and are an infamy of the people. ⁴ Therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the rivers and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the rest of the nations that are all around; ⁵ therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Surely in the fire of My jealousy I have spoken against the rest of the nations and against all Edom, who have arrogated My land into their possession with the joy of all their hearts and with a spiteful soul, to cast it out for a prey. ⁶ Prophecy therefore concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and to the hills, to the rivers and to the valleys: Thus says the Lord GOD: I have spoken in My jealousy and in My fury, because you have borne the shame of the nations. ⁷ Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD: I have lifted up My hand that surely the nations who are about you shall themselves bear their invectives.

⁸ But you, O mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit for My people Israel. For they shall come soon. ⁹ For I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown. ¹⁰ And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, all of it. And the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built. ¹¹ And I will multiply man and beast upon you. And they shall increase and bring forth fruit. And I will settle you as you were before and do better to you than at the beginning. Thus you shall know that I am the LORD.¹² Indeed, I will cause men to walk upon you, My people Israel, and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no longer bereave them of children.

¹³ Thus says the Lord GOD: Because they say to you, "You are a devourer of men and have bereaved your nation of children,"¹⁴ therefore you shall devour men no more or bereave your nation of children anymore, says the Lord GOD.¹⁵ Nor will I cause men to hear in you the invectives of the nations anymore, nor shall you bear the reproach of the peoples anymore, nor shall you cause your nation to fall anymore, says the Lord GOD.

The Restoration of Israel

¹⁶ Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ¹⁷ Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their ways and their deeds. Their way was before Me as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity.¹⁸ Therefore I poured My fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land and for their idols with which they had polluted it.¹⁹ And I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed throughout the countries. According to their ways and according to their deeds, I judged them.²⁰ When they entered the nations, where they went, they profaned My holy name, because they said of them, "These are the people of the LORD and have gone out of His land."²¹ But I had pity for My holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations where they went.

²⁴ For I will take you from among the nations and gather you out of all countries and will bring you into your own land.²⁵ Then I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean. From all your filthiness and from all your idols, I will cleanse you.²⁶ Also, I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.²⁷ I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them.²⁸ You will dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers. And you will be My people, and I will be your God.²⁹ I will also save you from all your uncleanness. And I will call for the grain and increase it and lay no famine upon you.³⁰ I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the increase of the field so that you shall receive no more reproach of famine among the nations.³¹ Then you shall remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good, and shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and your abominations.³² Not for your sake am I doing this, says the Lord GOD, let it be known to you. Be ashamed and humiliated for your ways, O house of Israel!

³³ Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause you to dwell in the cities, and the waste places shall be built.³⁴ The desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all who pass by.³⁵ They shall say, "This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden. And the waste and desolate and ruined cities have become fenced and inhabited."³⁶ Then the nations that are left all around you shall know that I the LORD have built the ruined places and planted that which was desolate. I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

³⁷ Thus says the Lord GOD: This also I will let the house of Israel ask Me to do for them: I will increase their men like a flock.³⁸ As the flock for sacrifices, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

The Valley of Dry Bones

37 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and He carried me out in the Spirit of the LORD and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,² and He caused me to pass among them all around. And there were very many in the open valley. And they were very dry.³ He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?"

And I answered, "O Lord GOD, You know."

⁴ Again He said to me, "Prophecy over these bones and say to them, O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.⁵ Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: I will cause breath to enter you so that you live.⁶ And I will lay sinews upon you and will grow back flesh upon you and cover you with skin and put breath in you so that you live. Then you shall know that I am the LORD."

⁷ So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a noise and a shaking. And the bones came together, bone to its bone.⁸ When I looked, the sinews and the flesh grew upon them, and the skin covered them. But there was no breath in them.

⁹ Then He said to me, "Prophecy to the wind; prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind: Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain so that they live."¹⁰ So I prophesied as He commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

¹¹ Then He said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost. We are cut off completely.'¹² Therefore prophesy and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Pay attention, O My people, I will open your graves and cause you to come up out of your graves and bring you into the land of Israel.

¹³ Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O My people, and brought you up out of your graves. ¹⁴ And I shall put My Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I shall place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I the LORD have spoken and performed it, says the LORD."

Israel and Judah Unite

¹⁵ The word of the LORD came again to me, saying: ¹⁶ Moreover, son of man, take one stick and write on it: "For Judah and for the sons of Israel his companions." Then take another stick and write on it, "For Joseph the stick of Ephraim and for all the house of Israel his companions." ¹⁷ Then join them to one another into one stick so that they become one in your hand.

²⁰ The sticks on which you write shall be in your hand before their eyes. ²¹ Say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: I will take the sons of Israel from among the nations where they have gone and will gather them on every side and bring them into their own land. ²² And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel. And one king shall be king over them all. And they shall be two nations no more, nor shall they be divided into two kingdoms anymore. ²³ Nor shall they defile themselves anymore with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions. But I will save them out of all their dwelling places in which they have sinned and will cleanse them. So they shall be My people, and I will be their God.

²⁴ David My servant shall be king over them. And they all shall have one shepherd. They shall also walk in My judgments, and observe My statutes and do them. ²⁵ They shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob My servant, in which your fathers lived. And they shall dwell in it, they and their sons and their son's sons forever. And My servant David shall be their prince forever. ²⁶ Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them. It shall be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will place them and multiply them and will set My sanctuary in their midst forevermore. ²⁷ My tabernacle also shall be with them. Indeed, I will be their God and they shall be My people. ²⁸ The nations shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel when My sanctuary is in their midst forevermore.

A Prophecy Against Gog

38 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ² Son of man, set your face against Gog of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshek and Tubal, and prophesy against him, ³ and say: Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh, Meshek and Tubal. ⁴ And I will turn you back and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, and all your army, horses, and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armor, even a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords. ⁵ Persia, Ethiopia, and Put with them, all of them with shield and helmet. ⁶ I will do so to Gomer and all its troops, Beth Togarmah of the north quarters and all its troops, and many peoples with you.

⁷ Be prepared and prepare yourself, you and all your companies that are assembled to you, and be a guard to them. ⁸ After many days you shall be called. In the latter years you shall come into the land that is restored from the sword, whose inhabitants have been gathered out of many peoples, against the mountains of Israel which had been always a waste. But its people were brought out of the nations, and they, all of them, are dwelling safely. ⁹ You shall ascend and come like a storm; you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you and all your troops, and many peoples with you.

¹⁰ Thus says the Lord GOD: It shall come to pass on that day that things shall come into your mind and you shall think an evil thought, ¹¹ and you shall say, "I will go up against the land of unwalled villages. I will go against those who are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls and having neither bars nor gates," ¹² to take spoil and to seize prey, to turn your hand against the desolate places that are now inhabited, and against the people who are gathered out of the nations, who have obtained livestock and goods, who dwell in the midst of the world. ¹³ Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish with all its villages shall say to you, "Have you come to take spoil? Have you gathered your company to seize prey, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great spoil?"

¹⁴ Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog: Thus says the Lord GOD: On that day when My people of Israel dwell safely, shall you not know it? ¹⁵ And you shall come from your place out of the north parts, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army. ¹⁶ And you shall come up against My people of Israel as a cloud to cover the land. It shall come about in the latter days that I will bring you against My land so that the nations may know Me when I shall be sanctified in you, O Gog, before their eyes.

Judgment on Gog

¹⁷ Thus says the Lord GOD: Are you he of whom I have spoken in former days by My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them? ¹⁸ And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog comes against the land of Israel, says the Lord GOD, that My fury shall come up in My anger. ¹⁹ For in My jealousy and in the fire of My wrath I have spoken: Surely in that day there shall be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. ²⁰ The fish of the sea and the fowl of the heavens and the beasts of the field and all creeping things that creep upon the earth and all the men who are upon the face of the earth shall shake at My presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. ²¹ I will call for a sword against him on all My mountains, says the Lord GOD. Every man's sword shall be against his brother. ²² I will enter into judgment with him with pestilence and with blood. And I will rain upon him and upon his troops and upon the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing rain and hailstones, fire and brimstone. ²³ Thus I will magnify Myself, and sanctify Myself, and I will be known in the eyes of many nations. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

The Destruction of Gog's Armies

39 Moreover you, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say: Thus says the Lord GOD: I am against you, O Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshek, and Tubal. ² And I will turn you back, drive you on, and take you up the north parts and bring you against the mountains of Israel. ³ And I will strike your bow out of your left hand and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. ⁴ You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops and the peoples who are with you. I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. ⁵ You shall fall upon the open field. For I have spoken, says the Lord GOD. ⁶ I will send a fire on Magog and among those who dwell safely in the coastlands. Then they shall know that I am the LORD.

⁷ So I will make My holy name known in the midst of My people Israel. And I will not let them pollute My holy name anymore. And the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸ It is coming and it shall be done, says the Lord GOD. This is the day of which I have spoken.

⁹ Those who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go and make fires with the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire for seven years. ¹⁰ They shall take no wood out of the field, or cut down any out of the forests, for they shall make fires with the weapons.

And they shall despoil those who despoiled them, and plunder those who plundered them, says the Lord GOD.

The Burial of Gog

¹¹ It shall come to pass in that day that I will give to Gog a place of graves there in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea, and it shall stop the passengers. And there they shall bury Gog and all his multitude, and they shall call it the Valley of Hamon Gog.

¹² For seven months the house of Israel shall be burying them so that they may cleanse the land. ¹³ Indeed, all the people of the land shall bury them. And it shall be their renown on the day that I shall be glorified, says the Lord GOD.

¹⁴ They shall separate men who continually pass through the land to bury the passengers, even those who remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it. After the end of seven months they shall search. ¹⁵ As the passengers pass through the land and anyone sees a man's bone, then he shall set up a sign by it until the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog. ¹⁶ Also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus they shall cleanse the land.

¹⁷ As for you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: Speak to every kind of fowl and to every beast of the field: Assemble and come. Gather on every side to My sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸ You shall eat the flesh of the mighty and drink the blood of the officials of the earth as though of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. ¹⁹ You shall eat fat until you are full and drink blood until you are drunk from My sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. ²⁰ Thus you shall be filled at My table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all the men of war, says the Lord GOD.

²¹ I will set My glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see My judgment that I have executed, and My hand that I have laid upon them. ²² So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward. ²³ The nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity because they trespassed against Me, and I hid My face from them. And I gave them into the hand of their enemies, and all of them fell by the sword. ²⁴ According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions, I have done to them and hid My face from them.

The Restoration of Israel

²⁵ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob and have mercy on the whole house of Israel and will be jealous for My holy name. ²⁶ They shall forget their shame and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against Me when they lived safely in their land and no one made them afraid. ²⁷ When I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them out of the lands of their enemies, then I shall be sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. ²⁸ Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God who caused them to be led into captivity among the nations, and then gathered them again to their own land and have left none of them there anymore. ²⁹ Nor will I hide My face from them anymore. For I will have poured out My Spirit on the house of Israel, says the Lord GOD.

The Vision of the New Temple

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was struck, on that very day the hand of the LORD was upon me and He brought me there. ² In the visions of God He brought me into the land of Israel and set me upon a very high mountain, on which was as the frame of a city on the south. ³ He brought me there, and there was a man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, with a line of flax and a measuring reed in his hand. And he stood in the gate. ⁴ The man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you. For you have been brought here to show it to you. Declare all that you see to the house of Israel."

The East Gate

⁵ There was a wall all around the outside of the temple. In the man's hand was a measuring reed of six cubits [†] long, each being a cubit and a handbreadth. ^{††} So he measured the width of the building, one reed. And the height, one reed.

⁶ Then he went to the gateway facing east; and he went up its stairs and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed wide. And the other threshold of the gate was one reed wide. ⁷ Every little chamber was one reed long and one reed wide. And between the little chambers were five cubits. [‡] And the threshold of the gate by the vestibule of the inside gate was one reed.

⁸ He measured also the vestibule of the gate within, one reed. ⁹ Then he measured the vestibule of the gate, eight cubits. ^{‡‡} And its posts, two cubits. ^{‡‡} And the vestibule of the gate was the inner end.

¹⁰ The little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side and three on that side. The three were of one measurement. And the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. ¹¹ He measured the width of the entrance of the gate, ten cubits, ^{‡‡‡} and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. ^{‡‡‡12} The space also before the little chambers was one cubit [§] on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side. And the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. ¹³ He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another; the width was twenty-five cubits, ^{§†} door against door. ¹⁴ He measured the posts, sixty cubits, ^{§††} even to the post of the court all around the gate. ¹⁵ From the face of the gate of the entrance to the face of the vestibule of the inner gate was fifty cubits. ^{§††16} There were narrow windows in the little chambers and in their posts inside the gate all around, and likewise in the vestibules. And windows were all around inside. And on each post were palm tree ornaments.

The Outer Court

¹⁷ Then he brought me into the outer court, and there were chambers and a pavement made all around the court. Thirty chambers were on the pavement. ¹⁸ The pavement was by the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates; this was the lower pavement. ¹⁹ Then he measured the width from the front of the lower gate to the outer front of the inner court, a hundred cubits ^{§††} eastward and northward.

The North Gate

²⁰ As for the gate of the outer court that faced north, he measured its length and its width. ²¹ Its little chambers, three on this side and three on that side, its posts, and its arches had the same measurements as the first gate; its length was fifty cubits, and its width twenty-five cubits. ²² Its windows, and those of its arches, and its palm trees had the same measurements as the gate facing east. Seven steps led up to it; and its arches were in front of it. ²³ The gate of the inner court was opposite the gate on the north, as on the east. And he measured from gate to gate, a hundred cubits.

The South Gate

²⁴ After that he brought me toward the south, and there was a gate facing south. And he measured its posts and its arches according to these same measurements. ²⁵ There were windows in it and in its arches all around like those windows. The length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. ²⁶ There were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them. And it had palm tree ornaments, one on this side, and another on that side on its posts. ²⁷ There was a gate in the inner court facing south. And he

^{‡‡‡} About 18 feet wide and 23 feet long, or 5.3 meters wide and 6.9 meters long. [§] About 21 inches, or about 53 centimeters. ^{§†} About 44 feet, or 13 meters; and in vv. 21, 25, 29, 30, 33, and 36. ^{§††} About 105 feet, or 32 meters. ^{§‡} About 88 feet, or 27 meters; and in vv. 21, 25, 29, 33, and 36. ^{§††} About 175 feet, or 53 meters; and in vv. 23, 27, and 47.

The Inner Court

²⁸ He brought me to the inner court by the south gate. And he measured the south gate according to these same measurements. ²⁹ And its little chambers and its posts and its arches were according to these same measurements. And there were windows in it and in its arches all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁰ The arches all around were twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide. ³¹ Its arches faced the outer court. And palm tree ornaments were on its posts. And its staircase had eight steps.

³² He brought me into the inner court facing east. And he measured the gate according to these same measurements. ³³ Its little chambers and its posts and its arches were according to these same measurements. And there were windows in it and in its arches all around. It was fifty cubits [†] long and twenty-five cubits wide. ³⁴ Its arches faced the outer court. And palm tree ornaments were on its posts, on this side and on that side. And its staircase had eight steps.

³⁵ He brought me to the north gate and measured it according to these same measurements; ³⁶ its little chambers, its posts, and its arches, and it had windows all around: the length was fifty cubits, and the width twenty-five cubits. ³⁷ Its posts faced the outer court. And palm tree ornaments were on its posts, on this side and on that side. And its staircase had eight steps.

³⁸ The chambers and its entrance were by the posts of the gates where they washed the burnt offering. ³⁹ In the vestibule of the gate were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, to slay on it the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering. ⁴⁰ On the outside of the vestibule, as one goes up to the entrance of the north gate, were two tables. And on the other side of the vestibule of the gate were two tables. ⁴¹ Four tables were on this side and four tables on that side by the side of the gate, eight tables on which they slaughtered their sacrifices. ⁴² The four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high. ^{††} On which also they laid the instruments with which they slaughtered the burnt offering and the sacrifice. ⁴³ Within were hooks, a handbreadth wide, [‡] fastened all around. And on the tables was the flesh of the offering.

[†] About 88 feet, or 27 meters. ^{††} About 22/3 feet long and wide and 21 inches high, or 80 centimeters long and wide and 53 centimeters high. [‡] About 31/2 inches, or 9 centimeters.

Chambers for the Singers and Priests

⁴⁴ Outside the inner gate were the chambers for the singers in the inner court, one at the side of the north gate facing south, the other at the side of the east gate facing north. ⁴⁵ He said to me, "This chamber that faces south is for the priests who have charge of the temple. ⁴⁶ The chamber that faces north is for the priests who have charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, who come near to the LORD to minister to Him."

⁴⁷ So he measured the court, a hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits wide, foursquare. And the altar was before the temple.

The Vestibule of the Temple

⁴⁸ Then he brought me to the vestibule of the temple and measured each post of the vestibule, five cubits ^{††} on this side, and five cubits on that side. And the width of the gate was three cubits ^{‡†} on this side and three cubits on that side. ⁴⁹ The length of the vestibule was twenty cubits ^{‡‡†} and the width eleven cubits. ^{‡‡‡} And he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it. And there were pillars by the posts, one on this side and another on that side.

The Inner Temple

41 Afterward he brought me to the temple and measured the posts, six cubits [§] wide on the one side and six cubits wide on the other side, which was the width of the tabernacle. ² The width of the door was ten cubits. ^{§†} And the sides of the door were five cubits ^{§††} on the one side and five cubits on the other side. And he measured its length, forty cubits, and the width, twenty cubits. ^{§‡}

³ Then he went inward and measured the post of the door, two cubits, ^{§††} and the door, six cubits, and the width of the door, seven cubits. ^{§†4} So he measured its length, twenty cubits. And before the temple, the width was twenty cubits. And he said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

⁵ Afterward he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits, and the width of every side chamber, four cubits, ^{§‡} all around the temple on every side. ⁶ The side chambers were in three stories, one above the other, thirty in each story. There were offsets all around to serve as supports for the side chambers, so that they should not be supported by the wall of the temple. ⁷ The side chambers became wider with each successive story going up because the structures went up all around the temple. Therefore the width of the temple increased going upwards and thus one went up from the lowest to the highest level through the middle level.

⁸ I saw also the height all around the temple. The foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits. ⁹ The thickness of the wall of the side chambers was five cubits. And that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within. ¹⁰ Between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits all around the temple on every side. ¹¹ The doors of the side chambers opened onto the open place, one door toward the north and another door toward the south. And the width of the open place was five cubits all around.

¹² Now the building that was facing the separate yard on the west side was seventy cubits [†] wide. And the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits. ^{††}

¹³ So he measured the temple, a hundred cubits long; and the separate yard and the building with its walls, a hundred cubits long; ^{†††} also the width of the eastern face of the temple and the separate yard was a hundred cubits.

¹⁸ It was made with cherubim and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between cherub and cherub. And every cherub had two faces, ¹⁹ so that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. It was made throughout the temple all round. ²⁰ From the ground to the top of the door and on the wall of the nave, cherubim and palm trees were carved.

²¹ The posts of the temple and the face of the sanctuary were squared. The appearance of the one was as the appearance of the other. ²² The altar of wood was three cubits ^{††} high, and its length two cubits. And its corners and its length and its walls were of wood. And he said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD." ²³ The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. ²⁴ The doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves. Two leaves were for the one door, and two leaves for the other door. ²⁵ There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees like those made on the walls. And there were thick planks on the front of the vestibule outside.

[†] About 123 feet, or 37 meters. ^{††} About 158 feet, or 48 meters. ^{†††} About 175 feet, or 53 meters; and in vv. 14 and 15. ^{††††} About 51/4 feet, or 1.5 meters.

²⁶ There were beveled windows and palm trees on both sides, on the sides of the vestibule; thus were the side chambers of the temple and the thresholds.

The Chambers for the Priests

42 Then he brought me out into the outer court, toward the north; and he brought me into the chamber that was opposite the separate yard and which was opposite the building on the north. ² Before the length of a hundred cubits was the north door, and the width was fifty cubits. ^{†††} Opposite the twenty cubits ^{††††} that belonged to the inner court, and opposite the pavement that belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. ⁴ In front of the chambers was a passage on the inner side, ten cubits wide and one hundred cubits ^{†††} deep; and their doors faced north. ⁵ Now the upper chambers were shorter. For the galleries were higher than these, than the lower and the middle ones of the building. ⁶ For they were in three stories, but had no pillars as the pillars of the courts. Therefore the building was set back more than the lowest and the middle ones from the ground. ⁷ And a wall that was outside was parallel to the chambers, toward the outer court, opposite the chambers; its length was fifty cubits. ⁸ For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits. And the length of those before the temple was a hundred cubits. ⁹ From under these chambers was the entrance on the east side as one goes into them from the outer court.

¹⁰ The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, opposite the separate yard and opposite the building, ¹¹ with a passage in front of them; they were like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, of the same length and width. And all their exits and arrangements were according to plan. ¹² Corresponding to the doors of the chambers that were facing south was a door at the head of the passage way, the passage way directly in front of the wall toward the east.

¹³ Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, are the holy chambers where the priests who approach the LORD shall eat the most holy offerings. There they shall lay the most holy offerings—the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering—for the place is holy. ¹⁴ When the priests enter it, then they shall not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister, for they are holy. And they shall put on other garments, and shall approach those things which are for the people."

¹⁵ Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner temple, he brought me out by the gate that faces east, and measured it all around. ¹⁶ He measured

^{††} About 175 feet long and 88 feet wide, or 53 meters long and 27 meters wide. ^{†††} About 35 feet, or 11 meters. ^{††††} About 18 feet wide and 175 feet long, or 5.3 meters wide and 53 meters long.

the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred cubits [†] with the measuring reed all around. ¹⁷ He measured the north side with the measuring reed round about, five hundred reeds. ¹⁸ He measured the south side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds. ¹⁹ He turned about to the west side and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. ²⁰ He measured it by the four sides. It had a wall all around, five hundred reeds long and five hundred wide, ^{††} to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

God's Glory Returns to the Temple

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, the gate facing east. ² And the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east. And His voice was like a noise of many waters. And the earth shone with His glory. ³ It was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw, when He came to destroy the city. And the visions were like the vision that I saw by the River Kebar. And I fell upon my face. ⁴ The glory of the LORD came into the temple by the way of the gate facing east. ⁵ So the Spirit took me up and brought me into the inner court. And the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

⁶ Then I heard one speaking to me out of the temple. And a man stood by me. ⁷ He said to me: Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel forever. And My holy name shall the house of Israel defile no more, nor they nor their kings by their harlotry, nor by the corpses of their kings when they die. ⁸ By setting their threshold by My threshold and their post by My posts and the wall between Me and them, they have even defiled My holy name by their abominations that they have committed. Therefore I have consumed them in My anger. ⁹ Now let them put away their harlotry and the corpses of their kings far from Me, and I will dwell in their midst forever.

¹⁰ As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities. And let them measure the pattern. ¹¹ If they are ashamed of all that they have done, show them the design of the temple and its fashion and exits and its entrances and all its forms and all its ordinances and all its laws. And write it in their sight so that they may keep its whole form and all its ordinances and do them.

¹² This is the law of the temple: The whole territory on the top of the mountain all around shall be most holy. This is the law of the temple.

[†] Five hundred cubits equal about 875 feet, or 265 meters; and in vv. 17, 18, and 19. ^{††} Five hundred cubits equal about 875 feet, or 265 meters.

The Altar Restored

¹³ These are the measurements of the altar by cubits [‡] (the cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): The base shall be a cubit, and the width a cubit, and its border by its edge all around shall be a span. ^{‡†} And this shall be the height of the altar: ¹⁴ From the bottom on the ground even to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the width one cubit. ^{‡†} And from the lesser ledge even to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the width one cubit. ^{‡†15} So the altar shall be four cubits. And from the altar and upward shall be four horns. ¹⁶ The altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve wide, ^{‡‡} square in its four corners. ¹⁷ The ledge shall be fourteen cubits [§] long and fourteen wide in the four squares. And the border about it shall be half a cubit. ^{§†} And its bottom shall be a cubit all around. And its stairs shall face east.

²⁵ For seven days you shall prepare every day a goat as a sin offering. They shall also prepare a young bull and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. ²⁶ For seven days they shall purge the altar and purify it. So they shall consecrate it. ²⁷ When they have completed the days, it shall be that on the eighth day and forward, the priests shall present your burnt offerings and your peace offerings upon the altar. And I will accept you, says the Lord GOD .

The East Gate for the Prince

44 Then he brought me back to the gate of the outer sanctuary, which faces east. And it was [‡] About 21 inches, or 53 centimeters; and in vv. 14 and 17. ^{‡†} About 11 inches, or 27 centimeters. ^{‡‡} About 31/2 feet high and 13/4 feet wide, or 105 centimeters high and 53 centimeters wide. ^{‡††} About 7 feet high and 13/4 feet wide, or 2.1 meters high and 53 centimeters wide. ^{‡‡‡} About 21 feet, or 6.4 meters. [§] About 25 feet, or 7.4 meters. ^{§†} About 11 inches, or 27 centimeters.

shut. ² Then the LORD said to me: This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter by it. Because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered by it, therefore it shall be shut. ³ As for the prince, he shall sit in it as prince to eat bread before the LORD. He shall enter by the way of the vestibule of the gate and shall go out by the same way.

⁴ Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the temple. And I looked, and the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD, and I fell upon my face.

⁵ The LORD said to me: Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD and all its laws. And mark well those who may enter the house, with all exits of the sanctuary.

⁶ You shall say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: O house of Israel, let all your abominations suffice; ⁷ you brought foreigners into My sanctuary, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary to pollute it, even My house, when you offered My food, the fat and the blood. For they have broken My covenant because of all your abominations. ⁸ You have not kept the charge of My holy things. But you have set foreigners to keep charge of My sanctuary. ⁹ Thus says the Lord GOD: No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into My sanctuary, of any foreigner who is among the sons of Israel.

Laws for the Priests

¹⁰ But the Levites who have gone far from Me when Israel went astray, who went astray away from Me after their idols, they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity. ¹¹ Yet they shall be ministers in My sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house and ministering to the house. They shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. ¹² Because they ministered to them before their idols and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore I have lifted up My hand against them, says the Lord GOD, that they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity. ¹³ They shall not come near to Me to do the office of a priest to Me, nor to come near to any of My holy things in the Most Holy Place. But they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed. ¹⁴ But I will make them keepers of the charge of the temple for all its service and for all that shall be done in it.

¹⁵ But the Levitical priests, the sons of Zadok, who kept the charge of My sanctuary when the sons of Israel went astray from Me, they shall come near to Me to minister to Me, and they shall stand before Me to offer to Me the fat and the blood, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶ They shall enter My sanctuary, and they shall come near to My table to minister to Me, and they shall keep My charge.

²⁰ Nor shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long. They shall only trim the hair of their heads. ²¹ Nor shall any priest drink wine when they enter the inner court. ²² Nor shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her who has been put away. But they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow who had a priest before. ²³ They shall teach My people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

²⁴ In controversy they shall stand in judgment. And they shall judge it according to My judgments. And they shall keep My laws and My statutes in all My assemblies. And they shall hallow My Sabbaths.

²⁵ They shall not go to a dead person to defile themselves. But for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that has had no husband, they may defile themselves. ²⁶ After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. ²⁷ In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, to the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord GOD.

²⁸ It shall be to them for an inheritance. I am their inheritance. And you shall give them no possession in Israel. I am their possession. ²⁹ They shall eat the grain offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering. And every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

³⁰ The first of all the first fruits of all things and every oblation of all of every sort of your oblations shall be the priest's. You shall also give to the priest the first of your dough to cause a blessing to rest in your house.

³¹ The priests shall not eat any bird or beast that has died naturally or was torn to pieces.

The Holy District

45 Moreover, when you divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an allotment to the LORD, a holy portion of the land. The length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand cubits, [†] and the width shall be twenty thousand. ^{††} It shall be holy throughout its territory all around. ² Of this there shall be a square plot for the sanctuary, five hundred by five hundred cubits, [‡] with fifty cubits ^{‡‡} for an open space around it. ³ Of this measure you shall measure the length of twenty-five thousand cubits and the width of ten thousand cubits. [†] And in it shall be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. ⁴ The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who shall come near to minister to the LORD. And it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵ An area twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width shall be for the Levites, the ministers of the temple, and for their possession cities in which to dwell.

[†] About 8 miles, or 13 kilometers; and in vv. 3, 5, and 6. ^{††} About 6 1/2 miles, or 11 kilometers.

⁶ You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand cubits ^{††} wide and twenty-five thousand cubits long adjacent to the allotment of the holy portion. It shall be for the whole house of Israel.

The Portion for the Prince

⁷ A portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the holy allotment and property of the city, adjacent to the holy allotment and the property of the city, from the west side westward and from the east side eastward. And the length shall correspond to one of the tribal portions, from the west border to the east border. ⁸ In the land shall be his possession in Israel. And My officials shall no more oppress My people. And the rest of the land they shall give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

Laws Governing the Prince

⁹ Thus says the Lord GOD: Let it suffice you officials of Israel. Remove violence and destruction, and execute justice and righteousness. Take away your exactions from My people, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁰ You shall have just balances and a just ephah [‡] and a just bath. ^{†††} The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure so that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, ^{‡‡} and the ephah the tenth part of a homer. Their measure shall be after the homer. ¹² The shekel ^{‡‡‡} shall be twenty gerahs. ^{‡‡‡} Twenty shekels, twenty-five shekels, and fifteen shekels shall be your mina. [§]

[‡] About 875 feet, or 265 meters. ^{††} About 88 feet, or 27 meters. [†] About 31/3 miles, or 5.3 kilometers. ^{††} About 12/3 miles, or 2.7 kilometers. [‡] An ephah was a dry measure of about 3/5 bushel, or 22 liters. ^{††} A bath was a liquid measure of about 6 gallons, or 22 liters. ^{‡‡} In dry measure, six bushels or 220 liters; in liquid measure, 60 gallons or 220 liters. ^{‡‡‡} A shekel weighed about 2/5 ounce, or 12 grams. ^{‡‡‡} Weighs 1/20 of a shekel. [§] Sixty shekels equals about 11/2 pounds, or 690 grams. The common mina was 50 shekels. ^{§†} Likely about 6 pounds, or 2.7 kilograms. ^{§††} Likely about 5 pounds, or 2.3 kilograms. ^{§‡} About 21/2 quarts, or 2.2 liters. ^{§††} Equals a homer in liquid measure, 60 gallons or 220 liters.

of two hundred, out of the watering places of Israel, as a grain offering and as a burnt offering and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, says the Lord GOD. ¹⁶ All the people of the land shall give this offering for the prince in Israel. ¹⁷ It shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings and grain offerings and drink offerings in the feasts and in the New Moons and in the Sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel. He shall prepare the sin offering and the grain offering and the burnt offering and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

Observing the Feasts

¹⁸ Thus says the Lord GOD: In the first month, on the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish and cleanse the sanctuary. ¹⁹ And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar and on the gateposts of the inner court. ²⁰ So you shall do the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs and for him who is naive. So you shall make atonement for the temple.

²¹ In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days. Unleavened bread shall be eaten. ²² On that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull as a sin offering. ²³ For seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily for the seven days, and a male of the goats daily as a sin offering. ²⁴ He shall prepare a grain offering of an ephah for a bull and an ephah for a ram and a hin ^{§†} of oil for an ephah.

²⁵ In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, he shall do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the grain offering, and according to the oil.

The Prince and the Feasts

46 Thus says the Lord GOD: The gate of the inner court that faces east shall be shut the six working days. But on the Sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the New Moon it shall be opened. ² The prince shall enter by the way of the vestibule of that gate from outside, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out. But the gate shall not be shut until the evening. ³ Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the Sabbaths and in the New Moons. ⁴ The burnt offering that the prince shall offer to the LORD in the Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish. ⁵ The grain offering shall be an ephah † for a ram and the grain offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give and a hin †† of oil to an ephah. ⁶ In the day of the New Moon it shall be a young bull without blemish and six lambs and a ram. They shall be without blemish. ⁷ He shall prepare a grain offering, an ephah ‡ for a bull and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain to, and a hin of oil to an ephah. ⁸ When the prince enters, he shall go in by the way of the vestibule of that gate, and he shall go out the same way.

⁹ But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by way of the south gate. And he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go out by way of the north gate. He shall not return by way of the gate by which he entered, but shall go out the opposite gate. ¹⁰ The prince shall be in their midst. When they enter, he shall enter; and when they go out, he shall go out.

¹³ You shall daily prepare a burnt offering to the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish. You shall prepare it every morning. ¹⁴ You shall prepare a grain offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, †† and the third part of a hin ††† of oil to temper with the fine flour, a grain offering continually by a perpetual ordinance to the LORD. ¹⁵ Thus they shall prepare the lamb and the grain offering and the oil every morning as a continual burnt offering.

Inheritance Laws for the Prince

¹⁶ Thus says the Lord GOD: If the prince gives a gift out of his inheritance to any of his sons, it will belong to his sons. It is their possession by inheritance. ¹⁷ But if he gives a gift out of his inheritance to one of his servants, it will be his until the year of liberty. Then it will revert to the prince. His inheritance will be only his sons. It will belong to them. ¹⁸ Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression to thrust them out of their possession. But he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession so that My people not be scattered, every man from his possession.

† Likely about 35 pounds, or 16 kilograms. †† About 1 gallon, or 3.8 liters. ‡ Likely about 35 pounds, or 16 kilograms. †† Likely about 35 pounds, or 16 kilograms. ††† Likely about 6 pounds, or 2.7 kilograms. †††† About 1 1/2 quarts, or 1.3 liters.

Preparations for the Offerings

¹⁹ Then he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests which face toward the north. And there was a place at the extreme westward end of them. ²⁰ Then he said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the grain offering so that they not bear them out into the outer court, to sanctify the people."

²¹ Then he brought me out into the outer court and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court. And in every corner of the court there was a court. ²² In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty wide. ††† These four corners were of one measurement. ²³ There was a row of masonry all around in them, all around the four of them; and it was made with hearths at the bottom of the rows all around. ²⁴ Then he said to me, "These are the boiling places where the ministers of the temple shall boil the sacrifices of the people."

The River Flowing From the Temple

47 Then he brought me back to the door of the temple; and water was flowing out from under the threshold of the temple eastward, for the front of the temple faced east; the water was flowing down from under from the right side of the temple, south of the altar. ² Then he brought me out by way of the north gate, and led me around on the outside to the outer gate that faces east; and the water was coming out on the south side.

³ When the man who had the line in his hand went eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the water; the water reached the ankles. ⁴ Again he measured a thousand and brought me through the water. The water reached the knees. Again he measured a thousand and brought me through the water. The water reached the loins. ⁵ Afterward he measured a thousand. And it was a river that I could not pass over, for the water had risen, enough water to swim in, a river that could not be passed over. ⁶ He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?"

Then he brought me and caused me to return to the brink of the river. ⁷ When I had returned I saw on the bank of the river very many trees on the one side and on the other. ⁸ Then he said to me, "This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the valley, and enters the sea. When it flows into the sea, the water will become fresh. ⁹ Every living creature that swarms, wherever the rivers go, will live. And there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come there and the others become fresh. Thus everything shall live wherever the river comes.

¹⁰ It shall come to pass that the fishermen shall stand upon it. From En Gedi even to En Eglaim there shall be a place to spread out nets. Their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the Mediterranean Sea, exceedingly many. ¹¹ But its miry places and its marshes shall not be healed. They shall be given to salt. ¹² By the river upon its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow all kinds of trees for food, whose leaf shall not fade nor shall its fruit fail. They shall bring forth fruit according to their months, because their water issues out of the sanctuary. And their fruit shall be for food and their leaves for medicine."

The Borders of the Land

¹³ Thus says the Lord GOD: This shall be the border by which you shall divide the land for an inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two portions. ¹⁴ You shall divide it for an inheritance, one as equally as another. For I lifted up My hand to give it to your fathers, and this land shall fall to you for inheritance.

¹⁵ This shall be the border of the land on the north: from the Mediterranean Sea by the way of Hethlon as men go to Zedad, ¹⁶ Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim (which lies between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath), to Hazar Hattikon, which is on the border of Hauran. ¹⁷ The border from the sea shall be Hazar Enan at the border of Damascus, and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

²⁰ The west side also shall be the Mediterranean Sea from the southern border to a point opposite Lebo Hamath. This is the west side.

²¹ So you shall divide this land among you according to the tribes of Israel. ²² It shall come to pass that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance among yourselves and among the aliens who sojourn among you, who shall bear sons among you. And they shall be to you as born in the country among the sons of Israel. They shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. ²³ It shall come to pass that in whatever tribe the alien sojourns, there you shall give him his inheritance, says the Lord GOD.

The Division of the Land

48 Now these are the names of the tribes: From the north end beside the way of Hethlon as one goes to Lebo Hamath, as far as Hazar Enan at the border of Damascus northward beside Hamath going from east to west, Dan, one portion;

² by the border of Dan from the east side to the west side, a portion for Asher;

³ by the border of Asher from the east side even to the west side, a portion for Naphtali;

⁴ by the border of Naphtali from the east side to the west side, a portion for Manasseh;

⁵ by the border of Manasseh from the east side to the west side, a portion for Ephraim;

⁶ by the border of Ephraim from the east side even to the west side, a portion for Reuben;

⁷ by the border of Reuben from the east side to the west side, a portion for Judah;

¹⁰ For them, even for the priests, shall be this holy allotment, toward the north twenty-five thousand cubits in length and toward the west ten thousand in width and toward the east ten thousand in width and toward the south twenty-five thousand cubits in length. And the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in its midst. ¹¹ It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, who have kept My charge, who did not go astray when the sons of Israel went astray as the Levites went astray. ¹² It shall be an allotment to them, a thing most holy, the allotment of the land by the border of the Levites.

¹⁵ The five thousand cubits [‡] in width that remain and the twenty-five thousand in length shall be for common use for the city, for dwellings and for suburbs. And the city shall be in the midst. ¹⁶ These shall be its measurements: the north side four thousand five hundred cubits; ^{‡‡} and the south side four thousand five hundred cubits; and on the east side four thousand five hundred cubits; and the west side four thousand five hundred cubits. ¹⁷ The suburbs of the city shall be: to the north, two hundred and fifty cubits; ^{‡‡} to the south, two hundred and fifty cubits; to the east, two hundred and fifty cubits; and to the west, two hundred and fifty cubits. ¹⁸ The rest in length alongside the holy portion shall be ten thousand cubits eastward and ten thousand westward. And it shall be alongside the holy portion. And its increase shall be for food to those who serve the city. ¹⁹ Those who serve the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it. ²⁰ All the allotment shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand cubits. You shall set apart the holy allotment foursquare, with the property of the city.

²¹ The rest shall belong to the prince, on both sides of the holy allotment and the city property, next to the twenty-five thousand cubits of the allotment toward the eastern border, and westward next to the twenty-five thousand toward the western border, next to the portions for the prince. And the holy allotment and the sanctuary of the temple shall be in its midst. ²² Moreover excluding the property of the Levites and the property of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, everything between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin shall be for the prince.

²³ As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west side, Benjamin shall have one portion.

²⁴ By the border of Benjamin from the east side to the west side, Simeon shall have one portion.

²⁵ By the border of Simeon from the east side to the west side, Issachar shall have one portion.

²⁶ By the border of Issachar from the east side to the west side, Zebulun shall have one portion.

²⁷ By the border of Zebulun from the east side to the west side, Gad shall have one portion.

²⁸ By the border of Gad at the south side southward the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Meribah Kadesh and to the brook of Egypt toward the Mediterranean Sea.

²⁹ This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, says the Lord GOD.

The Gates of the New City

³⁰ These are the exits of the city on the north side, four thousand five hundred cubits by measurement.

³¹ The gates of the city shall be named after the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.

³² At the east side, four thousand five hundred cubits, shall be three gates: one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.

³³ At the south side, four thousand five hundred cubits [†] by measurement, shall be three gates: one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun.

³⁴ At the west side, four thousand five hundred cubits, shall be three gates: one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

³⁵ The circumference shall be eighteen thousand cubits. ^{††}

And the name of the city from that day shall be, The LORD Is There.

[†] About 1 1/2 miles, or 2.4 kilometers. ^{††} About 6 miles, or 9.5 kilometers.

DANIEL

The book of Daniel was likely written between 540 and 530 BC. Jewish tradition attributes the authorship to Daniel. Its theme is the rise and fall of kingdoms. Daniel was taken in his youth with other young men to Babylon in the first deportation under Nebuchadnezzar in 605 BC. Chapters 1–6 are historical narrative as they document events in the lives of Daniel and his friends, and as these men maintain their allegiance to and worship of the God of Israel. More than once God supernaturally rescues them. Daniel excelled in wisdom, and soon found favor among the members of Nebuchadnezzar's court, and subsequently rose to a position of influence and power. Many of Daniel's apocalyptic visions and prophecies, found in chapters 7–12, have to do with judgment and deliverance by a prince and an anointed one, respectively, who serve as precursors to the Messiah. From the interpretation of dreams, to the familiar stories of the handwriting on the wall, the fiery furnace, and the lions' den, the continuing theme is God's sovereignty over human affairs.

Daniel Taken to Babylon

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. 2 The Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god. And he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 The king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his officials that he should bring some of the sons of Israel and some of the king's descendants and some of the nobles, 4 youths in whom was no blemish, who were handsome and skillful in every branch of wisdom and gifted with understanding and discerning knowledge, and such as had ability in them to serve in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the language of the Chaldeans. 5 The king appointed them a daily provision of the king's food and of the wine which he drank. They were to be educated for three years, that at the end of it they might serve before the king.

6 Now among them were of the sons of Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 7 to whom the commander of the officials gave names. And he gave to Daniel the name of Beltshazzar; to Hananiah, Shadrach; to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's food, nor with the wine which he drank. Therefore he requested of the master of the officials that he might not defile himself. 9 Now God had brought Daniel into favor and compassion with the master of the officials. 10 The master of the officials said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king who has appointed your food and your drink. For why should he see your faces worse-looking than the youths who are your age? Then you would endanger my head before the king."

11 Then Daniel said to the steward, whom the master of the officials had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 "Please test your servants for ten days, and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink. 13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before you, and the countenance of the youths who eat of the portion of the king's food. And as you see, deal with your servants." 14 So he consented to them in this matter and tested them for ten days.

15 At the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter than all the youths who ate the portion of the king's food. 16 Thus the guard continued to take away the portion of their food and the wine that they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

17 As for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in every branch of learning and wisdom. And Daniel had understanding in all kinds of visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had set for them to be brought in, the master of the officials brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. 19 The king spoke with them, and, among them all, none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Therefore they served before the king. 20 In all matters of wisdom and understanding which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 Daniel continued even to the first year of King Cyrus.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams, and his spirit was troubled and his sleep left him. 2 Then the king gave the command to call the magicians and the astrologers and the sorcerers and the Chaldeans to tell the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. ³ The king said to them, "I have had a dream, and my spirit is anxious to understand the dream."

⁴ Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic, † "O king, live forever. Tell your servants the dream, and we will tell the interpretation."

⁵ The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The command from me is firm: If you will not make known to me the dream with its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces and your houses shall be made a dunghill. ⁶ But if you tell the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. Therefore tell me the dream and its interpretation."

⁸ The king answered and said, "I know of certainty that you are bargaining for time, because you see that the command from me is firm: ⁹ If you will not make known to me the dream, there is but one decree for you. For you have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me until the circumstance is changed. Therefore tell me the dream so that I know that you can tell me its interpretation."

¹⁰ The Chaldeans answered before the king and said, "There is not a man on the earth who can tell the king's matter, inasmuch as no great king or ruler has ever asked such things of any magician or astrologer or Chaldean. ¹¹ Also, it is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no one else who can tell it before the king, except the gods whose dwelling is not with flesh."

¹⁴ Then Daniel answered with discretion and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁵ He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, "Why is the decree from the king so urgent?" Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. ¹⁶ Then Daniel went in and desired of the king that he would give him time in order that he could tell the king the interpretation.

¹⁷ Then Daniel went to his house and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions, ¹⁸ so that they might ask for compassion from the God of heaven concerning this secret, so that Daniel and his companions might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

God Reveals Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

¹⁹ Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

²⁰ Daniel answered and said:

"Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and might are His.

²¹ It is He who changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and sets up kings; He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who know understanding.

²² He reveals the deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him.

²³ I thank and praise You, O God of my fathers; for You have given me wisdom and might, and have made known to me now what we asked of You, for You have made known to us the king's matter."

Daniel Interprets the Dream

²⁴ Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon. He went and said to him: "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king, and I will tell the king the interpretation."

²⁵ Then in haste Arioch brought Daniel before the king and said thus to him, "I have found a man of the captives of Judah who can make known to the king the interpretation."

²⁶ The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?"

²⁷ Daniel answered in the presence of the king and said, "The secret which the king has demanded, the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, and the soothsayers cannot tell the king. ²⁸ But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets and makes known to King Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream and the visions of your head upon your bed are these:

²⁹ "As for you, O king, your thoughts came into your mind upon your bed about what would come to pass hereafter, and He who reveals secrets makes known to you what shall come to pass. ³⁰ But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living man, but for the purpose of making known the interpretation to the king, and that you might understand the thoughts of your heart.

³¹ "You, O king, were watching, and there was a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before you. And its form was awesome.

³² This image's head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, ³³ its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

³⁴ You watched until a stone was cut out without hands

which struck the image upon its feet, which were of iron and clay, and broke them to pieces. ³⁵ Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors. And the wind carried them away so that not a trace of them was found. But the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶ "This was the dream. Now we will tell its interpretation before the king. ³⁷ You, O king, are the king of kings. For the God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. ³⁸ Wherever the sons of men dwell, or the animals of the field, or the fowl of the heavens, He has given them into your hand and has made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.

³⁹ "After you, another kingdom inferior to you shall arise, and a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over all the earth.

⁴⁰ And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, for iron breaks in pieces and shatters everything; and like iron that crushes, it shall crush and shatter all these.

⁴¹ As you saw the feet and toes, partly of potters' clay and partly of iron, the kingdom shall be divided. But there shall be in it some of the strength of the iron, inasmuch as you saw the iron mixed with miry clay.

⁴² As the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly broken. ⁴³ Whereas you saw iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men, but they shall not cleave to one another, even as iron does not mix with clay.

⁴⁴ "In the days of these kings the God of heaven shall set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed. And the kingdom shall not be left to another people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. ⁴⁵ Inasmuch as you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the great God has made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter. And the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure."

The Promotion of Daniel

⁴⁶ Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face and did homage to Daniel, and commanded that they should present an offering and sweet incense to him.

⁴⁷ The king answered Daniel and said, "Truly your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you could reveal this secret."

⁴⁸ Then the king advanced Daniel and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹ Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon. But Daniel sat at the court of the king.

The Image of Gold

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its width six cubits. [†] He set it up in the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. ² Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the officials, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ³ Then the officials, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up, and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁷ Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

The Fiery Furnace

⁸ Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near and accused the Jews. ⁹ They spoke and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever. ¹⁰ You, O king, have made a decree, that every man who hears the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music should fall down and worship the golden image. ¹¹ And whoever does not fall down and worship should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. ¹² There are certain Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, have not regarded you. They do not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up."

¹³ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. Then they brought these men before the king. ¹⁴ Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden image which I have set up? ¹⁵ Now if you are ready at the time you hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made, very well. But if you do not worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And who is that god who can deliver you out of my hands?"

¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to give you an answer in this matter. ¹⁷ If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king. ¹⁸ But even if He does not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up."

Protection in the Fiery Furnace

¹⁹ Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. ²⁰ He commanded the most mighty men in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and cast them into the burning fiery furnace. ²¹ Then these men were bound in their trousers, their coats, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. ²² Therefore, because the king's commandment was urgent and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. ²³ These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

²⁴ Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spoke, and said to his counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the midst of the fire?"

They answered and said to the king, "True, O king."

²⁵ He answered and said, "But I see four men loose and walking in the midst of the fire, and they are unharmed. And the form of the fourth is like the Son of God!"

Nebuchadnezzar Praises God

²⁶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spoke, and said, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come out and come here!"

Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the midst of the fire. ²⁷ The officials, governors, and captains, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor had the smell of fire even come upon them.

²⁸ Then Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent His angel and delivered His servants who trusted in Him. They have defied the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. ²⁹ Therefore I make a decree that every people, nation, and language which speaks anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill, because there is no other God who can deliver in this way."

³⁰ Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar's Second Dream

4 Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth:

Peace be multiplied to you.

² I thought it good to declare the signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me.

⁴ I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. ⁵ I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. ⁶ Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. ⁷ Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers, and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation.

⁸ But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar according to the name of my god and in whom is the Spirit of the Holy God, and before him I told the dream, saying, ⁹ "Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the Spirit of the Holy God is in you and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. ¹⁰ Now these were the visions of my mind while on my bed: I saw a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height was great. ¹¹ The tree grew and became strong, and its height reached heaven, and it was visible to the end of all the earth. ¹² Its leaves were fair, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all. The animals of the field had shadow under it, and the fowl of the heavens lived in its boughs, and all flesh was fed of it.

¹³ "I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and there was a holy watcher coming down from heaven. ¹⁴ He cried aloud and said thus: 'Hew down the tree and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals get away from under it, and the fowl from its branches. ¹⁵ Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field.

“And let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let its portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth.

¹⁶ Let its heart be changed from that of a man, let him be given the heart of an animal. And let seven periods of time pass over it.

¹⁷ “This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones, in order that the living may know that the Most High rules over the kingdom of men and gives it to whomever He wills and sets up over it the basest of men.’

¹⁸ “This dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, have seen. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell its interpretation to me, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation. But you are able, for the Spirit of the Holy God is in you.”

Daniel Interprets the Dream

Belteshazzar answered and said, “My lord, if only the dream was for those who hate you, and its interpretation for your enemies! ²⁰ The tree that you saw, which grew and became strong, whose height reached to the heavens, and was visible to all the earth, ²¹ and whose leaves were fair, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all, under which the animals of the field lived, and upon whose branches the fowl of the heavens had their habitation: ²² It is you, O king, who have grown and become strong. Your greatness has grown and reaches to heaven, and your dominion to the ends of the earth.

²³ “Whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven and saying, ‘Cut the tree down and destroy it, yet leave the stump of its roots in the ground, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field. And let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let its portion be with the animals of the field until seven periods of time pass over it’—

²⁴ “This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king: ²⁵ You shall be driven away from men, and your dwelling shall be with the wild animals. You shall be given grass to eat like oxen, and wet with the dew of heaven. And seven times shall pass over you, until you have learned that the Most High rules over the kingdom of men and gives it to whomever He chooses. ²⁶ Inasmuch as they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots, your kingdom shall be assured to you after you acknowledge that Heaven rules. ²⁷ Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor, in case there may be a lengthening of your prosperity.”

The Dream Is Fulfilled

²⁸ All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹ At the end of twelve months he walked on the roof of the palace of the kingdom of Babylon. ³⁰ The king spoke, saying, “Is this not Babylon the Great that I myself have built as a royal residence by my mighty power and for the honor of my majesty?”

³³ Immediately the thing was fulfilled concerning Nebuchadnezzar. And he was driven from men and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven until his hairs were grown like eagles’ feathers and his nails like birds’ claws .

Nebuchadnezzar Praises God

³⁴ But at the end of the days, I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored Him who lives forever:

For His dominion is an everlasting dominion, and whose kingdom endures from generation to generation.

³⁵ And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and He does according to His will in the army of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth. And no one can stay His hand or say to Him, “What have You done?”

³⁶ At the same time my reason returned to me. And for the glory of my kingdom, my honor and splendor returned to me. And my counselors and my lords sought me out. Then I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added to me. ³⁷ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, for all His works are true and His ways just, and those who walk in pride He is able to abase.

Belshazzar’s Feast

5 Belshazzar the king made a great feast for a thousand of his lords and drank wine before the thousand. ² While he tasted the wine, Belshazzar commanded that they bring in the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple which was in Jerusalem, so that the king, and his officials, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them. ³ Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem. And the king and his officials, his wives and his concubines drank from them. ⁴They drank wine and praised the gods of gold and of silver, of bronze, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

The Writing on the Wall

⁵Immediately fingers of a man's hand appeared and wrote opposite the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace. And the king saw the back of the hand that wrote. ⁶Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees struck against one another.

⁷The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever shall read this writing and show me its interpretation shall be clothed with scarlet and have a chain of gold about his neck and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

¹⁰Now the queen came into the banquet house because of the words of the king and his nobles. And the queen spoke and said, "O king, live forever. Do not let your thoughts trouble you, or let your countenance be changed. ¹¹There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the Spirit of the Holy God. And, in the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him. And King Nebuchadnezzar, your father, your father the king, made him master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers. ¹²Inasmuch as an excellent spirit and knowledge and understanding, interpreting dreams and explanation of enigmas and solving of problems, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Beltshazzar, now let Daniel be called, and he will give the interpretation."

Daniel Interprets the Writing

¹³Then Daniel was brought in before the king. And the king spoke and said to Daniel, "Are you that Daniel who is one of the sons of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? ¹⁴Now I have heard of you, that the Spirit of God is in you; and that light, and understanding, and excellent wisdom have been found in you. ¹⁵Now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not give the interpretation of the matter. ¹⁶And I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with scarlet and have a chain of gold about your neck and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

¹⁷Then Daniel answered and said before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, or give your rewards to another. Yet I will read the writing to the king and make known to him the interpretation.

¹⁸"O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father a kingdom and majesty and glory and honor. ¹⁹And for the majesty that He gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whom he would, he slaughtered, and whom he would, he kept alive; whom he would, he set up, and whom he would, he put down. ²⁰But when his heart was lifted up and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne and they took his glory from him. ²¹And he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the animals, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was given grass to eat like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that He appoints over it whomever He wills.

²²"Yet you, his son, O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this; ²³but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. And they have brought the vessels of His house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine in them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know. And the God in whose hand is your breath, and whose are all your ways, you have not glorified. ²⁴Then the hand was sent from Him, and this inscription was written.

²⁵"This is the inscription that was written:
MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

²⁶"This is the interpretation of the message:
Mene: † God has numbered your kingdom and put an end to it.

²⁷Tekel: †† you have been weighed in the balances and are found wanting.

²⁸Peres: ‡ your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

²⁹Then Belshazzar gave the command, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰That same night Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans was slain. ³¹Then Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

Daniel and the Lions' Den

6 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom one hundred and twenty officials, so that they would be over the whole kingdom, ² and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was first, so that the officials might give accounts to them and the king not suffer loss. ³ Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and officials because an excellent spirit was in him, and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. ⁴ Then the presidents and officials sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom, but they could find no occasion or fault because he was faithful; nor was there any error or fault found in him. ⁵ Then these men said, "We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God."

⁶ Then these presidents and officials assembled together to the king, and said to him: "King Darius, live forever! ⁷ All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the officials, the counselors, and the captains have consulted together to establish a royal statute and to make a firm decree, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, save of you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions.

⁸ Now, O king, establish the decree and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be altered."

⁹ Therefore King Darius signed the writing, even the decree.

¹⁰ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house. And his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he had been doing previously. ¹¹ Then these men assembled and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

¹² Then they came near and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree: "Have you not signed a decree, that every man who asks a petition of any god or man within thirty days, save of you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?"

The king answered and said, "The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which may not be altered."

¹³ Then they answered and said before the king, "That Daniel, who is of the sons of the captivity of Judah, does not regard you, O king, or the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day." ¹⁴ Then the king, when he heard these words, was sorely displeased with himself and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him. And he labored until sunset to deliver him.

¹⁵ Then these men came by agreement to the king and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is the law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or statute which the king establishes may be changed."

¹⁶ Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, "Your God whom you serve continually, He will deliver you."

Daniel Saved From the Lions

¹⁷ A stone was brought and laid upon the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet and with the signet of his lords so that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. ¹⁸ Then the king went to his palace and passed the night fasting, and no instruments of music were brought before him. And his sleep fled from him.

¹⁹ Then the king arose very early in the morning and went in haste to the den of lions. ²⁰ When he came to the den, he cried with a voice full of sorrow to Daniel. And the king spoke and said to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God whom you serve continually been able to deliver you from the lions?"

²¹ Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live forever! ²² My God has sent His angel and has shut the lions' mouths so that they have not hurt me, because innocence was found in me before Him; and also before you, O king, I have done no harm."

²³ Then the king was exceeding glad for him and commanded that they take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of harm was found on him, because he believed in his God.

²⁴ Then the king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions—they, their children, and their wives. And the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces before they came to the bottom of the den.

²⁵ Then King Darius wrote:

To all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth:

"Peace be multiplied unto you.

²⁶ "I make a decree that in every dominion of my kingdom men are to fear and tremble before the God of Daniel.

"For He is the living God, enduring forever; His kingdom shall never be destroyed, and His dominion shall be forever.

²⁷ He delivers and rescues, and He works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions."

²⁸ So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel's Vision of the Four Beasts

7 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his mind while on his bed. Then he wrote the dream and told the sum of the matters.

² Daniel spoke and said: I saw in my vision by night the four winds of the heaven striving upon the Mediterranean Sea. ³ Four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse from one another.

⁴ The first was like a lion and had eagle's wings. I watched until its wings were plucked and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

⁵ Another beast appeared, a second, like a bear, and it raised itself up on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said to it, "Arise, devour much flesh."

⁶ After this I looked and there was another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a fowl. The beast also had four heads. And dominion was given to it.

⁷ After this I saw in the visions at night a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and exceedingly strong. And it had great iron teeth. It devoured and broke in pieces, and stamped the rest with its feet. And it was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.

⁸ I considered the horns, when there came up among them another little horn before whom three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots. And there, in this horn, were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

The Ancient of Days Reigns

⁹ I watched until the thrones were cast down
and the Ancient of Days was seated,
whose garment was white as snow,
and the hair of His head like the pure wool.
His throne was like the fiery flame,
and its wheels as burning fire.

¹⁰ A fiery stream issued and came out from before Him.
A thousand thousands ministered to Him;
and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him.

The judgment was set,
and the books were opened.

¹¹ Then I watched because of the sound of the boastful words which the horn was speaking. I watched even until the beast was slain, and his body destroyed and given to the burning flame. ¹² As for the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

¹³ I saw in the night visions, and there was one like a Son of Man coming with the clouds of heaven. He came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before Him. ¹⁴ There was given to Him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

The Interpretation of the Dream

¹⁵ I, Daniel, was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. ¹⁶ I approached one of those who were standing by and asked him the truth of all this.

So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of these things. ¹⁷ "These great beasts, which are four, are four kings which shall arise out of the earth. ¹⁸ But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever."

¹⁹ Then I desired to know the truth of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron and its nails of bronze, and which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the rest with its feet; ²⁰ and of the ten horns that were in its head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell, even of that horn that had eyes and a mouth that spoke boastful words, whose look was more stout than its fellows. ²¹ I beheld, and the same horn was warring with the saints and prevailing against them ²² until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was passed in favor of the saints of the Most High, and the time came when the saints possessed the kingdom.

²³ Thus he said: "The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be different from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth and shall tread it down and break it in pieces. ²⁴ The ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise; and another shall rise after them, and he shall be different from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. ²⁵ He shall speak words against the Most High and shall wear out the saints of the Most High and plan to change times and law. And they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time. †

²⁶ "But the court shall sit for judgment, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it forever. ²⁷ Then the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him."

²⁸ At this point the matter ended. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts troubled me much, and my countenance changed in me; but I kept the matter in my heart.

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and a Goat

8 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, even to me Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. ² I saw in the vision, and while I was looking, I was at Susa in the palace which is in the province of Elam. And I saw in the vision that I was by the canal of Ulai. ³ Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and there stood before the river a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high. But one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last. ⁴ I saw the ram pushing westward and northward and southward, so that no animal might stand before him; nor was there any that could deliver out of his hand, but he did according to his will and became great.

† Or a for a year, two years, and half a year.

⁵ As I was considering this, suddenly a male goat came from the west across the face of the whole earth and did not touch the ground. And the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. ⁶ He came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran to him in the fury of his power. ⁷ I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with rage against him, and struck the ram and broke his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground and stamped on him. And there was none who could deliver the ram out of his hand. ⁸ Therefore the male goat grew very great. And when he was strong, the great horn was broken, and four conspicuous horns came up in its place toward the four winds of heaven.

The Little Horn

⁹ Out of one of them came a little horn, which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the Pleasant Land. ¹⁰ It grew great, even to the host of heaven. And it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground and stamped upon them. ¹¹ Indeed, he magnified himself even to the Prince of the host, and from Him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of His sanctuary was cast down. ¹² Because of rebellion, an army was given to the horn to oppose the daily sacrifice; and it cast truth to the ground. It practiced this and prospered.

¹³ Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said to that certain saint which spoke, "How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice and the transgression of desolation, the giving of both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?"

¹⁴ And he said to me, "For two thousand three hundred evenings and mornings. Then the sanctuary shall be cleansed properly."

Gabriel Interprets the Vision

¹⁵ When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought for the meaning. Then there before me stood one who had the appearance of a man. ¹⁶ I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision."

¹⁷ So he came near where I stood. And when he came, I was afraid and fell upon my face; but he said to me, "Understand, son of man, that the vision deals with the time of the end."

¹⁸ Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep with my face toward the ground. But he touched me and set me upright.

¹⁹ He said, "Listen, I will make you know what shall be in the final period of the indignation, for the end shall be at the appointed time.

²⁰ The ram which you saw having two horns represents the kings of Media and Persia.

²¹ The rough goat is the king of Greece, and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

²² Now the broken horn and the four horns that stood up in its place are four kingdoms that shall stand up out of his nation, but not with his power.

²³ "In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have reached their limit, a king will arise, having a fierce countenance, skilled in intrigue.

²⁶ "And the vision of the evenings and the mornings, which was told, is true. Therefore shut up the vision, for it deals with many days in the future."

²⁷ Then I, Daniel, fainted and was sick for some days. Afterward I rose up again and did the king's business. So I was astonished at the vision, but there was none to explain it.

The Prayer of Daniel

⁹ In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus of the lineage of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, ² in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, observed in the books the number of the years which were specified by the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet for the accomplishment of the desolations of Jerusalem, that is, seventy years. ³ I set my face toward the Lord God to seek by prayer and supplications with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.

⁴ And I prayed to the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said,

"Alas, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping His covenant and mercy to those who love Him, and to those who keep His commandments. ⁵ We have sinned and have committed iniquity and have done wickedly and have rebelled, even by departing from Your precepts and from Your judgments. ⁶ We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your name to our kings, our officials, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

⁷ "O Lord, righteousness belongs to You, but to us shame of face, as it is this day, to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to all Israel, who are near and who are far off, through all the countries wherever You have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against You.

⁸ O Lord, to us belongs shame of face, to our kings, to our officials, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against You. ⁹ To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness, though we have rebelled against Him. ¹⁰ We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His laws, which He set before us by His servants the prophets. ¹¹ Indeed, all Israel has transgressed Your law, even by departing that they might not obey Your voice.

“Therefore the curse has been poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the Law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against Him. ¹² He has confirmed His words, which He had spoken against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us great calamity. For under the whole heaven there has not been done such as has been done to Jerusalem. ¹³ As it is written in the Law of Moses, great calamity has come on us. Yet we have not sought the favor of the LORD our God so that we might turn from our iniquities and give attention to Your truth. ¹⁴ Therefore, the LORD has kept the disaster in store and brought it upon us. For the LORD our God is righteous in all His works which He does, but we have not obeyed His voice.

¹⁵ “Now, O Lord our God, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and made Yourself a name, even to this day, we have sinned, we have done wickedly. ¹⁶ O Lord, according to all Your righteousness, I beseech You, let Your anger and Your fury be turned away from Your city Jerusalem, Your holy mountain, because for our sins and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become a reproach to all who are around us.

¹⁷ “Now therefore, O God, hear the prayer of Your servant and his supplications, and for Your sake, O Lord, cause Your face to shine upon Your sanctuary, which is desolate. ¹⁸ O my God, incline Your ear and hear. Open Your eyes and look at our desolations and the city which is called by Your name, for we do not present our supplications before You for our righteousness, but for Your great mercies. ¹⁹ O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and act! Do not defer, for Your own sake, O my God. For Your city and Your people are called by Your name.”

The Seventy Weeks

²⁰ While I was speaking and praying and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God, ²¹ indeed, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. ²² He informed me and talked with me, and said, “Daniel, I have now come to give you insight and understanding. ²³ At the beginning of your supplications the command went out, and I have come to tell you, for you are greatly beloved. Therefore understand the matter and consider the vision:

²⁵ “Know therefore and understand that from the going forth of the command to restore and to rebuild Jerusalem until the Prince Messiah shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks. It shall be built again, with plaza and moat, even in times of trouble. ²⁶ After the sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off and shall have nothing. And the troops of the prince who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end of it shall come with a flood. And until the end of the war desolations are determined. ²⁷ And he shall make a firm covenant with many for one week. But in the middle of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease. And on the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate, until the decreed destruction is poured out on the desolator.”

Daniel's Vision of a Man

10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar, and the message was true and one of great conflict. And he understood the message and had understanding of the vision.

² In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three full weeks. ³ I ate no tasty food, no meat or wine entered my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all until three whole weeks were fulfilled.

⁴ On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river which is Tigris, ⁵ I lifted up my eyes and looked and saw a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with the fine gold of Uphaz. ⁶ His body also was like beryl, and his face had the appearance of lightning, and his eyes were like lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet were like the gleam of polished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a tumult.

⁷ I, Daniel, alone saw the vision, while the men who were with me did not see the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves. ⁸ Therefore I was left alone and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me, and my countenance grew deathly pale, and I retained no strength. ⁹ Yet I heard the sound of his words; and while I heard the sound of his words, then I was in a deep sleep on my face with my face toward the ground.

Prophecies of Persia and Greece

¹⁰ But then a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. ¹¹ He said to me, “O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have been sent to you now.” And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling.

¹² Then he said to me, “Do not be afraid, Daniel. For from the first day that you set your heart to understand this and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come because of your words. ¹³ But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me for twenty-one days. So Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴ Now I have come to make you understand what shall befall your people in the latter days. For the vision is yet for many days."

¹⁵ When he had spoken such words to me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became mute. ¹⁶ Then one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who stood before me, "O my lord, because of the vision, sorrows have come upon me, and I have retained no strength. ¹⁷ How can the servant of my lord talk with you, my lord? And as for me, there remains no strength in me now, nor is there any breath left in me."

¹⁸ Then again, the one having the appearance of a man came and touched me, and he strengthened me. ¹⁹ He said, "O man, greatly beloved, do not fear. Peace be unto you. Be strong and courageous!"

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

²⁰ Then he said, "Do you understand why I have come to you? But now I shall return to fight against the prince of Persia, and when I have gone forth, then truly the prince of Greece will come. ²¹ But I will show you what is inscribed in the Scripture of Truth. Yet there is no one who stands firmly with me against these forces, except Michael your prince.

The Kings of the South and the North

11 "Also, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

² "And now I will tell you the truth. Truly, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia, and the fourth shall be far richer than all of them; and by his strength, through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece. ³ A mighty king shall stand up who shall rule with great dominion and do according to his will. ⁴ When he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled. For his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides them.

⁵ "The king of the South shall be strong, as well as one of his officials who shall be strong above him and have dominion. His dominion shall be a great dominion. ⁶ In the end of some years they shall join themselves together. For the king's daughter of the South shall come to the king of the North to make an agreement. But she shall not retain her position of power, and neither he nor his power shall stand. But she shall be given up with those who brought her and with him who fathered her and with him who strengthened her in those times.

⁷ "But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his place, who shall come with an army and shall enter the fortress of the king of the North and shall

deal against them and shall prevail. ⁸ And he shall also carry captive into Egypt their gods, with their officials, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold. And he shall continue more years than the king of the North, ⁹ who will enter the kingdom of the king of the South, but shall return to his own land. ¹⁰ His sons shall wage war and assemble a multitude of armed forces. One shall advance like a flood and pass through, and again shall wage the war as far as his fortress.

¹² When he has taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands, but he shall not be strengthened by it.

¹³ For the king of the North shall return and shall raise a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much equipment.

¹⁴ "In those times many shall stand up against the king of the South. Also the robbers of your people shall exalt themselves to fulfill the vision, but they shall fall. ¹⁵ Then the king of the North shall come and set up a siege mound and capture a fortified city. And the forces of the South shall not withstand him; neither shall his chosen best troops have strength to resist. ¹⁶ But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him. And he shall stand in the Pleasant Land, which shall be consumed by his hand. ¹⁷ He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, bringing with him a proposal of peace which he shall put into effect. And he shall give him the daughter of women to corrupt it. But she shall not stand on his side or be for him. ¹⁸ After this he shall turn his face to the coastlands and shall capture many. But a commander shall put a stop to his reproach against him, and he shall repay him for his reproach. ¹⁹ Then he shall turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land, but shall stumble and fall and not be found any more.

²¹ "In his place a vile person shall stand up, to whom they shall not give the honor of the kingdom. But he shall come in peaceably and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. ²² A flood of armies shall be swept away before him and be broken, and the prince of the covenant as well. ²³ After the league is made with him, he shall work deceitfully, and he shall come up and shall become strong with a small force of people. ²⁴ He shall enter peaceably even upon the richest places of the realm. And he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers. He shall distribute among them the plunder and spoil and riches. And he shall plan his devices against the strongholds, but only for a time.

²⁵ He shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the South with a great army. And the king of the South shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army. But he shall not stand, for schemes shall be devised against him. ²⁶ Indeed, those who eat his choice food shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow, and many shall fall down slain. ²⁷ As for both of these kings, their hearts shall plan on mischief, and they shall speak lies to one another at one table. But it shall not prosper, for the end shall yet be at the appointed time. ²⁸ While turning back to his land with great wealth, his heart shall be against the holy covenant. He shall wage war and turn back to his own land.

Blasphemies of the Northern King

²⁹ At the appointed time he shall return and come into the south, but this latter time shall not be as the former. ³⁰ For the ships of Kittim shall come against him. Therefore he shall be grieved and return and have indignation against the holy covenant and take action. He shall even return and show regard to those who forsake the holy covenant.

³⁶ The king shall do according to his will. And he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak blasphemous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper until the indignation is accomplished. For that which is determined shall be done. ³⁷ He shall regard neither the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall magnify himself above them all. ³⁸ But instead he shall honor the god of forces, a god whom his fathers did not know. He shall honor him with gold and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. ³⁹ Thus he shall do in the strongest of fortresses with a foreign god. He shall give great honor to those who acknowledge him, and shall cause them to rule over the many and shall divide the land for gain.

Conquests of the Northern King

⁴⁰ At the time of the end the king of the South shall push at him. But the king of the North shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots and with horsemen and with many ships. And he shall enter the countries and shall overflow them and pass over. ⁴¹ He shall enter also the Pleasant Land, and many countries shall be overthrown. But these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon. ⁴² Then he shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. ⁴³ But he shall have power over the hidden treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt. And the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps. ⁴⁴ But reports from the east and from the north shall trouble him. Therefore he shall go out with great fury to destroy and annihilate many. ⁴⁵ He shall pitch the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, and no one shall help him.

The Prophecy of the End Times

12 "And at that time Michael shall stand up, the great prince who stands guard over the sons of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation even to that time. And at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the book. ² Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, but others to shame and everlasting contempt. ³ Those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the expanse of heaven, and those who turn the many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever. ⁴ But you, Daniel, shut up the words and seal the book until the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase."

⁵ Then I, Daniel, looked, and there before me stood two others, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. ⁶ One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the water of the river, "How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?"

⁸ As for me, I heard, but I could not understand. So I said, "My lord, what shall be the result of these things?"

⁹ And he said, "Go your way, Daniel. For these words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end.

¹⁰ Many shall be purified and made white and tried.

[†] Or a year, two years, and half a year.

But the wicked shall do wickedly, and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.

¹¹ "From the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred and ninety days. ¹² Blessed is he who waits and comes to the one thousand three hundred and thirty-five days.

¹³ "But as for you, go your way until the end. Then you shall rest and rise again for your lot at the end of the age."

HOSEA

Hosea was likely written between 755 and 725 BC. This book has the themes of redeeming love in chapters 1–3 and the judgment and restoration of God’s land and people in chapters 4–14. Hosea was probably the author and the last to prophesy before the northern kingdom fell to Assyria in about 722 BC. His ministry followed a golden age in the northern kingdom, with a peace and prosperity not seen since the days of Solomon. However, with this prosperity came moral decay, and Israel forsook their God to worship idols. In a unique action illustrating how He suffers when His people are unfaithful to Him, God instructs the prophet Hosea to marry a harlot. Her unfaithfulness to her husband is an allegory of Israel’s unfaithfulness to God. This book reveals the depth of God’s love for His people, a love that tolerates no rivals.

1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

Hosea’s Wife and Children

²When the LORD first spoke by Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea: “Go, take for yourself a wife of harlotry and children of harlotry, for the land has committed great harlotry, departing from the LORD.” ³So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim as a wife. She conceived, and bore him a son.

⁴The LORD said to him: “Call his name Jezreel, † for in a little while, I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and will bring to an end the kingdom of the house of Israel. ⁵On that day, I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel.”

⁶Then Gomer conceived again, and bore a daughter. And the LORD said to Hosea: “Call her name Lo-Ruhamah, †† for I will no longer have mercy upon the house of Israel but will utterly sweep them away. ⁷But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, or by sword, or by battle, or by horses, or by horsemen.”

⁸When Gomer had weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son. ⁹Then the LORD said: “Call his name Lo-Ammi, ‡ for you are not My people, and I am not your God.”

¹⁰Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered. And in the place where it was said to them, “You are not My people,” there it will be said to them, “You are the children of the living God.” ¹¹Then will the Judahites and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they will come up out of the land, for great will be the day of Jezreel.

† That is, a May God make fertile. †† That is, a Not pitied. ‡ That is, a Not My people.

2 Say to your brothers, Ammi, †† and to your sisters, Ruhamah. ‡

Israel’s Unfaithfulness Punished

²Plead with your mother, plead—
for she is not My wife, and am I not her husband—
that she put away her harlotry from her face,
and her adultery from between her breasts, ³lest I strip her naked
and leave her as in the day that she was born,
and turn her into a wilderness,
and turn her into a dry land,
and kill her with thirst.
⁴I will not have mercy upon her children,
for they are children of harlotry.
⁵For their mother has played the whore.
She that conceived them has acted shamefully.
For she said, “I will pursue my lovers,
who provide my bread and my water,
my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.”
⁶Therefore, behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns,
and make a wall, so that she will not find her paths.
⁷She will pursue her lovers, but she will not reach
them;
and she will seek them but will not find them.
Then she will say,
“I will go and return to my first husband,
for it was better for me then than now.”
⁸But she did not know that it was I who provided her
the grain, the wine, and the oil, and multiplied her silver and gold
that they used for Baal.
⁹Therefore I will take back My grain in its time
and My wine in its season,
and I will recover My wool and My flax,
given to cover her nakedness.
¹⁰Therefore I will uncover her shame

†† That is, a My people. ‡‡ That is, a Pitied.

in the sight of her lovers,
and no one will deliver her from My hand.
11 I will also bring to an end all her joy,
her annual feasts, her New Moons,
and her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.
12 I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, of which she has said, "These are my rewards that my lovers have given me."
I will make them a forest,
and the beasts of the field will eat them.
13 I will punish her for the days of the Baals,
when she burned incense to them
and adorned herself with her earrings and her jewelry,
and pursued her lovers,
but forgot Me,
declares the LORD .

God's Mercy on Israel

14 Therefore, I will allure her,
and bring her into the wilderness,
and speak tenderly to her.
15 From there, I will give her vineyards to her,
and the Valley of Achor as a door of hope.
She will respond there as in the days of her youth,
and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.
16 On that day, declares the LORD ,
you will call Me, "My husband,"
and will no longer call Me, "My Baal." † 17 I will remove the names of the Baals from her
mouth,
and they will no longer be remembered by their
name.
18 On that day, I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, with the fowls of heaven,
and with the creeping things of the ground.
I will break the bow and the sword and the battle
from the earth,
and will make them to lie down safely.
19 I will take you for My wife forever.
I will take you for My wife in righteousness and in justice,
in mercy and in compassion.
20 I will take you for My wife in faithfulness, and you will know the LORD .
21 On that day I will answer,
declares the LORD ;
I will answer the heavens,
and they will answer the earth.
22 The earth will answer the grain,
the wine, and the oil;
and they will answer Jezreel.
23 Then I will sow her for Myself in the earth.
I will have mercy upon Lo-Ruhamah, and I will say to Lo-Ammi, "You are My people,"

† Or a My master.

and they will say, "You are my God."

Hosea Redeems His Wife

3 Then the LORD said to me, "Go, again, love a woman who is loved by a lover and is committing adultery, just as the LORD loves the children of Israel, who look to other gods and love raisin cakes."

2 So I purchased her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver, and for a homer of barley, and a half homer of barley. 3 Then I said to her, "You will remain with me many days. You will not play the whore, and you will not belong to another man. And also I will be with you."

4 For the children of Israel will remain many days without a king and without a prince, without a sacrifice and without a standing stone, and without an ephod and teraphim. 5 Afterward the children of Israel will return and seek the LORD their God and David their king. They will come in fear to the LORD and to His goodness in the latter days.

God Accuses Israel

4 Hear the word of the LORD , O children of Israel, for the LORD has a dispute with the inhabitants of the land:
There is no truth or mercy,
and no knowledge of God in the land.
2 Swearing, lying, and killing,
and stealing and adultery
break out,
and bloodshed follows bloodshed.
3 Therefore the land dries up,
and everyone who lives in it withers
with the beasts of the field
and the birds of the sky;
even the fish of the sea disappear.
4 Yet let no one contend,
and let none reprove another,
for your people are like those that contend with a priest. †† 5 You will stumble in the day, and the prophet also will stumble with you in the
night,
and I will destroy your mother.
6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have rejected knowledge,
I will reject you from being My priest.
And because you have forgotten the law of your God,
I will also forget your children.
7 As they increased, so they sinned against Me.
I will change ‡ their glory †† into shame.
8 They feed upon the sin of My people,
and they are greedy for their iniquity.
9 It will be like people, like priest.
I will punish them for their ways

†† Meaning of Heb. uncertain. ‡ MT; Ancient Heb. tradition a and reward them for their deeds.

¹⁰ They will eat, but not be satisfied;
 they will play the whore, but not multiply,
 because they have forsaken the LORD
 by devoting themselves to ¹¹ harlotry;
 wine and new wine
 take away understanding.

The Idolatry of Israel

¹² My people seek counsel from their wood,
 and their staff informs them.
 For the spirit of harlotry has led them astray,
 and they have played the whore in defiance of their God.

¹³ They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills
 under oak, poplar, and elm
 because their shade is good.
 Therefore your daughters play the whore,
 and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.
¹⁴ I will not punish your daughters
 when they play the whore,
 nor your daughters-in-law
 when they commit adultery.
 For the men separate themselves with whores,
 and they sacrifice with cult prostitutes.
 A people without understanding will come to ruin.
¹⁵ Though you play the whore, O Israel,
 do not let Judah offend.
 Do not come to Gilgal,
 or go up to Beth Aven,
 and do not swear, "As the LORD lives."
¹⁶ Like a stubborn heifer,
 Israel is stubborn.
 Now will the LORD feed them
 like a lamb in a wide pasture?
¹⁷ Ephraim is joined to idols;
 let him alone.
¹⁸ Their drink has soured,
 they have played the whore continually.
 Her rulers dearly love shame.
¹⁹ A wind has wrapped her in its wings,
 and they will be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

Judgment Against Israel and Judah

5 Hear this, O priests!
 Pay attention, O house of Israel!
 Listen, O house of the king!
 For the judgment is for you,
 because you have been a snare at Mizpah
 and a net spread over Tabor, ² and a pit dug deep in Shittim;
 but I will discipline them all.
³ I know Ephraim,
 and Israel is not hidden from Me;
 for now, O Ephraim, you have played the whore.
 Israel is defiled.

⁴ Their deeds do not allow them
 to return to their God;
 for a spirit of harlotry is in their midst,
 and they do not know the LORD.
⁵ The pride of Israel testifies against him.
 Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity.
 Judah also stumbles with them.
⁶ With their flocks and their herds they will go to seek the LORD,
 but they will not find Him.
 He has withdrawn from them.
⁷ They have dealt faithlessly with the LORD,
 for they have given birth to illegitimate children.
 Now the New Moon will devour them along with their portion.

War, Wrath, and Repentance

⁸ Blow the horn in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah.
 Cry aloud at Beth Aven,
 " Look behind you, O Benjamin!" † ⁹ Ephraim will become desolate
 in the day of punishment.
 Among the tribes of Israel
 I make known that which is sure.
¹⁰ The princes of Judah have become like those who remove a boundary marker.
 Upon them I will pour out
 My wrath like water.
¹¹ Ephraim is oppressed
 and broken in judgment,
 because he eagerly followed after vanity.
¹² Therefore I will be like pus to Ephraim and like rotteness to the house of Judah.
¹³ When Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah saw his wound,
 then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to King Jareb. †† Yet he cannot cure you
 or heal your wound.
¹⁴ For I will be like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
 I, Myself, will tear and go away.
 I will carry off, and no one will rescue.
¹⁵ I will again return to My place until they acknowledge their offense and seek My face.
 In their affliction they will earnestly seek Me.

A Call to Repentance

6 Come, let us return to the LORD,
 for He has torn,
 and He will heal us.
 He has struck,
 and He will bind us up.
² After two days He will revive us.

† Or a "After you, O Benjamin!" †† Or a the great king.

On the third day He will raise us up,
that we may live before Him.

³ Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD.
His appearance is as sure as the dawn.
He will come to us like the rain;
like the spring rains He will water the earth.

Impenitence of Israel and Judah

⁴ What shall I do to you, O Ephraim?
What shall I do to you, O Judah?
Your faithfulness is like a morning cloud,
and like the early dew it goes away.
⁵ Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets.
I have killed them by the words of My mouth,
and My [†] judgments go forth like light.
⁶ For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice,
and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

⁷ But like men ^{††} they have transgressed the covenant.
There they dealt faithlessly with Me.

⁸ Gilead is a city of evildoers, polluted with blood.

⁹ As robbers lie in wait for someone,
so a company of priests
murder on the way to Shechem.
They commit a shameful deed.

¹⁰ I have seen a horrible thing
in the house of Israel.
The harlotry of Ephraim is there;
Israel is defiled.

¹¹ Also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed for you,
when I restore the fortunes of My people.

7 When I would heal Israel,
the iniquity of Ephraim is revealed,
and the wickedness of Samaria.
For they deal deceitfully;
the thief breaks in;
the robbers raid outside,
² but they did not consider in their hearts
that I remember all their wickedness.
Now their own deeds surround them;
they are before My face.

Corrupt and Disloyal Politics

³ They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.
⁴ They are all adulterers,
like an oven heated by a baker,
who ceases stirring the fire
after kneading the dough until it is leavened.
⁵ On the day of our king the princes made him sick
from the heat of wine.
He stretched out his hand with scorners.
⁶ For they are kindled [‡] like an oven.
Their heart burns within them; ^{‡†}

their anger smolders [‡] all night;
in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

⁷ They are all hot as an oven,
and they devour their judges.

All their kings have fallen,
and none of them calls to Me.

⁸ Ephraim mixes himself with the people.
Ephraim is a cake not turned.

⁹ Foreigners devour his strength,
but he does not know it.

Gray hairs are here and there upon him,
but he does not know it.

¹⁰ The pride of Israel testifies against him,
but they do not return to the LORD their God,
nor seek Him for all this.

¹¹ Ephraim is like a dove,
silly and without sense;

they call to Egypt,
they go to Assyria.

¹² Wherever they go, I will spread My net over them;
I will bring them down like the birds of the sky;

I will discipline them according to the report to their congregation.

¹³ Woe to them,
for they have fled from Me!

Destruction to them,
for they have rebelled against Me!

Though I would redeem them,
yet they speak lies against Me.

¹⁴ They do not cry to Me with their heart
when they howl on their beds.

They gather together for grain and wine,
they rebel against Me.

¹⁵ Though I trained and strengthened their arms,
yet they devise mischief against Me.

¹⁶ They return, but not to the Most High.
They are like a loose bow.

Their princes will fall by the sword
for the rage of their tongue.

This will be their derision
in the land of Egypt.

The Apostasy of Israel

8 Set the trumpet to your mouth!
One like an eagle is on the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed My covenant
and rebelled against My law.

² Israel cries to Me,
"My God, we know You."

³ Israel has cast off the good;
the enemy will pursue him.

⁴ They set up kings, but not through Me;
they made princes, but I did not know it.

With their silver and gold,
they made idols,
so that they will be cut off.

⁵ Your calf, O Samaria, is rejected!

[†] Gk. Syr.: Heb. a Your. ^{††} Or a like/at Adam. [‡] Gk. Syr.:
Heb. a brought near. ^{‡†} Or a while they lie in wait.

^{‡†} Or a Their baker sleeps.

My anger is kindled against them.
 How long will they be incapable of innocence?
⁶ For it is from Israel;
 a craftsman made it,
 and it is not God!
 The calf of Samaria
 will be broken to pieces.
⁷ For they sow the wind,
 and they will reap the whirlwind.
 The standing grain has no head
 and will yield no flour.
 If it were to yield,
 foreigners would swallow it up.
⁸ Israel is swallowed up.
 Now they are among the nations
 as a vessel in which there is no pleasure.
⁹ For they have gone up to Assyria
like a wild donkey alone by itself;
 Ephraim has hired lovers.
¹⁰ Though they hire among the nations,
 I will now gather them.
 They will begin to diminish due to the burden of the king of princes.
¹¹ Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sin,
 they have become to him altars for sinning.
¹² I have written for him the great things of My law,
 but they were regarded as a strange thing.
¹³ For the sacrifices of My offerings,
 they sacrifice flesh and eat it;
 but the LORD does not accept them.
 Now He will remember their iniquity
 and punish their sins.
 They will return to Egypt.
¹⁴ Israel has forgotten his Maker
 and built temples,
 and Judah has multiplied fortified cities;
 so I will send a fire upon his cities,
 and it will devour his palaces.

The Punishment of Israel

9 Do not rejoice, O Israel!
 Do not exult † like the peoples,
 for you have played the whore departing from your God.
 You have loved a prostitute's wages
 on every threshing floor.
² The threshing floor and the winepress will not feed
 them,
 and the new wine will fail in her.
³ They will not dwell in the land of the LORD ;
 but Ephraim will return to Egypt,
 and they will eat unclean things in Assyria.
⁴ They will not offer wine offerings to the LORD ,
 and their sacrifices will not please Him.
 Their sacrifices will be like the bread of mourners;
 all who eat of it will be defiled.

For their bread will be only to satisfy their own hunger;
 it will not come into the house of the LORD .
⁵ What will you do on the appointed day,
 and on the day of the festival of the LORD ?
⁶ For indeed they are gone because of destruction.
 Egypt will gather them,
 and Memphis will bury them.
 Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver,
 and thorns will be in their tents.
⁷ The days of punishment have come;
 the days of recompense have come.
 Israel knows!
 The prophet is a fool;
 the man of the spirit is insane,
 because of your great iniquity and great hatred.
⁸ The watchman of Ephraim is a prophet
 for my God;
 yet a fowler's snare is on all his ways,
 and hatred in the house of his God.
⁹ They have deeply corrupted themselves
 as in the days of Gibeah.
 He will remember their iniquity,
 He will punish their sins.
¹⁰ Like grapes in the wilderness,
 I found Israel.
 Like the first fruit on the fig tree in its first season,
 I saw your fathers.
 But they went to Baal Peor
 and consecrated themselves to a thing of shame, and they became an abomination like the thing they loved.
¹¹ As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird:
 no birth, no pregnancy, no conception!
¹² Though they bring up their children,
 I will bereave them until none are left.
 Woe to them indeed,
 when I depart from them!
¹³ Just as I saw Ephraim like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place,
 so now Ephraim will bring out his children for slaughter.
¹⁴ Give them, O LORD — what will You give?
 Give them a miscarrying womb
 and dry breasts.
¹⁵ All their wickedness is in Gilgal,
 for there I hated them.
 Because of the wickedness of their deeds,
 I will drive them out of My house.
 I will love them no more.
 All their princes are rebels.
¹⁶ Ephraim is stricken,
 their root is dried up,
 they shall bear no fruit.
 Even though they give birth,
 I will slay the beloved offspring of their womb.
¹⁷ My God will reject them

† Gk.; Heb. a to exultation.

because they did not listen to Him,
and they will be wanderers among the nations.

Israel's Sin and Captivity

10 Israel is a fertile vine
that brings forth its fruit.
As his fruit multiplied,
so his altars increased;
as his land prospered,
so he [†] improved his pillars.
² Their heart is divided;
now they must bear their guilt.
He will break down their altars
and destroy their pillars.
³ For now they will say,
"We have no king,
because we do not fear the LORD;
and a king, what could he do for us?"
⁴ They speak mere words, swearing falsely
in making a covenant.
Thus judgment springs up like a poisonous plant
in the furrows of the field.
⁵ The inhabitants of Samaria fear
because of the calf of Beth Aven.
For its people mourn for it,
and its priests shriek for it,
because its glory has departed from it.
⁶ It will be carried to Assyria as a tribute to King Jareb. ^{††} Ephraim shall be put to shame,
and Israel shall be ashamed of his idol. [‡] ⁷ As for Samaria, her king will perish like a twig on the water.
⁸ The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel,
will be destroyed.
Thorn and thistle will grow
on their altars.
They will say to the mountains, Cover us,
and to the hills, Fall on us.
⁹ O Israel, you have sinned since the days of Gibeah.
There they have continued. ^{‡†}
Will not the war in Gibeah against evildoers overtake them?
¹⁰ When I desire, I will punish them.
The nations will be gathered against them when they are disciplined ^{‡†} for their two transgressions.
¹¹ Ephraim is a trained heifer
that loves to thresh grain,
but I harnessed her fair neck;
I will make Ephraim pull a plow.
Judah will plow;
Jacob shall furrow for himself.
¹² Sow to yourselves righteousness,
reap mercy,

[†] Heb. a they. ^{††} Or a the great king. [‡] Or a counsel. ^{‡†} Or Ta here they stood. ^{‡‡} Gk.; Heb. a bound.

break up your fallow ground;
for it is time to seek the LORD,
until He comes
and rains righteousness upon you.
¹³ You have plowed wickedness.
You have reaped iniquity,
and you have eaten the fruit of lies.
Because you have trusted in your power
and in the numbers of your warriors, ¹⁴ therefore a tumult will arise among your people,
and all your fortresses will be destroyed
as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battle;
mothers were dashed to pieces upon their children.
¹⁵ So will it be done to you, O Bethel,
because of your great wickedness.
At dawn
the king of Israel will be utterly cut off.

God's Love for Israel

11 When Israel was a child, I loved him,
and out of Egypt I called My son.
² As I ^{‡‡†} called them, so they went from Me. ^{‡‡†}
They sacrificed to the Baals
and burned incense to idols.
³ I taught Ephraim to walk,
taking them up in My [§] arms,
but they did not know that I healed them.
⁴ I drew them with cords of human kindness, ^{§†}
with bands of love.
I was to them as those who ease the yoke on their neck, ^{§††}
and I bent down and fed them.
⁵ He will return ^{§‡} to the land of Egypt,
and Assyria will be his king,
because they refused to return to Me.
⁶ The sword slashes in their cities,
consumes their oracle-priests,
and devours because of their own counsels.
⁷ My people are bent on backsliding from Me.
Though they called to the Most High,
none at all exalt Him.
⁸ How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I hand you over, Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I treat you like Zeboiyim?
My heart churns within Me;
My compassion is stirred.
⁹ I will not execute the fierceness of My anger;
I will not again destroy Ephraim.
For I am God, and not man,
the Holy One in your midst,
and I will not come in wrath.
¹⁰ They will walk after the LORD,

^{‡‡†} Gk.; Heb. a they. ^{‡‡‡} Gk.; Heb. a them. [§] Gk. Syr. Vulg.; Heb. a his. ^{§†} Heb. a cords of a man. ^{§††} Or a jaws. ^{§‡} So LXX. Heb. a He not will return.

who roars like a lion.
 When He roars,
 His children will come trembling from the west.
¹¹ They will come trembling
 like a bird out of Egypt and like a dove from the land of Assyria.
 And I will let them dwell in their houses,
 says the LORD.

God's Charge Against Ephraim

¹² Ephraim has surrounded Me with lies,
 and the house of Israel with deceit.
 But Judah still walks with God, and is faithful to the Holy One. † ¹² Ephraim feeds on the wind and chases after the east wind all day long.
 He multiplies lies and devastation.
 They make a covenant with Assyria,
 and oil is carried to Egypt.

A History of Rebellion

² The LORD has a dispute with Judah,
 and will punish Jacob according to his ways,
 and repay him according to his doings.
³ In the womb, he took his brother by the heel,
 and by his strength he strove with God.
⁴ He struggled with the angel, and prevailed;
 he wept, and sought favor from Him.
 He found Him in Bethel,
 and there He spoke with us.
⁵ As for the LORD the God of Hosts,
 the LORD is the name by which He is invoked!
⁶ But as for you, return to your God,
 hold fast to mercy and justice,
 and wait on your God continually.
⁷ A merchant, in whose hands are deceitful balances,
 he loves to oppress.
⁸ Ephraim said,
 "Yet I am rich, I have found wealth for myself.
 In all my labors, they shall find no offense in me that would be sin."
⁹ I am the LORD your God
 from the land of Egypt.
 I will again make you to dwell in tents,
 as in the days of the appointed feast.
¹⁰ I have spoken by the prophets,
 and I have multiplied visions,
 and through the prophets I will bring destruction. †† ¹¹ In Gilead there is iniquity;
 surely they will come to nothing.
 In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls,
 so their altars will be like stone heaps
 in the furrows of the fields.
¹² Jacob fled to the land of Aram,
 and Israel served for a wife,
 and for a wife he kept sheep.

¹³ By a prophet the LORD brought Israel up from Egypt,
 and by a prophet he was preserved.
¹⁴ Ephraim provoked Him to anger most bitterly,
 so his Lord shall leave his bloodguilt on him
 and repay him for his reproach.

God's Unrelenting Judgment on Israel

¹³ When Ephraim spoke, trembling,
 he was exalted in Israel.
 But he incurred guilt through Baal worship and he died.
² And now they continue sinning
 and have made a cast image for themselves,
 idols of their silver, according to their understanding;
 all of them the work of craftsmen.
 They say of them,
 "Those who sacrifice ‡
 are kissing calves!"
³ Therefore they will be like the morning cloud,
 or like the early dew that passes away,
 like chaff blown off the threshing floor,
 or like the smoke from a chimney.
⁴ Yet I am the LORD your God
 ever since the land of Egypt.
 You know no God but Me,
 and there is no savior besides Me.
⁵ I knew †† you in the wilderness,
 in the land of great drought.
⁶ When they had pasture, they were satisfied.
 They were satisfied, and their heart was exalted;
 therefore they forgot Me.
⁷ So I will be like a lion to them,
 like a leopard I will lurk by the path.
⁸ I will attack them like a bear bereaved of her cubs,
 and will tear open their rib cage.
 There I will devour them like a lion,
 as the wild beast would tear them to pieces.
⁹ O Israel, you are destroyed, ††
 but in Me is your help.
¹⁰ Where now is your king
 that he may save you in all your cities?
 And where are your judges of whom you said,
 "Give me a king and princes?"
¹¹ I gave you a king in My anger,
 and took him away in My wrath.
¹² The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up;
 his sin is stored up.
¹³ The pains of childbirth come for him.
 He is an unwise son,
 for he does not present himself
 at the opening of the womb.
¹⁴ I will ransom them from the power of Sheol.
 I will redeem them from Death.
 O Death, where are your plagues?
 O Sheol, where is your sting?

† Or a holy ones. †† Or a speak in parables.

‡ Or a those who offer human sacrifice. †† Or a fed. ††
 Heb. a he has destroyed you.

Compassion is hidden from My eyes.

¹⁵ Though he be fruitful among his brothers,
the east wind will come, a wind of the LORD,
rising from the wilderness.

And his spring shall become dry,
his fountain shall be dried up.

It shall plunder his treasury
of every desirable thing.

¹⁶ Samaria will be held guilty,
for she has rebelled against her God.

They will fall by the sword,
their infants will be dashed to pieces,
and their pregnant women will be ripped open.

A Plea for Repentance

14 Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God,
for you have stumbled because of your iniquity.

² Take words with you
and return to the LORD.

Say to Him,

"Take away all iniquity,
and accept that which is good;
and we will offer the fruit [†] of our lips!

³ Assyria will not save us,
we will not ride on horses.

We will no longer say, 'Our God,'
to the work of our hands.

In You the orphan finds mercy."

⁴ I will heal their backsliding;

I will love them freely,

for My anger has turned away from him.

⁵ I will be like the dew to Israel;

he shall grow like the lily

and shall strike his roots

like Lebanon.

⁶ His branches will spread out,

and his beauty shall be like the olive tree,

and his fragrance like that of Lebanon.

⁷ Those that dwell under his shadow will return,

they will flourish like the grain

and grow as a vine.

Their fragrance will be like the wine of Lebanon.

⁸ O Ephraim, what have I to do with idols?

It is I who answer and look after him.

I am like a green fir tree;

your fruit is found in Me.

⁹ Whoever is wise, let him understand these things;

whoever prudent, let him know them.

For the ways of the LORD are right,

and the just will walk in them;

but the transgressors stumble in them.

† Gk. Syr.; Heb. a bulls.

JOEL

This book was likely written between 835 and 800 BC. The prophet Joel is the author. It is difficult to date because no Israelite or Judean king or foreign nation is mentioned in it. The dominant theme is the Day of the Lord. Little is known about Joel, but his concern for Judah and Jerusalem suggests that he ministered in Judah. The book opens with the nation under a plague of locusts that has destroyed everything in its path and left the inhabitants destitute. Joel prophesies deliverance and restoration, but then he mentions great events for God's people. He speaks of prosperity to come, the promise of God's Spirit, and the coming Day of the Lord. These prophecies reach into the New Testament with Pentecost in Acts 2.

1 The word of the LORD, which came to Joel, son of Pethuel.

A Land Laid Waste

2 Hear this, elders,
and give ear, all inhabitants of the land!
Has anything like this happened in your days,
or in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell it to your children,
and let your children tell their children,
and let their children tell another generation.

4 What the fledging locust left,
the adult locust has eaten;
what the adult locust left,
the larval locust has eaten;
what the larval locust left,
the hopper locust has eaten.

5 Awaken, drunkards, and weep!
Wail, all wine-drinkers,
because the sweet wine
has been cut off from your lips.

6 For a nation powerful and innumerable has invaded my land;
its teeth are like the teeth of a lion,
like the fangs of a lioness.

7 It has despoiled my vine,
and splintered my fig tree;
it has stripped off its bark
and cast it away,
leaving its branches white.

8 Lament like a virgin wearing sackcloth
for the husband of her youth.

9 The grain offering and the drink offering are cut off from the house of the LORD;
the priests mourn, who are ministers to the LORD.

10 The field is ravaged,
the ground mourns;
for the grain is ruined,
the new wine is dried up,
and the oil dwindles.

11 Despair, fieldworkers;
wail, vinedressers,
for the wheat and the barley,
because the harvest of the field has perished.

12 The vine is dried up,
and the fig tree is withered;
pomegranate, palm, and apple—
all the trees of the field are dry;
surely joy has withered away
from the sons of men.

A Call to Repentance

13 Put on sackcloth and lament, O priests;
wail, ministers of the altar.
Come, spend the night in sackcloth,
ministers of my God,
because the grain offering and the drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.

14 Consecrate a fast,
call a sacred assembly,
assemble the elders
and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God,
and cry out to the LORD.

15 Alas, for the day!
For the day of the LORD is near,
and like devastation from the Almighty it comes.

16 Has not the food been cut off
before our eyes,
joy and gladness
from the house of our God?

17 The seeds have shriveled
under their shovels,
the storehouses have been deserted;
the granaries have been torn down,
because the grain has dried up.

18 How the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle are confused,
because they have no pasture;
even the flocks of sheep suffer.

19 To You, O LORD, I call,

because fire has devoured the wild pastures,
and flame has burned all the trees of the field.
²⁰ Even the beasts of the field long for You,
because the streams of water have dried up,
and fire has devoured the wild pastures.

The Day of the LORD

2 Blow the ram's horn in Zion, sound the alarm on My holy mountain!
All the inhabitants of the earth will tremble,
because the day of the LORD has come,
because it is near—
² a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and thick darkness.
Like blackness spreading over the mountain,
a great and mighty army comes,
such as was never before,
and will never be again,
even through the years of all generations.
³ Before them fire devours,
and behind them a flame blazes;
the land is like the garden of Eden before them,
but behind them a desolate wasteland,
and nothing escapes them.
⁴ They have the appearance of horses,
and like cavalry they run.
⁵ As with the sound of chariots,
they leap on the mountaintops,
as with the sound of a flame of fire consuming stubble,
as a mighty army arrayed for war.
⁶ Before them, peoples are tormented;
every face turns pale.
⁷ Like mighty men they run,
like men of war they scale a wall;
each marches on his way,
they do not swerve from their paths.
⁸ They do not jostle one another;
each marches in his track.
Through the weapons they plunge;
they do not break rank.
⁹ They rush on the city,
they run on the wall;
they climb up into the houses,
they enter through the windows like thieves.
¹⁰ Before them the earth quakes,
the heavens shake;
the sun and moon darken,
and the stars withdraw their radiance.
¹¹ The LORD has sounded His voice
before His army,
for His camp is exceedingly great;
mighty is the one who accomplishes His word.
For great is the day of the LORD,
and very awe-inspiring.
Who can endure it?

