GENESIS

Genesis was probably written between 1440 and 1400 BC. Jewish tradition and the New Testament writers attribute this book to Moses. Since secondary sources and edited comments are included, Moses may be responsible for the core of the writing and may have used other sources for the events that preceded him. The themes of the book are the beginnings of creation, humanity, and Israel. It chronicles the creation of the world and reveals God's desire and plan to have a people of His very own who are set apart to worship Him. Set in the Middle East, places include the Garden of Eden, Babel, Bethel, Egypt, and Sodom and Gomorrah. Genesis not only provides an account of God's creation of the cosmos and the earth, but also it sets the stage for the rest of the Bible. God is revealed as Creator and Redeemer in Genesis, as it speaks to the creation, fall, and restoration of humanity. Genesis recounts humanity's tragic fall into sin and death and God's unfolding plan of redemption through His covenant with Abraham and his descendants.

The Creation

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. ²The earth was formless and void, [†] darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was moving ^{††} over the surface of the water.

³ God said, "Let there be light," and there was light.

⁴ God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. So the evening and the morning were the first day.

⁶ Then God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." ⁷ So God made the expanse and separated the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse. And it was so. ⁸ God called the expanse Heaven. So the evening and the morning were the second day.

¹¹ Then God said, "Let the earth produce vegetation: [‡] plants yielding seed and fruit trees on the earth yielding fruit after their kind with seed in them." And it was so. ¹² The earth produced vegetation, plants yielding seed after their kind and trees yielding fruit with seed in them after their kind. And God saw that it was good. ¹³ So the evening and the morning were the third day.

¹⁴ And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and let them be signs to indicate seasons, and days, and years. ¹⁵ Let them be lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth." And it was so.

[†] Or a waste and emptiness. ^{††} Or a hovering. [‡] Or a grass.

¹⁶ God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night. He made the stars also. ¹⁷ Then God set them in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth, ¹⁸ to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. Then God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ So the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

²⁴ Then God said, "Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds: livestock, and creeping things, and beasts of the earth according to their kinds." And it was so. ²⁵ So God made the beasts of the earth according to their kind, and the livestock according to their kind, and everything that creeps on the earth according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

²⁶ Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the livestock, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."

²⁸ God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and replenish the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves on the earth."

²⁹ Then God said, "See, I have given you every plant yielding seed which is on the face of all the earth and every tree which has fruit yielding seed. It shall be food for you. ³⁰ To every beast of the earth and to every bird of the air and to everything that creeps on the earth which has the breath of life in it, I have given every green plant for food." And it was so.

³¹ God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good. So the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

2 So the heavens and the earth, and all their hosts, were finished.

² On the seventh day God completed His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had done. ³ Then God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it He had rested from all His work which He had created and made.

Adam and Eve

⁴ This is the account [†] of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

In the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, ⁵ no shrub of the field was yet on the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to cultivate the ground. ⁶ But a mist ^{††} arose from the earth and watered the whole surface of the ground. ⁷ Then the LORD God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living being.

⁸ The LORD God planted a garden in the east, in Eden, and there He placed the man whom He had formed. ⁹ Out of the ground the LORD God made to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food. The tree of life was also in the midst of the garden, along with the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

¹¹ The name of the first is Pishon; it encompasses the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. ¹² The gold of that land is good; bdellium and the onyx stone are there. ¹³ The name of the second river is Gihon; it encompasses the whole land of Cush. ¹⁴ The name of the third river is Tigris; it goes toward the east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

¹⁵ The LORD God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and to keep it. ¹⁶ And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, "Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat, ¹⁷ but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat from it you will surely die."

[†] Lit. a These are the generations. ^{††} Or a flow.

¹⁸ Then the LORD God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helper suitable for him."

¹⁹ Out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the sky, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them. Whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. ²⁰ The man gave names to all the livestock, to the birds of the sky, and to every beast of the field, but for Adam [‡] there was not found a helper suitable for him.

²¹ So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept. Then He took one of his ribs and closed up the place with flesh. ²² Then the rib which the LORD God had taken from man, He made into a woman, and He brought her to the man.

²³ Then Adam said, "This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she will be called Woman, for she was taken out of Man."

²⁴ Therefore a man will leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and they will become one flesh.

²⁵ They were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

The Fall

3 Now the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said to the woman, "Has God said, 'You shall not eat of any tree of the garden?'"

² And the woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit from the trees of the garden; ³ but from the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, 'You will not eat of it, nor will you touch it, or else you will die.'"

⁴ Then the serpent said to the woman, "You surely will not die! ⁵ For God knows that on the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

⁶ When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasing to the eyes and a tree desirable to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she gave to her husband with her, and he ate.

⁷ Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

⁸ Then they heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. ⁹ The LORD God called to the man and said to him, "Where are you?"

¹⁰ He said, "I heard Your voice in the garden and was afraid because I was naked, so I hid myself."

[‡] MT a the man, or the Adam

¹¹ And He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?"

¹² The man said, "The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree, and I ate."

¹³ Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What have you done?"

And the woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

¹⁴ The LORD God said to the serpent: "Because you have done this,

You are cursed above all livestock, and above every beast of the field;
you will go on your belly,
and you will eat dust
all the days of your life.

¹⁵ I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring;
he will bruise your head,
and you will bruise his heel."

¹⁶ To the woman He said,
"I will greatly multiply your pain in childbirth, and in pain you will bring forth children;
your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you."

¹⁷ And to Adam He said, "Because you have listened to the voice of your wife and have eaten from the tree about which I commanded you, saying, 'You shall not eat of it,'

Cursed is the ground on account of you;
in hard labor you will eat of it
all the days of your life.

¹⁸ Thorns and thistles it will bring forth for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.

¹⁹ By the sweat of your face you will eat bread until you return to the ground, because out of it you were taken;
for you are dust,
and to dust you will return."

²⁰ The man called his wife's name Eve because she was the mother of all the living.

²¹ The LORD God made garments of skins for both Adam and his wife and clothed them. ²² The LORD God said, "The man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil. And now, he might reach out his hand, and take also from the tree of life, and eat, and live forever"— ²³ therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken. ²⁴ He drove the man out, and at the east of the garden of Eden He placed the cherubim and a flaming sword which turned in every direction, to guard the way to the tree of life.

Cain and Abel

4 Adam had relations with his wife Eve, and she conceived, gave birth to Cain and said, "I have gotten a man with the help of the LORD." ² Then she gave birth again to his brother Abel.

And Abel was a keeper of flocks, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. ³ In the course of time Cain brought an offering to the LORD of the fruit of the ground. ⁴ Abel also brought the firstborn of his flock and of their fat portions. And the LORD had respect for Abel and for his offering, ⁵ but for Cain and for his offering, He did not have respect. And Cain was very angry and his countenance fell.

⁶ The LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why is your countenance fallen? ⁷ If you do well, shall you not be accepted? † But if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. It desires to dominate you, but you must rule over it."

⁸ Cain told Abel his brother. And it came about, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him.

⁹ The LORD said to Cain, "Where is Abel your brother?"

He said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?"

¹⁰ And then He said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood is crying out to Me from the ground. ¹¹ Now you are cursed from the ground which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. ¹² From now on when you till the ground, it will not yield for you its best. You will be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth."

¹³ Then Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is more than I can bear. ¹⁴ You have driven me out this day from the face of the earth, and from your face will I be hidden; and I will be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth, and it will happen that anyone who finds me will kill me."

¹⁵ So the LORD said to him, "Therefore whoever kills Cain, vengeance will be taken on him sevenfold." Then the LORD put a mark upon Cain, so that no one finding him would kill him. ¹⁶ Then Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and settled in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

¹⁷ Cain had relations with his wife, and she conceived and gave birth to Enoch. He built a city and called the name of the city after the name of his son, Enoch. ¹⁸ To Enoch was born Irad, and Irad was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael was the father of Methushael, and Methushael was the father of Lamech.

¹⁹ Lamech took two wives. The name of one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah. ²⁰ Adah gave birth to Jabal. He was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock. ²¹ His brother's name was Jubal. He was the father of all those who play the harp and flute. ²² Zillah gave birth to Tubal-Cain, a forger of every tool of bronze and iron. The sister of Tubal-Cain was Naamah.

²³ Lamech said to his wives:

"Adah and Zillah, hear my voice,
you wives of Lamech, and listen to my speech.

† Or a uplifted.

For I have killed a man for wounding me, a young man who hurt me.

²⁴ If Cain will be avenged sevenfold, then truly Lamech seventy-sevenfold.”

²⁵ Adam had relations with his wife again, and she had another son and called his name Seth, for she said, “God has granted me another offspring instead of Abel because Cain killed him.” ²⁶ To Seth also was born a son, and he called his name Enosh.

At that time men began to call on the name of the LORD.

Adam's Descendants

5 This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day when God created man, He made him in the likeness of God. ² He created them male and female. He blessed them and called them Mankind in the day when they were created.

³ Adam lived a hundred and thirty years and became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his own image, and called his name Seth. ⁴ The days of Adam after he became the father of Seth were eight hundred years, and he had other sons and daughters. ⁵ So all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years, and he died.

⁶ Seth lived one hundred and five years and became the father of Enosh. ⁷ Seth lived after the birth of Enosh eight hundred and seven years and had other sons and daughters. ⁸ So all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years, and he died.

⁹ Enosh lived ninety years and became the father of Kenan. ¹⁰ Enosh lived after the birth of Kenan eight hundred and fifteen years and had other sons and daughters. ¹¹ So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years, and he died.

¹² Kenan lived seventy years and became the father of Mahalalel. ¹³ Kenan lived after the birth of Mahalalel eight hundred and forty years and had other sons and daughters. ¹⁴ So all the days of Kenan were nine hundred and ten years, and he died.

¹⁵ Mahalalel lived sixty-five years and became the father of Jared. ¹⁶ Mahalalel lived after the birth of Jared eight hundred and thirty years and had other sons and daughters. ¹⁷ So all the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred and ninety-five years, and he died.

¹⁸ Jared lived one hundred and sixty-two years and became the father of Enoch. ¹⁹ Jared lived after the birth of Enoch eight hundred years and had other sons and daughters. ²⁰ So all the days of Jared were nine hundred and sixty-two years, and he died.

²¹ Enoch lived sixty-five years and became the father of Methuselah. ²² Enoch walked with God after the birth of Methuselah for three hundred years and had other sons and daughters. ²³ So all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years. ²⁴ Enoch walked with God, and then he was no more because God took him.

²⁸ Lamech lived one hundred and eighty-two years and had a son. ²⁹ He named his son Noah, saying, “This one will comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands because of the ground which the LORD has cursed.” ³⁰ Lamech lived after the birth of Noah five hundred and ninety-five years and had other sons and daughters. ³¹ So all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years, and he died.

³² Noah was five hundred years old and became the father of Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

Man's Wickedness

6 When men began to multiply on the face of the earth and daughters were born to them, ² the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were fair and took as wives any they chose. ³ The LORD said, “My Spirit will not always strive with man, for he is flesh; yet his days will be a hundred and twenty years.”

⁴ The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also after that, when the sons of God came in to the daughters of men, and they bore children to them. These were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

⁵ The LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great on the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was continually only evil. ⁶ The LORD was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and it grieved Him in His heart. ⁷ So the LORD said, “I will destroy man, whom I have created, from the face of the earth—both man and beast, and the creeping things, and the birds of the sky, for I am sorry that I have made them.” ⁸ But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

Noah and the Flood

⁹ These are the generations of Noah.

Noah was a just man and blameless among his contemporaries. Noah walked with God. ¹⁰ Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

¹¹ The earth was corrupt before God and filled with violence. ¹² God looked on the earth and saw it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth. ¹³ So God said to Noah, “The end of all flesh is come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence because of them. Now I will destroy them with the earth. ¹⁴ Make an ark of cypress wood for yourself. Make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and out with pitch. ¹⁵ And this is how you must make it: The length of the ark will be three hundred cubits, the width of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

¹⁶ Make an opening [†] one cubit [‡] below the top of the ark all around; and you must set the door of the ark on the side. Make it with a lower, a second, and a third story. ¹⁷ I will bring a flood of waters on the earth to destroy all flesh, wherever there is the breath of life under heaven, and everything that is on the earth will die. ¹⁸ But I will establish My covenant with you; you must go into the ark—you, and your sons, and your wife, and your sons' wives with you. ¹⁹ Bring every living thing of all flesh, two of every kind, into the ark to keep them alive with you. They shall be male and female. ²⁰ Two of every kind of bird, of every kind of animal, and of every kind of creeping thing of the earth will come to you to be kept alive. ²¹ Also, take with you of every kind of food that is eaten and gather it to yourself, and it will be for food for you and for them."

7 The LORD said to Noah, "You and your entire household go into the ark, for you alone I have seen to be righteous before Me among this generation. ² Take with you seven each of every clean animal, the male and its female, and two each of every unclean animal, the male and its female, ³ and seven each of birds of the air, the male and female, to keep offspring alive on the face of all the earth. ⁴ In seven days I will cause it to rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights, and every living thing that I have made I will destroy from the face of the earth."

¹³ On the very same day Noah and the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, entered the ark. ¹⁴ They and every wild animal according to its kind, and all the livestock according to their kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth according to its kind, and every bird according to its kind, every bird of every sort, ¹⁵ went with Noah into the ark, two by two of all flesh in which was the breath of life. ¹⁶ So they went in, male and female of all flesh, just as God had commanded him; then the LORD shut him in.

¹⁷ The flood was on the earth forty days, and the water increased and lifted up the ark, so that it rose up above the earth. ¹⁸ The water prevailed and increased greatly upon the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the water. ¹⁹ The water prevailed exceedingly on the earth, and all the high mountains that were under the whole heaven were covered. ²⁰ The waters prevailed upward and the mountains were covered fifteen cubits deep. ^{†21} All flesh that moved on the earth died: birds and livestock and beasts, and every creeping thing that crept on the earth, and every man. ²² All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, all that was on the dry land, died. ²³ So He blotted out every living thing which was on the face of the ground, both man and animals and the creeping things and the birds of the heavens. They were blotted out from the earth, and only Noah and those who were with him in the ark remained alive.

The Flood Recedes

8 God remembered Noah and every living thing and all the livestock that were with him in the ark. So God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the water receded. ² Also the fountains of the deep and the floodgates of heaven were closed, and the rain from the heavens was restrained. ³ The water receded steadily from the earth, and after the end of one hundred and fifty days the waters decreased. ⁴ The ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the mountains of Ararat. ⁵ The water continually decreased until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains became visible.

⁶ Then at the end of forty days, Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made, ⁷ and he sent forth a raven, which went to and fro until the waters were dried up on the earth. ⁸ Then he sent out a dove to see if the waters had subsided from the face of the ground. ⁹ But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, so she returned to him into the ark, for the waters were on the surface of all the earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and brought her into the ark to himself. ¹⁰ He waited yet another seven days, and again he sent out the dove from the ark. ¹¹ The dove came to him in the evening, and in her mouth there was a freshly plucked olive leaf. So Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth. ¹² He waited another seven days and sent out the dove again, but it did not return to him again.

[†] About 450 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high; or 135 meters long, 23 meters wide, and 14 meters high. ^{††} Or a roof.

[‡] About 18 inches, or 45 centimeters.

^{††} About 23 feet, or 6.8 meters.

ground was dry. ¹⁴In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

¹⁵Then God spoke to Noah, saying, ¹⁶“Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons’ wives with you. ¹⁷Bring out with you every living thing of all flesh that is with you, birds and animals, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, so that they may breed abundantly on the earth and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.”

¹⁸So Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives went out. ¹⁹Every beast, every creeping thing, every bird, and everything that moves on the earth, according to their families, went out of the ark.

²⁰Then Noah built an altar to the LORD and took of every clean animal and of every clean bird and offered burnt offerings on the altar. ²¹The LORD smelled a soothing aroma; and the LORD said in His heart, “I will never again curse the ground because of man, for the inclination of man’s heart is evil from his youth, nor will I again destroy every living thing as I have done.

²²While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest,
cold and heat,
summer and winter,
and day and night
will not cease.”

The Noahic Covenant

9 Then God blessed Noah and his sons and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth.

²Every beast of the earth and every bird of the sky and all that moves on the earth and all the fish of the sea will fear you and be terrified of you. They are given into your hand. ³Every moving thing that lives will be food for you. I give you everything, just as I gave you the green plant.

⁶Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed;
for God made man in His own image.

⁷And as for you, be fruitful and multiply; increase abundantly in the earth and multiply in it.”

⁸Again God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying, ⁹“As for Me, I establish My covenant with you, and with your descendants after you; ¹⁰and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the livestock, and every beast of the earth with you; of all that comes out of the ark, every beast of the earth. ¹¹I establish My covenant with you. Never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood. Never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.”

¹²Then God said, “This is the sign of the covenant which I am making between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations. ¹³I have set My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth. ¹⁴When I bring a cloud over the earth, the rainbow will be seen in the cloud; ¹⁵then I will remember My covenant, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh, and the waters will never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. ¹⁶The rainbow will appear in the cloud, and I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.”

¹⁷So God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

The Sons of Noah

¹⁸The sons of Noah who went forth from the ark were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan. ¹⁹These were the three sons of Noah, and from them the whole earth was populated.

²⁰Noah began to be a man of the soil, and he planted a vineyard. ²¹Then he drank some of the wine and became drunk, and lay uncovered in his tent. ²²And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside. ²³So Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father. Their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father’s nakedness.

²⁴When Noah awoke from his wine and knew what his younger son had done to him, ²⁵he said, “Canaan be cursed!

He will be a servant of servants to his brothers.”

²⁶He also said,

“Blessed be the LORD God of Shem, and let Canaan be his servant.

²⁷May God enlarge Japheth, and may he dwell in the tents of Shem, and may Canaan be his servant.”

²⁸Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years. ²⁹All the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years, and then he died.

The Table of Nations

10 Now these are the generations of Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah. And sons were born to them after the flood.

The Japhethites

1Ch 1:5-7

²The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshek, and Tiras.

³The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah.

⁴The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittites, and the Rodanites.

⁵ From these the coastlands of the nations were divided † into their lands, everyone according to his tongue, according to their families, by their nations.

The Hamites

⁶ The sons of Ham were Cush, Egypt, Put, and Canaan.

⁷ The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteka; and the sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

⁸ Cush was the father of Nimrod. He became a mighty one on the earth. ⁹ He was a mighty hunter before the LORD. Therefore it is said, "Even like Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD." ¹⁰ The beginning of his kingdom was Babel, †† Uruk, Akkad, and Kalneh in the land of Shinar. ¹¹ From that land he went to Assyria and built Nineveh, the city Rehoboth Ir, and Calah, ¹² and Resen between Nineveh and Calah (that is the principal city).

¹⁵ Canaan was the father of Sidon his firstborn and Heth, ¹⁶ and the Jebusites, Amorites, Girgashites, ¹⁷ Hivites, Arkites, Sinites, ¹⁸ Arvadites, Zemarites, and the Hamathites.

Later the families of the Canaanites spread abroad. ¹⁹ The border of the Canaanites was from Sidon toward Gerar to Gaza, and then to Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zeboyim, as far as Lasha.

²⁰ These are the sons of Ham, according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands and in their nations.

The Semites

Ge 11:10-27; 1Ch 1:17-27

²¹ To Shem, who was the father of all the children of Eber, whose older brother was Japheth, ‡ were sons born also.

²² The sons of Shem were Elam, Ashur, Arphaxad, Lud, and Aram.

²³ The sons of Aram were Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshek.

²⁴ Arphaxad was the father of Shelah, and Shelah was the father of Eber.

²⁵ To Eber were born two sons. The name of one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided; his brother's name was Joktan.

²⁶ Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, ²⁷ Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, ²⁸ Obal, Abimael, Sheba, ²⁹ Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.

³⁰ Their dwelling place was from Mesha all the way to Sephar, the hill country of the east.

³¹ These are the sons of Shem, by their families and their language, in their lands and their nations.

³² These are the families of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, in their nations. From these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

The Tower of Babel

11 Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. ² As the people journeyed from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there.

³ They said to each other, "Let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone and tar for mortar. ⁴ Then they said, "Come, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top will reach to heaven, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we will be scattered abroad over the face of the whole earth."

⁵ But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of men built. ⁶ The LORD said, "The people are one and they have one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do; now nothing that they propose to do will be impossible for them.

⁸ So the LORD scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they stopped building the city. ⁹ Therefore the name of it was called Babel, because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth. From there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

Shem's Descendants

¹⁰ These are the generations of Shem.

Shem was a hundred years old, and two years after the flood he became the father of Arphaxad. ¹¹ Shem lived after the birth of Arphaxad five hundred years, and had other sons and daughters.

¹² Arphaxad lived thirty-five years, and became the father of Shelah. ¹³ Arphaxad lived after the birth of Shelah four hundred and three years, and had other sons and daughters.

¹⁶ Eber lived thirty-four years, and became the father of Peleg. ¹⁷ Eber lived after the birth of Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and had other sons and daughters.

† Or a separated themselves. †† Or a Babylon. ‡ Or a the older brother of Japheth.

¹⁸ Peleg lived thirty years, and became the father of Reu. ¹⁹ Peleg lived after the birth of Reu two hundred and nine years, and had other sons and daughters.

²⁰ Reu lived thirty-two years, and became the father of Serug. ²¹ Reu lived after the birth of Serug two hundred and seven years, and had other sons and daughters.

²⁶ Now Terah lived seventy years, and became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

Terah's Descendants

²⁷ These are the generations of Terah.

Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran, and Haran became the father of Lot. ²⁸ Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans. ²⁹ Abram and Nahor took wives. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife, Milkah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milkah and the father of Iskah. ³⁰ But Sarai was barren; she had no child.

³² The days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and Terah died in Harran.

The Call of Abram

12 Now the LORD said to Abram, "Go from your country, your family, and your father's house to the land that I will show you.

² I will make of you a great nation;

I will bless you and make your name great,

so that you will be a blessing.

³ I will bless them who bless you and curse him who curses you, † and in you all families of the earth will be blessed."

⁴ So Abram departed, as the LORD had spoken to him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Harran. ⁵ Abram took Sarai his wife, Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions that they had accumulated, and the people that they had acquired in Harran, and they set out for the land of Canaan. They came to the land of Canaan.

⁶ Then Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. The Canaanites were in the land at that time. ⁷ The LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your descendants I will give this land." So he built an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

⁸ From there he continued on to a mountain to the east of Bethel and pitched his tent, having Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD. ⁹ Then Abram continued his journey toward the Negev.

¹⁰ Now there was a famine in the land, so Abram went down to Egypt to live there, for the famine was severe in the land. ¹¹ When he was getting near to Egypt, he said to Sarai his wife, "I know you are a beautiful woman. ¹² Therefore, when the Egyptians see you, they will say, 'This is his wife.' They will then kill me, but they will let you live. ¹³ Say you are my sister so that I may be treated well for your sake. Then my life will be spared because of you."

¹⁴ So when Abram entered Egypt, the Egyptians saw that Sarai was very beautiful. ¹⁵ The princes of Pharaoh saw her and commended her to Pharaoh, and she was taken into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁶ He treated Abram well for her sake and he had sheep and livestock, male and female donkeys, male and female servants, and camels.

¹⁷ But the LORD afflicted Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Abram's wife, Sarai. ¹⁸ So Pharaoh called Abram, and said, "What have you done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? ¹⁹ Why did you say, 'She is my sister'? I might have taken her as my wife. Now here is your wife; take her and leave." ²⁰ Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him, and they sent him away with his wife and all that he had.

Abram and Lot

13 So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him. ² Abram was very wealthy in livestock, in silver and in gold.

⁵ Now Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents. ⁶ But the land was not able to support them both dwelling together because their possessions were so great. ⁷ And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. The Canaanites and the Perizzites dwelled in the land at that time.

⁸ So Abram said to Lot, "Let there be no strife, I ask you, between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are close relatives. ⁹ Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me. If you will go to the left, then I will go to the right, or if you take the right, then I will go to the left."

¹⁴ After Lot had departed from him, the LORD said to Abram, "Lift up now your eyes, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward. ¹⁵ All the land that you see I will give to you and to your descendants forever. ¹⁶ I will make your descendants like the dust of the earth, so that if a man could number the dust of the earth, then your descendants could also be numbered. ¹⁷ Arise, and walk throughout the land across its length and its width, for I will give it to you."

¹⁸ So Abram moved his tent and came and settled by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and built an altar to the LORD there.

Abram Rescues Lot

14 In the days that Amraphel was king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Kedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goyim, ² they made war with Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboyim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar). ³ All these were joined together in the Valley of Siddim (that is, the Dead Sea). ⁴ For twelve years they had served Kedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

⁵ In the fourteenth year, Kedorlaomer and the kings who were with him came and defeated the Rephaites in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzites in Ham, and the Emities in Shaveh Kiriathaim, ⁶ and the Horites in their hill country of Seir, as far as El Paran, which is by the wilderness. ⁷ Then they turned back and came to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh) and conquered all the country of the Amalekites and also the Amorites who lived in Hazezon Tamar.

⁸ Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboyim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) came out, and they joined together in battle in the Valley of Siddim ⁹ against Kedorlaomer, the king of Elam, Tidal king of Goyim, Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar—four kings against five. ¹⁰ Now the Valley of Siddim was full of tar pits, and as the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some fell in them, and the rest fled to the hill country.

¹¹ Then they took all the possessions of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and departed.

¹² They also took Lot, Abram's brother's son, who lived in Sodom, and his possessions, and went their way.

¹³ Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew, who was living near the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshkol and Aner, and these were allies with Abram. ¹⁴ When Abram heard that his relative was taken captive, he armed his three hundred and eighteen trained servants born in his own house, and pursued them as far as Dan. ¹⁵ During the night he divided his men to attack them and defeated them, and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus. ¹⁶ He brought back all the possessions, along with his relative Lot and his possessions, and also the women and the people.

Melchizedek Blesses Abram

¹⁷ After his return from the defeat of Kedorlaomer and the kings who had joined with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).

¹⁸ Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was the priest of God Most High.

¹⁹ And he blessed him and said,

"Blessed be Abram by God Most High,
Creator † of heaven and earth;
²⁰ and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand."

Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

²¹ The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people and take the goods for yourself."

²² But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted up my hand to the LORD, God Most High, the Possessor of heaven and earth, ²³ that I will take nothing that is yours, not a thread or a sandal strap; lest you say, 'I have made Abram rich.' ²⁴ I will accept only that which my men have eaten and the portion that belongs to the men who went with me, Aner, Eshkol, and Mamre. Let them take their portion."

The Abrahamic Covenant

15 After this the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision, saying,

"Do not fear, Abram.
I am your shield,
your exceedingly great reward. ††"

² But Abram said, "Lord GOD, what will You give me, seeing I am childless and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?" ³ Abram said, "Since You have not given me any children, my heir is a servant born in my house."

⁴ Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying, "This man will not be your heir, but a son that is from your own body will be your heir." ⁵ He brought him outside and said, "Look up toward heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them." And He said to him, "So will your descendants be."

† Or a Possessor †† Or a your reward will be great.

⁶ Abram believed the LORD, and He credited it to him as righteousness.

⁷ He also said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to possess † it."

⁸ But Abram said, "Lord GOD, how may I know that I will possess it?"

⁹ So He said to him, "Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon."

¹⁰ Then Abram brought all of these to Him and cut them in two and laid each piece opposite the other, but he did not cut the birds in half. ¹¹ When the birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

¹³ Then He said to Abram, "Know for certain that your descendants will live as strangers in a land that is not theirs, and they will be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years. ¹⁴ But I will judge the nation that they serve, and afterward they will come out with great possessions. ¹⁵ As for you, you will go to your fathers in peace and you will be buried at a good old age. ¹⁶ In the fourth generation, your descendants will return here, for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete."

¹⁷ When the sun went down and it was dark, a smoking fire pot with a flaming torch passed between these pieces. ¹⁸ On that same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great Euphrates River— ¹⁹ the land of the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, ²⁰ the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaites, ²¹ the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

The Birth of Ishmael

16 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had borne him no children, and she had a maidservant, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar. ² So Sarai said to Abram, "The LORD has prevented me from having children. Please go in to my maid; it may be that I will obtain children through her."

Abram listened to Sarai. ³ So after Abram had been living for ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai, his wife, took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife. ⁴ He went in to Hagar, and she conceived.

When she saw that she had conceived, she began to despise her mistress. ⁵ Then Sarai said to Abram, "May the wrong done to me be on you! I gave my maid into your arms; and when she saw that she had conceived,

I became despised in her eyes. May the LORD judge between you and me."

⁶ But Abram said to Sarai, "Indeed, your maid is in your power; do to her as you please." Then Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she fled from her presence.

⁷ The angel of the LORD found her by a spring of water in the wilderness. It was the spring on the way to Shur. ⁸ And he said, "Hagar, Sarai's maid, where have you come from and where are you going?"

And she said, "I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai."

⁹ Then the angel of the LORD said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit yourself to her authority."

¹⁰ The angel of the LORD also said to her, "I will multiply your descendants exceedingly so that they will be too many to count."

¹¹ Then the angel of the LORD said to her, "You are pregnant and will bear a son.

You shall call his name Ishmael, because the LORD has heard your affliction.

¹² He will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man, and every man's hand will be against him.

And he will dwell in the presence of all his brothers."

¹³ Then she called the name of the LORD that spoke to her, "You are the God who sees," for she said, "Have I now looked on Him who sees me?" ¹⁴ Therefore the well was called Beer Lahai Roi. It is between Kadesh and Bered.

¹⁵ So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram called the son she bore Ishmael. ¹⁶ Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

The Covenant of Circumcision

17 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to him and said, "I am Almighty God. Walk before Me and be blameless. ² And I will make My covenant between you and Me and will exceedingly multiply you."

³ Abram fell on his face and God said to him, ⁴ "As for Me, My covenant is with you, and you shall be the father of a multitude of nations. ⁵ No longer will your name be called Abram, but your name will be Abraham, for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations. ⁶ I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings will come from you. ⁷ I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and your descendants after you. ⁸ All the land of Canaan, where you now live as strangers, I will give to you and to your descendants for an everlasting possession, and I will be their God."

⁹ Then God said to Abraham, "As for you, you shall keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you throughout their generations. ¹⁰ This is My covenant, which you shall keep, between Me and you and your descendants after you; every male among you shall be circumcised. ¹¹ You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between Me and you. ¹² Every male throughout every generation that is eight days old shall be circumcised, whether born in your household or bought with money from a foreigner who is not your descendant. ¹³ He who is born in your house and he who is bought with your money must be circumcised. My covenant shall be in your flesh as an everlasting covenant. ¹⁴ Any uncircumcised male whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised shall be cut off from his people. He has broken My covenant."

¹⁵ Then God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you will not call her name Sarai, but her name will be Sarah. ¹⁶ I will bless her and also give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she will be the mother of nations. Kings of peoples will come from her."

¹⁹ Then God said, "No, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call his name Isaac. I will establish My covenant with him as an everlasting covenant and with his descendants after him. ²⁰ And as for Ishmael, I have heard you. I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful and will multiply him exceedingly. He will be the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. ²¹ But I will establish My covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this set time next year." ²² Then He stopped talking with Abraham, and God went up from him.

²³ Then Abraham took Ishmael, his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's household, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that very same day as God had said to him. ²⁴ Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁵ His son, Ishmael, was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁶ Abraham and Ishmael were circumcised on the same day. ²⁷ All the men born in Abraham's household or bought from foreigners were circumcised with him.

Isaac's Birth Foretold

18 The LORD appeared to Abraham near the great oak trees of Mamre while he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day. ² Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked and saw three men standing across from him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them and bowed himself toward the ground.

³ He said, "My Lord, if I have found favor in Your sight, do not pass by Your servant. ⁴ Please let a little water be brought and wash your feet and rest yourselves under the tree. ⁵ I will bring a piece of bread so that you may refresh yourselves. After that you may pass on, now that you have come to your servant."

And they said, "So do, as you have said."

⁶ So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Quickly prepare three measures [†] of fine flour, knead it, and make cakes."

⁷ Then Abraham ran to the herd and took a choice and tender calf and gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it. ⁸ He then brought butter and milk and the calf that he had prepared and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate.

⁹ They said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?"

And he said, "There, in the tent."

¹⁰ One of them said, "I will certainly return to you about this time next year, and Sarah your wife will have a son."

And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him. ¹¹ Now Abraham and Sarah were old and very advanced in age, and Sarah was well past child-bearing. ¹² Therefore Sarah laughed to herself, saying, "After I am so old and my lord is old also, shall I have pleasure?"

¹³ Then the LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Shall I surely bear a child when I am old?' ¹⁴ Is anything too difficult for the LORD? At the appointed time I will return to you, at this time next year, and Sarah will have a son."

¹⁵ Then Sarah denied it, saying, "I did not laugh," because she was afraid.

But He said, "Yes, you did laugh."

Sodom and Gomorrah

¹⁶ Then the men rose up and looked toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to see them on their way. ¹⁷ Then the LORD said, "Should I hide from Abraham what I am doing, ¹⁸ since Abraham will surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed in him? ¹⁹ I chose him, and he will instruct his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing righteousness and justice, so that the LORD may bring to Abraham what He promised him."

²⁰ Then the LORD said, "Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grave, ²¹ I will go down and see if what they have done is as bad as the outcry that has come to Me. If not, I will know."

²² The men turned away from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham remained standing before the LORD. ²³ Then Abraham drew near and said, "Shall You also destroy the righteous with the wicked? ²⁴ What if there are fifty righteous in the city? Shall You also destroy, and not spare the place, for the fifty righteous who are in it? ²⁵ Far be it from You to do such a thing as this, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be treated like the wicked; far be it from You. Should not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

²⁶ So the LORD said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare the entire place for their sakes."

²⁷ Then Abraham answered and said, "I who am but dust and ashes have taken it upon myself to speak to the Lord. ²⁸ Suppose there were five less than the fifty righteous. Will You destroy all the city for lack of five?"

And He said, "If I find forty-five there, I will not destroy it."

²⁹ And he spoke to Him yet again and said, "Suppose there will be forty found there?"

So He said, "I will not do it for the sake of forty."

³⁰ Then he said to Him, "Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak. Suppose there will be thirty found there?"

Again He said, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

³¹ He said, "Behold, I have undertaken to speak to the Lord. Suppose twenty are found there?"

He said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of twenty."

³² Then he said, "Let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak only once more. Suppose ten will be found there?"

Then He said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of ten."

³³ So the LORD went His way as soon as He had stopped speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

Sodom and Gomorrah Destroyed

19 Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them he rose up to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground. ² Then he said, "Here, my lords, please turn in to your servant's house and spend the night and wash your feet; and then you may rise early and go on your way."

They said, "No, we will stay in the open square all night."

³ But he strongly insisted, so they turned aside with him and entered his house. Then he made them a feast and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. ⁴ Before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house. ⁵ They then called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, so that we may have relations with them."

⁶ So Lot went out through the door to them and shut the door behind him. ⁷ Then he said, "Please, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. ⁸ Look, I have two daughters who have not been with a man. Please, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as you wish. Only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof."

⁹ But they replied, "Stand back!" Also, they said, "This man came here as an alien, and he keeps acting like a judge. We will deal worse with you than with them." So they pressed hard against Lot, and came close to breaking down the door.

¹⁰ But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them and shut the door.

¹² Then the men said to Lot, "Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone you have in the city, take them out of this place! ¹³ For we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against its people has grown great before the presence of the LORD, and the LORD has sent us to destroy it."

¹⁴ So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had married his daughters, and said, "Get up, get out of this place, for the LORD will destroy this city!" But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be joking.

¹⁵ When the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, "Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here. Otherwise you will be consumed in the punishment of the city."

¹⁸ Then Lot said to them, "Please, no, my lords! ¹⁹ Your servant has found grace in your eyes, and you have shown your mercy, which you have shown to me by saving my life. However, I cannot escape to the mountain. Otherwise some evil will overtake me, and I will die. ²⁰ Look, this city is close enough to flee to, and it is a little one. Please, let me escape there (is it not a little one?), and my life will be saved."

²¹ He said to him, "I have granted your request in this matter also. I will not overthrow this city of which you have spoken. ²² Hurry, escape there, for I cannot do anything until you arrive there." Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

²³ The sun had risen over the land when Lot entered Zoar. ²⁴ Then the LORD rained brimstone and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah. It was from the LORD out of heaven. ²⁵ So He overthrew those cities, all the valley, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground. ²⁶ But his wife, behind him, looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

²⁷ Now Abraham got up early in the morning and went to the place where he stood before the LORD. ²⁸ Then he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the valley, and he saw the smoke of the land going up like the smoke of a furnace.

²⁹ So it was that when God destroyed the cities of the valley, God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the middle of the destruction, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot lived.

Lot and His Daughters

³⁰ Then Lot left Zoar, and lived in the mountains, along with his two daughters who were with him, for he was afraid to dwell in Zoar. He and his two daughters lived in a cave. ³¹ And the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man on the earth to have relations with us after the manner of all the earth. ³² Let us make our father drink wine and let us lie with him, so that we may preserve the lineage of our father."

³⁴ On the next day the firstborn said to the younger, "Indeed, last night I had relations with my father. Let us make him drink wine tonight also, so that you may go in and have relations with him, so that we may preserve the lineage of our father." ³⁵ So they made their father drink wine that night also. Then the younger arose and lay down with him, and he did not know when she lay down or when she arose.

³⁶ Therefore both the daughters of Lot were pregnant by their father. ³⁷ The firstborn bore a son and called his name Moab. He is the father of the Moabites to this day. ³⁸ The younger also gave birth to a son and called his name Ben-Ammi. He is the father of the Ammonites to this day.

Abraham and Abimelek

Ge 12:10-20; 26:1-11

20 Abraham journeyed from there toward the Negev, settled between Kadesh and Shur, and then he sojourned in Gerar. ² Then Abraham said about Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." So Abimelek, king of Gerar, sent for her and took Sarah.

³ But God came to Abimelek in a dream by night and said to him, "You are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a man's wife."

⁴ Abimelek had not gone near her, and he said, "Lord, will You slay a righteous nation? ⁵ Did he not say to me, 'She is my sister,' and did not even she herself say, 'He is my brother'? In the integrity of my heart and innocence of my hands I have done this."

⁶ And God said to him in a dream, "Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart. For I also kept you from sinning against Me. Therefore, I did not let you touch her. ⁷ Therefore return the man's wife, for he is a prophet and he will pray for you. Moreover, you will live. However, if you do not return her, know that you will surely die, you and all who are yours."

⁸ So Abimelek rose early in the morning, and called all his servants and told them all these things, and the men were very afraid. ⁹ Then Abimelek called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I offended you that you would bring on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done things to me that should not have been done." ¹⁰ Then Abimelek said to Abraham, "What were you thinking of, that you did this thing?"

¹¹ Abraham said, "Because I thought, surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will slay me because of my wife. ¹² Still, indeed, she is my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother. She became my wife. ¹³ When God caused me to travel from my father's house, I said to her, 'This is your kindness which you must show me: Every place where we go, say concerning me, He is my brother.'"

¹⁴ Then Abimelek took sheep, oxen, and male and female servants, and gave them to Abraham, and returned his wife Sarah to him. ¹⁵ Abimelek said, "My land is before you; settle wherever it pleases you."

¹⁶ To Sarah he said, "I have given your brother a thousand shekels of silver. † It is a sign of your innocence in the eyes of all who are with you, and before everyone you are vindicated."

¹⁷ So Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelek, his wife, and his female servants. Then they bore children. ¹⁸ For the LORD had closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelek because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

The Birth of Isaac

21 The LORD visited Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as He had spoken. ² For Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the set time that God had spoken to him. ³ Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac. ⁴ Then Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. ⁵ Now Abraham was one hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

⁶ And Sarah said, "God has made me laugh. All who hear will laugh with me." ⁷ Also she said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."

Hagar and Ishmael Depart

⁸ So the child grew and was weaned. Then Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned. ⁹ Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking. ¹⁰ Therefore she said to Abraham, "Throw out this slave woman and her son, for the son of this slave woman shall not be heir with my son, Isaac."

¹¹ This matter was very displeasing in Abraham's sight because of his son. ¹² But God said to Abraham, "Do not be upset concerning the boy and your slave wife. Whatever Sarah has said to you, listen to what she says, for in Isaac your descendants will be called. ¹³ Yet I will also make a nation of the son of the slave woman, because he is your offspring."

¹⁴ So Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and sent her away with the child. So she departed and wandered in the Wilderness of Beersheba.

¹⁵ When the water in the skin was gone, she placed the child under one of the shrubs. ¹⁶ Then she went and sat down across from him at a distance of about a bowshot, for she said to herself, "Let me not see the death of the child." She sat across from him, and lifted up her voice and wept.

¹⁷ And God heard the boy's voice. Then the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven and said to her, "What is the matter with you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is.

¹⁸ Arise, pick up the boy and hold him in your hands, for I will make him a great nation."

¹⁹ Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.

²⁰ God was with the boy; and he grew and lived in the wilderness and became an archer. ²¹ He lived in the Wilderness of Paran, and his mother found a wife for him out of the land of Egypt.

The Treaty With Abimelek

²² Now it came to pass at that time that Abimelek and Phicol, the commander of his army, spoke to Abraham, saying, "God is with you in all that you do. ²³ Now therefore, swear to me by God that you will not deal deceitfully with me, or with my children, or with my descendants. Instead, according to the kindness that I have shown to you, you will show to me and to the land where you have lived."

²⁴ Abraham said, "I will swear."

²⁵ Then Abraham complained to Abimelek about a well of water that Abimelek's servants had violently seized. ²⁶ And Abimelek said, "I do not know who has done this. You did not tell me, and I have not heard of it until today."

²⁷ So Abraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Abimelek, and the two of them made a covenant.

²⁸ Then Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. ²⁹ And Abimelek said to Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs that you have set by themselves?"

³⁰ And he said, "You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand so that they may be a witness that I have dug this well."

³¹ Therefore he called that place Beersheba, because the two of them swore an oath there.

³² Thus they made a covenant at Beersheba. Then Abimelek rose with Phicol, the commander of his army, and they returned to the land of the Philistines.

³³ Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he called on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God. ³⁴ Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines many days.

The Sacrifice of Isaac

22 After these things God tested Abraham and said to him, "Abraham!"

And he said, "Here I am."

² Then He said, "Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains of which I will tell you."

³ So Abraham rose up early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him and Isaac his son; and he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place that God had told him. ⁴ Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from a distance. ⁵ Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I will go over there and worship and then return to you."

⁶ So Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand and the knife. So the two of them walked on together. ⁷ But Isaac spoke to Abraham his father and said, "My father!"

And he said, "Here I am, my son."

Then he said, "Here is the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?"

⁸ Abraham said, "My son, God will provide for Himself the lamb for a burnt offering." So the two of them went together.

⁹ Then they came to the place that God had told him. So Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood; and he bound Isaac his son and laid him on the altar, on the wood. ¹⁰ Then Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. ¹¹ But the angel of the LORD called to him out of heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!"

And he said, "Here I am."

¹² Then He said, "Do not lay your hands on the boy or do anything to him, because now I know that you fear God, seeing you have not withheld your only son from Me."

¹³ Then Abraham lifted up his eyes and looked, and behind him was a ram caught in a thicket by his horns. So Abraham went and took the ram and offered him up as a burnt offering in the place of his son. ¹⁴ Abraham called the name of that place The LORD Will Provide, as it is said to this day, "In the mount of the LORD it will be provided."

¹⁵ Then the angel of the LORD called to Abraham out of heaven a second time, ¹⁶ and said, "By Myself I have sworn, says the LORD, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son, ¹⁷ I will indeed bless you and I will indeed multiply your descendants as the stars of the heavens and as the sand that is on the seashore. Your descendants will possess the gate of their enemies. ¹⁸ Through your offspring all the nations of the earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed My voice."

¹⁹ So Abraham returned to his young men, and they arose and went together to Beersheba. Then Abraham lived at Beersheba.

Sons of Nahor

²⁰ After these things Abraham was told, "Milkah has also borne children to your brother Nahor: ²¹ Uz his firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram, ²² Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel."

²³ Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. Milkah gave birth to these eight to Nahor, Abraham's brother. ²⁴ His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash, and Maakah.

The Death of Sarah

23 Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years. These were the years of the life of Sarah. ² Then Sarah died in Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

³ Then Abraham stood up from before his dead and spoke to the Hittites, [†] saying, ⁴ "I am a stranger and a foreigner among you. Give me property for a burying place among you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight."

⁵ So the Hittites answered Abraham, ⁶ "Hear us, my lord. You are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will withhold from you his burial place that you may bury your dead."

⁷ Then Abraham stood up and bowed himself to the people of the land, the Hittites. ⁸ He spoke with them, saying, "If it be your wish that I bury my dead out of my sight, hear me and entreat Ephron the son of Zohar for me, ⁹ that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he owns, at the end of his field. Let him give it to me in your presence for the full price for a burial site."

¹⁰ Now Ephron was sitting among the Hittites; and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the presence of all the Hittites, all who went in at the gate of his city, saying, ¹¹ "No, my lord. Hear me: I give you the field and the cave that is in it. I give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. Bury your dead."

¹² Then Abraham bowed before the people of the land. ¹³ Then he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, "Indeed, if you will give it, please hear me. I will give you money for the field; take it from me and I will bury my dead there."

¹⁴ Then Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, ¹⁵ "My lord, listen to me. The land is worth four hundred shekels of silver. ^{††} What is that between me and you? So bury your dead."

¹⁷ So the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field and the cave that was in it, and all the trees that were in the field that were within all the surrounding borders were deeded ¹⁸ to Abraham as a possession in the presence of the Hittites, before all who went in at the gate of his city. ¹⁹ After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan. ²⁰ So the field and the cave that was in it were deeded to Abraham by the Hittites as property for a burial place.

Isaac and Rebekah

24 Now Abraham was old, well advanced in age; and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. ² So Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his household, who was in charge over all that he had, "Please, place your hand under my thigh, ³ and I will make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I live. ⁴ But you shall go to my country and to my family, and take a wife for my son Isaac."

⁵ Then the servant said to him, "Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I take your son back to the land from which you came?"

⁶ Abraham said to him, "See to it that you do not take my son back there. ⁷ The LORD God of heaven, who took me from my father's family and from the land of my relatives, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, 'To your descendants I will give this land,' He shall send His angel before you and you shall take a wife for my son from there. ⁸ If the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be free from my oath. Only do not take my son back there." ⁹ So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.

¹⁰ Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and departed, for all the goods of his master were in his hand. And he arose and went to the city of Nahor in Aram Naharaim. ¹¹ He made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water in the evening when the women came out to draw water.

¹² Then he said, "O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, please let me have success this day and show kindness to my master Abraham. ¹³ See, here I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. ¹⁴ Let it be that the young woman to whom I shall say, 'Please lower your pitcher, that I may drink,' and she shall say, 'Drink, and I will give your camels water also'—let her be the one that You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. Then I will know that You have shown kindness to my master."

¹⁵ Before he had finished speaking, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milkah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with a pitcher on her shoulder. ¹⁶ The young woman was very beautiful to look at, a virgin, and no man had ever been with her. She went down to the well and filled her pitcher and came up.

¹⁷ Then the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher."

¹⁸ So she said, "Drink, my lord." Then she quickly let down her pitcher to her hand and gave him a drink.

¹⁹ When she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking." ²⁰ Then she quickly emptied her pitcher into the trough and ran to the well to draw water and drew for all his camels. ²¹ The man, gazing at her, remained silent, trying to discern whether the LORD had made his journey a success or not.

²² When the camels had finished drinking, the man took a gold nose ring of half a shekel weight [†] and two bracelets for her wrists of ten shekels weight ^{††} in gold, ²³ and said, "Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room in your father's house for us to lodge?"

²⁴ She said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milkah, whom she bore to Nahor." ²⁵ Again she said to him, "We have both straw and provision enough, and room in which to lodge."

²⁶ Then the man bowed down his head and worshipped the LORD. ²⁷ And he said, "Blessed be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His mercy and His truth toward my master. As for me, the LORD led me to the house of my master's relatives."

³² So the man came to the house. Then he unloaded his camels and gave straw and provision to the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. ³³ He then set food before him to eat, but he said, "I will not eat until I have told about my errand."

And he said, "Speak on."

³⁴ So he said, "I am Abraham's servant. ³⁵ The LORD has greatly blessed my master, and he has become wealthy. He has given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and male and female servants, and camels and donkeys. ³⁶ Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master when she was old, and he has given to him all that he has. ³⁷ My master made me swear, saying, 'You must not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live. ³⁸ But you shall go to my father's house, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son.'

⁴⁰ "Then he said to me, 'The LORD, before whom I walk, will send His angel with you and prosper your way, and you will take a wife for my son from my relatives and from my father's house. ⁴¹ You will be free from my oath, when you come to my family, if they will not give her to you; then you will be released from my oath.'

⁴² "So today I came to the well and said, 'O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, if You will now give me success in my task; ⁴³ I am standing by the well of water, and let it be that when the virgin comes forth to draw water, and I say to her, "Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink," ⁴⁴ and she says to me, "Drink, and I will also draw for your camels," let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.'

⁴⁵ "Before I had finished speaking in my heart, there was Rebekah coming out with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down to the well and drew water. Then I said to her, 'Please let me drink.'

⁴⁶ "She then quickly let down her pitcher from her shoulder and said, 'Drink, and I will give your camels a drink also.' So I drank, and she gave the camels a drink also.

⁴⁷ "Then I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?'

"And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milkah bore for him.'

"So I put the nose ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists. ⁴⁸ And I bowed down my head and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son. ⁴⁹ And now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, so that I may turn to the right hand or to the left."

⁵⁰ Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, "This thing comes from the LORD; we cannot speak to you bad or good. ⁵¹ Here is Rebekah before you; take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master's son, as the LORD has spoken."

⁵² When Abraham's servant heard their words, he worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth. ⁵³ Then the servant brought out jewels of silver and gold, and clothing and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious things to her brother and to her mother. ⁵⁴ Then they ate and drank, he and the men who were with him, and stayed all night.

The next morning they arose, and he said, "Send me away to my master."

⁵⁵ But her brother and her mother said, "Let the young woman remain with us a few days, at least ten; after that she may go."

⁵⁶ So he said to them, "Do not delay me, seeing the LORD has given me success. Let me go that I may go to my master."

⁵⁷ They said, "We will call the girl and ask her." ⁵⁸ Then they called Rebekah and said to her, "Will you go with this man?"

And she said, "I will go."

⁵⁹ So they sent away Rebekah their sister and her nurse, and Abraham's servant and his men. ⁶⁰ They blessed Rebekah and said to her,

"May you, our sister, become the mother of thousands of ten thousands; and may your descendants possess the gate of those who hate them."

⁶¹ Then Rebekah and her maids arose and they rode on the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Rebekah and went his way.

⁶² Now Isaac came from the way of Beer Lahai Roi, for he lived in the Negev. ⁶³ Isaac went out in the evening to meditate in the field; and he lifted up his eyes and looked, and surely the camels were coming.

⁶⁴ And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she dismounted from her camel ⁶⁵ and said to the servant, "Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?"

The servant said, "It is my master." Therefore she took a veil and covered herself.

⁶⁶ Then the servant told Isaac all the things he had done. ⁶⁷ So Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah; and he took Rebekah and she became his wife and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

The Death of Abraham

1Ch 1:32-33

25 Then Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah. ² And she bore to him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah. ³ Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan. The descendants of Dedan were the Ashurites, the Letushites, and the Leummites. ⁴ The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanok, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

⁵ Abraham gave all that he had to Isaac. ⁶ But to the sons of his concubines Abraham gave gifts, and while he was still living, he sent them away from his son Isaac eastward to the east country.

Zohar the Hittite, east of Mamre, ¹⁰ the field that Abraham purchased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried with his wife Sarah. ¹¹ After the death of Abraham, God blessed his son Isaac. Isaac lived at Beer Lahai Roi.

Sons of Ishmael

¹² These are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's maidservant, bore to Abraham.

¹³ These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the first-born of Ishmael, Nebaioth, and then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, ¹⁴ Mishma, Dumah, Massa, ¹⁵ Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. ¹⁶ These were the sons of Ishmael, and these were their names, by their towns and their settlements, twelve princes according to their peoples. ¹⁷ These were the years of the life of Ishmael: one hundred and thirty-seven years. He breathed his last and died; and he was gathered to his people. ¹⁸ They lived from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt, as you go toward Assyria. He died in the presence of all his relatives.

The Births of Jacob and Esau

²¹ Now Isaac pleaded with the LORD for his wife, because she was barren; and the LORD granted his plea, and Rebekah his wife conceived. ²² But the children struggled together within her, and she said, "If all is well, why am I like this?" So she went to inquire of the LORD.

²³ Then the LORD said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples will be separated from your body; one people will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger."

²⁴ Now when the time of her delivery came, there were twins in her womb. ²⁵ The first came out red all over, like a hairy garment, and they called his name Esau. ²⁶ After that his brother came out, and his hand took hold of Esau's heel, so he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.

²⁷ So the boys grew. Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field, while Jacob was a calm man, living in tents. ²⁸ Isaac loved Esau, because he ate of his game, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Esau Sells His Birthright

²⁹ Now Jacob cooked a stew; and Esau came in from the field and he was famished. ³⁰ So Esau said to Jacob,

"Please feed me some of that red stew, for I am famished." Therefore his name was called Edom.

³¹ Then Jacob said, "First sell me your birthright."

³² Esau said, "Look, I am about to die; of what use is the birthright to me?"

³³ Then Jacob said, "Swear to me this day." So he swore to him, and he sold his birthright to Jacob.

³⁴ Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew. Then he ate and drank, arose, and went his way.

Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Isaac and Abimelek

Ge 12:10-20; 20:1-18

26 There was a famine in the land, in addition to the first famine that was during the days of Abraham. Isaac went to Abimelek king of the Philistines in Gerar. ² The LORD appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt. Live in the land of which I will tell you. ³ Sojourn in this land, and I will be with you and will bless you; for I will give to you and all your descendants all these lands, and I will fulfill the oath which I swore to Abraham your father. ⁴ I will make your descendants multiply as the stars of the heavens and will give your descendants all these lands. By your descendants all the nations of the earth will be blessed, ⁵ because Abraham obeyed Me and kept My charge, My commandments, My statutes, and My laws." ⁶ So Isaac lived in Gerar.

⁷ The men of the place asked him about his wife. And he said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say, "She is my wife," thinking, "The men of the place might kill me on account of Rebekah, because she is beautiful in appearance."

⁸ When he had been there a long time, Abimelek the king of the Philistines looked out of a window and saw Isaac caressing Rebekah his wife. ⁹ Abimelek summoned Isaac and said, "She is surely your wife, so how is it you said, 'She is my sister?'"

Then Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'I might die on account of her.'"

¹⁰ Abimelek said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might have easily lain with your wife, and you might have brought guilt upon us!"

¹¹ Abimelek charged all his people, saying, "He who touches this man or his wife will surely be put to death."

¹² Then Isaac sowed in that land and reaped in the same year a hundredfold; the LORD blessed him.

¹³ The man became rich and continued to prosper until he became very wealthy. ¹⁴ For he had possessions of flocks and herds and a great number of servants so that the Philistines envied him. ¹⁵ For the Philistines had stopped up all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father by filling them with dirt.

¹⁶ Abimelek said to Isaac, "Go away from us, for you are much more powerful than we are."

† Or a will bless themselves.

¹⁷ So Isaac departed from there and pitched his tent in the Valley of Gerar and settled there. ¹⁸ Isaac dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. He called their names after the names his father had called them.

¹⁹ But when Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found a well of running water there, ²⁰ the herdsmen of Gerar contended with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." So he called the name of the well Esek, because they contended with him. ²¹ They dug another well and quarreled over that also. So he called the name of it Sitnah. ²² Then he moved away from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. So he called the name of it Rehoboth, for he said, "For now the LORD has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land."

²³ He went up from there to Beersheba. ²⁴ The LORD appeared to him that same night and said, "I am the God of Abraham your father. Do not fear, for I am with you. I will bless you and multiply your descendants for the sake of My servant Abraham."

²⁶ Then Abimelek went to him from Gerar, along with Ahuzzath, one of his friends, and Phicol the commander of his army. ²⁷ Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?"

²⁸ And they said, "We saw plainly that the LORD was with you. So we said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, between you and us, and let us make a covenant with you, ²⁹ so that you will do us no harm, just as we have not touched you, and have done you nothing but good and have sent you away in peace. You are now the blessed of the LORD.'" ³⁰ Then he made them a feast, and they ate and drank. ³¹ They rose up early in the morning and swore an oath with one another. Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

³² That same day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well that they had dug and said to him, "We have found water." ³³ And he called it Shibah. Therefore, the name of the city is Beersheba to this day.

³⁴ Esau was forty years old when he took as wives Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite, ³⁵ and they brought grief to Isaac and to Rebekah.

Isaac Blesses Jacob

27 When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he could not see, he called Esau his oldest son and said to him, "My son."

And he answered him, "Here I am."

² He said, "I am old. I do not know the day of my death. ³ Therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt game for me. ⁴ And prepare for me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, so that my soul may bless you before I die."

⁵ Rebekah was listening when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. So when Esau went to the field to hunt for wild game and bring it back, ⁶ Rebekah said to her son Jacob, "I heard your father speak to your brother Esau, saying, ⁷ 'Bring me wild game, and prepare for me savory food, that I may eat and bless you in the presence of the LORD before my death.' ⁸ Now therefore, my son, listen to me as I command you. ⁹ Go now to the flock, and get me two choice young goats, so that I may prepare from them savory food for your father, such as he loves. ¹⁰ Then you will take it to your father, so that he may eat and so that he may bless you before his death."

¹¹ But Jacob said to his mother Rebekah, "Look, my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I am a man of smooth skin. ¹² Perhaps my father will feel me, and I will seem to him as a deceiver, and I will bring a curse on myself and not a blessing."

¹³ His mother said to him, "Let your curse be upon me, my son. Only listen to me and go get them for me."

¹⁴ He went and got them and brought them to his mother. Then his mother prepared savory food such as his father loved. ¹⁵ Then Rebekah took the best clothes belonging to her older son Esau, which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her younger son. ¹⁶ Then she put the skins of the young goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck. ¹⁷ She put the savory food and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hands of her son Jacob.

¹⁸ He came to his father and said, "My father."

And he said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"

¹⁹ And Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done just as you asked me. Please arise, sit and eat of my wild game, so that your soul may bless me."

²⁰ Isaac said to his son, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?"

And he said, "Because the LORD your God brought it to me."

²¹ Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come near, so that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not."

²² Jacob went near to his father Isaac, and he felt him and said, "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau." ²³ He did not recognize him because his hands were hairy, just like his brother Esau's hands; so he blessed him. ²⁴ He asked, "Are you really my son Esau?"

And he said, "I am."

²⁵ He said, "Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's wild game, so that my soul may bless you."

And he brought it near to him, and he ate. He also brought him wine, and he drank. ²⁶ His father Isaac said to him, "Come near now and kiss me, my son."

²⁷ He came near and kissed him; and he smelled the smell of his clothing and blessed him and said, "See, the smell of my son is like the smell of the field which the LORD has blessed.

²⁸ Therefore, may God give you of the dew of heaven and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and new wine.

²⁹ Let peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you.

Be master over your brothers, and let your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be those who bless you!"

³¹ He also had prepared savory food and brought it to his father, and said to his father, "Let my father arise and eat of his son's wild game, so that your soul may bless me."

³² Isaac his father said to him, "Who are you?" And he said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."

³³ Then Isaac trembled violently, and said, "Who? Where then is he who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate all of it before you came, and I have blessed him. Yes, and he shall be blessed."

³⁴ When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceedingly bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me, even me also, O my father!"

³⁵ He said, "Your brother came deceitfully and has taken away your blessing."

³⁶ Esau said, "Is he not rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright, and now he has taken away my blessing." And he said, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"

³⁷ Then Isaac answered and said to Esau, "I have made him your lord, and I have given to him all his brothers as servants; and I have sustained him with grain and new wine. What can I now do for you, my son?"

³⁸ And Esau said to his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, O my father!" Then Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

³⁹ Isaac his father answered and said to him, "Your dwelling shall be away from the fatness of the earth and away from the dew of heaven from above.

⁴⁰ You will live by your sword and will serve your brother.

When you become restless, you will break his yoke from your neck."

Jacob Escapes From Esau

⁴¹ So Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him. And Esau said in his heart, "The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then I will kill my brother Jacob."

⁴² These words of Esau her older son were told to Rebekah; and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, "Your brother Esau consoles himself regarding you by planning to kill you. ⁴³ Now therefore, my son, listen to me and get up and flee to Laban, my brother in Harran. ⁴⁴ Stay with him a few days until your brother's fury subsides, ⁴⁵ until your brother's anger against you turns away, and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send and get you from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"

⁴⁶ Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am tired of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth, such as these who are of the daughters of the land, what good will my life be to me?"

28 Then Isaac called Jacob and blessed him. Then he charged him and said to him, "You must not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan. ² Arise, go to Paddan Aram to the house of Bethuel your mother's father, and take for yourself a wife from there, from the daughters of Laban your mother's brother. ³ May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, so that you may become a multitude of people. ⁴ May He give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and your descendants with you, that you may inherit the land where you are a stranger, which God gave to Abraham." ⁵ Then Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan Aram to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

⁶ Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan Aram to take for himself a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, "You must not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan," ⁷ and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Paddan Aram. ⁸ Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan did not please Isaac his father. ⁹ So Esau went to Ishmael and took as his wife Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth, in addition to the wives he had.

Jacob's Dream at Bethel

¹⁰ Then Jacob went out from Beersheba and went toward Harran. ¹¹ He came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. He took one of the stones of that place and put it under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep. ¹² He dreamed and saw a ladder set up on the earth with the top of it reaching to heaven. The angels of God were ascending and descending on it. ¹³ The LORD stood above it and said, "I am the LORD God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac. The land on which you lie, to you will I give it and to your descendants. ¹⁴ Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south, and in you and in your descendants all the families of the earth will be blessed. ¹⁵ Remember, I am with you, and I will protect you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. For I will not leave you until I have done what I promised you."

¹⁶ Jacob awoke out of his sleep, and he said, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I did not know it." ¹⁷ He was afraid and said, "How awesome is this place! This is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven."

¹⁸ So Jacob rose up early in the morning and took the stone that he had put under his head, set it up as a pillar, and poured oil on top of it. ¹⁹ He called the name of that place Bethel, but previously the name of the city was called Luz.

²⁰ Jacob vowed a vow, saying, "If God will be with me and will protect me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat and clothing to put on, ²¹ so that I return to my father's house in peace, then the LORD will be my God. ²² Then this stone, which I have set for a pillar, will be the house of God, and from all that You give me I will surely give a tenth to You."

Jacob Meets Rachel

29 Then Jacob went on his journey and came into the land of the people of the east. ² As he looked, he saw a well in the field and three flocks of sheep lying by it, for out of that well the flocks were watered. A large stone was on the well's opening. ³ When all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds rolled the stone from the well's opening, watered the sheep, then put the stone back on the well's opening in its place.

⁴ Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?"

And they said, "We are from Harran."

⁵ Then he said to them, "Do you know Laban the son of Nahor?"

And they said, "We know him."

⁶ He said to them, "Is he well?"

And they said, "He is well, and here is Rachel his daughter coming with the sheep."

⁷ He said, "Since it is yet midday, it is not the time that the livestock should be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go and feed them."

⁸ They said, "We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together and the stone is rolled from the well's opening. Then we may water the sheep."

⁹ While he was still speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she kept them. ¹⁰ When Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, Jacob went near and rolled the stone from the well's opening and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother. ¹¹ Jacob kissed Rachel and wept aloud. ¹² Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's relative and that he was Rebekah's son. Then she ran and told her father.

¹³ When Laban heard the news of Jacob his sister's son, he ran to meet him and embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his house. Then Jacob told Laban all these things. ¹⁴ Laban said to him, "Surely you are my bone and my flesh."

And he stayed with him for a month. ¹⁵ Laban said to Jacob, "Since you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?"

Jacob Marries Leah and Rachel

¹⁶ Now Laban had two daughters. The name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. ¹⁷ Leah's eyes were tender, but Rachel was beautiful in form and appearance. ¹⁸ Jacob loved Rachel, so he said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter."

¹⁹ Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me."

²⁰ So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.

²¹ Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, so that I may have relations with her."

²⁵ In the morning Jacob discovered it was Leah, and he said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve you for Rachel? Why then have you tricked me?"

²⁶ Then Laban said, "It is not the custom in our country to marry off the younger before the firstborn.

²⁷ Fulfill the period of seven days for this one, and we will give you the other also in return for serving me another seven years."

²⁸ Jacob did so and completed her week. Then Laban gave him Rachel his daughter as his wife also. ²⁹ Laban gave Bilhah his maidservant to Rachel his daughter to be her maid. ³⁰ So Jacob also had relations with Rachel, and he loved Rachel more than Leah and served Laban another seven years.

Jacob's Children

³¹ When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, He opened her womb, but Rachel was barren. ³² Leah conceived and gave birth to a son, and she called his name Reuben, for she said, "Surely the LORD has looked upon my affliction. Now therefore my husband will love me."

³³ She conceived again and gave birth to a son and said, "Because the LORD has heard that I was unloved, He has therefore given me this son also." Then she called his name Simeon.

³⁴ She conceived again and gave birth to a son and said, "Now this time my husband will be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons." Therefore his name was called Levi.

³⁵ She conceived again and gave birth to a son, and she said, "Now I will praise the LORD!" Therefore she called his name Judah. Then she stopped giving birth.

30 When Rachel saw that she could not give Jacob children, she became jealous of her sister. She said to Jacob, "Give me children, or I will die."

² Jacob became angry with Rachel and said, "Am I in the place of God, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

³ Then she said, "Here is my maid Bilhah. Have relations with her so that she may bear a child on my knees, † so that I may also have children through her."

⁴ So she gave him Bilhah her maidservant as a wife, and Jacob had relations with her. ⁵ Bilhah conceived and gave Jacob a son. ⁶ Rachel said, "God has vindicated me, and He has also heard my voice and has given me a son." Therefore she called his name Dan.

⁷ Bilhah, Rachel's maid, conceived again and gave Jacob a second son. ⁸ Then Rachel said, "With great wrestling have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed." So she called his name Naphtali.

¹¹ Then Leah said, "How fortunate!" So she called his name Gad.

¹² Zilpah, Leah's maid, gave Jacob a second son.

¹³ Then Leah said, "Happy am I, for women will call me happy." So she called his name Asher.

¹⁴ At the time of the wheat harvest, Reuben went and found mandrakes in the field and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

¹⁵ Leah said to her, "Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband? Would you take away my son's mandrakes also?"

So Rachel said, "All right, he may lie with you tonight in exchange for your son's mandrakes."

¹⁶ When Jacob came out of the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him and said, "You must sleep with me, because I have paid for you with my son's mandrakes." And he slept with her that night.

¹⁷ God listened to Leah, and she conceived and gave Jacob a fifth son. ¹⁸ Leah said, "God has given me my reward because I have given my maid to my husband." So she called his name Issachar.

† Meaning "on my behalf."

¹⁹ Leah conceived again and gave Jacob a sixth son. ²⁰ Leah said, "God has given me a good gift. Now my husband will dwell with me, because I have given him six sons." So she called his name Zebulun.

²¹ Afterwards she gave birth to a daughter and called her name Dinah.

²² Then God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her and opened her womb. ²³ She conceived and gave birth to a son and said, "God has taken away my reproach." ²⁴ And she called his name Joseph, saying, "The LORD will add to me another son."

Jacob's Agreement With Laban

²⁵ When Rachel had given birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Send me away, so that I may go to my own place, to my country. ²⁶ Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, and let me go. For you know the service that I have given you."

²⁷ Laban said to him, "If I have found favor in your eyes, please stay. For I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me on account of you." ²⁸ He said, "Name me your wages, and I will give it."

²⁹ Jacob said to him, "You know how I have served you, and how your livestock have fared with me. ³⁰ For you had little before I came, and it is now increased to a multitude. The LORD has blessed you since I came, and now when may I also provide for my own house?"

³¹ Laban said, "What may I give you?"

And Jacob said, "You may not give me anything, but if you will do this one thing for me, I will continue to feed and keep your flock. ³² I will pass through all your flock today, removing from it all the speckled and spotted sheep, and every brown sheep from among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the goats. These shall be my wages. ³³ So my integrity will answer for me in time to come. When you come to examine my wages, every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep that are with me will be considered stolen."

³⁴ Laban said, "Agreed. Let it be according to your word." ³⁵ He removed that day the male goats that were striped and spotted and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had some white in it, and all the brown ones among the sheep, and gave them into the care of his sons. ³⁶ He put three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

³⁷ Then Jacob took rods of fresh-cut poplar, almond, and plane trees, and peeled white streaks in them, exposing the white which was in the rods. ³⁸ He set the rods which he had peeled before the flocks in the troughs, that is, the watering places, where the flocks came to drink, so that they would mate when they came to drink. ³⁹ The flocks mated before the rods and gave birth to young that were striped, speckled, and spotted. ⁴⁰ Jacob separated the lambs and made the flocks face toward the striped and all the brown in the flock of Laban. He put his own flocks by themselves and did not put them with Laban's sheep. ⁴¹ Whenever the stronger sheep mated, Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the sheep in the troughs, so that they might mate among the rods. ⁴² But when the livestock were feeble, he did not put them in. So the weaker were Laban's and the stronger Jacob's. ⁴³ The man became exceedingly prosperous and had many sheep and female servants and male servants and camels and donkeys.

Jacob Flees From Laban

31 Now Jacob heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, "Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and he has gotten all his wealth from what was our father's." ² Jacob saw the look of Laban and saw he was not congenial toward him as before.

³ Then the LORD said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers, to your family, and I will be with you."

⁴ So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field where his flock was, ⁵ and said to them, "I see your father's demeanor, that it is not congenial toward me as before; but the God of my father has been with me. ⁶ You know that with all my strength I have served your father. ⁷ Your father has deceived me and changed my wages ten times, but God did not allow him to hurt me. ⁸ If he said, 'The speckled will be your wages,' then all the flock produced speckled. If he said, 'The striped will be your pay,' then all the flock produced striped. ⁹ In this way God has taken away your father's flock and given them to me.

¹⁰ "When the livestock conceived, I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream that the male goats mating with the flock were striped, speckled, and spotted. ¹¹ The angel of God spoke to me in a dream, saying, 'Jacob.' And I said, 'Here I am.' ¹² He said, 'Now lift up your eyes and see all the male goats which mate with the flock are striped, speckled, and spotted, for I have seen all that Laban has done to you. ¹³ I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed the pillar, where you vowed a vow to Me. Now arise, and get out of this land, and return to the land of your family.'" ¹⁴ Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there any portion or inheritance left for us in our father's house? ¹⁵ Are we not seen by him as foreigners? For he has sold us and has completely spent our money also. ¹⁶ For all the riches which God has taken from our father are ours and our children's. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do it."

¹⁷ Then Jacob rose up and set his sons and his wives on camels. ¹⁸ Then he carried away all his livestock and all his goods which he had obtained, his acquired livestock which he had gotten in Paddan Aram, in order to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

¹⁹ When Laban went to shear his sheep, Rachel stole the household idols that were her father's. ²⁰ Jacob also deceived Laban the Syrian by not telling him that he was fleeing. ²¹ So Jacob fled with all that he had, and he rose up and passed over the river and headed toward the mountains of Gilead.

Laban Pursues Jacob

²² Laban was told on the third day that Jacob had fled. ²³ He took his kinsmen with him and pursued him for seven days until he caught up with him in the mountains of Gilead. ²⁴ But God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night and said to him, "Take care that you speak to Jacob neither good nor bad."

²⁵ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent on the mountain, and Laban with his kinsmen pitched in the mountains of Gilead. ²⁶ Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done that you have stolen away without my knowing and carried away my daughters like captives taken with the sword? ²⁷ Why did you flee away secretly and sneak away from me and not tell me? I would have sent you away with joy and with songs, with the tambourine and harp. ²⁸ And why did you not permit me to kiss my sons and my daughters farewell? You have acted foolishly in so doing. ²⁹ It is in my power to do you harm, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Take care that you not speak to Jacob either good or bad.' ³⁰ Now you surely have gone away because you longed desperately after your father's house, yet why have you stolen my gods?"

³¹ Then Jacob answered and said to Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I thought that you would take your daughters from me by force. ³² But anyone with whom you find your gods, let him not live. In the presence of our kinsmen, point out what I have that is yours and take it." For Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.

³³ So Laban went into Jacob's tent and into Leah's tent and into the two female servants' tents, but he did not find them. Then he went out of Leah's tent and entered into Rachel's tent. ³⁴ Now Rachel had taken the household idols and put them in the camel's saddle and sat on them. Laban searched the entire tent, but could not find them.

³⁵ She said to her father, "Let not my lord be displeased that I cannot rise before you, for the manner of women is on me." So he searched, but he did not find the household idols.

³⁶ Then Jacob became angry and berated Laban. And Jacob asked Laban, "What is my offense? What is my sin that you have so hotly pursued after me? ³⁷ You have searched all my things, and yet what have you found of all your household things? Set it here before my kinsmen and your kinsmen, so that they may judge between us both.

was like this with me: In the day the heat consumed me and the frost by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes. ⁴¹ I have been twenty years in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times. ⁴² If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, surely you would have sent me away empty now. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands and rebuked you last night."

Laban's Covenant With Jacob

⁴³ Laban answered and said to Jacob, "These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks, and all that you see is mine. But what can I do this day to my daughters or to their children whom they have borne? ⁴⁴ Now therefore come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and let it be as a witness between you and me."

⁴⁵ So Jacob took a stone and set it up for a pillar. ⁴⁶ Jacob said to his kinsmen, "Gather stones." So they took stones and made a pile, and they ate there on the pile. ⁴⁷ And Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, but Jacob called it Galeed.

⁴⁸ Laban said, "This pile is a witness between me and you this day." Therefore its name was called Galeed, ⁴⁹ and Mizpah, for he said, "May the LORD watch between you and me, when we are apart from one another. ⁵⁰ If you mistreat my daughters, or if you take other wives beside my daughters, although no one else is with us, remember that God is witness between you and me."

⁵¹ Then Laban said to Jacob, "See this pile and see this pillar which I have thrown between you and me. ⁵² This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, so that I will not cross over this pile to you and so that you will not pass over this pile and this pillar to me for harm. ⁵³ The God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, and the God of their father, judge between us."

Then Jacob vowed by the Fear of his father Isaac. ⁵⁴ Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain and called his kinsmen to eat bread. And they ate bread and stayed all night on the mountain.

⁵⁵ Early in the morning Laban rose up, kissed his grandchildren and his daughters, and blessed them. Then Laban departed and returned to his place.

Jacob Prepares to Meet Esau

32 Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. ² When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is God's camp." So he called the name of that place Mahanaim.

³ Jacob sent messengers before him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom. ⁴ He commanded them, saying, "This is what you must say to my lord Esau: This is what your servant Jacob says, 'I have sojourned with Laban and stayed there until now. ⁵ I have oxen and donkeys, flocks, and male servants and female servants, and I am sending this message to tell my lord, so that I may find favor in your sight."

⁶ The messengers returned to Jacob, saying, "We went to your brother Esau. He is coming to meet you, and what is more, four hundred men are with him."

⁷ Then Jacob was very afraid and distressed, and he divided the people that were with him, along with the flocks and herds and the camels, into two groups. ⁸ He said, "If Esau comes to the one camp and attacks it, then the other camp which is left may escape."

⁹ And Jacob said, "O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD who said to me, 'Return to your country and to your relatives, and I will prosper you,' ¹⁰ I am not worthy of all the lovingkindness and of all the faithfulness which You have shown to Your servant. For with my staff I crossed over this Jordan, and now I have become two encampments.

¹¹ Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau. For I fear him, that he will come and attack me and the mothers with the children. ¹² You said, 'I will surely prosper you and make your descendants as the sand of the sea, which is too many to be counted.'"

¹³ So he spent the night there. Then he selected from what he had with him a gift for his brother Esau: ¹⁴ two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, ¹⁵ thirty female camels with their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys. ¹⁶ He gave them to his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass over before me, and keep a distance between each drove."

¹⁷ He commanded the one leading, saying, "When my brother Esau meets you and asks you, saying, 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and to whom do these animals belong?' ¹⁸ then you are to say, 'They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift sent to my lord Esau, and he is also behind us.'"

¹⁹ Likewise he commanded the second and the third and all that followed the droves, saying, "This is what you are to say to Esau when you find him. ²⁰ Moreover, say, 'Your servant Jacob is behind us.'" For he said, "I will appease him with the gift that goes before me, and then I will see his face. Perhaps he will accept me."

²¹ So the gift went before him, but he lodged that night in the encampment.

Jacob Wrestles With God

²² The same night he arose and took his two wives, his two female servants, and his eleven sons, and crossed over the ford of the Jabbok. ²³ He took them and sent them across the stream along with all that he had. ²⁴ Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him there until daybreak. ²⁵ When the man saw that He did not prevail against Jacob, He touched the socket of his thigh, so the socket of Jacob's thigh was dislocated, as he wrestled with Him. ²⁶ Then He said, "Let Me go, for the day breaks."

But Jacob said, "I will not let You go, unless You bless me."

²⁷ So He said to him, "What is your name?"

And he said, "Jacob."

²⁸ Then the man said, "Your name will no more be called Jacob, but Israel. For you have fought with God and with men, and have prevailed."

²⁹ Then Jacob asked Him, "Tell me, I pray You, Your name."

But He said, "Why do you ask Me My name?" Then He blessed him there.

³⁰ Jacob called the name of the place Peniel, saying, "I have seen God face to face, and my life has been preserved."

³¹ As he crossed over Peniel, the sun rose over him, and he was limping on his thigh. ³² Therefore to this day the children of Israel do not eat the sinew which is attached to the socket of the thigh, because He touched the socket of Jacob's thigh in the sinew of the hip.

Jacob Meets Esau

33 Then Jacob looked up and saw Esau coming and four hundred men with him. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel, and the two female servants. ² He put the female servants and their children in front, then Leah and her children next, and then Rachel and Joseph last. ³ He went on before them, bowing himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

⁴ But Esau ran to meet him and embraced him and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept. ⁵ When Esau looked up and saw the women and the children, he said, "Who are those with you?"

Jacob said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant."

⁶ Then the female servants came near, they and their children, and they bowed down. ⁷ Leah also with her children came near and bowed themselves. Afterward Joseph and Rachel came near, and they bowed themselves.

⁸ Esau said, "What do you mean by all this company that I met?"

Jacob answered, "These are to find favor in the sight of my lord."

⁹ Esau said, "I have enough, my brother. Keep what you have for yourself."

¹⁰ Jacob said, "No, I pray you, if I have now found favor in your sight, then receive my gift from my hand. For I have seen your face, and it is as though I have seen the face of God, with you having received me favorably. ¹¹ Please take my blessing that has been brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me and because I have plenty." So he urged him, and he took it.

¹² Then Esau said, "Let us journey on our way, and I will go ahead of you."

¹³ But Jacob said to him, "My lord knows that the children are weak, and the flocks and herds with young are with me. If they are driven too hard one day, all the flock will die. ¹⁴ Please let my lord pass over before his servant, and I will lead on slowly, according to the pace of the livestock that goes before me and the pace the children will be able to endure, until I come to my lord at Seir."

¹⁵ So Esau said, "Let me leave some of the people that are with me with you."

But Jacob said, "What need is there? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord."

¹⁶ So Esau returned that day making his way back to Seir. ¹⁷ But Jacob journeyed to Sukkoth and built himself a house and made booths for his livestock. Therefore the name of the place is called Sukkoth.

¹⁸ Jacob came peacefully to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, on his way from Paddan Aram, and camped before the city. ¹⁹ He bought a parcel of a field, where he had pitched his tent, from the children of Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred pieces † of silver. ²⁰ He erected an altar there and called it El Elohe Israel.

Dinah Is Defiled

34 Now Dinah, the daughter of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob, went out to see the daughters of the land. ² When Shechem, the son of Hamor the Hivite, prince of the land, saw her, he took her and lay with her and defiled her. ³ He was very smitten by Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and spoke kindly to her. ⁴ Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, "Get me this girl for my wife."

⁵ Now Jacob heard that Shechem had violated his daughter Dinah, but his sons were with his livestock in the field, so Jacob held his peace until they came.

⁶ Hamor the father of Shechem went out to Jacob to commune with him. ⁷ The sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it, and the men were grieved and were very disturbed, because Shechem had disgraced Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, a thing that should not be done.

⁸ Hamor spoke with them, saying, "The soul of my son Shechem longs for your daughter. I pray that you will give her to him to marry. ⁹ Make marriages with us, and give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves. ¹⁰ You may dwell with us, and the land will be before you. Dwell and trade in it and get possessions in it."

¹¹ Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I will give. ¹² You can make the dowry and gift I must bring high, and I will give according to what you say to me. Just give me the girl to marry."

† Heb. a a hundred qesitahs; a qesitah

¹³ The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, because he had defiled Dinah their sister. ¹⁴ They said to them, "We cannot do this. To give our sister to one who is uncircumcised would be a disgrace to us. ¹⁵ But we will consent to you in this: If you will become as we are, that is, every one of your males be circumcised, ¹⁶ then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people. ¹⁷ But if you will not listen to us and be circumcised, then we will take our daughter, and we will leave."

²⁵ On the third day, when they were in pain, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and went to the unsuspecting city and killed all the males. ²⁶ They killed Hamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword and took Dinah out of the house of Shechem and departed. ²⁷ The sons of Jacob came upon the slain and looted the city, because they had defiled their sister. ²⁸ They took their flocks and their herds, their donkeys and whatever was in the city and in the fields. ²⁹ They took captive and looted all their wealth, all their little ones, and their wives, even all that was in each house.

³⁰ Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me by making me revolting among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. Our being few in number, they will gather themselves together against me and slay me, and I will be destroyed, both I and my household."

³¹ But they said, "Should he treat our sister like a prostitute?"

Jacob Returns to Bethel

35 Then God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, dwell there, and there make an altar to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother."

² So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you. Purify yourselves and change your clothes. ³ Let us arise and go up to Bethel, and there I will make an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and has been with me wherever I have gone."

⁴ So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their possession and all their earrings which were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the oak which was near Shechem. ⁵ As they traveled, the terror of God was on the cities that were around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.

⁶ So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him. ⁷ There he built an altar and called the place El Bethel, because God had appeared to him there when he fled from his brother.

⁹ God appeared to Jacob again when he came out of Paddan Aram and blessed him. ¹⁰ God said to him, "Your name is Jacob. Your name shall not be called Jacob any more, but Israel shall be your name." So He called his name Israel.

¹¹ God said to him, "I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations will come from you, and kings shall come forth from you. ¹² The land that I gave Abraham and Isaac, I will give to you, and to your descendants after you I will give the land." ¹³ Then God went up from him in the place where He had spoken with him.

¹⁴ Jacob set up a pillar in the place where He had spoken with him, a pillar of stone, and he poured out a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it too. ¹⁵ So Jacob called the name of the place where God had spoken with him Bethel.

The Deaths of Rachel and Isaac

¹⁶ They journeyed from Bethel, and when they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel went into labor, and she had a difficult labor. ¹⁷ When she was in hard labor, the midwife said to her, "Do not fear. You will have this son also." ¹⁸ As her soul was departing (for she died), she called his name Ben-Oni, but his father called him Benjamin.

¹⁹ Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem. ²⁰ Jacob set a pillar on her grave. It is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day.

²¹ Israel journeyed and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Eder. ²² When Israel lived in that land, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah, his father's concubine, and Israel heard about it.

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve:

²³ The sons of Leah were Reuben, Jacob's firstborn,

and Simeon and Levi and Judah and Issachar and Zebulun.

²⁴ The sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin.

²⁵ And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maidservant, were Dan and Naphtali.

²⁶ And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's maidservant, were Gad and Asher.

These are the sons of Jacob, which were born to him in Paddan Aram.

²⁷ Jacob came back to Isaac his father in Mamre of Kiriath Arba (which is Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had sojourned. ²⁸ Now the days of Isaac were one hundred and eighty years. ²⁹ And Isaac breathed his last and died and was gathered to his people, being old and full of days, and his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Esau's Descendants

1Ch 1:35-42

36 Now these are the generations of Esau, who is Edom.

² Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon the Hivite, ³ and Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, sister of Nebaioth.

⁹ These are the generations of Esau the father of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir.

¹⁰ These are the names of Esau's sons:
Eliphaz the son of Adah the wife of Esau, and Reuel the son of Basemath the wife of Esau.

¹¹ The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, and Kenaz.

¹² Timna was a concubine to Eliphaz, Esau's son, and she bore to Eliphaz Amalek. These were the sons of Adah, Esau's wife.

¹³ These are the sons of Reuel:
Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

¹⁴ These were the sons of Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: she bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

The Chiefs of Edom

¹⁵ These were chiefs of the sons of Esau.

The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn son of Esau were Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz, ¹⁶ Chief Korah, Chief Gatam, and Chief Amalek. These are the chiefs who came from Eliphaz in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Adah.

¹⁷ These were the sons of Reuel Esau's son: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah, and Chief Mizzah. These are the chiefs who came from Reuel in the land of Edom. These were the sons of Basemath, Esau's wife.

¹⁸ These were the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife: Chief Jeush, Chief Jalam, and Chief Korah. These were the chiefs who came from Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.

¹⁹ These were the sons of Esau, who is Edom, and these were their chiefs.

The Sons of Seir

²⁰ These were the sons of Seir the Horite, who inhabited the land:

Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, ²¹ Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

²² The children of Lotan were Hori and Homam, and Lotan's sister was Timna.

²³ The children of Shobal were these:

Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

²⁴ These were the children of Zibeon:

Aiah and Anah. This was the Anah who found the water in the wilderness as he fed the donkeys of Zibeon, his father.

²⁵ The children of Anah were these:

Dishon and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah.

²⁶ These are the children of Dishon:

Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran.

²⁷ The children of Ezer were these:

Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan.

²⁸ The children of Dishan were these:

Uz and Aran.

²⁹ These were the chiefs that came from the Horites:

Chief Lotan, Chief Shobal, Chief Zibeon, Chief Anah, ³⁰ Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer, and Chief Dishan. These are the chiefs who came from Hori, among their chiefs in the land of Seir.

The Kings of Edom

¹Ch 1:43-54

³¹ These were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before there reigned any king over the children of Israel.

³² Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom, and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

³³ Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

³⁴ Jobab died, and Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his stead.

³⁵ Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead, and the name of his city was Avith.

³⁶ Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

³⁷ Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.

³⁸ Shaul died, and Baal-Hanan the son of Akbor reigned in his stead.

⁴⁰ These are the names of the chiefs who came from Esau, according to their families, according to their places, by their names:

Chief Timnah, Chief Alvah, Chief Jetheth, ⁴¹ Chief Oholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon, ⁴² Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar, ⁴³ Chief Magdiel, and Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their settlements in the land of their possession.

Esau was the father of the Edomites.

Joseph's Dreams

37 Now Jacob lived in the land where his father was a foreigner, in the land of Canaan.

² These are the generations of Jacob.

Joseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers, and the boy was with the sons of Bilhah and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. Joseph brought back a bad report about them to their father.

³ Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was the son of his old age, and he made him a coat of many colors. ⁴ But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him.

⁵ Now Joseph dreamed a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. ⁶ He said to them, "Please listen to this dream which I have dreamed. ⁷ We were binding sheaves in the field. All of a sudden my sheaf rose up and stood upright, and your sheaves stood around it and bowed down to my sheaf."

⁸ His brothers said to him, "Will you really reign over us, or will you really have dominion over us?" So they hated him even more because of his dreams and his words.

⁹ Then he dreamed another dream and told it to his brothers and said, "I have dreamed another dream.

† From the Septuagint, a cloak with long sleeves, a full-length cloak, or an embroidered cloak, showing favoritism.

The sun and the moon and eleven stars were bowing to me."

¹⁰ But when he told it to his father and his brothers, his father rebuked him and said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Will I and your mother and your brothers really come to bow down ourselves to you to the ground?" ¹¹ So his brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Joseph Sold Into Slavery

¹² Now his brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. ¹³ Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them."

He answered, "Here I am."

¹⁴ Israel said to him, "Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the flocks, and bring back word to me." So he sent him out of the Valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem.

¹⁵ A certain man found him wandering in the field. The man asked him, "What are you looking for?"

¹⁶ And he said, "I am looking for my brothers. Please tell me where they are feeding their flocks."

¹⁷ The man said, "They have departed from here. I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan.'"

So Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan.

¹⁸ When they saw him some distance away, before he came near to them, they conspired against him to kill him.

¹⁹ They said one to another, "The master of dreams comes! ²⁰ Come now, let us kill him and throw him into some pit, and we will say, 'Some evil beast has devoured him.' Then we will see what will become of his dreams."

²¹ But when Reuben heard it, he rescued him out of their hands, saying, "Let us not kill him." ²² Reuben said to them, "Shed no blood, but throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him," so that he might rescue him out of their hands and deliver him to his father again.

²³ When Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped Joseph of his coat—his coat of many colors that he had on. ²⁴ And they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty, and there was no water in it.

²⁶ Then Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? ²⁷ Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and let us not lay our hand on him, for he is our brother and our own flesh." So his brothers agreed.

²⁸ Then when the Midianite merchants passed by, they drew Joseph up and lifted him out of the pit and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty shekels of silver. † They took Joseph to Egypt.

²⁹ When Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not in the pit, he tore his clothes. ³⁰ He returned to his brothers, and said, "The boy is not there, and I, where can I go?"

³¹ They took Joseph's coat and killed a young goat and dipped the coat in the blood. ³² Then they took the coat of many colors and brought it to their father and said, "This we have found. Do you know whether it is your son's robe or not?"

³³ He knew it and said, "It is my son's coat. A wild beast has devoured him. Joseph has without a doubt been torn into pieces."

³⁴ Jacob tore his clothes and put sackcloth on his waist and mourned for his son many days. ³⁵ All his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. And he said, "For I will go down into the grave mourning for my son." So his father wept for him.

³⁶ Meanwhile the Midianites sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard.

Judah and Tamar

38 At that time Judah left his brothers and visited a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

² There Judah saw the daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shua, and he took her and had relations with her. ³ She conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Er. ⁴ She conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name Onan. ⁵ She again conceived and bore a son and called his name Shelah. He was at Kezib when she bore him.

⁸ Then Judah said to Onan, "Go have relations with your brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up descendants for your brother." ⁹ But Onan knew that the descendant would not be his, so when he had relations with his brother's wife, he let his semen go on the ground, so that he would not give a descendant to his brother. ¹⁰ What he did displeased the LORD; therefore He killed him also.

¹¹ Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow at your father's house until Shelah my son grows up." For he thought, "He may die also, just as his brothers did." So Tamar went and lived in her father's house.

¹³ It was told to Tamar, "Your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep." ¹⁴ She took off her widow's clothing, covered herself with a veil, wrapped herself up, and sat in an open place, which is by the road to Timnah. For she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given to him as his wife.

¹⁵ When Judah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute, because she had covered her face. ¹⁶ He turned to her by the road and said, "Come now, let me have relations with you" (for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law).

And she said, "What will you give me, so that you may have relations with me?"

¹⁷ And he said, "I will send you a young goat from the flock."

And she said, "Will you give me a pledge, until you send it?"

¹⁸ And he said, "What pledge should I give you?"

And she said, "Your signet, your bracelets, and your staff that is in your hand." So he gave them to her and had relations with her, and she conceived by him.

¹⁹ She arose and went away, and taking off her veil, she put on her widow's clothing.

²⁰ Judah sent the young goat by his friend the Adulamite to receive his pledge from the woman's hand, but he could not find her. ²¹ Then he asked the men of the place, "Where is the cult prostitute who was at Enaim by the road?"

And they said, "There was no prostitute in this place."

²² So he returned to Judah and said, "I cannot find her. Also, the men of the place said there was no cult prostitute in this place."

²³ Judah replied, "Let her keep them for herself, or we shall be laughed at. I sent this young goat, and you did not find her."

²⁴ After about three months, it was told Judah, "Tamar your daughter-in-law has turned to prostitution, and what is more, as a result of prostitution she is pregnant."

Then Judah said, "Bring her forth, and let her be burned!"

²⁵ When she was brought forth, she sent word to her father-in-law, saying, "By the man to whom these belong am I with child." And she said, "Please identify whose these are—the signet and bracelet and staff."

²⁶ Judah recognized them and said, "She has been more righteous than I, because I did not give her to Shelah my son." He did not have relations with her again.

²⁷ When it was time for her to give birth, there were twins in her womb. ²⁸ While she was giving birth, one put out his hand, and the midwife took and tied on his hand a scarlet thread, saying, "This one came out first." ²⁹ But as he drew back his hand, his brother came out. Then she said, "How have you made a breach for yourself?" Therefore his name was called Perez. ³⁰ Afterward his brother came out, the one that had the scarlet thread on his hand, and his name was called Zerah.

Joseph and Potiphar's Wife

39 Now Joseph was brought down to Egypt, and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had brought him down there.

² The LORD was with Joseph, so that he became a prosperous man. He was in the house of his master, the Egyptian. ³ His master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD made all that he did to prosper. ⁴ Joseph found favor in his sight and served him. So he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put under his charge. ⁵ From the time that he had made him overseer in his house and over all that he had, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house on account of Joseph. So the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had in the house and in the field. ⁶ So he left all that he had in Joseph's charge, and he had no concerns regarding anything except the food he ate.

Now Joseph was handsome and well-built. ⁷ After a time, his master's wife took notice of Joseph and said, "Lie with me."

⁸ But he refused and said to his master's wife, "My master does not concern himself with anything concerning me in the house, and he has committed all that he has to my charge. ⁹ There is none greater in this house than I. He has kept nothing back from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?" ¹⁰ She spoke to Joseph every day, but he did not listen to her about lying with her or being with her.

¹³ When she saw that he had left his clothing in her hand and had fled outside, ¹⁴ she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, "See, he has brought in a Hebrew among us to humiliate us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried out with a loud voice. ¹⁵ When he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried out, he left his clothing with me, fled, and got outside."

¹⁶ She laid up his clothing next to her until his master came home. ¹⁷ She spoke to him using these words, saying, "The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought to us, came in to me to mock me. ¹⁸ When I lifted up my voice and cried out, he left his clothing with me and fled outside."

¹⁹ When his master heard the words of his wife, which she spoke to him, saying, "This is what your servant did to me," he became enraged. ²⁰ Joseph's master took him and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were confined.

So he was there in the prison. ²¹ But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him mercy and gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. ²² The keeper of the prison committed all the prisoners that were in the prison to the charge of Joseph. So whatever they did there, he was the one responsible for it.

²³ The keeper of the prison did not concern himself with anything that was under Joseph's charge because the LORD was with him. And whatever he did, the LORD made it to prosper.

Joseph Interprets Dreams

40 Sometime after this, the cupbearer of the king of Egypt and his baker offended their lord, the king of Egypt. ² Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, with the chief of the cupbearers and with the chief of the bakers. ³ So he put them in confinement in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison, the place where Joseph was confined. ⁴ The captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he attended to them.

They continued to be in confinement for some time. ⁵ Then the cupbearer and the baker for the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, both had a dream the same night, each man with his own dream and each dream with its own interpretation.

⁶ Joseph came in to them in the morning and looked at them and realized they were sad. ⁷ So he asked Pharaoh's officials who were with him in the care of his lord's house, saying, "Why do you look so sad today?"

⁸ And they said to him, "We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter for it."

Then Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Please tell them to me."

⁹ The chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph and said to him, "In my dream, a vine was in front of me. ¹⁰ And in the vine there were three branches. As it budded, its blossoms shot forth and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes. ¹¹ Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I put the cup into Pharaoh's hand."

¹² Joseph said to him, "This is the interpretation of it. The three branches are three days. ¹³ Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your place, and you will deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand in the same way you did before when you were his cupbearer. ¹⁴ But remember me when it is well with you, and show kindness, I pray you, to me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this house. ¹⁵ For I was indeed kidnapped out of the land of the Hebrews, and I have done nothing that they should put me in the dungeon."

¹⁶ When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream, and I had three white baskets on my head. ¹⁷ In the uppermost basket there was all manner of baked goods for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."

¹⁸ Joseph answered and said, "This is the interpretation: The three baskets are three days. ¹⁹ Within three days Pharaoh will lift your head from off you and will hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh from you."

²⁰ It happened on the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants. He lifted up the heads of the chief cupbearer and the chief baker among his servants. ²¹ He restored the chief cupbearer to his position again, and he put the cup into Pharaoh's hand. ²² However, he hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had interpreted to them.

Pharaoh's Dreams

41 After two whole years, Pharaoh had a dream that he was standing by the Nile. ² Seven fine-looking and fattened cows suddenly came up out of the river, and they grazed in the meadow. ³ Then seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ugly and gaunt, and stood by the other cows on the riverbank. ⁴ The ugly and gaunt cows ate up the seven fine-looking and fattened cows. Then Pharaoh awoke.

⁸ In the morning his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt and all its wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

⁹ Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, "Today I remember my offenses. ¹⁰ Pharaoh was angry with his servants and put me in confinement in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker. ¹¹ And we had a dream in the same night, he and I. We, each of us, dreamed according to the interpretation of his own dream. ¹² A young Hebrew man was with us there, a servant to the captain of the guard. We told him and he interpreted our dreams for us. To each man he interpreted according to his own dream. ¹³ It happened just as he interpreted. He restored me to my position, and the baker was hanged."

¹⁴ So Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon. He shaved himself, changed his clothes, and came to Pharaoh.

¹⁵ Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. I have heard it said of you that you can understand a dream to interpret it."

¹⁶ Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, "It is not in me. God will give Pharaoh a favorable answer."

¹⁷ Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "In my dream, I stood on the bank of the Nile. ¹⁸ And suddenly there came up out of the river seven cows, fattened and fine-looking, and they grazed in the reeds. ¹⁹ Then seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and gaunt. I have never seen such ugliness in all the land of Egypt. ²⁰ And the gaunt and ugly cows ate up the first seven fat cows. ²¹ And when they had eaten them up, no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were still as ugly as before. Then I awoke.

²² "I also saw in my dreams seven ears of grain, full and good, suddenly come up on one stalk. ²³ Then seven ears, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprang up after them. ²⁴ And the thin ears swallowed the seven good ears. So I told this to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me."

²⁵ Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "The dreams of Pharaoh are one and the same. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do. ²⁶ The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears are seven years. The dreams are one. ²⁷ The seven gaunt and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty ears scorched by the east wind will be seven years of famine.

²⁸ "It is as I have spoken to Pharaoh. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do. ²⁹ Seven years of great abundance will come throughout all the land of Egypt. ³⁰ However, there will arise after them seven years of famine. All the abundance will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine will consume the land. ³¹ The abundance will be unknown in the land because of the famine following, for it will be very severe. ³² The reason the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice is because the matter is established by God, and God will soon bring it to pass.

³³ "Now, therefore, let Pharaoh seek out a man who is discerning and wise and set him over the land of Egypt. ³⁴ Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officials over the land and collect the fifth part of the produce of the land of Egypt in the seven abundant years. ³⁵ Let them gather all the food from those good years that come and lay up grain under the authority of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities. ³⁶ This food will be for a reserve for the land for the seven years of famine which will be in the land of Egypt, so that the land does not perish during the famine."

Joseph Rises to Power

³⁷ The counsel seemed good to Pharaoh and to all of his servants. ³⁸ Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find anyone like this man, in whom is the Spirit of God?"

³⁹ And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has shown you all this, there is no one as discerning and wise as you. ⁴⁰ You will be over my house, and according to your word all my people will be ruled. Only in regard to the throne will I be greater than you."

⁴¹ Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt." ⁴² Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand and arrayed him in clothes of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck. ⁴³ Then he had him ride in the second chariot which was his, and they cried out before him,

"Bow the knee!" So he set him over all the land of Egypt.

⁴⁴ Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without your consent no man will lift up his hand or foot in all the land of Egypt." ⁴⁵ Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphenath-Paneah, and he gave him a wife, Asenath the daughter of Potiphra priest of On. [†] And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

⁴⁶ Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh and went throughout all the land of Egypt. ⁴⁷ In the seven abundant years the earth brought forth plentifully. ⁴⁸ So he gathered up all the food of the seven years which was in the land of Egypt and laid up the food in the cities. He put in every city the food of the fields which surrounded the city.

⁵⁰ Before the years of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphra priest of On, bore to him. ⁵¹ Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh, "For God," he said, "has made me forget all my trouble and all my father's house." ⁵² The name of the second he called Ephraim, saying, "For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction."

⁵³ The seven years of abundance that were in the land of Egypt ended. ⁵⁴ The seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said. The famine was in all lands, but there was food in all the land of Egypt. ⁵⁵ When all the land of Egypt was hungry, the people cried to Pharaoh for food, and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph. Do whatever he says to you."

⁵⁶ The famine was over all the face of the earth, so Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Egyptians, and the famine was severe throughout the land of Egypt. ⁵⁷ Moreover, all countries came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain, because the famine was so severe in all the lands.

Joseph's Brothers Go to Egypt

42 Now when Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, Jacob said to his sons, "Why do you look at one another?" ² And he said, "I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, so that we may live and not die."

³ Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt. ⁴ But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers for he said, "Perhaps some harm might happen to him." ⁵ Thus the sons of Israel came to buy grain among those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.

⁶ Now Joseph was the governor over the land, and it was he who sold to all the people of the land. So Joseph's brothers came and bowed themselves down before him with their faces to the ground. ⁷ Joseph saw his brothers, and he recognized them, but he pretended to be a stranger to them and spoke harshly to them. He said to them, "From where do you come?"

And they said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."

⁸ Joseph knew his brothers, but they did not know him. ⁹ Joseph also remembered the dreams that he had dreamed of them. He said to them, "You are spies! You came to see the nakedness of the land!"

¹⁰ They said to him, "No, my lord, your servants have come only to buy food. ¹¹ We are all one man's sons. We are honest men. Your servants are not spies."

¹² But he said to them, "No, you have come to see the nakedness of the land!"

¹⁴ Joseph said to them, "It is as I said to you, 'You are spies!' ¹⁵ Here is how you will be tested. By the life of Pharaoh, you will not leave here unless your youngest brother comes here. ¹⁶ Send one of you, and let him get your brother, and you will be kept in prison, so that your words may be tested, whether there be any truth in you. Or else, by the life of Pharaoh, you are surely spies." ¹⁷ He put them all together in custody for three days.

¹⁸ Joseph said to them the third day, "Do this and live, for I fear God. ¹⁹ If you are honest men, let one of your brothers be confined in your prison house. The rest of you go and carry grain for the famine of your households. ²⁰ Nevertheless, bring your youngest brother to me so that your words may be verified and you shall not die." And they did so.

²¹ Then they said one to another, "We are guilty concerning our brother, because we saw the anguish of his soul when he pleaded with us, but we would not listen. Therefore, this distress has come upon us."

²² Reuben answered them, saying, "Did I not speak to you, saying, 'Do not sin against the boy'; and you would not listen? Therefore, his blood is now required of us." ²³ They did not know that Joseph understood them, for he spoke to them through an interpreter.

²⁴ He turned himself away from them and wept, but then turned back to them again and spoke with them. Then he took Simeon from them and bound him before their eyes.

²⁵ Joseph then gave the command to fill their sacks with grain and to restore every man's money to his sack and to give them provisions for the way. And it was done for them.

Joseph's Brothers Return Home

²⁶ They loaded their donkeys with the grain and departed from there.

²⁷ As one of them opened his sack to give his donkey feed in the lodging place, he saw his money. It was in the mouth of his sack. ²⁸ And he said to his brothers, "My money has been returned. Here it is in my sack!"

Then their hearts sank, and they were afraid, saying to one another, "What is this that God has done to us?"

²⁹ They came to Jacob their father in the land of Canaan and told him all that had happened to them, saying, ³⁰ "The man, the lord of the land, spoke harshly to us and took us for spies of the country. ³¹ And we said to him, 'We are honest men. We are not spies. ³² We are twelve brothers, all sons of our father. One is no longer living, and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.'

³³ "The man, the lord of the country, said to us, 'Here is how I may know that you are honest men. Leave one of your brothers here with me, take food for the famine of your households, and be gone. ³⁴ But bring your youngest brother back to me. Then I will know that you are not spies, but that you are honest men. Then I will deliver your brother to you, and you may trade in the land.'"

³⁵ As they emptied their sacks, every man's bundle of money was in his sack. When both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

³⁶ Then Jacob their father said to them, "You have bereaved me of my children! Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and you will take Benjamin away. All these things are against me."

³⁷ Reuben spoke to his father, saying, "Kill my two sons if I fail to bring him to you. Put him in my hands, and I will bring him back to you."

³⁸ But Jacob said, "My son must not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he alone is left. If harm should happen to him on the journey you are to make, then you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave."

Joseph's Brothers Return With Benjamin

43 Now the famine was severe in the land. ² When they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said to them, "Go back and buy us a little food."

³ Judah spoke to him, saying, "The man solemnly warned us, saying, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.' ⁴ If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you. ⁵ But if you will not send him, we will not go down. For the man said to us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.'"

⁶ Israel said, "Why did you treat me so badly as to tell the man that you had another brother?"

⁷ And they said, "The man asked us directly about ourselves and our family, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' So we answered his questions. How could we even know that he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'"

⁸ And Judah said to Israel his father, "Send the boy with me, and we will arise and go, so that we may live and not die, both we and you, and also our little ones. ⁹ I will be a surety for him. You may hold me personally responsible for him. If I fail to bring him back to you and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever. ¹⁰ For if we had not delayed, we could have returned twice."

¹¹ Their father Israel said to them, "If it must be so, do this. Take some of the best fruits in the land in your bags, and carry down a present for the man: a little balm and a little honey, spices, and myrrh, pistachio nuts and almonds. ¹² Take double the money with you, along with the money that was brought back in the mouths of your sacks. Carry it with you again. Perhaps it was a mistake. ¹³ Also, take your brother and arise, return to the man. ¹⁴ And may God Almighty give you mercy before the man, so that he may send away your other brother, along with Benjamin. As for me, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved."

¹⁵ The men took the gift, and they took double the money with them, along with Benjamin. Then they went on their way down to Egypt and stood before Joseph. ¹⁶ When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the house steward, "Bring these men home, slaughter an animal and prepare it, for these men will dine with me at noon."

¹⁷ The man did as Joseph ordered, so the man brought the men into Joseph's house. ¹⁸ The men were afraid because they were brought into Joseph's house. They said, "We have been brought in because of the money that was returned in our sacks the first time, so that he may seek occasion against us and fall upon us and take us for slaves with our donkeys."

The Feast With Joseph

¹⁹ They approached the steward of Joseph's house, and they spoke with him at the entrance of the house. ²⁰ They said, "My lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food. ²¹ When we came to the lodging place, we opened our sacks and realized every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight. So we have brought it again with us. ²² We have also brought additional money with us to buy food. We cannot tell who put our money in our sacks."

²³ He said, "Be at peace; do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks. I had your money." Then he brought Simeon out to them.

²⁶ When Joseph came home, they brought into the house to him the present that they had with them and bowed themselves to him to the ground. ²⁷ He asked them about their well-being and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"

²⁸ And they answered, "Your servant our father is in good health. He is still alive." And they bowed down their heads and prostrated themselves.

²⁹ He lifted up his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me?" And he said, "God be gracious to you, my son." ³⁰ Joseph hurried out, for he was deeply moved over his brother and sought a place to weep. So he entered into his chamber and wept there.

³¹ Then he washed his face and came out. Controlling himself, he said, "Serve the food."

³² They served him by himself and them by themselves and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because the Egyptians could not eat a meal with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. ³³ They sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, and the men looked at one another in astonishment. ³⁴ He gave them portions from his own table, but Benjamin's serving was five times more than any of theirs. So they drank and feasted with him.

Joseph Detains Benjamin

44 Then he commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in the mouth of his sack. ² Put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, along with his grain money." And he did according to what Joseph had spoken.

³ As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. ⁴ When they were gone out of the city, but not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Get up, follow after the men. When you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you rewarded evil for good?' ⁵ Is this not the one from which my lord drinks and uses as he practices divination? You have done evil in doing this.'"

⁶ So he overtook them, and he spoke to them these same words. ⁷ They said to him, "Why does my lord say these words? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing. ⁸ Look, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan the money that we found in the top of our sacks. Why then would we steal silver or gold from your lord's house? ⁹ Whichever of your servants is found with it shall die, and the rest of us will become my lord's slaves."

¹⁰ He said, "Now let it also be according to your words. He with whom it is found shall be my slave, and you will be blameless."

¹⁴ When Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, he was still there; and they fell to the ground before him. ¹⁵ Joseph said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can certainly practice divination?"

¹⁶ And Judah said, "What shall we say to my lord? What shall we speak? Or how shall we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Here we are, my lord's servants, both we and he also in whose possession the cup was found."

¹⁷ But he said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose possession the cup was found shall be my slave; but as for you, go up in peace to your father."

Judah's Plea for Benjamin

¹⁸ Then Judah approached him and said, "O my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and do not be angry with your servant, for you are equal to Pharaoh. ¹⁹ My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father or a brother?' ²⁰ And we said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a young brother, the child of his old age. His brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loves him.'

²¹ "You said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, so that I may set my eyes on him.' ²² We said to my lord, 'The boy cannot leave his father, for if he should leave his father, his father would die.' ²³ You said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.'

²⁴ When we went back to your servant, my father, we told him the words of my lord.

²⁵ "Our father said, 'Go again and buy us a little food.' ²⁶ We said, 'We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down, for we may not see the man's face, unless our youngest brother is with us.'

²⁷ "Your servant, my father, said to us, 'You know that my wife bore me two sons. ²⁸ And the one went out from me, and I said, "Surely he was torn in pieces," and I have not seen him since. ²⁹ And if you take this one also from me and he is harmed, you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.'

³⁰ "Now therefore when I come to your servant, my father, and the boy is not with us, as his life is bound up in the boy's life, ³¹ when he sees that the boy is not with us, he will die, and your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant, our father, with sorrow to the grave. ³² For your servant became surety for the boy to my father, saying, 'If I fail to bring him to you, then I shall bear the blame to my father forever.'

³³ "Now therefore, please let your servant stay as a slave to my lord instead of the boy, and let the boy go up with his brothers. ³⁴ For how can I go up to my father if the boy is not with me, lest perhaps I see the evil that would find my father?"

Joseph Reveals His Identity

⁴⁵ Then Joseph could not restrain himself before all who stood by him, and he cried out, "Make every man go out from me." So no man stood with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers. ² He wept so loudly that the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard about it.

³ Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But his brothers could not answer him, for they were dismayed in his presence.

⁴ Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come near to me," and they came near. Then he said, "I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. ⁵ Now do not be upset or angry with yourselves because you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life. ⁶ For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvesting. ⁷ God sent me ahead of you to preserve you as a remnant on the earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

⁸ "So now it was not you who sent me here, but God. He has made me a father to Pharaoh and lord of his entire household and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt. ⁹ Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, 'This is what your son Joseph says, "God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me; do not delay. ¹⁰ And you will dwell in the land of Goshen, and you will be near me, you and your children and your children's children, along with your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. ¹¹ I will provide for you there, for there are still five years of famine to come, lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty.'"'

¹² "Your eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin see that it is my mouth that is speaking to you. ¹³ You must tell my father of all my glory in Egypt and of all that you have seen, and you must hurry and bring my father down here."

¹⁶ When the news reached Pharaoh's palace that Joseph's brothers had come, it pleased Pharaoh and his servants. ¹⁷ Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers, 'Do this. Load your animals and go to the land of Canaan. ¹⁸ Get your father and your households and come to me, and I will give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you shall eat the fat of the land.'

¹⁹ "You are also commanded to say, 'Do this: Take your wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and get your father and come. ²⁰ Also do not concern yourself with your goods, for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.'"'

them he gave a change of clothes, but he gave to Benjamin three hundred shekels of silver † and five changes of clothes. ²³ To his father he sent the following: ten donkeys loaded with the best things of Egypt and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and provisions for his father on the journey. ²⁴ So he sent his brothers away, and they departed. He said to them, "Do not quarrel on the way."

²⁵ They went up out of Egypt and came to the land of Canaan to Jacob their father. ²⁶ They told him, "Joseph is still alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt." And Jacob's heart stood still because he could not believe them. ²⁷ They told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them, and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived. ²⁸ Then Israel said, "Enough! Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

Jacob's Journey to Egypt

46 So Israel set out with all that he had and came to Beersheba and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

² God spoke to Israel in visions of the night and said, "Jacob, Jacob."

And he said, "Here I am."

³ Then He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there. ⁴ I will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also surely bring you back again. And Joseph's own hand shall close your eyes."

⁵ Jacob arose from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father and their little ones and their wives in the wagons that Pharaoh had sent to carry him. ⁶ They took their livestock and their possessions that they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and came to Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him. ⁷ He brought with him to Egypt his sons and his sons' sons, his daughters and his sons' daughters, and all his descendants.

⁸ These were the names of the sons of Israel, Jacob and his sons, who came to Egypt:

Reuben, Jacob's firstborn.

⁹ The sons of Reuben were Hanok, Pallu, Hezron, and Karmi.

¹⁰ The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.

¹¹ The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

¹² The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez, and Zerah (but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan).

The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

¹³ The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah, Job, and Shimron.

¹⁴ The sons of Zebulun were Sered, Elon, and Jahleel.

¹⁵ These were the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All his sons and his daughters numbered thirty-three.

¹⁶ And the sons of Gad were Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi, and Areli.

¹⁷ The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and Serah their sister.

The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malkiel.

¹⁸ These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter; and these she bore to Jacob, sixteen in all.

¹⁹ The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife, were Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁰ To Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath the daughter of Potiphera, the priest of On, bore to him.

²¹ The sons of Benjamin were Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard.

²² These were the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob, fourteen in all.

²³ The son of Dan was Hushim.

²⁴ The sons of Naphtali: Jahziel, † Guni, Jezer, and Shillem. ‡

²⁵ These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, and she bore these to Jacob, seven in all.

²⁶ All those who came with Jacob to Egypt, who were direct descendants, besides the wives of Jacob's sons, were sixty-six in all. ²⁷ And the sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two. All those of the house of Jacob who came to Egypt were seventy.

Jacob Settles in Goshen

²⁸ Now he sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph to get directions to Goshen. And they came into the land of Goshen. ²⁹ Joseph readied his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet Israel his father. As soon as he appeared to him, he fell on his neck and wept on his neck a long time.

³⁰ Israel said to Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, because you are still alive."

³¹ Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I will go up and tell Pharaoh and say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. ³² The men are shepherds; their work has been to feed livestock, and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.' ³³ When Pharaoh calls you and asks, 'What is your occupation?' ³⁴ you shall say, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers,' so that you may dwell in the land of Goshen, because every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

47 Then Joseph went and told Pharaoh, "My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all that they possess have come from the land of Canaan and are now in the land of Goshen." ² He took five men from among his brothers and presented them before Pharaoh.

³ Pharaoh asked his brothers, "What is your occupation?"

And they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and also our fathers." ⁴ They said to Pharaoh, "We have come to sojourn in the land, for your servants have no pasture for their flocks, because the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please allow your servants to dwell in the land of Goshen."

⁵ Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. ⁶ The land of Egypt is before you. Have your father and your brothers dwell in the best of the land. Have them dwell in the land of Goshen, and if you know any capable men among them, then put them in charge over my livestock."

⁷ Then Joseph brought in Jacob his father and presented him to Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

⁸ Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How old are you?"

⁹ And Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred and thirty years. My days of the years of my life have been few and evil, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the lives of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage."

¹⁰ And Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from his presence.

¹¹ So Joseph settled his father and his brothers and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best part of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. ¹² Joseph provided food for his father, his brothers, and his father's entire household, according to the number of their children.

Joseph and the Famine

¹³ There was no food in all the land, for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan languished because of the famine.

¹⁴ Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan for the grain that they bought, and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁵ When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, "Give us food, for why should we die in your presence? For our money is gone."

¹⁶ Joseph said, "Give your livestock, and I will give you food for your livestock, if your money is gone." ¹⁷ They brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for the horses, the flocks, the herds, and the donkeys; and he fed them with food in exchange for all their livestock for that year.

¹⁸ When that year was ended, they came to him the second year and said to him, "We will not hide it from our lord, that our money is all spent. Our lord also has our herds of livestock. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our lands. ¹⁹ Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for food, and we and our land will be slaves to Pharaoh. Also give us seed, so that we may live and not die, so that the land will not be desolate."

²⁰ So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh, for every Egyptian man sold his field because the famine was severe on them. So the land became Pharaoh's. ²¹ As for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt to the other end. ²² Only the land of the priests he did not buy; for the priests had an allotment from Pharaoh, and they lived off their allotment that Pharaoh gave them. Therefore they did not sell their lands.

²³ Then Joseph said to the people, "I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh; here is seed for you so you may sow the land. ²⁴ At the harvest, you must give a fifth part to Pharaoh and four parts will be your own, as seed for the field and for your food and for those of your households and for food for your little ones."

²⁵ They said, "You have saved our lives. Let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's slaves."

²⁶ So Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part, except from the land of the priests, which did not become Pharaoh's.

Jacob's Request of Joseph

²⁷ Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen, and they had possessions there and grew and became very numerous.

²⁸ And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years, so the years of Jacob's life were one hundred and forty-seven years. ²⁹ When the time drew near when Israel would die, he called his son Joseph and said to him, "If now I have found grace in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh and deal kindly and truly with me. Please do not bury me in Egypt, ³⁰ but let me lie with my fathers. Carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place."

And he said, "I will do as you have said."

³¹ And he said, "Swear to me," and he swore to him. Then Israel bowed himself at the head of his bed.

Jacob Blesses Joseph's Sons

48 After these things, Joseph was told, "Your father is sick." So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim with him. ² When Jacob was told, "Your son Joseph is coming to you," Israel strengthened himself and sat up in the bed.

³Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me.
⁴And He said to me, 'I will make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will make you into a multitude of people and will give this land to your descendants after you for an everlasting possession.'

⁵"Now your two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine; as Reuben and Simeon, they shall be mine. ⁶Any children you have after them will be yours and will be called by the names of their brothers in their inheritance. ⁷As for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died beside me in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was still some distance to get to Ephrath, and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem)."

⁸Then Israel saw Joseph's sons and said, "Whose are these?"

⁹And Joseph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom God has given me in this place."

And he said, "Please bring them to me, and I will bless them."

¹⁰Now the eyes of Israel were dim with age, so that he could not see. So Joseph brought them near to him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

¹¹Israel said to Joseph, "I never thought I would see your face, but here God has also shown me your children."

¹⁵He blessed Joseph and said,
"God, before whom my fathers
Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who fed me
all my life long to this day, ¹⁶the angel who redeemed me from all evil, bless the boys;
let them be called by my name,
and the name of my fathers, Abraham and Isaac;
and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth."

¹⁷When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased him, and he took hold of his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. ¹⁸Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father, for this one is the firstborn. Put your right hand on his head."

¹⁹His father refused and said, "I know it, my son, I know it. He will also become a people, and he will also be great, but truly his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a multitude of nations." ²⁰He blessed them that day, saying,

"By you Israel will bless, saying,

'May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.'" So he set Ephraim before Manasseh.

²¹Israel said to Joseph, "I am about to die, but God will be with you and return you again to the land of your fathers. ²²Moreover, I have given to you one portion more than your brothers, which I took out of the hand of the Amorites with my sword and my bow."

Jacob Blesses His Sons

Dt 33:1-29

49 Jacob called to his sons and said, "Gather yourselves together, so that I may tell you what will befall you in the last days.

²Gather yourselves together and hear, sons of Jacob, and listen to your father Israel.

³Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might and the beginning of my strength,
the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power.

⁴Unstable as water, you shall not excel, because you went up to your father's bed;
then you defiled it—he went up to my couch.

⁵Simeon and Levi are brothers; weapons of violence are their swords.

⁶Let my soul not enter into their council;
let my glory not be united with their assembly;
for in their anger they killed men and in their self-will they hamstrung oxen.

⁷Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce;
and their wrath, for it is cruel!

I will divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.

⁸Judah, your brothers shall praise you;
your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies;
your father's sons will bow down before you.

⁹Judah is a lion's cub;
from the prey, my son, you have gone up.
He crouches and lies down like a lion;
and as a lion, who dares rouse him?

¹⁰The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet,
until Shiloh comes;
and to him will be the obedience of the people.

¹¹He tethers his foal to the vine, and his colt to the choicest vine;
he washes his garments in wine,
his clothes in the blood of grapes.

¹²His eyes are darker than wine, and his teeth whiter than milk.

¹³Zebulun shall dwell at the haven of the sea;
and he shall be a haven of ships.
His border shall be at Sidon.

¹⁴Issachar is a strong donkey, lying down between two burdens;

¹⁵ he saw that a resting place was good,
and that the land was pleasant;
so he bowed his shoulder to bear the burden and became a slave to forced labor.
¹⁶ Dan shall judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.
¹⁷ Dan shall be a serpent by the road,
a viper on the path,
that bites the horse's heels
so that its rider will fall backward.
¹⁸ I wait for Your salvation, O LORD!
¹⁹ Gad shall be attacked by raiding bands, but he shall raid at their heels.
²⁰ Asher's food shall be rich, and he shall yield royal delicacies.
²¹ Naphtali is a doe set loose;
he gives beautiful words.
²² Joseph is a fruitful bough,
a fruitful bough by a spring, whose branches run over the wall.
²³ The archers bitterly attacked him, they shot at him and hated him.
²⁴ But his bow remained firm.
His arms were agile
because of the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, because of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel, ²⁵ because of the God of your father who will help you,
and by the Almighty who will bless you with blessings from heaven above, blessings from the deep that lies beneath,
the blessings of the breasts and the womb.
²⁶ The blessings of your father have surpassed the blessings of my fathers, up to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills.
They will be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him who was set apart from his brothers.
²⁷ Benjamin is a ravenous wolf;
in the morning he devours the prey, and at night he divides the spoil."
²⁸ These are all the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them when he blessed them.
He blessed them, each with the blessing appropriate to him.

The Death of Jacob

²⁹ Then he charged them and said to them, "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, ³⁰ in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought along with the field from Ephron the Hittite as a burial place. ³¹ They buried Abraham and Sarah his wife there. They buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife there, and I buried Leah there. ³² The field and the cave that is there were purchased from the children of Heth."

³³ When Jacob finished instructing his sons, he drew his feet into the bed, breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

The Burial of Jacob

50 Then Joseph fell on his father's face and wept over him and kissed him. ² Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Israel. ³ Forty days were required for him, for such is the time required for those who are embalmed. Then the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

⁴ When the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, speak to Pharaoh, saying, ⁵ 'My father made me swear, saying, "I am about to die. Bury me in my tomb which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan." Now therefore please let me go up and bury my father, and then I will return.'"

⁶ Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear to do."

⁷ Joseph went up to bury his father, and all the servants of Pharaoh went up with him too, the elders of his household and all the elders of the land of Egypt, ⁸ all the house of Joseph and his brothers and his father's household. They left only their little ones and their flocks and their herds in the land of Goshen.
⁹ Both the chariots and horsemen also went up with him. It was a very great company.

¹⁰ When they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan, they mourned with a great and very sorrowful lamentation. He observed seven days of mourning for his father. ¹¹ When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing floor of Atad, they said, "This is a grievous mourning for the Egyptians." Therefore the place was called Abel Mizraim, which is beyond the Jordan.

¹² So his sons did with him just as he had commanded them. ¹³ For his sons carried him into the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, near Mamre, which Abraham bought with the field as a burial site from Ephron the Hittite. ¹⁴ After he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all who went up with him to bury his father.

Joseph Reassures His Brothers

¹⁵ When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "Perhaps Joseph will hate us and will certainly pay us back for all the wrong we did to him."
¹⁶ So they sent a message to Joseph, saying, "Your father gave this command before he died: ¹⁷ 'Say to Joseph, "I beg you, forgive the transgressions of your brothers and their sin. For they did evil to you.'" Now, please forgive the transgressions of the servants of the God of your father." And Joseph wept when they spoke to him.

¹⁸ Then his brothers also went and fell down before his face and said, "We are your servants."

¹⁹ Joseph said to them, "Do not be afraid, for am I in the place of God? ²⁰ But as for you, you intended to harm me, but God intended it for good, in order to bring it about as it is this day, to save many lives. ²¹ So now, do not fear. I will provide for you and your little ones." So he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

The Death of Joseph

²² Joseph stayed in Egypt, he and his father's household, and Joseph lived one hundred and ten years.

²³ Joseph saw Ephraim's children to the third generation. Also, the children of Makir, the son of Manasseh, were brought up on Joseph's knees.

²⁴ Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die. God will surely come to you and bring you out of this land to the land of which He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob." ²⁵ Then Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here."

²⁶ So Joseph died at the age of one hundred and ten years old, and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS

Exodus was probably written between 1440 and 1400 BC. Jewish tradition and the New Testament writers attribute this book to Moses. Its theme is deliverance and instruction. Exodus begins in Egypt where the Israelites have been living in slavery to Pharaoh. Through a series of miracles, God delivers them from Egypt and leads them through the Red Sea on dry land and into the desert, where they come to Mount Sinai. Here Moses receives the Ten Commandments along with other laws governing Israel's life and worship. The first tabernacle is constructed during this period where sacrifices for sin are offered and God's presence dwells.

Israel Oppressed

1 Now these are the names of the sons of Israel, which came into Egypt (each man and his household came with Jacob): ² Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah; ³ Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin; ⁴ Dan, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher. ⁵ All the people who came from the seed of Jacob were seventy people, but Joseph was in Egypt already.

⁶ Joseph died, as did all his brothers, and all that generation. ⁷ Nevertheless, the sons of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and became exceedingly mighty, [†] so that the land was filled with them.

⁸ Now there rose up a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. ⁹ He said to his people, "Surely, the people of the sons of Israel are more numerous and powerful than we. ¹⁰ Come, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to pass that when any war breaks out, they also join our enemies, and fight against us, and escape from the land."

¹¹ Therefore they set taskmasters over them to afflict them with their labor. They built for Pharaoh storage cities: Pithom and Rameses. ¹² But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew so that as a result they abhorred the sons of Israel. ¹³ The Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigor, ¹⁴ and they made their lives bitter with hard service—in mortar and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field, all their service in which they made them serve was with rigor.

¹⁵ The king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah, ¹⁶ and he said, "When you perform the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women and see them on the stools, if it is a son, then you must kill him, but if it is a daughter, then she may live." ¹⁷ However, the midwives feared God, and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but kept the male children alive. ¹⁸ The king of Egypt called for the midwives and said to them, "Why have you done this thing and preserved the male children's lives?"

¹⁹ The midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women, for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwives come to them."

²⁰ Therefore God dealt well with the midwives, and the people multiplied and grew very mighty. ²¹ So it happened that because the midwives feared God, He gave them families.

²² Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, "You must cast every son that is born into the river, and you must preserve every daughter's life."

The Birth of Moses

2 Now a man of the house of Levi went and married a daughter of Levi. ² And the woman conceived and bore a son, and when she saw him, that he was a beautiful child, she hid him three months.

³ When she could no longer hide him, she took for him a container made of bulrushes and daubed it with tar and with pitch. She then put the child in it and set it in the reeds by the river's bank. ⁴ Then his sister stood afar off so that she might know what would happen to him.

⁵ The daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river while her maidens walked along by the river's side, and when she saw the container among the reeds, she sent her maid, and she retrieved it.

⁶ When she opened it, she saw the child. He was crying. She had compassion on him and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."

⁷ Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call for you a nursing woman of the Hebrew women so that she may nurse the child for you?"

⁸ And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Go." So the young girl went and called the child's mother.

⁹ Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away, and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed him. ¹⁰ Now the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses and said, "Because I drew him out of the water."

¹¹ In those days, when Moses was grown, he went out to his brothers and looked on their burdens; and he saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his brothers. ¹² He looked this way and that way, and when he saw no one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. ¹³ When he went out the next day, two men of the Hebrews struggled with each other; and he said to him that did the wrong, "Why do you strike your companion?"

¹⁴ He said, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?" Moses feared and said, "Surely this thing is known."

Moses Flees to Midian

¹⁵ Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the presence of Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian, and he dwelled by a well. ¹⁶ Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. ¹⁷ Then shepherds came and drove them away, but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

¹⁸ When they came to Reuel their father, he said, "Why is it you have come back so soon today?"

¹⁹ And they said, "An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds and also drew water for us and watered the flock."

²⁰ He said to his daughters, "So where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him so that he may eat bread."

²¹ Moses was content to dwell with the man, and he gave Zipporah, his daughter, to Moses. ²² Then she gave birth to a son, and he called his name Gershom, for he said, "I have been a sojourner in a foreign land."

²³ In the passing of time the king of Egypt died. And the children of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and they cried out, and their cry came up to God on account of the bondage. ²⁴ God heard their groaning, and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ²⁵ God looked on the children of Israel, and God had concern for them.

Moses at the Burning Bush

3 Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the desert and came to the mountain of God, to Horeb. ² The angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush, and he looked, and the bush burned with fire, but the bush was not consumed. ³ So Moses said, "I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt."

⁴ When the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him from out of the midst of the bush and said, "Moses, Moses."

And he said, "Here am I."

⁵ He said, "Do not approach here. Remove your sandals from off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." ⁶ Moreover He said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look upon God.

⁷ The LORD said, "I have surely seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt and have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows. ⁸ Therefore, I have come down to deliver them up out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. ⁹ Now therefore, the cry of the children of Israel has come to Me. Moreover, I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians are oppressing them. ¹⁰ Come now therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh so that you may bring forth My people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt."

¹¹ Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?"

¹² And He said, "Certainly I will be with you, and this will be a sign to you, that I have sent you: When you have brought forth the people out of Egypt, all of you shall serve God on this mountain."

¹³ Moses said to God, "I am going to the children of Israel and will say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you.' When they say to me, 'What is His name?' what shall I say to them?"

¹⁴ And God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM,"[†] and He said, "You will say this to the children of Israel, 'I AM has sent me to you.'"

¹⁵ God, moreover, said to Moses, "Thus you will say to the children of Israel, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My name forever, and this is My memorial to all generations.'

¹⁶ "Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and say to them, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared to me, saying, "I am indeed concerned about you and what has been done to you in Egypt. ¹⁷ Therefore, I said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.'"

¹⁸ "They shall listen to your voice, and you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt, and you must say to him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews has met with us. Therefore, now, let us go, we ask you, three days' journey into the wilderness so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.' ¹⁹ However, I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not even under a forceful hand. ²⁰ So I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders which I will perform in its midst, and after that he will let you go.

²¹ "I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, and it will come to pass, that, when you go, you will not go empty-handed. ²² But every woman will borrow of her neighbor, and of her that sojourns in her house, articles of silver, and articles of gold, and clothing, and you will put them on your sons, and on your daughters—in this way you will plunder the Egyptians."

Moses' Miraculous Signs

4 And Moses answered and said, "But they will not believe me, nor listen to my voice. For they will say, 'The LORD has not appeared to you.'"

² The LORD said to him, "What is that in your hand?" And he said, "A rod."

³ He said, "Throw it on the ground."

And he threw it on the ground, and it became a serpent. Then Moses fled from it. ⁴ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Put forth your hand and take it by the tail." And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand. ⁵ " This is so that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."

⁸ "If they will not believe you, nor listen to the voice of the first sign, then they may believe the voice of the latter sign. ⁹ But if they will not believe also these two signs or listen to your voice, then you shall take water from the river and pour it on the dry land, and the water which you take out of the river will become blood on the dry land."

¹⁰ Then Moses said to the LORD, "O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither before nor since You have spoken to Your servant. But I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue."

¹¹ The LORD said to him, "Who has made man's mouth? Or who made the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? Have not I, the LORD? ¹² Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you must say."

¹³ He said, "O my Lord, send, I pray, by the hand of whomever else You will send."

¹⁴ The anger of the LORD was inflamed against Moses, and He said, "Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, he comes out to meet you, and when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart. ¹⁵ You shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth, and I will be with your mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what you must do. ¹⁶ What's more, he will be your spokesman to the people, and he will be as a mouth for you, and you will be as God to him. ¹⁷ You must take this rod in your hand, with which you will perform the signs."

Moses Returns to Egypt

¹⁸ Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law and said to him, "Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive."

And Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."

¹⁹ The LORD said to Moses in Midian, "Go, return to Egypt, for all the men are dead who sought your life."

²¹ The LORD said to Moses, "When you go to return into Egypt, see that you do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in your hand, but I will harden his heart, so that he shall not let the people go. ²² You shall say to Pharaoh, 'Thus says the LORD: Israel is My son, even My firstborn. ²³ So I say to you, 'Let My son go, that he may serve Me. And if you refuse to let him go, I will slay your son, even your firstborn.'"

²⁴ At a lodging place on the way, the LORD met him and sought to kill him. ²⁵ Then Zipporah took a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and threw it at his feet, and said, "Surely a bloody husband are you to me." ²⁶ So He let him go. Then she said, "A bloody husband you are, because of the circumcision."

²⁷ Now the LORD said to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." So he went, and met him at the mount of God, and kissed him. ²⁸ Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the signs which He had commanded him.

²⁹ Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel. ³⁰ And Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses and did the signs in the sight of the people. ³¹ And the people believed. And when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel and that He had looked on their affliction, they bowed down and worshipped.

Bricks Without Straw

5 And afterward Moses and Aaron went in and said to Pharaoh, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Let My people go, that they may hold a feast to Me in the wilderness.'"

² And Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD that I should obey His voice to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD, nor will I let Israel go."

³ They said, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us go, we pray you, three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, lest He fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword."

¹⁰ The taskmasters of the people and their officers went out, and they spoke to the people, saying, "Thus says Pharaoh, 'I will not give you straw. ¹¹ Go, get straw where you can find it, yet nothing of your work shall be diminished.'" ¹² So the people scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. ¹³ The taskmasters pushed them, saying, "Fulfill your works, your daily tasks, just as when there was straw." ¹⁴ The officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten and were asked, and demanded, "Why have you not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and today, as previously?"

¹⁵ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried to Pharaoh, saying, "Why do you deal this way with your servants? ¹⁶ There is no straw being given to your servants, and they say to us, 'Make brick.' And indeed, your servants are beaten, but the fault is in your own people."

¹⁷ But he said, "You are slackers! Slackers! Therefore you say, 'Let us go and do sacrifice to the LORD.' ¹⁸ Go therefore now and work, for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall you deliver the quota of bricks."

²⁰ Then they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh. ²¹ And they said to them, "May the LORD look on you and judge, because you have made our scent stink in the estimation of Pharaoh and in the estimation of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us."

God Promises Deliverance

²² Moses returned to the LORD, and said, "Lord, why have You caused trouble for this people? Why is it that You have sent me? ²³ For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has done evil to this people; neither have You delivered Your people at all."

6 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh, for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land."

² Then God spoke to Moses, and said to him, "I am the LORD, ³ and I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, by the name of God Almighty, but by My name, The LORD, I was not known to them. ⁴ I have also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they sojourned. ⁵ I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered My covenant."

⁶ "Therefore say to the children of Israel: 'I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a stretched-out arm and with great judgments. ⁷ And I will take you to Me for a people, and I will be to you a God. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. ⁸ I will bring you into the land, which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, and I will give it to you for a heritage. I am the LORD.'" ⁹ Moses spoke so to the children of Israel, but they did not listen to Moses on account of their anguish of spirit and for cruel bondage.

¹⁰ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ¹¹ "Go in, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the children of Israel go out of his land."

¹² Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, "The children of Israel have not listened to me. How then shall Pharaoh listen to me, as I am of uncircumcised lips?"

¹³ And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a command for the children of Israel, and for Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

The Genealogy of Moses and Aaron

¹⁴ These are the heads of their fathers' houses: The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanok, Pallu, Hezron, and Karmi. These are the families of Reuben.

¹⁵ The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These are the families of Simeon.

¹⁷ The sons of Gershon: Libni, and Shimei, according to their families.

¹⁸ The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, and the years of the life of Kohath were one hundred and thirty-three years.

¹⁹ The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi.

These are the families of Levi according to their generations.

²⁰ Now Amram married Jochebed his father's sister, and she bore him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were one hundred and thirty-seven years.

²¹ The sons of Izhar: Korah, Nepheg, and Zikri.

²² The sons of Uzziel: Mishael, Elzaphan, and Sithri.

²³ Aaron took to himself Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Nahshon, to wife; and she bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

²⁴ The sons of Korah: Assir, Elkanah, and Abiasaph. These are the families of the Korahites.

²⁵ Eleazar, Aaron's son, married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas.

These are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families.

²⁶ It was that Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies." ²⁷ They are the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt. It was that Moses and Aaron.

Aaron to Speak for Moses

²⁸ On the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, ²⁹ the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, "I am the LORD. Speak to Pharaoh the king of Egypt all that I say to you."

³⁰ However, Moses said before the LORD, "Listen! I am unskilled in speech, so how will Pharaoh listen to me?"

7 So the LORD said to Moses, "See, I have made you a god to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother will be your prophet. ² You shall speak all that I command you, and Aaron your brother shall tell Pharaoh to send the children of Israel out of his land. ³ But I will harden Pharaoh's heart and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Egypt. ⁴ Nevertheless, Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that I may lay My hand upon Egypt and bring forth My armies and My people, the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. ⁵ And the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when I stretch forth My hand upon Egypt and bring out the children of Israel from among them."

⁶ So Moses and Aaron did it. Just as the LORD commanded them, so they did. ⁷ Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron was eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Aaron's Rod Becomes a Snake

⁸ Now the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ⁹ "When Pharaoh shall speak to you, saying, 'Show a miracle,' then you shall say to Aaron, 'Take your rod, and throw it before Pharaoh,' and it shall become a serpent."

¹⁰ So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh, and they did what the LORD had commanded. And Aaron threw down his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent. ¹¹ Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers. Then the magicians of Egypt likewise performed with their secret arts. ¹² For every man threw down his rod, and they became serpents. But Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods.

¹³ Nonetheless, Pharaoh's heart hardened so that he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

The First Plague: Waters Turn to Blood

¹⁴ The LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh's heart is hardened. He refuses to let the people go. ¹⁵ Go to Pharaoh in the morning as he goes out to the water, and you shall stand by the river's bank to meet him. You must take the rod which was turned to a serpent in your hand. ¹⁶ Then you are to say to him, 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, "Let My people go, so that they may serve Me in the wilderness." But up to this point you have not listened!

¹⁷ Thus says the LORD, "In this you shall know that I am the LORD: Indeed, I will strike the waters of the Nile with the rod that is in my hand, and they shall be turned to blood. ¹⁸ And the fish that are in the river shall die, and the river shall stink so that the Egyptians shall be weary of drinking the river's water." "

¹⁹ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Take your rod, and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their canals, over their ponds, and over all their pools of water, so that they may become blood. And there will be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.'"

²⁰ Moses and Aaron did so, just as the LORD commanded. And he lifted up the rod and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants, and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. ²¹ The fish that were in the river died, the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river. Blood was everywhere throughout the land of Egypt.

²² Nonetheless, the magicians of Egypt did the same with their secret arts, and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said. ²³ Then Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he did not concern himself with this either. ²⁴ So all the Egyptians dug around about the river for water to drink, because they could not drink of the water of the river.

²⁵ Seven days passed after the LORD had struck the river.

The Second Plague: Frogs

8 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. ² But if you refuse to let them go, then I will plague all your borders with frogs. ³ And the river will swarm with frogs, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedchamber, and on your bed, and into the houses of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs. ⁴ So the frogs shall come upon you, upon your people, and upon all your servants.'"

⁵ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch forth your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.'"

⁸ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, "Entreat the LORD, that He may take away the frogs from me, and from my people, and I will let the people go, so that they may sacrifice to the LORD."

⁹ Moses said to Pharaoh, "Glory yourself over me: When shall I entreat for you, your servants, and your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, that they may remain in the river only?"

¹⁰ And he said, "Tomorrow."

Then he said, "Be it according to your word, in order that you may know that there is no one like the LORD our God. ¹¹ The frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only."

¹² Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried out to the LORD concerning the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh. ¹³ Then the LORD did according to the word of Moses. And the frogs died out of the houses, the villages, and the fields. ¹⁴ So they gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank. ¹⁵ But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

The Third Plague: Gnats

¹⁶ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, so that it may become gnats throughout all the land of Egypt.'" ¹⁷ They did so, for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and smote the dust of the earth, and it became gnats on man and on beast. All the dust of the land became gnats throughout all the land of Egypt. ¹⁸ Then the magicians tried with their secret arts to bring forth gnats, but they could not, so there were gnats upon man and beast.

¹⁹ Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God." Nevertheless, Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

The Fourth Plague: Flies

²⁰ So the LORD said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh as he comes forth to the water and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. ²¹ Otherwise, if you will not let My people go, indeed I will send swarms of flies on you, and on your servants, and on your people, and into your houses. And the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies and also the ground wherever they are.

²² "I will in that day set apart the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, so that no swarms of flies shall be there, in order that you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth. ²³ I will put a division between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign will happen."

²⁴ The LORD did so, and great swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt. The land was corrupted because of the swarms of flies.

²⁶ Moses said, "It is not right to do so, for what we shall sacrifice to the LORD our God would be an abomination to the Egyptians. If we shall sacrifice what is an abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone us? ²⁷ We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and then we will sacrifice to the LORD our God, as He shall command us."

²⁸ Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness. Only you shall not go very far away. Make entreaty for me."

²⁹ Moses said, "Indeed, I am leaving you, and I will plead with the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people tomorrow. But let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more by not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD."

³⁰ Moses went away from Pharaoh and entreated the LORD. ³¹ Then the LORD did according to the word of Moses, and He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not one remained. ³² Nevertheless, Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, nor would he let the people go.

The Fifth Plague: Livestock Die

9 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, and speak to him, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. ² For if you refuse to let them go and continue holding them, ³ indeed, the hand of the LORD will be upon your livestock which are in the field, upon the horses, upon the donkeys, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep. There shall be a very grievous pestilence. ⁴ The LORD shall separate between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, and nothing shall die of all that belongs to the children of Israel."

⁵ So the LORD appointed a set time, saying, "Tomorrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land." ⁶ Then the LORD did this thing the next day, so that all the livestock of Egypt died, but not one of the livestock of the children of Israel died. ⁷ Pharaoh sent, and there was not one of the livestock of the children of Israel dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, so that he did not let the people go.

The Sixth Plague: Boils

⁸ Then the LORD said to Moses and to Aaron, "Take for yourselves handfuls of ashes from a kiln, and let Moses toss it toward the heavens in the sight of Pharaoh. ⁹ It shall become fine dust over all the land of Egypt and shall be a boil breaking forth with blisters upon man and beast, throughout all the land of Egypt."

¹⁰ So they took the ashes from a kiln and stood before Pharaoh. Then Moses tossed it up toward the heavens, and it became a boil breaking forth with blisters upon man and beast. ¹¹ The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, for the boils were upon the magicians and upon all the Egyptians. ¹² Moreover, the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, so that he did not listen to them, just as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

The Seventh Plague: Hail

¹³ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews: Let My people go, so that they may serve Me. ¹⁴ For I will at this time send all My plagues upon you and your servants and your people, so that you may know that there is none like Me in all the earth. ¹⁵ For by now I could have stretched out My hand, so that I might strike you and your people with pestilence, and you would be cut off from the earth. ¹⁶ But, indeed, for this cause I have raised you up, in order to show in you My power and so that My name may be declared throughout all the earth. ¹⁷ Still, you exalt yourself against My people by forbidding them to go. ¹⁸ Certainly, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very severe hail, such as has not happened in Egypt since it was founded until now. ¹⁹ Send therefore now and bring your livestock and all that you have in the field to safety. Every man and beast which shall be found in the field and not brought home when the hail comes down upon them will die.'"

²² So the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch forth your hand toward the heavens, so that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man and beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt." ²³ Moses stretched forth his rod toward the heavens, and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire ran along upon the ground. So the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt. ²⁴ So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail. It was so severe that there had been none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. ²⁵ The hail struck all the land of Egypt, all that was in the field, both man and beast, and the hail struck every herb of the field and broke every tree of the field. ²⁶ Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

²⁷ Then Pharaoh sent and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "I have sinned this time. The LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. ²⁸ Entreat the LORD, for there has been enough of God's mighty thunder and hail, and I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer."

²⁹ Moses said to him, "As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands to the LORD. The thunder shall cease, and there shall no longer be any more hail, so that you may know that the earth is the LORD's. ³⁰ But as for you and your servants, I know that you will not yet fear the LORD God."

³¹ Now the flax and the barley were struck, for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in bud. ³² But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they grow up later.

³³ So Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh and spread out his hands to the LORD, and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was no longer poured upon the earth. ³⁴ However, when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. ³⁵ The heart of Pharaoh hardened, and he would not let the children of Israel go, just as the LORD had spoken by Moses.

The Eighth Plague: Locusts

10 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, that I might show these signs of Mine before him, ² in order that you may tell in the hearing of your son, and of your son's son, what things I have done in Egypt, and My signs which I have done among them, that you may know that I am the LORD."

³ Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, 'How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may serve Me. ⁴ For if you refuse to let My people go, indeed, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory. ⁵ And they shall cover the face of the earth, such that no one will be able to see the earth. What's more, they shall eat the remainder of that which has escaped—that which remains to you from the hail—and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field. ⁶ And they shall fill your houses, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians—which neither your fathers, nor your fathers' fathers have seen since the day that they were on the earth until this day." And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

⁷ Then Pharaoh's servants said to him, "How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, so that they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not yet know that Egypt is destroyed?"

⁸ So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go, serve the LORD your God! But who are the ones that shall go?"

⁹ And Moses said, "We will go with our young and our old, with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds will we go, for we must hold a feast to the LORD."

¹⁰ Then he said to them, "The LORD indeed be with you when I let you and your little ones go. Beware, for evil is before you. ¹¹ Not so! Go now, you that are men, and serve the LORD, for that is what you desire." Then they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

¹² Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, so that they may come up upon the land of Egypt and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail has left."

¹³ So Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt; then the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day and all that night. And when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. ¹⁴ The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt and settled down in all the territory of Egypt. They were very grievous. Never before had there been such locusts as they, nor would there be such ever again. ¹⁵ For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened, and they ate every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. As a result, nothing green remained there in the trees or herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

¹⁶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste and said, "I have sinned against the LORD, your God, and against you. ¹⁷ Now therefore please forgive my sin only this once, and entreat the LORD your God, so that He may take away from me this death only."

¹⁸ So he went out from Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD. ¹⁹ Then the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts and threw them into the Red Sea. Not one locust remained in all the territory of Egypt. ²⁰ But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

The Ninth Plague: Darkness

²¹ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the heavens, so that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, a darkness which may be felt." ²² So Moses stretched forth his hand toward the heavens, and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days. ²³ They did not see one another; nor did anyone rise from his place for three days. But all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

²⁴ Then Pharaoh called to Moses and said, "Go, serve the LORD. Only let your flocks and your herds be detained. Even let your little ones also go with you."

²⁵ But Moses said, "You must also give us sacrifices and burnt offerings, so that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. ²⁶ Our livestock will go with us also. Not a hoof will be left behind, for we must take of them to serve the LORD our God. And we do not know with what we must serve the LORD, until we get there."

²⁷ But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go. ²⁸ So Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Watch yourself, do not see my face anymore; for in the day you see my face you shall die."

²⁹ Then Moses said, "As you wish. I will never see your face again."

Warning of the Final Plague

11 Now the LORD said to Moses, "I will still bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt. Afterwards he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, he shall surely thrust you out from here altogether. ² Speak now in the hearing of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbor and every woman of her neighbor, articles of silver and articles of gold." ³ Then the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

⁴ Moses said, "Thus says the LORD, 'About midnight I will go out into the midst of Egypt, ⁵ and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the firstborn of the maidservant that is behind the mill, as well as all the firstborn of beasts. ⁶ Then there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there has never been, nor shall ever be again. ⁷ But against any of the children of Israel a dog will not even move his tongue, against man or beast, in order that you may know how that the LORD distinguishes between Egypt and Israel.' ⁸ Then all these your servants shall come down to me and bow themselves to me, saying, 'Get out, and all the people who follow you!' After that I will go out." And he went out from Pharaoh in great anger.

⁹ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh shall not listen to you so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.”¹⁰ So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, and the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

The Passover Instituted

Lev 23:4–8; Nu 28:16–25; Dt 16:1–8

12 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying: ²This month shall be the beginning of months to you. It shall be the first month of the year to you. ³Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying: On the tenth day of this month every man shall take a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for a household. ⁴And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the persons; according to what each man shall eat, divide the lamb. ⁵Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats. ⁶You shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month, and then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening. ⁷They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two side posts and on the upper doorpost of the houses in which they shall eat it. ⁸They shall eat the flesh on that night, roasted with fire, and they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ⁹Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire, its head with its legs and its entrails. ¹⁰And you shall let nothing of it remain until the morning, but that of it which remains until the morning you shall burn with fire. ¹¹In this way shall you eat it: with your waist girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. So you shall eat it in haste. It is the LORD’s Passover.

¹²For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast, and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment. I am the LORD. ¹³The blood shall be to you for a sign on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you when I smite the land of Egypt.

¹⁴This day shall be a memorial to you, and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD. Throughout your generations you shall keep it a feast by an eternal ordinance. ¹⁵Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the first day you shall put away leaven out of your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that person shall be cut off from Israel. ¹⁶On the first day there shall be a holy convocation, and on the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation for you. No manner of work shall be done on them; but that which every man must eat—that only may be prepared for you.

¹⁷You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For on this very day I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations as an ordinance forever. ¹⁸In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread until the twenty-first day of the month at evening. ¹⁹Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses, for whoever eats that which is leavened, that person shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger or born in the land. ²⁰You shall eat nothing leavened. In all your dwellings you shall eat unleavened bread.

²¹Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, “Draw out and take for yourselves a lamb according to your families and kill the Passover lamb. ²²You shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and apply the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the basin, and none of you shall go out from the door of his house until the morning. ²³For the LORD will pass through to kill the Egyptians. And when He sees the blood upon the lintel and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door and will not permit the destroyer to come to your houses to kill you.

²⁴“And you shall observe this thing as an ordinance to you and to your sons forever. ²⁵When you enter the land which the LORD will give you, according as He has promised, that you shall observe this service.

²⁶And when your children shall say to you, ‘What does this service mean to you?’ ²⁷that you shall say, ‘It is the sacrifice of the LORD’s Passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when He smote the Egyptians, and delivered our households.’” And the people bowed down and worshipped. ²⁸Then the children of Israel went and did so. Just as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

The Tenth Plague: Death of the Firstborn

²⁹At midnight the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon and all the firstborn of livestock.

³⁰Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians, and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not someone dead.

The Exodus

³¹Then he called for Moses and Aaron at night and said, “Rise up, and get out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel, and go, serve the LORD, as you have said. ³²Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone, and bless me also.”

³³The Egyptians urged the people, so that they might send them out of the land in haste, for they said, “We all will be dead.” ³⁴So the people took their dough before it was leavened, with their kneading troughs being bound up in their clothes on their shoulders. ³⁵ Now the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses, and they requested of the Egyptians articles of silver and articles of gold, and clothing. ³⁶ And the LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they gave them what they requested. Thus they plundered the Egyptians.

³⁷ Then the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Sukkoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides children. ³⁸ A mixed multitude also went up with them along with flocks and herds, a large amount of livestock. ³⁹ They baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened because they were driven out of Egypt and could not linger, nor had they prepared for themselves any food.

⁴⁰ Now the sojourning of the children of Israel who lived in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years.

⁴¹ And at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, on the very day, all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. ⁴² It is a night to be observed to the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night for the LORD to be observed by all the children of Israel in their generations.

The Ordinance of Passover

⁴³ So the LORD said to Moses and Aaron: This is the ordinance of the Passover:

No foreigner may eat of it. ⁴⁴ But every man's servant bought with money, when you have circumcised him, may eat it. ⁴⁵ A foreigner or a hired servant shall not eat it.

⁴⁸ Now when a stranger sojourns with you and keeps the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it. And he shall be as one that is born in the land. However, no uncircumcised person shall eat of it. ⁴⁹ The same law shall apply to him that is a native and to the stranger who sojourns among you.

⁵⁰ So all the children of Israel did it. They did just as the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron. ⁵¹ And that same day the LORD brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their hosts.

Consecration of the Firstborn

13 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Sanctify unto Me all the firstborn, the firstborn of every womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast. It is Mine.

The Feast of Unleavened Bread

³ Moses said to the people, "Remember this day, in which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage, for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place. Nothing leavened shall be eaten. ⁴ On this day, you are going out, in the month of Aviv. ⁵ It shall be when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this ceremony in this month. ⁶ Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD. ⁷ Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days. And there shall be no leavened bread seen among you, nor shall there be leaven seen among you in all your borders. ⁸ You shall declare to your son on that day, saying, 'This is done because of that which the LORD did for me when I came forth out of Egypt.' ⁹ It shall be as a sign to you on your hand and as a memorial on your forehead, in order that the LORD's law may be in your mouth. For with a strong hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt. ¹⁰ You shall, therefore, keep this ordinance at its appointed time from year to year.

The Law of the Firstborn

¹¹ "It shall be when the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, just as He swore to you and to your fathers, and shall give it you, ¹² that you shall set apart to the LORD the first offspring of every womb and the first offspring of every beast which you have. The males shall be the LORD's. ¹³ But every first offspring of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb. And if you do not redeem it, then you shall break its neck, and all the firstborn of man among your sons you shall redeem.

¹⁴ "It shall be when your son asks you in time to come, saying, 'What is this?' that you shall say to him, 'With a strong hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage. ¹⁵ And when Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, that the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast. Therefore, I sacrifice to the LORD the first male offspring of every womb, but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.' ¹⁶ It shall be as a sign on your hand and as frontlets on your forehead, for with a strong hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt."

The Route of the Exodus

¹⁷ Now when Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not lead them through the way of the land of the Philistines, although it was nearby. For God said, "Lest the people change their minds when they see war, and they return to Egypt." ¹⁸ Therefore, God led the people around, through the way of the wilderness to the Red Sea, and the children of Israel went up prepared for war out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁹ Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the children of Israel solemnly swear, saying, "God will surely attend to you, and you shall carry my bones away from here with you."

²⁰ They took their journey from Sukkoth and camped in Etham, on the edge of the wilderness. ²¹ The LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them along the way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, so that they might travel by day and by night. ²² He did not remove the pillar of cloud by day or the pillar of fire by night from before the people.

Crossing the Red Sea

14 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel, so that they turn and camp before Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, before Baal Zephon. Opposite it you shall camp by the sea. ³ For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, "They are confused in the land. The wilderness has shut them in." ⁴ So I will harden Pharaoh's heart, so that he shall pursue them. And I will be honored because of Pharaoh and because of all his army, so that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

⁵ When it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled, the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, "Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?" ⁶ So he made ready his chariot and took his people with him. ⁷ And he took six hundred select chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and officers over every one of them. ⁸ The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel. However, the children of Israel went out with confidence. ⁹ But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them camping by the sea, beside Pi Hahiroth, before Baal Zephon.

¹⁰ When Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and indeed, the Egyptians were marching after them, and they were extremely terrified, so the children of Israel cried out to the LORD. ¹¹ Then they said to Moses, "Is it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you dealt with us in this way, bringing us out of Egypt? ¹² Is not this the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, 'Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians?' For it would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness."

¹³ But Moses said to the people, "Fear not! Stand firm! And see the salvation of the LORD, which He will show you today. For the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you shall never see again. ¹⁴ The LORD shall fight for you, while you hold your peace."

¹⁵ The LORD said to Moses, "Why do you cry out to Me? Speak to the children of Israel, so that they go forward. ¹⁶ And as for you, lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it; then the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea. ¹⁷ As for Me, surely, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, so that they shall follow them, and I will be honored through Pharaoh, through all his army, his chariots, and his horsemen. ¹⁸ Then the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when I am honored through Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen."

¹⁹ Then the angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them, and the pillar of the cloud moved before them and stood behind them. ²⁰ So it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel, and there was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night. Therefore, the one did not come near the other the entire night.

²¹ Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea dry land, so that the waters were divided. ²² The children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

²⁶ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the waters may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and their horsemen." ²⁷ So Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its normal place when the morning appeared, while the Egyptians fled against it, so the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. ²⁸ The waters returned and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them. There remained not so much as one of them.

²⁹ But the children of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea. And the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left. ³⁰ Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the seashore. ³¹ When Israel saw the great power which the LORD used upon the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD, and they believed in the LORD and in His servant Moses.

A Song of Moses

15 Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD and spoke, saying: "I will sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously!

 He has thrown the horse and his rider into the sea!
²The LORD is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation.
 He is my God, and I will praise Him;
 my father's God, and I will exalt Him.
³The LORD is a man of war;
 the LORD is His name.
⁴Pharaoh's chariots and his army
 He has thrown into the sea;
 his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.
⁵The depths have covered them;
 they sank to the bottom like a stone.
⁶"Your right hand, O LORD , is glorious in power.
 Your right hand, O LORD , shatters the enemy.
⁷In the greatness of Your excellence,
 You overthrow those who rise up against You.
 You send out Your wrath;
 it consumes them like stubble.
⁸With the blast of Your nostrils
 the waters were gathered together.
 The flowing waters stood upright as a heap;
 and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.
⁹"The enemy said,
 'I will pursue. I will overtake.
 I will divide the spoil;
 my lust shall be satisfied upon them.
 I will draw my sword,
 my hand shall destroy them.'
¹⁰You blew with Your wind, and the sea covered them;
 they sank like lead
 in the mighty waters.
¹¹"Who is like You, O LORD , among the gods?
 Who is like You,
 glorious in holiness,
 fearful in praises,
 doing wonders?
¹²You stretched out Your right hand, and the earth swallowed them.
¹³"In Your mercy You have led the people whom You have redeemed;
 You have guided them by Your strength to Your holy dwelling.
¹⁴The peoples have heard and are afraid;
 sorrow has taken hold on the inhabitants of Philistia.
¹⁵Then the chiefs of Edom were amazed;
 the mighty men of Moab, trembling takes hold of them;
 all the inhabitants of Canaan are melted away.
¹⁶Fear and dread fall upon them;
 by the greatness of Your arm
 they are as still as a stone, until Your people pass over, O LORD , until the people whom You have purchased pass over.

¹⁷You shall bring them in, and plant them on the mountain of Your inheritance, in the place, O LORD , which You have made for Your dwelling, in the sanctuary, O LORD , which Your hands have established.

¹⁸The LORD will reign forever and ever."

¹⁹For the horses of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought back the waters of the sea upon them, but the children of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea.

The Song of Miriam

²⁰Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand, and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dancing. ²¹Miriam answered them,
 "Sing to the LORD ,
 for He triumphed gloriously!
 The horse and his rider
 He has hurled into the sea."

The Waters of Marah and Elim

²²Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea, and they went out into the Wilderness of Shur, and they went three days in the wilderness and found no water.
²³When they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore, the name of it was called Marah. ²⁴So the people murmured against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?" ²⁵And he cried to the LORD , and the LORD showed him a tree. When he had thrown it into the waters, the waters were made sweet.

There He made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there He tested them. ²⁶He said, "If you diligently listen to the voice of the LORD your God, and do what is right in His sight, and give ear to His commandments, and keep all His statutes, I will not afflict you with any of the diseases with which I have afflicted the Egyptians. For I am the LORD who heals you."

²⁷Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve wells of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there by the waters.

Bread and Quail

¹⁶ Then they set out from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt. ²The whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. ³Now the children of Israel said to them, "Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the pots of meat, when we ate bread to the full, for you have brought us forth into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger."

⁴ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Indeed, I will rain bread from heaven for you. And the people shall go out and gather a certain amount every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in My law or not."

⁶ So Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, "At evening, you shall know that the LORD has brought you out from the land of Egypt. ⁷ And in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because He hears your murmurings against the LORD. And what are we that you murmur against us?" ⁸ Then Moses said, "This will happen when the LORD gives you meat to eat in the evening and bread in the morning to satisfy, for the LORD hears your murmurings which you murmur against Him. And what are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD."

