Genesis

Genesis Introduction

Genesis (Greek for “origins”), written by Moses, is the first book of the Pentateuch or Hebrew —with being a word meaning “teaching” or “instruction.” the Hebrew title of Genesis, means “in the beginning,” or, most literally, “in the beginning of...” This Hebrew title captures the theological notion that history begins with God, and is an ongoing journey between humankind and God, walking through time in a covenant relationship. It’s thus God’s story, not simply ours—His story, or history.

‘begins’ by describing God’s work during the first six days of creation, including placing Adam in a perfect Paradise—the Garden of Eden. God tells Adam, “Be fruitful and multiply, fill the land, and conquer it” (Gen. 1:28). Humankind, created in the image of God, is directed to fashion creation to mirror the very image of God! But instead, Adam disobeys God’s command and eats from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. Creation falls, and humankind falls with it. The very human question, “Why aren’t things perfect?” is readily answered by Adam’s disobedience to God’s command. In fact, the consequences of sin—sorrow, suffering, plague, disease, and death—are everywhere, for all to see. Instead of resting with God in the Garden, humankind is exiled and spread throughout the earth.

The story continues, (Gen. 5-11) however, as God starts anew—first with Noah and his sons, who eventually unite the world in idolatry and secular governance, and ten generations later with Abraham, the world’s first monotheist, who differs from the fallen world.

The rest of the book of Genesis (Gen. 12-50) describes intimate details of how the faith covenant family is created and united—first by walking in the “saving faith” of Abraham (Gen. 15:6; Rom. 4:16-25); walking to and through the “Promised Land”; walking later in the repentance of a sacrificial, God-honoring love (Gen. 44:30-34); and by maintaining their religious-oriented tribal distinctive all the while. This kind of sacrificial, loving unity testifies to an unbelieving world, and will testify of God’s love all the more (John 17:20-23; note also Matt. 22:37-40), when it’s realized through ‘s work in all the families of the world, fulfilling the promise that “all the families of the earth will be blessed” (see Gen. 12:1-3). Through this Messianic vision, the Genesis narrative models the saving faith and brotherly unity essential not only to those of the First Covenant, but also to those of the “saving faith” who are this day grafted into Messiah’s everlasting community (Rom. 11:24).

Creation in Six Days

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. ¹² Now the earth was chaos and waste, darkness was on the surface of the deep, and the Ruach Elohim was hovering upon the surface of the water. ^{††}

³ Then God said, "Let there be light!" and there was light. ⁴ God saw that the light was good. So God distinguished the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light "day," and the darkness He called "night." So there was evening and there was morning—one day.

⁶ Then God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the water! Let it be for separating water from water." ⁷ So God made the expanse and it separated the water that was below the expanse from the water that was over the expanse. And it happened so. ⁸ God called the expanse "sky." So there was evening and there was morning—a second day. ⁹ Then God said, "Let the water below the sky be gathered to one place. Let the dry ground appear." And it happened so.

¹⁰ God called the dry ground "land," and the collection of the water He called "seas." And God saw that it was good.

¹¹ Then God said, "Let the land sprout grass, green plants yielding seed, fruit trees making fruit, each according to its species with seed in it, upon the land." And it happened so. ¹² The land brought forth grass, green plants yielding seed, each according to its species, and trees making fruit with the seed in it, each according to its species. And God saw that it was good. ¹³ So there was evening and there was morning—a third day.

¹⁵ They will be for lights in the expanse of the sky to shine upon the land." And it happened so. ¹⁶ Then God made the two great lights—the greater light for dominion over the day, and the lesser light as well as the stars for dominion over the night. ¹⁷ God set them in the expanse of the sky to shine on the land ¹⁸ and to have dominion over the day and over the night and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ So there was evening and there was morning—a fourth day.

fruitful and multiply and fill the water in the seas. Let the flying creatures multiply on the land." ²³ So there was evening and there was morning—a fifth day.

²⁴ Then God said, "Let the land bring forth living creatures according to their species—livestock, crawling creatures and wild animals, according to their species." And it happened so. ²⁵ God made the wild animals according to their species, the livestock according to their species, and everything that crawls on the ground, each according to its species. And God saw that it was good.

²⁶ Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness! Let them rule over the fish of the sea, over the flying creatures of the sky, over the livestock, over the whole earth, and over every crawling creature that crawls on the land." ²⁷ God created humankind in His image, in the image of God He created him, male and female He created them. ^{‡28} God blessed them and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, fill the land, and conquer it. Rule over the fish of the sea, the flying creatures of the sky, and over every animal that crawls on the land."

²⁹ Then God said, "I have just given you every green plant yielding seed that is on the surface of the whole land, and every tree, which has the fruit of a tree yielding seed. They are to be food for you. ³⁰ Also for every wild animal, every flying creature of the sky and every creature that crawls on the land which has life, every green plant is to be food." And it happened so. ³¹ So God saw everything that He made, and behold it was very good.

So there was evening and there was morning—the sixth day.

Shabbat For Rest

2 So the heavens and the earth were completed along with their entire array. ² God completed—on the seventh day—His work that He made, and He ceased—on the seventh day—from all His work that He made. ³ Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, for on it He ceased from all His work that God created for the purpose of preparing.

Humanity in Gan-Eden

⁴ These are the genealogical records of the heavens and the earth when they were created, at the time when ADONAI Elohim made land and sky. ⁵ Now no shrub of the field was in the land yet, and no green plants of the field had sprouted yet. For ADONAI Elohim had not caused it to rain upon the land, and there was no one to work the ground. ⁶ But a mist came up from the land and watered the whole surface of the ground.

⁷ Then ADONAI Elohim formed the man out of the dust from the ground and He breathed into his nostrils a breath of life—so the man became a living being. ⁸ Then ADONAI Elohim planted a garden in Eden in the east, and there He put the man whom He had formed. ⁹ Then ADONAI Elohim caused to sprout from the ground every tree that was desirable to look at and good for food.

Now the Tree of Life was in the middle of the garden, and also the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil.

¹⁰ A river flowed out of Eden to water the garden. From there it divided and became four riverheads. ¹¹ The name of the first is Pishon, the one that winds around the whole land of the Havilah, where there is gold.

¹² The gold of that land is good—bdellium and lapis lazuli stones are also there. ¹³ The name of the second river is Gihon—it winds around the whole land of Cush. ¹⁴ The name of the third river is Tigris—it runs east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

¹⁵ Then ADONAI Elohim took the man and gave him rest in the Garden of Eden in order to cultivate and watch over it. ¹⁶ Then ADONAI Elohim commanded the man saying, "From all the trees of the garden you are most welcome to eat. ¹⁷ But of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil you must not eat. For when you eat from it, you most assuredly will die!"

¹⁸ Then ADONAI Elohim said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. Let Me make a well-matched helper for him." ¹⁹ ADONAI Elohim had formed from the ground every animal of the field and every flying creature of the sky, so He brought them to the man to see what he would call them. Whatever the man called them—each living creature—that was its name. ²⁰ So the man gave names to all of the livestock, and to the flying creatures of the sky, and to all the animals of the field; but for the man He did not find a well-matched helper for him. ²¹ ADONAI Elohim caused a deep sleep to fall on the man and he slept; and He took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh in its place. ²² ADONAI Elohim built the rib, which He had taken from the man, into a woman. Then He brought her to the man.

²³ Then the man said,

"This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh from my flesh.

This one is called woman, for from man was taken this one."

²⁴ This is why a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife; and they become one flesh. †

From Innocence to Shame

²⁵ Now both of them were naked, the man and his wife, and they were not ashamed.

3 But the serpent was shrewder than any animal of the field that ADONAI Elohim made. So it said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from all the trees of the garden?'"

² The woman said to the serpent, "Of the fruit of the trees, we may eat. ³ But of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God said, 'You must not eat of it and you must not touch it, or you will die.'"

⁴ The serpent said to the woman, "You most assuredly won't die! ⁵ For God knows that when you eat of it, your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

⁶ Now the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a thing of lust for the eyes, and that the tree was desirable for imparting wisdom. So she took of its fruit and she ate. She also gave to her husband who was with her and he ate. ⁷ Then the eyes of both of them were opened and they knew that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made for themselves loin-coverings. ⁸ And they heard the sound of ADONAI Elohim going to and fro in the garden in the wind of the day. So the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of ADONAI Elohim in the midst of the Tree of the garden.

⁹ Then ADONAI Elohim called to the man and He said to him, "Where are you?"

¹⁰ Then he said, "Your sound—I heard it in the garden and I was afraid. Because I am naked, I hid myself."

¹¹ Then He said, "Who told you that you are naked? Have you eaten from the Tree from which I commanded you not to eat?"

¹² Then the man said, "The woman whom You gave to be with me—she gave me of the Tree, and I ate."

¹³ ADONAI Elohim said to the woman, "What did you do?"

The woman said, "The serpent deceived me and I ate."

¹⁴ ADONAI Elohim said to the serpent, "Because you did this,

"Cursed are you above all the livestock and above every animal of the field.

On your belly will you go, and dust will you eat
all the days of your life.

¹⁵ I will put animosity between you and the woman—between your seed and her seed.

He will crush your head, and you will crush his heel." ††

¹⁶ To the woman He said,
"I will greatly increase your pain from conception to labor.

In pain will you give birth to children.
Your desire will be toward your husband, yet he must rule over you."

¹⁷ Then to the man He said, "Because you listened to your wife's voice and ate of the tree which I commanded you, saying, 'You must not eat of it':

Cursed is the ground because of you—with pain will you eat of it all the days of your life.

¹⁸ Thorns and thistles will sprout for you.

You will eat the plants of the field,

¹⁹ By the sweat of your brow will you eat food, until you return to the ground,

† cf. Matt. 19:5.

†† cf. Rom. 16:20.

since from it were you taken.

For you are dust,
and to dust will you return."

²⁰ Now Adam named his wife Eve because she was the mother of all the living. ²¹ ADONAI Elohim made Adam and his wife tunics of skin and He clothed them. ²² Then ADONAI Elohim said, "Behold, the man has become like one of Us, knowing good and evil. So now, in case he stretches out his hand and takes also from the Tree of Life and eats and lives forever." ²³ ADONAI Elohim sent him away from the Garden of Eden, to work the ground from which he had been taken. ²⁴ And He expelled the man; and at the east of the Garden of Eden He had cheruvim dwell along, with the whirling sword of flame, to guard the way to the Tree of Life.

Cain and Abel's Blood

4 Now the man had relations with Eve his wife and she became pregnant and gave birth to Cain. She said, "I produced a man with ADONAI ." ² Then she gave birth again, to his brother Abel. Abel became a shepherd of flocks while Cain became a worker of the ground. ³ So it happened after some time that Cain brought an offering of the fruit of the ground to ADONAI , ⁴ while Abel—he also brought of the firstborn of his flock and their fat portions. Now ADONAI looked favorably upon Abel and his offering, ⁵ but upon Cain and his offering He did not look favorably. Cain became very angry, and his countenance fell.

⁶ Then ADONAI said to Cain, "Why are you angry? And why has your countenance fallen? ⁷ If you do well, it will lift. But if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the doorway. Its desire is for you, but you must master it."

⁸ Cain spoke to Abel his brother. While they were in the field, Cain rose up against Abel his brother and killed him. ⁹ Then ADONAI said to Cain, "Where is Abel, your brother?"

"I don't know," he said. "Am I my brother's keeper?"

¹⁰ Then He said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood is crying out to Me from the ground. ¹¹ So now, cursed are you from the ground which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. ¹² As often as you work the ground, it will not yield its crops to you again. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth."

¹³ Cain said to ADONAI , "My iniquity [†] is too great to bear! ¹⁴ Since You expelled me today from the face of the ground and I must be hidden from Your presence, then I will be a restless wanderer on the earth—anyone who finds me will kill me!"

¹⁵ But ADONAI said to him, "In that case, anyone who kills Cain is to be avenged seven times over."

So ADONAI put a mark on Cain, so that anyone who found him would not strike him down. ¹⁶ Then Cain left ADONAI 's presence and dwelled in the Land of Wandering, east of Eden.

† cf. 1 John 3:12. †† Or, punishment

¹⁷ Cain was intimate with his wife and she became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. And he was building a city, and he named the city after the name of his son, Enoch. ¹⁸ And to Enoch was born Irad. Irad fathered Mehujael, and Mehujael fathered Methushael, and Methushael fathered Lamech.

¹⁹ Now Lamech took for himself two wives. The name of the first one was Adah, and the name of the second one was Zillah. ²⁰ Adah gave birth to Jabal—he was the pioneer of tent dwellers with livestock. ²¹ His brother's name was Jubal—he was the pioneer of all who skillfully handle stringed instruments and wind instruments. ²² Now Zillah also gave birth to Tubal-Cain, the forger of every kind of bronze and iron tools; Tubal-Cain's sister was Naamah.

²³ Lamech said to his wives,
"Adah and Zillah: Hear my voice!

Lamech's wives: Listen to my speech!
For I have killed a man for wounding me,
and a boy for bruising me.

²⁴ If Cain is to be avenged seven times, then Lamech—77 times!"

²⁵ Adam was intimate with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son and she named him Seth, "For God has appointed me another seed in place of Abel—since Cain killed him." ²⁶ To Seth, also was born a son. He named him Enosh. Then people began to call on ADONAI 's Name.

Book of Genealogies

5 This is the Book of the Genealogies of Adam: When God created Adam, in the likeness of God He made him. ² Male and female He created them, and He blessed them and called their name "Adam" when He created them. ³ Adam lived 130 years, then fathered a son in his likeness, after his image, and named him Seth. ⁴ Then the days of Adam after he fathered Seth were 800 years, and He fathered other sons and daughters. ⁵ So all Adam's days that he lived were 930 years, and then he died.

⁶ Seth lived 105 years, then fathered Enosh. ⁷ Seth lived 807 years after he fathered Enosh, and he fathered sons and daughters. ⁸ So all Seth's days were 912 years, and then he died.

⁹ Enosh lived 90 years, then fathered Kenan. ¹⁰ Enosh lived 815 years after he fathered Kenan, and he fathered sons and daughters. ¹¹ So all of Enosh's days were 905 years, and then he died.

¹² Kenan lived 70 years, then fathered Mahalalel. ¹³ Kenan lived 840 years after he fathered Mahalalel, he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁴ So all of Kenan's days were 910 years, and then he died.

¹⁵ Mahalalel lived 65 years, then fathered Jared. ¹⁶ Mahalalel lived 830 years after he fathered Jared, and he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁷ So all of Mahalalel's days were 895 years, and then he died.

¹⁸ Jared lived 162 years, then fathered Enoch. ¹⁹ Jared lived 800 years after he fathered Enoch, and he fathered sons and daughters. ²⁰ So all of Jared's days were 962 years, and then he died.

²¹ Enoch lived 65 years, then fathered Methuselah.

²⁴ And Enoch continually walked with God—then he was not there, because God took him.

²⁵ Methuselah lived 187 years and fathered Lamech.

²⁶ And Methuselah lived 782 years after he fathered Lamech, and he fathered other sons and daughters.

²⁷ So all of Methuselah's days were 969 years, and then he died.

²⁸ Lamech lived 182 years and he fathered a son.

³⁰ Lamech lived 595 years after he fathered Noah, and he fathered sons and daughters. ³¹ So all of Lamech's days were 777 years, and then he died.

³² And Noah was 500 years old when he fathered Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Evil Inclination of All Humanity

6 Now when humankind began to multiply on the face of the ground and daughters were born to them, ² then the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were good and they took for themselves wives, any they chose. ³ Then ADONAI said, "My Spirit will not remain with humankind forever, since they are flesh. So their days will be 120 years." ⁴ The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, whenever the sons of God came to the daughters of men, and gave birth to them. Those were the mighty men of old, men of renown.

⁵ Then ADONAI saw that the wickedness of humankind was great on the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of their heart was only evil all the time. ⁶ So ADONAI regretted that He made humankind on the earth, and His heart was deeply pained. ⁷ So ADONAI said, "I will wipe out humankind, whom I have created, from the face of the ground, from humankind to livestock, crawling things and the flying creatures of the sky, because I regret that I made them."

⁸ But Noah found favor in ADONAI's eyes.

Parashat Noah

⁹ These are the genealogies of Noah. Noah was a righteous man. He was blameless among his generation. Noah continually walked with God. ¹⁰ Noah fathered three sons: Shem, Ham and Japheth. ¹¹ Now the earth was ruined before God, and the earth was filled with violence. ¹² God saw the earth, and behold it was ruined because all flesh had corrupted their way upon the earth.

Instructions for the Ark

¹³ Then God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh is coming before Me, for the earth is filled with violence because of them. Behold, I am about to bring ruin upon them along with the land. ¹⁴ Make for yourself an ark of gopher wood. You shall make the ark with compartments and smear pitch on it, both inside and out. ¹⁵ Now this is how you shall make it: the length of the ark 300 cubits, its breadth 50 cubits, and its height 30 cubits. ¹⁶ You shall make a roof for the ark, and you shall finish it to within a cubit from the top. You shall put the door of the ark in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third stories. ¹⁷ Now I am about to bring the flood—water upon the land—to destroy all flesh in which is the spirit of life from under the sky. Everything that is on the land will perish. ¹⁸ But I will establish My covenant with you. So you shall come into the ark—you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. ¹⁹ Also of every living thing, of all flesh, you shall bring two of everything—male and female—into the ark to keep alive with you. ²⁰ Of the flying creatures according to their kind, of the livestock according to their kind, of all the crawling creatures of the ground according to their kind—two of everything will come to you to keep them alive. ²¹ As for you: take for yourself every kind of edible food and gather it to yourself. It will be food for you and for them."

²² So Noah did according to all that God commanded him; he did so exactly.

Deliverance Through the Flood

7 Then ADONAI said to Noah, "Come—you and all your household—into the ark. For you only do I perceive as righteous before Me in this generation. ² Of every clean animal you shall take with you seven of each kind, male and female; and of the animals which themselves are not clean two, male and female; ³ also of the flying creatures of the sky seven of every kind, male and female, to keep offspring alive on the face of the whole land. ⁴ For in seven more days, I am going to make it rain upon the land forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe out all existence that I made from the face of the ground." ⁵ So Noah did all just as ADONAI commanded him.

⁶ Now Noah was 600 years old when the flood came—water upon the land. ⁷ So Noah, his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives, entered the ark because of the floodwaters. ⁸ Of the clean animals and unclean animals, the flying creatures and everything that crawls on the ground, ⁹ two by two they came to Noah, into the ark, male and female, just as God commanded Noah.

¹⁰ After the seven days, the floodwaters were upon the land. ¹¹ In the six-hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on this day, all the water sources of the great deep burst open, and the windows of the sky were opened. ¹² Then there was rain upon the land forty days and forty nights.

¹³ On that same day Noah, along with Noah's sons Shem, Ham and Japheth, Noah's wife and the three wives of Noah's sons with them, entered the ark, ¹⁴ they and every animal according to its kind, and all the livestock according to its kind, and every crawling creature that crawls on the land according to its kind, and every flying creature according to its kind, every bird, every winged creature. ¹⁵ So to Noah and into the ark they went by twos—all flesh in which was the spirit of life. ¹⁶ Those that came, male and female of all flesh, came just as God commanded him. Then ADONAI shut him in.

¹⁷ The flood was forty days upon the land, and the waters increased and lifted the ark, so that it rose above the land. ¹⁸ The waters overpowered and became very mighty over the land, and the ark drifted on the surface of the water. ¹⁹ The waters completely overpowered the land so that all the high mountains beneath the entire sky were covered. ²⁰ The waters rose 15 cubits higher, as the mountains were covered. ²¹ All flesh perished—those that crawl on the land, the flying creatures, livestock, wild animals, all creatures that swarm upon the land, and all humankind. ²² Everything that had the breath of the spirit of life in its nostrils—everything on dry land—died. ²³ So He wiped out all existence that was upon the surface of the ground, everything from people to livestock, to crawling creatures, and to flying creatures of the sky. They were wiped out off the land. Only Noah and those with him in the ark survived. ²⁴ The waters overpowered the land for 150 days.

8 Then God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and all the livestock that were with him in the ark. So God caused a wind to pass over the land and the water subsided. ² Also the sources of the deep and the windows of the skies were closed up, and the rain from the sky was held back. ³ The waters kept receding gradually from upon the land and the waters decreased by the end of 150 days. ⁴ The ark came to rest in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat. ⁵ The waters went on decreasing until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains appeared.

⁶ It was at the end of forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark that he had made. ⁷ Then he sent out a raven and it kept going back and forth until the waters were drying up from the land. ⁸ Then he sent out a dove to see whether the waters had receded from the surface of the ground. ⁹ But the dove did not find a resting place for the sole of her foot. She returned to him in the ark because water covered the surface of the whole land. He stretched out his hand

¹⁰ So he waited yet another seven days and again he sent the dove out from the ark. ¹¹ The dove came to him at evening, and surprisingly—a freshly plucked olive leaf was in its mouth. So Noah knew that the waters had receded from the land. ¹² After he waited seven more days, he sent out the dove, but she did not return to him again.

¹³ It was in his six-hundred-and first year—in the first month, on the first day of the month—that the waters had dried up from the land. Then Noah removed the cover of the ark and he looked, and behold, the surface of the ground had dried up. ¹⁴ By the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the land was dry.

Noah's Soothing Sacrifice

¹⁵ Then God spoke to Noah, saying, ¹⁶ "Come out of the ark, you and your wife, your sons and your sons' wives with you. ¹⁷ Every animal that is with you of all flesh, including the flying creatures, livestock and every crawling creature that crawls on the land, bring out with you, and let them swarm in the land and be fruitful and multiply upon the land."

¹⁸ So Noah came out, with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives. ¹⁹ Every animal—every crawling creature, every flying creature, everything that crawls upon the land—came out from the ark in their families.

²¹ When ADONAI smelled the soothing aroma, ADONAI said in His heart, "I will never again curse the ground on account of man, even though the inclination of the heart of humankind is evil from youth. Nor will I ever again smite all living creatures, as I have done.

²² While all the days of the land remain, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will not cease."

Covenant with Noah's Descendants

9 God blessed Noah and his sons, and He said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the land.

² The fear and terror of you will be on every wild animal, and on every flying creature of the sky, with everything that crawls on the ground and with all the fish of the sea—into your hand they are given. ³ Every crawling thing that is alive will be food for you, as are the green plants—I have now given you everything. ⁴ Only flesh with its life—that is, its blood—you must not eat! ⁵ Surely your lifeblood will I avenge. From every animal and from every person will I avenge it. From every person's brother will I avenge that person's life.

⁶ The one who sheds human blood, by a human will his blood be shed, for in God's image He made humanity.

⁸ Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, saying, ⁹ "Now I, behold, I am about to establish My covenant with you, and with your seed after you, ¹⁰ and with every living creature that is with you, including the flying creatures, the livestock, and every wild animal with you, of all that is coming out of the ark—every animal of the earth. ¹¹ I will confirm My covenant with you—never again will all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood, and never again will there be a flood to ruin the land."

¹² Then God said, "This is the sign of the covenant that I am making between Me and you, and every living creature that is with you for all future generations.

¹³ My rainbow do I place in the cloud, and it will be a sign of the covenant between Me and the land.

¹⁴ Whenever I bring clouds over the land and the rainbow appears in the clouds, ¹⁵ I will remember My covenant that is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh. Never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all flesh. ¹⁶ When the rainbow is in the cloud, I will look at it, to remember the perpetual covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the land."

¹⁷ Then God said to Noah, "This is the sign of the covenant that I have confirmed between Me and all flesh that is on the land."

Dispersion of Noah's Family

¹⁸ Noah's sons who came out from the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth, and Ham was the father of Canaan. ¹⁹ These three were Noah's sons, and from these the whole earth dispersed.

²⁴ When Noah woke up from his wine, he learned what his youngest son had done to him. ²⁵ So he said, "Cursed is Canaan: the lowest slave will he be to his brothers."

²⁶ He also said,
"Blessed be ADONAI, God of Shem, and let Canaan be his servant.

²⁷ May God enlarge Japheth, may he dwell in the tents of Shem, and may Canaan be his slave."

²⁸ Now Noah lived 350 years after the flood. ²⁹ So all Noah's days were 950 years. Then he died.

10 And these are the genealogical records of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Sons were born to them after the flood.

² Japheth's sons were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech and Tiras. ³ Gomer's sons were Ashkenaz, Riphath and Togarmah. ⁴ Javan's sons were Elishah and Tarshish, the Kittites and the Dodanites.

⁵ From these the coastlands of the nations spread out in their lands, each one according to his language, according to their families, into their nations.

²⁰ These are Ham's sons according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands, in their nations.

²¹ Sons were also born to Shem, who was Japheth's older brother and the father of all the sons of Eber.

²² Shem's sons were Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud and Aram. ²³ Aram's sons were Uz, Hul, Gether and Mash. ²⁴ Arpachshad fathered Shelah, and Shelah fathered Eber. ²⁵ Two sons were born to Eber. The name of the first was Peleg—because in his days the land was divided—and his brother's name was Joktan.

²⁶ Joktan fathered Elmodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, ²⁷ Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, ²⁸ Obal, Abimael, Sheba, ²⁹ Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All of these are Joktan's sons. ³⁰ Their dwelling place was from Mesha till you come toward Sephar, the eastern hill country. ³¹ These are Shem's sons, according to their families, according to their languages, in their lands, according to their nations.

³² These are the families of the sons of Noah according to their genealogies in their nations, and from these the nations were dispersed on the earth after the flood.

Tower of Babel

11 Now the entire earth had the same language with the same vocabulary. ² When they traveled eastward, they found a valley-plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. ³ They said to one another, "Come! Let's make bricks and bake them until they're hard." So they used bricks for stone, and tar for mortar.

⁴ Then they said, "Come! Let's build ourselves a city, with a tower whose top reaches into heaven. So let's make a name for ourselves, or else we will be scattered over the face of the whole land."

⁵ Then ADONAI came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of man had built. ⁶ ADONAI said, "Look, the people are one and all of them have the same language. So this is what they have begun to do. Now, nothing they plan to do will be impossible.

⁷ Come! Let Us go down and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand each other's language."

⁸ So ADONAI scattered them from there over the face of the entire land, and they stopped building the city.

⁹ This is why it is named Babel, because ADONAI confused the languages of the entire world there, and from there ADONAI scattered them over the face of the entire world.

From Shem to Abram

¹⁰ These are the genealogical records of Shem: Shem was 100 years old when he fathered Arpachshad—two years after the flood. ¹¹ Shem lived 500 years after he fathered Arpachshad, and he fathered sons and daughters. ¹² Arpachshad lived 35 years when he fathered Shelah. ¹³ Arpachshad lived 403 years after he fathered Shelah, and fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁴ Shelah lived 30 years and he fathered Eber. ¹⁵ Shelah lived 403 years after he fathered Eber, and fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁶ Eber lived 34 years and he fathered Peleg. ¹⁷ Eber lived 430 years after he fathered Peleg, and he fathered sons and daughters. ¹⁸ Peleg lived 30 years and he fathered Reu. ¹⁹ Peleg lived 209 years after he fathered Reu, and he fathered sons and daughters. ²⁰ Reu lived 32 years and he fathered Serug. ²¹ Reu lived 207 years after he fathered Serug, and he fathered sons and daughters. ²² Serug lived 30 years and fathered Nahor. ²³ Serug lived 200 years after he fathered Nahor, and he fathered sons and daughters. ²⁴ Nahor lived 27 years and he fathered Terah. ²⁵ Nahor lived 119 years after he fathered Terah, and he fathered sons and daughters. ²⁶ Terah lived 70 years when he fathered Abram, Nahor and Haran.

²⁷ These are Terah's genealogies: Terah fathered Abram, Nahor and Haran. Haran fathered Lot. ²⁸ Haran died before Terah his father, in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldeans. ²⁹ Abram and Nahor took wives for themselves. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah—the daughter of Haran, father of Milcah and Iscah. ³⁰ Sarai was barren; she did not have a child.

³¹ Terah took Abram his son and Lot, Haran's son, his grandson, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife, and he took them out of Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the land of Canaan. But when they came to Haran, they settled there.

³² Terah's days were 205 years, and Terah died in Haran.

Abram Obeys the Calling

12 Then ADONAI said to Abram, "Get going out from your land, and from your relatives, and from your father's house, to the land that I will show you.

² My heart's desire is to make you into a great nation, to bless you, to make your name great so that you may be a blessing.

³ I will bless those who bless you, but whoever curses you I will curse, [†] and in you all the families of the earth will be blessed." ^{††}

⁷ Then ADONAI appeared to Abram, and said, "I will give this land to your seed." So there he built an altar to ADONAI, who had appeared to him. ⁸ From there he moved to the mountain to the east of Beth-El and erected his tent (with Beth-El to the west and Ai to the east). There he built an altar to ADONAI and called on the Name of ADONAI. ⁹ So Abram kept on journeying southward. ^{‡†}

Abram and Sarai in Egypt

¹⁰ Now there was a famine in the land. So Abram went down to Egypt to live as an outsider there, because the famine was severe in the land. ¹¹ Just as he was about to enter Egypt he said to Sarai his wife, "Look, please, I know that you are an attractive woman. ¹² So when the Egyptians see you they'll say, 'This is his wife.' And they'll kill me; but you, they'll let live. ¹³ Please say that you are my sister, so that I'll be treated well for your sake, and my life will be spared because of you.”

¹⁴ When Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians did see that the woman was very beautiful. ¹⁵ Indeed, Pharaoh’s officials saw her and they raved about her to Pharaoh. Then the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s house. ¹⁶ But Abram was treated well for her sake, and he got sheep, cattle, male donkeys, male and female slaves, female donkeys and camels.

¹⁷ But ADONAI struck Pharaoh and his household with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram’s wife. ¹⁸ So Pharaoh called Abram and said, “What’s this that you did to me? Why didn’t you tell me that she is your wife? ¹⁹ Why did you say, ‘She is my sister,’ so that I took her to be my wife? Now, here is your wife. Take—and go!” ²⁰ Then Pharaoh instructed men concerning him, and they expelled him, with his wife, and everything that belonged to him.

13 So Abram went up from Egypt—he and his wife and everything that belonged to him, and Lot with him—to the Negev. ² Now Abram was very rich in livestock, silver and gold. ³ He proceeded by stages from the Negev as far as Beth-El—to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-El and Ai, ⁴ to the place of the altar that he had made there at first, and there Abram called on the Name of ADONAI.

Lot Separates From Abram

⁵ Now Lot, who was going with Abram, also had sheep and cattle and tents, ⁶ so that the land could not support them living together, because their possessions were many, and they were not able to stay together. ⁷ So there was a quarrel between the shepherds of Abram’s livestock and the shepherds of Lot’s livestock. (Now the Canaanites and the Perizzites were living in the land then.)

¹⁰ Lot lifted up his eyes and saw that the whole area surrounding the Jordan was well watered in its entirety (before ADONAI destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah)—like ADONAI’s garden, like the land of Egypt—till you come to Zoar. ¹¹ So Lot chose for himself the whole area surrounding the Jordan. Lot journeyed to the east, and they separated from each other. ¹² Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the valley. And he moved his tent from place to place near Sodom. ¹³ But the people of Sodom were evil—very great sinners against ADONAI.

¹⁴ After Lot separated himself from him, ADONAI had said to Abram, “Lift up your eyes, now, and look from the place where you are, to the north, south, east and west. ¹⁵ For all the land that you are looking at, I will give to you and to your seed forever. ¹⁶ I will make your seed like the dust of the earth so that if one could count the dust of the earth, then your seed could also be counted. ¹⁷ Get up! Walk about the land through its length and width—for I will give it to you.”

¹⁸ So Abram moved his tent from place to place, and came and dwelt by Mamre’s large trees, which are in Hebron, and there built an altar to ADONAI.

Abram Rescues Lot

14 Now it came about in the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goiim, ² that they made war with Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (this is Zoar). ³ All of these kings joined forces in the Valley of the Siddim (this is the Salt Sea). ⁴ For twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled. ⁵ In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer came with the kings who were with him, and they defeated the Rephaim in Ashterot-karnaim, the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh-kiryataim, ⁶ and the Horites in the hill country of Seir as far as El-Paran, which is beside the wilderness. ⁷ Then they came again to Enmishpat (this is Kadesh), and they subdued all the territory of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who live in Hazazon-tamar.

¹³ Then a survivor came and told Abram the Hebrew, who was dwelling by the large trees belonging to Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eschol and the brother of Aner—they were Abram’s allies. ¹⁴ When Abram heard that his kinsman had been taken captive, he rallied his trained men, those born in his household, 318 of them, and went in pursuit as far as Dan. ¹⁵ Then he divided his servants against them at night, and he defeated them and pursued them as far as Hovah, which is north of Damascus. ¹⁶ He brought back all the possessions, and also brought back his kinsman Lot and his possessions, as well as the women and the other people.

Melech-Tzedek, King of Salem

¹⁷ Now after he returned from defeating Chedor-laomer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sodom went out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (this is the King's Valley). ¹⁸ Then Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine—he was a priest of El Elyon. ¹⁹ He blessed him and said,

“Blessed be Abram by El Elyon, Creator of heaven and earth,
²⁰ and blessed be El Elyon,
Who gave over your enemies into your hand.”
Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

²¹ Then the king of Sodom said to Abram, “Give me the people—the possessions take for yourself.”

²² But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I raise my hand in oath to ADONAI, El Elyon, Creator of heaven and earth. ²³ Not a thread or even a sandal strap of all that is yours will I take, so you will not say, ‘I’ve made Abram rich!’ ²⁴ I claim nothing but what the young men have eaten, and the share of the men who went with me—Aner, Eschol, and Mamre—let them take their share.”

Cutting a Covenant

15 After these things the word of ADONAI came to Abram in a vision saying,

“Do not fear, Abram.

I am your shield,
your very great reward.”

² But Abram said, “My Lord ADONAI, what will You give me, since I am living without children, and the heir of my household is Eliezer of Damascus?” ³ Then Abram said, “Look! You have given me no seed, so a house-born servant is my heir.”

⁵ He took him outside and said, “Look up now, at the sky, and count the stars—if you are able to count them.” Then He said to him, “So shall your seed be.”

⁷ Then He said to him, “I am ADONAI who brought you out from Ur of the Chaldeans, in order to give you this land to inherit it.”

⁸ So he said, “My Lord ADONAI, how will I know that I will inherit it?”

⁹ Then He said to him, “Bring Me a three year old young cow, a three year old she-goat, a three year old ram, a turtle-dove and a young bird.”

¹⁰ So he brought all these to Him and cut them in half, and put each piece opposite the other; but he did not cut the birds. ¹¹ Then birds of prey came down upon the carcasses, but Abram drove them away.

† Meaning, King of Righteousness

¹² When the sun was about to set and a deep sleep fell on Abram, behold, terror of great darkness was falling upon him! ¹³ Then He said to Abram, “Know for certain that your seed will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, and they will be enslaved and oppressed 400 years. ¹⁴ But I am going to judge the nation that they will serve. Afterward they will go out with many possessions. ¹⁵ But you, you will come to your fathers in peace. You will be buried at a good old age. ¹⁶ Then in the fourth generation they will return here—for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet complete.” ¹⁷ When the sun set and it became dark, behold, there was a smoking oven and a fiery torch that passed between these pieces.

¹⁸ On that day ADONAI cut a covenant with Abram, saying, “I give this land to your seed, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates River: ¹⁹ the Kenite, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, ²⁰ the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Raphaites, ²¹ the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.”

Hagar and Ishmael

16 Now Sarai, Abram's wife, had not borne him children. But she had an Egyptian slave-girl—her name was Hagar. ² So Sarai said to Abram, “Look now, ADONAI has prevented me from having children. Go, please, to my slave-girl. Perhaps I'll get a son by her.”

Abram listened to Sarai's voice. ³ So Sarai, Abram's wife, took her slave-girl Hagar the Egyptian—after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan—and gave her to Abram her husband to be his wife. ⁴ Then he went to Hagar and she became pregnant. When she saw that she was pregnant, in her eyes her mistress was belittled.

⁵ So Sarai said to Abram, “The wrong done to me is because of you! I myself placed my slave-girl in your embrace. Now that she saw that she became pregnant, so in her eyes I am belittled. May ADONAI judge between you and me!”

⁶ Abram said to Sarai, “Look! Your slave-girl is in your hand. Do to her what is good in your eyes.”

So Sarai afflicted her, and she fled from her presence. ⁷ Then the angel of ADONAI †† found her by the spring of water in the wilderness, next to the spring on the way to Shur. ⁸ He said, “Hagar, Sarai's slave-girl, where have you come from and where are you going?”

She said, “I am fleeing from the presence of my mistress Sarai.”

⁹ The angel of ADONAI said, “Return to your mistress and humble yourself under her hand.” ¹⁰ Then the angel of ADONAI said to her, “I will bountifully multiply your seed, and they will be too many to count.” ¹¹ Then the angel of ADONAI said to her,

Behold, you are pregnant and about to bear a son, and you shall name him Ishmael—

†† Or, Messenger

for ADONAI has heard your affliction.

¹² He will be a wild donkey of a man.

His hand will be against everyone, and everyone's hand against him,
and away from all his brothers will he dwell.

¹³ So she called ADONAI who was speaking to her, "You are the God who sees me." For she said, "Would I have gone here indeed looking for Him who looks after me?" ¹⁴ That is why the well is named, the Well of the Living One Who Sees Me. (Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.)

¹⁵ Then Hagar gave birth to a son for Abram, and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.

¹⁶ Abram was 86 years old when Hagar gave birth to Ishmael for Abram.

Covenant of Circumcision

17 When Abram was 99 years old, ADONAI appeared to Abram, and He said to him, "I am El Shaddai. Continually walk before Me and you will be blameless. ² My heart's desire is to make My covenant between Me and you, and then I will multiply you exceedingly much."

³ Abram fell on his face, and God spoke with him, saying, ⁴ "For My part, because My covenant is with you, you will be the father of a multitude of nations. ⁵ No longer will your name be Abram, but your name will be Abraham, because I make you the father of a multitude of nations. ⁶ Yes, I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make you into nations, and kings will come forth from you. ⁷ Yes, I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your seed after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, in order to be your God and your seed's God after you. ⁸ I will give to you and to your seed after you the land where you are an outsider—the whole land of Canaan—as an everlasting possession, and I will be their God."

⁹ God also said to Abraham, "As for you, My covenant you must keep, you and your seed after you throughout their generations. ¹⁰ This is My covenant that you must keep between Me and you and your seed after you: all your males must be circumcised. ¹¹ You must be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin, and this will become a sign of the covenant between Me and you. ¹² Also your eight-day-olds must be circumcised, every male, throughout your generations, including a house-born slave or a slave bought with money from any foreigner who is not of your seed. ¹³ Your house-born slave and your purchased slave must surely be circumcised. So My covenant will be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. ¹⁴ But the uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin—that person will be cut off from his people; he has broken My covenant."

¹⁵ God also said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her by the name Sarai. Rather, Sarah is her name. ¹⁶ And I will bless her, and moreover, I will give you a son from her. I will bless her and she will give rise to nations. Kings of the peoples will come from her."

¹⁷ Then Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said to his heart, "Will a son be born to a 100-year-old man? Or will Sarah—who is 90 years old—give birth?" ¹⁸ So Abraham said to God, "If only Ishmael might live before you!"

¹⁹ But God said, "On the contrary, Sarah your wife will bear you a son and you must name him Isaac. So I will confirm My covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his seed after him. ²⁰ As for Ishmael, I have heard you. See, I have blessed him and I will make him fruitful, and I will multiply him very very much. He will father twelve princes and I will make him a great nation. ²¹ But My covenant will I establish with Isaac whom Sarah will bear to you at this set time next year."

²² When He finished speaking with him, God went up from Abraham.

²³ Then Abraham took Ishmael his son and all of his house-born slaves and all his purchased slaves—every male among the men of Abraham's house—and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskin on this very same day, just as God had spoken with him. ²⁴ Abraham was 99 years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, ²⁵ and his son Ishmael was 13 years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. ²⁶ On this very same day Abraham and Ishmael his son were circumcised. ²⁷ Also all the men of his house, house-born slaves and slaves purchased from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

Parashat Vayera

The Promise of a Son

18 Then ADONAI appeared to him at Mamre's large trees while he was sitting in the entrance of his tent during the heat of the day. ² When he lifted up his eyes to see, suddenly, three men were standing right by him. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed down to the ground. ³ Then he said, "My Lord, if now I have found favor in your eyes, please do not pass by your servant. ⁴ Please let a little water be brought so you can wash your feet, and make yourselves comfortable under the tree. ⁵ And let me bring a bit of bread so that you can refresh yourselves—then you can pass on—since you have passed by your servant."

They said, "Do just as you have said." ⁶ So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, "Quick! Knead three measures of fine flour and prepare bread loaves!" ⁷ Then to the herd Abraham ran and took a young ox, tender and good, and he gave it to the servant, who prepared it quickly. ⁸ Then he took butter and milk and the young ox that he had prepared and set it before them. While he was standing by them under the tree, they ate.

⁹ Then they said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" "There, in the tent," he said.

¹⁰ Then He said, "I will most surely return to you in about a year's time, surprisingly, Sarah your wife will have a son."

Sarah was listening at the entrance of the tent, which was behind Him. ¹¹ Now Abraham and Sarah were old, advanced in years—Sarah had stopped having the way of women. ¹² So Sarah laughed to herself, saying, "After I've grown decrepit, can I have desire—and my lord so old?"

¹³ Then ADONAI said to Abraham, "Why is it that Sarah laughed, saying, 'Can I really give birth when I am so old?' ¹⁴ Is anything too difficult for ADONAI? At the appointed time I will return to you—in about a year—and Sarah will have a son."

¹⁵ Sarah denied it saying, "I didn't laugh!" For she was afraid.

But He said, "No—for you did laugh."

Abraham Intercedes

¹⁶ Then the men got up from there and looked down over Sodom. Abraham was walking with them to send them off, ¹⁷ when ADONAI said, "Should I keep secret from Abraham what I am about to do, ¹⁸ seeing that Abraham will most certainly become a great and mighty nation and in him all the nations of the earth will be blessed? ¹⁹ For I have made myself known to him so that he will command his sons and his household after him to keep the way of ADONAI by doing righteousness and justice, so that ADONAI may bring upon Abraham what He has spoken about him."

²⁰ Then ADONAI said, "The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great indeed, and their sin is very grievous indeed. ²¹ I want to go down now, and see if they deserve destruction, as its outcry has come to Me. And if not, I will know."

²² Then the men turned from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham was still standing before ADONAI. ²³ Abraham drew near and said, "Will you really sweep away the righteous with the wicked? ²⁴ Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city. Will you really sweep away and not spare the place for the sake of fifty righteous who are in it? ²⁵ Far be it from You to do such a thing—to cause the righteous to die with the wicked, so that the righteous and the wicked share the same fate! Far be it from You! Shall the Judge of the whole world not exercise justice?"

²⁶ Then ADONAI said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous people within the city, I will spare the whole place for their sake."

²⁷ Then Abraham answered and said, "Look, pray, I have decided to speak to my Lord, though I am dust and ashes. ²⁸ Suppose the fifty righteous people are lacking five. Will You destroy the whole city for lack of five?"

And He said, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there."

²⁹ So he spoke to Him yet again and said, "Perhaps forty will be found there?"

And He said, "I will not do it for the sake of the forty."

³⁰ Then he said, "Please, let my Lord not be angry, so I may speak. Perhaps thirty will be found there?"

And He said, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

³¹ Then he said, "Look, pray, I have decided to speak to my Lord: Perhaps twenty will be found there?"

And He said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the twenty."

³² Then he said, "Please, let not my Lord be angry, so I may speak once more. Perhaps ten will be found there?"

And He said, "I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten."

³³ Now when He had finished speaking to Abraham, ADONAI left, and Abraham returned to his place.

Sodom and Gomorrah

19 Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, while Lot was sitting at the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he got up to meet them, and bowed down with his face to the ground. ² Then he said, "Here, please my lords, please turn aside to your servant's house, spend the night and wash your feet. Then you can get up early and go on your way."

But they said, "No. We will spend the night in the open plaza."

³ But he urged them strongly, so they turned aside to him and they came into his house. He prepared a feast for them and baked matzot, and they ate. ⁴ They had not yet lain down when the men of the city (the men of Sodom) surrounded the house—from youth to elderly, all the people without exception. ⁵ And they called out to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can have relations with them!"

⁶ But Lot went out to them at the doorway and shut the door behind him, ⁷ and said, "Please, my brothers, don't act wickedly. ⁸ Look, I have two daughters who haven't been intimate with a man. Please let me bring them out to you—do to them whatever is good in your eyes! However, do nothing to these men—since they have come under the protection of my roof."

⁹ "Get out of the way!" they said, and they said, "This one came as an outsider and dares to judge! Now we'll treat you worse than them!"

So they strongly pressed against the man, Lot, and moved in close to break the door down. ¹⁰ But the men reached out their hands, brought Lot into the house with them, and shut the door. ¹¹ Then they struck the men at the doorway of the house with blindness—from youth to elderly—so that they gave up trying to find the doorway.

¹² Then the men said to Lot, "Who else related to you is still here? A son-in-law, your sons and your daughters, whoever else is related to you in the city—bring them out of the place! ¹³ For we are about to destroy this place, because their outcry has become so great before ADONAI that ADONAI has sent us to destroy it.”

¹⁴ So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law who were going to marry his daughters, “Get up!” he said, “Get out of this place! For ADONAI is about to destroy the city!” But in the eyes of his sons-in-law, he was like a joker.

¹⁵ So when morning dawned the angels rushed Lot, saying, “Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or else you will be swept away with the city’s iniquity!” ¹⁶ But he hesitated. So the men grabbed his hand, his wife’s hand and his two daughters’ hands—because of ADONAI’s compassion for him—and they brought him out and left him outside the city.

¹⁸ But Lot said to them, “No, my Lord, please! ¹⁹ Look, please, your servant has found favor in Your eyes and You have magnified Your merciful loyalty, which You have shown me by letting me live. But I can’t escape to the hill country—for the disaster will overtake me and I’ll die! ²⁰ Look, please, this city is close enough to flee there, and it’s little. Please let me escape there. Isn’t it small? And let me live!”

²¹ So He said to him, “Behold, I will grant your request concerning this matter too—not to demolish the city of which you have spoken. ²² Hurry! Flee to safety there, because I cannot do anything until you arrive there.” (This is why the town is named Zoar.)

²³ The moment the sun rose upon the land, Lot entered Zoar, ²⁴ and ADONAI rained sulfur and fire upon Sodom and Gomorrah from ADONAI out of the sky.

²⁶ But his wife looked behind him and she turned into a pillar of salt.

²⁷ Now Abraham rose early in the morning to the place where he had stood before ADONAI, ²⁸ and he looked down toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward the entire land of the surrounding area, and saw, behold, the smoke of the land ascended like smoke from a furnace. ²⁹ So it was, as God destroyed the cities of the surrounding area, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the upheaval, when He demolished the cities where Lot had dwelt.

Lot Fathers Moab and Ammon

³⁰ Then Lot went up from Zoar and dwelled on the mountain, his two daughters with him, because he was afraid to dwell in Zoar. So he lived in a cave—he and his two daughters.

³¹ Then the firstborn said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is no man in the land to come to us as is the custom of the whole land. ³² Come on! Let’s make our father drink wine so that we can lie with him and keep the seed from our father alive. ³³ So they made their father drink wine that night, and the firstborn came and lay down with her father. Yet he did not know that she lay down and got up. ³⁴ On the following day, the firstborn said to the younger, “See! I slept with my father last night. Let’s make him drink wine tonight as well. Come on! Sleep with him so that we’ll keep the seed from our father alive.” ³⁵ So they made their father drink wine that night as well, and the younger got up and lay down with him and he did not know that she lay down and got up. ³⁶ So Lot’s two daughters become pregnant by their father. ³⁷ Then the firstborn gave birth to a son and named him Moab: he is the ancestor of the Moabites to this day. ³⁸ The younger also gave birth to a son and named him Ben-Ammi: he is the ancestor of the sons of Ammon to this day.

Sarah Renewed

²⁰ Then Abraham journeyed from there to the land of the Negev and settled between Kadesh and Shur. While he was dwelling as an outsider in Gerar, ² Abraham said of Sarah his wife, “She is my sister.” So King Abimelech of Gerar sent for and took Sarah. ³ But God came to Abimelech in a dream at night and said to him, “Behold, you are as good as dead, because of the woman whom you have taken—since she is a married woman.”

⁴ Now Abimelech had not come near her. So he said, “My Lord, will You slay a nation, even though innocent? ⁵ Didn’t he say to me, ‘She’s my sister’? And she herself even said, ‘He’s my brother.’ I did this with integrity of my heart and guiltlessness of my hands.”

⁶ Then God said to him in a dream, “Yes, I myself knew that you did this with integrity of your heart, so I, yes I Myself prevented you from sinning against Me. That is why I did not allow you to touch her. ⁷ So now, return the man’s wife, for he is a prophet. And let him pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her, know that you will surely die—you and all who are yours.”

⁸ Abimelech rose early in the morning, called all his servants and spoke all these words in their ears—and the men were very frightened. ⁹ Then Abimelech called to Abraham and said to him, “What have you done to us, and how have I sinned against you, that you brought great sin upon me and my kingdom? You’ve done to me things that should not be done!” ¹⁰ Abimelech also said to Abraham, “What motivated you to do this thing?”

¹¹ Abraham said, “Because I thought, ‘There is certainly no fear of God in this place, so they’ll kill me, because of my wife.’ ¹² And besides, she really is my sister. She’s my father’s daughter, though not my mother's daughter. Then she became my wife. ¹³ So when God made me wander away from my father's house, I said to her, 'This is your loyalty that you must show me: in every place we go, say of me, 'He is my brother.'"

¹⁴ Then Abimelech took sheep, cattle, male slaves and female slaves and gave them to Abraham, and returned his wife Sarah to him. ¹⁵ Then Abimelech said, "Look, my land is before you. Dwell wherever it pleases you." ¹⁶ At the same time he said to Sarah, "Look, I've given a thousand shekels to your brother. Look, it is compensation for everything that happened—so to everyone with you, you are vindicated."

¹⁷ Then Abraham prayed to God and God healed Abimelech, his wife and his female slaves so that they could bear children. ¹⁸ For ADONAI had completely locked up every womb in Abimelech's household because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

Birth of Isaac

21 Then ADONAI visited Sarah just as He had said, and ADONAI did for Sarah just as He had spoken.

² So Sarah became pregnant and gave birth to a son for Abraham in his old age, at the appointed time that God had told him. ³ Abraham named his son who was born to him—whom Sarah bore for him—Isaac. ⁴ Then Abraham circumcised Isaac, his eight-day-old son, just as God had commanded him. ⁵ Abraham was 100 years old when Isaac his son was born to him.

⁶ So Sarah said, "God has made laughter for me! Everyone who hears will laugh with me." ⁷ She also said, "Who would have said to Abraham, 'Sarah has nursed children?' For I have given birth to a son in his old age!"

Ishmael Banished, Yet Delivered

⁸ The child grew and was weaned—Abraham made a big feast on the day Isaac was weaned. ⁹ But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian whom she had born to Abraham—making fun. ¹⁰ So she said to Abraham, "Drive out this female slave and her son, for the son of this female slave will not be an heir with my son—with Isaac."

¹¹ Now the matter was very displeasing in Abraham's eyes on account of his son. ¹² But God said to Abraham, "Do not be displeased about the boy and your slave woman. Whatever Sarah says to you, listen to her voice. For through Isaac shall your seed be called. ¹³ Yet I will also make the son of the slave woman into a nation, because he is your seed."

¹⁴ So Abraham got up early in the morning and took bread and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar, putting them on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away. She went and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

¹⁵ When the water from the skin was finished, she abandoned the child under one of the bushes. ¹⁶ Then she went and sat herself down opposite, about a bow-shot away, for she had said, "I can't bear to see the child dying!" So she sat down opposite and lifted up her voice and wept.

¹⁷ Then God heard the boy's voice and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and He said to her, "What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, because God has heard the boy's voice where he is. ¹⁸ Get up! Lift the boy up, and hold on to him with your hand, for I will make him a great nation."

¹⁹ Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water, and she went and filled the water skin, and gave the boy a drink.

²⁰ God was with the boy and he grew. He dwelled in the wilderness and became an archer. ²¹ He dwelled in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Covenant of Abimelech and Abraham

²² Now it came about at that same time that Abimelech—with Phicol the commander of his army—said to Abraham, "God is with you in all that you do. ²³ So now, make a pledge to me here, by God, that you will not violate your word with me or with my descendants or with my offspring. As I have shown loyalty to you, show the same to me, and to the land in which you have lived as an outsider."

²⁴ Abraham said, "I make a pledge." ²⁵ Now Abraham had rebuked Abimelech because of the well of water that Abimelech's servants had seized. ²⁶ So Abimelech said, "I don't know who did this thing. Nor did you tell me, nor did I hear about it until today."

³⁰ He said, "You are to accept the seven ewe-lambs from my hand, so that they may be a witness for me that I dug this well." ³¹ That is why that place is named Beer-sheba, because there both of them made a pledge, ³² and they made a covenant in Beer-sheba. Then Abimelech got up, with Phicol the commander of his army, and they returned to the land of the Philistines.

³³ Then he planted a tamarisk tree in Beer-sheba and called there on the Name of ADONAI, the Everlasting God. ³⁴ He lived as an outsider in the land of the Philistines for many days.

The Binding of Isaac

22 Now it was after these things that God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham." [†] "Hineni," he said.

² Then He said, "Take your son, your only son whom you love † —Isaac—and go to the land of Moriah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains about which I will tell you."

³ So Abraham got up early in the morning, saddled his donkey and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. He split wood for the burnt offering, and got up and went to the place about which God had told him. ⁴ On the third day, Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from a distance. ⁵ Abraham said to his young men, "Sit yourselves down here with the donkey. As for me and the young man, we'll go over there, worship and return to you."

⁶ Then Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and put it on Isaac his son. In his hand he took the fire and the knife. So the two of them walked on together.

⁷ Then Isaac said to Abraham his father, "My father?" Then he said, "Here I am, my son."

He said, "Look. Here's the fire and the wood. But where's the lamb for a burnt offering?"

⁸ Abraham said, "God will provide for Himself a lamb for a burnt offering, my son."

The two of them walked on together. ⁹ Then they came to the place about which God had told him, and Abraham built the altar there, laid out the wood, bound up Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. ^{††10} Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to slaughter his son.

¹¹ But the angel of ADONAI called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham! Abraham!"

He said, " Hineni! "

¹² Then He said, "Do not reach out your hand against the young man—do nothing to him at all. For now I know that you are one who fears God—you did not withhold your son, your only son, from Me."

¹³ Then Abraham lifted up his eyes and behold, there was a ram, just caught in the thick bushes by its horns. So Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son. ¹⁴ Abraham named that place, ADONAI Yireh, —as it is said today, "On the mountain, ADONAI will provide."

¹⁵ The angel of ADONAI called to Abraham a second time from heaven ¹⁶ and said, "By myself I swear—it is a declaration of ADONAI —because you have done this thing, and you did not withhold your son, your only son, ^{‡17} I will richly bless you and bountifully multiply your seed like the stars of heaven, and like the sand that is on the seashore, and your seed will possess the gate of his enemies. ¹⁸ In your seed all the nations of the earth will be blessed—because you obeyed My voice." ^{‡†}

¹⁹ Then Abraham returned to his young men and they got up and went together to Beer-sheba. Then Abraham dwelled in Beer-sheba.

† cf. Matt. 12:10; John 3:16-18. †† cf. Ps. 105:9; Luke 1:73; Heb. 6:13-20. ‡ cf. Ps. 105:9; Luke 1:73; Heb. 6:13-20. ‡† cf. Acts 3:25.

²⁰ Now it was after these things that it was told to Abraham, "Look, Milcah has also borne sons to Nahor your brother: ²¹ Uz his firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram, ²² Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Yid-laph and Bethuel." ²³ Then Bethuel fathered Rebekah. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother. ²⁴ His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maacah.

Parashat Chayei Sarah

Abraham Purchases Machpelah

23 Now Sarah's life was 127 years—the years of Sarah's life. ² Sarah died in Kiriath-arba (that is, Hebron), in the land of Canaan. Abraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep over her.

³ Then Abraham rose from before his dead one and spoke to the sons of Heth saying, ⁴ "I am an outsider and a sojourner among you. Give me a gravesite among you so that I may bury my dead from before my presence."

⁷ Then Abraham got up and bowed down to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth, ⁸ and spoke with them saying, "If you are of a mind to let me bury my dead from before my presence, listen to me. Plead with Ephron son of Zophar on my behalf, ⁹ that he may give me the cave of Machpelah that belongs to him, that is at the end of his field. At the full price let him give it to me in your midst for a gravesite."

¹⁰ Now Ephron was sitting in the midst of the sons of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the ears of the sons of Heth, all those who enter the gate of his city, saying, ¹¹ "No, my lord, listen to me. The field—I hereby give it to you. Also the cave that is in it—I hereby give it to you. In the eyes of the sons of my people, I hereby give it to you. Bury your dead one."

¹² Then Abraham bowed down before the people of the land, ¹³ and spoke to Ephron in the ears of the people of the land saying, "But if only you would please listen to me. I hereby give the price of the field. Accept it from me that I may bury my dead one there."

¹⁴ So Ephron answered Abraham, saying to him, ¹⁵ "My lord, listen to me. A land worth 400 shekels of silver—what is that between me and you? Bury your dead one."

¹⁶ Abraham heard Ephron. So Abraham weighed out to Ephron the silver that he had spoken of in the ears of the sons of Heth—400 shekels of silver at the merchant's rate. ¹⁷ Now Ephron's field that is in Machpelah next to Mamre—the field and the cave that is in it, and all the trees that are in the field in all its surrounding territory—was handed over ¹⁸ to Abraham as a purchased possession in the eyes of the sons of Heth, before all those who enter the gate of his city.

¹⁹ Afterward, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah next to Mamre (that is, Hebron), in the land of Canaan. ²⁰ So the field and the cave that was in it were handed over to Abraham as a gravesite from the sons of Heth.

Courting of Rebekah

24 Now Abraham was old, advanced in years, and ADONAI blessed Abraham in everything. ² Then Abraham said to his servant, the oldest of his household who managed everything that belonged to him, “Now put your hand under my thigh, ³ so that I may make you take an oath by ADONAI, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from among the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I am dwelling. ⁴ On the contrary, to my land and to my relatives you must go and get a wife for my son Isaac.”

⁵ But the servant said to him, “Suppose the woman were unwilling to follow after me to this land? Should I then have your son go back to the land you came from?”

⁶ Abraham said to him, “See to it that you don’t return my son there. ⁷ ADONAI, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from my native land and who spoke to me and made a pledge to me saying, ‘To your seed I will give this land’—He will send His angel before you and you will take a wife for my son from there. ⁸ If the woman is not willing to follow after you, then you will be free from this oath of mine. Nevertheless, you must not return my son there.” ⁹ So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and he made a pledge to him concerning this matter.

¹² “ADONAI, the God of Abraham my master,” he said, “please make something happen before me today, and show loyalty to Abraham my master. ¹³ Look, I am standing by the spring of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are going out to draw water.

¹⁴ Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, ‘Please tip your jar so that I may drink,’ and she will say, ‘Drink—and I’ll also water your camels’—let her be the one You have appointed for your servant Isaac. So by this I’ll know that You have shown graciousness to my master.”

¹⁵ Now before he had finished speaking, behold there was Rebekah (who was born to Bethuel son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham’s brother) going out with her jar on her shoulder. ¹⁶ Now the young woman was very good looking, a girl of marriageable age, and she was a virgin. She went down to the spring and filled her jar and came up. ¹⁷ Then the servant ran to meet her and said, “Please let me sip a little water from your jar.”

¹⁸ So she said, “Drink, my lord,” and she quickly lowered her jar onto her hand and gave him a drink.

²² Now after the camels had finished drinking, the man took out a nose ring of gold weighing a half-shekel and two bracelets on her hands weighing ten shekels of gold. ²³ “Whose daughter are you?” he said. “Please tell me. Is there room in your father’s house for us to spend the night?”

²⁴ She said to him, “I’m the daughter of Bethuel, son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.” ²⁵ She also said to him, “There’s both straw and plenty of feed with us, as well as room to spend the night.”

²⁶ Then the man bowed down and worshiped ADONAI, ²⁷ and he said, “Blessed be ADONAI, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His loyalty and His truth toward my master. As for me, ADONAI has guided me in the way to the house of my master’s brothers.”

²⁹ Now Rebekah had a brother and his name was Laban, and Laban ran outside to the man at the spring. ³⁰ As soon as he saw the nose ring and the bracelets on his sister’s hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister saying, “Thus the man said to me,” he went to the man. There he was, standing by the camels at the spring. ³¹ So he said, “Come in, blessed of ADONAI. Why are you standing outside when I’ve tied up the house and there is room for the camels?”

³² So the man came to the house and he unloaded the camels. Straw and feed were given to the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. ³³ Food was placed before him to eat, but he said, “I won’t eat until I’ve stated my business.”

So he said, “Speak.”

³⁴ “I am Abraham’s servant,” he said. ³⁵ “ADONAI has blessed my master very much so that he has become great, and He has given to him flocks of sheep and cattle, silver and gold, male slaves and female slaves, camels and donkeys. ³⁶ Now Sarah, my master’s wife, gave birth to a son for my master after she was old, and He gave him everything he owns. ³⁷ Then my master made me take an oath, saying, ‘You must not take a wife for my son from among the daughters of the Canaanites in whose land I'm dwelling.³⁸ Instead you must go to my father's house and to my family, and take a wife for my son.'³⁹ But I said to my master, 'Suppose the woman won't come back with me?'⁴⁰ So he said to me, 'ADONAI, before whom I've walked continually, will send His angel with you, and He will make your way successful, and you will take a wife for my son from my family and from my father's household.⁴¹ Then you'll be free from my oath—if you come to my family and if they don't give her to you—then you'll be free from my oath.'⁴² So I came today to the spring and I said, 'ADONAI, the God of Abraham my master, if You are really going to make my way upon which I am walking successful,⁴³ look, I'm standing by the spring of water. So let it be that the unmarried girl who is going out to draw water, to whom I'll say, "Please give me a little water to drink from your jug,"⁴⁴ and she'll say to me, "You drink, and I'll also draw water for your camels"—let her be the woman whom ADONAI appoints for my master's son!' ⁴⁵ I had not yet finished speaking to my heart, and behold there was Rebekah going out—her jug was on her shoulder and she went down to the spring and drew water. So I said to her, 'Please give me a drink.'⁴⁶ And she quickly lowered her jug off of her and said, 'Drink, and I'll also water your camels.' So I drank, and she also watered the camels.⁴⁷ Then I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him.' Then I placed the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her hands.⁴⁸ I bowed down and worshiped ADONAI and blessed ADONAI, the God of my master Abraham, who guided me on the true way to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son.⁴⁹ So now, if you're really going to show loyalty and truth to my master, tell me. But if not, tell me and I'll turn to the right or to the left."

⁵⁰ Then Laban and Bethuel answered, and they said, "The matter proceeds from ADONAI. We cannot speak to you bad or good.⁵¹ Rebekah is before you. Take her and go, and let her become a wife for our master's son, just as ADONAI has spoken."

⁵² Now when Abraham's servant heard their words, he bowed down to the ground to ADONAI.⁵³ Then the servant brought out articles of silver and gold, and garments, and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave precious gifts to her brothers and to her mother.

⁵⁴ Then they ate and drank, he and the men who were with him, and spent the night.

When they arose in the morning, he said, "Send me off to my master."

⁵⁵ But her brother with her mother said, "Let the young woman stay with us a few days—or ten. Afterwards she may go."

⁵⁶ But he said to them, "Don't delay me, since ADONAI has made my way successful. Send me off so that I can go to my master."

⁵⁷ So they said, "We'll call the young woman and let's ask her opinion."⁵⁸ Then they called Rebekah and said to her, "Will you go with this man?"

She said, "I will go."

⁵⁹ So they sent Rebekah their sister off with her nanny, and Abraham's servant and his men,⁶⁰ and they blessed Rebekah and said to her:

"Our sister, may you become thousands of ten thousands, and may your seed possess the gate of those who hate him."

⁶¹ Then Rebekah got up, with her maids, and they mounted the camels and followed after the man. So the servant took Rebekah and departed.

⁶² Now Isaac had come from visiting Beer-lahai-roi and was living in the land of the Negev.⁶³ Isaac went out to meditate strolling in the field at dusk. Then he lifted up his eyes and saw, behold, camels were coming.⁶⁴ Rebekah also lifted up her eyes and saw Isaac. Then she fell off her camel.

⁶⁵ Then she said to the servant, "Who is that man there who is walking in the field—to meet us?"

The servant said, "He is my master."

So she took the veil and covered herself.⁶⁶ Then the servant recounted to Isaac all the things he had done.

⁶⁷ Then Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother, took Rebekah and she became his wife—and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after the loss of his mother.

Abraham's Old Age and Descendants

25 Now Abraham took another wife—her name was Keturah.² She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah.³ Jokshan fathered Sheba and Dedan. Dedan's sons were Asshurim, Letushim and Leummim.⁴ Midian's sons were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah. All of these were Keturah's sons.⁵ Now Abraham gave everything that he had to Isaac,⁶ but to the sons of Abraham's concubines, Abraham had given gifts and sent them away from his son Isaac while he was still living, eastward to the land of the east.

¹¹ After Abraham's death, God blessed Isaac his son, and Isaac lived near Beer-lahai-roi.

¹² Now these are the genealogies of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar, Sarah's Egyptian slave-girl, bore to Abraham.¹³ These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names according to their descendants: Ishmael's firstborn, Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, ¹⁴ Mishma, Dumah, Massa, ¹⁵ Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedem. ¹⁶ These are Ishmael's sons and these are their names, by their unwalled and walled settlements, twelve princes according to their clans. ¹⁷ These are the years of Ishmael's life: 137 years. He breathed his last, died and was gathered to his peoples. ¹⁸ Then they dwelled from Havilah to Shur, which is east of Egypt as you go toward Assyria. Over against all his brothers he fell.

Esau and Jacob

¹⁹ Now these are the genealogies of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham fathered Isaac. ²⁰ Isaac was 40 years old when he took for himself Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan-aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean, to be his wife. ²¹ Isaac prayed to ADONAI on behalf of his wife because she was barren. ADONAI answered his plea and his wife Rebekah became pregnant.

²² But the children struggled with one another inside her, and she said, "If it's like this, why is this happening to me?" So she went to inquire of ADONAI. ²³ ADONAI said to her:

"Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples from your body will be separated.

One people will be stronger than the other people, but the older will serve the younger."

²⁹ Now Jacob cooked a stew. When Esau came in from the field, he was exhausted, ³⁰ so Esau said to Jacob, "Please feed me some of this really red stuff, because I'm exhausted"—that is why he is called Edom.

³¹ So Jacob said, "Sell your birthright to me today."

³² Esau said, "Look, I'm about to die. Of whatever use is this to me—a birthright?"

³³ Jacob said, "Make a pledge to me now."

So he made a pledge to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob. ^{†34} Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank, then got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

Confirming the Covenant with Isaac

26 Now there was a famine in the land—aside from the previous famine that happened in Abraham's days. So Isaac went to King Abimelech of the Philistines, to Gerar. ² Then ADONAI appeared to him and said, "Do not go down to Egypt. Dwell in the land about which I tell you. ³ Live as an outsider in this land and I will be with you and bless you—for to you and to your seed I give all these lands—and I will confirm my pledge that I swore to Abraham your father. ⁴ I will multiply your seed like the stars of the sky and I will give your seed all these lands. And in your seed all the nations of the earth will continually be blessed, ⁵ because Abraham listened to My voice and kept My charge, My mitzvot, My decrees, and My instructions." ⁶ So Isaac stayed in Gerar.

⁷ Now the men of the place asked about his wife. So he said, "She is my sister," because he was afraid to say, "my wife"—"or else the men of the place would kill me on account of Rebekah, because she's good looking."

⁸ Now after he had been there for a long time, King Abimelech of the Philistines peered down through the window and saw, behold, Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah. ⁹ So Abimelech called Isaac and said, "So in fact she's your wife! Now how could you say, 'She's my sister'?"

Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'Or else I might die because of her.'"

¹⁰ Then Abimelech said, "What is it that you've done to us? One of the people could have easily slept with your wife and you would've brought guilt on us."

¹¹ So Abimelech commanded all the people saying, "Whoever touches this man or his wife will surely die!"

ADONAI Blesses Isaac

¹² Then Isaac sowed in that land and in that year reaped a hundredfold. ADONAI blessed him ¹³ and the man became great and continued to become greater until he became very great. ¹⁴ He acquired livestock of sheep and livestock of cattle, and numerous servants. Then the Philistines envied him. ¹⁵ All the wells that his father's servants had dug in the days of his father Abraham the Philistines stopped up and filled with dirt. ¹⁶ So Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go away from us, for you are much more powerful than us."

¹⁷ So Isaac departed from there, camped in the Valley of Gerar and dwelled there. ¹⁸ Then Isaac dug again the wells of water that had been dug in the days of his father Abraham—the Philistines had stopped them up after Abraham's death. He gave them the same names that his father had given them. ¹⁹ Then Isaac's servants dug in the valley and found a well of living water there. ²⁰ But the shepherds of Gerar quarreled with Isaac's shepherds saying, "The water is ours!" So he named the well Quarrel, because they quarreled with him. ²¹ Then he dug another well and they quarreled over it too, so he named it Accusation. ²² Then he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not quarrel over it. So he named it Wide Spaces and said, "Because now ADONAI has created wide spaces for us and we will be fruitful in the land."

²³ He went up from there to Beer-sheba. ²⁴ ADONAI appeared to him that night and said, "I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you, and I will bless you and multiply your seed for the sake of Abraham my servant."

²⁵ So he built an altar there and called on the Name of ADONAI. He pitched his tent there and Isaac's servants hollowed out a well there.

Covenant of Isaac and Abimelech

²⁶ Now Abimelech went to him from Gerar along with Achuzzat his friend and Phicol the commander of his army. ²⁷ Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me and sent me away from you?"

²⁸ They said, "We've clearly seen that ADONAI has been with you. So we said, 'Let there now be an agreement between us—between us and you—and let us make a covenant with you: ²⁹ that you will do us no harm, just as we haven't touched you and just as we did nothing to you but good, and sent you away in shalom. You are now blessed by ADONAI.'"

³⁰ Then he made a feast for them and they ate and drank. ³¹ Then they got up early in the morning and made a pledge, each to his brother. Then Isaac sent them away and they departed from him in shalom.

³² Now it happened that on that day Isaac's servants came and told him about the well that they dug, and said to him, "We've found water." ³³ So he called it Pledge. That is why the city's name is Beer-sheba to this day.

³⁴ When Esau was 40 years old, he took as wife Judith the daughter of Be-eri the Hittite, and Basemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite. ³⁵ But they caused a bitterness of spirit for Isaac and Rebekah.

Jacob Tricks Isaac

27 Now it was when Isaac grew old and his eyes were too dim to see, that he called Esau his elder son, and said to him, "My son."

"Here I am," he said to him.

² "Look, I'm old," he said. "I don't know the day of my death. ³ So now, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt me some game. ⁴ Then prepare me a delicious meal that I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, so that my soul may bless you before I die."

⁵ Now Rebekah was listening when Isaac was speaking to Esau his son. So while Esau went to the field to hunt game to bring in, ⁶ Rebekah said to Jacob her son, "Look, I heard your father speaking to your brother Esau saying, ⁷ 'Bring me some game and prepare me a delicious meal that I may eat and bless you in ADONAI's presence before my death.' ⁸ So now, my son, listen to my voice, to what I am commanding you. ⁹ Go now to the flock and bring me two good young goats from there, so that I may prepare them as a delicious meal for your father—that he'll love. ¹⁰ Then you'll bring it to your father to eat, so that he may bless you before his death."

¹¹ But Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Look, my brother Esau is a hairy man, but I'm a smooth man.

¹² Perhaps my father will touch me, and he'll take me for a mocker, and I'll bring upon myself a curse and not a blessing."

¹⁴ So he went and got them, and brought them to his mother, and his mother prepared a delicious meal that his father would love. ¹⁵ Rebekah also took her elder son Esau's favorite clothes that were with her in the house, and she put them on her younger son Jacob, ¹⁶ along with the skins of the young goats on his hands and on the hairless part of his neck. ¹⁷ She put the delicious meal and the bread that she had prepared in the hand of Jacob her son.

¹⁸ Then he came to his father and said, "My father."

And he said, "I'm here. Who are you, my son?"

¹⁹ Then Jacob said to his father, "I'm your firstborn, Esau. I've done just what you said to me. Sit up, please, and eat some of my wild game so that your soul may bless me."

²⁰ Then Isaac said to his son, "How in the world were you able to find it so quickly, my son?"

He said, "Because ADONAI your God made it happen for me."

²¹ Then Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come closer so I can feel you my son—whether or not you really are my son Esau."

²² So Jacob came closer to his father Isaac, and he felt him. Then he said, "The voice is Jacob's voice but the hands are Esau's hands." ²³ He did not recognize him because his hands were like the hairy hands of his brother Esau. So he blessed him. ²⁴ But he said, "Are you really my son Esau?"

So he said, "I am."

²⁵ Then he said, "Bring it to me and I'll eat some of my son's wild game, so that my soul may bless you." So he brought it to him and he ate, and he brought him wine and he drank.

²⁶ Then his father Isaac said to him, "Please come closer and kiss me my son." ²⁷ So he came closer and kissed him. When he smelled the smell of his clothes, he blessed him and said, "Behold, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that ADONAI has blessed.

²⁸ May God give you—
from the dew of the sky and from the fatness of the land—an abundance of grain and new wine.

²⁹ May peoples serve you and may nations bow down to you.
Be master over your brothers.
May your mother's sons bow down to you.
May those who curse you be cursed and may those who bless you be blessed."

³⁰ No sooner had Isaac finished blessing Jacob and Jacob had just gone out from his father Isaac's presence, than Esau his brother came in from his hunting.
³¹ Then he also prepared a delicious meal and brought it to his father, and he said to his father, "Let my father get up and eat of his son's wild game that your soul may bless me."

³² His father Isaac said, "Who are you?"
And he said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."

³³ Then Isaac trembled with intense trembling and said, "Who was it then that hunted wild game and brought it to me? I ate it all just before you came and I blessed him—and yes, he will be blessed."

³⁴ When Esau heard his father's words, he shouted with an intensely bitter groan. Then he said to his father, "Bless me, me too, my father!"

³⁵ Then he said, "Your brother came deceitfully and took your blessing."

³⁶ He said, "Is this why he was named Jacob—since he's tricked me twice already? My birthright he's taken. Look! Now he's taken my blessing!" Then he said, "Haven't you saved a blessing for me?"

³⁷ Isaac answered and said to Esau, "Behold, I've made him master over you, and all your brothers I've given to him as servants. I've provided him with grain and new wine. What then can I do for you, my son?"

³⁸ Esau said to his father, "Do you just have one blessing, my father? Bless me too, my father!" And Esau lifted up his voice and wept.

³⁹ Then Isaac his father said to him,
"Behold, away from the land's fatness shall your dwelling be, away from the dew of the sky above.

⁴⁰ By your sword shall you live, and your brother shall you serve.
But when you tear yourself loose, you will tear his yoke off your neck."

⁴¹ So Esau bore a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him, and Esau said in his heart, "Let the time for mourning my father draw near, so that I can kill my brother Jacob!"

⁴² Now to Rebekah was reported the words of Esau her elder son. So she sent and called for Jacob her younger son, and said to him, "Look, your brother Esau is consoling himself about you with the thought of killing you. ⁴³ So now my son, listen to my voice. Get up—flee to Laban my brother in Haran! ⁴⁴ Then stay with him a few days, until your brother's rage subsides, ⁴⁵ until your brother's rage turns away from you and he forgets what you've done to him. Then I'll send for you and get you back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"

⁴⁶ Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I'm disgusted with my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth like these women, from the daughters of the land what is life to me?"

Jacob Sent to Laban

28 So Isaac called for Jacob, blessed him, commanded him and said to him, "Don't take a wife from the daughters of Canaan. ² Get up, go to Paddan-aram, to the house of Bethuel, your mother's father, and take for yourself a wife from there, from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother. ³ Now may El Shaddai bless you, and make you fruitful and multiply you so that you will become an assembly of peoples. ⁴ And may he give you the blessing of Abraham, to you and to your seed with you that you may take possession of the land of your sojourn, which God gave to Abraham."

⁵ Then Isaac sent Jacob away and he went toward Paddan-aram, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, the mother of Jacob and Esau. ⁶ Now Esau saw that Isaac blessed Jacob when he sent him to Paddan-aram to take for himself a wife from there, when he blessed him and commanded him saying, "Don't take a wife from the daughters of Canaan." ⁷ Jacob listened to his father Isaac and to his mother and went toward Paddan-aram. ⁸ Then Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan were contemptible in his father Isaac's eyes. ⁹ So Esau went to Ishmael and took Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, Nebaioth's sister, for his wife, besides his other wives.

Jacob's Ladder From Heaven

¹⁰ Then Jacob left Beer-sheba and went toward Haran. ¹¹ He happened upon a certain place and spent the night there, for the sun had set. So he took one of the stones from the place and put it by his head and lay down in that place. ¹² He dreamed: All of a sudden, there was a stairway set up on the earth and its top reaching to the heavens—and behold, angels of God going up and down on it! ¹³ Surprisingly, ADONAI was standing on top of it † and He said, "I am ADONAI, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. The land on which you lie, I will give it to you and to your seed. ¹⁴ Your seed will be as the dust of the land, and you will burst forth to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south. And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed—and in your seed. ¹⁵ Behold, I am with you, and I will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land, for I will not forsake you until I have done what I promised you."

¹⁶ Jacob woke up from his sleep and said, "Undoubtedly, ADONAI is in this place—and I was unaware." ¹⁷ So he was afraid and said, "How fearsome this place is! This is none other than the House of God—this must be the gate of heaven!"

¹⁸ Early in the morning Jacob got up and took the stone, which he had placed by his head, and set it up as a memorial stone and poured oil on top of it. ¹⁹ He called the name of that place Beth-El (though originally the city's name was Luz). ²⁰ Then Jacob made a vow saying, "If God will be with me and watch over me on this way that I am going, and provide me food to eat and clothes to wear, ²¹ and I return in shalom to my father's house, then ADONAI will be my God. ²² So this stone which I set up as a memorial stone will become God's House, and of everything You provide me I will definitely give a tenth of it to You."

Jacob Loves Rachel

29 Then Jacob lifted up his feet and went to the land of the peoples of the east. ² When he looked, suddenly, there was a well in the field, and there were three herds of sheep resting by it. (For from that well they would water the flocks. The stone on the mouth of the well was large. ³ When all the herds gathered there, they would roll away the stone from the mouth of the well and water the flocks, and put the stone back to its place over the mouth of the well.)

⁴ Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?"

"We're from Haran," they said.

⁵ So he said to them, "Do you know Laban, Nahor's son?"

They said, "We know."

⁶ He said to them, "Is he well?"

"Well," they said. "Look, here comes his daughter Rachel with the flock."

⁷ He said, "Since it's still the middle of the day, it's not time for the livestock to be gathered. Water the flock and let them go and graze."

¹³ Now when Laban heard the news about Jacob, his sister's son, he ran to meet him, hugged and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Then he told Laban all these things. ¹⁴ Laban said to him, "Surely you are my own bone and flesh." And he stayed with him for a month.

¹⁵ Then Laban said to Jacob, "Should you, my relative, serve me for nothing? Tell me, what should your wages be?"

¹⁶ Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. ¹⁷ Leah's eyes were delicate, but Rachel was beautiful in form and appearance. ¹⁸ Jacob was in love with Rachel, so he said, "Let me serve you for seven years for Rachel your younger daughter."

¹⁹ Laban said, "It's better that I give her to you than I give her to another man! Stay with me." ²⁰ So Jacob worked for Rachel seven years, yet in his eyes it was like a few days, because of his love for her.

²¹ Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife, for my days are completed, so I may go to her." ²² So Laban gathered all the men of the place and he prepared a feast. ²³ When it was evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to him, and he went to her.

²⁵ So when it was morning, behold there she was, Leah! So he said to Laban, "What is this you've done to me? Wasn't it for Rachel that I worked with you? So why have you deceived me?"

²⁶ But Laban said, "It's not done so in our place—to give the younger before the firstborn. ²⁷ Complete the bridal week for this one. Then we'll also give you this other—for work that you'll do with me—another seven years more."