Return to the LORD

¹² Yet even now, declares the LORD, return to Me with all your heart,
and with fasting and with weeping and with mourning.
¹³ Rend your heart,
and not your garments;
return to the LORD your God,
for He is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love;
and He relents from punishing.
¹⁴ Who knows? He might turn aside and relent, and He might leave behind a blessing—
a grain offering and a food offering for the LORD your God.
¹⁵ Blow the ram's horn in Zion,
consecrate a fast,
call a sacred assembly.
¹⁶ Gather the people,
consecrate the congregation,
assemble the elders,
gather the children
and those nursing at the breast;
let the bridegroom leave his room
and the bride her chamber.
¹⁷ Between the temple porch and the altar,
let the priests, ministers of the LORD, weep and say,
"Have pity upon Your people,
and do not make Your heritage a disgrace,
a mockery among the nations.
Why should they say among the peoples,
'Where is their God?'"

Rescue and Restitution

¹⁸ Then the LORD became jealous for His land and took pity upon His people.
¹⁹ So the LORD answered and said to His people, Here! I am sending you grain, new wine, and oil,
and you will be satisfied,
and I will never again make you
a disgrace among the nations.
²⁰ I will remove the northerner far from you, and I will banish him to a dry and desolate land,
those in front to the eastern sea,
and those in back to the western sea,
and his stink will rise,
and his stench will rise,
for he has done great things.
²¹ Do not be afraid, land;
exult and rejoice,
for the LORD has done great things!
²² Do not be afraid, beasts of the field,
because the wild pastures flourish,
because the tree bears its fruit;
the fig tree and the vine yield their abundance.
²³ And children of Zion, exult and rejoice in the LORD your God, because He has given to you

 the early rain for vindication.
 He showers down rains for you,
 the early rain and the latter rain, as before.
²⁴ Then the threshing floors will be filled with grain,
 and the vats will overflow with new wine and oil.
²⁵ And I will compensate you for the years the locusts have eaten—
 the larval locust, the hopper locust,
 and the fledging locust—
 My great army which I sent against you.
²⁶ You will eat abundantly and be satisfied,
 and you will praise the name of the LORD your God,
 who has worked wonders for you;
 and My people will never again be shamed.
²⁷ Then you will know that I am in the midst of Israel, that I am the LORD your God,
 and that there is no other.
 And My people will never again be shamed.

The Outpouring of the Spirit

²⁸ And it will be that, afterwards,
 I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh;
 then your sons and your daughters will prophesy,
 your old men will dream dreams,
 and your young men will see visions.
²⁹ Even on the menservants and maidservants
 in those days I will pour out My Spirit.
³⁰ Then I will work wonders in the heavens and the earth—
 blood and fire and columns of smoke.
³¹ The sun will be turned to darkness,
 and the moon to blood,
 before the great and awe-inspiring day of the LORD
 comes.
³² And it will be that everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved.
 For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
 there will be deliverance,
 as the LORD has said,
 and among the survivors
 whom the LORD calls.

Judging the Nations

3 In those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,
² I will gather all the nations,
 and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.
 I will enter into judgment with them there regarding My people and My heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations;
 they have also divided up My land.
³ They have cast lots for My people,
 and have traded a boy for a prostitute;
 they have sold a girl for wine,

that they might drink.

⁴ Also, what are you to Me, Tyre and Sidon and all the regions of Philistia? Are you repaying Me for something? If you are repaying Me, I will return your payment swiftly and speedily on your head. ⁵ For you have taken My silver and My gold, and you have carried off My finest treasures to your temples. ⁶ You have sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks in order to remove them far from their border.

⁷ I am about to rouse them from the place to which you have sold them, and I will return your payment on your head. ⁸ I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans—to a distant nation, for the LORD has spoken.

⁹ Proclaim this among the nations:
 Consecrate a war!
 Stir up the mighty men!
 Let all the men of war draw near and rise.
¹⁰ Beat your plowshares into swords
 and your pruning hooks into spears;
 let the weakling say,
 "I am a warrior!"

¹¹ Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations,
 and gather there.

Bring down Your warriors, O LORD .

¹² Let the nations be roused,
 and go up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat;
 for there I will sit
 to judge all the surrounding nations.

¹³ Swing the sickle,
 for the harvest is ripe.
 Come and tread,
 for the winepress is full.

The wine vats overflow,
 because their evil is great.

¹⁴ Multitudes, multitudes,
 in the valley of decision!
 For the day of the LORD is near
 in the valley of the decision.

¹⁵ The sun and moon darken,
 and the stars withdraw their radiance.

¹⁶ The LORD roars from Zion,
 and sounds His voice from Jerusalem,
 and heaven and earth quake.

But the LORD is a refuge for His people,
 and a stronghold for the children of Israel.

The LORD Dwells in Zion

¹⁷ Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, who dwells in Zion, My holy mountain.

And Jerusalem will be holy,
 and invaders will never again pass through her.

¹⁸ And it will be that in that day the mountains will drip sweet wine,
 and the hills will flow with milk,
 and all the streambeds of Judah will flow with water;
 a spring will proceed from the house of the LORD

and will water the Valley of Shittim.
¹⁹ Egypt will become a desolation,
and Edom a desolate wasteland,
because of the violence done to the people of Judah—
they shed innocent blood in their land.

²⁰ But Judah will be inhabited forever,
and Jerusalem for generations and generations.
²¹ I will avenge their blood,
which I have not yet avenged.
The LORD dwells in Zion!

AMOS

This book was likely written between 760 and 753 BC. The author is the prophet Amos. Its theme is judgment against the sins of social injustice. Amos was a shepherd and farmer whom God called to prophesy during the reigns of Uzziah (792–740 BC) in the southern kingdom and Jeroboam II (793–753 BC) in the north. Both kingdoms were in a period of political stability and prosperity; nevertheless, it was also a time of idolatry and corruption. The rich and powerful oppressed the poor. Amos denounced the people of Israel for their social injustice and their apostasy, and he warned that disaster would come because they had broken the covenant. Amos pleads with them to repent and return to God. The book closes with a promise of future restoration through an anointed king.

Judgment Against Israel's Neighbors

1 The words of Amos, who was among the shepherds of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel two years before the earthquake.

² He said:

The LORD roars from Zion
and utters His voice from Jerusalem;
the pastures of the shepherds languish,
the top of Carmel withers.

³ Thus says the LORD :

For three transgressions of Damascus,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment,
because they have threshed Gilead
with threshing sledges of iron.

⁴ So I will send fire against the house of Hazael,
and it will devour the fortresses of Ben-Hadad.

⁵ I will break the gate bar of Damascus;
from the Valley of Aven I will cut off the one enthroned,
and from Beth Eden the one who holds the scepter.
The people of Aram will go into captivity to Kir,
says the LORD .

⁶ Thus says the LORD :

For three transgressions of Gaza,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment,
because they carried away into exile an entire deportation,
to deliver them up to Edom.

⁷ So I will send fire against the wall of Gaza,
and it will devour its fortresses.

⁸ From Ashdod I will cut off the one enthroned and from Ashkelon the one who holds the scepter.

I will turn My hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines will perish,
says the Lord GOD .

⁹ Thus says the LORD :

For three transgressions of Tyre,

and for four, I will not revoke the punishment,
because they delivered up an entire deportation to Edom,

and did not remember the covenant of kinship.

¹⁰ So I will send fire against the wall of Tyre,
and it will devour its fortresses.

¹¹ Thus says the LORD :

For three transgressions of Edom,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment,
because he pursued his brother with the sword,
and repressed all pity;
his anger tore with no ceasing,
and his wrath persisted with no end.

¹² So I will send fire against Teman,
and it will devour the fortresses of Bozrah.

¹³ Thus says the LORD :

For three transgressions of the Ammonites,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment,
because they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead,

in order to enlarge their border.

¹⁴ So I will kindle a fire against the wall of Rabbah,
and it will devour its fortresses,
with a war cry on the day of battle,
with a tempest on the day of the whirlwind.

¹⁵ Their king shall go into captivity,
he and his princes together,
says the LORD .

2 Thus says the LORD :

For three transgressions of Moab,
and for four, I will not revoke the punishment,
because he burned to lime
the bones of the king of Edom.

² So I will send fire against Moab,
and it will devour the fortresses of Kerioth;
Moab will die in uproar,
with a war cry and the alarm of the trumpet.

³ I will cut off the ruler from its midst,
and will slay all its princes with him,
says the LORD .

Judgment Against Judah

⁴ Thus says the LORD :
 For three transgressions of Judah,
 and for four, I will not revoke the punishment,
 because they have rejected the law of the LORD ,
 and have not kept His commandments.
 The lies which their fathers followed have led them astray.
⁵ So I will send fire against Judah,
 and it will devour the fortresses of Jerusalem.

Judgment Against Israel

⁶ Thus says the LORD :
 For three transgressions of Israel,
 and for four, I will not revoke the punishment,
 because they sell the righteous for silver,
 and the poor for a pair of sandals.
⁷ They trample the head of the poor
 into the dust of the earth,
 and push the oppressed out of the way.
 A man and his father go in to the same woman,
 profaning My holy name.
⁸ They recline by every altar
 on garments taken in pledge,
 and in the house of their gods
 they drink the wine from those who have been fined.
⁹ Yet it was I who destroyed the Amorite before them,
 whose height was like the height of the cedars.
 He was strong as the oaks,
 yet I destroyed his fruit above
 and his roots below.
¹⁰ It was I who brought you up from the land of Egypt,
 and led you forty years through the wilderness,
 to possess the land of the Amorite.
¹¹ I raised up some of your sons as prophets,
 and some of your young men as Nazirites.
 Is it not so, O children of Israel?
 says the LORD .
¹² But you made the Nazirites drink wine, and commanded the prophets, saying, "Do not prophesy."
¹³ Indeed I will slow you down,
 as a wagon is slowed that is full of sheaves.
¹⁴ Flight will perish from the swift,
 the strong will not retain his strength,
 nor will the warrior save his life.
¹⁵ The Bowman will not stand firm,
 the swift-footed will not escape,
 nor will the horseman save his life.
¹⁶ He that is courageous among the warriors will flee away naked on that day,
 says the LORD .

First Pronouncement of Punishment

³ Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family
 I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying:
² You alone have I known of all the families of the earth;
 therefore I will punish you
 for all your iniquities.
³ Do two people walk together,
 if they have not agreed?
⁴ Does a lion roar in the forest,
 if it has no prey?
 Does a young lion cry out from its den,
 if it has not caught something?
⁵ Does a bird fall into a trap on the ground,
 if there was no snare for it?
 Does a trap spring up from the ground,
 if it has not caught something?
⁶ If the trumpet blasts in the city,
 are not the people frightened?
 If there is disaster against a city,
 is it not the LORD who has done it?
⁷ Surely the Lord GOD does nothing without revealing His purpose to His servants the prophets.
⁸ The lion has roared;
 who will not fear?
 The Lord GOD has spoken;
 who can but prophesy?
⁹ Proclaim to the fortresses in Ashdod,
 and the fortresses in the land of Egypt, and say:
 "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria,
 and see the great disorders within her,
 and the oppression in her midst."
¹⁰ They do not know how to do right, says the LORD , storing up violence and destruction in their fortresses.
¹¹ Therefore thus says the Lord GOD :
 An enemy will surround your land;
 he will tear down your defenses,
 and your fortresses will be plundered.
¹² Thus says the LORD :
 As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion
 a pair of legs or a piece of an ear,
 so will the children of Israel be rescued,
 those who live in Samaria,
 with the corner of a bed
 or a piece of a couch.
¹³ Hear and testify against the house of Jacob, says
 the Lord GOD , the God of Hosts:
¹⁴ Surely on the day I punish the transgressions of Israel,
 I will also punish the altars of Bethel;
 the horns of the altar will be cut off
 and fall to the ground.
¹⁵ I will destroy the winter house
 as well as the summer house, and the houses of ivory will perish;

the great houses will come to an end,
says the LORD .

Second Pronouncement of Punishment

4 Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria,
who oppress the poor and crush the needy,
who say to their husbands, "Bring us something to drink!"

²The Lord GOD has sworn by His holiness:
Indeed the days are coming upon you
when they will take you away with hooks,
the last one of you with fishhooks.

³You will go out through breached walls,
every one straight ahead of her;
you will be exiled to Harmon,
says the LORD .

⁴Come to Bethel and transgress,
to Gilgal and multiply transgression;
bring your sacrifices every morning
and your tithes every three days.

⁵Burn leavened bread as a thank offering;
announce your voluntary offerings loudly,
for so you love to do, O children of Israel,
says the Lord GOD .

⁶Though I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities

and lack of food in all your places,
yet you did not return to Me,
says the LORD .

⁷I also withheld the rain from you,
when there were still three months to the harvest.

I would send rain on one town,
and send no rain on another town.

One field would receive rain,
but another field without rain would wither.

⁸So two or three towns wandered to one town to drink water,

but they were not satisfied;
yet you did not return to Me,
says the LORD .

⁹I struck you with blight and mildew.

Locusts devoured your many gardens and vineyards,

your fig trees and olive trees;
yet you did not return to Me,
says the LORD .

¹⁰Pestilence like that of Egypt
I sent against you.

By the sword I killed your young men;
your horses were taken captive.

The stench of your camps I brought up into your nostrils;

yet you did not return to Me,
says the LORD .

¹¹I destroyed some of you,
as God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.

You were like a firebrand plucked out of the fire;
yet you did not return to Me,
says the LORD .

¹²Therefore thus will I do to you, O Israel,
and because I will do this to you,
prepare to meet your God, O Israel!

¹³The One who forms the mountains and creates the wind,
who reveals His thoughts to man,
who turns the darkness into dawn
and strides on the heights of the earth —
the LORD , the God of Hosts, is His name.

Third Pronouncement of Punishment

5 Hear this word which I take up as a dirge against you, O house of Israel:

²Fallen, no more to rise
is maiden Israel;

forsaken on her land,
with no one to raise her up.

³For thus says the Lord GOD :

The city that went out with a thousand
will be left with a hundred,
and the one that went out with a hundred will be left with ten for the house of Israel.

⁴Indeed, thus says the LORD to the house of Israel:
Seek Me and live!

⁵But do not seek Bethel,
and do not enter into Gilgal
or cross over to Beersheba;
for Gilgal will surely go into captivity,
and Bethel shall be no more.

⁶Seek the LORD and live, or He will break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
and it will devour Bethel,
with no one to quench it.

⁷You who turn justice into bitterness and cast righteousness down to the ground!

⁸The One who made the Pleiades and Orion, who turns the deep darkness into dawn
and darkens the day into night,
who summons the waters of the sea

and pours them out on the surface of the earth—
the LORD is His name,

⁹the One who flashes destruction against the strong,
so that destruction comes against the fortress.

¹⁰They hate the one who prosecutes at the gate,
and abhor the one who speaks with integrity.

¹¹Therefore, because you trample on the poor and take from him a levy of wheat,

though you have built houses of hewn stone,
you will not dwell in them;

though you have planted pleasant vineyards,
you will not drink their wine.

¹²For I know your transgressions are many
and your sins are grievous,

you who oppress the just,
who take a bribe and subvert the needy at the gate.

¹³ Therefore the prudent are silent at such a time,
for it is an evil time.
¹⁴ Seek good and not evil,
so that you may live;
then the LORD, the God of Hosts, will truly be with
you,
as you claim.
¹⁵ Hate evil and love good,
and establish justice at the gate.
It may then be that the LORD God of Hosts will be gracious
to the remnant of Joseph.
¹⁶ Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Hosts,
the Lord:
Wailing will be in all the squares,
and in all the streets they will say, "Alas! Alas!"
They shall call the farmer to mourning,
and to wailing those skilled in lamentation.
¹⁷ In all vineyards there shall be wailing,
for I will pass through you,
says the LORD.

The Day of the LORD Is Darkness

¹⁸ Woe to you that desire
the day of the LORD!
Why do you want the day of the LORD?
It is darkness, and not light,
¹⁹ as if someone fled away from a lion,
but a bear attacked him,
or got into the house
and rested his hand on the wall,
but a snake bit him.
²⁰ Will not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light?
Will it not be deep darkness, with no brightness in
it?
²¹ I hate, I despise your festivals,
and I am not pleased by your solemn assemblies.
²² Though you offer Me burnt offerings or your grain
offerings,
I will not accept them,
nor will I regard the offerings
of your fattened animals.
²³ Take away from Me the noise of your songs;
I will not listen to the melody of your harps.
²⁴ But let justice roll down like water,
and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.
²⁵ Did you bring Me sacrifices and offerings those forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?
²⁶ But you will carry away Sukuth your king
and Kaiwan your star-images,
your gods that you made for yourselves,
²⁷ as I drive you away into exile beyond Damascus, says the LORD, whose name is the God of Hosts.

Woe to the Complacent

⁶ Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those confident on the mount of Samaria,
nobles of the first of the nations,
to whom the house of Israel comes!
² Cross over to Kalneh and see,
and go from there to Hamath the great;
then go down to Gath of the Philistines—
are you better than these kingdoms?
Or is their territory greater than your territory?
³ You who brush off the day of disaster,
but bring on a session of lawlessness;
⁴ who lie upon beds of ivory, and lounge on their couches,
eating lambs from the flock and calves from the stall;
⁵ who sing to the sound of the harp and invent musical instruments for themselves like David;
⁶ who drink from bowls of wine
and anoint themselves with the finest oils,
but are not grieved over the destruction of Joseph.
⁷ Therefore now they will go at the head of the captives into exile,
and the revelry of those who are lounging will vanish.
⁸ The Lord GOD hath sworn by Himself, an oracle of the LORD the God of Hosts:
I abhor the pride of Jacob
and hate his palaces,
so I will deliver up the city
with all that is in it.
⁹ If there remain ten people in one house, they will die. ¹⁰ And when a relative or one who prepares the bodies picks them up to carry them out of the house, and says to someone in the recesses of the house, "Is anyone else with you?" and he says, "No," he will say,
"Hush!" —not to pronounce the name of the LORD.
¹¹ But indeed the LORD gives a command,
and He will shatter the great house to bits,
and the small house to pieces.
¹² Can horses run on a rocky crag?
Can one plow the sea with oxen?
But you have turned justice into poison,
and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood, ¹³ you who rejoice in Lo Debar, who say,
"Is it not by our own strength that we captured Kar-naim?"
¹⁴ Watch: I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel,
says the LORD, the God of Hosts,
and they will oppress you from Lebo Hamath to the Wadi Arabah.

Plague of Locusts

7 This is what the Lord GOD showed me: He was forming a plague of locusts when the latter growth was beginning to sprout up, the latter growth after the king's reaping. ²When they had finished devouring the foliage of the land, I said, "O Lord GOD, please forgive. How can Jacob survive? For he is small."

³The LORD relented concerning this: "It shall not be," said the LORD.

Fire

⁴This is what the Lord GOD showed me: The Lord GOD was calling for a judgment by fire. It was consuming the great deep and was devouring the fields. ⁵I said, "O Lord GOD, please stop. How can Jacob survive? For he is small."

⁶The LORD relented concerning this: "This also shall not be," said the Lord GOD.

Plumb Line

⁷This is what He showed me: The Lord was standing by a wall made using a plumb line, with a plumb line in His hand. ⁸The LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

And I said, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said, "See, I am putting a plumb line in the midst of My people Israel. I will forgive them no more.

⁹The high places of Isaac will be destroyed, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

The Priest Tries to Banish Amos

¹⁰Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent a message to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you at the very center of the house of Israel. The country cannot endure all his words. ¹¹For this is what Amos said:

'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely be exiled away from its land.'"

¹²So Amaziah said to Amos, "O seer, go, flee back to the land of Judah. Earn your sustenance there, and prophesy there. ¹³But do not prophesy any more at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary and a royal temple."

¹⁴But Amos answered Amaziah: "I am no prophet, and I am no prophet's disciple. Rather, I am a herdsman and a dresser of sycamore trees. ¹⁵But the LORD took me away from the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to My people Israel.' ¹⁶Now therefore hear the word of the LORD: You say,

'Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not preach against the house of Isaac.'

¹⁷"Therefore thus says the LORD:

'Your wife will be a prostitute in the city, your sons and daughters will fall by the sword, and your land will be divided by measuring line; you yourself will die in an unclean land; and Israel will surely go into exile away from its land.'"

Basket of Fruit

8 This is what the Lord GOD showed me: a basket of summer fruit. ²He said, "Amos, what do you see?"

And I said, "A basket of summer fruit."

Then the LORD said to me, "The end has come upon My people Israel. I will forgive them no more.

³"The songs of the temple shall become wailings on that day," says the Lord GOD. "The corpses shall be many, cast down everywhere. Hush!"

Against the Greedy

⁴Hear this, you who trample on the needy to make the poor of the land fail, ⁵saying,

"When will the New Moon be over, so that we may sell grain?

And the Sabbath,

that we may open the wheat sales, making the ephah [†] too small,

and the shekel ^{††} too heavy,

cheating with dishonest scales,

⁶that we may buy the poor for silver,

the needy for a pair of sandals,

and sell the refuse as wheat?"

⁷The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

⁸Will not the land tremble because of this, and everyone mourn who lives on it?

It will all rise up like the Nile, and be tossed around, then sink like the Nile of Egypt.

⁹On that day, says the Lord GOD,

I will make the sun go down at noon,

and darken the earth in mid-daylight;

¹⁰I will turn your feasts into mourning,

and all your songs into dirges;

I will put sackcloth upon all loins,

and baldness on every head;

I will make it like the mourning for an only child, and its end like a bitter day.

¹¹The time is coming, says the Lord GOD,

when I will send a famine on the land,

not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD.

¹²They will wander from sea to sea, and from north to east;

[†] A dry measure of about 3/5 bushel, or 22 liters. ^{††} About 2/5 ounce, or 12 grams.

they will run back and forth to seek the word of the LORD,

but they will not find it.

¹³ On that day

the beautiful maidens and the young men will faint with thirst.

¹⁴ Those who swear by Ashimah of Samaria, and say,
“By the life of your god, O Dan,”

and, “By the life of the way of Beersheba” — they shall fall
and never rise again.

Destruction of the Sanctuary

9 I saw the Lord standing upon the altar, and He said:

Strike the capitals

so that the thresholds shake;

break them off onto the heads of all of them.

Those who remain I will slay with the sword.

Not one of them will get away;

not one fugitive will survive.

² Though they dig down to Sheol,

from there My hand will capture them;

though they climb up to the heavens,

from there I will bring them down;

³ though they hide on the top of Carmel,

from there I will search and catch them;

though they hide from My sight on the bottom of the sea,

from there will I command the serpent to bite them;

⁴ and though they go into captivity before their enemies,

from there will I command the sword to slay them.

I will set My eyes upon them

for evil and not for good.

⁵ The Lord GOD of Hosts,

He who touches the earth and it melts,

and all who live on it mourn;

it all rises up like the Nile,

and subsides like the river of Egypt;

⁶ who builds His chambers in the heavens,

and founds His vault over the earth;

who summons the waters of the sea,

and pours them out upon the surface of the earth—
the LORD is His name.

⁷ Are you not like the Ethiopians to Me,

O children of Israel?

says the LORD.

Did I not bring Israel up from the land of Egypt,

but also the Philistines from Caphtor,

and the Arameans from Kir?

⁸ The eyes of the Lord GOD

are upon the sinful kingdom,

and I will destroy it

from off the face of the earth,

though I will not completely destroy

the house of Jacob,

says the LORD.

⁹ See, I am giving the command,

and I will sift the house of Israel

among all the nations,

as one sifts with a sieve,

and not a pebble falls to the ground.

¹⁰ All the sinners of My people will die by the sword,

those who say,

“Never will disaster reach or overtake us.”

Restoration of the Davidic Kingdom

¹¹ On that day will I raise up the hut of David that is fallen;

I will close up its breached walls,

raise up its ruins,

and rebuild it as in the days of old;

¹² that they may possess the remnant of Edom,

and of all the nations called by My name,

says the LORD who will do this.

¹³ Indeed, the days are coming, says the LORD,

when the plowman will overtake the one who is reap-
ing,

and the treader of grapes the one who is sowing the seed;

the mountains will drip sweet wine,

and all the hills will flow with it.

¹⁴ I will restore the fortunes of My people Israel;

they will rebuild the ruined cities and inhabit them;

they will plant vineyards and drink their wine;

they will make gardens and eat their fruit.

¹⁵ I will plant them upon their land,

and no more will they be uprooted

out of their land which I have given them.

The LORD your God has spoken.

OBADIAH

The book of Obadiah was likely written in the sixth century BC. Its author is the prophet Obadiah, and it is the shortest book in the Old Testament. Nothing is known about the prophet Obadiah except the meaning of his name, “servant or worshipper of God.” This book has one theme—the condemnation of Edom. Obadiah prophesied that Edom would be repaid for mistreating God’s people as this people (who were descendants from Esau) took part in the sacking of Jerusalem with the Babylonians. Obadiah emphasized that God is sovereign over all nations and that the house of Jacob would someday be restored because of God’s covenant love for His people.

Judgment on Edom

Jer 49:9–16

1 The vision of Obadiah.
Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom
(We have heard a report from the LORD
and a messenger has been sent among the nations, saying:
“Rise up! Let us rise up against it for battle!”):
² See, I will make you small among the nations;
you will be greatly despised.
³ The pride of your heart has deceived you,
you who live in the clefts of the rock,
whose dwelling is high;
you say in your heart,
“Who will bring me down to the ground?”
⁴ Though you ascend high like the eagle,
and though you set your nest among the stars,
I will bring you down from there,
says the LORD.
⁵ If thieves came to you,
if robbers by night—
how you have been destroyed!—
would they not steal only what they want?
If grape gatherers come to you,
would they not leave gleanings?
⁶ How the things of Esau have been ransacked!
How his hidden treasures hunted out!
⁷ All your confederates have driven you to the border;
your allies have deceived and prevailed against you.
Those who eat your bread have set a trap for you.
You will not detect it.
⁸ On that day, says the LORD,
I will destroy the wise out of Edom,
and understanding out of Mount Esau.
⁹ Your mighty men shall be shattered, O Teman,
so that everyone from Mount Esau will be cut off.

Edom’s Violence Against Jacob

¹⁰ For the slaughter and the violence done to your brother Jacob,

shame shall cover you,
and you shall be cut off forever.
¹¹ On the day that you stood aside,
on the day that strangers carried off his wealth,
and foreigners entered his gates
and cast lots on Jerusalem,
you also were like one of them.
¹² But you should not have gloated
on the day of your brother,
on the day of his misfortune;
you should not have rejoiced over the children of Judah
on the day of their destruction;
you should not have boasted
on the day of distress.
¹³ You should not have entered the gate of My people on the day of their calamity.
You should not have gloated over the disaster of Judah †
on the day of his calamity;
you should not have seized his wealth
on the day of his calamity.
¹⁴ You should not have stood at the crossroads
to cut off his fugitives;
you should not have handed over his survivors,
on the day of distress.

The Day of the LORD Is Near

¹⁵ For the day of the LORD is near upon all the nations;
as you have done, it shall be done to you;
your deeds shall return on your own head.
¹⁶ For as you have drunk on My holy mountain,
all the nations shall drink continually;
they shall drink and swallow and shall be as though they had never been.
¹⁷ But on Mount Zion there shall be deliverance,
and it shall be holy;
and the house of Jacob shall possess
those who dispossessed them. ††

† Heb. a his. †† Gk.; Heb. a their possessions.

¹⁸ The house of Jacob shall be a fire,
the house of Joseph a flame,
but the house of Esau stubble;
they shall burn them and consume them,
and there shall be no survivors
from the house of Esau,
for the LORD has spoken.

The Restoration of Israel

¹⁹ Those of the Negev shall possess
Mount Esau,
and those of the Shephelah the land of the Philistines.

They shall possess the fields of Ephraim and the fields of Samaria,
and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.
²⁰ The exiles of this army of the sons of Israel, shall inherit the land of the Canaanites as far as Zarephath,
and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad
shall inherit the cities of the Negev.
²¹ Saviors shall go up to Mount Zion
to rule Mount Esau,
and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

JONAH

The book of Jonah was probably written between 793 and 758 BC. Jewish tradition attributes authorship to Jonah. The theme is God's mercy for a people most undeserving of mercy: Israel's Assyrian enemies. Jonah was a prophet of Israel who lived in the time of Jeroboam II; he has the distinction of being the first prophet to leave Israel to proclaim God's message to a foreign people. Unlike other prophetic books, Jonah focuses more on the prophet himself rather than his message. The story is unique in many respects. God sent Jonah to Nineveh, but Jonah rebelled and was swallowed by a great fish. He repented and prayed from the recesses of the fish's belly. The fish vomited up Jonah on dry land, and Jonah fulfilled his mission. The people of Nineveh received Jonah's message, and God spared them. The book ends with God's question to the prophet, asking if He should not have pity on Nineveh with its numerous people and animals.

The Call of Jonah

1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah son of Amittai, saying, 2 "Get up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and cry out against it, because their wickedness has come up before Me."

3 But Jonah got up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found there a ship going to Tarshish. He paid its fare and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

4 But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and a mighty storm came upon the sea, so that the ship was in danger of breaking up. 5 Then the sailors were afraid, and each cried to his god. They tossed the ship's cargo into the sea in order to lighten the load.

But Jonah had gone down into the hold of the ship, had lain down, and was fast asleep. 6 The captain came to him and said, "What are you doing asleep? Get up, call to your god! Perhaps your god will consider us, so that we will not perish."

7 The sailors said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots that we may know on whose account this disaster has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

8 Then the sailors said to Jonah, "Tell us why this disaster has come upon us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? And from what people are you?"

9 Jonah replied, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land."

10 Then the men were very afraid and said to him, "What is this you have done?" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD because he had told them.

11 Then they said to Jonah, "What shall we do to you, so that the sea may quiet down for us?" For the sea was growing stormier.

12 So Jonah said to them, "Pick me up and toss me into the sea. Then the sea will quiet down for you. For I know that it is on my account this great storm has come upon you."

13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to bring the ship to land, but they could not do it, for the sea grew more tempestuous against them. 14 Then they cried to the LORD and said, "Please, LORD, do not let us perish for this man's life, and do not make us guilty for innocent blood, for You, LORD, have done as it pleased You." 15 So they picked up Jonah and tossed him into the sea. Then the sea ceased from its raging. 16 Therefore the men were very afraid of the LORD, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

The Prayer and Deliverance of Jonah

17 Now the LORD appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

2 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish. 2 He said:

"I called to the LORD out of my distress, and He answered me.

Out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and You heard my voice.

3 You cast me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and the flood surrounded me. All Your billows and Your waves passed over me.

4 Then I said, 'I am cast away from Your sight; yet I will look again to Your holy temple.'

5 The waters encompassed me; even to my soul the deep surrounded me; weeds were wrapped around my head.

6 I went down to the foundations of the mountains; the earth with its bars was around me forever;

yet You have brought up my life from the pit,
 O LORD my God.
⁷ "When my life was ebbing away,
 I remembered the LORD;
 and my prayer came to You,
 into Your holy temple.
⁸ "Those who follow vain idols forsake their true loyalty.
⁹ But I will sacrifice to You with the voice of thanksgiving;
 I will pay what I have vowed.
 Salvation is of the LORD!"
¹⁰ Then the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited
 Jonah out upon dry land.

Jonah Preaches at Nineveh

³ The word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time, saying, ² "Get up, go to Nineveh, the great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you."
³ So Jonah got up and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three-day journey across. ⁴ Jonah began to enter the city, going a day's walk. And he cried out, "In forty days' time, Nineveh will be overthrown!"
⁵ So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast. And everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth.
⁶ When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he arose from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself in sackcloth, and sat in ashes. ⁷ Then he made a proclamation in Nineveh:
 "By decree of the king and his nobles:
 No man or animal, no herd or flock, shall taste anything. They shall not eat or drink water. ⁸ Both man and animals shall cover themselves with sackcloth and cry mightily to God. All shall turn from their evil ways and from the violence that is in their hands. ⁹ Who knows? God may relent and change His mind. He may turn from His fierce anger, so that we will not perish."
¹⁰ When God saw their actions, that they turned from their evil ways, He changed His mind about the disaster that He had said He would bring upon them, and He did not do it.

Jonah's Anger and the LORD's Compassion

⁴ Now this greatly displeased Jonah, and he became angry. ² He prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD! Is this not what I said while I was still in my own land? This is the reason that I fled before to Tarshish, because I knew that You are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, abundant in faithfulness, and ready to relent from punishment. ³ Therefore, LORD, take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live."

⁴ Then the LORD said, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

⁵ So Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city and made for himself a booth there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would happen to the city. ⁶ Then the LORD God appointed a plant, and it grew up over Jonah to provide shade over his head, to provide comfort from his grief. And Jonah was very happy about the plant. ⁷ But at dawn the next day, God appointed a worm to attack the plant so that it withered. ⁸ When the sun rose, God appointed a scorching east wind, and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah so that he became faint and asked that he might die. He said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

⁹ Then God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?"

And Jonah replied, "It is right for me to be angry, even to death."

¹⁰ The LORD said, "You are troubled about the plant for which you did not labor and did not grow. It came up in a night and perished in a night. ¹¹ Should I not, therefore, be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people, who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?"

MICAH

Micah was probably written between 735 and 700 BC. The author is the prophet Micah. The theme involves both the judgment and the restoration of Judah. Micah prophesied during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, about 750–700 BC. This was about the same time as the prophet Isaiah. Micah came from the small town of Moresheth, about twenty miles southwest of Jerusalem. The messages of impending judgment were primarily to the capital cities of Samaria and Jerusalem, where in a time of prosperity the wealthy were oppressing the poor. The northern kingdom actually fell in 722 BC during Micah's ministry; Judah almost fell in 701 BC to the Assyrians. The book alternates between words of warning and messages of hope. Micah prophesied of a day when all nations would be at peace, a day when a royal deliverer would save God's people from her enemies—a deliverer who would be born in Bethlehem.

¹ The word of the LORD, which came to Micah the Morashite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw regarding Samaria and Jerusalem.

² Hear, all you peoples!
Listen, earth and everything in it,
that the Sovereign LORD may be a witness against you,
the LORD from His holy temple.

Judgment Against Samaria and Jerusalem

³ Look! The LORD is coming out from His place, so that He might come down and tread upon the high places of the earth.

⁴ The mountains will melt beneath Him,
and the valleys split apart
like wax before the fire,
like waters deluged down a slope.

⁵ All this because of the transgression of Jacob and because of the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?

And what is the high place of Judah?
Is it not Jerusalem?

⁶ Therefore I will make Samaria a heap in the field
for the planting of vineyards.
I will dump her stones into the valley
and expose her foundations.

⁷ All her idols will be shattered,
and her gifts burned with fire,
and I will annihilate her images,
because she gathered them as the wages of a prostitute,
and as the wages of a prostitute they will again be used.

The Lament of Micah

⁸ Because of this I will lament and wail,
I will go about barefoot and naked;

I will howl like the jackals and moan like owlets.

⁹ For her wound is mortal,
for it has come to Judah;
it has extended to the gate of my people,
to Jerusalem.

¹⁰ Do not tell it in Gath,
do not weep at all;
in Beth Ophrah,
roll around in the dust.

¹¹ Pass on your way,
inhabitants of Shaphir, naked and ashamed;
the inhabitants of Zaanan
have not come out.

The mourning of Beth Ezel
has taken from you its foothold.

¹² Indeed the inhabitants of Maroth wait anxiously for good,
because calamity has come down from the LORD
to the gate of Jerusalem.

¹³ Harness the chariot to the steeds, inhabitants of Lachish.

It was the beginning of sin
to the daughter of Zion,
because in you were found
the transgressions of Israel.

¹⁴ Therefore you will give parting gifts
to Moresheth Gath;
the houses of Akzib will be deception
to the kings of Israel.

¹⁵ I will again bring a conqueror to you,
inhabitants of Mareshah;
the glory of Israel
will come to Adullam.

¹⁶ Make yourself bald and shave your head
for the children of your delight;
make yourself as bald as the eagle,
for they will go from you into exile.

Woe to the Wicked

2 Woe to those who conceive wickedness,
to those who devise evil on their beds!
At morning's light they execute it,
because it is in the power of their hand.
2 They covet fields and seize them,
and houses and take them.
They defraud a man of his house,
and a fellow man of his inheritance.
3 Therefore, thus says the LORD :
I am devising disaster against this family,
from which you cannot remove your necks;
and you will not walk haughtily,
for it will be a time of calamity.
4 In that day they will take up a taunt against you,
and they will wail a wailing lament, and say:
"We are totally ruined!
He diminishes the portion of my people;
how He removes it from me!
To a traitor He reassigns our fields!"
5 Therefore you will not have anyone to apportion the land by lot
in the assembly of the LORD .

Prophets of Deceit

6 "Do not prophesy," they say.
"One should not prophesy about these things.
Disgrace will not overtake us."
7 Should it be said, O house of Jacob,
"Is the Spirit of the LORD impatient?
Are these His deeds?"
Do not My words benefit
him who walks uprightly?
8 But lately My people rise up like an enemy.
You strip off the rich robe
from those who pass by trustingly,
like men returning from war.
9 The women of My people you drive out from their delightful homes;
from their children
you take My adornment forever.
10 Get up and go,
for this is not the resting place,
because uncleanness ruins,
and ruin sickens.
11 If a man, going about vapidly and deceitfully, lies,
"I will preach for you wine and beer,"
he would be just the preacher for this people.

The Restoration of Israel

12 I will indeed assemble Jacob—all of you;
I will indeed gather the remnant of Israel.
I will place them together like sheep in a fold,
like a herd in its pasture—
thronging with people.

13 He who breaks through has gone up before them;
they will break through and pass the gate and go out by it.
Then their king will pass on before them,
the LORD at their head.

Leaders and Prophets Judged

3 Then I said:
Listen now, heads of Jacob,
and rulers of the house of Israel.
Should you not know justice?
2 You who hate good and love evil,
who tear the skin from My people
and the flesh from their bones;
3 you who have eaten the flesh of My people,
and have flayed their skin from them,
and broken their bones in pieces;
who have chopped them up like meat in the pot,
and like flesh in the cauldron.
4 Then they will cry out to the LORD ,
but He will not answer them;
He will hide His face from them at that time,
because they have wrought evil deeds.
5 Thus says the LORD :
Regarding the prophets who mislead My people —
the ones who have something to eat proclaim "Peace,"
but if one does not feed them,
then they prepare for war against him.
6 Therefore you will have night without vision,
and you will have darkness without divination;
the sun will set upon the prophets,
and black upon them will be the day.
7 The seers will be shamed
and the diviners disgraced,
and they will all cover their beards,
for there is no answer from God.
8 But as for me, I am filled with power,
with the Spirit of the LORD ,
and with justice and might,
to declare to Jacob his transgression
and to Israel his sin.
9 Please hear this, heads of the house of Jacob
and rulers of the house of Israel,
who detest justice
and warp all that is straight, 10 who build Zion with bloodguilt and Jerusalem with wickedness.
11 Her leaders judge for a bribe,
her priests teach for a price,
and her prophets practice divination for money.
Yet upon the LORD they lean, saying,
"Is not the LORD in our midst?
Evil will not come upon us."
12 Therefore, because of you,
Zion will be plowed like a field,
Jerusalem will be mounds of ruins,

and the mountain of the house will become wooded heights.

The Mountain of the LORD

Isa 2:1-4

4 Then it will be that in the latter days, the mountain of the house of the LORD will be established as head of the mountains,

and will be lifted up above the hills;
and people will stream to it.

² And many nations will come and say,
"Come, that we might go up to the mountain of the LORD

and to the house of the God of Jacob,
that He might teach us His ways,
and that we might walk in His paths."

For from Zion will go forth the law,
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

³ Then He will judge between many peoples and mediate for mighty nations far and wide;
they will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not take up sword against nation,
and they will no longer train for war.

⁴ Then each man will sit under his vine
and under his fig tree,
and no one will make them afraid;
for the mouth of the LORD of Hosts has spoken.

⁵ For all the peoples may walk,
each in the name of his God,
but we will walk in the name of the LORD
our God forever and ever.

The Promise of Restoration

⁶ In that day, declares the LORD ,
I will assemble the lame
and gather the banished
and those whom I have afflicted;

⁷ and I will make the lame into a remnant,
and the banished into a mighty nation;
and the LORD will reign over them on Mount Zion
from this time forth and forevermore.

⁸ As for you, watchtower of the flock,
citadel of the daughter of Zion,
to you it will come, the former dominion will come,
kingship for the daughter of Jerusalem.

⁹ Now why do you cry loudly?
Have you no king?
Has your counselor perished,
that agony has seized you like the woman in labor?

¹⁰ Writhe and bring forth, daughter of Zion,
like the woman in labor,
because now you will go forth from the city
and reside in the field,
and you will come to Babylon.

There you will be rescued;
there the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

¹¹ But now many nations
are gathered against you, saying,
"May she be defiled,
and may our eyes gaze upon Zion."

¹² But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD ,
and they do not understand His plan,
that He has gathered them like sheaves to the threshing floor.

¹³ Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion,
for I will make your horn iron;
your hoofs I will make bronze,
and you will shatter many peoples.
I will devote their pillage to the LORD ,
their wealth to the LORD of all the earth.

The Ruler From Bethlehem

5 Now gather yourself in troops, O daughter of troops;
he has laid siege against us.

With a rod they will strike
the judge of Israel on the cheek.

² But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah,
although you are small among the tribes of Judah,
from you will come forth for Me
one who will be ruler over Israel.

His origins are from of old,
from ancient days.

³ Therefore He will give them up, until the time when she who is in labor has given birth,
and the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Israel.

⁴ He will stand and shepherd
in the strength of the LORD ,
in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God;
then they will live securely, because now He will be great

until the ends of the earth;
⁵ and He will be their peace.

The Remnant of Jacob Delivered

When Assyria enters our land and treads through our palaces, then we will raise up against him seven shepherds
and eight commanders of men.

⁶ They will shepherd the land of Assyria with the
sword,

and the land of Nimrod at her gates;
He will rescue us from Assyria,
when he enters our land
and when he treads within our border.

⁷ Then the remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples,
like dew from the LORD ,
like showers upon the grass,

which do not wait for a man
and do not linger for the sons of men.
8 The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,
in the midst of many peoples,
like a lion among the beasts of the forest,
like a young lion among flocks of sheep,
which when it passes through, tramples and mauls,
without rescuer.
9 Your hand will be lifted up over your adversaries,
and all your enemies will be cut off.
10 And in that day, declares the LORD ,
I will cut off your horses from among you,
and I will destroy your chariots.
11 Then I will cut off the cities of your land,
and I will overthrow your strongholds;
12 then I will cut off sorceries from your hand,
and you will no longer have fortune-tellers.
13 Then I will cut off your idols,
and your sacred stones from among you,
and you will no longer bow down
to the work of your hands;
14 then I will root out your Asherah idols from among
you,
and I will annihilate your cities.
15 And in anger and wrath I will take vengeance on the nations that have not listened.

The Indictment of the LORD

6 Listen to what the LORD says:
Arise, plead your case before the mountains,
that the hills may hear your voice.
2 Hear, mountains, the indictment of the LORD ,
O enduring foundations of the earth—
that the LORD has an indictment against His people, and against Israel He will dispute.
3 "My people, what have I done to you,
and how have I wearied you? Answer Me!
4 For I have brought you up from the land of Egypt,
and from the house of slaves I have redeemed you;
and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.
5 O My people, remember now
what Balak king of Moab counseled,
and what Balaam son of Beor answered him,
and remember what happened from Shittim to Gilgal,
so that you might know the righteous acts of the LORD ."

The Requirement of the LORD

6 "With what should I come before the LORD ,
and bow down before God on high?
Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?
7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams,
with ten thousand rivers of oil?
Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,

the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"
8 He has told you, O man, what is good—
and what does the LORD require of you,
but to do justice and to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with your God?

The Punishment of Israel's Guilt

9 The voice of the LORD calls to the city—and wisdom will fear Your name:
Heed the rod and Him who has appointed it.
10 Are there still in the house of the wicked
treasures of wickedness?
And the short ephah † which is accursed?
11 Should I acquit the scales of wickedness,
and the sack of dishonest weights?
12 Her wealthy men are full of violence,
and her inhabitants speak deception,
and their tongue in their mouth is treachery.
13 Therefore, I have struck you a dreadful blow, devastating you because of your sins.
14 You will eat, but not be satisfied,
with hunger within you.
You will set aside, but not retain;
and what you retain I will give over to the sword.
15 You will sow, but not reap;
you will tread olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil;
you will crush grapes, but not drink wine.
16 You observe the statutes of Omri,
and every practice of the house of Ahab,
and you walk in their counsels.
Therefore I will give you over to destruction,
and the inhabitants to derision.
You will bear the contempt of My people.

Wait on the LORD

7 Woe is me!
Because I am as the gathering of summer fruit,
as the gleaning of grapes;
there is no cluster to eat,
no early fig that my soul desires.
2 The godly has perished from the earth,
and no one is upright among men.
All of them lie in wait for bloodshed;
each hunts his brother with a net.
3 Both hands are upon evil, to do it well.
The prince and the judge request the bribe,
the powerful asserts the craving of his very soul—
they intertwine together.
4 The best among them is like a brier,
the most upright among them a bramble;
the day of your watchmen,
of your punishment, has come;
now their confusion is at hand.
5 Do not trust in a companion,
do not rely on a friend;

† A dry measure of about 3/5 bushel, or 22 liters.

from her who lies in your embrace,
 guard the doors of your mouth.
⁶ For the son dishonors the father,
 the daughter rises up against her mother,
 the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law—
 the enemies of a man are members of his own household.

⁷ But as for me, I watch for the LORD ;
 I await the God of my salvation;
 my God will hear me.

The Penitence of Israel

⁸ Do not rejoice over me, my enemy!
 Although I have fallen, I will rise;
 although I dwell in darkness,
 the LORD is my light.
⁹ I will endure the rage of the LORD ,
 because I have sinned against Him,
 until the time when He pleads my case
 and executes judgment for me.
 He will bring me out into the light;
 I will look upon His vindication.
¹⁰ Then my enemy will see,
 and shame will cover her
 who said to me,
 "Where is the LORD your God?"
 My eyes will look upon her;
 now she will be trampled
 like muck in the streets.
¹¹ A day for building your walls,
 in that day the boundary will be extended.
¹² In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt to the River,
 from sea to sea,

and from mountain to mountain.
¹³ The earth will become desolate because of its inhabitants,
 from the fruit of their deeds.

The Restoration of Israel

¹⁴ Shepherd your people with your staff,
 the flock of your inheritance,
 which live alone in a forest,
 in the midst of a fertile land;
 let them graze in Bashan and Gilead,
 as in the days of old.
¹⁵ As in the days when you came out of Egypt,
 I will display wonders.
¹⁶ Nations will see and be ashamed,
 despite all their might;
 they will put their hand on their mouth,
 and their ears will be deaf.
¹⁷ They will lick dust like the serpent,
 like crawling creatures of the earth;
 they will come shuddering from their lairs.
 They will turn in dread to the LORD our God,
 and they will be afraid of You.
¹⁸ Who is a God like You, bearing iniquity and passing over transgression
 for the remnant of His inheritance?
 He does not remain angry forever,
 because He delights in benevolence.
¹⁹ He will again have compassion upon us.
 He will tread down our iniquities,
 and cast all of our sins into the depths of the sea.
²⁰ You will give faithfulness to Jacob and benevolence to Abraham, which You swore to our fathers
 from the days of old.

NAHUM

This book was likely written between 663 and 612 BC. The prophet Nahum is the author, and the style of the book is poetic. Nahum relates a divine theophany against Nineveh. This book forms a type of sequel to the book of Jonah. Its theme is the doom of Nineveh. Nineveh repented and was spared under Jonah's ministry. But when Nahum preached repentance one hundred years later, the people would not repent and were marked for destruction by the Babylonians. Nineveh fell to Babylon in 612 BC, a few years after Nahum's warning. The book can be divided into four sections: God's character, God's punishment of His enemies, the details of Nineveh's destruction, and the cause of the destruction.

1 An oracle for Nineveh, a writing of the vision of Nahum, the Elkoshite.

God's Anger With Nineveh

²The LORD is a jealous and avenging God; the LORD avenges and is furious. The LORD takes vengeance on His enemies, and He reserves it for His adversaries;
³the LORD is slow to anger and great in power, and the LORD will in no way acquit the guilty. In gale winds and a storm is His way, and clouds are the dust of His feet.
⁴He rebukes and dries up the sea, and He makes waterless all the rivers. Bashan and Carmel wither up, and the sprout of Lebanon wastes away.
⁵The mountains quake before Him, and the hills melt; the land rises up before Him, the earth and everything that dwells on it.
⁶Who can stand before His anger? Who will rise up before His burning wrath? His heat is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken up before Him.
⁷The LORD is good, a stronghold in the day of distress; and He knows those who take refuge in Him.
⁸As a flood running forth, He will bring to an end the distress, and He will pursue His adversaries into darkness.
⁹Why do you all scheme against the LORD? He will bring it to an end. It will not rise up a second time.
¹⁰Because they are like interwoven thorns and as drunkards imbibing, they are consumed like completely dry stubble.
¹¹Out of you, O Nineveh, comes one, a worthless counselor, who devises evil against the LORD.
¹²So the LORD says:
 "Even though they are full and many,

they will be cut down, and it will pass away.

Even though I have afflicted you,

I will no longer afflict you, O Judah;

¹³now I will break apart his yoke from over you, and I will tear apart your bonds."

¹⁴The LORD has given a command concerning you: "No longer will your name go forth.

I will cut off the carved image and metal image from the house of your gods.

I will prepare your grave, for you are despised."

¹⁵Look, on the mountains come the feet of him who brings good news, who proclaims peace!

Make your feasts, O Judah, and complete your vows.

For the wicked one will never again pass through your midst;

he is completely cut down.

The Fall of Nineveh

2 He who scatters has come to you.

Guard the fortifications!

Watch the road!

Prepare yourself,

and strengthen yourself!

²For the LORD is restoring the prominence of Jacob, even the prominence of Israel, for others have certainly laid waste their vines.

³The shields of his mighty men are soaked red, even the mighty men are clad in red.

In the day he prepares the chariots, they are like a fire of iron.

The cypress spears are ready.

⁴The chariots run wildly through the streets, they rush to and fro in the open areas; their appearance is like torches, they dash to and fro like lightning.

⁵He remembers his officers as they stumble about on the road;

they hurry on to the wall
 as the siege tower is set up.
 6 The holding gates are opened wide,
 and the palace washes away.
 7 It is decreed:
 She is uncovered and led away captive;
 her handmaidens shall lead her as with the voice of doves,
 beating their chests.
 8 Nineveh is like a pool
 whose waters run away.
 "Halt! Halt!" they cry,
 but no one turns back.
 9 "Plunder the silver!
 Plunder the gold!
 There is no limit to the treasure,
 or to the wealth of every precious thing."
 10 She is desolate, empty, and waste!
 Hearts melt away, and knees shake;
 pain is in all the loins, and all their faces grow pale.
 11 Where is the den of the lions,
 and the feeding place of the young lions,
 where the lion and lioness prowl,
 and the lion's cub goes, with no one to disturb them
 ?
 12 The lion tore enough food for his cubs,
 and strangled prey for his lionesses;
 he has filled his caves with prey,
 and his dens with flesh.
 13 I am against you,
 says the LORD of Hosts,
 and I will burn your chariots in smoke,
 and the sword will devour your lions.
 I will cut off your prey from the earth,
 and the voice of your messengers
 will be heard no more.

Woe to Nineveh

3 Woe to the bloody city!
 It is full of lies
 and plunder.
 The prey never departs.
 2 The noise of the whip
 and the noise of the rattling of the wheels,
 galloping horses,
 and rushing chariots!
 3 Horsemen charging with flashing sword
 and glittering spear.
 Multitude of slain,
 great number of corpses,
 dead bodies without end—
 they stumble on the corpses —
 4 because of the countless harlotries of the seductive harlot,
 the mistress of sorceries, who sells nations through her harlotries
 and families through her sorceries.

5 I am against you, says the LORD of Hosts;
 I will lift your skirts over your face,
 and I will show the nations your nakedness,
 and the kingdoms your shame.
 6 I will throw filth on you,
 and make you vile,
 and make you a spectacle.
 7 All who look at you will flee from you, and say,
 "Nineveh is devastated! Who will lament for her?"
 Where shall I seek comforters for you?
 8 Are you better than Thebes
 that sat by the Nile,
 with water around her,
 whose rampart was the sea,
 and whose wall was the water?
 9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was without limit;
 Put and Libya were her helpers.
 10 Yet she went into exile,
 she went into captivity;
 her young children were dashed to pieces
 at the head of every street;
 they cast lots for her honorable men,
 and all her great men were bound in chains.
 11 You also will be drunk;
 you will go into hiding;
 you will seek refuge from the enemy.
 12 All your fortresses are like fig trees
 with first-ripe figs:
 If they are shaken,
 they fall into the mouth of the eater.
 13 Your troops
 are women in your midst!
 The gates of your land
 are wide open to your enemies;
 fire has devoured your bars.
 14 Draw water for the siege!
 Strengthen your forts!
 Go into the clay and tread the mortar!
 Take hold of the brick mold!
 15 There the fire will devour you,
 the sword will cut you off;
 it will eat you up like the locust.
 Multiply yourselves—like the locust!
 Multiply—like the grasshopper!
 16 You have multiplied your merchants
 more than the stars of heaven.
 The locust plunders
 and flies away.
 17 Your leaders are like grasshoppers,
 your commanders like swarms of locusts,
 which camp in the hedges on a cold day;
 when the sun rises they fly away,
 and the place where they are is not known.
 18 Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria;
 Your nobles lie in the dust .
 Your people are scattered on the mountains,

and no one gathers them.
¹⁹There is no healing of your injury,
your wound is grievous.
All who hear news about you

clap their hands over you,
for upon whom has not your wickedness continually passed?

HABAKKUK

The prophet Habakkuk is the author of this book. It was likely written between 610 and 605 BC, shortly before the fall of Assyria and the rise of Babylon. Its theme relates to the question of how God can use a wicked Babylonian people to punish God's covenant people in Judah. Habakkuk prophesied to Judah concerning the impending invasion by the Chaldeans (i.e., Babylonians). Habakkuk ponders the question of how God is active with Israel and the foreign nations in the dialogue between the prophet and God. Habakkuk decides he understands little of God's activity but confesses an unwavering trust in his God. This book touches on the eternal purposes of God, His divine timing, and a day when the whole earth will be filled with the knowledge of His glory.

1 The oracle that Habakkuk the prophet saw.

Habakkuk's Complaint

² O LORD, how long shall I cry,
and You will not hear?

Or cry to You, "Violence!"
and You will not save?

³ Why do You make me see wickedness,
and cause me to see trouble?

Plundering and violence are before me;
strife and contention arise.

⁴ Therefore the law is powerless,
and justice never goes forth.

For the wicked surround the righteous;
therefore injustice proceeds.

The LORD's Answer

⁵ Look among the nations, and watch—wonder and be amazed!

For I am doing a work in your days
that you would not believe,
though it were told you.

⁶ For I am raising up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation
which marches through the breadth of the earth,
to possess dwelling places that are not theirs.

⁷ They are terrible and dreadful;
their justice and their dignity
proceed from themselves.

⁸ Their horses are swifter than leopards,
more fierce than evening wolves.

Their horsemen charge on;
their horsemen come from afar;
they fly like the eagle that hastens to eat.

⁹ They all come for violence;
their forces advance like the east wind.
They gather captives like sand.

¹⁰ They scoff at kings,
and they scorn rulers.

They deride every stronghold,

for they build up siege ramps to capture it.

¹¹ Then their mind changes,
and they transgress and commit offense;
their own power is their god.

Habakkuk's Second Complaint

¹² Are You not from everlasting,
O LORD my God, my Holy One? We will not die.

O LORD, You have appointed them for judgment;
and You, O Rock, have established them for correction.

¹³ Your eyes are too pure to look on evil,
and You cannot look on wickedness.

Why do You look on those who deal treacherously, and hold Your tongue when the wicked
devours the man who is more righteous than he?

¹⁴ You make men like fish of the sea,
like crawling things that have no ruler.

¹⁵ They bring all of them up with a hook,
they catch them in their net;
they gather them in their dragnet.

Therefore they rejoice and are glad.
¹⁶ Therefore they sacrifice to their net
and burn incense to their dragnet;
for by them their portion is extravagant,
and their food plentiful.

¹⁷ Shall they continue to empty their net,
and continually kill the nations while not sparing anyone?

2 I will stand at my watch
and station myself on the watchtower;
and I will keep watch to see what He will say to me,
and what I will answer when I am reproved.

The Just Shall Live by Faith

² And the LORD answered me:

Write the vision,
and make it plain on tablets,
that he who reads it may run.

³ For the vision is yet for an appointed time;

but it speaks of the end,
and does not lie.
If it delays, wait for it;
it will surely come, it will not delay.
4 Look, his soul is lifted up;
it is not upright in him;
but the just shall live by his faith.
5 Indeed, wine betrays the proud man,
who does not stay at home.
He enlarges his appetite as Sheol,
and like death he is never satisfied.
He gathers to himself all nations
and collects for himself all peoples.

Woe to the Wicked

6 Shall not all these take up a taunt against him, with satire and riddles, and say,
"Woe to him who increases what is not his—how long?
And to him who loads himself with heavy debts!"
7 Shall not your debtors rise up suddenly,
and those awake who oppress you?
Then you will be their plunder.
8 Because you have plundered many nations,
all the remnant of the people will plunder you,
because of the bloodshed of men and violence of the
land,
of the cities and all who live in them.
9 "Woe to him who gets evil gain for his house,
to set his nest on high,
to be delivered from the power of calamity!"
10 You have given shameful counsel to your house
by cutting off many peoples,
and forfeiting your life.
11 For the stone will cry out from the wall,
and the beam of the woodwork will answer it.
12 "Woe to him who builds a town with bloodshed and establishes a city on iniquity!"
13 Is it not from the LORD of Hosts that the people labor to feed fire,
and the nations weary themselves for nothing?
14 For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD ,
as the waters cover the seas.
15 "Woe to him who makes his neighbor drink,
pouring out your poison until they are drunk,
that you may look on their nakedness!"
16 You will be filled with shame instead of glory.
You yourself—drink and show your uncircumcision!
The cup of the LORD 's right hand will be turned
against you,
and utter shame will come on your glory!
17 The violence done to Lebanon will cover you,
as will the plunder of beasts that terrified them,
because of the bloodshed of men and violence of the
land,
of the cities and all who live in them.

18 What profit is a carved image when its maker has carved it,
a cast image, and a teacher of lies,
that its maker trusts in what he has shaped
when he makes mute idols?
19 Woe to him who says to the wood, "Awake!"
To the silent stone, "Arise!" Can it teach?
It is overlaid with gold and silver,
and there is no breath at all in it.
20 But the LORD is in His holy temple.
Let all the earth keep silence before Him.

The Prayer of Habakkuk

3 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, on Shigionoth.
2 O LORD , I have heard the report of You,
and was afraid;
O LORD , revive Your work
in the midst of the years!
In the midst of these years
make them known;
in wrath remember mercy.
3 God came from Teman,
and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah
His glory covered the heavens,
and the earth was full of His praise.
4 His brightness was like the light;
rays flashed from His hand,
and there His power was hidden.
5 Pestilence went out before Him,
and plague followed His feet.
6 He stood and measured the earth;
He looked and shook the nations.
The eternal mountains were scattered,
the perpetual hills bowed.
His ways are everlasting.
7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction;
the curtains of the land of Midian trembled.
8 Were you displeased with the rivers, O LORD ?
Was Your anger against the rivers,
and was Your wrath against the sea
when You rode on Your horses,
on Your chariots of salvation?
9 You made bare Your bow;
oaths were the arrows at Your command.
Selah
You divided the earth with the rivers.
10 The mountains saw You and trembled;
the overflowing water passed by.
The deep lifted its voice,
and lifted its hands on high.
11 The sun and moon stood still in their places;
at the light of Your arrows they went,
at the flash of Your glittering spear.
12 You marched throughout the earth in indignation;
You threshed the nations in anger.
13 You went forth to deliver Your people,
to deliver Your anointed one.
You wounded the head of the house of the wicked,

laying him bare from head to foot.

Selah

¹⁴ You pierced with his own arrows
the leaders of his villages.
They came like a whirlwind to scatter me;
their rejoicing was like devouring the poor in secret.
¹⁵ You trampled the sea with Your horses,
through the wakes of great waters.
¹⁶ I heard, and my body trembled;
my lips quivered at the sound;
rottenness entered my bones;
my legs tremble beneath me.
Yet I will wait quietly for the day
when calamity comes on the people invading us.

A Hymn of Faith

¹⁷ Though the fig tree does not blossom,
nor fruit be on the vines;
though the yield of the olive fails,
and the fields produce no food;
though the flocks are cut off from the fold,
and there be no herd in the stalls—
¹⁸ yet I will rejoice in the LORD ;
I will exult in the God of my salvation.
¹⁹ The LORD God is my strength;
He will make my feet like hinds' feet,
and He will make me walk on my high places.
To the Music Director: with my stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH

Zephaniah was likely written in the late seventh century BC. The author is the prophet Zephaniah, and the theme of this book is the Day of the Lord. Zephaniah prophesied before the reforms of King Josiah (622 BC), who brought religious and social revival to Judah after the long and disastrous reign of Manasseh. While Zephaniah pronounced God's judgment on corruption and wickedness, he also proclaimed a message of hope when Judah, referred to as daughter of Zion, would be restored. Zephaniah uses the term "Day of the " more than any other prophet. However, while he gives no details about this day, he speaks of its fearsome consequences and calls people to seek the Lord.

1 The word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

The Great Day of the LORD

2 I will utterly consume all things
on the face of the earth,
says the LORD ;
3 I will consume man and beast;
I will consume the birds of the heavens
and the fish of the sea,
and the stumbling blocks with the wicked.
I will cut off man from the face of the land,
says the LORD .
4 I will stretch out my hand against Judah,
and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
I will cut off from this place the remnant of Baal,
and the name of the idolatrous priests along with the priests,
5 and those who bow down on the roofs
to the host of heaven;
those who worship and swear oaths by the LORD
and yet swear by Milcom;
6 those who have turned back from following the LORD ,
who have not sought the LORD nor inquired of Him.
7 Be silent before the Lord GOD !
For the day of the LORD is at hand;
the LORD has prepared the sacrifice;
He has consecrated His guests.
8 On the day of the LORD 's sacrifice,
I will punish the officials
and the king's sons,
and all who clothe themselves
with foreign attire.
9 On that day I will punish all who step over the threshold, who fill their masters' houses
with violence and deceit.
10 On that day, says the LORD ,

a cry will be heard from the Fish Gate,
a wail from the Second Quarter,
and a loud crash from the hills.

11 Wail, you inhabitants of the Mortar!
For all the merchants are cut down;
all those who weigh out silver are cut off.
12 At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps,
and I will punish the men who are settled on their lees,
who say in their heart,
"The LORD will not do good, nor will He do evil."
13 Their goods will be plundered,
and their houses laid waste.
Though they build houses,
they will not inhabit them;
though they plant vineyards,
they will not drink from their wine.

The Great Day of the LORD

14 The great day of the LORD is near,
near and hastening quickly.
The sound of the day of the LORD is bitter;
the mighty man shall cry out there.
15 That day is a day of wrath,
a day of trouble and distress,
a day of ruin and desolation,
a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and blackness, 16 a day of trumpet and alarms against the fortified cities
and against the high towers.
17 I will bring distress on men,
so that they will walk like blind men.
Because they have sinned against the LORD ,
their blood will be poured out like dust,
and their flesh like dung.
18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them on the day of the LORD 's wrath.
But the whole earth will be consumed
by the fire of His jealousy,

for He will make a sudden end of all those who dwell on the earth.

Judgment on the Nations

2 Gather together, yes, gather together,
O shameless nation,
² before the decree takes effect,
before the day passes like chaff,
before the fierce anger of the LORD comes upon you,
before the day of the LORD's anger comes upon
you.
³ Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land,
who carry out His judgment.
Seek righteousness, seek humility.
Perhaps you will be hidden
on the day of the LORD's anger.
⁴ For Gaza will be forsaken,
and Ashkelon a desolation; Ashdod will be driven out at noon,
and Ekron will be uprooted.
⁵ Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast,
the nation of Kerethites!
The word of the LORD is against you,
O Canaan, land of the Philistines:
I will destroy you,
so that there will be no inhabitant.
⁶ The seacoast will be pastures,
with meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.
⁷ The coast will be for the remnant of the house of Judah,
on which they will feed.
In the houses of Ashkelon
they will lie down at evening.
For the LORD their God will visit them
and restore their fortunes.
⁸ I have heard these taunts of Moab,
and the revilings of the Ammonites,
by which they have reproached My people,
and made boasts against their territory.
⁹ Therefore, as I live,
says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel,
surely Moab will be like Sodom,
and the Ammonites like Gomorrah—
a land of weeds and salt pits,
and a perpetual desolation.
The remnant of My people will plunder them,
and the survivors of My nation will possess them.
¹⁰ This will they have for their pride, because they taunted and boasted against the people of the LORD of Hosts.
¹¹ The LORD will be dreadful to them,
for He will weaken all the gods of the earth;
men will worship Him, every one from his place,
all the lands of the nations.
¹² You also, O Ethiopians, will be slain by My sword.
¹³ And He will stretch out His hand against the north and destroy Assyria;

and He will make Nineveh a desolation,
and dry like the desert.

¹⁴ Herds will lie down in her midst,
beasts of every kind;
the cormorant and the bittern
will lodge on her pillars.
Their voice will sing in the windows;
desolation will be on the threshold;
for He will lay bare the cedar work.
¹⁵ This is the rejoicing city
that dwelt securely,
that said in her heart,
"I am, and there is no one besides me."
How has she become a desolation,
a place for beasts to lie down!
Everyone who passes by her will hiss
and shake his fist.

Woe to Jerusalem

3 Woe to her who is rebellious and defiled,
the oppressing city.
² She obeys no voice,
she receives no correction;
she does not trust in the LORD,
she does not draw near to her God.
³ Her princes within her are roaring lions;
her judges are evening wolves who leave nothing until the morning.
⁴ Her prophets are reckless,
treacherous men;
her priests have profaned the sanctuary
and done violence to the law.
⁵ The LORD is righteous in her midst;
He does no unrighteousness.
Every morning He brings His justice to light;
He does not fail,
but the unjust knows no shame.
⁶ I have cut off nations,
their strongholds are devastated;
I have made their streets desolate,
with no one passing by.
Their cities are destroyed;
there is no man, no inhabitant.
⁷ I said,
"Surely you will fear Me;
and you will receive correction."
So her dwelling will not be cut off,
according to all that I have appointed against her.
But they were more eager to corrupt all their deeds.

The Conversion of the Nations

⁸ Therefore wait for Me, declares the LORD, until the day when I rise up to seize the plunder;
for My decision is to gather nations,
to assemble kingdoms,
to pour on them My indignation,

all My fierce anger;
 for all the earth will be devoured
 with the fire of My jealousy.
⁹ For then I will restore to the peoples a pure speech that all of them may call on the name of the LORD , to serve Him with one accord.
¹⁰ From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia
 My worshippers, the daughter of My dispersed
 ones,
 will bring My offering.
¹¹ On that day you will not be ashamed
 for all your deeds by which you have transgressed
 against Me;
 for then I will remove from your midst
 those who rejoice in your pride, and you will no longer be haughty
 in My holy mountain.
¹² But I will leave in your midst
 a meek and humble people,
 and they will trust in the name of the LORD .
¹³ The remnant of Israel will do no unrighteousness,
 nor speak lies;
 nor will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth;
 for they will feed and lie down,
 and no one will make them afraid.

Israel's Song of Joy

¹⁴ Sing, O daughter of Zion!
 Shout, O Israel!
 Be glad and rejoice with all your heart,

O daughter of Jerusalem!
¹⁵ The LORD has taken away your judgments,
 He has cast out your enemies.
 The King of Israel, the LORD , is in your midst;
 you will see evil no more.
¹⁶ On that day it will be said to Jerusalem:
 Fear not, O Zion;
 let not your hands be slack.
¹⁷ The LORD your God is in your midst,
 a Mighty One, who will save.
 He will rejoice over you with gladness,
 He will renew you with His love,
 He will rejoice over you with singing.
¹⁸ I will gather those who grieve
 for the appointed festival,
 which is a reproach and burden on you.
¹⁹ At that time I will deal with all who oppress you;
 I will save the lame
 and gather the outcast;
 I will give them praise and fame
 in every land where they have been put to shame.
²⁰ At that time I will bring you in,
 at the time when I gather you;
 for I will make you renowned and praised among all peoples of the earth,
 when I restore your fortunes
 before your eyes,
 says the LORD .

HAGGAI

Written in approximately 520 BC by the prophet Haggai, the theme of this book is the rebuilding of the temple. Haggai, a contemporary of Zechariah, was one of the first post-captivity prophets. His ministry was to rebuke the returned exiles for their delay in rebuilding the temple as well as to encourage them to begin working to consecrate the sacrificial system. The five messages that make up this book are unique in that they are precisely dated—the year, month, and day are specified based on the reign of the Persian king, Darius. This small book can be divided according to the five messages—two of rebuke and three of encouragement. Haggai prophesied that the glory of the restored temple would prosper the land and provide for the final overthrow of the surrounding nations.

God's Command to Rebuild the Temple

1 In the second year of King Darius, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying,

² Thus says the LORD of Hosts: These people say, The time has not yet come to rebuild the house of the LORD.

³ Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying: ⁴ Is it time for you yourselves to live in paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?

⁷ Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Consider your ways. ⁸ Go up to the mountain and bring wood and rebuild the house, that I may take pleasure in it and be glorified, says the LORD. ⁹ You looked for much, and it came to little; and when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why? says the LORD of Hosts. Because of My house that lies in ruins while each of you runs to his own house. ¹⁰ Therefore the heavens above you have withheld the dew, and the earth has withheld its crops. ¹¹ I called for a drought on the land and the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on what the ground brings forth, on men, on livestock, and on all the labor of your hands.

The People Obey God's Command

¹² Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him. And the people feared the LORD.

¹³ Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD, spoke the message of the LORD to the people, saying: I am with you, says the LORD. ¹⁴ And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people. And they came and worked on the house of the LORD of Hosts their God, ¹⁵ on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

The Future Glory of the Temple

2 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying: ² Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to all the remnant of the people, saying: ³ Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not, in your eyes, as nothing in comparison? ⁴ Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, says the LORD, and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong all you people of the land, says the LORD. Work, for I am with you, says the LORD of Hosts. ⁵ According to the covenant that I made with you when you came out of Egypt, so My Spirit remains among you. Do not fear.

⁶ For thus says the LORD of Hosts: Once more, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and earth, the sea and dry land. ⁷ And I will shake all the nations, and they will come with the wealth of all nations, and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of Hosts. ⁸ The silver is mine, and the gold is Mine, says the LORD of Hosts. ⁹ The glory of this latter house will be greater than the former, says the LORD of Hosts. And in this place I will give peace, says the LORD of Hosts.

Blessings on a Defiled People

¹⁰ On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying: ¹¹ Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Now ask the priests concerning the law, saying, ¹² If a man carries holy meat in the fold of his garment, and touches with his fold bread or stew, or wine or oil, or any food, will it become holy?

The priests answered, "No."

¹³ Then Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, will it become unclean?"

The priests answered, "It will become unclean."

¹⁴ Then Haggai said, So it is with this people, and so it is with this nation before Me, says the LORD, and so with every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

¹⁵ Now consider from this day onward: from before stone was laid upon stone in the temple of the LORD, ¹⁶ from those days when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw fifty measures, there were but twenty. ¹⁷ I struck you and all the labor of your hands with blight and mildew and hail; yet you did not turn to Me. ¹⁸ Consider from this day onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day when the foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid, consider: ¹⁹ Is the seed yet in the barn? As of yet, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have yielded nothing.

But from this day on I will bless you.

The Promise of God to Zerubbabel

²⁰ The word of the LORD came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month: ²¹ Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth. ²² I will overthrow the throne of the kingdoms. I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overthrow the chariots and their riders. The horses and their riders will come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

²³ On that day, says the LORD of Hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel My servant, the son of Shealtiel, says the LORD, and I will make you like a signet ring; for I have chosen you, says the LORD of Hosts.

ZECHARIAH

Zechariah was probably written between 520 and 470 BC. The prophet Zechariah is the author. The theme of this book is the restoration of Jerusalem and the temple in chapters 1–8, and the judgment and restoration of the Gentile nations around Judah in chapters 9–14. Zechariah’s message covers events beginning with the rebuilding of the temple and concluding with the culmination of God’s kingdom on the earth. While Haggai encouraged the returned Jewish exiles to rebuild the temple, Zechariah encouraged them to repent and renew their covenant with God and provided images for what a restored land would look like. Zechariah reminded the people of God’s abiding comfort and care and His faithfulness to abide by His covenant with Israel. Hope for the coming messianic king was rekindled during Zechariah’s ministry. The book ends with the promise that the Lord will establish His rule over all the earth.

1 In the eighth month, during the second year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah, son of Berekiah, son of Iddo, saying:

A Call to Repentance

²The LORD was very angry with your fathers, ³so you will say to them, Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Return to Me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of Hosts. ⁴Do not be like your fathers to whom the former prophets cried, “Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Turn away from your evil ways and deeds!” But they did not listen or pay attention to Me, says the LORD. ⁵So where are your fathers, and do the prophets live forever? ⁶Surely My words and statutes that I commanded to My servants, the prophets, did they not persuade your fathers? They turned back and said, “Whatever the LORD of Hosts planned to do to us according to our ways and deeds, so He has done to us.”

Vision of the Horsemen

⁷On the twenty-fourth day, in the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, during the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah, son of Berekiah, son of Iddo:

⁸I saw during the night a man riding on a red horse. But he was standing among the myrtle trees that were in the ravine, and behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses.

⁹And I said, “What are these, my lord?”

Then the angel who was speaking with me said, “I will show you what these are.”

¹⁰Then the man who was standing among the myrtle trees responded and said, “These are the ones whom the LORD has sent out to walk to and fro on the earth.”

¹¹They answered and said to the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, “We have gone to and fro on the earth, and all the earth is resting and peaceful.”

¹²Then the angel of the LORD said, “How much longer, O LORD of Hosts, will You withhold mercy from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah with which You have been angry these seventy years?” ¹³And the LORD answered the angel speaking to me with good and comforting words.

¹⁴So the angel who spoke with me said, Cry out, saying: Thus says the LORD of Hosts: I have a great jealousy for Jerusalem and Zion. ¹⁵And I have a great anger for those nations who are at ease, for while I was angry but a little, they helped to increase evil.

¹⁶Therefore thus says the LORD: I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy, and My house will be built in it, says the LORD of Hosts, and a measuring line will be stretched over Jerusalem.

¹⁷Cry out again, saying, Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Yet again My cities will overflow with goodness, and again the LORD will comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem.

The Vision of the Horns and Craftsmen

¹⁸And I then lifted up my eyes, and I saw four horns. ¹⁹And I said to the angel speaking to me, “What are these?”

And he answered, “These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

²⁰Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen. ²¹And I said, “What are these coming to do?”

And he said, “These are the horns that scattered Judah after which no one could raise his head; and these four craftsmen have come to terrify and throw down the horns of the nations who lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.”

The Vision of the Man With the Measuring Line

2 And I lifted up my eyes, and I saw a man with a measuring cord in his hand. 2 And I said, "Where are you going?"

And he responded, "To measure Jerusalem and to note what is its width and length."

3 Then the angel who was speaking with me went out, and then another angel came out to meet him, 4 and said to him, "Run, say to this young man: Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and animals in her. 5 And I will be like a wall of fire all around her, says the LORD, and I will be as gold in her midst."

Interlude: An Appeal to the Exiles

6 Up, up, flee from the northern land, says the LORD, for I have spread you abroad like the four winds of heaven, says the LORD.

7 Deliver yourself, O Zion, you who live with the daughter of Babylon. 8 For thus says the LORD of Hosts: He has sent Me after glory to the nations which plunder you, for he who touches you touches the apple of His eye. 9 For I will swing My hand against them, and they will become plunder for their servants. Then you will know well that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me.

10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion, for I am coming and will dwell in your midst, says the LORD. 11 And many nations will join themselves with the LORD in that day, and they will be My people. And I will reside in your midst, and you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me to you. 12 And the LORD will possess Judah as His portion in the holy land, and He will again choose Jerusalem. 13 Be still, all flesh before the LORD, for He is stirred from His holy habitation.

The Vision of Joshua the High Priest

3 Then he showed me Joshua, the high priest, standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him. 2 And the LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! The LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebukes you! Is this not a burning brand taken out of the fire?"

3 Now Joshua had on filthy garments and was standing before the angel. 4 And he said to those standing before him, "Take off his filthy garments."

Then he said, "See that I have removed from you your iniquity, and I will clothe you with rich robes."

5 And I said, "Let them place a pure turban on his head." So they put a pure turban on his head and garments on him. And the angel of the LORD was standing by.

6 And the angel of the LORD admonished Joshua, saying, 7 "Thus says the LORD of Hosts: If you walk in My ways and keep My charge, then you will judge My house and guard My courts, and I will give to you access to these who are standing here.

8 "Hear this, O Joshua the high priest, you and your friends sitting before you, for these men are a sign. I am bringing My servant, the Branch. 9 The stone that I have set before Joshua, on that single stone is seven eyes. And I will engrave an inscription, says the LORD of Hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of this land in one day.

10 "On that day, says the LORD of Hosts, each of you will invite your companion to come and sit under the vine and under the fig tree."

The Vision of the Gold Lampstand

4 And the angel who was speaking with me returned and woke me up like a man who is roused from his sleep. 2 And he said to me, "What do you see?"

And I responded, "I see a completely gold lampstand and a bowl at its top, with seven lights on it, and seven pipes on it for each lamp in order to light them. 3 And there are two olive trees next to it, one on the right of the bowl and one on the left."

4 So I answered and I asked the angel speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?"

5 Then the angel speaking with me responded, "Do you really not know what these are?"

And I said, "No, my lord."

6 And he said to me: "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel, saying: Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit, says the LORD of Hosts.

7 "Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will be made level ground, and he will bring out the top stone amidst shouting of 'Grace! Grace to the stone!'"

8 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 9 "The hands of Zerubbabel have established the foundation of this house, and they will even complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent Me to all of you.

10 "For who has despised the day of small things? These seven will rejoice and see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are the eyes of the LORD, which survey to and fro throughout the earth."

11 Then I answered and I asked, "What are these two olive trees on the right and left of the lampstand?"

12 And I asked a second time, "What are these two branches of the olive trees that are next to the two golden pipes from which they pour out the gold oil?"

13 And he asked me, "Do you not know what these are?"

I responded, "No, my lord."

14 He answered, "These are the two anointed ones who stand by the Lord of all the earth."

The Vision of the Flying Scroll

5 Then I turned and lifted up my eyes and saw a flying scroll.

2 He asked me, "What do you see?"

And I responded, "I see a flying scroll with its length as twenty cubits and its width as ten cubits." †

³ He said to me, "This is the curse going out over the surface of all the land. Everyone who steals will be purged according to the writing on one side, and everyone who swears falsely will be purged according to the writing on the other side. ⁴ I will send it out, says the LORD of Hosts, and it will enter the house of the thief, and the house of him who swears falsely by My name. It will remain in his house and consume it, with its timber and stones."

The Vision of the Woman in the Basket

⁵ Then the angel who was speaking with me came out, saying, "Now lift up your eyes and see what this is that is going forth."

⁶ And I asked, "What is it?" He said, "This is the ephah basket going forth. This represents their iniquity throughout all the land."

⁷ The lead cover was lifted, and there was a woman sitting in the ephah basket. ⁸ And he said, "This is wickedness." And he threw her back into the basket and then thrust back the lead stone over its opening.

⁹ Then I lifted my eyes and saw coming forward two women. There was wind in their wings, and the wings were like those of a stork, and they lifted up and carried the ephah basket between heaven and earth.

¹⁰ Then I said to the angel who was speaking with me, "Where are they carrying the basket?"

¹¹ He responded, "To build a house for it in the land of Shinar. And when the house is established, the basket will be set there on a pedestal."

The Vision of the Four Chariots

⁶ And I turned around and lifted my eyes, and I saw four chariots coming out from between two mountains, which were bronze mountains. ² The first chariot had red horses, the second black horses, ³ the third white horses, and the fourth chariot dappled horses—all of them strong. ⁴ Then I answered the angel speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?"

⁵ The angel responded, "These are the four winds of heaven going out after standing before the Lord of all the earth. ⁶ The one with the black horses is going toward the north country, the white ones are going after them, while the dappled ones are going toward the south country."

⁷ When the strong horses went out, they were seeking to go to and fro throughout the earth. And he said, "Go out to and fro throughout the earth." And they went out to walk to and fro throughout the earth.

⁸ Then he cried out to me, "Look, the ones going out to the northern land have given rest to my Spirit in the north."

† About 30 feet long and 15 feet wide, or 9 meters long and 4.5 meters wide.

The Coronation of Joshua

⁹ Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ¹⁰ Take from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah who have come from Babylon, and go on that day to the house of Josiah, the son of Zephaniah. ¹¹ Take the silver and gold and make a crown, and set it on the head of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest. ¹² And say to him: Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Here is a man whose name is Branch; for he shall branch out from his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD. ¹³ It is he who shall build the temple of the LORD; he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne. He shall be a priest on his throne, and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. ¹⁴ And the crown shall be for a memorial to Helem, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah, in the temple of the Lord. ¹⁵ And those who are far off shall come and help to build the temple of the LORD; and you all shall know that the LORD of Hosts has sent me to you. This shall happen if you diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

A Call for Justice and Mercy

⁷ And in the fourth year of King Darius, on the fourth day of the ninth month, Kislev, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah. ² Those in Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem-Melek and their men to entreat the graces of the LORD, ³ saying to the priests and prophets of the house of the LORD of Hosts, "Should I weep and dedicate myself during the fifth month as I have done in these many years?"

⁴ Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ⁵ Say to all the people in the land and to the priests: When you fasted and lamented during the fifth and seventh months for these seventy years, did you really fast for Me? ⁶ And when you eat and when you drink, do you not eat and drink for yourselves? ⁷ Were these not the very words that the former prophets proclaimed when Jerusalem dwelled with ease along with her surrounding cities, and when the Negev and the Lowland were inhabited?

Punishment for Rejecting God's Demands

⁸ And the word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying: ⁹ Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Execute true justice, show mercy and compassion, every man to his brother. ¹⁰ Do not oppress the widow, orphan, sojourner, or poor. And let none of you contemplate evil deeds in your hearts against his brother.

¹¹ But they refused to pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder, and stopped their ears so that they should not hear. ¹² They made their hearts hard like a diamond so as not to hear the instruction and words that the LORD of Hosts sent by His Spirit through the former prophets, and there was great anger from the LORD of Hosts.

¹³ Therefore it happened that as I called, and they would not hear, so they called, and I would not hear, says the LORD of Hosts. ¹⁴ So I scattered them about among all the nations whom they did not know, so the land was left desolate behind them with no one coming or going. And they made a desirable land desolate.

The Holy City of Peace and Prosperity

8 And the word of the LORD came, saying: ² Thus says the LORD of Hosts: I am exceedingly jealous for Zion, and with great wrath I am jealous for her.

³ Thus says the LORD: I have returned to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem will be called a city of faithfulness and the mountain of the LORD of Hosts, the holy mountain.

⁵ And the plazas of the city will be filled with young boys and girls playing in her open places.

⁶ Thus says the LORD of Hosts: If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, will it also be marvelous in My eyes? says the LORD of Hosts.

⁷ Thus says the LORD of Hosts: I will deliver My people from the eastern lands and from the western lands. ⁸ And I will bring them, and they will reside in Jerusalem, and they will be for Me as a people, and I will be for them as God, with faithfulness and righteousness.

⁹ Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Let your hands be strengthened, whoever is hearing these words in these days, from the mouth of the prophets who were there in the day that the house of the LORD of Hosts was founded, that the temple might be built. ¹⁰ For before those days there were no wages for a man nor any hire for an animal; and there was no peace from an enemy for him who went out or came in; for I set every man against his neighbor. ¹¹ But now I will not be as in the former days against this remnant people, says the LORD of Hosts.

¹² For sowing will be done in peace, and the vine will produce its fruit, and the ground will provide its produce, and the heavens will give their rain. And I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all of these benefits. ¹³ And as you have been like a curse among the nations, O house of Israel and house of Judah, I will deliver you, and you will be a blessing. Fear not, and strengthen your hands!

¹⁴ Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Just as I had determined to punish you when your fathers incited Me to wrath, says the LORD of Hosts, I did not relent. ¹⁵ So again have I purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear!

¹⁶ These are the things you will do: Speak truth each to his neighbor, and make judgments in your gates that are for truth, and justice, and peace. ¹⁷ Let none of you consider evil plans in your heart against your neighbor, and do not love false oaths, for I hate all these things, says the LORD.

¹⁸ And the word of the LORD of Hosts came to me, saying: ¹⁹ Thus says the LORD of Hosts: The fast during the fourth and fifth months, and the fasts during the seventh and tenth months, will become rejoicing and joy and pleasant feasts for the house of Judah. So love what brings truth and peace.

²⁰ Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Peoples will still come, even those who live in many cities. ²¹ Those who live in one city will journey to another, saying, "Let us surely go to seek the LORD of Hosts. I myself am going." ²² Many peoples and strong nations will seek out the LORD of Hosts in Jerusalem and to entreat the favor of the LORD.

²³ Thus says the LORD of Hosts: In those days ten men from every language of the nations will take hold of the garment of a Jew, saying, "Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you."

Judgment on Israel's Enemies

9 An oracle of the word of the LORD that is against the land of Hadrak, and Damascus is the place where it will rest. For the eyes of men and the tribes of Israel are on the LORD.

² Also Hamath borders it, even Tyre and Sidon, cities that are very wise.

³ Tyre has built a rampart for herself and stored up silver like it were dust, and even gold like it were mud in the streets.

⁴ The Lord will dispossess her of her possessions and strike down her power in the sea, and she will be devoured with fire.

⁵ Ashkelon will observe this and fear; Gaza as well and will writhe in anguish; even Ekron, her hope will be confounded.

The king of Gaza will perish, and no one will inhabit Ashkelon.

⁶ A mongrel people will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut down the pride of Philistia.

⁷ I will take away the bloodshed from its mouth, and the abominations from between its teeth. Even it will be a remnant for our God.

It will be like a tribe of a clan in Judah, and Ekron like the Jebusites.

⁸ Then I will make camp at My house with a garrison, so that no one can pass back and forth.

And no oppressor will pass through them, for now I see with My eyes.

The Coming King of Zion

⁹ Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion! And cry aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! See, your king is coming to you; he is righteous and able to deliver, he is humble and riding on a donkey, a colt, the offspring of a donkey.

¹⁰ I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem;
 and the bow for battle will be cut off.
 He will speak peace to the nations;
 and his dominion will be from one sea to another,
 and from the Great River to the ends of the earth.
¹¹ And as for you, because of the blood of your covenant,
 I will send your prisoners from the empty, waterless pits.
¹² Return to your stronghold, prisoners who now have hope.
 Today I declare that I will return to you a double portion.
¹³ Because I have bent Judah as My bow and fitted the bow with Ephraim.
 I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece,
 and will set you like the sword of a warrior.
¹⁴ Then the LORD will appear over them,
 and His arrow will go out like lightning.
 The Lord GOD will sound His trumpet, and will march forth like storm winds of southern Teman.
¹⁵ The LORD of Hosts will protect them.
 They will devour up
 and subdue them with stone slingers.
 And they will drink and make noise as with wine;
 they will be filled with blood as a bowl,
 saturated like the corners of the altar.
¹⁶ The LORD their God will deliver them that day
 like the flock of His people.
 For like jewels embedded in a crown,
 they will shine in His land.
¹⁷ For how great is His goodness, and how great His beauty!
 There will be grain for the young men
 and new wine to prosper the young women.

The Restoration of Judah and Israel

10 Ask for rain from the LORD
 during the season of the latter spring rains.
 And the LORD will make the storm winds;
 and He will give them showers of rain;
 all will have vegetation in the field.
² For the household Teraphim idols speak wicked-
 ness,
 and the diviners envision lies.
 They utter false dreams,
 and provide comfort that does not last.
 So the people wander about like sheep;
 they are afflicted because there is no shepherd.
³ My anger burns against the shepherds,
 and I will visit judgment on the male goats.
 For the LORD of Hosts will visit His flock, the house of Judah,
 and will make them like His majestic horse in battle.

⁴ From him comes the cornerstone,
 and from him the tent peg.
 From him comes the bow for battle,
 and from him every ruler goes out, all these together.
⁵ And they will be as mighty men,
 who trample down in the muddy streets in battle.
 They will fight because the LORD is with them,
 and He will put to shame those riding on horses.
⁶ I will make strong the house of Judah,
 and will deliver the house of Joseph.
 I will restore them
 because I have compassion on them.
 They will be like
 I had never rejected them;
 for I am the LORD their God,
 and I will respond to them.
⁷ Then Ephraim shall be like a mighty man,
 and their hearts shall rejoice as with wine.
 Their children shall see this and be glad;
 their hearts shall rejoice in the LORD .
⁸ I will whistle to them
 and gather them in,
 for I have ransomed them;
 they will be numerous as they were numerous before.
⁹ When I scatter them among the nations,
 they will remember Me in the distant lands;
 they will live with their children
 and then return.
¹⁰ I will bring them home from the land of Egypt,
 and gather them from Assyria.
 I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon,
 until there is no room for them.
¹¹ He will pass through the sea of distress,
 and will put down the waves in the sea:
 All the depths of the Nile will be dried up;
 and the arrogance of Assyria will be brought down,
 and the scepter of Egypt will turn away.
¹² I will make them strong in the LORD ,
 and they will go to and fro in His name,
 says the LORD .

11 Open your doors, O Lebanon,
 so the fire can consume your cedar.
² Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen;
 the majestic trees are destroyed.
 Wail, O oaks of Bashan, because the unassailable forest has been brought
 down.
³ There is the sound of wailing shepherds,
 because their glory is ruined.
There is the sound of roaring lions,
 because the pride of Jordan is ruined.

Two Kinds of Shepherds

⁴ Thus says the LORD my God: Shepherd the flock of slaughter. ⁵ The ones who buy them then slaughter them and have no guilt, and those who sell them say,

"Blessed is the LORD because I am rich." Their own shepherds do not take pity on them. ⁶ For I will no longer have pity on those who dwell in the land, says the LORD. But I will cause each of them to fall into the hands of his neighbor, even into the hands of his king. They will crush the land, and I will not deliver any from their hands.

⁷ So I shepherded the flock that was for slaughter, even the afflicted of the flock. And I took for myself two staffs. One I called Favor and the other I gave the name Union. So I pastured the flock. ⁸ I destroyed the three shepherds in the span of one month.

For my soul was impatient with them, and their souls detested me. ⁹ Then I said, "I will not shepherd you. What is to die, let it die. What is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed. Let those who are left devour each other's flesh."

¹⁰ I took the staff named Favor and cut it into pieces, to break the covenant that I made with all the peoples. ¹¹ So it was broken that day, and the afflicted of the flock were watching me and knew that this was the word of the LORD.

¹² Then I said to them, "If this is good in your eyes, then give my wages to me, but if not, then keep it." They weighed my wages at thirty pieces of silver.

¹³ Then the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter, the splendid price by which I was valued by them." So I took the thirty silver pieces and threw them to the house of the LORD to the potter.

¹⁴ Then I cut up the second staff, Union, to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵ Then the LORD said to me: Take for yourself again the vessels carried by a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶ I am raising up a shepherd in the land who will not care for those who are perishing, nor seek the young, nor heal the broken, nor feed those who are standing still. But he will eat the flesh of the fat and tear their hoofs in pieces.

¹⁷ Woe to this worthless shepherd who abandons his flock.
May the sword take his arm and right eye;
may his arm surely wither up,
and his right eye become blind.

The Deliverance of Judah

12 The oracle of the word of the LORD against Israel. Thus says the LORD, the One who stretches out the heavens and establishes the earth and forms the spirit of man within him: ² I am going to make Jerusalem a cup of reeling before all the surrounding nations. And when there is a siege against Judah, it is also against Jerusalem. ³ And it will be on that day that I will set Jerusalem as a weighty stone to all the peoples. All who carry it will surely gash themselves, and all the nations of the land will be gathered against it. ⁴ On that day I will strike every horse with confusion and its rider with madness, but for the house of Judah I will keep My eyes open although I will strike with blindness every horse of the peoples.

⁵ Then the clans of Judah will say in their hearts, "There is strength for us with those residing in Jerusalem by the LORD of Hosts, their God."

⁷ The LORD will deliver the tents of Judah as before, so that the glory of the house of David and the glory of those dwelling in Jerusalem will not eclipse Judah.

⁸ On that day the LORD will defend those residing in Jerusalem; and even the one who stumbles among them will be as David on that day. And the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the LORD going out before them. ⁹ On that day I will seek to destroy all the nations who come out against Jerusalem.

Mourning for Him Whom They Have Pierced

¹⁰ And I will pour out on the house of David and over those dwelling in Jerusalem a spirit of favor and supplication so that they look to Me, whom they have pierced through. And they will mourn over him as one mourns for an only child and weep bitterly over him as a firstborn. ¹¹ On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as that of Hadad Rimmon in the plain of Megiddo. ¹² The land will mourn with each family by itself: the family of the house of David by themselves, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by themselves, and their wives by themselves; ¹³ the family of the house of Levi by themselves, and their wives by themselves; the family of Shimei by themselves, and their wives also by themselves; ¹⁴ and all the families that remain, each by itself and their wives by themselves.

The Cleansing of God's People

13 On that day there will be a spring opened up for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and impurity.

² And on that day, says the LORD of Hosts, I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, and they will not be remembered any more. And I will also remove from the land the prophets and the unclean spirit.

³ And it will be if a man again prophesies, then his father and mother who gave birth to him will say, "You will not live because you speak deception in the name of the LORD." Then when he prophesies, his father and mother will pierce him through.

⁴ On that day each prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies. He will not put on a robe of coarse hair in order to deceive. ⁵ But he will say, "I am not a prophet. I am a man who works the ground, for a man purchased me when I was young." ⁶ If someone asks, "What are these wounds on your arms?" he will say, "I was struck in the house of my close friends."

Striking the Shepherd, Scattering the Sheep

⁷“Awake, O sword, against My shepherd and the man of My association,” says the LORD of Hosts. Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will scatter. I will turn My hand against the small ones. ⁸And it will happen in all the land, says the LORD, that two-thirds will be cut off and die, and one-third will be left in the land. ⁹And I will bring this one-third left into the fire, and will refine them as the refinement of silver, and will test them as the testing of gold. They will call on My name, and I will answer them. I will say, “They are My people”; and they will say, “The LORD is my God.”

The Day of the LORD

14 A day of the LORD is coming when your spoil will be divided in your midst. ²For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem for battle. The city will be captured and the houses plundered and the women ravished. Half of the city will go to exile, but the remainder of the people will not be cut off from the city. ³Then the LORD will go out and fight those nations as He fights in the day of war. ⁴On that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which is to the east of Jerusalem. And from east to west the Mount of Olives will be split in two halves by a very great valley so that one half moves to the north and the other to the south. ⁵And you will flee to my mountain valley, for the mountain valley will reach to Azal. You will flee just like you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come and all His holy ones with you. ⁶And on that day there will be no light. The lights will diminish. ⁷And there will be one day known to the LORD, neither during the day nor the night, but at the evening time there will be light. ⁸On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half to the Dead Sea and the other half to the Mediterranean Sea. This will happen for the summer as well as the winter.

⁹And the LORD will be king over all the earth. In that day it will be—“The LORD is one,” and His name is one.

¹⁰All the land will be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon to the south of Jerusalem. But Jerusalem will rise and dwell in her place from the Benjamin Gate to the place of the Old Gate, to the Corner Gate, and then from the Tower of Hananel to the winepress of the king. ¹¹And people will live there, and she will never again be devoted for destruction. Jerusalem will reside in security.

¹⁶Then it will be that all the nations who have come against Jerusalem and survived will go up each year to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁷And it will happen that if any of the families of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, then there will not be rain for them. ¹⁸If the family of Egypt does not go up and enter in, they shall have no rain. This will be the plague with which the LORD strikes the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁹This will be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

²⁰On that day “HOLY TO THE LORD” will be engraved on the bells of the horses. And the pots in the house of the LORD will be as the basins before the altar.

²¹And every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the LORD of Hosts so that all who come to sacrifice will take from those pots and boil the meat in them. And on that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of Hosts.

MALACHI

The book of Malachi was likely written between 440 and 400 BC. The prophet Malachi is the author. The theme is largely focused on the restoration of the covenant blessings to the land and people through a proper priestly and sacrificial system. While the temple had been rebuilt and a form of worship had been restored, still much was lacking in the relationship between the Judean people and their God. Malachi calls the people to repentance regarding the priesthood, which had become corrupt; worship, which had become routine; divorce, which was widespread; social justice, which was ignored; and tithing, which was neglected. The book closes with the call to remember the Law of Moses and to anticipate the coming of an Elijah figure.

1 The oracle of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

Israel Preferred to Edom

² I have loved you, says the LORD.

But you say, "How have You loved us?"

Was not Esau Jacob's brother? says the LORD. Yet I have loved Jacob; ³ but Esau I have hated, and I have made his mountains a desolation and left his inheritance for the jackals of the desert.

⁴ Whereas Edom says, "We are impoverished, but we will rebuild the ruins," thus says the LORD of Hosts: They may build, but I will tear down. They will be called the Wicked Territory, and the people against whom the LORD has indignation forever. ⁵ Your eyes will see this, and you will say, "Great is the LORD, beyond the border of Israel!"

Profane Offerings

⁶ A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is My fear? says the LORD of Hosts to you, O priests, who despise My name. But you say, "How have we despised Your name?"

⁷ You offer defiled food on My altar, but say, "How have we defiled You?"

By saying, "The table of the LORD is contemptible."

⁸ When you offer the blind as a sacrifice, is it not evil? When you offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? Offer it now to your governor! Would he be pleased with you, or accept you? says the LORD of Hosts.

⁹ But now entreat God's favor, that He may be gracious to us. With such offerings from your hands, will He accept you favorably? says the LORD of Hosts.

¹⁰ Who is there among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on My altar in vain? I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of Hosts, nor will I accept an offering from your hand.

¹¹ For from the rising of the sun to its setting, My name will be great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to My name, and a pure offering.

For My name will be great among the nations, says the LORD of Hosts.

¹² But you profane it, in that you say, "The table of the Lord is defiled, and its fruit, that is, its food is contemptible." ¹³ You also say, "What a weariness it is," and you snort at it, says the LORD of Hosts.

You bring in what is stolen, the lame, or the sick; thus you bring an offering! Should I accept this from your hand? says the LORD. ¹⁴ But cursed be the deceiver who has in his flock a male, and vows, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished. For I am a great king, says the LORD of Hosts, and My name is to be feared among the nations.

Divine Warnings to the Priests

2 And now, O priests, this commandment is for you. ² If you will not listen, and if you will not take it to heart to give honor to My name, says the LORD of Hosts, I will send a curse on you and I will curse your blessings. Yes, I have cursed them already, because you do not take it to heart.

³ I rebuke your descendants, and spread refuse on your faces, the refuse of your solemn feasts, and you will be taken away with it. ⁴ And you will know that I have sent this command to you, that My covenant with Levi may remain, says the LORD of Hosts. ⁵ My covenant with him was for life and peace, and I gave them to him. With awe he feared Me, and he was reverent before My name. ⁶ True instruction was in his mouth, and injustice was not found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and with uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity.

⁷ For a priest's lips should preserve knowledge, and people should seek the law from his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of Hosts. ⁸ But you have departed from the way. You have caused many to stumble at the law. You have violated the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of Hosts. ⁹ So I have made you contemptible and base before all the people, because you have not kept My ways, but have shown partiality in the law.

The Covenant Profaned

¹⁰ Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously with one another, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

¹¹ Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination has been committed in Israel and Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD, which He loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. ¹² May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob any descendant of the man who does this, teacher and student, yet who brings an offering to the LORD of Hosts.

¹³ This is the second thing you do: You cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping and crying out, because He no longer regards the offering, nor receives it with good will from your hand. ¹⁴ Yet you say, "Why?" It is because the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously. Yet she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

¹⁵ Did He not make them one, having a remnant of the Spirit? And why one? He seeks godly offspring. So take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously.

¹⁶ For the LORD, the God of Israel, says that He hates divorce; for it covers one's garment with violence, says the LORD of Hosts.

Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously.

Injustice Committed

¹⁷ You have wearied the LORD with your words.

Yet you say, "How have we wearied Him?"

When you say, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He delights in them," or, "Where is the God of justice?"

The Coming Messenger

3 I will send My messenger, and he will prepare the way before Me. And the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple, even the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight. He is coming, says the LORD of Hosts.

² But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap. ³ He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them like gold and silver, and they will present to the LORD offerings in righteousness. ⁴ Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

⁵ Then I will draw near to you for judgment. I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against the perjurers, against those who oppress the hired worker in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, against those who turn aside the stranger, and do not fear Me, says the LORD of Hosts.

Withholding Tithes

⁶ For I am the LORD, I do not change; therefore you, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed. ⁷ From the days of your fathers you have gone away from My ordinances and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of Hosts.