¹¹ Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ¹² "I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, ' In the evening you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. And you shall know that I am the LORD your God.'"

¹³ So in the evening the quail came up and covered the camp, and in the morning a layer of dew was surrounding the camp. ¹⁴ When the layer of dew evaporated, on the surface of the wilderness there lay a small flaky thing, as fine as the frost on the ground. ¹⁵ When the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, "What is it?" For they did not know what it was.

And Moses said to them, "This is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat. ¹⁶ This is what the LORD has commanded, 'Every man is to gather of it according to what he will eat, an omer [†] for every man, according to the number of your people. Every man should take for them for whoever lives in his tent.'"

¹⁷ The children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less. ¹⁸ When they measured it with an omer, he that gathered much had nothing left over, and he that gathered little had no lack. They gathered every man according what he could eat.

¹⁹ Moses said to them, "Let no man leave any of it until the morning."

²¹ So they gathered it every morning, every man according to what he could eat. And when the sun got hot, it melted. ²² Now on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers ^{††} per man, and then all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses. ²³ He said to them, "This is what the LORD has said, 'Tomorrow is the Sabbath, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake that which you will bake today, and boil that you will boil, and all that which remains over lay up for yourselves to be kept until the morning.'"

²⁴ So they laid it up until the morning, just as Moses commanded, and it did not stink, nor was there any worm in it. ²⁵ Moses said, "Eat it today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD. Today you will not find it in the field. ²⁶ Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will be none."

²⁷ It happened that some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather, but they found nothing. ²⁸ Then the LORD said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to keep My commandments and My instructions? ²⁹ See, the LORD has given you the Sabbath; therefore He gives you bread for two days on the sixth day. Every man remain in his place. Let no man go out of his place on the seventh day." ³⁰ So the people rested on the seventh day.

³¹ The house of Israel named it manna, and it was like coriander seed and was white, and its taste was like wafers made with honey. ³² Then Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded, 'Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations to come, so that they may see the bread that I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.'"

³³ Moses said to Aaron, "Take a pot and put an omer full of manna in it, and place it before the LORD, to be kept for generations to come."

³⁴ As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron placed it before the testimony, to be kept. ³⁵ The children of Israel ate manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate the manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

³⁶ Now an omer is one-tenth of an ephah.

Water From the Rock

17 All the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the Wilderness of Sin, from place to place, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. ² Therefore the people contended with Moses and said, "Give us water so that we may drink."

And Moses said to them, "Why do you contend with me? Why do you test the LORD?"

^{††} Likely about 6 pounds, or 2.8 kilograms.

³ But the people thirsted there for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and said, "Why is it that you have brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?"

⁴ Then Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, "What shall I do to this people? They are almost ready to stone me."

⁵ The LORD said to Moses, "Pass over before the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel. And take in your hand your rod with which you struck the Nile, and go. ⁶ Indeed, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb, and you shall strike the rock, and there water shall come out of it, so that the people may drink." Then Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. ⁷ He called the name of the place Mas-sah, and Meribah, because of the contending of the children of Israel, and because they tested the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD among us, or not?"

The Amalekites Defeated

⁸ Then Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim. ⁹ So Moses said to Joshua, "Choose men for us and go out, fight against Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in my hand."

¹⁰ So Joshua did as Moses had said to him and fought against Amalek. And Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. ¹¹ Now when Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed, but when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. ¹² But Moses' hands became heavy. So they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat on it. And Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side. And his hands were steady until the going down of the sun. ¹³ So Joshua laid low Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

¹⁴ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Write this as a memorial in a book and rehearse it to Joshua, for I will utterly wipe out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven."

¹⁵ Then Moses built an altar and called the name of it, The LORD Is My Banner; ¹⁶ for he said, "For the LORD has sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation."

Jethro Counsels Moses

18 Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel His people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

² Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back, ³ and her two sons, one of whom was named Gershom; for he said, "I have been a sojourner in a foreign land." ⁴ And the name of the other was Eliezer, for he said, "The God of my father was my help, and He delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh."

⁵ Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses in the wilderness, where he camped at the mountain of God. ⁶ And he said to Moses, "I, your father-in-law, Jethro, am coming to you, and your wife, and her two sons with her."

⁷ Then Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed down and kissed him; and they asked each other of the other's welfare, and then they went into the tent. ⁸ Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the hardships that had come on them along the way, and how the LORD delivered them.

⁹ Jethro rejoiced because of all the goodness which the LORD had done for Israel, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians. ¹⁰ Jethro said, "The LORD be blessed, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. ¹¹ Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods, for in the matter in which they treated the people insolently, He was above them." ¹² Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God, and Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

¹³ On the next day, Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from the morning until the evening. ¹⁴ When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said, "What is this thing that you are doing for the people? Why are you sitting by yourself while all the people stand around you from morning until evening?"

¹⁵ Then Moses said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to inquire of God. ¹⁶ When they have a dispute, it comes to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor, and I make known the statutes of God and His laws."

¹⁷ Moses' father-in-law said to him, "What you are doing is not good. ¹⁸ You will surely wear yourself out, both you, and these people who are with you, for this thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to do it by yourself. ¹⁹ Now listen to me, I will advise you, and may God be with you: You be a representative for the people to God so that you may bring their disputes to God. ²⁰ And you shall teach them the statutes and laws and shall show them the way in which they must walk and the work that they must do. ²¹ Moreover, you shall choose out of all the people capable men who fear God, men of truth, hating dishonest gain, and place these men over them, to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. ²² Let them judge the people at all times, and let it be that every difficult matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they shall judge, so that it will be easier for you, and they will bear the burden with you. ²³ If you shall do this thing and God commands you so, then you will be able to endure, and all these people also will go to their place in peace."

²⁴ So Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything that he had said. ²⁵ Moses chose capable men out of all Israel and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. ²⁶ They judged the people at all times. They brought the difficult cases to Moses, but they judged every small matter themselves.

²⁷ Moses sent out his father-in-law, and he went his way to his own land.

Israel at Mount Sinai

19 In the third month after the children of Israel had gone forth out of the land of Egypt, on the same day they came into the Wilderness of Sinai.

² When they set out from Rephidim, they came to the Wilderness of Sinai and camped in the wilderness. Israel camped there before the mountain.

³ Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, "Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob and tell the children of Israel: ⁴ You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I lifted you up on eagles' wings, and brought you to Myself.

⁵ Now therefore, if you will faithfully obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be My special possession out of all the nations, for all the earth is Mine.

⁶ And you will be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel."

⁷ So Moses came and called for the elders of the people and laid before them all these words which the LORD commanded him. ⁸ Then all the people answered together and said, "All that the LORD has spoken we will do." And Moses brought back the words of the people to the LORD.

⁹ The LORD said to Moses, "Indeed, I am going to come to you in a thick cloud, so that the people may hear when I speak with you and always believe in you." Then Moses told the words of the people to the LORD.

¹⁰ The LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and have them wash their clothes, ¹¹ and be ready for the third day, for on the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people on Mount Sinai. ¹² You shall set boundaries for the people all around, saying, 'Take heed to yourselves so that you not go up onto the mountain or touch its border. Whoever touches the mountain will surely be put to death. ¹³ No hand will touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through, whether it be beast or man. He shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds a long blast, they shall come up to the mountain."

¹⁴ So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes. ¹⁵ He said to the people, "Be ready for the third day. Do not go near your wives."

¹⁶ So on the third day, in the morning, there was thunder and lightning, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and the sound of an exceedingly loud trumpet.

All the people who were in the camp trembled. ¹⁷ Then Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain. ¹⁸ Now Mount Sinai was completely covered in smoke because the LORD had descended upon it in fire, and the smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain shook violently. ¹⁹ When the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him with a voice. †

²⁰ The LORD came down on Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up. ²¹ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go down, warn the people, lest they force their way to the LORD to look, and many of them perish. ²² Let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break through against them."

²³ Moses said to the LORD, "The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for You warned us, saying, 'Set boundaries around the mountain, and sanctify it.'"

²⁴ Then the LORD said to him, "Go, get down, and come up, you and Aaron with you, but do not let the priests and the people force their way through to come up to the LORD, lest He break through against them."

²⁵ So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

The Ten Commandments

Dt 5:6-21

20 Now God spoke all these words, saying: ² I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

³ You shall have no other gods before Me.

⁴ You shall not make for yourself any graven idol, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water below the earth. ⁵ You shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation of them who hate Me, ⁶ and showing lovingkindness to thousands of them who love Me and keep My commandments.

⁸ Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy. ⁹ Six days you shall labor and do all your work, ¹⁰ but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, you, or your son, or your daughter, or your male servant, or your female servant, or your livestock, or your sojourner who is within your gates. ¹¹ For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

¹² Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

¹³ You shall not murder.

¹⁴ You shall not commit adultery.

¹⁵ You shall not steal.

¹⁶ You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

¹⁸ All the people witnessed the thunder and the lightning and the sound of the trumpet and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw it, they trembled and stood at a distance. ¹⁹ They said to Moses, "You speak to us, and we will listen, but do not let God speak to us, lest we die."

²⁰ Moses said to the people, "Do not fear, for God has come to test you, so that the fear of Him may be before you so that you do not sin."

²¹ The people stood a distance away as Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.

The Law About the Altar

²² Then the LORD said to Moses: Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, "You yourselves have seen that I have spoken to you from heaven. ²³ You shall not make gods of silver alongside Me or make gods of gold for yourselves.

²⁴ "You shall make an altar of earth for Me and on it you shall sacrifice your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep, and your oxen. In every place where I cause My name to be honored, I will come to you and bless you. ²⁵ If you will make Me an altar of stone, you shall not build it of cut stones, for if you use your tool on it, you will have polluted it. ²⁶ And you shall not go up by steps to My altar, so that your nakedness will not be exposed on it."

The Law About Servants

Dt 15:12-18; Lev 25:39-55

21 Now these are the judgments which you will set before them.

² If you buy a Hebrew servant, he will serve for six years, but in the seventh he shall go out free without paying anything. ³ If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself. If he is married, then his wife will go out with him. ⁴ If his master gives him a wife, and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall belong to her master, and he will go out by himself.

⁶ then his master will bring him to the judges, then he shall also bring him to the door or to the doorpost, and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl, and he shall serve him forever.

⁷ If a man sells his daughter to be a female servant, she shall not go out as the male servants do. ⁸ If she does not please her master, who has betrothed her to himself, then he shall let her be redeemed. He has no authority to sell her to a foreign nation, because he has dealt deceitfully with her. ⁹ If he has designated her for his son, then he shall deal with her according to the customary rights of daughters. ¹⁰ If he marries another wife, then he must not diminish the first one's food, her clothing, or her marital rights. ¹¹ If he does not provide these three for her, then she shall go out free, without paying money.

The Law About Violence

¹² He that strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death. ¹³ However, if it was not premeditated, but God let him fall into his hand, then I will appoint you a place where he may flee. ¹⁴ But if a man willfully comes upon his neighbor in order to kill him cunningly, then you must take him from My altar, that he may die.

¹⁵ He who strikes his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

¹⁶ He who kidnaps a man and sells him, or if he is found in his possession, shall surely be put to death.

¹⁷ He who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death.

¹⁸ If men fight and one strikes the other with a stone or with his fist, and he does not die, but must remain in bed, ¹⁹ and then if he gets up and walks around on his staff, then he who struck him shall go unpunished. Only he must pay for his loss of time and shall see to it that he is thoroughly healed.

²⁰ If a man strikes his male servant or his female servant with a rod so that he or she dies at his hand, then he shall surely be punished. ²¹ Nevertheless, if he survives for a day or two, then he shall not be punished, for it is his money.

²² If men fight and hurt a pregnant woman so that her child is born prematurely, [†] yet there is no serious injury, then he shall be surely punished in accordance with what the woman's husband demands of him, and he shall pay as the judges determine. ²³ But if there is any serious injury, then you shall give life for life, ²⁴ eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, ²⁵ burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise.

²⁶ If a man strikes the eye of his male servant or the eye of his female servant so that it is destroyed, then he must let him go free on account of his eye. ²⁷ If he knocks out his male servant's tooth or his female servant's tooth, then he shall let him or her go free on account of the tooth.

Laws About Property

²⁸ If an ox gores a man or a woman to death, then the ox must surely be stoned and its flesh must not be eaten, but the owner of the ox will be acquitted. ²⁹ But if the ox has had the habit of goring, and the owner has been made aware of it, and he has not kept it in, and it has killed a man or a woman, then the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death. ³⁰ If a ransom is set for him, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatever is demanded of him.

³¹ Whether it gored a son or gored a daughter, it will be done to him according to this rule. ³² If the ox gores a male servant or a female servant, then its owner shall give thirty shekels † of silver to their master, and the ox must be stoned.

³³ If a man opens a pit or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls into it, ³⁴ the owner of the pit must make restitution. He must give money to their owner, and the dead animal will be his.

³⁵ If one man's ox hurts another's so that it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide its proceeds and divide the dead ox also. ³⁶ Or if it be known that the ox has had the habit of goring and its owner has not kept it in, then he shall surely pay ox for ox and the dead animal will become his own.

Laws About Restitution

22 If a man steals an ox or a sheep and kills it or sells it, then he shall repay five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

² If a thief is caught breaking in and is struck so that he dies, then there will be no blood guilt for him. ³ If the sun has risen on him, then there is blood guilt for him.

He must make full restitution. If he has nothing, then he will be sold for his theft.

⁴ If the stolen item is in fact found alive in his possession, whether it be an ox, or donkey, or sheep, then he shall repay double.

⁶ If fire breaks out and catches in thorn bushes, so that stacked grain or the standing grain or the field are consumed, then he who started the fire must surely make restitution.

⁷ If a man gives his neighbor money or items to be kept for him, and it is stolen from the man's house, if the thief is caught, he must repay double. ⁸ If the thief is not caught, then the owner of the house will be brought before the judges to determine if he has laid his hand on his neighbor's goods. ⁹ For any kind of trespass, whether it be for an ox, for a donkey, for a sheep, for clothing, or for any type of lost thing, where another says it is his, the case of both parties shall come before the judges. And whoever the judges find guilty will pay double to his neighbor.

¹⁰ If a man gives his neighbor a donkey, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast to keep for him, and it dies, or is injured, or is driven away while no one sees it, ¹¹ then there will be an oath before the LORD between both of them that he has not laid his hand upon his neighbor's property. And its owner must accept this, and he will not have to make restitution. ¹² However, if it was stolen from him, he shall make restitution to its owner. ¹³ If it is torn in pieces, then let him bring it as evidence, and he will not have to repay for that which was torn.

¹⁴ If a man borrows anything from his neighbor, and it is hurt or dies when the owner was not with it, then he shall surely make restitution. ¹⁵ But if the owner was with it, he shall not make restitution. If it was a hired thing, it came with his hire.

Moral and Ceremonial Laws

¹⁶ If a man seduces a virgin who is not engaged and has relations with her, he must surely endow her to be his wife. ¹⁷ If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he must pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

¹⁸ You must not allow a sorceress to live.

¹⁹ Whoever has relations with a beast must surely be put to death.

²⁰ He who sacrifices to any god other than the LORD alone shall be utterly destroyed.

²² You shall not afflict any widow or orphan. ²³ If you afflict them in any way and they cry at all to Me, I will surely hear their cry. ²⁴ And My anger will burn, and I will kill you with the sword, and your wives will become widows, and your children fatherless.

²⁵ If you lend money to any of My people who is poor among you, do not be a creditor to him, and do not charge him interest. ²⁶ If you take your neighbor's garment as a pledge, you shall return it to him before the sun goes down, ²⁷ for that is his only covering; it is his garment for his body. In what else will he sleep? And when he cries out to Me, I will hear, for I am gracious.

²⁸ You shall not curse God or curse the ruler of your people.

²⁹ You must not delay to offer the first of your harvest and of your vats.

You must give to Me the firstborn of your sons.

³⁰ Likewise you must do the same with your oxen and with your sheep. Seven days it shall remain with its mother, but on the eighth day you must give it to Me.

³¹ You will be holy men to Me; therefore you must not eat any flesh that is torn by beasts in the field. You must throw it to the dogs.

Laws of Justice and Mercy

23 You must not give a false report. Do not join your hand with the wicked to be a malicious witness.

† About 12 ounces, or 345 grams.

² You must not follow the masses to do evil, and do not testify in a dispute that agrees with the crowd to pervert justice. ³ You must not show partiality to a poor man in his dispute.

⁴ If you meet your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, you shall surely return it to him. ⁵ If you see the donkey of someone who hates you lying under its burden, you must not ignore it; you must surely help with him.

⁸ You shall not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see and subverts the words of the righteous.

⁹ Also you shall not oppress a foreigner, for you know the life of a foreigner, seeing you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

The Laws of Sabbaths

¹⁰ You shall sow your land for six years and shall gather in its produce, ¹¹ but in the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor of your people may eat, and what they leave the beasts of the field may eat. You shall do likewise with your vineyard and with your olive grove.

¹² For six days you are to do your work, but on the seventh day you must cease, so that your ox and your donkey may rest, and the son of your female servant and the foreigner may refresh themselves.

¹³ In all things that I have said to you, watch yourselves, and do not mention the name of other gods, nor let them be heard from your mouth.

The Three Annual Feasts

¹⁴ Three times in the year you must celebrate a feast to Me.

¹⁵ You shall observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, in the appointed time of the month Aviv, for in it you came out from Egypt.

No one shall appear before Me empty-handed.

¹⁶ You shall observe the Feast of Harvest, the first fruits of your labors, which you have sown in the field. You shall observe the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you have gathered in the fruit of your labors from the field.

¹⁷ Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD.

¹⁸ You shall not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread, nor shall the fat of My sacrifice remain until the morning.

¹⁹ The first of the first fruits of your land you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God.

You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

The Angel Prepares the Way

²⁰ Indeed, I am going to send an angel before you to guard you along the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared. ²¹ Be on guard before him and obey his voice. Do not provoke him, for he will not pardon your transgressions, for My name is in him. ²² But if you diligently obey his voice and do all that I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries. ²³ For My angel will go before you and bring you to the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I will completely destroy them. ²⁴ You must not bow down to their gods, or serve them, or do according to their practices, but you shall utterly overthrow them and break down their images in pieces. ²⁵ You shall serve the LORD your God, and He shall bless your bread and your water, and I will remove sickness from your midst. ²⁶ No one shall be miscarrying or be barren in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days.

²⁷ I will send My fear before you, and I will throw into panic all the people to whom you shall come. I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. ²⁸ I will send hornets before you which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite from before you. ²⁹ I will not drive them out before you in one year, lest the land become desolate and the beasts of the field multiply against you. ³⁰ Little by little I will drive them out before you, until you become fruitful and inherit the land.

³¹ I will set your boundaries from the Red Sea to the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the River; † for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you will drive them out before you. ³² You must not make a covenant with them or with their gods. ³³ They shall not live in your land, lest they cause you to sin against Me, for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.

The Covenant Confirmed

24 Then He said to Moses, "Come up to the LORD, you, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, and you shall worship from a distance. ² Moses alone shall come near the LORD, but they shall not come near, nor may the people go up with him."

³ Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD and all the ordinances. Then all the people answered with one voice and said, "All the words which the LORD has said we will do." ⁴ Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain with twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. ⁵ He sent young Israelite men who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of young bulls to the LORD.

⁶ Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. ⁷ He took the Book of the Covenant and read in the hearing of the people, and they said, "All that the LORD has said we will do, and we will be obedient."

⁸ So Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, "This is the blood of the covenant, which the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words."

Moses on Mount Sinai

⁹ Then Moses went up with Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel, ¹⁰ and they saw the God of Israel, and under His feet there was something like a paved work of sapphire stone as clear as the sky itself. ¹¹ He did not lay His hand upon the nobles of the children of Israel. Also they saw God, and they ate and they drank.

¹² The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to Me to the mountain and stay there, and I will give you the stone tablets with law and the commandments which I have written, so that you may teach them."

¹³ Moses rose up with Joshua his attendant, and Moses went up to the mountain of God. ¹⁴ He said to the elders, "Wait for us in this place until we return to you. Aaron and Hur are with you. Whoever has any matters of dispute let him come to them."

¹⁵ Moses went up to the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. ¹⁶ The glory of the LORD rested on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days. And on the seventh day He called to Moses from the midst of the cloud. ¹⁷ Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain to the eyes of the children of Israel.

¹⁸ Moses went into the midst of the cloud and went up to the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

Offerings for the Tabernacle

Ex 35:4–9

25 The LORD said to Moses: ² Tell the children of Israel to bring Me an offering. From every man who gives willingly with his heart you shall receive My offering. ³ This is the offering which you shall take from them: gold, silver, and bronze, ⁴ blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair, ⁵ rams' skins dyed red, porpoise skins, acacia wood, ⁶ oil for the light, spices for anointing oil and for fragrant incense, ⁷ onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate.

⁸ Let them make Me a sanctuary that I may dwell among them. ⁹ According to all that I show you—the pattern of the tabernacle and the pattern of all its furniture—you shall make it just so.

Ex 37:1–9

¹⁰ They shall make an ark of acacia wood two and a half cubits long, and one and a half cubits wide, and one and a half cubits high. ¹¹ You shall overlay it with pure gold, inside and out shall you overlay it, and you shall make a gold border around it. ¹² You shall cast four gold rings for it and put them on the four feet with two rings on the one side of it and two rings on the other side of it. ¹³ You shall make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. ¹⁴ You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark in order to carry the ark with them. ¹⁵ The poles must remain in the rings of the ark. They must not be removed from it. ¹⁶ You shall put into the ark the testimony which I shall give you.

¹⁸ You shall make two cherubim of gold, make them of hammered work at the two ends of the mercy seat.

¹⁹ Make one cherub on the one end and the other cherub on the other end. From the mercy seat you shall make the cherubim on its two ends. ²⁰ The cherubim shall stretch forth their wings upward, covering the mercy seat with their wings and facing one another. The faces of the cherubim are to face toward the mercy seat. ²¹ You shall put the mercy seat above upon the ark, and in the ark you shall put the testimony that I will give you. ²² I will meet with you there, and I will meet with you from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are upon the ark of the testimony. I will speak with you all that I will command you for the children of Israel.

The Table for the Showbread

²³ You shall also make a table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide, and a half cubit high. ²⁴ You shall overlay it with pure gold and make a gold border around it. ²⁵ You shall make a border around it of a handbreadth, and you shall make a gold molding for the frame all around. ²⁶ You shall make four gold rings for it and put the rings on the four corners that are on its four feet. ²⁷ The rings shall be close to the frame to provide places for the poles to carry the table. ²⁸ You shall make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, so that the table may be carried with them. ²⁹ You shall make the dishes, its spoons, its pitchers, and its bowls with which to pour drink offerings. You shall make them of pure gold. ³⁰ You shall set the showbread on the table before Me always.

† About 33/4 feet long and 21/4 feet wide and high, or 1.1 meters long and 68 centimeters wide and high; similarly in v. 17. †† About 3 feet long, 11/2 feet wide, and 21/4 feet high, or 90 centimeters long, 45 centimeters wide, and 68 centimeters high.

The Gold Lampstand

³¹ You shall make a lampstand of pure gold. The lampstand and its base and its shaft are to be made of hammered metal. Its cups, its buds, and its flowers shall be of one piece. ³² Six branches shall go out from its sides, three branches of the lampstand from its one side and three branches of the lampstand from its other side. ³³ Three cups shall be made shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms on one branch, and three cups made like almond flowers in the other branch, with buds and blossoms, and the same for the six branches that come out of the lampstand. ³⁴ On the lampstand shall be four cups shaped like almond flowers, with their buds and their blossoms. ³⁵ There shall be a bud under two branches of the same, and a bud under the next two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the lampstand. ³⁶ Their buds and their branches shall be of the same piece, all of it shall be one hammered work of pure gold.

³⁷ You shall make its seven lamps, and they shall light its lamps so that they may give light to the area in front of it. ³⁸ Its snuffers and their snuff dishes shall be of pure gold. ³⁹ It shall be made from a talent [†] of pure gold along with all these utensils. ⁴⁰ See that you make them according to their pattern which was shown to you on the mountain.

The Tabernacle

Ex 36:8-38

26 Moreover you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twisted linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet. Make them with cherubim, the work of a skilled workman. ² The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits. ^{††} All of the curtains shall have the same measurements. ³ Five curtains shall be joined together, one to another. And the other five curtains are to be joined, one to another. ⁴ You shall make loops of blue on the edge of the end curtain in one set, and likewise you shall make loops in the outermost edge of the end curtain in the second set. ⁵ You shall make fifty loops in the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that is in the second set. The loops are to be opposite to one another. ⁶ You shall make fifty clasps of gold and join the curtains together with the clasps so that the tabernacle shall be one unit.

⁷ You shall make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle. You shall make eleven curtains. ⁸ The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits, [‡] and the eleven curtains shall all have the same measure. ⁹ You shall join five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves. You shall double over the sixth curtain at the front of the tabernacle. ¹⁰ You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the end curtain in one set and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that joins the second set. ¹¹ You shall make fifty bronze clasps, and put the clasps into the loops, and join the tent together so that it may be one unit. ¹² The part that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle. ¹³ A cubit ^{‡‡} on the one side and a cubit on the other side of that which remains in the length of the curtains of the tent shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side to cover it. ¹⁴ You shall make a covering for the tent out of rams' skins dyed red and a covering above of porpoise skins.

[†] About 75 pounds, or 34 kilograms. ^{††} About 42 feet long and 6 feet wide, or 13 meters long and 1.8 meters wide. [‡] About 45 feet long and 6 feet wide, or 13.5 meters long and 1.8 meters wide.

¹⁵ You shall make boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing upright. ¹⁶ Ten cubits ^{‡‡} shall be the length of each board, and a cubit and a half shall be the width of each board. ¹⁷ There shall be two tenons for each board, fitted to one another. You shall make all the boards of the tabernacle in this way. ¹⁸ You shall make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side. ¹⁹ You shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards, two sockets under one board for its two tenons and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. ²⁰ For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, there shall be twenty boards, ²¹ and their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. ²² For the back of the tabernacle, to the west, you shall make six boards. ²³ You shall make two boards for the corners of the tabernacle at the back.

²⁹ You shall overlay the boards with gold and make their rings of gold to provide places for the bars, and you shall overlay the bars with gold.

³⁰ You shall set up the tabernacle according to the plan which you have been shown on the mountain.

^{‡‡} About 18 inches, or 45 centimeters. ^{‡‡‡} About 15 feet long and 21/4 feet wide, or 4.5 meters long and 68 centimeters wide.

³³ You shall hang up the veil under the clasps, so that you may bring in the ark of the testimony within the veil; and the veil shall serve for you as a partition between the holy place and the Most Holy. ³⁴ You shall put the mercy seat on the ark of the testimony in the Most Holy. ³⁵ You shall set the table outside the veil, and the lampstand opposite the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south, and you shall put the table on the north side.

³⁶ You shall make a screen for the doorway of the tent of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer. ³⁷ You shall make five pillars of acacia wood for the screen and overlay them with gold, with their hooks also made of gold, and you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

The Altar of Burnt Offering

Ex 38:1-7

27 You shall make an altar of acacia wood, five cubits [†] long and five cubits wide. The altar shall be square, and its height shall be three cubits. ^{††} You shall make its horns on its four corners. Its horns shall be part of it, and you shall overlay it with bronze. ³ You shall make its pots for its ashes, and its shovels, and its basins, and its meat hooks, and its fire pans. You shall make all of its vessels out of bronze. ⁴ You shall make a grating for it, a network of bronze, and on the net you shall make four bronze rings at its four corners. ⁵ You shall put it under the ledge of the altar beneath, so that the net will reach halfway up the altar. ⁶ You shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze. ⁷ The poles shall be put into the rings, so that the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar when carrying it. ⁸ You shall make it hollow with boards. Just as it was shown you on the mountain, so shall they make it.

The Court of the Tabernacle

⁹ You shall make the court of the tabernacle. On the south side there shall be curtains for the court of fine twined linen one hundred cubits long [‡] for one side; ¹⁰ and it shall have twenty pillars with twenty bronze sockets. The hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver. ¹¹ Likewise for the north side in length there shall be curtains one hundred cubits long, and its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver.

¹² For the width of the court on the west side shall be curtains of fifty cubits ^{‡†} with their ten pillars and their ten sockets. ¹³ The width of the court on the east side shall be fifty cubits. ¹⁴ The curtains on one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits [‡] with their three pillars and their three sockets. ¹⁵ On the other side shall be curtains fifteen cubits with their three pillars and their three sockets.

[†] About 71/2 feet, or 2.3 meters long and wide. ^{††} About 41/2 feet, or 1.4 meters. [‡] About 150 feet, or 45 meters; and in v. 11. ^{‡†} About 75 feet, or 23 meters; and in v. 13. ^{‡‡} About 23 feet, or 6.8 meters; and in v. 15.

¹⁶ For the gate of the court there shall be a curtain of twenty cubits, ^{‡‡‡} of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of an embroiderer, with their four pillars and their four sockets. ¹⁷ All the pillars around about the court shall be furnished with silver bands. Their hooks shall be of silver, and their sockets of bronze. ¹⁸ The length of the court shall be one hundred cubits, and the width fifty ^{‡‡‡} throughout, and the height five cubits [§] of fine twisted linen, and their sockets of bronze. ¹⁹ All the utensils of the tabernacle used in all its service, and all its tent pegs, and all the tent pegs of the court shall be of bronze.

Lev 24:1-3

²⁰ You shall command the children of Israel that they bring you pure oil of olive pressed for the light, to cause the lamp to burn continually. ²¹ In the tent of meeting, outside the veil which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall arrange it from evening to morning before the LORD. It shall be a perpetual statute for the children of Israel for generations to come.

The Priestly Garments

28 And bring near to yourself Aaron, your brother, and his sons with him from among the children of Israel, so that they may minister to Me as priests—Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. ² You shall make holy garments for your brother Aaron, for glory and for beauty. ³ You shall speak to all who are specially skilled, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister to Me as a priest. ⁴ These are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and an embroidered coat, a turban, and a sash. They shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother and his sons, that he may minister to Me as priest. ⁵ They shall take the gold, the blue, the purple, and the scarlet, and fine linen.

The Ephod

Ex 39:2-7

⁶ They shall make the ephod of gold, of blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of a skilled workman. ⁷ It shall have the two shoulder pieces attached to its two corners, so it shall be joined together. ⁸ The skillfully woven waistband of the ephod, which is on it, shall be of the same workmanship, of the same material: of gold, of blue and purple, and scarlet, and fine twisted linen.

^{‡‡†} About 30 feet, or 9 meters. ^{‡‡‡} About 150 feet long and 75 feet wide, or 45 meters long and 23 meters wide. [§] About 71/2 feet, or 2.3 meters.

⁹ You shall take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the children of Israel, ¹⁰ six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.

¹¹ With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, you shall engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel. You shall set them in filigree of gold. ¹² You shall put the two stones on the shoulders of the ephod as stones of memorial for the children of Israel, and Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders as a memorial. ¹³ You shall make filigree settings of gold, ¹⁴ and two chains of pure gold. You shall make them of twisted cord and fasten the braided chains to the filigree settings.

The Breastplate

¹⁵ You shall make the breastplate of judgment, the work of a skillful workman. You shall make it in the same manner as the ephod. Of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twisted linen you shall make it. ¹⁶ It is to be square when doubled: a span [†] in length and a span in width. ¹⁷ You shall set in it four rows of stones. The first row shall be a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle; ¹⁸ the second row an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond; ¹⁹ the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; ²⁰ and the fourth row a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper. They shall be set in gold filigree. ²¹ The stones shall be according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, each like the engravings of a signet, every one according to his name for the twelve tribes.

²² You shall make for the breastplate braided chains of pure gold. ²³ You shall make on the breastplate two rings of gold and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. ²⁴ You shall put the two braided chains of gold on the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate. ²⁵ You shall fasten the other two ends of the two braided chains in the two filigree settings and put them on the front of the shoulder pieces of the ephod. ²⁶ You shall make two rings of gold and shall put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it which is toward the inner side of the ephod. ²⁷ You shall make two other rings of gold and shall put them on the two shoulder pieces of the ephod underneath toward the front, close to the place where it is joined above the skillfully woven waistband of the ephod. ²⁸ They shall bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it may be above the skillfully woven waistband of the ephod, and so that the breastplate will not come loose from the ephod.

²⁹ Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel on the breastplate of judgment over his heart when he goes into the holy place, as a memorial before the LORD continually. ³⁰ You shall put the Urim and the Thummim in the breastplate of judgment, and they shall be over Aaron's heart when he goes in before the LORD. And Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel over his heart before the LORD continually.

Other Priestly Garments

Ex 39:22–31

³¹ You shall make the robe of the ephod completely blue. ³² There shall be a hole at the top of it, in the middle of it. Around its opening it shall have a binding of woven work, like the opening of a coat of mail, so that it will not be torn. ³³ You shall make on its hem pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, all around its hem, and bells of gold between them all around: ³⁴ a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, all around on the hem of the robe. ³⁵ It shall be on Aaron when he ministers. And its sound shall be heard when he goes into the holy place before the LORD, and when he comes out, so that he does not die.

³⁶ You shall make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

³⁷ You shall put it on a blue cord, so that it may be upon the turban. It is to be on the front of the turban. ³⁸ It shall be on Aaron's forehead, so that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things which the children of Israel shall consecrate in regard to all their holy gifts. And it shall always be on his forehead, so that they may be accepted before the LORD.

³⁹ You shall embroider the tunic of fine linen, and you shall make the turban of fine linen, and you shall make the sash, the work of an embroiderer. ⁴⁰ For Aaron's sons you shall make tunics. You shall make sashes for them, and you shall make caps for them, for glory and for beauty. ⁴¹ You shall put them on Aaron your brother, and on his sons with him, and shall anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister to Me as priests.

⁴² You shall make linen undergarments for them to cover their naked skin. They shall reach from the waist to the thighs. ⁴³ They shall be on Aaron and on his sons when they come into the tent of meeting or when they come near to the altar to minister in the holy place, so that they may not bear iniquity and die.

It shall be a perpetual statute to him and his descendants after him.

Consecration of the Priests

Lev 8:1–36

29 Now this is the thing that you shall do to them to consecrate them, to minister as priests to Me: Take one young bull and two rams without blemish, ² and unleavened bread, and unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil—you shall make them of wheat flour. ³ You shall put them into one basket and bring them in the basket with the bull and the two rams. ⁴ Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the tent of meeting and wash them with water. ⁵ You shall take the garments and clothe Aaron with the tunic and the robe of the ephod and the ephod and the breastplate, and gird him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod. ⁶ And you shall put the turban on his head and put the holy crown on the turban. ⁷ Then shall you take the anointing oil and pour it on his head and anoint him. ⁸ You shall bring his sons and put tunics on them. ⁹ You shall gird them with sashes, Aaron and his sons, and put the headbands on them, and the priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute. Thus you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons.

²² Also you shall take the fat and the rump of the ram, and the fat that covers the entrails and the lobe above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them and the right shoulder (for it is a ram of consecration), ²³ and one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened bread that is before the LORD. ²⁴ And you shall put all of these in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons, and shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. ²⁵ Then you shall take them from their hands and burn them on the altar for a burnt offering, for a soothing aroma before the LORD. It is an offering made by fire to the LORD. ²⁶ You shall take the breast of Aaron's ram of consecration, and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD, and it shall be your portion.

²⁹ The holy garments belonging to Aaron are to belong to his sons after him, so that they may be anointed in them and be consecrated in them. ³⁰ The son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days when he comes into the tent of meeting to minister in the holy place.

³⁵ Thus shall you do to Aaron and his sons according to all that I have commanded you. You shall consecrate them for seven days. ³⁶ Every day you must offer a bull as a sin offering for atonement, and you must cleanse the altar when you make atonement for it. You must anoint it to consecrate it. ³⁷ For seven days you must make atonement for the altar and consecrate it, and then the altar will be most holy, and whatever touches the altar will be holy.

The Daily Offerings

³⁸ Now this is what you are to offer on the altar: two one-year-old lambs every day, continually. ³⁹ The one lamb you must offer in the morning, and the other lamb you must offer at sundown. ⁴⁰ And with the first lamb will be a tenth of an ephah [†] of flour mingled with the fourth part of a hin ^{††} of beaten oil, and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering. ⁴¹ The other lamb you must offer at sundown and must offer with it the same grain offering and the same drink offering as in the morning, for a soothing aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

⁴² This will be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tent of meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak to you there. ⁴³ I will meet there with the children of Israel, and it will be consecrated by My glory.

⁴⁴ I will sanctify the tent of meeting and the altar. I will also sanctify both Aaron and his sons to minister as priests to Me. ⁴⁵ I will dwell among the children of Israel and will be their God. ⁴⁶ Then they will know that I am the LORD their God who brought them out of the land of Egypt, so that I may dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

The Altar of Incense

30 Also, you must make an altar for burning incense. You must make it of acacia wood. ² It must be a cubit in length, and its width a cubit. It will be square. Its height will be two cubits; [†] the horns shall be of one piece with it. ³ You must overlay it with pure gold, its top, its sides all around, and its horns; and you must make a molding of gold all around it. ⁴ You must make two golden rings for it under its molding. You must make them on its two sides, on opposite sides of it, and they will be holders for the poles with which to carry it. ⁵ Then you must make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. ⁶ You must put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, in front of the mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you.

⁷ Aaron must burn sweet incense on it. Every morning, when he trims the lamps, he must burn incense. ⁸ When Aaron lights the lamps at sundown, he must burn incense on it. It is to be a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations. ⁹ You must offer no strange incense on it, nor burnt sacrifice, nor grain offering, and you must not pour out a drink offering on it. ¹⁰ Aaron must make atonement on its horns once a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonement. Once a year he must make atonement on it throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD.

The Atonement Money

¹¹ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹² When you take the census of the children of Israel according to their number, then each man is to pay a ransom for his life to the LORD when you count them, so that there be no plague among them when you number them. ¹³ This is what everyone who is counted must give: half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary ^{††} (a shekel is twenty gerahs). The half shekel will be the offering to the LORD. ¹⁴ Everyone who is counted, from twenty years old and above, must give an offering to the LORD. ¹⁵ The rich must not give more and the poor must not give less than half a shekel when they give the offering to the LORD, to make atonement for your lives. ¹⁶ You must take the atonement money of the children of Israel and give it for the service of the tent of meeting, so that it may be a memorial to the children of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for your lives.

The Bronze Basin

¹⁷ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁸ You must also make a basin of bronze, with its base also of bronze, for washing, and you must put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and you must put water in it. ¹⁹ For Aaron and his sons must wash their hands and their feet from it. ²⁰ When they go into the tent of meeting, or when they come near the altar to minister by burning incense as an offering made by fire to the LORD, they must wash with water so that they will not die. ²¹ So they must wash their hands and their feet, so that they will not die. And it will be a perpetual statute for them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations.

The Anointing Oil

²² Moreover the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²³ Take for yourself choice spices: five hundred shekels [‡] of pure myrrh, half as much sweet-smelling cinnamon (two hundred and fifty shekels ^{††}), two hundred and fifty shekels of sweet-smelling cane, ²⁴ five hundred shekels of cassia, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and a hin ^{‡‡} of olive oil. ²⁵ And you must make with it a holy anointing oil, a perfumed compound, the work of a perfumer. It will be a holy anointing oil. ²⁶ And you must anoint the tent of meeting with it, along with the ark of the testimony, ²⁷ and the table and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense, ²⁸ and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin and its stand. ²⁹ You must consecrate them, so that they may be most holy. Whatever touches them must be holy.

³⁰ You must anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them, so that they may minister as priests to Me. ³¹ You must speak to the children of Israel, saying, "This will be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations. ³² It must not be poured out on anyone's body, nor shall you make any other like it in composition. It is holy, and it will be holy to you. ³³ Whoever makes anything like it or whoever puts any of it on a layman will be cut off from his people."

The Incense

³⁴ Then the LORD said to Moses: Take for yourself sweet spices, stacte and onycha and galbanum, sweet spices with pure frankincense of equal amounts. ³⁵ You shall make of these an incense, a compound expertly blended, mingled with salt, pure and holy. ³⁶ You must

[†] About 11/2 feet long and wide and 3 feet high, or 45 centimeters long and wide and 90 centimeters high. ^{††} About 1/5 ounce, or 5.8 grams; and in v. 15.

[‡] About 121/2 pounds, or 5.8 kilograms; and in v. 24. ^{††} About 61/4 pounds, or 2.9 kilograms. ^{‡‡} Likely about 1 gallon, or 3.8 liters.

beat some of it very fine and put part of it before the testimony in the tent of meeting where I will meet with you. It will be most holy to you. ³⁷ As for the perfume which you will make, you may not make it for yourselves using the same recipe. It must be holy for the LORD to you. ³⁸ Whoever makes anything like it in order to use it as perfume must be cut off from his people.

The Tabernacle Artisans

Ex 35:30-35

31 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² See, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. ³ I have filled him with the Spirit of God in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all manner of craftsmanship ⁴ to devise artistic works for work with gold, with silver, and with bronze, ⁵ and in the cutting of stones for settings, and in carving of wood, to work in all manner of craftsmanship. ⁶ I, indeed, I have given him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamak, of the tribe of Dan, and I have given skill to all who are specially skilled, that they may make everything that I have commanded you: ⁷ the tent of meeting, the ark of the testimony, and the mercy seat that is on it, and all the furniture of the tent, ⁸ the table and its utensils, and the pure lampstand with all its utensils, and the altar of incense, ⁹ the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin and its stand, ¹⁰ the woven garments, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests, ¹¹ the anointing oil and sweet incense for the holy place. They must make them according to all that I have commanded you.

The Sabbath Law

¹² The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹³ Speak also to the children of Israel, saying, "You must surely keep My Sabbaths, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

¹⁴ "You shall keep the Sabbath, for it is holy to you. Everyone who defiles it will surely be put to death. For whoever does any work on it, that person will be cut off from among his people. ¹⁵ Six days may work be done, but on the seventh is the Sabbath of complete rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day will surely be put to death. ¹⁶ Therefore the children of Israel must keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. ¹⁷ It is a sign between Me and the children of Israel forever, for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, but on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed."

¹⁸ When He had made an end of communing with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses the two tablets of testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

The Golden Calf

32 Now when the people saw that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together around Aaron and said to him, "Come, make us gods which will go before us. As for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him."

² Aaron said to them, "Break off the gold earrings that are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me." ³ So all the people broke off the gold earrings that were in their ears and brought them to Aaron. ⁴ He received them from their hand, and fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made it into a molded calf. Then they said, "This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt."

⁵ When Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it. And Aaron made a proclamation and said, "Tomorrow will be a feast to the LORD." ⁶ So they rose up early on the next day, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

⁷ The LORD spoke to Moses, "Go, and get down, for your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. ⁸ They have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them. They have made for themselves a molded calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, 'This is your god, O Israel, which has brought you up from the land of Egypt.'"

⁹ Then the LORD said to Moses, "I have seen this people, and certainly, it is a stiff-necked people. ¹⁰ Now therefore let Me alone, so that My wrath may burn against them and I may destroy them. And I will make of you a great nation."

¹⁵ Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of testimony in his hand. The tablets were written on both their sides. They were written on one side and on the other. ¹⁶ The tablets were God's work, and the writing was God's writing, engraved on the tablets.

¹⁷ When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is a sound of war in the camp."

¹⁸ But he said:

"It is not the sound of those who shout for victory, nor is it the sound of those who cry because of being overcome, but I hear the sound of singing."

¹⁹ As soon as he came near the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing, and Moses' anger burned, so he threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them at the bottom of the mountain. ²⁰ Then he took the calf which they had made and burned it in the fire, ground it to powder, and scattered it on the water, and made the children of Israel drink it.

²¹ Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you, that you have brought so great a sin upon them?"

²² Aaron said, "Do not let the anger of my lord burn. You know that the people are set on evil. ²³ For they said to me, 'Make a god for us which will go before us, for this Moses, the man that brought us up from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' ²⁴ I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold, let them break it off.' So they gave it to me, and then I threw it into the fire, and this calf came out."

²⁵ Now when Moses saw the people were in a frenzy, for Aaron had let them get completely out of control, causing derision from their enemies, ²⁶ then Moses stood in the gate of the camp and said, "Whoever is on the LORD's side, come to me." And all the Levites gathered themselves together around him.

²⁷ He said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Every man fasten his sword on his side, and go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and let every man kill his brother, and every man his friend, and every man his neighbor.'" ²⁸ The Levites did according to the word of Moses, and about three thousand men of the people died that day. ²⁹ For Moses had said, "Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, that He may bestow a blessing on you this day, for every man opposes his son and his brother."

³⁰ On the next day Moses said to the people, "You have committed a great sin, and now I will go up to the LORD. Perhaps I can make atonement for your sin."

³¹ Then Moses returned to the LORD and said, "Oh, this people has committed a great sin and have made a god of gold for themselves. ³² Yet now, if You will, forgive their sin, but if not, I pray, blot me out of Your book which You have written."

³³ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot him out of My book. ³⁴ So go now, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Indeed, My angel will go before you. Nevertheless in the day when I punish, I will indeed punish them for their sin."

³⁵ And the LORD plagued the people because they had made the calf, the one that Aaron made.

The Command to Leave Sinai

33 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Depart, go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought up from the land of Egypt, to the land which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'To your descendants I will give it.' ² I will send an angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. ³ Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey. However, I will not go up in your midst, for you are a stiff-necked people, and I might destroy you on the way."

⁴ When the people heard this disturbing word, they mourned. And no one put on his ornaments. ⁵ For the LORD had said to Moses, "Say to the children of Israel, 'You are a stiff-necked people. If I went up among you for one moment, I might destroy you. Now therefore, take off your ornaments, so that I may know what I will do to you.'" ⁶ The children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by Mount Horeb.

The Tent of Meeting

⁷ Moses took the tent and pitched it outside the camp, a good distance from the camp, and called it the tent of meeting. And anyone who sought the LORD would go out to the tent of meeting which was outside the camp. ⁸ So whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise up and stand, every man at the entrance of his tent, and gaze after Moses until he entered the tent. ⁹ And whenever Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud descended and stood at the entrance of the tent, and the LORD spoke with Moses. ¹⁰ When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people rose up and worshipped, every man at the entrance of his tent. ¹¹ The LORD spoke to Moses face to face, just as a man speaks to his friend. When he returned to the camp, his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, did not depart from the tent.

The Glory of God

¹² Moses said to the LORD, "See, You say to me, 'Bring up this people,' but You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found grace in My sight.' ¹³ Now therefore, I pray You, if I have found favor in Your sight, show me now Your way, that I may know You, and that I may find favor in Your sight. Consider too that this nation is Your people."

¹⁴ And He said, "My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest."

¹⁵ Then he said to Him, "If Your Presence does not go with us, do not bring us up from here. ¹⁶ For how will it be known that I have found favor in Your sight, I and Your people? Is it not by Your going with us, so that we will be distinguished, I and Your people, from all the people who are on the face of the earth?"

¹⁷ The LORD said to Moses, "I will do this thing of which you have spoken, for you have found favor in My sight, and I know you by name."

¹⁸ Then Moses said, "I pray, show me Your glory."

¹⁹ Then He said, "I will make all My goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy." ²⁰ He said, "You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live."

²¹ Then the LORD said, "Indeed, there is a place by Me. You must stand on the rock. ²² While My glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock and will cover you with My hand while I pass by. ²³ Then I will take away My hand, and you will see My back, but My face may not be seen."

The New Stone Tablets

34 Now the LORD said to Moses, "Cut out for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and I will write on these tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. ² Be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to Me on the top of the mountain. ³ No one is to come up with you. Do not let anyone be seen anywhere on the mountain, and the flocks or herds may not graze in front of the mountain."

⁴ So he cut out two tablets of stone like the first, and Moses rose up early in the morning and went up to Mount Sinai, just as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. ⁵ Then the LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. ⁶ The LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, "The LORD, the LORD God, merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in goodness and truth, ⁷ keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of fathers on the children and on the children's children, to the third and the fourth generation."

⁸ Moses made haste and bowed to the ground and worshipped. ⁹ He said, "If now I have found favor in Your sight, O Lord, let my Lord, I pray, go among us, for we are a stiff-necked people. Pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance."

The Covenant Renewed

¹⁰ Then He said: Indeed, I am going to make a covenant before all your people. I will do wonders such as have not been done in all the earth nor in any nation. And all the people among whom you live will see the work of the LORD, for it is a fearful thing that I will do with you. ¹¹ Obey what I command you this day. Indeed, I am going to drive out before you the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. ¹² Watch yourself so that you make no covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it become a snare in your midst.

¹³ But you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and cut down their Asherah poles ¹⁴ (for you shall not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God), ¹⁵ lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they prostitute themselves with their gods, and sacrifice to their gods, and someone invites you to eat of his sacrifice. ¹⁶ And then you take of their daughters for your sons, and their daughters prostitute themselves after their gods. They will make your sons prostitute themselves after their gods.

¹⁷ You shall make no molded gods for yourselves.

¹⁸ You shall keep the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days you are to eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, in the month of Aviv, for in the month of Aviv you came out of Egypt.

¹⁹ Every firstborn of the womb belongs to Me, and every firstborn male among your livestock, whether ox or sheep. ²⁰ But you must redeem with a lamb the firstborn of a donkey, and if you fail to redeem him, then you must break his neck. You must redeem all the firstborn of your sons.

No one may appear before Me empty-handed.

²¹ You shall work six days, but on the seventh day you must rest. Even at the time of plowing and harvest you must rest.

²² You must observe the Feast of Weeks, the first fruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year. ²³ Three times in the year all your males must appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel. ²⁴ For I will drive out the nations before you and enlarge your borders. No man will covet your land when you go up to appear before the LORD your God three times in the year.

²⁵ You must not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leaven, nor is the sacrifice of the Feast of the Passover to be left until the following morning.

²⁶ The first of the first fruits of your land you must bring to the house of the LORD your God.

You must not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

²⁷ Then the LORD said to Moses: Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel. ²⁸ So he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights. He did not eat bread or drink water. And He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the Ten Commandments.

Moses' Radiant Face

²⁹ When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of testimony in the hands of Moses, when he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with Him. ³⁰ So when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, amazingly, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him. ³¹ But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke to them. ³² Afterward all the children of Israel drew near, and he commanded them all that the LORD had spoken to him on Mount Sinai.

³³ When Moses finished speaking with them, he put a veil over his face. ³⁴ But whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with Him, he took the veil off until he came out. Then he came out and spoke to the children of Israel what he had been commanded.

³⁵ The children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone, and then Moses put the veil over his face again until he went in to speak with Him.

Sabbath Regulations

35 Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said to them: These are the things the LORD has commanded you to do. ² Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a holy day, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it must be put to death. ³ You must not kindle fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day.

Offerings for the Tabernacle

⁴ Moses said to all the congregation of the children of Israel: This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying: ⁵ Take from among you an offering to the LORD. Whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it as an offering to the LORD: gold, silver, and bronze, ⁶ and blue, purple, and scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair, ⁷ rams' skins dyed red, and porpoise skins, and acacia wood, ⁸ oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense, ⁹ onyx stones, and gemstones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate.

¹⁰ Every skilled craftsman among you shall come and make all that the LORD has commanded: ¹¹ the tabernacle with its tent and its covering, its hooks and its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; ¹² the ark with its poles, the mercy seat, and the veil that conceals it; ¹³ the table with its poles, and all its utensils, and the showbread; ¹⁴ the lampstand also for the light and its utensils and its lamps, and the oil for the light; ¹⁵ and the incense altar with its poles, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the hanging for the door at the entrance of the tabernacle; ¹⁶ the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles, and all its utensils, the basin and its stand; ¹⁷ the hangings of the court, its pillars and their sockets, and the curtain for the gate of the court; ¹⁸ the pegs of the tabernacle and the pegs of the court and their cords; ¹⁹ the woven garments for serving in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments of his sons, to minister as priests.

²⁰ Then all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. ²¹ Everyone whose heart stirred him and everyone whose spirit was willing came and brought the LORD's offering for the work of the tent of meeting and for all its service and for the holy garments. ²² They came, both men and women, as many as had willing hearts, and brought brooches, earrings, rings and bracelets, all kinds of gold jewelry, and everyone that offered an offering of gold to the LORD. ²³ Everyone who had blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and porpoise skins, brought them. ²⁴ Everyone who was making a contribution of silver and bronze brought the LORD's offering, and everyone who had acacia wood for any work of the service brought it. ²⁵ All the women that were skilled spun with their hands and brought what they had spun, both of blue, purple, and scarlet, and of fine linen. ²⁶ All the women whose hearts stirred them to action and were skilled spun goats' hair. ²⁷ The leaders brought onyx stones and gemstones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate, ²⁸ and spice and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense. ²⁹ The children of Israel brought a willing offering to the LORD, every man and woman whose heart was willing to bring material for all the work which the LORD had commanded through Moses to be made.

Bezalel and Oholiab

³⁰ Moses said to the children of Israel: See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. ³¹ And He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of craftsmanship, ³² to design artistic works, to work in gold, in silver, and in bronze, ³³ and in the cutting of stones for settings and in the carving of wood in order to make every manner of artistic work. ³⁴ He also has put in his heart to teach, both he and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamak, of the tribe of Dan. ³⁵ He has filled them with skill to do all manner of work as craftsmen; as designers; as embroiderers in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen; and as weavers: as craftsmen of every work and artistic designers.

36 So Bezalel and Oholiab, and every skilled person, in whom the LORD has put skill and understanding to know how to do all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, are to do the work according to all that the LORD has commanded.

² Moses called Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person in whom the LORD had put wisdom, everyone whose heart stirred him to come to the work to do it. ³ They received from Moses all the offerings which the children of Israel had brought to do the work of the service of the sanctuary, and they continued to bring to him freewill offerings every morning. ⁴ And all the skilled men who were doing all the work of the sanctuary came from the work they were doing, ⁵ and they said to Moses, "The people are bringing much more than is needed for the service of the work which the LORD commanded us to do."

⁶ So Moses issued a command, and they circulated a proclamation throughout the camp, saying, "Let no man or woman do any more work for the offering of the sanctuary." So the people were restrained from bringing any more. ⁷ For the material they had was sufficient for all the work and more than enough to do it.

Construction of the Tabernacle

⁸ Every skilled man among those who were doing the work made the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twisted linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, with cherubim that were the work of skillful workmen. ⁹ The length of each curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits. [†] All of the curtains were the same size. ¹⁰ He joined the five curtains to one another, and the other five curtains he joined to one to another. ¹¹ He made loops of blue on the edge of the outermost curtain in the first set. He did likewise along the edge of the outermost curtain in the second set. ¹² He made fifty loops in the one curtain and made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which was in the second set. The loops were opposite one another. ¹³ He made fifty gold clasps and joined the curtains to one another with the clasps, so that the tabernacle was a unit.

²⁰ Then he made boards for the tabernacle out of acacia wood, standing upright. ²¹ The length of each board was ten cubits, and the width of each board was one and a half cubits. [‡] Each board had two tenons, equally distant from each other. He did this for all the boards of the tabernacle. ²³ He made boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side. ²⁴ He made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. ²⁵ For the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards, ²⁶ and their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. ²⁷ For the back of the tabernacle westward he made six boards. ²⁸ He made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle at the back. ²⁹ They were doubled beneath and joined together at the top in one ring. He did this with both of them in both the corners. ³⁰ There were eight boards with their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets, two under every board.

[†] About 42 feet long and 6 feet wide, or 13 meters long and 1.8 meters wide. ^{††} About 45 feet long and 6 feet wide, or 14 meters long and 1.8 meters wide. [‡] About 15 feet long and 2 1/4 feet wide, or 4.5 meters long and 68 centimeters wide.

³¹ He made bars of acacia wood, five for the boards of one side of the tabernacle, ³² and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the back to the west. ³³ He made the middle bar to pass through the boards from the one end to the other. ³⁴ He overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

³⁵ He made a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. He made cherubim, the work of a skillful designer. ³⁶ He made four pillars of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold with their hooks of gold, and he cast four sockets of silver for them. ³⁷ He made a hanging for the tabernacle entrance of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twisted linen, the work of an embroiderer. ³⁸ And he made its five pillars with their hooks, and he overlaid their tops and their bands with gold, but their five sockets were of bronze.

37 Now Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood. Its length was two and a half cubits, and its width a cubit and a half, and its height a cubit and a half. ^{†‡} He overlaid it with pure gold, inside and out, and made a gold molding for it all around. ³ He cast four rings of gold for it on its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other side of it. ⁴ He made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. ⁵ He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry the ark.

^{†‡} About 3 3/4 feet long and 2 1/4 feet wide and high, or 1.1 meters long and 68 centimeters wide and high; similarly in v. 6.

Making the Table for the Showbread

Ex 25:23-29

¹⁰ He made the table of acacia wood, two cubits long and a cubit wide and a cubit and a half high. ¹¹ And he overlaid it with pure gold and made a gold molding for it all around. ¹² Also he made a rim for it of a hand-breadth ^{††} all around, and he made a gold molding for the rim all around. ¹³ He cast four rings of gold for it and put the rings on the four corners that were on its four feet. ¹⁴ Close by the rim were the rings, the holders for the poles to carry the table. ¹⁵ He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table. ¹⁶ He made the utensils which were on the table, its dishes and its pans and its bowls and its jars, to be used in pouring out offerings, of pure gold.

¹⁷ Then he made the lampstand of pure gold. He made it of hammered work, its base and its shaft. Its cups, its buds, and its blossoms were of the same piece. ¹⁸ Six branches were extending from its sides, three branches of the lampstand from one side of it, and three branches of the lampstand from the other side of it. ¹⁹ Three cups shaped like almond flowers, a bulb and a flower were on the first branch, and three cups shaped like almond flowers, a bulb and a flower were on the next branch, and the same for the six branches going out of the lampstand. ²⁰ In the lampstand there were four cups made like almond flowers, its bulbs and its flowers. ²¹ And a bulb was under the first two branches from it, and a bulb under the next two branches from it, and a bulb under the third two branches from it, according to the six branches coming out of it. ²² Their bulbs and their branches were of the same piece. All of it was one hammered work of pure gold.

²³ He made its seven lamps with its snuffers and its trays of pure gold. ²⁴ He made it and all of its utensils from a talent [‡] of pure gold.

Making the Altar of Incense

²⁵ He made the incense altar of acacia wood. Its length was a cubit, and the width a cubit, a square, and two cubits high. ^{††} Its horns were of the same piece. ²⁶ He overlaid it with pure gold, its top, its sides all around, and its horns. He also made a gold molding for it all around. ²⁷ He also made two rings of gold for it under its molding, on its two sides, on opposite sides, to be places for the poles to carry it. ²⁸ He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

† About 3 feet long, 11/2 feet wide, and 21/4 feet high, or 90 centimeters long, 45 centimeters wide, and 68 centimeters high.

†† About 3 inches, or 7.5 centimeters. ‡ About 75 pounds, or 34 kilograms. ††† About 11/2 feet long and wide and 3 feet high, or 45 centimeters long and wide and 90 centimeters high.

²⁹ He made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of a perfumer.

Making the Altar of Burnt Offering

Ex 27:1-8

38 He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood. It was five cubits ^{‡‡} long and five cubits wide. It was square, and it was three cubits high. ^{‡‡‡} He made its horns on its four corners. The horns were part of the same piece, and he overlaid it with bronze. ³ He made all the utensils of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basins, the flesh hooks, and the fire pans. He made all its utensils of bronze. ⁴ He made for the altar a bronze grating, a network beneath, under its ledge, reaching halfway up. ⁵ He cast four rings for the four ends of the bronze grating to provide places for the poles. ⁶ He made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze. ⁷ He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar with which to carry it. He made the altar hollow, out of boards.

Making the Bronze Basin

⁸ He made the basin of bronze with its base of bronze from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

Making the Court of the Tabernacle

Ex 27:9-19

⁹ He made the courtyard: On the south side southward the hangings of the courtyard were of fine twisted linen, one hundred cubits; ^{‡‡‡‡} their twenty pillars and their twenty bases were of bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver. ¹¹ For the north side the hangings were one hundred cubits; their twenty pillars and their twenty sockets were of bronze. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver.

¹⁸ The screen for the gate of the courtyard was embroidered of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine

‡‡ About 71/2 feet, or 2.3 meters long and wide. ‡‡† About 41/2 feet, or 1.4 meters. ‡‡‡ About 150 feet, or 45 meters. § About 75 feet, or 23 meters. §† About 22 feet, or 6.8 meters.

twisted linen. Its length was twenty cubits, † and its height was five cubits, †† corresponding to the hangings of the courtyard. ¹⁹ Their four pillars and their four sockets were of bronze. Their hooks and their bands were of silver, and the overlaying of their tops and their bands were of silver. ²⁰ All the tent pegs of the tabernacle and of the courtyard all around were bronze.

The Inventory of the Tabernacle

²¹ This is the inventory of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted according to the commandment of Moses for the service of the Levites by the hand of Ithamar, son of Aaron the priest.

²² Bezalel, the son of Uri the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah, made all that the LORD commanded Moses.

²⁴ All the gold that was used for the work, in all the work of the sanctuary, even the gold of the wave offering, was twenty-nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, ‡ according to the shekel of the sanctuary.

²⁹ The bronze of the wave offering was seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels. †††³⁰ With it he made the sockets for the door of the tent of meeting, and the bronze altar and its bronze grating, and all the utensils of the altar, ³¹ and the sockets of the courtyard all around, and the sockets of the courtyard gate, and all the tent pegs of the tabernacle, and all the tent pegs of the courtyard all around.

Making the Priestly Garments

39 Now from the blue, purple, and scarlet they made woven garments for serving in the holy place and made the holy garments for Aaron, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Making the Ephod

² He made the ephod of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine twisted linen. ³ Then they hammered the gold into thin sheets and cut it into threads to work them into the blue, the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen, with skillful work. ⁴ They made shoulder pieces for it, in order to attach it together. It was joined by the two edges together. ⁵ The skillfully woven waistband of his ephod that was on it was like it, of the same material, of gold, blue, purple, and scarlet, and fine twisted linen, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

⁶ They set the onyx stones enclosed in gold filigree settings; they were engraved like the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the children of Israel. ⁷ And he put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, to be stones for a memorial to the children of Israel, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Making the Breastplate

¹⁵ They made on the breastplate braided chains like cords of pure gold. ¹⁶ They made two gold filigree settings and two gold rings and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate. ¹⁷ They put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate. ¹⁸ The other two ends of the two braided chains they fastened in the two filigree settings and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front of it. ¹⁹ They made two rings of gold and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it which was on the inner side of the ephod. ²⁰ They made two other golden rings and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the front of it, over against where it joined, above the waistband of the ephod. ²¹ They bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue cord, so that it might be above the waistband of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not come loose from the ephod, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

† About 30 feet, or 9 meters. †† About 71/2 feet, or 2.3 meters. ‡ A little over a ton, or 1 metric ton. †† About 33/4 tons, or 3.4 metric tons; and in v. 27. †† About 44 pounds, or 20 kilograms; and in v. 28. ††† About 1/5 ounce, or 5.7 grams. ††† About 21/2 tons, or 2.4 metric tons.

§ About 9 inches, or 23 centimeters.

Making Other Priestly Garments

Ex 28:31–43

²² Then he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue. ²³ There was an opening in the middle of the robe, like the opening of a coat of mail, with a band all around the opening so that it should not be torn. ²⁴ They made on the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, purple, and scarlet, and twisted linen. ²⁵ They made bells of pure gold and put the bells between the pomegranates all around on the hem of the robe. ²⁶ There was a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, all around about the hem of the robe to be used in service, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

³⁰ They made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold and wrote on it an inscription, like the engravings of a signet:

HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

³¹ They attached to it a blue cord, to fasten it to the turban above, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Work Completed

³² Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was finished, and the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses—so they did. ³³ They brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent and all its furnishings: its clasps, its boards, its bars, and its pillars, and its sockets; ³⁴ and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of porpoise skins, and the screening veil; ³⁵ the ark of the testimony and its poles and the mercy seat; ³⁶ the table, and all its utensils, and the showbread; ³⁷ the pure gold lampstand, with its arrangement of lamps, and all its utensils, and the oil for the light; ³⁸ and the gold altar, and the anointing oil, and the fragrant incense, and the curtain for the entrance to the tent; ³⁹ the bronze altar, and its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils, the basin and its stand; ⁴⁰ the hangings of the courtyard, its pillars, and its sockets, and the curtain for the courtyard gate, its cords, and its pegs, and all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting; ⁴¹ the woven garments of service to do service in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest and his sons' garments, to minister as priests.

⁴² The children of Israel did all the work according to all that the LORD commanded Moses. ⁴³ Moses looked over all the work, and indeed they had done it; as the LORD had commanded, so they had done. Then Moses blessed them.

The Tabernacle Erected

40 Now the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² On the first day of the first month you shall set up the tabernacle of the tent of meeting. ³ You shall put the ark of the testimony in it and screen the ark with the veil. ⁴ You shall bring in the table and arrange the things that are to be arranged on it, and you shall bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps. ⁵ You shall set the gold altar of incense before the ark of the testimony and put the curtain for the entrance to the tabernacle.

⁹ You shall take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it and shall consecrate it and all its furnishings, and it shall be holy. ¹⁰ Then you shall anoint the altar of the burnt offering and all its utensils, and consecrate the altar, and the altar shall be most holy. ¹¹ You shall anoint the basin and its stand, and consecrate it.

¹² Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the tent of meeting and wash them with water. ¹³ You shall put the holy garments on Aaron and anoint him and consecrate him, so that he may minister to Me as a priest. ¹⁴ You shall bring his sons and clothe them with tunics. ¹⁵ Then you shall anoint them just as you anointed their father, so that they may minister to Me as priests, for their anointing will surely be an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations. ¹⁶ Thus Moses did. According to all that the LORD commanded him, so he did.

¹⁷ In the first month of the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was erected.

¹⁸ Moses erected the tabernacle and fastened its sockets, and set up its boards, and inserted its bars, and erected its pillars. ¹⁹ Then he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering of the tent on top of it, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

²² Then he put the table in the tent of meeting on the north side of the tabernacle outside the veil. ²³ He set the bread in order on it before the LORD, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²⁹ He put the altar of burnt offering by the entrance of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting and offered on it the burnt offering and the grain offering, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

³⁰ Then he set the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing. ³¹ It was there Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet. ³² Whenever they went into the tent of meeting, and whenever they came near the altar, they washed, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

³³ He erected the courtyard all around the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the curtain of the courtyard gate. So Moses finished the work.

The Glory of the LORD

³⁴ Then the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. ³⁵ Moses was not able to enter into the tent of meeting because the cloud settled on it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

³⁶ When the cloud was lifted up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel would set out in all their journeys. ³⁷ But if the cloud was not lifted up, then they did not set out until the day that it was lifted.

³⁸ For the cloud of the LORD was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

LEVITICUS

Leviticus was probably written between 1440 and 1400 BC. Jewish tradition and the New Testament writers attribute this book to Moses. Leviticus covers events in 1445 and 1444 BC. Its theme is holiness and sacrifice. The setting for this book is at the foot of Mount Sinai where the people are encamped. Leviticus was written to the priests, the Levites, and the people of Israel. It is a guidebook for teaching God's people about holy living and worship. The vocabulary of sacrifice pervades the book and includes words such as priest, sacrifice, blood, and offering. In Leviticus, Moses instructed the Levitical priests and the people of Israel concerning sacrifices, worship, the priesthood, ceremonial cleanness, the Day of Atonement, feasts and holy days, and the Year of Jubilee.

The Burnt Offering

1 And the LORD called Moses and spoke to him from the tent of meeting, saying: 2 Speak to the children of Israel and say to them: When an individual among you brings an offering to the LORD, you shall bring your offering from the livestock, either from the herd or from the flock.

3 If his offering is a burnt sacrifice, and it is from the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish. At the door of the tent of meeting, he shall offer it of his own free will before the LORD. 4 Then he shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement † for him. 5 And he shall slaughter the bull before the LORD, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall bring the blood and sprinkle the blood on all the sides of the altar that is at the door of the tent of meeting. 6 Then he shall skin the burnt offering and cut it up into parts. 7 The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar and arrange the wood on the fire. 8 Then the priests, the sons of Aaron, shall arrange the parts, with the head and the fat, on the wood that is on the fire that is on the altar. 9 But he shall wash its entrails and its legs in water, and the priest shall burn everything on the altar. It is a burnt sacrifice, a food offering made by fire, which is a pleasing aroma for the LORD.

10 If his gift for a burnt offering is from the flocks, whether from the sheep or from the goats, he shall bring a male without blemish. 11 He shall slaughter it at the north side of the altar before the LORD. And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood on all the sides of the altar. 12 He shall cut it up into parts, with its head and its fat, and the priest shall arrange them on the wood that is on the fire that is on the altar. 13 But he shall wash the entrails and the legs with water. The priest shall bring it all and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt sacrifice, a food offering made by fire, which is a pleasing aroma for the LORD.

14 If his offering to the LORD is a burnt sacrifice of birds, then he shall bring his offering from turtledoves or from young pigeons. 15 The priest shall bring it to the altar, wring off its head, and burn it on the altar. Its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar. 16 He shall remove its entrails with its feathers and throw it to the east side of the altar to the place of the ashes. 17 And he shall split it open by its wings, but not tear it in two. The priest shall burn it on the altar on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt sacrifice, a food offering made by fire, which is a pleasing aroma for the LORD.

The Grain Offering

2 When a person offers a grain offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of wheat flour. He shall pour olive oil on it and put frankincense on it. 2 And he shall bring it to the sons of Aaron, the priests, and he shall scoop out a handful of the flour and its oil, along with all its frankincense. And the priest shall burn this memorial portion on the altar, a food offering made by fire, which is a pleasing aroma for the LORD. 3 And the remainder of the grain offering shall belong to Aaron and to his sons, which is a most holy part of the food offerings to the LORD made by fire.

4 When you bring an oven-baked grain offering, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil or unleavened wafers spread with oil. 5 If your offering is grain on a griddle, it shall be of unleavened wheat flour mixed with olive oil. 6 Break it into pieces and pour oil on it. It is a grain offering. 7 If your offering is grain in a skillet, it shall be made of wheat flour in olive oil. 8 You shall bring the grain offering that is made of these things to the LORD, and when it is presented to the priest, he shall take it to the altar. 9 The priest shall remove a memorial portion from the grain offering and burn it on the altar, a food offering made by fire, which is a pleasing aroma for the LORD. 10 The remainder of the grain offering shall belong to Aaron and to his sons, which is a most holy part of the food offerings to the LORD made by fire.

¹¹ No grain offering that you bring to the LORD shall be made with leaven, for you shall not burn leaven nor any honey as a food offering by fire to the LORD. ¹² As an offering of first fruits, you may offer them to the LORD, but they shall not be offered on the altar for a pleasing aroma. ¹³ You shall season all your grain offerings with salt. You shall not fail to use the salt of the covenant of your God on your grain offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt.

¹⁴ If you offer a grain offering of your first fruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the grain offering of your first fruits fresh ripe grain roasted by fire, coarsely ground new grain. ¹⁵ You shall put olive oil on it and frankincense on it. It is a grain offering. ¹⁶ The priest shall burn its memorial portion and some of its coarsely ground new grain and oil, along with all its frankincense as a food offering made by fire to the LORD.

The Peace Offering

3 If his offering is a peace sacrifice, and if he is offering from the herd, whether male or female, then he shall offer it without blemish before the LORD. ² He shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the door of the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood on the sides of the altar. ³ He shall offer from the peace sacrifice, as a food offering made by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails, ⁴ and the two kidneys with the fat that is above them, which is on the loins, and the appendage on the liver which he shall remove with the kidneys. ⁵ Then the sons of Aaron shall burn it on the altar on the burnt sacrifice that is on the wood that is on the fire, as a food offering made by fire, which is a pleasing aroma for the LORD.

⁶ If his offering for a peace sacrifice to the LORD is from the flock, male or female, he shall offer it without blemish. ⁷ If he is offering a sheep for his offering, he shall offer it before the LORD. ⁸ He shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering and slaughter it before the tent of meeting, and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood on the sides of the altar. ⁹ He shall offer from the peace sacrifice, a food offering made by fire for the LORD, its fat, and the whole fatty tail which he shall remove close to the backbone, and the fat that covers the entrails, and all the fat that is on the entrails, ¹⁰ and the two kidneys with the fat that is above them, which is on the loins, and the appendage on the liver which he shall remove with the kidneys. ¹¹ The priest shall burn it on the altar as a food offering made by fire for the LORD.

¹⁴ He shall offer from it as his offering, an offering made by fire for the LORD, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails, ¹⁵ and the two kidneys with the fat that is above them, which is on the loins, and the appendage on the liver which he shall remove with the kidneys. ¹⁶ The priest shall burn them on the altar as a food offering made by fire for a pleasing aroma. All the fat belongs to the LORD.

¹⁷ As a continual statute for your generations in all your settlements, you shall not eat any fat or any blood.

The Sin Offering

4 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel, saying: When a person sins unintentionally against any of the commandments of the LORD that should not be done, and he violates one of them, ³ if the anointed priest sins, so as to bring guilt on the people, he shall bring for his sin that he has committed a bull without blemish to the LORD for a sin offering. ⁴ He shall bring the bull to the opening of the tent of meeting before the LORD, and he shall lay his hand on the bull's head and slaughter the bull before the LORD. ⁵ The anointed priest shall take some of the bull's blood and bring it into the tent of meeting. ⁶ The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD in front of the veil of the sanctuary. ⁷ Then the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense before the LORD which is in the tent of meeting, and shall pour the rest of the blood of the bull at the base of the altar of the burnt offering which is at the door of the tent of meeting. ⁸ Then he shall remove all the fat of the bull that is for the sin offering—the fat that covers the entrails—and all the fat that is on the entrails, ⁹ and the two kidneys with the fat that is above them, which is on the loins, and the appendage on the liver which he shall remove with the kidneys, ¹⁰ just as these are removed from the bull of the peace sacrifice, and the priest shall burn them on the altar of the burnt offering. ¹¹ The skin of the bull, and all its flesh, with its head, its legs, its entrails, and its dung, ¹² all the rest of the bull, he shall bring outside the camp to a ritually clean [†] place at the ash pile and burn it on wood with fire. It shall be burned on the ash heap.

¹³ If the whole congregation of Israel commits an unintentional sin, and the matter is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they do any one of the things that by the commandments of the LORD should not be done, and they are found guilty, ¹⁴ and the sin that they committed against the commandment becomes known, the congregation shall offer a bull for a sin offering, and they will bring it before the tent of meeting. ¹⁵ The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD, and the bull will be slaughtered before the LORD.¹⁶ The anointed priest shall bring some of the bull's blood to the tent of meeting.¹⁷ And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD in front of the veil.¹⁸ He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before the LORD, which is in the tent of meeting, and he shall pour all the rest of the blood at the base of the altar of the burnt offering that is at the opening of the tent of meeting.¹⁹ He shall remove all the fat from it and burn it on the altar.²⁰ He shall do to this bull just as he did to the bull of the sin offering; this is what he will do to it. And the priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven.²¹ He shall bring the bull outside the camp, and he shall burn it just as he burned the first bull. It is the sin offering of the congregation.

²² Whenever a leader sins, and he does unintentionally any one of the things that by the commandments of the LORD his God should not be done and is found guilty,²³ or his sin that he committed was made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a male goat without blemish,²⁴ and he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and he shall slaughter it in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering before the LORD. It is a sin offering.²⁵ The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of the burnt offering, and he shall pour out its blood at the base of the altar of the burnt offering.²⁶ And he shall burn all its fat on the altar, like the fat of the peace sacrifice, and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin, and he shall be forgiven.

³² And if he brings a sheep for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish,³³ and lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and he shall slaughter it for a sin offering in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering.³⁴ The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering on his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of the burnt offering, and all the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar.

³⁵ And he shall remove all the fat, just as the fat of the sheep is removed from the peace sacrifice, and the priest shall burn it on the altar as a food offering to the LORD made by fire. And the priest shall make atonement for his sin that he committed, and he shall be forgiven.

The Guilt Offering

5 When a person sins in hearing the spoken oath, and he is a witness, whether he saw or knew about the incident, if he does not report it, he bears guilt.

² Or when a person touches any ceremonially unclean thing, whether it is a carcass of unclean wildlife, or a carcass of an unclean domesticated animal, or the carcass of an unclean crawling thing, and he did not realize it, then he has become unclean and guilty.

³ Or when he touches human uncleanness, any uncleanness by which he may become ceremonially unclean, and he did not realize it, when he realizes it, then he shall be guilty.

⁴ Or when a person swears by speaking rashly with his lips to do evil or to do good, anything that a man may speak rashly by oath, and he did not realize it, but when he realizes it, then he has become guilty of any of these things.

⁵ When he becomes guilty of one of these things, he shall confess that he has sinned in that thing.⁶ And he shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD for his sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or goat, for a sin offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

⁷ If he cannot afford an animal, then he shall bring for his guilt offering, on account of the sin that he committed, two turtledoves or two pigeons to the LORD, one for a sin offering and one for a burnt offering.⁸ He shall bring them to the priest who shall offer the one for the sin offering first. He will wring off its head at its neck, but he shall not sever it.⁹ Then he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be poured out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering.¹⁰ But the second he shall treat as a burnt offering according to the regulation. The priest shall make atonement for him for his sin that he committed, and he shall be forgiven.

¹¹ But if he cannot afford to bring two turtledoves or two pigeons, he shall bring for his offering for the sin that he committed one-tenth of an ephah[†] of wheat flour for a sin offering. He shall not place olive oil on it, nor shall he put frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.¹² Then he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall scoop out a handful from it as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar as a food offering to the LORD made by fire. It is a sin offering.¹³ The priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin that he committed from any of these offenses, and he shall be forgiven. The remainder will belong to the priest, like the grain offering.

Offerings With Restitution

¹⁴The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁵When a person acts unfaithfully and sins unintentionally in regard to the holy things of the LORD, then for his restitution offering to the LORD he shall bring a ram without blemish from the flock— or its equivalent, in your estimation, in silver shekels (using the sanctuary shekel †)—for a guilt offering. ¹⁶And he shall repay the sin that he committed with regard to the holy thing and shall add a fifth to it and give it to the priest. The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and he shall be forgiven.

¹⁷If a person sins unintentionally and does any one of the things that by commandments of the LORD should not be done and he is found guilty, he shall bear his iniquity. ¹⁸He shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock—or its equivalent value ††—for a guilt offering. The priest shall make atonement for him concerning his error that he made unintentionally, and he shall be forgiven. ¹⁹It is a guilt offering: He has indeed incurred guilt before the LORD.

6 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²When a person sins and acts unfaithfully against the LORD by lying to another concerning something left in storage, or entrusted to him, or theft, or by extorting his neighbor, ³or by finding a lost item and lying about it, and he swears falsely concerning one of all the things that a man may do to sin in these things, ⁴when he sins and he is found guilty, he shall return whatever he stole, or whatever he extorted, or whatever was left in storage with him, or the lost item which he found, ⁵or about which he swore falsely, then he shall repay it in full and shall add one-fifth to it. He shall give it to whom it belongs on the day that he is found guilty. ⁶And he shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock—or its equivalent value ‡—for a guilt offering to the priest. ⁷And the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he shall be forgiven for anything he may have done to incur guilt.

The Law of the Burnt Offering

⁸The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ⁹Command Aaron and his sons, saying: This is the law for the burnt offering. The burnt offering shall be on the hearth upon the altar all night until the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be kept burning on it. ¹⁰The priest shall put on his linen robe, and his linen undergarments on his body. Then he shall remove the ashes from the fire of the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar. ¹¹Then he shall take off his garments and put on other garments, and he shall bring the ashes outside the camp to a clean place. ¹²The fire on the altar shall be kept burning on it. It shall not go out. The priest shall feed it with wood every morning. He will arrange the burnt offering on it, and he shall burn the fat of the peace offerings on it. ¹³A perpetual fire shall be kept burning on the altar. It shall never go out.

The Law of the Grain Offering

¹⁴This is the law of the grain offering. The sons of Aaron shall offer it before the LORD on the altar. ¹⁵He shall take from it a handful of the flour of the grain offering, and of the oil and all the frankincense which is on the grain offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a pleasing aroma as a memorial to the LORD. ¹⁶Aaron and his sons shall eat the remainder of it; it shall be eaten without leaven in a holy place. They shall eat it in the court of the tent of meeting. ¹⁷It shall not be baked with leaven. I have given it to them for their portion of My food offerings made by fire. It is most holy, as is the sin offering and as is the guilt offering. ¹⁸All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it. It shall be a perpetual statute in your generations concerning the food offerings of the LORD made by fire. Everyone who touches them shall become holy.

¹⁹The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁰This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons which they shall offer to the LORD in the day when he is anointed: a tenth part of an ephah †† of wheat flour for a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half at night. ²¹It shall be made on a griddle with olive oil. When it is well mixed, you shall bring it; and the baked pieces of the grain offering you shall offer as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. ²²The priest from among the sons of Aaron who is anointed to succeed him shall offer it. It is a perpetual statute to the LORD. It shall be completely burned up. ²³For every grain offering for the priest shall be completely burned up. It shall not be eaten.

The Law of the Sin Offering

²⁴The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁵Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying: This is the law of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering also be killed before the LORD. It is most holy. ²⁶The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. In a holy place it shall be eaten in the court of the tent of meeting. ²⁷Whatever touches its flesh shall be holy, and when blood is sprinkled on any garment, you shall wash it in a holy place. ²⁸And the clay vessel where it is boiled shall be broken, and if it is boiled in a bronze pot, it shall be both scoured and rinsed in water. ²⁹All the males among the priests shall eat from this offering. It is most holy. ³⁰Any sin offering where blood is brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the holy place shall not be eaten. It shall be burned up in the fire.

The Law of the Guilt Offering

7 Likewise this is the law of the guilt offering. It is most holy. ²In the place where they kill the burnt offering they shall kill the guilt offering, and its blood shall he sprinkle on the sides of the altar. ³He shall offer all the fat. The fatty tail and the fat that covers the entrails, ⁴and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is on the loins, and the appendage that is above the liver, along with the kidneys, he shall take away. ⁵And the priest shall burn them on the altar for a food offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a guilt offering. ⁶Every male among the priests shall eat from it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. It is most holy.

⁷As the sin offering, so is the guilt offering; there is one law for them: the priest who makes atonement shall have it. ⁸The priest who offers anyone's burnt offering shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering that he has offered. ⁹Every grain offering that is baked in the oven and all that is prepared in a pan or griddle shall be for the priest who offers it. ¹⁰And every grain offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, shall be equally shared among all the sons of Aaron.

The Law of Peace Offerings

¹¹This is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings that a person shall offer to the LORD.

¹⁶But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offers his sacrifice, and on the next day also the remainder of it can be eaten. ¹⁷But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burned up with fire. ¹⁸If any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings is eaten at all on the third day, the one eating shall not be accepted, nor shall it be imputed to him who offers it. It shall be contaminated, and the one who eats of it shall bear his iniquity.

¹⁹The flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten. It shall be burned up with fire. And as for the other flesh, all who are ritually clean can eat of it.

²⁰But the person who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings that belong to the LORD, and who has any uncleanness on him, that individual shall be cut off from his people. ²¹Moreover the person who shall touch any unclean thing, whether the uncleanness of man or any unclean beast or any detestable unclean creature, and then eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of the peace offering that belongs to the LORD, that individual shall be cut off from his people.

Eating Fat and Blood Forbidden

²²The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²³Speak to the children of Israel, saying: You shall not eat any fat of an ox, a sheep, or a goat. ²⁴The fat of an animal that dies of itself and the fat of that which is torn by beasts may be used in any other way, but you shall certainly not eat of it. ²⁵For whoever eats the fat of an animal that is a food offering made by fire to the LORD, that individual shall be cut off from his people. ²⁶Moreover you shall not eat any manner of blood, whether from a fowl or animal, in any of your dwellings. ²⁷Whoever eats any manner of blood, that individual shall be cut off from his people.

The Priests' Share

²⁸The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁹Speak to the children of Israel, saying: He who offers the sacrifice of his peace offerings to the LORD shall bring his sacrifice to the LORD from his peace offerings. ³⁰His own hands shall bring the food offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the LORD. ³¹The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be for Aaron and his sons. ³²The right thigh you shall give to the priest for a contribution offering for the sacrifice of your peace offerings. ³³The one among the sons of Aaron who offers the blood of the peace offerings and the fat shall have the right thigh for his portion. ³⁴For the breast that is waved and the thigh that is contributed I have taken from the children of Israel, from the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them to Aaron the priest and to his sons as a perpetual portion from the children of Israel.

³⁷This is the law of the burnt offering, of the grain offering, and of the sin offering, and of the guilt offering, and of the ordinations, and of the sacrifice of the peace offerings, ³⁸which the LORD commanded Moses on Mount Sinai, in the day that He commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai.

The Consecration of Aaron and His Sons

Ex 29:1-37

8 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bull for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread, ³ and gather all the congregation together at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ⁴ And Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the assembly was gathered together at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

⁵ Moses said to the congregation, "This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done." ⁶ Moses brought Aaron and his sons and washed them with water. ⁷ Then he put the tunic on him, and tied the sash around him, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the decorative band of the ephod and bound the ephod to him. ⁸ He put the breastplate on him. He also put the Urim and the Thummim in the breastplate. ⁹ Then he put the turban upon his head. Also on the turban at the front he put the golden plate, the holy crown, as the LORD commanded Moses.

¹⁰ Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and sanctified them. ¹¹ He sprinkled oil on the altar seven times and anointed the altar and all its vessels, both the laver and its stand, to sanctify them. ¹² Then he poured some of the anointing oil on the head of Aaron and anointed him to sanctify him. ¹³ Moses brought the sons of Aaron and put tunics on them, and girded them with sashes, and put headbands on them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

¹⁸ Then he brought the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. ¹⁹ He killed it, and Moses sprinkled the blood on the sides of the altar. ²⁰ He cut the ram into pieces, and Moses burned the head, the pieces, and the fat. ²¹ He washed the entrails and the legs in water, and Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a pleasing aroma, and a food offering made by fire to the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

some of its blood and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. ²⁴ He brought the sons of Aaron, and Moses put some of the blood on the tips of their right ears, and on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Then Moses sprinkled the blood on the sides of the altar. ²⁵ He took the fat, and the fatty tail, and all the fat that was on the entrails, and the appendage above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right thigh, ²⁶ and out of the basket of unleavened bread that was before the LORD he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer and put them on the fat and on the right thigh. ²⁷ And he put all these on the hands of Aaron and on the hands of his sons and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD. ²⁸ Then Moses took them from off their hands and burned them on the altar with the burnt offering. This was a consecration for a pleasing aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD. ²⁹ Moses took the breast and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD. This part of the ram of consecration was for Moses, as the LORD commanded Moses.

³¹ Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, "Boil the flesh at the entrance of the tent of meeting and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations just as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it.' ³² That which remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn up. ³³ You shall not go out of the door of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the days of your consecration are at an end, for your consecration will take seven days. ³⁴ As he has done this day, so the LORD has commanded what is to be done to make atonement for you. ³⁵ Therefore you shall abide at the entrance of the tent of meeting day and night for seven days and keep the charge of the LORD that you do not die, for so I have been commanded." ³⁶ So Aaron and his sons did all things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

The Priestly Ministry Begins

9 And it came to pass on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel. ² Then he said to Aaron, "Take a young calf for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD. ³ To the children of Israel you shall speak, saying, 'Take a male goat for a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb—both a year old without blemish—for a burnt offering, ⁴ also an ox and a ram for peace offerings to sacrifice before the LORD, and a grain offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD will appear to you.'"

⁵ They brought that which Moses commanded before the tent of meeting, and the entire congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. ⁶ Moses said, "This is the thing which the LORD commanded that you should do; then the glory of the LORD shall appear to you."

⁷ Then Moses said to Aaron, "Go to the altar, and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people, and offer the sacrifice of the people, and make atonement for them, as the LORD commanded."

¹² He slaughtered the burnt offering, and the sons of Aaron presented the blood to him, which he sprinkled on the sides of the altar. ¹³ They presented the burnt offering to him, with its pieces, and the head, and he burned them on the altar. ¹⁴ He then washed the entrails and the legs and burned them with the burnt offering on the altar.

¹⁵ He brought the people's offering, and took the goat which was the sin offering for the people, and slaughtered it, and offered it for sin as the first offering.

¹⁶ And he brought the burnt offering and offered it according to its regulation. ¹⁷ Then he brought the grain offering, took a handful of it, and burned it on the altar, besides the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

¹⁸ He slaughtered the ox and the ram as a sacrifice of peace offerings for the people, and the sons of Aaron presented the blood to him, which he sprinkled on the sides of the altar, ¹⁹ and the fat of the ox and of the ram, the fatty tail, and that which covers the entrails, and the kidneys, and the appendage above the liver. ²⁰ They put the fat pieces on the breasts, and he burned the fat on the altar. ²¹ But the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before the LORD just as Moses commanded.

²² Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people, and blessed them, and came down from offering the sin offering, the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

²³ Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting, and when they came out they blessed the people, and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. ²⁴ A fire came out from before the LORD, and it consumed the burnt offering and the fat that were on the altar. When all the people saw this, they shouted and fell on their faces.

The Death of Nadab and Abihu

10 Now Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer and put fire in it, and put incense on it, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which He did not command them to do. ² Then a fire came out from the LORD and devoured them, and they died before the LORD. ³ Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD spoke, saying:

I will be sanctified
by those who come near Me;
and before all the people
I will be glorified."

And Aaron held his peace.

⁴ Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Come near, and carry your brothers from before the sanctuary out of the camp." ⁵ So they went near, and carried them in their tunics out of the camp as Moses had said.

⁶ Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar his sons, "Do not let your hair be loosely disheveled, nor rend your clothes, lest you die, and lest wrath come upon all the people. Instead, let your brothers, the whole house of Israel, mourn the burning which the LORD has caused. ⁷ You shall not go out from the entrance of the tent of meeting, lest you die, for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you." And they did according to the word of Moses.

⁸ The LORD spoke to Aaron, saying: ⁹ Do not drink wine nor strong drink, you or your sons with you, when you go into the tent of meeting, lest you die. It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations, ¹⁰ so that you may differentiate between what is holy and common and between what is unclean and clean. ¹¹ And so you may teach the children of Israel all the statutes that the LORD has spoken to them by the hand of Moses.

¹² Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons who were left: Take the grain offering that remains of the food offerings of the LORD made by fire and eat it without leaven beside the altar. For it is most holy. ¹³ And you shall eat it in a holy place, because it is your due and your sons' due from the food sacrifices of the LORD made by fire. For so I have been commanded. ¹⁴ The breast that is waved and the thigh that is contributed you shall eat in a clean place, you, and your sons, and your daughters with you, for they are your due and your sons' due which are given out of the sacrifices of peace offerings of the children of Israel. ¹⁵ The thigh that is contributed and the breast that is waved they shall bring with the fat pieces of the food offerings made by fire to wave them as a wave offering before the LORD, and it shall be yours and your sons' with you as a perpetual statute, as the LORD has commanded.

Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left alive, saying, ¹⁷ "Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the sacred area, knowing that it is most holy and God has given it to you to bear the iniquity of the congregation to make atonement for them before the LORD?" ¹⁸ Its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary. Indeed you should have eaten it in the sanctuary as I commanded."

¹⁹ Aaron said to Moses, "Today they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, and such things have happened to me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, should it have been accepted in the sight of the LORD?" ²⁰ And when Moses heard that, he approved.

Clean and Unclean Foods

11 The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying to them: ² Speak to the children of Israel, saying: These are the living things which you shall eat among all the animals that are on the earth. ³ Whatever animal has a parted hoof (that is, split-hoofed), and chews the cud among the animals, that one you shall eat.

⁴ Nevertheless these you shall not eat of those that chew the cud or of those that have a divided hoof: The camel, because it chews the cud but does not have a divided hoof, is unclean to you; ⁵ the rock badger, because it chews the cud but does not have a divided hoof, is unclean to you; ⁶ the hare, because it chews the cud but does not have a divided hoof, is unclean to you; ⁷ the pig, though it does have a divided hoof (that is, split-hoofed), yet it does not chew the cud, is unclean to you; ⁸ you shall not eat of their flesh, and their carcasses you must not touch; they are unclean to you.

⁹ These you shall eat of all that are in the waters: Whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas and in the rivers, these you shall eat; ¹⁰ all that do not have fins and scales in the seas and in the rivers, from all that move in the waters and from any living thing that is in the waters, they are detestable to you; ¹¹ they shall be detestable to you. You shall not eat of their flesh, and you shall detest their carcasses. ¹² Whatever has no fins or scales in the waters is detestable to you.

¹³ These you shall detest among the birds; they shall not be eaten; they are detestable: the griffon vulture, the bearded vulture, and the black vulture, ¹⁴ the kite, and buzzard of any kind, ¹⁵ the raven of any kind, ¹⁶ and the eagle owl, the short-eared and long-eared owls, and the hawk of any kind, ¹⁷ and the little owl, the cormorant, and the screech owl, ¹⁸ and the white owl, the scops owl, and the osprey, ¹⁹ and the stork, the heron of any kind, the hoopoe, and the bat.

²⁰ All flying insects that walk, moving on all fours, shall be detestable to you. ²¹ Yet these you may eat of every flying insect that creeps on all fours: those that have jointed legs above their feet with which to hop on the ground. ²² Even of these you may eat: the locust of any kind, the bald locust of any kind, the cricket of any kind, and the grasshopper of any kind. ²³ But all other flying insects that have four feet shall be detestable to you.

²⁴ And by these you shall be unclean. Whoever touches the carcass of these shall be unclean until the evening.

Unclean Animals

²⁵ Whoever carries any of the carcasses of these shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

²⁹ These also shall be unclean to you among the crawling things that move on the ground: the mole rat, the mouse, and the great lizard of any kind, ³⁰ and the gecko, the lizard, the wall gecko, the sand lizard, and the chameleon. ³¹ These are unclean to you among all that crawl. Whoever touches them when they are dead shall be unclean until the evening.

³² And anything on which any of them falls when they are dead shall be unclean, whether it be an article of wood or clothing or a skin or a sack, any article that is used for any purpose. It must be put in water. And it shall be unclean until the evening; then it shall be clean. ³³ Every clay vessel into which any of these falls, everything in it shall be unclean, and you shall break it. ³⁴ Any food in it that may be eaten on which water is poured shall be unclean, and any drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean. ³⁵ Everything on which any part of their carcass falls shall be unclean; whether it is an oven or stove, it shall be broken to pieces. They are unclean and shall be unclean to you. ³⁶ Nevertheless a fountain or cistern where there is plenty of water shall be clean, but whoever touches their carcass shall be unclean. ³⁷ If any part of their carcass falls on any grain seed that is to be sown, it shall be clean. ³⁸ But if any water is put on the seed, and any part of their carcass fall on it, it shall be unclean to you.

³⁹ If any animal from which you may eat dies, whoever touches the carcass shall be unclean until the evening. ⁴⁰ And the person who eats of the carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening. The person who carries the carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

move on the earth, you shall not eat them for they are detestable. ⁴³ You shall not make yourselves detestable with any crawling thing that moves, nor shall you make yourselves unclean with them, that you should thereby be defiled by them. ⁴⁴ For I am the LORD your God. You shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and you shall be holy, for I am holy. Neither shall you defile yourselves with any manner of crawling thing that moves on the ground. ⁴⁵ For I am the LORD who brings you up out of the land of Egypt to be your God. Therefore you shall be holy, for I am holy.

⁴⁶ This is the law for the animals, and the fowls, and every living creature that moves in the waters, and every creature that crawls on the ground, ⁴⁷ to differentiate between the unclean and the clean, and between the animal that may be eaten and the animal that may not be eaten.

Purification After Childbirth

12 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel, saying: If a woman has conceived and bears a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days, as in the days of her monthly menstruation she shall be unclean. ³ On the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. ⁴ And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying for thirty-three days. She shall not touch anything holy, nor come into the sanctuary until the days of her purifying are fulfilled. ⁵ But if she gives birth to a female child, then she shall be unclean for two weeks as in her monthly menstruation, and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying for sixty-six days.

⁶ When the days of her purifying are fulfilled, whether for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring a year-old lamb for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove for a sin offering, to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting, ⁷ who shall offer it before the LORD and make atonement for her. Then she shall be cleansed from the issue of her blood.

This is the law for the woman who has given birth to a male or a female child. ⁸ If she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall bring two turtledoves or two pigeons, one for the burnt offering and the other for a sin offering, and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

The Law Concerning Leprosy

13 And the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: ² When a man has on the skin of his body a swelling, a scab, or spot, and it turns on the skin of his body like a mark of a leprous sore, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons the priests. ³ And the priest shall examine the mark on the skin of the body, and when the hair on the diseased area is white, and the mark appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, then it is a leprous sore. So the priest shall look on him and pronounce him unclean.

⁴ If the spot is white on the skin of his body, and it appears to be no deeper than the skin, and the hair is not white, then the priest shall isolate the person who has the mark for seven days. ⁵ Then the priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and if the mark is still visible, and the mark has not spread into the skin, then the priest shall isolate him for seven days more.

⁶ And the priest shall examine him again on the seventh day, and if the mark has faded and not spread into the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scab, and he shall wash his clothes and be clean. ⁷ But if the scab spreads in the skin after he has been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again. ⁸ And if the priest sees that the scab has spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is leprosy.

⁹ When a person has leprosy, then it shall be reported to the priest. ¹⁰ And the priest shall examine him, and if there is a white swelling in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is raw flesh in the swelling, ¹¹ it is a recurring leprosy in the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, but he shall not isolate him, for he is unclean.

¹² If the leprosy breaks out all over the skin, and the disease covers all the skin of the person who has the disease from his head to his feet, wherever the priest looks, ¹³ then the priest shall examine, and if the leprosy has covered all his body, he shall pronounce him clean from the disease. It has all turned white, and he is clean. ¹⁴ But when raw flesh appears on him, he shall be unclean. ¹⁵ The priest shall see the raw flesh and pronounce him to be unclean, for the raw flesh is unclean. It is leprosy. ¹⁶ Or if the raw flesh turns again, and it is changed to white, then he shall come to the priest. ¹⁷ And the priest shall see him, and if the disease is changed to white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean who has the disease. He is clean.

¹⁸ And when the skin has a boil, and it is healed, ¹⁹ and in the place of the boil there is a white swelling or a reddish-white spot, then it will be shown to the priest. ²⁰ And if the priest sees it, and it is deeper than the skin, and the hair has turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore that has broken out in the boil. ²¹ But if the priest looks at it, and there are no white hairs in it, and if it is not deeper than the skin but has faded, then the priest shall isolate the person for seven days. ²² If it spreads around the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore. ²³ But if the spot stays in its place and does not spread, then it is the scar of a boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

²⁴ Or if there is some of the skin on the body where there is a burn, and the raw flesh that has a burn becomes a reddish or white spot, ²⁵ then the priest shall examine it, and if the hair in the spot has turned white, and it is deeper than the skin, then it is a leprous disease broken out from the burn. Therefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore. ²⁶ But if the priest looks at it, and there is no white hair in the spot, and it is no deeper than the other skin and is faded, then the priest shall isolate him for seven days. ²⁷ And the priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and if it has spread around the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a leprous sore. ²⁸ If the spot stays in its place and it does not spread in the skin, but is faded, then it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean, for it is a scar from the burn.

²⁹ If a man or woman has a sore on the head or in the beard, ³⁰ then the priest shall examine the sore, and if it is deeper than the skin and there is in it a yellow thin hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is a scaly leprosy of the head or beard. ³¹ If the priest examines the scaly sore, and it is no deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate the person with the scale for seven days. ³² And on the seventh day the priest shall examine the sore, and if the scale has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the scale is not deeper than the skin, ³³ then he shall shave, but the scale he shall not shave, and the priest shall isolate the person with the scale another seven days. ³⁴ And on the seventh day the priest shall examine the scale. If the scale has not spread in the skin and is no deeper than the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes and be clean. ³⁵ But if the scale spreads over the skin after his cleansing, ³⁶ then the priest shall examine him. If the scale has spread over the skin, the priest shall not look for yellow hair. He is unclean. ³⁷ But if the scale appears not to have changed and there is black hair growing in it, then the scale is healed. He is clean and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

³⁸ If a man or a woman has spots on the skin of the body, even white bright spots, ³⁹ then the priest shall examine, and if the bright spots on the skin of the body are a faded white, then it is just a rash that has broken out on the skin. He is clean.

⁴⁰ When a man has lost hair from his head, then he is bald. He is still clean. ⁴¹ And when a man has lost hair from his forehead, then he is bald on the forehead. He is still clean. ⁴² But if there is on the bald head or bald forehead a reddish-white sore, it is a leprous disease breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead. ⁴³ Then the priest shall examine it. If the diseased swelling is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, resembling a leprous disease in the skin of the body, ⁴⁴ he is leprous. He is unclean. The priest shall pronounce him unclean. His disease is on his head.

⁴⁵ The man who has the leprous disease shall have torn clothes and disheveled hair; and he shall cover his mustache and shall cry, "Unclean, unclean." ⁴⁶ All the days that he has the disease, he shall be defiled. He is unclean. He shall dwell alone, and he shall live outside the camp.

The Law About Leprous Garments

⁴⁷ If a garment has a leprous disease, whether it is a wool or a linen garment, ⁴⁸ whether it is in the warp or woof of the linen or wool fabric, or in the leather or anything made of leather, ⁴⁹ and if the disease is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the leather, or in the warp or woof, or in anything made of leather, it is a leprous disease and shall be shown to the priest. ⁵⁰ And the priest shall examine the disease, and isolate the infected article for seven days. ⁵¹ And he shall examine the disease on the seventh day. If the disease has spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in the leather, or in any work that is made of leather, this is a spreading leprous disease. It is unclean. ⁵² He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, wool or linen, or anything of leather that has the disease, for it is a spreading leprous disease. It shall be burned in the fire.

⁵³ If the priest examines it, and the disease has not spread in the garment, either in the warp or the woof, or in anything of leather, ⁵⁴ then the priest shall command that they wash the article in which the disease appears, and he shall isolate it for seven days more. ⁵⁵ The priest shall examine the infected article after it has been washed. If the infected spot has not changed its color, even if the disease has not spread, it is unclean. You shall burn it in the fire, whether the leprous spot is on the inside or on the outside of the article. ⁵⁶ If the priest examines and the disease has faded after washing it, he shall tear the spot out of the garment, or out of the leather, or out of the warp or the woof. ⁵⁷ If it still appears in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in anything of leather, it is spreading. You shall burn in the fire that in which the disease appears. ⁵⁸ The garment that you have washed, either in the warp or woof, or anything of leather, if the disease is gone from it, then it shall be washed a second time and shall be clean.

⁵⁹ This is the law of the leprous disease in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp or woof, or anything of leather to determine if it is clean or unclean.

The Law for Cleansing Lepers

14 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: It shall be reported to the priest, ³ and the priest shall go out of the camp, and the priest shall examine him and see if the disease is healed in the leprous person. ⁴ Then the priest shall command that two live clean birds and cedar wood and scarlet fabric and hyssop be brought for him who is to be cleansed. ⁵ The priest shall command that one of the birds be slaughtered in a clay vessel over running water. ⁶ As for the living bird, he shall take it, the cedar wood, the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. ⁷ Then he shall sprinkle it seven times on him who is to be cleansed from leprosy, and he shall pronounce him clean and shall let the living bird loose into the open field.

⁸ He that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, so that he may be clean. After that he shall come into the camp and shall stay outside of his tent seven days.

¹³ Then he shall slaughter the lamb in the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering in the holy sanctuary. For as the sin offering is the priest's, so is the guilt offering. It is most holy. ¹⁴ And the priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. ¹⁵ And the priest shall take some of the log of oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand. ¹⁶ Then the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle from the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD. ¹⁷ And some of the rest of the oil that is in his hand the priest shall put on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, and on the blood of the guilt offering. ¹⁸ And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall pour upon the head of him who is to be cleansed, and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD.

¹⁹ The priest shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed from his ceremonial uncleanness, and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering. ²⁰ Then the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering on the altar, and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

²¹ But if he is poor and cannot afford so much, then he shall take one male lamb for a guilt offering to be waved to make atonement for him, and one-tenth of an ephah [‡] of wheat flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and a log of oil, ²² and two turtledoves or two pigeons, such as he is able to afford. The one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

³² This is the law for a person who has a leprous sore who cannot afford the offerings for his cleansing.

The Law About Leprous Houses

³³ The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: ³⁴ When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I am giving to you for a possession, and I put a leprous disease in a house of the land of your possession, ³⁵ then he who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, "It seems to me there is some disease in the house." ³⁶ Then the priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest goes into it to examine the disease, so that all that is in the house is not made unclean. Afterwards, the priest shall go in to examine the house. ³⁷ He shall examine the disease and see if the disease is in the walls of the house with greenish or reddish spots, which appear to go deeper than the wall. ³⁸ Then the priest shall go out to the door of the house and close off the house seven days. ³⁹ The priest shall return on the seventh day and shall examine and see if the disease has spread in the walls of the house. ⁴⁰ Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the disease appears and throw them into an unclean place outside the city. ⁴¹ And he shall cause the house to be scraped all around, and they shall pour out the plaster that they scrape off outside the city into an unclean place. ⁴² And they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones, and he shall take other plaster and shall plaster the house.

⁴³ If the disease comes again and breaks out in the house after he has taken away the stones and after he has scraped the house and after it is plastered, ⁴⁴ then the priest shall come and examine and see if the disease has spread in the house. If the disease has spread in the house, it is a persistent leprosy in the house; it is unclean. ⁴⁵ He shall break down the house, the stones and the timber, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall carry them out of the city into an unclean place.

⁴⁸ If the priest comes in and examines it and sees the disease has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the disease is healed. ⁴⁹ He shall take two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop to cleanse the house. ⁵⁰ Then he shall kill one of the birds in a clay vessel over running water. ⁵¹ He shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. ⁵² Then he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet. ⁵³ But he shall let the living bird loose outside the city into the open fields and make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

⁵⁴ This is the law for all manner of leprous sore and scale, ⁵⁵ and for the disease of a garment, or of a house, ⁵⁶ and for a swelling, or for a scab, or for a spot, ⁵⁷ to discern when it is unclean and when it is clean.

This is the law of leprosy.

The Law About Bodily Discharges

15 Then the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: When any man has a discharge out of his body, his discharge is unclean. ³ This is the instruction for his uncleanness in his discharge, whether the discharge from his body flows or his body is stopped up by his discharge, it is his uncleanness.

⁴ Every bed on which the man with the discharge lies shall be unclean, and everything on which he sits shall be unclean. ⁵ Whoever touches the bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁶ And whoever sits on anything where the man sat who has the discharge shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

⁷ And whoever touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

⁸ If the man with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

⁹ Any saddle on which the man with a discharge rides shall be unclean. ¹⁰ Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening, and he who carries any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

¹¹ Whomever he who has the discharge touches, and has not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

¹³ When he who has a discharge is cleansed of his issue, then he shall count to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his body in running water, and shall be clean. ¹⁴ On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons and come before the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting and give them to the priest. ¹⁵ And the priest shall offer them, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD for his discharge.

¹⁶ If any man has a seminal emission, then he shall wash all his body in water and be unclean until the evening. ¹⁷ Every garment and all leather on which there is seminal emission shall be washed with water and be unclean until the evening. ¹⁸ If a man lies with a woman, and there is an emission of semen, they shall both bathe themselves in water and be unclean until the evening.

²⁰ Everything that she lies on in her menstrual impurity shall be unclean. Also, everything that she sits on shall be unclean. ²¹ Whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ²² Whoever touches anything on which she sits shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ²³ Whether it is the bed or anything on which she sits, when he touches it he shall be unclean until the evening.

²⁴ If any man lies with her, and her menstrual impurity is on him, he shall be unclean seven days, and every bed where he lies shall be unclean.

²⁵ If a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, not at the time of her menstrual impurity, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her impurity, all the days of the discharge she shall be in uncleanness, as in the days of her impurity. She shall be unclean. ²⁶ Every bed that she lies on all the days of her discharge shall be for impurity, and whatever she sits on shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her menstrual impurity. ²⁷ Whoever touches those things shall be unclean and shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in water and be unclean until the evening.

²⁸ But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. ²⁹ On the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves or two pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting. ³⁰ The priest shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for her unclean discharge.

³² This is the law for him who has a discharge and for him who has a seminal emission and thus becomes unclean, ³³ and for her who is sick from her menstruation, and for him who has a discharge, for anyone male or female, and for the man who lies with a woman who is unclean.

The Day of Atonement

Lev 23:26–32; Nu 29:7–11

16 The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near to the LORD and died. ² The LORD said to Moses: Speak to Aaron your brother so that he does not come at any time into the Holy Place within the veil before the mercy seat, which is on the ark, so that he will not die, for I will appear in the cloud on the mercy seat.

³ Thus Aaron shall come into the Holy Place with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering. ⁴ He shall put on the holy linen tunic, and he shall have the linen undergarment on his body, and shall be girded with a linen sash, and shall be wearing the linen turban. These are holy garments. Therefore he shall wash his body in water and then put them on. ⁵ He shall take from the congregation of the children of Israel two male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

fering for himself. ¹² And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from the altar before the LORD, and two handfuls of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the veil. ¹³ And he shall put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy seat that is over the testimony, so that he does not die. ¹⁴ And he shall take of the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it with his finger on the mercy seat on the eastern side, and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle from the blood with his finger seven times.

¹⁵ Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering, which is for the people, and bring its blood within the veil, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it over and in front of the mercy seat. ¹⁶ And he shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel and because of their transgressions in all their sins, and so he shall do for the tent of meeting that remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness. ¹⁷ There shall be no man in the tent of meeting when he goes in to make atonement in the Holy Place, until he comes out and has made atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

²⁰ When he has made an end of atonement for the Holy Place, and the tent of meeting, and the altar, then he shall bring the live goat. ²¹ And Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them on the head of the goat, and shall send it away by the hand of a designated man into the wilderness. ²² And the goat shall bear on it all their iniquities to a desolate land, and he shall let the goat go free in the wilderness.

²³ Then Aaron shall come into the tent of meeting, and shall take off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the Holy Place, and shall leave them there. ²⁴ And he shall wash his body with water in a holy place, and put on his garments, and come out, and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people. ²⁵ The fat of the sin offering he shall burn on the altar.

²⁶ He who releases the goat as the scapegoat shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and afterward come into the camp. ²⁷ The bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be carried outside the camp. They shall burn in the fire their hides, their flesh, and their refuse. ²⁸ He who burns them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

²⁹ This shall be a perpetual statute for you so that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall humble yourselves, and do no work of any kind, whether it is the native citizen or the stranger who sojourns among you. ³⁰ For on that day the priest shall make atonement for you to cleanse you, so that you may be clean from all your sins before the LORD. ³¹ It shall be a sabbath, a solemn rest for you, and you shall humble yourselves. It is a perpetual statute.

³² The priest, who is anointed and consecrated to minister as a priest in the place of his father, shall make atonement, and shall put on the linen garments, the holy garments. ³³ And he shall make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary, for the tent of meeting, and for the altar, and he shall make atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

³⁴ This shall be a perpetual statute for you to make atonement for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year.

And Moses did as the LORD commanded him.

The Law About Eating Blood

17 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, saying: ³ If anyone of the house of Israel ritually slaughters an ox, a lamb, or goat in the camp, or slaughters it outside of the camp, ⁴ and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to offer it as a gift to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD, then blood guilt shall be accounted to that man. He has shed blood, and that man shall be cut off from among his people. ⁵ This is so that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them to the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting, to the priest, and offer them for peace offerings to the LORD. ⁶ The priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and burn the fat for a pleasing aroma to the LORD. ⁷ They shall no more offer their sacrifices to goat demons, after whom they have acted like whores. This shall be a perpetual statute for them throughout their generations.

⁸ You shall say to them: Any man from the house of Israel, or from the foreigners who sojourn among you, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, ⁹ and does not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to offer it to the LORD, even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

¹⁰ Whoever from the house of Israel, or from the strangers who sojourn among you, who eats any manner of blood, I will set My face against that person who eats blood, and will cut him off from among his people. ¹¹ For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your lives; for it is the blood that makes atonement for the soul. ¹² Therefore I said to the children of Israel: No person among you shall eat blood, nor shall any stranger who sojourns among you eat blood.

¹⁵ Every person who eats that which died of itself, or that which was torn by animals, whether he is a native citizen or a foreigner, he shall both wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. Then he shall be clean. ¹⁶ But if he does not wash them or bathe his body, then he shall bear his iniquity.

Laws on Immoral Relations

18 The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: I am the LORD your God. ³ After the practices of the land of Egypt, from where you lived, you shall not follow, and after the practices of the land of Canaan, to where I will bring you, you shall not follow; nor shall you walk in their ordinances. ⁴ You shall follow My decrees and keep My ordinances to walk in them: I am the LORD your God. ⁵ You shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, which if a man does them, then he shall live by them: I am the LORD.

⁶ None of you shall approach any of his near relatives to have relations: I am the LORD.

⁷ You shall not have relations with your father or have relations with your mother. She is your mother. You shall not have relations with her.

⁸ You shall not have relations with your father's wife, for this exposes your father's nakedness.

⁹ You shall not have relations with your sister, whether your father's or mother's daughter, whether raised in the family or another home.

¹⁰ You shall not have relations with your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, for this exposes your own nakedness.

¹¹ You shall not have relations with your father's wife's daughter who is raised in your father's family, for she is your sister.

¹² You shall not have relations with your father's sister, for she is your father's relative.

¹³ You shall not have relations with your mother's sister, for she is your mother's relative.

¹⁴ You shall not expose the nakedness of your father's brother. You shall not approach his wife for relations; she is your aunt.

¹⁵ You shall not have relations with your daughter-in-law, for she is your son's wife—you shall not have relations with her.

¹⁶ You shall not have relations with your brother's wife, for this exposes your brother's nakedness.

¹⁹ Also you shall not approach a woman to have relations as long as she is in her menstrual uncleanness.

²⁰ Moreover, you shall not have relations with your neighbor's wife to defile yourself with her.

²¹ You shall not let any of your children be offered through the fire to Molek, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.

²² You shall not lie with a man as one does with a woman. It is an abomination.

²³ You shall not lie with an animal to defile yourself, nor shall any woman lie with an animal. It is a perversion.

²⁴ Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for in these practices the nations I am casting out before you have defiled themselves. ²⁵ And the land has become defiled; therefore I have punished its iniquity, and the land has vomited out her inhabitants. ²⁶ But you shall therefore keep My statutes and My decrees, and you shall not commit any of these abominations, either the native citizen or any foreigner who sojourns among you ²⁷ (for the people of the land, who were before you, committed all of these abominations, and the land became defiled), ²⁸ lest the land vomit you out also when you defile it, as it vomited out the nations that were before you.

²⁹ For whoever shall commit any of these abominations, those persons who commit them shall be cut off from among their people. ³⁰ Therefore you shall keep My ordinances, that you do not commit any one of these abominable customs which were committed before you, so that you do not defile yourselves by them: I am the LORD your God.

Moral and Ceremonial Laws

19 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy.

³ Every one of you shall revere his mother and his father, and you will keep My Sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

⁴ Do not turn to idols, nor make for yourselves cast metal gods: I am the LORD your God.

⁵ When you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, you shall offer it so that you might be accepted. ⁶ It shall be eaten the same day you offer it or on the next day, and if any remains until the third day, it shall be burned in the fire. ⁷ If it is eaten at all on the third day, then it is contaminated. It shall not be accepted. ⁸ Therefore everyone who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has defiled what is holy of the LORD, and that person shall be cut off from among his people.

⁹ When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap up to the edge of your field, nor shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest. ¹⁰ You shall not glean bare your vineyard, nor shall you gather every fallen grape of your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God.

¹¹ You shall not steal, nor deal falsely, nor lie to one another.

¹² You shall not swear falsely by My name, and so defile the name of your God: I am the LORD.

¹³ You shall not defraud your neighbor or rob him. The wages of him who is hired shall not stay with you all night until the morning.

¹⁴ You shall not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

¹⁵ You shall do no unrighteousness in a court. You shall not be partial to the poor, nor honor the person who is great, but in righteousness you shall judge your neighbor.

¹⁷ You shall not hate your brother in your heart. You shall surely reason honestly with your neighbor, and not suffer sin because of him.

¹⁸ You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.

¹⁹ You shall keep My statutes.

You shall not let your livestock breed with a different kind.

You shall not sow your field with mixed seed, nor shall your garment be mixed from two types of fabric.

²⁰ Whoever lies with a slave woman who is betrothed to another man and not yet ransomed or given freedom, compensation will be made. They shall not be put to death, because she was not free. ²¹ He shall bring his guilt offering to the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting, a ram for a guilt offering. ²² The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before the LORD for his sin which he has done, and he will be forgiven for the sin that he has committed.

²³ When you come into the land and plant any kind of tree for food, then you shall count the fruit as forbidden. [†] Three years it shall be forbidden to you. It shall not be eaten. ²⁴ But in the fourth year all the fruit shall be holy and an offering of praise to the LORD. ²⁵ And in the fifth year you shall eat of the fruit that it may yield an increase to you: I am the LORD your God.

²⁶ You shall not eat anything with the blood in it, nor shall you practice divination or fortune-telling.

²⁷ You shall not round the corners of the hair on your head, nor shall you mar the edges of your beard.

²⁸ You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead nor make any tattoo marks on yourselves: I am the LORD.

²⁹ Do not prostitute your daughter and cause her to be defiled, lest the land fall into whoredom and become full of wickedness.

³⁰ You shall keep My Sabbaths and revere My sanctuary: I am the LORD.

³¹ Do not turn to spirits through mediums or necromancers. Do not seek after them to be defiled by them: I am the LORD your God.

³³ When a foreigner sojourns with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong. ³⁴ The foreigner who dwells with you shall be to you as one born among you, and you shall love him as yourself for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

³⁵ You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment regarding measures in length, weight, or quantity. ³⁶ You shall have honest balances, honest weights, an honest ephah, † and an honest hin: †† I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

³⁷ Therefore you shall observe all My statutes and all My judgments and do them: I am the LORD.

Penalties for Violating the Law

20 Then the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Again, you shall say to the children of Israel: Whoever from the children of Israel or from the foreigners who sojourn in Israel who gives any of his children to Molek, he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him. ³ I will set My face against that man and will cut him off from among his people, because he has given some of his descendants to Molek to defile My sanctuary and to defile My holy name. ⁴ If the people of the land in any way hide their eyes from the man when he gives of his children to Molek and do not put him to death, ⁵ then I will set My face against that man and against his family; and I will cut them off from their people, both him and those who follow after him as whores after Molek.

⁶ The person who turns to spirits through mediums and necromancers in order to whore after them, I will even set My face against that person and will cut him off from among his people.

⁷ Consecrate yourselves therefore, and be holy, for I am the LORD your God. ⁸ You shall keep My statutes, and do them; I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

⁹ For anyone who curses his father or his mother shall be surely put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother, and his blood guilt shall be upon him.

¹⁰ If a man commits adultery with another man's wife, even he who commits adultery with his neighbor's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

¹³ If a man lies with another man as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood guilt shall be upon them.

¹⁴ If a man lies with a woman and also her mother, it is wickedness. Both he and they shall be burned with fire, so that there is no wickedness among you.

¹⁵ If a man lies with an animal, he shall surely be put to death, and you shall kill the animal.

¹⁸ If a man lies with a woman during her menstrual period and exposes her nakedness, her fountain of blood is then exposed. Both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

¹⁹ You shall not have relations with your mother's sister or your father's sister, for this is to expose the nakedness of one's relative. They shall bear their iniquity.

²⁰ If a man lies with his uncle's wife, he has exposed his uncle's nakedness. They shall bear their sin. They shall die childless.

²¹ If a man lies with his brother's wife, it is impurity. He has exposed his brother's nakedness. They shall be childless.

²² You shall therefore keep all My statutes and all My decrees and do them, so that the land to where I am bringing you will not vomit you out. ²³ You shall not walk in the customs of the nation that I am driving out before you, for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. ²⁴ But I have said to you: You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land that flows with milk and honey. I am the LORD your God, who has separated you from other peoples.

† A dry measure of about 3/5 of a bushel, or 22 liters. †† A liquid measure of about 1 gallon, or 3.8 liters.

²⁵ You shall therefore make distinction between the clean animal from the unclean, and the unclean fowl from the clean, and you shall not make yourselves detestable by animal, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that crawls on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean. ²⁶ You shall be holy unto Me; for I the LORD am holy and have separated you from other peoples, that you should be Mine.

²⁷ A man or woman who speaks to spirits as a medium or necromancer shall surely be put to death. They shall stone them. Their blood guilt shall be upon them.

Rules for Priestly Conduct

21 Then the LORD said to Moses: Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: None shall make himself unclean for the dead among his people, ² but for his closest relatives, that is, for his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, his brother, ³ and his virgin sister (who is near him because she has not had a husband), for her he may be made unclean. ⁴ And he shall not make himself unclean as a husband among his people because of the dead and so defile himself.

⁵ They shall not make bald areas on their heads, nor shall they shave off the edges of their beards, nor make any cuts in their flesh. ⁶ They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God; for they offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and the food of their God. Therefore they shall be holy.

⁷ They shall not take a wife who is a whore or has been defiled, nor shall they take a woman divorced from her husband, for he is holy unto his God. ⁸ You shall sanctify him, for he offers the food of your God. He shall be holy to you, for I the LORD, who sanctifies you, am holy.

⁹ The daughter of any priest, if she defiles herself by being a whore, she also defiles her father. She shall be burned with fire.

¹³ He shall take a wife in her virginity. ¹⁴ A widow, or a divorced woman, or a defiled woman, or a prostitute, these he shall not marry. But he shall take for a wife a virgin of his own people, ¹⁵ so that he does not defile his offspring among his people, for I am the LORD who sanctifies him.

¹⁶ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁷ Speak to Aaron, saying: None of your offspring in their generations who has any blemish may approach to offer the food of his God. ¹⁸ For whoever has a blemish, he shall not approach, whether a blind or lame man, or one who has a physical flaw on his face or a limb that is too long, ¹⁹ or a man who has a broken foot or broken hand, ²⁰ or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or who has a defect in his eye, or eczema or scabs, or is a eunuch.

²¹ No man who has a blemish from the offspring of Aaron the priest shall come near to offer the food offerings of the LORD made by fire. He has a blemish; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God. ²² He shall eat the food of his God, both of the most holy and of the holy. ²³ Only he shall not go in through the veil or come to the altar, because he has a blemish, so that he does not defile My sanctuaries, for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

²⁴ Moses spoke this to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

Holy Offerings

22 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to Aaron and to his sons that they should be very respectful with the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they do not defile My holy name with those things which the people have consecrated to Me: I am the LORD.

³ Say to them: Whoever from your offspring through your generations approaches the holy things, which the children of Israel have dedicated to the LORD, while he has uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from My presence: I am the LORD.

⁴ If a man of the offspring of Aaron is a leper or has a discharge, he shall not eat of the holy offerings until he is clean. And whoever touches anything that is unclean by contact with the dead or a man who had an emission of semen, ⁵ or whoever touches any crawling thing whereby he may be made unclean, or a man from whom he may receive uncleanness, whatever uncleanness he has, ⁶ the person who has touched any such thing shall be unclean until evening, and shall not eat of the holy things unless he washes his body with water. ⁷ When the sun goes down, he shall be clean, and afterward he shall eat of the holy things, because it is his food. ⁸ That which dies of itself or is torn by animals he shall not eat, becoming unclean by it: I am the LORD.

⁹ They shall therefore keep My ordinance, lest they bear sin from it and therefore die if they defile it: I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

¹⁰ There shall be no outsider [†] who eats of a holy thing, whether a foreign guest of the priest or a hired servant, he shall not eat of a holy offering. ¹¹ But if a priest buys a person with his money, the person acquired shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house shall eat of his food. ¹² If the priest's daughter marries an outsider, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things. ¹³ But if the priest's daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no child and has returned to her father's house as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food; but no outsider may eat of it.

¹⁴ If a man eats the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall add a fifth of the value to it and shall give the holy thing to the priest. ¹⁵ They shall not defile the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer to the LORD, ¹⁶ and cause them to suffer and to bear the iniquity of guilt when they eat their holy things, for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

Acceptable Offerings

¹⁷ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁸ Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: Whoever from the house of Israel or from the foreigners in Israel who offers his burnt offering for any vows or freewill offerings that he offers to the LORD, ¹⁹ then if it is to be accepted for you, the offering shall be a male without blemish, a bull, sheep, or goat. ²⁰ But whatever has a blemish you shall not offer, for it shall not be acceptable for you. ²¹ Whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD to fulfill his vow or a freewill offering, whether from the herd or flock, to be accepted it shall be perfect, with no blemish on it. ²² Blind, or disabled, or maimed, or having an ulcer or eczema or scabs, you shall not offer these to the LORD, nor make a food offering by fire on the altar to the LORD. ²³ A herd animal or a flock animal that has a limb that is too long or short you may offer for a freewill offering, but for a vow it shall not be accepted. ²⁴ You shall not offer to the LORD an animal that is bruised or crushed or torn or cut; nor shall you make any offering of them in your land. ²⁵ Nor from a foreigner shall you offer an animal as the food of your God, because a blemish is in them from their mutilation. They shall not be accepted for you.

²⁶ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁷ When an ox, or a sheep, or a goat is born, then it shall be seven days with its mother, and from the eighth day and thereafter it shall be accepted for a food offering made by fire to the LORD. ²⁸ But you shall not slaughter on the same day an ox or a sheep and her young.

²⁹ When you offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, offer it so that it may be accepted. ³⁰ On the same day it shall be eaten. You shall leave none of it until the next day: I am the LORD.

³¹ Therefore you shall keep My commandments and do them: I am the LORD. ³² You shall not defile My holy name, but I will be sanctified among the children of Israel: I am the LORD who sanctifies you, ³³ who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.

The Appointed Feasts

23 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: Concerning the feasts of the LORD that you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, these are My appointed feasts.

The Sabbath

³ For six days work shall be done, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation. You shall do no work. It is the Sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

The Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread

Ex 12:14–20; Nu 28:16–25; Dt 16:1–8

⁴ These are the appointed feasts of the LORD, holy convocations which you shall proclaim in their appointed times. ⁵ On the fourteenth day of the first month at evening is the LORD's Passover. ⁶ On the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to the LORD. For seven days you must eat unleavened bread. ⁷ On the first day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work. ⁸ But you shall offer a food offering made by fire to the LORD for seven days. On the seventh day is a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work.

Offering the First Fruits

⁹ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁰ Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: When you have come into the land that I am giving to you and reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf bundle of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest. ¹¹ And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD so that you may be accepted. On the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it. ¹² You shall offer that day when you wave the sheaf a year-old male lamb without blemish for a burnt offering to the LORD. ¹³ The grain offering shall be two-tenths of an ephah † of wheat flour mixed with oil, a food offering made by fire to the LORD for a pleasing aroma; its drink offering shall be of wine, a fourth of a hin. ††¹⁴ You shall eat neither bread nor grain, parched or fresh, until the same day that you have brought an offering to your God. It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

¹⁵ You shall count seven full weeks from the next day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf bundle of the wave offering. ¹⁶ You shall count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall offer a new grain offering to the LORD. ¹⁷ You shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two-tenths of an ephah. They shall be of wheat flour, baked with leaven. They are the first fruits to the LORD. ¹⁸ You shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, one bull, and two rams. They shall be for a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, that is, a food offering made by fire, of a pleasing aroma to the LORD.¹⁹ Then you shall sacrifice one male goat for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings.²⁰ The priest shall wave them with the bread of the first fruits for a wave offering before the LORD with the two lambs. They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.²¹ You shall make a proclamation on the same day and shall hold a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work. It shall be a perpetual statute in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

† Likely about 7 pounds, or 3.2 kilograms; and in v. 17. †† About 1 quart, or 1 liter.

²² When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field up to the edge, nor shall you gather any gleaning of your harvest. You shall leave them to the poor and to the foreigner: I am the LORD your God.

The Feast of Trumpets

Nu 29:1-6

²³ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:²⁴ Speak to the children of Israel, saying: In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a sabbath, a memorial with the blowing of trumpets, a holy convocation.²⁵ You shall do no regular work, and you shall offer a food offering made by fire to the LORD.

The Day of Atonement

²⁶ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:²⁷ Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be the Day of Atonement. It shall be a holy convocation to you, and you shall humble yourselves, and offer a food offering made by fire to the LORD.²⁸ You shall do no work on that same day, for it is the Day of Atonement to make atonement for you before the LORD your God.²⁹ For whoever is not humbled on that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people.³⁰ And whoever does any work in that same day, that person I will destroy from among his people.³¹ You shall do no manner of work. It shall be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings.³² It shall be to you a sabbath of complete rest, and you shall afflict your souls. On the ninth day of the month starting at the evening, from evening to evening, you shall celebrate your sabbath.

³³ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying:³⁴ Speak to the children of Israel, saying: The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days to the LORD.³⁵ On the first day shall be a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work.³⁶ For seven days you shall offer food offerings made by fire to the LORD. On the eighth day it shall be a holy convocation to you, and you shall offer a food offering made by fire to the LORD. It is a solemn assembly, and you shall do no regular work.

³⁷ These are the appointed feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer a food offering made by fire to the LORD, burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each on its proper day,³⁸ besides the Sabbaths of the LORD, besides your gifts, besides all your vows, and besides all your freewill offerings which you give to the LORD, ³⁹ On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you shall keep a feast to the LORD for seven days. On the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.⁴⁰ You shall take on the first day the branches of majestic trees—branches of palm trees, branches of leafy trees, and willows from a brook, and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.⁴¹ You shall keep it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It shall be a perpetual statute in your generations. You shall celebrate it in the seventh month.⁴² You shall dwell in booths for seven days. All who are native children of Israel shall dwell in booths,⁴³ that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

⁴⁴ Moses declared to the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD.

The Tabernacle Lamps

Ex 27:20-21

24 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying:² Command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure olive oil beaten for the lamp, to cause the lamps to burn continually.³ Outside the veil of the sanctuary, in the tent of meeting, Aaron shall arrange it continually, from the evening until the morning before the LORD. It shall be a perpetual statute in your generations.⁴ He shall arrange the lamps continually on the pure gold lampstand before the LORD.

The Bread of the Tabernacle

⁵ You shall take wheat flour and bake twelve cakes. Two-tenths of an ephah[†] shall be in each cake.⁶ You shall set them in two rows, six in a row, on the pure gold table before the LORD.⁷ You shall put pure frankincense on each row, so that it may be on the bread for a memorial, a food offering made by fire to the LORD.⁸ Every Sabbath he shall set it in order continually before the LORD, with the portion taken from the children of Israel by a perpetual covenant.⁹ It shall be for Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place, for it is most holy to him of the food offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.

The Punishment for Blasphemy

¹⁰ The son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel, and this son of the Israelite woman and a man of Israel fought together in the camp. ¹¹ And the Israelite woman's son blasphemed the name of the LORD and cursed. And they brought him to Moses. (His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.) ¹² And they put him in custody, so that the words of the LORD might be shown to them.

¹⁷ Whoever kills any man shall surely be put to death. ¹⁸ Whoever kills an animal shall make restitution, animal for animal. ¹⁹ If anyone causes injury to his neighbor, as he has done, so shall it be done to him, ²⁰ fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he has caused an injury to another, so shall it be done to him. ²¹ Whoever kills an animal shall make restitution. And whoever kills a man shall be put to death. ²² You shall have one manner of law for the foreigner as for the native, for I am the LORD your God.

²³ So Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and they brought outside the camp him who had cursed, and stoned him. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Sabbath Year

25 Then the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: When you come into the land that I give you, the land shall keep a sabbath to the LORD. ³ For six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard and gather in its fruit, ⁴ but in the seventh year there shall be a sabbath of complete rest for the land, a sabbath for the LORD. You shall neither sow your field nor prune your vineyard. ⁵ That which grows by itself from your harvest you shall not reap, nor gather the grapes of your unpruned vines, for it is a year of complete rest for the land. ⁶ The sabbath produce of the land shall be food for you: for you, and for your male and female servants, and for your hired servant, and for your stranger who sojourns with you, ⁷ and for your livestock, and for the wild animals in your land, shall all its increase be food.

The Year of Jubilee

⁸ You shall count seven sabbath weeks of years, seven times seven years, and the time of the seven sabbaths of years shall be to you forty-nine years. ⁹ Then you shall sound the horn blasts on the tenth day of the seventh month. On the Day of Atonement you shall make the sound of the horn throughout all your land. ¹⁰ You shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all the inhabitants. It shall be a Jubilee to you, and each of you shall return to his possession, and every person shall return to his family. ¹¹ That fiftieth year will be a Jubilee for you. You shall neither sow nor reap that which grows by itself, nor gather the grapes of your unpruned vines. ¹² For it is the Jubilee. It shall be holy to you. You shall eat the produce of the field.

¹³ In the Year of Jubilee you shall return to your property.

¹⁴ If you sell anything to your neighbor or buy anything from your neighbor, you shall not oppress one another. ¹⁵ According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall pay your neighbor, and according to the number of years of the crops he shall sell to you.

¹⁶ According to the increase of years you shall increase the price, and according to the decrease of years you shall diminish the price of it. For he shall sell to you according to the number of years of crops. ¹⁷ You shall not therefore oppress one another, but you shall fear your God. For I am the LORD your God.

¹⁸ Therefore you shall do My statutes, and keep My decrees, and do them, and you shall dwell securely in the land. ¹⁹ The land shall yield its fruit, and you shall eat your fill and live securely in it. ²⁰ If you shall say, "What shall we eat in the seventh year, if we shall not sow nor gather in our crop?" ²¹ then I will command My blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth produce for three years. ²² You shall sow in the eighth year, and eat yet of old crops until the ninth year until its crops come in for you.

Redemption of Property

²³ The land shall not be permanently sold, for the land is Mine. For you are foreigners and sojourners with Me. ²⁴ In all the land of your possession you shall grant a redemption for the land.

²⁵ If your brother becomes poor and has sold some of his possession, then his nearest redeemer will come to redeem it, and buy back that which his brother sold. ²⁶ If the man has none to redeem it, but he himself is able to redeem it, ²⁷ then let him count the years since the sale and pay back the balance to the man to whom he sold it, so that he may return to his property. ²⁸ But if he is not able to restore it to himself, then that which he sold shall remain in the hand of him who has bought it until the Year of Jubilee, and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his possession.

²⁹ If a man sells a house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a year after it is sold, within a full year he may have the right to buy it back. ³⁰ If it is not redeemed within the time of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be given permanently to him who bought it throughout his generations. It shall not be returned in the Jubilee. ³¹ But the houses of the villages that have no wall around them shall be counted as the fields of the land. They may be redeemed, and they shall be returned in the Jubilee.

³² For the cities of the Levites, they may redeem at any time the houses in the cities that they possess. ³³ If a Levite purchases back the house that was sold in the city of his possession, then it shall be returned in the Jubilee. For the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel. ³⁴ But the fields of the land of their cities may not be sold, for they are their perpetual possession.

Helping the Poor

³⁵ If your brother becomes poor and cannot maintain himself with you, then you shall support him as if he were a foreigner or a sojourner, so that he may live with you. ³⁶ Take no usury or interest from him; but fear your God, so that your brother may live with you. ³⁷ You shall not lend him your money at interest, nor lend him your food for profit. ³⁸ I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

The Law About Slavery

³⁹ If your brother who dwells near you becomes poor and sells himself to you, you shall not compel him to serve as a bondservant. ⁴⁰ But as a hired servant and as a sojourner he shall be with you. He shall serve you until the Year of Jubilee. ⁴¹ And then he shall depart from you, both he and his children with him, and he shall return to his own family and to the possession of his fathers. ⁴² For they are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. They shall not be sold as slaves. ⁴³ You shall not rule over him with harshness, but you shall fear your God.

⁴⁴ Both your male and female slaves, whom you may have, they shall be bought from the nations that are around you. ⁴⁵ Moreover of the foreigners who sojourn among you and of their families who are with you, who were born in your land, you may also buy from them, and they may be your possession. ⁴⁶ You may take them as an inheritance for your children after you, for their possession. They shall be your slaves forever. But over your brothers, the children of Israel, you shall not rule over one another with rigor.

⁴⁷ If a sojourner or foreigner becomes rich by you, and your brother who dwells beside him becomes poor and sells himself to the foreigner or sojourner with you, or to a member of the stranger's family, ⁴⁸ then after he is sold he may be redeemed again. One of his brothers may redeem him, ⁴⁹ or either his uncle or his cousin may redeem him, or any who is near of kin to him of his family may redeem him. Or if he is able, he may redeem himself. ⁵⁰ He shall calculate with him who bought him from the year that he was sold to the Year of Jubilee, and the price of his sale shall be according to the number of years, according to the time of a hired servant. ⁵¹ If there are still many years left until the Jubilee, he shall pay the price proportionately for his redemption as some of the price that he was bought for. ⁵² If there remain but a few years until the Year of Jubilee, then he shall calculate and pay the price proportionately for his redemption according to his years of service. ⁵³ As a yearly hired servant he shall be treated, and the other shall not rule harshly over him in your sight.

⁵⁴ If he is not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the Year of Jubilee, both he and his children with him. ⁵⁵ For to Me the children of Israel are servants. They are My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

Rewards for Obedience

26 You shall not make for yourselves idols; neither set up a carved image nor a standing stone, nor shall you set up any sculpted stone in your land to bow down to it, for I am the LORD your God.

² You shall keep My Sabbaths and reverence My sanctuary: I am the LORD.

³ If you walk in My statutes and keep My commandments and do them, ⁴ then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. ⁵ Your threshing shall last till the grape harvest, and the grape harvest shall last till the time for sowing, and you shall eat your bread till you are full and dwell in your land safely.

⁶ I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down for sleep, and none shall make you afraid; I will remove harmful beasts from the land, and the sword shall not go through your land. ⁷ You shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. ⁸ Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight, and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

⁹ I will turn toward you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will confirm My covenant with you. ¹⁰ You shall eat the old harvest long stored, and clear out the old to make way for the new. ¹¹ I will set My tabernacle among you, and I shall not abhor you. ¹² I will walk among you, and I will be your God, and you shall be My people. ¹³ I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves, and I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk upright.

Punishment for Disobedience

¹⁴ But if you will not listen to Me, and will not do all these commandments, ¹⁵ if you despise My statutes, or if you abhor My judgments, so that you will not do all My commandments, but you break My covenant, ¹⁶ then I will do this to you: I will visit you with terror, with wasting disease, and with a fever that shall consume the eyes and cause sorrow of heart, and you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it. ¹⁷ I will set My face against you, and you shall be slain before your enemies. They that hate you shall reign over you, and you shall flee when none pursues you.

¹⁸ If you will not yet listen to Me after all this, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. ¹⁹ I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your heaven as iron and your land as bronze. ²⁰ Your strength shall be spent in vain, for your land shall not yield her increase, nor shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.

²⁷ If you will not listen to Me for all this, but walk contrary to Me, ²⁸ then I will walk contrary to you also in fury, and I Myself will chastise you seven times for your sins. ²⁹ You shall eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters. ³⁰ I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and cast your funeral offerings on the lifeless forms of your idols, and I shall abhor you. ³¹ I will make your cities a waste and bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not smell the savor of your fragrant offerings. ³² I will bring the land into desolation, and your enemies that dwell there shall be astonished at it. ³³ I will scatter you among the nations and I will draw out a sword after you. And your land shall be desolate and your cities a waste. ³⁴ Then the land shall enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate, while you are in your enemies' land; then the land shall rest and enjoy its sabbaths. ³⁵ As long as it lies desolate it shall rest because it did not rest during your sabbaths when you lived upon it.

³⁶ And on those who are left alive of you I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall make them flee, and they shall flee as from a sword, and they shall fall when no one pursues. ³⁷ They shall fall one upon one another, as to escape before the sword, though no one pursues, and you shall have no power to stand before your enemies. ³⁸ You shall perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies shall consume you. ³⁹ And those who are left of you shall rot away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands, and also because of the iniquities of their fathers, they shall rot away with them.

⁴⁰ But if they confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their treachery that they committed against Me, and also that they have walked contrary to Me, ⁴¹ and that I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts are humbled, and they then accept the punishment of their iniquity, ⁴² then will I remember My covenant with Jacob, and also My covenant with Isaac, and also My covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land. ⁴³ But the land shall be abandoned by them, and enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them. They shall make amends for their iniquity, because they despised My judgments and because they abhorred My statutes. ⁴⁴ Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, nor will I abhor them to destroy them utterly and to break My covenant with them, for I am the LORD their God.

⁴⁶ These are the statutes and judgments and laws that the LORD made between Himself and the children of Israel on Mount Sinai by the hand of Moses.

Laws About Vows

27 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: When a man makes a special vow to the LORD based on the equivalent value [†] of persons, ³ then the equivalent value of a male from twenty to sixty years old shall be fifty shekels ^{††} of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel. ⁴ If the person is a female, then the equivalent value shall be thirty shekels. ⁵ If the person is five to twenty years old, then the equivalent value shall be twenty shekels ^{††} for a male and ten shekels ^{†††} for a female. ⁶ If the person is one month to five years old, then the equivalent value shall be five shekels ^{†††} for a male and three shekels [§] of silver for a female. ⁷ If the person is sixty years old or older, then the equivalent value shall be fifteen shekels ^{§†} for a male and ten shekels for a female. ⁸ But if he is too poor to afford the equivalent value, then he shall present himself before the priest and the priest shall set his value. According to what the person making the vow can afford, so the priest shall set his value.

⁹ And if it be an animal, of which men bring an offering to the LORD, all that any man gives of such to the † Shorthand for the formula in Lev 5:15. †† About 11/4 pounds, or 575 grams; and in v. 16. ‡ About 2/5 ounce, or 12 grams; and in v. 25. †† About 12 ounces, or 345 grams. †† About 8 ounces, or 230 grams. ††† About 4 ounces, or 115 grams; and in v. 7. ††† About 2 ounces, or 58 grams. § About 1/4 ounces, or 35 grams. §† About 6 ounces, or 175 grams.

LORD shall be holy. ¹⁰ He shall not exchange it nor substitute it, good for bad or bad for good. If he in fact substitutes an animal for another, then both it and its substitute shall be holy. ¹¹ If it is any sort of unclean animal that is not permitted as an offering to the LORD, then he shall present the animal before the priest. ¹² And the priest shall set its value, whether good or bad; according to the equivalent value set by the priest, so shall it be. ¹³ But if he plans on redeeming it, then he shall add one-fifth to the equivalent value.

¹⁴ When a man consecrates his house as holy to the LORD, then the priest shall set its value, whether good or bad, according to the equivalent value set by the priest, so shall it be established. ¹⁵ If he who consecrates the house should redeem it, then he shall add one-fifth to its equivalent value, and it shall be his.

¹⁶ If a man shall consecrate to the LORD some of his land, then the equivalent value shall be according to the seed needed to sow it: fifty shekels of silver per homer [†] of barley seed. ¹⁷ If he consecrates his field from the Year of Jubilee, the equivalent value shall stay fixed, ¹⁸ but if he consecrates his field after the Jubilee, then the priest shall calculate for him the price according to the years that remain until the next Year of Jubilee, and the equivalent value shall be reduced. ¹⁹ And if he who consecrated the field plans on redeeming it, then he shall add one-fifth to the equivalent value, and it will be established as his. ²⁰ If he does not redeem the field, but rather sells the field to another man, it may not be redeemed again. ²¹ But when the field is released in the Jubilee, it shall be holy to the LORD as a devoted field; it shall become the possession of the priest.

²² If a man consecrates to the LORD a field that he purchased, which is not part of his land property,

²³ then the priest shall calculate for him the amount of the valuation, up to the Year of Jubilee, and he shall give your valuation on that day as a holy thing to the LORD. ²⁴ In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to the one from whom it was bought, to him to whom the property of land belongs. ²⁵ All your estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: Twenty gerahs ^{††} shall be one shekel.

²⁶ A firstborn of animals, which as firstborn belongs to the LORD, no man may consecrate; whether ox or sheep, it is the LORD's. ²⁷ If it is among the unclean animals, then he shall ransom it at the equivalent value and shall add one-fifth to it, but if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold at the equivalent value.

²⁸ Anything that a man shall devote to the LORD from all that he has, whether human, animal, or land, shall not be sold or redeemed. Every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD.

²⁹ No one devoted of men, who shall be doomed to death, shall be redeemed; he shall surely be put to death.

³⁴ These are the commandments that the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel on Mount Sinai.

NUMBERS

Numbers was probably written between 1440 and 1400 BC. Jewish tradition and the New Testament writers attribute this book to Moses. Its theme is the wilderness wanderings. The setting for this book begins at Mount Sinai and includes Kadesh, Mount Hor, the plains of Moab, the Sinai desert, and concludes at the boundaries of Canaan—the Promised Land. The first part of the book concludes the record of the experiences at Sinai, while the major part of Numbers recounts the nearly forty years of wandering in the wilderness. Numbers reveals God not only as the Holy One who cannot ignore rebellion or unbelief, but also as the God who keeps His covenant and patiently provides for His people, even in their rebellion.

Israel's First Census

¹ And the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai in the tent of meeting on the first day of the second month in the second year after they went out from the land of Egypt, saying: ² Take the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their polls, ³ from twenty years old and upward, all who are able to go out to war in Israel. You and Aaron will number them by their armies. ⁴ With you there will be a man of every tribe, each one the head of his father's house. ⁵ These are the names of the men who will stand with you:

of the tribe of Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur;

⁶ of Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai;

⁷ of Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab;

⁸ of Issachar, Nethanel the son of Zuar;

⁹ of Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon;

¹⁰ of the children of Joseph:

of Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud;

of Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur;

¹¹ of Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideoni;

¹² of Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai;

¹³ of Asher, Pagiel the son of Okran;

¹⁴ of Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel;

¹⁵ of Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan.

¹⁶ These were the renowned of the congregation, leaders of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

²⁰ The children of Reuben, the oldest son of Israel, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war, ²¹ those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty-six thousand five hundred.

²² Of the children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those who were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war, ²³ those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

³⁰ Of the children of Zebulun, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war, ³¹ those who were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

⁴⁴ These are those who were numbered, which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the leaders of Israel, being twelve men. Each one was for the house of his fathers. ⁴⁵ So were all those who were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war in Israel. ⁴⁶ Even all they who were numbered were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

children of Israel, ⁵⁰ but you will appoint the Levites over the tent of the testimony, and over all its vessels, and over all things that belong to it. They will carry the tabernacle, and all its vessels, and they will minister to it, and will camp around the tabernacle. ⁵¹ When the tabernacle sets out, the Levites will take it down, and when the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites will set it up, and the foreigner that approaches will be put to death. ⁵² The children of Israel will pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their armies. ⁵³ But the Levites will camp around the tabernacle of the testimony, so there will be no wrath on the congregation of the children of Israel. And the Levites will keep the charge of the tabernacle of the testimony.

⁵⁴ Thus the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

Tribes and Leaders by Armies

2 And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: ² Every man of the children of Israel will camp by his own standard, with the ensign of his father's house. Facing the tent of meeting they will camp.

³ On the east side toward the rising of the sun the standard of the camp of Judah will camp throughout their armies, and Nahshon the son of Amminadab will be captain of the children of Judah. ⁴ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

⁵ Those who camp next to him will be the tribe of Issachar, and Nethanel the son of Zuar will be captain of the children of Issachar. ⁶ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

⁷ Then comes the tribe of Zebulun, and Eliab the son of Helon will be captain of the children of Zebulun.

⁸ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

¹⁰ On the south side will be the standard of the camp of Reuben according to their armies, and the captain of the children of Reuben will be Elizur the son of Shedeur. ¹¹ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were forty-six thousand five hundred.

¹² Those who camp by him will be the tribe of Simeon, and the captain of the children of Simeon will be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. ¹³ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

¹⁴ Then comes the tribe of Gad, and the captain of the sons of Gad will be Eliasaph the son of Reuel. ¹⁵ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.

¹⁶ All who were numbered in the camp of Reuben were one hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies. And they will set out in the second rank.

¹⁷ Then the tent of meeting will set out with the camp of the Levites in the middle of the camp. As they camp, so they will set out, every man in his place by their standards.

¹⁸ On the west side will be the standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their armies, and the captain of the sons of Ephraim will be Elishama the son of Amihud. ¹⁹ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were forty thousand five hundred.

²⁰ By him will be the tribe of Manasseh, and the captain of the children of Manasseh will be Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur. ²¹ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

²² Then comes the tribe of Benjamin, and the captain of the sons of Benjamin will be Abidan the son of Gideoni. ²³ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

²⁴ All who were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were one hundred and eight thousand one hundred, throughout their armies. And they will go out in the third rank.

²⁵ The standard of the camp of Dan will be on the north side by their armies, and the captain of the children of Dan will be Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. ²⁶ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

²⁷ Those who camp by him will be the tribe of Asher, and the captain of the children of Asher will be Pagiel the son of Okran. ²⁸ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were forty-one thousand five hundred.

²⁹ Then the tribe of Naphtali, and the captain of the children of Naphtali will be Ahira the son of Enan. ³⁰ His host, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

³² These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers. All those who were numbered of the camps throughout their hosts were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty. ³³ But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.

³⁴ The children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses. So they camped by their standards, and so they set out, each one after his family, according to their fathers' houses.

The Sons of Aaron

3 These also are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day that the LORD spoke with Moses in Mount Sinai.

² These are the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ³ These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the priests who were anointed, whom he consecrated to minister as priests. ⁴ Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD when they brought strange fire before the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children, and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests in the sight of Aaron their father.

Duties of the Levites

⁵ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ⁶ Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, and they will minister to him. ⁷ They will keep his directives, and serve the whole congregation before the tent of meeting, to do the service of the tabernacle. ⁸ They will keep all the instruments of the tent of meeting, and attend to the needs of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle. ⁹ You will give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons. They are wholly given to him from the children of Israel. ¹⁰ You will appoint Aaron and his sons, and they will attend to their priesthood, and the foreigner that approaches will be put to death.

¹¹ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹² I Myself have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of all the firstborn that open the womb among the children of Israel. Therefore the Levites will be Mine ¹³ because all the firstborn are Mine, for on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I set apart to Me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast. They will be Mine. I am the LORD.

A Census of the Levites

¹⁴ The LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, saying: ¹⁵ Number the children of Levi after the house of their fathers, by their families. You will number every male from a month old and older. ¹⁶ Moses numbered them according to the word of the LORD, as he was commanded.

¹⁷ These were the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari.

¹⁸ These are the names of the sons of Gershon by their families:

Libni and Shimei;

¹⁹ the sons of Kohath by their families:

Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel;

²⁰ the sons of Merari by their families:

Mahli and Mushi.

These are the families of the Levites according to the house of their fathers.

²¹ From Gershon was the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimeites. These are the families of the Gershonites. ²² Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and older, those who were numbered of them were seven thousand five hundred. ²³ The families of the Gershonites were to camp behind the west side of the tabernacle. ²⁴ The chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites was Eliasaph the son of Lael. ²⁵ The charge of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting included the tabernacle, and the tent, its covering, and the hanging for the door of the tent of meeting, ²⁶ the hangings of the court, the curtain for the opening of the court that is around the tabernacle and the altar, and its cords—all the service pertaining to these.

²⁷ Of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites. These are the families of the Kohathites. ²⁸ The number of all the males, from a month old and older, were eight thousand six hundred, keeping the guard of the sanctuary. ²⁹ The families of the sons of Kohath were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle. ³⁰ The chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites was Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. ³¹ Their duty included the ark, and the table, and the lampstand, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary they minister with, and the hanging, and all its service. ³² Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest was to be chief over the leaders of the Levites and to have the oversight of those who kept the guard of the sanctuary.

³³ Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites and the family of the Mushites. These are the families of Merari. ³⁴ Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males from a month old and older, were six thousand two hundred. ³⁵ The chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. These were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle. ³⁶ Under the oversight and guard of the sons of Merari were the frames of the tabernacle, the bars, the pillars, the sockets, all their accessories, all the service pertaining to these, ³⁷ and the pillars of the court all around, with their sockets, and pins, and cords.

³⁸ But those who were to camp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tent of meeting on the east side, were Moses, and Aaron and his sons, keeping the guard of the sanctuary for the guard of the children of Israel, and the foreigner who approached was to be put to death.

³⁹ All who were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of the LORD, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and older, were twenty-two thousand.

The Redemption of the Firstborn

⁴⁰ The LORD said to Moses: Number all the firstborn of the males of the children of Israel from a month old and older and take the number of their names. ⁴¹ You will take the Levites for Me (I am the LORD) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the livestock of the children of Israel.

⁴⁴ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ⁴⁵ Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites instead of their livestock, and the Levites will be Mine. I am the LORD. ⁴⁶ For those who are to be redeemed of the two hundred and seventy-three of the firstborn of the children of Israel, which are more than the Levites, ⁴⁷ you will take five shekels [†] apiece by the poll; according to the shekel of the sanctuary you will take them (the shekel is twenty gerahs). ⁴⁸ And you will give the money, by which the number of them is to be redeemed, to Aaron and to his sons.

⁴⁹ Moses took the redemption money of those who were over and above those who were redeemed by the Levites. ⁵⁰ Of the firstborn of the children of Israel he took the money, one thousand three hundred and sixty-five shekels, ^{††} after the shekel of the sanctuary. ⁵¹ And Moses gave the money of those who were redeemed to Aaron and to his sons, according to the word of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Duties of the Kohathites

4 And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: ² Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers, ³ from thirty years old and older, even to fifty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tent of meeting.

⁴ This will be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meeting, concerning the holiest things. ⁵ And when the camp sets out, Aaron will come, and his sons, and they will take down the covering curtain, and cover the ark of the testimony with it, ⁶ and will put on it the covering of porpoise skins, and will spread over it a cloth completely of blue, and will put in its poles.

⁷ Upon the table of showbread they will spread a cloth of blue, and put the dishes on it, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover it, and the showbread will be on it. ⁸ And they will spread on them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of porpoise skins, and will put in its poles.

⁹ They will take a cloth of blue, and cover the lampstand of the light, and its lamps, and its tongs, and its snuff dishes, and all its oil vessels, with which they minister to it. ¹⁰ And they will put it and all its vessels within a covering of porpoise skins and will put it on a carrying pole.

¹¹ Upon the golden altar they will spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of porpoise skins, and will put in its poles.

¹³ And they will take away the ashes from the altar and spread a purple cloth on it. ¹⁴ They shall put on it all the instruments with which they minister there, the censers, the flesh hooks, the shovels, the basins, all the utensils of the altar. And they will spread on it a covering of porpoise skins and insert its poles.

¹⁵ When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary, and all the instruments of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set out, after that, the sons of Kohath will come to carry it. But they will not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meeting.

¹⁶ To the office of Eleazar, Aaron the priest's son, pertains the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily grain offering, and the anointing oil, and the oversight of all the tabernacle, and of all that is in it, in the sanctuary, and in the instruments thereof.

¹⁷ The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: ¹⁸ Do not cut the tribe of the families of the Kohathites from among the Levites. ¹⁹ But do this to them, that they may live and not die, when they approach the most holy things. Aaron and his sons will go in, and appoint each one to his service and to his burden. ²⁰ But they will not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die.

Duties of the Gershonites

²¹ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²² Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, throughout the houses of their fathers, by their families. ²³ From thirty years old and older to fifty years old you will number them, all that enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the tent of meeting.

²⁴ This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, to serve, and to work. ²⁵ And they will carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tent of meeting, its covering, and the covering of the porpoise skins that is on it, and the hanging for the door of the tent of meeting, ²⁶ and the hangings of the courtyard, and the hanging for the opening of the gate of the courtyard, which is by the tabernacle and by the altar all around, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made for them. So they will serve. ²⁷ At the appointment of Aaron and his sons will be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service. And you shall assign to them all their tasks as their duty. ²⁸ This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting. And their charge will be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Duties of the Merarites

²⁹ As for the sons of Merari, you will number them by their families, by the house of their fathers. ³⁰ From thirty years old and older, even to fifty years old, you will number them, everyone who enters into the service, to do the work of the tent of meeting. ³¹ This is the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tent of meeting. The boards of the tabernacle, and its bars thereof, and its pillars, and its sockets, ³² and the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service, and by name you will list the instruments of the charge of their burden. ³³ This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the tent of meeting, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

Census of the Levites

³⁴ Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of the congregation numbered the sons of the Kohathites by their families, and by the house of their fathers, ³⁵ from thirty years old and older to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for the work in the tent of meeting. ³⁶ And those who were numbered by their families were two thousand seven hundred and fifty. ³⁷ These were the ones listed of the families of the Kohathites, all who might do service in the tent of meeting, which Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

³⁸ Those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, throughout their families, and by the house of their fathers, ³⁹ from thirty years old and older to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for the work in the tent of meeting, ⁴⁰ even those who were numbered of them, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, were two thousand six hundred and thirty. ⁴¹ These were the ones listed by the families of the sons of Gershon, of all who might do service in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD.

⁴² Those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, throughout their families, by the house of their fathers, ⁴³ from thirty years old and older to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for the work in the tent of meeting, ⁴⁴ even those who were numbered by their families, were three thousand two hundred. ⁴⁵ These were the ones listed of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

⁴⁶ All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses, Aaron, and the leaders of Israel numbered, by their families, and by the house of their fathers, ⁴⁷ from thirty years old and older to fifty years old, everyone who came to do the service of the ministry, and the service of the work in the tent of meeting, ⁴⁸ even those who were numbered were eight thousand five hundred and eighty. ⁴⁹ According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by the hand of Moses, each according to his service, and according to his burden.

Thus they were numbered by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

The Unclean

5 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Command the children of Israel that they put out of the camp every leper, and everyone who has a discharge, and whoever is defiled by the dead. ³ Both male and female you will put out. You will put them outside the camp, so they do not defile their camps in the midst of which I dwell. ⁴ The children of Israel did so, and put them outside the camp. As the LORD spoke to Moses, so the children of Israel did.

Restitution for Wrongs

⁵ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ⁶ Tell the children of Israel: When a man or woman commits any sin against another, acting unfaithfully against the LORD, that person is guilty, ⁷ and shall confess his sin which he has committed, and he will repay his offense with its principal, and add to it one-fifth, and give it to him who was wronged. ⁸ But if the man has no relative to repay the offense to, let the offense be repaid to the LORD, even to the priest, beside the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement will be made for him. ⁹ Every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring to the priest, will be his. ¹⁰ Every man's holy things will be his. Whatever any man gives the priest, it will be his.

The Test for Adultery

¹¹ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹² Speak to the children of Israel and say to them: If any man's wife goes astray, and acts treacherously against him, ¹³ and a man lies with her carnally, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and it is concealed though she has defiled herself, and there is no witness against her, nor is she caught in the act, ¹⁴ and if the spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous of his wife who has defiled herself, or if the spirit of jealousy comes on him and he is jealous of his wife, though she has not defiled herself, ¹⁵ then the man shall bring his wife to the priest and he shall bring her offering for her, a tenth of an ephah [†] of barley flour. He shall pour no oil on it nor put frankincense on it, for it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering of remembrance, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

¹⁶ The priest will bring her near, and set her before the LORD. ¹⁷ And the priest will take holy water in an earthen vessel, and the priest will take some of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle and put it into the water. ¹⁸ And the priest will set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman's head, and put the memorial offering in her hands, which is the grain offering of jealousy, and the priest will have in his hand the bitter water that causes the curse. ¹⁹ And the priest will charge her by an oath, and say to the woman, "If no man has lain with you, and if you have not gone astray to impurity with another instead of your husband, be free from this bitter water that causes the curse. ²⁰ But if you have gone astray to another instead of your husband, and if you are defiled, and a man besides your husband has lain with you"— ²¹ then the priest will charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest will say to the woman, "The LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people, when the LORD makes your thigh rot and your belly swell. ²² And this water that causes the curse will go into your bowels, to make your belly swell and your thigh rot."