²⁸ So Jacob did; he also completed this one's bridal week. Then he gave him his daughter Rachel to be his wife. ²⁹ Laban also gave his daughter Rachel his female servant Bilhah, to be a servant for her.

³⁰ Jacob also went to Rachel and indeed loved Rachel more than Leah. So he served with him for yet another seven years.

Rivalry Continues With Wives

³¹ Now ADONAI saw that Leah was unloved, so he opened her womb; but Rachel was unable to conceive. ³² Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son and named him Reuben because she said, "For ADONAI has seen my affliction. Surely now my husband will love me." ³³ Then she became pregnant again and gave birth to a son, and said, "For ADONAI heard that I am hated, so He's given me this one also," and she named him Simeon. ³⁴ Then she became pregnant again and gave birth to a son, and said, "Now this time my husband will join himself to me because I've given birth to three sons for him." For this reason he was named Levi. ³⁵ Then she became pregnant again and gave birth to a son and said, "This time I praise ADONAI." For this reason she named him Judah. Then she stopped having children.

30 When Rachel saw that she bore no children for Jacob, Rachel was jealous of her sister. So she said to Jacob, "Give me sons—if there are none, I'll die!"

² But Jacob became furious with Rachel and said, "Am I, instead of God, the one who withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

³ So she said, "Here's my maid-servant Bilhah. Go to her and let her give birth on my knees, so that from her I may also build a family." ⁴ Then she gave her maid-servant Bilhah to him for a wife, and Jacob went to her. ⁵ Bilhah became pregnant and gave birth to a son for Jacob. ⁶ So Rachel said, "God has judged my cause and also heard my voice—and given me a son." Therefore she named him Dan. ⁷ Then Rachel's female servant became pregnant again and gave birth to a second son for Jacob. ⁸ So Rachel said, "I've surely wrestled greatly with my sister — also I've won." So she named him Naphtali.

⁹ Now Leah saw that she stopped having children, so she took Zilpah her female servant and gave her to Jacob as a wife. ¹⁰ Then Zilpah, Leah's female servant, gave birth to a son for Jacob. ¹¹ Leah said, "How fortunate!" So she named him Gad. ¹² Then Zilpah, Leah's female servant, gave birth to a second son for Jacob. ¹³ Leah said, "How happy am I, for daughters have called me happy." So she named him Asher.

¹⁴ Now during the days of the wheat harvest, Reuben went and found mandrakes in the field and he brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

¹⁵ But she said to her, "Wasn't it enough that you took my husband away? You'd also take away my son's mandrakes?"

So Rachel said, "That being so, let him lie with you tonight, in exchange for your son's mandrakes."

¹⁶ So when Jacob came from the field in the evening, Leah went out to meet him, and she said, "You must come to me. For I've actually hired you with my son's mandrakes." So he lay with her that very night.

¹⁷ Moreover, God heard Leah, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a fifth son for Jacob. ¹⁸ Leah said, "God gave me my reward †† because I gave my female servant to my husband." So she named him Issachar. ¹⁹ Then Leah became pregnant again and gave birth to a sixth son for Jacob. ²⁰ Leah said, "God has presented me a good gift. This time my husband will honor me for I've borne six sons for him." So she named him Zebulun. ²¹ Afterwards she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah.

²² Then God remembered Rachel and God listened to her and opened her womb. ²³ Then she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. So she said, "God has taken away my disgrace." ²⁴ She named him Joseph saying, "May ADONAI add another son for me."

Jacob Outwits Laban

²⁵ Now it was after Rachel gave birth to Joseph that Jacob said to Laban, "Send me away so that I can go to my place and to my land. ²⁶ Give me my wives and my children for whom I've served you, and let me go. For you yourself know my labor—that I've served you."

²⁷ But Laban said to him, "If I've found favor in your eyes—I've looked for good omens, and ADONAI has blessed me because of you." ²⁸ Moreover he said, "Name your own price and I'll pay it."

²⁹ Then he said to him, "You yourself know how I've served you and how your livestock fared with me. ³⁰ For you had very little before I came, and it has been busting at the seams in abundance. So ADONAI blessed you with my every step. So now, when am I myself going to make something for my household also?"

³¹ Then he said, "What can I pay you?"

Jacob said, "You don't need to pay me anything. If you will do this one thing for me, I will shepherd your flock again and watch it: ³² let me pass through your flock today, removing every colorfully spotted lamb from there and every dark-colored lamb among the sheep as well as the colorfully spotted among the goats—and that will be my salary. ³³ So tomorrow my honesty will testify on my behalf when you come to check on my salary you agreed to. Every one that isn't colorfully spotted among the goats or dark-colored among the sheep with me, it is stolen."

³⁴ So Laban said, "All right! May it be according to your word." ³⁵ On that day he removed the colorfully striped and colorful billy goats as well as all the colorfully spotted goats—every one with white on it—and every dark-colored one among the lambs, and he put them in the hand of his sons. ³⁶ Then he put a three-day's journey between them and Jacob, while Jacob was shepherding Laban's remaining flocks.

⁴² But when the flocks were sickly, he did not put the branches down—so the sickly ones became Laban's and the stronger ones became Jacob's. ⁴³ And the man grew exceedingly prosperous and had numerous flocks, along with female and male servants, camels and donkeys.

Jacob Secretly Leaves Laban

31 Now Jacob heard the words Laban's sons were saying, "Jacob has taken everything that belongs to our father, and from what belongs to our father he has made all these riches." ² Then Jacob saw Laban's face, and he noticed that his expression wasn't the same as it was just a day or two before. ³ Then ADONAI said to Jacob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you."

⁴ So Jacob sent and called for Rachel and Leah to come to the field, to his flock. ⁵ He said to them, "I can see by your father's face that his expression isn't the same as it was just a day or two ago. But the God of my father has been with me. ⁶ Now you yourselves know that I've served your father with all my strength. ⁷ Yet your father has fooled around with me and has changed my salary ten times—but God hasn't allowed him to harm me. ⁸ If he would say, 'the spotted ones will be your salary,' then the flocks would give birth to spotted ones. Or if he would say, 'the striped ones will be your salary,' then all the flocks would give birth to striped ones. ⁹ So God has taken away your father's livestock and has given them to me. ¹⁰ Now it happened when the flocks were in heat that I lifted up my eyes and saw, in a dream, behold, the males going up to the flocks were striped, spotted and speckled. ¹¹ Then the angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Hineni.' ¹² He said, 'Lift up your eyes and see that all the males going up to the flocks are striped, spotted and speckled. For I have seen everything Laban has done to you. ¹³ I am the God of Beth-El where you anointed a memorial stone, where you made a vow to Me. Get up now and leave this land, and return to the land of your relatives.'"

¹⁴ Then Rachel answered along with Leah and they said to him, "Is there still a portion and inheritance for us in our father's house? ¹⁵ Aren't we considered foreigners to him? For he has sold us and has also completely used up our bridal price. ¹⁶ For all the riches that God has taken away from our father is for us and for our children. So now, everything God said to you, do it!"

¹⁹ But while Laban went to shear his flocks, Rachel stole the idols that belonged to her father, ²⁰ while Jacob stole the heart from Laban the Aramean by not telling him that he was fleeing. ²¹ He himself fled with everything that belonged to him, and he got up and crossed the River, and set his face toward the hill country of Gilead.

Laban Confronts Jacob and Makes Covenant

²² When Laban was told on the third day after Jacob had fled, ²³ he took his relatives with him and pursued him a seven days' journey. Then he overtook him in the hill country of Gilead. ²⁴ But God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night and said to him, "Watch yourself—lest you say anything to Jacob, good or bad."

²⁵ So Laban caught up to Jacob. (Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country, so Laban and his brothers pitched their tents in the hill country of Gilead as well). ²⁶ Then Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done, that you've stolen my heart and have driven my daughters away like captives of the sword? ²⁷ Why did you secretly flee away, and steal from me? Why didn't you tell me, so I could send you away with joy and with songs, with tambourines and with lyres? ²⁸ And you didn't even let me kiss my sons and daughters!"

"Now, you've behaved foolishly. ²⁹ It is in the power of my hand to do evil with you, but yesterday the God of your fathers spoke to me, saying, 'Watch yourself—lest you say anything to Jacob, good or bad.' ³⁰ So now, when you up and left because you really missed your father's house, why did you steal my gods?"

³¹ In response, Jacob said to Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I thought, 'Suppose you snatch your daughters away from me.' ³² Anyone with whom you find your gods shall not live. In front of our relatives, identify whatever is yours that is with me, and take it back." (But Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.)

³³ So Laban went into Jacob's tent, and Leah's tent and into the tent of the two maids, but he found nothing. Then he went out of Leah's tent and entered Rachel's tent. ³⁴ (Now Rachel had taken the idols, put them in the camel's saddlebag and sat on them.) So Laban felt around the entire tent but did not find them. ³⁵ She said to her father, "Let not my lord be angry that I cannot rise before you, for I am having the way of women." So he searched but did not find the idols.

³⁶ Then Jacob got angry and argued with Laban. Jacob answered and said to Laban, "What's my crime? What's my sin that you've hotly pursued me? ³⁷ For you've felt through all my things. What did you find? Any of your household things? Put them here, in front of my relatives and yours—so they can decide between the two of us. ³⁸ These past twenty years I've been with you, your ewes and female goats have never miscarried, and I've never eaten the rams of your flock. ³⁹ I didn't bring you animals torn by wild beasts. I myself would bear the loss. You would require it from my hand, whether stolen by day or stolen by night. ⁴⁰ I was consumed by heat during the day, consumed by frost during the night, and my sleep fled from my eyes. ⁴¹ This is how it's been for me twenty years in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flocks—and you changed my salary ten times! ⁴² Had I not had the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, you would have sent me away empty-handed now. But God saw my misery and the toil of my hands and last night He became the Judge.”

⁴³ In response Laban said to Jacob, “The daughters are my daughters, and the sons are my sons, and the flocks are my flocks. Everything you see is mine. But what can I do for these, my daughters, today, or for their sons to whom they’ve given birth? ⁴⁴ So now, come, let’s make a covenant, you and I, and let it be a witness between you and me.”

⁴⁵ So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar, ⁴⁶ and Jacob said to his relatives, “Gather stones.” So they took the stones and made a pile. Then they ate there on the pile. ⁴⁷ Laban called it Jegar-sahadutha and Jacob called it Gal-ed. ⁴⁸ And Laban said, “This pile is a witness between me and you today.” That is why its name is Gal-ed, ⁴⁹ or Mizpah, for he said, “Let ADONAI keep watch between you and me when we are out of one another’s sight. ⁵⁰ If you mistreat my daughters, and if you take wives besides my daughters, though no one is with us, look! God is the witness between you and me.”

⁵¹ Laban said further to Jacob, “Behold, this pile, and this pillar which I’ve set up between you and me: ⁵² this pile serves as a witness, that I won’t pass by this pillar to go to you, and that you won’t pass by this pillar and this pillar to go to me—with evil intent. ⁵³ May the God of Abraham and the gods of Nahor, the gods of their father, judge between us.”

Jacob also made an oath by the fear of his father Isaac. ⁵⁴ Then Jacob offered a sacrifice on the mountain and he invited his relatives to eat bread. So they ate bread and spent the night on the mountain.

32 (31:55) Early in the morning Laban got up, kissed his grandchildren and daughters and blessed them. Then Laban left and returned to his place. ² (1) While Jacob left on his way, the angels of God met him. ³ (2) Then Jacob said when he saw them, “This is God’s camp,” and he named that place Mahanaim.

Parashat Vayishlach

Jacob Prepares to Meet Esau

⁴ (3) Then Jacob sent messengers before him to his brother Esau, to the land of Seir, the field of Edom. ⁵ (4) He also commanded them saying, “This is what you should say to my lord, to Esau: ‘This is what your servant Jacob said: I’ve been staying with Laban, and have lingered until now. ⁶ (5) Now I’ve come to possess oxen and donkeys, flocks, male servants and female servants. I sent word to tell my lord, in order to find favor in your eyes.’”

¹⁴ (13) So he stayed overnight there. Then from all that had come into his possession he took an offering for Esau his brother: ¹⁵ (14) 200 female goats, 20 billy goats, 200 ewes, 20 rams, ¹⁶ (15) 30 milking camels with their young, 40 cows, 10 bulls, 20 female donkeys and 10 male donkeys. ¹⁷ (16) He put them in the hands of his servants, each herd by itself, and he said to his servants, “Pass over before me, and put a gap between each of the herds.” ¹⁸ (17) Then he commanded the first one saying, “When my brother Esau meets you and asks you saying, ‘To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and to whom do all these before you belong?’ ¹⁹ (18) then you are to say, ‘To your servant, to Jacob—it’s an offering sent to my lord, to Esau. And look, he’s also behind us.’” ²⁰ (19) And he also commanded the second one, the third one, and all those who were going behind the flocks, saying, “Say the same exact thing to Esau when you find him. ²¹ (20) Then you are to say, ‘Look, your servant Jacob is also behind us.’” For he thought, “Let me appease him with the offering that goes ahead of me, and afterward see his face, perhaps he’ll lift up my face.” ²² (21) So the offering passed over ahead of him, while he spent that night in the camp.

²³ (22) Then he got up that night and took his two wives, his two female servants, and his eleven sons, and crossed over the ford of the Jabbok. ²⁴ (23) He took them and sent them across the stream, and he sent across whatever he had.

Jacob Wrestles With God

²⁵ (24) So Jacob remained all by himself. Then a man wrestled with him until the break of dawn. ²⁶ (25) When He saw that He had not overcome him, He struck the socket of his hip, so He dislocated the sock-

† Or, rolled around in the dust et of Jacob's hip when He wrestled with him. ²⁷ (26) Then He said, "Let Me go, for the dawn has broken."

But he said, "I won't let You go unless You bless me."

²⁸ (27) Then He said to him, "What is your name?" "Jacob," he said.

²⁹ (28) Then He said, "Your name will no longer be Jacob, but rather Israel, for you have struggled with God and with men, and you have overcome."

³⁰ (29) Then Jacob asked and said, "Please tell me Your name."

But He said, "What's this—you are asking My name?" Then He blessed him there.

³¹ (30) So Jacob named the place Peniel, "for I've seen God face to face, and my life has been spared."

³² (31) Now the sun rose upon him just as he crossed by Peniel—limping because of his hip. ³³ (32) That is why the children of Israel do not eat the tendon of the hip socket, to this very day, because He struck the socket of Jacob's thigh on the tendon of the hip.

Jacob Meets Esau

33 Then Jacob glanced up and saw, behold, there was Esau coming—and 400 men with him. So he divided the children among Leah, Rachel and the two female servants. ² He put the female servants and their children first, then Leah and her children behind them, then Rachel and Joseph behind them. ³ But he himself passed on ahead of them, and bowed to the ground seven times until he came near to his brother.

⁴ But Esau ran to meet him, hugged him, fell on his neck and kissed him—and they wept. ⁵ His eyes glanced up and he saw the women and the children, and said, "Who are these with you?"

"The children whom God has graciously given your servant," he said. ⁶ Then the female servants approached, they and their children, and bowed down. ⁷ Leah also approached, along with her children, and they bowed down, and finally, Joseph and Rachel approached and bowed down.

⁸ "What do you mean by this whole caravan that I've met?"

So he said, "To find favor in your eyes, my lord."

⁹ But Esau said, "I have plenty! O my brother, do keep all that belongs to you."

¹⁰ Yet Jacob said, "No, please! If I have found favor in your eyes, then you will take my offering from my hand. For this is the reason I've seen your face—it is like seeing the face of God—and you've accepted me! ¹¹ Please, take my blessing that was brought to you, because God has been gracious to me, and because I have everything." So he kept urging him until he accepted.

¹² Then he said, "Let's journey and be on our way, and I'll go ahead of you." ¹³ He continued, "My lord knows that the children are tender, and that the flocks and the cattle in my care are nursing. So if they were pushed hard just one day, all the flocks would die.

¹⁴ Please, let my lord pass on ahead of your servant, and I'll move on further gradually, at a pace suited to the livestock that are before me and at a pace suited to the children, until I come to my lord in Seir."

¹⁵ Then Esau said, "Please let me leave with you some of the people who are with me."

But he said, "What's this? Let me find favor in my lord's eyes."

¹⁶ So on that day Esau returned on his way to Seir, ¹⁷ but Jacob journeyed to Sukkot and built a house for himself, and for his livestock he made booths. That is the reason that place is called Sukkot.

¹⁸ So Jacob arrived in shalom to the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Paddan-aram, and camped right in front of the city. ¹⁹ He purchased the portion of the field there where he had pitched his tent from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, for 100 pieces of money. ²⁰ There he set up an altar, and he called it, El is Israel's God.

Dinah Defiled by Shechem

34 Now Dinah, Leah's daughter whom she bore for Jacob, went out to look at the daughters of the land. ² When Shechem the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the land, saw her, he took her and lay with her and raped her. ³ But his soul clung to Dinah, Jacob's daughter, and he loved the young woman and spoke reassuringly to the young woman. ⁴ So Shechem said to his father Hamor saying, "Get me this girl for a wife."

⁵ Now Jacob had heard that he had defiled his daughter Dinah while his sons were with his livestock in the field, so Jacob kept quiet until they came in. ⁶ Meanwhile Shechem's father Hamor went out to Jacob in order to speak with him. ⁷ Jacob's sons had already come in from the field when they heard, and the men were deeply grieved and furious, because he had committed a vile deed in Israel by lying with Jacob's daughter, which ought never to be done.

⁸ But Hamor spoke with them saying, "My son Shechem—he's very attached to your daughter. Please give her to him for a wife. ⁹ Intermarry with us. You can give your daughters to us, and you can take our daughters for yourselves. ¹⁰ You can live with us, and the land will be open to you: live in it, move about freely in it, and settle down in it."

¹¹ Shechem also said to her father and to her brothers, "Would that I find favor in your eyes! Whatever you say to me I'll give. ¹² Set the dowry and the presents as high as you like and I'll give whatever you say to me. But give me the young woman as a wife."

¹³ But Jacob's sons answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully as they spoke, because he had defiled their sister Dinah. ¹⁴ They said to them, "We can't do this thing—give our sister to a man who is uncircumcised—for this is a disgrace to us. ¹⁵ Only by this will we consent to you: if you will become like us, by circumcising every male. ¹⁶ Then we'll give you our daughters and take your daughters for ourselves, and live with you, and become one people. ¹⁷ But if you don't listen to us and be circumcised, we'll take our daughter and leave."

¹⁸ Now their words seemed good to Hamor as well as Hamor's son Shechem. ¹⁹ So the young man did not hesitate to do it, since he delighted in Jacob's daughter. Now he was honored above everyone else in his father's house. ²⁰ So Hamor and his son Shechem came into the gate of their city and spoke to the men of their city, saying: ²¹ "These men are enjoying a peaceful relationship with us and they are living in the land and moving about freely in it. As for the land, look, it's spread out on both sides before us. We can take their daughters to be our wives, and we can give our daughters to them. ²² But by this did these men consent to us, to live with us and to become one people—when all our males are circumcised as they are circumcised. ²³ Their livestock and their possessions: won't they be ours? Only let us consent to them so that they'll live with us."

²⁴ Now everyone who went out of the gate of his city listened to Hamor and to his son Shechem, and every male was circumcised, every one who went out the gate of his city. ²⁵ Then on the third day while they were in pain, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and came against the city undisturbed and killed every male. ²⁶ Hamor and his son Shechem they killed with the sword, then took Dinah from Shechem's house and left. ²⁷ Jacob's sons came upon the slain and plundered the city because they defiled their sister. ²⁸ They took their flocks, their cattle and their donkeys, those that were in the city as well as those that were in the field. ²⁹ All their wealth, their little children, and their wives they captured and plundered, as well as everything that was in the houses.

³⁰ But Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You've brought trouble on me, making me a stench among the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am but a few men—they'll gather against me and strike me—then I'll be destroyed, my household and I."

³¹ But they said, "Should he treat our sister like a prostitute?"

Rededication at Beth-El

35 Then God said to Jacob, "Get up! Go up to Beth-El and stay there. Make an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother Esau."

² So Jacob said to his household and to everyone who was with him, "Get rid of the foreign gods that are among you. Cleanse yourselves and change your clothes. ³ Now let's get up and go up to Beth-El so that I can make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and has been with me in the way that I have gone."

⁴ So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods in their hand and the rings in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the oak tree near Shechem. ⁵ Then they journeyed, and the terror of God was on the cities that were around them, so they did not pursue Jacob's sons. ⁶ Then Jacob arrived at Luz in the land of Canaan (that is Beth-El), he and all the people who were with him. ⁷ He built an altar there and called the place El-Beth-El because God had revealed Himself to him there when he fled from the presence of his brother.

⁹ God appeared to Jacob again, after he returned from Paddan-aram, and He blessed him. ¹⁰ God said to him:

"Your name was Jacob.

No longer will your name be Jacob, for your name will be Israel."

So He named him Israel.

¹¹ God also said to him:

"I am El Shaddai.

Be fruitful and multiply.

A nation and an assembly of nations will come from you.

From your loins will come forth kings.

¹² The land that I gave to Abraham and to Isaac—

I give it to you, and to your seed after you

I will give the land."

¹³ Then God went up from him at the place where He had spoken with him. ¹⁴ Jacob set up a memorial stone in the place where He had spoken with him—a stone pillar—and he poured a drink offering on it and poured oil on it. ¹⁵ Jacob named the place where God spoke with him Beth-El.

Rachel's Death in Childbirth

¹⁶ Then they traveled from Beth-El, and while they were still a distance from entering Ephrath, Rachel began to give birth, but her labor was difficult. ¹⁷ While she was struggling to give birth, the midwife said to her, "Don't be afraid, for this is also a son for you."

¹⁸ Now as her soul was departing (for she died), she named him Ben-Oni, but his father named him Benjamin. ¹⁹ Then Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Beth-Lehem). ²⁰ Jacob set up a memorial stone over her grave. (It is the memorial stone over Rachel's grave to this day.)

Israel Returns to Isaac

²¹ Then Israel journeyed on and set up his tent beyond the tower of Eder. ²² While Israel was living in that land, Reuben went and slept with his father's concubine Bilhah, and Israel heard about it.

Now Jacob had twelve sons. ²³ Leah's sons were Jacob's firstborn Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar and Zebulun. ²⁴ Rachel's sons were Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁵ The sons of Bilhah, Rachel's female servant, were Dan and Naphtali, ²⁶ and the sons of Zilpah, Leah's female servant, were Gad and Asher. These are Jacob's sons, who were born to him in Paddan-aram.

²⁸ Now Isaac's days were 180 years. ²⁹ Then Isaac breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his peoples, old and full of days. So his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Esau Fathers the Edomites

36 Now these are the genealogies of Esau (that is, Edom). ² Esau took his wives from the daughters of Canaan: Adah daughter of Elon the Hittite, Oholibamah daughter of Anah, daughter of Tzivion the Hivite, ³ and Basemath daughter of Ishmael, sister of Nebaioth. ⁴ Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, Basemath bore Reuel, ⁵ and Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These were Esau's sons, who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

⁹ So these are the genealogies of Esau, the father of Edom in the hill country of Seir. ¹⁰ These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz son of Esau's wife Adah and Reuel son of Esau's wife Basemath. ¹¹ The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz. ¹² Now Timna was a concubine to Esau's son Eliphaz, and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These are the sons of Esau's wife Adah. ¹³ These are Reuel's sons: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the sons of Esau's wife Basemath. ¹⁴ These were the sons of Oholibamah, daughter of Anah, daughter of Esau's wife Zibion—she bore to Esau Jeush, Jalam and Korah.

¹⁵ These are the chiefs from Esau's sons. The sons of Eliphaz, Esau's firstborn were chief Teman, chief Omar, chief Zepho, chief Kenaz, ¹⁶ chief Korah, chief Gatam, chief Amalek. These are the chiefs from Eliphaz in the land of Edom. These are the sons of Adah. ¹⁷ These are the sons of Esau's son Reuel: chief Nahath, chief Zerah, chief Shammah, chief Mizzah. These are chiefs from Reuel in the land of Edom. These are the sons of Esau's wife Basemath. ¹⁸ These are the sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah: chief Jeush, chief Jalam, chief Korah. These are the chiefs from Oholibamah, daughter of Esau's wife Anah. ¹⁹ These are Esau's sons, and these are their chiefs (that is, Edom).

²⁰ These are the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitants of the land: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, ²¹ Dish-hon, Ezer and Dishan. These are the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir in the land of Edom. ²² The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam. Lotan's sister is Timna. ²³ These are Shobal's sons: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam. ²⁴ These are Zibeon's sons: Aiah and Anah (that is, the Anah who found the hot springs in the desert while he was pasturing the donkeys of his father Zibeon). ²⁵ These are the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah, Anah's daughter. ²⁶ These are Dishon's sons: Hemdan, Eshban, Itran and Cheran. ²⁷ These are Ezer's sons: Bilhan, Zaavan and Akan. ²⁸ These are Dishan's sons: Uz and Aran. ²⁹ These are the chiefs of the Horites: chief Lotan, chief Shobal, chief Tzivion, chief Anah, ³⁰ chief Dishon, chief Ezer, chief Dishan—these are the chiefs of the Horites according to their chiefly divisions in the land of Seir.

³¹ Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the sons of Israel.

⁴⁰ Now these are the names of the chiefs from Esau according to their family divisions, according to their places, by their names: chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth, ⁴¹ chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon, ⁴² chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar, ⁴³ chief Magdiel, chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom according to their places of residence in the land of their possession. This is Esau, the father of Edom.

Parashat Vayeshev

Joseph, Favored Son

37 Now Jacob dwelled in the land where his father had sojourned, in the land of Canaan. ² These are the genealogies of Jacob.

When Joseph was 17 years old (he was a youth), he was shepherding the flocks with his brothers—with the sons of his father's wives Bilhah and Zilpah. Joseph brought back a bad report about them to their father.

³ Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his other sons because he was the son of his old age. So he had made him a long-sleeved tunic. ⁴ When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak to him in shalom.

⁵ Then Joseph dreamed a dream and told his brothers—and they hated him even more. ⁶ He said to them, “Please listen to this dream I dreamed. ⁷ There we were binding sheaves in the middle of the field. All of a sudden, my sheaf arose and stood upright. And behold, your sheaf gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf.”

⁸ “Will you truly be a king over us?” his brothers said to him. “Will you really rule over us?” So they hated him even more because of his dreams and because of his words.

⁹ But then he dreamed another dream and told it to his brothers, saying, “I have just dreamed another dream. Suddenly, there was the sun and the moon and the eleven stars bowing down to me!” ¹⁰ He told it to his father as well as his brothers.

Then his father rebuked him and said to him, “What’s this dream you dreamed? Will we really come—your mother and I with your brothers—to bow down to the ground to you?” ¹¹ So his brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the speech in mind.

Joseph Betrayed

¹² Then his brothers went to graze their father’s flocks at Shechem. ¹³ Israel said to Joseph, “Aren’t your brothers grazing the flocks in Shechem? Come, let me send you to them.”

“Here I am,” he said to him.

¹⁴ Then he said to him, “Go now, and check on the welfare of your brothers and the welfare of the flocks and bring word back to me.”

So he sent him from the valley of Hebron and he went to Shechem. ¹⁵ A man found him there, wandering in the field, and the man asked him, “What are you looking for?”

¹⁶ “I’m looking for my brothers,” he said. “Please tell me where they’re grazing.”

²¹ But Reuben heard and rescued him out of their hands, saying, “We must not beat him to death.” ²² In order to rescue him from their hand and to return him to his father, Reuben said to them, “Don’t shed blood! Throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but don’t lay a hand on him!”

²³ So as soon as Joseph came up to his brothers they stripped Joseph of his tunic (the long sleeved tunic that he had on). ²⁴ Then they took him and threw him into the pit. (Now the pit was empty, with no water in it.)

²⁵ Then they sat down to eat bread. When they looked up, behold, there was a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels carrying gum, balsam, and myrrh—going to bring them down to Egypt.

²⁶ Then Judah said to his brothers, “What profit is there if we kill our brother and cover up his blood? Come on! ²⁷ Let’s sell him to the Ishmaelites. Let’s not lay our hand on him—since he’s our brother, our own flesh.” His brothers listened to him. ²⁸ When some men, Midianite merchants, passed by, they dragged Joseph up and out of the pit and they sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for 20 pieces of silver, and they brought Joseph to Egypt. ²⁹ When Reuben returned to the pit and saw that Joseph was not in the pit, he tore his clothes. ³⁰ Then he returned to his brothers and said, “The boy is gone! And I—where should I go?”

³³ He did recognize it and said, “My son’s tunic! An evil animal has devoured him! Joseph must be torn to pieces!” ³⁴ Jacob tore his clothing and put on sackcloth and mourned for his son many days. ³⁵ All his sons got up along with all his daughters to console him, but he refused to be comforted. He said, “For I will go down to Sheol to my son, mourning.” So his father kept weeping for him.

³⁶ Meanwhile the Midianites sold him into Egypt, to Potiphar an official of Pharaoh, the commander of the bodyguards.

Judah and Tamar

38 About that time Judah went down from his brothers and he camped near an Adullamite man, whose name was Hirah. ² There Judah saw the daughter of a Canaanite man whose name was Shua, and he took her as wife and slept with her. ³ Then she became pregnant and gave birth to a son, and he named him Er. ⁴ She became pregnant again and gave birth to a son, and she named him Onan. ⁵ She gave birth to yet another son and she called him Shelah. He was in Chezib when she gave birth to him.

⁶ Then Judah got a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. ⁷ But Er, Judah’s firstborn, was evil in ADONAI’s eyes, so ADONAI put him to death. ⁸ Then Judah said to Onan, go to your brother’s wife to perform the duty of a brother-in-law to her, and raise up a seed for your brother. ⁹ But Onan knew that the seed would not be his. So every time he went to his brother’s wife he would destroy it on the ground so as not to provide a seed for his brother. ¹⁰ What he did was evil in ADONAI’s eyes, so He put him to death also.

¹¹ Then Judah said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, "Stay as a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah grows up," because he thought, "Otherwise he too might die, like his brothers." So Tamar went and stayed in her father's house.

¹⁵ When Judah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute because she had covered her face. ¹⁶ So he turned aside to her along the way and said, "Please let me sleep with you" (for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law).

"What," she asked, "will you give me to sleep with me?"

¹⁷ "I will send you a young goat from the flock," he said,

"Provided you give a pledge until you send it," she said.

¹⁸ "What kind of pledge shall I give you?" he asked.

"Your seal, and your cord, and your staff in your hand," she said. So he gave them to her and he slept with her, and she got pregnant by him. ¹⁹ After she got up and left, she removed her veil from herself and put on her widow's clothes.

²⁰ When Judah sent the young goat by the hand of his friend the Adullamite to take back the pledge from the woman's hand, he could not find her. ²¹ He asked the men of her area saying, "Where is the cult prostitute? She was at the springs along the way."

But they said, "There hasn't been a cult prostitute here."

²² So he returned to Judah and said, "I couldn't find her, and the people of that place also said, 'There hasn't been a cult prostitute here.'"

²³ Then Judah said, "Let her take them for herself, or we'll be held in contempt. Behold, I did send this young goat, but you couldn't find her."

²⁴ About three months later, Judah was told, "Your daughter-in-law Tamar has been a prostitute—look, she's even pregnant by prostitution."

"Bring her out!" Judah said, "and let her be burned."

²⁵ As she was being brought out, she sent word to her father-in-law saying, "I'm pregnant by the man to whom these things belong." Then she said, "Do you recognize whose these are—the seal, the cords and the staff?"

²⁷ Now when it was time for her to give birth, behold there were twins in her womb. ²⁸ While she was giving birth, one stuck out his hand, and the midwife took a scarlet thread and tied it to his hand saying, "This one came out first." ²⁹ But as he was pulling his hand back in, behold, his brother came out. So she said, "How you have broken through! The breach is because of you." And he named him Perez. ³⁰ Afterward his brother, on whose hand was the scarlet thread, came out. And he named him Zerah.

Joseph Succeeds in Adversity

39 Now Joseph had been brought down to Egypt. Potiphar, an official of Pharaoh, commander of the bodyguards, bought him from the hand of the Ishmaelites, who had brought him down there. ² But ADONAI was with Joseph. So he became a successful man in the house of his master, the Egyptian. ³ His master saw that ADONAI was with him and that ADONAI made everything he set his hand to successful. ⁴ Joseph found favor in his eyes, so he served him as a personal servant and he made him an overseer over his household; everything that was his he entrusted into his hand. ⁵ From the time that he made him an overseer in his house and over everything that belonged to him, ADONAI blessed the Egyptian's house because of Joseph; ADONAI's blessing was on everything that belonged to him, in the house and in the field. ⁶ So he released everything he owned into Joseph's hand. With him in charge, he did not think about anything except the food he ate.

Now Joseph was handsome in form and handsome in appearance.

⁷ Now after these things, the master's wife lifted up her eyes at Joseph and said, "Come, lie down with me!"

⁸ But he refused. "Look," he said to his master's wife, "my master doesn't think about anything in the house with me in charge, and everything that belongs to him he's entrusted into my hand. ⁹ No one in this house is greater than I, and he has withheld nothing from me—except you, because you are his wife. So how could I commit this great evil and sin against God?"

¹⁰ So whenever she spoke to Joseph, day after day, he did not listen to her invitation to lie down beside her, to be with her. ¹¹ Now on one such day, he came into the house to do his work, and none of the people of the house were there in the house. ¹² Then she grabbed him by his garment saying, "Come, lie with me!" But he left his garment in her hand, fled and went outside. ¹³ When she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and fled outside, ¹⁴ she screamed to the men of her house and said to them, "Look! Someone brought a Hebrew man to us to fool with us. He approached me to lie with me so I screamed out loud. ¹⁵ When he heard me raise my voice and scream, he left his garment with me, fled and went outside."

saying, "The Hebrew slave that you brought us approached me to fool with me. ¹⁸ When I raised my voice and screamed, he left his garment with me and fled outside."

¹⁹ Now when his master heard the words his wife spoke to him saying, "Such are the things your slave did to me," his anger burned. ²⁰ Then Joseph's master took him and put him in prison, the place where the king's prisoners were confined. So there he was, in the prison.

²¹ But ADONAI was with Joseph and extended kindness to him and gave him favor in the eyes of the commander of the prison. ²² The commander of the prison entrusted into Joseph's hand all the prisoners who were in the prison, so that everything that was done there, he was responsible for it. ²³ The commander of the prison did not concern himself with anything at all under his care, because ADONAI was with him, and ADONAI made whatever he did successful.

Interpreter of Dreams

40 Now it was after these things that the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their master, the king of Egypt. ² Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, with the chief of the cupbearers and with the chief of the bakers. ³ So he put them in custody of the house of the commander of the bodyguards—in the prison, the place where Joseph was confined. ⁴ The commander of the bodyguards assigned Joseph to be with them and served them as their personal servant. They were in custody for some time.

⁵ Then the two of them each dreamed a dream on the same night. The dream of each man—the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison—each had its own interpretation. ⁶ When Joseph came to them in the morning, he observed them, and there they were, looking miserable. ⁷ So he asked Pharaoh's officials who were with him in the custody of the house of his master saying, "Why are your faces so sad today?"

⁸ They said to him, "We dreamed a dream and there is no one to interpret it."

Then Joseph said to them, "Don't interpretations belong to God? Please tell me."

⁹ So the chief of the cupbearers told his dream to Joseph, saying to him, "In my dream, suddenly, there was a vine in front of me. ¹⁰ On the vine were three branches, and as it was budding, its blossoms came out, its clusters ripened into grapes. ¹¹ Pharaoh's cup was in my hand and I took the grapes, pressed them into Pharaoh's cup and put the cup in Pharaoh's palm."

¹² "This is its interpretation," Joseph said to him. "The three branches: they are three days. ¹³ In another three days, Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position. Then you'll put Pharaoh's cup in his hand just as you used to do before when you were his cupbearer. ¹⁴ But if you remember me, that I was with you, when it goes well with you, please show me kindness and mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this house. ¹⁵ For I was forcibly kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing at all that they should put me in this pit."

¹⁶ When the chief of the bakers saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream. Expectantly, there were three baskets of white bread on my head. ¹⁷ In the top basket was food for Pharaoh—all kinds of baked goods. But the birds were eating them from the basket on my head."

¹⁸ Then Joseph answered and said, "This is its interpretation. The three baskets: they are three days. ¹⁹ In another three days Pharaoh will lift up your head—off of you—and will hang you on a tree. Then the birds will eat your flesh off of you."

²⁰ Then it happened on the third day—Pharaoh's birthday—that he held a banquet for all his servants. He lifted up the head of the chief of the cupbearers and the head of the chief of the bakers among his servants. ²¹ He restored the chief of the cupbearers as his cupbearer, and he put the cup on the palm of Pharaoh's hand. ²² But the chief of the bakers he hung. It was just as Joseph had interpreted for them. ²³ Yet the chief of the cupbearers did not remember Joseph—indeed, he forgot him.

Parashat Miketz

Exalted by Pharaoh

41 Now at the end of two whole years, Pharaoh was dreaming. Behold, there he was standing by the Nile. ² Then behold, there were seven cows, good-looking and beefy, and they grazed in the reeds. ³ Then behold, there were seven other cows coming up after them from the Nile, ugly and emaciated, and they stood beside the cows at the edge of the Nile. ⁴ Then the ugly emaciated cows ate the seven good-looking beefy cows—and Pharaoh woke up.

⁵ Then he slept and dreamed a second time: behold, there were seven ears of corn coming up on one stalk, plump and good. ⁶ Then behold, there were seven ears of corn, thin and scorched by the east wind, sprouting up after them. ⁷ Then the seven thin ears of corn swallowed up the seven plump and full ears of corn. Then Pharaoh woke up—it was a dream.

⁹ Then the chief of the cupbearers spoke with Pharaoh saying, "I am reminded of my sins today. ¹⁰ Pharaoh had been angry with his servants and put me in the custody of the house of the commander of the bodyguards—me and the chief of the bakers. ¹¹ Then we each dreamed a dream on the same night, he and I, we both dreamed, yet each dream had its own interpretation. ¹² Now there with us was a Hebrew youth—a slave belonging to the commander of the bodyguards. When we told him, he interpreted our dreams for us, each man's dream he interpreted.

¹³ Then it came about, just as he interpreted for us, so it happened. Me he restored to my position, but him he hung."

¹⁴ Then Pharaoh sent and called for Joseph. So they quickly fetched him from the pit. He shaved, changed his clothes, and came to Pharaoh. ¹⁵ Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I dreamed a dream and there's no one to interpret it. I heard about you— it's said that you can listen to a dream to interpret it."

¹⁷ So Pharaoh said to Joseph: "In my dream, there I was, standing by the bank of the Nile. ¹⁸ And to my surprise, out of the Nile seven cows were coming up, beefy and good-looking, and they grazed in the reeds. ¹⁹ Then all of a sudden, there were seven other cows coming up after them, feeble, very ugly and emaciated. I've never seen the likes of these in the whole land of Egypt for ugliness. ²⁰ Then the emaciated and ugly cows ate the first seven beefy cows. ²¹ When they were devoured, one couldn't tell that they had been devoured. Their appearance was as ugly as it was at first. Then I woke up. ²² Then I saw in my dream, there were seven ears of corn coming up on one stalk, plump and good. ²³ Then suddenly, there were seven ears of corn, dried up, thin, and scorched by the east wind, sprouting up after them. ²⁴ Then the thin ears of corn swallowed up the seven good ears of corn. So I told the fortune-telling priests, but no one could provide me with an explanation."

²⁵ Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, "Pharaoh's dream is one. God has told Pharaoh what He is about to do. ²⁶ The seven good cows: they are seven years. Also the seven ears of corn: they're seven years. It is one dream. ²⁷ The seven emaciated and ugly cows coming up after them: they're seven years. Also the seven empty ears of corn scorched by the east wind: there will be seven years of famine. ²⁸ It is the word that I have already said to Pharaoh: what God is about to do, he has shown to Pharaoh. ²⁹ Seven years of abundance are about to come in the whole land of Egypt. ³⁰ Then seven years of famine will come up after them and all the abundance in the land of Egypt will be forgotten and the famine will consume the land. ³¹ So the abundance in the land will be unknown because of the famine that follows, for it will be a very oppressive famine.

³² "Now as for repeating Pharaoh's dream twice: it's because the matter has been settled by God and God will quickly make it happen. ³³ So now, let Pharaoh select a man discerning and wise and set him in authority over the land of Egypt. ³⁴ Let Pharaoh act by appointing administrators over the land and take a fifth portion from the land of Egypt during the seven years of abundance. ³⁵ Then let them gather all the food from these good years that are coming, and let them store up grain under Pharaoh's hand as food for the cities, so they may preserve it. ³⁶ Let the food be held in reserve for the land for the seven years of famine that is coming upon the land of Egypt. Then the land will not be annihilated by the famine."

³⁹ Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has made all this known to you, there is no one as discerning and wise as you. ⁴⁰ You! You will be over my house, and all my people will pay homage to you †. Only in relation to the throne will I be greater than you."

⁴¹ Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I appoint you over the whole land of Egypt." ⁴² Then Pharaoh removed his signet ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand, clothed him with fine linen garments, and put a chain of gold around his neck. ⁴³ Then he had him ride in the chariot as second-in-command, the one that belonged to him, and they called out before him, "Kneel down!" So he appointed him over the whole land of Egypt. ⁴⁴ Pharaoh also said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, yet without your permission no one will lift up his hand or his foot in the whole land of Egypt." ⁴⁵ Then Pharaoh named Joseph Zaphenath-paneah and gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, as his wife. Then Joseph went out, in charge of the land of Egypt.

⁴⁶ Now Joseph was 30 years old when he began serving as representative of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Joseph went out from Pharaoh's presence and passed throughout the whole land of Egypt. ⁴⁷ During the seven years of abundance, the land produced in heaps. ⁴⁸ So he gathered all the food in the land of Egypt during the seven years, and put food in the cities; the food from the city fields surrounding the cities he put in each city. ⁴⁹ So Joseph stored up grain like the sand of the sea, vast amounts, until he stopped keeping record because it was beyond counting.

⁵⁰ Two sons also had been born to Joseph before the year of famine came, born to him by Asenath, daughter of Potiphera, priest of On. ⁵¹ Joseph named his firstborn Manasseh, "because God has caused me to forget all my trouble and all my father's house." ⁵² And the second he named Ephraim, "because God has made me fruitful in the land of my oppression."

⁵³ Then the seven years of abundance in the land of Egypt came to an end, ⁵⁴ and the seven years of famine started to come—just as Joseph had said. So there was famine in all the lands, but in the whole land of Egypt there was bread. ⁵⁵ When the whole land of Egypt suffered famine, the people cried out to Pharaoh for food, and Pharaoh said to all of Egypt, "Go to Joseph. Do whatever he tells you." ⁵⁶ The famine was over all the entire land, so Joseph opened up all that was among them and sold grain to Egypt. Then the famine became severe in the land of Egypt.⁵⁷ Yet the whole world came to Egypt to buy grain—to Joseph—because the famine was severe in the whole world.

Joseph Meets His Brothers

42 Now Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, so Jacob said to his sons, “Why are you looking at each other?”² Then he said, “Look! I’ve heard that there’s grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some grain for us there so that we’ll live and not die.”

⁵ The sons of Israel went to buy grain among the others who were coming, because the famine was in the land of Canaan. ⁶ Now Joseph was the ruler over the land. He was the provider of grain for all the people of the earth. ⁷ Then Joseph’s brothers came and bowed down to him with faces to the ground. When Joseph saw his brothers, he recognized them, but he made himself unrecognizable to them. Then he spoke harshly and said to them, “Where have you come from?”

⁸ Though Joseph recognized his brothers, they did not recognize him. ⁹ Then Joseph remembered the dreams he had dreamed about them. He said to them, “You’re spies! You’ve come to see the undefended places in the land.”

¹⁰ “No, my lord!” they said to him. “Your servants came to buy grain as food. ¹¹ All of us—we are sons of one man. We’re honest. Your servants have never been spies.”

¹³ But they said, “We your servants are twelve brothers, sons of one man in the land of Canaan. Look, the youngest is with our father today and the other one is no more.”

¹⁴ Joseph said to them, “It’s just like I told you when I said, ‘You’re spies.’ ¹⁵ By this you’ll be tested: by the life of Pharaoh, you’ll not leave from here until your youngest brother comes here! ¹⁶ Send one from among yourselves to get your brother, while you remain confined, in order to test your words, to see whether the truth is with you. If not, by the life of Pharaoh, you’re definitely spies!”

¹⁷ So he put them together in custody for three days.

¹⁸ Then Joseph said to them on the third day, “Do this and you will live. I fear God. ¹⁹ If you’re honest, let one of your brothers remain as a prisoner in the guard-house where you’ve been, while you, go and bring grain for the hunger in your homes. ²⁰ And your youngest brother, bring to me so that your words can be verified—and you won’t die.” So they did.

²¹ Then each man said to his brother, “We’re truly guilty for our brother. We saw the distress of his soul when he begged us for mercy, but we didn’t listen. That’s why this distress has come to us.”

²³ They did not know that Joseph was listening, since there was an interpreter between them. ²⁴ He turned away from them and wept. When he turned back to them and spoke to them, he took Simeon from them and tied him up before their eyes.

²⁵ Then Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain, to return each man’s money to his sack, and to give them provisions for the journey. So it was done for them. ²⁶ Then they loaded their grain on their donkeys and left from there. ²⁷ As one of them opened his sack to give fodder to his donkey at the lodge, he saw his money—behold, it was in the opening of his bag.

²⁸ So he said to his brothers, “My money has been returned! Look, it’s in my bag.”

Their hearts sank. Trembling, each one turned to his brother and said, “What is this that God has done to us?”

²⁹ When they came to their father Jacob, in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them, saying, ³⁰ “The man, the lord of the land, spoke with us harshly, and took us as spies of the land. ³¹ But we said to him, ‘We’re honest. We’ve never been spies. ³² We are twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is no more and the youngest is with our father today in the land of Canaan.’ ³³ Then the man, the lord of the land, said to us, ‘By this I’ll know if you’re honest: leave one of your brothers with me. As for the hunger of your homes: take and go! ³⁴ Then bring your youngest brother to me, so that I may know you are not spies, but you are honest. I’ll give you back your brother and you can move about freely in the land.’”

³⁶ Then their father Jacob said to them, “You’ve made me childless! Joseph is no more. Now Simeon is gone, and next you’ll take Benjamin! Everything is against me!”

³⁷ Then Reuben spoke to his father, saying, “You can put my two sons to death if I don’t bring him back to you. Put him in my hand and I—I will return him to you.”

³⁸ But he said, “My son will not go down with you—for his brother is dead and he alone remains. And if harm should happen to him along the way you’re going, you’ll bring my grey hair down to Sheol in grief.”

Judah Pledges for Benjamin

43 Now the famine was severe in the land. ² When they finished eating the grain they had brought from Egypt their father said to them, “Go back. Buy us a little food.”

³ But Judah said to him, “The man warned us firmly saying, ‘You won’t see my face unless your brother is with you.’ ⁴ If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy grain for you for food. ⁵ But if you won’t send him, we won’t go down, because the man said to us, ‘You won’t see my face unless your brother is with you.’”

⁶ Then Israel said, “Why did you do evil to me by telling the man that you have another brother?”

⁷ They said, “The man questioned particularly about us and about our relatives saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Do you have a brother?’ So we spoke to him on the basis of these words. How could we possibly know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”

⁸ Then Judah said to his father Israel, “Please, send the boy with me and we’ll get up and go, so that we’ll live and not die—we and you, and our children. ⁹ I myself will be his pledge. You can demand him back from my own hand. If I don’t bring him back to you and place him before you, then you can blame me all my days. ¹⁰ If we had not delayed, we could have returned twice by now.”

¹¹ Then their father Israel said to them, “If it must be so, then do this: take some of the best products of the land in your bags, and bring an offering down to the man—a little balsam and a little honey, gum and myrrh, pistachios and almonds. ¹² Also take in your hand a double portion of silver, and bring back in your hand the silver that had been returned in the mouth of your sacks. Perhaps it was a mistake. ¹³ Take your brother too—now, get up, go back to the man! ¹⁴ May El Shaddai grant you mercy before the man, so that he may release your other brother to you, along with Benjamin. As for me, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved.”

The Brothers Return With Benjamin

¹⁵ Then the men took this offering. They also took the double portion of silver in their hand, as well as Benjamin. So they got up and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph. ¹⁶ When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the one over his house, “Bring the men into the house. Slaughter an animal and prepare it, for the men will eat with me this afternoon. ¹⁷ So the man did as Joseph said, and the man brought the men into Joseph’s house. ¹⁸ But the men were afraid, because they had been brought into Joseph’s house. They said, “It’s because of the silver that was returned to our sacks the first time that we are being brought in—to pounce on us and fall on us and take us as slaves, along with our donkeys.”

¹⁹ So they approached the man who was over Joseph’s house and spoke to him at the entrance of the house. ²⁰ “I beg your pardon, my lord!” they said. “We indeed came down on the previous occasion to buy grain for food. ²¹ When we came to the lodge and opened our sacks, behold, there was each man’s money at the opening of the sack, the full amount of our money. So we’ve returned it in our hand. ²² Moreover, we’ve brought down other money in our hand to buy grain for food. We didn’t know who put our money into our sacks.”

²³ “Be at peace,” he replied. “Don’t be afraid. Your God and the God of your father has given you treasure in your sacks. Your money had come to me.”

Then he brought Simeon out to them, ²⁴ and the man brought the men into Joseph’s house, gave them water and they washed their feet. He also provided fodder for their donkeys. ²⁵ So they prepared the offering for Joseph’s coming at noon, for they had heard that they were going to eat there. ²⁶ When Joseph came home, they brought him the offering in their hand into the house, and they bowed down to the ground to him. ²⁷ Then he asked if they were well, and said, “Is he well—your elderly father that you told me about? Is he still alive?”

²⁹ Then he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother’s son, and said, “Is this your youngest brother whom you mentioned to me?” Then he said, “May God be gracious to you, my son.” ³⁰ Then Joseph hurried out because his compassion grew warm and tender toward his brother so that he wanted to cry. So he went into an inner room and wept there.

³¹ Then he washed his face, came out, and controlled himself. “Serve the food,” he said. ³² So they served him by himself, them by themselves, and the Egyptians who were eating with him by themselves (for Egyptians could not eat with the Hebrews because it was an abomination to Egyptians). ³³ They were seated before him, the firstborn according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth. The men looked at each other in astonishment. ³⁴ Then portions were brought to them from before him—and Benjamin’s portion was five times larger than any of their portions. Yet they drank and made merry with him.

Joseph Tests His Brothers

44 Then he commanded the one over his household saying, “Fill the men’s sacks with as much food as they are able to carry and put money in the opening of each man’s sack. ² Put my cup, the silver cup, in the opening of the sack of the youngest along with his grain money.” So he did as Joseph told him.

hold, "Get up, go after the men. When you catch up to them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good?'⁵ Isn't this the one from which my lord drinks? He even uses it especially to discern by divination. What you've done is evil!"⁶ So he caught up to them and spoke these words to them.

⁷ They said to him, "Why does my lord say such things? Far be it from your servants to do such a thing as this.⁸ Look, the money we found in the opening of our bags, we brought back to you from the land of Canaan. So how could we steal silver or gold from your lord's house?⁹ Whoever among your servants is found with it, let him die! And we, we'll also be my lord's slaves."

¹⁰ "Even now let it be according to your words," he said. "The one with whom it is found shall be my slave. But the rest of you shall be innocent."

¹¹ Then each man quickly lowered his sack to the ground and each man opened his sack.¹² He searched them beginning with the eldest and finishing with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.¹³ Then they tore their clothing, and each one loaded up his donkey and they returned to the city.

¹⁴ When Judah and his brothers entered Joseph's house, he was still there. They fell to the ground before him.¹⁵ "What's this deed you've done?" Joseph said to them, "Didn't you know that a man like me can discern by divination?"

¹⁶ Then Judah said, "What can we say to my lord? What can we speak? How can we justify ourselves? God has exposed your servants' guilt. We are now my lord's slaves—both we as well as the one in whose hand the cup was found."

¹⁷ But he said, "Far be it from me to do this. The one in whose hand the cup was found—he will be my slave. But you, go up to your father in peace."

Parashat Vayigash

Judah Pleads for Benjamin

¹⁸ Then Judah approached him and said, "I beg your pardon, my lord. Please let your servant say a word in my lord's ears, and don't be angry with your servant, since you are like Pharaoh.¹⁹ My lord asked his servants saying, 'Do you have a father or a brother?'²⁰ So we said to my lord, 'We have a father who is old, a child born to him of his old age is young. Now his brother is dead, so he is the only one of his mother's children left, and his father loves him.'²¹ Then you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me so that I can look at him.'²² But we said to my lord, 'The boy cannot leave his father. If he were to leave his father, he would die.'²³ Then you said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you won't see my face again.'

²⁴ "Now when we went up to your servant, my father, we told him my lord's words.²⁵ Then our father said,

'Go back, buy us a little grain for food.'²⁶ So we said, 'We won't go down unless we have our youngest brother with us—then we'll go down. For we won't see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.'

²⁷ "Then your servant my father said to us, 'You yourselves know that my wife bore me two sons.²⁸ One went out from me, so I said, "He must have been torn to shreds," and I haven't seen him since.²⁹ And if you also take this one away from before me and an accident happens to him, then you'll bring my grey hair down to the evil of Sheol.'

³⁰ "Now if I come to your servant my father and the boy isn't with us, since his life is bound to his life,³¹ when he sees that the boy is no more, he'll die. Then your servants will bring the grey hair of your servant our father down to Sheol in grief.³² For your servant became pledge for the boy with my father saying, 'If I don't bring him back to you, I will bear the blame before my father all my days.'³³ So now, please let your servant remain as my lord's slave in the boy's place, and let the boy go up with his brothers.³⁴ For how can I go up to my father and the boy is not with me? Else I must see the evil that would come upon my father!"

Joseph Reveals Himself

45 Now Joseph could no longer restrain himself in front of all those who were standing by him, so he cried out, "Get everyone away from me!" So no one stood with him when Joseph made himself known to his brothers.² But he gave his voice to weeping so that the Egyptians heard, and Pharaoh's household heard.³ Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?" And his brothers were unable to answer him because they were terrified at his presence.

⁴ Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Please come near me." So they came near. "I'm Joseph, your brother—the one you sold to Egypt," he said.⁵ "So now, don't be grieved and don't be angry in your own eyes that you sold me here—since it was for preserving life that God sent me here before you.⁶ For there has been two years of famine in the land, and there will be five more years yet with no plowing or harvesting.⁷ But God sent me ahead of you to ensure a remnant in the land and to keep you alive for a great escape.⁸ So now, it wasn't you, you didn't send me here, but God! And He made me as a father to Pharaoh, lord over his whole house and ruler over the entire land of Egypt.

⁹ "Go up quickly to my father and say to him, 'Thus says your son, Joseph: God has made me lord over all Egypt. Come down to me. Don't delay.¹⁰ Then you'll live in the land of Goshen, and be close to me, you and your children and your children's children, your flocks and your cattle, and everything that belongs to you.¹¹ I'll provide food for you there—for the famine will last another five years—otherwise you'll lose everything, you and your household, and everything that belongs to you.'¹² And look, you and my brother Benjamin can see with your own eyes that it's my mouth that's speaking to you. ¹³ You must tell my father about all my honor in Egypt, and about all that you've seen. And you must quickly bring my father down here."

¹⁶ When the commotion was heard in Pharaoh's house—"Joseph's brothers have come!"—it was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and his servants, ¹⁷ So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Say to your brothers: 'Do this! Load your animals and go to the land of Canaan. ¹⁸ Then get your father, your households, and come to me. I'll give you the best of the land of Egypt, and you will eat the fat of the land.' ¹⁹ You are also commanded to say: 'Do this! Take for yourselves wagons from the land of Egypt for your little children and for your wives, and pick up your father and come. ²⁰ Don't be concerned about your goods, because the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.'"

²¹ So the sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them carts by Pharaoh's command and he gave them provisions for the journey. ²² To each of them he gave a change of clothes, while to Benjamin he gave 300 pieces of silver and five sets of clothes. ²³ Also to his father he sent the following: ten donkeys carrying from the best of Egypt, and ten female donkeys carrying grain and food and provisions for his father's journey. ²⁴ Then he sent his brothers off, and as they departed, he said to them, "Don't be anxious on the way."

²⁵ Then they went up from Egypt and came to the land of Canaan, to Jacob their father. ²⁶ They told him saying, "Joseph is still alive and he is ruler of the whole land of Egypt!"

His heart went numb, for he did not believe them. ²⁷ But they told him all of Joseph's words that he had told them. When he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to pick him up, the spirit of their father Jacob revived. ²⁸ Then Israel said, "Enough! My son Joseph is still alive. I must go and see him, before I die."

Jacob Goes to Egypt

46 So Israel set out, along with everything that belonged to him. When he came to Beer-Sheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. ² In visions of the night God said to Israel, "Jacob, Jacob." "Hineni," he said.

³ "I am God, the God of your father," He said. "Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will turn you into a great nation there. ⁴ I Myself will go down with you to Egypt and I Myself will also most certainly bring you up. Joseph will put his hands on your eyes."

⁶ They also took their livestock and their possessions they had acquired in the land of Canaan and they came to Egypt, Jacob and all his offspring with him.

¹⁹ The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin. ²⁰ Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt—Asenath the daughter of Potiphera priest of On bore them to him. ²¹ Benjamin's sons: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim and Ard. ²² These are Rachel's sons who were born to Jacob. The tally of all the people was 14.

²³ The sons of Dan: Hushim. ²⁴ Naphtali's sons: Yachzeel, Guni, Yezer and Shillem. ²⁵ These are the sons of Bilhah whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter and she bore these to Jacob. The tally of all the people was seven. ²⁶ All the people belonging to Jacob who came to Egypt—those coming from his loins (not counting the wives of Jacob's sons)—the tally of all the people was 66. ²⁷ The sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt was a tally of two people. The tally of all the people belonging to Jacob's house who came to Egypt was 70.

²⁸ Now he sent Judah before him to Joseph to show him the way to Goshen. When they came to the land of Goshen, ²⁹ Joseph harnessed his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel. As soon as he appeared before him, he fell upon his neck, and wept on his neck for some time.

³⁰ Then Israel said to Joseph, "At this time I am ready to die, after seeing your face in person—for you're still alive!"

³¹ Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I'll go up and tell Pharaoh, and say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household who were in the land of Canaan have come to me. ³² The men are shepherds, for they've been men who handle livestock, who have brought their flocks and cattle and everything that they possess.' ³³ So when Pharaoh calls you and says, 'What is your occupation?' ³⁴ you must say, 'Your servants have been men who handle livestock since the time of our youth until now, both we and our fathers,' so that you can live in the land of Goshen, because every shepherd is loathsome to the Egyptians."

Jacob Blesses Pharaoh

47 Then Joseph came and informed Pharaoh, "My father and my brothers and their flocks and their cattle and everything that belongs to them have come from the land of Canaan, and behold, they are in the land of Goshen."

² From among his brothers he took five men and presented them before Pharaoh. ³ Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?"

So they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers." ⁴ Then they said to Pharaoh, "We came to dwell temporarily in the land, since there is no pasture for the flocks that belong to your servants, for the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. So now, please let your servants live in the land of Goshen."

⁵ Pharaoh said to Joseph saying, "Your father and your brothers came to you. ⁶ The land of Egypt is before you—settle your father and your brothers in the best part of the land. Let them live in the land of Goshen. If you know of any capable men among them, make them overseers of the livestock—over those that are mine."

⁹ Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my sojourn are 130 years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life. Moreover, the days of the years of my life have not attained the days of the years of the lives of my fathers, in the days of their sojourn."

¹⁰ And Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from Pharaoh's presence. ¹¹ Joseph settled his father and his brothers and gave them property in the land of Egypt, in the best part of the land, in the land of Rameses, just as Pharaoh commanded. ¹² And Joseph supported his father and his brothers and his father's entire household with food for the mouths of the little ones.

Joseph's Leadership in the Famine

¹³ Now there was no food in all the land because the famine was very severe. Both the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan languished because of the famine. ¹⁴ Joseph collected all the money that could be found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan for the grain that they bought, and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. ¹⁵ Then the money of the land of Egypt and of the land of Canaan ran out and all of Egypt came to Joseph saying, "Give us food. Why should we die in front of you because the money is gone?"

¹⁶ Joseph said, "Give your livestock and I'll give it to you for your livestock, if the money is gone." ¹⁷ So they brought their livestock to Joseph and Joseph gave them food in exchange for horses, for flocks of sheep, for herds of cattle and for donkeys. He provided them with food in exchange for all their livestock that year.

²⁰ So Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh because the Egyptians, each one, sold his field, for the famine overcame them. Thus the land became Pharaoh's. ²¹ He made the people slaves from one end of Egypt's border to the other. ²² Only he did not buy the land belonging to the priests, because the priests had an allotment from Pharaoh, and they ate their allotment that Pharaoh gave them. Therefore they did not sell their land.

²³ Then Joseph said to the people, "Behold, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Here is seed for you, so that you can sow the land. ²⁴ During the harvest you must give a fifth part to Pharaoh and four-fifths will be for you, for seed for the field and for your food, and for those in your houses, and for food for your little ones."

²⁵ "You've saved our lives," they said. "We find favor in the eyes of my lord, and we'll be Pharaoh's slaves." ²⁶ So Joseph set it as a statute until this very day concerning the land of Egypt: a fifth-part goes to Pharaoh. Only the priests' land did not become Pharaoh's.

²⁷ Meanwhile, Israel settled in the land of Egypt in the land of Goshen, acquired property in it, and were fruitful and multiplied greatly.

Parashat Vayechi

Joseph's Promise to Jacob

²⁸ Now Jacob lived in the land of Egypt for 17 years, so the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were 147 years. ²⁹ As the time of Israel's death drew near, he called for his son Joseph and said to him, "If I have found favor in your eyes, please put your hand under my thigh and show me faithful kindness. Please do not bury me in Egypt. ³⁰ When I lie down with my fathers, you must carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place."

So he said, "I myself will do according to your word."

³¹ "Swear to me," he said. So he swore to him. Then Israel bowed down in worship on the head of his staff.

Blessing of Ephraim and Manasseh

48 After these things, someone told Joseph, "Behold, your father is sick." So he took his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, with him. ² When someone told Jacob, saying, "Behold, your son Joseph has come to you," Israel summoned his strength and sat up in the bed.

³ Then Jacob said to Joseph, " El Shaddai appeared to me in Luz, in the land of Canaan, and blessed me. ⁴ He said to me, 'I am going to make you fruitful and multiply you and turn you into an assembly of peoples, and I will give this land to your seed after you as an everlasting possession.' ⁵ So now, your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, they are mine. Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, just like Reuben and Simeon. ⁶ Any descendent of yours whom you father after them will be yours; they will be identified by the names of their brothers for their inheritance. ⁷ Now as for me, when I came from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died along the way, in the land of Canaan, while we were still a distance from entering Ephrath. And I buried her there on the way to Ephrath (that is, Beth-Lehem)."

⁸ Then Israel saw Joseph's sons and said, "Who are these?"

⁹ Joseph said to his father, "They're my sons, whom God has given me here."

Then he said, "Please bring them to me, so I may bless them."

¹⁰ Now Israel's eyes had grown heavy with old age—he could not see. So he brought them near to him, and he kissed them and hugged them. ¹¹ Then Israel said to Joseph, "To see your face, I didn't expect—and look, God has let me see your offspring as well!"

"The God before whom my fathers
Abraham and Isaac walked,
The God who has shepherded me throughout my life to this day,

¹⁶ The Angel who redeemed me from all evil,
May He bless the boys,
and may they be called by my name,

and by the name of my fathers,
Abraham and Isaac.

May they multiply to a multitude in the midst of the land."

¹⁹ But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know. He also will become a people, and he also will become great. But his younger brother will become greater than he and his seed will be the fullness of the nations." ²⁰ Then he blessed them that day saying, "In you shall Israel bless by saying:

'May God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh.'"

Thus he put Ephraim before Manasseh.

²¹ Then Israel said to Joseph, "Look, I am about to die. But God will be with you and will bring you back to the land of your fathers. ²² Now I myself give you one portion more than your brothers, that which I took from the hand of the Amorites with my sword and my bow."

Jacob Speaks Over His Sons

49 Jacob called his sons and said to them:
"Gather together so that I can tell you what will happen to you in the last days.

² Be assembled and listen, sons of Jacob, and listen to Israel your father.

³ Reuben, my firstborn are you, my vigor and firstborn of my power, endowed with extra dignity, endowed with extra strength—

⁴ like water boiling over you will not have extra, for you got up into your father's bed,
when you defiled a maid's couch.

⁵ "Simeon and Levi are brothers, instruments of violence are their knives.

⁶ In their secret counsel may my soul not enter.
In their contingent may my honor never be united.

For in their anger they slew men, and in their self-will they maimed oxen.

⁷ Cursed be their anger for it was strong and their rage for it was cruel—
I will disperse them in Jacob,
I will scatter them in Israel.

⁸ "Judah, so you are—your brothers will praise you:
Your hand will be on your enemies' neck.
Your father's sons will bow down to you.

⁹ A lion's cub is Judah—
from the prey, my son,

† Or, at the head of his bed

¹³ "Zebulun will dwell by the seashore, and be by a harbor for ships—

¹⁴ "Issachar is a strong-boned donkey, lying down between two saddlebags.
¹⁵ He saw that a resting place was good,
 and that the land was pleasant.
 He leaned his shoulder to bear a burden, and became a forced laborer.
¹⁶ "Dan will judge his people,

¹⁷ Let Dan be a serpent beside a road,

²⁷ "Benjamin is a ravening wolf—in the morning he devours spoils, and in the evening divides plunder."

²⁸ These are the tribes of Israel, twelve in all, and this is what their father spoke to them. He blessed them, each one he blessed with a suitable blessing. ²⁹ Then he charged them and said to them, "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, ³⁰ in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, that is next to Mamre in the land of Canaan—the field that Abraham bought from Ephron the Hittite as a property for burial. ³¹ There they buried Abraham and his wife Sarah. There they buried Isaac and Rebekah, and there I buried Leah. ³² The field was purchased along with the cave in it from the sons of Het."

³³ When Jacob finished commanding his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed, then breathed his last and was gathered to his peoples.

Lamentation for Jacob

50 Joseph fell upon his father's face, wept over him and kissed him. ² Then Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father, so the physicians embalmed Israel. ³ They took 40 days for him, because that is how long embalming takes, and Egypt wept 70 days.

⁴ When the days of formal weeping passed, Joseph spoke to Pharaoh's house saying, "If I've found favor in your eyes, please say in Pharaoh's ears, ⁵ 'My father made me take an oath saying, "Behold, I am about to die. In my tomb—which I dug for myself in the land of Canaan—there you must bury me.'" So now, please allow me to go up and bury my father, and then return.'"

⁶ Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father just as he made you swear on oath."

⁷ So Joseph went up to bury his father. Also all of Pharaoh's servants, the elders of his household and all the elders of the land of Egypt went up with him, ⁸ along with all of Joseph's house, his brothers, and his father's household. Only their children and their flocks and cattle were left in the land of Goshen. ⁹ Chariots and horsemen also went up with him—it was a very impressive company.

¹⁰ When they came to the threshing floor of the bramble on the other side of the Jordan, they mourned there—a very great and solemn lamentation. He observed seven days of mourning for his father. ¹¹ When the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning ritual at the threshing floor of the prickly bush, they said, "A solemn mourning ritual this is for the Egyptians." That is why it is named Abel-Mizraim, which is on the other side of the Jordan.

¹² So Jacob's sons did for him just as he commanded them. ¹³ His sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, the field that Abraham bought as a property for burial from Ephron the Hittite, next to Mamre.

¹⁴ After burying his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brothers and all those who went up with him to bury his father.

Joseph Comforts His Brothers

¹⁵ When Joseph's brothers saw that their father had died, they said, "Maybe Joseph will be hostile towards us and pay us back in full for all the evil we showed him." ¹⁶ So they charged Joseph saying, "Before his death, your father gave a command, saying, ¹⁷ 'Thus you must say to Joseph: "Please forgive, I beg you, the transgression of your brothers and their sin because they treated you wrongly." Therefore, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of your father.'"

Then Joseph wept when they spoke to him, ¹⁸ and his brothers also came and fell down before him and said, "Behold, we are your slaves!"

¹⁹ But Joseph said to them, "Don't be afraid. For am I in the place of God? ²⁰ Yes, you yourselves planned evil against me. God planned it for good, in order to bring about what it is this day—to preserve the lives of many people. ²¹ So now, don't be afraid. I myself will provide food for you and your little ones." So he reassured them, speaking kindly to them.

²² Joseph remained in Egypt—he and his father's household—and Joseph lived 110 years. ²³ Joseph saw the third generation of Ephraim's sons. Also the sons of Machir, Manasseh's son, were born upon Joseph's knees.

²⁴ Then Joseph said to his brothers, "I'm about to die. But God will surely take notice of you and will bring you up from this land to the land that He swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob." ²⁵ Then Joseph made Israel's sons swear an oath saying, "When God takes notice of you, you will bring my bones up from here."

²⁶ So Joseph died at 110 years old, and they embalmed him and he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

Exodus Introduction

The nation that was triumphantly called forth by in early Genesis had barely grown into a small clan by Genesis' end—a tiny band of brothers residing in a sprawling Egyptian empire.

Called (or “Names,” of the sons of Israel) in the Hebrew Bible, the book of Exodus describes how the Hebrew tribe grew in Egypt, albeit under very adverse circumstances. A turn of political events rendered the multiplied Israelites in Egypt as mere slave stock. Their misfortune grew with their numbers. Hard-pressed under the oppressive yoke of their Egyptian overlords, Abraham's distant offspring cried out to Abraham's seemingly distant God. In response, God made an appearance through a deliverer raised up to ameliorate the people's miserable condition: Moses (Exod. 1-2).

Moses' rise is noted in Exodus (Exod. 3-4) where God elevates him to facilitate a series of miracles on His and the people's behalf. Israel's deliverance came on the heels of “the war of the wills” between Israel's God and Pharaoh's gods. The final and ultimate miracle was facilitated by the applied blood of a spotless lamb and the death of the firstborn Egyptian males (Exod. 5-11).

With Egypt reeling from its losses, Pharaoh expelled the people of Israel in haste. The English and Greek name “Exodus” translates as “going out.” The “Feast of Unleavened Bread” and “Passover” harken to the aforementioned stories and keep the memory of the exodus alive for Jews in every generation (Exod. 12-13)—much as communion reverberates for Christians in every generation—itself a related spotless lamb story—something done in remembrance of the lamb that was slain.

For the Hebrews, the “going out” of Egypt then led to a “coming in” at Sinai. There, the heavenly glory descended upon the earthly summit, and it was there that God spoke to the fledgling nation and delivered what the book of Hebrew later referred to as Israel's “first covenant” in blood (Exod. 24:6ff.; Heb. 9:18-19). Since the blood of the Passover lamb saved them, slaying the lambs and sprinkling their blood was now institutionalized through the sanctuary and, therefore, remembered for all time (Heb. 8). This arrangement was subsequently and more fully extended to people of saving faith from all nations through (Heb. 9:18-28).

In Exodus, redeemed Israel is similarly beckoned to honor God while walking their earthly trek. This entails keeping the Sabbath, living justly, giving free-will offerings for God's Tabernacle (Exod. 25:1-2, cf. 2 Cor. 9:7), and using their gifts and talents to build and maintain the Tabernacle (Exod. 39:32, 43). In Exodus 19:5-6, Israel is called out to be God's very own national treasure. This sense of being chosen is elsewhere extended to all members of Messiah's community (1 Pet. 2:4-10).

Oppression in Egypt

¹ Now these are the names of Bnei-Yisrael who came into Egypt with Jacob, each man with his family: ² Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah; ³ Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin; ⁴ Dan, Naphtali, Gad and Asher. ⁵ The souls that came out of the line of Jacob numbered 70 in all, while Joseph was already in Egypt.

⁶ Then Joseph died, as did all his brothers and all that generation. ⁷ Yet Bnei-Yisrael were fruitful, increased abundantly, multiplied and grew extremely numerous—so the land was filled with them.

⁸ Now there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph. ⁹ He said to his people, "Look, the people of Bnei-Yisrael are too numerous and too powerful for us. ¹⁰ Come, we must deal shrewdly with them, or else they will grow even more numerous, so that if war breaks out, they may join our enemies, fight against us, and then escape from the land."

¹¹ So they set slave masters over them to afflict them with forced labor, and they built Pithom and Raamses as storage cities for Pharaoh. ¹² But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and the more they spread. So the Egyptians dreaded the presence of Bnei-Yisrael. ¹³ They worked them harshly, ¹⁴ and made their lives bitter with hard labor with mortar and brick, doing all sorts of work in the fields. In all their labors they worked them with cruelty.

¹⁵ Moreover the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, one of whom was named Shiphrah and the other Puah, ¹⁶ and said, "When you help the Hebrew women during childbirth, look at the sex. If it's a son, then kill him, but if it's a daughter, she may live." ¹⁷ Yet the midwives feared God, so they did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the boys live. ¹⁸ So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, "Why have you done this—let the boys live?"

¹⁹ The midwives told Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women. They are like animals, † and give birth before the midwife comes to them.”²⁰ So God was good to the midwives, and the people multiplied, growing very numerous.²¹ Because the midwives feared God, He gave them families of their own.

²² But Pharaoh charged all his people saying, “You are to cast every son that is born into the river, but let every daughter live.”

Young Moses

2 Now a man from the house of Levi took as his wife a daughter of Levi.² The woman conceived and gave birth to a son. Now when she saw that he was delightful, she hid him for three months.^{†3} But when she could no longer hide him, she took a basket of papyrus reeds, coated it with tar and pitch, put the child inside, and laid it in the reeds by the bank of the Nile.⁴ His sister stood off at a distance to see what would happen to him.

⁵ Then the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe, while her maidens walked along by the river-side. When she saw the basket^{††} among the reeds, she sent her handmaiden to fetch it.⁶ When she opened it, she saw the child—a baby boy crying! She had compassion on him and said, “This is one of the Hebrew children.”

⁸ Pharaoh’s daughter told her, “Go!” So the girl went and called the child’s mother.⁹ Then Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child and nurse him for me, and I will pay you your wages.” So the woman took the child and nursed him.¹⁰ After the boy grew older she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter and he became her son. So she named him Moses saying, “Because I drew him out of the water.”[‡]

¹¹ Now it happened in those days, after Moses had grown up, that he went out to his brothers and saw their burdens. He noticed an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his own people.^{††12} So he looked around and when he saw that there was nobody, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.¹³ Then he went out the following day, and saw two Hebrew men fighting. So he said to the guilty one, “Why are you beating your companion?”

¹⁴ But the man answered, “Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? Are you saying you’re going to kill me—just as you killed the Egyptian?”

Then Moses was afraid, and thought, “For sure the deed had become known.”¹⁵ When Pharaoh heard about this, he tried to kill Moses.

But Moses fled from Pharaoh and settled in the land of Midian,^{‡‡} where he sat down by a well.¹⁶ Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters who came and drew water. They filled the troughs to water their father’s flock.¹⁷ But shepherds came and drove them away, so Moses stood up, helped them and watered their flock.

¹⁸ When they came to Reuel their father, he said, “How come you’ve returned so soon today?”

¹⁹ So they told him, “An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds. He also drew water for us and watered the flock.”

²⁰ “Where is he then?” he said to his daughters. “Why did you leave the man behind? Invite him to have some food to eat!”

²³ Now it came about over the course of those many days that the king of Egypt died. Bnei-Yisrael groaned because of their slavery. They cried out and their cry from slavery went up to God.²⁴ God heard their sobbing and remembered His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.²⁵ God saw Bnei-Yisrael, and He was concerned about them.

Angel of ADONAI in a Burning Bush

3 Now Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. So he led the flock to the farthest end of the wilderness, coming to the mountain of God, Horeb.^{‡‡2} Then the angel of ADONAI appeared to him in a flame of fire from within a bush. So he looked and saw the bush burning with fire, yet it was not consumed.³ Moses thought, “I will go now, and see this great sight. Why is the bush not burnt?”

⁴ When ADONAI saw that he turned to look, He called to him out of the midst of the bush and said, “Moses, Moses!”

So he answered, “Hineni.”

⁵ Then He said, “Come no closer. Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.”⁶ Moreover He said, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.” So Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

⁷ Then ADONAI said, “I have surely seen the affliction of My people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their slave masters, for I know their pains.⁸ So I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, to bring them up out of that land into a good and large land, a land flowing with milk and honey, into the place of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.⁹ Now behold, the cry of Bnei-Yisrael has come to Me. Moreover I have seen the oppression that the Egyptians have inflicted on them.¹⁰ Come now, I will send you to Pharaoh, so that you may bring My people Bnei-Yisrael out from Egypt.”

¹¹ But Moses said to God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring Bnei-Yisrael out of Egypt?"

¹² So He said, "I will surely be with you. So that will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you. When you have brought the people out of Egypt: you will worship God on this mountain."

¹³ But Moses said to God, "Suppose I go to Bnei-Yisrael and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is His Name?' What should I say to them?"

¹⁴ God answered Moses, "I AM WHO I AM. †" Then He said, "You are to say to Bnei-Yisrael, 'I AM' has sent me to you." ¹⁵ God also said to Moses: "You are to say to Bnei-Yisrael, ADONAI, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My Name forever, and the Name by which I should be remembered from generation to generation.

¹⁶ "Go now, gather the elders of Israel together, and say to them: ' ADONAI, the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob—has appeared to me, saying, I have been paying close attention to you and have seen what is done to you in Egypt. ¹⁷ So I promise I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt, into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.'

¹⁸ "They will listen to your voice. So you will go, you along with the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt, and say to him: ' ADONAI, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now please let us take a three-day journey into the wilderness, so that we may sacrifice to ADONAI our God.' ¹⁹ Nevertheless, I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go, except by a mighty hand. ²⁰ So I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders that I will do in the midst of it. After that, he will let you go.

²¹ "Then I shall grant these people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians. So it will happen that when you go, you will not leave empty-handed. ²² Every woman is to ask her neighbor and the woman who lives in her house for silver and gold jewelry and clothing. You will put them on your sons and your daughters. So you will plunder the Egyptians."

Objections and Excuses

4 Then Moses said, "But look, they will not believe me or listen to my voice. They will say, ' ADONAI has not appeared to you.'"

² So ADONAI said to him, "What is that in your hand?" "A staff," he said.

³ Then He said, "Cast it on the ground." When he cast it to the ground, it became a serpent, so Moses fled from before it. ⁴ Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand, and take it by the tail." So he put out his hand, laid hold of it, and it became a staff in his hand.

⁵ "This is so that they may believe ADONAI, the God of their fathers—the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob—has appeared to you."

⁷ Then He said, "Put your hand back into your cloak." So he put his hand back in, and when he took it out it was restored again as the rest of his skin.

⁸ Then He said, "If they do not believe you, or listen to the voice of the first sign, they will believe the message of the latter sign. ⁹ But if they do not believe even these two signs nor listen to your voice, you are to take the water of the river and pour it on the dry land. The water which you take out of the river will become blood on the ground."

¹⁰ But Moses said to ADONAI, " ADONAI, I am not a man of words—not yesterday, nor the day before, nor since You have spoken to Your servant—because I have a slow mouth and a heavy tongue."

¹¹ So ADONAI said to him, "Who made man's mouth? Or who makes a man mute or deaf, seeing or blind? Is it not I, ADONAI? ¹² Now go! I will be with your mouth and teach you what to say."

¹³ But he said, "Please, please, send it by another hand."

¹⁴ Then the anger of ADONAI was kindled against Moses, so He said, "In fact, Aaron the Levite is your brother. I know that he can speak well. Moreover, he is on his way to meet you! When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart. ¹⁵ You are to speak to him and put the words in his mouth. I will be with your mouth and with his, and teach you what to do. ¹⁶ He will be your spokesman to the people, so that he may act as a mouthpiece for you, and it will be as if you were as God for him. ¹⁷ Now then, you must take this staff in your hand to do the signs."

Moses Returns to Egypt

¹⁸ So Moses went, returned to his father-in-law Jethro and said to him, "Please let me go, so I may return to my kinsmen who are in Egypt and see whether they are still alive."

Jethro said to Moses, "Go in peace."

¹⁹ Then ADONAI said to Moses in Midian, "Go, return to Egypt, for all the men that sought your life are dead." ²⁰ So Moses took his wife and his sons, set them on a donkey and returned to the land of Egypt. Moses took the staff of God in his hand.