But you say, "How shall we return?"

⁸ Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me.

But you say, "How have we robbed You?"

In tithes and offerings. ⁹ You are cursed with a curse, your whole nation, for you are robbing Me. ¹⁰ Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this, says the LORD of Hosts, if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing, that there will not be room enough to receive it. ¹¹ I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, so that it will not destroy the fruit of your ground, and the vines in your field will not fail to bear fruit, says the LORD of Hosts. ¹² Then all the nations will call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land, says the LORD of Hosts.

¹³ Your words have been hard against Me, says the LORD.

Yet you say, "What have we spoken against You?"

¹⁴ You said, "It is vain to serve God. What profit is it that we have kept His ordinance, and that we have walked as mourners before the LORD of Hosts? ¹⁵ And now we call the proud blessed, for those who do wickedness are built up; they even test God and escape."

The Reward of the Faithful

¹⁶ Then those who feared the LORD spoke to one another. The LORD listened and heard them, and a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear the LORD and who esteem His name.

¹⁷ They shall be Mine, says the LORD of Hosts, on the day when I make up My jewels. And I will spare them as a man spares his son who serves him. ¹⁸ Then you will again discern between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

The Great Day of the LORD

4 Surely the day is coming, burning like an oven; all the proud, yes, all evildoers will be stubble. The day that is coming will burn them up, says the LORD of Hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. ² But for you who fear My name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its wings. You will go out and grow up like calves from the stall. ³ And you will tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I do this, says the LORD of Hosts.

⁴ Remember the Law of Moses, My servant, the statutes and judgments which I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel.

⁵ See, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreaded day of the LORD.

⁶ He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.

MATTHEW

According to tradition, the apostle Matthew wrote the Gospel that bears his name between AD 50 and 70, in Judea, to Jewish Christians in Antioch of Syria; it also circulated widely to other churches, such as those in Israel. It is therefore helpful for the reader to become familiar with the Jewish religion before reading this Gospel. A reading of the first five books of the Old Testament, known as the Pentateuch, is a good start. Matthew was called Levi, the son of Alphaeus and brother of James. He was a tax collector and one of the twelve apostles. He supposedly preached in Judea for fifteen years and then in other lands. It is unknown whether or not he suffered martyrdom. The concept of the promised Messiah (the Anointed One, the Christ, and King) is the focus of this study. The Gospel of Matthew emphasizes Jesus Christ as the fulfillment of the Old Testament Scriptures and as the Davidic Messiah.

The Genealogy of Jesus Christ

Lk 3:23-38

- 1 The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the son of Abraham:
- 2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers.
- 3 Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, Perez the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Ram.
- 4 Ram was the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon.
- 5 Salmon was the father of Boaz by Rahab, Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse.
- 6 Jesse was the father of David the king. David the king was the father of Solomon, by her who had been the wife of Uriah.
- 7 Solomon was the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of Asa.
- 8 Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah.
- 9 Uzziah was the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father of Hezekiah.
- 10 Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, and Amon the father of Josiah.
- 11 Josiah was the father of Jeconiah and his brothers about the time they were exiled to Babylon.
- 12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel, and Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel.
- 13 Zerubbabel was the father of Abiud, Abiud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor.

14 Azor was the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Akim, and Akim the father of Eliud.

15 Eliud was the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob.

16 And Jacob was the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, from David until the exile to Babylon are fourteen generations, and from the exile in Babylon to Christ are fourteen generations.

The Birth of Jesus Christ

Lk 2:1-7

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ happened this way: After His mother Mary was engaged to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child by the Holy Spirit. 19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man and not willing to make her a public example, had in mind to divorce her privately.

20 But while he thought on these things, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for He who is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. 21 She will bear a Son, and you shall call His name JESUS, for He will save His people from their sins."

22 Now all this occurred to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet, saying, 23 "A virgin shall be with child, and will bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel," † which is interpreted, "God with us."

24 Then Joseph, being awakened from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and remained with his wife, 25 and did not know her until she had given birth to her firstborn Son. And he called His name JESUS.

† Isa 7:14.

The Visit of the Wise Men

2 Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, wise men came from the east to Jerusalem, ² saying, "Where is He who was born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the east and have come to worship Him."

³ When Herod the king heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴ And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he inquired of them where Christ should be born. ⁵ They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for this is what the prophet wrote:

⁶ 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are no longer least among the princes of Judah; for out of you shall come a Governor, who will shepherd My people Israel.' †"

⁷ Then Herod, when he had privately called the wise men, carefully inquired of them what time the star appeared. ⁸ And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the young Child, and when you have found Him, bring me word again, so that I may come and worship Him also."

¹⁰ When they saw the star, they rejoiced with great excitement. ¹¹ And when they came into the house, they saw the young Child with Mary, His mother, and fell down and worshipped Him. And when they had opened their treasures, they presented gifts to Him: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹² But being warned in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they returned to their own country by another route.

The Escape to Egypt

¹³ Now when they departed, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and escape to Egypt, and stay there until I bring you word. For Herod will seek the young Child to kill Him."

¹⁴ When he rose, he took the young Child and His mother by night, and departed into Egypt, ¹⁵ and remained there until the death of Herod, to fulfill what the Lord had spoken through the prophet, "Out of Egypt I have called My Son." ††

The Killing of the Infants

¹⁶ Then Herod, when he saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, was utterly furious and sent forth and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem and the surrounding region, from two years old and under, based on the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men. ¹⁷ Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet:

¹⁸ "In Ramah a voice was heard, grieving and weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and she would not be comforted, because they are no more." ‡

The Return From Egypt

¹⁹ But when Herod was dead, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰ saying, "Arise, take the young Child and His mother, and go in to the land of Israel, for those who sought the young Child's life are dead."

²¹ And he rose, took the young Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel. ²² But when he heard that Archelaus reigned in Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Nevertheless, being warned by God in a dream, he withdrew to the region of Galilee. ²³ And he went and lived in a city called Nazareth, that what was spoken by the prophets might be fulfilled, "He shall be called a Nazarene."

The Preaching of John the Baptist

Mk 1:1-8; Lk 3:1-9, 15-17; Jn 1:19-28

3 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea, ² and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." ³ For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying:

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord; make His paths straight.'" ††

⁴ This same John had clothing made of camel's hair, a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. ⁵ Then Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him, ⁶ and were baptized by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins.

⁷ But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said to them, "O generation of vipers, who has warned you to escape from the wrath to come? ⁸ Therefore, bear fruit worthy of repentance, ⁹ and do not think to say within yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father,' for I say to you that God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. ¹⁰ Even now the axe is put to the tree roots. Therefore, every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

¹¹ "I indeed baptize you with water to repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. ¹² His fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean His floor and gather His wheat into the granary, but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

† Mic 5:2. †† Hos 11:1.

‡ Jer 31:15. †† Isa 40:3.

The Baptism of Jesus

Mk 1:9-11; Lk 3:21-22

¹³ Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. ¹⁴ But John prohibited Him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me?"

¹⁵ But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now, for it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he permitted Him.

¹⁶ And when Jesus was baptized, He came up immediately out of the water. And suddenly the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of God descending on Him like a dove. ¹⁷ And a voice came from heaven, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

The Temptation of Jesus

⁴ Then Jesus was led up into the wilderness by the Spirit to be tempted by the devil. ² And He had fasted for forty days and forty nights, and then He was hungry. ³ And the tempter came to Him and said, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones be turned into bread."

⁴ But He answered, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.'"[†]

⁵ Then the devil took Him up into the holy city, and set Him on the highest point of the temple, ⁶ and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down. For it is written,

'He shall give His angels charge concerning you,'^{††} and

'In their hands they shall lift you up, lest at any time you dash your foot against a stone.'[‡]

⁷ Jesus said to him, "It is also written, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.'"^{††}

⁸ Again, the devil took Him up on a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their grandeur, ⁹ and said to Him, "All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me."

¹⁰ Then Jesus said to him, "Get away from here, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve.'"^{††}

¹¹ Then the devil left Him, and immediately angels came and ministered to Him.

The Beginning of the Galilean Ministry

Mk 1:14-15; Lk 4:14-15

¹² Now when Jesus heard that John was put in prison, He left for Galilee. ¹³ And leaving Nazareth, He came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali, ¹⁴ that what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, saying:

[†] Dt 8:3. ^{††} Ps 91:11-12. [‡] Ps 91:12. ^{††} Dt 6:16. ^{††} Dt 6:13.

¹⁵ "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles:

¹⁶ The people who sat in darkness saw great light.

And on those who sat in the land of the shadow of death, light has dawned."^{†††}

¹⁷ From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent! For the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

The Calling of the First Disciples

Mk 1:16-20; Lk 5:1-11

¹⁸ As Jesus walked beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, throwing a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹ And He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men."²⁰ They immediately left their nets and followed Him.

²¹ And going on from there, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in a boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and He called them. ²² They immediately left the boat and their father and followed Him.

Ministering to Great Crowds

²³ Jesus went throughout all Galilee teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of sickness and all sorts of diseases among the people. ²⁴ His fame went throughout all Syria. And they brought to Him all sick people who were taken with various diseases and tormented with pain, those who were possessed with demons, those who had seizures, and those who had paralysis, and He healed them. ²⁵ Great crowds followed Him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

The Sermon on the Mount

(Mt 5-7)

⁵ Now seeing the crowds, He went up on a mountain. And when He sat down, His disciples came to Him.

The Beatitudes

Lk 6:20-23

² And He began speaking and taught them, saying:

³ "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

⁴ Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

⁵ Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

⁶ Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,

^{†††} Isa 9:1-2.

for they shall be filled.
 7 Blessed are the merciful,
 for they shall obtain mercy.
 8 Blessed are the pure in heart,
 for they shall see God.
 9 Blessed are the peacemakers,
 for they shall be called the sons of God.
 10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,
 for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
 11 "Blessed are you when men revile you, and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for My sake. 12 Rejoice and be very glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in this manner they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Salt and Light

Mk 9:50; Lk 14:34-35

13 "You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how shall it be made salty? It is from then on good for nothing but to be thrown out and to be trampled underfoot by men.
 14 "You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Neither do men light a candle and put it under a basket, but on a candlestick.
 And it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

Teaching About the Law

17 "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have not come to abolish, but to fulfill. 18 For truly I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one dot or one mark will pass from the law until all be fulfilled. 19 Whoever, therefore, breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do likewise shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever does and teaches them shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
 20 For I say to you that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees,
 you will in no way enter the kingdom of heaven.

Teaching About Anger

21 "You have heard that it was said by the ancients,
 'You shall not murder,'[†] and 'Whoever murders shall be in danger of the judgment.'²² But I say to you that whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment. And whoever says to his brother, 'Raca,' shall be in danger of the San-hedrin. But whoever says, 'You fool,' shall be in danger of hell fire.
 23 "Therefore, if you bring your gift to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you,²⁴ leave your gift there before the altar

† Ex 20:13; Dt 5:17.

and go on your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

25 "Reconcile with your adversary quickly, while you are on the way with him, lest your adversary deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be thrown into prison. 26 Truly I say to you, you will by no means come out of there until you have paid the last penny. ^{††}

Teaching About Adultery

27 "You have heard that it was said by the ancients,
 'You shall not commit adultery.'^{†28} But I say to you that whoever looks on a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart. 29
 And if your right eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and throw it away. For it is profitable that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body be thrown into hell. 30 And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not that your whole body be thrown into hell.

Teaching About Divorce

Mt 19:9; Mk 10:11-12; Lk 16:18

31 "It was said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.'^{†32} But I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except for marital unfaithfulness, causes her to commit adultery. And whoever marries her who is divorced commits adultery.

Teaching About Oaths

33 "Again, you have heard that it was said by the ancients, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall fulfill your oaths to the Lord.'^{†34} But I say to you, do not swear at all: neither by heaven, for it is God's throne; 35 nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. 36 Nor shall you swear by your head, because you cannot make one hair white or black. 37 But let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and 'No' mean
 'No.' For whatever is more than these comes from the evil one.

Teaching About Revenge

Lk 6:29-30

38 "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.'^{†39} But I say to you, do not resist an evil person. But whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other as well. 40 And if anyone sues you in a court of law and takes away your tunic, let him have your cloak also. 41 And whoever compels you to go a mile, ^{†††} go with him two. 42 Give to him who asks you, and from him who would borrow from you do not turn away.

Love for Enemies

Lk 6:27-28, 32-36

⁴³ "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor [†] and hate your enemy.'⁴⁴ But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you,⁴⁵ that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For He makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.⁴⁶ For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?⁴⁷ And if you greet your brothers only, what are you doing more than others? Do not even the tax collectors do so?⁴⁸ Therefore be perfect, even as your Father who is in heaven is perfect.

Teaching About Charitable Giving

6 "Be sure that you not do your charitable deeds before men to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.
² "Therefore, when you do your charitable deeds, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be honored by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward.³ But when you do your charitable deeds, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,⁴ that your charitable deeds may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will Himself reward you openly.

The Lord's Prayer

⁵ "When you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners that they may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward.⁶ But you, when you pray, enter your closet, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.⁷ But when you pray, do not use vain repetitions, as the heathen do. For they think that they will be heard for their much speaking.⁸ Do not be like them, for your Father knows what things you have need of before you ask Him.
⁹ "Therefore pray in this manner:
 Our Father who is in heaven,
 hallowed be Your name.
¹⁰ Your kingdom come;
 Your will be done
 on earth, as it is in heaven.
¹¹ Give us this day our daily bread.
¹² And forgive us our debts,
 as we forgive our debtors.
¹³ And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

¹⁴ For if you forgive men for their sins, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.¹⁵ But if you do not forgive men for their sins, neither will your Father forgive your sins.

Teaching About Fasting

¹⁶ "Moreover, when you fast, do not be like the hypocrites with a sad countenance. For they disfigure their faces so they may appear to men to be fasting. Truly I say to you, they have their reward.¹⁷ But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face,¹⁸ so that you will not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.

Treasures in Heaven

¹⁹ "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal.²⁰ But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroy and where thieves do not break in nor steal,²¹ for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

The Light of the Body

²² "The light of the body is the eye. Therefore, if your eye is clear, your whole body will be full of light.²³ But if your eye is unclear, your whole body will be full of darkness. Therefore, if the light that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

God and Money

²⁴ "No one can serve two masters. For either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.

Care and Anxiety

²⁵ "Therefore, I say to you, take no thought about your life, what you will eat, or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body than clothing?²⁶ Look at the birds of the air, for they do not sow, nor do they reap, nor gather into barns. Yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much better than they?²⁷ Who among you by taking thought can add a cubit ^{††} to his stature?

²⁸ "Why take thought about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: They neither work, nor do they spin.²⁹ Yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not dressed like one of these.³⁰

[†] Lev 19:18.

^{††} A cubit is about half a meter.

Therefore, if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is here and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?³¹ Therefore, take no thought, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?'³² (For the Gentiles seek after all these things.) For your heavenly Father knows that you have need of all these things.³³ But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be given to you.³⁴ Therefore, take no thought about tomorrow, for tomorrow will take thought about the things of itself. Sufficient to the day is the trouble thereof.

Judging Others

7 "Judge not, that you be not judged.² For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged. And with the measure you use, it will be measured again for you.

³ "And why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank that is in your own eye?⁴ Or how will you say to your brother, 'Let me pull the speck out of your eye,' when a log is in your own eye?⁵ You hypocrite! First take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

⁶ "Do not give what is holy to the dogs, nor throw your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet and turn around and attack you.

Ask, Seek, Knock

Lk 11:9-13

⁷ "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and it will be opened to you.⁸ For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks, it will be opened.

⁹ "What man is there among you who, if his son asks for bread, will give him a stone?¹⁰ Or if he asks for a fish, will he give him a snake?¹¹ If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him!¹² Therefore, everything you would like men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

The Narrow Gate

¹³ "Enter at the narrow gate, for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who are going through it,¹⁴ because small is the gate and narrow is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

A Tree and Its Fruit

¹⁵ "Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves.¹⁶ You will know them by their fruit. Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?¹⁷ Even so, every good tree bears good fruit. But a corrupt tree bears evil fruit.¹⁸ A good tree cannot bear evil fruit, nor can a corrupt tree bear good fruit.¹⁹ Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.²⁰ Therefore, by their fruit you will know them.

I Never Knew You

Lk 13:25-27

²¹ "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven.²² Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonderful works in Your name?'²³ But then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you. Depart from Me, you who practice evil.'[†]

The Two Housebuilders

²⁴ "Whoever hears these sayings of Mine and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on a rock.²⁵ And the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house. And it did not fall, for it was founded a rock.²⁶ And every one who hears these sayings of Mine and does not do them will be likened to a foolish man who built his house on the sand.²⁷ And the rain descended, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house. And it fell. And its fall was great."

²⁸ When Jesus finished these sayings, the people were astonished at His teaching,²⁹ for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

The Cleansing of a Leper

Mk 1:40-45; Lk 5:12-16

8 When He came down from the mountains, large crowds followed Him.² And then a leper came and worshipped Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

³ Jesus reached out His hand and touched him, saying, "I will. Be clean." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.⁴ Then Jesus said to him, "See that you tell no one. But go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded as a testimony to them."

The Healing of a Centurion's Servant

Lk 7:1-10; Jn 4:43-54

⁵ And when Jesus entered Capernaum, a centurion^{††} came to Him, entreating Him,⁶ and saying, "Lord, my servant is lying at home, sick with paralysis, terribly tormented."

[†] Ps 6:8. ^{††} Commander with the rank of captain over 100 soldiers.

⁷ Jesus said to him, "I will come and heal him."

⁸ The centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But speak the word only, and my servant will be healed.

⁹ For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this man, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

¹⁰ When Jesus heard it, He was amazed and said to those who followed, "Truly I say to you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel." ¹¹ And I say to you that many will come from the east and west and will dine with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. ¹² But the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

¹³ Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way. And as you have believed, so let it be done for you." And his servant was healed that very moment.

The Healing of Many People

Mk 1:29-34; Lk 4:38-41

¹⁴ When Jesus entered Peter's house, He saw his wife's mother, lying sick with a fever. ¹⁵ He touched her hand, and the fever left her. And she rose and served them.

¹⁶ When the evening came, they brought to Him many who were possessed with demons. And He cast out the spirits with His word, and healed all who were sick, ¹⁷ to fulfill what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, "He Himself took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses." †

The Would-Be Followers of Jesus

Lk 9:57-62

¹⁸ Now when Jesus saw large crowds around Him, He gave a command to depart to the other side. ¹⁹ Then a certain scribe came and said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go."

²⁰ Jesus replied, "The foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head."

²¹ Another of His other disciples said to Him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

²² But Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and let the dead bury their dead."

The Calming of a Storm

²³ Then He entered the boat, and His disciples followed Him. ²⁴ Suddenly a great storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves. But He was asleep. ²⁵ His disciples went to Him and awoke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"

²⁶ He replied, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then He rose and rebuked the winds and the sea. And there was a great calm.

²⁷ The men were amazed, saying, "What kind of Man is this that even the winds and the sea obey Him!"

The Healing of the Gergesene Demoniacs

Mk 5:1-20; Lk 8:26-39

²⁸ When He came to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met Him two men possessed with demons, coming out of the tombs, extremely fierce, so that no one might pass by that way. ²⁹ Suddenly they cried out, saying, "What have we to do with You, Jesus, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?"

³² He said to them, "Go!" And when they came out, they went into the herd of swine. And suddenly the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters. ³³ Those who kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told everything, including what had happened to those possessed by the demons. ³⁴ The whole city came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw Him, they begged Him to depart out of their region.

The Healing of a Paralytic

Mk 2:1-12; Lk 5:17-26

⁹ He entered a boat, crossed over, and came into His own city. ² They brought to Him a man sick with paralysis, lying on a bed. And Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, be of good cheer. Your sins are forgiven you."

³ Then certain scribes said within themselves, "This Man blasphemes."

⁴ Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts?" ⁵ For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you' or to say, 'Arise and walk'?

⁶ But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—then He said to the paralytic, "Arise, pick up your bed, and go into your house." ⁷ And he rose and departed to his house. ⁸ But when the crowds saw it, they were amazed and glorified God who had given such authority to men.

The Calling of Matthew

Mk 2:13-17; Lk 5:27-32

⁹ As Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector's station. And He said to him, "Follow Me." And he rose and followed Him.

¹⁰ While Jesus sat at supper in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His disciples. ¹¹ When the Pharisees saw it, they said to His disciples, "Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

¹² But when Jesus heard that, He said to them, "Those who are well do not need a physician, but those who are sick." ¹³ But go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.' [†] For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance."

The Question About Fasting

Mk 2:18–22; Lk 5:33–39

¹⁴ Then the disciples of John came to Him, asking, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast?"

¹⁵ Jesus answered, "Can the guests of the bridegroom mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and then they will fast."

¹⁶ "No one sews a piece of new cloth into an old garment, for that which is sewn in to fill it up pulls on the garment, and the tear is made worse." ¹⁷ Neither do men put new wine into old wineskins. Or else the wineskins burst, the wine runs out, and the wineskins perish. But they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

The Ruler's Daughter and a Woman Healed

Mk 5:21–43; Lk 8:40–56

¹⁸ While He was speaking these things to them, a certain ruler came and worshipped Him, saying, "My daughter is even now dead. But come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live." ¹⁹ Jesus rose and followed him, and so did His disciples.

²⁰ Then a woman, who was ill with a flow of blood for twelve years, came behind Him and touched the hem of His garment. ²¹ For she said within herself, "If I may just touch His garment, I shall be healed."

²² But Jesus turned around, and when He saw her, He said, "Daughter, be of good comfort. Your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well instantly.

²³ When Jesus came to the ruler's house and saw the musicians and the mourners making a noise, ²⁴ He said to them, "Depart. The girl is not dead, but is sleeping." And they laughed Him to scorn. ²⁵ But when the people were put outside, He went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose. ²⁶ The news of this went out into all that land.

The Healing of Two Blind Men

²⁷ As Jesus departed from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, "Son of David, have mercy on us!"

²⁸ When He entered the house, the blind men came to Him. And Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

† Hos 6:6.

They said to Him, "Yes, Lord."

²⁹ Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith, let it be done for you." ³⁰ And their eyes were opened, and Jesus strictly commanded them, saying, "See that no one knows of it." ³¹ But when they had departed, they spread His fame in all that region.

The Healing of a Mute Man

³² As they went out, they brought to Him a mute man possessed with a demon. ³³ And when the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke, and the crowds were amazed, saying, "This has never been seen in Israel."

³⁴ But the Pharisees said, "He casts out demons through the ruler of the demons."

The Compassion of Jesus

³⁵ Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. ³⁶ But when He saw the crowds, He was moved with compassion for them, because they fainted and were scattered, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷ Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few." ³⁸ Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest, that He will send out laborers into His harvest."

The Mission of the Twelve Apostles

Mk 3:13–19; Lk 6:12–16

10 He called His twelve disciples to Him and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease.

² Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother; James, the son of Zebedee, and John, his brother; ³ Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew, the tax collector; James, the son of Alphaeus; and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus; ⁴ Simon the Zealot; and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

The Commissioning of the Twelve Apostles

⁵ These twelve Jesus sent out, and commanded them, saying, "Do not go into the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter any city of the Samaritans." ⁶ But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." ⁷ As you go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' ⁸ Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, and cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give." ⁹ "Provide neither gold nor silver nor copper for your purses, ¹⁰ nor bag for your journey, nor two tunics, nor shoes, nor even staffs. For the workman is worthy of his keep."

¹¹ "In whatever city or town you enter, inquire in it who is worthy. And live there until you leave." ¹² When you come into a house, greet it. ¹³ If the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴ Whoever will not receive you, nor hear your words, when you depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. ¹⁵ Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah on the Day of Judgment than for that town.

Coming Persecutions

¹⁶ "Look, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and harmless as doves.

¹⁷ But beware of men, for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues. ¹⁸ You will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles. ¹⁹ But when they deliver you up, take no thought of how or what you will speak. For it will be given you at that time what you will speak. ²⁰ For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks through you.

²¹ "The brother will deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child. And the children will rise up against their parents and cause them to be put to death. ²² You will be hated by all men for My name's sake. But he who endures to the end will be saved. ²³ But when they persecute you in this city, escape into another. For truly I say to you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

²⁴ "The disciple is not above his teacher, nor the servant above his master. ²⁵ It is enough for the disciple that he be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more will they call those of his household?

Whom to Fear

²⁶ "Therefore do not fear them. For nothing is covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. ²⁷ What I tell you in darkness, speak in the light. And what you hear in the ear, preach on the housetops. ²⁸ Do not fear those who kill the body but are not able to kill the soul. But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. ²⁹ Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father. ³⁰ But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. ³¹ Therefore do not fear. You are more valuable than many sparrows.

Confessing and Denying Christ

Lk 12:8-9

³² "Whoever will confess Me before men, him will I confess also before My Father who is in heaven. ³³ But whoever will deny Me before men, him will I also deny before My Father who is in heaven.

Not Peace, but a Sword

Lk 12:51-53; 14:26-27

³⁴ "Do not think that I have come to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. ³⁵ For I have come to turn

'a man against his father,
a daughter against her mother,
and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
³⁶ a man's foes will be those of his own household.'[†]
³⁷ "He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. ³⁸ And He who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. ³⁹ He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake will find it.

Rewards

Mk 9:41

⁴⁰ "He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me. ⁴¹ He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward. And he who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. ⁴² And whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple, truly I tell you, he shall in no way lose his reward."

11 When Jesus finished instructing His twelve disciples, He departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities.

The Messengers From John the Baptist

Lk 7:18-35

² Now when John had heard in prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, ³ and said to Him, "Are You He who should come, or should we look for another?"

⁴ Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: ⁵ The blind receive their sight and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them. ^{††6} Blessed is he who does not fall away because of Me."

⁷ As they departed, Jesus began to say to the crowds concerning John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? ⁸ If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Indeed, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. ⁹ Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet. ¹⁰ For this is he of whom it is written:

'Look, I am sending My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You.'[‡]

¹¹ Truly I say to you, among those who are born of women, there has risen no one greater than John the Baptist. But he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. ¹² From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has forcefully advanced, and the strong take it by force. ¹³ For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. ¹⁴ And if you are willing to receive it, he is Elijah, who is to come. ¹⁵ He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁶ "But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the markets, calling to their friends, ¹⁷ saying:

'We played the flute for you,
and you did not dance;
we sang a dirge to you,
and you did not mourn.'

¹⁸ For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' ¹⁹ The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Here is a gluttonous man, a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.' But wisdom is justified by her children."

Unrepentant Cities

²⁰ Then He began to reprimand the cities where most of His mighty works were done, because they did not repent: ²¹ "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²² But I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the Day of Judgment than for you. ²³ And you, Capernaum, who is exalted toward heaven, will be brought down to Hades. For if the mighty works which have been done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. ²⁴ But I say to you that it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom on the Day of Judgment than for you."

Come to Me and Rest

Lk 10:21-22

²⁵ At that time Jesus said, "I thank You, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and revealed them to infants. ²⁶ Even so, Father, for it seemed good in Your sight.

²⁷ "All things are delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows the Son, except the Father. And no one knows the Father, except the Son and he to whom the Son will reveal Him.

²⁸ "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take My yoke up on you, and learn from Me. For I am meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ^{†30} For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light."

† Jer 6:16.

The Question About the Sabbath

¹² At that time Jesus went through the grain fields on the Sabbath. And His disciples were hungry and began to pluck the heads of grain and to eat. ² But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, "Look, Your disciples are doing that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath!"

³ But He said to them, "Have you not read what David and those who were with him did when he was hungry, ⁴ how he entered the house of God and ate the ritual bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the priests? ⁵ Or have you not read in the law how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, but are blameless? ⁶ I say to you, in this place there is One who is greater than the temple. ⁷ If you had known what this meant, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the innocent. ⁸ For the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath."

The Healing of the Withered Hand

⁹ When He had departed from there, He went into their synagogue. ¹⁰ And there was a man whose hand had withered. They asked Him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" that they might accuse Him.

¹¹ He said to them, "What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not lay hold of it and lift it out? ¹² Then how much better is a man than a sheep? Therefore, it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

¹³ Then He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored whole like the other. ¹⁴ Then the Pharisees went out and took counsel against Him, how they might kill Him.

The Chosen Servant

¹⁵ But when Jesus knew it, He withdrew from there. And great crowds followed Him, and He healed them all, ¹⁶ and warned them that they should not make Him known, ¹⁷ to fulfill what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying:

¹⁸ "Here is My Servant, whom I have chosen, My Beloved, in whom My soul is well pleased; I will put My Spirit upon Him, and He will render judgment to the Gentiles. ¹⁹ He shall not struggle nor cry out, nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets. ²⁰ A bruised reed He will not break, and a smoldering wick He will not quench, until He renders judgment unto victory;

²¹ and in His name will the Gentiles trust." ††

†† Isa 42:1-4.

Jesus and Beelzebub

Mk 3:20-30; Lk 11:14-23; 12:10

²² Then one possessed with a demon was brought to Him, blind and mute, and He healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw. ²³ All the people were amazed and said, "Is He not the Son of David?"

²⁴ But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "This Man does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebub the ruler of the demons."

²⁵ Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. And every city or house divided against itself will not stand. ²⁶ If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. Then how will his kingdom stand? ²⁷ And if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore, they shall be your judges. ²⁸ But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

³⁰ "He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad. ³¹ Therefore I say to you, all kinds of sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven men. ³² Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, neither in this world, nor in the world to come.

A Tree and Its Fruit

Lk 6:43-45

³³ "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree corrupt and its fruit corrupt. For the tree is known by its fruit. ³⁴ O generation of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵ A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things. And an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things. ³⁶ But I say to you that for every idle word that men speak, they will give an account on the Day of Judgment. ³⁷ For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

The Demand for a Sign

Mk 8:11-12; Lk 11:29-32

³⁸ Then some of the scribes and Pharisees said to Him, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from You."

³⁹ But He answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. ⁴⁰ For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, † so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. ⁴¹ The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah. †† And now One greater than Jonah is here. ⁴² The Queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon. And now One greater than Solomon is here.

The Return of the Unclean Spirit

⁴³ "When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through dry places seeking rest, but finds none. ⁴⁴ Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when it comes, it finds it empty, swept, and put in order. ⁴⁵ Then it goes and brings with itself seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there. And the last state of that man is worse than the first. So shall it be also with this evil generation."

The Mother and Brothers of Jesus

⁴⁶ While He was still speaking to the people, right then His mother and His brothers stood outside asking to speak with Him. ⁴⁷ Then one said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside asking to speak with You."

⁴⁸ But He answered the man who told him, "Who is My mother, and who are My brothers?" ⁴⁹ He stretched out His hand toward His disciples and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! ⁵⁰ For whoever does the will of My Father who is in heaven is My brother, and sister, and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

Mk 4:1-9; Lk 8:4-8

13 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. ² Great crowds assembled around Him, so that He went into a boat and sat there. And the whole assembly stood on the shore. ³ Then He told them many things in parables, saying, "Listen! A sower went out to sow. ⁴ While he sowed, some seeds fell beside the path, and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵ But other seeds fell on rocky ground where they did not have much soil, and immediately they sprang up because they did not have deep soil. ⁶ But when the sun rose, they were scorched. And because they did not take root, they withered away. ⁷ Some seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. ⁸ But other seeds fell into good ground and produced grain: a hundred, sixty, or thirty times as much. ⁹ Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear."

†† Jnh 3:5.

The Purpose of the Parables

Mk 4:10-12; Lk 8:9-10

¹⁰ The disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

¹¹ He answered them, "It is given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. ¹² For to him who has, will more be given, and he will have abundance. But from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away. ¹³ Therefore I speak to them in parables:

'Because they look, but do not see.

And they listen, but they do not hear, neither do they understand.'[†]

¹⁴ In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah which says:

'By hearing, you will hear and shall not understand, and seeing, you will see and shall not perceive;'^{††}

¹⁵ for this people's heart has grown dull.

Their ears have become hard of hearing,

and they have closed their eyes,

lest they should see with their eyes

and hear with their ears

and understand with their hearts,

and turn, and I should heal them.'[‡]

¹⁶ But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. ¹⁷ For truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which you see, and have not seen them, and to hear those things which you hear, and have not heard them.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

¹⁸ "Therefore listen to the parable of the sower. ¹⁹ When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the one who received seed beside the path. ²⁰ But he who received the seed on rocky ground is he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy, ²¹ yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while. For when tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, eventually he falls away. ²² He also who received seed among the thorns is he who hears the word, but the cares of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. ²³ But he who received seed on the good ground is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit. Some produce a hundred, sixty, or thirty times what was sown."

The Parable of the Weeds

²⁴ He told them another parable, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. ²⁵ But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away. ²⁶ But when the shoots had sprung up and produced fruit, the weeds also appeared.

[†] Dt 29:4; Isa 42:19-20; Jer 5:21; Eze 12:2. ^{††} Isa 6:9. [‡] Isa 6:10; Ps 119:70; Zec 7:11.

²⁷ "So the servants of the landowner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? Then where did the weeds come from?'"

²⁸ "He said to them, 'An enemy did this.'

"The servants said to him, 'Will you then have us go and gather them up?'"

²⁹ "But he said, 'No, lest while you gather up the weeds, you pull up also the wheat with them. ³⁰ Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers: Gather up the weeds first and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn.'"

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast

Mk 4:30-32; Lk 13:18-21

³¹ He told them another parable, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field. ³² This indeed is the least of all seeds, but when it has grown, it is the greatest among herbs and is a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches."

³³ He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast which a woman took and mixed in sixty pounds^{††} of meal until it had leavened the whole batch."

The Use of Parables

³⁴ Jesus said all these things to the crowds in parables. And without a parable He did not speak to them, ³⁵ to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet, saying:

"I will open My mouth in parables;

I will say things which have been kept secret since the foundation of the world."^{‡‡}

The Parable of the Weeds Explained

³⁶ Then Jesus sent the crowds away and went into the house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field."

⁴⁰ "Therefore as the weeds are gathered and burned in the fire, so shall it be in the end of this world. ⁴¹ The Son of Man shall send out His angels, and they shall gather out of His kingdom all things that offend, and those who do evil, ⁴² and will throw them into a fiery furnace. There will be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

⁴³ Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun^{†††} in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear.

The Parable of the Hidden Treasure

⁴⁴ “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and hid. And with joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.”

The Parable of the Pearl of Great Price

⁴⁵ “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls, ⁴⁶ who, on finding one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.”

The Parable of the Net

⁴⁷ “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea and gathered all kinds of fish. ⁴⁸ When it was full, they drew it to shore, sat down, and gathered the good into baskets, but threw the bad away. ⁴⁹ So shall it be at the end of the world. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous ⁵⁰ and throw them into the fiery furnace. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Treasures New and Old

⁵¹ Jesus said to them, “Have you understood all of these things?”

They said to Him, “Yes, Lord.”

⁵² Then He said to them, “Therefore every scribe who is disciplined for the kingdom of heaven is like a man who is master of the household who brings out of his treasure new and old things.”

The Rejection of Jesus at Nazareth

Mk 6:1–6; Lk 4:16–30

⁵³ When Jesus finished these parables, He departed from there. ⁵⁴ When He came to His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, “Where did this Man get this wisdom and these mighty works? ⁵⁵ Is He not the carpenter’s son? Is His mother not called Mary? And are not His brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? ⁵⁶ And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this Man get all these things?” ⁵⁷ And they took offense at Him.

But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his own country and in his own house.”

⁵⁸ And He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

The Death of John the Baptist

Mk 6:14–29; Lk 9:7–9

¹⁴ At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus, ² and said to his servants, “This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead. And therefore mighty works are at work in him.”

⁶ But when Herod’s birthday was celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod. ⁷ Therefore he promised with an oath to give her whatever she would ask. ⁸ Being previously instructed by her mother, she said, “Give me John the Baptist’s head on a platter.” ⁹ The king was sorry. Nevertheless, for the oath’s sake and those who sat with him at supper, he commanded it to be given to her. ¹⁰ He sent and beheaded John in the prison. ¹¹ His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. ¹² His disciples came and took up the body and buried it. And they went and told Jesus.

The Feeding of the Five Thousand

¹³ When Jesus heard this, He departed from there by boat for a deserted place. But when the people heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities. ¹⁴ Jesus went ashore and saw a great assembly. And He was moved with compassion toward them, and He healed their sick.

¹⁵ When it was evening, His disciples came to Him, saying, “This is a lonely place and the day is now over. Send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy themselves food.”

¹⁶ But Jesus said to them, “They do not need to depart. You give them something to eat.”

¹⁷ They said to Him, “We have only five loaves here and two fish.”

¹⁸ He said, “Bring them here to Me.” ¹⁹ Then He commanded the crowds to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed and broke and gave the loaves to His disciples; and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰ They all ate and were filled. And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments that remained. ²¹ Those who had eaten were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Walking on the Water

Mk 6:45–52; Jn 6:15–21

²² Then Jesus commanded His disciples to get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He sent the crowds away. ²³ When He sent the crowds away, He went up into a mountain by Himself to pray. And when evening came, He was there alone. ²⁴ But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, tossed by the waves, for the wind was turbulent.

²⁵ During the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea. ²⁶ But when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a spirit." And they cried out in fear.

²⁷ But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Be of good cheer. It is I. Do not be afraid."

²⁸ Peter answered Him and said, "Lord, if it is You, bid me come to You on the water."

²⁹ He said, "Come."

And when Peter got out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus. ³⁰ But when he saw the strong wind, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"

³¹ Immediately Jesus reached out His hand and caught him, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"

³² And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased.

³³ Then those who were in the boat came and worshipped Him, saying, "Truly You are the Son of God."

The Healing of the Sick in Gennesaret

³⁴ When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret. ³⁵ And when the men of that place recognized Him, they sent word to all the surrounding country and brought to Him all who were sick, ³⁶ and begged Him that they might only touch the hem of His garment. And as many as touched it were made perfectly well.

The Tradition of the Elders

15 Then scribes and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying, ² "Why do Your disciples violate the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread."

³ But He answered them, "Why do you also violate the commandment of God by your tradition? ⁴ For God commanded, 'Honor your father and mother,'[†] and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.'^{††} But you say, 'Whoever shall say to his father or his mother, 'What you would have profited from me is a gift to God,'⁶ will be free from honoring his father or his mother.' So you have made the commandment of God of no effect by your tradition. ⁷ You hypocrites, Isaiah well prophesied of you, saying:

⁸ 'These people draw near to Me with their mouth, and honor Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.

⁹ In vain they do worship Me, teaching as doctrines the precepts of men.'[‡] "

¹⁰ He called the crowds and said to them, "Hear and understand: ¹¹ That which goes into the mouth does not defile a man, but that which comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man."

¹² Then His disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees were offended after they heard this saying?"

¹³ But He answered, "Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. ¹⁴ Leave them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into the ditch."

¹⁵ Then Peter said to Him, "Explain this parable to us."

¹⁶ Jesus said, "Are you also still without understanding? ¹⁷ Do you not yet understand that whatever enters at the mouth goes into the stomach and is cast out into the sewer? ¹⁸ But those things which proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and they defile the man. ¹⁹ For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual immorality, thefts, false witness, and blasphemies. ²⁰ These are the things which defile a man. But to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man."

The Faith of the Canaanite Woman

²¹ Then Jesus went from there and departed into the regions of Tyre and Sidon. ²² There, a woman of Canaan came out of the same regions and cried out to Him, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David. My daughter is severely possessed by a demon."

²³ But He did not answer her a word. And His disciples came and begged Him, saying, "Send her away, for she cries out after us."

²⁴ But He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

²⁵ Then she came and worshipped Him, saying, "Lord, help me."

²⁶ But He answered, "It is not fair to take the children's bread and to throw it to dogs."

²⁷ She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table."

²⁸ Then Jesus answered her, "O woman, great is your faith. Let it be done for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed instantly.

The Healing of Many People

²⁹ Jesus departed from there, and passed by the Sea of Galilee, and went up on a mountain and sat down there. ³⁰ Great crowds came to Him, having with them those who were lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and placed them down at Jesus' feet, and He healed them, ³¹ so that the crowds wondered when they saw the mute speak, the maimed made whole, the lame walk, and the blind see. And they glorified the God of Israel.

† Ex 20:12; Dt 5:16. †† Ex 21:17; Lev 20:9. ‡ Isa 29:13.

The Feeding of the Four Thousand

Mk 8:1-10

³² Then Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have remained with Me now for three days and have nothing to eat. I will not send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way."

³³ His disciples said to Him, "Where will we get enough bread in the wilderness to feed such a great crowd?"

³⁴ Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?"

And they said, "Seven and a few little fish."

³⁵ He commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground. ³⁶ He took the seven loaves and the fish, gave thanks, broke them, and gave them to His disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowd. ³⁷ They all ate and were filled. And they collected seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left. ³⁸ Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. ³⁹ He sent the crowd away, and got into the boat, and went to the region of Magdala.

The Demand for a Sign

Mk 8:11-13; Lk 12:54-56

16 The Pharisees and Sadducees came and, testing Him, asked Him to show them a sign from heaven.

² He answered them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,'³ and in the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and overcast.' O you hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times. ⁴ A wicked and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah." So He left them and departed.

The Yeast of Pharisees and Sadducees

Mk 8:14-21

⁵ But when His disciples reached the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. ⁶ Then Jesus said to them, "Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

⁷ They reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have taken no bread."

⁸ But when Jesus perceived it, He said to them, "O you of little faith, why reason among yourselves, that it is because you have brought no bread?"⁹ Do you not yet understand or remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you collected?¹⁰ Or the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many baskets you collected?"¹¹ How is it that you do not understand that I spoke to you not concerning bread, but that you should beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees?"¹² Then they understood that

He did not tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter's Declaration About Jesus

Mk 8:27-30; Lk 9:18-21

¹³ When Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, "Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?"

¹⁴ They said, "Some say that You are John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."

¹⁵ He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

¹⁶ Simon Peter replied, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

¹⁷ Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father who is in heaven. ¹⁸ And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. ¹⁹ I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." ²⁰ Then He commanded His disciples to tell no one that He was Jesus the Christ.

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

Mk 8:31-9:1; Lk 9:22-27

²¹ From that time on, Jesus began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised on the third day.

²³ But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are an offense to Me, for you are not mindful of the things that are of God, but those that are of men."

²⁴ Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. ²⁵ For whoever would save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. ²⁶ For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?"²⁷ For the Son of Man shall come with His angels in the glory of His Father, and then He will repay every man according to his works. ²⁸ Truly I say to you, there are some standing here who shall not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

The Transfiguration

Mk 9:2-13; Lk 9:28-36

17 After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother and brought them up to a high mountain alone, ² and was transfigured before them. His face shone as the sun, and His garments became white as the light. ³ Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Him.

⁴ Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You wish, let us make three tabernacles here: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

⁵ While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is My beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him."

⁶ When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were filled with awe. ⁷ But Jesus came and touched them and said, "Rise, and do not be afraid."

⁸ When they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

⁹ As they came down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of Man is risen from the dead."

¹⁰ His disciples asked Him, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

¹¹ Jesus answered, "Elijah truly does first come and will restore all things. ¹² But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not know him, but did to him whatever they pleased. Likewise, the Son of Man will also suffer at their hands." ¹³ Then the disciples understood that He was speaking to them of John the Baptist.

The Healing of a Boy with a Demon

¹⁴ When they came to the crowd, a man came to Him and knelt before Him, saying, ¹⁵ "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and suffers terribly. He often falls into the fire and often into the water. ¹⁶ I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not heal him."

¹⁷ Then Jesus answered, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to Me." ¹⁸ Jesus rebuked the demon, and he came out of him. And the child was healed instantly.

¹⁹ Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast him out?"

²⁰ Jesus said to them, "Because of your unbelief. For truly I say to you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. And nothing will be impossible for you. ²¹ But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting."

Jesus Again Foretells His Death and Resurrection

Mk 9:30-32; Lk 9:43b-45

²² While they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men, ²³ and they will kill Him, and He will be raised on the third day." And they were extremely sorrowful.

Payment of the Temple Tax

²⁴ When they came to Capernaum, those who collected tax money came to Peter and said, "Does your Teacher not pay the tax [†]?"

²⁵ He said, "Yes."

And when he came home, Jesus stopped him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth take custom or taxes? From their own sons or from strangers?"

²⁶ Peter said to Him, "From strangers."

Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free. ²⁷ However, lest we offend them, go to the sea and cast a hook, and take the first fish that comes up. And when you open its mouth, you will find a coin. Take it and give it to them for you and Me."

The Greatest in the Kingdom

Mk 9:33-37; Lk 9:46-48

18 At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

² Jesus called a little child to Him and set him in their midst, ³ and said, "Truly I say to you, unless you are converted and become like little children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Therefore whoever humbles himself like this little child is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

⁵ And whoever receives one such little child in My name receives Me.

Temptations to Sin

Mk 9:42-48; Lk 17:1-2

⁶ "But whoever misleads one of these little ones who believe in Me, it would be better for him to have a millstone hung about his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

⁷ Woe to the world because of temptations! For it must be that temptations come, but woe to that man by whom the temptation comes! ⁸ Therefore if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life lame or maimed than having two hands or two feet to be thrown into eternal fire. ⁹ And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than having two eyes to be thrown into the fire of hell.

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

¹⁰ "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I say to you that in heaven their angels always see the face of My Father who is in heaven. ¹¹ For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost.

¹² "What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the [†] Gk. a 2 drachmas, or two days' wages.

ninety-nine on the hills and go in search for the one which went astray?¹³ And if he finds it, truly I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine which never went astray.¹⁴ So it is not the will of your Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

The Brother Who Sins

¹⁵ "Now if your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.¹⁶ But if he does not listen, then take with you one or two others, that by the testimony of two or three witnesses every word may be established.¹⁷ If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. But if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector.

¹⁸ "Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

¹⁹ "Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by My Father who is in heaven.²⁰ For where two or three are assembled in My name, there I am in their midst."

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant

²¹ Then Peter came to Him and said, "Lord, how often shall I forgive my brother who sins against me? Up to seven times?"

²² Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven.

²³ "Therefore the kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.

²⁴ When he began to settle the accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.

²⁵ But since he was not able to pay, his master ordered that he be sold with his wife, their children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

²⁶ "So the servant fell on his knees, pleading with him, saying, 'Master, have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.'²⁷ Then the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

²⁸ "But that same servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii. † He laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, 'Pay me what you owe.'

²⁹ "So his fellow servant fell down at his feet and entreated him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.'

³⁰ "But he would not and went and threw him in prison until he should pay the debt.³¹ So when his fellow servants saw what took place, they were very sorry and went and told their master all that had taken place.

³² "Then his master, after he had summoned him, said to him, 'O you wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me.³³ Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, even as I had pity on you?'³⁴ His master was angry and delivered him to the jailers until he should pay all his debt.

³⁵ "So also My heavenly Father will do to each of you, if from your heart you do not forgive your brother for his trespasses."

Teaching About Divorce

Mk 10:1-12

¹⁹ Now when Jesus finished these sayings, He departed from Galilee and came into the region of Judea beyond the Jordan.² Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there.

³ The Pharisees also came to Him, tempting Him and saying, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason?"

⁴ He answered, "Have you not read that He who made them at the beginning 'made them male and female,'^{†5} and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'^{‡6} ?⁶ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no man put asunder."

⁷ They said to Him, "Then why did Moses command to give a certificate of divorce, and to send her away?"^{‡‡}

⁸ He said to them, "Moses, for the hardness of your hearts, permitted you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so.⁹ But I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery. And whoever marries her who is divorced commits adultery."

¹⁰ His disciples said to Him, "If such is the case of the man with his wife, it is not good to marry."

¹¹ But He said to them, "Not all men can receive this precept, but only those to whom it is given.¹² For there are some eunuchs who have been so from birth, there are some eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men, and there are some eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who is able to receive this, let him receive it."

Little Children Blessed

Mk 10:13-16; Lk 18:15-17

¹³ Then little children were brought to Him that He might put His hands on them and pray. But the disciples rebuked them.

¹⁴ But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them. For to such belongs the kingdom of heaven.”¹⁵ He laid His hands on them and departed from there.

The Rich Young Man Mk 10:17–31; Lk 18:18–30

¹⁶ Now one came and said to Him, “Good Teacher, what good deed shall I do to have eternal life?”

¹⁷ He replied to him, “Why do you call Me good? There is One who is good. But if you would enter life, keep the commandments.”

¹⁸ He said to Him, “Which ones?”

Jesus said, “You shall not murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness,^{††} Honor your father and your mother,^{††} and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.[‡]”

²⁰ The young man said to Him, “All these I have kept from my youth. What do I still lack?”

²¹ Jesus said to him, “If you would be perfect, go and sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. And come, follow Me.”

²² But when the young man heard this, he went away sorrowful. For he had great possessions.

²³ Then Jesus said to His disciples, “*Truly, I say to you that it will be hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven.*²⁴ And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁵ When His disciples heard this, they were greatly amazed, saying, “Who then can be saved?”

²⁶ But Jesus looked at them and said, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

²⁷ Then Peter answered Him, “See, we have left everything and followed You. What then shall we have?”

²⁸ Jesus said to them, “*Truly I say to you, in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.*²⁹ *And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or fields for My name’s sake shall receive a hundred times as much and inherit eternal life.*³⁰ But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

The Workers in the Vineyard

20 “*For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard.*² When he had agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

³ *Then he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,*⁴ *and said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I will give you.’ So they went.*⁵ *Again he went out about the sixth hour and the ninth hour and did likewise.*⁶ About the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle, and said to them, ‘Why do you stand here idle all day?’

⁷ “They said to him, ‘Because no one has hired us.’

“He said to them, ‘You also go into the vineyard, and whatever is right you will receive.’

⁹ *“When they who were hired about the eleventh hour came, they each received a denarius.*¹⁰ *But when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more, but each of them likewise received a denarius.*¹¹ *When they received it, they grumbled against the landowner,*¹² saying, ‘These last worked only one hour, and you made them equal to us, who have borne the burden and the heat of the day.’

¹³ *“But he answered one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius?’¹⁴ Take what is yours and go your way. I will give to this last one even as I give to you.*¹⁵ Is it not lawful for me to do what I wish with my own things? Or is your eye evil because I am good?’

¹⁶ “So the last will be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few are chosen.”

A Third Time Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

Mk 10:32–34; Lk 18:31–34

¹⁷ As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside on the road and said to them,¹⁸ “*Now we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and scribes. And they will condemn Him to death*¹⁹ and deliver Him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify Him, but on the third day He will rise.”

A Mother’s Request

Mk 10:35–45

²⁰ Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons came to Him with her sons. And kneeling before Him, she asked for a certain thing.

²¹ He said to her, “What do you want?’”

She said to Him, “Grant that these two sons of mine may sit, one at Your right hand and one at Your left, in Your kingdom.”

²² But Jesus answered, “You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink from the cup that I am to drink, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?’”

They said to Him, “We are able.”

²³ He said to them, “You will indeed drink from My cup and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with. But to sit at My right hand and at My left is not Mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it is prepared by My Father.”

²⁴ When the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brothers.²⁵ But Jesus called them to Him and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them. ²⁶ It shall not be so among you. Whoever would be great among you, let him serve you, ²⁷ and whoever would be first among you, let him be your slave, ²⁸ even as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many."

²⁹ As they departed from Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. ³⁰ There, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Jesus was passing by, cried out, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!"

³¹ The crowd rebuked them, that they should be silent. But they cried out even more, "Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David!"

³² Jesus stood still and called them, saying, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

³³ They said to Him, "Lord, let our eyes be opened."

³⁴ So Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

The Triumphant Entry Into Jerusalem

Mk 11:1–11; Lk 19:28–38; Jn 12:12–19

21 When they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, on the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, ² saying to them, "Go over into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to Me. ³ If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord has need of them.' And he will send them immediately."

⁴ All this was done to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet, saying:

⁵ "Tell the daughter of Zion,
'Look, your King is coming to you,
humble, and sitting on a donkey,
and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.'"[†]

⁶ The disciples went and did as Jesus commanded them. ⁷ They brought the donkey and the colt, laid their garments on them, and He sat on them. ⁸ A very large crowd spread their garments on the road. Others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹ The crowds that went before Him and that followed Him cried out:

"Hosanna to the Son of David!
'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!'^{††}
Hosanna in the highest!"

¹⁰ When He entered Jerusalem, the entire city was moved, saying, "Who is He?"

¹¹ The crowds said, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth of Galilee."

[†] Zec 9:9. ^{††} Ps 118:26.

The Cleansing of the Temple

¹² Jesus went into the temple of God and drove out all those who sold and bought in the temple and overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of those who sold doves. ¹³ He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,'[‡] but you have made it 'a den of thieves.'"^{††}

¹⁴ The blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them. ¹⁵ But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying out in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David," they were extremely displeased ¹⁶ and said to Him, "Do You hear what these are saying?"

Jesus said to them, "Yes. Have you never read, 'Out of the mouth of children and infants You have perfected praise'^{‡‡} ?"

¹⁷ And He left them and went out of the city into Bethany, and He lodged there.

The Cursing of the Fig Tree

¹⁸ Now in the morning as He returned to the city, He became hungry. ¹⁹ When He saw a fig tree by the road, He went to it but found nothing on it except leaves. He said to it, "Let no fruit ever grow on you again." Immediately the fig tree withered away.

²¹ Jesus answered them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but also, if you say to this mountain, 'Be removed, and be thrown into the sea,' it will be done. ²² And whatever you ask in prayer, if you believe, you will receive."

The Question of Jesus' Authority

²³ When He entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to Him as He was teaching, and said, "By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority?"

²⁴ Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question. If you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵ Where did the baptism of John come from? From heaven or from men?"

They reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Then why did you not believe him?' ²⁶ But if we say, 'From men,' we are afraid of the people, for all hold John as a prophet."

²⁷ So they answered Jesus, "We do not know."

Then He said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Two Sons

²⁸ "What do you think? A man had two sons. He came to the first and said, 'Son, go work today in my vineyard.'

²⁹ "He answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he repented and went.

³⁰ "Then he came to the second, and said likewise. He answered, 'I will go, sir,' but did not go.

³¹ "Which of the two did the will of his father?"

They said, "The first."

Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, the tax collectors and prostitutes enter the kingdom of God before you. ³² For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward repent and believe him.

The Parable of the Vineyard and the Vinedressers

³³ "Listen to another parable: There was a certain landowner who planted a vineyard and built a wall around it. He dug a winepress in it and built a tower. Then he rented it to vinedressers and went into a distant country. ³⁴ When the season of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the vinedressers to receive his fruit.

³⁵ "The vinedressers took his servants and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. ³⁶ Again, he sent other servants, more than the first. And they did likewise to them. ³⁷ Last of all, he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

³⁸ "But when the vinedressers saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and seize his inheritance.' ³⁹ So they caught him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

⁴⁰ "Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vinedressers?"

⁴¹ They said, "He will severely destroy those wicked men and rent his vineyard to other vinedressers who will give him the fruits in their seasons."

⁴² Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:

'The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes' † ?

⁴³ "Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a nation bearing its fruits. ⁴⁴ Whoever falls on this stone will be broken to pieces. But on whomever it falls, it will crush him."

⁴⁵ When the chief priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they perceived that He was speaking of them. ⁴⁶ But as they tried to arrest Him, they feared the crowds, because they held Him as a prophet.

† Ps 118:22-23.

The Parable of the Wedding Banquet

22 Jesus spoke to them again by parables, saying, ² "The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who arranged a marriage for his son, ³ and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding, but they would not come.

⁴ "Again, he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited: See, I have prepared my supper. My oxen and fattened calves are killed, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.'

⁵ "But they made light of it and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his business; ⁶ the rest took his servants, treated them spitefully, and killed them. ⁷ When the king heard about it, he was angry. He sent in his army and destroyed those murderers and burned up their city.

⁸ "Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. ⁹ Go therefore to the streets, and invite to the wedding banquet as many as you find.' ¹⁰ So those servants went out into the streets and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. So the wedding hall was filled with guests.

¹¹ "But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw a man who was not wearing wedding garments.

¹² He said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without wedding garments?' And he was speechless.

¹³ "Then the king told the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and cast him into outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

¹⁴ "For many are called, but few are chosen."

The Question of Paying Taxes

¹⁵ Then the Pharisees went and took counsel to entangle Him in His words. ¹⁶ They sent their disciples to Him with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that You are truthful and teach the way of God truthfully, and are swayed by no one. For You do not regard the person of men. ¹⁷ Tell us then, what do You think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

¹⁸ But Jesus perceived their wickedness and said, "Why test Me, you hypocrites? ¹⁹ Show Me the tax money." They brought Him a denarius. ²⁰ He said to them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"

²¹ They said to Him, "Caesar's."

Then He said to them, "Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

²² When they heard these words, they were amazed, and left Him and went on their way.

The Question About the Resurrection

Mk 12:18–27; Lk 20:27–40

²³ The same day the Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, ²⁴ “Teacher, Moses said, ‘If a man dies having no children, his brother must marry his wife and raise up children for his brother.’ ^{†25} Now there were seven brothers with us. The first died after he married and, having no children, left his wife to his brother. ²⁶ Likewise the second and third, on to the seventh. ²⁷ Last of all, the woman died also. ²⁸ Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? For they all had her.”

²⁹ Jesus answered, “You err, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God. ³⁰ For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like the angels of God in heaven. ³¹ But concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, ³² ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob’ ^{††} ? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.”

³³ When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at His teaching.

The Great Commandment

³⁴ When the Pharisees heard that He silenced the Sadducees, they came together. ³⁵ One of them, who was a lawyer, tested Him by asking Him, ³⁶ “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?”

³⁷ Jesus said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.” ^{‡38} This is the first and great commandment. ³⁹ And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ ^{‡‡40} On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

The Question About David’s Son

Mk 12:35–37; Lk 20:41–44

⁴¹ While the Pharisees were assembled, Jesus asked them, ⁴² “What do you think of the Christ? Whose Son is He?”

They said to Him, “The Son of David.”

⁴³ He said to them, “How then does David in the Spirit call Him ‘Lord,’ saying:

⁴⁴ ‘The Lord said to my Lord,

“Sit at My right hand,

until I make Your enemies

Your footstool” [‡] ^{‡‡}

⁴⁵ ‘If David then calls Him ‘Lord,’ how is He his Son?’

⁴⁶ No one was able to answer Him a word, nor from that day on did anyone dare to ask Him any more questions.

The Denouncing of the Scribes and Pharisees

Mk 12:38–40; Lk 11:37–52; 20:45–47

23 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to His disciples, ² “The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses’ seat. ³ Therefore, whatever they tell you to observe, that observe and do, but do not do their works. For they speak, but do nothing. ⁴ They fasten heavy loads that are hard to carry and lay them on men’s shoulders, but they themselves will not move them with their finger.

⁸ “But do not be called ‘Rabbi,’ for you have one Teacher, the Christ, and you are all brothers. ⁹ And call no man on earth your father, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. ¹⁰ Nor be called teachers, for you have one Teacher, the Christ. ¹¹ He who is greatest among you shall be your servant. ¹² For he who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.

¹³ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You shut the kingdom of heaven against men. For you neither enter yourselves, nor allow those who are entering to go in. ¹⁴ Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You devour widows’ houses and for pretense make long prayers. Therefore you will receive the greater condemnation.

¹⁶ “Woe to you, blind guides, who say, ‘If anyone swears by the temple, it is nothing. But if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.’ ¹⁷ You blind fools! Which is greater, the gold or the temple that sanctifies the gold? ¹⁸ And you say, ‘If anyone swears by the altar, it is nothing. But if anyone swears by the gift on it, he is obligated.’ ¹⁹ You blind fools! Which is greater, the gift or the altar that sanctifies the gift? ²⁰ Therefore he who swears by the altar, swears by it and by all things on it. ²¹ But he who swears by the temple, swears by it and by Him who dwells in it. ²² And he who swears by heaven, swears by the throne of God and by Him who sits on it.

²⁵ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of extortion and greed. ²⁶ You blind Phar- isee, first cleanse the inside of the cup and dish, that the outside of them may also be clean.

³³ “You serpents! You generation of vipers! How can you escape the judgment of hell? ³⁴ Therefore I send you prophets, and wise men, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify, and some you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute them from city to city, ³⁵ that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berehiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar. ³⁶ Truly I say to you, all these things will come on this generation.

The Lament Over Jerusalem

³⁷ “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those who are sent to you, how often I would have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would not! ³⁸ Look, your house is left to you desolate. ³⁹ For I tell you, you shall not see Me again until you say, ‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.’† ”

The Destruction of the Temple Foretold

²⁴ Jesus departed from the temple and was leaving when His disciples came to show Him the temple buildings. ² Jesus answered them, “Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, not one stone shall be left here upon another that shall not be thrown down.”

Troubles and Persecutions

Mk 13:3–13; Lk 21:7–19

³ As He sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age?”

⁴ Jesus answered them, “Take heed that no one deceives you. ⁵ For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will deceive many. ⁶ You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not troubled. For all these things must happen, but the end is not yet. ⁷ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines, epidemics, and earthquakes in various places. ⁸ All these are the beginning of sorrows.

⁹ “Then they will hand you over to be persecuted and will kill you. And you will be hated by all nations for My name’s sake. ¹⁰ Then many will fall away, and betray one another, and hate one another. ¹¹ And many false prophets will rise and will deceive many. ¹² Because iniquity will abound, the love of many will grow cold. ¹³ But he who endures to the end shall be saved. ¹⁴ And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached throughout the world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

The Great Tribulation

¹⁵ “So when you see the ‘abomination of desolation,’ †† spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), ¹⁶ then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. ¹⁷ Let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything out of his house. ¹⁸ Let him who is in the field not return to take his clothes. ¹⁹ Woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse in those days! ²⁰ Pray that your escape will not be in the winter or on the Sabbath. ²¹ For then will be great tribulation, such as has not happened since the beginning of the world until now, no, nor ever shall be. ²² “Unless those days were shortened, no one would be saved. But for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened. ²³ Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ,’ or ‘There He is,’ do not believe it. ²⁴ For false christs and false prophets will arise and show great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. ²⁵ Listen, I have told you beforehand.

²⁶ “So, if they say to you, ‘Look, He is in the desert,’ do not go there; or, ‘Look, He is in the private chambers,’ do not believe it. ²⁷ For as the lightning comes from the east and flashes to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ²⁸ Wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.

The Coming of the Son of Man

²⁹ “Immediately after the tribulation of those days, ‘the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.’ ‡

³⁰ “Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. ³¹ And He will send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

³² "Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: When its branch becomes tender and grows leaves, you know that summer is near. ³³ So also, when you shall see all these things, you know that it is near, even at the doors. ³⁴ Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place. ³⁵ Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

The Unknown Day and Hour

³⁶ "Concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only. ³⁷ As were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸ For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark, ³⁹ and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰ Two will be in the field; one will be taken, and the other left. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken, and the other left.

⁴² "Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord will come. ⁴³ But know this, that if the owner of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not have let his house be broken into. ⁴⁴ Therefore you also must be ready, for in an hour when you least expect, the Son of Man is coming.

The Faithful or the Unfaithful Servant

⁴⁵ "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master has made ruler over his household to give them food at the appointed time? ⁴⁶ Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. ⁴⁷ Truly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all his goods. ⁴⁸ But if that evil servant says in his heart, 'My master delays his coming,' ⁴⁹ and begins to strike his fellow servants and eat and drink with the drunkards, ⁵⁰ the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not look for him and in an hour he is not aware of ⁵¹ and will cut him in pieces and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites, where there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Parable of the Ten Virgins

²⁵ "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be like ten virgins, who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. ² Five of them were wise and five were foolish. ³ Those who were foolish took their lamps, but took no oil with them. ⁴ But the wise took jars of oil with their lamps. ⁵ While the bridegroom delayed, they all rested and slept.

⁶ "But at midnight there was a cry, 'Look, the bridegroom is coming! Come out to meet him!'

⁷ "Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. ⁸ But the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps have gone out.'

⁹ "The wise answered, 'No, lest there not be enough for us and you. Go rather to those who sell it, and buy some for yourselves.'

¹⁰ "But while they went to buy some, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet. And the door was shut.

¹¹ "Afterward, the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open the door for us.'

¹² "But he answered, 'Truly I say to you, I do not know you.'

¹³ "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.

The Parable of the Talents

¹⁴ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling into a far country, who called his own servants and entrusted his goods to them. ¹⁵ To one he gave five talents, [†] to another two, and to another one, to every man according to his ability. And immediately he took his journey. ¹⁶ He who had received the five talents went and traded with them and made another five talents. ¹⁷ So also, he who had received two gained another two. ¹⁸ But he who had received one went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money.

¹⁹ "After a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. ²⁰ He who had received five talents came and brought the other five talents, saying, 'Master, you entrusted to me five talents. Look, I have gained five talents more.'

²¹ "His master said to him, 'Well done, you good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things. I will make you ruler over many things. Enter the joy of your master.'

²² "He who had received two talents also came and said, 'Master, you entrusted me with two talents. See, I have gained two more talents besides them.'

²³ "His master said to him, 'Well done, you good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a few things. I will make you ruler over many things. Enter the joy of your master.'

²⁴ "Then he who had received the one talent came and said, 'Master, I knew that you are a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not winnow. ²⁵ So I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.'

²⁶ "His master answered, 'You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not winnowed. ²⁷ Then you ought to have given my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have received what was my own with interest.

²⁸ "So take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents. ²⁹ For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from him who has nothing, even what he has will be taken away. ³⁰ And throw the unprofitable servant into outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

The Judgment of the Nations

³¹ "When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the holy angels with Him, then He will sit on the throne of His glory. ³² Before Him will be gathered all nations, and He will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates his sheep from the goats. ³³ He will set the sheep at His right hand, but the goats at the left.

³⁴ "Then the King will say to those at His right hand, 'Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. ³⁵ For I was hungry and you gave Me food, I was thirsty and you gave Me drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in. ³⁶ I was naked and you clothed Me, I was sick and you visited Me, I was in prison and you came to Me.'

³⁷ "Then the righteous will answer Him, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You, or thirsty and give You drink?' ³⁸ When did we see You a stranger and take You in, or naked and clothe You?' ³⁹ And when did we see You sick or in prison and come to You?'

⁴⁰ "The King will answer, 'Truly I say to you, as you have done it for one of the least of these brothers of Mine, you have done it for Me.'

⁴¹ "Then He will say to those at the left hand, 'Depart from Me, you cursed, into the eternal fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴² For I was hungry and you gave Me no food, I was thirsty and you gave Me no drink, ⁴³ I was a stranger and you did not take Me in, I was naked and you did not clothe Me, I was sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.'

⁴⁴ "Then they also will answer Him, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not serve You?'

⁴⁵ "He will answer, 'Truly I say to you, as you did it not for one of the least of these, you did it not for Me.'

⁴⁶ "And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

Mk 14:1-2; Lk 22:1-2; Jn 11:45-53

26 When Jesus had finished all these sayings, He said to His disciples, ² "You know that after two days is the Passover, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to be crucified."

³ Then the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders of the people gathered in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, ⁴ and took counsel that they might take Jesus covertly and kill Him. ⁵ But they said, "Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people."

The Anointing at Bethany

Mk 14:3-9; Jn 12:1-8

⁶ When Jesus was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, ⁷ a woman came to Him having an alabaster jar of very expensive ointment and poured it on His head as He sat at supper.

⁸ When His disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "For what purpose is this waste? ⁹ This ointment might have been sold for a large sum and given to the poor."

¹⁰ When Jesus perceived it, He said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? She has done a good work for Me. ¹¹ For you have the poor always with you, but you do not always have Me. ¹² In pouring this ointment on My body, she did it for My burial. ¹³ Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will be told in memory of her."

Judas' Agreement to Betray Jesus

¹⁴ Then one of the twelve, who was called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests ¹⁵ and said to them, "What will you give me if I hand Him over to you?" And they paid him thirty pieces of silver. ¹⁶ From that moment he searched for an opportunity to betray Him.

The Passover With the Disciples

Mk 14:12-21; Lk 22:7-14, 21-23; Jn 13:21-30

¹⁷ On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where will You have us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

¹⁸ He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with My disciples.'"

¹⁹ The disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover.

²⁰ When evening came, He sat down with the twelve.

²¹ And as they were eating, He said, "Truly I say to you, one of you will betray Me."

²² They were very sorrowful, and each of them began saying to Him, "Lord, is it I?"

²³ He answered and said, "He who has dipped his hand with Me in the dish will betray Me. ²⁴ The Son of Man goes as it is written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born."

²⁵ Then Judas, who betrayed Him, answered, "Master, is it I?"

He said to him, "You have said it."

The Lord's Supper

Mk 14:22-26; Lk 22:15-20; 1Co 11:23-25

²⁶ As they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed it and broke it, and gave it to the disciples and said, "Take and eat. This is My body."

²⁷ Then He took the cup, and after He gave thanks, He gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it, all of you. ²⁸ For this is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. ²⁹ I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom."

³⁰ And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Peter's Denial Foretold

Mk 14:27-31; Lk 22:31-34; Jn 13:36-38

³¹ Then Jesus said to them, "All of you will fall away on account of Me this night, for it is written: 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered.' [†]

³² But after I have risen, I will go before you to Galilee."

³³ Peter answered, "Though all men will fall away on account of You, yet I will never fall away."

³⁴ Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, this night, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

³⁵ Peter said to Him, "Though I should die with You, yet I will not deny You." And all the disciples spoke in this manner.

The Prayer in Gethsemane

³⁶ Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane and said to the disciples, "Sit here while I go and pray close by." ³⁷ He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee and began to be sorrowful and troubled. ³⁸ Then He said to them, "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death. Wait here, and keep watch with Me."

³⁹ He went a little farther, and falling on His face, He prayed, "O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Nevertheless, not as I will, but as You will."

⁴⁰ Then He came to the disciples and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "So, could you not keep watch with Me one hour? ⁴¹ Watch and pray that you enter not into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

⁴² He went away a second time and prayed, "O My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me unless I drink it, Your will be done."

⁴³ Again, He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. ⁴⁴ So leaving them again, He went away and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

[†] Zec 13:7.

⁴⁵ Then He came to His disciples and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. Look, the hour is near, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶ Rise, let us be going. Look, he who betrays Me is at hand."

The Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

⁴⁷ While He was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came. And with him was a great crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people. ⁴⁸ Now he who betrayed Him had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I shall kiss is the Man. Seize Him." ⁴⁹ He immediately came to Jesus and said, "Hail, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.

⁵⁰ And Jesus said to him, "Friend, why have you come?"

Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and took Him. ⁵¹ Immediately, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

⁵² Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back in its place. For all those who take up the sword will perish by the sword. ⁵³ Do you think that I cannot now pray to My Father, and He will at once give Me more than twelve legions of angels? ⁵⁴ But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be so?"

⁵⁵ At that same moment Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out as against a thief to take Me with swords and clubs? Daily I sat with you in the temple teaching, and you did not seize Me. ⁵⁶ But all this was done that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled." Then all the disciples forsook Him and fled.

Jesus Before the Sanhedrin

⁵⁷ Those who had seized Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had assembled. ⁵⁸ But Peter followed Him from afar to the high priest's courtyard and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end.

⁵⁹ The chief priests and the elders and the entire Sanhedrin searched for false witness against Jesus to put Him to death, ⁶⁰ but they found none. Yes, though many false witnesses came forward, they found none.

At last two false witnesses came forward ⁶¹ and said, "This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God and to build it in three days.'"

⁶² Then the high priest stood up and said to Him, "Do You answer nothing? What is it these men testify against You?" ⁶³ But Jesus remained silent.

The high priest said to Him, "I adjure You by the living God, tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God."

⁶⁴ Jesus said to him, "You have said so. But I say to you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven."

⁶⁵ Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, "He has uttered blasphemy. What further need do we have for witnesses? See, now you have heard His blasphemy. ⁶⁶ What do you think?"

They answered, "He is guilty unto death."

⁶⁷ Then they spat in His face and struck Him. And others slapped Him with the palms of their hands, ⁶⁸ saying, "Prophecy to us, You Christ! Who is it that struck You?"

Peter's Denial of Jesus

Mk 14:66-72; Lk 22:56-62; Jn 18:15-18, 25-27

⁶⁹ Now Peter sat outside in the courtyard. And a girl came to him, saying, "You also were with Jesus of Galilee."

⁷⁰ But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are saying."

⁷¹ Then when he went out onto the porch, another girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This man was also with Jesus of Nazareth."

⁷² Again he denied with an oath, "I do not know the Man."

⁷³ After a while those who stood by came to Peter and said, "Surely you also are one of them, for your accent betrays you."

⁷⁴ Then he began to invoke a curse on himself and he swore, "I do not know the Man."

Then immediately a rooster crowed. ⁷⁵ Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken, "Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." Then he went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Brought Before Pilate

Mk 15:1; Lk 23:1-2; Jn 18:28-32

27 When the morning came, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put Him to death. ² When they had bound Him, they led Him away and handed Him over to Pontius Pilate the governor.

The Death of Judas

Ac 1:18-19

³ When Judas, who had betrayed Him, saw that He was condemned, he repented and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, ⁴ saying, "I have sinned in that I have betrayed innocent blood."

They said, "What is that to us? You must see to that."

⁵ So he threw down the pieces of silver in the temple and departed. And he went and hanged himself.

⁶ The chief priests took the silver pieces and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, because this is the price of blood." ⁷ So they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field to bury strangers in. ⁸ Therefore that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day. ⁹ Then what was spoken by Jeremiah

the prophet was fulfilled: "They took the thirty pieces of silver, the value of that the sons of Israel set on Him, ¹⁰ and gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me." [†]

Jesus Questioned by Pilate

Mk 15:2-5; Lk 23:3-5; Jn 18:33-38

¹¹ Jesus stood before the governor. And the governor asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

Jesus said to him, "You have said so."

¹² When He was accused by the chief priests and elders, He gave no answer. ¹³ Then Pilate said to Him, "Do You not hear how many things they testify against You?" ¹⁴ But He never answered him a word, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

Jesus Sentenced to Die

¹⁵ Now at the feast, the governor was accustomed to releasing to the people a prisoner whom they chose.

¹⁶ They had then a notorious prisoner called Barabbas.

¹⁷ So when they had gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you—Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" ¹⁸ For he knew that they had handed Him over out of envy.

¹⁹ When he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, "Have nothing to do with that righteous Man, for I have suffered much today in a dream on account of Him."

²⁰ But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and kill Jesus.

²¹ The governor answered, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?"

They said, "Barabbas."

²² Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?"

They all said to him, "Let Him be crucified!"

²³ The governor said, "Why, what evil has He done?"

But they cried out all the more, "Let Him be crucified!"

²⁴ When Pilate saw that he could not prevail, but rather that unrest was beginning, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous Man. See to it yourselves."

²⁵ Then all the people answered, "His blood be on us and on our children!"

²⁶ Then he released Barabbas to them. But when he had scourged Jesus, he handed Him over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

Mk 15:16-20; Jn 19:2-3

²⁷ Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole detachment of soldiers before Him. ²⁸ They stripped Him and put a scarlet robe on Him,²⁹ and when they wove a crown of thorns, they put it on His head and put a staff in His right hand. They knelt before Him and mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!"³⁰ They spit on Him, and took the staff and hit Him on the head.³¹ After they had mocked Him, they took the robe off Him, put His own garments on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

The Crucifixion

³² As they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name. This man they compelled to bear His cross.³³ When they came to a place called Golgotha, which means The Place of the Skull,³⁴ they gave Him sour wine mingled with gall to drink. But when He tasted it, He would not drink it.³⁵ When they crucified Him, they divided His garments by casting lots to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet, "They divided My garments among themselves and for My clothing they cast lots."³⁶ And sitting down, they kept watch over Him there.³⁷ They put His accusation over His head, which read:

THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

⁴¹ Likewise the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, mocked Him, saying,⁴² "He saved others. He cannot save Himself. If He is the King of Israel, let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe Him."⁴³ He trusted in God. Let Him deliver Him now, if He will have Him. For He said, "I am the Son of God."⁴⁴ Even the thieves who were crucified with Him insulted Him in the same way.

The Death of Jesus

⁴⁵ Now from the sixth hour until the ninth hour there was darkness over all the land.⁴⁶ About the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" which means, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?"^{††}

⁴⁷ Some of those who stood there heard it and said, "This Man is calling for Elijah."

⁴⁸ Immediately one of them ran, took a sponge, filled it with wine, and put it on a stick, and gave it to Him to drink.⁴⁹ The rest said, "Leave Him alone. Let us see if Elijah will come to save Him."

⁵⁰ And Jesus, when He had cried out again with a loud voice, released His spirit.

⁵¹ At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from the top to the bottom. And the ground shook, and the rocks split apart.⁵² The graves also were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had died were raised,⁵³ and coming out of the graves after His resurrection, they went into the Holy City and appeared to many.

⁵⁴ When the centurion and those with him, keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they feared greatly and said, "Truly He was the Son of God!"

⁵⁵ Many women who were there watching from afar followed Jesus from Galilee, serving Him,⁵⁶ among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

The Burial of Jesus

⁵⁷ When the evening came, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also was a disciple of Jesus.⁵⁸ He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given to him.⁵⁹ When Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,⁶⁰ and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out of the rock. And he rolled a large stone to the door of the tomb and departed.⁶¹ Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

The Guard at the Tomb

⁶² The next day, following the Day of Preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered before Pilate,⁶³ saying, "Sir, we remember that deceiver saying while He was still alive, 'After three days I will rise.'⁶⁴ Therefore command that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples come by night and steal Him away, and tell the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' The last deception will be worse than the first."

⁶⁵ Pilate said to them, "You have a guard. Go your way. Make it as secure as you can."⁶⁶ So they went and made the tomb secure by sealing the stone and posting the guard.

The Resurrection

Mk 16:1-8; Lk 24:1-12; Jn 20:1-10

28 At the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb.

² And then there was a great earthquake. For the angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone from the door and sat on it.³ His countenance was like lightning, and his garments white as snow.⁴ The soldiers shook for fear of him and became like dead men.

⁵ The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid. For I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified.⁶ He is not here. For He has risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.⁷ Then go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead, and indeed, He is going before you to Galilee. There you will see Him. Listen, I have told you."

⁸ So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring His disciples word. ⁹ As they went to tell His disciples, suddenly Jesus met them, saying, "Greetings!" They came and took hold of His feet and worshipped Him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go tell My brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see Me."

The Report of the Guard

¹¹ While they were going, indeed, some of the soldiers went into the city and described to the chief priests everything that had happened. ¹² When the chief priests were assembled with the elders and had taken counsel, they gave much money to the soldiers, ¹³ saying, "You are to say, 'His disciples came by night and stole Him away while we were sleeping.' ¹⁴ If this comes to the governor's ears, we will satisfy him and keep you secure." ¹⁵ So they took the money and did as they were instructed. And this saying has been commonly reported among the Jews to this day.

The Commissioning of the Disciples

Mk 16:14-18; Lk 24:36-49; Jn 20:19-23; Ac 1:6-8

¹⁶ Then the eleven disciples went away to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷ When they saw Him, they worshipped Him. But some doubted. ¹⁸ Then Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth." ¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all things I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

MARK

According to biblical history, Paul the Apostle rejected John Mark during a personality conflict on a missionary journey (Ac 15:36–41). When Peter took Mark under his wing, Mark assisted him in the writing of the Gospel that bears his name. Mark's Gospel is closely associated with Peter's personal memories of Jesus. It was written in the mid- to late-AD 50s. The place of writing is unknown, but Rome is the likeliest location. The focus of this study is Jesus' servanthood to the Father and His power over the demonic realm. Discipleship is another important theme that runs throughout Mark's Gospel. Mark does not mention Jesus' genealogy because genealogies of servants were not typically recorded in ancient history. This is a Gospel of Jesus' works more than His words, and it is very fast-paced, taking the reader from one story quickly to the next.

The Preaching of John the Baptist

Mt 3:1–12; Lk 3:1–9, 15–17; Jn 1:19–28

1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
² As it is written in the Prophets:
 "Look, I am sending My messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your way before You." † ³ "The voice of one crying in the wilderness:
 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make His paths straight.'" ††
⁴ John came baptizing in the wilderness and preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.
⁷ He preached saying, "After me is coming One mightier than I, the straps of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and untie. ⁸ I indeed have baptized you with water, but He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

The Baptism of Jesus

Mt 3:13–17; Lk 3:21–22

⁹ In those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰ Coming up out of the water, He immediately saw the heavens opened and the Spirit descending on Him like a dove. ¹¹ And a voice came from heaven, saying, "You are My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased."

The Temptation of Jesus

¹² The Spirit immediately drove Him into the wilderness. ¹³ And He was there in the wilderness for forty days, tempted by Satan, and was with the wild beasts. And the angels ministered to Him.

† Mal 3:1. †† Isa 40:3.

The Beginning of the Galilean Ministry

Mt 4:12–17; Lk 4:14–15

¹⁴ After John was put in prison, Jesus came to Galilee preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, ¹⁵ saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe the gospel."

The Calling of the First Disciples

¹⁶ As He walked by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew, his brother, throwing a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷ Jesus said to them, "Come, follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." ¹⁸ Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.

¹⁹ When He had gone a little farther from there, He saw James the son of Zebedee and John, his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets. ²⁰ Immediately He called them. And they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and followed Him.

The Man With an Unclean Spirit

²¹ They went to Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath He entered the synagogue and taught.

²² They were astonished at His teaching, for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

²³ In their synagogue there was a man with an unclean spirit. ²⁴ And he cried out, "Leave us alone! What do You have to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are, the Holy One of God."

²⁵ Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent and come out of him!" ²⁶ When the unclean spirit had convulsed him and cried out with a loud voice, it came out of him.

²⁷ They were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, "What is this? What new teaching is this? With authority He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him." ²⁸ Immediately His fame spread everywhere throughout the region surrounding Galilee.

The Healing of Many People

Mt 8:14-17; Lk 4:38-41

²⁹ When He came out of the synagogue with James and John, they went directly to the house of Simon and Andrew. ³⁰ The mother of Simon's wife lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told Him of her. ³¹ So He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and immediately the fever left her. And she served them.

³² In the evening, when the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were sick and those who were possessed with demons. ³³ The whole city was gathered at the door, ³⁴ and He healed many who were sick with various diseases and cast out many demons. And He did not let the demons speak, because they knew Him.

A Preaching Tour

³⁵ In the morning, rising up a great while before sunrise, He went out and departed to a solitary place. And there He prayed. ³⁶ Simon and those who were with Him followed Him, ³⁷ and when they found Him, they said to Him, "Everyone is searching for You."

³⁸ He said to them, "Let us go into the nearby towns, that I may preach there also. For that is why I have come." ³⁹ So He preached in their synagogues throughout Galilee and cast out demons.

The Cleansing of a Leper

Mt 8:1-4; Lk 5:12-16

⁴⁰ A leper came to Him, pleading with Him and kneeling before Him, saying, "If You are willing, You can make me clean."

⁴¹ Then Jesus, moved with compassion, extended His hand and touched him, and said to him, "I will. Be clean." ⁴² As soon as He had spoken, the leprosy immediately departed from him, and he was cleansed.

⁴³ He sternly warned him, and sent him away at once, ⁴⁴ saying, "See that you say nothing to anyone. But go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." ⁴⁵ Instead he went out and began to proclaim it widely and to spread the news around, so that Jesus could no more openly enter the city, but was out in remote places. And they came to Him from every quarter.

The Healing of a Paralytic

Mt 9:1-8; Lk 5:17-26

2 Again, He entered Capernaum after some days. And it was reported that He was in the house. ² Immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no room to receive them, not even at the door. And He preached the word to them. ³ They came to Him bringing one sick with paralysis, who was carried by four men. ⁴ When they could not come near Him due to the crowding, they uncovered the roof where He was. When they had broken it open, they let down the bed on which the paralytic lay. ⁵ When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

⁶ But some of the scribes were sitting there, reasoning in their hearts, ⁷ "Why does this Man speak such blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

⁸ Immediately, when Jesus perceived in His spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, He said to them, "Why do you contemplate these things in your hearts?"

⁹ "Which is easier to say to the paralytic: 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise, take up your bed and walk?' ¹⁰ But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," He said to the paralytic, ¹¹ "I say to you, rise, and take up your bed, and go your way to your house." ¹² Immediately he rose, picked up the bed, and went out in front of them all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

The Calling of Levi

Mt 9:9-13; Lk 5:27-32

¹³ He went out again by the seaside, and the whole crowd came to Him, and He taught them. ¹⁴ As He passed by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's station, and He said to him, "Follow Me." And he rose and followed Him.

¹⁵ As Jesus was at supper in his house, many tax collectors and sinners also sat together with Jesus and His disciples. For there were many, and they followed Him. ¹⁶ When the scribes and Pharisees saw Him eating with tax collectors and sinners, they said to His disciples, "How is it that He eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

¹⁷ When Jesus heard it, He said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

The Question About Fasting

Mt 9:14-17; Lk 5:33-39

¹⁸ Now the disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting. And people came and said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

¹⁹ Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. ²⁰ But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days."

²¹ "No one sews a piece of new cloth on an old garment, or else the new piece that covered it tears away from the old, and the tear is made worse. ²² And no one pours new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine bursts the wineskins, and the wine is spilled, and the wineskins will be marred. But new wine must be poured into new wineskins."

The Question About the Sabbath

Mt 12:1-8; Lk 6:1-5

²³ He went through the grain fields on the Sabbath. As they went, His disciples began to pluck the heads of grain. ²⁴ The Pharisees said to Him, "Look, why are they doing on the Sabbath what is not lawful?"

²⁵ He said to them, "Have you never read what David did, when he and those who were with him were in need and hungry: ²⁶ how he went into the house of God, in the days Abiathar was the high priest, and ate the ritual bread, which is lawful only for the priests to eat, and also gave it to those who were with him?"

²⁷ Then He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. ²⁸ So the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath."

The Man With a Withered Hand

Mt 12:9-14; Lk 6:6-11

³ Again, He entered the synagogue, and there was a man who had a withered hand. ² They watched Him to see whether He would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him. ³ He said to the man who had the withered hand, "Stand up."

⁴ Then He said to them, "Is it lawful to do good or to do evil on the Sabbath, to save life or to kill?" But they kept silent.

⁵ When He had looked around at them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, He said to the man, "Stretch your hand forward." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored as whole as the other. ⁶ Then the Pharisees went out and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against Him, how to kill Him.

The Crowd at the Seaside

⁷ Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea. And a great crowd followed Him from Galilee and Judea ⁸ and Jerusalem, and Idumea, and from beyond the Jordan. And those from Tyre and Sidon, a great crowd, when they heard what great things He did, came to Him. ⁹ He told the disciples to have a small boat ready for Him because of the crowd, lest they should crush Him. ¹⁰ For He had healed many, so that all who had diseases pressed on Him to touch Him. ¹¹ When unclean spirits saw Him, they fell down before Him, crying out, "You are the Son of God." ¹² But He sternly ordered them not to make Him known.

The Choosing of the Twelve Apostles

Mt 10:1-4; Lk 6:12-16

¹³ He went up into the mountain and called to Him those whom He desired, and they came to Him. ¹⁴ He ordained twelve to be with Him, and to be sent out to preach, ¹⁵ and to have authority to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons: ¹⁶ Simon, whom He named Peter; ¹⁷ James, the son of Zebedee, and John, the brother of James, whom he surnamed Boanerges (meaning Sons of Thunder); ¹⁸ Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas; and James the son of Alphaeus; and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Zealot; ¹⁹ and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Him.

Jesus and Beelzebub

Mt 12:22-32; Lk 11:14-23; 12:10

²⁰ Then they entered a house, and the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat bread. ²¹ When His family heard of it, they went out to seize Him, for they said, "He is beside Himself."

²² And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He is possessed by Beelzebub, and by the ruler of the demons He casts out demons."

²³ So He called them to Him and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? ²⁴ If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵ If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. ²⁶ And if Satan rises up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end. ²⁷ No one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. Then he will plunder his house. ²⁸ Truly I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they speak. ²⁹ But he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal condemnation."

³⁰ For they said, "He has an unclean spirit."

The Mother and Brothers of Jesus

Mt 12:46-50; Lk 8:19-21

³¹ Then His mother and His brothers came, and standing outside, they sent to Him, calling Him. ³² The crowd sat around Him and said to Him, "Your mother and Your brothers are outside asking for You."

³³ He answered, "Who are My mother and My brothers?"

³⁴ Then He looked around at those who sat around Him and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! ³⁵ For whoever does the will of God is My brother, and My sister, and My mother."

The Parable of the Sower

Mt 13:1-9; Lk 8:4-8

⁴ gain He began to teach by the seaside. A large crowd was gathered before Him, so that He entered a boat and sat in it on the sea. And the whole crowd was by the sea on the land. ² He taught them many things in parables and said to them in His teaching: ³ "Listen! And take note: A sower went out to sow. ⁴ As he sowed, some seed fell beside the path, and the birds of the air came and devoured it. ⁵ Some seed fell on rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and soon it sprang up because it did not have deep soil. ⁶ But when the sun rose, it was scorched. And because it had no root, it withered away.⁷ Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no grain.⁸ And other seed fell on good ground, and it yielded grain that sprang up and increased by thirty, sixty, or a hundred times as much.”

⁹ Then He said to them, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

The Purpose of the Parables

Mt 13:10–17; Lk 8:9–10

¹⁰ When He was alone, those who were around Him with the twelve asked Him about the parable.¹¹ He said to them, “To you is given the secret of the kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, everything is said in parables,¹² so that ‘seeing they may see, and not perceive, and hearing they may hear and not understand; lest they should turn, and their sins be forgiven them.’[†]”

The Parable of the Sower Explained

Mt 13:18–23; Lk 8:11–15

¹³ Then He said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables?¹⁴ The sower sows the word.¹⁵ These are those beside the path, where the word is sown. But when they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word which is sown in their hearts.¹⁶ Others, likewise, are seed sown on rocky ground, who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with gladness,¹⁷ but have no root in themselves, and so endure for a time. Afterward, when affliction or persecution rises for the word’s sake, immediately they fall away.¹⁸ And others are seed sown among thorns, the ones who hear the word.¹⁹ But the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires for other things entering in choke the word, and it proves unfruitful.²⁰ Still others are seed sown on good ground, those who hear the word, and receive it, and bear fruit: thirty, sixty, or a hundred times as much.”

A Light Under a Basket

Lk 8:16–18

²¹ He said to them, “Is a candle brought to be put under a basket or under a bed and not to be set on a candlestick?²² For there is nothing hidden except to be revealed; neither is anything kept secret except to be proclaimed.²³ If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”

²⁴ He said to them, “Take heed what you hear. The measure you give will be measured for you, and to you who hear will more be given.²⁵ For to him who has will more be given. And from him who has not will be taken, even what he has.”

The Parable of the Growing Seed

²⁶ He said, “The kingdom of God is like a man who scatters seed on the ground.²⁷ He sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows; he does not know how.²⁸ For the earth bears fruit by itself: first the blade, then the head, then the full seed in the head.²⁹ But when the grain is ripe, immediately he applies the sickle because the harvest has come.”

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

³⁰ He said, “To what shall we liken the kingdom of God, or with what parable shall we compare it?³¹ It is like a grain of mustard seed which, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest seed on earth.³² Yet when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all shrubs, and shoots out great branches, so that the birds of the air may nest in its shade.”

The Use of Parables

³³ With many such parables He spoke the word to them as they were able to hear it.³⁴ Without a parable He did not speak to them. But when they were alone, He expounded on all things to His disciples.

The Calming of a Storm

³⁵ That same day, when the evening came, He said to them, “Let us go cross to the other side.”³⁶ When they had sent the crowd away, they took Him in the boat just as He was. There were also other little boats with Him.³⁷ A great wind storm arose, and the waves splashed into the boat, so that it was now filling the boat.³⁸ He was in the stern asleep on a pillow. They woke Him and said, “Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?”

³⁹ He rose and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace, be still!” Then the wind ceased and there was a great calm.

⁴⁰ He said to them, “Why are you so fearful? How is that you have no faith?”

⁴¹ They feared greatly and said to one another, “What kind of Man is He, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?”

The Healing of the Gadarene Demoniac

Mt 8:28–34; Lk 8:26–39

5 They went to the other side of the sea to the region of the Gadarenes.² When He had come out of the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit came out of the tombs and met Him.³ He lived among the tombs. And no one could constrain him, not even with chains,⁴ because he had often been bound with shackles and chains. But he had pulled the chains apart and broken the shackles to pieces. And no one could subdue him. ⁵ Always, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying out and cutting himself with stones.

⁶ But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran up and knelt before Him, ⁷ and cried out with a loud voice, "What have You to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure You by God, do not torment me."

⁸ For Jesus said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

⁹ Then He asked him, "What is your name?"

He answered, "My name is Legion. For we are many." ¹⁰ And he begged Him repeatedly not to send them away out of the country.

¹¹ Now there was a great herd of swine feeding near the mountains. ¹² All the demons pleaded with Him, asking, "Send us to the swine, so that we may enter them." ¹³ At once, Jesus gave them leave. Then the unclean spirits came out and entered the swine. And the herd, numbering about two thousand, ran wildly down a steep hill into the sea and were drowned in the sea.

¹⁴ Those who fed the swine fled and reported it in the city and in the country. And people went out to see what it was that had happened. ¹⁵ They came to Jesus and saw him who had been possessed with the legion of demons sitting and clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. ¹⁶ Those who saw it told them how it befell him who had been possessed with the demons and also concerning the swine. ¹⁷ Then they began to plead with Him to depart out of their region.

¹⁸ When He entered the boat, he who had been possessed with the demons prayed Him that he might be with Him. ¹⁹ Jesus did not let him, but said to him, "Go home to your friends and tell them what great things the Lord has done for you and how He has had compassion on you." ²⁰ So he departed and began to proclaim in the Decapolis † what great things Jesus had done for him. And everyone was amazed.

Jairus' Daughter and the Woman Who Touched Jesus' Garment

Mt 9:18-26; Lk 8:40-56

²¹ When Jesus had crossed again by boat to the other side, many people gathered to Him. And He was beside the sea. ²² One of the rulers of the synagogue, named Jairus, saw Jesus and came and fell at His feet ²³ and earnestly asked Him, "My little daughter is lying at the point of death. I ask You, come and lay Your hands on her, so that she may be healed. And she will live." ²⁴ So Jesus went with him.

And many people followed Him and pressed in on Him. ²⁵ And a certain woman had a hemorrhage for twelve years, ²⁶ and had suffered much under many physicians. She had spent all that she had, and was not better but rather grew worse. ²⁷ When she had heard of Jesus, she came in the crowd behind Him and touched His garment. ²⁸ For she said, "If I may touch His garments, I shall be healed." ²⁹ And immediately her hemorrhage dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the affliction.

³⁰ At once, Jesus knew within Himself that power had gone out of Him. He turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My garments?"

³¹ His disciples said to Him, "You see the crowd pressing against You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'"

³² And He looked around to see her who had done it. ³³ But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the entire truth. ³⁴ He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your affliction."

³⁵ While He was still speaking, some came from the house of the synagogue ruler and said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?"

³⁶ As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not be afraid, only believe."

³⁷ He let no one follow Him, except Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. ³⁸ He came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and saw the tumult, and those who wept and wailed loudly. ³⁹ When He came in, He said to them, "Why make this uproar and weep? The girl is not dead, but sleeping." ⁴⁰ They laughed at Him in ridicule.

But when He had put them all out, He took the father and the mother of the girl and those who were with Him and entered where the girl was lying. ⁴¹ He took the girl by the hand and said to her, "Talitha cumi," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." ⁴² Immediately the girl arose and walked, for she was twelve years of age. And they were greatly astonished. ⁴³ He strictly ordered them to let no one know of it and directed them to give her something to eat.

The Rejection of Jesus at Nazareth

Mt 13:53-58; Lk 4:16-30

⁶ He went away from there and came into His own country. And His disciples followed Him. ² When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue. And many hearing Him were astonished, saying, "Where did this Man get this? What is this wisdom that is given Him, that even miracles are done by His hands? ³ Is this not the carpenter, the Son of Mary and the brother of James and Joseph and Judas and Simon? Are not His sisters here with us?" And they took offense at Him.

⁴ Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house." ⁵ He could not do any miracles there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them. ⁶ And He was amazed because of their unbelief.

† The Ten Cities.

The Mission of the Twelve

Mt 10:1, 5–15; Lk 9:1–6

Then He went to the surrounding villages, teaching. ⁷ He called to Him the twelve, and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over unclean spirits.

⁸ He commanded them to take nothing for their journey except a staff: no bag, no bread, and no money in their purse, ⁹ but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics. ¹⁰ He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, remain there until you depart from that place.

¹¹ And whoever will not receive you or hear you, when you depart from there, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them. Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah on the Day of Judgment than for that city.”

¹² So they went out and preached that men should repent. ¹³ And they cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.

The Death of John the Baptist

Mt 14:1–12; Lk 9:7–9

¹⁴ King Herod heard of Him, for His name was spread publicly. He said, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and therefore these miracles are at work in him.”

¹⁵ But others said, “He is Elijah.”

And yet others said, “He is the Prophet, or like one of the prophets.”

¹⁶ But when Herod heard of it, he said, “It is John, whom I beheaded. He has been raised from the dead!”

¹⁹ So Herodias had a grudge against him and would have killed him, but she could not, ²⁰ for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed, but heard him gladly.

²¹ But a convenient day came when Herod on his birthday prepared a ceremonial dinner for his lords and commanding officers and leading men of Galilee. ²² When the daughter of Herodias came in and danced and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the king said to the girl, “Ask of me whatever you desire, and I will give it to you.” ²³ And he swore to her, “Whatever you ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom.”

²⁴ She went out and said to her mother, “What shall I ask?”

She said, “The head of John the Baptist.”

²⁵ She came in immediately with haste to the king and asked, “I want you to give me the head of John the Baptist on a platter at once.”

²⁶ The king was extremely sorrowful. Yet for the sake of his oath and those who sat with him, he would not reject her. ²⁷ So the king immediately sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. He went and beheaded him in the prison, ²⁸ and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. And the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹ When his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

The Feeding of the Five Thousand

³⁰ The apostles met with Jesus and told him everything, both what they had done and what they had taught. ³¹ Then He said to them, “Come away by yourselves to a remote place and rest a while,” for many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat.

³² So they went into a remote place privately by boat. ³³ But the people saw them departing, and many knew Him and ran there on foot out of every city. They arrived first and came together to Him. ³⁴ When Jesus came out and saw many people, He was moved with compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. And He began to teach them many things.

³⁵ When the day was now getting late, His disciples came to Him and said, “This is a remote place, and now the time is passing. ³⁶ Send them away into the surrounding country and villages to buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat.”

³⁷ But He answered, “You give them something to eat.”

They said to Him, “Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii † worth of bread and give it to them to eat?”

³⁸ He said to them, “How many loaves have you? Go and see.”

When they found out, they said, “Five, and two fish.”

³⁹ Then He commanded them to make everyone sit down by companies on the green grass. ⁴⁰ So they sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties. ⁴¹ When He had taken the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before them. And He divided the two fish among them all. ⁴² They all ate and were filled. ⁴³ And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments and of the fish. ⁴⁴ Those who ate of the loaves were about five thousand men.

Mt 14:22–33; Jn 6:15–21

⁴⁵ Immediately He compelled His disciples to get into the boat and to go before Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He sent the crowd away. ⁴⁶ When He had sent them away, He departed to a mountain to pray.

⁴⁷ When evening came, the boat was in the midst of the sea. And He was alone on the land. ⁴⁸ He saw them straining at rowing, for the wind was against them.

† Eight months’ wages.

About the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking on the sea and would have passed by them.⁴⁹ But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed it was a ghost, and cried out.⁵⁰ For they all saw Him and were troubled.

Immediately He spoke to them and said, *“Be of good cheer, it is I. Do not be afraid.”*⁵¹ Then He went up to them in the boat and the wind ceased. They were greatly astonished in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.⁵² For they had not comprehended the miracle of the loaves, for their hearts were hardened.

The Healing of the Sick in Gennesaret

⁵³ When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret and anchored on the shore.⁵⁴ When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him,⁵⁵ and ran throughout the surrounding region, and began to carry the sick on beds to wherever they heard He was.⁵⁶ And wherever He entered, into villages, cities, or the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces and pleaded with Him that they might touch even the fringe of His garment. And as many as touched Him were healed.

The Tradition of the Elders

7 The Pharisees and certain scribes who came from Jerusalem gathered around Him.² When they saw some of His disciples eat bread with defiled, that is, ritually unwashed hands, they found fault.³ For the Pharisees and all the Jews, unless they wash their hands ritually, do not eat, keeping the tradition of the elders.⁴ When they come from the market, unless they wash, they do not eat. And there are many other traditions which they have received and observe, such as the washing of cups and pitchers and bronze vessels and dining couches.

⁵ So the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, “Why do Your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?”

⁶ He answered, “Well has Isaiah prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written:

*‘These people honor Me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from Me.*

*7 In vain do they worship Me,
teaching as doctrines the precepts of men.’[†]*

⁸ For laying aside the commandment of God, you hold the tradition of men—the washing of pitchers and cups, and many other such things you do.”

⁹ And He said to them, *“You full well reject the commandment of God so that you may keep your own tradition.”*¹⁰ For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’^{††} and, ‘Whoever curses father or mother, let him be put to death.’^{‡‡} But you say, ‘If a man says to his father or mother, “It is Corban,” that is to say, “What you would have profited from me is a gift to

God,” he shall be free.’¹² Then you no longer let him do anything for his father or his mother,¹³ making the word of God of no effect through your tradition, which you have delivered. And you do many similar things.”