And the woman will say, "Amen, amen."

²³ The priest will write these curses in a book, and he will wash them out with the bitter water. ²⁴ And he will cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causes the curse. And the water that causes the curse will enter into her and become bitter. ²⁵ Then the priest will take the grain offering of jealousy out of the woman's hand and will wave the offering before the LORD and offer it on the altar. ²⁶ And the priest will take a handful of the offering, the memorial portion, and burn it on the altar, and afterward will cause the woman to drink the water. ²⁷ When he has made her to drink the water, then it will be that, if she is defiled and has acted treacherously against her husband, the water that causes the curse will enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly will swell, and her thigh will rot, and the woman will be a curse among her people. ²⁸ If the woman is not defiled, but is clean, then she will be free and will conceive offspring.

²⁹ This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goes astray to another instead of her husband, and is defiled, ³⁰ or when the spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous over his wife, and will set the woman before the LORD, and the priest will perform on her all this law. ³¹ Then the man will be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman will bear her iniquity.

The Nazirite Vow

6 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel and say to them: When either a man or woman will make a hard vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to separate themselves to the LORD, ³ he will separate himself from wine and strong drink and will drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink. Neither shall he drink any juice of grapes, nor eat fresh or dry grapes. ⁴ All the days of his separation he will eat nothing that is made of the grapevine, from the seed to the skin.

⁵ All the days of the vow of his separation no razor will come on his head until the days are fulfilled in which he separates himself to the LORD. He will be holy and will let the locks of the hair of his head grow. ⁶ All the days that he separates himself to the LORD he will not approach a dead body. ⁷ He will not defile himself for his father or for his mother, for his brother or for his sister if they die because the separation of his God is on his head. ⁸ All the days of his separation he is holy to the LORD.

⁹ If any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he has defiled his consecrated head, then he will shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day will he shave it. ¹⁰ On the eighth day he will bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tent of meeting. ¹¹ And the priest will offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering and make an atonement for him, since he sinned because of the dead, and will sanctify his head that same day. ¹² He will consecrate to the LORD the days of his separation and bring a male lamb in its first year as a guilt offering. But the previous days will be lost because his separation was defiled.

¹⁶ The priest will bring them before the LORD and will offer his sin offering and his burnt offering. ¹⁷ And he will offer the ram as a sacrifice of a peace offering to the LORD with the basket of unleavened bread. The priest will offer also his grain offering and his drink offering.

¹⁹ The priest will take the cooked shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer and will put them on the hands of the Nazirite, after he has shaved his consecrated hair. ²⁰ And the priest will wave them as a wave offering before the LORD. This is holy for the priest, with the breast waved and the shoulder offered. And after that the Nazirite may drink wine.

²¹ This is the law of the Nazirite who has vowed to the LORD, his offering for his separation, besides whatever else his hand is able to provide. According to the vow which he spoke, so he must do, according to the law of his separation.

The Priestly Blessing

²² The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²³ Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, This is how you will bless the children of Israel, saying to them,

²⁴ The LORD bless you and keep you;

²⁵ the LORD make His face to shine upon you,
and be gracious unto you;

²⁶ the LORD lift His countenance upon you,
and give you peace.

²⁷ They will put My name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them.

Offerings at the Tabernacle's Dedication

7 And it was on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle and anointed it and sanctified it and all its instruments, both the altar and all its vessels, and anointed them, and sanctified them, ² that the leaders of Israel, heads of their fathers' houses, who were the leaders of the tribes, and were over them who were counted, made an offering. ³ And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen, a wagon for two of the leaders, and for each one an ox. And they brought them before the tabernacle.

⁶ Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites. ⁷ Two wagons and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service. ⁸ And four wagons and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest. ⁹ But to the sons of Kohath he gave none because the service of the sanctuary belonging to them was that they should carry on their shoulders.

¹³ And his offering was one silver charger, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, [†] one silver bowl of seventy shekels, ^{††} after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ¹⁴ one spoon of ten shekels [‡] of gold, full of incense; ¹⁵ one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering; ¹⁶ one

[†] About 31/4 pounds, or 1.5 kilograms; and throughout this chapter. ^{††} About 13/4 pounds, or 800 grams; and throughout this chapter. [‡] About 4 ounces, or 115 grams; and throughout this chapter.

goat kid as a sin offering; ¹⁷ and as a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

¹⁸ On the second day Nethanel the son of Zuar, leader of Issachar, presented an offering.

²⁴ On the third day Eliab the son of Helon, leader of the children of Zebulun, presented an offering.

³⁰ On the fourth day Elizur the son of Shedeur, leader of the children of Reuben, presented an offering.

³⁶ On the fifth day Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, leader of the children of Simeon, presented an offering.

³⁷ And his offering was one silver charger, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ³⁸ one spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense; ³⁹ one young bull, one ram, one male lamb in its first year, as a burnt offering; ⁴⁰ one goat kid as a sin offering; ⁴¹ and as a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

⁴² On the sixth day Eliasaph the son of Deuel, leader of the children of Gad, presented an offering.

⁴⁸ On the seventh day Elishama the son of Ammihud, leader of the children of Ephraim, presented an offering.

⁵⁴ On the eighth day Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, leader of the children of Manasseh, presented an offering.

⁶⁰ On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni, leader of the children of Benjamin, presented an offering.

⁶¹ And his offering was one silver charger, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ⁶² one spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense; ⁶³ one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering; ⁶⁴ one goat kid as a sin offering; ⁶⁵ and as a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideon.

⁶⁶ On the tenth day Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, leader of the children of Dan, presented an offering.

⁷² On the eleventh day Pagiel the son of Okran, leader of the children of Asher, presented an offering.

⁷⁸ On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, leader of the children of Naphtali, presented an offering.

⁷⁹ And his offering was one silver charger, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering; ⁸⁰ one spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense; ⁸¹ one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year as a burnt offering; ⁸² one goat kid as a sin offering; ⁸³ and as a sacrifice of peace offerings, two oxen, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs in their first year. This was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

⁸⁴ This was the dedication of the altar, in the day when it was anointed, by the leaders of Israel: twelve silver plates, twelve silver bowls, and twelve gold spoons, ⁸⁵ each silver plate weighing one hundred and thirty shekels, each bowl seventy. All the silver vessels weighed two thousand four hundred shekels, [†] according to the shekel of the sanctuary. ⁸⁶ The gold spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, according to the shekel of the sanctuary. All the gold of the spoons was one hundred and twenty shekels. ^{††87} All the oxen for the burnt offering were twelve bulls, twelve rams, twelve male lambs in their first year, with their grain offering, and twelve goat kids for a sin offering. ⁸⁸ And all the oxen for the sacrifice of the peace offerings were twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the goats sixty, the one-year-old lambs sixty. This was the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.

⁸⁹ And then Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with Him, and he heard the voice of One speaking to him from the mercy seat that was on the ark of the testimony, from between the two cherubim, and He spoke to him.

The Seven Lamps

8 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to Aaron and say to him: When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps will give light before the lampstand.

³ Aaron did so. He lit the lamps before the lampstand, as the LORD commanded Moses. ⁴ And this was the work of the lampstand: hammered gold, to its shaft, to its flowers was beaten work. According to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the lampstand.

Consecrating the Levites

¹² The Levites will lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and you will offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to the LORD, to make an atonement for the Levites. ¹³ You will set the Levites before Aaron and before his sons, and offer them as a wave offering to the LORD. ¹⁴ Thus will you separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites will be Mine.

¹⁵ And afterwards the Levites will go in to do the service of the tent of meeting, and you will cleanse them and offer them as a wave offering. ¹⁶ For they are completely set aside for Me by the children of Israel. Instead of all who open the womb, instead of the first-born of all the children of Israel, I have taken them for

† About 60 pounds, or 28 kilograms.

†† About 3 pounds, or 1.4 kilograms.

Myself. ¹⁷ For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are Mine, both man and animal. On the day that I struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for Myself. ¹⁸ I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn of the children of Israel. ¹⁹ I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons from among the children of Israel, to serve the service of the children of Israel in the tent of meeting and to make an atonement for the children of Israel, so there will be no plague among the children of Israel when the children of Israel approach the sanctuary.

²⁰ Moses and Aaron and all the congregation of the children of Israel did to the Levites; according to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the children of Israel did to them. ²¹ The Levites cleansed themselves from sin, and they washed their clothes, and Aaron offered them as a wave offering before the LORD, and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them. ²² And after that the Levites went in to do their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron and before his sons. As the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

²³ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁴ This is what belongs to the Levites: From twenty-five years old and older they will go in to do their duty concerning the service of the tent of meeting. ²⁵ And from the age of fifty years they will cease doing their duty concerning its service and will serve no more. ²⁶ But they will minister with their brothers in the tent of meeting, to attend to their needs, but will not do the work. Thus you will do to the Levites concerning their duties.

The Passover at Sinai

⁹ And the LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they came out of the land of Egypt, saying: ² Let the children of Israel also keep the Passover at its appointed time. ³ On the fourteenth day of this month, at evening, you will keep it at its appointed time. According to all its rites and according to all its ceremonies, you will keep it.

⁶ There were men who were unclean by the dead body of a man, so they could not keep the Passover on that day, and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day. ⁷ And those men said to him, "We are defiled by the dead body of a man. Why are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD at its appointed time among the children of Israel?"

⁸ And Moses said to them, "Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you."

⁹ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁰ Speak to the children of Israel, saying: If any man of you or of your posterity is unclean because of a dead body, or is far off on a journey, he will still keep the Passover to the LORD. ¹¹ The fourteenth day of the second month at evening they will keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ¹² They will leave none of it until the morning, nor break any of its bones. According to all the ordinances of the Passover they will keep it. ¹³ But the man who is ceremonially clean, and is not on a journey, and fails to keep the Passover, even the same person will be cut off from his people. Because he did not bring the offering of the LORD at its appointed time, that man will bear his sin.

¹⁴ If a stranger will sojourn among you and will keep the Passover to the LORD, according to the ordinance of the Passover, and according to the manner of it, so he will do. You will have one ordinance both for the resident alien and for the natural born citizen of the land.

The Cloud and the Fire

¹⁵ And on the day that the tabernacle was erected, the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the testimony, and at evening there was over the tabernacle the appearance of fire until the morning. ¹⁶ So it was always. The cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night. ¹⁷ When the cloud was lifted up from over the tabernacle, then after it the children of Israel journeyed, and in the place where the cloud settled, there the children of Israel camped. ¹⁸ At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they camped. As long as the cloud dwelt over the tabernacle they camped. ¹⁹ When the cloud remained many days over the tabernacle, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD and did not journey.

²⁰ When the cloud remained a few days over the tabernacle, according to the commandment of the LORD they dwelt in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed. ²¹ When the cloud dwelt from evening until morning and the cloud was lifted up in the morning, then they journeyed. Whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was lifted up, they journeyed. ²² Whether it was two days, or a month, or a long time that the cloud dwelt over the tabernacle, the children of Israel dwelt in their tents and did not journey. But when it was lifted up they journeyed. ²³ At the command of the LORD they camped, and at the command of the LORD they journeyed. They kept the charge of the LORD at the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

The Silver Trumpets

¹⁰ And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Make for yourself two silver trumpets. Of a hammered work you will make them, and you will use them for summoning of the assembly and directing the breaking up of the camps. ³ When they blow both of them, all the assembly will assemble themselves to you at the door of the tent of meeting. ⁴ If they blow only one, then the leaders, who are heads of the thousands of Israel, will gather themselves to you. ⁵ When you blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east will set out. ⁶ When you blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south will set out. They will blow an alarm for their setting out. ⁷ But when the assembly is to be gathered together, you will blow, but you will not sound an alarm.

⁸ The sons of Aaron, the priests, will blow the trumpets, and they will be to you as an ordinance forever throughout your generations. ⁹ And if you go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresses you, then you will blow an alarm with the trumpets, and you will be remembered before the LORD your God, and you will be saved from your enemies. ¹⁰ Also in the day of your gladness, and at your appointed days, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings that they may be a memorial for you before your God. I am the LORD your God.

The Departure From Sinai

¹¹ And it was on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was lifted up from over the tabernacle of the testimony. ¹² The children of Israel set out from the Wilderness of Sinai. And the cloud dwelt in the Wilderness of Paran. ¹³ And they set out for the first time at the command of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

²⁹ Moses said to Hobab, the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out to the place of which the LORD said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us, and we will do good to you because the LORD has spoken good concerning Israel."

³⁰ Hobab said to him, "I will not go. But I will depart to my own land, and to my kindred."

³¹ So Moses said, "Please do not leave us, because you know where to camp in the wilderness, and you may be our eyes. ³² Moreover, if you go with us, then it will be that whatever good the LORD will do for us, we will likewise do for you."

³⁵ And it was, when the ark set out, that Moses said, "Rise up, O LORD, and let Your enemies be scattered, and let them that hate You flee before You."

³⁶ And when it rested, he said, "Return, O LORD, to the multitude of thousands of Israel."

Complaints in the Desert

11 Now when the people complained openly before the LORD, the LORD heard, and His anger burned. Then the fire of the LORD burned among them and consumed the outskirts of the camp. ² And the people cried out to Moses, and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire was quenched. ³ He called the name of the place Taberah because the fire of the LORD burned among them.

⁴ The mixed multitude that was among them lusted, and the children of Israel wept again and said, "Who will give us meat to eat? ⁵ We remember the fish, which we ate in Egypt for free, the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic. ⁶ But now our life is dried up. There is nothing at all except this manna before our eyes."

⁷ The manna was as coriander seed, and it looked like bdellium. ⁸ The people went about and gathered it, and ground it in mills or beat it in a mortar, and boiled it in pots, and made cakes of it, and the taste of it was like the taste of cakes baked in oil. ⁹ When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna fell on it.

¹⁰ Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the opening of his tent, and the anger of the LORD burned greatly. Moses was also displeased. ¹¹ Moses said to the LORD, "Why have You hurt Your servant? And why have I not found favor in Your eyes, that You lay the burden of all this people on me? ¹² Have I conceived all this people? Have I given them birth, that You should say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse bears the nursing child,' to the land which You swore to their fathers? ¹³ Where am I to get meat to give to all these people? For they weep to me, saying, 'Give us meat, that we may eat.' ¹⁴ I am not able to bear all these people alone, because the burden is too heavy for me. ¹⁵ If You do this to me, please kill me at once, if I have found favor in Your eyes, and do not let me see my misery."

The Seventy Elders

¹⁶ Then the LORD said to Moses, "Gather to Me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people, and officers over them, and bring them to the tent of meeting, that they may take a stand there with you. ¹⁷ And I will come down, and I will speak with you there, and I will take of the Spirit which is on you and will put it on them, and they will bear the burden of the people with you, and you will not bear it by yourself.

¹⁸ "And say to the people: Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat, for you have wept in the hearing of the LORD, saying, 'Who will give us meat to eat? For it was better for us in Egypt.' Therefore the LORD will give you meat, and you shall eat. ¹⁹ You shall eat, not one day, or two days, or five days, or ten days, or twenty days, ²⁰ but a whole month, until it comes out at your nostrils, and it will be nauseating to you because you rejected the LORD who is among you and have wept before Him, saying, 'Why did we come out of Egypt?'"

²¹ And Moses said, "The people I am with number six hundred thousand foot soldiers, and You have said, 'I will give them meat that they may eat a whole month.' ²² Will the flocks and the herds be slaughtered for them, to satisfy them? Or will all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to satisfy them?"

²³ And the LORD said to Moses, "Is the hand of the LORD shortened? Now you will see if My word will happen to you or not."

²⁴ Moses went out, and he spoke to the people the words of the LORD and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people and set them around the tabernacle. ²⁵ And the LORD came down in a cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was on him, and gave it to the seventy elders, and when the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but did not do it again.

²⁶ But two men remained in the camp. The name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other, Medad. And the Spirit rested on them. They were among those listed, but they had not gone out to the tent, and so they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷ And a young man ran and told Moses and said, "Eldad and Medad prophesy in the camp."

²⁸ Then Joshua the son of Nun, the assistant of Moses from his youth, answered and said, "My lord Moses, forbid them."

²⁹ Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Oh, that all the people of the LORD were prophets, and that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them!"

³⁰ And Moses returned to the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

The LORD Sends Quail

³¹ Now a wind from the LORD started up, and it swept quail from the sea and let them fall beside the camp, about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on the other side, around the camp, and about two cubits [†] above the ground. ³² And the people stayed up all that day, all night, and all the next day, and gathered the quail. Those who gathered least gathered ten homers. ^{††} And they spread them out for themselves all around the camp. ³³ While the meat was between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of the LORD burned against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great slaughter. ³⁴ And he called the name of that place Kibroth Hattaavah because there they buried the people who had the craving.

³⁵ The people journeyed from Kibroth Hattaavah to Hazereth, and they camped at Hazereth.

Miriam and Aaron Oppose Moses

12 And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he married, for he had married a Cushite woman. ² They said, "Has the LORD spoken only by Moses? Has He not spoken also by us?" And the LORD heard it.

³ (Now the man Moses was very humble, more than all the men on the face of the earth.)

⁴ And the LORD spoke at once to Moses and to Aaron and to Miriam, "Come out, you three, to the tent of meeting." And those three came out. ⁵ The LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood in the opening of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam, and they both came forward. ⁶ He said, "Hear now My word.

If there is a prophet among you,
I the LORD will make Myself known to him in a vision, and I will speak to him in a dream.

⁷ Not so with My servant Moses;
he is entrusted with all My house.

⁸ Face to face I speak with him clearly, and not in riddles,
and the likeness of the LORD will he behold.

Then why were you not afraid to speak against My servant, against Moses?"

[†] About 3 feet, or 90 centimeters. ^{††} Likely about 13/4 tons, or 1.6 metric tons.

⁹ And the anger of the LORD burned against them, and He set out.

¹⁰ When the cloud went away from over the tabernacle, Miriam became leprous as snow, and Aaron turned toward Miriam and saw that she was leprous.

¹¹ Aaron said to Moses, "Alas, my lord, do not lay the sin on us, which we have done foolishly, and which we have sinned. ¹² Do not let her be as dead, who when he goes out of his mother's womb half his flesh is eaten."

¹³ And Moses cried out to the LORD, saying, "O God, heal her, I pray!"

¹⁴ But the LORD said to Moses, "If her father had but spit in her face, would she not be ashamed seven days? Let her be shut out of the camp seven days, and afterward she may be received again." ¹⁵ Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days, and the people did not set out until Miriam was brought in again.

¹⁶ Afterward the people set out from Hazereth and camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

Spying in Canaan

13 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Send men that they may explore the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel. Of every tribe of their fathers you will send a man, each one a chief among them."

³ And Moses sent them from the Wilderness of Paran according to the LORD. All those men were heads of the children of Israel. ⁴ These were their names:

of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zakkur;

⁵ of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori;

⁶ of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

⁷ of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph;

⁸ of the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun;

⁹ of the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu;

¹⁰ of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi;

¹¹ of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi;

¹² of the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli;

¹³ of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael;

¹⁴ of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi;

¹⁵ of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Maki.

¹⁷ Moses sent them to explore the land of Canaan and said to them, "Go up to this southland, and go up into the mountain. ¹⁸ And see what the land is, and the people that dwell in it, whether they are strong or weak, few or many; ¹⁹ and what the land is that they dwell in, whether it is good or bad, and what cities are that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in fortifications; ²⁰ and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean, whether there is wood in it or not. And you be courageous and bring some of the fruit of the land." Now the time was the time of the first ripe grapes.

²¹ So they went up and explored the land from the Wilderness of Zin to Rehob, near Lebo Hamath. ²² They went up by the Negev and came to Hebron where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were (now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt). ²³ And they came to the Valley of Eshkol, and cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they carried it on a pole between two of them, and they brought some of the pomegranates and of the figs. ²⁴ The place was called the Valley of Eshkol because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from there. ²⁵ They returned from exploring the land after forty days.

The Spies' Report

²⁶ And they returned and came to Moses and to Aaron and to all the assembly of the children of Israel, to the Wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh, and brought back word to them and to the entire assembly and showed them the fruit of the land. ²⁷ They reported to him and said, "We came to the land where you sent us, and surely it flows with milk and honey, and this is the fruit of it. ²⁸ However, the people are strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are fortified and very great, and also we saw the children of Anak there. ²⁹ The Amalekites dwell in the land of the Negev, and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains, and the Canaanites dwell by the sea and by the edge of the Jordan."

³¹ But the men that went up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people because they are stronger than we." ³² They gave the children of Israel a bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, "The land through which we have gone as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants, and all the people whom we saw in it are men of great stature. ³³ And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come from the giants, and in our eyes we were like grasshoppers, and so we were in their eyes."

Israel Refuses to Enter Canaan

14 And the whole assembly lifted up their voices and cried, and the people wept that night. ² All the children of Israel grumbled against Moses and against Aaron, and the whole assembly said to them, "O that we had died in the land of Egypt! Or that we had died in this wilderness! ³ And why has the LORD brought us to this land to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should become prey? Is it not better for us to return to Egypt?" ⁴ And they said one to another, "Let us select a leader, and let us return to Egypt."

⁵ Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the congregation of the assembly of the children of Israel. ⁶ Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, from the ones who explored the land, tore their clothes. ⁷ And they spoke to all the assembly of the children of Israel, saying, "The land which we passed through to explore it is a very, very good land. ⁸ If the LORD delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land which flows with milk and honey. ⁹ Only do not rebel against the LORD, nor fear the people of the land because they are bread for us. Their defense is gone from them, and the LORD is with us. Do not fear them."

¹⁰ But all the assembly said, "Stone them with stones." And the glory of the LORD appeared at the tent of meeting before all the children of Israel. ¹¹ The LORD said to Moses, "How long will this people disgrace Me? And how long will they not believe Me, in spite of all the signs which I have done among them? ¹² I will strike them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make from you a nation greater and mightier than they."

Moses Intercedes for the People

¹³ Moses said to the LORD, "Then the Egyptians will hear of it, for by Your power You brought this people up from among them, ¹⁴ and they will say to the inhabitants of this land that they heard that You, LORD, are among this people, that You, LORD, are seen face to face, and Your cloud stands over them, and in the pillar of cloud You go before them by day and by a pillar of fire at night. ¹⁵ Now if You kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of You will speak, saying, ¹⁶ 'The LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which He swore to them, so He slaughtered them in the wilderness.'

¹⁷ "So now, I pray, let the power of my Lord be great, just as You have spoken, saying, ¹⁸ 'The LORD is slow to anger and abounding in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generation.' ¹⁹ Pardon the iniquity of this people, I pray, according to the greatness of Your grace, just as You have pardoned this people, from Egypt even until now."

²⁰ The LORD said, "I have forgiven according to your word. ²¹ But truly as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of the LORD. ²² Because all those men seeing My glory and My signs which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted Me now these ten times, and have not listened to My voice, ²³ surely they will not see the land which I swore to their fathers, nor will any of them who disgraced Me see it. ²⁴ But My servant Caleb, because he had a different spirit with him and followed Me fully, I will bring him into the land where he went, and his seed will possess it. ²⁵ Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites lived in the valley. Tomorrow you will turn, and you will set out for the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea."

Death of Rebels Predicted

²⁶ The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: ²⁷ How long will this evil assembly be murmuring against Me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel which they murmur against Me. ²⁸ Say to them, "As I live," says the LORD, "just as you have spoken in My ears, so I will do to you. ²⁹ In this wilderness your corpses will fall, and all who were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against Me, ³⁰ you will not go into the land which I swore by My hand to cause you to dwell in it, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun. ³¹ But your children, whom you said would be a prey, I will bring them in and they will know the land, which you rejected. ³² But as for you, your corpses will fall in this wilderness. ³³ Your children will be shepherds in the wilderness forty years, and they will suffer for your fornications, until your corpses are in the wilderness. ³⁴ According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days, a year for each day you will bear your iniquity, forty years, and you will know My displeasure." ³⁵ I the LORD have spoken. I will surely do this to all this evil assembly gathered against Me. In this wilderness they will be finished, and there they will die.

³⁶ The men whom Moses sent to explore the land, who returned and made all the assembly murmur against him by bringing up an evil report about the land, ³⁷ the men who brought an evil report about the land, died by the pestilence before the LORD. ³⁸ But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, from the men that went to explore the land, lived.

Defeat in Battle

³⁹ Moses spoke these words to all the children of Israel, and the people mourned greatly. ⁴⁰ They rose up early in the morning, and they went up to the top of the mountain, saying, "Here we are. We will go up to the place which the LORD has promised, for we have sinned."

⁴¹ Moses said, "Why do you now transgress the commandment of the LORD? This will not prosper. ⁴² Do not go up, for the LORD is not among you; do not let yourselves be defeated by your enemies. ⁴³ For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and you will fall by the sword because you are turned from the LORD, and the LORD will not be with you."

⁴⁴ But they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain. But the ark of the covenant of the LORD and Moses did not depart from the midst of the camp. ⁴⁵ Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who dwelt on that mountain went down and defeated them, pursuing them as far as Hormah.

Laws of Grain and Drink Offerings

15 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: When you come into the land of your dwelling, which I am giving to you, ³ when you make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or as a freewill offering, or in your appointed feasts, to make a pleasing aroma to the LORD, of the herd or of the flock, ⁴ then he who brings his offering to the LORD will bring a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah [†] of flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin ^{††} of oil. ⁵ One-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering you will prepare with the burnt offering or sacrifice, for each lamb.

⁶ Or for a ram, you will make a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah [‡] of flour mixed with one-third of a hin ^{††} of oil. ⁷ As a drink offering you will offer one-third of a hin of wine, as a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

⁸ When you prepare a bull as a burnt offering, or as a sacrifice in performing a vow, or as a peace offering to the LORD, ⁹ then shall be brought with the bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah ^{‡‡} of flour mixed with one-half a hin ^{†††} of oil. ¹⁰ You will bring as a drink offering one-half a hin of wine, as a fire offering, as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. ¹¹ Thus it will be done for one herd animal, or for one ram, or for a flock animal, whether from the sheep or from the goats. ¹² According to the number that you will make, so you will do for every one according to their number.

¹⁷ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁸ Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: When you come into the land where I bring you, ¹⁹ then it will be, when you eat of the bread of the land you will offer up an offering to the LORD. ²⁰ From the first of your dough you will offer a cake as an offering. As you make the offering of the threshing floor, so will you offer it. ²¹ Of the first of your dough you will give to the LORD an offering throughout your generations.

[†] Likely about 3 1/2 pounds, or 1.6 kilograms. ^{††} About 1 quart, or 1 liter; and in v. 5. [‡] Likely about 7 pounds, or 3.2 kilograms. ^{‡‡} About 1 1/3 quarts, or 1.3 liters; and in v. 7. ^{†††} Likely about 11 pounds, or 5 kilograms. ^{††††} About 2 quarts, or 1.9 liters; and in v. 10.

Laws About Unintentional Sins

²² If you have erred and not observed all these commandments which the LORD has spoken to Moses, ²³ even all that the LORD has commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses and onward through your generations, ²⁴ then it will be, if it is committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the assembly, that all the assembly will offer one young bull as a burnt offering, as a pleasing aroma to the LORD, with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the rule, and one kid of the goats as a sin offering. ²⁵ The priest will make atonement for all the assembly of the children of Israel, and it will be forgiven them because it is ignorance, and they will bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance. ²⁶ And it will be forgiven all the assembly of the children of Israel and the foreigner who lives among them, because all the people were in ignorance.

²⁷ If a person sins unintentionally, then he will bring a year-old female goat as a sin offering. ²⁸ The priest will make an atonement for the person who sins unintentionally, when he sins by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it will be forgiven him. ²⁹ You shall have one law for the person who acts through ignorance, for the natural-born citizen among the children of Israel and foreigner who lives in your midst.

Laws About Intentional Sins

³⁰ But the person who acts by a high hand, the natural-born citizen or the foreigner, the same reviles the LORD, and that person will be cut off from among his people. ³¹ Because he has despised the word of the LORD and has broken His commandment, that person will be totally cut off. His iniquity will be on him.

The Sabbath-Breaker Executed

³² While the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man who gathered sticks on the Sabbath day. ³³ The ones who found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron and to all the assembly. ³⁴ They put him in confinement because it was not declared what should be done to him. ³⁵ The LORD said to Moses, "The man will surely die. All the assembly will stone him with stones outside the camp." ³⁶ All the assembly brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones, and he died as the LORD commanded Moses.

Tassels on Garments

³⁷ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ³⁸ Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them to make for themselves tassels on the corners of their garments throughout the generations to come, and they will put a ribbon of blue on the corners of their garments.

³⁹ And it will be for you a tassel, and you will see it, and you will remember all the commandments of the LORD, and you will do them, and you will not follow the lust of your own heart and your own eyes. ⁴⁰ So shall you remember and do all My commandments, and be holy to your God. ⁴¹ I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God.

Opposition to Moses and Aaron

16 Now Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, and On the son of Peleth, sons of Reuben, took men, ² and they rose up before Moses and men of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty chiefs of the assembly, famous in the assembly, well-known men. ³ They assembled against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, "You take too much upon yourselves, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the LORD is among them. So why do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?"

⁴ And when Moses heard it, he fell on his face, ⁵ and he spoke to Korah and to all his company, saying, "In the morning the LORD will show who is His and who is holy, and He will bring him to come near to Him. Whom He has chosen He will bring near to Him. ⁶ Do this: Take censers, Korah and all his company; ⁷ put fire in them, and put incense in them before the LORD tomorrow, and it will be that the man whom the LORD chooses, he will be holy. You take too much upon yourselves, sons of Levi."

⁸ Moses said to Korah, "Listen, please, sons of Levi. ⁹ Does it seem a small thing to you that the God of Israel has separated you from the assembly of Israel to bring you near to Himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the assembly to minister to them? ¹⁰ And He has brought you near to Him, and all your brothers, the sons of Levi, with you, and you also seek the priesthood? ¹¹ Therefore both you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD, and who is Aaron that you murmur against him?"

¹² And Moses sent for Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab, who said, "We will not come up. ¹³ Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land that flows with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness because you make yourself a prince over us? ¹⁴ Moreover you have not brought us into a land that flows with milk and honey nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up."

¹⁵ Moses was very angry and said to the LORD, "Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, nor have I hurt one of them."

¹⁶ Moses said to Korah, "You and all your company be before the LORD, you and them and Aaron, tomorrow.

²² They fell on their faces and said, "O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, will one man sin and You will be angry with all the assembly?"

²³ And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁴ Speak to the assembly, saying: Get up from around the tents of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

²⁸ Moses said, "By this you will know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works, because I have not done them of my own mind. ²⁹ If these men die the common death of all men, or if they are visited after the visitation of all men, then the LORD has not sent me. ³⁰ But if the LORD makes a new thing, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the pit, then you will know that these men have despised the LORD."

³¹ So it was, when he finished speaking all these words, that the ground that was under them split open. ³² And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, and their houses, and all the men that belonged to Korah, and all their goods. ³³ And they and all that belonged to them went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed on them, and they perished from among the assembly. ³⁴ All Israel that was around them fled at their cry because they said, "The earth will swallow us also."

³⁵ A fire went out from the LORD and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

³⁹ So Eleazar the priest took the bronze censers, which those who were burned had offered, and they were hammered out as a covering on the altar, ⁴⁰ to be a memorial to the children of Israel, that no outsider, who is not of the descendants of Aaron, shall approach to offer incense before the LORD, that he might not become like Korah and his company, as the LORD has said to him through Moses.

The People Complain

⁴⁶ Moses said to Aaron, "Take a censer and put fire in it from off the altar, and put in incense, and go quickly to the assembly, and make an atonement for them, because wrath has gone out from the LORD. The plague has begun." ⁴⁷ Aaron took it as Moses commanded and ran into the midst of the assembly, where the plague had begun among the people. He put in incense and made an atonement for the people. ⁴⁸ He stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stopped. ⁴⁹ Now those who died in the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those that died concerning the thing of Korah. ⁵⁰ Aaron returned to Moses, to the door of the tent of meeting, and the plague was stopped.

The Budding of Aaron's Rod

17 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Speak to the children of Israel, and take from them a rod, a rod for the house of their fathers, from all their leaders according to the house of their fathers, twelve rods. Write each man's name on his rod. ³ You will write the name of Aaron on the rod of Levi, because one rod will be for each father's house. ⁴ You will lay them in the tent of meeting before the testimony, where I will meet with you. ⁵ It will be that the rod of the man whom I choose will bud. Thus I will rid myself of the complaints of the children of Israel, that they have been making against you.

⁶ Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and each one of their leaders gave him a rod, one for each leader, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods, and the rod of Aaron was among their rods. ⁷ Moses laid the rods before the LORD in the tent of witness.

⁸ When Moses went into the tent of witness the next day, the rod of Aaron, for the house of Levi, had sprouted. It brought forth buds, produced blossoms, and yielded almonds. ⁹ Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the children of Israel, and they looked, and each man took his rod.

¹⁰ The LORD said to Moses, "Return the rod of Aaron before the testimony, to be kept for a warning to rebels, that you may put an end to their complaints before Me, or else they will die." ¹¹ Moses did so. As the LORD commanded him, so he did.

¹² The children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, "Behold, we expire, we perish, we all perish. ¹³ Anyone approaching the tabernacle of the LORD will die. Are we all to perish?"

Duties of Priests and Levites

18 And the LORD said to Aaron: You and your sons and your father's house with you will bear the iniquity of the sanctuary, and you and your sons with you will bear the iniquity of your priesthood. ² Your brothers also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, bring with you, and let them be joined with you, and minister to you. But you and your sons with you will minister before the tent of witness. ³ They will perform duties for you and for the whole tent; but they will not come near the vessels of the sanctuary or the altar, so that neither they nor you die. ⁴ They will be joined to you and perform the duties of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; no foreigner will come near you.

⁵ You yourselves will perform the duties of the sanctuary and the duties of the altar, so that wrath may never come upon the children of Israel again. ⁶ I Myself have taken your brothers, the Levites, from among the children of Israel; they are given to you as a gift from the LORD to perform the service of the tent of meeting. ⁷ And you and your sons with you will attend to your priesthood for everything at the altar, and within the veil, and you will serve. I have given your priesthood to you as a gift service, and the foreigner that comes near will be put to death.

Offerings for Priests and Levites

⁸ The LORD spoke to Aaron: I have certainly given you the charge of the offerings made to Me, all the hallowed gifts of the children of Israel. To you and to your sons have I given them as a portion, as an ordinance forever. ⁹ This will be yours of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: All of their offerings, all of their grain offerings and all of their sin offerings, and all of their guilt offerings, which they render to Me, will be most holy for you and for your sons. ¹⁰ In a most holy place shall you eat it; every male shall eat it. It shall be holy to you.

¹¹ This is yours: the offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Israel. I have given them to you and to your sons and to your daughters with you, as an eternal statute. Everyone who is clean in your house will eat of it.

¹² All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the first fruits of what they will offer to the LORD, those have I given to you. ¹³ The first ripe fruit of all which is in their land, which they will bring to the LORD, will be yours. Everyone who is clean in your house will eat of it.

¹⁴ Everything devoted in Israel will be yours. ¹⁵ Everything that opens the womb of all flesh, which they bring to the LORD, whether it is of men or animals, will be yours. However, you will surely redeem the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of unclean beasts you will redeem. ¹⁶ Their redemption price, reckoned from one month of age, is five shekels, † after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

¹⁷ But the firstborn of a herd animal, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat, you will not redeem. They are holy. You will splash their blood on the altar and will burn their fat as a fire offering, as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. ¹⁸ Their flesh will be yours, as the wave breast and as the right shoulder are yours. ¹⁹ All the offerings of the holy things which the children of Israel offer to the LORD I have given to you, and to your sons and your daughters with you, as an eternal statute. It is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD, to you and to your seed with you.

²⁰ The LORD said to Aaron: You will not have an inheritance in their land, nor will you have any territory among them. I am your territory and your inheritance among the children of Israel.

Tithes for Supporting the Levites

²¹ I have given the children of Levi all the tithes in Israel for an inheritance, for their service, which they serve, even the service of the tent of meeting. ²² Hereafter, the children of Israel shall not come near the tent of meeting, lest they bear sin and die. ²³ But the Levites will do the service of the tent of meeting, and they will bear their iniquity. It will be an eternal statute throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance. ²⁴ But the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as an offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit. Therefore I have said to them, among the children of Israel they will have no inheritance.

The Tithe of the Levites

²⁵ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁶ You will speak to the Levites, and say to them: When you take from the children of Israel the tithes that I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you will offer up an offering of it to the LORD, even one-tenth of the tithe. ²⁷ And this offering will be counted to you, as though it was the grain of the threshing floor, and as the fullness of the winepress. ²⁸ Thus you also will set apart an offering to the LORD from all the tithes which you receive from the children of Israel. Out of them you will give the offering of the LORD to Aaron the priest. ²⁹ Out of all your gifts you shall present every offering due to the LORD, from all the best of them, the consecrated part of them.

³⁰ You will say to them: When you have offered the best from it, then it will be counted to the Levites as the increase of the threshing floor, and as the increase of the winepress. ³¹ You will eat it in every place, you and your households, because it is your reward for your service in the tent of meeting. ³² You will bear no sin because of it, when you have offered the best of it. The holy things of the children of Israel you will not pollute, and you will not die.

Laws of Purification

19 And the LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: ² This is the statute of the law which the LORD has commanded, saying: Tell the children of Israel that they will bring you a healthy red heifer, which has no blemish, and on which a yoke has never gone, ³ and you will give it to Eleazar the priest, and he will bring it outside the camp, and it will be slaughtered before him. ⁴ And Eleazar the priest will take from its blood with his finger and sprinkle some of its blood directly before the tent of meeting seven times. ⁵ Then it will be burned in his sight. Its hide and its flesh and its blood, with her dung, will be burned. ⁶ And the priest will take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet and throw it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. ⁷ Then the priest will wash his clothes, and he will bathe his body in water, and afterward he will come into the camp, and the priest will be unclean until evening. ⁸ He who burns it will wash his clothes in water, and bathe his body in water, and will be unclean until evening.

⁹ A man who is clean will gather the ashes of the heifer and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place, and it will be guarded for the assembly of the children of Israel for water of purification. It is for purifying from sin. ¹⁰ He that gathers the ashes of the heifer will wash his clothes and be unclean until evening, and it will be for the children of Israel and for the foreigner that lives among them, for an eternal statute.

¹¹ He that touches the dead body of any man will be unclean seven days. ¹² He will make himself clean on the third day, and on the seventh day he will be clean. But if he does not make himself clean on the third day, then the seventh day he will not be clean. ¹³ Whoever touches the body of any man that is dead and does not purify himself defiles the tabernacle of the LORD, and that person will be cut off from Israel. Because the water of purification was not sprinkled on him, he will be unclean. His uncleanness is still on him.

¹⁴ This is the law, when a man dies in a tent. Each person who comes into the tent and all that is in the tent will be unclean seven days. ¹⁵ Every open vessel which has no covering fastened on it is unclean.

† About 2 ounces, or 58 grams.

¹⁶ Whoever in the field touches one that is slain with a sword, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave will be unclean seven days.

¹⁷ For an unclean person they will take from the ashes of the burnt sin offering, and running water will be on it in a vessel. ¹⁸ A clean person will take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and splash it on the tent, and on all the vessels, and on the people who were there, and on him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave. ¹⁹ The clean person will splash on the unclean person on the third day and on the seventh day. And on the seventh day he shall purify himself, wash his clothes, and bathe in water; and he will be clean at evening. ²⁰ But the man who is unclean and does not purify himself, that person will be cut off from among the assembly because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of purification has not been sprinkled on him. He is unclean. ²¹ It will be an eternal statute to them.

He that sprinkles the water of purification will wash his clothes, and he that touches the water of purification will be unclean until evening. ²² Whatever the unclean person touches will be unclean, and the person that touches it will be unclean until evening.

Moses Strikes the Rock

20 Then the children of Israel, the whole assembly, came to the Wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people dwelt in Kadesh, and Miriam died there and was buried there.

² And there was no water for the assembly, and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. ³ The people argued with Moses, and spoke, saying, "O that we had died when our brothers died before the LORD! ⁴ And why have you brought up the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our livestock should die here? ⁵ And why have you brought us up from Egypt, to bring us into this evil place? It is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates. Nor is there any water to drink."

⁹ So Moses took the rod from before the LORD, as He commanded him. ¹⁰ Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly before the rock, and he said to them, "Hear now, you rebels. Will we bring out water from this rock for you?" ¹¹ And Moses lifted up his hand, and he struck the rock twice with his rod, and plenty of water came out, and the assembly drank, and their livestock.

¹² The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not believe in Me, to sanctify Me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you will not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them."

¹³ This is the water of Meribah because the children of Israel argued with the LORD, and He was sanctified among them.

Edom Denies Israel Passage

¹⁴ Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom,

"Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the hardship that has found us, ¹⁵ how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians distressed us and our fathers.

¹⁶ And when we cried out to the LORD, He heard our voice and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt.

"And here we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your territory. ¹⁷ Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through the fields or the vineyards, or drink of the water of the wells. We will travel the king's highway. We will not turn to the right hand nor the left, until we have passed through your territory."

¹⁸ Edom said to him,

"You will not pass through me, lest with the sword I come out against you."

¹⁹ The children of Israel said to him,

"We will travel the highway, and if we and our livestock drink of your water, then we will pay for it. I will only go through on my feet without doing anything else."

²⁰ He said,

"You will not go through."

And Edom came out against them with many people and with a strong hand. ²¹ Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory, so Israel turned away from him.

The Death of Aaron

²² They journeyed from Kadesh, and the children of Israel, even the whole assembly, came to Mount Hor.

²⁷ Moses did as the LORD commanded, and they went up onto Mount Hor in the sight of all the assembly. ²⁸ Moses stripped Aaron of his garments and put them on Eleazar his son. And Aaron died there on the top of the mountain, and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. ²⁹ When all the assembly saw that Aaron was dead, they wept for Aaron thirty days, all the house of Israel.

Arad Destroyed

21 When King Arad the Canaanite, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel came by the way of Atharim, he fought against Israel and took some of them captive. ² Israel vowed a vow to the LORD and said, "If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities." ³ The LORD listened to the voice of Israel and delivered up the Canaanites, and they utterly destroyed them and their cities, and he called the name of the place Hormah.

The Bronze Serpent

⁴ They journeyed from Mount Hor by the way of the Red Sea, to go around the land of Edom, and the soul of the people was very discouraged because of the way. ⁵ The people spoke against God and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up from Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread or water, and our soul loathes this worthless manna."

⁶ So the LORD sent poisonous serpents among the people, and they bit the people, and many children of Israel died. ⁷ So the people came to Moses and said, "We have sinned for we have spoken against the LORD and against you. Pray to the LORD, and He will take away the serpents from us." And Moses prayed for the people.

⁸ The LORD said to Moses, "Make a poisonous serpent, and put it on a pole, and it will be, that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, will live." ⁹ Moses made a bronze serpent and put it on a pole, and if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked at the bronze serpent he lived.

The Journey to Moab

¹⁰ The children of Israel set out and camped in Oboth. ¹¹ They journeyed from Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim in the wilderness, which is before Moab toward the sunrise. ¹² From there they journeyed and camped in the Valley of Zered. ¹³ From there they journeyed and camped on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the borders of the Amorites, for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. ¹⁴ Therefore it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD :

"Zahab in Suphah, and in the brooks of Arnon, ¹⁵ and at the stream of the brooks that goes down to the dwelling of Ar, and lies on the border of Moab."

¹⁶ From there they went to Beer. That is the well of which the LORD spoke to Moses, "Gather the people together, and I will give them water."

¹⁷ Then Israel sang this song:
"Spring up, O well!
sing to it—

¹⁸ the leaders dug the well;

the nobles of the people dug,
by the lawgiver, with their staffs."

And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah, ¹⁹ and from Mattanah to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, ²⁰ and from Bamoth in the valley that is in the country of Moab to the top of Pisgah, which looks toward Jeshimon.

King Sihon Defeated

²¹ Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, ²² "Let me pass through your land. We will not turn into the fields nor into the vineyards. We will not drink of the waters of the well. But we will go along by the king's highway until we are past your borders."

²³ Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his border. But Sihon gathered all his people together and went out against Israel into the wilderness, and he came to Jahaz and fought against Israel. ²⁴ Israel defeated him with the edge of the sword and possessed his land from Arnon to Jabbok, all the way to the children of Ammon, because the border of the children of Ammon was strong. ²⁵ Israel took all these cities, and Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its villages. ²⁶ Because Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and taken all his land out of his hand, to Arnon.

²⁷ Therefore they that speak in proverbs say:
"Come into Heshbon; let it be built,
and let the city of Sihon be established, ²⁸ because a fire went out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon;
it has devoured Ar of Moab and the masters of the high places of Arnon.
²⁹ Woe to you, Moab!

You have perished, O people of Chemosh!
He has made his sons fugitives,
and his daughters captives,
to Sihon king of the Amorites.

³⁰ "We have overthrown them;
Heshbon is perished to Dibon, and we have desolated them to Nophah, which reaches to Medeba."

³¹ Thus Israel lived in the land of the Amorites.

King Og Defeated

³² Moses sent to spy out Jazer, and they took its villages and drove out the Amorites who were there.

³³ They turned and went up by the way of Bashan, and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to the battle at Edrei.

³⁴ The LORD said to Moses, "Do not fear him because into your hand I have given him, and all his people, and his land, and you will do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon."

³⁵ So they killed him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was not a survivor left to him alive, and they possessed his land.

Balak Summons Balaam

22 Then the children of Israel set out and camped in the plains of Moab on the other side of the Jordan from Jericho.

² Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. ³ Moab was very afraid of the people because they were many, and Moab was distressed because of the children of Israel.

⁴ Moab said to the elders of Midian, "Now this company will lick up all that are around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field."

And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time. ⁵ He sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor at Pethor, which is by the Euphrates in the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying,

"A people went out from Egypt. They cover the face of the earth, and they dwell next to me. ⁶ And now, please come curse this people for me because they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I will prevail, and we will defeat them, and I will drive them out of the land because I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed."

⁷ The elders of Moab and the elders of Midian went with the divination payments in their hand, and they came to Balaam and spoke to him the words of Balak.

⁸ He said to them, "Lodge here tonight, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD will speak to me." And the leaders of Moab dwelt with Balaam.

⁹ God came to Balaam and said, "Who are these men with you?"

¹⁰ And Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has sent word to me, saying, ¹¹ 'A people went out of Egypt who covers the face of the earth. Now come, curse them for me. Perhaps I will be able to battle them and drive them out.'"

¹² God said to Balaam, "You will not go with them. You will not curse the people because they are blessed."

¹³ So Balaam rose up in the morning and said to the princes of Balak, "Go to your land because the LORD refuses to let me to go with you."

¹⁴ The princes of Moab rose up, and they went to Balak and said, "Balaam refuses to come with us."

¹⁵ Again Balak sent officials, more numerous and more honorable than they. ¹⁶ They came to Balaam and said to him,

"Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, 'Please, let nothing hold you back from coming to me, ¹⁷ because I will promote you to very great honor, and anything you say to me I will do. Come please, curse this people for me.'"

¹⁸ Balaam answered the servants of Balak, "If Balak gave me his house full of silver and gold, I am not able to go beyond the command of the LORD my God, to do less or more. ¹⁹ Now please remain here tonight, that I may know what more the LORD will say to me."

²⁰ God came to Balaam at night and said to him, "If the men come to call you, rise up and go with them. But surely the word which I will say to you, that will you do."

Balaam, the Donkey, and the Angel

²¹ Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab. ²² The anger of God was inflamed because he went, and the angel [†] of the LORD stood in the way as an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him. ²³ The donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and His sword was drawn in His hand, so the donkey turned out of the way and went into the field. Balaam struck the donkey to turn her onto the road.

²⁶ The angel of the LORD went further and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. ²⁷ When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Balaam, and the anger of Balaam was inflamed, and he struck the donkey with a staff. ²⁸ Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

²⁹ And Balaam said to the donkey, "You have mocked me. O that there was a sword in my hand, for now I would kill you."

³⁰ The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey, whom you have ridden since I became yours, to this day? Do I normally do this to you?"

And he said, "No."

³² The angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? I have come out to oppose you, because your way is perverse before Me. ³³ And the donkey saw Me and turned from Me these three times. If she had not turned from Me, surely by now I would have slain you and saved her alive."

³⁴ Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned because I did not know that You stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases You, I will return."

[†] At times the Lord speaks directly through an angel (cf. the story of the burning bush in Ex 3:2-4).

³⁵ The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men. But only speak the word that I tell you to speak." So Balaam went with the leaders of Balak.

³⁶ When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him in a city of Moab which is on the border of Arnon, which is at the furthest end of the border. ³⁷ Balak said to Balaam, "Did I not earnestly send to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Indeed am I not able to honor you?"

³⁸ And Balaam said to Balak, "I have come to you now. But am I able to speak just anything? The word God puts in my mouth is what I will speak."

³⁹ Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath Huzoth. ⁴⁰ Balak offered oxen and sheep and sent them to Balaam and to the officials who were with him.

Balaam's First Prophecy

⁴¹ It came to pass on the next day that Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamoth Baal, and from there he saw the extent of the people.

23 And Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me seven altars, and prepare for me seven oxen and seven rams." ² Balak did as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bull and a ram.

³ Balaam said to Balak, "Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and whatever He shows me I will tell you." And he went to a high place.

⁴ God met Balaam, and he said to Him, "I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered on every altar a bull and a ram."

⁵ The LORD put a word in the mouth of Balaam and said, "Return to Balak, and thus you will speak."

⁶ So he returned to Balak, who was standing by his burnt offering with all the princes of Moab. ⁷ Then Balaam uttered his oracle, saying:

"Balak has brought me from Aram,
the king of Moab from the mountains of the east, saying, 'Come, curse Jacob for me,
and come, defy Israel!'

⁸ How will I curse whom God has not cursed?

Or how will I defy whom the LORD has not defied?

⁹ For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him;
there, the people will dwell alone and will not be counted among the nations.

¹⁰ Who can count the dust of Jacob and the number of the fourth part of Israel?
Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!"

¹¹ And Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but now you have certainly blessed them."

¹² He answered and said, "Must I not take heed to speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?"

Balaam's Second Prophecy

¹³ And Balak said to him, "Please come with me to another place from where you may see them. You will see part of them, but will not see them all. Curse them for me from there." ¹⁴ He brought him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

¹⁵ He said to Balak, "Stand here by your burnt offerings while I meet the LORD over there."

¹⁶ The LORD met Balaam and put a word in his mouth and said, "Go again to Balak, and thus you will speak."

¹⁷ When he came to him, he was standing by his burnt offerings with the princes of Moab. And Balak said to him, "What has the LORD spoken?"

¹⁸ And he took up his parable and said:
"Rise up, Balak, and hear!

Listen to me, you son of Zippor!
¹⁹ God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should repent.
Has He spoken, and will He not do it?

Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?
²⁰ See, I have received a commandment to bless, and He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it.

²¹ "He has not beheld iniquity in Jacob, nor has He seen perverseness in Israel.
The LORD his God is with him, and the shout of a king is among them.

²² God, who brings them out of Egypt, has strength like a wild ox.

²³ Surely there is no enchantment against Jacob, nor is there any divination against Israel.
For this time it will be said of Jacob and of Israel,
'See what God has done!'

²⁴ A people rises up as a great lion, and lifts itself up like a lion;
it shall not lie down until it eats the prey and drinks the blood of the slain."

²⁵ Balak said to Balaam, "Do not curse them at all, nor bless them at all."

²⁶ But Balaam answered and said to Balak, "Did I not tell you, saying, 'All that the LORD speaks, I must do?'"

Balaam's Third Prophecy

²⁷ And Balak said to Balaam, "Please come. I will bring you to another place. Perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there." ²⁸ Balak brought Balaam to the top of Peor, which looks toward Jeshimon.

²⁹ Balaam said to Balak, "Build for me seven altars, and prepare for me seven bulls and seven rams."

³⁰ Balak did as Balaam said and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

24 And when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go as other times to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness. ² Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel dwelling in their tents by their tribes, and the Spirit of God came on him. ³ He took up his proverb and said:

"Balaam the son of Beor has said, and the man whose eyes are open has said,
⁴ he has said, who heard the words of God, who saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:
⁵ "How lovely are your tents, O Jacob, and your tabernacles, O Israel!
⁶ "Like palm trees are they spread out, like gardens by the river's side,
like the aloe plant, which the LORD has planted, and like cedar trees beside the waters.
⁷ He will pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed will be in many waters.
"His king will be higher than Agag, and his kingdom will be exalted.
⁸ "God brings him out of Egypt;
he has the horns of a wild ox;
he will eat up the nations, his enemies,
and will break their bones,
and pierce them through with his arrows.
⁹ He crouches, he lies down as a lion, and as a lion, who will stir him up?
"Blessed is he who blesses you,
and cursed is he who curses you."
¹⁰ The anger of Balak was inflamed against Balaam, and he struck his hands together. And Balak said to Balaam, "I called you to curse my enemies, and indeed, you have certainly blessed them these three times. ¹¹ Now flee to your own place. I thought to promote you to great honor. But certainly, the LORD has kept you back from honor."
¹² Balaam said to Balak, "Did I not speak to your messengers which you sent to me, saying, ¹³ 'If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the mouth of the LORD, to do either good or bad of my own mind. But what the LORD speaks, I will speak?' ¹⁴ And now, I am going to my people. Come, I will advise you what this people will do to your people in the latter days."

Balaam's Fourth Prophecy

¹⁵ He took up his parable and said:
"The oracle of Balaam the son of Beor, and the oracle of the man whose eyes are open;
¹⁶ the oracle of the one hearing the words of God, and knowing the knowledge of the Most High,
who sees the vision of the Almighty,
falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:
¹⁷ "I will see him, but not now;
I will behold him, but not near;
a star will come out of Jacob,
and a scepter will rise out of Israel,
and will crush the borderlands of Moab,
and destroy all the children of Sheth.

¹⁸ Edom will be a possession, and Seir, a possession of its enemies,
while Israel does valiantly.
¹⁹ One out of Jacob shall have dominion, and destroy the survivors of the city."
²⁰ Then he looked on Amalek; he took up his proverb and said:
"Amalek was the first of the nations, but his end will be that he perishes forever."
²¹ He looked on the Kenites and took up his proverb and said:
"Strong is your dwelling place,
and you put your nest in a rock;
²² nevertheless the Kenite will be wasted.
How long until Ashur carries you away captive?"
²³ He took up his proverb and said:
"Alas, who will live when God does this?
²⁴ And ships will come from the coasts of Cyprus and will afflict Ashur and will afflict Eber, and he also will perish forever."
²⁵ Balaam rose up and went and returned to his place, and Balak also went his way.

Moab Seduces Israel

25 While Israel dwelt in Shittim, the people began to commit harlotry with the women of Moab.
² They called the people to the sacrifices of their gods, and the people ate and bowed down to their gods.
³ Israel joined himself to the Baal of Peor, and the anger of the LORD was inflamed against Israel.
⁴ The LORD said to Moses, "Take all the chiefs of the people and hang them before the LORD in the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD turn from Israel."
⁵ Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Kill each of the men who have aligned themselves with the Baal of Peor."
¹⁰ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ¹¹ "Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned My wrath away from the children of Israel, because he was zealous for My sake among them, so I did not exterminate the children of Israel in My zeal. ¹² Therefore say, 'I hereby grant him My covenant of peace. ¹³ And it will be for him and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood, because he was zealous for his God and made an atonement for the children of Israel.'"

¹⁴ Now the name of the slain Israelite who was slain with the Midianite woman was Zimri the son of Salu, a leader of a chief house among the Simeonites. ¹⁵ The name of the Midianite woman that was slain was Kozbi the daughter of Zur. He was chief over a people and of a father's house in Midian.

¹⁶ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁷ "Be hostile to the Midianites, and defeat them, ¹⁸ because they have been hostile to you with their wives, with which they have deceived you in the matter of Peor and in the matter of Kozbi the daughter of a leader of Midian, their sister, who was slain on the day of the plague because of Peor."

The Second Census

26 After the plague, the LORD spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, saying, ² "Take the count of all the assembly of the children of Israel from twenty years old and older, throughout their fathers' houses, all that are able to go to war in Israel." ³ Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying, ⁴ "Take the count of the people from twenty years old and older," as the LORD commanded Moses.

The children of Israel, who went out of the land of Egypt, were these:

⁵ Reuben, the oldest son of Israel. The children of Reuben:

of Hanok, from whom comes the family of the Hanokites;

of Pallu, the family of the Palluites;

⁶ of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites;

of Karmi, the family of the Karmites.

⁷ These are the families of the Reubenites: those who were counted were forty-three thousand seven hundred and thirty.

¹⁰ And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them with Korah when that company died, when the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men, and they became a sign. ¹¹ But the children of Korah did not die.

¹² The sons of Simeon by their families were:

of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites;

of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites;

of Jakin, the family of the Jakinites;

¹³ of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites;

of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites.

¹⁴ These are the families of the Simeonites: twenty-two thousand two hundred.

¹⁵ The children of Gad by their families were:

of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites;

of Haggi, the family of the Haggites;

of Shuni, the family of the Shunites;

¹⁶ of Ozni, the family of the Oznites;

of Eri, the family of the Erites;

¹⁷ of Arodi, the family of the Arodites;

of Areli, the family of the Arelites.

¹⁸ These are the families of the children of Gad according to those by their count: forty thousand five hundred.

¹⁹ The sons of Judah were Er and Onan, and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

²⁰ The sons of Judah after their families were:

of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites;

of Perez, the family of the Perezites;

of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites.

²¹ The sons of Perez were:

of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites;

of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites.

²² These are the families of Judah by their count: seventy-six thousand five hundred.

of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites.

²⁷ These are the families of the Zebulunites by their count: sixty thousand five hundred.

²⁸ The sons of Joseph according to their families, by Manasseh and Ephraim, were:

²⁹ The sons of Manasseh:

of Makir, the family of the Makirites, and Makir begot Gilead;

of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites.

³⁰ These are the sons of Gilead:

of Iezer, the family of the Iezerites;

of Helek, the family of the Helekites;

³¹ and of Asriel, the family of the Asrielites;

and of Shechem, the family of the Shechemites;

³² and of Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; and of Hephher, the family of the Hephherites.

³³ Zelophehad the son of Hephher had no sons, but daughters, and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milkah, and Tirzah.

³⁴ These are the families of Manasseh, and those who were numbered of them were fifty-two thousand seven hundred.

³⁵ These are the sons of Ephraim according to their families:

of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelahites;

of Beker, the family of the Bekerites;

of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.

³⁶ These are the sons of Shuthelah:

of Eran, the family of the Eranites.

³⁷ These are the families of the sons of Ephraim by their count: thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph by their families.

³⁸ The sons of Benjamin by their families were:

- of Bela, the family of the Belaites;
- of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites;
- of Ahiham, the family of the Ahihamites;
- ³⁹ of Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites;
- of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites.

⁴⁰ The sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman:

- of Ard, the family of the Ardites;
- and of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.

⁴¹ These are the sons of Benjamin by their families, and by their count: forty-five thousand six hundred.

⁴² These are the sons of Dan according to their families:

- of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites.

These are the families of Dan after their families. ⁴³ All the families of the Shuhamites, by their count, were sixty-four thousand four hundred.

⁴⁴ The sons of Asher by their families were:

- of Imnah, the family of the Imnites;
- of Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites;
- of Beriah, the family of the Beriites.

⁴⁵ of the sons of Beriah were:

- of Heber, the family of the Heberites;
- of Malkiel, the family of the Malkielites.

⁴⁶ The name of the daughter of Asher was Serah.

⁴⁷ These are the families of the sons of Asher by their count: fifty-three thousand four hundred.

⁴⁸ Of the sons of Naphtali by their families were:

- of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites;
- of Guni, the family of the Gunites;

⁴⁹ of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites;

- of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites.

⁵⁰ These are the families of Naphtali according to their families; those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand four hundred.

⁵¹ These were the counted of the children of Israel: six hundred and one thousand, seven hundred and thirty.

⁵² The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ⁵³ To these the land will be divided for an inheritance by the number of names. ⁵⁴ To a large tribe you shall give a large inheritance, and to small tribe you shall give a small inheritance. To each one his inheritance will be given according to those who were numbered of him. ⁵⁵ But the land will be divided by lot. By the names of the tribes of their fathers they will inherit. ⁵⁶ According to the lot his possession will be divided between large and small.

⁵⁷ These are those counted of the Levites by their families:

- of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites;
- of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites;
- of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

⁵⁸ These are the families of the Levites:

- the family of the Libnites,
- the family of the Hebronites,

the family of the Mahlites,
the family of the Mushites,
the family of the Korahites.

And Kohath begot Amram. ⁵⁹ And the name of the wife of Amram was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bore to Levi in Egypt, and she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses and Miriam their sister. ⁶⁰ To Aaron was born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ⁶¹ Nadab and Abihu died when they offered foreign fire before the LORD.

⁶² Those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, each male from a month old and older; for they were not counted among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

⁶³ These were counted by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who counted the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho. ⁶⁴ But among these there was not a man counted by Moses and Aaron the priest when they counted the children of Israel in the Wilderness of Sinai ⁶⁵ because the LORD had said of them, "They will surely die in the wilderness." And there was not a man left of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh and Joshua the son of Nun.

Laws of Inheritance

27 Then came near the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milkah, and Tirzah. ² They stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the leaders and all the assembly by the door of the tent of meeting, saying, ³ "Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them that gathered against the LORD, in the company of Korah, but died in his own sin and had no sons. ⁴ Why should the name of our father diminish from among his family, because he has no son? Give to us a possession among the brothers of our father."

⁸ You will speak to the children of Israel, saying, "If a man dies, and has no son, then you will cause his inheritance to pass on to his daughter. ⁹ If he has no daughter, then you will give his inheritance to his brothers. ¹⁰ If he has no brothers, then you will give his inheritance to his father's brothers. ¹¹ If his father has no brothers, then you will give his inheritance to his closest kinsman in his family, and he will possess it. And it will be for the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses."

Joshua to Succeed Moses

¹²The LORD said to Moses, "Go up into this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel. ¹³When you have seen it, you also will be gathered to your people as Aaron your brother was gathered. ¹⁴For you rebelled against My commandment in the Wilderness of Zin when the congregation argued against Me. You did not show My holiness at the waters before their eyes." (These are the waters of Meribah in Kadesh in the Wilderness of Zin.)

¹⁵Moses spoke to the LORD, saying, ¹⁶"Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the assembly ¹⁷who will go out before them, and who will go in before them, and who will lead them out, and who will bring them in, so the assembly of the LORD will not be like sheep who do not have a shepherd."

¹⁸The LORD said to Moses, "Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him, ¹⁹and cause him to stand before Eleazar the priest and before all the assembly, and command in their sight. ²⁰You will put some of your majesty on him, in order that all the assembly of the children of Israel will listen. ²¹He will stand before Eleazar the priest, who will ask for him about the judgment of the Urim before the LORD. At his word will they go out, and at his word they will come in, both he and all the children of Israel with him, even all the assembly."

²²Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and he took Joshua, and he caused him to stand before Eleazar the priest and before all the assembly. ²³And he laid his hands on him and commanded him as the LORD spoke by the hand of Moses.

Daily Offerings

28 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ²Command the children of Israel and say to them: My offering, My bread for My sacrifices made by fire, as a pleasing aroma to Me, you will guard to offer to Me at their time. ³You will say to them: This is the fire offering which you will bring near to the LORD: two male lambs in their first year, without blemish, day by day, as a regular burnt offering. ⁴The one lamb you will offer in the morning, and the other lamb you will offer at evening, ⁵and one-tenth of an ephah [†] of flour as a grain offering, mingled with one-fourth of a hin ^{††} of beaten oil. ⁶It is a regular burnt offering, which was ordained at Mount Sinai as a pleasing aroma, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD. ⁷Its drink offering will be one-fourth of a hin for the one lamb. In a holy place you will pour the strong wine to the LORD as a drink offering. ⁸The other lamb you will offer at evening. As the morning grain offering and its drink offering, you [†] Likely about 31/2 pounds, or 1.6 kilograms; and in vv. 13, 21, and 29. ^{††} About 1 quart, or 1 liter; and in vv. 7 and 14.

will offer it as an offering made by fire, a pleasing aroma to the LORD.

Sabbath Offerings

⁹On the Sabbath day two lambs in their first year, without blemish, and two-tenths of an ephah [‡] of flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, and its drink offering— ¹⁰this is the burnt offering of every Sabbath, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Monthly Offerings

¹¹At the beginnings of your months you will offer a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, seven lambs in their first year, without blemish; ¹²three-tenths of an ephah ^{‡†} of flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for one bull; and two-tenths of an ephah of flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for one ram; ¹³and one-tenth of an ephah of flour mixed with oil as a grain offering for one lamb; as a burnt offering of a pleasing aroma, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD. ¹⁴Their drink offerings will be one-half a hin ^{‡†} of wine for a bull, and one-third of a hin ^{‡‡†} for a ram, and one-fourth of a hin for a lamb. This is the burnt offering of each month throughout the months of the year. ¹⁵Also one male goat as a sin offering to the LORD shall be offered, besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Passover Offerings

Ex 12:14-20; Lev 23:4-8; Dt 16:1-8

¹⁶On the fourteenth day of the first month is the Passover of the LORD. ¹⁷On the fifteenth day of this month is the feast. Unleavened bread will be eaten for seven days. ¹⁸On the first day there will be a holy convocation. You will not do any ordinary work, ¹⁹but you will offer a sacrifice made by fire as a burnt offering to the LORD: two young bulls, and one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. Be sure they are without blemish. ²⁰And their grain offering will be of flour mixed with oil. Three-tenths of an ephah you will offer for a bull, and two-tenths of an ephah for a ram. ²¹One-tenth of an ephah you will offer for each of the seven lambs, ²²and one goat as a sin offering, to make an atonement for you. ²³You will offer these in addition to the burnt offering in the morning, which is for a regular burnt offering. ²⁴The same way you will offer daily, throughout the seven days, the food of the sacrifice made by fire, as a pleasing aroma to the LORD. It will be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering. ²⁵And on the seventh day you will have a holy assembly. You will not do any ordinary work.

[‡] Likely about 7 pounds, or 3.2 kilograms; and in vv. 12, 20, and 28. ^{‡†} Likely about 11 pounds, or 5 kilograms; and in vv. 20 and 28. ^{‡‡} About 2 quarts, or 1.9 liters. ^{‡‡†} About 1 1/3 quarts, or 1.3 liters.

Offerings at the Feast of Weeks

Lev 23:15–22; Dt 16:9–12

²⁶ And on the day of the first fruits, when you bring a new grain offering to the LORD at your Feast of Weeks, you will have a holy assembly. You will do no ordinary work. ²⁷ But you will offer the burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year; ²⁸ and their grain offering of flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of an ephah for one bull, two-tenths of an ephah for one ram, ²⁹ one-tenth of an ephah for each of the seven lambs; ³⁰ and one goat, to make an atonement for you. ³¹ Make sure they are without blemish. You will offer them with their drink offerings, besides the regular burnt offering and its grain offering.

Lev 23:23–25

29 In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you will have a holy assembly. You will do no ordinary work. It is a day of blowing the trumpets for you. ² You will offer a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to the LORD: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year, without blemish; ³ their grain offering will be of flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of an ephah † for a bull, and two-tenths of an ephah †† for a ram, ⁴ and one-tenth of an ephah ‡ for one lamb, for the seven lambs; ⁵ also one goat as a sin offering, to make an atonement for you; ⁶ besides the burnt offering of the month and its grain offering, and the daily burnt offering and its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to their rule, as a pleasing aroma, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD.

Offerings on the Day of Atonement

Lev 16:2–34; 23:26–32

⁷ You will have a holy assembly on the tenth day of this seventh month, and you will afflict yourselves. You will not do any work on it. ⁸ But you will offer a burnt offering to the LORD as a pleasing aroma: one young bull, one ram, and seven lambs in their first year. Be sure they are without blemish. ⁹ Their grain offering will be of flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of an ephah for the bull, and two-tenths of an ephah for one ram, ¹⁰ and one-tenth of an ephah for each of the seven lambs; ¹¹ also one goat as a sin offering in addition to the sin offering of atonement, and the regular burnt offering, and its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Offerings at the Feast of Tabernacles

Lev 23:33–43; Dt 16:13–17

¹² On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you will have a holy convocation. You will do no ordinary work, † Likely about 11 pounds, or 5 kilograms; and in vv. 9 and 14.

†† Likely about 7 pounds, or 3.2 kilograms; and in vv. 9 and 14.

‡ Likely about 31/2 pounds, or 1.6 kilograms; and in vv. 10 and 15.

and you will keep a feast to the LORD seven days.

¹³ And you will offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, as a pleasing aroma to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs in their first year, without blemish. ¹⁴ And their grain offering will be of flour mixed with oil, three-tenths of an ephah to a bull, and two-tenths of an ephah to each ram of the two rams, ¹⁵ and one-tenth to each lamb of the fourteen lambs; ¹⁶ and one goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

²⁰ On the third day present eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish, ²¹ and their grain offering and their drink offerings, for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance; ²² also one goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering, and its grain offering, and its drink offering.

³² On the seventh day present seven bulls, two rams, and fourteen lambs in their first year without blemish, ³³ and their grain offering and their drink offerings, for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number according to the ordinance; ³⁴ also one goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

³⁵ On the eighth day you will have a solemn assembly. You will do no ordinary work on it. ³⁶ But you will offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire as a pleasing aroma to the LORD: one bull, one ram, seven lambs in their first year, without blemish. ³⁷ Their grain offering and their drink offerings, for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, will be according to their number, according to the rule; ³⁸ also one goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering, and its grain offering, and its drink offering.

³⁹ These things you will do to the LORD in your set feasts in addition to your vows and your freewill offerings, as your burnt offerings, and as your grain offerings, and as your drink offerings, and as your peace offerings.

⁴⁰ Moses told the children of Israel everything, according to all that the LORD commanded Moses.

The Law About Vows

30 And Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, saying: This is the thing that the LORD has commanded. ² If a man vows a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind himself with a bond, he will not break his word. He will do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

⁶ If she had a husband when she vowed, or uttered anything out of her lips with which she bound herself, ⁷ and her husband heard it and was silent to her in the day that he heard it, then her vows will stand, and her bonds with which she bound herself will stand. ⁸ But if her husband restrains her on the day that he heard it, then he will make her vow which she vowed and that which she uttered with her lips, with which she bound herself, of no effect, and the LORD will forgive her.

¹⁰ If she vowed in her husband's house, or bound herself by a bond with an oath, ¹¹ and her husband heard it and was silent to her and did not restrain her, then all her vows will stand, and every bond with which she bound herself will stand. ¹² But if her husband has clearly voided them on the day he heard them, then whatever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of herself, will not stand. Her husband has voided them, and the LORD will forgive her. ¹³ Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict her soul, her husband may establish, or her husband may nullify. ¹⁴ But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he confirms all her vows, or all her pledges, which bind her. He confirms them because he said nothing to her on the day that he heard them. ¹⁵ But if he clearly makes them void after he has heard them, then he will bear her iniquity.

¹⁶ These are the statutes which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, and between the father and his daughter, while she is still young and in her father's house.

Vengeance on the Midianites

31 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Avenge the children of Israel on the Midianites. Afterward you will be gathered to your people."

⁴ A thousand from each tribe, throughout all the tribes of Israel, you will send to the war." ⁵ So there were delivered from the thousands of Israel a thousand of each tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. ⁶ Moses sent them to the war, a thousand from each tribe, with Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, with the holy vessels and the trumpets to sound the alarm in his hand.

⁷ They waged war against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses, and they killed every male. ⁸ They killed the kings of Midian, in addition to the rest of those who were killed: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian. Balaam the son of Beor they also killed with the sword. ⁹ The children of Israel returned with the women of Midian and their children and took their livestock, and all their flocks, and all their wealth for plunder. ¹⁰ They burned with fire all their cities in which they lived and all their camps. ¹¹ They took all the plunder and all the prey of men and of beasts. ¹² They brought the captives, the prey, and the plunder to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, to the assembly of the children of Israel, and to the camp on the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan across from Jericho.

¹⁴ Moses was angry with the officers of the army, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, who came from the battle.

¹⁵ Moses said to them, "Have you saved all the women alive? ¹⁶ These caused the children of Israel, through the word of Balaam, to act unfaithfully against the LORD concerning the thing of Peor, and there was a plague among the assembly of the LORD. ¹⁷ So now kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known a man by lying with him. ¹⁸ But keep alive for yourselves all the young girls who have not known a man by lying with him.

²¹ Eleazar the priest said to the fighting men of Israel who went to the battle, "This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses: ²² Only the gold, and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead, ²³ everything that can go through the fire, you will make it go through the fire, and it will be clean, but some of it will be purified with the water of purification, and all that cannot pass through the fire you will make go through the water. ²⁴ You will wash your clothes on the seventh day, and you will be clean, and afterward you will come into the camp."

Dividing the Plunder

²⁵ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁶ "Take the count of the plunder that was taken, of man and of beast, you and Eleazar the priest, and the chief of the fathers of the assembly. ²⁷ And divide the prey into two parts between those that took the war on themselves, who went out to battle, and between all the assembly. ²⁸ And levy a tribute to the LORD from the fighting men of Israel who went out to battle: one person out of five hundred, of the people and of the oxen, and of the donkeys, and of the sheep; ²⁹ take it from their half, and give it to Eleazar the priest as an offering to the LORD. ³⁰ Of the half of the children of Israel, you will take one portion of fifty, of the people, of the oxen, of the donkeys, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them to the Levites, who keep the guard of the tabernacle of the LORD." ³¹ Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

³² The plunder, being the rest of the prey, which the fighting men of Israel had caught, was six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep, ³³ seventy-two thousand oxen, ³⁴ and sixty-one thousand donkeys, ³⁵ and thirty-two thousand people in all, of women who had not known a man by lying with him.

³⁶ The half, which was the portion of those that went out to war, was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep.

³⁷ And the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five.

³⁸ The oxen were thirty-six thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was seventy-two.

³⁹ The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred, of which the LORD's tribute was sixty-one.

⁴⁰ The people were sixteen thousand, of which the LORD's tribute was thirty-two people.

⁴¹ Moses gave the tribute which was the LORD's offering to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses.

⁴² Of the half of the children of Israel, which Moses divided from the men who fought, ⁴³ the half belonging to the assembly was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep, ⁴⁴ thirty-six thousand oxen, ⁴⁵ thirty thousand five hundred donkeys, ⁴⁶ and sixteen thousand people. ⁴⁷ From the half of the children of Israel Moses took one out of fifty, of man and of beast, and gave them to the Levites, who kept the guard of the tabernacle of the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses.

⁴⁸ The officers who were over thousands of the army, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near to Moses, ⁴⁹ and they said to Moses, "Your servants have taken the count of the fighting men of Israel who are in our hand, and not a man of us is missing. ⁵⁰ We have brought an offering for the LORD, what every man has gotten of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and pendants, to make an atonement for ourselves before the LORD."

⁵¹ Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold from them, all in the form of fashioned articles. ⁵² All the gold of the offering that they offered up to the LORD, of the captains of thousands and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels. ⁵³ The fighting men of Israel had taken plunder, each man for himself. ⁵⁴ And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD.

The Tribes Settling in Gilead

32 Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great number of livestock, and when they saw the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead was a place for livestock, ² the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the leaders of the assembly, saying, ³ "Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Sebam, and Nebo, and Beon, ⁴ the land which the LORD defeated before the assembly of Israel is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock." ⁵ And they said, "If we have found mercy in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession, and do not take us over the Jordan."

⁶ Moses said to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuben, "Will your brothers go to war, and you will dwell here? ⁷ And why would you discourage the hearts of the children of Israel from going over into the land which the LORD has given to them? ⁸ Thus your fathers did, when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to see the land. ⁹ When they went up to the Valley of Eshkol and saw the land, they discouraged the hearts of the children of Israel so they would not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

¹⁰ And the anger of the LORD was inflamed on that day, and He swore, saying, ¹¹ 'Surely none of the men who came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and older, will see the ground which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, because they did not completely follow Me, ¹² except Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun, because they completely followed the LORD.' ¹³ The anger of the LORD was inflamed against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that did evil in the eyes of the LORD was finished.

¹⁴ "Behold, you have risen up in your fathers' place, an increase of sinful men, to increase more the burning anger of the LORD toward Israel. ¹⁵ If you turn away from following Him, He will again abandon them in the wilderness, and you will destroy all this people."

²⁰ Moses said to them, "If you will do this thing, if you will be armed before the LORD for war, ²¹ and all of you, each armed, will go over the Jordan before the LORD until He has driven out His enemies from before Him ²² and the land is subdued before the LORD, then after that you will return and be exempt before the LORD and before Israel, and this land will be your possession before the LORD .

²³ "But if you will not do so, you have sinned against the LORD, and be sure your sin will find you out.

²⁵ The children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, "Your servants will do as my lord commands. ²⁶ Our children, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock will be there in the cities of Gilead, ²⁷ but your servants will cross over, each man armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord says."

³¹ The children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, "As the LORD has said to your servants, so we will do. ³² We will cross over, armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, so the possession of our inheritance on this side of the Jordan may be ours."

³³ Moses gave to the children of Gad, to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land with the cities within the borders, the cities of the surrounding land.

³⁴ The children of Gad built Dibon and Ataroth and Aroer, ³⁵ Atroth Shophan and Jazer and Jogbehah, ³⁶ Beth Nimrah and Beth Haran, fortified cities, and folds for sheep. ³⁷ And the children of Reuben built Heshbon and Elealeh and Kiriathaim, ³⁸ Nebo and Baal Meon (their names being changed) and Sibmah; and they named the other cities which they built.

³⁹ The children of Makir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead and captured it and drove out the Amorites who were in it. ⁴⁰ Moses gave Gilead to Makir the son of Manasseh, and he lived in it. ⁴¹ Jair the son of Manasseh went and captured its small towns and called them Havvoth Jair. ⁴² Nobah went and captured Kenath and its villages and called it Nobah, after his own name.

Recounting Israel's Journey

33 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. ² Moses recorded the starting points of their journeys at the command of the LORD. These are their journeys according to their starting points.

³ They set out from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month. On the day after the Passover the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians, ⁴ because the Egyptians buried all their firstborn, whom the LORD had killed among them. Upon their gods the LORD executed judgments.

⁵ The children of Israel set out from Rameses and camped in Sukkoth.

⁶ They set out from Sukkoth and camped in Etham, which is on the edge of the wilderness.

⁷ They set out from Etham and turned to Pi Hahiroth, which is before Baal Zephon, and they camped before Migdol.

⁹ They set out from Marah, and came to Elim, and in Elim were twelve fountains of water and seventy palm trees, and they camped there.

¹⁰ They set out from Elim and camped by the Red Sea.

¹¹ They set out from the Red Sea and camped in the Wilderness of Sin.

¹² They set out from the Wilderness of Sin and camped in Dophkah.

¹³ They set out from Dophkah and camped in Alush.

¹⁴ They set out from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

¹⁵ They set out from Rephidim and camped in the Wilderness of Sinai.

¹⁶ They set out from the Wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah.

¹⁷ They set out from Kibroth Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth.

¹⁸ They set out from Hazeroth and camped in Rithmah.

¹⁹ They set out from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perez.

²⁰ They set out from Rimmon Perez and camped in Libnah.

²¹ They set out from Libnah and camped at Rissah.

²² They set out from Rissah and camped in Kehelathah.

²³ They set out from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher.

²⁴ They set out from Mount Shepher and camped in Haradah.

²⁵ They set out from Haradah and camped in Makheloth.

²⁶ They set out from Makheloth and camped at Tahath.

²⁷ They set out from Tahath and camped at Terah.

²⁸ They set out from Terah and camped in Mithkah.

²⁹ They went from Mithkah and camped in Hashmonah.

³⁰ They set out from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.

³¹ They set out from Moseroth and camped in Bene Jaakan.

³² They set out from Bene Jaakan and camped at Hor Haggidgad.

³³ They set out from Hor Haggidgad and camped in Jotbathah.

³⁴ They set out from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah.

³⁵ They set out from Abronah and camped at Ezion Geber.

³⁶ They set out from Ezion Geber and camped in the Wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh.

³⁷ They set out from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, at the edge of the land of Edom. ³⁸ Aaron the priest went up onto Mount Hor at the word of the LORD and died there in the fortieth year after the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the first day of the fifth month. ³⁹ Aaron was one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

⁴⁰ King Arad the Canaanite, who lived in the south in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.

⁴¹ They set out from Mount Hor and camped in Zalmonah.

⁴² They set out from Zalmonah and camped in Punon.

⁴³ They set out from Punon and camped in Oboth.

⁴⁴ They set out from Oboth and camped in Iye Abarim, on the border of Moab.

⁴⁵ They set out from Iye Abarim and camped in Dibon Gad.

⁴⁶ They set out from Dibon Gad and camped in Almon Diblathaim.

⁴⁷ They set out from Almon Diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.

⁴⁸ They set out from the mountains of Abarim and camped in the plains of Moab near Jordan of Jericho.

⁴⁹ They camped by Jordan, from Beth Jeshimoth to Abel Shittim in the plains of Moab.

Instructions for Conquering Canaan

⁵⁰ The LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying: ⁵¹ Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them: When you are crossing over Jordan into the land of Canaan, ⁵² then you will drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and destroy all their carved images, and destroy all their molded images, and destroy all their high places, ⁵³ and you will drive out the inhabitants of the land and dwell in it, because I have given you the land to inherit it. ⁵⁴ You will possess the land by lot for an inheritance among your families, and to the larger you will give the larger inheritance, and to the smaller you will give the smaller inheritance. Every man's inheritance will be in the place where his lot falls. By the tribes of your fathers you will inherit.

⁵⁵ But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those whom you let remain will be like thorns in your eyes and thorns in your sides. They will show hostility to you in the land in which you live. ⁵⁶ And what I had planned to do to them, I will do to you.

The Borders of Canaan

34 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ² Command the children of Israel, and say to them: When you are going into the land of Canaan, this is the land that will fall to you for an inheritance, the land of Canaan with its borders.

³ Then your south side will be from the Wilderness of Zin along by the border of Edom, and your south border will be the end of the Dead Sea to the east. ⁴ And your border will turn from the south to the Ascent of Akrabbim, and continue to Zin, and the end of it will be from the south to Kadesh Barnea. Then it will continue to Hazar Addar, and pass on to Azmon. ⁵ And the border will circle around from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt, and the end of it will be at the Mediterranean Sea.

⁶ For the western border, you will have the Mediterranean Sea and its coastline. This will be your western border.

⁷ This will be your northern border: From the Mediterranean Sea you will mark a line to Mount Hor; ⁸ from Mount Hor you will mark a line of your border to Lebo Hamath, and the limits of the border will be to Zedad. ⁹ And the border will go on to Ziphron, and the limits of it will be at Hazar Enan. This will be your northern border.

¹⁰ You will mark a line for your eastern border from Hazar Enan to Shepham. ¹¹ And the border will go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain, and the border will go down and will reach the side of the Sea of Kinnereth to the east. ¹² And the border will go down to the Jordan, and the limits of it will be at the Dead Sea.

This will be your land with its borders all around.

¹³ Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying: This is the land which you will possess by lot, which the LORD commanded to give to the nine tribes, and to the half-tribe ¹⁴ because the tribe of the children of Reuben by the house of their fathers and the tribe of the children of Gad by the house of their fathers have received their inheritance, and half the tribe of Manasseh has received their inheritance. ¹⁵ The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance on this side of the Jordan near Jericho to the east, toward the sunrise.

The Leaders to Divide the Land

¹⁶ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁷ These are the names of the men who will divide the land for you: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun. ¹⁸ You will take one leader of each tribe to divide the land by inheritance. ¹⁹ These are the names of the men:

of the tribe of Judah,

Caleb the son of Jephunneh;

²⁰ of the tribe of the children of Simeon,

Shemuel the son of Ammihud;

²¹ of the tribe of Benjamin,

Elidad the son of Kislou;

²² the leader of the tribe of the children of Dan,

Bukki the son of Jogli;

²³ the leader of the children of Joseph, for the tribe of the children of Manasseh, Hanniel the son of Ephod;

²⁴ the leader of the tribe of the children of Ephraim,

Kemuel the son of Shiphtan;

²⁵ the leader of the tribe of the children of Zebulun,

Elizaphan the son of Parnak;

²⁶ the leader of the tribe of the children of Issachar,

Paltiel the son of Azzan;

²⁷ the leader of the tribe of the children of Asher,

Ahitud the son of Shelomi;

²⁸ the leader of the tribe of the children of Naphtali,

Pedahel the son of Ammihud.

²⁹ These are the ones whom the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance among the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

The Levites' Cities

Dt 4:41-43; 19:1-14; Jos 20:1-9

35 And the LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying: ² Command the children of Israel, and they will give to the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in, and you will give the Levites pasturelands around the city. ³ The cities will be for them to dwell in, and their pasturelands will be for their livestock, and for their property, and for all their animals.

⁴ The pasturelands of the cities, which you will give to the Levites, will reach from the wall of the city and beyond one thousand cubits [†] all around. ⁵ You will measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, ^{††} and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits, and the city will be in the middle. This will be for them the pasturelands of the cities.

Cities of Refuge

⁶ Among the cities which you will give to the Levites there will be six cities of refuge, which you will appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee there, and to them you will add forty-two cities. ⁷ So all the cities which you will give to the Levites will be forty-eight cities. You will give them with their pasturelands. ⁸ The cities which you shall give shall be from the possession of the children of Israel. From the larger tribes you shall give many, and from the smaller tribes you shall give few. Each tribe, in proportion to the inheritance that it receives, shall give of its cities to the Levites.

⁹ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁰ Speak to the children of Israel and say to them: When you are crossing over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, ¹¹ then you shall designate cities as your cities of refuge, so that a manslayer who unintentionally kills a person may flee there. ¹² The cities will be for you a refuge from the avenger, so that the manslayer does not die until he stands trial before the assembly. ¹³ The cities which you designate shall be your six cities of refuge. ¹⁴ You will give three cities across the Jordan, and three cities you will give in the land of Canaan, which will be cities of refuge. ¹⁵ For the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the foreign sojourner among them will be six cities. These will be for a refuge. Everyone that unintentionally kills any person may flee there.

¹⁶ If he strikes him with an instrument of iron, so that he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁷ If he strikes him with a stone in hand, by which he could die, and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁸ Or if he strikes him with a weapon of wood in hand, by which he could die, and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall surely be put to death. ¹⁹ The avenger of blood himself will slay the murderer. When he meets him, he will slay him. ²⁰ But if he pushed him out of hatred, or threw something at him, lying in wait, so he dies, ²¹ or in hatred struck him with his hand, so he died, he that struck him shall surely be put to death, because he is a murderer. The avenger of blood will slay the murderer when he meets him.

²² But if he pushed him suddenly without hatred, or threw anything at him without lying in wait, ²³ or used a stone that may cause death, unintentionally throwing it at him, resulting in death, though they were not enemies, and was not trying to harm him, ²⁴ then the assembly will judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood according to these judgments. ²⁵ And the assembly will deliver the manslayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the assembly will restore him to the city of his refuge where he fled, and he will dwell in it until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.

²⁶ But if the manslayer will go out at any time beyond the border of the city of his refuge where he fled, ²⁷ and the avenger of blood finds him outside the borders of the city of his refuge, and the avenger of blood kills the manslayer, he will not be guilty of blood, ²⁸ because the manslayer should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest. But after the death of the high priest the manslayer may return to the land of his possession.

²⁹ So these things will be for a statute of judgment to you throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

³¹ And you will not take a ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death, but he will surely be put to death.

³² You will not take a ransom for him who fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come out again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

³³ So you will not defile the land which you are in, because blood defiles the land, and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed in it, except by the blood of him that shed it. ³⁴ So do not defile the land which you are dwelling in, where I am residing, because I the LORD am residing among the children of Israel.

Marriage of Female Heirs

36 And the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spoke before Moses and before the leaders, the chief fathers of the children of Israel. ² And they said, "The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel, and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his daughters. ³ If they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then their inheritance will be taken from the inheritance of our fathers and will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they are married, so will it be taken from the lot of our inheritance. ⁴ When the jubilee of the children of Israel happens, then their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they are married, so their inheritance will be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers."

¹⁰ Just as the LORD commanded Moses, thus the daughters of Zelophehad did, ¹¹ for Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milkah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to their uncles' sons. ¹² And they were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

¹³ These are the commandments and the judgments which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

DEUTERONOMY

Deuteronomy was probably written in 1410 BC. Jewish tradition and the New Testament writers attribute this book to Moses. The book records Moses' speeches to the children of Israel, and there are additions by an unknown editor in chapters 1–5 and 34. Its theme is the reminder to obey God's instructions (Torah or Law) before they enter the land under Joshua's leadership. Deuteronomy is the last of the five books of Moses, called the Pentateuch. It opens with a survey or short prologue, and then focuses on some of the basic laws of the preceding books. Its conclusion includes Moses' final words to the people, which provide warnings about the dangers of apostasy and judgment, as well as reminders of God's mercy. Before his death, Moses blesses the tribes in a series of prophetic words. The book concludes with Joshua succeeding Moses.

The Command to Leave Horeb

1 These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel on the other side of the Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel and Laban and Hazeroth and Dizahab. ² (It is an eleven-day journey from Horeb by the way of Mount Seir to Kadesh Barnea.)

³ In the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, Moses spoke to the children of Israel, according to all that the LORD had commanded him to give to them. ⁴ It was after he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who lived at Ashtaroth in Edrei.

⁵ Across the Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses began to declare this law, saying: ⁶ The LORD our God spoke to us in Horeb, saying, "You have dwelt long enough at this mountain. ⁷ Turn, and take your journey, and go to the mountains of the Amorites, and to all their neighbors, in the plain, in the mountains and in the lowland, in the Negev and by the seacoast, to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon, as far as the great river, the River Euphrates. ⁸ See, I have set the land before you. Go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give to them and to their descendants after them."

Leaders Appointed

⁹ I spoke to you at that time, saying, "I am not able to bear you by myself. ¹⁰ The LORD your God has multiplied you, and surely you are this day as numerous as the stars of heaven. ¹¹ May the LORD, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times more numerous and bless you, just as He has promised you! ¹² How can I myself bear your load and your burden and your strife? ¹³ Choose wise, discerning, and knowing men, among your tribes, and I will appoint them as leaders over you."

¹⁴ You answered me, and said, "The thing which you have said is good for us to do."

¹⁵ So I took the leaders of your tribes, wise and well-known men, and appointed them as leaders over you, leaders over thousands, and leaders over hundreds, and leaders over fifties, and leaders over tens, and officers among your tribes. ¹⁶ I charged your judges at that time, saying, "Hear the issues between your countrymen, and judge righteously between every man and his fellow countryman, and the foreigner that is with him. ¹⁷ You shall not show partiality in judgment, but you shall hear the small as well as the great. You shall not be afraid in any man's presence, for the judgment is God's. The case that is too hard for you, you shall bring it to me, and I will hear it." ¹⁸ At that time, I commanded you all the things you should do.

Israel Sends Spies

¹⁹ When we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which you saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us, and we came to Kadesh Barnea. ²⁰ I said to you, "You have come to the mountains of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving to us. ²¹ See, the LORD your God has set the land before you. Go up and possess it, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, spoke to you. Do not fear or be discouraged."

²² So all of you came near to me and said, "Let us send men before us, so that they shall scout out the land, and bring back to us word concerning what way we should go up and into what cities we shall come."

²³ The thing pleased me, and I took twelve men from you, one out of each tribe. ²⁴ They turned and went up into the hill country and came to the Valley of Eshkol and scouted it out. ²⁵ They took the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down to us, and brought us word again, and said, "It is a good land which the LORD our God is giving us."

Israel Rebels

²⁶ Yet you were not willing to go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God.

²⁷ You murmured in your tents, and said, "Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites to destroy us. ²⁸ Where shall we go up? Our brothers have discouraged our hearts, saying, 'The people are greater and taller than we. The cities are great and walled up to heaven. And moreover, we have seen the sons of the Anakites there.'"

²⁹ Then I said to you, "Do not be terrified, or afraid of them. ³⁰ The LORD your God who goes before you, He shall fight for you, just as all that He did for you in Egypt before your eyes, ³¹ and in the wilderness, where you saw how the LORD your God carried you, as a man carries his son, in all the way that you went, until you came to this place."

³² Yet in this thing you did not believe the LORD your God, ³³ who went in the way before you, to find you a place to pitch your tents, in fire by night and in a cloud by day, to show you by what way you should go.

³⁴ The LORD heard the sound of your words, and was angry, and vowed, saying, ³⁵ "Not one of these men of this evil generation will see the good land which I swore to give to your fathers. ³⁶ The exception will be Caleb the son of Jephunneh. He shall see it, and to him I will give the land upon which he has walked, and to his children, because he has wholly followed the LORD."

³⁷ Also the LORD was angry with me on your account, saying, "You also shall not go in. ³⁸ But Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in. Encourage him, for he will cause Israel to inherit it. ³⁹ Moreover, your little ones, who you said would be a prey, and your children, who in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in, and to them will I give it, and they shall possess it. ⁴⁰ But as for you, turn around, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea."

⁴¹ Then you answered and said to me, "We have sinned against the LORD. We will go up and fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us." So each of you girded on his weapons of war and you thought it easy to go up into the hill country.

⁴² Then the LORD said to me, "Tell them, 'Do not go up nor fight, for I am not among you; lest you be defeated before your enemies.'"

⁴³ So I spoke to you, but you would not listen. Instead, you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD and went presumptuously up into the hill country. ⁴⁴ The Amorites, who lived in the hill country, came out against you, and chased you as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir as far as Hormah. ⁴⁵ Then you returned and wept before the LORD, but the LORD would neither listen to your voice nor give ear to you.

⁴⁶ So you dwelt in Kadesh many days, according to the days you dwelt there.

The Wilderness Years

2 Then we turned, and set out toward the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, as the LORD spoke to me, and we circled Mount Seir for many days.

² Then the LORD spoke to me, saying, ³ "You have circled this mountain long enough. Now turn north.

⁷ "For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the works of your hands. He knows your wanderings through this great wilderness. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you. You have lacked nothing."

¹⁰ (The Emites lived there in times past, a people as great and as many and as tall as the Anakites. ¹¹ These people, as well as the Anakites, also were regarded as giants, [†] but the Moabites call them Emites. ¹² The Horites also formerly lived in Seir, but the children of Esau dispossessed and destroyed them, and settled there in their place, just as Israel did to the land of its possession, which the LORD gave to them.)

¹³ "Cross over the Zered Valley." So we went over the Zered Valley.

¹⁴ Now the length of time it took for us to come to Kadesh Barnea until we crossed over the brook Zered was thirty-eight years, until all the generation of the men of war perished from among the army, just as the LORD swore to them. ¹⁵ For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among their midst, until they were gone.

¹⁶ So it came to pass, when all the men of war were gone and dead from among the people, ¹⁷ then the LORD spoke to me, saying, ¹⁸ "Today, you are to pass over through Ar, the border of Moab. ¹⁹ When you come close to the Ammonites, do not harass them or provoke them, for I will not give you any of the land of the Ammonites as a possession, because I have given it to the children of Lot for a possession."

²⁰ (That also is considered the land of giants. Giants formerly lived there, but the Ammonites call them Zamzummites. ²¹ They were a great people, as numerous and tall as the Anakites. But the LORD destroyed them before the Ammonites. Then they dispossessed them and lived in their place, ²² just as He had done for the children of Esau, who lived in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them, and they dispossessed them, and lived in their place even to this day. ²³ And the Avvites, who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorites, who came out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and lived in their place.)

King Sihon Defeated

²⁴ "Arise, set out, and cross the River Arnon. See, I have given Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land into your hand. Begin to possess it and contend with him in battle. ²⁵ This day I will begin to put the dread of you and the fear of you on the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear the report of you, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of you."

²⁶ I sent messengers out of the Wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon, king of Heshbon, with words of peace, saying, ²⁷ "Let me pass through your land. I will only go on the main road. I will not turn aside to the right or the left. ²⁸ You shall sell me food for money so that I may eat, and give me water for money so that I may drink, only allow me to pass through on foot, ²⁹ just as the children of Esau who dwell in Seir and the Moabites who dwell in Ar did for me, until I pass over the Jordan into the land which the LORD our God is giving us." ³⁰ But Sihon, king of Heshbon, would not let us pass by him, for the LORD your God hardened his spirit and made his heart obstinate, so that He might deliver him into your hand as he is to this day.

³¹ The LORD said to me, "See, I have begun to give Sihon and his land to you. Begin to possess it, so that you may inherit his land."

³² Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz. ³³ Then the LORD our God delivered him over to us, and we struck him down with his sons and all his people. ³⁴ We took all his cities at that time and utterly destroyed the men, the women, and the children of every city. We left no survivors. ³⁵ We took only the livestock for plunder and the spoils of the cities which we took. ³⁶ From Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon, and from the city that is in the valley, all the way to Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us. The LORD our God delivered all to us. ³⁷ Only you did not come near the land of the Ammonites, nor to any place on the River Jabbok, nor to the cities in the hill country, nor to any place the LORD our God had forbidden us.

King Og Defeated

³ Then we turned and went up the way to Bashan, and Og, the king of Bashan, came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. ² Then the LORD said to me, "Do not fear him, for I will deliver him and all his people and his land into your hand; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon, king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon."

³ So the LORD, our God, delivered Og, the king of Bashan, with all his people, into our hands also, and we struck him down until there was no survivor remaining. ⁴ We took all his cities at that time. There was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. ⁵ All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, besides a great many rural towns. ⁶ We utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon, king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children of every city. ⁷ But we took all the livestock and the spoil of the cities as plunder for ourselves.

⁸ So at that time we took from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was across the Jordan, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon ⁹ (the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir), ¹⁰ all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, as far as Salekah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. ¹¹ For only Og, king of Bashan, remained of the remnant of the giants. (Notably, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron. Is it not in Rabbah of the children of Ammon? It is nine cubits long and four cubits wide, † according to the cubit of a man.)

Division of the Land

¹² This is the land which we possessed at that time from Aroer, which is by the River Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead and its cities I gave to the Reubenites and to the Gadites. ¹³ The rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh. (All the region of Argob, with all Bashan, was called the land of giants. ¹⁴ Jair, the son of Manasseh, took all the region of Argob, that is, Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maakathites, and called the villages after his own name, Havvoth Jair, as it is to this day.) ¹⁵ I gave Gilead to Makir. ¹⁶ To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave the territory from Gilead even as far as the stream bed of the River Arnon, half the valley as the border to the River Jabbok, which is the border of the Ammonites; ¹⁷ the plain also, with the Jordan as the border, from Kinnereth as far as the east side of the Sea of the Arabah (that is, the Dead Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.

† About 14 feet long and 6 feet wide, or 4 meters long and 1.8 meters wide.

¹⁸ Then I commanded you at that time, saying, “The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it. All you men of valor shall pass over armed before your brothers, the children of Israel. ¹⁹ But your wives and your little ones, and your livestock (for I know that you have much livestock) shall remain in your cities which I have given you ²⁰ until the LORD has given rest to your brothers, as well as to you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God has given them beyond the Jordan. Then each of you shall return to his possession which I have given you.”

Moses Forbidden to Cross the Jordan

²¹ I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, “Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings. So shall the LORD do to all the kingdoms where you pass. ²² Do not fear them, for the LORD your God, He shall fight for you.”

²³ I pleaded with the LORD at that time, saying, ²⁴ “O LORD God, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness, and Your mighty hand, for what god is there in heaven or in earth that can do according to Your works and according to Your might? ²⁵ Let me, I pray, go over and see the good land that is beyond the Jordan, that good hill country, and Lebanon.”

²⁶ But the LORD was angry with me because of you and would not listen to me, and the LORD said to me, “Enough of that! Speak to Me no more of this matter. ²⁷ Get up to the top of Pisgah and lift up your eyes to the west and north and south and east, and see it with your eyes, for you shall not cross over this Jordan.

²⁸ But charge Joshua and encourage him and strengthen him, for he shall cross over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you will see.” ²⁹ So we remained in the valley over against Beth Peor.

Moses Commands Obedience

4 Now therefore, listen, O Israel, to the statutes and to the judgments which I am teaching you to do, so that you may live; and go in and possess the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. ² You shall not add to the word which I am commanding you, nor shall you take anything from it, so that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

³ Your eyes have seen what the LORD did at Baal Peor; for the LORD your God has destroyed from among you all the men who followed Baal of Peor. ⁴ But you who held fast to the LORD your God are alive to this day, every one of you.

⁵ See, I have taught you statutes and judgments, just as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should do so in the land where you are entering to possess it. ⁶ Therefore, keep and do them, for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations which shall hear all these statutes, and say, “Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.”

⁷ For what nation is there so great, who has a god so near to it as the LORD our God is in all things whenever we call on Him? ⁸ And what nation is there so great that has statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I am setting before you today?

⁹ Only give heed to yourself and keep your soul diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes have seen and lest they depart from your heart all the days of your life; but teach them to your sons, and your grandsons. ¹⁰ Especially concerning the day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when the LORD said to me, “Gather the people together to Me, so that I will let them hear My words so that they may learn to fear Me all the days they shall live on the earth, and so that they may teach their children.” ¹¹ Then you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire up to the midst of heaven, with darkness, a cloud, a thick cloud. ¹² Then the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard the sound of the words but saw no form—only a voice was heard. ¹³ He declared to you His covenant, which He commanded you to perform, even the Ten Commandments, and He wrote them on two tablets of stone. ¹⁴ The LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, so that you might do them in the land which you are crossing over to possess.

Idolatry Forbidden

¹⁵ Give good care to yourselves, for you saw no form on the day that the LORD spoke to you in Horeb from the midst of the fire, ¹⁶ lest you corrupt yourselves and make a graven image for yourselves in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female, ¹⁷ the likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flies in the air, ¹⁸ the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth. ¹⁹ And be-ware, lest you lift up your eyes to heaven, and when you see the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, you are led astray and worship them, and serve them, that which the LORD your God has allotted to all nations under the whole heaven. ²⁰ But the LORD has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, from Egypt, to be to Him a people of inheritance, as you are today.

²¹ Furthermore, the LORD was angry with me because of you and swore that I should not cross over the Jordan, and that I would not go into that good land which the LORD your God is giving you for an inheritance. ²² So I must die in this land. I shall not cross over the Jordan, but you shall go over and possess that good land. ²³ Watch yourselves, so that you do not forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which He made with you, and make yourself a graven image or the likeness of anything as the LORD your God has for-bidden you. ²⁴ For the LORD your God is a consuming fire. He is a jealous God.

²⁵ When you produce children and grandchildren and you have remained a long time in the land, and you corrupt yourselves and make a graven image, or the likeness of anything, and do evil in the sight of the LORD your God, to provoke Him to anger, ²⁶ I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that you will surely and suddenly perish from off the land that you are going across the Jordan to possess. You will not prolong your days on it, but shall be completely destroyed. ²⁷ The LORD shall scatter you among the peoples, and you shall be left few in number among the nations where the LORD shall lead you. ²⁸ There you will serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell. ²⁹ But if from there you will seek the LORD your God, you will find Him, if you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul. ³⁰ When you are in distress and all these things come upon you, even in the latter days, if you turn to the LORD your God and shall be obedient to His voice ³¹ (for the LORD your God is a merciful God), He will not abandon you or destroy you or forget the covenant of your fathers which He swore to them.

³² Indeed, ask about the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man † on the earth, and ask from one end of heavens to the other, whether there has ever been any such thing as this great thing, or has anything like it ever been heard? ³³ Has a people ever heard the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and lived? ³⁴ Or has God ever tried to take for Himself a nation from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched-out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

³⁵ To you it was shown so that you might know that the LORD, He is God. There is no one else besides Him. ³⁶ Out of heaven He let you hear His voice so that He might instruct you, and on earth He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words out of the midst of the fire. ³⁷ Because He loved your fathers, therefore He chose their descendants after them and personally brought you out of Egypt with His mighty power ³⁸ to drive out nations from before you greater and mightier than you are, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is today.

³⁹ Know therefore today, and consider it in your heart, that the LORD, He is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other. ⁴⁰ Therefore, you shall keep His statutes and His commandments which I command you this day, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and so that you may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD your God gives you, forever.

Nu 35:6-34; Dt 19:1-14; Jos 20:1-9

⁴¹ Then Moses set apart three cities across the Jordan, toward the east, ⁴² that the manslayer might flee there, that is, anyone who killed his neighbor unintentionally without hating him in time past could flee to one of these cities and live: ⁴³ Bezer in the wilderness in the plateau of the Reubenites, and Ramoth in Gilead of the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan of the Manassites.

Introduction to the Law

⁴⁴ This is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel. ⁴⁵ These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances which Moses spoke to the children of Israel, after they came out of Egypt, ⁴⁶ on this side of the Jordan, in the valley over against Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon, king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel struck down, after they had come out of Egypt. ⁴⁷ They possessed his land, and the land of Og, king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, who were across the Jordan toward the east, ⁴⁸ from Aroer, which is by the edge of the River Arnon, even as far as Mount Sion (that is, Hermon), ⁴⁹ with all the Arabah across the Jordan to the east, even to the sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

5 Then Moses called all Israel and said to them: Hear, O Israel, the statutes and ordinances which I am speaking in your hearing today, so that you may learn them, and keep, and do them. ² The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. ³ The LORD did not make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, we who are living now and here today. ⁴ The LORD talked with you face to face on the mountain from the midst of the fire. ⁵ I stood between the LORD and you at that time to declare to you the word of the LORD; for you were afraid because of the fire and would not go up to the mountain. He said:

⁶ I am the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

⁷ You shall have no other gods before Me.

⁸ You shall not make yourself any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth; ⁹ you shall not bow down to them, nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, ¹⁰ but showing mercy to thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments.

¹² Keep the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, just as the LORD your God has commanded you. ¹³ Six days you shall labor and do all your work, ¹⁴ but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work: you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your livestock, nor the foreigner that is within your gates, so that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you. ¹⁵ Remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm; therefore your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

¹⁶ Honor your father and your mother, just as the LORD your God has commanded you, that your days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

¹⁷ You shall not murder.

¹⁸ You shall not commit adultery.

¹⁹ You shall not steal.

²⁰ You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

²² These are the words the LORD spoke to all your assembly at the mountain out from the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness with a great voice, and He added no more. He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

²⁸ The LORD heard the sound of your words when you spoke to me, and the LORD said to me, "I have heard the sound of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They have done well in all that they have spoken. ²⁹ O that there were such a heart in them that they would fear Me and always keep all My commandments, that it might be well with them and with their children forever!

³⁰ "Go say to them, 'Return to your tents.' ³¹ But as for you, stand here by Me, so that I may speak to you all the commandments, and the statutes, and the ordinances which you shall teach them, that they may keep them in the land which I am giving them to possess."

³² Therefore, be careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you. You shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. ³³ You shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.

The Greatest Commandment

6 Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the ordinances which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, so that you may observe them in the land which you are crossing over to possess, ² so that you might fear the LORD your God in order to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you—you, and your son, and your grandson—all the days of your life, so that your days may be prolonged. ³ Hear therefore, O Israel, and be careful to do it, so that it may be well with you and so that you may multiply greatly, as the LORD the God of your fathers has promised you in the land that flows with milk and honey.

⁴ Hear, O Israel: The LORD is our God. The LORD is one! ⁵ And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. ⁶ These words, which I am commanding you today, shall be in your heart. ⁷ You shall teach them diligently to your children and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. ⁸ You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. ⁹ You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

¹⁰ Then it shall be when the LORD your God brings you into the land which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you great and fine cities, which you did not build, ¹¹ and houses full of all good things which you did not fill, and hewn cisterns which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, and you eat and are full, ¹² then beware lest you forget the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

¹³ You shall fear the LORD your God and serve Him and shall swear by His name. ¹⁴ You shall not go after other gods, the gods of the people which surround you ¹⁵ (for the LORD your God is a jealous God among you). Otherwise the anger of the LORD your God will be inflamed against you and destroy you from off the face of the earth. ¹⁶ You shall not tempt the LORD your God, as you tempted Him in Massah. ¹⁷ You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and His testimonies and His statutes which He has commanded you. ¹⁸ You shall do what is right and good in the sight of the LORD that it may be well with you and that you may go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore to your fathers, ¹⁹ to drive out all your enemies before you, just as the LORD has spoken.

²⁰ When your son asks you in time to come, saying, "What do the testimonies and the statutes and the judgments mean which the LORD our God has commanded you?" ²¹ then you shall say to your son, "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. ²² And the LORD showed great and devastating signs and wonders upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household before our eyes. ²³ He brought us out from there, so that He might bring us in, to give us the land which He swore to our fathers. ²⁴ The LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that He might preserve us, as He has to this day. ²⁵ It will be our righteousness if we are careful to keep all these commandments before the LORD our God, just as He has commanded us."

The Chosen People

7 When the LORD your God brings you into the land which you are entering to possess and has driven out many nations before you, the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Canaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you, ² and when the LORD your God delivers them before you and you strike them down, then you must utterly destroy them. You shall make no covenant with them nor show mercy to them. ³ What is more, you shall not intermarry with them. You shall not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons. ⁴ For they will turn your sons away from following Me to serve other gods. Then the anger of the LORD will be inflamed against you, and He will quickly destroy you. ⁵ But this is how you shall deal with them: You shall destroy their altars and break down their images and cut down their Asherim [†] and burn their graven images with fire. ⁶ For you are a holy people to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you to be His special people, treasured above all peoples who are on the face of the earth.

⁷ The LORD did not set His love on you nor choose you because you were more in number than any of the peoples, for you were the fewest of all the peoples. ⁸ But it is because the LORD loved you and because He kept the oath which He swore to your fathers. The LORD brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you out of the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. ⁹ Know therefore that the LORD your God, He is God, the faithful God, who keeps covenant and mercy with them who love Him and keep His commandments to a thousand generations, ¹⁰ yet He repays those who hate Him to their face, to destroy them. He will not be slack with him who hates Him. He will repay him to his face. ¹¹ Therefore keep the commandments and the statutes and the judgments which I command you today, by doing them.

¹² If you listen to these judgments, keep them, and do them, then the LORD your God shall keep with you the covenant and the mercy which He swore to your fathers. ¹³ He will love you and bless you and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your land, your grain, and your wine, and your oil, the increase of your herd and the young of your flock, in the land which He swore to your fathers to give you. ¹⁴ You shall be blessed above all peoples. There will not be male or female barren among you or among your livestock. ¹⁵ The LORD will take away from you all sickness, and will afflict you with none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you know, but will lay them on all those who hate you. ¹⁶ You must consume all the peoples whom the LORD your God will deliver to you. Your eye shall have no pity on them, nor shall you serve their gods, for that will be a snare to you.

¹⁷ If you say in your heart, "These nations are greater than I—how can I dispossess them?" ¹⁸ you shall not be afraid of them. You must surely remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt, ¹⁹ the great trials which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched-out arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. So the LORD your God will do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. ²⁰ Moreover the LORD your God will send the hornet among them, until they who are left and hide themselves from you perish. ²¹ You must not be frightened of them, for the LORD your God is among you, a great and awesome God. ²² The LORD your God will drive out those nations before you, little by little. You will not be able to destroy them all at once, lest the beasts of the field become too numerous for you. ²³ But the LORD your God will deliver them to you and will throw them into a great confusion until they are destroyed. ²⁴ He will deliver their kings into your hand so that you may erase their names from under heaven. No man will be able to stand before you until you have destroyed them. ²⁵ You must burn the graven images of their gods with fire. You must not desire the silver or gold that is on them nor take any of it, lest you be snared by them, for it is an abomination to the LORD your God. ²⁶ You shall not bring an abomination into your house, lest you become cursed like it, but you must absolutely detest and abhor it, for it is a cursed thing.

Remember the LORD Your God

8 You must carefully keep all the commandments that I am commanding you today, so that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers. ²You must remember that the LORD your God led you all the way these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, and to prove you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His commandments or not. ³He humbled you and let you suffer hunger, and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that He might make you know that man does not live by bread alone; but man lives by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD. ⁴Your clothing did not wear out on you, nor did your feet swell these forty years. ⁵You must also consider in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, so the LORD your God disciplines you.

⁶Therefore you must keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to fear Him. ⁷For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs that flow out of valleys and hills, ⁸a land of wheat, barley, vines, fig trees, and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey, ⁹a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, in which you will not lack anything, a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig copper.

¹⁰When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which He has given you. ¹¹Beware that you do not forget the LORD your God by not keeping His commandments, and His judgments, and His statutes, which I am commanding you today. ¹²Otherwise, when you have eaten and are full and have built and occupied good houses, ¹³and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold multiply, and all that you have multiplies, ¹⁴then your heart will become proud and you will forget the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery, ¹⁵who led you through that great and terrible wilderness, where there were fiery serpents and scorpions and drought, where there was no water, who brought forth for you water out of the rock of flint, ¹⁶who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers did not know, that He might humble you and that He might prove you, to do good for you in the end. ¹⁷Otherwise, you may say in your heart, "My power and the might of my hand have gained me this wealth." ¹⁸But you must remember the LORD your God, for it is He who gives you the ability to get wealth, so that He may establish His covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is today.

¹⁹If you ever forget the LORD your God and go after other gods and serve them and worship them, then I testify against you today that you will surely perish. ²⁰Just like the nations which the LORD will destroy before you, so shall you perish because you would not be obedient to the voice of the LORD your God.

Not Because of Righteousness

⁹Hear, O Israel! You are to cross over the Jordan today, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than you, great cities fortified up to heaven, ²a great and tall people, the children of the Anakites, whom you know and of whom you have heard it said, "Who can stand before the children of Anak?" ³Understand therefore today that the LORD your God is He who goes over before you as a consuming fire. He shall destroy them and shall bring them down before you, so that you drive them out and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has spoken to you.

⁴Do not say in your heart, after the LORD your God has driven them out before you, "On account of my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land," but it is because of the wickedness of these nations the LORD is driving them out before you. ⁵It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you enter to possess their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD your God drives them out before you, and that He may fulfill the word which the LORD swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. ⁶Understand, therefore, that the LORD your God is not giving you this good land to possess on account of your righteousness, for you are a stubborn people.

The Golden Calf

⁷Remember, and do not forget how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness. From the day that you departed out of the land of Egypt until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD. ⁸Also in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry enough with you to destroy you. ⁹When I went up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I did not eat bread or drink water. ¹⁰The LORD delivered to me two tablets of stone, written with the finger of God, and on them was written all the words which the LORD spoke to you at the mountain out of the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly.

¹¹At the end of forty days and forty nights, the LORD gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant. ¹²Then the LORD said to me, "Arise, go down from here quickly, for your people whom you brought out of Egypt have corrupted themselves. They are quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them. They have made a molded image for themselves."

¹³Furthermore the LORD spoke to me, saying, "I have seen this people, and indeed, they are a stubborn people. ¹⁴Let Me alone, so that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven, and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they."

¹⁵ So I returned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire, and the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. ¹⁶ I looked, and indeed, you had sinned against the LORD your God and had made yourselves a molded calf. You had quickly turned aside out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. ¹⁷ I took the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands and broke them before your eyes.

¹⁸ I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights. I did not eat bread or drink water because of all your sins which you committed, doing what was wicked in the sight of the LORD to provoke Him to anger. ¹⁹ For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure with which the LORD was wrathful against you to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me at that time also. ²⁰ The LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him, so I also prayed for Aaron at the same time. ²¹ I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire, and crushed it, and ground it very small until it was as small as dust. Then I threw the dust into the brook that descended down from the mountain.

²³ Likewise when the LORD sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, "Go up and possess the land which I have given you," then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and you did not believe Him or listen to His voice. ²⁴ You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day I knew you.

²⁵ So I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights; I fell down because the LORD had said He would destroy you. ²⁶ I prayed therefore to the LORD, and said, "O Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people, Your inheritance, which You have redeemed through Your greatness, which You have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand. ²⁷ Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Do not look at the stubbornness of this people or at their wickedness or their sin. ²⁸ Otherwise, the land from which You brought us may say, 'Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which He promised them and because He hated them, He has brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.' ²⁹ Yet they are Your people, Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your mighty power and by Your stretched-out arm."

The Second Pair of Tablets

10 At that time the LORD said to me, "Cut out for yourself two tablets of stone like the first and come up to Me onto the mountain and make an ark of wood for yourself. ² I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark."

³ So I made an ark of acacia wood and cut out two tablets of stone just like the first and went up onto the mountain with the two tablets in my hand. ⁴ He wrote on the tablets just like the first writing, the Ten Commandments which the LORD spoke to you at the mountain out of the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly, and the LORD gave them to me. ⁵ I turned around and came down from the mountain and put the tablets in the ark which I had made, and there they are, just as the LORD commanded me.

¹⁰ As for me, I stayed on the mountain like the first time, forty days and forty nights, and the LORD listened to me at that time also. The LORD was not willing to destroy you. ¹¹ The LORD said to me, "Arise, take your journey before the people, so that they may go in and possess the land which I swore to give to their fathers."

The Essence of the Law

¹² Now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and to love Him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹³ to keep the commandments of the LORD and His statutes which I am commanding you today for your good?

¹⁴ Indeed, heaven and the highest heavens belong to the LORD your God, also the earth with all that is in it. ¹⁵ The LORD delighted only in your fathers, to love them; and He chose their descendants after them, even you above all people, as it is today. ¹⁶ Therefore, circumcise your heart, and do not be stubborn anymore. ¹⁷ For the LORD your God is the God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the fearsome God who is unbiased and takes no bribe. ¹⁸ He executes the judgment of the orphan and the widow and loves the foreigner, giving him food and clothing. ¹⁹ Therefore, love the foreigner, for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. ²⁰ You must fear the LORD your God. You must serve Him and cling to Him, and swear by His name. ²¹ He is your praise, and He is your God, who has done for you these great and fearsome things which your eyes have seen. ²² Your fathers went down into Egypt with seventy people, and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars of heaven.

Love and Obey

11 You must love the LORD your God and keep His charge, His statutes, His ordinances, and His commandments always. ² Know this day that I am not speaking with your children who have not known and who have not seen the discipline of the LORD your God, His greatness, His mighty hand, and His outstretched arm, ³ and His signs and His works which He did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to all his land, ⁴ and what He did to the army of Egypt, to their horses, and to their chariots, when He made the water of the Red Sea to flow over them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD utterly destroyed them, ⁵ and what He did to you in the wilderness until you came to this place, ⁶ and what He did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben, when the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, their households, their tents, and everything that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel. ⁷ But your eyes have seen all the great deeds of the LORD which He did.

⁸ Therefore you must keep all the commandments which I am commanding you today, so that you may be strong and go in and possess the land which you are going to possess; ⁹ and that you may prolong your days in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give to them and to their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰ For the land which you are entering to possess is not like the land of Egypt from where you came, where you sowed your seed and watered it with your foot like a vegetable garden, ¹¹ but the land, which you are entering to possess, is a land of hills and valleys and drinks water from the rain of heaven, ¹² a land for which the LORD your God cares. The eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year.

¹⁶ Take heed to yourselves that your heart be not deceived, and you turn away and serve other gods and worship them. ¹⁷ Then the LORD's wrath will be inflamed against you, and He will shut up the heavens so that there will be no rain and the land will not yield its fruit, and you will quickly perish from the good land which the LORD is giving you. ¹⁸ Therefore you must fix these words of mine in your heart and in your soul, and bind them as a sign on your hand, so that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. ¹⁹ You shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. ²⁰ You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, ²¹ so that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, as long as the days of heaven on the earth.

²² For if you diligently keep all these commandments which I am commanding you to do—to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, and to hold fast to Him—²³ then the LORD will drive out all these nations from before you, and you will dispossess nations greater and mightier than you. ²⁴ Every place where the soles of your feet tread will be yours. Your border will be from the wilderness to Lebanon, from the river, the River Euphrates, as far as the Mediterranean Sea. ²⁵ No man will be able to resist you, for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you on all the land where you shall tread, just as He has spoken to you.

²⁶ See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse: ²⁷ the blessing if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am commanding you today, ²⁸ and the curse, if you will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn from the way which I am commanding you today, to go after other gods which you have not known. ²⁹ Now it shall be, when the LORD your God has brought you into the land which you are entering to possess, that you shall put the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal. ³⁰ Are they not on the other side of the Jordan, west where the sun goes down, in the land of the Canaanites, who dwell in the plain opposite Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh? ³¹ For you will cross over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you, and you will possess it, and dwell in it. ³² You must be careful to do all the statutes and judgments which I am setting before you today.

The One Place of Worship

12 These are the statutes and judgments which you shall be careful to observe in the land, which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess, all the days that you live on the earth. ² You must utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you will possess served their gods, on the high mountains, and on the hills, and under every green tree. ³ And you shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their Asherah poles † with fire, and you shall cut down the engraved images of their gods, and eliminate their names out of that place.

⁴ You shall not act this way toward the LORD your God. ⁵ But you must seek only the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to establish His name, and there you must go. ⁶ There you shall bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the offerings of your hand, your vows, your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and of your flocks. ⁷ There you must eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, where the LORD your God has blessed you.

⁸ You are not to do all the things that we are doing here today, where every man does whatever is right in his own eyes. ⁹ For you have not yet come to the rest and to the inheritance which the LORD your God has given you. ¹⁰ But when you cross the Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God has given you to inherit, and when He gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you dwell in safety, ¹¹ then there will be a place which the LORD your God will choose to cause His name to dwell. There you must bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, the offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow to the LORD. ¹² You will rejoice before the LORD your God, you, your sons, your daughters, your male servants, your female servants, and the Levite who is within your gates, for he has no portion or inheritance with you. ¹³ Be careful that you do not offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see. ¹⁴ Rather, in the place which the LORD will choose in one of your tribes, there you must offer your burnt offerings, and there you must do all that I command you.

¹⁵ Notwithstanding, you may kill and eat meat within all your gates, whatever your heart desires, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which He has given you. The unclean and the clean may eat of it, of the gazelle and of the deer, ¹⁶ only you must not eat the blood. You shall pour it on the ground like water. ¹⁷ You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain, your wine, your oil, the firstborn of your herds or of your flock, any of your vows which you vow, your freewill offerings, or the offering of your hand.

¹⁸ Rather you must eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God will choose—you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, and the Levite that is within your gates—and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you undertake to do. ¹⁹ Take heed to yourself that you do not forsake the Levite as long as you live on the earth.

²⁰ When the LORD your God shall enlarge your border as He has promised you, and you say, "I will eat meat," because you desire to eat meat, then you may eat as much meat as your heart desires. ²¹ If the place which the LORD your God has chosen to put His name is too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock, which the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you, and you must eat in your gates whatever your heart desires. ²² Even as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you shall eat them. The unclean and the clean shall eat of them alike. ²³ Only be sure that you do not eat the blood. For the blood is the life, and you may not eat the life with the meat. ²⁴ You must not eat it. You must pour it on the ground like water. ²⁵ You must not eat it, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you, when you do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

²⁶ You shall take only your holy things which you have, along with your vows, and go to the place which the LORD shall choose. ²⁷ You must offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God, and the blood of your sacrifices will be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God, and you shall eat the meat. ²⁸ Observe and hear all these words which I command you, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, when you do that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

²⁹ When the LORD your God shall cut off the nations from before you, where you go to possess them, and you dispossess them, and dwell in their land, ³⁰ take heed to yourself so that you are not ensnared by following them, after they have been destroyed before you, and that you not inquire after their gods, saying, "How did these nations serve their gods? Even so I will do likewise." ³¹ You shall not do so to the LORD your God, for every abomination to the LORD, which He hates, they have done to their gods. They have even burned their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods.

³² Whatever I command you, be careful to do it. You shall not add to it or take away from it.

Idolatry

13 If a prophet or a dreamer of dreams arises among you and gives you a sign or a wonder, ² and the sign or the wonder comes to pass concerning that which he spoke to you, saying, "Let us go after other gods," which you have not known, "and let us serve them," ³ you must not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the LORD your God is testing you, to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁴ You must follow after the LORD your God, fear Him, and keep His commandments, obey His voice, and you must serve Him, and cling to Him. ⁵ That prophet or that dreamer of dreams must be put to death because he has spoken in order to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to entice you away from the way in which the LORD your God commanded you to walk. So you must put the evil away from your midst.

⁶ If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or your beloved wife, or your friend, who is as your own soul, entices you secretly, saying, "Let us go and serve other gods," which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers, ⁷ namely, of the gods of the people who are all around you, near you or far away from you, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth, ⁸ you shall not consent to him or listen to him, neither should your eye pity him, nor shall you spare or conceal him, ⁹ but you must surely kill him. Your hand must be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards, the hand of all the people. ¹⁰ You shall stone him with stones so that he dies because he has sought to entice you away from the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage. ¹¹ All Israel shall hear and fear and no more do any such wickedness as this among you.

¹² If you hear it said in one of your cities, in which the LORD your God has given you to dwell, saying, ¹³ "Certain men, the sons of wickedness, are gone out from among you and have seduced the inhabitants of their city, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods,'" which you have not known, ¹⁴ then you shall inquire, search out, and ask diligently. If it be true and certain that such an abomination has been among you, ¹⁵ you shall surely put the inhabitants of that city to the sword, utterly destroying it, all that is in it and its livestock—with the edge of the sword. ¹⁶ You must gather all the spoils of it into the middle of the street and burn the city with fire along with all the spoils within it for the LORD your God, and it will be a heap forever. It must not be rebuilt. ¹⁷ Nothing of the cursed thing there must cling to your hand, so that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of His anger and show you mercy, have compassion on you, and multiply you, just as He swore to your fathers, ¹⁸ if you listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep all His commandments which I command you today, and do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

Clean and Unclean Food

14 You are the sons of the LORD your God. You shall not cut yourselves or make any baldness between your eyes for the dead. ² For you are a holy people to the LORD your God, and the LORD has chosen you to be a peculiar people to Himself, treasured above all the nations that are on the earth.

³ You must not eat any detestable thing. ⁴ These are the animals which you may eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat, ⁵ the deer, the gazelle, the fallow deer, the wild goat, and the ibex, and the antelope, and the mountain sheep. ⁶ You may eat every animal with divided hooves, with the hoof divided into two parts, and that chews the cud. ⁷ Nevertheless, you may not eat of these that chew the cud, or of them that divide the hoof: the camel, the rabbit, and the coney. For they chew the cud, but their hoof is not divided, therefore they are unclean to you. ⁸ The pig is unclean to you because it divides the hoof, yet it does not chew the cud. You must not eat of their flesh or touch their dead carcass.

⁹ These you shall eat of all that are in the water: All that have fins and scales you may eat. ¹⁰ Whatever does not have fins and scales you may not eat. It is unclean to you.

¹¹ You may eat of all clean birds. ¹² However, these are the ones which you cannot eat: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard, ¹³ the red kite, the falcon, and the kite after its kind, ¹⁴ every raven after its kind, ¹⁵ and the ostrich, the owl, the seagull, and the hawk after its kind, ¹⁶ the little owl, and the great owl, and the white owl, ¹⁷ the pelican, the carrion vulture, and the cormorant, ¹⁸ the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.

¹⁹ Every creeping thing that flies is unclean to you. They must not be eaten. ²⁰ You may eat all the clean birds.

²¹ You must not eat of anything that dies of itself, but you may give it to the foreigner that is in your gates, so that he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner, for you are a holy people to the LORD your God.

You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk.

Tithes

²² You must be certain to tithe all the produce of your seed, so that the field produces year by year. ²³ You must eat before the LORD your God, in the place in which He shall choose to place His name, the tithe of your grain, of your wine, of your oil, and of the first-born of your herds and of your flocks so that you may learn to always fear the LORD your God. ²⁴ If the distance is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it, because the place is too far from you, where the LORD your God shall choose to set His name, when the LORD your God blesses you, ²⁵ then you shall exchange it for money and bind up the money in your hand and go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose. ²⁶ Then you may spend that money for whatever your heart desires, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever your heart desires, and you may eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you, and your household, ²⁷ and the Levite that is within your gates. You must not forsake him, for he has no portion or inheritance with you.

²⁸ At the end of three years you must bring forth all the tithe of your produce the same year and lay it up within your gates. ²⁹ Then the Levite (because he has no portion or inheritance with you), the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your gates, shall come and shall eat and be satisfied, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

The Sabbatical Year

15 At the end of every seven years you shall grant a relinquishing of debts. ² This is the manner of the relinquishing: Every creditor that has loaned anything to his neighbor shall relinquish it. He shall not exact it of his neighbor, or of his brother, because it is called the LORD's relinquishment. ³ You may collect it from a foreigner, but that which your brother has that is yours your hand shall release. ⁴ However, there will be no poor among you, for the LORD will greatly bless you in the land which the LORD your God has given you for an inheritance to possess, ⁵ if only you carefully obey the voice of the LORD your God, by carefully observing all these commandments which I command you today. ⁶ For the LORD your God will bless you, just as He promised you, and you will lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. You will reign over many nations, but they will not reign over you.

⁷ If there be among you a poor man, one of your brothers within any of your gates in your land which the LORD your God has given you, you must not harden your heart or shut your hand from your poor brother. ⁸ But you shall open your hand wide to him and must surely lend him what is sufficient for his need, in that which he lacks. ⁹ Beware lest there be a wicked thought in your heart, saying, "The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand," and your eye be evil against your poor brother and you give him nothing, and he cry out to the LORD against you, and it become sin in you. ¹⁰ You must surely give to him, and your heart shall not be grieved when you give to him, because in this thing the LORD your God will bless you in all your works, and in all that you put your hand to do. ¹¹ For the poor will never cease from being in the land. Therefore, I command you, saying, "You shall open your hand wide to your brother, to your poor and needy in your land."

Freeing Servants

Ex 21:2-6; Lev 25:38-55

¹² If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you must let him go free from you.

¹³ When you send him out free from you, you must not let him go away empty-handed. ¹⁴ You shall supply him liberally out of your flock, out of your floor, and out of your winepress. From that with which the LORD your God has blessed you, you shall give to him. ¹⁵ You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you. Therefore, I command this to you today.

¹⁶ It shall be, if he says to you, "I will not go away from you," because he loves you and your house, because he is well off with you, ¹⁷ then you must take an awl and pierce it through his ear into the door, and he shall be your servant forever. And you shall also do likewise to your female servant.

¹⁸ It will not seem difficult for you when you send him away free from you, for he has been worth a double hired servant † in serving you six years. Then the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do.

† Or a double the amount.

The Firstborn Animals

¹⁹ You must sanctify all the firstborn males that come out of your herd and flock to the LORD your God. You must do no work with the firstborn of your bulls or shear the firstborn of your sheep. ²⁰ You shall eat it before the LORD your God year by year in the place where the LORD shall choose, you and your household. ²¹ If there is any defect in it, if it is lame or blind or has a serious defect, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God. ²² You shall eat it within your gates. The unclean and the clean person alike shall eat it, as if it were a gazelle or a deer. ²³ Only you must not eat its blood. You shall pour it on the ground like water.

The Passover

Ex 12:14-20; Lev 23:4-8; Nu 28:16-25

16 Observe the month of Aviv †† and keep the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month of Aviv the LORD your God brought you out of Egypt by night. ² Therefore, you must sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, from the flock or the herd, in the place where the LORD shall choose to place His name. ³ You must not eat leavened bread with it. For seven days you must eat unleavened bread, the bread of affliction, for you came out of the land of Egypt in a hurry, so that you may remember all the days of your life the day when you came out of the land of Egypt. ⁴ There must not be any leavened bread seen with you within all your borders for seven days, nor may any of the meat which you sacrificed in the evening on the first day remain overnight until morning.

⁵ You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates that the LORD your God has given you. ⁶ But at the place where the LORD your God chooses to place His name, there you shall sacrifice the Passover in the evening at sunset, at the time that you came out of Egypt. ⁷ You shall roast and eat it in the place where the LORD your God will choose, and you must return in the morning, and go to your tents. ⁸ For six days you must eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God. You must do no work on that day.

⁹ You must count seven weeks for yourself. Begin counting the seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain. ¹⁰ You must keep the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God with a tribute of a freewill offering from your hand, which you must give to the LORD your God, in proportion to how much the LORD your God has blessed you. ¹¹ You shall rejoice before the LORD your God—you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, the Levite who is within your gates, the foreigner, the orphan, and the widow who are among you—in the place where the LORD your God has chosen to place His name. ¹² You must remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you must be careful to observe these statutes.

¹³ You shall observe the Feast of Tabernacles seven days after you have gathered in your threshing floor and your winepress, ¹⁴ and you shall rejoice in your feast, you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan, and the widow who are within your gates. ¹⁵ You are to celebrate the festival for seven days to the LORD your God in the place where the LORD will choose, because the LORD your God will bless you in all your produce, and in all the works of your hands. Therefore, you will indeed rejoice.

¹⁶ Three times a year all your males must appear before the LORD your God in the place where He will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Tabernacles, and they must not appear before the LORD empty. ¹⁷ Every man must give as he is able, in proportion to the blessing of the LORD your God, which He has given you.

Judges

¹⁸ You must appoint judges and officers in all your gates, which the LORD your God gives you, throughout your tribes, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. ¹⁹ You must not pervert judgment nor show partiality. You must not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and perverts the words of the righteous. ²⁰ You must follow that which is altogether just, so that you may live and inherit the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

Idolatry Forbidden

²¹ You must not plant for yourself an Asherah † of any trees near the altar of the LORD your God, which you make for yourself. ²² You shall not set up for yourself any image, which the LORD your God hates.

17 You must not sacrifice to the LORD your God any bull or sheep that has a blemish or any defect, for that is detestable to the LORD your God.

² If there be found among you, within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, man or woman, who has acted wickedly in the sight of the LORD your God, by transgressing His covenant, ³ and has gone and served other gods and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded, ⁴ and if it is told to you, and you have heard of it, and investigated diligently, and it is true, and the matter is certain that such a detestable thing has happened in Israel, ⁵ then you must bring forth that man or that woman who has committed that wicked thing to your gates, that very man or woman, and stone them with stones until they die. ⁶ On the testimony of two or three witnesses he that is to die must be put to death, but on the testimony of one witness he cannot be put to death. ⁷ The hands of the witnesses shall be first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall purge the evil from among you.

Courts of Law

⁸ If there arises a matter too difficult for you in judgment, between one kind of bloodshed and another, between one kind of lawsuit and another, and between one kind of assault and another, matters of controversy within your gates, then you must arise and go up to the place where the LORD your God shall choose. ⁹ You must go to the Levitical priests or to the judge in office those days, and inquire, and they will show you the verdict of judgment. ¹⁰ You shall do according to the verdict which they declare to you from the place where the LORD will choose to show you, and you must be careful to do all that they instruct you to do. ¹¹ You must do according to the terms of the law which they instruct you and according to the verdict which they tell you. You must not deviate from the sentence which they show you, to the right or to the left. ¹² The man who acts presumptuously and does not listen to the priest who stands to minister before the LORD your God, or to the judge—that man must die, and you must purge the evil from Israel. ¹³ Then all the people will hear, and fear, and not act presumptuously again.

Appointing a King

¹⁴ When you have come into the land which the LORD your God gives you and possess it and dwell there and then say, “I will set a king over me just like all the nations that are around me,” ¹⁵ you must set a king over you whom the LORD your God will choose. You must select a king over you who is from among your brothers. You may not select a foreigner over you who is not your countryman. ¹⁶ What is more, he shall not accumulate horses for himself or cause the people to return to Egypt in order that he accumulate horses, for as the LORD has said to you, “You must not go back that way ever again.” ¹⁷ He shall not acquire many wives for himself, lest his heart turn away; nor shall he acquire for himself excess silver and gold.

¹⁸ It must be, when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write a copy of this law for himself on a scroll before the priests, the Levites. ¹⁹ It must be with him, and he must read it all the days of his life so that he may learn to fear the LORD his God, and carefully observe all the words of this law and these statutes, and do them, ²⁰ that his heart will not be lifted up above his brothers and so that he may not turn aside from the commandment, to the right or to the left, to the end, so that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children, in the midst of Israel.

Provision for Priests and Levites

18 The Levitical priests and all the tribe of Levi will not have any portion or inheritance with Israel. They must eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire and His portion. ² They will have no inheritance among their brothers. The LORD is their inheritance, just as He has said to them.

³ This shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be an ox or sheep: they shall give to the priest the shoulder, the two cheeks, and the stomach. ⁴ You must give him the first fruit of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep also. ⁵ For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons forever.

⁶ If a Levite comes from any of your gates out of all Israel, where he lives, and comes with all the desire of his mind to the place where the LORD shall choose, ⁷ then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brothers the Levites do, who stand there before the LORD. ⁸ They must have the same portions to eat, besides any profits he may receive from the sale of his father's inheritance.

A Call to Holiness

⁹ When you enter into the land which the LORD your God gives you, you must not learn to practice the abominations of those nations. ¹⁰ There must not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or who uses divination, or uses witchcraft, or an interpreter of omens, or a sorcerer, ¹¹ or one who casts spells, or a spiritualist, or an occultist, or a necromancer. ¹² For all that do these things are an abomination to the LORD, and because of these abominations the LORD your God will drive them out from before you. ¹³ You must be blameless before the LORD your God.

The Prophet

¹⁴ For these nations, which you shall possess, listened to soothsayers and to diviners, but as for you, the LORD your God has not permitted you to do so. ¹⁵ The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet from the midst of you, of your brothers, like me. You must listen to him. ¹⁶ This is according to all that you desired of the LORD your God in Horeb on the day of the assembly, saying, "Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, nor let me see this great fire anymore, so that I do not die."

¹⁷ The LORD said to me, "They have done well in what they have said. ¹⁸ I will raise up a prophet from among their brothers, like you, and will put My words in his mouth, and he will speak to them all that I command him. ¹⁹ It will be that whoever will not listen to My words which he will speak in My name, I will require it of him. ²⁰ But the prophet, who presumes to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who shall speak in the name of other gods—that prophet shall die."

²¹ And you may say in your heart, "How can we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?" ²² When a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing does not occur or come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously. You shall not be afraid of him.

19 When the LORD your God has cut off the nations, whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you dispossess them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses, ² you shall set apart three cities for yourselves in the midst of your land, which the LORD your God is giving you to possess. ³ You shall prepare a roadway for yourself, and divide the territory of your land into three parts, which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, so that every manslayer may flee there.

⁸ If the LORD your God enlarges your borders as He promised your fathers, and gives you all the land which He promised to give to your fathers, ⁹ and if you will carefully keep all these commandments, which I command you today, to love the LORD your God, and to always walk in His ways, then you must add three cities more for yourself, besides these three. ¹⁰ Then innocent blood will not be shed in your land, which the LORD your God is giving you for an inheritance, and blood guiltiness be on you.

¹¹ But if any man hates his neighbor, and lies in wait for him, and rises up against him, and mortally strikes him, causing him to die, and flees to one of these cities, ¹² then the elders of his city must send and fetch him from there, and deliver him to the hand of the avenger of blood, so that he may die. ¹³ Your eye must not pity him, but you must remove the guilt of innocent blood from Israel, so that it may go well with you.

¹⁴ You shall not remove your neighbor's landmark, which they of old time have set in your inheritance, which you shall inherit in the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Witnesses

¹⁵ A single witness must not rise up against a man on account of any iniquity or any sin that he sins. At the testimony of two witnesses or at the testimony of three witnesses shall the matter be established.

¹⁶ If a false witness rises up against any man to testify against him to accuse him of doing wrong, ¹⁷ then both the men between whom the controversy is must stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, who are in office those days. ¹⁸ The judges will thoroughly investigate, and if the witness is a false witness and has testified falsely against his brother, ¹⁹ then you must do to him as he conspired to have done to his brother. In this way you must remove the evil from among you. ²⁰ Those who remain will hear and fear, and will never again commit any such evil among you. ²¹ You must not show pity. But life will be for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Rules of Warfare

20 When you go out to battle against your enemies, and see horses, and chariots, and a people that outnumber you, do not be afraid of them, for the LORD your God is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. ² It will be, when you approach the battle, that the priest will approach and speak to the people, ³ and he shall say to them, "Hear, O Israel, you approach today to do battle against your enemies. Do not be fainthearted. Do not fear, and do not tremble or be terrified because of them. ⁴ For the LORD your God is He that goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you."

⁵ The officers will speak to the people, saying, "What man is there who has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. ⁶ What man is there who has planted a vineyard, and has not yet eaten of it? Let him also go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it. ⁷ What man is there who is engaged to a woman but has not married her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her." ⁸ The officers are to speak further to the people, and they shall say, "What man is there that is fearful and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest his brother's heart faint as well as his heart." ⁹ It will be, when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, that they must make captains of the armies to lead the people.

¹⁰ When you come near to a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace to it. ¹¹ It shall be, if it gives you a reply of peace and opens to you, then it must be that all the people that are found within shall become slaves to you and they shall serve you. ¹² If it will not make peace with you but makes war against you, then you are to besiege it. ¹³ And when the LORD your God has delivered it into your hands, you are to slay every male there with the edge of the sword. ¹⁴ But the women, and the little ones, and the livestock, and all that is in the city, all the spoil within, you are to take to yourself, and you will eat the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you. ¹⁵ Thus you are to do to all the cities which are far away, which are not the cities of these nearby nations.

¹⁶ But of the cities of these people, which the LORD your God is giving you for an inheritance, you must not leave alive anything that breathes. ¹⁷ But you shall completely destroy them: namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, just as the LORD your God has commanded you, ¹⁸ so that they do not teach you to participate in all their abominations, which they have done to their gods, causing you to sin against the LORD your God.

¹⁹ When you lay siege to a city for a long time, in making war against it in order to take it, you shall not destroy the trees there by chopping them down with an axe, for you may eat from them, and you shall not cut them down. For the tree of the field is not a man in which to lay siege. ²⁰ However, you may destroy and cut down only the trees which you know are not fruit trees, so that you may build siege engines against the city that makes war with you until it falls.

Atonement for Unsolved Murders

21 If someone is found slain in the land which the LORD your God is giving you to possess, lying in the field, and it is not known who has slain him, ² then your elders and your judges are to come forth, and they must measure how far it is to the cities which are around him who was slain. ³ And it must be, that the city which is closest to the slain man, that is, the elders of that city shall take a heifer which has not been worked, that has never pulled in yoke, ⁴ and the elders of that city must bring down the heifer to a valley with flowing water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley. ⁵ Then the priests, the sons of Levi, must come near, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister to Him, and to bless in the name of the LORD, and by their word every controversy and every assault will be settled. ⁶ And all the elders of that city, which is nearest to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley. ⁷ Then they must answer and say, "Our hands have not shed this blood, and our eyes have not seen it. ⁸ Be merciful, O LORD, to Your people Israel, whom You have redeemed, and lay not innocent blood in the midst of Your people Israel." And the blood guilt will be forgiven them. ⁹In this way you are to remove the guilt of innocent blood from among you when you do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD.

Marrying Female Captives

¹⁰When you go forth to war against your enemies, and the LORD your God has delivered them into your hands, and you have taken them captive, ¹¹and you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and have a desire for her to have her as your wife, ¹²then you are to bring her home to your house, and she is to shave her head and trim her nails. ¹³She must also discard the clothing of her captivity and shall remain in your house, and mourn her father and her mother for a full month. After that you may have relations with her, and be her husband, and she will be your wife. ¹⁴It will be, if you are not pleased with her, then you must let her go wherever she pleases, but you may not sell her at all for money, nor are you to make merchandise of her, because you have humbled her.

The Right of the Firstborn

¹⁵If a man has two wives, one beloved and another unloved, and both have borne him children, both the loved one and the unloved one, and if the firstborn son is hers that is unloved, ¹⁶then it must be, when he gives his sons the inheritance which he has, that he may not make the firstborn son of the loved come before the son of the unloved, who was indeed the firstborn. ¹⁷On the contrary, he must acknowledge the son of the unloved for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he is the beginning of his strength. The right of the firstborn is his.

Dealing With a Rebellious Son

¹⁸If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son, who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother, and who, when they have disciplined him, will not listen to them, ¹⁹then his father and his mother are to lay hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his city, to the gate of his city. ²⁰They shall say to the elders of his city, "This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not listen to us. He is a glutton and a drunkard." ²¹Then all the men of his city must stone him with stones, until he dies. In this way you are to remove the evil from among you, and all Israel shall hear and fear.

Various Laws

²²If a man has committed a sin worthy of death and is executed, and you hang him on a tree, ²³then his body must not remain all night on the tree, but you must bury him that day (for he that is hanged is accursed of God) so that your land may not be defiled, which the LORD your God is giving you for an inheritance.

22 You must not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray and hide yourself from them. You must certainly bring them back to your brother. ²If your brother is not near you or if you do not know him, then you are to bring it to your own house, and it will be with you until your brother seeks after it. Then you must return it to him. ³In the same way, you must do so with his donkey, with his clothing, and with anything lost by your brother which he has lost and you have found. You must not hide yourself from him.

⁴You are not to see your brother's donkey or his ox fall down by the way and hide yourself from them. You certainly must help him to lift them up.

⁵A woman must not wear man's clothing, nor is a man to put on a woman's clothing. For all that do so are abominations to the LORD your God.

⁶If you happen to notice a bird's nest along the way, in any tree or on the ground, whether they be young ones or eggs, and the mother is sitting on the young or on the eggs, you are not to take the mother from the young. ⁷You must certainly let the mother go, but you may take the young for yourself, so that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days.

⁸When you build a new house, you must make a guard rail for your roof so that you bring no blood guilt on your house, should anyone fall from there.

⁹You must not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seeds, or the fruit of your seed which you have sown and the fruit of your vineyard will be defiled.

¹⁰You must not plow with an ox and a donkey together.

¹¹You must not wear clothing made of a material of wool and linen together.

¹²You must make tassels on the four quarters of your clothing with which you cover yourself.

Laws About Marriage

¹³If any man takes a wife and has sexual relations with her and then rejects her, ¹⁴and accuses her of impropriety and publicly defames her, saying, "I married this woman, but when I had sexual relations with her, I found her not to be a virgin," ¹⁵then the father and mother of the girl must produce evidence of the girl's virginity to the elders of the city at the gate. ¹⁶The girl's father must say to the elders, "I gave my daughter to this man to wife, and he has rejected her.

¹⁷What is more, he has accused her of impropriety, saying, 'I did not find your daughter to be a virgin.' However, this is the evidence of my daughter's virginity." And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city. ¹⁸The elders of that city must take that man and punish him, ¹⁹and they must fine him a hundred shekels † of silver and give them to the father of the girl, because he has publicly humiliated a virgin of Israel. Then she is to remain his wife. He may not divorce her all his days.

²⁰ But if the accusation is true, and the evidence of virginity does not exist for the girl, ²¹ then they shall bring the girl out to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones until she dies, because she has brought disgrace into Israel, to act like a whore in her father's house. In this way you may purge the evil from among you.

²² If a man is discovered lying with a married woman, then both of them must die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman. In this way you may purge the evil from Israel.

²³ If a girl who is a virgin is engaged to a man, and another man finds her in the city and has sexual relations with her, ²⁴ then you must bring them both out to the gate of that city and you must stone them with stones until they die, the girl because she did not cry out even though in the city, and the man because he has violated his neighbor's wife. In this way you may purge the evil from among you.

²⁸ If a man finds a girl who is a virgin who is not engaged and seizes her and lies with her and they are discovered, ²⁹ then the man who lay with her must give fifty shekels † of silver to the girl's father, and she shall be his wife because he has violated her. He may not divorce her all his days.

³⁰ A man must not marry his father's wife and in this way dishonor his father.

Exclusion From the Assembly

23 No one who is emasculated or has his male organ cut off may enter the assembly of the LORD

² No one of illegitimate birth may enter the assembly of the LORD. Even to his tenth generation no one related to him may enter the assembly of the LORD.

³ No Ammonite or Moabite may enter the assembly of the LORD. Even to their tenth generation they may not enter the assembly of the LORD forever, ⁴ because they refused you bread and water on the way, when you came from out of Egypt and because they hired Balaam, the son of Beor of Pethor of Mesopotamia, against you to curse you. ⁵ Nevertheless, the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam. Instead the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing on you because the LORD your God loves you. ⁶ You are not ever to seek their peace nor their prosperity all your days.

† About 11/4 pounds, or 575 grams.

⁷ You are not to abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother. You shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you were a foreigner in his land. ⁸ The children who are born of them may enter the assembly of the LORD in their third generation.

Uncleanness in the Camp

⁹ When the army goes out against your enemies, then keep yourself from every wicked thing. ¹⁰ If there be among you any man who is not clean because of a nocturnal emission, then he must leave the camp. He may not re-enter the camp. ¹¹ And it must be that when evening comes, he must wash himself with water, and at sunset he may re-enter the camp.

¹² You must also have a place outside the camp where one may go outside. ¹³ You must have a spade among your equipment, and it must be, when you relieve yourself outside, you must dig there and turn and cover up your excrement. ¹⁴ For the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you, and to defeat your enemies before you. Therefore, your camp must be holy, so that He does not see any indecent thing among you, and turn away from you.

Various Laws

¹⁵ You must not deliver back to his master a slave who has escaped from his master to you. ¹⁶ He is to dwell with you, even among you, in a place which he shall choose in one of your towns, where he prefers. You must not oppress him.

¹⁷ There must never be a cult prostitute among the daughters of Israel nor a cult prostitute among the sons of Israel. ¹⁸ You must never bring the wage of a prostitute or the wage of a dog into the house of the LORD your God for any vow, for both of these are abominations to the LORD your God.

¹⁹ You must not charge interest on a loan to your brother: interest on money, interest on food, or on anything that may be lent with interest. ²⁰ You may charge interest to a foreigner, but to your brother you may not lend with interest so that the LORD your God may bless you in all to which you set your hand in the land which you are entering to possess.

²¹ When you make a vow to the LORD your God, you must not be slow to pay it, for the LORD your God will surely require it of you, and it would be a sin to you.

²² But if you refrain from making a vow, it will not be a sin to you. ²³ That which goes out of your lips you must keep and do, even a freewill offering, just as you have vowed to the LORD your God, what you have promised with your mouth.

²⁴ When you go into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat grapes to your fill at your own pleasure, but you may not put any in your basket. ²⁵ When you enter into the standing grain of your neighbor, you may pluck the ears with your hand, but you may not use a sickle on your neighbor's standing grain.

Laws About Marriage and Divorce

24 When a man takes a wife and marries her, and it happens that she finds no favor in his eyes because he has found some indecency in her, then let him write her a bill of divorce and put it in her hand and send her out of his house. ² When she departs out of his house, she may go and be another man's wife. ³ If the second husband rejects her and writes her a bill of divorce and puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house, or if the second husband who took her to be his wife dies, ⁴ her first husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, since she is defiled, for that is abomination before the LORD, and you must not bring sin on the land, which the LORD your God is giving you for an inheritance.

⁵ When a man has taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war or be charged with any business; he is to be free at home one year, and must bring joy to his wife which he has taken.

Various Laws

⁶ No man shall take a lower or upper millstone as a pledge, for he would be taking a man's life as a pledge.

⁷ If a man is found kidnapping any of his brothers of the children of Israel, and makes property of him or sells him, then that kidnapper must die, and you must remove the evil from among you.

⁸ Be careful with an outbreak of leprosy, that you diligently observe and do according to all that the Levitical priests instruct you. As I have commanded them, so you must carefully do. ⁹ Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on the way, after you came out of Egypt.

¹⁰ When you do lend your brother anything, you may not go into his house to take his pledge. ¹¹ You must stand outside, and the man to whom you lend must bring the pledge outside to you. ¹² If the man is poor, you may not sleep with his pledge. ¹³ In any case, you must return the pledge to him when the sun goes down, so that he may sleep in his own cloak and bless you, and it will be righteousness to you before the LORD your God.

¹⁴ You may not oppress a hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he is one of your brothers or one of your foreigners who are in your land within your towns. ¹⁵ You must give him his wages on that very day before the sun sets, for he is poor, and sets his heart on it, lest he cry against you to the LORD, and it be a sin to you.

¹⁶ Fathers may not be put to death for the sons, nor shall sons be put to death for their fathers. Every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

¹⁷ You must not pervert the justice of the foreigner or of the fatherless, nor take a widow's cloak as a pledge.

¹⁸ On the contrary, you must remember that you were a slave in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you there. Therefore, I command you to do this.

¹⁹ Whenever you reap your harvest in your field and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you may not go back to get it. It will be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

²⁰ When you beat your olive tree, you may not go over the boughs again. It will be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow. ²¹ When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it again. It will be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow. ²² You must remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. Therefore I command you to do this thing.

25 If there is a controversy between men, they are to go to court for judgment, so that the judges may judge them. Then they shall justify the righteous and condemn the wicked. ² It must be, if the wicked man is worthy to be beaten, then the judge must make him lie down and be beaten in his presence, with the number of strikes his guilt deserves. ³ He may give him forty stripes, but no more, lest, if he should exceed and beat him more with numerous stripes, then your brother may appear contemptible to you.

⁴ You must not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain.

Levirate Marriage

⁵ If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies without having had a child, the wife of the deceased may not marry outside the family to a stranger. Her husband's brother must go to her and take her to himself as a wife and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her. ⁶ It shall be, that the firstborn whom she bears shall continue in the name of his brother who is deceased, so that his name will not be blotted out of Israel.

⁷ If the man does not want to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate to the elders and say, "My husband's brother refuses to raise up his brother's name in Israel. He will not perform the duty of my husband's brother." ⁸ Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak to him, and if he persists and says, "I do not want to take her," ⁹ then his brother's wife must come to him in the presence of the elders and remove his sandal from his foot, and spit in his face, and answer and say, "So shall it be done to that man who will not build up his brother's house." ¹⁰ His name will be called in Israel, "The house of him who has his sandal removed."

Various Laws

¹¹ When a man and his brother fight one another, and the wife of the one draws near in order to deliver her husband out of the hand of him who fights him, and reaches out her hand and seizes him by the private parts, ¹² then you must cut off her hand. You must not pity her.

¹³ You must not have in your bag different weights, a large and a small. ¹⁴ You must not have in your house differing measures, a large and a small. ¹⁵ But you must have a perfect and just weight—a perfect and just measure you must have, so that your days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God is giving you. ¹⁶ For all who do such things and all who act unjustly are an abomination to the LORD your God.

¹⁷ Remember what Amalek did to you by the road when you were coming out of Egypt, ¹⁸ how he met you by the way and attacked at your rear all that were stragglers behind you, when you were exhausted and weary. He did not fear God. ¹⁹ Therefore it shall be, when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your surrounding enemies, in the land which the LORD your God is giving you for an inheritance to possess, that you must blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven. You must not forget it.

First Fruits and Tithes

26 And it must be, when you come into the land which the LORD your God is giving you for an inheritance, and you possess it, and dwell in it, ² that you shall take from the first of all the produce of the ground which you shall bring from your land that the LORD your God is giving you, and put it in a basket and go to the place where the LORD your God chooses to make His name abide. ³ You shall go to the priest in office at that time and say to him, “I profess this day to the LORD your God that I have come into the land which the LORD promised to our fathers to give us.” ⁴ The priest will take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God. ⁵ Then you must answer and say before the LORD your God, “A wandering Aramean † was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with only a few in number, but there he became a great, mighty, and populous nation. ⁶ However, the Egyptians mistreated and afflicted us, and laid upon us harsh labor. ⁷ And when we cried to the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, our labor, and our oppression. ⁸ And the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm and with great terror, and with signs and wonders. ⁹ Then He brought us into this place, and has given us this land, a land that flows with milk and honey. ¹⁰ Now, indeed, I have brought the first fruits of the land, which you, O LORD, have given me.” Then you must set it before the LORD your God and worship before the LORD your God. ¹¹ You must rejoice in every good thing which the LORD your God has given to you and your house, you, and the Levite, as well as the foreigner who is among you.

¹² When you have finished tithing all the tithes of your income the third year, which is the year of tithing, and have given it to the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan, and the widow, that they may eat within your towns and be satisfied, ¹³ then you shall say before the LORD your God, “I have removed the sacred things out of my house and also have given them to the Levite, and to the foreigner, to the orphan, and to the widow, according to all Your commandments which You have commanded me. I have not transgressed Your commandments or forgotten them. ¹⁴ I have not eaten anything when in mourning, nor have I removed anything while unclean, nor offered anything to the dead. I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God and have done according to all that You have commanded me. ¹⁵ Look down from Your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Your people Israel and the land which You have given us, as You swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.”

An Exhortation to Obey

¹⁶ Today the LORD your God has commanded you to do these statutes and judgments. You must therefore keep and do them with all your heart and with all your soul. ¹⁷ You have affirmed today that the LORD is your God and vowed to walk in His ways, and to keep His statutes, and His commandments, and His judgments, and to listen to His voice. ¹⁸ And the LORD has affirmed today that you are His special people, just as He has promised you, and that you should keep all His commandments. ¹⁹ He will exalt you above all nations which He has made, in praise, and in name, and in honor; and that you may be a holy people to the LORD your God, just as He has spoken.

The Altar on Mount Ebal

27 Then Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying: Keep all the commandments which I am commanding you today. ² On the day when you cross over the Jordan into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, you must set up for yourself great stones, and cover them with plaster. ³ Then you must write all the words of this law on them, when you cross over, so that you may enter into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD God of your fathers promised you. ⁴ Therefore, when you cross over the Jordan, you shall set up these stones, which I am commanding you today, on Mount Ebal, and you shall cover them with plaster. ⁵ There you must build an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones. You must not use any iron tool on them. ⁶ You must build the altar of the LORD your God with whole stones, and you must offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God. ⁷ You must offer peace offerings and eat there, and rejoice before the LORD your God. ⁸ You must write all the words of this law very clearly on the stones.

⁹ Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, saying: Be silent and listen, O Israel. Today you have become the people of the LORD your God. ¹⁰ Therefore, you must obey the voice of the LORD your God and do His commandments and His statutes, which I am commanding you today.

¹¹ Moses commanded the people the same day, saying:

¹² These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people when you cross over the Jordan: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. ¹³ And these must stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

¹⁴ The Levites will answer and say to all the men of Israel with a loud voice:

¹⁵ "Cursed is the man who makes any graven or molded image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and puts it in a secret place." And all the people shall answer and say, "Amen."

¹⁶ "Cursed is he who disrespects his father or his mother." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

¹⁷ "Cursed is he who removes his neighbor's landmark." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

¹⁸ "Cursed is he who misleads the blind man on the road." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

¹⁹ "Cursed is he who perverts justice for the foreigner, orphan, and widow." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

²⁰ "Cursed is he who lies with his father's wife, for he dishonors his father." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

²¹ "Cursed is he who lies with any kind of beast." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

²² "Cursed is he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

²³ "Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

²⁴ "Cursed is he who strikes down his neighbor secretly." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

²⁵ "Cursed is he who receives pay to slay an innocent person." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

²⁶ "Cursed is he who does not confirm all the words of this law by doing them." And all the people shall say, "Amen."

Blessings for Obedience

28 Now it will be, if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God, being careful to do all His commandments which I am commanding you today, then the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth. ² And all these blessings will come on you and overtake you if you listen to the voice of the LORD your God.

³ You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the field.

⁴ Your offspring will be blessed, and the produce of your ground, and the offspring of your livestock, the increase of your herd and the flocks of your sheep.

⁵ Your basket and your kneading bowl will be blessed.

⁶ You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out.