²¹ ADONAI said to Moses, "When you go back to Egypt, see that you do all the wonders before Pharaoh that I have put in your hand. Still, I will harden his heart, and he will not let the people go. ²² You are to say to Pharaoh, 'This is what ADONAI says: "Israel is My son, My firstborn." ²³ So I have said to you, Let My son go, that he may serve Me, but you have refused to let him go. Behold, I will slay your son, your firstborn.'"

† I AM WHO I AM I WILL BE WHO I WILL BE

²⁴ It happened along the way, at a lodging place, that ADONAI met him and sought to kill him! ²⁵ But Zipporah took a flint, cut off the foreskin of her son, and threw it at his feet, saying, "You are surely a bridegroom of blood to me." ²⁶ She said, "A bridegroom of blood" because of the circumcision. Then He let him alone.

²⁷ Now ADONAI said to Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses." So he went and met him at the mountain of God, and kissed him. ²⁸ Then Moses told Aaron all the words of ADONAI with which He had been sent, along with all the signs that He had commanded him to do. ²⁹ Then Moses and Aaron went and assembled all the elders of Bnei-Yisrael. ³⁰ Aaron spoke all the words that ADONAI had spoken to Moses and did the signs in the sight of the people. ³¹ So the people believed. When they heard that ADONAI had remembered Bnei-Yisrael and had seen their affliction, they bowed their heads and worshiped.

Pharaoh Will Not Let Israel Go

5 Afterward, Moses and Aaron went and said to Pharaoh, "This is what ADONAI, God of Israel, says: Let My people go, so that they may hold a feast for Me in the wilderness."

² But Pharaoh said, "Who is ADONAI, that I should listen to His voice and let Israel go? I do not know ADONAI, and besides, I will not let Israel go."

³ They answered, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us take a three-day journey into the wilderness, so we may sacrifice to ADONAI our God, or else He may strike us with pestilence or with the sword."

⁴ But the king of Egypt said to them, "Why do you, Moses and Aaron, make the people break loose from their work? Go to your labors!" ⁵ Then Pharaoh said, "Look, the people of the land are now so numerous, yet you would have them rest from their labors?"

⁶ Then on the same day Pharaoh commanded the slave masters of the people and their foremen saying, ⁷ "You are not to give the people any more straw to make bricks, as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves. ⁸ But impose on them the quota of bricks that they made previously; don't reduce it. For they are lazy—that's why they cry out saying, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God.' ⁹ Let even heavier work be laid upon the men, so that they must labor, paying no attention to deceptive words."

¹⁰ Then the slave masters of the people went out, along with their officers, and they spoke to the people saying: "This is what Pharaoh says: I will not give you straw. ¹¹ Go and get straw for yourselves wherever you can find it, for there will be no reduction of your work."

¹² So the people were scattered throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. ¹³ But the slave masters pressured, saying, "Fulfill your work, your daily amount, just as when there was straw."

¹⁴ Moreover the foremen of Bnei-Yisrael, whom Pharaoh's slave masters had set over them, were beaten and asked, "Why haven't you met your quota of bricks, both yesterday and today like before?"

¹⁵ The foremen of Bnei-Yisrael came and cried out to Pharaoh saying, "Why do you deal this way with your servants? ¹⁶ No straw is given to your servants, yet they say to us, 'Make bricks!' and look, your servants are beaten. But it is your own people at fault."

¹⁷ But he said, "Lazy! You're lazy! That's why you were saying, 'Let us go and sacrifice to ADONAI.' ¹⁸ So go now and work! No straw will be given to you—but you must deliver the quota of bricks."

¹⁹ So the foremen of Bnei-Yisrael saw that they were in trouble when they were told, "You are not to reduce the number of bricks from day to day." ²⁰ Then they met Moses and Aaron, who were waiting for them as they came from Pharaoh.

²¹ So they said to them, "May ADONAI look on you and judge, because you have made us a stench in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants—putting a sword in their hand to kill us!"

²² So Moses returned to ADONAI and said, " ADONAI, why have You brought evil on these people? Is this why You sent me? ²³ Ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your Name, he has brought evil on these people. You have not delivered Your people at all."

How Will Pharaoh Listen?

6 ADONAI said to Moses, "Now you will see what I am going to do to Pharaoh. By way of a strong hand he will let them go, and drive them out of his land."

Parashat Va'eira

² God spoke further to Moses and said to him, "I am ADONAI. ³ I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob, as El Shaddai. Yet by My Name, ADONAI, did I not make Myself known to them. ⁴ I also established My covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage where they journeyed.

⁵ Furthermore, I have heard the groaning of Bnei-Yisrael, whom the Egyptians are keeping in bondage. So I have remembered My covenant. ⁶ Therefore say to Bnei-Yisrael: I am ADONAI, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. I will deliver you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments. ⁷ I will take you to Myself as a people, and I will be your God. You will know that I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. ⁸ So I will bring you into the land that I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob, and give it to you as an inheritance. I am ADONAI."

¹² But Moses said to ADONAI, “Bnei-Yisrael have not listened to me. So how would Pharaoh listen to me—I, who have uncircumcised lips?”

¹³ Then ADONAI spoke to Moses and to Aaron and gave to them a charge for Bnei-Yisrael and Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring Bnei-Yisrael out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁴ These are the heads of their father’s houses. The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These are the families of Reuben. ¹⁵ The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These are the families of Simeon.

¹⁶ These are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations: Gershon, Kohath and Merari. Levi lived 137 years. ¹⁷ The sons of Gershon were Libni and Shimei, according to their families. ¹⁸ The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. Kohath lived 133 years. ¹⁹ The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their generations.

²⁶ These are the same Aaron and Moses to whom ADONAI said, “Bring Bnei-Yisrael out from the land of Egypt according to their divisions.” ²⁷ These are the ones that spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring Bnei-Yisrael out from Egypt. These are that same Moses and Aaron. ²⁸ So it happened on the day when ADONAI spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, ²⁹ that ADONAI said to Moses, “I am ADONAI. Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything that I tell to you.” ³⁰ But Moses said to ADONAI, “I am of uncircumcised lips, so how would Pharaoh listen to me?”

7 So ADONAI said to Moses, “See, I have set you as God to Pharaoh, and Aaron your brother will be your prophet. ² You are to speak all that I command you and Aaron your brother is to speak to Pharaoh, so that he will let Bnei-Yisrael go out of his land. ³ Yet I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and multiply My signs and wonders in the land of Egypt. ⁴ But Pharaoh will not listen to you, so I will lay My hand upon Egypt, and bring forth My armies, My people Bnei-Yisrael, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. ⁵ The Egyptians will know that I am ADONAI, when I stretch out My hand against Egypt, and bring out Bnei-Yisrael from among them.” ⁶ So Moses and Aaron did as ADONAI commanded them. ⁷ Moses was eighty years old [†] and Aaron eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

⁸ ADONAI told Moses and Aaron, ⁹ “When Pharaoh speaks to you saying, ‘Prove yourselves with a miracle,’ then you are to say to Aaron, ‘Take your staff and cast it down before Pharaoh, so that it may become a serpent.’”

¹⁰ So Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh and did as ADONAI had commanded. Aaron threw down his staff before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent. ¹¹ Then Pharaoh called for the wise men and the sorcerers, and they too, the magicians of Egypt, did the same with their secret arts. ¹² For each man threw down his staff, and they became serpents. But Aaron’s staff swallowed up their staffs. ¹³ Yet Pharaoh’s heart was hardened. So he did not listen to them—just as ADONAI had said.

Ten Plagues Begin: Blood

¹⁴ Then ADONAI said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is stubborn; he refuses to let the people go. ¹⁵ Go to Pharaoh in the morning as he is coming out to the water, and stand ready to meet him by the bank of the Nile. Take the staff that was transformed into a serpent in your hand. ¹⁶ You are to say to him: ADONAI, God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, ‘Let My people go, so they may serve Me in the wilderness,’ and behold, you have not listened. ¹⁷ This is what ADONAI says: ‘By this you will know that I am ADONAI. Behold, I will strike the waters that are in the river with the staff that is in my hand, and they will be turned to blood. ¹⁸ The fish that are in the river will die, the river will become foul, and the Egyptians will hate to drink water from the Nile.’”

¹⁹ ADONAI said to Moses, “Say to Aaron: Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, over their pools and over all their ponds, so that they become blood. There will be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, even in wooden and stone containers.”

²⁰ So Moses and Aaron did as ADONAI commanded. He lifted up the staff and struck the waters that were in the river in the sight of Pharaoh and his servants, and all the waters of the Nile turned to blood. ²¹ When the fish that were in the river died, the river became so foul that the Egyptians could not drink water from the river. The blood was throughout all the land of Egypt.

²² But the magicians of Egypt did the same with their secret arts. So Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them—just as ADONAI had said.

²³ Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and did not even take it to heart. ²⁴ So all the Egyptians dug around the river for water to drink, because they could not drink of the water from the Nile. ²⁵ Seven days were fulfilled after ADONAI had struck the Nile.

[†] cf. Acts 7:23, 30.

²⁶ (8:1) Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him: This is what ADONAI says: 'Let My people go, so they may serve Me. ²⁷ (8:2) If you refuse to let them go, see, I will strike all your territory with frogs. ²⁸ (8:3) The river will swarm with frogs. They will go up and enter your house, into your bedroom, upon your bed, into the houses of your servants, upon your people, into your ovens, and in your kneading bowls. ²⁹ (8:4) The frogs will climb up on you, your people and all your servants.'"

Frogs, Gnats, Flies

8 (5) Then ADONAI told Moses, "Say to Aaron: Stretch out your hand with your staff over the rivers, canals and pools, and cause frogs to come up over the land of Egypt."² (6) So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land. ³ (7) But the magicians did the same with their secret arts and brought up frogs over the land of Egypt.

⁴ (8) Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, "Pray to ADONAI, that He would take the frogs away from me and from my people. Then I will let the people go, so they may sacrifice to ADONAI."

⁵ (9) Moses answered Pharaoh, "Boast about me after I pray for you. When am I to pray for you, your servants and your people, that the frogs would be cut off from you and your houses, and remain only in the Nile?"

⁶ (10) "Tomorrow," he said.

So he said, "Let it happen according to your word, so that you may know that there is none like ADONAI our God. ⁷ (11) The frogs will depart from you, from your houses, from your servants and from your people. They will remain only in the Nile."

⁸ (12) After Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, Moses cried out to ADONAI concerning the frogs, which He had brought upon Pharaoh. ⁹ (13) So ADONAI acted according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died out in the houses, the courts and the fields. ¹⁰ (14) They piled them together in large heaps, and the land stank. ¹¹ (15) But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not listen to them—just as ADONAI had said.

¹² (16) So ADONAI said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the earth, and it will become gnats † throughout all the land of Egypt.'" ¹³ (17) So they did. When Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff and struck the dust of the earth, there were gnats on men and animals. All the dust of the earth became gnats throughout all the land of Egypt.

¹⁴ (18) When the magicians attempted the same with their secret arts to bring forth gnats, they could not. There were gnats on men and animals. ¹⁵ (19) So the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God." But Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them—just as ADONAI had said.

† Or lice

¹⁶ (20) Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh. As he comes to the water say to him, This is what ADONAI says: Let My people go, that they may serve Me. ¹⁷ (21) Or else, if you do not let My people go, I will send the swarm of flies †† on you and on your servants, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of the swarm of flies including the ground that they stand on.

¹⁸ (22) "But on that day I will set apart the land of Goshen, where My people are dwelling—except no swarm of flies will be there—so that you may know that I, ADONAI, am in the midst of the earth. ¹⁹ (23) I will make a distinction between My people and your people. By tomorrow this sign will happen."

²¹ (25) So Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron and said, "Go! Sacrifice to your God—in the land."

²² (26) But Moses said, "That would not be right. For the offerings we intend to sacrifice to ADONAI our God are an abomination to the Egyptians. If we sacrifice what is an abomination to the Egyptians, wouldn't they stone us? ²³ (27) We must walk a three-day journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to ADONAI our God—just as He tells us."

²⁴ (28) Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, so that you may sacrifice to ADONAI your God in the wilderness. Only you must not go very far away. Pray for me."

²⁵ (29) So Moses said, "See, I am leaving you, and I will pray to ADONAI that the swarm of flies will depart from Pharaoh, his servants and from his people tomorrow. However, let Pharaoh no longer deal deceitfully by not letting the people go sacrifice to ADONAI."

²⁶ (30) Then Moses went out from Pharaoh and prayed to ADONAI. ²⁷ (31) ADONAI acted according to the word of Moses, and removed the swarm of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants and from his people. Nothing remained. ²⁸ (32) But Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and did not let the people go.

Livestock, Boils, Hail

9 Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him: This is what ADONAI, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'Let My people go, so they may serve Me.' ² For if you refuse to let them go, and hold them still, ³ behold, the hand of ADONAI will fall upon your livestock that are in the field—on the horses, donkeys, camels, herds and flocks. There will be a crushing plague. ⁴ But ADONAI will make a distinction between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt, and nothing will die that belongs to Bnei-Yisrael."

⁵ Also ADONAI set a specific time, saying, "Tomorrow ADONAI will do this thing in the land."

†† Hebrew does not specify what kind of insects, possibly stinging flies.

⁶ Then the next day, ADONAI did the deed. All the cattle of Egypt died, yet of the cattle of Bnei-Yisrael, not one died. ⁷ When Pharaoh inquired, there was not so much as one of the cattle of Bnei-Yisrael dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was stubborn, and he did not let the people go.

⁸ Then ADONAI said to Moses and Aaron, "Take handfuls of soot from the furnace, and have Moses throw it heavenward in the sight of Pharaoh. ⁹ It will become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and will become boils erupting with sores on both men and animals throughout all the land."

¹⁰ So they took soot from the furnace and stood before Pharaoh. When Moses threw it heavenward, it became boils erupting with sores on both men and animals. ¹¹ Moreover, the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils, because they were on the magicians, as on all the Egyptians. ¹² But ADONAI hardened the heart of Pharaoh, so he did not listen to them—just as ADONAI had said to Moses.

¹³ Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, stand before Pharaoh and say to him: This is what ADONAI the God of the Hebrews says: 'Let My people go, so they may serve Me. ¹⁴ For this time I will send all My plagues to your heart, and on your servants and your people, so that you may know that there is none like Me in all the earth. ¹⁵ Surely by now I could have stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with a plague that would have wiped you off the earth. ¹⁶ However, I have let you stand for this reason: to show you My power, and that My Name might be proclaimed throughout all the earth. ¹⁷ Yet still you exalt yourself over My people, by not letting them go. ¹⁸ Behold, tomorrow at about this time, I will cause it to rain a very severe hailstorm, the likes of which has not occurred in Egypt since the day it was founded until now. ¹⁹ Send word, shelter your cattle and all that you have in the field. For every person and animal found in the field and not brought home, when the hail comes down on them, they will die.'"

²² Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward heaven and let there be hail in all the land of Egypt, on people, animals and every plant of the field, throughout all the land."

²³ So Moses stretched out his staff toward heaven, and ADONAI sent thunder and hail. Fire came down on the earth, as ADONAI rained hail on the land of Egypt. ²⁴ The hail fell very severely, with fire flashing up amidst the hail, the likes of which had not occurred in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. ²⁵ The hail struck down everything that was in the fields, both men and animals, all throughout the land of Egypt. It also struck every plant of the field and broke down every tree. ²⁶ Only in the land of Goshen, where Bnei-Yisrael were, was there no hail.

²⁷ So Pharaoh sent, called for Moses and Aaron and said to them, "I have sinned this time. ADONAI is righteous, while I and my people are wicked. ²⁸ Pray to ADONAI—there has been enough of God's thunders and hail! I will let you go. You don't have to stay any longer."

²⁹ Moses said to him, "As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will stretch out my hands to ADONAI. The thunder will cease and there will be no more hail—so you may know that the earth is ADONAI's. ³⁰ But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear ADONAI Elohim."

³¹ (The flax and the barley were destroyed, because the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in bloom.

³³ Moses went out of the city, away from Pharaoh, and stretched out his hands to ADONAI. Then the thunder and hail ceased, and rain no longer poured down on the earth. ³⁴ But when Pharaoh saw that the rain, the hail and the thunder had ceased, he increased his sin and hardened his heart, both he and his servants. ³⁵ So Pharaoh's heart was hardened and he did not let Bnei-Yisrael go—just as ADONAI had said by Moses's hand.

Parashat Bo

Locusts, Darkness

10 Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, because I have hardened his heart and the heart of his servants, so that I might show these My signs in their midst, ² and so you may tell your son and your grandchildren what I have done in Egypt, as well as My signs that I did among them, so you may know that I am ADONAI."

³ So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, "This is what ADONAI, the God of the Hebrews, says: How long would you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, so they may serve Me. ⁴ Or else, if you refuse to let My people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your borders. ⁵ Then they will cover the face of the earth, so that no one will be able to see the ground. They will eat the remainder of what escaped—whatever is left from the hail—and eat every tree that grows for you out in the field. ⁶ Your houses will be filled, as will the houses of all your servants and the houses of all the Egyptians, as neither your fathers nor your grandfathers have seen since the day they were on the earth until today!" Then he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

⁷ Pharaoh's servants said to him, "How long will this man be a snare to us? Send the men, so they may serve ADONAI their God. Don't you realize yet that Egypt is being destroyed?"

⁸ So Moses and Aaron were brought to Pharaoh again. “Go, serve ADONAI your God,” he said. “But who will be going?”

⁹ Moses answered, “We will go with our young and our elderly, our sons and our daughters. We will go with our flocks and our herds—for we must have ADONAI’s feast for Him.”

¹⁰ But he said to them, “So may ADONAI be with you, if I ever do let you go, with your little ones. See clearly now! Evil is in your face. ¹¹ Not so! Go now—the men—and serve ADONAI! For that’s what you were seeking.” Then they were driven out from Pharaoh’s presence.

¹² Then ADONAI said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, so they may come up onto Egypt and eat every plant in the land—everything the hail has left.” ¹³ So Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and ADONAI brought an east wind over the land all that day and all night. When it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. ¹⁴ The locusts came up over all the land of Egypt and rested on the entire territory of Egypt. So dense—there was nothing like it before them, nor will there ever be again. ¹⁵ For they covered the face of the whole earth so that the land was darkened, and they ate every plant in the land and all the fruit from the trees that the hail had left. No green thing remained, not a tree or a plant of the field throughout all the land of Egypt.

¹⁶ Then Pharaoh quickly called for Moses and Aaron and said, “I have sinned against ADONAI your God and against you. ¹⁷ Now forgive my sin, only this once, please! So pray to ADONAI your God—just so He would take this death away from me!”

¹⁸ So he went out from Pharaoh and prayed to ADONAI. ¹⁹ Then ADONAI turned the wind from the west, very strong, and it carried off the locusts and drove them into the Sea of Reeds. Not one locust remained in all the territory of Egypt. ²⁰ But ADONAI hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let Bnei-Yisrael go.

²¹ Then ADONAI said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand toward heaven, and there will be darkness over the land of Egypt—a darkness that may be felt.”

²² So Moses stretched out his hand toward heaven, and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days. ²³ They could not see one another, nor could anyone rise from his place for three days. Yet all Bnei-Yisrael had light within their dwellings.

²⁴ Pharaoh called Moses and said, “Go, serve ADONAI. Only let your flocks and your herds remain. Your little ones may also go with you.”

²⁵ But Moses said, “You must also put sacrifices and burnt offerings into our hand, then we will do it for ADONAI our God. ²⁶ Our cattle must also go with us—not a hoof may be left behind. We must take from them to serve ADONAI our God. We ourselves will not know how we will serve ADONAI until we arrive there.”

²⁷ But ADONAI hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he was unwilling to let them go. ²⁸ So Pharaoh said to him, “Go away from me! Take heed never to see my face again, because on the day you do, you will die!”

²⁹ “Right!” Moses said. “You said it! May I never see your face again!”

Final Plague: Death

11 Now ADONAI had said to Moses, “I will bring one more plague upon Pharaoh and on Egypt. After that, he will let you go from here. When he lets you go, he will surely thrust you out altogether from here.

² Speak now into the ears of the people, and let every man ask from his neighbor and every woman from her neighbor for articles of silver and gold.” ³ ADONAI gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians. Indeed, the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the eyes of Pharaoh’s servants and in the eyes of the people.

⁹ ADONAI had said to Moses, “Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.” ¹⁰ So Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, yet ADONAI hardened Pharaoh’s heart, so he did not let Bnei-Yisrael go out of his land.

The Passover Lamb

12 Now ADONAI spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt saying, ² “This month will mark the beginning of months for you; it is to be the first month of the year for you. ³ Tell all the congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month, each man is to take a lamb for his family one lamb for the household.

⁴ But if the household is too small for a lamb, then he and his nearest neighbor are to take one according to the number of the people. According to each person eating, you are to make your count for the lamb.

⁶ You must watch over it until the fourteenth day of the same month. Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel is to slaughter it at twilight.¹⁷ They are to take the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the crossbeam of the houses where they will eat it.⁸ They are to eat the meat that night, roasted over a fire. With matzot and bitter herbs^{††} they are to eat it.⁹ Do not eat any of it raw or boiled with water, but only roasted with fire—its head with its legs and its innards.¹⁰ So let nothing of it remain until the morning. Whatever remains until the morning you are to burn with fire.¹¹ Also you are to eat it this way: with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet and your staff in your hand. You are to eat it in haste. It is ADONAI's Passover.

¹⁴ "This day is to be a memorial for you. †† You are to keep it as a feast to ADONAI. Throughout your generations you are to keep it as an eternal ordinance.¹⁵ For seven days you are to eat matzot, but on the first day you must remove hametz from your houses, †† for whoever eats hametz from the first day until the seventh day, that soul will be cut off from Israel.¹⁶ The first day is to be a holy assembly for you as well as the seventh day. No manner of work is to be done on those days, except what is to be eaten by every person—that alone may be prepared by you.¹⁷ So you are to observe the Feast of Matzot, for on this very same day have I brought your ranks out of the land of Egypt. Therefore you are to observe this day throughout your generations as an eternal ordinance.

¹⁸ "During the first month in the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, you are to eat matzot, until the evening of the twenty-first day of the month.¹⁹ For seven days no hametz is to be found in your houses, for whoever eats hametz, that soul will be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he is an outsider or one who is born in the land.²⁰ You are to eat no hametz; in all your houses you are to eat matzot."

²¹ Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel and said to them, "Go, select lambs for your families and slaughter the Passover lamb. ††²² You are to take a bundle of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and apply it to the crossbeam and two doorposts with the blood from the basin. None of you may go out the door of his house until morning.²³ ADONAI will pass through to strike down the Egyptians, but when He sees the blood on the crossbeam and the two doorposts, ADONAI will pass over that door, and will not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to strike you down.²⁴ Also you are to observe this event as an eternal ordinance, for you and your children.

²⁵ "When you come into the land which ADONAI will give you as He has promised, you are to keep this ceremony.²⁶ Now when it happens that your children ask you, 'What does this ceremony mean to you?'²⁷ You are to say, 'It is the sacrifice of ADONAI's Passover, because He passed over the houses of Bnei-Yisrael in Egypt, when He struck down the Egyptians, but spared our households.'" So the people bowed their heads and worshiped.

²⁸ Then Bnei-Yisrael went and did it. They did just as ADONAI had commanded Moses and Aaron.²⁹ So it came about at midnight that ADONAI struck down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the firstborn cattle. †††

³⁰ Then Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants and all the Egyptians, and there was loud wailing in Egypt. For there was not a house where someone was not dead.³¹ So he called for Moses and Aaron at night and said, "Rise up, go out from my people, both you and Bnei-Yisrael, go, serve ADONAI as you have said.³² Take your flocks and your herds, as you said, and be gone! But bless me, too."

³⁷ Then Bnei-Yisrael journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about 600,000 men on foot, as well as children.³⁸ Also a mixed multitude went up with them, along with the flocks, herds and heavy livestock.³⁹ They had baked matzot cakes from the dough that they brought out of Egypt. It had no hametz, because they were thrust out of Egypt and could not delay, so they had not made provisions for themselves.

⁴⁰ Now the time that Bnei-Yisrael lived in Egypt was 430 years.⁴¹ So it happened at the end of 430 years, to the very day, that all the armies of ADONAI went out from the land of Egypt.⁴² It was a night of watching for ADONAI to bring them out of the land of Egypt. This same night is a night of vigil for ADONAI, for all Bnei-Yisrael throughout their generations.

⁴³ Then ADONAI said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the Passover. No foreigner may eat it,⁴⁴ but every man's servant that is bought for money, after you have circumcised him, may eat it.⁴⁵ Nor should a visitor or hired servant eat it.⁴⁶ It is to be eaten inside a single house. You are not to carry the meat out of the house, nor are you to break any of its bones. ^{†47} All the congregation of Israel must keep it. ⁴⁸ But if an outsider dwells with you, who would keep the Passover for ADONAI, all his males must be circumcised. Then let him draw near and keep it. He will be like one who is native to the land. But no uncircumcised person may eat from it. ⁴⁹ The same Torah applies to the native as well as the outsider who dwells among you."

⁵⁰ So all Bnei-Yisrael did so. They did just as ADONAI commanded Moses and Aaron. ⁵¹ It was on that very day that ADONAI brought Bnei-Yisrael out of the land of Egypt as armies.

Redemption of the Firstborn

13 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Consecrate to Me all the firstborn, from every womb of Bnei-Yisrael, both men and animals—this is Mine." ^{††}

³ Moses said to the people, "Remember this day, on which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage. For by a strong hand ADONAI brought you out from this place. No hametz may be eaten. ⁴ This day, in the month of Aviv, you are going out. ⁵ When ADONAI brings you into the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you are to observe this service during this month. ⁶ For seven days you are to eat matzah, and the seventh day is to be a feast to ADONAI. ⁷ Matzot is to be eaten throughout the seven days, and no hametz is to be seen among you, nor within any of your borders.

¹¹ "Now when ADONAI brings you into the land of the Canaanite, as He swore to you and your fathers and gives it you, ¹² you are to set apart to ADONAI every firstborn from the womb, and every firstborn male animal you have will be ADONAI's. ¹³ Every firstborn donkey you are to redeem with a lamb, and if you do not redeem it, then you are to break its neck. But you are to redeem every firstborn male among your sons.

¹⁴ "So when your son asks you in times to come, 'What is this?' say to him, 'By a strong hand ADONAI brought us out from Egypt, the house of bondage, ¹⁵ and when Pharaoh refused to let us go, ADONAI slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both men and animals. So I sacrifice to ADONAI all firstborn males, but I redeem the firstborn of my sons.' ¹⁶ So it will be like a sign on your hand and like frontlets between your eyes, for by a strong hand ADONAI brought us out of Egypt."

Parashat Beshalach

¹⁷ After Pharaoh had let the people go, God did not lead them along the road to the land of the Philistines, although that was nearby, for God said, "The people might change their minds if they see war and return to Egypt." ¹⁸ So God led the people around by the way of the wilderness to the Sea of Reeds, and Bnei-Yisrael went up out of the land of Egypt armed.

¹⁹ Moses also took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made Bnei-Yisrael swear an oath saying, "God will surely remember you, and then you are to carry my bones away with you." [‡]

²⁰ So they journeyed from Succoth and encamped in Etham, on the edge of the wilderness. ²¹ ADONAI went before them in a pillar of cloud by day to lead the way and in a pillar of fire by night to give them light. So they could travel both day and night. ^{‡22} The pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night never departed from the people.

Sea of Reeds Showdown

14 ADONAI spoke to Moses saying, ² "Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, so that they turn back and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. You are to camp by the sea, opposite Baal-zephon.

³ Pharaoh will say concerning Bnei-Yisrael, 'They are wandering aimlessly in the land—the wilderness has shut them in!' ⁴ I will harden Pharaoh's heart, so he will follow after them. Then I will be glorified over Pharaoh along with all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am ADONAI.'" So they did so.

⁵ When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his servants had a change of heart toward the people, and they said, "What is this we have done, that we let Israel go from serving us?"

¹⁰ When Pharaoh drew near, Bnei-Yisrael lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them! So they were terrified, and Bnei-Yisrael cried out to ADONAI. ¹¹ They said to Moses, "Have you taken us away to die in the wilderness because there were no graves in Egypt? Why have you dealt this way with us, to bring us out of Egypt? ¹² Did we not say to you in Egypt, 'Let us alone, so that we may serve the Egyptians?’ It was better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness!”

¹³ But Moses said to the people, “Don’t be afraid! Stand still, and see the salvation of ADONAI, which He will perform for you today. You have seen the Egyptians today, but you will never see them again, ever! ¹⁴ ADONAI will fight for you, while you hold your peace.”

¹⁵ Then ADONAI said to Moses, “Why are you crying to Me? Tell Bnei-Yisrael to go forward. ¹⁶ Lift up your staff, stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it. Then Bnei-Yisrael will go into the midst of the sea on dry ground. ¹⁷ Then I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they will go in after them, so that I will be glorified over Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots and his horsemen. ¹⁸ Then the Egyptians will know that I am ADONAI, when I have been glorified over Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen.”

¹⁹ Then the angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them. Also the pillar of cloud moved from in front and stood behind them, ²⁰ and so came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel—there was the cloud and the darkness over here, yet it gave light by night over there—neither one came near the other all night long.

²¹ Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. ADONAI drove the sea back with a strong east wind throughout the night and turned the sea into dry land. So the waters were divided. ²² Then Bnei-Yisrael went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, while the waters were like walls to them on their right and on their left. †

²⁹ But Bnei-Yisrael had walked on dry land in the midst of the sea, and the waters were like walls to them on their right hand and on their left. ³⁰ So ADONAI saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. ³¹ When Israel saw the great work that ADONAI did over the Egyptians, the people feared ADONAI, and they believed in ADONAI and in His servant Moses.

Song of Moses and Miriam

15 Then Moses and Bnei-Yisrael sang this song to ADONAI: ‡

I will sing to ADONAI, for He is highly exalted!
The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea.

² ADONAI is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation. †

This is my God, and I will glorify Him, my father’s God, and I will exalt Him.

³ ADONAI is a warrior— ADONAI is His Name!

⁴ Pharaoh’s chariots and his army
He has hurled into the sea, and his chosen captains have sunk into the Sea of Reeds.

⁵ The deeps cover them.
They sank to the depths like a stone.

⁶ Your right hand, ADONAI, is glorious in power.
Your right hand, ADONAI, dashes the enemy to pieces.

⁷ In the greatness of Your excellency
You overthrow those who resist You.
You send forth Your wrath—it consumes them as stubble.

⁸ With the blast of Your nostrils the waters piled up.
The floods stood upright as a heap.
The deeps became firm ground in the heart of the sea.

⁹ The enemy said, “I will pursue,
I will overtake, I will divide the spoil.
My lust shall gorge on them!
I will draw my sword—my hand will destroy them.”

¹⁰ You blew with Your wind, the sea covered them.
They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

¹¹ Who is like You, ADONAI, among the gods?
Who is like You,
glorious in holiness,
awesome in praises,
doing wonders? ††

¹² You stretched out Your right hand, the earth swallowed them.

¹³ You in Your lovingkindness led the people You have redeemed.
You guided them in Your strength to Your holy habitation.

¹⁴ When the peoples hear, they will tremble—anguish will seize the inhabitants of Philistia.

¹⁵ Then the chiefs of Edom are terrified.
Trembling grips Moab’s mighty men.
All of Canaan’s inhabitants will melt away.

¹⁶ Terror and dread will fall on them.

By the greatness of Your arm they become still as a stone, till Your people cross over, ADONAI, till the people whom You purchased cross over.
17 You bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance, the place, ADONAI, that You have made for Yourself to dwell in—the Sanctuary, ADONAI, which Your hands have prepared.
18 ADONAI will reign forever and ever!
19 For Pharaoh's horses with his chariots and his horsemen went into the sea, but ADONAI brought the waters of the sea back over them. Yet Bnei-Yisrael walked in the midst of the sea on dry ground. 20 Then Miriam the prophetess, Aaron's sister, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dancing, 21 as Miriam sang to them:
Sing to ADONAI, for He is highly exalted!
The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea!

Bitter Waters Made Sweet

22 Then Moses led Israel onward from the Sea of Reeds. They went out into the wilderness of Shur. But they travelled three days in the wilderness and found no water. 23 When they came to Marah, they could not drink from the waters because they were bitter. On account of this it was called Marah. 24 So the people complained to Moses saying, "What are we going to drink?"

25 So he cried out to ADONAI, and ADONAI showed him a tree. When he threw it into the waters, they were made sweet.

There He made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there He tested them. 26 He said, "If you diligently listen to the voice of ADONAI your God, do what is right in His eyes, pay attention to His mitzvot, and keep all His decrees, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have put on the Egyptians. For I am ADONAI who heals you."

27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees. So they camped there by the waters.

Manna From Heaven

16 They journeyed on from Elim, and the entire community of Bnei-Yisrael came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after leaving the land of Egypt. 2 But the whole congregation of Bnei-Yisrael murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. 3 Bnei-Yisrael said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of ADONAI in the land of Egypt, when we sat by pots of meat, when we ate bread until we were full. But you have brought us into the wilderness, to kill this entire congregation with hunger."

4 Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you. † The people will go out and gather a day's portion every day, so that I can test them to find out whether they will walk according to My Torah or not. 5 So on the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather day by day."

6 So Moses and Aaron said to all Bnei-Yisrael, "In the evening you will know that ADONAI has brought you out from the land of Egypt, 7 and in the morning, then you will see the glory of ADONAI. For He heard your complaining against Him. What are we? You complain against us?" 8 Then Moses said, " ADONAI will give you meat to eat in the evening and enough bread to fill you in the morning, since ADONAI hears your complaints that you mutter against Him, what are we? Your complaining is not against us, but against ADONAI!"

9 Moses said to Aaron, "Say to all the congregation of Bnei-Yisrael, 'Come near before ADONAI, because He has heard your complaining.'"

10 Then, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of Bnei-Yisrael, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of ADONAI appeared in the cloud. 11 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, 12 "I have heard the complaining of Bnei-Yisrael. Speak to them saying, 'At dusk you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am ADONAI your God.'"

13 So when evening fell, quails came up and covered the camp. Moreover, in the morning there was a layer of dew all around the camp. 14 When the layer of dew was gone, on the surface of the desert was a thin, flake-like frost, as fine as the frost on the ground.

15 When Bnei-Yisrael saw it, they said one to another, "What is it?" †† For they did not know what it was. Then Moses said to them, "It is the bread that ADONAI has given you to eat. 16 This is the word that ADONAI has commanded. Every man is to gather according to his needs, an omer ‡ per person, according to the number of people per household. Each man is to take it for those who are in his tent."

17 Bnei-Yisrael did so, and some gathered more, some less. 18 When they measured it with an omer, those who gathered more had nothing left over, and those that gathered less did not lack at all. Every man gathered according to his appetite.

19 Also Moses said to them, "Let no one save any of it until the morning."

20 However, they did not listen to Moses. Some of them preserved it until the morning—but it bred worms and rotted. So Moses was angry with them.

21 So they gathered it morning by morning, each man according to his needs, and as the sun became hot it melted. 22 On the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each individual. So all the leaders of the community came and informed Moses. ²³ But he said to them, "This is what ADONAI has said. Tomorrow is a Shabbat rest, a holy Shabbat to ADONAI. Bake whatever you would bake, and boil what you would boil. Store up for yourselves everything that remains, to be kept until the morning."

²⁴ So they set it aside until the morning, just as Moses instructed, and it did not rot nor were there any worms. ²⁵ Then Moses said, "Eat that today, because today is a Shabbat to ADONAI. Today you will not find it in the field. ²⁶ You are to gather it for six days, but the seventh day is the Shabbat, and there will be none."

²⁷ Yet on the seventh day, some of the people went out to gather and they found none. ²⁸ ADONAI said to Moses, "How long will you refuse to keep My mitzvot and My Torah? ²⁹ See, ADONAI has given you the Shabbat, so on the sixth day He gives you the bread of two days. Let every man stay in his place, and let no man go out on the seventh day." ³⁰ So the people rested on the seventh day.

³¹ The house of Israel named it manna. It was white like coriander seed and tasted like wafers made with honey. ³² Then Moses said, "This is what ADONAI has commanded. Let a full omer of it be kept throughout your generations, so that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out from the land of Egypt."

³³ Moses said to Aaron, "Take a jar and put a full omer of manna inside. Store it up before ADONAI, to be kept throughout your generations."

³⁴ Just as ADONAI commanded Moses, Aaron stored it up in front of the Testimony, to be preserved. ³⁵ Bnei-Yisrael ate the manna for 40 years. They ate the manna until they came to an inhabited land, when they came to the borders of the land of Canaan. ³⁶ Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah. †

Test and Quarreling

17 All the congregation of Bnei-Yisrael journeyed from the wilderness of Sin in stages, according to the command of ADONAI, and camped in Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. ² So the people quarreled with Moses and said, "Give us water to drink." And Moses said to them, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test ADONAI?"

³ But the people thirsted for water there, and they complained against Moses and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt? To kill us with thirst, along with our children and cattle?"

⁴ So Moses cried out to ADONAI saying, "What am I to do for these people? They are about ready to stone me."

⁵ ADONAI said to Moses, "Walk before the people, and take of the elders of Israel with you, along with your staff with which you struck the river. Take it in your hand and go. ⁶ Behold, I will stand before you, there upon the rock in Horeb. You are to strike the rock, and water will come out of it so that the people can drink." Then Moses did just so in the eyes of the elders of Israel. ⁷ The name of the place was called Mas-sah and Meribah, because of the quarreling of Bnei-Yisrael, and because they tested ADONAI saying, "Is ADONAI among us, or not?"

War Against Amalek

⁸ Then the Amalekites came and fought with Israel at Rephidim. ⁹ Moses said to Joshua, "Choose men, go out, and fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand."

¹⁰ So Joshua did as Moses said, and fought the Amalekites, while Moses, Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill. ¹¹ When Moses held up his hand, Israel prevailed. But when he let down his hand, the Amalekites prevailed. ¹² Moses' hands grew heavy, so they took a stone, put it under him, and he sat down. Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on each side. So his hands were steady until the sun went down. ¹³ So Joshua overpowered the Amalekites and his army with the edge of the sword.

¹⁵ Then Moses built an altar, and called the name of it ADONAI - Nissi. ††¹⁶ Then he said, "By the hand upon the throne of ADONAI, ADONAI will have war with Amalek from generation to generation."

Jethro's Advice

18 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian and Moses's father-in-law, heard about everything God had done for Moses and for His people Israel, and how ADONAI had brought Israel out of Egypt. (² Jethro, Moses's father-in-law, had taken in Moses' wife Zipporah, after he had sent her away ³ with her two sons. One was named Gershom ‡ because he said, "I have been an outsider in a foreign land," ⁴ and the name of the other was Eliezer because he said, "For my father's God is my help ††, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.")

⁵ So Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Moses into the wilderness where he was encamped at the mountain of God. ⁶ He had told Moses, "I, Jethro your father-in-law, am coming to you, along with your wife and her two sons." ⁷ So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, then bowed down and kissed him. They asked each other about their welfare, and went into the tent. ⁸ Moses told his father-in-law all that ADONAI had done to Pharaoh and to † An omer=about 2 dry quarts; an ephah=20.

†† Meaning God is my standard God is my banner ‡ Hebrew Ger an outsider sham there †† Hebrew Eli my God etzer help the Egyptians for Israel's sake, as well as all the travail that had come upon them along the way, and how ADONAI delivered them.

⁹Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness that ADONAI had shown to Israel, since He had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians. ¹⁰Jethro said, "Blessed be ADONAI, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians and out of the hand of Pharaoh, and has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. ¹¹Now I know that ADONAI is greater than all gods, since they had acted arrogantly against them." ¹²Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, presented a burnt offering and sacrifices to God. Aaron also came along with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

¹³The next day, Moses sat to judge the people, and they stood around Moses from morning till evening. ¹⁴When Moses's father-in-law saw all that he did for the people, he said, "What's this you're doing to the people? Why sit by yourself, alone, with all the people standing around from morning until evening?"

¹⁵Moses answered his father-in-law, "It's because the people come to me to inquire of God. ¹⁶When they have an issue, it comes to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor, so I make them understand God's statutes and His laws."

¹⁷But Moses's father-in-law said to him, "What you're doing is no good. ¹⁸You will surely wear yourself out, as well as these people who are with you, because the task is too heavy for you. You cannot do it alone, by yourself. ¹⁹Now listen to my voice—I will give you advice, and may God be with you! You, represent the people before God, and bring their cases to God. ²⁰Enlighten them as to the statutes and the laws, and show them the way by which they must walk and the work they must do. ²¹But you should seek out capable men out of all the people—men who fear God, men of truth, who hate bribery. Appoint them to be rulers over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. ²²Let them judge the people all the time. Then let every major case be brought to you, but every minor case they can judge for themselves. Make it easier for yourself, as they bear the burden with you. ²³If you do this thing as God so commands you, then you will be able to endure, and all these people will go to their places in shalom."

²⁴So Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said. ²⁵Moses chose capable men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens. ²⁶They judged the people all the time. The hard cases they brought to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

²⁷Then Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went on his way to his own land.

Theophany at Sinai

19 In the third month after Bnei-Yisrael had gone out of the land of Egypt, that same day they arrived at the wilderness of Sinai. ²They travelled from Rephidim, came into to the wilderness of Sinai, and set up camp in the wilderness. Israel camped there, right in front of the mountain.

³Moses went up to God, and ADONAI called to him from the mountain saying, "Say this to the house of Jacob, and tell Bnei-Yisrael, ⁴'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I carried you on eagle's wings and brought you to Myself. ⁵Now then, if you listen closely to My voice, and keep My covenant, then you will be My own treasure from among all people, for all the earth is Mine. ⁶So as for you, you will be to Me a kingdom of kohanim and a holy nation.' These are the words which you are to speak to Bnei-Yisrael."

⁷So Moses went, called for the elders of the people, and put before them all these words that ADONAI had commanded him. ⁸All the people answered together and said, "Everything that ADONAI has spoken, we will do." Then Moses reported the words of the people to ADONAI.

⁹*ADONAI* said to Moses, "I am about to come to you in a thick cloud, so that the people will hear when I speak with you, and believe you forever." Then Moses told the words of the people to ADONAI.

¹⁰*ADONAI* said to Moses, "Go to the people, and sanctify them today and tomorrow. Let them wash their clothing. ¹¹Be ready for the third day. For on the third day ADONAI will come down upon Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people. ¹²You are to set boundaries for the people all around, saying, 'Be very careful not to go up onto the mountain, or touch the border of it. Whoever touches the mountain will surely be put to death. ¹³Not a hand is to touch it, but he will surely be stoned or shot through. Whether it is an animal or a man, it will not live.' When the shofar sounds, they may come up to the mountain."

¹⁴Then Moses went down from the mountain to the people, consecrated them, and then, they washed their clothing. ¹⁵He said to the people, "Be ready for the third day. Do not draw near your wives."

¹⁶In the morning of the third day, there was thundering † and lightning, a thick cloud on the mountain, and the blast of an exceedingly loud shofar. All the people in the camp trembled. ¹⁷Then Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stood at the lowest part of the mountain. ¹⁸Now the entire Mount Sinai was in smoke, because ADONAI had descended upon it in fire. The smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace. The whole mountain quaked greatly. ¹⁹When the sound of the shofar grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him with a thunderous sound.

† Hebrew Kol sounds voices

²⁰ Then ADONAI came down onto Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. ADONAI called Moses to the top of the mountain, so Moses went up. ²¹ Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Go down and warn the people, lest they break through to see ADONAI, and many of them die. ²² Even the kohanim who come near to ADONAI must consecrate themselves, so that ADONAI does not break out against them."

²³ Moses said to ADONAI, "The people cannot come up to Mount Sinai, for You are the One who warned us, saying, 'Set boundaries around the mountain, and consecrate it.'"

²⁴ Then ADONAI said to him, "Go down. You are to come back up, you and Aaron with you. But do not let the kohanim and the people break through to come up to ADONAI, or He will break out against them." ²⁵ So Moses went down to the people and told them.

The Ten Words

20 Then God spoke all these words saying, ² "I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

⁸ "Remember Yom Shabbat , to keep it holy. ⁹ You are to work six days, and do all your work, ¹⁰ but the seventh day is a Shabbat to ADONAI your God. In it you shall not do any work—not you, nor your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, your cattle, nor the outsider that is within your gates. ¹¹ For in six days ADONAI made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day. Thus ADONAI blessed Yom Shabbat , and made it holy.

¹² "Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long upon the land which ADONAI your God is giving you.

¹³ "Do not murder.

(14) "Do not commit adultery.

(15) "Do not steal.

¹⁴ (17) "Do not covet your neighbor's house, your neighbor's wife, his manservant, his maidservant, his ox, his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor's."

¹⁵ (18) All the people witnessed the thundering and the lightning, and the sound of the shofar , and the mountain smoking. When the people saw it, they trembled and stood far off. ¹⁶ (19) So they said to Moses, "You, speak to us, and we will listen, but do not let God speak to us, or we will die."

¹⁷ (20) So Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid, for God has come to test you, so that His fear may be in you, so that you do not sin." ¹⁸ (21) The people stood far off, while Moses drew near to the thick darkness where God was.

¹⁹ (22) Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Say this to Bnei-Yisrael : You yourselves have seen that I have spoken to you from heaven. ²⁰ (23) Do not make gods of silver alongside Me, and do not make gods of gold for yourselves. ²¹ (24) You are to make an altar of earth for Me, and there you will sacrifice your burnt offerings, your fellowship offerings—your sheep and your cattle. In every place where I cause My name to be mentioned I will come to you and bless you. ²² (25) When you make for Me an altar of stones, do not build it from cut stone, for if you use a tool on it, you will have profaned it. ²³ (26) Nor are you to go up to My altar on steps, so that your nakedness would not be uncovered while on it."

Ordinances for the Covenant

21 "Now these are the ordinances which you will set before them.

² "If you buy a Hebrew servant, he is to serve for six years, and in the seventh he is to go free, without payment. ³ If he comes in by himself, he is to go out by himself. If he was married, then his wife will go out with him. ⁴ If his master gave him a wife, and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children will be her master's, and he will go free by himself.

⁵ "But if the servant plainly states, 'I love my master, my wife and my children, and I will not go out free,' ⁶ then his master is to bring him to God, †† then take him to a door or to a doorpost. His master is to pierce his ear through with an awl, and he will serve him forever.

⁷ "If a man sells his daughter to be a maidservant, she is not to go free as the male servants do. ⁸ If she does not please her master who has selected her for himself, then he is to allow her to be redeemed. He will have no power to sell her to a foreign people, seeing as he has dealt deceitfully toward her. ⁹ If he betroths her to his son, he must give her the rights of a daughter. ¹⁰ If he takes another wife, he is not to diminish her food, her clothing, or her marriage rights. ¹¹ If he does not provide these three to her, then she is to go free without payment.

†† Hebrew Elohim God, gods, princes or judges

¹² "Whoever strikes a man so that he dies must surely be put to death. ¹³ But if he did not hunt him down, yet God caused it to happen, then I will appoint for you a place where he may run. ¹⁴ If a man presumes to kill his neighbor with craftiness, you are to take him from My altar and put him to death.

¹⁵ "Anyone who strikes his father or his mother must surely be put to death.

¹⁷ "Whoever curses his father or his mother must surely be put to death.

¹⁸ "If people quarrel, and one strikes the other with a stone or with his fist, and the other does not die but lies in bed, ¹⁹ if he rises again and walks around on his staff, then the one that struck him he will be cleared. But he must pay for the loss of his time and help him to be thoroughly healed.

²² "If men fight, and hit a pregnant woman so that her child is born early, yet no harm follows, the one who hit her is to be strictly fined, according to what the woman's husband demands of him. He must pay as the judges determine. ²³ But if any harm follows, †† then you are to penalize life for life, ²⁴ eye for an eye, tooth for a tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, ²⁵ burn for burn, wound for wound, blow for blow.

²⁸ "If an ox gores a man or a woman so that they die, the ox must surely be stoned, and its meat is not to be eaten, but the owner of the ox will be cleared. ²⁹ If the ox was given to goring in times past, and a warning has been given to its owner, yet he has not kept it pent up, and it has killed a man or a woman, then the ox must be stoned and its owner must also be put to death. ³⁰ If instead a ransom is placed on him, then he is to pay for the redemption of his life whatever is demanded. ³¹ Whether it has gored a son or daughter, this rule is to be applied to him. ³² If the ox gores a male or female slave, he is to pay 30 shekels of silver to their master, and the ox is to be stoned.

³³ "If one uncovers a pit or digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls in, ³⁴ the owner of the pit must pay compensation. He is to give money to the owner, and the dead animal will be his.

³⁵ "If one man's ox hurts another's ox so that it dies, they are to sell the live ox and divide the price. They are also to divide the dead one. ³⁶ Or if it becomes known that the ox was given to violence in times past, and its owner has not kept it pent up, he must surely pay ox for ox, and the dead animal will be his own. ³⁷ (22:1) If a man steals an ox or a sheep, and kills it or sells it, he is to pay five oxen for one ox or four sheep for one sheep.

22 (2) "If a thief found breaking in is struck so that he dies, there is no bloodguilt for him. ² (3) But if the sun has risen, there is bloodguilt, and he is to make full restitution. If he has nothing, then he must be sold for his theft. ³ (4) If the item is found in his hand alive—whether ox, donkey or sheep—he is to pay double.

⁴ (5) "If a man causes a field or vineyard to be eaten by letting his animal loose, and it feeds in another man's field, then he is to make restitution from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard.

⁶ (7) "If a man entrusts his neighbor with money or items for safekeeping, and it is stolen out of the man's house, when the thief is found, he must pay double. ⁷ (8) If the thief is not found, then the master of the house is to present himself to God, to see whether he has laid his hand on his neighbor's goods. ⁸ (9) For any transgression—whether ox, donkey, sheep, clothing, or anything else lost—when someone says, 'This is mine!' the case of both parties is to be brought before God. The one whom God convicts is to pay double to his neighbor.

⁹ (10) "If a man entrusts his neighbor with a donkey, ox, sheep or any animal to care for, and it dies, is hurt or taken away with no one seeing, ¹⁰ (11) then there must be an oath before ADONAI between the two of them, to determine whether or not he has laid his hand on his neighbor's goods. The owner is to accept it with no restitution. ¹¹ (12) But if indeed it was stolen from him, he is to make restitution to the owner. ¹² (13) If it is torn in pieces, let him bring it as evidence. He is not required to pay for what has been torn to pieces.

¹³ (14) "If a man borrows anything belonging to his neighbor, and it is harmed or dies in the absence of the owner, he must make full restitution. ¹⁴ (15) But if the owner is present, he is not required to pay restitution. If it was rented, it is covered by the rental fee.

¹⁸ (19) "Anyone who lies with an animal must surely be put to death.

¹⁹ (20) "Anyone who sacrifices to the gods, except to ADONAI alone, is to be put under a ban of destruction.

²⁰ (21) "You must not exploit or oppress an outsider, for you were outsiders in the land of Egypt.

²¹ (22) "You must not mistreat any widow or orphan.

²² (23) If you mistreat them in any way, and they cry out to Me, I will surely hear their cry. ²³ (24) My wrath will burn hot, and I will kill you with the sword. So your wives will become widows and your children will become orphans.

²⁴ (25) "If you lend money to any of My people, to the poor among you, you are not to act like a debt collector with him, and you are not to charge him interest.

²⁵ (26) If you ever take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you are to return it to him before the sun goes down, ²⁶ (27) for that is his only covering, his cloak for his skin. What will he sleep in? When he cries out to Me I will hear, because I am gracious.

²⁸ (29) "Do not hold back the fullness of your crops or your vintage. You are to present the firstborn of your sons to Me. ²⁹ (30) "Do the same with your cattle and with your sheep. For seven days it is to be with its mother, and on the eighth day you are to give it to Me.

³⁰ (31) "You are to be a holy people for Me. You must not eat any flesh torn by beasts in the field. You may throw it out to the dogs.

23 "Do not spread a false report. Do not join hands with the wicked by becoming a malicious witness. ² Do not follow a crowd to do evil. Nor are you to testify in a case, to follow a crowd and pervert justice. ³ On the other hand, nor should you take sides with a poor man in his case.

⁴ "If you find your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, you must surely bring it back to him again. ⁵ If you see the donkey of the one that hates you lying down under its burden, do not leave it. Rather, you are to release it with him.

¹⁰ "For six years you are to sow your land and gather the increase. ¹¹ But during the seventh year you are to let it rest and lie fallow, so that the poor among your people may eat. Whatever they leave behind, the animals of the field may eat. You are to deal with your vineyard and your olive grove in the same way.

¹² "You are to do your work for six days, but on the seventh day you will rest, so that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and also the son of your handmaid and the outsider may be refreshed.

¹³ "With all the things that I have said to you, take heed. Make no mention of the names of other gods, and do not let them be heard in your mouth.

Three Harvest Festivals

¹⁴ "Three times in the year you are to celebrate a festival for Me. ¹⁵ You are to observe the Feast of Matzot.

† For seven days you will eat matzot as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Aviv, for that is when you came out from Egypt. No one is to appear before Me empty-handed. ¹⁶ Also you are to observe the Feast of Harvest, the firstfruits of your labors that you sow in the field, as well as the Feast of the Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather your crops from the field. ¹⁷ Three times in the year all your men are to appear before ADONAI Elohim.

¹⁸ "Do not offer the blood of My sacrifice with hametz. Nor is the fat of My feast to remain out all night until the morning. ¹⁹ Bring the choicest firstfruits of your land into the House of ADONAI your God.

"Do not boil a kid in its mother's milk.

²⁰ "Behold, I am sending an angel before you, to guard you on the way and to bring you into the place that I have prepared. ²¹ Watch for Him and listen to His voice. Do not rebel against Him because He will not pardon your transgression, for My Name is in Him.

²² But if you listen closely to His voice, and do everything I say, I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries. ²³ For My angel will go before you, and bring you to the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites and the Jebusites, and I will cut them off. ²⁴ You are not to bow down to their gods or serve them, or do what they do. Rather, you are to utterly overthrow them, and break their pillars in pieces. ²⁵ You are to serve ADONAI your God, and He will bless your food and your water. Moreover I will take sickness away from your midst. ²⁶ None will miscarry nor be barren in your land, and I will fill up the number of your days.

²⁷ "I will send My terror before you and throw all the people to whom you will come into panic, and make all your enemies turn their backs to you. ²⁸ I will send the hornet before you, which will drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites and the Hittites, from before you. ²⁹ I will not drive them out from before you in a single year. Otherwise the land would become desolate, and the animals of the field will multiply against you. ³⁰ But little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you are fruitful. Then you will possess the land.

³¹ "I will set your border from the Sea of Reeds to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the Euphrates River. For I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you are to drive them out before you. ³² Make no covenant with them or with their gods. ³³ They must not dwell in your land and cause you to sin against Me, for if you worship their gods, they will be a snare to you."

Cutting the Covenant at Sinai

24 Then to Moses He said, "Come up to ADONAI, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel, and worship from afar. ² Moses alone is to approach ADONAI, but the others may not draw near, nor are the people to go up with him."

³ So Moses came and told the people all the words of ADONAI as well as all the ordinances. All the people answered with one voice and said, "All the words which ADONAI has spoken, we will do."

⁸ Then Moses took the blood, sprinkled it on the people, and said, "Behold the blood of the covenant, which ADONAI has cut with you, in agreement with all these words." †

⁹ Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up. ¹⁰ They saw the God of Israel, and under His feet was something like a pavement of sapphire, as clear as the very heavens. ††¹¹ Yet He did not raise His hand against the nobles of Bnei-Yisrael. So they beheld God, and ate and drank.

¹² Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Come up to Me on the mountain and stay there, and I will give you the tablets of stone with the Torah and the mitzvot, which I have written so that you may instruct them."

¹³ So Moses rose up along with his attendant Joshua, and Moses went up onto the mountain of God. ¹⁴ To the elders he said, "Wait for us here until we come back to you. See, Aaron and Hur are with you—whoever has a dispute should go to them."

¹⁵ When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it. ¹⁶ The glory of ADONAI settled upon Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days. Then on the seventh day He called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. ¹⁷ The appearance of the glory of ADONAI was like a consuming fire ‡ on the top of the mountain in the sight of Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁸ So Moses entered into the midst of the cloud and went up onto the mountain. Moses was on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights.

Tabernacle: Ark, Table, Menorah

25 ADONAI spoke to Moses saying, ² "Tell Bnei-Yisrael to take up an offering for Me. From anyone whose heart compels him you are to take My offering. ³ These are the contributions which you are to receive from them: gold, silver and bronze; ⁴ blue, purple and scarlet cloth; fine linen and goat hair; ⁵ ram skins dyed red, sealskins, acacia wood; ⁶ oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense; ⁷ onyx stones and setting stones for the ephod and for the breastplate.

⁸ "Have them make a Sanctuary for Me, so that I may dwell among them. ⁹ You are to make it all precisely according to everything that I show you—the pattern of the Tabernacle and the pattern of all the furnishings within—just so you must make it.

¹⁴ You are to put the poles into the rings on the sides of the Ark, in order to carry the Ark. ¹⁵ The poles are to remain in the rings of the Ark, and not be taken from it. ¹⁶ You are to put the Testimony, which I will give you, into the Ark.

²² "I will meet with you there. I will speak with you from above the atonement cover—from between the two cheruvim that are on the Ark of the Testimony—about all that I will command you, for Bnei-Yisrael.

²³ "You will make a table of acacia wood, two cubits long, one cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.

²⁴ You are to overlay it with pure gold, and make a crown of gold around it. ²⁵ Make a border a single handwidth wide around it and a golden crown for the border all around. ²⁶ Also make four gold rings for it, and put the rings in the four corners that are on its four feet. ²⁷ The rings are to be close to the borders, as holders for the poles to carry the table. ²⁸ You are to make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold, so that the table may be carried with them. ²⁹ You are also to make the dishes, pans, jars and bowls to pour drink offerings, from pure gold. ³⁰ Always set the bread of the Presence † on the table before Me.

³¹ “You are to make a menorah of pure gold, by hammered work. Its base, stem, cups, bulbs and flowers are to be one piece. ³² There are to be six branches coming out of the sides, three branches of the menorah out of one side, and three branches out of the other. ³³ There are to be three cups shaped like almond blossoms in one branch, each with a bulb and flower, then three cups made like almond blossoms in the next branch, each with a bulb and flower, and so forth for the six branches coming out of the menorah.

³⁴ Within the menorah will be four cups made like almond blossoms, with bulbs and flowers. ³⁵ There is to be a bulb under two branches of the first piece, a bulb under two branches of the second piece, and a bulb under two branches of the third piece, for the six branches coming out of the menorah. ³⁶ Their bulbs and their branches are to be one piece—all of it a single hammered work of pure gold. ³⁷ You are also to make the seven lamps for it, and set the lamps up to shed light over the space before it.

³⁸ The tongs and the censers are to be of pure gold. ³⁹ It is to be made from a talent of pure gold, with all these pieces. ⁴⁰ See that you make them according to their pattern being shown to you on the mountain.

Curtains

26 “Moreover you are to make the Tabernacle with ten curtains of fine woven linen, of blue ††, purple and scarlet, with cheruvim made by the work of a skillful craftsman. ² The length of each curtain is to be 28 cubits, and the width of each curtain four cubits. All the curtains are to have the same measure. ³ Five curtains are to be coupled together one to another, and the other five curtains are also to be coupled one to another. ⁴ Also make loops of violet on the edge of the one curtain that is outermost in the first set, and do likewise within the edge of the curtain that is outermost in the second set. ⁵ You are to make 50 loops in the first curtain and 50 loops on the edge of the curtain that is in the second set. The loops are to be opposite one another. ⁶ Then make 50 clasps of gold, and couple the curtains one to another with the clasps, so that the Tabernacle may be one piece.

⁷ “You are to make curtains of goat hair for a tent over the Tabernacle, 11 curtains in all. ⁸ The length of each curtain is to be 30 cubits and the width of each curtain four cubits. The 11 curtains are to have the same measurement. ⁹ You are to couple 5 curtains by themselves, and 6 curtains by themselves, and double over the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tent.

¹⁰ Then make 50 loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outermost in the first set, along with 50 loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost in the second set. ¹¹ Make 50 bronze clasps, put them into the loops, and couple the tent together, so that it may be one. ¹² As for the overhanging part that remains of the tent curtains, the half curtain that remains is to hang over the back of the Tabernacle. ¹³ The extra cubit on one side, as well as the cubit on the other side, which remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, is to hang over the sides of the Tabernacle on each side, to cover it. ¹⁴ You are to make a covering for the tent of ram skins, dyed red, and a covering of sealskins above.

¹⁵ “You are to make the framework of boards for the Tabernacle from acacia wood, standing upright. ¹⁶ The length of each board is to be 10 cubits by one and a half cubits wide. ¹⁷ There are to be 2 supports in each board, joined one to another. Do this for all the boards of the Tabernacle. ¹⁸ You are to make the 20 boards for the south side of the Tabernacle, ¹⁹ and 40 silver bases underneath the 20 boards. 2 bases go underneath 1 board for its supports and 2 bases under another board for its supports. ²⁰ Likewise, for the second side of the Tabernacle, on the north side, there are to be 20 boards, ²¹ with their 40 bases of silver. 2 bases go under 1 board and 2 bases under the next board. ²² For the back part of the Tabernacle, westward, you are to make 6 boards. ²³ Make 2 boards for the corners of the Tabernacle on the back side. ²⁴ They are also to be doubled at the bottom, and in the same way joined at the top by the first ring. It is to be this way for them both, and they will provide for the two corners. ²⁵ So there will be 8 boards, with 16 silver bases, 2 bases under each board.

³¹ “Make a fine woven linen curtain ‡ of blue, purple and scarlet, with cheruvim. It is to be the work of a skillful craftsman. ³² You are to hang it on four pillars of acacia overlaid with gold, their hooks being made of gold, atop four bases of silver. ³³ You are to hang the curtain under the clasps, and bring the Ark within the curtain of the Testimony. The parokhet will divide for you between the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies.

³⁴ “Then you are to put the atonement cover on the Ark of the Testimony in the Holy of Holies. ³⁵ You shall set the table outside the curtain, and the menorah opposite the table on the side of the Tabernacle toward the south. You are to put the table on the north side. †

³⁶ “For the entrance of the tent, also make a screen of blue, purple and scarlet, finely twisted linen, the work of a color weaver. ³⁷ You are also to make for the screen five pillars of acacia, and overlay them with gold. Their hooks are to be made of gold, and you are to cast five bases of bronze for them.

Altar, Courtyard, Oil

27 “Make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits wide. The altar will be square and its height is to be three cubits. ² Make horns on the four corners—of one piece. Overlay it with bronze. ³ You are to make pots for it to take away ashes, along with shovels, basins, forks and fire pans—make all the utensils of bronze. ⁴ Also make a bronze grating net for it, and on the net you are to make four bronze rings on the four corners. ⁵ You are to place it under the ledge around the altar beneath, so that the net may reach halfway up the altar. ⁶ Make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with bronze. ⁷ Its poles are to be put into the rings, on the two sides of the altar, for carrying it. ⁸ You are to make it with planks so that it is hollow. As it has been shown to you in the mountain, they are to make it just so.

⁹ “You are also to make a courtyard for the Tabernacle. For the south side there are to be hangings for the courtyard of finely twisted linen, 100 cubits long. ¹⁰ There are to be 20 pillars with 20 bronze bases, and the hooks on the pillars along with their bands are to be made of silver. ¹¹ Likewise for the north side, in length there are to be 100 cubit long hangings, 20 pillars and 20 bronze bases. The hooks of the pillars and their clasps are to be made of silver.

¹⁶ “For the gate of the courtyard there is to be a 20 cubit curtain of blue, purple, scarlet and finely twisted linen, the work of a color weaver, along with their 4 pillars and their 4 bases. ¹⁷ The pillars of the courtyard are to be banded with silver, their hooks of silver, and their bases of bronze all around. ¹⁸ The length of the courtyard is to be 100 cubits, and the width 50 throughout. The height is to be 5 cubits, with hangings of finely twisted linen, with their bronze bases. ¹⁹ All the articles of the Tabernacle for all the services there, along with all the pegs, including all the pegs of the courtyard, are to be bronze.

† cf. Heb. 9:2-5.

Parashat Tetzaveh

²⁰ “Also you are to command Bnei-Yisrael, that they are to bring to you pure olive oil beaten for the light, to cause a lamp to burn continually. ²¹ In the Tent of Meeting, outside the curtain which is before the Testimony, Aaron and his sons will set it in order, to burn from evening to morning before ADONAI. It will be a statute forever throughout their generations, on behalf of Bnei-Yisrael.

Kohen's Garments

28 “Bring your brother Aaron near with his sons from among Bnei-Yisrael, so that they may minister to Me as kohanim—Aaron and his sons Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ² You are to make holy garments for your brother Aaron, for splendor and for beauty. ³ You are to speak to all who are skilled, whom I have filled with a spirit of artistry, to make Aaron's garments for consecrating him, so that he may minister to Me as a kohen. ⁴ These are the garments that they are to make: a breastplate, an ephod, a robe, a tunic of checkered work, a turban and a sash. They are to make holy garments for your brother Aaron and his sons, so that he may minister to Me as a kohen. ⁵ They are to use the gold, blue, purple, scarlet and fine linen.

⁶ “They are to make the ephod of gold, blue, purple, scarlet and finely twisted linen, the work of the skillful craftsman. ⁷ It is to have two shoulder pieces stitched to the two ends, so that it may be joined together. ⁸ The skillfully woven band which is upon it, with which it is to be bound, is to be made like the design, and from the same piece of gold, blue, purple, scarlet and finely twisted linen.

⁹ “You are to take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of Bnei-Yisrael: ¹⁰ six of their names on one stone and the names of the remaining six on the other stone, in the order of their birth. ¹¹ With the work of a gem cutter engraving a seal, etch the two stones, in the order of the names of Bnei-Yisrael. Make them enclosed in settings of gold. ¹² Fasten the two stones upon the shoulder pieces of the ephod, to be memorial stones for Bnei-Yisrael. So Aaron is to bear their names before ADONAI on his two shoulders as a reminder. ¹³ Fashion filigree settings of gold, ¹⁴ along with two chains of pure gold, of braided work, and you will attach the chains to the filigree settings.

jasper for the fourth row. They are to be enclosed in gold filigree settings. ²¹ The stones are to be engraved in the order of the names of Bnei-Yisrael, twelve according to their names, like the etchings of a signet seal, one corresponding to each name of the twelve tribes. †

²² Also you are to make, upon the breastplate, braided chains of wreathed work from pure gold. ²³ Forge on the breastplate two rings of gold and fasten the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. ²⁴ Then attach the two wreathed chains of gold on the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. ²⁵ The other two ends of the chains you are to place on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod in front. ²⁶ So you are to make two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it that is toward the inner side of the ephod. ²⁷ Also make two gold rings and place them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod underneath, in the front, close to where it is joined, above the artfully woven band of the ephod. ²⁸ Then they will bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a blue thread, so that it may be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and so that the breastplate will not come loose from it.

³¹ You are to make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue. ³² It is to have a hole for the head in the center, and a binding of woven work around the hole, as a collar, so that it may not be torn. ³³ On the hem of it you are to make pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet, all around the hem, with golden bells between them: ³⁴ one golden bell and a pomegranate, then another golden bell and a pomegranate, on the hem of the robe all around. ³⁵ It must be worn by Aaron whenever he ministers. The sound will be heard when he goes into the holy place before ADONAI and when he comes out, so that he does not die.

³⁶ Also you are to make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it, like the engravings of a seal, 'HOLY TO ADONAI.' ³⁷ Attach it with a violet cord onto the turban, on the front of the turban. ³⁸ So it will rest on Aaron's forehead, so that Aaron will bear away the iniquity committed regarding the holy things, which Bnei-Yisrael set apart as all their holy gifts. It is to be always on his forehead, so that they may have favor before ADONAI.

you are to make tunics, sashes and headwear for them—for splendor and for beauty. ⁴¹ Put them on Aaron your brother and on his sons with him, and anoint them, consecrate them, and sanctify them, so that they may minister to Me as kohanim.

⁴² You are to make linen undergarments for them, to cover the skin of their nakedness, from the hips to the thighs. ⁴³ They are to be worn by Aaron and his sons when they go into the Tent of Meeting or when they approach the altar to minister in the holy place, so that they do not become subject to guilt and die. It is to be a statute forever, to him and to his offspring after him.

How to Consecrate Kohanim

29 Now this is what you are to do to consecrate them, so that they may minister as kohanim. Take one young bull and two rams without blemish, ² along with matzot, cakes of matzot mixed with oil, and matzot wafers spread with oil. Make them from fine wheat flour. ³ You are to put them into one basket and present them, along with the bull and the two rams. ⁴ You are to bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and wash them with water. ⁵ Then take the garments, and put the tunic on Aaron, along with the robe, the ephod and the breastplate. Gird him with the artfully woven band of the ephod, ⁶ set the turban on his head, and put the holy coronet on the turban. ⁷ Then you are to take the anointing oil, pour it upon his head and anoint him. ⁸ Also you are to bring his sons and put tunics on them. ⁹ You are to gird Aaron and his sons with sashes, tie headwear on them, and they shall hold the priesthood by a perpetual statute. In this way you are to consecrate Aaron and his sons.

¹⁵ Then take one ram, have Aaron and his sons lay their hands upon the head of the ram, ¹⁶ then slaughter the ram, take its blood, and sprinkle it around the altar. ¹⁷ You are to cut the ram into pieces, wash its innards and its legs, and place them with its head and other pieces. ¹⁸ Then you are to offer the whole ram up in smoke on the altar. It is a burnt offering to ADONAI, a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to ADONAI.

¹⁹ Then take the other ram, and have Aaron and his sons lay their hands upon the head of that ram.

²⁰ Slaughter the ram, take its blood, and dab it on the tip of the right ear of Aaron, on the tip of the right ears of his sons, on the thumb of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet, then pour the blood on the altar all around. ²¹ Also you are to take some of the blood that is on the altar, along with the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments, and on his sons and their garments. In this way he and his garments are to be consecrated, along with his sons and their garments.

²² "Moreover, take some of the fat from the ram, along with the fat tail, the fat that covers the innards, the covering over the liver, the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, along with the right thigh, because it is a ram of consecration. ²³ Also take one loaf of bread, one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of matzot that is before ADONAI. ²⁴ You are to put the entirety into Aaron's hands and the hands of his sons, and present them as a wave offering before ADONAI. ²⁵ Then you are to take them out of their hands and offer them up in smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering, as a sweet aroma before ADONAI, an offering made by fire to ADONAI. ²⁶ Also take the breast of Aaron's ram of consecration and wave it as a wave offering before ADONAI—so it will be your portion.

²⁹ "The holy garments of Aaron are to pass to his sons after him, to be anointed in them and to be consecrated in them. ³⁰ The son that succeeds him as kohen, who comes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the holy place, is to put them on for seven days.

³⁵ "Do for Aaron and his sons everything according to what I have commanded you. Consecrate them for seven days. ³⁶ Each day you are to offer a bull as a sin offering, † apart from the other offerings of atonement. Also purify the altar when you make atonement for it, and anoint it in order to sanctify it. ³⁷ You are to make atonement for the altar for seven days, and so sanctify it. The altar will be most holy, and whatever touches it will become holy.

³⁸ "Now this is what you are to offer upon the altar: two one-year-old lambs, each day, continually. ³⁹ You are to offer one lamb in the morning and the other lamb at dusk. ⁴⁰ Offer along with the first lamb a tenth of an ephah of fine flour, mixed with a fourth of a hin of beaten oil, and a fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering. ⁴¹ The other lamb you are to offer at dusk, like the grain offering and drink offering of the morning, as a sweet aroma, an offering made by fire to ADONAI. ⁴² It is to be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting before ADONAI. There I will meet with you, to speak with you there. ⁴³ I will meet with Bnei-Yisrael there. So it will be sanctified by My glory.

⁴⁴ "So I will sanctify the Tent of Meeting and the altar. I will also sanctify Aaron and his sons to minister to Me as kohanim. ⁴⁵ So I will dwell among Bnei-Yisrael and be their God. ⁴⁶ Then they will know that I am ADONAI their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, so that I may live among them. I am ADONAI their God.

Incense Altar

30 "You are to make an altar of acacia wood for burning incense. ² It is to be square—one cubit in length, one cubit wide, and two cubits high. The horns must be of one piece with it. ³ You are to overlay it with pure gold on top, all around the sides and over the horns. Also you are to make a crown of gold for it all around. ⁴ Make two golden rings for it under the crown on the two sides, and they will be holders for poles to carry it. ⁵ Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. ⁶ You are to set it in front of the curtain that is in front of the Ark of the Testimony, in front of the atonement cover that is over the Testimony, where I will meet with you.

⁷ "Aaron must burn sweet spices of incense there every morning. When he attends to the lamps, he is to burn it. ⁸ Also when Aaron keeps the lamps lit at dusk he must burn it. There must be incense continually before ADONAI, throughout your generations. ⁹ You must not offer up unauthorized incense on it. Nor should any burnt offering or grain offering be there, nor should you pour any drink offering there. ¹⁰ Aaron is to make atonement upon the horns once a year with the blood of the sin offering throughout your generations. It is most holy to ADONAI."

Parashat Ki Tisa

Census and Ransom Money

¹¹ Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ¹² "When you tally the sum of Bnei-Yisrael by numbering them, then every man must pay a ransom for his soul to ADONAI when you count them, so that no plague will fall on them. ¹³ Everyone among them who crosses over must give half a shekel according to the Sanctuary shekel

(which is 20 gerahs): half a shekel as an offering to ADONAI.¹⁴ Everyone who crosses over among them who is counted, from 20 years old and upward, is to give the offering to ADONAI.¹⁵ The rich are not to give more and the poor are not to give less than the half shekel, when they present the offering of ADONAI to make atonement for your souls.¹⁶ You are to take the atonement money from Bnei-Yisrael and give it for the service of the Tent of Meeting, so that it may be a memorial for Bnei-Yisrael before ADONAI, to make atonement for your souls.”

Basin for Washing

¹⁷ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying,¹⁸ “You will also make a basin of bronze with a bronze stand for washing. You are to place it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it.¹⁹ Aaron and his sons are to wash their hands and their feet there.²⁰ Whenever they go into the Tent of Meeting or come near to the altar to minister, to present an offering made by fire in smoke to ADONAI, they are to wash with water so that they do not die.²¹ They are to wash their hands and their feet, so that they do not die. It is to be an eternal statute for them, to him and to his offspring throughout their generations.”

Holy Anointing Oil

³⁰ “You are to anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them, so that they may minister to Me as kohanim.³¹ Speak to Bnei-Yisrael saying, ‘This is to be a holy anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.³² It must not be poured on human flesh, nor are you to make any like it, with its formula. It is holy and it must be holy to you.³³ Whoever mixes any like it, or whoever puts any of it on anyone unauthorized, will be cut off from his people.”

³⁴ Then ADONAI said to Moses, “Take the sweet spices—stacte, onycha and galbanum. The spices and pure frankincense are to be in equal measures.³⁵ Make a fragrant mixture from them, a blend like the work of the perfumer, seasoned with salt, pure and holy.³⁶ You are to beat some of it into powder, and set it before the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you. It is to be most holy to you.³⁷ But the incense which you make, with its formula, you are not to make for yourselves. It is to be holy to you, for ADONAI.³⁸ Whoever makes any like it, to breathe in its smell, will be cut off from his people.”

Ruach -filled Craftsmen

31 Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying,² “See, I have called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,³ and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom, understanding and knowledge in all kinds of craftsmanship,⁴ to make ingenious designs, to forge with gold, silver and bronze,⁵ as well as cutting stones for setting and carving wood, to work in all manner of craftsmanship.⁶ Also look, I Myself have appointed with him Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. Within the hearts of all who are wise-hearted I have placed skill, so that they may make everything that I have commanded you:⁷ the Tent of Meeting, the Ark of the Testimony, the atonement cover that is to be on it, all the furnishings of the Tabernacle,⁸ the table and its utensils, the menorah of pure gold with all of its utensils, the altar of incense,⁹ the altar of burnt offering with all of its utensils, the basin and its stand,¹⁰ the woven garments, the holy garments for Aaron the kohen, the garments for his sons to minister as kohanim,¹¹ the anointing oil, and the incense of sweet spices for the holy place. They are to make them just as how I commanded you.”

Shabbat : A Perpetual Covenant Sign

¹² Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying,¹³ “Speak now to Bnei-Yisrael saying, ‘Surely you must keep My Shabbatot, for it is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, so you may know that I am ADONAI who sanctifies you.¹⁴ Therefore you are to keep the Shabbat, because it is holy for you. Everyone who profanes it will die, for whoever does any work during Shabbat, that soul will be cut off from the midst of his people.¹⁵ Work is to be done for six days, but on the seventh day is a Shabbat of complete rest, holy to ADONAI. Whoever does any work on the Shabbat will surely be put to death.¹⁶ So Bnei-Yisrael is to keep the Shabbat, to observe the Shabbat throughout their generations as a perpetual covenant.¹⁷ It is a sign between Me and Bnei-Yisrael forever, for in six days ADONAI made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day He ceased from work and rested.”

¹⁸ When He had finished speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave the two tablets of the Testimony to Moses—tablets of stone, written by the finger of God.

Molten Calf and Smashing Tablets

32 Now when the people saw that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and said to him, "Get up, make us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what's become of him!"

² So Aaron said to them, "Break off the golden rings that are in the ears of your wives, your sons and your daughters, and bring them to me." ³ So all the people broke off the golden rings that were in their ears and brought them to Aaron. ⁴ He received them from their hand, and made a molten calf, fashioned with a chiseling tool.

Then they said, "This is your god, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"

⁵ When Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it. Then Aaron made a proclamation saying, "Tomorrow will be a feast to ADONAI." ⁶ They rose up early the next morning, sacrificed burnt offerings and brought fellowship offerings. The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to make merry.

⁷ Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Go down! For your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have become debased. ⁸ They quickly turned aside from the path that I commanded for them. They have made a molten calf, worshiped it, and sacrificed to it, and said, 'This is your god, O Israel, that brought you up out of the land of Egypt.'"

⁹ ADONAI said to Moses, "I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people. ¹⁰ Now therefore, leave Me alone, so My wrath may burn hot against them, and so I may consume them—and make from you a great nation!"

¹² Why should the Egyptians say, 'He brought them out to do evil, to slay them in the mountains, and to annihilate them from the face of the earth?' Turn from Your fierce wrath, and relent from this destruction against Your people. ¹³ Remember Abraham, Isaac and Israel, Your servants, to whom You swore by Your own self, and said to them, 'I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of I will give to your offspring, and they will inherit it forever.'"

¹⁵ Then Moses turned and went down from the mountain, with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand, tablets that were written on both sides, on one and on the other. ¹⁶ The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.

¹⁷ When Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is the sound of war within the camp." ¹⁸ But Moses said:

"It is not the voice of a shout of victory, nor is it the voice of crying from defeat, but I hear the sound of singing."

¹⁹ Then it happened, as soon as Moses came near the camp, he saw the calf and the dancing, and his anger burned hot. So he threw the tablets out of his hands, and smashed them at the foot of the mountain. ²⁰ Then he took the calf that they had made, burned it with fire, ground it to powder, scattered it on the surface of the water and made Bnei-Yisrael drink it.

²¹ Then Moses said to Aaron, "What did this people do to you, to make you bring such a great sin upon them?"

²² Aaron said, "Don't be angry, my lord! You know these people yourself, and how they are set on evil.

²³ They said to me, 'Make gods for us, to go before us! As for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what happened to him.' ²⁴ So I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold, let them break it off.' So they gave it to me and I threw it into the fire—and out came this calf!"

²⁵ When Moses saw that the people were unrestrained, because Aaron had let them run wild, to become a joke among their enemies, ²⁶ Moses stood at the gate of the camp and said, "Whoever is on ADONAI's side, let him come to me." Then all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him.

²⁷ He said to them, "This is what ADONAI, the God of Israel says, 'Every man put on his sword, and go to and fro, from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay his brother, his friend, and his neighbor.'" ²⁸ So the sons of Levi did as Moses said, and that day from among the people there fell about 3,000 men.

²⁹ Then Moses said, "Consecrate your hands today to ADONAI so that He may give you a blessing today, for every man has been against his son and his brother."

³⁰ So it happened the following day, Moses said to the people, "You have committed a horrendous sin. So now I will go up to ADONAI—perhaps I can make atonement for your sin."

³¹ Then Moses returned to ADONAI and said, "Alas, these people have sinned greatly, and made gods of gold! ³² Yet now, please forgive their sin. But if not, please blot me out of Your book that You have written."