¹⁴ When He had called all the people to Him, He said, “Listen to Me, every one of you, and understand:¹⁵ There is nothing from outside a man that by entering him can defile him. But the things which come out of the man are what defile him.¹⁶ If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”

¹⁷ When He had left the people and entered the house, His disciples asked Him concerning the parable.¹⁸ He said to them, “Are you so without understanding also? Do you not know that anything from the outside that enters a man cannot defile him,¹⁹ because it does not enter his heart, but into his stomach, and goes out into the sewer, thus purifying all foods?”

²⁰ And He said, “What comes out of a man is what defiles a man.²¹ For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adultery, fornication, murder,²² theft, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, licentiousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride and foolishness.²³ All these evil things come from within and defile a man.”

The Syrophenician Woman's Faith

²⁴ From there He arose and went to the region of Tyre and Sidon. He entered a house and would have no one know it. Yet He could not be hidden.²⁵ For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of Him, and came and fell at His feet.²⁶ The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by race. And she begged Him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

²⁷ Jesus said to her, “Let the children first be filled. For it is not fitting to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs.”

²⁸ She answered, “Yes, Lord. Yet the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs.”

²⁹ Then He said to her, “For this answer, go your way. The demon has gone out of your daughter.”

³⁰ When she had come to her house, she found the demon had gone out, and her daughter lying on the bed.

The Deaf and Mute Man Healed

³¹ Again, departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, He came to the Sea of Galilee, through the region of the Decapolis.³² They brought to Him one who was deaf and had difficulty speaking. And they pleaded with Him to put His hand on him.

³³ He took him aside from the crowd, and put His fingers into his ears, and spat and touched his tongue.³⁴ Looking up to heaven, He sighed, and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, *“Be opened.”*³⁵ Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was loosened, and he spoke correctly.

³⁶ He ordered them to tell no one. But the more He ordered them, the more they greatly proclaimed it. ³⁷ They were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

The Feeding of the Four Thousand

8 In those days, the crowds being very great with nothing to eat, Jesus called His disciples to Him and said to them, ² "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have now been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. ³ If I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come from afar."

⁴ His disciples answered, "Where can one get bread to feed these men here in the wilderness?"

⁵ He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven."

⁶ He commanded the people to sit down on the ground. Taking the seven loaves and giving thanks, He broke them and gave them to His disciples to serve. And they served the crowd. ⁷ And they had a few small fish. And blessing them, He commanded that these also be served them. ⁸ So they ate and were filled. And they collected seven baskets of the broken pieces that were left. ⁹ There were about four thousand who had eaten, and He sent them away. ¹⁰ He immediately entered a boat with His disciples and came to the region of Dalmanutha.

¹¹ The Pharisees came up and began to debate with Him, seeking from Him a sign from heaven to test Him. ¹² He sighed deeply in His spirit and said, "Why does this generation look for a sign? Truly I say to you, no sign shall be given to this generation." ¹³ Then He left them and, entering the boat again, departed to the other side.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and of Herod

Mt 16:5-12

¹⁴ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread and did not have more than one loaf with them in the boat. ¹⁵ He warned them, "Take heed. Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod."

¹⁶ They reasoned among themselves, saying, "It is because we have no bread."

¹⁷ Being aware of it, Jesus said to them, "Why do you reason that you have no bread? Do you still not perceive or understand? Are your hearts still hardened? ¹⁸ Having eyes, do you not see? Having ears, do you not hear? [†] And do you not remember? ¹⁹ When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you collect?"

† Jer 5:21; Isa 6:9-10.

They said to Him, "Twelve."

²⁰ "And the seven among the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you collect?" They said, "Seven."

²¹ He said to them, "Do you still not understand?"

The Healing of a Blind Man at Bethsaida

²² He came to Bethsaida. And they brought a blind man to Him and entreated Him to touch him. ²³ He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. When He had spit on his eyes and put His hands on him, He asked him, "Do you see anything?"

²⁴ He looked up and said, "I see men as trees, walking."

²⁵ Then again He put His hands on his eyes and made him look up. And he was restored and saw everyone clearly. ²⁶ He sent him home away to his house, saying, "Neither go into the town, nor tell it to anyone in the town."

Peter's Declaration About Jesus

Mt 16:13-20; Lk 9:18-21

²⁷ Jesus and His disciples went out into the towns of Caesarea Philippi. On the way He asked His disciples, "Who do men say that I am?"

²⁸ They answered, "John the Baptist, but some say, Elijah; and others, one of the prophets."

²⁹ He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered Him, "You are the Christ."

³⁰ He warned them that they should tell no one about Him.

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

³¹ He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. ³² He said this openly. And Peter took Him and began to rebuke Him.

³³ But when He had turned around and looked at His disciples, He rebuked Peter, saying, "Get behind Me, Satan! For you are not mindful of the things of God, but the things of men."

³⁴ When He had called the people to Him, with His disciples, He said to them, "If any man would come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. ³⁵ For whoever would save his life will lose it. But whoever would lose his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it. ³⁶ For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his own soul? ³⁷ Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? ³⁸ Whoever therefore is ashamed of Me and of My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of him will the Son of Man also be ashamed when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels."

9 And He said to them, “Truly I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God come with power.”

The Transfiguration

2 After six days Jesus took with Him Peter and James and John and led them up a high mountain, alone by themselves. And He was transfigured before them. 3 His garments became shiny, extremely white as snow, such as no launderer on earth could whiten them. 4 And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses. And they were talking with Jesus.

5 Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three sanctuaries: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” 6 For he did not know what to say, because they were very afraid.

7 Then a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him.”

8 Suddenly, when they looked around, they no longer saw anyone with them except Jesus only.

9 As they came down the mountain, He warned them to tell no one what they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen from the dead. 10 They kept that statement to themselves, questioning each other what the rising from the dead meant.

11 And they asked Him, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must first come?”

12 He answered, “Elijah indeed comes first to restore all things. Yet how is it written of the Son of Man that He should suffer many things and be treated with contempt?” 13 But I say to you that Elijah has indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they wished, as it is written of him.”

The Healing of a Boy With an Unclean Spirit

Mt 17:14–20; Lk 9:37–43

14 When He came to His other disciples, He saw a great crowd around them, and the scribes disputing with them. 15 Immediately when all the people saw Him, they were greatly amazed, and running to Him, greeted Him.

16 He asked the scribes, “What are you debating with them?”

17 One in the crowd answered, “Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a mute spirit. 18 Wherever it takes hold on him, it dashes him to the ground. And he foams at the mouth and gnashes with his teeth and becomes rigid. And I told Your disciples so that they would cast it out, but they could not.”

19 He answered, “O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to Me.”

20 So they brought the boy to Him. When he saw Him, immediately the spirit dashed him, and he fell on the ground and wallowed, foaming at the mouth.

21 He asked his father, “How long has it been since it came to him?”

He said, “From childhood. 22 Often it has thrown him into the fire and into the water to kill him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.”

23 Jesus said, “If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.”

24 Immediately the father of the child cried out with tears, “Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief!”

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, He rebuked the foul spirit, saying to it, “You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and enter him no more.”

26 The spirit cried out and convulsed him greatly. But it came out of him, and he was as dead, so that many said, “He is dead.” 27 But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose.

28 When He had entered the house, His disciples asked Him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?”

29 He said to them, “This kind cannot come out except by prayer and fasting.”

Jesus Again Foretells His Death and Resurrection

Mt 17:22–23; Lk 9:43b–45

30 They departed from there and passed through Galilee, and He did not want anyone to know it. 31 For He was teaching His disciples, saying, “The Son of Man will be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him. After He is killed, He will rise the third day.”

32 But they did not understand the teaching and were afraid to ask Him.

Who Is the Greatest?

Mt 18:1–5; Lk 9:46–48

33 He came to Capernaum. And being in the house, He asked them, “What was it that you disputed among yourselves on the way?” 34 But they kept silent, for on the way they had disputed among themselves who was the greatest.

35 He sat down and called the twelve. And He said to them, “If anyone desires to be first, he must be last of all and servant of all.”

36 He took a child and set him in their midst. And when He had taken him in His arms, He said to them, 37 “Whoever receives one of these children in My name receives Me. And whoever receives Me receives not Me, but Him who sent Me.”

He Who Is Not Against Us Is for Us

Lk 9:49–50

38 John answered Him, “Teacher, we saw one who does not follow us casting out demons in Your name, and we forbade him because he was not following us.”

39 But Jesus said, “Do not forbid him, for no one who does a miracle in My name can quickly speak evil of Me.” 40 For he who is not against us is for us. 41 Truly I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in My name, because you belong to Christ, will not lose his reward.

Temptations to Sin

⁴² “Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea.” ⁴³ If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life maimed than with two hands to go into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched, ⁴⁴ where

*‘their worm does not die,
and the fire is not quenched.’* [†]

⁴⁵ And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame than with two feet to be thrown into hell, into the fire that shall never be quenched, ⁴⁶ where

*‘their worm does not die,
and the fire is not quenched.’* ^{††}

⁴⁷ And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the fire of hell, ⁴⁸ where

*‘their worm does not die,
and the fire is not quenched.’* [‡]

⁴⁹ Everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be salted with salt.

⁵⁰ “Salt is good. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace with one another.”

Teaching About Divorce

Mt 19:1-12

10 He arose and went from there to the region of Judea to the other side of the Jordan, and the people came to Him again. And again, as was His custom, He taught them.

² The Pharisees came to test Him, asking, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?”

³ He answered them, “What did Moses command you?”

⁴ They said, “Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and to divorce her.”

⁵ Jesus answered them, “Due to the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.” ⁶ But from the beginning of the creation, God ‘made them male and female.’ ^{††7} ‘For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife,’ ⁸ and the two shall be one flesh.’ [‡] So then they are no longer two, but one flesh. ⁹ What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder.”

¹⁰ In the house His disciples asked Him concerning this matter again. ¹¹ He said to them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her.” ¹² And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

Little Children Blessed

¹³ They brought young children to Him, that He might touch them. But the disciples rebuked those who brought them. ¹⁴ But when Jesus saw it, He was very displeased and said to them, “Allow the little children to come to Me, and do not forbid them, for of such is the kingdom of God.” ¹⁵ Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall not enter it.” ¹⁶ And He took them up in His arms, put His hands on them, and blessed them.

The Rich Man

Mt 19:16-30; Lk 18:18-30

¹⁷ When He set out on His way, a man came running and knelt before Him, and asked Him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

¹⁸ He said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good, except God alone.” ¹⁹ You know the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother. ^{‡‡} ”

²⁰ He answered Him, “Teacher, all these have I observed from my youth.”

²¹ Then Jesus, looking upon him, loved him and said to him, “You lack one thing: Go your way, sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. And come, take up the cross and follow Me.”

²² He was saddened by that word, and he went away grieving. For he had many possessions.

²³ Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!”

²⁴ The disciples were astonished at His words. But Jesus answered again, “Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the kingdom of God!” ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁶ They were astonished beyond measure, saying among themselves, “Who then can be saved?”

²⁷ Jesus, looking at them, said, “With men it is impossible, but not with God. For with God all things are possible.”

²⁸ Peter began to say to Him, “Look, we have left everything and have followed You.”

²⁹ Jesus answered, “Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left a house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or fields, for My sake and for the gospel’s sake,” ³⁰ who shall not receive a hundred times as much now in this age, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and fields, with persecution, and in the age to come, eter- nal life. ³¹ But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection a Third Time

Mt 20:17-19; Lk 18:31-34

³² They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus went ahead of them. And they were amazed, and those who followed were afraid. Again, He took the twelve aside and began to tell them what would happen to Him, ³³ saying, "Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn Him to death and hand Him over to the Gentiles. ³⁴ They will mock Him, and scourge Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him. Then after three days He will rise."

The Request of James and John

Mt 20:20-28

³⁵ Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Him, saying, "Teacher, we want that whatever we may ask, You would do for us."

³⁶ He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

³⁷ They said to Him, "Grant us to sit, one at Your right hand and the other at Your left hand, in Your glory."

³⁸ But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I drink and be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?"

³⁹ They said to Him, "We can."

Jesus said to them, "You will indeed drink the cup that I drink and be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized. ⁴⁰ But to sit at My right hand or at My left hand is not Mine to grant. It is for those for whom it has been prepared."

⁴¹ When the ten heard it, they began to be very displeased with James and John. ⁴² But Jesus called them together, and said, "You know that those who are appointed to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. ⁴³ But it shall not be so among you. Whoever would be great among you must be your servant, ⁴⁴ and whoever among you would be greatest must be servant of all. ⁴⁵ For even the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many."

The Healing of Blind Bartimaeus

⁴⁶ Then they came to Jericho. And as He went out of Jericho with His disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat along the way begging. ⁴⁷ When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

⁴⁸ Many ordered him to keep silent. But he cried out even more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

⁴⁹ Jesus stood still and commanded him to be called.

So they called the blind man, saying, "Be of good comfort. Rise, He is calling you."

⁵⁰ Throwing aside his garment, he rose and came to Jesus. ⁵¹ Jesus answered him, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

The blind man said to Him, "Rabbi, that I might receive my sight."

⁵² Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your faith has made you well." Immediately he received his sight and followed Jesus on the way.

The Triumphant Entry Into Jerusalem

11 When they drew near Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, He sent out two of His disciples ² and said to them, "Go into the village opposite you. As soon as you enter it, you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. ³ If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say 'The Lord has need of it,' and immediately he will send it here."

⁴ They went their way and found the colt tied by the door outside on the street. And they untied it. ⁵ Some of those who stood there said to them, "What are you doing untying the colt?" ⁶ They answered just as Jesus had commanded. And they let them go. ⁷ They brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments on it. And He sat upon it. ⁸ Many spread their garments on the street. And others cut down branches off the trees and scattered them on the street. ⁹ Those who went before and those who followed cried out, saying: "Hosanna!

'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!' †

¹⁰ Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming in the name of the Lord!

Hosanna in the highest!"

¹¹ Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple. When He had looked around at everything, as the hour was now late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve.

The Cursing of the Fig Tree

Mt 21:18-19

¹² On the next day when they had returned from Bethany, He was hungry. ¹³ Seeing from afar a fig tree with leaves, He went to see if perhaps He might find anything on it. When He came to it, He found nothing except leaves, for it was not the season for figs. ¹⁴ Jesus said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And His disciples heard it.

The Cleansing of the Temple

Mt 21:12-17; Lk 19:45-48; Jn 2:13-22

¹⁵ And they came to Jerusalem. Jesus went into the temple and began to drive out those who sold and bought in the temple, and He overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of those who sold doves. ¹⁶ And He would not allow anyone to carry any vessel through the temple. ¹⁷ And He taught them, and said, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations'† ? But you have made it a 'den of thieves.'†† "

¹⁸ The scribes and chief priests heard it and looked for a way to kill Him. For they feared Him, because all the people were astonished at His teaching.

¹⁹ When evening came, He went out of the city.

The Lesson From the Fig Tree

Mt 21:20–22

²² Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. ²³ For truly I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be removed and be thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, he will have whatever he says. ²⁴ Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you will receive them, and you will have them. ²⁵ And when you stand praying, forgive if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father who is in heaven may also forgive you your sins. ²⁶ But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your sins."

The Question of Jesus' Authority

²⁷ They came again to Jerusalem, and as He was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to Him, ²⁸ and said, "By what authority are You doing these things, and who gave You this authority to do them?"

²⁹ Jesus answered them, "I will also ask of you one question. Answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ³⁰ Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men? Answer Me."

³¹ They debated among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' ³² But if we say, 'From men'"—they feared the people, for everyone held John to be a real prophet.

³³ So they answered Jesus, "We do not know."

Jesus answered them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Vineyard and the Vinedressers

Mt 21:33–46; Lk 20:9–10

12 He began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge around it, and dug a pit for the winepress, and built a tower, and rented it to vinedressers, and went to a far country. ²

At harvest time he sent a servant to the vinedressers to receive from them some of the fruit of the vineyard. ³ But they seized him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ⁴ Then he sent another servant to them. They threw stones at him, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled. ⁵ Still he sent another, and they killed him. And there were many others. Some they beat, and some they killed.

⁶ "Having yet his one well-beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, 'They will revere my son.'

⁷ "But those vinedressers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.'⁸ So they took him and killed him and threw him out of the vineyard.

⁹ "What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill the vinedressers and give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰ Have you not read this Scripture: 'The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

¹¹ This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes'‡ ?"

¹² Then they tried to seize Him, but feared the people, for they knew that He had spoken the parable against them. So they left Him and went their way.

The Question of Paying Taxes

Mt 22:15–22; Lk 20:20–26

¹³ They sent to Him some of the Pharisees and some of the Herodians to trap Him in His words. ¹⁴ When they came to Him, they said, "Teacher, we know that You are true and swayed by no man. For You do not regard the person of men, but truthfully teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

¹⁵ Should we pay, or should we not pay?"

But He, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why test Me? Bring Me a denarius that I may see it." ¹⁶ They brought it, and He said to them, "Whose image and inscription is this?"

They said to Him, "Caesar's."

¹⁷ Then Jesus answered them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

And they were amazed at Him.

The Question About the Resurrection

Mt 22:23–33; Lk 20:27–40

¹⁸ Then the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him, saying, ¹⁹ "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves his wife behind, but leaves no children, that man must take the wife and raise up children for his brother. ²⁰ Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and when he died, he left no children. ²¹ The second took her and died, leaving no children, and the third likewise. ²² The seven had her and left no children. Last of all, the woman died too. ²³ In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be? For the seven had her as wife."

† Isa 56:7. †† Jer 7:11.

²⁴ Jesus answered them, "Do you not err, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God?" ²⁵ When they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. ²⁶ Now concerning the dead rising, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the account about the bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob' † ? ²⁷ He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. You therefore do greatly err."

The Great Commandment

²⁸ One of the scribes came and heard them reasoning together. Perceiving that Jesus had answered them well, he asked Him, "Which is the first commandment of all?"

²⁹ Jesus answered him, "The first of all the commandments is, 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord. ³⁰ You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' ^{††} This is the first commandment. ³¹ The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' [‡] There is no other commandment greater than these."

³² The scribe said to Him, "Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth, that there is one God and there is no other but Him. ³³ To love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

³⁴ When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, He said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that, no one dared to ask Him any question.

The Question About David's Son

Mt 22:41–46; Lk 20:41–44

³⁵ While Jesus taught in the temple, He said, "How can the scribes say that Christ is the Son of David?" ³⁶ David himself, speaking by the Holy Spirit, declared: 'The Lord said to my Lord, 'Sit at My right hand, 'until I put Your enemies under Your feet.' ^{††}

³⁷ David himself calls Him 'Lord.' How then is He his Son?"

And the large crowd heard him gladly.

The Denouncing of the Scribes

Mt 23:1–36; Lk 20:45–47

³⁸ He said to them in His teaching, "Beware of the scribes, who love to go about in long robes and love greetings in the marketplaces, ³⁹ and the prominent seats in the synagogues, and the places of honor at banquets, ⁴⁰ who devour widows' houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive greater condemnation."

The Widow's Offering

Lk 21:1–4

⁴¹ Jesus sat opposite the treasury and saw how the people put money into the treasury. Many who were rich put in much. ⁴² But a certain poor widow came and put in two mites, which make a farthing. ^{‡‡}

⁴³ He called His disciples to Him and said to them, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. ⁴⁴ They all contributed out of their abundance. But she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had, her entire livelihood."

The Destruction of the Temple Foretold

Mt 24:1–2; Lk 21:5–6

¹³ As He went out of the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher, see what great stones and what great buildings are here."

² Jesus answered him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone shall be left upon another that shall not be thrown down."

Troubles and Persecutions

Mt 24:3–14; Lk 21:7–19

³ As He sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked Him privately, ⁴ "Tell us, when will these things happen, and what will be the sign when all these things will be fulfilled?"

⁵ Jesus answered them, "Take heed lest anyone deceive you. ⁶ Many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and will deceive many. ⁷ When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be troubled. For such things must happen, but the end is still to come. ⁸ For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and troubles. These are the beginning of sorrows.

⁹ "But take heed. For they will hand you over to councils, and in the synagogues you will be beaten. You will be brought before rulers and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them. ¹⁰ And the gospel must first be preached to all nations. ¹¹ But when they arrest you and hand you over, take no thought beforehand, or premeditate what you should speak. But speak whatever is given you in that time, for it is not you who speaks, but the Holy Spirit.

¹² "Now a brother will betray his brother to death, and the father the son; children will rise up against their parents, and will cause them to be put to death. ¹³ You will be hated by all men for My name's sake. But he who endures to the end shall be saved.

The Great Tribulation

¹⁴ “When you see the ‘abomination of desolation’[†] spoken of by Daniel the prophet standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. ¹⁵ Let him who is on the housetop not go down or enter the house to take anything out of his house. ¹⁶ Let him who is in the field not turn back to take his garment. ¹⁷ But woe to women who are pregnant and to those who nurse in those days! ¹⁸ Pray that your escape may not be in winter. ¹⁹ For in those days there will be distress as has not been from the beginning of the creation which God created to this time, nor ever shall be. ²⁰ “Except the Lord shortened the days, no flesh would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom He chose, He shortened the days. ²¹ Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or ‘Look, there He is!’ do not believe it. ²² For false christs and false prophets will rise and show signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect. ²³ But take heed. I have told you all things beforehand.

The Coming of the Son of Man

²⁴ “But in those days, after that distress, ‘the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light; ²⁵ the stars of heaven will fall, and the powers that are in heaven will be shaken.’^{††} ²⁶ “Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷ Then He will send His angels and gather His elect from the four winds, from the farthest part of the earth to the farthest part of heaven.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

²⁸ “Now learn a parable of the fig tree: When her branch is yet tender and puts out leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹ So also, when you see these things come to pass, know that it is near, even at the doors. ³⁰ Truly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. ³¹ Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

The Unknown Day and Hour

³² “But concerning that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. ³³ Take heed, watch and pray. For you do not know when the time will come. ³⁴ For the Son of Man is like a man leaving on a far journey who left his house and gave authority to his servants and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

³⁵ “Watch therefore—for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, in the evening, or at midnight, or at the crowing of the rooster, or in the morning—³⁶ lest he come suddenly and find you sleeping. ³⁷ What I say to you I say to all: Watch!”

14 Now the feasts of the Passover and of Unleavened Bread were two days away. And the chief priests and the scribes looked for a way to seize Him secretly and kill Him. ² But they said “Not on the feast day, lest there will be an uproar among the people.”

The Anointing at Bethany

Mt 26:6–13; Jn 12:1–8

³ While He was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as He sat at supper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of ointment, a very costly spikenard. She broke the jar and poured the ointment on His head.

⁶ Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for Me. ⁷ You always have the poor with you, and whenever you wish, you may do good to them. But you will not always have Me. ⁸ She has done what she could. She has come beforehand to anoint My body for burial. ⁹ Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel will be preached throughout the whole world, what she has done will also be spoken of as a memorial to her.”

Judas’ Agreement to Betray Jesus

¹⁰ Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Him to them.

¹¹ When they heard it, they were glad and promised to give him silver. So he looked for how he might conveniently betray Him.

The Passover With the Disciples

Mt 26:17–28; Lk 22:7–14, 21–23; Jn 13:21–30

¹² On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, His disciples said to Him, “Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?”

¹³ So He sent two of His disciples and said to them, “Go into the city, and a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you there. Follow him. ¹⁴ Wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher says, Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"¹⁵ He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there."

¹⁶ His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found it as He had told them. And they prepared the Passover.

¹⁷ In the evening He came with the twelve.¹⁸ As they sat and ate, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you, one of you who is eating with Me will betray Me."

¹⁹ They began to be sorrowful and to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?" and another, "Is it I?"

²⁰ He answered them, *"It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread in the dish with Me."*²¹ The Son of Man indeed goes as it is written concerning Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been good for that man if he had never been born."

The Lord's Supper

Mt 26:26-30; Lk 22:15-20; 1Co 11:23-25

²² As they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "Take and eat it. This is My body."

²³ Then He took the cup, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them. And they all drank from it.

²⁴ He said to them, *"This is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many."*²⁵ Truly I say to you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

²⁶ When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Peter's Denial Foretold

Mt 26:31-35; Lk 22:31-34; Jn 13:36-38

²⁷ Jesus said to them, "All of you will fall away on account of Me this night, for it is written:

'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'[†]

²⁸ But after I have risen, I will go before you to Galilee."

²⁹ Peter said to Him, "Even if all fall away, I will not."

³⁰ Jesus said to him, "Truly, I say to you that this day, during the night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times."

³¹ But he said more vehemently, "If I must die with You, I will not deny You." They all said the same thing.

The Prayer in Gethsemane

Mt 26:36-46; Lk 22:39-46

³² They came to a place which was named Gethsemane. And He said to His disciples, *"Sit here while I pray."*³³ He took Peter and James and John with Him and began to be greatly distressed and very troubled.

³⁴ And He said to them, "My soul is deeply sorrowful unto death. Remain here and keep watch."

³⁵ He went a little farther and fell on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him.³⁶ He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible for You. Remove this cup from Me; yet not what I will, but what You will."

³⁷ Then He came and found them sleeping and said to Peter, *"Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not keep watch one hour?"*³⁸ Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

³⁹ Again He went away and prayed the same words.⁴⁰ When He returned, He again found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. And they did not know what to answer Him.

⁴¹ When He returned a third time, He said to them, *"Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? It is enough! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners."*⁴² Rise up, let us go. Look! He who betrays Me is at hand."

⁴³ Immediately, while He was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

⁴⁴ Now he who betrayed Him had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss, He is the One. Seize Him and lead Him away safely."⁴⁵ So as soon as he came, he went to Him immediately and said, "Rabbi, Rabbi!" and kissed Him.⁴⁶ They laid hands on Him and seized Him.⁴⁷ Then one of those who stood by drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear.

⁴⁸ Jesus said to them, *"Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me as you would a thief?"*⁴⁹ *Every day I was with you in the temple teaching, and you did not seize Me. But the Scriptures must be fulfilled."*⁵⁰ Then they all deserted Him and fled.

The Young Man Who Fleed

⁵¹ A young man followed Him, wearing a linen cloth around himself. And the young men laid hold of him,⁵² so he left the linen cloth, and fled from them unclothed.

Jesus Before the Sanhedrin

⁵³ They led Jesus away to the high priest. And all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes were assembled with him.⁵⁴ Peter followed Him at a distance into the courtyard of the high priest. He sat with the guards and warmed himself by the fire.

⁵⁵ Now the chief priests and the entire Sanhedrin requested testimony against Jesus to put Him to death, but found none.⁵⁶ Many bore false witness against Him, but their testimonies did not agree.

⁵⁷ Then some rose up and bore false witness against Him, saying, ⁵⁸ “We heard Him say, ‘I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another not made with hands.’” ⁵⁹ But still their testimony did not agree.

⁶⁰ Then the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, “Do You answer nothing? What is it which these men testify against You?” ⁶¹ But He kept silent and answered nothing.

Again the high priest asked Him, “Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?”

⁶² Jesus said, “I am. And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power and coming with the clouds of heaven.”

⁶³ The high priest tore his robes, saying, “What need do we have of any further witnesses? ⁶⁴ You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?”

They all condemned Him as guilty unto death.

⁶⁵ Then some began to spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to strike Him, saying to Him, “Prophesy!” And the guards struck Him with the palms of their hands.

Peter’s Denial of Jesus

⁶⁶ While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came. ⁶⁷ When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, “You also were with Jesus of Nazareth.”

⁶⁸ But he denied it, saying, “I neither know nor understand what you are saying.” Then he went out to the porch, and a rooster crowed.

⁶⁹ The servant girl saw him again and began to say to those who stood by, “This man is one of them.” ⁷⁰ But again, he denied it.

A little while later, those who stood by said again to Peter, “Surely, you are one of them. For you are a Galilean, and your speech confirms it.”

⁷¹ Peter began to invoke a curse on himself, and to swear, “I do not know this Man of whom you speak.”

⁷² And the rooster crowed a second time. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said to him, “Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.” And when he thought on this, he wept.

Jesus Before Pilate

Mt 27:1–2, 11–14; Lk 23:1–5; Jn 18:28–38

15 Early in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole Sanhedrin. And they bound Jesus and took Him away and handed Him over to Pilate.

² Pilate asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

He answered him, “You have said so.”

³ The chief priests accused Him of many things, but He answered nothing. ⁴ So Pilate asked Him again, “Do You answer nothing? See how many things they testify against You.”

⁵ But Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate was astonished.

Jesus Sentenced to Die

⁶ Now at the feast he always released to them one prisoner, whomever they requested. ⁷ There was one named Barabbas, who had committed murder in the insurrection and was bound with the rebels. ⁸ The crowd began crying aloud, asking Pilate to do as he had always done for them.

⁹ He answered them, “Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?” ¹⁰ For he knew that the chief priests had handed Him over out of envy. ¹¹ But the chief priests stirred the people, so that he should instead release Barabbas to them.

¹² Pilate answered them again, “What then would you have me do to Him whom you call the King of the Jews?”

¹³ They again cried out, “Crucify Him!”

¹⁴ Pilate said to them, “Why, what evil has He done?” But they cried out even more, “Crucify Him!”

¹⁵ So Pilate, resolving to satisfy the people, released Barabbas to them. And when he had scourged Jesus, he handed Him over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

Mt 27:27–31; Jn 19:2–3

¹⁶ The soldiers led Him away to Praetorium Hall, and they called together the entire battalion. ¹⁷ They clothed Him with a purple robe. And they wove a crown of thorns and put it on His head, ¹⁸ and began to salute Him, “Hail, King of the Jews!” ¹⁹ They struck His head with a staff and spit on Him. And bowing their knees, they worshipped Him. ²⁰ When they had mocked Him, they took the purple robe off of Him and put His own garments on Him. Then they led Him out to crucify Him.

The Crucifixion

²¹ They compelled a man named Simon from Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, as he was passing through from the country, to bear Jesus’ cross. ²² They brought Him to the place called Golgotha, which means, “Place of a Skull.” ²³ They gave Him wine mingled with myrrh to drink, but He did not take it. ²⁴ When they had crucified Him, they divided His garments, casting lots for them, to decide what each man should take.

²⁵ Now it was the third hour, and they crucified Him.

²⁶ The inscription of His accusation was written above: THE KING OF THE JEWS.

²⁷ With Him they crucified two thieves, one on His right and the other on His left. ²⁸ And the Scripture was fulfilled, which says, “He was numbered with the lawless ones.” ^{†29} Those who passed by blasphemed Him, shaking their heads and saying, “Ah, You who would destroy the temple and build it in three days,³⁰ save Yourself, and come down from the cross!”

³¹ Likewise the chief priests mocked Him among themselves with the scribes and said, “He saved others, but He cannot save Himself! ³² Let the Christ, the King of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe.” Those who were crucified with Him also reviled Him.

³³ When the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. ³⁴ And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?” which means, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?”[†]

³⁵ Some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, “Listen, He is calling Elijah!”

³⁶ One man ran and filled a sponge with vinegar, put it on a stick, and gave it to Him to drink, saying, “Leave Him alone. Let us see if Elijah will come to take Him down.”

³⁷ But Jesus cried with a loud voice and gave up the spirit.

³⁸ And the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. ³⁹ When the centurion^{††} who stood facing Him saw that He cried out and gave up the spirit, he said, “Truly, this Man was the Son of God.”

⁴⁰ There were also women looking on from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joseph, and Salome. ⁴¹ They also had followed Him and had ministered to Him when He was in Galilee. And many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem were there.

The Burial of Jesus

⁴² When the evening had come, because it was the Day of Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath, ⁴³ Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable member of the Council, who also waited for the kingdom of God, came and went in boldly to Pilate, and requested the body of Jesus. ⁴⁴ Pilate wondered if He were already dead. And calling for the centurion, he asked him whether He had been dead for a while. ⁴⁵ When he learned about it from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. ⁴⁶ So he bought fine linen, and taking Him down, wrapped Him in the linen and laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock. And he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. ⁴⁷ Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where He was laid.

[†] Ps 22:1. ^{††} Commander with the rank of captain over 100 soldiers.

The Resurrection of Jesus

16 When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, so that they might go and anoint Him. ² Very early in the morning, on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb at the rising of the sun. ³ They said among themselves, “Who will roll the stone away from the door of the tomb for us?”

⁴ But when they looked, they saw that the stone had been rolled away. For it was very large. ⁵ And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white robe. And they were frightened.

⁶ He said to them, “Do not be frightened. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He is risen. He is not here. See the place where they laid Him. ⁷ But go your way, tell His disciples and Peter that He is going before you to Galilee. There you will see Him, as He told you.”

⁸ They went out quickly and fled from the tomb, for they trembled and were amazed. And they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

The Appearance to Mary Magdalene

Mt 28:9–10; Jn 20:11–18

⁹ Now when Jesus rose early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven demons. ¹⁰ She went and told those who had been with Him as they mourned and wept. ¹¹ When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it.

The Appearance to Two Disciples

Lk 24:13–35

¹² After that He appeared in another form to two of them as they walked and went into the country. ¹³ And they went and told it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.

The Commissioning of the Disciples

Mt 28:16–20; Lk 24:36–49; Jn 20:19–23; Ac 1:6–8

¹⁴ Afterward He appeared to the eleven as they sat at supper, and He reprimanded them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had risen.

¹⁵ He said to them, “Go into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. ¹⁶ He who believes and is baptized will be saved. But he who does not believe will be condemned. ¹⁷ These signs will accompany those who believe: In My name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new tongues; ¹⁸ they will take up serpents; if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.”

The Ascension
Lk 24:50-53; Ac 1:9-11

¹⁹ After the Lord had spoken to them, He was received up into heaven and sat at the right hand of God. ²⁰ Then they went forth and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word through the accompanying signs. Amen.

LUKE

The physician Luke wrote the Gospel bearing his name in the early AD 60s. The place of writing is unknown, but Rome or Achaia are possible locations. According to the “we” sections in the Acts of the Apostles, Luke was a traveling companion of Paul the Apostle (Acts 16:10–17; 20:5–21:18; 27:1–28:16). This Gospel illustrates the compassion and healing ministry of the God-Man Jesus Christ, who was Jehovah’s ideal Man. Luke’s Gospel was written in conjunction with the Acts of the Apostles, but it was later separated from it, so as not to divide the Gospel writings. Nevertheless, Luke and Acts should be read as one seamless story. Luke emphasizes that the Gospel of Christ is for all, both Jews and Gentiles, based on God’s promises in the Old Testament. Luke’s Gospel also highlights Jesus’ ministry to society’s outcasts and the poor.

The Prologue

1 Whereas many have undertaken to write a narrative of those things which are most surely believed among us, ² just as they were handed down to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word, ³ it seemed good to me also, having accurately investigated all things from the very beginning, to write to you an orderly account, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴ that you might know the certainty of the things which you have been told.

The Birth of John the Baptist Foretold

¹¹ Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. ¹² When Zechariah saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. ¹³ But the angel said to him, “Do not fear, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. ¹⁴ You will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵ For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother’s womb. ¹⁶ He will turn many of the sons of Israel to the Lord their God. ¹⁷ And he will go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children [†] and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.”

¹⁸ Zechariah said to the angel, “How shall I know this? For I am an old man and my wife well advanced in years.”

¹⁹ The angel answered him, “I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. And I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. ²⁰ And now you will be silent and unable to speak until the day that these things happen, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their season.”

²¹ The people waited for Zechariah, and wondered why he waited so long in the temple. ²² When he came out, he could not speak to them. They perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, for he made signs to them and remained speechless.

²³ As soon as the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his own home. ²⁴ After those days his wife Elizabeth conceived, and for five months she hid herself, saying, ²⁵ “Thus the Lord has dealt with me in the days when He looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.”

The Birth of Jesus Foretold

²⁶ In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, ²⁷ to a virgin betrothed to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. And the virgin’s name was Mary. ²⁸ The angel came to her and said, “Greetings, you who are highly favored. The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women.”

²⁹ When she saw him, she was troubled by his words, and considered in her mind what kind of greeting this might be. ³⁰ But the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. ³¹ Listen, you will conceive in your womb and bear a Son and shall call His name JESUS. ³² He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Highest. And the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David,³³ and He will reign over the house of Jacob forever. And of His kingdom there will be no end.”

³⁴ Then Mary said to the angel, “How can this be, since I do not know a man?”

³⁵ The angel answered her, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you. Therefore the Holy One who will be born will be called the Son of God. ³⁶ Listen, your cousin Elizabeth has also conceived a son in her old age. And this is the sixth month with her who was declared barren. ³⁷ For with God nothing will be impossible.”

³⁸ Mary said, “I am the servant of the Lord. May it be unto me according to your word.” Then the angel departed from her.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

³⁹ In those days Mary arose and quickly went into the hill country, to a city of Judah,⁴⁰ and entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹ When Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the baby leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. ⁴² She spoke out with a loud voice, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! ⁴³ But why is this granted to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? ⁴⁴ Indeed, as soon as the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. ⁴⁵ Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a completion to those things which were told her by the Lord.”

The Song of Mary

⁴⁶ And Mary said:
 “My soul magnifies the Lord,
⁴⁷ and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.
⁴⁸ For He has regarded the low estate of His servant;
 surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed.
⁴⁹ For He who is mighty has done great things for me,
 and holy is His name.
⁵⁰ His mercy is on those who fear Him
 from generation to generation.
⁵¹ He has shown strength with His arm;
 He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
⁵² He has pulled down the mighty from their thrones
 and exalted those of low degree.
⁵³ He has filled the hungry with good things,
 and the rich He has sent away empty.
⁵⁴ He has helped His servant Israel,
 in remembrance of His mercy, ⁵⁵ as He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his descendants forever.” † ⁵⁶ Mary remained with her about three months and returned to her own house.

The Birth of John the Baptist

⁵⁷ Now Elizabeth’s time had come to give birth, and she gave birth to a son. ⁵⁸ Her neighbors and cousins heard how the Lord had shown her great mercy, and they rejoiced with her.

⁵⁹ On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child. And they were calling him Zechariah, after the name of his father. ⁶⁰ But his mother answered, “Not so! He shall be called John.”

⁶² They made signs to his father, asking what he would have him called. ⁶³ He asked for a writing tablet and wrote, “His name is John.” And they all were amazed. ⁶⁴ Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue was loosed, and he spoke and praised God. ⁶⁵ Fear came on all who lived around them. And all these facts were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. ⁶⁶ All those who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, “What kind of child will he be?” For the hand of the Lord was with him.

The Prophecy of Zechariah

⁶⁷ His father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying,

⁶⁸ “Blessed be the Lord God of Israel,
 for He has visited and redeemed His people, ⁶⁹ and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David, ⁷⁰ as He spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets of long ago,
⁷¹ that we should be saved from our enemies
 and from the hand of all who hate us, ⁷² to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant,
⁷³ the oath which He swore to our father Abraham, ⁷⁴ to grant us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies,
 might serve Him without fear, ⁷⁵ in holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our lives.
⁷⁶ “And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Highest;
 for you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare
 His ways,
⁷⁷ to give knowledge of salvation to His people
 by the remission of their sins, ⁷⁸ through the tender mercy of our God,
 whereby the sunrise from on high has visited us;
⁷⁹ to give light to those who sit in darkness
 and in the shadow of death,
 to guide our feet into the way of peace.” ⁸⁰ And the child grew and became strong in spirit, and he remained in the wilderness until the day of his appearance to Israel.

The Birth of Jesus

Mt 1:18-25

2 In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that the entire inhabited earth should be taxed. ² This taxation was first made when Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³ And everyone went to his own city to be taxed.

⁴ So Joseph also departed from the city of Nazareth in Galilee to the City of David which is called Bethlehem, in Judea, because he was of the house and lineage of David, ⁵ to be taxed with Mary, his betrothed wife, who was with child. ⁶ So while they were there, the day came for her to give birth. ⁷ And she gave birth to her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in strips of cloth, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

⁸ And in the same area there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹ And then an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were very afraid. ¹⁰ But the angel said to them, "Listen! Do not fear. For I bring you good news of great joy, which will be to all people. ¹¹ For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. ¹² And this will be a sign to you: You will find the Baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a manger."

¹³ Suddenly there was with the angel a company of the heavenly host praising God and saying,

¹⁴ "Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace, and good will toward men."

¹⁵ When the angels went away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to each other, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see what has happened, which the Lord has made known to us."

¹⁶ So they came hurrying and found Mary and Joseph, and the Baby lying in a manger. ¹⁷ When they had seen Him, they made widely known the word which was told them concerning this Child. ¹⁸ And all those who heard it marveled at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹ But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The Presentation of Jesus in the Temple

²¹ When eight days had passed and the Child was circumcised, He was named JESUS, the name given by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

²² When the days of her purification according to the Law of Moses were completed, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord ²³ (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be called holy to the Lord" [†]) ²⁴ and to offer a sacrifice ac-

ording to what is said in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons." ^{††}

²⁵ Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit it was upon him. ²⁶ It was revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ. ²⁷ Led by the Spirit, he came into the temple. And when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the law, ²⁸ he received Him in his arms and blessed God and said:

²⁹ "Lord, now let Your servant depart in peace,
according to Your word;
³⁰ for my eyes have seen Your salvation
³¹ which You have prepared in the sight of all people, ³² a light for revelation to the Gentiles,
and the glory of Your people Israel."

³³ Joseph and His mother were amazed at those things which were spoken about Him. ³⁴ Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary His mother, "Listen, this Child is destined to cause the fall and rising of many in Israel and to be a sign which will be spoken against, ³⁵ so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. And a sword will pierce through your own soul also."

³⁶ And there was Anna a prophetess, a daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age and had lived with her husband seven years from her virginity. ³⁷ And she was a widow of about eighty-four years of age who did not depart from the temple, but served God with fasting and prayer night and day. ³⁸ Coming at that moment she gave thanks to the Lord and spoke of Him to all those who looked for the redemption of Jerusalem.

The Return to Nazareth

³⁹ When they had performed everything according to the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city of Nazareth. ⁴⁰ And the Child grew and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom. And the grace of God was upon Him.

The Boy Jesus in the Temple

⁴¹ Now His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. ⁴² When He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast. ⁴³ When the days of the feast were complete, as they returned, the Child Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem. And Joseph and His mother did not know of it. ⁴⁴ But supposing Him to be in their company, they went a day's journey. Then they searched for Him among their relatives and acquaintances. ⁴⁵ When they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem, searching for Him. ⁴⁶ After three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. ⁴⁷ All who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and His answers. ⁴⁸ When they saw Him, they were amazed. And His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You dealt with us like this? Look, Your father and I have anxiously searched for You."

⁴⁹ He said to them, "How is it that you searched for Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father's business?" ⁵⁰ But they did not understand the word which He spoke to them.

⁵¹ Then He went down with them and came to Nazareth and was obedient to them. But His mother kept all these words in her heart. ⁵² And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and men.

Mt 3:1-12; Mk 1:1-8; Jn 1:19-28

3 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Caesar Tiberius, Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, his brother Philip was tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Traconitis, and Lysanias was the tetrarch of Abilene. ² Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness. ³ He came into the region surrounding the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. ⁴ As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying:

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness:

'Prepare the way of the Lord;

make His paths straight.

⁵ Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill shall be brought low;

and the crooked shall be made straight and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

⁶ and all flesh shall see the salvation of God."[†]

⁷ Then he said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, "You children of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸ Therefore bear fruit worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. ⁹ Even now the axe is put to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

¹⁰ The people asked him, "What then must we do?"

¹¹ John answered, "He who has two tunics, let him give to him who has none. And he who has food, let him do likewise."

¹² Then tax collectors also came to be baptized and said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?"

¹³ He said to them, "Collect no more than what is appointed you."

¹⁴ Then the soldiers likewise demanded of him, "And what must we do?"

He said to them, "Do no violence to anyone nor accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages."

[†] Isa 40:3-5.

¹⁵ As the people were in expectation, and everyone reflected in their hearts upon John, whether he might be the Christ or not, ¹⁶ John answered them all, "I indeed baptize you with water. But One mightier than I is coming, the strings of whose shoes I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. ¹⁷ His fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly cleanse His threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into His granary. But He will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire." ¹⁸ Then he preached many other things in his exhortation to the people.

¹⁹ But Herod the tetrarch, being rebuked by him because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, ²⁰ added also this above them all: He locked John up in prison.

The Baptism of Jesus

Mt 3:13-17; Mk 1:9-11

²¹ Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heavens were opened, ²² and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form like a dove on Him, and a voice came from heaven which said, "You are My beloved Son. In You I am well pleased."

The Genealogy of Jesus

Mt 1:1-17

²³ Now Jesus Himself began His ministry at about thirty years of age, being, as was supposed, the son of Joseph, who was the son of Heli, ²⁴ who was the son of Matthat,

who was the son of Levi, who was the son of Melchi,

The Temptation of Jesus

Mt 4:1-11; Mk 1:12-13

4 Jesus, being filled with the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,² being tempted by the devil for forty days. During those days He ate nothing. And when they were ended, He was hungry.

³ The devil said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

⁴ Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.'"[†] "

⁵ The devil, taking Him up onto a high mountain, showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. ⁶ And the devil said to Him, "I will give You all this power and their glory, for it has been delivered to me. And I give it to whomever I will. ⁷ If You, then, will worship me, all will be Yours."

⁸ And Jesus answered him, "Get behind Me, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve.'"^{††} "

⁹ He brought Him to Jerusalem, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here. ¹⁰ For it is written:

'He shall give His angels charge concerning you, to preserve you,'

¹¹ and

'In their hands they shall hold you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.'[‡]

¹² Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.'"^{††} "

¹³ When the devil had ended all the temptations, he departed from Him until another time.

The Beginning of the Galilean Ministry

Mt 4:12-17; Mk 1:14-15

¹⁴ Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee. And His fame went throughout the surrounding region. ¹⁵ He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by everyone.

The Rejection of Jesus at Nazareth

¹⁶ He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. And as His custom was, He went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day. And He stood up to read. ¹⁷ The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him. When He had unrolled the scroll, He found the place where it was written:

¹⁸ "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed;

¹⁹ to preach the acceptable year of the Lord."[‡]

²⁰ Then He rolled up the scroll, and He gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all those who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him. ²¹ And He began to say to them, "Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

²² All bore witness to Him, and wondered at the gracious words which came from His mouth. Then they said, "Is this not Joseph's son?"

²³ He said to them, "You will surely say to Me this proverb, 'Physician, heal Yourself. Whatever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in Your country."

† Dt 8:3. †† Dt 6:13. ‡ Ps 91:11-12. †† Dt 6:16. †† Isa 61:1-2.

²⁴ He also said, "Truly, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own country. ²⁵ But I tell you truthfully, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heavens were closed for three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land. ²⁶ Yet to none of them was Elijah sent except to Zarephath, a city of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. ²⁷ And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet. But none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian."

²⁸ All those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath. ²⁹ They rose up and thrust Him out of the city and led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might throw Him down headlong. ³⁰ But passing through the midst of them, He went His way.

The Man With an Unclean Spirit

³¹ Then He went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbaths. ³² They were astonished at His teaching, for His word was with authority.

³³ In the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon. And he cried out with a loud voice, ³⁴ "Leave us alone! What have You to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—the Holy One of God!"

³⁵ Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him and did not hurt him.

³⁶ They were all amazed and said among themselves, "What a word this is! For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out."

³⁷ And His fame went out to every place in the surrounding countryside.

The Healing of Many People

Mt 8:14-17; Mk 1:29-34

³⁸ He went out of the synagogue and entered Simon's house. Now Simon's mother-in-law was taken ill with a high fever, and they asked Him about her. ³⁹ So He stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And immediately she rose and served them.

⁴⁰ Now when the sun was setting, all those who had anyone sick with various diseases brought them to Him. And He laid His hands on every one of them and healed them. ⁴¹ And demons came out of many, crying out, "You are the Christ, the Son of God!" But He rebuked them and did not permit them to speak, because they knew that He was the Christ.

Preaching in the Synagogues

Mk 1:35-39

⁴² When it was day He departed and went into a remote place. And searching for Him, the people came to Him and tried to prevent Him from leaving them.

⁴³ But He said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also, for this is why I was sent."

⁴⁴ And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

The Calling of the First Disciples

⁵ As the people pressed upon Him to hear the word of God, He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret ² and saw two boats beside the lake. But the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. ³ He entered one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to thrust it out a little from the land. Then He sat down and taught the people from the boat.

⁴ When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch."

⁵ Simon answered Him, "Master, we have worked all night and have caught nothing. But at Your word I will let down the net."

⁶ When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was tearing. ⁷ So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

⁸ When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord." ⁹ For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish which they had taken, ¹⁰ and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.

Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not fear. From now on you will catch men." ¹¹ So when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed Him.

The Cleansing of a Leper

Mt 8:1-4; Mk 1:40-45

¹² When He was in a certain city, a man full of leprosy, upon seeing Jesus, fell on his face and begged Him, "Lord, if You will, You can make me clean."

¹³ He reached out His hand and touched him, saying, "I will. Be clean." And immediately the leprosy left him.

¹⁴ Then He commanded him to tell no one, "But go and show yourself to the priest and make an offering for your cleansing, as Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

¹⁵ Yet even more so His fame went everywhere. And great crowds came together to hear and to be healed by Him of their infirmities. ¹⁶ But He withdrew to the wilderness and prayed.

The Healing of a Paralytic

Mt 9:1-8; Mk 2:1-12

¹⁷ On a certain day, as He was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting nearby, who had come from every town of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal the sick. ¹⁸ Now some men brought in a bed a man who was paralyzed. They searched for ways to bring him in and lay him before Him. ¹⁹ When they could not find a way to bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down through the tiles with his bed into their midst before Jesus.

²⁰ When He saw their faith, He said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

²¹ The scribes and the Pharisees began to question, "Who is He who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

²² When Jesus perceived their thoughts, He answered them, "Why question in your hearts? ²³ Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise up and walk'?" ²⁴ But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins," He said to the paralyzed man, "I say to you, rise, take up your bed, and go to your house." ²⁵ Immediately he rose before them, and took up that on which he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. ²⁶ They were all amazed, and they glorified God and were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen wonderful things today."

The Calling of Levi

Mt 9:9-13; Mk 2:13-17

²⁷ After these things He went out and saw a tax collector, named Levi, sitting at the tax collector's station. He said to him, "Follow Me." ²⁸ And he left everything, rose up, and followed Him.

²⁹ Then Levi made Him a great feast in his house. And there was a group of many tax collectors and others who sat down with them. ³⁰ But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against His disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

³¹ Jesus answered them, "Those who are well do not need a physician, but those who are sick. ³² I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

The Question About Fasting

Mt 9:14-17; Mk 2:18-22

³³ They said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John fast often and offer prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees, but Yours eat and drink?"

³⁴ He said to them, "Can you make the attendants of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them?" ³⁵ But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then in those days they will fast."

³⁶ He told them a parable also: "No one sews a piece of a new material on an old one. Otherwise the new would tear, for the new piece does not match the old."

³⁷ And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise the new wine will burst the wineskins, and it will be spilled, and the wineskins will be destroyed. ³⁸ But new wine must be put into new wineskins, and both are preserved. ³⁹ And no one, having drunk old wine, immediately desires new. For he says, 'The old is better.'"

Plucking Grain on the Sabbath

Mt 12:1-8; Mk 2:23-28

⁶ On the second Sabbath after the first, He went through the grain fields, and His disciples plucked and ate the heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands. ² Some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why are you doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?"

³ Jesus answered them, "Have you not read what David did when he and those who were with him were hungry?" ⁴ He went into the house of God, and took and ate the ritual bread, and also gave it to those who were with him. This was not lawful, but for the priests only to eat." ⁵ Then He said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath."

The Man With a Withered Hand

⁶ On another Sabbath, when He entered the synagogue and taught, there was a man whose right hand had withered. ⁷ The scribes and the Pharisees watched Him to see whether He would heal on the Sabbath, so that they might find an accusation against Him. ⁸ But He knew their thoughts, and He said to the man who had the withered hand, "Rise and stand in front." So he rose and stood in front.

⁹ Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one thing: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?"

¹⁰ Then looking around at them all, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was restored as whole as the other. ¹¹ But they were filled with madness and discussed with each other what they might do to Jesus.

The Choosing of the Twelve Apostles

Mt 10:1-4; Mk 3:13-19

¹² In these days He went out to the mountain to pray and continued all night in prayer to God. ¹³ When it was day, He called for His disciples, and of them He chose twelve, whom He named apostles: ¹⁴ Simon, whom He named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew, ¹⁵ and Matthew and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called the Zealot, ¹⁶ and Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Ministering to a Great Crowd

Mt 4:23-25

¹⁷ He came down with them and stood on a level place with a crowd of His disciples and a great crowd of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear Him and be healed of their diseases, ¹⁸ including those who were vexed by unclean spirits. And they were healed.

¹⁹ The whole crowd tried to touch Him, for power went out from Him and healed them all.

Blessings and Woes

Mt 5:1-12

²⁰ He lifted up His eyes on His disciples, and said:

*“Blessed are you poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.*

²¹ *Blessed are you who hunger now,
for you shall be filled.*

*Blessed are you who weep now,
for you shall laugh.*

²² *Blessed are you when men hate you,
and when they separate you from their company
and insult you,*

*and cast out your name as evil,
on account of the Son of Man.*

²³ “Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for indeed, your reward is great in heaven. For in like manner their fathers treated the prophets.

²⁴ *“But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.*

²⁵ *Woe to you who are filled,
for you shall hunger.*

*Woe to you who laugh now,
for you shall mourn and weep.*

²⁶ *Woe to you, when all men speak well of you,
for so their fathers spoke of the false prophets.*

Love for Enemies

²⁷ “But I say to you who hear, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸ bless those who curse you, and pray for those who spitefully use you. ²⁹ To him who strikes you on the one cheek, offer also the other. And from him who takes away your cloak, do not withhold your tunic as well. ³⁰ Give to everyone who asks of you. And of him who takes away your goods, do not ask for them back. ³¹ Do unto others as you would have others do unto you.

³² “For if you love those who love you, what thanks do you receive? For even sinners love those who love them. ³³ And if you do good to those who do good to you, what thanks do you receive? For even sinners do the same. ³⁴ And if you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what thanks do you receive? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much in return. ³⁵ But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return. Then your reward will be great, and you will be the sons of the Highest. For He is kind to the unthankful and the evil. ³⁶ Be therefore merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

Judging Others

³⁷ “Judge not, and you shall not be judged. Condemn not, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you shall be forgiven. ³⁸ Give, and it will be given to you:

Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will men give unto you. For with the measure you use, it will be measured unto you.”

³⁹ He spoke a parable to them: “Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the ditch? ⁴⁰ The disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is trained will be like his teacher.

⁴¹ “Why do you see the speck that is in your brother’s eye, but do not see the beam that is in your own eye? ⁴² How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me remove the speck that is in your eye,’ when you yourself do not see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck that is in your brother’s eye.

A Tree and Its Fruit

Mt 7:17-20

⁴³ “A good tree does not bear corrupt fruit, nor does a corrupt tree bear good fruit. ⁴⁴ Each tree is known by its own fruit. Men do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a wild bush. ⁴⁵ A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bears what is good, and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bears what is evil. For of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

The Two Housebuilders

⁴⁶ “Why do you call Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and not do what I say? ⁴⁷ Whoever comes to Me and hears My words and does them, I will show whom he is like: ⁴⁸ He is like a man who built a house, and dug deep, and laid the foundation on rock. When the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently against that house, but could not shake it, for it was founded on rock. ⁴⁹ But he who hears and does not obey is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation, against which the stream beat vehemently. Immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.”

Mt 8:5-13; Jn 4:43-54

7 When He had completed all His words in the hearing of the people, He entered Capernaum. ² Now a centurion’s [†] servant, who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die. ³ When he heard of Jesus, he sent the elders of the Jews to Him, asking Him to come and heal his servant. ⁴ When they came to Jesus, they asked Him earnestly, saying, “You should do this for him for he is worthy, ⁵ for he loves our nation, and he has built us a synagogue.” ⁶ So Jesus went with them.

When He was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to Him, saying, “Lord, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy to have You come under my roof. ⁷ Likewise, I did not think myself worthy to come to You. But say the word, and my servant will be healed. ⁸ For I myself am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me. I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

⁹ When Jesus heard these words, He marveled at him, and turned and said to the people who followed Him, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith even in Israel." ¹⁰ Then those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant well who had been sick.

The Raising of the Widow's Son

¹¹ The following day He went into a city called Nain, and many of His disciples and a large crowd went with Him. ¹² When He came near the gate of the city, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her. ¹³ When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep."

¹⁴ Then He came and touched the coffin, and those who carried it stood still. He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." ¹⁵ He who was dead sat up and began to speak. And He gave him to his mother.

¹⁶ Fear came on everyone. And they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has risen up among us!" and "God has visited His people!" ¹⁷ This rumor of Him went throughout all Judea and the surrounding region.

The Messengers From John the Baptist

Mt 11:2-19

¹⁸ The disciples of John told him of all these things. ¹⁹ John, calling for two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are You the One who is coming, or shall we look for another?"

²⁰ When the men had come to Him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to You, saying, 'Are You the One who is coming, or shall we look for another?'"

²¹ In that same hour He cured many of their infirmities and afflictions and evil spirits. And to many who were blind He gave sight. ²² So Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the gospel is preached to the poor." ²³ Blessed is he who does not fall away on account of Me."

²⁴ When the messengers of John had departed, He began to speak to the crowd concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?" ²⁵ If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? Now those who are splendidly clothed and live luxuriously are in royal palaces." ²⁶ What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet." ²⁷ This is he of whom it is written:

'Look, I am sending My messenger before Your face, who shall prepare Your way before You.' [†]

²⁸ I say to you, among those who are born of women there is no greater prophet than John the Baptist. Yet he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

²⁹ All the people who heard Him, including the tax collectors, justified God, having been baptized with the baptism of John. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God for themselves, not having been baptized by John.

³¹ Then the Lord said, "To what then shall I compare the men of this generation, and what are they like?" ³² They are like children sitting in the marketplace, calling to each other, saying:

'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we mourned to you, and you did not weep.'

³³ For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine. But you say, 'He has a demon.' ³⁴ The Son of Man has come eating and drinking. But you say, 'Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' ³⁵ But wisdom is justified by all her children."

A Sinful Woman Forgiven

³⁶ One of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. So He went to the Pharisee's house and sat down for supper. ³⁷ There, a woman of the city who was a sinner, when she learned that Jesus was sitting for supper in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment, ³⁸ and stood behind Him at His feet, weeping, and began to wash His feet with tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and kissed His feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

³⁹ Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw it, he said to himself, "If this Man were a prophet, He would have known who and what kind of woman she is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner."

⁴⁰ Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to say to you."

He said, "Teacher, say it."

⁴¹ "A creditor had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, ^{††} and the other fifty." ⁴² When they had no money to pay, he freely forgave them both. Tell Me, therefore, which of them will love him more?"

⁴³ Simon answered, "I suppose he whom he forgave more."

He said to him, "You have judged rightly."

⁴⁴ Then He turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house. You gave Me no water for My feet, but she has washed My feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head." ⁴⁵ You gave Me no kiss, but this woman, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss My feet." ⁴⁶ You did not anoint My head with oil, but this woman has anointed My feet with ointment." ⁴⁷ There- fore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But he who is forgiven little loves little."

⁴⁸ Then He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

⁴⁹ Those who sat at supper with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is He who even forgives sins?"

⁵⁰ He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Women Who Accompany Jesus

8 Afterward, He went throughout every city and village, preaching and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. With Him were the twelve ² and some women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had come out, ³ and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, who supported Him with their possessions.

The Parable of the Sower

Mt 13:1-9; Mk 4:1-9

⁴ When a large crowd had gathered together and people were coming to Him from every city, He told this parable: ⁵ "A sower went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the path and was trampled down, and the birds of the air devoured it. ⁶ Some fell on a rock. And as soon as it sprang up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture. ⁷ Yet some fell among thorns. And the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. ⁸ And other seed fell on good ground and sprang up and yielded a hundred times the amount sown."

When He had said these things, He cried out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

The Purpose of the Parables

Mt 13:10-17; Mk 4:10-12

⁹ His disciples asked Him, "What might this parable mean?" ¹⁰ He said, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God, but to others they are in parables, so that

'seeing they may not see,

and hearing they may not understand.'[†]

The Parable of the Sower Explained

Mt 13:18-23; Mk 4:13-20

¹¹ "Now the parable means this: The seed is the word of God. ¹² Those along the path are those who hear. Then comes the devil, who takes away the word from their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. ¹³ Those on the rock are the ones who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy. But these have no root, for they believe for a while, then in the time of temptation fall away. ¹⁴ That which fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with the cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to maturity. ¹⁵ But the seed on the good ground are those who, having heard the word, keep it in an honest and good heart and bear fruit with patience.

A Light Under a Vessel

Mk 4:21-25

¹⁶ "No one, when he lights a candle, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but sets it on a candlestick, that those who enter may see the light. ¹⁷ For nothing is secret that will not be revealed, nor anything hidden that will not be known and revealed. ¹⁸ Take heed therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given. And whoever has not, from him will be taken even what he thinks he has."

The Mother and Brothers of Jesus

Mt 12:46-50; Mk 3:31-35

¹⁹ Then His mother and His brothers came to Him, but could not reach Him because of the crowd.

²⁰ Someone told Him, "Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see You."

²¹ He answered them, "My mother and My brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."

The Calming of a Storm

Mt 8:23-27; Mk 4:35-41

²² One day He went into a boat with His disciples, and He said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out. ²³ As they sailed, He fell asleep. Then a wind storm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in danger.

²⁴ They came to Him and awoke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!"

Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. And they ceased, and there was a calm.

²⁵ He said to them, "Where is your faith?"

Being afraid, they marveled, saying to each other, "Who then is this Man? He commands even the winds and water, and they obey Him."

The Healing of the Gadarene Demoniac

Mt 8:28-34; Mk 5:1-20

²⁶ They sailed to the country of the Gadarenes, which is across from Galilee. ²⁷ When He stepped out on land, a man from the city who had demons for a long time met Him. He wore no clothes, nor did he live in a house but in the tombs. ²⁸ When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, "What have You to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I plead with You, do not torment me." ²⁹ For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. It often had seized him, and he was kept under guard, bound with chains and shackles. But he broke the shackles and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.

³⁰ Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

He said, "Legion," because many demons had entered him. ³¹ And they begged Him not to command them to go out into the abyss.

³² There was a large herd of swine feeding on the mountain. They begged Him to permit them to enter them, and He permitted them. ³³ Then the demons went out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd ran violently down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

³⁴ When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled and reported it in the city and in the country. ³⁵ Then they went out to see what had happened, and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had departed sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind. And they were afraid. ³⁶ Those who had seen it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was healed. ³⁷ Then the whole crowd from the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked Him to depart from them, for they were seized with great fear. So He went into the boat and returned.

³⁸ Now the man from whom the demons had departed asked Him if he could stay with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, ³⁹ "Return to your own house, and tell what great things God has done for you." So he went his way and proclaimed throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

Jairus' Daughter and the Woman Who Touched Jesus' Garment

Mt 9:18-26; Mk 5:21-43

⁴⁰ When Jesus returned, the crowd gladly received Him, for they were all waiting for Him. ⁴¹ Then a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue, came and fell down at Jesus' feet, and begged Him to come to his house, ⁴² for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying.

As He went, the people crowded Him. ⁴³ And a woman having a hemorrhage for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians, but could not be healed by anyone, ⁴⁴ came behind Him, and touched the fringe of His garment. And immediately her hemorrhage dried up.

⁴⁵ Jesus said, "Who touched Me?"

When everyone denied it, Peter and those who were with Him said, "Master, the crowds are pressing against You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'"

⁴⁶ But Jesus said, "Someone touched Me, for I perceive that power has gone out from Me."

⁴⁷ When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling. And falling down before Him, she declared to Him before all the people why she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.

⁴⁸ Then He said to her, "Daughter, be of good cheer. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

⁴⁹ While He was still speaking, someone from the synagogue ruler's house came, saying to Jairus, "Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher."

⁵⁰ But when Jesus heard it, He answered him, "Do not fear. Only believe, and she will be made well."

⁵¹ When He came into the house, He permitted no one to go in except Peter, John and James, and the father and mother of the girl. ⁵² All wept and mourned for her. But He said, "Do not weep. She is not dead but sleeping."

⁵³ They laughed at Him, knowing that she was dead.

⁵⁴ But He put them all outside and took her by the hand and called, saying, "Little girl, arise." ⁵⁵ Her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. And He told them to give her food. ⁵⁶ Her parents were astonished, but He commanded them to tell no one what had happened.

The Mission of the Twelve Apostles

Mt 10:1, 5-15; Mk 6:7-13

⁹ Then He called His twelve disciples together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases. ² And He sent them to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. ³ He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey: no staff, no bag, no bread, no money. And do not take two tunics apiece." ⁴ Whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart. ⁵ Whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet as a testimony against them." ⁶ So they departed and went through the towns, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

Herod's Anxiety

Mt 14:1-12; Mk 6:14-29

⁷ Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by Him. And he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead, ⁸ and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen. ⁹ But Herod said, "I have beheaded John. But who is this of whom I hear such things?" And he tried to see Him.

The Feeding of the Five Thousand

¹⁰ When the apostles returned, they told Jesus all that they had done. Then He took them and went aside privately into a deserted place belonging to the city called Bethsaida. ¹¹ But when the crowds knew it, they followed Him. And He welcomed them and spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.

¹² When the day began to end, the twelve came and said to Him, "Send the crowds away, so they can go into the towns and surrounding countryside and lodge and get food. For we are in a deserted place here."

¹³ He said to them, "You give them something to eat."

They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we go and buy food for all these people." ¹⁴ There were about five thousand men.

But He said to His disciples, *"Make them sit down in groups of fifty."*¹⁵ They did so, and made them all sit down.¹⁶ Then He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.¹⁷ They all ate and were filled, and twelve baskets of broken pieces that remained were collected.

Peter's Declaration About Jesus

Mt 16:13-19; Mk 8:27-29

¹⁸ As He was alone praying, His disciples were with Him. And He asked them, "Who do the people say that I am?"

¹⁹ They answered, "John the Baptist. But some say Elijah. And others say that one of the old prophets has risen."

²⁰ He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered, "The Christ of God."

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

Mt 16:20-28; Mk 8:30-9:1

²³ Then He said to them all, *"If anyone will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me."*²⁴ *For whoever will save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.*²⁵ *For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, yet loses or forfeits himself?*²⁶ For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when He comes in His own glory and in the glory of His Father and of the holy angels.

²⁷ "But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who shall not taste death before they see the kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration

Mt 17:1-8; Mk 9:2-8

²⁸ About eight days after these sayings, He took Peter and John and James and went up onto a mountain to pray.²⁹ As He prayed, the appearance of His countenance was altered, and His clothing was white and glistening.³⁰ And suddenly two men were talking with Him, who were Moses and Elijah,³¹ who appeared in glory and spoke of His departure which He was to accomplish in Jerusalem.³² Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep. But waking thoroughly, they saw His glory and the two men who stood with Him.³³ As they departed from Him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three sanctuaries: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what he said.

³⁴ While he was speaking, a cloud came and overshadowed them. And they were afraid as they entered the cloud.³⁵ A voice came from out of the cloud, saying, "This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him."³⁶ When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They kept silent and told no one in those days anything they had seen.

The Healing of a Boy With an Unclean Spirit

Mt 17:14-18; Mk 9:14-27

³⁷ The next day, when they came down from the mountain, a great crowd met Him.³⁸ Suddenly a man cried out from the crowd, saying, "Teacher, I beg You, look upon my son, for he is my only child."³⁹ A spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth, and bruises him, and scarcely leaves him.⁴⁰ I begged Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not."

⁴¹ Jesus said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

⁴² While he was coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and returned him to his father.⁴³ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God.

Jesus Foretells His Death a Second Time

Mt 17:22-23; Mk 9:30-32

But while everyone marveled at all the things Jesus did, He said to His disciples,⁴⁴ *"Let these words sink down into your ears, for the Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men."*⁴⁵ But they did not understand this statement, and it was hidden from them, so that they did not perceive it. And they were afraid to ask Him about this statement.

Who Is the Greatest?

Mt 18:1-5; Mk 9:33-37

⁴⁶ A dispute arose among them as to which of them was the greatest.⁴⁷ Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child and put him by Him,⁴⁸ and said to them, "Whoever receives this child in My name receives Me, and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me. For he who is least among you all will be great."

He Who Is Not Against You Is for You

Mk 9:38-40

⁴⁹ John answered, "Master, we saw a man casting out demons in Your name and we forbade him, because he does not follow with us."

⁵⁰ Jesus said, "Do not forbid him, for he who is not against you is for you."

A Samaritan Village Refuses to Receive Jesus

⁵¹ When the time came for Him to be received up, He was steadfastly set to go to Jerusalem,⁵² and sent messengers ahead of Him. They went and entered a village of the Samaritans to make things ready for Him,⁵³ but they did not receive Him, because He was set to go to Jerusalem. ⁵⁴ When His disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, even as Elijah did?" ⁵⁵ But He turned and rebuked them and said, "You do not know what kind of spirit you are of." ⁵⁶ For the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them." And they went to another village.

The Would-Be Followers of Jesus

Mt 8:19-22

⁵⁷ As they went along the way, a man said to Him, "Lord, I will follow You wherever You go."

⁵⁸ Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests. But the Son of Man has no place to lay His head."

⁵⁹ He said to another man, "Follow Me."

But he said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father."

⁶⁰ Jesus said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But you go and preach the kingdom of God."

⁶¹ Yet another said, "Lord, I will follow You, but let me first go bid farewell to those at my house."

⁶² Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back at things is fit for the kingdom of God."

The Mission of the Seventy

10 After this the Lord appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead of Him into every city and place where He Himself was about to come. ² He said to them, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest." ³ Go your ways. Listen, I am sending you out as lambs among wolves. ⁴ Carry no purse, no bag, no shoes, and greet no one on the road.

⁵ "When you enter a house, first say, 'Peace be to this house.'" ⁶ If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him; but if not, it will return upon you. ⁷ Remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they give, for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Do not go from house to house.

⁸ "When you enter a city and they receive you, eat what is set before you." ⁹ Heal the sick who are there and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' ¹⁰ But when you enter a city and they do not receive you, go your way out into their streets and say, ¹¹ 'Even the dust of your city which clings to us, we wipe off against you. Yet be sure of this, that the kingdom of God has come near to you.' ¹² But I say to you, it will be more tolerable on that Day for Sodom than for that city.

Unrepentant Cities

Mt 11:20-24

¹³ "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which have been done for you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes." ¹⁴ But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. ¹⁵ And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You will be thrust down to hell.

¹⁶ "He who listens to you listens to Me, he who rejects you rejects Me, and he who rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me."

The Return of the Seventy

¹⁷ The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us through Your name."

¹⁸ He said to them, "I saw Satan as lightning fall from heaven." ¹⁹ Look, I give you authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. And nothing shall by any means hurt you. ²⁰ Nevertheless do not rejoice that the spirits are subject to you, but rather rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

The Rejoicing of Jesus

²¹ At that time Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank You, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because You have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent and revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, for it was Your good pleasure."

²² "All things have been handed over to Me by My Father. And no one knows who the Son is but the Father, and who the Father is but the Son and he to whom the Son desires to reveal Him."

²³ Then He turned to His disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see what you see." ²⁴ For I tell you, many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it."

The Good Samaritan

²⁵ Now, a lawyer stood up and tested Him, saying, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

²⁶ He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read?"

²⁷ He answered, "'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind' † and 'your neighbor as yourself.' ††"

²⁸ He said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live."

²⁹ But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

† Dt 6:5. †† Lev 19:18.

³⁰ Jesus answered, "A man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his clothing and wounded him and departed, leaving him half dead. ³¹ By chance a priest came down that way. And when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. ³² So likewise a Levite, when he came to that place, looked at him and passed by on the other side. ³³ But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. And when he saw him, he had compassion on him, ³⁴ and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine. Then he set him on his own donkey and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. ³⁵ The next day when he departed, he took out two denarii [†] and gave them to the innkeeper and said to him, 'Take care of him. I will repay you whatever else you spend when I return.'

³⁶ "Now which of these three do you think was a neighbor to him who fell among the thieves?"

³⁷ He said, "The one who showed mercy on him." Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Visiting Martha and Mary

³⁸ As they went, He entered a village. And a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her house. ³⁹ She had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet and listened to His teaching. ⁴⁰ But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she came to Him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Then tell her to help me."

⁴¹ Jesus answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things. ⁴² But one thing is needed. And Mary has chosen the good part, which shall not be taken from her."

Teaching About Prayer

Mt 6:9–15; 7:7–11

11 He was praying in a certain place, and when He ceased, one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples."

² He said to them, "When you pray, say:

*Our Father, who is in heaven,
hallowed be Your name.*

Your kingdom come;

Your will be done

on earth, as it is in heaven.

³ Give us each day our daily bread.

⁴ And forgive us our sins,

for we also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil."

⁵ Then He said to them, "Which of you has a friend and shall go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, ⁶ for a friend of mine on his journey has come to me, and I have nothing to set before him'; ⁷ and he will answer from within, 'Do not trouble me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give you anything'? ⁸ I say to you, though he will not rise and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will rise and give him as much as he needs.

⁹ "And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.

¹⁰ For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.

¹¹ "If a son asks for bread from any of you who is a father, will you give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, will you give him a serpent instead of a fish? ¹² Or if he asks for an egg, will you offer him a scorpion? ¹³ If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him?"

Jesus and Beelzebub

¹⁴ He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke, and the crowd marveled. ¹⁵ But some of them said, "He casts out demons through Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons." ¹⁶ Others, testing Him, asked Him for a sign from heaven.

¹⁷ But He, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is made desolate. And a house divided against itself falls. ¹⁸ If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons through Beelzebub. ¹⁹ Now if I cast out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. ²⁰ But if I cast out demons with the finger of God, no doubt the kingdom of God has come upon you.

²¹ "When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are peacefully kept. ²² But when a stronger man than he attacks and overpowers him, he seizes all the armor in which the man trusted and divides his spoils.

²³ "He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

The Return of the Unclean Spirit

²⁴ "When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, it goes through dry places seeking rest. Finding none, it says, 'I will return to my house, from which I came.' ²⁵ When it comes, it finds it swept and furnished. ²⁶ Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they enter and dwell there. And the last state of that man is worse than the first."

True Blessedness

²⁷ As He spoke these things, a woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, "Blessed is the woman who gave You birth and nursed You."

[†] Gk. a denarius, a coin worth about a day's wage.

²⁸ But He said, “Indeed, blessed are those who hear the word of God and keep it.”

The Demand for a Sign

Mt 12:38–42; Mk 8:12

²⁹ When the crowds pressed upon Him, He began to say, “This is an evil generation. It looks for a sign, but no sign will be given it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. ³⁰ For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so will the Son of Man be to this generation. ³¹ The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon. And now one greater than Solomon is here. ³² The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah. And now one greater than Jonah is here.”

The Light of the Body

Mt 5:15; 6:22–23

³³ “No one, when he has lit a candle, puts it in a secret place or under a basket, but on a candlestick, that those who come in may see the light. ³⁴ The eye is the lamp of the body. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body also is full of light. But when your eye is bad, your body also is full of darkness. ³⁵ Take heed therefore lest the light which is in you is darkness. ³⁶ If your whole body, then, is full of light, no part being dark, the whole body will be full of light, as when the shining candle gives you light.”

The Denouncing of the Pharisees and Lawyers

Mt 23:1–36; Mk 12:38–40; Lk 20:45–47

³⁷ As He spoke, a Pharisee asked Him to dine with him. So He went in and sat down to eat. ³⁸ When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that He had not first washed before dinner.

³⁹ Then the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the dish. But inside you are full of extortion and wickedness. ⁴⁰ You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also? ⁴¹ But give alms from what is within. And then all things are clean to you.”

⁴² “Woe to you, Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb and pass over justice and the love of God. These you ought to have done, without leaving the others undone.”

⁴³ “Woe to you, Pharisees! For you love the prominent seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.”

⁴⁴ “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like unseen graves, and the men who walk over them are not aware of them.”

⁴⁵ One of the lawyers answered, “Teacher, by saying these things You insult us also.”

⁴⁶ He said, “Woe to you also, you lawyers! For you load men with burdens difficult to carry, and you your- selves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

⁴⁷ “Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. ⁴⁸ So you are witnesses and entirely approve the deeds of your fathers, because they killed them, and you build their tombs. ⁴⁹ Therefore also the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute,’ ⁵⁰ that the blood of all the prophets, shed since the beginning of the world, may be required from this generation, ⁵¹ from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it shall be required from this generation.”

⁵² “Woe to you, lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were entering.”

⁵³ As He said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to incite Him vehemently and angrily draw Him out concerning many things, ⁵⁴ lying in wait for Him and seeking to catch something out of His mouth, that they might accuse Him.

A Warning Against Hypocrisy

12 Meanwhile, when thousands of the crowd were assembled, so as to trample on one another, He began to say to His disciples first, “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. ² For there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. ³ Therefore what you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. And what you have whispered in the ear in private rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.”

Whom to Fear

Mt 10:28–31

⁴ “I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that can do no more. ⁵ But I will warn you whom you shall fear: Fear Him who, after He has killed, has power to cast into hell. Yes, I say to you, fear Him. ⁶ Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies †? Yet not one of them is forgotten by God. ⁷ Indeed, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore do not fear. You are more valuable than many sparrows.”

Confessing Christ Before Men

Mt 10:19–20, 32–33; 12:32

⁸ “I say to you, whoever confesses Me before men, him will the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God. ⁹ But he who denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God. ¹⁰ And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.”

† Gk. a 2 assaria. An assarion was worth 1/16 of a denarius, which was a day's wage.

¹¹ "When they bring you to the synagogues, rulers, and authorities, do not be anxious how you will answer or what you will say. ¹² For the Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what you should say."

The Parable of the Rich Fool

¹³ Someone in the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

¹⁴ Jesus said to him, "Man, who appointed Me a judge or an arbitrator between you?" ¹⁵ Then He said to them, "Take heed and beware of covetousness. For a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions."

¹⁶ And He told a parable to them, saying, "The land of a rich man produced plentifully. ¹⁷ He thought to himself, 'What shall I do, for I have no room to store my crops?"

¹⁸ "Then he said, 'This I will do: I will pull down my barns and build greater ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹ And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take rest. Eat, drink, and be merry.'

²⁰ "But God said to him, 'You fool! This night your soul will be required of you. Then whose will those things be which you have provided?"

²¹ "So is he who stores up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

Care and Anxiety

Mt 6:25-34, 19-21

²² Then He said to His disciples, "Therefore I say to you, do not be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor for your body, what you will wear. ²³ Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothes. ²⁴ Consider the ravens: They neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouses nor barns. Yet God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds? ²⁵ Who of you by worrying can add one cubit [†] to his height? ²⁶ If you then cannot do what is least, why are you anxious about the other things?"

³² "Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. ³³ Sell your possessions and give alms. Provide yourselves purses that do not grow old, an unfailing treasure in the heavens, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.

[†] A cubit is about half a meter.

³⁴ For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

Watchful Servants

Mt 24:45-51

³⁵ "Let your waist be girded and your lights be burning, ³⁶ and you be like men waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door immediately for him when he comes and knocks. ³⁷ Blessed are those servants whom the master will find watching when he comes. Truly I say to you, he will dress himself and have them sit down to dine, and he will come and serve them. ³⁸ If he comes in the second watch, or comes in the third watch, and finds them so, blessed are those servants. ³⁹ But know this: If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched and not have allowed his house to be broken into. ⁴⁰ Therefore be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect."

⁴² The Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his master will make ruler over his house servants, to give them their portion of food at the proper time? ⁴³ Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. ⁴⁴ Truly, I say to you, he will appoint him over all his possessions. ⁴⁵ But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master delays his coming,' and begins to beat the house servants, both men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk, ⁴⁶ the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not look for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him to pieces and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

⁴⁷ "That servant who knew his master's will, but did not prepare himself or do according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. ⁴⁸ But he who unknowingly committed acts worthy of punishment shall be beaten with few stripes. For to whom much is given, of him much shall be required. And from him to whom much was entrusted, much will be asked.

Jesus the Cause of Division

Mt 10:34-36

⁴⁹ "I have come to send fire upon the earth and wish that it were already kindled! ⁵⁰ But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how pressed I am until it is accomplished! ⁵¹ Do you suppose that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. ⁵² For there will be from now on five divided in one house, three against two and two against three. ⁵³ They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, and mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

Discerning the Appointed Time

Mt 16:2-3

⁵⁴ Then He said to the crowd: "When you see a cloud rise out of the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it is. ⁵⁵ And when a south wind blows, you say, 'There will be heat,' and it happens. ⁵⁶ You hypocrites! You can discern the face of the sky and of the earth. But why do you not know how to discern this time?"

Settling With Your Accuser

Mt 5:25-26

⁵⁷ "Why even among yourselves do you not judge what is right?" ⁵⁸ When you go with your adversary to the magistrate, as you are on the way, diligently try to settle matters with him, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge will hand you over to the officer, and the officer will throw you into prison. ⁵⁹ I tell you, you shall not come out from there until you have paid the very last penny."[†]

Repent or Perish

13 There were present at that time some who told Him of the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. ² Jesus answered, "Do you suppose that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered such things?" ³ I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you will all likewise perish. ⁴ Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were worse offenders than all men living in Jerusalem?" ⁵ I tell you, no! But unless you repent, you will all likewise perish."

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

⁶ Then He told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard. He came and looked for fruit on it and found none. ⁷ So he said to the vinedresser of his vineyard, 'Now these three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down. Why should it deplete the soil?"

⁸ "He answered him, 'Sir, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it and fertilize it. ⁹ And if it bears fruit, well. But if not, after that you shall cut it down.'"

Healing a Woman on the Sabbath

¹⁰ He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. ¹¹ And there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity for eighteen years and was bent over and could not straighten herself up. ¹² When Jesus saw her, He called her and said to her, "Woman, you are loosed from your infirmity." ¹³ Then He laid His hands on her, and immediately she was made straight and glorified God.

[†] Gk. a lepton, the smallest coin circulated, means "small" or "thin."

¹⁴ But the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, and said to the people, "There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come and be healed on those days, but not on the Sabbath day."

¹⁵ The Lord answered him, "You hypocrite! Does not each one of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the stall and lead it away to water it?" ¹⁶ Then should not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham whom Satan has bound these eighteen years, be loosed from this bondage on the Sabbath?"

¹⁷ When He said this, all His adversaries were ashamed. And all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him.

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast

Mt 13:31-33; Mk 4:30-32

¹⁸ Then He said, "What is the kingdom of God like? To what shall I compare it?" ¹⁹ It is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and planted in his garden. It grew and became a large tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches."

²⁰ Again He said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God?" ²¹ It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in sixty pounds^{††} of meal until all of it was leavened."

The Narrow Gate

Mt 7:13-14, 21-23

²² Then He went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem. ²³ Someone said to Him, "Lord, will those who are saved be few?"

He said to them, ²⁴ "Strive to enter through the narrow gate. For many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. ²⁵ Once the Master of the house has risen up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open for us,' He will answer you, 'I do not know where you come from.'"

²⁶ "Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.'

²⁷ "But He will say, 'I tell you, I do not know you, or where you come from. Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.'

²⁸ "There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. ²⁹ They will come from the east and from the west and from the north and from the south and will sit down to dine in the kingdom of God. ³⁰ Listen, there are the last who will be first, and the first who will be last."

The Lament Over Jerusalem

Mt 23:37-39

³¹ On the same day certain Pharisees came, saying to Him, "Get out and depart from here, for Herod wants to kill You."

³² He said to them, *"Go and tell that fox, 'Look, I cast out demons. And I perform healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I shall be perfected.'*³³ Nevertheless I must travel today and tomorrow and the day following. For it cannot be that a prophet should perish outside Jerusalem.

³⁴ *"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to you! How often would I have gathered your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing!"*³⁵ Look, your house is forsaken. Truly I say to you, you shall not see Me until the time comes when you say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.'[†]

The Healing of the Man With Edema

14 On the Sabbath they watched Him as He went into the house of one of the leaders of the Pharisees to eat bread. ² There before Him was a man who had edema. ^{†3} Jesus said to the lawyers and Pharisees, *"Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"*⁴ But they remained silent. So He took him and healed him, and let him go.

⁵ Then He said, *"Which of you having a donkey or an ox that has fallen into a pit will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?"*⁶ And they could not answer Him regarding these things.

A Lesson to Guests and a Host

⁷ When He marked how they chose the seats of honor, He told a parable to those who were invited, saying to them, ⁸ *"When you are invited by any man to a wedding banquet, do not sit down in a seat of honor, lest a more honorable man than you be invited by him;"*⁹ *and he who invited you both will come and say to you, 'Give this man the seat,' and then you will begin with shame to take the lowest seat.*¹⁰ *But when you are invited, go and sit down in the lowest seat, so that when he who invited you comes, he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher.' Then you will have respect in the presence of those who sit at dinner with you.*¹¹ For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

¹² Then He said also to the one who invited Him, *"When you prepare a dinner or a supper, do not call your friends or your brothers or your kinsmen or your rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return, and you be repaid.*¹³ *But when you prepare a banquet, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind,*¹⁴ and you will be blessed, for they cannot repay you. You shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

The Parable of the Great Banquet

Mt 22:1-10

¹⁵ When one of those who sat at dinner with Him heard this, he said to Him, "Blessed is he who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God!"

¹⁶ Then He said to him, *"A man prepared a banquet and invited many,*¹⁷ and sent his servant at supper time to say to those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is now prepared.'

¹⁸ "But they all with one mind began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a piece of land, and I must go and see it. I ask you to excuse me.'

¹⁹ "Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to prove them. I ask you to excuse me.'

²⁰ "Still another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.'

²¹ "The servant came and reported this to his master. Then the master of the house in anger said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor and the maimed and the lame and the blind.'

²² "The servant said, 'Master, what you commanded has been done, and yet there is room.'

²³ *"Then the master said to the servant, 'Go out to the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled.'*²⁴ For I tell you, none of those men who were invited shall taste my supper."

The Cost of Discipleship

²⁵ Large crowds went with Him. And He turned and said to them, ²⁶ *"If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be My disciple.*²⁷ And whoever does not bear his cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.

²⁸ *"For who among you, intending to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost to see whether he has resources to complete it?"*²⁹ *Otherwise, perhaps, after he has laid the foundation and is not able to complete it, all who see it will begin to mock him,*³⁰ saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to complete it.'

³¹ *"Or what king, going to wage war against another king, does not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand?"*³² *Otherwise, while the other is yet at a distance, he sends a delegation and requests conditions of peace.*³³ So likewise, any of you who does not forsake all that he has cannot be My disciple.

Tasteless Salt

Mt 5:13; Mk 9:50

³⁴ "Salt is good. But if the salt has lost its saltiness, how shall it be made salty? ³⁵ It is fit neither for the land nor for the manure pile. So men throw it out. "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

Mt 18:12-14

15 Now all the tax collectors and sinners drew near to Him to hear Him. ² But the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, "This Man receives sinners and eats with them."

³ So He told them this parable, saying, ⁴ "What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one which is lost until he finds it? ⁵ And when he has found it, he places it on his shoulders, rejoicing. ⁶ Then when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.' ⁷ Likewise, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous men who need no repentance."

The Parable of the Lost Coin

⁸ "Or what woman, having ten silver coins [†] and losing one, does not light a candle and sweep the house and search diligently until she finds it? ⁹ And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin which I had lost.' ¹⁰ Likewise, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Parable of the Prodigal Son

¹¹ Then He said, "A man had two sons. ¹² The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that falls to me.' So he divided his estate between them."

¹³ "Not many days later, the younger son gathered everything together, and journeyed to a distant country, and there squandered his possessions in prodigal living. ¹⁴ When he had spent everything, there came a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in want. ¹⁵ So he went and hired himself to a citizen of that county, who sent him into his fields to feed swine. ¹⁶ He would gladly have filled his stomach with the husks that the swine were eating, but no one gave him any."

¹⁷ "When he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have an abundance of bread, and here I am perishing with hunger! ¹⁸ I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. ¹⁹ I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired servants.'" ²⁰ So he arose and came to his father.

"But while he was yet far away, his father saw him and was moved with compassion, and ran and embraced his neck and kissed him."

²¹ "The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

²² "But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and put it on him. And put a ring on his hand and shoes on his feet. ²³ Bring here the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and be merry. ²⁴ For this son of mine was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' So they began to be merry."

²⁵ "Now his older son was in the field. As he came and drew near the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶ So he called one of the servants and asked what this meant. ²⁷ He said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him safe and sound.'

²⁸ "He was angry and would not go in. Therefore his father came out and entreated him. ²⁹ But he answered his father, 'Look! These many years have I served you. Nor have I ever transgressed your commands, yet never have you given me a goat, so that I might be merry with my friends. ³⁰ But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your living with harlots, you killed the fattened calf for him.'

³¹ "He said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that I have is yours. ³² But it was fitting to be merry and be glad, for this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'"

The Parable of the Dishonest Steward

16 He told His disciples: "There was a rich man who had a steward who was accused to the man of wasting his resources. ² So he called him and said, 'How is it that I hear this about you? Give an account of your stewardship, for you may no longer be steward.'

³ "Then the steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, for my master is taking away the stewardship from me? I cannot dig. I am ashamed to beg. ⁴ I know what to do so that, when I am removed from the stewardship, others may receive me into their houses.'

⁵ "So he called each of his master's debtors, and said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?'

⁶ "He said, 'Eight hundred gallons of oil.' ^{††}

"He said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write four hundred.'

⁷ "Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?'

"He said, 'One thousand bushels of wheat.' [‡]

"He said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eight hundred.'

[†] Gk. a drachmas, each worth about a day's wage.

^{††} Gk. a 100 batous, or 3 kiloliters. [‡] Gk. a 100 korous, or 35 kiloliters.

⁸ "The master commended the dishonest steward, because he had acted prudently. For the sons of this world are wiser in their own generation than the sons of light. ⁹ I say to you, make friends for yourself by means of unrighteous wealth, so that when you fall short, they may receive you into eternal dwellings.

¹⁰ "He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much. And he who is dishonest in the least is dishonest also in much. ¹¹ So if you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will commit to your trust the true riches? ¹² And if you have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who will give you that which is your own?"

¹³ "No servant can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

The Law and the Kingdom of God

Mt 11:12-13

¹⁴ The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things and derided Him. ¹⁵ He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is highly esteemed before men is an abomination before God.

¹⁶ "The Law and the Prophets were preached until John. Since then the kingdom of God has been preached, and everyone is pressing into it. ¹⁷ It is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of the law to fail.

¹⁸ "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and whoever marries her who is divorced by her husband commits adultery.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

¹⁹ "There was a rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared sumptuously every day. ²⁰ There was also a beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores, who had been placed at his gate, ²¹ desiring to be fed the crumbs falling from the rich man's table. Moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

²² "It came to pass that the beggar died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's presence. The rich man also died and was buried. ²³ In Hades, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham from a distance and Lazarus in his presence. ²⁴ So he cried out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue. For I am tormented in this flame.'

²⁵ "But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things. But now he is comforted and you are tormented. ²⁶ And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf, so that those who would pass from here to you cannot, nor can those from there pass to us.'

²⁷ "He said, 'Then I pray you, father, to send him to my father's house, ²⁸ for I have five brothers, to testify to them, lest they also come to this place of torment.'

²⁹ "Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the Prophets. Let them hear them.'

³⁰ "He said, 'No, father Abraham. But if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.'

³¹ "He said to him, 'If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'"

Some Sayings of Jesus

Mt 18:6-7, 21-22; Mk 9:42

17 Then He said to the disciples, "It is impossible except that offenses will come. But woe to him through whom they come! ² It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he was thrown into the sea, than to offend one of these little ones. ³ Take heed to yourselves.

"If your brother sins against you, rebuke him. And if he repents, forgive him. ⁴ If he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turns to you, saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive him."

⁵ The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."

⁶ The Lord said, "If you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

⁷ "Which of you, having a servant plowing or herding sheep, will say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come now and sit down for dinner'? ⁸ Will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare my supper, and dress yourself and serve me until I eat and drink. And afterward you will eat and drink'? ⁹ Does he thank the servant because he did what was commanded? I think not. ¹⁰ So you also, when you have done everything commanded you, say, 'We are unprofitable servants. We have done our duty.'"

The Cleansing of Ten Lepers

¹¹ As Jesus went to Jerusalem, He passed between Samaria and Galilee. ¹² As He entered a village, there met Him ten men who were lepers, who stood at a distance. ¹³ They lifted up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!"

¹⁴ When He saw them, He said to them, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were cleansed.

¹⁵ One of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned with a loud voice glorifying God, ¹⁶ and fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him thanks. And he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷ Jesus said, "Were not the ten cleansed? Where are the nine? ¹⁸ Were there not any found to return and give glory to God except this foreigner?" ¹⁹ Then He said to him, "Rise, go your way. Your faith has made you well."

The Coming of the Kingdom

Mt 24:23-28, 37-41

²⁰ When He was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He answered them, "The kingdom of God does not come with observation. ²¹ Nor will they say, 'Here it is!' or 'There it is!' For remember, the kingdom of God is within you."

²² Then He said to the disciples, "The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not see it. ²³ They will say to you, 'Look here,' or 'Look there!' Do not follow after them. ²⁴ For as the lightning flashes and lights up the heavens from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in His day. ²⁵ But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation."

²⁶ "Just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of Man. ²⁷ They were eating, drinking, marrying, and were given in marriage until the day when Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all."

²⁸ "Likewise as it was in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built. ²⁹ But on the day that Lot departed from Sodom, fire and brimstone rained from heaven and destroyed them all."

³³ Whoever seeks to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will preserve it. ³⁴ I tell you, on that night two men will be in one bed; the one will be taken and the other will be left. ³⁵ Two women will be grinding grain together; the one will be taken and the other will be left. ³⁶ Two men will be in the field; the one will be taken and the other will be left."

³⁷ They asked, "Where, Lord?"

He replied, "Where the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together."

The Parable of the Widow and the Judge

18 He told them a parable to illustrate that it is necessary always to pray and not lose heart.

² He said: "In a city there was a judge who did not fear God or regard man. ³ And a widow was in that city. She came to him, saying, 'Avenge me against my adversary.'

⁴ "He would not for a while. Yet afterward he said to himself, 'Though I do not fear God or respect man, ⁵ yet because this widow troubles me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she will weary me.'"

⁶ And the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge says. ⁷ And shall not God avenge His own elect and be patient with them, who cry day and night to Him? ⁸ I tell you, He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?"

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector

⁹ He told this parable to some who trusted in themselves, as though they were righteous, and despised others: ¹⁰ "Two men went up to the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹ The Pharisee stood and prayed these things about himself, 'God, I thank You that I am not like other men: extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. ¹² I fast twice a week, and I tithe of all that I earn.'

¹³ "But the tax collector, standing at a distance, would not even lift his eyes to heaven, but struck his chest, saying, 'God, be merciful to me a sinner.'

¹⁴ "I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

Little Children Blessed

Mt 19:13-15; Mk 10:13-16

¹⁵ They also brought infants to Him that He might touch them. When the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. ¹⁶ But Jesus called them to Him and said, "Permit the little children to come to Me, and do not hinder them. For to such belongs the kingdom of God. ¹⁷ Truly, I say to you, whoever will not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will in no wise enter it."

The Rich Ruler

Mt 19:16-30; Mk 10:17-31

¹⁸ A certain ruler asked Him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

¹⁹ Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good, except God alone. ²⁰ You know the commandments: Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and your mother. † "

²¹ He said, "All these I have kept since my youth."

²² When Jesus heard this, He said to him, "Yet you lack one thing. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. And come, follow Me."

²³ When he heard this he became very sorrowful, for he was very rich. ²⁴ When Jesus saw that he became very sorrowful, He said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁶ Those who heard this said, "Who then can be saved?"

²⁷ He said, "What is impossible with men is possible with God."

²⁸ Peter said, "Look, we have left everything and followed You."

²⁹ He said to them, "Truly, I tell you, there is no man who has left his home or parents or brothers or wife or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, ³⁰ who shall not receive many times more in this age and, in the age to come, eternal life."

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection a Third Time

Mt 20:17-19; Mk 10:32-34

³¹ Taking the twelve, He said, "Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be accomplished, ³² for He will be handed over to the Gentiles and will be mocked and insulted and spit upon. ³³ They will scourge Him and put Him to death, and on the third day He will rise again."

³⁴ They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they did not comprehend what was spoken.

The Healing of a Blind Beggar Near Jericho

Mt 20:29-34; Mk 10:46-52

³⁵ As He was drawing near Jericho, a certain blind man sat along the way begging. ³⁶ Hearing a crowd passing by, he asked what it meant. ³⁷ They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.

³⁸ He cried out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

³⁹ Those who went in front rebuked him, so that he would keep quiet. But he cried out much more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

⁴⁰ Jesus stood and commanded him to be brought to Him. When he came near, He asked him, ⁴¹ "What do you want Me to do for you?"

He said, "Lord, grant that I may receive my sight."

⁴² Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight. Your faith has saved you." ⁴³ Immediately he received his sight and followed Him, glorifying God. When all the people saw it, they gave praise to God.

Jesus and Zacchaeus

19 Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. ² A man was there named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. ³ He tried to see who Jesus was, but was not able from the crowd, because he was little in stature. ⁴ So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was to pass that way.

⁵ When Jesus came to the vicinity, He looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must remain at your house." ⁶ So he hurried and came down, and received Him joyfully.

⁷ When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "He has gone to be the guest of a man who is a sinner."

⁸ But Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my possessions to the poor. And if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I will repay him four times as much."

⁹ Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰ For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

The Parable of the Ten Pounds

Mt 25:14-30

¹¹ As they heard these things, He continued and told them a parable, because He was near Jerusalem and because they thought the kingdom of God would immediately appear. ¹² Therefore He said, "A nobleman went to a distant country to receive a kingdom and to return. ¹³ So he called his ten servants and entrusted to them ten pounds [†] and said to them, 'Trade until I come.'

¹⁴ "But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to reign over us.'

¹⁵ "When he returned, having received the kingdom, he summoned these servants, to whom he had entrusted the money, that he might know what everyone gained by trading.

¹⁶ "The first came, saying, 'Master, your pound has made ten pounds more.'

¹⁷ "He said to him, 'Well done, good servant! Because you have been faithful in very little, take authority over ten cities.'

¹⁸ "The second came, saying, 'Master, your pound has made five pounds more.'

¹⁹ "He said in like manner to him, 'You, take authority over five cities.'

²⁰ "Then another came, saying, 'Master, look, here is your pound, which I have kept put away in a napkin. ²¹ For I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You collect what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.'

²² "He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant. You knew that I was an exacting man, collecting what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow. ²³ Why then did you not deposit my money in the bank, so that at my coming I might have collected it with interest?"

²⁴ "Then he said to those who stood by, 'Take the pound from him and give it to him who has ten pounds.'

²⁵ "They said to him, 'Master, he has ten pounds.'

²⁶ "I tell you that to everyone who has will be given. But from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away from him. ²⁷ But as for those enemies of mine, who would not let me reign over them, bring them here and slay them before me."

The Triumphant Entry in Jerusalem

²⁸ When He had said this, He went before them, ascending up to Jerusalem. ²⁹ When He came near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mountain called the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples, ³⁰ saying, "Go over into the village opposite you, where, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever yet sat. Untie it and bring it here." ³¹ If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' you shall say to him, 'Because the Lord has need of it.'"

³² Those who were sent went and found it just as He had told them. ³³ As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

³⁴ They said, "The Lord has need of it."

³⁵ They brought it to Jesus. And they threw their garments on the colt, and they set Jesus on it. ³⁶ As He went, they spread their clothes in the street.

³⁷ When He was coming near the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with loud voices for all the mighty works that they had seen, ³⁸ saying:

'Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord!' †

Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!"

³⁹ Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples."

⁴⁰ He answered them, "I tell you, if these should be silent, the stones would immediately cry out."

⁴¹ When He came near, He beheld the city and wept over it, ⁴² saying, "If you, even you, had known even today what things would bring you peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes." ⁴³ For the days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment around you and surround you, and press you in on every side. ⁴⁴ They will dash you, and your children within you, to the ground. They will not leave one stone upon another within you, because you did not know the time of your visitation."

The Cleansing of the Temple

Mt 21:12-17; Mk 11:15-19; Jn 2:13-22

⁴⁵ Then He entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold and bought in it, ⁴⁶ saying to them, "It is written, 'My house will be a house of prayer,' †† but you have made it 'a den of thieves.' ‡ "

⁴⁷ He taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests, the scribes, and the leaders of the people tried to kill Him. ⁴⁸ Yet they could not find a way to do it, for all the people were very attentive to hear Him.

The Question of Jesus' Authority

Mt 21:23-27; Mk 11:27-33

20 One day, as He taught the people in the temple and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes with the elders came up to Him, ² and said to Him, "Tell us, by what authority are You doing these things? Who is he who gave You this authority?"

³ He answered them, "I will also ask you one thing. Answer Me: ⁴ Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?"

⁵ They debated with themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' ⁶ But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet."

⁷ So they answered that they did not know where it was from.

⁸ Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Vineyard and the Vinedressers

Mt 21:33-46; Mk 12:1-12

⁹ He began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard, and leased it to vinedressers, and went to a distant country for a long time. ¹⁰ At harvest time he sent a servant to the vinedressers so they might give him some fruit of the vineyard. But the vinedressers beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹ Again, he sent another servant. But they beat him also, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. ¹² Once again, he sent a third. And they wounded him also and drove him out."

¹³ "Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. Perhaps they will respect him when they see him.'

¹⁴ "But when the vinedressers saw him, they debated among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.' ¹⁵ So they drove him out of the vineyard and killed him."

"What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶ He will come and kill these vinedressers and will give the vineyard to others."