⁸ The LORD will command the blessing on you in your barns and in all that you set your hand to do, and He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

¹² The LORD will open up to you His good treasure, the heavens, to give the rain to your land in its season and to bless all the work of your hand. You will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow. ¹³ The LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you will only be above and you will not be beneath, if you listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am commanding you today, to observe and to do them.

¹⁴ Also, you shall not turn aside from any of the words which I am commanding you today, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

Warnings Against Disobedience

¹⁵ But it will happen, if you will not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, by being careful to do all His commandments and His statutes which I am commanding you today, that all these curses will come upon you and overtake you.

¹⁶ You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the field.

¹⁷ Your basket and your kneading bowl will be cursed.

¹⁸ Your offspring will be cursed along with the fruit of your land, the produce of your herd, and the flocks of your sheep.

¹⁹ You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.

²⁰ The LORD will send cursing, vexation, and rebuke on you in all that you set your hand to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly because of the wickedness of your doings, by which you have forsaken Me. ²¹ The LORD will make pestilence cling to you until it has consumed you from the land, which you are going to possess. ²² The LORD will strike you with a wasting disease, with a fever, with an inflammation, with an extreme heat, with the sword, with blight, and with mildew, and they shall pursue you until you perish. ²³ The heavens which are over your head will be bronze, and the earth that is under you will be iron. ²⁴ The LORD will make the rain of your land powder and dust. It will come from heaven down on you until you are destroyed.

²⁵ The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies, and you will go out one way against them and flee seven ways before them, and will be become an object of terror to all the kingdoms of the earth. ²⁶ Your carcass will be meat for all the fowls of the air and beasts of the earth, and no man will frighten them away. ²⁷ The LORD will strike you with the boils of Egypt and with tumors, eczema, and with the itch, from which you cannot be healed. ²⁸ The LORD will strike you with madness, and blindness, and bewilderment of heart. ²⁹ You will grope at noon, as the blind man gropes in darkness, and you will not prosper in your ways. You will only be oppressed and continually robbed, and no man will save you.

³⁰ You will be engaged to a woman and another man shall rape her. You will build a house, but you will not dwell in it. You will plant a vineyard, but you will not gather its grapes. ³¹ Your ox will be killed before your eyes, and you will not eat of it. Your donkey will be violently taken away from before you and will not be returned to you. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and you will have no one to rescue them. ³² Your sons and your daughters will be given to another people. Your eyes will look and fail with longing for them all day long, but there will be nothing you can do. ³³ A nation that you do not know will consume the produce of your land and all your labors, and you will be nothing but oppressed and crushed all the time. ³⁴ You will go insane because of what your eyes will see. ³⁵ The LORD will strike you in the knees and legs with sore boils that cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

³⁶ The LORD will bring you and your king, which you will set over you, to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you will serve other gods, wood and stone. ³⁷ You will become a horror, a proverb, and an object of ridicule among all nations where the LORD shall lead you.

³⁸ You will carry a lot of seed out into the field but will gather but little in, for the locust will consume it. ³⁹ You will plant vineyards and dress them, but will neither drink of the wine nor gather the grapes, for worms will eat them. ⁴⁰ You will have olive trees throughout all your coasts, but you will not anoint yourself with the oil, for your olive will drop off. ⁴¹ You will give birth to sons and daughters, but you will not enjoy them, for they will go into captivity. ⁴² The locust will consume all of your trees and fruit of your land.

⁴³ The foreigner who resides with you will get up higher and higher, and you will go down lower and lower. ⁴⁴ He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him. He will be the head, but you will be the tail.

⁴⁵ Moreover, all of these curses will come on you and will pursue you and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God, by keeping His commandments and His statutes which He commanded you. ⁴⁶ They will be a perpetual sign and wonder in regard to you and your descendants, ⁴⁷ because you did not serve the LORD your God with joy and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of all things. ⁴⁸ Therefore, you will serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, in hunger, thirst, nakedness, and need of all things, and He will put a yoke of iron on your neck until He has destroyed you.

⁴⁹ The LORD will bring a nation against you from far away, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flies, a nation whose language you will not understand, ⁵⁰ a nation with a fierce countenance, which will not respect the old or show favor to the young. ⁵¹ They will eat the offspring of your livestock and the produce of your land, until you are destroyed. They will leave you no grain, wine, or oil, or the offspring of your herd or the offspring of your sheep, until they have destroyed you. ⁵² He will lay siege on you in all your towns until your high and fortified walls in which you trusted come down throughout all your land, and he will lay siege on you in all your towns throughout all your land which the LORD your God has given you.

⁵³ You will eat the offspring of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, which the LORD your God has given you, during the siege and distress in which your enemies will persecute you. ⁵⁴ The man who is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be hostile toward his brother and toward his beloved wife and toward the rest of his children who remain, ⁵⁵ so that he will not give to any of them any of the flesh of his children which he will eat, because he has nothing left to him because of the siege and the distress by which your enemies will persecute you in all your towns. ⁵⁶ The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground because of her delicateness and tenderness, will be hostile toward her beloved husband, and toward her son and her daughter, ⁵⁷ and toward her afterbirth that comes out from between her legs, and toward her children whom she will bear. For she will secretly eat them because of lack during the siege and distress in which your enemy will persecute you in your towns.

⁵⁸ If you are not careful to observe all the words of this law that are written in this book so that you may fear this glorious and fearful name, the LORD your God, ⁵⁹ then the LORD will bring extraordinary plagues on you and your descendants, even great long-lasting plagues, and severe and long-lasting sicknesses.

⁶⁰ Moreover, He will bring all the diseases of Egypt upon you, which you were afraid of, and they will cling to you. ⁶¹ Also every sickness and every plague which is not written in the Book of the Law will the LORD bring upon you until you are destroyed. ⁶² You will be left few in number, whereas you were as numerous as the stars of heaven, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God. ⁶³ It will be that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good and to multiply you, so the LORD will take pleasure over you to destroy you and to bring you to nothing. You will be plucked from off the land which you go to possess.

⁶⁴ The LORD will scatter you among all the peoples, from the one end of the earth to the other, and there you will serve other gods, wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known. ⁶⁵ Among these nations you will find no ease, nor will the sole of your foot have rest. But there the LORD will give you a trembling heart, failing of eyes, and despair of soul.

⁶⁶ Your life shall hang in doubt before you. You will be in dread day and night and will have no assurance of your life. ⁶⁷ In the morning you will say, "Would to God it were evening!" And at evening you will say, "Would to God it were morning!" because of the fear of your heart and because of the sights your eyes will see.

⁶⁸ The LORD will bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way by which I spoke to you, "You will not see it ever again." And there you will be sold to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one will buy you.

Renewal of the Covenant

29 These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which He made with them in Horeb.

² Moses proclaimed to all Israel, and said to them:

You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and all his servants and to all his land— ³ the great temptations which your eyes have seen, those signs and great wonders.

⁴ Yet to this day the LORD has not given you a heart to know, eyes to see, and ears to hear. ⁵ I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandal has not worn out on your foot. ⁶ You have not eaten bread, nor have you drunk wine or strong drink, so that you might know that I am the LORD your God.

⁷ When you came to this place, Sihon, the king of Heshbon, and Og, the king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we defeated them. ⁸ We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and to half of the tribe of Manasseh.

⁹ Therefore, keep the words of this covenant and do them, so that you may prosper in all you do. ¹⁰ Today all of you stand before the LORD your God, the heads of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel, ¹¹ your little ones, your wives, and your foreigners who are in your camp, from the one who chops your wood to the one who draws your water— ¹² so that you should enter into a covenant with the LORD your God, and into His oath, which the LORD your God is making with you today. ¹³ Today He will establish that you are His people and that He is your God, just as He has said to you and He has sworn to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. ¹⁴ It is not with you alone that I am making this covenant and this oath, ¹⁵ but with him who stands here with us today before the LORD our God, and with him who is not here with us today ¹⁶ (for you know that we lived in the land of Egypt and how we came through the nations which you passed by, ¹⁷ and you have seen their abominations and their idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold, which were among them); ¹⁸ lest there be among you a man or woman or family or tribe whose heart turns away today from the LORD our God to go and serve the gods of these nations, and lest there be among you a root bearing poisonous and bitter fruit; ¹⁹ and it happens that, when he hears the words of this covenant, he blesses himself in his heart, saying, "I shall have peace, even though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart," thus destroying the watered ground with the dry. ²⁰ The LORD will not spare him; rather the anger of the LORD and His jealousy will smolder against that man. All the curses that are written in this book will rest on him, and the LORD will blot out his name from under heaven. ²¹ The LORD will single him out for disaster out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that are written in this Book of the Law.

²² The generation to come, your children who will rise up after you and the foreigner who will come from a far land, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the LORD has laid on it, will say, ²³ "The whole land is brimstone and salt, a burning waste, unsown and unproductive, and no grass grows there, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiym, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and wrath." ²⁴ All nations will say, "Why has the LORD done such to this land? What does the heatedness of this great anger mean?"

²⁵ Then men will say, "Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt. ²⁶ For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods which they did not know and which He had not given to them. ²⁷ The anger of the LORD burned against this land, bringing on it all the curses that are written in this book. ²⁸ The LORD rooted them out of their land in anger and in wrath and in great indignation, and threw them into another land, as it is today."

²⁹ The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but those things which are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, so that we may keep all the words of this law.

The Promise of Restoration

30 When all these things happen to you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you remember them among all the nations, where the LORD your God has driven you, ² then you must return to the LORD your God and obey His voice according to all that I am commanding you today, you and your children, with all your heart, and with all your soul. ³ Then the LORD your God will overturn your captivity and have compassion on you and will return and gather you from all the nations, where the LORD your God has scattered you. ⁴ If any of you are driven out to the outmost parts of heaven, from there will the LORD your God gather you, and from there He will get you. ⁵ The LORD your God will bring you to the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it. He will prosper you and multiply you more than your fathers. ⁶ The LORD your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants to love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live. ⁷ The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies, on them who hate you, who persecuted you. ⁸ You will return and obey the voice of the LORD, and obey all His commandments which I am commanding you today. ⁹ The LORD your God will make you prosper in every work of your hand, in the offspring of your body, and in the offspring of your livestock, and in the produce of your land, for good. For the LORD will once again rejoice over you for good, just as He rejoiced over your fathers, ¹⁰ if you obey the voice of the LORD your God, by keeping His commandments and His statutes which are written in this Book of the Law, and if you return to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

The Choice of Life or Death

¹¹ This commandment which I am commanding you today is not hidden from you, nor is it far off. ¹² It is not in heaven, that you should say, "Who will go up for us to heaven and bring it to us, so that we may hear it and do it?" ¹³ It is not beyond the sea, so that you should say, "Who shall go over the sea for us and bring it to us, so that we may hear it and do it?" ¹⁴ But the word is very near to you, in your mouth, and in your heart, so that you may do it.

¹⁵ See, today I have set before you life and prosperity, and death and disaster. ¹⁶ What I am commanding you today is to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, so that you may live and multiply. Then the LORD your God will bless you in the land which you go to possess.

¹⁷ But if your heart turns away, so that you do not obey, but are drawn away, and worship other gods and serve them, ¹⁸ then I declare to you today that you will surely perish and that you will not prolong your days in the land which you are crossing the Jordan to go in and possess.

¹⁹ I call heaven and earth to witnesses against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live; ²⁰ that you may love the LORD your God, that you may obey His voice, and that you may cling to Him, for He is your life and the length of your days; and that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them.

Joshua to Succeed Moses

31 Then Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. ² He said to them, "I am a hundred and twenty years old today. I can no longer come and go. Also, the LORD has said to me, 'You may not cross over the Jordan.' ³ The LORD your God will cross over before you. He will destroy these nations before you, you will possess them, and Joshua will cross over before you, just as the LORD has said. ⁴ The LORD will do to them as He did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, which He destroyed. ⁵ The LORD will give them up before you, so that you may do to them according to all the commandments which I have commanded you. ⁶ Be strong and of a good courage. Fear not, nor be afraid of them, for the LORD your God, it is He who goes with you. He will not fail you, nor forsake you."

⁷ Moses called to Joshua, and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and of good courage, for you must go with this people to the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you will enable them to inherit it. ⁸ The LORD, He goes before you. He will be with you. He will not fail you nor forsake you. Do not fear, nor be dismayed."

⁹ Moses wrote this law and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. ¹⁰ Moses commanded them, saying, "At the end of every seven years, at the time of the year of the cancellation of debts, at the Feast of Tabernacles, ¹¹ when all Israel has come to appear before the LORD your God in the place which He will choose, you must read this law before all Israel in their hearing. ¹² Gather the people together, men, women, children, and your foreigner who is within your towns, so that they may hear and learn and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law. ¹³ Their children, who have not known it, may hear and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land which you cross the Jordan to possess."

Prediction of Israel's Rebellion

¹⁴ The LORD said to Moses, "Indeed, your days draw near when you must die. Call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tent of meeting, so that I may commission him." So Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tent of meeting.

¹⁵ The LORD appeared in the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood over the door of the tent. ¹⁶ The LORD said to Moses, "You are about to lie down with your fathers, and this people will rise up and begin to prostitute themselves after the gods of the foreigners of the land, where they are going to be among them, and will forsake Me and break My covenant which I have made with them. ¹⁷ Then My anger will burn against them on that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide My face from them, and they will be devoured, and many disasters and troubles will befall them, so that they will say in that day, 'Have not these disasters come upon us because our God is not among us?' ¹⁸ And I will surely hide My face in that day for all the evil things which they shall have done, in that they turned to other gods.

¹⁹ "Now therefore write yourself this song and teach it to the children of Israel. Put it on their mouths, so that this song may be a witness for Me against the children of Israel. ²⁰ For when I have brought them into the land which I swore to their fathers, flowing with milk and honey, and they have eaten, and filled themselves, and become fat, then they will turn to other gods, and serve them, and provoke Me, and break My covenant. ²¹ Then when many disasters and troubles have fallen on them, this song will testify against them as a witness, for it must not be forgotten from the mouths of their descendants. For I know their intention which they are developing even now, before I have brought them into the land which I promised." ²² Therefore, Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the children of Israel.

²⁴ When Moses had finished writing the words of this law in a book, until they were completed, ²⁵ then Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, ²⁶ "Take this Book of the Law, and put it inside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, so that it may be there for a witness against you. ²⁷ For I know your rebellion and your stiff neck. Even now, while I am yet alive with you today, you have been rebellious against the LORD. How much more after my death? ²⁸ Gather to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, so that I may speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to witness against them. ²⁹ For I know that after my death you will utterly corrupt yourselves and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you, and disaster will befall you in the latter days, because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands."

The Song of Moses

³⁰ Moses spoke the words of this song until they were finished, in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel:

32 Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak;
hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.
² My teaching will drop like the rain, my sayings will distill as the dew,
as the droplets on the grass,
and as the showers on the herb.
³ For I will proclaim the name of the LORD:
Ascribe greatness to our God!
⁴ He is the Rock; His work is perfect;
for all His ways are just.
He is a God of faithfulness and without injustice;
righteous and upright is He.
⁵ They have acted corruptly to Him;
they are not His children, but blemished;
they are a perverse and crooked generation.
⁶ Is this how you repay the LORD,
you foolish and unwise people?
Is He not your father, who has bought you?
Has He not made you, and established you?
⁷ Remember the days of old,
consider the years of previous generations.
Ask your father, and he will show you;
your elders, and they will tell you:
⁸ When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, when He separated the sons of man, †
He set the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the children of Israel.
⁹ For the LORD's portion is His people;
Jacob is the allotment of His inheritance.
¹⁰ He found him in a desert land and in the howling waste of a wilderness;
He led him about, He instructed him,
He protected him like the pupil of His eye.
¹¹ Like an eagle stirs up her nest, that flutters over her young,
He spread out his wings and took him;
He lifted him on His pinions;
¹² the LORD alone guided him,
and there was no foreign god with him.
¹³ He made him ride on the high places of the earth, and he ate of the produce of the fields;
He made him suck honey out of the rock and oil out of the flinty rock, ¹⁴ butter from the herd,
and milk from the flock,
along with the fat of lambs,
and rams of the breed from Bashan,
and goats,
with the best of the kernels of wheat;
you drank the pure blood of the grape.
¹⁵ But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked;

† Or a Adam.

you grew fat, you grew thick;
 you are covered with fat.
 Then he forsook God who made him,
 and devalued the Rock of his salvation.
¹⁶ They made Him jealous with strange gods;
 with abominations they provoked Him to anger.
¹⁷ They sacrificed to demons, not to God, to gods whom they knew not,
 to new gods that recently came along,
 whom your fathers did not fear.
¹⁸ You have forgotten the Rock who begot you;
 you are unmindful, and have forgotten the God who gave you birth.
¹⁹ When the LORD saw it, He despised them, because of the provocation of His sons and daughters.
²⁰ He said: I will hide My face from them;
 I will see what their end will be,
 for they are a very perverse generation,
 children in whom there is no loyalty.
²¹ They have made Me jealous with that which is not God;
 they have provoked Me to anger with their empty things.
 And I will make them jealous of those who are not a people;
 I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.
²² For a fire has been inflamed by My anger, and it will burn to the lowest part of Sheol, † and shall consume the earth and its produce, and ignite the foundations of the mountains.
²³ I will heap misfortunes on them;
 I will use My arrows on them.
²⁴ They will be starved by famine,
 and consumed by plague and bitter destruction;
 I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of crawling creatures in the dust.
²⁵ The sword outside and terror within will destroy both the young man and the virgin,
 the infant along with the man of gray hair.
²⁶ I said, "I want to cut them into pieces,
 I will cause the memory of them to disappear from among men,"
²⁷ however, I feared the wrath of the enemy, that their adversaries would misunderstand and say, "Our hand is victorious, and the LORD has not done all this."
²⁸ For they are a nation devoid of counsel;
 there is no understanding in them.
²⁹ Would that they were wise, so that they understood this,
 so that they would comprehend their future!
³⁰ How should one chase a thousand,
 and two put ten thousand to flight,
 unless their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had given them up?
³¹ For their rock is not as our Rock;

† Or a the lowest depths of the earth or underworld.

even our enemies themselves concede this.
³² For their vine is from the vine of Sodom and from the fields of Gomorrah; their grapes are grapes of poison;
 their clusters are bitter.
³³ Their wine is the poison of dragons and the deadly venom of cobras.
³⁴ Is not this laid up in store with Me and sealed up among My treasures?
³⁵ Vengeance is Mine, and recompense; their foot will slip in due time;
 for the day of their calamity is at hand,
 and the things to come hasten upon them.
³⁶ For the LORD will judge His people, and relent in regard to His servants,
 when He sees that their power is gone and there is no one left, whether restrained or free.
³⁷ He will say: Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted,
³⁸ which ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offerings?
 Let them rise up and help you and be your protection.
³⁹ See now that I, even I, am He,
 and there is no god besides Me;
 I kill, and I make alive;
 I wound, and I heal;
 there is no one who can deliver out of My hand.
⁴⁰ For I lift up My hand to heaven,
 and say: As I live forever,
⁴¹ if I sharpen My flashing sword and My hand takes hold on judgment,
 I will render vengeance on My enemies and will repay those who hate Me.
⁴² I will make My arrows drunk with blood, and My sword shall devour flesh,
 with the blood of the slain and of the captives,
 from the heads of the leaders of the enemies.
⁴³ Rejoice, O you nations, with His people;
 for He will avenge the blood of His servants and will render vengeance on His adversaries and will be merciful to His land and people.
⁴⁴ Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he, with Joshua, the son of Nun. ⁴⁵ When Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, ⁴⁶ he said to them, "Set your hearts on all the words which I testify among you today, which you shall command your children to be careful to observe, all the words of this law. ⁴⁷ For it is no idle word for you, because it is your life, and by this word you will prolong your days in the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess."

Moses to Die on Mount Nebo

⁴⁸ The LORD spoke to Moses that same day, saying, ⁴⁹ "Go up to this mountain of the Abarim, to Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab opposite Jericho, and look at the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the children of Israel for a possession. ⁵⁰ Die on the mount where you go up, and be gathered to your people, just as Aaron, your brother, died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people, ⁵¹ because you trespassed against Me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah Kadesh, in the Wilderness of Zin, because you did not treat Me as holy in the midst of the children of Israel. ⁵² Nevertheless, you will see the land before you, but you may not go there, to the land which I am giving to the children of Israel."

Moses Blesses Israel

Ge 49:1-28

33 Now this is the blessing with which Moses, the man of God, blessed the children of Israel before his death. ² He said:

The LORD came from Sinai and rose up from Seir to them;

He shone forth from Mount Paran, and He came with ten thousands of holy ones;
from His right hand went a fiery law [†] for them.

³ Surely, He loved the people;
all His holy ones are in Your hand,
and they sit down at Your feet;
everyone receives Your words.

⁴ Moses decreed to us a law,
the inheritance of the assembly of Jacob.

⁵ He was king over Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

⁶ Let Reuben live, and not die, and let not his men be few.

⁷ This is the blessing to Judah. He said:
Listen, O LORD, to the voice of Judah, and bring him to his people;
may his hands contend for them,
and may You help him against his enemies.

⁸ Of Levi he said:
Let Your Thummim and Your Urim be with Your godly one, whom You tested at Massah,

and with whom You contended at the waters of Meribah,

⁹ who said to his father and to his mother,
"I have not seen him,"
and he did not acknowledge his brothers or know his own children, for they have kept Your word and guarded Your covenant.

¹⁰ They will teach Jacob Your judgments and Israel Your law.

They will put incense before You and the whole burnt offerings on your altar.

¹¹ Bless, O LORD, his substance, and accept the work of his hands;
run through the loins of them that rise against him and of them that hate him, so that they rise never again.

¹² Of Benjamin he said:

The beloved of the LORD will dwell in safety by Him, and the LORD will protect him all day long;
he will dwell between His shoulders.

¹³ Of Joseph he said:

May his land be blessed of the LORD, from the harvest of the heavens,
by the dew,
and by the deep crouching beneath,
¹⁴ by the precious fruits brought forth by the sun,
and by the choice things put forth by the moon, ¹⁵ by the finest things of the ancient mountains, and by the choice things of the everlasting hills, ¹⁶ by the best things of the earth and its fullness, and by the goodwill of Him who dwelt in the bush.
May the blessing rest on the head of Joseph, on top of the head of him who was separated from his brothers.

¹⁷ His glory is like the firstborn of his bull, and his horns are like the horns of a wild ox;
with them he will push the peoples together to the ends of the earth;

they are the ten thousands of Ephraim,
and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

¹⁸ Of Zebulun he said:

Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going outside,
and Issachar in your tents.

¹⁹ They will call the peoples to the mountain;
there they will offer sacrifices of righteousness, for they will draw out the abundance of the seas and the treasures hid in the sand.

²⁰ Of Gad he said:

Blessed be he who enlarges Gad;
he dwells as a lion
and tears an arm and the crown of a head.

²¹ He provided the first part for himself, because there, in a portion of the ruler, he was seated.

He came with the heads of the people.

He executed the justice of the LORD, and His ordinances with Israel.

²² Of Dan he said:

Dan is a lion's whelp;
he will leap forth from Bashan.

²³ Of Naphtali he said:

O Naphtali, satisfied with favor and full with the blessing of the LORD, possess the west and the south.

²⁴ Of Asher he said:

May Asher be blessed with children;
may he be acceptable to his brothers, and may he dip his foot in oil. ^{††}

²⁵ Your sandals will be iron and brass;
according to your days, so shall be your strength.

²⁶ There is none like the God of Jeshurun,

[†] Or a flashing lightning.

^{††} A metaphor depicting prosperity.

who rides through the heavens to help you,
and in His majesty through the skies.

²⁷ The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath you are the everlasting arms;
He will drive out the enemy before you,
and will say, "Destroy them."

²⁸ Israel dwells in safety;
the fountain of Jacob will be secluded in a land of grain and new wine;
its heavens will rain down dew.

²⁹ Blessed are you, O Israel!
Who is like you,
a people saved by the LORD ,
the shield of your help,
who is the sword of your majesty!
Your enemies will cringe before you,
and you will tread upon their high places.

The Death of Moses

34 Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. Then the LORD showed him all the land—from Gilead to Dan, ² and all Naphtali and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, to the Mediterranean Sea, ³ and the Negev and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar. ⁴ The LORD said to him, "This is the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.' I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you will not cross over there."

⁵ So Moses, the servant of the LORD , died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD .

⁹ Now Joshua, the son of Nun, was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him. And the children of Israel listened to him and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

¹⁰ Since then there has not arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, ¹¹ in all the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, to all his servants, and to all his land, ¹² and by all that mighty power and by all the great terror which Moses displayed in the sight of all Israel.

JOSHUA

This book was likely written between 1400 and 1370 BC. According to Jewish tradition, Joshua is the attributed author. Evidence suggests that the tribes had been in the land for some time when the book was given its final form. The theme of Joshua is the conquering and division of Canaan. The story opens in Shittim, just north of the Dead Sea and east of the Jordan River, as people prepare to take possession of the Promised Land. Miracles and bloody battles, including the battle of Jericho, are recounted as Joshua leads the people in military campaigns to possess the land God has promised them. This book clearly shows how a leader's obedience to God results in divine help in the face of overwhelming odds.

The LORD Commissions Joshua

1 Now after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD spoke to Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses: ² "Moses My servant is dead, so now get up and cross over the Jordan—you and all this people—to the land that I am giving to the children of Israel. ³ I have given you every place that the sole of your foot shall tread, as I said to Moses. ⁴ From the wilderness and this Lebanon, as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Mediterranean Sea toward the setting of the sun will be your territory. ⁵ No man will be able to stand against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, I will be with you. I will not abandon you. I will not leave you.

⁶ "Be strong and courageous, for you shall provide the land that I swore to their fathers to give them as an inheritance for this people. ⁷ Be strong and very courageous, in order to act carefully in accordance with all the law that My servant Moses commanded you. Do not turn aside from it to the right or the left, so that you may succeed wherever you go. ⁸ This Book of the Law must not depart from your mouth. Meditate on it day and night so that you may act carefully according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way successful, and you will be wise. ⁹ Have not I commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."

Joshua Takes Command

¹⁰ Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, ¹¹ "Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, 'Prepare food, for in three days you will cross the Jordan to go to take possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving you to possess.'"

¹² To the Reubenites, the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said, ¹³ "Remember the word that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you: The LORD your God has given you a place for rest and will give this land.' ¹⁴ Your wives, your children, and your livestock may live in the land that Moses gave you on the east side of the Jordan. But you must cross over with your brothers fully armed, your mighty men of valor, and help them, ¹⁵ until the LORD has given your brothers rest, as He has given you, and they also have possessed the land that the LORD your God is giving to them. Then you may return to your own land and possess what Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the east side of the Jordan where the sun rises."

¹⁶ They answered Joshua, "All that you command us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. ¹⁷ Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, we will obey you. May the LORD your God be with you, as He was with Moses! ¹⁸ Whoever rebels against your command and disobeys your words, in all that you command him, shall be put to death. Only be strong and courageous."

Rahab and the Spies

2 Then Joshua son of Nun sent two men out from Shittim to spy, saying, "Go see the land, especially Jericho." So they went, and they came to the house of a prostitute named Rahab. They spent the night there.

⁴ Now the woman had taken the two men and had hidden them. She said, "Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from. ⁵ The men went out when it was time to shut the gate at dark. I do not know where the men went. Chase after them quickly, for you can overtake them." ⁶ Yet she had brought them up to the roof. She hid them in the stalks of flax that she had spread out on the roof. ⁷ So the men chased after them on the road to the Jordan as far as the fords. They shut the gate as soon as the pursuers went out after them.

⁸ Before the spies went to sleep, Rahab went up to them on the roof. ⁹ She said to the men, "I know that the LORD has given you the land, for dread from you has fallen upon us, and all the inhabitants of the land melt in terror before you. ¹⁰ For we heard how the LORD dried up the waters of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to Sihon and Og, the two kings of the Amorites who were on the other side of the Jordan, whom you completely destroyed. ¹¹ Our hearts melted when we heard these things, and no man had any breath in him because of you, for the LORD your God is God in heaven above and on earth below. ¹² "So now, since I have acted faithfully toward you, please swear to me by the LORD that you will also act faithfully toward my father's house. Please give me a firm pledge ¹³ that you will spare my father, my mother, my brothers, my sisters, and all whom they own, and that you will deliver our lives from death."

¹⁴ The men said to her, "Our lives for yours; if you do not report us, then when the LORD gives us the land, we will act faithfully and kindly with you."

¹⁵ Then Rahab lowered them by a rope through the window, for her home was set into the wall where she lived. ¹⁶ She said to them, "Go to the hill country so that the pursuers do not find you. Hide there three days until the pursuers return. After that, you can go on your way."

¹⁷ The men said to her, "We will be free from this oath that you have made us swear, ¹⁸ unless, when we come into the land, you tie this red cord to the window through which you let us down. You must bring your father, your mother, your brothers, and all who belong to your father's household into your home. ¹⁹ Anyone who comes out of the doors of your house into the street is responsible for his own blood, and we will be innocent. Yet for anyone who stays with you inside the house, we are responsible for his blood if someone should lay a hand on him. ²⁰ But if you tell about this business of ours, then we will be released from the oath that you have made us swear."

²¹ She said, "Let it be so, according to your words." Then she sent them off, and they departed. Then she tied the red cord in the window.

²² They went and came to the hill country. They stayed there three days, until the pursuers returned. The pursuers had sought them all along the way but had not found them. ²³ So the two men returned. They descended from the hill country. They crossed the river, came to Joshua son of Nun, and told him all that they had discovered. ²⁴ They said to Joshua, "The LORD has surely given the whole land into our hands! Indeed, all the inhabitants of the land melt in terror before us."

Israel Crossing the Jordan

3 In the morning Joshua got up early; then he and all the children of Israel set out from Shittim and came to the Jordan. They stayed there before crossing over. ² After three days the officers went through the camp. ³ They commanded the people, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God and the Levite priests carrying it, then you shall set out from where you are and go behind it. ⁴ There must be a distance of two thousand cubits [†] between you and it. Do not draw closer to it, in order that you may know the way you should go. For you have not passed this way before."

⁵ Joshua said to the people, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will perform wondrous deeds among you."

⁶ Joshua said to the priests, "Pick up the ark of the covenant, and proceed ahead of the people." So they picked up the ark of the covenant and went in front of the people.

⁷ The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to honor you in the sight of all Israel, so that they may know that just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.

⁸ You shall command the priests who carry the ark of the covenant, "When you come to the bank of the Jordan, stand still in the river."

⁹ So Joshua said to the children of Israel, "Draw near and hear the words of the LORD your God." ¹⁰ And Joshua said, "By this you will know that the living God is among you, and that He will thoroughly drive out the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Hivites, the Perizzites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, and the Jebusites from before you. ¹¹ See, the ark of the covenant of the LORD of all the earth is passing before you into the Jordan. ¹² Now select twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man per tribe. ¹³ When the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, touch the water of the Jordan, the water of the Jordan that flows from upstream will be cut off and pile up."

¹⁴ When the people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, the priests were carrying the ark of the covenant before the people. ¹⁵ When the carriers of the ark came to the Jordan, the feet of the priests carrying the ark dipped into the edge of the water. (Now the Jordan overflows its banks all the days of the harvest.) ¹⁶ Then the water that flows down from upstream stood still and rose up in a heap very far away at Adam, the city beside Zarethan. The water that flows down toward the Sea of Arabah (the Dead Sea) stopped and was cut off. The people crossed over opposite Jericho. ¹⁷ The priests carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, and all Israel crossed over on dry ground until the entire people completed crossing over the Jordan.

Twelve Memorial Stones

4 When the entire people had completed crossing over the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua, ² "Take twelve men from among the people, one man per tribe. ³ Command them: 'Pick up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the feet of the priests are standing; bring them over with you, and set them in the place you will camp tonight.'"

[†] About 3,000 feet, or 900 meters.

¹⁰ The priests who were carrying the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan until everything was completed that the LORD had commanded Joshua to say to the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people quickly crossed over. ¹¹ When all the people had finished crossing over, the ark of the LORD and the priests crossed over in the presence of the people. ¹² The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over in battle formation in front of the children of Israel, according to what Moses had said to them. ¹³ About forty thousand battle-ready men crossed over before the LORD for battle on the plains of Jericho.

¹⁴ On that day, the LORD honored Joshua in the sight of all Israel. They feared him as they had feared Moses, all the days of his life.

¹⁵ The LORD spoke to Joshua, ¹⁶ "Command the priests carrying the ark of the testimony: 'Come up out of the Jordan!'"

¹⁷ So Joshua commanded the priests, "Come up out of the Jordan!"

¹⁹ Now the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they camped at Gilgal, on the eastern border of Jericho. ²⁰ Joshua set up in Gilgal those twelve stones that they took from the Jordan. ²¹ He said to the children of Israel, "When your children someday ask their parents, 'What do these stones mean?' ²² then you shall explain to your children, 'Israel crossed over the Jordan here on dry ground!' ²³ For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you crossed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea when He dried it up before us until we crossed over, ²⁴ so that all the peoples of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty, and you would fear the LORD your God always."

5 When all the kings of the Amorites west of the Jordan and of the Canaanites by the sea to the east heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the children of Israel while they crossed over, their hearts melted, and there was no longer any breath in them because of the children of Israel.

Circumcision and Passover at Gilgal

² At that time the LORD said to Joshua, "Make flint knives and circumcise the children of Israel a second time." ³ So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the children of Israel at the Hill of the Foreskins called Gibeath Haaraloth.

⁴ Now this is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: All the males who came out of Egypt who were men of fighting age had died in the wilderness along the way after leaving Egypt. ⁵ All of the people who had come out were circumcised, but all the people born in the wilderness along the way after leaving Egypt were not circumcised. ⁶ The children of Israel had traveled forty years in the wilderness until all the people, the men of fighting age who came out of Egypt, died, because they did not obey the LORD. The LORD had sworn not to let them see the land that He had sworn to their fathers to give to us, a land flowing with milk and honey. ⁷ Yet He raised up their descendants in their place. These men Joshua circumcised, for they were uncircumcised. They had not been circumcised along the way. ⁸ So when the entire people was completely circumcised, they stayed where they were in the camp until they healed.

⁹ The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the disgrace of Egypt from upon you." So the name of that place is called Gilgal even to this day.

¹⁰ The children of Israel camped in Gilgal and kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening on the plains of Jericho. ¹¹ The day after the Passover, they ate of the produce of the land, unleavened bread, and roasted grain. ¹² The manna stopped the day after they ate from the produce of the land, and the children of Israel no longer had manna. That year they ate what the land of Canaan yielded.

The Fall of Jericho

¹³ Now when Joshua was by Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him. In His hand was His drawn sword. Joshua went to Him and said, "Are You for us or for our enemies?"

¹⁴ He said, "Neither, for I am the commander of the army of the LORD. Now I have come." Then Joshua fell with his face to the ground and worshipped. Then he said, "What does my Lord wish to say to His servant?"

¹⁵ The commander of the army of the LORD said to Joshua, "Remove your sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy." So Joshua did this.

6 Now Jericho was tightly secured before the children of Israel. There was no one leaving or entering.

² The LORD said to Joshua, "See, I have given Jericho, its king, and mighty men of valor into your hand. ³ All the men of fighting age shall march around the city. Circle the city once. Do this for six days. ⁴ Seven priests shall carry seven ram's horn trumpets before the ark. On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing the trumpets. ⁵ When they blow a long blast on the ram's horn and when you hear the trumpet sound, all the people shall shout a loud battle cry. The walls of the city will fall down, and the people will go up, every man straight ahead."

¹⁵ Then on the seventh day they got up early as dawn was breaking and circled the city in this way seven times. Only on that day did they circle the city seven times. ¹⁶ On the seventh time, the priests blew the trumpets and Joshua said to the people, "Shout the battle cry, for the LORD has given you the city!" ¹⁷ The city and all that is in it are dedicated to the LORD for destruction. Only Rahab the prostitute may live, she, and all who are with her in her house, for she hid the messengers we sent. ¹⁸ As for you, keep yourselves from that which is dedicated for destruction, lest you be destroyed. If you take from that which is dedicated for destruction, you will set the Israelite camp for destruction and bring trouble upon it. ¹⁹ All the silver, gold, and bronze and iron articles are set apart for the LORD. They will go into the treasury of the LORD."

²⁰ So the people shouted, and they blew the trumpets. When the people heard the trumpet sound, they shouted a loud battle cry, and the wall fell down. So the people went up into the city, one man after the other, and they captured it. ²¹ They destroyed all that was in the city: man and woman, young and old, and oxen, sheep, and donkey with the edge of the sword.

²² Yet to the two men who had spied out the land, Joshua said, "Enter the prostitute's house, and bring out the woman and everyone who belongs to her, as you swore to her." ²³ So the young men who had been spies entered and brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her brothers, everyone who belonged to her, and her whole extended family. They brought them out and placed them outside of the camp of Israel.

²⁴ They burned the city and everything in it with fire. Only the silver, the gold, the bronze and iron articles they gave to the treasury of the house of the LORD. ²⁵ Yet Rahab the prostitute, her father's family, and everyone who belonged to her, Joshua let live. They live among Israel to this day because she hid the messengers Joshua sent to spy on Jericho.

²⁶ At that time Joshua made them swear, "Cursed before the LORD will be the man who arises and rebuilds this city of Jericho.

He will establish it at the cost of his firstborn and erect its gates at the cost of his youngest child."

²⁷ So the LORD was with Joshua, and he became famous throughout the land.

Achan's Sin

7 Yet the children of Israel violated their obligations with regard to the things dedicated for destruction. Achan, son of Karmi, son of Zimri, son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah took from the things dedicated for destruction, and the anger of the LORD burned against the children of Israel.

² Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai (which is near Beth Aven, east of Bethel) and said to them, "Go up and spy on the land." So the men went up and spied on Ai.

³ Then they returned to Joshua and said to him, "All the people need not go up. Let about two or three thousand men go up and strike Ai. Since they are so few, all the people need not weary themselves." ⁴ So about three thousand men went up from among the people there, but they fled from before the men of Ai. ⁵ The men of Ai struck down thirty-six men and pursued them from the gate to Shebarim. They struck them down on the mountainside, and the hearts of the people melted like water.

⁶ Then Joshua ripped his clothes. He and the Israelite elders fell on their faces to the ground in front of the ark of the LORD until evening and threw dirt upon their heads. ⁷ Joshua said, "O Lord GOD, why did You bring this people across the Jordan to give us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us? If only we had been content to dwell on the other side of the Jordan! ⁸ O my Lord, what should I say now that Israel has fled before its enemies? ⁹ The Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land may hear, turn on us, and cut off our name from the earth. What will You do for Your great name?"

¹⁰ Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Stand up! Why have you fallen on your face? ¹¹ Israel has sinned, and they have broken My covenant that I commanded them. They took from the things dedicated for destruction. They have stolen, acted deceitfully, and put them among their own possessions. ¹² Therefore the children of Israel cannot stand before their enemies. They turn their backs to their enemies because they have become dedicated for destruction. I will not be with you anymore if you do not destroy the things dedicated for destruction in your midst.

¹⁴ "In the morning you will be brought forward by tribes, and the tribe that the LORD selects by lot shall come forward by clans. The clan that the LORD selects by lot shall come forward by households, and the household that the LORD selects by lot shall come forward man by man. ¹⁵ And he who is taken with the things dedicated for destruction shall be burned with fire, he and all who belong to him, for he broke the covenant of the LORD and has done a disgraceful action in Israel."

¹⁶ So Joshua got up early in the morning and brought forward Israel by their tribes. The tribe of Judah was selected. ¹⁷ He brought forward the clans of Judah, and the clan of the Zerahites was selected. He brought forward the clan of the Zerahites man by man, and Zimri was selected. ¹⁸ He brought forward the household of Zimri man by man, and Achan son of Karmi, son of Zimri, son of Zerah, from the tribe of Judah, was selected.

¹⁹ Then Joshua said to Achan, "O my son, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give Him praise! Tell me what you have done! Do not hold back anything from me."

²⁰ Achan answered Joshua and said, "Indeed, I sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel. This is what I did: ²¹ When I saw among the plundered goods a beautiful robe from Babylon, two hundred shekels of silver, [†] and a gold bar weighing fifty shekels, ^{††} I coveted them, so I took them. They are hidden in the ground in my tent. The silver is underneath them."

²² So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent. There it all was hidden in the ground with the silver underneath. ²³ They took it from the tent and brought it to Joshua and all the children of Israel. They spread it out before the LORD.

²⁴ Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the gold bar, his sons, his daughters, his oxen, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all he had, and brought them up to the Valley of Achor. ²⁵ Then Joshua said, "Why have you brought trouble on us? The LORD will trouble you today!"

So all Israel stoned him. They burned them with fire and stoned them with stones. ²⁶ Then they erected over him a large pile of stones, which is still there today. So the LORD turned from His burning anger. Therefore the name of the place is called the Valley of Achor to this day.

Ai Destroyed

8 Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid or dismayed. Take all the fighting men with you. Arise, and go up to Ai. See, I have given the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his land into your hand. ² Do to Ai and its king what you did to Jericho and its king, except you may plunder its spoils and its livestock. Now set an ambush for the city behind it."

³ So Joshua and all the fighting men arose to go up to Ai. Joshua chose thirty thousand men, mighty men of valor, and sent them out at night. ⁴ He commanded them, "You shall ambush the city from behind. Do not go very far from the city. All of you be ready. ⁵ I and all the people who are with me will approach the city. When they come out to engage us as before, we will flee from them. ⁶ They will come after us until we have lured them away from the city, for they will think, 'They are fleeing from us as before!' So we will flee from them. ⁷ Then you shall rise up for the ambush and take possession of the city. The LORD your God will give it into your hands. ⁸ When you have seized the city, set it on fire. Act according to the word of the LORD. See, I have commanded you."

⁹ So Joshua sent them out. They went to the place of ambush and took up a position between Bethel and Ai, westward of Ai, and Joshua spent the night among the people.

¹⁰ Joshua got up early in the morning and mustered the people. He and the elders of Israel went up before the people to Ai. ¹¹ All the fighting men who were with him went up and drew near to the city. They camped north of Ai, and there was a valley between them and Ai. ¹² He took about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, westward of the city. ¹³ So they stationed the people, all the army that was on the north of the city, and its rear guard on the west of the city, and Joshua spent that night in the midst of the valley.

¹⁴ When the king of Ai saw this, the men of the city hurriedly got up early and went out to engage Israel in battle at the assembly point near the Arabah. Yet he did not know that there was an ambush for him behind the city. ¹⁵ So Joshua and all Israel allowed themselves to be beaten before them, and they fled in the direction of the wilderness. ¹⁶ All the people who were in Ai were assembled to pursue them, so they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city. ¹⁷ Not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel. They left the city wide open, and they pursued Israel.

¹⁸ The LORD said to Joshua, "Point toward Ai with the sword that is in your hand, for I will give it into your hand." So Joshua pointed toward the city with the sword in his hand. ¹⁹ When his hand pointed, the men in ambush got up quickly from their place and ran. They came into the city, captured it, and quickly set the city on fire.

²⁰ The men of Ai turned around and looked, and there from the city came smoke rising to the sky! They could not flee in any direction, and the people who had fled into the wilderness had turned back toward their pursuers. ²¹ When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city and that smoke rose from it, they turned and struck down the men of Ai. ²² Then the men in the city came out to engage them in battle, so they were now in the middle, with Israel on each side. Israel struck them down until neither survivors nor escapees were left. ²³ They took the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

²⁴ When Israel completed killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the open wilderness where they had pursued them, and when all of them had finally fallen by the edge of the sword, all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. ²⁵ All who had fallen that day, men and women, numbered twelve thousand, all the people of Ai. ²⁶ Joshua did not draw back his hand with the stretched-out sword until he destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. ²⁷ Israel plundered only the livestock and the spoil of that city for themselves, according to the word of the LORD that He had commanded Joshua.

²⁸ Joshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever, a desolation to this day. ²⁹ The king of Ai hanged on a tree until evening. At sunset, Joshua commanded that the people take down the body from the tree and throw it down at the city gate. They erected a large heap of stones over it that remains to this day.

The Covenant Renewal at Mount Ebal

³⁰ Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD God of Israel on Mount Ebal, ³¹ as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the children of Israel. As is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, it was "an altar of uncut stones not shaped by iron tools." They sacrificed burnt offerings to the LORD on it, as well as peace offerings. ³² There in the presence of the children of Israel he wrote a copy of the Law of Moses on the stones. ³³ All Israel, resident alien and native alike, with its elders, officials, and judges, were standing on either side of the ark in front of the Levite priests carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, half in front of Mount Gerizim and half in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded from the beginning, in order to bless the people of Israel.

³⁴ After this, Joshua read out all the words of the law, both blessing and curse, according to all that is written in the Book of the Law. ³⁵ There was not a word from all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read out before the whole assembly of Israel, with the women, the children, and the resident aliens who were among them.

The Gibeonite Deception

9 When all the kings west of the Jordan in the hill country, in the low country, and along all the coast of the Mediterranean Sea toward Lebanon—the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite kings—heard this, ² they gathered together as one to wage war against Joshua and Israel.

³ But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai, ⁴ they acted craftily, and took old sacks on their donkeys, and old wine-skins, torn and mended, ⁵ old and patched sandals on their feet, and old garments on themselves. All the bread of their provision was dry and crumbly. ⁶ They went to Joshua at the Gilgal settlement and said to him and the children of Israel, "We have come from a distant land. Now make a pact with us."

⁷ Then the children of Israel said to these Hivites, "Perhaps you live among us, so how could we make a pact with you?"

⁸ Yet they said to Joshua, "We are your slaves."

Joshua said to them, "Who are you, and where do you come from?"

⁹ They said to him, "We, your slaves, have come from a very distant land because of the name of the LORD your God, for we heard news of Him and all He did in Egypt ¹⁰ and all that He did to the two Amorite kings on the other side of the Jordan, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of Bashan in Ashtaroth. ¹¹ So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country said to us, 'Take food provisions for the journey and go to meet them.

Say to them, "We are your slaves. So now, make a pact with us." ¹² This bread of ours was hot as we took it from our homes on the day we left to come to you, but now, see, it is dry and crumbly. ¹³ These wineskins that we filled were new, but see, they are ripped open. These clothes and sandals wore out due to the very long journey."

¹⁴ So the men examined some of the food provisions, but they did not ask the LORD about it. ¹⁵ Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them to let them live, and the leaders of the congregation swore an oath to them.

¹⁹ Yet all the leaders said to the whole congregation, "We swore to them by the LORD God of Israel, so now we may not harm them. ²⁰ This is what we will do to them. We will let them live so that wrath will not come upon us due to the oath that we swore to them." ²¹ The leaders of the congregation also said to them, "Let them live!" So they became woodcutters and water carriers for the whole congregation, as the leaders told them.

²² Joshua met them and said, "Why did you trick us, saying, 'We are very distant from you,' but you are living in our midst? ²³ Therefore now you are cursed, and you will always be slaves, cutting wood and carrying water for the house of my God."

²⁴ They answered Joshua, "It was told to your slaves that the LORD your God commanded Moses His servant to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you. So we were very afraid for our lives, and we did this thing. ²⁵ Now here we are, in your hands. Do to us whatever is good and right in your eyes."

²⁶ Thus he did to them, and delivered them from the hand of the children of Israel; and they did not kill them. ²⁷ That day he made them woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation and the altar of the LORD, even to this day, at the place He would choose.

The Sun Stands Still

10 Now when King Adoni-Zedek of Jerusalem heard that Joshua captured Ai and destroyed it, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and were among them, ² he and his people were very afraid. Gibeon was a large city, like one of the royal cities. It was larger than Ai, and all its men were warriors. ³ So King Adoni-Zedek of Jerusalem sent this message to King Hoham of Hebron, King Piram of Jarmuth, King Japhia of Lachish, and King Debir of Eglon: ⁴ "Come and help me! Let us attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and all the children of Israel."

⁵ So the five kings of the Amorites—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon—and all their armies gathered, advanced, and camped against Gibeon. Then they waged war against it.

⁶ The men of Gibeon sent this message to Joshua at the Gilgal settlement: "Do not abandon your slaves. Come up to us quickly. Save us! Help us! For all the Amorite kings living in the hill country have gathered against us."

⁷ So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor. ⁸ The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for I have given them into your hand. Not a single man can stand before you."

⁹ Then Joshua came upon them suddenly, having marched all night from Gilgal. ¹⁰ The LORD panicked them before Israel. They struck them with overwhelming force at Gibeon, then Israel pursued them on the road that rises to Beth Horon and struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah. ¹¹ As they fled from Israel on the downslope from Beth Horon, the LORD hurled large hailstones down upon them from the sky as far as Azekah. They died, and in fact more died from the hailstones than the children of Israel killed with the sword.

¹² On the day the LORD gave over the Amorites to the children of Israel, Joshua spoke to the LORD and said in full view of Israel:

"Sun, stand still over Gibeon;
and moon, in the Valley of Aijalon."

¹³ So the sun stood still, and the moon stood in place until the people brought vengeance on their enemies.

Is this not written in the book of Jashar?

The sun stood still in the middle of the sky and did not set for about a full day. ¹⁴ There has not been a day like this either before or after it, when the LORD obeyed a man, for the LORD waged war for Israel.

¹⁵ Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, returned to the settlement at Gilgal.

The Execution of Five Amorite Kings

¹⁶ Yet these five kings fled and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah. ¹⁷ Joshua was told, "The five kings have been found hiding themselves in the cave at Makkedah." ¹⁸ So Joshua said, "Roll large stones over the mouth of the cave, and station men to stand guard over it. ¹⁹ As for you, do not stop pursuing your enemies, but attack them from behind. Do not let them go back to their cities, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand."

²⁰ When Joshua and the children of Israel had finished striking them with overwhelming force until they were completely defeated, the survivors escaped from them and went back to their fortified cities. ²¹ Then all the people returned safely to Joshua at the Makkedah settlement, and no one spoke against any of the children of Israel.

²³ They did this, and they brought out those five kings from the cave: the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon. ²⁴ When they brought out those five kings to Joshua, he called out to all the men of Israel and the army commanders, "Come here and place your feet on the necks of these kings." So they came near and placed their feet on their necks.

²⁵ Then Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid or dismayed. Be strong and courageous! For this is what the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you fight." ²⁶ After that, Joshua struck them down, killed them, and hung them on five trees. They were hanging on the trees until evening.

²⁷ At sundown Joshua commanded men to take them down from the trees and throw them into the cave in which they had hidden themselves. Over the mouth of the cave he placed large stones, which remain to this day.

Southern Cities Conquered

²⁸ Joshua took Makkedah that day and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword. He destroyed it and all life within it. He did not leave any survivors. He did to the king of Makkedah just as he did to the king of Jericho. ²⁹ Then Joshua passed from Makkedah to Libnah with all of Israel, and they fought against Libnah. ³⁰ The LORD gave Libnah and its king into the hand of Israel, and they struck all who lived in it with the edge of the sword. There were no survivors left. They did to its king what they had done to the king of Jericho.

³¹ Then Joshua passed from Libnah to Lachish with all of Israel, camped against it, and waged war against it. ³² The LORD gave Lachish into the hand of Israel. They captured it on the second day and struck all who lived in it with the edge of the sword, just as they had done to Libnah. ³³ King Horam of Gezer came up to help Lachish, but Joshua attacked him and his people until he did not have a single survivor left.

³⁴ From Lachish, Joshua and all of Israel passed to Eglon. They camped against it and waged war against it. ³⁵ They captured it that day and struck it with the edge of the sword. All who lived in it were destroyed that day, just as Israel had done to Lachish.

³⁶ Then Joshua and all of Israel went up from Eglon to Hebron and waged war against it. ³⁷ They captured it and struck its king, and all who lived in it, and its surrounding towns with the edge of the sword. No survivor was left. Just as they had done to Eglon, they destroyed it and all who lived in it.

³⁸ Then Joshua and all of Israel turned to Debir and waged war against it. ³⁹ They captured it, its king, and all its surrounding towns and struck them with the edge of the sword. They destroyed all who lived in them, and no survivor was left. As he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king as they had done to Libnah and its king.

⁴⁰ So Joshua attacked the whole land: the hill country, the Negev, the lowlands, the mountain slopes, and all their kings. No survivor was left. He destroyed all who breathed, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded. ⁴¹ Joshua attacked the land from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza and the land of Goshen as far as Gibeon.

⁴² Joshua captured all these kings and their land in one campaign because the LORD God of Israel waged war for Israel.

⁴³ Then Joshua and all of Israel returned to the settlement at Gilgal.

Northern Kings Defeated

11 When King Jabin of Hazor heard these things, he sent word to King Jobab of Madon, the king of Shimron, the king of Akshaph, ² and the kings of the northern hill country, the Arabah south of Kinnereth, the low country, and the heights of Dor in the west, ³ to the Canaanites in the east and in the west, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites at Mount Hermon in the land of Mizpah. ⁴ So these kings went out with all their armies, people as numerous as grains of sand on the seashore, with a large number of horses and chariots. ⁵ These kings all met and camped together at the waters of Merom in order to wage war against Israel.

¹² Joshua captured all these kings and their towns. He struck with the edge of the sword, destroying them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded. ¹³ However, Israel did not burn any of the cities that stood on mounds except Hazor. Joshua burned it. ¹⁴ The children of Israel plundered all the goods and the livestock of these cities, but they struck all the people with the edge of the sword until they destroyed them. They did not spare anyone who breathed. ¹⁵ As the LORD commanded Moses His servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and Joshua did it. He did not ignore a word of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

¹⁶ So Joshua took all that land: the hill country, the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the lowland, the Arabah, the hill country of Israel and its lowland.

¹⁹ There was no city that made peace with the children of Israel except the Hivites living in Gibeon. They conquered all of them ²⁰ because the LORD hardened their hearts to engage Israel in battle. They destroyed them without mercy, to put them to death, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

²¹ At that time Joshua came and wiped out the Anakites from the hill country: from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua utterly destroyed them and their cities. ²² No Anakites were left in the land of the children of Israel, but they did remain in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod. ²³ So Joshua took the whole land according to all that the LORD had said to Moses. Joshua gave it to Israel as an inheritance according to their allotted portions by their tribes. Then the land rested from war.

The List of Defeated Kings

12 These are the kings on the east side of the Jordan, from the River Arnon to Mount Hermon and all the eastern Arabah, whom the children of Israel struck down to take over their land: ² Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon and ruled from Aroer, which is on the bank of River Arnon, and from the middle of the valley as far as the River Jabbok, which is the border of the Ammonites, that is, half of Gilead, ³ and the Arabah to the Sea of Galilee eastward, and toward Beth Jeshimoth, to the Sea of Arabah, the Dead Sea, southward below the slopes of Pisgah; ⁴ and Og king of Bashan, one of the remnant of the giants, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei ⁵ and ruled over Mount Hermon, Salekah, and all of Bashan to the border of the Geshurites and the Maakathites, and over half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

⁶ Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel struck them down, and the servant of the LORD Moses gave their land to Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

⁷ These are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the children of Israel defeated on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, that rises toward Seir. Joshua gave their land to the tribes of Israel according to their allotted portions as an inheritance, ⁸ in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Arabah, in the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the Negev—the land of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

⁹ The king of Jericho, one;

the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one;

¹⁰ the king of Jerusalem, one;

the king of Hebron, one;

¹¹ the king of Jarmuth, one;

the king of Lachish, one;

¹² the king of Eglon, one;

the king of Gezer, one;

¹³ the king of Debir, one;

the king of Geder, one;

¹⁴ the king of Hormah, one;

the king of Arad, one;

¹⁵ the king of Libnah, one;

the king of Adullam, one;

¹⁶ the king of Makkedah, one;

the king of Bethel, one;

¹⁷ the king of Tappuah, one;

the king of Hopher, one;

¹⁸ the king of Aphek, one;

the king of Lasharon, one;

¹⁹ the king of Madon, one;

the king of Hazor, one;

²⁰ the king of Shimron Meron, one;

the king of Akshaph, one;

²¹ the king of Taanach, one;

the king of Megiddo, one;

²² the king of Kedesh, one;

the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one;

²³ the king of Dor in Naphoth Dor, one;

the king of the people in Gilgal, one;

²⁴ the king of Tirzah, one—thirty-one kings in all.

Land Still to be Taken

13 Now Joshua was old and well advanced in years. The LORD said to him, "You are old and advanced in years, but very much of the land still remains to be possessed.

² "This is the land that remains: all the districts of the Philistines and those of the Geshurites ³ (from the Shihor east of Egypt northward to the boundary of Ekron, which is counted as Canaanite; the cities of the five Philistine governors: Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron), and also the Avvites' lands. ⁴ Also remaining in the south is all the land of the Canaanites, Arah owned by the Sidonians, as far as Aphek at the Amorite boundary, ⁵ the land of the Gebalites and all Lebanon to the east, and from Baal Gad at the foot of Mount Hermon to Lebo Hamath.

have commanded you. ⁷ So now, divide this land as an inheritance for the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh."

Division of the Land East of the Jordan River

¹⁴ However Moses did not give an inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The burnt offerings of the LORD God of Israel are their inheritance, as He said to them.

¹⁵ Moses assigned land to the tribe of the Reubenites according to their clans. ¹⁶ Their territory was from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon Valley, the city in the middle of the valley, all the plain of Medeba, ¹⁷ Heshbon and all its towns in the plain: Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, ¹⁸ Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, ¹⁹ Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the hill of the valley, ²⁰ Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, Beth Jeshimoth, ²¹ all the cities of the plain, and the whole kingdom of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon. Moses struck him down along with the leaders of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, who were princes of Sihon who lived in the land. ²² The children of Israel killed Balaam son of Beor, who practiced divination, with the sword along with the rest of the slain. ²³ The border of the Reubenites was the banks of the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the Reubenites according to their clans: those towns and their settlements.

²⁹ Moses assigned land to the half-tribe of Manasseh for the descendants of Manasseh according to their clans. ³⁰ Their territory was from Mahanaim, through all of Bashan, all the kingdom of King Og of Bashan, all the sixty villages of Jair that are in Bashan, ³¹ half of Gilead, Ashtaroth, and Edrei: cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. This was for the descendants of Makir son of Manasseh, half of the descendants of Makir by their clans.

³² This is the territory Moses assigned in the desert plains of Moab, on the eastern side of Jericho and the Jordan. ³³ Yet Moses did not assign land to the tribe of Levi as an inheritance. The LORD God of Israel was their inheritance, as He said to them.

Division of the Land West of the Jordan

14 These are the territories that the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the family leaders of the Israelite tribes assigned to them. ² Their inheritance fell to them by lot, as the LORD commanded through Moses, for the nine and a half tribes. ³ For Moses had assigned the inheritance of two and a half tribes on the other side of the Jordan, but he had not assigned an inheritance among them to the Levites. ⁴ The descendants of Joseph were two tribes: Manasseh and Ephraim. They did not give territory to the Levites in the land, but only towns in which to live, along with the pastures, livestock, and property. ⁵ Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did when they divided the land.

Hebron Given to Caleb

⁶ The descendants of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God about you and me at Kadesh Barnea. ⁷ I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy on the land, and I brought word back to him as it was in my heart. ⁸ My companions who went up with me made the hearts of the people melt, but I wholeheartedly followed after the LORD my God. ⁹ On that day Moses swore an oath, 'The land on which your foot treads shall be your inheritance, for your descendants perpetually, because you completely followed after the LORD my God.'

¹⁰ "Now, the LORD has kept me alive, just as He said, for forty-five years, since the LORD spoke this word to Moses while Israel wandered in the wilderness. Now, here I am this day, eighty-five years old. ¹¹ I am still just as strong today as I was on the day that Moses sent me. My strength now is just like my strength then, both for battle and for going out and returning. ¹² So now, give me this hill country that the LORD spoke about on that day. That day you heard that the Anakites live there in large, fortified cities. Perhaps the LORD will be with me, and I will drive them out, as the LORD said."

¹³ Then Joshua blessed him and gave Hebron to Caleb son of Jephunneh as an inheritance. ¹⁴ Therefore Hebron became an inheritance of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite until this day because he completely followed after the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁵ The former name of Hebron was Kiriath Arba. Arba was the greatest man among the Anakites.

Then the land had rest from war.

Allotment for Judah

Jdg 1:11-15

15 The allotment for the tribe of Judah, by their clans, stretches southward to the border of Edom, to the Zin wilderness in the south.

² Their southern border runs from the southern tip of the Salt Sea, ³ to south of the Ascent of Akrabbim, crosses to Zin, rises south of Kadesh Barnea, crosses to Hezron, then rises to Addar, turns toward Karka, ⁴ then crosses to Azmon, goes out to the Brook of Egypt, and then to the sea. This is your southern border.

⁵ The eastern border is the Salt Sea up to the mouth of the Jordan.

The northern border runs from the northern extremity of the Dead Sea at the mouth of the Jordan River, ⁶ then rises to Beth Hoglah, crosses north of Beth Arabah, rises to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben, ⁷ and rises to Debir from the Achor Valley, turns northward to Gilgal opposite the Ascent of Adummim south of the valley, and crosses to the waters of En Shemesh and onward to En Rogel. ⁸ The border rises to Valley of Ben Hinnom, to the southern slope of the Jebusites (that is, Jerusalem), then rises to the top of the hill west of the Valley of Ben Hinnom, at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim. ⁹ The border turns from the top of the hill to the waters of Nephtoah and goes out to the cities of Mount Ephron, then turns to Baalah (that is, Kiriath Jearim). ¹⁰ The border turns west of Baalah to Mount Seir, crosses to the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Kesalon), descends to Beth Shemesh, and crosses to Timnah. ¹¹ The border goes out to the northern slope of Ekron, turns to Shikkeron, crosses to Mount Baalah, goes out to Jabneel, and ends at the sea.

¹² The western border was the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea.

These were the borders surrounding the tribe of Judah according to their clans.

¹³ According to the word of the LORD to Joshua, Caleb son of Jephunneh was given an allotment among the tribe of Judah: Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron). Arba was the father of Anak. ¹⁴ Caleb drove out from there three Anakites: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, descendants of Anak. ¹⁵ He went up from there against the inhabitants of Debir. Before the name of Debir was Kiriath Sepher. ¹⁶ Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Aksah in marriage to whoever attacks Kiriath Sepher and captures it." ¹⁷ Othniel son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, captured it, so Caleb gave him Aksah his daughter in marriage.

¹⁸ When she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. She dismounted from her donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What can I do for you?"

¹⁹ She answered, "Please give me a blessing. Since you have given me land in the Negev, now give me springs of water." So he gave her the upper and lower springs.

²⁰ This is the inheritance of the tribe of Judah according to their clans.

³³ In the lowland were Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, ³⁴ Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam, ³⁵ Jarmuth, Adullam, Sokoh, Azekah, ³⁶ Shaaraim, Adithaim, Gederah (Gederothaim): fourteen cities with their villages.

³⁷ Also there were Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad, ³⁸ Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel, ³⁹ Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, ⁴⁰ Kabbon, Lahmas, Kitlish, ⁴¹ Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen cities with their villages.

⁴² Also there were Libnah, Ether, Ashan, ⁴³ Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, ⁴⁴ Keilah, Akzib, and Mareshah: nine cities with their villages.

⁴⁵ Also there were Ekron, its towns and villages; ⁴⁶ from Ekron to the sea, all the land near Ashdod and their villages, ⁴⁷ Ashdod, its towns and villages, Gaza, its towns and villages, as far as the Brook of Egypt and the Mediterranean Sea with its coast.

⁴⁸ In the hill country were Shamir, Jattir, Sokoh, ⁴⁹ Dannah, Kiriath Sannah (that is, Debir), ⁵⁰ Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim, ⁵¹ Goshen, Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities with their villages.

⁵² Also there were Arab, Dumah, Eshan, ⁵³ Janim, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah, ⁵⁴ Humtah, Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron), and Zior: nine cities with their villages.

⁵⁵ Also there were Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, ⁵⁶ Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, ⁵⁷ Kain, Gibeah, and Timnah: ten cities with their villages.

⁵⁸ Also there were Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor, ⁵⁹ Maarath, Beth Anoth, and Eltekon: six cities with their villages.

⁶⁰ Also there were Kiriath Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim) and Rabbah: two cities with their villages.

⁶¹ In the wilderness were Beth Arabah, Middin, Sekakah, ⁶² Nibshan, City of Salt, and En Gedi: six cities with their villages.

⁶³ The people of Judah were not able to drive out the Jebusites living in Jerusalem, so the Jebusites live with the people of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.

Allotment for Ephraim and Manasseh

16 The allotment of land for the descendants of Joseph was from the Jordan by Jericho then east into the wilderness, rising from Jericho to the hill country of Bethel. ² It goes out from Bethel to Luz and passes to the border of Arkite territory at Ataroth. ³ It goes down westward to the territory of the Japhletites, to the border of lower Beth Horon and Gezer, and then goes out to the sea.

⁴ So the descendants of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

⁵ The territory of the Ephraimites, according to their clans, was as follows. The border of their inheritance on the east was Ataroth Addar as far as upper Beth Horon. ⁶ The border goes out toward the sea with Mikmethath on the north. It turns eastward toward Taanath Shiloh and passes it on the east toward Janoah. ⁷ It descends from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah, touches Jericho, and extends to the Jordan. ⁸ From Tappuah the border goes west to the Kanah Ravine and out to the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the Ephraimites according to their clans. ⁹ The other cities for the Ephraimites were in the middle of the inheritance of the descendants of Manasseh, all the cities and their villages.

17 Then allotment was made to the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. To Makir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, were allotted Gilead and Bashan, because he was a warrior. ² And allotments were made to the rest of the tribe of Manasseh, according to their families: Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hephher, and Shemida; these were the male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, according to their families.

³ Yet Zelophehad, son of Hephher, son of Gilead, son of Makir, son of Manasseh had no sons, only daughters. These were his daughters' names: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milkah, and Tirzah. ⁴ They approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders, saying, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our relatives." So Joshua gave them an inheritance among their fathers' relatives according to the word of the LORD. ⁵ Therefore Manasseh received ten regions, apart from the lands of Gilead and Bashan on the east side of the Jordan, ⁶ because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons, and the rest of the people of Manasseh received the land of Gilead.

⁷ The boundary of Manasseh was from Asher to Mikmethath east of Shechem, and it runs south toward the inhabitants of En Tappuah. ⁸ Now Manasseh owned the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the Ephraimites. ⁹ Then the border descended to the Kanah Ravine, southward to the brook. These cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and it ended at the sea.

¹⁰ The land belonging to Ephraim was to the south, and the land belonging to Manasseh to the north. The Mediterranean Sea was the boundary of this territory, which bordered Asher in the north and Issachar in the east.

¹¹ In Issachar and Asher, Manasseh was assigned districts: Beth Shan, Ibleam, Dor, Endor, Taanach, Megiddo, Naphoth, and their respective villages.

¹² Yet the sons of Manasseh could not take possession of those cities, because the Canaanites were determined to live in that land. ¹³ But when the children of Israel became strong, they put the Canaanites to hard labor as slaves, but they did not actually drive them out.

¹⁴ The descendants of Joseph said to Joshua, "Why have you assigned us a single allotment, a single portion? We are a numerous people, as the LORD has blessed us."

¹⁵ Joshua said to them, "If you are a numerous people, go up to the forests and clear out a place there for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and the giants, since the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you."

¹⁶ The descendants of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites living in the plains have iron chariots, both those in Beth Shan and the Jezreel Valley."

¹⁷ Joshua said to Ephraim and Manasseh, the descendants of Joseph, "You are a numerous people who have great strength. There will not be only one allotment for you. ¹⁸ The hill country shall be yours. Although it is a forest you shall clear it and own it to its borders. You shall drive out the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and are strong."

Dividing the Rest of the Land

18 The whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled at Shiloh and set up the tent of meeting there. The land was subdued before them. ² Yet seven tribes among the children of Israel remained who had not yet received their inheritance.

³ So Joshua said to the children of Israel, "How long will you delay going in to possess the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you? ⁴ Select three men from each tribe, and I will send them out; and they will rise and go throughout the land, and describe it according to their inheritance, and they will come back to me. ⁵ They shall divide it into seven portions. Judah will stay in their territory in the south, and the house of Joseph will stay in their territory in the north. ⁶ So describe the land in seven portions and return to me. Then I will cast lots for you here before the LORD our God. ⁷ Yet there is no portion for the Levites among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have acquired their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave them."

⁸ So the men got up and left. Joshua commanded those who were leaving to survey the land, saying, "Go and walk back and forth throughout the land. Write a description of it, then return to me. Here in Shiloh I will cast lots for you before the LORD." ⁹ The men went and passed through the land. In a book they wrote a description of it by cities in seven portions, and they came back to Joshua at the Shiloh settlement. ¹⁰ Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD. There Joshua apportioned the land for the children of Israel according to their divisions.

The Allotment for Benjamin

¹¹ The lot of the tribe of Benjamin, according to their clans, came up. The territory allotted to it fell between Judah and Joseph.

¹² Their northern border goes from the Jordan up the northern slope of Jericho. It runs westward into the hill country and extends to the wilderness of Beth Aven.

¹⁵ The southern border starts from Kiriath Jearim and goes out westward to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah. ¹⁶ The border then descends to the foot of the mountain that lies by the Valley of Ben Hinnom, which is at the north end of the Valley of Rephaim. It descends from the Hinnom Valley to the slope of the Jebusites, then down to En Rogel. ¹⁷ The border runs north and goes out to En Shemesh and Geliloth, which is opposite the Ascent of Adummim, and descends to the Stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. ¹⁸ It passes toward the slope north of the Beth Arabah and descends to the Arabah. ¹⁹ The border passes north of the slope of Beth Hoglah, and it runs out to the northern tip of the Dead Sea at the southern end of the Jordan. This is the southern border.

²⁰ The Jordan forms the eastern boundary.

This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin, according to their clans, by its boundaries all around.

²¹ The cities belonging to the tribe of Benjamin, according to their clans, were Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz, ²² Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, ²³ Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, ²⁴ Kephaz Ammoni, Ophni, and Geba: twelve cities with their villages.

²⁵ Also there were Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, ²⁶ Mizpah, Kephirah, Mozah, ²⁷ Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, ²⁸ Zelah, Haeleph, the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriath: fourteen cities with their villages.

This is the inheritance of the tribe of Benjamin according to their clans.

Allotment for Simeon

1Ch 4:28-33

19 The second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of Simeon according to their clans. Their inheritance was within the inheritance of the tribe of Judah. ² Their inheritance was Beersheba, Sheba, Moladah, ³ Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem, ⁴ Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, ⁵ Ziklag, Beth Markaboth, Hazar Susah, ⁶ Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhem: thirteen cities and their villages;

⁷ Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan: four cities and their villages; ⁸ and all the villages that were around these cities as far as Baalath Beer, Ramah of the Negev.

This was the inheritance of the tribe of Simeon according to their clans. ⁹ Simeon received a portion of the inheritance of Judah, for the inheritance of Judah was too large for them, so Simeon inherited land in the midst of the inheritance of Judah.

Allotment for Zebulun

¹⁰ The third lot came up for Zebulun according to their clans. Their territory extended to Sarid, ¹¹ and their border ascended westward to Maralah, reaching Dabbesheth and the valley east of Jokneam. ¹² From Sarid the border turned east to the border of Kisloth Tabor, out to Daberath, and up to Japhia. ¹³ From there it passes east to Gath Hopher and Eth Kazin. It turns out to Rimmon and turns toward Neah. ¹⁴ The boundary turns north to Hannathon and extends to the Valley of Iphtah El; ¹⁵ and Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities and their villages.

¹⁶ This was the inheritance of the tribe of Zebulun according to their clans: these cities and their villages.

Allotment for Issachar

²³ This is the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar according to their clans: the cities and their villages.

Allotment for Asher

²⁴ The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher according to their clans. ²⁵ Their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Akshaph, ²⁶ Allammelek, Amad, and Mishal. On the west their border touches Carmel and Shihor Libnath. ²⁷ Then it turns eastward, goes to Beth Dagon, and touches Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah El northward to Beth Emek and Neiel; then it continues in the north to Kabul, ²⁸ Abdon, Rehob, Hammon, Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon. ²⁹ Then the border turned to Ramah, reaching the fortified city of Tyre. Then the border turned to Hosah, and ended at the Mediterranean Sea by the region of Akzib, ³⁰ Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob: twenty-two cities and their villages. ³¹ This is the inheritance of the tribe of Asher according to their clans: these cities and their villages.

Allotment for Naphtali

³² The sixth lot came out for the tribe of Naphtali according to their clans.

³³ Their border runs from Heleph, from the oak of Zanannim, to Adami Nekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum, and extends to the Jordan. ³⁴ The border turns west to Aznoth Tabor, goes out from there to Hukkok, and touches Zebulun on the south, Asher on the west, and Judah at the Jordan on the east. ³⁵ Their fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Kinnereth, ³⁶ Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, ³⁷ Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor, ³⁸ Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath, and Beth Shemesh: nineteen cities and their villages.

³⁹ This is the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali according to their clans: the cities and their villages.

Allotment for Dan

⁴⁰ The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan according to their clans. ⁴¹ The territory of their inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh, ⁴² Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah, ⁴³ Elon, Timnah, Ekron, ⁴⁴ Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, ⁴⁵ Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon, ⁴⁶ Me Jarkon, and Rakkon, along with the territory near Joppa.

⁴⁸ This is the inheritance of the tribe of Dan according to their clans: these cities and their villages.

The Allotment for Joshua

⁴⁹ When they had finished allotting the land according to its boundaries, the children of Israel gave an inheritance among them to Joshua son of Nun. ⁵⁰ According to the word of the LORD, they gave him the city for which he asked: Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. He built up the city and lived in it.

⁵¹ These are the inheritances that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the family leaders of the Israelite tribes assigned by lot in Shiloh before the LORD at the entrance of the tent of meeting. So they completed dividing the land.

Cities of Refuge

20 Then the LORD said to Joshua, ² “Say to the children of Israel, ‘Choose refuge cities, as I told you through Moses, ³ so that anyone who kills a person without intent and unknowingly may flee there. They shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.

⁷ They selected Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. ⁸ Across the Jordan east of Jericho, they selected Bezer in the wilderness plain from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh. ⁹ These were the cities designated for all the children of Israel and resident foreigners living among them, to which anyone who killed someone inadvertently could flee and not die at the hand of the avenger of blood until he stood before the congregation.

Cities for the Levites

1Ch 6:54–80

21 The family leaders of the Levites approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the family leaders of the Israelite tribes. ² At Shiloh in the land of Canaan they said to them, “Through Moses the LORD commanded that we be given cities in which to live and grazing lands for our livestock.” ³ So according to the word of the LORD, out of their inheritance the children of Israel gave the Levites these cities and their grazing lands.

⁴ The lot came out for the clans of the Kohathites, so the Levites who were descendants of Aaron received an allotment of thirteen cities from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin. ⁵ The remaining descendants of Kohath received an allotment of ten cities from the clans of the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

⁶ The descendants of Gershon received an allotment of thirteen cities from the clans of the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

⁷ Descendants of Merari by their clans received an allotment of twelve cities from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun.

⁸ The children of Israel allotted the Levites these cities and their grazing lands, as the LORD commanded through Moses.

¹¹ They assigned them Kiriath Arba (Arba was the father of Anak), which is Hebron, in the hill country of Judah, and the grazing lands around it. ¹² (Now they had assigned the city's fields and its surrounding villages to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his property.)

¹³ So to the descendants of Aaron the priest they assigned Hebron (a refuge city for people who committed manslaughter), Libnah with its pastures, ¹⁴ Jattir, Eshtemoa, ¹⁵ Holon, Debir, ¹⁶ Ain, Juttah, and Beth Shemesh, together with the grazing lands of each: nine cities from these two tribes.

¹⁷ From the tribe of Benjamin they assigned Gibeon, Geba, ¹⁸ Anathoth, and Almon, together with the grazing lands of each: four cities.

¹⁹ Altogether the descendants of Aaron received thirteen cities and their grazing lands.

²⁰ The rest of the Levites from the clans of the descendants of Kohath received cities allotted from the tribe of Ephraim.

²¹ They assigned them Shechem (a refuge city for people who committed manslaughter) in the hill country of Ephraim, Gezer, ²² Kibzaim, and Beth Horon, together with the grazing lands of each: four cities.

²³ From the tribe of Dan they assigned Eltekeh, Gibeon, ²⁴ Aijalon, and Gath Rimmon, together with the grazing lands of each: four cities.

²⁵ From the half-tribe of Manasseh they assigned Taanach and Gath Rimmon, together with the grazing lands of each: two cities.

²⁶ Altogether the rest of the clans of the descendants of Kohath received ten cities and their grazing lands.

²⁷ From the half-tribe of Manasseh they assigned to the descendants of Gershon (one of the Levite clans): Golan in Bashan (a refuge city for people who committed manslaughter) and Be Eshterah, together with the grazing lands of each: two cities.

²⁸ From the tribe of Issachar they assigned Kishion, Daberath, ²⁹ Jarmuth, and En Gannim, together with the grazing lands of each: four cities.

³⁰ From the tribe of Asher they assigned Mishal, Abdon, ³¹ Helkath, and Rehob, together with the grazing lands of each: four cities.

³² From the tribe of Naphtali they assigned Kedesh in Galilee (a refuge city for people who committed manslaughter), Hammoth Dor, and Kartan, together with the grazing lands of each: three cities.

³³ Altogether the Gershonites according to their clans received thirteen cities and their grazing lands.

³⁴ From the tribe of Zebulun they assigned to the descendants of Merari (the remaining Levites): Jokneam, Kartah, ³⁵ Dimnah, and Nahalal, together with the grazing lands of each: four cities.

³⁶ From the tribe of Reuben they assigned Bezer, Jabez, ³⁷ Kedemoth, and Mephaath, together with the grazing lands of each: four cities.

³⁸ From the tribe of Gad they assigned Ramoth in Gilead (a refuge city for people who committed manslaughter), Mahanaim, ³⁹ Heshbon, and Jazer, together with the grazing lands of each: four cities in all.

⁴⁰ So twelve cities were allotted for the descendants of Merari according to their clans (the remaining Levite clans).

⁴¹ Altogether the Levites received forty-eight cities and their grazing lands within the possessions of the children of Israel. ⁴² Each of these cities had grazing lands surrounding them. It was this way with all these cities.

⁴⁵ Not a single word of all the good things that the LORD had spoken to the children of Israel failed. They all came to pass.

The Eastern Tribes Return Home

22 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. ² He said to them, "You have done everything that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you and have obeyed me in everything that I have commanded you.

⁴ Now the LORD your God has given rest to your brothers, as He had said to them. So now, turn and go to your homes, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan. ⁵ Only carefully obey the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you: to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways, to obey His commandments, to cling to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and soul."

⁶ Joshua blessed them and sent them off, and they went to their tents. ⁷ Moses had assigned land in Bashan to half the tribe of Manasseh, and to the other half Joshua assigned land among their brothers on the west side of the Jordan. When Joshua sent them also to their homes and blessed them, ⁸ he said, "Return home with great wealth, much livestock, silver, gold, copper, iron, and great quantities of clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies among your brothers."

⁹ So the Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh left the children of Israel at Shiloh in the land of Canaan to go to the land of Gilead, the land of their possession, according to the word of the LORD through Moses.

¹⁵ They came to the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh in the land of Gilead and said to them, ¹⁶ "The whole congregation of the LORD says, 'What is this trespass you have committed against the God of Israel? Today you have turned from following the LORD by building yourselves an altar to rebel against Him! ¹⁷ Is the sin of Peor, from which we have still not purified ourselves even today, not enough for us, which brought a plague upon the congregation of the LORD ¹⁸ that today you have turned away from following the LORD ?

"If today you are rebelling against the LORD , then tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel! ¹⁹ If indeed your own land is unclean, then cross over to the land of the LORD where the tabernacle of the LORD stands and take land among us. Yet do not rebel against the LORD or rebel against us by building an altar other than the altar of the LORD our God. ²⁰ Did not Achan son of Zerah commit a trespass in the things under the ban, and wrath fall on all the congregation of Israel? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity."

²¹ Then the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered and said to the heads of the Israelite clans, ²² "The LORD God of gods, the LORD God of gods, He knows, and may Israel know—if we have acted in rebellion or disloyalty against the LORD , do not spare us today. ²³ If we have built an altar to turn away from following the LORD , to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings or make peace offerings upon it, may the LORD Himself demand an account .

²⁴ "We did this deed because we were worried that in the future your descendants might say, 'What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel? ²⁵ The LORD made the Jordan a boundary between us and you, the descendants of Reuben and Gad. You have no share in the LORD !' In this way your descendants might make our descendants to stop worshipping the LORD .

²⁶ "So we said to each other, 'Let us build this altar, not for burnt offering or sacrifice, ²⁷ but as a witness for us, for you, and for the generations after us, that we may perform the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and peace offerings, and in the future your descendants will not be able to say to our descendants, "You have no share in the LORD !"'

²⁸ "Therefore we said, 'In the future, if they say this to us or to our descendants, we will say, "Look at the replica of the altar of the LORD that our fathers made, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices, but as a witness between you and us."'

³⁰ When Phinehas the priest, the leaders of the congregation, and the heads of the Israelite clans who were with him heard what the descendants of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh said, it pleased them. ³¹ Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest said to the descendants of Reuben, Gad, and Manasseh, "Today we know that the LORD is in our midst because you did not violate your obligations to the LORD in this matter . Indeed, you have delivered the children of Israel from the judgment of the LORD ."

³² Then Phinehas son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from meeting the descendants of Reuben and Gad in the land of Gilead to the children of Israel in the land of Canaan. They brought back a report. ³³ This report was good in the eyes of the children of Israel, and the children of Israel blessed God. They decided not to make war against the descendants of Reuben and Gad to ruin the land in which they lived.

³⁴ The descendants of Reuben and Gad named the altar Witness , "For it is a witness between us that the LORD is God."

Joshua's Charge to the Leaders

23 A long time later, after the LORD had given Israel rest from all their enemies around them, Joshua was old and advanced in years. ² Joshua called for all Israel, their elders, clan heads, judges, and officials, and said to them, "I am old and advanced in years. ³ You have seen all that the LORD your God did to all these peoples before you, for it is the LORD your God who has waged war for you. ⁴ See, I have allotted to you as an inheritance the land of these peoples who remain, along with the land of the peoples whom I defeated, from the Jordan to the Mediterranean Sea in the west. ⁵ The LORD your God will drive them out and dispossess them from before you, and you will inherit their land, as the LORD your God told you.

⁶ "Now be very strong to observe and enact all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, so that you do not deviate from it to the right or the left. ⁷ Do not assimilate with these peoples remaining among you. Do not invoke the names of their gods, nor swear by, serve, or worship them. ⁸ Instead, cling to the LORD your God, as you have done until today.

⁹ “For the LORD has dispossessed before you great and mighty peoples, and as for you, not a single man has been able to stand against you until today. ¹⁰ One man from among you can make a thousand flee, for it is the LORD your God who wages war for you, as He told you. ¹¹ Now be careful, therefore, to love the LORD your God!

¹² “For if you should turn and cling to the remainder of these peoples who are left with you, and you intermarry and assimilate with them, and they with you, ¹³ know for certain that the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations from before you. But they shall be snares and traps to you, a whip on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good ground that the LORD your God has given you.

¹⁴ “Now, I am going the way of all the earth. You know in all your hearts and souls that not a single word has failed out of all the good things that the LORD your God has said concerning you. All came true for you. Not a single word among them failed. ¹⁵ So just as every good thing that the LORD your God said to you came to be, even so the LORD can bring every bad thing upon you until He has destroyed you from this good land that the LORD your God gave you. ¹⁶ If you break the covenant of the LORD your God that He commanded you, and go and serve other gods and worship them, the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you will quickly perish from the good land that He gave you.”

Covenant Renewed at Shechem

24 Joshua called for all the Israelite tribes at Shechem and summoned the elders, clan heads, judges, and officials of Israel. They presented themselves before God.

² Joshua said to all the people, “Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Long ago your fathers—Terah father of Abraham and Nahor—lived beyond the Euphrates [†] and served other gods. ³ I took your father Abraham from beyond the Euphrates, ^{††} brought him through all the land of Canaan, and gave him many descendants. To him I gave Isaac. ⁴ To Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau, and to Esau I gave Mount Seir for his inheritance, but Jacob and his descendants went down into Egypt.

⁵ “I sent Moses and Aaron, I struck Egypt down with all I did in their midst, and afterward I brought you out. ⁶ I brought your fathers out of Egypt, then you came to the sea. The Egyptians pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea. ⁷ Your fathers cried out to the LORD, and He placed darkness between you and the Egyptians. He made the sea come upon them and cover them. Your own eyes saw what I did to Egypt, and you lived in the wilderness a long time.

⁸ “I brought you to the land of the Amorites who lived on the other side of the Jordan. They waged war against you, but I gave them into your hand so that you might inherit their land, and I destroyed them before you. ⁹ Then Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and waged war against Israel. He called for Balaam son of Beor to curse you, ¹⁰ but I refused to listen to Balaam. Therefore he blessed you still, and I delivered you out of his hand.

¹¹ “You crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The leaders of Jericho, along with the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites, and Jebusites, waged war against you, but I gave them into your hand. ¹² I sent the hornet and drove out the two Amorite kings from before you, but not with your sword or your bow. ¹³ I gave you a land for which you did not work, and cities that you did not build. You live in them, and you are eating from the produce of vineyards and olive groves you did not plant.

¹⁴ “Now fear the LORD, and serve Him with sincerity and faithfulness. Put away the gods your fathers served beyond the River [‡] and in Egypt. Serve the LORD. ¹⁵ If it is displeasing to you to serve the LORD, then choose today whom you will serve, if it should be the gods your fathers served beyond the River ^{‡†} or the gods of the Amorites’ land where you are now living. Yet as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.”

¹⁶ The people answered and said, “God forbid that we forsake the LORD and serve other gods! ¹⁷ For it is the LORD our God who brought us and our fathers out from slavery in the land of Egypt and performed these great signs in our sight and guarded us all the way that we went and among all the peoples through whom we passed. ¹⁸ The LORD drove out before us all the people, even the Amorites, who lived in the land. So we will indeed serve the LORD, for He is our God.”

¹⁹ Then Joshua said to the people, “You are not able to serve the LORD, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous God, and He will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins. ²⁰ If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then He will turn, bring disaster upon you, and finish you off, after having been good to you.”

²¹ The people said to Joshua, “No, we will serve the LORD!”

²² Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves, that you have chosen the LORD, to serve Him.”

Then they said, “We are witnesses.”

²³ “Now then,” he said, “put away the foreign gods in your midst, and stretch out your hearts to the LORD God of Israel!”

²⁴ The people said to Joshua, “It is the LORD our God we will serve, and His voice that we will obey.”

[†] Euphrates River. ^{††} Euphrates River.

[‡] Euphrates River. ^{‡†} Euphrates River.

²⁵ So that day Joshua made a covenant for the people and established regulations and laws for them at Shechem. ²⁶ Joshua wrote these words in the Book of the Law of God. He took a large stone and set it up under the oak by the sanctuary of the LORD.

²⁷ Joshua said to all the people, "See, this stone will be a witness for us, for it has heard all the words of the LORD that He spoke to us. It will be a witness for us, lest you deny your God."

²⁸ Then Joshua sent the people away, each man to his inheritance.

Joshua's Death and Burial

²⁹ After these events took place, Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred and ten. ³⁰ They buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath Serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim north of Mount Gaash.

³¹ Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua and of the elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the deeds that the LORD had done for Israel.

³³ Eleazar son of Aaron died, and they buried him at Gibeah, the town of Phinehas his son, which was in the hill country of Ephraim.

† Heb. a a hundred kesitahs; a kesitah was a coin of unknown weight and value.

JUDGES

The book of Judges was likely written between 1045 and 1000 BC. Jewish tradition attributes Samuel with the authorship of Judges. The book was later edited in about 1000 BC, after the monarchy had been established. The setting is ancient Canaan. Its theme of defeat and deliverance carries through the military rule (called judges) of twelve men and one woman. After Joshua's death the lack of strong central leadership led to dissension among the people and oppression from surrounding nations. During this time of national decline, when "everyone did what was right in his own eyes," the judges led Israel. The pattern of Judges is clear: People abandon God; God punishes them by allowing a foreign power to oppress them; the people cry out for deliverance; and God raises up a deliverer—a judge.

Israel Fights Remaining Canaanites

¹ After the death of Joshua, the children of Israel inquired of the LORD, "Who should go up against the Canaanites first, in order to wage war against them?"

² The LORD said, "Judah shall go up. Indeed, I have given the land into their hands."

³ Then the men of Judah said to Simeon, their brothers, "Come up with us into our allotted territory. We will wage war against the Canaanites. Likewise we will go with you into your allotted territory." So Simeon went with them.

⁴ Then Judah went up, and the LORD gave the Canaanites and Perizzites into their hands. They struck down ten thousand men in Bezek. ⁵ They found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek and fought against him. They struck down the Canaanites and Perizzites. ⁶ Yet Adoni-Bezek fled, and they chased after him, seized him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

⁷ Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings whose thumbs and big toes were cut off once collected scraps of food under my table. Just as I have done, so God has repaid me." They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

⁸ Then Judah waged war against Jerusalem. They captured it, struck it with the edge of the sword, and sent the city up in flames.

¹¹ From there they went against the inhabitants of Debir (previously the name of Debir was Kiriath Sepher). ¹² Caleb said, "He who attacks Kiriath Sepher and takes it, I will give him my daughter Aksah as wife." ¹³ Othniel son of Kenaz, the younger brother of Caleb, captured it. So Caleb gave him Aksah his daughter in marriage.

¹⁴ When she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. As she dismounted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, "What can I do for you?"

¹⁵ She answered, "Please give me a special gift. Since you have given me land in the Negev, now give me springs of water." So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

¹⁶ The descendants of Moses' father-in-law, the Kenite, went up with the descendants of Judah from the City of Palms to the Negev near Arad. Then they went and lived with the people.

¹⁹ The LORD was with Judah, and they took the hill country but could not drive out the inhabitants of the coastal plain, for they had iron chariots. ²⁰ They gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had said, and he drove out the three sons of Anak. ²¹ However, the tribe of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites living in Jerusalem, so the Jebusites live with the tribe of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

²² The descendants of Joseph went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them. ²³ The descendants of Joseph sent spies into Bethel (the former name of the city was Luz). ²⁴ The spies saw a man coming out of the city and said to him, "Please show us the entrance to the city, and we will deal kindly with you." ²⁵ So he showed them an entrance to the city. They struck the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man and his extended family go. ²⁶ The man went to the land of the Hittites. He built a city and named it Luz, and that is its name to this day.

²⁷ Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shan, Taanach, Dor, Ibleam, Megiddo, or their daughter villages, for the Canaanites were determined to live in that land. ²⁸ When the children of Israel became strong, they put the Canaanites to hard labor as slaves, but they did not actually drive them out.

²⁹ Ephraim did not drive out the inhabitants of Gezer, so the Canaanites lived among them in Gezer. ³⁰ Zebulun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kitron and Nahalol, so the Canaanites lived among them and became slave laborers. ³¹ Asher did not drive out the inhabitants of Akko, Sidon, Ahlab, Akzib, Helbah, Aphek, or Rehob. ³² Asher lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land, for they did not drive them out. ³³ Naphtali did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh or Beth Anath, so they live among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land. The Canaanites of Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath became slave laborers for them. ³⁴ The Amorites pushed the tribe of Dan into the hill country, for they would not let them come down to the coastal plain. ³⁵ The Amorites were determined to live in Mount Heres, Aijalon, and Shaalbim, but the hand of the descendants of Joseph was heavy on them, and they became slave laborers. ³⁶ The border of the Amorites was from the Ascent of Akrabbim to Sela and beyond.

The Angel of the LORD at Bokim

2 The angel [†] of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bokim and said, "I brought you up from Egypt and brought you into the land that I promised your fathers. I said, 'I will never break My covenant with you, ² but you must not make a pact with the inhabitants of this land, and you must tear down their altars.' Yet you have not obeyed Me. What is this you have done? ³ So now I say, 'I will not drive them out before you. They will be thorns in your sides, and their gods will be a snare to you.'"

⁴ When the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, the people raised their voices and wept aloud. ⁵ They named that place Bokim and sacrificed to the LORD there.

The Death of Joshua

⁶ When Joshua dismissed the people, each Israelite went to his inheritance to possess the land. ⁷ So the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works that the LORD had done for Israel.

⁸ Joshua, the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred and ten. ⁹ They buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath Heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

¹⁰ That entire generation passed away, and after them grew up a generation who did not know the LORD or the deeds that He had done for Israel.

[†] At times the Lord speaks directly through an angel (cf. the story of the burning bush in Ex 3:2-4).

Israel's Unfaithfulness

¹¹ The children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD and served the Baals. ¹² They abandoned the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt. They followed after other gods, the gods of the peoples around them. They worshipped them and provoked the LORD to anger. ¹³ They abandoned the LORD and served Baal and the Ashtoreths. ¹⁴ The anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hands of those who plundered them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies around them, so that they were no longer able to stand against their enemies. ¹⁵ Whenever they marched out, the hand of the LORD was against them to bring disaster, as the LORD had said and as He had sworn to them. They were in great distress.

²⁰ The anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He said, "Because this nation has violated My covenant that I commanded their fathers and has not heeded My voice, ²¹ I will no longer drive out from before them any of the nations that Joshua left when he died, ²² so that through them I may test Israel and see whether or not they will keep the ways of the LORD, to walk in them as their fathers did." ²³ So the LORD left those nations, not hurrying to drive them out; and He did not deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

3 Now these are the nations that the LORD left to test those in Israel who had not experienced war in Canaan ² (so that later generations of the children of Israel who did not know war before might know it, to teach them how to fight): ³ the five Philistine lords, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites living on Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal Hermon to Lebo Hamath. ⁴ They were to test Israel, in order to know if they would obey the commandments of the LORD, which He commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

⁵ The children of Israel lived among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites. ⁶ They took their daughters for themselves as wives, and gave their own daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

Othniel

⁷The children of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. They forgot the LORD their God and served the Baals and the Asherahs. ⁸The anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of Cushan-Rishathaim, king of Mesopotamia. The children of Israel served Cushan-Rishathaim for eight years. ⁹Then the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, and the LORD raised up a deliverer in order to save the children of Israel—Othniel son of Kenaz, the younger brother of Caleb. ¹⁰The Spirit of the LORD came on him, and he judged Israel. He went out to battle, and the LORD gave Cushan-Rishathaim, king of Mesopotamia, into his hands, so that Othniel overpowered Cushan-Rishathaim. ¹¹The land rested forty years, then Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Ehud

¹²Then the children of Israel once more did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, so the LORD strengthened King Eglon of Moab against Israel because they had done what was evil in the sight of the LORD. ¹³Eglon joined forces with the Ammonites and Amalekites; then he went and attacked Israel and took possession of the City of Palms. ¹⁴The children of Israel served King Eglon of Moab for eighteen years.

¹⁵Then the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, and the LORD raised up a deliverer—Ehud son of Gera the Benjamite, a left-handed man. The children of Israel sent a tribute payment by him to King Eglon of Moab. ¹⁶Ehud made a cubit-long † two-edged sword for himself and strapped it onto his right thigh under his cloak. ¹⁷He brought the tribute payment to King Eglon of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man. ¹⁸When Ehud finished offering the tribute payment, he sent away the people who carried it. ¹⁹But he himself turned back from the stone idols that were at Gilgal, and said, “I have a secret message for you, O king.”

And he said, “Keep silence!” And all who attended him departed from him.

²⁰Ehud approached him as he was sitting alone in his cool upper chamber. Ehud said, “I have a message from God for you.” And Eglon rose from his seat.

²¹Then Ehud reached with his left hand, drew the sword from his right thigh, and plunged it into the belly of Eglon. ²²The hilt went in after the blade and the fat closed over the blade and his entrails came out, for he did not pull the sword out of the belly of Eglon. ²³Then Ehud went out to the entrance hall and closed the doors of the upper chamber on him and locked them.

²⁴When he went out, the servants of Eglon came. They looked and noticed the doors of the upper chamber were locked. They thought, “Surely he is attending to his needs in the cool chamber.” ²⁵They waited until they were embarrassed, but he still did not open the doors of the upper chamber. So they took a key and opened it. There, fallen dead on the floor, was their lord.

† About 18 inches, or 45 centimeters.

²⁶Yet Ehud escaped while they were waiting. He passed the sacred stones and escaped to Seirah. ²⁷Upon his arrival, he blew a ram’s horn trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim. Then the children of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he led them.

²⁸He said to them, “Follow me, for the LORD has given your enemies the Moabites into your hands.” They followed him, and they captured the Jordan fords leading to Moab. They did not let anyone cross. ²⁹They struck down about ten thousand Moabites, all strong and valorous men, and not a single man escaped. ³⁰So Moab was humbled under the hand of Israel that day, and the land had peace for eighty years.

Shamgar

³¹After Ehud was Shamgar son of Anath. He struck down six hundred Philistine men with an ox goad. He also saved Israel.

Deborah

4 When Ehud was dead, the children of Israel once more did what was evil in the sight of the LORD.

²The LORD sold them into the hands of King Jabin of Canaan, who ruled in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera. He lived in Harosheth Haggoyim.

³The children of Israel cried out to the LORD, for Sisera had nine hundred iron chariots and had forcefully oppressed the children of Israel for twenty years.

⁴Now Deborah, the wife of Lappidoth, was a prophetess. She judged Israel at that time. ⁵She would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim. The children of Israel would go up to her for her to render judgment. ⁶She sent for Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, “The LORD God of Israel commands you, ‘Go and deploy troops at Mount Tabor, and take ten thousand men from the tribes of Naphtali and Zebulun with you. ⁷I will draw Sisera, the commander of the army of Jabin, with his chariots and large army to you at the River Kishon and give him into your hands.’”

⁸Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, then I will go, but if you will not go with me, then I will not go.”

⁹She said, “I will indeed go with you. However, the way you are going will gain you no glory, for the LORD will deliver Sisera into the hand of a woman.” Then Deborah got up and went with Barak to Kedesh.

¹⁰Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh. Ten thousand men went up on foot with him, and Deborah went up with him also.

¹² Then they told Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor. ¹³ So Sisera summoned all his nine hundred iron chariots and all the people with him, from Harosheth Haggoyim to the River Kishon.

¹⁴ Then Deborah said to Barak, "Get up, for this is the day that the LORD has given Sisera into your hands. Has not the LORD gone out before you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men behind him. ¹⁵ The LORD routed Sisera and all of his chariots and all of his army with the edge of the sword in front of Barak. Sisera dismounted his chariot and fled on foot. ¹⁶ Barak chased after the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth Haggoyim. The whole army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword. Not a single man survived.

¹⁸ Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, "Turn aside, my lord. Turn aside to me. Do not be afraid." So he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

¹⁹ He said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened a leather milk container, gave it to him to drink, and covered him.

²⁰ He said to her, "Stand in the entrance to the tent, and if anyone comes and asks you, 'Is there a man here?' then you say, 'No.'"

²¹ Then Jael the wife of Heber took a tent peg and a hammer in her hand and went quietly to him, for he was fast asleep and tired. She drove the tent peg into his temple, and it went down into the ground, so he died.

²² Now as Barak had been chasing Sisera, Jael came out to meet him and said, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you seek." When he came in, there was Sisera fallen dead with a tent peg in his temple.

²³ So God humbled King Jabin of Canaan before the children of Israel that day. ²⁴ The children of Israel grew more and more powerful over King Jabin of Canaan until he was no more.

The Song of Deborah

5 On that day, Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang:

² "When the leaders in Israel lead, when the people freely volunteer,
bless the LORD !

³ "Hear, O kings! Listen, O rulers!
I will sing to the LORD ;
I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.

⁴ " LORD , when You went out from Seir, when You marched from the land of Edom,

the ground shook and the skies poured,
indeed, the dense clouds poured water.

⁵ The mountains quaked before the LORD ,
this very Sinai, before the LORD God of Israel.

⁶ "In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, main roads were abandoned and travelers used roundabout paths.

⁷ Village life ceased. It ceased until I, Deborah, arose;
I arose like a mother in Israel.

⁸ They were choosing new gods, and warfare was at the city gates,
but not a shield or spear was to be seen among forty thousand in Israel.

⁹ My heart is with the rulers of Israel who offered themselves willingly among the people.
Bless the LORD !

¹⁰ "You who ride on white donkeys, you who sit in judges' attire,
you who walk on the road,

¹¹ consider the voice of those who distribute water among the watering places.

There they tell of the righteous deeds of the LORD ,
the righteous deeds of villagers in Israel.

"Then the people of the LORD
go down to the gates.

¹² Awake, awake, Deborah!
Awake, awake, sing a song!

Stand up, Barak,
and capture your prisoners, son of Abinoam!

¹³ "The survivors
came down to the nobles;
the people of the LORD
came down for me against the mighty.

¹⁴ Some came from Ephraim, whose roots were in Amalek,
following you, Benjamin, with your people.
From Makir rulers came down, and from Zebulun those who carry the staff of a scribe.

¹⁵ The princes of Issachar were with Deborah, and Issachar was with Barak;
they were sent into the valley on foot.
Among the clans of Reuben
there was great resolve of heart.

¹⁶ Why do you sit among the sheepfolds to hear playing of pipes for the flocks?
In the clans of Reuben
there was much searching of heart.

¹⁷ Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan.
As for Dan, why did he stay with the ships?
Asher stayed by the seacoast and settled by its bays.

¹⁸ Zebulun is a people who risked their lives to the point of death,
Naphtali also, on the heights of the battlefield.

¹⁹ "Kings came to wage war.
The kings of Canaan waged war in Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo;

 they took no money as profit.
²⁰ From the heavens the stars fought,
 from their courses they fought against Sisera.
²¹ The torrent of Kishon swept them away, that ancient torrent, the torrent of Kishon.
 My soul, march on in strength!
²² Then horses' hooves pounded,
 the galloping, galloping of his steeds.
²³ Curse Meroz, said the angel of the LORD, curse its inhabitants,
 for they did not come to the aid of the LORD,
 to the aid of the LORD against the mighty warriors.
²⁴ "Most blessed of women is Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite,
 most blessed of tent-dwelling women.
²⁵ He asked for water, she gave him milk.
 In a magnificent bowl she brought cream.
²⁶ Her hand on a tent peg, her right hand on a workman's hammer;
 she struck Sisera, she crushed his skull,
 she shattered and pierced his temple.
²⁷ Between her feet he sank, he fell, he lay;
 between her feet he sank, he fell;
 where he sank, there he fell, overpowered.
²⁸ "The mother of Sisera looked through the window, and cried out through the lattice,
 "Why is his chariot so late?
 Why is the sound of his war chariots so delayed?"
²⁹ Her wise attendants answered her, indeed, she replied to herself,
³⁰ "Are they not finding and dividing the spoils:
 a girl or two for each man;
 dyed garments as plunder for Sisera, dyed and embroidered garments, two pieces of dyed embroidery for the neck of the looter?"
³¹ "May all Your enemies perish like this, O LORD!
 But may those who love Him rise like the sun when it rises in full strength."
 Then the land was at peace for forty years.

Gideon

6 The children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, so the LORD gave them into the hands of Midian for seven years. ² The hands of Midian dominated Israel, and because of Midian the children of Israel made hiding places for themselves in the mountains, caves, and strongholds. ³ Whenever Israel would plant crops, the Midianites, Amalekites, and the people from the east would come up against them. ⁴ Then they would make camp by them and ruin crops of the land all the way to Gaza. They did not leave any provisions behind in Israel—neither sheep, nor cattle, nor donkeys. ⁵ For they came with their livestock and tents like a swarm of locusts. They and their camels were too numerous to count, and they came into the land to destroy it. ⁶ Israel was made weak before Midian and cried out to the LORD.

⁷ When the children of Israel cried out to the LORD because of Midian, ⁸ the LORD sent them a prophet who said, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: I brought you up from Egypt and out of that place of slavery. ⁹ I delivered you from the hands of Egypt and all your oppressors. I drove them out from before you and gave you their land. ¹⁰ I said to you, 'I am the LORD your God. Do not worship the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living.' But you have disobeyed Me."

¹¹ Now the angel [†] of the LORD came and sat under the oak tree in Ophrah belonging to Joash the Abiezrite. Gideon his son was threshing wheat in a winepress to hide it from the Midianites. ¹² The angel of the LORD appeared and said to him, "The LORD is with you, O mighty man of valor."

¹³ Then Gideon said to him, "O my lord, if the LORD is with us, then why has all this happened to us? Where are all His miracles that our fathers told us about? They said, 'Did not the LORD bring us out of Egypt?' Yet now the LORD has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites."

¹⁴ Then the LORD turned to him and said, "Go in this strength of yours. Save Israel from the control of Midian. Have I not sent you?"

¹⁵ And he said to Him, "O my Lord, how can I save Israel? Indeed my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the youngest in my father's house."

¹⁶ Then the LORD said to him, "But I will be with you, and you will strike the Midianites as one man."

¹⁷ And he said to Him, "If I have found favor in Your sight, give me a sign that it is You who are speaking with me. ¹⁸ Please do not depart from here until I come to You and bring out my gift and set it before You."

And He said, "I will stay until you return."

¹⁹ So Gideon went and prepared a young goat and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. He put the meat in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought them out and offered them to Him under the oak.

²⁰ And the angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread, lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth." And so he did. ²¹ The angel of the LORD reached out the tip of the staff that was in His hand and touched the meat and unleavened flatbread. Fire rose out of the rock and consumed the meat and unleavened bread. Then the angel of the LORD departed from his sight. ²² Then Gideon perceived that it was indeed the angel of the LORD. So Gideon said, "Alas, O Lord GOD! I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face."

²³ Then the LORD said to him, "Peace be with you. Do not be afraid. You will not die."

[†] At times the Lord speaks directly through an angel (cf. the story of the burning bush in Ex 3:2-4).

²⁴ Then Gideon built an altar for the LORD there and called it The LORD Is Peace. Even to this day it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

²⁵ That night the LORD said to him, "Take a bull from your father's herd and a second bull seven years old. Tear down your father's Baal altar and cut down the Asherah pole beside it. ²⁶ Then build an altar to the LORD your God on top of this stronghold in an orderly way. Take the second bull and offer it as a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah pole that you will cut down."

²⁷ So Gideon took ten men from among his slaves and did as the LORD had told him, but because he was too afraid of the rest of his father's household and the men of the city to do it by day, he did it at night.

²⁸ When the men of the city got up early in the morning, the altar of Baal was torn down, the Asherah pole beside it was cut down, and the second bull had been offered on the new altar that had been built.

²⁹ They said to each other, "Who has done this?" When they had inquired and asked, they responded, "Gideon son of Joash has done this."

³⁰ Then the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son so that he may die, for he tore down the altar of Baal and cut down the Asherah pole beside it."

³¹ Joash then said to all who stood against him, "Would you plead for Baal? Would you save him? Whoever fights for him will be killed by morning. If Baal is a god, let him fight for himself, for someone has torn down his altar." ³² Therefore on that day he called him Jerub-Baal, saying, "Let Baal fight him, for he tore down the altar of Baal."

³³ All the Midianites, Amalekites, and the people from the east gathered together, and they crossed over, and camped in the Valley of Jezreel. ³⁴ The Spirit of the LORD enveloped Gideon. He blew a ram's horn trumpet, and the Abiezrites assembled behind him. ³⁵ He sent messengers throughout all of Manasseh and they assembled behind him as well. He also sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, so these tribes came up to meet them.

³⁶ Gideon said to God, "If You will use my hands to save Israel, as You have said— ³⁷ I am placing a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew on the fleece only and all of the ground remains dry, then I will know that You will save Israel with my hands, as You have said." ³⁸ So it happened. He got up early the next morning and squeezed the fleece. Enough dew poured out of the fleece to fill a bowlful of water.

³⁹ Then Gideon said to God, "Do not let Your anger burn against me as I speak only one more time. Please let me perform a test with the fleece one more time. Please, let the fleece be the only thing dry, and let there be dew on all of the ground." ⁴⁰ So God did this during that night. Only the fleece was dry, and the dew was on all the ground.

Gideon Defeats the Midianites

⁷ Then Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him got up early and set up camp at Harod Spring. There was a camp of Midianites to the north of them in the valley near the hill of Moreh. ² The LORD said to Gideon, "You have too many people with you for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel glorify themselves over Me, saying, 'Our own power saved us.' ³ So now, call out so the people can hear, 'Whoever is afraid or anxious may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.'" So twenty-two thousand from among the people turned back, and ten thousand were left.

⁴ But the LORD said to Gideon, "There are still too many people. Bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. When I say to you, 'This one will go with you,' he will go with you. Everyone about whom I will say, 'This one will not go with you,' will not go."

⁵ So he brought the people down to the water, and the LORD said to Gideon, "You shall set apart by himself everyone who laps the water with his tongue like dogs; likewise, everyone who kneels down to drink."

⁶ The number of those who lapped, putting their hands to their mouths, was three hundred. The rest of the people had knelt to drink water.

Now the Midianite camp was below him in the valley. ⁹ That night the LORD said to him, "Get up and go down into the camp, for I have given it into your hands. ¹⁰ Yet if you are afraid to go down, then go down to the camp with Purah your servant. ¹¹ Listen to what they say, and afterward you will be emboldened to go down to the camp." So he and Purah his servant went down near the edge of the camp. ¹² Now the Midianites, Amalekites, and the Kedemites covered the valley like locusts; and their camels could not be counted, for they were as numerous as grains of sand on the seashore.

¹³ Gideon came and overheard one man who was telling his dream to another. The man said, "Listen to a dream I had. I saw a dry cake of barley bread rolling into the Midianite camp. It rolled up to a tent and struck it. It fell, turned upside down, and collapsed."

¹⁴ The other man responded, "This is none other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash the Israelite. God has given Midian and the whole camp into his hands."

¹⁵ When Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he worshipped, returned to the camp of Israel, and said, "Get up, for the LORD has given the Midianite camp into your hands.”¹⁶ He divided the three hundred men into three combat units. He gave all of them ram’s horn trumpets, empty jars, and torches within the jars.

¹⁷ He said to them, “Look at me and do likewise. Watch, and when I come to the perimeter of the camp, do as I do.”¹⁸ When I and all who are with me blow the horn, then you will blow the horns all around the camp and shout, ‘For the LORD and for Gideon!’”

²⁰ The three combat units blew the horns and broke the jars. They held the torches in their left hands and the horns for blowing in their right hands. They called out, “A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!”²¹ Every man stood in his place all around the camp, but the men in the camp ran, shouted, and fled.

²² When they blew the three hundred horns, the LORD turned every man’s sword against his fellow man throughout the camp. The Midianite camp fled to Beth Shittah in the direction of Zererah, up to the border of Abel Meholah, near Tabbath.²³ The men of Israel from Naphtali, Asher, and all of Manasseh were summoned, and they chased after the Midianites.

²⁴ Now Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, saying, “Come down to engage Midian in battle. Take control of the water ways as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan.”

All the men of Ephraim were summoned, and they took control of the water ways as far as Beth Barah and the Jordan.²⁵ They captured Oreb and Zeeb, the two Midianite commanders. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb and killed Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They chased after the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side of the Jordan.

Zebah and Zalmunna

8 Then the men of Ephraim said to him, “What have you done to us by not calling us to go and wage war against Midian?” They argued heatedly with him.

² He said to them, “What have I done now compared to you? Are not the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim better than the harvest of Abiezer?”³ It was into your hands that God gave the Midianite commanders, Oreb and Zeeb. What was I able to do compared to you?” When Gideon said this, their anger against him cooled down.

⁴ Then Gideon came to the Jordan and crossed over, he and the three hundred men who were with him, exhausted but still pursuing.⁵ He said to the men of Sukkoth, “Please give some loaves of bread to the people who are following me, for they are exhausted, and I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.”

⁶ The officials of Sukkoth said, “Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hands that we should give bread to your army?”

⁷ So Gideon said, “Because of this, when the LORD gives Zebah and Zalmunna into my hands, I will tear your bodies with desert thorns and briers.”

⁸ He went up from there to Peniel and spoke to them in the same way. The men of Peniel answered him just as the men of Sukkoth had.⁹ So he also said to the men of Peniel, “When I return safely, I will tear down this tower.”

¹³ Gideon son of Joash returned from battle by the Pass of Heres.¹⁴ He captured a young man from among the men of Sukkoth and asked him to write the names of the leaders and elders of Sukkoth, seventy-seven men.¹⁵ Then he came to the men of Sukkoth and said, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me. You said, ‘Have you subjugated Zebah and Zalmunna that we should give bread to your weary army?’”¹⁶ He took the city elders and disciplined the men of Sukkoth with thorns and briers of the wilderness.¹⁷ He tore down the tower of Peniel and killed the men of the city.

¹⁸ Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, “What kind of men did you kill at Tabor?”

They said, “They were like you. Each one looked like the son of a king.”

¹⁹ He said, “They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if you had allowed them to live, I would not kill you.”²⁰ Gideon said to his firstborn Jether, “Rise and kill them!” Yet the young man did not draw his sword because he was afraid, for he was still a young man.

²¹ Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, “You get up and attack us, for a man is judged by his strength.” So Gideon got up and killed Zebah and Zalmunna and took the crescent-shaped ornaments that were on the necks of their camels.

Gideon’s Ephod

²² Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, “Rule over us, you, and your son, and your grandson, for you have saved us from the hands of Midian.”

²³ Gideon said to them, “I will not rule over you, and my son will not rule over you. The LORD will rule over you.”²⁴ Gideon continued, “I have a request to make of you, that each man would give me an earring from his spoils." (Their enemy had golden earrings because they were Ishmaelites.)

²⁵ They said, "We will certainly give them." So they spread out a cloak, and each man threw a ring of his spoils there. ²⁶ The weight of the golden earrings that he requested was seventeen hundred gold shekels. [†] This was in addition to the crescent-shaped ornaments, jewelry, and purple clothing worn by the kings of Midian, as well as the chains hanging on the necks of their camels. ²⁷ Gideon used these things to make an ephod. He put it in his city, in Ophrah, and all Israel prostituted themselves to it there. It became a snare to Gideon and his family.

²⁸ The Midianites were humbled before the children of Israel and did not lift their heads high again. The land had peace for forty years in the days of Gideon.

The Death of Gideon

²⁹ Jerub-Baal son of Joash went to his house and lived there. ³⁰ Gideon had seventy sons, for he had many wives. ³¹ His concubine who lived in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelek. ³² Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age, and he was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

³³ After Gideon died, the children of Israel turned again to prostitute themselves with the Baals. They made Baal-Berith their god. ³⁴ The children of Israel did not remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them from the hands of their enemies around them, ³⁵ and they did not keep faith with the family of Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon), for all the good he had done for Israel.

Abimelek

9 Abimelek son of Jerub-Baal went to Shechem, to his mother's brothers. He spoke to them and to the house of his mother's father saying, ² "Please say in the hearing of all of the leaders of Shechem, 'Which is better for you, to have all seventy sons of Jerub-Baal rule over you, or for one man to rule over you? Remember that I am your own flesh and bone.'" ³ So his mother's brothers spoke all these things about him in the hearing of all the leaders of Shechem, and their hearts inclined toward Abimelek, for they said, "He is our brother." ⁴ They gave him seventy silver coins ^{††} from the temple of Baal-Berith. Abimelek hired unprincipled and undisciplined men, and they followed him. ⁵ He went to his father's house at Ophrah and killed his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerub-Baal, on a single stone. Yet Jotham, the youngest son of Jerub-Baal, survived because he hid himself. ⁶ All the leaders of Shechem and everyone from Beth Millo gathered together by the oak near the pillar in Shechem to make Abimelek king.

⁷ When Jotham heard this, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim. He raised his voice and called out, saying to them, "Listen to me, leaders of Shechem, so that God may listen to you! ⁸ The trees once went out to anoint a king over them. They said to the olive tree, 'Rule over us!'" ⁹ "Yet the olive tree said to them, 'Should I stop making oil, by which God and men are honored, to go and sway over the trees?'" ¹⁰ "So the trees said to the fig tree, 'You come and rule over us.'" ¹¹ "Yet the fig tree said to them, 'Should I stop making my sweet aroma and my fruit, to go and sway over the trees?'" ¹² "So the trees said to the grapevine, 'You come and rule over us.'" ¹³ "Yet the grapevine said to them, 'Should I stop making my fresh wine, which cheers God and men, to go and sway over the trees?'" ¹⁴ "So the trees said to the thorn bush, 'You come and rule over us.'" ¹⁵ "The thorn bush said to the trees, 'If you really want to anoint me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade. If not, let fire come out from the thorn bush and consume the cedars of Lebanon!'" ¹⁶ "Now then, did you show good faith and integrity when you made Abimelek king? Did you deal well with Jerub-Baal and his family? Did you do to him as his actions deserved, ¹⁷ considering that my father waged war for you, risked his life for you, and delivered you from the hands of Midian? ¹⁸ Yet you have taken a stand against my father's family today. You killed his seventy sons, each on a single stone. You made Abimelek, son of his slave woman, king over the leaders of Shechem because he is your brother. ¹⁹ So if you did show good faith and integrity in what you did with Jerub-Baal and his family today, then rejoice in Abimelek, and may he also rejoice in you. ²⁰ If not, let fire come out from Abimelek and consume the leaders of Shechem and Beth Millo, and let fire come out from the leaders of Shechem and from Beth Millo and consume Abimelek!" ²¹ Then Jotham ran away and fled. He went to Beer and lived there because of Abimelek his brother.

²² After Abimelek ruled over Israel for three years, ²³ God sent an evil spirit between Abimelek and the leaders of Shechem, and the leaders of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelek, ²⁴ so that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerub-Baal and their blood might come back upon Abimelek their brother, who killed them, and upon the leaders of Shechem, who empowered him to kill his brothers. ²⁵ The leaders of Shechem set ambushes against him on the hilltops and robbed all who passed by them on the road. This was told to Abimelek.

The Downfall of Abimelek

²² After Abimelek ruled over Israel for three years, ²³ God sent an evil spirit between Abimelek and the leaders of Shechem, and the leaders of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelek, ²⁴ so that the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerub-Baal and their blood might come back upon Abimelek their brother, who killed them, and upon the leaders of Shechem, who empowered him to kill his brothers. ²⁵ The leaders of Shechem set ambushes against him on the hilltops and robbed all who passed by them on the road. This was told to Abimelek.

²⁶ Gaal, the son of Ebed, and his brothers came to Shechem, and the leaders of Shechem trusted him. ²⁷ They went out to the field, gathered and trod their grapes, and had a celebration. They went to the temple of their god and ate, drank, and cursed Abimelek. ²⁸ Gaal son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelek, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerub-Baal, and is not Zebul his officer? Serve the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem. Why should we serve Abimelek? ²⁹ If only this people were under my command, I would get rid of Abimelek." So he said to Abimelek, "Mustering your army and come out!"

³⁰ Then Zebul the city ruler heard the words of Gaal son of Ebed and he burned with anger. ³¹ He secretly sent messengers to Abimelek, saying, "Gaal, the son of Ebed, and his brothers have come to Shechem and are fortifying the city against you. ³² So now, get up at night, you and the people with you, and lie in wait in the field. ³³ In the morning at sunrise, get up early and attack the city. He and the people with him will come out to you, then you can do to them as you find opportunity."

³⁴ So Abimelek and all the people who were with him got up at night and lay in wait by Shechem in four companies. ³⁵ When Gaal son of Ebed went out and stood at the entrance of the city gate, then Abimelek and the people who were with him got up from their hiding places.

³⁶ Gaal saw these people and said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the hilltops."

Zebul said to him, "The shadows of the hills look like men to you."

³⁷ Gaal spoke again and said, "Look, people are coming down the middle of the land, and a company is coming by way of the Diviner's Oak."

³⁸ Then Zebul said to him, "Where is your mouth now, which said, 'Who is Abimelek, that we should serve him?' Are not these the people you dismissed out of hand? Go now, I pray, and fight against them."

⁴² The next day the people went out into the field, and this was told to Abimelek. ⁴³ So he took the people and divided them into three companies, and they laid in wait in the field. When the people came out from the city, he rose up against them and struck them down. ⁴⁴ Abimelek and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the city gate. The two other combat units attacked everyone in the field and struck them down. ⁴⁵ Abimelek fought against the city all that day. He captured the city and killed the people inside it; he tore down the city and spread salt over it.

⁴⁶ When the leaders of the Tower of Shechem heard this, they entered the fortified temple of El-Berith.

⁴⁷ Abimelek was told that all the leaders of the Tower of Shechem had gathered together. ⁴⁸ So Abimelek and all the people who were with him went up Mount Zalmon. He took an axe in his hand and cut off a tree branch, lifted it, and carried it on his shoulder. Then he said to the men who were with him, "What you have seen me do, hurry and do the same." ⁴⁹ So everyone likewise cut off a branch and followed Abimelek. They placed them on the fortification and set the fortification on fire over them. So all the people of the Tower of Shechem died, about a thousand men and women.

⁵⁰ Then Abimelek went to Thebez and encamped against Thebez and captured it. ⁵¹ But there was a fortified tower within the city, so all of the men and women and the leaders of the city fled there. They shut themselves in and went up to the top of the tower. ⁵² Abimelek came to the tower and fought against it. But as he drew near to the tower entrance to burn it with fire, ⁵³ a certain woman dropped an upper millstone on the head of Abimelek, and it crushed his skull.

⁵⁴ Urgently he called to the young man who carried his gear and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, so that people may not say about me, 'A woman killed him.'" So the young man pierced him through, and he died. ⁵⁵ Then the men of Israel saw that Abimelek was dead, so everyone went home.

⁵⁶ Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelek, which he committed against his father by killing his seventy brothers. ⁵⁷ God also repaid the evil deeds of the men of Shechem, and the curse of Jotham son of Jerub-Baal came upon them.

Tola

10 After the death of Abimelek, Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, arose to save Israel. He lived in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim. ² He judged Israel for twenty-three years. Then he died and was buried in Shamir.

Jair

³ After him Jair the Gileadite arose and judged Israel for twenty-two years. ⁴ He had thirty sons who rode thirty donkeys and owned thirty cities that are in the land of Gilead. They are called Havvoth Jair to this day. ⁵ Jair died and was buried in Kamon.

Jephthah

⁶ Again the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD. They worshipped the Baals, the Ashtoreths, and the gods of Syria, Sidon, Moab, the Ammonites, and the Philistines. They abandoned the LORD and did not serve Him. ⁷ The anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and the Ammonites. ⁸ They brutally oppressed the children of Israel that year. For eighteen years they oppressed all the children of Israel beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites in Gilead. ⁹The Ammonites also crossed over the Jordan to wage war against Judah, Benjamin, and Ephraim, so that Israel was greatly distressed. ¹⁰Then the children of Israel cried out to the LORD, "We have sinned against You, for we have abandoned our God and worshipped the Baals."

¹¹The LORD said to the children of Israel, "Did I not deliver you from Egypt, the Amorites, the Ammonites, the Philistines, ¹²the Sidonians, the Amalekites, and the Maonites when they oppressed you? You cried out to Me, and I saved you from their hands. ¹³Yet you have abandoned Me and worshipped other gods. Therefore I will not save you again. ¹⁴Go and cry out to the gods that you have chosen. Let them save you in your time of distress."

¹⁵Then the children of Israel said to the LORD, "We have sinned. Do to us whatever seems good in Your sight. Please, just deliver us today." ¹⁶They removed the foreign gods from among them and worshipped the LORD, and He could no longer endure the suffering of Israel.

¹⁷The Ammonites had been called out and set up camp in Gilead. The children of Israel assembled and set up camp in Mizpah. ¹⁸The commanders of Gilead said to each other, "Who is the man who will begin to fight against the Ammonites? He will be the ruler of all the inhabitants of Gilead."

11 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, but he was the son of a prostitute. Gilead was the father of Jephthah. ²Gilead's wife also bore him sons. His wife's sons grew up and drove Jephthah away. They said to him, "You will not inherit anything from our father's house because you are the son of another woman." ³So Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Men of ill repute gathered around Jephthah and went out with him.

⁴Some time passed, then the Ammonites waged war with Israel. ⁵When the Ammonites waged war with Israel, the elders of Gilead went to bring Jephthah back from the land of Tob. ⁶They said to Jephthah, "Come and be our leader so that we may fight the Ammonites."

⁷Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me and drive me out of my father's house? Why have you come to me now that you are in trouble?"

⁸The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Even so, we have turned to you. Come with us and fight the Ammonites. You will be ruler over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

⁹Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me back to wage war against the Ammonites, and the LORD gives them to me, then I will be your ruler."

¹⁰The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "May the LORD be a witness between us if we do not act according to your word." ¹¹So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead. The people set him over them as ruler and leader. And Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

¹²Jephthah sent messengers to the Ammonite king to say, "What problem is there between you and me, that you have come to me to wage war in my land?"

¹³The Ammonite king said to the messengers of Jephthah, "Because when Israel came up from Egypt, they took my land, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and as far as the Jordan. Now return it peacefully."

¹⁴Again Jephthah sent messengers to the Ammonite king, ¹⁵and said to him,

"Jephthah says this: Israel did not take the land of Moab, nor the Ammonite land; ¹⁶for when Israel came up from Egypt, they went into the desert as far as the Red Sea and came to Kadesh. ¹⁷Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Please let us pass through your land.' Yet the king of Edom would not listen. They also sent messengers to the king of Moab, but he was unwilling. So Israel stayed at Kadesh.

¹⁸"They went into the wilderness, around the lands of Edom and Moab. They went east of the land of Moab and set up camp on the other side of the River Arnon. They did not cross the boundary of Moab, for the River Arnon was the boundary of Moab.

¹⁹"Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon. Israel said to him, "Please let us pass through your land to our home."

²⁰Yet Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory, so Sihon gathered all his people and set up camp in Jahaz to fight with Israel.

²¹"The LORD God of Israel gave Sihon and all his people into the hands of Israel, and they struck them down. So Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites who lived in that land. ²²They took possession of all of the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the desert to the Jordan.

²³"Now that the LORD God of Israel has driven out the Amorites from before His people Israel, should you take it? ²⁴Will you not take possession of whatever Chemosh your god gives you? So everything that the LORD our God possesses before us, we will take possession of it. ²⁵Now are you really better than Balak son of Zippor, the king of Moab? Did he ever contend with Israel or wage war with them? ²⁶Israel has lived in Heshbon and its nearby towns, in Aroer and its nearby towns, and in all the cities along the banks of the River Arnon for three hundred years. Why did you not take them back during that time? ²⁷So I have not sinned against you, but it is you who are doing evil to me by waging war against me. May the LORD, the Judge, judge today between the children of Israel and the Ammonites."

²⁸Yet the Ammonite king would not listen to the message that Jephthah had sent him.

²⁹Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jephthah and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and went on to the Ammonites. ³⁰ Jephthah made a vow to the LORD, "If You will indeed give the Ammonites into my hands, ³¹ then whatever comes out from the door of my house to meet me, when I return safely from the Ammonites, will surely be the LORD's, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering."

³² So Jephthah crossed over to the Ammonites to wage war against them, and the LORD gave them into his hands. ³³ He struck them down from Aroer to Minnith, twenty cities, and as far as Abel Keramim. The defeat was very severe, and the Ammonites were humbled before the children of Israel.

³⁴ When Jephthah went to his house at Mizpah, there was his daughter coming out to meet him, dancing with a tambourine. She was his only child. Other than her, he had neither son nor daughter. ³⁵ When he saw her, he ripped up his clothes and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought utter disaster to me. You are my undoing, for I have given my word to the LORD, and I cannot take it back."

³⁶ She said to him, "My father, you have opened your mouth to the LORD. Do to me what has come out of your mouth, because the LORD worked vengeance upon your enemies, the Ammonites." ³⁷ Then she said to her father, "Let this be done for me: Give me two months, and I and my friends will wander the hill country and mourn over my virginity."

³⁸ He said, "Go," and he sent her away for two months. She and her friends went and mourned over her virginity in the hill country. ³⁹ At the end of two months she returned to her father, and he did to her according to the vow that he had made. She had not ever slept with a man.

So it became a custom in Israel ⁴⁰ that the women of Israel would commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite for four days each year.

Jephthah and Ephraim

12 The men of Ephraim gathered together and crossed over to Zaphon. They said to Jephthah, "Why did you go to wage war with the Ammonites and not call us to go with you? We will burn down your house right on top of you."

² Jephthah said to them, "My people and I were in a very great conflict with the Ammonites. I called you, but you did not save me from their hands. ³ When I saw that you were not going to save me, I took my life in my own hands and crossed over to the Ammonites. Then the LORD gave them into my hands. Now why have you come up to me today to wage war against me?"

⁴ Then Jephthah assembled all the men of Gilead and fought with Ephraim. The men of Gilead struck Ephraim down, for they had said, "You Gileadites are fugitives in Ephraim, living in Ephraim and Manasseh." ⁵ Gilead captured the fords of the Jordan River leading to Ephraim. Whenever an Ephraimite fugitive would say, "Let me cross," the Gileadite men would say to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No," ⁶ then they would say to him, "Say, 'Shibboleth!'" Yet he would say, "Sibboleth," for he could not pronounce it correctly. Then they would grab him and kill him at the Jordan fords. During that time forty-two thousand from Ephraim fell.

⁷ Jephthah judged Israel for six years. When Jephthah the Gileadite died, he was buried among the cities of Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon, and Abdon

⁸ After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. ⁹ He had thirty sons, and he gave thirty daughters in marriage outside his clan; and he brought thirty daughters from outside for his sons. He judged Israel for seven years. ¹⁰ Then Ibzan died and was buried in Bethlehem.

¹¹ After him, Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. He judged Israel for ten years. ¹² Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

¹³ After him, Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel. ¹⁴ He had forty sons and thirty grandsons who rode seventy donkeys. He judged Israel for eight years. ¹⁵ Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the Amalekite hill country.

The Birth of Samson

13 Again the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, so the LORD gave them into the hands of the Philistines for forty years.

² There was a certain man from Zorah, from the tribe of Dan. His name was Manoah. His wife was infertile and had borne no children. ³ The angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, "Indeed, you are infertile and have borne no children, yet you will conceive and bear a son. ⁴ Now be careful, I pray, that you drink no wine or strong drink and that you do not eat anything ritually unclean. ⁵ For you will conceive and bear a son. No razor may touch his head, for the boy will be a Nazirite to God from the womb. He will begin to save Israel from the hand of the Philistines."

⁶ Then the woman went to her husband and said, "A man of God came to me. He looked like a very fearsome angel of God. I did not ask him where he was from, and he did not tell me his name. ⁷ He said to me, 'You will conceive and bear a son. So now, do not drink wine or strong drink, and do not eat anything ritually unclean, for the boy will be a Nazirite to God from the womb until the day he dies.'"

⁸ Then Manoah prayed to the LORD, "O my Lord, let the man of God whom You sent come again to us, so that he can teach us what we should do for the boy who will be born."

⁹ God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman. She was sitting in the field; but her husband Manoah was not with her.

¹⁰ The woman hurried and ran to tell her husband, "The man who came to me the other day has appeared to me."

¹¹ So Manoah got up and went after his wife. He came to the man and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to my wife?"

He said, "I am."

¹² Then Manoah said, "Now may your words come true! What will be the boy's way of life and his work?"

¹³ The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Your wife must observe everything that I said to her. ¹⁴ She must not consume anything that grows on the vine. She must not drink wine or strong drink, and she must not eat anything ritually unclean. She must observe everything that I commanded her."

¹⁵ Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "Please let us detain you, and let us prepare a young goat for you."

¹⁶ The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "If I stay, I will not eat your food, but if you want to make an offering to the LORD, you should offer it." (For Manoah did not know that he was an angel of the LORD.)

¹⁷ Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "What is your name, so that we can honor you when your words come true?"

¹⁸ The angel of the LORD said to him, "Why do you ask my name? It is too wonderful." ¹⁹ Manoah took the young goat and the grain offering and offered them to the LORD upon a rock. Then he did a wondrous thing while Manoah and his wife watched. ²⁰ When the flame went up from the altar toward the heavens, the angel of the LORD went up in the flames from the altar. Seeing this, Manoah and his wife fell face down on the ground. ²¹ The angel of the LORD did not appear again to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the LORD.

²² Manoah said to his wife, "We are certainly going to die, for we have seen God."

²³ Yet his wife said to him, "If the LORD wanted to kill us, He would not have taken the burnt offering and grain offering from us. He would not have shown us these things, nor let us hear things such as these at this time."

²⁴ So the woman bore a son, and she called him Samson. The boy grew, and the LORD blessed him. ²⁵ The Spirit of the LORD began to move upon him at Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Samson's Wedding

14 Samson went down to Timnah and saw a woman from the daughters of the Philistines.

² He came back up and told his father and mother, "I have seen a woman in Timnah from the daughters of the Philistines; now get her for me as a wife."

³ His father and mother said to him, "Are there no women among your relatives, or all of our people, that you are intending to take a wife from among the uncircumcised Philistines?"

Yet Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, for she pleases me well." ⁴ His father and mother did not know that this was from the LORD, for He was seeking an opportunity to act against the Philistines. At that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel.

⁵ Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah. As they came to the vineyards of Timnah, suddenly a young lion came roaring toward him. ⁶ Then the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and though unarmed, he tore the lion in two as one might tear a young goat in two. However, he did not tell his father and his mother what he had done. ⁷ So Samson went down and spoke with the woman, and she pleased Samson.

⁸ After a while, when he returned to take her, he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion. And a swarm of bees and honey were in the carcass of the lion. ⁹ He scooped it out into his hands and ate it as he went along. He came to his father and mother and gave some to them, and they also ate. Yet he did not tell them he had scooped the honey out of a lion's carcass.

¹⁰ Then his father went down to the woman. Samson put on a feast there, for this is what young men would do. ¹¹ When the Philistines saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him.

¹² Samson said to them, "Let me tell you a riddle. If you can explain it to me within the seven days of the feast, then I will find thirty linen robes and thirty sets of clothes to give you. ¹³ However, if you are not able to explain it to me, then you will give me thirty linen robes and thirty sets of clothes."

They said to him, "Tell us your riddle, so we can hear it."

¹⁴ He said to them, "Out of the eater came something to eat, and out of the strong came something sweet." They could not explain the riddle after three days.

¹⁵ On the fourth day they said to Samson's wife, "Trick your groom into telling us the riddle, or we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us to steal what we have? Is that not so?"

¹⁶ So Samson's wife wept all over him and said, "You must hate me. You do not love me. You have told a riddle to the young men and did not tell it to me."

Then he said to her, "I have not told it to my father and mother. Why should I tell it to you?" ¹⁷ She wept on him for the seven days of the feast, then on the seventh day he told it to her because she had nagged him. Then she explained the riddle to her people.

¹⁸ So on the seventh day before sunset, the men of the city said to Samson,

"What is sweeter than honey, and what is stronger than a lion?"

Then he said to them, "If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle.”

¹⁹ Then the Spirit of the LORD mightily came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon and struck down thirty of their men. He took their clothes and gave them to the ones who had explained the riddle. His anger burned and he went up to his father’s house. ²⁰ So Samson’s wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.

Samson’s Revenge

15 After a while, during the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife, taking a young goat. He said, “I’m going in to my wife in her bedroom,” but her father would not let him go in.

² Her father said, “I thought that you thoroughly hated her, so I gave her to your best man. Is not her younger sister better than she? Please, let her be your wife instead.”

³ Samson said to them, “This time I cannot be blamed by the Philistines when I do them harm.”

⁶ The Philistines asked, “Who did this?” They said, “Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because the Timnite took the bride of Samson and gave her to his best man.”

So the Philistines went up and burned her and her father with fire. ⁷ Samson said to them, “Because you have done this, I will take revenge on you, and afterwards I will stop.” ⁸ He struck them down with a mighty blow, then went to live in a cave in Etam Rock.

⁹ Then the Philistines went up and set up camp in Judah. They deployed against Lehi. ¹⁰ The men of Judah said, “Why have you come up against us?”

They said, “It is to take Samson prisoner that we have come up, to do to him what he did to us.”

¹¹ So three thousand men from Judah went to the cave in Etam Rock and said to Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines are ruling us? Why have you done this to us?”

He said to them, “As they did to me, so I have done to them.”

¹² They said to him, “We have come to take you prisoner, to give you into the hands of the Philistines.”

Samson said to them, “Swear to me that you will not attack me.”

¹³ They said to him, “No, we will bind you securely and give you into their hands, but we will not kill you.” They bound him with two new ropes and took him away from the rock. ¹⁴ He came to Lehi, and the Philistines shouted as they approached him. Then the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him. The ropes on his arms became like burned flax and the ties on his hands dissolved. ¹⁵ Then he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out his hand and took it, and with it struck down a thousand men.

¹⁶ Samson said,

“With a jawbone of a donkey,
heaps upon heaps.

With a jawbone of a donkey

I have slain a thousand men.”

¹⁷ When he finished speaking, he threw the jawbone away and called that place Ramath Lehi.

¹⁸ He was very thirsty, and he called out to the LORD, “You gave this great deliverance through Your servant, but now may I die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?” ¹⁹ So God split open the basin at Lehi, and water flowed out of it. He drank, was refreshed, and revived. Because of this he called the place En Hakkore, which is in Lehi to this day.

²⁰ Samson judged Israel for twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Samson and Delilah

16 Samson went to Gaza. There he saw a prostitute and spent the night with her. ² The people of Gaza were told, “Samson has come here!” So they surrounded him and laid in wait for him all night at the city gate. They kept quiet all night, thinking, “In the morning light we will kill him.”

³ Samson lay until midnight, then at midnight he got up. He grabbed the doors of the city gate and the two gateposts and pulled them out along with the bar. He put them on his shoulder and brought them to the top of the mountain near Hebron.

⁴ After this Samson loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. ⁵ The Philistine rulers came up to her and said, “Trick him! Find out about how his strength is so great and how we can overcome him, bind him, and humiliate him. Each one of us will give you eleven hundred silver coins. †”

⁶ So Delilah said to Samson, “Please tell me how your strength is so great and how you could be bound in order to be subdued.”

⁷ Samson said to her, “If they bind me with seven fresh bowstrings that have not been dried, then I will become weak and be like an ordinary man.”

¹⁰ Delilah said to Samson, “You have deceived me. You have told me lies. Now, please tell me how you can be bound.”

¹¹ He said to her, “If they bind me with new ropes that have never been used, then I will become weak and be like an ordinary man.”

† About 28 pounds, or 13 kilograms.

¹² So Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them. Then she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson." For men were lying in wait, remaining in the room. But he split apart the ropes on his arms like a thread.

¹³ Delilah said to Samson, "Up to now you have deceived me. You have told me lies. Tell how you can be bound."

He said to her, "If you weave seven locks of my hair into the fabric on the loom and fasten it with the pin, then I will become weak and be like an ordinary man."

¹⁴ So Delilah lulled him to sleep and wove seven locks of his hair into the fabric on the loom. She fastened it with the pin and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson." He awakened from his sleep and tore away from the loom pin and the fabric.

¹⁵ She said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have deceived me three times and have not told me how your strength is so great." ¹⁶ Every day she nagged him with her words and pleaded with him until he was tired to death.

¹⁷ So he told her all his secrets and said to her, "No razor has touched my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I were shaven, my strength would leave me, and I would become weak and be like all other men."

¹⁸ Delilah saw that he had told her all his secrets, so she sent for the Philistine rulers, saying, "Come up this time, for he has told me all his secrets." So the Philistine rulers came up to her and brought the money in their hands. ¹⁹ Delilah lulled Samson to sleep on her knees and called for a man to shave off the seven locks of his hair. Then she began to humiliate him, and his strength left him.

²⁰ She said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson."

Then he awakened from his sleep and thought, "I will go out as before and shake myself free of them." He did not know that the LORD had left him.

²¹ The Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. They took him down to Gaza, bound him with bronze chains, and he ground grain in prison. ²² Yet after it had been shaven, the hair on his head began to grow back.

The Death of Samson

²³ The Philistine rulers gathered to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to celebrate. They said, "Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hands."

²⁴ The people saw him and praised their god, for they said,

"Our god has given into our hands
our enemy,
the one who ruined our land and killed many of us."

²⁵ When their hearts were merry, they said, "Call for Samson, so he can entertain us." So they called for Samson from the prison, and he entertained them.

They placed him between the pillars. ²⁶ Samson said to the young man who held his hand, "Let me rest and touch the pillars on which the temple is set, then I can lean against them." ²⁷ The temple was full of men and women, and all the Philistine rulers were there. There were about three thousand men and women on the roof watching Samson entertain. ²⁸ Samson called out to the LORD, "Lord GOD, remember me, I pray! Please strengthen me just this once, God, so that I may get full revenge on the Philistines for my two eyes!" ²⁹ Then Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the temple was set and leaned against them, one with his right hand and one with his left. ³⁰ Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" He pushed with all his strength, and the temple fell upon the rulers and all the people who were in it. At his death he killed more than he had killed in his life.

³¹ Then his brothers and all his family came down, carried him, brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the grave of his father Manoah. He had judged Israel for twenty years.

Micah's Idols

17 There was a man from the hill country of Ephraim whose name was Micah. ² He said to his mother, "The eleven hundred shekels of silver [†] that were taken from you, on which you put a curse, even speaking the curse in my ears—here is the silver with me. I took it."

Then his mother said, "May the LORD bless my son!"

³ Then he returned the eleven hundred silver coins to his mother. His mother said, "I certainly consecrated the silver to the LORD, for my son to make a carved idol and a metal idol, so now I return it to you."

⁵ This man Micah owned a shrine. He made an ephod and household idols, and he hired one of his sons to be a priest for him. ⁶ In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what was right in his eyes.

⁷ There was a young man from Bethlehem in Judah. He was a Levite from Judah, and he stayed as a resident foreigner there. ⁸ The man went from the city of Bethlehem in Judah to stay wherever he could find a place. He came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, to do his work.

⁹ Micah said to him, "Where do you come from?"

He said to him, "I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, and I am going to stay wherever I can find a place."

[†] About 28 pounds, or 13 kilograms. ^{††} About 5 pounds, or 2.3 kilograms.

¹⁰ Micah said to him, "Live with me, and be a father and a priest for me. I will give you ten silver coins † a year, a set of clothes, and food." So the Levite went in. ¹¹ The Levite decided to live with the man, and the young man became like one of his sons. ¹² Micah ordained the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in the house of Micah. ¹³ Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will do good for me, for I have a Levite to be my priest."

The Danites Settle in Laish

18 In those days there was no king in Israel. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was looking for an inheritance in which to live, for no territory had come into their possession among the tribes of Israel up to that time. ² So the children of Dan sent out from their families five valorous men from Zorah and Eshtaol in order to spy out and explore the land. They said to them, "Go, explore the land."

They came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and they spent the night there. ³ When they were at the house of Micah, they noticed the speech of the young Levite. They turned aside and said to him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is your business here?"

⁴ He told them what Micah had done for him, saying, "He hired me, and I became his priest."

⁵ They said to him, "Please ask God if we may know whether our mission will be a success as we go to do it."

⁶ The priest said to them, "Go in peace. The LORD is watching the way you are going."

⁷ The five men went away and came to Laish. They saw the people who were there, living securely according to the culture of the Sidonians. There were no rulers in the land who might put them to shame for anything. They were far from the Sidonians and had no ties with anyone.

⁸ When they came back to their brothers in Zorah and Eshtaol, their brothers asked them, "What do you have to say?"

⁹ They said, "Get up! Let us go up against them, for we have seen the land. It is very good. You are silent, but do not hesitate to go to take the land. ¹⁰ When you go, you will come to a secure people and to an expansive land. For God has given it into your hands: a place where there is no lack of anything on the earth."

¹¹ So six hundred fully armed men set out from the family of the Danites, from Zorah and Eshtaol. ¹² They went up and set up camp in Kiriath Jearim in Judah. Therefore they call that place Mahaneh Dan to this day. It is west of Kiriath Jearim. ¹³ From there they passed the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah.

¹⁴ The five men who went to spy out the land of Laish said to their brothers, "Did you know that in these houses are an ephod, household idols, a carved image, and a metal idol? Now think about what to do."

¹⁵ So they turned aside there and came to the house of the young Levite, to the house of Micah, and greeted him. ¹⁶ The six hundred men armed with their weapons of war, who were the children of Dan, stood at the entrance to the gate. ¹⁷ The five men who went to spy out the land went in and took the carved idol, ephod, household idols, and the metal idol. The priest was standing at the entrance to the gate with the six hundred fully armed men.

¹⁹ They said to him, "Quiet! Put your hand over your mouth and go with us. Be a father and priest for us. Is it better to be a priest for one man's house or for a tribe and a family in Israel?" ²⁰ So the priest's heart was glad. He took the ephod, the household idols, and the carved image and went among the people. ²¹ So they turned and left, putting the children, livestock, and valuables in front of them.

²² They had gone far from the house of Micah, but the neighbors of Micah assembled and caught up to the children of Dan. ²³ They called out to the children of Dan. So they turned and said to Micah, "What is wrong that have you assembled together?"

²⁴ He said, "You took the gods that I made, and the priest, and then you left. What do I have left? So what is this that you say to me, 'What is wrong?'"

²⁵ The children of Dan said to him, "Do not let us hear your voice again. Otherwise bitter men might meet you and you will forfeit your life and the lives of your family." ²⁶ So the children of Dan went their way. And when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

²⁷ They took what Micah had made and his priest, and came to Laish to a quiet and secure people. They struck them down with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire. ²⁸ There was no one to save them because the city was far from Sidon and had no contact with anyone. It was in the valley by Beth Rehob.

They rebuilt the city and lived there. ²⁹ They called the city Dan, after their father Dan, who was born to Israel (Laish was the former name of the city). ³⁰ The children of Dan set up the carved idol for themselves. Jonathan the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh, and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the time of exile from the land. ³¹ So they displayed Micah's graven image that he had made, for the whole time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

A Levite and His Concubine

19 In those days, when there was no king in Israel, there was a certain Levite living as resident foreigner in a remote part of the hill country of Ephraim. He took a concubine for himself from Bethlehem in Judah. ² Yet his concubine became angry with him and went away from him to her father's house at Bethlehem in Judah. She was there for four months. ³ Her husband got up and went after her in order to speak tenderly to her and bring her back. His servant and two donkeys were with him. When he came to her father's house, the girl's father saw him and was happy to meet with him. ⁴ His father-in-law, the girl's father, prevailed upon him to stay with him for three days. So they ate and drank and spent the night there.

† About 4 ounces, or 115 grams.

⁵ On the fourth day they woke up early in the morning. He got ready to go, but the girl's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen yourself with a little food, and then you can go." ⁶ So the two of them sat down to eat and drink together. Then the girl's father said to the man, "Please spend the night and let your heart be merry." ⁷ The man got up to go, but his father-in-law urged him until he turned back and spent the night there. ⁸ He got up early in the morning on the fifth day to go. The girl's father said, "Please, strengthen yourself and wait until later in the day." So the two of them ate.

⁹ Then the man got up to go: he, his concubine, and his servant. His father-in-law, the girl's father, said to him, "Look! It is getting dark. Spend the night! Settle in and spend the night here, let your heart be merry. You can get up early tomorrow and go home." ¹⁰ Yet the man did not want to spend the night, so he got up and left and approached Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). Two saddled donkeys and his concubine were with him.

¹¹ When they were near Jebus, it was getting very late. The servant said to his master, "Come, let us turn aside to this Jebusite city and spend the night in it."

¹² His master said to him, "We must not turn aside to a city of foreigners, who are not children of Israel. We will continue on to Gibeah." ¹³ He said to his servant, "Come, let us go to one of these places. We will spend the night in Gibeah or Ramah." ¹⁴ They continued and went on. The sun went down when they were near Gibeah in Benjamin. ¹⁵ So they turned aside there to go and spend the night in Gibeah. They went in and sat in the city square, but no one took them in to spend the night.

¹⁶ Just then, an old man came in at evening time from his work in the field. The man was from the hill country of Ephraim and lived as a resident foreigner in Gibeah, but the townspeople were Benjamites. ¹⁷ He looked up and saw the traveler in the city square. The old man said, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"

¹⁸ He said to him, "We are traveling from Bethlehem in Judah to a remote part of the hill country of Ephraim. I am from there. I went to Bethlehem in Judah, and now I am going to the house of the LORD. No one has taken me into his home. ¹⁹ Yet there is enough straw and fodder for our donkeys, with bread and wine for me, your maidservant, and the young man who is with your servant. We do not lack anything."

²⁰ The old man said, "Do not worry. I will take care of whatever you need. Just do not spend the night in the city square." ²¹ So he brought him into his house and gave food to his donkeys. They washed their feet, ate, and drank.

²² While they were enjoying themselves, the men of the city, who were wicked men, surrounded the house and pounded on the door. They said to the old man, the master of the house, "Bring out the man who came to your house, so we can have relations with him."

²³ The master of the house went out to them and said, "No, my brothers, do not commit this evil act, not after this man has come into my house. Do not commit this disgrace. ²⁴ Here are my virgin daughter and the man's concubine. Let me bring them out to you. Ravish them and do to them what you please. But do not commit this vile act against this man."

²⁷ Her master got up in the morning and opened the doors of the house. He went out to go on his way, but there was the woman, his concubine, fallen at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold.

²⁸ He said to her, "Get up, let us be going," but there was no answer. So the man put her on a donkey and went home.

²⁹ When he got home, he took a knife and seized his concubine, then cut her body into twelve pieces. Then he sent her throughout all the territory of Israel.

³⁰ Everyone who saw this said, "Nothing like this has been done or seen since the day the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt until today. Consider it, take counsel, and speak up!"

The Children of Israel Punish the Benjamites

20 All the children of Israel from Dan to Beersheba, and also from the land of Gilead, went out and gathered together in an assembly as one man before the LORD at Mizpah. ² The leaders of all the people from all the tribes of Israel presented themselves in an assembly of the people of God, who numbered four hundred thousand infantrymen bearing swords. ³ (The Benjamites heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) The children of Israel said, "Tell how this evil happened!"

⁴ So the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered, "My concubine and I came to Gibeah, in Benjamin, to spend the night. ⁵ Then the leaders of Gibeah rose up against me. At night they surrounded the house where I was staying. They wanted to kill me; instead they ravished my concubine so that she died. ⁶ I seized my concubine, cut her into pieces, and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel, because they committed an infamous and disgraceful act in Israel. ⁷ Now, all of you are children of Israel. Give your advice and counsel here."

⁸ All the people arose as one man and said, "Not a man among us will go to his tent, and no one will turn aside to his house. ⁹ Now this is what we will do to Gibeah. We will go against it by lot. ¹⁰ We will take ten men out of every hundred, from every tribe of Israel, a hundred from every thousand, and a thousand from every ten thousand, to bring provisions for the troops. Then when they come to Gibeah in Benjamin, they may repay them for all the evil that they committed in Israel." ¹¹ So all the men of Israel gathered at the city, united like one man.

¹² The tribes of Israel sent men throughout the whole tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What is this evil that has been committed among you? ¹³ Now hand over the wicked men in Gibeah, so that we can kill them and purge the evil from Israel."

Yet the Benjamites were not willing to listen to their fellow children of Israel. ¹⁴ The Benjamites gathered from their cities at Gibeah in order to go out and wage war against the children of Israel. ¹⁵ That day, the Benjamites mustered twenty-six thousand armed men from the cities and seven hundred specially chosen men from Gibeah. ¹⁶ Out of all these people there were seven hundred specially chosen men who were left-handed, all of whom could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

¹⁷ The men of Israel, apart from Benjamin, gathered four hundred thousand armed men who drew the sword; all of them were men of war.

¹⁸ The children of Israel arose, went up to Bethel, and asked God, "Who should go up first to wage war against the Benjamites?"

The LORD said, "Judah first."

¹⁹ The children of Israel got up in the morning and camped against Gibeah. ²⁰ The men of Israel went out for battle with Benjamin, and the men of Israel lined up for battle at Gibeah. ²¹ Then the Benjamites came out from Gibeah and struck twenty-two thousand Israelite men down to the ground. ²² The people, the men of Israel, rallied and lined up for battle again in the place where they had lined up on the first day. ²³ Then the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening. They asked the LORD, "Should we advance and fight our brother-tribesmen the Benjamites again?"

The LORD said, "Advance against them."

²⁴ So the children of Israel advanced against the Benjamites for the second day. ²⁵ And on the second day, the Benjamites went out from Gibeah to meet them and again struck eighteen thousand men down to the ground, every one of them armed.

²⁶ Then all the children of Israel, all the people, went up to Bethel where they wept and sat before the LORD. They fasted that day until evening and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. ²⁷ The children of Israel asked the LORD (because the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, ²⁸ and Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it then), "Should we go out again to wage war with our brother-tribesmen the Benjamites, or should we not?"

The LORD said, "Go up, for tomorrow I will give them into your hands."

²⁹ So Israel set an ambushing force around Gibeah. ³⁰ The children of Israel went up against the Benjamites on the third day and lined up at Gibeah as before. ³¹ The Benjamites went out to engage the people and were drawn away from the city. They began to strike the people down as before. On the main roads that go up to Bethel and Gibeah and in the field, they struck down about thirty children of Israel.

³² The Benjamites said, "They are struck down before us like at the beginning." But the children of Israel said, "Let us retreat and draw them away from the city toward the main roads."

Now the men of Israel had withdrawn from Benjamin, because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah. ³⁷ So the ambushing force rushed on and attacked Gibeah. They struck down the whole city with the edge of the sword. ³⁸ The men of Israel had made an agreement with the ambushing force that when they sent up a large amount of smoke from the city, ³⁹ the children of Israel would turn around in battle.

When the Benjamites had begun to strike the children of Israel down, about thirty men, they said, "Surely they are struck down before us like at the beginning." ⁴⁰ Yet when the smoke began to rise up from the city in a column, the Benjamites looked behind them and suddenly noticed the whole city going up in smoke to the sky. ⁴¹ Then the men of Israel turned around, and the men of Benjamin were horrified because they saw that disaster had come on them. ⁴² So they fled from the men of Israel toward the direction of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them. Whoever came out of the cities destroyed them in their midst. ⁴³ They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them without rest, and trampled them down near Gibeah toward the east. ⁴⁴ Eighteen thousand men from Benjamin fell; all these were men of valor. ⁴⁵ The rest turned and fled toward the wilderness to Rimmon Rock, and they cut down five thousand men on the main roads. They pursued them relentlessly until they reached Gidom and killed two thousand of them.

⁴⁶ So the Benjamites who fell that day numbered twenty-five thousand, every one of them armed, valorous men. ⁴⁷ However, six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness, to Rimmon Rock. They dwelled at Rimmon Rock for four months. ⁴⁸ Yet the men of Israel turned back against the Benjamites and struck them with the edge of the sword—city inhabitants, animals, and everything that could be found. Indeed, they set on fire every city that could be found.

Wives for the Benjamites

21 In Mizpah the men of Israel had taken an oath: “No one among us will give his daughter to a Benjamite as his wife.”

² So the people came to Bethel and sat there before God until evening. They raised their voices and wept, sobbing loudly. ³ They said, “Why, LORD God of Israel, has this happened in Israel, that today a tribe is missing from Israel?”

⁴ In the morning the people got up early and built an altar there. They offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

⁵ The children of Israel said, “Who from all the tribes of Israel did not go up with the assembly to the LORD?” For they vowed a solemn oath regarding whoever did not go up to the LORD at Mizpah stating, “He must be killed.”

¹⁰ So the assembly sent twelve thousand valorous men there and commanded them, “Go and strike down the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, including women and children. ¹¹ This is what you will do: You will kill every man and every woman who has slept with a man.” ¹² So among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead they found four hundred young virgins who had never slept with a man, and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh in the land of Canaan.

¹³ Then the whole assembly sent someone to speak to the Benjamites who were at Rimmon Rock, and they declared peace. ¹⁴ So the Benjamites returned at that time, and they gave to them the women who were still alive from among the women of Jabesh Gilead. Yet they did not find enough for them.

¹⁵ The people felt sorry for Benjamin, for the LORD had made a gap among the tribes of Israel. ¹⁶ The elders of the assembly said, “What can we do to find wives for those who are left? The Benjamite women were destroyed.” ¹⁷ They said, “There must be an inheritance for the remnant of Benjamin, so that a tribe will not be wiped out from Israel. ¹⁸ Yet we cannot give them our daughters for wives, for the children of Israel swore, ‘Cursed be anyone who gives a wife to Benjamin.’” ¹⁹ They said, “Wait! There is an annual festival of the LORD in Shiloh, which is north of Bethel, east of the main road that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah.”

²⁰ So they commanded the Benjamites, “Go and hide in the vineyards. ²¹ Watch, and then when the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, come out from the vineyards and have every man grab a wife for himself from among the daughters of Shiloh. Then go to the land of Benjamin. ²² When their fathers or their brothers come to us to complain, we will say to them, ‘Be favorable to them for our sakes, because we did not take for each man a wife in the battle; for you have not given women to them at the time, thereby making yourselves guilty.’”

²³ So the Benjamites did this. They carried away wives for each man from among the dancers that they caught. Then they returned to their inheritance, rebuilt the cities, and lived in them.

²⁴ At that time, the children of Israel departed from there each man to his tribe and to his family. They went out from there to their own inheritance.

²⁵ In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

RUTH

Ruth, with its theme of faithfulness, was likely written between 1011 and 931 BC. Jewish tradition in the Talmud suggests that Samuel may have written it. The story opens in Moab, a Gentile region east of Judah, where Naomi and her daughter-in-law Ruth are widows and have fallen on hard times. Living without hope in Moab, Naomi decides to return to Bethlehem; Ruth goes with her and pledges loyalty to Israel's God. Providential circumstances result in Ruth becoming the wife of Boaz, her redeeming relative. This beautiful story of love and loyalty shows how God uses people in amazing, redemptive ways.

Naomi Loses

1 In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land. And a man from Bethlehem in Judah went to live in the land of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons. 2 The name of the man was Elimelek, the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. And they went to Moab and lived there.

3 Now Elimelek, the husband of Naomi, died, so she was left alone with her two sons. 4 They took Moabite wives for themselves; the name of one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. They lived there about ten years. 5 Then Mahlon and Kilion also died, and Naomi was left without her two sons and her husband.

6 So she got up with her daughters-in-law to return from the land of Moab, for in the land of Moab, she had heard that the LORD had visited His people by giving them food. 7 She set out from the place where she had been, with her two daughters-in-law, and they went on their way to return to the land of Judah.

8 Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each to her mother's house. May the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with your deceased husbands and with me. 9 May the LORD grant that you each find rest in the house of another husband."

Then she kissed them, and they raised their voices and wept aloud. 10 They said to her, "We will return with you to your people."

11 But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters. Why would you go with me? Are there sons in my womb, who could become your husbands? 12 Turn back, my daughters! Go, for I am too old to have a husband. Even if I thought that there was still hope for me, that I could have a husband tonight and give birth to sons, 13 would you wait until they were grown? Would you refrain from getting married? No, my daughters. It is much more bitter for me than for you, for the hand of the LORD has turned against me."

14 Then they raised their voices and wept aloud once more. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

15 Naomi said, "Look, your sister-in-law has returned to her people and her gods. Return with her!"

16 But Ruth said, "Do not urge me to leave you or to turn back from following you. For wherever you go, I will go, and wherever you stay, I will stay. Your people shall be my people and your God my God. 17 Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD do thus to me, and worse, if anything but death separates you and me!" 18 When Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more to her.

19 So they both went on until they came to Bethlehem. When they came to Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them, and the women asked, "Is this Naomi?"

20 But she said to them, "Do not call me Naomi. Call me Mara, because the Almighty has brought great bitterness to me. 21 I was full when I left, but the LORD has caused me to return empty. Why should you call me Naomi when the LORD has opposed me? The Almighty has brought misfortune upon me!"

22 So Naomi returned from the land of Moab with Ruth the Moabite, her daughter-in-law. They came to Bethlehem at the start of the spring barley harvest.