³³ ADONAI said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against Me, I will blot out of My book. ³⁴ Now go, lead the people to the place that I told you about. My angel will go before you. Nevertheless, on the day when I take account, I will hold them accountable for their sin."

33 Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Leave, get out of this place, you and the people that you have brought out of the land of Egypt, into the land which I swore to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob saying, 'I will give it to your seed.' ² I will send an angel before you. I will drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and the Jebusites. ³ Head up into a land flowing with milk and honey, but I will not move within the midst of you, so that I do not destroy you along the way, for you are a stiff-necked people."

⁴ When the people heard these dreadful words, they mourned, and no one put on any ornaments. ⁵ ADONAI said to Moses, "Say to Bnei-Yisrael, 'You are a stiff-necked people. If I were going up among you for one moment, I would consume you. Take off your ornaments, so that I may consider what to do to you.'" ⁶ So Bnei-Yisrael stripped themselves of their ornaments from Mount Horeb onward.

Show Me Your Glory!

⁷ Now Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far off from the camp, and he called it the Tent of Meeting. So it happened, everyone who sought ADONAI would go out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp. ⁸ Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would arise and stand, everyone at the door of his own tent, and look after Moses, until he had gone into the Tent. ⁹ After Moses entered, the pillar of cloud descended, stood at the door, and He would speak with Moses. ¹⁰ When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the Tent, they all rose up and worshiped, every man at the entrance of his own tent. ¹¹ So ADONAI spoke with Moses face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. Then he would return to the camp, but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, did not leave the Tent.

¹² So Moses said to ADONAI "You say to me, 'Bring up this people,' but You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found grace in My eyes.' ¹³ Now then, I pray, if I have found grace in Your eyes, show me Your ways, so that I may know You, so that I might find favor in Your sight. Consider also that this nation is Your people."

¹⁴ "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest," He answered.

¹⁵ But then he said to Him, "If Your presence does not go with me, don't let us go up from here! ¹⁶ For how would it be known that I or your people have found favor in Your sight? Isn't it because You go with us, that distinguishes us from all the people on the face of the earth?"

¹⁷ ADONAI answered Moses, "I will also do what you have said, for you have found favor in My sight, and I know you by name."

¹⁸ Then he said, "Please, show me Your glory!"

¹⁹ So He said, "I will cause all My goodness to pass before you, and call out the Name of ADONAI before you. I will be gracious toward whom I will be gracious, and I will show mercy on whom I will be merciful."

²⁰ But He also said, "You cannot see My face, for no man can see Me and live."

²¹ Then ADONAI said, "See, a place near Me—you will stand on the rock. ²² While My glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and cover you with My hand, until I have passed by. ²³ Then I will take away My hand, and you will see My back, but My face will not be seen."

34 ADONAI said to Moses, "Carve for yourself two tablets of stone like the first ones, and I will write upon them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. ² Be ready by the morning, come up to Mount Sinai, and present yourself to Me there on the top of the mountain. ³ No one is to come up with you, and do not let anyone be seen throughout the entire mountain. Even the flocks and herds must not graze in front of that mountain."

⁴ So he carved two tablets of stone like the first. Then Moses rose up early in the morning, went up onto Mount Sinai as ADONAI had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. ⁵ Then ADONAI descended in the cloud, stood with him there, as he called on the Name of ADONAI.

Thirteen Attributes of God

⁶ Then ADONAI passed before him, and proclaimed, "ADONAI, ADONAI, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness and truth, ⁷ showing mercy to a thousand generations, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, yet by no means leaving the guilty unpunished, but bringing the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, to the third and fourth generation."

⁸ Then Moses quickly bowed his head down to the earth and worshiped. ⁹ He said, "If now I have found grace in Your eyes, my Lord, let my Lord please go within our midst, even though this is a stiff-necked people. Pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for Your own inheritance."

Exclusive Covenant

¹⁰ Then He said, "I am cutting a covenant. Before all your people I will do wonders, such as have not been done in all the earth, or in any nation. All the people you are among will see the work of ADONAI—for what I am going to do with you will be awesome! ¹¹ Obey what I am commanding you today. Behold, I am going to drive out the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites before you. ¹² Watch yourself, and make no covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, or they will become a snare among you. ¹³ Instead you must break down their altars, smash their pillars and cut down their Asherah poles. ¹⁴ For you are to bow down to no other god, because ADONAI is jealous for His Name—He is a jealous God.

¹⁵ “See that you do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land. Otherwise when they prostitute themselves with their gods and sacrifice to their gods, someone will invite you, and you will eat from their sacrifice. ¹⁶ Do not take their daughters for your sons, for their daughters will prostitute themselves with their own gods, and cause your sons to prostitute themselves with their gods.

¹⁷ “You are not to make for yourselves metal gods.

¹⁸ “You are to keep the Feast of Matzot. For seven days you are to eat matzot, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Aviv, for in the month Aviv you came out from Egypt.

¹⁹ “Every firstborn of the womb is Mine, and from all your cattle you are to sanctify the males, the firstborn of the ox and sheep. ²⁰ A firstborn donkey you are to redeem with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, then you are to break its neck. You must redeem all your firstborn sons. No one should appear before Me empty-handed.

²¹ “For six days you will work, but on the seventh day you will rest. During plowing time and harvest you must rest.

²² “You are to observe the Feast of Shavuot, which is the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, as well as the Feast of Ingathering at the turn of the year. ²³ Three times during the year all your males are to appear before ADONAI Elohim, God of Israel. ²⁴ For I am going to cast out nations before you, then enlarge your territory. So no one will covet your land when you go up to appear before ADONAI your God three times in the year.

²⁵ “You are not to offer the blood of My sacrifice with hametz, nor should the sacrifice of the Passover Festival remain until morning.

²⁶ “You are to bring the choicest firstfruits of your land to the House of ADONAI your God.

²⁷ Then ADONAI said to Moses, “Write these words, for based on these words I have cut a covenant with you and with Israel.” ²⁸ So he stayed there with ADONAI for 40 days and 40 nights, and he did not eat bread or drink water. He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant: the Ten Words. †

³¹ But Moses called out to them, so Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke to them. ³² Afterward all Bnei-Yisrael came near, and he gave them all the mitzvot that ADONAI had spoken to him in Mount Sinai.

³³ When Moses was done speaking with them, he put a veil over his face. ³⁴ But when Moses went before ADONAI, so that He could speak with him, he took the veil off until he came out. When he came out and spoke to Bnei-Yisrael what he was commanded, ³⁵ Bnei-Yisrael saw the face of Moses and that the skin of his face glistened. So Moses put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with Him.

Offerings for the Tabernacle

35 Then Moses assembled all the congregation of Bnei-Yisrael and said to them, “These are the words which ADONAI has commanded you to do.

² Work is to be done for six days, but the seventh day is a holy day for you, a Shabbat of complete rest to ADONAI. Whoever does any work then will die. ³ Do not kindle a fire in any of your dwellings on Yom Shabbat.”

¹⁰ “Let every wise-hearted man among you come and make everything that ADONAI has commanded, including ¹¹ the Tabernacle, its tent and its covering, its clasps and its boards, its crossbars, its pillars and its bases; ¹² the Ark and the poles, the atonement cover and the curtain screen; ¹³ the table and its poles with all of its utensils, along with the bread of the Presence; ¹⁴ also the menorah for light with its utensils, its lamps and the oil for the light; ¹⁵ the altar of incense and its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, and the screen for the entrance of the Tabernacle; ¹⁶ the altar of burnt offering with its grating of bronze, its poles and all its utensils, the basin and its stand; ¹⁷ the hangings of the courtyard, the pillars and their bases, and the curtain for the gate of the courtyard; ¹⁸ the pegs of the Tabernacle and of the courtyard, along with their cords; ¹⁹ the woven garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the kohen and for his sons, to minister as kohanim.”

²⁰ Then all the congregation of Bnei-Yisrael departed from before Moses. ²¹ Everyone whose heart stirred him and everyone whose spirit was willing came and brought ADONAI’s offering for the work of the Tent of Meeting and for all its service as well as for the holy garments. ²² So they came, both men and women, everyone whose heart compelled him, and brought nose rings, earrings, signet rings, bracelets, and all kinds of golden jewels—everyone who brought a wave offering of gold to ADONAI.²³ Everyone who had blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goat hair, ram skins dyed red or sealskins brought them.²⁴ Everyone who could make a contribution of silver or bronze brought ADONAI's offering, and every man who had acacia wood of any use for service brought it.²⁵ Also all the women who were wise-hearted spun with their hands, and brought what they had woven—the blue, purple, scarlet and fine linen.²⁶ All the women whose heart stirred them up with wisdom spun the goat hair.²⁷ Also the leaders brought onyx stones and setting stones for the ephod and for the breastplate,²⁸ along with the spice, the oil for the light and for anointing and for the sweet incense.²⁹ Every man and woman whose heart made them willing gave toward all the work that ADONAI had commanded to be done by Moses' hand. So Bnei-Yisrael brought it as a freewill offering to ADONAI.

³⁰ Then Moses said to Bnei-Yisrael, "See, ADONAI has called by name Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.³¹ He has filled him with the Ruach of God, with wisdom, understanding and knowledge, in all manner of craftsmanship,³² to make ingenious designs, to work in gold, silver and bronze,³³ as well as cutting gemstones for setting, wood carving, to make all kinds of skillful craftsmanship.³⁴ He has also placed in his heart the ability to teach—both he and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan.³⁵ He has filled them with wisdom of heart to forge all the works of an engraver, an artisan, and an embroiderer in blue, purple, scarlet and in fine linen, as well as weaving—they can perform every craft and ingenious designs.

More Than Enough!

36 "So Bezalel and Oholiab are to work, along with every wise-hearted man in whom ADONAI has placed insight and understanding to know how to perform all the labor for the service of the Sanctuary, according to everything ADONAI has commanded."

² Then Moses called Bezalel, Oholiab and all the wise-hearted men in whose minds ADONAI had set wisdom, along with everyone whose heart stirred him up to come do the work.³ They received from Moses the entire offering that Bnei-Yisrael had brought for the work of the service of the Sanctuary, to build it. They brought freewill offerings to him morning after morning.⁴ Then all the skilled men who were doing all the work of the Sanctuary came, one by one from the work he was doing,⁵ and said to Moses, "The people are bringing much more than enough for the work of this construction that ADONAI has commanded to be done."

⁶ So Moses gave an order, and they proclaimed it throughout the camp saying, "Let neither man nor woman make anything else as an offering for the Sanctuary." So the people were restrained from bringing more.⁷ For the work material they had was sufficient for all the work, with much left over.

²⁰ He also made the framework of boards for the Tabernacle from acacia wood, standing upright.²¹ The length of a board was ten cubits, the width was a cubit and a half.²² Each board had two supports, joined one to another. He did this for all the boards of the Tabernacle.²³ So he built the boards for the Tabernacle, 20 boards from the south side southward.²⁴ And he made 40 silver bases under the 20 boards, two bases under one board for its two supports, and two bases under another board for its two supports.²⁵ Also for the second side of the Tabernacle, on the north side, he made 20 boards,²⁶ along with their 40 silver bases, two under one board and two under the next.²⁷ For the back part of the Tabernacle westward he made six boards.²⁸ He also made two boards for the corners of the Tabernacle in the back,²⁹ so that they could be doubled underneath, and in same way to be fixed to the top, at the first ring. He did this for both of them at the two corners.³⁰ So there were eight boards, along with their silver bases, 16 in all, two under each board.

³¹ Then he made crossbars from acacia wood, five for the boards on one side of the Tabernacle,³² five for the boards on the other side of the Tabernacle, and five crossbars for the boards of the Tabernacle for the back part, westward.³³ He built the middle crossbar to pass through, in the center of the boards, from one end to the other. ³⁴ He overlaid the boards with gold and made golden rings for them, as holders for the crossbars, and overlaid the crossbars with gold.

³⁵ Then he made the curtain of blue, purple, scarlet and finely twisted linen, along with the cheruvim, the work of a skillful craftsman. ³⁶ He made four pillars of acacia, and overlaid them with gold, having golden hooks, and he cast four silver bases for them. ³⁷ Then he made a parokhet for the entrance of the tent, of blue, purple, scarlet and finely twisted linen, the work of a color weaver. ³⁸ Also he made the five pillars with their hooks, and overlaid their capitals and bands with gold, along with their five bronze bases.

Ark, Table, Menorah, Incense Altar

37 Bezalel also made the Ark from acacia wood, two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high. ² He overlaid it with pure gold inside and out, and made a crown of gold for it all around. ³ He cast four golden rings for it, in the four feet, two rings on the one side, and two on the other. ⁴ He also made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. ⁵ Then he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the Ark, to carry the Ark.

ing out of the menorah. ²⁰ Also within the menorah were four cups made like almond blossoms, bulbs and flowers, ²¹ with a bulb under two branches of one piece, a second bulb under two branches of another piece, and a bulb under two branches of a third piece, for six branches extending out of it. ²² Their bulbs and their branches were one piece with it, an entire hammered work of pure gold.

²⁵ He made the altar of incense from acacia wood, a cubit long, a cubit wide, squared, and two cubits high. The horns were one piece with it. ²⁶ Then he overlaid it with pure gold on top, on the sides all around and over its horns. Also he made a crown of gold for it all around. ²⁷ He made two golden rings for it underneath the crown, on two sides as holders for poles in order to carry it. ²⁸ He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

²⁹ Then he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, the blend of a perfumer.

Altar for Sacrifices

38 He then made the altar for burnt offering from acacia wood. It was square, five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high. ² He also made the horns on the four corners from one piece, and overlaid it with bronze. ³ Then he made all the utensils for the altar—the pots and the shovels, the basins, the forks and the fire pans. He made all the utensils from bronze. ⁴ He also made a bronze grating net for the altar, under the ledge around it, reaching halfway up. ⁵ He cast four rings for the four ends of the bronze grating, to be holders for the poles. ⁶ He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze. ⁷ Then he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar to carry it, and he made it hollow, out of boards.

⁹ Then he made the courtyard. For the south side the hangings of the courtyard were finely twisted linen, 100 cubits long. ¹⁰ There were 20 pillars and 20 bronze bases. The hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver. ¹¹ Likewise, for the north side, 100 cubits long, with 20 bronze pillars and bases, and the hooks for the pillars and their bands were silver. ¹² For the west side the hangings were 50 cubits, with ten pillars and their ten bases, as well as the hooks for the pillars and their silver bands. ¹³ Likewise, for the east side, 50 cubits long. ¹⁴ The hangings for one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, with three pillars and their bases. ¹⁵ Similarly for the other side, on either side of the gate of the courtyard were hangings of 15 cubits, with their three pillars and three bases. ¹⁶ All the hangings of the courtyard all around were of finely twisted linen. ¹⁷ The bases for the pillars were bronze, the hooks of the pillars and their bands were silver, the overlaying of their capitals were silver, and all the pillars of the courtyard were ringed with silver.

¹⁸ The curtain for the gate of the courtyard was the work of a color weaver, of blue, purple, scarlet and finely twisted linen. It was 20 cubits long and five cubits high, like the hangings of the courtyard. ¹⁹ Their four pillars and four bases were bronze. Their hooks along with the overlaying of their capitals and their bands were silver. ²⁰ All the pegs of the Tabernacle and the courtyard all around were bronze.

Parashat Pekudei

²¹ These are the accounts of the Tabernacle of the Testimony, as they were recorded according to the commandment of Moses, by the service of the Levites, under the hand of Ithamar son of Aaron the kohen.

²⁴ The entirety of the gold that was used for the work of the Sanctuary, including the gold of the offering, was 29 talents [†] and 730 shekels, according to the Sanctuary shekel. ²⁵ The silver from those numbered from the congregation was 100 talents and 1,775 shekels, according to the Sanctuary shekel— ²⁶ that is, a beka, or half a shekel per head, according to the shekel of the Sanctuary, for everyone who was recorded, from 20 years old and upward, for 603,550 men.

²⁹ The bronze from the offering was 70 talents and 2,400 shekels. ³⁰ With it he made the bases for the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating, all the utensils for the altar, ³¹ along with the bases of the courtyard all around, the bases for the gate of the courtyard, as well as all the pegs of the Tabernacle and the pegs for the courtyard all around.

Holy Garments for Aaron and His Sons

39 Next they made woven garments of blue, purple and scarlet, for ministering in the holy place. They made the holy garments for Aaron, as ADONAI commanded Moses.

² He made the ephod of gold, blue, purple, scarlet and finely twisted linen. ³ They hammered the gold into thin plates, and cut it into threads, to work it in with the blue, purple and scarlet, within the fine linen, the work of a skillful craftsman. ⁴ Then they made shoulder pieces for it, joined together at the two ends. ⁵ The artfully woven band on the ephod, with which to gird it, was of the same piece and the same kind of workmanship of gold, blue, purple, scarlet and finely twisted linen, as ADONAI commanded Moses.

¹⁵ They attached braided chains to the breastplate, of wreathed work from pure gold. ¹⁶ They made two settings of gold, and two golden rings, and set the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. ¹⁷ They attached the two golden chains to the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. ¹⁸ The other two ends of the chains they placed on the two settings, and fastened them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod, in the front. ¹⁹ They also made two golden rings, and set them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge that was toward the side of the ephod facing inward.

²⁷ Then they made the sashes of fine linen, woven work for Aaron and for his sons, ²⁸ the turban of fine linen, the headwear, the linen undergarments of finely twisted linen, ²⁹ along with the tunic of checkered work, in blue, purple and scarlet, the work of a color weaver, as ADONAI commanded Moses.

³² So all the work of the Tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, was finished. Bnei-Yisrael did everything according to what ADONAI had commanded Moses—they did it just so. ³³ Then they brought the Tabernacle to Moses, along with the tent and all of its furnishings, its clasps, its boards, its crossbars, its pillars, and its bases; ³⁴ along with the covering of ram skins dyed red, and the covering of sealskins, the veil of the curtain; ³⁵ as well as the Ark of the Testimony with its poles, and the atonement cover; ³⁶ the table and all of its utensils, the showbread; ³⁷ the pure menorah with its lamps to be set in order, along with all of its utensils, and oil for the light; ³⁸ the golden altar, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, and the curtain for the entrance of the tent; ³⁹ the bronze altar, its grating and its poles along with all of its utensils, and the basin and its base; ⁴⁰ the hangings for the courtyard, with its pillars, its bases and the curtain for the gate of the courtyard, with its cords and its pegs, along with all the instruments for the service of the Tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting; ⁴¹ as well as the woven garments for ministering in the Sanctuary, the holy garments for Aaron the kohen and for his sons to serve as kohanim.

⁴² According to everything that ADONAI had commanded Moses, Bnei-Yisrael had done all the work just so. ⁴³ When Moses saw the entire work, and that they had done it just as ADONAI had commanded, Moses blessed them.

Setting up the Tabernacle

40 Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ²“On the first day of the first month, you will set up the Tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting. ³You are to put the Ark of the Testimony there, and screen off the Ark with the curtain. ⁴Then bring in the table, and set in order the bread that is on it. Bring in the menorah and light its lamps. ⁵Set the golden incense altar in front of the Ark of the Testimony, and hang the curtain over the entrance of the Tabernacle.

⁹“Take the anointing oil and anoint the Tabernacle, and everything within it, and consecrate it, along with all of its furnishings, and it will be holy. ¹⁰Also you are to anoint the altar of burnt offering with all of its utensils and consecrate the altar. The altar will be most holy. ¹¹Then you are to anoint the basin along with its base and sanctify it.

¹²“Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and wash them with water. ¹³Put the holy garments on Aaron, anoint him and consecrate him, so that he may minister to Me as a kohen. ¹⁴Also bring his sons and put tunics upon them. ¹⁵You are to anoint them, as you did their father, so that they too may minister to Me as kohanim. Their anointing will be for an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations.” ¹⁶Moses did so, just as ADONAI had commanded him.

²⁰He placed the Testimony into the Ark, set the poles on the Ark, and put the atonement cover on top of the Ark. ²¹He brought the Ark into the Tabernacle, set up the curtain as a screen, and screened off the Ark of the Testimony, just as ADONAI had commanded Moses.

²²Then he set up the table inside the Tent of Meeting, on the side of the Tabernacle northward, outside the curtain. ²³He set a row of bread in order upon it before ADONAI, just as ADONAI had commanded Moses. ²⁴Then he placed the menorah in the Tent of Meeting, over against the table, on the south side of the Tabernacle. ²⁵Then he lit the lamps before ADONAI, just as ADONAI had commanded Moses.

²⁶Next he placed the golden altar in the Tent of Meeting before the curtain, ²⁷and he burned sweet spices of incense there, just as ADONAI had commanded Moses. ²⁸He hung the curtain over the entrance of the Tabernacle. ²⁹Then he set the altar of burnt offering at the entrance of the Tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the grain offering, just as ADONAI had commanded Moses.

³⁰Next he set up the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing, ³¹so that Moses, Aaron and his sons could wash their hands and their feet there. ³²When they went into the Tent of Meeting and when they came near to the altar, they washed, just as ADONAI had commanded Moses.

³³He set up the courtyard around the Tabernacle and the altar and set up the screen at the gate of the courtyard. So Moses finished the work.

Glory Fills the Tabernacle

³⁴Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of ADONAI filled the Tabernacle. ³⁵Moses was unable to enter into the Tent of Meeting, because the cloud resided there and the glory of ADONAI filled the Tabernacle.

³⁸ For the cloud of ADONAI was on the Tabernacle by day and a fire was there by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel throughout all their journeys.

Leviticus

Leviticus Introduction

Known in the English Bible as a priestly manual for the Levites, Leviticus gives voice to the way a priestly nation is to enter the holy presence of the living God. The Hebrew name of the book highlights the narrative aspect of Israel's spiritual journey, as explained by God at Sinai: —meaning “and He called.” Though it contains many instructions for priests, readers do well to consider how it gives important information for all.

In the days of , every Jewish child would learn the opening words of as one's very first introduction to , “God's Instruction.” The rabbis used to say, “Let the pure come and occupy themselves with the things that are pure.” The child would listen to the Word and then be given honey to associate God's Word with “sweetness.” God's is sweet. Only a whole offering or —giving God your all—was needed to maintain a wholehearted love for God (Lev. 1:4). But when this relationship was broken, something more was required: a life for a life—thus a sacrifice, an often bloody ordeal described and accentuated in this book.

Leviticus teaches that both a sin offering and a guilt offering are required to restore the relationship with God that has been cut off by iniquities, transgressions, and rebelliousness. The sin offering cleanses, and the guilt offering provides economic remedy for wrongs. The guilt offering must be a living sacrifice, a blood offering, that cannot be reduced—even if the wrongdoer lacks resources to purchase the sacrifice. To satisfy this lawful demand on our behalf, Messiah's life had to be poured out as a living sacrifice (Lev. 17:11 cf. Lev. 5:11-13). offering of his life with redemptive significance fulfilled the demand for atonement (Heb. 9:22; Isa. 53:10).

Leviticus taught priests how to maintain the ritual purity of the Tabernacle, so that the Holy One could dwell in the nation's midst (Lev. 8:15, 19, 16:14-16). In the New Covenant community, the inner person's thought life must be similarly cleansed (Matt. 5:17-20; 2 Cor. 10:5-6). Here, the sanctity of the inner person must be pure because the New Covenant priest is granted access to the Holy One in heaven itself (Heb. 9:21, 23-26, 10:19-22; Eph. 2:6). In fact, the “one who overcomes” could be given opportunity to sit enthroned with Messiah Himself (Rev. 3:21). Small wonder Messiah calls His holy ones () His friends (John 15:15-17). Though Leviticus pertains to the Levites, it thus really pertains to all.

Parashat Vayikra

Offerings Without Defect

1 Now ADONAI called to Moses and spoke to him out of the Tent of Meeting, saying: ²“Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, and tell them: When anyone of you brings an offering [†] to ADONAI, you may present your offering of livestock, from the herd or from the flock. ³“If his sacrifice is a burnt offering from the herd, he is to present a male without blemish. He is to offer it at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, so that he may be accepted before ADONAI. ⁴ He is to lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, so that it will be accepted for him to make atonement on his behalf. ⁵ He is to slaughter the bull before ADONAI. Then Aaron’s sons, the kohanim, are to present the blood and splash it around on the altar that is at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. ⁶ He is to skin the burnt offering and cut it into pieces. ⁷ The sons of Aaron the kohen are to place fire on the altar and arrange wood upon the fire. ⁸ Then Aaron’s sons, the kohanim, shall arrange the pieces, the head, and the fat upon the wood that is on the fire which is atop the altar. ⁹ But its innards and its legs he is to wash with water. The kohen should burn it all up as smoke on the altar, for a burnt offering made by fire—a soothing aroma to ADONAI. ¹⁰“If his sacrifice is from the flock, from the sheep or from the goats, for a burnt offering, he should bring a male without blemish. ¹¹ He is to slaughter it on the north side of the altar before ADONAI. Aaron’s sons, the kohanim, are to splash its blood around on the altar. ¹² He is to cut it into pieces, with its head and its fat. The kohen should then arrange them upon the wood that is on the fire that is atop the altar, ¹³ but the innards and the legs he is to wash with water. The kohen is to offer it all, and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, made by fire—a soothing aroma to ADONAI.

¹⁴“If his sacrifice to ADONAI is a burnt offering of birds, then he should bring his offering of turtledoves or young pigeons. ¹⁵ The kohen is to bring it to the altar, wring off its head, and burn it on the altar. Then its blood is to be drained out on the side of the altar. ¹⁶ Also he is to cut out its digestive tract with its filth, and cast it beside the altar on the east side, into the place of the fat ashes. ¹⁷ He should tear it by its wings, but not divide it up. The kohen should burn it upon the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, made by fire—a soothing aroma to ADONAI.

Matzah Flour Offerings

2 “When anyone brings a sacrifice offering of grain to ADONAI, his offering should be of fine flour, and he is to pour oil on it and put frankincense on it. ² He is to bring it to Aaron’s sons, the kohanim, and he shall take from there his handful of its fine flour, and of its oil, with all its frankincense. Then the kohen shall burn up as smoke its memorial portion on the altar, an offering made by fire—a soothing aroma to ADONAI. ³ What is left of the grain offering is for Aaron and his sons, a most holy portion of the offerings to ADONAI made by fire.

⁴“When you bring a sacrifice offering of grain baked in the oven, it is to consist of matzah cakes of fine flour mixed with oil or matzah wafers anointed with oil. ⁵ If your sacrifice is a grain offering from the pan, it is to consist of fine flour, mixed with oil, matzah. ⁶ You should cut it in pieces and pour oil on it. It is a grain offering.

⁷“Now if your sacrifice is a grain offering of the pan, it is to be made of fine flour with oil. ⁸ When you bring the grain offering that is made of these things to ADONAI, it is to be presented to the kohen and he is to bring it to the altar. ⁹The kohen is to take from the grain offering its memorial portion, and burn it up as smoke on the altar, an offering made by fire—a soothing aroma to ADONAI. ¹⁰What is left of the grain offering is for Aaron and his sons, a most holy portion of the offerings to ADONAI made by fire.

¹¹“Every grain offering which you present to ADONAI should be made without hametz, for you are not to burn up as smoke any hametz nor any honey as a sacrifice made by fire to ADONAI. ¹²As a gift of firstfruits you may offer them to ADONAI, but they are not to ascend for a soothing aroma on the altar. ¹³Also you are to season with salt every sacrifice of your grain offering. You are never to allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your grain offering. With all your sacrifices you must offer salt.

¹⁴“If you bring a grain offering of firstfruits to ADONAI, you are to present for the grain offering of your firstfruits of fresh ears of barley, scorched with fire—crushed grain of fresh ears. ¹⁵You are then to put oil and frankincense on it. It is a grain offering. ¹⁶The kohen shall burn up as its memorial portion part of its crushed grain and part of its oil, along with all its frankincense. It is an offering made by fire to ADONAI.

Shalom Offerings

3 “Now if his offering is a sacrifice of fellowship offerings, if from the herd, whether male or female, he is to offer one without blemish before ADONAI. ²He shall lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron’s sons, the kohanim, are to splash the blood around on the altar. ³He is to bring from the sacrifice of fellowship offerings an offering made by fire to ADONAI, the fat that covers the innards, all the fat that is on the entrails, ⁴as well as the two kidneys and the fat that is on them which is by the loins, plus the cover on the liver that he must remove with the kidneys. ⁵Aaron’s sons are to burn it up as smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering, which is over the wood that is on the fire. It is an offering made by fire—a soothing aroma to ADONAI.

⁶“If his gift for a sacrifice of fellowship offerings to ADONAI is from the flock, he is to offer a male or female without blemish. ⁷If he is bringing a lamb for his offering, he should present it before ADONAI. ⁸He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it before the Tent of Meeting. Aaron’s sons are to splash its blood around on the altar. ⁹From the sacrifice of fellowship offerings he should bring a gift made by fire to ADONAI. Its fat—the entire tail fat cut away close to the backbone, along with the fat that covers the innards and all the fat that is on the entrails, ¹⁰as well as the two kidneys and the fat that is over them which is by the loins, plus the cover on the liver that he is to remove with the kidneys. ¹¹The kohen is to burn it up as smoke on the altar—as a food offering made by fire to ADONAI.

¹²“If his offering is a goat then he should present it before ADONAI. ¹³He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the Tent of Meeting. Aaron’s sons are to splash its blood around on the altar. ¹⁴From it he is to offer as his sacrifice an offering made by fire to ADONAI, the fat that covers the innards, all the fat that is on the entrails, ¹⁵the two kidneys and the fat that is over them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, which he must remove with the kidneys. ¹⁶The kohen is to burn them on the altar. It is the food of the offering made by fire, for a soothing aroma. All fat is for ADONAI.

¹⁷“It is to be a perpetual statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings, that you must eat neither fat nor blood.”

Sacrifices for Unintentional Sins

4 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ²“Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, saying: If anyone sins unintentionally in any of ADONAI’s mitzvot that are not to be done, and commits any one of them ³—or if the anointed kohen sins so as to bring guilt on the people—then let him offer for his sin which he has committed, a young bull without blemish to ADONAI for a sin offering. ⁴He is to bring the bull to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting before ADONAI, lay his hand on the head of the bull, and slaughter it before ADONAI. ⁵The anointed kohen should take some of the blood of the bull, and bring it to the Tent of Meeting. ⁶The kohen is to dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before ADONAI, before the curtain of the Sanctuary. ⁷The kohen should put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before ADONAI, which is in the Tent of Meeting, and he is to pour out all of the rest of the blood of the bull at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. ⁸He is to take all the fat of the bull of the sin offering off of it, the fat that covers the innards, all the fat that is on the entrails, ⁹the two kidneys and the fat that is over them which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, which he is to remove with the kidneys, ¹⁰just as it is removed from the bull of the sacrifice of fellowship offerings. The kohen should burn them up as smoke on the altar of burnt offering. ¹¹The bull’s hide, all its flesh, with its head, along with its legs, its innards and its dung— ¹²the entire bull—he is to carry outside the camp to a clean place, where the fat ashes are poured out, and burn it over wood in the fire. It is to be burned on top of the place of pouring fat ashes.

¹³“Now if the whole congregation of Israel sins, but the deed is hidden from the eyes of the community, yet they have done one of ADONAI’s mitzvot that are not to be done, then they are guilty. ¹⁴When the sin that they committed becomes known, then the community is to offer a young bull for a sin offering, and bring it before the Tent of Meeting. ¹⁵The elders of the congregation are to lay their hands on the head of the bull before ADONAI, and the bull is to be slaughtered before ADONAI.¹⁶ The anointed kohen should bring some of the blood from the bull to the Tent of Meeting.¹⁷ Then the kohen is to dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before ADONAI, before the curtain.¹⁸ He is to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before ADONAI, in the Tent of Meeting, and the rest of the blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.¹⁹ He is to take all its fat from it, and burn it up as smoke on the altar.²⁰ He is also to do with the bull just as he did with the bull of the sin offering—he must do the same with it. So the kohen shall make atonement for them—and they will be forgiven.²¹ Then he is to carry the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is the sin offering for the community.

²² “When a ruler sins and unwittingly does one of the mitzvot of ADONAI his God that are not to be done, then he is guilty.²³ When his sin that he committed is made known to him, he is to bring as his offering a goat, a male without blemish.²⁴ He is to lay his hand on the head of the goat and slaughter it in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering before ADONAI. It is a sin offering.²⁵ The kohen should take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. He is to pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering.²⁶ He is to burn all its fat on the altar, just like the fat of the sacrifice of fellowship offerings. So the kohen shall make atonement for him concerning his sin—and he will be forgiven.

²⁷ “When anyone of the common people sins unwittingly by doing one of ADONAI’s mitzvot that are not to be done, then he is guilty.²⁸ When his sin that he committed is made known to him, then he is to bring for his offering a goat, a female without blemish, for his sin that he committed.²⁹ He is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and then slaughter it at the place of burnt offering.³⁰ The kohen is to take some of its blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. He is to pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.³¹ He is to take away all its fat, just like the fat is taken away from off of the sacrifice of fellowship offerings. And the kohen should burn it on the altar for a soothing aroma to ADONAI. So the kohen is to make atonement for him—and he will be forgiven.

Sin Offerings

³² “Now if he brings a lamb as his sacrifice for a sin offering, he is to bring a female without blemish.³³ He is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it at the place where they slaughter the burnt offering.³⁴ The kohen should take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. Then all the rest of its blood he is to pour out at the base of the altar.³⁵ He must remove all its fat, just as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of fellowship offerings. Then the kohen is to burn them on the altar, on ADONAI’s offerings by fire. So the kohen shall make atonement for him over the sin that he committed—and he will be forgiven.

5 “If a soul sins—after hearing a charge of an oath, and he is a witness whether he has seen or otherwise known—if he fails to report it, then he will bear his guilt.

² “Or if a person touches any unclean thing—whether it is the carcass of an unclean animal or the carcass of unclean livestock or the carcass of unclean creeping things, though it is hidden from him, still he is unclean and he will be guilty.

³ “Or if he touches some human uncleanness, whatever his filth is by which he is unclean, though it is hidden from him, when he knows of it, then he will be guilty.

⁵ “So it will be, when one becomes guilty of one of these things, he should confess about what he has sinned.¹⁶ Then he is to bring his trespass offering to ADONAI for his sin that he committed: a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, as a sin offering. So the kohen is to make atonement for him over his sin.

⁷ “But if one cannot afford a lamb, then he should bring, as his trespass offering for the sin he committed, two turtledoves or two young pigeons, to ADONAI. One is for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.⁸ He is to bring them to the kohen, who will present the one for the sin offering first, and twist its head from its neck but not sever it completely.⁹ He is to sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, while the rest of the blood is to be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering.¹⁰ He is to make the second a burnt offering, according to the regulation. So the kohen is to make atonement for one over his sin that he committed—and he will be forgiven.

¹¹ “But if one cannot afford two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he is to bring as his offering for the sin he has committed a tenth of an ephah[†] of fine flour as a sin offering. He is to put no oil on it nor put any frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.¹² He is to bring it to the kohen, then the kohen is to take his handful of it as the memorial portion and burn it up as smoke on the altar, on ADONAI’s offerings by fire. It is a sin offering.¹³ The kohen is to make atonement for him over his sin that one has committed in any of these things—and he will be forgiven. The rest belongs to the kohen, just like the meal offering.”

† cf. 1 John 1:9†† About two quarts.

¹⁴ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁵ "If anyone commits a faithless act and sins unwittingly against the holy things of ADONAI, then he is to bring his trespass offering to ADONAI: a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your value in silver shekels after the shekel of the Sanctuary, for a trespass offering. ¹⁶ He is to make restitution for that which he has done wrong in regard to the holy thing, and is required to add a fifth part to it, and give it to the kohen. So the kohen will make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering—and he will be forgiven.

¹⁷ "Now if anyone sins and one of ADONAI's commandments that are not to be done, though he did not know it, still he is guilty and will bear his iniquity. ¹⁸ He is to bring to the kohen a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your value, as a trespass offering. Then the kohen is to make atonement for him over the sin that he committed unknowingly—and he will be forgiven. ¹⁹ It is a trespass offering. He is absolutely guilty before ADONAI."

Mitzvot of Restitution

²⁰ (6:1) Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ²¹ (6:2) "Suppose anyone sins and commits a faithless act against ADONAI by dealing falsely with his neighbor in a matter of a deposit or a pledge of hands, or through robbery, or has extorted from his neighbor, ²² (6:3) or has found what was lost and lied about it, swearing falsely—so sinning in one of any of these things that a man may do. ²³ (6:4) Then it will be, when he has sinned and has become guilty, that he must restore what he took by robbery, or what he got by extortion, or the deposit that was committed to him, or what was lost that he found, ²⁴ (6:5) or any thing about which he has sworn falsely, he is to restore it in full, and add a fifth part more to it. He must give it to the one to whom it belongs on the day of presenting his trespass offering. ²⁵ (6:6) He is to bring his trespass offering to ADONAI, a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your value, for a trespass offering, to the kohen. ²⁶ (6:7) The kohen shall make atonement for him before ADONAI, and he will be forgiven concerning whatever he may have done to become guilty."

Parashat Tzav

Torah of Burnt Offering

⁶ (8) ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ² (9) "Command Aaron and his sons, saying: This is the Torah of the burnt offering. The burnt offering should remain on the hearth atop the altar all night until the morning, while the fire of the altar is kept burning on it. ³ (10) The kohen is to put on his linen garment, with his linen undergarments on his body. He is to remove the fat ashes from where the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar and put them beside the altar. ⁴ (11) Then he is to take off his garments, put on other ones, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

⁵ (12) The fire on the altar is to be kept burning on it—it must not go out. Each morning the kohen is to burn wood on it, laying the burnt offering in order upon it, and burning up as smoke the fat of the fellowship offerings. ⁶ (13) Fire is to be kept burning on the altar continually—it must not go out.

Torah of Grain Offering

⁷ (14) "Now this is the Torah of the grain offering. Aaron's sons are to offer it to ADONAI in front of the altar. ⁸ (15) So he is to lift up from it his handful of the fine flour of the grain offering, with some of its oil and all the frankincense which is on the grain offering, and burn it up as smoke on the altar for a soothing aroma, as its memorial portion to ADONAI. ⁹ (16) Then what is left from it Aaron and his sons are to eat. It is to be eaten as matzah in a holy place, in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting. ¹⁰ (17) It must not be baked with hametz. I have given it as their portion of My offerings made by fire. It is most holy, like the sin offering and like the trespass offering. ¹¹ (18) Every male among the children of Aaron may eat it, as their portion forever throughout your generations from the offerings of ADONAI made by fire. Whoever touches them will become holy."

¹² (19) ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ¹³ (20) "This is the offering of Aaron and his sons, which they are to offer to ADONAI on the day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a continual grain offering, half of it in the morning, and half of it in the evening. ¹⁴ (21) It is to be made with oil on a pan. When it is soaked, you should bring it in. You are to present the grain offering in baked pieces as a soothing aroma to ADONAI. ¹⁵ (22) The anointed kohen who will be in his place from among his sons is to offer it. As an eternal statute, it must be entirely burnt up as smoke to ADONAI. ¹⁶ (23) Thus every grain offering of a kohen is to be a whole-offering—it should not be eaten."

Sin and Guilt Offerings

¹⁷ (24) ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁸ (25) "Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying: 'This is the Torah of the sin offering. In the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered, the sin offering is to be slaughtered before ADONAI. It is most holy. ¹⁹ (26) The kohen who offers it for sin should eat it. It must be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting. ²⁰ (27) Whatever touches its flesh will be holy. When any of its blood is splattered on a garment, you are to wash it in a holy place. ²¹ (28) But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled is to be broken, and if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, it is to be scoured, then rinsed in water. ²² (29) Every male among the kohanim is to eat of it—it is most holy. ²³ (30) But no sin offering from which any of the blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place is to be eaten—it must be burned up with fire.

7 “This is the Torah of the trespass offering. It is most holy. ² In the place where they slaughter the burnt offering, he is to slaughter the trespass offering. And he is to splash its blood around on the altar. ³ He shall offer all of its fat, the fat tail and the fat that covers the innards, ⁴ along with the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, plus the cover on the liver that he is to remove with the kidneys. ⁵ Then the kohen shall burn them up as smoke on the altar for an offering made by fire to ADONAI. It is a trespass offering. ⁶ Every male among the kohanim may eat it. It is to be eaten in a holy place—it is most holy.

Fellowship Offerings for Kohanim

⁷ “As is the sin offering, so is the trespass offering, there is one Torah for them: they are for the kohen who makes atonement with them. ⁸ The kohen who offers anyone’s burnt offering, that kohen is to have for himself the hide of the burnt offering which he has offered. ⁹ Every meal offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is prepared on the flat plate and on the pan, is to belong to the kohen who offers it. ¹⁰ Every grain offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, belongs to all the sons of Aaron equally.

¹¹ “Now this is the Torah of the sacrifice of fellowship offerings which may be offered to ADONAI. ¹² If he brings it for a thanksgiving, then he is to present it with the sacrifice of thanksgiving matzah cakes mixed with oil, matzah wafers anointed with oil, and fine flour cakes mixed with oil. ¹³ He is to present his offering with the sacrifice of his fellowship offerings for thanksgiving along with cakes of bread with hametz. ¹⁴ From each he is to offer one out of every offering as a gift to ADONAI. It will belong to the kohen who sprinkles the blood of the fellowship offerings. ¹⁵ The meat of the sacrifice of his fellowship offerings for thanksgiving is to be eaten on the day of his offering. He is not to leave any of it until the morning.

¹⁶ “But if the sacrifice of his offering is a vow or a freewill offering, it is to be eaten on the day that he offers his sacrifice. On the next day what remains of it may be eaten. ¹⁷ But what remains of the meat of the sacrifice on the third day is to be burned up with fire. ¹⁸ If any of the meat of the sacrifice of his fellowship offerings is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted, nor will it be credited to him who offers it. It will be a foul thing—and the soul who eats any from it will bear his own iniquity.

on him, that soul is to be cut off from his people. ²¹ If anyone touches any unclean thing, whether the uncleanness of man, or an unclean animal or any unclean detestable thing, and eats some of the meat of the sacrifice of fellowship offerings belonging to ADONAI, that soul is to be cut off from his people.”

²² ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ²³ “Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, saying: You are to eat no fat of a bull or sheep or goat. ²⁴ The fat of a dead animal and the fat of a torn animal may be used for any other service, but you must not eat it. ²⁵ For if anyone eats the fat of the animal from which an offering is made by fire to ADONAI, then the soul who eats it is to be cut off from his people.

²⁸ Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁹ “Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, saying: Whoever brings the sacrifice of his fellowship offerings to ADONAI is to present his offering to ADONAI out of the sacrifice of his fellowship offerings. ³⁰ With his own hands he is to bring ADONAI’s offerings by fire. He is to present the fat with the breast, so that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before ADONAI. ³¹ The kohen is to burn up the fat as smoke on the altar, but the breast will belong to Aaron and his sons. ³² The right thigh you are to give to the kohen for a contribution out of the sacrifices of your fellowship offerings. ³³ The one among Aaron’s sons who offers the blood of the fellowship offerings and the fat is to have the right thigh for a portion. ³⁴ For the breast of the wave offering and the thigh contribution I have taken from Bnei-Yisrael out of the sacrifices of their fellowship offerings and have given them to Aaron the kohen and to his sons as their portion forever from Bnei-Yisrael.”

³⁷ This is the Torah of the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the trespass offering, the ordination offering, and the sacrifice of fellowship offerings, ³⁸ which ADONAI commanded Moses at Mount Sinai, on the day He commanded Bnei-Yisrael to present their offerings to ADONAI, in the wilderness of Sinai.

Consecration of the Kohanim

8 Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ² “Take Aaron and his sons with him, the garments, the anointing oil, the bull of the sin offering, the two rams and the basket of matzot. ³ Then assemble all the congregation at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.”

⁴ So Moses did as ADONAI commanded him. When the congregation was assembled at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, ⁵ Moses said to the congregation, "This is what ADONAI has commanded to be done."

²² Then he presented the second ram, the ram of ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. ²³ Moses slaughtered it, took some of its blood and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, on the thumb of his right hand and on the great toe of his right foot. ²⁴ Then Moses brought Aaron's sons and put some of the blood on the tips of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the great toes of their right feet. Then Moses splashed the blood around on the altar. ²⁵ He took the fat, the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the innards, as well as the cover of the liver, the two kidneys with their fat and the right thigh. ²⁶ Then out of the basket of matzah that was before ADONAI, he took one matzah cake, one cake of oiled bread and one wafer, and placed them on the fat and on the right thigh. ²⁷ He put all these in Aaron's hands and in the hands of his sons, and waved them for a wave offering before ADONAI. ²⁸ Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them up in smoke on the altar with the burnt offering. They were a consecration for a soothing aroma. It was an offering by fire to ADONAI. ²⁹ Moses took the breast and waved it for a wave offering before ADONAI. It was Moses' portion of the ram of ordination, just as ADONAI commanded Moses.

³¹ Moses then said to Aaron and to his sons, "Boil the meat at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and eat it there, along with the bread that is in the basket of ordination, as I commanded, saying: 'Aaron and his sons are to eat it.' ³² What remains of the meat and of the bread you shall burn with fire.

³³ "You are not to go out from the entrance of the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your ordination are fulfilled, for he will be filling your hands for seven days. ³⁴ What has been done this day, ADONAI has commanded to be done, in order to make atonement for you. ³⁵ You are to stay at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting day and night for seven days, and keep ADONAI's command, so that you do not die, for so I have been commanded." ³⁶ Thus Aaron and his sons did all the things that ADONAI commanded through Moses.

Kohanim Begin Their Ministry

9 Now it happened on the eighth day that Moses called Aaron, his sons, and the elders of Israel. ² Then he said to Aaron, "Take a calf from the herd for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, both without blemish, and offer them before ADONAI. ³ You are to speak to Bnei-Yisrael, saying: Take a male goat for a sin offering, along with a calf and a lamb, both yearlings without blemish, for a burnt offering, ⁴ plus a bull and a ram for fellowship offerings, to sacrifice before ADONAI, along with a grain offering mixed with oil. For today ADONAI appears to you."

⁵ So they brought what Moses commanded before the Tent of Meeting, and the entire congregation drew near and stood before ADONAI. ⁶ Moses said, "This is what ADONAI commanded that you shall do, so that the glory of ADONAI may appear to you." ⁷ Moses said to Aaron, "Draw near to the altar, and bring your sin offering, and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people. † Then present the offering for the people, and make atonement for them, as ADONAI commanded.”

¹⁷ Then Aaron presented the grain offering, filling his hand with some of it and burning it up as smoke on the altar, alongside the burnt offering of the morning. ¹⁸ He also slaughtered the bull and the ram as the sacrifice of fellowship offerings for the people. Then his sons brought him the blood, which he splashed around on the altar, ¹⁹ as well as the fat from the bull and the ram, the fat tail, and the layer over the innards along with the kidneys and the covering of the liver. ²⁰ They put the fat upon the breasts, and he burned it on the altar. ²¹ But the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before ADONAI, as Moses had commanded. ²² Then Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them. † Then he stepped down from presenting the sin offering, the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings.

²³ Moses and Aaron then went into the Tent of Meeting. When they came back out and blessed the people, the glory of ADONAI appeared to all the people. ²⁴ Fire came out from the presence of ADONAI, and devoured the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. When all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

Holy Fire Consumes Unauthorized Fire

10 Now Aaron's sons Nadab and Abihu each took his own censer, put fire in it, laid incense over it, and offered unauthorized fire before ADONAI—which He had not commanded them. ² So fire came out from the presence of ADONAI and consumed them. So they died before ADONAI. ³ Then Moses said to Aaron, “This is what ADONAI spoke of, saying:

“To those who are near Me
I will show myself holy.

Upon the faces of all the people
I will be glorified.”

Then Aaron kept silent.

⁴ Then Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Aaron's uncle Uzziel, and said to them, “Come near, carry your relatives away from the front of the Sanctuary to outside of the camp.” ⁵ So they drew near and carried them, still in their tunics, outside of the camp, as Moses had said.

⁶ Then Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his sons: “Do not uncover your heads or tear your clothes, so you may not die and He will not be angry with the entire congregation. But let your kinsmen—the whole house of Israel—mourn over the burning that ADONAI has kindled. ⁷ You must not go out from the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, or you will die, for the anointing oil of ADONAI is on you.” So they acted according to the word of Moses.

⁸ ADONAI spoke to Aaron saying: ⁹ “Do not drink wine or fermented drink, neither you nor your sons with you, when you go into the Tent of Meeting, so that you do not die. This is to be a statute forever throughout your generations. ¹⁰ You are to make a distinction between the holy and the common and between the unclean and the clean. ¹¹ And you are to teach Bnei-Yisrael all the statutes which ADONAI has spoken to them through Moses.”

¹⁶ Then Moses searched carefully for the goat of the sin offering and noticed it had been burned up. So he snapped at Eleazar and Itamar, the surviving sons of Aaron, saying: ¹⁷ “Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the place of the Sanctuary, since it is most holy, and He gave it to you in order to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before ADONAI? ¹⁸ Look, its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary. You certainly should have eaten it in the Sanctuary, as I commanded.”

¹⁹ But Aaron said to Moses, “Behold, today they presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before ADONAI. When things like these have happened to me, would it have been good in the eyes of ADONAI if I had eaten the sin offering today?"²⁰ When Moses heard this, it was good in his eyes.

Kashrut for Holiness

11 ADONAI spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them: ²"Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, saying: These are the living things which you may eat among all the animals that are on the earth. ³Whatever has a split, divided hoof and chews cud among the animals—that you may eat.

⁴"Nevertheless, you should not eat of those that only chew cud, or have a split hoof. The camel, though it chews the cud, does not have a divided hoof, is unclean to you. ⁵The coney, though it chews the cud yet does not have a divided hoof, so it is unclean to you. ⁶The hare, though it chews the cud, does not split the hoof, so it is unclean to you. ⁷The pig, though it has a split, divided hoof, does not chew cud, so it is unclean to you. ⁸You are not to eat meat from them, nor are you to touch their carcasses. They are unclean to you.

⁹"From all that are in the waters, you may eat whatever has fins and scales, within the waters, in the seas and in the rivers. Those you may eat. ¹⁰But any that do not have fins and scales in the seas or the rivers, among those that swarm on the waters, or among any of the living creatures that are in the waters, they are loathsome to you. ¹¹They are to be detestable to you. You shall not eat meat from them and you should detest their carcasses. ¹²Whatever has neither fins nor scales in the waters, that is a detestable thing to you.

²⁰"All flying insects that walk on all fours are detestable to you. ²¹Yet you may eat from all winged creeping things that go on all fours, which have legs above their feet, with which to hop on the earth. ²²You may eat from any kind of locust, any kind of katydid, any kind of cricket and any kind of grasshopper. ²³But all winged creeping things that have four feet are loathsome to you.

²⁴"Moreover, by these also you will become unclean: whoever touches their carcasses shall be unclean until the evening. ²⁵Whoever carries any part of their carcass is to wash his clothes, and will be unclean until the evening. ²⁶Every animal with a separating hoof but not split, or does not chew cud, is unclean to you. Everyone who touches them will become unclean.

²⁷So whatever moves on its paws, among all animals that go on all fours, is unclean to you. Whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean until the evening.

²⁸Whoever carries their carcasses, is to wash his clothes and will be unclean until the evening. They are unclean to you.

²⁹"Among the creeping things that creep on the earth, the following are unclean to you: the weasel, the rat, any kind of great lizard, ³⁰the gecko, the monitor lizard, the wall lizard, the skink and the chameleon. ³¹Among all that creep these are the ones that are unclean to you. Whoever touches them when they are dead, will be unclean until the evening. ³²Whatever falls on them when they are dead will become unclean, whether it is any vessel of wood, or clothing, or skin, or sackcloth. Whatever vessel it is, with which any work is done, it must be put into water, and it will be unclean until the evening, then it will be clean.

³³"Now if any of them falls into a clay pot, everything that is in it will become unclean, and you are to break it. ³⁴Any food that may be eaten but has water on it from such a pot will become unclean. Also any drink that may be drunk in any such pot will become unclean. ³⁵Everything on which part of their carcass falls will become unclean. An oven or stove for pots is to be broken in pieces. They are unclean and will be unclean to you. ³⁶Nevertheless, a spring or a cistern for collecting water will be clean, though anyone who touches their carcass will become unclean. ³⁷If part of a carcass falls on any seed for sowing that has yet to be sown, it is clean. ³⁸But if water is put on the seed, and part of a carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you. ³⁹If any animal that you may eat dies, the one who touches its carcass will become unclean until the evening. ⁴⁰He who eats of its carcass is to wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening. Also, the one who carries its carcass is to wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening.

⁴¹"Every creeping thing that crawls on the earth is detestable—it should not be eaten. ⁴²Whatever moves on its belly or crawls on all fours or has many feet among all the creeping things that crawl on the earth, these you are not to eat, for they are detestable. ⁴³You are not to contaminate yourselves with any creeping thing that crawls nor make yourselves unclean with them or defiled by them.

⁴⁴"For I am ADONAI your God. Therefore, sanctify yourselves, and be holy, for I am holy. You are not to defile yourselves with any kind of creeping thing that moves on the earth. ⁴⁵For I am ADONAI who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. † Therefore, you shall be holy, for I am holy.

⁴⁶"This is the Torah of the animal, the bird, every living creature that moves in the waters, and every creature that creeps on the earth, ⁴⁷to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living thing that may be eaten and the living thing that may not be eaten."

† cf. 1 Pet. 1:16.

Parashat Tazria

Niddah Rest for New Mothers

12 Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ²“Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, instructing: If a woman conceives and bears a male child, then she will be unclean for seven days, as in the days of her niddah she will be unclean. ³In the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin is to be circumcised. ⁴She must wait during the blood of purification for 33 days. ^{††}She is not to touch any holy thing, nor come into the Sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are completed. ⁵But if she bears a female child, then she will be unclean for two weeks, as in her niddah, and she is to wait in the blood of purification for 66 days.

⁶“When the days of her purification are completed for a son or for a daughter, she is to bring to the kohen, at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, a year old lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a turtledove, for a sin offering. ⁷He is to present it before ADONAI and make atonement for her. Then she will be cleansed from the discharge of her blood. This is the Torah for her who gives birth, whether to a male or a female child. ⁸If she cannot afford a lamb, then she is to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, [‡]one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering. Then the kohen will make atonement for her, and she will be clean.”

Tzara'at: Supernatural Skin Disease

13 Then ADONAI spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: ²“When a man has a swelling on the skin of his body or a scab or a bright spot, and it becomes the plague-mark of tzara'at in his flesh, then he should be brought to Aaron the kohen, or to one of his sons, the kohanim. ³The kohen is to examine the plague of tzara'at on his skin, and if the hair in the plague has turned white, and the appearance of the plague is deeper than the body's skin, it is the plague of tzara'at. Thus the kohen should examine him and pronounce him unclean. ⁴If the bright spot is white in the skin of his body, but its appearance is not deeper than the skin and its hair has not turned white, then the kohen is to isolate the infected person for seven days. ⁵The kohen should examine him on the seventh day, and behold, if he sees the plague has not spread in the skin, then the kohen is to isolate him for seven more days.

⁶“The kohen is to examine him again on the seventh day, and behold, if the plague has faded and has not spread in the skin, then the kohen should pronounce him clean. It is a scab. He is to wash his clothes, and be clean. ⁷But if the scab spreads on the skin, after he has shown himself to the kohen for his cleansing, he is to show himself to the kohen once again. ⁸The kohen is to examine him, and if the scab has spread on the skin, then the kohen should pronounce him unclean. It is tzara'at.

⁹“When one has a plague of tzara'at, he is to be brought to the kohen. ¹⁰The kohen is to examine him, and behold, if there is a white swelling in the skin and it has turned the hair white and if there is raw flesh in the swelling, ¹¹it is a chronic tzara'at in the skin of his flesh, and the kohen is to pronounce him unclean. He is to isolate him, for he is unclean.

²⁴“Or suppose the body has a burn from fire on its skin, and the raw flesh of the burn becomes a bright spot, reddish-white, or white. ²⁵Then the kohen is to examine it, and behold, if the hair in the bright spot has turned white and its appearance is deeper than the skin, it is tzara'at. It has broken out in the burning, and the kohen is to pronounce him unclean—it is the plague of tzara'at. ²⁶But if the kohen examines it and sees there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it is not lower than the skin but is faded, then the kohen is to isolate him seven days. ²⁷The kohen is to examine him on the seventh day. If it has spread in the skin, then the kohen is to pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of tzara'at. ²⁸If the bright spot stays in its place, and has not spread in the skin but is faded, it is the swelling from the burn, and the kohen should pronounce him clean, for it is merely a scar from the burn.

²⁹ “When a man or woman has a plague on the head or on the chin, ³⁰ then the kohen is to examine the plague, and behold, if its appearance is deeper than the skin, and the hair in it is yellow and thin, then the kohen is to pronounce him unclean. It is a scab—tzara’at of the head or the chin. ³¹ If the kohen examines the plague of the scab, and behold, its appearance is no deeper than the skin and there is no black hair within, then the kohen is to isolate the person infected with the scab for seven days. ³² On the seventh day the kohen is to examine the plague, and behold, if the scab has not spread and there is no yellow hair in it, and the appearance of the scab is no deeper than the skin, ³³ then he shall be shaved, but he is not to shave the scab. The kohen is then to isolate the one who has the scab for seven more days. ³⁴ On the seventh day, the kohen is to examine the scab, and behold, if the scab has not spread in the skin and its appearance is no deeper than the skin, then the kohen should pronounce him clean. He is to wash his clothes, and be clean. ³⁵ But if the scab spreads in the skin after his cleansing, ³⁶ then the kohen is to examine him, and behold, if the scab has spread in the skin, the kohen may not look for the yellow hair, he is unclean. ³⁷ But if he sees the scab is stopped and black hair has grown in it, the scab is healed, and he is clean. The kohen shall pronounce him clean.

³⁸ “Suppose a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the body—bright white spots. ³⁹ Then the kohen is to examine them, and behold, if the bright spots on the skin of their body are a dull white, it is a harmless rash broken out in the skin. He is clean.

Baldness is Clean

⁴⁰ “If a man’s hair has fallen from his head, he is bald. He is clean. ⁴¹ Or if the borders of his face become bald, his forehead is bald. He is clean. ⁴² But if on the baldhead or bald forehead, there is a reddish-white plague, it is tzara’at breaking out in his baldhead or bald forehead. ⁴³ Then the kohen is to examine him, and behold, if the rising of the plague is reddish-white on his bald head or bald forehead, like the appearance of tzara’at in the skin of the flesh, ⁴⁴ he is a man with tzara’at. He is unclean. The kohen shall definitely pronounce him unclean—his plague-mark is on his head.

Unclean! Unclean!

⁴⁵ “The one with tzara’at who has the plague-mark should wear torn clothes, the hair of his head is to hang loose, he is to cover his upper lip and cry, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’ ⁴⁶ All the days during which the plague is on him he will be unclean. He is unclean. He is to dwell alone. Outside of the camp will be his dwelling.

⁴⁷ “Also when a garment has a mark of tzara’at on it—whether it is a woolen or a linen garment, ⁴⁸ whether it is woven or textured, linen or wool, leather, or anything made from leather— ⁴⁹ or if the mark is greenish or reddish within the garment or in the leather, or in the weaving or the texture, or in anything made from leather, it is the plague of tzara’at, and should be shown to the kohen. ⁵⁰ The kohen is to examine the plague and isolate it for seven days.

⁵¹ Then he is to reexamine the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, either in the weaving, the texture or the leather, whatever the use for the leather may be, the plague is a destructive mildew. It is unclean. ⁵² He is to burn the garment or the weaving, or the texture, wool or linen, or anything of leather, in which the plague resides, for it is a destructive mildew. It is to be burned in the fire.

⁵³ “If the kohen examines it, and behold, the plague has not spread in the garment, either in the weaving, the texture, or in anything made of leather, ⁵⁴ the kohen should command that they wash the thing which has the mark, and he is to isolate it seven more days.

⁵⁵ “Then the kohen is to reexamine it, after the mark has been washed, and behold, if the mark has not changed its color and has not spread, it is unclean. You are to burn it in the fire, whether the rot is inside or outside. ⁵⁶ If the kohen looks, and sees the mark has faded after it has been washed, then he is to tear it out of the garment, or the leather, or weaving, or texture. ⁵⁷ But if it appears again in the garment, either in the weaving, the texture, or in anything made of leather, it is spreading. You are to burn with fire whatever has the mark. ⁵⁸ The garment, or weaving, or texture, or whatever leather item it is that you have washed, if the mark has departed from it, is to be washed a second time, and will become clean.”

⁵⁹ This is the Torah for a mark of tzara’at in a garment of wool or linen, either in the weaving, the texture, or in anything of leather, to pronounce it clean or to pronounce it unclean.

Parashat Metzora

Purification of One with Tzara’at

14 Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ² “This is the Torah of the one with tzara’at in the day of his cleansing. He should be brought to the kohen, ³ and the kohen is to go to the outside of the camp. The kohen is to examine him, and behold, if the mark of tzara’at is healed in one with tzara’at, ⁴ then the kohen is to command that two clean living birds, cedar wood, scarlet and hyssop be brought for the one being cleansed. ⁵ The kohen should command them to kill one of the birds in a clay pot over living water. ⁶ As for the living bird, he is to take it, the cedar wood, the scarlet and the hyssop, and dip them with the living bird into the blood of the bird that was killed over the living water. ⁷ He is to sprinkle on the one being cleansed from the tzara’at seven times and pronounce him clean, then release the living bird over the open field.

⁸“The one to be cleansed must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water. Then he should be clean. After that he may come into the camp, but is to dwell outside his tent for seven days. ⁹Then on the seventh day, he is to shave all his hair from his head, his beard, and his eyebrows—he must shave off all his hair. He is to wash his clothes, and bathe his body in water. Then he will be clean.

¹⁰“On the eighth day he is to take two male lambs without blemish, a one-year-old ewe lamb without blemish, three tenths of a pint of fine flour as a grain offering, mingled with oil, and a pint of oil. ¹¹The kohen who cleanses him is to set the man who is to be cleansed along with those items before ADONAI, at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. ¹²The kohen should then take one of the male lambs, and offer it for a trespass offering, with the pint of oil, and wave them as a wave offering before ADONAI.

¹³“Then he is to slaughter the male lamb in the place where they slaughter the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the Sanctuary area. For the sin offering like the trespass offering belongs to the kohen. It is most holy. ¹⁴Then the kohen is to take some of the blood of the trespass offering and dab it on the tip of the right ear of the one being cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot. ¹⁵The kohen should then take some of the pint of oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand. ¹⁶He is to dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand and sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before ADONAI. ¹⁷Then the kohen should dab some of the rest of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of the one being cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the blood of the trespass offering. ¹⁸From what remains of the oil that is in his hand, the kohen is to dab on the head of the one being cleansed. In this way the kohen will make atonement for him before ADONAI.

¹⁹“The kohen should offer the sin offering and make atonement for the one being cleansed because of his uncleanness. Afterward he is to slaughter the burnt offering. ²⁰Then the kohen is to present the burnt offering along with the grain offering on the altar. So the kohen should make atonement for him, and he will be clean.

²¹“If he is poor and cannot afford so much, then he should take one male lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, plus one tenth of an ephah of fine flour mingled with oil for a grain offering, a pint of oil, ²²two turtledoves or two young pigeons, such as he is able to afford. The one should be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

lamb of the trespass offering and the pint of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before ADONAI. ²⁵He is to slaughter the lamb of the trespass offering. The kohen is to take some of the blood of the trespass offering and dab it on the tip of the right ear of the one being cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. ²⁶The kohen should then pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand. ²⁷He is to sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before ADONAI. ²⁸Then the kohen is to dab some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of the one being cleansed, also on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the place of the blood of the trespass offering. ²⁹The rest of the oil that is in his hand the kohen is to dab on the head of the one being cleansed, to make atonement for him before ADONAI. ³⁰He is to offer one of the turtledoves or the young pigeons, from what his hand can afford, ³¹the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the grain offering. The kohen should make atonement for him being cleansed before ADONAI.”

³²This is the Torah for one on who is the mark of tzara'at, who is not able to afford the sacrifice for his cleansing.

Purification of a House

³³ ADONAI spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying:

³⁴“Suppose you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put a mark of tzara'at in a house in the land you possess. ³⁵Then the one who owns the house should come and tell the kohen, saying: ‘Something like a mark has appeared in my house.’ ³⁶The kohen is to order the house emptied before he goes in to examine the mark, so that nothing in the house might be made unclean. Then afterward the kohen is to enter to inspect the house. ³⁷He is to examine the mark, and behold, if the mark is in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, and appears deeper than the wall, ³⁸then the kohen is to go out of the house to the door and close up the house for seven days. ³⁹Then the kohen is to come again on the seventh day, and behold, if the mark has spread in the walls of the house, ⁴⁰then the kohen is to command that they take out the stones which are marked and throw them into an unclean place outside of the city. ⁴¹He should also have the inside of the house scraped all throughout, and they are to dump the mortar that they scraped off outside of the city into an unclean place. ⁴²They may then take other stones and put them in the place of those stones. Likewise he can take other mortar, and plaster the house.

⁴³“But suppose the contamination returns, breaking out in the house, after he has pulled out the stones and after he has scraped the house, and it has been re-plastered. ⁴⁴Then the kohen is to go examine, and behold, if the plague has spread within the house, it is a destructive mildew inside. It is unclean. ⁴⁵ He is to break down the house, its stones, its timber, along with all the house's mortar, and carry them out of the city into an unclean place.

⁴⁸ "But if the kohen comes in, inspects it, and behold, the plague has not spread within the house after it was re-plastered, then he should pronounce the house clean, because the contamination is healed. ⁴⁹ In order to cleanse the house he is to take two birds, cedar wood, scarlet and hyssop. ⁵⁰ He is to kill one of the birds in a clay pot over living water. ⁵¹ Then he is to take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet and the living bird, and dip them into the blood of the slain bird as well as the living water, and sprinkle the house seven times. ⁵² He should cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, with the living water, with the living bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop and the scarlet. ⁵³ But he is to let the living bird go out of the city into the open field. So he is to make atonement for the house, and it will be clean."

⁵⁴ This is the Torah for any mark of tzara'at—even for a scab, ⁵⁵ or the tzara'at in a garment or for a house ⁵⁶ or for a swelling, a scab, or a bright spot— ⁵⁷ to teach when it is unclean, and when it is clean.

This is the Torah of tzara'at.

Purification From Discharges

15 ADONAI spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying: ² "Speak to Bnei-Yisrael and tell them: When any man has a fluid discharge from his body, because of his discharge he is unclean. ³ This is to be his uncleanness in his discharge. Whether his body flows with his discharge or his body obstructs his discharge, it is his uncleanness.

⁴ "Every bed on which he who has the discharge lies will become unclean, and everything he sits on will be unclean. ⁵ Whoever touches his bed is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁶ Whoever sits on anything on which the man who has the discharge sat is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁷ Whoever touches the body of the one who has the discharge is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ⁸ Or if the one who has the discharge spits on someone who is clean, then he also is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

⁹ "Any saddle the one who has the discharge rides on will be unclean. ¹⁰ Whoever touches anything that was under him will be unclean until the evening. Whoever carries them is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

¹¹ "Also anyone the person with the discharge touches without rinsing his hands in water should wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

¹² "A clay pot that one with the discharge touches should be broken, and every wooden vessel should be rinsed in water.

¹³ "When the one who has a fluid discharge is cleansed of his issue, then he is to count for himself seven days for his purification and wash his clothes. Then he is to bathe his body in running water, and he will be clean. ¹⁴ On the eighth day he is to take two turtle doves or two young pigeons, and come before ADONAI at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the kohen. ¹⁵ The kohen is to offer them, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. So the kohen should make atonement for him before ADONAI for his fluid discharge.

¹⁹ "If a woman has a discharge, and her discharge from her body is blood, she should be in her niddah seven days. And whoever touches her will be unclean until the evening. ²⁰ Everything that she lies on in her niddah will become unclean. Also everything that she sits on will become unclean. ²¹ Whoever touches her bed is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ²² Whoever touches anything that she sits on is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. ²³ If it is on the bed or on anything where she sits, when he touches it, he will be unclean until the evening. ²⁴ If any man lies with her, so that her niddah gets on him, he will be unclean for seven days and every bed where he lies will be unclean.

²⁵ "Now if a woman has a discharge of her blood for many days not during her niddah or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her niddah all the days of the discharge of her uncleanness should be as in the days of her niddah. She is unclean. ²⁶ Every bed where she lies all the days of her discharge will be like her bed during her niddah, and everything she sits on will become unclean like the uncleanness of her niddah. ²⁷ Whoever touches these things will become unclean and is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

²⁸ "But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she is to count off seven days for herself, and after that she will be clean. ²⁹ On the eighth day she is to take two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and bring them to the kohen, at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

³² This is the Torah for one who has a discharge or for one who has an emission of semen, which causes him to become unclean, ³³ as well as for her who has her period of niddah, and for the man or woman who has a discharge, or the one who lies with her who is unclean.

Parashat Acharei Mot

16 Then ADONAI spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they approached the presence of ADONAI and died. ² ADONAI said to Moses, "Tell Aaron your brother not to come at just any time into the Holiest Place behind the curtain †—before the atonement cover which is on the Ark—so that he would not die. For I will be appearing in the cloud over the atonement cover. ††

Yom Kippur Service

¹¹ "Also Aaron is to present the bull of the sin offering which is for himself and so make atonement for himself and his house. He is to slaughter the bull of the sin offering which is for himself. ††¹² He is to take a firepan full of coals of fire from off the altar before ADONAI plus two handfuls of sweet powdered incense and bring it within the curtain. ¹³ Then he is to put the incense on the fire before ADONAI, so that the cloud of the incense may cover the atonement cover that is on the Ark, so that he would not die. ¹⁴ He is then to take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle it with his finger on the atonement cover, on the east side. Before the atonement cover he is to sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times. †††

¹⁵ "Then he is to slaughter the goat of the sin offering which is for the people, bring its blood behind the curtain, and do with it as he did with the blood of the bull—sprinkle it upon the atonement cover, and before the atonement cover. †††¹⁶ So he is to make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of Bnei-Yisrael and because of their transgressions, all their sins. ⁵ He is to do the same for the Tent of Meeting, which dwells with them in the midst of their impurities. ¹⁷ No one is to be in the Tent of Meeting when he enters to make atonement in the Holy Place until he comes out, and has made atonement for himself and for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel.

²⁰ "When he has finished atoning for the Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting and the altar, then he is to present the live goat. ²¹ Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities of Bnei-Yisrael and all their transgressions, all their sins. He should place them on the head of the goat and send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who is in readiness. ²² The goat will carry all their iniquities by itself into a solitary land and he is to leave the goat in the wilderness.

²³ "Then Aaron is to come into the Tent of Meeting, take off the linen garments that he put on when he went into the Holy Place, and leave them there. ²⁴ He is to bathe himself with water in a holy place, put on his garments, and come out to offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, to make atonement for himself and for the people.

²⁵ "Then he is to burn up fat of the sin offering in smoke on the altar. ²⁶ The man who leaves the goat as a scapegoat is to wash his clothes and bathe his body in water. Afterward he may come into the camp.

²⁹“It is to be a statute to you forever, that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you are to afflict your souls, and do no kind of work—both the native-born and the outsider dwelling among you. ³⁰For on this day atonement will be made for you, to cleanse you. From all your sins you will be clean before ADONAI. ³¹It is a Shabbat of solemn rest to you, and you are to afflict your souls. It is a statute forever. ³²The kohen who is anointed and who is consecrated to be kohen in his father’s place will make the atonement, and put on the linen garments, the holy garments. ³³He is to make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary, for the Tent of Meeting, for the altar, for the kohanim, and for all the people of the assembly. ³⁴“This will be an everlasting statute for you, to make atonement for Bnei-Yisrael once in the year because of all their sins.” It was done as ADONAI commanded Moses.

17 Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ²“Speak to Aaron, to his sons, and to all Bnei-Yisrael, and say to them: This is the word which ADONAI has commanded. ³Anyone from the house of Israel who slaughters a bull, a lamb or a goat in the camp or outside the camp, ⁴but has not brought it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to offer it as a sacrifice to ADONAI before the Tabernacle—let bloodguilt be charged to that man. He has shed blood—that man is to be cut off from among his people. ⁵Thus Bnei-Yisrael may bring their sacrifices that they were making in the open field to ADONAI, at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to the kohen, and offer them as sacrifices of fellowship offerings to ADONAI. ⁶The kohen is to sprinkle the blood on the altar of ADONAI at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and burn up the fat as smoke for a soothing aroma to ADONAI. ⁷They are no longer to offer their sacrifices to the goat-demons after which they play the prostitute. This will be a statute forever to them throughout their generations.

⁸“Then you are to say to them: Anyone from the house of Israel, or from the outsiders dwelling among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, ⁹but does not bring it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to sacrifice it to ADONAI, is to be cut off from his people.

¹⁰“Anyone from the house of Israel, or from the outsiders dwelling among them, who eats any kind of blood, I will set my face against that soul—the one who eats blood—and will cut him off from among his people. ¹¹For the life of the creature is in the blood, and I have given it to you on the altar to make atonement for your lives—for it is the blood that makes atonement because of the life. ¹²Therefore, I have said to Bnei-Yisrael: No person among you may eat blood, nor may any outsider dwelling among you eat blood.

¹³“Any person from Bnei-Yisrael, or from the outsiders dwelling among them, who hunts as game any animal or bird that may be eaten, must drain its blood and cover it with dust. ¹⁴For the life of every creature, its blood is in its life. Therefore I said to Bnei-Yisrael: You are not to eat the blood of any kind of creature, for the life of every creature is its blood. Whoever eats it is to be cut off.

¹⁵“Everyone who eats what dies naturally or is torn by animals—whether he is native-born or a foreigner—is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water. He will be unclean until the evening, then he will be clean. ¹⁶But if he does not wash them or bathe his body, then he will bear his iniquity.”

18 ADONAI said to Moses: ²“Speak to Bnei-Yisrael and say to them: I am ADONAI your God. ³You are not to act as they do in the land of Egypt, where you used to live. Nor are you to act as they do in the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you, nor are you to walk in their customs. ⁴You are to obey My ordinances and keep My statutes and walk in them—I am ADONAI your God. ⁵So you are to keep My statutes and My ordinances. The one who does them will live by them. I am ADONAI.

Incest Forbidden

⁶“None of you is to come near anyone who is his close relative to uncover their nakedness. I am ADONAI.

⁷“You are not to uncover the nakedness of your father or your mother. She is your mother. You shall not uncover her nakedness. ⁸You are not to uncover the nakedness of your father’s wife, for it is your father’s nakedness. ⁹You are not to uncover the nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or elsewhere. ¹⁰You are not to uncover the nakedness of your son’s daughter, or of your daughter’s daughter, for theirs is your own nakedness. ¹¹You are not to uncover the nakedness of the daughter of your father’s wife, conceived by your father, since she is your sister. ¹²You are not to uncover the nakedness of your father’s sister, for she is your father’s direct relative.

¹³You are not to uncover the nakedness of your mother’s sister, for she is your mother’s direct relative.

¹⁴You are not to uncover the nakedness of your father’s brother by approaching his wife, for she is your aunt. ¹⁵You are not to uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law, for she is your son’s wife. You are not to uncover her nakedness. ¹⁶You are not to uncover the nakedness of your brother’s wife, because that is your brother’s nakedness. ¹⁷You are not to uncover the nakedness of both a woman and her daughter. You are not to take her son’s daughter, or her daughter’s daughter, to uncover her nakedness, for they are direct relatives. That is wickedness. ¹⁸You are not to marry your wife’s sister, to be a rival, uncovering her nakedness, while her sister is still alive.

Other Forbidden Relations

¹⁹“You are not to approach a woman to uncover her nakedness while she is in the impurity of her niddah.
²⁰You are not to lie sexually with your neighbor’s wife and defile yourself with her.

²⁷“For all these abominations were done by the men of the land who were before you, and the land became defiled. ²⁸If you defile it, the land will vomit you out as it vomited out the nation that was before you. ²⁹For whoever does any of these detestable things, the souls that do them are to be cut off from the midst of their people. ³⁰Therefore, you are to keep My charge, so that you do not practice any of these detestable customs that were practiced before you, so that you do not defile yourselves by them. I am ADONAI your God.”

Parashat Kedoshim

Holiness Code

19 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ²“Speak to all the congregation of Bnei-Yisrael and tell them: You shall be kedoshim, for I, ADONAI your God, am holy.

³“Each one of you is to respect his mother and his father, and keep My Shabbatot. I am ADONAI your God.

⁵“When you bring a sacrifice of fellowship offerings to ADONAI, you are to offer it so that you may be accepted. ⁶It is to be eaten the same day you offer it, and the next day. But if anything remains until the third day, it is to be burned with fire. ⁷If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is disgusting. It will not be accepted. ⁸Rather, anyone who eats it will bear his iniquity, since he has profaned what is holy to ADONAI, and that soul will be cut off from his people.

⁹“When you reap the harvest of your land, you are not to reap to the very corners of your field, nor are you to gather the gleanings of your harvest. ¹⁰You are not to pick the remnants of your vineyard, nor are you to gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard. Instead, you are to leave them for the poor and for the outsider. I am ADONAI your God.

¹¹“You are not to steal. You are not to lie. You are not to deceive one another.

¹²“You are not to swear by My Name falsely, and so profane the Name of your God. I am ADONAI.

¹³“You are not to oppress your neighbor, nor rob him. The wages of a hired servant are not to remain with you all night until the morning.

¹⁶“You are not to go up and down as a talebearer among your people. You are not to endanger the life of your neighbor. I am ADONAI.

¹⁷“You are not to hate your brother in your heart. Instead, you are to firmly rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of him. ¹⁸You are not to take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, but love your neighbor as yourself. † I am ADONAI.

¹⁹“You must keep My statutes. You are not to cross-breed different kinds of animals. You are not to sow your field with two kinds of seed, nor are you to wear a garment woven of two kinds of material.

²⁰“If a man lies sexually with a woman who is a slave girl, pledged to be married to another man, but not ransomed or given her freedom, they are both to be punished. But they are not to be put to death, because she was not free. ²¹He is to bring his trespass offering to ADONAI, to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting—a ram for a guilt offering. ²²The kohen is to make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before ADONAI for his sin that he committed, and the sin that he committed will be forgiven him.

²³“When you come into the land and have planted all kinds of trees for food, you are to consider their fruit as forbidden. Three years it will be forbidden to you. It is not to be eaten. ²⁴Then in the fourth year all its fruit will be holy, for giving praise to ADONAI. ²⁵In the fifth year you may eat its fruit. So it will yield its increase to you. I am ADONAI your God.

²⁷“You are not to round off the hair on the sides of your heads, nor are you to mar the edge of your beard. ²⁸You are not to make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead or make any tattoo marks upon yourself. I am ADONAI.

† cf. Mark 12:31.

²⁹ “Do not defile your daughter, to make her a prostitute, so that the land does not fall into prostitution, and become full of wickedness.

³⁰ “You are to keep My Shabbatot, and reverence My Sanctuary. I am ADONAI.

³¹ “Do not turn to those who are mediums or to soothsayers. Do not seek them out to be defiled by them. I am ADONAI your God.

³² “You are to rise up in the presence of the gray-haired and honor the presence of the elderly. So you will fear your God. I am ADONAI.

³³ “If an outsider dwells with you in your land, you should do him no wrong. ³⁴ The outsider dwelling among you shall be to you as the native-born among you. You should love him as yourself—for you dwelled as outsiders in the land of Egypt. I am ADONAI your God.

³⁵ “You must not be dishonest in judgment—in measurements of length, weight or of quantity. ³⁶ You are to have honest balances, honest weights, honest bushel-measure and an honest gallon. † I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt. ³⁷ You must observe all My statutes and all My ordinances—do them. I am ADONAI.”

Idols and the Occult

20 ADONAI spoke to Moses saying: ² “Moreover, you are to tell Bnei-Yisrael: Anyone from Bnei-Yisrael or from the outsiders dwelling in Israel, who gives any of his children to Molech, shall surely be put to death. The people of the land are to stone him with rocks. ³ I also will set My face against such a person and will cut him off from among his people, because he has given his children to Molech, defiling My Sanctuary and profaning My holy Name. ⁴ But if the people of the land all hide their eyes from that person, when he gives of his seed to Molech, and do not put him to death, ⁵ then I will set My face against that man and against his family, and will cut him off, along with all who play the prostitute after him with Molech, from among their people.