When they heard this, they said, "May it not be so!"

¹⁷ He looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written:

'The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone' †† ?

¹⁸ Whoever falls on that stone will be broken. But he on whom it falls will be crushed to powder." ††

¹⁹ The chief priests and the scribes tried to lay their hands on Him that same hour, but they feared the people. For they perceived that He had told this parable against them.

The Question of Paying Taxes

²⁰ They watched Him and sent out spies who pretended to be righteous men, that they might seize Him in His words to hand Him over to the power and authority of the governor. ²¹ So they asked Him, "Teacher, we know that You speak and teach rightly.

† Ps 118:26. †† Isa 56:7. ‡ Jer 7:11.

†† Ps 118:22. †† Isa 8:14-15.

And You do not show partiality, but You truly teach the way of God. ²² Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

²³ He perceived their craftiness and said to them, "Why do you test Me?" ²⁴ Show Me a denarius. † Whose image and inscription does it have?"

They said, "Caesar's."

²⁵ He said to them, "Then render to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's."

²⁶ They could not catch Him in His words before the people. And they marveled at His answer and were silent.

The Question About the Resurrection

Mt 22:23-33; Mk 12:18-27

²⁷ Some of the Sadducees, who deny that there is any resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, ²⁸ "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife but no children, then this man should take the wife and raise up children for his brother. ^{†29} Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife and died childless. ³⁰ The second took her as wife, and he died childless. ³¹ And then the third took her, and in like manner, all seven died and left no children. ³² Last of all, the woman died also. ³³ Therefore in the resurrection whose wife will she be? For the seven had her as a wife."

³⁴ Jesus answered them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵ But those who are counted worthy to attain that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶ For they cannot die any more, for they are equal to the angels and are the sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. ³⁷ Now, at the bush, even Moses pointed out that the dead are raised when he called the Lord 'the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' ^{‡38} For He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. For to Him all live."

³⁹ Some of the scribes said, "Teacher, You have spoken well." ⁴⁰ After that they dared not ask Him any question at all.

The Question About David's Son

Mt 22:41-46; Mk 12:35-37

⁴¹ Then Jesus said to them, "How do they say that Christ is David's Son?" ⁴² David himself says in the Book of Psalms,

'The Lord said to my Lord,

'Sit at My right hand,

⁴³ until I make Your enemies

Your footstool.' ^{††}

⁴⁴ David therefore calls Him 'Lord.' How is He then his Son?"

The Denouncing of the Scribes

Mt 23:1-36; Mk 12:38-40; Lk 11:37-54

⁴⁵ Then as all the people heard, He said to His disciples, ⁴⁶ "Beware of the scribes who desire to walk in long robes and who love greetings in the market-places and the prominent seats in the synagogues and the seats of honor at banquets, ⁴⁷ who devour widows' houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive greater condemnation."

The Widow's Offering

²¹ He looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts in the treasury. ² He also saw a poor widow putting in two mites, ^{‡3} and He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them. ⁴ For all these out of their abundance have put in their gifts for God. But she out of her poverty has put in all the living she had."

The Destruction of the Temple Foretold

Mt 24:1-2; Mk 13:1-2

⁵ As some spoke of how the temple was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts, He said, ⁶ "As for these things which you see, the days will come when not one stone shall be left on another that will not be thrown down."

Signs and Persecutions

Mt 24:3-14; Mk 13:3-13

⁷ They asked Him, "Teacher, when will these things be, and what will be the sign when this is about to happen?"

⁸ He said, "Beware lest you be deceived. For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and 'The time has drawn near.' Therefore do not go after them. ⁹ When you hear of wars and commotions, do not be afraid. For these things must first take place, but the end will not be at hand."

¹⁰ Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹ Great earthquakes will occur in various places, and there will be famines and pestilence. And there will be terrors and great signs from heaven."

¹² "But before all these things, they will seize you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for My name's sake. ¹³ It will turn out as a testimony for you. ¹⁴ Therefore resolve in your hearts beforehand not to practice your defense. ¹⁵ For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your opponents will be able to neither refute nor resist. ¹⁶ You will be betrayed by parents and brothers and relatives and friends. And they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷ You will be hated by all men for My name's sake, ¹⁸ but not a hair of your head shall perish. ¹⁹ In your endurance you will gain your souls.

The Destruction of Jerusalem Foretold

²⁰ "When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then you know that its desolation has drawn near. ²¹ Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are in the city depart, and let not those who are in the country enter it. ²² For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. ²³ But woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath upon this people. ²⁴ They will fall by the edge of the sword and will be led away captive to all nations. And Jerusalem will be trampled on by the Gentiles until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Coming of the Son of Man

Mt 24:29-31; Mk 13:24-27

²⁵ "There will be signs in the sun and the moon and the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; ²⁶ men fainting from fear and expectation of what is coming on the inhabited earth. For the powers of heaven will be shaken. ²⁷ Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ²⁸ When these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, for your redemption is drawing near."

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

²⁹ He told them this parable: "Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. ³⁰ When they are sprouting leaves already, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near. ³¹ So in like manner, when you see these things happening, you know that the kingdom of God is near.

³² "Truly, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things are fulfilled. ³³ Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

Exhortation to Watch

³⁴ "Take heed to yourselves, lest your hearts become burdened by excessiveness and drunkenness and anxieties of life, and that Day comes on you unexpectedly. ³⁵ For as a snare it will come on all those who dwell on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶ Therefore watch always and pray that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen and to stand before the Son of Man."

³⁷ Each day He was teaching in the temple, and each night He went out and stayed on the mountain called the Mount of Olives. ³⁸ And all the people came early in the morning to hear Him in the temple.

The Plot to Kill Jesus

Mt 26:1-5, 14-16; Mk 14:1-2, 10-11; Jn 11:45-53

22 Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread, which is called the Passover, drew near. ² And the chief priests and scribes were seeking how to kill Jesus, for they feared the people. ³ Then Satan entered into Judas, called Iscariot, who was one of the twelve. ⁴ He went and discussed with the chief priests and captains how he might betray Him to them. ⁵ They were glad and agreed to give him money. ⁶ He fully consented and searched for an opportunity to betray Him to them apart from the crowds.

The Preparation of the Passover

Mt 26:17-25; Mk 14:12-21; Jn 13:21-30

⁷ Then the Day of Unleavened Bread came, when the Passover lamb must be killed. ⁸ He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us to eat it."

⁹ They said to Him, "Where will You have us prepare it?"

¹⁰ He said to them, "Now, as you enter the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you there. Follow him into the house which he enters, ¹¹ and say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"' ¹² He will show you a large furnished upper room. Prepare there."

¹³ They went and found it as He had told them. So they prepared the Passover.

The Lord's Supper

Mt 26:26-30; Mk 14:22-26; 1Co 11:23-25

¹⁴ When the hour had come, He and the twelve apostles with Him sat down. ¹⁵ And He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. ¹⁶ For I tell you, I will never eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

¹⁷ And He took the cup and gave thanks and said, "Take this and divide it among yourselves. ¹⁸ For I tell you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes."

¹⁹ Then He took the bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of Me."

²⁰ In like manner, He took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood which is shed for you. ²¹ But see the hand of him who betrays Me is with Me at the table. ²² Indeed, the Son of Man goes as it has been determined. But woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!" ²³ They began to inquire among themselves which of them it was who would do this.

The Dispute About Greatness

²⁴ There was also rivalry among them concerning which of them was to be counted the greatest. ²⁵ He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those who exercise authority over them are called benefactors. ²⁶ But you are not so. Instead, let him who is greatest among you be as the younger, and he who rules as he who serves. ²⁷ For who is greater: he who sits at the table, or he who serves? Is it not he who sits at the table? But I am among you as He who serves. ²⁸ You are those who have continued with Me in My trials. ²⁹ And I appoint to you a kingdom as My Father has appointed one to Me, ³⁰ so that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

Peter's Denial Foretold

³¹ Then the Lord said, "Simon, Simon, listen! Satan has demanded to have you to sift you as wheat. ³² But I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have repented, strengthen your brothers."

³³ He said to Him, "Lord, I am ready to go with You to prison and to death."

³⁴ He said, "I tell you, Peter, before the rooster crows today, you will deny three times that you know Me."

Purse, Bag, and Sword

³⁵ Then He said to them, "When I sent you without purse or bag or sandals, did you lack anything?"

They said, "Nothing."

³⁶ He said to them, "But now, let him who has a purse take it and also a bag. And let him who has no sword sell his garment and buy one. ³⁷ For I tell you, what is written must yet be accomplished in Me, 'And He was numbered with the transgressors.'[†] Indeed, what is written concerning Me has a fulfillment."

³⁸ They said, "Lord, look, here are two swords."

He said to them, "It is enough."

The Prayer on the Mount of Olives

Mt 26:36-46; Mk 14:32-42

³⁹ According to His custom, He came out and went to the Mount of Olives. And His disciples followed Him.

⁴⁰ When He came there, He said to them, "Pray that you may not fall into temptation." ⁴¹ He withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and He knelt down and prayed, ⁴² "Father, if You are willing, remove this cup from Me. Nevertheless not My will, but Yours, be done." ⁴³ An angel from heaven appeared to Him, strengthening Him. ⁴⁴ And being in anguish, He prayed more earnestly. And His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

⁴⁵ When He rose from prayer and had come to His disciples, He found them sleeping from sorrow. ⁴⁶ He said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray, lest you fall into temptation."

The Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

Mt 26:47-56; Mk 14:43-50; Jn 18:3-11

⁴⁷ While He was yet speaking, a crowd came. And he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He drew near to Jesus to kiss Him. ⁴⁸ But Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

⁴⁹ When those who were around Him saw what would follow, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?" ⁵⁰ And one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

⁵¹ But Jesus said, "This is enough!" And He touched his ear and healed him.

⁵² Then Jesus said to the chief priests, and captains of the temple guard, and the elders who had come for Him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs as against a rebel?" ⁵³ Daily, while I was with you in the temple, you did not lay hands on Me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness!"

Peter's Denial of Jesus

Mt 26:57-58, 69-75; Mk 14:53-54, 66-72; Jn 18:12-18, 25-27

⁵⁴ Then they arrested Him, and led Him away, and brought Him into the high priest's house. Peter followed at a distance. ⁵⁵ But when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat among them. ⁵⁶ Then a servant girl saw him as he sat near the fire, and gazed at him, and said, "This man was with Him."

⁵⁷ But he denied Him, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."

⁵⁸ A little later someone else saw him and said, "You also are one of them."

Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

⁵⁹ About an hour later another man firmly declared, "Certainly, this man also was with Him, for he is a Galilean."

⁶⁰ Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are saying." Immediately, while he was yet speaking, the rooster crowed. ⁶¹ The Lord turned and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." ⁶² And Peter went outside and wept bitterly.

The Mocking and Whipping of Jesus

Mt 26:67-68; Mk 14:65

⁶³ The men who guarded Jesus mocked Him and whipped Him. ⁶⁴ When they had blindfolded Him, they struck Him on the face and asked Him, "Prophecy! Who struck You?" ⁶⁵ And many other things they blasphemously spoke against Him.

Jesus Before the Council

Mt 26:59–66; Mk 14:55–64; Jn 18:19–24

⁶⁶ When day came, the assembly of the elders of the people, both the chief priests and scribes, came together and led Him away to their council, saying, ⁶⁷ “Are You the Christ? Tell us!”

He said to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe. ⁶⁸ And if I also question you, you will not answer Me or release Me. ⁶⁹ From now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.”

⁷⁰ They all said, “Are You then the Son of God?”

He said to them, “You truly say that I am.”

⁷¹ Then they said, “What further testimony do we need? We have heard it from His own mouth.”

Jesus Brought Before Pilate

Mt 27:1–2, 11–14; Mk 15:1–5; Jn 18:28–38

23 Then the whole assembly rose and led Him to Pilate. ² And they began to accuse Him, saying, “We found this Man perverting our nation, and forbidding us to pay taxes to Caesar, and saying that He Himself is Christ a King.”

³ So Pilate asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

He answered, “You truly say so.”

⁴ Then Pilate said to the chief priests and to the people, “I find no fault in this Man.”

⁵ But they insisted, saying, “He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to here.”

Jesus Before Herod

⁶ When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the Man was a Galilean. ⁷ When he learned that He belonged to Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

⁸ When Herod saw Jesus, he greatly rejoiced, for he had desired to see Him for a long time, because he had heard many things of Him, and he was hoping to see some miracle performed by Him. ⁹ He questioned Him with many words, but He gave no answer. ¹⁰ The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing Him. ¹¹ Then Herod with his soldiers despised Him, and mocked Him, and dressed Him in a fine robe, and sent Him back to Pilate. ¹² On the same day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, having previously been at enmity with each other.

Jesus Sentenced to Die

¹³ Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, ¹⁴ and said to them, “You have brought this Man to me as one who incites the people. And truly, I, having examined Him before you, have found no fault in this Man concerning those things of which you accuse Him. ¹⁵ No, neither has Herod, for he sent him back to us. Look, nothing worthy of death has been done by Him. ¹⁶ I will therefore chastise Him and release Him.” ¹⁷ For he was obligated to release one man to them at the feast.

¹⁸ But they all cried out at once saying, “Take this Man away and release Barabbas to us!” ¹⁹ This man had been thrown in prison for an insurrection in the city and for murder.

²⁰ Therefore Pilate spoke to them again, desiring to release Jesus. ²¹ But they cried out, “Crucify Him! Crucify Him!”

²² He said to them a third time, “Why, what evil has He done? I have found in Him no cause worthy of death. I will therefore chastise Him and release Him.”

²³ But they insisted with loud voices, asking that He be crucified. And the voices of these men and of the chief priests prevailed. ²⁴ So Pilate gave the sentence as they demanded. ²⁵ He released to them the man who was thrown in prison for insurrection and murder, whom they asked for. But he sentenced Jesus according to their will.

The Crucifixion

²⁶ As they led Him away, they seized Simon of Cyrene, who was coming from the country, and they laid the cross on him to carry it behind Jesus. ²⁷ A large number of people followed Him, including women who mourned and lamented Him. ²⁸ Jesus turned to them, saying, “Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. ²⁹ Listen, the days are coming when they will say, ‘Blessed are the barren, who never bore and never nursed!’ ³⁰ Then they will begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us,’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us.’

³¹ For if men do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?”

³² Two different men, who were criminals, also were led with Him to be killed. ³³ When they came to the place which is called The Skull, there they crucified Him and the criminals, one on the right and one on the left. ³⁴ Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.” And they divided His clothes by casting lots.

³⁵ The people stood by watching. But the rulers with them scoffed, saying, “He saved others. Let Him save Himself if He is the Christ, the Chosen One of God.”

³⁶ And the soldiers also mocked Him, coming to Him and offering Him sour wine, ³⁷ saying, “If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself.”

³⁸ An inscription was written over Him in letters of Greek and Latin and Hebrew:

THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

³⁹ One of the criminals who were hanged blasphemed Him, saying, “If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us!”

⁴⁰ But the other rebuked him, saying, “Do you not fear God, seeing you are under the same sentence?

⁴¹ And we indeed, justly. For we are receiving the due reward of our deeds. But this Man has done nothing amiss."

⁴² Then he said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom."

⁴³ Jesus said to him, "Truly, I tell you, today you will be with Me in Paradise."

The Death of Jesus

⁴⁴ It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over all the land until the ninth hour, ⁴⁵ while the sun was darkened. And the veil of the temple was torn in the middle. ⁴⁶ And Jesus cried out with a loud voice, "Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit." Having said this, He gave up the spirit.

⁴⁷ When the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God and said, "Certainly, this was a righteous Man." ⁴⁸ All the crowds who came together to that sight, witnessing what occurred, struck their chests and returned. ⁴⁹ But all those who knew Him and the women accompanying Him from Galilee stood at a distance, seeing these things.

The Burial of Jesus

⁵⁰ Now there was a man named Joseph, a member of the Council, who was a good and just man. ⁵¹ He had not consented to their counsel and deed. He was from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, and he himself was also waiting for the kingdom of God. ⁵² This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. ⁵³ Then he took Him down, and wrapped Him in linen, and placed Him in a hewn tomb, where no one had ever been buried. ⁵⁴ It was the Day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near.

⁵⁵ The women who came with Him from Galilee followed, and saw the tomb and how His body was placed. ⁵⁶ Then they returned and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

The Resurrection of Jesus

Mt 28:1-10; Mk 16:1-8; Jn 20:1-10

24 Now on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they, and certain other women with them, came to the tomb bringing the spices they had prepared. ² They found the stone rolled away from the tomb. ³ But when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴ While they were greatly perplexed concerning this, suddenly two men stood by them in shining garments. ⁵ As they were afraid and bowed their faces to the ground, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? ⁶ He is not here, but has risen! Remember how He spoke to you while He was still in Galilee, ⁷ saying, 'The Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.'"

⁸ Then they remembered His words.

⁹ And they returned from the tomb and reported all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. ¹⁰ It was Mary Magdalene and Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and other women with them, who told these things to the apostles. ¹¹ But their words seemed like fables to them, and they did not believe them. ¹² But Peter rose and ran to the tomb. Stooping down, he saw the linen clothes lying by themselves. He departed, wondering in himself what had happened.

The Walk to Emmaus

Mk 16:12-13

¹³ Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles [†] from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ They were talking with each other about all these things that had happened. ¹⁵ While they communed and reasoned together, Jesus Himself drew near and went with them. ¹⁶ But their eyes were kept from recognizing Him.

¹⁷ He said to them, "What kind of communication are you sharing with one another while you are walking and are sad?"

¹⁸ One of them, named Cleopas, answered Him, "Are You the only foreigner in Jerusalem who does not know what has happened there in these days?"

¹⁹ He said to them, "What things?"

They said to Him, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet, powerful in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰ and how our chief priests and rulers handed Him over to be sentenced to death and crucified Him. ²¹ But we were hoping that it was He who was to redeem Israel. Moreover, today is the third day since these things happened. ²² Even some women from among us, who arrived early at the tomb, surprised us. ²³ When they did not find His body, they returned saying that they had even seen a vision of angels, who said that He was alive. ²⁴ Then some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said. But they did not see Him."

²⁵ He said to them, "O fools! And slow of heart to believe what the prophets have spoken! ²⁶ Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things and to enter His glory?" ²⁷ And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He explained to them the things concerning Himself in all the Scriptures.

²⁸ They drew near the village where they were traveling, and He seemed to be going farther. ²⁹ But they urged Him, saying, "Stay with us. For it is nearly evening and the day is far spent." So He went in to stay with them.

³⁰ As He sat at supper with them, He took the bread, blessed it and broke it, and gave it to them. ³¹ Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him. And He vanished out of their sight. ³² They said to each other, "Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the way and while He opened the Scriptures to us?"

[†] Gk. a 60 stadia, or 11 kilometers.

³³ They rose up and returned to Jerusalem at once. And they found the eleven and those who were with them assembled together, ³⁴ saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵ Then they reported what had happened on the way, and how He was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

The Appearance to the Disciples

Mt 28:16–20; Mk 16:14–18; Jn 20:19–23; Ac 1:6–8

³⁶ As they were saying this, Jesus Himself stood among them and said to them, "Peace be unto you."

³⁷ They were terrified and frightened, and supposed that they saw a spirit. ³⁸ He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? ³⁹ See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Feel Me and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have."

⁴⁰ When He said this, He showed them His hands and His feet. ⁴¹ And while they yet disbelieved for joy and wondered, He said to them, "Do you have any food here?" ⁴² They gave Him a piece of broiled fish and some honeycomb. ⁴³ And He took it and ate it before them.

⁴⁴ He said to them, "These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law of Moses and in the Prophets and in the Psalms concerning Me."

⁴⁵ Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. ⁴⁶ He said to them, "Thus it is written, and accordingly it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, ⁴⁷ and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹ And look, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high."

The Ascension

Mk 16:19–20; Ac 1:9–11

⁵⁰ Then He led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them. ⁵¹ While He blessed them, He parted from them and was carried up into heaven. ⁵² Then they worshipped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, ⁵³ and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

JOHN

According to Irenaeus, John the Apostle, the brother of James the Apostle, authored the Gospel bearing his name in the AD 90s. But there is evidence for an earlier date closer to AD 70. While living in Ephesus, he composed this spiritual Gospel to supplement the other three Gospels. The believers of his day encouraged him to write this Gospel. He had outlived all of the original apostles and did not suffer martyrdom. It is a unique testimony of the divinity, Messiahship, and eternal Sonship of Christ. John may have been refuting the initial teachings of certain heresies, such as Gnosticism, which later plagued the church in the second century. He may also have been debating with local synagogues in Ephesus about the real identity of the Messiah—Jesus Christ. This Gospel is distinctive from the other Gospels in that it has seven events in common with them: John the Baptist's baptizing ministry, the feeding of the five thousand, Jesus' walking on the water, Jesus' anointing at Bethany, the Last Supper, the Crucifixion, and the Resurrection. Old Testament imagery saturates John's Gospel.

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² He was in the beginning with God.

³ All things were created through Him, and without Him nothing was created that was created. ⁴ In Him was life, and the life was the light of mankind. ⁵ The light shines in darkness, but the darkness has not overcome it.

⁶ There was a man sent from God whose name was John. ⁷ This man came as a witness in order to testify concerning the Light, that all men through Him might believe. ⁸ He was not this Light, but was sent in order to testify concerning the Light. ⁹ The true Light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

¹⁰ He was in the world, and the world was created through Him, yet the world did not know Him. ¹¹ He came to His own, and His own people did not receive Him. ¹² Yet to all who received Him, He gave the power to become sons of God, to those who believed in His name, ¹³ who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

¹⁴ The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, the glory as the only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.

¹⁵ John bore witness of Him and cried out, "This was He of whom I said, 'He who comes after me is preferred before me, for He was before me.'" ¹⁶ We have all received from His fullness grace upon grace. ¹⁷ For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸ No one has seen God at any time. The only Son, who is at the Father's side, has made Him known.

The Testimony of John the Baptist

Mt 3:1-12; Mk 1:2-8; Lk 3:15-17

¹⁹ Now this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" ²⁰ He confessed, and did not deny, but confessed, "I am not the Christ."

²¹ They asked him, "Who then? Are you Elijah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"

He answered, "No."

²² They said to him then, "Who are you? Tell us so that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say concerning yourself?"

²³ John said, "I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,'[†] just as the prophet Isaiah said."

²⁴ Now those who were sent were from the Pharisees. ²⁵ They asked him, "Why do you baptize then, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

²⁶ John answered them, "I baptize with water, but One stands among you, whom you do not know.

²⁷ This is He who comes after me, who is preferred before me, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie."

²⁸ These things took place in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

The Lamb of God

²⁹ The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. ³⁰ This is He of whom I said, 'After me comes a Man who is preferred before me, for He was before me.' ³¹ I did not know Him, but for this reason I came baptizing with water: so that He might be revealed to Israel."

[†] Isa 40:3.

³² Then John bore witness, saying, "I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on Him. ³³ I did not know Him, but He who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'The One on whom you see the Spirit descending and remaining, this is He who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' ³⁴ I have seen and have borne witness that He is the Son of God."

The First Disciples

³⁵ Again, the next day John was standing with two of his disciples. ³⁶ Looking upon Jesus as He walked, he said, "Look, the Lamb of God!"

³⁷ The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. ³⁸ Then Jesus turned, saw them following, and said to them, "What do you seek?"

And they said to Him, "Rabbi" (which means Teacher), "where are You staying?"

³⁹ Jesus said to them, "Come and see."

So they came and saw where He stayed and remained with Him that day, for it was about the tenth hour.

⁴⁰ One of the two who heard John speak, and followed Him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. ⁴¹ He first found his own brother Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which means the Christ). ⁴² Then he brought him to Jesus.

When Jesus saw him, He said, "You are Simon the son of John. You shall be called Cephas" (which means Peter).

The Calling of Philip and Nathanael

⁴³ The next day Jesus wanted to go to Galilee, and He found Philip, and said to him, "Follow Me."

⁴⁴ Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵ Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found Him of whom Moses in the law, as well as the prophets, wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

⁴⁶ Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?"

Philip said to him, "Come and see."

⁴⁷ Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him and said concerning him, "Here is an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile."

⁴⁸ Nathanael said to Him, "How do You know me?"

Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

⁴⁹ Nathanael answered Him, "Rabbi, You are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!"

⁵⁰ Jesus answered him, "Because I said to you, 'I saw you under the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these." ⁵¹ And He said to him, "Truly, truly I say to you, hereafter you shall see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

The Wedding at Cana

² On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there. ² Both Jesus and His disciples were invited to the wedding.

³ When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They have no wine."

⁴ Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with Me? My hour has not yet come."

⁵ His mother said to the servants, "Whatever He says to you, do it."

⁶ Six water pots made of stone were sitting there, used for ceremonial cleansing by the Jews, containing twenty to thirty gallons each. [†]

⁷ Jesus said to them, "Fill the water pots with water." And they filled them up to the brim.

⁸ Then He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the master of the feast."

And they took it. ⁹ When the master of the feast tasted the water that had been turned into wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who drew the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom, ¹⁰ and he said to him, "Every man serves the good wine first, and after men have drunk freely, then the poor wine is served. But you have kept the good wine until now."

¹¹ This, the first of His signs, Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and He revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

¹² After this He, and His mother, and His brothers, and His disciples went down to Capernaum. They remained there a few days.

The Cleansing of the Temple

Mt 21:12-17; Mk 11:15-17; Lk 19:45-48

¹³ The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ In the temple He found those who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the moneychangers sitting there. ¹⁵ When He had made a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, with the sheep and oxen. He poured out the changers' money and overturned the tables. ¹⁶ He said to those who sold doves, "Take these things away! Do not make My Father's house a house of merchandise!"

¹⁷ His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for Your house will consume Me." ^{††}

¹⁸ Then the Jews said to Him, "What sign do You show us, seeing that You do these things?"

¹⁹ Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

²⁰ Then the Jews said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will You raise it up in three days?" ²¹ But He was speaking concerning the temple of His body. ²² Therefore, when He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this to them. And they believed the Scripture and the word which Jesus had spoken.

Jesus Knows All Men

²³ Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many believed in His name when they saw the signs which He did. ²⁴ But Jesus did not entrust Himself to them, because He knew all men, ²⁵ and did not need anyone to bear witness of man, for He knew what was in man.

Jesus and Nicodemus

3 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. ² He came to Jesus by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher who has come from God. For no one can do these signs that You do unless God is with him."

³ Jesus answered him, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless a man is born again, † he cannot see the kingdom of God."

⁴ Nicodemus said to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?"

⁵ Jesus answered, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless a man is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. ⁶ That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. ⁷ Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again.' ⁸ The wind blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit."

¹⁰ Jesus answered him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, but you do not know these things? ¹¹ Truly, truly I say to you, We speak of what We know and bear witness of what We have seen, but you do not receive Our testimony. ¹² If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? ¹³ No one has ascended to heaven except He who descended from heaven, even the Son of Man who is in heaven. ¹⁴ Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, ¹⁵ that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but may have eternal life."

¹⁶ "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal life. ¹⁷ For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. ¹⁸ He who believes in Him is not condemned. But he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. ¹⁹ This is the verdict, that light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. ²⁰ For everyone who does evil hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. ²¹ But he who does the truth comes to the light, that it may be revealed that his deeds have been done in God."

Jesus and John the Baptist

²² After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea. He remained with them there and baptized. ²³ John also was baptizing in Aenon toward Salim, because much water was there. And people came and were baptized. ²⁴ For John had not yet been put in prison. ²⁵ Then a dispute arose between some of John's disciples and the Jews about ceremonial cleansing. ²⁶ They came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you bore witness, look, He is baptizing, and everyone is going to Him."

²⁷ John answered, "A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven. ²⁸ You yourselves bear witness of me, that I said, 'I am not the Christ,' but 'I have been sent before Him.' ²⁹ He who has the bride is the bridegroom. But the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom's voice. Therefore this joy of mine is fulfilled. ³⁰ He must increase, but I must decrease."

He Who Comes From Heaven

³¹ He who comes from above is above all. He who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. ³² He bears witness of what He has seen and heard, yet no one receives His testimony. ³³ He who has received His testimony has certified that God is true. ³⁴ For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God gives the Spirit without measure to Him. ³⁵ The Father loves the Son, and has placed all things into His hand. ³⁶ He who believes in the Son has eternal life. He who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

Jesus and the Samaritan Woman

4 Now when the Lord learned that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John ² (though Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples), ³ He left Judea and departed again to Galilee.

⁴ Now it was necessary that He go through Samaria. ⁵ So He came to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. ⁶ Jacob's well was there. Jesus, therefore, being exhausted from His journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.

⁷ A woman of Samaria came there to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me a drink." ⁸ For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.

⁹ Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?" For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.

¹⁰ Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who is saying to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

¹¹ The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do You get that living water? ¹² Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, along with his sons and his livestock?"

¹³ Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, ¹⁴ but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water that I shall give him will become in him a well of water springing up into eternal life."

¹⁵ The woman said to Him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I will not thirst, nor come here to draw."

¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

¹⁷ The woman answered, "I have no husband."

Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband,' ¹⁸ for you have had five husbands, and he whom you now have is not your husband. So you have spoken truthfully."

¹⁹ The woman said to Him, "Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet. ²⁰ Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, but you all say that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship."

²¹ Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. ²² You worship what you do not know; we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. ²³ Yet the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth. For the Father seeks such to worship Him. ²⁴ God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship Him in spirit and truth."

²⁵ The woman said to Him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When He comes, He will tell us all things."

²⁶ Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am He."

²⁷ Then His disciples came. They marveled that He talked with a woman. Yet no one said, "What do You seek?" or, "Why are You talking with her?"

²⁸ The woman then left her water pot, went her way into the city, and said to the men, ²⁹ "Come, see a Man who told me all things that I ever did. Could this be the Christ?" ³⁰ They went out of the city and came to Him.

³¹ Meanwhile His disciples urged Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

³² But He said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know."

³³ Therefore the disciples said one to another, "Has anyone brought Him anything to eat?"

³⁴ Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to finish His work. ³⁵ Do you not say, 'There are yet four months, and then comes the harvest'? Listen! I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest. ³⁶ He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit that leads to eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. ³⁷ For in this is the saying true, 'One sows, and another reaps.' ³⁸ I sent you to reap a crop for which you did not labor. And you have benefited from their labor."

³⁹ Many of the Samaritans of that city believed in Him because of the word of the woman who testified, "He told me all that I ever did." ⁴⁰ So when the Samaritans came to Him, they asked Him to remain with them. And He stayed there two days. ⁴¹ And many more believed because of His word.

⁴² They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of what you said, for we have heard for ourselves and know that this Man is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world."

The Healing of the Nobleman's Son

Mt 8:5-13; Lk 7:1-10

⁴³ After the two days He departed from there and went to Galilee. ⁴⁴ For Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. ⁴⁵ Then, when He came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed Him, having seen all the things He did at Jerusalem at the feast. For they had also gone to the feast.

⁴⁶ So Jesus came again to Cana of Galilee where He had made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman whose son was sick in Capernaum. ⁴⁷ When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him, pleading that He would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.

⁴⁸ Then Jesus said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will not believe."

⁴⁹ The nobleman said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."

⁵⁰ Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives."

And the man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way. ⁵¹ While he was going down, his servants met him and told him, "Your son lives!"

⁵² When he inquired of them the hour when he began to heal, they answered, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him."

⁵³ Then the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." So he and his whole household believed.

⁵⁴ This was the second sign that Jesus did when He had come from Judea to Galilee.

The Healing at the Pool

5 After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ² Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, which in Hebrew is called Bethesda, having five porches. ³ In these lay a great crowd of invalids, blind, lame, and paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water. ⁴ For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred up the water. After the stirring of the water, whoever stepped in first was healed of whatever disease he had. ⁵ A certain man was there who had an illness for thirty-eight years. ⁶ When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been in that condition now a long time, He said to him, “Do you want to be healed?”

⁷ The sick man answered Him, “Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred. But while I am coming, another steps down before me.”

⁸ Jesus said to him, “Rise, take up your bed and walk.”

⁹ Immediately the man was healed, took up his bed, and walked.

That day was the Sabbath. ¹⁰ The Jews therefore said to him who was cured, “It is the Sabbath day. It is not lawful for you to carry your bed.”

¹¹ He answered them, “He who healed me said to me, ‘Take up your bed and walk.’”

¹² So they asked him, “Who is the Man who said to you, ‘Take up your bed and walk’?”

¹³ Now the man who was healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in that place.

¹⁴ Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, “See, you have become whole. Sin no more lest something worse happens to you.” ¹⁵ The man departed and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him.

¹⁶ So the Jews persecuted Jesus and sought to kill Him, because He had done these things on the Sabbath day. ¹⁷ Jesus answered them, “My Father is working still, and I am working.” ¹⁸ So the Jews sought even more to kill Him, because He not only had broken the Sabbath, but also said that God was His Father, making Himself equal with God.

The Authority of the Son

¹⁹ Then Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He sees the Father do. For whatever He does, likewise the Son does. ²⁰ For the Father loves the Son and shows Him all things that He Himself does. And He will show Him greater works than these so that you may marvel. ²¹ For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son gives life to whom He will. ²² The Father judges no one, but has committed all judgment to the Son, ²³ that all men should honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

²⁴ “Truly, truly I say to you, whoever hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me has eternal life and shall not come into condemnation, but has passed from death into life. ²⁵ Truly, truly I say to you, the hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. ²⁶ For as the Father has life in Himself, so He has given to the Son to have life in Himself, ²⁷ and has given Him authority to execute judgment also, because He is the Son of Man.

²⁸ “Do not marvel at this. For the hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will hear His voice ²⁹ and come out—those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment. ³⁰ I can do nothing of Myself. As I hear, I judge. My judgment is just, because I seek not My own will, but the will of the Father who sent Me.

Witnesses to Jesus

³¹ “If I bear witness of Myself, My testimony is not true. ³² There is another who bears witness of Me, and I know that the testimony which He bears of Me is true.

³⁶ “I have greater testimony than that of John. The works which the Father has given Me to finish, the very works that I do, bear witness of Me, that the Father has sent Me. ³⁷ The Father Himself, who has sent Me, has borne witness of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His form. ³⁸ You do not have His word abiding in you, for you do not believe the One He has sent. ³⁹ You search the Scriptures, because you think in them you have eternal life. These are they who bear witness of Me. ⁴⁰ Yet you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life.

⁴¹ “I do not receive honor from men. ⁴² But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you. ⁴³ I have come in My Father’s name, but you do not receive Me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. ⁴⁴ How can you believe, who receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God?

⁴⁵ “Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you—Moses, in whom you trust. ⁴⁶ For if you believed Moses, you would believe Me, for he wrote of Me. ⁴⁷ But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?”

The Feeding of the Five Thousand

Mt 14:13–21; Mk 6:30–44; Lk 9:10–17

6 After these things Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberias. ² And a great crowd followed Him, because they saw His signs which He did for the sick. ³ Then Jesus went up on a mountain, and He sat there with His disciples. ⁴ Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was near.

⁵ When Jesus looked up and saw a great crowd coming to Him, He said to Philip, “Where shall we buy bread that these may eat?” ⁶ He said this to test him, for He Himself knew what He would do.

⁷ Philip answered Him, "Two hundred denarii † worth of bread is not sufficient for each of them to receive but a little."

⁸ One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, ⁹ "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two small fish. But what are they among so many?"

¹⁰ Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, numbering about five thousand. ¹¹ Jesus then took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, He distributed them to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; and likewise, they distributed the fish, as much as they wanted.

¹² When they were filled, He told His disciples, "Collect the fragments that remain, that nothing may be lost." ¹³ So they collected them and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.

¹⁴ When those men saw the sign which He had done, they then said, "This is truly the Prophet who is to come into the world." ¹⁵ Therefore, knowing that they would come and take Him by force to make Him king, Jesus departed again to a mountain by Himself alone.

Walking on the Water

¹⁶ Now when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea. ¹⁷ They got into a boat and went across the sea toward Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them. ¹⁸ The sea was stirred up because a strong wind was blowing. ¹⁹ So when they had rowed about three or four miles, †† they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat. And they were afraid. ²⁰ But He said to them, "It is I. Do not be afraid." ²¹ Then they gladly received Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.

Jesus the Bread of Life

²² The following day the people who stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one which His disciples had entered, and that Jesus had not entered the boat with His disciples, but that His disciples had gone away alone. ²³ However, other boats came from Tiberias near the place where they ate bread when the Lord had given thanks. ²⁴ When the people therefore saw that neither Jesus nor His disciples were there, they also got into boats and came to Capernaum, looking for Jesus.

²⁵ When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when did You come here?"

²⁶ Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly I say to you, you seek Me not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were filled." ²⁷ Do not work for the food which perishes, but for that food which en- dures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For God the Father has set His seal on Him."

²⁸ Then they asked Him, "What shall we do that we may work the works of God?"

²⁹ Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in Him whom He has sent."

³⁰ Therefore they said to Him, "What sign do You show then, that we may see and believe You? What work will You perform? ³¹ Our fathers ate manna in the desert. As it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.' ‡"

³² Then Jesus said, "Truly, truly I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven." ³³ For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

³⁴ Then they said to Him, "Lord, give us this bread always."

³⁵ Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to Me shall never hunger, and whoever believes in Me shall never thirst." ³⁶ But I told you that you have seen Me, and yet do not believe. ³⁷ All whom the Father gives Me will come to Me, and he who comes to Me I will never cast out. ³⁸ For I came down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me. ³⁹ This is the will of the Father who has sent Me, that of all whom He has given Me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. ⁴⁰ This is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day."

⁴¹ The Jews then murmured about Him, because He said, "I am the bread which came down from heaven."

⁴² They said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that He says, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

⁴³ Jesus therefore answered them, "Do not murmur among yourselves." ⁴⁴ No one can come to Me unless the Father who has sent Me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. ⁴⁵ It is written in the Prophets, 'They shall all be taught by God.' †† Therefore everyone who has heard and has learned of the Father comes to Me. ⁴⁶ Not that anyone has seen the Father, except He who is from God. He has seen the Father. ⁴⁷ Truly, truly I say to you, whoever believes in Me has eternal life. ⁴⁸ I am the bread of life. ⁴⁹ Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and they died. ⁵⁰ This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die. ⁵¹ I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. The bread which I shall give for the life of the world is My flesh."

⁵² The Jews therefore quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?"

⁵³ Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you." ⁵⁴ Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life. And I will raise him up on the last day. ⁵⁵ For My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. ⁵⁶ Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood remains in Me, and I in him. ⁵⁷ As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on Me also will live because of Me. ⁵⁸ This is the bread which came down from heaven, not as your fathers ate manna and died. He who eats this bread will live forever." ⁵⁹ He said these things in the synagogue, as He taught in Capernaum.

The Words of Eternal Life

⁶⁰ When they heard this, many of His disciples said, "This is a hard saying. Who can listen to it?"

⁶¹ Knowing in Himself that His disciples murmured about it, Jesus said to them, "Does this offend you?" ⁶² Then what if you see the Son of Man ascend to where He was before? ⁶³ It is the Spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit and are life. ⁶⁴ But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray Him. ⁶⁵ Then He said, "For this reason I have said to you that no one can come to Me unless it were given him by My Father."

⁶⁶ From that time many of His disciples went back and walked no more with Him.

⁶⁷ So Jesus said to the twelve, "Do you also want to go away?"

⁶⁸ Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. ⁶⁹ We have believed and have come to know that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

⁷⁰ Jesus answered them, "Have I not chosen you, the twelve, and yet one of you is a devil?" ⁷¹ He spoke of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. For it was he who would betray Him, being one of the twelve.

The Unbelief of Jesus' Brothers

7 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee. He would not walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill Him. ² Now the Jews' Feast of Tabernacles was at hand. ³ His brothers therefore said to Him, "Depart from here and go into Judea, that Your disciples also may see the works that You do. ⁴ For no one does anything in secret, while he himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these things, reveal Yourself to the world." ⁵ For even His brothers did not believe in Him.

⁶ Therefore Jesus told them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always fitting. ⁷ The world cannot hate you. But it hates Me, because I testify concerning it, that its works are evil. ⁸ You go up to this feast. I am not going up to this feast yet, because My time has not yet fully come." ⁹ Having said these things to them, He remained in Galilee.

Jesus at the Feast of Tabernacles

¹⁰ However, after His brothers had gone up to the feast, then He also went up, not publicly, but secretly. ¹¹ Then the Jews looked for Him at the feast, and said, "Where is He?"

¹² There was much complaining among the people concerning Him. For some said, "He is a good Man." Others said, "No, He deceives the people." ¹³ Yet no one spoke openly of Him for fear of the Jews.

¹⁴ Now about the middle of the feast Jesus went up into the temple and began teaching. ¹⁵ The Jews marveled, saying, "How has this Man become educated, having never been taught?"

¹⁶ Jesus answered them, "My teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me. ¹⁷ If any man desires to do His will, he shall know whether the teaching is from God or whether I speak on My own authority. ¹⁸ He who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory. But He who seeks the glory of Him who sent Him is true, and no unrighteousness is in Him. ¹⁹ Did Moses not give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill Me?"

²⁰ The people answered and said, "You have a demon. Who is seeking to kill You?"

²¹ Jesus answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel. ²² Yet, because Moses gave you circumcision, you circumcise a man on the Sabbath day (although it did not come from Moses, but from the Patriarchs). ²³ If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath day, so that the Law of Moses should not be broken, are you angry at Me because I completely healed a man on the Sabbath day? ²⁴ Do not judge according to appearance, but practice righteous judgment."

Is He the Christ?

²⁵ Then some of them from Jerusalem said, "Is this not He whom they seek to kill? ²⁶ Look! He speaks publicly, and they say nothing to Him. Do the rulers indeed know that this is really the Christ? ²⁷ But we know where this Man is from. When the Christ comes, no one will know where He is from."

²⁸ Then Jesus, still teaching in the temple, cried out, "You know Me and you likewise know where I am from. I have not come on My own authority, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know. ²⁹ But I know Him, for I am from Him, and He sent Me."

³⁰ So they tried to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him, because His hour had not yet come. ³¹ Still, many of the people believed in Him and said, "When the Christ comes, will He do more signs than these which this Man has done?"

Officials Sent to Arrest Jesus

³² The Pharisees heard the people murmuring these things concerning Him. So the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to arrest Him.

³³ Then Jesus said to them, "I shall be with you a little while longer, and then I go to Him who sent Me. ³⁴ You will look for Me and you will not find Me. And where I am, you cannot come."

³⁵ The Jews said among themselves, "Where does He intend to go that we shall not find Him? Does He intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks? ³⁶ What kind of saying is this which He said, 'You will look for Me and you will not find Me. And where I am, you cannot come'?"

Rivers of Living Water

³⁷ On the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. ³⁸ He who believes in Me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart shall flow rivers of living water." ³⁹ By this He spoke of the Spirit, whom those who believe in Him would receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Division Among the People

⁴⁰ Therefore when they heard these words, many of the people said, "Truly, this is the Prophet."

⁴¹ Others said, "This is the Christ."

But some said, "Will the Christ come out of Galilee?"

⁴² Has the Scripture not said that the Christ comes from the seed of David, out of the town of Bethlehem where David was?" ⁴³ So there was a division among the people because of Him. ⁴⁴ Some of them wanted to arrest Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

The Unbelief of Those in Authority

⁴⁵ Then the officers came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why did you not bring Him?"

⁴⁶ The officers answered, "No man has ever spoken like this Man."

⁴⁷ Then the Pharisees answered them, "Are you also deceived? ⁴⁸ Have any of the rulers or the Pharisees believed in Him? ⁴⁹ Not at all. This crowd who does not know the law is accursed."

⁵⁰ Nicodemus, being one of them who came to Jesus by night, said to them, ⁵¹ "Does our law judge a man before it hears him and knows what he is doing?"

⁵² They answered him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search and see that no prophet arises out of Galilee."

The Woman Caught in Adultery

⁵³ Then everyone went to his own house. †

8 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. ² Early in the morning He returned to the temple. All the people came to Him, and He sat down and taught them. ³ The scribes and Pharisees brought a woman caught in adultery. When they had put her in the middle, ⁴ they said to Him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of adultery. ⁵ Now Moses in the law commanded us to stone such, but what do You say?" ⁶ They said this, testing Him, that they might have something of which to accuse Him.

But Jesus stooped down and wrote on the ground with His finger, as though He did not hear them. ⁷ So when they continued asking Him, He stood up and said to them, "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her." ⁸ Again He stooped down and wrote on the ground.

⁹ Being convicted by their conscience, those who heard it went out one by one, beginning with the eldest even to the last. Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. ¹⁰ When Jesus had stood up and saw no one but the woman, He said to her, "Woman, where are your accusers? Did no one condemn you?"

¹¹ She said, "No one, Lord."

Jesus said to her, "Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more."

Jesus the Light of the World

¹² Again, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows Me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life."

¹³ The Pharisees therefore said to Him, "You bear witness of Yourself. Your testimony is not true."

¹⁴ Jesus answered them, "Though I bear witness of Myself, My testimony is true. For I know where I came from and where I am going. But you do not know where I came from or where I am going. ¹⁵ You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one. ¹⁶ Yet if I do judge, My judgment is true. For I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent Me. ¹⁷ Even in your law it is written that the testimony of two men is true. ¹⁸ I am One who bears witness of Myself, and the Father that sent Me bears witness of Me."

¹⁹ Then they said to Him, "Where is Your Father?"

Jesus answered, "You know neither Me nor My Father. If you knew Me, you would know My Father also."

²⁰ Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as He taught in the temple. No one arrested Him, for His hour had not yet come.

Where I Am Going You Cannot Come

²¹ Again, Jesus said to them, "I am going away, and you will seek Me, and you will die in your sins. Where I am going, you cannot come."

²² So the Jews said, "Will He kill Himself? For He said, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'"

²³ He said to them, "You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. ²⁴ Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins. For unless you believe that I am He, you will die in your sins."

²⁵ They said to Him, "Who are You?"

† The earliest Gk. manuscripts lack 7:53-8:11.

Jesus said to them, "Just who I have been telling you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to say and to judge concerning you, but He who sent Me is true. So I tell the world what I heard from Him."

27 They did not understand that He spoke to them of the Father. 28 So Jesus said to them, "When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am He, and I do nothing of Myself. But I speak these things as My Father taught Me. 29 He who sent Me is with Me. The Father has not left Me alone, for I always do those things that please Him." 30 As He spoke these words, many believed in Him.

The Truth Will Set You Free

31 Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, "If you remain in My word, then you are truly My disciples. 32 You shall know the truth, and the truth shall set you free."

33 They answered Him, "We are Abraham's seed and have never been in bondage to anyone. Why do You say, 'You shall be set free'?"

34 Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly I say to you, whoever commits sin is a slave of sin. 35 Now a slave does not remain in the house forever, but a son remains forever. 36 Therefore if the Son sets you free, you shall be free indeed. 37 I know that you are Abraham's seed. But you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you. 38 I am telling what I have seen with My Father, and you are doing what you have seen with your father."

Your Father the Devil

39 They answered Him, "Abraham is our father."

Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would do the works of Abraham. 40 But now you seek to kill Me, a Man who has told you the truth which I heard from God. Abraham did not do this. 41 You are doing the works of your father."

Then they said to Him, "We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father: God."

42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love Me, for I came from God and proceeded into the world. I did not come of My own authority, but He sent Me. 43 Why do you not understand My speaking? Because you cannot bear to hear My word. 44 You are of your father the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks from his own nature, for he is a liar and the father of lies. 45 Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe Me. 46 Which of you convicts Me of sin? If I speak the truth, why do you not believe Me? 47 He who is of God hears God's words. Therefore, you do not hear them, because you are not of God."

The Preexistence of Jesus

48 The Jews answered Him, "Do we not rightly say that You are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon. But I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. 50 I do not seek glory for Myself. There is One who seeks it and judges. 51 Truly, truly I say to you, if anyone keeps My word, he shall never see death."

52 Then the Jews said to Him, "Now we know that You have a demon. Abraham and the prophets died, and You say, 'If a man keeps My word, he shall never taste death.'" 53 "Are You greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets are dead! Who do You make Yourself out to be?"

54 Jesus answered, "If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say that He is your God. 55 Yet you have not known Him, but I know Him. If I say, 'I do not know Him,' I shall be a liar like you. But I know Him and keep His word. 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day. He saw it and was glad."

57 Then the Jews said to Him, "You are not yet fifty years old. Have You seen Abraham?"

58 Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, before Abraham was born, I AM." 59 Then they took up stones to throw at Him. But Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple. Going through their midst, He passed by.

The Healing of a Man Born Blind

9 As Jesus passed by, He saw a man blind from birth. 2 His disciples asked Him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

3 Jesus answered, "Neither this man nor his parents sinned. But it happened so that the works of God might be displayed in him. 4 I must do the works of Him who sent Me while it is day. Night is coming when no one can work. 5 While I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

6 When He had said this, He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva. He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, 7 and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means "Sent"). So he went away and washed, and returned seeing.

8 The neighbors and those who had previously seen that he was blind said, "Is this not he who sat and begged?" 9 Some said, "This is he."

Others said, "He is like him."

But he said, "I am he."

10 So they said to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

11 He answered, "A Man called Jesus made clay, anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam and wash.'" So I went away and washed, and I received my sight."

12 They said to him, "Where is He?"

He said, "I do not know."

The Pharisees Investigate the Healing

¹³ They brought the man who had been blind to the Pharisees. ¹⁴ Now it was a Sabbath day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. ¹⁵ Therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see."

¹⁶ Some of the Pharisees said, "This Man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath day."

Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" So there was division among them.

¹⁷ Then they said to the blind man again, "What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?"

He said, "He is a prophet."

¹⁸ But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, until they called the parents of the one who had received his sight. ¹⁹ They asked them, "Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

²⁰ His parents answered them, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. ²¹ But how he now sees, we do not know, or who opened his eyes, we do not know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself." ²² His parents said this, because they feared the Jews. For the Jews had already agreed that if anyone confessed that He was the Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue. ²³ Therefore his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."

²⁴ So again they called the man who was blind and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this Man is a sinner."

²⁵ He said, "I do not know if He is a sinner. I know one thing: I was blind, but now I see."

²⁶ Then they said to him again, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?"

²⁷ He answered them, "I told you already, and you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become His disciples?"

²⁸ Then they insulted him and said, "You are His disciple, but we are Moses' disciples. ²⁹ We know that God has spoken to Moses. As for this fellow, we do not know where He is from."

³⁰ The man answered, "Well, here is an amazing thing! You do not know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes. ³¹ We know that God does not listen to sinners. But if anyone is a worshipper of God and does His will, He hears him. ³² Since the world began, it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind. ³³ If this Man were not from God, He could do nothing."

³⁴ They answered him, "You were completely born in sin. Are you teaching us?" And they threw him out.

Spiritual Blindness

³⁵ Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and when He found him, He said, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"

³⁶ He answered, "Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?"

³⁷ Jesus said to him, "You have seen Him, and it is He who speaks with you."

³⁸ Then he said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshipped Him.

³⁹ Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, that those who do not see may see, and that those who see may become blind."

⁴⁰ Some Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, and said to Him, "Are we also blind?"

⁴¹ Jesus said, "If you were blind, you would have no sin. But now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains."

The Parable of the Shepherd

10 "Truly, truly I say to you, he who does not enter by the door into the sheepfold, but climbs up some other way, is a thief and a robber. ² But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³ To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and he leads them out. ⁴ When he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them. And the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. ⁵ Yet they will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him. For they do not know the voice of strangers." ⁶ Jesus told them this parable, but they did not understand what He was telling them.

Jesus the Good Shepherd

⁷ Then Jesus said to them again, "Truly, truly I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. ⁸ All who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹ I am the door. If anyone enters through Me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. ¹⁰ The thief does not come, except to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly."

¹¹ "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. ¹² But he who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and runs away. So the wolf catches the sheep and scatters them. ¹³ The hired hand runs away because he is a hired hand and does not care about the sheep."

¹⁴ "I am the good shepherd. I know My sheep and am known by My own. ¹⁵ Even as the Father knows Me, so I know the Father. And I lay down My life for the sheep. ¹⁶ I have other sheep who are not of this fold. I must also bring them, and they will hear My voice. There will be one flock and one shepherd. ¹⁷ Therefore My Father loves Me, because I lay down My life that I may take it up again. 18 No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down Myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I received this command from My Father."

¹⁹ Therefore there was a division again among the Jews because of these sayings. ²⁰ Many of them said, "He has a demon and is insane. Why do you listen to Him?"

²¹ Others said, "These are not the words of one who has a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

Jesus Rejected by the Jews

²² The Feast of the Dedication † was at Jerusalem, and it was winter. ²³ Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's Porch. ²⁴ Then the Jews surrounded Him, saying, "How long will You keep us in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly."

²⁵ Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you did not believe. The works that I do in My Father's name bear witness of Me. 26 But you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep, as I said to you. 27 My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. 28 I give them eternal life. They shall never perish, nor shall anyone snatch them from My hand. 29 My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them from My Father's hand. 30 My Father and I are one."

³³ The Jews answered Him, "We are not stoning You for a good work, but for blasphemy, and because You, being a Man, claim to be God."

³⁴ Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, 'I said, "You are gods" †† ? 35 If He called them 'gods,' to whom the word of God came, and the Scripture cannot be broken, 36 do you say of Him, whom the Father has sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'? 37 If I am not doing the works of My Father, do not believe Me. 38 But if I do them, though you do not believe Me, believe the works, that you may know and believe that the Father is in Me, and I in Him." ³⁹ Again they tried to seize Him, but He escaped from their hands.

⁴⁰ Then He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was baptizing at first, and He remained there. ⁴¹ Many came to Him and said, "John did no sign. But everything that John said about this Man was true." ⁴² And many believed in Him there.

The Death of Lazarus

11 Now a man was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. ² This was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped

† Or a Hanukkah. †† Ps 82:6.

His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. ³ So the sisters sent word to Him, saying, "Lord, he whom You love is sick."

⁴ When Jesus heard this, He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified by it." ⁵ Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. ⁶ So when He heard that he was sick, He remained where He was two more days.

⁷ Then after this He said to the disciples, "Let us go into Judea again."

⁸ His disciples said to Him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone You. Are You going there again?"

⁹ Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks during the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. 10 But if anyone walks during the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

¹¹ After He said this, He said to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep. But I am going that I may awaken him from sleep."

¹² Then His disciples said, "Lord, if he is sleeping, he will be well." ¹³ Jesus had spoken of his death. But they thought that He was speaking of getting rest through sleep.

¹⁴ So then Jesus plainly told them, "Lazarus is dead. 15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless let us go to him."

¹⁶ Then Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us go also, that we may die with Him."

Jesus the Resurrection and the Life

¹⁷ When Jesus arrived, He found that he had been in the tomb four days already. ¹⁸ Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, less than two miles away. ¹⁹ Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. ²⁰ When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met Him, but Mary remained in the house.

²¹ Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. ²² But even now I know that whatever You may ask of God, God will give You."

²³ Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

²⁴ Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."

²⁵ Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, yet shall he live. 26 And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

²⁷ She said to Him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who is to come into the world."

Jesus Weeps

²⁸ When she had said this, she went her way and secretly called her sister Mary, saying, "The Teacher has come and is calling for you." ²⁹ When she heard this, she rose quickly and went to Him. ³⁰ Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was in the place where Martha met Him. ³¹ When the Jews who were with Mary in the house, comforting her, saw that she quickly rose up and went out, they followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there."

³² When Mary came to where Jesus was, and saw Him, she fell down at His feet, saying to Him, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died."

³³ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her weeping, He groaned in the spirit and was troubled. ³⁴ He said, "Where have you laid him?"

They said to Him, "Lord, come and see."

³⁵ Jesus wept.

³⁶ Then the Jews said, "See how He loved him."

³⁷ But some of them said, "Could not this Man, who opened the eyes of the blind man, have also kept this man from dying?"

Lazarus Brought to Life

³⁸ Then Jesus, again groaning within Himself, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. ³⁹ Jesus said, "Take away the stone."

Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."

⁴⁰ Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

⁴¹ So they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying. Jesus lifted up His eyes and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. I know that You always hear Me. But because of the people standing around, I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me."

⁴³ When He had said this, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" ⁴⁴ He who was dead came out, his hands and feet wrapped with grave clothes, and his face wrapped with a cloth.

Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

Mt 26:1-5; Mk 14:1-2; Lk 22:1-2

⁴⁵ Therefore many of the Jews who came to Mary, and saw what Jesus had done, believed in Him. ⁴⁶ But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. ⁴⁷ Then the chief priests and the Pharisees assembled the Sanhedrin and said, "What shall we do? This Man is performing many signs. ⁴⁸ If we leave Him alone like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our temple and our nation."

⁴⁹ Then one of them named Caiaphas, who was the high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, ⁵⁰ nor do you consider that it is expedient for us that one man should die for the people, that the whole nation should not perish."

⁵¹ He did not say this on his own authority. But being the high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, ⁵² and not for the nation only, but that He might also gather together in unity the children of God who were scattered abroad. ⁵³ So from that day forward they planned to put Him to death.

⁵⁴ Therefore Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but went away from there to the country near the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and remained there with His disciples.

⁵⁵ Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand. Many went up to Jerusalem from the country before the Passover to purify themselves. ⁵⁶ Then they searched for Jesus and said among themselves as they stood in the temple, "What do you think, that He will not come to the feast?" ⁵⁷ Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it, that they might seize Him.

The Anointing at Bethany

Mt 26:6-13; Mk 14:3-9

12 Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom He had raised from the dead. ² They prepared a supper for Him there. Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with Him. ³ Then Mary took a pint [†] of very costly ointment made from pure nard, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

⁴ But one of His disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who would betray Him, said, ⁵ "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii ^{††} and given to the poor?" ⁶ He said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief. And having the money box, he used to steal what was put in it.

⁷ But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of My burial. For you always have the poor with you, but you do not always have Me."

The Plot Against Lazarus

⁹ When many of the Jews learned that He was there, they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead.

¹⁰ So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death also, ¹¹ because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

The Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem

Mt 21:1-11; Mk 11:1-11; Lk 19:28-40

¹² On the next day a great crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

¹³ They took branches of palm trees, and went out to meet Him, and cried out:

"Hosanna!

'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!' †
The King of Israel!"

¹⁴ Then Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written:

¹⁵ "Fear not, daughter of Zion;

see, your King is coming,

sitting on a donkey's colt." ††

¹⁶ His disciples did not understand these things at first. But when Jesus was glorified, they remembered that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.

¹⁷ Now the crowd that was with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness. ¹⁸ The crowd went and met Him for this reason: They heard that He had performed this sign.

¹⁹ So the Pharisees said among themselves, "See, you are gaining nothing! Look, the world has followed Him!"

Some Greeks Seek Jesus

²⁰ Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship at the feast. ²¹ They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we want to see Jesus." ²² Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

²³ Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. ²⁴ Truly, truly I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. ²⁵ He who loves his life will lose it. And he who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. ²⁶ If anyone serves Me, he must follow Me. Where I am, there will My servant be also. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him."

The Son of Man Must Be Lifted Up

²⁷ "Now My soul is troubled. What shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour'? Instead, for this reason I came to this hour. ²⁸ Father, glorify Your name."

Then a voice came from heaven, saying, "I have glorified it, and will glorify it again." ²⁹ The crowd that stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to Him."

³⁰ Jesus answered, "This voice came not for My sake, but for your sakes. ³¹ Now judgment is upon this world. Now the ruler of this world will be cast out. ³² And if I be lifted up from the earth, I will draw all men to Myself." ³³ He said this to signify by what kind of death He would die.

³⁴ The crowd answered Him, "We have heard from the law that the Christ remains forever. Why do You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"

³⁵ Then Jesus said to them, "Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you. He who walks in darkness does not know where he is going. ³⁶ While you have light, believe in the light that you may become sons of light." Jesus said these things, and departed and hid Himself from them.

The Unbelief of the Jews

³⁷ Though He had done so many signs before them, yet they did not believe in Him. ³⁸ This fulfilled the word spoken by Isaiah the prophet:

"Lord, who has believed our report, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?" ‡

³⁹ Therefore they could not believe. For Isaiah said again:

⁴⁰ "He has blinded their eyes
and hardened their hearts,
lest they should see with their eyes
and perceive with their hearts and turn,
and I would heal them." ††

⁴¹ Isaiah said this when he saw His glory and spoke of Him.

⁴² Yet many of the rulers also believed in Him. But because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they be put out of the synagogue. ⁴³ For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

Judgment by Jesus' Word

⁴⁴ Jesus cried out, "He who believes in Me believes not only in Me, but in Him who sent Me. ⁴⁵ He who sees Me sees Him who sent Me. ⁴⁶ I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in Me should not remain in darkness."

⁴⁷ "If anyone hears My words and does not believe, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world. ⁴⁸ He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him. The word I have spoken will judge him on the last day. ⁴⁹ For I have not spoken on My own authority, but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak. ⁵⁰ I know that His command is eternal life. Therefore what I say, I say as the Father tells me."

Washing the Disciples' Feet

13 Now before the Passover Feast, Jesus knew that His hour had come to depart from this world to † Ps 118:25-26. †† Zec 9:9.

‡ Isa 53:1. †† Isa 6:10.

the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.

² Now supper being concluded, the devil had put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray Him. ³ Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands and that He came from God and was going to God, ⁴ rose from supper, laid aside His garments, and took a towel and wrapped Himself. ⁵ After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel with which He was wrapped.

⁶ Then He came to Simon Peter, and Peter said to Him, "Lord, are You washing my feet?"

⁷ Jesus answered him, "You do not understand what I am doing now. But later you will understand."

⁸ Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!"

Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me."

⁹ Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"

¹⁰ Jesus said to him, "He who is bathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you." ¹¹ For He knew who would betray Him. Therefore He said, "Not all of you are clean."

¹² So when He had washed their feet, and put on His garments, and sat down again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?" ¹³ You call Me Teacher and Lord. You speak accurately, for so I am. ¹⁴ If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵ For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you. ¹⁶ Truly, truly I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is he who is sent greater than he who sent him. ¹⁷ If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.

¹⁸ "I do not speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen, but that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats bread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.'"[†]

¹⁹ "Now I tell you before it happens, that when it does happen, you may believe that I am He." ²⁰ Truly, truly I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives Me. And he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me."

Jesus Foretells His Betrayal

Mt 26:20-25; Mk 14:17-21; Lk 22:21-23

²¹ When Jesus had said this, He was troubled in spirit, and testified, "Truly, truly I say to you that one of you will betray Me."

²² The disciples looked at one another, uncertain of whom He spoke. ²³ Now there was leaning against Jesus' bosom one of His disciples whom Jesus loved. ²⁴ Therefore Simon Peter motioned to him to ask who it was of whom He spoke.

²⁵ Leaning back against Jesus' bosom, he said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"

[†] Ps 41:9.

²⁶ Jesus answered, "It is he to whom I shall give a piece of bread when I have dipped it." When He had dipped the bread, He gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. ²⁷ After receiving the piece of bread, Satan entered him.

Then Jesus said to him, "What you are going to do, do quickly."²⁸ But no one at the table knew why He said this to him. ²⁹ Since Judas had the moneybox, some thought that Jesus said to him, "Buy what we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor. ³⁰ Having received the piece of bread, he then left immediately. And it was night.

The New Commandment

³¹ When he had gone out, Jesus then said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and in Him God is glorified." ³² If God is glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself and will immediately glorify Him.

³³ "Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek Me. And as I said to the Jews, so now I tell you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'"

³⁴ "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, even as I have loved you, that you also love one another." ³⁵ By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

Peter's Denial Foretold

Mt 26:31-35; Mk 14:27-31; Lk 22:31-34

³⁶ Simon Peter said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?"

Jesus answered him, "Where I am going, you cannot follow Me now. But you shall follow Me afterward."

³⁷ Peter said to Him, "Lord, why can I not follow You now? I will lay down my life for Your sake."

³⁸ Jesus answered Him, "Will you lay down your life for My sake? Truly, truly I say to you, the rooster shall not crow until you have denied Me three times."

Jesus the Way to the Father

14 "Let not your heart be troubled. You believe in God. Believe also in Me." ² In My Father's house are many dwelling places. If it were not so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, you may be also. ⁴ You know where I am going, and you know the way."

⁵ Thomas said to Him, "Lord, we do not know where You are going. How can we know the way?"

⁶ Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." ⁷ If you had known Me, you would have known My Father also. From now on you do know Him and have seen Him."

⁸ Philip said to Him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that is sufficient for us."

⁹ Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you such a long time, and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father. So how can you say, 'Show us the Father'?" ¹⁰ Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on My own authority. But the Father who lives in Me does the works. ¹¹ Believe Me that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me. Or else believe Me on account of the works themselves. ¹² Truly, truly I say to you, he who believes in Me will do the works that I do also. And he will do greater works than these, because I am going to My Father. ¹³ I will do whatever you ask in My name, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴ If you ask anything in My name, I will do it.

The Promise of the Spirit

¹⁵ "If you love Me, keep My commandments. ¹⁶ I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Counselor, that He may be with you forever: ¹⁷ the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, for it does not see Him, neither does it know Him. But you know Him, for He lives with you, and will be in you. ¹⁸ I will not leave you fatherless. I will come to you. ¹⁹ Yet a little while and the world will see Me no more. But you will see Me. Because I live, you will live also. ²⁰ On that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you are in Me, and I am in you. ²¹ He who has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me. And he who loves Me will be loved by My Father. And I will love him and will reveal Myself to him."

²² Then Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, "Lord, how is it that You will reveal Yourself to us, but not to the world?"

²³ Jesus answered him, "If a man loves Me, he will keep My word. My Father will love him, and We will come to him, and make Our home with him. ²⁴ He who does not love Me does not keep My words. The word which you hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me.

²⁵ "I have spoken these things to you while I am still with you. ²⁶ But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you. ²⁷ Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

²⁸ "You have heard Me say to you, 'I am going away and am returning to you.' If you loved Me, you would rejoice because I said, 'I am going to the Father,' for My Father is greater than I. ²⁹ Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe. ³⁰ After this I will not speak much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over Me. ³¹ But I do as the Father has commanded Me so that the world may know that I love the Father. "Rise, let us go from here.

Jesus the True Vine

¹⁵ "I am the true vine, and My Father is the vine-dresser. ² Every branch in Me that bears no fruit, He takes away. And every branch that bears fruit, He prunes, that it may bear more fruit. ³ You are already clean through the word which I have spoken to you. ⁴ Remain in Me, as I also remain in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, neither can you, unless you remain in Me.

⁵ "I am the vine, you are the branches. He who remains in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit. For without Me you can do nothing. ⁶ If a man does not remain in Me, he is thrown out as a branch and withers. And they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned. ⁷ If you remain in Me, and My words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it shall be done for you. ⁸ My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit; so you will be My disciples.

⁹ "As the Father loved Me, I also loved you. Remain in My love. ¹⁰ If you keep My commandments, you will remain in My love, even as I have kept My Father's commandments and remain in His love. ¹¹ I have spoken these things to you, that My joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full. ¹² This is My commandment: that you love one another, as I have loved you. ¹³ Greater love has no man than this: that a man lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴ You are My friends if you do whatever I command you. ¹⁵ I no longer call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I have heard from My Father have I made known to you. ¹⁶ You did not choose Me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that the Father may give you whatever you ask Him in My name. ¹⁷ This I command you: that you love one another.

The World's Hatred

¹⁸ "If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. ¹⁹ If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, the world therefore hates you. ²⁰ Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My words, they will keep yours also.

²¹ But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me. ²² If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³ He who hates Me hates My Father also. ²⁴ If I had not performed among them the works which no one else did, they would have no sin. But now have they seen and hated both My Father and

Me. ²⁵ But that the word which is written in their law might be fulfilled, 'They hated Me without a cause.' †

²⁶ "But when the Counselor comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will bear witness of Me. ²⁷ And you also will bear witness, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

16 "I have spoken these things to you so that you will not fall away. ² They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time is coming that whoever kills you will think that he is offering a service to God. ³ They will do these things to you, because they have not known the Father nor Me. ⁴ I have told you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them.

The Work of the Spirit

"I did not tell you these things at the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵ But now I am going to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?' ⁶ Rather, sorrow has filled your heart because I have told you these things. ⁷ Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is expedient for you that I go away. For if I do not go away, the Counselor will not come to you. But if I go, I will send Him to you. ⁸ When He comes, He will convict the world of sin and of righteousness and of judgment: ⁹ of sin, because they do not believe in Me; ¹⁰ of righteousness, because I am going to My Father, and you will see Me no more; ¹¹ and of judgment, because the ruler of this world stands condemned.

¹² "I have yet many things to tell you, but you cannot bear them now. ¹³ But when the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all truth. For He will not speak on His own authority. But He will speak whatever He hears, and He will tell you things that are to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify Me, for He will receive from Me and will declare it to you. ¹⁵ All that the Father has is Mine. Therefore I said that He will take what is Mine and will declare it to you.

Sorrow Will Turn Into Joy

¹⁶ "In a little while you will not see Me. And then after a little while you will see Me, because I am going to the Father."

¹⁷ Then some of His disciples said among themselves, "What is this He is telling us: 'In a little while you will not see Me; and then after a little while you will see Me,' and, 'because I am going to the Father'?" ¹⁸ Then they said, "What is this He is telling us: 'In a little while'?" We do not know what He is saying."

¹⁹ Then Jesus knew that they wanted to ask Him. So He said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning what I said: 'In a little while you will not see Me; and then after a little while you will see Me'?" ²⁰ Truly, truly I say to you that you will weep and lament,

† Ps 35:19; 69:4.

but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. ²¹ When a woman is giving birth, she has pain, because her hour has come. But as soon as she delivers the child, she no longer remembers the anguish for joy that a child is born into the world. ²² Therefore you now have sorrow. But I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you. ²³ On that day you will ask Me nothing. Truly, truly I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give it to you. ²⁴ Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full.

I Have Overcome the World

²⁵ "I have told you these things in proverbs. But the time is coming when I will no longer speak to you in proverbs, for I will speak to you plainly about the Father. ²⁶ On that day you will ask in My name. I am not saying to you that I shall ask the Father on your behalf. ²⁷ For the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came from God. ²⁸ I came from the Father and have come into the world. As I said, I am leaving the world and am going to the Father."

²⁹ His disciples said to Him, "Yes! Now You are speaking plainly and with no figure of speech. ³⁰ Now we know that You know everything and do not need anyone to question You. By this we believe that You came from God."

³¹ Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe? ³² Listen, the hour is coming. Yes, it has now come that you will be scattered, each to his own home, and will leave Me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with Me.

³³ "I have told you these things so that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But be of good cheer. I have overcome the world."

The Prayer of Jesus

17 When Jesus spoke these words, He lifted His eyes toward heaven and said: "Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son may also glorify You. ² As You have given Him authority over all flesh, He will give eternal life to all whom You have given Him. ³ This is eternal life: that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom You have sent. ⁴ I have glorified You on the earth. I have finished the work You have given Me to do. ⁵ And now, O Father, glorify Me in Your own presence with the glory which I had with You before the world existed.

⁶ "I have revealed Your name to the men whom You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours, and You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. ⁷ Now they know that all things You have given Me are from You. ⁸ For I have given them the words which You gave Me. They have received them and certainly know that I came from You, and they have believed that You sent Me.⁹ I pray for them. I do not pray for the world, but for those whom You have given Me. For they are Yours.¹⁰ All that are Mine are Yours, and all that are Yours are Mine. And I am glorified in them.¹¹ I am to be no longer in the world, though these are in the world, for I am coming to You. Holy Father, through Your name keep those whom You have given Me, that they may be one as We are one.¹² While I was with them in the world, I kept them in Your name. I have kept those whom You have given Me. And none of them is lost except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

¹³ "But now I am coming to You, and I say these things in the world, that they may have My joy fulfilled in themselves.¹⁴ I have given them Your word. And the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.¹⁵ I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You should keep them from the evil one.¹⁶ They are not of the world even as I am not of the world.¹⁷ Sanctify them by Your truth. Your word is truth.¹⁸ As You sent Me into the world, so I sent them into the world.¹⁹ For their sakes I sanctify Myself, that they also may be sanctified by the truth.

²⁰ "I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word,²¹ that they may all be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You. May they also be one in Us, that the world may believe that You have sent Me.²² I have given them the glory which You gave Me, that they may be one even as We are one:²³ I in them and You in Me, that they may be perfect in unity, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.

²⁴ "Father, I desire that they also, whom You have given Me, be with Me where I am, that they may see My glory which You have given Me. For You loved Me before the creation of the world.

²⁵ "O righteous Father, the world has not known You, but I have known You, and these have known that You sent Me.²⁶ I have declared Your name to them, and will declare it, that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them."

The Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

Mt 26:47-56; Mk 14:43-50; Lk 22:47-53

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, He went out with His disciples across the Kidron Valley. There was a garden which He and His disciples entered.

² Now Judas, who betrayed Him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with His disciples.³ So Judas, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.

⁴ Jesus therefore, knowing everything that would happen to Him, went forward and said to them, "Whom do you seek?"

⁵ They answered Him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am He." And Judas, who betrayed Him, was standing with them.⁶ When He said, "I am He," they drew back and fell to the ground.

⁷ Again Jesus asked them, "Whom do you seek?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

⁸ Jesus answered, "I told you that I am He. So then let these go their way if you are looking for Me."⁹ This was to fulfill the word which He had spoken, "I have lost none of those whom You have given Me."

¹⁰ Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

¹¹ Then Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into the sheath. Shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?"

Jesus Before the High Priest

Mt 26:57-58; Mk 14:53-54; Lk 22:54

¹² Then the detachment of soldiers and the commander and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound Him.¹³ First they led Him to Annas, for he was the father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that year.¹⁴ Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Peter's Denial of Jesus

¹⁵ Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known to the high priest and went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest.¹⁶ But Peter stood at the door outside. Then the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper and brought Peter in.

¹⁷ Then the servant girl, being the doorkeeper, said to Peter, "Are you not also one of this Man's disciples?" He said, "I am not."

¹⁸ Now the servants and officers stood there and warmed themselves, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. Peter also stood with them and warmed himself.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

Mt 26:59-66; Mk 14:55-64; Lk 22:66-71

¹⁹ The high priest then asked Jesus about His disciples and His teaching.

²⁰ Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in the synagogue and in the temple, where the Jews always meet, and I said nothing in secret.²¹ Why do you ask Me? Ask those who heard Me and what I have said to them. Certainly they know what I said."

²² When He had said this, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, "Is that how You answer the high priest?"

²³ Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil, but if well, why do you strike me?"

²⁴ Then Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter Denies Jesus Again

Mt 26:71-75; Mk 14:69-72; Lk 22:58-62

²⁵ Meanwhile Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him, "Are you not also one of His disciples?"

He denied it and said, "I am not!"

²⁶ One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of the man whose ear Peter cut off, said, "Did I not see you in the garden with Him?" ²⁷ Peter then denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed.

Jesus Before Pilate

Mt 27:1-2, 11-14; Mk 15:1-5; Lk 23:1-5

²⁸ Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the Praetorium. It was early. Yet they themselves did not enter the Praetorium, so that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. ²⁹ Pilate then went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?"

³⁰ They answered him, "If He were not an evildoer, we would not have handed Him over to you."

³¹ Then Pilate said, "Take Him and judge Him according to your law."

The Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," ³² that the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled which He spoke, signifying what death He would die.

³³ Again Pilate entered the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

³⁴ Jesus answered him, "Are you speaking of your own accord, or did others tell you about Me?"

³⁵ Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests handed You over to me. What have You done?"

³⁶ Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would fight, that I would not be handed over to the Jews. But now My kingdom is not from here."

³⁷ Therefore Pilate said to Him, "Then are You a king?"

Jesus answered, "You say correctly that I am a king. For this reason I was born, and for this reason I came into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice."

³⁸ Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?" When he had said this, he went out again to the Jews and said to them, "I find no guilt in Him at all.

Jesus Sentenced to Die

Mt 27:15-31; Mk 15:6-20; Lk 23:13-25

³⁹ "But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Do you therefore want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

⁴⁰ They all shouted again, "Not this Man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

19 Then Pilate took Jesus and flogged Him. ² The soldiers twisted a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and they put a purple robe on Him. ³ They said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they hit Him with their hands.

⁴ Again Pilate went out and said to them, "Look, I am bringing Him out to you, that you may know that I find no guilt in Him." ⁵ Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Here is the Man!"

⁶ When the chief priests and officers saw Him, they cried out, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!"

Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves and crucify Him, for I find no guilt in Him."

⁷ The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by our law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of God!"

⁸ When Pilate heard these words, he was more afraid, ⁹ and entered the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰ Pilate said to Him, "Are You not speaking to me? Do You not know that I have power to release You, and power to crucify You?"

¹¹ Jesus answered, "You would have no power at all over Me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who handed Me over to you has the greater sin."

¹² From then on, Pilate tried to release Him. But the Jews cried out, "If you release this Man, you are not Caesar's friend. Whoever makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!"

¹³ When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Pavement (which in Hebrew is Gabbatha).

¹⁴ It was the Day of Preparation of the Passover and about the sixth hour.

He said to the Jews, "Here is your King!"

¹⁵ But they shouted, "Away with Him! Away with Him! Crucify Him!"

Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?"

The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"

¹⁶ Then he handed Him over to them to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

Mt 27:32-44; Mk 15:21-32; Lk 23:26-43

So they took Jesus and led Him away. ¹⁷ He went out, carrying His own cross, to a place called The Place of a Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha. ¹⁸ There they crucified Him, and two others with Him, one on either side, and Jesus in the middle.

¹⁹ Pilate wrote a title and put it on the cross. The writing was:

JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

²⁰ Many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. And it was written in Hebrew, in Greek, and in Latin. ²¹ The chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but 'He said, I am King of the Jews.'"

²² Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."

²³ When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took His garments and divided them into four parts, a part for each soldier; and also His tunic. Now the tunic was seamless, woven from top to bottom.

²⁴ So they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it shall be."

This happened to fulfill the Scripture which says:

"They divided My garments among them,
and for My clothing they cast lots." †

Therefore the soldiers did these things.

²⁵ But standing by the cross of Jesus were His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶ When Jesus saw His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to His mother, "Woman, here is your son." ²⁷ Then He said to the disciple, "Here is your mother." From that time, this disciple took her to his own home.

The Death of Jesus

Mt 27:45-56; Mk 15:33-41; Lk 23:44-49

²⁸ After this, Jesus, knowing that everything was now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I thirst." ²⁹ A bowl full of sour wine was placed there. So they put a sponge full of sour wine on hyssop and held it to His mouth. ³⁰ When Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It is finished." And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.

The Piercing of Jesus' Side

³¹ Since it was the Day of Preparation, to prevent bodies from remaining on the cross on the Sabbath day (for that Sabbath day was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. ³² Therefore the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who was crucified with Him. ³³ But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was dead already, they did not break His legs. ³⁴ However, one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. ³⁵ He who saw it has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he is telling the truth, that you may believe. ³⁶ For these things happened so that the Scripture should be fulfilled, "Not one of His bones shall be broken," ††³⁷ and again another Scripture says, "They shall look on Him whom they have pierced." ‡

The Burial of Jesus

Mt 27:57-61; Mk 15:42-47; Lk 23:50-56

³⁸ After this, Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away His body.

³⁹ Nicodemus, who at first came to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about seventy-five pounds. ††⁴⁰ Then they took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. ⁴¹ Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden was a new tomb in which no one had ever been buried. ⁴² So because of the Jewish Day of Preparation, and since the tomb was nearby, they buried Jesus there.

The Resurrection of Jesus

20 Early on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb while it was still dark and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. ² So she came running to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have put Him."

³ So Peter came out with the other disciple and they went toward the tomb. ⁴ They both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb first. ⁵ Stooping down and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying. Yet he did not enter. ⁶ Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went inside the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there, ⁷ and the cloth that was around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but wrapped in a place by itself. ⁸ Then the other disciple, who came first to the tomb, went in also. He saw and believed. ⁹ For as yet they did not know the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead.

¹⁰ Then the disciples went away again to their own homes.

The Appearance of Jesus to Mary Magdalene

Mk 16:9-11

¹¹ But Mary stood outside at the tomb weeping. As she wept, she stooped down and looked into the tomb, ¹² and she saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet.

¹³ They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have put Him."

¹⁴ When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus.

¹⁵ Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?"

Supposing Him to be the gardener, she said to Him, "Sir, if You have carried Him away, tell me where You have put Him, and I will take Him away."

¹⁶ Jesus said to her, "Mary."

She turned and said to Him, "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher).

¹⁷ Jesus said to her, "Stop holding on to Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father. But go to My brothers and tell them, 'I am ascending to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God.'"

¹⁸ Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord and that He had said these things to her.

The Appearance of Jesus to His Disciples

Mt 28:16–20; Mk 16:14–18; Lk 24:36–49

¹⁹ On the evening of that first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst, and said to them, "Peace be with you."

²⁰ When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples were then glad when they saw the Lord.

²¹ So Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As My Father has sent Me, even so I send you." ²² When He had said this, He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven them. If you retain the sins of anyone, they are retained."

Jesus and Thomas

²⁴ But Thomas, one of the twelve, called The Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵ So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord!"

But he said to them, "Unless I see the nail prints in His hands, and put my finger in the nail prints, and put my hand in His side, I will not believe."

²⁶ After eight days His disciples were again inside with the doors shut, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came and stood among them, and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁷ Then He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and look at My hands. Put your hand here and place it in My side. Do not be faithless, but believing."

²⁸ Thomas answered Him, "My Lord and my God!"

²⁹ Jesus said to him, "Thomas, because you have seen Me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have yet believed."

The Purpose of the Book

³⁰ Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book.

³¹ But these are written that you might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.

The Appearance of Jesus to the Seven Disciples

²¹ After this, Jesus revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed Himself this way: ² Simon Peter; Thomas, called The Twin; Nathanael of Cana in Galilee; the sons of Zebedee; and two more of His disciples were together. ³ Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." Then they said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and immediately entered the boat. But that night they caught nothing.

⁴ When the morning came, Jesus stood on the shore. But the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

⁵ Jesus said to them, "Children, do you have any fish?"

They answered Him, "No."

⁶ He said to them, "Throw the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they threw it, and now they were not able to draw it in because of the abundance of fish.

⁷ Then the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment, for he had taken it off, and jumped into the sea. ⁸ The other disciples came in the little boat, dragging the net full of fish. For they were not far from land, but about three hundred feet away. ⁹ When they came to land, they saw a charcoal fire there with fish lying on it, and bread.

¹⁰ Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

¹¹ Simon Peter went up and dragged the net, full of one hundred and fifty-three large fish, to land. Although there were so many, the net was not torn. ¹² Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask, "Who are You?" They knew it was the Lord. ¹³ Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and likewise the fish. ¹⁴ This was now the third time that Jesus was revealed to His disciples after He was raised from the dead.

Jesus and Peter

¹⁵ So when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?"

He said to Him, "Yes, Lord. You know that I love You."

He said to him, "Feed My lambs."

¹⁶ He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?"

He said to Him, "Yes, Lord. You know that I love You."

He said to him, "Tend My sheep."

¹⁷ He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?"

Peter was grieved because He asked him the third time, "Do you love Me?" He said to Him, "Lord, You know everything. You know that I love You."

Jesus said to him, "Feed My sheep. ¹⁸ Truly, truly I say to you, when you were young, you dressed yourself and walked where you desired. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go."

¹⁹ He said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When He had said this, He said to him, "Follow Me."

† About 200 cubits, or 90 meters.

Jesus and the Beloved Disciple

²⁰ Peter turned and saw following them the disciple whom Jesus loved, who also leaned against His bosom at the supper and had said, "Lord, who is it that is going to betray You?" ²¹ When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, "Lord, what about this man?"

²² Jesus said to him, "If it is My will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? Follow Me!" ²³ The saying went out among the brothers that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If it is My will that he remain until I come, what is that to you?"

²⁴ This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his testimony is true.

²⁵ There are also many other things which Jesus did. Were every one of them to be written, I suppose that not even the world itself could contain the books that would be written. Amen.

ACTS

The Acts of the Apostles is a historical record composed by Luke in about AD 62. The place of its writing is unknown. Luke-Acts at one time was one corpus, but it was separated due to a concern that the Gospel records should be kept together. This editorial decision was made for the sake of continuity among the four Gospels. The historicity and archaeological references in this work have proven to be accurate through many years of examination. This book consists of the acts of the Holy Spirit and of the apostles in confirming God's Word and the spread of Christianity. The Acts of the Apostles was called Acts of the Holy Spirit early in church history because the Holy Spirit plays such an important role in its pages by spreading the Gospel throughout the world. Acts is a historical narrative of great events; read it with care and under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

1 The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, concerning all that Jesus began both to do and teach, ² until the day when He was taken up, after He had given commandments through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen, ³ to whom He presented Himself alive after His passion by many infallible proofs, appearing to them for forty days, and speaking concerning the kingdom of God. ⁴ Being assembled with them, He commanded them, "Do not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, of which you have heard from Me." ⁵ For John baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

The Ascension

⁶ So when they had come together, they asked Him, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"

⁷ He said to them, "It is not for you to know the times or the dates, which the Father has fixed by His own authority. ⁸ But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you shall be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

⁹ When He had spoken these things, while they looked, He was taken up. And a cloud received Him from their sight.

¹⁰ While they looked intently toward heaven as He ascended, suddenly two men stood by them in white garments. ¹¹ They said, "Men of Galilee, why stand looking toward heaven? This same Jesus, who was taken up from you to heaven, will come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven."

Judas' Successor

¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, which is a Sabbath day's walk ^{††} from Jerusalem. ¹³ When they had entered, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying: Peter, James, John, and Andrew; Philip and Thomas; Bartholomew and Matthew; James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot; and Judas the son of James. ¹⁴ These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

¹⁵ In those days Peter stood up among the disciples (the number of people together was about a hundred and twenty), and said, ¹⁶ "Brothers, this Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit previously spoke by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became the guide to those who seized Jesus. ¹⁷ For he was numbered with us and took part in this ministry."

¹⁸ (Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity. And falling headlong, he burst asunder in the middle and all his organs spilled out. ¹⁹ It became known to all the residents of Jerusalem. So this field is called in their dialect Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

²⁰ "For it is written in the Book of Psalms,

'Let his habitation become desolate, and let no one live in it,' [‡]

and,

'Let another take his office.' ^{‡†}

²¹ Therefore, of these men who have accompanied us while the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, ²² beginning from the baptism of John until the very day that He was taken up from us, one of these men must become with us a witness of His resurrection."

²³ So they proposed two, Joseph, called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. ²⁴ Then they prayed, "You, Lord, who knows the hearts of all men, show which of these two You have chosen ²⁵ to take the place in this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, to go to his own place."

²⁶ Then they cast lots, and the lot fell on Matthias. So he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

The Coming of the Holy Spirit

2 When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. ² Suddenly a sound like a mighty rushing wind came from heaven, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³ There appeared to them tongues as of fire, being distributed and resting on each of them, ⁴ and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to speak.

⁵ Now dwelling in Jerusalem were Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven. ⁶ When this sound occurred, the crowd came together and were confounded, because each man heard them speaking in his own language. ⁷ They were all amazed and marveled, saying to each other, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?" ⁸ How is it that we hear, each in our own native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes and Elamites, residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the regions of Libya near Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, ¹¹ Cretans and Arabs—we hear them speaking in our own languages the mighty works of God." ¹² They were all amazed and perplexed, saying to each other, "What does this mean?"

¹³ Others mocking said, "These men are full of new wine."

Peter's Speech at Pentecost

¹⁴ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and said to them, "Men of Judea and all you who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words. ¹⁵ For these are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is the third hour of the day. ¹⁶ But this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

¹⁷ 'In the last days it shall be,' says God, 'that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

¹⁸ Even on My menservants and maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days; and they shall prophesy.

¹⁹ And I will show wonders in heaven above and signs on the earth below:

blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke.

²⁰ The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and glorious day of the Lord comes.

²¹ And whoever calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' †

²² "Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth was a man attested to you by God with powerful works and wonders and signs, which God did through

Him in your midst, as you yourselves know. ²³ You have taken Him, who was handed over to you by the ordained counsel and foreknowledge of God, and by lawless hands have crucified and killed Him, ²⁴ whom God raised up by loosening the pull of death, because it was not possible that He should be held by it. ²⁵ For David says concerning Him:

'I foresaw the Lord always before me, for He is at my right hand, that I may not be shaken.

²⁶ Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;

moreover my flesh will dwell in hope.

²⁷ For You will not abandon my soul to Hades, nor will You allow Your Holy One to see corruption.

²⁸ You have made known to me the ways of life; You will make me full of joy with Your presence.' ††

²⁹ "Brothers, I may speak confidently to you concerning the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰ But being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of his seed according to the flesh, He would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne, ³¹ he foresaw this and spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that His soul was not abandoned to Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption. ³² God raised up this Jesus, of which we all are witnesses. ³³ Therefore being exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He has poured out this which you now see and hear. ³⁴ For David has not ascended to the heavens, yet he says:

'The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at My right hand,

³⁵ Until I make Your enemies Your footstool.'" † ‡

³⁶ "Therefore, let all the house of Israel assuredly know that God has made this Jesus, whom you have crucified, both Lord and Christ."

³⁷ When they heard this, they were stung in the heart and said to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?"

³⁸ Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹ For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all who are far away, as many as the Lord our God will call."

⁴⁰ With many other words he testified and exhorted them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation." ⁴¹ Then those who gladly received his word were baptized, and that day about three thousand souls were added to them.

Life Among the Believers

⁴² They continued steadfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread and in the prayers. ⁴³ Fear came to every soul. And many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. ⁴⁴ All who believed were together and had all things in common. ⁴⁵ They sold their property and goods and distributed them to all, according to their need. ⁴⁶ And continuing daily with one mind in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, ⁴⁷ praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily those who were being saved.

The Lame Man Healed at the Temple Gate

3 Now Peter and John went up together to the temple at the ninth hour, the hour of prayer. ² A man lame from birth was being carried, whom people placed daily at the gate of the temple called Beautiful to ask alms from those who entered the temple. ³ Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked for alms. ⁴ Peter, gazing at him with John, said, "Look at us." ⁵ So he paid attention to them, expecting to receive something from them.

⁶ Then Peter said, "I have no silver and gold, but I give you what I have. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk." ⁷ He took him by the right hand and raised him up. Immediately his feet and ankles were strengthened. ⁸ Jumping up, he stood and walked and entered the temple with them, walking and jumping and praising God. ⁹ All the people saw him walking and praising God. ¹⁰ They knew that it was he who sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at what happened to him.

Peter's Speech at Solomon's Porch

¹¹ As the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the entrance that is called Solomon's Porch, greatly amazed. ¹² When Peter saw it, he answered the people: "Men of Israel, why do you marvel at this man? Or why do you stare at us, as if by our own power or piety we had made him walk? ¹³ The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His Son Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release Him. ¹⁴ You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, ¹⁵ and you killed the Creator of Life, whom God has raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses. ¹⁶ And His name, by faith in His name, has made this man strong, whom you see and know. And faith which comes through Him has given him perfect health in your presence.

¹⁷ "Now brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. ¹⁸ But what God foretold through all the prophets, that His Christ should suffer, He thus fulfilled. ¹⁹ Therefore repent and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord,

²⁰ and that He may send the One who previously was preached to you, Jesus Christ, ²¹ whom the heavens must receive until the time of restoring what God spoke through all His holy prophets since the world began. ²² For Moses indeed said to the fathers, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. You shall hear whatever He may say to you. ²³ And it shall be that every soul who will not hear that prophet shall be utterly eliminated from the people.' [†]

²⁴ "Indeed, all the prophets since Samuel and those who follow, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold these days. ²⁵ You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.' ^{††26} God, having raised up His Son Jesus, sent Him to you first, to bless you in turning every one of you from your iniquities."

Peter and John Before the Sanhedrin

4 As they spoke to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them, ² being greatly troubled because they taught the people and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. ³ And they seized them and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening. ⁴ But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men grew to about five thousand.

⁵ On the next day their rulers and elders and scribes ⁶ were assembled at Jerusalem with Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John and Alexander, and all who were of the family of the high priest. ⁷ When they had stood them in the midst, they asked, "By what power or by what name have you done this?"

⁸ Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders of Israel: ⁹ If we today are being examined concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, how this man has been healed, ¹⁰ be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by Him this man stands before you whole. ¹¹ He is

'the stone you builders rejected, which has become the cornerstone.' [‡] ¹² There is no salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

¹³ When they saw the boldness of Peter and John and perceived that they were illiterate and uneducated men, they marveled. And they recognized that they had been with Jesus. ¹⁴ But seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it. ¹⁵ So when they had commanded them to go outside of the Sanhedrin, they conferred among themselves, ¹⁶ saying, "What shall we do to these men?"

[†] Dt 18:15, 18-19. ^{††} Ge 22:18; 26:4. [‡] Ps 118:22.

For, indeed, that an acknowledged miracle has been done through them is revealed to all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. ¹⁷ But lest it spread further among the people, let us threaten them that they no longer speak to anyone in this name."

¹⁸ Then they called them and commanded them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. ¹⁹ But Peter and John answered them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you more than to God, you judge. ²⁰ For we cannot help but declare what we have seen and heard."

²¹ When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people. For all glorified God for what was done, ²² for the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was over forty years old.

The Believers Pray for Boldness

²³ On being released, they went to their own people and reported what the chief priests and elders had said to them. ²⁴ When they heard this, they lifted their voices in unity to God and prayed, "Lord, You are God, who has made the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them, ²⁵ and who by the mouth of Your servant David said:

'Why did the nations rage,
and the people devise vain things?

²⁶ The kings of the earth came,
and the rulers were assembled together
against the Lord

and against His Christ.' †

²⁷ Indeed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were assembled together against Your holy Son Jesus whom You have anointed, ²⁸ to do what Your hand and Your counsel had foreordained to be done. ²⁹ Now, Lord, look on their threats and grant that Your servants may speak Your word with great boldness, ³⁰ by stretching out Your hand to heal and that signs and wonders may be performed in the name of Your holy Son Jesus."

³¹ When they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God with boldness.

All Things in Common

³² All the believers were of one heart and one soul, and no one said that what he possessed was his own. But to them all things were in common. ³³ With great power the apostles testified to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was on them all. ³⁴ There was no one among them who lacked, for all those who were owners of land or houses sold them, and brought the income from what was sold, ³⁵ and placed it at the apostles' feet. And it was distributed to each according to his need.

† -a 26Ps 2:1-2.

³⁶ Joseph, whom the apostles called Barnabas (which means, Son of Encouragement), a Levite from the land of Cyprus, ³⁷ sold a field he owned, and brought the money and placed it at the apostles' feet.

Ananias and Sapphira

5 Now a man named Ananias, with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property. ² He kept back part of the proceeds with his wife's knowledge, and brought a part of it and placed it at the apostles' feet.

³ Then Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to deceive the Holy Spirit and keep back part of the proceeds of the land? ⁴ While it remained unsold, was it not your own? And when it was sold, was it not under your authority? Why have you conceived this deed in your heart? You did not lie to men, but to God."

⁵ On hearing these words, Ananias fell down and died. And great fear came on all those who heard these things. ⁶ The young men rose and wrapped him up and carried him out and buried him.

⁷ About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. ⁸ Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for this amount?"

She said, "Yes, for that much."

⁹ Peter said to her, "How is it that you have agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look! The feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."

¹⁰ At once she fell down at his feet and died. Upon entering, the young men found her dead and carried her out and buried her beside her husband. ¹¹ Great fear came on the entire church and on all those who heard these things.

Signs and Wonders

¹² Many signs and wonders were performed among the people by the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon's Porch. ¹³ No one else dared join them, but the people respected them. ¹⁴ Believers were increasingly added to the Lord, crowds of both men and women, ¹⁵ so that they even brought the sick out into the streets and placed them on beds and mats, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might touch some of them. ¹⁶ Crowds also came out of the cities surrounding Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those who were afflicted by evil spirits, and they were all healed.

Persecution of the Apostles

¹⁷ Then the high priest and all those who were with him (that is, the sect of the Sadducees) rose up and were filled with jealousy. ¹⁸ They seized the apostles and put them in the common prison. ¹⁹ But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and led them out, and said, ²⁰ "Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life."

²¹ Having heard this, they entered the temple at dawn and taught.

But the high priest and those who were with him came and called together the Sanhedrin and the senate of all the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought out. ²² But when the officers came and did not find them in the prison, they returned and reported, ²³ "We found the prison securely shut and the guards standing outside before the doors. But when we opened it, we found no one inside." ²⁴ Now when the high priest, the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they were in doubt of what might become of this.

²⁵ Then one came and told them, "Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." ²⁶ Then the captain with his escorts went and brought them, without force lest they should be stoned, for they feared the people.

²⁷ When they had brought them, they stood them before the Sanhedrin. And the high priest questioned them, ²⁸ saying, "Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this name? Yet now you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring on us this Man's blood."

²⁹ Peter and the other apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. ³⁰ The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging on a tree. ³¹ God exalted this Man to His right hand to be a Ruler and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. ³² We are His witnesses to these words, as is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey Him."

³³ When they heard this, they were cut to the heart and took counsel to kill them. ³⁴ But a Pharisee in the Sanhedrin named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law honored by all the people, stood and ordered the apostles to be put outside for a little while. ³⁵ Then he said to them, "Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do concerning these men. ³⁶ For in previous days Theudas rose up, boasting to be somebody, to whom a number of about four hundred men joined themselves. He was killed, and all who obeyed him were dispersed and came to nothing. ³⁷ After Theudas, Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and drew away many people after him. This man also perished, and all who obeyed him were scattered. ³⁸ Now I tell you, keep away from these men and leave them alone, because if this intention or this activity is of men, it will come to nothing. ³⁹ But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them, lest perhaps you be found even fighting against God."

⁴⁰ They agreed with him. When they had called in the apostles, they beat them, and commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and released them.

⁴¹ Then they departed from the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His name. ⁴² Daily, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

The Seven Helpers

6 Now in those days, as the disciples were multiplied, there was murmuring among the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were overlooked in the daily distribution. ² So the twelve called the multitude of disciples together and said, "It is not reasonable for us to leave the word of God and serve tables. ³ Brothers, look among yourselves for seven men who are known to be full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint over this duty. ⁴ But we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

⁵ And what was said pleased the whole multitude, and they chose Stephen, who was a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Procorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte from Antioch, ⁶ whom they presented before the apostles. And when they had prayed, they placed their hands on them.

⁷ So the word of God spread, and the number of the disciples grew rapidly in Jerusalem, and a great number of the priests were obedient to the faith.

The Arrest of Stephen

⁸ Now Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people. ⁹ Then some men rose up from what is called the Synagogue of the Freedmen (Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those from Cilicia and of Asia), disputing with Stephen. ¹⁰ But they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.

¹¹ Then they secretly instigated men who said, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God."

¹² So they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and came upon him and seized him and led him to the Sanhedrin, ¹³ and set up false witnesses who said, "This man does not cease to speak blasphemous words against this holy place and the law. ¹⁴ For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses handed down to us."

¹⁵ All who sat in the Sanhedrin, gazing at him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

Stephen's Speech

7 Then the high priest said, "Are these things so?" ² He said, "Brothers and fathers, listen! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Harran, ³ and said to him, 'Leave your country and your relatives, and come to the land which I will show you.' [†]

† Ge 12:1.

4 "Then he departed from the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Harran. When his father died, He removed him from there to this land in which you now live. 5 He gave him no inheritance in it, nor a foothold, and promised to give it to him as a possession and to his descendants after him while he had no child. 6 God spoke in this way, 'Your descendants shall be sojourners in a land belonging to others, who will enslave them and mistreat them four hundred years. 17 And I will judge the nation to whom they will be enslaved,' †† said God. 'After that they shall come out and worship Me in this place.' †8 Then He gave him the covenant of circumcision. And Abraham became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day. And Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs.

9 "The patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt. But God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who appointed him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 "Then a famine came over all Egypt and Canaan with great affliction, and our fathers found no sustenance. 12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first time. 13 During the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to Pharaoh. 14 Then Joseph sent and called for his father Jacob and all his kindred, seventy-five souls. 15 Then Jacob went down into Egypt. And he and our fathers died, 16 and were carried to Shechem and put in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a price of silver from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem.

17 "When the time of the promise drew near, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt 18 until another king rose up who did not know Joseph. ††19 He dealt deceitfully with our people and mistreated our fathers, forcing them to put out their young children, that they might not live.

20 "At that time Moses was born, and was fair in the sight of God. And he was reared for three months in his father's house. 21 When he was put out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up and reared him as her own son. 22 Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was powerful in words and in deeds.

23 "When he was forty years old, it came to his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel. 24 But seeing one being wronged, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, and struck the Egyptian. 25 He supposed that his brothers would understand that God would deliver them by his hand, but they did not understand. 26 On the next day he appeared to them as they fought and tried to reconcile them in peace, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why do you wrong each other?' ††

27 "But the one wronging his neighbor pushed him away, saying, 'Who appointed you a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Will you kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?' ††29 Moses fled at this word and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, †† where he became the father of two sons.

30 "When forty years had passed, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. §31 When Moses saw it, he marveled at the sight. As he drew near to look at it, the voice of the Lord came to him, saying, 32 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.' §† Moses trembled and dared not look.

33 "Then the Lord said to him, 'Take off the shoes from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground. §††34 I have indeed seen the oppression of My people who are in Egypt. I have heard their groaning, and I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you to Egypt.' §†

35 "This Moses, whom they rejected, saying, 'Who appointed you a ruler and a judge?' §†† God sent as both ruler and redeemer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. 36 He led them out after he had shown wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and at the Red Sea, and for forty years in the wilderness.

37 "This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. Him you shall hear.' §†38 This is he who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living oracles to give to us, 39 whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust away. And in their hearts they turned back to Egypt, 40 saying to Aaron, 'Make for us gods to go before us. For we do not know what has become of this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt.' §†41 So they made a calf in those days, and offered a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. 42 But God turned and gave them up to worship the host of heaven, as it is written in the book of the Prophets:

'O House of Israel, have you offered to Me slain animals and sacrifices for forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yes, you even raised the shrine of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, idols which you made to worship; therefore I will exile you beyond Babylon.' §††

44 "Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, telling Moses to make it as He had commanded, according to the pattern that he had seen, 45 which our fathers, having received it, brought with Joshua into the land possessed by the Gentiles, whom God drove out in front of our fathers until the days of

David,⁴⁶ who found favor in the presence of God and asked to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.⁴⁷ But Solomon built Him a house.