Ruth Meets Boaz

2 Now Naomi had a relative of her husband, a man of prominence and means from the clan of Elimelek. His name was Boaz.

2 Ruth the Moabite said to Naomi, "Please let me go into the field and glean among the heads of grain behind anyone in whose eyes I may find favor."

Naomi said to her, "Go, my daughter." 3 So she went to glean in the field behind the harvesters. She happened to come to a part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelek.

4 Just then Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the harvesters, "May the LORD be with you!"

And they said to him, "May the LORD bless you."

⁵ Then Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of his harvesters, "Whose young woman is this?"

⁶ So the servant who was in charge of his harvesters answered, "She is the young Moabitess woman who came back with Naomi from the land of Moab. ⁷ She said, 'Please let me glean and gather grain among the bundles behind the harvesters.' So she came and has remained from morning until now, though she rested a little while in the house."

⁸ Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field and leave this one. Stay close to my young women. ⁹ Keep your eyes on the field in which they reap and follow after them. I have commanded the men not to touch you. When you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn."

¹¹ Boaz answered and said to her, "I have been told all that you have done for your mother-in-law after the death of your husband, and how you left your father and mother and your homeland and came to a people you did not know before. ¹² May the LORD reward your deeds. May you have a full reward from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge."

¹³ Then she said, "May I find favor in your eyes, my lord, for you have comforted me and have spoken kindly to your servant, though I am not like one of your servant girls."

¹⁴ At mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come over here, and eat some bread, and dip your piece in the vinegar."

So she sat down beside the harvesters, and he passed her some roasted grain. She ate and was full and had some left over. ¹⁵ When she got up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, "Let her glean even among the bundles, and do not harm her. ¹⁶ Also pull out some grain for her from the bundles and leave it so that she may glean it, and do not rebuke her."

¹⁷ So she gleaned in the field until evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah [†] of barley. ¹⁸ She took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. She drew it out and gave her what she had left, after she had been satisfied.

¹⁹ Her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you glean today, and where did you work? May he who took notice of you be blessed."

So she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, "The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz."

²⁰ Then Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May he be blessed of the LORD who has not withdrawn His kindness to the living and to the dead." Naomi said to her, "This man is a close relative of ours, one of our redeeming relatives."

²¹ Then Ruth the Moabitess said, "He even told me, 'You should stay close to my servants until they have finished all my harvest.'"

²² Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is better, my daughter, that you go with his young women, for in someone else's field you might be harmed."

²³ So she stayed close to the young women of Boaz to glean until the end of barley harvest and wheat harvest. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth's Redemption

3 One day Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, why should I not find a home that will be good for you? ² Now is not Boaz our relative, with whose young women you have been working? Tonight he winnows barley on the threshing floor.

³ Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes. Then go down to the threshing floor, but do not let the man know you are there until he has finished eating and drinking. ⁴ When he lies down, notice the place where he is lying. Go in and uncover his feet and lie down. He will tell you what you will do."

⁵ She said to her, "All that you say to me I will do."

⁶ So she went down to the threshing floor and did all that her mother-in-law had instructed.

⁷ When Boaz had eaten and drunk and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. Then Ruth came softly, uncovered his feet, and lay down. ⁸ At midnight, the man was startled and rolled over; and there, a woman was lying at his feet.

⁹ He said, "Who are you?"

And she answered, "I am Ruth, your maidservant. Spread your cloak over me, for you are a redeeming kinsman."

¹⁰ He said, "May you be blessed of the LORD, my daughter. You have shown your last act of kindness to be greater than the first, because you have not pursued young men, whether poor or rich. ¹¹ So now, my daughter, do not worry. All that you ask me, I will do for you. All of my fellow townsmen know that you are a woman of noble character. ¹² Now it is true that I am a redeeming kinsman. Yet there is another redeemer closer than I am. ¹³ Stay here tonight, and in the morning if he wants to redeem you, very well. Let him do so. Yet if he does not want to redeem you, then I will redeem you. I will, as the LORD lives! Sleep here until morning."

¹⁴ So she lay at his feet until morning, but she arose before one could recognize another. Then he said, "It must not be known that a woman came to the threshing floor."

¹⁵ He said, "Bring me the shawl you have on you, and hold it." So she held it, and he poured six measures of barley into it and placed it on her. Then she went into the city.

[†] Likely about 30 pounds, or 13 kilograms.

¹⁶ When Ruth came to her mother-in-law, Naomi said, "How did it go, my daughter?"

Then she told her all that Boaz had done for her.

¹⁷ She said, "He gave me these six ephahs of barley, for he said to me, 'Do not return to your mother-in-law empty-handed.'"

¹⁸ Then Naomi said, "Wait here, my daughter, until you learn what happens. For the man will not rest until the matter is settled today."

Boaz Marries Ruth

4 So Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there. And now the redeemer of whom he had spoken passed by, and Boaz said, "Come over, friend, and sit here." So he went over and sat down.

² Then Boaz took ten men from among the elders of the town and said, "Sit here." So they sat down. ³ He said to the redeemer, "Naomi, who has come back from the land of Moab, must sell the plot of land belonging to our brother Elimelek. ⁴ I thought I should inform you and say, 'Buy it in the presence of those sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you want to redeem it, redeem it. But if you will not redeem it, tell me so that I know, for there is no one prior to you to redeem it, and I am next after you.'"

So he said, "I will redeem it."

⁵ Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the deceased, to perpetuate the name of the deceased through his inheritance."

⁶ The redeemer replied, "I am not able to redeem it for myself lest I ruin my own inheritance. Take my redemption rights for yourself, for I cannot do it."

⁷ (Now this was the custom in ancient times in Israel for redeeming and exchanging: to confirm a transaction, a man would remove his sandal and give it to his neighbor. This was a binding act in Israel.)

⁸ Therefore the redeemer said to Boaz, "Buy it yourself," and he removed his sandal.

⁹ Then Boaz said to the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses today that I have bought everything that belonged to Elimelek, Kilion, and Mahlon from Naomi. ¹⁰ Moreover I have also acquired Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, to be my wife, in order to preserve the name of the deceased man for his inheritance, so that his name will not be cut off from among his brothers or from his town. You are witnesses this day."

¹¹ Then all the people who were at the gate, along with the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming to your house like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you do well in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem! ¹² May your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, through the offspring that the LORD will give you by this young woman."

The Genealogy of David

¹³ So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. When they came together, the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she bore a son. ¹⁴ Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you without a redeemer. May he become famous in Israel! ¹⁵ He will be a comfort for your soul and support you in your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you and who is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him."

¹⁶ Then Naomi took the child, laid him on her lap, and became his nurse. ¹⁷ The neighbor women gave him a name, saying, "A son has been born to Naomi!" And they named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

¹⁸ Now these are the descendants of Perez:

Perez was the father of Hezron,

¹⁹ Hezron the father of Ram,

Ram the father of Amminadab,

²⁰ Amminadab the father of Nahshon,

Nahshon the father of Salmon,

²¹ Salmon the father of Boaz,

Boaz the father of Obed,

²² Obed the father of Jesse, and Jesse the father of David.

1 SAMUEL

The first book of Samuel was likely written sometime after 960 BC. The two books of Samuel were originally one book and were later separated by translators of the Septuagint. Events and figures of First Samuel span approximately 100 years, from 1100 to 1000 BC, of Israelite history. Samuel possibly wrote it, according to the Jewish Talmud. The setting is Israel, and the theme is the establishment of Israel's monarchy. The book opens with Hannah, the mother of Samuel, pleading with God for a son. God answers her prayer, and that boy grows up to be a prophet and a priest. Both Saul and David are introduced in this book, and their history is recounted in great detail, including David's battle with Goliath, Saul's jealousy of David and their continued clashes, and David's friendship with Jonathan, the son of Saul. At the close of the book, both Saul and Jonathan die in battle.

The Birth of Samuel

1 Now there was a certain man from Ramathaim Zuphim, in the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. 2 And he had two wives; the name of one was Hannah and the name of the second was Peninnah. Now Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. 3 This man went up out of his city annually to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of Hosts in Shiloh. And there the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests to the LORD. 4 When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters. 5 But to Hannah he gave a double portion because he loved Hannah, but the LORD had closed her womb. 6 Now her rival provoked her greatly, making her miserable because the LORD had closed her womb. 7 Thus it was yearly, when she went up to the house of the LORD, that she provoked her. So Hannah wept and did not eat. 8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, "Hannah, why are you weeping? And why do you not eat? Why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

9 So Hannah arose after they had eaten in Shiloh and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest was sitting on a seat by the door of the tabernacle of the LORD. 10 And she was bitter, and prayed to the LORD, and wept severely. 11 So she made a vow and said, "O LORD of Hosts, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your maidservant, and remember me and not forget Your maidservant, but will give to Your maidservant a baby boy, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall touch his head." †

12 And as she was praying before the LORD, Eli watched her mouth. 13 Now Hannah was speaking in her heart. Her lips were moving, but her voice was not heard. Therefore Eli thought she was drunk. 14 So Eli said to her, "How long will you be drunk? Put away your wine from you."

15 And Hannah answered and said, "No, my lord, I am a woman of sorrow. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD. 16 Do not consider your handmaid to be a sinful woman, for out of the abundance of my concern and provocation I have spoken until now."

17 Then Eli answered and said, "Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant you your request that you have asked of Him."

18 And she said, "Let your handmaid find grace in your sight." So the woman went her way and ate, and her face was not sad as before.

19 They rose up in the morning early and worshipped before the LORD. And they returned and came to their house to Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her.

20 And it came to pass that Hannah conceived and bore a son. And she called his name Samuel saying, "Because I have asked him of the LORD."

The Dedication of Samuel

21 Then the man Elkanah and all his house went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow.

22 But Hannah did not go, for she said to her husband, "I will not go up until the child is weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD and live there forever."

23 So Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what seems good to you. Wait until you have weaned him; only may the LORD establish His word." So the woman remained, and nursed her son until she weaned him.

24 When she had weaned him, she took him up with her with three bulls, one ephah †† of flour, and a bottle of wine. And she brought him to the house of the LORD in Shiloh, though the boy was young. 25 Then they slaughtered a bull, and they brought the boy to

†† Likely about 36 pounds, or 16 kilograms.

Eli. ²⁶ And she said, "Oh, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman that stood by you here praying to the LORD. ²⁷ For this boy I prayed, and the LORD has given me my petition which I asked of Him. ²⁸ Therefore also I have let the LORD have him. As long as he lives he will be dedicated to the LORD." And he worshipped the LORD there.

The Prayer of Hannah

2 Hannah prayed, saying:
 "My heart rejoices in the LORD;
 my horn is exalted in the LORD.
 My mouth is bold against my enemies,
 because I rejoice in Your salvation.
² "There is none holy as the LORD, for there is none besides You,
 and there is no rock like our God.
³ "Do not multiply proud speech, nor let arrogance come out of your mouth,
 for the LORD is the God of knowledge, and by Him actions are examined.
⁴ "The bows of the mighty are broken,
 but those who stumbled are girded with strength.
⁵ Those that were full have hired out themselves for bread, and those that were hungry ceased to hunger.
 Even the barren has borne seven,
 and she that has many children wastes away.
⁶ "The LORD kills and makes alive;
 He brings down to the grave and brings up.
⁷ The LORD makes poor and makes rich;
 He brings low and lifts up.
⁸ He raises up the poor out of the dust and lifts up the oppressed from the dunghill to make them sit with princes and inherit a throne of glory.
 "For the pillars of the earth belong to the LORD, and He has set the world upon them.
⁹ He will guard the feet of His saints, but the wicked will be silent in darkness.
 "For by strength shall no man prevail.
¹⁰ The adversaries of the LORD will be broken to pieces;
 He will thunder against them out of heaven.
 The LORD will judge the ends of the earth.
 "He will give strength to His king and exalt the horn of His anointed."
¹¹ Then Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the boy ministered to the LORD before Eli the priest.

Wicked Sons of Eli

¹² Now the sons of Eli were corrupt. They did not know the LORD. ¹³ The priest's custom with the people was that when any man offered a sacrifice, the priest's servant came while the flesh was cooking with a three-pronged fork in his hand. ¹⁴ And he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or cauldron, or pot, and all that the fork brought up the priest took for himself. This they did in Shiloh to all the children of Israel who came there.

¹⁵ Even before they burned the fat, the priest's servant would come and say to the man sacrificing, "Give meat for the priest to roast. For he will not take boiled meat from you, but only raw."

¹⁶ If any man said to him, "Let them first burn the fat and then take as much as you wish," then he would answer him, "No, but you will give it to me now, and if not, I will take it by force."

¹⁷ Therefore the sin of the young men was very great before the LORD. For the men treated the offering of the LORD with contempt.

God Blesses Hannah

¹⁸ But Samuel ministered before the LORD, as a boy, wearing a linen ephod. ¹⁹ Now his mother would make him a little coat and brought it to him every year when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. ²⁰ And Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, "The LORD give you offspring from this woman for the sake of the request which was made to the LORD." Then they would return to their home. ²¹ The LORD visited Hannah, so that she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew before the LORD.

Eli Confronts Hophni and Phinehas

²² Now Eli was very old, and he heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel, even that they lay with the women who served at the doorway of the tent of meeting. ²³ He said to them, "Why are you doing these things? For I am hearing of your evil dealings from all these people. ²⁴ No, my sons! Truly, it is not a good report that I hear the people of the LORD spreading. ²⁵ If one man sins against another, God will judge him, but if a man sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?" But they did not listen to the voice of their father, because the LORD desired to kill them.

²⁶ Now the boy Samuel was growing both in stature and favor with the LORD and also with men.

God's Case Against the House of Eli

²⁷ A man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Did I not plainly reveal Myself to the house of your father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house? ²⁸ And choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before Me? And I gave to the house of your father all the offerings made by fire by the children of Israel? ²⁹ Why do you kick at My sacrifice and at My offering, which I have commanded in My dwelling, and honor your sons above Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel My people?'

³⁰ "Therefore the LORD God of Israel says, 'I surely said that your house, and the house of your father, should walk before Me forever,' but now the LORD says, 'Far be it from Me to do so, for those who honor Me, I will honor, and those that despise Me will be humbled. ³¹ The days are coming when I will cut off your authority and the strength of your father's house, so there shall not be an old man in your house. ³² You shall see the distress of My dwelling, despite all the good which will be done for Israel. And there shall not be an elderly man in your house perpetually. ³³ Yet the one I do not cut off from My altar will be spared so your eyes will not stop weeping or your soul grieving. All the increase of your house will die in their prime.

³⁴ "This will be the sign to you which will come upon your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas: In one day, they will both die. ³⁵ And I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest; what is in My heart and in My soul he will do it. And I will build him a sure house, and it will walk before My anointed forever. ³⁶ But it will be that everyone who is left in your house will come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a morsel of bread, and will say, Please attach me to one of the priestly offices, that I may eat a piece of bread."

God Calls Samuel

3 Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was rare in those days. There was no vision coming forth.

² At that time, Eli was lying down in his place (now his eyes had begun to grow weak that he could not see), ³ and the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the house of the LORD where the ark of God was.

⁴ Then the LORD called to Samuel, and he answered, "Here I am." ⁵ He ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called to me."

And he said, "I did not call. Return, lie down again." And he went and lay down.

⁶ The LORD called Samuel again. So Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me."

And he answered, "I did not call, my son. Return, lie down again."

⁷ Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, nor had the word of the LORD been revealed to him.

⁸ The LORD again called Samuel a third time. So he arose and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me."

Then Eli understood that the LORD was calling to the boy. ⁹ Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down. And it will be, if He calls you, that you will say, 'Speak, LORD, for Your servant listens.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

¹⁰ The LORD came and stood, and He called as at other times, "Samuel, Samuel."

Then Samuel said, "Speak, for Your servant listens."

¹¹ The LORD said to Samuel, "See, I am doing something in Israel which will make both ears ring of every one that hears it. ¹² In that day I will bring about against Eli everything which I have spoken with regard to his house, from beginning to end. ¹³ For I told him that I will judge his house forever, for the guilt which he knew, because his sons are cursed, and he did not rebuke them. ¹⁴ Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be atoned for with sacrifice nor offering forever."

¹⁵ Samuel lay until the morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. Now Samuel feared to report the vision to Eli. ¹⁶ Then Eli called Samuel, and said, "Samuel, my son."

And he answered, "Here I am."

¹⁷ He said, "What is the thing that the LORD has spoken to you? Do not hide it from me. Thus may God do so to you, and more also, if you hide from me a word out of all the things that He spoke to you." ¹⁸ Samuel told him everything, and did not hide from him a thing. And he said, "It is the LORD; let Him do what is good in His eyes."

¹⁹ And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him and did not let any of his words fall to the ground. ²⁰ All Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was proven to be a prophet of the LORD. ²¹ And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh. For the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

4 And the word of Samuel came to all Israel.

The Ark of God Captured

And Israel went out to battle against the Philistines and they made camp beside Ebenezer, and the Philistines encamped in Aphek. ² The Philistines arrayed themselves in a battle line against Israel, and when the battle was over, Israel was beaten before the Philistines, who struck down on the field of battle about four thousand men. ³ When the people came into the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD struck us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh to us, that it might come among us and rescue us out of the hand of our enemies."

⁴ So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of Hosts, who dwells above the cherubim. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

⁵ When the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the ground was in an uproar. ⁶ When the Philistines heard the sound of the shout, they said, "What does this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" Then they understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp.

⁷ The Philistines were afraid, when they said, "God is come into the camp." And they said, "Woe to us! For this has never happened to us before. ⁸ Woe to us! Who will deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods that struck the Egyptians with every plague in the wilderness. ⁹ Be strong and be men, O Philistines, lest you be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Now be men and fight."

¹⁰ So the Philistines fought and Israel was beaten. And they fled every man into his tent. It was a very great defeat, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers. ¹¹ Now the ark of God was taken, and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

¹⁴ When Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, "What does the noise of this tumult mean?" And the man hurriedly came and told Eli.

¹⁵ Now Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see. ¹⁶ The man said to Eli, "I am he that came out of the army, and I fled today out of the battle line."

And he said, "What is the word, my son?"

¹⁷ The messenger answered and said, "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there also has been a great slaughter among the people. Your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead. And the ark of God is taken."

¹⁸ When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate. And his neck broke and he died, for he was an old and heavy man. And he had judged Israel forty years.

¹⁹ His daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was pregnant, about to give birth. And when she heard the news that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she knelt down and gave birth, for her pains came upon her. ²⁰ About the time of her death the women that stood by her said to her, "Do not fear, for you have borne a son." But she did not answer or regard it.

²¹ She named the child Ichabod, saying, "The glory is departed from Israel," because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. ²² She said, "The glory is departed from Israel, for the ark of God is taken."

The Philistines and the Ark

5 Now the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. ² When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon and set it by Dagon. ³ When the Ashdodites arose early in the morning, Dagon had fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon and set him in his place again. ⁴ When they arose early on the next morning, again Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD, and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold. Only the torso of Dagon was left to him.

⁵ Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any coming into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.

⁶ But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon the Ashdodites. He desolated them and struck them with tumors, even Ashdod and its territories. ⁷ When the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel cannot remain with us. For His hand is heavy upon us and upon Dagon our god." ⁸ So they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?"

And they answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried around to Gath." And they carried the ark of the God of Israel there.

⁹ It happened that after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great destruction. And He struck the men of the city, both small and great. And tumors broke out on them.

¹⁰ Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron.

And it came about that as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, "They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to slay us and our people." ¹¹ So they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to His own place that He might not kill me and my people," for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city. The hand of God was very heavy there. ¹² The men that did not die were plagued with the tumors. And the cry of the city went up to heaven.

The Ark Returned to Israel

6 Now the ark of the LORD had been in the country of the Philistines seven months. ² The Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it to its place."

³ They said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, do not send it empty. But return to Him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why His hand is not removed from you."

⁴ Then said they, "What will be the guilt offering which we will return to Him?"

They answered, "Five golden tumors and five golden mice according to the number of the lords of the Philistines. For one plague was on you all, and on your lords. ⁵ Therefore you will make images of your tumors and images of your mice that ravage the land. And you will give glory to the God of Israel. Perhaps He will lighten His hand from off you, even from off your gods and from off your land. ⁶ Why then do you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He dealt severely with them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?"

⁷ "Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milk cows on which there has never been a yoke. Then tie the cows to the cart and bring their calves home, away from them. ⁸ Then take the ark of the LORD and set it on the cart. And put the images of gold, which you return to Him for a guilt offering, in a box by the side. And send it away, that it may go. ⁹ See, if it goes up by the way of His own territory to Beth Shemesh, then He has done us this great evil. But if not, then we will know that it is not His hand that struck us; it was by chance that it happened to us."

¹⁰ The men did so. And they took two milk cows, tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.

¹¹ And they set the ark of the LORD on the cart, as well as the box with the mice of gold and the images of their tumors. ¹² Then the cows took the straight way to the way of Beth Shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went. They did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left with the lords of the Philistines walking after them to the border of Beth Shemesh.

¹³ Now Beth Shemesh was reaping their wheat harvest in the valley. And they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, and they rejoiced to see it. ¹⁴ The cart came into the field of Joshua, the Beth Shemite, and stood there where there was a great stone. And they split the wood of the cart, and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. ¹⁵ The Levites took down the ark of the LORD and the box that was with it, where the articles of gold were, and put them on the great stone. And the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices the same day to the LORD.

¹⁶ When the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

¹⁷ These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a guilt offering to the LORD: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one. ¹⁸ And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fortified cities, and of country villages. And the great stone, where they set the ark of the LORD, is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua, the Beth Shemite.

¹⁹ Then He struck the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He struck fifty thousand and seventy men. And the people lamented, because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter. ²⁰ The men of Beth Shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom will He go up from us?"

²¹ And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath Jearim, saying, "The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD. Come down, and take it up to you."

7 So the men of Kiriath Jearim came and took up the ark of the LORD. And they brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD. ² And from the day the ark resided in Kiriath Jearim, the days increased to twenty years.

Samuel Judges Israel

And all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD. ³ Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, "If you are returning to the LORD with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and Ashtoreths from your midst. And make firm your hearts unto the LORD, and serve Him only. Then He will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines." ⁴ So the children of Israel put away the Baals and Ashtoreths and served the LORD only.

⁵ Then Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray to the LORD for you." ⁶ They gathered together to Mizpah. And they drew water and poured it out before the LORD. And they fasted on that day, and said there, "We have sinned against the LORD." So Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpah.

⁷ When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. And when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. ⁸ The children of Israel said to Samuel, "Do not stop crying unto the LORD our God for us, that He might save us out of the hand of the Philistines."

⁹ Samuel took a suckling lamb, and offered it for a burnt offering unto the LORD. And Samuel cried to the LORD for Israel and the LORD heard him.

¹⁰ As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel, but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day against the Philistines, and confused them. So they were beaten before Israel. ¹¹ Israel's fighting men went out of Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and struck them, as far as below Beth Kar.

¹² Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen. And he called its name Ebenezer † saying, "Thus far the LORD has helped us." ¹³ So the Philistines were subdued, and they did not again come into the territory of Israel.

And the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. ¹⁴ The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath. And Israel rescued their territory out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

¹⁵ So Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

¹⁶ He went annually in a circuit to Bethel, and Gilgal, and Mizpah. And he judged Israel in all those places.

¹⁷ But his return was to Ramah, for his house was there and there he judged Israel. And there he built an altar to the LORD.

Israel Demands a King

8 And it came about when Samuel was old, that he installed his sons as judges for Israel. ² Now the name of his firstborn son was Joel, and the name of his second son was Abijah. They were judging in Beer-sheba. ³ But his sons did not walk in his way, for they followed after unlawful gain, and they took bribes, and they perverted justice.

⁴ And all the elders of Israel gathered together and they came to Samuel at Ramah. ⁵ They said to him, "You are old and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now, install for us a king to govern us like all the nations."

⁶ But the thing was evil in the eyes of Samuel, because they said, "Give us a king to govern us." And Samuel prayed to the LORD. ⁷ The LORD said to Samuel, "Obey the voice of the people in relation to all that they say to you. For it is not you they have rejected, but Me they have rejected from reigning over them. ⁸ Just as all the deeds which they have done to Me, from the day I brought them up from Egypt even to this day, in that they have forsaken Me and have served other gods, so they are doing also to you now. ⁹ Now then, obey their voice. Only you will testify against them and proclaim to them the judgment concerning the king who will reign over them."

¹⁰ So Samuel said all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking from him a king. ¹¹ And he said, "This will be the judgment concerning the king who will reign over you: Your sons he will take in order to place them for himself in his chariots and as his horsemen, and they will run before his chariot, ¹² and in order to assign for himself captains of thousands and captains of fifties, and to plow his ground, and to gather in his harvest, and to make his weapons of war and the equipment of his chariots. ¹³ And your daughters he will take for perfumers, and cooks, and bakers. ¹⁴ And your choicest fields, and vineyards, and olive groves he will take and give them to his servants. ¹⁵ And of your seed fields and your vineyards he will take a tenth of their harvest and will give it to his high officials and to his servants. ¹⁶ And your menservants and your maidservants, and the best of your young men and asses he will take and make do his work. ¹⁷ Your flocks he will take a tenth of, but you will be his for slaves. ¹⁸ And you will cry out in that day because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the LORD will not answer you in that day."

¹⁹ But the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel. And they said, "No! But surely a king will be over us! ²⁰ So that we also will be like all the nations! And so that our king will govern us, and will go out before us, and will fight our battles."

²¹ And after Samuel heard all the words of the people, he spoke them in the hearing of the LORD. ²² And the LORD said to Samuel, "Obey their voice, and make for them a king."

So Samuel said to Israel's fighting men, "Go every man to his city."

Samuel Anoints Saul

⁹ Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bekorath, the son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a mighty man of power. ² He had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice and handsome man, and there was not a better looking man among the children of Israel. From his shoulders and up he was taller than any of the people.

³ Now the donkeys of Kish, the father of Saul, were lost. And Kish said to his son Saul, "Take now one of the servants with you, and arise, go find the donkeys." ⁴ He passed through the mountains of Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalisha, but they did not find them. And they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they did not find them.

⁵ When they came to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, "Come, and let us return lest my father stop caring about the donkeys and worry about us."

⁶ He said to him, "Look, there is in this city a man of God, and he is highly respected. All that he speaks surely comes about. Now let us go there. Perhaps he can show us the way that we should go."

⁷ Then Saul said to his servant, "But listen, if we go, what will we bring the man? For the bread is gone from our satchels, and there is no present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?"

⁸ And the servant answered Saul again, and said, "Look, I have here in my hand a quarter of a shekel † of silver. I will give it to the man of God, to tell us our way." ⁹ (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, thus he said, "Come, and let us go to the seer." For he that is now called a prophet was formerly called a seer.)

¹⁰ Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said. Come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was.

¹¹ As they went up the hill to the city, they found young women going out to draw water and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

¹² And they answered them and said, "He is. See, he is ahead of you. Hurry now, for today he came to the city, because there is a sacrifice for the people in the high place today. ¹³ As soon as you come into the city, you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice. Afterwards those invited will eat. Now therefore, go up, for about this time of the day you will find him there."

¹⁴ So they went up into the city. And when they entered, Samuel was coming toward them to go up to the high place.

¹⁵ Now the LORD had revealed in the ear of Samuel one day before Saul came, saying, ¹⁶ "Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man out of the land of Benjamin. And you will anoint him to be leader over My people Israel, that he may save My people out of the hand of the Philistines. For I have looked upon My people, because their cry has come unto Me."

† About 1/10 ounce, or 3 grams.

¹⁷ When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, "Here is the man of whom I spoke to you! This one will rule over My people."

¹⁸ Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, "Tell me, please, where is the seer's house?"

¹⁹ Samuel answered Saul, and said, "I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you will eat with me today. And tomorrow I will let you go, and will tell you then all that is in your heart. ²⁰ As for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not your worry about them for they have been found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on you and on all your father's house?"

²¹ And Saul answered and said, "Am not I a Benjamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why do you speak to me this way?"

²² And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the hall, and gave them a place at the head of those invited, which were about thirty men. ²³ Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, 'Set it aside.'"

²⁴ Then the cook took up the thigh and what was on it and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, "Here is what was set aside. Set it before you and eat, because it has been kept for you until this time, since I said I have invited the people." So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

²⁵ When they had come down from the high place into the city, Samuel spoke with Saul up on the roof.

²⁶ They arose early, and it was at the rising of the dawn that Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, "Get up, that I may send you away." So Saul arose, and both he and Samuel went to the street. ²⁷ As they were going down to the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to pass on before us." So he passed on. "But you stand still and I will proclaim to you the word of God."

10 Then Samuel took a vial of oil and poured it up on his head. And he kissed him and said, "Has not the LORD anointed you over His inheritance as ruler? ² When you have departed from me today, you will find two men by Rachel's tomb in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah. And they will say to you, 'The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. And now, your father has stopped caring about the donkeys, and worries for you, saying, "What will I do for my son?"'

³ "Then you will go forward from there, and you will come to the plain of Tabor. And there you will meet three men going up to God to Bethel: one carrying three kids, another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine. ⁴ And they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you will receive from their hands.

⁵ "After that you will come to the hill of God, where the garrison of the Philistines is. And when you come there to the city, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place with a harp, a tambourine, a flute, and a lyre before them. And they will prophesy. ⁶ And the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you, and you will prophesy with them. And you will be turned into another man. ⁷ And it will be when these signs come to you, do for yourself what the occasion requires; for God is with you.

⁸ "Then you will go down before me to Gilgal. And listen, I will be coming down to you, in order to offer burnt offerings, and to offer sacrifices of peace offerings. Seven days you will wait, until I come to you. Then I will make known to you what you will do."

⁹ And it happened, that when he turned his back to go from Samuel, that God gave him another heart. And all those signs came to pass that day. ¹⁰ When they came to the hill, a group of prophets met him. And the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. ¹¹ So when all who previously knew him saw that he prophesied among the prophets, the people said one to another, "What is this that has come upon the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"

¹² And a man from there answered and said, "But who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb, "Is Saul also among the prophets?" ¹³ When he had finished prophesying, he came to the high place.

¹⁴ And Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, "Where did you go?"

And he said, "To seek the donkeys. And when we saw that they were nowhere around, we went to Samuel."

¹⁵ Saul's uncle said, "Please tell me what Samuel said to you."

¹⁶ Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the donkeys were found." But the matter of the kingdom, of which Samuel had spoken, he did not mention.

Saul Proclaimed King

¹⁷ Therefore Samuel called the people together unto the LORD at Mizpah. ¹⁸ And he said to the children of Israel, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you.' ¹⁹ But you have today rejected your God, who saves you from all your troubles and your distresses. And you have said to Him, 'No, but set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your clans."

²⁰ So Samuel brought near all the tribes of Israel and the tribe of Benjamin was taken. ²¹ Then he brought near the tribe of Benjamin by its families. And the family of Matri was chosen. Then Saul the son of Kish was taken. But when they sought him, he could not be found. ²² Therefore they inquired again of the LORD, "Has the man come here yet?"

And the LORD answered, "He has hidden himself among the equipment."

²³ So they ran and took him from there. When he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. ²⁴ Then Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen? Truly there is none like him among all the people."

And all the people shouted and said, " Long live the king."

²⁵ Samuel told the people the ordinances of the kingdom, and wrote them in a book, and laid them up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

²⁶ Saul also went home to Gibeah. And there went with him a band of valiant men whose hearts God had touched. ²⁷ But some worthless men said, "How will this man save us?" And they despised him, and did not bring him a present. But he remained silent.

Saul Rescues Jabesh Gilead

11 Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh Gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you."

² Nahash the Ammonite answered them, "On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may pluck out all your right eyes. So I will inflict it as a reproach upon all Israel."

³ The elders of Jabesh said to him, "Give us seven days, that we may send messengers to all the territory of Israel. And then if there is no one to rescue us, we will come out to you."

⁴ So the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, and spoke the words in the ears of the people. And all the people lifted up their voices, and wept. ⁵ Now Saul was coming out of the field after the cattle, and Saul said, "Why are the people weeping?" And they reported to him the words of the men of Jabesh.

⁶ The Spirit of God came strongly upon Saul when he heard these words, and he became very angry. ⁷ He took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces. And he sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, "Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, so will it be done to his oxen." And the fear of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out as one man. ⁸ When he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

⁹ They said to the messengers that came, "Thus will you say to the men of Jabesh Gilead, 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will have help.'" And the messengers came and reported it to the men of Jabesh and they were glad. ¹⁰ Therefore the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do to us all that seems good to you."

¹¹ On the next day Saul put the people in three companies. And they came into the midst of the camp in the morning and struck down the Ammonites until the heat of the day. Those surviving were scattered, so that even two of them were not left together.

Saul Confirmed as King

¹² The people said to Samuel, "Who said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring the men, that we may put them to death."

¹³ Saul said, "There will not be a man put to death this day. For today the LORD has worked deliverance in Israel."

¹⁴ Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, and let us go to Gilgal and renew the kingdom there." ¹⁵ All the people went to Gilgal and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal. And there they made sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD. And there Saul and all Israel's fighting men rejoiced greatly.

Samuel's Farewell Address

12 Then Samuel said to all Israel: "I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you. ² And now, see, the king walks before you, but I am old and gray-headed. As for my sons, they are with you. But I have walked before you from my childhood to this day. ³ Behold, here I am. Witness against me before the LORD and before His anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Or whose donkey have I taken? Or whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or from whose hand have I received any bribe to blind my eyes with? Indeed I will restore it you."

⁴ They said, "You have not defrauded us, nor oppressed us. Neither have you taken anything from any man's hand."

⁵ He said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and His anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand."

And they answered, " He is witness."

⁶ Samuel said to the people: "It is the LORD that prepared Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt. ⁷ Now therefore stand still that I may reason with you before the LORD, concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD, which He did for you and your fathers.

⁹ "When they forgot the LORD their God, He sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab. And they fought against them. ¹⁰ They cried to the LORD, and said, 'We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD and have served the Baals and the Ashtoreths. But now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve You.' ¹¹ The LORD sent Jerub-Baal, Bedan, † Jephthah, and Samuel. And He delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and you dwelled in safety.

¹² "When you saw that Nahash, king of the Ammonites, came against you, you said to me, 'No, but a king will reign over us,' when the LORD your God was your king. ¹³ Now therefore, look at the king whom you have chosen and for whom you have asked! And see that the LORD has set a king over you. ¹⁴ If you will fear the LORD, and serve Him, and obey His voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then both you and the king that reigns over you will continue following the LORD your God. ¹⁵ But if you will not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then will the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers.

¹⁶ "Even now, take your stand and see this great thing which the LORD is doing before your eyes. ¹⁷ Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call to the LORD. And He will send thunder and rain, that you may know and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, by asking for yourselves a king."

¹⁸ So Samuel called to the LORD. And the LORD sent thunder and rain that day, and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

¹⁹ All the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, that we will not die, for we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask for ourselves a king."

²⁰ Samuel said to the people, "Do not fear. You have done all this wickedness, only do not turn aside from following the LORD, and serve the LORD with all your heart. ²¹ But do not turn aside, for then you would be going after empty things which cannot profit or deliver, for they are nothing. ²² As befits His great name, the LORD will not abandon His people. For it has pleased the LORD to make you His people. ²³ Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you. But I will teach you the good and the right way. ²⁴ Fear the LORD; serve Him in truth with all your heart, and consider what great things He has done for you. ²⁵ But if you still do wickedly, both you and your king will be swept away."

Saul Fails His Commission

13 Saul was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty-two years over Israel. ††

† Perhaps a Barakhere (see LXX). †† Lit. "The son of a year was Saul in his ruling and two years he ruled over Israel." Most translations read in Saul's age and length of reign from external evidence (Josephus) or from the New Testament (Paul, who mentions a forty-year reign for Saul in Ac 13:21).

² Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel. Two thousand were with Saul in Mikdash and in mountains of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the people he sent each to his tent.

³ Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear." ⁴ All Israel heard that Saul had struck the garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel had become odious to the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

⁵ The Philistines gathered together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, with people like the sand which is on the seashore in multitude. And they came up and camped in Mikdash, east of Beth Aven. ⁶ When Israel's fighting men saw that they were in a strait (for the people were distressed), then the people hid themselves in caves, in hollows, among rocks, and in cellars and cisterns. ⁷ Some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead.

But as for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him, trembling. ⁸ He waited seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed. But Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and the people were scattered from him. ⁹ Saul said, "Bring here to me the burnt offering and the peace offerings." Then he offered the burnt offering. ¹⁰ When he finished offering the burnt offering, Samuel came. And Saul went out to meet him to greet him.

¹¹ Samuel said, "What have you done?"

And Saul said, "Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you did not come to the appointed assembly days, and the Philistines are gathering themselves together at Mikdash, ¹² therefore I said, 'The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not yet appeased the face of the LORD.' So I forced myself, and offered the burnt offering."

¹³ Samuel said to Saul, "You have done foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which He commanded you. Truly now, the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever. ¹⁴ But now your kingdom will not continue. The LORD has sought for Himself a man after His own heart and the LORD has commanded him to be prince over His people, because you have not kept that which the LORD commanded you."

¹⁵ Samuel arose, and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were present with him, about six hundred men.

Israel Unarmed

¹⁶ Now Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were with them, were staying in Gibeah of Benjamin, but the Philistines encamped in Mikdash.

¹⁷ Then raiders came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned to the way that leads to Ophrah, to the land of Shual.¹⁸ And another company turned the way to Beth Horon. And another company turned to the way of the border that looks to the Valley of Zeboyim toward the wilderness.

¹⁹ Now there was no blacksmith found throughout all the land of Israel. For the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make for themselves swords or spears."²⁰ So all the children of Israel went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his plow-point, his axe, his adze and his hoe.²¹ The sharpening charge was two-thirds of a shekel † for plow-points, axes, pitchforks, and adzes, and to fix an ox-goad.

²² So it came to pass on the day of battle, that neither sword nor spear were found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan. But they were found in the hand of Saul and Jonathan his son.

²³ And the garrison of the Philistines had marched out to the ravine of Mikmash.

Jonathan Defeats the Philistines

14 A day came that Jonathan, the son of Saul, said to the young man that bore his armor, "Come, and let us cross over to the Philistine garrison which is on the other side." But he did not tell his father.

² Now Saul was staying on the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree which is in Migron. And the people that were with him were about six hundred men.³ And Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh, was wearing the ephod. But the people did not know that Jonathan had gone.

⁴ Between the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side. And the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.⁵ The crag of the one rose north opposite Mikmash, and the other faced southward opposite Geba.

⁶ Jonathan said to the young man bearing his armor, "Come, and let us cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. Perhaps the LORD will work for us. For the LORD is not limited to save by many or by few."

⁷ His armor bearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart. Turn yourself, and I will be with you according to your heart."

⁸ Then Jonathan said, "Now we will cross over to these men, and we will reveal ourselves to them.⁹ If they say to us, 'Wait until we come to you,' then we will stand still in our place, and we will not go up to them.¹⁰ But if they say, 'Come up to us,' then we will go up, for the LORD has delivered them into our hand, and this will be a sign to us."

¹¹ So the two of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines. And the Philistines said, "Look, the Hebrews are coming out of the caves where they have hidden themselves."¹² The men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor bearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will teach you something."

son answered Jonathan and his armor bearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will teach you something."

So Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "Come up after me. For the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel."

¹³ Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet with his armor bearer behind him. And they fell before Jonathan. And his armor bearer was dealing death blows after him.¹⁴ That first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armor bearer made, was about twenty men within about a half-acre field.

¹⁵ There was trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The garrison and the raiders also trembled, and the ground quaked. It was the fear of God.

¹⁶ The watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and behold, the multitude melted away, and they went even here and there.¹⁷ Then Saul said to the people that were with him, "Number now, and see who has gone from us." And when they had numbered, Jonathan nor his armor bearer were there.

¹⁸ Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring here the ark of God." For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.¹⁹ It came to pass, while Saul talked to the priest, that the noise which was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased. So Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."

²⁰ Saul and all the people who were with him assembled, and they went to the battle. And every man's sword was against his fellow, so that there was very great confusion.²¹ Even the Hebrews who were with the Philistines the days before, who went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the children of Israel that were with Saul and Jonathan.²² Also all of Israel's fighting men, who had hidden themselves in mountains of Ephraim, heard that the Philistines fled, and even they followed hard after them in the battle.²³ So the LORD saved Israel that day, and the battle passed beyond Beth Aven.

Saul's Rash Oath

²⁴ Now Israel's fighting men were distressed that day. For Saul had placed the people under a curse, saying, "Cursed is the man that eats any food before it is evening, and I have been avenged on my enemies." So none of the people tasted any food.

²⁵ All the people of the land came to the forest, and there was honey on the ground.²⁶ When the people came into the forest there was flowing honey. But no man put his hand to his mouth, because the people feared the oath.²⁷ But Jonathan had not heard when his father made the people swear. Therefore he put forward the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb. Then he put his hand to his mouth, and his eyes were brightened.²⁸ Then one of the people answered, and said, "Your father surely made the people swear, saying, 'Cursed is the man that eats any food this day.'" And the people were weary.

²⁹ Then said Jonathan, "My father has troubled the land. See how my eyes have brightened, because I tasted a little of this honey. ³⁰ How much more, if the people had surely eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found? But now the defeat of the Philistines has not been great."

³¹ And they struck the Philistines that day from Mik-mash to Aijalon, and the people were very weary.

³² The people rushed upon the spoil; they took sheep, oxen, and calves and slew them on the ground. And the people ate them with the blood. ³³ Then they reported to Saul, saying, "Look, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood."

And he said, "You have dealt faithlessly. Roll a great stone to me this day." ³⁴ Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, 'Bring to me here every man his ox or sheep. And slaughter them here, and eat. But you shall not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.'"

And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there. ³⁵ And Saul built an altar to the LORD. It was the first altar that he built to the LORD.

³⁶ Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them until the morning light. And let us not leave a man of them."

And they said, "Do whatever seems good to you."

Then the priest said, "Let us draw near here to God."

³⁷ Saul asked of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But He did not answer him that day.

³⁸ Saul said, "Come here, all you leaders of the people, and observe and see how this sin has come about this day. ³⁹ For, as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, even if it is in Jonathan my son, he will surely die." But there was not one who answered him from among all the people.

⁴⁰ Then he said to all Israel, "You will be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side."

And the people said to Saul, "Do what seems good to you."

⁴¹ Therefore Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, "Give a perfect lot." And Saul and Jonathan were taken, but the people escaped. ⁴² Saul said, "Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son." And Jonathan was taken.

⁴³ Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done."

And Jonathan told him, and said, "I indeed tasted a little honey with the end of the staff that was in my hand. Here I am. I must die."

⁴⁴ Saul said, "May God do so to me and more also, for you will surely die, Jonathan."

⁴⁵ The people said to Saul, "Will Jonathan die, who has worked this great salvation in Israel? God forbid.

As the LORD lives, there will not one hair of his head fall to the ground. For he has worked with God this day." So the people rescued Jonathan, and he did not die.

⁴⁶ Then Saul went up from following the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own place.

⁴⁷ So Saul took the kingdom over Israel and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the Ammonites, against Edom and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines. Whatever place he turned himself, he defeated them. ⁴⁸ He gathered an army, and struck the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hand of its plunderers.

Saul's Family

⁴⁹ Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malki-Shua. And the names of his two daughters were Merab, the firstborn, and Michal, the youngest. ⁵⁰ And the name of the wife of Saul was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz. And the name of the captain of his army was Abner, the son of Ner, the uncle of Saul.

⁵¹ Kish was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

⁵² There was strong war against the Philistines all the days of Saul, and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him into his service.

The LORD Rejects Saul

15 Samuel said to Saul, "The LORD sent me to anoint you to be king over His people, over Israel. Now therefore listen to the voice of the words of the LORD. ² Thus says the LORD of Hosts, 'I remember what Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt. ³ Now go and strike Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and do not have compassion on them but put to death both man and woman, child and infant, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.'"

⁴ So Saul summoned the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men of Judah. ⁵ Then Saul came to the city of Amalek and laid an ambush in the valley. ⁶ Saul said to the Kenites, "Go, depart, go down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them. For you showed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt." So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

⁷ Then Saul struck the Amalekites from Havilah until you come to Shur, which is near Egypt. ⁸ He took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. ⁹ But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, oxen, fatlings, and lambs. And of all that was good, they were not willing to utterly destroy them. But everything that was despised and weak, that they completely destroyed.

¹⁰ Then came the word of the LORD to Samuel, saying, ¹¹ "I regret that I have set up Saul to be king because he has turned back from following Me, and he has not carried out My words." And it grieved Samuel, and he cried to the LORD all night.

¹² When Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, "Saul came to Carmel and set himself up a monument. Then he turned and has passed on down to Gilgal."

¹³ Samuel came to Saul. And Saul said to him, "Blessed are you of the LORD. I have carried out the word of the LORD."

¹⁴ Samuel said, "Then what is the sound of this flock of sheep in my ears? And the sound of the cattle which I am hearing?"

¹⁵ And Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites. For the people spared the best of the sheep and oxen, to sacrifice to the LORD your God, and the rest we have utterly destroyed."

¹⁶ Then Samuel said to Saul, "Stop, and I will tell you what the LORD spoke to me this night."

And he said to him, "Speak."

¹⁷ Samuel said, "When you were little in your own sight, were you not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed you king over Israel?"

¹⁸ And the LORD sent you on a journey, and said, 'Go and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are destroyed.' ¹⁹ Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD? And why did you rush upon the spoil and do evil in the sight of the LORD?"

²⁰ And Saul said to Samuel, "I have obeyed the voice of the LORD. And I have followed in the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites."

²¹ But the people took from the plunder sheep and oxen, the first fruits of the banned things to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal."

²² Samuel said, "Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the LORD?

Obedience is better than sacrifice,
a listening ear than the fat of rams.

²³ For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry.
Because you have rejected the word of the LORD,
He has also rejected you from being king."

²⁴ Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned. For I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and your words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. ²⁵ Now therefore, please pardon my sin and return with me, that I may worship the LORD."

²⁶ Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you. For you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

²⁷ As Samuel turned about to go, he seized the edge of his robe and it tore. ²⁸ Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you. ²⁹ Also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent. For He is not a man, that He should repent."

³⁰ Then he said, "I have sinned, yet please honor me before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn back with me, that I may worship the LORD your God." ³¹ So Samuel turned back after Saul, and Saul worshipped the LORD.

³² Then Samuel said, "Bring me Agag the king of the Amalekites."

And Agag came to him reluctantly. But Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

³³ Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so will your mother be childless among women." And Samuel hacked Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

³⁴ Then Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his house to Gibeath of Saul. ³⁵ Now Samuel did not see Saul up to the day of his death. But Samuel mourned for Saul and the LORD regretted that he had made Saul king over Israel.

Samuel Anoints David as King

16 The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him from ruling over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have chosen a king for Myself from among his sons."

² Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me."

And the LORD said, "Take a heifer with you and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.' ³ Call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you will do. And you will anoint for Me him whom I tell to you."

⁴ Samuel did that which the LORD spoke, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, "Do you come in peace?"

⁵ And he said, "I have come in peace to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." And he consecrated Jesse and his sons and called them to the sacrifice.

⁶ When they came, he looked on Eliab, and said, "Surely the anointed of the LORD is before Him."

⁷ But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For the LORD sees not as man sees. For man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart."

⁸ Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." ⁹ Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. And he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one."

¹⁰ So Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these.”¹¹ Samuel said to Jesse, “Are these all your young men?”

And he said, “There remains yet the youngest, and there he is shepherding the flock.”

Then Samuel said to Jesse, “Send and bring him, for we will not sit down until he comes here.”

¹² So he sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy with beautiful eyes and a good appearance.

And the LORD said, “Arise, anoint him, for this is he.”

¹³ Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the Spirit of the LORD came on David from that day forward. So Samuel arose and went to Ramah.

David Serves Saul

¹⁴ Now the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul and an evil spirit from the LORD terrified him.

¹⁵ So the servants of Saul said to him, “See, an evil spirit from God troubles you. ¹⁶ Let our lord now tell your servants, who are before you, that they might seek out a man experienced in playing the lyre. And it will come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is on you, that he will play with his hand, and you will be well.”

¹⁷ Saul said to his servants, “Find me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.”

¹⁸ Then one from the servants answered, and said, “I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is experienced in playing music, a mighty man of valor, a man of battle, and skillful in words, even a man of fine appearance. And the LORD is with him.”

¹⁹ Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, “Send me David your son, who is with the sheep.”

²⁰ Jesse took a donkey laden with bread, a bottle of wine, and a young goat and he sent them with his son David to Saul.

²¹ David came to Saul, and stood before him. And Saul loved him greatly and he became his armor bearer. ²² Saul sent to Jesse, saying, “Let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my sight.”

²³ It happened that when the evil spirit from God came on Saul, David would take the lyre in his hand and play. So Saul was refreshed and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

David and Goliath

17 Now the Philistines gathered their armies for battle, and were gathered at Sokoh, which belongs to Judah. And they camped between Sokoh and Azekah in Ephes Dammim. ² Saul and Israel’s fighting men were gathered, and they camped in the Valley of Elah. And they drew up in battle order to meet the Philistines. ³ Now the Philistines were standing at the base of the mountain on the one side, and Israel was standing at the base of the mountain on the other side, and the valley was between them.

⁸ He stood and called out to the ranks of Israel, “Why have you come out to line up for battle? Am not I the Philistine, and you the servants of Saul? Choose for yourselves a man and let him come down to me. ⁹ If he is able to fight with me and to strike me down, then we will be your servants. But if I prevail against him and strike him down, then you will be our servants and will serve us.” ¹⁰ The Philistine said, “I defy the battle lines of Israel this day. Give me a man, and let us fight together.” ¹¹ When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were filled with terror and were greatly afraid.

¹² Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah whose name was Jesse, who had eight sons. And the man was old in the days of Saul and advanced in years. ¹³ The three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle. And the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the first-born, and next to him Abinadab, and the third was Shammah. ¹⁴ As for David, he was the youngest. The three eldest followed Saul, ¹⁵ but David would go back and forth from Saul to shepherd his father’s flock in Bethlehem.

¹⁶ The Philistine stepped forward morning and evening and took his stand daily for forty days.

¹⁷ Then Jesse said to David his son, “Take now for your brothers an ephah [†] of this parched grain and these ten loaves and run to the camp to your brothers.

²⁰ So David rose up early in the morning and left the flock with a keeper. And he carried away the food and went as Jesse had commanded him. And when he came to the encampment, the army was going out to the battle line, and they shouted a war cry. ²¹ And Israel and the Philistines ordered themselves in battle lines, army against army. ²² David left his things with the keeper of the equipment, and he ran to the battle line. And he went and greeted his brothers. ²³ As he was speaking with them, the champion, Goliath, the Philistine from Gath, was going up from the battle line of the Philistines. And he spoke these same words and

† About 9 feet 9 inches, or 3 meters. †† About 125 pounds, or 58 kilograms. ‡ About 15 pounds, or 6.9 kilograms. ‡† Likely about 36 pounds, or 16 kilograms.

David heard them. ²⁴ When all Israel's fighting men saw the man, they fled from him, and were very afraid.

²⁵ The men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? Surely he has come up to defy Israel, and it will be that the man who kills him, the king will enrich him with great riches, will give him his daughter, and will make his father's house exempt from taxes in Israel."

²⁶ David spoke to the men that stood by him, saying, "What will be done for the man that kills this Philistine and takes away this reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God?"

²⁷ And the people answered him in the same way, saying, "So will it be done to the man who kills him."

²⁸ Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spoke to the men. And Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, "Why have you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the evil of your heart. For you have come down that you might see the battle."

²⁹ David said, "What have I done now? Was it not only a word?" ³⁰ And he turned from him toward another and spoke in the same way. And the people answered him again as at the first. ³¹ When the words which David spoke were heard, they reported them to Saul and he sent for him.

³² David said to Saul, "Let no man's heart fail because of him. Your servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

³⁴ David said to Saul, "Your servant was a shepherd for my father's flock, and the lion came and the bear, and took a lamb out of the flock. ³⁵ And I went out after him, and struck him, and delivered it out of his mouth. And when he arose against me, I took hold of his beard, struck him, and killed him. ³⁶ Your servant slew both the lion and the bear. And this uncircumcised Philistine will be as one of them, because he has reviled the armies of the living God." ³⁷ David said, "The LORD who delivered me out of the paw of the lion and out of the paw of the bear, He will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine."

And Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD be with you."

³⁸ Saul clothed David with his armor. And he put a helmet of bronze on his head. He also clothed him with a coat of mail. ³⁹ David secured his sword to his armor and tried to walk, but he was not used to it, for he had not tested them.

And David said to Saul, "I cannot walk with these, for I have not tested them." So David took them off. ⁴⁰ He took his staff in his hand and chose for himself five smooth stones out of the brook. And he put them in his shepherd's bag, even in a pouch. And his sling was in his hand. Then he drew near to the Philistine.

⁴¹ The Philistine came walking and drew near to David, and the man bearing the shield went before him. ⁴² When the Philistine looked and saw David, he despised him. For he was a youth and ruddy with a handsome appearance. ⁴³ The Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" Then the Philistine cursed David by his gods. ⁴⁴ The Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the heavens and to the beasts of the field."

⁴⁵ Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a shield, but I come to you in the name of the LORD of Hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have reviled. ⁴⁶ This day will the LORD deliver you into my hand. And I will strike you down and cut off your head. Then I will give the corpses of the Philistine camp this day to the birds of the air and to the beasts of the earth so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel. ⁴⁷ And then all this assembly will know that it is not by sword and spear that the LORD saves. For the battle belongs to the LORD, and He will give you into our hands."

⁴⁸ When the Philistine arose and came near to meet David, David hurried and ran toward the battle line to meet the Philistine. ⁴⁹ David put his hand in his bag and took from there a stone. And he slung it and struck the Philistine in his forehead. Therefore the stone sunk into his forehead and he fell upon his face to the ground.

⁵⁰ So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone. And he struck down the Philistine and slew him, but there was no sword in the hand of David.

⁵¹ Therefore David ran and stood over the Philistine. Then he took his sword and drew it from out of its sheath, and he finished him off and he cut off his head with it.

When the Philistines saw their champion was dead, they fled. ⁵² And the fighting men of Israel and Judah arose and shouted. And they pursued the Philistines from the entrance of the Valley of Elah as far as the gates of Ekron. So the Philistine dead lay slain on the road to Shaaraim as far as Gath and Ekron. ⁵³ Then the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines and they plundered their tents. ⁵⁴ David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his tent.

⁵⁵ When Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, "Whose son is this youth, Abner?"

And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I do not know."

⁵⁶ The king said, "Inquire whose son the young man is."

⁵⁷ So when David returned from slaying the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the Philistine's head in his hand.

⁵⁸ Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?"

And David answered, "I am the son of your servant, Jesse the Bethlehemite."

Saul Fears David

18 When he had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was bound to the soul of David, so that Jonathan loved him as his own soul. ² And Saul took him that day and would not permit him to return home to his father's house. ³ Then Jonathan and David made a covenant because he loved him as his own soul. ⁴ So Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him and gave it to David, even his garments, his sword, his bow, and his belt.

⁵ David went out wherever Saul sent him, and he was successful. So Saul set him over the men of war, and it was pleasing in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of the servants of Saul.

⁸ Saul became very angry, and this saying was displeasing to him. Therefore he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, but to me they have ascribed thousands. Now what remains for him to have but the kingdom?" ⁹ So Saul was suspicious of David from that day and forward.

¹⁰ It came to pass the following day, that an evil spirit from God came upon Saul, so that he raved in the midst of the house. And David was playing the lyre, as at other times. Now there was a spear in Saul's hand.

¹¹ And Saul threw the spear. For he said, "I will pin David to the wall." But David avoided him two times.

¹² Saul was afraid of David because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul. ¹³ Therefore Saul removed him from his presence and placed him as his captain over a thousand. And he went out and came in before the people. ¹⁴ David was successful in all his ways and the LORD was with him. ¹⁵ When Saul saw that he was very successful, he was afraid of him.

¹⁶ Now all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

David Marries Michal

¹⁷ Saul said to David, "Behold my elder daughter Merab, I will give her to you as your wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight the battles of the LORD." For Saul said, "Let not my hand be against him, but let the hand of the Philistines be against him."

¹⁸ But David said to Saul, "Who am I? And what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?" ¹⁹ So when it was time that Merab, daughter of Saul, should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel the Meholathite for a wife.

²⁰ Now Michal, daughter of Saul, loved David and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. ²¹ Saul said, "I will give her to him that she may be a snare to him, and so that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." Therefore Saul said to David, "For a second time, you may be my son-in-law today."

²² Saul commanded his servants, saying, "Speak to David in secret saying, 'Listen, the king delights in you and all his servants love you. Now therefore become the king's son-in-law.'"

²³ So the servants of Saul spoke these words in the ears of David. And David said, "Does it seem to you a light thing to be a king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?"

²⁴ And the servants of Saul reported to him saying, "According to these words, David spoke." ²⁵ Saul said, "Thus will you say to David, 'The king does not desire any dowry but a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies.'" But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

²⁶ When his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law. Now the days had not expired; ²⁷ therefore David arose and went, he and his men, and killed two hundred men of the Philistines. Then David brought their foreskins and they gave them in full to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter for a wife.

²⁸ When Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and that Michal, his daughter, loved him, ²⁹ Saul was yet the more afraid of David, and Saul became the enemy of David continually.

³⁰ Then the commanders of the Philistines went out to make war. And when they went out David was more successful than all the servants of Saul, so that his name was highly honored.

Saul Tries to Kill David

19 And Saul spoke to Jonathan, his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted very much in David. ² Jonathan told David, saying, "My father Saul seeks to kill you. Therefore, be on guard in the morning; stay in a secret place and hide yourself. ³ And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are. Then I will speak about you to my father, and what I observe I will report to you."

⁴ Jonathan spoke positively of David to Saul his father and said to him, "Do not let the king sin against his servant, against David, because he has not sinned against you, and because his deeds have been very good toward you. ⁵ For he took his life in his hand and struck down the Philistine, and the LORD made a great salvation for all Israel. You saw it and rejoiced. Now why then would you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without cause?"

⁶ So Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan and Saul vowed, "As the LORD lives, he will not be killed."

⁷ Jonathan called David, and Jonathan reported to him all these words. Then Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as previously.

⁸ Then there was war again, and David went out and fought with the Philistines. He slew them with a great slaughter and they fled from him.

⁹ Now an evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand. And David was playing the lyre. ¹⁰ Then Saul sought to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he escaped from Saul's presence. He struck the spear into the wall. But David fled and escaped that night.

¹¹ Saul also sent messengers to the house of David, to watch him and to slay him in the morning. But Michal, wife of David, told him, saying, "If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be dead."

¹² So Michal let David down through a window, and he went and fled to safety. ¹³ Michal took an idol and laid it in the bed, and put a braided goat hair pillow for its head and covered it with clothes.

¹⁴ When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."

¹⁵ Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him." ¹⁶ When the messengers came in, there was the idol in the bed with a goat hair pillow for its head.

¹⁷ Saul said to Michal, "Why have you betrayed me and sent away my enemy, so that he escaped?"

And Michal said to Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go. Why should I kill you?'"

¹⁸ Now David fled, and he escaped and came to Samuel at Ramah. And he reported to him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and stayed in Naioth. ¹⁹ It was told Saul, saying, "David is at Naioth in Ramah." ²⁰ Then Saul sent messengers to take David, but when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying and Samuel taking his stand over them, the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul and they also prophesied. ²¹ When it was reported to Saul, he sent other messengers. And they also prophesied. So Saul sent messengers again a third time, and they too prophesied. ²² Then he also went to Ramah and came to the great well that is in Seku. And he asked and said, "Where are Samuel and David?"

And one said, " They are at Naioth in Ramah.

²³ He went there to Naioth in Ramah, and the Spirit of God came upon him also. And he went on and he prophesied until he came to Naioth in Ramah. ²⁴ He stripped off his clothes and he also prophesied before Samuel. And he lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

David and Jonathan

20 David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my offense? And what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"

² And he said to him, "Far from it! You shall not die. Look, my father does nothing either great or small that he does not reveal to me. Why would my father hide this thing from me? It is not so."

³ David vowed again and said, "Your father certainly knows that I have found favor in your sight. And he says, 'Do not let Jonathan know this, lest he be distressed.' However, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."

⁴ Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you say, I will do it for you."

⁵ David said to Jonathan, "Tomorrow is the New Moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king to eat. But let me go that I may hide myself in the field until the evening of the third day. ⁶ If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David asked for leave from me that he might run to Bethlehem his city, for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.' ⁷ If he says, 'Good,' it will be well for your servant. But if he gets angry, know that evil is determined by him. ⁸ Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you. But if there is any guilt in me, kill me yourself. For why should you bring me to your father?"

⁹ Then Jonathan said, "Far be it from you. For if I indeed knew that my father had determined evil against you, would I not tell it you?"

¹⁰ David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me? Or what if your father answers you roughly?"

¹¹ So Jonathan said to David, "Come, let us go out into the field." And the two of them went out to the field.

¹² Then Jonathan said to David, "The LORD God of Israel is witness. When I have sounded out my father about this time tomorrow, or by the third day, and if he is favorable toward David, then will I not send and reveal it to you? ¹³ May the LORD do so to Jonathan and much more. If it pleases my father to do you evil, then I will reveal it you and send you away that you may go in peace. And may the LORD be with you as He has been with my father. ¹⁴ And if I live, not only will you show me the kindness of the LORD, that I shall not die, ¹⁵ but you will not cut off your faithfulness from my house forever, even when the LORD has cut off each one of the enemies of David from the face of the earth."

¹⁸ Then Jonathan said to David, "Tomorrow is the New Moon, and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty. ¹⁹ When you have stayed three days, you will surely go down and come to the place where you hid yourself on the day this happened, and wait there beside the stone Ezel. ²⁰ And I will shoot three arrows to its side, as though I shot at a target. ²¹ Then I will send a boy, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I expressly say to the boy, 'See, the arrows are on this side of you, take them,' then come, for it will be safe for you. And as the LORD lives, it is nothing of concern. ²² But if I say to the young man, 'See, the arrows are beyond you,' go, for the LORD has sent you away. ²³ As for the matter upon which you and I have spoken, the LORD is between you and me forever."

²⁴ So David hid himself in the field. And when the New Moon appeared, the king sat down over food to eat. ²⁵ Now the king sat on his seat, as at other times, even on a seat by the wall. Then Jonathan arose and Abner sat by Saul's side, but David's place was empty. ²⁶ Nevertheless Saul did not say anything that day. For he thought, "Something has happened. He is not clean; surely he is not clean." ²⁷ It happened on the following day, which was the second day of the month, that David's place remained empty. So Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to eat food either yesterday or today?"

²⁸ And Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave from me to go to Bethlehem. ²⁹ And he said, 'Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city and my brother has commanded me to come. Now, if I have found favor in your sight, please let me leave and see my brothers.' This is why he has not come to the king's table."

³⁰ Then Saul was angry with Jonathan and he said to him, "You son of a perverse rebellious woman, do I not know that you are choosing the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness? ³¹ For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Now, send and bring him to me, for he is a dead man."

³² Jonathan answered Saul his father and said to him, "Why should he be killed? What has he done?" ³³ So Saul cast a spear at him to strike him. Therefore Jonathan knew that his father was determined to kill David.

³⁴ And Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger and did not eat food on the second day of the month. For he was grieved for David, because his father had dishonored him.

³⁵ In the morning Jonathan went out to the field at the time appointed with David, and a little boy was with him. ³⁶ And he said to his boy, "Run, find the arrows which I shoot." He ran, and he shot the arrow over him. ³⁷ When the boy came to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan called after the boy and said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?" ³⁸ Then

Jonathan cried after the boy, "Hurry quickly! Do not stay!" And Jonathan's boy gathered up the arrow and came to his master. ³⁹ But the boy did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew the matter. ⁴⁰ Jonathan gave his weapons to his boy and said to him, "Go, carry them to the city."

⁴¹ When the boy had gone, David arose from the south side of the stone, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times. They kissed one another and wept together, but David wept more.

⁴² Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, since the two of us swore in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD will be between me and you, and between my descendants and your descendants forever.'" So he arose and departed, but Jonathan went into the city.

David at Nob

21 Then David came to Nob to Ahimelek the priest. And Ahimelek trembled coming to meet David and said to him, "Why are you alone and no man is with you?"

² And David said to Ahimelek the priest, "The king commanded me a matter and said to me, 'Let no man know anything of the business which I am sending you and what I have commanded you.' But to the young men I made known a certain place to meet. ³ Now therefore what is in your hand? Give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever can be found."

⁵ David answered the priest and said to him, "Indeed women have been kept from us. As previously, when I went out the vessels of the young men were holy even if it was an ordinary journey. How much more then today will their vessels be holy?" ⁶ So the priest gave him holy bread. For there was no bread there but the showbread that was removed from before the LORD, in order to place hot bread there on the day when it was taken away.

⁸ David said to Ahimelek, "Is there not a spear or a sword here at hand? For neither my sword nor my weapons did I bring with me, because the king's business was urgent."

⁹ The priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck down in the Valley of Elah, is here, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take that, take it. For there is none other but that here."

And David said, "There is none like it. Give it me."

David Flees to Gath

¹⁰ David arose and fled that day from Saul. And he went to Achish the king of Gath. ¹¹ The servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Did they not sing with dances for him, saying, 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?'"

¹⁴ Then said Achish to his servants, "You see the man is acting like a madman. Why then have you brought him to me? ¹⁵ Am I one who lacks lunatics, that you brought this one to behave as a madman in my presence? Will this man come into my house?"

David Protects His Parents

22 David departed from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. And when his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down to him there. ² There gathered to him every one that was in distress, and every one in debt, and every one that was discontented. So he became captain over them. Now there were with him about four hundred men.

³ Then David went from there to Mizpah of Moab. And he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and my mother come forth and be with you until I know what God will do for me." ⁴ He brought them before the king of Moab, and they lived with him all the while that David was in the stronghold.

⁵ The prophet Gad said to David, "Do not remain in the stronghold. Go to the land of Judah." So David went and came to the forest of Hereth.

Saul Kills the Priests of Nob

⁷ Saul said to his servants that stood about him, "Hear now, Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards? Will he appoint you all as captains of thousands and captains of hundreds? ⁸ You have all conspired against me, and no one revealed to me that my son made a covenant with the son of Jesse. And not one of you is grieved for me and revealed it to me that my son raised up my servant against me to ambush me as at this day."

⁹ Then Doeg the Edomite, who was chief over the servants of Saul, answered and said, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelek the son of Ahitub.

¹⁰ And he inquired of the LORD for him and gave him provisions. And he gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

¹¹ So the king sent to summon Ahimelek the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob. And they all came to the king. ¹² Saul said, "Hear now, son of Ahitub!"

And he answered, "Here I am, my lord."

¹³ Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you gave him bread and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me to ambush me, as at this day?"

¹⁴ Then Ahimelek answered the king and said, "And who is as faithful among all your servants as David, who is the king's son-in-law, chief of your bodyguard, and is honored in your house? ¹⁵ Did I just today begin to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! Let not the king assign any blame to his servant, or to all the house of my father. For your servant has known nothing of all this matter, whether small or great."

¹⁶ The king said, "You will surely die, Ahimelek, you and all your father's house."

¹⁷ The king said to the guards standing near him, "Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because their hand is with David. And because they knew that he was fleeing and did not reveal it to me."

But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to attack the priests of the LORD.

¹⁸ The king said to Doeg, "You turn and fall upon the priests." And Doeg the Edomite turned and struck the priests and killed on that day eighty-five men who wore a linen ephod. ¹⁹ And Nob, the city of the priests, he struck with the edge of the sword. Both men and women, children and babies, oxen, donkeys, and sheep, he struck with the edge of the sword.

David, Protector of the Priestly Line

²⁰ But one of the sons of Ahimelek the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David. ²¹ Abiathar reported to David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD. ²² David said to Abiathar, "I knew it that day when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have caused the death of all the persons of your father's house. ²³ Remain with me. Do not fear. For the one who seeks my life seeks your life, but you are safe with me."

David Saves Keilah

23 Then they told David, "Listen, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah, and they are looting the threshing floors." ² Therefore David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go and attack these Philistines?"

And the LORD said to David, "Go and attack the Philistines, and rescue Keilah."

³ The men of David said to him, "We are afraid here in Judah. How much more then, if we go down to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?"

⁴Then David again inquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered him and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah because I am giving the Philistines into your hand." ⁵Then David and his men went to Keilah. He fought with the Philistines and carried off their livestock, and he struck them with a great slaughter. So David rescued the inhabitants of Keilah. ⁶When Abiathar the son of Ahimelek fled to David at Keilah, he came down with the ephod in his hand.

Saul Pursues David

⁷It was reported to Saul that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, "God has delivered him into my hand. For he is shut in, by entering into a town that has gates and bars." ⁸Then Saul summoned all the people together for war, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

⁹David found out that Saul was planning evil against him. So he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod near." ¹⁰And David said, "O LORD, God of Israel, Your servant has certainly heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city on account of me. ¹¹Will the leaders of Keilah deliver me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as Your servant has heard? O LORD, God of Israel, please tell Your servant."

And the LORD said, "He will come down."

¹²Then said David, "Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul?"

And the LORD said, "They will deliver you."

¹³So David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose and left Keilah. And they went wherever they could go. Now it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah. So he halted the expedition.

¹⁴And David remained in the wilderness in strongholds, and dwelled in mountains in the Wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but God did not give him into his hand.

¹⁵Now David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. And David was in the Wilderness of Ziph in Horesh. ¹⁶Jonathan, the son of Saul, arose and went to David at Horesh. And he strengthened his hand in God. ¹⁷He said to him, "Do not fear, for the hand of Saul my father will not find you. You will be king over Israel, and I will be next to you. Saul my father knows this." ¹⁸The two of them made a covenant before the LORD. And David stayed in Horesh, but Jonathan went to his house.

¹⁹Then the Ziphites went up to Saul to Gibeah saying, "Is David not hiding himself with us in strongholds in Horesh, on the hill of Hakilah, which is south of Jeshimon?" ²⁰Now, O king, come down according to all the desire of your soul to come down. And our part will be to deliver him into the king's hand."

²¹Saul said, "Blessed are you of the LORD. For you have had compassion on me. ²²Please go, make sure again. Investigate and see the place where his foot rests, and who has seen him there. For it has been said to me that he is very cunning. ²³So look and learn about all the hiding places where he hides himself. And come to me with certainty, and I will go with you. And it will be that if he is in the land, then I will track him throughout all the clans of Judah."

²⁴So they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. But David and his men were in the Wilderness of Maon, in the desert south of Jeshimon. ²⁵Saul and his men went to seek him, but they told David. Therefore he came down to the Rock, and lived in the Wilderness of Maon. And when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the Wilderness of Maon.

²⁶Saul went on this side of the mountain and David and his men on that side of the mountain. And David hurried to get away from Saul. Now Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to capture them. ²⁷But a messenger came to Saul saying, "Hurry and go! For the Philistines have invaded the land." ²⁸So Saul returned from pursuing after David, and he went against the Philistines. Therefore they called that place the Rock of Escape. ²⁹David then went up from there and lived in the strongholds of En Gedi.

David Spares Saul's Life

24 When Saul had returned from following the Philistines, it was reported to him, saying, "David is in the Wilderness of En Gedi." ²Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel and went to seek David and his men in front of the rocks of the wild goats.

³He came to the sheep pens by the way and a cave was there. And Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were sitting in the rear of the cave. ⁴The men of David said to him, "This is the day of which the LORD said to you, 'I am giving your enemy into your hand. You may do with him as seems good in your eyes.'" Then David arose and secretly cut off the corner of Saul's robe.

⁵Afterward David's heart troubled him because he had cut off a corner of Saul's robe. ⁶He said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD's anointed, to stretch out my hand against him. For he is anointed of the LORD." ⁷So David dispersed his men by these words and did not let them rise against Saul. And Saul arose from the cave and went on his way.

⁸David arose afterward and went out from the cave. And he called after Saul saying, "My lord the king!" And when Saul looked behind him, David had bowed down with his face to the ground and paid homage. ⁹David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of men saying, 'David seeks your harm'?" ¹⁰This day you have seen with your own eyes that the LORD delivered you today into my hand in the cave. So that some said to kill you, but my eye had compassion on you. And I said, 'I will not put forth my hand against my lord, for he is anointed of the LORD.' ¹¹See, my father! Look at the corner of your robe in my hand. Indeed, I cut off the corner of your robe, but I did not kill you. Observe and see that there is no evil or rebellion in my hand. I have not sinned against you, but you are lying in wait for my life to take it. ¹² The LORD will judge between me and you, and the LORD will avenge me on you, but my hand will not be against you. ¹³ As the proverb of the ancients says, 'From the wicked comes forth wickedness,' but my hand will not be against you.

¹⁴ "After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom are you pursuing? After a dead dog? A single flea? ¹⁵ May the LORD be judge, and decide between me and you. And may He see and plead my case, and deliver me out of your hand."

¹⁶ When David finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And Saul lifted up his voice and wept. ¹⁷ And he said to David, "You are more righteous than I. For you have rewarded me with good, while I have rewarded you with evil. ¹⁸ And you have shown today that you have dealt well with me, when the LORD delivered me into your hand and you did not kill me. ¹⁹ For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him safely go away? Therefore may the LORD reward you well for what you have done for me this day. ²⁰ Now, listen, I know that you will surely be king and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hand. ²¹ Therefore swear to me now by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants after me and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's household."

²² So David swore to Saul and Saul went home. But David and his men went up to the stronghold.

Death of Samuel

25 Now Samuel died. And all the children of Israel gathered together and mourned him, and they buried him at his home in Ramah. Then David arose and went down to the Wilderness of Paran.

David, Nabal, and Abigail

² Now there was a man in Maon whose work was in Carmel. He was a rich man with three thousand sheep and a thousand goats, and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. ³ The man's name was Nabal and the name of his wife Abigail. She was a woman of good understanding and beautiful, but the man was harsh and evil in his actions and he was a Calebite.

⁴ David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. ⁵ So David sent out ten young men, and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal and greet him in my name. ⁶ And thus you will say to him who lives in prosperity, 'Peace be to you and peace to your house, and to all that you have, peace.'

⁷ "I have heard that you have shearers. Now your shepherds were with us. We did not harm them nor did they miss anything all the days they were in Carmel. ⁸ Ask your young men and they will tell you.

Therefore let my young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come on a good day. Please give whatever you find at hand to your servants, and to your son David."

⁹ When David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David, then they waited.

¹⁰ And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, "Who is David? And who is the son of Jesse? Today many servants are breaking away each one from his master. ¹¹ Should I then take my bread, and my water, and my meat, that which I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men whose origins are unknown?"

¹⁵ But the men were very good to us, and we were not harmed, nor did we miss anything, all the days we went about with them in the field. ¹⁶ They were a wall to us both by night and day, all the days we were with them keeping the flocks. ¹⁷ Now therefore know and consider what you will do, for evil is determined against our master and against all his household. He is such a worthless man that one cannot speak to him."

¹⁸ Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves, two bottles of wine, five prepared sheep, five measures [†] of roasted grain, a hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and she loaded them on donkeys. ¹⁹ And she said to her servants, "Go on before me. See, I will be coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

²⁰ And as she was riding on the donkey and going down into the cover of the mountain, David and his men were coming down to meet her and she met them. ²¹ Now David had said, "Surely in vain have I guarded all that this man has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him. And he has returned me evil for good. ²² So may God do unto the enemies of David and more also, if by morning I leave even one male of all who belong to him."

²³ When Abigail saw David, she hurriedly got down from the donkey and fell before David upon her face. And she bowed herself to the ground. ²⁴ So she fell at his feet and said, "Against me alone, my lord, is the guilt. Please let your handmaid speak in your ears, and hear the words of your handmaid. ²⁵ Please do not let my lord set his heart against this worthless man, against Nabal. For as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name and folly is with him. But I, your handmaid, did not see the young men of my lord, whom you sent.

²⁶ Now my lord, as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, because the LORD has restrained you from coming in bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now let your enemies, and those seeking to do evil to my lord, be as Nabal. ²⁷ Now let this blessing which your maidservant has brought to my lord be given to the young men who follow my lord. ²⁸ "Please forgive the transgression of your handmaid, for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fights the battles of the LORD, and evil will not be found in you all your days. ²⁹ Even if a man rises to pursue you and to seek your life, the life of my lord will be bound in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God. But the lives of your enemies He will sling out, as from the hollow of a sling. ³⁰ It will be, when the LORD does for my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you and has appointed you ruler over Israel, ³¹ that this will be no grief to you, nor an offense of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. But when the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your handmaid."

³² David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD, God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me. ³³ And blessed is your discretion, and blessed are you who have kept me this day from coming to shed blood and from avenging myself with my own hand. ³⁴ For as the LORD, the God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from injuring you, if you had not hurried to come and meet me, surely there would not have been left even one male to Nabal by the morning light."

³⁵ So David received from her hand what she had brought him and said to her, "Go up in peace to your house. See, I have obeyed your voice, and have granted your request."

³⁶ Abigail came to Nabal, and he was feasting in his house, like the feast of a king. And Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunk. Therefore she told him nothing until the morning light. ³⁷ But in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wife told him these things. And his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. ³⁸ And about ten days after that, the LORD struck Nabal and he died.

³⁹ When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed is the LORD, who has defended the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept His servant from evil. For the LORD has returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head."

And David sent and spoke with Abigail, to take her as his wife. ⁴⁰ When the servants of David came to Abigail at Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, "David has sent us to you to take you as his wife."

⁴¹ She arose, and bowed herself on her face to the ground, and said, "Here is your handmaid, a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord." ⁴² Abigail hurriedly arose and rode on a donkey with her five young women who attended her. And she went after the messengers of David and became his wife. ⁴³ David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel. So both of them were his wives. ⁴⁴ But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Paltiel the son of Laish who was from Gallim.

David Again Spares Saul's Life

26 Then the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah, saying, "Is David not hiding himself on the hill of Hakilah, which is before Jeshimon?"

² Then Saul arose and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the Wilderness of Ziph.

⁵ So David arose and came to the place where Saul had camped. And David saw the place where Saul was lying down and Abner son of Ner, the commander of his army. Saul was lying down in the encampment, while the people encamped around him.

⁶ Then David answered and said to Ahimelek the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruah, brother of Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp?"

And Abishai said, "I will go down with you."

⁷ So David and Abishai came to the people by night while Saul lay sleeping within the circle of the camp. And his spear was stuck in the ground at his head, and Abner and the people were lying all around him.

⁸ Then Abishai said to David, "God has today delivered your enemy into your hand. Now please let me strike him with the spear through to the ground with one stroke, and I will not strike him a second time."

⁹ David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him. For who can stretch out his hand against the LORD's anointed and remain unpunished?" ¹⁰ David said, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will strike him, or his day will come to die, or he will go down into battle and perish. ¹¹ The LORD forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the LORD's anointed, but now please take the spear that is at his head and the jug of water, and let us go."

¹² So David took the spear and the jug of water from Saul's head and they went away. No one saw, no one knew, and no one awoke, for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen upon them.

¹³ Then David went over to the other side and stood on the top of a hill at a distance. A great space was between them. ¹⁴ And David called to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Will you not answer, Abner?"

Then Abner answered and said, "Who are you that calls to the king?"

¹⁵ And David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? And who is like to you in Israel? Why then have you not guarded your lord the king? For one of the people came in to destroy the king your lord. ¹⁶ This thing is not good which you have done. As the LORD lives, you are worthy of death because you have not guarded your master, the LORD's anointed. And now, see where is the king's spear? And the jug of water that was at his head?"

¹⁷ Saul knew David's voice, and said, "Is this your voice, my son David?"

And David said, "It is my voice, my lord king." ¹⁸ He said, "Why is my lord pursuing after his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand? ¹⁹ Now please let my lord king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD has stirred you up against me, let Him accept an offering. But if it was the sons of men, cursed are they before the LORD. For they have driven me today from having a share in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.' ²⁰ Now do not let my blood fall to the ground away from the presence of the LORD. Truly the king of Israel has come out to seek a single flea, as when one pursues a partridge in the mountains."

²¹ Then said Saul, "I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will not harm you again, because my soul was precious in your eyes this day. I have acted foolishly and have seriously gone astray."

²² David answered and said, "See, the king's spear! Let one of the young men come over and get it. ²³ The LORD requites to every man his right conduct and loyalty. So the LORD gave you into my hand today, but I am not willing to stretch my hand against the LORD's anointed. ²⁴ As your life was highly valued in my eyes this day, so may my life be highly valued in the eyes of the LORD, and may He rescue me out of all distress."

²⁵ Then Saul said to David, "Blessed are you, my son David. You will do great things, and will surely prevail."

So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

David With the Philistines

27 Then David said in his heart, "Now I will perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will despair of continually seeking me within all the territory of Israel. So will I escape out of his hand."

² David arose and passed over with the six hundred men that were with him to Achish, the son of Maok, king of Gath. ³ And David lived with Achish at Gath, he and his men, each man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's widow. ⁴ It was reported to Saul that David had fled to Gath, so he no longer sought him.

⁵ David said to Achish, "If I have now found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the countryside, that I may dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?"

⁶ Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day. Therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

⁷ The number of days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

⁸ David and his men went up and invaded the Geshurites, the Girzites, and the Amalekites. For they were inhabitants of the land from of old, as you come to Shur, even to the land of Egypt. ⁹ So David would strike the land and would not leave either man or woman alive. And he would take the sheep, the cattle, the donkeys, the camels, and the garments. And then he came back to Achish.

¹⁰ Then Achish would say, "Where have you made a raid today?" And David would say, "Against the Negev of Judah," or "Against the Negev of the Jerahmeelites," or "Against the Negev of the Kenites." ¹¹ Now David would leave neither a man nor a woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, "Lest they should tell on us, saying, 'Thus David has done.'" This was his practice all the days which he lived in the country of the Philistines. ¹² And Achish believed David, saying, "He has surely become a stench to his people Israel. Therefore he will be my servant forever."

28 And it came about in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for war to fight with Israel. And Achish said to David, "Know assuredly that you will go out with me to battle, you and your men."

² David said to Achish, "Surely you will know what your servant can do."

And Achish said to David, "Therefore I will appoint you my bodyguard for life."

The Medium of Endor

³ Now Samuel died and all Israel mourned him, and they buried him in Ramah, his own city. And Saul had removed the mediums and the necromancers from the land.

⁴ Then the Philistines gathered themselves together. And they came and camped in Shunem. So Saul gathered all Israel together, and they camped in Gilboa.

⁵ When Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, he was afraid and his heart trembled greatly. ⁶ Saul inquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him by dreams, or by lots, or by prophets. ⁷ Then said Saul to his servants, "Seek for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her."

And his servants said to him, "There is woman medium in Endor."

⁸ So Saul disguised himself, put on other clothes, and he went with two of his men. And they came to the woman by night and he said, "Please divine for me by a spirit, and bring up for me whom I will name to you."

⁹ The woman said to him, "Listen, you know what Saul has done, how he has eliminated the mediums and necromancers from the land. Now why are you laying a trap for my life to cause my death?"

¹⁰ Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, no punishment will happen to you for this thing."

¹¹ Then said the woman, "Whom shall I bring up for you?"

And he said, "Bring up Samuel for me."

¹² When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul."

¹³ The king said to her, "Do not be afraid. What did you see?"

And the woman said to Saul, "I saw a divine being ascending out of the earth."

¹⁴ He said to her, "What is his appearance?"

And she said, "An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a robe."

And Saul perceived that it was Samuel. And he kneeled with his face to the ground and bowed himself.

¹⁵ Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you roused me to bring me up?"

And Saul answered, "I am greatly distressed, for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me and does not answer me any longer by prophets or by dreams. Therefore I have called you that you might make known to me what I should do."

¹⁶ Then said Samuel, "Why then do you ask me, since the LORD has departed from you and has become your enemy? ¹⁷ The LORD has done for Himself as He spoke by me. The LORD has torn the kingdom from your hand and has given it to your neighbor, David.

¹⁸ As you did not obey the voice of the LORD and did not carry out His fierce wrath against Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day.

¹⁹ And moreover, the LORD will deliver Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also deliver the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."

²⁰ Saul immediately fell full length upon the ground because he greatly feared the words of Samuel. Also there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no bread all day and all night.

²¹ The woman came to Saul and saw that he was terrified. And she said to him, "Listen, your handmaid has obeyed your voice. I have taken my life in my hand and have listened to your words which you spoke to me. ²² Now therefore you also, please obey the voice of your maidservant and let me set before you a piece of bread, and eat so that you may have strength when you go on your way."

²³ But he refused and said, "I will not eat."

But his servants, and also the woman, urged him and he listened to them. So he arose from the ground and sat on the bed.

²⁴ Now the woman had a fattened calf in the house, and she hurried and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it.

²⁵ She brought it before Saul and his servants, and they ate. Then they arose and went away that night.

Philistines Reject David

29 Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek, and the children of Israel were camping by the spring which is in Jezreel. ² The lords of the Philistines were advancing by hundreds and by thousands, and David and his men were advancing in the rear with Achish. ³ Then the princes of the Philistines said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?"

And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, "Is this not David, the servant of Saul, king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or rather these years? And I have found no fault in him since the day of his desertion to this day."

⁴ But the princes of the Philistines became angry with him. And the princes of the Philistines said to him, "Make this man return and let him go again to his place which you have appointed him. He will not go down with us in battle, lest he might be an adversary to us in the battle. For with what could he make himself acceptable to his master, if not with the heads of these men? ⁵ Is this not David, whom they sing for in dances saying,

'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?'"

⁶ Then Achish called David and said to him, "As the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the camp has been pleasing in my sight. For I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me to this day. However, you are not acceptable in the eyes of the lords. ⁷ Therefore now, return and go in peace, that you do not displease the lords of the Philistines."

⁸ David said to Achish, "But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant, from the day which I came before you to this day, that I may not come and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

⁹ And Achish answered and said to David, "I know that you are pleasing in my sight like an angel of God. However the lords of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us in battle.' ¹⁰ Therefore rise up early in the morning with your master's servants who have come with you. And when you have risen early in the morning and it is light, then depart."

¹¹ So David and his men rose early to depart in the morning and return to the land of the Philistines. But the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

David Defeats the Amalekites

30 Now when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had raided the south as far as Ziklag. They had struck Ziklag and burned it with fire. ² They had taken as captives all the women who were there. They did not kill anyone, but carried them off and went on their way.

³ David and his men came to the city, and they found it burned with fire, and their wives, their sons, and their daughters taken captive. ⁴ So David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept until they had no strength in them to weep. ⁵ Now David's two wives were taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. ⁶ David was greatly distressed, for the people talked of stoning him, because all the people were bitter in spirit, each over his sons and daughters. But David encouraged himself in the LORD his God.

⁷ And David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelek, "Please bring the ephod to me." So Abiathar brought the ephod to David. ⁸ David inquired at the LORD, saying, "Should I pursue after this raiding party? Will I overtake them?"

And He answered him, "Pursue them, for you will surely overtake them and will surely recover all."

⁹ So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him. And they came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind remained. ¹⁰ But David pursued, he and four hundred men, for two hundred who were too exhausted to cross over the brook Besor remained behind.

¹¹ They found an Egyptian in the field and took him to David. He gave him bread and he ate, and they made him drink water. ¹² And they gave him a part of a cake of figs and two cakes of raisins. When he had eaten, his spirit came back to him, for he had not eaten bread or drunk any water for three days and nights.

¹³ Then David said to him, "To whom do you belong? And where are you from?"

And he said, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite. And my master left me, because three days ago I fell sick. ¹⁴ We raided the south of the Kerethites, the south of Judah, and the south of Caleb. And we burned Ziklag with fire."

¹⁵ David said to him, "Will you bring me down to this raiding party?"

And he said, "Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hand of my master, and I will bring you down to this raiding party."

¹⁶ When he brought him down, they were spread out over all the land, eating, drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil which they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah. ¹⁷ David struck them from twilight until the evening of the next day, and no man escaped except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled. ¹⁸ So David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and David rescued his two wives. ¹⁹ Now there was nothing missing, from the smallest thing to the greatest, neither sons, nor daughters, or plunder, or anything which they had taken. David brought back all of it.

²⁰ And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before the other livestock. And they said, "This is David's spoil."

²¹ Then David came to the two hundred men, who were too exhausted to follow David, whom they left at the brook Besor. And they went out to meet David and the people who were with him. And when David came near to the people, he greeted them. ²² Then all the wicked and worthless ones from the men who went with David answered and said, "Because they did not go with us, we will not give them anything from the spoil that we have rescued, except to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away and depart."

²³ Then David said, "You will not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us, for He has preserved us, and has delivered into our hand the raiding party that came against us. ²⁴ And who will listen to you in this matter? Indeed as the share is of the one going down to battle, so will be the share of the one staying with the equipment. They will share equally."

²⁵ So it was so from that day forward, that he set it as a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

²⁶ When David came to Ziklag, he sent part of the spoil to his friends, the elders of Judah, saying, "Here is a gift to you from the spoil of the enemies of the LORD": ²⁷ to those who were in Bethel, in Ramoth of the Negev, and in Jattir; ²⁸ to those who were in Aroer, Siphmoth, Eshtemoa, ²⁹ and in Rakal; to those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites and the Kenites; ³⁰ to those who were in Hormah, Bor Ashan, Athak ³¹ and in Hebron; and to those who were in all the other places where David and his men had roamed.

The House of Saul, Dead and Buried

2Sa 1:4-12; 1Ch 10:1-12

31 Now the Philistines were fighting against Israel, and Israel's fighting men fled before the Philistines and they fell slain on Mount Gilboa. ² The Philistines overtook Saul and his sons. And the Philistines killed his sons, Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malki-Shua, Saul's sons. ³ The battle was heavy against Saul. The archers found him, and he was severely wounded by the archers.

⁴ Then Saul said to his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through and abuse me."

But his armor bearer would not, for he was very afraid. Therefore Saul took his sword and fell upon it. ⁵ When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell upon his sword and died with him. ⁶ So Saul died with his three sons and his armor bearer, together with all his men on that same day.

⁷ When Israel's fighting men who were on the other side of the valley, and those who were on the other side of the Jordan, saw that Israel's fighting men fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the cities and fled. So the Philistines came and lived in them.

⁸The following day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹They cut off his head, stripped off his armor, and sent them into the land of the Philistines round about, to make it known in the house of their idols and among their people. ¹⁰They put his armor in the house of Ashtoreth, and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan.

¹¹When the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²all the valiant men arose and went all night, and they took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan, and they came to Jabesh and burned them there. ¹³Then they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and they mourned, fasting seven days.

2 SAMUEL

The second book of Samuel was likely written sometime after 960 BC. Jewish tradition points to Samuel as the author. The theme is David's reign as king, and it covers a period of forty years, about 1010 to 970 BC. David's military victories are recounted as well as his sin with Bathsheba. These stories present the picture of an imperfect man who, nevertheless, is said to have "a heart after God." Though David sinned, he came under conviction and sought God's forgiveness. During his reign, Israel's borders were extended roughly from Egypt to the Euphrates River, fulfilling God's promise to Abraham.

The Death of Saul

1 After the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, David had remained two days in Ziklag. 2 On the third day, a man came from the camp of Saul with his clothes torn and dirt upon his head. As he approached David, he fell to the ground prostrate.

3 David asked him, "Where have you come from?"

He responded, "I fled from the camp of Israel."

4 David said to him, "Tell me, what is the report?"

So he reported, "The people fled from battle. Many of the people have fallen and died; even Saul and his son Jonathan are dead."

5 Then David asked the young man who was reporting to him, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

6 The young man who was reporting to him answered, "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa when, in front of me, Saul was leaning on his spear with the chariots and horsemen drawing close. 7 When he turned around, he noticed me. He summoned me, and I responded, 'Here I am.'

8 "He asked me, 'Who are you?'

"I answered, 'I am an Amalekite.'

9 "Then he said to me, 'Stand over me and kill me, for I have been mortally wounded, yet I am still alive.'

10 "So I stood beside him and killed him because I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. Then I took the crown that was on his head and the armlet that was on his arm, and I have brought them here to my lord."

11 Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them, as did all of the men who were with him. 12 They mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Saul, Jonathan his son, the people of the LORD, and the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

13 Then David asked the young man who was reporting to him, "Where are you from?"

He responded, "I am the son of one who sought refuge, an Amalekite."

14 David said to him, "How is it that you did not fear raising your hand to destroy the anointed of the LORD?"

15 Then David called to one of the young men and said, "Step forward and execute him." So he struck him and killed him. 16 But David said to him, "Your blood is upon your own head, since your mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I put an end to the anointed of the LORD.'"

The Lament of David

17 Then David recited this lament over Saul and Jonathan his son, 18 and he told them to teach the sons of Judah the Song of the Bow. It is written in the book of Jashar:

19 Your splendor, O Israel, has been slain upon your hills.

How the mighty ones have fallen.

20 Do not report it in Gath, do not announce it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, or the daughters of the uncircumcised exult.

21 O mountains of Gilboa, may there be no rain or dew upon you or your bountiful fields;

for there the shield of the mighty was defiled!

The shield of Saul is no longer anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain,

from the fat of mighty,

the bow of Jonathan did not turn back,

nor did the sword of Saul return empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan, beloved and delightful,

neither in life nor death will they be separated.

They were swifter than eagles,

they were stronger than lions.

24 O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet and jewels,

who adorned your garments with gold jewelry.

25 How the mighty ones have fallen in the midst of battle!

Jonathan was slain on your high places.

²⁶ I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan; you were very dear to me; your love was more remarkable than the love of women.

²⁷ How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war have perished.

David Anointed King Over Judah

2 After this, David consulted the LORD, asking, "Shall I go to one of the cities of Judah?" The LORD responded to him, "Go up." David asked, "Where should I go?" And He said, "Hebron."

² So David went up there, along with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite. ³ And David brought the men who were with him, each man with his household, and they lived in the cities of Hebron. ⁴ Then the men of Judah came and there anointed David as king over the house of Judah, and they informed David that it was the men of Jabesh Gilead who had buried Saul.

⁵ So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead saying, "May you be blessed by the LORD, you who have shown this loyalty to your lord Saul by burying him. ⁶ Now may the LORD show you loyalty and faithfulness, even as I deal kindly with you who have done this thing. ⁷ Now may your hands be strong and may you be courageous, since your lord Saul is dead and the house of Judah has anointed me as king over them."

War Between the Houses of David and Saul

1Ch 3:1-4

⁸ However, Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Saul, had taken Ish-Bosheth the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim. ⁹ He installed him as king over Gilead, the Ashurites, Jezreel, Ephraim, and Benjamin, over Israel in its entirety.

¹⁰ Ish-Bosheth the son of Saul was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he ruled for two years. However, the house of Judah followed David. ¹¹ The length of time during which David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

¹² Abner the son of Ner, with the servants of Ish-Bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim toward Gibeon. ¹³ And Joab the son of Zeruiah, with the servants of David, went out in order to meet together at the pool of Gibeon. They sat down, one group on one side of the pool and the other group on the side of the pool opposite them.

¹⁴ Abner suggested to Joab, "Let the young men come forward and compete before us."

And Joab replied, "Let them come."

¹⁵ So they stepped forward and were counted, twelve from Benjamin and Ish-Bosheth and twelve from the servants of David. ¹⁶ Each one grabbed his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together. Therefore that place was called Helkath Hazzurim, which is at Gibeon.

¹⁷ The fighting was very fierce that day, but Abner and the men of Israel were defeated by the servants of David.

¹⁸ Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel; and Asahel was as fast as a wild gazelle. ¹⁹ So Asahel pursued Abner, and as he went, he did not turn to the right hand or to the left from following Abner. ²⁰ Abner looked behind him and said, "Is that you, Asahel?"

He answered, "It is I."

²¹ Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right or left, overtake one of the young men, and take his equipment for yourself," but Asahel was not willing to desist.

²² Abner continued still to reason with Asahel, "Abandon your pursuit. Why should I strike you down? How then could I show my face to your brother Joab?"

²³ But he refused to desist. So Abner struck him in the abdomen with the butt of his spear, so that the spear came out of his back. He fell there and died on the spot. When all of the others came to the place where Asahel fell and died, they halted.

²⁵ The sons of Benjamin gathered to the rear of Abner into a single formation, and they took their stand atop one of the hills.

²⁶ Abner called to Joab, "Must the sword consume forever? Do you not understand that a bitter taste will result in the end? How long will you refuse to command the people to withdraw from chasing their brothers?"

²⁷ Joab responded, "As God lives, I assure you that if you had not said this, the people would have each pursued his brother throughout the night."

²⁸ So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still. They pursued Israel no longer, nor did they continue to fight anymore.

²⁹ So Abner and his men traveled through the Arabah all that night, crossed the Jordan, and marched all morning until they returned to Mahanaim.

³⁰ Joab refrained from pursuing Abner, but instead mustered all of the people. There were nineteen men besides Asahel missing from among the servants of David. ³¹ But the servants of David routed Benjamin and the men of Abner; three hundred and sixty of their men died. ³² They carried Asahel back and interred him in his father's tomb, which was at Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men traveled throughout the night and reached Hebron at dawn.

3 The struggle between the house of Saul and the house of David endured, but David grew stronger as Saul became weaker.

² Sons were born to David in Hebron:

his firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

³ and his second, Kileab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal, the Carmelite;

and the third, Absalom the son of Maakah the daughter of Talmi, the king of Geshur;

⁴ and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

⁵ and the sixth, Ithream, was born to Eglah, the wife of David.

These were born to David in Hebron.

Abner Defects to David

⁶ While there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner was strengthening himself in the house of Saul. ⁷ Now Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, and Ish-Bosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"

⁸ Abner became very angry over the words of Ish-Bosheth. He said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Each day I show loyalty to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends by not allowing you to fall into the hand of David. Yet today you are charging me with guilt concerning this woman. ⁹ May God do so to Abner, and more also, for as the LORD has sworn to David, this I will do for him, ¹⁰ to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and to establish the throne of David over Israel and Judah, from Dan to Beersheba." ¹¹ And he could not offer a response to Abner, for fear of him.

¹² So Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf saying, "To whom does the land belong? Make your covenant with me, and my hand will be with you to bring over all of Israel to you."

¹³ He responded, "Very well, I will make a covenant with you, but I require one thing from you: you will not see my face unless you bring Michal the daughter of Saul with you when you come to see me." ¹⁴ Then David sent messengers to Ish-Bosheth the son of Saul, saying, "Give me my wife Michal, to whom I was betrothed for one hundred Philistine foreskins."

¹⁷ Abner had a word with the elders of Israel, "In days past, you were seeking David as king over you. ¹⁸ So do it now, because the LORD said to David: By the hand of David, I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of every enemy."

¹⁹ Abner also spoke privately with Benjamin. Then Abner went to tell David privately at Hebron all that was received favorably by Israel and the entire house of Benjamin. ²⁰ So Abner, along with twenty men, went to David at Hebron, and David held a festival for Abner and the men who were with him. ²¹ Abner said to David, "Let me arise, go, and gather all Israel to my lord the king, so that they may make a covenant with you, that you may rule over all that your heart desires." So David sent Abner away, and he went peaceably.

Joab Murders Abner

²² Now the servants of David and Joab came from a raid and brought much plunder with them, but Abner was no longer with David at Hebron, because he had sent him away in peace. ²³ When Joab and the whole of the army that was with him arrived, they reported to Joab, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king and he sent him away peaceably."

²⁴ So Joab went to the king and said, "What have you done? Abner came to you. Why is it that you sent him away? Now he is long gone. ²⁵ You know that Abner the son of Ner came to deceive you, to learn of your coming and going, to discern all that you are doing."

²⁶ When Joab left David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah. However, David was not aware of this. ²⁷ So Abner returned to Hebron, and Joab pulled him aside in the gateway so as to speak with him undisturbed. There he struck him in the midsection so that he died on account of the blood of Asahel, his brother.

²⁸ Afterward when David heard of this, he said, "My kingdom and I are forever blameless before the LORD for the blood of Abner the son of Ner. ²⁹ May it fall upon the head of Joab and upon all his father's house. May the house of Joab never be without one who has a discharge, or who is a leper, or who leans on a staff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks food."

³⁰ So Joab and his brother Abishai killed Abner, because he killed Asahel their brother at Gibeon in the battle.

³³ Then, the king lamented for Abner, saying, "Should Abner have died as a fool dies?"

³⁴ Your hands were not bound, and your feet were not put in fetters; as a man falls before the wicked, so you have fallen." And all of the people continued to weep over him.

³⁵ Then all of the people came to persuade David to eat food while it was still day. But David took an oath, saying, "May God do to me, and more also, if I taste food or anything else before the sun sets."

³⁶ All of the people recognized this, and it pleased them, as everything that the king did was pleasing to all of the people. ³⁷ That very day, all of the people, all of Israel, understood that it was not ordered from the king to have Abner the son of Ner killed.

³⁸ David said to his servant, "Do you not understand that a great leader has fallen this day in Israel? ³⁹ Today, I am weak, even if an anointed king, and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too strong for me. May the LORD repay the evildoer according to his wickedness."

Ish-Bosheth Murdered

4 When the son of Saul heard that Abner had died in Hebron, his courage failed, and all of Israel was disheartened. ² Now the son of Saul had two men who were leaders of raiding bands. The name of one was Baanah and the name of the other Rekab, both sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, from among the sons of Benjamin. Now Beeroth is also regarded as part of Benjamin, ³ because the Beerothites fled to Gittaim and have been sojourners there until this day.

⁴ Now Jonathan the son of Saul had a son with crippled feet. He was five years old when the report of Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled, but in her haste to escape, he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.

⁵ The sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rekab and Baanah, went out and came to the house of Ish-Bosheth in the heat of the day, as he was resting in his bed at midday. ⁶ They entered the house as if to get wheat and stabbed him in the abdomen. Then Rekab and his brother Baanah fled to safety.

⁹ David answered Rekab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, "As the LORD, who has delivered my life from every distress, lives, ¹⁰ when one reported to me that Saul was dead, although he was a bearer of good news in his own eyes, I seized him and killed him at Ziklag, which was my reward for his message. ¹¹ How much more so, when guilty men have slain an innocent man in his own house on his own bed, should I not now require his blood from your hand and wipe you from the earth?"

¹² David then gave orders to the young men. They killed them, cut off their hands and feet, and hung them at the pool in Hebron, but they took the head of Ish-Bosheth and buried it in the grave of Abner at Hebron.

David Anointed King Over Israel

1Ch 11:1-3

5 All of the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, "We are your bone and flesh. ² Previously, when Saul was king over us, you were the one leading Israel out and in. Also, the LORD said to you: You will shepherd My people Israel, and you will be ruler over Israel."

³ So all of the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them before the LORD at Hebron. They anointed David king over Israel.

⁴ David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. ⁵ He reigned over Judah from Hebron for seven years and six months, and he reigned over all of Israel and Judah from Jerusalem for thirty-three years.

David Conquers Jerusalem

⁶ The king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, who were living in the land. They said to David, "You will not enter here; even the blind and the lame will turn you away"—thinking, "David cannot enter here." ⁷ Nevertheless, David overthrew the stronghold of Zion, which is now the City of David.

⁸ David said on that day, "Whoever defeats the Jebusites, let him go through the water shaft to reach the lame and the blind, who are despised by David." Therefore, it is said, "The blind and lame shall not come into the house."

⁹ So David occupied the stronghold, and he called it the City of David. He built on all sides from the terraces inward. ¹⁰ David went on and became great, because the LORD, the God of Hosts, was with him.

¹¹ King Hiram of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar wood, carpenters, and stonemasons, and they built a house for David. ¹² Then David understood that the LORD had appointed him king over Israel, and that He had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

¹³ David took more concubines and wives in Jerusalem, after having come from Hebron, and they bore him more sons and daughters. ¹⁴ These are the names of the children born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ¹⁵ Ithar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, ¹⁶ Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

David Defeats the Philistines

1Ch 14:8-17

¹⁷ When the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all of the Philistines went up to search for David, but David heard about this and went down to the stronghold. ¹⁸ Now the Philistines had come and were spread out in the Valley of Rephaim.

¹⁹ So David asked the LORD, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them into my hand?"

The LORD said to David, "Go up, because I will certainly give them into your hand."

²⁰ So David came to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there. He said, "The LORD has breached my enemies before me like bursting tides." Therefore, he named that place Baal Perazim. ²¹ The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them away.

²² Once again, the Philistines went up and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim. ²³ When David inquired of the LORD, He said, "You shall not go up. Circle around behind them and come against them opposite the trees. ²⁴ When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the trees, pay attention, because at that point the LORD is going before you to defeat the army of the Philistines." ²⁵ So David did just as the LORD commanded, and he defeated the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

6 Again David gathered all of the chosen men in Israel, thirty thousand. ² David and all of the people who were with him arose and went from Baalah of Judah to bring up the ark of God, so named for the name of the LORD of Hosts who sits enthroned among the cherubim that are upon it. ³ They loaded the ark of God on a new cart and brought it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio the sons of Abinadab were driving the new cart. ⁴ They brought it with the ark of God from the house of Abinadab on the hill, and Ahio was walking in front of the ark. ⁵ Meanwhile, David and the entire house of Israel were celebrating before the LORD with all sorts of instruments made of fir wood, on harps, on stringed instruments, on tambourines, on sistrums, and on cymbals.

⁶ When they came to the threshing floor of Nakon, Uzzah reached out and took hold of the ark of God, because the oxen had stumbled. ⁷ The LORD became angry against Uzzah, and God struck him down on the spot for his irreverence. He died there beside the ark of God.

⁸ David became angry because of the outburst of the LORD against Uzzah; that place is called Perez Uzzah to this day.

⁹ David feared the LORD that day, and he thought, "How can the ark of the LORD come to me?" ¹⁰ So David did not allow the ark of the LORD to be brought to him in the City of David. Instead, David redirected it to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. ¹¹ The ark of the LORD remained at the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite for three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-Edom and his entire household.

¹² When it was reported to King David, "The LORD has blessed Obed-Edom and everything that belongs to him, for the sake of the ark of God," David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with rejoicing. ¹³ When those who were carrying the ark of the LORD had taken six steps, David would sacrifice an ox and a fattened steer. ¹⁴ David danced before the LORD with all of his might, and he wore a linen ephod. ¹⁵ So David and the whole house of Israel escorted the ark of the LORD with shouting and the sound of the horn.

¹⁶ When the ark of the LORD entered the City of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked down from the window, and upon seeing King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, she thought contemptuously of him in her mind.

¹⁷ They brought the ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent that David had erected for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. ¹⁸ When David had finished offering the burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people before the LORD of Hosts. ¹⁹ He distributed to all of the people, the entire multitude of Israel, both men and women, one bread cake, one date cake, and one raisin cake to each one. Then all of the people left, each to his house.

²¹ Then David responded to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me over your father and over everyone in his household, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel. I was celebrating before the LORD. ²² I will humble myself even more than this and be abased in my own eyes. But by the maidservants, of whom you have spoken, I will be held in honor."

²³ Michal the daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death.

God's Covenant With David

1Ch 17:1-15

7 Now when the king settled into his house and the LORD had given him rest from all of his enemies on all sides, ² the king said to Nathan the prophet, "I am dwelling in a cedar house, but the ark of God is sitting in a tent."

³ Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in your heart because the LORD is with you."

⁴ That night the word of the LORD came to Nathan:

⁵ Go and say to My servant David: Thus says the LORD: Do you intend to build a house for Me in which I will dwell? ⁶ I have not dwelt in a house since the day I brought the sons of Israel from Egypt until this day. I have been moving about with a tent as My dwelling.

⁷ Wherever I have moved with all the sons of Israel, have I ever spoken a word to anyone from the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, "Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?"

have gone, and I have cut off all of your enemies before you. I will make your name great, like the great ones across the land. ¹⁰ Moreover, I will appoint a place for My people Israel. I will plant them, and they will dwell in that very place. They will be restless no longer, and the unjust will no longer oppress them, as in former times, ¹¹ ever since the day in which I appointed judges over My people Israel. I will give you rest from all of your enemies.

The LORD declares to you that He will instead bring about a house for you. ¹² When your days are complete and you lie down with your fathers, I will raise up after you an offspring from your body, and I will establish his rule. ¹³ He will build a house for My name, and I will establish his royal throne forever. ¹⁴ I will be a father to him, and he will be a son to Me. When he goes astray, I will correct him with the rod of men and afflictions of the sons of men. ¹⁵ My commitment will not abandon him, as I removed it from Saul, whom I deposed before you. ¹⁶ Your house and dominion will endure before Me forever, and your throne will be established by the LORD forever.

¹⁷ So Nathan spoke to David in accordance with all of these words and the entirety of this vision.

The Prayer of David

¹⁸ Then King David went in and sat before the LORD. He said,

“Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house that You have brought me this far? ¹⁹ Yet this was comparatively insignificant in Your sight, Lord GOD, for You have also spoken about Your servant’s house into the distant future. Is this Your manner with man, Lord GOD?

²⁰ “What more can David say to You? You know Your servant, Lord GOD. ²¹ Because of Your word, according to Your will, You have done all of this greatness to inform Your servant.

²² “Therefore You are great, LORD God. There is none like You, and there is no God except You, according to everything that we have heard with our ears. ²³ And who is like Your people, like Israel—a single nation in the land, whom God went to redeem as a people for Himself, making a name for Himself by doing great and awesome things for Your land, before Your people whom You redeemed for Yourself from Egypt, a nation and its gods. ²⁴ You established Your people Israel as Your own people forever, and You, LORD, became their God.

²⁵ “Now, LORD God, confirm forever the word that You spoke regarding Your servant and his house and do as You have spoken. ²⁶ May Your name be magnified forever by saying, ‘The LORD of Hosts is God over Israel,’ and may the house of Your servant David be established before You.

²⁷ “For You, O LORD of Hosts, God of Israel, have revealed a word to Your servant, saying, ‘I will build you a house.’ Therefore, Your servant has found the courage to pray this prayer to You. ²⁸ Now, Lord GOD, You are God, and Your words are true. You have spoken this good message to Your servant. ²⁹ Now, be resolved and bless Your servant’s dynastic house, so that it may stand before You forever. You, Lord GOD, have spoken, and with Your blessing, the house of Your servant will be blessed forever.”

David’s Victories

1Ch 18:1–13

8 Afterward, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and David took Metheg Ammah from the hand of the Philistines.

² He also defeated Moab. He measured them with a length of rope, forcing them to lie down on the ground. He measured two lengths of rope to be put to death, but the entirety of one length he allowed to live. So the Moabites became subject to David, bearing tribute.

⁵ The Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, but David defeated twenty-two thousand men of the Arameans. ⁶ David put garrisons in Aram of Damascus; and the Arameans became servants who bore tribute to David. The LORD helped David wherever he went.

⁷ David took the shields of gold that were issued to the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸ From Betah [†] and Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David took great quantities of bronze.

¹³ So David made a name for himself upon his return from defeating eighteen thousand Arameans [‡] in the Valley of Salt.

¹⁴ He set up garrisons in Edom. Throughout all of Edom, he set up garrisons, and all of Edom became subject to David. The LORD helped David wherever he went.

[†] in 1Ch 18:8. ^{††} Possibly a Edom. Cf. 2Sa 8:14, 1Ch 18:11–13, LXX and Syriac mss. See also note for v. 13. [‡] Possibly a Edomites. Cf. 2Sa 8:14, 1Ch 18:11–13, LXX and Syriac mss.

David's Officials

1Ch 18:14-17

¹⁵ David reigned over all of Israel, and he administered fair judgments to all of his people. ¹⁶ Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army. Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was secretary. ¹⁷ Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelek the son of Abiathar were priests. Seraiah was scribe. ¹⁸ Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was in charge of the Kerethites and Pelethites. The sons of David were chief ministers.

David's Kindness to Mephibosheth

9 David said, "Is there still anyone left from the house of Saul to whom I may show kindness on behalf of Jonathan?"

² Now there was a servant from the house of Saul whose name was Ziba. So they summoned him to David. The king said to him, "Are you Ziba?"

He replied, "I am your servant."

³ The king said, "Is there no one else from the house of Saul to whom I may show the kindness of God?"

Ziba responded to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan who is crippled in both feet."

⁴ The king said to him, "Where is he?"

Ziba told the king, "He is at the house of Makir the son of Ammiel at Lo Debar."

⁵ So King David sent for and brought him from the house of Makir the son of Ammiel, from Lo Debar.

⁶ Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul came to David and fell upon his face and bowed down. Then David said, "Mephibosheth," and he responded, "I am your servant."

⁷ David said to him, "Do not be afraid, for I will certainly show you kindness on account of Jonathan, your father. I will return to you every field of Saul, your father, and you will eat at my table perpetually."

⁸ He bowed low and said, "What is your servant that you should be concerned for a dead dog like me?"

⁹ The king summoned Ziba the servant of Saul, and he said to him, "All that belonged to Saul and to all his house, I have given to the son of your master. ¹⁰ You will work the ground for him—you, your sons, and your servants. You will bring in the produce so that the son of your master will have food to eat; but Mephibosheth, the son of your master, will always eat at my table." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

¹¹ Ziba said to the king, "Everything that my lord the king has commanded his servant, your servant will do." So Mephibosheth ate at the table of David like one of the sons of the king.

¹² Now Mephibosheth had a young son whose name was Mika, and all who dwelled in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth. ¹³ So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, because he ate continually at the table of the king. Now he was lame in both of his feet.

David Defeats the Ammonites and Arameans

1Ch 19:1-19

10 After this, the king of the Ammonites died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead. ² David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent a message by way of his servants to comfort him concerning his father, and the servants of David went to the land of the Ammonites.

³ But the Ammonite officials said to Hanun, their lord, "Has David honored your father in your eyes by sending comforters to you? Was it not in an effort to search out the city, to scout it in order to overthrow it, that he sent his servants to you?" ⁴ So Hanun seized the servants of David, shaved half of the beard of each, cut their robes in half so that they were exposed, and sent them away.

⁵ When they reported what had happened to David, he sent messengers to meet them, because the men were severely ashamed. The king instructed them, "Remain at Jericho until your beards have regrown, then return."

⁹ When Joab saw that the battlefronts were both before and behind him, he selected some from the best men in Israel and lined them up opposite Aram. ¹⁰ The remainder of the people he placed under the charge of Abishai his brother, and lined them up opposite the Ammonites. ¹¹ Then he said, "If Aram starts to prevail over me, you shall help me, but if the Ammonites begin to prevail over you, then I will come to help you."

¹² Be strong and let us fight with resolve for the sake of our people and the cities of our God. May the LORD do what seems good to Him."

¹³ Joab advanced the people that were with him to fight against Aram, and they retreated from before him. ¹⁴ When the Ammonites realized that Aram had fled, they retreated from before Abishai and entered the city. Then Joab turned away from fighting against the Ammonites, and he came to Jerusalem.

¹⁵ When Aram saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they assembled together. ¹⁶ Hadadezer sent for and summoned the Arameans who were beyond the River, † and they came to Helam. Shobak the commander of the army of Hadadezer led them.

¹⁷ When David was informed of this, he assembled all of Israel. They crossed over the Jordan and came to Helam. Aram was drawn up in formation opposite David, and they fought against him. ¹⁸ Aram retreated before Israel. David killed seven hundred charioteers, forty thousand horsemen from Aram, and wounded Shobak the commander of the army so that he died there. ¹⁹ When all of the kings who were subject to Hadadezer realized that they were being defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and became subject to them.

From then on, Aram was fearful of further helping the Ammonites.

David and Bathsheba

11 In the spring of the year, the time when the kings go out to battle, David sent out Joab and his officers, all of Israel with him. They brought to ruin the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah, but David remained in Jerusalem.

² One evening when David arose from his bed and was walking on the roof of the king's house, from the roof he saw a woman bathing; and the woman was very beautiful. ³ So, David sent someone to inquire about the woman. And it was asked, "Is this not Bathsheba the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?" ⁴ So David sent messengers, and took her; and she came to him, and he lay with her. When she had purified herself from her uncleanness, she returned to her house. ⁵ The woman conceived. So she sent a message and reported to David, "I am pregnant."

⁶ Then David sent an order to Joab, "Send Uriah the Hittite to me." So, Joab sent Uriah to David. ⁷ When Uriah came to him, David asked about the welfare of Joab, the people, and the fighting. ⁸ Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house. Wash your feet." So Uriah left the house of the king, and a gift from the king followed him. ⁹ But Uriah slept at the entrance of the house of the king with all of the servants of his lord; he did not go down to his house.

¹⁰ When they reported to David, saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Have you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

¹¹ Uriah responded to David, "The ark, Israel, and Judah dwell in makeshift shelters. My lord Joab and the officers of my lord are camping in the open field. But I may enter my house to eat, to drink, and to sleep with my wife? As you live and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing!"

¹² So David said to Uriah, "Remain here another day, and I will send you back tomorrow." Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the following day. ¹³ Now David invited him to eat in his presence, and he drank until he got Uriah drunk. In the evening, he went to lie down in his lodging with the servants of his lord, but he did not go down to his house.

¹⁴ That morning, David wrote a message to Joab and sent it by way of Uriah. ¹⁵ He wrote in the message, "Send Uriah to the front of the line where the fighting is heaviest then withdraw from him, so that he may be struck down and die."

¹⁶ So as Joab was besieging the city, he stationed Uriah in a place where he knew fierce men were. ¹⁷ When the men of the city came out, they fought with Joab, and some people among those who served David fell; Uriah the Hittite died among them.

¹⁸ Joab sent word to inform David of all of the events of the battle. ¹⁹ He instructed the messenger, "When you finish telling the king all the details of the battle, ²⁰ if his anger rises and he says to you, 'Why did you approach so near to the city? Did you not know that they might shoot from the city wall?' ²¹ Who killed Abimelek the son of Jerub-Besheth? Did not a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the city wall so that he died at Thebez? Why did you approach so near to the city wall?' You shall then say, 'Additionally your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.'"

²² So the messenger departed and came to report to David everything that Joab had sent with him. ²³ The messenger reported to David, "The men prevailed over us when they came out against us in the open field, but we drove them back to the entrance of the gate. ²⁴ Then the archers shot at your servants from upon the city wall, and some of those who serve the king are dead. Even your servant Uriah the Hittite died."

²⁵ So David replied to the messenger, "Thus you shall report to Joab, 'Do not allow this thing to dismay you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Sustain your attack against the city and bring it to ruin.' Encourage him with this reply."

²⁶ When the wife of Uriah heard that her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband. ²⁷ When the time of mourning was concluded, David sent for her and brought her to his house. She became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done was displeasing to the LORD.

Nathan Rebukes David

1Ch 20:1-3

12 The LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him and said, "There were two men in a certain city. One was wealthy, but the other was poor. ² The wealthy man had a very large flock and herd, ³ but the poor man had nothing except a single small ewe lamb that he had acquired. He nourished it and raised it together with himself and his sons. From his crumbs, it would eat; from his cup, it would drink; and in his arms it would lie. It was like a daughter to him.

⁴ "There came a visitor to the wealthy man, but he was unwilling to take from his own flock or herd to prepare a meal for the wanderer who had come to him. Instead he took the poor man's ewe lamb and prepared food for the wanderer who had come to him."

⁵ David became very angry because of this man. He said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who did this deserves to die. ⁶ And he shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity."

⁷ Then Nathan told David, "You are this man! Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I anointed you as king over Israel and I rescued you from the hand of Saul. ⁸ I gave to you your master's house and your master's wives into your arms, and I gave to you the house of Israel and Judah. If this were too little, I would have continued to do for you much more. ⁹ Why have you despised the word of the LORD by doing evil in His sight? You struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and you took his wife as a wife for yourself. You killed him with the sword of the Ammonites. ¹⁰ Now the sword will never depart from your house, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.

¹¹ "Thus says the LORD: See, I will raise up trouble against you from within your own house. I will take your wives before your eyes and will give them to your neighbor, and he will lie with your wives in broad daylight. ¹² Although you did it secretly, I will do this thing before all of Israel, and under the sun."

¹³ Then David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD."

Nathan said to David, "Now the LORD has put away your sin; you shall not die. ¹⁴ Nevertheless, because by this deed you have utterly scorned the LORD, the child who is born to you shall die."

¹⁵ Then Nathan went to his house. The LORD struck the child that the wife of Uriah had born for David, and he became sick. ¹⁶ David entreated God on behalf of the child. He fasted for a period, and he would go in and lie throughout the night on the ground. ¹⁷ The elders of his house stood beside him to rouse him from the ground, but he was not willing, nor would he consume food with them.

¹⁸ The child died on the seventh day, and the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child had died. They said, "When the child was alive, we would speak to him, but he would not acknowledge our voices. Now how can we say to him, 'The child is dead'? He may do harm."

¹⁹ When David noticed that his servants were whispering to one another, he perceived that the child was dead. So he asked his servants, "Is the child dead?"

They said, "He is dead."

²⁰ So David arose from the ground, washed, anointed himself, and changed his garments. Then he entered the house of the LORD and worshipped. He then went in to his own house. When he asked, they set down food for him and ate.

²¹ His servants said to him, "What is this thing you have done? You fasted and wept for the sake of the living child, but when the child died, you arose and ate food."

²² He explained, "As long as the child was alive, I fasted and wept because I thought, 'Who knows? The LORD may be gracious to me, so that the child may live.' ²³ But now he is dead. Why should I fast? Am I able to bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me."

The Birth of Solomon

²⁴ Then David comforted Bathsheba, his wife. He went to her and lay with her, so that she conceived a son. They named him Solomon, and the LORD loved him. ²⁵ So He sent a word by way of the prophet Nathan that he should be named Jedidiah for the sake of the LORD.

²⁹ So David gathered all of the people and they went to Rabbah, fought against it, and took it. ³⁰ David took the crown of their king from his head, and its weight was a talent [†] of gold and precious stone. It was placed upon the head of David. He brought out large quantities of plunder from the city. ³¹ He brought out the people who were in it, and he put them to work with saws, and iron picks, and iron axes, and sent them to work in the brick kiln. Thus he did to all of the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and all of the people returned to Jerusalem.

Amnon and Tamar

13 After this, Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister whose name was Tamar, and Amnon the son of David fell in love with her.

² It depressed Amnon to the point of falling ill that Tamar his sister was a virgin, but it was impossible for Amnon to pursue her.

³ Now Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab the son of Shimeah, the brother of David, and Jonadab was a very crafty individual. ⁴ He asked him, "Why are you, the son of the king, so sullen morning after morning? Will you not tell me?"

Amnon told him, "I am in love with Tamar, the sister of Absalom my brother."

⁵ Jonadab instructed him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill. When your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please allow Tamar, my sister, to come and prepare some food for me. She should make the food here, so that when I see it, I may eat it from her hand.'"

⁶ So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, "Please let my sister Tamar come here to make a couple of cakes, so that I may be nourished from her hand."

⁷ Then David sent word to Tamar at the house, "Please go to the house of Amnon your brother, and prepare food for him." ⁸ So Tamar went to the house of Amnon her brother, where he was lying. She took the dough, kneaded it, and made the cakes before him. Then she baked them. ⁹ Then she took the baking tray and served the cakes to him, but he refused to eat.

Amnon said, "Send everyone away." So they all left him. ¹⁰ Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom that I may eat from your hand." So Tamar took the cakes that she had made and brought them in the bedroom to Amnon her brother. ¹¹ When she brought them close for him to eat, he took hold of her and said, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

¹² She pled with him, "No, my brother, do not violate me, for such a thing is not to be done in Israel. Do not carry out this awful thing. ¹³ As for me, where could I escape my disgrace? And you would be like one of the fools in Israel. Now, please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you." ¹⁴ But he refused to listen to her. So, being stronger than her, he overpowered her and lay with her.

¹⁵ Then Amnon hated her greatly, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Get up, go away."

¹⁶ She said to him, "No, because this great offense of dismissing me is worse than the other which you did to me."

But he refused to listen to her. ¹⁷ He called his personal servant and said, "Send this woman out from me, and secure the door behind her." ¹⁸ Now she was wearing a long robe, because the virgin daughters of the king were clothed in such garments. So his servant put her out and secured the door behind her. ¹⁹ So Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the long robe that she was wearing. She put her hand on her head and left, wailing as she went.

²⁰ Absalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? Keep silent for now, my sister. He is your brother. Do not take this thing to heart." So Tamar stayed in the house of Absalom, her brother, a desolate woman.

²¹ When King David heard about these things, he was very angry. ²² And Absalom would not speak with Amnon, either pleasantly or angrily; but Absalom hated Amnon because he had raped his sister Tamar.

Absalom Kills Amnon

²³ Two full years later, the sheepshearers of Absalom were in Baal Hazor, near Ephraim, and Absalom invited all of the sons of the king. ²⁴ Then Absalom came to the king and requested, "Your servant has sheepshearers; will the king and his servants kindly go with your servant?"

²⁵ The king said to Absalom, "No, my son, we must not all go or we will be a burden to you." When he urged him, he refused to go, but gave him his blessing.

²⁶ Absalom said, "If not, allow my brother Amnon to go with us."

But the king replied to him, "Why should he go with you?" ²⁷ But Absalom urged him until he sent Amnon and all of the king's sons along with him.

²⁸ Now, Absalom had commanded his servant, "Look for Amnon to become carefree on account of the wine. Then I will say to you, 'Strike Amnon, and kill him.' Do not be afraid, for am not I myself commanding you? Be strong and brave." ²⁹ So, the servants of Absalom did to Amnon that which Absalom had commanded. Then the sons of the king arose, each mounting his mule, and fled.

³² But Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, said, "My lord should not think that they have killed all of the servants who are the king's sons. Amnon alone is dead, for this has been determined from the day he raped Tamar, his sister, by the very declaration of Absalom. ³³ Now, my lord the king should not take this matter to heart, thinking that all of the king's sons are dead. Instead Amnon alone is dead."

³⁴ Absalom fled.

Now when the servant who was keeping watch looked up, he saw many people coming on the road beyond him, around the hill.

³⁵ So Jonadab said to the king, "See, the king's sons are coming. As your servant spoke, so it is."

³⁶ As soon as he had finished speaking, the sons of the king arrived, lifted their voices, and wept. The king and all of his servants also wept loudly.

³⁷ Now Absalom fled and went to Talmai the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur, but David mourned over his son every day.

³⁸ When Absalom fled and went to Geshur, he was there for three years. ³⁹ Then King David longed to go out to Absalom, for he was consoled over the death of Amnon.

Absalom Returns to Jerusalem

14 Now Joab the son of Zeruah recognized that the king's mind was on Absalom. ² So Joab sent a request to Tekoa and brought from there a wise woman. He instructed her, "Act as if you are observing mourning rites. Put on mourning garments, and do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has been mourning over the dead like this for many days.³ Then come to the king and speak to him in this manner." Thus Joab put the words in her mouth.

⁴ As the Tekoan woman spoke to the king, she fell on her face toward the ground and bowed low. Then she said, "Help me, O king."

⁵ The king said to her, "What troubles you?"

She responded, "Alas, I am a widow, and my husband is dead.⁶ Furthermore, your servant had two sons. The two of them were fighting in the field, but there was no one to separate them. One struck the other and killed him.⁷ Now the entire family has risen up against your maidservant, and they said, 'Deliver him who struck his brother, so that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he killed, and we will destroy the heir also.' So they will extinguish my remaining ember, and leave my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth."

⁸ Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I will give orders concerning you."

⁹ The Tekoan woman responded to the king, "May guilt rest upon me and the house of my father, my lord the king, and may the king and his throne be blameless."

¹⁰ The king said, "Whoever speaks to you, bring him to me, and he will not cause you harm again."

¹¹ Then she said, "May the king remember the LORD your God so that the avenger of blood will not continue to destroy, lest they exterminate my son."

He said, "As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son will fall to the ground."

¹² Then the woman said, "Allow your servant to speak a word to my lord the king."

So he said, "Speak."

¹³ The woman said, "Why have you planned like this against the people of God? The king's speaking this word is like a self-conviction, for the king has not brought back his own banished one.¹⁴ We will surely die and are like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not take away a life; He devises plans so that His banished ones will not be cast out from Him.

¹⁵ "So now I have come to speak to my lord the king about this matter because the people have made me afraid. So, I thought, 'I will speak to the king. Perhaps the king will perform the request of his servant.'¹⁶ For the king may accept my request to deliver his servant from the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son from the inheritance of God.'

¹⁷ "So, your servant thought, 'May the word of my lord the king provide rest. For like the angel of God, my lord the king discerns good from evil. May the LORD your God be with you.'"

¹⁸ Then the king answered and said to the woman, "Please do not conceal from me anything that I ask you."

The woman said, "May my lord the king please speak."

¹⁹ The king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all of this?"

The woman answered and said, "As your soul lives, my lord the king, there is no turning right or left from anything that you spoke, my lord the king, for your servant Joab is the very one who commanded me and placed all of these words in my mouth.²⁰ In order to change this situation, your servant Joab did this thing; but my lord is wise, as with the wisdom of the angel of God, so as to discern everything happening in the land."

²¹ Then the king said to Joab, "This is what I will do. Go and bring back the young man Absalom."

²² Then Joab fell with his face to ground and bowed low and blessed the king. Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your eyes, my lord the king, since the king has granted the request of his servant."

²³ Then Joab arose and went to Geshur, and he brought Absalom to Jerusalem.²⁴ The king said, "Let him turn to his own house. He shall not come into my presence." So Absalom turned to his house and did not come into the king's presence.

David Forgives Absalom

²⁵ In all of Israel, there was no man as handsome as Absalom. From the sole of his foot to the top of his head, there was not a blemish on him.²⁶ When he cut the hair of his head (and at the end of every year he cut it, for it was heavy on him), he weighed the hair from his head at two hundred shekels, † according to the king's standard.

²⁷ There were born to Absalom three sons and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She was a beautiful woman.

²⁸ Absalom lived in Jerusalem for two full years without coming into the king's presence.²⁹ Then Absalom sent a message to Joab, requesting that he send him to the king, but he was not willing to come to him. So he sent a second message, but still he was not willing to come.³⁰ Then he said to his servants, "See, Joab's field is next to mine, and he has barley there. Go, set it on fire." So the servants of Absalom set the field on fire.

³¹ Then Joab arose, came to Absalom at his house, and said to him, "Why have your servants set my plot of land on fire?"

³² Absalom said to Joab, "I sent a message to you, saying: Come, so that I may send you to the king, asking, 'Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still.' Now, let me go before the king, and if there is still guilt with me, may he put me to death."

³³ So Joab came and reported this to him. Then he summoned Absalom. So he came to the king, bowed low to him, his face on the ground before the king; then the king kissed Absalom.

† About 5 pounds, or 2.3 kilograms.

Absalom's Conspiracy

15 After this Absalom acquired for himself a chariot, horses, and fifty men to run before him. ² Absalom would go early and stand beside the way into the gate. When any man who had a dispute concerning which he had come to the king for a judgment approached, Absalom would call to him and say, "Which city are you from?" And he would say, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel." ³ Then Absalom would say to him, "Look, your claim is good and right, but there is no one to hear you on behalf of the king." ⁴ Absalom would continue, "If I were appointed a judge in the land, then every man who had a claim could come and I would give him justice."

⁵ When a man would approach to bow before him, he would reach out, embrace him, and kiss him. ⁶ Absalom acted this way toward every Israelite who came to the king for a judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

⁷ After forty years, Absalom said to the king, "Please allow me to go fulfill my vow that I made to the LORD in Hebron. ⁸ For your servant made a vow when I was dwelling in Geshur in Aram, saying: If indeed the LORD will bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD."

⁹ The king said to him, "Go in peace." So he arose and went to Hebron.

¹⁰ But Absalom sent scouts throughout all of the tribes of Israel, saying, "When you hear the sound of the horn, say: Absalom has become king in Hebron."

¹¹ Now two hundred men went with Absalom from Jerusalem, invited and unsuspecting; they did not know anything. ¹² Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, the advisor of David, from his city Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. Now the conspiracy was strong, for the number of people with Absalom was continually growing.

David Flees Jerusalem

¹³ A messenger came to David and said, "The hearts of the men of Israel are following Absalom."

¹⁴ David said to all of his servants who were with him in Jerusalem, "Get up. We must flee or there will be no escape from Absalom for us. Hurry up and leave, or he will soon reach us and bring disaster upon us, striking the city with the edge of the sword."

¹⁵ The king's servants said to the king, "Whatever our lord the king decides, we are your servants."

¹⁹ The king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why are you also going with us? Go back and dwell with the king, for you are a foreigner and, moreover, exiled from your own place. ²⁰ You came only yesterday. Shall I cause you to go roaming around with us today? I am going where I go. Go back, and take back your brothers with you. Mercy and truth be with you."

²¹ Ittai answered the king and said, "As the LORD lives and as lives my lord the king, only in the place where my lord the king is, whether for death or for life, there alone will your servant be."

²² So David said to Ittai, "Go on, pass by." So Ittai the Gittite passed by, along with all of his men and all of the children and elderly who were with him.

²³ The whole land wept with a loud voice as all the people passed by. Now the king was crossing over the brook Kidron, and all of the people were crossing over on the road to the wilderness.

²⁴ And also Zadok and all of the Levites with him were carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set down the ark of God, and Abiathar came up until all of the people had finished passing from the city.

²⁵ The king said to Zadok, "Take the ark of God back to the city. If I have found favor in the eyes of the LORD, He will bring me back and allow me to see both it and its resting place. ²⁶ But if He should say now, 'I take no delight in you,' here I am. May He do to me what seems good to Him."

²⁷ The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace with your two sons, your son Ahimaaz and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

²⁸ I will wait at the fords of the wilderness until word from you comes to inform me." ²⁹ So Zadok and Abiathar returned the ark of God to Jerusalem, and they remained there.

³⁰ David went up the ascent of the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went. His head was covered and he went barefoot. Then all of the people who were with him each covered his head and went up, weeping as they went. ³¹ Now it was reported to David that Ahithophel was conspiring with Absalom, and David said, "O LORD, make the advice of Ahithophel folly."

³² When David came to the summit where he would worship God, Hushai the Arkite approached him with his coat torn and dirt on his head. ³³ David said to him, "If you pass on with me, you will be a burden to me.

³⁴ But if you return to the city, you may say to Absalom, 'I am your servant, O king, as I was a servant of your father. As I was then, so now I am your servant,' so as to counter the advice of Ahithophel. ³⁵ Will not Zadok and Abiathar the priests be with you there? You shall report everything that you hear from the king's house to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. ³⁶ Their two sons Ahimaaz the son of Zadok and Jonathan the son of Abiathar will be there with them. You shall send word of everything that you hear to me by their hand."

³⁷ So Hushai, the friend of David, came to the city as Absalom entered Jerusalem.

David and Ziba

16 When David had passed a little beyond the summit, Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth met him, with a couple of saddled donkeys carrying two hundred loaves of bread, one hundred clusters of raisins, one hundred summer fruits, and one skin of wine.

² The king said to Ziba, "Why do you have these things?"

Ziba replied, "The donkeys are for the household of the king to ride. The bread and the summer fruit are for the servants to eat. The wine is for those who become weary in the wilderness to drink."

³ The king said, "And where is your master's son?"

Ziba said to the king, "He is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today they will return to me the house of Israel and my father's kingdom.'"

⁴ Then David said to Ziba, "Everything that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours."

Ziba replied, "I bow before you. May I find favor in your sight, my lord the king."

Shimei Curses David

⁵ When King David came to Bahurim, a man of the family of the house of Saul came out. His name was Shimei son of Gera, and he came out continuously cursing. ⁶ He threw stones at David and all of the servants of King David, as well as all of the people and all of the warriors who were at his right and left. ⁷ Shimei said when he cursed: "Come out! Come out! You bloodthirsty man, you scoundrel!" ⁸ The LORD has returned upon you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. And the LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of your son Absalom. You are taken in your own evil, because you are a man of blood."

⁹ Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "How can this dead dog curse my lord the king! Let me go over and remove his head."

¹⁰ The king responded, "What do you have against me, sons of Zeruiah? Suppose that he curses because the LORD has said to him, 'Curse David.' Who shall then say, 'Why do you do so?'"

¹¹ David then said to Abishai and to all of his servants, "My son who came from my own body seeks my life, and now also this Benjamite. Leave him alone and let him curse if the LORD has so instructed him. ¹² Perhaps today the LORD will look upon my guilt and return kindness instead of his cursing."

¹³ So David and his men continued on the road, and Shimei went along on the hillside beside them, cursing, throwing stones, and flinging dust at them as he went. ¹⁴ The king and all of the people who were with him arrived at their destination exhausted, but he refreshed himself there.

The Advice of Ahithophel and Hushai

¹⁵ Now Absalom and all of the Israelite people entered Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him.

¹⁶ When Hushai the Arkite, the friend of David, came to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

¹⁷ Then Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this the extent of your commitment to your friend? Why have you not gone with your friend?"

¹⁸ Hushai said to Absalom, "No! For whom the LORD, this people, and all men of Israel have chosen, his I will be and with him I will remain. ¹⁹ Furthermore, whom shall I serve? Should it not be his son? As I served your father, so shall I be with you."

²¹ Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Lie with your father's concubines, whom he left to watch over the palace. When all Israel hears that you have made yourself abhorred by your father, then the hands of all who are with you will be strong." ²² So they set up a tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all of Israel.

²³ In those days, the advice that Ahithophel gave was as when one inquired a word from God. Such was all of the advice of Ahithophel, whether that which he gave to David or to Absalom.

17 Ahithophel also said to Absalom, "Let me choose twelve thousand men so that I may arise and pursue David tonight. ² I will overtake him while he is weary and weak and strike him with terror; all of the people who are with him will flee. Then I will strike only the king, ³ and I will return all of the people to you. When all return except the man whom you are seeking, all of the people will be at peace." ⁴ The advice pleased Absalom and all of the elders of Israel.

⁵ So Absalom said, "Summon Hushai the Arkite so that we may hear what he has to say as well." ⁶ When Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom said to him, "This is what Ahithophel had advised. Should we do this thing? If not, you should tell us."

⁷ Hushai said to Absalom, "At this time, the advice that Ahithophel has given is not good." ⁸ Moreover, Hushai said, "You know that your father and his men are warriors, and they have been provoked like a bear robbed of her cubs. Your father is a veteran of warfare. He will not spend the night with the people.

⁹ Even now, he has hidden himself in a ravine or some other place, and when one of them falls in the first attack, whoever hears will say, 'It was a defeat for the people who follow Absalom.' ¹⁰ Then even the valiant one, whose heart is like that of a lion, will completely despair, for all of Israel knows that your father is a warrior, and those who are with him are brave.

¹¹ "Therefore my advice is for all of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, to be completely gathered to you like the multitude of the sand along the shoreline and for you to go to battle in person. ¹² We will come upon him in one of the places where he may be found, and we will fall upon him like the dew upon the ground. Neither he nor any of the men who are with him will remain, not a single one. ¹³ If he withdraws into a city, then all of Israel will bring ropes to that city. We will raze it until it is a valley, until there cannot be found there even a pebble."

¹⁴ Then Absalom and all of the men of Israel said, "The advice of Hushai the Arkite is better than the advice of Ahithophel." For the LORD had decided to undermine the prudent advice of Ahithophel, so that the LORD might bring calamity to Absalom.

Hushai Warns David to Escape

¹⁵ Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Ahithophel advised Absalom and the elders of Israel to do one thing, but I advised them to do another thing. ¹⁶ Now quickly send someone to report to David, 'Do not spend the night at the fords of the wilderness, but instead cross over. Otherwise, the king and all of the people who are with him will be swallowed up.'"

¹⁷ Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting at En Rogel. A servant girl would go report to them, and they would go report to King David, because they could not be seen entering the city. ¹⁸ But a young man saw them and reported this to Absalom. So the two of them went quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard, and they went down into it. ¹⁹ The wife took a covering and spread it over the opening of the well. Then she scattered grain over it so that nothing could be discerned.

²⁰ The servants of Absalom came to the woman at the house and said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?"

She said, "They crossed over the brook of water." When they searched, they could not find them. So they returned to Jerusalem.

²¹ After they left, they came up from the well, went, and reported to King David. They said to David, "Arise and quickly cross over the water because thus has Ahithophel advised against you." ²² So David and all of the people who were with him arose and crossed over the Jordan. By daybreak, there was not one left who had not crossed over the Jordan.

²³ When Ahithophel realized that his advice was not followed, he saddled his donkey and returned to his house in his own city. He gave instruction to his household, then he hanged himself and died; he was interred in the tomb of his father.

Absalom's Death

²⁴ David came to Mahanaim as Absalom crossed the Jordan, he and every Israelite with him. ²⁵ Now Absalom had placed Amasa over the army in the place of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man named Jether the Ishmaelite, who went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash and sister of Zeruah, the mother of Joab. ²⁶ Israel and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

²⁷ When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, Makir the son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim ²⁸ brought bedding, metal bowls, ceramic vessels, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, ²⁹ honey, curds, sheep, and cheese from the livestock for David and the people who were with him to eat and use. For they said, "The people are hungry, exhausted, and thirsting in the wilderness."

18 David mustered the people who were with him, and he set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds. ² Then David dispatched the people, one-third under the command of Joab, one-third under the command of Abishai the son of Zeruah and brother of Joab, and one-third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. Then David said to the people, "I myself will go out with you."

³ But the people said, "You should not go, for if we retreat, they will not be concerned about us. Even if half of us die, they will not be concerned about us. But now you are worth ten thousand of us. Therefore, it would be better to assist us from the city."

⁴ The king said to them, "I will do what seems best to you."

So the king stood beside the gate while all of the people went out by hundreds and thousands. ⁵ The king commanded Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, "Deal gently with the young man Absalom." All of the people heard the king instruct the commanders concerning Absalom.

⁶ So the people went out toward Israel in the field, but the fighting occurred in the forest of Ephraim.

⁷ The people of Israel were defeated there by the servants of David. That day the defeat was extensive, twenty thousand men. ⁸ The fighting spread across the land, and the people consumed by the forest were more numerous than those consumed by the sword that day.

¹⁰ One man saw him and reported it to Joab, saying, "I saw Absalom hanging in a tree."

¹¹ Joab said to the man who was reporting to him, "What? You saw him? Why did you not strike him on the spot, sending him to the ground? I would have given you ten shekels [†] of silver and a belt."

¹² The man said to Joab, "Not even if I had felt the weight of a thousand shekels ^{††} of silver in my hand would I have laid a hand on the king's son. In our hearing the king commanded you, Abishai, and Ittai saying: Beware lest anyone touch the young man Absalom! ¹³ Otherwise, I would have worked falsehood against my own life. For nothing is hidden from the king, and you yourself would have set yourself against me."

¹⁴ Then Joab said, "I will not waste any more time with you." He took three spears in his hand and thrust them into the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the midst of the tree. ¹⁵ Then ten young men, armor bearers for Joab, gathered around and struck down Absalom, killing him.

¹⁶ When Joab blew the horn, the people returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab held back the people. ¹⁷ Then they took Absalom, disposed of him in a large pit in the forest, and piled over him a very large heap of stones. Then all Israel fled, everyone to his home.

¹⁸ Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and set up for himself a memorial stone in the Valley of the King, for he said, "I have no son by whom my name may be remembered." So he named the memorial stone after himself; and to this day, it is called the monument of Absalom.

David Mourns

¹⁹ Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Allow me to run and bring the news to the king that the LORD has delivered him from the hand of his enemies."

²⁰ But Joab said to him, "You will not be a man who bears news today; you may bear news another day. Today you will not bear news because the king's son is dead."

²¹ Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, report to the king what you have seen." The Cushite bowed to Joab, then ran off.

²² Ahimaaz again said to Joab, "Whatever may happen, let me run also, after the Cushite."

Then Joab said, "Why is it that you want to run, my son? There is no messenger's reward for you to obtain."

²³ "Whatever happens, I want to run."

So he said to him, "Run." So Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and passed the Cushite.

²⁴ Now David was sitting between the two gates when the watchman went up to the roof of the gate, to the city wall. He lifted his eyes and saw a man running by himself. ²⁵ The watchman called and told the king.

The king said, "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." And he came ever closer.

²⁶ Then the watchman saw another man running. The watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, "Look there is another man running alone."

The king said, "He also is bringing news."

²⁷ The watchman said, "I think that the running of the first one is like the running of Ahimaaz."

The king said, "He is a good man and comes with good news."

²⁸ Then Ahimaaz called to the king and said, "All is well." He bowed down to the ground before the king and said, "Blessed be the LORD your God who has handed over the men who raised their hand against my lord the king."

²⁹ The king said, "Is it well for the young man Absalom?"

Ahimaaz said, "I saw a great commotion when Joab sent the servant of the king, your servant, but I do not know what it was."

³⁰ The king said, "Step aside and stand here." So he stepped aside and stood in position.

³¹ Then the Cushite came and said, "Good news for my lord the king, for today the LORD has delivered you from those who rose up against you."

³² The king said to the Cushite, "Is it well for the young man Absalom?"

The Cushite said, "May the enemies of my lord the king and all who would rise up against you to do harm become as the young man is."

³³ The king was deeply moved and went up to the upper chamber of the gate and wept. As he went he said, "O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! If only I could have given my death in your stead, Absalom, my son, my son!"

19 It was reported to Joab that the king was weeping and mourning over Absalom. ² The victory that day was turned into mourning for all of the people, for the people heard that day, "The king is grieving for his son." ³ So the people entered the city by stealth that day, as a people who have been disgraced steal away when they flee from battle. ⁴ The king covered his face and called with a loud voice, "My son Absalom, my son, my son!"

⁵ Then Joab came to the king in his house and said, "Today you have shamed the faces of all of your servants who saved your life today, as well as the lives of your sons and daughters, the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines, ⁶ by loving those who hated you and hating those who love you. You have shown today that commanders and servants are nothing to you. I know that if Absalom were alive instead today and all of us were dead, then this would be right in your eyes. ⁷ Now go out and speak reassuringly to your servants, for I swear by the LORD that if you do not go out, no man will stay with you this night, and this will be worse for you than any calamity that has come against you from your youth until now."

⁸ So the king arose and took his seat in the gate, and the people were all told, "The king is sitting in the gate." So all the people came before the king, but the children of Israel had fled, each to his tent.

David Returns to Jerusalem

⁹ Now all of the people began to quarrel throughout all of the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies, and he saved us from the hand of the Philistines, but now he has fled from the land on account of Absalom. ¹⁰ But Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. Now why are you idle to bring back the king?"

¹¹ Then David sent word to Zadok and Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Israel, saying, 'Why are you last to bring the king back to his house when the word of all Israel has come to the king, to his house?' ¹² You are my brother. You are my bone and my flesh. Why are you last to bring back the king?' ¹³ Say to Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? May God do to me, and more so, if you are not commander of the army before me from now on in the place of Joab.'"

¹⁵ So the king returned and came as far as the Jordan, and Judah came to Gilgal to meet the king and bring the king across the Jordan. ¹⁶ Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite who was from Bahurim, hastened to go down with the men of Judah to meet King David. ¹⁷ With him were a thousand men from Benjamin. And Ziba, the servant of the house of Saul, with his fifteen sons and twenty servants, rushed down to the Jordan before the king. ¹⁸ They crossed the ford to bring the household of the king across and to do what was pleasing in his eyes.

Shimei the son of Gera fell before the king as he was crossing the Jordan, ¹⁹ and he said to the king, "Do not regard me as guilty, my lord, or remember how your servant went astray the day when my lord the king went out from Jerusalem. May the king not take it to heart. ²⁰ For your servant knows that I have sinned. Therefore, I have come this day, first from all of the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my lord the king."

²¹ Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the anointed of the LORD?"

²² David said, "What do you sons of Zeruiah have against me that you should become an adversary to me today? Should any man in Israel be put to death today? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?" ²³ The king said to Shimei, "You will not die." The king gave him his oath.

²⁴ Then Mephibosheth the son of Saul went down to meet the king. He had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his mustache, nor washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day he came back in peace. ²⁵ When he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"

²⁶ He said, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, 'I will saddle the mule for myself in order to ride on it and go with the king,' because your servant is lame. ²⁷ But he has slandered your servant to my lord the king. Still my lord the king is as the angel of God, so do what seems best to you. ²⁸ For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king. Yet you set your servant among those who eat at your table. What right do I have to cry out any more to the king?"

²⁹ The king said to him, "Why do you still speak of your affairs? I say that you and Ziba shall divide the field."

³¹ Now Barzillai the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim in order to see the king across the Jordan. ³² Barzillai was very old, eighty years old. But he sustained the king during his stay in Mahanaim, for he was a very rich man. ³³ The king said to Barzillai, "Cross over with me and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem."

³⁴ Barzillai said to the king, "How many days are left in my life that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? ³⁵ I am now eighty years old. Can I discern what is pleasant from what is harmful? Can your servant taste what I eat and what I drink? Can I still hear the voices of men and women who sing? Why, then, should your servant be a burden to my lord the king? ³⁶ Your servant is merely crossing over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king repay me with this reward? ³⁷ Now allow your servant to return, that I may die in my own city with the grave of my father and my mother. But here is your servant Kimham. He will cross over with my lord the king. Do for him what seems best to you."

³⁸ The king said, "Kimham will cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems best to you. Whatever you require of me, I will do for you."

³⁹ All of the people crossed over the Jordan. And when the king had crossed over, the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him and he returned to his own place.

⁴⁰ The king passed on to Gilgal, and Kimham went on with him; all of the people of Judah and half of the people of Israel passed on with the king.

⁴¹ Now all of the men of Israel were coming to the king and said to the king, "Why have our brothers, the men of Judah, stolen you away and brought the king and his household across the Jordan, and all of the men of David with him?"

⁴² All of the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is our close relative. Why are you angry over this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's expense? Has he given any gift to us?"

⁴³ And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, "We have ten shares in the king. Therefore we also have more claim on David than you. Why then did you treat us with contempt? Were we not the first to advise bringing back our king?"

But the words of the men of Judah were harsher than the words of the men of Israel.

Sheba Rebels Against David

20 There happened to be a worthless man there whose name was Sheba the son of Bikri, a Benjamite. He sounded the trumpet and said, "We have no share in David, nor do we have an inheritance in the son of Jesse; every man to his tents, O Israel."

² So every man of Israel withdrew from following David and followed after Sheba the son of Bikri, but the men of Judah stayed with their king, from the Jordan as far as Jerusalem.

⁴ Then the king said to Amasa, "Summon for me the men of Judah in three days, then present yourself here." ⁵ So Amasa went to summon Judah, but he delayed beyond the deadline determined for him.

⁶ So David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bikri will cause more harm for us than Absalom. You take your lord's servants and pursue after him. Otherwise, he will find fortified cities and escape from our sight." ⁷ The men of Joab went out after him, along with the Kerethites, the Pelethites, and all of the warriors; and they went out from Jerusalem to pursue after Sheba the son of Bikri.

⁸ When they were at the large stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Now Joab was dressed in his battle armor, and fastened on it was a belt with a sword in its sheath at the waist. As he went forward, it fell out.

⁹ Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" and he took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. ¹⁰ Amasa was not on guard against the sword in the hand of Joab, and he struck him in the midsection spilling his entrails on the ground. He died without being struck a second time. Then Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bikri.

¹⁴ He passed through all of the tribes of Israel toward Abel Beth Maakah, also passing by all of the Bikrites. Once assembled, they also came after him. ¹⁵ They came and besieged him in Abel Beth Maakah. They constructed a siege ramp against the city, standing it against the rampart. As all of the people who were with Joab were battering the city wall in order to bring it down, ¹⁶ a wise woman called from the city, "Listen! Listen! Say to Joab, 'Come closer so that I may speak with you.'" ¹⁷ When he came near, the woman said, "Are you Joab?"

He said, "I am."

She said to him, "Listen to the words of your servant," and he said, "I'm listening."

¹⁸ She said, "In former times, they would say, 'Let them inquire carefully in Abel,' and thus they would resolve an issue. ¹⁹ I am a trustworthy and faithful one of Israel. You are attempting to destroy a city, even a mother, in Israel. Why do you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?"

²⁰ Joab responded, "Far be it, far be it from me to swallow up or destroy. ²¹ That is not true. But a man from the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bikri by name, has lifted his hand against King David. Only deliver him, and I will depart from the city."

And the woman said to Joab, "His head will be thrown to you over the wall."

²² The woman, with her wisdom, came to all of the people in the city, and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bikri. When they threw it to Joab, he blew the horn, and they dispersed from the city, each going to his own tent. Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

David's Officials

²³ Now Joab was over the entire army of Israel. Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites. ²⁴ Adoniram was over conscripted labor. Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was secretary. ²⁵ Sheva was scribe. Zadok and Abiathar were priests, ²⁶ and also Ira the Jairite was priest to David.

David Avenges the Gibeonites

21 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David called upon the LORD. The LORD said, "There is blood guilt upon Saul and upon his house because he put the Gibeonites to death."

² So the king summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. Now the Gibeonites were not from the children of Israel. Instead they were a remnant of the Amorites. Although the children of Israel had made a pact with them, Saul attempted to destroy them in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah. ³ David said to the Gibeonites, "What must I do for you, and with what may I appease you that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?"

⁴ The Gibeonites said to him, "We have no concern for silver or gold from Saul or his household, nor is it for us to put any man in Israel to death."

He said to them, "What are you saying I should do for you?"

⁵ They said to the king, "Regarding the man who put an end to us and planned to exterminate us from the entire territory of Israel, ⁶ let seven of his male descendants be handed over to us, and we will hang them before the LORD at Gibeah of Saul, the chosen one of the LORD."

The king said, "I will hand them over."

⁷ But the king spared Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul on account of the oath of the LORD that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. ⁸ So the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, Armoni and Mephibosheth, whom she had born to Saul, and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she had born to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite. ⁹ He delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the mountain before the LORD; the seven of them fell together. They were put to death in the first days of harvest, in the beginning of the barley harvest.

¹⁰ Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of the harvest until the rains poured on them from heaven. She did not allow the birds of the air to rest on them by day nor the animals of the field by night.

¹¹ When it was reported to David that which Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done,

¹⁴ They interred the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the land of Benjamin at Zela, in the tomb of Kish, his father. They did everything that the king commanded. After that God was entreated regarding the land.

Wars With the Philistines

1Ch 20:4-8

¹⁵ Now once again there was a battle between the Philistines and Israel. So David went down and his servants with him to fight the Philistines, and David grew weary. ¹⁶ Now Ishbi-Benob, who was among the descendants of the giant and was girded with new weaponry, had a spear weighing three hundred bronze shekels and had said that he would strike David down. ¹⁷ But Abishai the son of Zeruiah came to his aid. He struck down the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David made an oath with him, saying, "You shall no longer come out with us to battle, so that you do not extinguish the lamp of Israel."

¹⁸ Now afterwards there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbekai the Hushathite struck down Saph, who was among the descendants of the giant.

¹⁹ Once again, there was a battle with the Philistines at Gob. On this occasion, Elhanan the son of Jaare-Oregim the Bethlehemite struck down Goliath the Gittite, whose spear shaft was like a weaver's beam.

²⁰ Once again, there was war at Gath. There was a man of stature who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number. Now he also was born to the giant. ²¹ When he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah, the brother of David, struck him down.

²² Now these four were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

David's Song of Deliverance

Ps 18:1-50

22 Now on the day the LORD delivered him from the hand of all of his enemies and from the hand of Saul, David spoke to the LORD the words of this song. ² He said:

The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer;

³ the God of my strength, in whom I will trust; my shield and the horn of my salvation, my fortress and my sanctuary; my Savior, You save me from violence.

⁴ I call upon the LORD, who is praiseworthy, and I am saved from my enemies.

⁵ When the waves of death encompassed me, the currents of destruction made me afraid.

⁶ The ropes of Sheol were wrapped around me; the snares of death were opposite me.

⁷ In my distress I called on the LORD, and cried out to my God;

from His temple He heard my voice.

My cry reached His ears.

⁸ Then the earth quaked and trembled; the foundations of the heavens rumbled and shook, because He was angry.

⁹ Smoke rose from His nostrils, devouring fire from His mouth; coals blazed forth from Him.

¹⁰ He bowed the heaven as He came down, with thick darkness under His feet.

¹¹ He rode upon a cherub as He flew, and appeared upon the wings of the wind.

¹² He made darkness canopies around Him, dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

¹³ From the brightness before Him embers of fire are kindled.

¹⁴ The LORD thundered from heaven, and the Most High uttered His voice.

¹⁵ He sent out arrows and dispersed them; with lightning He sent them into confusion.

¹⁶ The channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were exposed with the rebuke of the LORD, from the blast of breath from His nostrils.

 17 He reached from on high and took me;
 He drew me out of mighty waters.
 18 He rescued me from my strong enemy, from those who hate me;
 for they were stronger than I.
 19 They confronted me in the day of my disaster, but the LORD was my support.
 20 He brought me to the open expanse;
 He rescued me, for He delighted in me.
 21 The LORD did for me according to my righteousness;
 according to the cleanness of my hands He recompensed me.
 22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and I have not become guilty against my God.
 23 For all His judgments are before me, and I have not abandoned His statutes.
 24 I am blameless toward Him, and I have kept myself from guilt.
 25 The LORD has recompensed me according to my righteousness,
 according to my cleanness in His sight.
 26 With the faithful You prove Yourself faithful;
 with the blameless You prove Yourself blameless; 27 with the pure You show Yourself pure;
 but with the perverse You show Yourself shrewd.
 28 You deliver a humble people;
 but Your eyes are upon the exalted to bring them down.
 29 For You are my lamp, O LORD;
 the LORD illuminates my darkness.
 30 For by You I can run over a channel;
 by my God I can leap over a wall.
 31 As for God, His way is perfect;
 the word of the LORD is proven;
 He is a shield
 for all who take refuge in Him.
 32 For who is God except the LORD?
 And who is a rock except our God?
 33 God is my strong fortress,
 and He sets the blameless on His way.
 34 He makes my feet like hinds' feet;
 He sets me on my high places.
 35 He trains my hand for battle,
 so that my arm may bend a bow of bronze.
 36 You have given me a shield of Your salvation, and Your humility has made me great.
 37 You widen my stride under me,
 and my feet do stagger.
 38 I pursued my enemies and destroyed them;
 I did not turn back until they were consumed.
 39 I consumed them and shattered them so that they did not rise;
 they fell under my feet.
 40 You girded me with strength for the battle;

You subjugated under me those who rose up against me.
 41 You caused my enemies to retreat from me;
 I destroyed those who hated me.
 42 They looked, but there was no one to save them, to the LORD, but He did not respond.
 43 I crushed them like the dust of the land, like the mud of the streets, I ground them and stamped them down.
 44 You have also delivered me from the strivings of my people;
 You have kept me as the head of the nations.
 A people whom I have not known will serve me.
 45 Foreigners submit to me, cringing;
 as soon as they hear, they obey me.
 46 Foreigners lose heart;
 they gird themselves as they leave their fortresses.
 47 The LORD lives; blessed be my rock.
 May the God of the rock of my salvation be exalted, 48 the God who gave me retribution and brought down peoples under me, 49 who brought me out from my enemies.
 You exalted me above those who rose up against me;
 You delivered me from violent ones.
 50 Therefore, I praise You, O LORD, among the nations;
 I sing praises to Your name.
 51 He is a tower of salvation for His king, and He acts faithfully toward His anointed, toward David and his descendants forever.

David's Last Words

23 Now these are the last words of David:
 The oracle of David the son of Jesse,
 the oracle of the man who was raised on high,
 the anointed of the God of Jacob,
 and the favorite psalmist of Israel:
 2 The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me, and His word was on my tongue.
 3 The God of Israel said,
 the Rock of Israel spoke to me:
 He who rules over man justly,
 who rules in the fear of God,
 4 is like the light of the morning when the sun rises, a morning with no clouds, gleaming after the rain
like grass from the land.
 5 Is not my house like this with God?
 For He made an everlasting covenant with me, ordered in all things and secure.
 For this is all my salvation and all my desire;
 will He not make it flourish?
 6 But the worthless individual is like a thorn tossed away, all of them,
 for they cannot be taken with the hand.
 7 But the man who touches them must have an iron implement and the shaft of a spear,

and they must be burned with fire on the spot.

David's Mighty Warriors

1Ch 11:10-41

⁸ These are the names of the warriors whom David had:

Josheb-Basshebeth, a Tahkemonite, was head of the three. [†] He was also known as Adino the Eznite, on account of eight hundred slain on one occasion.