⁶ “The soul that turns to mediums or to soothsayers, prostituting himself with them, I will set My face against that soul and will cut him off from among his people. ⁷ So consecrate yourselves and be holy, for I am ADONAI your God. ⁸ You are to keep My statutes, and do them. I am ADONAI who sanctifies you.

⁹ “Any man who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death. He has cursed his father or mother, and his blood should be on him.

¹⁰ “The man who commits adultery with another man’s wife, who commits adultery with his friend’s wife, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

¹¹ “If a man lies with his father’s wife, and has uncovered his father’s nakedness, both of them shall surely be put to death, and their blood shall be on them. ¹² If a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death. They have committed a perversion, and their blood shall be on them. ¹³ If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination, and they shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be on them. ¹⁴ If a man takes a wife and her mother, it is wickedness. They shall be burned with fire—both he and they, so that there may be no wickedness among you. ¹⁵ If a man lies with an animal, he shall surely be put to death, and you are to kill the animal. ¹⁶ If a woman approaches any animal, and lies down with it, you are to kill the woman and the animal. They shall surely be put to death, and their blood shall be on them. ¹⁷ If a man takes his sister, his father’s daughter, or his mother’s daughter, and sees her nakedness, and she his, it is a shameful thing. They are to be cut off in the sight of the children of their people, for he has uncovered his sister’s nakedness, and will bear his iniquity. ¹⁸ If a man lies with a woman during her niddah and exposes her nakedness, he has exposed her flow and she has uncovered the flow of her blood. Both of them are to be cut off from among their people. ¹⁹ You are not to uncover the nakedness of your mother’s sister, or your father’s sister, for the one who does that has made his close relative naked, and will bear his iniquity. ²⁰ If a man lies with his aunt, he has uncovered his uncle’s nakedness. They shall bear their sin, and die childless. ²¹ If a man takes his brother’s wife, it is an impurity. He has uncovered his brother’s nakedness, and they will be childless.

²² “Now you are to keep all My statutes and all My ordinances and do them, so that the land where I am bringing you to dwell will not vomit you out. ²³ You are not to walk in the ways of the nation which I am casting out before you, for they did all these things and therefore I abhorred them. ²⁴ But I have said to you, ‘You will inherit their land and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey.’ I am ADONAI your God, who has set you apart from the peoples.

²⁵ “Also you are to make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean bird and the clean. And you are not to make your souls detestable by an animal or by a bird, or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have set apart as unclean for you. ²⁶ You are to be holy to Me, for I, ADONAI, am holy, and have set you apart from the peoples, so that you would be Mine.

²⁷ “A man or a woman who is a medium or is a soothsayer shall surely be put to death. They shall stone them with rocks, and their blood shall be on them.”

† Hebrew hin

Parashat Emor

Holiness Code for Kohanim

21 Then ADONAI said to Moses: "Speak to the kohanim, the sons of Aaron, and say to them: A kohen is not to allow himself to become unclean for the dead among his people, ² except for his relatives that are nearest to him—his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, his brother, ³ or his virgin sister who is near to him, who has had no husband. For her he may allow himself to become unclean. ⁴ But he is not to defile himself—a husband among his people—and so profane himself.

⁵ " Kohanim are not to shave their heads, nor shave off the corners of their beards, nor make any cuttings in their flesh. ⁶ They are to be holy to their God, and not profane the Name of their God, for they present the offerings of ADONAI made by fire, the bread of their God. Therefore they are to be holy. ⁷ They are not to marry women who are defiled as prostitutes, or profane. Neither should they marry women divorced from their husbands, for a kohen is holy to his God. ⁸ Therefore you are to sanctify him, because he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you, for I, ADONAI, who sanctifies you, am holy.

¹³ "He should take a wife in her virginity. ¹⁴ A widow, or one divorced, or one who has been defiled as a prostitute, he is not to marry. He is to take a virgin from his own people as a wife, ¹⁵ so as not to corrupt his offspring among his people. For I am ADONAI who sanctifies him."

¹⁶ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁷ "Say to Aaron: None of your offspring throughout their generations who has a defect may approach to offer the food of his God. ¹⁸ Any man who has a defect is not to draw near: no one blind or lame or disfigured or deformed, ¹⁹ or a man who has a crippled foot or crippled hand ²⁰ or a hunchback or dwarf, or who has an eye defect or a rash or scabs, or who has damaged testicles. ²¹ None of the offspring of Aaron the kohen who has a defect should come near to present the offerings of ADONAI made by fire. Since he has a defect, he is not to come near to offer the food of his God. ²² He may eat the food of his God, both from the most holy and the holy. ²³ But he is not to approach the curtain or come near the altar, because of the defect on him, so that he may not desecrate My sanctuaries, for I am ADONAI who sanctifies them."

22 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ² "Tell Aaron and his sons to separate themselves from the holy things of Bnei-Yisrael, which they consecrate to Me, so that they would not profane My holy Name. I am ADONAI. ³ Tell them, if anyone of all your offspring throughout your generations approaches the holy things, which Bnei-Yisrael consecrate to ADONAI, while in a state of uncleanness, that soul will be cut off from before Me. I am ADONAI.

⁴ "None of the offspring of Aaron who has tzara'at or has a discharge should eat of the holy things until he is clean. Whoever touches anything that is unclean by the dead or a man whose seed discharges from him ⁵ or who touches any creeping thing that may make him unclean or a person who is unclean—whatever his uncleanness— ⁶ the person who touches any such thing will be unclean until the evening, and is not to eat of the holy things, unless he has bathed his body in water. ⁷ When the sun sets, he will become clean, and afterward he may eat of the holy things, because it is his food. ⁸ A carcass or what is torn by beasts he is not to eat, becoming unclean by it. I am ADONAI.

¹⁰ "No layman is to eat from the holy offering. A foreigner living with the kohanim or a hired servant is not to eat from the holy offering. ¹¹ But if a kohen buys a slave purchased by his money, that one may eat from it. Also those born in his house may eat his food. ¹² If a kohen's daughter is married to a layman, she is not to eat from the gifts of the holy offerings. ¹³ But if a kohen's daughter is a widow or divorced, and has no child and has returned to her father's house as in her youth, she may eat from her father's food. But no layman may eat any of it.

¹⁴ "If anyone eats something holy unwittingly, then he is to add a fifth to it and give the holy offering to the kohen. ¹⁵ They are not to profane the holy offerings of Bnei-Yisrael, which they lift up to ADONAI, ¹⁶ so causing them to bear the iniquity that brings guilt when they eat the holy offerings. For I am ADONAI who sanctifies them."

¹⁷ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁸ "Speak to Aaron and to his sons, and to all Bnei-Yisrael, and say to them: Whoever is from the house of Israel, or one of the outsiders in Israel who brings his offering, whether it be any of their vows or any of their freewill offerings that they present to ADONAI for a burnt offering— ¹⁹ for you to be accepted—you are to offer a male without blemish, from the bulls, the sheep or the goats. ²⁰ But whatever has a blemish you are not to present, for it will not be acceptable on your behalf.

^{†21} Whoever brings a sacrifice of fellowship offerings to ADONAI to fulfill a vow or for a freewill offering, either from the herd or the flock, it must be unblemished to be accepted—there must be no defect on it. ²² The blind, injured, maimed, having an abnormal growth or festering or a running sore are not to be offered to ADONAI, or given as an offering by fire on the altar to ADONAI. ²³ For a freewill offering you may present a bull or a lamb that has any deformity or lacking in its parts, but for a vow it will not be accepted. ²⁴ Whatever has its testicles bruised, crushed, broken or cut, you are not to offer to ADONAI, nor are you to do so in your own land. ²⁵ Moreover, you are not to offer the food of your God from the hand of an outsider from any of these animals. For their corruption is within them—they have a defect. They will not be accepted on your behalf.”

²⁶ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁷ “When a bull, a sheep or a goat is born, then it is to remain seven days with its mother, and from the eighth day onward it will be accepted as the gift of an offering made by fire to ADONAI. ²⁸ If it is a cow or ewe, you are not to slaughter it along with its young, both in one day. ²⁹ When you offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to ADONAI, you are to present it so that you may be accepted. ³⁰ It is to be eaten on the same day. You are to leave none of it until the morning. I am ADONAI.

³¹ “So you are to keep My mitzvot and do them. I am ADONAI. ³² You must not profane My holy Name, for I will be made holy among Bnei-Yisrael. I am ADONAI who makes you holy, ³³ who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am ADONAI.”

Biblical Feasts

23 Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ² “Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, and tell them: These are the appointed moadim of ADONAI, which you are to proclaim to be holy convocations—My moadim.

³ “Work may be done for six days, but the seventh day is a Shabbat of solemn rest, a holy convocation. You are to do no work—it is a Shabbat to ADONAI in all your dwellings.

Pesach and Feast of Matzot

⁴ “These are the appointed feasts of ADONAI, holy convocations which you are to proclaim in their appointed season. ⁵ During the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening, is ADONAI’s Passover. ⁶ On the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Matzot to ADONAI. For seven days you are to eat matzah. ⁷ On the first day you are to have a holy convocation and you should do no regular work. ⁸ Instead you are to present an offering made by fire to ADONAI for seven days. On the seventh day is a holy convocation, when you are to do no regular work.”

Bikkurim and Shavuot

⁹ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ¹⁰ “Speak to Bnei-Yisrael and tell them: When you have come into the land which I give to you, and reap its harvest, then you are to bring the omer ^{††} of the firstfruits of your harvest to the kohen. ¹¹ He is to wave the omer before ADONAI, to be accepted for you. On the morrow after the Shabbat, the kohen is to wave it. ¹² On the day when you wave the omer you are to offer a male lamb without blemish, one year old, as a burnt offering to ADONAI. ¹³ The grain offering with it should be two tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil—an offering made by fire to ADONAI for a soothing aroma. Its drink offering with it should be a quarter of a gallon [‡] of wine. ¹⁴ You are not to eat bread, roasted grain, or fresh grain until this same day—until you have brought the offering of your God. It is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

¹⁵ “Then you are to count from the morrow after the Shabbat, from the day that you brought the omer ^{††} of the wave offering, seven complete Shabbatot. ¹⁶ Until the morrow after the seventh Shabbat you are to count fifty days, ^{‡‡} and then present a new grain offering to ADONAI. ¹⁷ You are to bring out of your houses two loaves of bread for a wave offering, made of two tenths of an ephah of fine flour. They are to be baked with hametz as firstfruits to ADONAI. ¹⁸ You are to present, along with the bread, seven one-year-old lambs without blemish, one young bull, and two rams. They will become a burnt offering to ADONAI, with their meal offering, and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to ADONAI. ¹⁹ Also you are to offer one male goat for a sin offering and a pair of year-old male lambs for a sacrifice of fellowship offerings. ²⁰ The kohen is to wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before ADONAI, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to ADONAI for the kohen. ²¹ You are to make a proclamation on the same day that there is to be a holy convocation, and you should do no regular work. This is a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

²² “Now when you reap the harvest of your land, you are not to reap to the furthest corners of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Rather you are to leave them for the poor and for the outsider. I am ADONAI your God.”

Fall Festivals

²³ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁴ “Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, saying: In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you are to have a Shabbat rest, a memorial of blowing (shofarot), ^{‡‡†} a holy convocation. ²⁵ You are to do no regular work, and you are to present an offering made by fire to ADONAI.”

†† About 6 pints of barley flour. ‡ Hebrew hin †† A measure of flour. ‡‡ cf. Acts 2:1. ‡‡† pl. of shofar, Feast of Trumpets

²⁶ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ²⁷ “However, the tenth day of this seventh month is Yom Kippur, [†] a holy convocation to you, so you are to afflict yourselves. You are to bring an offering made by fire to ADONAI. ²⁸ You are not to do any kind of work on that set day, for it is Yom Kippur, to make atonement for you before ADONAI your God. ²⁹ For anyone who does not deny himself on that day must be cut off from his people. ³⁰ Anyone who does any kind of work on that day, that person I will destroy from among his people. ³¹ You should do no kind of work. It is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. ³² It is to be a Shabbat of solemn rest for you, and you are to humble your souls. On the ninth day of the month in the evening—from evening until evening—you are to keep your Shabbat.”

³³ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ³⁴ “Speak to Bnei-Yisrael, and say: On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the Feast of Sukkot, for seven days to ADONAI. ^{††35} On the first day there is to be a holy convocation—you are to do no laborious work. ³⁶ For seven days you are to bring an offering by fire to ADONAI. The eighth day will be a holy convocation to you, and you are to bring an offering by fire to ADONAI. It is a solemn assembly—you should do no laborious work.

³⁷ “These are the moadim of ADONAI, which you are to proclaim to be holy convocations, to present an offering by fire to ADONAI—a burnt offering, a grain offering, a sacrifice and drink offerings, each on its own day, ³⁸ besides those of the Shabbatot of ADONAI and besides your gifts, all your vows and all your freewill offerings which you give to ADONAI .

³⁹ “So on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the fruits of the land, you are to keep the Feast of ADONAI for seven days. The first day is to be a Shabbat rest, and the eighth day will also be a Shabbat rest. ⁴⁰ On the first day you are to take choice fruit of trees, branches of palm trees, [‡] boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook, and rejoice before ADONAI your God for seven days. ⁴¹ You are to celebrate it as a festival to ADONAI for seven days in the year. It is a statute forever throughout your generations—you are to celebrate it in the seventh month. ⁴² You are to live in sukkot for seven days. All the native-born in Israel are to live in sukkot, ⁴³ so that your generations may know that I had Bnei-Yisrael to dwell in sukkot when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am ADONAI your God.”

⁴⁴ So Moses declared to Bnei-Yisrael the moadim of ADONAI .

Eternal Light and Bread

24 Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ² “Order Bnei-Yisrael to bring to you pure olive oil, beaten for the light, to keep a lamp burning continually. ³ Outside of the curtain of the Testimony, in the Tent of Meeting, Aaron is to keep it in order from evening to morning before ADONAI continually. It is to be a statute forever throughout your generations. ⁴ He is to keep the lamps in order on the pure gold menorah before ADONAI continually.

⁵ “Also you are to take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes of it, with two tenths of an ephah in each cake. ⁶ Then you are to set them in two rows, six in a row, on the pure gold table before ADONAI . ⁷ Set pure frankincense on each row, as a memorial portion for the bread, an offering by fire to ADONAI . ⁸ Every Yom Shabbat he is to set it in order before ADONAI continually. It is an everlasting covenant on behalf of Bnei-Yisrael . ⁹ It belongs to Aaron and his sons, and they are to eat it in a holy place, for it is most holy to him among the offerings of ADONAI by fire, as a perpetual statute.”

Justice and Restitution

¹⁰ Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among Bnei-Yisrael, and a fight broke out between the Israelite woman’s son and an Israelite man. ¹¹ The Israelite woman’s son blasphemed the Name, and cursed, so they brought him to Moses. His mother’s name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan. ¹² They put him in custody, until the will of ADONAI could be declared to them.

¹⁵ “Then you will speak to Bnei-Yisrael, saying: Whoever curses his God will bear his sin. ¹⁶ Whoever blasphemes the Name of ADONAI must surely be put to death. The whole congregation must stone him. The outsider as well as the native-born, when he blasphemes the Name, is to be put to death.

¹⁷ “Whoever mortally strikes down any man must surely be put to death. ¹⁸ Whoever mortally strikes down an animal is to make restitution—life for life. ¹⁹ If anyone injures his neighbor, as he has done, the same is to be done to him: ²⁰ fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. ^{‡†} Just as he has injured someone, so it should it be done to him.

²¹ “Whoever kills an animal is to make restitution, but the one who kills a man is to be put to death. ²² You are to have one standard of justice for the outsider as well as the native-born, for I am ADONAI your God.”

²³ So Moses spoke to Bnei-Yisrael, and they led the one who had cursed out of the camp, then stoned him with rocks. Thus Bnei-Yisrael did as ADONAI commanded Moses.

Shabbat Year and Jubilee

25 Then ADONAI said to Moses on Mount Sinai, 2 "Speak to Bnei-Yisrael and tell them: When you come into the land which I give you, then the land is to keep a Shabbat to ADONAI. 3 For six years you may sow your field and for six years you may prune your vineyard and gather in its fruits. 4 But in the seventh year there is to be a Shabbat rest for the land—a Shabbat to ADONAI. You are not to sow your field or prune your vineyard. 5 You are not to reap what grows by itself during your harvest nor gather the grapes of your untended vine. It is to be a year of Shabbat rest for the land. 6 Whatever the Shabbat of the land produces will be food for yourself, for your servant, for your maid-servant, for your hired worker and for the outsider dwelling among you. 7 Even for your livestock and for the animals that are in your land—all its increase will be enough food.

8 "You are to count off seven Shabbatot of years—seven times seven years, so that the time is seven Shabbatot of years—49 years. 9 Then on the tenth day of the seventh month, on Yom Kippur, you are to sound a shofar blast—you are to sound the shofar all throughout your land. 10 You are to make the fiftieth year holy, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It is to be a Jubilee to you, when each of you is to return to his own property and each of you is to return to his family. 11 That fiftieth year will be your Jubilee. You are not to sow, or reap that which grows by itself, or gather from the untended vines. 12 Since it is a Jubilee, it is to be holy to you. You will eat from its increase out of the field.

13 "In this Year of Jubilee each of you will return to his property.

14 "If you sell anything to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor, you are not to wrong one another.

15 Corresponding to the number of years after the Jubilee you are to purchase land from your neighbor's hand. He is to sell it to you based on the number of years of crops. 16 In proportion to the extent of years you may increase its price, or decrease its price in proportion to the fewness of years, because he is selling a number of harvests to you. 17 You are not to cheat one another, but fear your God, for I am ADONAI your God.

18 "Therefore you are to keep My statutes and observe My ordinances, and carry them out, so that you may live securely in the land. 19 Then the land will yield its fruit, and you may eat your fill and live there in safety. 20 Now if you ask: What are we to eat during the seventh year if, see, we are not to sow, nor gather in our increase? 21 Now I will command My blessing to you in the sixth year, so that it will yield a harvest sufficient for three years. 22 When you sow during the eighth year, you will still be eating the old, stored harvest until the harvest of the ninth year comes in.

23 "Moreover, the land is not to be sold permanently, because the land is Mine. For you are sojourners with Me. 24 For any land you possess, you are to provide for redemption of the land.

25 "If your brother becomes poor and sells some of his property, then his nearest kinsman may come and redeem what his brother has sold. 26 If a man has no kinsman-redeemer, but he himself recovers and finds sufficient means to redeem it, 27 then let him reckon the years since its sale and restore the surplus to the man to whom he sold it. Then he will return to his property. 28 But if he is not able to get it back for himself, then what he has sold is to remain in the hand of the one who has bought it until the Year of Jubilee. Then in the Jubilee it should be released, so he may return to his property.

29 "If a man sells a house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it has been sold. For a full year he has the right of redemption. 30 But if it is not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city will belong permanently to the one who bought it throughout his generations. It will not be released in the Jubilee. 31 But the houses of the villages that have no wall around them are to be considered as open country. They have redemption rights and are to be released in the Jubilee.

32 "But as for the towns of the Levites, the Levites may have a permanent right of redemption for the houses in the towns of their possession. 33 The Levites may redeem a house sold in the town of its possession. Also it should be released in the Jubilee, for the houses of the Levitical towns are their possession among Bnei-Yisrael. 34 But the fields in the pasturelands of their cities may not be sold, for it is their permanent possession.

35 "If your brother has become poor and his hand cannot support himself among you, then you are to uphold him. He may live with you like an outsider or a temporary resident. 36 Take no excessive interest from him, but fear your God, so that your brother can live with you. 37 You are not to lend him your money at interest, nor give him your food for profit. 38 I am ADONAI your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

39 "If your brother has grown poor among you and sells himself to you, you must not subject him to slave labor. 40 Let him stay with you as a hired worker or as a temporary resident. He will work for you until the Year of Jubilee, 41 then he is to be released from you—he and his children with him—and may return to his own family and to the property of his fathers. 42 For they are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. They are not to be sold in a slave sale. 43 You are not to rule over him with harshness, but fear your God.

⁴⁴“As for your male and female slaves whom you may acquire out of the nations that are around you—from them you may buy male and female slaves. ⁴⁵You may also acquire from among the children of the foreigners dwelling among you, as well as from their families who are with you—those born in your land—they may also become your property. ⁴⁶You may also leave them an inheritance for your children after you, to receive as a possession. These may become your slaves permanently. But over your brothers, Bnei-Yisrael, you must not rule over one another with harshness.

⁴⁷“If an outsider or sojourner with you becomes rich, while your brother beside him has become poor and sells himself to the outsider dwelling among you or to a member of the outsider’s family, ⁴⁸after he is sold he may be redeemed. One of his brothers may redeem him, ⁴⁹or his uncle or his uncle’s son may redeem him, or anyone who is a close relative to him from his family may also redeem him. Or if he has grown rich, he may redeem himself. ⁵⁰He is to calculate with the one who bought him, from the year that he sold himself to the Year of Jubilee, and the price of his sale will be in proportion to the number of years. Like the days of a hired worker it will be with him. ⁵¹If there are still many years, in proportion to those he is to reimburse the price of his redemption from his purchase price. ⁵²If there remain only a few years until the Year of Jubilee, then he should calculate with him in proportion to his years of service he is to reimburse the price of his redemption. ⁵³He will stay with him as a hired worker, year by year. But he is not to rule with harshness over him in your sight. ⁵⁴Even if he is not redeemed by these means, then he will still be released in the Year of Jubilee—he and his children with him. ⁵⁵For Bnei-Yisrael are My servants—My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am ADONAI your God.

26 “You are not to make idols for yourselves, nor raise up an engraved image or a standing-stone, or place any carved stone in your land to bow down to it. For I am ADONAI your God.

²“You are to keep My Shabbatot and have reverence for My Sanctuary. I am ADONAI.

Faithfulness Ensures Blessings

³“If you walk in My statutes, keep My mitzvot and carry them out, ⁴then I will give you rains in their season, the land will yield its crops, and the trees of the field will yield their fruit. ⁵Your threshing will last until grape gathering, the grape gathering will last until the sowing time, you will eat your bread to the full, and live securely in your land.

⁶“I will bring shalom in the land, and you will lie down, with no one making you afraid. I will remove dangerous beasts from the land and no sword will pass through your land. ⁷You will chase your enemies and they will fall before you by the sword. ⁸Five of you will chase 100 and 100 of you will chase 10,000, and your enemies will fall by the sword before you.

⁹“I will turn toward you, make you fruitful and multiply you, and I will confirm My covenant with you. ¹⁰You will eat the old harvest and clear out the old because of the new. ¹¹I will set My Tabernacle among you, and My soul will not abhor you. ¹²I will walk among you and will be your God, and you will be My people. ¹³I am ADONAI your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, so that you would not be their slaves, and I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk upright.

Faithlessness Ensures Misery

¹⁴“But if you will not listen to Me, nor carry out all these mitzvot, ¹⁵and if you reject My statutes and if your soul abhors My ordinances, so that you do not keep all My mitzvot, but instead break My covenant, ¹⁶then I will do the following to you in return. I will appoint terror over you, wasting disease and fever that will dim the eyes and cause the soul to pine away. You will sow your seed in vain, because your enemies will eat it. ¹⁷I will set My face against you and you will be routed before your enemies. Those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one pursues you.

¹⁸“If you, in spite of these things, will not listen to Me, then I will chastise you seven times more for your sins. ¹⁹I will break your pride of power. I will make your sky like iron and your earth like bronze. ²⁰Also your strength will be spent in vain, for your land will not yield its increase, nor will the trees of the land yield their fruit.

²³“Now if in spite of these things you will not be chastened by Me, but walk contrary to Me instead, ²⁴then I will also walk contrary to you. Then I will strike you, I Myself, seven times for your sins. ²⁵I will bring a sword upon you that will execute the vengeance of the covenant, and you will be gathered together inside your cities. I will send the pestilence among you and you will be given into the hand of the enemy. ²⁶When I break your staff of bread, ten women will bake your bread in one oven, and they will bring back your bread by weight, so that you will eat but not be satisfied.

²⁷“Yet, if in spite of this you will not listen to Me but walk contrary to Me, ²⁸then I will walk contrary to you in wrath. So I will chastise you seven times for your sins. ²⁹ You will eat the flesh of your sons and you will eat the flesh of your daughters. ³⁰ I will destroy your high places and cut down your altars of incense, cast your dead bodies upon the bodies of your idols, and My soul will abhor you. ³¹ I will lay waste your cities and devastate your sanctuaries. I will not smell your soothing aromas. ³² I will make the land desolate and your enemies settling there will be astonished at it. ³³ I will scatter you among the nations and I will draw out the sword after you. So your land will become a desolation and your cities will become a waste. ³⁴ Then the land will enjoy its Shabbatot all the days of its desolation, while you are in the land of your enemies. Then the land will rest and enjoy its Shabbatot. ³⁵ As long as it lies desolate it will have rest, that rest which it did not have from your Shabbatot, when you lived on it.

³⁶ "As for those who remain, I will bring weakness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, so that the sound of a driven leaf will put them to flight, and they will flee as one flees from the sword and fall, even when no one is pursuing. ³⁷ They will stumble over one another, as if before the sword, when no one pursues, and you will have no strength to stand before your enemies. ³⁸ You will perish among the nations and the land of your enemies will devour you. ³⁹ Those of you who are left in the land of your enemies will rot away because of their iniquity, and because of the iniquities of their fathers they will rot away with them.

ADONAI Remembers His Own

⁴⁰ "But if they confess their iniquity and that of their fathers, in the treachery they committed against Me, and how they walked contrary to Me ⁴¹ —in return I walked contrary to them and brought them into the land of their enemies—and if at that time their uncircumcised heart becomes humbled, so that they accept the punishment for their iniquity, ⁴² then I will remember My covenant with Jacob and also My covenant with Isaac and My covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land. ⁴³ But the land will be deserted by them and will enjoy its Shabbatot while it lies desolate without them, and they will accept the punishment of their iniquity, because they rejected My ordinances and their soul abhorred My statutes.

⁴⁴ "Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, nor will I hate them into utter destruction, and break My covenant with them, for I am ADONAI their God. ⁴⁵ But for their sake I will remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. I am ADONAI."

⁴⁶ These are the statutes, ordinances and laws, which ADONAI made between Himself and Bnei-Yisrael at Mount Sinai by Moses.

Divine Appraisals

²⁷ Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying: ² "Speak to Bnei-Yisrael and say to them: When anyone makes a special vow to ADONAI involving the valuation of persons, ³ then your valuation of a male from 20 years old to 60 years old should be 50 shekels of silver, after the shekel of the Sanctuary. ⁴ If it is a female, then your valuation should be 30 shekels. ⁵ If the person is from five years to 20 years old, then your valuation is to be 20 shekels for a male and ten shekels for a female. ⁶ If the person is from one month to five years old, then your valuation is to be five shekels of silver for a male and three shekels of silver for a female. ⁷ If the person is from 60 years old and upward, if it is a male, then your valuation is to be 15 shekels and for a female ten shekels. ⁸ But if he is poorer than your valuation, then he is to be set before the kohen and the kohen will set a value for him, in keeping with what the one who made the vow can afford.

⁹ "Now if it is an animal that may be brought as an offering to ADONAI, anything that one gives to ADONAI will be holy. ¹⁰ He is not to replace it or exchange it, either good for bad, or bad for good. But if he does exchange one animal for another, then both it and the one for which it is exchanged will become holy. ¹¹ If it is any sort of unclean animal that may not be brought as an offering to ADONAI, then he is to set that animal before the kohen. ¹² The kohen is to evaluate it, whether it is good or bad. As the kohen values it, so it will be. ¹³ But if he would redeem it, then he is to add a fifth to its valuation.

¹⁴ "If a man consecrates his house as holy to ADONAI, then the kohen is to evaluate it, whether it is good or bad. As the kohen evaluates it, so it will stand. ¹⁵ If the one who dedicates it would redeem his own house, then he is to add a fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it will become his.

¹⁶ "If one consecrates to ADONAI part of the field of his possession, then your valuation is to be in proportion to the seed to sow it: an omer of barley at 50 shekels of silver. ¹⁷ If he dedicates his field from the Year of Jubilee, it will stand according to your own valuation. ¹⁸ But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, then the kohen is to calculate for him the money according to the years that remain until the Year of Jubilee, with a deduction to be made from your valuation. ¹⁹ If he who dedicated the field would ever redeem it, then he is to add a fifth of the money of your valuation to it, and it will remain his. ²⁰ But if he will not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to someone else, it may not be redeemed anymore. ²¹ But the field, when it is released in the Jubilee, will be holy to ADONAI as a consecrated field. It will be owned by the kohanim.

²² "Now if one consecrates to ADONAI a field that he has bought, which is not from the fields of his possession, ²³ then the kohen is to calculate for him the worth of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee, and give your valuation on that day as a holy thing to ADONAI. ²⁴In the Year of Jubilee the field is to return to the one from whom it was bought, to the one to whom the possession of the land belongs. ²⁵All your valuations should be according to the shekel of the Sanctuary, 20 gerahs to the shekel.

²⁶“But the firstborn among animals, which is made a firstborn to ADONAI, may be dedicated by anyone. Whether an ox or sheep, it belongs to ADONAI. ²⁷If it is an unclean animal, then he is to buy it back according to your valuation, and add a fifth of the value to it. But if it is not redeemed, then it is to be sold according to your valuation.

²⁸“Nevertheless, no devoted thing which a man sets apart from all that he has for ADONAI, whether man or animal, or from the field of his possession, may be sold or redeemed. Every devoted thing is most holy to ADONAI.

²⁹“No one who may be set apart from men for destruction is to be ransomed. He is surely to be put to death.

³⁴These are the mitzvot which ADONAI commanded Moses for Bnei-Yisrael on Mount Sinai.

Numbers Introduction

The book's English name, "Numbers," comes from the Greek Septuagint word . This makes reference to the census taken. In Hebrew, however, Numbers is known as meaning "in the wilderness." The book recounts Israel's journey with God through the wilderness—and notes how all too often they walked without Him and suffered numerical attrition as a result.

The book begins with the Hebrews encamped at Mount Sinai; then, it moves with them to Kadesh Barnea, at the border of Canaan. From there, twelve spies departed on a reconnaissance mission, but they returned with an evil report. Thus dispirited Israelites eventually leave and wander till they make their way to the steppes of Moab at journey's end, east of the Jordan River.

In the wilderness, God builds the character needed for His nation to enter into its inheritance when the time is right. The book begins with the nation still camped at Mount Sinai—just after the priests have received instruction, and the Tabernacle has been erected. This attended to, it is time to restructure the new generation to cleave to God and make their way to the land He gave them to inherit. Two weeks after Passover, during the counting period, a census is taken. The army is numbered, as is the priesthood. At the center of the camp, stands the Tabernacle. It is surrounded by the priesthood, which functions as the gatekeeper to keep the unholy or the unclean from entering the zone of greatest holiness, where God resides.

When the cloud of God's guidance lifts and moves, the Tabernacle moves along with it. Israel moves through forty-two resting places in thirty-eight years—including a single stop at Kadesh Barnea for nineteen years. The Hebrews walk in circles till the first generation dies off. Only the humble and faithful Joshua and Caleb, the priests, the women, the children, who saw Moses bring down the Tablets and those now being born, will live to inherit the Land. Only those who cleave to God will remain alive when the time comes to cross over. The book concludes, after covering thirty-eight years, with elderly priests, a next-generation army, women, and children perched outside the Land—all standing at the steppes of Moab, awaiting final instructions from Moses.

With the New Covenant noting how Israel's wilderness affairs are "examples for us" (1 Cor. 10:1-13, esp. v. 6), we all do well to read this book with an open heart and with a fresh set of eyes, desiring to see how the ancient Word applies to our lives in the modern world.

Census of Fighting Men

¹ In the wilderness of Sinai, on the first day of the second month in the second year from the Exodus from the land of Egypt, ADONAI spoke to Moses in the Tent of Meeting saying, ² "Do a head count of all the community of Bnei-Yisrael by their families and their ancestral house, with a total of every male one by one. ³ You and Aaron are to muster by their divisions every son from 20 years and upward available to serve in the army of Israel. ⁴ One man from each tribe, each head of his father's household, is to assist you.

⁵ "These then are the names of the men who will assist you: from Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur. ⁶ From

Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai. ⁷ From Judah, Nahshon son of Amminadab. ⁸ From Issachar, Nethanel son of Zuar. ⁹ From Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon. ¹⁰ From the sons of Joseph—from Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud, from Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur. ¹¹ From Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideoni. ¹² From Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

¹³ "From Asher, Pagiel son of Ochran. ¹⁴ From Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel. ¹⁵ From Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan." ¹⁶ These were those selected from the community, princes of their ancestral tribes. They were heads of the thousands of Israel.

¹⁷ So Moses and Aaron took these men designated by name. ¹⁸ They assembled all the community on the first day of the second month. They declared their lineage according to their families, the households of their forefathers, with the number of the names of those 20 years old and upward being listed individually.¹⁹ Moses numbered Israel in the wilderness of Sinai just as ADONAI had commanded him.

²⁶ From the sons of Judah (their generations, by their families, their ancestral households, the count of their names, all who would go out with the army),²⁷ those counted from the tribe of Judah were 74,600.

⁴⁰ From the sons of Asher (their generations by their families, their ancestral households, by number everyone 20 years old and upward who could go out with the army),⁴¹ those counted from the tribe of Asher were 41,500.

⁴⁴ These were the ones numbered—Moses, Aaron and the princes of Israel counted them. Each of the twelve men represented his ancestral house.⁴⁵ So all those counted from Bnei-Yisrael, according to their ancestral houses, from 20 years old and up—all able to go out with the army in Israel—⁴⁶ all those who were counted totaled 603,550.

Duties of the Levites

⁴⁷ The Levites, however, were not counted by the tribe of their ancestors,⁴⁸ for ADONAI told Moses saying,⁴⁹ "Definitely you are not to number the tribe of Levi, nor take the sum of them among Bnei-Yisrael.⁵⁰ Instead, you are to appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the Testimony, over all its implements and all pertaining to it. They are to carry the Tabernacle and all its utensils, tend to it and camp around it.

⁵² " Bnei-Yisrael will encamp, each man with his own camp, each with his own standard, according to their own divisions.⁵³ The Levites are to camp around the Tabernacle of the Testimony, so that there will be no wrath unleashed on the community of Bnei-Yisrael. So the Levites are to maintain care of the Tabernacle of the Testimony."

⁵⁴ So Bnei-Yisrael did—all that ADONAI commanded Moses, so they did.

Order of Ancestral Households

2 ADONAI said to Moses and Aaron saying,² "Let each man encamp under his own standard among the banners of their ancestral house at an appropriate distance around the Tent of Meeting.³ Those camping on the east—toward the sunrise—will be of the standard of Judah, according to their divisions. Nahshon son of Amminadab, is the prince of the sons of Judah.⁴ His division, by their number, is 74,600.

⁵ "Camping next to him shall be the tribe of Issachar. The prince of the sons of Issachar is Nethanel son of Zuar.⁶ Their division, by their number, is 54,400.

⁷ Next, the tribe of Zebulun. The prince of the sons of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon.⁸ His division, by count, is 57,400.

⁹ "All those numbered to Judah's camp, by their divisions, are 186,400. They are to advance first.

¹⁰ "The standard of the camp of Reuben shall be on the south side, by their divisions. The prince of the sons of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur. ¹¹ His division, by their number, is 46,500. ¹² Those camping next to them are the tribe of Simeon. The prince of the sons of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai. ¹³ His division, by their number, is 59,300. ¹⁴ Next, the tribe of Gad. The prince of the tribe of Gad is Eliasaph son of Reuel. ¹⁵ His division, by their numbers, is 45,650.

¹⁶ "All those numbered to the camp of Reuben are 151,450. They are to set out second.

³¹ "All those numbered to the camp of Dan are 157,600. They are to advance last by their standards.

³² "These are the numbers of Bnei-Yisrael, in accordance with their ancestral households. All those counted according to their divisions are 603,550."

³³ However, the Levites were not counted among Bnei-Yisrael, just as ADONAI commanded Moses. ³⁴ So Bnei-Yisrael acted in accordance with all that ADONAI had commanded Moses.

Thus they camped by their standards and set out, each man according to their families and their ancestral houses.

The Levite Families and Duties

3 These are the generations of Aaron and Moses current at the time ADONAI spoke to Moses at Mount Sinai. ² These are the names of Aaron's sons: Nadab the firstborn, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. ³ These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed kohanim whom he consecrated to be priests. ⁴ But Nadab and Abihu died before ADONAI for offering unauthorized fire † before ADONAI in the Sinai wilderness—they had no children. So Eleazar and Ithamar served as kohanim under Aaron their father.

⁵ Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶ "Gather the tribe of Levi near, and appoint them to attend to Aaron the kohen. ⁷ They are to keep watch over duties for him and the entire community before the Tent of Meeting while performing the service of the Tabernacle. ⁸ They are to tend to all the implements of the Tent of Meeting and the service of Bnei-Yisrael while performing the service of the Tabernacle. ⁹ You are to give the Levites to Aaron and his sons. Out of Bnei-Yisrael they are dedicated entirely to him. ¹⁰ You are to appoint Aaron and his sons to maintain the priesthood; any commoner who approaches must be executed."

¹¹ Then ADONAI said to Moses saying, ¹² "See, I have taken the Levites from among Bnei-Yisrael in place of the firstborn who open the womb among Bnei-Yisrael. The Levites will be Mine, ¹³ because all the firstborn are Mine. In the day when I was striking down all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I consecrated to Myself every firstborn in Israel—whether man or animal—as Mine. I am ADONAI."

¹⁴ ADONAI spoke in the Sinai wilderness to Moses saying, ¹⁵ "Count the sons of Levi. According to their ancestral house, by their families, every male a month old and upward you are to number them." ¹⁶ So Moses numbered them in accordance with the word of ADONAI, just as he was commanded.

¹⁷ These were the sons of Levi, by their names: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. ¹⁸ These then were the names of the sons of Gershon—Libni and Shimei. ¹⁹ The sons of Kohath by their families were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. ²⁰ The sons of Merari, by their families, are Mahli and Mushi. These then were the families of the Levites by their ancestral households.

²¹ To Gershon belonged the family of the Libnites and the family of the Shimeites. These were the families of the Gershonites. ²² The number of every male one month old and upward who were counted was 7,500. ²³ The Gershonites were to camp behind the Tabernacle on the west. ²⁴ The prince of the ancestral house of the Gershonites was Eliasaph son of Lael. ²⁵ The duties of the sons of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting were the Tabernacle, the tent, its coverings, the curtain of the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, ²⁶ the curtains of the courtyard, the screen of the entrance of the courtyard around the Tabernacle and altar, its ropes and all related to its use.

²⁷ To Kohath belonged the family of the Amramites, the family of the Izharites, the Hebronites and the Uzzielites. These were the Kohathite families. ²⁸ The number of every male one month old and upward was 8,600. Their duties were caring for the Sanctuary. ²⁹ The Kohathite families were to camp along the side of the Tabernacle on the south. ³⁰ The prince of the ancestral household of the Kohathites was Elizaphan son of Uzziel. ³¹ They were responsible for the Ark, the table, the menorah, the altars, and the implements of the Sanctuary used in service with them, the curtain and all involved with its use.

³² The chief prince of the Levites was Eleazar son of Aaron the kohen appointed over those whose responsibility was the care of the Sanctuary.

³³ To Merari belonged the families of the Mahlites and the Mushites. These were the families of Merari.

³⁹ All the Levites counted by Moses and Aaron at the word of ADONAI, by their families, inclusive of every male one month old and upward, were 22,000.

Redemption of the Firstborn

⁴⁰ ADONAI said to Moses, "Count every firstborn male of Bnei-Yisrael from one month old and upward and make a list of their names. ⁴¹ Set the Levites apart for me in place of all the firstborn of Bnei-Yisrael, and, all the livestock of the Levites in place of the firstborn of the livestock of Bnei-Yisrael. I am ADONAI." ⁴² So Moses counted all the firstborn of Bnei-Yisrael as ADONAI commanded him. ⁴³ The sum total of the firstborn males of Bnei-Yisrael, one month old and upward, listed by name, was 22,273.

⁴⁴ Again ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ⁴⁵ "Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn of Bnei-Yisrael, and the livestock of the Levites in place of their livestock. The Levites will be Mine. I am ADONAI." ⁴⁶ To redeem the 273 firstborn of Bnei-Yisrael exceeding the number of the Levites, ⁴⁷ you are to collect five shekels for each, based on the shekel of the Sanctuary, which is 20 gerahs. ⁴⁸ Give the money for the redemption of the extra ones of the firstborn of them to Aaron and his sons."

⁴⁹ Hence Moses collected the redemption money for those exceeding the number redeemed by the Levites. ⁵⁰ From the firstborn of Bnei-Yisrael he collected silver weighing 1,365 shekels, according to the Sanctuary shekel. ⁵¹ Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, just as ADONAI commanded him, in accordance with the mouth of ADONAI.

Preparing the Sanctuary to Move

4 ADONAI spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, ² "Take a census of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, by their families and by their ancestral households, ³ everyone from 30 years of age to 50, all who come to serve doing the work in the Tent of Meeting.

⁷ "Then over the table of the Presence they are to spread a solid blue cloth, then lay on it the plates, ladles, bowls, and jars for the drink offering. The bread that is continually there is to remain there. ⁸ Over them they are to spread a solid scarlet cloth, cover it with a covering of porpoise hide, then install its poles.

¹¹ "Over the golden altar they are to spread a blue cloth and cover that with a covering of porpoise hide, then put its poles in place.

¹² "They are to take all the utensils used for the service of the ministry of the Sanctuary, wrap them in a blue cloth, cover them with porpoise hide, and place them on a carrying frame.

¹³ "They are to remove the ashes from the altar, then spread over it a purple cloth. ¹⁴ They are to put onto it all the utensils with which they tend to the altar, among them the firepans, meat forks, shovels and sprinkling bowls. They are to spread over it a covering of porpoise hide and install its poles.

¹⁵ "When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the Sanctuary and all its holy implements, and when the camp is ready to move out, after this the sons of Kohath may come to do the carrying. But they must not touch the holy items or they will die. These are the task of the sons of Kohath with regard to the Tent of Meeting.

¹⁷ ADONAI spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, ¹⁸ "You are not to let the families of the tribe of the Kohathites be cut off from among the Levites. ¹⁹ Do this for them so that they may live and not die whenever they approach the most holy items—Aaron and his sons are to go into the Sanctuary and assign each man his job and his responsibility. ²⁰ But the Kohathites are not to go in to look at what is holy, not even momentarily, or they will die."

† A gerah

Parashat Naso

²¹ Again ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ²² "Take a census also of the sons of Gershon, by their ancestral households and by their families. ²³ Count all the males from 30 to 50 years of age, everyone coming to work in the service of the Tent of Meeting. ²⁴ This is the task of the Gershonite families in working and carrying burdens. ²⁵ They are to carry the curtains of the Tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, its covering, the outer covering of porpoise hide, the curtains for the entrance for the Tent of Meeting, ²⁶ the curtains surrounding the courtyard and the altar, the curtain for the entrance, the ropes and all the equipment used in its operations. They are to do all that needs to be done with these things.

²⁹ "Next, count the sons of Merari, according to their families and their ancestral houses, ³⁰ sons 30 years old and upward to 50, everyone coming to work in the service of the Tent of Meeting. ³¹ This is their task in the service of the Tent of Meeting: the frames of the Tabernacle, its crossbars, posts and bases, ³² as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard, plus their bases, tent pegs, ropes, and all their paraphernalia with everything related to their operation. Assign to them by name their duties and tasks. ³³ This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari as they work under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the kohen ."

³⁸ The sons of Gershon were counted according to their families and their ancestral households. ³⁹ Males from 30 years old and upward to 50, all those coming into the work of the service of the Tent of Meeting, ⁴⁰ numbered according to their families and ancestral households 2,630. ⁴¹ These were those counted from the families of the sons of Gershon, each serving in the Tent of Meeting—Moses and Aaron counted according to the mouth of ADONAI .

⁴² Those were counted from the families and ancestral households of the sons of Merari, ⁴³ from 30 years of age upward to 50, who came to the work of the service of the Tent of Meeting. ⁴⁴ Numbered by their families, they were 3,200. ⁴⁵ These were those numbered from the families of the sons of Merari by Moses and Aaron in accordance with the mouth of ADONAI by Moses's hand.

⁴⁶ Thus Moses, Aaron and the princes of Israel counted all the Levites by their families and by their ancestral houses. ⁴⁷ All the men from 30 to 50 years old who came to do the work of the service and of carrying the Tent of Meeting ⁴⁸ numbered 8,580.

⁴⁹ From the mouth of ADONAI by Moses's hand, each man was assigned his work and his burden to carry. So they were counted, as ADONAI commanded Moses.

Purity in the Camp

5 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Command Bnei-Yisrael to send out from the camp everyone with tzara'at , who has some kind of discharge, or any contaminated by a dead body. ³ Whether male or female, you are to send them outside the camp so as not to defile the camp where I am dwelling among them." ⁴ This Bnei-Yisrael did, sending them outside the camp. Just as ADONAI spoke to Moses, so Bnei-Yisrael did.

⁵ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶ "Say to Bnei-Yisrael : Whenever a man or woman commits any sins against any person, thus breaking faith with ADONAI , that soul bears guilt. ⁷ That person is to confess the sin he has committed, make full restitution for his wrong, add one fifth to it and give it to the one he wronged. ⁸ But if that person has no close relative to whom to pay the restitution, the restitution belongs to ADONAI . It is to be given to the kohen along with the ram of atonement with which he is to make atonement for him.

⁹ "Every contribution from all the sacred things that Bnei-Yisrael brings to the kohen will belong to him. ¹⁰ Each one's sacred holy gifts are his own, but whatever each man gives to the kohen belongs to that kohen ."

Jealousy Ritual

¹¹ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ¹² "Speak to Bnei-Yisrael and say to them: Suppose some man's wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him, ¹³ and another man has sexual relations with her, but it is hidden from her husband's eyes and her impurity is not detected. Yet there was no witness against her and she was not caught in the act. ¹⁴ Then a spirit of jealousy overcomes him and he is suspicious of his wife, when she is impure. Or a spirit of jealousy overcomes him and he suspects his wife, yet she is not impure.

¹⁵ "Then he should take his wife to the kohen . He must also bring a tenth of an ephah of barley flour as an offering for her. He is not to pour oil or put incense on it, because it is an offering for jealousy, a reminder offering drawing attention to guiltiness.

¹⁶“The kohen is to bring her near and have her stand before ADONAI. ¹⁷ Then the kohen is to take some holy water in a clay jar and take some dust from the floor of the Tabernacle and put it into the water. ¹⁸ Then the kohen will have the woman stand before ADONAI, loosen the woman’s hair, put into her hands the reminder offering, the offering for jealousy, while in the kohen’s own hands are the bitter waters that bring a curse. ¹⁹ Then the kohen will have her swear under oath, then say to the woman, ‘If no man other than your husband has slept with you, and if you have not gone astray into impurity from your husband, may this bitter water that brings a curse not harm you. ²⁰ If, however, you have gone astray from your husband and if you became impure and had sexual relations with a man other than your husband’— ²¹ Then the kohen is to have the woman swear under this oath of a curse, and say to the woman—‘then let ADONAI cause you to be cursed and denounced among your people when ADONAI causes your thigh to rot and your belly to swell. ²² May this water which brings a curse enter your body and cause your belly to swell and your thigh to rot.’

²³“Then the kohen is to write these curses on a scroll and wash them into the waters of bitterness. ²⁴ The kohen will then have the woman drink the bitter water bearing curses, so that the water of the curses of bitterness enters her. ²⁵ The kohen is to take the jealousy offering from the woman’s hand, wave the offering before ADONAI and bring it to the altar. ²⁶ The kohen is to take a handful of the grain offering and burn it up in smoke on the altar as a memorial offering. The kohen will then have the woman drink the water.

²⁷“When she is made to drink the water that carries the curse, if she has defiled herself and been unfaithful to her husband, it will enter her and cause bitterness—her abdomen will swell and her thigh will waste away. She will be accursed among her people. ²⁸ If, however, the woman has not defiled herself and is clean, she will be free from guilt and be able to have children.

²⁹“This is the Torah regarding jealousy, when a woman goes astray from her husband and defiles herself, ³⁰ or when a spirit of jealousy comes over a man and he jealously suspects his wife. The kohen is to have her stand before ADONAI and apply this entire Torah to her. ³¹ The husband will be free of guilt, but that woman will bear her guilt.”

Nazirite Vows

6 Again ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Speak to Bnei-Yisrael and say to them: Any man or woman who desires to vow a Nazirite vow to be separate for ADONAI, ³ is to abstain from wine and any other fermented drink. He is not to drink any vinegar made from wine or any fermented drink, or any grape juice, or eat grapes or raisins.

¹⁶“The kohen will offer these before ADONAI, and present his sin offering and burnt offering. ¹⁷ Then he is to sacrifice the ram as a fellowship offering to ADONAI, along with the basket of matzot. The kohen will also present the grain and drink offerings. ¹⁸ The Nazirite is then to shave the hair of his dedication at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and he is to take the hair of his dedication and put it into the fire of the fellowship offering sacrifice. ¹⁹ The kohen is to take the boiled shoulder of the ram and one matzah cake and one matzah wafer from the basket, and he is to place them into the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved the hair of his dedication. ²⁰ The kohen will wave them before ADONAI as a wave offering. They are holy, and belong to the kohen along with the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented. Afterward, the Nazirite may drink wine.

²¹ This is the Torah regarding the Nazirite who vows his offering to ADONAI with regard to his consecration, besides whatever else he can afford. He must fulfill the vow he has made, in accordance with the Torah of his consecration.”

Aaronic Benediction

²² Again ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ²³ “Speak to Aaron and to his sons saying: Thus you are to bless Bnei-Yisrael, by saying to them:

²⁴ ‘ADONAI bless you and keep you!

²⁵ ADONAI make His face to shine on you and be gracious to you! †

²⁶ ADONAI turn His face toward you and grant you shalom!

²⁷ In this way they are to place My Name over Bnei-Yisrael, and so I will bless them.”

Offerings of Tribal Princes

7 When Moses finished setting up the Tabernacle, he anointed and consecrated it and all its implements, the altar and all its utensils, and he anointed and consecrated them. ² Then the princes of Israel, heads of their ancestral houses—they were tribal princes in charge over those who were numbered—gave offerings. ³ They brought as their gift before ADONAI six covered carts and twelve oxen. A cart came from every two princes and an ox from each one of them. They presented them before the Tabernacle.

⁶ So Moses took the carts and the oxen and he gave them to the Levites. ⁷ He gave two carts and four oxen to the sons of Gershon, as their work required, ⁸ and four carts and eight oxen to the sons of Merari, as their work required, under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron the kohen. ⁹ But to the sons of Kohath he did not give any because their responsibility was carrying the holy items on their shoulders.

⁴² On the sixth day was the prince of the sons of Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel. ⁴³ His offering was one silver plate weighing 130 shekels, one silver basin weighing 70 shekels according to the shekel of the Sanctuary, both filled with fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, ⁴⁴ one ladle of 10 shekels of gold filled with incense, ⁴⁵ one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old for a burnt offering, ⁴⁶ one male goat for a sin offering, ⁴⁷ and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Eliasaph son of Deuel.

for a sin offering, ⁷⁷ and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Pagiel son of Ochrán.

⁸⁴ This was the dedication offering from the princes of Israel for the day when the altar was to be anointed: twelve silver plates, twelve silver basins, twelve gold ladles. ⁸⁵ Each silver plate was of 130 shekels, and each silver basin was of 70 shekels. Altogether, the silver utensils weighed 2,400 shekels according to the shekel of the Sanctuary.

⁸⁷ The total of the livestock for the burnt offering was twelve young bulls, twelve rams, and twelve male lambs a year old, along with their grain offering. Twelve male goats were sin offerings. ⁸⁸ The total number of livestock used for sacrifice of fellowship offerings was 24 oxen, 60 rams, 60 male goats and 60 male lambs a year old. These were the dedicatory offerings for the altar after it was anointed.

⁸⁹ When Moses entered the Tent of Meeting to speak with ADONAI, he heard the voice speaking to him from above the atonement cover † atop the Ark of Testimony between the cheruvim. So he spoke with Him.

Parashat Beha'alotecha

Dedication of the Levites

8 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to Aaron and say to him: When you erect the lamps, the seven lamps are to illuminate the area in front of the menorah." ³ Aaron did so. He erected the lamps facing forward so they illuminated the area in front of the menorah, just as ADONAI had commanded Moses. ⁴ Now this is how the menorah was made: hammered gold from its base to its blossoms. Just as was the pattern that ADONAI had shown to Moses, so he made the menorah.

⁵ Again ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶ "Take the Levites from among Bnei-Yisrael and ceremonially cleanse them. ⁷ This is what you must do to them to make them clean: Sprinkle the purifying water on them, † then have them shave their whole bodies and wash their clothes, thus purifying themselves.

† Or, mercy seat

¹⁷“For every firstborn among Bnei-Yisrael is Mine, whether human or animal. On the day I struck down the firstborn of the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for Myself. ††¹⁸ So I am taking the Levites in place of the firstborn of Bnei-Yisrael, ¹⁹ and I am giving the Levites as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among Bnei-Yisrael, to do the work on behalf of Bnei-Yisrael in the Tent of Meeting, and to make atonement for them—so that there would be no plague among them for coming too close to the Sanctuary.”

²⁰So Moses, Aaron and the entire community of Bnei-Yisrael did so with the Levites. All that ADONAI had commanded Moses regarding the Levites, so Bnei-Yisrael did to them. ²¹The Levites also purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes. Aaron presented them as a wave offering before ADONAI, and, he made atonement for them to purify them. ²²After that, the Levites came to do their tasks before Aaron and his sons in the Tent of Meeting, just as ADONAI had commanded Moses concerning the Levites.

²³ ADONAI again spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁴“This is for the Levites. Men 25 years old and upward are to present themselves for service to work in the Tent of Meeting. ²⁵But at the age of 50 he is to retire from his service and work no longer. ²⁶He may assist his brothers in the Tent of Meeting to do their duties, but he himself will no longer do the work. Thus, you are to assign to the Levites their responsibilities.”

Second Month Passover

⁹ ADONAI spoke to Moses in the Sinai wilderness in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt saying, ²“Bnei-Yisrael is to observe Passover at its appointed time. ³You are to celebrate it at its appointed time, at twilight on the fourteenth day of this month, with all its rules and regulations.”

⁶ However, there were some men who could not celebrate Passover because of being defiled by a dead body. So they came to Moses and Aaron on that same day, ⁷ and these men said to him, “We have become unclean because of a dead man’s body. Why should we be kept from presenting the offering of ADONAI at the appointed time with the rest of Bnei-Yisrael?”

⁸ Moses answered them, “Wait, and I will inquire what ADONAI commands concerning you.”

⁹ Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰“Say to Bnei-Yisrael saying: If any man, whether you or your descendants, becomes unclean because of a dead body, or is away on a long journey, he may yet observe ADONAI’s Passover. ¹¹ They are to celebrate it at twilight on the fourteenth day of the second month. With matzot and bitter herbs they are to eat it. ¹² They are not to leave any of it until morning, or break any bones. When they celebrate Passover they are to observe all its regulations.

¹⁴“If an outsider living among you would celebrate Passover to ADONAI according to the requirement, so he should do. There will be for you the same regulation for the outsider and the native of the land.”

The Cloud as the Guide

¹⁵ On the day the Tabernacle was erected, the cloud covered the Tabernacle. By evening until morning, the cloud above the Tent of Testimony had an appearance like fire. ¹⁶ It was that way continually. The cloud covered it, and by night it appeared like fire. ¹⁷ Whenever the cloud lifted up from above the Tent, then Bnei-Yisrael would set out, and at the place where the cloud settled, there Bnei-Yisrael would encamp. ¹⁸ At the mouth of ADONAI, Bnei-Yisrael would set out, and at the mouth of ADONAI they would encamp. All the days that the cloud remained over the Tabernacle, they would remain in camp.

²¹ At times the cloud remained only from evening until morning. When the cloud would lift, they would set out. Whether by day or by night, when the cloud lifted, they would set out. ²² Whether for two days or a month or a year, while the cloud remained over the Tabernacle, Bnei-Yisrael remained camped and would not set out. But when it would lift, they would set out. ²³ At ADONAI's word they would encamp, and at the mouth of ADONAI they set out. They obeyed ADONAI's order by Moses's hand.

Silver Trumpets for Assembly

10 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Make two trumpets of hammered silver for yourself. They are for summoning the community and having the camps set out. ³ Whenever both are sounded, the whole community is to gather toward you at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. ⁴ But if only one is sounded, the princes—the heads of the tribes of Israel—are to gather toward you. ⁵ When you sound the trumpet the first time, the camp of those camped on the east is to set out. ⁶ When you sound the trumpet blast the second time, the camp of those camped on the south is to set out. Short blasts will be the signal for their moving out. ⁷ To gather the whole national community, you are to sound the sustained blasts, but not the short blasts. ⁸ The sons of Aaron will blow the trumpets. This is to be an eternal ordinance for you as well as for your generations to come.

⁹ "Whenever you go to war in your own land against the enemy who is hostile to you, you are to sound short blasts of alarm. Then you will be remembered before ADONAI your God and be delivered from your enemies.

¹⁰ "Also at your days of rejoicing, feasts and new moons, you are to blow on the trumpets over your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. They will then be a reminder for you before ADONAI your God. I am ADONAI your God!"

Journey From Sinai

¹¹ On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year, the cloud lifted up from above the Tabernacle of the Testimony. ¹² Then Bnei-Yisrael set out on their travels in the Sinai wilderness. The cloud came to rest in the wilderness of Paran. ¹³ So they set out the first time by the mouth of ADONAI by Moses's hand.

¹⁷ Then the Tabernacle was disassembled, and the sons of Gershon and Merari, who were carrying it, set out. ¹⁸ The standard of the camp of Reuben then set out, by their divisions. Over his division was Elizur son of Shedeur. ¹⁹ Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, was over the division of the tribe of the sons of Simeon. ²⁰ Over the division of the tribe of the sons of Gad was Eliasaph son of Deuel.

²¹ Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy items. The Tabernacle was to be erected before their arrival.

²⁸ This is the order by which Bnei-Yisrael, by their divisions, set out.

²⁹ Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out to the place about which ADONAI said, 'I will give it to you.' Come with us and we will do good to you, because ADONAI has spoken goodness to Israel."

³⁰ But he said to him, "I will not go, because I would rather go to my own country and to my own people."

³¹ But he said, "Do not leave us now, because you know where we should camp in the wilderness. You can be like eyes to us. ³² If you come with us, we will share with you whatever good ADONAI gives to us."

³⁵ Whenever the Ark would set out, Moses would say: "Arise, ADONAI! May Your enemies be scattered! May those who hate You flee from before You!"

³⁶ Then whenever it came to rest, he would say: "Return, ADONAI, to the myriad thousands of Israel!"

Seventy Elders to Share the Burden

11 The people were murmuring in the ears of ADONAI about hardship, and when ADONAI heard, His anger burned. The fire of ADONAI blazed among them, ravaging the outskirts of the camp. ² The people cried out to Moses, so Moses prayed to ADONAI and the fire died out. ³ The name of that place was thus called Taberah because fire from ADONAI had burned among them.

⁴ The grumblers among them began to have cravings, so Bnei-Yisrael began to wail repeatedly, saying, "If we could just eat some meat! ⁵ We remember the fish that we used to eat in Egypt, for free—the cucumbers, the melons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic!"

⁶ But now we have no appetite. We never see anything but this manna."

⁷ Now the manna was similar to coriander seed and had an appearance like gum resin. ⁸ The people went about, gathered it up, and ground it in a hand mill or crushed it in a mortar. They cooked it in a pot or made it into cakes. It had a taste like something made with olive oil. ⁹ When the dew descended on the camp at night, the manna descended with it.

¹⁰ Moses heard the people wailing by their families, each man at the door to his tent. ADONAI's anger became very hot, and Moses was troubled.

¹¹ So Moses asked ADONAI, "Why have You brought trouble on Your servant? Haven't I found favor in Your eyes—that You laid the burden of all these people on me? ¹² Did I conceive all these people, or did I give birth to them, that You should say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom just as the nurse carries an infant'—to the land You promised to their fathers? ¹³ Where can I get meat for all these people? For they wail to me saying, 'Give us meat to eat!' ¹⁴ I am not able to carry all these people by myself! The load is too heavy for me! ¹⁵ If this is how You are treating me, kill me now! If I have found favor in Your eyes, kill me please—don't let me see my own misery!"

¹⁶ ADONAI said to Moses, "Bring me 70 of the elders of Israel whom you know to be elders of the people and their leaders. Take them to the Tent of Meeting, so they may stand with you there. ¹⁷ Then I will come down and speak with you there, and, I will take some of the Ruach that is on you and will place it on them. They will carry with you the burden of the people, so you will not be carrying it alone." †

¹⁸ "Now to the people say: Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, because you will eat meat, for you wailed in ADONAI's ears saying, 'If only we could eat meat! It was better for us in Egypt!' Now ADONAI will give you meat and you will eat! ¹⁹ You will eat—not for one day, or two days, or five days, or ten days, or twenty days, ²⁰ but for an entire month—until it is coming out of your nostrils and it becomes loathsome to you! For you rejected ADONAI who is among you, and you wailed to His face saying, 'Why did we ever leave Egypt?'"

²¹ Moses then said, "600,000 foot soldiers—the people I am in the middle of—yet You say, 'I am going to give them meat to eat for an entire month?' ²² If flocks and herds were slaughtered, would they have enough? Or if all the fish in the sea were caught, would they have enough?"

²³ ADONAI said to Moses, "Is ADONAI's arm too short? Now you will see whether My word will come true for you or not."

Seventy Elders Prophesying

²⁴ So Moses went out and told the people ADONAI's words. He gathered 70 of the elders of the people and had them stand around the Tent. ²⁵ ADONAI descended in the cloud and spoke with him. He took some of the Ruach that was on him and placed it on each of the 70 elders. It so happened that when the Ruach first rested on them, they prophesied—but never again.

²⁶ Two men, however, had remained in the camp. The name of one was Eldad and the name of the other was Medad. The Ruach rested on them. They were among those listed, but they had not gone out to the Tent. So they prophesied in the camp. ²⁷ A young man ran and told Moses and said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!"

²⁸ Joshua son of Nun, the assistant of Moses since his youth, cried out and said, "Moses, my lord, stop them!" ²⁹ But Moses said to him, "Are you jealous on my behalf? If only ADONAI would make all the people prophets! If only ADONAI would put the Spirit on all of them!"

³⁰ Then Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

Quails From the Sea

³¹ Now a wind went out from ADONAI and drove quails from the sea. He brought them into the camp to about a day's journey in any direction, about two cubits above the ground all around the camp. ³² The people went out all that night and all the following day and collected quail. No one gathered less than ten omers. They spread them out all around the camp.

³³ Yet while the meat was between their teeth, before it was swallowed, ADONAI's anger burned against the people. So ADONAI struck the people with a severe plague. ³⁴ For that reason the name of that place was called Kibroth-hattaavah ††, because they buried the people who were craving.

³⁵ From Kibroth-hattaavah the people journeyed to Hazereth and stayed in Hazereth.

Miriam and Aaron Speak Against Moses

12 Then Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses on account of the Cushite woman he married, because he had married a Cushite woman. ² They asked, "Has ADONAI spoken only through Moses? Hasn't He also spoken through us?"

ADONAI heard it.

³ Now the man Moses was very humble, more so than anyone on the face of the earth.

⁴ Immediately, ADONAI said to Moses, Aaron and Miriam, "The three of you, come out to the Tent of Meeting." So the three came out. ⁵ ADONAI descended in a column of cloud, stood at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, and called to Aaron and Miriam. The two of them stepped forward.

⁶ "Hear now My words!" He said. "When there is a prophet of ADONAI, I reveal Myself in a vision, I speak to him in a dream. ⁷ Not so with My servant Moses. In all My house, he is faithful. ¹⁸ I speak with him face to face, plainly and not in riddles. He even looks at the form of ADONAI! Why then were you not afraid to speak against My servant Moses?"

⁹ ADONAI's anger burned against them, and He left them. ¹⁰ When the cloud lifted up from above the Tent, behold, Miriam had tzara'at, like snow! As Aaron turned toward her, behold, she had tzara'at! ¹¹ He said to Moses, "Please, my lord, don't hold against us the sin we have committed so foolishly! ¹² Don't let her be like a stillborn baby, who comes from his mother's womb with his flesh half-eaten away!"

¹³ So Moses cried to ADONAI saying, "O God, heal her now!"

¹⁴ ADONAI said to Moses, "If her father had but spit in her face, would she not be in shame for seven days? Let her be confined outside the camp for seven days. After that she may be brought back."

¹⁵ So Miriam was restricted to outside the camp for seven days. The people did not move on until Miriam was brought back. ¹⁶ Afterward, the people left Hazeroth and encamped in the wilderness of Paran.

Twelve Scouts and the Bad Report

13 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Send some men on your behalf to investigate the land of Canaan, which I am giving to Bnei-Yisrael. Each man you are to send will be a prince of the tribe of his fathers, a man from each tribe."

¹⁶ These are the names of the men Moses sent to investigate the land. (Now he gave Hoshea son of Nun, the name Joshua.) ¹⁷ As he sent them to explore the land of Canaan, he said to them, "Go up there through the Negev, then go up into the hill country. ¹⁸ See what the land is like and the people living there, whether they might be strong or weak, few or many. ¹⁹ In what kind of land are they living? Is it good or bad? Also, what about the cities in which they are living? Are they unwallled or do they have fortifications? ²⁰ How is the soil—fertile or poor? Are there trees on it or not? Do your best to bring back some of the fruit of the land." (It was the season for the first ripe grapes.)

²³ When they reached as far as the Valley of Eshcol, they cut a single branch with a cluster of grapes. It was carried on a pole between two of them. They also cut some pomegranates and some figs. ²⁴ That place was called the Valley of Eshcol because of the cluster cut by Bnei-Yisrael. ²⁵ They returned from investigating the land after 40 days.

²⁶ They traveled and returned to Moses, Aaron and the entire community of Bnei-Yisrael at Kadesh in the wilderness of Paran. They gave their report to them and the entire assembly. They showed the land's fruit. ²⁷ They gave their account to him and said, "We went into the land where you sent us. Indeed it is flowing with milk and honey—this is some of its fruit. ²⁸ Except, the people living in the land are powerful, and the cities are fortified and very large. We even saw the sons of Anak there! ²⁹ Amalek is living in the land of the Negev, the Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites are living in the mountains, and the Canaanites are living near the sea and along the bank of the Jordan."

³⁰ Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, "We should definitely go up and capture the land, for we can certainly do it!"

³¹ But the men who had gone up with him said, "We cannot attack these people, because they are stronger than we." ³² They spread among Bnei-Yisrael a bad report about the land they had explored, saying, "The land through which we passed to explore devours its residents. All the people we saw there are men of great size! ³³ We also saw there the Nephilim. (The sons of Anak are from the Nephilim.) We seemed like grasshoppers in our eyes as well as theirs!"

Grumblers Will Not Enter the Land

14 All through that night, the entire community raised up their voices. The people wept. ² All Bnei-Yisrael grumbled against Moses and Aaron and the whole community said, "If only we had died in Egypt! If only we had died in this wilderness! ³ Why is ADONAI bringing us to this land to fall by the sword? Our wives and children will be like plunder! Wouldn't it be better for us to return to Egypt?"

⁴ They said to each other, "Let's choose a leader and let's go back to Egypt!"

⁵ Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before the entire assembly of the community of Bnei-Yisrael. ⁶ Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had explored the land, tore their clothes. ⁷ They said to the whole assembly of

† cf. Heb. 3:2,5.

Bnei-Yisrael, "The land through which we passed is an exceptionally good land! ⁸ If ADONAI is pleased with us, He will lead us into that land and will give it to us—a land flowing with milk and honey. ⁹ Only don't rebel against ADONAI, and don't be afraid of the people of the land. They will be food for us. The protection over them is gone. ADONAI is with us! Do not fear them."

¹⁰ But the whole assembly talked about violently stoning them.

Then the glory of ADONAI appeared at the Tent of Meeting to all Bnei-Yisrael. ¹¹ ADONAI said to Moses, "How long will these people treat Me contemptibly? How long will they neglect to trust in Me—in spite of all the miraculous signs I have performed among them? ¹² I will strike them with the plague. I will destroy them. But you I will make into a nation greater and stronger than they!"

¹³ Moses said to ADONAI, "The Egyptians will hear about it, because You brought up this people by Your power from among them. ¹⁴ They will tell the residents of this land about it. Already they have heard that You, ADONAI, are in the midst of this people, that You, ADONAI, have been seen eye to eye, that Your cloud remains over them, and that in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night You go before them. ¹⁵ If you kill these people all at once, the nations who have heard this report about You will say, ¹⁶ 'Because ADONAI was unable to bring this people to the land He had promised them, He has slaughtered them in the wilderness.'

¹⁷ "So please, let ADONAI show His strength, just as You have spoken saying, ¹⁸ ' ADONAI is slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, forgiving iniquity and transgression. Still, He does not leave the guilty unpunished, bringing the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations.' ¹⁹ Forgive now the guiltiness of this people in accordance with the greatness of Your lovingkindness, just as You have pardoned this people from Egypt until now!"

²⁰ ADONAI answered, "I have forgiven them just as you have spoken. ²¹ But as certainly as I live and as certainly as the glory of ADONAI fills the entire earth, ²² none of the people who saw My glory and My miraculous signs I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness—yet tested Me these ten times and did not obey My Voice— ²³ not one of them will see the land I promised to their forefathers. None of those who treated Me with contempt will see it! ²⁴ However, My servant Caleb, because a different spirit is with him and he is wholeheartedly behind Me, I will bring him into the land where he went—his offspring will inherit it. ²⁵ Now since the Amalekites and Canaanites are inhabiting the valley, turn back tomorrow and set out by the wilderness route toward the Sea of Reeds."

²⁶ ADONAI then said to Moses and Aaron saying, ²⁷ "How long will this wicked community be grumbling against Me? I have heard the complaints of Bnei-Yisrael grumbling against Me. ²⁸ So tell them, 'As surely as

I live,' says ADONAI, 'I will do to you just as I heard you say in My ears. ²⁹ In this very wilderness your bodies will drop—every one of you 20 years of age and older who was numbered in the census and grumbled against Me. ³⁰ Not one of you will enter the land about which I lifted My hand to make home for you—except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

³¹ "As for your children—whom you said would be like plunder—I will bring them in and they will experience the land that you spurned. ³² But your bodies will drop in this wilderness. ³³ Your children will be herdsmen in the wilderness for 40 years. They will suffer because of your unfaithfulness until your corpses are consumed in the wilderness. ³⁴ For 40 years, corresponding to the number of the 40 days you explored the land—one year for each day—you will suffer for your iniquities and know My hostility. ³⁵ I, ADONAI, have spoken and certainly will I do this to all this wicked community banding together against Me. In this wilderness they will meet their end and there they will die!"

³⁶ Then the men whom Moses had sent to explore the land, who had returned and caused the whole community to grumble against him by spreading a bad report about the land, ³⁷ these men, spreading the bad report about the land, died of the plague in ADONAI's presence. ³⁸ Of those men who had gone to explore the land, only Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh survived.

³⁹ When Moses related these things to all of Bnei-Yisrael, the people mourned bitterly. ⁴⁰ They rose the next morning and went up to the high mountains, saying, "Look! Let's go up to the place which ADONAI promised. For we have sinned."

⁴¹ But Moses said, "Why are you disobeying the mouth of ADONAI? That will never succeed. ⁴² You should not go up, because ADONAI will not be among you and you will be defeated before your enemies! ⁴³ For the Amalekites and Canaanites are there in front of you, and you will fall by the sword. ADONAI will not be with you, because you turned away from following ADONAI."

⁴⁴ But presumptuously they went up to the high mountain country, though neither the Ark of ADONAI's covenant nor Moses moved from within the camp. ⁴⁵ The Amalekites and Canaanites living in the mountain country came down, attacked them, and beat them down all the way to Hormah.

Fragrant Aromas to ADONAI

15 Again ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Speak to Bnei-Yisrael and say to them: When you enter the land that I am giving you where you will make your homes, ³ and you are presenting a fire offering to ADONAI—a burnt offering or a sacrifice to mark fulfilling a vow, a freewill offering, or during moedim [†]—to present a pleasing aroma to ADONAI, from the herd or from the flock, ⁴ the one bringing the offering is to present a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a fourth of a hin of oil.

⁵ “Now with each lamb for the burnt offering or sacrifice, you are to prepare a fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering. ⁶ With a ram, you are to prepare two tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a third of a hin of oil, ⁷ and a third of a hin of wine as a drink offering. You are to offer it as a pleasing aroma to ADONAI .

⁸ “Whenever you are to prepare a young bull for a burnt offering, a special vow offering, or a fellowship offering to ADONAI , ⁹ bring with the young bull a grain offering of three tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil. ¹⁰ You are to also offer as the drink offering half a hin of wine as a fire offering, a pleasing aroma to ADONAI . ¹¹ This is to be done for each bull or ram, for each young goat or lamb. ¹² Do this for each one, for as many as you prepare.

¹³ “Everyone native-born is to do these things like so when bringing a fire offering as a pleasant aroma to ADONAI . ¹⁴ Whenever an outsider resides with you, or whoever is among you for your generations to come, and he is to present a fire offering as a fragrant aroma to ADONAI , as you do, he must do exactly the same as you are doing.

¹⁵ “The community will have the same rule for you as well as for the resident outsider. It will be a lasting statute throughout your generations. As for you, so for the outsider will it be before ADONAI . ¹⁶ The same Torah and the same regulations will apply to both you and the outsider residing among you.”

¹⁷ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁸ “Speak to Bnei-Yisrael . Say to them: When you enter the land to which I am taking you, ¹⁹ and you eat some of the food of the land, you are to offer a portion to ADONAI . ²⁰ You are to offer a cake from the first of your ground-up meal as an offering from your threshing floor—so you are to lift it up. ²¹ Throughout your generations to come, you are to give this offering from the first of your ground-up meal.

Unintentional Versus Defiant Sin

²² “If you unintentionally fail, not keeping any of these mitzvot that ADONAI related to Moses ²³—that is, anything that ADONAI commanded you through Moses’s hand, from the day ADONAI commanded and onward throughout your generations—²⁴ and it is done unintentionally out of sight of the community, then the entire community is to offer one young bull from the herd for a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to ADONAI , along with its appropriate grain offering and drink offering, and one male goat as a sin offering. ²⁵ So the kohen will make atonement for the entire community of Bnei-Yisrael , and they will be forgiven, for it was unintentional and they brought a fire offering and their sin offering to ADONAI for their error.

²⁶ So the whole community of Bnei-Yisrael along with the outsider residing among them will be forgiven, for all the people were involved in unintentional wrongdoing.

²⁷ “If but one person should sin unintentionally, he is to bring a year-old female goat for a sin offering.

²⁸ The kohen is to make atonement before ADONAI for that person who erred by sinning without intent, and he is to be forgiven when atonement has been made for him. ²⁹ Whether a native-born of Bnei-Yisrael or an outsider living among them, one Torah applies to you for the one sinning unintentionally.

³⁰ “But the person who sins defiantly, whether native or outsider, reviles ADONAI and that person is to be cut off from his people. ³¹ Because he has despised the word of ADONAI and has broken His commandment, that person will certainly be cut off—his guilt will remain on him.”

³² While Bnei-Yisrael were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering wood on the Shabbat .

³³ Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses, Aaron and the entire assembly. ³⁴ They kept him under arrest, not being clear what was to be done to him.

³⁵ ADONAI said to Moses, “The man has to die. The whole assembly is to stone him with stones outside the camp.” ³⁶ So the whole assembly took him outside the camp. They stoned him with stones. He died just as ADONAI commanded Moses.

Tzitzit for Holiness

³⁷ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ³⁸ “Speak to Bnei-Yisrael . Say to them that they are to make for themselves tzitzit on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and they are to put a blue cord on each tzitzit . ³⁹ It will be your own tzitzit—so whenever you look at them, you will remember all the mitzvot of ADONAI and do them and not go spying out after your own hearts and your own eyes, prostituting yourselves. ⁴⁰ This way you will remember and obey all My mitzvot and you will be holy to your God. ⁴¹ I am ADONAI your God. I brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I am ADONAI your God.”

Parashat Korach

Rebellion of Korah

16 Now Korah, son of Izhar son of Kohath son of Levi, and sons of Reuben—Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth—² rose up against Moses and took 250 men from Bnei-Yisrael , men of renown who had been appointed to the council. ³ They assembled against Moses and Aaron. They said to them, “You’ve gone too far! All the community is holy—all of them—and ADONAI is with them! Then why do you exalt yourselves above the assembly of ADONAI ?”

⁴ When Moses heard this, he fell on his face.

⁵ Then he said to Korah and all his following saying, "In the morning ADONAI will reveal who is His and who is holy. The one whom He will let come near to Him will be the one He chooses to come near to Him. ⁶ Do this, Korah and your whole following! Take for yourselves censers. ⁷ Put fire and incense into them in the presence of ADONAI. Tomorrow the man that ADONAI chooses will be the holy one! You sons of Levi are the ones who have gone too far!"

⁸ Moses also said to Korah, "Listen now, sons of Levi! ⁹ Isn't it enough that the God of Israel has set you apart from the community of Israel to bring you near to Him to do the work of the Tabernacle of ADONAI and to stand before the community to minister to them? ¹⁰ So He brought you close, along with all your fellow sons of Levi. But you are seeking the priesthood, too! ¹¹ Therefore you and all your following are banding together against ADONAI! Who then is Aaron—that you are grumbling against him?"

¹² Then Moses sent word to call Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab. But they said, "We will not come! ¹³ Isn't it enough that you brought us from a land flowing with milk and honey, only to kill us in the wilderness? And now you would lord it over us? ¹⁴ What's more, you haven't brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Would you now gouge out the eyes of those men? We won't come!"

¹⁶ So Moses said to Korah, "You and your whole following are to appear before ADONAI—you, they and Aaron—tomorrow! ¹⁷ Each man will take his censer and you are to put incense into them—250 censers total. You are to present it before ADONAI, you and Aaron each presenting his censer."

²⁰ Then ADONAI spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, ²¹ "Separate yourselves from among this assembly, so that I may consume them at once!"

²² But they fell on their faces and cried out, "O God, God of the spirits of all flesh, if one man sins, will you be angry with the entire community?"

²³ Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁴ "Speak to the assembly saying, 'Move away from the dwelling of Korah, Dathan and Abiram!'"

²⁵ Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram. The elders of Israel followed after him. ²⁶ He warned the assembly saying, "Move away from the tents of these wicked men! Don't touch anything that is theirs, or you will be swept away because of all their sins!"

²⁸ Moses said, "By this you will know that ADONAI has sent me to do all these works, that they are not from my own heart. ²⁹ If every one of these men die a common death and experience what happens to all people, then ADONAI has not sent me. ³⁰ But if ADONAI brings about a new thing, and the earth opens her mouth and swallows them and everything that is theirs, and they go down alive into Sheol, then you will know that these men have despised ADONAI."

³¹ As soon as he finished saying all these things, the ground split under them. ³² The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, along with all their households, all of Korah's people and all their possessions. ³³ They went down alive into Sheol, they and everything that was theirs. The earth closed over them and they were gone from among the community.

³⁴ All Israel around them fled at their outcry, for they shouted, "Perhaps the earth will swallow us!"

17 (16:36) ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ²

(16:37) "Tell Eleazar son of Aaron the kohen, to take the censers from the burning, because they are holy, and scatter the coals at a distance. ³ (16:38) As for the censers of these men who sinned at the cost of their lives, let them be taken and hammered into sheets as a covering for the altar. For they were presented before ADONAI, so they are holy. They are to be a sign to Bnei-Yisrael."

⁴ (16:39) So Eleazar the kohen collected the bronze censers brought by the ones who were burned and hammered them into an overlay for the altar, ⁵ (16:40) just as ADONAI had spoken to him by Moses' hand, so that it would be as a reminder to Bnei-Yisrael that no one who was not a descendant of Aaron should burn incense before ADONAI, and so no one would become like Korah and his following.

⁶ (16:41) The next day, the entire community of Bnei-Yisrael grumbled against Moses and Aaron, saying, "You killed ADONAI's people!"

⁹ (16:44) ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁰ (16:45) "Get away from among this assembly so that I may immediately consume them!" So they fell on their faces.