⁴⁸ "However, the Most High does not dwell in houses made with hands. As the prophet says:

⁴⁹ 'Heaven is My throne,
and the earth is My footstool.
What house will you build for Me? says the Lord,
or what is the place of My rest?

⁵⁰ Has not My hand made all these things?' †

⁵¹ "You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you. ⁵² Which of the prophets have your fathers not persecuted? They have even killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become the betrayers and murderers, ⁵³ who have received the law by the disposition of angels, but have not kept it."

The Stoning of Stephen

⁵⁴ When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed their teeth at him. ⁵⁵ But being full of the Holy Spirit, he gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God, ⁵⁶ and said, "Look! I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God."

⁵⁷ Then they cried out with a loud voice, closed their ears, and rushed at him in unison. ⁵⁸ And they threw him out of the city and stoned him. The witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul.

⁵⁹ They stoned Stephen as he was calling on God, praying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." ⁶⁰ Then he knelt down and cried with a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." Having said this, he fell asleep.

8 And Saul was consenting to his death.

Saul Persecutes the Church

On that day a great persecution broke out against the church in Jerusalem. And they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. ² Devout men carried Stephen to his burial and made great lamentation over him. ³ But Saul ravaged the church, entering house by house and dragging out both men and women and committing them to prison.

The Gospel Preached in Samaria

⁴ Therefore those who were scattered went everywhere preaching the word. ⁵ Philip went down to the city of Samaria and preached Christ to them. ⁶ When the crowds heard Philip and saw the miracles which he did, they listened in unity to what he said. ⁷ For unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, came out of many who were possessed. And many who were paralyzed or lame were healed. ⁸ So there was much joy in that city.

Simon the Sorcerer Believes

⁹ Now a man named Simon was previously in the city practicing sorcery and astonishing the nation of Samaria, saying he was someone great, ¹⁰ to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the great power of God." ¹¹ They listened to him, because for a long time he had astonished them by his sorceries. ¹² But when they believed Philip preaching about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized. ¹³ Even Simon himself believed. And when he was baptized, he continued with Philip and was amazed as he watched the miracles and signs which were done.

Samaritans Receive the Holy Spirit

¹⁴ Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. ¹⁵ When they came down, they prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit, ¹⁶ for still He had come on none of them. They were only baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ¹⁷ Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸ When Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, ¹⁹ saying, "Give me also this power, that whomever I lay hands on may receive the Holy Spirit."

²⁰ Peter said to him, "May your money perish with you, because you thought you could purchase the gift of God with money! ²¹ You have neither part nor share in this matter, for your heart is not right before God. ²² Therefore repent of your wickedness, and ask God if perhaps the intention of your heart may be forgiven you. ²³ For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bond of iniquity."

²⁴ Then Simon answered, "Pray to the Lord for me that nothing you have spoken may come upon me."

²⁵ When they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch

²⁶ Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Rise up and go toward the south on the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is desert. ²⁷ So he rose up and went. And there was a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in command of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship. ²⁸ He was returning, sitting in his chariot and reading the book of Isaiah the prophet. ²⁹ The Spirit said to Philip, "Go to this chariot and stay with it."

† Isa 66:1-2.

³⁰ Then Philip ran to him, and heard him read the book of Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

³¹ He said, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

³² The passage of Scripture which he was reading was this:

"He was led as a sheep to slaughter;
and as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so He opened not His mouth.

³³ In His humiliation justice was denied Him;
who will speak of His generation?

For His life is taken from the earth." †

³⁴ The eunuch said to Philip, "I ask you, of whom does the prophet speak, of himself or of someone else?" ³⁵ Then Philip spoke, beginning with the same Scripture, and preached Jesus to him.

³⁶ As they went on their way, they came to some water. And the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. What hinders me from being baptized?" ³⁷ Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." He answered, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." ³⁸ And he commanded the chariot to halt. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him. ³⁹ When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away. And the eunuch saw him no more, and he went his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰ But Philip was found at Azotus. And passing through, he preached the gospel in all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

The Conversion of Saul

Ac 22:6-16; 26:12-18

9 Saul, still breathing out threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, ² and requested letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, so that if he found any there of the Way, either men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. ³ As he went he drew near Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven shone around him. ⁴ He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?"

⁵ He said, "Who are You, Lord?"

The Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. It is hard for you to kick against the goads."

⁶ Trembling and astonished, he said, "Lord, what will You have me do?" The Lord said to him, "Rise up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

⁷ The men traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but seeing no one. ⁸ Saul rose up from the ground. And when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing. So they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. ⁹ For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

¹⁰ A disciple named Ananias was in Damascus. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias."

He said, "Here I am, Lord."

¹¹ The Lord said to him, "Rise and go to Straight Street, and inquire at Judas' house for someone named Saul of Tarsus, for he is praying, ¹² and has seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hand on him, so that he may see again."

¹³ Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how many evil things he has done to Your saints at Jerusalem. ¹⁴ And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on Your name."

¹⁵ But the Lord said to him, "Go your way. For this man is a chosen vessel of Mine, to bear My name before the Gentiles and their kings, and before the sons of Israel. ¹⁶ For I will show him how much he must suffer for My name's sake."

¹⁷ Then Ananias went his way and entered the house. Putting his hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the way as you came, has sent me so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit." ¹⁸ Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he could see again. And he rose up and was baptized. ¹⁹ When he had eaten, he was strengthened.

Saul Preaches in Damascus

For several days Saul was with the disciples in Damascus. ²⁰ Immediately he preached in the synagogues that the Christ is the Son of God. ²¹ All who heard him were amazed and said, "Is not this he who killed those who called on this name in Jerusalem, and came here with that intent, to bring them bound to the chief priests?" ²² Yet Saul increased all the more with power and confounded the Jews living in Damascus, proving that this One is the Christ.

Saul Escapes from the Jews

²³ After many days had passed, the Jews arranged to kill him. ²⁴ But their scheme was known by Saul. They watched the gates day and night to kill him. ²⁵ But the disciples took him by night, and lowered him in a basket through the wall.

Saul in Jerusalem

²⁶ When Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join the disciples. But they all feared him, not believing he was a disciple. ²⁷ But Barnabas took him, and led him to the apostles, and declared to them how on the road he had seen the Lord, and that He had spoken to him, and how he had boldly preached in Damascus in the name of Jesus. ²⁸ So he stayed with them while coming in and going out of Jerusalem. ²⁹ And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus and disputed against the Hellenists. But they tried to kill him. ³⁰ When the brothers learned this, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus.

† Isa 53:7-8.

³¹ Then the churches throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and were built up. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.

The Healing of Aeneas

³² As Peter passed through every region, he came down also to the saints who lived in Lydda. ³³ There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years and was paralyzed. ³⁴ Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus the Christ heals you. Rise up and make your bed." And immediately he rose up. ³⁵ All those who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

Dorcas Restored to Life

³⁶ In Joppa there was a disciple named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and almsgiving. ³⁷ In those days she became ill and died. And when they had washed her, they placed her in an upper room. ³⁸ Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him, pleading, "Do not delay to come to us."

³⁹ Peter rose up and went with them. When he arrived, they led him into the upper room. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the tunics and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them.

⁴⁰ Peter put them all outside and knelt down and prayed. And turning to the body he said, "Tabitha, arise." She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. ⁴¹ He gave her his hand and lifted her up. And when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive. ⁴² It became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. ⁴³ He remained in Joppa for many days with Simon, a tanner.

Peter and Cornelius

10 In Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, the centurion [†] of a band of soldiers called the Italian Detachment, ² a devout man and one who feared God with all his household, who gave many alms to the people and continually prayed to God. ³ About the ninth hour of the day he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, "Cornelius."

⁴ When he looked at him he was afraid, and said, "What is it, Lord?"

He said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have come up as a memorial before God. ⁵ Now send men to Joppa, and bring back Simon whose surname is Peter. ⁶ He is lodging with Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea. He will tell you what you must do."

⁷ When the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who continually waited on him. ⁸ When he had explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

⁹ The next day as they went on their journey and drew near the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray about the sixth hour. ¹⁰ He became very hungry and desired to eat. But while they prepared a meal, he fell into a trance ¹¹ and saw heaven opened, and a vessel like a great sheet, tied at the four corners, descending to him, and let down to the earth. ¹² In it were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth and wild beasts and reptiles and birds of the air. ¹³ Then a voice came to him, "Rise, Peter; kill and eat."

¹⁴ Peter said, "Not at all, Lord. For I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean."

¹⁵ The voice spoke to him a second time: "What God has cleansed, do not call common."

¹⁶ This happened three times. And again the vessel was taken up into heaven.

¹⁹ While Peter thought about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Three men are looking for you. ²⁰ So rise and go down, and go with them, doubting nothing. For I have sent them."

²¹ Then Peter went down to the men who were sent to him by Cornelius and said, "Here I am, the one you are seeking. Why have you come?"

²² They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a man who is righteous and fears God and is of good report throughout the nation of the Jews, was directed by a holy angel to summon you to his house to hear your words." ²³ Then he invited them in and gave them lodging.

The next day Peter went with them, and some brothers from Joppa accompanied him. ²⁴ And the next day they entered Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them and had called together his relatives and close friends.

²⁷ As he talked with him, he went in and found many who had come together. ²⁸ He said to them, "You know how unlawful it is for a Jew to visit or approach a foreigner. But God has shown me not to call any man common or unclean. ²⁹ So when I was sent for, I came without question. Therefore I ask why you have sent for me."

³⁰ Cornelius said, "Four days ago I was fasting until this hour. At the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and suddenly a man stood before me in bright clothing, ³¹ and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your alms are remembered before God. ³² Therefore send to Joppa for Simon, whose surname is Peter. He is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea. When he comes, he will speak to you.' ³³ So immediately I sent for you, and you have done well to come. Now therefore we are all here, present before God, to hear everything the Lord has commanded you."

Peter Speaks in Cornelius' House

³⁴ Then Peter began to speak, saying, "Truthfully, I perceive that God is no respecter of persons. ³⁵ But in every nation he who fears Him and works righteousness is accepted by Him. ³⁶ The word which He sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, ³⁷ the word, which you know, that was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism which John preached: ³⁸ how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him.

³⁹ "We are witnesses of all that He did both in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem, whom they killed by hanging on a tree. ⁴⁰ But God raised Him on the third day and presented Him publicly, ⁴¹ not to all the people, but to witnesses previously chosen by God, to us who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. ⁴² He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that it is He who was ordained by God to be the Judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³ To Him all the prophets bear witness that whoever believes in Him will receive remission of sins through His name."

Gentiles Receive the Holy Spirit

⁴⁴ While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word. ⁴⁵ All the believers of the circumcision who had come with Peter were astonished, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles. ⁴⁶ For they heard them speaking in other tongues and magnifying God.

Then Peter continued, ⁴⁷ "Can anyone forbid water for baptizing these, who have received the Holy Spirit as we have?" ⁴⁸ So he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to stay a few days.

Peter's Report to the Church in Jerusalem

11 The apostles and the brothers throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. ² So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those who were circumcised disputed with him, ³ saying, "You went in and ate with uncircumcised men!"

⁴ Peter began explaining it to them in order, saying, ⁵ "I was in the city of Joppa praying. And in a trance I saw a vision: A vessel like a great sheet was descending, let down from heaven by four corners, and it came to me. ⁶ I considered what I had observed and saw four-footed creatures and wild beasts and reptiles and birds of the air. ⁷ Then I heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Peter; kill and eat.'

⁸ "I said, 'Not at all, Lord. For nothing common or unclean has at any time entered my mouth.'

¹¹ "And immediately three men sent from Caesarea to me came to the house where I was. ¹² The Spirit told me to go with them without hesitation. Moreover these six brothers came with me, and we entered the man's house. ¹³ He told us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said to him, 'Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter. ¹⁴ He will speak words to you by which you and all your household will be saved.'

¹⁵ "As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as He fell on us at the beginning. ¹⁶ Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, 'John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' ¹⁷ If then God gave them the same gift as He gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to be able to hinder God?"

¹⁸ When they heard these things, they were silent. And they glorified God, saying, "Then God has granted to the Gentiles also repentance unto life."

The Church in Antioch

¹⁹ Now those who were scattered by the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, preaching the word to no one except Jews. ²⁰ Some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus. ²¹ The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord.

²² News of these things came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. ²³ When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced and exhorted them all to remain with the Lord with a loyal heart. ²⁴ For he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And many people were added to the Lord.

²⁵ Then Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul. ²⁶ When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met with the church and taught a considerable crowd. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.

²⁷ In these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸ One of them, named Agabus, stood up and prophesied by the Spirit that there would be a great famine throughout all the world, which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. ²⁹ Then every disciple, according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea. ³⁰ Indeed they did,

† Ac 1:5.

and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

James Killed and Peter Imprisoned

12 About that time King Herod extended his hands to harm certain ones from the church. ² He killed James the brother of John with the sword. ³ Seeing that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to arrest Peter also. This happened during the Days of Unleavened Bread. ⁴ When he had seized him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him before the people after the Passover.

⁵ So Peter was kept in prison. But the church prayed to God without ceasing for him.

Peter Delivered From Prison

⁶ The very night when Herod would have brought him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. And the guards before the door were securing the prison. ⁷ And suddenly an angel of the Lord approached him, and a light shone in the prison. He struck Peter on the side and woke him up, saying, "Rise up, quickly." And the chains fell off his hands.

⁸ Then the angel said to him, "Dress yourself and put your sandals on." And he did so. Then he said to him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me." ⁹ He went out and followed him, and did not know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. ¹⁰ When they had passed the first and the second guards, they came to the iron gate leading to the city, which opened to them by itself. And they went out and went forward one street. And immediately the angel left him.

¹¹ When Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I certainly know that the Lord has sent His angel and delivered me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting."

¹⁵ They said to her, "You are insane." But she insisted that it was really so. So they said, "It is his angel."

¹⁶ But Peter continued knocking. And when they opened the door and saw him, they were astonished. ¹⁷ Motioning to them with his hand to be quiet he described to them how the Lord had led him out of the prison. And he said, "Go, tell these things to James and to the brothers." Then he departed and went to another place.

¹⁸ Now when day came, there was a great disturbance among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. ¹⁹ When Herod had searched for him and did not find him, he examined the guards and commanded that they should be put to death.

Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.

The Death of Herod

²⁰ Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. But they came to him in unity, and having made Blastus, the king's personal servant, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country was fed by the king's country.

²¹ On an appointed day, Herod, dressed in royal apparel, sat on his throne and gave a public speech to them. ²² The mob shouted, "It is the voice of a god, and not of a man!" ²³ Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give God the glory. And he was eaten by worms and died.

²⁴ But the word of God spread and increased.

²⁵ When Barnabas and Saul had fulfilled their ministry, they returned from Jerusalem and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Barnabas and Saul Commissioned

13 In the church that was in Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. ² As they worshipped the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." ³ Then after fasting and praying, they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

The Apostles Preach in Cyprus

⁴ So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. ⁵ When they arrived at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had John as an assistant.

⁶ When they had gone through the whole island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a Jewish false prophet, whose name was Bar-Jesus, ⁷ who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man called for Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God. ⁸ But Elymas the sorcerer (which is his name by interpretation) opposed them, trying to divert the proconsul from the faith. ⁹ Then Saul, who also is called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, stared at him and said, ¹⁰ "You son of the devil, enemy of all righteousness, full of deceit and of all fraud, will you not cease perverting the right ways of the Lord?"

¹¹ Now, look! The hand of the Lord is against you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a time."

Immediately mist and darkness fell on him, and he went about seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

¹² When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed and was astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas in Antioch of Pisidia

¹³ Now when Paul and his companions set sail from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia. And John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ But they departed from Perga and came to Antioch in Pisidia. And they went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day and sat down. ¹⁵ After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent word to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, say it."

¹⁷ The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they lived as foreigners in the land of Egypt, and with great power He led them out of it. ¹⁸ For about forty years He endured their conduct in the desert. ¹⁹ When He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He gave them their land as an inheritance by lot.

²⁰ "After about four hundred and fifty years, God gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. ²¹ Then they requested a king. And God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. ²² When He had removed him, He raised up David to be their king, of whom He testified, saying, 'I have found David † the son of Jesse, a man after My own heart, who will fulfill My entire will.' ††

²³ "From this man's descendants God has raised a Savior for Israel, Jesus, according to His promise. ²⁴ Before His coming John had preached a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵ As John was fulfilling his course, he said, 'Who do you think I am? I am not He. But look! He is coming after me, the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.' ‡

²⁶ "Brothers, sons of the family of Abraham, and those of you who fear God, the word of this salvation has been sent to us. ²⁷ Because those who live in Jerusalem, and their rulers, did not know Him, in condemning Him they have fulfilled the voices of the Prophets which are read every Sabbath. ²⁸ Though they found in Him no cause worthy of death, yet they asked Pilate to have Him killed. ²⁹ When they had fulfilled all that was written of Him, they took Him down from the tree and placed Him in a tomb. ³⁰ But God raised Him from the dead, ³¹ and for many days He appeared to those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now His witnesses to the people.

³² "We preach to you good news: The promise which was made to the fathers, ³³ God has fulfilled to us, their children, raising Jesus. As it is written in the second Psalm:

'You are My Son;

today I have become Your Father.' ††

³⁴ That He raised Him from the dead, no more to return to corruption, He has spoken in this way:

'I will give You the holy and sure blessings of David.' ††

³⁵ So He says in another Psalm:

'You will not let Your Holy One see decay.' †††

³⁶ "For after David had served by the counsel of God in his own generation, he fell asleep, was buried with his fathers, and saw decay. ³⁷ But He whom God raised up saw no decay.

³⁸ "Therefore, brothers, let it be known to you that through this Man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, ³⁹ and by Him everyone who believes is justified from everything from which you could not be justified by the Law of Moses. ⁴⁰ Therefore beware, lest what is spoken of in the prophets come upon you:

⁴¹ 'Look, you scoffers,

marvel and perish!

For I will perform a work in your days

which you will never believe,

even if someone declares it to you.' †††

⁴² When Paul and Barnabas went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles asked that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath. ⁴³ When the congregation was dismissed, many of the Jews and devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴ On the next Sabbath almost the whole city assembled to hear the word of God. ⁴⁵ But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, blaspheming and contradicting what Paul was saying.

⁴⁶ Then Paul and Barnabas boldly said, "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken to you first. But seeing you reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, we are turning to the Gentiles.

⁴⁷ For thus has the Lord commanded us:

'I have established you to be a light of the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth.' §

⁴⁸ When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and glorified the word of the Lord. And all who were ordained to eternal life believed.

⁴⁹ The word of the Lord was spread throughout the entire region. ⁵⁰ But the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women and the chief men of the city, and raised up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them from their region. ⁵¹ So they shook off the dust of their feet against them and went to Iconium.

⁵² And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Paul and Barnabas in Iconium

14 At Iconium they entered the synagogue of the Jews together and so spoke that a great crowd of both Jews and Greeks believed. ² But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and embittered their minds against the brothers. ³ So they continued there a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who bore witness to His gracious word, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. ⁴ But the people of the city were divided. Some sided with the Jews, and others with the apostles. ⁵ When an assault was planned by both Gentiles and Jews, with their leaders, to attack them and to stone them, ⁶ they learned of it and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding region. ⁷ And there they preached the gospel.

Paul and Barnabas in Lystra

⁸ In Lystra there sat a man, crippled in his feet, who had never walked and was lame from birth. ⁹ He heard Paul speaking, who looked intently at him and perceived that he had faith to be healed ¹⁰ and said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And he jumped up and walked.

¹¹ When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in Lycaonian, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" ¹² Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes, because he was the main speaker. ¹³ The priest of Zeus, who was in front of the city, brought bulls and garlands to the gates to offer sacrifices with the crowds.

¹⁴ But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, crying out, ¹⁵ "Men, why are you doing this? We also are men, of like nature with you, preaching to you to turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and everything that is in them, ¹⁶ who in times past allowed all nations to walk in their own ways. ¹⁷ Yet He did not leave Himself without witness, for He did good and gave us rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, satisfying our hearts with food and gladness." ¹⁸ With these words they scarcely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹ Then some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there and persuaded the crowds. They stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing he was dead. ²⁰ But as the disciples gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city. The next day he departed with Barnabas for Derbe.

The Return to Antioch in Syria

²¹ When they had preached the gospel to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch, ²² strengthening the minds of the disciples and exhorting them to continue in the faith, to go through many afflictions and thus enter the kingdom of God. ²³ When they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting, they commended them to the Lord in whom they believed. ²⁴ Then they passed throughout Pisidia and came to Pamphylia, ²⁵ and when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia.

²⁶ From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work which they had completed. ²⁷ When they arrived and had assembled the church, they reported what God had done through them and how He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. ²⁸ And there they stayed a long time with the disciples.

The Council in Jerusalem

15 Some men came down from Judea and were teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised in the tradition of Moses, you cannot be saved." ² Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain others among them, should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question. ³ So being sent on their way by the church, they passed through Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles, and they brought great joy to all the brothers. ⁴ When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they declared what God had done through them.

⁵ Then some believers of the sect of the Pharisees rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Law of Moses."

⁶ The apostles and elders assembled to consider this matter. ⁷ After much disputing, Peter rose up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that some time ago God decided among us, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe. ⁸ God, who knows the heart, approved of them, giving them the Holy Spirit just as He did to us, ⁹ and made no distinction between them and us, and purified their hearts by faith. ¹⁰ Now then, why test God by putting a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? ¹¹ But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they."

¹² The entire assembly remained silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul declaring what signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles. ¹³ After they had become silent, James answered, "Brothers, listen to me. ¹⁴ Simon has declared how God first visited the Gentiles to take from among them a people for His name. ¹⁵ With this the words of the prophets agree. As it is written:

¹⁶ 'After this I will return, and I will rebuild the tabernacle of David, which has fallen;

I will rebuild its ruins,
and I will set it up; †

¹⁷ that the rest of men may seek the Lord, and all the Gentiles who are called by My name, ††
says the Lord who does all these things.' ‡

† Am 9:11; Jer 12:15. †† Am 9:12; Dt 28:10; Isa 63:19; Jer 14:9; Da 9:19. ‡ Am 9:11-12.

¹⁸ Known to God are all His works since the beginning of the world.

¹⁹ "Therefore my judgment is that we should not trouble those of the Gentiles who are turning to God, ²⁰ but that we write to them to abstain from food offered to idols, from sexual immorality, from strangled animals, and from blood. ²¹ For Moses has had in every city since early generations those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath."

The Reply of the Council

²² Then it pleased the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men from among them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas, namely, Judas called Barsabas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers. ²³ They wrote this letter by their hand:

The apostles and the elders and the brothers,
To the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:

Greetings.

²⁴ Since we have heard that some of us, whom we did not commission, have gone out and have troubled you with words, unsettling your minds, saying, "You must be circumcised and keep the law," ²⁵ it seemed good to us, being assembled in unity, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶ men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷ Therefore we have sent Judas and Silas, who will also speak to you, saying the same things. ²⁸ For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to put on you no greater burden than these necessary things: ²⁹ Abstain from food offered to idols, from sexual immorality, from strangled animals, and from blood. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well.

Farewell.

³⁰ So when they were dismissed, they went down to Antioch. And when they had assembled the congregation, they delivered the letter. ³¹ When they had read it, they rejoiced over the exhortation. ³² Judas and Silas, being prophets themselves, exhorted the brothers with many words and strengthened them. ³³ After they had remained there for a time, they were sent off in peace by the brothers to the apostles. ³⁴ But it seemed good to Silas to remain there. ³⁵ And Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Paul and Barnabas Separate

³⁶ After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us return and visit our brothers in every city where we preached the word of the Lord and see how they are doing." ³⁷ Barnabas determined to take with them John, who was called Mark. ³⁸ But Paul thought it was not good to take with them one who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work. ³⁹ Then there arose a sharp contention, so that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus, ⁴⁰ but Paul chose Silas and departed, being commended by the brothers to the grace of God. ⁴¹ And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Timothy Accompanies Paul and Silas

16 Then he came to Derbe and then to Lystra. A disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess who believed, but his father was a Greek. ² He was well spoken of by the brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium. ³ Paul wanted him to travel with him. So he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. ⁴ As they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decrees to observe, that were set forth by the apostles and elders at Jerusalem. ⁵ So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

Paul's Vision of the Macedonian

⁶ They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia and were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. ⁷ When they came near Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit did not allow them. ⁸ So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas. ⁹ During the night a vision appeared to Paul: A man of Macedonia stood and pleaded with him, saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." ¹⁰ After he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go into Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.

The Conversion of Lydia

¹¹ From Troas we set sail on a straight course to Samothrace and the next day to Neapolis, ¹² and from there to Philippi, which is the main city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony. We stayed in this city several days.

¹³ On the Sabbath we went out of the city to a riverside, where prayer was customarily offered. And we sat down and spoke to the women who had assembled. ¹⁴ A woman named Lydia, a seller of purple fabric of the city of Thyatira, who worshipped God, heard us. The Lord opened her heart to acknowledge what Paul said. ¹⁵ When she and her household were baptized, she entreated us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and remain there." And she persuaded us.

The Imprisonment in Philippi

¹⁶ On one occasion, as we went to the place of prayer, a servant girl possessed with a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much profit by fortune-telling. ¹⁷ She followed Paul and us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation." ¹⁸ She did this for many days. But becoming greatly troubled, Paul turned to the spirit and said, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out at that moment.

¹⁹ When her masters saw that the hope of their profits was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace to the rulers. ²⁰ And they brought them to the magistrates, saying, "These men, being Jews, greatly trouble our city ²¹ and teach customs which are not lawful for us, being Romans, to receive or observe."

²⁵ At midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶ Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's shackles were loosened. ²⁷ When the jailer awoke and saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸ But Paul shouted, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here."

²⁹ He called for lights and rushed in, trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas. ³⁰ He then led them out and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

³¹ They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you and your household will be saved." ³² And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his household. ³³ In that hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds. And immediately he and his entire household were baptized. ³⁴ Then he brought them up to his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced with his entire household believing in God.

³⁵ When it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Release those men." ³⁶ The prison guard reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to release you. Now therefore depart, and go in peace."

³⁷ But Paul said to them, "They have publicly beaten us, who are uncondemned Romans, and have thrown us into prison. And now do they secretly throw us out? Certainly not! Let them come themselves and bring us out."

³⁸ The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans. ³⁹ So they came and entreated them. And they brought them out, asking them to leave the city. ⁴⁰ They went out of the prison and entered the house of Lydia. When they had seen the brothers, they exhorted them and departed.

The Uproar in Thessalonica

17 When they had traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. ² According to his custom, Paul went in, and on three Sabbaths he lectured to them from the Scriptures, ³ explaining and proving that the Christ had to suffer and to rise from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I preach to you, is the Christ." ⁴ Some of them were persuaded and joined with Paul and Silas, including a great crowd of devout Greeks and many leading women.

⁵ But the Jews who did not believe became jealous and, taking some evil men from the marketplace, gathered a crowd, stirred up the city, and attacked the house of Jason, trying to bring them out to the mob. ⁶ But when they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some brothers to the city officials, crying out, "These men who have turned the world upside down have come here also, ⁷ and Jason has received them. They are all acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus." ⁸ They troubled the crowd and the city officials when they heard these things. ⁹ When they had taken a bail payment from Jason and the rest, they released them.

The Apostles in Berea

¹⁰ The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the synagogue of the Jews. ¹¹ These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, for they received the word with all eagerness, daily examining the Scriptures, to find out if these things were so. ¹² Therefore many of them believed, including honorable Greek women and many Greek men.

¹³ But when the Jews of Thessalonica learned that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came there also, stirring up the crowds. ¹⁴ The brothers immediately sent Paul away to the sea. But Silas and Timothy remained there. ¹⁵ Those who escorted Paul brought him to Athens and departed with instructions for Silas and Timothy to come to him quickly.

Paul in Athens

¹⁶ While Paul waited for them in Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷ Therefore he disputed in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace daily with those who happened to there. ¹⁸ Then some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, "What will this babbling say?" Others said, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods," because he preached Jesus and the resurrection to them. ¹⁹ They took hold of him and led him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new doctrine is of which you speak? ²⁰ For you are bringing strange things to our ears. Therefore we want to know what these things mean.”²¹ For all the Athenians and foreigners who lived there spent their time in nothing else, but either telling or hearing something new.

²² Then Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said: “Men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious. ²³ For as I passed by and looked up at your objects of worship, I found an altar with this inscription:

TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.

Whom you therefore unknowingly worship, Him I proclaim to you.

²⁴ “God who made the world and all things in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made by hands. ²⁵ Nor is He served by men’s hands, as though He needed anything, since He gives all men life and breath and all things. ²⁶ He has made from one blood every nation of men to live on the entire face of the earth, having appointed fixed times and the boundaries of their habitation, ²⁷ that they should seek the Lord so perhaps they might reach for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us. ²⁸ ‘For in Him we live and move and have our being.’ As some of your own poets have said, ‘We are His offspring.’

²⁹ “Therefore since we are the offspring of God, we ought not to suppose that the Deity is like gold or silver or stone or an engraved work of art or an image of the reflection of man. ³⁰ God overlooked the times of ignorance, but now He commands all men everywhere to repent. ³¹ For He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by a Man whom He has appointed, having given assurance of this to all men by raising Him from the dead.”

³² When they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some scoffed. But others said, “We will hear you again concerning this matter.” ³³ So Paul departed from them. ³⁴ However, some men joined him and believed. Among them were Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Paul in Corinth

18 After this, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. ² He found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. And he went to them. ³ And because he was of the same trade, he remained with them and worked, for they were tentmakers by trade. ⁴ He lectured in the synagogue every Sabbath and persuaded Jews and Greeks.

⁵ When Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia, Paul was pressed by the Spirit and testified to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ. ⁶ But when they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his garments and said to them, “Your blood be upon your heads. I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles.”

⁷ Then he departed from there and entered the house of a man named Justus, one who worshipped

God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.

⁸ Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with his entire household. And many of the Corinthians, who heard, believed and were baptized.

⁹ The Lord spoke to Paul in the night through a vision, “Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent.

¹⁰ For I am with you, and no one shall attack you and hurt you, for I have many people in this city.” ¹¹ So for a year and six months he sat among them, teaching the word of God.

¹² When Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews in unity attacked Paul and brought him to court, ¹³ saying, “This man is persuading men to worship God contrary to the law.”

¹⁴ When Paul was about to speak, Gallio said to the Jews, “O Jews, if it were a matter of a misdemeanor or serious crime, I would rightly bear with you. ¹⁵ But if it is a question of words and names and your law, look into it yourselves. For I do not intend to be a judge of these matters.” ¹⁶ So he drove them out of court.

¹⁷ Then all the Greeks seized Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. But none of these things mattered to Gallio.

Paul’s Return to Antioch

¹⁸ Yet Paul remained many days. He had his hair cut in Cenchrea, for he had taken a vow. Then, bidding farewell to the brothers, he sailed to Syria, and Priscilla and Aquila were with him. ¹⁹ He arrived at Ephesus and left them there. But he himself went into the synagogue and lectured the Jews. ²⁰ When they asked him to remain for a while longer, he did not consent, ²¹ but, bidding farewell, said, “I must by all means attend this upcoming feast in Jerusalem, but I will return to you if God wills.” And he set sail from Ephesus. ²² When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church and then went down to Antioch.

²³ After spending some time there, he departed and passed through the entire region of Galatia and Phrygia in sequence, strengthening all the disciples.

Apollos Preaches in Ephesus

²⁴ Meanwhile a Jew named Apollos, born in Alexandria, who was an eloquent man and powerful in the Scriptures, came to Ephesus. ²⁵ This man was instructed in the way of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John, but being fervent in spirit, he accurately spoke and taught the things concerning the Lord. ²⁶ He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him and explained the way of God more accurately.

²⁷ When Apollos intended to pass into Achaia, the brothers wrote to encourage the disciples to welcome him. On arriving, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace. ²⁸ For he vehemently refuted the Jews publicly, proving from the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

Ephesians Receive the Holy Spirit

19 While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the upper regions and came to Ephesus. He found some disciples ² and said to them, "Have you received the Holy Spirit since you believed?" They said to him, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

³ He said to them, "Into what then were you baptized?"

They said, "Into John's baptism."

⁴ Paul said, "John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people that they should believe in the One coming after him, that is, in Christ Jesus." ⁵ When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶ When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke in other tongues and prophesied. ⁷ There were about twelve men in all.

⁸ He went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for three months, lecturing and persuading concerning the kingdom of God. ⁹ But when some were hardened and did not believe, but spoke evil of the Way before the crowd, he withdrew from them and took the disciples, lecturing daily in the school of Tyrannus. ¹⁰ This continued for two years, so that all who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

The Sons of Sceva

¹¹ God worked powerful miracles by the hands of Paul. ¹² So handkerchiefs or aprons he had touched were brought to the sick, and the diseases left them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

¹³ Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists invoked the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "We command you to come out in the name of Jesus whom Paul preaches." ¹⁴ There were seven sons of a Jewish high priest named Sceva doing this. ¹⁵ The evil spirit answered, "I know Jesus, and I know Paul, but who are you?" ¹⁶ Then the man in whom the evil spirit was jumped on them, overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled from that house naked and wounded.

¹⁷ This became known to all Jews and Greeks living in Ephesus. And fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. ¹⁸ Many who believed came confessing and telling their deeds. ¹⁹ Many who practiced magic brought their books together and burned them before everyone. They calculated their value, which equaled fifty thousand drachmas. ²⁰ So the word of the Lord powerfully grew and spread.

The Riot in Ephesus

²¹ After these things happened, Paul determined in his spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia and go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome." ²² He sent two who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, into Macedonia, but he delayed in Asia for a time.

† A drachma was worth about a day's wage.

²³ About that time great trouble arose about the Way. ²⁴ For a silversmith named Demetrius, who made silver shrines for Artemis, brought much business to the craftsmen. ²⁵ He gathered them together with the workmen of similar trades and said, "Men, you know that by this trade we have our wealth. ²⁶ And you see and hear, not only at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, that this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that these things made by hands are not gods. ²⁷ Now not only is our trade in danger of coming into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Artemis, whom all Asia and the world worship, may be discredited and her magnificence destroyed."

³² The assembly was confused. Therefore some cried out one thing and some another, and most of them did not know why they had come together. ³³ The Jews pushed Alexander to the front as the crowd prompted him. Alexander motioned with his hand, wishing to make his defense to the mob. ³⁴ But when they learned that he was a Jew, for about two hours they all with one voice cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

³⁵ The city clerk quieted the crowd and said, "Men of Ephesus, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is the guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of the image which fell from heaven? ³⁶ Seeing then that these things are undeniable, you ought to be quiet and do nothing rash. ³⁷ For you have brought these men here who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of your goddess.

³⁸ So if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a complaint against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another. ³⁹ If you seek anything further, it shall be settled in the legal assembly. ⁴⁰ For we are in danger of being charged with rioting today, since there is no reason we may give to account for this uproar." ⁴¹ When he had said this, he dismissed the assembly.

Paul's Journey to Macedonia and Greece

20 After the uproar ceased, Paul summoned the disciples and embraced them and departed for Macedonia. ² When he had gone through that region and had greatly exhorted them, he arrived in Greece,³ and stayed there three months. When the Jews plotted against him as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia.⁴ Accompanying him to Asia were Sopater of Berea, and Aristarchus and Secundus of Thessalonica, Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia.⁵ These men went forward and waited for us at Troas.⁶ But we sailed away from Philippi after the Days of Unleavened Bread, and after five days we came to them at Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

Paul's Farewell Visit to Troas

⁷ On the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul, ready to leave the next day, preached to them and continued his message until midnight.⁸ There were many lamps in the upper room where they were assembled.⁹ A young man named Eutychus sat in the window, falling into a deep sleep as Paul spoke for a longer time. Being overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third floor and was taken up dead.¹⁰ Paul went down and leaned over him, and embracing him said, "Do not be troubled, for he is alive."¹¹ When he had gone up and had broken bread and eaten, he conversed for a long while until dawn and departed.¹² They took the lad in alive and were greatly comforted.

The Voyage From Troas to Miletus

¹³ We went ahead to the ship and sailed to Assos, intending to take Paul on board there. For he had arranged this, intending to go on foot.¹⁴ When he met us at Assos, we took him on board and went to Mitylene.¹⁵ The day after sailing from there we arrived off Chios. And the next day we crossed over to Samos and stayed at Trogyllium, and the following day we came to Miletus.¹⁶ Paul had decided to sail by Ephesus, to avoid spending time in Asia. For he was hurrying so he could be in Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost.

Paul Speaks to the Ephesian Elders

¹⁷ From Miletus he sent to Ephesus for the elders of the church.¹⁸ When they came to him, he said to them, "You know how I always lived among you from the first day that I came to Asia,¹⁹ serving the Lord with all humility and with many tears and trials which befell me through the plots of the Jews.²⁰ I did not keep from declaring what was beneficial to you, and teaching you publicly and from house to house,²¹ testifying to both Jews and Greeks of repentance toward God and of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

²² "Now, compelled by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what shall befall me there,²³ except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and afflictions await me.²⁴ But none of these things deter me. Nor do I count my life of value to myself, so that I may joyfully finish my course and the ministry which I have received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

²⁵ "Now I know that all you, among whom I went proclaiming the kingdom of God, will see my face no more.²⁶ Therefore I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all men.²⁷ For I did not keep from declaring to you the whole counsel of God.²⁸ Therefore take heed to yourselves and to the entire flock, over which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the church of God which He purchased with His own blood.²⁹ For I know that after my departure, dreadful wolves will enter among you, not sparing the flock.³⁰ Even from among you men will arise speaking perverse things, to draw the disciples away after them.³¹ Therefore watch, remembering that for three years night and day I did not cease to warn everyone with tears.

³² "Now, brothers, I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among all who are sanctified.³³ I have not coveted anyone's silver or gold or clothing.³⁴ Yes, you yourselves know that these hands have provided for my necessities and for those who were with me.³⁵ In all things I have shown you how, working like this, you must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, how He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

³⁶ Having said these things, he knelt down with all of them and prayed.³⁷ They all wept much and embraced Paul's neck and kissed him,³⁸ grieving most over the words he spoke, that they were to see his face no more. Then they escorted him to the ship.

Paul's Journey to Jerusalem

21 When we had withdrawn from them and set sail, we went on a straight course to Cos, the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.² We found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, went aboard, and set sail.³ Having come in sight of Cyprus, we passed to the south of it and sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there the ship's cargo was to be unloaded.⁴ When we found the disciples, we remained there seven days. They told Paul through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem.⁵ But when our days were over, we parted and traveled on. Everyone, with wives and children, escorted us until we were outside the city. And we knelt on the shore and prayed.⁶ After bidding farewell to one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

⁷ We finished the voyage from Tyre when we landed at Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and stayed with them for one day.⁸ The next day we who were Paul's companions departed, and arrived at Caesarea, and entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him.⁹ He had four virgin daughters who prophesied.

¹⁰ While we stayed there many days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹ When he had arrived, he took Paul's belt and bound his own hands and feet, saying, "The Holy Spirit says, 'In this manner the Jews at Jerusalem shall bind the man who owns this belt and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

¹² When we heard these things, both we and the residents implored him not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³ Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be imprisoned, but also to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." ¹⁴ When he would not be persuaded, we kept silent and said, "Let the will of the Lord be done."

¹⁵ After those days we got ready and went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶ Some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us and brought with them Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge.

Paul Visits James

¹⁷ When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. ¹⁸ On the next day Paul went with us to James, and all the elders were present. ¹⁹ He greeted them and recounted one by one what God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

²⁰ When they heard this, they glorified the Lord. Then they said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe, and they are all zealous for the law. ²¹ They have been informed concerning you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children nor to observe the customs. ²² What then shall be done? The assembly will certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come. ²³ Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. ²⁴ Take these men and be purified with them, and pay their expenses so that they may have their heads shaved. Then all will know that what they were told concerning you is nothing, but that you yourself live in observance of the law. ²⁵ As for the Gentiles who believe, we have written and concluded that they should observe no such thing, except that they abstain from food offered to idols, from sexual immorality, from strangled animals, and from blood."

²⁶ Then on the next day, Paul took the men and purified himself with them. And he went into the temple, announcing when the days of purification would be complete and an offering would be given for each one of them.

Paul Arrested in the Temple

²⁷ When the seven days were nearly concluded, the Jews from Asia saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, ²⁸ crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man teaching all men everywhere against the people and the law and this place.

He even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." ²⁹ For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, whom they supposed Paul had brought into the temple.

³⁰ Then the whole city was provoked, and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple. And immediately the doors were shut.

³¹ While they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commander [†] of the battalion of soldiers that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. ³² He at once took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. When they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

³³ Then the commander came and arrested him, and ordered that he be bound with two chains. Then he asked who he was and what he had done. ³⁴ Some in the crowd shouted one thing, some another. As he could not learn the truth because of the uproar, he commanded that he be brought into the barracks.

³⁵ When he came onto the stairs, he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the people. ³⁶ For the mob of people followed, crying out, "Away with him!"

Paul Defends Himself

³⁷ As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the commander, "May I speak to you?"

He replied, "Do you know how to speak Greek? ³⁸ Are you not the Egyptian who in past days caused an uproar and led the four thousand men of the Sicarii ^{††} out into the wilderness?"

³⁹ Paul said, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus of Cilicia, a citizen of no common city. I beg of you, permit me to speak to the people."

⁴⁰ When he had given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs and motioned with his hand to the people. When there was great silence, he addressed them in the Hebrew language, saying,

22 "Brothers and fathers, hear my defense which I now make to you."

² When they heard that he addressed them in the Hebrew language, they became even more quiet. Then he said, ³ "I am a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city. At the feet of Gamaliel I was trained in the strict tradition of the law of the fathers, being zealous toward God as you all are today. ⁴ I persecuted this Way to the death, arresting and imprisoning both men and women, ⁵ as even the high priest and the council of elders bear witness of me. From them I received letters to the brothers in Damascus, where I went to take even those who were there and lead them in chains to Jerusalem to be punished.

Paul Tells of His Conversion

Ac 9:1-19; 26:12-18

⁶“As I journeyed and came near Damascus, about noon suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me. ⁷I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?’

⁸“I answered, ‘Who are You, Lord?’

“He said to me, *‘I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.’*⁹ Those who were with me saw the light and were afraid, but they did not hear the voice of Him who was speaking to me.

¹⁰“I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’

“The Lord said to me, *‘Rise and go into Damascus. There you will be told what you have been appointed to do.’*¹¹ Since I was blinded by the glory of that light, those who were with me led me by the hand into Damascus.

¹²“Ananias, a devout man according to the law, who was well spoken of by all the Jews living there, ¹³came and stood by me, and said, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight.’ And at that moment I looked up at him.

¹⁴“Then he said, ‘The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will and to see the Just One and to hear His voice, ¹⁵for you will be His witness to all men of what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶And now why do you wait? Rise, be baptized and wash away your sins, and call on the name of the Lord.’

Paul Sent to the Gentiles

¹⁷“When I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance ¹⁸and saw Him saying to me, ‘Hurry! Get out of Jerusalem immediately, for they will not receive your testimony concerning Me.’

¹⁹“I said, ‘Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat those who believed in You in every synagogue. ²⁰And when the blood of Your martyr Stephen was shed, I was standing by consenting to his death, guarding the clothes of those who killed him.’

²¹“Then He said to me, ‘Depart, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’”

Paul and the Roman Commander

²² They listened to him up to this word, and then they lifted up their voices and said, “Away with such a man from the earth, for he is not fit to live!”

²³ As they shouted and threw off their garments and threw dust into the air, ²⁴the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks and examined with scourging, so that he might learn what crime they were alleging against him. ²⁵As they stretched him forward with straps, Paul said to the centurion standing by, “Is it legal for you to flog an uncondemned Roman citizen?”

²⁶ On hearing this, the centurion reported to the commander, saying, “What are you doing? This man is a Roman citizen.”

²⁷ The commander came and said to him, “Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?”

He said, “Yes.”

²⁸ The commander answered, “I bought my citizenship for a large sum.”

So Paul said, “But I was born a citizen.”

²⁹ Therefore those who were about to examine Paul immediately backed away from him. And the commander feared, knowing that he was a Roman citizen and because he had bound him.

Paul Before the Sanhedrin

³⁰ On the next day, desiring to know exactly why he was accused by the Jews, he released him and ordered the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to assemble, and he brought Paul down to stand before them.

23 Paul looked at the Sanhedrin and said, “Brothers, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.”² The high priest Ananias ordered those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. ³Then Paul said to him, “God will strike you, you white-washed wall! Do you sit judging me according to the law, yet order me to be struck contrary to the law?”

⁴ Those who stood by said, “Do you criticize God’s high priest?”

⁵ Paul said, “Brothers, I did not know that he was the high priest. For it is written, ‘You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people.’”[†]

⁶ Then Paul, knowing that one sect were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, cried out among the Sanhedrin, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of a Pharisee. I am being judged for my hope in the resurrection of the dead.”⁷ When he had said this, dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. ⁸For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit. But the Pharisees acknowledge them all.

⁹ There was a great outcry. The scribes that were from the sect of Pharisees stood up and argued, “We find no evil in this man. But if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God.”¹⁰ When much dissension arose, fearing that Paul would be torn to pieces by them, the commander ordered the soldiers to go down and take him from them by force and bring him into the barracks.

¹¹ The following night the Lord stood by him and said, “Take courage, Paul. For as you have testified about Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify at Rome.”

The Plot Against Paul’s Life

¹² At daybreak some of the Jews conspired under oath, saying they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. ¹³There were more than forty who had conspired. ¹⁴They went to the chief priests and elders and said, “We have bound ourselves under oath not to eat until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵ So now, with the Sanhedrin, tell the commander to bring him down to you tomorrow, pretending to inquire further concerning him. We are ready to kill him before he arrives."

¹⁶ But when the son of Paul's sister heard of the treachery, he went and entered the barracks and told Paul.

¹⁷ Then Paul called one of the centurions over and said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to tell him." ¹⁸ So he took him to the commander and said, "Paul the prisoner sent for me and asked me to bring you this young man who has something to tell you."

¹⁹ Then the commander took him by the hand, went aside privately, and asked him, "What is it you have to tell me?"

²⁰ The boy said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down tomorrow to the Sanhedrin, pretending to inquire further concerning him. ²¹ Do not trust them. More than forty men, who have bound themselves with an oath to neither eat nor drink until they have killed him, are waiting for him. And now they are ready, waiting for your promise."

²² The commander dismissed the young man and ordered him, "Tell no one that you have reported these things to me."

Paul Sent to Felix the Governor

²³ Then he summoned two centurions and said, "Prepare two hundred infantrymen, seventy mounted soldiers, and two hundred light infantrymen with spears to go to Caesarea at the third hour of the night. ²⁴ And provide mounts so Paul may ride and take him safely to Felix the governor."

²⁵ He wrote a letter that went like this:

²⁶ Claudius Lysias,

To His Excellency Governor Felix:

Greetings.

²⁷ This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them. When I learned that he was a Roman citizen, I came with soldiers and rescued him.

²⁸ Being minded to learn what crime they alleged, I took him to their Sanhedrin. ²⁹ I found him being accused of controversial matters about their law, but charged with nothing worthy of death or imprisonment. ³⁰ When it was revealed to me that there was a plot against the man, at once I sent him to you and ordered the accusers to state before you their charges against him.

Farewell.

³¹ So the soldiers, according to their orders, took Paul by night to Antipatris. ³² The next day they let the cavalry depart with him and they returned to the barracks. ³³ When they arrived in Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they presented Paul also to him. ³⁴ Upon reading the letter, the governor asked what province he was from. When he learned that he was from Cilicia, ³⁵ he said, "I will hear you when your accusers also arrive." And he ordered that he be guarded in Herod's Praetorium.

The Case Against Paul

24 After five days Ananias the high priest arrived with some of the elders and a lawyer named Tertullus. They brought before the governor their charges against Paul. ² When he was summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Since through you we enjoy much peace, and your foresight is bringing reforms to this nation, ³ with all thankfulness, most excellent Felix, we always welcome it everywhere. ⁴ But not to detain you further, I beg you to briefly hear us in your patience.

⁵ "We have found this man a troublemaker, instigating riots among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. ⁶ He even tried to profane the temple. So we seized him and wanted to judge him according to our law. ⁷ But the commander, Lysias, came to us and forcefully took him out of our hands, ⁸ ordering his accusers to come before you. By examining him yourself you will be able to learn about all these things concerning which we accuse him."

⁹ The Jews assented, alleging these things to be true.

Paul's Defense Before Felix

¹⁰ After the governor motioned to him to speak, Paul answered, "Knowing that for many years you have been a judge over this nation, I cheerfully defend myself. ¹¹ You may verify that it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. ¹² They did not find me in the temple or in the synagogues or in the city disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd. ¹³ They cannot prove the things concerning which they now accuse me. ¹⁴ However, I affirm that in accordance with the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of my fathers and believe everything written in the Law and in the Prophets. ¹⁵ I have hope in God that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust, which they also expect. ¹⁶ In this do I always strive to have a clear conscience toward God and toward men.

¹⁷ "Now after many years I came to bring alms and offerings to my nation, ¹⁸ when some Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with a crowd nor an uproar. ¹⁹ They ought to be here before you to accuse me if they have any charges. ²⁰ Or let these men say what crime they found in me when I stood before the Sanhedrin, ²¹ unless it is concerning this one statement which I cried out while standing among them, 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead, I am being judged by you this day.'"

²² When Felix, who had more exact knowledge concerning the Way, had heard this, he adjourned the proceedings and said, "When Lysias the commander arrives, I will decide your case.”²³ Then he ordered the centurion to guard Paul, and to let him have liberty, and to forbid none of his own people from attending to him.

Paul Held in Custody

²⁴ After several days, when Felix arrived with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul and heard him speak concerning faith in Christ. ²⁵ As he lectured about righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix was afraid and answered, “For now, leave! When time permits, I will send for you.” ²⁶ At the same time he hoped that money would be given him by Paul, that he might release him. So he sent for him more often and conversed with him.

²⁷ But after two years Porcius Festus succeeded Felix. And Felix, desiring to do the Jews a favor, left Paul imprisoned.

Paul Appeals to Caesar

25 Now three days after Festus had come into the province, he went from Caesarea up to Jerusalem. ² The high priest and the elders of the Jews spoke to him against Paul. And they begged him, ³ asking as a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem, plotting to kill him along the way. ⁴ Festus said that Paul should be kept at Caesarea and that he himself intended to go there shortly. ⁵ He also said, “Let the men in authority go down with me. If there is anything wrong in the man, let them accuse him.”

⁶ Having stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day he sat on the judgment seat and ordered that Paul be brought in. ⁷ When he arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him and brought many serious charges against him which they could not prove, ⁸ while he defended himself, saying, “Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I sinned at all.”

⁹ Desiring to do the Jews a favor, Festus answered, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem to be judged concerning these charges before me?”

¹⁰ Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s judgment seat, where I ought to be judged. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you know very well. ¹¹ If I am doing wrong or have done anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die. But if these are empty charges of which these men accuse me, no one may deliver me to them. I appeal to Caesar.”

¹² When Festus had conferred with the council, he then answered, “To Caesar you have appealed. To Caesar you shall go.”

Paul Before Agrippa and Bernice

¹³ After several days King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea to welcome Festus. ¹⁴ When they had been there many days, Festus stated Paul’s case to the king, saying, “There is a man left as a prisoner by Felix. ¹⁵ When I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me about him, asking for a sentence against him.

¹⁶ “I answered, ‘It is not the custom of the Romans to deliver any man to die before he who is accused meets the accusers face to face and has the opportunity to make his defense concerning the charge brought against him.’ ¹⁷ So when they assembled here, without delay I sat on the judgment seat the next day and ordered that the man be brought in. ¹⁸ When the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation against him of such crimes as I had supposed. ¹⁹ But they had disagreements with him about their own religion and about a Man named Jesus, who had died, but whom Paul asserted was alive. ²⁰ Being perplexed about such questions, I asked if he would be willing to go to Jerusalem and be tried there concerning these charges. ²¹ But when Paul had appealed to be under guard for the decision of Caesar, I ordered that he be secured until I could send him to Caesar.”

²² Then Agrippa said to Festus, “I would like to hear the man myself.”

He said, “Tomorrow you shall hear him.”

²³ The next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp, and they entered the hall with the commanders and the leading men of the city. When Festus gave the order, Paul was brought in. ²⁴ Festus said, “King Agrippa, and all the men who are present with us, you see this man, concerning whom the whole assembly of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer. ²⁵ I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death. But when he himself appealed to Caesar, I decided to send him. ²⁶ But I have nothing to write to His Majesty concerning him. Therefore I have brought him before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that upon examination, I might have something to write. ²⁷ For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner without signifying the charges against him.”

Paul’s Defense Before Agrippa

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You are permitted to speak for yourself.”

So Paul stretched out his hand and made his defense: ² “King Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate that today I shall make my defense before you against all the accusations of the Jews, ³ especially because you are an expert in all customs and controversies of the Jews. Therefore I beg you to patiently listen to me.

⁴ “My manner of life from my youth, spent from the beginning in my own nation and at Jerusalem, is known by all the Jews. ⁵ They knew me from the beginning and could testify, if they wished, how according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived as a Pharisee. ⁶ And now I stand on trial for hope in the promise made by God to our fathers, ⁷ to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly serve God day and night. Concerning this hope, King Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews. ⁸ Why is it judged incredible by you that God raises the dead?

⁹ "I, too, thought that I must do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth, ¹⁰ which I indeed did in Jerusalem and locked up many of the saints in prison by authority from the chief priests. And when they were killed, I cast my vote against them. ¹¹ I punished them often in every synagogue and compelled them to blaspheme. And being extremely enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

Paul Tells of His Conversion

Ac 9:1-19; 22:6-16

¹² "So I went to Damascus with authority and a commission from the chief priests. ¹³ At midday, O King, I saw along the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me. ¹⁴ When we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

¹⁵ "I said, 'Who are You, Lord?'

"He said, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.

¹⁶ But rise and stand on your feet. For I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you as a servant and a witness both of what you have seen and of what I will yet reveal to you. ¹⁷ I will deliver you from your people and from the Gentiles to whom I now send you, ¹⁸ to open their eyes and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in Me.'

Paul's Testimony to Jews and Gentiles

¹⁹ "Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, ²⁰ but declared first to those at Damascus, then at Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God and do works proving their repentance. ²¹ For these reasons the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me. ²² Therefore having obtained help from God, I continue to this day, testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would happen: ²³ that the Christ must suffer, that He would be the first who would rise from the dead, and would announce light to His own people and to the Gentiles."

Paul Appeals to Agrippa to Believe

²⁴ So as he made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are mad. Much learning is turning you to madness."

²⁵ Paul said, "I am not mad, most excellent Festus. I speak the words of truth and reason. ²⁶ The king, before whom I also speak freely, knows about these things. For I am persuaded that none of this is hidden from him, for this was not done in a corner. ²⁷ King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."

²⁸ Then Agrippa said to Paul, "You almost persuade me to be a Christian."

²⁹ Paul said, "I pray to God that not only you, but all who hear me this day, might become not only almost, but thoroughly and altogether, what I am, except for these chains."

³⁰ When he had said this, the king rose, as well as the governor and Bernice and those who sat with them.

³¹ When they had gone aside, they said to one another, "This man is doing nothing deserving death or imprisonment."

³² And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Paul Sails for Rome

27 When it was decided that we should sail into Italy, they handed Paul and some other prisoners over to a centurion of the Augustan Regiment, named Julius. ² Boarding a ship from Adramyttium, we put out to sea, meaning to sail along the coasts of Asia. Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us.

⁶ There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing to Italy, and he put us on board. ⁷ We sailed slowly for many days, and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, and as the wind did not allow us to proceed, we sailed under the lee of Crete off Salmone. ⁸ Sailing past it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

⁹ As much time had been lost and as the voyage was now dangerous, because the Day of Atonement was already over, Paul advised them, ¹⁰ saying, "Men, I perceive that this voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and ship, but also of our lives." ¹¹ But the centurion was persuaded more by the captain and the owner of the ship than by what Paul said. ¹² Since the harbor was not suitable to winter in, the majority decided to sail on from there, if somehow we might reach Phoenix, a harbor in Crete, facing southwest and northwest, and winter there.

The Storm at Sea

¹³ When a south wind blew gently, supposing that they had obtained the necessary conditions, they weighed anchor and sailed along the shore of Crete.

¹⁴ But soon afterward a tempestuous wind swept through, called the Euroclydon. ¹⁵ When the ship was overpowered and could not head into the wind, we let her drift. ¹⁶ Drifting under the lee of an island called Cauda, we could scarcely secure the rowboat. ¹⁷ When they had hoisted it aboard, they used ropes to undergird the ship. And fearing that they might run aground on the sand of Syrtis, they let down the mast, and so were driven. ¹⁸ We were violently tossed by the storm. The next day they threw cargo overboard. ¹⁹ On the third day we threw the tackle of the ship overboard with our own hands. ²⁰ When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small storm was upon us, all hope that we should be saved was lost.

²¹ After they had long abstained from food, Paul stood in their midst and said, "Men, you should have listened to me and not have set sail from Crete, incurring this injury and loss. ²² But now I advise you to take courage, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. ²³ For there stood by me this night the angel of God to whom I belong and whom I serve, ²⁴ saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. And, look! God has given you all those who sail with you.' ²⁵ Therefore, men, take courage, for I believe God that it will be exactly as it was told to me. ²⁶ Nevertheless, we must be shipwrecked on a certain island."

²⁷ When the fourteenth night came, while we were drifting in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors supposed that they were approaching land. ²⁸ They took soundings and found the water to be one hundred and twenty feet deep. [†] When they had gone a little farther, they took soundings again and found it to be ninety feet deep. [‡] Fearing that we might run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for day to come. ³⁰ When the sailors strove to abandon ship and lowered the rowboat into the sea, under the pretext of lowering anchors out of the bow, ³¹ Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these sailors remain in the ship, you cannot be saved." ³² Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the rowboat and let her fall off.

³⁵ When he had said this, he took some bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all. And when he had broken it he began to eat. ³⁶ Then they were all encouraged, and they also ate food themselves. ³⁷ In all we were two hundred and seventy-six persons on the ship. ³⁸ When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and threw the wheat into the sea.

The Shipwreck

³⁹ When it was day, they did not recognize the land. But they noticed a bay with a shore, into which they were determined to run the ship if possible. ⁴⁰ Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea while loosening the ropes that secured the rudders. Then they hoisted the mainsail to the wind and made for shore. ⁴¹ But striking a sandbar where two seas met, they ran the ship aground. The bow stuck and remained immovable, but the stern was broken up by the violent surf.

⁴² The soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape. ⁴³ But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, prevented them from their intent and ordered those who could swim to abandon ship first and get to land, ⁴⁴ and the rest on planks or on pieces of the ship. And in this way they all escaped safely to land.

Paul in Malta

28 When they had escaped, they learned that the island was called Malta. ² The natives showed extraordinary kindness, for they kindled a fire and welcomed us all, because of the rain and the cold. ³ When Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and put them on the fire, a viper driven out by the heat fastened on his hand. ⁴ When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "Surely this man is a murderer. Though he has escaped from the sea, justice does not allow him to live." ⁵ But he shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no harm. ⁶ They expected him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But while they waited and saw no harm befall him, they changed their minds and said that he was a god.

⁷ In that area was an estate of the chief man of the island, named Publius, who had welcomed us and courteously housed us for three days. ⁸ It happened that the father of Publius lay sick with a fever and dysentery. Paul visited him and, placing his hands on him, prayed and healed him. ⁹ When this happened, the rest on the island who had diseases also came and were healed. ¹⁰ They honored us in many ways. And when we sailed, they provided us with necessary supplies.

Paul Arrives in Rome

¹¹ After three months we sailed in an Alexandrian ship whose figurehead was the Twin Brothers, which had wintered at the island. ¹² Landing at Syracuse, we waited there for three days. ¹³ From there we circled around and sailed to Rhegium. After one day the south wind blew, and the next day we arrived at Puteoli. ¹⁴ There we found brothers, and were invited to remain with them for seven days. And so we went to Rome. ¹⁵ From there, when the brothers heard of us,

† Or a Northeaster. †† Gk. a 20 orguias, about 37 meters.

‡ Gk. a 15 orguias, about 27 meters.

they traveled as far as the Forum of Appius † and the Three Taverns †† to meet us. When Paul saw them, he thanked God and took courage. ¹⁶ When we arrived at Rome, the centurion handed the prisoners over to the captain of the guard. But Paul was allowed to remain by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

Paul Preaches in Rome

¹⁷ After three days Paul called the leaders of the Jews together. When they had assembled, he said to them, "Brothers, having done nothing contrary to our people or the customs of our fathers, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. ¹⁸ When they had examined me, they were determined to release me, because there was no charge against me deserving death. ¹⁹ But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not that I had any charge to bring against my nation. ²⁰ For this reason I have asked to see you and speak with you, because I am bound with this chain for the hope of Israel."

²¹ They said to him, "We have not received any letters from Judea concerning you, and none of the brothers that have come have reported or spoken any evil of you. ²² But we think it is proper to hear from you what you think. For concerning this sect, we know that it is spoken against everywhere."

† A town on the Appian Way about 55 miles from Rome. †† Or Three Inns, also on the Appian Way and about 10 miles closer to Rome.

²³ When they had arranged a day to be with him, many came to him at his residence. From morning until evening he explained and solemnly testified of the kingdom of God to them, persuading them concerning Jesus from both the Law of Moses and the Prophets. ²⁴ Some believed what was said, but some did not believe. ²⁵ Being in disagreement with one another, they were dismissed after Paul had said one word: "The Holy Spirit accurately spoke to our fathers through Isaiah the prophet,

²⁶ 'Go to this people and say:

You shall certainly hear, but never understand;
and you shall certainly see, but never perceive;
²⁷ for the heart of this people has grown dull.

Their ears are hard of hearing,
and they have closed their eyes,
lest they should see with their eyes
and hear with their ears
and understand with their heart
and turn, and I would heal them. ‡

²⁸ "Therefore let it be known to you that the salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles. They will hear it!"

²⁹ When he had said these words, the Jews departed and disputed greatly among themselves. ³⁰ Paul remained two whole years in his own rented house. He welcomed all who came to him, ³¹ boldly and freely preaching the kingdom of God and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ.

ROMANS

The epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Romans was the sixth of Paul's letters, written in Corinth in about AD 57. It was sent to Rome by Phoebe. Paul was called the Apostle to the Gentiles. Formerly known as Saul, he was born of the tribe of Benjamin in Tarsus in Asia Minor, which was part of the Roman Empire. Romans is the first epistle in the New Testament canon because it presents much of the foundation of Christian theology. This theological foundation is the basis for understanding much of the Christian theology throughout the rest of the New Testament. This epistle is a theological treatise, but it is also an occasional letter meant to address the complex relationship between Jewish and Gentile Christians in the Roman church. Paul examines these truths and admonitions with scrupulous care. Likewise, we should approach the letter with care and prudence. The many truths that impact the Christian life should be studied and compared with other New Testament writings. Romans is an eloquent masterpiece of theological expression. It presents Jesus Christ as the Righteous One who takes away our sin, thus making us righteous before God.

Salutation

¹ Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle and set apart for the gospel of God, ² which He promised beforehand through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures, ³ concerning His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh ⁴ and declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead. ⁵ Through Him we have received grace and apostleship for the obedience of faith among all nations for His name, ⁶ among whom you also are called by Jesus Christ:
⁷ To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints:
 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul's Desire to Visit Rome

⁸ First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. ⁹ For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of His Son, that without ceasing, I mention you always in my prayers, ¹⁰ making request if, by any means, now at last I might find a way in the will of God to come to you.
¹¹ For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be strengthened. ¹² This is so that I may be encouraged together with you by each other's faith, both yours and mine. ¹³ Now I would not have you unaware, brothers, that I often intended to come to you (but was prevented until now), that I might have a harvest among you also, even as among the other Gentiles.
¹⁴ I am a debtor both to the Greeks and to the barbarians, both to the wise and to the unwise. ¹⁵ So, as much as is in me, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

The Definition of the Gospel

¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ. For it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. ¹⁷ For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith. As it is written, "The just shall live by faith." †

The Guilt of Mankind

¹⁸ The wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth through unrighteousness. ¹⁹ For what may be known about God is clear to them since God has shown it to them. ²⁰ The invisible things about Him—His eternal power and deity—have been clearly seen since the creation of the world and are understood by the things that are made, so that they are without excuse.

²¹ Because, although they knew God, they did not glorify Him or give thanks to Him as God, but became futile in their imaginations, and their foolish hearts were darkened. ²² Claiming to be wise, they became fools. ²³ They changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like corruptible man, birds, four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

²⁴ Therefore God gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their hearts, to dishonor their own bodies among themselves. ²⁵ They turned the truth of God into a lie and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

²⁶ For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. Their women exchanged the natural function for what is against nature. ²⁷ Likewise the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men with men doing that which is shameful, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error.

²⁸ And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not proper. ²⁹ They were filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit. They are gossips, ³⁰ slanderers, God-haters, insolent, proud, boastful, inventors of evil things, and disobedient toward parents, ³¹ without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, calloused, and unmerciful, ³² who know the righteous requirement of God, that those who commit such things are worthy of death. They not only do them, but also give hearty approval to those who practice them.

The Righteous Judgment of God

2 Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judges, for when you judge another, you condemn yourself, for you who judge do the same things. ² But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who commit such things. ³ Do you think, O man, who judges those who do such things, and who does the same thing, that you will escape the judgment of God? ⁴ Do you despise the riches of His goodness, tolerance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?

⁵ But because of your hardness and impenitent heart, you are storing up treasures of wrath against yourself on the day of wrath when the righteous judgment of God will be revealed, ⁶ and He “will render to every man according to his deeds.” ⁷ To those who by patiently doing good seek for glory and honor and immortality will be eternal life. ⁸ But to those who are contentious and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation, and wrath, ⁹ will be tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man who does evil, to the Jew first, and then to the Gentile. ¹⁰ But glory, honor, and peace will be to every man who does good work—to the Jew first, and then to the Gentile, ¹¹ for there is no partiality with God.

¹² As many as have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and as many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law, ¹³ for the hearers of the law are not justified before God, but the doers of the law will be justified. ¹⁴ For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, not having the law, are a law unto themselves, ¹⁵ who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, while their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them, ¹⁶ in the day when, according to my gospel, God will judge the secrets of men through Jesus Christ.

† Ps 62:12; Pr 24:12.

The Jews and the Law

¹⁷ Indeed you are called a Jew, and rest in the law, and make your boast in God. ¹⁸ You know His will and approve the things that are more excellent, because you are instructed in the law. ¹⁹ You are confident that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, ²⁰ an instructor of the foolish, and a teacher of babes, who have the full content of knowledge and truth in the law: ²¹ You, therefore, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach not to steal, do you steal? ²² You who say not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? ²³ You who boast in the law, do you dishonor God through breaking the law? ²⁴ As it is written, “The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you.” †

²⁵ Circumcision indeed has merit, if you keep the law, but if you are a breaker of the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. ²⁶ Therefore, if an uncircumcised man keeps the righteousness of the law, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision? ²⁷ Will the uncircumcised one who is righteous by nature, if he fulfills the law, not judge you who, by the letter of the law and circumcision, violate the law?

3 What advantage then does the Jew have? Or what profit is there in circumcision? ² Much in every way! Chiefly because the oracles of God were entrusted to them.

³ What if some did not believe? Would their unbelief nullify the faithfulness of God? ⁴ God forbid! Let God be true, and every man a liar. As it is written: “That You may be justified in Your words, and may prevail in Your judging.” ‡

⁵ But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous in taking vengeance? (I am speaking in human terms.) ⁶ God forbid! For then how could God judge the world? ⁷ If through my lie the truth of God has abounded more to His glory, why am I still being judged as a sinner? ⁸ Why not rather say, “Let us do evil that good may come,” as we are slanderously accused and as some claim that we say? Their condemnation is just.

There Is None Righteous

⁹ What then? Are we better than they? No, not at all. For we have already charged that both Jews and Gentiles are all under sin. ¹⁰ As it is written:

“There is none righteous, no, not one; †

¹¹ there is no one who understands;

†† Isa 52:5; Eze 36:22. ‡ Ps 51:4. †† Ps 14:1; 53:1.

there is no one who seeks after God. † 12 They have all turned aside;
 together they have become worthless;
 there is no one who does good,
 no, not one." †† 13 "Their throats are an open grave;
 with their tongues they have used deceit";
 "the poison of vipers is under their lips"; ‡
 14 "their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness." ‡†
 15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood; ‡
 16 destruction and misery are in their paths; ‡‡
 17 and they do not know the way of peace." ‡‡‡
 18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes." § 19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it says to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be silenced, and all the world may become accountable to God. 20 Therefore by the works of the law no flesh will be justified in His sight, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.

Righteousness Through Faith

21 But now, apart from the law, the righteousness of God is revealed, being witnessed by the Law and the Prophets. 22 This righteousness of God comes through faith in Jesus Christ † to all and upon all who believe, for there is no distinction. 23 For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God, 24 being justified freely
 by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, 25 whom God has set forth to be a propitiation through faith, in His blood, for a demonstration of His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over the sins previously committed, 26 to prove His righteousness at this present time so that He might be just and be the justifier of him who has faith in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? Of works? No, but by the law of faith. 28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the works of the law. 29 Is He the God of the Jews only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also, 30 seeing it is one God, who shall justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. 31 Do we then make the law void through faith?
 God forbid! Instead, we establish the law.

The Example of Abraham

4 What then shall we say that Abraham, our father
 according to the flesh, has found? 2 If Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not before God. 3 What does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness." ††

4 Now to him who works, wages are not given as a gift, but as a debt. 5 But to him who does not work, but believes in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is † Ps 14:2; 53:2. †† Ps 14:3; 53:3. ‡ Ps 5:9; 140:3. ‡† Ps

 10:7. ‡‡ Pr 1:16; Isa 59:7. ‡‡† Isa 59:7. ‡‡‡ Isa 59:8. § Ps 36:1. †† Or a through the faith of Jesus Christ. ††† Ge 15:6.

credited as righteousness. 6 Even David describes the blessedness of the man to whom God credits righteousness without works:

7 "Blessed are those whose iniquities are forgiven,
 and whose sins are covered;
 8 blessed is the man to whom the Lord shall not impute sin." ††

9 Does this blessedness then come upon the circumcised only, or upon the uncircumcised also? We are saying that faith was credited to Abraham as righteousness. 10 How then was it credited? When he was in circumcision? Or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith that he had while being uncircumcised, so that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they are uncircumcised, that righteousness might be credited to them also, 12 and the father of circumcision to those who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had while still being uncircumcised.

The Promise Received Through Faith

13 It was not through the law that Abraham and his descendants received the promise that he would be the heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if those who are of the law become heirs, faith would be made void and the promise nullified, 15 because the law produces wrath, for where there is no law, there is no sin.

16 Therefore the promise comes through faith, so that it might be by grace, that the promise would be certain to all the descendants, not only to those who are of the law, but also to those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all 17 (as it is written,
 "I have made you a father of many nations" ††) before God whom he believed, and who raises the dead, and calls those things that do not exist as though they did.

18 Against all hope, he believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations according to what was spoken, "So shall your descendants be." ††19 And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body to be dead (when he was about a hundred years old), nor yet the deadness of Sarah's womb.
 20 He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strong in faith, giving glory to God, 21 and being fully persuaded that what God had promised, He was able to perform. 22 Therefore "it was credited to him as righteousness." ††23 Now the words,
 "it was credited to him," were not written for his sake only, 24 but also for us, to whom it shall be credited if we believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 who was delivered for our transgressions, and was raised for our justification.

†† Ps 32:1-2. ††† Ge 17:5. †† Ge 15:5. †† Ge 15:6.

Results of Justification

5 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ² through whom we also have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and so we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. ³ Not only so, but we also boast in tribulation, knowing that tribulation produces patience, ⁴ patience produces character, and character produces hope. ⁵ And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

⁶ While we were yet weak, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷ Rarely for a righteous man will one die. Yet perhaps for a good man some would even dare to die. ⁸ But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

⁹ How much more then, being now justified by His blood, shall we be saved from wrath through Him. ¹⁰ For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, how much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved by His life. ¹¹ Furthermore, we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Adam and Christ

¹² Therefore as sin came into the world through one man and death through sin, so death has spread to all men, because all have sinned.

¹³ For until the law, sin was in the world. But sin is not counted when there is no law. ¹⁴ Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of Adam's sin, who was a type of Him who was to come.

¹⁵ But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if through the trespass of one man many died, then how much more has the grace of God and the free gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abounded to many. ¹⁶ The gift is not like the result that came through the one who sinned. For the judgment from one sin led to condemnation, but the free gift, which came after many trespasses, leads to justification. ¹⁷ For if by one man's trespass death reigned through him, then how much more will those who receive abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.

¹⁹ For just as through one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the obedience of One the many will be made righteous.

²⁰ But the law entered, so that sin might increase, but where sin increased, grace abounded much more, ²¹ so that just as sin reigned in death, grace might reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin but Alive in Christ

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may increase? ² God forbid! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it? ³ Do you not know that we who were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into His death? ⁴ Therefore we were buried with Him by baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

⁵ For if we have been united with Him in the likeness of His death, so shall we also be united with Him in the likeness of His resurrection, ⁶ knowing this, that our old man has been crucified with Him, so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we should no longer be slaves to sin. ⁷ For the one who has died is freed from sin.

⁸ Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him, ⁹ knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death has no further dominion over Him. ¹⁰ For the death He died, He died to sin once for all, but the life He lives, He lives to God.

¹¹ Likewise, you also consider yourselves to be dead to sin, but alive to God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

¹² Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. ¹³ Do not yield your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but yield yourselves to God, as those who are alive from the dead, and your bodies to God as instruments of righteousness. ¹⁴ For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under the law, but under grace.

Slaves of Righteousness

¹⁵ What then? Shall we sin because we are not under the law but under grace? God forbid! ¹⁶ Do you not know that to whom you yield yourselves as slaves to obey, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness? ¹⁷ But thanks be to God, for you were slaves of sin, but you have obeyed from the heart that form of teaching to which you were entrusted, ¹⁸ and having been freed from sin, you became the slaves of righteousness.

¹⁹ I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for just as you have yielded your members as slaves to impurity and iniquity leading to more iniquity, even so now yield your members as slaves to righteousness unto holiness. ²⁰ For when you were the slaves of sin, you were free from righteousness.

²¹ What fruit did you have then from the things of which you are now ashamed? The result of those things is death. ²² But now, having been freed from sin and having become slaves of God, you have fruit unto holiness, and the end is eternal life. ²³ For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

An Analogy From Marriage

7 Do you not know, brothers (for I speak to those who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man as long as he lives? ² For the woman who has a husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he lives. But if her husband dies, she is released from the law regarding her husband. ³ So then, she will be called an adulteress if she marries another man while her husband lives. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law, so that she would not be an adulteress if she marries another man.

⁴ So, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may be married to another, to Him who has been raised from the dead, so that we may bear fruit for God. ⁵ When we were in the flesh, the passions of sin, through the law, worked in our members to bear fruit leading to death. ⁶ But now we are delivered from the law, having died to things in which we were bound, so that we may serve in newness of the Spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter of the law.

The Problem of Indwelling Sin

⁷ What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid! But I did not know sin, except through the law. I would not have known coveting if the law had not said, "You shall not covet." ⁸ But sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law sin is dead. ⁹ I was alive without the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. ¹⁰ And the commandment, which was intended for life, proved to be death in me. ¹¹ For sin, taking opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and killed me through it. ¹² So then, the law is holy and the commandment is holy and just and good.

¹³ Therefore has that which is good become death unto me? God forbid! Rather, sin, that it might be shown to be sin, was working death in me through that which is good, so that sin through the commandment might become exceedingly sinful.

¹⁴ We know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin. ¹⁵ For what I am doing, I do not understand, for I do not practice what I will to do, but I do the very thing I hate. ¹⁶ But if I practice what I do not will to do, I agree with the law that it is good. ¹⁷ So now it is no longer I that do it, but sin that dwells in me. ¹⁸ For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwells no good thing, for the will to do what is right is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. ¹⁹ For the good I desire to do, I do not do, but the evil I do not want is what I do. ²⁰ Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I who does it, but sin that lives in me.

²¹ I find then a law that when I desire to do good, evil is present with me. ²² For I delight in the law of God according to the inner man, ²³ but I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. ²⁴ O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from the body of this death? ²⁵ I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

So then, with my mind, I serve the law of God, but with my flesh, the law of sin.

Life in the Spirit

8 There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. ² For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and death. ³ For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did by sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and concerning sin, He condemned sin in the flesh, ⁴ in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

⁵ For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. ⁶ To be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace, ⁷ for the carnal mind is hostile toward God, for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can it be, ⁸ and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

⁹ You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. Now if any man does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him. ¹⁰ And if Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is alive because of righteousness. ¹¹ But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit that lives in you.

¹² Therefore, brothers, we are debtors not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. ¹³ For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if through the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. ¹⁴ For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God. ¹⁵ For you have not received the spirit of slavery again to fear. But you have received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba, Father." ¹⁶ The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirits that we are the children of God, ¹⁷ and if children, then heirs: heirs of God and joint-heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified with Him.

The Glory That Is to Be

¹⁸ For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to us. ¹⁹ The eager expectation of the creation waits for the appearance of the sons of God. ²⁰ For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but by the will of Him who subjected it, in hope ²¹ that the creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

²² We know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. ²³ Not only that, but we also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan within ourselves while eagerly waiting for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴ For we are saved through hope, but hope that is seen is not hope, for why does a man still hope for what he sees? ²⁵ But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

²⁶ Likewise, the Spirit helps us in our weaknesses, for we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. ²⁷ He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

²⁸ We know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose. ²⁹ For those whom He foreknew, He predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He might be the firstborn among many brothers. ³⁰ And those whom He predestined, He also called; and those whom He called, He also justified; and those whom He justified, He also glorified.

The Love of God

³¹ What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ³² He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things? ³³ Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. ³⁴ Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, yes, who is risen, who is also at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us. ³⁵ Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? ³⁶ As it is written:

"For Your sake we are killed all day long;
we are counted as sheep for the slaughter." †

³⁷ No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. ³⁸ For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities nor powers, neither things present nor things to come, ³⁹ neither height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

† Ps 44:22.

God's Election of Israel

⁹ I am speaking the truth in Christ, I am not lying; my conscience testifies with me in the Holy Spirit, ² that I have great sorrow and continual anguish in my heart. ³ For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers, my kinsmen by race, ⁴ who are Israelites, to whom belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service of God, and the promises, ⁵ to whom belong the patriarchs, and from whom, according to the flesh, is Christ, who is over all, God forever blessed. Amen.

⁶ It is not as though the word of God has failed. For they are not all Israel who are descended from Israel, ⁷ nor are they all children because they are descendants of Abraham, but "In Isaac shall your descendants be called." †¹⁸ So those who are the children of the flesh are not the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as descendants. ⁹ For this is the word of promise, "At this time I will come, and Sarah shall have a son." ‡

¹⁰ Not only that, but Rebekah also had conceived by one man, our father Isaac. ¹¹ For before the children had been born, having done neither evil nor good, so that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but through Him who calls, ¹² it was said to her, "The elder shall serve the younger." †¹³ As it is written, "Jacob I have loved, but Esau I have hated." ‡

¹⁴ What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid! ¹⁵ For He says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion." ††

¹⁶ So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who shows mercy. ¹⁷ For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I may show My power in you, and that My name may be proclaimed in all the earth." †††¹⁸ Therefore He has mercy on whom He wills, and He hardens whom He wills.

Wrath and Mercy of God

¹⁹ You will then say to me, "Why does He yet find fault? For who can resist His will?" ²⁰ Rather, O man, who are you to answer back to God? Shall the thing formed say to him who formed it, "Why have you made me like this?" ²¹ Does the potter not have power over the clay to make from the same lump one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?

²² What if God, willing to show His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience the vessels of wrath prepared for destruction, ²³ in order to make known the riches of His glory on the vessels of mercy, which He previously prepared for glory, †† Ge 21:12. ‡ Ge 18:10. †† Ge 25:23. †† Mal 1:2. ††† Ex 33:19. ††† Ex 9:16.

²⁴ even us, whom He has called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles? ²⁵ As indeed He says in Hosea:

“I will call those who were not My people, ‘My people,’ and her who was not beloved, ‘Beloved,’”[†]

²⁶ and,

“In the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not My people,’ there they shall be called ‘sons of the living God.’”^{††}

²⁷ Isaiah also cries out concerning Israel:

“Though the number of the children of Israel be like the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved. ‡

²⁸ For He will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness, because the Lord will make a quick work upon the earth.”^{††}

²⁹ And as Isaiah previously said:

“Unless the Lord of Hosts had left us a seed, we would have become like Sodom, and been made like Gomorrah.”[‡]

Israel and the Gospel

³⁰ What shall we say then? The Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, have attained righteousness, even the righteousness which is by faith, ³¹ but Israel, pursuing the law of righteousness, did not attain the law of righteousness. ³² Why not? Because they did not seek it by faith, but by the works of the law. For they stumbled over the stumbling stone. ³³ As it is written: “Look! I lay in Zion a stumbling stone and rock of offense, and whoever believes in Him will not be ashamed.”^{†††}

10 Brothers, my heart’s desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they may be saved. ² For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. ³ For, being ignorant of God’s righteousness and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God. ⁴ Christ is the end of the law unto righteousness for every one who believes.

Salvation for All

⁵ For Moses writes about the righteousness which is based on the law: “The man who does those things shall live by them.”^{†††} But the righteousness which is based on faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’”[§] (that is, to bring Christ down), ⁷ or, “Who will descend into the deep?”^{§†} (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). ⁸ But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart.”^{§††} This is the word of faith that we preach: ⁹ that if you confess with your mouth Jesus is Lord, and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved, ¹⁰ for with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. ¹¹ For the Scripture says, “Whoever believes in Him will not be ashamed.”^{§†12} For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is generous toward all who call upon Him. ¹³ For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”^{§††}

¹⁴ How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? ¹⁵ And how shall they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring good news of good things!”^{§†}

¹⁶ But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, “Lord, who has believed our report?”^{§†17} So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. ¹⁸ But I say, have they not heard? Yes, indeed:

“Their voice went into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.”^{§§†}

¹⁹ But I say, did Israel not know? First, Moses says:

“I will make you jealous by those who are not a nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.”^{§§†}

²⁰ And Isaiah is very bold and says:

“I was found by those who did not seek Me; I revealed myself to those who did not ask for Me.”^{§§§}

²¹ But to Israel He says:

“All day long I have stretched out My hands to a disobedient and contrary people.”¹⁸

The Remnant of Israel

11 I say then, has God rejected His people? God forbid! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. ² God has not rejected His people whom He foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel, saying, ³ “Lord, they have killed Your prophets and destroyed Your altars. I alone am left, and they seek my life?”¹⁹⁴ But what is the divine reply to him? “I have kept for Myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal.”

²⁰⁵ So then at this present time there is a remnant according to the election of grace. ⁶ And if by grace, then it is no longer by works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace. But if it is by works, then is it no longer by grace; otherwise work would no longer be work.

⁷ What then? Israel has not obtained what it was seeking. But the elect obtained it, and the rest were hardened. ⁸ As it is written:

“God has given them a spirit of slumber, eyes that would not see † Hos 2:23. †† Hos 1:10. ‡ Isa 10:22. †† Isa 10:23. †† Isa 1:9. ††† Isa 8:14; 28:16. ††† Lev 18:5. § Dt 30:12. §† Dt 30:13. §†† Dt 30:14.

and ears that would not hear,
to this very day.” †

⁹ And David says:

“Let their table become a snare and a trap,
a stumbling block and a retribution to them.

¹⁰ Let their eyes be darkened, so that they may not see,

and always bow down their backs.” ††

The Salvation of the Gentiles

¹¹ I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid! But through their transgression salvation has come to the Gentiles, to make them jealous.

¹² Now if their transgression means riches for the world, and their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their fullness mean?

¹³ For I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry, ¹⁴ if somehow I may make my kinsmen jealous and may save some of them. ¹⁵ For if their rejection means the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance mean but life from the dead? ¹⁶ If the first portion of the dough is holy, the batch is also holy. And if the root is holy, so are the branches.

¹⁷ But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among them and became a partaker with them of the root and richness of the olive tree, ¹⁸ do not boast against the branches. If you boast, remember you do not sustain the root, but the root sustains you. ¹⁹ You will say then, “The branches were broken off, so that I might be grafted in.” ²⁰ This is correct. They were broken off because of unbelief, but you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but fear. ²¹ For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will He spare you.

²² Therefore consider the goodness and severity of God—severity toward those who fell, but goodness toward you, if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off. ²³ And these also, if they do not remain in unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. ²⁴ For if you were cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, who are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

The Restoration of Israel

²⁵ For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, lest you be wise in your own estimation, for a partial hardening has come upon Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶ And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written:

“The Deliverer will come out of Zion, and He will remove ungodliness from Jacob”; ‡

²⁷ “for this is My covenant with them, when I shall take away their sins.” ††

† Isa 29:10. †† Ps 69:22–23. ‡ Isa 59:20.

²⁸ As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sake, but as regarding the election, they are beloved for the sake of the patriarchs. ²⁹ For the gifts and calling of God are irrevocable. ³⁰ For just as you once were disobedient to God, but have now received mercy through their disobedience, ³¹ so these also have now been disobedient, that they also may receive mercy by the mercy shown to you. ³² For God has imprisoned them all in disobedience, so that He might be merciful to all.

³³ O the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!

How unsearchable are His judgments
and unfathomable are His ways!

³⁴ “For who has known the mind of the Lord?

Or who has become His counselor?” ††

³⁵ “Or who has first given to Him, and it shall be repaid to him?” †††

³⁶ For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things.

To Him be glory forever! Amen.

The New Life in Christ

12 I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy, and acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service of worship. ² Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

³ For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sound judgment, according to the measure of faith God has distributed to every man. ⁴ For just as we have many parts in one body, and not all parts have the same function, ⁵ so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and all are parts of one another. ⁶ We have diverse gifts according to the grace that is given to us: if prophecy, according to the proportion of faith; ⁷ if service, in serving; he who teaches, in teaching; ⁸ he who exhorts, in exhortation; he who gives, with generosity; he who rules, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

Rules of the Christian Life

⁹ Let love be without hypocrisy. Hate what is evil. Cleave to what is good. ¹⁰ Be devoted to one another with brotherly love; prefer one another in honor, ¹¹ do not be lazy in diligence, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord, ¹² rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer, ¹³ contribute to the needs of the saints, practice hospitality.

¹⁴ Bless those who persecute you; bless, and do not curse. ¹⁵ Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. ¹⁶ Be of the same mind toward one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. Do not pretend to be wiser than you are.

¹⁷ Repay no one evil for evil. Commend what is honest in the sight of all men. ¹⁸ If it is possible, as much as it depends on you, live peaceably with all men.

¹⁹ Beloved, do not avenge yourselves, but rather give place to God's wrath, for it is written: "Vengeance is Mine. I will repay," † says the Lord. ²⁰ Therefore "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him a drink; for in doing so you will heap coals of fire on his head." ††

²¹ Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Subjection to Authorities

13 Let every person be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist are appointed by God.

² Therefore whoever resists the authority resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. ³ Rulers are not a terror to good works, but to evil works. Do you wish to have no fear of the authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from him, ⁴ for he is the servant of God for your good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain, for he is the servant of God, an avenger to execute wrath upon him who practices evil. ⁵ So it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of wrath, but also for the sake of conscience.

⁶ For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are God's servants, devoting themselves to this very thing. ⁷ Render to all what is due them: taxes to whom taxes are due, respect to whom respect is due, fear to whom fear is due, and honor to whom honor is due.

Brotherly Love

⁸ Owe no one anything, except to love one another, for he who loves another has fulfilled the law. ⁹ For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not give false testimony, You shall not covet," ‡ and if there are any other commandments, are summed up in this saying, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ††¹⁰ Love works no evil to a neighbor. Therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

The Approach of the Day of Christ

¹¹ Furthermore, knowing the time, now is the moment to awake from sleep. For now our salvation is nearer than when we believed. ¹² The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us take off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³ Let us behave properly, as in the day, not in carousing and drunkenness, not in immorality and wickedness, not in strife and envy. ¹⁴ But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh to fulfill its lusts.

Do Not Judge Your Brother

14 Welcome him who is weak in faith, but not for the purpose of arguing over opinions. ² For one has faith to eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. ³ Do not let him who eats despise him who does not eat, and do not let him who does not eat judge him who eats, for God has welcomed him. ⁴ Who are you to judge another man's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And he will stand, for God is able to make him stand.

⁵ One man judges one day above another; another judges every day alike. Let each one be fully persuaded in his own mind. ⁶ He who observes the day observes it for the Lord, and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and the one who does not eat, in honor of the Lord he does not eat, and gives thanks to God. ⁷ For none of us lives for himself, and no one dies for himself. ⁸ For if we live, we live for the Lord. And if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

⁹ For to this end Christ died and rose and lived again, so that He might be Lord of both the dead and living.

¹⁰ So why do you judge your brother? Or why do you despise your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. ¹¹ For it is written:

"As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall confess to God." ††

¹² So then each of us shall give an account of himself to God.

Do Not Make Your Brother Stumble

¹³ Therefore let us no longer pass judgment on one another, but rather determine not to put a stumbling block or an obstacle in a brother's way. ¹⁴ I know and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. ¹⁵ If your brother is grieved because of your food, you are no longer walking in love. Do not destroy with your food one for whom Christ died. ¹⁶ So do not let what is good to you be spoken of as evil. ¹⁷ For the kingdom of God does not mean eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸ For he who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God and approved by men.

¹⁹ Therefore let us pursue the things which produce peace and the things that build up one another. ²⁰ Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food. All things indeed are clean, but it is evil for the man who causes someone to fall by what he eats. ²¹ It is good neither to eat meat nor drink wine, nor do anything whereby your brother stumbles or is offended or is made weak.

²² The faith that you have, have as your own conviction before God. Happy is he who does not condemn himself in what he approves. ²³ But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it is not from faith, for whatever is not from faith is sin.

Please Others, Not Yourself

15 We who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak and not please ourselves. ² Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, leading to edification. ³ For even Christ did not please Himself. But as it is written, "The insults of those who insulted You fell on Me." ¹⁴ For whatever was previously written was written for our instruction, so that through perseverance and encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

⁵ Now may the God of perseverance and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another in accordance with Christ Jesus, ⁶ so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gospel for Jews and Gentiles Alike

⁷ Therefore welcome one another, just as Christ also welcomed us, for the glory of God. ⁸ Now I say that Jesus Christ has become a servant to the circumcised on behalf of the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the patriarchs, ⁹ and that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy, as it is written:

"For this reason I will acknowledge You among the Gentiles, and I will sing praises to Your name." ††

¹⁰ He also says:

"Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people!" ‡

¹¹ And again:

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles;
let all the peoples praise Him." ††

¹² And again Isaiah says:

"There shall be a root of Jesse;
He who shall rise to reign over the Gentiles,
in Him shall the Gentiles hope." ††

¹³ Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Paul's Missionary Commission

¹⁴ Now I myself am persuaded concerning you, my brothers, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and also able to instruct one another.

¹⁵ Nevertheless, brothers, I have written even more boldly to you on some points, to remind you, because of the grace that is given to me from God, ¹⁶ that I might be a minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

¹⁷ In Christ Jesus therefore I have reason to boast in my service to God. ¹⁸ For I will not dare to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, ¹⁹ by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that from Jerusalem and as far around as Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ. ²⁰ So I have strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, so that I should not build on another man's foundation. ²¹ But as it is written:

"To whom He was not announced, they shall see;
and those who have not heard shall understand." †††

Paul's Plan to Visit Rome

²² For this reason also I was often hindered from coming to you. ²³ But now, no longer having a place in these regions, and having a great desire for many years to come to you, ²⁴ whenever I go to Spain, I shall come to you, for I hope to see you when I pass through and to be helped on my way there by you, when I have first enjoyed your company for a little while. ²⁵ But now I am going to Jerusalem to minister to the saints. ²⁶ For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the saints who are in Jerusalem. ²⁷ It has pleased them indeed, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been partakers of their spiritual things, they also ought to minister to them in material things. ²⁸ Therefore, when I have completed this and have given this blessing to them, I shall come by way of you to Spain, ²⁹ and I know that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

³⁰ Now I ask you, brothers, through the Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf, ³¹ that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my ministry for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, ³² so that I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may be refreshed together with you. ³³ Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Personal Greetings

16 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a servant ††† of the church at Cenchrea, ² that you welcome her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the saints, and that you assist her in whatever matter she may have need of you, for she has been a helper of many and of myself as well.

††† Isa 52:15. ††† Or a deacon.

³ Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, ⁴ who risked their own necks for my life, to whom not only I, but also all the churches of the Gentiles, give thanks.

⁵ Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Greet my beloved Epaenetus, who is the first convert of Achaia for Christ.

⁶ Greet Mary, who labored much for us.

⁷ Greet Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen and fellow prisoners, who are noteworthy among the apostles, who also came to Christ before me.

⁸ Greet Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord.

⁹ Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and my beloved Stachys.

¹⁰ Greet Apelles, who is approved in Christ.

Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.

¹¹ Greet Herodion, my kinsman.

Greet those who are of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.

¹² Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord.

Greet the beloved Persis, who also labored much in the Lord.

¹³ Greet Rufus, chosen in the Lord, and his mother, who is like a mother to me.

¹⁴ Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them.

¹⁵ Greet Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.

¹⁶ Greet one another with a holy kiss.

The churches of Christ greet you.

¹⁷ Now I urge you, brothers, to closely watch those who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the teaching which you have learned, and avoid them.

¹⁸ For such people do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own appetites, and through smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting.

¹⁹ Your obedience has become known to all men.

Therefore I am glad on your behalf. Yet I want you to be wise to that which is good, and innocent to that which is evil.

²⁰ The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

²¹ Timothy, my fellow worker, and Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, greet you.

²² I, Tertius, who wrote this epistle, greet you in the Lord.

²³ Gaius, who is host to me and to the whole church, greets you.

Erastus, who is the city treasurer, and our brother Quartus greet you.

²⁴ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Doxology

²⁵ Now to Him who has power to establish you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret for long ages past, ²⁶ but now is revealed by the prophetic Scriptures according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all the Gentiles for the obedience of faith, ²⁷ to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever. Amen.

1 CORINTHIANS

The first epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians was written between AD 55 and 57 in Ephesus. This letter addresses Christian life and conduct, because some men in the church at Corinth visited him to report on the condition of the Corinthian church. Also, Paul had received a letter inquiring about doctrinal and ethical matters. This letter should be read with care in conjunction with Second Corinthians due to the fact that the second epistle addresses and resolves similar issues. The great love treatise in chapter 13 must be read in context: Love must accompany and inform the gifts of the Spirit. First Corinthians reflects the fact that the Holy Spirit dwells in our hearts, and we should live holy lives that reflect the unity, love, and holiness of God.

Greeting and Thanksgiving

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes, our brother,

² To the church of God which is at Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who in every place call on the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their Lord and ours:

⁴ I thank my God always on your behalf for the grace of God which has been given to you through Jesus Christ. ⁵ By Him you are enriched in everything, in all speech and in all knowledge, ⁶ even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, ⁷ so that you are not lacking in any gift while waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸ He will strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ God is faithful, and by Him you were called to the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Divisions in the Church

¹⁰ Now I ask you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak in agreement and that there be no divisions among you. But be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. ¹¹ For it has been declared to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

¹² Now this is what I mean: Every one of you is saying, "I am of Paul," or "I am of Apollos," or "I am of Cephas," or "I am of Christ."

¹³ Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? ¹⁴ I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵ lest any should say that I had baptized in my own name. ¹⁶ I also baptized the household of Stephanas. Besides them, I do not know whether I baptized any other. ¹⁷ For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not with eloquent words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.

Christ the Power and Wisdom of God

¹⁸ For to those who are perishing, the preaching of the cross is foolishness, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹ For it is written:

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent." †

²⁰ Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has God not made the wisdom of this world foolish? ²¹ For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe. ²² For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom. ²³ But we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to the Jews and foolishness to the Greeks. ²⁴ But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, we preach Christ as the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵ For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

²⁷ But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise. God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty.

²⁸ And God has chosen the base things of the world and things which are despised. Yes, and He chose things which did not exist to bring to nothing things that do, ²⁹ so that no flesh should boast in His presence. ³⁰ But because of Him you are in Christ Jesus, whom God made unto us wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption. ³¹ Therefore, as it is written, "Let him who boasts, boast in the Lord." ††

† Isa 29:14. †† Jer 9:24.

Proclaiming Christ Crucified

2 Brothers, when I came to you, I did not come with superiority of speech or wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God. ² For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. ³ I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. ⁴ My speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, ⁵ so that your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

The Revelation by God's Spirit

⁶ Yet we speak wisdom among those who are mature, although not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. ⁷ But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the ages for our glory. ⁸ None of the rulers of this age knew it. For had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹ But as it is written,

"Eye has not seen,
nor ear heard,
nor has it entered into the heart of man
the things which God has prepared for those who love Him." †

¹⁰ But God has revealed them to us by His Spirit.

For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. ¹¹ For what man knows the things of a man, except the spirit of man which is in him? Likewise, no one knows the things of God, except the Spirit of God. ¹² Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, so that we might know the things that are freely given to us by God. ¹³ These things also we proclaim, not in the words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

¹⁴ But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. ¹⁵ But he who is spiritual judges all things. Yet he himself is not judged by anyone. ¹⁶ For

"who has known the mind of the Lord that he may instruct Him?" ††

But we have the mind of Christ.

Fellow Servants of God

3 Brothers, I could not speak to you as to spiritual men, but as to worldly, even as to babes in Christ. ² I have fed you with milk and not with solid food. For to this day you were not able to endure it. Nor are you able now, ³ for you are still worldly. Since there is envy, strife, and divisions among you, are you not worldly and behaving as mere men? ⁴ For while one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not worldly?

⁵ Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to each one? ⁶ I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. ⁷ So then neither is he who plants nor he who waters anything, but God who gives the increase. ⁸ Now he who plants and he who waters are one, and each one will receive his own reward according to his own labor. ⁹ For we are laborers together with God: You are God's vineyard; you are God's building.

¹⁰ According to the grace of God which has been given to me, as a wise master builder, I have laid the foundation, but another builds on it. Now let each one take heed how he builds on it. ¹¹ For no one can lay another foundation than that which was laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹² Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or stubble, ¹³ each one's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each has done. ¹⁴ If anyone's work which he has built on the foundation endures, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵ If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss. But he himself will be saved, still going through the fire.

¹⁶ Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? ¹⁷ If anyone defiles the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy. And you are His temple.

¹⁸ Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this world, let him become a fool that he may be wise. ¹⁹ For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their own craftiness," ‡²⁰ and again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain." ††²¹ Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours: ²² whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or things present or things to come, all are yours, ²³ and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

The Ministry of the Apostles

4 Let a man so regard us as the ministers of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. ² Moreover it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful. ³ But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by man's judgment. I do not even judge myself. ⁴ For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this. But He who judges me is the Lord. ⁵ Therefore judge nothing before the appointed time until the Lord comes. He will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and will reveal the purposes of the hearts. Then everyone will have commendation from God.

⁶ Brothers, I have figuratively applied these things to myself and to Apollos for your sakes, so that you may learn from us not to think of men above that which is written, and that not one of you would be arrogant for one against another. ⁷ For who makes you differ from another? And what do you have that you did not receive? Now if you received it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

† Isa 64:4. †† Isa 40:13.

‡ Job 5:13. †† Ps 94:11.

⁸ Now you are full, now you are rich; you have begun reigning as kings without us, and I wish to God you reigned, so that we also might reign with you. ⁹ For I think that God has exhibited us, the apostles, last, as if we were sentenced to death. For we have been made a spectacle to the world, to angels and to men. ¹⁰ We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are honorable, but we are despised. ¹¹ Even to this present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are poorly clothed and beaten and homeless. ¹² We labor, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure. ¹³ Being slandered, we encourage. We are made as the filth of the world, and are the refuse of all things to this day.

¹⁴ I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. ¹⁵ For if you were to have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers. In Christ Jesus I have become a father to you through the gospel. ¹⁶ So I implore you, be followers of me. ¹⁷ Therefore I have sent Timothy to you. He is my beloved son and is faithful in the Lord. He will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach everywhere in every church.

¹⁸ Now some are arrogant, as though I were not coming to you. ¹⁹ But I will come to you shortly if the Lord wills. And I will know not only what those who are arrogant are saying, but also their power. ²⁰ For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. ²¹ What do you desire? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and in the spirit of meekness?

Judgment Against Immorality

5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles, that a man has his father's wife. ² But you are arrogant. Instead you should have mourned, so that he who has done this deed might be removed from among you. ³ For indeed, though absent in body but present in spirit, I have already, as if I were present, judged him who has done this deed, ⁴ in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. When you are assembled, along with my spirit, in the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, ⁵ deliver him to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that the spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord Jesus. ⁶ Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole batch? ⁷ Therefore purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new batch, since you are unleavened. For even Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed for us. ⁸ Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, nor with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

⁹ I wrote to you in my letter not to keep company with sexually immoral people. ¹⁰ Yet I did not mean the sexually immoral people of this world, or the covetous and extortioners, or the idolaters, since you would then need to go out of the world. ¹¹ But I have written to you not to keep company with any man who is called a brother, who is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner. Do not even eat with such a person.