⁹ After him was Eleazar the son of Dodai the son of Ahohi. He was among the three warriors with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered together there to fight when the men of Israel withdrew. ¹⁰ He arose and attacked the Philistines until his hand grew weary and stuck to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day, and the people returned only to plunder.

¹⁵ David said longingly, "O that someone would give me a drink of water from the well in Bethlehem by the gate!" ¹⁶ The three warriors breached the Philistine camp and drew up water from the well in Bethlehem by the gate, and they brought it to David. However, he was not willing to drink it, so he poured it out as a drink offering to the LORD. ¹⁷ He said, "Far be it from me, O LORD, to drink this, the blood of the men who risked their lives." So he was not willing to drink it.

These things the three warriors did.

¹⁸ Now Abishai, the brother of Joab and son of Zeruiah, was chief of the thirty. [‡] He wielded his spear against three hundred men and killed them, and won a name beside the three. ¹⁹ Was he more honored than the three? He became their commander, but he did not attain to the three.

²⁰ And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done great acts. He struck down two sons of Ariel of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the middle of a pit on a snowy day. ²¹ He struck down an Egyptian, an impressive man. Now the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but Benaiah went down to him with a staff, seized the spear from the Egyptian, and killed him with his own spear. ²² These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did and won for three, Cf. 11:20.

[†] Or a captains, or thirty, but three

^{††} Text reads a thirty,

[‡] Or a another himself a name alongside the three. ²³ He was more honored than the thirty, but he did not attain to the three. So David set him over his bodyguard.

²⁴ Among the thirty were

Asahel the brother of Joab,

Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,

²⁵ Shammah the Harodite,

Elika the Harodite,

²⁶ Helez the Paltite,

Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,

²⁷ Abiezer the Anathothite,

Mebunnai the Hushathite,

²⁸ Zalmon the Ahohite,

Maharai the Netophathite,

²⁹ Heled the son of Baanah the Netophathite,

Ithai the son of Ribai from Gibeah of Benjamin,

³⁰ Benaiah the Pirathonite,

Hiddai from the brooks of Gaash,

³¹ Abi-Albon the Arbathite,

Azmaveth the Barhumite,

³² Eliahba the Shaalbonite, of the sons of Jashen,

Jonathan,

³³ Shammah the Hararite,

Ahiam the son of Sharar the Hararite,

³⁴ Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maakathite,

Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

³⁵ Hezro the Carmelite,

Paarai the Arbite,

³⁶ Igal the son of Nathan from Zobah,

the son of Hagri,

³⁷ Zelek the Ammonite,

Naharai the Beerothite, the armor bearer of Joab the son of Zeruiah, ³⁸ Ira the Ithrite,

Gareb the Ithrite,

³⁹ and Uriah the Hittite.

There were thirty-seven in all.

David's Census of Israel and Judah

1Ch 21:1-17

24 Again the LORD became angry against Israel, and He incited David against them, saying, "Go and count the people of Israel and Judah."

² The king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, "Go throughout all of the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, and muster the people so that I may know the number of the people."

³ Joab said to the king, "May the LORD your God add to the people however many they are one hundred times over in the sight of my lord the king. But why does my lord the king so desire this thing?"

⁴ However, the king's word prevailed against Joab and the commanders of the army. So Joab and the commanders of the army went out from before the king to register the people of Israel.

⁵ They crossed the Jordan and camped at Aroer, south of the city, in the middle of the ravine of Gad toward Jazer. ⁶ They went toward Gilead to the land of Tahtim Hodshi. Then they went toward Dan Jaan and around to Sidon. ⁷ They went to the fortress of Tyre and all of the towns of the Hivites and Canaanites. They went to the Negev and Beersheba.

⁸ They went throughout the entire land, and after nine months and twenty days, they came to Jerusalem.

⁹ Joab gave the count of the census of the people to the king. There were eight hundred thousand capable men who could draw a sword in Israel, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand.

Judgment for David's Sin

¹⁰ Now the heart of David struck him after he had counted the people. David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly by what I have done. Now may the LORD take away the iniquity of your servant, for I have behaved very foolishly."

¹¹ When David arose in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, the seer for David, saying, ¹² "Go and speak to David: Thus says the LORD: Three options I am laying before you. Choose for yourself one of them, and I will do this to you."

¹³ So Gad came to David and told him. He said to him, "Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or shall you flee three months before your enemies while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days of plague in your land? Now consider and advise what answer I shall return to Him who sent me."

¹⁴ David said to Gad, "I am very distressed. Let us fall by the hand of the LORD, for His mercy is great. May I not fall by the hand of man."

¹⁵ So the LORD sent a plague upon Israel from the morning until the appointed time. Seventy thousand men from the people died, from Dan to Beersheba.

¹⁶ When the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented from the calamity. He said to the angel who was annihilating the people, "Enough! Now stay your hand." The angel of the LORD was at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

¹⁷ On seeing the angel who was striking down the people, David said to the LORD, "I am the one who has sinned and I am the one who has done wrong. These sheep, what have they done? Please, let your hand be against me and against the house of my father."

David Builds an Altar

1Ch 21:18-26

¹⁸ Gad came to David that day and said to him, "Go up and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." ¹⁹ So David went up according to the word of Gad, as the LORD commanded. ²⁰ When Araunah looked and saw the king and his servants coming toward him, he went out and bowed low to the king with his face on the ground.

²¹ Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?"

David replied, "To purchase the threshing floor from you in order to build an altar to the LORD, so that the plague may be averted from the people."

²² Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him. Here are the oxen for the burnt offering and the threshing sledges and yokes of the oxen for wood." ²³ Everything, O king, Araunah gives to the king." Araunah also said to the king, "May the LORD your God be favorable toward you."

²⁴ However, the king said to Araunah, "No, for I will certainly purchase from you for a fair price. I will not offer up to the LORD burnt offerings that cost me nothing."

So David purchased the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels [†] of silver. ²⁵ David built an altar to the LORD there and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. Then the land pleaded with the LORD, and the plague was averted from Israel.

1 KINGS

The first book of Kings was likely written between 560 and 540 BC during the exile. It is the sequel to First and Second Samuel. The setting is the ancient kingdom of Israel and Judah. Originally, both First Kings and Second Kings were one book. Jewish tradition credits the prophet Jeremiah as the author. The theme of this book is the kingdom united and divided. The splendor and wisdom of Solomon's reign are described in detail. Other events include the building of the temple, Elijah's ministry, and the reigns of northern and southern kings and their deeds. Some material in the books of Kings overlaps with the books of the Chronicles.

Adonijah Seeks Kingship

1 Now King David was old and advanced in years, and they covered him with clothes, but he could not get warm. ² Therefore his servants said to him, "Let a young virgin be found for my lord the king, and let her stand before the king and care for him, and let her lie by your side so that my lord the king may keep warm."

³ So they searched for a beautiful young woman throughout the land of Israel and found Abishag, a Shunammite, and brought her to the king. ⁴ She was very beautiful and cared for the king and ministered to him, but the king did not know her intimately.

⁵ Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king," and he assembled chariots and horsemen and fifty men to run before him. ⁶ His father had not confronted him at any time by asking, "Why have you done this?" He also was a very attractive man, and he was born next after Absalom.

⁷ He conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest, and they agreed to help him. ⁸ But Zadok the priest and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and Nathan the prophet and Shimei and Rei and David's mighty men did not join Adonijah.

¹¹ Therefore Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns and David our lord does not know it? ¹² Now please come and let me give you some advice, so that you may save your own life as well as that of your son Solomon. ¹³ Go to King David and say to him, 'Did not you, my lord, O king, swear to your handmaid, saying: Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? Why then does Adonijah reign?' ¹⁴ Then while you are still there talking with the king, I will come in and confirm your words."

¹⁵ So Bathsheba went to the king's chamber. Now the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite ministered to him. ¹⁶ Bathsheba bowed and prostrated herself before the king.

And the king said, "What do you want?"

¹⁷ And she said to him, "My lord, you swore by the LORD your God to your handmaid, saying: Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne. ¹⁸ But Adonijah reigns, and now, my lord, O king, you are unaware. ¹⁹ He has slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance and has invited all the sons of the king and Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army, but he has not invited your servant Solomon. ²⁰ And you, my lord, O king, all the eyes of Israel are upon you that you should tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. ²¹ Otherwise it shall be that when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, I and my son Solomon shall be considered offenders."

²⁴ Nathan said, "My lord, O king, have you said, 'Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?' ²⁵ For he has gone down this day and has slain oxen, fat cattle, and sheep in abundance and has invited all the king's sons, the commanders of the guard, and Abiathar the priest, and they eat and drink with him, saying, 'God save King Adonijah!' ²⁶ But he has not invited me, your servant, or Zadok the priest or Benaiah the son of Jehoiada or your servant Solomon. ²⁷ Is this thing done by my lord the king, and you have not let your servants know who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

Solomon Becomes King

1Ch 29:21-25

²⁸ Then King David answered and said, "Call Bathsheba to me." And she came into the king's presence and stood before the king.

²⁹ The king vowed, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all distress, ³⁰ even as I swore to you by the LORD God of Israel, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead,' even so will I certainly do this day."

³¹ Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the ground in reverence to the king and said, "Let my lord King David live forever."

³² King David said, "Call Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada for me." So they came before the king. ³³ And the king said to them, "Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. ³⁴ And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet there anoint him king over Israel, and blow the trumpet and say, 'God save King Solomon!' ³⁵ Then you shall come up after him. And he shall come and sit on my throne, for he will be king in my place as I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah."

³⁶ Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, "Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, also say so! ³⁷ As the LORD has been with my lord the king, may He also be with Solomon and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David."

³⁸ So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Kerethites and the Pelethites went down and had Solomon ride on King David's mule and brought him to Gihon. ³⁹ Zadok the priest took a horn of oil out of the tabernacle and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, "God save King Solomon!" ⁴⁰ All the people came up to see him and played flutes and greatly rejoiced, so that the earth shook at the sound.

⁴¹ Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard the commotion as they were finishing their meal, and when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Why is the city so loud and in an uproar?"

⁴² While he was speaking, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came. Adonijah said to him, "Come in, for you are a valiant man and bring good tidings."

⁴³ Jonathan answered Adonijah, saying, "Surely our lord King David has made Solomon king. ⁴⁴ The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Kerethites, and the Pelethites. And they had him ride on the king's mule. ⁴⁵ And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon, and they have come up from their rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the noise that you heard. ⁴⁶ Also Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom. ⁴⁷ Moreover, the king's servants came to bless our lord King David, saying, 'May God make the name of Solomon better than your name and make his throne greater than your throne.' And the king bowed himself upon the bed. ⁴⁸ The king also said, 'Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne this day so that I could see with my own eyes.'"

⁴⁹ All the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid and rose up and went on their way. ⁵⁰ Adonijah feared Solomon. So he got up and went to the altar and held on to its horns. ⁵¹ Then Solomon was told, "Adonijah fears King Solomon, for he has caught hold of the horns on the altar, saying 'Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not slay his servant with the sword.'"

⁵² And Solomon said, "If he will show himself a worthy man, not one of his hairs will fall to the ground, but if wickedness is found in him, he shall die." ⁵³ So King Solomon sent for him, and they brought him down from the altar, and he came and bowed himself to King Solomon. And Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

David's Charge to Solomon

1Ch 29:26-28

2 Now it was coming close to the day of David's death, and he gave his son Solomon a charge, saying:

² "I am going the way of all the earth. Be strong, and show yourself to be a man. ³ And keep the charge of the LORD your God, walking in His ways, keeping His statutes, His commandments, His judgments, and His testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn, ⁴ that the LORD may carry out His word that He spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your children take heed to their way, to walk before Me in faithfulness with all their hearts and with all their souls, you shall not fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.'

⁵ "Moreover, you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, what he did to the two commanders of the army of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed, shedding the blood of war in a time of peace. He spilled their blood on the belt that was around his waist and on the shoes of his feet. ⁶ Do the right thing according to your wisdom, and do not let his gray head go down to the grave in peace.

⁷ "But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them eat at your table, for with such loyalty they supported me when I fled from your brother Absalom.

⁸ "There is also with you Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim. But when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.⁹ Now therefore do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man and know what you ought to do to him. Bring his gray head down to the grave with blood."

¹⁰ So David slept with his fathers and was buried in the City of David.

¹¹ David reigned over Israel forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. ¹² So Solomon sat upon the throne of his father David, and his kingdom was firmly established.

The Throne of Solomon Established

¹³ Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, "Do you come in peace?"

And he said, "I come peaceably." ¹⁴ Then he said, "I have something to say to you."

And she said, "Speak."

¹⁵ He said, "You know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel viewed me as the king. However, the kingdom has become my brother's, for it was given to him by the LORD. ¹⁶ And now I ask one petition of you; do not deny me."

She said to him, "Keep speaking."

¹⁷ And he said, "Please speak to Solomon the king, for he will not refuse you, that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife."

¹⁸ Bathsheba said, "Very well, I will speak to the king on your behalf."

¹⁹ So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him on behalf of Adonijah. The king rose up to meet her and bowed to her. Then he sat down on his throne and had a seat placed at his right hand for her to sit upon.

²⁰ Then she said, "I desire one small petition of you. Please do not deny me."

And the king said to her, "Ask, my mother, for I will not refuse you."

²¹ She said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given as a wife to Adonijah your brother."

²² King Solomon answered his mother, "Now why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also, for he is my elder brother. Ask not only for him, but also for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah."

²³ Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "May God do so to me and more also if this word does not cost Adonijah his life. ²⁴ Now therefore as the LORD lives, who has established me and set me on the throne of David my father and who has made me a house as He promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day." ²⁵ So King Solomon dispatched Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he executed him.

²⁶ The king said to Abiathar the priest, "Go to Anathoth, to your own fields, for you are worthy of death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you bore the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father and because you shared in all the hardships my father endured." ²⁷ So Solomon expelled Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, thus fulfilling the word of the LORD that He had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

²⁸ Then word came to Joab, for Joab had followed Adonijah, though he did not support Absalom. And Joab fled to the tabernacle of the LORD and caught hold of the horns of the altar. ²⁹ King Solomon was told that Joab had fled to the tabernacle of the LORD and was by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go and execute him."

³⁰ So Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD and said to him, "Thus says the king, 'Come forth.'" And he said, "No, I will die here."

And Benaiah told the king all Joab said.

³¹ The king said to him, "Do as he has said, strike him down and bury him, and thus take away from me and my father's house the guilt for the blood Joab shed without cause. ³² The LORD shall return his blood upon his own head, for he attacked two men more righteous and better than he—Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah—and killed them with the sword when my father David was unaware. ³³ Therefore their blood shall return upon the head of Joab and upon the head of his seed forever, but upon David and upon his seed and upon his house and upon his throne shall the peace of the LORD rest forever."

³⁴ So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and attacked and killed him, and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. ³⁵ The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada over the army in place of Joab and put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar.

³⁶ The king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, "Build a house for yourself in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and never leave the city. ³⁷ For on the day you go out and pass over the Kidron Valley, know for certain that you will surely die. Your blood shall be on your own head."

³⁸ Shimei said to the king, "What you say is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." And Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

³⁹ It came about that at the end of three years, two servants of Shimei ran away to Achish son of Maakah king of Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, "Your servants are in Gath." ⁴⁰ Shimei arose, saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish to look for his servants. And Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.

⁴¹ Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned. ⁴² The king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD and warned you, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day you go out and walk abroad anywhere, you shall surely die'? And you said to me, 'What you say is good; I will obey.' ⁴³ Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD and the commandment that I gave you?"

⁴⁴ The king also said to Shimei, "You know all the wickedness in your heart and what you did to David my father. Therefore the LORD shall return your wickedness on your own head. ⁴⁵ But King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever."

⁴⁶ So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, who went out and attacked him so that he died.

And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

2Ch 1:2-13

3 Solomon made a treaty with Pharaoh king of Egypt. He married Pharaoh's daughter and brought her to the City of David until he finished building his palace, the house of the LORD, and the wall around Jerusalem. ² The people were sacrificing at the high places, because no house had yet been built for the name of the LORD. ³ Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of his father David, though he sacrificed and burned incense at the high places.

⁴ The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place, and he offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. ⁵ While he was in Gibeon, the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night, and He said, "Ask what you want from Me."

⁷ "Now, O LORD, my God, You have made Your servant king in place of my father David, and I am still a little child and do not know how to go out or come in.

⁸ And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a great people, so numerous that they cannot be numbered or counted. ⁹ Give Your servant therefore an understanding heart to judge Your people, that I may discern between good and bad, for who is able to judge among so great a people?"

¹⁰ It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. ¹¹ God said to him, "Because you have asked this and have not asked for yourself long life or riches or the lives of your enemies, but have asked for yourself wisdom so that you may have discernment in judging, ¹² I now do according to your words. I have given you a wise and an understanding heart, so that there has never been anyone like you in the past, and there shall never arise another like you. ¹³ I have also given you what you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that no kings will compare to you all of your days. ¹⁴ If you will walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and My commandments as your father David did, then I will lengthen your days." ¹⁵ Solomon awoke and found it was a dream.

Then he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings and made a feast for all of his servants.

The Wisdom of Solomon

¹⁶ At that time, two women who were prostitutes came and stood before the king. ¹⁷ The first woman said, "O my lord, this woman and I live in the same house, and I bore a child with her in the house.

¹⁹ "Then this woman's child died during the night because she rolled over on it. ²⁰ She got up at midnight and took my son from beside me while your servant slept and laid him at her bosom and laid her dead child at my bosom. ²¹ When I rose in the morning to feed my child, it was dead. But when I looked closely in the morning light, I recognized that it was not my son whom I bore."

²² The other woman said, "No, the living is my son, and the dead is your son."

And she said, "No, the dead is your son, and the living is my son." Thus they spoke before the king.

²³ Then the king said, "One says, 'This is my son who lives, and your son is the dead,' and the other says, 'No, but your son is dead, and my son is the living.'"

²⁴ So the king said, "Bring me a sword." And they brought a sword before the king. ²⁵ The king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one and half to the other."

²⁶ Then the woman whose child was the living one spoke to the king, for she yearned with compassion for her son, and she said, "O my lord, give her the living child, and do not kill it."

But the other said, "Let it be neither mine nor yours and divide it."

²⁷ Then the king answered and said, "Give her the living child, and do not slay it. She is its mother."

²⁸ All Israel heard of the king's judgment, and they feared the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to execute sound judgment.

The Court of Solomon

4 So King Solomon was king over all Israel. ² These were the officials in his court:

Azariah the son of Zadok was the priest.

³ Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, were secretaries.

Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder;

⁴ Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army. Zadok and Abiathar were priests.

⁵ Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers, and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer and the king's friend.

⁶ Ahishar was over the household, and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the forced labor.

⁷ Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel who made provision for the king and his household. Each man was assigned a month to make provision. ⁸ These are their names:

the son of Hur in Mount Ephraim;

⁹ the son of Deker in Makaz and in Shaalbim and Beth Shemesh and Elon Bethhanan;

¹⁰ the son of Heseid in Arubboth (to him belonged Sokoh and all the land of Hepher);

¹¹ the son of Abinadab in all the region of Dor (he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as his wife);

¹² Baana the son of Ahilud in Taanach, Megiddo, and all Beth Shan that is by Zarethan beneath Jezreel, and from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah as far as the other side of Jokmeam;

¹³ the son of Geber in Ramoth Gilead (to him pertained the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh which are in Gilead, and also the region of Argob which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and iron bars);

¹⁴ Ahinadab the son of Iddo in Mahanaim;

¹⁵ Ahimaaz in Naphtali (he had taken Basemath the daughter of Solomon as his wife);

¹⁶ Baana the son of Hushai in Asher and in Aloth;

¹⁷ Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah in Issachar;

¹⁸ Shimei the son of Ela in Benjamin;

¹⁹ Geber the son of Uri in the country of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan. He was the only officer who was in that region.

The Wealth of Solomon

²⁰ Judah and Israel had a large populace, as numerous as the sand by the sea. They ate and drank and were happy. ²¹ Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the River [†] to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt. The people brought presents and served Solomon all the days of his life.

²⁶ Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots and twelve thousand horsemen.

²⁷ Those officers made provision for King Solomon and for all who came to King Solomon's table, every man in his month, and they lacked nothing. ²⁸ Barley also and straw for the horses and dromedaries were brought to the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

²⁹ God gave Solomon wisdom and great depth of understanding as well as compassion, as vast as the sand on the seashore. ³⁰ Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the people of the East country and all the wisdom of Egypt. ³¹ For he was wiser than all other men, wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Kalkol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; his fame spread throughout all the surrounding nations. ³² He spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs numbered a thousand and five. ³³ He spoke of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon to the hyssop that springs out of the wall. He also spoke of beasts and of fowl and of insects and fish. ³⁴ People from all over came to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

Plans to Build the Temple

5 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, for he had heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, and Hiram had always loved David. ² And Solomon sent word to Hiram, saying,

³ "You know how David my father was unable to build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars all around him, until the LORD put his enemies under his feet. ⁴ But now the LORD my God has given me peace on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor misfortune. ⁵ So know that I plan to build a house to honor the name of the LORD my God, just as the LORD spoke to my father David, saying, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne after you, shall build a house to honor My name.'

⁶ "Now therefore command that cedar trees from Lebanon be cut down for me, and my servants shall be with your servants, and I will pay your servants whatever you command, for you know that there are none among my people who can cut timber like the Sidonians."

⁷ When Hiram heard the words of Solomon, he rejoiced greatly and said, "Blessed be the LORD this day, who has given David a wise son over this great people."

⁸ Hiram sent to Solomon, saying,

"I have considered the things which you contacted me about, and I will do all you asked concerning timber of cedar and fir. ⁹ My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea, and I will send them by sea in floats to the place that you shall name and will cause them to be discharged into your care there, and in return you will meet my wishes by giving food for my household."

¹⁰ So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees as he desired. ¹¹ Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand kors ^{‡‡‡} of wheat for his household and twenty baths [†] of pure oil. This is what Solomon gave to Hiram each year. ¹² The LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as He promised, and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon as they made a treaty together.

¹³ King Solomon drafted men from all Israel, totaling thirty thousand men. ¹⁴ He sent them to Lebanon in turns, ten thousand a month, with each spending a month in Lebanon and two months at home.

Adoniram administered the labor force. ¹⁵ Solomon had seventy thousand porters and eighty thousand stonecutters in the mountains, ¹⁶ not counting the chief of Solomon's officers who were over the work, three thousand three hundred, who ruled over the people who did the work. ¹⁷ At the king's command, they quarried out great, costly stones in order to lay the foundation of the house with dressed stones.

¹⁸ Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders, along with the stonemasons, cut them and prepared timber and stones to build the house.

Solomon Builds the Temple

2Ch 3:1-14

6 In the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv (which is the second month), he began to build the house of the LORD.

² The house which King Solomon built for the LORD had a length of sixty cubits, a width of twenty cubits, and a height of thirty cubits. ^{†3} The porch in front of the temple was twenty cubits [‡] in length, the same as the width of the house, and ten cubits ^{‡†} deep in front of the house. ⁴ He made beveled windows for the house. ⁵ He also built a structure against the wall of the house, running around the walls of the house, both of the temple and of the inner sanctuary, and he made side chambers all around. ⁶ The lowest story was five cubits ^{‡†} broad, the middle one was six cubits ^{‡††} broad, and the third was seven cubits ^{‡†††} broad. For around the outside of the house, he made offsets on the wall so that the supporting beams should not be inserted into the walls of the house.

⁹ So he built the house and finished it and covered it with beams and boards of cedar. ¹⁰ Then he built chambers against the whole house, five cubits high, and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

‡†† Likely about 3,600 tons, or 3,250 metric tons. † About 120,000 gallons, or 440,000 liters. †† About 90 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 45 feet high, or 27 meters long, 9 meters wide, and 14 meters high. ‡ About 30 feet, or 9 meters; and in vv. 16 and 20. ‡† About 15 feet, or 4.5 meters; and in vv. 23-26. ‡†† About 71/2 feet, or 2.3 meters; and in vv. 10 and 24. ‡††† About 9 feet, or 2.7 meters. ‡†††† About 11 feet, or 3.2 meters.

¹¹ Now the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying, ¹² "Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in My statutes and execute My judgments and keep all My commandments and walk in them, then I will carry out My word with you, which I spoke to David your father, ¹³ and I will dwell among the people of Israel and will not forsake My people Israel."

¹⁹ He prepared the inner sanctuary in the inner part of the house in order to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. ²⁰ The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and twenty cubits high. He overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid the altar of cedar. ²¹ So Solomon overlaid the interior of the house with pure gold, and he made a partition with gold chains in front of the inner sanctuary, and he overlaid it with gold. ²² He overlaid the whole house with gold as well as the whole altar that was by the inner sanctuary.

²³ Within the inner sanctuary, he made two cherubim from olive wood, each ten cubits high. ²⁴ One wing of the cherub was five cubits, and the other wing was also five cubits. From the furthest part of the one wing to the furthest part of the other was ten cubits. ²⁵ The other cherub was ten cubits. Both the cherubim were the same shape and size. ²⁶ The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was that of the other cherub. ²⁷ He set the cherubim within the inner sanctuary, and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubim, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall, and their wings touched one another in the middle of the house. ²⁸ He overlaid the cherubim with gold.

³¹ For the entrance to the inner sanctuary, he made doors of olive wood; the lintel and doorposts were five-sided. ³² The two doors were also made of olive wood. He carved on them cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubim and upon the palm trees.

³³ So also he made for the entrance to the nave four-

§ About 60 feet, or 18 meters.

sided posts of olive wood. ³⁴ The two doors were made from fir tree, with two leaves of each door folding. ³⁵ He carved on them cherubim and palm trees and open flowers and covered them with gold fitted upon the carved work.

³⁶ He built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone and a row of cedar beams.

³⁷ In the fourth year, in the month Ziv, the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, ³⁸ and in the eleventh year, in the month Bul (which is the eighth month), the house was completely finished. All the details and plans were met. So he took seven years to build it.

Solomon's Palace Built

7 Solomon was building his own house for thirteen years, and he finished all his house. ² He built the House of the Forest of Lebanon. Its length was a hundred cubits, and its width was fifty cubits, and its height was thirty cubits, [†] built on four rows of cedar pillars with cedar beams upon the pillars. ³ It was covered with cedar over the top of the beams, which sat upon forty-five pillars, fifteen in a row. ⁴ There were window frames in three rows and window opposite window in three tiers. ⁵ All the doors and posts were rectangular with the openings facing each other in three tiers.

⁷ Then he made a porch for the throne, from which he would judge, and called it the Hall of Judgment. It was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other. ⁸ His own house where he lived, in the other court back of the hall, was similar in style. Solomon also made a house like this for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken as a wife.

⁹ All these were built with costly stones, cut to size and sawed with saws on the inside and outside, from the foundation up to the coping, throughout the outside toward the great court. ¹⁰ The foundation was of large, costly stones, stones of ten [‡] and eight ^{††} cubits in size. ¹¹ Above were costly stones cut to size, along with cedars. ¹² The great court was enclosed with three rows of hewed stones and a row of cedar beams. So were the inner court of the house of the LORD and the porch of the house.

The Furnishings of the Temple

¹³ Now King Solomon sent and called Hiram out of Tyre. ¹⁴ He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre who worked in bronze, and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill to make all sorts of items in bronze. So he came to King Solomon and performed all his work.

[†] About 150 feet long, 75 feet wide and 45 feet high, or 45 meters long, 23 meters wide and 14 meters high. ^{††} About 75 feet long and 45 feet wide, or 23 meters long and 14 meters wide. [‡] About 15 feet, or 4.5 meters; and in v. 23. ^{††} About 12 feet, or 3.6 meters.

¹⁵ He cast two pillars of bronze eighteen cubits high each and twelve cubits ^{‡‡} in circumference. ¹⁶ He made two capitals of cast bronze to set on the tops of the pillars. The height of the one capital was five cubits, ^{‡‡†} and the height of the other capital was five cubits.

¹⁷ He made lattices of checker work with wreaths of chainwork for the capitals on top of the pillars: seven for one capital and seven for the other. ¹⁸ Likewise he made pomegranates in two rows around the one latticework to cover the capital that was on the top of the pillar, and he did the same for the other capital. ¹⁹ The capitals that were on top of the pillars in the porch were four cubits ^{‡‡†} high and in the shape of lilies.

²³ He made a cast metal sea, ten cubits from one side to the other. It was round and had a height of five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits [§] encircled it. ²⁴ Under the brim all the way around there were gourds, ten in a cubit. When it was cast, the gourds were placed in two rows going all the way around it.

²⁵ It stood on top of twelve oxen with three facing north, three facing toward the west, three facing toward the south, and three facing toward the east. The sea was set on them, and their hindquarters were turned inward. ²⁶ It was a hand-breadth ^{§†} thick, and the brim was made similar to the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It could hold two thousand baths. ^{§††}

^{‡‡} About 27 feet high and 18 feet in circumference, or 8.1 meters high and 5.4 meters in circumference. ^{‡‡†} About 7 1/2 feet, or 2.3 meters; and in v. 23. ^{‡‡‡} About 6 feet, or 1.8 meters; and in v. 38. [§] About 45 feet, or 14 meters. ^{§†} About 3 inches, or 7.5 centimeters. ^{§††} About 12,000 gallons, or 44,000 liters. ^{§‡} About 6 feet long and wide and 4 1/2 feet high, or 1.8 meters long and wide and 1.4 meters high.

deep. † At its opening there were engravings, and its panels were four-sided, not round. 32 Underneath the panels were four wheels, and the axles of the wheels were joined to the stand, and the height of a wheel was a cubit and a half. 33 The wheels worked like chariot wheels in that their axles and rims and spokes and hubs were all cast metal.

34 There were four supports for the four corners of each stand, and the supports were part of one piece with the stand itself. 35 On the top of the stand, there was a round band half a cubit †† high, and on the top of the stand its stays and its panels were of one piece with it. 36 On the surface of its stays and on its panels, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths all around. 37 In this way he made the ten stands, with them all having the same shape, measure, and size.

38 Then he made ten basins of bronze, with each basin able to hold forty baths, ‡ each being four cubits. Upon every one of the ten stands sat one basin. 39 He put five stands on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house. He set the sea on the right side of the house toward the southeast. 40 Hiram also made the pots, the shovels, and the basins.

So Hiram finished all the work in making items for King Solomon for use in the house of the LORD: 41 the two pillars, the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the two pillars, the two latticeworks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars; 42 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two latticeworks, two rows of pomegranates for each latticework, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars; 43 the ten stands and ten basins on the stands; 44 one sea and twelve oxen under the sea; 45 the pots, the shovels, and the basins.

All these vessels that Hiram made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD were of burnished bronze. 46 In the plain of the Jordan the king cast them, in the clay ground between Sukkoth and Zarethan.

47 Solomon left all the vessels unweighed because there were so many. The weight of the bronze was also never measured.

48 Solomon made all the vessels that were needed for the house of the LORD: the altar of gold, the table of gold on which was showbread, 49 the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side and five on the left before the inner sanctuary; the flowers, the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; 50 the cups, snuffers, basins, dishes for incense, fire pans, of pure gold; the sockets for the doors of the innermost part of the house, the Most Holy Place, and for the doors of the nave of the temple, of gold.

51 All the work that King Solomon made for the house of the LORD was completed. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated—the silver, the gold, and the cups—and he put them among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

The Ark Brought to the Temple

2Ch 5:2-6:11

8 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, before King Solomon in Jerusalem, so that they could ensure that the ark of the covenant of the LORD would be brought out of the City of David in Zion. 2 All the men of Israel assembled themselves before King Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.

3 All the elders of Israel came, and the priests carried the ark. 4 The priests and Levites brought up the ark of the LORD, the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy implements that were in the tabernacle. 5 King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled before him stood together in front of the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be told or numbered.

6 The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place in the inner sanctuary of the house, to the Most Holy Place under the wings of the cherubim. 7 For the cherubim spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark and covered the ark and the poles from above. 8 The poles were so long that the ends of the poles could be seen out in the holy place in front of the inner sanctuary, but they could not be seen from outside, and they are there to this day. 9 There was nothing in the ark except for the two tablets of stone that Moses put there at Horeb when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel after they had come out of the land of Egypt.

10 And when the priests came out of the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the LORD, 11 so that the priests could not continue to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

12 Then Solomon spoke, saying, "The LORD said that He would dwell in the thick darkness. 13 I have surely built You a house to dwell in, a settled place for You to abide in forever."

14 Then the king turned around and blessed all the congregation of Israel (and all the congregation of Israel stood), 15 and he said,

"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David and has with His hand fulfilled His word, saying, 16 'Since the day that I brought forth My people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city from any tribe of Israel to build a house where My name might be praised, but I chose David to be over My people Israel.'

17 "My father David had it in mind to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. 18 The LORD said to my father David, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you had good intentions. 19 Nevertheless, you shall not build the house, † About 21/4 feet, or 68 centimeters; and in v. 32. †† About 9 inches, or 23 centimeters. ‡ About 240 gallons, or 880 liters.

but your son who will come out of your loins, he shall build the house for My name.'

²⁰ "The LORD has fulfilled His word that He spoke, and I have been elevated to the position of my father David, to sit on the throne of Israel as the LORD promised, and have built a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. ²¹ I have set a place there for the ark, which houses the covenant of the LORD which He made with our fathers when He brought them out of the land of Egypt."

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

2Ch 6:12-40

²² Then Solomon stood in front of the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel and spread his hands toward heaven. ²³ and he said,

"LORD God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven above or on earth below who keeps covenant and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their hearts, ²⁴ who have kept what You promised Your servant David my father. You spoke also with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

²⁵ "Therefore, LORD God of Israel, now keep what You promised Your servant David my father, saying, 'You will not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne of Israel, so long as your sons take heed to their way, that they walk before Me as you have walked before Me.' ²⁶ Now, O God of Israel, let Your word, I pray, be fulfilled, which You spoke to Your servant David my father.

²⁷ "But will God indeed dwell on the earth? See, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You. How much less can this house that I have built? ²⁸ Yet give consideration to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, O LORD my God; listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You today, ²⁹ that Your eyes may be upon this house night and day, even toward the place of which You have said, 'My name shall be there,' that You may listen to the prayer which Your servant shall make toward this place. ³⁰ Please listen to the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they pray toward this place. May You hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and when You hear, forgive.

³¹ "If any man sins against his neighbor, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath comes before Your altar in this house, ³² then may You hear in heaven and act and judge Your servants, condemning the wicked, bringing his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous, giving him according to his righteousness.

³³ "When Your people Israel are defeated by their enemies, because they have sinned against You, and they turn back to You and call upon Your name and pray and make supplication to You in this house, ³⁴ then may You hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel and bring them again to the land which You gave to their fathers.

³⁵ "When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against You, if they pray toward this place and call upon Your name and turn from their sin when You afflict them, ³⁶ then may You hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and Your people Israel, that You may teach them the good way in which they should walk and give rain upon Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

⁴¹ "Also concerning the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel and comes from a far country for Your name's sake ⁴² (for they will hear of Your great name and of Your strong hand and of Your outstretched arm), when he comes and prays toward this house, ⁴³ may You hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and do all that the foreigner asks of You, so all people of the earth will know Your name, to fear You as Your people Israel do, and that they may know that this house, which I have built, is called by Your name.

⁴⁴ "If Your people go out to battle against their enemy wherever You send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city which You have chosen and toward the house that I have built for Your name, ⁴⁵ then may You hear their prayer and supplication in heaven and maintain their cause.

⁴⁶ "If they sin against You (for there is no man who does not sin), and You get angry with them and hand them over to the enemy so that they are carried away as captives to the land of the enemy, far or near, ⁴⁷ yet when they come to their senses while in the land where they were carried captives and repent and make supplication to You, saying, 'We have sinned and have acted perversely and have committed wickedness,' ⁴⁸ and so return to You with all their hearts and with all their souls in the land of their enemies, who carried them away as captives, and pray to You toward their land, which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen and the house which I have built for Your name, ⁴⁹ then may You hear their prayers and supplications in heaven, Your dwelling place, and maintain their cause, ⁵⁰ and forgive Your people who have sinned against You and all their transgressions which they committed against You and grant them compassion before those who carried them away as captives, so they will have compassion on them. ⁵¹ For they are Your people and Your inheritance whom You brought forth out of Egypt from the midst of the furnace of iron.

⁵² "Let Your eyes be open to the supplication of Your servant and to the supplication of Your people Israel, to listen to them regarding all for which they call upon You. ⁵³ For You did call them out from among all the people of the earth to be Your inheritance, as You spoke by the hand of Moses Your servant when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD."

⁵⁴ Now when Solomon finished praying this prayer and making supplication to the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven. ⁵⁵ He stood up and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

⁵⁶ "Blessed be the LORD who has given rest to His people Israel according to all that He promised. Not one word of His promises which He gave by the hand of Moses His servant has failed. ⁵⁷ The LORD our God be with us, as He was with our fathers. Let Him neither leave us nor forsake us, ⁵⁸ that He may incline our hearts to Him, to walk in all His ways and to keep His commandments, statutes, and judgments, which He commanded our fathers. ⁵⁹ And let these my words, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be close to the LORD our God day and night, that He will maintain the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Israel at all times as the situation demands, ⁶⁰ so that all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God and that there is none else. ⁶¹ Let your hearts, therefore, be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in His statutes and keep His commandments, as at this day."

The Dedication of the Temple

⁶⁴ The same day the king consecrated the middle of the court that was in front of the house of the LORD, for there he offered burnt offerings and meat offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings and meat offerings and the fat of the peace offerings.

⁶⁵ At that time, Solomon held a feast for all Israel, a great congregation, from the entry of Lebo Hamath to the Brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and another seven days, a total of fourteen days. ⁶⁶ On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king and went to their tents rejoicing in their hearts for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David His servant and for Israel His people.

The LORD Appears to Solomon

2Ch 7:11-22

⁹ When Solomon had finished building the house of the LORD and the king's house and all else he desired, ² the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. ³ The LORD said to him,

"I have heard your prayer and supplication, which you made before Me. I have consecrated this house which you built by putting My name there forever. And My eyes and My heart shall be there perpetually.

⁴ "If you will walk before Me, as your father David walked, in integrity of heart and uprightness, so that you are obedient to do all that I have commanded you, and will keep My statutes and My judgments, ⁵ then I will establish the throne of your kingdom upon Israel forever, just as I promised to your father David, saying, 'You shall not fail to have a man upon the throne of Israel.'

⁶ "But if you and your sons turn in any way from following Me and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them, ⁷ then I will cut Israel out of the land which I have given them, and I will cast this house, which I have consecrated for My name, out of My sight, and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people. ⁸ And everyone who passes by this high house will be astonished and will hiss, and they shall say, 'Why has the LORD done this to this land, and to this house?' ⁹ And they will answer, 'Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and took hold of other gods and have worshipped and served them. That is why the LORD has brought all this disaster upon them.'"

Solomon's Other Activities

¹⁰ When twenty years had passed since Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house ¹¹ (now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar and fir trees, along with gold, as he had requested), King Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. ¹² Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities Solomon had given him, and he was not pleased with them. ¹³ He said, "What cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" And he called them the land of Kabul to this day. ¹⁴ Hiram sent to the king one hundred and twenty talents † of gold.

¹⁵ This is the account of the forced labor which King Solomon conscripted to build the house of the LORD and his own house, Millo, the wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer. ¹⁶ For Pharaoh, king of Egypt, had gone up against and conquered Gezer and burned it with fire and slain the Canaanites that lived in the city and given it as a present to his daughter, Solomon's wife. ¹⁷ Solomon built Gezer and Lower Beth Horon ¹⁸ and Baalath and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land, ¹⁹ and all the storage cities that Solomon had, cities for his chariots and cities for his horsemen and all that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the land of his dominion.

²⁵ Three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar that he built to the LORD, and he burned incense on the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

²⁶ King Solomon built a fleet of ships in Ezion Geber, which is beside Elath on the shore of the Red Sea in the land of Edom. ²⁷ Hiram sent shipmen who had knowledge of the sea to serve alongside Solomon's men. ²⁸ They went to Ophir and acquired four hundred and twenty talents [†] of gold there and brought it to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba

2Ch 9:1-12

10 Now when the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame connected to the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions. ² She came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels bearing spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when she came to Solomon, she told him all that was on her mind. ³ Solomon answered all her questions; there was not anything too difficult for the king which he could not answer. ⁴ When the queen of Sheba observed Solomon's wisdom and the house he had built ⁵ and the meat of his table and the sitting of his servants and the attendance of his ministers and their clothing and his cupbearers and his entryway by which he went up to the house of the LORD, it took her breath away.

⁶ She said to the king, "What I heard in my own land about your acts and your wisdom was true! ⁷ I did not believe it until I came and saw it with my own eyes! In fact, I was not even told half. Your wisdom and prosperity are greater than the stories I heard! ⁸ Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!

⁹ Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you and set you on the throne of Israel, because the LORD loved Israel forever; therefore He made you king in order to execute judgment and justice."

¹⁰ She gave the king a hundred and twenty talents ^{††} of gold and a great amount of spices and precious stones. No one gave as many spices as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹³ King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all she desired, no matter what she asked for, in addition to what Solomon gave her from his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

Solomon's Wealth

2Ch 1:14-17; 9:13-28

¹⁴ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents [‡] of gold. ¹⁵ In addition, he collected from the merchantmen and the traffic of the spice merchants and from all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country.

¹⁸ The king also made a great throne of ivory and overlaid it with the best gold. ¹⁹ The throne had six steps, and the back of the throne was round, and there were armrests on either side of the seat with two lions standing beside the armrests. ²⁰ Twelve lions stood on the sides of the six steps, and there was no other like it in any kingdom. ²¹ All of King Solomon's drinking cups were made of gold, and all the cups of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were made of pure gold. None were made of silver, for it was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon. ²² For the king had ships at sea at Tarshish with the ships of Hiram. Every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

²³ So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in terms of riches and wisdom. ²⁴ All the earth came to Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. ²⁵ Everyone brought an annual tribute in the form of presents, silver and gold cups, garments, armor, spices, horses, and mules.

²⁶ Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen. He had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen whom he stationed in the cities for chariots and with the king at Jerusalem.

²⁷ The king made silver to be in Jerusalem as plentiful as stones, and he made cedars to be as plentiful as sycamore trees in the valley. ²⁸ Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt along with linen yarn. The king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price. ²⁹ He brought chariots from Egypt at a price of six hundred shekels of silver and a horse for a hundred and fifty. [†] And he exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram, by their means.

Solomon's Apostasy

11 But King Solomon loved many foreign women in addition to the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites, ² from the nations which the LORD warned the children of Israel about, saying, "You shall not go in to them, nor shall they come in to you, for they will surely turn your heart away toward their gods." Solomon clung to these in love. ³ He had seven hundred wives who were princesses and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned his heart away. ⁴ For when Solomon was old, his wives turned his heart away after other gods, and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God as the heart of David his father had been. ⁵ For Solomon went after Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Molek, the abomination of the Ammonites. ⁶ Solomon did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and did not fully follow the LORD as his father David had done.

⁹ The LORD was angry with Solomon because he turned his heart away from the LORD God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, ¹⁰ and had warned him about this, that he should not follow other gods, but he was disobedient to the LORD's command.

¹¹ Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Since you have done this and have not kept My covenant and statutes, which I commanded you, I will surely take the kingdom from you and give it to your servant. ¹² I will not do this in your lifetime for your father David's sake, but I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

¹³ However, I will not take the whole kingdom away, but will preserve one tribe for your son for David My servant's sake and for the sake of Jerusalem which I chose."

Solomon's Adversaries

¹⁴ The LORD stirred up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad the Edomite. He was a prince of Edom. ¹⁵ For when David was in Edom, and Joab the commander of the army had gone to bury the slain, he had killed every male in Edom ¹⁶ (for six months Joab stayed there with his men until he had killed every male in Edom). ¹⁷ But Hadad fled to Egypt, he and some Edomites who served his father, Hadad still being a small child. ¹⁸ They set out from Midian and went to Paran, and they gathered men from Paran and then arrived in Egypt and presented him before Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house and provisions and land.

²¹ When Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers and that Joab, the commander of the army, was dead, he said to Pharaoh, "Allow me to depart and go to my own country."

²² Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me that you want to go to your own country?"

And he answered, "Nothing, however let me go anyway."

²³ God stirred up another adversary against him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who fled from his lord Hadadezer, king of Zobah. ²⁴ He gathered a group of men and became leader over a band when David killed the men of Zobah, and they fled to Damascus and lived and reigned there. ²⁵ He was an enemy of Israel all the days of Solomon in addition to the troubles caused by Hadad, and he hated Israel and reigned over Aram.

Jeroboam's Rebellion

²⁶ Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, who was Solomon's servant and whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king.

²⁹ At that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him along the way, and he had dressed himself in a new garment, and the two of them were alone in the field. ³⁰ Ahijah took off the new garment that he wore and tore it into twelve pieces, ³¹ and he said to Jeroboam: Take ten pieces, for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, "See, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon and will give ten tribes to you ³² (but he shall have one tribe for My servant David's sake and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel), ³³ because they have forsaken Me and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Molek the god of the children of Ammon and have not walked in My ways and have not done that which is right in My eyes, to keep My statutes and judgments, as his father David had done.

³⁴ "However, I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, but I will make him prince all the days of his life for David My servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept My commandments and My statutes.

³⁵ But I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand and will give ten tribes to you. ³⁶ To his son will I give one tribe, so that My servant David will always have a light before Me in Jerusalem, the city in which I have chosen to put My name. ³⁷ I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires and shall be king over Israel. ³⁸ It shall be, if you will listen to all that I command you and will walk in My ways and do what is right in My sight to keep My statutes and My commandments, as David My servant did, I will be with you and build you a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you. ³⁹ I will thus afflict the seed of David, but not forever."

⁴⁰ Solomon therefore sought to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt to Shishak, king of Egypt, and he stayed in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

The Death of Solomon

2Ch 9:29-31

⁴¹ The rest of the acts of Solomon and all that he did and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon? ⁴² And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years.

⁴³ Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the City of David his father, and his son Rehoboam reigned after him.

Israel Rebels Against Rehoboam

2Ch 10:1-11:4

12 And Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king. ² When Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was still in Egypt, heard of it (for he had fled from King Solomon and stayed in Egypt), ³ they called and sent for him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, ⁴ "Your father made our yoke unbearable. Now, therefore, make the grievous service to your father and the heavy yoke he put upon us lighter, and we will serve you."

⁵ He said to them, "Depart for three days, and then come back to me." And the people departed.

⁶ King Rehoboam consulted with the old men who advised his father Solomon while he was still alive and asked, "How do you advise me to answer the people?"

⁷ And they spoke to him, saying, "If you will be a servant to this people this day and will serve them and answer them and speak kind words to them, they will be your servants forever."

⁸ But he rejected the advice that the old men gave him and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and who stood before him, ⁹ and he said to them, "What advice do you give on how we should answer this people, who have spoken to me saying, 'Make the yoke your father put on us lighter?'"

¹⁰ And the young men who grew up with him said, "Thus shall you answer this people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter for us'; thus shall you say to them, 'My little finger will be thicker than my father's loins! ¹¹ Whereas my father loaded you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your burden. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions!'"

¹² So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had appointed, saying, "Come to me again the third day." ¹³ The king answered the people roughly and forsook the counsel the old men gave him, ¹⁴ and instead spoke to them following the advice of the young men. He said, "My father made your yoke heavy, and I will add to your burden. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions." ¹⁵ Thus the king did not listen to the people, for the cause was from the LORD, that He might fulfill His saying, which the LORD spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶ So when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people responded to the king, saying, "What portion do we have in David?"

We also do not have an inheritance in the son of Jesse.

To your tents, O Israel, and see to your own house, David!"

So the people of Israel departed to their tents. ¹⁷ But the people of Israel living in the cities of Judah were ruled over by Rehoboam.

¹⁸ Then King Rehoboam sent Adoniram, who was in charge of the forced labor, and all Israel stoned him to death. As a result, King Rehoboam quickly mounted his chariot and fled to Jerusalem. ¹⁹ So Israel rebelled against the house of David, and it remains so even to this day.

²⁰ When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him before the congregation and made him king over all Israel. Only the tribe of Judah followed the house of David.

²¹ When Rehoboam arrived at Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah along with the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel and to bring the kingdom back to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

²² But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying: ²³ Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and to the remnant of the people, saying, ²⁴ "Thus says the LORD: You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers the children of Israel. Every man is to return to his house, for this thing is from Me." They listened therefore to the word of the LORD and turned to depart, according to the word of the LORD.

Jeroboam's Golden Calves

²⁵ Then Jeroboam built Shechem in Mount Ephraim and lived there and went out from there and built Peniel.

²⁶ Jeroboam said in his heart, "The kingdom will return to the house of David. ²⁷ If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again to their lord, even to Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah."

²⁸ At that point, the king got some advice and made two golden calves and said to the people, "It is too difficult for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt." ²⁹ He set one in Bethel, and he put the other in Dan. ³⁰ This was a sin, for the people went to worship before the one, even all the way in Dan.

³¹ He also made houses on high places and appointed priests from among all the people who were not Levites. ³² Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast in Judah, and he offered sacrifice on the altar. He did this in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made, and he stationed in Bethel the priests of the high places he had made. ³³ So he made offerings on the altar that he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a holiday he imagined in his own heart, and ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and he sacrificed on the altar and burned incense.

The Man of God From Judah

13 A man of God came out of Judah to Bethel by the word of the LORD while Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense. ² He cried against the altar by the word of the LORD and said, "O altar, altar, thus says the LORD: 'A child named Josiah will be born in the house of David, and he will sacrifice upon you the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and these men's bones shall be burned upon you.'"

³ He gave a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign that the LORD has spoken: 'The altar will be torn apart, and the ashes that are upon it will be poured out.'"

⁴ When King Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God who had cried against the altar in Bethel, he reached out his hand from the altar, saying, "Arrest him!" And the hand that he put forth against him dried up so that he could not pull it back in again. ⁵ The altar also was torn, and the ashes poured out from the altar, just as the man of God had said it would as a sign of the LORD.

⁶ The king answered and said to the man of God, "Seek the face of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand will be healed." And the man of God interceded with the LORD, and the king's hand was healed and became as it was before.

⁷ The king said to the man of God, "Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward."

⁸ The man of God said to the king, "If you were to give me half your house, I would not go with you, nor will I eat bread nor drink water in this place, ⁹ for so I was commanded by the word of the LORD, saying: You shall eat no bread, nor drink water nor return by the same way that you came." ¹⁰ So he went another way and did not return by the same way he came to Bethel.

¹¹ Now there lived an old prophet in Bethel, and his sons came and told him all that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. They also told their father the words that he had spoken to the king. ¹² Their father said to them, "What way did he go?" For his sons had seen the way the man of God who came from Judah had gone. ¹³ He said to his sons, "Saddle my donkey." So they saddled the donkey for him, and he rode on it. ¹⁴ He went after the man of God and found him sitting under an oak, and he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

And he said, "I am."

¹⁵ Then he said to him, "Come home with me and eat bread."

¹⁶ He said, "I may not return with you or go in with you, nor will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place, ¹⁷ for I was commanded by the word of the LORD: You shall eat no bread and drink no water there nor return by the way you came."

¹⁸ He said to him, "I am a prophet like you, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, 'Bring him back with you into your house so that he may eat bread and drink water.'" But he had lied to him. ¹⁹ So he went back with him to his house and ate bread and drank water.

²⁰ Then as they sat at the table, the word of the LORD came to the prophet who brought him back, ²¹ and he cried out to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, "Thus says the LORD: Since you have disobeyed the mouth of the LORD and have not kept the commandment that the LORD your God commanded you, ²² but instead came back and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which the LORD told you to eat no bread and drink no water, your carcass will not be buried in the tomb of your fathers!"

²³ After he had eaten bread and had drunk, he saddled the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back. ²⁴ As he was going, a lion met him on the way and killed him, and his body was thrown in the road, and both the donkey and lion stood by it. ²⁵ Some men passed by and saw the body thrown in the road with the lion standing by the body, and they came and told the story in the city where the old prophet lived.

²⁶ When the prophet who brought him back from the way heard about it, he said, "It is the man of God who was disobedient to the word of the LORD, and thus the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has torn and slain him, according to the word of the LORD that He spoke to him."

²⁷ He said to his sons, "Saddle my donkey," and they saddled it. ²⁸ He then went and found his body thrown in the road, and the donkey and the lion were still standing by the body. The lion had not eaten the body nor attacked the donkey. ²⁹ The prophet picked up the body of the man of God and laid it on his donkey and brought it back. The old prophet came to the city to mourn and to bury him. ³⁰ He laid his body in his own tomb, and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother!"

³¹ And after he had buried him, he said to his sons, "When I am dead, bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones. ³² For the saying that he cried out by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the houses of the high places that are in the cities of Samaria shall surely come to pass."

³³ After this event Jeroboam did not turn from his evil ways, but made priests for the high places again from among all the people. Any who would, he consecrated to be priests of the high places. ³⁴ This matter became sin to the house of Jeroboam, so as to cut it off and to destroy it from the face of the earth.

Ahijah Prophecies Against Jeroboam

14 At that time, Jeroboam's son Abijah became sick. ² Jeroboam said to his wife, "Please get up and disguise yourself, so that you will not be recognized as the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh. There you will find Ahijah the prophet, who told me that I would be king over this people. ³ Take ten loaves, cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to our child." ⁴ Jeroboam's wife did so and arose and went to Shiloh, to the house of Ahijah.

But Ahijah could not see, for in his old age he had gone blind. ⁵ The LORD said to Ahijah, "The wife of Jeroboam has come to ask you about her son, for he is sick. You shall say thus and thus to her, for when she comes, she will be disguised as another woman."

⁶ And so when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came in the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why do you disguise yourself as another? I have been sent to you with bad news. ⁷ Go tell Jeroboam, 'Thus says the LORD God of Israel: I raised you up from among the people and made you prince over My people Israel, ⁸ and took the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it you. Yet you have not been as My servant David, who kept My commandments and who followed Me with all his heart to do only that which was right in My eyes, ⁹ but you have sinned more than all who were before you, for you have gone and made other gods and molded images and provoked Me to anger and have cast Me behind your back.

¹⁰ "Therefore I will bring disaster upon the house of Jeroboam and will cut off from Jeroboam all males, both slave and free in Israel, and will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man takes away refuse until it is all gone. ¹¹ Descendants of Jeroboam who die in the city will be eaten by dogs, and those who die in the field will be eaten by the birds of the air, for the LORD has spoken it.'

¹² "Arise therefore and go to your own house. When your feet enter the city, the child will die. ¹³ All Israel will mourn for him and bury him, for he alone from the house of Jeroboam will come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Israel.

¹⁴ "Moreover the LORD will raise up a king over Israel who will destroy the house of Jeroboam this day and from now on. ¹⁵ For the LORD will smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and He will uproot Israel from this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their Asherah poles, provoking the LORD to anger. ¹⁶ He shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam who sinned and who led Israel to sin."

¹⁷ Jeroboam's wife arose and departed and came to Tirzah. As she arrived at the threshold of the door, the child died, ¹⁸ and they buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke by the hand of His servant Ahijah the prophet.

¹⁹ The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he waged war and how he reigned, are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. ²⁰ Jeroboam reigned twenty-two years, and then he slept with his fathers, and Nadab, his son, reigned in his stead.

Rehoboam, King of Judah

2Ch 12:9-16

²¹ Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess.

²³ For they also built high places and images and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree. ²⁴ There were also male cult prostitutes in the land, and they did according to all the abominations of the nations that the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

²⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ³⁰ There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. ³¹ Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. And his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. And Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

Abijah, King of Judah

15 Now in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam the son of Nebat, Abijah became king over Judah. ² He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maakah, the daughter of Abishalom.

³ He walked in all the sins of his father that he had done before him, and his heart was not wholly devoted to the LORD his God as the heart of his father David had been. ⁴ Nevertheless, for David's sake, the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him and to establish Jerusalem, ⁵ because David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD and did not turn aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter involving Uriah the Hittite.

⁸ Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David, and Asa his son reigned in his place.

Asa, King of Judah

⁹ In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king over Judah. ¹⁰ He reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem, and his grandmother's name was Maakah, the daughter of Abishalom.

¹¹ Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father David had done. ¹² He expelled the male cult prostitutes from the land and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. ¹³ In addition he even deposed his grandmother Maakah as queen, because she had made an idol in a grove. Asa destroyed her idol and burned it by the Kidron brook. ¹⁴ But the high places were not all removed, even though Asa's heart was wholly devoted to the LORD all his days.

¹⁵ He brought into the house of the LORD the things that both his father and he himself had dedicated, the silver and gold and cups.

¹⁶ There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. ¹⁷ Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah so he could prevent anyone from going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah.

¹⁸ Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, as well as the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants, and he sent them to Ben-Hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Aram, who lived at Damascus, saying, ¹⁹ "There is a treaty between me and you and between my father and your father. I have sent to you a present of silver and gold. Come and break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so he will depart from me."

²³ The rest of all the acts of Asa and all his might and all that he did and the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? When he was old, he got a disease in his feet.

²⁴ Asa then slept with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of his father David, and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

Nadab, King of Israel

²⁵ Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah and reigned over Israel two years. ²⁶ He did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of his father and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

²⁷ Baasha the son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasha killed him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon. ²⁸ It was in the third year of Asa king of Judah that Baasha killed him and took his throne.

²⁹ When he became king, Baasha killed all the house of Jeroboam. No one from Jeroboam's family was left breathing. He completely destroyed them, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by His servant Ahijah the Shilonite, ³⁰ because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation with which he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

³¹ Now the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ³² And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

Baasha, King of Israel

³³ In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, and he did so twenty-four years. ³⁴ He did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

16 Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, ² "I exalted you out of the dust and made you prince over My people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have made My people Israel to sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins. ³ See, I will take away the posterity of Baasha and the posterity of his house and will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. ⁴ Those from the house of Baasha who die in the city will be eaten by dogs, and those who die in the fields will be eaten by the birds of the air."

⁷ And so it was by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani that the word of the LORD came against Baasha and his house, for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD in provoking Him to anger with the work of his hands because he acted like the house of Jeroboam and also because he killed it.

Elah, King of Israel

⁸ In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah, and he did so two years.

¹¹ When he began to reign, as soon as he was seated on his throne, he executed all the household of Baasha. He left no males, neither of his relatives nor of his friends. ¹² Thus Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, ¹³ because of all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned and by which they made Israel to sin in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

¹⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Zimri, King of Israel

¹⁵ In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the troops were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. ¹⁶ The troops who were encamped heard how Zimri had conspired and had slain the king. As a result, all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. ¹⁷ Omri went up from Gibbethon and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. ¹⁸ When Zimri saw that the city had fallen, he went into the citadel of the king's house and burned the king's house over him with fire, and he died, ¹⁹ because of his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin which he did to make Israel to sin.

²⁰ Now the rest of the acts of Zimri and his treason, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Omri, King of Israel

²¹ Then the people of Israel were divided into two parts. Half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath to make him king, and half followed Omri. ²² But the people who followed Omri defeated the people who followed Tibni, the son of Ginath. So Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

²³ In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel, and he did so twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirzah. ²⁴ He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents [†] of silver. He fortified the hill and named the city he built after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, calling it "Samaria."

²⁵ But Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD and did worse than all who preceded him, ²⁶ for he walked in all the ways of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

²⁷ Now the rest of the acts Omri performed and his might that he showed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ²⁸ So Omri slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria, and Ahab his son reigned in his place.

Ahab Reigns in Israel

²⁹ In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel, and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years. ³⁰ Ahab the son of Omri did more evil in the sight of the LORD than all who were before him. ³¹ The sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat were seen as minor for him to walk in, for he took Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal, king of the Sidonians, as his wife and went and served Baal and worshipped him. ³² He raised an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. ³³ Ahab made an Asherah and did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel who preceded him.

[†] About 150 pounds, or 68 kilograms.

³⁴ In his days, Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho. He laid the foundation at the expense of his firstborn Abiram and set up the gates at the cost of the life of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

Elijah's Prediction of Drought

17 Now Elijah the Tishbite, who was one of the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD God of Israel lives before whom I stand, there will not be dew or rain these years except by my word."

² The word of the LORD came to him, saying, ³ "Go from here and turn eastward and hide by the Kerith brook, which is east of the Jordan. ⁴ You shall drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there."

⁵ So he went and did according to the word of the LORD, for he went and lived by the Kerith brook, which is east of the Jordan. ⁶ The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook.

The Widow of Zarephath

⁷ After some time, the brook dried up because there had been no rain in the land. ⁸ The word of the LORD came to him, saying, ⁹ "Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and live there. I have commanded a widow there to provide for you." ¹⁰ So he got up and went to Zarephath, and when he came to the gate of the city, a widow was there gathering sticks. He called to her and said, "Please get a small cup of water for me to drink." ¹¹ As she was going to get it, he called to her and said, "Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

¹² She said, "As the LORD your God lives, I do not have bread, but only a handful of meal in a barrel and a little oil in a jar. I am gathering two sticks, that I can go in and make it for me and my son, so we may eat it and die."

¹³ Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go and do as you have said, but make a little cake for me first, and bring it to me, and afterward, make some for your son and you, ¹⁴ for thus says the LORD God of Israel: The barrel of meal will not run out, nor will the jar of oil empty, until the day that the LORD sends rain upon the earth."

¹⁵ She went and did what Elijah told her to do, and she, he, and her household ate many days. ¹⁶ The barrel of meal did not run out, nor did the jar of oil empty, according to the word of the LORD, which He spoke by Elijah.

¹⁷ Later on, the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became terribly sick, so much so that he had no breath left in him. ¹⁸ She said to Elijah, "What do I have to do with you, O you man of God? Have you come to remind me of my sin and to kill my son?"

¹⁹ And he said to her, "Give me your son," and he took him out of her arms and carried him up to a loft where he slept and laid him on his own bed. ²⁰ He cried to the LORD and said, "O LORD, my God, have You brought tragedy upon the widow with whom I live by killing her son?" ²¹ And he stretched himself upon the child three times and cried to the LORD and said, "O LORD, my God, I pray that You let this child's soul come into him again."

²² The LORD heard the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he was revived.

²³ Elijah took the child and brought him down out of the chamber into the house and returned him to his mother, and Elijah said, "See, your son lives!"

²⁴ The woman said to Elijah, "Now, because of this, I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth!"

Elijah Confronts Ahab

18 After many days, in the third year, the word of the LORD came to Elijah, saying, "Go and present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain upon the earth." ² Elijah went to show himself to Ahab.

And there was a great famine in Samaria. ³ Ahab called Obadiah, who was the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly. ⁴ When Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them in groups of fifty in a cave and fed them with bread and water.) ⁵ And Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go into the land, to all the springs of water and to all the brooks. Perhaps we will find grass to save the horses and mules, so that we do not lose all the beasts." ⁶ So they divided the land between them to search throughout it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

⁷ As Obadiah was going along, he met Elijah, and he recognized him and fell on his face and said, "Is that you, my lord Elijah?"

⁸ And he answered him, "I am. Go, tell your lord, 'Elijah is here.'"

⁹ He said, "What evil have I done that you would hand your servant into the hand of Ahab to put me to death? ¹⁰ As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my lord has not looked for you, and when they said, 'He is not here,' he made the kingdom and nation swear that they could not find you, ¹¹ and now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, 'Elijah is here!'"

¹² As soon as I am gone from you, the Spirit of the LORD will carry you to a place I do not know, and so when I come and tell Ahab and he cannot find you, he will execute me. But I, your servant, have feared the LORD since my youth. ¹³ Were you not told what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD's prophets in groups of fifty in a cave and fed them with bread and water? ¹⁴ And now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Elijah is here,"' and he will execute me."

¹⁵ Elijah said, "As the LORD of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today."

Elijah and the Prophets of Baal

¹⁶ So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him. And Ahab went to meet Elijah. ¹⁷ When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, "Are you he that troubles Israel?"

¹⁸ And he answered, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house, in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD and you have followed the Baals. ¹⁹ Now send word out and gather for me all Israel on Mount Carmel, along with the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah who eat at Jezebel's table."

²⁰ So Ahab called out all the children of Israel and gathered the prophets together on Mount Carmel. ²¹ Elijah came to all the people and said, "How long will you stay between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow Him, but if Baal, then follow him."

And the people did not say a word.

²² Then Elijah said to the people, "I alone remain a prophet of the LORD, but Baal's prophets number four hundred and fifty men. ²³ Therefore, let them give us two bulls, and let them choose one bull for themselves and cut it in pieces and lay it on some wood, but do not light a fire under it, and I will prepare the other bull, lay it on some wood, and not light a fire underneath it. ²⁴ And you call on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD, and the God that answers by fire, let Him be God."

And all the people answered and said, "It is well spoken."

²⁵ Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first, for there are many of you, and call on the name of your god, but do not light a fire underneath."

²⁶ They took the bull which was given to them, and they prepared it and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, "O Baal, hear us." But there was no voice, and no one answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.

²⁷ By noon, Elijah mocked them, saying, "Cry out loud, for he is a god. Either he is talking or is gone away or is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and needs to be awakened." ²⁸ They cried out loud and cut themselves with knives and spears according to their custom until the blood gushed out on them. ²⁹ And as midday passed, they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice. But there was no voice. No one answered; no one paid attention.

³⁰ Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me." And all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. ³¹ Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came saying, "Israel shall be your name," ³² and he built an altar in the name of the LORD with stones, and he made a trench around the altar, so deep that it could contain two seahs [†] of seed. ³³ He arranged the wood and cut the bull in pieces and laid him on the wood and said, "Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt sacrifice and on the wood."

³⁴ He said, "Do it a second time," and they did it a second time.

And he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it the third time. ³⁵ The water ran all around the altar and also filled the trench with water.

³⁶ At the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet came near and said, "The LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that You are God in Israel and that I am Your servant and that I have done all these things at Your word. ³⁷ Hear me, O LORD, hear me, so that this people may know that You are the LORD God and that You have turned their hearts back again."

³⁸ Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt sacrifice and the wood and the stones and the dust and licked up the water that was in the trench.

³⁹ When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and said, "The LORD, He is God! The LORD, He is God!"

⁴⁰ Elijah said to them, "Arrest the prophets of Baal, and do not let one of them escape." And they arrested them, and Elijah brought them down to the Kishon brook and executed them there.

End of the Drought

⁴¹ Elijah said to Ahab, "Get up, eat and drink, for there is a sound of a heavy rainfall." ⁴² So Ahab got up to eat and drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel, and he threw himself down on the ground and put his face between his knees.

⁴³ And he said to his servant, "Go up now, and look toward the sea."

And he went up and looked and said, "There is nothing."

And he said, "Go again," seven times.

⁴⁴ On the seventh time, he said, "A small cloud as small as a man's hand is rising out of the sea."

And he said, "Go up and say to Ahab, 'Mount your chariot and get down, so that the rain does not stop you.'"

⁴⁵ In the meantime, the sky turned black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel. ⁴⁶ The hand of the LORD was on

[†] Likely about 24 pounds, or 11 kilograms.

Elijah, and he girded up his loins and ran ahead of Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Elijah Flees From Jezebel

19 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done and how he had executed all the prophets with the sword. ² Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So let the gods do to me and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time."

³ When he saw that she was serious, he arose and ran for his life to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there. ⁴ But he went a day's journey into the wilderness and came and sat down under a juniper tree and asked that he might die, saying, "It is enough! Now, O LORD, take my life, for I am not better than my fathers."

⁵ As he lay and slept under the juniper tree, an angel touched him and said to him, "Arise and eat." ⁶ He looked, and there was a cake baked on coals and a jar of water at his head. And he ate and drank and then lay down again.

⁷ The angel of the LORD came again a second time and touched him and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you." ⁸ He arose and ate and drank and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the mountain of God.

Elijah Hears the LORD

⁹ He came to a cave and camped there, and the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, "Why are you here, Elijah?"

¹⁰ And he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, Lord of Hosts, for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, thrown down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword, and I alone am left, and they seek to take my life."

¹¹ He said, "Go and stand on the mountain before the LORD."

And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind split the mountains and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. And after the wind, an earthquake came, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. ¹² And after the earthquake, a fire came, but the LORD was not in the fire, and after the fire, a still, small voice. ¹³ When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his cloak and went out and stood in the entrance to the cave.

And a voice came to him and said, "Why are you here, Elijah?"

¹⁴ And he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, Lord of Hosts, because the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, thrown down Your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword, and I alone am left, and they seek to take my life."

¹⁵ The LORD said to him, "Go, return on the road through the Wilderness of Damascus, and when you arrive, anoint Hazael to be king over Aram. ¹⁶ And you shall anoint Jehu, the son of Nimshi, to be king over Israel, and you shall anoint Elisha, the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah, to be prophet in your place. ¹⁷ He who escapes the sword of Hazael will be killed by Jehu, and he who escapes the sword of Jehu will be killed by Elisha. ¹⁸ Still, I have preserved seven thousand men in Israel for Myself, all of whose knees have not bowed to Baal and whose mouths have not kissed him."

The Call of Elisha

¹⁹ So he departed from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him and he with the twelfth, and Elijah passed by him and threw his cloak on him. ²⁰ He left the oxen and ran after Elijah and said, "Please let me kiss my father and mother, and then I will follow you."

And he said to him, "Go back, for what have I done to you?"

²¹ So he returned from following him and took a yoke of oxen and sacrificed them and boiled their flesh with the yokes from the oxen and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he got up and went after Elijah and ministered to him.

Ben-Hadad Attacks Samaria

20 Now Ben-Hadad the king of Aram gathered his army together. Thirty-two kings were with him, with horses and chariots, and he went up and besieged Samaria and fought against it. ² He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel and said to him, "Thus says Ben-Hadad: ³ Your silver and gold is mine, as are your most attractive wives and children."

⁴ The king of Israel answered, "My lord, O king, just as you have said, I and all that I own are yours."

⁵ The messengers came again and said, "Thus says Ben-Hadad: Although I have said that you must give me your silver and gold, your wives and your children, ⁶ instead I will send my servants tomorrow about this time, and they will search your house and the houses of your servants, and whatever is precious to you, they will put it in their hands and take it away."

⁷ Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said, "Please notice how this man is looking for trouble, for he has demanded I give him my wives and children and my silver and gold, and I have not denied his request."

⁸ All the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen to him or consent to his demands."

⁹ Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, "Tell my lord the king: I will comply with the first request of your servant, but this thing I will not do." And the messengers departed and brought him word again.

¹⁰ Then Ben-Hadad sent messengers to him and said, "The gods do to me and then some if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me."

¹¹ The king of Israel answered, "Tell him: Let not he who puts on his armor boast himself as he who takes it off."

¹² When Ben-Hadad heard this message as he was drinking with the kings in the pavilions, he said to his servants, "Station yourselves!" And they stationed themselves against the city.

Ahab Defeats Ben-Hadad

¹³ Then a prophet came to Ahab king of Israel, saying, "Thus says the LORD: Have you seen this great multitude? See, I will deliver it into your hand this day, and you shall know that I am the LORD."

¹⁴ Ahab asked, "By whom?"

And he said, "Thus says the LORD: By the young leaders of the provinces."

Then he said, "Who shall order the battle?"

And he answered, "You."

¹⁵ Then he counted the young leaders of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two, and after them he counted all the people, all the children of Israel, and had seven thousand. ¹⁶ They went out at noon. But Ben-Hadad and the thirty-two kings who helped him were getting drunk in the pavilions.

¹⁷ The young leaders of the provinces went out first.

Ben-Hadad sent out scouts, and they told him, "Men from Samaria have come out."

¹⁸ He said, "If they have come out peacefully, take them alive, and if they have come out for battle, take them alive."

²³ The servants of the king of Aram said to him, "Their gods are gods of the hills. That is why they were stronger than us, but if we fight against them in the plain, we will surely be stronger than they. ²⁴ Do this: Dismiss the kings, each from his position, and put commanders in their places, ²⁵ and assemble an army like the army that you lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot, and we will fight them in the plain and will surely be stronger than they." And he listened to their advice and followed it.

²⁶ The next year Ben-Hadad assembled the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel. ²⁷ The children of Israel were assembled and were all present, and they went against them, and the children of Israel camped in front of them like two little flocks of kids, while the Arameans filled the country.

²⁸ A man of God came and spoke to the king of Israel and said, "Thus says the LORD: Because the Arameans have said, 'The LORD is God of the hills, but He is not God of the valleys,' I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you will know that I am the LORD."

²⁹ They camped opposite each other for seven days, and on the seventh day, the battle was joined. The children of Israel killed a hundred thousand Aramean footmen in one day. ³⁰ But the rest fled into the city of Aphek, where a wall fell on twenty-seven thousand of the men who were left. And Ben-Hadad fled and came into the city into an inner chamber.

³¹ His servants said to him, "We have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes on our heads and go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will spare your life."

³² So they girded sackcloth on their loins and put ropes on their heads and came to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says, 'Please let me live.'"

And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother!"

³³ Now the men were diligently looking for a positive sign and quickly took hold of it, and they said, "Your brother Ben-Hadad!"

Then he said, "Go. You bring him." Then Ben-Hadad came to him and got into the chariot.

³⁴ Ben-Hadad said to him, "I will restore the cities which my father took from your father, and you shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria."

Then Ahab said, "I will send you away with this covenant." So he made a covenant with him and sent him away.

A Prophet Condemns Ahab

³⁵ Speaking in the word of the LORD, a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor, "Strike me, please." But the man refused to strike him.

³⁶ Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, as soon as you leave me, a lion will kill you." And as soon as he left him, a lion found and killed him.

³⁷ Then he found another man and said, "Strike me, please." And the man struck him so that he was wounded. ³⁸ So the prophet departed and waited by the road for the king and disguised himself with ashes on his face. ³⁹ As the king passed by, he cried to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle, and a man turned aside and brought a man to me and said, 'Keep this man, and if by any means he goes missing, then your life shall be given for his life, or else you shall pay a talent † of silver.' ⁴⁰ As your servant was busy here and there, he disappeared."

† About 75 pounds, or 34 kilograms.

And the king of Israel said to him, "So shall your judgment be; you have decided it yourself."

⁴¹ He quickly took the ashes away from his face, and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets. ⁴² He said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have let go out of your hand a man whom I had appointed to utter destruction, you shall pay for his life with your life and his people with your people.'" ⁴³ The king of Israel went to his house in Samaria angry and depressed.

Naboth's Vineyard

21 Now Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel right by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. ² And after this Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, so that I can have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house, and I will give you a better vineyard for it, or if you prefer, I will give you its worth in money."

³ Naboth said to Ahab, "The LORD forbid that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers."

⁴ Ahab returned home angry and depressed because of the answer Naboth the Jezreelite had given him, for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." He lay down on his bed and sulked and would not eat any bread.

⁵ But Jezebel his wife came to him and said, "Why is your spirit so sad that you refuse to eat bread?"

⁶ And he said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard for it.' And he answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

⁷ Jezebel his wife said to him, "Are you not the governor of the kingdom of Israel? Get up and eat bread, and let your heart be happy, for I will get the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite for you."

⁸ So she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles that were in the city where Naboth lived. ⁹ In the letters she wrote,

"Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people, ¹⁰ and set two men, sons of Belial, [†] before him, to bear witness against him, saying, 'You blasphemed God and the king.' And then carry him out and stone him, so that he will die."

¹¹ The men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent word to them, as it was written in the letters that she had sent to them. ¹² They proclaimed a fast and set Naboth on high among the people. ¹³ Two men, children of Belial, came in and sat in front of him, and the men of Belial witnessed against Naboth in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth blasphemed God and the king." Then they carried him out of the city and stoned him to death. ¹⁴ Then they sent word to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is dead."

[†] a evil men.

¹⁵ When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, she said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to sell to you for money, for Naboth is not alive, but dead." ¹⁶ When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

The LORD Condemns Ahab

¹⁷ The word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying: ¹⁸ Arise, go down to meet Ahab, king of Israel, who is in Samaria. He is now in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to possess it. ¹⁹ You shall speak to him, saying, "Thus says the LORD: Have you killed and also taken possession?" And you shall speak to him, saying, "Thus says the LORD: In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs will lick your own blood!"

²⁰ Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, my enemy?"

And he answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to work evil in the sight of the LORD. ²¹ 'See, I will bring disaster upon you and will take away your posterity and will cut off all your males, both free and slave, who are left in Israel, ²² and will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation with which you have provoked Me to anger and made Israel to sin.'

²³ "The LORD also spoke of Jezebel, saying, 'The dogs will eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.'

²⁴ "Those from Ahab's family who die in the city will be eaten by dogs, and those who die in the field will be eaten by birds of the air."

²⁷ When Ahab heard those words, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth on his flesh and fasted and lay in sackcloth and walked meekly.

²⁸ The word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, ²⁹ "See how Ahab humbles himself before Me? Because he humbles himself before Me, I will not bring the disaster during his lifetime, but during his son's lifetime I will bring the disaster on his household."

Micaiah Prophecies Against Ahab

2Ch 18:1-27

22 And there were three years without war between Aram and Israel. ² In the third year, Jehoshaphat king of Judah went to visit the king of Israel. ³ The king of Israel said to his servants, "You know that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, but we have done nothing to take it out of the hand of the king of Aram!"

⁴ And he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle Ramoth Gilead?"

And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." ⁵ Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please ask for a word from the LORD today."

⁶ Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, approximately four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I wait?"

And they said, "Go up, for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king."

⁷ Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not a prophet of the LORD here whom we can ask?"

⁸ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we can inquire of the LORD. But I hate him because he never prophesies good for me, but always evil."

And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say so."

⁹ Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, "Quickly, bring Micaiah the son of Imlah."

¹² All the prophets prophesied similarly, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand."

¹³ The servant who had gone to get Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "See here, the words of the prophets unanimously declare success for the king. Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good."

¹⁴ Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, I will speak whatever the LORD says to me."

¹⁵ So he came to the king. And the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall we wait?"

And he answered him, "Go and prosper, for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king."

¹⁶ The king said to him, "How many times must I admonish you to tell me only the truth in the name of the LORD?"

¹⁷ And he said, "I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep without a shepherd, and the LORD said, 'These have no master. Let every man return to his own house in peace.'"

¹⁸ The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

¹⁹ And he said, "Hear, therefore, the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing beside Him on His right hand and on His left. ²⁰ The LORD said, 'Who will per-suaude Ahab so that he will go up and die at Ramoth Gilead?"

"And one said this, and another said that. ²¹ Then a spirit came forth and stood before the LORD and said, 'I will persuade him.'

²² "The LORD said to him, 'How?'

"And he said, 'I will go and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.'

"And He said, 'You will be successful and persuade him. Go forth, and do so.'

²³ "Now therefore, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of all your prophets here, and He has spoken evil concerning you!"

²⁴ Then Zedekiah the son of Kenaanah walked up and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, "Which way did the spirit of the LORD go from me in order to speak to you?"

²⁵ And Micaiah said, "You will see in that day, when you go into an inner chamber to hide."

²⁶ The king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah back to Amon the governor of the city and to Joash the king's son, ²⁷ and say, 'Thus says the king: Put this man in the prison, and feed him with reduced rations of bread and water until I return safely.'"

²⁸ Micaiah said, "If you return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me." And he said, "Listen, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

2Ch 18:28-34

²⁹ So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. ³⁰ The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and enter into the battle, but you wear your robes." And the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle.

³¹ But the king of Aram ordered his thirty-two commanders who had control over his chariots, saying, "Fight neither against small nor great, but only against the king of Israel." ³² So when the commanders of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "Surely it is the king of Israel." And they turned aside to fight against him, and Jehoshaphat cried out. ³³ When the commanders of the chariots realized that it was not the king of Israel, they turned away from pursuing him.

³⁴ A certain man drew a bow at random and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor, and because of this, he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and carry me out of the battle, for I am wounded." ³⁵ The battle intensified that day, and the king was propped up in his chariot against the Arameans and died that evening, and the blood ran out of the wound into the floor of the chariot. ³⁶ A proclamation went throughout the army as the sun was setting, saying, "Every man is to return to his city, and every man is to return to his own country."

³⁷ So the king died and was brought to Samaria, and they buried him there. ³⁸ The chariot was washed in the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up the king's blood, and they washed his armor according to the word which the LORD spoke.

³⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Ahab and all that he did and the ivory house that he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ⁴⁰ So Ahab slept with his fathers. And Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoshaphat, King of Judah

⁴¹ Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. ⁴² Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi. ⁴³ He walked in all the ways of Asa his father. He did not turn aside, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD. Nevertheless, the high places were not taken down, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense there. ⁴⁴ So Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

⁴⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat and the strength he showed and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? ⁴⁶ And he exterminated from the land the remnant of the male cult prostitutes who remained in the days of his father Asa. ⁴⁷ At that time there was no king in Edom, and a regent sat in the king's place.

⁴⁸ Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold, but they never made it there, for the ships were broken at Ezion Geber. ⁴⁹ Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat did not agree.

⁵⁰ Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father, and Jehoram his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah, King of Israel

⁵¹ Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel. ⁵² He did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat who made Israel sin, ⁵³ for he served Baal and worshipped him and provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

2 KINGS

The second book of Kings was likely written between 560 and 540 BC. The theme is a history of the kingdoms of Judah and Israel. Jewish tradition has Jeremiah as the author, writing it while in Babylon during the exile. The setting is the northern kingdom of Israel and the southern kingdom of Judah, and covers approximately 400 years. Major events include the fall of the northern kingdom of Israel in 722 BC, the fall of Judah and the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 BC, and the captivity in Babylon. The reigns of both wicked and righteous kings in Judah and Israel are documented, as well as the prophetic ministries of Elijah and Elisha.

God Judges Ahaziah

1 Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. ² Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria and became ill. So he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron whether I will recover from this illness."

³ But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, 'Is it because there is not a God in Israel, that you go to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron?' ⁴ Therefore thus says the LORD, 'You will not come down from the bed on which you have gone up but will surely die.'" Then Elijah departed.

⁵ When the messengers returned to the king, he said to them, "Why have you returned?"

⁶ And they said to him, "A man came up to meet us and said to us, 'Go, return to the king that sent you and say to him: Thus says the LORD: Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, but you will surely die.'"

⁷ He said to them, "What sort of man was he who came up to meet you and told you these things?"

⁸ They answered him, "He was a hairy man with a leather belt around his waist."

He said, "It was Elijah the Tishbite."

⁹ Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. He went up to Elijah, and there he was, sitting on the top of a hill, and he said to him, "Man of God, the king says, 'Come down.'"

¹⁰ But Elijah answered the captain of fifty: "If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

¹¹ Again the king sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty men. He said, "Man of God, thus says the king: Come down quickly."

¹² Elijah answered them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men." Then the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men.

¹³ Then again the king sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty men. The third captain of fifty went up, came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and pleaded with him, "Man of God, may my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight."

¹⁴ See, fire came down from heaven and consumed the two captains of the former fifties with their fifty men. May my life now be precious in your sight."

¹⁵ Then the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him. Do not be afraid of him." So he arose and went down with him to the king.

¹⁶ Then he said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Have you sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron, because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore you will not come down from the bed on which you have gone up, but you will surely die." ¹⁷ So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken.

Then Jehoram [†] reigned in his place in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, because he had no son. ¹⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

Elijah Ascends to Heaven

2 Then when the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. ² Elijah said to Elisha, "Tarry here, I ask you, for the LORD has sent me to Bethel."

But Elisha said to him, "As the LORD lives, and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

³ The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD is taking away your master from you?"

And he said, "Yes, I know. Keep silent."

⁴ Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho."

[†] in 1Ch 3:11; 26:24.

And he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you live, I will not leave you." So they entered Jericho.

⁵ The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho approached Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD is taking away your master from you?"

And he said, "Yes, I know. Keep silent."

⁶ Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan."

And he said, "As the LORD lives, and as you live, I will not leave you." And the two of them went on.

⁷ Fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood at a distance, and the two of them stood by the Jordan. ⁸ Then Elijah took his robe and rolled it up and struck the water, and it was divided from one side to the other. Then the two of them crossed on dry ground.

⁹ And as they were crossing, Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask for something, and I will do it for you before I am taken away from you."

And Elisha said, "Let a double portion of your spirit be upon me."

¹⁰ He said, "You have asked for a difficult thing, but if you see me when I am taken from you, it will happen to you. If not, it will not."

¹¹ As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. ¹² Elisha was watching and crying, "My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!" And he did not see him again. Then he grabbed his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

¹³ He picked up the robe of Elijah that fell from him, and he returned and stood on the bank of the Jordan. ¹⁴ And he took the robe of Elijah that fell from him, and struck the water, and said, "Where is the LORD, God of Elijah?" When he had struck the water, it parted from one side to the other, and Elisha crossed over.

¹⁵ When the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho saw him from far off, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." And they came to meet him and bowed down to the ground before him. ¹⁶ They said to him, "Look now, there are fifty strong men with your servants. Let them go and look for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has lifted him up and thrown him on some mountain or into some valley."

He said, "Do not send them."

¹⁷ When they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, "Send them." So they sent fifty men, and they searched for three days but did not find him. ¹⁸ When they returned to him (for he had stayed at Jericho), he said to them, "Did I not say to you, do not go?"

Elisha Performs Miracles

¹⁹ Now the men of the city said to Elisha, "The location of this city is good, as my lord sees, but the water is bad, and the land is unfruitful."

²⁰ He said, "Bring me a new bowl and put salt in it." So they brought it to him.

²¹ He went out to the spring of water and threw the salt into it and said, "Thus says the LORD: I have healed this water. No more death or unfruitfulness will come from it." ²² So the waters have been healthy until this day, according to the word that Elisha spoke.

²³ He went up from there to Bethel, and going up on the way, little boys came out of the city and made fun of him and said to him, "Go up, you bald head! Go up, you bald head!" ²⁴ He turned around, saw them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two she-bears came out of the woods and ripped open forty-two of the boys. ²⁵ He went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

Jehoram Reigns Over Israel

3 Now Jehoram son of Ahab reigned over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah and reigned twelve years. ² He did evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father and mother, for he removed the pillar of Baal that his father had made. ³ Nevertheless he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin. He did not depart from them.

⁴ Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-breeder and gave back to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs and the wool of a hundred thousand rams. ⁵ But when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. ⁶ King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel. ⁷ He went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me to Moab to battle?"

He said, "I will go up. I am as you are, my people as your people, and my horses as your horses."

⁸ Then he said, "Which way should we go up?"

And he said, "The way through the Wilderness of Edom."

⁹ So the king of Israel, the king of Judah, and the king of Edom went, and they marched around seven days. But there was no water for the camp or for the livestock that followed them.

¹⁰ The king of Israel said, "Alas! The LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab!"

¹¹ But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there a prophet of the LORD here, through whom we may inquire of the LORD?"

Then one of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured water on the hands of Elijah, is here."

¹² Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

¹³ Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to your father's prophets, or to your mother's prophets."

Then the king of Israel said to him, "No. The LORD has called these three kings to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

¹⁴ Elisha said, "As the LORD of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely, were it not for my regard for Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look at you nor see you. ¹⁵ Now bring me a musician."

And when the musician played, the hand of the LORD came upon him. ¹⁶ He said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Make this valley full of pools.' ¹⁷ For thus says the LORD, 'You will not see wind, nor will you see rain, yet that valley will be filled with water, that you may drink, both you and your livestock, and your cattle.' ¹⁸ This is an easy thing in the sight of the LORD, and He will give the Moabites into your hand. ¹⁹ You will strike every fortified city and every choice city, and will cut down every good tree, and stop every spring of water, and you will ruin every good piece of land with stones."

²⁰ So in the morning as the offering was offered up, suddenly water flowed from the way of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

²¹ When all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were able to bear arms and older were summoned and stood at the border. ²² They got up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water opposite them was as red as blood. ²³ Then they said, "This is blood. The kings have surely fought together; and they have killed one another. Now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!"

²⁴ When they came to the camp of Israel, the children of Israel arose and struck the Moabites, so that they ran from them. And they went forward into their land, killing the Moabites. ²⁵ They demolished the cities, and on every good piece of land every man threw a stone and filled it with stones, and they stopped every spring of water and cut down every good tree. Only in Kir Hareseth did the stones in the wall remain, until the slingers surrounded it and struck it.

²⁶ When the king of Moab saw that the battle was overwhelming him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they were unable. ²⁷ Then he took his firstborn son, who would have reigned in his place, and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. And great wrath came upon Israel, and they departed from him and returned to their own land.

The Widow's Olive Oil

4 Now one of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the LORD, but a creditor has come to take my two sons as slaves."

² Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?"

She said, "Your servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil."

³ Then he said, "Go, ask for vessels from all your neighbors, empty vessels and not just a few. ⁴ Then go in, shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour the oil into all these vessels. When each is full, set it aside."

⁵ So she left him and shut the door behind her and her sons, and they kept bringing vessels to her, and she kept pouring. ⁶ When the vessels were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel."

But he said to her, "There is not another vessel." And the oil ceased.

⁷ Then she went and told the man of God. And he said, "Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt, and you and your children can live on the rest."

Elisha Raises the Shunammite's Son

⁸ One day Elisha passed through Shunem, and a noble woman was there who urged him to eat a meal. So whenever he passed through, he stopped there to eat a meal. ⁹ And she said to her husband, "I know that he is a holy man of God regularly passing through near us. ¹⁰ Let us make a little walled upper room and put for him there a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp, so when he comes to us he can stay there."

¹¹ One day he came by there, and he turned aside to the upper room and lay down. ¹² He said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite woman." So he called her and she stood before him. ¹³ He said to him, "Say to her, Look, you have gone to all this trouble for us. What may be done for you? Would you have a word spoken on your behalf to the king, or to the captain of the army?"

And she answered, "I am living among my people."

¹⁴ He said, "What may be done for her?"

And Gehazi said, "Actually, she has no son, and her husband is old."

¹⁵ He said, "Call her." When he had called her, she stood in the entrance. ¹⁶ He said, "At this season, when it is time, you will embrace a son."

And she said, "No, my lord, man of God, do not lie to your servant."

¹⁷ But the woman conceived and bore a son at that season, at the time that Elisha had told her.

¹⁸ When the child was older, he went out one day to his father with the reapers. ¹⁹ He said to his father, "My head, my head!"

And he said to a servant, "Carry him to his mother."

²⁰ When he had taken him and brought him to his mother, the boy sat on her knees until noon, and died.

²¹ She went up, and laid him down on the bed of the man of God, shut the door on him, and went out.

²² Then she called to her husband, "Send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, so that I may run to the man of God and return."

²³ He said, "Why are you going to him today? It is neither New Moon nor Sabbath."

She said, "It will be all right."

²⁴ Then she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, "Lead on, and do not hold back for me unless I tell you." ²⁵ So she went and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel.

And when the man of God saw her far off, he said to Gehazi his servant, "Look, over there is the Shunammite woman. ²⁶ Now run to meet her, and say to her, Are you all right? Is your husband all right? Is the child all right?"

And she said, "It is all right."

²⁷ When she came to the man of God at the mountain, she grabbed his feet. Gehazi approached to push her away. But the man of God said, "Let her alone, for she is in bitter distress, and the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me."

²⁸ Then she said, "Did I ask for a son from my lord? Did I not say, Do not give me false hope?"

²⁹ Then he said to Gehazi, "Prepare yourself, take my staff in your hand, and go. If you find anyone, do not greet him, and if anyone greets you, do not answer him, and lay my staff on the face of the boy."

³⁰ Then the boy's mother said, "As the LORD lives, and as you live, I will not leave without you." And he got up and followed her.

³¹ Gehazi passed through ahead of them and laid the staff on the face of the boy, but there was no sound or response. So he returned to meet him and told him, "The boy is not awake."

³² When Elisha came into the house, he saw that the boy was dead, lying on his bed. ³³ So he went in, and shut the door on the two of them, and prayed to the LORD. ³⁴ He went up and lay on the child, put his face on his face, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. Then he bent over the child, and the child's flesh warmed. ³⁵ Then he got down, walked once back and forth in the house, and went up, and bent over him; the boy sneezed seven times, and the boy opened his eyes.

³⁶ Then Elisha called Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite woman." So he called her, and she came to him. Then he said, "Pick up your son." ³⁷ Then she came in, fell at his feet, and bowed down to the ground. Then she picked up her son and went out.

Elisha Purifies the Deadly Stew

³⁸ When Elisha returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land. The sons of the prophets were sitting before him, and he said to his servant, "Put on the big cooking pot, and boil some stew for the sons of the prophets."

⁴¹ But he said, "Then bring flour." He threw it into the pot and said, "Pour it for the people and let them eat." And there was nothing bad in the pot.

Elisha Feeds One Hundred Men

⁴² A man came from Baal Shalishah, and he brought the man of God food from the first fruits—twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain—in his sack. And Elisha said, "Give it to the people and let them eat."

⁴³ But his servant said, "How can I set this before a hundred men?"

He said, "Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the LORD, 'They will eat and have some left.'" ⁴⁴ So he set it before them, they ate, and some was left over, according to the word of the LORD.

Naaman Healed of Leprosy

5 Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man before his master and held favor because by him the LORD had given deliverance to Aram. He was also a mighty warrior, but he had leprosy.

² The Arameans had gone out raiding and had taken captive a little girl from the land of Israel, and she waited on the wife of Naaman. ³ She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were before the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would take away his leprosy from him."

⁴ So Naaman went in and told his lord, "Thus and so spoke the girl from the land of Israel." ⁵ The king of Aram said, "Go, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he went and took with him ten talents [†] of silver, six thousand shekels ^{††} of gold, and ten sets of clothes. ⁶ He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, "Now when this letter comes to you, know that I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may take away from him his leprosy."

⁷ When the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to give life, that this man sends a man to me to take away his leprosy? But consider, and see how he is seeking a quarrel with me."

⁸ But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent word to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel." ⁹ So Naaman came with his horses and chariot and stood at the entrance to the house of Elisha. ¹⁰ Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh will be returned and cleansed."

¹¹ But Naaman became angry and went away and said to himself, "Surely he could have come out, and stood and called on the name of the LORD his God, and waved his hand over the infected area, and taken away the leprosy. ¹² Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel?"

[†] About 750 pounds, or 340 kilograms. ^{††} About 150 pounds, or 69 kilograms.

Could I not wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

¹³ But his servants approached and spoke to him, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more when he said to you, 'Wash and be clean?'" ¹⁴ So he went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, according to the word of the man of God, and his flesh returned like the flesh of a little boy, and he was clean.

¹⁵ Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company. He came and stood before him, and he said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the land, except in Israel. Now take a gift from your servant."

¹⁶ But he said, "As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will take no gift." He urged him to take it, but he refused.

¹⁷ Then Naaman said, "If not, let two mule loads of dirt be given to your servant, for your servant will no longer offer a burnt offering or sacrifice to any god, except the LORD . ¹⁸ But may the LORD pardon your servant on one account: When my master enters the house of Rimmon to worship, and he leans on my hand, and I bow down in the house of Rimmon, when I do bow down in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD pardon your servant on this one account."

¹⁹ He said to him, "Go in peace." So he departed from him a short distance.

Gehazi's Greed

²⁰ Then Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God said, "My master has spared Naaman the Aramean by not taking from his hands what he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him and take something from him."

²¹ So Gehazi pursued Naaman. Then Naaman saw him running after him, jumped down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is everything all right?"

²² And he said, "Everything is all right. My master has sent me and says, 'Even now two servants from Ephraim, from the sons of the prophets, have come to me. Give them a talent [†] of silver and two changes of clothes.'"

²³ Naaman said, "Please, take two talents." He urged him and tied up two talents of silver in two bags with two changes of clothes and gave them to two of his servants, who carried them before Gehazi. ²⁴ When he came to Ophel, he took them from their hand and put them away in the house. Then he sent the men away, and they departed.

²⁵ Then he entered and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, "Where have you come from, Gehazi?"

And he said, "Your servant went here and there."

²⁶ He said to him, "Did my heart not go with you when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to take money, and to take garments, olives and vineyards, sheep and oxen, male and female servants? ²⁷ The leprosy of Naaman will cling to you and to your descendants forever." So he went out from his presence, leprous like snow.

The Floating Axe Head

⁶ Now the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "Look, the place where we are living with you is too small for us. ² Let us go to the Jordan and take from there one beam per man, and let us make for ourselves a place to live there."

And Elisha said, "Go."

³ Then one of them said, "Please come with your servants."

And he said, "I will come." ⁴ So he went with them.

And they came to the Jordan and cut down trees.

⁵ But as one was cutting down a tree, the axe head fell into the water. He cried, "Ah, master! It was borrowed."

⁶ Then the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" When he showed him the place, he cut off a stick, and threw it in there, and he made the iron float. ⁷ So Elisha said, "Pick it up." And he reached out his hand and took it.

The Blinded Arameans Captured

⁸ Then the king of Aram was fighting against Israel, and he took counsel with his servants, saying, "At such and such a place will be my camp."

⁹ But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel, saying, "Take care not to pass through this place, for the Arameans are marching down there." ¹⁰ The king of Israel sent word to the place of which the man of God spoke. He warned him and was on his guard there more than once.

¹¹ The mind of the king of Aram was troubled by this, so he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not tell me who among us sides with the king of Israel?"

¹² Then one of his servants said, "No one, my lord, O king. Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."

¹³ He said, "Go and see where he is, so that I may send for him and take him." And it was told to him, "He is in Dothan." ¹⁴ So he sent horses, chariots, and a great army there. They came by night and surrounded the city.

¹⁵ When a servant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, a force surrounded the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What will we do?"

¹⁶ And he said, "Do not be afraid, for there are more with us than with them."

¹⁷ Then Elisha prayed, " LORD , open his eyes and let him see." So the LORD opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw that the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire surrounding Elisha.

¹⁸ When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD , "Strike this people with blindness." And He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

[†] About 75 pounds, or 34 kilograms.

¹⁹ Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, and this is not the city. Follow me, and let me bring you to the man whom you seek." But he led them to Samaria.

²⁰ When they entered Samaria, Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men and let them see." And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw that they were in the middle of Samaria.

²¹ The king of Israel said to Elisha when he saw them, "My father, shall I kill them? Shall I kill them?"

²² And he said, "You shall not kill them. Did you capture with your sword and with your bow those whom you want to kill? Set bread and water before them, and let them eat and drink and then go to their master." ²³ So he prepared for them a great banquet. When they had eaten and had drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the Aramean raiders did not enter into the land of Israel again.

Ben-Hadad Besieges Samaria

²⁶ As the king of Israel was walking across the city wall, a woman cried out to him, "Help, my lord king."

²⁷ He said, "If the LORD will not help you, how can I help you? From the threshing floor or from the winepress?" ²⁸ And the king said to her, "What is wrong with you?"

And she said, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son and let us eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.' ²⁹ So we boiled my son and ate him. The next day I said to her, 'Give your son, that we may eat him.' But she has hidden her son."

³⁰ When the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes. And since he was walking across the city wall, the people saw that he had sackcloth on his body underneath. ³¹ Then he said, "So may God do to me, and even more, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat stands on his shoulders after today."

³² Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a messenger, but before the messenger came to him, Elisha said to the elders, "Are you aware that this son of a murderer has sent a man to take off my head? When the messenger enters, shut the door and hold it against him. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

³³ And while he was speaking with them, the messenger came down to him, and then the king said, "This calamity is of the LORD! Why should I hope in the LORD any longer?"

⁷ Then Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD:

Thus says the LORD: Tomorrow about this time a measure ^{††} of fine flour will be sold for a shekel, ^{‡‡} and two measures ^{‡‡‡} of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria."

² Then an officer on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, "If the LORD were to make windows in heaven, could this thing happen?"

And he said, "You will see it with your eyes, but you will not eat from it."

The Arameans Flee

³ There were four leprous men at the entry of the gate, and they said to one another, "Why are we sitting here until we die? ⁴ If we say, 'Let us enter the city,' the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. But if we sit here, we die also. Now come, let us fall into the camp of the Arameans. If they spare our lives, we will live, and if they kill us, we will die."

⁵ So they rose at twilight to enter the camp of the Arameans. When they came to the edge of the camp of the Arameans, there was no one there. ⁶ For the Lord had caused the Aramean camp to hear the sound of chariots, horses, even the sound of a large army, so that they said to one another, "Listen, the king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to come against us." ⁷ So they got up and ran away in the twilight and abandoned their tents, their horses, and their donkeys. The camp remained just as it was, and they ran for their lives.

⁸ When these leprous men came to the edge of the camp, they went into one tent. They ate and drank, carried off silver, gold, and clothes, and went and hid them. Then they went back, entered another tent, and carried off things from there and went and hid them.

⁹ Then they said to one another, "We are not doing right today. This is a day of good news. If we are silent and wait until the morning light, we will be found guilty. Let us go now and enter the city and tell the king's household."

¹⁰ So they went and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and they told them, "We came to the camp of the Arameans, and there was no one there. There was no sound of a man's voice, only horses tied, donkeys tied, and the tents as they were." ¹¹ Then the gatekeepers called out and told the king's household inside.

¹² The king got up in the night and said to his servants, "I will show you what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are starving, so they left the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we will capture them alive and get into the city.'"

¹³ One of his servants answered, "Let some men take five of the remaining horses, since those remaining ^{††} Likely about 12 pounds, or 5.5 kilograms of flour, and in vv. 16 and 18. ^{‡‡} About 2/5 ounce, or 12 grams, and in vv. 16 and 18. ^{‡‡‡} Likely about 20 pounds, or 9 kilograms of barley, and in vv. 16 and 18.

[†] About 2 pounds, or 920 grams. ^{††} Likely about 1/4 pound, or 100 grams. [‡] About 2 ounces, or 58 grams.

will suffer the fate of the whole multitude of Israel that have perished already; so let us send them and see."

¹⁴ So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the army of the Arameans, saying, "Go and see." ¹⁵ So they went after them to the Jordan, and the whole way was full of clothes and vessels, which the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. Then the messengers returned and told the king. ¹⁶ Then the people went out and looted the camp of the Arameans. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

¹⁷ The king had appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned to have charge over the gate, and the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, just as the man of God had said when the king came down to him. ¹⁸ Then the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Two seahs of barley shall be sold for a shekel, and a seah of fine flour for a shekel, about this time tomorrow at the gate of Samaria."

¹⁹ The officer had answered the man of God, "If the LORD should make windows in heaven, could such a thing happen?" And he had said, "You shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat of it." ²⁰ So it happened to him, for the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

The Shunammite's Land Restored

8 Then Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, "Get up and go, you and your household, and sojourn wherever you can, for the LORD has called for a famine, and it will come on the land for seven years." ² So the woman got up and did according to the word of the man of God. She went with her household and sojourned in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

³ At the end of seven years, the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, and she went forth to appeal to the king for her house and her field. ⁴ Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, "Tell me all the great things that Elisha has done." ⁵ As he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, the woman whose son he had restored to life started appealing to the king for her house and her land.

Gehazi said, "My lord king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life." ⁶ When the king questioned the woman, she told him.

So the king appointed to her an official, saying, "Restore all that was hers and all the proceeds of the field from the day that she abandoned the land until now."

Ben-Hadad Is Murdered

⁷ Then Elisha came to Damascus while Ben-Hadad the king of Aram was ill, and he was told, "The man of God has come here." ⁸ The king said to Hazael, "Take a present with you and go to meet the man of God. Inquire of the LORD through him, saying, 'Will I recover from this illness?'"

⁹ So Hazael went to meet him and took a present with him, all sorts of good things from Damascus, forty camel loads. He came and stood before him and said, "Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to you, asking, 'Will I recover from this illness?'"

¹⁰ And Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You will certainly recover,' but the LORD has shown me that he will certainly die." ¹¹ Hazael stared at him until he was ashamed. Then the man of God wept.

¹² Hazael said, "Why are you weeping, my lord?"

He said, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel. You will set their fortresses on fire. You will kill their young men with the sword. You will smash their children and rip open their pregnant women."

¹³ Hazael said, "What? Is your servant a dog that he should do this great thing?"

And Elisha said, "The LORD has shown me that you will be king over Aram."

¹⁴ Then he left Elisha and went to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he said, "He told me that you would surely recover." ¹⁵ But the next day he took a blanket, dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died. And Hazael reigned in his place.

Jehoram, King of Judah

¹⁶ In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, became king. ¹⁷ He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ¹⁸ He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. He did evil in the sight of the LORD. ¹⁹ Yet the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of His servant David, since He promised to give a lamp to him and his sons perpetually.

²³ The rest of the deeds of Jehoram and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²⁴ So Jehoram slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Ahaziah his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah, King of Judah

2Ch 22:1-6

²⁵ In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, became king. ²⁶ Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king. He reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri, king of Israel. ²⁷ He walked in the way of the house of Ahab and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as the house of Ahab did, for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab.

²⁸ He went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead, and the Arameans struck Joram. ²⁹ King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramah when he fought against Hazael king of Aram.

And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel because he was ill.

Jehu Anointed King of Israel

9 Then Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, "Prepare yourself. Take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead. ² When you get there, look for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi. Go in and make him rise from among his brothers, and bring him into an inner chamber. ³ Then take the flask of oil, pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus says the LORD: I have anointed you king over Israel.' Then open the door and flee. Do not wait."

⁴ So the young man, the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead. ⁵ When he arrived, the commanders of the army were sitting, and he said, "I have a word for you, Commander."

Jehu said, "Which one of us?"

And he said, "For you, Commander."

⁶ So he arose, went into the house, poured the oil on his head, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, God of Israel: I am anointing you king over the people of the LORD, over Israel. ⁷ You will strike the house of Ahab your master, and I will avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of the LORD from the hand of Jezebel. ⁸ The whole house of Ahab will perish, and I will cut off from Ahab all the males in Israel, both imprisoned and free. ⁹ I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. ¹⁰ Dogs will eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and no one will bury her." Then he opened the door and fled.

¹¹ When Jehu had returned to his master's servants, one said to him, "Is all well? Why did this madman come to you?"

And he said to them, "You know this man and his babble."

¹² They said, "A lie! Tell us."

Then he said, "Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: I am anointing you king over Israel.'"

¹³ Then they hurried. Each took his clothes, put them under him on the bare stairs, and blew a horn, saying, "Jehu is king."

Joram of Israel Killed

2Ch 22:7-9

¹⁴ So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. Joram had been guarding Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Aram. ¹⁵ But King Joram had returned to be healed in Jezreel from the wounds with which the Arameans had stricken him when he fought with Hazael king of Aram. So Jehu said, "If this be your minds, let no fugitive exit the city to go tell Jezreel." ¹⁶ Then Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram lay there. Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram.

¹⁷ A watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he was coming and said, "I see a company."

And Joram said, "Take a horseman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

¹⁸ So the horseman went to meet him and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'"

But Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? Circle in behind me."

So the watchman reported, "The messenger came to them, but he is not returning."

¹⁹ Then he sent out a second horseman, who came to them and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'"

Again, Jehu said, "What have you to do with peace? Circle in behind me."

²⁰ The watchman reported, "He came to them, but he is not returning. The driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives furiously."

²¹ Then Joram said, "Hitch my chariot." So his chariot was hitched, and Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot. They went out to meet Jehu and found him on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite. ²² When Joram saw Jehu he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?"

And he said, "What peace, so long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her sorceries are so many?"

²³ Then Joram turned the reins, fled, and said to Ahaziah, "There is treachery, Ahaziah."

²⁴ Jehu drew a bow with his full strength and shot Joram between his shoulder blades. The arrow went out at his heart, and he kneeled down in his chariot.

²⁵ Then Jehu said to Bidkar his officer, "Lift him up and throw him on the property of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. Remember when you and I were riding together after Ahab his father and the LORD pronounced this oracle about him: ²⁶ 'Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth and his sons, declares the LORD, and I will pay you back on this property, declares the LORD.' Now lift him up and throw him onto the property, according to the word of the LORD."

Ahaziah of Judah Killed

²⁷ But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled on the path to the garden house. Jehu chased after him and said, "Shoot him too." So they shot him on the ascent to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo and died there. ²⁸ His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David. ²⁹ In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah became king over Judah.

Jezebel Executed

³² And he lifted up his face toward the window and said, "Who is on my side? Who?" And two or three eunuchs looked down to him. ³³ He said, "Drop her down." So they dropped her down and some of her blood splattered on the wall and on the horses. Then he trampled her.

³⁴ Then he entered, ate and drank, and said, "Attend to that cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king's daughter." ³⁵ So they went to bury her, but they found nothing of her except a skull, the feet, and the palms of her hands. ³⁶ They returned and told Jehu, and he said, "This is the word of the LORD, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 'On the property of Jezreel dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel. ³⁷ The corpse of Jezebel will be like dung in the field on the property of Jezreel, so that they cannot say, This is Jezebel.'"

Ahab's Seventy Sons Killed

10 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria to the captains of Jezreel, to the elders, and to the guardians of the sons of Ahab, saying, ² "Now as soon as this letter comes to you—since you are with your master's sons, chariots, horses, a fortified city, and weapons—³ select the best and most fitting of your master's sons, put him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."

⁴ But they were extremely afraid and said, "Two kings could not stand before him. How can we stand?"

⁵ So he who was over the house, and he who was over the city, the elders, and the guardians sent word to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, and everything you say to us we will do. We will not appoint a man king. Do what is good in your eyes."

⁶ Then he wrote a second letter to them, saying, "If you belong to me and will obey me, take the heads of your master's sons and come to me at Jezreel at this time tomorrow."

Now the king's sons, seventy men, were with the great men of the city who brought them up. ⁷ When the letter came to them, they took the king's sons, slaughtered all seventy, put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him in Jezreel. ⁸ So the messenger came and told him, saying, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons."

Then he said, "Put them in two heaps at the entry of the gate until morning."

⁹ When morning came, he went out and stood and said to all the people, "You are innocent. I conspired against my master and killed him, but who struck all these? ¹⁰ Know then that the words of the LORD which He spoke about the house of Ahab will not fall to the ground. The LORD has done that which He spoke by His servant Elijah." ¹¹ So Jehu struck all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel and all his great men, his confidants, and his priests, until he left him no survivor.

Ahaziah's Forty-Two Brothers Killed

¹² Then he got up and went to Samaria. When he was at Beth Eked of the Shepherds on the way, ¹³ Jehu found the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah and said, "Who are you?"

And they said, "We are brothers of Ahaziah, and we have come down to visit the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."

¹⁴ He said, "Capture them alive." So they took them alive and slaughtered them at the pit of Beth Eked, forty-two men. Not a man of them remained.

¹⁵ Then he left there and found Jehonadab son of Rekab coming to meet him. He greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart right with me, as my heart is with yours?"

And Jehonadab said, "It is."

"If it is, give me your hand." So he gave him his hand, and he pulled him up to him into the chariot. ¹⁶ He said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So he made him ride in his chariot.

¹⁷ Then he came to Samaria and struck all that remained to Ahab in Samaria until he exterminated them, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to Elijah.

Worshippers of Baal Killed

¹⁸ Then Jehu gathered all the people and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu will serve him much. ¹⁹ Now call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshippers, and all his priests. Let none go unaccounted for, because I have a great sacrifice for Baal. All who are not accounted for will not live." But Jehu did it with cunning in order to destroy the servants of Baal.

²⁰ Jehu said, "Sanctify a festive assembly for Baal." So they proclaimed it. ²¹ Jehu sent word through all Israel, and all the worshippers of Baal came. Not a man remained who did not come. They came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from one end to the other. ²² He said to the one in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out garments for all the worshippers of Baal." So he brought them garments.

²³ Then Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rekab went into the house of Baal and said to the worshippers of Baal, "Search and see that there are no worshippers of the LORD here with you and only worshippers of Baal."

²⁵ As soon as he had finished making the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guards and the officers, "Go in. Kill them. No one comes out." So they struck them with the edge of the sword. The guards and the officers threw them out and went to the city of the house of Baal. ²⁶ They brought out the sacred pillar from the house of Baal and burned it. ²⁷ They broke down the sacred pillar of Baal, and tore down the house of Baal and made it a latrine to this day.

²⁸ So Jehu exterminated Baal from Israel. ²⁹ But from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, Jehu did not turn aside (that is, the golden calves that were in Bethel and Dan).

³⁰ And the LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well by doing what is right in My sight, and have done to the house of Ahab all that was in My heart, four generations of your sons will sit on the throne of Israel." ³¹ But Jehu was not careful to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart. He did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin.

The Death of Jehu

³² In those days the LORD began to trim off parts of Israel, and Hazeel struck them in all the territory of Israel: ³³ from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Reubenites, the Manassites from Aroer, which is by the River Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan.

³⁴ Now the rest of the deeds of Jehu, all he did and all his power, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

³⁵ So Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Jehoahaz his son became king in his place.

³⁶ The days that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria were twenty-eight years.

Athaliah Reigns in Judah

2Ch 22:10-23:21

11 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose up and destroyed all the royal descendants. ² But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash †

† An alternate spelling of a Jehoash.

the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being murdered; and they hid him and his nurse in the bedroom, from Athaliah, so that he was not killed. ³ He was with her, hidden in the house of the LORD for six years, while Athaliah reigned over the land.

Joash Anointed King of Judah

⁴ But in the seventh year Jehoiada sent word and took the captains of hundreds from the Carites and the guards and brought them to him in the house of the LORD. He made a covenant with them, put them under oath in the house of the LORD, and then showed them the king's son. ⁵ He commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that you shall do: One-third of your unit, those who come on duty on the Sabbath, will guard the king's house. ⁶ One-third will be at the gate of Sur, and one-third will be at the gate behind the guards. You will take turns guarding the house. ⁷ Two of your companies from all who go out on the Sabbath will keep watch over the house of the LORD for the king. ⁸ You will encircle the king, each man with his weapons in his hand, and the one that comes within the ranks must be killed. They must be with the king when he goes out and comes in."

⁹ The captains of hundreds did according to everything that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each took his men, those who came on duty on the Sabbath, with those that went off duty on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. ¹⁰ And the priest gave to the captains of hundreds spears and shields which belonged to King David that were in the house of the LORD. ¹¹ The guards stood, each with his weapons in his hand, from the south side of the house to the north side of the house, along the altar and the house, surrounding the king.

¹² Then he brought out the king's son and put the crown on him and gave him the testimony. They made him king and anointed him. Then they clapped their hands and said, "Live, O king!"

The Death of Athaliah

¹³ Then Athaliah heard the sound of the guards and the people, so she came to the people in the house of the LORD. ¹⁴ Then she looked, and the king was standing by a pillar according to custom, the captains and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. So Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, "Conspiracy, conspiracy!"

¹⁷ Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the people of the LORD, and also between the king and the people. ¹⁸ Then all the people of the land entered the house of Baal and broke down its altars. His images they thoroughly broke in pieces, and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

The priest put appointees over the house of the LORD. ¹⁹ He took the captains of hundreds, the Carites, the guards, and all the people of the land. Then they brought down the king from the house of the LORD and marched through the gate of the guards to the king's house. Then he sat on the throne of the kings. ²⁰ All the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. They had killed Athaliah with the sword at the king's house.

²¹ Jehoash † was seven years old when he became king.

Jehoash Repairs the Temple

2Ch 24:1-27

12 In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash became king. He reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. ² Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD all his days because Jehoiada the priest instructed him. ³ However, the high places were not taken away. The people still sacrificed and made offerings in the high places.

⁶ But in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash the priests had not repaired the damages to the house. ⁷ Then King Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and said to them, "Why have you not repaired the damages to the house? So now money will no longer be taken from your donors. You will give it over for the damages to the house." ⁸ The priests agreed that they should take no more money from the people, nor repair the damages of the house.

⁹ So Jehoiada the priest took a chest, made a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar on the right side as one enters the house of the LORD. The priests guarding the threshold put there all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD. ¹⁰ Whenever they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest went up, emptied it, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD. ¹¹ They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of the workers who were appointed to the house of the LORD. Then they paid it out to the carpenters and builders working on the house of the LORD, ¹² to the masons and stonemasons, and to buy timber and cut stone to repair the damages to the house of the LORD, that is, whatever went out for repairs to the house.

¹³ But for the house of the LORD silver bowls, snuffers, sprinkling basins, trumpets, and all the gold and silver vessels were not made with any of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, ¹⁴ for they gave it to the workmen, and they repaired the house of the LORD with it. ¹⁵ They did not settle accounts with the men in whose hand they gave the money to give to the workmen, for they dealt faithfully. ¹⁶ The money from the guilt offerings and the money from the sin offerings were not brought into the house of the LORD. It belonged to the priests.

Hazael Threatens Jerusalem

¹⁷ Then Hazael king of Aram went up, fought against Gath, and seized it. Then Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. ¹⁸ So Jehoash king of Judah took all the consecrated things that Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated and his own consecrated things, all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Aram. Then Hazael went away from Jerusalem.

The Death of Joash

¹⁹ Now the rest of the deeds of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²⁰ His servants rose up, made a conspiracy, and struck Joash in the house of Millo, which goes down to Silla. ²¹ Jozabad the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died. They buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Then Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Jehoahaz, King of Israel

13 In the twenty-third year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria for seventeen years. ² He did evil in the sight of the LORD and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. He did not turn aside from them. ³ The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, so He gave them into the hand of Hazael king of Aram and into the hand of Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael all their days.

⁴ But Jehoahaz appeased the LORD, and the LORD listened to him. For He saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Aram oppressed them. ⁵ So the LORD gave Israel a savior, so that they got out from under the hand of Aram. Then the children of Israel dwelt in their tents as before. ⁶ Nevertheless, they did not turn aside from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who caused Israel to sin, but walked in them. The Asherah pole also stood in Samaria.

† An alternate spelling of a Joash.

⁷ So Jehoahaz had only fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen left, for the king of Aram had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.

⁸ Now the rest of the deeds of Jehoahaz, all that he did and his power, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ⁹ And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. Joash his son reigned in his place.

Jehoash, King of Israel

¹⁰ In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz reigned over Israel in Samaria for sixteen years. ¹¹ He did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not turn aside from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin, but he walked in them.

¹² The rest of the deeds of Joash, all that he did and his power with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ¹³ So Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne. Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

The Death of Elisha

¹⁴ Now Elisha had become sick with the illness of which he would die. So Joash the king of Israel went down to him and wept before him, and said, "My father, my father, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen."

¹⁵ Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and arrows." So he took a bow and arrows. ¹⁶ Then he said to the king of Israel, "Draw the bow." So he drew it. Elisha put his hands on the king's hands.

¹⁷ Then he said, "Open the east window." So he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot." So he shot. Then he said, "The arrow of the deliverance of the LORD, and the arrow of deliverance from Aram; for you must strike Aram in Aphek until you have destroyed them."

¹⁸ Then he said, "Take the arrows." So he took them. Then he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground." So he struck it three times and stood there. ¹⁹ Then the man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck it five or six times. Then you would have stricken Aram until you had finished them. Now you will strike Aram just three times."

²⁰ So Elisha died, and they buried him.

Now Moabite raiders would enter the land in the spring. ²¹ As they were burying a man, they saw raiders. So they threw the man into the tomb of Elisha. When the man touched the bones of Elisha, he came to life and stood on his feet.

Israel Recaptures Cities from Aram

²² Now Hazael king of Aram oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. ²³ But the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them. He turned toward them because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not yet destroy them or cast them from His presence.

²⁴ Then Hazael king of Aram died and Ben-Hadad his son reigned in his place. ²⁵ And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took back the cities from Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael that had been taken from Jehoahaz his father in war. Three times Joash struck him and recovered the cities of Israel.

Amaziah, King of Judah

2Ch 25:1-26:2

14 In the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, became king. ² He was twenty-five years old when he became king and reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan from Jerusalem. ³ He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, only not like David his father. He did everything that Joash his father did. ⁴ But he did not remove the high places. Still the people sacrificed and made offerings on the high places.

⁵ As soon as he seized the kingdom, he killed his servants who had killed his father, the king. ⁶ But he did not kill the children of the murderers, according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, in which the LORD commanded, "Fathers must not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers. Rather, a man should be put to death for his own sin."

⁷ He struck ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt and captured Sela in battle. He called it Joktheel, as it is to this day.

⁸ Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."

⁹ Then Jehoash the king of Israel sent word to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thorn bush in Lebanon sent to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife.' But a wild animal passed through in Lebanon and trampled the thorn bush. ¹⁰ You have indeed struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Enjoy respect and sit at home. Why stir up trouble and fall, you and Judah with you?"

¹¹ But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up, and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. ¹² Judah was beaten before Israel, and every man fled to his tent. ¹³ Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh. Then he came to Jerusalem and breached the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of Ephraim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits. ¹⁴ He took all the gold and silver, all the vessels found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house, and hostages, and then returned to Samaria.

† About 600 feet, or 180 meters.

¹⁵ Now the rest of the deeds Jehoash did, his power and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ¹⁶ So Jehoash slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. Jeroboam his son reigned in his place.

¹⁷ Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel. ¹⁸ And the rest of the deeds of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

¹⁹ They made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. But they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there. ²⁰ They carried him on horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the City of David.

²¹ All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah. ²² He built Elath and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.

Jeroboam II, King of Israel

²³ In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, became king in Samaria for forty-one years. ²⁴ He did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not turn aside from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. ²⁵ He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Lebo Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD God of Israel, which He spoke by His servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath Hopher.

²⁶ For the LORD saw the very bitter affliction of Israel. There was no one left, imprisoned or free, and no helper for Israel. ²⁷ The LORD had not said that He would wipe out the name of Israel from under heaven, so He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Joash.

²⁸ Now the rest of the deeds of Jeroboam, all that he did and his power, how he fought, and how he recovered for Israel Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ²⁹ Jeroboam slept with his fathers, with the kings of Israel. Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

Azariah, King of Judah

2Ch 26:3-23

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah, king of Judah, became king. ² He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jekoliah from Jerusalem. ³ He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. ⁴ But the high places were not removed. The people continued sacrificing and making offerings on the high places.

⁵ The LORD afflicted the king, and he was leprous until the day of his death. He lived in a separate house. Jotham the king's son was in charge of the house, judging the people of the land.

⁶ Now the rest of the deeds of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ⁷ So Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David. Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Zechariah, King of Israel

⁸ In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in Samaria for six months. ⁹ He did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done. He did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

¹⁰ Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, struck him at Ibleam, and killed him. Then Shallum reigned in his place. ¹¹ Now the rest of the deeds of Zechariah are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel. ¹² This was the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu, "Your sons will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation." And it was so.

Shallum, King of Israel

¹³ Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah. He reigned for a month in Samaria. ¹⁴ Then Menahem son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, entered Samaria, and struck Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria and killed him. Then Menahem reigned in his place.

¹⁵ Now the rest of the deeds of Shallum and the conspiracy he made are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

¹⁶ Then Menahem struck Tiphshah and all who were in it, and the territories around Tirzah. Because they did not open up the city to him, he attacked it. Then he split open all its pregnant woman.

Menahem, King of Israel

¹⁷ In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel for ten years in Samaria. ¹⁸ He did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not turn aside all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

²¹ The rest of the deeds of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel? ²² And Menahem slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his son reigned in his place.

Pekahiah, King of Israel

²³ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria for two years. ²⁴ He did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin. ²⁵ But Pekah son of Remaliah, his officer, conspired against him and struck him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob, Arieah, and fifty men of the Gileadites with him. He killed him and reigned in his place.

²⁶ Now the rest of the deeds of Pekahiah and all that he did are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

Pekah, King of Israel

²⁷ In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria for twenty years. ²⁸ He did evil in the sight of the LORD. He did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who caused Israel to sin.

²⁹ In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, Abel Beth Maakah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, Galilee, and all the land of Naphtali, and then exiled them to Assyria. ³⁰ Then Hoshea son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah and struck and killed him. Then he reigned in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah.

³¹ The rest of the deeds of Pekah and all that he did are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

Jotham, King of Judah

³² In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, became king. ³³ He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok. ³⁴ He did what was right in the sight of the LORD. He did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. ³⁵ Only he did not remove the high places. The people continued sacrificing and making offerings on the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD.

³⁶ Now the rest of the deeds of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ³⁷ In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah. ³⁸ Jotham slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David his father. Then Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Ahaz, King of Judah

2Ch 28:1-27

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham, king of Judah, became king. ² Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned for sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God like David his father. ³ He walked in the way of the kings of Israel and even made his son pass through the fire according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the children of Israel. ⁴ He sacrificed and made offerings on the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree.

⁵ Then Rezin king of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to battle, and they besieged Ahaz but could not subdue him. ⁶ At that time Rezin king of Aram recovered Elath for Aram and expelled the Judeans from Elath. The Edomites came to Elath and live there to this day.

⁷ So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the king of Aram and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me." ⁸ Then Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent a present to the king of Assyria. ⁹ So the king of Assyria listened to him. The king of Assyria went up to Damascus, captured it, exiled the people to Kir, and killed Rezin.

¹⁰ Then King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria and saw an altar that was in Damascus. King Ahaz sent to Uriah the priest a pattern of the altar and model of it, according to the manner of its construction. ¹¹ Uriah the priest built an altar according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus. Thus Uriah the priest worked until King Ahaz came from Damascus. ¹² When the king came back from Damascus and saw the altar, the king approached the altar and made offerings on it. ¹³ He offered his burnt offering and his grain offering, poured out his libations, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings upon the altar. ¹⁴ And the bronze altar that was before the LORD he moved from the front of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD. He put it on the north side of the new altar.

¹⁵ Then King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, "Upon the great altar offer the morning burnt offering, the evening grain offering, the king's burnt offering, and his grain offering with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain offering, and their libations. Sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice, and the bronze altar will be for me to inquire by." ¹⁶ So Uriah the priest did everything that King Ahaz commanded.

¹⁷ King Ahaz cut off the bases of the stands and removed the basin from them. He took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it and put it on stone pavement. ¹⁸ The structure for the Sabbath that they had built in the house and the king's outer entrance he removed from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria.

¹⁹ Now the rest of the deeds of Ahaz that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²⁰ Ahaz slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. Then Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

Hoshea, King of Israel

2Kgs 18:9-12

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king in Samaria over Israel for nine years. ² He did evil in the sight of the LORD, only not as the kings of Israel who were before him.

³ Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him. Hoshea became his servant and gave him gifts. ⁴ But the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea, for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt and offered up no gift to the king of Assyria as he had done year by year. So the king of Assyria detained him, and then put him in prison.

Israel Exiled to Assyria

⁵ Then the king of Assyria went throughout all the land, went up to Samaria, and besieged it for three years. ⁶ In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria seized Samaria and exiled Israel to Assyria. He put them in Halah, in Habor by the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

⁷ This happened because the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up from the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They had feared other gods ⁸ and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom the LORD dispossessed before the children of Israel, and walked in the statutes which the kings of Israel had made. ⁹ The children of Israel ascribed things to the LORD their God that were not so, and they built for themselves high places in all their cities from the watchtower to the fortified city. ¹⁰ They set up standing stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every green tree. ¹¹ There they burned incense on all the high places, as the nations did whom the LORD had carried away before them. And they did wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger, ¹² for they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, "You shall not do this thing." ¹³ But the LORD warned Israel and Judah by all the prophets and by all the seers, saying, "Turn from your evil ways, and keep My commandments and My statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers and which I sent to you by My servants the prophets."

¹⁴ But they would not listen. They stiffened their necks, like the neck of their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God. ¹⁵ They rejected His statutes and His covenant that He had made with their fathers and the decrees He had given them. They followed idols, and became idolaters, and followed the surrounding nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them, that they should not do like them.

¹⁸ Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from His presence. None remained except the tribe of Judah. ¹⁹ Judah also did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made. ²⁰ The LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, afflicted them, and gave them into the hand of plunderers until He had cast them out of His presence.

²¹ For He had torn Israel from the house of David, and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king. Jeroboam diverted Israel from following the LORD and caused them to sin greatly. ²² For the children of Israel walked in all the sins which Jeroboam committed. They did not turn aside from them ²³ until the LORD removed Israel from His presence as He had said by all His servants the prophets. So Israel was exiled from their land to Assyria until this day.

Assyria Resettles Samaria

²⁴ Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Kuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim and put them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel. They possessed Samaria and lived in its cities. ²⁵ Right at the beginning of their settling there, they did not fear the LORD, so the LORD sent lions among them, and they killed some of them. ²⁶ So they said to the king of Assyria, "The nations which you have exiled and settled in the cities of Samaria do not know the law of the god of the land. Therefore He has sent lions among them; they are killing them, because they do not know the requirements of the god of the land."

²⁷ Then the king of Assyria commanded, "Escort back one of the priests whom you exiled from there and let him go and dwell there. Let him teach them the law of the god of the land." ²⁸ Then one of the priests whom they had exiled from Samaria came and lived in Bethel. He taught them how they should fear the LORD.

²⁹ But each nation was making its own gods, and they put them in the houses of the high places that the people of Samaria had made, each nation in the cities where they were living. ³⁰ The men of Babylon made Sukkoth Benoth, the men of Kuthah made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, ³¹ the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak. The Sepharvites were burning their children in fire to Adrammelek and Anammelek, the gods of Sepharvaim. ³² They feared the LORD and made from amongst themselves priests of the high places, who were working for them in the houses of the high places. ³³ They feared the LORD, and they were serving their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they exiled from there.

³⁴ To this day they continue to practice their former customs. They do not fear the LORD, nor are they doing according to the statutes, requirements, the law or commandment that the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom He named Israel. ³⁵ The LORD had made a covenant and commanded them, saying, "You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them. You shall not serve them or sacrifice to them. ³⁶ Rather, the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm, Him you shall fear, to Him you shall bow down, and to Him you shall sacrifice. ³⁷ The statutes, the ordinances, the law, and the commandment, which He wrote for you, you shall observe to do forever. And you shall not fear other gods. ³⁸ The covenant that I have made with you, you shall not forget. You shall not fear other gods. ³⁹ Rather the LORD your God you shall fear, and He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies."

⁴⁰ But they did not listen; rather they were practicing their former customs. ⁴¹ So these nations feared the LORD and were serving their carved images, both their children and their grandchildren, as their fathers did, and so they are doing to this day.

Hezekiah, King of Judah

2Ch 29:1-2; 31:1, 20-21; 2Ki 17:3-7

18 In the third year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, became king. ² He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abi daughter of Zechariah. ³ He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to everything that David his father had done. ⁴ He removed the high places, broke down the sacred pillars, cut down the Asherah poles, and crushed the bronze serpent that Moses had made, for until those days the children of Israel had made offerings to it. They called it Nehushtan.

⁵ He trusted in the LORD God of Israel. Afterwards, there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah or among those who were before him. ⁶ He clung to the LORD. He did not depart from following him, but kept His commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses. ⁷ The LORD was with him. Wherever he went, he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. ⁸ He struck the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, from watchtower to fortified city.

⁹ In the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel, Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged it. ¹⁰ He seized it at the end of three years. In the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is, the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken.

¹¹ Then the king of Assyria exiled Israel to Assyria and put them in Halah and in Habor by the River of Gozan and in the cities of the Medes, ¹² because they did not obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed His covenant and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not obey or do them.

Sennacherib Invades Judah

Isa 36:1-22; 2Ch 32:9-19

¹⁶ At that time Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD and from the doorposts that Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid and gave it to the king of Assyria.

¹⁷ Then the king of Assyria sent the Tartan, [‡] the Rab-saris, ^{‡‡} and the Rabshakeh ^{‡‡} from Lachish to King Hezekiah with a great army against Jerusalem. So they went up and came to Jerusalem. When they went up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the highway of the Fuller's Field. ¹⁸ Then they called to the king, and Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.

¹⁹ Then the Rabshakeh said to them, "Speak to Hezekiah:

"Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: What is the basis of your confidence? ²⁰ You speak empty words concerning counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? ²¹ Now, look! You trust in the staff of this bruised reed, on Egypt, on which if a man leans, it will enter his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. ²² But if you say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' is it not He, whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem'?

²³ "Now, make a wager with my lord king of Assyria. I will give you two thousand horses if you are able to set riders on them. ²⁴ How can you turn away one official of the least of my master's servants and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and horsemen? ²⁵ Have I come up apart from the will of the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land and destroy it."

²⁶ Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Do not speak with us in the language of Judah in earshot of the people who are on the wall."

²⁷ But the Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the men sitting on the wall, who are about to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?"

²⁸ Then the Rabshakeh stood and called with a loud voice in the language of Judah, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. ²⁹ Thus says the king: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he is not able to deliver you from my hand. ³⁰ Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'

"Do not listen to Hezekiah when he leads you astray saying, The LORD will deliver us. ³³ Has any of the gods of the nations at all delivered its land from the hand of the king of Assyria? ³⁴ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? ³⁵ Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"

³⁶ But the people were silent and answered him not a word, for the king's command was, "Do not answer him."

³⁷ Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Hezekiah Consults Isaiah

Isa 37:1-13

19 When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and entered the house of the LORD. ² He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³ They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: This day is a day of distress, chastisement, and disgrace, for children have come to the mouth of the womb, but there is no strength to birth them. ⁴ Perhaps the LORD your God will hear all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria, his master, has sent to taunt the living God and will rebuke the words that the LORD your God has heard, and you might lift up a prayer for the remnant that are left."

⁵ When the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, ⁶ Isaiah said to them, "Thus shall you say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. ⁷ I am putting a spirit in him, and he will hear a report and return to his own land. Then I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

Sennacherib Defies the LORD

⁸ Then the Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish.

⁹ When the king heard concerning Tirhakah king of Cush, "He has come out to fight against you," he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, ¹⁰ "Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying: Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying: Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹ You have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by annihilating them. Will you be delivered? ¹² Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations that my fathers destroyed, Gozan, Harran, Rezep, and the sons of Eden who were in Tel Assar? ¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"

Hezekiah's Prayer

¹⁴ Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD and spread it before the LORD.

¹⁵ Then Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, "O LORD, God of Israel, who sits on the cherubim, You alone are God over all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made the sky and the earth. ¹⁶ Incline, O LORD, Your ear and hear. Open, O LORD, Your eyes and see. Hear the words of Sennacherib, which he sent to taunt the living God.

¹⁷ "Surely, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have annihilated the nations and their lands ¹⁸ and have put their gods in the fire, for they were no gods but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; thus they have been destroyed. ¹⁹ So now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You, O LORD, are God alone."

Isaiah Prophecies Sennacherib's Fall

Isa 37:21-38; 2Ch 32:20-21

²⁰ Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: That which you have prayed to Me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria I have heard. ²¹ This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him:

She despises you, she ridicules you—virgin daughter of Zion.
Behind you, she shakes her head—
daughter of Jerusalem.

²² Whom have you taunted and blasphemed?
And against whom have you raised a voice and lifted your eyes upward?

Against the Holy One of Israel.

²³ By your messengers
you have taunted the Lord, and have said,
'With my many chariots
I have gone up the height of the mountains, to farthest reaches of Lebanon, and I will cut down its tallest cedars,
its choicest junipers.
I will enter its most remote canopies of night,
its dense forest.

²⁴ I have dug wells
and drunk foreign waters, and I dried up with the sole of my foot
all the streams of Egypt.'

²⁵ "Have you not heard?
Long ago I arranged it,
in ancient times I formed it;
now I bring it to pass,
that you will turn impregnable cities into desolate heaps of stones.

²⁶ Their inhabitants are powerless;
they are terrified and ashamed.
They are like grass of the field and new vegetation,
grass on the roof tops,
scorched before it stands.

²⁷ "But I know your dwelling place, your going out and your coming in,
and your raging against Me.

²⁸ Because you have raged against Me, and your self-assuredness has come up to My ears,
I will put My hook in your nose and My bridle on your lips, and I will turn you back on the way by which you came.

²⁹ "This will be the sign to you:
This year you will eat what grows itself,
and in the second year the same.
Then in the third year sow, reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruits.

³⁰ The spared of the house of Judah who remain will again take root below, and bear fruit above.

³¹ For from Jerusalem a remnant will go forth, and escapees from Mount Zion.

"The zeal of the LORD of Hosts will do this.

³² "Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria:

He will not enter this city,
shoot an arrow there,
approach it with shield,
or heap up a siege ramp against it.

³³ By the way that he came, he will return;
he will not enter this city,
declares the LORD.

³⁴ For I will protect this city to save it, for My own sake and for the sake of David My servant."

The Death of Sennacherib

³⁵ On that night the angel of the LORD went out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When others woke up early in the morning, these were all dead bodies. ³⁶ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and stayed in Nin-veh.

³⁷ As he was worshipping in the house of Nisrok his god, Adrammelek and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah's Life Extended

2Ch 32:24-26; Isa 38:1-8

20 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was near death. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order, for you shall die and not live."

² Then he turned his face toward the wall and prayed to the LORD, saying, ³ "Please, O LORD, remember how I have walked before You faithfully and with an undivided heart and have done what is good in Your sight." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴ Now before Isaiah had come out of the middle courtyard, the word of the LORD came to him, saying, ⁵ "Turn back and say to Hezekiah the leader of My people: Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears.
I will heal you. On the third day you shall go up to the house of the LORD. ⁶ I will add to your days fifteen years, and I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for My own sake and for the sake of David My servant."

⁷ Then Isaiah said, "Take a cake of figs." So they took it and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

⁸ Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I should go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?"

⁹ Isaiah said, "This is the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that He has spoken:
Should the shadow walk forward ten steps or go back ten steps?"

¹⁰ And Hezekiah answered, "It is an easy thing for the shadow to stretch ten steps, so let it go back ten steps."

¹¹ Isaiah the prophet called to the LORD, and He made the shadow go back ten steps on the stairs of Ahaz.

Envoys From Babylon

Isa 39:1-8; 2Ch 32:32-33

¹² At that time Marduk-Baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been ill. ¹³ Hezekiah welcomed them and showed them all the treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the fine oil, all the armory, and all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house nor in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

¹⁴ Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and said to him, "What did these men say? From where did they come to you?"

Hezekiah said, "They came from a distant land, from Babylon."

¹⁵ He said, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah said, "They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them."

¹⁶ Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD: ¹⁷ The days are coming when everything that is in your house and that your fathers have stored up until this day will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left, says the LORD. ¹⁸ Some of your sons who go out from you, who will be born to you, will be taken away. They will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

¹⁹ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good." And he said, "Why not, if there is peace and security in my days?"

The Death of Hezekiah

²⁰ The rest of the deeds of Hezekiah, all his power, how he made a pool and a conduit and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²¹ Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh, King of Judah

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. ² He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the children of Israel. ³ He went back and rebuilt the high places that Hezekiah his father had destroyed. He erected altars for Baal, made an Asherah pole as Ahab king of Israel had done, and worshipped all the host of heaven and served them. ⁴ He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put My name." ⁵ He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD. ⁶ He made his son pass through the fire, was conjuring and seeking omens, and dealt with mediums and soothsayers. He did much evil in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger.

⁷ He put a carved image of Asherah that he had made in the house of which the LORD said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever. ⁸ I will not make the feet of Israel to wander homeless from the land that I gave to their fathers, if only they will be careful to do according to all that I have commanded them and according to all the law that My servant Moses commanded them." ⁹ But they did not listen. Manasseh led them to do more evil than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

¹⁰ The LORD spoke by His servants the prophets, saying, ¹¹ "Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, things more evil than all that the Amorites did, and has also caused Judah to sin with his idols, ¹² therefore thus says the LORD God of Israel: I am bringing evil on Jerusalem and Judah, such evil that the ears of whoever hears about it will tingle. ¹³ I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line of Samaria and the level of the house of Ahab, and I will wipe out Jerusalem as one wipes out a bowl, wiping it and turning it upside down. ¹⁴ I will disregard the remnant of My inheritance and give them into the hand of their enemies. They shall become plunder and spoil for all their enemies, ¹⁵ because they have done evil in My sight and have provoked Me to anger, since the day their fathers came out of Egypt, even to this day."

¹⁷ Now the rest of the deeds of Manasseh, all that he did, and his sin that he committed, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

¹⁸ Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza. Amon his son reigned in his place.

Amon, King of Judah

2Ch 33:21-25

¹⁹ Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king. He reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth, daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. ²⁰ He did evil in the sight of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done. ²¹ He walked in all the ways that his father walked, served the idols that his father served, and worshipped them. ²² He abandoned the LORD God of his fathers, and he did not walk in the way of the LORD.

²⁵ Now the rest of the deeds of Amon that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? ²⁶ And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his son reigned in his place.

Josiah, King of Judah

2Ch 34:1–28

22 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah from Bozkath. ² He did what was right in the sight of the LORD and walked in all the ways of David his father. He did not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

The Book of the Law Found

³ In the eighteenth year of King Josiah the king sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, ⁴ "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, and have him prepare the money that has been brought to the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered from the people. ⁵ Let them deliver it to the hand of the appointed workers of the house of the LORD, and let them give it to the workers who are in the house of the LORD to repair the damages to the house, ⁶ that is, to the carpenters, the builders, and the masons to buy timber and cut stone to repair the house. ⁷ But there need be no settling of accounts with them concerning the money that was given to their hand, because they are behaving honestly."

⁸ Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. ⁹ Then Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought the king a report. He said, "Your servants have emptied the money that was found in the house and have given it into the hand of the appointed workers of the house of the LORD." ¹⁰ Shaphan the scribe informed the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." So Shaphan read it before the king.

¹¹ When the king had heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes. ¹² Then the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Akbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah, a servant of the king, saying, ¹³ "Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people, and for all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found, for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book by doing according to all that is written concerning us."

¹⁵ She said to them, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Tell the man that sent you to Me, ¹⁶ Thus says the LORD: See, I will bring evil on this place and on its inhabitants—all the words of the book that the king of Judah has read. ¹⁷ Because they have forsaken Me and have made offerings to other gods, so that they have provoked Me to anger with all the works of their hands, therefore My wrath will be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched. ¹⁸ But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall you say to him, "Thus says the LORD God of Israel with regard to the words you have heard: ¹⁹ Because your heart was timid, and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and you have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you, declares the LORD. ²⁰ Therefore, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your grave in peace. Your eyes will not see all the evil which I am about to bring upon this place."

Then they brought the king a report.

Josiah Renews the Covenant

2Ch 34:3–33; 35:1–36:1

23 Then the king sent them away and they gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to him. ² The king went up to the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, the priests, the prophets, and all the people, both small and great. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant that was found in the house of the LORD. ³ The king stood by a pillar and made a covenant before the LORD to follow the LORD, to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and His statutes with all his heart and all his soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. All the people agreed with the covenant.

⁴ The king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold to bring out of the temple of the LORD all the implements that were made for Baal, for Asherah, and for all the host of heaven. Then he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron and carried their ashes to Bethel. ⁵ Then he removed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense on the high places at the cities of Judah and around Jerusalem; those also who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the constellations, and to all the host of heaven. ⁶ He brought out the Asherah from the house of the LORD to the outside of Jerusalem, to the Kidron Valley. Then he burned it at the Kidron Valley, crushed it to dust, and threw its dust upon the graves of the people. ⁷ He tore down the houses of the male cult prostitutes that were in the house of the LORD, where the women were weaving hangings for the Asherah.

⁸ He brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah and defiled the high places where the priests had made offerings, from Geba to Beersheba. He broke down the high places of the gates at the entry of the gates of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on the left at the gate of the city. ⁹ However the priests of the high places did not go up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem. Instead they ate unleavened bread among their fellow priests.

¹² The altars that were on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD the king tore down and banished from there and threw their dust into the Kidron Valley. ¹³ The high places east of Jerusalem, south of the Mount of Corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Molek the abomination of the Ammonites, the king defiled. ¹⁴ He broke the standing stones, cut down the Asherah poles, and filled their sites with human bones.

¹⁵ Moreover, the altar that was at Bethel and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he tore down. Then he burned the high place and crushed it to powder, and he burned the Asherah. ¹⁶ As Josiah turned, he saw the tombs that were there on the mount. He took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD that the man of God proclaimed, the one who announced these things.

¹⁷ Then he said, "What is this monument that I see?"

The men of the city said to him, "It is the tomb of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Bethel."

¹⁸ He said, "Let him rest. No one shall disturb his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria.

¹⁹ Moreover, all the houses of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah removed. He did to them just as he had done in Bethel.

²⁰ He slaughtered on the altars all the priests of the high places who were there, and burned human bones on them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

²¹ The king commanded all the people, "Keep the Passover to the LORD your God as it is written in this Book of the Covenant." ²² For such a Passover had not been kept from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah. ²³ But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was kept to the LORD in Jerusalem.

²⁴ Moreover, Josiah disposed of the mediums, the soothsayers, the teraphim, the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, so that he established the words of the law that were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD. ²⁵ Now there had been no king like him before or after, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Law of Moses.

²⁶ However, the LORD did not turn from the fierceness of His great wrath, by which His anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him. ²⁷ The LORD said, "I will also remove Judah from before Me, as I have removed Israel. I will reject this city that I have chosen, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there."

Josiah Dies in Battle

²⁸ Now the rest of the deeds of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

²⁹ In his days Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt, went up against the king of Assyria to the River Euphrates. King Josiah went to meet him, but he killed him at Megiddo when he had seen him. ³⁰ His servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in place of his father.

Jehoahaz, King of Judah

³¹ Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ³² He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. ³³ Pharaoh Necho imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and imposed tribute on the land of a hundred talents [†] of silver and a talent ^{††} of gold. ³⁴ Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of Josiah his father and changed his name to Jehoiakim. He took Jehoahaz away and went to Egypt, and he died there. ³⁵ Jehoiakim gave the silver and gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land to give the money according to Pharaoh's demand. According to an assessed amount, he exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land to give to Pharaoh Necho.

Jehoiakim, King of Judah

2Ch 36:5-8

³⁶ Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he became king. He reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. ³⁷ He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

Judah Overrun by Enemies

24 In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant for three years. Then he turned and rebelled against him. ² The LORD sent against him bands of Chaldeans, bands of Arameans, bands of Moabites, and bands of Ammonites. He sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD that He spoke by His servants the prophets. ³ Surely at the decree of the LORD this came upon Judah, to remove them from before Him, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done, ⁴ and also for the innocent blood that he had shed, for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was not willing to pardon.

⁷ The king of Egypt did not come again from his land, for the king of Babylon had taken over from the Brook of Egypt to the River Euphrates all that belonged to the king of Egypt.

Jehoiachin, King of Judah

⁸ Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king. He reigned in Jerusalem three months. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. ⁹ He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

¹⁰ At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city was under siege. ¹¹ Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up to the city while his servants were besieging it, ¹² and Jehoiachin king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, his mother, his servants, his princes, and his eunuchs. The king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.

The Captivity of Jerusalem

¹³ He brought out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the implements of gold in the temple of the LORD, which Solomon king of Israel had made, just as the LORD had spoken. ¹⁴ He exiled all Jerusalem, all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths. No one remained, except the poorest people of the land.

¹⁵ He exiled Jehoiachin in Babylon. The king's mother, the king's wives, his eunuchs, and the elite of the land he took into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. ¹⁶ All the fighting men, seven thousand, the craftsmen and smiths, one thousand, all those strong and fit for war the king of Babylon brought them into exile in Babylon. ¹⁷ The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, the uncle of Jehoiachin, king in his place and changed his name to Zedekiah.

Zedekiah, King of Judah

2Ch 36:11-16; Jer 52:1-3

¹⁸ Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king. He reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ¹⁹ He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ²⁰ Because of the anger of the LORD this happened in Jerusalem and Judah until He threw them out from His presence. But Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

The Fall and Exile of Judah

Jer 39:1-10; 40:7-9; 41:1-18; 52:4-27; 2Ch 36:17-20

25 In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and set up camp near it. They built siege mounds against it all around. ² The city came under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. ³ On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was severe in the city, and there was no food for the people of the land. ⁴ The city was breached, and all the fighting men fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which is by the king's garden, though the Chaldeans were all around the city. They went along the way of the Arabah. ⁵ Then the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his army deserted him. ⁶ So they captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and they passed sentence upon him. ⁷ They slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah. They bound him with bronze fetters and brought him to Babylon.

⁸ In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month (that was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon), Nebuzaradan, the captain of the bodyguard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. ⁹ He burned the house of the LORD, the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem. Every great house he burned with fire. ¹⁰ All the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard tore down the walls of Jerusalem all around. ¹¹ The rest of the people who remained in the city, the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the crowd Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyguard took into exile. ¹² But the captain of the bodyguard left some of the poor of the land to be vine-dressers and farmers.

¹³ The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD, the stands, and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried their bronze to Babylon. ¹⁴ The pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the incense bowls, and all the bronze implements which were used in service they took away. ¹⁵ The fire pans and sprinkling basins that were fine gold and fine silver the captain of the bodyguard took.

¹⁷ The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, [†] and a bronze capital was on it. The height of the capital was three cubits. ^{††} Latticework and pomegranates, all of bronze, were on the capital all around. The second pillar with its latticework was like it.

¹⁸ The captain of the bodyguard took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold. ¹⁹ From the city he took a eunuch who was an officer over the fighting men, five men of the king's council who were found in the city, the chief scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men from the people of the land who were found in the city. ²⁰ Nebuzaradan captain of the bodyguard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²¹ Then the king of Babylon struck them down and killed them at Riblah in the land of Hamath.

Thus he exiled Judah from their land.

[†] About 27 feet, or 8.1 meters. ^{††} About 41/2 feet, or 1.4 meters.

Gedaliah, Governor of Judah

²² Over the people who remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, he appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. ²³ When all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah, that is, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maakathite, they and their men. ²⁴ Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, and said to them, "Do not be afraid of being the servants of the Chaldeans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you."

²⁵ But in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal line, came with ten men and struck down Gedaliah. He died along with the Judeans and Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah. ²⁶ Then all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies arose and went to Egypt, for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

Jer 52:31–34

²⁷ In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, Awel-Marduk king of Babylon, in the year that he became king, released Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison. ²⁸ He spoke kindly to him, and gave him a throne above the thrones of the kings that were with him in Babylon. ²⁹ He changed his prison garments, and he ate food continually before him all the days of his life. ³⁰ His allowance was a regular allowance given him by the king every day, all the days of his life.

1 CHRONICLES

The first book of Chronicles was likely written between 450 and 425 BC. Jewish tradition attributes authorship to Ezra. This was after the captives began to return from Babylonian exile in 538 BC. Its theme of genealogy and history, especially regarding David and Solomon, focuses on Judah and the priestly lineage who would maintain the temple sacrifices. Both books of the Chronicles were composed later than the books of Kings. First Chronicles can be divided into genealogies of the patriarchs and twelve sons of Israel, the last days and death of King Saul, and the reign of King David and his death. Special events include the return of the ark of the covenant to Jerusalem and the account of David gathering material to build the temple.

The Generations From Adam to Abraham

Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

³⁶ The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, Kenaz, Timna, and Amalek.

³⁷ The sons of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

Descendants of Esau in Edom

Ge 36:20–43

³⁸ The sons of Seir were

Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

³⁹ The sons of Lotan were

Hori and Homam; the sister of Lotan was Timna.

⁴⁰ The sons of Shobal were

Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho, and Onam.

The sons of Zibeon were

Aiah and Anah.

⁴¹ The son of Anah was Dishon.

The sons of Dishon were Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Keran.

⁴² The sons of Ezer were Bilhan, Zaavan, and Jaakan.

The sons of Dishan were

Uz and Aran.

⁴³ These are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel:

Bela the son of Beor (the name of his city was Dinhabah).

⁴⁴ When Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah from Bozrah reigned in his place.

⁴⁵ When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites reigned in his place.

⁴⁶ When Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, the one who struck Midian in the open field of Moab, reigned in his place (the name of his city was Avith).

⁴⁷ When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah reigned in his place.

⁴⁸ When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the River reigned in his place.

⁴⁹ When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Akbor reigned in his place.

⁵⁰ When Baal-Hanan died, Hadad reigned in his place (the name of his city was Pai, and the name of his wife was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab). ⁵¹ Then Hadad died.

The tribal chiefs of Edom were

Chief Timnah, Chief Alvah, Chief Jetheth, ⁵² Chief Oholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon, ⁵³ Chief Ke-naz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar, ⁵⁴ Chief Magdiel, and Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

Sons of Israel

Ge 35:23–26; Ru 4:18–22; Mt 1:3–6

2 These are the sons of Israel:
Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun,
² Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

From Judah to David

³ The sons of Judah were

Er, Onan, and Shelah: These three were born to him by the daughter of Shua the Canaanitess. Now Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in the sight of the LORD, and He put him to death. ⁴ Then Tamar his daughter-in-law bore Perez and Zerah for him. In all, Judah had five sons.

⁵ The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul.

⁶ The sons of Zerah were

Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Kalkol, and Dara, five of them in all.

⁷ The sons of Karmi were

Achar, the troubler of Israel, who acted unfaithfully in regard to the ban.

⁸ The son of Ethan was Azariah.

⁹ Now the sons of Hezron, who were born to him, were Jerahmeel, Ram, and Kelubai.

Sons of Ram

¹⁰ Ram became the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, a leader of the sons of Judah.

¹¹ Nahshon became the father of Salma, and Salma became the father of Boaz. ¹² Boaz became the father of Obed, and Obed became the father of Jesse.

¹³ Now Jesse became the father of his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimea the third, ¹⁴ Nethanel the fourth, Raddai the fifth, ¹⁵ Ozem the sixth, David the seventh; ¹⁶ their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. The sons of Zeruiah were Abishai, Joab, and Asahel, three in all. ¹⁷ Abigail bore Amasa: the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.

Sons of Caleb

¹⁸ Caleb the son of Hezron had children with his wife Azubah and with Jerioth. These are her sons: Jeshar, Shobab, and Ardon. ¹⁹ Now Azubah died, and Caleb took Ephrath as a wife. She bore Hur for him. ²⁰ Hur became the father of Uri, and Uri became the father of Bezalel.

²¹ Afterward Hezron had relations with the daughter of Makir, the father of Gilead, whom he took as a wife when he was sixty years old, and she bore Segub for him. ²² Segub became the father of Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead. ²³ He took Geshur and Aram, the towns of Jair, from them, with Kenath and its villages, sixty towns. All these were descendants of Makir, the father of Gilead.

²⁴ After the death of Hezron in Caleb Ephrathah, Hezron's wife Abijah bore him Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

Sons of Jerahmeel

²⁵ Now the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were Ram the firstborn, Bunah, Oren, Ozem, and Ahijah. ²⁶ Jerahmeel also had another wife. Her name was Atarah, and she was the mother of Onam.

²⁷ The sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.

²⁸ The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada.

And the sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur.

²⁹ The name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail. She bore him Ahban and Molid.

³⁰ The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim, but Seled died without children.

³¹ The son of Appaim was Ishi. The son of Ishi was Sheshan, and the son of Sheshan was Ahlai.

³² The sons of Jada the brother of Shammai were Jether and Jonathan, but Jether died without children.

³³ The sons of Jonathan were Peleth and Zaza.

These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

³⁴ Now Sheshan had no children except daughters, but he did have a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha. ³⁵ Sheshan gave one of his daughters to Jarha his servant as a wife, and she bore him Attai.

³⁶ Attai became the father of Nathan, and Nathan became the father of Zabad.

³⁷ Zabad became the father of Ephlal, and Ephlal became the father of Obed.

³⁸ Obed became the father of Jehu, and Jehu became the father of Azariah.

³⁹ Azariah became the father of Helez, and Helez became the father of Eleasah.

⁴⁰ Eleasah became the father of Sismai, and Sismai became the father of Shallum.

⁴¹ Shallum became the father of Jekamiah, and Jekamiah became the father of Elishama.

Caleb's Clans

⁴² Now the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were

Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron.

⁴³ The sons of Hebron were

Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema. ⁴⁴ Shema became the father of Raham, the father of Jorkeam, and Rekem became the father of Shammai. ⁴⁵ The son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the father of Beth Zur.

⁴⁶ Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza, and Gazez, and Haran became the father of Gazez.

⁴⁷ The sons of Jahdai were

Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

⁴⁸ Maakah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah. ⁴⁹ She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Makbenah, and the father of Gibeon. The daughter of Caleb was Akshah.

⁵⁰ These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah:

Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim, ⁵¹ Salma the father of Bethlehem, and Hareph the father of Beth Gader.

⁵² Now sons were born to Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim:

Haroeh and half of the Manahathites. ⁵³ The families of Kiriath Jearim were the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites, and the Mishraitites. From these the Zorathites and the Eshtaulites went forth.

⁵⁴ The sons of Salma were Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites. ⁵⁵ The families of the scribes who lived at Jabez were the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Sucathites. They are the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of Rekaab.

The Generations of David

2Sa 3:2-5; 5:14-16; 1Ch 14:4-7

3 Now these were the sons of David, who were born to him in Hebron:

The firstborn was Amnon by Ahinoam the Jezreelitess;

the second, Daniel by Abigail the Carmelitess;

² the third was Absalom the son of Maakah, the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith;

³ the fifth, Shephatiah by Abital;

the sixth, Ithream by Eglah his wife.

⁴ Six sons were born to him in Hebron, and he reigned there seven years and six months. He also reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

⁵ Now these were born to him in Jerusalem:

Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, four sons by Bathsheba the daughter of Ammiel; ⁶ then Ithar, Elishama, Eliphelet, ⁷ Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁸ Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine. ⁹ These were all the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

The Kings of Judah

¹⁰ Solomon's son was Rehoboam;

Abijah was his son,

Asa his son,

Jehoshaphat his son,

¹¹ Joram † his son,

Ahaziah his son,

Joash his son,

¹² Amaziah his son,

Azariah his son,

Jotham his son,

¹³ Ahaz his son,

Hezekiah his son,

Manasseh his son,

¹⁴ Amon his son,

and Josiah his son.

¹⁵ The sons of Josiah were the firstborn Johanan,

the second Jehoiakim,

the third Zedekiah,

and the fourth Shallum.

¹⁶ The sons of Jehoiakim were

Jeconiah his son and Zedekiah his son.

The Post-Exilic Royal Line

¹⁷ The sons of Jeconiah were Assir, Shealtiel his son, ¹⁸ Malkiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

¹⁹ The sons of Pedaiah were

Zerubbabel and Shimei, and the sons of Zerubbabel were

Meshullam and Hananiah, and Shelomith was their sister;

²⁰ and Hashubah, Ohel, Berekiah, Hasadiah, and Jushab-Hesed, five.

²¹ The sons of Hananiah were

Pelatiah and Jeshaiiah, the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, and the sons of Shekaniiah.

²² The sons of Shekaniiah were

Shemaiah and the sons of Shemaiah:

Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat, six in all.

²³ The sons of Neariah were Elioenai, Hizkiah, and Azrikam, three in all.

²⁴ The sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani, seven in all.

Other Sons of Judah

⁴ The sons of Judah were

Perez, Hezron, Karmi, Hur, and Shobal.

² Reaiah the son of Shobal became the father of Jahath, and Jahath became the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites.

³ These were the sons of the father of Etam:

Jezreel, Ishma, and Idbash. The name of their sister was Hazzelelponi. ⁴ Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer was the father of Hushah.

These were the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem.

⁵ Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives: Helah and Naarah.

⁶ Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hepher, Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.

⁷ The sons of Helah were

Zereth, Zohar, and Ethnan. ⁸ Koz became the father of Anub and Hazzobebah and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum.

⁹ Now Jabez was more honorable than his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, "Because I bore him in hardship." ¹⁰ Then Jabez called on the God of Israel, saying, "Oh, that You would indeed bless me and enlarge my territory, that Your hand might be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that it may not bring me hardship!" So God granted what he asked.

¹¹ Kelub the brother of Shuhah became the father of Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. ¹² Eshton became the father of Beth Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir Nahash. These were the men of Rekah.

¹³ The sons of Kenaz were

Othniel and Seraiah, and the sons of Othniel were

Hathath and Meonothai. ¹⁴ Meonothai became the father of Ophrah, and Seraiah became the father of Joab,

the father of Ge Harashim, for they were craftsmen.

¹⁵ The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh were

Iru, Elah, and Naam,

and the son of Elah was

Kenaz.

¹⁶ The sons of Jehallelel were

Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel.

¹⁷ The sons of Ezra were

Jether, Mered, Epher, and Jalon, and Mered's wife bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. ¹⁸ His Judean wife bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soko, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. So these were the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took.

¹⁹ The sons of his wife Hodiah, the sister of Naham, were

† in 2Ki 1:17; 8:16.

the father of Keilah the Garmite and Eshtemoa the Maakathite.

²⁰ The sons of Shimon were

Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon.