¹¹ (16:46) Then Moses said to Aaron, "Take the censer, put into it fire from the altar and put in incense. Get going and hurry to the assembly and make atonement for them, because wrath has come out from ADONAI and the plague has started."

¹² (16:47) Aaron did just as Moses had said, and ran into the middle of the assembly. Behold, the plague had already started among the people. But he offered the incense and made atonement for the people. ¹³ (16:48) He stood between the dead and the living and the plague stopped. ¹⁴ (16:49) However, there were 14,700 dead from the plague, besides those who died because of Korah.

¹⁵ (16:50) Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, when the plague had been halted.

Sprouting of Aaron's Rod

²⁵ (10) ADONAI said to Moses, "Put Aaron's staff back in front of the Testimony to keep as a sign to the sons of rebellion, so that it may put an end to their grumblings against Me, and so they will not die." ²⁶ (11) Moses did just as ADONAI had commanded him.

²⁷ (12) But Bnei-Yisrael said to Moses saying, "Look! We will die! We are all lost! We are lost!" ²⁸ (13) Anyone approaching the Tabernacle of ADONAI will die! Must all of us die?"

Kohen Duties and Portions

18 ADONAI said to Aaron, "You, your sons, and the house of your father with you will bear the guilt for the Sanctuary, and you and your sons will bear the guilt for your priesthood. ² Bring with you your brothers, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, so that they may join you and assist you, both you and your sons with you, before the Tent of the Testimony. ³ They are to perform their duties for you and for all matters related to the Tent. They must not approach the implements of the Sanctuary or the altar—otherwise, both you and they will die. ⁴ They are to team with you and attend to the Tent of Meeting, for all the service of the Tent. But no unauthorized person may intrude upon you. ⁵ So you are to attend to the Sanctuary and the care of the altar, so no further wrath will fall on Bnei-Yisrael.

⁶ "See, I have personally taken your kinsmen, the Levites, from among Bnei-Yisrael as a gift for you and your sons with you, dedicated to ADONAI to serve in the work of the Tent of Meeting. ⁷ But you and your sons with you are to maintain your priesthood for everything pertaining to the altar and inside the parokhet. I am giving you the ministry of the priesthood as a gift. Anyone unauthorized who approaches will die."

⁸ ADONAI then said to Aaron, "See, I have given you charge over all My offerings. All the sacred things from Bnei-Yisrael I have given to you as set aside for you and your sons as a permanent share. ⁹ You are to have the part of the most holy things that is kept from the fire. Whether grain, sin or guilt offerings that they bring to Me as most holy—they are for you and your sons. ¹⁰ You are to eat it as most holy. Every male may eat it—it is set apart for you. ¹¹ This also is yours: the gift of the wave offerings of Bnei-Yisrael. I have given all the wave offerings as a permanent share to you, your sons and your daughters. Everyone who is clean in your house may eat it. ¹² All the finest olive oil, the finest new wine and grain they give to ADONAI from their firstfruits, I have given them to you. ¹³ All the firstfruits of the land that they bring to ADONAI will be for yours. Anyone who is clean in your house may eat it.

¹⁴ "Every devoted thing in Israel is yours. ¹⁵ The first offspring of the womb from all flesh, whether human or animal, offered to ADONAI, is yours. However, you are to redeem the firstborn of man and the firstborn of unclean animals. ¹⁶ When they are a month old, you are to redeem them at the redemption price of five shekels of silver by the Sanctuary shekel, or 20 gerahs. ¹⁷ But the firstborn of the ox, sheep or goat you are not to redeem. They are holy. You are to sprinkle their blood on the altar, and their fat you are to burn as a fire offering, a pleasing aroma to ADONAI. ¹⁸ Their meat—the breast of the wave offering and the right thigh—is yours. ¹⁹ Whatever is set aside from the holy offerings which Bnei-Yisrael present to ADONAI, I have given to you, your sons and your daughters with you as a permanent share. It is an everlasting covenant of salt before ADONAI for you and your offspring."

²⁰ ADONAI said to Aaron, "You will have no inheritance in their land nor share among them. I am your portion and your share among Bnei-Yisrael. ²¹ See, I have given all the tithes in Israel to the sons of Levi as an inheritance in return for all the work of the service they are doing in the Tent of Meeting. ²² From now on, Bnei-Yisrael must never trespass the Tent of Meeting, or they will bear the consequences of their sin and die.

²⁴ "For I have given the tithes that Bnei-Yisrael present to ADONAI as an offering to the Levites as an inheritance. That is why I said they would receive no inheritance among Bnei-Yisrael."

²⁵ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ²⁶ "Speak now to the Levites and say to them: When you receive from Bnei-Yisrael the tithe which I have given to you as your inheritance, you are then to offer to ADONAI a tithe of that tithe. ²⁷ Your offering will be reckoned as grain from the threshing floor or the fullness of the winepress. ²⁸ Thus you will also present an offering to ADONAI from all your tithes that you receive from Bnei-Yisrael, and from that you are to give ADONAI's portion to Aaron the kohen. ²⁹ From all your gifts that you receive, you are to present the best and holiest from them as ADONAI's portion.

³⁰ "Say to them: When you present the best part, it will be reckoned to the Levites as the produce of the threshing floor and of the winepress. ³¹ You and your household may eat it in any place. It is your wage for your service in the Tent of Meeting.

³² "In presenting the best part in this manner, you will bear no guilt in these matters. You will not defile the holy things of Bnei-Yisrael, so you will not die."

Parashat Chukat

Red Heifer and Cleansing Water

19 ADONAI spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying, ² "This is the statute of the Torah which ADONAI commanded saying: Speak to Bnei-Yisrael that they bring to you a flawless red heifer on which there is no blemish and on which has never been a yoke. ³ Give her to Eleazar the kohen. He will take her outside the camp and slaughter her in his presence. ⁴ Then Eleazar the kohen is to take some of the blood on his finger and sprinkle it seven times toward the front of the Tent of Meeting.

⁷ "Afterward, the kohen is to wash his clothes and bathe his flesh with the water, and afterward he may come back into the camp. Still the kohen will be unclean until evening. ⁸ Also the one burning it is to wash his clothes and bathe his flesh with the water, and he will be unclean until evening.

¹⁰ "The one who gathers the heifer's ashes is also to wash his clothes as well as be unclean until evening. It will be a permanent statute for Bnei-Yisrael and for the outsider living among them.

¹¹ "Whoever touches any dead body will be unclean for seven days. ¹² He is to purify himself on the third day and on the seventh day. Then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third and seventh days, he will not be clean. ¹³ Anyone touching the dead body of any man, who does not purify himself, defiles ADONAI's Tabernacle, and that person will be cut off from Israel. Because the cleansing water was not sprinkled on him, he is unclean and his uncleanness will remain on him.

¹⁴ "This is the Torah for whenever a person dies in a tent. Anyone entering the tent or anyone inside the tent will be unclean seven days. ¹⁵ Any open container not having a lid fastened on it will also be unclean.

¹⁷ "For the unclean one, they are to take some of the ash of the burnt purification offering, and pour some fresh water into a jar. ¹⁸ Then a clean person will take some hyssop, dip it into the water, and, sprinkle it on the tent, all of the furnishings, and the people who were there, as well as the one touching the bone, the one killed, the corpse or the grave.

¹⁹ The clean person will sprinkle the unclean one on the third and seventh days. He is to purify himself on the seventh day, and on the seventh day he is to wash his clothes and bathe himself in water, and at evening he will be clean.

²⁰ However, that man who is unclean but does not purify himself will be cut off from the community. He has defiled the Sanctuary of ADONAI, since the cleansing water was not sprinkled on him. He is unclean.

²¹ This will be a permanent ordinance for them. The one sprinkling the cleansing water is also to wash his clothes, and anyone touching the cleansing water will be unclean until evening. ²² Anything touched by an unclean person becomes unclean, and anyone touching it will be unclean until evening."

Water from the Rock

20 In the first month, the entire community of Bnei-Yisrael arrived at the wilderness of Zin. The people stayed at Kadesh. There Miriam died and was buried.

² Now there was no water for the community, so they assembled against Moses and Aaron. ³ The people quarreled with Moses saying, "If only we had died when our brothers died before ADONAI! ⁴ Now why have you brought the community of ADONAI into this wilderness, for us and our livestock to die here? ⁵ Why have you brought us from Egypt to bring us to this evil place—a place without grain, fig, grapevine or pomegranate—and there's no water to drink!"

⁶ So Moses and Aaron went from before the assembly to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and fell on their faces.

Then the glory of ADONAI appeared to them. ⁷ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ⁸ "Take the staff and gather the assembly, you and your brother Aaron. Speak to the rock before their eyes, and it will give out its water. † You will bring out water from the rock, and you will give the community something to drink, along with their livestock."

⁹ So Moses took the staff from before the presence of ADONAI, just as He had commanded him.

¹⁰ Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly in front of the rock. He said, "Listen now, you rebels! Must we bring you water from this rock?"

¹¹ Then Moses raised his arm and struck the rock twice with the staff. Water gushed out and the community and its livestock drank.

¹² But ADONAI said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not trust in Me so as to esteem Me as holy in the eyes of Bnei-Yisrael, therefore you will not bring this assembly into the land that I have given to them."

¹³ These are the waters of Meribah, where Bnei-Yisrael contended with ADONAI and where ADONAI showed Himself holy among them.

Edom Denies Passage

¹⁴ Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom. "Thus says your brother, Israel:

"You know all the hardship that came on us. ¹⁵ Our forefathers went down to Egypt, so we lived there for a very long time. The Egyptians mistreated us, and our fathers. ¹⁶ But we cried out to ADONAI, He heard our cry, sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. See now, we are at Kadesh, a town on the frontier of your territory. ¹⁷ Permit us to pass through your territory. We will not cross through any field or vineyard or drink water of any well. But we will travel on the king's highway. We will not deviate to the right or left until we will have passed through your territory."

¹⁸ But Edom said to him, "You may not pass through me—or I will march out against you with the sword."

¹⁹ Bnei-Yisrael then said to him, "We will travel on the main road, and if we or our livestock even drink any of your water, we will pay its price. It's nothing, just to pass through on foot!"

²⁰ He answered, "You may not pass through!" Yet Edom came out to oppose them with a large and well-armed people. ²¹ Since Edom refused to permit Israel to cross through her territory, Israel turned away from them.

† cf. 1 Cor. 10:4.

Aaron Gathered To His People

²² The entirety of the community of Bnei-Yisrael set out from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor.

²³ Now at Mount Hor, near the Edomite border, ADONAI said to Moses and Aaron, ²⁴ "Aaron will be gathered to his people. He will not enter the land, which I have given to Bnei-Yisrael, because you rebelled against My command at the waters of Meribah. ²⁵ Take Aaron and his son Eleazar, and take them up Mount Hor. ²⁶ Remove Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar, and Aaron will be gathered up and will die there."

²⁹ When they saw that Aaron had died, the entire community mourned Aaron 30 days.

Nehushtan : Snake on a Pole

²¹ When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming along the road to Atharim, he attacked Israel and captured some of them. ² Then Israel vowed to ADONAI and stated, "If you deliver this people into our hand, we will put their cities under the ban of destruction!" ³ ADONAI listened to Israel's plea and delivered up the Canaanites. They put them and their cities under the ban of destruction. So the name of the place was called Hormah.

⁵ The people spoke against God and Moses: "Why have you brought us from Egypt to die in the wilderness, because there is no bread, no water, and our very spirits detest the despicable food?" ⁶ So ADONAI sent poisonous serpents among the people, †† and they bit the people and many of the people of Israel died.

⁷ The people came to Moses and said, "We sinned when we spoke against ADONAI and you! Pray to ADONAI for us, that He may take away the snakes!" So Moses prayed for the people.

⁸ ADONAI said to Moses, "Make yourself a fiery snake and put it on a pole. Whenever anyone who has been bitten will look at it, he will live." ‡

†† cf. 1 Cor. 10:9. ‡ cf. John 3:14-15.

Journey to Moab

¹⁰ Bnei-Yisrael moved on and encamped at Oboth.
¹¹ Then they set out from Oboth and camped in Ijebarim, in the wilderness facing Moab toward the sunrise. ¹² From there they set out and camped in the Wadi Zered. ¹³ They set out from there and camped along the Arnon, which is in the wilderness extending into Amorite territory. The Arnon is also the border between Moab and the Amorites. ¹⁴ Therefore, it is said in the Book of the Wars of ADONAI, "...Vaheb in Suphah and the wadis of the Arnon, ¹⁵ and the slope of the wadis that leads to the site of Ar and lie along the border of Moab—" ¹⁶ And from there—on to Beer.

This is the well where ADONAI said to Moses, "Gather the people and I will give them water."

¹⁷ Then Israel sang this song,
 "Spring up, O well! Sing about it!

¹⁸ The well the princes dug, that the nobles of the people sank with their scepter and their staffs."

From the wilderness they went on to Mattanah.

¹⁹ From Mattanah they went on to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, ²⁰ and from Bamoth to the valley in the field of Moab where the peak of Pisgah overlooks the wasteland.

Defeat of Sihon and Og

²¹ Israel sent messengers to King Sihon of the Amorites saying, ²² "Permit us to pass through your land. We will not turn aside into field or vineyard nor drink water from the wells. We will travel on the king's highway until we will have passed through your territory."

²³ But Sihon would not let Israel pass through his territory. Instead, Sihon called out his entire army and marched out into the desert to oppose Israel. When he came to Jahaz, he fought against Israel. ²⁴ But Israel struck him by the sword's edge and conquered his land from Arnon to Jabbok as far as the Ammonites, because the border of the sons of Ammon was fortified.

²⁵ Israel conquered all these cities and occupied all the Amorite cities, Heshbon and all its towns. ²⁶ Heshbon was the city of King Sihon of the Amorites, who had fought with the former king of Moab and had taken from his control all the land as far as the Arnon.

²⁷ Therefore the poets say,

"Come to Heshbon! Let her be rebuilt!
 Let the city of Sihon be restored!

²⁸ For fire went out from Heshbon, a blaze from the city of Sihon!

It consumed Ar of Moab,
 the masters of Arnon's heights!

²⁹ Woe to you, O Moab!

You have been destroyed, people of Chemosh!
 He has given up his sons as refugees and his daughters as captives to Sihon, king of the Amorites.

³⁰ But we overthrew them!

Heshbon as far as Dibon is destroyed!

We have demolished them as far as Nophah up to Medeba."

³¹ So Israel was living in the land of the Amorites.

³² After Moses sent spies to Jazer, they captured her towns and drove out the Amorites who were there.

³³ Then they turned and went up the road to the Bashan. Og, king of the Bashan, went out to confront them, he and all his people, in battle at Edrei.

³⁴ ADONAI said to Moses, "Do not fear him. I have given him with all his people and his land into your hand. You are to do to him just as you did to Sihon, the Amorite king who was living in Heshbon."

³⁵ So they struck him and his sons and his entire army until no survivor was left to him, and they possessed his land.

A Donkey Rebukes Balaam

22 Then Bnei-Yisrael set out and camped in the plains of Moab alongside the Jordan across from Jericho.

Parashat Balak

² When Balak son of Zippor, realized all that Bnei-Yisrael had done to the Amorites, ³ Moab became terrified because there were so many people. Moab was filled with dread because of Bnei-Yisrael. ⁴ Moab said to the elders of Midian, "The multitude will lick up everything around us like the ox licks up the grass of the field."

Now Balak son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. ⁵ He sent messengers to summon Balaam son of Beor, at Pethor near the River † in his native land, saying to him, "Look now, a people has come out of Egypt. See now, they cover the surface of the earth and are settling beside me. ⁶ Come now, curse this people for me, because they are too strong for me! Perhaps I may be able to defeat them and drive them away from the country. I know that whoever you bless will be blessed and whoever you curse will be accursed!"

⁷ The elders of Moab and Midian left with divination fees in their hand. When they came to Balaam, they told him Balak's words.

⁸ He said to them, "Spend the night here. I will give you an answer just as ADONAI speaks to me." So the officials of Moab stayed with Balaam.

¹⁰ Balaam said to God, "Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent word to me: ¹¹ See, the people coming out of Egypt cover the surface of the land. Come now, curse them for me. Perhaps I will be able to fight against them and drive them away!"

† i.e., the Euphrates

¹² God said to Balaam, "Do not go with them! Do not curse them, for they are blessed!"

¹³ So Balaam got up in the morning and said to the officials of Balak, "Go back to your country, for ADONAI has refused to let me go with you."

¹⁴ So the Moabite officials got up, went back to Balak, and said, "Balaam refused to come with us." ¹⁵ Balak again sent other dignitaries, more numerous and honored than these previous ones.

¹⁶ They also came to Balaam and said to him, "Thus says Balak son of Zippor: Please let nothing keep you from coming to me! ¹⁷ I will richly reward you, and everything you tell me I will do! Just come now and curse this people for me!"

¹⁸ But Balaam answered Balak's servants, "Even if Balak gave me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot cross beyond the mouth of ADONAI my God, to do anything small or great! ¹⁹ But now, you may spend the night here, too. Then I may find out anything else ADONAI may say to me."

²⁰ God came to Balaam by night and said to him, "Since the men came to you to summon you, arise and go with them. However, only the word I tell you are you to do!"

²¹ So Balaam got up in the morning, saddled his donkey, and went with the Moabite princes. ²² But the anger of God burned because he was going. The angel of ADONAI stood in the road to oppose him—he was riding on his donkey and two of his servants were with him— ²³ when the donkey saw the angel of ADONAI standing in the road with his drawn sword in his hand, the donkey turned off the road and went into the field. So Balaam beat the donkey to get her back onto the road.

²⁴ Then the angel of ADONAI stood in a narrow path between two vineyards, with a wall on this side and a wall on that side. ²⁵ When the donkey saw the angel of ADONAI, she pressed against the wall, crushing Balaam's foot against the wall. So Balaam continued beating her.

²⁸ Then ADONAI opened the donkey's mouth and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you that you have beaten me these three times?" †

²⁹ Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you've made a fool of me! If I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you now!"

³⁰ The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey which you have ridden as always to this day? Have I ever been in the habit of doing this to you?"

"No," he said.

³¹ Then ADONAI opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the angel of ADONAI standing in the road with his drawn sword in his hand. So he fell on his face.

³² The angel of ADONAI said to him, "Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? Behold, I came as an adversary because your way before Me is a reckless one! ³³ The donkey saw Me and turned away from Me these three times. If she had not turned away from Me, by now I would have killed you indeed, but let her live!"

³⁴ Balaam said to the angel of ADONAI, "I have sinned, for I did not know that you were standing in the road to oppose me. Now, if this is displeasing in your eyes, I will go back home."

³⁵ The angel of ADONAI said to Balaam, "Go with the men, but speak only the word that I tell you." So Balaam went with Balak's princes.

³⁶ When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to greet him at the Moabite city on the border of the Arnon, the frontier of the territory. ³⁷ Balak said to Balaam, "Didn't I send you an urgent summons? Why didn't you come to me? Am I really unable to reward you?"

³⁸ "Look, I have come to you now!" Balaam said to Balak. "Can I just say anything? I must speak only the message which God puts into my mouth." ³⁹ Then Balaam went with Balak to Kiriath-huzoth. ⁴⁰ Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep and sent some to Balaam and the princes who were with him.

⁴¹ In the morning, Balak took Balaam with him to Bamoth-baal, and from there he saw part of the people.

A Curse Turns to Blessings

23 Then Balaam said to Balak, "Build me seven altars here and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams." ² So Balak did just as Balaam had said. Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar. ³ Balaam said to Balak, "Stay here beside your offering. I will go and perhaps ADONAI will meet me. Whatever message He shows me, I will tell you." Then he went to a barren height.

⁴ God met with Balaam and he said to Him, "I have prepared seven altars, and on each altar I offered a bull and a ram."

⁵ ADONAI put a message into Balaam's mouth and said, "Return to Balak and speak this."

⁶ Balaam went back to him. Behold, he was standing beside his offering with all the princes of Moab. ⁷ Then he uttered his oracle and said,

"From Aram, Balak brought me,

Moab's king from the mountains of the east:

'Come! Curse Jacob for me!

Come! Denounce Israel!

⁸ How can I curse one whom God has not cursed?

How can I denounce one whom ADONAI has not denounced?"

† cf. 2 Pet. 2:16.

⁹ From the rocky peaks I see him.
 From the heights I behold him.
 Look, he lives as a nation apart, and does not consider himself as being like the other nations.
¹⁰ Who can count Jacob's dust?
 Who can number a fourth of Israel?
 Let my soul die the death of the upright, and let my end be like his!"

¹¹ Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me?
 I brought you to curse my enemies, but look, you've actually blessed them!"

¹² But in response he said, "Mustn't I speak whatever ADONAI puts into my mouth?"

¹³ Then Balak said to him, "Come now with me to another place where you can see a part of them only, not all of them. Curse them for me from there."

¹⁴ He took him to Lookout Field on top of Pisgah. He built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

¹⁵ "Stay here beside your offering," he said to Balak,
 "while I am meeting over there."

¹⁶ ADONAI met Balaam there and put a message into his mouth, and said, "Return to Balak and speak thus."

¹⁷ So he went to him, and behold, he and the princes of Moab were standing beside his offering.
 Balak asked him, "What did ADONAI say?"

¹⁸ So he uttered his oracle and said:
 "Rise, Balak! Hear me, son of Zippor!
¹⁹ God is not a man who lies, † or a son of man who changes his mind!
 Does He speak and then not do it, or promise and not fulfill it?"

²⁰ Look, I received a command to bless.
 He has blessed—I cannot change it!

²¹ No misfortune is to be seen in Jacob, and no misery in Israel!
ADONAI their God is with them
 —the King's shout is among them!

²² God is bringing them from Egypt with the strong horns of the wild ox!

²³ There is no sorcery effective against Jacob,
 nor any divination against Israel!
 Now it will be said of Jacob and Israel,
 "See what God has done!"

²⁴ The people rise like a lioness, like a lion who does not rest until he eats his prey and drinks his victim's blood!"

²⁵ Then Balak said to Balaam, "Do not curse them or bless them at all!"

²⁶ Balaam answered and said to Balak, "Haven't I told you, 'All that ADONAI says, I must do'?"

²⁷ Balak said to Balaam, "Come with me to another place. Perhaps it will be pleasing to God and you may curse them for me from there." ²⁸ So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, overlooking the wasteland.

²⁹ Balaam said to Balak, "Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me."

³⁰ Balak did just as Balaam said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

How Lovely the Tents of Jacob

24 When Balaam realized that it was pleasing in the eyes of ADONAI to bless Israel, he did not resort to sorceries as at the other times, but turned his face toward the wilderness. ² Lifting up his eyes, Balaam saw Israel dwelling by tribes. The Ruach Elohim came over him. ³ He uttered his oracle and said:

"This is the oracle of Balaam son of Beor, and the oracle of a strong man whose eye has been opened,

⁴ the oracle of one hearing God's speech,
 one seeing Shaddai's vision,
 one fallen down, yet with open eyes:

⁵ How lovely are your tents, O Jacob, and your dwellings, O Israel!

⁶ Like valleys they are spread out, like gardens beside a river,
 like aloes planted by ADONAI, like cedars beside the waters.

⁷ Water will flow from his buckets, his seed by abundant water.
 His king will be greater than Agag, his kingdom will be exalted.

⁸ God is bringing him out of Egypt.
 like the strong horns of a wild ox.
 He devours nations hostile to him.
 He will crush their bones.

His arrows will pierce them.
⁹ He crouches like a lion or a lioness—who would rouse him?

He who blesses you will be blessed,
 and he who curses you will be cursed."

¹⁰ Then Balak became furious at Balaam, and struck his hands together. Balak said to Balaam, "I summoned you to curse my enemies, but look, you have blessed them these three times! ¹¹ Now, go home! I said I would reward you, but see, ADONAI has kept you from reward!"

¹² Balaam answered Balak, "Didn't I indeed tell your messengers whom you sent to me saying: ¹³ 'If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the mouth of ADONAI, to do good or bad from my own heart? Whatever ADONAI may speak, I will speak!' ¹⁴ Now, behold, I am going back to my people. Come, let me counsel you what these people will do to your people in the latter days." ¹⁵ Then he uttered his oracle:

"The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the strong man whose eye is opened,
¹⁶ the oracle of one hearing God's speech,
 one experiencing Elyon's knowledge,

† cf. Titus 1:2; Heb. 6:18.

one seeing Shaddai's vision,
one fallen down,
yet with open eyes:

¹⁷ I see him, yet not at this moment.
I behold him, yet not in this location.
For a star will come from Jacob,
a scepter will arise from Israel. †
He will crush the foreheads of Moab and the skulls of all the sons of Seth.
¹⁸ Edom will be conquered—his enemies will conquer Seir, but Israel will triumph.

¹⁹ One from Jacob will rule and destroy the city's survivors."

²⁰ Then he saw Amalek,
so he uttered his oracle and said:
"Amalek was the first of nations, but will come to ruin at last."

²¹ Then he saw the Kenite,
so he uttered his oracle and said,
"Your dwelling is secure.
Your nest is set in the rock.

²² Yet Kain will be destroyed,
when Asshur captures you."

²³ Again he uttered his oracle and said,
"O, who can live when God does this?"

²⁴ Ships will come from Kittim's shore.
They will afflict Asshur and Eber, but they too will come to destruction."

²⁵ Then Balaam got up and went and returned to his own place, and Balak went on his way.

Moabite Seduction and Phinehas Arises

25 While Israel was staying in Shittim, the people began to have immoral sexual relations with women from Moab. ² Then they invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods, so the people were eating, and bowing down before their gods. ³ When Israel became bound to Baal of Peor, the anger of ADONAI grew hot against Israel.

⁴ ADONAI said to Moses, "Seize all the ringleaders and hang them before ADONAI facing the sun, so that ADONAI's fierce anger may be turned away from Israel."

⁵ So Moses said to the judges of Israel, "Each of you, kill your men who have been joining themselves to Baal of Peor." ⁶ Then behold, a man from Bnei-Yisrael came and brought a Midianite woman to his brothers before the eyes of Moses and of the whole assembly of Bnei-Yisrael, while they were weeping at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting!

⁷ When Phinehas son of Eleazar son of Aaron the kohen saw it, he arose from the midst of the assembly, took a spear in his hand, ⁸ and went after the man of Israel into the tent and pierced them through—both the Israelite man and the woman's belly. Then the plague among Bnei-Yisrael was stopped. ⁹ However, 24,000 were dead because of the plague!

Parashat Pinchas

¹⁰ Then ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ¹¹ "Phinehas son of Eleazar son of Aaron the kohen has turned away My anger from Bnei-Yisrael because he was very zealous for Me among them, so that I did not put an end to Bnei-Yisrael in My zeal. ¹² So now say: See, I am making with him a covenant of shalom! ¹³ It will be for him and his descendants after him a covenant of an everlasting priesthood—because he was zealous for his God and atoned for Bnei-Yisrael."

¹⁴ The name of the Israelite man killed with the Midi-anite woman was Zimri son of Salu, a prince of a Simeonite ancestral household. ¹⁵ The name of the executed Midianite woman was Cozbi, daughter of Zur—he was a tribal head of an ancestral house in Midian.

¹⁶ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁷ "Deal with the Midianites as enemies and strike them. ¹⁸ For they have been enemies to you in their deceptions of you in the matter of Peor and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a Midianite prince, their sister who was slain on the day of the plague on account of the Peor incident." ¹⁹ (26:1) After the plague,

Numbering the Second Generation

26 ADONAI said to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron the kohen saying, ² "Take a headcount of the entire community of Bnei-Yisrael, sons twenty years old and upward, by their ancestral houses, all who can serve in Israel's army."

³ So Moses and Eleazar the kohen spoke with them on the Moabite plains by the Jordan across from Jericho saying, ⁴ "Just as ADONAI commanded Moses, a census will be taken of all men of Bnei-Yisrael who came out of Egypt, from 20 years old and upward."

⁵ The descendants of the sons of Reuben, Israel's firstborn: by Hanoth the Hanochite family, by Pallu the Palluite family, ⁶ by Hezron the Hezronite family, and by Carmi the Carmite family, ⁷ these Reubenite families numbered 43,730. ⁸ The son of Pallu was Eliab.
⁹ The sons of Eliab were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram.
These were the Dathan and Abiram who were community leaders who rebelled against Moses and Aaron and were among the following of Korah in their rebellion against ADONAI. ¹⁰ Then the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them with Korah, whose followers died when the fire consumed the 250 men, these men serving as a warning. ¹¹ Korah's sons, however, did not die.

¹² The sons of Simeon by their families were: by Nemuel the family of the Nemuelites, by Jamin the family of the Jaminites, by Jachin the family of the Jachinites, ¹³ by Zerach the family of the Zerachites, and by Shaul the family of the Shaulites. ¹⁴ These families of the Simeonites numbered 22,200.

¹⁹ Er and Onan were sons of Judah but had died in the land of Canaan. ²⁰ The sons of Judah by their families were: by Shelah the Shelanite family, by Perez the Perezite family, by Zerach the Zerachite family. ²¹ The sons of Perez: by Hezron the Hezronite family, by Hamul the Hamulite family. ²² These were the sons of Judah. They numbered 76,500.

²³ The sons of Issachar by their families were: Tola and the family of the Tolaites, by Puvah the Punite family, ²⁴ by Jashub the Jashubite family, by Shimron the Shimronite family. ²⁵ These were the families of Issachar. They numbered 64,300.

²⁶ The sons of Zebulun by their families were: by Sered the family of the Seredites, by Elon the family of the Elonites, by Jahleel the family of the Jahleelites. ²⁷ These were the Zebulunite families. They numbered 60,500.

²⁸ The sons of Joseph by their families were Manasseh and Ephraim. ²⁹ The sons of Manasseh were: by Machir the family of the Machirites (Machir fathered Gilead.), by Gilead the family of the Gileadites. ³⁰ The sons of Gilead were: by Iezer the family of the Iezerites, by Helek the Helekite family, ³¹ by Asriel the Asrielite family, by Shechem the Shechemite family, ³² by Shemida the Shemidaite family, by Hephher the Hephherite family. ³³ Hephher's son Zelophehad had no sons, only daughters. The names of Zelophehad's daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. ³⁴ These were the families of Manasseh. They numbered 52,700.

³⁵ These were the sons of Ephraim by their families: of Shuthelah the Shuthelahite family, of Becher the Bechrite family, of Tahan the Tahanite family. ³⁶ These were the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran the Eranite family. ³⁷ These were the families of the sons of Ephraim. These numbered 32,500. These were the sons of Joseph by their families.

³⁸ The sons of Benjamin by their families were: by Bela the Belaite family, by Ashbel the Ashbelite family, by Ahiram the Ahiramite family, ³⁹ by Shephupham the Shuphamite family, by Hupham the Huphamite family. ⁴⁰ The sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman. By Ard was the family of the Ardites, by Naaman the family of the Naamanites. ⁴¹ These were the sons of Benjamin. They numbered 45,600.

⁴² These were the sons of Dan by their families: by Shuham the Shuhamite family. These were the families of Dan by family. ⁴³ They were all Shuhamite families, and, they numbered 64,400.

⁴⁴ The sons of Asher by their families were: by Imnah the Imnite family, by Ishvi the Ishvite family, by Beriah the Beriite family. ⁴⁵ Through the sons of Beriah: by Heber the Heberite family, by Malchiel the Malchielite family. ⁴⁶ The name of Asher's daughter was Serah. ⁴⁷ These were the families of Asher's sons. They numbered 53,400.

⁴⁸ The sons of Naphtali by their families were: by Jahzeel the Jahzeelite family, by Guni the Gunite family, ⁴⁹ by Jezer the Jezrite family, by Shillem the Shillemite family. ⁵⁰ These were the families of Naphtali by their families. They numbered 45,400.

⁵¹ These sons of Israel totaled 601,730.

⁵² ADONAI then spoke to Moses, saying, ⁵³ "The land is to be divided to these as an inheritance according to the number of names. ⁵⁴ For the larger, you are to make his inheritance larger, and to the smaller you are to make his inheritance smaller. Each is to receive his inheritance in proportion to his population. ⁵⁵ Certainly the land is to be divided by lot. They will inherit it according to the names of their ancestral tribes. ⁵⁶ The division of the inheritance of larger and smaller tribes is to be decided by the lot."

⁶³ These were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the kohen when they counted Bnei-Yisrael on the plains of Moab across from Jericho. ⁶⁴ Not one of them was among those counted by Moses and Aaron the kohen when they counted Bnei-Yisrael in the Sinai wilderness, ⁶⁵ because ADONAI had said they would surely die in the wilderness. Not one of them was left, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Inheritance of Daughters

27 The daughters of Zelophehad son of Hephher son of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh son of Joseph (the names of his daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah) ² stood before Moses, Eleazar the kohen and the princes of the entire assembly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and said, ³ "Our father died in the wilderness. But he was not one of the followers banding together against ADONAI with Korah, though he died for his own sin. Yet he had no sons. ⁴ Why should our father's name diminish from his family just because he had no son? Give to us property among our father's brothers."

⁵ So Moses brought their issue before ADONAI, ⁶ and ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ⁷ "The daughters of Zelophehad are right in saying you should give them property by inheritance among their father's relatives. You are to turn over the inheritance of their father to them.

⁸ "Furthermore, you are to speak to Bnei-Yisrael saying: If a man dies without a son, you are to transfer his inheritance to his daughter. ⁹ If he has no daughter, you are to give his inheritance to his brothers. ¹⁰ If he has no brothers, you are to give it to his father's brothers. ¹¹ If his father had no brothers, you are to give it to the nearest relative in his family that he might possess it. This is to be a legal statute for Bnei-Yisrael, just as ADONAI commanded to Moses."

Commissioning of Joshua

¹² Then ADONAI said to Moses, "Go up this mountain of the Abarim range and look at the land that I have given to Bnei-Yisrael. ¹³ When you have seen it, you will be gathered to your people, just as Aaron your brother was gathered. ¹⁴ For in the wilderness of Zin during the strife of the community, you both rebelled against My Word instead of honoring Me as holy at the waters before their eyes." (These were the waters of Meribah at Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.)

¹⁵ Moses spoke to ADONAI saying, ¹⁶ "May ADONAI, God of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the community ¹⁷ to go out and come in before them, who will lead them out and bring them out so that the people of ADONAI will not be like sheep without a shepherd."

¹⁸ ADONAI said to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is the Ruach, and lay your hand on him. ¹⁹ You will have him stand before Eleazar the kohen and the entire assembly and commission him before their eyes. ²⁰ Give to him some of your authority so that the whole community of Bnei-Yisrael will obey him. ²¹ He will stand before Eleazar the kohen, who will pray and obtain judgments for him by Urim and before ADONAI. At his mouth, they will go out and at his mouth they will come in, he and all the community of Bnei-Yisrael with him."

²² Moses did as ADONAI commanded him. He took Joshua, stood him before Eleazar the kohen and all the entire assembly. ²³ Then he laid his hands on him and commissioned him just as ADONAI had spoken, by Moses's hand.

Moadim : Appointed Times

28 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Command Bnei-Yisrael and tell them to be careful to present to Me at the moadim My food offerings by fire as a pleasing aroma. ³ Tell them: This is the fire offering which you are to present to ADONAI: two male lambs a year old, without flaw, as a daily regular burnt offering. ⁴ Prepare one lamb in the morning and the other lamb you are to prepare at twilight, ⁵ along with a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with a fourth of a hin [†] of oil from pressed olives. ⁶ This is the regular burnt offering initiated at Mount Sinai, as a pleasing aroma, a fire offering to ADONAI. ⁷ With each lamb pour out a fourth of a hin of fermented drink at the Sanctuary as a drink offering to ADONAI. ⁸ Prepare the second lamb at twilight with the same type of grain and drink offerings you prepared in the morning, a fire offering as a pleasing aroma to ADONAI.

Shabbat : Weekly Rest

⁹ "On the Shabbat, you are to present two flawless male lambs a year old, along with two tenths of an ephah of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil and its drink offering. ¹⁰ This is the burnt offering for every Shabbat, besides the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Rosh Chodesh : New Moon

¹¹ "On the first of the month you are to present to ADONAI a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven flawless male lambs a year old, ¹² with three tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering with each bull, and two tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering with the ram, ¹³ and with each lamb a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma, an offering by fire to ADONAI. ¹⁴ Their drink offerings shall be: per bull, half a hin of wine, a third of a hin of wine per ram, and, a fourth of a hin per lamb. This will be the monthly burnt offering at each new moon throughout the year. ¹⁵ Also, one male goat as a sin offering to ADONAI beside the regular burnt offering is to be offered with its drink offering.

Pesach : Passover

¹⁶ "On the fourteenth day of the first month is ADONAI's Passover. ¹⁷ On the fifteenth day, there is to be a feast. For seven days, matzot will be eaten. ¹⁸ You are to hold a sacred assembly on the first day. You are not to do any laborious work. ¹⁹ You are to offer to ADONAI burnt offering by fire, two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old. They are to be flawless. ²⁰ You are to offer their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah per bull, two tenths per ram, ²¹ and one tenth per each of the seven lambs, ²² plus one goat for a sin offering to atone for yourselves. ^{†23} In addition to the morning burnt offering and regular burnt offering, you are to offer these. ²⁴ Just like this you are to offer each day, for seven days, the food to be offered by fire for each day as a pleasing aroma to ADONAI, beside the regular burnt offering with its drink offering. ²⁵ On the seventh day, you are to have a sacred assembly, and you are to do no laborious work.

Shavuot : Feast of Weeks

²⁶ "On the Day of Firstfruits, when you offer to ADONAI a new grain offering during the Feast of Weeks, you are to have a sacred assembly. You are to do no laborious work. ²⁷ You are to offer as a pleasing aroma a burnt offering to ADONAI, two young bulls from the herd, one ram and seven male lambs a year old. ²⁸ With each bull there is to be a grain offering of three tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, with the ram two tenths, ²⁹ and with each lamb, one tenth, ³⁰ plus one male goat to make atonement for you. ³¹ In addition, you are to prepare the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and its drink offering. They are to be without defect.

Yom Teruah : Day of Shofar Shouts

²⁹ "On the first day of the seventh month you are to have a sacred assembly. You are to do no laborious work. It is for you a day for sounding the shofar. ² You are to prepare a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma to ADONAI: one young bull from the herd, one ram, and seven male lambs a year old, without flaw, ³ with their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah with the bull, two tenths with the ram, ⁴ and one tenth with each of the seven lambs, ⁵ as well as one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for yourselves. ⁶ Also offer the burnt offering for the month with its grain offering, the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their appropriate drink offerings as a pleasing aroma to ADONAI, as an offering by fire.

Yom Kippur : Day of Atonement

⁷ "On the tenth day of this seventh month, you are to have a sacred assembly. You are to deny yourselves and do no work. ⁸ You are to present to ADONAI a burnt offering as a pleasing aroma, one young bull from the herd, one ram, and seven year-old male lambs without defect, ⁹ along with their grain offerings of fine flour mixed with oil: three tenths of an ephah with the bull, two tenths with the ram, ¹⁰ and one tenth with each of the seven lambs. ¹¹ Also offer one male goat for a sin offering, in addition to the sin offering for atonement, as well as the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and their drink offerings.

Sukkot : Feast of Tabernacles

¹² "On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you are to have a sacred assembly. You are not to do any of your work, and you are to celebrate the Feast to ADONAI for seven days. ¹³ You are to offer a burnt offering by fire to ADONAI as a pleasing aroma: thirteen young bulls from the herd, two rams, and fourteen year-old male lambs without defect, ¹⁴ their grain offerings of fine flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah with each of the thirteen bulls, two tenths with each of the two rams, ¹⁵ and one tenth with each of the fourteen lambs, ¹⁶ plus one male goat as a sin offering, besides the regular burnt offering with its grain and drink offering.

³⁹ "You are to prepare these for ADONAI at your moadim in addition to your vow and freewill offerings, along with your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offering, and fellowship offerings.”

30 (29:40) So Moses told Bnei-Yisrael all that ADONAI commanded Moses.

Parashat Matot

Keeping or Nullifying Vows

² (1) Moses spoke to the princes of the tribes of Bnei-Yisrael saying, “This is what ADONAI has commanded:

³ (2) Whenever a man makes a vow to ADONAI or swears an oath to obligate himself by a pledge, he is not to violate his word but do everything coming out of his mouth. †

¹⁰ (9) “Any vow or obligation of a widow or a divorced woman will be binding on her. ¹¹ (10) If in her husband’s house she vowed or obligated herself by pledge under oath, ¹² (11) and her husband should hear it and say nothing to her, not forbidding her, all her vows and every pledge by which she has obligated herself will stand. ¹³ (12) But if her husband should nullify them on the day when he hears of them, nothing from her lips, whether vow or pledge, will stand. Her husband has nullified them and ADONAI will forgive her. ¹⁴ (13) Her husband may ratify or veto any vow or sworn oath to deny herself.

¹⁵ (14) “But if her husband says nothing to her from day to day, then he is confirming all her vows and all her oaths that are on her. He confirms them by saying nothing to her on the day of his hearing about it. ¹⁶ (15) But if he nullifies them after hearing about it, he will bear her guilt.”

¹⁷ (16) These are the statutes that ADONAI gave to Moses relevant to relationships between a man and his wife, as well as between a father and his young daughter still living in his house.

Vengeance on Midian and Balaam

31 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ² “Take vengeance on the Midianites for Bnei-Yisrael. Afterward you will be gathered to your people.”

¹³ Moses, Eleazar the kohen, and all the princes of the community went to meet them outside the camp. ¹⁴ But Moses was angry with the officers of the army—the commanders of thousands, the commanders of hundreds, those returning from the campaign of the war. ¹⁵ Moses said to them, “You let all the women live? ¹⁶ Why, they are the ones—because of Balaam’s advice—who caused Bnei-Yisrael to be unfaithful to ADONAI in the matter of Peor, so that the plague was on the community of ADONAI! ¹⁷ So now, kill all the boys and kill every woman who has been intimate with a man. ¹⁸ But save for yourselves every girl who has not been intimate with a man.

¹⁹ “Any of you who has killed anyone or touched the body of anyone who has been killed must stay outside the camp for seven days. You must purify yourselves, on the third and seventh days—you and your captives. ²⁰ Also purify every item of clothing as well as every item made of leather or wood.”

²¹ Eleazar said to the men of the army who had gone to war, “This is the regulation of the Torah ADONAI gave to Moses: ²² The gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, lead, ²³ and anything able to pass through fire is to be put through the fire and will then be clean. It is also to be purified with the water of cleansing. Anything that cannot stand the fire is to be put through the water.

²⁴ You are to wash your clothes also on the seventh

day. You will then be clean and may then come into the camp."

²⁵ ADONAI said to Moses saying, ²⁶ "Count the total spoil from the captive people and animals—you, Eleazar the kohen and the princes of the fathers of the community. ²⁷ You are to divide the spoil between those fighting in the war, taking part in the battle, and the rest of the community. ²⁸ You are also to set apart from the men of war going into battle tribute to ADONAI, one item from every 500, whether persons, cattle, donkeys or flock. ²⁹ From their half share, take and give it to Eleazar the kohen as ADONAI 's part. ³⁰ From the half of Bnei-Yisrael, you are to take one in 50, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, flock, or any other animals, and give them to the Levites, those charged with the care of ADONAI 's Tabernacle."

³⁶ The half share of those going into battle was 337,500 sheep, ³⁷ of which ADONAI 's tribute was 675, ³⁸ 36,000 cattle, of which ADONAI 's tribute was 72, ³⁹ 30,500 donkeys, of which ADONAI 's tribute was 61, ⁴⁰ 16,000 persons, of which the tribute to ADONAI was 32.

⁴⁸ Then the officers over the units of the army, the commanders over thousands and hundreds, came to Moses. ⁴⁹ They said to him, "Your servants have counted the heads of the men of war under our command, and not one is missing. ⁵⁰ So we have brought as an offering to ADONAI the gold items each of us acquired—armlets, bracelets, signet rings, earrings and necklaces to atone for ourselves before ADONAI."

⁵¹ Moses and Eleazar the kohen received the gold from them, all the crafted items. ⁵² All of the gold presented as a gift to ADONAI came to 16,750 shekels from the commanders of thousands and hundreds. ⁵³ Each of the men of the army had taken plunder for himself. ⁵⁴ Moses and Eleazar the kohen received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the Tent of Meeting as a memorial for Bnei-Yisrael before ADONAI.

Settling the East Side

32 The sons of Reuben and Gad had very large herds and flocks, and, they saw that the territory of Jazer and Gilead were ideal for livestock. ² So the sons of Reuben and Gad came and said to Moses, Eleazar the kohen, and the princes of the community saying, ³ "Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo and Beon— ⁴ the territory ADONAI conquered before the community of Israel—are suitable for livestock, and your servants have livestock."

⁶ Moses replied to the sons of Gad and Reuben, "Should your countrymen go to war while you dwell here? ⁷ Why do you dishearten Bnei-Yisrael from going across to the land that ADONAI has given to them? ⁸ Your fathers did this when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to look over the land. ⁹ They went up to the Valley of Eshcol and viewed the land, but they discouraged the hearts of Bnei-Yisrael not to enter the land which ADONAI had given them. ¹⁰ The anger of ADONAI was aroused that day, and He swore an oath saying: ¹¹ 'The men who came out of Egypt, from 20 years old and upward, will not see the land I promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, for they have not followed after Me with a whole heart— ¹² except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they were wholehearted after ADONAI.' ¹³ The anger of ADONAI burned against Israel and He caused them to wander in the wilderness 40 years until all the generation doing that evil in ADONAI 's sight was gone.

¹⁶ Then they came up to him and said, "We will build sheepfolds for our livestock and cities for our children. ¹⁷ But we are prepared to arm ourselves and go ahead of Bnei-Yisrael until we have brought them to their place. Our children will live in the cities fortified against the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁸ We will not return to our homes until each one of Bnei-Yisrael has received his inheritance. ¹⁹ Yet we will not inherit with them on the side beyond the Jordan, since our inheritance has come on the east side of the Jordan."

²⁰ Moses said to them, "If you will do this—if you will arm yourselves for battle for ADONAI, ²¹ and if all of you cross the Jordan until ADONAI has driven His enemies from before Him ²² and the land is subdued before ADONAI —then afterward you may return and be free before ADONAI and Israel. Then this territory will be your possession before ADONAI.

²³ “But if you don’t do this, behold, you sin against ADONAI! Be assured! Your sin will find you out! ²⁴ Build for yourselves cities for your children and pens for your flocks. Then do what has come out of your mouth.”

²⁵ The sons of Gad and Reuben said to Moses saying, “Your servants will do just as my lord is commanding. ²⁶ Our children, our wives, our flocks, and all of our herds will remain here in the cities of Gilead. ²⁷ But your servants, every one armed for battle, will cross over for the war before ADONAI, just as my lord says.”

²⁸ Moses then gave orders about them to Eleazar the kohen, Joshua son of Nun, and to the chiefs of the fathers of the tribes of Bnei-Yisrael. ²⁹ Moses said to them, “If the sons of Gad and Reuben cross over the Jordan with you, everyone armed for battle before ADONAI, when the land is subdued before you, then give them the territory of Gilead as a possession.

³⁰ However, if they do not cross over fully armed, they are to possess the land of Canaan with you.”

³¹ The sons of Gad and Reuben answered saying, “What ADONAI has said to your servants, so we will do. ³² We will cross fully armed before ADONAI into Canaan, but our inheritance will be on this side of the Jordan.”

³⁷ The sons of Reuben built Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, ³⁸ Nebo, Baal Meon, (cities whose names were changed) and Sibmah. They gave other names to the rebuilt cities.

³⁹ The sons of Machir son of Manasseh went up to Gilead, captured it, and drove out the Amorites who were there. ⁴⁰ So Moses gave Gilead to Machir son of Manasseh, and he lived there. ⁴¹ Jair, a son of Manasseh, went and captured their settlements and named them Jair’s Villages.

⁴² Nobah went and conquered Kenath and its settlements and named them Nobah after his own name.

Israel’s Journeys Reviewed

33 These are the journeys of Bnei-Yisrael when they came out of Egypt by their divisions under the hand of Moses and Aaron. ² Moses recorded the stages of their journeys at ADONAI’s command. These then are their journeys by stages.

³ Bnei-Yisrael set out from Rameses on the fifteenth day of the first month, the first day after Passover. They went out with a high hand in the sight of all

Egypt. ¹⁴ Now the Egyptians were burying those whom ADONAI had struck down among them. ADONAI had brought judgments on all their firstborn and their gods.

camped at Punon. ⁴³ Departing Punon, they camped at Oboth. ⁴⁴ Leaving Oboth, they camped at Ije-abarim on the border of Moab. ⁴⁵ They moved on from Ijim and camped at Dibon-gad. ⁴⁶ They moved on from Dibon-gad and camped at Almon-diblathaim. ⁴⁷ They departed from Almon-diblathaim and camped at the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo.

⁴⁸ They moved on from the mountains of Abarim and camped in the plains of Moab, by the Jordan, across from Jericho. ⁴⁹ They camped along the Jordan, from Beth-jeshimoth to Abel-shittim.

⁵⁰ ADONAI spoke to Moses along the Jordan in the plains of Moab across from Jericho saying, ⁵¹ "Speak to Bnei-Yisrael and say to them: When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, ⁵² you must drive out all the inhabitants of the land before you. You must destroy all their idols and cast images, and demolish their high places. ⁵³ You will take possession of the land, so you will settle in it, because I have given it to you to possess.

⁵⁴ "You are to divide the land by lot according to your families. To the large, make their inheritance larger, and to the small, make their inheritance smaller. Whatever comes out of the lot will be theirs. You are to distribute the inheritance according to your ancestral tribes.

⁵⁵ "But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, whoever you allow to remain will become to you barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides. They will give you trouble in the land in which you will be living. ⁵⁶ Then what I had intended to do to them, I will do to you."

Borders of Israel

34 ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ² "Command Bnei-Yisrael and say to them: When you enter the land of Canaan, these are the boundaries of the land being allotted to you as an inheritance. ³ Your southern side will run from the wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom to the southern end of the Dead Sea on the east. ⁴ Your border will cross south of the Scorpion Pass and continue to Zin and south of Kadesh-barnea, then go on to Hazar-addar and on to Azmon. ⁵ Then the border will turn from Azmon to the Wadi of Egypt and end at the sea.

⁶ "Your western boundary will be the coast of the Great Sea. This will be your western border.

⁷ "Your northern boundary will be by running a line from the Great Sea to Mount Hor, ⁸ then from Mount Hor to Levo-Hamath †, then the boundary will go to Zedad. ⁹ The border will continue on to Ziphron, ending at Hazar-Enan. This will be your northern border.

¹⁰ "For your eastern border, run a line from Hazar-Enan to Shepham. ¹¹ From Shepham, the boundary will descend to Riblah on the east side of Ain, continuing along the eastern slopes of Kinneret ††. ¹² From there the border will go down along the Jordan, ending at the Dead Sea. This will be your territory with its surrounding borders."

† Or, entrance of Hamat †† Kinneret

¹³ Moses commanded Bnei-Yisrael, saying, "This is the land which ADONAI has commanded that you are to assign by lot to the nine and a half tribes. ¹⁴ For the tribe of the sons of Reuben by their ancestral houses, the tribe of the sons of Gad by their ancestral houses, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have already received their inheritance. ¹⁵ These two and a half tribes have received their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan at Jericho, toward the sunrise."

¹⁶ ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, ¹⁷ "These are the names of the men who will allot the land to you: Eleazar the kohen and Joshua son of Nun. ¹⁸ Also you are to select one prince from each tribe to allot the land. ¹⁹ These are their names: from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh. ²⁰ From the tribe of the sons of Simeon, Shemuel son of Ammihud. ²¹ From the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad son of Chislon. ²² From the tribe of the sons of Dan, the prince is Bukki son of Jogli.

²³ From the sons of Joseph, from the tribe of the sons of Manasseh, the prince is to be Hanniel son of Ephod.

²⁴ The prince from the tribe of the sons of Ephraim is to be Kemuel son of Shiphtan.

²⁵ "The prince from the tribe of the sons of Zebulun is Elizaphan son of Parnach. ²⁶ The prince from the tribe of the sons of Issachar is Paltiel son of Azzan. ²⁷ The prince from the tribe of the sons of Asher is Ahihud son of Shelomi. ²⁸ The prince from the tribe of the sons of Naphtali is Pedahel son of Ammihud." ²⁹ These were those ADONAI commanded to apportion to Bnei-Yisrael the land of Canaan.

Cities for the Levites

35 ADONAI spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho saying, ² "Command Bnei-Yisrael to give to the Levites from the inheritance of their possessions cities in which to live. They are also to give the Levites pasturelands around the cities. ³ Thus they will have cities to live in and pastures for their cattle, flocks and all their livestock. ⁴ The pastures you give the Levites will extend out from the walls around the cities for 1,000 cubits. ⁵ You are to measure outside the cities 2,000 cubits on the east side, 2,000 cubits on the south side, on the west side 2,000 cubits, and on the north side 2,000 cubits. These are to be pasturelands for the cities.

of Canaan, ¹¹ you are to select cities which will be cities of refuge, to which one might flee if he has killed someone by accident. ¹² They are to be cities for refuge from the avenger, so the manslayer may not die before standing trial before the assembly. ¹³ The six cities you designate are to be your cities of refuge. ¹⁴ Designate three cities on this side of the Jordan and three in the land of Canaan as cities of refuge.

¹⁵ "These six cities of refuge are to be for Bnei-Yisrael as well as for the outsider and the visitor in their midst, for anyone killing a person by accident. ¹⁶ Now if the manslayer strikes someone with an iron object so that he dies, he is a murderer and the murderer must die. ¹⁷ If anyone has a stone in his hand that could be deadly and strikes anyone with it so that he dies, he is a murderer and the murderer must die. ¹⁸ Or if someone has a wooden object that could kill and strikes anyone so that he dies, he is a murderer and the murderer must be put to death. ¹⁹ The blood avenger himself may put the murderer to death. When he finds him, he is to kill him.

²⁰ "If anyone pushes someone maliciously, or throws anything at him with deadly intent, ²¹ or with hostility hits him with his fist so that he dies, the one hitting him is a murderer. The blood avenger may put the murderer to death when he finds him. ²² But if he pushes him suddenly or throws an object at him with no intent, ²³ or without seeing him should drop a stone on him resulting in his death, but he was not his enemy and intended him no harm, ²⁴ the assembly must judge between the manslayer and the avenger of blood according to these regulations. ²⁵ The assembly must protect the manslayer from the avenger of blood. The assembly should send him back to the city of refuge to which he had fled and he is to remain there until the death of the kohen gadol who was anointed with the holy oil.

³¹ "You are not to accept ransom for the life of a murderer. He deserves to die and he is to die. ³² Do not receive a ransom for one who has fled to his city of refuge, allowing him to return to his land before the kohen gadol's death. ³³ You are not to pollute the land in which you are. Blood pollutes the land, and no atonement can be made for land polluted by bloodshed except by the blood of the one who sheds it. ³⁴ You are not to defile the land where you live, where I dwell, for I dwell among Bnei-Yisrael."

Further Ruling About Daughters' Inheritance

36 The heads of the ancestral family of the children of Gilead son of Machir son of Manasseh, from the sons of Joseph, came and spoke before Moses and before the princes of the chiefs of the fathers of Bnei-Yisrael. ² They said, "My lord, ADONAI commanded to give the land by lot as an inheritance to Bnei-Yisrael. My lord was also commanded by ADONAI to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

³ "If they become wives of men from other tribes of Israel, their inheritance will be taken from our ancestral inheritance and added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry. So it will be deducted from the allotment of our inheritance. ⁴ When the Jubilee year comes, their inheritance will be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry and deducted from the inheritance of our ancestral tribe."

⁵ Then Moses commanded Bnei-Yisrael at the mouth of ADONAI, "What the tribe of the descendants of Joseph is saying is correct. ⁶ This is the word that ADONAI commands for the daughters of Zelophehad saying: They may become wives to whomever they please, as long as they marry within the family of the tribe of their father. ⁷ So no inheritance may be passed from tribe to tribe among Bnei-Yisrael— each one of Bnei-Yisrael will each keep the inheritance of the tribe of his ancestors. ⁸ Every daughter receiving an inheritance in one of the tribes of Bnei-Yisrael should marry within the family of her father's tribe, so that Bnei-Yisrael will each possess the inheritance of his fathers. ⁹ No inheritance may pass from tribe to another tribe, for each tribe of Bnei-Yisrael is to keep its inheritance."

¹³ These are the mitzvot and judgments that ADONAI gave by Moses's hand to Bnei-Yisrael, on the plains of Moab at Jericho along the Jordan.

Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy Introduction

“Deuteronomy” is known from its Greek name in the Septuagint meaning “second law.” There is, however, no second Torah. Deuteronomy is a re-cap, a second telling and expansion of the first telling to a new generation of Israelites poised to enter Canaan. The book is known as to Hebrew speakers, meaning “words” of Moses. Oratory in nature, the book can be summarized as containing three speeches of Moses, followed by a song and a prophetic blessing. Spoken at the steppes of Moab, this book concludes with the death of Moses at exactly 120 years of age (a full life in the Hebrew lore).

The first speech summarizes the thirty-eight-year wanderings of the people, led personally by God’s cloud by day and God’s fire by night. The second speech exhorts all Israel to remain faithful to the covenant, so that they might live long on the Land and live well off of it. The third speech speaks prophetically to the blessings of the covenant faithfulness for the life in the Land, as well as the curses for failure to keep the covenant, with consequences including loss of resources, property, inheritance, and even community life in the Land itself.

Nowhere does speak of God divorcing His people on the grounds of infidelity—a notion concocted by anti-Semites. Failure to keep the covenant can lead to being small in numbers, scattered and exiled among the nations, and even forced to serve foreign “gods” in idolatrous lands (Deut. 28:68). This happened personally to Jeremiah (Jer. 43:5-7), the prophet who wrote of the New Covenant to come (Jer. 31:31-34; Heb. 8:8-12). Stern discipline, however, is not tantamount to perpetual abandonment.

God, we are told, will remain Israel’s God. The (Deut. 6:4, 5-9), Israel’s call to monotheism, is a call to worship God and God alone, to insure that Israel remains with Him—that the world might eventually know Him. In this light, is predicted to come as the greatest Prophet, Moses’ superior (John 7:14-17, 40-46; Acts 3:21-26; cf. Deut. 18:15, 18-19). will remind Israel that wholehearted love for God alone, along with love of one’s neighbor as oneself, fulfills the whole of the that undergirds Israel’s covenant charter with the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Matt. 22:37-40; Mark 12:28-34; Luke 10:25-28). Moreover, in the person of Messiah, the world that resides beyond Israel’s borders can come to know the God who manifests Himself in those borders.

Moses speaks his last words on his 120th birthday, and he teaches a Song in Deuteronomy 32 for each succeeding generation to internalize. Moses begs, cajoles, implores, exhorts, and sternly warns the next generation never to forget God’s promises and God’s Word: “For it is not an empty thing for you, because it is your life! By this word you will prolong your days on the land, which you are crossing over the Jordan to possess” (Deut. 32:47). Today, for those in Messiah’s community, appropriating our inheritance—and life in the world-to-come—depends on trusting in God and believing in the One sent by Him as the deliverer and the redeemer (Deut. 18:18, cf. Exod. 14:31; John 6:39-40).

D'varim : The Words that Moses Spoke

1 These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel across the Jordan—in the wilderness, in the Arabah opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth and Di-Zahab. ²It is eleven days' journey from Horeb by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea.

³ Now Moses spoke to Bnei-Yisrael, according to all ADONAI had commanded him for them—in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, ⁴ after he had struck down Sihon king of the Amorites who lived in Heshbon, and Og king of the Bashan who lived in Ashtaroth and Edrei.

bors, in the Arabah, the hill country, the lowland, the Negev, and by the seashore—the land of the Canaanites and the Lebanon as far as the great river, the Euphrates. ⁸ See, I have set the land before you. Enter and possess the land that ADONAI swore to your fathers—to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob—to give to them and to their descendants after them.†

Bad Report and Poor Response

⁹ “I spoke to you at that time saying: ‘I am not able to bear the burden of you by myself. ¹⁰ ADONAI your God has multiplied you—and here you are today, like the stars of the heavens in number.

¹¹ “May ADONAI, God of your fathers, increase you a thousand times as many as you are, and may He bless you just as He has promised you! ¹² How can I bear your load and burden and bickering by myself?

¹⁴ “You answered me and said: ‘The thing you have said to do is good.’ ¹⁵ So I took the heads of your tribes, men who were wise and well known, and appointed them as heads over you—leaders of thousands, leaders of hundreds, leaders of fifties, leaders of tens, and officials for your tribes.

¹⁶ “I commanded your judges at that time saying: ‘Hear cases between your brothers, and judge fairly † between a man and his brother or the outsider with him. ¹⁷ You must not show partiality in judgment ‡ —you must hear the small and the great alike. Fear no man, for the judgment is God’s. The case that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me and I will hear it.’

¹⁸ “I commanded you at that time everything you should do.

¹⁹ “Then we journeyed from Horeb and went through all that great and terrible wilderness that you saw on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as ADONAI our God commanded us. Then we came to Kadesh-barnea. ²⁰ I said to you: ‘You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which ADONAI our God is giving to us. ²¹ See, ADONAI your God has set the land before you—go up, take possession, as ADONAI God of your fathers has promised you. Do not be afraid or discouraged.’

²² “Then all of you came near to me and said: ‘Let’s send men ahead of us to explore the land for us and bring us back word about the way we should go up and the cities we will enter.’

²³ “The idea seemed good to me, so I took twelve men from among you—one man for each tribe. ²⁴ They turned and went up into the hill country, and they came to the Wadi Eshcol and spied it out. ²⁵ They took in their hands some of the fruit of the land and brought it down to us. They also brought back word to us and said, ‘Good is the land that ADONAI our God is giving to us.’

²⁶ “Yet you would not go up, but rebelled against the command of ADONAI your God. ²⁷ In your tents you grumbled and said: ‘Because ADONAI hates us, He has brought us out from the land of Egypt to hand us over to the Amorites, to destroy us! ²⁸ Where are we going? Our brothers have discouraged our hearts saying, “The people are greater and taller than we are! The cities are great and fortified up to the heavens! Besides, we have even seen the children of Anakim there!”

²⁹ “Then I said to you, ‘Don’t tremble or be afraid of them. ³⁰ ADONAI your God, who goes before you, He Himself will fight for you—just as He did for you in Egypt before your own eyes, ³¹ and in the wilderness, where you saw how ADONAI your God carried you as a man carries his son, everywhere you went until you came to this place.’ ³² Yet for all this you did not trust in ADONAI your God— ³³ the One who goes before you on the way to scout out a place for you to camp and to show you the way you should go, in fire by night and in the cloud by day.

³⁴ “When ADONAI heard the tone † of your words, He was angry and swore an oath saying, ³⁵ ‘Not one of these men of this evil generation will see the good land that I swore to give your fathers— ³⁶ except Caleb the son of Jephunneh. He will see it—yet to him and his children I will give the land that he has walked on, because he has followed ADONAI wholeheartedly.’

³⁷ “ADONAI was even angry with me on your account, saying, ‘You will not enter there, either. ³⁸ Joshua son of Nun, who stands before you, will enter there—encourage him, for he will enable Israel to inherit it.

³⁹ “Moreover, your little ones—whom you said would become plunder, and your children who today have no knowledge of good or evil—they will enter there. To them I will give it and they will possess it. ⁴⁰ But as for you, turn around and journey into the wilderness by way of the Sea of Reeds ‡.’

⁴¹ “Then you answered and said to me, ‘We have sinned against ADONAI. We will go up and fight, just as ADONAI our God commanded us.’ So each of you strapped on his weapons of war, figuring it was easy to go up to the hill country.

⁴² “But ADONAI said to me, ‘Tell them, “Do not go up and fight—for I am not with you, and you will be defeated by your enemies.”’

⁴³ “So I told you, but you would not listen—you rebelled against the command of ADONAI and presumptuously went up into the hill country. ⁴⁴ The Amorites who lived in that hill country came out against you, and they chased you as bees do and scattered you from Seir to Hormah. ⁴⁵ Then you returned and wept before ADONAI, but ADONAI did not listen to your voice or pay attention to you.

⁴⁶ “So you stayed in Kadesh many days—like the days you had spent before.

Moses Recalls Wilderness Journey

2 “Then we turned and journeyed into the wilderness by the way to the Sea of Reeds, just as ADONAI told me. We went around the hill country of Seir for many days.

² “ADONAI spoke to me saying, ³ “You have gone around this hill country long enough—turn to the north. ⁴ Command the people saying, “You are about to cross into the territory of your relatives, the sons of Esau, who dwell in Seir. They will be afraid of you, so be very careful. ⁵ Do not provoke them, for I will not give you any of their land—not even a footprint—because I have given the hill country of Seir to Esau as a possession. ⁶ You are to buy food from them for money so that you may eat, and you are also to buy water from them for money so that you may drink. ⁷ For ADONAI your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand—He has known your wanderings through this great wilderness. These 40 years ADONAI your God has been with you—you have lacked nothing.”

⁹ “ADONAI said to me, ‘Do not harass Moab or engage them in battle. For I will not give you any of his land for a possession, because I have given Ar to the children of Lot for a possession. ¹⁰ (The Emim used to live there—a great and numerous people, as tall as the Anakim. ¹¹ These people also are considered Rephaim, like the Anakim; but the Moabites call them Emim. ¹² Now the Horites used to live in Seir, but the sons of Esau drove them out and destroyed them from before themselves and settled in their place—just as Israel did to the land of its possession that ADONAI gave to them.) ¹³ Now rise up, and cross over the Wadi Zered.’ So we went over the Wadi Zered.

¹⁴ “The time that we traveled from Kadesh-barnea until we crossed over the Wadi Zered was 38 years—until all the generation of the men of war from within the camp came to an end, as ADONAI had sworn to them. ¹⁵ Indeed, the hand of ADONAI was against them, to destroy them from within the camp until they came to their end. †

¹⁶ “Now when all the men of war had finished dying from among the people, ¹⁷ ADONAI spoke to me saying, ¹⁸ “Today you are about to cross the border of Moab at Ar. ¹⁹ When you come opposite the sons of Ammon, do not harass or provoke them—for I will not give you any of the land of the sons of Ammon for a possession, because I have given it to the sons of Lot for a possession. ²⁰ (That also is considered a land of Rephaim. Rephaim used to live there, but the Ammonites call them Zamzummim— ²¹ a great and numerous people, as tall as the Anakim. But ADONAI destroyed them from before them, and the Ammonites dispossessed them and settled in their place. ²² It was just as ADONAI did for the sons of Esau, who dwell in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites before them. They drove them out and settled in their place even to this day. ²³ As for the Avvim who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorim who came from Crete destroyed them and settled in their place.)

²⁴ “Rise up, journey on, and cross over the Wadi Arnon. See, I have handed over Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land—begin to possess it! Engage him in battle! ²⁵ This very day I will begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the peoples everywhere under heaven. When they hear the report about you, they will tremble and twist in anguish because of you.’

²⁶ “So I sent messengers from the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon king of Heshbon with words of shalom saying, ²⁷ ‘Let me pass through your land—I will go only by way of the road. I will not turn to the right or to the left. ²⁸ You will sell me food for money so that I may eat and give me water for money so that I may drink. Just let me pass through on foot— ²⁹ as the sons of Esau dwelling in Seir and the Moabites in Ar did for me—until I cross over the Jordan into the land that ADONAI our God is giving to us.’ ³⁰ But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him, because ADONAI your God stiffened his spirit and hardened his heart, in order to hand him over to you this very day. ††

³² “Then Sihon came out against us—he and all his people—to battle at Jahaz. ³³ ADONAI our God gave him over to us, and we struck him down along with his sons and all his people. ³⁴ We captured all his cities at that time, and utterly put under a ban of judgment every city—men, women and children. We left no survivor. ³⁵ We took only the livestock as plunder for ourselves, as the spoils of the cities we captured. ³⁶ From Aroer which is on the edge of the Wadi Arnon and the city by the wadi, all the way up to the Gilead, there was not a town too high for us. ADONAI our God gave everything over to us. ³⁷ Only you did not come near the land of the sons of Ammon—all along the Wadi Jabbok and the cities of the hill country and wherever ADONAI our God had commanded.

3 “Next we turned and went up the way to the Bashan. King Og of the Bashan came out against us—he and all his people—for battle at Edrei. ² But ADONAI said to me, ‘Do not fear him, for I have handed him over and all his people and his land. You will do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon.'

³“So ADONAI our God also handed over King Og of the Bashan and all his people, and we struck him down until no survivor was left. ⁴We captured all his cities at that time—there was not a town that we did not take from them—sixty cities, the whole region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in the Bashan. ⁵All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates and bars, in addition to a great many unwallled towns. ⁶We utterly destroyed them, just as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every city—men, women and children. ⁷But all the livestock and the spoils of the cities we took as plunder for ourselves.

⁸“So at that time we took from the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land across the Jordan, from the Wadi Arnon to Mount Hermon. ⁹(Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir.) ¹⁰We took all the cities of the plain and all the Gilead and all the Bashan, as far as Salcah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in the Bashan. ¹¹(For only King Og of the Bashan survived from the remnant of the Rephaim. In fact, his bed was made of iron—is it not in Rabbah of the Ammonites? Nine cubits was its length and four cubits its width, according to the cubit of a man.)

Possession East of Jordan

¹²“This land we took in possession at that time—from Aroer by the Wadi Arnon and half the hill country of the Gilead and its cities—I gave to the Reubenites and Gadites. ¹³The rest of the Gilead and all of the Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh—all the region of the Argob. (All the Bashan is called the land of Rephaim. ¹⁴Jair son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites. He called them—the Bashan—after his own name, Havvoth-jair’s Villages, as it is the case to this day.)

¹⁸“I commanded you at that time, saying, ‘ADONAI your God has given you this land to possess it. Ready for battle, you will cross over ahead of your brothers Bnei-Yisrael—all the men of valor. ¹⁹Only your wives and your little ones and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) may stay in your cities that I have given you, ²⁰until ADONAI gives rest to your brothers as He has for you, and they also possess the land that ADONAI your God is giving them across the Jordan. Then you may return, each man to his possession that I have given you.’

²¹“I commanded Joshua at that time saying, ‘Your eyes have seen all that ADONAI your God has done to these two kings. ADONAI will do the same to all the kingdoms you are about to cross into. ²²You must not fear them, for it is ADONAI your God who fights for you.’

Parashat Va'etchanan

Moses Pleads to Enter

²³“I pleaded with ADONAI at that time, saying, ²⁴‘O Lord ADONAI, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your strong hand—for what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do deeds and mighty acts like Yours? ²⁵Please! Let me cross over and see the good land across the Jordan—that good hill country and the Lebanon.’

²⁶“But ADONAI was angry with me because of you, so He would not listen to me. ‘Enough!’ ADONAI said to me, ‘Do not speak to Me anymore about this matter. ²⁷Go up to the top of Pisgah, look around to the west and the north and the south and the east, and see with your eyes—for you will not cross over this Jordan. ²⁸But commission Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, for he will cross over before this people, and he will enable them to inherit the land that you will see.’ ²⁹So we stayed in the valley opposite Beth-peor.

Bnei-Yisrael Must Listen and Obey

4 “Now, O Israel, listen to the statutes and ordinances that I am teaching you to do, so that you may live and go in and possess the land that ADONAI the God of your fathers is giving you. ²You must not add to the word that I am commanding you or take away from it—in order to keep the mitzvot of ADONAI your God that I am commanding you. ³Your eyes have seen what ADONAI did at Baal Peor, for ADONAI your God has destroyed from among you everyone who followed Baal Peor. ⁴But you who held tight to ADONAI your God are alive today—all of you.

⁵“See, just as ADONAI my God commanded me, I have taught you statutes and ordinances to do in the land that you are about to enter to possess. ⁶You must keep and do them, for it is your wisdom and understanding in the eyes of the peoples, who will hear all these statutes and say, ‘Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.’ ⁷For what great nation is there that has gods so near to them, as ADONAI our God is whenever we call on Him? ⁸What great nation is there that has statutes and ordinances that are righteous—like all of this Torah that I am setting before you today?

⁹“Only be watchful and watch over your soul closely, so you do not forget the things your eyes have seen and they slip from your heart all the days of your life. You are to make them known to your children and your children's children. ¹⁰ The day that you stood before ADONAI your God in Horeb, ADONAI said to me, 'Gather the people to Me and I will make them hear My words, so that they learn to fear Me all the days that they live on the earth, and so that they teach their children.'

Words from the Fiery Mountain

¹¹ "You came near and stood at the bottom of the mountain while the mountain was blazing with fire up to the heart of the heavens—darkness, cloud, and fog. ¹² ADONAI spoke to you from the midst of the fire. The sound of words you heard, but a form you did not see—only a voice. ¹³ He declared to you His covenant, which He commanded you to do—the Ten Words—and He wrote them on two tablets of stone. ¹⁴ ADONAI commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, so that you might do them in the land you are crossing over to possess.

²¹ "Furthermore ADONAI was angry with me because of your words, and He swore that I would not cross over the Jordan or enter the good land that ADONAI your God is giving you for an inheritance. ²² For I must die in this land; I am not crossing over the Jordan. But you will cross over and take possession of that good land. ²³ Watch yourselves, so that you do not forget the covenant of ADONAI your God, which He cut with you, and make for yourselves a graven image in the form of anything that ADONAI your God has forbidden you. ²⁴ For ADONAI your God is a consuming fire †—a jealous God.

²⁵ "When you father children and children's children and have been in the land a long time, and you act corruptly and make a graven image in the form of anything and do evil in the sight of ADONAI your God, provoking Him to anger, ²⁶ I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that you will certainly be carried off quickly from the land you are crossing over the Jordan to possess. You will not prolong your days on it, for you will certainly be destroyed. ²⁷ ADONAI will scatter you among the peoples, and you will be left few in number among the nations where ADONAI will drive you. ²⁸ There you will serve man-made gods of wood and stone, which do not see or hear or eat or smell. ²⁹ But from there you will seek ADONAI your God and you will find Him, when you seek Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

³⁰ "When you are in distress and all these things have come on you, in the latter days you will return to ADONAI your God and listen to His voice. ³¹ For ADONAI your God is a merciful God. He will not abandon you or destroy you, or forget the covenant with your fathers that He swore to them.

³² "Indeed, ask now about the former days that were before you, from the day that God created man on the earth, and ask from one end of the sky to the other. Has there ever been such a great thing as this, or has anything like it been heard? ³³ Has a people ever heard the voice of God speaking from the midst of the fire, as you have heard—and lived? ³⁴ Or has any god ever tried to come to take for himself a nation from within a nation—by trials, by signs and wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and by great terrors—like all that ADONAI your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes? ³⁵ You were shown, so that you might know that ADONAI is God—there is no other besides Him. ³⁶ From the heavens He made you hear His voice to instruct you, † and on earth He caused you to see His great fire—you heard His words from the midst of the fire. ³⁷ Because He loved your fathers, He chose their descendants after them. Then He brought you out from Egypt with His presence, by His great power— ³⁸ to drive out from before you nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

³⁹ "So you will know today and take to heart that ADONAI, He is God, in the heavens above and on the earth below—there is no other. ⁴⁰ You must keep His statutes and His mitzvot, which I am commanding you today, so that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and so that you may prolong your days in the land that ADONAI your God is giving you for all time."

⁴¹ Then Moses set apart three cities beyond the Jordan, toward the east. ⁴² There the manslayer might flee, who kills his neighbor unintentionally and did not hate him previously. He may flee to one of these cities and live: ⁴³ Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau for the Reubenites, Ramot in the Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in the Bashan for the Manassites.

⁴⁴ This is the Torah, which Moses set before Bnei-Yisrael. ⁴⁵ These are the testimonies and the statutes and the ordinances, which Moses spoke to Bnei-Yisrael when they came out from Egypt— ⁴⁶ beyond the Jordan, in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and Bnei-Yisrael struck down when they came out from Egypt. ⁴⁷ They took possession of his land and the land of Og king of the Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan toward the east— ⁴⁸ from Aroer, which is on the edge of the wadi Arnon, as far as Mount Sion (that is, Hermon), ⁴⁹ and all the Arabah beyond the Jordan eastward, as far as the sea of the Arabah [†], under the slopes of Pisgah.

The Ten Words

5 Moses called to all Israel and said to them, “Hear, O Israel, the statutes and the ordinances that I am speaking in your hearing today, learn them and make sure to do them. ² ADONAI our God cut a covenant with us in Horeb. ³ Not with our fathers has ADONAI cut this covenant but with us—all of us alive here today. ⁴ ADONAI spoke with you face to face on the mountain from the midst of the fire. ⁵ (I was standing between ADONAI and you at that time, to tell you the word of ADONAI, because you were afraid because of the fire and did not go up the mountain.)

“He said:

⁶ “I am ADONAI your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

⁷ “You shall not have other gods beside Me.

¹² “Observe Yom Shabbat to keep it holy, as ADONAI your God commanded you. ¹³ Six days you are to labor and do all your work, ¹⁴ but the seventh day is a Shabbat to ADONAI your God. In it you are not to do any work—not you or your son or your daughter, or your slave or your maid, or your ox, your donkey or any of your livestock or the outsider within your gates, so that your slave and your maid may rest as you do. ¹⁵ You must remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and ADONAI your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore ADONAI your God commanded you to keep Yom Shabbat.

¹⁶ “Honor your father and your mother just as ADONAI your God commanded you, so that your days may be long and it may go well with you in the land ADONAI your God is giving you. ^{††}

¹⁷ “Do not murder.

¹⁸ “Do not commit adultery.

¹⁹ “Do not steal.

²⁰ “Do not bear false witness against your neighbor. [‡]

²¹ “Do not covet your neighbor’s wife, nor desire your neighbor’s house, his field, his manservant, his maidservant, his ox, his donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.’

²² “These words ADONAI spoke to all your assembly on the mountain from the midst of the fire, the cloud and the fog, with a great voice. He added no more. He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

Live and Prolong Your Days

²³ “As soon as you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was blazing with fire, you came near to me—all the heads of your tribes and your elders. ²⁴ Then you said, ‘ADONAI our God has just shown us His glory and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire. This day we have seen that God speaks with man, and yet he keeps on living. ²⁵ Now then, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us! If we hear the voice of ADONAI our God any more, then we will die. ²⁶ For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? ²⁷ You go near and hear all that ADONAI our God says. Then you tell us all what ADONAI our God tells you, and we will hear it and do it.’

²⁸ “ADONAI heard the tone of your words when you spoke to me, and ADONAI said to me, ‘I have heard the tone of the words that this people has spoken to you—they have done well in all they have spoken. ²⁹ If only there were such a heart in them to fear Me and keep all My mitzvot always, so that it might go well with them and with their children forever! ³⁰ Go say to them, “Return to your tents.”’ ³¹ But as for you, stand here by Me, and I will tell you the whole commandment—both the statutes and the ordinances that you are to teach them. And they will do them in the land I am giving them to possess.’

³² So you must take care to do as ADONAI your God has commanded you—do not turn aside to the right or to the left. ³³ You are to walk in all the way that ADONAI your God has commanded you, so that you may live and it may be well with you and you may prolong your days in the land that you will possess.

6 “Now this is the commandment, the statutes and ordinances that ADONAI your God commanded to teach you to do in the land you are crossing over to possess— ² so that you might fear ADONAI your God, to keep all His statutes and mitzvot that I am commanding you and your son and your son’s son all the days of your life, and so that you may prolong your days. ³ Hear, therefore, O Israel, and take care to do this, so that it may go well with you and you may increase ⁴“Hear O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is one †. ⁵ Love ADONAI your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. †† These words, which I am commanding you today, are to be on your heart. ⁷ You are to teach them diligently to your children, and speak of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down and when you rise up. ⁸ Bind them as a sign on your hand, they are to be as frontlets ‡ between your eyes, ⁹ and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

When You Prosper, Do Not Forget

¹⁰“Now when ADONAI your God brings you into the land that He swore to your fathers—to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob—to give you great and good cities that you did not build, ¹¹ and houses full of all good things that you did not fill, and cisterns dug that you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees that you did not plant, and you eat and are full, ¹² then watch yourself so that you do not forget ADONAI, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery. ¹³ You must fear ADONAI your God and serve Him, †† and swear by His Name. ¹⁴ You must not go after other gods, the gods of the peoples around you; ¹⁵ for ADONAI your God in the midst of you is a jealous God. Otherwise the anger of ADONAI your God will be kindled against you, and He will wipe you from the face of the earth.