¹² For what have I to do with judging those also who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside? ¹³ But God judges those who are outside. Therefore "put away from among yourselves that wicked person." †

Going to Law Before Unbelievers

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to the law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? ² Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? If the world will be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? ³ Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more the things that pertain to this life? ⁴ If then you have judgments dealing with matters of this life, do you appoint as judges those who are least esteemed in the church? ⁵ I speak to your shame. Is it true that there is not even one wise man among you who shall be able to judge between his brothers? ⁶ But brother goes to the law against brother, and before unbelievers, at that.

⁷ Now therefore it is already an utter failure for you that you go to law against one another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded? ⁸ But you yourselves do wrong and defraud, and do this to your brothers.

⁹ Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals, ¹⁰ nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹ Such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, and you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus by the Spirit of our God.

Glorify God in Your Body

¹² "All things are lawful to me," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of anything. ¹³ "Food is for the belly, and the belly is for food," but God will destroy both of them. Now the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. ¹⁴ God has raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by His own power. ¹⁵ Do you not know that your bodies are the parts of Christ? Shall I then take the parts of Christ and make them the parts of a harlot? God forbid! ¹⁶ What? Do you not know that he who is joined to a harlot is one body with her? For “the two,” He says, “shall become one flesh.” ¹⁷ But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him.

¹⁸ Escape from sexual immorality. Every sin that a man commits is outside the body. But he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body.

¹⁹ What? Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God, and that you are not your own?

²⁰ You were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God’s.

Questions About Marriage

7 Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me: “It is good for a man not to touch a woman.” ² Nevertheless, because of sexual immorality, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. ³ Let the husband render to the wife due affection, and likewise the wife to the husband. ⁴ The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. Likewise, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. ⁵ Do not deprive one another except with consent for a time, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer. Then come together again, so that Satan does not tempt you for lack of self-control. ⁶ I speak this as a concession and not as a command. ⁷ For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man has his proper gift from God, one after this manner and another after that.

⁸ I say to the unmarried and widows that it is good for them if they live even as I am. ⁹ But if they cannot restrain themselves, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

¹⁰ Now to the married I command, not I, but the Lord, do not let the wife depart from her husband.

¹¹ But if she departs, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband. And do not let the husband divorce his wife.

¹² To the rest I speak, not the Lord: If any brother has an unbelieving wife who consents to live with him, he should not divorce her. ¹³ And if the woman has an unbelieving husband who consents to live with her, she should not divorce him. ¹⁴ For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband. Otherwise, your children would be unclean. But now they are holy.

¹⁵ But if the unbeliever departs, let that one depart. A brother or a sister is not bound in such cases. God has called us to peace. ¹⁶ For how do you know, O wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, O husband, whether you will save your wife?

Living as God Called You

¹⁷ But as God has given to every man and as the Lord has called every man, so let him walk. This I command in all churches. ¹⁸ Is any man called while circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Is any man called while uncircumcised? Let him not be circumcised.

¹⁹ Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God is everything. ²⁰ Let each man remain in the same condition in which he was called. ²¹ Were you called while a servant? Do not worry about it. But if you may become free, do so. ²² For he who is called in the Lord while a servant is the Lord’s freeman. Likewise, he who is called while free is Christ’s servant. ²³ You were bought at a price. Do not be the servants of men. ²⁴ Brothers, let every man, in whatever condition he is called, remain there with God.

The Unmarried and Widows

²⁵ Now concerning virgins, I have no command from the Lord. Yet I will give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be faithful. ²⁶ I suppose therefore that this is good because of the present distress, that it is good for a man to remain as he is. ²⁷ Are you committed to a wife? Do not seek to be uncommitted. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. ²⁸ But if you marry, you have not sinned. And if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless they will have trouble in this life, but I would spare you that.

²⁹ But this I say, brothers, the time is short. It remains that those who have wives should be as though they had none; ³⁰ those who weep, as though they did not weep; those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; those who buy, as though they possessed nothing; ³¹ and those who use this world, as though they did not make full use of it. For the form of this world is passing away.

³² But I prefer that you have no concern. He who is unmarried cares for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord. ³³ But he who is married cares for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.

³⁴ There is a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. ³⁵ I say this for your own benefit, not to put any restraint upon you, but for what is proper, and that you may serve the Lord without distraction.

³⁶ If any man thinks that he is behaving improperly toward his virgin, ^{††} and if she is past the flower of her youth, and passions so require, let him do what he will. He does not sin. Let them marry. ³⁷ Nevertheless he who stands steadfast in his heart without necessity, and has power over his own will, and has so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, does well. ³⁸ So then he who gives her in marriage does well, but he who gives her not in marriage does better.

³⁹ The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband lives. But if her husband dies, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will, but only in the Lord.

⁴⁰ But in my judgment she is happier if she so remains as she is. And I think that I have the Spirit of God.

Food Offered to Idols

8 Now as concerning food offered to idols: We know that "we all have knowledge." Knowledge produces arrogance, but love edifies. ² So if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know. ³ But if anyone loves God, this one is known by Him.

⁴ So concerning the eating of foods that are offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one.

⁵ For there are those who are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, as there are many gods and many lords. ⁶ But for us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist. And there is one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.

⁷ However, not everyone has this knowledge. Some, being accustomed to the idol until now, eat the food as a thing offered to an idol. So their weak conscience is defiled. ⁸ But food does not commend us to God. Neither if we eat are we the better, nor if we do not eat are we the worse.

⁹ But take heed, lest by any means this liberty of yours becomes a stumbling block to those who are weak. ¹⁰ For if anyone sees you, who have knowledge, eating in the idol's temple, shall the conscience of him who is weak not be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols, ¹¹ and by your knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died? ¹² When you thus sin against the brothers, wounding their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. ¹³ Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat, lest I cause my brother to stumble.

The Rights of an Apostle

9 Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? ² If I am not an apostle to others, yet indeed I am to you. For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

³ This is my answer to those who examine me. ⁴ Do we have no right to eat and to drink? ⁵ Do we not have the right to take along a believing wife as do other apostles, the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? ⁶ Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to refrain from working?

⁷ Who goes to war at any time at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, but does not eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, but does not drink of the flock's milk? ⁸ Do I say these things as a man? Or does the law not say the same thing also? ⁹ For it is written in the Law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle the mouth of the ox while it treads out the grain." [†] Is God concerned about oxen? ¹⁰ Or does He say it completely for our sake? For our sake, no doubt, this is written so that he who plows should plow in hope, and that he who threshes in hope should partake of his hope. ¹¹ If we have sown for you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your material things? ¹² If others partake of this right over you, should not we instead?

Nevertheless, we have not used this right, but suffer all things, lest we might hinder the gospel of Christ.

¹³ Do you not know that those who minister unto holy things live from the things of the temple? And do you not know that those who wait at the altar partake of the altar? ¹⁴ In the same way, the Lord has ordained that those who preach the gospel should live from the gospel.

¹⁵ But I have used none of these rights, nor have I written these things that it should be so done to me. For it would be better for me to die than allow anyone to make my boasting void. ¹⁶ Though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for the requirement is laid upon me. Yes, woe unto me if I do not preach the gospel! ¹⁷ So if I do this willingly, I have a reward, but if against my will, I have been entrusted with a commission. ¹⁸ What is my reward then? Truly that when I preach the gospel, I may present the gospel of Christ without charge, so that I may not abuse my authority in the gospel.

¹⁹ For though I am free from all men, I have made myself servant to all, that I might win even more. ²⁰ To the Jews, I became as a Jew, that I might win the Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might win those who are under the law; ²¹ to those who are outside the law, as outside the law (being not without God's law, but under Christ's law) that I might win those who are outside the law. ²² To the weak, I became as weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. ²³ This I do for the gospel's sake, that I might partake of it with you.

²⁴ Do you not know that all those who run in a race run, but one receives the prize? So run, that you may obtain it. ²⁵ Everyone who strives for the prize exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible one. ²⁶ So, therefore, I run, not with uncertainty. So I fight, not as one who beats the air. ²⁷ But I bring and keep my body under subjection, lest when preaching to others I myself should be disqualified.

† Dt 25:4.

Warning Against Idolatry

10 I would not want you to be unaware that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, ² and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; ³ all ate the same spiritual food; ⁴ and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them, and that Rock was Christ. ⁵ But with many of them God was not well pleased, and they were overthrown in the wilderness.

⁶ Now these things were our examples to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they lusted. ⁷ Neither be idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to revel." ⁸ Neither let us commit sexual immorality as some of them committed, when twenty-three thousand fell in one day. ⁹ Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted and were destroyed by serpents. ¹⁰ Neither murmur, as some of them also murmured and were destroyed by the destroyer.

¹¹ Now all these things happened to them for examples. They are written as an admonition to us, upon whom the end of the ages has come. ¹² Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed, lest he fall. ¹³ No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. God is faithful, and He will not permit you to be tempted above what you can endure, but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that you may be able to bear it.

¹⁴ So, my beloved, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵ I speak as to wise men. Judge for yourselves what I say. ¹⁶ The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? ¹⁷ For we, being many, are one bread and one body, for we are all partakers of that one bread.

¹⁸ Consider Israel after the flesh: Are not those who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? ¹⁹ What am I saying then, that the idol is anything or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything? ²⁰ But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God. I do not want you to have fellowship with demons. ²¹ You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot be partakers of the Lord's table and of the table of demons. ²² Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

Do All to the Glory of God

²³ "All things are lawful for me," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things edify. ²⁴ Let no one seek his own, but each one the other's well-being.

† Ex 32:6.

²⁵ Eat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking no question for the sake of conscience, ²⁶ for "The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it." ††

²⁸ But if anyone says to you, "This was offered in sacrifice to idols," do not eat it for the sake of him that mentioned it and for the sake of conscience, for "The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it." †²⁹ Conscience, I say, not your own, but that of the other. For why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience? ³⁰ If I partake with thankfulness, why am I slandered concerning that for which I give thanks?

³¹ Therefore, whether you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do it all to the glory of God. ³² Give no offense, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God, ³³ just as I try to please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

11 Follow me as I follow Christ.

Covering the Head in Worship

² I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things and keep the traditions as I delivered them to you.

¹¹ Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, nor the woman without the man in the Lord. ¹² For just as the woman came from the man, so the man comes through the woman, but all things come from God.

¹³ Judge for yourselves. Is it proper for a woman to pray to God uncovered? ¹⁴ Does even nature itself not teach you that if a man has long hair it is a shame to him? ¹⁵ But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given her for a covering. ¹⁶ But if anyone seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, nor have the churches of God.

†† Ps 24:1. ‡ Ps 24:1.

Abuses at the Lord's Supper

¹⁷ Now in what I have to say to you, I do not praise you. You have come together not for the better, but for the worse. ¹⁸ First of all, when you come together as the church, I hear that there are divisions among you, and in part I believe it. ¹⁹ For there must also be factions among you so that those who are genuine may become evident among you. ²⁰ Therefore when you come together into one place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper. ²¹ For in eating, each one eats his own supper ahead of others. One goes hungry, and another becomes drunk. ²² What? Do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and shame those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.

The Lord's Supper

²³ I have received of the Lord that which I delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus, on the night in which He was betrayed, took bread. ²⁴ When He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take and eat. This is My body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of Me." ^{†25} In the same manner He took the cup after He had supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." ^{††26} As often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.

Partaking of the Supper Unworthily

²⁷ Therefore whoever eats this bread and drinks this cup of the Lord unworthily will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸ Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. ²⁹ For he who eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. ³⁰ For this reason many are weak and unhealthy among you, and many die. ³¹ If we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged. ³² But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord, so that we would not be condemned with the world.

³³ So, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. ³⁴ If anyone hungers, let him eat at home, so that you may not come together into condemnation.

I will set the rest in order when I come.

Spiritual Gifts

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. ² You know that you were Gentiles, carried away to these dumb idols, however you were led. ³ Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus be cursed!" And no one can say, "Jesus is the Lord," except by the Holy Spirit.

⁴ There are various gifts, but the same Spirit. ⁵ There are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. ⁶ There are various operations, but it is the same God who operates all of them in all people.

⁷ But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to everyone for the common good. ⁸ To one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom, to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit, ⁹ to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healings by the same Spirit, ¹⁰ to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, and to another the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹ But that one and very same Spirit works all these, dividing to each one individually as He will.

One Body With Many Members

¹² For as the body is one and has many parts, and all the many parts of that one body are one body, so also is Christ. ¹³ For by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body, whether we are Jews or Gentiles, whether we are slaves or free, and we have all been made to drink of one Spirit.

¹⁴ The body is not one part, but many. ¹⁵ If the foot says, "Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? ¹⁶ And if the ear says, "Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body," is it therefore not of the body? ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? ¹⁸ But now God has established the parts, every one of them, in the body as it has pleased Him. ¹⁹ If they were all one part, where would the body be? ²⁰ So there are many parts, yet one body.

²¹ The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." ²² No, those parts of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. ²³ And those parts of the body which we think are less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor. And our less respectable parts are treated with much more respect, ²⁴ whereas our more respectable parts have no need of this. But God has composed the body, having given more abundant honor to that part which lacks it, ²⁵ so that there should be no division in the body, but that the parts should have the same care for one another. ²⁶ If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it, and if one part is honored, all the parts rejoice with it.

²⁷ Now you are the body of Christ and members individually. ²⁸ God has put these in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various tongues. ²⁹ Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles? ³⁰ Do all have the gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues?

† Mt 26:26; Mk 14:22; Lk 22:19. †† Mt 26:27-28; Mk 14:24; Lk 22:20.

Do all interpret? ³¹ But earnestly covet the greater gifts.

Love

Yet I show you a more excellent way.

13 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I have become as sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. ² If I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing. ³ If I give all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, and have not love, it profits me nothing.

⁴ Love suffers long and is kind; love envies not; love flaunts not itself and is not puffed up, ⁵ does not behave itself improperly, seeks not its own, is not easily provoked, thinks no evil; ⁶ rejoices not in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; ⁷ bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, and endures all things.

⁸ Love never fails. But if there are prophecies, they shall fail; if there are tongues, they shall cease; and if there is knowledge, it shall vanish. ⁹ For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. ¹⁰ But when that which is perfect comes, then that which is imperfect shall pass away. ¹¹ When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, and I thought as a child. But when I became a man, I put away childish things. ¹² For now we see as through a glass, dimly, but then, face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know, even as I also am known.

¹³ So now abide faith, hope, and love, these three. But the greatest of these is love.

Tongues and Prophecy

14 Follow after love and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. ² For he who speaks in an unknown tongue does not speak to men, but to God. For no one understands him, although in the spirit, he speaks mysteries. ³ But he who prophesies speaks to men for their edification and exhortation and comfort. ⁴ He who speaks in an unknown tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. ⁵ I desire that you all speak in tongues, but even more that you prophesy. For greater is he who prophesies than he who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may receive edification.

⁶ Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you by revelation or knowledge or prophesying or doctrine? ⁷ Even when things without life give sound, whether flute or harp, how will it be known what is played unless they give a distinction in the sounds? ⁸ If the trumpet makes an uncertain sound, who will prepare himself for the battle? ⁹ So also you, unless with the tongue you speak words easy to understand, how will it be known what is spoken? For you shall speak into the air. ¹⁰ There are, it may be, so many kinds of languages in the world, and none of them is without significance. ¹¹ Therefore, if I do not know the meaning of the speech, I shall be a barbarian to him who speaks, and he who speaks will be a barbarian to me. ¹² So, seeing that you are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that you may excel to the edifying of the church.

¹³ Let him who speaks in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴ For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. ¹⁵ What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding. ¹⁶ Otherwise, when you bless with the spirit, how will he who occupies the place of the unlearned say "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he does not understand what you say? ¹⁷ For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not edified.

¹⁸ I thank my God that I speak in tongues more than you all. ¹⁹ Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

²⁰ Brothers, do not be children in your thinking; rather be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature. ²¹ In the law it is written:

"With men of other tongues and other lips

I will speak to this people;

but even then they will not hear Me," †
says the Lord.

²² So tongues are for a sign, not to believers, but to unbelievers. But prophesying does not serve unbelievers, but believers. ²³ Therefore if the whole church assembles in one place and all speak with tongues, and those who are unlearned or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your mind? ²⁴ But if all prophesy and there comes in one who does not believe or one unlearned, he is convinced by all and judged by all. ²⁵ Thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. And so falling down on his face, he will worship God and report that God is truly among you.

All Things to Be Done in Order

²⁶ How is it then, brothers? When you come together, every one of you has a psalm, a teaching, a tongue, a revelation, and an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification. ²⁷ If anyone speaks in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and each in turn, and let one interpret. ²⁸ But if there is no interpreter, let him remain silent in the church, and let him speak to himself and to God.

²⁹ Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others judge. ³⁰ If anything is revealed to another that sits by, let the first keep silent. ³¹ For you may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be encouraged. ³² The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. ³³ For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

³⁴ Let your women remain silent in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak. They are commanded to be under obedience, as the law also says. ³⁵ If they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home, for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

³⁶ What? Did the word of God come from you? Or did it come to you only? ³⁷ If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that what I am writing you is a command of the Lord. ³⁸ But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

³⁹ Therefore, brothers, eagerly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. ⁴⁰ Let all things be done decently and in order.

The Resurrection of Christ

15 Now, brothers, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which you have received, and in which you stand. ² Through it you are saved, if you keep in memory what I preached to you, unless you have believed in vain.

³ For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: how Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴ was buried, rose again the third day according to the Scriptures, ⁵ and was seen by Cephas, and then by the twelve. ⁶ Then He was seen by over five hundred brothers at once, of whom the greater part remain to this present time, though some have passed away. ⁷ Then He was seen by James and then by all the apostles. ⁸ Last of all, He was seen by me also, as by one born at the wrong time.

⁹ For I am the least of the apostles and am not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰ But by the grace of God I am what I am. And His grace toward me was not in vain. I labored more abundantly than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. ¹¹ Therefore, whether it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

The Resurrection of the Dead

¹² Now if Christ is preached that He rose from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³ If there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not risen. ¹⁴ If Christ has not risen, then our preaching is vain, and your faith is also vain. ¹⁵ Yes, and we would then be found false witnesses of God, because we have testified that God raised up Christ, whom He did not raise up, if in fact the dead do not rise. ¹⁶ For if the dead do not rise, then Christ has not been raised. ¹⁷ If Christ is not raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. ¹⁸ Then they also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. ¹⁹ If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

²⁰ But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹ For since death came by man, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. ²² For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive. ²³ But every man in his own order: Christ the first fruits; afterward, those who are Christ's at His coming. ²⁴ Then comes the end when He will deliver up the kingdom to God the Father, when He puts an end to all rule and all authority and power. ²⁵ For He will reign until He has put all enemies under His feet. ²⁶ The last enemy that will be destroyed is death. ²⁷ For He "has put all things under His feet." [†] But when He says, "all things are put under Him," it is revealed that He, who has put all things under Him, is the exception. ²⁸ When all things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself will also be subject to Him who put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.

²⁹ Otherwise, what will they do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead do not rise at all? Why are they then baptized for the dead? ³⁰ And why do we stand in danger every hour? ³¹ I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. ³² If, in the manner of men, I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me if the dead do not rise?

"Let us eat and drink,
for tomorrow we die." ^{††}

³³ Do not be deceived: "Bad company corrupts good morals." ³⁴ Awake to righteousness and do not sin, for some do not have the knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

The Resurrection Body

³⁵ But someone will say, "How are the dead raised up? With what body do they come?" ³⁶ You fool! What you sow is not made alive unless it dies. ³⁷ When you sow, you do not sow the body that shall be, but a bare kernel, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. ³⁸ Then God gives it a body as He pleases, and to each seed its own body. ³⁹ All flesh is not the same flesh. There is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fish, and another of birds. ⁴⁰ There are also celestial bodies and terrestrial bodies. The glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another. ⁴¹ There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars. One star differs from another star in glory.

⁴² So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. ⁴³ It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. ⁴⁴ It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body.

There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. ⁴⁵ So it is written, "The first man Adam was made a living soul." [‡] The last Adam was made a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶ However, that which is spiritual is not first, but the natural, and then the spiritual. ⁴⁷ The first man was of the earth, made of dust; the second man was the Lord from heaven. ⁴⁸ As was the man of dust, so are those who are of dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven. ⁴⁹ As we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the man of heaven.

⁵⁰ Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does corruption inherit incorruption. ⁵¹ Listen, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed. ⁵² In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet, for the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. ⁵³ For this corruptible will put on incorruption, and this mortal will put on immortality. ⁵⁴ When this corruptible will have put on incorruption, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then the saying that is written shall come to pass: "Death is swallowed up in victory." †

⁵⁵ "O death, where is your sting?

O grave, where is your victory?" ††

⁵⁶ The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law. ⁵⁷ But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!

⁵⁸ Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

The Contribution for the Saints

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given instruction to the churches of Galatia, so even you must do. ² On the first day of the week let every one of you lay in store, as God has prospered him, so that no collections be made when I come. ³ And when I come, I will send whomever you approve with your letters to take your generous gifts to Jerusalem. ⁴ If it is fitting that I go also, they will go with me.

Paul's Plans for Travel

⁵ Now I will come to you after I pass through Macedonia. For I will pass through Macedonia. ⁶ It may be that I will remain, of course, and spend the winter with you, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. ⁷ For I do not wish to see you now in passing. Instead, I trust to remain a while with you, if the Lord permits. ⁸ But I will remain at Ephesus until Pentecost. ⁹ For a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.

¹⁰ Now if Timothy comes, see that he may remain with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. ¹¹ Therefore let no one despise him. But send him on his way in peace, that he may come to me. I am expecting him with the brothers.

¹² As for our brother Apollos, I greatly wanted him to come to you with the brothers. But he was not willing at all to come at this time. However, he will come when he has a convenient time.

¹³ Watch, stand fast in the faith, be bold like men, and be strong. ¹⁴ Let all that you do be done with love.

¹⁵ You know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to the ministry of the saints. So I ask you, brothers, ¹⁶ that you submit yourselves to such people, and to everyone who helps and labors with us. ¹⁷ I am happy about the arrival of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus, for they supplied what was lacking on your part. ¹⁸ They have refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge these men.

Final Request and Greetings

¹⁹ The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Lord, with the church that is in their house. ²⁰ All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹ I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand.

²² If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. Come, O Lord!

²³ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

²⁴ My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 CORINTHIANS

The second epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians was written in about AD 55 or 56, a year or so after Paul wrote First Corinthians. Paul wrote Second Corinthians somewhere in Macedonia, perhaps from Philippi. The purpose of this letter was to comfort those who repented after reading his rebukes in First Corinthians, as well as to warn against following false apostles. This follow-up letter should be read after First Corinthians in order to see the continuity between the two letters. Second Corinthians is a relational letter with great insights regarding the restoration of fallen individuals and general warnings to the Christians in Corinth. It also presents Paul in defense of his own humble ministry in the face of more dazzling (false) apostles. Experience the compassion of Paul the Apostle after he administered discipline in First Corinthians. But also heed his warning: Do not be led astray from the humble heart of the Gospel.

Salutation

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
To the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia:
² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul's Thanksgiving After Affliction

³ Blessed be God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,
⁴ who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble by the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. ⁵ As the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds through Christ. ⁶ If we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effective in enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer. Or if we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. ⁷ Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that as you partake in the sufferings, so also you will partake of the consolation.

⁸ For we would not, brothers, have you ignorant of our troubles which came to us in Asia. We were pressured beyond measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of life. ⁹ We had the sentence of death in ourselves, so that we would not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead. ¹⁰ He delivered us from so great a death and does deliver us. In Him we trust that He will still deliver us, ¹¹ as you help together by praying for us, so that thanks may be given by many on our behalf for the gift bestowed upon us by means of many persons.

Paul's Travel Plans Change

¹² For our rejoicing is this: The testimony of our conscience is that we conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you, in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God. ¹³ For we write nothing else to you than what you read or understand. And I trust you will understand even to the end, ¹⁴ as you have understood us in part, that we are yours, boasting even as you are ours on the day of the Lord Jesus.

¹⁵ In this confidence I planned to come to you before, that you might have a second benefit: ¹⁶ to visit you while going to Macedonia, and to come again to you from Macedonia, and then be sent by you on my way to Judea. ¹⁷ Therefore, when I was planning this, did I do this lightly? Or the things that I plan, do I plan according to the flesh, so that I would tell you "Yes, yes" and "No, no"?

¹⁸ But as God is true, we did not tell you "Yes" and "No." ¹⁹ For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by Silas, Timothy, and me, was not "Yes" and "No." In Him it was "Yes." ²⁰ For all the promises of God in Him are "Yes," and in Him "Amen," to the glory of God through us. ²¹ Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and has anointed us is God, ²² who also has sealed us and established the guarantee with the Spirit in our hearts.

²³ Moreover I call God as a witness upon my soul, that it is to spare you that I have not yet gone to Corinth. ²⁴ Not that we have dominion over your faith, but we are fellow workers for your joy, for by faith you stand.

2 But I determined this for myself, that I would not come again to you in sorrow. ² For if I make you sorrowful, who then will there be to make me rejoice, but the one whom I have made sorrowful? ³ I wrote concerning this matter to you, so that when I came, I would not be grieved by those in whom I ought to rejoice, having confidence in you all, that my joy is your joy. ⁴ For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly for you.

Forgiveness for the Offender

⁵ But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me, but to some extent all of you, not to put it too severely. ⁶ This punishment which was inflicted by many on such a man is sufficient. ⁷ So on the contrary, you ought to forgive him and comfort him, lest perhaps he might be swallowed up with excessive sorrow. ⁸ Therefore I ask you to confirm your love toward him. ⁹ For to this end I also wrote, so that I might know that you are proving yourselves by whether you are being obedient in all things. ¹⁰ Whomever you forgive anything, I also forgive. For if I forgave someone anything, for your sakes I forgave it in Christ, ¹¹ lest Satan should take advantage of us. For we are not ignorant of his devices.

Paul's Anxiety in Troas

¹² Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened to me by the Lord, ¹³ I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother. So taking my leave of them, I went from there into Macedonia.

¹⁴ Now thanks be to God who always causes us to triumph in Christ and through us reveals the fragrance of His knowledge in every place. ¹⁵ For we are to God a sweet fragrance of Christ among those who are saved and among those who perish. ¹⁶ To the one we are the fragrance of death, which brings death, and to the other the fragrance of life, which brings life. Who is sufficient for these things? ¹⁷ For we are not as many are who peddle the word of God. Instead, being sent by God, we sincerely speak in Christ in the sight of God.

Ministers of the New Covenant

3 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as some others, letters of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

² You are our letter written in our hearts, known and read by all men. ³ For you are prominently declared to be the letter of Christ, prepared by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on human tablets of the heart.

⁴ We have such trust through Christ toward God, ⁵ not that we are sufficient in ourselves to take credit for anything of ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God, ⁶ who has made us able ministers of the new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

⁷ If the ministry that brought death, written and engraved on stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not look intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his countenance, the glory which was to fade away, ⁸ how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious? ⁹ For if the ministry of condemnation is glorious, the ministry of righteousness much more exceeds it in glory. ¹⁰ Even that which was made glorious had no glory in comparison to the glory that excels. ¹¹ For if that which fades was glorious, that which remains is much more glorious.

¹² Seeing then that we have such hope, we speak with great boldness, ¹³ not as Moses, who put a veil over his face, so that the children of Israel could not look intently at the end of what was fading away. ¹⁴ Instead, their minds were blinded. For until this day the same veil remains unlifted in the reading of the old covenant, the veil which was done away with in Christ. ¹⁵ But even to this day, when Moses is read, the veil is in their hearts. ¹⁶ Nevertheless when anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷ Now the Lord is the Spirit. And where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. ¹⁸ But we all, seeing the glory of the Lord with unveiled faces, as in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory by the Spirit of the Lord.

Treasure in Earthen Vessels

4 Therefore, since we have this ministry through the mercy we have received, we do not lose heart. ² But we have renounced the secret things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor handling the word of God deceitfully, but by expressing the truth and commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. ³ But if our gospel is hidden, it is hidden to those who are lost. ⁴ The god of this world has blinded the minds of those who do not believe, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine on them. ⁵ For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake. ⁶ For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

⁷ But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, the excellency of the power being from God and not from ourselves. ⁸ We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; ⁹ persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; ¹⁰ and always carrying around in the body the death of the Lord Jesus, that also the life of Jesus might be expressed in our bodies. ¹¹ For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that also the life of Jesus might be manifested in our mortal flesh. ¹² So then, death works in us, but life in you.

¹³ We have the same spirit of faith. As it is written, "I believed, and therefore I have spoken." [†] So we also believe and therefore speak, ¹⁴ knowing that He who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us through Jesus and will present us with you. ¹⁵ All these things are for your sakes, so that the abundant grace through the thanksgiving of many might overflow to the glory of God.

[†] Ps 116:10, LXX (Septuagint).

Living by Faith

¹⁶ For this reason we do not lose heart: Even though our outward man is perishing, yet our inward man is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷ Our light affliction, which lasts but for a moment, works for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, ¹⁸ while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 We know that if our earthly house, this tent, were to be destroyed, we have an eternal building of God in the heavens, a house not made with hands. ² In this one we groan, earnestly desiring to be sheltered with our house which is from heaven. ³ Thus being sheltered, we shall not be found unsheltered. ⁴ For we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we wish to be unclothed, but to be further clothed, so that what is mortal might be swallowed up by life. ⁵ Now He who has created us for this very thing is God, who also has given to us the guarantee of the Spirit.

⁶ Therefore we are always confident, knowing that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord. ⁷ For we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸ Instead, I say that we are confident and willing to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord. ⁹ So whether present or absent, we labor that we may be accepted by Him. ¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive his recompense in the body, according to what he has done, whether it was good or bad.

The Ministry of Reconciliation

¹¹ Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men. But we are revealed to God, and I trust we are also revealed in your consciences. ¹² For we are not commending ourselves again to you. Instead, we give you occasion to boast on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance and not in heart. ¹³ If we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴ For the love of Christ constrains us, because we thus judge: that if one died for all, then all have died. ¹⁵ And He died for all, that those who live should not from now on live for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.

¹⁶ So from now on we do not regard anyone according to the flesh. Yes, though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet we do not regard Him as such from now on. ¹⁷ Therefore, if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature. Old things have passed away. Look, all things have become new. ¹⁸ All this is from God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation, ¹⁹ that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their sins against them, and has entrusted to us the message of reconciliation. ²⁰ So we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us. We implore you in Christ's stead: Be reconciled to God. ²¹ God made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

6 As workers together with God, we ask you not to receive the grace of God in vain. ² For He says: "In an acceptable time I have listened to you, and in the day of salvation I have helped you." † Look, now is the accepted time; look, now is the day of salvation.

³ We give no offense in anything, that our service may not be blamed. ⁴ But in all things we commend ourselves as servants of God: in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distress, ⁵ in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, and in hunger; ⁶ by purity, by knowledge, by patience, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by genuine love, ⁷ by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, ⁸ by honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; ⁹ as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and look, we live; as punished, but not killed; ¹⁰ as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; and as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

¹¹ O Corinthians, we have spoken frankly to you; our heart is opened wide. ¹² You are not restrained by us, but you are restrained in your own affections. ¹³ In return (I speak as to my children) you also be open.

The Temple of the Living God

¹⁴ Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? What communion has light with darkness? ¹⁵ What agreement has Christ with Belial? Or what part has he who believes with an unbeliever? ¹⁶ What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are the temple of the living God. As God has said:

"I will live in them
and walk in them.
I will be their God,
and they shall be My people." ††

¹⁷ Therefore,
"Come out from among them
and be separate,
says the Lord.

Do not touch what is unclean,
and I will receive you." ‡

¹⁸ "I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters,
says the Lord Almighty." ††

† Isa 49:8. †† Lev 26:12; Jer 32:38; Eze 37:27. ‡ Isa 52:11; Eze 20:34, 41. †† 2Sa 7:14.

7 Since we have these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

Paul's Joy at the Church's Repentance

² Accept us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, and we have defrauded no one. ³ I do not say this to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts, so that we would die or live with you. ⁴ Great is my boldness of speech toward you; great is my boasting of you. I am filled with comfort, and I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.

⁵ For when we came to Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, and we were troubled on every side. On the outside were conflicts; on the inside were fears. ⁶ Nevertheless God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us through the coming of Titus, ⁷ and not only by his coming, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, when he told us about your sincere desire, your mourning, and your zeal toward me, so that I rejoiced even more.

⁸ Though I caused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I perceive that this same letter has caused you sorrow, though only for a while. ⁹ Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that your sorrow led to repentance. For you were made sorrowful in a godly way, that you might not suffer loss in any way through us. ¹⁰ Godly sorrow produces repentance that leads to salvation and brings no regret, but the sorrow of the world produces death. ¹¹ For observe this very thing, which you sorrowed in a godly way: What carefulness it produced in you, what vindication of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what intense desire, what zeal, what avenging of wrong! In all things you have proven yourselves to be innocent in this matter. ¹² So though I wrote to you, I did it not because of him who had done the wrong, nor because of him who suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might be evident to you. ¹³ Therefore we were comforted in your comfort.

Yes, and we were exceedingly the more joyful for the sake of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all. ¹⁴ So I am not ashamed if I have boasted of anything to him regarding you. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, even our boasting in the presence of Titus is found to be true. ¹⁵ Now his affection abounds all the more toward you, as he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him. ¹⁶ Therefore I rejoice that I have confidence in you in everything.

Liberal Giving

8 Moreover, brothers, we want you to experience the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia, ² how in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty overflowed toward the riches of their generous giving.

³ For I bear record that according to their means, and beyond their means, they freely gave, ⁴ begging us with much urgency that we would receive the gift and the fellowship of ministering to the saints. ⁵ This they did, not as we expected. First, they gave themselves to the Lord, and then to us by the will of God. ⁶ So we urged Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this gracious deed for you. ⁷ But as you abound in everything—in faith, in utterance, in knowledge, in all diligence, and in your love to us—see that you abound in this grace also.

⁸ I say this not as a command, but to prove through the authenticity of others, the sincerity also of your love. ⁹ For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that through His poverty you might be rich.

¹⁰ And in this matter I give my advice. It is appropriate for you, who began last year not only to give, but also to willingly give. ¹¹ Now therefore complete the task, so that, as there was a willingness to do so, there may be a performance of it according to your means. ¹² For if there is a willing mind first, the gift is accepted according to what a man possesses and not according to what he does not possess.

¹³ I do not mean that other men have relief, and you be burdened, ¹⁴ but for equality, that your abundance now at this time may supply their need, and their abundance may supply your need—that there may be equality. ¹⁵ As it is written, "He who gathered much had no excess. And he who gathered little had no lack." †

¹⁶ But thanks be to God, who placed the same sincere care in the heart of Titus for you. ¹⁷ For indeed he accepted the exhortation. But being more zealous, he went to you of his own accord. ¹⁸ And we have sent with him the brother whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches. ¹⁹ And not only that, but he was also chosen by the churches to travel with us with this gift, which we administer to the glory of the same Lord, and to declare your willing mind, ²⁰ to prevent any man from blaming us in administering this abundant gift, ²¹ providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord but also in the sight of men.

²² Furthermore, we have sent with them our brother whom we have frequently proved diligent in many things, but now is much more diligent, due to the great confidence which he has in you. ²³ If anyone inquires about Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you. Or if our brothers are inquired about, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ. ²⁴ Therefore show to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love and of our boasting on your behalf.

† Ex 16:18.

The Offering for the Saints

9 It is redundant for me to write to you concerning the ministry to the saints. ²I know your willingness, for which I boast of you to those in Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago, and your zeal has stirred up most of them. ³Yet I have sent the brothers, lest our boasting of you might be in vain in this case, that, as I said, you may be ready; ⁴and lest if any Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to mention you) should be ashamed of this confident boasting. ⁵Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brothers to go ahead to you and arrange beforehand your bountiful gift you previously promised, that it might be prepared as a gift, not as a matter of greed.

⁶But this I say: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. ⁷Let every man give according to the purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or out of necessity, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸God is able to make all grace abound toward you, so that you, always having enough of everything, may abound to every good work. ⁹As it is written:

“He has dispersed abroad, He has given to the poor; His righteousness remains forever.” †

¹⁰Now He who supplies seed to the sower and supplies bread for your food will also multiply your seed sown and increase the fruits of your righteousness.

¹¹So you will be enriched in everything to all bountifulness, which makes us give thanks to God.

¹²For the administration of this service not only supplies the need of the saints, but is abundant also through many thanksgivings to God. ¹³Meanwhile, through the performance of this ministry, they glorify God for the profession of your faith in the gospel of Christ and for your liberal sharing with them and with all others. ¹⁴And in their prayer for you, they long for you because of the surpassing grace of God in you. ¹⁵Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift.

Paul Defends His Ministry

10 Now I, Paul, who am lowly in presence among you but bold toward you while absent, appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ. ²I beg you that when I am present, I might not have to be bold with that confidence by which I intend to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. ³For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. ⁴For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds, ⁵casting down imaginations and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, ⁶and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is complete.

⁷Do you look at things from the outward appearance? If any man trusts that he is Christ's, let him consider again that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. ⁸For even if I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord has given us for edification and not for your destruction, I shall not be ashamed, ⁹lest I appear to frighten you by my letters. ¹⁰“For his letters,” they say, “are weighty and powerful, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.” ¹¹Let such a person consider this: that as we are in word by letters when we are absent, we will also be in deed when we are present.

¹²For we dare not count or compare ourselves with those who commend themselves. They who measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another are not wise. ¹³But we will not boast beyond measure, but within the boundaries which God has appointed us, which reach even you. ¹⁴For we are not overextending ourselves as though we did not reach you, since we have come to you, preaching the gospel of Christ. ¹⁵We are not boasting of things beyond our measure in other men's labors. But we have hope that when your faith is increased, our region shall be greatly enlarged by you, ¹⁶to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you and not to boast in another man's accomplishments. ¹⁷But, “Let him who boasts, boast in the Lord.” ††¹⁸For it is not he who commends himself who is approved, but he whom the Lord commends.

Paul and the False Apostles

11 I would to God you could bear with me a little in my folly. Indeed, bear with me. ²For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy. For I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. ³But I fear that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve through his trickery, so your minds might be led astray from the simplicity that is in Christ. ⁴For if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if you receive another spirit, which you have not received, or another gospel, which you have not accepted, you might submit to it readily enough. ⁵For I think I am not in any way inferior to the most eminent of the apostles. ⁶Even though I am unpolished in speech, yet I am not in knowledge. All things about us have been thoroughly revealed to you.

⁷Did I commit a sin in abasing myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you the gospel of God free of charge? ⁸I robbed other churches by accepting wages from them to serve you. ⁹Furthermore, when I was present with you and was lacking, I was a burden to no one. For the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied what I lacked. In all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so will I keep myself. ¹⁰ As the truth of Christ is in me, no one shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹ Why? Because I do not love you? God knows. ¹² And I will continue doing what I am doing, that I may cut off the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be found equal to us in what they boast about.

† Ps 112:9.

†† Jer 9:24.

¹³ For such are false apostles and deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ. ¹⁴ And no wonder! For even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light. ¹⁵ Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also disguise themselves as ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

Paul's Sufferings as an Apostle

¹⁶ I say again, let no one think that I am a fool. Otherwise, at least receive me as a fool, so that I also may boast a little. ¹⁷ What I speak, I speak not according to the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. ¹⁸ Seeing that many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast. ¹⁹ For you tolerate fools gladly, seeing you yourselves are wise. ²⁰ For you permit it if a man brings you into bondage, if a man devours you, if a man takes from you, if a man exalts himself, or if a man strikes you on the face. ²¹ I say to my reproach that we were too weak for that.

But whenever anyone is bold (I speak foolishly), I am bold also. ²² Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I. ²³ Are they servants of Christ? I speak as a fool. I am more: in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, in deaths often. ²⁴ Five times I received from the Jews forty lashes minus one. ²⁵ Three times I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; three times I suffered shipwreck; a night and a day I have been in the deep; ²⁶ in journeys often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers; ²⁷ in weariness and painfulness, in sleeplessness often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness. ²⁸ Beside the external things, the care of all the churches pressures me daily. ²⁹ Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is led into sin, and I am not distressed?

³⁰ If I must boast, I will boast of the things which concern my weakness. ³¹ The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forevermore, knows that I am not lying. ³² In Damascus the governor under King Aretas secured the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desiring to arrest me. ³³ But I was let down by the wall through a window in a basket and escaped his hands.

Visions and Revelations

12 Doubtless it is not profitable for me to boast. So I will move on to visions and revelations of the Lord. ² I knew a man in Christ over fourteen years ago—whether in the body or out of the body I cannot tell, God knows—such a one was caught up to the third heaven. ³ And I knew that such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I cannot tell, God knows—⁴ was caught up into paradise and heard inexpressible words not permitted for a man to say. ⁵ Of such a person, I will boast. Yet of myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. ⁶ For if I desire to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But now I resist, lest anyone should think of me above that which he sees me to be or hears from me.

⁷ And lest I should be exalted above measure by the abundance of revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan, to torment me, lest I be exalted above measure. ⁸ I asked the Lord three times that this thing might depart from me. ⁹ But He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness.” Therefore most gladly I will boast in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. ¹⁰ So I take pleasure in weaknesses, in reproaches, in hardships, in persecutions, and in distresses for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

Paul's Concern for the Corinthian Church

¹¹ I have become a fool in boasting. You have compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for I am in no way inferior to the leading apostles, though I am nothing. ¹² Truly the signs of an apostle were performed among you in all patience, in signs and wonders, and mighty deeds. ¹³ For in what respect were you inferior to other churches, unless it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong!

¹⁴ I am ready to come to you this third time. And I will not be burdensome to you, for I do not seek what is yours, but you. For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. ¹⁵ And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you. If I love you more, am I to be loved less? ¹⁶ But be that as it may. I did not burden you. Nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with deceit. ¹⁷ Did I take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you? ¹⁸ I urged Titus to go, and with him I sent a brother. Did TIT take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same steps?

¹⁹ Again, do you think that we are defending ourselves to you? We speak before God in Christ. We do all things, beloved, for your edifying. ²⁰ For I fear that when I come, I shall not find you such as I wish, and that I shall be found by you such as you do not wish. I fear there are debates, envying, wrath, strife, backbiting, whispering, arrogance, and disorder. ²¹ And I fear that when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall mourn for many who have sinned already, who have not repented of uncleanness, sexual immorality, and lasciviousness which they have committed.

Final Warnings and Greetings

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. “In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.” ^{†2} I told you before, and foretell as if I were present the second time. And being absent now, I write to those who have sinned before, and to all the others, that if I come again, I will not spare anyone, ³ since you seek proof of Christ speaking through me, who toward you is not weak, but is mighty in you. ⁴ For though He was crucified through weakness, yet He lives by the power of God. So also we are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God serving you.

⁵ Examine yourselves, seeing whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not know that Jesus Christ is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified.

⁶ I trust that you will know that we are not disqualified.

⁷ Now I pray to God that you do no evil, not that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honorable, whether or not we may seem disqualified. ⁸ For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth. ⁹ For we are glad when we are weak, and you are strong. We wish even your perfection. ¹⁰ Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should be sharp, according to the authority which the Lord has given me for edification and not for destruction.

¹¹ Finally, brothers, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, and live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

¹² Greet one another with a holy kiss. ¹³ All the saints greet you.

¹⁴ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

GALATIANS

The epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Galatians was probably written in Rome in about AD 48. The purpose for this letter was to correct the spiritually unstable Galatians for engaging in covenantal legalism and adhering to Judaizing teachers from Judea. This epistle is best understood from a Jewish perspective, given its frequent references to the law and to circumcision. The issues addressed have their roots in Judaism. Paul was deliberating about important issues that distinguish the spirit of the Gospel from the letter of the law. Careful attention must be taken so as not to conclude that the apostle is rejecting the Jewish people instead of Judaism's covenant stipulations that became obsolete when Jesus inaugurated the New Covenant. The Holy Spirit guides the Christian life, and believers in Christ are recognized by the fruit of the Spirit. Indeed, we are free from the demands of the Old Testament Jewish law so we can live freely by God's Holy Spirit in the New Covenant.

Salutation

1 Paul, an apostle (not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), ² and all the brothers who are with me,

To the churches of Galatia:

³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴ who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, ⁵ to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

There Is No Other Gospel

⁶ I marvel that you are turning away so soon from Him who called you in the grace of Christ to a different gospel, ⁷ which is not a gospel. But there are some who trouble you and would pervert the gospel of Christ. ⁸ Although if we or an angel from heaven preach any other gospel to you than the one we have preached to you, let him be accursed. ⁹ As we said before, so I say now again: If anyone preaches any other gospel to you than the one you have received, let him be accursed.

¹⁰ For am I now seeking the approval of men or of God? Or am I trying to please men? For if I were still trying to please men, I would not be the servant of Christ.

How Paul Became an Apostle

¹¹ But I reveal to you, brothers, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man. ¹² For I neither received it from man, neither was I taught it, except by a revelation of Jesus Christ.

¹³ For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God beyond measure and tried to destroy it, ¹⁴ and progressed in Judaism above many of my equals in my own heritage, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. ¹⁵ But when it pleased God, who set me apart since I was in my mother's womb and called me by His grace, ¹⁶ to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the nations, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, ¹⁷ nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me. But I went into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

¹⁸ After three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter and stayed with him for fifteen days. ¹⁹ I saw none of the other apostles except James, the Lord's brother. ²⁰ In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie! ²¹ Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia ²² and was unknown by face to the churches of Judea which were in Christ. ²³ They had heard only, "He who persecuted us in times past now preaches the faith which he once destroyed." ²⁴ And they glorified God because of me.

Paul Accepted by the Other Apostles

2 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas and also took Titus with me. ² I went up in response to a revelation and communicated to them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles. But privately I communicated to those who were of reputation, in case I might be running, or had run, in vain. ³ But even Titus, who was with me, though he was a Greek, was not compelled to be circumcised. ⁴ This happened because false brothers were secretly brought in, who sneaked in to spy out our liberty, which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage. ⁵ We did not yield to subjection to them, not for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

⁶ But of these who seemed to be something—whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality to anyone—for those who seemed to be something added nothing to me. ⁷ On the contrary, they saw that I was entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised, as the gospel to the circumcised was to Peter. ⁸ For He who worked effectively in Peter for the apostleship to the circumcised worked effectively in me toward the Gentiles. ⁹ When James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, understood the grace that was given to me, they gave to Barnabas and me the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. ¹⁰ Only they requested that we should remember the poor, which I also was eager to do.

Paul Rebukes Peter in Antioch

¹¹ But when Peter came to Antioch, I withstood him face to face, because he stood condemned. ¹² Before certain men came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. ¹³ And the other Jews, likewise, joined together in hypocrisy with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.

¹⁴ But when I saw that they were not straightforward about the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, why do you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?" †

Jews, Like Gentiles, Are Saved by Faith

¹⁵ We are Jews by nature, and not Gentile sinners, ¹⁶ yet we know that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but through faith in Jesus Christ. Even we have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we might be justified by faith in Christ, rather than by the works of the law. For by the works of the law no flesh shall be justified.

¹⁷ If, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found to be sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sin? God forbid! ¹⁸ For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. ¹⁹ For through the law I am dead to the law, that I might live for God. ²⁰ I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, †† who loved me and gave Himself for me. ²¹ I do not nullify the grace of God. For if righteousness comes by the law, then Christ died in vain.

Law or Faith

3 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you that you should not obey the truth? Before your eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you as crucified. ² I want to learn only this from you: Did you receive the Spirit through the works of the law, or by hearing with faith? ³ Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh? ⁴ Have you endured so many things for nothing, if indeed it was for nothing? ⁵ Does God give you the Spirit and work miracles among you by the works of the law, or by hearing with faith?

⁶ Even Abraham "believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness." †⁷ Therefore know that those who are of faith are the sons of Abraham. ⁸ And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel in advance to Abraham, saying, "In you shall all the nations be blessed." ††⁹ So then those who are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

¹⁰ For all who rely on the works of the law are under the curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all things which are written in the Book of the Law, to do them." †††¹¹ Now it is evident that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, for "The just shall live by faith." †††¹² But the law is not of faith, for "The man who does them shall live by them." †††¹³ Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law by being made a curse for us—as it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree" §— ¹⁴ so that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

The Law and the Promise

¹⁵ Brothers, I am speaking in human terms: Though it is only a man's covenant, yet if it is ratified, no one annuls or adds to it. ¹⁶ Now the promises were made to Abraham and his Seed. He does not say, "and to seeds," meaning many, but "and to your Seed," †† meaning one, who is Christ. ¹⁷ And this I say, that the law, which came four hundred and thirty years later, does not annul the covenant that was ratified by God in Christ, so as to nullify the promise. ¹⁸ For if the inheritance comes from the law, it no longer comes from the promise. But God gave it to Abraham through a promise.

¹⁹ What purpose then does the law serve? It was added because of transgressions, until the Seed should come to whom the promise was made. And it was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. ²⁰ Now a mediator is not a mediator for only one party, but God is one.

Slaves and Sons

²¹ Is the law then contrary to the promises of God? God forbid! For if there had been a law given which could have given life, righteousness would indeed come through the law. ²² But the Scripture has confined all things under sin, that the promise through faith in Jesus Christ ††† might be given to those who believe.

²³ But before faith came, we were imprisoned under the law, kept for the faith which was later to be revealed. ²⁴ So the law was our tutor to bring us to

† Some interpreters hold that the quotation extends into the following paragraph. †† Or a by the faith of the Son of God.

‡ Ge 15:6. †† Ge 12:3; 18:18; 22:18. ††† Dt 27:26. ††† Hab 2:4. ††† Lev 18:5. § Dt 21:23. §† Ge 12:7; 13:15; 24:7. ††† Or a through the faith of Jesus Christ.

Christ, that we might be justified by faith. ²⁵ But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor.

²⁶ You are all sons of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

²⁷ For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. ²⁸ There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, and there is neither male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹ If you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

4 Now I say that as long as the heir is a child, he does not differ from a servant though he is lord of all. ² But he is under tutors and governors until the time appointed by the father. ³ So when we were children, we were in bondage to the elements of the world. ⁴ But when the fullness of time came, God sent forth His Son, born from a woman, born under the law, ⁵ to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons. ⁶ And because you are sons, God has sent forth into our hearts the Spirit of His Son, crying, "Abba, Father!" ⁷ Therefore you are no longer a servant, but a son, and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

Paul's Concern for the Galatians

⁸ Previously, when you did not know God, you served those who by nature are not gods. ⁹ But now, after you have known God, or rather are known by God, how do you turn again to the weak and beggarly elemental forces to which you desire again to be in bondage?

¹⁰ You observe days and months and seasons and years. ¹¹ I am afraid for you, lest I have worked for you in vain.

¹² Brothers, I ask you, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You have done me no wrong.

¹³ You know that it was because of an infirmity of the flesh that I first preached the gospel to you. ¹⁴ Though my infirmity was a trial to you, you neither despised nor rejected me, but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. ¹⁵ So where is your blessing? For I bear witness of you that, if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me. ¹⁶ Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth?

¹⁷ They would zealously influence you, but not favorably. Yes, they would exclusively control you, so that you might consult them. ¹⁸ But it is good to be zealous in a good manner always and not only when I am present with you. ¹⁹ My little children, of whom I labor in birth again until Christ is formed in you, ²⁰ I desire to be present with you now and to change my tone, for I am displeased with you.

The Allegory of Hagar and Sarah

²¹ Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law? ²² For it is written that Abraham had two sons, the one by a slave woman, the other by a free woman. ²³ But he who was of the slave woman was born according to the flesh, but he of the free woman through the promise.

²⁴ These things are an allegory, for these are the two covenants. The one is from Mount Sinai, which gives birth to bondage; she is Hagar. ²⁵ Now this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and represents the present Jerusalem, and is in bondage with her children. ²⁶ But the Jerusalem which is above is free, which is our mother. ²⁷ For it is written:

"Rejoice, barren woman
who does not bear;
break forth and shout,
you who have no labor pains!
For the desolate has many more children
than she who has a husband." †

²⁸ Now we, brothers, like Isaac, are the children of promise. ²⁹ But as it was then, he who was born after the flesh persecuted him who was born after the Spirit, so it is now also. ³⁰ Nevertheless what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not be heir with the son of the free woman." ††³¹ So then, brothers, we are not children of the slave woman, but of the free woman.

5 For freedom Christ freed us. Stand fast therefore and do not be entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

Christian Freedom

² Indeed I, Paul, say to you that if you become circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing. ³ I testify again to every man who is circumcised that he is obligated to keep the whole law. ⁴ You have been cut off from Christ, whoever of you are justified by law; you have fallen from grace. ⁵ For we, through the Spirit, by faith, eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. ⁶ For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but faith which works through love.

⁷ You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? ⁸ This persuasion does not come from Him who calls you. ⁹ A little yeast leavens the whole batch. ¹⁰ I have confidence in you through the Lord that you will not think otherwise. But he who is troubling you shall bear his judgment, whoever he is. ¹¹ Brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why do I still suffer persecution? Then the offense of the cross has ceased. ¹² I wish that those who are troubling you would castrate themselves!

¹³ You, brothers, have been called to liberty. Only do not use liberty to give an opportunity to the flesh, but by love serve one another. ¹⁴ For the entire law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." †¹⁵ But if you bite and devour one another, take heed that you are not consumed by one another.

† Isa 54:1. †† Ge 21:10. ‡ Lev 19:18.

Spiritual Fruit and Fleshly Works

¹⁶ I say then, walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. ¹⁷ For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. These are in opposition to one another, so that you may not do the things that you please. ¹⁸ But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, gentleness, goodness, faith, ²³ meekness, and self-control; against such there is no law. ²⁴ Those who are Christ's have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts. ²⁵ If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. ²⁶ Let us not be conceited, provoking one another and envying one another.

Bear One Another's Burdens

6 Brothers, if a man is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore such a one in the spirit of meekness, watching yourselves, lest you also be tempted. ² Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. ³ For if someone thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. ⁴ But let each one examine his own work, and then he will have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another. ⁵ For each one shall bear his own burden.

⁶ Let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches.

⁷ Be not deceived. God is not mocked. For whatever a man sows, that will he also reap. ⁸ For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. ⁹ And let us not grow weary in doing good, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not give up. ¹⁰ Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Final Warning and Benediction

¹¹ You see what large letters I have written to you with my own hand.

¹² It is those who desire to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised, only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. ¹³ For they themselves who are circumcised do not keep the law. But they desire to have you circumcised, so that they may boast in your flesh. ¹⁴ God forbid that I should boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵ For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but a new creation. ¹⁶ Peace and mercy be on all who walk according to this rule and upon the Israel of God.

¹⁷ From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

¹⁸ Brothers, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

EPHESIANS

The epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians was written in Rome in about AD 62. Tychicus delivered the epistles of Ephesians, Colossians, and Philemon to their respective recipients. Ephesians shows how anyone who is in Christ sits and rules with Him in the Kingdom of God. It also addresses the very practical issue of Christian unity. This epistle reveals keen insights into the church and spiritual warfare. It encourages Christians to be mature as they defend their faith against all types of spiritual and physical opposition. The mysteries of the Gospel that are now fully revealed help the believer to overcome the evils of this age. Ephesians should be read in sections and digested slowly. This is one of the most “spiritual” letters in the repertoire of Paul the Apostle.

Salutation

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God,
To the saints who are at Ephesus and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Blessings in Christ

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, ⁴ just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, to be holy and blameless before Him in love; ⁵ He predestined us to adoption as sons to Himself through Jesus Christ according to the good pleasure of His will, ⁶ to the praise of the glory of His grace which He graciously bestowed on us in the Beloved. ⁷ In Him we have redemption through His blood and the forgiveness of sins according to the riches of His grace, ⁸ which He lavished on us in all wisdom and insight, ⁹ making known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure, which He purposed in Himself, ¹⁰ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in Christ, which are in heaven and on earth.

¹¹ In Him also we have received an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His own will, ¹² that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, should live for the praise of His glory. ¹³ In Him you also, after hearing the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and after believing in Him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, ¹⁴ who is the guarantee of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory.

Paul's Prayer

¹⁵ Therefore I also, after hearing of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, ¹⁶ do not cease giving thanks for you, mentioning you in my prayers, ¹⁷ so that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, ¹⁸ that the eyes of your understanding may be enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of His calling and what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance among the saints, ¹⁹ and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power, ²⁰ which He performed in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His own right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹ far above all principalities, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come. ²² And He put all things in subjection under His feet and made Him the head over all things for the church, ²³ which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all things in all ways.

From Death to Life

2 And you were dead in your trespasses and sins, ² in which you formerly walked according to the age of this world and according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience, ³ among them we all also once lived in the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and we were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. ⁴ But God, being rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, ⁵ even when we were dead in sins, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), ⁶ and He raised us up and seated us together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, ⁷ so that in the coming ages He might show the surpassing riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. ⁸ For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not of yourselves. It is the gift of God, ⁹ not of works, so that no one should boast. ¹⁰ For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, so that we should walk in them.

One in Christ

¹¹ Therefore remember that formerly you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called the “uncircumcision” by the so-called “circumcision” in the flesh by human hands, ¹² were at that time apart from Christ, alienated from the citizenship of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, without hope and without God in the world. ¹³ But now in Christ Jesus you who were formerly far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

¹⁴ For He is our peace, who has made both groups one and has broken down the barrier of the dividing wall, ¹⁵ by abolishing in His flesh the enmity, that is, the law of the commandments contained in ordinances, that in Himself He might make the two into one new man, thus making peace, ¹⁶ and that He might reconcile both to God into one body through the cross, thereby slaying the enmity. ¹⁷ And He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. ¹⁸ For through Him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father.

¹⁹ Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, ²⁰ having been built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, ²¹ in whom the entire building, tightly framed together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, ²² in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling place of God through the Spirit.

Paul's Ministry to the Gentiles

3 For this reason I, Paul, am the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles.

² You may have heard of the administration of the grace of God which was given me for you, ³ how by revelation He made known to me the mystery, as I have written briefly already, ⁴ by which, when you read it, you may understand my knowledge of the mystery of Christ, ⁵ which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to His holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit, ⁶ how the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members, and partakers of the promise in Christ by the gospel.

⁷ Of this I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effective working of His power. ⁸ To me, the very least of all saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the incomprehensible riches of Christ, ⁹ and to reveal for all people what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God, who created all things through Jesus Christ, ¹⁰ so that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, ¹¹ according to the eternal purpose which He completed in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹² in whom we have boldness and confident access through faith in Him. ¹³ Therefore I ask you not to lose heart at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

To Know the Love of Christ

¹⁴ For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁵ from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, ¹⁶ that He would give you, according to the riches of His glory, power to be strengthened by His Spirit in the inner man, ¹⁷ and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸ may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height, ¹⁹ and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

²⁰ Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly beyond all that we ask or imagine, according to the power that works in us, ²¹ to Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Unity of the Body

4 I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, exhort you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you were called. ² With all humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another in love, ³ be eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴ There is one body and one Spirit, even as you were called in one hope of your calling, ⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ⁶ one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

⁷ But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of the gift of Christ. ⁸ Therefore He says: “When He ascended on high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men.” †

⁹ (In saying, “He ascended,” what does it mean but that He also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? ¹⁰ He who descended is also He who ascended far above all the heavens that He might fill all things.)

¹¹ He gave some to be apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers, ¹² for the equipping of the saints, for the work of service, and for the building up of the body of Christ, ¹³ until we all come into the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, into a complete man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, ¹⁴ so we may no longer be children, tossed here and there by waves and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the trickery of men, by craftiness with deceitful scheming. ¹⁵ But, speaking the truth in love, we may grow up in all things into Him, who is the head, Christ Himself, ¹⁶ from whom the whole body is joined together and connected by every joint and ligament, as every part effectively does its work and grows, building itself up in love.

The Old Life and New Life

¹⁷ Therefore this I say and testify in the Lord, that from now on you walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their minds, ¹⁸ having their understanding darkened, excluded from the life of God through the ignorance that is within them, due to the hardness of their hearts. ¹⁹ Being calloused they have given themselves over to sensuality for the practice of every kind of impurity with greediness.

²⁰ But you did not learn about Christ in this manner, ²¹ if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus: ²² that you put off the former way of life in the old nature, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, ²³ and be renewed in the spirit of your mind; ²⁴ and that you put on the new nature, which was created according to God in righteousness and true holiness.

Rules for the New Life

²⁵ Therefore, putting away lying, let every man speak truthfully with his neighbor, for we are members of one another. ²⁶ Be angry but do not sin. Do not let the sun go down on your anger. ²⁷ Do not give place to the devil. ²⁸ Let him who steals steal no more. Instead, let him labor, working with his hands things which are good, that he may have something to share with him who is in need.

²⁹ Let no unwholesome word proceed out of your mouth, but only that which is good for building up, that it may give grace to the listeners. ³⁰ And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you are sealed for the day of redemption. ³¹ Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outbursts, and blasphemies, with all malice, be taken away from you. ³² And be kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God in Christ also forgave you.

5 Therefore be imitators of God as beloved children. ² Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave Himself for us as a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God.

³ And do not let sexual immorality, or any impurity, or greed be named among you, as these are not proper among saints. ⁴ Let there be no filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor coarse joking, which are not fitting. Instead, give thanks. ⁵ For this you know, that no sexually immoral or impure person, or one who is greedy, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

Walk as Children of Light

⁶ Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience. ⁷ Therefore do not be partakers with them.

⁸ For you were formerly darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light— ⁹ for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth— ¹⁰ proving what is pleasing to the Lord.

¹¹ And do not have fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness; instead, expose them. ¹² For it is shameful even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret. ¹³ But all things are exposed when they are revealed by the light, for everything that becomes visible is light. ¹⁴ Therefore He says:

“Awake, you who sleep,
arise from the dead,
and Christ will give you light.”

¹⁵ See then that you walk carefully, not as fools, but as wise men, ¹⁶ making the most of the time because the days are evil. ¹⁷ Therefore do not be unwise, but understand what the will of the Lord is. ¹⁸ Do not be drunk with wine, for that is reckless living. But be filled with the Spirit. ¹⁹ Speak to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord. ²⁰ Give thanks always for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹ being submissive to one another in the fear of God.

Wives and Husbands

²² Wives, be submissive to your own husbands as unto the Lord. ²³ For the husband is the head of the wife, just as Christ is the head and Savior of the church, which is His body. ²⁴ But as the church submits to Christ, so also let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.

²⁵ Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself for it, ²⁶ that He might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, ²⁷ and that He might present to Himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing, but that it should be holy and without blemish. ²⁸ In this way men ought to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. ²⁹ For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord cares for the church. ³⁰ For we are members of His body, of His flesh and of His bones. ³¹ “For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and shall be joined to his wife, and the two shall be one flesh.” ³² This is a great mystery, but I am speaking about Christ and the church. ³³ However, let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

Children and Parents

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ² “Honor your father and mother,” which is the first commandment with a promise, ³ “so that it may be well with you and you may live long on the earth." †

† Ge 2:24.

⁴ Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Servants and Masters

⁵ Servants, obey those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of your heart, as to Christ, ⁶ not serving when eyes are on you, but as pleasing men as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, ⁷ with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men, ⁸ knowing that whatever good thing any man does, he will receive the same from the Lord, whether he is enslaved or free.

⁹ And masters, do the same things for them, no longer threatening, knowing that your Master also is in heaven, and there is no partiality with Him.

The Battle Against Evil

¹⁰ Finally, my brothers, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. ¹¹ Put on the whole armor of God that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. ¹² For our fight is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. ¹³ Therefore take up the whole armor of † Dt 5:16.

God that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. ¹⁴ Stand therefore, having your waist girded with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, ¹⁵ having your feet fitted with the readiness of the gospel of peace, ¹⁶ and above all, taking the shield of faith, with which you will be able to extinguish all the fiery arrows of the evil one. ¹⁷ Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. ¹⁸ Pray in the Spirit always with all kinds of prayer and supplication. To that end be alert with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints.

¹⁹ Pray for me, that the power to speak may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel, ²⁰ for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may speak boldly as I ought to speak.

Final Greetings

²¹ Now that you also may know my activities and how I am doing, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make everything known to you. ²² I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you might know our activities and that he might comfort your hearts.

²³ Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴ Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

PHILIPPIANS

The epistle to the Philippians, written by Paul the Apostle, was probably written from Rome or Ephesus in the early AD 60s. It is a richly theological and practical epistle that provides valuable insight about having the mind of Christ in all situations and relationships. Philippians is practical and helpful for all Christians, whether leaders or laypeople. It outlines the process of working out problems among those in the faith community, which can destroy the effectiveness of the Gospel in any given community, if they are not dealt with righteously and graciously. Joy is a common theme that runs throughout the letter. Paul rejoices in Christ Jesus in spite of being in prison and chained next to Roman guards.

Salutation

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ,
To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and deacons:

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul's Prayer for the Philippians

³ I thank my God for every reminder of you. ⁴ In every prayer of mine for you all, I have always made requests with joy, ⁵ due to your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now. ⁶ I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ.

⁷ It is right for me to think this of you all because I have you in my heart, since both in my imprisonments and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are fellow partakers of my grace. ⁸ For God is my witness, how I long after you all with the affection of Jesus Christ.

⁹ And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all discernment, ¹⁰ that you may approve things that are excellent so that you may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, ¹¹ being filled with the fruit of righteousness, which comes through Jesus Christ, for the glory and praise of God.

To Live Is Christ

¹² But I want you to know, brothers, that the things which happened to me have resulted in advancing the gospel, ¹³ so that my imprisonments in Christ have become known throughout the entire palace guard and to all the rest. ¹⁴ And a great many of the brothers in the Lord, having become confident because of my incarcerations, have dared to speak the word without fear.

ing to add trouble to my circumstance. ¹⁷ But the latter preach out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel. ¹⁸ What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached. And in this I rejoice.

Indeed, I will rejoice. ¹⁹ For I know that through your prayer and the support of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, this will result in my deliverance. ²⁰ Accordingly, it is my earnest expectation and my hope that I shall be ashamed in nothing, but that with all boldness as always, so now also, Christ will be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death. ²¹ For to me, to continue living is Christ, and to die is gain. ²² But if I am to live on in the flesh, this will mean fruitful labor to me. Yet I do not know what I shall choose. ²³ I am in a difficult position between the two, having a desire to depart and to be with Christ, which is far better. ²⁴ Nevertheless, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake. ²⁵ Having this confidence, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your joyful advancement of the faith, ²⁶ so that your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ when I am in your presence again.

²⁷ Only let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ, that whether or not I come and see you, I may hear of your activities, that you are standing fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving together for the faith of the gospel. ²⁸ Do not be frightened by your adversaries. This is a sign to them of their destruction, but of your salvation, and this from God. ²⁹ For to you it was granted on behalf of Christ not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake, ³⁰ having the same conflict which you saw in me and now hear is in me.

Christian Humility and Christ's Humility

2 If there is any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercy, ² then fulfill my joy and be like-minded, having the same love, being in unity with one mind. ³ Let nothing be done out of strife or conceit, but in humility let each esteem the other better than himself. ⁴ Let each of you look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.

⁵ Let this mind be in you all, which was also in Christ Jesus,

⁶ who, being in the form of God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped.

⁷ But He emptied Himself, taking upon Himself the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men.

⁸ And being found in the form of a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to death, even death on a cross.

⁹ Therefore God highly exalted Him and gave Him the name which is above every name,

¹⁰ that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

¹¹ and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. †

Shining as Lights in the World

¹² Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but so much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. ¹³ For God is the One working in you, both to will and to do His good pleasure.

¹⁴ Do all things without murmuring and disputing, ¹⁵ that you may be blameless and harmless, sons of God, without fault, in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, in which you shine as lights in the world. ¹⁶ Hold forth the word of life that I may rejoice on the day of Christ that I have not run in vain or labored in vain. ¹⁷ Yes, and even if I am offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I take delight and rejoice with you all. ¹⁸ For this reason you also take delight and rejoice with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

¹⁹ I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly to you, that I also may be of good comfort when I get word concerning you. ²⁰ For I have no one like-minded, who will sincerely care for your welfare. ²¹ For all seek their own, not the things of Christ Jesus. ²² But you know of his proven worth, that as a son with a father, he has served with me in the gospel. ²³ Therefore I hope to send him soon after my situation is resolved. ²⁴ But I trust in the Lord that I, myself, shall also come shortly.

²⁵ Yet I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, who is my brother and companion in labor, fellow soldier, your messenger, and he who ministered to my necessity. ²⁶ For he longed after you all and was filled with heaviness, because you heard that he was sick. ²⁷ Indeed he was sick, near death. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him, but also on me, lest I should have had sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸ Therefore I sent him the more eagerly, that when you see him again, you may rejoice and I may be less sorrowful. ²⁹ So receive him in the Lord with all joy. And hold such ones in high regard, ³⁰ because for the work of Christ he was near death, not regarding his life, endeavoring to make up for your lack of service toward me.

The True Righteousness

3 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is no trouble to me, and it is reassuring for you.

² Watch out for dogs, watch out for evil workers, watch out for those who practice mutilation. ³ For we are the circumcision who worship God in the Spirit, and boast in Christ Jesus, and place no trust in the flesh, ⁴ though I also have confidence in the flesh.

If any other man thinks that he has reason to trust in the flesh, I have more: ⁵ I was circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, and a Hebrew of Hebrews; as concerning the law, a Pharisee; ⁶ concerning zeal, persecuting the church; and concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

⁷ But what things were gain to me, I have counted these things to be loss for the sake of Christ. ⁸ Yes, certainly, I count everything as loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have forfeited the loss of all things and count them as rubbish that I may gain Christ, ⁹ and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness which is from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, ¹¹ the righteousness which is of God on the basis of faith, ¹⁰ to know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, ¹¹ if somehow I might make it to the resurrection of the dead.

Pressing Toward the Mark

¹² Not that I have already attained or have already been perfected, but I follow after it so that I may lay hold of that for which I was seized by Christ Jesus. ¹³ Brothers, I do not count myself to have attained, but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, ¹⁴ I press toward the goal to the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵ Therefore let those of us who are mature be thus minded. And if you think differently in any way, God will reveal even this to you. ¹⁶ Nevertheless, according to what we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us be of the same mind.

† A hymn about Jesus' attitude of servanthood.

†† Or through the faith of Christ.

¹⁷ Brothers, become fellow imitators with me and observe those who walk according to our example. ¹⁸ For many are walking in such a way that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ. I have told you of them often and tell you again, even weeping. ¹⁹ Their destination is destruction, their god is their appetite, their glory is in their shame, their minds are set on earthly things. ²⁰ But our citizenship is in heaven, from where also we await for our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹ who will transform our body of humiliation, so that it may be conformed to His glorious body, according to the working of His power even to subdue all things to Himself.

4 Therefore, my beloved and longed-for brothers, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my beloved.

Exhortations

² I exhort Euodia and Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. ³ I ask you also, true companion, help those women who labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with my other fellow laborers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice! ⁵ Let everyone come to know your gentleness. The Lord is at hand. ⁶ Be anxious for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and supplication with gratitude, make your requests known to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will protect your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

⁸ Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think on these things. ⁹ Do those things which you have both learned and received, and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Acknowledgment of the Philippians' Gift

¹⁰ I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at last you have revived your concern for me. Regarding this, you did care, but you lacked opportunity. ¹¹ I do not speak because I have need, for I have learned in whatever state I am to be content. ¹² I know both how to face humble circumstances and how to have abundance. Everywhere and in all things I have learned the secret, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. ¹³ I can do all things because of Christ who strengthens me.

¹⁴ Nevertheless you did well having shared in my affliction. ¹⁵ Now you Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you alone. ¹⁶ Even in Thessalonica, you sent aid once and again for my necessity, ¹⁷ not because I desired a gift, but I desire fruit that accumulates to your account. ¹⁸ But I have everything and abound. I have been filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, like a sweet fragrance, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God. ¹⁹ But my God shall supply your every need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

²⁰ Now to God and our Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

²¹ Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you. ²² All the saints greet you, especially those who are of Caesar's household.

²³ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

COLOSSIANS

Paul the Apostle wrote the epistle to the Colossians in Rome in about AD 62. Tychicus delivered it, along with Ephesians and Philemon, to its respective recipients. It introduces the reader to Christ as God in all His glory. This epistle addresses freedom from the law, outward manifestations of religion, human philosophies, and false mysticism, as well as the realization of union with Christ in life and conduct. Paul, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, takes care in formulating a high Christology, much as he did in the epistle to the Philippians. For this reason, Colossians can be read with the other prison epistles of Philippians and Ephesians.

Salutation

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

²To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ who are at Colosse:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thankfulness for the Colossians

³We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you. ⁴For we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and your love for all the saints, ⁵because of the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, of which you have already heard in the word of the truth of the gospel, ⁶which has come to you, as it has in all the world, and brings forth fruit, as it has also in you, since the day you heard it and knew the grace of God in truth. ⁷And you also learned of Epaphras, our dear fellow servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ for you, ⁸who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.

The Person and Work of Christ

⁹For this reason we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you and to ask that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; ¹⁰that you may walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, pleasing to all, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God, ¹¹strengthened with all might according to His glorious power, enduring everything with perseverance and patience joyfully, ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled us to be partakers in the inheritance of the saints in light. ¹³He has delivered us from the power of darkness and has transferred us into the kingdom of His dear Son, ¹⁴in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.

¹⁵He is the image of the invisible God and the first-born of every creature. ¹⁶For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they are thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers. All things were created by Him and for Him. ¹⁷He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. ¹⁸He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that in all things He may have the preeminence. ¹⁹For it pleased the Father that in Him all fullness should dwell, ²⁰and to reconcile all things to Himself by Him, having made peace through the blood of His cross, by Him, I say—whether they are things in earth, or things in heaven.

²¹And you, who were formerly alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled ²²in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy and blameless and above reproach in His sight, ²³if you continue in the faith, grounded and settled, and are not removed from the hope of the gospel, which you have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.

Paul's Ministry to the Church

²⁴Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake and fill up in my flesh that which is lacking in the afflictions of Christ, for the sake of His body, which is the church. ²⁵I have been made a servant of it according to the commission of God, which has been given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, ²⁶even the mystery which has been hidden from past ages and generations, but now is revealed to His saints. ²⁷To them God would make known what is the glorious riches of this mystery among the nations. It is Christ in you, the hope of glory, ²⁸whom we preach, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present them perfect in Christ Jesus. ²⁹In this I labor, striving according to His power, which effectively works in me.

2 I would like you to know what a great struggle I am having for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for everyone who has not seen my face in the flesh, ²that their hearts may be comforted, being knit together in love, and receive all the riches and assurance of full understanding, and knowledge of the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ, ³ in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. ⁴ Now this I say lest anyone beguile you with enticing words. ⁵ For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing and seeing your orderliness and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

Fullness of Life in Christ

⁶ As you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, ⁷ rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, and abounding with thanksgiving.

⁹ For in Him lives all the fullness of the Godhead bodily. ¹⁰ And you are complete in Him, who is the head of all authority and power. ¹¹ In Him you were also circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, ¹² buried with Him in baptism, in which also you were raised with Him through the faith of the power of God, who has raised Him from the dead.

¹³ And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has resurrected together with Him, having forgiven you all sins. ¹⁴ He blotted out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us and contrary to us, and He took it out of the way, nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵ And having disarmed authorities and powers, He made a show of them openly, triumphing over them by the cross.

¹⁶ Therefore let no one judge you regarding food, or drink, or in respect of a holy day or new moon or sabbath days. ¹⁷ These are shadows of things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. ¹⁸ Do not let anyone cheat you of your reward by delighting in false humility and the worship of angels, dwelling on those things which he has not seen, vainly arrogant due to his unspiritual mind, ¹⁹ and not supporting the head, from which the entire body, nourished and knit together by joints and sinews, grows as God gives the increase.

The New Life in Christ

²⁰ Therefore, if you died with Christ to the elementary principles of the world, why, as if you were living in the world, do you subject yourself to legalistic rules? ²¹ "Do not touch! Do not taste! Do not handle!" ²² These all are to perish with use and are aligned with the commandments and doctrines of men. ²³ These things have indeed a show of wisdom in self-imposed worship and humility and neglecting of the body, but are worthless against the indulgence of the flesh.

3 If you then were raised with Christ, desire those things which are above, where Christ sits at the right hand of God. ² Set your affection on things above, not on things on earth. ³ For you are dead, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ When Christ who is our life shall appear, then you also shall appear with Him in glory.

⁵ Therefore put to death the parts of your earthly nature: sexual immorality, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

⁶ Because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the sons of disobedience. ⁷ You also once walked in these, when you lived in them. ⁸ But now you must also put away all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, and filthy language out of your mouth. ⁹ Do not lie one to another, since you have put off the old nature with its deeds, ¹⁰ and have embraced the new nature, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of Him who created it, ¹¹ where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, but Christ is all and in all.

¹² So embrace, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, a spirit of mercy, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, and longsuffering. ¹³ Bear with one another and forgive one another. If anyone has a quarrel against anyone, even as Christ forgave you, so you must do. ¹⁴ And above all these things, embrace love, which is the bond of perfection.

¹⁵ Let the peace of God, to which also you are called in one body, rule in your hearts. And be thankful. ¹⁶ Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. ¹⁷ And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Social Duties of the New Life

¹⁸ Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as it is fitting in the Lord.

¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives, and do not be bitter toward them.

²⁰ Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing to the Lord.

²¹ Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

²² Servants, obey your masters in all things according to the flesh, serving not only when they are watching, as the servants of men, but in singleness of heart, fearing God. ²³ And whatever you do, do it heartily, as for the Lord and not for men, ²⁴ knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance. For you serve the Lord Christ. ²⁵ But he who does wrong will receive for the wrong which he has done, and there is no partiality.

4 Masters, give to your servants that which is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

Exhortations

² Continue in prayer, and be watchful with thanksgiving, ³ while praying also for us, that God would open to us a door of utterance to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in chains, ⁴ that I may reveal it clearly, as I ought to speak. ⁵ Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, wisely using the opportunity. ⁶ Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you should answer everyone.

Final Greetings

⁷ Tychicus, who is a beloved brother and a faithful minister and fellow servant in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me. ⁸ I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that he might know your circumstances and comfort your hearts, ⁹ with Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you everything which is happening here.

¹⁰ Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, with Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you received instructions: If he comes to you, receive him), ¹¹ and Jesus, who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for the kingdom of God who are of the circumcision. They have been a comfort to me. ¹² Epaphras greets you. He is one of you, a servant of Christ, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand mature and complete in the entire will of God. ¹³ I bear witness of him, that he has a great zeal for you, those who are in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis. ¹⁴ Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you. ¹⁵ Greet the brothers who are in Laodicea, and Nympha, and the church which is in his house.

¹⁶ When this epistle is read among you, ensure that it is read also in the church of the Laodiceans, and that you, likewise, read the epistle from Laodicea.

¹⁷ Tell Archippus, "Make sure that you fulfill the ministry which you have received in the Lord."

¹⁸ I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. Remember my chains. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 THESSALONIANS

The first epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians was written in Corinth in about AD 50 to 51 and was possibly the first epistle Paul wrote. The purpose is to affirm and strengthen young disciples in the fundamental truths of Christian theology. The converts addressed were Gentiles. Paul is always sound and concrete with his advice, especially as he attempts to calm the anxiety of the church to which he is writing regarding their new faith in Jesus. The Thessalonian Christians were eagerly anticipating, albeit impatiently, Christ's return and had become anxious, thinking that their loved ones who had already died had missed it. Paul encourages them that their loved ones are already with the Lord. Read carefully and with prudence.

Salutation

1 Paul, Silas, and Timothy,
To the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Thessalonians' Faith and Example

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, mentioning you in our prayers, 3 remembering without ceasing your work of faith, labor of love, and patient hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of God and our Father.

4 For we know, beloved brothers, your election by God. 5 For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance, just as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake. 6 You became followers of us and the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit. 7 Therefore you were examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia. 8 For the word of the Lord sounded out from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we do not need to say anything. 9 For they themselves declare how we were received by you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God, 10 and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead—Jesus, who delivered us from the wrath to come.

Paul's Ministry in Thessalonica

2 You yourselves know, brothers, that our visit to you was not in vain. 2 But even after we had previously suffered and were shamefully treated at Philippi, as you know, we were bold in our God to declare to you the gospel of God amid much opposition. 3 For our exhortation was not from deceit, nor from uncleanness, nor in guile. 4 But as we were allowed by God to be entrusted with the gospel, even so we speaking, not to please men, but God, who examines our hearts. 5 For neither at any time did we come with flattering words, as you know, nor with a pretext for greed. God is our witness. 6 Nor did we seek glory from men, either from you, or from others, even though we might have made demands as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, like a nurse caring for her own children. 8 So having great love toward you, we were willing to impart to you not only the gospel of God but also our own lives, because you were dear to us. 9 For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil. Laboring night and day so as not to be an expense to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.

10 You and God are witnesses of how pure, upright, and blameless we ourselves behaved among you who believe. 11 As you know, we exhorted, comforted, and commanded every one of you, as a father does his own children, 12 that you would walk in a manner worthy of God, who has called you to His kingdom and glory.

13 For this reason we thank God without ceasing because, when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you received it not as the word of men, but as it truly is, the word of God, which effectively works also in you who believe. 14 For you, brothers, became followers of the churches of God, which in Judea are in Christ Jesus. You also have suffered the same things from your own countrymen, as they have from the Jews, 15 who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets and have persecuted us. They do not please God and are contrary to all men, 16 forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved. In this way they are always piling up their sins, but wrath has come upon them to the extreme.

Paul's Desire to Visit Again

17 But we, brothers, being taken from you for a short time, in presence, not in heart, endeavored all the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

¹⁸ Therefore we wished to come to you—even I, Paul, once and again—but Satan hindered us. ¹⁹ For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Will it not even be you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? ²⁰ You are our glory and joy.

3 Therefore, when we could no longer endure it, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone. ² We sent Timothy, who is our brother and minister of God and our fellow laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish and comfort you with regard to your faith, ³ so that no one would be shaken by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this. ⁴ Indeed, we told you before when we were with you that we would suffer tribulation, just as it came to pass, as you well know. ⁵ For this reason, when I could no longer endure it, I sent to inquire about your faith, lest by some means the tempter might have tempted you, and our labor might have been in vain.

⁶ But just now Timothy has come from you to us and brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you always have good memories of us, desiring greatly to see us, as we also desire to see you. ⁷ Therefore, brothers, during all our afflictions and distress, we have been encouraged about you through your faith. ⁸ For now we live, if you stand strong in the Lord. ⁹ For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God, ¹⁰ night and day praying earnestly that we might see your face and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

¹¹ Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you. ¹² And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all men, even as we do for you. ¹³ To this end may He establish your hearts to be blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

A Life Pleasing to God

4 Finally, brothers, we urge and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as you have learned from us how you ought to walk and to please God, you should excel more and more. ² For you know what commands we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

³ For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you should abstain from sexual immorality, ⁴ that each one of you should know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor, ⁵ not in the lust of depravity, even as the Gentiles who do not know God, ⁶ and that no man take advantage of and defraud his brother in any matter, because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, as we also have forewarned you and testified. ⁷ For God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness. ⁸ Therefore he that despises does not despise man, but God, who has also given us His Holy Spirit.

⁹ As concerning brotherly love, you do not need me to write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another. ¹⁰ And indeed, you do have love for all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we urge you, brothers, that you increase more and more.

¹¹ Learn to be calm, and to conduct your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you, ¹² so that you may walk honestly toward those who are outsiders and that you may lack nothing.

The Lord's Coming

¹³ But I would not have you ignorant, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Jesus died and arose again, so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus. ¹⁵ For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will not precede those who are asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we shall be forever with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore comfort one another with these words.

5 Concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that I write to you. ² For you know perfectly that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. ³ When they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor upon a woman with child, and they shall not escape.

⁴ But you, brothers, are not in darkness so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. ⁵ You are all the sons of light and the sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. ⁶ Therefore let us not sleep as others do. But let us be alert and sober. ⁷ For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. ⁸ But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet, the hope of salvation. ⁹ For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰ who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep, we should live together with Him. ¹¹ So comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, just as you are doing.

Final Exhortations and Greetings

¹² We ask you, brothers, to acknowledge those who labor among you, and are appointed over you in the Lord, and instruct you. ¹³ Esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves. ¹⁴ Now we exhort you, brothers, warn those who are unruly, comfort the faint-hearted, support the weak, and be patient toward everyone. ¹⁵ See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone. But always seek to do good to one another and to all.

¹⁶ Rejoice always. ¹⁷ Pray without ceasing. ¹⁸ In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

¹⁹ Do not quench the Spirit. ²⁰ Do not despise prophecies. ²¹ Examine all things. Firmly hold onto what is good. ²² Abstain from all appearances of evil.

²³ May the very God of peace sanctify you completely. And I pray to God that your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴ Faithful is He who calls you, who also will do it.

²⁵ Brothers, pray for us. ²⁶ Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. ²⁷ I command you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers.

²⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

2 THESSALONIANS

The second epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians was written from Corinth in about AD 50 to 51, shortly after First Thessalonians was written. The purpose was to dispel the rumor that he had written a letter that had been forged in his name. That letter teaches new converts that the Day of the Lord is at hand. Paul encourages Christians not to be slothful and lazy, but to work hard as they await Christ's return, thus making the most of their time. Paul assures his readers that his doctrine had not changed. This epistle should be read in conjunction with First Thessalonians. Paul is a great encourager and teacher. Read all of his epistles together so as not to lose a sense of their continuity.

Salutation

1 Paul, and Silas, and Timothy,
To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

² Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Judgment at Christ's Coming

³ We are bound to thank God always for you, brothers, as it is fitting, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you abounds toward each other. ⁴ So we boast about you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you are enduring.

¹¹ Therefore we always pray for you that our God would count you worthy of this calling and with power fulfill all your good desires and works done by faith, ¹² so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Man of Lawlessness

2 Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and concerning our gathering together unto Him, we ask you ² not to let your mind be quickly shaken or be troubled, neither in spirit nor by word, nor by letter coming as though from us, as if the day of Christ is already here. ³ Do not let anyone deceive you in any way. For that Day will not come unless a falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of destruction, ⁴ who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or is worshipped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself as God.

⁵ Do you not remember that when I was still with you, I told you these things? ⁶ Now you know what restrains him that he might be revealed in his time. ⁷ For the mystery of lawlessness is already working. Only He who is now restraining him will do so until He is taken out of the way. ⁸ Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth, and destroy with the brightness of His presence, ⁹ even him, whose coming is in accordance with the working of Satan with all power and signs and false wonders, ¹⁰ and with all deception of unrighteousness among those who perish, because they did not receive the love for the truth that they might be saved. ¹¹ Therefore God will send them a strong delusion, that they should believe the lie: ¹² that they all might be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Chosen for Salvation

¹³ But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, beloved brothers of the Lord, because God has from the beginning called you to salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and belief of the truth. ¹⁴ To this He called you by our gospel, to obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

¹⁵ Therefore, brothers, stand firm and hold the traditions which you have been taught, whether by word or by our letter.

¹⁶ Now may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and God our Father, who has loved us and has given us eternal consolation and good hope through grace, ¹⁷ comfort your hearts and establish you in every good word and work.

Pray for Us

3 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may quickly spread and be glorified, even as it did with you. 2 And pray that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men, for not all men have faith. 3 But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you and guard you from the evil one. 4 We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will do the things which we command you. 5 May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

Warning Against Idleness

6 Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in idleness and not according to the tradition that he received from us. 7 For you know how you should follow us. For we were not idle among you, 8 neither did we eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but we worked tirelessly and toiled night and day that we might not be a burden to any of you. 9 We did this, not because we did not have that right, but to make ourselves an example for you to follow. 10 For when we were with you, we commanded you that if any will not work, neither shall he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some among you who live in idleness, mere busybodies, not working at all. 12 Now, concerning those who are such, we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ that they quietly work and eat their own bread. 13 But you, brothers, do not be weary in doing good.

14 If anyone does not obey our word in this letter, note that man, and do not socialize with him, so that he may be ashamed. 15 Still, do not count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

Benediction

16 Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always in every way. The Lord be with you all.

17 I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand, and this is the distinguishing mark in every letter: So I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 TIMOTHY

The first epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy was written, most likely, in Macedonia during the early AD 60s. This epistle was the first of the three Pastoral Epistles—First and Second Timothy, and Titus. It is addressed to Timothy, a young minister in Ephesus. This first epistle is a very practical letter dealing with church order, doctrine, and discipline. Paul's primary instruction to Timothy is that right doctrine naturally leads to right living, and false doctrine leads to false, unholy living. In other words, doctrine and conduct cannot be separated. The personal information regarding Paul's and Timothy's father/son relationship is enlightening for any discipleship/mentoring relationship.

Salutation

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the command of God our Savior, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, our hope,

²To Timothy, my true son in the faith:
Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

Warning Against False Doctrine

³As I urged you when I went into Macedonia, continue to remain at Ephesus so that you might command some to teach no other doctrine, ⁴nor pay attention to fables and endless genealogies, which cause debates rather than godly edifying, which is in faith. ⁵Now the goal of this command is love from a pure heart, and from a good conscience, and from sincere faith. ⁶From this, some have lost their way and turned aside to empty talk, ⁷desiring to be teachers of the law, and understanding neither what they say nor what they affirm.

⁸But we know that the law is good if someone uses it lawfully. ⁹And we know that the law is not given for a righteous person, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for the unholy and the profane, for those who kill their fathers and mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰for the sexually immoral, for sodomites, for slave traders, for liars, for perjurers, and for anything else that is contrary to sound doctrine, ¹¹according to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

Thankfulness for Mercy

¹²I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has enabled me, because He counted me faithful and appointed me to the ministry. ¹³I was previously a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and an insolent man. But I was shown mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. ¹⁴The grace of our Lord overflowed with the faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the worst. ¹⁶But I received mercy for this reason, that in me, first, Jesus Christ might show all patience, as an example to those who were to believe in Him for eternal life. ¹⁷Now to the eternal, immortal, invisible King, the only wise God, be honor and glory forever. Amen.

¹⁸This command I commit to you, my son Timothy, according to the prophecies that were previously given to you, that by them you might fight a good fight, ¹⁹keeping faith and a good conscience, which some have rejected and suffered shipwreck in regard to their faith. ²⁰Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have delivered to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme.

Instructions Concerning Prayer

2 Therefore I exhort first of all that you make supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings for everyone, ²for kings and for all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceful life in all godliness and honesty, ³for this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, ⁴who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵There is one God and one mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus, ⁶who gave Himself as a ransom for all. This was the testimony given at the proper time. ⁷For this I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth in Christ and do not lie), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

⁸Therefore I desire that the men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, without wrath or contentiousness.

⁹In like manner also, that women clothe themselves in modest clothing, with decency and self-control, not with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing, ¹⁰but with good works, which is proper for women professing godliness.

¹¹Let a woman learn in silence with all obedience. ¹²I do not permit a woman to teach or to usurp authority over a man, but to be silent. ¹³ For Adam was formed first, then Eve. ¹⁴ And Adam was not deceived, but the woman, being deceived, fell into sin. ¹⁵ Yet she will be saved in childbearing if they continue in faith, love, and holiness, with self-control.

Qualifications of Overseers

3 This is a faithful saying: If a man desires the office of an overseer, he desires a good work. ² An overseer then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, sober, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach; ³ not given to drunkenness, not violent, not greedy for money, but patient, not argumentative, not covetous; ⁴ and one who manages his own house well, having his children in submission with all reverence. ⁵ For if a man does not know how to manage his own house, how will he take care of the church of God? ⁶ He must not be newly converted, so that he does not become prideful and fall into the condemnation of the devil. ⁷ Moreover he must have a good reputation among those who are outsiders, so that he does not fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

Qualifications of Deacons

⁸ Likewise deacons must be serious, not insincere, not given to much wine, not greedy, ⁹ keeping the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. ¹⁰ And let them first be tested; then, being found blameless, let them serve as deacons.

¹¹ Likewise, their wives must be serious, not slanderers, sober, and faithful in all things.

¹² Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, managing their children and their own houses well. ¹³ For those who have served well in the office of deacon purchase for themselves good standing and great boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.

The Mystery of Our Religion

¹⁴ I am writing these things to you, hoping to come to you shortly, ¹⁵ but if I am delayed, you might know how you ought to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. ¹⁶ Without question, great is the mystery of godliness:

God was revealed in the flesh,
justified in the Spirit,
seen by angels,
preached to the Gentiles,
believed on in the world,
taken up into glory.

Prediction of Apostasy

4 Now the Spirit clearly says that in the last times some will depart from the faith and pay attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils, ² speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their consciences seared with a hot iron, ³ forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods, which God has created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. ⁴ For everything created by God is good, and not to be refused if it is received with thanksgiving, ⁵ for it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

A Good Minister of Christ Jesus

⁶ If you remind the brothers of these things, you will be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished by the words of faith and of good doctrine, which you have followed closely. ⁷ But refuse profane and foolish myths. Instead, exercise in the ways of godliness. ⁸ For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable in all things, holding promise for the present life and also for the life to come.

⁹ This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance. ¹⁰ For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.

¹¹ Command and teach these things. ¹² Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity. ¹³ Until I come, give attention to reading, exhortation, and doctrine. ¹⁴ Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of hands by the elders.

¹⁵ Meditate on these things. Give yourself completely to them, that your progress may be known to everyone. ¹⁶ Take heed to yourself and to the doctrine. Continue in them, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

Duties Toward Others

5 Do not rebuke an elder, but exhort him as a father, the younger men as brothers, ² the elder women as mothers, and the younger women as sisters, with complete purity.

³ Honor widows that are widows indeed. ⁴ But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety at home and to repay their parents. For this is good and acceptable before God. ⁵ Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusts in God, and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. ⁶ But she who lives in pleasure is dead while she lives. ⁷ And these things command, that they may be blameless. ⁸ But if any do not care for their own, and especially for those of their own house, they have denied the faith and are worse than unbelievers.

⁹ Do not let a widow be counted unless she is over sixty years old, has been the wife of one man, ¹⁰ is well attested in good works, if she has brought up children, has lodged strangers, has washed the saints' feet, has relieved the afflicted, and has diligently followed every good work.

¹¹ But refuse the younger widows, for when their sensual desires have drawn them away from Christ,

they want to marry,¹² and bring judgment on themselves, because they have cast off their first pledge.¹³ Besides that, they learn to be idle, and not only idle, wandering around from house to house, but also gossips and busybodies, saying what they ought not.

¹⁴ Therefore I desire that the younger women marry, bear children, manage the house, and give no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.¹⁵ For some have already turned aside after Satan.

¹⁶ If any believing man or woman has widows, let those assist them. Do not let the church be charged, so that it may relieve those who are widows indeed.

²¹ I command you before God and the Lord Jesus Christ and the elect angels that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality.

²² Do not lay hands suddenly on anyone, and do not partake of other men's sins. Keep yourself pure.

²³ No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent illnesses.

²⁴ Some men's sins are evident, pointing to judgment, but other men's sins are revealed later.²⁵ Likewise, the good works of some are evident, but those that are not cannot be hidden.

6 Let as many servants as are under the yoke of slavery count their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and His doctrine may not be slandered.² Let those who have believing masters not despise them, because they are brothers. Instead, let them serve as slaves, because those who receive their service are faithful and beloved.

False Teaching and True Wealth

Teach and command these things.³ Anyone who teaches otherwise and does not consent to wholesome words, to the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to godly doctrine⁴ is conceited and knows nothing. He has a morbid disposition for controversy and verbal disputes, from which come envy, strife, blasphemies, evil speculations,⁵ constant disputes by men of corrupt minds, being destitute of the truth, and supposing that financial gain is godliness. Withdraw yourself from such men.

⁶ But godliness with contentment is great gain.⁷ For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain that we can carry nothing out.⁸ If we have food and clothing, we shall be content with these things.⁹ But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare and into many foolish and harmful lusts, which drown men in ruin and destruction.¹⁰ For the love of money is the root of all evil. While coveting after money, some have strayed from the faith and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

The Good Fight of Faith

¹¹ But you, O man of God, escape these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.¹² Fight the good fight of faith. Lay hold on eternal life, to which you are called and have professed a good profession before many witnesses.¹³ I command you, in the sight of God, who gives life to all things, and in the sight of Christ Jesus, who testified a good confession before Pontius Pilate,¹⁴ to keep this commandment without blemish, blameless until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,¹⁵ which He, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords, will reveal at the proper time.¹⁶ He alone has immortality, living in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen, nor can see. To Him be honor and everlasting power. Amen.

¹⁷ Command those who are rich in this world that they not be conceited, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who richly gives us all things to enjoy.¹⁸ Command that they do good, that they be rich in good works, generous, willing to share,¹⁹ and laying up in store for themselves a good foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of eternal life.

²⁰ O Timothy, guard that which is committed to your trust. Avoid profane babblings and opposing views from so-called knowledge.²¹ By professing it, some have erred concerning the faith.

Grace be with you. Amen.

2 TIMOTHY

The second epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy was written in Rome in about AD 64 to 65, as Paul was awaiting his death. He wrote this letter during his second imprisonment. In a similar manner to the first epistle to Timothy, Second Timothy is filled with wisdom from a spiritual father who wants to leave a lasting legacy of faithfulness to his child in the faith in his last days before his execution. Read this letter in this relational context, for that is how to best understand it. Paul was a great mentor who poured out his life for the sake of the church. This is the second of the three Pastoral Epistles, which are a “must-read” for church leaders.

Salutation

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

²To Timothy, my beloved son:
Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Loyalty to the Gospel

³I thank God, whom I serve with a pure conscience as my forefathers did, as I continually remember you in my prayers night and day, ⁴greatly desiring to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy, ⁵remembering the genuine faith that first lived in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and that I am persuaded lives in you also. ⁶Therefore I remind you to stir up the gift of God, which is in you by the laying on of my hands. ⁷For God has not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and self-control.

⁸So do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me, His prisoner. But share in the sufferings of the gospel by the power of God, ⁹who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not by our works, but by His own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, ¹⁰but is now revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Jesus Christ, who has abolished death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, ¹¹for which I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. ¹²For these things I suffer, but I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed to Him until that Day.

¹³Follow the pattern of sound teaching which you have heard from me in the faith and love that is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴Guard the treasure that was committed to you through the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

¹⁵You know that all those who are in Asia have turned away from me, including Phygelus and Hermogenes.

¹⁶May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains. ¹⁷But when he arrived in Rome, he searched me out very diligently and found me. ¹⁸May the Lord grant that he may find mercy from the Lord on that Day. You know very well how many ways he ministered to me at Ephesus.

A Good Soldier of Christ Jesus

2 So you, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. ²Share the things that you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses with faithful men who will be able to teach others also. ³Endure hard times as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. ⁴No soldier on active duty entangles himself with civilian affairs, that he may please the enlisting officer. ⁵Anyone who competes as an athlete is not rewarded without competing legally. ⁶The farmer who labors should be first to partake of the crops. ⁷Consider what I am saying, and may the Lord grant you understanding in all things.

⁸Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, descended from David, according to my gospel, ⁹in which I suffer trouble like a criminal, even with chains. But the word of God is not bound. ¹⁰Therefore I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

¹¹This is a faithful saying:
If we die with Him,
we shall also live with Him.

¹²If we endure,
we shall also reign with Him.
If we deny Him,
He also will deny us.

¹³If we are faithless,
He remains faithful;
He cannot deny Himself.

An Approved Workman

which leads to nothing of value and to the destruction of those who hear them. ¹⁵ Study to show yourself approved by God, a workman who need not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. ¹⁶ But avoid profane foolish babblings, for they will increase to more ungodliness, ¹⁷ and their word will spread like gangrene: Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus, ¹⁸ who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection has already occurred, and who overthrow the faith of some. ¹⁹ But the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal, "The Lord knows those who are His," and, "Let everyone who calls on the name of Christ depart from iniquity."

²⁰ In a large house there are not only gold and silver vessels, but also those of wood and clay; some are for honor, and some for dishonor. ²¹ One who cleanses himself from these things will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, fit for the Master's use, and prepared for every good work.

²² So flee youthful desires and pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace, with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. ²³ But avoid foolish and unlearned debates, knowing that they create strife. ²⁴ The servant of the Lord must not quarrel, but must be gentle toward all people, able to teach, patient, ²⁵ in gentleness instructing those in opposition. Perhaps God will grant them repentance to know the truth, ²⁶ and they may escape from the snare of the devil, after being captured by him to do his will.

The Last Days

3 Know this: In the last days perilous times will come. ² Men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, ³ without natural affection, trucebreakers, slanderers, unrestrained, fierce, despisers of those who are good, ⁴ traitors, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God, ⁵ having a form of godliness, but denying its power. Turn away from such people.

⁶ Those of this nature creep into houses and captivate silly women who are burdened with sins and led away with various desires, ⁷ always learning, but never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁸ Now as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so these also resist the truth, men of corrupt minds and worthless concerning the faith. ⁹ But they shall proceed no further, for their folly will be revealed to everyone, as theirs also was.

Last Charge to Timothy

¹⁰ But you have observed my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, tolerance, love, patience, ¹¹ persecutions, and afflictions, which came to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra—what persecutions I endured! But the Lord delivered me out of them all. ¹² Yes, and all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. ¹³ But evil men and seducers will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. ¹⁴ But continue in the things that you have learned and have been assured of, knowing those from whom you have learned them, ¹⁵ and that since childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise unto salvation through the faith that is in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness, ¹⁷ that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

4 I charge you therefore before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom: ² Preach the word, be ready in season and out of season, reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching. ³ For the time will come when people will not endure sound doctrine, but they will gather to themselves teachers in accordance with their own desires, having itching ears, ⁴ and they will turn their ears away from the truth and turn to myths. ⁵ But be self-controlled in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, and prove your ministry.