And the sons of Ishi were

Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

²¹ The sons of Shelah the son of Judah were

Er the father of Lekah, Laadah the father of Mare-shah, the families of the house of workers of fine linen at Beth Ashbea; ²² Jokim, the men of Kozeba, Joash, Saraph, who was lord in Moab, and Jashubi Lehem (these records are ancient). ²³ They were the potters, those dwelling at Netaim and Gederah (they dwelt there with the king for his work).

Sons of Simeon

Jos 19:2-10

²⁴ The sons of Simeon were

Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul,

²⁵ Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, and Mishma his son.

²⁶ The sons of Mishma were

Hammuel his son, Zakkur his son, and Shimei his son.

²⁷ Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many sons, nor did all their family multiply as much as the sons of Judah. ²⁸ Now they dwelt in Beersheba, Moladah, and Hazar Shual ²⁹ a well as in Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, ³⁰ Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, ³¹ Beth Markaboth, Hazar Susim, Beth Biri, and Shaaraim. These were their cities until the reign of David. ³² Their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Token, and Ashan, five cities in all, ³³ and all the villages that were around these cities as far as Baal. Such are their inhabited cities, and those registered to them were ³⁴ Meshobab, Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah; ³⁵ Joel, and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel; ³⁶ Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah; ³⁷ Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah.

³⁸ These mentioned by name were leaders in their families, and their fathers' houses increased greatly.

³⁹ They went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

⁴¹ In the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, those written by name came and attacked their tents, along with the Meunites who were found there, and utterly destroyed them until this day. Then they dwelt there in their place because there was pasture for their flocks there. ⁴² Now some of them, namely five hundred men from the sons of Simeon, went to Mount Seir with Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, as their captains. ⁴³ Then they struck down the rest of the Amalekites who had escaped. So they have dwelt there until this day.

Sons of Reuben

5 Now the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (for he was the firstborn, but since he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel, so that the genealogy is not listed according to the birthright; ² though Judah prevailed over his brothers and a ruler came from him, yet the birthright belonged to Joseph), ³ the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanok, Pallu, Hezron, and Karmi.

⁴ The sons of Joel were

Shemaiah his son, Gog his son,

Shimei his son, ⁵ Micah his son,

Reaiah his son, Baal his son,

⁶ and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser the king of Assyria led into exile. He was a leader of the Reubenites.

⁷ His brothers according to their families by the registration of their generations were Jeiel, the first, and Zechariah; ⁸ Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, even as far as Nebo and Baal Meon.

⁹ And he dwelt toward the east as far as the entrance to the wilderness from the Euphrates, for their cattle were abundant in the land of Gilead.

¹⁰ Now in the days of Saul, they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand, and they dwelt in their tents over all the eastern plains of Gilead.

Sons of Gad

¹¹ The sons of Gad dwelt opposite them in the land of Bashan as far as Salekah.

¹² Joel was the first, Shapham the second, with Janai and Shaphat in Bashan.

¹³ Their brothers of their father's house were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jakan, Zia, and Eber, seven in all.

¹⁴ These are the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz;

¹⁵ Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was the head of their father's house.

¹⁶ They dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in its towns, and in all the outlands of Sharon to the edge of their borders.

¹⁷ All of them were registered by genealogy in the days of Jotham king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

skillful in battle, who went to war. ¹⁹ They made war with the Hagarites, namely Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab. ²⁰ They were helped against them, and the Hagarites and all who were with them were delivered into their hand, for they cried to God in the battle, and He heard their prayer because they trusted in Him. ²¹ They captured their livestock: fifty thousand of their camels, two hundred and fifty thousand sheep, two thousand donkeys, and one hundred thousand men. ²² So many fell slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their place until the exile.

The Half-Tribe of Manasseh

²³ The children of the half-tribe of Manasseh also dwelt in the land. They increased from Bashan as far as Baal Hermon and Senir, even to Mount Hermon.

²⁴ These were the heads of their fathers' houses: Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valor, men of reputation, and heads of their fathers' houses. ²⁵ They were unfaithful to the God of their fathers and played the harlot after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had wiped out before them. ²⁶ So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul the king of Assyria, even the spirit of Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, and he led the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh into exile and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and to the river of Gozan to this day.

Sons of Levi

- 6 The sons of Levi were
 Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
² The sons of Kohath were
 Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.
³ The children of Amram were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam.
 The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
⁴ Eleazar became the father of Phinehas, Phinehas
 the father of Abishua,
⁵ Abishua the father of Bukki, and Bukki the father of Uzzi.
⁶ Uzzi became the father of Zerachiah, and Zerachiah
 the father of Meraioth.
⁷ Meraioth became the father of Amariah, and Amariah father of Ahitub.
⁸ Ahitub became the father of Zadok, and Zadok father of Ahimaaz.
⁹ Ahimaaz became the father of Azariah, and Azariah father of Johanan.
¹⁰ Johanan became the father of Azariah (he was the one who ministered as a priest in the temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem).
¹¹ Azariah became the father of Amariah, and Amariah the father of Ahitub.
¹² Ahitub became the father of Zadok, and Zadok
 the father of Shallum.

¹³ Shallum became the father of Hilkiyah, and Hilkiyah the father of Azariah.

¹⁴ Azariah became the father of Seraiah, and Seraiah of Jehozadak.

¹⁵ Jehozadak went into exile when the LORD led Judah and Jerusalem into exile by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

¹⁶ The sons of Levi were
 Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

¹⁷ These are the names of the sons of Gershon:
 Libni and Shimei.

¹⁸ The sons of Kohath were
 Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

¹⁹ The sons of Merari were
 Mahli and Mushi.

Now these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers.

²⁰ Of Gershon were
 Libni his son, Jahath his son,
 Zimmah his son, ²¹ Joah his son,
 Iddo his son, Zerah his son,
 and Jeatherai his son.

²² The sons of Kohath were
 Amminadab his son, Korah his son,
 Assir his son, ²³ Elkanah his son,
 Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son,
²⁴ Tahath his son, Uriel his son,
 Uzziyah his son, and Shaul his son.

²⁵ The sons of Elkanah were Amasai and Ahimoth.

²⁶ As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah were Zophai his son,
 Nahath his son, ²⁷ Eliab his son,
 Jeroham his son, and Elkanah his son.

²⁸ The sons of Samuel were the firstborn Joel and Abijah.

²⁹ The sons of Merari were
 Mahli, Libni his son,
 Shimei his son, Uzzah his son,
³⁰ Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, and Asaiah his son.

The Temple Musicians

Jos 21:4-39

³¹ These are the ones whom David appointed over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after the ark rested there. ³² Now they were ministering before the dwelling place of the tabernacle of meeting with singing until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they were arranged by their order according to their service.

³³ These are the ones standing in order with their sons.

Of the sons of the Kohathites were Heman the singer,
 the son of Joel, the son of Samuel,
³⁴ the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah,

³⁵ the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, ³⁶ the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, ³⁷ the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, ³⁸ the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.

³⁹ His brother Asaph, the one standing at his right hand, was Asaph the son of Berekiah, the son of Shimea, ⁴⁰ the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malkijah, ⁴¹ the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, ⁴² the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, ⁴³ the son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.

⁴⁴ Of the sons of Merari, their brothers, standing on the left hand was

Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluk, ⁴⁵ the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, ⁴⁶ the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, ⁴⁷ the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.

⁴⁸ Their brothers the Levites also were appointed for all kinds of service to the tabernacle of the house of God. ⁴⁹ But Aaron and his sons were making sacrifices on the altar of the burnt offering and on the altar of incense for all the work of the Most Holy Place and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

⁵⁰ Now these are the sons of Aaron:

Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, ⁵¹ Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, ⁵² Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, ⁵³ Zadok his son, and Ahimaaz his son.

⁵⁴ And these are their dwelling places according to their walled settlements in their territory, for they were given to them, namely to the sons of Aaron and to the families of the Kohathites, by lot.

⁵⁵ They gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and its surrounding outlands. ⁵⁶ But the open fields of the city, and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh.

⁵⁷ To the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah with the cities of refuge: Hebron and Libnah with its outlands, Jattir and Eshtemoa with their outlands, ⁵⁸ Hilen with its outlands, Debir with its outlands,
⁵⁹ Ashan with its outlands, and Beth Shemesh with its outlands. ⁶⁰ From the tribe of Benjamin, they gave Geba with its outlands, Alemeth with its outlands, and Anathoth with its outlands.

All their cities throughout their families were thirteen.

⁶¹ To the sons of Kohath, those remaining from the family of that tribe, they gave ten cities by lot from half the tribe of Manasseh.

⁶³ To the sons of Merari, throughout their families, they gave by lot from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad, and from the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities in all.

⁶⁶ Then some from the families of the sons of Kohath received cities for their territory from the tribe of Ephraim.

⁶⁷ They gave to them with the cities of refuge: Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim with its outlands, Gezer with its outlands, ⁶⁸ Jokmeam with its outlands, Beth Horon with its outlands, ⁶⁹ Aijalon with its outlands, and Gath Rimmon with its outlands.

⁷⁰ Also the half-tribe of Manasseh gave Aner with its outlands and Bileam with its outlands for the remaining family of the sons of Kohath.

⁷¹ To the sons of Gershom, the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh gave Golan in Bashan with its outlands and Ashtaroth with its outlands.

⁷² From the tribe of Issachar, they received Kedesh with its outlands, Daberath with its outlands, ⁷³ Ramoth with its outlands, and Anem with its outlands.

⁷⁴ From the tribe of Asher, they received Mashal with its outlands, Abdon with its outlands, ⁷⁵ Hukok with its outlands, and Rehob with its outlands.

⁷⁶ From the tribe of Naphtali, they received Kedesh in Galilee with its outlands, Hammon with its outlands, and Kiriathaim with its outlands.

⁷⁷ To the remaining sons of Merari, the tribe of Zebulun gave Rimmono with its outlands and Tabor with its outlands.

⁸⁰ And from the tribe of Gad, they received Ramoth in Gilead with its outlands, Mahanaim with its outlands, ⁸¹ Heshbon with its outlands, and Jazer with its outlands.

Sons of Issachar

7 Now the sons of Issachar were Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron, four in all.
² The sons of Tola were

Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, and Samuel. They were heads of their father's house. The sons of Tola were mighty men of valor in their generations. Their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred.

³ The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah,

and the sons of Izrahiah were

Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishiah, five chiefs in all. ⁴ With them, by their generations, after the house of their fathers, were thirty-six thousand troops of war, battle-ready, for they had many wives and sons.

⁵ Now their brothers from all the families of Issachar were mighty men of valor, in all eighty-seven thousand registered by genealogy.

Sons of Benjamin

⁶ Benjamin had

Bela, Beker, and Jediael, three sons in all.

⁷ The sons of Bela were five:

Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri. They were heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valor, and registered by their genealogies, twenty-two thousand and thirty four in number.

⁸ The sons of Beker were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these are the sons of Beker. ⁹ Now their registration according to their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valor, was twenty thousand two hundred.

¹⁰ The son of Jediael was Bilhan,

along with the sons of Bilhan:

Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Kenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar. ¹¹ All these sons of Jediael were heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valor, numbering seventeen thousand two hundred soldiers, ready to go out to war for battle.

¹² And the Shuppites and Huppites were the sons of Ir; the Hushites the sons of Aher.

Sons of Naphtali

¹³ The sons of Naphtali were

Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum, descendants of Bilhah.

Sons of Manasseh

¹⁴ The sons of Manasseh were

Asriel, whom his Aramean concubine bore. She also bore Makir the father of Gilead. ¹⁵ Now Makir took a wife for Huppim and Shuppim, whose sister's name was Maakah.

The name of the second was Zelophehad, and Zelophehad had daughters.

¹⁶ Maakah the wife of Makir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. His brother's name was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

¹⁷ The son of Ulam was Bedan.

These were the sons of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh. ¹⁸ His sister Hammoleketh bore Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah.

¹⁹ The sons of Shemida were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

Sons of Ephraim

²⁰ The sons of Ephraim were

Shuthelah, Bered his son,

Tahath his son, Eleadah his son,

Tahath his son, ²¹ Zabad his son,

Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and Elead, whom the men of Gath born in that land killed because they came down to take their livestock. ²² Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him. ²³ Then he went in to his wife, and she conceived and bore a son, so he called his name Beriah, because evil had been in his house ²⁴ (his daughter was Sheerah, who built both Lower and Upper Beth Horon as well as Uzzan Sheerah).

²⁵ Rephah was also his son, as were Resheph,

Telah his son, Tahan his son,

²⁶ Ladan his son, Ammihud his son,

Elishama his son, ²⁷ Nun his son, and Joshua his son.

²⁸ Their possessions and settlements were Bethel and its towns, and to the east Naaran, and to the west Gezer with its towns, Shechem and its towns, and Ayyah and its towns; ²⁹ also along the borders of the Manassites, Beth Shan and its towns, Taanach and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, and Dor and its towns. In these lived the sons of Joseph the son of Israel.

Sons of Asher

³⁰ Now the children of Asher were

Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah.

³¹ The sons of Beriah were

Heber and Malkiel, who was the father of Birzaith.

³² Heber became the father of Japhlet, Shomer,

Hotham, and their sister Shua.

³³ The sons of Japhlet were Pasak, Bimhal, and Ashvath.

These were the children of Japhlet.

³⁴ The sons of Shomer were

Ahi, Rohgah, Hubbah, and Aram.

³⁵ The sons of his brother Helem were Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal.

³⁶ The sons of Zophah were

Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, ³⁷ Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran, and Beera.

³⁸ The sons of Jether were Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara.

³⁹ The sons of Ulla were Arah, Hannel, and Rizia.

⁴⁰ All these were the children of Asher, heads of their fathers' houses, choice men, mighty men of valor, and heads of the leaders. They were registered by their genealogy among the army fit for war. Their number was twenty-six thousand men.

The Generations of Benjamin

¹Ch 9:34-44

8 Now Benjamin became the father of Bela his firstborn,

Ashbel the second, Aharah the third,
² Nohah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.

³ The sons of Bela were Addar, Gera, Abihud, ⁴ Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, ⁵ Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram.

⁶ These are the sons of Ehud, who were the heads of the fathers' houses to those dwelling in Geba, and who exiled them to Manahath.

⁷ So he exiled Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera and then became the father of Uzza and Ahihud.

⁸ Shahraraim had sons in the country of Moab after he had sent away his wives Hushim and Baara. ⁹ He had sons with his wife Hodesh, namely Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malkam, ¹⁰ Jeuz, Sakia, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of the fathers' houses.

¹¹ He also had sons by Hushim: Abitub and Elpaal.

¹² The sons of Elpaal were Eber, Misham, Shemed (he built Ono and Lod with its towns), ¹³ Beriah, and Shema, who were heads of the fathers' houses to those dwelling in Aijalon and who drove out the inhabitants of Gath, ¹⁴ as well as Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, ¹⁵ Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, ¹⁶ Michael, Ishpah, and Joha, the sons of Beriah.

¹⁷ Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, ¹⁸ Ishmerai, Izliah, and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal.

¹⁹ Jakim, Zikri, Zabdi, ²⁰ Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, ²¹ Adahiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.

²² Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, ²³ Abdon, Zikri, Hanan,

²⁴ Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, ²⁵ Iphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.

²⁶ Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, ²⁷ Jareshiah, Elijah, and Zikri were the sons of Jeroham.

²⁸ These were heads of the fathers' houses according to their generations, chief men who dwelt in Jerusalem.

³³ Ner became the father of Kish; Kish the father of Saul; Saul the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal.

³⁴ Jonathan's son was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal became the father of Micah.

³⁵ The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melek, Tarea, and Ahaz.

³⁶ Ahaz became the father of Jehoaddah, and Jehoaddah became the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri became the father of Binea. Now Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

³⁸ Azel had six sons, and their names were Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel.

³⁹ The sons of his brother Eshek were Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third. ⁴⁰ The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor, even archers, and had many sons and grandsons, one hundred and fifty in all. These were all the sons of Benjamin.

9 So all Israel was registered by genealogies, and these were written in the book of the kings of Israel.

And Judah was led into exile to Babylon for their unfaithfulness.

² Now the first ones to dwell in their possessions in their cities were children of Israel, priests, Levites, and temple servants.

A Post-Exilic Genealogy

Ne 11:3-19

³ Some of the sons of Judah dwelt in Jerusalem alongside some of the sons of Benjamin, Ephraim, and Manasseh:

⁴ Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the sons of Perez the son of Judah;

⁵ of the Shilonites:

Asaiah the firstborn and his sons;

⁶ of the sons of Zerach:

Jeuel and their brothers, six hundred and ninety.

⁷ Those of the sons of Benjamin were

Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah;

⁸ Ibneiah the son of Jeroham; Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Mikri; Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah;

⁹ and their brothers according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of families according to their fathers' houses.

¹⁰ Those of the priests were

Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jakin;

¹¹ Azariah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the head official of the house of God;

¹² Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah; Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer;

¹³ and their brothers, heads of the houses of their fathers, one thousand seven hundred and sixty very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

¹⁴ Those of the Levites were

Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari;

¹⁵ Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Mika, the son of Zikri, the son of Asaph;

¹⁶ Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; Berekiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Ne-tophathites.

¹⁷ Now the gatekeepers were

Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brothers (Shallum was the head officer ¹⁸ who until then had served at the king's eastern gate). They were the gatekeepers for the camps of the Levites.

²² All those chosen as gatekeepers were two hundred and twelve. They were registered by their genealogy in their villages. Now David and Samuel the seer established them in their trusted offices. ²³ So they and their sons were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, that is, the house of the tabernacle, as guards.

²⁴ The gatekeepers were on four sides: east, west, north, and south. ²⁵ Their brothers in their villages were to come for seven days from time to time to serve with them. ²⁶ For in their trusted offices the four main gatekeepers who were Levites had charge over the chambers and treasuries of the house of God.

²⁷ They spent the night around the house of God, for the watch was entrusted to them, and they were responsible for opening it every morning.

²⁸ Some of them were in charge of the vessels of service, that they should bring them in and out by number. ²⁹ Some others were appointed over the furnishings and all the implements of the sanctuary as well as the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices. ³⁰ And some of the sons of the priests mixed the ointment of the spices. ³¹ Mattithiah, one of the Levites (he was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite), was entrusted with making the flat cakes. ³²

Others of the sons of the Kohathites and from their brothers were given charge over the showbread to prepare it every Sabbath.

³³ Now these are the singers, heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites, who stayed in the temple chambers, free from other service, because they were occupied with the work day and night.

³⁴ These were the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites according to their generations, leaders, who dwelt in Jerusalem.

The Genealogy of Saul

1Ch 8:28-38

³⁵ Now Jeiel the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maakah, dwelt in Gibeon.

³⁶ His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, ³⁷ Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth. ³⁸ Mikloth became the father of Shimeam. These also dwelt in Jerusalem with their own families near their brothers.

³⁹ Ner became the father of Kish; Kish the father of Saul; Saul the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab, and Esh-Baal.

⁴⁰ The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal became the father of Micah.

⁴¹ The sons of Micah were

Pithon, Melek, Tahrea, and Ahaz.

⁴² Ahaz became the father of Jarah, and Jarah the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. Zimri became the father of Moza, ⁴³ and Moza became the father of Binea, Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, and Azel his son.

⁴⁴ Azel had six sons, and these were their names: Azrikam, Bokeru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

The Death of Saul

1Sa 31:1-13; 2Sa 1:4-12

10 Now when the Philistines fought against Israel, every Israelite fighter fled before the Philistines, and the slain fell on Mount Gilboa. ² But the Philistines pursued Saul and his sons and struck down Saul's sons Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malki-Shua. ³ As the battle with Saul became heavy, the archers' bows found their target and mortally wounded him.

⁴ So Saul said to his armor bearer, "Draw your sword and pierce me through lest these uncircumcised Philistines come and make a fool of me."

But his armor bearer was unwilling to do it because he was overwhelmed with fear, so Saul took the sword and fell on it himself. ⁵ When the armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died. ⁶ Thus, Saul and his three sons, namely all his house, died together.

⁷ Now when all the children of Israel in the valley saw that they had fled the battlefield, and Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and escaped, leaving the Philistines to come and dwell in them.

⁸The next day, when the Philistines came to pillage the slain, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹So they stripped Saul, removed his head and his armor, and circulated the news of his demise throughout the land of the Philistines to their idols as well as the people. ¹⁰Then they placed his armor in the temple of their gods, while his head they impaled in the house of Dagon.

¹¹Now all Jabesh Gilead heard about everything the Philistines did to Saul, ¹²so their valiant men rose up and carried the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons to Jabesh. They buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh and fasted, mourning seven days.

¹³So Saul died because of his unfaithful deeds against the LORD, because of his failure to keep the word of the LORD, and because he sought to consult a spirit of divination ¹⁴but did not seek the LORD. So He killed him and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse.

David, King of Israel

2Sa 5:1-10

11 Then all Israel assembled before David at Hebron, saying, "We are your own people, even your flesh and blood. ²Also from times past until now, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel going out and coming in, and the LORD your God said to you, Indeed, you will shepherd My people Israel as the ruler of Israel."

³Then all the elders of Israel came to King David at Hebron, and he made a covenant with them there before the LORD. So they anointed David king over Israel according to the word of the LORD delivered by Samuel.

David Conquers Jerusalem

⁴Now David and all Israel with him went to Jerusalem (that is, Jebus, since the Jebusites still dwelt there in the land). ⁵And the Jebusites said to David, "You will not come here," but he captured the stronghold of Zion (it is the City of David).

⁶Now David had said, "Whoever strikes Jebus first will be the commander and leader of the army," so Joab, the son of Zeruiah, went up first and became the commander.

⁷Then David dwelt in the stronghold, which is why they called it the City of David, ⁸and he fortified the city all around from the Millo encircling the stronghold, while Joab preserved the rest of the city. ⁹So David kept on going, becoming greater and greater, and the LORD of Hosts was with him.

David's Mighty Men

2Sa 23:8-39

¹⁰Now these are the heads of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened him in his kingdom, along with all Israel, to establish him as king according to the word of the LORD to Israel. ¹¹These make up the number of the mighty men who fought for David:

Jashobeam, the son of Hakmoni, the head of the thirty, who lifted his spear in triumph over three hundred slain at one time.

¹²After him was Eleazar, the son of Dodai the Ahohite, who was among the three mighty men. ¹³He was with David at Pas Dammim when the Philistines were gathered there for battle. There was a piece of ground full of barley. Now the men fled from the Philistines.

¹⁴But they stood their ground in the middle of the field, defended it, and killed the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great victory.

¹⁵Now three of the thirty captains climbed down the rock to David at the cave of Adullam while the camp of the Philistines was set up in the Valley of Rephaim.

¹⁶(At that time, David was in the stronghold, but a garrison of the Philistines was in Bethlehem.) ¹⁷Now David was overcome with longing and said, "Who will get me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem by the gate?" ¹⁸These three broke through the Philistine camp, drew water from the well of Bethlehem by the gate, and carried it back to David. However, he was not willing to drink it but poured out the water to the LORD. ¹⁹For he said, "Far be it from me before my God to do this. Should I drink the life blood of these men who put their lives in jeopardy? For at the risk of their lives they brought it." Therefore he would not drink it.

The three mighty men did these things.

²⁰Also Abishai himself, the brother of Joab, was a captain of the three who lifted his spear in triumph over three hundred slain and was given a name among the three. ²¹He was honored as a leader by the second company of the three, but he did not attain to the first three.

²²Benaiah son of Jehoiada was the son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done many deeds. He killed two Moabite warriors. Indeed, once he went down into a well and struck a lion on a snowy day. ²³And he killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits [†]tall. The Egyptian had in his hand a spear like a weaver's beam, and he went down to him with a staff, wrested the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. ²⁴Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, did these things, and won a name among the three mighty men. ²⁵Out of the thirty captains, he himself was honored, and although he did not attain to the three, David set him over his guard.

²⁶Now the other mighty men of valor of the army were [†] About 7 feet 6 inches, or 2.3 meters.

Asahel the brother of Joab,
 Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem,
²⁷ Shammoth the Harorite,
 Helez the Pelonite,
²⁸ Ira the son of Ikkes the Tekoite,
 Abiezer the Anathothite,
²⁹ Sibbekai the Hushathite,
 Ilai the Ahohite,
³⁰ Maharai the Netophathite,
 Heled the son of Baanah, the Netophathite,
³¹ Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah in Benjamin,
 Benaiah the Pirathonite,
³² Hurai from the rivers of Gaash,
 Abiel the Arbathite,
³³ Azmaveth the Baharumite,
 Eliahba the Shaalbonite,
³⁴ the sons of Hashem the Gizonite,
 Jonathan the son of Shagee, the Hararite,
³⁵ Ahiam the son of Sakar, the Hararite,
 Eliphal the son of Ur,
³⁶ Hopher the Mekerathite,
 Ahijah the Pelonite,
³⁷ Hezro the Carmelite,
 Naarai the son of Ezbai,
³⁸ Joel the brother of Nathan,
 Mibhar the son of Hagri,
³⁹ Zelek the Ammonite,
 Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Joab,
 the son of Zeruah,
⁴⁰ Ira the Ithrite,
 Gareb the Ithrite,
⁴¹ Uriah the Hittite,
 Zabad the son of Ahlai,
⁴² Adina the son of Shiza, the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him,
⁴³ Hanan the son of Maakah,
 Joshaphat the Mithnite,
⁴⁴ Uzzia the Ashterathite,
 Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham, the Aroerite, ⁴⁵ Jediael the son of Shimri and Joha his brother, the Tizite, ⁴⁶ Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite,
⁴⁷ Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

The Mighty Men Join David

12 Now these are the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he yet kept himself away from Saul the son of Kish. They were among the brave men, helpers in the war. ² They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones and shooting arrows out of a bow. They were Saul's brothers of Benjamin .

³ The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, the sons of She-maah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Az-maveth; Berakah, and Jehu the Anathothite; ⁴ and Ish-maiah the Gibeonite, a brave warrior among the thirty, and over the thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, and Jozabad the Gederathite; ⁵ and Eluzai, Jerimoth, Beal-ah, Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite; ⁶ and Elkanah, Ishiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam the Ko-rahites; ⁷ and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jer-oham of Gedor.

⁸ From the Gadites mighty men of valor, men of the war battalion, who could handle shield and sword, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and who were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains, separated themselves for David in the stronghold in the wilder-ness:

⁹ Ezer the captain,
 Obadiah the second, Eliab the third,
¹⁰ Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth,
¹¹ Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh,
¹² Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth,
¹³ Jeremiah the tenth, Makbannai the eleventh.

¹⁴ These were from Gad, captains of the battalions. One of the least of them was as a hundred and the greatest as a thousand. ¹⁵ These were the ones who crossed over the Jordan during the first month when it had overflowed its banks and caused the valley dwellers to flee to the east and to the west.

¹⁶ Some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah came to the stronghold of David. ¹⁷ So David went out before them and said to them, "If you have come in peace to help me, then I will have a heart united with yours, but if to betray me to my adversaries, when there is no violence in my hand, may the God of our fathers see, and may He decide between us."

¹⁸ Then the Spirit came upon Amasai the captain of the officers, and he said,
 " We are for you, David,
 and with you, son of Jesse.
 Peace, peace to you,
 and peace to the one helping you,
 for your God helps you."

So David welcomed them and appointed them as captains of the troops.

¹⁹ Now some from Manasseh joined forces with David when he came with the Philistines for battle against Saul, but they did not help them. For after taking counsel, the lords of the Philistines sent him away, saying, " It will be our heads if he falls back to his lord Saul." ²⁰ As he went to Ziklag, these men of Manasseh deserted to join him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai, chiefs of thousands in Manasseh. ²¹ So they helped David against the bands of raiders because all of them were mighty men of val-or and commanders in the army. ²² For at that time, day by day, they came to help David until they became a great camp like the camp of God.

David's Army at Hebron

²³ Now these make up the number of the leaders equipped for the battalion who came to David at Hebron in order to turn the kingdom of Saul over to him, as the mouth of the LORD had spoken.

²⁴ The sons of Judah who carried shields and spears: six thousand eight hundred equipped for war.

²⁵ From the sons of Simeon, mighty men of valor, fit for war: seven thousand one hundred.

²⁹ From the sons of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul: three thousand (up to that time the greater number of them were keeping their loyalty with the house of Saul).

³⁰ From the sons of Ephraim: twenty thousand eight hundred mighty men of valor, men of reputation in the house of their fathers.

³¹ From the half-tribe of Manasseh: eighteen thousand who were marked by name to come and crown David king.

³² From the sons of Issachar, those having understanding of times and what Israel should do: two hundred of their captains with all their brothers at their command.

³³ Of Zebulun, fifty thousand seasoned troops, equipped for battle with all the weapons of war, to help David with singleness of purpose. From Zebulun, those going out to war, equipped for battle with all the weapons of war, to help David with an undivided heart: fifty thousand.

³⁴ From Naphtali: one thousand leaders and thirty-seven thousand with shields and spears.

³⁵ From the Danites, competent for battle: twenty-eight thousand six hundred.

³⁶ From Asher, those going out to war, arranged for battle: forty thousand.

³⁸ All these made up the men of war, arranged in ranks, who came to Hebron with a sincere heart to make David king over all Israel, along with the all the rest of Israel who with one heart came to make David king. ³⁹ Now all these were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brothers had made provisions for them, ⁴⁰ and also the ones who were as near to them as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali were bringing bread on donkeys, on camels, on mules, and on oxen, food of fine flour, fig cakes, raisins, wine, oil, herds, and flocks in abundance, for there was joy in Israel.

The Ark

2Sa 6:1-11

13 So David conferred with the captains of the thousands and of the hundreds and with every leader. ² Then he said to all the assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you and to the LORD our God, let us send word to the rest of our brothers throughout all the land of Israel along with the priests and the Levites in their cities, that they might join us here. ³ Then let us bring the ark of the LORD our God back to us, for we did not seek it during the days of Saul." ⁴ Then all the assembly agreed to do it because the thing seemed right in the eyes of all the people.

⁵ So David assembled all Israel, from Shihor in Egypt as far as the entrance to Hamath, in order to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim. ⁶ And he went up with all Israel to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath Jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up the ark of God, the LORD who dwells between the cherubim, where His name is called.

¹¹ Now David was angry because the LORD struck out against Uzzah, so he called that place Perez Uzzah, as it is to this day.

¹² David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How can I ever bring the ark of God to myself?" ¹³ So David stopped moving the ark of God to himself in the City of David and diverted it to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite, ¹⁴ and while the ark of God stayed in his house three months, the LORD blessed the house of Obed-Edom and all he had.

David ESTablished at Jerusalem

2Sa 5:11-25; 1Ch 3:5-8

14 Then Hiram the king of Tyre sent messengers to David with cedar wood, stonemasons, and carpenters to build a palace for him. ² So David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel because his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.

³ Now David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David became the father of more sons and daughters. ⁴ These are the names of the children who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ⁵ I Bhar, Elishua, Elpelet, ⁶ Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁷ Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

David Defeats the Philistines

⁸ Now when the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek out David, but David heard and went out to them. ⁹ So the Philistines came and raided the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁰ Then David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Should I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them into my hand?"

The LORD answered, "Go up against them, and I will give them into your hand."

¹¹ And they went up to Baal Perazim, and David struck them down there. Then David said, "God broke through my enemies by my hand as the breaking through of waters." Therefore they named that place Baal Perazim. ¹² They abandoned their gods there, and David said that they should be burned with fire.

¹⁷ So the fame of David went out in all the lands, and the LORD put the dread of him on all the nations.

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

2Sa 6:12-19

15 So David built houses for himself in the City of David, and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it. ² Then David said, "No one may carry the ark of God except the Levites since the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister before Him always."

³ David assembled all Israel to Jerusalem in order to bring up the ark of the LORD to the place he had prepared for it. ⁴ And David gathered representatives of the sons of Aaron and the Levites, as follows:

⁵ from the sons of Kohath,

Uriel the leader and one hundred and twenty of his brothers;

⁶ from the sons of Merari,

Asaiah the leader and two hundred and twenty of his brothers;

⁷ from the sons of Gershon,

Joel the leader and one hundred and thirty of his brothers;

⁸ from the sons of Elizaphan,

Shemaiah the leader and two hundred of his brothers;

⁹ from the sons of Hebron,

Eliel the leader and eighty of his brothers;

¹⁰ from the sons of Uzziel,

Amminadab the leader and one hundred and twelve of his brothers.

¹¹ Then David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests and for the Levites: Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab. ¹² He said to them, "You are the captains of the fathers' houses for the Levites. Consecrate yourselves, you and your brothers, so you may bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared for it ¹³ because on the first attempt without you the LORD struck out against us since we did not seek Him properly." ¹⁴ So the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁵ The sons of the Levites lifted up the ark of God just as Moses commanded, with the poles on their shoulders, according to the word of the LORD.

¹⁶ Then David told the leaders of the Levites to position their brothers the singers with musical instruments, harps, lyres, and cymbals to resound with joyful songs.

²⁵ So David, the elders of Israel, and the leaders of the thousands went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom with rejoicing. ²⁶ Since God helped the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. ²⁷ Now David was clothed in a fine linen robe, as were the Levites who carried the ark, the singers, and Kenaniah, the conductor of singing and singers. David himself wore a linen ephod. ²⁸ So all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with a shout and with the sound of the ram's horn and with trumpets and cymbals, making music on harps and lyres.

²⁹ Now as the ark of the covenant of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal the daughter of Saul was looking down from the window, and when she saw King David dancing and spinning, she despised him in her heart.

The Ark Set in the Tent

16 So they brought in the ark of God, placed it in the midst of the tent that David had erected for it, and drew near to God with burnt offerings and peace offerings. ² W hen David had finished offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. ³ Then he distributed to all the children of Israel, both men and women, a loaf of bread, a piece of meat, and a raisin cake for each.

⁴ And he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, to commemorate, to thank, and to praise the LORD God of Israel: ⁵ Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, then Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, and Obed-Edom: Jeiel with stringed instruments and harps, but Asaph made music with the cymbals. ⁶ Moreover, Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests sounded trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

David's Psalm of Thanksgiving

Ps 96:1-13; 105:1-15; 106:1, 47-48

⁷ On that day then, David delivered for the first time this psalm of thanksgiving to the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brothers:

⁸ Give thanks to the LORD, call on His name; make known His deeds among the peoples.
⁹ Sing to Him, sing praise to Him, recount all His wonders.
¹⁰ Glory in His holy name; let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
¹¹ Seek the LORD and His strength; seek His face continually.
¹² Remember His wonders which He has done, His wonders and the judgments of His mouth, ¹³ O seed of Israel, His servant, O sons of Jacob, His chosen.
¹⁴ He is the LORD our God; His judgments are in all the earth.
¹⁵ Remember His covenant forever, the word He commanded for a thousand generations, ¹⁶ that He made with Abraham, even His oath to Isaac.
¹⁷ He confirmed it to Jacob as a statute, to Israel for an everlasting covenant, ¹⁸ saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as the portion of your inheritance."
¹⁹ When you were few in number, few indeed, and strangers there,
²⁰ when they wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another, ²¹ He allowed no man to oppress them; He rebuked kings on their account, ²² saying, "Do not touch My anointed, and do My prophets no harm."

²³ Sing to the LORD, all the earth.

Proclaim good tidings of His salvation from day to day.

²⁴ Declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among all the peoples.

²⁵ For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised. He is to be feared above all gods.

²⁶ For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

²⁷ Honor and majesty are before Him; strength and joy are in His place.

²⁸ Give to the LORD, O families of the peoples, give to the LORD glory and strength.

²⁹ Give to the LORD the glory due His name; bring an offering and come before Him, bow down to the LORD in holy array.

³⁰ Tremble before Him, all the earth.

The world also is firmly established; it shall not be moved.

³¹ Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad.

Let them say among the nations, "The LORD is King."

³² Let the sea roar, and all its fullness.

Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.

³³ Then the trees of the forest will ring out before the LORD, for He is coming to judge the earth.

³⁴ Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; for His mercy endures forever.

³⁵ Now say, "Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us and deliver us from the nations, that we may give thanks to Your holy name, to glory in Your praise.

³⁶ Blessed is the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting."

Then all the people said, "Amen," and "Praise the LORD."

Worship Before the Ark

³⁷ So he left Asaph and his brothers before the ark of the covenant of the LORD to minister before the ark regularly, as each day required, ³⁸ and also Obed-Edom and his sixty-eight brothers, while Obed-Edom, the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah were to be gatekeepers. ³⁹ And he left Zadok the priest and his priestly brothers before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place that was at Gibeon ⁴⁰ to offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering continually, morning and evening, according to all that was written in the Law of the LORD, which He commanded Israel.

⁴¹ With them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, who were marked by name to give thanks to the LORD, for His mercy endures forever.

⁴² Heman and Jeduthun had with them trumpets and cymbals to sound aloud and instruments for sacred song. The sons of Jeduthun were appointed to the gate.

⁴³ Then all the people departed, each man to his house, and David returned to bless his house.

The Davidic Covenant

2Sa 7:1-17

17 Now it happened as David dwelt in his house that he said to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am dwelling in a house of cedar while the ark of the LORD is under curtains."

² So Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you."

³ But it happened on that same night that the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying,

⁴ Go and tell David My servant: Thus says the LORD: You will not build a house for Me to dwell in, ⁵ for I have not dwelt in a house since the day when I brought Israel up even until this day, but I have gone from tent to tent and from tabernacle to tabernacle.

⁶ Wherever I have gone in all Israel, have I ever spoken a word to the any of the judges of Israel that I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?

⁷ And now say this to My servant David: Thus says the LORD of Hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following after the flock, to be ruler over My people Israel, ⁸ and I have been with you wherever you went, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Also I will make your name like the names of the greatest on earth. ⁹ And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and I will plant them there where they will dwell securely and tremble no more, so that the sons of wickedness will not oppress them just as before ¹⁰ from the time when I commanded the judges of My people Israel. I will subdue all your enemies.

And I declare to you the LORD will build a house for you. ¹¹ Then it will be when your days are full and you go to your fathers, I will raise up your seed after you from your own sons. His kingdom I will establish. ¹² He is the one who will build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. ¹³ I will be a father to him, and he will be a son to Me. I will not take away My favor from him as I did from the one who was before you. ¹⁴ I will assign him a place in My house and in My kingdom forever, and his throne will be established for all time.

¹⁵ Thus, Nathan spoke to David all these words and according to all this vision.

The Prayer of David

2Sa 7:18-29

¹⁶ Then King David came and sat before the LORD, and he said,

"Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house that You have brought me this far? ¹⁷ This was something small in Your eyes, God, but You have spoken concerning the house of Your servant for a great while to come and have regarded me with the status of a great man, O LORD God.

¹⁸ "What more can David speak to You for the honor of Your servant? For You know Your servant. ¹⁹ O LORD, for the sake of Your servant and according to Your own heart You have done all these great things and made known all these great things.

²⁰ "O LORD, there is none like You, and there is no god besides You as we have heard with our ears.

²¹ Who is like Your people Israel, a nation on earth whom God has redeemed for Himself as a people to make for Yourself a great name by great and awesome deeds in driving out nations from before Your people whom You redeemed from Egypt? ²² For You made Your people Israel for Yourself for a people forever, and You, O LORD, have become their God.

²⁴ Let Your name endure and be magnified forever, saying, 'The LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, is God to Israel.' And let the house of David Your servant be established before You.

²⁵ "For You, my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build a house for him. Therefore Your servant has found courage to pray before You. ²⁶ And now, O LORD, You are God, and You have promised this good word to Your servant. ²⁷ Now, You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant that it may be forever before You. For You, O LORD, have blessed it, and it shall be blessed forever."

David's Conquests

2Sa 8:1-18

18 Now it happened after this that David attacked the Philistines and subdued them, so he took Gath and its neighboring towns from Philistine control.

² He also defeated Moab so that the Moabites became servants to David and brought tribute.

³ Next David struck down Hadadezer the king of Zobah toward Hamath as he marched out to establish his authority along the Euphrates. ⁴ David captured from him one thousand chariots, seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand infantry men. Then David hamstringed all the chariot horses except for the one hundred he spared.

⁵ When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand Arameans. ⁶ Then David set garrisons in Aram of Damascus; and Arameans became subject to David, and brought tribute. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

⁷ So David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸ Also from Tibhath [†] and Kun, cities of Hadadezer, David took a large amount of bronze; with it Solomon made the bronze Sea, the pillars, and the vessels of bronze.

⁹When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, ¹⁰he sent his son Hadoram to King David to ask about his welfare and to bless him because he fought and defeated Hadadezer (for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou). He sent all kinds of articles of gold, silver, and bronze.

¹¹King David also dedicated these to the LORD, together with the silver and gold which he had carried away from all the surrounding nations, from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek.

¹²Also Abishai the son of Zeruiah struck down eighteen thousand men of Edom in the Valley of Salt. ¹³He set up garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became servants to David. Wherever he went, the LORD gave David victory.

David's Officials

¹⁴So David was king over all Israel, and he executed justice and righteousness for all his people. ¹⁵Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the historian. ¹⁶Zadok the son of Ahitub and Abimelek the son of Abiathar served as priests, while Shavsha was scribe. ¹⁷Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and the Pelethites, and the sons of David were the king's principal officials.

David Defeats the Ammonites

2Sa 10:1-19

19 Now it happened after this that Nahash the king of the Ammonites died, and his son reigned in his place. ²Then David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to comfort him.

³But the leaders of the Ammonites said to Hanun, "Do you think that David is honoring your father because he sent consolers? Have not his servants come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?" ⁴So Hanun took the servants of David, shaved them, cut their garments in half as far as the hip, and sent them away.

⁵Then some came and told David about the men, so he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated. The king said, "Remain in Jericho until your beards grow full, and then return."

⁶When the Ammonites saw that they had become a stench to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent one thousand talents [†] of silver to hire chariots and horsemen from Aram Naharaim, Aram Maakah, and Zobah. ⁷So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, with the king of Maakah and his people. They camped before Medeba as the Ammonites gathered from their cities to go out to war.

⁸When David heard of it, he sent Joab and all the army of the mighty men. ⁹So the Ammonites went out and formed ranks for battle at the entrance to the city while the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.

¹⁰When Joab saw the battle line was drawn in front of him and behind him, he chose some of the best men in Israel and arrayed them against the Arameans.

¹¹The rest of the people he placed in the charge of his brother Abishai, and they took up positions to engage the Ammonites. ¹²Then he said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you will come help me, but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I will come help you. ¹³Take courage, and let us prove worthy of our people and the cities of our God. May the LORD do what seems right to Him."

¹⁴So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the Arameans for battle, and they fled before him. ¹⁵When the Ammonites saw the Arameans fleeing, they also fled before Abishai his brother and entered the city. So Joab returned to Jerusalem.

¹⁶When the Arameans saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they sent messengers and summoned the Arameans who were beyond the River, ^{††} and Shophak, the commander of Hadadezer's army went before them.

¹⁷When David was told about it, he gathered all Israel, crossed over the Jordan, and came against them. He divided his ranks and prepared to engage the Arameans in battle, so they fought against him. ¹⁸But the Arameans fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand chariot drivers and forty thousand infantry men of the Arameans, and killed Shophak, the commander of the army.

¹⁹And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated before Israel, they negotiated peace with David and served him.

So the Arameans were not willing to aid the Ammonites in battle again.

Rabbah Captured

2Sa 11:1; 12:29-31

20 Now at the beginning of the year when kings would go out to war, Joab led the army and devastated the land of the Ammonites. He came and besieged Rabbah. But David remained in Jerusalem. So Joab struck Rabbah and overthrew it. ²Then David took the crown of their king from his head and found it weighed about a talent [‡] of gold with a precious stone set in it. And it was placed on David's head. He also brought out a great abundance of plunder from the city. ³He brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws, sharp iron tools, and axes. Thus David did to all the cities of the Ammonites, and then he and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

Philistine Giants Killed

2Sa 21:15-22

⁴ Now after this, when war broke out in Gezer with the Philistines, Sibbekai of Hushah killed Sippai, who was one of the descendants of the giants, and they were humbled.

⁵ Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the shaft of whose wooden spear was like a weaver's beam.

⁶ Yet again there was war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number; and he also was descended from the giants.

⁷ When he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

⁸ These were descended from the giants in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and his servants.

The Census of Israel and Judah

2Sa 24:1-25

21 Now Satan stood against Israel and incited David to number Israel. ² Then David said to Joab and the leaders of the people, "Go count Israel from Beersheba to Dan and bring me a report, that I may know their number."

³ But Joab said, "May the LORD increase the number of His people one hundred times more. My lord the king, are not all of them my lord's servants? Why then should my lord require this? Why should it bring guilt on Israel?"

⁴ Nevertheless, the king's word prevailed against Joab, so Joab departed and went throughout all Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem. ⁵ Joab gave the results of the census of the people to David: All Israel had one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and in Judah four hundred and seventy thousand men drew the sword.

⁶ However, he did not include the Levites and Benjamin because the word of the king was abhorrent to Joab. ⁷ Now this thing was evil in the sight of God, and He struck Israel.

⁸ So David said to God, "I have sinned greatly in doing this thing. Now, please, take away the iniquity of your servant, for I have acted very foolishly."

⁹ And the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, ¹⁰ "Go and speak to David, 'Thus says the LORD: Three things I offer you; choose one of these for yourself that I may do to you.'"

¹¹ So Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Select for yourself, ¹² either three years of famine, or three months of being swept away before your foes while the sword of your enemy overtakes you, or three days of the sword of the LORD, even pestilence in the land, with the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the territory of Israel.' Now then consider what answer I shall return to Him who sent me."

¹⁴ So the LORD sent a plague throughout Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell. ¹⁵ And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but as he prepared to destroy it, the LORD looked and relented from the calamity. And He said to the angel bringing the destruction, "It is enough. Remove your hand." The angel of the LORD was then standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

¹⁶ David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven with his sword drawn in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. So David and the elders, covered in sackcloth, fell on their faces.

¹⁷ David said to God, "Was it not I who gave the command to number the people? I am the one who has sinned and surely done evil. But these sheep, what have they done? O LORD my God, I pray, let Your hand be against me and my father's house, but do not let Your people be plagued."

David Builds an Altar

¹⁸ Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to tell David that David should go up and raise an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁹ So David went up at the word of Gad which he delivered in the name of the LORD.

²² Then David said to Ornan, "Give me the site of the threshing floor so that I may build an altar on it to the LORD. Sell it to me at full price so the plague on the people may be restrained."

²³ So Ornan replied to David, "Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do whatever seems good in his eyes. Look, I will give the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing wagons for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give it all."

²⁴ Then King David said to Ornan, "No, for I will surely acquire it for the full price, for I will not take what is yours for the LORD nor offer burnt offerings that cost me nothing."

²⁵ So David gave Ornan six hundred shekels [†] of gold by weight for the site, ²⁶ and David built there an altar to the LORD and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called on the LORD, and the LORD answered him by fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.

²⁷ So the LORD spoke to the angel, and he put away his sword in its sheath. ²⁸ At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there. ²⁹ For the tabernacle of the LORD and the altar of burnt offering that Moses had made in the wilderness were in the high place in Gibeon at that time. ³⁰ But David was unable to go before it to inquire of God, because he was terrified by the sword of the angel of the LORD.

22 Then David said, "Here shall be the house of the LORD God and here the altar of the burnt offering for Israel."

Plans to Build the Temple

² So David gave instructions to gather together those sojourning in the land of Israel, and he appointed stonemasons to cut hewn stones for building the house of God. ³ David also provided large quantities of iron for nails for the doors of the gates and for the clamps as well as an abundance of bronze beyond measure, ⁴ and cedar logs without number, for the Sidonians and the Tyrians brought much cedar wood to David.

⁵ Now David said, "Solomon my son is young and inexperienced, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, of fame and glory throughout all the lands. Therefore I will make preparation for it now." So David made extensive preparations before his death.

⁶ Then David called Solomon his son and commanded him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel. ⁷ David said to Solomon, "My son, I had it in my heart to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, ⁸ but the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'You have shed much blood and waged great wars. You shall not build a house for My name because you have shed much blood on the earth before Me. ⁹ A son shall be born to you who shall be a man of rest. I will give him rest from all his enemies all around. Solomon will be his name, and I will give peace and tranquility to Israel in his days. ¹⁰ He will be the one to build a house for My name. He shall be a son to Me, and I will be a father to him, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'

¹¹ "Now, my son, may the LORD be with you, and may you have success in building the house of the LORD your God just as He has spoken concerning you. ¹² Only may the LORD give you insight and understanding and give you charge over Israel so you may keep the law of the LORD your God. ¹³ Then you will prosper if you carefully observe the statutes and the judgments which the LORD commanded Moses for Israel. Be strong and of good courage. Do not be afraid or dismayed.

¹⁴ "With great difficulty I have prepared for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents [†] of gold and one million ^{††} talents of silver as well as innumerable quantities of bronze and iron, beyond measure. I have also prepared timber and stone to which you may add even more. ¹⁵ Moreover you have an abundance of workers: stonemasons, masons, carpenters, and men skilled in all kinds of work, ¹⁶ craftsmen in gold, silver, bronze, and iron without number. Rise up and work, and may the LORD be with you."

¹⁷ Then David commanded all the leaders of Israel to assist Solomon his son, saying, ¹⁸ "Is not the LORD your God with you? Has He not given you rest all around? For He has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand, and the land is subdued before the LORD and His people. ¹⁹ Now dedicate your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God. Rise up and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, so that you may bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD along with the holy vessels of God into the house which is to be built for the name of the LORD."

The Levites

23 Now David was old and full of days when he made Solomon his son king over Israel. ² So he gathered together all the leaders of Israel with the priests and the Levites.

³ The Levites from thirty years old and up were counted, and their head count of men was thirty-eight thousand. ⁴ Twenty-four thousand of these, David said, "shall have charge of the work in the house of the LORD; six thousand shall be officers and judges, ⁵ four thousand shall be gatekeepers, and four thousand shall offer praises to the LORD with the instruments that I have made for praise."

⁶ David assigned them to divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

Gershonites

⁷ From the Gershonites:

Ladan and Shimei.

⁸ The sons of Ladan were first Jehiel, then Zetham and Joel, three in all.

⁹ The sons of Shimei were Shelomith, Haziël, and Haran, three.

These were the heads of the fathers' houses of Ladan.

¹⁰ The sons of Shimei were

Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah.

These four were the sons of Shimei.

¹¹ Now Jahath was the first and Ziza the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were counted as one unit for their father's house.

Kohathites

¹² The sons of Kohath were

[†] About 3,750 tons, or 3,400 metric tons. ^{††} About 37,500 tons, or 34,000 metric tons.

Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four in all .

¹³ The sons of Amram were

Aaron and Moses,

but Aaron was set apart to consecrate the most holy things, he and his sons forever, to offer sacrifices before the LORD , to minister to Him, and to bless in His name forever. ¹⁴ As for Moses, the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi.

¹⁵ The sons of Moses were Gershom and Eliezer.

¹⁶ The son of Gershom was Shubael the chief.

¹⁷ The son of Eliezer was Rehabiah the chief.

Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

¹⁸ The son of Izhar was Shelomith the chief.

¹⁹ The sons of Hebron were

Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

²⁰ The sons of Uzziel were Micah the first and Ishiah the second.

Merarites

²¹ The sons of Merari were

Mahli and Mushi.

The sons of Mahli were

Eleazar and Kish.

²² Eleazar died having no sons, but only daughters, so the sons of Kish, their brothers, took them as wives .

²³ The sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth, three.

²⁵ For David said, "The LORD , the God of Israel, has given rest to His people, and He dwells in Jerusalem forever. ²⁶ And so the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its implements for its service."

²⁷ For by the last words of David, the sons of Levi were numbered from twenty years old and up; ²⁸ because their duty was to help the sons of Aaron in the service of the house of the LORD , in the courts and in the chambers, with the purifying of all holy things, even the work of service of the house of God, ²⁹ and with the showbread, the fine flour for a grain offering, the wafers of unleavened bread, the baked offering, the offering mixed with oil, and all measures of quantity and size, ³⁰ to stand morning by morning to thank and praise the LORD , and likewise in the evening, ³¹ and to offer up all burnt offerings to the LORD , for Sabbaths, New Moons, and appointed feasts, by number as the judgment concerning them, continually before the LORD , ³² and that they should keep charge of the tent of meeting and the sanctuary and attend to the sons of Aaron, their brothers, for the service of the house of the LORD .

Priestly Divisions Assigned

24 Now the divisions of the sons of Aaron were these.

The sons of Aaron: Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ² But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and they had no sons. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests. ³ Then David, along with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelek of the sons of Ithamar, divided them to their offices by their service. ⁴ Since the sons of Eleazar were found to have more chief men than the sons of Ithamar, they divided them into sixteen heads of the fathers' houses for the sons of Eleazar, and eight for the sons of Ithamar, according to their fathers' houses. ⁵ So they divided them by lots, the one as the other, for there were officers of the sanctuary and officers of God among both the sons of Eleazar and Ithamar.

⁶ Shemaiah the son of Nethanel, the Levite scribe, wrote them down in the presence of the king, the leaders, Zadok the priest, Ahimelek the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and the Levites, one father's house taken for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.

⁷ The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,

⁸ the third to Harim,

the fourth to Seorim,

⁹ the fifth to Malkijah,

the sixth to Mijamin,

¹⁰ the seventh to Hakkoz,

the eighth to Abijah,

¹¹ the ninth to Jeshua,

the tenth to Shekaniah,

¹² the eleventh to Eliashib,

the twelfth to Jakim,

¹³ the thirteenth to Huppah,

the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,

¹⁴ the fifteenth to Bilgah,

the sixteenth to Immer,

¹⁵ the seventeenth to Hezir,

the eighteenth to Happizez,

¹⁶ the nineteenth to Pethahiah,

the twentieth to Jehezkel,

¹⁷ the twenty-first to Jakin,

the twenty-second to Gamul,

¹⁸ the twenty-third to Delaiah,

the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

¹⁹ These were their appointments for their service to come into the house of the LORD according to the schedule prescribed for them by Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

Remaining Levite Assignments

- ²⁰ Now for the remaining sons of Levi:
 from the sons of Amram, Shubael;
 from the sons of Shubael, Jehdeiah.
²¹ For Rehabiah: from the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Ishiah.
²² From the Izharites, Shelomoth; from the sons of Shelomoth, Jahath.
²³ The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.
²⁴ The sons of Uzziel, Micah;
 from the sons of Micah, Shamir.
²⁵ The brother of Micah, Ishiah;
 from the sons of Ishiah, Zechariah.
²⁶ The sons of Merari, Mahli and Mushi;
 the son of Jaaziah, Beno.
²⁷ The sons of Merari:
 by Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zakkur, and Ibri.
²⁸ For Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.
²⁹ For Kish: the son of Kish, Jerahmeel.
³⁰ The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth.
 These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses. ³¹ These also cast lots just as their brothers, the sons of Aaron, in the presence of David the king, Zadok, Ahimelek, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the priests and of the Levites, the head of the fathers' houses as well as his younger brother.

The Musicians

- 25 Then David and the officers of the army also set apart for the service some of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, those who prophesied with lyres, harps, and cymbals. The number of those who did the work according to their service was:
² From the sons of Asaph:
 Zakkur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the guidance of Asaph, who prophesied according to the decree of the king.
³ For Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun:
 Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithi-ah, six, under the guidance of their father Je-duthun, who prophesied with the lyre in giving thanks and praise to the LORD.
⁴ For Heman, the sons of Heman:
 Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Ro-mamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth. ⁵ All these were the sons of Heman, the king's seer, according to the words of God, to exalt him, for God gave fourteen sons and three daughters to Heman.
⁶ All these were under the direction of their father for the music in the house of the LORD with cymbals, harps, and lyres, for the service of the house of God by decree of the king: Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman. ⁷ So the number of them, with their brothers, who were trained in singing to the LORD, all of whom were skillful, was two hundred and eighty-eight. ⁸ They cast lots for their duties, small and great, teacher and student alike.

- ⁹ The first lot fell for Asaph to Joseph;
 the second to Gedaliah,
 to him and his brothers and his sons, twelve;
¹⁰ the third to Zakkur,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
¹¹ the fourth to Izri,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
¹² the fifth to Nethaniah,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
¹³ the sixth to Bukkiah,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
¹⁴ the seventh to Jesarelah,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
¹⁵ the eighth to Jeshaiiah,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
¹⁶ the ninth to Mattaniah,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
¹⁷ the tenth to Shimei,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
¹⁸ the eleventh to Azarel,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
¹⁹ the twelfth to Hashabiah,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
²⁰ for the thirteenth to Shubael,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
²¹ for the fourteenth to Mattithiah,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
²² for the fifteenth to Jerimoth,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
²³ for the sixteenth to Hananiah,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
²⁴ for the seventeenth to Joshbekashah,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
²⁵ for the eighteenth to Hanani,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
²⁶ for the nineteenth to Mallothi,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
²⁷ for the twentieth to Eliathah,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
²⁸ for the twenty-first to Hothir,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
²⁹ for the twenty-second to Giddalti,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
³⁰ for the twenty-third to Mahazioth,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve;
³¹ for the twenty-fourth to Romamti-Ezer,
 his sons and his brothers, twelve.

The Gatekeepers

- 26 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers:

from the Korahites, Meshelemiah the son of Kore, one of the sons of Asaph.

² Meshelemiah had sons:

Zechariah the firstborn,

Jediael the second,

Zebadiah the third,

Jathniel the fourth,

³ Elam the fifth,

Jehohanan the sixth,

and Eliehoenai the seventh.

⁴ Obed-Edom had sons:

Shemaiah the firstborn,

Jehozabad the second,

Joah the third,

Sakar the fourth,

Nethanel the fifth,

⁵ Ammiel the sixth,

Issachar the seventh,

and Peullethai the eighth

(for God blessed him).

⁶ Also to his son Shemaiah sons were born who ruled their fathers' houses, for they were men of great ability. ⁷ The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, whose brothers were able men: namely Elihu and Semakiah. ⁸ All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom with their sons and their brothers, able men qualified for service, sixty-two of Obed-Edom.

⁹ Meshelemiah had sons and brothers, able men, eighteen in all.

¹⁰ Also Hosah, of the sons of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father made him the first), ¹¹ Hilkiyah the second, Tabaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brothers of Hosah, thirteen.

¹² These divisions of the gatekeepers, for their chief men, had assignments to minister in the house of the LORD just as their brothers. ¹³ They cast lots, small and great alike, according to their fathers' houses, gate by gate.

¹⁷ On the east there were six Levites each day, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, as well as two and two at the storehouse. ¹⁸ For the colonnade on the west, there were four at the highway, and two at the colonnade.

¹⁹ These were the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of Korah and of the sons of Merari.

The Treasurers and Other Officials

²⁰ And of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the dedicated offerings.

²¹ The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites, belonging to Ladan, the heads of the fathers' houses belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Jehieli. ²² The sons of Jehieli, Zetham, and Joel his brother, were in charge of the treasures of the house of the LORD.

²³ From the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzielites:

²⁴ Shubael the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler of the treasures. ²⁵ His brothers by Eliezer were Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiyah his son, Joram his son, Zikri his son, and Shelomith his son. ²⁶ This Shelomith and his brothers were in charge of all the treasures of the dedicated offerings, which David the king, the heads of the fathers, the officers of the thousands and the hundreds, and the commanders of the army had dedicated. ²⁷ Some of the spoils won in battles they dedicated for the maintenance of the house of the LORD. ²⁸ Also all that Samuel the seer and Saul the son of Kish and Abner the son of Ner and Joab the son of Zeruah had dedicated—all dedicated gifts were in the care of Shelomith and his brothers.

²⁹ From the Izharites, Kenaniah and his sons were assigned the outside duties for Israel, as officers and judges.

³⁰ From the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his brothers, one thousand seven hundred able men, were administrators of Israel on the west side of the Jordan for all the work of the LORD and for the service of the king. ³¹ Jeriah was chief of the Hebronites according to the genealogical records of his fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of David, mighty men of valor were found in the records among the Hebronites at Jazer of Gilead, ³² and his brothers, able men, two thousand seven hundred heads of the fathers, to them King David entrusted all matters of God and of the king concerning the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

The Military Divisions

27 Now these are the sons of Israel according to their number, the heads of fathers' houses, the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and their officers who ministered to the king in all matters concerning the divisions, which came and went, month by month throughout all the months of the year, to each division of twenty-four thousand:

² Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel led the first division for the first month; in his division, twenty-four thousand.

³ He was from the sons of Perez and was the leader of all the officers of the army for the first month.

⁴ Dodai the Ahohite and his division led the division of the second month with Mikloth as the ruler: in his division, twenty-four thousand.

⁵ The third commander of the army for the third month was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, a chief priest: in his division, twenty-four thousand. ⁶ Benaiah himself was the mighty man of the thirty who led the thirty: Ammizabad his son led his division.

⁷ The fourth for the fourth month, Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: in his division, twenty-four thousand.

⁸ The fifth for the fifth month, the leader Shamhuth the Izrahite: in his division, twenty-four thousand.

⁹ The sixth for the sixth month, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: in his division, twenty-four thousand.

¹⁰ The seventh for the seventh month, Helez the Pelonite, from the sons of Ephraim: in his division, twenty-four thousand.

¹¹ The eighth for the eighth month, Sibbekai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites: in his division, twenty-four thousand.

¹² The ninth for the ninth month, Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites: in his division, twenty-four thousand.

¹³ The tenth for the tenth month, Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zerahites: in his division, twenty-four thousand.

¹⁴ The eleventh for the eleventh month, Benaiah the Pirathonite, from the sons of Ephraim: in his division, twenty-four thousand.

¹⁵ The twelfth for the twelfth month, Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: in his division, twenty-four thousand.

Leaders of the Tribes

¹⁶ Over the tribes of Israel:

The chief officer over the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zikri;

over the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maakah;

¹⁷ over the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; over the Aaronites, Zadok;

¹⁸ over Judah, Elihu, one of the brothers of David; over Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;

¹⁹ over Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; over Naphtali, Jerimoth the son of Azriel;

²⁰ over the sons of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah; over the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah;

²¹ over the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; over Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;

²² over Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham.

These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel.

²³ But David did not take the number from twenty years old and under because the LORD had said He would multiply Israel as the stars of the heavens.

²⁴ Joab the son of Zeruiah began to count them, but he did not finish. And because of this wrath came on Israel, and the number was not recorded in the account of the chronicles of King David.

Civic Officials

²⁵ Azmaveth the son of Adiel was over the king's treasures, and Jonathan the son of Uzziah was over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers.

²⁶ Ezri the son of Kelub was over those who did the work of the field to till the ground.

²⁷ Shimei the Ramathite was over the vineyards, and Zabdi the Shiphmite was over what was in the vineyards for the stores of wine.

²⁸ Baal-Hanan the Gederite was over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the Shephelah, and Joash was over the stores of oil.

²⁹ Shitrai the Sharonite was over the herds that fed in Sharon, and Shaphat the son of Adlai was over the herds that were in the valleys.

³⁰ Obil the Ishmaelite was over the camels, and Jehdeiah the Meronothite was over the donkeys.

³¹ Jaziz the Hagrite was over the flocks.

All these were the overseers of King David's property.

³² Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of understanding, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hakmoni was with the king's sons.

³³ Now Ahithophel was the king's counselor, and Hushai the Arkite was the king's friend. ³⁴ Jehoiada the son of Benaiah and Abiathar came after Ahithophel, and Joab was the leader of the king's army.

David's Plans for the Temple

28 Now David assembled all the leaders of Israel in Jerusalem: the leaders of the tribes, the officers of the divisions of those ministering to the king, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, the stewards over all the property and livestock of the king and his sons with the eunuchs and the fighting men and all the brave warriors.

² So King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brothers and my people. I had it in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, a footstool for the feet of our God, so I prepared to build it. ³ But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for My name because you are a man of war and have spilled much blood.'

⁴ "Still, the LORD God of Israel chose me from all my father's house to be king over Israel forever; for He chose Judah as leader, and in the house of Judah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, He took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel. ⁵ Of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons), He has chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. ⁶ For

He said to me, 'Solomon your son is the one who shall build My house and My courts, for I have chosen him to be My son, and I will be his Father. ⁷ I will establish his kingdom forever if he is fully committed to keep My commandments and My judgments as it is this day.'

⁸ "Now therefore in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land and leave it for an inheritance for your children after you forever. ⁹ As for you, Solomon my son, know the God of your fathers and serve Him with a whole heart and with a willing spirit, for the LORD searches every heart and understands the intent of every thought. If you seek Him, He will be found by you, but if you forsake Him, He will abandon you forever. ¹⁰ See now that the LORD chose you to build the house for His sanctuary. Be strong and do it."

¹¹ Then David gave to Solomon his son the building plans for the vestibule of the temple, its house, its treasury, its roof chambers, its inner rooms, and the place of the mercy seat; ¹² and the plans, all of which were given to him by the Spirit, for the courts of the house of the LORD and for the surrounding rooms, the storehouses of the house of God, and the storehouses of the dedicated offerings; ¹³ for the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD and for all the implements of the service of the house of the LORD; ¹⁴ the weight of gold for all the golden implements of service, the implements of silver by weight for all implements of service, ¹⁵ and the weight of the golden lampstands and their lamps, the weight of gold for each lampstand and its lamps, the weight of silver for a lampstand and its lamps according to the use of each lampstand; ¹⁶ the weight of gold for the tables of the showbread, table by table, and silver for the tables of silver; ¹⁷ and the pure gold forks, the basins, and the pitchers; for the golden bowls with the weight for each bowl; the weight of silver for each silver dish; ¹⁸ and for the altar of incense, refined gold by weight; also his plan for the golden chariot of the cherubim that spread their wings and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

¹⁹ "All this," said DANvid, "the LORD made me understand in writing by His hand upon me, all the works of this pattern."

²⁰ Then David said to Solomon his son, "Be strong and courageous, and take action. Do not be afraid nor be dismayed for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not leave you nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work of the service of the house of the LORD. ²¹ Now, here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the house of God, and all those who are willing and skillful for all the work will be with you for all the service; also the leaders and the people will be wholly at your command."

Temple Offerings

²⁹ King David said to all the assembly, "Solomon my son, the one whom God has chosen, is young and inexperienced, and the work is great since the palace is not for a man but for the LORD God. ² So with all my might I have prepared for the house of my God: gold for the things of gold, silver for the things of silver, bronze for the things of bronze, iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood, along with onyx stones and stones for setting, stones of antimony, multicolored stones, and every precious stone, even alabaster in abundance. ³ Moreover, in my devotion to the house of my God I have offered from my own property, gold and silver, which I give for the house of my God, over and above that which I prepared for the holy dwelling place: ⁴ three thousand talents [†] of gold of the gold of Ophir and seven thousand talents ^{††} of refined silver for overlaying the walls of the house; ⁵ of gold for the things of gold and of silver for the things of silver, even for all the handiwork of the craftsmen. Now, who is willing to consecrate himself today to the LORD?"

⁶ Then the leaders of the fathers' houses, the leaders of the tribes of Israel, the captains of thousands and hundreds, and the officials of the king's workers offered willingly. ⁷ Also they donated to the service of the house of God five thousand talents [‡] of gold and ten thousand darics ^{‡‡} of gold, ten thousand talents ^{‡‡‡} of silver, eighteen thousand talents ^{‡‡‡‡} of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents ^{‡‡‡‡‡} of iron. ⁸ Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of the LORD in the custody of Jehiel the Gershonite. ⁹ Then the people rejoiced because they had offered willingly, for with a whole heart they had offered freely to the LORD; and King David also rejoiced greatly.

A Prayer of David

¹⁰ So David blessed the LORD in the presence of all the assembly, and David said,

"Blessed are You, O LORD,
the God of Israel,
our Father forever and ever.

¹¹ Yours, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty, for everything in the heavens and the earth is Yours

Yours is the kingdom, O LORD, and You exalt Yourself as head above all.

¹² Riches and honor flow from You, and You rule over all.

In Your hand are power and might,

† About 110 tons, or 100 metric tons. †† About 260 tons, or 235 metric tons. ‡ About 190 tons, or 170 metric tons. ‡‡ About 185 pounds, or 84 kilograms. ‡‡‡ About 380 tons, or 340 metric tons. ‡‡‡‡ About 675 tons, or 610 metric tons. ‡‡‡‡‡ About 3,800 tons, or 3,400 metric tons.

and in Your hand it is to make great and to strengthen all.

¹³ So now, our God, we give thanks to You, and praise Your glorious name.

¹⁴ "But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to offer so freely as this? For everything comes from You, even from Your own hand we have given to You. ¹⁵ For we are strangers and sojourners before You, just as all our fathers were. Our days on earth are like a shadow, and there is no hope. ¹⁶ O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have prepared to build You a house for Your holy name has come from Your hand, and all belongs to You. ¹⁷ I know, my God, that You test the heart, and with uprightness You are pleased, so in the uprightness of my heart I have offered freely all these things, and now I have seen Your people, those present here, offer freely and joyously to You. ¹⁸ O LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the thoughts and intentions of the heart of Your people and direct their heart to You. ¹⁹ Grant to Solomon my son a whole heart to keep Your commandments, Your testimonies, and Your statutes, to do all these things and to build the palace for which I have made preparation."

²⁰ Then David said to all the assembly, "Bless now the LORD your God." So all the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers. They bowed down and paid homage to the LORD and the king.

Solomon, King of Israel

1Ki 1:28-53

²¹ On the following day, they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered burnt offerings to the LORD: one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, and one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. ²² So they ate and drank before the LORD on that day with great joy.

And they made Solomon the son of David king a second time, for they anointed him to the LORD as a ruler and Zadok as a priest. ²³ Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and he prospered, and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴ All the leaders and the mighty men, and also the sons of King David, pledged their allegiance to King Solomon.

²⁵ The LORD highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had never been on any king in Israel before him.

The Death of David

1Ki 2:10-12

²⁶ Now David son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. ²⁷ His tenure as king over Israel was forty years: In Hebron, he reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem he was king thirty-three years. ²⁸ So he died at a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor. And Solomon his son reigned in his place.

²⁹ Now the acts of David the king, first to last, are written in the book of Samuel the seer, and in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gad the seer ³⁰ with all his reign and his might and the times that overtook him, and Israel, and all the kingdoms of the lands.

2 CHRONICLES

The second book of Chronicles is a continuation of the historical narrative of First Chronicles and was likely written between 450 and 425 BC, sometime after the return from Babylon. Authorship is attributed to Ezra according to Jewish tradition. Its theme is Judah's greatness and the emphasis of the Davidic lineage and temple worship. Several reformations and extended revivals are documented, including those under the reigns of King Hezekiah and King Josiah. The building and dedication of the temple is also told in detail. This book is essentially an evaluation of the nation's religious history.

Solomon Seeks Wisdom

1Ki 3:4-15; 10:26-29; 2Ch 9:25-28

1 Now Solomon the son of David strengthened himself over his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him and made Solomon exceedingly great.

2 And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to all the leaders in all Israel, the heads of fathers' houses. 3 Then they all went, Solomon and all the assembly that was with him, to the high place that was at Gibeon, because the tent of meeting with God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness, was there. 4 However, David had brought up the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim to the place he had prepared, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem. 5 And the bronze altar that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was set before the tabernacle of the LORD. And Solomon and the assembly sought it out to seek the LORD. 6 And Solomon went up to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was before the tent of meeting, and he offered up a thousand burnt offerings on it.

7 That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask what I might give to you."

8 Then Solomon said to God, "You have given a great mercy to David my father and have made me king in his place. 9 Now, LORD God, may Your word to David my father be confirmed, for You have made me king over a people numerous as the dust of the earth. 10 Now give wisdom and knowledge to me so that I might know how to go before this people, for who can judge this great people of Yours?"

11 Then God responded to Solomon, "Because this was in your heart and you did not ask for possessions, wealth, and honor, or even the life of those who hate you, nor have you asked for many days of life, but you have asked Me for wisdom and knowledge that you might govern My people over whom I have made you king, 12 wisdom and knowledge are now given to you. Possessions, wealth, and honor I will also give to you; such has not been given to kings before you nor those who will follow after you."

13 So Solomon came from the high place at Gibeon, before the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem, and he reigned over Israel.

14 Solomon gathered together chariots and horses. He had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, and he put them in designated cities and with the king in Jerusalem. 15 The king made silver and gold in Jerusalem as abundant as stones and cedar as plentiful as sycamore trees in the lowlands of the Shephelah. 16 The horses of Solomon were imported from Egypt and Kue, and the traders of the king would take them from Kue for a price. 17 They imported chariots from Egypt for six hundred shekels [†] of silver and a horse for one hundred and fifty pieces. ^{††} And they imported from these places to all the kings of the Hittites and Arameans.

Plans for Building the Temple

1Ki 5:1-16

2 Now Solomon wanted to build a temple for the name of the LORD and a royal house for his kingdom. 2 And Solomon designated seventy thousand men to carry materials, eighty thousand men to cut stone in the hills, and three thousand six hundred supervisors to oversee these men.

3 And Solomon sent word to Hiram [‡] king of Tyre saying, "As you did for David my father and sent him cedar trees in order to build for himself a house in which to dwell, so deal with me. 4 I am going to build a temple for the name of the LORD my God, sanctified for Him, for making sacrifices before Him, and for incense of fragrant spices, and for the continual showbread, for burnt offerings on both morning and evening, and for Sabbaths, New Moons, and appointed feasts of the LORD our God, as an ordinance forever for Israel. 5 "And the house that I am building will be great because our God is greater than all other gods. 6 But who is able to build a house for Him, since the heavens and the highest heavens cannot contain Him?"

[†] About 15 pounds, or 6.9 kilograms. ^{††} About 33/4 pounds, or 1.7 kilograms. [‡] Hiram in the Heb. text.

Who am I that I build a house for Him, except to make offerings before Him?

⁷“Now may you send to me a wise man who works with gold, silver, bronze, iron, and in purple, crimson, and violet threads and knows how to engrave, who will be with the skilled workers and me in Judah and Jerusalem, which David my father established.

⁸“And may you send me trees of cedar, cypress, and alnum from Lebanon because I realize that your slaves know how to cut timber in Lebanon; and my servants will be alongside your servants, ⁹to prepare an abundance of timber for me, because the temple that I will build will be great and marvelous. ¹⁰I will provide for the woodsmen, your servants who cut timber, twenty thousand dry kors [†] of crushed wheat, twenty thousand kors ^{††} of barley, twenty thousand liquid baths [‡] of wine, and twenty thousand liquid baths of oil.”

¹¹Then Hiram king of Tyre responded in a letter that he sent to Solomon, “Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them.”

¹²And Hiram said, “Blessed be the LORD God of Israel who made heaven and earth and has given King David a wise son, having insight and understanding, who is building a temple for the LORD and a royal house for his kingship.

¹⁵“Now the wheat, the barley, the oil, and the wine that my lord has declared, may he send these items to his slaves. ¹⁶And let us cut the timber from Lebanon, whatever you need, and we will bring it to you on rafts on the sea to Joppa, and you will bring it up to Jerusalem.”

¹⁷Then Solomon numbered all the male foreigners who were in the land of Israel, after the census that David his father had taken. And there were found one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred. ¹⁸And he made seventy thousand of them to carry materials, eighty thousand to cut stone in the hills, and three thousand six hundred supervisors to make the people work.

Solomon Builds the Temple

1Ki 6:1-29

3 So Solomon began to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where He appeared to David his father, at the place that David [†] Likely about 3,600 tons, or 3,200 metric tons of wheat. ^{††} Likely about 3,000 tons, or 2,700 metric tons of barley. [‡] About 120,000 gallons, or 440,000 liters.

established on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ²He began to build in the second month ^{‡†} on the second day during the fourth year of his reign. ^{‡‡}

³These are the foundation measurements that Solomon used for building the house of God. The cubit ^{‡‡‡} length in the former standard measure was sixty cubits and the width twenty cubits. ^{‡‡‡‡} The porch vestibule that was in front of the nave hall had its length, like the width of the house, as twenty cubits, [§] and its height was one hundred and twenty cubits; ^{§†} and he overlaid the inside with pure gold.

⁸Then he made the dwelling of the Most Holy Place. Its length was as the width of twenty cubits, and its width also twenty cubits; and he covered it with fine gold, six hundred talents ^{§††} worth. ⁹And the weight in gold for the nails was fifty shekels. ^{§‡} And he covered the upper chamber in gold.

¹⁰Then in the dwelling of the Most Holy Place, he made two cherubim that were cast metal and overlaid them with gold. ¹¹And the wings of the cherubim were the length of twenty cubits. The wing of one cherub was five cubits, reaching the wall of the house, and the wing of the other was five cubits, ^{§††} reaching to the wing of the other cherub. ¹²And the wing of this cherub was five cubits, reaching to the other wall of the house, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the first cherub. ¹³So the wings of these cherubim spread out were twenty cubits; they were upright on their feet facing inward toward the house.

¹⁴Then he made the curtain of violet, purple, crimson, and blue thread, and he wove cherubim into it.

¹⁵And he made two pillars in front of the house thirty-five cubits ^{§†} high, with a five cubit capital on the top of the pillar. ¹⁶Then he made ornamental chain work, like in the Most Holy Place, and set it on the top of the pillars. Then he designed a hundred pomegranates and set them on the chain work. ¹⁷He then raised the pillars in front of the temple, with one on the right to the south and the other on the left to the north, and the pillar to the south he called Jakin, and the pillar to the north he called Boaz.

^{‡†} Ziv or Iyyar in the Hebrew calendar. ^{‡‡} April or May in 966 BC. ^{‡‡†} The Egyptian cubit had a royal measure of 20.6 inches (52.3cm) and a commercial measure of 17.6 inches (44.7 cm). The cubit standards in Egypt and Mesopotamia were slightly different. ^{‡‡‡} About 90 feet long and 30 feet wide, or 27 meters long and 9 meters wide. [§] About 30 feet, or 9 meters; and in vv. 8, 11, and 13. ^{§†} About 180 feet, or 54 meters. ^{§††} About 23 tons, or 21 metric tons. ^{§‡} About 11/4 pounds, or 575 grams. ^{§††} About 71/2 feet, or 2.3 meters; and in v. 15. ^{§†} About 53 feet, or 16 meters.

The Furnishings of the Temple

1Ki 7:23-51

4 Then he made a bronze altar that was twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide, and ten cubits [†] high. ² And he made a cast metal sea as a water basin. It was round and ten cubits from edge to edge, five cubits high, ^{††} and a line of thirty cubits [‡] measured its circumference. ³ Figures like oxen were underneath it, going all the way around the sea basin, ten cubits ^{†††} on each side. ^{##} There were two rows of oxen that were poured as cast metal.

⁴ It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. The sea was set on them, and their back sides were facing inward. ⁵ The thickness of the sea was a palm, ^{##†} and its brim was like the brim of a cup, as the flower of a lily. It held three thousand baths securely. ^{##††}

⁷ And he made ten lampstands of gold according to the specifications, and he set them in the temple, five on the southern, right side and five on the northern, left side.

⁸ Then he made ten tables and put them in the temple, five on the southern, right side and five on the northern, left side; and he made a hundred basins of gold.

⁹ Then he made the court of the priests and the great enclosure and the doors for the enclosure, and he overlaid the doors with bronze. ¹⁰ And he set the sea basin at the southeast side, opposite the southern side of the house.

¹¹ And Hiram made the pots, shovels, and bowls.

So Hiram completed the work that he did for King Solomon on the house of God: ¹² the two pillars, the bowls, and the two capitals on the top of the pillars; and the two latticeworks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; ¹³ and the four hundred pomegranates for the two pieces of grating, with two rows of pomegranates for each screen grate that covered the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars. ¹⁴ And he made the supporting stands and the basins on top of the stands, ¹⁵ and the sea basin and the twelve oxen underneath it; ¹⁶ the pots, shovels, utensils, and all the vessels from polished bronze, Hiram-Abi made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD.

¹⁷ The king cast these vessels in the district of the Jordan in earthen foundries between Sukkoth and Zere-

[†] About 30 feet long and wide and 15 feet high, or 9 meters long and wide and 4.5 meters high. ^{††} About 7 1/2 feet, or 2.3 meters. [‡] About 45 feet, or 14 meters. ^{†††} About 18 inches, or 45 centimeters. ^{##} Or a ten oxen for a cubit. ^{##†} About 3 inches, or 7.5 centimeters. ^{##††} About 18,000 gallons, or 66,000 liters.

datha. ^{§18} And Solomon made all of these items in a great abundance such that they did not consider the weight of the bronze.

¹⁹ So Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of God: the gold altar and the tables displaying the showbread, ²⁰ and the finely hammered lampstands with their lamps to burn before the Most Holy Place as prescribed; ²¹ the golden flower-shaped ornaments, lamps, and tongs, of purest gold; ²² the snuffers, basins, ladles, and fire pans, of pure gold. As for the entrance to the temple: the inner doors to the Most Holy Place and the doors of the nave of the temple were of gold.

5 Thus all the work that Solomon did for the house of the LORD was finished. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated: the silver and the gold and all the furnishings in the treasury of the house of God.

The Ark Brought to the Temple

1Ki 8:1-21

² Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel and all the heads of the tribes and the leaders of the houses of the fathers among the sons of Israel to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the City of David, which is Zion. ³ And all the men of Israel were assembled before the king at the feast, which is the seventh month. ^{§†}

⁴ All the elders of Israel came, and the Levites carried the ark. ⁵ Then they brought up the ark, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent. So the Levitical priests brought them up. ⁶ And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled with him before the ark, were sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be counted or numbered.

⁷ The priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place—to the inner sanctuary of the temple, into the Most Holy Place, under the wings of the cherubim. ⁸ Then the cherubim wings were spread out over the place of the ark so that the cherubim covered the ark and its poles. ⁹ The poles were extended so that the ends of the poles of the ark were seen in front of the Most Holy Place, but they were not seen outside; and they are still there to this day. ¹⁰ In the ark there was nothing except the two tablets that Moses had given at Mount Horeb where the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel when they went out from Egypt.

¹¹ When the priests came out from the Most Holy Place—for all the priests who were present had consecrated themselves, without keeping separate divisions— ¹² and all the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, with their sons and relatives, all clothed in fine linen, with cymbals, harps, and lyres, stood to the east of the altar, and with them one hundred and twenty priests who were sounding with trumpets, ¹³ it happened, when the trumpet players and singers made one sound to praise and give thanks to the LORD, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and all the instruments of music and praised the LORD saying,

[§] in 1Ki 7:46. ^{§†} Tishri or Ethanim in the Hebrew calendar.

“For He is good and His mercy endures forever;”

that the house, the house of the LORD, was filled with a cloud. ¹⁴ And the priests were not able to stand in order to serve because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

6 Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that He would dwell in the dark cloud. ² But I have built for You an exalted house, even a habitation where You can continually dwell.”

Solomon’s Speech

³ Then the king turned his face around, and he blessed the entire assembly of Israel while all the assembly of Israel was standing before him. ⁴ And he said:

“Blessed be the LORD God of Israel who spoke with David my father and fulfilled His promise saying, ⁵ ‘Since the day that I brought out My people from the land of Egypt, I did not choose any city from among the tribes of Israel to build a house for My name to dwell there, nor did I select a man to be the leader over My people Israel; ⁶ but I have chosen Jerusalem for My name to dwell there, and I have selected David to be over My people Israel.’

⁷ “And it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. ⁸ But the LORD said to David my father, ‘Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for My name, you did well because of what was in your heart; ⁹ only you will not be the one to build the house. For your son, who will be born to you, he will build a house for My name.’ ¹⁰ “The LORD has fulfilled the word that He spoke. For I have risen up in the place of David my father and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD spoke, and I will build the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel. ¹¹ And there I have set the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that He made with the children of Israel.”

Solomon’s Prayer of Dedication

1Ki 8:22-53; Ps 132:8-10

¹² Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD before all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands. ¹³ For Solomon made a bronze platform and set it in the midst of the enclosure. It was five cubits in length, five cubits in width, and three cubits in height. † And he stood on it and knelt down before all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands to heaven. ¹⁴ And he said:

† About 71/2 feet long and wide, and 41/2 feet high; or 2.3 meters long and wide, and 1.4 meters high.

“O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like You in the heavens or on the earth, who keeps covenants and mercy with Your servants who walk before You with all their heart. ¹⁵ You have kept what You promised Your servant David my father. You have both spoken with Your mouth and fulfilled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

¹⁶ “And now, O LORD God of Israel, keep what You promised Your servant David my father saying, ‘You will not lack a man sitting on the throne of Israel before Me, if only your sons take heed to their way to walk in My law as you have walked before Me.’ ¹⁷ And now, O LORD God of Israel, may Your word be confirmed which You have spoken to Your servant David. ¹⁸ “For will God indeed dwell with man on the earth? The heavens, even the highest heavens, are not able to contain You, much less this house that I have built. ¹⁹ But respond to the prayer of Your servant and to his plea, O LORD my God, to listen to the cry and prayer of Your servant who prays before You, ²⁰ that Your eyes might be open toward this house both day and night, to the place that You have said that You will set Your name, in order to hear the prayer of Your servant for this place. ²¹ And listen to the pleas of Your servant and Your people Israel when they pray toward this place. And may You respond from heaven, the place of Your dwelling, so that You hear and forgive.

²² “If a man sins against his companion, and the companion swears and puts him under a curse, and the wronged man comes with an oath before Your altar at this temple, ²³ then You will hear from heaven, and You will act and judge Your servants, to repay the guilty one by bringing his way on his own head; and to vindicate the innocent one by rendering to him according to his righteous behavior.

²⁴ “If Your people Israel are struck before enemies because they have sinned against You, and they return and confess Your name and pray and seek Your favor in this house, ²⁵ then You will hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and You will bring them back to the land that You gave them and their fathers.

²⁶ “When the sky is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, and they pray toward this place and confess Your name and turn from their sin when You afflict them, ²⁷ then You will hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and Your people Israel because You will teach them the good path in which they will walk, and You will send rain on the land that You have given to Your people as a possession.

²⁸ “When there is famine in the land or when there is pestilence, blight, mildew, winged locust, or grasshopper, or when enemies besiege them in the land up to their city gates, in whatever plague or sickness,

²⁹ whatever prayer or plea that is made by any man or by all your people Israel, when each man knows his own affliction and his own sorrow, and stretches out his hands toward this house, ³⁰ then You will hear from heaven, the place of the habitation of Your dwelling, and forgive, and You will render to each according to his conduct, for You know their hearts (for You alone know the heart of people), ³¹ so that they may fear You and walk in Your ways all the days that they live on the land that You have given to our fathers.

³² “When foreigners are not from Your people Israel and come from a distant land, because of Your great name, mighty hand, and outstretched arm, and they come and pray toward this house, ³³ then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, and act on everything for which the foreigner calls on You, that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as do Your people Israel; and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by Your name.

³⁴ “When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, in the way that You send them, and when they pray to You toward this city that You have chosen and the house that I have built for Your name, ³⁵ then hear from heaven their prayer and plea and act for their cause.

³⁶ “When they sin against You (for there is no one who does not sin) and You are angry against them and give them to their enemies, and they are taken captive to a land, whether distant or near, ³⁷ and they turn their hearts in the land that they have been taken captive, and they repent and seek Your favor in the land of captivity saying, ‘We have sinned, done wrong, and acted wickedly,’ ³⁸ and if they turn in repentance to You with all their heart and all their soul in the land of their captivity that they were taken to, and pray toward the land that You have given to their fathers, and toward the city that You have chosen, and toward the house that I have built for Your name, ³⁹ then hear from heaven, from Your dwelling place, their prayer and supplication, and maintain their cause, and forgive the people who have sinned against You.

⁴⁰ “Now, O my God, may Your eyes be open and Your ears attentive to the prayer that I offer in this place.

⁴¹ “Now rise up, O LORD God, to Your resting place, both You and the ark of Your strength. And let Your priests, O LORD God, be clothed in salvation and Your loyal ones rejoice in goodness.

⁴² O LORD God, do not turn Your face from Your anointed.

Remember the mercies of Your servant David.”

Solomon Dedicates the Temple

1Ki 8:62-66

7 And when Solomon finished praying, fire came down from the heavens and consumed the burnt offering and sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple. ² And the priests were not able to enter into the house of the LORD, for the glory of the LORD filled the LORD’s house. ³ And all the sons of Israel saw when the fire came down and the glory of the LORD came on the temple, and they bowed their faces low to the ground on the pavement, and they worshipped confessing,

“The LORD is good,

and His mercy endures forever.”

⁴ Then the king and all the people were making sacrifices before the LORD. ⁵ King Solomon sacrificed twenty-two thousand oxen and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. ⁶ The priests stood at their positions, with the Levites and all their instruments of music for the LORD that King David had made to praise the LORD—for His mercy endures forever—when David gave praise by their ministry, and the priests sounded trumpets opposite the Levites, and all Israel stood.

⁸ And at the appointed time, Solomon made a feast for seven days, and all Israel—as a very great assembly—was with him, from the entrance of Lebo Hamath in the north to the Brook of Egypt in the south. ⁹ Then on the eighth day they made a solemn assembly because they had made a consecration of the altar for seven days and then the feast for seven days more. ¹⁰ Then on the twenty-third day of the seventh month Solomon sent the people away to their homes. They were joyful and good of heart because of what the LORD had done for David, Solomon, and His people Israel.

¹¹ Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king’s house. And Solomon successfully accomplished everything that came into his heart to do in the house of the LORD and in his own house.

The LORD Appears to Solomon

¹² Then the LORD appeared to Solomon at night, and He said to Solomon, “I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen for Myself in this place a house of sacrifice.

¹³ “When I shut up the heaven and there is no rain, or when I command the locusts to devour the land, or send pestilence on My people, ¹⁴ if My people, who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. ¹⁵ Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to the prayer of this place. ¹⁶ So now I have chosen and consecrated this house that My name be there continually. My eyes and heart will be there for all days.

¹⁷“And you, if you walk before Me as David your father did to do everything that I command you to do, and you keep My statutes and judgments, ¹⁸then I will set the throne of your kingdom as I made a covenant with David your father saying, ‘You will not lack a man to rule Israel.’

¹⁹“But if the people turn aside and abandon My statutes and commandments that I have given to you, and you walk after and serve other gods and worship them, ²⁰then I will uproot them from My land that I have given to them; and the house that I have consecrated for My name, I will throw it from before Me and set it as a proverb and taunt among the peoples.

²¹And even though this house was majestic, it will lie desolate before all who pass by it, and they will say, ‘Why did the LORD do such a thing to this land and this house?’ ²²Then they will say, ‘Because they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers who brought them up from the land of Egypt, and they took hold of other gods and worshipped and served them; therefore He has brought on them all this disaster.’”

Solomon's Other Activities

1Ki 9:10–28

8 It came that after twenty years, Solomon built the house of the LORD and his royal house, ²and Solomon even rebuilt the cities that Hiram had given to him, and he settled the sons of Israel in them. ³Then Solomon went to Hamath Zobah and seized it. ⁴He also built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the store cities that he built in Hamath. ⁵He also built the Upper and Lower Beth Horon, fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars, ⁶and Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots, the cities for his cavalry, and whatever Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

⁷And all the people who remained from the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites who were not from Israel, ⁸and from their descendants who remained from these peoples in the land and whom the sons of Israel did not finish destroying, Solomon brought them up to be forced labor, even to this day. ⁹But from the sons of Israel Solomon did not make servants for his work. These were his soldiers, officers, commanders of his chariots, and horsemen. ¹⁰And these were the two hundred and fifty chief officers for King Solomon who governed the people.

¹¹And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh from the City of David to the house that he built for her, for he said, “My wife will not live in the house of David king of Israel, for the places where the ark of the LORD have been are holy.”

¹²At that time Solomon offered up burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD that he built before the vestibule, ¹³according to the daily duty to offer up as the commandment of Moses for Sabbaths, New Moons, and the three annual festivals: the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Tabernacles. ¹⁴According to the ruling of David his father, he set the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their function to praise and serve before the priests according to the daily duty, and even the gatekeepers for their divisions at each gate, for this was the commandment of David the man of God. ¹⁵And they did not turn from the commandment of the king, whether the priests or Levites, concerning any matter and concerning the treasury.

¹⁶So all the work of Solomon was established from the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD and until its completion; and the house of the LORD was complete.

¹⁷Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath at the shore of the sea in Edom. ¹⁸And Hiram sent him ships by the hand of his servants, who knew the sea. And they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took from there four hundred and fifty talents [†] of gold, and brought them to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits

1Ki 10:1–13

9 The queen of Sheba heard a report of Solomon, and she came to Jerusalem with a very impressive retinue—with camels carrying spices, an abundance of gold, and precious stones—to test Solomon with riddles. When she came to Solomon she shared with him everything that was on her heart. ²Solomon declared to her everything that she asked, and there was not any matter concealed from Solomon that he did not declare to her. ³When the queen of Sheba had observed the wisdom of Solomon, the house that he had built, ⁴the food on his table, the seating of his officials, and the attendance of his servants, and their clothing, his valets, and their clothing, and his burnt offerings that he offered at the house of the LORD, there was no more spirit left in her.

⁵Then she said to the king, “True was the report that I heard in my land concerning your words and wisdom. ⁶But I did not believe their reports until I came and my eyes saw; and indeed, half the greatness of your wisdom was not declared to me. You have exceeded the report that I heard. ⁷How happy your men must be! How happy these servants, those who are continually before you listening to your wisdom. ⁸May the LORD your God be blessed, who has delighted in you, to set you as king on the throne of the LORD your God. Your God has loved Israel to establish them continually and has set you as king over them to perform justice and righteousness.”

⁹Then she gave the king one hundred and twenty talents ^{††} of gold and a great abundance of spices and precious stones. And there were no spices like those that the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

[†] About 17 tons, or 15 metric tons. ^{††} About 4 1/2 tons or 4 metric tons.

¹⁰ Moreover, the servants of Hiram and Solomon who brought gold from Ophir also brought al gum wood and precious stones. ¹¹ And the king used the al gum wood for steps for the house of the LORD and the palace of the king, even for lyres and harps for the singers. And there had not been anything seen like these in the land of Judah.

¹² And King Solomon gave everything to the queen of Sheba in which she had pleasure, even what she asked for in addition to what she brought to the king. Then she turned and left for her own land with her servants.

The Splendor of Solomon

1Ki 10:14–29; 2Ch 1:14–17

¹³ The weight of gold that came to Solomon every year was six hundred and sixty-six talents [†] of gold.

¹⁴ In addition to what the explorers and merchants brought in, all the kings of Arabia and governors of the land brought in gold and silver to Solomon.

²⁵ Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots and twelve thousand horses, and he put them in designated cities and with him in Jerusalem. ²⁶ He ruled over all the kings from the River 1 to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt. ²⁷ So the king made silver in Jerusalem as abundant as stones and cedar as plentiful as sycamore trees in the lowlands of the Shephelah. ²⁸ The horses of Solomon were imported from Egypt and from all other lands.

[†] About 25 tons, or 23 metric tons. ^{††} About 15 pounds, or 6.9 kilograms. [‡] About 71/2 pounds, or 3.5 kilograms.

The Death of Solomon

1Ki 11:41–43

²⁹ And the rest of the acts of Solomon, from beginning to end, are they not written in the annals of Nathan the prophet, and the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? ³⁰ So Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years. ³¹ And Solomon slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David his father. And Rehoboam his son then ruled in his place.

Israel Rebels Against Rehoboam

1Ki 12:1–24

10 Rehoboam went to Shechem because all Israel journeyed to Shechem to make him king. ² It happened that Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard this—he was in Egypt, where he fled from King Solomon—so he returned from Egypt. ³ So they sent for him and called him. And Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam saying, ⁴ “Your father made our yoke heavy. Now therefore, lighten your father’s labor and heavy yoke that he put on us, and we will serve you.”

⁵ He responded, “Return again to me in three days.” So the people left.

⁶ Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who stood in the presence of Solomon his father when he was alive saying, “How do you counsel that I should give a response to this people?”

⁷ They said to him, “If you are good to this people and please them and speak well to them, then they will be servants to you all your days.”

⁸ But he abandoned the counsel of the elders that they gave to him. And he consulted the young men who grew up and stood before him. ⁹ Rehoboam said to them, “What do you counsel that we give as a response to this people who have spoken to me, ‘Lighten the yoke that your father placed on us?’”

¹⁰ The young men who had grown up with him said, “So you should speak to the people who have spoken to you saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you lighten it from us.’ So you will say to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist! ¹¹ Whereas my father placed a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke. My father chastened you with whips, but I will scourge you with scorpions.’”

¹² So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had ordered saying, “Return to me on the third day.” ¹³ Then the king answered them harshly. King Rehoboam rejected the advice of the elders. ¹⁴ He spoke to them with the advice of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I will increase it. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.”

¹⁵ The king did not listen to the people, for the event occurred because of God, that the LORD might establish His word that He spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶ When all Israel saw that the king would not listen to them, the people answered the king saying, "What portion do we have in David?

We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse.

O Israel, each man to your tent.

Now look after your own house, O David!" Then all Israel departed to their tents. ¹⁷ The sons of Israel dwelled in the cities of Judah, and Rehoboam reigned over them.

¹⁸ Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the forced labor, and the sons of Israel stoned him to death. And King Rehoboam hurried to mount his chariot and to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹ So Israel has rebelled against the house of David until this day.

11 When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he called together from the house of Judah and Benjamin one hundred and eighty thousand † choice men to make war and to battle with Israel in order to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam.

² But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God saying: ³ Speak to Rehoboam, son of Solomon and king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, ⁴ "So says the LORD: You are not to go up and fight against your brothers. Each man must return to his house, for this event is from Me." So they obeyed the word of the LORD and turned back from attacking Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Secures the Kingdom

⁵ So Rehoboam dwelled in Jerusalem and built siege cities in Judah. ⁶ He built Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, ⁷ Beth Zur in the east, Soko, Adullam, ⁸ Gath, Mare-shah in the west, Ziph, ⁹ Adoraim, Lachish in the south, Azekah, ¹⁰ Zorah, Aijalon in the northwest, and central Hebron, all of which were fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin. ¹¹ He strengthened the fortresses and set leaders in them with stockpiles of food, oil, and wine. ¹² And in all the cities he placed shields and spears, and he greatly strengthened these places. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

¹³ And the priests and Levites in all Israel came before him from all their territories. ¹⁴ For the Levites left their pasture lands and properties, and they traveled to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons excluded them from serving as priests to the LORD. ¹⁵ And he set for himself priests for the high places and for the goat and calf idols that he made. ¹⁶ And those who set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel followed after them from all the tribes of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers. ¹⁷ So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

Rehoboam's Family

²² And Rehoboam set Abijah the son of Maakah as chief and head over his brothers for he planned to make him king. ²³ And he was discerning and spread out all his sons to all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, even among the fortified cities, and he provided for them an abundance of provisions and wives.

Egypt Attacks Jerusalem

1Ki 14:21-31

12 Now when the reign of Rehoboam was established and strong, he, and all of Israel with him, abandoned the law of the LORD. ² And in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt went up against Jerusalem for they had acted unfaithfully against the LORD, ³ with one thousand two hundred chariots and sixty thousand horses. The people were without number who came with him from Egypt—Libyans, Sukkiktes, and Ethiopians. ⁴ And he captured the fortified cities that were in Judah, and he came even to Jerusalem.

⁵ Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the rulers of Judah who were assembled in Jerusalem before Shishak, and he said to them, "So the LORD says: You have abandoned Me, so I have abandoned you into the hand of Shishak."

⁶ Then the king and the rulers of Israel humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is righteous."

⁷ So when the LORD observed that they had humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, "They have humbled themselves, so I will not destroy them. I will let some of them escape, and My anger will not pour out against Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. ⁸ For they will be slaves to him so that they experience My labor and the labor of the kingdoms of other lands."

¹² And when he humbled himself, the anger of the LORD turned away from him so that there was not a complete annihilation. Moreover, there were some good things in Judah during this time .

The Death of Rehoboam

¹³ So King Rehoboam was strong and reigned in Jerusalem. For Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put His name there. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonite. ¹⁴ And he acted evil because he did not set his heart to seek out the LORD .

¹⁵ Now, are not the acts of Rehoboam written from beginning to end in the annals of Shemaiah the prophet and Iddo the seer, according to genealogy? And there were battles between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days. ¹⁶ And Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried in the City of David, and Abijah ruled in his place.

Abijah, King of Judah

1Ki 15:1-8

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king of Judah. ² He reigned for three years in Judah, and his mother's name was Micaiah, † the granddaughter of Uriel of Gibeah.

And there was a war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ³ Abijah set the battle in order with an army of valiant men of war, four hundred thousand choice men. Jeroboam also drew up battle lines against him with an army of eight hundred thousand men, mighty men of valor.

⁴ Then Abijah went up to Mount Zemaraim that is in the hills of Ephraim, and he said, "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel! ⁵ Do you all not know that the LORD God of Israel has perpetually given the kingdom of Israel to David, even to him and to his sons with a covenant of salt? ⁶ And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon son of David, stood up and rebelled against his lord Rehoboam . ⁷ Then vain, worthless men gathered together around him and defied Rehoboam son of Solomon. And Rehoboam was young and timid in heart and was not strong before them.

⁸ "And now you think that you can withstand before the kingdom of the LORD by the hand of the sons of David. And you all are a great multitude, and with you are the golden calves that Jeroboam has made for you to be gods. ⁹ Have you all not driven out the priests of the LORD , even the Levites and sons of Aaron, and made for yourselves priests from the peoples of other lands? Whoever comes to be dedicated and has in his hand a young bull or seven rams becomes a priest to what is not a god.

† in 1Ki 15:2.

¹⁰ "But for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not abandoned Him. And our priests serve the LORD and are sons of Aaron, Levites with their service. ¹¹ They sacrifice burnt offerings to the LORD every morning and evening and put out an incense of spices. They also set the showbread in place on the ritual table and set the golden lampstand with its lamps to burn every evening. For we keep the duty of the LORD our God, but you all have abandoned Him. ¹² God is with us as a leader, and His priests with their battle trumpets to call for battle against you all. O sons of Israel, do not fight against the LORD the God of your fathers because you will not find success."

¹⁴ Then Judah turned and saw that the battle was both in front of and behind them. Then they cried out to the LORD , and the priests sounded their trumpets.

¹⁹ And Abijah chased after Jeroboam and captured cities from him: Bethel, Jeshanah, and Ephron with their surrounding villages. ²⁰ And Jeroboam did not again recover his strength in the days of Abijah, and the LORD struck down Jeroboam, and he died.

²¹ So Abijah grew strong and took fourteen wives and had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

²² And the remainder of the acts of Abijah, both his ways and words, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.

14 And Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. Asa his son then reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet for ten years.

Asa, King of Judah

² Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God. ³ He took down the foreign altars and high places, and he shattered the pillars and cut down the images of Asherah. ⁴ Then he urged Judah to seek the LORD the God of their fathers and to keep the law and commandments. ⁵ And he also removed all the high places and incense altars in the cities in Judah. And the kingdom was at rest under Asa. ⁶ He built fortified cities in Judah because the land was quiet; and there was no war in these years, for the LORD gave peace to him.

⁷ And he said to Judah, "Let us build up these cities and let us surround them with walls, towers, gates, and bars for the land before us is still ours because we have sought after the LORD our God. We have sought Him, and He has given us peace all around." So they built and had success.

⁸ And it happened that Asa had an army from Judah carrying large shields and spears numbering three hundred thousand. And from Benjamin he had an army carrying shields and bows numbering two hundred eighty thousand. All of these were mighty men of valor.

⁹ But Zerah the Ethiopian Cushite came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots. And he came up to Mareshah. ¹⁰ Then Asa went out to engage him, and they arranged for battle in the Valley of Zephathah near Mareshah.

¹¹ And Asa cried out the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, it is nothing with You to help, whether with many or with those who have no power. Help us, O LORD our God; for we trust in You, and in Your name we come against this multitude. O LORD, You are our God. Let no man prevail against You."

¹² So the LORD struck down the Ethiopian Cushites before Asa and Judah, and the Cushites fled. ¹³ Then Asa and those with him pursued them until Gerar. And the Cushites fell till there was not one left alive because they were struck down before the LORD and His army. And those in Judah carried off a very great plunder. ¹⁴ And they struck down all the cities surrounding Gerar because the terror of the LORD was on them. And they plundered all the cities because there was a great amount of possessions in them. ¹⁵ And they also struck the tents holding livestock, and they carried off sheep and a great amount of camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

The Reforms of Asa

1Ki 15:13-16

15 Then the Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded, ² and he went out to meet Asa and said to him, "Listen to me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: The LORD is with you while you are with Him. If you all seek Him, He will be found with you. But if you forsake Him, He will forsake you. ³ For a long time Israel has been without the true God, and without a teaching priest and without law, ⁴ but when in their trouble they turned to the LORD God of Israel, and sought Him, He was found by them. ⁵ And at that time there was no peace to the one traveling in or out because there was a great panic on all those who dwelt in the land. ⁶ They were broken to pieces, nation against nation and city against city, because God confused them with every type of distress. ⁷ But you all must be strong and not lose heart, for there is a reward for your deeds."

⁸ And when Asa heard these words of the prophecy of Azariah son of Oded the prophet, he was encouraged and removed the detestable idols from the entire land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities that he captured in the hills of Ephraim. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was before the vestibule of the LORD.

⁹ And he gathered together all of Judah and Benjamin and those who had settled among them from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon, for these had come down to him from Israel in a great number when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

¹⁰ These were gathered in Jerusalem in the third month in the fifteenth year in the reign of Asa. ¹¹ They sacrificed to the LORD that day from the plunder that they brought in, seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep. ¹² And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and soul. ¹³ But whoever would not seek the LORD God of Israel would be put to death, whether young or old, man or woman. ¹⁴ They swore an oath to the LORD in a loud voice, with shouting, trumpets, and horns. ¹⁵ And all Judah rejoiced over this oath because they swore with their whole heart and they sought Him with all their desire; and He was found by them, and the LORD gave them rest all around.

¹⁶ King Asa even removed his mother Maakah from being queen mother because she had made a detestable image for Asherah. Asa cut down her image, crushed it, and burned it in the Kidron Valley. ¹⁷ But they did not remove the high places from Israel. Nevertheless the heart of Asa was wholly committed all his days. ¹⁸ He brought into the house of God the sacred gifts of his father and his own sacred gifts—silver, gold, and utensils.

¹⁹ And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

Asa's Last Years

1Ki 15:17-24

16 But in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and built Ramah and did not allow anyone to come in or go out to Asa king of Judah.

² Then Asa removed silver and gold from the storehouses of the house of the LORD and palace of the king, and he sent it to Ben-Hadad king of Aram in Syria, who lived in Damascus, saying, ³ "There is a covenant between me and you as between my father and your father. I am sending you silver and gold. Go and break your covenant with Baasha king of Israel so that he might leave me."

⁷ And at that time Hanani the seer came to King Asa of Judah saying, "Because you depended on the king of Aram and did not depend on the LORD your God, therefore the army of the king of Aram escaped from your hand. ⁸ Were not the Cushites and Libyans a very large army with chariots and horses, but when you depended on the LORD, He gave them to your hand. ⁹ For the eyes of the LORD move about on all the earth to strengthen the heart that is completely toward Him. You have acted foolishly in this, and from this point forward you will have wars."

¹⁰ Then Asa was angry with the seer and placed him in prison stocks, for he was enraged by these words. Asa even oppressed some of the people during this time.

The Death of Asa

¹¹ The events of Asa from beginning to end are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ¹² In the thirty-ninth year of the reign of Asa, he had a sickness in his feet until his sickness became grave. Even in his disease he did not seek after the LORD, but the physicians. ¹³ So Asa slept with his fathers; he died in the forty-first year of his reign. ¹⁴ And they buried him in the tomb that he cut for himself in the City of David. And they placed him on a place filled with all types of spices mixed with ointments, and then they burned him up with a very great conflagration.

Jehoshaphat, King of Judah

17 Then Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and he grew strong against Israel. ² He put an army in all the fortified cities of Judah and set military garrisons in the land of Judah, even in the cities of Ephraim that Asa his father had captured.

³ Now the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, for he walked in the previous ways of David his father, and he did not seek out the Baal cult. ⁴ For he sought out the God of his fathers and walked in his commandments, rather than the deeds of Israel. ⁵ So the LORD made firm the kingdom in his hand, and all Judah gave a tribute to Jehoshaphat. So he had an abundance of riches and honor. ⁶ His heart was raised up for the ways of the LORD. He even removed the high places and Asherah poles from Judah.

⁷ In the third year of his reign he sent officials, Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Jerusalem, ⁸ and with them were also the Levites: Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah, and Tob-Adonijah, who were Levites. And with these were also Elishama and Jehoram, who were priests. ⁹ They taught the people in Judah, and they used the Book of the Law of the LORD and they traveled about all the cities of Judah and taught the people.

¹⁰ The terror of the LORD came on all the kingdoms of the land that surrounded Judah, and they did not bring war against Jehoshaphat. ¹¹ Some from the Philistine peoples brought gifts to Jehoshaphat such as silver for tribute. The Arabians even brought seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred goats to him.

¹² Jehoshaphat continued to increase in greatness, and he built citadels and storehouses in Judah. ¹³ And he had much property in the cities of Judah, and the men of war, mighty men of valor, were in Jerusalem.

¹⁴ This was their divisions by the houses of their father: From Judah, the commanders of thousands: Adnah the commander with three hundred thousand mighty men of valor.

¹⁵ Beside him was Jehohanan the commander with two hundred eighty thousand mighty men of war.

¹⁶ Beside him was Amasiah the son of Zikri, a volunteer for the LORD with two hundred thousand mighty men of war.

¹⁷ From Benjamin:

Eliada a mighty man of war with two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield.

¹⁸ Beside him was Jehozabad with one hundred and eighty thousand equipped for warfare.

¹⁹ These were serving the king in addition to those the king placed in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

Micaiah Prophecies Against Ahab

1Ki 22:1-28

18 Now Jehoshaphat had great riches and honor, and he married into the family of Ahab. ² At the end of some years he went down to Ahab in Samaria. And Ahab slaughtered a great amount of sheep and oxen for Jehoshaphat and those who journeyed with him and then lured him up to Ramoth Gilead. ³ And King Ahab of Israel said to King Jehoshaphat of Judah, "Will you go up with me to Ramoth Gilead?"

And he responded, "I am as you are, and as your people also my people are. We will be with you in this war." ⁴ And Jehoshaphat further said to the king of Israel, "Inquire today the word of the LORD on this."

⁵ So the king of Israel gathered together four hundred prophets, and he inquired from them, "Should I go up to Ramoth Gilead for battle, or should I cease from this?"

They said, "Go up, for God will give this to the hand of the king."

⁶ But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still here another prophet for the LORD from whom we might inquire?"

⁷ Then the king of Israel responded to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man from whom we can seek the LORD, but I hate him because he does not prophesy anything good for me but always disaster. He is Micaiah the son of Imlah."

And Jehoshaphat said, "May the king not speak like this."

⁸ So the king of Israel called to a court eunuch and said, "Hurry and bring Micaiah the son of Imlah."

¹¹ And all the prophets were prophesying the same, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and find success, because the LORD has given the king into your hands."

¹² And the messenger who went to call Micaiah said to him, "The words of the prophets are as one voice and only for good to the king, so may your word be like one of them, and you speak favorably."

¹³ And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, whatever my God says, that will I speak."

¹⁴ When he came to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, should we go up to Ramoth Gilead for battle, or should I cease?"

He said, "All of you go up and be successful, and they will be given into your hands."

¹⁵ Then the king said to him, "How many times must I cause you to swear that you speak to me only truth in the name of the LORD?"

¹⁶ Then he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like sheep that have no shepherd. The LORD said, 'There are no masters for them. Let each man return to his home in peace.'"

¹⁷ Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not say to you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

¹⁸ So the prophet said, "Now hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne and the heavenly assembly was standing at His right and His left. ¹⁹ And the LORD said, 'Who will deceive Ahab king of Israel so that he might go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?'

"One was saying one thing, and another was saying something else. ²⁰ Then a spirit came out and stood before the LORD, and he said, 'I will deceive him.'

"Then the LORD said to him, 'How?'

²¹ "Then he said, 'I will go out and be a spirit of deception in the mouth of all the prophets.'

"Then the LORD said, 'You will deceive and find success. Go out and do this.'

²² "Now see that the LORD has put a spirit of deception in the mouth of your prophets. So the LORD has declared disaster over you."

²³ Then Zedekiah the son of Kenaanah came near to Micaiah and struck him on the cheek. And he said, "Which way then did the spirit from the LORD pass from me to speak with you?"

²⁴ Then Micaiah said, "You will see it on the day when you enter an inner chamber to hide yourself."

²⁵ And the king of Israel said, "Seize Micaiah and take him to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash the son of the king, ²⁶ and you will say, 'So says the king: Put him in a prison, and feed him a little food and water until I return in peace.'"

²⁷ Then Micaiah said, "If you certainly return in peace, then the LORD has not spoken by me. Listen, all you people!"

The Death of Ahab

1Ki 22:29-36

²⁸ So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. ²⁹ Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into battle, but you will put on your clothes." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they both entered into battle.

³⁰ And the king of Aram ordered the commanders of his chariots, "Do not wage war with the small or great but with the king of Israel alone." ³¹ And it happened when the commanders of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat they said, "It is the king of Israel." So they turned on him to wage war. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, then God drew them away from the king. ³² And it happened when the commanders of the chariots saw that he was not the king of Israel, then they turned away from him.

³³ But a man pulled his bow at random and struck the king of Israel between his armor scales and body armor. He said to the commander of the chariot, "Turn and remove me from the battle because I am wounded." ³⁴ And the battle continued on that day, and the king of Israel was set up in his chariot before the Arameans until evening. Then he died when the sun set.

¹⁹ But Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned to his palace in Jerusalem in peace. ² And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and he said to King Jehoshaphat, "How do you help those who are wicked and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, wrath has gone out against you from the LORD. ³ However, some good things are found in you for you swept away the Asherah poles from the land, and you set your heart to seek after God."

The Reforms of Jehoshaphat

⁴ Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, but he went out among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and he brought them back to the LORD God of their fathers. ⁵ And he set judges in the land among all the fortified cities of Judah, one by one.

⁶ And he said to the judges, "Consider carefully what you do because you do not judge according to man but the LORD, and He is with you in the matter of judgment. ⁷ So now may the fear of the LORD be on you. Consider and act well because there is no injustice, partiality, or bribe taking with the LORD our God."

⁸ Moreover, Jehoshaphat appointed in Jerusalem some from the Levites and the priests and some from the heads of the families of Israel, in order to render judgment and decide disputes before the LORD; and they lived in Jerusalem. ⁹ And he commanded them, "So you will act in the fear of the LORD, in honesty, and with a complete heart. ¹⁰ And any dispute that comes before you all from your brothers who live in their cities, concerning bloodshed or offenses against law or commandment, against statutes or judgments, you will warn them, lest they trespass against the LORD and wrath come upon you and your brothers. Do this, and you will not trespass.

¹¹ "Note that Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters; also, the Levites will be officials before you. Deal courageously, and the LORD will be with the good."

Jehoshaphat Defeats Moab and Ammon

20 After that, the Moabites and the Ammonites, together with some Meunites, [†] came against Jehoshaphat for battle.

² And some came and declared this to Jehoshaphat, "A large multitude is coming against you from across the Dead Sea from Edom; and observe, they are in Hazezon Tamar" (that is, En Gedi). ³ Then Jehoshaphat was fearful and set himself to seek the LORD, and he called for a fast throughout all Judah. ⁴ And Judah was assembled to seek the LORD; even from all the cities of Judah, they came to obtain aid from the LORD.

⁵ And Jehoshaphat stood in the midst of the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem in the house of the LORD before the new courtyard, ⁶ and he said:

"O LORD God of our fathers, are You not God in the heavens? And do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations? In Your hand are strength and might, and there is no one who can oppose You. ⁷ Did You not, our God, drive out those who lived in this land before Your people Israel, and You gave it perpetually to the descendants of Abraham, who was in covenant love with You. ⁸ And they have dwelled in it and have built in it for You a sanctuary for Your name saying, ⁹ 'If disaster comes upon us, the sword, or judgment, or pestilence, or famine, then we will stand before this temple and before You because Your name is in this temple. And we will cry out to You in our distress, and You will hear and deliver.'

¹⁰ "Now here are the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir, whom You did not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, when they turned away from them and did not destroy them. ¹¹ See how they are rewarding us by coming to drive us out of Your possession, which You have given us to inherit. ¹² O our God, will You not render judgment on them? For we have not strength enough to stand before this great army that is coming against us. And we do not know what we should do, but our eyes are on You."

¹³ Now all of Judah was standing before the LORD, even their infants, wives, and children.

¹⁴ And in the midst of the assembly the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite from the line of Asaph.

¹⁵ And he said, "Pay attention all Judah, and those dwelling in Jerusalem, and King Jehoshaphat: Thus says the LORD to you, 'Do not fear, nor be dismayed because of this great army, for the battle is not yours, but God's. ¹⁶ Tomorrow, go down against them. They will travel up by the Ascent of Ziz. You will find them at the back of the valley, before the Wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷ It will not be necessary for you to fight in this conflict. Take your positions, stand, and observe the deliverance of the LORD for you, O Judah and Jerusalem.' Do not fear or be filled with terror. Tomorrow, go out before them, and the LORD will be with you."

²⁰ So they rose up early in the morning and went out to the Wilderness of Tekoa. And when they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, Judah and those dwelling in Jerusalem. Believe in the LORD your God, and you will be supported. Believe His prophets, and you will succeed." ²¹ And he consulted with the people and then appointed singers for the LORD and those praising Him in holy attire as they went before those equipped for battle saying,

"Praise the LORD, for His mercy endures forever."

²² When they began singing and praising, the LORD set ambushes against Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; so they were defeated.

²⁵ Then Jehoshaphat and his people came to gather their plunder, and they found among them an abundance of riches with the corpses, and precious jewelry, which they took for themselves, more than they could carry. They were gathering the plunder for three days because there was so much to carry. ²⁶ On the fourth day they gathered at the Valley of Berakah, because there they blessed the LORD. For this reason people have called the name of this place the Valley of Berakah until this day.

²⁷ Then they all returned, every man from Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat as their head, to Jerusalem with joy because the LORD made them rejoice because of the death of their enemies. ²⁸ So they entered Jerusalem with harps, lyres, and trumpets to the house of the LORD.

[†] Heb. a and others with those from the Ammonites.

²⁹ And it happened that the terror of God was on all the kingdoms of the lands who heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰ So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was quiet, because his God gave him rest on all sides.

The End of Jehoshaphat's Reign

1Ki 22:41-50

³¹ And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he began his reign, and he was king in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. The name of his mother was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. ³² He walked in the way of his father Asa, and he did not turn aside from doing what was right in the eyes of the LORD. ³³ Only the high places were not taken down. The people had yet to set their hearts to the God of their fathers.

³⁴ And the remainder of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from beginning to end, are written in the annals of Jehu son of Hanani, which are taken up in the book of the kings of Israel.

³⁵ Also, Jehoshaphat king of Judah was united with Ahaziah king of Israel, who acted wickedly. ³⁶ Jehoshaphat joined with him to make ships to travel to Tarshish, and they made ships in Ezion Geber. ³⁷ And Eliezer son of Dodavahu from Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat saying, "Because you have joined with Ahaziah, the LORD will tear down your works." So the ships were wrecked, so that they were not able to journey to Tarshish.

21 So Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David, and Jehoram his son ruled in his place. ² And he had brothers, sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel, Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah. ³ And their father gave them great gifts of silver, gold, and excellent items, along with fortified cities in Judah, but he gave the kingdom to Jehoram because he was the firstborn.

Jehoram, King of Judah

⁴ Then Jehoram rose up over the kingdom of his father and he became strong. And he killed all his brothers with the sword and even some of the officials in Israel. ⁵ Now Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began as king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ⁶ And he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel as those from the house of Ahab did, for the daughter of Ahab was the wife of Jehoram. And he did evil in the eyes of the LORD. ⁷ But the LORD was not willing to destroy the house of David because of the covenant that He made with David, and because He said that He would give a lamp to David and his sons for all days.

At that time Libnah also revolted from being under their rule, because Jehoram had abandoned the LORD God of his fathers. ¹¹ He even made high places in the hill country of Judah and caused those in Jerusalem to be like prostitutes, and he led Judah astray.

¹² And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus says the LORD God of David your father: Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, or in the ways of Asa king of Judah, ¹³ but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into whoredom, as the house of Ahab led Israel into whoredom, and also have killed your brothers, those of your father's house, who were better than you, ¹⁴ the LORD will bring a great plague on your people, your children, your wives, and all your possessions; ¹⁵ and you will have great sickness with a disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out because of the disease, day by day."

¹⁶ Then the LORD stirred up the spirit of the Philistines against Jehoram and also the Arabians who were near the Cushites. ¹⁷ And they went up against Judah and broke through, and they took every possession found in the palace of the king, even his sons and wives, so that no son was left with him except his youngest Ahaziah.

The Death of Jehoram

¹⁸ And after all this, the LORD struck him in his entrails with an incurable disease. ¹⁹ And it happened after many days, at the end of two years, his entrails came out due to his disease, so he died by a despicable disease. And his people did not make for him a memorial fire like the fire for his fathers.

²⁰ He was thirty-two when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he departed with no one's regret. They buried him in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

Ahaziah, King of Judah

2Ki 8:25-29; 9:21-29

22 Then those in Jerusalem made Ahaziah, the youngest son of Jehoram, king in his place because the raiding party, those coming with the Arabians to the camp, killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram reigned in Jerusalem.

² Now Ahaziah was forty-two years [†] old when he began to reign, but he only reigned one year in Jerusalem. The name of his mother was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri.

³ And he also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab because his mother was the one counseling him to do evil. ⁴ And he also did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD, like the house of Ahab, for they served as his counselors after his father Jehoram died, which led to his destruction. ⁵ Even Ahaziah walked in their counsel and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead. And the Arameans wounded Joram, ⁶ and the king returned to Jezreel to heal from the wounds that he sustained in Ramah where he fought against Hazael king of Aram.

Then Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel because he was wounded.

⁷ And it was from God that a downfall would happen to Ahaziah in regard to his visit with Joram. And when he arrived he went out with Joram to see Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. ⁸ And it happened that when Jehu was acting in judgment with the house of Ahab that he found the rulers of Judah and the sons of the brothers of Ahaziah, who were serving Ahaziah, and Jehu killed them. ⁹ He sought out Ahaziah, and they captured him while he hid in Samaria, and they brought him to Jehu, and they put him to death. And they buried him because they said, "He is the grandson of Jehoshaphat who sought the LORD with all his heart." And there was no one from the house of Ahaziah strong enough to retain the kingdom.

Athaliah Seizes the Throne

2Ki 11:1-21

¹⁰ So when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose up and mounted a campaign to destroy all the royal offspring of the house of Judah. ¹¹ But Jehoshabeath, † the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him away from the king's sons who were going to be put to death, and she placed him and his nurse in a bed chamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram and wife of Jehoiada the priest (since she was a sister of Ahaziah), hid Joash from Athaliah. And she did not put the royal child to death. ¹² And he was hidden away with them in the house of God for six years. And Athaliah ruled over the land.

Joash, King of Judah

23 Then in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself and made a covenant with the commanders over hundreds: Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zikri. ² And they went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah and even the heads of the fathers' houses in Israel. Then they all came to Jerusalem.

³ So the whole assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God, and Jehoiada said to them, "The king's son will reign, as the LORD has said of the sons of David. ⁴ And this is the thing that you all will do: A third of you all from the priests and Levites who come on the Sabbath will be gatekeepers, ⁵ one-third will be at the palace of the king and another third at the Foundation Gate. And all the people will be in the courts of the house of the LORD. ⁶ And may no one enter the house of the LORD except the priests and those Levites who are serving. Those can enter because they are holy, but all the people will keep their assigned duty of the LORD. ⁷ Then the Levites will surround the king, each man with his weapon in his hand, and whoever enters the house will be put to death. They will be with the king when he enters and leaves."

⁸ The Levites and all Judah did everything that Jehoiada the priest commanded. Each brought his men, who were to come on duty on the Sabbath, with those who were to go off duty on the Sabbath, because Jehoiada the priest did not dismiss the divisions. ⁹ Then Jehoiada the priest gave to the commanders of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had been King David's, which were in the house of God. ¹⁰ Then he set all the people around the king, each man with his weapon in hand, from the south side to the north side of the temple, from the altar to the temple.

¹¹ Then they brought out the son of the king and set on him the crown and the testimony and they proclaimed him as king. So Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and said, "Long live the king!"

The Death of Athaliah

¹² And when Athaliah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king, she went toward the people in the temple of the LORD. ¹³ And she saw the king standing by the pillar at the entrance with the officials and trumpeters next to the king, and all of the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and singers with their instruments with songs were offering up praise. Then Athaliah tore her garments and yelled, "Treachery! Treachery!"

¹⁴ Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the commanders over hundreds, those entrusted over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks, and let whoever follows her be killed with the sword." For the priest said, "Do not put her to death in the house of the LORD." ¹⁵ So they seized her, and she went to the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king's palace, and they put her to death there.

¹⁶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, the people, and the king that they would be a people dedicated to the LORD. ¹⁷ Then all the people went to the temple of Baal, and they tore it down along with its altars, and they shattered its images. And Mattan the priest of Baal, they killed before the altars.

²⁰ Then he took the commanders over hundreds, the nobles, those in authority over the people, and all the people of the land, and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD. And they went through the Upper Gate of the palace of the king, and they brought the king to sit on the royal throne. ²¹ And all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city had peace when they put Athaliah to death with the sword.

Joash Repairs the Temple

2Ki 12:1-21

24 Now Joash [†] was seven years old when he started his reign, and he was king in Jerusalem for forty years. The name of his mother was Zibiah of Beersheba. ² Joash did what was correct in the eyes of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest. ³ And Jehoiada gave Joash two wives, and he had sons and daughters.

⁴ And it happened after this that it was in the heart of Joash to restore the house of the LORD. ⁵ So he assembled the priests and Levites to speak with them, "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to fortify the house of your God, what is necessary each year. Now hurry with this matter." But the Levites delayed.

⁶ So the king called Jehoiada, who was head over this, and said to him, "Why have you not required from the Levites that they bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax levied by Moses, the servant of the LORD, for the congregation of Israel for the tent of the testimony?"

⁷ For the sons of Athaliah, the wicked woman, had broken into the house of God and even used all the holy items of the house of the LORD for Baal worship.

⁸ Then the king spoke, and they made a chest, and put it outside the gate of the house of the LORD.

⁹ And they gave a report in Judah and Jerusalem to bring in to the LORD a tax levied by Moses the servant of God on Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰ So all the officials and people rejoiced, and they brought in the money and cast it into the chest until it was full. ¹¹ And it happened that at the time the Levites brought the chest to the guards of the king that there was a large amount of money. So the king's scribe and head priest's commissioner would bring it and empty the chest and then take it and return it to its place. They continued to do this every day and collected a great amount of money. ¹² So the king and Jehoiada gave it to those doing a work of labor on the house of the LORD. And they hired masons and craftsmen to repair the house of the LORD, and even metal workers in iron and bronze to fortify the house of the LORD.

¹³ So the workmen worked, and the work was completed by them. They restored the house of God to its specifications and strengthened it. ¹⁴ When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, who made vessels for the house of the LORD, vessels for serving and for making burnt offerings, spoons and vessels of gold and silver. They continually offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁵ Then Jehoiada became old and full of days and died. He was one hundred and thirty years old when he died. ¹⁶ So they buried him in the City of David with the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God and His house.

The Wickedness of Joash

¹⁷ After the death of Jehoiada the officials of Judah came and paid homage to the king. At that time the king listened to them. ¹⁸ Then they abandoned the house of the LORD and God of their fathers, and they served the Asherah poles and idols. And divine wrath was on Judah and Jerusalem because of this guilt.

¹⁹ And God sent prophets to return them to the LORD. These warned the people, but they would not listen.

²⁰ Then the Spirit of God clothed Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, and he stood above the people saying, "Thus says God: Why are you transgressing the commandments of the LORD so that you all will not be successful? Because you all have abandoned the LORD, He has abandoned you."

²¹ But they plotted against him, and at the command of the king they all stoned him in the court of the house of the LORD. ²² And Joash the king did not remember the kindness that Jehoiada the father of Zechariah had shown him, but killed his son. As he was dying, he said, "May the LORD see and avenge!"

The Death of Joash

²³ And it happened that at the turn of the year the army of Aram came up against Joash. They came to Judah and Jerusalem and destroyed all the officials of the people, and they sent all their plunder to the king of Damascus. ²⁴ Though the Aramean army came with a few men, the LORD delivered into their hand a very great Judean army because they abandoned the LORD God of their fathers. So they enacted judgment on Joash. ²⁵ When they left him (for they abandoned him with severe wounds) his own servants plotted against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest. So they killed him on his bed. So he died, and they buried him in the City of David, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

²⁶ And those who conspired against him were Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonite and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabite. ²⁷ Accounts of his sons and of the many oracles against him and of the rebuilding of the house of God are written in the annals of the kings. And Amaziah his son ruled in his place.

Amaziah, King of Judah

2Ki 14:1-20

25 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he was king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem. The name of his mother was Jehoaddan from Jerusalem. ² He did what was correct in the eyes of the LORD, only not with a complete heart. ³ And it happened that when the kingdom was firmly his that he killed his servants, those who struck down his father King Joash. ⁴ But he did not put to death their children because, as it is written in the Law in the Book of Moses, as the LORD commanded, "You will not put to death the fathers for their children's actions nor the children will you put to death for their fathers' actions, for every man will be put to death for his own sin."

Slaughter of the Edomites

⁵ Then Amaziah assembled Judah and set over them according to the house of the fathers commanders of thousands and hundreds in all Judah and Benjamin, and he appointed men who were twenty years old and above. And they found three hundred thousand choice men fit for war and able to use a long spear and large shield. ⁶ And he hired out from Israel one hundred thousand mighty men of war for one hundred talents † of silver.

⁷ Then a man of God came to him saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel come with you because the LORD is not with Israel or with any of the sons of Ephraim. ⁸ But if you go, do it. Be strong for the battle. Yet God shall make you fall before the enemy, for God has power to help and to bring down."

⁹ Then Amaziah said to the man of God, "So what should I do about the one hundred talents of silver that I gave to the military party from Israel?"

And the man of God responded, "The LORD has more to give to you than this."

¹⁰ So Amaziah dismissed the military party that came to him from Ephraim to return to their place. And they were very angry with Judah and returned to their place in a great rage.

¹¹ But Amaziah strengthened himself and led his people, and he journeyed to the Valley of Salt and struck down ten thousand of the people of Seir. ¹² And the people of Judah took captive another ten thousand alive and brought them to the top of a cliff and threw them from the top of the rock so that they were all dashed to pieces.

¹⁴ And it happened after Amaziah came back from striking down the Edomites, he brought back the gods of the people from Seir and set them up as gods for himself. He worshipped them and gave them sacrifices. ¹⁵ So the LORD was greatly angry with Amaziah, and He sent a prophet to the king. And he said, "Why do you seek from the gods of the people who were not even able to deliver the people from your hand?"

¹⁶ But while the prophet was speaking, the king said, "Have we made you a counselor to the king? Stop! Why should you be struck down?"

The prophet refrained, but he said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you because you have done this and not heeded my advice."

Israel Defeats Judah

¹⁷ Then Amaziah king of Judah received advice and sent for Jehoash †† the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us meet together."

¹⁸ So Jehoash king of Israel sent a message for Amaziah king of Judah saying, "A thistle in Lebanon sent for a cedar in Lebanon stating, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' Then an animal of the field in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle. ¹⁹ You say that you have struck down Edom, and your heart lifts you up in arrogance. Now remain in your palace. Why do you provoke disaster so that you fall, you and Judah with you?"

²⁰ But Amaziah would not listen because this was from God so that He might give them into the hand of Jehoash because Amaziah had sought after the gods of Edom. ²¹ So Jehoash king of Israel went up, and they faced each other, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth Shemesh, which is in Judah. ²² And Judah was struck down by Israel, and each man fled to his home. ²³ So at Beth Shemesh, Jehoash king of Israel seized Amaziah king of Judah the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah. And they brought him to Jerusalem and broke through the walls of the city from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate, a section of four hundred cubits. ‡²⁴ And Jehoash took all the gold and silver and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, even the treasures of the palace of the king and hostages. Then he returned to Samaria.

The Death of Amaziah

²⁵ And Amaziah, the son of Joash king of Judah, lived fifteen years more after the death of Jehoash, the son

†† Heb. text has a Joash, but Jehoash of Jehoahaz king of Israel. ²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, from first to last, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? ²⁷ From the time when Amaziah turned aside from the LORD, they plotted a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. Then they sent for him and put him to death in Lachish. ²⁸ They brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of David in Judah.

Uzziah, King of Judah

2Ki 14:21–22; 15:1–7

26 And all the people of Judah took Uzziah [†] and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah when he was sixteen years old. ² He built Eloth and restored it to Judah after Amaziah the king slept with his fathers.

³ Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he was king in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. The name of his mother was Jekoliah from Jerusalem. ⁴ And he did what was correct in the eyes of the LORD as everything his father Amaziah had done. ⁵ And he sought after God in the days of Zechariah, the one who instructed him in the fear of the LORD. And in the days that he sought after the LORD, God caused him to succeed.

⁶ He went out to make war with the Philistines, and he broke through the walls at Gath and Jabneh and Ashdod. Then he built cities in Ashdod and among the Philistines. ⁷ And God brought him aid against the Philistines and Arabians, those living in Gur Baal, and the Meunites. ⁸ And the Ammonites gave a gift to Uzziah, and his name spread even to the border of Egypt because he became quite powerful.

¹¹ And Uzziah had an army prepared for battle, those who went out for war as companies in the number of their divisions by the appointment of Jeiel the scribe, and Maaseiah the officer, and Hananiah a commander of the king. ¹² The total number of chief officers of the mighty men of valor was two thousand six hundred. ¹³ And under their hand was a mighty army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred who were able to go to battle as a strong army and to help the king against his enemies. ¹⁴ And Uzziah prepared for the entire army shields, long spears, helmets, scale armor, bows, and slings for stones. ¹⁵ In Jerusalem he made war machines by skilled men to be placed on towers and corners to shoot arrows and large stones.

[†] Also known as Azariah in 2Ki 15.

And his name went out for a great distance. He received great help until he was even more powerful.

Uzziah's Punishment for Pride

¹⁶ And as he grew strong, his heart grew more proud, leading to his destruction. Then he acted unfaithfully against the LORD his God, for he entered the temple main hall of the LORD to burn incense on the altar.

¹⁷ But Azariah the priest entered in after him, and with him were eighty priests of the LORD—men of valor.

¹⁸ And they stood against King Uzziah and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD for it is for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Leave from the sanctuary because you have been unfaithful, and there will be no honor for you from the LORD God."

¹⁹ Then Uzziah was enraged, and in his hand was a censer for incense. And when he became angry with the priests, leprosy appeared on his forehead in front of the priests in the house of the LORD, near the altar of incense. ²⁰ Then Azariah the head priest and all the priests turned to him, and he had leprosy on his forehead; and they hastened to remove him from there, and he also hurried to leave because the LORD had struck him.

²¹ So King Uzziah had leprosy until the day of his death. He dwelt in a separate house with his unclean disease because he was cut off from the house of the LORD. Then Jotham his son was over the house of the king, and he governed the people of the land.

²² Now the remainder of the acts of Uzziah, from beginning to end, Isaiah the prophet, son of Amoz, has written them. ²³ So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the burial field belonging to the kings because they said, "He is a leper." And Jotham his son ruled in his place.

Jotham, King of Judah

2Ki 15:33–38

27 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began as king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. The name of his mother was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. ² And he did what was correct in the eyes of the LORD just as his father Uzziah had done. However, he did not enter the temple of the LORD. But the people continued acting corruptly. ³ And he built the Upper Gate of the house of the LORD, and he built much on the wall of Ophel. ⁴ And he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and on the wooded heights he built citadels and towers.

⁵ He made war with the king of the Ammonites and prevailed against them. That year the Ammonites gave to him one hundred talents ^{††} of silver, ten thousand kors [‡] of wheat, and ten thousand kors ^{‡†} of barley. The

^{††} About 33¼ tons, or 3.4 metric tons. [‡] Likely about 1,800 tons, or 1,600 metric tons of wheat. ^{‡†} Likely about 1,500 tons, or 1,350 metric tons of barley.

Ammonites paid him the same amount in the second and third years as well.

⁶ So Jotham was strengthened because he established his ways before the LORD his God.

⁷ And the remainder of the acts of Jotham, all his wars and ways, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸ He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he was king for sixteen years in Jerusalem. ⁹ And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. And Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

Ahaz, King of Judah

2Ki 16:1-20

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he was king in Jerusalem for sixteen years. And he did not do what was correct in the eyes of the LORD as David his father. ² And he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and he cast images for Baal worship. ³ And he made sacrifices in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, and he burned his sons in the fire according to the detestable acts of the nations that the LORD had displaced before the sons of Israel. ⁴ He even made sacrifices and offered incense on the high places of the hills and under every green tree.

Judah Defeated

⁵ So the LORD his God gave him into the hand of the king of Aram. They struck Ahaz and took captive many prisoners and brought them to Damascus.

He was even given into the hand of the king of Israel, and he attacked Ahaz with a great slaughter.

⁶ And Pekah the son of Remaliah killed one hundred and twenty thousand in Judah in one day, and they were all strong men, but they abandoned the LORD God of their fathers. ⁷ And Zikri, a mighty warrior from Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the son of the king, and Azrikam the official of the palace, and Elkanah second to the king. ⁸ And the sons of Israel took captive two hundred thousand of their kin, women, sons, and daughters. They also took much plunder and brought the plunder to Samaria.

⁹ And there was a prophet there whose name was Oded, and he went out to the army as it approached Samaria and said to them, "See that the anger of the LORD God of your fathers is against Judah, and He gave them into your hand, and you all have killed them in a rage that has reached even to heaven.

¹⁰ And now you are planning to subdue for yourselves the people of Judah and Jerusalem as male and female slaves. Do you all not surely have among you guilt before the LORD your God? ¹¹ And now listen to me. Return the captives whom you have taken captive from your relatives because the burning wrath of the LORD is on you all."

¹² And some men who were heads of the people of Ephraim rose up before those coming from the war: Azariah the son of Jehohanan, Berekiah the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai. ¹³ And they said, "You will not bring the captives here, for guilt from the LORD will be on us, and you plan to add to our sin and guilt. Our guilt is great, and there is already a burning anger against Israel."

¹⁴ So the soldiers left the captives and spoil before the officials and all the assembly. ¹⁵ Then the men who were designated by name took the captives and clothed those who were naked from the plunder. So they clothed them, gave them sandals, offered them food and drink, anointed them with oil, and led them on donkeys, even all those who stumbled. They brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, which was near their kinsmen. Then the officials returned to Samaria.

¹⁶ At that time King Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria for help. ¹⁷ The Edomites continually came and struck Judah and carried off captives. ¹⁸ Even the Philistines made raids on the cities of the lowlands of the Shephelah and the Negev of Judah. And they captured Beth Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth, Soko and its villages, Timnah and its villages, and Gimzo and its villages; and they settled there. ¹⁹ For the LORD humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Judah, for he allowed depravity to spread in Judah and continually transgressed against the LORD. ²⁰ So Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came against him, but he brought him distress and not strength. ²¹ For Ahaz took a portion from the house of the LORD and palace of the king and the officials, and he gave it to the king of Assyria, but the king did not help Ahaz.

The Death of Ahaz

²² And at the time that he was oppressed he increased in unfaithfulness against the LORD. ²³ So he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus that had devastated him, for he said, "Because the gods of the kings of Aram have helped them, I will sacrifice to them so that they might help me." But they were his downfall in Judah and the downfall for all of Israel.

²⁴ And Ahaz gathered the vessels from the house of God, and he cut up the vessels. Then he shut the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made altars in every corner of Jerusalem. ²⁵ Then in every city in Judah he made high places to make offerings to other gods. So he provoked the LORD God of his fathers.

²⁶ Now the remainder of the acts and all his ways, from first to last, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷ So Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of Jerusalem because they did not bring him to the tombs of the kings of Israel. Then Hezekiah his son was king in his place.

Hezekiah, King of Judah

2Ki 18:2-3

29 Hezekiah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he was king in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. The name of his mother was Abijah † the daughter of Zechariah. ² And he did what was correct in the eyes of the LORD just as his father David had done.

Hezekiah Cleanses the Temple

³ And in the first year and first month of his reign he opened the doors of the house of the LORD and restored them. ⁴ He then brought in the priests and Levites and gathered them in the square on the eastern side ⁵ and said to them, "Listen to me, Levites. Consecrate yourselves and consecrate the house of the LORD God of your fathers. And bring out the detestable things from the holy sanctuary. ⁶ For our fathers have acted unfaithfully and have done what is evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and they have abandoned Him. They have turned their face from the sanctuary of the LORD and have turned their back. ⁷ They also shut the doors of the vestibule and have extinguished the lamps, nor have they burned incense or burnt offerings in the Holy Place to the God of Israel. ⁸ Therefore the wrath of the LORD has come on Judah and Jerusalem for a terror, horror, and scorn as you all can see with your own eyes. ⁹ Observe, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and now our sons, daughters, and wives are in captivity for all this. ¹⁰ Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD God of Israel so that His burning anger might turn away from us. ¹¹ My people, do not now be negligent for the LORD has chosen you all to stand in His presence, to serve Him, and to be ministers and make sacrifices for Him."

¹² Then the Levites arose:

from the Kohathites,

Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah;
from the Merarites,

Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel;
from the Gershonites,

Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah;

¹³ from the descendants of Elizaphan,
Shimri and Jeiel;

from the descendants of Asaph,
Zechariah and Mattaniah;

¹⁴ from the descendants of Heman,
Jehiel and Shimei;

from the descendants of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

¹⁵ So they gathered their brothers together and consecrated themselves and entered in as the king commanded by the words of the LORD in order to cleanse the house of the LORD. ¹⁶ Then the priests came into the inner part of the house of the LORD to cleanse it, and they removed everything that they found that was unclean in the main hall of the temple of the LORD to the court. And the Levites took those things and brought them out to the Kidron Valley. ¹⁷ They began to consecrate themselves on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they entered the vestibule of the LORD. They consecrated the house of the LORD for eight days. Then on the sixteenth day of the first month they completed the task.

¹⁸ Then they came toward Hezekiah the king and said, "We have cleaned the entire house of the LORD, the altar of burnt offerings and all its utensils, and the table for showbread and all its utensils. ¹⁹ All the vessels that King Ahaz discarded from use during his reign in his treachery we have prepared and consecrated. They are before the altar of the LORD."

Hezekiah Restores Temple Worship

²⁰ So King Hezekiah got up early and gathered the officials of the city and went up to the house of the LORD. ²¹ And he brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the kingdom, sanctuary, and Judah. Then he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them up on the altar of the LORD. ²² So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took their blood and sprinkled it on the altar and then slaughtered the rams and sprinkled their blood on the altar. They did the same for the lambs. ²³ And they brought the male goats for a sin offering before the king and the assembly, and they placed their hands on the goats. ²⁴ And the priests slaughtered them and purified the altar with their blood to provide atoning reconciliation for all Israel because the king said that the burnt offering and sin offering would be for all Israel.

²⁷ Then Hezekiah gave the command to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When they started the burnt offering, the song of the LORD began also, with the trumpets and the instruments of David, king of Israel. ²⁸ The entire assembly worshipped, the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded. All of this took place until the burnt offering was finished.

²⁹ When the burnt offering was finished, the king and all those with him bowed down and worshipped.

³⁰ Then Hezekiah the king and the officials ordered the Levites to praise the LORD with the words of David and Asaph the seer. So they praised with gladness and bowed down to worship.

³¹ Then Hezekiah responded, "Now you have dedicated yourselves to the LORD. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings to the house of the LORD." So the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all who had a willing heart brought burnt offerings.

³² The number of the burnt offerings that the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.³³ The consecrated animals were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.³⁴ However there were too few priests, and they were not able to skin the burnt offerings. But their brothers the Levites helped them until the work was finished and more priests consecrated themselves, for the Levites were more upright in heart to consecrate themselves than the priests.³⁵ Also burnt offerings were in abundance with the fat of the peace offerings and the drink offerings for the burnt offerings.

So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.³⁶ Then Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced that God had prepared the people, since the events happened suddenly.

Hezekiah Celebrates the Passover

30 And Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah. He even wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they come to the house of the LORD in Jerusalem to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel.² The king counseled with his officials and all the assembly in Jerusalem to have the Passover in the second month.³ For they were not able to have it at the appropriate time of the first month because a sufficient amount of priests had not consecrated themselves, nor had the people assembled yet in Jerusalem.⁴ And this matter was pleasing in the eyes of the king and all the assembly.⁵ So they decreed to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba to Dan, that they come to keep the Passover to the LORD God of Israel in Jerusalem, for the multitude of people did not do as it was written.

⁶ So couriers ran throughout all Israel and Judah with a letter from the hand of the king and his officials as a command from the king: "Sons of Israel, return to the LORD of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel that He might turn to the remnant who has escaped from the king of Assyria.⁷ Do not act like your fathers and brothers who were faithless before the LORD God of their fathers, and He appointed them for horror, as you observe.⁸ So now do not harden your necks as your fathers, but give yourselves to the LORD and come to the sanctuary that He has consecrated permanently. Serve the LORD your God so that His burning anger might turn away from you all.⁹ Because if you return to the LORD, your brothers and children will find compassion before those who have taken them captive, in order to return you to this land. For the LORD your God is gracious and compassionate. He will not turn His face from you if you all return to Him."

¹⁰ So the couriers ran from city to city in the land of Ephraim and Manasseh and up to Zebulun, but the people laughed at them and mocked them.¹¹ However some men from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and journeyed to Jerusalem.¹² And even in Judah the hand of God was on them to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and officials by the word of the LORD.

¹³ And many people assembled in Jerusalem to have the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month. There was a very large assembly.¹⁴ They went out and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem, and they took away all the incense altars and threw them into the Kidron Valley.

¹⁵ They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and Levites were ashamed, and they consecrated themselves and brought in burnt offerings to the house of the LORD.¹⁶ They stood at their places according to the Law of Moses, the man of God; the priests sprinkled the blood they received from the hands of the Levites.¹⁷ For there were many in the assembly who had consecrated themselves, so the Levites slaughtered the Passover lamb for those who were not clean in order to consecrate the people to the LORD.¹⁸ For a multitude of the people—many from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun—had not purified themselves. For they ate of the Passover contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed over them saying, "The LORD is good, and may He pardon¹⁹ everyone who sets his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, but is not pure according to the rules of the holy sanctuary."²⁰ So the LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

²³ Then the whole assembly counseled to have the feast for another seven days, so they had seven more days of gladness.²⁴ For Hezekiah king of Judah lifted up for the assembly one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep. And the officials offered up for the assembly one thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep. And a multitude of priests consecrated themselves.²⁵ So all the assembly of Judah and the priests and Levites and all the assembly who came from Israel rejoiced, even the sojourners who came from the land of Israel and those who resided in Judah.²⁶ And there was a great rejoicing in Jerusalem, for since the days of Solomon son of David king of Israel there had not been anything like this.²⁷ Then the priests and Levites went out and blessed the people, and their voices were heard. And their prayers came up to His holy habitation in the heavens.

31 And when this celebration was finished, all of Israel that was present went out to the cities of Judah and smashed the sacred pillars and cut down the Asherah poles and tore down the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, and in Ephraim and Manasseh, until everything was destroyed. Then all Israel returned to their cities, each man to his own possession.

Temple Contributions

2Ki 18:5-7

² And Hezekiah set up the divisions of the priests and Levites according to their divisions, each man as he worked among the priests and Levites for burnt and fellowship offerings, to serve, give thanks, and offer praise at the gates of the camp of the LORD. ³ And the portion of the king that came from his own possessions was for burnt offerings, those given in the morning and evening, and those given for Sabbaths, New Moons, and appointed feasts, as written in the Law of the LORD. ⁴ And he ordered those people living in Jerusalem to give a portion for the priests and Levites, in order for them to devote themselves to the Law of the LORD. ⁵ And when the command spread, the sons of Israel gave generously the first fruits of grain, wine, oil, honey, and all the produce of the field. And they brought in abundance a tenth portion of everything. ⁶ And the sons of Israel and Judah and all who dwelled in the cities of Judah also brought in a tenth portion of cattle and sheep, and a tenth portion of the consecrated items that were to the LORD their God, and brought them in and set them in great piles. ⁷ In the third month they began to assign the piles of contribution, and they finished in the seventh month. ⁸ When Hezekiah and the officials saw the contribution piles, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel.

⁹ Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and Levites regarding the contribution piles. ¹⁰ Azariah the head priest from the house of Zadok said, "Since they began to bring the contributions into the house of the LORD, there has been plenty of food and a large amount left over. For the LORD has blessed His people, and this great abundance is left over."

¹¹ Then Hezekiah ordered them to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD, and they did this. ¹² They reliably brought in the contributions, tenth portions, and consecrated items. The leader over them was Konaniah the Levite, and Shimei his brother was second to him. ¹³ And Jehiel, Azariah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismakiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were supervisors under Konaniah and Shimei his brother by the appointment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the leader of the house of God.

¹⁴ And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite was gatekeeper for the East Gate and over the voluntary offerings to God, to designate the contributions of the LORD and most holy offerings. ¹⁵ Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shekariah reliably assisted him in the cities of the priests to distribute the portions to their brothers by division, both great and small.

¹⁹ Also for the sons of Aaron, the priests, who were in the fields of common land of their cities, there were men in each city who were designated by name to allocate portions to every male among the priests and to everyone who was registered by genealogy among the Levites.

²⁰ Hezekiah did this throughout all Judah, and he did what was good and just and faithful before the LORD his God. ²¹ And in every deed that he undertook in the service of the house of God and with the law and commandment to seek out his God, he did this with all his heart, and he found success.

Sennacherib Threatens Jerusalem

2Ki 18:17-35; 19:35-37; Isa 36:2-20; 37:36-38

32 After these things and these acts of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came to Judah and encamped against the fortified cities thinking that he would break through them for himself. ² When Hezekiah observed that Sennacherib had come and that he turned to war against Jerusalem, ³ he consulted with his officials and military men to stop up the waters of the springs that were outside the city, and they helped in this. ⁴ So, many people assembled and worked to stop up all the springs and the stream flowing through the area. They reasoned, "Why should the king of Assyria come and find a great amount of water?" ⁵ He then worked hard to build up all the walls that were broken down and to raise up towers. Then he built another wall outside that one and strengthened the Millo in the City of David. And he made weapons and shields in abundance.

⁶ And he designated commanders for fighting over the people, and he gathered them to himself at the open square of the gate of the city and spoke encouragingly to them saying, ⁷ "Be strong and brave. Do not fear or have terror before the king of Assyria or before all this army that is with him because there are more who are with us than with him. ⁸ With this king is a strong arm of flesh, but with us is the LORD our God who will help us and fight our battles." So the people leaned on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

⁹ After all this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem—while he was at Lachish with all his military force that was with him—to Hezekiah king of Judah and to all Judah that was in Jerusalem stating,

¹⁰ “Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria: By what do you all trust that you remain in a besieged Jerusalem? ¹¹ Is not Hezekiah leading you all astray to give you over to death by famine and thirst when he tells you, ‘The LORD our God will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria?’ ¹² Has not Hezekiah himself taken down this god’s high places and altars by ordering Judah and Jerusalem, ‘You all will bow down at one altar and on it burn sacrifices?’ ¹³ “Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the gods of the nations of these lands surely able to rescue their lands from my hand? ¹⁴ Who from among all the gods of these nations that my fathers utterly destroyed was able to rescue his people from my hand? For will your god be able to rescue you all from my hand? ¹⁵ Now do not let Hezekiah trick or lead you all astray in this. And do not believe him, for no god from any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand?”

¹⁶ And his servants continued to speak against the LORD God and Hezekiah his servant. ¹⁷ He also wrote letters to insult the LORD God of Israel, speaking against Him, “As the gods of the nations of other lands did not rescue their people from my hand, so the god of Hezekiah will not rescue his people from my hand.” ¹⁸ And they proclaimed it also in a loud voice in the Judean language against the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall to frighten and terrify them in order to capture the city. ¹⁹ They spoke about the God of Jerusalem like the gods of the other peoples of the earth, which are only objects made by men’s hands.

The Death of Sennacherib

²⁰ So Hezekiah the king and Isaiah the prophet son of Amoz prayed concerning this. And they called out to heaven. ²¹ So the LORD sent an angel and destroyed the mighty army, leaders, and officials in the camp of the king of Assyria. So the king returned in shame to his own land. When he entered the temple of his god, some of his sons fell on him there with the sword.

²² So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and gave them rest on every side. ²³ Many brought tribute to the LORD in Jerusalem and choice gifts to Hezekiah king of Judah so that he was lifted up before the eyes of all the nations from then on.

Hezekiah’s Pride

²⁴ In those days Hezekiah became ill even to the point of death, so he prayed to the LORD. He spoke to the king and gave him a sign. ²⁵ But Hezekiah did not make recompense for what was given to him because his heart was proud. So divine anger was on him, Judah, and Jerusalem. ²⁶ Then Hezekiah humbled himself from his arrogant heart, both he and those who lived in Jerusalem, and the anger of the LORD did not come over them in the days of Hezekiah.

²⁷ And Hezekiah had a vast amount of riches and honor, and he made treasures for himself from silver, gold, costly stones, spices, shields, and all types of precious items. ²⁸ He made storehouses for the produce of grain, wine, and oil; and stalls for all types of livestock and flocks. ²⁹ He also built cities for himself and acquired numbers of flocks and herds, for God had given to him a vast amount of possessions.

³⁰ And Hezekiah shut up the upper outlet of the waters of the Gihon and directed them downward to the western side of the City of David. And Hezekiah found success in all his works. ³¹ But the envoys came from the officials of Babylon who were sent to him to inquire about the sign that had been given in the land. God left him alone in order to test Hezekiah, to know what was in his heart.

The Death of Hezekiah

2Ki 20:1–21; Isa 37:21–38; 38:1–8

³² And the remainder of the acts of Hezekiah and his kind acts, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ³³ So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper tombs of the sons of David. And all those from Judah and those living in Jerusalem paid him honor at his death. Then Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh, King of Judah

2Ki 21:1–18

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he was king in Jerusalem for fifty-five years. ² But he did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD previously cast out before the sons of Israel. ³ And he turned again to build the high places that his father Hezekiah had torn down, and he set up altars to the Baals, and made Asherah poles, and worshipped the starry assembly of heaven and served them. ⁴ And he built altars in the house of the LORD where the LORD said, “In Jerusalem My name will be perpetual.” ⁵ And he built altars for the starry assembly of heaven in the two courtyards of the house of the LORD. ⁶ He even made his sons pass through the fire in the Valley of Ben Hinnom; and he had conjurers, and practitioners of divination and sorcery, and necromancers, and mediums. So he did a great amount of evil in the eyes of the LORD, so that God was provoked.

⁷ And he set the carved image of a statue that he made and put in the house of God where God said to David and to Solomon his son, “In this house and in Jerusalem where I have chosen from among all the tribes of Israel, there I have set My name perpetually. ⁸ And I will not again remove the foot of Israel from the ground that I have designated to your fathers, if only they will keep on doing everything that I have commanded them, the whole law, statutes, and judgments from the hand of Moses.”⁹ So Manasseh made Judah and those living in Jerusalem to wander and to perform more evil than the nations that the LORD destroyed from before Israel.

Manasseh's Repentance

¹⁰The LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they did not pay attention. ¹¹So the LORD brought on them the officials of the army of the king of Assyria. They captured Manasseh with hooks, and they bound him in bronze chains and led him to Babylon. ¹²And when he was distressed, he entreated the face of the LORD his God, and he greatly humbled himself before the God of his fathers. ¹³And he prayed to God, and He was moved and responded to his plea and returned him to Jerusalem to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

¹⁴After this he built an outer wall for the City of David, west of Gihon, in the valley and toward the entrance of the Fish Gate, where it went around Ophel, and raised it to a very great height. Then he positioned military commanders in all the fortified cities in Judah.

¹⁵And he removed the foreign gods and statues from the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he built on the hill of the house of the LORD and Jerusalem, and he cast them outside the city. ¹⁶He also restored the altar of the LORD, and he sacrificed fellowship and thanksgiving offerings, and he ordered Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel. ¹⁷However, the people continued to sacrifice at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.

The Death of Manasseh

¹⁸And the remainder of the acts of Manasseh and his prayer to God and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel are written in the annals of the kings of Israel. ¹⁹And his prayer and how God received his entreaty, and all his sin and unfaithfulness, and the sites where he built high places and where he set up the Asherah poles and images before he humbled himself, indeed they are written in the sayings of Hozai. ²⁰So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his palace, and Amon his son reigned in his place.

Amon, King of Judah

2Ki 21:19-24

²¹And Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he was king for two years in Jerusalem. ²²And he did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD as his father Manasseh had done. And Amon sacrificed to and served all the idols that Manasseh his father had made. ²³He did not humble himself before the LORD as his father humbled himself. But he increased his guilt all the more.

²⁴And his servants plotted against him, and they killed him in his palace. ²⁵Then the people of the land struck down all those who conspired against King Amon. The people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

Josiah, King of Judah

2Ki 22:1-7; 23:4-20

34 And Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he was king for thirty-one years in Jerusalem. ²And he did what was correct in the eyes of the LORD, and he walked in the ways of David his father and did not turn either to the right or left.

³And in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still a young boy, he began to seek out the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem from high places, Asherah poles, idols, and carved and cast images. ⁴So they tore down the altars for the Baals, and he cut down the incense altars that were above them and smashed the Asherah poles and carved and cast images. And he crushed them to dust and scattered them before the graves of those who sacrificed to them. ⁵Then he burned the bones of the priests on their altars and so cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶In the cities of Manasseh, Ephraim, and Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, in their ruins all around, ⁷he broke down the altars, beat Asherah poles and the images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

⁸In the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.

⁹When they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the door, had collected from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin, and from the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰And they gave it to those appointed to do the work in the house of the LORD. And those who were doing the work on the house gave it to repair and restore the house. ¹¹And they gave it to the craftsmen and builders to acquire quarried stones and timber for joists and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had ruined.

¹²So the men did the work faithfully. Their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah the Levites, of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, as supervisors. And other Levites, all skillful with musical instruments, ¹³were over those laborers and supervised all those doing the work in every type of service, and other Levites were scribes, officials, and gatekeepers.

The Book of the Law Found

2Ki 22:8-20; 23:1-3

¹⁴ When they brought out the money that had been given to the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD from Moses.

¹⁶ Shaphan brought the book to the king and reported, "Everything that has been designated to your servants, they are doing. ¹⁷ They have given out the money that was in the house of the LORD and have allocated to those who are supervisors and those who are doing the work." ¹⁸ Then Shaphan the scribe also declared to the king, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from it to the king.

¹⁹ And it happened that when the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his garments. ²⁰ Then the king ordered Hilkiah, Ahikam the son of Shaphan, Abdon the son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the attendant of the king: ²¹ "Go and seek the LORD on my behalf and on the behalf of the remnant in Israel and Judah concerning what is written in the book that was found, for the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us is great because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do everything that is written in this book."

²² So Hilkiah and those with the king went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, son of Hasrah, who kept the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter, and they spoke to her about this.

²³ And she said to them, "So says the LORD God of Israel: Speak to the man who sent you all to Me, ²⁴ Thus says the LORD: I am bringing disaster on this place and all who dwell in it, even all the curses that are written in the book that they read before the king of Judah. ²⁵ Because they have abandoned Me and offered sacrifices to other gods in order to provoke Me with everything they have made with their hands, so My rage will be poured out on this place, and it will not be quenched. ²⁶ And the king of Judah who sent you all to seek out the LORD, so you will speak to him: So says the LORD God of Israel: The words that you have heard, ²⁷ because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and those who dwell here, and you have brought yourself low before Me and torn your clothes and wept before Me, I have heard you, declares the LORD. ²⁸ I am bringing you to be with your fathers, and you will be brought to your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the disaster that I am bringing on this place and on those who dwell here."