¹⁶“You are not to test ADONAI your God, as you tested Him at Massah. ††† Diligently keep the mitzvot of ADONAI your God, and His testimonies and His statutes that He has commanded you. ¹⁸ You are to do what is right and good in the sight of ADONAI, so that it may go well with you and you may go in and possess the good land that ADONAI swore to your fathers— ¹⁹ to drive out all your enemies from before you, as ADONAI has spoken.

When Your Son Asks

²⁰“When your son asks you in time to come, saying ‘What are the testimonies and the statutes and the ordinances that ADONAI our God commanded you?’

²¹ then you are to tell your son, ‘We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt, and ADONAI brought us out from Egypt with a mighty hand. ²² Before our eyes ADONAI showed signs and wonders, great and terrible—on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his house. ²³ Then He brought us out from there so that He might bring us in, to give us the land that He swore to our fathers. ²⁴ ADONAI commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear ADONAI our God—for our good always, to keep us alive, as is the case this day. ²⁵ It will be righteousness ††† to us, if we take care to do all this commandment before ADONAI our God, just as He has commanded us.’

No Mixing With Idolaters

⁷ “When ADONAI your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess and drives out many nations before you—the Hittite and the Girgashite and the Amorite, the Canaanite and the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Jebusite, seven nations more numerous and mightier than you— ² and ADONAI your God gives them over to you and you strike them down, then you are to utterly destroy them. You are to make no covenant with them and show no mercy to them. ³ You are not to intermarry with them—you are not to give your daughter to his son, or take his daughter for your son. ⁴ For he will turn your son away from following Me to serve other gods. Then the anger of ADONAI will be kindled against you, and He will swiftly destroy you. ⁵ Instead, you are to deal with them like this: tear down their altars, smash their pillars, cut down their Asherah poles, and burn their carved images with fire. ⁶ For you are a holy people to ADONAI your God—from all the peoples on the face of the earth, ADONAI your God has chosen you to be His treasured people. †††

⁷ “It is not because you are more numerous than all the peoples that ADONAI set His love on you and chose you—for you are the least of all peoples. ⁸ Rather, because of His love for you and His keeping the oath He swore to your fathers, ADONAI brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the house of slavery, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

⁹ “Know therefore that ADONAI your God, He is God—the faithful God who keeps covenant kindness for a thousand generations with those who love Him and keep His mitzvot, §¹⁰ but repays those who hate Him to their face, to annihilate them. He will not hesitate with him who hates Him; He will repay him to his face. ¹¹ Therefore you are to keep the commandment—both the statutes and the ordinances—that I am commanding you today, to do them.

ADONAI* Desires to Bless

¹² “Then it will happen, as a result of your listening to these ordinances, when you keep and do them, that ADONAI your God will keep with you the covenant kindness that He swore to your fathers. ¹³ He will love you, bless you and multiply you. He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the produce of your soil, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your herds and the young of your flock, in the land that He swore to your fathers to give you. ¹⁴ From all peoples, you will be blessed—there will not be male or female barren among you or your livestock. ¹⁵ ADONAI will remove all sickness from you, and He will not inflict on you any of the terrible diseases of Egypt that you knew, but will inflict them on all who hate you.

¹⁶ “You will devour all the peoples ADONAI your God gives over to you. Your eye is not to pity them. You are not to serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you. ¹⁷ Suppose you say in your heart, ‘These nations are more numerous than I—how can I drive them out?’ ¹⁸ You are not to be afraid of them. You are to be sure to remember what ADONAI your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt: ¹⁹ the great trials that your eyes saw, the signs and wonders, and the mighty hand and outstretched arm [†] by which ADONAI your God brought you out. So will ADONAI your God do to all the peoples you fear.

²⁰ “Moreover, ADONAI your God will send the hornet against them, until the survivors and those in hiding perish before you. ²¹ You should not be terrified of them, since ADONAI your God is in your midst—a great and awesome God. ²² ADONAI your God will drive away those nations before you little by little—you will not be able to put an end to them all at once, or else the beasts of the field will multiply on you. ²³ But ADONAI your God will give them over to you, and He will throw them into great confusion until they are destroyed. ²⁴ He will hand over their kings to you, and you will blot out their name from under the heavens. No man will stand up to you, until you have destroyed them all.

²⁵ “The carved images of their gods you are to burn with fire. You are not to covet the silver or gold on them or take it for yourself—or you could be snared by it, for it is an abomination to ADONAI your God.

²⁶ You are not to bring an abomination into your house—for you, like it, will be a banned thing. You must utterly detest and utterly abhor it, for it is set apart for destruction.

Not by Bread Alone

8 “You are to take care to do the whole mitzvah that I am commanding you today, so that you may live and multiply and go in and possess the land that ADONAI swore to your fathers. ² You are to remember all the way that ADONAI your God has led you these 40 years in the wilderness—in order to humble you, to test you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep His mitzvot or not. ³ He afflicted you and let you hunger, then He fed you manna—which neither you nor your fathers had known—in order to make you understand that man does not live by bread alone but by every word that comes from the mouth of ADONAI. ⁴ Neither did your clothing wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these 40 years. ⁵ Now you know in your heart that as a man disciplines his son, so ADONAI your God disciplines you. ⁶ So you are to keep the mitzvot of ADONAI your God—to walk in His ways and to fear Him. ⁷ For ADONAI your God is bringing you into a good land—a land of wadis with water, of springs and fountains flowing out in the valleys and hills, ⁸ a land of wheat and barley, vines, figs and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey, ⁹ a land where you will eat bread with no poverty, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper. ¹⁰ So you will eat and be full, and you will bless ADONAI your God for the good land He has given you.

¹¹ “Take care that you do not forget ADONAI your God by not keeping His mitzvot, ordinances and statutes that I am commanding you today. ¹² Otherwise, when you have eaten and are full and have built good houses and lived in them, ¹³ and when your herds and flocks multiply, and silver and gold multiplies for you and all that is yours multiplies, ¹⁴ then your heart will be haughty and you will forget ADONAI your God. He brought you out from the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery. ¹⁵ He led you through the great and terrible wilderness—fiery serpents and scorpions, and thirsty ground where there was no water. He brought forth water for you from the flinty rock. ¹⁶ He fed you in the wilderness with manna that your fathers did not know, in order to afflict you and test you, to do you good in the end. ¹⁷ You may say in your heart, ‘My power and the might of my hand has made me this wealth.’ ¹⁸ Rather you are to remember ADONAI your God, for it is He who gives you power to make wealth, in order to establish His covenant that He swore to your fathers—as it is this day.

¹⁹ “Now if you do forget ADONAI your God, and go after other gods and serve them and worship them, I solemnly warn you today that you will certainly perish. ²⁰ Like the nations ADONAI makes perish before you, so you will perish, since you would not listen to the voice of ADONAI your God.

Who Brings Down Giants?

9 “Hear, O Israel! You are about to cross over the Jordan today, to go in to dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourself—cities great and fortified up to the heavens. ² The people are great and tall, sons of the Anakim. You know them, and you yourselves have heard, “Who can stand before the sons of Anak?” ³ But you will know today that ADONAI your God is the One who is crossing over before you as a devouring fire. He will destroy them, and He will bring them down before you, so that you may drive them out and make them perish quickly, as ADONAI has promised you.

⁴ “After ADONAI your God has driven them out from before you, do not say in your heart, ‘It is because of my righteousness that ADONAI has brought me in to possess this land.’ It is because of the wickedness of these nations that ADONAI is driving them out from before you. ⁵ It is not by your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you are going in to possess their land. Rather, because of the wickedness of these nations, ADONAI your God is driving them out from before you, and in order to keep the word ADONAI swore to your fathers—to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. ⁶ So you should understand that it is not because of your righteousness that ADONAI your God is giving you this good land to possess—for you are a stiff-necked people.

What Happened to the Tablets?

¹⁵ “So I turned and came down from the mountain while the mountain was burning with fire. Now the two tablets of the covenant were in my two hands. ¹⁶ When I looked, you had indeed sinned against ADONAI your God—you had made yourselves a metal calf. So quickly you had turned aside from the way ADONAI had commanded you! ¹⁷ So I took hold of the two tablets, threw them out of my two hands, and smashed them before your eyes.

¹⁸ “Then I fell down before ADONAI like the first time, for 40 days and 40 nights. I did not eat bread or drink water—because of all your sin that you committed, doing evil in ADONAI’s sight, provoking Him to anger. ¹⁹ For I was afraid of the fierce wrath and fury which ADONAI bore toward you—to destroy you. [†] But ADONAI listened to me that time also. ²⁰ ADONAI was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him, so I prayed for Aaron also at the same time. ²¹ I took your sin—the calf you had made—and burned it in the fire. I crushed it, grinding it up so well that it was as fine as dust, and I threw its dust into the wadi flowing down from the mountain.

²² “Again at Taberah and Massah and Kibroth-hattaavah, you provoked ADONAI to wrath. ²³ When ADONAI sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, ‘Go up and possess the land I have given you,’ then you rebelled against the commandment of ADONAI your God and didn’t believe Him or listen to His voice. ²⁴ You have been rebellious against ADONAI from the day that I knew you.

²⁵ “So I threw myself down before ADONAI those 40 days and 40 nights, because ADONAI had said He would destroy you. ²⁶ I prayed to ADONAI and said, ‘O Lord, ADONAI, do not destroy Your people—Your inheritance that You have redeemed through Your greatness and brought out from Egypt with a mighty hand. ²⁷ Remember Your servants, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Pay no attention to the stubbornness of this people or to their wickedness or their sin. ²⁸ Otherwise the land from which You brought us out may say, ‘Because ADONAI was not able to bring them into the land that He spoke of to them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.’ ²⁹ Yet they are Your people—Your inheritance that You brought out by Your great power and Your outstretched arm.’

Two New Tablets

¹⁰ “At that time ADONAI said to me, ‘Carve for yourself two tablets of stone like the first ones and come up to Me on the mountain. Make yourself an ark of wood. ² I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets that you smashed, and you are to put them in the ark.’

³ “So I made an ark of acacia wood, cut two tablets of stone like the first ones, and went up the mountain with the two tablets in my hand. ⁴ Like the first inscription, ADONAI wrote on the tablets the Ten Words He had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly, then gave them to me. ⁵ Then I turned and came down from the mountain and put the tablets in the ark I had made—and there they are, just as ADONAI commanded me.

⁷ From there they journeyed to Gudgod, and from Gudgod to Jotbah—a land of wadis flowing with water.

⁸ At that time ADONAI set the tribe of Levi apart to carry the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI, to stand before ADONAI to serve Him and to pronounce blessings in His Name—as is the case to this day. ⁹ Therefore Levi has no portion or inheritance with his brothers—ADONAI is his inheritance, just as ADONAI your God had promised about him.)

¹⁰“I stayed on the mountain like the first time—40 days and 40 nights. ADONAI listened to me that time also and was not willing to destroy you. ¹¹ ADONAI said to me, ‘Rise up, go, journey ahead of the people so that they may go in and possess the land that I swore to their fathers to give to them.’

¹²“So now, O Israel, what does ADONAI your God require of you, but to fear ADONAI your God, to walk in all His ways and love Him, and to serve ADONAI your God with all your heart and with all your soul, ¹³ to keep the mitzvot of ADONAI and His statutes that I am commanding you today, for your own good? ¹⁴ Behold, to ADONAI your God belong the heavens and the highest of heavens, the earth and all that is in it. ¹⁵ Only on your fathers did ADONAI set His affection to love them, and He chose their descendants after them—you—from all the peoples, as is the case this day.

Circumcise Your Hearts

¹⁶“Circumcise the foreskin of your heart therefore, and do not be stiff-necked anymore. ¹⁷ For ADONAI your God is God of gods and Lord of lords †—the great, mighty and awesome God, who does not show partiality or take a bribe. ¹⁸ He enacts justice for the orphan and widow, and loves the outsider, giving him food and clothing. ¹⁹ Therefore love the outsider, for you were outsiders in the land of Egypt. ²⁰ ADONAI your God you will fear—Him will you serve. To Him will you cling, and by His Name will you swear. ²¹ He is your praise and He is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things that your eyes have seen. ²² Your fathers went down to Egypt with 70 persons, and now ADONAI your God has made you like the stars of the heavens in number.

Love and Obey with All Your Heart

11 “Therefore you are to love ADONAI your God and keep His charge, His statutes, His ordinances and His mitzvot at all times. ² And you should know this day that it was not your children who knew or saw the discipline of ADONAI your God—His greatness, His mighty hand and His outstretched arm; ³ His signs and the deeds He did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to all his land; ⁴ and what He did to the army of Egypt, to its horses and chariots when He made the waters of the Sea of Reeds flow over them as they chased after you, and how ADONAI has destroyed them to this day; ⁵ what He did for you in the wilderness until you came to this place; ⁶ and what He did to Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab son of Reuben—how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, along with their households and tents and every living thing that followed them, in the midst of all Israel— ⁷ rather, it is your own eyes that have seen every mighty deed that ADONAI has done.

⁸“Therefore you are to keep the whole mitzvah that I am commanding you today, so that you may be strong and go in and possess the land that you are crossing over to possess, ⁹ and so that you may prolong your days on the land that ADONAI swore to give to your fathers and to their descendants—a land flowing with milk and honey.

¹⁰“For the land you are going in to possess is not like the land of Egypt from which you came. There you planted your seed and watered it by foot, like a vegetable garden. ¹¹ But the land you are crossing over to possess is a land of hills and valleys, drinking from the rain of the heavens it drinks in water. ¹² It is a land that ADONAI your God cares for—the eyes of ADONAI your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year up to the end of the year.

¹³“Now if you listen obediently to My mitzvot that I am commanding you today—to love ADONAI your God and to serve Him with all your heart and soul— ¹⁴ then I will give rain for your land in its season—the early rain and the late rain ††—so that you may gather in your grain, new wine and olive oil. ¹⁵ I will give grass in your field for your livestock, and you will eat and be satisfied. ¹⁶ Watch yourselves, so your heart is not deceived, and you turn aside and serve other gods and worship them. ¹⁷ Then the anger of ADONAI will be kindled against you, so He will shut up the sky so that there will be no rain and the soil will not yield its produce. Then you will perish quickly from the good land ADONAI is giving you.

¹⁸“Therefore you are to set these words of Mine in your heart and in your soul. You are to bind them as a sign on your hand, and as frontlets between your eyes. ¹⁹ You are to teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down and when you rise up. ²⁰ You are to write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates, ²¹ so that your days and the days of your children may be multiplied on the land ADONAI swore to give to your fathers, as long as the heavens are above the earth.

²²“For if you will diligently keep all this mitzvah that I am commanding you to do—to love ADONAI your God, to walk in all His ways and to cling to Him— ²³ then ADONAI will drive out all these nations from before you, and you will dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves. ²⁴ Every place where the sole of your foot treads will be yours—from the wilderness to the Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, as far as the western sea will be your border. ²⁵ No one will be able to stand against you— ADONAI your God will put the fear and dread of you upon all the land where you tread, just as He has promised you.

Blessing or Curse Set Before You

²⁶ “See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse—²⁷ the blessing, if you listen to the mitzvot of ADONAI your God that I am commanding you today,²⁸ but the curse, if you do not listen to the mitzvot of ADONAI your God, but turn from the way I am commanding you today, to go after other gods you have not known.²⁹ Now when ADONAI your God brings you into the land you are going in to possess, you are to set the blessing on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal.³⁰ Are they not across the Jordan toward the west, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the Arabah—opposite Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh?³¹ For you are about to cross over the Jordan to go in to possess the land ADONAI your God is giving you—you will possess it and dwell in it,³² and you will take care to do all the statutes and ordinances that I am setting before you today.

The Place He Chooses

12 “These are the statutes and ordinances that you are to make sure to do in the land that ADONAI, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess—all the days that you live on the earth.² You must utterly destroy all the places where the nations that you will dispossess served their gods—on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree.³ You are to tear down their altars, smash their pillars, burn their Asherah poles in the fire and cut down the carved images of their gods, and you are to obliterate their name from that place.

⁴ “You are not to act like this toward ADONAI your God.⁵ Rather you are to seek only the place ADONAI your God chooses from all your tribes to put His Name to dwell—there you will come.⁶ There you are to bring your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes, the offering of your hand, your vow and freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock.⁷ There you and your households will eat before ADONAI your God and rejoice in every undertaking of your hand, as ADONAI your God has blessed you.⁸ You will not do all the things as we are doing here today—everyone doing what is right in his own eyes.⁹ For you have not yet come to the resting place and the inheritance that ADONAI your God is giving you.¹⁰ But when you cross over the Jordan and settle in the land that ADONAI your God enables you to inherit, and He gives you rest from all your enemies around you, you will dwell in safety.

¹¹ “Then the place ADONAI your God chooses to make His Name dwell, there you are to bring all that I command you—your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your tithes, the offering of your hand, and all your finest vow offerings that you vow to ADONAI.¹² Then you will rejoice before ADONAI your God—you and your sons and daughters, your slaves and maids, and the Levite in your towns, for he has no portion or inheritance among you.¹³ Be careful that you do not offer your burnt offerings in any place you see.¹⁴ Rather do so only in the place ADONAI chooses in one of your tribes—there you are to offer your burnt offerings, and there you are to do all I am commanding you.

¹⁵ “However, you may slaughter and eat meat within all your gates—whatever your soul’s desire, according to the blessing ADONAI your God has given you. Either the unclean or clean may eat of it, as they would a gazelle and or deer.¹⁶ But you are not to eat the blood—you are to pour it out on the ground like water.¹⁷ You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your grain or new wine or oil, or the firstborn of your herd or of your flock, or any of your vow offerings that you vow, or your freewill offerings, or the offering of your hand.¹⁸ Rather you are to eat them before ADONAI your God in the place ADONAI your God chooses—you, your son and daughter, your slave and maid, and the Levite within your gates—and you will rejoice before ADONAI your God in every undertaking of your hand.¹⁹ Be careful that you do not neglect the Levite as long as you live on the earth.

²⁰ “When ADONAI your God enlarges your territory as He has promised you, and you say, ‘I want to eat meat,’ because your soul craves meat, then you may eat meat—all your soul’s desire.²¹ If the place ADONAI your God chooses to put His Name is too far from you, then you may slaughter any of your herd and flock that ADONAI has given you—as I have commanded you—and you may eat within your gates, all your soul’s desire.²² Just as the gazelle or hart is eaten, so you may eat it—the unclean and clean alike may eat it.²³ Only be sure that you do not eat the blood—for the blood is the life,[†] and you are not to eat the life with the meat.²⁴ You are not to eat it—you are to pour it out on the ground like water.²⁵ You are not to eat it, so that it may go well with you and your children after you, when you do what is right in ADONAI’s eyes.

²⁶ “Only the holy things and vow offerings that are yours are you to take and go to the place that ADONAI chooses.²⁷ You are to offer your burnt offerings—the flesh and the blood—on the altar of ADONAI your God. The blood of your sacrifices is to be poured out on the altar of ADONAI your God, but the meat you are to eat.²⁸ Take care and listen to all these words that I am commanding you, so that it may go well with you and your children after you forever, when you do what is good and right in the eyes of ADONAI your God.

²⁹ “When ADONAI your God cuts off before you the nations that you are going in to dispossess, when you have dispossessed them and settled in their land,³⁰ be careful not to be trapped into imitating them after they have been destroyed before you. Do not inquire about their gods, saying, ‘How do these nations serve their gods? I will do the same.’³¹ You are not to act like this toward ADONAI your God! For every abomination of ADONAI, which He hates, they have done to their gods—they even burn their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods.

Beware of False Prophets

13 (12:32) “Whatever I command you, you must take care to do—you are not to add to it or take away from it. †

² (1) “Suppose a prophet or a dreamer of dreams rises up among you and gives you a sign or wonder, ³ (2) and the sign or wonder he spoke to you comes true, while saying, ‘Let’s follow other gods’—that you have not known, and—‘Let’s serve them!’ ††⁴ (3) You must not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams—for ADONAI your God is testing you, to find out whether you love ADONAI your God with all your heart and with all your soul. ⁵ (4) ADONAI your God you will follow and Him you will fear. His mitzvot you will keep, to His voice you will listen, Him you will serve and to Him you will cling. ⁶ (5) That prophet or dreamer of dreams must be put to death! For he has spoken falsehood against ADONAI your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, to entice you from the way ADONAI your God commanded you to walk. So you will purge the evil from your midst. ‡

⁷ (6) “Suppose your brother—your mother’s son—or your son or daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your best friend of your own soul misleads you secretly, saying, ‘Let’s go and serve other gods’—that you and your fathers have not known, ⁸ (7) from among the gods of the peoples around you, near you or far off from you, from one end of the earth to the other. ⁹ (8) You are not to give in or listen to him, your eye is not to pity him, and you are not to spare or conceal him. ¹⁰ (9) Instead, you will surely put him to death. Your hand should be the first against him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. ¹¹ (10) You are to stone him with stones to death because he tried to entice you away from ADONAI your God, who brought you out from the land of Egypt, from the house of slavery. ¹² (11) Then all Israel will hear and be afraid, and never again will they do such an evil thing as this in your midst.

¹³ (12) “Suppose you hear it said in one of your cities, which ADONAI your God is giving you to dwell in, ¹⁴ (13) that worthless fellows †† have gone out from among you and enticed the inhabitants of their city, saying, ‘Let’s go and serve other gods’—that you have not known. ¹⁵ (14) Then you are to investigate, search out and inquire thoroughly. If indeed it is true and the matter certain that this abomination has been done in your midst, ¹⁶ (15) you will surely strike down the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying it and all that is in it and its livestock with the sword. ¹⁷ (16) You are to gather all its plunder into the middle of the street, and you are to burn with fire the city and all its plunder—all of it to ADONAI your God. It will be a ruin forever—it shall never be built again. ¹⁸ (17) Nothing from the ban should cling to your hand, so that ADONAI may turn from the fierceness of His anger and show you mercy, and have compassion on you and multiply you, just as He swore to your fathers— ¹⁹ (18) when you listen to the voice of ADONAI your God, keeping all His mitzvot that I am commanding you today, doing what is right in the eyes of ADONAI your God.

Clean Foods for a Holy People

14 “You are the children of ADONAI your God. You are not to cut yourselves or shave your forehead for the dead. ² For you are a holy people to ADONAI your God—from all the peoples on the face of the earth, ADONAI has chosen you to be His treasured people. ³ You are not to eat any detestable thing. ⁴ These are the animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat, ⁵ the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope, and the mountain sheep. ⁶ Among the animals, you may eat any animal that splits the hoof—the hoof completely split in two—and chews the cud. ⁷ Yet of those that chew the cud or have a split hoof, you are not to eat the camel, the hare, and the rabbit—because they chew the cud but do not split the hoof, they are unclean to you. ⁸ The pig, because it splits the hoof but does not chew the cud, is unclean to you—you are not to eat their meat or touch their carcasses. ⁹ Of all that are in the waters, these you may eat: whatever has fins and scales you may eat, ¹⁰ but whatever does not have fins and scales you are not to eat—it is unclean to you. ¹¹ You may eat all clean birds, ¹² but these are the ones you are not to eat: the eagle, the vulture, the buzzard, ¹³ the red kite, the black kite, and any bird of prey of that kind, ¹⁴ every raven of any kind, ¹⁵ the ostrich, the owl, the seagull, a hawk of any kind, ¹⁶ the little owl, the great owl, the white owl, ¹⁷ the pelican, the Egyptian vulture, the cormorant, ¹⁸ the stork, a heron of any kind, the hoopoe, and the bat. ¹⁹ All winged insects are unclean to you—they are not to be eaten. ²⁰ You may eat any clean bird. ²¹ You are not to eat anything that dies of itself. You may give it to the outsider within your gates so that he may eat it or you may sell it to a foreigner. For you are a holy people to ADONAI your God. You are not to boil a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Tithe and Remember the Levite

²² “You will surely set aside a tenth of all the yield of your seed that comes from the field year by year. ²³ You are to eat the tithe of your grain, your new wine, your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and flock, before ADONAI your God in the place He chooses to make His Name dwell, so that you may learn to fear ADONAI your God always. ²⁴ Now suppose the way is too long for you, for you cannot carry the tithe because the place ADONAI your God chooses to set His Name is too far from you. When ADONAI your God blesses you, ²⁵ then you are to exchange the tithe for silver, bind up the silver in your hand, and go to the place that ADONAI your God chooses. ²⁶ You may spend the money for whatever your soul desires—cattle, sheep, wine, strong drink, or whatever your soul asks of you. Then you will eat there before ADONAI your God and rejoice—you and your household. ²⁷ But you are not to neglect the Levite within your gates, for he has no portion or inheritance with you. ²⁸ At the end of every three years, you are to bring out all the tithe of your produce in that year and store it within your gates. ²⁹ Then the Levite, because he has no portion or inheritance with you, along with the outsider, the orphan and the widow within your gates, will come and eat and be satisfied, so that ADONAI your God may bless you in all the work of your hand that you do.

Shmittah : Cancellation of Debts

15 “At the end of every seven years you are to cancel debts. ² This is how you are to cancel debts: every creditor is to release what he has loaned to his neighbor. He must not force his neighbor or his brother to repay, for ADONAI’s debt cancellation has been proclaimed. ³ A foreigner you may force, but your hand is to release whatever your brother owes you. ⁴ “However, there should be no poor among you, for ADONAI will surely bless you in the land ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess. ⁵ If only you would carefully listen to the voice of ADONAI your God, being careful to do all these mitzvah that I am commanding you today! ⁶ For ADONAI your God will bless you as He promised you. So you will lend to many nations, but not borrow; you will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you.

⁷ “If there is a poor man among you—any of your brothers within any of your gates in your land that ADONAI your God is giving you—you are not to harden your heart or shut your hand against your poor brother. ⁸ Rather, you must surely open your hand to him and you must surely lend him enough for his need—whatever he is lacking. ⁹ Watch yourself, so there is no unworthy thing in your heart saying, ‘The seventh year, the year of cancelling debts, is near,’ and your eye is evil against your poor brother and you give him nothing. Then he may call out to ADONAI against you, and it will be a sin upon you. ¹⁰ You must surely give to him, and your heart is not to be grieved when you give to him—for because of this thing ADONAI your God will bless you in all your work and in every undertaking of your hand.

¹¹ “For there will never cease to be poor people in the land. Therefore I am commanding you, saying, ‘You must surely open your hand to your brother—to your needy and poor in your land.’

¹² “If your fellow Hebrew—a man or woman—is sold to you and serves you six years, then in the seventh year you are to set him free. ¹³ When you set him free, you are not to send him away empty-handed. ¹⁴ You are to surely provide for him from your flock and threshing floor and winepress. As ADONAI your God has blessed you, you are to give to him. ¹⁵ You will remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and ADONAI your God redeemed you; therefore I am commanding you this thing today.

¹⁶ “Now if he tells you, ‘I will not go away from you’—because he loves you and your household since he is well off with you— ¹⁷ then you are to take an awl and put it through his ear to the door, and he will be your servant forever. And to your female slave you are to do the same. ¹⁸ It should not seem hard to you when you set him free from you, for he has served you six years—double the value of a hired worker. So ADONAI your God will bless you in all that you do.

¹⁹ “All the firstborn males that are born in your herd and your flock you are to consecrate to ADONAI your God. You are to do no work with the firstborn of your herd or shear the firstborn of your flock. ²⁰ You are to eat it before ADONAI your God year after year in the place ADONAI chooses—you and your household. ²¹ But if it has any blemish—if it is lame or blind or has any serious blemish—you are not to sacrifice it to ADONAI your God. ²² You are to eat it within your gates, the unclean and the clean together, just as they eat the gazelle or deer. ²³ Only its blood you are not to eat—you must pour it out on the ground like water.

Three Harvest Festivals

16 “Observe the month of Aviv and keep the Passover to ADONAI your God, for in the month of Aviv [†] ADONAI your God brought you out from Egypt by night. ² You are to sacrifice the Passover offering to ADONAI your God, from the flock and the herd, in the place ADONAI chooses to make His Name dwell. ³ You are not to eat hametz with it. For seven days you are to eat matzot with it, the bread of affliction—for you came out from the land of Egypt in haste. Do this so that all the days of your life you will remember the day when you came out from the land of Egypt. ⁴ No hametz should be seen with you in all your territory for seven days, and none of the meat you sacrifice on the evening of the first day may be left overnight until the morning. ⁵ You may not sacrifice the Passover offering within any of your gates that ADONAI your God is giving you. ⁶ Rather, at the place ADONAI your God chooses to make His Name dwell, there you will sacrifice the Passover offering in the evening at sunset—the time of your coming out from Egypt. ⁷ You are to cook and eat it at the place ADONAI your God chooses, then you will turn around in the morning and journey home. ⁸ For six days you are to eat matzot. On the seventh day there is to be a solemn gathering for ADONAI your God—on it you are to do no work.

⁹ “Seven weeks you are to count for yourself—from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain you will begin to count seven weeks. ¹⁰ Then you will keep the Feast of Shavuot [†] to ADONAI your God with a measure of a freewill offering from your hand, which you are to give according to how ADONAI your God blesses you. ¹¹ So you will rejoice before ADONAI your God in the place ADONAI your God chooses to make His Name dwell—you, your son and daughter, slave and maid, Levite and outsider, orphan and widow in your midst. ¹² You will remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and you are to take care and do these statutes.

¹³ “You are to keep the Feast of Sukkot for seven days, ^{††} after gathering in the produce from your threshing floor and winepress. ¹⁴ So you will rejoice in your feast—you, your son and daughter, slave and maid, Levite and outsider, orphan and widow within your gates. ¹⁵ Seven days you will feast to ADONAI your God in the place He chooses, because ADONAI your God will bless you in all your produce and in all the work of your hand, and you will be completely filled with joy. ¹⁶ Three times a year all your males are to appear before ADONAI your God in the place He chooses—at the Feast of Matzot, the Feast of Shavuot, and the Feast of Sukkot. No one should appear before ADONAI empty-handed— ¹⁷ the gift of each man’s hand according to the blessing ADONAI your God has given you.

Parashat Shoftim

Judges Appointed

¹⁸ “Judges and officers you are to appoint within all your gates that ADONAI your God is giving you, according to your tribes; and they are to judge the people with righteous judgment. ¹⁹ You are not to twist justice—you must not show partiality or take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and distorts the words of the righteous. ²⁰ Justice, justice you must pursue, so that you may live and possess the land that ADONAI your God is giving you. ²¹ You are not to plant for yourself an Asherah pole of any kind of wood beside the altar of ADONAI your God that you make for yourself. ²² Nor are you to set up a pillar for yourself—ADONAI your God hates this.

Investigations and Witnesses

17 “You are not to sacrifice to ADONAI your God a bull or a sheep that has a defect or anything bad—for that would be an abomination to ADONAI your God. ² Suppose there is found in your midst—within one of your gates that ADONAI your God is giving you—a man or woman who does what is evil in the eyes of ADONAI your God by transgressing His covenant. ³ This person goes and serves other gods and worships them—the sun or moon or any of the heavenly host, which I have not commanded. ⁴ It is told to you and you have heard about it, and you investigate thoroughly and indeed it is true and the thing certain—this abomination has been done in Israel. ⁵ Then you are to bring out to your gates that man or woman who has done this evil thing, and stone that man or woman with stones to death. ⁶ By the word of two or three witnesses, [‡] the one who is to die is to be put to death. No one is to be put to death by the word of one witness. ⁷ The hand of the witness is to be first to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you are to purge the evil from your midst.

⁸ “Suppose a matter arises that is too hard for you to judge—over bloodshed, legal claims or assault—matters of controversy within your gates. Then you should go up to the place ADONAI your God chooses, ⁹ and come to the Levitical kohanim and the judge in charge at that time. And you will inquire, and they will tell you the sentence of judgment. ¹⁰ You are to act according to the sentence they tell you from that place ADONAI chooses, and take care to do all that they instruct you. ¹¹ You are to act according to the instruction they teach you and the judgment they tell you—you must not turn aside from the sentence they tell you, to the right or to the left. ¹² The man who acts presumptuously by not listening to the kohen who stands to serve there before ADONAI your God, or to the judge, that man must die. So you are to purge the evil from Israel. ¹³ Then all the people will hear and be afraid, and not act presumptuously again.

Torah for Kings

¹⁴ “When you come to the land that ADONAI your God is giving you, possess it and dwell in it, and you say, ‘I will set a king over me, like all the nations around me,’ ¹⁵ you will indeed set over yourselves a king, whom ADONAI your God chooses. One from among your brothers will be appointed as king over you—you may not put a foreigner over you, who is not your brother. ¹⁶ Only he should not multiply horses for himself or make the people return to Egypt to multiply horses, because ADONAI has said to you, “You must never go back that way again.” ¹⁷ Nor should he multiply wives for himself, so that his heart does not turn aside, nor multiply much silver and gold for himself.

¹⁸ “Now when he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he is to write for himself a copy of this Torah on a scroll, from what is before the Levitical kohanim. ¹⁹ It will remain with him, and he will read in it all the days of his life, in order to learn to fear ADONAI his God and keep all the words of this Torah and these statutes.

[†] cf. Acts 2:1. ^{††} cf. John 7:2.

[‡] cf. 2 Cor. 13:1; Heb. 10:28.

18 “The Levitical kohanim, all the tribe of Levi, are to have no portion or inheritance with Israel. They are to eat the offerings made to ADONAI by fire as His inheritance. ¹² They will have no inheritance among their brothers—ADONAI is their inheritance, just as He promised them. ³ So this will be the share due to the kohanim from the people—from those who offer a sacrifice, whether a bull or sheep, they are to give the kohen the shoulder, two cheeks, and the stomach. ⁴ The firstfruits of your grain, of your new wine, of your oil, and the first fleece of your sheep, you are to give him. ⁵ For ADONAI your God has chosen him from all your tribes to stand and serve in the Name of ADONAI—him and his sons forever.

⁶ “Suppose a Levite comes from one of your towns, wherever he is living in all of Israel, and he comes whenever his soul desires to the place ADONAI chooses, ⁷ and serves in the Name of ADONAI his God like all his fellow Levites who stand there before ADONAI. ⁸ They are to eat equal portions, regardless of their fathers’ goods.

Occultism Loathsome to ADONAI

⁹ “When you enter the land ADONAI your God is giving you, you are not to learn to do the abominations of those nations. ¹⁰ There must not be found among you anyone who makes his son or daughter pass through the fire, or a fortune-teller, soothsayer, omen reader, or sorcerer, ¹¹ or one who casts spells, or a medium, a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead. ¹² For whoever does these things is an abomination to ADONAI, and because of these abominations ADONAI your God is driving them out from before you. ¹³ You are to be blameless before ADONAI your God.

¹⁴ “For these nations, which you are about to dispossess, listen to soothsayers and fortune-tellers, but as for you, ADONAI your God will not allow you to do so.

A Prophet is Promised

¹⁵ “ADONAI your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your midst—from your brothers. To him you must listen. ¹⁶ This is just what you asked of ADONAI your God in Horeb on the day of the assembly when saying, ‘I cannot continue to hear the voice of ADONAI my God or see this great fire any more, or I will die.’

¹⁷ “ADONAI said to me, ‘They have done well in what they have spoken. ¹⁸ I will raise up a prophet like you for them from among their brothers. I will put My words in his mouth, and he will speak to them all that I command him. ¹⁹ Now whoever does not listen to My words that this prophet speaks in My Name, I Myself will call him to account. ²⁰ But the prophet who presumes to speak a word in My Name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other gods—that prophet will die.’

²¹ “Now should you say in your heart, ‘How would we recognize the word that ADONAI has not spoken?’

²² When a prophet speaks in ADONAI’s Name and the word does not happen or come true, that is a word that ADONAI has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it presumptuously—do not be afraid of him.

Cities of Refuge

19 “When ADONAI your God cuts off the nations whose land ADONAI your God is giving you, and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and houses, ² you are to set apart three cities for yourself within the land He is giving you to possess. ³ You are to prepare the way for yourself and divide into three parts the borders of your land that ADONAI your God enables you to inherit, so that anyone who kills may flee there. ⁴ Now this is the case of the one who kills, who may flee there and live—whoever kills his neighbor unintentionally and did not hate him in the past—⁵ as when someone goes into the forest with his neighbor to chop wood, and his hand takes a swing with the axe to cut down the tree, and the iron flies off the wood and hits his neighbor so that he dies. He may flee to one of these cities and live. ⁶ Otherwise if the way is long, the avenger of the blood, while his heart is hot, may chase the manslayer, catch up to him and strike him dead. Yet no death sentence is on him, since he did not hate him in the past. ⁷ Therefore I am commanding you—set apart three cities for yourself.

⁸ “Suppose ADONAI your God enlarges your territory, as He has sworn to your fathers, and He gives you all the land that He promised to give to your fathers—⁹ when you take care to do all this mitzvah that I am commanding you today, to love ADONAI your God and to always walk in His ways. Then you are to add three more cities for yourself, besides these three. ¹⁰ Then innocent blood will not be shed within your land that ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance, and there would be blood upon you.

¹¹ “But suppose someone hates his neighbor, waits in hiding for him, rises up against him, strikes him dead, then flees to one of these cities. ¹² Then the elders of his hometown should send and take him from there and hand him over to the avenger of blood, to die. ¹³ Your eye should not pity him, but you must purge the innocent blood from Israel, so that it may go well with you.

¹⁴ “You must not move your neighbor’s boundary marker that the first generations marked out, in the inheritance you will receive in the land ADONAI your God is giving you to possess.

† cf. 1 Cor. 9:13. †† cf. John 1:45; Acts 7:37.

‡ cf. John 8:28; 12:49-50; 17:8. †† cf. Acts 3:23; Heb. 12:25.

¹⁵ “A single witness shall not rise up against a person for any offense or sin that he commits. By the word of two or three witnesses is a case to be established. ¹⁶ Suppose a hostile witness rises up against someone to accuse him of wrongdoing. ¹⁷ Then both people who have the dispute will stand before ADONAI, before the kohanim and judges in charge at that time. ¹⁸ The judges are to investigate thoroughly, and if indeed the witness is a false witness and has testified falsely against his brother, ¹⁹ then you are to do to him just as he had plotted to do to his brother. So you will purge the evil from your midst. ²⁰ Those who remain will hear and be afraid, and they will no longer do such an evil thing as this in your midst. ²¹ Your eye must not show pity—life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Confidence in Battle

20 “When you go out to battle against your enemies and see horse and chariot—a people more numerous than you—do not be afraid of them. For ADONAI your God, the One who brought you up from the land of Egypt, is with you. ² When you draw near to the battle, the kohen will come forward and speak to the people. ³ He will say to them, ‘Hear, O Israel, you are drawing near today to the battle against your enemies. Don’t be fainthearted! Don’t fear or panic or tremble because of them. ⁴ For ADONAI your God is the One who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies to save you.’

⁵ “The officers are to speak to the troops saying, ‘What man has built a new house but has not dedicated it? Let him go back to his house—otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would dedicate it. ⁶ What man has planted a vineyard but has not put it to use? Let him go back to his house—otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would begin to use it. ⁷ What man has become engaged to a woman but has not married her? Let him go back to his house—otherwise he might die in the battle and another man would marry her.’ ⁸ The officers will speak further to the troops and say, ‘What man is afraid and fainthearted? Let him go back to his house—so he does not weaken his brothers’ heart like his own.’ ⁹ Then when the officers have finished speaking to the troops, they should appoint army commanders at the head of the troops.

¹⁰ “When you go near a city to fight against it, call out shalom to it. ¹¹ Now if it answers you shalom and opens up to you, then all the people found in it will serve you as forced laborers. ¹² If it does not make peace with you but makes war against you, then lay siege against that city. ¹³ When ADONAI your God hands it over to you, you are to strike all its males with the sword. ¹⁴ Only the women, children, livestock and all that is in the city—all its spoil—may you take as plunder for yourself. So you may consume your enemies’ spoil, which ADONAI your God has given you.

¹⁵ Thus you will do to all the cities that are very distant from you, which are not among the towns of these nations nearby. ¹⁶ However, only from the cities of these peoples, which ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance, you must not let anything that breathes live. ¹⁷ You must utterly destroy them—the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites—just as ADONAI your God has commanded you. ¹⁸ You are to do this so they will not teach you to do all the abominations as they have done for their gods, and so you would sin against ADONAI your God.

¹⁹ “When you lay siege to a city for a long time, making war against it to capture it, you are not to destroy its trees by swinging an axe at them. For from them you may eat, so you shall not chop them down. For is the tree of the field human, that it should enter the siege before you? ²⁰ You may destroy and chop down only the trees that you know are not trees for food, so that you may build siege equipment against the city that is making war with you until its downfall.

Purging Innocent Blood

21 “Suppose a slain person is found fallen in a field, on the land ADONAI your God is giving you to possess—who struck him is unknown. ² Then your elders and judges must come out and measure the distance to the towns that are around the slain one. ³ Now the town nearest to the slain one—the elders of that city are to take from the herd a heifer that has not been used for work or pulled a yoke. ⁴ Then the elders of that city are to bring the heifer down to a flowing wadi that has not been plowed or sown, and break the heifer’s neck there in the wadi. ⁵ The kohanim, the sons of Levi, will come forward—for ADONAI your God has chosen them to serve Him and pronounce blessings in His Name, and by their mouth every dispute and assault is to be settled. ⁶ All the elders of that city nearest to the slain one will wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the wadi. ⁷ Then they will answer and say, ‘Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see. ⁸ Grant atonement for Your people Israel whom You have redeemed, ADONAI, and do not put innocent blood on Your people Israel.’ Then atonement will be granted to them for the blood. ⁹ So you will purge the guilt of innocent blood from your midst, when you do what is right in ADONAI’s sight.

Parashat Ki Tetzei

When You Go Out

¹⁰ “When you go out to war against your enemies, and ADONAI your God hands them over to you and you take them captive, ¹¹ suppose you see among the captives a beautiful woman, and you desire her and would take her as a wife for yourself. ¹² Then you are to bring her into your house, and she must shave her head, trim her nails, ¹³ and remove her captive's clothing, then sit in your house and weep for her father and mother a full month. After that, you may go to her and become her husband and she will be your wife. ¹⁴ Now if you are not pleased with her, then you may send her off wherever she wishes. But you must certainly not sell her for silver—you may not treat her as merchandise, since you have humiliated her.

¹⁵ "Suppose a man has two wives—the one loved and the other unloved—and both the loved and the unloved bear him sons. But it happens that the first-born son belongs to the unloved wife. ¹⁶ Now on the day he lets his sons inherit what he has, he must not treat the loved one's son as firstborn, in place of the unloved one's son, who is the firstborn. ¹⁷ Rather, he must acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the hated one, by giving him a double portion of all that he has. For he is the first of his vigor—the right of the first-born is his.

¹⁸ "Suppose a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who does not listen to the voice of his father or mother. They discipline him, but he does not listen to them. ¹⁹ Then his father and mother are to grab hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his city—to the gate of his place. ²⁰ They will say to the elders of his city, 'This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious—he does not listen to our voice. He is a glutton and a drunkard.' ²¹ Then all the men of his city are to stone him with stones to death. So you will purge the evil from your midst—and all Israel will hear and be afraid.

Hung on a Tree

²² "Suppose a man is guilty of a sin with a death sentence and he is put to death, and you hang him on a tree. ²³ His body is not to remain all night on the tree—instead you must certainly bury him the same day, for anyone hanged is a curse of God. [†] You must not defile your land that ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Love in Practice

22 "You are not to watch your brother's ox or sheep going astray and ignore them ^{††}—you must certainly bring them back to your brother. ² If your brother is not near you or if you do not know him, then you should bring it into your house and it will remain with you until your brother comes searching for it and you return it to him. ³ You are to do the same with his donkey or his coat or anything lost by your brother, that may be lost by him and you find—you may not ignore them. ⁴ You must not watch your brother's donkey or ox fall down on the road and ignore it—you must certainly help him lift it up again.

⁶ "If there happens to be a bird's nest in front of you along the road, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs and the hen sitting on the young or on the eggs, you are not to take the hen with the young. ⁷ You must certainly let the hen go, but the young you may take for yourself so that it may go well with you and you may prolong your days.

⁸ "When you build a new house, you are to make a guardrail for your roof, so that you do not bring the guilt of blood on your house if anyone falls from it.

⁹ "You are not to plant your vineyard with two kinds of seed, or else the whole harvest will be forfeited [‡]—both the seed you plant and the produce of the vineyard. ¹⁰ You are not to plow with an ox and a donkey together. ¹¹ You are not to wear a woven mixture ^{††}, wool and linen together. ¹² You are to make for yourself twisted threads ^{‡‡} on the four corners of your garment in which you cover yourself.

²⁰ "But if this thing is true—that the signs of virginity were not found in the young lady— ²¹ then they are to bring the young woman out to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city are to stone her with stones to death, because she has done a disgraceful thing in Israel, to behave like a prostitute in her father's house. So you are to purge the evil from your midst.

²² "Suppose a man is found lying with a married woman. Then both of them are to die—the man who lay with the woman and the woman. So you are to purge the evil from Israel.

²³ "Suppose there is a young woman who is a virgin engaged to a man, and another man finds her in the city and lies with her. ²⁴ Then you are to bring them both out to the gate of that city and stone them with stones to death—the young woman because she did not cry out in the town, and the man because he humiliated his neighbor's wife. So you are to purge the evil from your midst.

²⁵ “But if the man finds the engaged woman in the field, and the man forces her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her is to die. ²⁶ But to the young woman you are to do nothing—there is no sin in the young woman deserving of death. For this matter is the same as when a man rises against his neighbor and kills him— ²⁷ for he found her in the field, the engaged woman cried out, and there was no one to save her.

²⁸ “Suppose a man finds a young virgin who is not engaged, grabs her and lies with her, and they are discovered. ²⁹ Then the man who lay with her is to give to the young woman's father 50 pieces of silver, and she is to be his wife, since he has humiliated her—he may not send her away all his days.

23 (22:30) “A man is not to take his father's wife—he is not to expose his father's nakedness.

² (1) “No one with crushed or cut-off genitals is to enter the community of ADONAI. ³ (2) No one born of forbidden relations † is to enter the community of ADONAI—even to the tenth generation none of his descendants are to enter the community of ADONAI. ⁴ (3) No Ammonite or Moabite is to enter the community of ADONAI—even to the tenth generation none belonging to them is to enter the community of ADONAI forever— ⁵ (4) because they did not meet you with bread and water on the way when you came out from Egypt, and because they hired against you Balaam son of Beor from Petor of Aram-naharaim to curse you. ⁶ (5) But ADONAI your God refused to listen to Balaam, and ADONAI your God turned the curse into a blessing for you because He loves you. ⁷ (6) You are never to seek their shalom or welfare all your days.

⁸ (7) “You are not to detest an Edomite, for he is your brother. You are not to detest an Egyptian, for you were an outsider in his land. ⁹ (8) The children born to them—the third generation—may enter the community of ADONAI.

¹⁰ (9) “When you go out as an army camp against your enemies, you are to guard yourself from every evil thing. ¹¹ (10) If there is among you a man who is not clean from a nighttime emission, he is to go outside the camp—he may not reenter the camp. ¹² (11) Now toward evening he is to bathe in water, and when the sun sets, he may reenter the camp. ¹³ (12) There is to be a place at hand for you outside the camp, and you are to go there outside. ¹⁴ (13) You are to have a shovel for yourself among your weapons. Now when you sit down outside, you are to dig with it and turn and cover up what comes out of you. ¹⁵ (14) For ADONAI your God walks in the midst of your camp, to rescue you and to give your enemies over to you. Therefore your camp must be holy, so that He does not see anything indecent among you and turn away from you.

Slavery, Cult Prostitutes

¹⁶ (15) “You are not to hand over to his master a slave who seeks refuge with you from his master. ¹⁷ (16) Let him dwell with you in your midst, in the place he chooses within one of your town gates—the one that is good for him. You are not to mistreat him.

¹⁸ (17) “None of the daughters of Israel is to be a cult prostitute, nor any of the sons of Israel a cult prostitute. ¹⁹ (18) You are not to bring the fee of a prostitute or the wages of a dog into the House of ADONAI your God for any vow, for both of these are detestable to ADONAI your God.

²⁰ (19) “You are not to charge excessive interest to your brother—on money, food or anything that may be loaned for interest. ²¹ (20) To a foreigner you may charge interest, but to your brother you are not to charge interest, so that ADONAI your God may bless you in every undertaking of your hand on the land you are going in to possess.

²² (21) “When you make a vow to ADONAI your God, you are not to delay to make good on it—for ADONAI your God will certainly require it of you, and you would have sin on you. ²³ (22) But if you refrain from making a vow, you would not have sin on you. ²⁴ (23) Whatever comes out of your lips you are to take care to do, since you have vowed to ADONAI your God a freewill offering that you have promised with your mouth.

²⁵ (24) “When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat your fill of grapes; but you are not to put any in your basket. ²⁶ (25) When you come into your neighbor's standing grain, you may pluck the ears with your hand; but you are not to swing a sickle on your neighbor's standing grain.

Marriage and Divorce

24 “Suppose a man takes a wife and marries her. Now if she doesn't find favor in his eyes because he has found something indecent in her, he is to write her a certificate of divorce, hand it to her and send her out from his house. ² When she leaves his house, she may go and become another man's wife. ³ Now suppose the second husband dislikes her and writes her a certificate of divorce, and he hands it to her and she leaves his house—or suppose the second husband who took her to be his wife dies. ⁴ Then her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after she has been defiled—for that would be detestable before ADONAI. You are not to bring guilt on the land that ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance.

⁵“When a man takes a new wife, he is not to go out with the army or have any duty passed over to him. He is to be free at home for one year and make his wife happy.

Preserving Life and Property

⁶“No one is to take a pair of millstones or the upper one as collateral, for this would be taking a livelihood as collateral.

⁷“If a man is caught kidnapping any of his brothers from Bnei-Yisrael, whether he treats him like property or sells him, then that kidnapper must die. So you are to purge the evil from your midst.

⁸“Take care in the plague of tzara’at—be very careful to do all that the Levitical kohanim instruct you, just as I commanded them, so you are to take care to do.

⁹Remember what ADONAI your God did to Miriam, along the way when you were coming out from Egypt.

Relief for the Poor

¹⁰“When you make any kind of loan to your neighbor, you are not to go into his house to get his pledge.

¹¹You are to stand outside, and the man to whom you are making the loan is to bring the pledge outside to you. ¹²If he is a poor man, you are not to sleep with his pledge †. ¹³You must certainly restore the pledge to him when the sun sets, so that he may sleep in his coat and bless you—and it is to be righteousness for you before ADONAI your God.

¹⁵On that day you are to give him his wages—the sun is not to set on it—for he is poor and sets his heart on it. Otherwise he will cry out against you to ADONAI, and you will have sin on you.

¹⁷You are not to twist justice for an outsider or orphan, and you are not to take as collateral a widow’s clothing. ¹⁸But you are to remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and ADONAI your God redeemed you from there. Therefore I am commanding you to do this thing.

¹⁹“When you reap your harvest in your field and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you are not to turn back to get it. It is for the outsider, for the orphan and for the widow—in order that ADONAI your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. ²⁰When you beat your olive tree, you are not to search through the branches afterward. It is for the outsider, for the orphan and for the widow. ²¹When you harvest your vineyard, you are not to pick over it afterward. It is for the outsider, for the orphan and for the widow. ²²You are to remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt. Therefore I am commanding you to do this thing.

Justice from the Court

²⁵“Suppose there is a dispute between people and they approach the court, the judges hear their case, and declare one righteous and the other guilty. ²Now if the guilty one deserves to be flogged, the judge is to make him lie down and be flogged before him, with the number of lashes in proportion to his guilt. ³He may strike him 40 times but no more. Otherwise he would beat him with too many a wound beyond these, and your brother would be degraded in your eyes.

⁴“You are not to muzzle the ox while it is threshing.

⁵“If brothers dwell together and one of them dies and has no son, the dead man’s wife is not to be married outside to a stranger. Her husband’s brother is to go to her and take her as his wife, and perform the duty of a brother-in-law. ⁶Now the firstborn that she bears is to carry on the name of his dead brother, so that his name will not be blotted out of Israel. ⁷But if the man does not want to take his brother’s widow, his brother’s widow is to go to the elders at the gate and say, ‘My brother-in-law refuses to carry on his brother’s name in Israel—he is unwilling to perform a brother-in-law’s duty for me.’ ⁸Then the elders of his town are to summon him and speak to him. And if he stands firm and says, ‘I do not desire to take her,’ ⁹then his brother’s widow is to come to him in the sight of the elders, pull his sandal off his foot, spit in his face, and reply, ‘So will it be done to the man who does not build up his brother’s house.’ ¹⁰Then his name is to be called in Israel ‘the house of the pulled-off sandal.’

¹³“You are not to have stones of different weights in your bag—large and small. ¹⁴You are not to have in your house ephahs of different measures—large and small. ¹⁵You must have a full and honest weight and a full and honest measure, so that your days may be long on the land that ADONAI your God is giving you.

¹⁶For all who do these things, all who do injustice, are detestable to ADONAI your God.

Beware, Blot Out Amalek

¹⁷“Remember what Amalek did to you along the way as you came out from Egypt— ¹⁸how he happened upon you along the way and attacked those among you in the rear, all the stragglers behind you, when you were tired and weary—he did not fear God. ¹⁹ Now when ADONAI your God grants you rest from all the enemies surrounding you in the land ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, you are to blot out the memory of Amalek from under the heavens. Do not forget!

Parashat Ki Tavo

Firstfruits and Tithes

26 “Now when you enter the land that ADONAI your God is giving you as an inheritance, and you possess it and dwell in it, ² you are to take some of the first of all the produce of the soil, which you gather from your land that ADONAI your God is giving you, put it in a basket and go to the place ADONAI your God chooses to make His Name dwell. ³ You are to go to the kohen in charge in those days and say to him, ‘I declare today to ADONAI your God, that I have entered into the land ADONAI swore to our fathers to give us.’ ⁴ The kohen is to take the basket from your hand and set it down before the altar of ADONAI your God.

⁵ “Then you are to respond before ADONAI your God, ‘My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down to Egypt and lived there as an outsider, few in number. But there he became a great nation—mighty and numerous. ⁶ The Egyptians treated us badly, afflicted us, and imposed hard labor on us. ⁷ Then we cried out to ADONAI, God of our fathers, and ADONAI listened to our voice and saw our affliction, our toil and our oppression. ⁸ Then ADONAI brought us out from Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders. ⁹ He brought us to this place and gave us this land—a land flowing with milk and honey. ¹⁰ So now, look! I have brought the first of the fruits of the soil that You have given me, ADONAI.’ Then you are to set it down before ADONAI your God and worship before ADONAI your God. ¹¹ You will rejoice in all the good that ADONAI your God has given to you and to your house—you, the Levite, and the outsider in your midst.

¹² “When you finish tithing the full tenth of your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe, you are to give it to the Levite, to the outsider, to the orphan and to the widow, so that they may eat within your town gates and be satisfied. ¹³ Then you are to say before ADONAI your God, ‘I have removed the holy tithe from my house and also have given it to the Levite and to the outsider, to the orphan and to the widow, according to all Your mitzvah that You have commanded me. I have not transgressed or forgotten any of Your mitzvot. ¹⁴ I have not eaten from the tithe in my mourning, or removed any of it while unclean, or given any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the voice of ADONAI my God; I have done all just as You commanded me. ¹⁵ Look down from Your holy dwelling place, from the heavens and bless Your people Israel and the soil You have given us, as You swore to our fathers—a land flowing with milk and honey.’

Affirming the Covenant

¹⁶ “This day ADONAI your God is commanding you to do these statutes and ordinances—so you are to take care and do them with all your heart and with all your soul. ¹⁷ Today you have affirmed ADONAI as your God, that you will walk in His ways, keep His statutes, mitzvot and ordinances, and listen to His voice. ¹⁸ Now today ADONAI has affirmed you as His treasured people, as He promised you; that you are to keep all His mitzvot; ¹⁹ that He will set you high above all the nations He has made, for praise, fame and honor; and that you are to be a holy people to ADONAI your God, as He has promised.”

27 Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, “Keep the whole mitzvah that I am commanding you today. ² Now on the day when you cross over the Jordan to the land that ADONAI your God is giving you, you are to set up large stones for yourself and coat them with plaster. ³ Then you are to write on them all the words of this Torah when you cross over—so that you may enter the land that ADONAI your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey just as ADONAI, the God of your fathers, promised you. ⁴ Now when you cross over the Jordan, you are to set up these stones about which I am commanding you today on Mount Ebal, and coat them with plaster. ⁵ There also you will build an altar to ADONAI your God, an altar of stones—you are not to use an iron tool on them. ⁶ You are to build the altar of ADONAI your God of whole stones, and you are to offer up burnt offerings on it to ADONAI your God. ⁷ You are to sacrifice fellowship offerings and eat there, and you will rejoice before ADONAI your God. ⁸ You are to write on the stones all the words of this Torah very clearly.”

⁹ Then Moses and the Levitical kohanim spoke to all Israel, saying, “Be silent and listen, O Israel—this day you have become a people for ADONAI your God.

¹⁰ Therefore listen to the voice of ADONAI your God, and do His mitzvot and statutes that I am commanding you today.”

¹⁴ “Then the Levites are to answer and say with a loud voice to every man of Israel: ¹⁵ ‘Cursed is the one who makes a carved or molten image—an abomination to ADONAI, the work of a craftsman’s hands—and sets it up in secret.’ Then all the people are to answer and say, ‘Amen.’

¹⁶ “‘Cursed is the one who dishonors his father or mother.’ Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’”

¹⁷“Cursed is the one who removes his neighbor’s boundary marker.’ Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’

¹⁸“Cursed is the one who misleads a blind person on the road.’ Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’

¹⁹“Cursed is the one who twists justice for the outsider, orphan and widow.’ Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’

²⁰“Cursed is the one who lies with his father’s wife, because he has uncovered his father’s nakedness.’ † Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’

²¹“Cursed is the one who lies with any kind of animal.’ Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’

²²“Cursed is the one who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.’ Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’

²³“Cursed is the one who lies with his mother-in-law.’ Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’

²⁴“Cursed is the one who strikes down his neighbor in secret.’ Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’

²⁵“Cursed is the one who takes a bribe to strike down an innocent life.’ Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’

²⁶“Cursed is the one who does not uphold the words of this Torah by doing them.’ Then all the people are to say, ‘Amen.’ ††

Blessings for Obedience

28 “Now if you listen obediently to the voice of ADONAI your God, taking care to do all His mitzvot that I am commanding you today, ADONAI your God will set you on high—above all the nations of the earth. ² Then all these blessings will come upon you and overtake you, if you listen to the voice of ADONAI your God:

³“Blessed will you be in the city, and blessed will you be in the field.

⁴“Blessed will be the fruit of your womb, the produce of your soil, and the offspring of your livestock—the increase of your herds and the young of your flock.

⁵“Blessed will be your basket and your kneading bowl.

⁶“Blessed will you be when you come in, and blessed will you be when you go out.

⁷“ADONAI will cause your enemies who rise up against you to be struck down before you. They will come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways. ⁸ ADONAI will command the blessing on you in your barns and in every undertaking of your hand, and He will bless you in the land ADONAI your God is giving you. ⁹ ADONAI will establish you as a holy people for Himself, just as He swore to you—if you keep the mitzvot of ADONAI your God and walk in His ways. ¹⁰ Then all the peoples of the earth will see that you are called by the name of ADONAI and they will stand in awe of you. ¹¹ ADONAI will make you overflow in prosperity—in the fruit of your womb, the offspring of your livestock and the produce of your soil—on the land ADONAI swore to your fathers to give you. ¹²

ADONAI will open for you His good storehouse—the heavens—to give rain for your land in its season and to bless all the work of your hand. You will lend to many nations, but you will not borrow. ¹³ ADONAI will make you the head and not the tail, and you will be only above and not below—if you listen to the mitzvot of ADONAI your God that I am commanding you today, careful to do them, ¹⁴ and do not turn aside from any of the words I am commanding you today, to the right or the left, to go after other gods in order to serve them.

Curses for Disobedience

¹⁵“But if you will not listen to the voice of ADONAI your God, to take care to do all His mitzvot and statutes that I am commanding you today, all these curses will come on you and overtake you:

¹⁶“Cursed will you be in the city, and cursed will you be in the field.

¹⁷“Cursed will be your basket and your kneading bowl.

²⁰“ADONAI will send on you cursing, confusion and frustration in every undertaking of your hand that you will do—until you are destroyed and perish quickly, because of the evil of your deeds by which you have abandoned Me. ²¹ ADONAI will make the plague cling to you, until He has put an end to you from the land that you are going in to possess. ²² ADONAI will strike you with weakness, fever, inflammation, fiery heat, the sword, blight and mildew—they will pursue you until you perish. ²³ Your sky above your head will be bronze, and the earth beneath you iron. ²⁴ ADONAI will make the rain of your land powder and dust—it will come down on you from the heavens, until you are destroyed.

²⁵“ADONAI will bring you to defeat before your enemies. You will go out one way against them and flee seven ways before them. You will become a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. ²⁶ Your carcass will be food for every bird of the heavens and beast of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away.

²⁸“ADONAI will strike you with madness, with blindness, and with confusion of heart. ²⁹ You will grope at noon as the blind person gropes in darkness, and you will not prosper in your ways. You will be only oppressed and robbed all the time, and there will be no one to save you.

³⁰ “You will become engaged to a woman, but another man will sleep with her. You will build a house, but you will not dwell in it. You will plant a vineyard, but you will not put it to use. ³¹ Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will not eat of it. Your donkey will be stolen in front of you, and it will not be returned to you. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and you will have no one to save you.

³² “Your sons and daughters will be given to another people while your eyes look on, longing for them all day long—but your hand will be powerless. ³³ A people you do not know will eat up the produce of your soil and all your labor, and you will be only oppressed and crushed all the time. ³⁴ You will be driven mad by the sight that your eyes will see.

³⁶ “ ADONAI will bring you and the king you set over you to a nation you and your fathers have not known—and there you will serve other gods, wood and stone. ³⁷ You will become a horror, a proverb, and a byword—among all the peoples where ADONAI will drive you.

³⁸ “Much seed you will take out to the field—but little will you bring in, for the locust will eat it up. ³⁹ Vineyards you will plant and tend—but wine you will not drink or bring in, for the worm will devour it. ⁴⁰ Olive trees you will have in all your territory—but oil you will not rub on yourself, for your olives will drop off. ⁴¹ Sons and daughters you will father—but they will not be yours, for they will go into captivity. ⁴² All your trees and the produce of your soil the whirring locust will possess.

⁴³ “The outsider who is in your midst will rise up higher and higher above you, and you will go down lower and lower. ⁴⁴ He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him; he will become the head and you will become the tail.

⁴⁵ “All these curses will come upon you and pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed—because you did not listen to the voice of ADONAI your God, to keep His mitzvot and statutes that He commanded you. ⁴⁶ They will be a sign and a wonder on you and your descendants forever. ⁴⁷ Instead of serving ADONAI your God with joy and goodness of heart, out of the abundance of everything, ⁴⁸ you will serve your enemies, whom ADONAI will send against you, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness and lacking everything; and He will put an iron yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you.

⁴⁹ “ ADONAI will raise up a nation against you from far away, from the end of the earth, just as the eagle swoops down—a nation whose language you will not understand, ⁵⁰ a brazen-faced nation that will not respect the old or be gracious to the young. ⁵¹ It will devour the offspring of your livestock and the produce of your soil, until you are destroyed. It will not leave behind for you grain, new wine, or oil, the increase of your herds or the young of your flock, until it ruins you. ⁵² It will besiege you within all your town gates throughout your land, until your high and fortified walls—that you trusted in—come down. It will besiege you within all your gates throughout your land that ADONAI your God has given you.

⁵³ “You will eat the fruit of your womb, the flesh of your sons and daughters ADONAI your God has given you, in the siege and stress with which your enemies will distress you. ⁵⁴ The most tender and delicate man among you—his eye will become evil against his brother and the wife of his bosom and the rest of his children that he has left. ⁵⁵ He will not give to a single one of them from his children’s flesh that he will eat, because nothing else is left for him in the siege and stress with which your enemy will distress you within all your town gates. ⁵⁶ The tender and delicate woman among you, who never ventured to set the sole of her foot on the ground out of delicateness and tenderness—her eye will become evil against the husband of her bosom and her son and daughter. ⁵⁷ For in secret she will eat her afterbirth that issues from between her legs and the children she bears, for lack of anything else in the siege and stress with which your enemy will distress you within all your gates.

⁵⁸ “If you do not take care to do all the words of this Torah, the things written in this scroll, to fear this glorious and awesome Name, ADONAI your God, ⁵⁹ then ADONAI will make your plagues and the plagues of your descendants extraordinary—terrible and prolonged plagues, severe and prolonged illnesses. ⁶⁰ He will bring back on you all the diseases of Egypt that you were afraid of, and they will cling to you. ⁶¹ Also every illness and plague that is not written in the scroll of this Torah, ADONAI will bring on you, until you are destroyed.

⁶² “You will be left few in number, instead of being like the stars of the sky in number—because you did not listen to the voice of ADONAI your God. ⁶³ Now just as ADONAI rejoiced over you to do you good and to multiply you, so ADONAI will rejoice over you to ruin and destroy you; and you will be uprooted from the land that you are going in to possess.

⁶⁴ “ ADONAI will scatter you among all peoples from the one end of the earth to the other, and there you will serve other gods—wood and stone—that you and your fathers have not known. ⁶⁵ Among these nations you will find no rest, and there will be no rest for the sole of your foot. But there ADONAI will give you a trembling heart and failing eyes, and a despairing spirit.

⁶⁶ “Your life will hang in the balance before you; you will be afraid night and day, and you will have no assurance of your life. ⁶⁷ In the morning you will say, ‘If only it were evening!’ and at evening you will say, ‘If only it were morning!’—from the fear of your heart that you will fear and the sight of your eyes that you will see. ⁶⁸ ADONAI will bring you back to Egypt in ships, by the way that I said to you, 'You will not see it again.' There you will sell yourselves to your enemies as slaves and maids, but there will be no buyer."

Renewing the Covenant

⁶⁹ (29:1) These are the words of the covenant that ADONAI commanded Moses to make with Bnei-Yisrael in the land of Moab, in addition to the covenant He made with them at Horeb. †

29 (2) Moses called to all Israel and said to them, "You have seen all that ADONAI did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and all his servants and all his land— ² (3) the great trials that your eyes saw, those great signs and wonders. ³ (4) But to this day ADONAI has not given you a heart to know, or eyes to see, or ears to hear. ††⁴ (5) I led you 40 years in the wilderness—your clothes have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet. ⁵ (6) Bread you have not eaten and wine and strong drink you have not drunk—in order that you may know that I am ADONAI your God.

⁶ (7) "When you came to this place, King Sihon of Heshbon and King Og of the Bashan came out against us to battle, but we struck them down. ⁷ (8) We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh. ⁸ (9) So keep the words of this covenant and do them, so that you may prosper in all that you do.

Parashat Nitzavim

You Are Standing Before the Lord

⁹ (10) "You are standing today, all of you, before ADONAI your God—the heads of your tribes, your elders, your officials, all the men of Israel, ¹⁰ (11) your children, your wives, and the outsider within your camp (from your woodchopper to your water carrier). ¹¹ (12) Each of you is to cross over into the covenant of ADONAI your God that He is cutting with you today, and into His oath.

¹² (13) "This is in order to confirm you today as His people. So He will be your God, just as He promised you and just as He swore to your fathers—to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob. ¹³ (14) Not with you alone am I cutting this covenant and this oath, ¹⁴ (15) but with whomever is standing here with us today before ADONAI our God and with whomever is not here with us today.

¹⁵ (16) "Indeed, you know how we dwelt in the land of Egypt and how we crossed through the nations that we passed through. ¹⁶ (17) You saw their detestable things and their idols ‡—wood and stone, silver and gold—that were with them. ¹⁷ (18) Beware in case there is among you a man or woman, or family or tribe, whose heart turns away today from ADONAI our God to go serve the gods of those nations. Beware in case there is among you a root producing poison and bitter fruit. ††

¹⁸ (19) "Now when someone hears the words of this oath and in his heart considers himself blessed, thinking, 'Shalom will be mine, even though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart'—thus sweeping away the moist with the dry— ††¹⁹ (20) ADONAI will be unwilling to forgive him. For then the anger of ADONAI and His jealousy will smoke against that person. So all the oath that is written in this scroll will settle on him, and ADONAI will blot out his name from under the heavens. ²⁰ (21) ADONAI will single him out from all the tribes of Israel for calamity, according to all the oaths of the covenant written in this scroll of the Torah .

²¹ (22) "The following generation, your children who rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a distant land will say, when they see the plagues of that land and the sicknesses ADONAI afflicted on it: ²² (23) 'Sulfur and salt, the whole land burnt! It cannot be planted, it cannot sprout, no grass can grow up on it—like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which ADONAI overturned in His anger and in His wrath!'

²³ (24) "All the nations will say, 'Why has ADONAI done this to this land? Why this great burning anger?'

²⁴ (25) "Then they will say, 'Because they abandoned the covenant of ADONAI, the God of their fathers, which He cut with them when He brought them out from the land of Egypt. ²⁵ (26) They went and served other gods and bowed down to them—gods they never knew, that He had not allotted to them. ²⁶ (27) So ADONAI's anger burned against that land, bringing on it every curse written in this scroll. ²⁷ (28) ADONAI has uprooted them from their soil, in anger and wrath and great fury, and hurled them into another land, as is the case this day.'

30 "Now when all these things come upon you—the blessing and the curse that I have set before you—and you take them to heart in all the nations where ADONAI your God has banished you, ² and you return to ADONAI your God and listen to His voice according to all that I am commanding you today—you and your children—with all your heart and with all your soul, ³ then ADONAI your God will bring you back from captivity and have compassion on you, and He will return and gather you from all the peoples where ADONAI your God has scattered you. ⁴ Even if your outcasts are at the ends of the heavens, from there ADONAI your God will gather you, and from there He will bring you. ⁵ ADONAI your God will bring you into the land that your fathers possessed, and you will possess it; and He will do you good and multiply you more than your fathers. ⁶ Also ADONAI your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants—to love ADONAI your God with all your heart and with all your soul, in order that you may live.

⁷ “ADONAI your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you. ⁸ Then you—you will return and listen to the voice of ADONAI and do all His mitzvot that I am commanding you today. ⁹ ADONAI your God will make you prosper in all the work of your hand—in the fruit of your womb, and the offspring of your livestock, and the produce of your soil—for good. For ADONAI will again rejoice over you for good, as He rejoiced over your fathers— ¹⁰ when you listen to the voice of ADONAI your God, to keep His mitzvot and His statutes that are written in this scroll of the Torah, when you turn to ADONAI your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

¹⁵ “See, I have set before you today life and good, and death and evil. ¹⁶ What I am commanding you today is to love ADONAI your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His mitzvot, statutes and ordinances. Then you will live and multiply, and ADONAI your God will bless you in the land you are going in to possess. ¹⁷ But if your heart turns away and you do not listen, but are drawn away and bow down to other gods and worship them, ¹⁸ I tell you today that you will certainly perish! You will not prolong your days on the land, where you are about to cross over the Jordan to go in to possess.

¹⁹ “I call the heavens and the earth to witness about you today, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. Therefore, choose life so that you and your descendants may live, ²⁰ by loving ADONAI your God, listening to His voice, and clinging to Him. For He is your life and the length of your days, that you may dwell on the land that ADONAI swore to your fathers—to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob—to give them.

Parashat Vayelech

Chazak! Be Courageous!

31 Then Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. ² He said to them, “I am 120 years old today. I am no longer able to go out and come in. ADONAI has said to me, ‘You are not to cross over this Jordan.’ ³ ADONAI your God—He will cross over before you. He will destroy these nations from before you, and you will dispossess them. Joshua will cross over before you, just as ADONAI has promised.

⁴ “ADONAI will do to them just as He did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when He destroyed them. ⁵ ADONAI will give them over to you, and you are to do to them according to all the mitzvot that I commanded you. ⁶ Chazak! Be courageous! Do not be afraid or tremble before them. For ADONAI your God—He is the One who goes with you. He will not fail you or abandon you.”

⁷ Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the sight of all Israel, “Be strong! Be courageous! For you are to go with this people into the land ADONAI has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you are to enable them to inherit it. ⁸ ADONAI—He is the One who goes before you. He will be with you. He will not fail you or abandon you. Do not fear or be discouraged.”

Public Torah Readings

⁹ Moses wrote down this Torah and gave it to the kohanim, the sons of Levi who carry the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI, and to all the elders of Israel.

¹⁵ ADONAI appeared in the Tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood over the opening of the Tent. ¹⁶ ADONAI said to Moses, “Behold, you are about to lie down with your fathers. Then this people will rise up and prostitute themselves with the foreign gods of the land they are entering. They will abandon Me and break My covenant that I cut with them. ¹⁷ Then My anger will flare against them on that day, and I will abandon them and hide My face from them. So they will be devoured, and many evils and troubles will come on them. They will say on that day, 'Isn't it because our God is not among us that these evils have come on us?' ¹⁸ I will surely hide My face on that day because of all the evil they have done, for they have turned to other gods.

Moses Introduces His Song

²⁰ "For when I bring them to the land flowing with milk and honey that I swore to their fathers, and they eat and are satisfied and grow fat—then they will turn to other gods and serve them, and they will spurn Me and break My covenant. ²¹ Now when many evils and troubles have come on them, this song will confront them as a witness; for it will not be forgotten from the mouth of their descendants. For I know the intention they are devising this day, even before I bring them into the land that I swore." ²² That day Moses wrote this song and taught it to Bnei-Yisrael .

²³ Then he commissioned Joshua son of Nun and said, " Chazak! Be courageous! For you will bring Bnei-Yisrael into the land I swore to them—and I will be with you."

²⁴ Now when Moses had finished writing the words of this Torah on a scroll, right to the end, ²⁵ Moses commanded the Levites, carriers of the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI saying, ²⁶ "Take this scroll of the Torah , and place it beside the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI your God. It will remain there as a witness against you, ²⁷ for I know your rebellion and your stiff neck. Indeed, while I am still alive with you today, you have been rebellious against ADONAI —how much more then after my death? ²⁸ Gather to me all the elders of your tribes and your officials, so that I may speak these words in their ears and call heaven and earth to witness against them. ²⁹ For I know that after my death you will certainly act corruptly and turn aside from the way I have commanded you. So evil will fall upon you in the latter days, because you will do what is evil in the sight of ADONAI , provoking Him to anger by the work of your hands."

³⁰ Moses spoke in the hearing of the whole community of Israel the words of this song, right to the end:

Parashat Haazinu

The Song of Moses

32 "Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak!
Let the earth hear the words of my mouth.
² May my teaching trickle like rain, my speech distill like dew—
like gentle rain on new grass, like showers on tender plants.

³ For I will proclaim ADONAI 's Name, ascribe greatness to our God!

⁴ The Rock—blameless is His work.

Indeed, all His ways are just.

God of faithfulness without iniquity, righteous and upright is He.

⁵ Did it corrupt Him? No!

The blemish is His children's—a generation crooked and twisted.

⁶ Is this how you pay back ADONAI ,
O foolish, unwise people?

Isn't He your Father who ransomed you? †
He made you and established you.

⁷ "Remember the days of antiquity, understand the years across generations. ††

Ask your father and he will tell you, your elders and they will say to you.

⁸ When Elyon gave nations their heritage, when He separated the sons of man,
He set boundaries for the people by the number of Bnei-Yisrael .

⁹ But ADONAI 's portion is His people—
Jacob is the share of His inheritance.

¹⁰ He found him in the wilderness land, in the void of a howling waste.

He surrounded him, cared for him, guarded him as the pupil of His eye.

¹¹ As an eagle stirs up its nest, hovers over its young,

He spreads His wings, catches him, lifts him up on His pinions.

¹² ADONAI alone guided him—there was no foreign god with him.

¹³ "He made him mount the heights of the land.
so he ate the produce of the field.

He suckled him with honey from a rock, with oil from a flinty boulder.

¹⁴ Butter of cattle and milk of a flock, with fat of lambs,

rams of the Bashan and he-goats,
with fat of the kidneys of wheat,
and blood of grapes you drank.

¹⁵ But Jeshurun grew fat and kicked—you got fat, you grew thick, you gorged!
He forsook God who made him.

He mocked the Rock of his salvation.

¹⁶ They made him jealous with strangers, with abominations they angered Him.

¹⁷ They sacrificed to demons, a non-god, gods they had not known—to new ones who came in lately, ones your fathers had not dreaded.

¹⁸ The Rock who birthed you, you ignored.
You forgot God who brought you forth.

¹⁹ " ADONAI saw, and He spurned His sons and His daughters out of vexation.

† cf. Matt. 20:28; 1 Tim. 2:6. †† Hebrew dor va-dor

20 He said, 'I will hide My face from them,
I want to see their hereafter.
For they are an upside down generation, children with no faithfulness in them.
21 They made Me jealous with a non-god.
They vexed Me with airy idols.
So I will make them jealous with a non-people.
With a foolish nation I will vex them. †
22 For fire has ignited in My nostrils—it will burn to Sheol beneath, devour the earth and her produce, and scorch the foundations of mountains.
23 I will heap calamities upon them.
With My arrows I will finish them.
24 Wasted by famine, ravaged by plague and pestilence so bitter, fangs of beasts I'll let loose on them,
with venom of creepers in the dust.
25 Outside the sword deals death, and inside terror—
to both young men and young women, infants, with men of gray hair.
26 I would have said,
"I will hack them to pieces, make the memory of them cease from mankind," 27 except I dread the taunt of the enemy, lest their foes might misconstrue—lest they say, "Our hand is held high, and ADONAI has not done all this."
28 For they are a nation lacking counsel, among them there is no understanding.
29 "If they were wise,
they would discern this,
they would understand their hereafter.
30 How can one chase a thousand and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them and ADONAI had handed them over?
31 Surely their rock is not like our Rock, as even our enemies judge.
32 For their vine is from the vine of Sodom and from the terraces of Gomorrah.
Its grapes are grapes of poison—bitter clusters on it.
33 Venom of serpents is their wine—poison of vipers so cruel.
34 "Is it not stored up with Me, sealed up in My treasuries?
35 Vengeance is Mine, and payback, †† for the time when their foot staggers.
Surely their day of disaster is near—what is prepared rushes on them.
36 For ADONAI will judge His people—for His servants, He will relent when He sees that strength ‡ is gone

† cf. Rom. 10:19; 11:11,14. †† cf. Rom. 12:19; Heb. 10:30. ‡ Hebrew yad hand of power and no one is left, slave or free.

37 He will say, "Where are their gods, the 'rock' they took refuge in?
38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their libation?"
Let them rise up and help you and be a shelter over you!
39 See now that I, I am He!
There are no other gods beside Me.
I bring death and give life,
I have wounded but I will heal, †† and none can rescue from My hand.
40 "Yes, I lift My hand up to heaven and say, "As I Myself live forever, 41 when I sharpen My lightning sword and My hand seizes it in judgment,
I will return vengeance on My foes,
and those who hate Me I will pay back.
42 I will make My arrows drunk from blood, and My sword will devour flesh—
the blood of the slain and the captive, the head of the leaders of the enemy."
43 "Make His people rejoice, O nations, †† for He will avenge the blood of His servants. †††
He will return vengeance on His foes, and atone for the land of His people."
44 Then Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people—he and Joshua son of Nun. 45 When Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, 46 he said to them, "Put in your hearts all the words that I call as witness against you today—that you may command your children to keep and do all the words of this Torah. 47 For it is not an empty thing for you, because it is your life! By this word you will prolong your days on the land, which you are crossing over the Jordan to possess."
48 On that very day, ADONAI spoke to Moses, saying, 49 "Go up this mountain of the Avarim, Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab facing Jericho, and see the land of Canaan, which I am giving to Bnei-Yisrael as a possession. 50 On the mountain that you are ascending, there be gathered to your people—as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people— 51 because you both broke faith with Me among Bnei-Yisrael at the waters of Meribath-kadesh in the wilderness of Zin, because you did not treat Me as holy in the midst of Bnei-Yisrael. 52 For you will see the land from afar, but you will not enter there, into the land that I am giving to Bnei-Yisrael."

Parashat V'Zot HaBrachah

The Blessing of Moses

33 This is the blessing with which Moses the man of God blessed Bnei-Yisrael before his death.
2 He said,

†† cf. John 11:25-26. ††† cf. Rom. 15:10. †††† cf. Rev. 6:10.