⁶ For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. ⁷ I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, and I have kept the faith. ⁸ From now on a crown of righteousness is laid up for me, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved His appearing.

Personal Instructions

⁹ Diligently try to come to me soon. ¹⁰ Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and has departed to Thessalonica, Crescens to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹ Only Luke is with me. Get Mark, and bring him with you, for he is profitable to me for the ministry. ¹² I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³ When you come, bring with you the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, and the books, but especially the parchments.

¹⁴ Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil. May the Lord reward him according to his works. ¹⁵ Beware of him, for he has greatly opposed our words.

¹⁶ At my first defense no one stood with me, but everyone forsook me. May it not be charged against them. ¹⁷ But the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, so that through me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear. And I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. ¹⁸ The Lord will deliver me from every evil work and will preserve me for His heavenly kingdom, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

¹⁹ Greet Priscilla and Aquila and the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰ Erastus remained at Corinth, and I have left Trophimus ill in Miletus. ²¹ Diligently try to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, and so do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers. ²² The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

TITUS

The epistle of Paul the Apostle to Titus was written in Macedonia in the early AD 60s. Like Timothy, Titus was also a spiritual son to Paul, but his background is different from that of Timothy. Timothy was half Jewish, and Titus was a Gentile. This letter has much in common with First Timothy in that it addresses church order, doctrine, and discipline. As is the case with First Timothy, this letter emphasizes the link between belief and behavior. It gives insight into the life of the community and the importance of having a servant's heart. Approximately eight times Paul exhorts the community to let their relationship with God be revealed by godly deeds. The third of the three Pastoral Epistles, this letter should be approached with care, and read with the pastoral letters written to Timothy for the greatest benefit to the reader.

Salutation

1 Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect and the knowledge of the truth which leads to godliness, ² in hope of eternal life which God, who cannot lie, promised before the world began, ³ and has in due time revealed His word through preaching, with which I was entrusted according to the command of God our Savior,

⁴ To Titus, my own son in the common faith:
Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

Titus' Work in Crete

⁵ For this reason I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I commanded you: ⁶ any man who is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children who are not accused of being wild or unruly. ⁷ For an overseer must be blameless, as a steward of God, not self-willed, not easily angered, not given to drunkenness, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain, ⁸ but hospitable, a lover of what is good, self-controlled, just, holy, temperate, ⁹ holding firmly the trustworthy word that is in accordance with the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort with sound doctrine and to convince those who oppose it.

¹⁰ For there are many unruly men, empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, ¹¹ who must be silenced, who subvert whole houses by teaching for dishonest gain things they ought not teach.

¹² One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "The Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons!"

¹³ This witness is true. So rebuke them sharply that they may be sound in the faith, ¹⁴ not paying attention to Jewish myths and commandments of men who reject the truth. ¹⁵ To the pure, all things are pure. But to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure. Even their minds and consciences are defiled.

¹⁶ They profess that they know God, but in their deeds they deny Him, being abominable, disobedient, and worthless for every good work.

The Teaching of Sound Doctrine

2 But as for you, teach what is fitting of sound doctrine: ² Older men should be sober, serious, temperate, sound in faith, in love, in patience.

³ Likewise, older women should be reverent in behavior, and not be false accusers, not be enslaved to much wine, but teachers of good things, ⁴ that they may teach the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, ⁵ and to be self-controlled, pure, homemakers, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be dishonored.

⁶ Likewise, exhort young men to be self-controlled, ⁷ in all things presenting yourself as an example of good works: in doctrine showing integrity, gravity, incorruptibility, ⁸ and sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that the one who opposes you may be ashamed, having nothing evil to say of you.

⁹ Exhort servants to be obedient to their own masters, to please them well in everything, not answering back, ¹⁰ or stealing, but showing complete fidelity, so that they may exemplify the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.

¹¹ For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men, ¹² teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live soberly, righteously, and in godliness in this present world, ¹³ as we await the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, ¹⁴ who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from all lawlessness and purify for Himself a special people, zealous of good works.

¹⁵ Teach these things, exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise you.

Maintain Good Deeds

3 Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey them, to be ready for every good work, ² to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, but gentle, showing all humility toward everyone.

³We also were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various desires and pleasures, living in evil and envy, filled with hatred and hating each other. ⁴But when the kindness and the love of God our Savior toward mankind appeared, ⁵not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of rebirth and the renewal of the Holy Spirit, ⁶whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, ⁷so that, being justified by His grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. ⁸This is a faithful saying, and these things I want you constantly to affirm, so that those who have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to everyone.

⁹But avoid foolish debates, genealogies, contentions, and arguments about the law, for they are unprofitable and useless. ¹⁰Reject a divisive man after a first and second admonition, ¹¹knowing that such a man is perverted and is sinning, being self-condemned.

Personal Instructions and Greetings

¹²When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, be diligent to come to me in Nicopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there. ¹³Diligently send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey. See that they lack nothing. ¹⁴And let our people also learn to continue doing good works to meet urgent needs, that they may not be unproductive.

¹⁵All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith.

Grace be with you all. Amen.

PHILEMON

The epistle of Paul the Apostle to Philemon was written in Rome in about AD 62. This story is about a servant named Onesimus who ran away from Philemon, a Christian of Colosse. Onesimus had departed from Philemon and fled to Rome, where he then became converted under Paul's ministry. Paul sent him back to Philemon with this letter to reconcile their broken relationship, since they were both in Christ. The letter about Onesimus was included in the canon, in the opinion of some, due to the authenticity of its authorship. Paul's political astuteness and personal interaction with the recipient make this letter both warm and compelling. It is truly a heart-felt plea from one Christian to another.

Salutation

1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,
To Philemon, our beloved fellow laborer, ² and to beloved Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house:
³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Love and Faith

⁴ I thank my God, always mentioning you in my prayers, ⁵ whenever I hear of your love and faith, which you have toward the Lord Jesus and for all the saints, ⁶ that the sharing of your faith may be most effective by the acknowledgment of every good thing which is in you from Christ Jesus. ⁷ For we have great joy and encouragement on account of your love, because the hearts of the saints are refreshed through you, brother.

Paul Pleads for Onesimus

⁸ Therefore, though I might be very bold in Christ to command you to do that which is proper, ⁹ yet for love's sake I rather appeal to you—I, Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ—¹⁰ I appeal to you on behalf of my son Onesimus, whose father I have become in my imprisonment, ¹¹ who in the past was unprofitable to you, but now he is profitable to you and to me.

¹² I have sent him back. Therefore receive him as my own heart. ¹³ I wanted to keep him with me, so that in your place he might serve me during my imprisonment for the gospel. ¹⁴ But without your consent I would do nothing, so that your goodness would not be forced, but given willingly. ¹⁵ Perhaps this was why he departed for a while, that you might receive him forever, ¹⁶ no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

¹⁷ If then you consider me a partner, receive him as you would me. ¹⁸ If he wronged you or owes you anything, charge this to my account. ¹⁹ I, Paul, have written this with my own hand. I will repay it—not to mention that you owe me even your own self. ²⁰ Yes, brother, help me rejoice in the Lord, refresh my heart in the Lord. ²¹ Being convinced of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will also do more than I say.

²² But, in addition, prepare also lodging for me, for I hope that through your prayers I shall be graciously restored to you.

Final Greetings

²³ Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you, ²⁴ as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow laborers.

²⁵ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

HEBREWS

The epistle to the Hebrews was probably written sometime before AD 70. The author is unknown. The church father Origen said it best regarding authorship: "But as to who wrote the epistle, only God knows the truth." Although its authorship is controversial, it came from a writer with a Hellenistic Jewish background and is addressed to Jewish Christians. For helpful background reading, one should precede it with knowledge of the first five books of the Old Testament. The purpose is to teach that Jesus Christ is God, that He has fulfilled the Mosaic Law, that He is the mediator of the New Covenant as both the priest and final sacrifice, and that Judaism and the law achieve their ultimate goal in Jesus Christ. It affirms Jewish Christians in the faith of Christ and teaches that the New Covenant's doctrines are for all people, Jews and Gentiles alike.

God Has Spoken by His Son

1 God, who at various times and in diverse ways spoke long ago to the fathers through the prophets, ² has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, and through whom He made the world. ³ He is the brightness of His glory, the express image of Himself, and upholds all things by the word of His power. When He had by Himself purged our sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high. ⁴ He was made so much better than the angels as He has inherited a more excellent name than they.

The Son Superior to Angels

⁵ For to which of the angels did He at any time say: "You are My Son; today I have become Your Father" [†]? Or again, "I will be a Father to Him, and He shall be a Son to Me" ^{††}? ⁶ And again, when He brings the firstborn into the world, He says: "Let all the angels of God worship Him." [‡] ⁷ Of the angels He says: "He makes His angels spirits, and His servants a flame of fire." ^{‡‡} ⁸ But to the Son He says: "Your throne, O God, lasts forever and ever; a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom." ^{‡‡‡} ⁹ You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness more than Your companions." ^{‡‡‡} ¹⁰ And,

"You, Lord, laid the foundation of the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the works of Your hands. ¹¹ They will perish, but You remain; and they all will wear out like a garment; ¹² as a cloak You will fold them up, and they will be changed. But You are the same, and Your years will not end." ^{‡‡‡} ¹³ But to which of the angels did He at any time say: "Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool" ^{§?} ¹⁴ Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to minister to those who will inherit salvation?

The Great Salvation

2 Therefore we should be more attentive to what we have heard, lest we drift away. ² For if the word spoken by angels was true, and every sin and disobedience received a just recompense, ³ how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation, which was first declared by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard Him? ⁴ God also bore them witness with signs and wonders and diverse miracles and with gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to His own will.

The Pioneer of Salvation

⁵ For it was not to the angels that He has subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. ⁶ But someone in a certain place testified, saying: "What is man that You are mindful of him, or the son of man that You care for him? ⁷ You made him a little lower than the angels; You crowned him with glory and honor, and set him over the works of Your hands. ⁸ You have put all things in subjection under his feet." ^{§†}

† Ps 2:7. †† 2Sa 7:8, 14. ‡ Ps 97:7. ‡† Ps 104:4. ‡‡ Ps 45:6. ‡‡† Ps 45:7; Isa 61:1, 3.

‡‡‡ Ps 102:25-27. § Ps 110:1. §† Ps 8:4-6.

For in subjecting all things under him, He left nothing that is not subjected to him. Yet now we do not see all things subject to him. ⁹ But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels to suffer death, crowned with glory and honor, so that He, by the grace of God, should experience death for everyone.

¹⁰ For it was fitting for Him, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the Author of their salvation perfect through suffering. ¹¹ For both He who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all of One. For this reason He is not ashamed to call them brothers, ¹² saying:

“I will declare Your name to My brothers;
in the midst of the congregation I will sing praise to You.” †

¹³ And again:

“I will put My trust in Him.” ††

And again:

“Here am I and the children whom God has given Me.” †

¹⁴ So then, as the children share in flesh and blood, He likewise took part in these, so that through death He might destroy him who has the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁵ and deliver those who through fear of death were throughout their lives subject to bondage. ¹⁶ For surely He does not help the angels, but He helps the seed of Abraham. ¹⁷ Therefore, in all things it was necessary for Him to be made like His brothers, so that He might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in the things pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people. ¹⁸ For since He Himself suffered while being tempted, He is able to help those who are being tempted.

Jesus Superior to Moses

3 Therefore, holy brothers, partakers in a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Jesus Christ, ² who was faithful to Him who appointed Him, as Moses was faithful in all His house. ³ For the One was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, in that He who builds the house has more honor than the house itself. ⁴ For every house is built by someone, but the One who builds all things is God. ⁵ Moses was faithful in all God’s house as a servant, testifying about those things that were to be spoken later. ⁶ But Christ is faithful over God’s house as a Son, whose house we are if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of our hope firm to the end.

A Rest for God’s People

⁷ Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says:

“Today, if you hear His voice,

⁸ do not harden your hearts
as in the rebellion,

on the day of temptation in the wilderness,

⁹ where your fathers tested Me and tried Me and saw My works for forty years.

¹⁰ Therefore I was angry with that generation, and said, ‘They always go astray in their heart, and they have not known My ways.’

¹¹ So I swore in My wrath,
‘They shall not enter My rest.’” ††

¹² Be attentive, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, and you depart from the living God. ¹³ But exhort one another daily, while it is called “Today,” lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴ For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence firmly to the end, ¹⁵ while it is said:

“Today, if you will hear His voice,
do not harden your hearts
as in the rebellion.” ††

¹⁶ For who were they who heard and rebelled? Was it not all of those who came out of Egypt, led by Moses?

¹⁷ And with whom was He grieved for forty years? Was it not with those who had sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? ¹⁸ And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest, but to those who disobeyed?

¹⁹ So we see that they could not enter because of unbelief.

4 Therefore, since the promise of entering His rest remains, let us fear lest any of you should seem to come short of it. ² For the gospel was preached to us as well as to them. But the word preached did not benefit them, because it was not mixed with faith in those who heard it. ³ For we who have believed have entered this rest, as He has said,

“As I have sworn in My wrath,
‘They shall not enter My rest.’” †††

However, His works have been finished since the creation of the world. ⁴ For He spoke somewhere about the seventh day like this: “And God rested on the seventh day from all His works.” ††† And again in the present passage He said, “They shall not enter My rest.” †

⁶ Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and they to whom it was first preached did not enter due to unbelief, ⁷ again He establishes a certain day, “Today,” saying through David, after so long a time, as it has been said:

“Today, if you will hear His voice,
do not harden your hearts.” ††

⁸ For if Joshua had given them rest, He would not have later spoken of another day. ⁹ Therefore a rest remains for the people of God. ¹⁰ For whoever enters His rest will also cease from his own works, as God did from His. ¹¹ Let us labor therefore to enter that rest, lest anyone fall by the same pattern of unbelief.

¹² For the word of God is alive, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, of joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intents of the heart.

¹³ There is no creature that is not revealed in His sight,

† Ps 22:22. †† Isa 12:2. †† Isa 8:18.

†† Ps 95:7-11. †† Ps 95:7-8. ††† Ps 95:11. ††† Ge 2:2.
§ Ps 95:11. §† Ps 95:7-8.

for all things are bare and exposed to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Jesus the Great High Priest

¹⁴ Since then we have a great High Priest who has passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to our confession. ¹⁵ For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who was in every sense tempted like we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶ Let us then come with confidence to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

5 For every high priest chosen from among men is appointed to represent men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. ² He is able to have compassion on the ignorant and on those who are wayward, for he himself is also subject to weakness. ³ Because of this he must offer sacrifices for his own sins, just as he does for the people.

⁴ No man takes this honor for himself, but he who is called by God receives it, just as Aaron did. ⁵ So also Christ did not glorify Himself to be made a High Priest, but it was He who said to Him:

“You are My Son;

today I have become Your Father.” †

⁶ As He also says in another place:

“You are a priest forever

in the order of Melchizedek.” ††

⁷ In the days of His flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications with loud cries and tears to Him who was able to save Him from death. He was heard because of His godly fear. ⁸ Though He was a Son, He learned obedience through the things that He suffered, ⁹ and being made perfect, He became the source of eternal salvation for all those who obey Him, ¹⁰ being designated by God a High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Warning Against Apostasy

¹¹ Concerning this we have much to say that is hard to explain, since you have become hard of hearing.

¹² For though by now you should be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first principles of the oracles of God and have come to need milk rather than solid food. ¹³ Everyone who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. ¹⁴ But solid food belongs to those who are mature, for those who through practice have powers of discernment that are trained to distinguish good from evil.

6 Therefore, leaving the elementary principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, ² of instruction about washings, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. ³ This we will do if God permits.

⁴ For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who shared in the Holy Spirit, ⁵ and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, ⁶ if they fall away, to be renewed once more to repentance, since they again crucify to themselves the Son of God and subject Him to public shame.

⁷ For land that drinks in the rain that often falls upon it and bears a crop useful to those for whom it is cultivated receives a blessing from God. ⁸ But land that bears thorns and thistles is rejected and near to being cursed. Its destiny is to be burned.

⁹ But though we speak in this manner, we are persuaded of better things for you, things that accompany salvation, ¹⁰ for God is not unjust so as to forget your work and labor of love that you have shown for His name, in that you have ministered to the saints and continue ministering. ¹¹ We desire that every one of you show the same diligence for the full assurance of hope to the end, ¹² so that you may not be lazy, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Sure Promise of God

¹³ For when God made a promise to Abraham, because He could vow by no one greater, He vowed by Himself, ¹⁴ saying, “Surely I will bless you, and surely I will multiply you.” ¹⁵ So after Abraham had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

¹⁶ For men indeed swear by a greater authority than themselves, and for them an oath of confirmation ends all dispute. ¹⁷ So God, wanting to show more abundantly the immutability of His counsel to the heirs of promise, confirmed it by an oath. ¹⁸ So that by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before us. ¹⁹ We have this hope as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, which enters the Inner Place behind the veil. ²⁰ This is where Jesus has entered for us as a forerunner, since He has become the everlasting High Priest in the order of Melchizedek.

The Priestly Order of Melchizedek

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him. ² To him Abraham also gave a tenth part of everything. In the first place, his name is translated “king of righteousness,” and then also he is king of Salem, which means “king of peace.” ³ Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, he continually remains a priest.

† Ps 2:7. †† Ps 110:4.

⁴ Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave a tenth of the spoils. ⁵ Surely the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a command to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, from their brothers, though they also come from the seed of Abraham. ⁶ But this man, whose descent is not numbered among them, received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. ⁷ Without question, the inferior is blessed by the superior. ⁸ In the one case mortal men receive tithes, but in the other he of whom it is witnessed that he is alive receives them. ⁹ One might say that Levi also, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, ¹⁰ for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met Abraham.

¹¹ If perfection were attained through the Levitical priesthood (for through it the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should rise in the order of Melchizedek, rather than established in the order of Aaron? ¹² For a change in the priesthood necessitates a change in the law. ¹³ For the One concerning whom these things are spoken pertains to another tribe, from which no man served at the altar. ¹⁴ For it is evident that our Lord descended from Judah, a tribe concerning which Moses said nothing about priests. ¹⁵ This is far more evident when another priest arises in the likeness of Melchizedek, ¹⁶ who becomes a priest not by a law pertaining to ancestry, but by the power of an endless life. ¹⁷ For He testifies:

“You are a priest forever,
in the order of Melchizedek.” †

¹⁸ For there is then an annulling of the previous commandment due to its weakness and uselessness. ¹⁹ For the law made nothing perfect, but now a better hope is introduced, by which we draw near to God.

²⁰ And He was not made a priest without an oath. ²¹ (Other priests were made without an oath, but this One with an oath by the One who said to Him:

“The Lord has sworn
and will not relent,

“You are a priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.” ††)

²² Through this oath Jesus became the guarantor of a better covenant.

²³ And the former priests were numerous because they were hindered from serving because of death.

²⁴ But He, because He lives forever, has an everlasting priesthood. ²⁵ Therefore He is able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, because He at all times lives to make intercession for them.

²⁶ For such a High Priest was fitting for us, for He is holy, innocent, undefiled, separate from sinners, and is higher than the heavens. ²⁷ Unlike those high priests, He does not need to offer daily sacrifices—first for His own sins and then for the people’s, for He did this once for all when He offered up Himself. ²⁸ For the law appoints men who are weak as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came after the law, appoints a Son who is made perfect forever.

Jesus Our High Priest

8 Now this is the main point of the things that we are saying: We have such a High Priest, who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, ² a minister in the sanctuary and the true tabernacle, which the Lord, not man, set up.

³ For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this priest also have something to offer. ⁴ For if He were on earth, He would not be a priest, since there are priests that offer gifts according to the law. ⁵ They serve in a sanctuary that is an example and shadow of the heavenly one, as Moses was instructed by God when he was about to make the tabernacle, “See that you make all things according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.” ⁶ But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, because He is the Mediator of a better covenant, which was established on better promises.

⁷ For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no occasion would have been sought for a second. ⁸ For finding fault with them, God says:

“Surely the days are coming, says the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant
with the house of Israel
and with the house of Judah,

⁹ not according to the covenant
that I made with their fathers
in the day when I took them by the hand
to lead them out of the land of Egypt;
because they did not continue in My covenant,
and I rejected them, says the Lord.

¹⁰ This is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel

after those days, says the Lord:
I will put My laws into their minds and write them on their hearts;
and I will be their God,
and they shall be My people.

¹¹ No longer shall every man teach his neighbor,
and every man his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’
for all shall know Me,
from the least of them to the greatest. †

¹² For I will be merciful toward their unrighteousness, and their sins and their lawless deeds I will remember no more.” ††

¹³ In speaking of a new covenant He has made the first one old. Now that which is decaying and growing old is ready to vanish away.

† Ps 110:4. †† Nu 23:19; 1Sa 15:29; Ps 110:4.

‡ Ex 25:40. †† Isa 54:13. †† Isa 43:25; Jer 31:31–34; 50:20; Mic 7:18–19.

The Earthly and Heavenly Sanctuaries

9 Then indeed, the first covenant had ordinances for divine services and an earthly sanctuary. ² A tabernacle was made. In the first part of the tabernacle, called the Holy Place, were the candlestick, the table, and the showbread. ³ Behind the second veil was the second part of the tabernacle called the Most Holy Place, ⁴ which contained the golden censer and the ark of the covenant overlaid with gold, containing the golden pot holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant. ⁵ Above the ark were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Concerning these things we cannot now speak in detail.

⁶ Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests would regularly go into the first part, conducting the services of God. ⁷ But only the high priest went into the second part once a year, not without blood, which he offered for himself and for the sins of the people, committed in ignorance. ⁸ The Holy Spirit was signifying through this that the way into the Most Holy Place was not yet revealed, because the first part of the tabernacle was still standing. ⁹ This is an illustration for the present time, showing that the gifts and sacrifices offered could not perfect the conscience of those who worshipped, ¹⁰ since they are concerned only with foods and drinks, ceremonial cleansings, and fleshly ordinances imposed until the time of reformation.

¹¹ But Christ, when He came as a High Priest of the good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, ¹² neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood, He entered the Most Holy Place once for all, having obtained eternal redemption. ¹³ For if the blood of bulls and goats, and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies so that the flesh is purified, ¹⁴ how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

¹⁵ For this reason He is the Mediator of a new covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the sins that were committed under the first covenant, so that those who are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

¹⁶ For where there is a will, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator. ¹⁷ For a will has force after men are dead, since it has no force at all while the testator lives. ¹⁸ So not even the first covenant was inaugurated without blood. ¹⁹ For when Moses had taught every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people, ²⁰ saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that God has commanded you to keep."

²¹ Likewise he sprinkled both the tabernacle and all the vessels of worship with blood. ²² And according to the law almost everything must be cleansed with blood; without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

Christ's Sacrifice Takes Away Sin

²³ It was therefore necessary that the replicas of heavenly things be cleansed with these sacrifices, but that the heavenly things themselves be cleansed with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴ For Christ did not enter holy places made with hands, which are patterned after the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us. ²⁵ Nor did He enter to offer Himself often, as the high priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own. ²⁶ For then He would have had to suffer repeatedly since the world was created, but now He has appeared once at the end of the ages to put away sin by sacrificing Himself. ²⁷ As it is appointed for men to die once, but after this comes the judgment, ²⁸ so Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many, and He will appear a second time, not to bear sin but to save those who eagerly wait for Him.

10 For the law is a shadow of the good things to come, and not the very image of those things. It could never by the same sacrifices, which they offer continually year after year, perfect those who draw near. ² Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, since the worshippers, once purified, would no longer be conscious of sins? ³ But in those sacrifices there is an annual reminder of sins. ⁴ For it is not possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵ Therefore, when He came into the world, He said: "Sacrifices and offerings You did not desire, but a body You have prepared for Me.

⁶ In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin You have had no pleasure.

⁷ Then I said, 'See, I have come to do Your will, O God,' as it is written of Me in the volume of the book." ††

⁸ Previously when He said, "You did not desire sacrifices and offerings. You have had no pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin," ‡ which are offered in accordance with the law, ⁹ then He said, "See, I have come to do Your will, O God." †† He takes away the first that He may establish the second. ¹⁰ By this will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

¹¹ But every priest stands daily ministering and repetitively offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹² But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down at the right hand of God. ¹³ Since that time He has been waiting for His enemies to be made His footstool. ¹⁴ For by one offering He has forever perfected those who are sanctified.

† Ex 24:8. †† Ps 40:6-8. ‡ Ps 40:6. †† Ps 40:8.

¹⁵ The Holy Spirit also witnesses to us about this. For after saying,

¹⁶ "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I will write them," †

¹⁷ then He adds,

"Their sins and lawless deeds will I remember no more." ††

¹⁸ Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Exhortation and Warning

¹⁹ Therefore, brothers, we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰ by a new and living way that He has opened for us through the veil, that is to say, His flesh, ²¹ and since we have a High Priest over the house of God, ²² let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse them from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³ Let us firmly hold the profession of our faith without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. ²⁴ And let us consider how to spur one another to love and to good works. ²⁵ Let us not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but let us exhort one another, especially as you see the Day approaching.

²⁶ For if we willfully continue to sin after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷ but a fearful expectation of judgment and fiery indignation, which will devour the adversaries. ²⁸ Anyone who despised Moses' law died without mercy in the presence of two or three witnesses. ²⁹ How much more severe a punishment do you suppose he deserves, who has trampled under foot the Son of God, and has regarded the blood of the covenant that sanctified him to be a common thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? ³⁰ For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine," says the Lord, "I will repay." ‡ And again He says, "The Lord will judge His people." ††³¹ It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

³² Remember the former days, after you were enlightened, in which you endured a great struggle of afflictions. ³³ In part you were made a spectacle both by reproaches and afflictions. And in part you became companions of those who were so abused. ³⁴ For you had compassion on me in my chains and joyfully endured the confiscation of your property, knowing that you have in heaven a better and an enduring possession for yourselves.

³⁵ Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which will be greatly rewarded.

³⁶ For you need patience, so that after you have done the will of God, you will receive the promise. ³⁷ For, "In yet a little while,

He who is to come will come, and will not wait.

³⁸ Now the just shall live by faith;

but if anyone draws back,

My soul shall have no pleasure in him." ††

³⁹ But we are not of those who draw back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.

Faith

11 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. ² For by it the men of old obtained a good report.

³ By faith we understand that the universe was framed by the word of God, so that things that are seen were not made out of things which are visible.

⁴ By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain offered. Through this he was approved as righteous, with God testifying concerning his gifts. He still speaks through his faith, though he is dead.

⁵ By faith Enoch was taken to heaven so that he would not see death. He was not found, because God took him away. For before he was taken, he had this commendation, that he pleased God. ⁶ And without faith it is impossible to please God, for he who comes to God must believe that He exists and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

⁸ By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out into a place which he would later receive as an inheritance. He went out not knowing where he was going. ⁹ By faith he dwelt in the promised land, as in a foreign land, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs of the same promise, ¹⁰ for he was looking for a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

¹¹ By faith Sarah herself also received the ability to conceive seed, and she bore a child when she was past the age, because she judged Him faithful who had promised. ¹² Therefore from one man, who was as good as dead, sprang so many, a multitude as the stars of the sky and innumerable as the sand by the seashore.

¹³ These all died in faith not having received the promises, but having seen them from afar were assured of them, embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

¹⁴ Those who say such things declare plainly that they are looking for a homeland. ¹⁵ And certainly, if they had been thinking of the country out of which they came, they might have had the opportunity to return.

¹⁶ But they desired a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

† Jer 31:33. †† Jer 31:34. ‡ Dt 32:35. †† Dt 32:36.

†† Hab 2:3-4.

¹⁷ By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son. ¹⁸ Of him God said, "Through Isaac shall your seed be named." ¹⁹ He reasoned that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead, from which he indeed received him in a figurative sense.

²⁰ By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

²¹ By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph and worshipped while leaning on the top of his staff.

²² By faith Joseph, when he was dying, mentioned the exodus of the children of Israel and gave instructions concerning his bones.

²³ By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden by his parents for three months, because they saw he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king's command.

²⁴ By faith Moses, when he became of age, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, ²⁵ choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time. ²⁶ He esteemed the reproach of Christ as greater riches than the treasures in Egypt, for he looked to the reward. ²⁷ By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king. He endured by looking to Him who is invisible. ²⁸ By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest the one who destroys the firstborn touch them.

²⁹ By faith they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land, which the Egyptians attempted to do, but were drowned.

³⁰ By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they were encircled for seven days.

³² And what more shall I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets, ³³ who through faith subdued kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, ³⁴ quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in fighting, and turned the armies of foreign enemies to flight. ³⁵ Women received their dead raised to life again. Others were tortured and did not accept deliverance, so that they might obtain a better resurrection. ³⁶ Still others had trials of mocking and scourging, and even chains and imprisonment. ³⁷ They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted, were slain with the sword. They wandered around in sheepskins and goatskins, while destitute, afflicted, and tormented. ³⁸ The world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth.

³⁹ These all have obtained a good report through faith, but they did not receive the promise. ⁴⁰ For God provided something better for us, so that with us they would be made perfect.

The Discipline of the Lord

12 Therefore, since we are encompassed with such a great cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us. ² Let us look to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. ³ For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and your hearts give up.

⁴ You have not yet resisted to bloodshed while striving against sin. ⁵ And you have forgotten the exhortation addressed to you as sons:

"My son, do not despise the discipline from the Lord, nor grow weary when you are rebuked by Him; ⁶ for whom the Lord loves He disciplines, and scourges every son whom He receives." ††

⁷ Endure discipline; God is dealing with you as with sons. For what son is there whom a father does not discipline? ⁸ If you are without discipline, of which everyone has partaken, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. ⁹ Furthermore, we have had human fathers, and they corrected us, and we gave them reverence. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? ¹⁰ For they indeed disciplined us for a short time according to their own judgment, but He does so for our profit, that we may partake of His holiness. ¹¹ Now no discipline seems to be joyful at the time, but grievous. Yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness in those who have been trained by it.

¹² Therefore lift up your tired hands, and strengthen your weak knees. ¹³ Make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame go out of joint, but rather be healed.

Warning Against Rejecting God's Grace

¹⁴ Pursue peace with all men, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord, ¹⁵ watching diligently so that no one falls short of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness spring up to cause trouble, and many become defiled by it, ¹⁶ lest there be any sexually immoral or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birthright. ¹⁷ For you know that afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected. For he found no place for repentance, though he sought it diligently with tears.

¹⁸ You have not come to a mountain that can be touched and that burned with fire, and to blackness

† Ge 21:12.

†† Pr 3:11-12.

and darkness and storm, ¹⁹ and to the sound of a trumpet and to a voice speaking words, such that those who heard them begged that the word not be spoken to them anymore. ²⁰ For they could not endure that which was commanded: "If so much as a beast touches the mountain, it must be stoned or thrust through with a spear." ^{†21} So terrible was the sight that Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling." ^{††}

²² But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels; ²³ to the general assembly and church of the firstborn, who are enrolled in heaven; to God, the Judge of all; and to the spirits of the righteous ones made perfect; ²⁴ and to Jesus, the Mediator of a new covenant; and to the sprinkled blood that speaks better than that of Abel.

²⁵ See that you do not refuse Him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused Him who spoke on earth, much less shall we escape if we turn away from Him who speaks from heaven. ²⁶ At that time His voice shook the earth, but now He has given us a promise, saying, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also heaven." ^{‡27} And this statement, "Yet once more," signifies the removal of those things that can be shaken, things that are created, so that only those things that cannot be shaken will remain.

²⁸ Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be moved, let us be gracious, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear.

²⁹ For our God is a consuming fire.

Service That Pleases God

13 Let brotherly love continue. ² Do not forget to entertain strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unknowingly. ³ Remember those who are in chains, as if imprisoned with them, and those who are ill treated, since you are also in the body.

⁴ Marriage is to be honored among everyone, and the bed undefiled. But God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers. ⁵ Let your lives be without love of money, and be content with the things you have.

For He has said:

"I will never leave you,
nor forsake you." ^{††}

⁶ So we may boldly say:

"The Lord is my helper; I will not fear.

What can man do to me?" ^{‡‡}

[†] Ex 19:12-13. ^{††} Dt 9:19. [‡] Hag 2:6. ^{‡†} Dt 31:6, 8; Jos 1:5. ^{‡‡} Ps 118:6.

⁷ Remember those who rule over you, who have proclaimed to you the word of God. Follow their faith, considering the results it has produced in their lives.

⁸ Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today, and forever.

¹¹ For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest on account of sin, are burned outside the camp. ¹² Therefore Jesus also, so that He might sanctify the people with His own blood, suffered outside the gate.

¹³ Therefore let us go forth to Him outside the camp, bearing the reproach that He bore. ¹⁴ For here we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

¹⁵ Through Him, then, let us continually offer to God the sacrifice of praise, which is the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name. ¹⁶ But do not forget to do good and to share. For with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

¹⁷ Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch over your souls as those who must give an account. Let them do this with joy and not complaining, for that would not be profitable to you.

¹⁸ Pray for us. For we trust that we have a good conscience and in all things are willing to live honestly.

¹⁹ But I implore you to pray, that I may be restored to you very soon.

Benediction and Final Greetings

²⁰ Now may the God of peace, who through the blood of the eternal covenant brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the Great Shepherd of the sheep, ²¹ make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

²² I implore you, brothers, to heed this word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words.

²³ Know that our brother Timothy has been set free, with whom I shall see you if he comes soon.

²⁴ Greet all those who rule over you and all the saints. Those from Italy greet you.

²⁵ Grace be with you all. Amen.

JAMES

The general epistle of James was written in Jerusalem in about AD 46–48. The author, James, is a half-brother of Jesus Christ. The emphasis in James is what pure religion looks like for Jewish Christians of the Diaspora. James has much practical (i.e., how to live) content, reflecting Jesus' Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel. Some in church history have not always appreciated James because of its seemingly slight mention of Christ (1:1) and its theological "challenge" to the doctrine of justification by faith alone. However, both are unwarranted because James echoes Jesus' teachings at every turn and goes to great lengths to illustrate faith as living and active, rather than as merely intellectual belief. James can be seen as the Proverbs of the New Testament due to its practical and wise sayings. It is a very important letter, especially regarding such topics as prayer and healing, the rich and poor, and earthly wisdom and wisdom from above.

Salutation

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,
To the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad:
Greetings.

Faith and Wisdom

² My brothers, count it all joy when you fall into diverse temptations, ³ knowing that the trying of your faith develops patience. ⁴ But let patience perfect its work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing. ⁵ If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all men liberally and without criticism, and it will be given to him. ⁶ But let him ask in faith, without wavering. For he who wavers is like a wave of the sea, driven and tossed with the wind. ⁷ Let not that man think that he will receive anything from the Lord. ⁸ A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

Poverty and Riches

⁹ Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted, ¹⁰ but the rich in that he is made low, because as the flower of the grass he will pass away. ¹¹ For the sun rises with a burning heat and it withers the grass, and its flowers fall, and its beauty perishes. So will the rich man wither away in his ways.

Trial and Temptation

¹² Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he is tried, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord has promised to those who love Him. ¹³ Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted with evil; neither does He tempt anyone. ¹⁴ But each man is tempted when he is drawn away by his own lust and enticed.

¹⁵ Then, when lust has conceived, it brings forth sin; and when sin is finished, it brings forth death.

¹⁶ Do not err, my beloved brothers. ¹⁷ Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom is no change or shadow of turning. ¹⁸ Of His own will He brought us forth with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of His creatures.

Hearing and Doing the Word

¹⁹ Therefore, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger, ²⁰ for the anger of man does not work the righteousness of God. ²¹ Therefore lay aside all filthiness and remaining wickedness and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

²⁶ If anyone among you seems to be religious and does not bridle his tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is vain. ²⁷ Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Warning Against Partiality

2 My brothers, have faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, without partiality. ² For if a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your assembly, and also a poor man in ragged clothing comes in, ³ and you have respect for him who wears the fine clothing and say to him, "Sit here in a good place," and say to the poor, "Stand there," or "Sit here under my footstool," ⁴ have you not then become partial among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

⁵ Listen, my beloved brothers. Has God not chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He has promised to those who love Him? ⁶ But you have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you and drag you before the judgment seats? ⁷ Do they not blaspheme that worthy name by which you are called?

⁸ If you fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," [†] you are doing well. ⁹ But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as sinners. ¹⁰ For whoever shall keep the whole law and yet offend in one point is guilty of breaking the whole law. ¹¹ For He who said, "Do not commit adultery," ^{††} also said, "Do not kill." [‡] Now if you do not commit adultery, yet you kill, you have become a lawbreaker.

Faith and Works

¹⁴ What does it profit, my brothers, if a man says he has faith but has no works? Can faith save him? ¹⁵ If a brother or sister is naked and lacking daily food, ¹⁶ and one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," and yet you give them nothing that the body needs, what does it profit? ¹⁷ So faith by itself, if it has no works, is dead.

¹⁸ But a man may say, "You have faith and I have works."

Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. ¹⁹ You believe that there is one God; you do well. The demons also believe and tremble.

²⁰ But do you want to be shown, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead? ²¹ Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? ²² Do you see how faith worked with his works, and by works faith was made perfect? ²³ The Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness," ^{‡†} and he was called the friend of God. ²⁴ You see then how by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

²⁵ Likewise, was not Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way? ²⁶ As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead.

The Tongue

3 My brothers, not many of you should become teachers, knowing that we shall receive the greater judgment. ² We all err in many ways. But if any man does not err in word, he is a perfect man and able also to control the whole body.

[†] Lev 19:18. ^{††} Ex 20:14; Dt 5:18. [‡] Ex 20:13; Dt 5:17. ^{‡†} Ge 15:6.

³ See how we put bits in the mouths of horses that they may obey us, and we control their whole bodies. ⁴ And observe ships. Though they are so great and are driven by fierce winds, yet they are directed with a very small rudder wherever the captain pleases. ⁵ Even so, the tongue is a little part of the body and boasts great things. See how great a forest a little fire kindles. ⁶ The tongue is a fire, a world of evil. The tongue is among the parts of the body, defiling the whole body, and setting the course of nature on fire, and it is set on fire by hell.

⁹ With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who are made in the image of God. ¹⁰ Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. ¹¹ Does a spring yield at the same opening sweet and bitter water? ¹² Can the fig tree, my brothers, bear olives, or a vine, figs? So no spring can yield both salt water and fresh water.

The Wisdom From Above

¹³ Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show his works by his good life in the meekness of wisdom. ¹⁴ But if you have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, do not boast and do not lie against the truth. ¹⁵ This wisdom descends not from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, and devilish. ¹⁶ For where there is envying and strife, there is confusion and every evil work.

¹⁷ But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. ¹⁸ And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Friendship With the World

4 Where do wars and fights among you come from? Do they not come from your lusts that war in your body? ² You lust and do not have, so you kill. You desire to have and cannot obtain. You fight and war. Yet you do not have, because you do not ask. ³ You ask, and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your passions.

⁴ You adulterers and adulteresses, do you not know that the friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. ⁵ Do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "He yearns jealously for the spirit that lives in us" ^{‡?} ⁶ But He gives more grace. For this reason it says: "God resists the proud,"

^{‡†} The source of this quotation is uncertain.

but gives grace to the humble." †

⁷Therefore submit yourselves to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. ⁸Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

⁹Grieve and mourn and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to dejection. ¹⁰Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

Judging a Brother

¹¹Do not speak evil of one another, brothers. He who speaks evil of his brother and judges his brother speaks evil of the law and judges the law. If you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.

¹²There is one Lawgiver who is able to save and to destroy. Who are you to judge another?

Warning Against Boasting

¹³Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go into this city, spend a year there, buy and sell, and make a profit," ¹⁴whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? It is just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away. ¹⁵Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that." ¹⁶But now you are rejoicing in your boastings. All such rejoicing is evil. ¹⁷Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, it is sin.

Warning to the Rich

5 Come now, you rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. ²Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. ³Your gold and silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be a witness against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up treasures for the last days. ⁴Indeed the wages that you kept back by fraud from the laborers who harvested your fields are crying, and the cries of those who harvested have entered into the ears of the Lord of Hosts. ⁵You have lived in pleasure on the earth and have been wayward.

† Pr 3:34.

You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter. ⁶You have condemned and killed the righteous man who does not resist you.

Patience and Prayer

⁷Therefore be patient, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Notice how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth and is patient with it until he receives the early and late rain. ⁸You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is drawing near. ⁹Do not grumble against one another, brothers, lest you be condemned. Look, the Judge is standing at the door.

¹⁰My brothers, take the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering and patience. ¹¹Indeed we count them happy who endure. You have heard of the patience of Job and have seen the purpose of the Lord, that the Lord is very gracious and merciful.

¹²But above all things, my brothers, do not swear, either by heaven or by the earth or by any other oath. But let your "Yes" be "Yes" and your "No" be "No," that you do not fall into condemnation.

¹³Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone merry? Let him sing psalms. ¹⁴Is anyone sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed any sins, he will be forgiven. ¹⁶Confess your faults to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man accomplishes much.

¹⁷Elijah was a man subject to natural passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. ¹⁸And he prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.

¹⁹Brothers, if any one of you strays from the truth and someone corrects him, ²⁰let him know that he who converts the sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

1 PETER

The first general epistle of Peter the Apostle was written in Babylon, which is a moniker for Rome or Jerusalem, by Peter between AD 62 and 63, during the reign of the Roman emperor Nero. Peter, also called Simon or Cephas, was a native fisherman of Bethsaida. First Peter exhorts believers to endure all kinds of suffering, which is a dominant theme of the epistle. Since Peter was the traditional source of information used by Mark in his Gospel, it is recommended that one read First and Second Peter along with the Gospel of Mark for insight.

Salutation

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,
To the refugees scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, ² elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification by the Spirit, for obedience and sprinkling with the blood of Jesus Christ:
Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

A Living Hope

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant mercy has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴ to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that does not fade away, kept in heaven for you, ⁵ who are protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶ In this you greatly rejoice, even though now, if for a little while, you have had to suffer various trials, ⁷ in order that the genuineness of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tried by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ, ⁸ whom, having not seen, you love; and in whom, though you do not see Him now, you believe and you rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory, ⁹ receiving as the result of your faith the salvation of your souls.

¹⁰ Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied of the grace that should come to you have inquired and searched diligently, ¹¹ seeking the events and time the Spirit of Christ, who was within them, signified when He foretold the sufferings of Christ and the glories to follow. ¹² It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you, concerning the things which are now reported to you by those who have preached the gospel to you through the Holy Spirit, who was sent from heaven—things into which the angels desire to look.

A Call to Holy Living

¹³ Therefore guard your minds, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ¹⁴ As obedient children do not conduct yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance. ¹⁵ But as He who has called you is holy, so be holy in all your conduct, ¹⁶ because it is written, “Be holy, for I am holy.” †

¹⁷ And if you address as Father the One who impartially judges according to each one’s work, conduct yourselves in fear during the time of your sojourning. ¹⁸ For you know that you were not redeemed from your vain way of life inherited from your fathers with perishable things, like silver or gold, ¹⁹ but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. ²⁰ He was foreordained before the creation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for you. ²¹ Through Him you believe in God who raised Him up from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope might be in God.

²² Since your souls have been purified by obedience to the truth through the Spirit unto a genuine brotherly love, love one another deeply with a pure heart, ²³ for you have been born again, not from perishable seed, but imperishable, through the word of God which lives and abides forever. ²⁴ For

“All flesh is as grass,
and all the glory of man as the flower of grass.
The grass withers, and its flower falls away,
²⁵ but the word of the Lord endures forever.” ††
This is the word that was preached to you.

The Living Stone and the Holy Nation

2 Therefore put away all wickedness, deceit, hypocrisy, envy, and all evil speaking. ² As newborn babies, desire the pure milk of the word, that by it you may grow, ³ if it is true that you have experienced that the Lord is good.

⁴ Coming to Him as to a living stone who is rejected by men, but chosen by God and precious, ⁵ you also, as living stones, are being built up into a spiritual house as a holy priesthood to offer up spiritual sacrifices that are acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

⁶ For also it is contained in the Scripture,

“Look! I lay in Zion

a chief cornerstone, elect, precious,
and he who believes in Him

shall never be put to shame.” †

⁷ Therefore, to you who believe, He is precious. But to those who are disobedient,

“The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,” ††

⁸ and,

“A stone of stumbling,

and a rock of offense.” ‡

They stumble because they are disobedient to the word, to which also they were appointed.

⁹ But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God’s own possession, so that you may declare the goodness of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light.

¹⁰ In times past, you were not a people, but now you are the people of God. You had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Live as Servants of God

¹¹ Dearly beloved, I implore you as aliens and refugees, abstain from fleshly lusts, which wage war against the soul. ¹² Live your lives honorably among the Gentiles, so that though they speak against you as evildoers, they shall see your good works and thereby glorify God in the day of visitation.

¹³ Submit yourselves to every human authority for the Lord’s sake, whether it be to the king, as supreme, ¹⁴ or to governors, as sent by him for the punishment of evildoers and to praise those who do right. ¹⁵ For it is the will of God that by doing right you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men. ¹⁶ As free people, do not use your liberty as a covering for evil, but live as servants of God. ¹⁷ Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

The Example of Christ’s Suffering

¹⁸ Servants, be submissive to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the harsh. ¹⁹ For this is commendable, if because of conscience toward God a person endures grief, suffering unjustly. ²⁰ For what credit is it if when you are being beaten for your sins you patiently endure? But if when doing good and suffering for it, you patiently endure, this is favorable before God. ²¹ For to this you were called, because Christ suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps:

²² “He committed no sin,

nor was deceit found in His mouth.” ††

²³ When He was reviled, He did not revile back; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but He entrusted Himself to Him who judges righteously. ²⁴ He Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness. “By His wounds you were healed.” ††²⁵ For you were as sheep going astray, but now have been returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.

Wives and Husbands

³ Likewise you wives, be submissive to your own husbands, so that if any do not obey the word, they may be won without a word by the conduct of their wives, ² as they see the purity and reverence of your lives. ³ Do not let your adorning be the outward adorning of braiding the hair, wearing gold, or putting on fine clothing. ⁴ But let it be the hidden nature of the heart, that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in the sight of God. ⁵ For in this manner, in the old times, the holy women, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being submissive to their own husbands, ⁶ even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. You are her children as long as you do right and are not afraid with any terror.

⁷ Likewise, you husbands, live considerately with your wives, giving honor to the woman as the weaker vessel, since they too are also heirs of the grace of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.

Suffering for Righteousness’ Sake

⁸ Finally, be all of one mind, be loving toward one another, be gracious, and be kind. ⁹ Do not repay evil for evil, or curse for curse, but on the contrary, bless, knowing that to this you are called, so that you may receive a blessing. ¹⁰ For

“He who would love life and see good days,

let him keep his tongue from evil,

and his lips from speaking deceit.

¹¹ Let him turn away from evil and do good;

let him seek peace and pursue it.

¹² For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their prayers;

but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.”

¹³ Who is he who will harm you if you follow that which is good? ¹⁴ But even if you suffer for the sake of righteousness, you are blessed. “Do not be afraid of their terror, do not be troubled.” ††¹⁵ But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. Always be ready to give an answer to every man who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you, with gentleness and fear.

¹⁶ Have a good conscience so that evildoers who speak evil of you and falsely accuse your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. ¹⁷ For it is better, if it is the will of God, that you suffer for doing good than for doing evil. ¹⁸ For Christ also has once suffered for sins, the

just for the unjust, so that He might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Spirit, ¹⁹ by whom He also went and preached to the spirits in prison, ²⁰ who in times past were disobedient, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.

²¹ Figuratively this is like baptism, which also saves us now. It is not washing off the dirt from the body, but a response to God from a good conscience through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²² who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels and authorities and powers being made subject to Him.

Good Stewards of God's Grace

4 Therefore, since Christ has suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind, for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, ² so that he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh serving human desires, but the will of God. ³ For in earlier times of our lives it may have sufficed us to do what the Gentiles like to do, when we walked in immorality: lusts, drunkenness, carousing, debauchery, and abominable idolatries. ⁴ They are surprised that you do not join them in the same excess of wild living, and so they speak evil of you. ⁵ They will give account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶ For this reason the gospel was preached also to those who are dead, so that even though they might be judged according to men in the flesh, they might live according to God in the spirit.

⁷ The end of all things is near. Therefore be solemn and sober so you can pray. ⁸ Above all things, have un-failing love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins. ⁹ Show hospitality to one another without complaining. ¹⁰ As everyone has received a gift, even so serve one another with it, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. ¹¹ If anyone speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God. If anyone serves, let him serve with the strength that God supplies, so that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Suffering as a Christian

¹² Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though some strange thing happened to you. ¹³ But rejoice insofar as you share in Christ's sufferings, so that you may rejoice and be glad also in the revelation of His glory. ¹⁴ If you are reproached because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you. On their part He is blas-

phemed, but on your part He is glorified. ¹⁵ Let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evildoer, or even as a busybody. ¹⁶ Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God because of it. ¹⁷ For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God, and if it begins first with us, what shall the end be for those who do not obey the gospel of God? ¹⁸ And

"If the righteous one is scarcely saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?" [†] ¹⁹ So then, let those who suffer according to the will of God entrust their souls to a faithful Creator, while continuing to do good.

Tending the Flock of God

5 I exhort the elders who are among you, as one who is also an elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ as well as a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: ² Shepherd the flock of God that is among you, take care of them, not by constraint, but willingly, not for dishonest gain, but eagerly. ³ Do not lord over those in your charge, but be examples to the flock. ⁴ And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive a crown of glory that will not fade away.

⁵ Likewise you younger ones, submit yourselves to the elders. Yes, all of you be submissive one to another and clothe yourselves with humility, because "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble." ^{††}

⁶ Humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time. ⁷ Cast all your care upon Him, because He cares for you.

⁸ Be sober and watchful, because your adversary the devil walks around as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. ⁹ Resist him firmly in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world.

¹⁰ But after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called us to His eternal glory through Christ Jesus, will restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. ¹¹ To Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

¹² With the help of Silas, whom I consider to be a faithful brother to you, I have written briefly, exhorting you and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand.

¹³ The church that is at Babylon, elect together with you, greets you, and so does Mark, my son. ¹⁴ Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Peace be with all you who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

[†] Pr 11:31. ^{††} Pr 3:34.

2 PETER

The second general epistle of Peter the Apostle was written in Babylon, which is a moniker for Rome or Jerusalem, by Peter between AD 64 and 67. Second Peter, like First Peter, was written to believers to exhort them to endure suffering and to be faithful to Jesus Christ to the end. Second Peter, however, is a letter giving many passages and allusions to the Old Testament. Enjoy this book as a continuation to Peter's first epistle to Jewish believers.

Salutation

1 Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who have received a faith as precious as ours through the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ.

² Grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

The Christian's Call and Election

³ His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness through the knowledge of Him who has called us by His own glory and excellence, ⁴ by which He has given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, so that through these things you might become partakers of the divine nature and escape the corruption that is in the world through lust.

⁵ For this reason make every effort to add virtue to your faith; and to your virtue, knowledge; ⁶ and to your knowledge, self-control; and to your self-control, patient endurance; and to your patient endurance, godliness; ⁷ and to your godliness, brotherly kindness; and to your brotherly kindness, love. ⁸ For if these things reside in you and abound, they ensure that you will neither be useless nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ But the one who lacks these things is blind and shortsighted because he has forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins.

¹⁰ Therefore, brothers, diligently make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. ¹¹ For in this way the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be abundantly provided for you.

¹² Therefore I will not be negligent to always remind you of these things, though you know them and are established in the truth that is present with you. ¹³ I consider it right, as long as I live in this body, to stir you up by reminding you, ¹⁴ knowing that soon I will take off this body, even as our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me. ¹⁵ And I will also be diligent to make sure that after my death you will always remember these things.

Christ's Glory and the Prophetic Word

¹⁶ For we have not followed cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty. ¹⁷ For He received honor and glory from God the Father when a voice came to Him from the majestic glory, saying, "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." ¹⁸ And we ourselves heard this voice, which came from heaven, when we were with Him on the holy mountain.

¹⁹ And we have a more reliable word of prophecy, which you would do well to follow, as to a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star arises in your hearts. ²⁰ But know this first of all, that no prophecy of the Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation. ²¹ For no prophecy at any time was produced by the will of man, but holy men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

False Prophets and Teachers

Jude 4-13

2 But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, bringing swift destruction upon themselves. ² And many will follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth will be blasphemed. ³ And in their greed they will exploit you with deceptive words. Their judgment, made long ago, does not linger, and their destruction does not slumber.

⁴ For if God did not spare the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness to be kept for judgment; ⁵ and if He did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when He brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; ⁶ and if He condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction by reducing them to ashes, making them an example to those afterward who would live ungodly lives; ⁷ and if He delivered righteous Lot, who was distressed by the filthy conduct of the wicked ⁸ (for that righteous man lived among them, and what he saw and heard of their lawless deeds tormented his righteous soul day after day); ⁹ then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trial, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the Day of Judgment, ¹⁰ especially those who walk after the flesh in pursuit of unclean desires, and despise authority.

They are presumptuous and arrogant, and are not afraid to slander the angelic beings. ¹¹ Whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, do not bring slanderous accusations against them before the Lord. ¹² But these people are like irrational animals, born to be captured and destroyed. They speak evil of the things that they do not understand, and in their corruption they will be destroyed.

¹⁴ They have eyes full of adultery that cannot cease from sin. They entice unstable souls. Their hearts are trained in greed. They are cursed children! ¹⁵ They have forsaken the right way and have gone astray. They follow the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of wickedness, ¹⁶ but who was rebuked for his iniquity. The mute donkey speaking with a man's voice constrained the madness of the prophet.

¹⁷ These men are wells without water and clouds that are carried by a storm, for whom the gloom of darkness has been reserved forever. ¹⁸ For when they speak arrogant words of vanity, they entice by the lusts of the flesh and by depravity those who barely escaped from those who live in error. ¹⁹ Although they promise them freedom, they themselves are slaves of corruption, for by that which a man is overcome, to this he is enslaved. ²⁰ For if after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and they are again entangled in them and are overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning. ²¹ For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness than to have known it and then turn back from the holy commandment that was delivered to them. ²² But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog returns to his own vomit," [†] and "the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mud."

The Promise of the Lord's Coming

3 This is now, beloved, the second epistle I am writing to you, in which I am stirring up your sincere minds by way of reminder, ² that you should remember the words that were spoken previously by the holy prophets and the commandment of our Lord and Savior spoken through us, the apostles.

³ Know this first, that there shall come scoffers in the last days who walk after their own lusts, ⁴ and say, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things have continued as they were since the beginning of the creation." ⁵ For they willingly ignore that, by the word of God the heavens existed long ago, and the earth was formed standing out of the water and in the water, ⁶ by which the world that then existed was flooded with water and perished. ⁷ But by the same word, the heavens and the earth that now exist are being reserved for fire, kept for the Day of Judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

⁸ But, beloved, do not be ignorant of this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. ⁹ The Lord is not slow concerning His promise, as some count slowness. But He is patient with us, because He does not want any to perish, but all to come to repentance.

¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a loud noise, and the elements will be destroyed with intense heat. The earth also and the works that are in it will be burned up.

¹¹ Seeing then that all these things are to be destroyed, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, ¹² while you are waiting for and desiring the coming of the day of God, in which the heavens will be destroyed by fire and the elements will be consumed by intense heat? ¹³ But, according to His promise, we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

¹⁴ Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these things, be diligent that you may be found by Him in peace, spotless and blameless. ¹⁵ Keep in mind that the patience of our Lord means salvation, even as our beloved brother Paul has also written to you according to the wisdom given to him. ¹⁶ As in all his letters, he writes about these things, in which some things are hard to understand, which the unlearned and unstable distort, as they also do the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

¹⁷ You therefore, beloved, since you know these things beforehand, beware lest you also fall from your own firm footing, being led away by the deception of the wicked. ¹⁸ But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be glory, both now and forever. Amen.

1 JOHN

The first general epistle of John was probably written from Ephesus in the AD 90s by John the beloved disciple. It was probably sent to many churches in and near Ephesus. This epistle is a pastoral letter written by a very mature and loving apostle to a church in danger of being led astray by false teachers. The keen insight into the love of God and how the believer should live before others is both refreshing and profound. This epistle also instructs believers in Christian living and conduct as the beloved children of God.

The Word of Life

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have touched, concerning the Word of life— 2 the life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and announce to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was revealed to us — 3 we declare to you that which we have seen and heard, that you also may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. 4 We are writing these things to you so that our joy may be complete.

God Is Light

5 This then is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you: God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him, yet walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar and His word is not in us.

Christ Our Advocate

2 My little children, I am writing these things to you, so that you do not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous One. 2 He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

3 By this we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments. 4 Whoever says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him. 5 But whoever keeps His word truly has the love of God perfected in him. By this we know we are in Him. 6 Whoever says he remains in Him ought to walk as He walked.

The New Commandment

7 Brothers, I am writing no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you have heard from the beginning. 8 Yet a new commandment I am writing to you, which holds true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.

9 Whoever says he is in the light but hates his brother is in darkness even until now. 10 Whoever loves his brother lives in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But whoever hates his brother is in darkness, and walks in darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I am writing to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven for His name's sake.

13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you have known Him who is from the beginning.

I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one.

I am writing to you, little children, because you have known the Father.

14 I have written to you, fathers, because you have known Him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God lives in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

15 Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father, but is of the world. 17 The world and its desires are passing away, but the one who does the will of God lives forever.

The Antichrist

18 Little children, it is the last hour. As you have heard that the antichrist will come, even now there are many antichrists. By this we know that it is the last hour.

¹⁹ They went out from us, but they were not of us, for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have remained with us. But they went out, revealing that none of them were of us.

²⁰ But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things. ²¹ I have written to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. ²² Who is a liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? Whoever denies the Father and the Son is the antichrist. ²³ No one who denies the Son has the Father; the one who confesses the Son has the Father.

²⁴ Let that which you have heard from the beginning remain in you. If that which you have heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵ And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life.

²⁶ I have written these things to you concerning those who deceive you. ²⁷ But the anointing which you have received from Him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. For as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and just as it has taught you, remain in Him.

Children of God

²⁸ And now, little children, remain in Him, so that when He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him when He comes.

²⁹ If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who does righteousness is born of Him.

3 Consider how much love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God. Therefore the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. ² Beloved, now are we children of God, and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be. But we know that when He appears, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is. ³ Everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

⁴ Whoever practices sin breaks the law, for sin is lawlessness. ⁵ You know that He was revealed to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin. ⁶ Whoever remains in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has not seen Him and does not know Him.

⁷ Little children, let no one deceive you. The one who does righteousness is righteous, just as Christ is righteous. ⁸ Whoever practices sin is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was revealed, that He might destroy the works of the devil. ⁹ Whoever has been born of God does not practice sin, for His seed remains in him. And he cannot keep on sinning, because he has been born of God. ¹⁰ In this the children of God and the children of the devil are revealed: Whoever does not live in righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother.

Love One Another

¹¹ For this is the message that you heard from the beginning: We should love one another, ¹² not like Cain, who was of the wicked one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's works were righteous. ¹³ Do not marvel, my brothers, if the world hates you. ¹⁴ We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love his brother remains in death. ¹⁵ Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him.

¹⁶ By this we know the love of God: that He laid down His life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. ¹⁷ Whoever has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, but closes his heart of compassion from him, how can the love of God remain in him? ¹⁸ My little children, let us love not in word and speech, but in action and truth.

Confidence Before God

¹⁹ By this we know that we are of the truth, and shall reassure our hearts before Him. ²⁰ For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart and knows everything.

²¹ Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, then we have confidence before God. ²² And whatever we ask, we will receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do the things that are pleasing in His sight. ²³ And this is His commandment: that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ and love one another as He commanded us. ²⁴ Now the one who keeps His commandments remains in Him, and He in him. And by this we know that He remains in us, through the Spirit whom He has given us.

Test the Spirits

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

² This is how you know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, ³ and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard is coming and is already in the world.

⁴ You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. ⁵ They are of the world, and therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. ⁶ We are of God, and whoever knows God listens to us. Whoever is not of God does not listen to us. This is how we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

God Is Love

⁷ Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God, and everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. ⁸ Anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love. ⁹ In this way the love of God was revealed to us, that God sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through Him. ¹⁰ In this is love: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. ¹¹ Beloved, if God so loved us, we must also love one another. ¹² No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwells in us, and His love is perfected in us.

¹³ We know that we live in Him, and He in us, because He has given us His Spirit. ¹⁴ And we have seen and testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world. ¹⁵ Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God lives in him, and he in God. ¹⁶ And we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us.

God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God in him. ¹⁷ In this way God's love is perfected in us, so that we may have boldness on the Day of Judgment, because as He is, so are we in this world.

¹⁸ There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. Whoever fears is not perfect in love.

¹⁹ We love Him because He first loved us. ²⁰ If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar. For whoever does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?

²¹ We have this commandment from Him: Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

Overcoming the World

5 Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves the one born of the Father. ² By this we know that we love the children of God: when we love God and keep His commandments. ³ For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome, ⁴ for whoever is born of God overcomes the world, and the victory that overcomes the world is our faith. ⁵ Who is it that overcomes the world, but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

The Witness Concerning the Son

⁶ This is He who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ. He did not come by water only, but by water and blood. It is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷ There are three who testify in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and the three are one. ⁸ There are three that testify on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood, and the three are toward the one. ⁹ If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God which He has given concerning His Son. ¹⁰ Whoever believes in the Son of God has this witness in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made Him out to be a liar, because he does not believe the testimony that God gave about His Son. ¹¹ And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. ¹² Whoever has the Son has life, and whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

Purpose of Writing

¹³ I have written these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God. ¹⁴ This is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. ¹⁵ So if we know that He hears whatever we ask, we know that we have whatever we asked of Him.

¹⁶ If anyone sees his brother commit a sin which does not lead to death, he shall ask, and He shall give him life. This is for those whose sin does not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I do not say that he should pray for it. ¹⁷ All wrongdoing is sin, but there is a sin that does not lead to death.

¹⁸ We know that whoever is born of God does not keep on sinning. But whoever has been born of God guards himself, and the wicked one cannot touch him. ¹⁹ We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in wickedness. ²⁰ And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know Him who is true, and we are in Him who is true—His Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

²¹ Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

† The earliest Greek manuscripts lack a in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and the three are one. There are three that testify on earth.

2 JOHN

The second general epistle of John was probably written in Ephesus in the AD 90s by John the beloved disciple. It is a very personal and wise exhortation that encourages believers to walk in the light and warns them about deceivers and how they conduct their lives. It is not only an encouragement to exhibit (a Greek word for committed or volitional love), but it is also a sound exhortation to separate from worldliness and unholiness.

Salutation

 To the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth, and not I only, but also all those who know the truth, ² for the sake of the truth, which remains in us, and will be with us forever:
³ Grace, mercy, and peace will be with you from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

Truth and Love

⁴ I greatly rejoiced that I found some of your children walking in truth as we were commanded by the Father. ⁵ And now I ask you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we have had from the beginning, that we love one another. ⁶ And this is love: that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, that as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.

⁷ For many deceivers, who do not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, have gone out into the world. Each one is a deceiver and an antichrist.

⁸ Watch yourselves, so that we do not lose those things for which we have worked, but that we receive a full reward. ⁹ Whoever transgresses and does not remain in the teaching of Christ does not have God. Whoever remains in the teaching of Christ has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰ If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house, nor greet him. ¹¹ For whoever greets him takes part in his evil deeds.

Final Greetings

¹² I have many things to write to you, but I prefer not to write with paper and ink. Instead, I hope to come to you and speak face to face that our joy may be complete.

¹³ The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

3 JOHN

John the Beloved probably wrote the third general epistle of John in Ephesus in the AD 90s. It addresses the reality of true and false ministers. Addressed to Gaius, a local church leader, it commends a disciple named Demetrius while also warning against the tactics of Diotrephes. The Holy Spirit provides sound instruction and sober exhortations for all believers in this epistle.

Salutation

1 The elder,
To the beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth:
2 Beloved, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, even as your soul is well. 3 For I greatly rejoiced when brothers came and testified of the truth that is in you, just as you walk in the truth. 4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

Working Together

5 Beloved, you are faithful in all you do for the brothers and for strangers, 6 who have testified of your love before the church. You will do well to send them along on their journey in a manner worthy of God. 7 For His name's sake they went out, receiving no help from the Gentiles. 8 Therefore we ought to receive such men, that we might be fellow workers for the truth.

9 I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to put himself first among them, did not accept us. 10 Because of this, if I come, I will bring up what kinds of works he does: ranting against us with malicious words. Not content with that, he does not accept the brothers, and stops those who want to, and throws them out of the church.

11 Beloved, do not imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. Whoever does good is from God, but whoever does evil has not seen God. 12 Demetrius receives good reports from everyone and from the truth itself. Yes, and we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.

Final Greetings

13 I had many things to write, but I would rather not write to you with pen and ink. 14 Instead, I hope to see you soon, and we shall speak face to face.

Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

JUDE

The general epistle of Jude was written by Jude, a half-brother of Jesus Christ, in the mid AD 60s. The place of authorship is unknown. The purpose for this epistle is to exhort believers to stand firm for the faith. Jude is filled with apocalyptic nuances and imagery. A reading of the Old Testament is a prerequisite before delving into this lofty letter. There are some very encouraging exhortations as well as some sobering ones. Read this epistle with reverence and a humble heart. Refer back to the Old Testament Scriptures that are enveloped within its confines.

Salutation

1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James,
To those who are sanctified and called by God the Father and preserved in Jesus Christ:
2 May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

Judgment on False Teachers

2Pe 2:1-17

3 Beloved, while I diligently tried to write to you of the salvation we have in common, I found it necessary to write and appeal to you to contend for the faith which was once delivered to the saints. 4 For there are some men who secretly crept in, who were marked long ago for this condemnation. They are ungodly men, who pervert the grace of our God into immorality and deny the only Lord God and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 Now I want to remind you, though you already know, that the Lord saved the people out of the land of Egypt and afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6 Likewise, the angels who did not keep to their first domain, but forsook their own dwelling, He has kept in everlasting chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day. 7 Just as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the surrounding cities in like manner, gave themselves to immorality and went after different flesh, they serve as an example by suffering the punishment of eternal fire.

8 Likewise, these ungodly dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority, and slander celestial beings. 9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil in a dispute about the body of Moses, did not dare to pronounce upon him a railing judgment. But he said, "The Lord rebuke you!" 10 But these men slander those things that they do not understand. But they destroy themselves in those things that, like unreasoning animals, they know by instinct.

11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the way of Cain, have run greedily after the error of Balaam for a reward, and perished in the rebellion of Korah.

12 These are the ones who are stains on your love feasts as they feast with you irreverently and care only for themselves. They are clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, uprooted; 13 raging waves of the sea, which are foaming up their own shame; wandering stars for whom the gloom of darkness has been kept forever.

14 Enoch, the seventh generation from Adam, also prophesied of these men, saying, "Look! The Lord is coming with ten thousand of His holy ones, 15 to execute judgment on everyone, and to convict all who are godless of all their wicked deeds that they have committed, and of all the terrible words that godless sinners have spoken against Him." 16 These men are grumblers, complainers, who walk after their own lusts. Their mouths speak arrogant words, and they flatter others to gain profit.

Warnings and Exhortations

17 But, beloved, remember the words that were previously spoken by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ.

18 They said to you, "In the last days there will be scoffers who will walk after their own ungodly desires." 19 These are the men who cause divisions, sensual, devoid of the Spirit.

20 But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most holy faith. Pray in the Holy Spirit. 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God while you are waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, which leads to eternal life.

22 On some have compassion, using discernment. 23 And others save with fear while pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment stained by the flesh.

Benediction

24 Now to Him who is able to keep you from falling and to present you blameless before the presence of His glory with rejoicing, 25 to the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

REVELATION

The Revelation of Jesus Christ to John was written by John the beloved disciple on the Isle of Patmos, possibly during the reign of either the Roman emperor Nero in AD 54–58 or Domitian in AD 81–96. Revelation, or as it is also known, the Apocalypse, is the revelation that God gave to John to show to God’s servants the events that must come to pass. These events were to take place from John’s day forward, including eternal events of the new heavens and the new earth. These events may or may not be chronological, and there is considerable debate regarding this. The Revelation has a mixture of genres: epistle, apocalyptic, and prophecy. The Revelation has three main literary sections reflecting what John sees (1:19): the things that he has seen (the vision of Christ in chapter 1); the things that he sees (the letters to the seven churches in chapters 2–3); and the things that he will see (the heavenly vision of seals, including the trumpets and bowls, and the Millennium and the new heavens and earth in chapters 4–22). However, even within this general outline, there is a lot of repetition and “doubling back” over previous visions, making a precise timeline difficult. One must read the history of the early church as well as the Patristics (commentaries by early Church Fathers) on this genre, as well as the genre in Matthew 24, before jumping to conclusions about how the early church understood apocalyptic literature. Revelation is said to have more Old Testament imagery than any book in the New Testament. One must read the first-century context of the seven churches in Asia Minor, as well as the apocalyptic events given in Matthew 24, Mark 13, and Luke 21 to understand better John’s wonderful vision.

Introduction and Salutation

1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to Him to show to His servants things which must soon take place. He sent and signified it by His angel to His servant John, ² who bears record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw. ³ Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy and keep those things which are written in it, for the time is near.

⁴John,

To the seven churches which are in Asia:

Grace to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is to come and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, ⁵ and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood, ⁶ and has made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

⁷ Look! He is coming with clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him.

And all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him.

Even so, Amen.

⁸ “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End,” says the Lord, “who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.”

A Vision of Christ

⁹ I, John, both your brother and companion in the tribulation and kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was on the isle that is called Patmos on account of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ. ¹⁰ I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s Day, and I heard behind me a great voice like a trumpet, ¹¹ saying, “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last,” and “What you see, write in a book, and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.”

¹² I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And when I turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks, ¹³ and in the midst of the seven candlesticks was one like a Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to the feet and with a golden sash wrapped around the chest. ¹⁴ The hair on His head was white like wool, as white as snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire. ¹⁵ His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and His voice as the sound of many waters. ¹⁶ He had in His right hand seven stars, and out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword. His appearance was like the sun shining brightly.

¹⁷ When I saw Him, I fell at His feet as though I were dead. Then He laid His right hand on me, saying to me, “Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last. ¹⁸ I am He who lives, though I was dead. Look! I am alive forevermore. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death.”

¹⁹ “Write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will take place

after this.²⁰ The mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven candlesticks which you saw are the seven churches.

The Message to Ephesus

2 "To the angel of the church of Ephesus write: "He who holds the seven stars in His right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks, says these things:² I know your works, your labor and your patience, and that you cannot bear those who are evil. And you have tested those who say they are apostles, but are not, and have found them to be liars.³ You have endured, and have been patient, and for My name's sake have labored and have not grown weary.

⁴ "But I have something against you, that you have abandoned the love you had at first.⁵ Remember therefore from where you have fallen. Repent, and do the works you did at first, or else I will come to you quickly and remove your candlestick from its place, unless you repent.⁶ But this you have: You hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

⁷ "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give permission to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God.

The Message to Smyrna

8 "To the angel of the church in Smyrna write: "The First and the Last, who was dead and came to life, says these things:⁹ I know your works and tribulation and poverty (but you are rich). And I know the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.¹⁰ Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Look, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tried, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life.

¹¹ "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death.

The Message to Pergamum

12 "To the angel of the church in Pergamum write: "He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things:¹³ I know your works and where you live, where Satan's throne is. Yet you hold firmly to My name, and did not deny My faith even in the days of Antipas, My faithful martyr, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.

¹⁴ "But I have a few things against you: You have there those who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality.¹⁵ So you also have those who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans.¹⁶ Repent, or else I will come to you quickly and will war against them with the sword of My mouth.

¹⁷ "He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give the hidden manna to eat. And I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows except he who receives it.

The Message to Thyatira

18 "To the angel of the church in Thyatira write: "The Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and whose feet are like fine brass, says these things:¹⁹ I know your works, love, service, faith, and your patience, and that your last works are more than the first.

²⁰ "But I have a few things against you: You permit that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and seduce My servants to commit sexual immorality and eat food sacrificed to idols.²¹ I gave her time to repent of her sexual immorality, but she did not repent.²² Look! I will throw her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their deeds.²³ I will put her children to death, and all the churches shall know that I am He who searches the hearts and minds. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.²⁴ "Now to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as do not have this teaching, who have not known what some call the 'depths of Satan,' I will put on you no other burden.²⁵ But hold firmly what you have until I come.

²⁷ He 'shall rule them with a rod of iron; like the vessels of a potter they shall be broken in pieces' †—*

even as I myself have received authority from My Father.²⁸ And I will give him the morning star.²⁹ He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

The Message to Sardis

3 "To the angel of the church in Sardis write: "He who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars says these things: I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead.² Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain but are ready to die, for I have not found your works perfected before God.³ Remember therefore how you have received and heard; hold fast and repent. Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you.

† Ps 2:9.

⁴ "You have a few names even in Sardis who have not soiled their garments. They shall walk with Me in white, for they are worthy. ⁵ He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments. I will not blot his name out of the Book of Life, but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels. ⁶ He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

The Message to Philadelphia

⁷ "To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: "He who is holy, He who is true, He who has the key of David, He who opens and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens, says these things: ⁸ I know your works. Look! I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it. For you have a little strength, and have kept My word, and have not denied My name. ⁹ Listen! I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews and are not, but lie. Listen! I will make them come and worship before your feet and to know that I have loved you. ¹⁰ Because you have kept My word of patience, I also will keep you from the hour of temptation which shall come upon the entire world, to test those who dwell on the earth.

¹¹ "Look, I am coming quickly. Hold firmly what you have, so that no one may take your crown. ¹² He who overcomes will I make a pillar in the temple of My God, and he shall go out no more. I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God, and My own new name. ¹³ He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.

The Message to Laodicea

¹⁴ "To the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write:

"The Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God, says these things: ¹⁵ I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot. ¹⁶ So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spit you out of My mouth. ¹⁷ For you say, 'I am rich, and have stored up goods, and have need of nothing,' yet do not realize that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked. ¹⁸ I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined by fire, that you may be rich, and white garments, that you may be dressed, that the shame of your nakedness may not appear, and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see.

¹⁹ "Those whom I love, I rebuke and discipline. Therefore be zealous and repent. ²⁰ Listen! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in and dine with him, and he with Me.

²¹ "To him who overcomes will I grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. ²² He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

The Heavenly Worship

⁴ After this I looked. And there was an open door in heaven. The first voice I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, "Come up here, and I will show you things which must take place after this." ² Immediately I was in the Spirit. And there was a throne set in heaven with One sitting on the throne! ³ And He who sat there appeared like a jasper and a sardius stone. There was a rainbow around the throne, appearing like an emerald. ⁴ Twenty-four thrones were around the throne. And I saw twenty-four elders sitting on the thrones, clothed in white garments. They had crowns of gold on their heads. ⁵ Lightnings and thunderings and voices proceeded from the throne. Seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. ⁶ Before the throne was a sea of glass like crystal.

In the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures covered with eyes in front and in back. ⁷ The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature like a calf, the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle. ⁸ The four living creatures had six wings each, and they were covered with eyes all around. All day and night, without ceasing, they were saying:

"Holy, holy, holy,
Lord God Almighty,†
who was, and is, and is to come."

⁹ When the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, who lives forever and ever, ¹⁰ the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne, and worship Him, who lives forever and ever. Then they cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

¹¹ "You are worthy, O Lord,
to receive glory and honor and power;
for You have created all things,
and by Your will they exist
and were created."

The Scroll and the Lamb

⁵ Then I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a scroll written within and on the back, sealed with seven seals. ² And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?" ³ But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look in it. ⁴ I began to weep loudly, because no one was found worthy to open and read the scroll, or to look in it. ⁵ Then one of the elders said to me, "Do not weep. Look! The Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has triumphed. He is able to open the scroll and to loose its seven seals."

† Isa 6:3.

⁶I saw a Lamb in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, standing as though it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. ⁷He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him who sat on the throne. ⁸When He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of saints. ⁹And they sang a new song, saying:

"You are worthy to take the scroll,
and to open its seals;
for You were slain,
and have redeemed us to God by Your blood
out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation,

¹⁰and have made us kings and priests unto our God;
and we shall reign on the earth."

¹¹Then I looked, and I heard around the throne and the living creatures and the elders the voices of many angels, numbering ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands, ¹²saying with a loud voice:

"Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength
and honor and glory and blessing!"

¹³Then I heard every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that are in them, saying:

"To Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb
be blessing and honor and glory and power,
forever and ever!"

¹⁴The four living creatures said, "Amen." And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshipped Him who lives forever and ever.

The Seals

6 I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals. Then I heard one of the four living creatures saying, with voice like thunder, "Come and see." ²And I looked, and there before me was a white horse. He who sat on it had a bow. And a crown was given to him, and he went forth conquering that he might overcome.

³When He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come and see." ⁴Then another horse that was red went forth. Power was given to him who sat on it to take peace from the earth, causing people to kill one another. Then a great sword was given to him.

⁵When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come!" I looked, and there was a black horse, and he who sat on it had a pair of scales in his hand. ⁶Then I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A quart [†] of wheat for a day's wages, and three quarts of barley for a day's wages, ^{††} and do not harm the oil and the wine."

⁷When He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Come!" ⁸So I looked, and there was a pale horse, and the name of him who sat on it was Death, and Hades followed him. Power over a fourth of the earth was given to them, to kill with sword, with hunger, with death, and by the beasts of the earth.

⁹When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the testimony they had held. ¹⁰They cried out with a loud voice, "How long, O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" ¹¹Then a white robe was given to each of them, and they were told to rest a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and brothers should be completed, who would be killed as they were.

¹²I watched as He opened the sixth seal. And suddenly there was a great earthquake. The sun became black, like sackcloth made from goat hair, and the moon became like blood. ¹³And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its unripe figs when it is shaken by a strong wind. ¹⁴Then the heavens receded like a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

¹⁵Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the rich men and the commanding officers and the strong and everyone, slave and free, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶They said to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, ¹⁷for the great day of His wrath has come. Who is able to withstand it?" [‡]

The 144,000 of Israel Sealed

7 Then I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind would not blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. ²And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God. He cried out with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm the earth and the sea, ³saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads." ⁴Then I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred and forty-four thousand out of every tribe of the children of Israel:

⁵Twelve thousand from the tribe of Judah were sealed,
twelve thousand from the tribe of Reuben were sealed,
twelve thousand from the tribe of Gad were sealed,

[†] Gk. a choenix, or a kilogram. ^{††} Gk. a denarius. [‡] Ho 10:8.

⁶ twelve thousand from the tribe of Asher were sealed,
 twelve thousand from the tribe of Naphtali were sealed,
 twelve thousand from the tribe of Manasseh were sealed, ⁷ twelve thousand from the tribe of Simeon were sealed,
 twelve thousand from the tribe of Levi were sealed,
 twelve thousand from the tribe of Issachar were sealed, ⁸ twelve thousand from the tribe of Zebulun were sealed,
 twelve thousand from the tribe of Joseph were sealed,
 and twelve thousand from the tribe of Benjamin were sealed.

The Multitude From Every Nation

⁹ Then I looked. And there was a great multitude which no one could count, from all nations and tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, with palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰ They cried out with a loud voice:

“Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne,
 and to the Lamb!”

¹¹ All the angels stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures and fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, ¹² saying:

“Amen!
 Blessing and glory
 and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever!
 Amen.”

¹³ Then one of the elders asked me, “Who are these clothed in white robes, and where did they come from?”

¹⁴ I said to him, “Sir, you know.”

He said to me, “These are those who came out of great tribulation and washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. ¹⁵ Therefore, they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will dwell among them.

¹⁶ ‘They shall neither hunger any more,
 nor shall they thirst any more;
 the sun shall not strike them,’[†]
 nor any scorching heat;

¹⁷ for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them and ‘He will lead them to springs of living water.’^{††}

[†] Isa 49:10. ^{††} Isa 49:10.

‘And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.’[‡]

The Seventh Seal

⁸ When He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

² And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

³ Another angel, having a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne. ⁴ The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God from the angel’s hand. ⁵ Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it on to the earth. And there were noises, thundering, lightning, and an earthquake.

The Trumpets

⁶ Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound them.

⁷ The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mixed with blood, and they were thrown upon the earth. A third of the trees and all the green grass were burned up.

⁸ Then the second angel sounded, and something like a great mountain, burning with fire, was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea became blood, ⁹ a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰ The third angel sounded, and a great star from heaven, burning like a torch, fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of waters. ¹¹ The name of this star is Wormwood. A third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

¹² The fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. A third of the day had no light, and likewise a third of the night.

¹³ Then I watched, and I heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, “Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the other trumpet blasts of the three angels, who are yet to sound!”

⁹ The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fallen from heaven to the earth. The star was given the key to the bottomless pit. ² He opened the bottomless pit, and smoke ascended from the pit, like the smoke of a great furnace. The sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the pit. ³ And out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth. Power was given them as the scorpions of the earth have power. ⁴ They were commanded not to harm the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only those men who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. ⁵ They were given authority, not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it stings a man. ⁶In those days men will seek death but will not find it. They will desire to die, but death will elude them.

⁷The shape of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle. On their heads were something like crowns of gold, and their faces were like faces of men. ⁸They had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like the teeth of lions. ⁹They had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots with many horses running to battle. ¹⁰They had tails like scorpions and stings in their tails. Their power was to hurt men for five months. ¹¹They had as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek his name is Apollyon. †

¹²The first woe is past. Now, two more woes are yet to come.

¹³The sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, ¹⁴saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great Euphrates River." ¹⁵And the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind. ¹⁶The army of horsemen numbered two hundred million. I heard their number.

¹⁷Thus I saw the horses in the vision: Those who sat on them had breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow. The heads of the horses were like the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire and smoke and brimstone. ¹⁸A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues—by the fire and by the smoke and by the brimstone, which came out of their mouths. ¹⁹The power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, with heads by which they inflict injury.

²⁰The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands. They did not cease to worship demons, and idols of gold, silver, brass, stone, and wood, which cannot see nor hear nor walk. ²¹Nor did they repent of their murders or their magical arts or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

The Angel and the Little Scroll

10 Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, clothed with a cloud and a rainbow on his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire. ²He had a little scroll open in his hand. He set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, ³and cried out with a loud voice, like a lion roaring. When he cried out, seven thunders sounded their voices. ⁴And when the seven thunders sounded their voices, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Seal up those things which the seven thunders said, and do not write them."

⁵The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the earth lifted up his hand to heaven ⁶and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in them, and the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there should be no more delay. ⁷But in the days when the seventh angel is about to sound, the mystery of God will be fulfilled, as He has declared to His servants the prophets.

⁸Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, "Go, take the little scroll which is open in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the earth."

⁹So I went to the angel and said to him, "Give me the little scroll." He said to me, "Take it and eat it. 'It will turn your stomach sour, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey.' †" ¹⁰I took the little scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach turned sour. ¹¹Then he said to me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples and nations and tongues and kings."

The Two Witnesses

11 I was given a reed like a measuring rod. The angel stood, saying, "Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar, and those who worship in it. ²But exclude the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the nations. They will trample on the Holy City for forty-two months. ³And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth." ⁴These are the two olive trees and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth. ⁵If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way. ⁶They have power to shut heaven, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over waters to turn them into blood and to strike the earth with every plague as often as they desire.

⁷When they have finished their testimony, the beast that ascends from the bottomless pit will wage war against them and overcome them and kill them.

⁸Their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. ⁹Those from every people and tribe and tongue and nation will see their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be put in graves. ¹⁰Those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them and make merry and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

† Or a Destroyer.

†† Eze 3:3. ‡ Zec 4:3, 11, 14.

¹¹ After the three and a half days, the breath [†] of life from God entered them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. ¹² Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" And they ascended to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watched them.

¹³ At that same hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand men were killed in the earthquake, and the remnant were frightened and gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴ The second woe is past. Listen, the third woe is coming quickly.

The Seventh Trumpet

¹⁵ The seventh angel sounded, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying:

"The kingdoms of the world have become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever."

¹⁶ And the twenty-four elders, who sat before God on their thrones, fell on their faces and worshipped God, ¹⁷ saying:

"We give You thanks, O Lord God Almighty, who is and was and who is to come, because You have taken Your great power and begun to reign.

¹⁸ The nations were angry, and Your wrath has come, and the time has come for the dead to be judged, and to reward Your servants the prophets and the saints and those who fear Your name, small and great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

¹⁹ Then the temple of God was opened in heaven, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His temple. And there came lightning, noises, thundering, an earthquake, and great hail.

The Woman and the Dragon

12 A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. ² She was with child and cried out in labor and in pain to give birth. ³ Then another sign appeared in heaven: There was a great red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, and seven diadems on his heads. ⁴ His tail drew a third of the stars of heaven, and threw them to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman who was ready to give birth, to devour her Child as soon as He was born. ⁵ She gave birth to a male Child, "who was to rule all nations with an iron scepter." ^{††} And her Child was caught up to God and to His throne. ⁶ The woman fled into the wilderness where she has a place prepared by God, that they may nourish her there for one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

⁷ Then war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon and his angels fought, ⁸ but they did not prevail, nor was there a place for them in heaven any longer. ⁹ The great dragon was cast out, that ancient serpent called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world. He was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him.

¹⁰ Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying: "Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down.

¹¹ They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they loved not their lives unto the death.

¹² Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! Woe unto the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short."

¹³ When the dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male Child. ¹⁴ The woman was given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, where she is to be nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent. ¹⁵ Then the serpent spewed water out of his mouth like a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood. ¹⁶ But the earth helped the woman. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed the flood which the dragon spewed out of his mouth. ¹⁷ Then the dragon was angry with the woman, and he went to wage war with the remnant of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

The Two Beasts

13 I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, with ten crowns on his horns, and blasphemous names on his heads. ² The beast which I saw was like a leopard. His feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority. ³ I saw one of his heads as if it was mortally wounded, but his deadly wound was healed, and the whole world marveled and followed the beast. ⁴ They worshipped the dragon who gave authority to the beast. And they worshipped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to wage war with him?"

⁵ He was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies. And he was given authority to wage war for forty-two months. ⁶ He opened his mouth to speak blasphemies against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle and those who dwell in heaven. ⁷ It was granted to him to wage war with the saints and to overcome them. And authority was given him over every tribe and tongue and nation. ⁸ All who dwell on the earth will worship him, all whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb who was slain from the foundation of the world.

[†] Eze 37:5-14. ^{††} Ps 2:9.

⁹ If anyone has an ear, let him hear:

¹⁰ "He who is to be taken captive,
into captivity he shall go;
he who kills with the sword,
with the sword he must be killed." †

Here is a call for the patience and the faith of the saints.

¹¹ Then I saw another beast rising out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb and he spoke like a dragon. ¹² He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence and causes the earth and those who dwell on it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. ¹³ He performs great signs, making fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men. ¹⁴ He deceives those who dwell on the earth by the signs which he was granted to do in the presence of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by a sword and lived. ¹⁵ He was allowed to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁶ He causes all, both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave, to receive a mark on their right hand or on their forehead, ¹⁷ so that no one may buy or sell, except he who has the mark or the name of the beast or the number of his name.

¹⁸ Here is a call for wisdom: Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast. It is the number of a man. His number is six hundred and sixty-six.

The Lamb and the 144,000

14 Then I looked. The Lamb was standing on Mount Zion and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand having His Father's name written on their foreheads. ² And I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters and like the sound of a great thunder. I heard the sound of harpists playing their harps. ³ They sang a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn that song except the one hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth. ⁴ These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed from among men, as first fruits to God and to the Lamb. ⁵ No lie was found in their mouths, for they are without fault before the throne of God.

The Messages of the Three Angels

⁶ Then I saw another angel flying in the midst of heaven, having the eternal gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth, to every nation and tribe and tongue and people. ⁷ He said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give Him glory, for the hour of His judgment has come. Worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

⁸ Another angel followed, saying, "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon, that Great City,' †† because she made all the nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality."

⁹ A third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives his mark on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰ he also shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out in full strength into the cup of His anger. He shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. ¹¹ The smoke of their torment will ascend forever and ever. They have no rest day or night, who worship the beast and his image and whoever receives the mark of his name." ¹² Here is the patience of the saints; here are those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.

¹³ Then I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on."

"Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, for their works follow them."

The Harvest of the Earth

¹⁴ I looked. And there was a white cloud, and on the cloud sat One like a Son of Man, having on his head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle. ¹⁵ Then another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, "Thrust in Your sickle and reap. The time has come for You to reap, for the harvest of the earth is ripe." ¹⁶ So He who sat on the cloud thrust His sickle on the earth, and the earth was harvested.

¹⁷ Another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸ Yet another angel who had authority over fire came out from the altar. He cried with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe." ¹⁹ The angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. ²⁰ The winepress was trampled outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, up to the horses' bridles, for one hundred and eighty-six miles. ‡

† Jer 15:2.

†† Isa 21:9. ‡ Gk. 1,600 stadia or 300 kilometers.

The Angels With the Last Plagues

15 I saw another great and marvelous sign in heaven: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them the wrath of God is complete. ² And I saw what looked like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who have the victory over the beast, over his image and over his mark and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. ³ They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying: "Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty! Just and true are Your ways, O King of saints! ⁴ Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. All nations shall come and worship before You, for Your judgments have been revealed." † ⁵ After this I looked. And now the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. ⁶ The seven angels came out of the temple with the seven plagues. They were clothed in pure, bright linen, having their chests wrapped with golden sashes. ⁷ Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. ⁸ And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power. No one was able to enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were completed.

The Seven Bowls of God's Wrath

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go, pour out the bowls of the wrath of God on the earth." ² The first went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and foul and grievous sores came on the men who had the mark of the beast and those who worshipped his image. ³ The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea. It became like the blood of a dead man, and every living creature in the sea died. ⁴ The third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. ⁵ Then I heard the angel of the waters saying: "You are righteous, O Lord, who is and was and who is to be, because You have judged these things. ⁶ For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink. It is what they deserve!" ⁷ And I heard another from the altar saying: "Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments."

⁸ The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and power was given to him to scorch men with fire. ⁹ Men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who has power over these plagues, and they did not repent and give Him glory. ¹⁰ The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was filled with darkness. They gnawed their tongues because of the anguish, ¹¹ and blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and did not repent of their deeds. ¹² The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great Euphrates River, and its water was dried up, to prepare the way for the kings from the East. ¹³ Then I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. ¹⁴ For they are spirits of demons, performing signs, who go out to the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

¹⁵ "Look, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who watches and keeps his garments on, lest he walk naked and his shame be exposed."

¹⁶ They gathered them together to the place which in Hebrew is called Armageddon.

¹⁷ The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" ¹⁸ And there were noises and thundering and lightning and a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake, as had never occurred since men were on the earth. ¹⁹ The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the Great was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath. ²⁰ Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. ²¹ Great hail, about the weight of a hundred pounds, †† fell from heaven upon man. Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, because that plague was so severe.

The Great Harlot and the Beast

17 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and talked with me, saying to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, ² with whom the kings of the earth committed adultery, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her sexual immorality."

³ Then he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast which was full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. ⁴ The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup † Phrases from Ps 111:2-3; Dt 32:4; Jer 10:7; Ps 86:9; 98:2.

†† Or 45 kilograms.

full of abominations and the filth of her sexual immorality. ⁵ On her forehead a name was written:

MYSTERY,
BABYLON THE GREAT,
THE MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES
AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

⁶ I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus.

When I saw her, I marveled greatly. ⁷ Then the angel said to me, "Why do you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. ⁸ The beast, which you saw, was, and is not, and is to ascend out of the bottomless pit and go to destruction. Those who dwell on the earth whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see the beast that was, and is not, and is to come.

⁹ "Here is the mind which has wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits. ¹⁰ They are also seven kings. Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while. ¹¹ Concerning the beast who was, and is not, he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and is going to destruction.

¹² "The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom yet, but they will receive authority as kings for one hour with the beast. ¹³ These are of one mind and will give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴ These will wage war with the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them, for He is Lord of lords and King of kings. Those who are with Him are called and chosen and faithful."

¹⁵ Then he said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. ¹⁶ These ten horns and the beast which you saw will hate the prostitute; they will make her desolate and naked, and devour her flesh, and burn her with fire. ¹⁷ For God has put in their hearts to fulfill His will, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. ¹⁸ The woman whom you saw is that great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."

The Fall of Babylon

18 After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated with his glory. ² He cried out mightily with a loud voice, saying:

"Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great!" [†]
She has become a dwelling place of demons,
a haunt for every unclean spirit,
and a haunt for every unclean and hateful bird.

³ For all the nations have drunk
of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality,
the kings of the earth have committed adultery with her,

and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her luxury."

⁴ Then I heard another voice from heaven saying:

"Come out of her, my people," ^{††}
lest you partake in her sins,
and lest you receive her plagues.

⁵ For her sins have reached up to heaven,
and God has remembered her iniquities.

⁶ Render to her as she has rendered to you,
and repay her double for her deeds;
in the cup which she has mixed, mix a double portion for her.

⁷ To the extent that she glorified herself and lived luxuriously,

so give her torment and sorrow;
for in her heart she says,
'I sit as a queen, and am no widow,
and will see no sorrow.' [‡]

⁸ Therefore her plagues will come in one day—
death and mourning and famine.

And she will be utterly burned with fire,
for strong is the Lord God who judges her.

⁹ "The kings of the earth, who have committed adultery and lived luxuriously with her, will weep and mourn over her when they see the smoke of her burning. ¹⁰ Standing far off for the fear of her torment, they will say:

'Alas, alas for that great city,
that mighty city, Babylon!

In one hour your judgment has come.'

¹¹ "The merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more:

¹² the merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones and pearls, fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet, all kinds of scented wood, all artifacts of ivory, all merchandise of costly wood, bronze, iron, and marble; ¹³ and cinnamon and incense, myrrh and frankincense, wine, oil, fine flour and wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and slaves and souls of men.

¹⁴ 'The fruit that your soul lusted after has departed from you,
and all the things which graceful and exquisite
have departed from you,
and you shall never find them.'

¹⁵ "The merchants of these things, who gained wealth by her, will stand far off for fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, ¹⁶ and saying:

'Alas, alas, that great city,
that was arrayed in fine linen, in purple and scarlet,
and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls!

¹⁷ In one hour such great riches came to nothing!

"All sea captains and seafaring men, sailors and all who trade by sea, stood far off, ¹⁸ and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like this great city? ¹⁹ They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and wailing, and saying:

'Alas, alas, that great city,
in which all who had ships in the sea
grew rich from her wealth!
In one hour she has been laid waste!'

²⁰ "Rejoice over her, O heaven and saints and apostles and prophets,
for God has avenged you against her."

²¹ Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying:

"With such violence
shall that great city Babylon be thrown down,
and shall be found no more.

²² The sound of harpists and musicians, flute players and trumpeters,
shall not be heard in you any more.
No craftsman of any craft

shall be found in you any more,
and the sound of a millstone
shall not be heard in you any more.

²³ The light of a lamp
shall shine in you no more,
and the voice of bridegroom and of bride shall be heard in you no more.

For your merchants were the great men of the earth,
and all nations were deceived by your sorcery.

²⁴ In her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all who were slain on the earth."

19 After these things I heard a great sound of many people in heaven, shouting:

"Alleluia!
Salvation and glory and honor and power belong to the Lord our God!

² For true and righteous are His judgments,
because He has judged the great prostitute
who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality;
and He has avenged on her the blood of His servants."

³ Again they said:

"Alleluia!
Her smoke rises forever and ever."

⁴ The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God who sat on the throne, saying:

"Amen! Alleluia!"

The Marriage Supper of the Lamb

⁵ Then a voice came from the throne, saying:

"Praise our God,
all you His servants
and those who fear Him,
both small and great!"

⁶ Then I heard something like the sound like a great multitude, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thunderings, saying:

"Alleluia!

For the Lord God Omnipotent reigns!

⁷ Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him glory,
for the marriage of the Lamb has come,
and His wife has made herself ready.

⁸ It was granted her to be arrayed in fine linen,
clean and white."

Fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.

⁹ Then he said to me, "Write: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb." And he said to me, "These are the true sayings of God."

¹⁰ I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "See that you not do that. I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

The Rider on the White Horse

¹¹ I saw heaven opened. And there was a white horse. He who sat on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and wages war. ¹² His eyes are like a flame of fire, and on His head are many crowns. He has a name written, that no one knows but He Himself. ¹³ He is clothed with a robe dipped in blood. His name is called The Word of God. ¹⁴ The armies in heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses. ¹⁵ Out of His mouth proceeds a sharp sword, with which He may strike the nations. "He shall rule them with an iron scepter." [†] He treads the winepress of the fury and wrath of God the Almighty. ¹⁶ On His robe and on His thigh He has a name written:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.

¹⁹ Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to wage war against Him who sat on the horse and against His army. ²⁰ But the beast was captured and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshipped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with brimstone. ²¹ The remnant were slain with the sword which proceeded out of the mouth of Him who sat on the horse. And all the birds gorged themselves with their flesh.

† Ps 2:9.

The Thousand Years

20 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key to the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. ² He seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years. ³ He cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were ended. After that he must be set free for a little while.

⁴ I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and the authority to judge was given to them. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their witness of Jesus and for the word of God. They had not worshipped the beast or his image, and had not received his mark on their foreheads or on their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. ⁵ The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended. This is the first resurrection. ⁶ Blessed and holy is he who takes part in the first resurrection. Over these the second death has no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

The Defeat of Satan

⁷ When the thousand years are ended, Satan will be set free from his prison ⁸ and will go out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle. Their number is like the sand of the sea. ⁹ They traveled the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. But fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them. ¹⁰ The devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone where the beast and the false prophet were. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

The Great White Throne Judgment

¹¹ Then I saw a great white throne and Him who was seated on it. From His face the earth and the heavens fled away, and no place was found for them. ¹² And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God. Books were opened. Then another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. The dead were judged according to their works as recorded in the books. ¹³ The sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. And they were judged, each one by his works. ¹⁴ Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. ¹⁵ Anyone whose name was not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire.

The New Heaven and the New Earth

21 Then I saw "a new heaven and a new earth." [†] For the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no more sea. ² I, John, saw the Holy City, the New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from heaven, saying, "Look! The tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them. They shall be His people, and God Himself will be with them and be their God. ⁴ 'God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. There shall be no more death.' ^{††} Neither shall there be any more sorrow nor crying nor pain, for the former things have passed away."

⁵ He who was seated on the throne said, "Look! I am making all things new." Then He said to me, "Write, for these words are faithful and true."

⁶ He said to me, "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give of the spring of the water of life to him who thirsts. ⁷ He who overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he shall be My son. [‡] But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the abominable, the murderers, the sexually immoral, the sorcerers, the idolaters, and all liars shall have their portion in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone. This is the second death."

The New Jerusalem

⁹ One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came to me and said to me, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." ¹⁰ And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, ¹¹ having the glory of God, her light like a most precious jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. ¹² It had a great, high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel were written: ¹³ three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west. ¹⁴ The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

¹⁵ He who talked with me had a golden rod to measure the city and its gates and wall. ¹⁶ The city lies as a square, its length as long as its width. He measured the city with the rod: one thousand four hundred miles. ^{‡‡} Its length and breadth and height are equal. ¹⁷ He then measured its wall: two hundred feet ^{‡‡} by the measurement of a man, that is, of an angel. ¹⁸ The wall was built of jasper and the city was pure gold, as clear as glass. ¹⁹ The foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all kinds of precious jewels. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; ²⁰ the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst. ²¹ The twelve gates were twelve pearls, each of the gates made of a single pearl, and the street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.

²² I saw no temple in the city, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. ²³ The city has no need of sun or moon to shine in it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. ²⁴ And the nations of those who are saved shall walk in its light, and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honor into it. ²⁵ Its gates shall never be shut by day, for there shall be no night there. ²⁶ They shall bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. ²⁷ No unclean thing shall ever enter it, nor shall anyone who commits abomination or falsehood, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

²² Then he showed me a pure river of the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb ² in the middle of its street. On each side of the river was the tree of life, which bore twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. ³ There shall be no more curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His servants shall serve Him. ⁴ They shall see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads. ⁵ Night shall be no more. They need no lamp nor the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they shall reign forever and ever.

The Coming of Christ

⁶ The angel said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord God of the holy prophets sent His angel to show to His servants the things which must soon take place."

⁷ "Look, I am coming soon. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

⁸ I, John, am he who saw and heard these things. When I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things.

⁹ But he said to me, "See that you not do that. For I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book. Worship God!"

¹⁰ Then he said to me, "Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand. ¹¹ He who is unjust, let him be unjust still. He who is filthy, let him be filthy still. He who is righteous, let him be righteous still. He who is holy, let him be holy still."

¹² "Look, I am coming soon! My reward is with Me to give to each one according to his work. ¹³ I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last."

¹⁴ Blessed are those who do His commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city. ¹⁵ Outside are dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters and everyone who loves and practices a lie.

¹⁶ "I, Jesus, have sent My angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the Bright and Morning Star."

¹⁷ The Spirit and the bride say, "Come." Let him who hears say, "Come." Let him who is thirsty come. Let him who desires take the water of life freely.

¹⁸ I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds to these things, God shall add to him the plagues that are written in this book. ¹⁹ And if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the Book of Life and out of the Holy City and out of the things which are written in this book.

²⁰ He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon."

Amen. Even so, come Lord Jesus!

²¹ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