So they returned this word to the king.

Josiah Restores True Worship

²⁹ Then the king sent for all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰ Then the king went up to the house of the LORD with men from Judah and those living in Jerusalem, even the priests and Levites and all the people from the greatest to the least, and he read within their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

³² Then he appointed all who were in Jerusalem and Benjamin to carry this out, and those living in Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

³³ So Josiah took away all the detestable things from the lands that belonged to the people of Israel and caused all who were found in Israel to serve their LORD God. And all his days they did not turn away from the LORD God of their fathers.

Josiah Celebrates the Passover

2Ki 23:21-23

35 Josiah kept a Passover for the LORD in Jerusalem; they slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month. ² He appointed priests for their duties and encouraged them in their service to the house of the LORD. ³ And he said to the Levites who gave insight to all Israel and were consecrated to the LORD, "Set the holy ark in the house that Solomon, the son of David and king of Israel, built. You should not carry it on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and His people Israel. ⁴ Prepare yourselves according to your fathers' houses by your divisions, as instructed in the writing of David, king of Israel, and the document of Solomon his son.

⁵ "And stand in the Holy Place according to the divisions of the fathers' households of your brothers, the laypeople, and according to the Levites, by division of a father's household. ⁶ Then slaughter the Passover lamb and consecrate yourselves and prepare for your brothers to do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses."

⁷ Josiah contributed to the laypeople, as Passover offerings for all who were present, lambs and young goats from the flock to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls; these were from the king's possession.

⁸ His officials contributed willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the chief officers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred lambs and three hundred bulls. ⁹ Konaniah, his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel, and Hashabiah, Jiel, and Jozabad, officers of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand lambs and five hundred bulls.

¹⁰ When the service was prepared, the priests stood in their places and the Levites in their divisions, according to the king's command. ¹¹ And they slaughtered the Passover offerings, and the priests sprinkled the blood given to them while the Levites skinned animals. ¹² And they set aside the burnt offering to distribute according to each house of the fathers for the people to bring near to the LORD, as written in the Book of Moses. And they did the same with the bulls. ¹³ And they cooked the Passover lamb with fire according to the rule, and they cooked the holy offerings in pots, jars, bowls, and quickly brought them to all the people. ¹⁴ Afterward they prepared the offerings for them and the priests because the priests, the sons of Aaron, offered the burnt offering and fat portions until night. So the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.

¹⁶ So all the service of the LORD was carried out that day to have the Passover, and to offer the burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD according to the command of King Josiah. ¹⁷ And the sons of Israel who were present had the Passover at that time and the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days. ¹⁸ And no Passover had been made like this in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet. And none of the kings of Israel had performed a Passover like Josiah had done. And the priests and Levites and all Judah and Israel were present along with those living in Jerusalem. ¹⁹ In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah this Passover was performed.

The Death of Josiah

2Ki 23:28-30

²⁰ After all this when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt went up to war in Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to meet him. ²¹ And Necho sent messengers to him saying, "What is there between you and me, king of Judah? I am not against you this day, but against the house with which I am at war. And God has commanded that I hurry. Refrain from being against God who is with me so that He does not destroy you."

²² But Josiah did not turn away from him for he went to battle against him disguised. He did not listen to the words of Necho that came from the mouth of God, but he came to battle in the plain of Megiddo.

²³ So the archers shot King Josiah, and the king said to his servants, "Take me away for I am severely wounded." ²⁴ Then his servants took him from the chariot, and they set him in a second chariot, and they brought him to Jerusalem. He died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.

²⁵ And Jeremiah composed a dirge for Josiah, and all the male and female singers speak of Josiah in their laments to this day. They set them as a statute over Israel. They are written in the Laments.

²⁶ And the remainder of the acts of Josiah, his deeds and covenant faithfulness, according to what is written in the Law of the LORD, ²⁷ and his acts from beginning to end are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Jehoahaz, King of Judah

2Ki 23:31-34

36 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah and made him king in the place of his father in Jerusalem.

² And Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. ³ Then the king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and imposed on the land a tribute of a hundred talents [†] of silver and a talent ^{††} of gold. ⁴ The king of Egypt made his brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Necho took his brother Jehoahaz and carried him to Egypt.

Jehoiakim, King of Judah

⁵ Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. He did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD his God. ⁶ And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against him and bound him in bronze chains to lead him to Babylon. ⁷ Nebuchadnezzar also brought out some of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon and put them in his temple in Babylon.

⁸ And the remainder of the acts of Jehoiakim, the detestable things that he did and were found against him, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Then Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

Jehoiachin, King of Judah

2Ki 24:8-17

⁹ Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he was king in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. ¹⁰ In the spring of that year King Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and brought him to Babylon with the precious items from the house of the LORD. Then Zedekiah his brother was king over Judah and Jerusalem.

[†] About 33/4 tons, or 3.4 metric tons. ^{††} About 75 pounds, or 34 kilograms.

Zedekiah, King of Judah

2Ki 24:18–20; Jer 52:1–3

¹¹ Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. ¹² He did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD his God and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke from the LORD. ¹³ He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by an oath by God. He stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD God of Israel. ¹⁴ Even the officials over the priests and the people increased in their unfaithfulness in all the detestable practices of the nations, and they defiled the house of the LORD which He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

The Fall of Jerusalem

2Ki 25:1–21; Jer 52:4–27; Eze 1:1–3

¹⁵ The LORD God of their fathers sent warnings to them over and over again by His messengers because He had compassion on His people and His dwelling place. ¹⁶ But they continued to jest regarding the messengers of God, despising His word and making fun of His prophets until the wrath of the LORD came up against His people, until there was no remedy. ¹⁷ So He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans from Babylon, who killed their young men with the sword at the house of their sanctuary. He did not spare a young man or virgin, old or aged. God gave all of them into his hand. ¹⁸ Even all the vessels of the house of God, both large and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, the king, and his officials, all of this was taken to Babylon. ¹⁹ So they burned down the house of God, tore down the wall of Jerusalem, burned down all the palaces with fire, and destroyed all the precious items.

²⁰ Then he carried into exile to Babylon the remnant, who survived the sword, and they were slaves to him and his sons until the kingdom of Persia ruled, ²¹ to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths. As long as she lay desolate, she kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years.

The Proclamation of Cyrus

²² In the first year of King Cyrus of Persia, that the word of the LORD spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia, so that he sent a proclamation throughout all his kingdom and also declared in a written edict:

²³ "Thus says King Cyrus of Persia:

"The LORD God of heaven has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has commanded me to build for Him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever is among you of all His people, may the LORD his God be with him. Let him go up."

EZRA

The book of Ezra was likely written between 460 and 440 BC. The author was Ezra, and its theme is the return of the remnant from captivity to their homeland of Israel. The time period covers approximately one century and features a genealogical record of the returning Israelites. The book opens with the decree of Cyrus permitting the Jews to return to Jerusalem to rebuild the temple. They are led back by Zerubbabel and a priest named Jeshua. Later chapters take place several decades later when Ezra is commissioned by King Artaxerxes I to check on the Jews in Jerusalem and to set up a government structure. Ezra goes to Jerusalem with a new group of Jews leaving exile, and while there he forces an end to all marriages to foreign, non-Jewish women.

The Proclamation of Cyrus

2Ch 36:22-23

1 Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he issued a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and also put it in writing, saying,

²“Thus says Cyrus king of Persia:

“The LORD God of heaven has given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and He has charged me to build Him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³Whoever there is among you of all His people, may his God be with him, and may he go to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel. He is the God who is in Jerusalem. ⁴Whoever remains in any place where he sojourns, let the men of his place help him with silver, gold, goods, and animals, along with voluntary gifts for the house of God in Jerusalem.”

⁵Then the heads of the households of Judah and Benjamin, and the Levitical priests, with all those whose spirits God had stirred, rose up to go up to build the house of the LORD in Jerusalem. ⁶So every one all around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, gold, goods, animals, and precious things, besides all that was given voluntarily. ⁷Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought from Jerusalem and had put in the house of his gods. ⁸Cyrus king of Persia even brought forth more for them, by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer and had them numbered for Sheshbazzar, who was the prince of Judah.

⁹This is the number of them: thirty containers of gold, one thousand containers of silver, and twenty-nine knives. ¹⁰There were also thirty smaller bowls of gold, four hundred and ten smaller bowls of silver (of lesser value), and one thousand other various containers.

¹¹All the articles of gold and silver were five thousand four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up, when the exiles were brought from Babylon to Jerusalem.

The List of Returning Exiles

Ne 7:6-73

2 Now these are the people of the province who went up from the captivity of the exiles, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and came again to Jerusalem and Judah. Each returned to his own city. ²Those who came with Zerubbabel were Joshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, and Baanah.

The number of men of the people of Israel were:

³The sons of Parosh—two thousand one hundred and seventy-two;

⁴the sons of Shephatiah—three hundred and seventy-two;

⁵the sons of Arah—seven hundred and seventy-five;

⁶the sons of Pahath-Moab of the sons of Jeshua and Joab—two thousand eight hundred and twelve;

⁷the sons of Elam—one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

⁸the sons of Zattu—nine hundred and forty-five;

⁹the sons of Zakkai—seven hundred and sixty;

¹⁰the sons of Bani—six hundred and forty-two;

¹¹the sons of Bebai—six hundred and twenty-three;

¹²the sons of Azgad—one thousand two hundred and twenty-two;

¹³the sons of Adonikam—six hundred and sixty-six;

¹⁴the sons of Bigvai—two thousand and fifty-six;

¹⁵the sons of Adin—four hundred and fifty-four;

¹⁶the sons of Ater of Hezekiah—ninety-eight;

¹⁷the sons of Bezai—three hundred and twenty-three;

¹⁸the sons of Jorah—one hundred and twelve;

¹⁹ the sons of Hashum—two hundred and twenty-three;
²⁰ the sons of Gibbar—ninety-five.
²¹ The sons of Bethlehem—one hundred and twenty-three;
²² the men of Netophah—fifty-six;
²³ the men of Anathoth—one hundred and twenty-eight;
²⁴ the sons of Azmaveth—forty-two;
²⁵ the sons of Kiriath Arim, Kephirah, and Beeroth—seven hundred and forty-three;
²⁶ the sons of Ramah and Geba—six hundred and twenty-one;
²⁷ the men of Mikmash—one hundred and twenty-two;
²⁸ the men of Bethel and Ai—two hundred and twenty-three;
²⁹ the sons of Nebo—fifty-two;
³⁰ the sons of Magbish—one hundred and fifty-six;
³¹ the sons of the other Elam—one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;
³² the sons of Harim—three hundred and twenty;
³³ the sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono—seven hundred and twenty-five;
³⁴ the sons of Jericho—three hundred and forty-five;
³⁵ the sons of Senaah—three thousand six hundred and thirty.
³⁶ Those who came with the priests were:
 the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua—nine hundred and seventy-three;
³⁷ the sons of Immer—one thousand and fifty-two;
³⁸ the sons of Pashhur—one thousand two hundred and forty-seven;
³⁹ the sons of Harim—one thousand and seventeen.
⁴⁰ Those who came with the Levites were:
 the sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel, of the sons of Hodaviah—seventy-four.
⁴¹ Those who came with the singers were:
 the sons of Asaph—one hundred and twenty-eight.
⁴² The sons of the gatekeepers were:
 the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai—in all one hundred and thirty-nine.
⁴³ Those devoted to the temple as servants were:
 the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, ⁴⁴ the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁵ the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, ⁴⁶ the sons of Hagab, the sons of Shalmal, the sons of Hanan, ⁴⁷ the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah,

⁴⁸ the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, ⁴⁹ the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, ⁵⁰ the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephusim, ⁵¹ the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵² the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha, ⁵³ the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, ⁵⁴ the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha.
⁵⁵ The sons of Solomon's servants were:
 the sons of Sotai, the sons of Hassophereth, the sons of Peruda, ⁵⁶ the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁷ the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pokereth-Hazzebaim, the sons of Ami.
⁵⁸ All those devoted to the temple as servants and the children of Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two.
⁵⁹ These were the ones who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not prove their father's house or their descent, whether they were of Israel:
⁶⁰ the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda—six hundred and fifty-two;
⁶¹ and of the sons of the priests:
 the sons of Hobaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, and the sons of Barzillai (whose ancestor married one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite and was thereafter called by their name).
⁶² These sought their records in the genealogy register, but they were not found. Therefore, they were disqualified (as polluted) from the priesthood. ⁶³ The governor advised them not to eat of the most holy things until a priest consulted with the Urim and Thummim.
⁶⁴ The whole congregation together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty, ⁶⁵ besides their male and female servants (these numbered seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven); they also had two hundred singing men and women. ⁶⁶ Their horses numbered seven hundred and thirty-six; their mules, two hundred and forty-five; ⁶⁷ their camels, four hundred and thirty-five; and their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
⁶⁸ As some of the heads of households came to the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, they volunteered to erect the foundations for the house of God. ⁶⁹ They gave after their ability to the treasure of the work sixty-one thousand drachmas † of gold, five thousand pounds †† of silver, and one hundred priestly garments.
 † About 1,100 pounds, or 500 kilograms. †† About 3 tons, or 2.8 metric tons.

⁷⁰ So the priests and the Levites, along with some of the people, the singers, the porters, and those donated as temple servants, lived in their cities, with the result that all Israel resettled in their cities.

Rebuilding the Altar

3 When the seventh month had come, the children of Israel had resettled in their cities, and the people gathered themselves together, as one man, to Jerusalem. ² Then Joshua the son of Jozadak and his brothers the priests stood up, along with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and his brothers, and they built the altar of the God of Israel in order to offer burnt offerings on it, as it had been written in the Law of Moses, the man of God. ³ They set the altar upon its foundations and, because they were living in fear of some of the peoples of the region, they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD—morning and evening. ⁴ They also kept the Feast of Tabernacles, as it had been written, and offered the daily burnt offerings in accordance with the daily schedule, according to each day's custom. ⁵ Thereafter, observance of the burnt offering became a perpetual sacrifice with regard to the New Moon sacrifices and all of the appointed feasts of the LORD that had been consecrated, and all of the voluntary freewill offerings to the LORD. ⁶ From the first day of the seventh month they had begun to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD, but the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

Rebuilding the Temple

⁷ They gave money to the masons and carpenters, and food, drink, and oil to the people of Sidon and to the people of Tyre so that they would bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, at Joppa, according to the grant they had from Cyrus king of Persia.

⁸ Now in the second month of the second year of their coming to the house of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, Joshua the son of Jozadak, along with the remnant of their brothers the Levitical priests and all who had come out of captivity back to Jerusalem, began work and appointed the Levites twenty years old and older to supervise the work on the house of the LORD. ⁹ Then Joshua with his sons and brothers, and Kadmiel with his sons, who are the sons of Judah, along with the sons of Henadad with their sons and their brothers—all Levites—stood together to supervise the workers on the house of God.

¹⁰ When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their apparel stood with trumpets and, from the Levites, the sons of Asaph stood with cymbals to praise the LORD, following the example of David king of Israel. ¹¹ They sang responsively, praising and giving thanks unto the LORD, "For He is good, for His mercy endures forever toward Israel."

And all the people responded with a great shout when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. ¹² Now many of the older Levitical priests and chiefs of the fathers' households who had seen the first temple wept with a loud voice as the foundation of this temple was laid before their eyes, though many others shouted exuberantly for joy. ¹³ As a result, the people could not distinguish the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people since the people had raised such a loud noise that could be heard from afar off.

Resistance to Rebuilding

4 Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the descendants of the captivity built the temple unto the LORD God of Israel, ² they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chiefs of the fathers' households, and said to them, "Let us build with you, for, like you, we seek your God and have been sacrificing to Him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assyria, who brought us here."

³ But Zerubbabel, and Joshua, and the rest of the chiefs of the fathers' households of Israel said to them, "This is not for you! It is for us to build the temple of our God, so we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."

⁴ Then the people of the land demoralized the people of Judah and terrified them while building, ⁵ and hired counselors against them to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.

⁶ In the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

The Letter to Artaxerxes

⁷ In the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia, and the writing of the letter was written in Aramaic, and interpreted in Aramaic.

⁸ Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this manner:

⁹ (Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their colleagues, the judges, the officials, the officers, the Persians, the men of Uruk, and of Babylon, and of Susa—that is, the Elamites—¹⁰ and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the city of Samaria and in the rest of the province Beyond the River—and now ¹¹ this is the copy of the letter that they sent to him)—

"To Artaxerxes the king:

"Your servants the men of the province Beyond the River, and so forth.

¹²“May it be known to the king, that the Jews who came from you have come near to us at Jerusalem and that they are building the rebellious and evil city, restoring its walls, and repairing the foundations.

¹³“Be it known now to the king, that, if this city is rebuilt and the walls set up again, then they will not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and the revenue of the kings will be impacted. ¹⁴Now because we are under obligation to the king’s palace, and it was not appropriate for us to see the king’s dishonor, therefore we have sent and notified the king, ¹⁵so that a search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. There you will find in the book of the records and realize that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have incited revolt within it in former times—for which cause this city was destroyed. ¹⁶We notify the king that if this city is rebuilt and the walls repaired by this means the portion Beyond the River will no longer be yours.”

¹⁷The king sent an answer:

“To Rehum the commander, to Shimshai the scribe, to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and to the remainder Beyond the River:

“Peace, and so forth.

¹⁸“The letter which you sent to us has been translated and read before me. ¹⁹I commanded, and a search has been made, and it is found that this city has in the past made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and revolt have occurred there. ²⁰There have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem, who have ruled over the whole province Beyond the River, and toll, tribute, and custom was paid to them. ²¹Command these men to cease now, so that this city is not built unless I give the command. ²²Take heed now that you do not fail to do this. Why should damage increase to the hurt of the king?”

²³Now when the copy of the letter by King Artaxerxes was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews and made them cease by force and power.

²⁴Then the work of the house of God in Jerusalem ceased. So it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Restoration of the Temple Resumed

5 Now the prophets, Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel who was over them. ²Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel and Joshua the son of Jozadak rose up and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem, and the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

³At the same time Tattenai, governor of the province Beyond the River, and Shethar-Bozenai and their companions came to them and said to them, “Who issued a command for you to build this house and complete this structure?” ⁴They also asked them, “What are the names of the men building this building?” ⁵But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, so that they could not cause them to cease building until a command came from Darius. Consequently, they sent a letter concerning this matter.

⁶This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor of the province Beyond the River, and Shethar-Bozenai and his colleagues, the officials who were in the province Beyond the River, sent to Darius the king.

⁷This is the document that they sent to him, containing accordingly what follows:

“To Darius the king:

“All peace.

⁸“May it be known to the king that we went into the province of Judah, to the temple of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goes diligently, and prospers in their hands.

⁹“Then we questioned those elders and said to them, ‘Who issued a command for you to build this house and complete this structure?’ ¹⁰Also, we asked for their names in order to notify you and to document the names of the men that were their leaders.

¹¹“Thus they returned us an answer, saying,

“We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth and are rebuilding the temple that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and completed. ¹²Afterwards, our fathers provoked the God of heaven to wrath, so He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this temple and carried the people away into Babylon.

¹³“However, in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, King Cyrus made a decree to rebuild this house of God. ¹⁴The vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and placed them into the temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king withdrew from the temple of Babylon and had them delivered to the one named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor.

¹⁵King Cyrus said to him, “Take these vessels, go, carry them to the temple in Jerusalem and let the house of God be built its site.” ¹⁶“So that same Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundation of the house of God in Jerusalem. Since that time even until now it has been under construction, yet it is not finished.’

¹⁷“Now therefore, if it seems good to the king, let there be search made in the king’s treasure house there in Babylon to ascertain if it is so that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem. May the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.”

The Decree of Darius

6 Then Darius the king issued a decree and a search was made in the house of records, where the treasures were stored in Babylon. ²At Ecbatana, in the provincial palace of the Medes, a scroll was found, and in it the following record was written:

³“In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king issued a decree concerning the temple of God at Jerusalem:

“Let the house be rebuilt, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations of it be strongly laid, to a height of sixty cubits, [†] and a width of sixty cubits. ⁴ Let it consist of three rows of great stones and a row of new timber, and let the expenses be paid from the king’s treasury. ⁵ Also, let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be returned and brought back to their places in the temple in Jerusalem. Put them in the house of God.

⁶“Now therefore, Tattenai, governor of the province Beyond the River, and Shethar-Bozenai, along with your colleagues, the officials who are in the province Beyond the River, stay far away from there. ⁷ Let the work of this house of God alone. Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place.

⁸“Moreover, I issue a decree concerning what you shall do for the elders of these Jews for the rebuilding of this house of God:

“The cost is to be paid to these men, in full and without delay, from the royal revenue, the tribute of the province Beyond the River. ⁹ Whatever they need—whether young bulls, rams, and lambs for the burnt offerings to the God of heaven, or wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests in Jerusalem—let it be given them daily without fail, ¹⁰ so that they may offer acceptable sacrifices to the God of heaven, as well as pray for the life of the king and of his sons.

¹¹“Also, I have issued a decree that whoever shall violate this word, the timber will be pulled down from his house and arranged so that he may be hanged on it. Thus shall his house be made a dunghill for this. ¹² May the God who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow all kings and people who stretch forth their hand to violate or destroy this house of God in Jerusalem.

“I, Darius, have issued the decree; so let it be done diligently.”

Completion and Dedication of the Temple

¹³In compliance, Tattenai, governor of the province Beyond the River, Shethar-Bozenai, and their companions speedily accomplished what Darius the king had decreed. ¹⁴The rebuilding by the elders of the Jews prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built, and finished it, according to the decree of the God of Israel and according to the decrees of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. ¹⁵This temple was finished on the third day of the month Adar during the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

¹⁶The children of Israel, the priests and the Levites, and the rest of the descendants of the captivity kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. ¹⁷At the dedication of this house of God, they offered a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and as a sin offering for all Israel, they offered twelve goats (according to the number of the tribes of Israel). ¹⁸They appointed the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their orders for the service of God in Jerusalem, as it had been written in the Book of Moses.

The Passover

¹⁹The children of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. ²⁰Because the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together, all of them were pure. So, they slaughtered the Passover lambs for all the descendants of the captivity, both for their brothers the priests and for themselves. ²¹Then they ate together, both the children of Israel who had come out of captivity and all those who had separated themselves from the uncleanness of the nations of the land, in order to seek the LORD God of Israel. ²²With joy they observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days because the LORD had made them joyful. He had turned the heart of the king of Assyria toward them and strengthened their hands in the work on the house of God, who is the God of Israel.

The Arrival of Ezra

⁷ Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiyah, ²the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, ³the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, ⁴the son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, ⁵the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the high priest— ⁶this Ezra went up from Babylon. He was a scribe skilled in the Law of Moses, given by the LORD God of Israel. Because the hand of the LORD his God was upon him, the king granted him all his requests. ⁷Some of the children of Israel, along with some of the priests, and the Levites, the singers, the porters, and the temple servants, went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

⁸Ezra arrived at Jerusalem in the fifth month, during the king’s seventh year. ⁹From the first day of the first month when the journey from Babylon began, until the first day of the fifth month when he arrived at Jerusalem, the good hand of his God was upon him.

¹⁰Because Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Law of the LORD, he was doing so and teaching the statutes and judgments in Israel.

The Letter of Artaxerxes to Ezra

¹¹ Now this is the copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, who was likewise the scribe, the one responsible for the words of the commandments of the LORD and His statutes to Israel:

¹² “Artaxerxes, king of kings,

“To Ezra the priest, scribe of the law of the God of heaven:

“Perfect peace, and so forth.

¹³ “I have issued a decree that all the people of Israel, and their priests, and the Levites in my realm, who are inclined to go up to Jerusalem, may go with you. ¹⁴ For you are sent by the king and his seven counselors to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem in accordance with the Law of your God which is in your hand, ¹⁵ and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶ along with all the silver and gold that you can find in all the province of Babylon, plus the freewill offering of the people and priests, who are voluntarily giving for the house of their God in Jerusalem. ¹⁷ Diligently use this money to buy bulls, rams, lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

¹⁸ “Whatever seems good to you and your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that according to the will of your God. ¹⁹ The vessels also that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. ²⁰ And whatever else is needed for the house of your God and is your responsibility to provide, use the king’s treasury to pay for it.

²¹ “I, even I Artaxerxes the king, issue a decree to all the treasurers of the province Beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, scribe of the law of the God of heaven, should request from you, you should do it with all diligence— ²² as much as a hundred talents [†] of silver, a hundred measures ^{††} of wheat, a hundred baths [‡] of wine, a hundred baths ^{‡‡} of oil, and salt (without prescribing how much). ²³ Whatever is decreed by the God of heaven, let it be zealously done for the house of the God of heaven so as to avoid there being wrath against the realm of the king and his sons. ²⁴ Also we are informing you that with regard to all the priests, Levites, singers, doorkeepers, temple servants, or other servants of this house of God, it is not permitted to impose toll, tribute, or custom on them.

²⁵ “You, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God who empowers you, appoint magistrates and judges to judge all the people of the province Beyond the River, all those who know the laws of your God and those who do not, whom you must teach. ²⁶ Whoever will not observe the law of your God or the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily on him, whether that be death, banishment, confiscation of goods, or imprisonment.”

²⁷ Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king’s heart, to beautify the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, ²⁸ and has extended mercy to me before the king, his counselors, and all the king’s mighty princes. Thus I had been strengthened, because the hand of the LORD my God was upon me. As a result, I gathered together some of the chief men of Israel to go up with me.

Family Leaders Returning With Ezra

8 Now these are the chiefs of the households of the fathers and the genealogical register of those who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of King Artaxerxes:

² of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom; of the sons of Ithamar, Daniel;

of the sons of David, Hattush, ³ a descendant of Shekaniah and a descendant of Parosh, Zechariah, plus another one hundred and fifty men registered in the genealogical register;

⁴ of the sons of Pahath-Moab; Eliehoenai a descendant of Zerariah, plus two hundred other males;

⁵ of the sons of Zattu, Shekaniah a descendant of Jahaziel, plus three hundred other males;

⁶ of the sons of Adin, Ebed a descendant of Jonathan, plus fifty other males;

⁷ of the sons of Elam, Jeshaiiah a descendant of Athaliah, plus seventy other males;

⁸ of the sons of Shephatiah, Zebadiah a descendant of Michael, plus eighty other males;

⁹ of the sons of Joab, Obadiah a descendant of Jehiel, plus two hundred and eighteen other males;

¹⁰ of the sons of Bani, Shelomith a descendant of Josiphiah, plus one hundred and sixty other males;

¹¹ of the sons of Bebai, his son Zechariah, plus twenty-eight other males;

¹² of the sons of Azgad, Johanan a descendant of Hakkatan, plus one hundred and ten other males;

¹³ of the last sons of Adonikam, the ones named Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah, plus sixty other males;

¹⁴ also of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zakkur, plus seventy other males.

Temple Servants

¹⁵ I gathered them together at the river that runs to Ahava, and we camped in tents three days. As I examined the people and the priests, I discovered that none of the sons of Levi were there. ¹⁶ So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, chief men; and also for Joiarib and Elnathan, discerning men. ¹⁷ I gave them orders for Iddo, chief at the place Kasiphia, and crafted exactly what they would say to Iddo, his brothers, and the temple servants at the place Kasiphia so that they would bring us ministering servants for the house of our God. ¹⁸ Because the good hand of our God was upon us, indeed they brought us a man of understanding descended from the sons of Mahli, who is a descendant of Levi, the son of Israel—Sherebiah along with his sons and his brothers, eighteen men; ¹⁹ and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty men; ²⁰ and of the temple servants whom David and the leaders had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty temple servants, all of them designated by name.

²¹ Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek from Him a good route for us, our little ones, and all our substance. ²² For I was ashamed to ask the king for an escort of foot and horse soldiers to help us against the enemy on the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, “The hand of our God is upon all who seek Him for good, but His power and His wrath are against all who forsake Him.” ²³ So we fasted and sought our God for this, and He was moved by our prayers.

Temple Gifts

²⁴ Then I separated twelve of the presiding priests—Sherebiah and Hashabiah, along with ten of their brothers— ²⁵ and weighed out to them the silver, the gold, the vessels, as well as the contribution collected for the house of our God by the king, his counselors, his lords, in conjunction with what all Israel had offered. ²⁶ I weighed out into their hand six hundred and fifty † talents of silver, silver articles worth one hundred talents, †† one hundred talents ‡ of gold, ²⁷ twenty gold bowls worth a thousand darics, †† and two vessels of fine shining bronze, precious as gold.

²⁸ I said to them, “You are holy to the LORD. The vessels are holy also. The silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD God of your fathers. ²⁹ Watch and guard them until you weigh them before the presiding priests and Levites, and the presiding elders of Israel at Jerusalem, for the chambers of the house of the LORD.” ³⁰ So the priests and the Levites accepted the weighed-out silver and gold, along with the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

The Return to Jerusalem

³¹ Then we began the journey from the Ahava River on the twelfth day of the first month to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the attacker and the ambusher along the way. ³² When we arrived at Jerusalem, we stayed there three days.

³³ Then on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed out in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest. With him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas as well as Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binui—both Levites. ³⁴ All of it was counted by number and by weight, and all the information was recorded at that time.

³⁵ Then, the children of the exile who had come out of captivity offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel. On behalf of all Israel, they offered twelve bulls, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering. All of it was offered as a burnt offering to the LORD. ³⁶ Finally, they delivered the king’s decrees to the satraps of the king as well as to the governors of the province Beyond the River. Accordingly, they supported the people and the house of God.

Ezra Prays About Intermarriage

9 Now when these things were done, the leaders contacted me, saying, “The people of Israel, the priests, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the people of the lands. They practice the abominations of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. ² Specifically, they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves, as well as for their sons, so that the holy seed has been mingled with the people of the lands. In fact, the involvement of the leaders and rulers has been foremost in this vile behavior.”

³ When I heard this, I tore my clothes and my robe, plucked out the hair of my head and from my beard, and sat down astonished. ⁴ Because of the vile behavior of those who had been in exile, every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered to me, but I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

⁵ At the evening sacrifice I rose up from my heaviness and, despite having my clothes and my robe torn, I knelt on my knees and stretched out my hands in prayer to the LORD my God ⁶ and said:

“O my God, I am ashamed and embarrassed to lift up my face to You, my God, because our iniquities have expanded over our heads and our wrongdoing has grown up to the heavens. ⁷ Since the days of our fathers until this day, we have been in a great guilt. It is because of our iniquities that we, our kings, and our priests have been delivered—by the sword, by captivity, by spoil, and by being shamed—into the hand of the kings of the lands. This day is like that, too.

⁸ “Yet now for a little while, there has been a favorable response from the LORD our God—leaving us a remnant to escape, giving us a tent peg from His holy place, having our eyes enlightened by our God, and giving us a little reviving in our bondage. ⁹ For though we were slaves, our God has not forsaken us in our bondage but has extended mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, granting us a reviving for the rebuilding of the house of our God, for the repairing of its ruins, and for giving us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

† About 24 tons, or about 22 metric tons. †† About 33/4 tons, or about 3.4 metric tons. ‡ About 33/4 tons, or about 3.4 metric tons. ††† About 1/4 ounce or 8.5 grams.

¹⁰“Now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commandments, ¹¹ which You commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land you are going to possess, it is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands. By their abominations, it is has been filled from one end to another with their uncleanness. ¹² Now, therefore, cease giving your daughters as wives to their sons, do not take their daughters to your sons, and never seek their peace or prosperity, that you might grow strong and eat the good of the land and leave it as an eternal inheritance to your children.’

¹³“After all that has come upon us because of our evil deeds and our great guilt, seeing that You our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve and have given us such deliverance as this, ¹⁴ should we again break Your commandments and intermarry with the people of these abominations? Would You not become so completely angry with us that there would be no remnant nor any who escape? ¹⁵ O LORD God of Israel, You are righteous, for we who escaped exile yet remain to this very day. Here we stand before You in our guiltiness even though we should not stand before You because of this.”

The People's Confession of Sin

10 Now while Ezra prayed and confessed, weeping and prostrating himself before the house of God, a very large congregation of men, women, and children gathered around him from Israel, for the people too wept bitterly. ² Shekariah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, “We have acted with vile unfaithfulness against our God and have wedded foreign women from the people of the land, yet there is now hope in Israel concerning this. ³ Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to sever relations with all the women and their children according to the counsel of my lord and those who tremble at the commandment of our God. May this be done in accordance with the law. ⁴ Arise, for this matter is your responsibility. But we are standing with you. Be courageous and act!”

⁵ Then Ezra stood and made the presiding Levitical priests and all Israel to swear an oath to act according to this word. And they swore an oath. ⁶ Then Ezra stood in front of the house of God and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib. When he arrived there, he ate no bread and drank no water because he was mourning over the vile unfaithfulness of the exiles.

⁷ They made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the children of the exile to assemble in Jerusalem. ⁸ Whoever would not come within three days would forfeit all his possessions, according to the counsel of the leaders and the elders, and would himself be excluded from the congregation of the exiles.

⁹ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month. All the people sat on the grounds of the house of God, trembling about this matter and also because of the great rain. ¹⁰ Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You have acted unfaithfully by bringing home foreign women, adding to the guilt of Israel. ¹¹ Now therefore make confession to the LORD God of your fathers and do what pleases Him: Sever your relationships with the people of the land, especially from the foreign women.”

¹² Then all the congregation answered loudly, “As you have said to us, that we will do. ¹³ But there are many people, and because it is the rainy season we will not be able to set up outside. Moreover, this is not a task for a day or two since we have so grievously transgressed in this matter. ¹⁴ Let now our rulers preside over all the congregation so that, in each of our cities, all who have married foreign women, along with the elders and judges of that city, will come at appointed times, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter is turned from us.” ¹⁵ Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah opposed this, with Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supporting them.

¹⁶ Then the descendants of the captivity did so. Ezra the priest selected men, heads of the fathers' households, according to their families, each of them by name. They sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter, ¹⁷ and finished dealing with every man who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month.

Those Guilty of Intermarriage

¹⁸ Some of the sons of the priests were discovered to have wedded foreign women, namely the sons of Joshua the son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah.

¹⁹ They committed to sever their relations with their women, and, being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt.

²⁰ Likewise, of the sons of Immer, there were Hanani and Zebadiah.

²¹ Of the sons of Harim, there were Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uziah.

²² Of the sons of Pashhur, there were Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasa.

²³ Also, from the Levites, there were Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah, (the same is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

²⁴ Among the singers,
 there was Eliashib,
 and from the porters,
 there were Shallum, Telem, and Uri.
²⁵ Further from Israel, of the sons of Parosh,
 there were Ramiah, Izziah, Malkijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malkijah, and Benaiah.
²⁶ Of the sons of Elam,
 there were Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Jeremoth, and Elijah.
²⁷ Of the sons of Zattu,
 there were Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.
²⁸ Of the sons of Bebai,
 there were Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.
²⁹ Of the sons of Bani,
 there were Meshullam, Malluk, Adaiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Jeremoth.
³⁰ Of the sons of Pahath-Moab, there were Adna, Kelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh.

³¹ Of the sons of Harim, there were Eliezer, Ishijah, Malkijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³² Benjamin, Malluk, and Shemariah.
³³ Of the sons of Hashum, there were Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.
³⁴ Of the sons of Bani, there were Maadai, Amram, Uel, ³⁵ Benaiah, Bedeiah, Keluhi, ³⁶ Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷ Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu.
³⁸ Of the sons of Binnui, there were Shimei, ³⁹ Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah, ⁴⁰ Maknadebai, Shashai, Sharai, ⁴¹ Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, ⁴² Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.
⁴³ Of the sons of Nebo,
 there were Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah.
⁴⁴ All these married foreign women, and some of them had wives that had children.

NEHEMIAH

The book of Nehemiah was likely written between 445 and 420 BC. Jewish and Christian traditions credit Ezra as the author. Originally written as a two-volume composition, the books of Ezra and Nehemiah are closely related and recount overlapping time periods and events. Nehemiah records some of the last historical events in Old Testament history at the end of the fifth century. This book is the story of a Jewish cupbearer of King Artaxerxes I in Persia who is made governor of Judah and sent to Jerusalem to build its walls and make it a more politically and militarily secure site. Nehemiah's return marks the third wave of returning exiles. They rebuild the walls of Jerusalem in the face of armed opposition from inhabitants of the land. Important events include the public reading of the Law of Moses, the repentance of the people, and the restoration of the Feast of Tabernacles, temple procedures, and Sabbath rest.

The Prayer of Nehemiah

1 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hakaliah. In the month Kislev, in the twentieth year, while I was in Susa the palace, ² Hanani, one of my relatives, and some men of Judah arrived. So I asked them concerning the returning Jews who had been in captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

³ They said to me, "The remnant that returned from captivity is there in the province enduring great affliction and reproach. Also, the wall of Jerusalem remains broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire."

⁴ When I heard these words, I sat down and wept and mourned for days. Then I fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven, ⁵ and said:

"I beseech You, O LORD God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and mercy for those who love Him and keep His commandments. ⁶ Let Your ear now be attentive, and Your eyes open, that You may hear the prayer of Your servant, which I now pray before You, day and night, for the children of Israel Your servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against You. Both my father's house and I have sinned. ⁷ We have acted very corruptly against You and have not obeyed the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which You commanded Your servant Moses.

⁸ "Please remember the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, 'If you behave unfaithfully, then I will scatter you among the nations, ⁹ but if you return to Me and keep My commandments and do them, though your outcasts are under the farthest part of the heavens, I will gather them from there and bring them back to the place where I have chosen to establish My name.'

¹⁰ "Now these are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great power and by Your strong hand. ¹¹ O Lord, I implore You, let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants who delight to revere Your name. And let Your servant prosper this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man."

For I was the king's cupbearer.

Nehemiah Sent to Jerusalem

2 In the month of Nisan, during the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was before him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. Never had I been upset in his presence. ² So the king said to me, "Why is your face troubled though you do not seem sick? This is nothing but a troubled heart."

Then I became very much afraid ³ and said to the king, "May the king live forever! Why should not my face be troubled when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?"

⁴ So the king said to me, "What are you requesting about this matter?"

Immediately, I prayed to the God of heaven ⁵ and then said to the king, "If this pleases the king and if this might be good for your servant who is before you, then would you send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs so that I may rebuild it?"

⁶ The king, with the queen sitting beside him, said to me, "How long would your journey be? And when will you return?" Because it pleased the king to send me, I established a timetable for him.

⁷ I further said to the king, "If this pleases the king, may letters be given to me for the governors of the province Beyond the River so that they would allow me to pass through until I come to Judah, ⁸ as well as a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the temple mount, for the city wall, and for the house into which I will enter." The king granted me these things, because the good hand of my God was upon me. ⁹ When I came to the governors of the province

Beyond the River, I gave them the king's letters. He also sent with me commanders of foot and horse soldiers.

¹⁰ When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite subordinate heard this, it deeply grieved them that there was a man coming to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

Nehemiah Inspects Jerusalem's Walls

¹¹ When I arrived in Jerusalem, I was there three days. ¹² Then I arose in the night, I and a few men who were with me; I told no one what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There was no animal with me, except the one on which I rode.

¹³ So I went out by night by the Valley Gate toward the Dragon's Well and then to the Dung Gate, because I was inspecting the broken-down walls of Jerusalem and its burned gates. ¹⁴ Next I passed by the Fountain Gate and then to the King's Pool, but there was no place for my mount to pass. ¹⁵ By going up along the riverbed at night, I inspected the wall. Then I turned back so that I could enter by the Valley Gate, and then came back again. ¹⁶ The officials did not know where I went or what I did, since I had not yet told it to the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials, or to any of the others who would do the work.

¹⁷ Finally, I said to them, "You see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem is devastated and its gates are burned with fire. Come, and let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so that we will no more be a reproach."

¹⁸ Then I told them that the hand of my God had been good to me and also about the king's words that he had spoken to me.

And they said, "Let us rise up and build!" So they strengthened their hands for the good work.

¹⁹ But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite subordinate, and Geshem the Arabian heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

²⁰ Then answered I them and said to them, "The God of heaven, He will enable us to prosper. Therefore we His servants will arise and build, but you will have no portion, or right, or memorial in Jerusalem."

Rebuilding the Wall

3 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the Sheep Gate. They sanctified it and erected its doors. From the Tower of the Hundred to the Tower of Hananel, they sanctified the wall. ² Next to him the men of Jericho built, and next to them Zakkur the son of Imri built.

³ The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate, constructing its beams, erecting its doors, and installing locks and bars for it. ⁴ Next to them Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz made repairs. Next to him, Meshullam the son of Berekiah, the son of Meshezabel made repairs. Next to him Zadok the son of Baana made repairs. ⁵ Next to them the Tekoites made repairs, but their noblemen would not put their shoulders to the work of their Lord.

⁶ Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the Old Gate. They constructed its beams, erected its doors, and installed locks and bars for it. ⁷ Next to them repairs were made by Melatiah the Gibeonite and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, places under the authority of the governor of the province Beyond the River. ⁸ Next to them Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him Hananiah, the son of one of the apothecaries, made repairs, and they repaired Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall. ⁹ Next to him Rephaiah the son of Hur, commander of half of the Jerusalem district, made repairs. ¹⁰ Next to him Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs across from his house. Next to him Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs. ¹¹ Malkijah the son of Harim and Hasshub the son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section, as well as the Tower of the Furnaces. ¹² Next to them Shallum the son of Hallohesh, commander of the other half of the Jerusalem district, made repairs along with his daughters.

¹⁴ But the Dung Gate was repaired by Malkijah the son of Rekab, commander of the Beth Hakkerem district. He rebuilt it, and erected its doors, and installed the locks and bars for it.

¹⁵ Moreover, Shallun the son of Kol-Hozeh, commander of the Mizpah district, made repairs to the Fountain Gate. He rebuilt it, covered it, erected its doors, and installed the locks and bars for it. He also repaired the wall of the pool of Shelah by the king's garden as far as the steps going down from the City of David.

¹⁷ After him the Levites, under Rehum the son of Bani, made repairs. Next to them Hashabiah, commander of half of the Keilah district, made repairs in his area. ¹⁸ After him their brothers, under Binnui the son of Henadad, commander of the other half of the Keilah district, made repairs. ¹⁹ Next to them Ezer the son of Jeshua, commander of Mizpah, made repairs to another section across from the ascent to the armory at the corner. ²⁰ After him Baruch the son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section, from the corner to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. ²¹ After him Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another section from the door of the house of Eliashib to the end of it.

† About 1,500 feet, or about 450 meters.

²² After him the priests, the men of the surrounding plain, made repairs. ²³ After them Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs across from their house. After them Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah made repairs beside his house. ²⁴ After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another section from the house of Azariah as far as the corner plus the corner tower. ²⁵ Palal the son of Uzai made repairs across from the corner and to the tower protruding out of the king's upper house next to the courtyard of the guards. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs. ²⁶ The temple servants living in Ophel made repairs from opposite the Water Gate eastward to the protruding tower. ²⁷ After them the Tekoites repaired another section across from the great protruding tower as far as the wall of Ophel.

²⁸ Up to the Horse Gate the priests made repairs—each one across from his house. ²⁹ After them Zadok the son of Immer repaired across from his house. After him Shemaiah the son of Shekariah, who was keeper of the East Gate, made repairs. ³⁰ After him Hananiah the son of Shelemiah and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph repaired another section. After them Meshullam the son of Berekiah made repairs across from his chamber. ³¹ After him Malkijah the goldsmith's son made repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and the merchants. This was across from the Mustering Gate extending as far as the upper room of the corner tower. ³² Between the upper room of the corner tower and the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

Opposition to the Rebuilding

4 When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and was greatly irritated, and he mocked the Jews. ² He spoke before his relatives and the army of Samaria and said, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Are they fortifying themselves? Will they make sacrifices? Can they complete this in a day? Can they revive the burned-up stones out of the rubbish heaps?"

³ Now Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, "Even what they are rebuilding, if even a fox climbed it, that would break down their stone wall."

⁶ So we rebuilt the wall until all of it was solidified up to half its height. The people had a passion for the work.

⁹ Nevertheless we prayed to our God, and, because of them, we set up a watch for them day and night.

¹⁰ Judah had said, "The strength of the burden bearers is failing though there is much rubble. And we ourselves are unable to rebuild the wall."

¹¹ Our adversaries said, "They will neither know nor see until we have entered in among them and slain them. Indeed, we will stop the work!"

¹² When the Jews living near them came, they told us ten times, "From every place where you turn, they will be against us."

¹³ Therefore I set guards at the lowest positions along the wall and just inside the wall at the unrepaired areas. I also stationed the people by families providing them individually their own swords, spears, and bows. ¹⁴ After I looked around, I stood up and said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, "Stop being terrified because of them! Remember instead that the Lord is great and awesome. So fight for each other—and for your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your houses."

¹⁵ Now when our enemies heard that this had become known to us and that God had brought their counsel to nothing, then we all returned to the wall, everyone to his work.

¹⁶ After that day, half of my servants did the work while the other half handled the spears, shields, bows, and body armor. Commanders were appointed to support every house of Judah. ¹⁷ Those rebuilding the wall and those hauling the loads were working with one hand doing the task, but with the other hand holding the weapon. ¹⁸ For the builders, everyone had his sword bound to his side, even while rebuilding. The trumpet blower worked beside me.

¹⁹ I said to the nobles, the rulers, and to the rest of the people, "The work is vast and over a large area. Since we are spread along the wall far from each other, ²⁰ assemble to us there at the place where you hear the trumpet sounded. Our God shall fight for us."

²¹ So we labored in the work with half of them holding spears from sunrise to the rising of the stars. ²² Likewise at the same time I said to the people, "Every man and his servant must lodge within Jerusalem. By night, they may be a guard to us; by day, a laborer for the work." ²³ So neither I nor my brothers nor my servants nor the men of the guard who followed me took off our clothes. Each carried his weapon, even when washing.

Nehemiah Stops Oppression

5 Now there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their fellow Jews. ² Some were saying, "We and our sons and our daughters are many. Therefore, let us acquire grain so that we may eat and live."

³ Others were saying, "We have mortgaged our fields, vineyards, and houses so that we might acquire grain because of hunger."

⁴ Still others were saying, "We have borrowed money for the king's tribute against the value of our fields and vineyards. ⁵ Now our flesh is the same as the flesh of our countrymen. Our children are like their children, but we are subjugating our sons and our daughters as servants. Indeed, some of our daughters are in bondage already, and we are powerless to do anything because our fields and vineyards belong to others."

⁶ I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words. ⁷ So I contemplated about this for myself and, as a result, I rebuked the nobles and officials and said to them, "Based on the claim of each against his brother, you are exacting usury." Then I convened a great assembly against them, ⁸ and I said to them, "By whatever means we had, we purchased our Jewish countrymen who were being sold to the nations. So, will you once more sell your countrymen so that they might again be sold to us?" Then they kept silent, because they found nothing to answer.

⁹ Also I said, "What you are doing is not good! Should not you walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the nations, our enemies? ¹⁰ Moreover, I, my relatives, and my servants are loaning them money and grain. So, I urge you, cease from this practice of usury. ¹¹ Please restore to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, along with a hundredth part of the money, the grain, the wine, and the oil that you had exacted from them."

¹² Then they said, "We will restore it and will require nothing of them. We will do what you have said."

Then I called the priests and made them swear an oath to keep this promise. ¹³ Also I shook out the front of my garment and said, "Like this, may God shake out every man from his house and from his labor who does not carry out this promise. Exactly like this, may he be shaken out and emptied."

And all the congregation said, "Amen," and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

Nehemiah's Generosity

¹⁴ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah (from the twentieth year even until the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes) twelve years had passed. And my companions and I had not eaten the governor's food allotment. ¹⁵ The former governors preceding me had extracted a heavy burden on the people, because they took from them food and wine, besides forty shekels [†] of silver. Moreover, even their servants domineered over the people. But I myself never did so, because of the fear of God. ¹⁶ Furthermore, I stayed determined in the work on this wall. We bought no field, and all my servants were gathered there for the sake of the work.

¹⁷ Moreover there were regularly at my table one hundred and fifty Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the nations around us. ¹⁸ Daily there were one ox and six choice sheep prepared for me. Fowls were also prepared for me. Once in ten days all sorts of wine were supplied in abundance. Yet for all this, I never required the governor's food allotment because it was a heavy burden on this people.

¹⁹ Remember me, O my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

Nehemiah's Enemies

6 When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall and that there was not a gap in it (though at that time I had not erected the doors on the gates), ² Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come, that we might meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono."

But they planned to do evil to me. ³ So I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, so I am not able to come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and come down to you?" ⁴ Four more times they sent for me like this, but I answered them the same way.

⁵ Sanballat sent the same request a fifth time by his servant, but the letter was open in his hand. ⁶ In it was written,

"It is reported among the nations, and Geshem confirms it, that you and the Jews are planning to rebel; consequently you are rebuilding the wall. According to these words, you are their king. ⁷ You have also appointed prophets to preach on your behalf in Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah!' According to these words, it will now be reported to the king. So come now and let us consult together."

⁸ I sent him this response, saying, "Nothing like these reports that you are saying has occurred. From your own mind, you are inventing them."

⁹ Because they all wanted to frighten us, they thought, "They will pull their hands back from the work." But that would never be done.

So now, O God, strengthen my hands.

¹⁰ When I came to the house of Shemaiah the crippled son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, he said, "Let us meet together at the house of God, inside the temple, and then we can shut the temple doors. They are coming to kill you! Even tonight, they could come to kill you!"

¹¹ But I said, "Should a man like me flee? Who is there like me who would go into the temple to save his life? I would never go!" ¹² Then I perceived and saw that God had not sent him, but that he pronounced the prophecy against me, because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³ He was hired for this reason: that I might become fearful, act accordingly, and sin. Then they would have an evil report by which they could reproach me.

[†] About 1 pound, or 460 grams.

¹⁴ Remember, O my God, concerning Tobiah and Sanballat these deeds of theirs, as well as the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who were trying to frighten me.

The Wall Completed

¹⁵ The wall was finished on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty-two days. ¹⁶ When all our enemies heard it and all the surrounding nations saw it, they were tremendously humbled. They perceived that, because of our God, this work had been accomplished.

¹⁷ Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah produced numerous letters in transit to Tobiah. Likewise, the letters of Tobiah came to them, ¹⁸ because so many in Judah were bound by oath to him since he was the son-in-law of Shekariah the son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berekiah. ¹⁹ Also they reported his good deeds in front of me and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to frighten me.

⁷ Once the wall was rebuilt and I had erected the doors, the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Levites were appointed. ² Over Jerusalem, I put in charge both my brother Hanani and Hananiah, the palace commander, because each was a faithful man and feared God more than many. ³ I said to them, "The gates of Jerusalem should not be opened until the sun is hot. Until guards are posted, the doors should be closed and bolted. Likewise, appoint guards from Jerusalem's inhabitants—each at his post, across from his own house."

⁴ Now the city was large and spacious, yet the people in it were few since there had been no houses built.

The List of Returned Exiles

Ezr 2:1-70

⁵ So my God put an idea in my mind, and I gathered the nobles, the officials, and the people together to conduct a genealogy registration. When I found the book of the genealogical register, it contained the list of those who first came back. I found written in it:

⁶ These are the people of the province who returned from the captivity of the exiles whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had carried away, but came back to Jerusalem and to Judah, everyone to his city. ⁷ Those who came with Zerubbabel were Joshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel was this:

⁸ The sons of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two;

⁹ the sons of Shephatiah, three hundred and seventy-two;

¹⁰ the sons of Arah, six hundred and fifty-two;

¹¹ the sons of Pahath-Moab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen;

¹² the sons of Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

¹³ the sons of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five;

¹⁴ the sons of Zakkai, seven hundred and sixty;

¹⁵ the sons of Binnui, six hundred and forty-eight;

¹⁶ the sons of Bebai, six hundred and twenty-eight;

¹⁷ the sons of Azgad, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two;

¹⁸ the sons of Adonikam, six hundred and sixty-seven;

¹⁹ the sons of Bigvai, two thousand and sixty-seven;

²⁰ the sons of Adin, six hundred and fifty-five;

²¹ the sons of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety-eight;

²² the sons of Hashum, three hundred and twenty-eight;

²³ the sons of Bezai, three hundred and twenty-four;

²⁴ the sons of Hariph, one hundred and twelve;

²⁵ the sons of Gibeon, ninety-five.

²⁶ The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, one hundred and eighty-eight;

²⁷ the men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight;

²⁸ the men of Beth Azmaveth, forty-two;

²⁹ the men of Kiriath Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty-three;

³⁰ the men of Ramah and Geba, six hundred and twenty-one;

³¹ the men of Mikmash, one hundred and twenty-two;

³² the men of Bethel and Ai, one hundred and twenty-three;

³³ the men of the other Nebo, fifty-two;

³⁴ the sons of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;

³⁵ the sons of Harim, three hundred and twenty;

³⁶ the sons of Jericho, three hundred and forty-five;

³⁷ the sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one;

³⁸ the sons of Senaah, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.

Priestly Leaders

³⁹ The priests:

the sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua, nine hundred and seventy-three;

⁴⁰ the sons of Immer, one thousand and fifty-two;

⁴¹ the sons of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven;

⁴² the sons of Harim, one thousand and seventeen.

⁴³ The Levites:

the sons of Jeshua, of Kadmiel, and of the sons of Hodaviah, seventy-four.

⁴⁴ The singers:

the sons of Asaph, one hundred and forty-eight.

⁴⁵ The gatekeepers:

the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, one hundred and thirty-eight.

⁴⁶ The temple servants:

the sons of Ziha, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth,

⁴⁷ the sons of Keros, the sons of Sia, the sons of Padon,

⁴⁸ the sons of Lebana, the sons of Hagaba, the sons of Shalmal,

⁴⁹ the sons of Hanan, the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar,

⁵⁰ the sons of Reaiah, the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda,

⁵¹ the sons of Gazzam, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah,

⁵² the sons of Besai, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephusim, ⁵³ the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur, ⁵⁴ the sons of Bazluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,

⁵⁵ the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, ⁵⁶ the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁷ The sons of Solomon's servants:

the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida, ⁵⁸ the sons of Jaala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁹ the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pokereth-Hazzebaim, the sons of Amon.

⁶⁰ All the temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants were three hundred and ninety-two.

⁶¹ These were they who came up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer, but they could not show their fathers' houses nor their lineage—whether they were of Israel:

⁶² The sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred and forty-two.

⁶³ Of the priests:

the sons of

Hobaiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Barzillai, who married one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called by their name.

⁶⁴ These sought for their fathers' registration in the genealogical registry, but it was not found. Therefore, they were considered as unclean and removed from the priesthood. ⁶⁵ The magistrate said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things until there was an appointed priest with Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁶ The whole congregation together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty, ⁶⁷ besides their male and female servants, which numbered seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred and forty-five male and female singers. ⁶⁸ Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six; their mules, two hundred and forty-five; ⁶⁹ their camels, four hundred and thirty-five; the donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

⁷³ So the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the temple servants, and all Israel lived in their cities.

Ezra Reads the Law

When the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

8 All the people gathered together as one man in the area in front of the Water Gate, and they asked Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

² On the first day of the seventh month, Ezra the priest brought the Law before the congregation of men, women, and all who could listen with understanding. ³ In the area in front of the Water Gate, he read aloud from sunrise until midday to the men, women, and those who could understand. All the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

⁵ Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people (because he was above all the people), and, as he opened it, all the people stood up. ⁶ When Ezra blessed the LORD as the great God, all the people responded "Amen, Amen!" By lifting up their hands as they bowed their heads, they worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

⁷ Then Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, explained the Law to the people while the people stood in their place. ⁸ They read from the book, from the Law of God, with interpretation, and they gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

† About 19 pounds, or 8.4 kilograms. †† About 375 pounds, or 170 kilograms; and in v. 72. ‡ About 11/3 tons, or 1.2 metric tons. ‡‡ About 11/4 tons, or 1.1 metric tons.

⁹ Then Nehemiah the magistrate, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who were teaching the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God. Stop mourning and weeping." (This was because all the people wept when they heard the words of the Law.)

¹⁰ Then he said to them, "Go your way. Eat the fat, drink the sweet drink, and send portions to those for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

¹¹ So the Levites quieted all the people, saying, "Hush! Because today is holy you should stop being so sorrowful."

¹² Then all the people went to eat, to drink, to send portions, and to enjoy a great celebration because they had understood the words declared to them.

The Feast of Tabernacles

¹³ On the second day, the chiefs of the fathers' households of all the people, the priests, and the Levites were gathered to Ezra the scribe in order to understand the words of the Law. ¹⁴ They found written in the Law where the LORD had commanded by Moses that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month, ¹⁵ and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities and in Jerusalem, "Go out to the hills and bring olive branches, along with wild olive branches, myrtle branches, palm branches, and other leafy branches to make booths, as it was written."

¹⁶ So the people went out and brought back branches and made themselves booths. Each household did so on its roof, in their yard, on the grounds of the house of God, in the area in front of the Water Gate, or in the area at the Gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷ All the congregation who had returned from captivity made booths and lived in them. Not since the days of Joshua the son of Nun to that day had the children of Israel done so, and there was a tremendously great feast.

¹⁸ And day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read from the Book of the Law of God. They celebrated the feast seven days, and on the eighth day there was a solemn assembly as required.

The Israelites Confess Their Sins

⁹ Now on the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting and sackcloth, and there was dirt on them. ² The offspring of Israel separated themselves from all the foreigners and then stood and confessed their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. ³ They stood in their place and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a fourth of the day. And for another fourth, they confessed and worshipped the LORD their God. ⁴ Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Kenani stood up on the stairs of the Levites and cried with a loud voice to the LORD their God. ⁵ Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said:

"Stand up and bless the LORD your God forever and ever! Let them bless Your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶ You alone are the LORD. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and You preserve them all. And the host of heaven worships You.

⁷ "You are the LORD God who chose Abram and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans. You gave him the name Abraham ⁸ and found his heart faithful before You. And You made a covenant with him to give him the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, and the Girgashites—to give it to his seed. Indeed, You have fulfilled Your words because You are righteous.

¹³ "You came down on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven and gave them just requirements, true laws, good statutes and commandments. ¹⁴ You also revealed to them Your Holy Sabbath and, by the hand of Moses Your servant, set in place for them the precepts, statutes, and laws. ¹⁵ You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger and brought water out of the rock for them for their thirst. You told them to enter in order to possess the land which You had sworn to give them.

¹⁶ "But they and our fathers acted proudly and hardened their necks and did not obey Your commandments. ¹⁷ They refused to obey and were not mindful of Your wonders that You performed among them. But they hardened their necks and in their rebellion appointed a leader to return to their bondage. But You are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in kindness, and did not forsake them.

¹⁸ "Even when they had made themselves a molded calf and said, 'This is your god that brought you out of Egypt,' and committed terrible provocations, ¹⁹ yet You in Your great mercy did not forsake them in the wilderness: The pillar of the cloud did not depart from them by day, to lead them in the way, nor the pillar of fire by night, to light for them the way they should go. ²⁰ You gave Your good Spirit to instruct them, did not withhold Your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst. ²¹ Forty years You sustained them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing—their clothing did not wear out nor did their feet swell.

²² “You gave them kingdoms and nations, and You divided them as boundaries. They possessed the land of Sihon, which was the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og, the king of Bashan. ²³ Their descendants You increased like the stars of heaven, and You brought them into the land, which You had promised to their fathers that they would enter and possess it. ²⁴ So the descendants went in and possessed the land, and You subdued for them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands—with their kings and the peoples of the land—to do with them as they would. ²⁵ They captured unassailable cities and a fertile land. They possessed houses full of all goods, wells dug, vineyards, olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance, so they ate, were filled, and became fat, and they indulged themselves in Your great goodness.

²⁶ “Nevertheless they became disobedient, and rebelled against You, and cast Your law behind their backs, and killed Your prophets who had warned them to turn back to You. But they committed terrible provocations. ²⁷ Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their enemies, who afflicted them. When they cried to You in the time of their affliction, You heard from heaven, and, according to Your abundant mercy, You gave them deliverers who delivered them out of the hand of their enemies.

²⁸ “But after they had rest, they again did evil before You. Therefore You abandoned them to the hand of their enemies, so that they had dominion over them. Yet when they turned and cried to You, You heard from heaven, and many times You delivered them according to Your mercies.

²⁹ “You warned them in order to restore them again to Your law, but they acted arrogantly and did not listen to Your commandments. They sinned against Your ordinances (which would enable a man to live, if he would do them), stubbornly turning away and becoming belligerent so that they would not hear. ³⁰ For many years You endured them and warned them by Your Spirit in Your prophets, yet they would not listen. Therefore, You gave them into the hand of the people of the lands. ³¹ Nevertheless, for the sake of Your abundant mercy, You did not completely destroy them or forsake them. Indeed, You are a gracious and merciful God.

³² “Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps covenant and mercy, let not all the hardship, since the time of the kings of Assyria until this day, that has come on us, our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, our fathers, and on all Your people seem insignificant to You. ³³ You are righteous for everything that has come upon us! You have acted faithfully while we have done wickedly. ³⁴ For our kings, princes, priests, and fathers have failed to keep Your law and did not obey Your commandments and Your warnings even when You confronted them. ³⁵ For whether in their kingdom or in Your abundant goodness (that You gave them) or in the spacious and fertile land (that You set before them), they have neither served You nor turned away from their wicked deeds.

³⁶ “Here we are, slaves today. The land that You gave to our fathers was for eating its fruit and its goodness. Behold, we have become slaves on account of it, ³⁷ because its abundant produce belongs to the kings whom You have set over us due to our sins. They have control over our bodies and over our livestock, as they please. We are in great distress.”

Signatories to the Agreement

³⁸ So on the basis of all this, we are executing a written agreement that is being sealed by our princes, Levites, and priests.

Signatories of the Covenant

10 Now the names of those on the sealed agreement were:

Nehemiah, the magistrate, the son of Hakaliah, and Zedekiah. ² Next were Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,

³ Pashhur, Amariah, Malkijah,

⁴ Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluk,

⁵ Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,

⁶ Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,

⁷ Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,

⁸ Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah.

These were the priests.

⁹ The Levites were:

Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, and Kadmiel,

¹⁰ along with their relatives Shebaniah,

Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan,

¹¹ Mika, Rehob, Hashabiah,

¹² Zakkur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

¹³ Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.

¹⁴ The leaders of the people were:

Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

¹⁵ Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

¹⁶ Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

¹⁷ Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,

¹⁸ Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,

¹⁹ Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

²⁰ Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

²¹ Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,

²² Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,

²³ Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,

²⁴ Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,

²⁵ Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

²⁶ Ahiah, Hanan, Anan,

²⁷ Malluk, Harim, and Baanah.

Summary of the Covenant

²⁸ The remainder of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the temple servants, and all those who on the basis of the Law of God separated themselves from the people of the lands—their wives, their sons, and their daughters, that is, every one capable of knowledge and understanding—²⁹ have decisively joined in with their countrymen and their nobles, and obligated themselves—by both a curse and an oath—to walk in the Law of God, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD who is our Lord, along with His judgments and His statutes ³⁰ so that we will not give our daughters to the people of the land nor take their daughters for our sons.

³¹ If the people of the land bring merchandise or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, we will not buy from them on the Sabbath or a holy day. We will also renounce the seventh year harvest and the full payment of every debt.

³² We also establish for ourselves the ordinance to collect from ourselves annually one-third of a shekel for the service of the house of our God: ³³ for the showbread, the continual grain offering, the continual burnt offering, the Sabbaths, the New Moons, the appointed feasts, the holy things, and the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, as well as for all the work of the house of our God.

³⁴ Also, we cast lots to determine the duty of the supply of wood that the priests, the Levites, and the people—according to the houses of our fathers, being set by annually appointed times—might bring to the house of our God, in order to burn it on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Law; ³⁵ and, likewise, for the annual bringing of the first fruits of our ground and the first fruits of all fruit of all trees to the house of the LORD; ³⁶ and for bringing to the priests who are ministering at the house of God, the firstborn of our sons and livestock, as it is written in the Law, plus the firstborn of our herds and flocks.

³⁷ Moreover, the first of our fresh dough, our contributions, the fruit of every tree, and the new wine and oil we will bring to the priests at the chambers of the house of our God, but the tithe of our crops we will bring to the Levites, since they themselves receive the tithes in all our agricultural cities. ³⁸ There must be a priest, a descendant of Aaron, with the Levites when they are collecting tithes, and the Levites will offer a tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, for the chambers of the storehouse. ³⁹ Both the children of Israel and the Levites should bring the contribution of the grain, new wine, and the fresh oil to the chambers because the vessels of the sanctuary and the ministering priests, the gatekeepers, and the singers are there.

We resolve not to forsake the house of our God.

The Residents of Jerusalem

1Ch 9:1–17

11 Now the rulers of the people lived at Jerusalem, so the rest of the people cast lots in order to bring one out of ten to stay in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine remained in other cities. ² The people blessed all the men who volunteered to dwell in Jerusalem.

³ Now these are the leaders of the provinces who lived in Jerusalem (though in the cities of Judah every one lived on his own property within their cities): Israel, the priests, the Levites, the temple servants, and the descendants of Solomon's servants. ⁴ Some of the sons of Judah and Benjamin lived in Jerusalem.

Those from Judah were:

Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel—the descendants of Perez, ⁵ and Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Kol-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shelah.

⁶ All the descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem were four hundred and sixty-eight valiant men.

⁷ These are the sons of Benjamin:

Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah, ⁸ and after him Gabbai and Sallai, totaling nine hundred and twenty-eight. ⁹ Joel, the son of Zikri, was their overseer, and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second to him over the city.

¹⁰ Of the priests there were:

Jedaiah the son of Joiarib and Jakin; ¹¹ Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was a ruler of the house of God. ¹² Their relatives performing the work of the house were eight hundred and twenty-two. There was also Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah, ¹³ plus his relatives who were chiefs of the fathers' houses were two hundred and forty-two; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, ¹⁴ and their brothers, mighty men of valor, were one hundred and twenty-eight. Their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of Haggadolim.

¹⁵ From the Levites there were:

Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; ¹⁶ plus Shabbethai and Jozabad, who as leaders of the Levites had oversight of the outside work of the house of God. ¹⁷ Mattaniah the son of Mika, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the first to begin the thanksgiving at prayer, Bakbukiah was the second out of his relatives, and then Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. ¹⁸ All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred and eighty-four.

¹⁹ Moreover, the gatekeepers,

Akkub, Talmon, and their relatives who kept watch at the gates, were one hundred and seventy-two.

²⁰ The rest of Israel, the priests, and the Levites were in all the cities of Judah, every one tending to his own inheritance.

²¹ But the temple servants lived in Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were over them.

²² The overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mika. Some of the sons of Asaph were the singers attending to the work of the house of God, ²³ for the king's regulation about them made their unity a daily issue.

²⁴ Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the sons of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's assistant † in all matters concerning the people.

The Residents Outside Jerusalem

²⁵ For the villages located by their fields, some of the people of Judah lived at Kiriath Arba and its villages, others at Dibon and its villages, or at Jekabzeel and its villages, ²⁶ as well as at Jeshua, at Moladah, and at Beth Pelet, ²⁷ and at Hazar Shual, and at Beersheba and its villages, ²⁸ and at Ziklag, at Mekonah and its villages, ²⁹ and at En Rimmon, at Zorah, at Jarmuth, ³⁰ Zanoah, Adullam and their villages, at Lachish and its fields, and at Azekah and its villages. So they lived from Beersheba as far as the Valley of Hinnom.

³¹ Some of the Benjamites settled from Geba onward, at Mikmash, Aija, and Bethel and their villages, ³² at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, ³³ Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, ³⁴ Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, ³⁵ Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.

³⁶ From the Levites, some divisions in Judah belonged to Benjamin.

The Priests and Levites

12 Now these are the priests and the Levites who came up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua:

Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

² Amariah, Malluk, Hattush,

³ Shekariah, Rehum, Meremoth,

⁴ Iddo, Ginnethon, Abijah,

⁵ Mijamin, Moadiah, Bilgah,

⁶ Shemaiah, and Joiarib, Jedaiah,

⁷ Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, Jedaiah.

These were the leaders of the priests and of their relatives in the days of Joshua.

⁸ Moreover the Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, who was over the thanksgiving songs, in conjunction with his relatives.

⁹ There were also their relatives Bakbukiah and Unni, positioned across from each other in the watches.

¹⁰ Joshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim was the father of Eliashib, Eliashib was the father of Joiada, ¹¹ Joiada was the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan was the father of Jaddua.

¹² Now in the days of Joiakim, the priests, these were the heads of the fathers' houses:

of Seraiah, Meraiah;

of Jeremiah, Hananiah;

¹³ of Ezra, Meshullam;

of Amariah, Jehohanan;

¹⁴ of Malluk, Jonathan;

of Shebaniah, Joseph;

¹⁵ of Harim, Adna;

of Meraioth, Helkai;

¹⁶ of Iddo, Zechariah;

of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

¹⁷ of Abijah, Zikri;

of Miniamin and of Moadiah, Piltai;

¹⁸ of Bilgah, Shammua;

of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

¹⁹ of Joiarib, Mattenai;

of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

²⁰ of Sallu, Kallai;

of Amok, Eber;

²¹ of Hilkiyah, Hashabiah;

and of Jedaiah, Nethanel.

²² The Levites, as well as the priests, were recorded as the chiefs of the fathers' houses in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua during the reign of Darius the Persian. ²³ The descendants of Levi who served as the chiefs of the fathers' house were recorded in the book of the chronicles until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib. ²⁴ The leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers across from them, to praise and to give thanks, section opposite section, according to the commandment of David the man of God.

²⁵ Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers maintaining the guard duty at the storehouse of the gates. ²⁶ These leaders served during the days of Joiakim the son of Joshua, the son of Jozadak, during the days of Nehemiah the governor, and during the days of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

Nehemiah Dedicates the City Wall

²⁷ At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought to bring the Levites from all their places to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication appropriately with thanksgiving songs and singing, accompanied by cymbals, harps, and lyres. ²⁸ The members of choirs had assembled from the regions all around Jerusalem, from the villages of the Netophathites, ²⁹ from Beth Gilgal, and from fields of Geba and Azmaveth, because they had built villages for themselves all around Jerusalem. ³⁰ Then the priests and the Levites purified themselves. They also purified the people, the gates, and the wall.

³⁸ The second thanksgiving choir proceeded to the left where I followed them with the other half of the people on top of the wall, from the Tower of the Furnaces to the Broad Wall, ³⁹ then from above the Ephraim Gate past the Old Gate, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel, and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate, but they stood still at the Gate of the Guard.

⁴⁰ So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the house of God, as did I and the half of the officials with me, ⁴¹ and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets, ⁴² and Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loudly. Jezrahiah was their director. ⁴³ On that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced because God had given them great cause for rejoicing. The wives and the children rejoiced, too. From far away the joyful celebration of Jerusalem was heard.

Temple Responsibilities

⁴⁴ At that time men were appointed to govern over the chambers for the treasures, for the contributions, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, so that they might gather into them out of the fields of the cities the legal portions belonging to the priests and Levites. This was because the celebration of Judah survived on the basis of the priests and the Levites ⁴⁵ who, accompanied by the singers and the gatekeepers, attentively preserved the practices of their God and the practices of purification, according to the commandment of David and of his son Solomon. ⁴⁶ For in the former days of David and Asaph there were leaders for the singers, the songs of praise, and thanksgivings to God. ⁴⁷ All Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and Nehemiah gave the singers and the gatekeepers their portions, as specified daily. Likewise, they consecrated what was due to the Levites, who then consecrated what was due to the descendants of Aaron.

The Reforms of Nehemiah

13 On that day they read aloud from the Book of Moses in the hearing of the people. In it there was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever enter the congregation of God, ² because they did not meet the children of Israel with bread and water, but hired Balaam to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing. ³ When they heard the Law, they separated from Israel all the racially mixed.

⁴ Before this, Eliashib the priest, who had been appointed to govern the chambers of the house of our God, was related to Tobiah. ⁵ So, he had prepared a great chamber hall for him, where previously they had stored the contributions, the frankincense, the vessels, and the tithes of grain, new wine, and fresh oil, as required, for the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the contribution for the priests.

⁶ But during this time I was not in Jerusalem, since in the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes of Babylon I had gone to the king. At the conclusion of those days I requested a leave of the king. ⁷ When I came to Jerusalem and understood the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah by preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God, ⁸ I was very grieved. So, from the chamber I threw all of the household belongings of Tobiah outside. ⁹ Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers so that I could return there the vessels of the house of God, the contributions for the offerings, and the frankincense.

¹⁰ When I perceived that the supplies for the Levites had not been given and that the Levites and the singers doing the work had fled, everyone to his own field, ¹¹ I confronted the officials and asked, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" So I gathered them and stationed them at their posts.

¹² Then all Judah brought the tithe of the grain, the new wine, and the fresh oil to the storehouses.

¹³ Overseeing the replenishing of the storehouse, I appointed Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah from the Levites, and to assist them Hanan the son of Zakkur, the son of Mattaniah, for they were considered reliable, and their task was to distribute to their relatives.

¹⁴ Remember me, O my God, concerning this. Do not blot out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God and its workings.

¹⁵ In those days I saw in Judah some treading wine-presses on the Sabbath or hauling loads of grain or loading donkeys with wine, grapes, figs, and all manner of burdens in order to bring them to Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. So, during the day while they were selling the food goods, I warned them. ¹⁶ Men of Tyre also stayed there, having hauled in fish and all kinds of merchandise, and sold them on the Sabbath to the people of Judah, and in Jerusalem. ¹⁷ Then I confronted the nobles of Judah and asked them, "What is this evil thing that you are doing, profaning the Sabbath day? ¹⁸ Did not your fathers do likewise? Did not our God bring all this evil against us and against this city? Will you yet bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the Sabbath?"

¹⁹ As the gates of Jerusalem began to cast the evening shadow before the Sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. Some of my servants I stationed at the gates so that there would be no loads brought in on the Sabbath day. ²⁰ Once or twice the merchants and sellers of all kind of merchandise lodged outside Jerusalem. ²¹ So I warned them and said to them, "Why do you spend the night next to the wall? If you do so again, I will send you away by force." From that time on they stopped coming on the Sabbath. ²² Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves so that they could come and, as guardians of the gates, sanctify the Sabbath day.

Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to Your abundant mercy.

²³ Moreover, in those days I also saw Jews who had married the women of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab.

²⁴ Half of their children spoke in the language of Ashdod, yet none of them could recognize the language of the Jews. This was true language by language. ²⁵ So I confronted them and cursed them. Some of the men I beat. Others, I plucked out their hair. Also, I made them swear an oath by God and said to them, "You shall neither give your daughters to their sons, nor marry their daughters to your sons or to yourselves. ²⁶ Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations there was no king like him. He was loved by his God, who made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless, foreign women caused even him to sin. ²⁷ Should we then listen to you, the ones doing all this great evil, who are behaving unfaithfully against our God by bedding foreign women?"

²⁸ Also, one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was a son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite, so I drove him away from me.

²⁹ Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites.

³⁰ Thus I purified them from everything foreign and appointed work crews for the priests and the Levites, each to his task, ³¹ and I provided the wood offering, at the appointed times, and the first fruits.

Remember me, O my God, for good.

ESTHER

The book of Esther was likely written between 460 and 350 BC. Its author is unknown, though some suggest Mordecai, Ezra, or Nehemiah. The theme concerns God's providential care over His people as they live in the Diaspora. This book records events when the Jews were captives in Persia in about 480 BC. It tells the story of a young woman placed by circumstances beyond her control in a position where she eventually became queen and was instrumental in saving her people from a massacre. The book of Esther beautifully depicts God's sovereign role—although God is nowhere mentioned—in preserving His people.

Queen Vashti Deposed

1 Now in the days of Ahasuerus, also called Xerxes, who reigned from India to Ethiopia, over one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, ² in those days, the palace where King Ahasuerus sat on the royal throne of his kingdom was in Susa. ³ In the third year of his reign, he prepared a feast for all his officials and his servants. So the army commanders of Persia and Media, the nobles, and the officials of the provinces were before him.

⁹ Additionally, Vashti the queen prepared a feast for the women in the royal house of King Ahasuerus.

¹⁰ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Karkas, the seven eunuchs attending to the needs of King Ahasuerus, ¹¹ to bring Queen Vashti before the king with the royal crown, to unveil her beauty to the people and the officials, for she was beautiful. ¹² But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command delivered by his eunuchs. Therefore, the king grew very angry, and his wrath burned within him.

¹³ Then the king spoke to the wise men, who understood the times (for in this way the king would speak before all who understood law and judgment).

¹⁴ Those nearest him were Karshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memukan. They were the seven princes of Persia and Media and the king's closest confidants who met with the king and held the highest rank in the kingdom.

¹⁶ And Memukan answered before the king and the princes, "Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king but also all the princes and all the people who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus. ¹⁷ For should this matter of the queen spread to all wives, then they would look with contempt on their husbands when it is reported that, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, but she never came.' ¹⁸ This very day the noble ladies of Persia and Media, who hear of the queen's act, will say the same thing to all the king's princes. Then there will be more contempt and wrath.

¹⁹ "If it pleases the king, let a royal decree be sent by him, and let it be written in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it may not be altered, that Vashti can never enter into the presence of King Ahasuerus, and that the king will give her royal position to another woman who is better than she. ²⁰ When the king's decree that he shall make is proclaimed throughout all his empire (for it is vast), then all the wives shall give honor to their husbands, both the prominent and lowly."

²² He sent letters to all the king's provinces, in the script of every province and in the language of every people group, bearing the message in the languages of his people that each man should rule over his own house.

Esther Becomes Queen

2 After these things, as the rage of King Ahasuerus abated, he became mindful of Vashti, what she had done and what was decreed against her. ² So the king's servants who attended him said, "Let beautiful young virgins be sought for the king! ³ Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom so that they may gather all the beautiful young virgins to the citadel of Susa, to the harem under the custody of Hegai the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the harem, and let ointments and cosmetics be given to them. ⁴ May the young woman who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." And the idea pleased the king, so he acted accordingly.

⁵ Now in the citadel of Susa, there was a certain Jew named Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite. ⁶ He had been taken away from Jerusalem among the exiles and carried into captivity along with King Jeconiah of Judah by King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. ⁷ He was the guardian of Hadassah, that is Esther (who was his uncle's daughter) because she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely to look at and beautiful in form. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her as his own daughter.

⁸ When the king's notice and his decree were heard, many young women were then gathered to the citadel of Susa and placed under the custody of Hegai. Esther was likewise brought to the king's house and placed under the custody of Hegai, who was in charge of the harem. ⁹ Because the young lady appeared pleasing to him and had gained favor in his sight, he quickly gave her the ointments and cosmetics, her allotted food, and seven young chosen women from the king's palace. He also transferred her and her young women to the best place of the harem.

¹⁰ Esther had not disclosed her people or her lineage because Mordecai had charged her not to disclose it. ¹¹ Every day Mordecai walked around the courtyard of the harem to find out how Esther fared and what might be done with her.

¹² The turn came for each young woman to go in to King Ahasuerus, after being twelve months under the regulations for the women, since this was the regular period of their beautifying, six months with oil of myrrh and six months with spices and ointments for women. ¹³ When the young woman went in to the king in this way, she was given whatever she desired to take with her from the harem to take to the king's palace. ¹⁴ In the evening she went in, and in the morning she returned to the second harem in custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, who was in charge of the concubines. She did not go in to the king again unless the king delighted in her and called for her by name.

¹⁵ When the turn came for Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her as his own daughter, to go in to the king, she asked for nothing except what the king's eunuch Hegai, who had charge of the women, advised. Now Esther obtained favor in the sight of all who saw her. ¹⁶ So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus at his royal house in the month of Tebeth, which is the tenth month, in the seventh year of his reign.

¹⁷ The king loved Esther more than any other woman because she had gained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins. So he set the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti. ¹⁸ The king held a great feast for all his officials and servants. It was a feast for Esther. He remitted his provinces from tax payments and gave gifts according to his royal generosity.

Mordecai Uncovers a Plot

¹⁹ At the second gathering of the virgins, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate. ²⁰ Esther had not yet disclosed her lineage or her people, since Mordecai had so commanded her. Esther followed the command of Mordecai just as she had when under his protection.

²¹ During those days when Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, who served as keepers of the door, became angry and sought to attack King Ahasuerus. ²² But the matter became known to Mordecai, and he reported it to Queen Esther, and Esther reported it to the king in the name of Mordecai. ²³ When the matter was investigated and confirmed, both men were hanged on the gallows, and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the presence of the king.

Haman Plots to Destroy the Jews

3 After these things King Ahasuerus praised Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and promoted him, and set his seat above all the officials who were with him. ² All the king's servants, when they were at the king's gate, bowed or paid homage to Haman since the king had commanded it. Mordecai, however, never bowed or paid homage.

³ So the king's servants tending the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why are you transgressing the king's commandment?" ⁴ Though they spoke to him daily, he never listened to them, so they reported it to Haman to see if the words of Mordecai would stand, for Mordecai had told them that he was a Jew.

⁵ When Haman saw that Mordecai neither bowed nor paid him homage, he was filled with rage. ⁶ But he disdained to lay hands on only Mordecai, since they had told him of the people of Mordecai. So Haman sought to destroy all the Jews throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.

⁷ In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur (that is, cast lots) before Haman daily, and each month, until the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, to determine the time.

⁸ Then Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There exists a scattered people dispersed among the other peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom. Their laws are different from all others, and they are not complying with the king's laws, so there may not be a suitable reason for the king to allow them to exist. ⁹ If it pleases the king, may it be written that they are to be destroyed, and may there be ten thousand talents of silver † deposited into the king's treasuries so that I may distribute it to the hands of those doing the work."

¹⁰ The king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews. ¹¹ The king said to Haman, "The silver has been granted to you, as have the people, so do with each as it pleases you."

¹² Then the king's scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month, and a decree was written just as Haman had commanded to the king's satraps and to the governors over each province and to the officials of all peoples and to every province according to its own script, and to every people in their language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's signet ring. ¹³ The letters were sent by mounted couriers into all the king's provinces to cause the destruction, slaughter, and annihilation of all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and even to plunder their possessions. ¹⁴ A copy of the document, issued as law in every province, was proclaimed, calling for all people to be ready for the day.

¹⁵ The couriers went out, being hastened by the king's command. At the citadel of Susa, when the decree was issued, the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in uproar.

Esther Helps the Jews

4 When Mordecai learned all that had been done, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and bitter cry. ² He went as far as the king's gate because no one was allowed to enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. ³ In each and every province where the king's command and his decree came there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

⁴ So the young women of Esther and her eunuchs came and told her of it. The queen was then seized by anguish. She sent garments to clothe Mordecai so that he could remove his sackcloth, but he would not accept them. ⁵ So Esther summoned Hathak, one of the king's eunuchs appointed to attend her, and commanded him concerning Mordecai to learn what this was about and why.

† About 375 tons, or 340 metric tons.

⁶ So Hathak went out to where Mordecai was in the area of the city in front of the king's gate. ⁷ Mordecai told him about all that had happened to him and about the sum of silver that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews. ⁸ Mordecai also gave him a copy of the written decree issued in Susa concerning their destruction so he could show Esther, tell her about it, and then charge her to go to the king in order to gain him favor with the king and to make requests in the presence of the king for her people.

⁹ Hathak returned and told Esther the words of Mordecai. ¹⁰ Again Esther spoke to Hathak and ordered him to reply to Mordecai: ¹¹ "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces know that whoever, whether man or woman, wishes to come to the king at the inner court but has not been summoned, there is one law—to put him to death—unless for some reason the king should hold out the golden scepter so that he might live. I, however, have not been summoned to come to the king for these thirty days."

¹² So all the words of Esther were told to Mordecai. ¹³ Then Mordecai told them to reply to Esther, "Do not think that in the king's palace you will be more likely to escape than all the other Jews. ¹⁴ For if you remain silent at this time, protection and deliverance for the Jews will be ordained from some other place, but you and your father's house shall be destroyed. And who knows if you may have attained royal position for such a time as this?"

¹⁵ Then Esther replied, sending back to Mordecai: ¹⁶ "Go, gather all the Jews who can be found in Susa, then fast for me. Stop eating and drinking for three days, night or day. I and my young women will fast likewise. Only then would I dare go to the king since it is not allowed by law, and if I perish, I perish."

¹⁷ So Mordecai went away and did exactly as Esther had commanded him.

Queen Esther's Banquet

5 On the third day, Esther put on her royal apparel and positioned herself in the king's palace courtyard so that she would be directly in line with the part of the king's throne room where the king sat facing the entrance of the room on his royal throne in the royal hall. ² When the king saw Queen Esther standing quietly out in the courtyard, she gained favor in his sight, so the king held out the golden scepter in his hand to Esther. Esther approached and touched the top of the scepter.

³ And the king said to her, "Queen Esther, what do you want? What is your request? Even if it is up to half of the kingdom, it will be given to you."

⁴ Esther answered, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come today to a feast that I have prepared for him."

⁵ Then the king said, "Quickly bring Haman so that we may accept the invitation of Esther."

So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared. ⁶ While drinking wine the king said to Esther, "For whatever you ask, it shall be granted you. So, what is your request? Even if it is for as much as half of the kingdom, it shall be done."

⁷ Then Esther replied and said, "This is my petition and request. ⁸ If I have won the king's favor, and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, then let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and tomorrow I will do what the king says."

Haman's Plan to Destroy Mordecai

⁹ Haman left that day joyfully and with a glad heart, but when Haman saw Mordecai at the king's gate, that he neither stood up nor trembled because of him, then Haman was full of indignation against Mordecai. ¹⁰ Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself, and when he came to his home, he sent for his friends and for his wife Zeresh.

¹⁴ Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends suggested to him, "Let a gallows fifty cubits [†] tall be constructed, and in the morning ask the king if Mordecai can be hanged on it. Then go merrily with the king to the banquet." And the suggestion pleased Haman, so he had the gallows constructed.

The King Honors Mordecai

6 During that night the king could not sleep, so he ordered that the book of memorable acts (the chronicles) be brought, and they were read before the king. ² It was found written that Mordecai had informed on Bigthana and Teresh, the two eunuchs of the king *servi*ng as the keepers of the door, who had sought to assault King Ahasuerus.

³ So the king said, "What honor or dignity has been done for Mordecai as a result of this?"

Then the king's servants attending him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

⁴ So the king said, "Who is out in the courtyard?" Now Haman had just then entered from across the palace courtyard in order to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

⁵ The king's attendants said to him, "Haman is waiting in the court."

So the king said, "Let him enter."

⁶ And Haman entered. Now the king said to him, "What should be done for the man whom the king desires to honor?"

Haman thought in his heart, "Who more than me would the king desire to honor?" ⁷ So Haman answered the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor, ⁸ let royal apparel be brought that the king himself has worn, and a horse on which the king has ridden, which has a royal insignia on its head. ⁹ Let the apparel and horse for this man be handled by one of the king's noble officials in order to dress the man whom the king delights to honor, as well as to lead him on horseback throughout the city. Finally, let him proclaim before him, 'Like this it shall be done for the man whom the king delights to honor.'"

¹⁰ Then the king said to Haman, "Quickly take the apparel and the horse, as you have said, and do so for Mordecai, the Jew sitting at the king's gate. Of everything you have spoken, do not fall short of any of it."

¹¹ So Haman took the apparel and the horse, arrayed Mordecai, led him on horseback throughout the city, and proclaimed before him, "Like this it shall be done for the man whom the king delights to honor."

¹² As Mordecai returned again to the king's gate, Haman hurried to his house, mourning with his head covered. ¹³ Haman recounted to his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him.

Then his wise friends and his wife Zeresh said to him, "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, is of Jewish lineage, then you will not be victorious over him. Rather, you will surely fall before him."

¹⁴ While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived and rushed Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

Haman Executed

7 So the king and Haman entered to feast and drink with Queen Esther. ² The king repeated to Esther what he had said on the previous day while drinking wine, "For what are you asking, Queen Esther? It shall be granted to you. Now, what is your request? Even if it is half of the kingdom, it will be done!"

³ Queen Esther replied, "If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it pleases the king, at my petition, let my life be given me, and my people at my request. ⁴ For we have been sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to be annihilated. If only we had been sold as male and female slaves, I could have kept quiet, for that distress would not be sufficient to trouble the king."

⁵ Then King Ahasuerus answered and demanded of Queen Esther, "Who is he, and where is he, who would dare presume in his heart to do so?"

⁶ Esther said, "This wicked Haman is the adversary and enemy!"

Then Haman was seized with terror before the king and the queen. ⁷ And the king arose from the banquet of wine in his wrath and went into the palace garden. But Haman remained to plead for his life from Queen Esther, for he saw that harm was determined against him by the king.

[†] About 75 feet, or 23 meters.

⁸ Now the king returned from the palace garden back to the hall of the banquet as Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, "Will he also violate the queen while I am in the room?"

As the shout erupted from the king's mouth, they covered the face of Haman. ⁹ Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs in the king's presence, said, "The gallows, fifty cubits † high, which Haman had constructed for Mordecai (who had spoken good on behalf of the king), stands at the house of Haman."

¹⁰ Then the king said, "Hang him on it!" So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath was pacified.

Esther Saves the Jews

8 On that day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Mordecai came before the king because Esther disclosed who he was to her. ² The king took off his signet ring, which he had taken away from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther appointed Mordecai over the house of Haman.

³ Then Esther spoke again to the king and fell down at his feet and begged him with tears to avert the evil of Haman the Agagite, and the scheme that he had devised against the Jews. ⁴ When the king held out the golden scepter to Esther, she rose and stood before the king, ⁵ and said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and the idea seems right before the king, and I have his approval, then let it be written to reverse the letters, devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces. ⁶ For how am I able to watch the evil that will unfold against my people? How can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?"

⁷ Then King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "See, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and they have hanged him on the gallows because he threatened violence against the Jews.

⁸ Now, as it suits you, write in the king's name on behalf of the Jews and seal it with the king's signet ring, because a document written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring cannot be repealed."

⁹ The king's scribes were summoned at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Sivan, on the twenty-third day; and everything was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, to the satraps, the governors, and the princes of the provinces from India to Ethiopia, one hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to every province in its own script, to every people in their own language, and to the Jews in their script and language. ¹⁰ He wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed it with the king's signet ring, sent letters by couriers on horseback, riding steeds bred from mares from the royal stables.

¹¹ What the king granted to the Jews in each and every city was the right to assemble and to defend their lives by annihilating, slaying, and destroying any army of any people or any province that would assault them, the little children and women included, and to plunder their possessions. ¹² This would happen on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, namely, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (which is the month Adar). ¹³ A copy of the edict being issued as law in each and every province was published to all people, so that the Jews could be ready for this day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

¹⁴ So the couriers riding on royal steeds went out with haste and urgency by the king's edict. The decree was given at the citadel of Susa.

¹⁵ Mordecai went out from the king's presence in royal apparel of blue and white, with a large crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple. The city of Susa erupted with shouts of rejoicing. ¹⁶ To the Jews belonged light, gladness, joy, and honor. ¹⁷ In each and every province as well as in each and every city, wherever the king's edict and his decree reached, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast, and a holiday. Furthermore, many of the people of the land professed to be Jews because the dread of the Jews fell on them.

The Jews Destroy Their Enemies

9 Now in the twelfth month (that is, the month Adar), on the thirteenth day, when the king's edict and his decree were to be carried out on the day that the enemies of the Jews had hoped to have power over them, things were turned around. The Jews gained power over those who hated them. ² The Jews had assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus in order to forcibly assault those seeking their injury. No man could stand before them because the dread of them had fallen on all people. ³ All the rulers of the provinces, and the satraps, and the governors, and all those doing the work of the king were helping the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them. ⁴ For Mordecai had become great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces because Mordecai grew more powerful.

⁵ So the Jews struck all their enemies by sword, slaughtering and destroying them, and doing to those who hated them as they pleased. ⁶ In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men, ⁷ along with Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, ⁸ Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, ⁹ Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha. ¹⁰ These were the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, whom they killed, but on their plunder none of the Jews attempted to take it.

¹¹ On that day the number of those who were killed in the citadel of Susa was reported before the king.

¹² The king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in the citadel of Susa and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you! What is your request further? It shall be done!"

¹³ Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews in Susa to do again tomorrow according to this day's decree. Let the ten sons of Haman be hanged on the gallows."

¹⁴ So the king commanded that it be so done, and the decree was given at Susa, and they hanged the ten sons of Haman.

¹⁵ The Jews in Susa assembled again on the fourteenth day of the month Adar and killed three hundred more there, but on the plunder no one attempted to take it.

¹⁶ But the rest of the Jews in the king's provinces assembled to defend their lives. Some had rest from their enemies, while others killed seventy-five thousand of those who hated them, but no one took from the plunder. ¹⁷ Because this occurred on the thirteenth day of the month Adar, they rested on the fourteenth day and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

The Feast of Purim Established

¹⁸ Because the Jews in Susa had assembled on the thirteenth day and the fourteenth day of Adar, then on the fifteenth day they rested and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing.

¹⁹ Therefore, the Jews of the rural areas, who were living in the villages, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of rejoicing and feasting and a special day for sending portions of food to one another.

²⁰ Mordecai recorded these events and sent letters to all the Jews throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far, ²¹ in order to institute for them the celebration for the fourteenth day and the fifteenth day of the month of Adar, each and every year, ²² like the days when the Jews had rest from their enemies, and like the month when things turned around for them— changing from sorrow to joy and from mourning into a favorable day—so that they could celebrate a season of feasting and rejoicing and sending food portions to one another and gifts to the poor.

²³ So the Jews accepted what had begun as tradition as Mordecai had written to them. ²⁴ Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur (that is, cast lots), to crush and destroy them. ²⁵ But when Esther came before the king, he ordered by letter that the wicked plot which Haman had devised against the Jews should come upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. ²⁶ Therefore, they call these days Purim on the basis of the name Pur. Furthermore, based on all the information of this letter, along with what they had seen in this regard and what had happened to them, ²⁷ the Jews instituted and accepted as tradition for themselves, for their descendants, and for all joining with them not to fail in observing the celebration of these two days as prescribed and as specified in each and every year. ²⁸ These days should be remembered and celebrated throughout every generation, every family, province, and city, so that these days of Purim will not lose their significance among the Jews, and the commemoration of these days will not cease among their descendants.

²⁹ Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter about Purim. ³⁰ He sent the letters to all the Jews, to the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with instructions for peace and truth ³¹ in order to confirm these days of Purim at their appointed times, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had instituted for themselves and for their offspring, with the instructions for their times of fasting and their lamenting. ³² The command of Esther confirmed these traditions of Purim, and it was written in the book.

Mordecai's Greatness

10 Then King Ahasuerus charged a tribute on the land and on the coastal lands of the sea. ² All the deeds of his power and of his might, and the detailed record of the greatness of Mordecai, after the king promoted him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? ³ Indeed, Mordecai the Jew was second in power to King Ahasuerus. He was great among the Jews and popular with many of his countrymen, for he sought favor for his people, and spoke of peace and prosperity for all of his posterity.

JOB

The book of Job has no formal mention of authorship. Some scholars have suggested Job, Elihu, Moses, or Solomon. Since authorship cannot be established, neither can the date. While the events of Job are set in the patriarchal period, the book appears to have been composed much later, possibly in the monarchy with some of the other wisdom literature by Jewish scribes. Themes include God's sovereign rule of the earth, His goodness and justice, and the problem of suffering. Job deals with the crucial issue of how to understand suffering and evil when a person has been devoted to God and His worship. This book is the story of a wealthy Gentile named Job living in the land of Uz, somewhere possibly southeast of Israel near Edom. Job epitomizes the invisible, celestial war raging between good and evil. It also shows that God is in control and we are not, and that we cannot require God to give us a reason for what He chooses to do.

The Prologue

1 There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, fearing God and avoiding evil. 2 Seven sons and three daughters were born to him. 3 His possessions were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and very many servants. This man was the greatest of all the people of the East.

4 His sons used to go and make a feast in the house of each on his day, and they would send and call for their three sisters to eat and drink with them. 5 Now when the days of feasting had run their course, Job sent and sanctified them. He would rise up early in the morning, and he would offer burnt offerings according to the number of them all, because Job said: "It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts." Thus Job would do always.

6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and the Adversary also came among them. 7 And the LORD said to the Adversary, "From where have you come?"

Then the Adversary answered the LORD, saying, "From roaming on the earth, and from walking up and down on it."

8 And the LORD said to the Adversary, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and an upright man, who fears God, and avoids evil?"

9 Then the Adversary answered the LORD, saying, "Has Job feared God for nothing? 10 Have You not made a hedge around him, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land. 11 But stretch out Your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will curse You to Your face."

12 The LORD said to the Adversary, "Look, all that he has is in your power; only do not stretch out your hand against his person."

So the Adversary departed from the presence of the LORD.

13 So a day came when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, 14 and a messenger came to Job and said, "The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys were feeding beside them, 15 and the Sabeans attacked them, and took them away, and they killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and only I alone have escaped to tell you."

16 While he was still speaking, another came and said, "The fire of God fell from heaven and burned up the sheep and the servants and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

17 While he was still speaking, another came and said, "The Chaldeans formed three companies and made a raid on the camels and have taken them away. They killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

18 While he was still speaking, another came and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, 19 and suddenly a great wind came from the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young people, and they are dead; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

20 Then Job stood up, tore his robe, and shaved his head. He fell to the ground and worshipped. 21 He said,

"Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked will I return there.

The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD."

22 In all this Job did not sin, and he did not accuse God of wrongdoing.

2 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and the Adversary came also among them to present himself before the LORD. ²The LORD said to the Adversary, "From where do you come?"

And the Adversary answered the LORD, saying, "From roaming on the earth, and from walking up and down on it."

³The LORD said to the Adversary, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and an upright man, who fears God and avoids evil? He still holds fast his integrity, although you moved Me against him, to destroy him without cause."

⁴The Adversary answered the LORD, saying, "Skin for skin; yes, all that a man has he will give for his life.

⁵Put forth Your hand now and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse You to Your face."

⁶The LORD said to the Adversary, "Very well, he is in your hand, but spare his life."

⁷Therefore, the Adversary went out from the presence of the LORD, and he afflicted Job with severe sores from the sole of his foot to the top of his head.

⁸So he took a piece of broken pottery with which to scrape himself while he was sitting among the ashes.

⁹His wife said to him, "Are you still maintaining your integrity? Curse God and die."

¹⁰He said to her, "You talk like one of the foolish women talks. Will we indeed accept the good from God but not accept the adversity?"

In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

¹¹Three friends of Job heard about all this evil that had come upon him, and each one came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. They had agreed together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him. ¹²They saw him from a distance and did not recognize him, so they wept aloud. Each one tore his robe, and they tossed dust into the air above their heads. ¹³Then they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights. Meanwhile, no one was speaking to him at all because they saw that his pain was severe.

Job Laments His Birth

3 After this Job opened his mouth, and cursed the day of his birth. ²Job said:

³"Let the day perish in which I was born and the night in which it was said, 'A male child is conceived.'

⁴As for that day, let it be darkness; let God above not regard it; and let not light shine upon it.

⁵Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it; let a cloud settle on it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

⁶As for that night, let darkness capture it; let it not rejoice among the days of the year; let it not come into the number of the months.

⁷Yes, as for that night, let it be barren! Let no joyful cry come into it!

⁸Let them curse it who curse any day, those who are prepared to rouse Leviathan.

⁹Let its morning stars be dark; let it look for light, but have none; let it not see the rays of dawn, ¹⁰because it did not shut the doors of my mother's womb, nor hide trouble from my eyes.

¹¹"Why did I not die at birth?

Why did I not expire when I came out of the womb?

¹²Why did her knees receive me?

And why her breasts that I should nurse?

¹³For now I would be lying down and would be at peace;

I would have slept; then there would be rest for me,

¹⁴with kings and counselors of the earth, who built ruins for themselves, ¹⁵or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

¹⁶Or why was I not hidden like a stillborn child, like infants who never saw light?

¹⁷There the wicked will have stopped causing trouble, and there the exhausted will rest.

¹⁸Captives will relax together; they do not hear the voice of the oppressor.

¹⁹The small and great, they are there, and the servant is free from his master.

²⁰"Why is light given to the miserable, and life unto the bitter in soul,

²¹who look for death, but it is not there; and they search for it more than for hidden treasures;

²²who rejoice exceedingly, and they are glad when they find the grave?

²³And why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, whom God has hedged in?

²⁴For my sighing comes before I eat, and my groaning pours forth like the waters.

²⁵For the thing which I greatly feared has happened to me, and that which I dreaded has come to me.

²⁶I am not at peace; I have no quiet, I cannot rest, and turmoil has come."

Eliphaz Speaks: Job Has Sinned

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered: ²"If one attempts a word with you, will you be impatient?

But who can keep from speaking?

³Surely you have instructed many, and you have strengthened the weak hands.

⁴Your words have raised up him who was falling, and you have fortified the feeble knees.

⁵But now it comes upon you, and you are weary; it reaches even you, and you are terrified.

⁶Is not your reverence your confidence?

And the integrity of your ways your hope?
 7 "Remember now, who being innocent ever perished?
 Or where were the upright ever wiped out?
 8 Just like I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow trouble, reap the same.
 9 By the breath of God they perish, and by the blast of His anger they are destroyed.
 10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions are broken.
 11 The old lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.
 12 "Now a word was brought to me secretly, and my ear received a whisper of it.
 13 Amid disquieting thoughts from night visions, when deep sleep falls on mortals, 14 terror and trembling came to me, which made all my bones shake.
 15 A breath of wind was passing before my face, and the hair on my body was standing up.
 16 It stood still, but I could not recognize its appearance; a form was in front of my eyes, there was stillness, then I heard a voice saying:
 17 "Can a mortal be more righteous than God? Can a man be more pure than his Maker?
 18 He does not trust in His servants, and He charges His angels with error;
 19 Even more, those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth.
 20 They are broken in pieces from morning to evening; they perish forever without anyone regarding it.
 21 Are not their tent ropes plucked up, so they die, even without wisdom?"

Eliphaz: Job Is Chastised by God

5 "Call out now; is anyone answering you? And to whom among the holy ones will you turn?
 2 For anger slays the foolish man, and jealousy kills the gullible.
 3 Yes, I saw the foolish taking root, and quickly I cursed his dwelling.
 4 May his children be far from safety, and may they be crushed in the gate without a deliverer;
 5 whose harvest the hungry eats up, and takes it even out of the thorns, and the thirsty captures his wealth.
 6 For affliction does not come out of the dust, nor does trouble sprout up out of the ground;
 7 but man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward.
 8 "Indeed, I would appeal to God, and before God I would set forth my case, 9 who does the great and the inscrutable, wonders without number.

 10 He gives rain on the surface of the earth and sends water on the outdoor places.
 11 He sets on high those who are lowly, and those who mourn are lifted to safety.
 12 He frustrates the schemes of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their plans.
 13 He catches the wise in their own craftiness, and the scheme of the shrewd is swiftly stopped.
 14 In the daytime they encounter darkness, and at noontime they grope as in the night.
 15 But the needy He saves from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.
 16 So the helpless has hope, and injustice shuts her mouth.
 17 "How happy is the man whom God corrects! Therefore do not despise the discipline of the Almighty, 18 for He wounds, but He applies the bandage; He injures, but His hands also heal.
 19 In six crises He will deliver you; even in seven, disaster will not touch you.
 20 In famine He will redeem you from death, and in war from the power of the sword.
 21 You will be hidden from the lash of the tongue, and you will not fear violence when it comes.
 22 You will laugh at devastation and famine, and you will not fear wild animals.
 23 For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you.
 24 You will know that your tent is peaceful, and you will inspect your property and find nothing missing.
 25 You will know that your offspring will be many and your descendants as the grass of the earth.
 26 You go to the grave in a full age, as stalks of grain are gathered up in season.
 27 "Look! We have investigated all this, and it is so; hear it, and know for yourself."

Job Replies: My Complaint Is Just

6 But Job answered:
 2 "O that my grief were fully weighed, and my calamity laid with it on the scales!
 3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea; therefore my words are stuck in my throat.
 4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me; my spirit drinks in their poison; the terrors of God are arrayed against me.
 5 Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass? Or the ox bellow over his fodder?
 6 Is tasteless food eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
 7 My soul refuses to touch them; they are like loathsome food to me.

8 "O that I might have my request, and that God would grant me the thing that I long for!
9 That it would please God to crush me, that He would let loose His hand and cut me off!
10 Then I would still have comfort;
I would revel in pain; it will not subside, for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.
11 "What strength do I have, that I should hope?
And what is my end, that I should prolong my life?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones?
Or is my flesh made of brass?
13 Is there no help within me?
And is success banished from me?
14 "A despairing man should be shown kindness from his friend,
or he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.
15 My brothers have acted deceitfully like a riverbed, like the streams of the river beds that run dry;
16 which are dark because of the ice, and into which the snow disappears.
17 In time they are scorched; they vanish!
When it is hot, they disappear from their place.
18 The caravans of their way turn aside;
they go nowhere, and they perish.
19 The caravans of Tema looked,
the travelers of Sheba hoped for them.
20 They were disappointed because they were confident;
they arrived there and were dismayed.
21 For now you are nothing;
you see terror and are afraid.
22 Did I say, 'Give to me?'
or, 'Out of your wealth, bribe me?'
23 or, 'Deliver me from the power of the enemy?'
or, 'From the power of the oppressors, liberate me?'
24 "Teach me, and I will hold my tongue, and make me understand how I have erred.
25 How forceful are right words!
But what does your arguing prove?
26 Do you mean to correct my words, and treat my desperate words as wind?
27 Yes, you cast lots for the fatherless, and you bargain over your friend.
28 "And now, please give me your attention, for surely I will not lie to you.
29 Turn, I pray, let there be no injustice!
Yes, turn again, my righteousness still stands!
30 Is there injustice on my tongue?
Cannot my taste discern pernicious things?

Job: My Suffering Is Endless

7 "Is there not a time of hard service for a man upon earth?
Are not his days also like the days of a hired worker?
2 Like a servant, he longs for the shade, and like a hired worker, he looks for his wages, 3 So I have been assigned months of futility, and nights of trouble have been appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say,
'When will I arise and the night be ended?'
And I am full of restlessness until the dawn.
5 My flesh is covered with worms and caked with dirt;
my skin is broken, and has become loathsome.
6 "My days fly more swiftly than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.
7 Oh, remember that my life is a breath!
My eye will never again see good.
8 The eye of him who sees me will behold me no more;
Your eyes will be on me, but I will be no more.
9 As the cloud disappears and vanishes away, so he who goes down to Sheol will come up no
more.
10 He will never return to his house,
and his place will not recognize him anymore.
11 "Therefore, I will not restrain my mouth;
I will speak in the anguish of my spirit;
I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
12 Am I the sea, or a sea monster, that You set a guard over me?
13 When I say, 'My bed will comfort me, my couch will ease my complaint,' 14 then You scare me with dreams and terrify me with visions, 15 so that my soul chooses strangling, even death rather than my life.
16 I loathe my life; I would not live forever;
let me alone, for my days are emptiness.
17 "What is man, that You should exalt him, and that You should set Your heart on him, 18 and that You should visit him every morning, and test him every moment?
19 How long until You look away from me?
Will You not let me alone until I swallow my saliva?
20 Have I sinned? What am I doing to You,
O You watcher of men?
Why have You set me as Your target,
so that I am a burden to myself?
21 And why do You not pardon my transgression and take away my iniquity?
For now I will lie down in the dust;
and You will seek me diligently, but I will not be."

Bildad Speaks: Job Should Repent

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
2 "How long will you speak these things, and the words of your mouth be like a strong wind?
3 Does God pervert judgment?
Or does the Almighty pervert justice?
4 If your children sinned against Him,
He cast them away for their transgression.
5 If you yourself would seek God earnestly, and seek favor from the Almighty, 6 if you were pure and upright, surely now He would rouse Himself on your behalf, and He would prosper your righteous dwelling.

 7 Though your beginning was small,
 your end will increase greatly.
 8 "Please, ask the former generation, and prepare yourself for what their fathers searched out;
 9 for we were born but yesterday and know nothing, because our days on earth are a shadow.
 10 Will they not teach you, and tell you,
 and bring forth words out of their heart?
 11 Can the papyrus grow up without a marsh?
 Can the reed grow without water?
 12 While it is yet green and not cut down,
 it withers before any other plant.
 13 So are the paths of all who forget God;
 and the hypocrite's hope will perish, 14 whose confidence will be cut off, and whose trust will be a spider's web.
 15 He will lean upon his house, but it will not stand;
 he will hold it fast, but it will not endure.
 16 He is green before the sun,
 and his branch shoots forth in his garden.
 17 His roots are wrapped around the rock heap, and he sees the place of stones.
 18 If he is uprooted from his place, then it will deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.'
 19 See, this is the joy of his way, and out of the ground others will grow.
 20 "Surely, God will not cast away a perfect man, nor will He strengthen the evildoers, 21 until He fills your mouth with laughing, and your lips with rejoicing.
 22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame, and the dwelling place of the wicked will come to nothing."

Job Replies: There Is No Mediator

9 Then Job answered:
 2 "Truly, I know it is so,
 but how can a man be righteous with God?
 3 If one would dispute with Him,
 he cannot answer Him once in a thousand times.
 4 He is wise in heart and mighty in strength.
 Who has hardened himself against Him and prospered?
 5 He who removes mountains, and they know not,
 who overturns them in His anger.
 6 He who shakes the earth out of its place,
 and its pillars tremble.
 7 He who commands the sun, and it does not rise;
 he seals off the stars.
 8 He who alone spreads out the heavens, and treads on the waves of the sea.
 9 He who makes the Bear, Orion, and Pleiades, and the constellations of the south.
 10 He who does great things, beyond discovery, yes, and wonders beyond number.

11 Yes, He would cross before me, and I would not see Him;
 He would pass on by, but I would not perceive Him.
 12 Yes, He takes away; who can hinder Him?
 Who will say to Him, 'What are You doing?'
 13 God will not withdraw His anger.
 The proud helpers bow down beneath Him.
 14 "How, then, can I myself answer Him, and choose my words to reason with Him?
 15 Even if I were righteous I could not answer;
 I would plead to my Judge for favor.
 16 If I called, and He answered me,
 I would not believe that He had listened to my voice.
 17 For He crushes me with a storm and multiplies my wounds without cause.
 18 He will not allow me to get my breath,
 but fills me with bitterness.
 19 If it is a matter of strength, indeed, He is strong;
 and if of justice, who will set me a time to plead?
 20 Though I were righteous, my own mouth would condemn me;
 though I were perfect, it would prove me perverse.
 21 "Though I were perfect,
 I would not know myself;
 I would despise my life.
 22 It is all one thing; therefore I said,
 'He destroys both the perfect and the wicked.'
 23 If the whip kills suddenly,
 He will laugh at the trial of the innocent.
 24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked.
 He covers the faces of its judges.
 If it is not He, then who is it?
 25 "Now my days are swifter than a runner;
 they flee away, they see no good.
 26 They pass by like reed skiffs, like an eagle rushing upon its prey.
 27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint;
 I will leave off my sad face and brighten up,'
 28 I am afraid of all my sorrows;
 I know that You will not hold me innocent.
 29 If I am guilty,
 why then do I labor in vain?
 30 If I wash myself with snow water and cleanse my hands with soap, 31 yet You will plunge me into the pit,
 and my own clothes will abhor me.
 32 "For He is not a man as I am, that I should answer
 Him,
 and we should come together in judgment.
 33 Nor is there a mediator between us, who may lay his hand upon us both.
 34 Let Him take His rod away from me, and let not dread of Him terrify me.
 35 Then I would speak and not fear Him, but it is not so with me.

Job: I Abhor My Life

10 "My soul loathes my life;
I will freely give my complaint,
I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
2 I will say to God, Do not condemn me;
show me why You contend with me.
3 Is it good for You that You should oppress, that You should despise the work of Your hands and smile on the counsel of the wicked?
4 Do You have eyes of flesh?
Or do You see as man sees?
5 Are Your days as the days of man?
Are Your years as the days of a mortal,
6 that You inquire after my iniquity and search after my sin?
7 You know that I am not wicked, and there is none who can deliver out of Your hand.
8 "Your hands have shaped me and made me completely, yet You destroy me.
9 Remember, I pray,
that You have made me as the clay.
And would You return me to dust?
10 Have You not poured me out as milk and curdled me like cheese?
11 You have clothed me with skin and flesh, and have knit me together with bones and sinews.
12 You have granted me life and loyal love, and Your care has preserved my spirit.
13 "These things You have hid in Your heart.
I know that this is with You.
14 If I have sinned, then You would watch me, and You would not acquit me from my iniquity.
15 If I am wicked, woe unto me;
and if I am righteous, yet will I not lift up my head.
I am full of shame;
look at my affliction!
16 For if my head is lifted up, You would hunt me like a lion, and again You show Yourself marvelous to me.
17 You renew Your witnesses against me and increase Your indignation upon me.
Your troops come against me.
18 "Why then did You bring me forth out of the womb?
O that I had died, and no eye had seen me!
19 I should have been as though I had not been;
I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
20 Are not my days few? Stop then, and leave me alone that I may cheer up a little, 21 before I go and do not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death, 22 a land of darkness, as darkness itself;
and of the shadow of death, without any order,
and where the light is as thick darkness."

Zophar Speaks: Job Is Guilty

11 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered:
2 "Should not the multitude of words be answered?
And should a man full of talk be justified?
3 Should your empty talk make men hold their peace?
And when you mock, will no one shame you?
4 For you have said, 'My teaching is pure,
And I am clean in your eyes.'
5 But O that God would speak and open His lips against you,
6 and that He would show you the secrets of wisdom!
For they would double your prudence.
And know that God overlooks some of your iniquity.
7 "Can you search out the deep things of God?
Can you find out the totality of the Almighty?
8 It is as high as heaven; what can you do?
Deeper than Sheol; what can you know?
9 Its measure is longer than the earth and broader than the sea.
10 "If He passes through, and shuts up, and gathers together for judgment, then who can hinder Him?
11 For He knows worthless men;
He sees wickedness also; will He not then consider it?
12 For an empty-headed man will become wise, when a wild donkey's colt is born a man.
13 "If you prepare your heart and stretch out your hands toward Him; 14 if iniquity is in your hand, put it far away,
and do not let wickedness dwell in your tents;
15 for then you will lift up your face without blemish;
yes, you will be steadfast and will not fear, 16 because you will forget misery,
and remember it as waters that pass away, 17 and your life will be brighter than noonday, even your darkness will be as the morning.
18 You will trust because there is hope;
yes, you will search about you,
and you will look around and rest in safety.
19 Also you will lie down, and none will make you afraid;
yes, many will court your favor.
20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail,
and they will not escape,
and their hope will be as the giving up of breath."

Job Replies

12 And Job answered:
2 "No doubt but you are the people, and wisdom will die with you!
3 But I have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Yes, who does not know such things as these?
4 "I am a laughingstock to my neighbor, who calls upon God, and He answers him;

 the righteous, upright man is a laughingstock.
 5 He whose foot is unsteady is despised in the thoughts of him who is at ease.
 6 The tents of robbers are at peace, and those who provoke God are secure,
 into whose hand they bring their own god.
 7 "But now ask the beasts, and let them teach you;
 and the birds of the air, and let them tell you;
 8 or speak to the earth, let it teach you;
 and let the fish of the sea declare to you.
 9 Who among all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?
 10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing and the breath of all mankind?
 11 Does not the ear test words and the mouth taste its food?
 12 Wisdom is with the elderly, and understanding comes with long life.
 13 "With Him are wisdom and strength;
 He has counsel and understanding.
 14 Surely, He tears down, and it cannot be built again;
 He imprisons a man, and there can be no release.
 15 Surely, He withholds the waters, and they dry up;
 also He sends them out, and they overthrow the earth.
 16 With Him are strength and wisdom.
 The deceived and the deceiver are His.
 17 He leads counselors away stripped and makes fools of judges.
 18 He has loosened the bonds imposed by kings and bound their waist with a belt.
 19 He leads away priests stripped and overthrows the mighty.
 20 He removes speech from the trusted ones and takes away the understanding of the aged.
 21 He pours contempt upon princes and loosens the belt of the mighty.
 22 He uncovers deep things out of darkness and brings the shadow of death to light.
 23 He increases the nations, and destroys them;
 He enlarges the nations and guides them.
 24 He takes away the understanding of the chiefs of the people of the earth, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.
 25 They grope in the dark without light,
 and He makes them to stagger like a drunk man.
13 "Notice, my eye has seen all this;
 my ear has heard and understood it.
 2 What you know, I also know the same;
 I am not inferior to you.
 3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.
 4 But you are plasterers of falsehood;
 you are all physicians of no value.
 5 O that you would altogether hold your peace, and it would be your wisdom!

6 Hear now my reasoning,
 and listen to the pleadings of my lips.
 7 Will you speak wickedly for God?
 And talk deceitfully for Him?
 8 Will you take His side?
 Will you plead for God?
 9 Is it good that He would search you out?
 Or as one man mocks another, do you so mock Him?
 10 He will surely rebuke you,
 if you secretly show partiality.
 11 Will not His excellence make you afraid, and the dread of Him fall upon you?
 12 Your reminders are parables made of ashes;
 your answers are answers made of clay.
 13 "Hold your peace; leave me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what may!
 14 Why do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand?
 15 Though He slay me, yet will I trust in Him, †
 but I will defend my own ways before Him.
 16 He also will be my salvation,
 for a hypocrite could not come before Him.
 17 Listen carefully to my speech,
 and to my declaration with your ears.
 18 See now, I have prepared my case;
 I know that I will be justified.
 19 Who is he who will plead with me?
 For now, if I hold my tongue, I will give up my breath.
 20 "Only grant me two things,
 then I will not hide myself from You:
 21 Withdraw Your hand far from me,
 and let not the dread of You make me afraid.
 22 Then call, and I will answer;
 or let me speak, and You answer me.
 23 How many are my iniquities and sins?
 Make known to me my transgression and my sin.
 24 Why do You hide Your face and regard me as Your enemy?
 25 Will You frighten a leaf driven to and fro?
 And will You pursue dry stubble?
 26 For You write bitter things against me and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
 27 You put my feet in the stocks and watch closely all my paths;
 You draw a line around the soles of my feet.
 28 "Man, as a rotten thing, decays, as a garment that is moth eaten.
14 "Man who is born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble.
 2 He comes forth like a flower and withers;
 he flees like a shadow and does not continue.
 3 Do You open Your eyes on such a one,
 and bring me into judgment with You?
 4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?
 There is no one.
 5 Seeing his days are determined,

† Original Heb. a I have no hope.

the number of his months are with You;
 You have appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;
 6 turn from him, that he may rest, until he, as a hired man, finishes his day.
 7 "For there is hope for a tree,
 if it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
 and that its tender shoots will not cease.
 8 Though its root may grow old in the earth, and its stump may die in the ground, 9 yet at the scent of water it will bud and bring forth boughs like a plant.
 10 But man dies and wastes away;
 yes, man gives up his breath, and where is he?
 11 As the waters disappear from the sea, and the flood shrivels and dries up, 12 so man lies down and does not rise;
 until the heavens are no more, he will not awake,
 nor be raised out of his sleep.
 13 "O that You would hide me in the grave, that You would conceal me until Your wrath is past, that You would appoint me a set time and remember me!
 14 If a man dies, will he live again?
 All the days of my service I will wait, until my relief comes.
 15 You will call, and I will answer You;
 You will long for the work of Your hands.
 16 For now You number my steps;
 do You not observe my sin?
 17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag,
 and You plaster over my iniquity.
 18 "Surely the mountain falling comes to nothing, and the rock is removed out of its place.
 19 The waters wear away the stones;
 its overflow washes away the dust of the earth;
 and You destroy the hope of man.
 20 You prevail forever against him, and he passes on;
 changing his countenance, You send him away.
 21 His sons come to honor, and he does not know it;
 and they are brought low, but he does not perceive
 it.
 22 But his flesh on him will have pain, and his soul within him will mourn."

Eliphaz Speaks: Job Does Not Fear God

15 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:
 2 "Should a wise man reply with empty knowledge
 and fill his lungs with the east wind?
 3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk or with speeches with which he can do no good?
 4 Yes, you cast off reverence and hinder prayer before God.
 5 For your mouth utters your iniquity, and you choose the tongue of the crafty.
 6 Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;
 yes, your own lips testify against you.
 7 "Are you the first man who was born?

Or were you made before the hills?
 8 Have you heard the counsel of God?
 And do you restrict wisdom to yourself?
 9 What do you know that we do not know?
 What do you understand that is not in us?
 10 Both the gray-haired and very aged are among us—
 much older than your father.
 11 Are the consolations of God too small for you?
 Or the word spoken gently to you?
 12 Why does your heart carry you away?
 And what do your eyes wink at,
 13 that you turn your spirit against God,
 and let such words go out of your mouth?
 14 "What is man that he should be pure?
 And he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
 15 Behold, He puts no trust in His holy ones, and the heavens are not pure in His sight.
 16 How much more abhorred and corrupt is man, who drinks iniquity like water!
 17 "I will tell you; hear me, and what I have seen I will declare, 18 what wise men have told,
 not hiding anything received from their fathers, 19 to whom alone the land was given,
 and no foreigner passed among them:
 20 The wicked man travails with pain all his days, and numbered are the years stored up for the oppressor.
 21 A dreadful sound is in his ears;
 in prosperity the destroyer will come upon him.
 22 He does not believe that he will return from darkness,
 and a sword awaits him.
 23 He wanders about for bread, saying, 'Where is it?'
 He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.
 24 Trouble and anguish will make him afraid; they will prevail against him as a king ready to the battle.
 25 For he stretches out his hand against God,
 and strengthens himself against the Almighty.
 26 He rushes upon Him, even on His neck, with his thick embossed shield.
 27 He has covered his face with his fatness and gathered fat upon his waist.
 28 "He dwells in desolate cities and in houses which no man inhabits, which are ready to become heaps.
 29 He will not be rich, nor will his wealth continue, nor will his possessions spread over the earth.
 30 He will not depart out of darkness;
 the flame will dry out his branches,
 and by the breath of His mouth he will go away.
 31 Let him who is deceived not trust in futility, for futility will be his reward.
 32 It will be accomplished before his time, and his branch will not be green.

³³ He will shake off his unripe grape like the vine, and will cast off his blossom like the olive.

³⁴ For the company of hypocrites will be desolate, and fire will consume the tents of bribery.

³⁵ They conceive mischief, and give birth to futility;
their womb prepares deceit."

Job Replies: You Are Miserable Comforters

16 Then Job answered:

² "I have heard many such things;
miserable comforters are you all!

³ Will windy words have an end?
Or what provokes you that you answer?

⁴ I also could speak as you do, if your soul were in my place.

I could heap up words against you and shake my head at you;

⁵ but I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips would relieve your grief.

⁶ "Though I speak, my grief is not relieved;
and though I stop, how am I eased?

⁷ But now He has made me weary;
You have made desolate all my company.

⁸ You have filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me;

and my leanness has risen up and bears witness to my face.

⁹ He has torn me in His wrath, and He has carried a grudge against me.

He has gnashed me with His teeth;
my enemy sharpens His gaze upon me.

¹⁰ They have gaped upon me with their mouth;
they have struck me upon the cheek with reproach;
they have gathered themselves together against me.

¹¹ God has delivered me to the ungodly and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

¹² I was at ease, but He has shattered me.

He also has taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces,

and set me up for His target.

¹³ His archers surround me;

He splits open my kidneys and does not pity;
He pours out my gall upon the ground.

¹⁴ He pierces me with thrust after thrust;
He rushes upon me like a warrior.

¹⁵ "I have sewn sackcloth over my skin and thrust my horn into the dust.

¹⁶ My face is inflamed with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death,

¹⁷ though not for any violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.

¹⁸ "O earth, do not cover my blood, and let my cry have no resting place.

¹⁹ Also now, look, my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high.

²⁰ My friends scorn me;

my eyes pour out tears unto God.

²¹ Oh, that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleads for his neighbor!

²² For when a few years have passed,
I will go the way from which I will not return.

Job Prays for Relief

17 "My spirit is broken,
my days are extinguished,
the grave is ready for me.

² Are not mockers with me?

And does not my eye dwell on their provocation?

³ "Now put down a pledge for me with Yourself.
Who is he who will shake hands with me?

⁴ For You have hidden their heart from understanding.

Therefore will You not exalt them.

⁵ He who speaks flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children will fail.

⁶ "And He has made me a byword of the people, someone in whose face they spit.

⁷ My eye also is dim because of sorrow, and all my members are like a shadow.

⁸ Upright men will be astonished at this,
and the innocent will stir up himself against the hypocrite.

⁹ The righteous also will hold to his way, and he who has clean hands will be stronger and stronger.

¹⁰ "But as for you all, return and come now, for I cannot find one wise man among you.

¹¹ My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.

¹² They change the night into day;
the light is short because of darkness.

¹³ If I wait, the grave is my house;
I have made my bed in the darkness.

¹⁴ I have said to the pit, 'You are my father';
to the worm, 'You are my mother and my sister.'

¹⁵ Where now is my hope?

As for my hope, who will see it?

¹⁶ Will they go down to the gates of Sheol?
Will we descend together in the dust?"

Bildad Speaks: God Punishes the Wicked

18 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
² "How long will it be until you put an end to words?

Gain understanding, and afterwards we will speak.

³ Why are we counted as beasts and regarded as stupid in your sight?

⁴ You who tear yourself in anger, will the earth be forsaken for you?

And will the rock be removed from its place?

⁵ "Yes, the light of the wicked will be put out, and the spark of his fire will not shine.

⁶ The light will be dark in his tent, and his candle beside him will be put out.

⁷ The steps of his strength will be shortened, and his own counsel will cast him down.
⁸ For he is cast into a net by his own feet,
 and he walks upon a snare.
⁹ The trap will take him by the heel,
 and the snare will prevail against him.
¹⁰ The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the path.
¹¹ Terrors will make him afraid on every side and will drive him to his feet.
¹² His strength will be hungry, and destruction will be ready at his side.
¹³ It will devour the parts of his skin;
 the firstborn of death will devour his limbs.
¹⁴ His confidence will be rooted out of his tent, and it will bring him to the king of terrors.
¹⁵ They dwell in his tent who have no part with him;
 brimstone will be scattered upon his habitation.
¹⁶ His roots will be dried up beneath, and above his branch will dry up.
¹⁷ The memory of him will perish from the earth, and he will have no name in the street.
¹⁸ He will be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.
¹⁹ He has neither descendant nor posterity among his people,
 nor anyone remaining in his dwellings.
²⁰ They who come after him will be astonished at his day,
 as they who went before were seized with fright.
²¹ Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him who does not know God."

Job Replies: My Redeemer Lives

19 Then Job answered:
² "How long will you torment my soul and break me in pieces with words?
³ These ten times you have reproached me;
 you are not ashamed that you have wronged me.
⁴ And if indeed I have erred,
 my error remains with me.
⁵ If indeed you exalt yourselves against me and plead against me with my disgrace, ⁶ know now that God has bent me and has surrounded me with His net.
⁷ "Look, I cry out concerning wrong, but I am not heard;
 I cry aloud, but there is no justice.
⁸ He has fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and He has set darkness in my paths.
⁹ He has stripped me of my glory and taken the crown from my head.
¹⁰ He has destroyed me on every side, and I am gone;
 and my hope He has uprooted like a tree.
¹¹ He has also kindled His wrath against me, and He counts me as one of His enemies.

¹² His troops come together and build up their road against me;
 they set up camp all around my tent.
¹³ "He has removed my brothers far from me, and my acquaintances are completely estranged from me.
¹⁴ My relatives have failed, and my close friends have forgotten me.
¹⁵ Those who dwell in my house, and my maidservants,
 count me for a stranger;
 I am a foreigner in their sight.
¹⁶ I called my servant, but he gave me no answer;
 I begged him with my mouth.
¹⁷ My breath is offensive to my wife;
 I am loathsome to the children of my own body.
¹⁸ Yes, young children despise me;
 I arose, and they spoke against me.
¹⁹ All my close friends abhorred me,
 and they whom I love are turned against me.
²⁰ My bones cling to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.
²¹ "Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O you my friends,
 for the hand of God has struck me!
²² Why do you persecute me as God does,
 and are not satisfied with my flesh?
²³ "Oh, that my words were written!
 Oh, that they were inscribed in a book!
²⁴ That they were engraved with an iron pen and lead in the rock forever!
²⁵ For I know that my Redeemer lives, and He will stand at last on the earth;
²⁶ and after my skin is destroyed,
 yet in my flesh I will see God,
²⁷ whom I will see for myself, and my eyes will behold, and not another.
 How my heart yearns within me.
²⁸ "If you should say, 'How shall we persecute him?'
 since the root of the matter is found in me, ²⁹ be afraid of the sword for yourselves;
 for wrath brings the punishments of the sword, that you may know there is a judgment."

Zophar Speaks: The Wicked Will Suffer

20 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered:
² "Therefore my thoughts cause me to answer,
 and for this I make haste.
³ I have heard the rebuke that disgraces me, and the spirit of my understanding causes me to answer.
⁴ "Do you not know this of old,
 since man was placed upon earth,
⁵ that the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite is but for a moment?
⁶ Though his loftiness extends to the heavens, and his head reaches to the clouds,
⁷ yet he will perish forever like his own excrement;

those who have seen him will say, 'Where is he?'
 8 He will fly away like a dream and will not be found;
 yes, he will be chased away as a vision of the night.
 9 The eye that saw him will see him no more;
 nor will his place behold him anymore.
 10 His children will seek favor from the poor, and his hands will give back his wealth.
 11 His bones are full of his youthful vigor,
 but it will lie down with him in the dust.
 12 "Though evil is sweet in his mouth, and he hides it under his tongue, 13 though he spares it and does not forsake it,
 but keeps it in his mouth,
 14 yet his food in his stomach turns sour;
 it becomes the venom of cobras within him.
 15 He has swallowed down riches, and he will vomit them up again;
 God will cast them out of his belly.
 16 He will suck the poison of cobras;
 the viper's tongue will slay him.
 17 He will not see the streams, the rivers,
 the brooks of honey and butter.
 18 He will give back the produce of labor and will not swallow it down.
 According to his wealth the restitution will be, and he will not rejoice in it;
 19 because he has oppressed and has forsaken the poor.
 He has violently taken away a house that he did not build.
 20 "Because he knows no quietness in his belly, he will not save anything he desired.
 21 Nothing is left for him to eat;
 therefore his prosperity will not endure.
 22 In his self-sufficiency he will be in distress;
 every hand of misery will come upon him.
 23 When he is about to fill his belly,
 God will cast the fury of His wrath on him and will rain it on him while he is eating.
 24 He will flee from the iron weapon;
 a bronze bow will pierce him through.
 25 It is drawn and comes out of the body;
 yes, the glittering point comes out of his gall.
 Terrors are upon him.
 26 Total darkness is stored up for his treasures.
 An unfanned fire will consume him;
 what is left in his tent will be consumed.
 27 The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him.
 28 The increase of his house will depart, and his goods will flow away in the day of His wrath.
 29 This is the wicked man's portion from God, and the inheritance appointed to him by God."

Job Replies: The Wicked Do Prosper

21 But Job answered:
 2 "Listen carefully to my speech,
 and let this be your consolation.

3 Bear with me that I may speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.
 4 "As for me, is my complaint against man?
 And if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?
 5 Look at me and be astonished,
 and put your hand over your mouth.
 6 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling takes hold of my body.
 7 Why do the wicked live and become old;
 yes, become mighty in power?
 8 Their descendants are established with them in their sight,
 and their offspring before their eyes.
 9 Their houses are safe from fear, nor is the rod of God upon them.
 10 Their bull breeds without failure;
 their cow gives calves without miscarriage.
 11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.
 12 They take up the tambourine and harp and rejoice at the sound of the flute.
 13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to Sheol.
 14 Therefore they say to God, 'Depart from us, for we do not desire the knowledge of Your ways.
 15 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him?
 And what profit do we have if we pray to Him?'
 16 Indeed, their prosperity is not in their hand.
 The counsel of the wicked is far from me.
 17 "How often is the lamp of the wicked put out?
 How often does their destruction come upon them,
 the sorrows God distributes in His anger?
 18 They are like straw before the wind, and like chaff that a storm carries away.
 19 God stores up their iniquity for their children;
 let Him reward the people themselves, and they will know it.
 20 Let their eyes see their own destruction, and let them drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
 21 For what do they care about their households after them,
 when the number of their months is cut off?
 22 "Can anyone teach God knowledge, since He judges those who are on high?
 23 One dies in his full strength, being wholly at ease and secure.
 24 His pails are full of milk, and the marrow of his bones is moist.
 25 Another dies in the bitterness of his soul, never having eaten with pleasure.
 26 They will lie down alike in the dust,
 and worms will cover them.
 27 "Behold, I know your thoughts, and the schemes with which you would wrong me.
 28 For you say, 'Where is the house of the prince?
 And where are the dwelling places of the wicked?'
 29 Have you not asked them who travel the road?

And do you not know their signs?
³⁰ For the wicked are reserved for the day of destruction;
 they will be brought forth on the day of wrath.
³¹ Who will declare his way to his face?
 And who will repay him for what he has done?
³² Yet will he be brought to the grave and will remain in the tomb.
³³ The clods of the valley will be sweet unto him;
 and everyone will follow him,
 as countless have gone before.
³⁴ "How then can you comfort me with emptiness, since deceit remains in your answers?"

Eliphaz Speaks: Job's Wickedness Is Great

22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered:
² "Can a man be profitable to God,
 as he who is wise may be profitable to himself?
³ Is it any pleasure to the Almighty that you are righteous?
 Or is it gain to Him that you make your ways blameless?
⁴ "Is it because of your fear of Him that He corrects you, and enters into judgment with you?
⁵ Is not your wickedness great,
 and your iniquity infinite?
⁶ For you have taken a pledge from your brother for nothing, and stripped the naked of their clothing.
⁷ You have not given water to the weary to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry.
⁸ But as for the mighty man, he possessed the earth, and the honorable man lived in it.
⁹ You have sent widows away empty, and the strength of the fatherless was crushed.
¹⁰ Therefore snares are all around you,
 and sudden fear troubles you,
¹¹ or darkness, so that you cannot see;
 and an abundance of waters covers you.
¹² "Is not God in the height of heaven?
 And see the height of the stars, how high they are!
¹³ And you say, 'What does God know?
 Can He judge through the dark cloud?
¹⁴ Thick clouds are His covering, so He cannot see;
 and He walks above the circle of heaven.'
¹⁵ Will you keep to the old way, that wicked men have trod?
¹⁶ They were cut down before their time;
 their foundations were swept away by a flood.
¹⁷ They said to God, 'Depart from us,'
 And, 'What can the Almighty do to us?'
¹⁸ Yet He filled their houses with good things;
 but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
¹⁹ "The righteous see it and are glad,
 and the innocent laugh them to scorn:
²⁰ 'Surely our adversaries are cut down, and the fire consumes their remnant.'

²¹ "Now acquaint yourself with Him and be at peace; thereby good will come to you.
²² Receive, I pray, the teaching from His mouth, and lay up His words in your heart.
²³ If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up;
 you will put away iniquity far from your tents.
²⁴ Then you will lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.
²⁵ Yes, the Almighty will be your gold and your precious silver;
²⁶ for then you will delight yourself in the Almighty, and will lift up your face unto God.
²⁷ You will make your prayer to Him, and He will hear you, and you will pay your vows.
²⁸ You will also declare a matter, and it will be established unto you;
 and the light will shine upon your ways.
²⁹ When men are cast down, and you say, 'There is a time of exaltation!'
 then He will save the humble person.
³⁰ He will even deliver one who is not innocent;
 He will be delivered by the purity of your hands."

Job Replies: My Complaint Is Grievous

23 Then Job answered:
² "Today also my complaint is bitter;
 my hand is heavy because of my groaning.
³ Oh, that I knew where I might find Him, that I might come even to His seat!
⁴ I would present my case before Him and fill my mouth with arguments.
⁵ I would know the words that He would answer me and understand what He would say to me.
⁶ Will He plead against me with His great power?
 No! But He would take note of me.
⁷ There the righteous might dispute with Him;
 so would I be delivered forever from my Judge.
⁸ "Look, I go forward, but He is not there, and backward, but I cannot perceive Him;
⁹ when He works on the left hand, I cannot behold Him;
 He turns to the right hand, I cannot see Him.
¹⁰ But He knows the way that I take;
 when He has tested me, I will come forth as gold.
¹¹ My foot has held fast to His steps;
 I have kept His way and have not turned aside.
¹² I have not departed from the commandment of His lips;
 I have esteemed the words of His mouth more than my necessary food.
¹³ "But He is resolute, and who can turn Him?
 And whatever His soul desires, that He does.
¹⁴ For He performs what is appointed for me, and many such things are with Him.
¹⁵ Therefore I am troubled at His presence;
 when I consider, I am afraid of Him.
¹⁶ For God makes my heart soft, and the Almighty troubles me;

¹⁷ because I was not cut off from the presence of darkness, nor has He covered the darkness from my face.
²⁴ "Since times of judgment are not kept by the Almighty, why do they who know Him not see His days?
² Some remove the landmarks;
 they violently take away flocks and feed on them.
³ They drive away the donkey of the orphan;
 they take the widow's ox for a pledge.
⁴ They turn away the needy;
 the poor of the earth are forced to hide.
⁵ Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert, they go out to their work, rising early for a prey.
 The wilderness yields food for them and for their children.
⁶ They gather their fodder in the field, and they glean in the vineyard of the wicked.
⁷ They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, and they have no covering in the cold.
⁸ They are wet with the showers of the mountains and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.
⁹ They snatch the fatherless from the breast and take a pledge from the poor.
¹⁰ They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry.
¹¹ They press out oil within their walls and tread their winepresses, yet suffer thirst.
¹² Men groan from outside the city, and the soul of the wounded cries out;
 yet God does not charge them with wrong.
¹³ "They are those who rebel against the light;
 they do not know its ways
 nor abide in its paths.
¹⁴ The murderer, rising with the light, kills the poor and needy,
 and in the night he is like a thief.
¹⁵ Also the eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight, saying, 'No eye will see me';
 and he disguises his face.
¹⁶ In the dark they break into houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime;
 they do not know the light.
¹⁷ For the morning is the same to them as the shadow of death;
 if someone recognizes them,
 they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.
¹⁸ "He is swift as the waters.
 Their portion is cursed in the earth.
 They do not turn toward the way of the vineyards.
¹⁹ Drought and heat consume the snow waters;
 so the grave consumes those who have sinned.
²⁰ The womb will forget him;
 the worm will feed sweetly on him;
 he will be remembered no more,
 and wickedness will be broken like a tree.

²¹ He preys on the barren who do not bear, and does no good for the widow.
²² But God draws the mighty away with His power;
 He rises up, and no man is sure of life.
²³ He gives them security, and they rely on it;
 yet His eyes are on their ways.
²⁴ They are exalted for a little while but are gone and brought low;
 they are taken out of the way like all others and cut off as the tops of the grain.
²⁵ "If it is not so, who will prove me a liar and make my speech worth nothing?"

Bildad Speaks: Man Cannot Be Righteous

²⁵ Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
² "Dominion and fear are with Him;
 He makes peace in His high places.
³ Is there any number to His armies?
 And upon whom does His light not rise?
⁴ How then can man be righteous with God?
 Or how can he who is born of a woman be clean?
⁵ Behold, even the moon does not shine, and the stars are not pure in His sight;
⁶ how much less man, who is a maggot?
 And the son of man, who is a worm?"

Job Replies: God's Majesty Is Unsearchable

²⁶ But Job answered:
² "How have you helped him who is without power?
 How have you saved the arm that has no strength?
³ How have you counseled him who has no wisdom?
 And how have you plentifully declared sound knowledge?
⁴ To whom have you uttered words?
 And whose breath came from you?
⁵ "The departed spirits tremble under the waters, and their inhabitants.
⁶ The underworld is naked before Him,
 and destruction has no covering.
⁷ He stretches out the north over empty space,
 He hangs the earth upon nothing.
⁸ He binds up the waters in His thick clouds, and the cloud is not broken under them.
⁹ He covers the face of the full moon and spreads His cloud over it.
¹⁰ He has circled the waters with boundaries, until the day and night come to an end.
¹¹ The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at His reproof.
¹² He divides the sea with His power, and by His understanding He strikes through the proud.
¹³ By His breath He has made fair the heavens;
 His hand has formed the fleeing serpent.
¹⁴ Indeed, these are but a part of His ways, and how small a whisper we hear of Him!

But the thunder of His power who can understand?"

Job's Last Words to His Friends

27 Moreover Job continued his discourse:
² "As God lives, who has taken away my judgment, and the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter, ³ all the while my spirit is in me,
 and the breath of God is in my nostrils,
⁴ my lips will not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.
⁵ God forbid that I should justify you.
 Until I die I will not put away my integrity from me.
⁶ My righteousness I hold fast and will not let it go;
 my heart will not reproach me as long as I live.
⁷ "Let my enemy be like the wicked, and he who rises up against me like the unrighteous.
⁸ For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he may gain much, when God takes away his soul?
⁹ Will God hear his cry
 when trouble comes upon him?
¹⁰ Will he delight himself in the Almighty?
 Will he always call upon God?
¹¹ "I will teach you about the hand of God;
 what is with the Almighty I will not conceal.
¹² Look, all of you have seen it;
 why then have you become altogether vain?
¹³ "This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the inheritance that oppressors receive from the Almighty:
¹⁴ If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword, and his offspring will not be satisfied with bread.
¹⁵ Those who survive him will be buried in death, and their widows will not weep.
¹⁶ Though he heaps up silver like the dust and piles up clothing like the clay—¹⁷ he may pile it up, but the just will wear it, and the innocent will divide the silver.
¹⁸ He builds his house like a moth and like a booth that the watchman makes.
¹⁹ The rich man will lie down, but he will not be gathered;
 he opens his eyes, and he is not.
²⁰ Terrors overtake him like floodwaters;
 a tempest steals him away in the night.
²¹ The east wind carries him away, and he departs;
 it sweeps him out of his place.
²² For God will cast it upon him and not spare;
 he would flee from its power.
²³ Men will clap their hands at him and will hiss him out of his place.

Interlude: Where Wisdom Is Found

28 "Surely there is a mine for the silver, and a place where they refine gold.

² Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted from the ore.
³ Man puts an end to darkness, and searches every extremity
 for ore in the darkness and the shadow of death.
⁴ He breaks open a shaft away from the inhabitants;
 in places forgotten by feet
 they hang far away from men; and they totter.
⁵ As for the earth, from it comes bread, and underneath it is turned up as by fire.
⁶ Its stones are the source of sapphires, and it has dust of gold.
⁷ There is a path that no bird knows, and that the vulture's eye has not seen;
⁸ the lion cubs have not trodden it, nor has the fierce lion passed by it.
⁹ He puts forth his hand upon the rock;
 he overturns the mountains by the roots.
¹⁰ He cuts out rivers among the rocks, and his eye sees every precious thing.
¹¹ He prevents the floods from overflowing, and the thing that is hidden he brings forth to light.
¹² "But where will wisdom be found?
 And where is the place of understanding?
¹³ Man does not know its price,
 nor is it found in the land of the living.
¹⁴ The depth says, 'It is not in me,' and the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
¹⁵ It cannot be bought for gold, nor can silver be weighed for its price.
¹⁶ It cannot be valued in the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx or the sapphire.
¹⁷ The gold and the crystal cannot equal it, and it cannot be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
¹⁸ No mention will be made of coral or of pearls, for the price of wisdom is above rubies.
¹⁹ The topaz of Ethiopia will not equal it, nor will it be valued with pure gold.
²⁰ "From where then does wisdom come?
 And where is the place of understanding?
²¹ It is hidden from the eyes of all living and concealed from the birds of the air.
²² Destruction and death say,
 'We have heard of its fame with our ears.'
²³ God understands its way,
 and He knows its place.
²⁴ For He looks to the ends of the earth, and sees under the whole heaven,
²⁵ to make the weight of the wind, and He weighs the waters by measure.
²⁶ When He made a decree for the rain, and a path for the lightning of the thunder,
²⁷ then He saw it and declared it;
 He prepared it, yes, and searched it out.
²⁸ To man He said:
 'Look, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom;
 And to depart from evil is understanding.'"

Job's Final Defense

29 Moreover Job continued his discourse:
 2 "Oh, that I were as in months past,
 as in the days when God watched over me;
 3 when His lamp shone upon my head, and when by His light I walked through darkness;
 4 as I was in the days of my autumn youth,
 when the friendly counsel of God was over my tent;
 5 when the Almighty was still with me,
 when my children were around me;
 6 when my steps were bathed in butter, and the rock poured out rivers of oil for me!
 7 "When I went out to the gate of the city,
 when I took my seat in the square, 8 the young men saw me and hid themselves, and the aged arose and stood up.
 9 The princes refrained from talking, and put their hand on their mouth.
 10 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.
 11 When the ear heard, then it blessed me;
 and when the eye saw, then it approved me, 12 because I delivered the poor who cried, and the fatherless, and him who had none to help him.
 13 The blessing of the perishing man came upon me, and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
 14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;
 my judgment was like a robe and a diadem.
 15 I was eyes for the blind, and I was feet for the lame.
 16 I was a father to the poor, and I searched out the case that I did not know.
 17 I broke the jaws of the wicked and plucked the victim from his teeth.
 18 "Then I said, 'I will die in my nest, and I will multiply my days as the sand.
 19 My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.
 20 My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand.'
 21 "Men listened to me and waited, and kept silence for my counsel.
 22 After my words they did not speak again,
 and my speech settled on them like dew.
 23 They waited for me as for the rain, and they opened their mouth wide as for the spring rain.
 24 If I mocked at them, they did not believe it, and the light of my countenance they did not cast
 down.
 25 I chose the way for them and sat as chief,
 and lived as a king in the army,
 as one who comforts mourners.
 30 "But now those who are younger than I mock
 me,

whose fathers I disdained to put with the dogs of my flock.
 2 Yes, how does the strength of their hands profit me?
 Their vigor has perished.
 3 For want and famine
 they gnawed the parched land;
 fleeing into the wilderness in former time, desolate and waste.
 4 Who pluck mallow by the bushes,
 and juniper roots for their food.
 5 They were driven out from among men;
 they shout after them as after a thief.
 6 They had to dwell in the rocky river beds,
 in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.
 7 Among the bushes they brayed;
 under the nettles they were gathered together.
 8 They were children of fools, yes, children of vile men;
 they were scourged from the earth.
 9 "Now I am their taunting song;
 yes, I am their byword.
 10 They abhor me, they flee far from me;
 they do not hesitate to spit in my face.
 11 Because He has loosed my bowstring and afflicted
 me,
 they have cast off the bridle before me.
 12 At my right hand their brood arises;
 they push away my feet,
 and they raise against me their ways of destruction.
 13 They tear apart my path,
 they promote my calamity;
 they have no helper.
 14 They came upon me as a wide breach, with a crash they came;
 in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.
 15 Terrors are turned on me;
 they pursue my dignity like the wind,
 and my help passes away as a cloud.
 16 "Now my soul is poured out within me;
 the days of affliction have taken hold of me.
 17 My bones are pierced in me at night,
 and my sinews have no rest.
 18 By the great force of my disease my garment is changed;
 it binds me about as the collar of my coat.
 19 He has cast me into the mire,
 and I have become like dust and ashes.
 20 "I cry unto You, but You do not hear me;
 I stand up, and You do not regard me.
 21 You have become cruel to me;
 with Your strong hand You oppose me.
 22 You lift me up to the wind and cause me to ride on
 it;
 You dissolve my success.
 23 For I know that You will bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.
 24 "Surely He will not stretch out His hand to the grave,

though they cry when He destroys it.
²⁵ Did I not weep for him who was in trouble?
 Was not my soul grieved for the poor?
²⁶ When I looked for good, then evil disaster came upon me;
 and when I waited for light, darkness came.
²⁷ My insides boiled and did not rest;
 the days of affliction have met me.
²⁸ I went mourning without the sun;
 I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.
²⁹ I am a brother of jackals and a companion of owls.
³⁰ My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with fever.
³¹ My harp is turned to mourning, and my flute to the voice of those who weep.
31 "I made a covenant with my eyes;
 why then should I look upon a young woman?
² For what portion of God is there from above?
 And what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?
³ Does not destruction belong to the wicked, and calamity to the workers of iniquity?
⁴ Does He not see my ways,
 and count all my steps?
⁵ "If I have walked in vanity, or if my foot has hurried after deceit,
⁶ let me be weighed in an even balance that God may know my integrity.
⁷ If my step has turned out of the path, and my heart has gone after my eyes,
 and if any spot has clung to my hands,
⁸ then let me sow, but let another eat;
 yes, let my offspring be rooted out.
⁹ "If my heart has been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbor's door, ¹⁰ then let my wife grind for another,
 and let others bow down over her.
¹¹ For this is a heinous crime;
 yes, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.
¹² For it is a fire that consumes to destruction and would root out all my increase.
¹³ "If I have despised the cause of my male or female servant
 when they complained against me,
¹⁴ what then will I do when God rises up?
 And when He visits, what will I answer Him?
¹⁵ Did not He who made me in the womb make him?
 And did not the same One fashion us in the womb?
¹⁶ "If I have kept the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail, ¹⁷ or have eaten my morsel by myself, so that the fatherless could not eat of it ¹⁸ (but from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided the widow from my mother's womb);
¹⁹ if I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or any poor without covering;

²⁰ if his body has not blessed me, and if he was not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
²¹ if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw I had help in the gate;
²² then let my arm fall from my shoulder blade, and my arm be broken from the bone.
²³ For destruction from God is a terror to me, and because of His highness I cannot endure.
²⁴ "If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, 'You are my confidence';
²⁵ if I rejoiced because my wealth was great,
 and because my hand had gained much;
²⁶ if I saw the sun when it shined, or the moon moving in brightness;
²⁷ and my heart has been secretly enticed, or my mouth has kissed my hand;
²⁸ this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judge,
 for I would have denied the God who is above.
²⁹ "If I rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated
 me,
 or lifted up myself when disaster found him ³⁰ (nor have I allowed my mouth to sin by wishing for a curse on his soul);
³¹ if the men of my tent have not said,
 'Who is there who has not been satisfied with his meat?'
³² (the stranger has not lodged in the street, but I opened my doors to the traveler);
³³ if I covered my transgressions as any man,
 by hiding my iniquity in my heart, ³⁴ did I fear a great multitude,
 or did the contempt of families terrify me, so that I kept silence, and did not go out of the door?
³⁵ "Oh, that one would hear me!
 Behold, my desire is that the Almighty would answer
 me,
 and that the One who contends against me had written a book!
³⁶ Surely I would carry it on my shoulder and bind it on me like a crown.
³⁷ I would declare to Him the number of my steps;
 like a prince I would approach Him.
³⁸ "If my land cries out against me,
 and its furrows also weep together;
³⁹ if I have eaten its fruit without money, or have caused its owners to lose their life;
⁴⁰ let thistles grow instead of wheat, and weeds instead of barley."
 The words of Job are ended.

Elihu Speaks: Job's Three Friends Rebuked

32 So these three men ceased answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. ² Then the wrath of Elihu the son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was aroused; his wrath was aroused against Job because he justified himself rather than God. ³ His wrath was aroused also against his three friends because they had found no answer and yet had condemned Job. ⁴ Now Elihu had waited until Job had spoken because they were older than he. ⁵ When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was aroused.

⁶ Elihu the son of Barakel the Buzite answered:
 "I am young,
 and you are very old;
 therefore I was afraid
 and dared not show you my opinion.
⁷ I said, 'Age should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.'
⁸ But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.
⁹ Great men are not always wise, nor do the aged always understand judgment.
¹⁰ "Therefore I say,
 'Listen to me; I will also declare my opinion.'
¹¹ Indeed, I waited for your words;
 I listened to your reasons,
 while you searched out what to say.
¹² Yes, I paid attention to you;
 and surely none of you convinced Job or answered his words.
¹³ Lest you say, 'We have found wisdom';
 God will subdue him, not man.
¹⁴ Now he has not directed his words against me, so I will not answer him with your speeches.
¹⁵ "They are amazed; they answer no more;
 they cease speaking.
¹⁶ And I have waited,
 (for they did not speak, but stood still and answered no more).

¹⁷ I said, 'I also will answer my part;
 I too will show my opinion.'
¹⁸ For I am full of words;
 the spirit within me compels me.
¹⁹ See, my belly is like wine that has no vent;
 it is ready to burst like new wineskins.
²⁰ I will speak, that I may be refreshed;
 I will open my lips and answer.
²¹ Let me not, I pray, show partiality to anyone, nor let me give flattering titles to man.
²² For I do not know how to give flattering titles;
 in so doing my Maker would soon take me away.

Elihu Addresses Job

33 "Therefore, Job, I pray, hear my speeches, and listen to all my words.
² Behold, now I have opened my mouth;
 my tongue has spoken in my mouth.
³ My words will be from the uprightness of my heart, and my lips will utter knowledge clearly.
⁴ The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty has given me life.

⁵ If you can answer me,
 set your words in order before me; stand up.
⁶ Surely, I am before God like you;
 I also am formed out of the clay.
⁷ Indeed, no dread of me will make you afraid, nor will my hand be heavy upon you.
⁸ "Surely you have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the sound of your words, saying,
⁹ I am clean, without transgression;
 I am innocent, nor is there iniquity in me.
¹⁰ Behold, He finds occasions against me,
 He counts me for His enemy;
¹¹ He puts my feet in the stocks,
 He watches all my paths.'
¹² "Look, in this you are not just.
 I will answer you, that God is greater than man.
¹³ Why do you strive against Him?
 For He does not give an accounting for any of His words.
¹⁴ For God speaks once, yes twice, yet man does not perceive it.
¹⁵ In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men,
 in slumber on their beds,
¹⁶ then He opens the ears of men,
 and seals their instruction,
¹⁷ that He might turn aside man from his purpose, and conceal pride from man.
¹⁸ He keeps back his soul from the pit,
 and his life from perishing by the sword.
¹⁹ "He is also chastened with pain on his bed, and with strong pain in many of his bones, ²⁰ so that his life abhors bread, and his soul dainty food.
²¹ His flesh is consumed away that it cannot be seen, and his bones that were not seen stick out.
²² Yes, his soul draws near to the grave, and his life to the executioners.
²³ "If there is a messenger for him, an interpreter, one among a thousand,
 to show to man what is right for him,
²⁴ then He is gracious to him, and says,
 'Deliver him from going down to the pit;
 I have found a ransom.'
²⁵ His flesh will be fresher than a child's;
 he will return to the days of his youth;
²⁶ he will pray to God, and He will be favorable unto him, and he will see His face with joy,
 for He will render unto man His righteousness.
²⁷ Then he looks at men and says,
 'I have sinned and perverted what was right,
 and it did not profit me.'
²⁸ He will deliver his soul from going down to the pit, and his life will see the light.
²⁹ "Behold, God works all these things, twice, three times with man,

³⁰ to bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.
³¹ "Pay attention, Job, listen to me;
hold your peace, and I will speak.
³² If you have anything to say, answer me;
speak, for I desire to justify you.
³³ If not, listen to me; hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom."

Elihu Proclaims God's Justice

34 Furthermore Elihu answered and said:
² "Hear my words, O you wise men;
and give ear unto me, you that have knowledge.
³ For the ear tests words,
as the mouth tastes food.
⁴ Let us choose justice for ourselves;
let us know among ourselves what is good.
⁵ "For Job has said, 'I am righteous, but God has taken away my judgment.
⁶ Should I lie concerning my right?
My wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'
⁷ What man is like Job,
who drinks scorn like water,
⁸ who goes in company with the workers of iniquity and walks with wicked men?
⁹ For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing that he should delight himself in God.'
¹⁰ "Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding:
Far be it from God that He should do wickedness,
and from the Almighty that He should commit iniquity.
¹¹ He will repay a man for his work, and cause every man to find what is according to his ways.
¹² Yes, surely God will not do wickedly, nor will the Almighty pervert judgment.
¹³ Who has given Him charge over the earth?
Or who has set in order the whole world?
¹⁴ If He sets His heart on man,
if He gathers unto Himself His Spirit and His breath, ¹⁵ all flesh will perish together, and man will turn again to dust.
¹⁶ "If now you have understanding, hear this;
listen to the voice of my words:
¹⁷ Should he who hates justice govern?
And will you condemn Him who is most just?
¹⁸ Is it fitting to say to a king, 'You are wicked'?
And to princes, 'You are ungodly'?
¹⁹ Yet He is not partial to princes, nor does He regard the rich more than the poor.
For they all are the work of His hands.
²⁰ In a moment they will die, and the people will be troubled at midnight and pass away,
and the mighty will be taken away without a hand.
²¹ "For His eyes are upon the ways of man, and He sees all his goings.

²² There is no darkness nor shadow of death where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
²³ For He will not lay upon man more than right, that he should enter into judgment with God.
²⁴ He will break in pieces mighty men without number,
and set others in their place.
²⁵ Therefore He knows their works, and He overturns them in the night
so that they are destroyed.
²⁶ He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight of others, ²⁷ because they turned back from Him and would not consider any of His ways, ²⁸ so that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto Him;
and He hears the cry of the afflicted.
²⁹ When He gives quietness, who then can make trouble?
And when He hides His face, who then can behold Him, whether it is done against a nation or against a man only?
³⁰ That the hypocrite should not reign, lest the people be ensnared.
³¹ "Should anyone say to God,
'I have borne chastisement, I will offend no more;
³² teach me what I do not see;
if I have done iniquity, I will do no more?'
³³ Should it be according to your mind?
He will repay it, whether you refuse or whether you choose,
and not I; therefore speak what you know.
³⁴ "Let men of understanding say to me,
wise men who listen to me:
³⁵ 'Job has spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.'
³⁶ My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end, because he answers like wicked men.
³⁷ For he adds rebellion unto his sin;
he claps his hands among us,
and multiplies his words against God."

Elihu Condemns Self-Righteousness

35 Elihu spoke again and said:
² "Do you think this is right, that you say, 'My righteousness is before God'?
³ For you said, 'What advantage will it be to me?
What profit will I have if I am cleansed from my sin?'
⁴ "I will answer you, and your companions with you.
⁵ Look unto the heavens and see,
and behold the clouds that are higher than you.
⁶ If you sin, what do you accomplish against Him?
Or if your transgressions are multiplied, what does it do to Him?
⁷ If you are righteous, what does it give Him?
Or what does He receive from your hand?"

8 Your wickedness may hurt a man like you, and your righteousness may profit a son of man.
9 "Because of the many oppressions they cry out;
they cry out because of the arm of the mighty.
10 But none says, 'Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,
11 who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of heaven?'
12 There they cry out, but He does not answer because of the pride of evil men.
13 Surely God will not hear vanity, nor will the Almighty regard it.
14 Although you say you do not see Him, yet judgment is before Him,
and you must trust in Him.
15 But now, because He has not punished in His anger,
nor taken much notice of folly,
16 therefore Job opens his mouth in vain;
he multiplies words without knowledge."

Elihu Proclaims God's Majesty

36 Elihu continued and said:
2 "Bear with me a little, and I will show you that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.
3 I will bring my knowledge from afar and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
4 For truly my words will not be false;
He who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
5 "Behold, God is mighty and despises no one;
He is mighty in strength and wisdom.
6 He does not preserve the life of the wicked, but gives justice to the poor.
7 He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous;
but they are on the throne with kings,
for He establishes them forever, and they are exalted.
8 If they are bound in chains,
and held in cords of affliction,
9 then He shows them their work,
and their transgressions that they have exceeded;
10 and He opens their ear to discipline, and commands that they turn from iniquity.
11 If they obey and serve Him, they will spend their days in prosperity and their years in pleasures.
12 But if they do not obey,
they will perish by the sword,
and they will die without knowledge.
13 "But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath;