“ ADONAI came from Sinai and dawned on Bnei-Yisrael from Seir.
 He shone forth from Mount Paran, and He came from the holy myriads—blazing fire † for them from His right hand.
³ Indeed, a lover of peoples is He—all His kedoshim are in His hand.
 They followed in Your steps,
 each receiving Your words.
⁴ Torah Moses commanded us—a heritage for the community of Jacob.
⁵ He became king in Jeshurun when the heads of the people gathered, all the tribes of Israel together.
⁶ ‘Let Reuben live and not die, though his people become few.’
⁷ Now this is for Judah. He said, ‘Hear, ADONAI, the voice of Judah!
 Bring him to his people.
 His hands contended for him,
 so You will be a help against his foes.’
⁸ For Levi he said,
 ‘Let Your Thummim and Urim be with Your pious man.
 You tested him at Massah,
 You strived with him at the waters of Meribah.’
⁹ He said of his father and mother,
 ‘I have not seen them,’ nor did he acknowledge his brothers or recognize his children.
 For they observed Your word and kept Your covenant.
¹⁰ They will teach Jacob Your judgments and Israel Your Torah.
 They will put incense in your nose and whole burnt offerings on Your altar.
¹¹ ADONAI, bless his resources, find favor in the work of his hands.
 Crush the loins of those who rise against him and hate him, so they do not rise again.
¹² For Benjamin he said,
 ‘The beloved of ADONAI rests securely beside Him.
 He shields him all day long.
 Between His shoulders he rests.’
¹³ For Joseph he said,
 ‘May his land be blessed by ADONAI with heavenly bounty from the dew and from the deep lying beneath, ¹⁴ and with the bounty of the sun’s produce and the months’ yield,
¹⁵ and with the best from the ancient mountains and the bounty of the everlasting hills, ¹⁶ with earth’s bounty and its fullness and the favor of the One dwelling in the bush.

 May it come on Joseph’s head, on the crown of the prince among his brothers.
¹⁷ The firstborn ox—majesty is his.
 His horns are the horns of the wild ox.
 With them he gores peoples,
 all at once, to the ends of the earth.
 They are the myriads of Ephraim, they are the thousands of Manasseh.’
¹⁸ For Zebulun he said,
 ‘Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and Issachar, in your tents.
¹⁹ Peoples they call to the mountain—there they offer righteous sacrifices.
 For they suckle the abundance of the seas and the hidden treasures of the sand.’
²⁰ For Gad he said,
 ‘Blessed is the one who enlarges Gad.
 Like a lion he crouches,
 and tears off an arm
 or even the crown of a head.
²¹ He chose the best for himself, for there a marked portion was reserved.
 He came with the heads of the people.
 He carried out ADONAI’s justice and His judgments for Israel.’
²² For Dan he said,
 ‘Dan is a lion’s cub leaping out of the Bashan.’
²³ For Naphtali he said,
 ‘O Naphtali, satisfied with favor and full of the blessing of ADONAI, possess the sea and the south.’
²⁴ For Asher he said,
 ‘Most blessed of sons is Asher—may he be the favorite of his brothers, and may he dip his foot in oil.
²⁵ The bolts of your gates will be iron and bronze.
 As your days, so will your strength be.’
²⁶ ‘There is none like God, Jeshurun, riding through the heavens to your aid and through the skies in His majesty.
²⁷ A refuge is the ancient God, and underneath are everlasting arms.
 He drove out the enemy before you and said, ‘Destroy!’
²⁸ So Israel rests in safety, untroubled is Jacob’s fountain in a land of grain and new wine.
 Yes, his heavens drip dew.
²⁹ Happy are you, O Israel!
 Who is like you, a people saved by ADONAI, the Shield of your help and the Sword of your triumph?
 Your enemies will cower before you,

† Hebrew is obscure; possibly fiery law mountain slopes and you will trample on their backs.”

34 Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. ADONAI showed him all the land—Gilead to Dan, ² and all of Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the western sea, ³ the Negev and the plain of the valley of Jericho the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar. ⁴ Then ADONAI said to him, “This is the land that I swore to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob saying, ‘I will give it to your seed.’ I let you see it with your eyes, but you will not cross over there.”

⁵ So Moses the servant of ADONAI died there in the land of Moab, as was from the mouth of ADONAI.

⁶ Then He buried him in the valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor—but no one knows of his burial place to this day. ⁷ Moses was 120 years old when he died. His eye was not dim nor his vigor gone. ⁸ Bnei-Yisrael wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days. Then the days of weeping, mourning for Moses, were ended.

⁹ Now Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him. So Bnei-Yisrael listened to him and did just as ADONAI had commanded Moses.

¹⁰ There has not risen again a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom ADONAI knew face to face, ¹¹ with all the signs and wonders ADONAI sent him to do in the land of Egypt—to Pharaoh, all his servants, and all his land— ¹² by the strong hand and great awe that Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua Introduction

The Hebrew name “Y” means “is salvation.” An alternate form of the name “Y” is , which is translated into English as Jesus. As Joshua was salvation to lead the children of Israel out of the wilderness into the land of promise, so is understood to be salvation to lead His people out of the wilderness of despair, sin, and death into the eternal promised land of the Kingdom of God.

Although the author of the book of Joshua is not indicated in the text, it is widely believed to be Joshua, the son of Nun, the successor of Moses. The book covers approximately twenty-five years of Israel’s history under Joshua’s leadership, from 1400 to 1375 BCE. The narrative is divided into two sections: the first section begins with the crossing of the Jordan River and chronicles the conquest of the Land of Canaan, and the second section records the division and settlement of the conquered land according to the tribes of Israel.

The book of Joshua is a book of remembrance. It was written as a reminder to the people of Israel that deliverance comes from God, that victory comes through trusting Him and obeying His commands, and that defeat comes through disobedience and lack of faith. When the children of Israel crossed the Jordan River, Joshua commanded twelve stones to be taken from the riverbed and placed as a memorial of God’s power for future generations: “so that all the peoples of the earth may know hand is mighty, and so that you may fear your God forever.” (Josh. 4:24). The book of Joshua continues to serve as a reminder of the power of God, and contemporary readers are challenged with Joshua’s charge of “then choose for yourselves today whom you will serve.... But as for me and my household, we will worship !” (Josh. 24:15).

Messiah is revealed both implicitly and explicitly in the book of Joshua. In chapter 5, Joshua is confronted by the “commander of army.” The context of this passage makes it clear that this commander is . This is not an angel, as evidenced by the fact that angels in Scripture do not accept worship (Josh. 5:14). Also, the commander orders Joshua to take off his shoes because the place he was standing on was holy (Josh. 5:15), just as the voice of God out of the burning bush had commanded Moses to remove his shoes on holy ground (Exod. 3:4-5). is also revealed in the scarlet thread let down by Rahab the harlot (Josh. 2:18). As Rahab put her faith in the God of Israel and was saved by the scarlet thread, so will all those be saved who put their faith in the atoning sacrifice of Messiah .

Chazak! Be strong!

1 Now it came about after the death of Moses the servant of ADONAI that ADONAI spoke to Joshua son of Nun, Moses's aide saying: ² "My servant Moses is dead. So now, arise, you and all these people, cross over this Jordan to the land that I am giving to them—to Bnei-Yisrael. ³ Every place on which the sole of your foot treads, I am giving to you, as I spoke to Moses. ⁴ From the wilderness and Lebanon to the great river, the Euphrates River—all the land of the Hittites—to the Great Sea † toward the setting of the sun will be your territory. ⁵ No one will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you or forsake you. ⁶ Chazak! Be strong! For you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their fathers to give them. ⁷ Only be very strong, and resolute to observe diligently the Torah which Moses, My servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so you may be successful wherever you go. ⁸ This book of the Torah should not depart from your mouth—you are to meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. For then you will make your ways prosperous and then you will be successful. ⁹ Have I not commanded you? Chazak! Be strong! Do not be terrified or dismayed, for ADONAI your God is with you wherever you go."

¹⁰ Then Joshua commanded the officials of the people saying: ¹¹ "Go through the camp and charge the people saying: 'Prepare provisions, for within three days you will be crossing over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which ADONAI your God is giving you to possess.'"

¹² Then Joshua spoke to the Reubenites, Gadites, and half-tribe of Manasseh saying: ¹³ "Remember the word that Moses the servant of ADONAI commanded you saying: 'ADONAI your God has given you rest, and has assigned to you this land.' ¹⁴ Your wives, your little ones and your cattle will remain in the land which Moses gave you beyond the Jordan, but you will cross over before your brothers, armed, all the mighty men of valor, and will help them ¹⁵ until ADONAI gives your brothers rest, as He has given you, and they also possess the land that ADONAI your God is giving them.

† i.e., the Mediterranean

Then you will return to the land of your inheritance, and possess what Moses the servant of ADONAI gave you, beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise."

¹⁶ Then they answered Joshua saying: "All that you have commanded us, we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. ¹⁷ Just as we obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you. Only may ADONAI your God be with you as He was with Moses. ¹⁸ Whoever rebels against your command and does not obey your words in all that you command him, he will be put to death. Only be strong and courageous!"

Rahab's Faith

2 Then Joshua son of Nun secretly sent out two spies from Shittim saying: "Go, explore the land, especially Jericho." So they went and came to the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and lodged there. ††

² The king of Jericho was told, "Some men from Bnei-Yisrael have just come here tonight to spy out the land."

⁴ But the woman took the two men and hid them, and said: "Yes, the men did come to me, but I didn't know where they were from. ⁵ So when it was time to shut the gate at dark, the men went out, and I don't know where they went. Pursue them quickly, for you may overtake them." ⁶ But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them in the stalks of flax that she had spread out on the roof. ⁷ So the men pursued them on the road to the fords of the Jordan. As soon as the pursuers had gone out, they shut the gate.

⁸ Now before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof, ⁹ and she said to the men: "I know that ADONAI has given you the land—dread of you has fallen on us and all the inhabitants of the land are melting in fear before you. ¹⁰ For we have heard how ADONAI dried up the water of the Sea of Reeds before you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed. ¹¹ When we heard about it, our hearts melted, and no spirit remained any more in anyone because of you.

For ADONAI your God, He is God, in heaven above and on earth beneath. ¹² So now, please swear to me by ADONAI, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father's house. Give me a true sign ¹³ that you will spare the lives of my father, my mother, my brothers, my sisters, and all who belong to them, and save our lives from death."

¹⁴ The men said to her: "Our life for yours, if you don't report this business of ours. Then it will be when ADONAI gives us the land that we will deal kindly and loyally with you."

¹⁵ So she lowered them down by a rope through the window—for her house was in the wall; she was living in the wall. ¹⁶ Then she said to them: "Go to the hill country, lest the pursuers meet you, and hide yourselves there for three days, until the pursuers return. Afterward, you may go your way."

¹⁷ Then the men said to her: "We will be released from this oath that you have made us swear, ¹⁸ unless when we come into the land, you tie this line of scarlet thread in the window through which you lowered us down, and gather to yourself in the house your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father's household— ¹⁹ whoever goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood will be on his head and we will be innocent, but whoever is with you in the house, his blood will be on our head if any hand is laid on him. ²⁰ But if you divulge this business of ours, then we will be released from your oath you have made us swear."

²¹ So she said: "According to your words, so be it." Then she sent them away. After they had gone, she tied the scarlet cord to the window. ²² Then they departed and came to the hill country. They stayed there for three days until the pursuers returned. Now the pursuers had looked for them all along the road, but had not found them. ²³ Then the two men returned, came down from the hill country, crossed over and came to Joshua son of Nun.

They reported to him all that had befallen them.

²⁴ "Surely ADONAI has given all the land into our hands," they said to Joshua. "Indeed, all the inhabitants of the land have melted in fear before us."

Crossing the Jordan

3 Then Joshua rose up early in the morning, and he and all Bnei-Yisrael set out from Shittim and came to the Jordan. They lodged there before crossing over. ² Now it came about after three days that the officials went through the camp ³ and they charged the people saying, "When you see the ark of the covenant of ADONAI your God and the Levitical kohanim carrying it, then you must set out from your place and follow it. ⁴ Yet keep a distance between you and it of about 2,000 cubits by measure. Don't come near it, so you may know the way by which you should go, for you haven't traveled this way before."

⁵ Then Joshua told the people, "Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow ADONAI will do wonders in your midst." ⁶ Joshua spoke to the kohanim saying: "Take up the ark of the covenant and cross over ahead of the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went ahead of the people.

⁷ Now ADONAI said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to exalt you in the eyes of all Israel, so they may know that just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.

⁸ You are to command the kohanim who are carrying the ark of the covenant saying: 'When you reach the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you are to stand still in the Jordan.'"

⁹ So Joshua said to Bnei-Yisrael, "Come here, and listen to the words of ADONAI your God." ¹⁰ Joshua said, "By this you will know that the living God is among you, and that He will certainly drive out from before you the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Hivite, the Perizzite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, and the Jebusite. ¹¹ Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Sovereign of all the earth is advancing before you into the Jordan. ¹² So now, take for yourselves twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe. ¹³ It will come to pass when the soles of the feet of the kohanim who are carrying the ark of ADONAI, Sovereign of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the Jordan's waters will be cut off. The waters coming downstream will stand up in one heap."

¹⁵ Now the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the harvest season. But as soon as those who were carrying the ark came into the Jordan and the feet of the kohanim carrying the ark dipped in the edge of the water, ¹⁶ the waters which were flowing down from above stood and rose up in one heap, a great distance away at Adam, the town next to Zarethan. What was flowing down to the sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea) was completely cut off. So the people crossed over opposite Jericho. ¹⁷ Yet the kohanim carrying the ark of the covenant of ADONAI stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, while all Israel crossed over on dry ground, until the entire nation had finished crossing over the Jordan.

Twelve Memorial Stones

4 Now when all the nation had finished crossing over the Jordan, ADONAI spoke to Joshua saying: ² "Take for yourself twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe, ³ and command them saying, 'Take for yourselves twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the feet of the kohanim are standing firm, and carry them over with you, and deposit them at the place where you will lodge tonight.'"

⁴ Then Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from Bnei-Yisrael, one man from each tribe. ⁵ Joshua said to them, "Cross over before the ark of ADONAI your God into the middle of the Jordan. Each of you, lift up a stone on his shoulder, for the number of the tribes of Bnei-Yisrael. ⁶ Let this be a sign among you. When your children ask later saying, 'What do these stones mean to you?' ⁷ then you will say to them: 'Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of ADONAI—when it crossed the Jordan—the waters of the Jordan were cut off.' So these stones will be a reminder to Bnei-Yisrael forever."

⁸ So Bnei-Yisrael did so, as Joshua commanded. They lifted twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, just as ADONAI had said to Joshua, for the number of the tribes of Bnei-Yisrael. Then they carried them over with them to the lodging place and put them down there. ⁹ Joshua also set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, at the spot where the feet of the kohanim carrying the ark of the covenant were standing—they are there to this day.

¹⁰ The kohanim who carried the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything that ADONAI had commanded Joshua to speak to the people was completed, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. The people hurried across, ¹¹ and when all the people had finished crossing over, the ark of ADONAI and the kohanim crossed over in the presence of the people. ¹² Also the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed, ahead of Bnei-Yisrael, just as Moses had said to them— ¹³ about 40,000 equipped for war crossed over before ADONAI for battle to the plains of Jericho.

¹⁴ On that day ADONAI exalted Joshua in the eyes of all Israel. So they revered him, just as they had revered Moses all the days of his life.

¹⁹ Now the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month and camped at Gilgal on the eastern border of Jericho. ²⁰ Those twelve stones, which they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set up in Gilgal. ²¹ Then he said to Bnei-Yisrael saying, "When your children ask their fathers in time to come saying: 'What are these stones?' ²² then you will inform your children saying, 'Israel crossed this Jordan on dry ground.' ²³ For ADONAI your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you crossed—just as ADONAI your God did to the Sea of Reeds, which He dried up before us until we crossed over— ²⁴ so that all the peoples of the earth may know ADONAI's hand is mighty, and so that you may fear ADONAI your God forever."

Circumcision at Gilgal

⁵ Now it came about when all the Amorite kings beyond the Jordan westward and all the Canaanite kings by the sea heard how ADONAI had dried up the waters of the Jordan before Bnei-Yisrael until they had crossed, their hearts melted, nor was there any spirit in them anymore, because of Bnei-Yisrael.

² At that time ADONAI said to Joshua, "Make yourself flint knives and circumcise again Bnei-Yisrael a second time." ³ So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised Bnei-Yisrael at Gibeath-Ha-Araloth. ⁴ Now this is the reason why Joshua circumcised: all the people that came out of Egypt who were males—all the men of war—had died in the wilderness along the way after they came out of Egypt. ⁵ Though all the people that came out were circumcised, none of the people who were born in the wilderness along the way as they came out of Egypt had been circumcised. ⁶ For Bnei-Yisrael walked 40 years in the wilderness, until all the nation's men of war who came out of Egypt died out, because they had not listened to the voice of ADONAI. To them ADONAI had sworn that He would never let them see the land which ADONAI had sworn to their fathers that He would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. ⁷ But He raised up their children in their place. Joshua circumcised them, for they were uncircumcised, since they had not been circumcised along the way. ⁸ Now it came to pass after they had finished circumcising the entire nation, they remained in their places in the camp until they recovered.

⁹ Then ADONAI said to Joshua, "This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you." Therefore the name of that place has been called Gilgal to this day. ¹⁰ While Bnei-Yisrael camped at Gilgal †, they observed Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month in the plains of Jericho. ¹¹ On the day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate of the produce of the land, matzot and roasted grain.

¹² Then the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten of the produce of the land. Bnei-Yisrael had manna no longer, but ate some of the yield of the land of Canaan that year.

Commander of ADONAI's Army

¹³ Now it came to pass when Joshua was near Jericho that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there was a man standing in front of him with his sword drawn in his hand. Joshua approached him and said to him: "Are you for us or for our adversaries?"

¹⁴ "Neither," he said. "Rather, I have now come as commander of ADONAI's army."

† Meaning rolling

Then Joshua fell on his face to the ground and worshiped. Then he asked him, "What is my lord saying to his servant?"

¹⁵ Then the commander of ADONAI's army replied to Joshua, "Take your sandal off of your foot, for the place where you are standing is holy." And Joshua did so.

6 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of Bnei-Yisrael—no one going out and no one coming in. ² Then ADONAI said to Joshua, "Look, I have given Jericho into your hand, with its king and mighty warriors. ³ Now you are to march around the city, all the men of war circling the city once. So you are to do for six days. ⁴ Seven kohanim will carry seven shofarot of rams' horns before the ark. Then on the seventh day you are to circle the city seven times while the kohanim blow the shofarot. ⁵ It will be when they make a long blast with the ram's horn, when you hear the sound of the shofar, have all the people shout a loud shout—then the wall of the city will fall down flat, and the people will go up, everyone straight ahead."

⁶ So Joshua son of Nun summoned the kohanim and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant. Let seven kohanim carry seven shofarot of rams' horns before the ark of ADONAI." ⁷ Then he said to the people, "Move forward, march around the city, and let the armed force march ahead of the ark of ADONAI."

⁸ And it was so. After Joshua had spoken to the people, seven kohanim carrying the seven shofarot of rams' horns before ADONAI went forward and blew the shofarot, and the ark of the covenant of ADONAI followed them. ⁹ Also the armed force went before the kohanim who blew the shofarot, and the rear guard came behind the ark, while the shofarot continued to blow. ¹⁰ But Joshua ordered the people saying: "You must not shout nor let your voice be heard nor let a word proceed out of your mouth until the day I tell you 'shout!' Then you will shout." ¹¹ So he had the ark of ADONAI go around the city, circling it once. Then they came into the camp and spent the night there.

¹² The next day Joshua rose early in the morning. The kohanim took up the ark of ADONAI, ¹³ and the seven kohanim carrying the seven shofarot of rams' horns marched in front of the ark of ADONAI and blew the shofarot, with the armed force marching before them and the rear guard marching behind the ark of ADONAI, while the shofarot continued to blow. ¹⁴ So the second day they circled the city once and returned to the camp. So they did for six days.

Jericho's Walls Come Down

¹⁵ Now on the seventh day they rose early, at dawn, and marched around the city in the same way seven times. Only on that day did they march around the city seven times. ¹⁶ Then on the seventh time, when the kohanim blew the shofarot, Joshua ordered the people, "Shout! For ADONAI has given you the city! ¹⁷ But the city will be under the ban of destruction—it and all that is in it belong to ADONAI. Only Rahab the harlot will live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the scouts that we sent. ¹⁸ But you, just keep yourselves from the things under the ban. Otherwise you would make yourselves accursed by taking of the things under the ban, and so you would make the camp of Israel accursed and bring trouble on it. ¹⁹ All the silver and gold and vessels of bronze and iron are holy to ADONAI, and must go into the treasury of ADONAI."

²⁰ So when the shofarot blew, the people shouted. When the people heard the sound of the shofar, the people shouted a loud shout—and the wall fell down flat! So the people went up into the city, everyone straight ahead, and they captured the city. ²¹ They utterly destroyed everything in the city—man and woman, young and old, ox, sheep, and donkey—with the edge of the sword.

²² Then Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land: "Go into the harlot's house and bring the woman and all who belong to her, as you swore to her." ²³ So the young spies went in and brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her relatives and all who belonged to her. All her relatives they brought out and put them outside the camp of Israel.

²⁴ Then they burned the city with fire and all that was in it. Only the silver, the gold and the vessels of bronze and iron did they put into the treasury of the House of ADONAI. ²⁵ But Rahab the harlot, her father's household, and all who belonged to her, Joshua spared. She has lived in the midst of Israel to this day, because she hid the scouts whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

²⁶ At that time Joshua made an oath saying:

"Cursed before ADONAI is the man who rises up and rebuilds this city, Jericho! On his firstborn he will lay its foundation, and on his youngest son he will set up its gates."

²⁷ So ADONAI was with Joshua, and his fame was throughout the region.

Achan's Trouble

7 But Bnei-Yisrael unfaithfully violated the ban. Achan son of Carmi son of Zabdi son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the banned things. ^{††} So ADONAI's anger burned against Bnei-Yisrael.

² Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-Aven, east of Beth-El, and spoke to them saying: "Go up and spy out the land." So the men went up and spied out Ai.

³ When they returned to Joshua, they reported to him: "Let not all the people go up—only about two or three thousand men need go up and strike Ai, so don't wear out all the people there, for they are just a few."

⁴ So about 3,000 men from the people went up there,

† cf. Heb. 11:30. †† "ban, banned things" from Hebrew cherem

but they fled before the men of Ai. ⁵ The men of Ai struck down about 36 of their men, and they chased them from outside the gate as far as Shebarim, [†] striking them down on the slope. So the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

⁶ Joshua then tore his clothes and fell to the ground on his face before the ark of ADONAI until evening, both he and the elders of Israel, and they put dust on their heads. ⁷ “Alas, ADONAI Elohim!” Joshua said. “Why did You ever bring this people across the Jordan? Is it to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites—to destroy us? If only we had been content and dwelled beyond the Jordan! ⁸ Oh my Lord, what can I say, now that Israel has turned its back before its enemies? ⁹ For when the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land hear of it, they will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. Then what will You do for Your great Name?”

¹⁰ Then ADONAI said to Joshua, “Arise! Why are you fallen on your face? ¹¹ Israel has sinned. Yes, they have also transgressed My covenant, which I commanded them. Now they have even taken of the things under the ban of destruction. So they have also stolen and even deceived, and even put them among their own possessions. ¹² So Bnei-Yisrael cannot stand before their enemies. So they turn their necks before their enemies, because they have come under the ban. I will not be with you any more unless you destroy whatever is under the ban from among you. ¹³ Arise! Consecrate the people and say, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, for thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: Something under the ban is in the midst of you, Israel. You will not be able to stand up before your enemies until you remove whatever is under the ban from among you. ¹⁴ In the morning you will approach by your tribes. It will be that the tribe that ADONAI takes will come forward by families, and the family that ADONAI takes will come forward by households, and the household that ADONAI takes will come forward man by man. ¹⁵ Then whoever is taken with whatever is under the ban must be burned with fire, he and all belonging to him, because he has transgressed the covenant of ADONAI, and because he has committed a disgrace in Israel.’”

¹⁶ So Joshua rose up early in the morning and brought Israel forward by their tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken. ¹⁷ Then he brought forward the clans of Judah, and he took the family of the Zerahites. Then he brought forward the family of the Zerahites man by man, and Zabdi was taken. ¹⁸ Then he brought forward his household man by man, and Achan son of Carmi son of Zabdi son of Zerah of the tribe of Judah was taken. ¹⁹ So Joshua said to Achan, “My son, give glory now to ADONAI, God of Israel, and give praise to Him, and confess to me now what you have done—hide nothing from me.”

[†] Perhaps as far as the stone quarries

²⁰ Achan responded to Joshua and said: “It’s true! I have sinned against ADONAI, God of Israel! This is what I have done: ²¹ When I saw among the spoil a beautiful Shinar mantle and 200 shekels of silver and a wedge of gold 50 shekels in weight, I coveted them and took them. Look, they are buried in the ground in the middle of my tent, with the silver under it.”

²² So Joshua sent messengers who ran to the tent, and behold, it was buried in his tent with the silver underneath it. ²³ Then they took them from the middle of the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all Bnei-Yisrael, and they laid them down before ADONAI.

²⁵ Then Joshua said, “Why have you brought trouble on us? ADONAI will trouble you this day.” Then all Israel stoned him with stones, burned them with fire, and stoned them with stones. ²⁶ They raised over him a great heap of stones that stands to this day. Then ADONAI turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place has been called the Valley of Achor to this day.

8 Then ADONAI said to Joshua: “Do not be afraid or dismayed. Take all the people of war with you and arise, go up to Ai. Behold, I have given the king of Ai, his people, his, city and his land into your hand. ² Then you will do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king—except you will take its spoil and its cattle as booty for yourselves. Set an ambush for the city behind it.”

³ So Joshua and all the people of war arose to go up to Ai. Joshua selected 30,000 men, valiant warriors, and sent them at night. ⁴ He commanded them saying: “Look, you are going to ambush the city from behind it. Don’t go too far from the city, but all of you be ready. ⁵ Then I and all the troops with me will approach the city. Then it will be when they come out against us, like the first time, that we will flee before them. ⁶ So they will come out after us until we have drawn them away from the city. For they will think, ‘They are fleeing before us like the first time.’ While we are fleeing before them, ⁷ you will rise up from the ambush and take possession of the city, for ADONAI your God will give it into your hand. ⁸ Now when you have seized the city, you will set the city on fire—according to the word of ADONAI you must do. See that you do as I have ordered you.”

⁹ So Joshua sent them off, and they went to the ambush site, taking position between Beth-El and Ai, to the west of Ai. But Joshua spent that night among the people. ¹⁰ Then Joshua rose up early in the morning and mustered the people. He and the elders of Israel marched before the people to Ai. ¹¹ All the people of war with him went up, advanced, and came in front of the city. They camped to the north of Ai, with a valley between him and Ai. ¹² But he had taken about 5,000 men and set them in ambush between Beth-El and Ai, to the west of the city. ¹³ So they stationed the people, the main army that was to the north of the city, and its rear guard to the west of the city. Then Joshua walked that night in the midst of the valley.

¹⁴ So it came to pass when the king of Ai saw this, the men of the city hurried and rose up early, and went out to meet Israel in battle, he and all his people at the appointed place facing the Arabah. But he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city. ¹⁵ So Joshua and all Israel pretended to be beaten before them and fled by the way of the wilderness. ¹⁶ Then all the people who were in Ai were summoned to pursue them, so they pursued Joshua and were drawn away from the city. ¹⁷ Not a man was left in Ai or Beth-El who did not go out after Israel, so they left the city open as they chased after Israel.

¹⁸ Then ADONAI said to Joshua, "Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand." So Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. ¹⁹ As soon as he stretched out his hand, the ambush arose quickly from their place, ran and entered the city and captured it; and immediately set the city on fire. ²⁰ Now the men of Ai looked back and saw, behold, the smoke of the city rising up to the sky! They had no place to flee this way or that, since the people who had been fleeing to the wilderness turned back upon the pursuers. ²¹ When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city and that the smoke of the city rose up, they turned back and struck down the men of Ai.

²² The others also came out of the city against them, so they were surrounded by Israel, some on this side and some on that side. They struck them down until not one survivor or fugitive was left. ²³ But they captured the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

²⁴ After Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field in the wilderness where they pursued them, and all of them were fallen by the edge of the sword until they were consumed, all Israel returned to Ai and struck it with the edge of the sword. ²⁵ All who fell that day, both men and women, were 12,000—all the people of Ai. ²⁶ For Joshua did not draw back his hand with which he stretched out the javelin, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. ²⁷ Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Israel took as their booty, according to the word of ADONAI which He had commanded Joshua. ²⁸ So Joshua burnt Ai and made it a permanent heap of desolation to this day. ²⁹ Then he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening. At sunset Joshua commanded that they take his carcass down from the tree, cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and piled over it a great heap of stones, which remains to this day.

³⁰ Then Joshua built an altar to ADONAI, God of Israel, on Mount Ebal, ³¹ as Moses the servant of ADONAI had commanded Bnei-Yisrael, as written in the scroll of the Torah of Moses, an altar of uncut stones on which no man had wielded any iron tool. They offered on it burnt offerings to ADONAI and sacrificed fellowship offerings. ³² There on the stones he wrote a copy of the Torah of Moses, which he had written, in the presence of Bnei-Yisrael. ³³ Then all Israel, with their elders and officials, and their judges, were standing on both sides of the ark facing the Levitical kohanim carrying the ark of the covenant of ADONAI—the outsider as well as the native-born. Half of them stood in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal—just as Moses the servant of ADONAI had commanded before—in order to bless the people of Israel.

³⁴ Then afterward he read all the words of the Torah—the blessing and the curse—according to all that is written in the book of the Torah. ³⁵ There was not a word of all that Moses commanded that Joshua did not read before all the assembly of Israel, including the women and the little ones and the outsiders walking among them.

Gibeonites Connive a Treaty

9 Now when all the kings who were west of the Jordan, in the hill country, in the lowland, and along the shore of the Great Sea to the vicinity of Lebanon—the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites—heard about it, ² they gathered themselves together as a unified alliance to fight against Joshua and Israel.

³ But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai, ⁴ they acted craftily. They went and traveled as ambassadors, took worn-out sacks for their donkeys and worn-out wine skins, cracked and patched up, ⁵ along with worn-out, patched up sandals on their feet and worn-out clothes on them. All the bread of their provision was dry and had become crumbly. ⁶ Then they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a far country. So now, make a treaty-covenant with us."

⁷ Then the men of Israel said to the Hivites: "Perhaps you are living among us. How then should we make a covenant with you?"

⁸ But they said to Joshua, "We are your servants."

Then Joshua asked them, "Who are you? Where do you come from?"

⁹ So they replied to him: "Your servants have come from a very distant country because of the Name of ADONAI your God. For we have heard the report of Him and all that He did in Egypt, ¹⁰ and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan—to King Sihon of Heshbon and to King Og of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth. ¹¹ So our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us saying, 'Take provisions in your hand for the journey, go to meet them and say to them: "We will be your subjects, so now make a treaty-covenant with us."' ¹² This is our bread, which was hot when we took it for our provision from our homes on the day we left to come to you, but now behold, it is dry and crumbly. ¹³ And these wineskins, which were new when we filled them, but now see, they are cracked. Also, these our garments and our sandals are worn-out because of the very long journey."

¹⁶ But it came about at the end of three days after they had cut a covenant with them, they heard that they were their neighbors, and were living among them. ¹⁷ So Bnei-Yisrael journeyed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-Jearim. ¹⁸ But Bnei-Yisrael did not strike them, because the leaders of the community had sworn to them by ADONAI, God of Israel. Then the entire community murmured against the leaders, ¹⁹ but all the leaders answered the entire community, "We have sworn to them by ADONAI, God of Israel, so now we cannot touch them. ²⁰ This is what we will do to them: We will let them live, lest wrath be upon us because of the oath which we swore to them. ²¹ Yes, let them live," the leaders said further, "but let them chop wood and draw water for the entire community." So the leaders decreed concerning them.

²² Then Joshua summoned them and he spoke to them saying: "Why have you deceived us saying: 'We are very far from you,' when you are living among us? ²³ Now therefore, you are cursed, and you will never cease to be servants, wood-choppers, and water-carriers for the House of my God."

²⁴ So they answered Joshua and said: "It was because your servants were clearly told that ADONAI your God had commanded His servant Moses to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you. So we were very afraid for our lives because of you, and so we did this. ²⁵ Now behold, we are in your hand. Whatever seems good and right in your eyes to do to us, do."

²⁶ Thus he did to them, delivering them from the hand of Bnei-Yisrael, so they did not slay them. ²⁷ On that day Joshua made them wood-choppers and water-carriers for the community, and for the altar of ADONAI in the place which He would choose. So it is to this day.

Sun Stands Still

10 Now it came to pass that Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it—just as he had done to Jericho and its king, so he had done to Ai and its king—and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel and remained among them. ² So he feared greatly, because Gibeon was a large city, as one of the royal cities—in fact, larger than Ai—and all its men were mighty. ³ Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent word to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish, and Debir king of Eglon saying: ⁴ "Come up and help me! Let's attack Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and Bnei-Yisrael." ⁵ So the five kings of the Amorites—the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish and the king of Eglon—gathered themselves and went up, they and all their armies, camped against Gibeon and attacked it.

⁶ Then the men of Gibeon sent word to Joshua in camp at Gilgal saying: "Don't abandon your servants! Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us, for all the kings of the Amorites living in the hill country have gathered against us." ⁷ So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him and all the mighty men of valor.

¹² Then Joshua spoke to ADONAI, on the day ADONAI gave the Amorites over to Bnei-Yisrael, and said in the eyes of Israel:

"Sun, stand still over Gibeon, Moon, over the Aijalon Valley!"

¹³ So the sun stood still and the moon stopped until the nation took vengeance on its enemies. (Is it not written in the Book of Jashar?) Thus the sun halted in the middle of the sky, and did not hurry to go down for about a full day. ¹⁴ There was no day like that before it or after it, when ADONAI listened to the voice of a man. For ADONAI fought for Israel.

¹⁵ Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal. ¹⁶ Now these five kings fled and hid themselves in the cave at Makedah. ¹⁷ So it was reported to Joshua, "The five kings are found hidden in the cave at Makedah." ¹⁸ Joshua said, "Roll large stones onto the mouth of the cave, assign men over it to guard them, ¹⁹ but don't stay there yourselves. Chase after your enemies and attack them at the rear. Don't let them enter their cities, for ADONAI your God has given them into your hand."

²² Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring out those five kings to me from the cave."

²³ So they did so, and brought out those five kings to him from the cave—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon. ²⁴ When they brought out those kings to Joshua, Joshua summoned all the men of Israel and said to the chiefs of the men of war who had gone with him, "Come forward and put your feet on the necks of these kings." So they came forward and put their feet on their necks. ²⁵ Then Joshua said to them, "Never fear or be dismayed. Chazak! Be strong! For thus will ADONAI do to all your enemies whom you will fight." ²⁶ After this, Joshua struck them and put them to death, then hanged them on five trees, and they remained hanging on the trees until evening. ²⁷ It came about at sunset that Joshua commanded that they be taken down from the trees and thrown into the cave where they had hidden themselves. Then they placed large stones at the mouth of the cave which are there to this very day.

²⁸ On that day Joshua captured Makkedah and struck it and its king with the edge of the sword, putting it and every single soul in it under a ban of destruction, leaving no survivors. So he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

²⁹ Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Makkedah to Libnah and fought against Libnah. ³⁰ ADONAI also gave it with its king into the hand of Israel. So he struck it and every single soul in it with the edge of the sword, leaving no survivors in it. So he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

³¹ Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Libnah to Lachish, camped against it, and fought against it. ³² ADONAI delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel, so he captured it on the second day, and struck it and every single soul in it with the edge of the sword, just as he had done to Libnah. ³³ Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish, but Joshua defeated him and his people until he had left him no survivors.

³⁴ Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Lachish to Eglon, camped against it and fought against it. ³⁵ They captured it on that day and struck it and every single soul in it with the edge of the sword, putting them under the ban that day, just as he had done to Lachish.

³⁶ Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron, and they fought against it. ³⁷ They captured it and struck it, its king, all its towns, and every single soul that was in it with the edge of the sword, leaving no survivors, just as he had done to Eglon, putting it and every single soul in it under the ban.

³⁸ Then Joshua and all Israel with him turned back to Debir and fought against it. ³⁹ He captured it and its king, and all its towns, struck them with the edge of the sword, and put every single soul in it under the ban, leaving no survivors. Just as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its king, as he had also done to Libnah and its king.

⁴⁰ So Joshua conquered the entire country—the hill country, the Negev, the lowland, and the slopes—with all their kings. He left no survivors, but he put everything that breathed under the ban, just as ADONAI God of Israel had commanded. ⁴¹ Thus Joshua defeated them from Kadesh-Barnea to Gaza, all the country of Goshen as far as Gibeon. ⁴² Thus Joshua captured all those kings and their lands at a single stroke, because ADONAI God of Israel fought for Israel. ⁴³ Then Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal.

Conquering the North

11 Now when Jabin king of Hazor heard about it, he sent word to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph, ² and to the kings in the north, in the hill country, in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, in the lowland and in the regions of Dor to the west, ³ the Canaanites in the east and west, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites at the foot of Hermon in the land of Mizpah. ⁴ So they came out, they and all their armies with them, a multitude with as many people as the sand on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots. ⁵ All these kings joined forces, came and camped together at the waters of Merom to fight with Israel.

¹¹ They struck down every single soul in it with the edge of the sword, putting them to the ban. There was none left that breathed after he burned Hazor with fire. ¹² Thus Joshua captured all the cities of those kings and all their kings, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, putting them to the ban, just as Moses the servant of ADONAI had commanded. ¹³ But as for the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel did not burn any of them, except Hazor alone, which Joshua did burn. ¹⁴ All the spoil of these cities and the cattle, Bnei-Yisrael took as their booty, but they struck down every person with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them, not sparing anyone who breathed.

¹⁵ Just as ADONAI had commanded Moses His servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that ADONAI had commanded Moses. ¹⁶ So Joshua captured all this land: the hill country, the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the lowland, the Arabah, the hill country of Israel and its lowland, ¹⁷ from the Mount Halak † that ascends to Seir all the way to Baal-Gad in the valley of Lebanon at the foot of Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings, struck them down and put them to death. ¹⁸ For a long time Joshua made war with all those kings. ¹⁹ There was not a city that made peace with Bnei-Yisrael except the Hivites who inhabited Gibeon. All the rest they took in battle. ²⁰ For it was of ADONAI to harden their hearts to encounter Israel in battle, that they might be put to the ban, that they might receive no mercy, in order to destroy them as ADONAI had commanded Moses.

²¹ At that time Joshua went and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, Debir, Anab, and from the entire hill country of Judah, and from the entire hill country of Israel. Joshua put a ban on them with their cities. ²² There was none of the Anakim left in the land of Bnei-Yisrael, except some were left in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod.

²³ So Joshua captured the whole country, according to all that ADONAI had spoken to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. Then the land had rest from war.

The Conquered Kings

12 Now these are the kings of the land whom Bnei-Yisrael defeated and possessed their land beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon, and all the Arabah eastward: ² King Sihon of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the middle of the valley, and half Gilead, even up to the Jabbok River, the border of the children of Ammon; ³ and the Arabah up to the Sea of Chinneroth eastward, and as far as the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, eastward the way to Beth-Jeshimoth, and on the south, at the foot of the slopes of Pisgah. ⁴ Also the territory of King Og of Bashan, one of the remnant of the Rephaim, who lived at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, ⁵ and ruled over Mount Hermon and Salcah and all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and half of Gilead, as far as the border of King Sihon of Heshbon. ⁶ Moses the servant of ADONAI and Bnei-Yisrael defeated them, then Moses the servant of ADONAI gave it as a possession to the Reubenites, Gadites, and half-tribe of Manasseh.

⁷ Now these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and Bnei-Yisrael defeated beyond the Jordan westward, from Baal-Gad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak that goes up to Seir (Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions: ⁸ in the hill country, in the lowland, in the Arabah, on the slopes, in the wilderness, and in the Negev, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites): ⁹ one king of Jericho, one king of Ai which was near Beth-El, ¹⁰ one king of Jerusalem, one king of Hebron, ¹¹ one king of Jarmuth, one king of Lachish, ¹² one king of Eglon, one king of Gezer, ¹³ one king of Debir, one king of Geder, ¹⁴ one king of Hormah, one king of Arad, ¹⁵ one king of Libnah, one king of Adullam, ¹⁶ one king of Makkedah, one king of Beth-El, ¹⁷ one king of Tappuah, one king of Hopher, ¹⁸ one king of Aphek, one king of Sharon, ¹⁹ one king of Madon, one king of Hazor, ²⁰ one king of Shimron-Meron, one king of Achshaph, ²¹ one king of Taanach, one king of Megiddo, ²² one king of Kedesh, one king of Jokneam in Carmel, ²³ one king of Dor in the region of Dor, one king of Goiim in the Gilgal, ²⁴ one king of Tirzah, for a total of 31 kings.

Territories Yet Unconquered

13 Now Joshua was old and advanced in years when ADONAI said to him, "You are old and getting on in years, yet very much of the land is still left to possess. ² This is the land still left: all the regions of the Philistines and all the Geshurites; ³ from the Shihor which is near Egypt to the territory of Ekron northward (counted as Canaanite); the five Philistine lords of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron; also the Avvim ⁴ in the south, all the land of the Canaanites—from Mearah of the Sidonians to Aphek, as far as the border of the Amorites; ⁵ the land of the Gebalites; and all Lebanon toward the sunrise, from Baal-Gad at the foot of Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath; ⁶ all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-Maim, all the Sidonians.

"I Myself will drive them out from before Bnei-Yisrael. Only allot it to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you. ⁷ So now, divide this land as an inheritance for the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh."

Inheritance East of Jordan

⁸ With the half-tribe, the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them beyond the Jordan eastward, just as Moses the servant of ADONAI gave them; ⁹ from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the flatland from Medeba to Dibon; ¹⁰ and all the cities of King Sihon of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, up to the border of the children of Ammon; ¹¹ and Gilead, and the territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan up to Salcah; ¹² all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (he was left of the remnant of the Rephaim), for Moses defeated them and drove them out. ¹³ Nevertheless, Bnei-Yisrael did not drive out the Geshurites or the Maacathites; but Geshur and Maacath lived among Israel to this day.

¹⁴ Only to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance—the fire offerings of ADONAI God of Israel are his inheritance, as He spoke to him.

³² These are the inheritances that Moses apportioned in the plains of Moab, across the Jordan to the east of Jericho. ³³ But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance— ADONAI God of Israel is their inheritance, as He had spoken to them.

14 Now these are the portions that Bnei-Yisrael possessed in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the kohen and Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the ancestral houses of the tribes of Bnei-Yisrael apportioned to them. ² Their inheritance was by the lot, as ADONAI had commanded by Moses's hand, for the nine tribes and half-tribe. ³ For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe across the Jordan. But he gave no inheritance to the Levites among them. ⁴ For the children of Joseph became two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim. They gave no portion to the Levites in the land, except towns to live in, with their pasturelands around them for their livestock and for their cattle. ⁵ As ADONAI had commanded Moses, so Bnei-Yisrael did, and apportioned the land.

Caleb Inherits Hebron

⁶ Then the children of Judah approached Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him: "You know the word that ADONAI had spoken to Moses the man of God at Kadesh-Barnea concerning me and you. ⁷ I was 40 years old when Moses the servant of ADONAI sent me from Kadesh-Barnea to spy out the land, and I brought him back word as it was in my heart. ⁸ Nevertheless, my fellows that went up with me made the heart of the people melt with fear, but I fully followed ADONAI my God. ⁹ So Moses swore on that day saying: 'Surely the land on which your foot has trodden will be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have fully followed ADONAI my God.' ¹⁰ So now behold, ADONAI has kept me alive, just as He said, these 45 years, since the time that ADONAI spoke this word to Moses while Israel was journeying in the wilderness, and now behold, I am 85 years old today. ¹¹ I am still as strong today as I was in the day that Moses sent me—as my strength was then, so is my strength now, for war and for going out and coming in. ¹² Now therefore, give me this hill country about which ADONAI spoke on that day. For you heard on that day how the Anakim were there as well as great, fortified cities. Perhaps ADONAI will be with me, and I will drive them out, just as ADONAI has spoken."

¹³ So Joshua blessed him, and he assigned Hebron to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his portion. ¹⁴ Therefore, Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he followed ADONAI the God of Israel fully. ¹⁵ Now the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath-Arba, for Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim. Then the land had rest from war.

Inheritance of Judah

15 Now the allotment for the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families was as far as the border of Edom, southward to the wilderness of Zin at the extreme south. ² Their southern border was from the lower end of the Salt Sea, from the bay projecting southward. ³ Then it proceeded south of the Ascent of Akrabbim and passed on to Zin, and then went up by the south of Kadesh-Barnea and passed on to Hezron, and went up to Addar and turned toward Karka. ⁴ It passed along to Azmon and went on to the Wadi of Egypt, where the border ended at the sea—this will be your southern border.

¹⁰ From Baalah the border turned westward to Mount Seir, passed along to the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Chesalon) and went down to Beth-shemesh, then passed Timnah. ¹¹ Next the border went out to the slope north of Ekron, then went out to Shikkeron, passed along to Mount Baalah, went on to Jabneel, and the border ended at the sea.

¹² The western border was the Great Sea and its coastline. These were the borders around the children of Judah according to their clans.

¹³ Now to Caleb son of Jephunneh he gave a portion among the children of Judah, at the command of ADONAI to Joshua—Kiriath-Arba, which is Hebron (Arba was the father of Anak). ¹⁴ So Caleb drove out from there the three sons of Anak—Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi, children of Anak. ¹⁵ Then he went up from there against the inhabitants of Debir (now the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-Sepher).

¹⁶ Caleb said, "I will give my daughter Achsah as a wife to the one who attacks Kiriath-Sepher and captures it." ¹⁷ So Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's kinsman, captured it, so he gave him his daughter Achsah as a wife. ¹⁸ Now it came about when she came to him, that she persuaded Othniel to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her: "What do you need?"

¹⁹ "Give me a blessing," she said. "For you have given me land in the Negev †, you should also give me springs of water." So he gave her the Upper Springs and the Lower Springs.

²⁰ This is the portion of the tribe of the children of Judah by their clans: ²¹ the towns at the end of the tribe of the children of Judah toward the border of Edom in the south were Kavzeel, Eder, Jagur, ²² Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, ²³ Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, ²⁴ Ziph, Telem, Bealoth, ²⁵ Hazor-Hadattah, Keriath-Hezron (that is,

† i.e., south country, a desert

Hazor), ²⁶ Amam, Shema, Moladah, ²⁷ Hazar-Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth-Pelet, ²⁸ Hazar-Shual, Beer-Sheba, Biziothiah, ²⁹ Baalah, Iim, Ezem, ³⁰ El-Tolad, Chesil, Hormah, ³¹ Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah, ³² Lebaot, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon—a total of 29 towns, with their villages.

³³ In the lowland: Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, ³⁴ Zanoach, En-Gannim, Tappuah, Enam, ³⁵ Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, ³⁶ Shaaraim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim—14 towns with their villages. ³⁷ Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal-Gad, ³⁸ Dilan, Mizpeh, Joktheel, ³⁹ Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, ⁴⁰ Cabbon, Lahmas, Chithlish, ⁴¹ Gederoth, Beth-dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah—16 towns with their villages. ⁴² Libnah, Ether, Ashan, ⁴³ Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, ⁴⁴ Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah—9 towns with their villages. ⁴⁵ Ekron with its towns and villages; ⁴⁶ from Ekron to the sea, all that were under Ashdod's hand, with their villages, ⁴⁷ Ashdod, its dependencies and its villages; Gaza, its dependencies and its villages, all the way to the Wadi of Egypt and the coastline of the Great Sea.

⁴⁸ In the hill country: Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, ⁴⁹ Dannah, Kiriath-Sannah (that is, Debir), ⁵⁰ Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim, ⁵¹ Goshen, Holon, and Giloh—11 towns with their villages. ⁵² Arab, Rumah, Eshan, ⁵³ Janum, Beth-Tappuah, Apekah, ⁵⁴ Humtah, Kiriath-Arba (that is, Hebron), and Zior—9 towns with their villages. ⁵⁵ Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, ⁵⁶ Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, ⁵⁷ Kayin, Gibeah, and Timnah—10 towns with their villages; ⁵⁸ Halhul, Beth-Zur, Gedor, ⁵⁹ Maarath, Beth-Anoth, and Eltekon—6 towns with their villages.

⁶⁰ Kiriath-Baal (that is, Kiriath-Jearim) and Rabbah—2 towns with their villages.

⁶¹ In the wilderness: Beth-Arabah, Middin, Secacah, ⁶² Nibshan, the City of Salt, and En-Gedi—6 towns with their villages.

⁶³ As for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not drive them out. So the Jebusites continue to live among the children of Judah in Jerusalem to this day.

Inheritance of Ephraim

16 The allotment for the children of Joseph went from the Jordan at Jericho to the waters of Jericho on the east to the wilderness, going up from Jericho through the hill country to Beth-El. ² From Beth-El it went out to Luz, then continued to the border of the Archites at Ataroth. ³ Then it went down westward to the territory of the Japhletites, to the territory of Lower Beth-Horon, on to Gezer, and ended at the sea. ⁴ So the children of Joseph, Manasseh, and Ephraim, received their portion.

⁵ Now the territory of the children of Ephraim according to their clans was as follows: the border of their inheritance eastward was Atroth-Addar, up to Upper Beth-Horon. ⁶ Then the border went out westward at Michmethath on the north, then the border turned eastward to Taanath-Shiloh, and passed by it to the east of Janoah.⁷ Then it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah, then reached Jericho and came out at the Jordan.⁸ From Tappuah the border went along westward to the Wadi Kanah and ended at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according to their clans,⁹ together with the towns which were set apart for the children of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all these towns with their villages.

¹⁰ But they did not drive out the Canaanites that were living in Gezer, so the Canaanites continued to live in the midst of Ephraim to this day, and became forced laborers.

Inheritance of Manasseh

17 Now this was the allotment for the tribe of Manasseh, the firstborn of Joseph. To Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, since he was a man of war, he got Gilead and Bashan.² So for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their clans—for the sons of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hopher, and Shemida—these were the male children of Manasseh son of Joseph according to their clans.³ But Zelophehad, son of Hopher, son of Gilead, son of Machir, son of Manasseh, had no sons but only daughters—these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.⁴ So they appeared before Eleazar the kohen, before Joshua son of Nun, and before the leaders saying: “ADONAI commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our kinsmen.” Therefore according to the commandment of ADONAI he gave them a portion among their father’s kinsmen.⁵ Thus ten shares fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan that is beyond the Jordan,⁶ because the daughters of Manasseh received a portion among his sons. Meanwhile the land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the sons of Manasseh.

⁷ The border of Manasseh ran from Asher to Michmethath, which is facing Shechem. Then the border went along southward to the inhabitants of En-Tappuah.⁸ The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.⁹ Next the border went down to the Wadi Kanah, south of the wadi, by towns belonging to Ephraim among Manasseh’s towns. But the border of Manasseh was on the north side of the wadi, and ended at the sea.¹⁰ The south side belonged to Ephraim and the north side belonged to Manasseh, and the sea was its border. They reached to Asher on the north and to Issachar on the east.¹¹ Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh possessed Beth-Shean and its villages, Ibleam and its villages, the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, the inhabitants of En-Dor and its villages, the inhabitants of Taanach and its villages, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages—three regions.

¹² Yet the children of Manasseh could not take possession of these towns, because the Canaanites were resolved to live in that land.¹³ But when Bnei-Yisrael became stronger, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but did not utterly dispossess them.

¹⁴ Then the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua saying: “Why have you given us only one allotment and one portion for an inheritance? For we are a numerous people whom ADONAI has thus far blessed?”

¹⁵ So Joshua said to them, “If you have so many people, go you up to the forest and clear a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaim, since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you.”

¹⁷ But Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim, and to Manasseh saying: “You are a numerous people with great strength! You shouldn’t have just one allotment,¹⁸ because the hill country should be yours. Though it is a forest, you will clear it, and to its farthest borders it will be yours—for you will drive out the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and even though they are strong.”

Scouting the Land Further

18 Then the whole congregation of Bnei-Yisrael assembled at Shiloh and set up the Tent of Meeting there, after the land was now subdued before them.² Yet there remained among Bnei-Yisrael seven tribes that still had not received their portions.³ So Joshua said to Bnei-Yisrael, “How long will you be slack about going in to possess the land which ADONAI, the God of your fathers, has given you?⁴ Appoint for yourselves three men from each tribe, and I will send them, and they will arise and walk through the land, and describe it according to their inheritance, and then return to me.⁵ They are to divide it into seven portions: Judah will remain within its territory in the south, and the house of Joseph will remain within their territory in the north.⁶ After you have described the seven portions of land, bring the description here to me. Then I will cast lots for you here before ADONAI our God.⁷ But the Levites have no portion among you—for the priesthood of ADONAI is their inheritance. Also Gad, Reuben, and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan eastward, which Moses the servant of ADONAI gave them.”

⁸ So the men arose and went, and Joshua charged those who went to write a description of the land, saying: “Go and walk through the land and describe it, then return to me, and I will cast lots for you here before ADONAI in Shiloh.”⁹ So the men went, passing through the land, and described it in a scroll, town by town, in seven parts. Then they came to Joshua at the camp at Shiloh.¹⁰ Then Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before ADONAI, and there Joshua apportioned the land to Bnei-Yisrael according to their divisions.

Inheritance of Benjamin

¹¹ Now the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up, for their clans. The territory of their allotment lay between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph. ¹² Now their border on the north side was from the Jordan—the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up through the hill country westward, and it ended at the wilderness of Beth-Aven. ¹³ Then the border passed from there to Luz, to the side of Luz (that is, Beth-El) southward. Next the border went down to Atroth-Addar, near the mountain that lies to the south of Lower Beth-Horon.

¹⁴ On the west side, from the hill facing Beth-Horon southward, the border curved, turning about southward, and ended at Kiriath-Baal (that is, Kiriath-Jearim), a town of the children of Judah. This was the west side.

²¹ Now the towns of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their clans were Jericho, Beth-Hoglah, Emek-Keziz, ²² Beth-Arabah, Zemaraim, Beth-El, ²³ Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, ²⁴ Chephar-Ammonah, Ophni, and Geba—12 towns with their villages.

²⁵ Gibeon, Ramah, Beerot, ²⁶ Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, ²⁷ Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, ²⁸ Zela, Eleph, and Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriath—14 towns with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their clans.

Portions for Other Tribes

19 Then the second lot came out for Simeon, for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their clans. Now their portion was in the midst of the portion of the children of Judah. ² They had for their inheritance Beer-Sheba (or Sheba), Moladah, ³ Hazar-Shual, Balah, Ezem, ⁴ El-Tolad, Bethul, Hormah, ⁵ Zik-lag, Beth-Marcaboth, Hazar-Susah, ⁶ Beth-Lebaoth, and Sharuhem—13 towns with their villages; ⁷ also Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan—4 towns with their villages; ⁸ all the villages that were around these towns as far as Baalath-Beer, Ramah of the Negev. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their clans. ⁹ The inheritance of the children of Simeon was taken out of the allotment of the children of Judah, for the portion of the children of Judah was too much for them; so the children of Simeon had inheritance within Judah's inheritance.

¹⁰ Now the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their clans. The territory of their inheritance was as far as Sarid. ¹¹ Their border went up westward to Maralah, then reached Dabbesheth, and on to the wadi alongside Jokneam. ¹² It turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrise to the border of Chisloth-Tabor, then went on to Dobrath and up to Japhia. ¹³ From there it went east to Gath-Hepher, to Ethkazim, and went on to Rimmon, where it curved to Neah. ¹⁴ Then the border circled around on the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Iphtahel.

¹⁶ This is the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their clans, these towns with their villages.

¹⁷ The fourth lot came out for Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their clans. ¹⁸ Now their territory was to Jezreel, and included Chesulloth, Shunem, ¹⁹ Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, ²⁰ Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez, ²¹ Remeth, En-Gannim, En-Haddah, and Beth-pazzez. ²² The border extended to Tabor, Shahazim, and Beth-Shemesh, and ended at the Jordan—16 towns with their villages. ²³ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their clans, the towns with their villages.

³³ Their border went from Heleph and from Elon-Beza-Anannim, including Adami-Nekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum, and ended at the Jordan. ³⁴ Then the border turned westward to Aznoth-Tabor, and went on from there to Hukok. It touched Zebulun on the south, touched Asher on the west, and Judah at the Jordan toward the east. ³⁵ The fortified cities were Ziddim-Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, ³⁶ Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, ³⁷ Kedesh, Edrei, En-Hazor, ³⁸ Iron, Migdal-El, Horem, Beth-Anath, and Beth-Shemesh—19 towns with their villages. ³⁹ This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their clans, the towns with their villages.

⁴⁹ When they had finished allotting the land for inheritance by its borders, Bnei-Yisrael gave a portion to Joshua son of Nun in their midst. ⁵⁰ According to the command of ADONAI they gave him the city that he requested, Timnath-Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. So he built up the city and lived in it.

⁵¹ These are the portions which Eleazar the kohen and Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the ancestral houses of the tribes of Bnei-Yisrael distributed for inheritance by lot in Shiloh before ADONAI, at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. So they finished apportioning the land.

Six Cities of Refuge

20 Then ADONAI spoke to Joshua saying, ² "Speak to Bnei-Yisrael saying, 'Designate your cities of refuge, about which I spoke to you through Moses. ³ So the manslayer who kills any person by mistake and without premeditation may flee there. They will be your refuge from the avenger of blood. ⁴ When one flees to one of those cities, he must stand at the entrance of the gate of the city and state his case in the hearing of the elders of that city. Then they are to take him into their city and give him a place to live among them. ⁵ Now if the blood avenger pursues him, then they will not hand the manslayer over to him, since he killed his neighbor without premeditation and did not hate him beforehand. ⁶ So he will stay in that city until he can stand trial before the congregation, or until the death of the kohen gadol in those days. Then the manslayer may return to his own city and to his own house, to the city from which he had fled.'"

⁷ So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath-Arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah. ⁸ Across the Jordan east of Jericho, they designated Bezer in the wilderness on the tableland from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh. ⁹ These were the appointed cities for all Bnei-Yisrael and for the outsider who is dwelling among them, so that whoever kills any person unintentionally might flee there and not die by the hand of the blood avenger, before standing trial before the congregation.

Towns for the Levites

21 Then the heads of ancestral houses of the Levites approached Eleazar the kohen and Joshua son of Nun and the heads of ancestral houses of the tribes of Bnei-Yisrael, ² and they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan saying: " ADONAI commanded through Moses to give us towns to live in, with their pastures for our cattle." ³ So Bnei-Yisrael gave to the Levites from their inheritance, according to the command of ADONAI, these towns and their pastures: ⁴ the lot came out for the clan of the Kohathites. The children of Aaron the kohen, who were of the Levites, received 13 towns by lot from the tribe of Judah, the tribe of Simeon, and the tribe of Benjamin. ⁵ The rest of the children of Kohath received 10 towns by lot from the clans of the tribe of Ephraim, the tribe of Dan, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. ⁶ The children of Gershon received 13 towns by lot from the clans of the tribe of Issachar, the tribe of Asher, the tribe of Naphtali, and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan. ⁷ The children of Merari according to their clans received 12 towns from the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad, and the tribe of Zebulun.

⁸ So Bnei-Yisrael gave by lot to the Levites these towns with their pastures, as ADONAI had commanded through Moses. ⁹ They gave from the tribe of the children of Judah and from the tribe of the children of Simeon these towns which are here mentioned by name. ¹⁰ They were for the children of Aaron, of the clans of the Kohathites, of the children of Levi, for theirs was the first lot. ¹¹ So they gave them Kiriath-Arba, Arba was the father of Anak (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah, with its surrounding pastures. ¹² But the fields of the city and its villages they had already given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his possession. ¹³ But to the children of Aaron the kohen they assigned Hebron (the city of refuge for the manslayer) with its pastures, Libnah with its pastures, ¹⁴ Jattir with its pastures, Eshtemoa with its pastures, ¹⁵ Holon with its pastures, Debir with its pastures, ¹⁶ Ain with its pastures, Juttah with its pastures, and Beth-Shemesh with its pastures—9 towns from these two tribes.

²³ From the tribe of Dan: Elteke with its pastures, Gibbethon with its pastures, ²⁴ Aijalon with its pastures, and Gath-Rimmon with its pastures—4 towns. ²⁵ From the half-tribe of Manasseh: Taanach with its pastures and Gath-Rimmon with its pastures— 2 towns. ²⁶ All the towns of the clans of the rest of the children of Kohath were 10 with their pastures.

²⁷ Now to the children of Gershon of the clans of the Levites: from the half-tribe of Manasseh they gave Golan (the city of refuge for the manslayer) in Bashan with its pastures and Beeshterah with its pastures—2 towns. ²⁸ From the tribe of Issachar: Kishion with its pastures, Dobrath with its pastures, ²⁹ Jarmuth with its pastures, and En-Gannim with its pastures—4 towns. ³⁰ From the tribe of Asher: Mishal with its pastures, Abdon with its pastures, ³¹ Helkath with its pastures, and Rehob with its pastures—4 towns. ³² From the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh (the city of refuge for the manslayer) in Galilee with its pastures, Hammoth-Dor with its pastures, Kartan with its pastures—3 towns. ³³ All the towns of the Gershonites according to their clans were 13 towns with their pastures.

⁴¹ The total of the towns of the Levites within the holdings of Bnei-Yisrael was 48 towns with their pastures. ⁴² Each of these towns had its own pastures; so it was for all these towns.

ADONAI Keeps All His Promises

⁴³ So ADONAI gave to Israel the entire land that He had sworn to give to their fathers. They took possession and settled in it. ⁴⁴ Then ADONAI gave them rest on all sides, just as He had sworn to their fathers. Not one man of all their enemies withstood them, for ADONAI gave all their enemies into their hand. ⁴⁵ Not one good thing that ADONAI had promised to the house of Israel failed. All came to pass.

Altar of Witness

22 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, Gadites, and half-tribe of Manasseh, ² and said to them: “You have kept all that Moses the servant of ADONAI commanded you, and have listened to my voice in all that I commanded you. ³ You have not abandoned your kinsmen these many days to this day, but have kept the charge of the commandment of ADONAI your God. ⁴ So now ADONAI your God has given rest to your kinsmen, as He said to them. So now, turn and go to your tents, to the land that is your possession, which Moses the servant of ADONAI gave you beyond the Jordan. ⁵ Only be very careful to observe the mitzvah and the Torah which Moses the servant of ADONAI commanded you, to love ADONAI your God and walk in all His ways, and to keep His mitzvot, cling to Him and worship Him with all your heart and with all your soul.”

God of Israel, by turning away from following ADONAI, building yourselves an altar, rebelling this day against ADONAI? ¹⁷ Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves to this day, although a plague came on the congregation of ADONAI, ¹⁸ that you would turn away this day from following ADONAI? Now you rebel against ADONAI today, tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel! ¹⁹ If, however, the land of your possession is unclean, then cross over to the land of the possession of ADONAI, where ADONAI's Tabernacle stands. Acquire holdings among us, but do not rebel against ADONAI or against us by building an altar for yourselves other than the altar of ADONAI our God. ²⁰ Did not Achan son of Zerah act unfaithfully concerning the things under the ban, and so wrath fell on the entire community of Israel? Nor did that man perish alone in his iniquity!"

²¹ Then the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered, and spoke to the heads of the thousands of Israel: ²² "God of gods is ADONAI! God of gods is ADONAI! He knows, and may Israel itself know! If we acted in rebellion or in treachery against ADONAI, don't spare us this day! ²³ If we have built an altar to turn away from following ADONAI, or if it was to offer burnt offering or grain offering on it, or to offer sacrifices of fellowship offerings on it, let ADONAI Himself require it. ²⁴ But we have done this rather out of anxious concern, for a reason, saying: 'In the future, your children might say to our children: "What have you to do with ADONAI, God of Israel? ²⁵ For ADONAI has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you children of Reuben and children of Gad—you have no share in ADONAI!' So your children may make our children stop fearing ADONAI.'

²⁸ Therefore we said: 'If they say such to us or to our future generations, then we will say, "See the replica of the altar of ADONAI which our fathers made—not for burnt offering, or for sacrifice, but as a witness between us and you.'" ²⁹ Far be it from us that we should rebel against ADONAI and turn away this day from following ADONAI, by building an altar for burnt offering, for grain offering, or for sacrifice, besides the altar of ADONAI our God that stands before His Tabernacle."

³⁰ So when Phinehas the kohen and the leaders of the congregation—the heads of the thousands of Israel who were with him—heard the words that the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of Manasseh spoke, it pleased them well. ³¹ So Phinehas son of Eleazar the kohen said to the children of Reuben, the children of Gad, and the children of

Manasseh, "Today we know that ADONAI is in the midst of us, because you have not committed this treachery against ADONAI. Now you have delivered Bnei-Yisrael from the hand of ADONAI."

³² Then Phinehas son of Eleazar the kohen and the leaders returned from the children of Reuben and from the children of Gad, from the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to Bnei-Yisrael, and brought back a report to them. ³³ The report pleased Bnei-Yisrael, and Bnei-Yisrael blessed God, and they did not speak of going up against them in war, to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and the children of Gad were living. ³⁴ So the children of Reuben and the children of Gad named the altar, "for it is a witness between us that ADONAI is God."

Keep and Do Torah

23 Now it came about after many days, when ADONAI had given rest to Israel from all their enemies around them, and Joshua was old and advanced in years, ² that Joshua summoned all Israel, their elders, their heads, their judges, and their officials, and said to them: "I have grown old and am advanced in years. ³ Now you have seen all that ADONAI your God has done to all these nations because of you, for it was ADONAI your God who was fighting for you. ⁴ Behold, I have allotted to you as an inheritance, according to your tribes, these nations that remain, along with all the nations that I have cut off, from the Jordan to the Great Sea toward the setting of the sun. ⁵ So ADONAI your God, He Himself will thrust them out from before you, and drive them from before you, so you will possess their land, just as ADONAI your God spoke to you.

¹⁰ One of you can put a thousand to flight, for ADONAI your God, He Himself is fighting for you, just as He said to you. ¹¹ For your own sake, therefore, be most mindful to love ADONAI your God. ¹² For if you ever go back and cling to the remnant of these nations that are still remaining among you, and intermarry with them, and you associate with them and they with you, ¹³ know for certain that ADONAI your God will no longer drive these nations out from before you. Instead they will become a snare and a trap for you, a scourge in your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which ADONAI your God has given you.

¹⁴ "Now today I am about to go the way of all the earth. You will know with all your heart and with all your soul that not one word of the good things which ADONAI your God spoke concerning you has failed to happen. All of them have come to pass for you; not one word has failed. ¹⁵ Now it will be that just as all the good things which ADONAI your God has spoken to you have come upon you, so all the evil things will ADONAI bring upon you, until He has wiped you off this good land which ADONAI your God has given you. ¹⁶ When you transgress the covenant of ADONAI your God, which He commanded you, and go and worship other gods and bow down to them, then will the anger of ADONAI burn against you, and you will perish quickly off this good land which He has given you."

Whom Will You Worship?

24 Then Joshua assembled all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and summoned Israel's elders, heads, judges, and officials. So they presented themselves before God. ² Then Joshua said to all the people: "Thus says ADONAI, God of Israel: 'From ancient times your fathers—Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor—lived beyond the River and worshiped other gods. ³ Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River and led him through the entire land of Canaan and multiplied his offspring. I gave him Isaac, ⁴ then to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. To Esau I gave Mount Seir to possess it as his own, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt.

⁵ "So I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt with what I did in its midst, and afterward I brought you out. ⁶ I brought your fathers out of Egypt. When you came to the sea, the Egyptians pursued your fathers to the Sea of Reeds with chariots and horsemen. ⁷ But when they cried out to ADONAI, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, then He brought the sea upon them, and it covered them; and your eyes saw what I did to the Egyptians. Then you stayed in the wilderness for a long time.

⁸ "Then I brought you to the land of the Amorites who were living beyond the Jordan. Though they fought against you, I gave them into your hand, and you possessed their land when I destroyed them from before you. ⁹ Then Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, rose and fought against Israel. He even sent and called for Balaam son of Beor to curse you. ¹⁰ But I refused to listen to Balaam; instead, he had to keep blessing you. Thus I delivered you from his hand.

¹¹ "Then you crossed over the Jordan and came to Jericho, but the men of Jericho fought against you—the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites—but I delivered them into your hand. ¹² Then I sent the hornet before you and it drove them out from before you—the two kings of the Amorites—not by your sword or your bow. ¹³ I gave you a land on which you had not labored, and cities that you had not built and you have settled in them, vineyards and olive groves that you had not planted, that you are eating.'

¹⁴ "Now therefore, fear ADONAI and worship Him in sincerity and in truth. Get rid of the gods that your fathers had worshiped beyond the River and in Egypt, and worship ADONAI. ¹⁵ If it seems bad to you to worship ADONAI, then choose for yourselves today whom you will serve—whether the gods that your fathers worshiped that were beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will worship ADONAI!"

¹⁶ Then the people answered and said: "Far be it from us that we should forsake ADONAI to worship other gods! ¹⁷ For it was ADONAI our God who brought us and our fathers up from the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight and preserved us all along the way that we traveled and among all the peoples through whose midst we passed. ¹⁸ It was ADONAI who drove out from before us all the peoples, the Amorites that lived in the land. Therefore we also will worship ADONAI, for He is our God."

¹⁹ But Joshua said to the people, "You will not be able to worship ADONAI, for He is a holy God. He is a jealous God. He will not pardon your transgression and your sins. ²⁰ If you forsake ADONAI and worship foreign gods, then He will turn and do you harm and consume you, after He has done good to you."

²¹ But the people said to Joshua, "No! For we will worship ADONAI."

²² So Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses to yourselves that you have chosen for yourselves ADONAI, to worship Him."

"We are witnesses," they responded.

²³ "Now therefore, get rid of the foreign gods that are in your midst, and incline your hearts to ADONAI, God of Israel." ²⁴ And the people said to Joshua, "We will worship none but ADONAI our God, and we will obey none but His voice."

²⁵ So Joshua cut a covenant with the people that day, and set for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. ²⁶ Then Joshua wrote these words in the scroll of the Torah of God. Also he took a great stone and set it up there under the oak that was by the Sanctuary of ADONAI. ²⁷ Joshua said to all the people, "Behold, this stone will be a witness to us. For it has heard all the words of ADONAI which He has spoken to us. So it will be a witness to you, lest you deny your God."

²⁸ Joshua then dismissed the people, each to his own inheritance.

²⁹ Now it came to pass after these things that Joshua son of Nun, the servant of ADONAI, died at the age of 110 years. ³⁰ So they buried him in the territory of his own portion in Timnath-Serah, which is in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash. ³¹ Israel worshiped ADONAI all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua and had known all the work of ADONAI that He had done for Israel.

³² Joseph's bones, which Bnei-Yisrael had brought up from Egypt, they buried in Shechem, in the parcel of ground that Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shechem for 100 pieces of silver. † It became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

† cf. John 4:5.

³³ Then Eleazar son of Aaron died, and they buried him in Gibeah, which had been given to Phinehas his son, in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

Judges Introduction

The Hebrew word is a plural word that means “judges.” comes from the root-verb shapat, which means “govern” or “rule.” The book of Judges derives its name from the judges that led the people of Israel before they had a king. The text of Scriptures does not indicate who authored the book of Judges; however, the Talmud ascribes its authorship to the prophet Samuel. The book covers the time in Israel’s history from Joshua’s death to the rise of the monarchy, a period of 325 years from approximately 1380 to 1050 BCE. Although the children of Israel had conquered and occupied most of the land of Canaan, the individual tribes had not taken full possession of their allotted territories, which allowed heathen nations to remain in the land. These nations eventually became a snare to the children of Israel, who conceded to following their pagan ways. As a result, the Hebrews were punished for their idolatry.

A pattern of apostasy, oppression by the heathens, repentance, and deliverance by God—through raising up a judge to deliver the people—is a reoccurring one in the book of Judges. Covenant is another important theme in the book. God’s desire for Israel is that they would walk in a loving relationship with Him—and Him alone. In Judges 2, God reminds the people of Israel that He will not break His covenant with them, and that He had asked them not to make a covenant with any of the surrounding nations. Israel, however, disobeyed His command. Whenever the children of Israel forsook their covenant relationship with God, He turned them over to their enemies so that they may repent and turn back to Him. Every time Israel cried out and repented, God raised up a judge to deliver them from their enemies because of His covenant relationship with this nation. An appropriate summary for the book of Judges is found in chapter 17 and repeated in chapter 21: “In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes” (17:6). The children of Israel did not go astray because they did not have an earthly king; they went astray because they rejected their heavenly King. In Leviticus 26, God tells the people of Israel that if they walk in His statutes and keep His mitzvot (commandments), He would walk among them and be their God, and they would be His people. God’s desire has always been for intimacy with His people. In order to deliver them from their enemies, God has raised up a just Judge, Messiah. According to Psalms 2, all those who accept His rule will be delivered, but the nations that reject His rule will suffer the negative consequences.

Tribes Possess the Land

¹ Now it came to pass after the death of Joshua that Bnei-Yisrael inquired of ADONAI saying, "Who will be the first to go up for us against the Canaanites to attack them?" ² ADONAI said, "Judah will go up. Behold, I have given the land into his hand."

³ Judah then said to his brother Simeon, "Come up with me to my allotted territory, so that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I also will go with you into your allotted territory." So Simeon went with him.

⁶ Though Adoni-Bezek fled, they pursued him, caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his big toes.

⁷ So Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings, having their thumbs and big toes cut off, used to pick up scraps under my table. As I have done, so God has repaid me." They brought him to Jerusalem and he died there.

¹⁰ Judah then marched against the Canaanites who dwelt in Hebron (the former name of Hebron was Kiriath-Arba), and they defeated Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi. ¹¹ From there Judah marched against the inhabitants of Debir (the former name of Debir was Kiriath-Sepher). ¹² Caleb said, "Whoever attacks Kiriath-Sepher and captures it, to him will I give my daughter Achsah for a wife." ¹³ So Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger kinsman, captured it. So Caleb gave him his daughter Achsah as a wife. ¹⁴ Now it came about when she came to him, she had persuaded Othniel to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, "What do you need?"

¹⁵ "Give me a blessing," she said. "For you have given me land in the Negev; you should also give me springs of water." So Caleb gave her the Upper Springs and the Lower Springs.

¹⁷ Then Judah went with his brother Simeon, and they defeated the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath.

They utterly destroyed it, and thus the name of the city was called Hormah. ¹⁸ Also, Judah captured Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory and Ekron with its territory. ¹⁹ ADONAI was with Judah, and he possessed the hill country, but he could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley because they had iron chariots. ²⁰ Then they gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had promised, so he drove out from there the three sons of Anak.

²¹ But the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem, so the Jebusites continued to live with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

²² Also, the house of Joseph marched against Beth-El, and ADONAI was with them. ²³ The house of Joseph sent men to spy out Beth-El (the former name of the city was Luz). ²⁴ Now the scouts saw a man coming out from the city and they said to him, "Please show us the entrance into the city and we will deal kindly with you."

²⁵ So he showed them the entrance into the city, and they struck the city with the edge of the sword, but they let the man go free with all his family. ²⁶ So the man went into the land of the Hittites, built a city, and named it Luz, which is its name to this day.

²⁷ Manasseh, however, did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-Shean and its villages, or Taanach and its villages, or the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, or the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages, or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages. So the Canaanites resolved to dwell in that land. ²⁸ When Israel became strong, they put the Canaanites to forced labor, but they did not drive them out.

²⁹ Nor did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer, so the Canaanites settled in Gezer among them. ³⁰ Nor did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, or the inhabitants of Nahalol, so the Canaanites settled among them, but became subject to forced labor.

³¹ Nor did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Acco or the inhabitants of Zidon, Achlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik, or Rehob; ³² so the Asherites lived among the Canaanites who were dwelling in the land, because they did not drive them out.

³⁴ But the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the hill country, for they would not let them come down to the valley. ³⁵ Also the Amorites persisted in dwelling in Mount Heres, in Aijalon and in Shaalbim, but when the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, they became forced labor for them.³⁶ So the territory of the Amorites ran from the Ascent of Akrabbim † from the Rock and upward.

After Joshua, Israel Abandons ADONAI

2 Now the angel of ADONAI came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and He said, "I brought you up out of Egypt and took you into the land which I swore to your fathers. I also said, 'I will never break My covenant with you.'² Now as for you, you must make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land. You must break down their altars.' But you have not listened to My voice. What is this you have done?"³ Therefore, I also said, 'I will not drive them out from before you, but they will be thorns in your sides, and their gods will be a snare to you.'"⁴ Now when the angel of ADONAI spoke these words to all Bnei-Yisrael, the people lifted up their voices and wept.⁵ So they called the name of that place Bochim, †† and they sacrificed there to ADONAI.

⁶ Now when Joshua had sent the people away, Bnei-Yisrael went every man to his inheritance to possess the land.⁷ Then the people worshiped ADONAI all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of ADONAI that He had done for Israel.⁸ Then Joshua son of Nun, the servant of ADONAI, died at the age of 110 years,⁹ and they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Timnath-Heres, in the hill country of Ephraim north of Mount Gaash.

¹⁰ But when all that generation were gathered to their fathers, there arose another generation after them that did not experience ADONAI or the work that He had done for Israel.¹¹ Then Bnei-Yisrael did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, and worshiped the Baalim.¹² They abandoned ADONAI, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods from among the gods of the peoples around them, and bowed down to them. So they provoked the anger of ADONAI.¹³ So they forsook ADONAI and worshiped Baal and the Ashtaroth.¹⁴ So the anger of ADONAI burned against Israel, and He gave them over to the hands of plunderers who plundered them, and He sold them over into the hand of their enemies around them, so that they could no longer stand up before their enemies.¹⁵ Whenever they went out, the hand of ADONAI was against them for evil, as ADONAI had spoken and as ADONAI had sworn to them. So they were severely distressed.

Rise of Judges

¹⁶ Then ADONAI raised up judges who delivered them from the hand of those who plundered them.¹⁷ Yet they listened not to their judges, for they prostituted themselves after other gods and bowed down to them. They quickly turned aside from the way in which their fathers walked in obeying the commandments of ADONAI; they did not do so.¹⁸ Whenever ADONAI raised judges up for them, ADONAI was with the judge and delivered them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge. For ADONAI was moved to pity by their groaning because of those who oppressed and crushed them.¹⁹ But when the judge died, they would keep turning back and acted more corruptly than their fathers, in following other gods, worshiping them, and bowing down to them. They abandoned none of their practices and stubborn ways.

²⁰ So the anger of ADONAI burned against Israel, and He declared, "Since this nation has transgressed My covenant that I commanded their fathers and has not listened to My voice,²¹ I also will no longer drive out before them any of the nations that Joshua left when he died,²² in order to test Israel by them, whether or not they will keep the way of ADONAI to walk in it as their fathers did."²³ So ADONAI left those nations, without driving them out quickly. Thus so He had not given them into the hand of Joshua.

3 Now these are the nations that ADONAI left, to test all Israel who had not experienced any of the wars of Canaan.² It was only in order that the generations of Bnei-Yisrael might learn from war, which they had not experienced before.³ These nations included the five Philistine lords, and all the Canaanites, Zidonians and the Hivites living in the hill country of Lebanon from Mount Baal-hermon to the entrance of Hamath.⁴ They were for testing Israel, to know whether they would obey the mitzvot of ADONAI, which He had commanded their fathers by Moses' hand.

⁵ But Bnei-Yisrael settled among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites,⁶ and took their daughters for themselves as wives, gave their own daughters to their sons, and worshiped their gods.⁷ Bnei-Yisrael did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, forgot ADONAI their God and worshiped the Baalim and the Asherahs.⁸ So ADONAI's anger burned against Israel, and He sold them over into the hand of King Cushan-Rishathaim of Aram-Naharaim, and Bnei-Yisrael served Cushan-Rishathaim for eight years.

Othniel, Ehud, and Shamgar

⁹ When Bnei-Yisrael cried out to ADONAI, ADONAI raised up a deliverer for Bnei-Yisrael to deliver them—Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger kinsman.¹⁰ The Spirit of ADONAI came upon him as he judged Israel. When he went out to war, ADONAI gave King Cushan-Rishathaim of Aram into his hand so that he had the upper hand over Cushan-Rishathaim.

¹¹ Then the land had peace 40 years.

When Othniel son of Kenaz died,¹² Bnei-Yisrael again did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes. So ADONAI strengthened King Eglon of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in ADONAI's eyes. ¹³ So he gathered to himself the people of Ammon and Amalek, then went and defeated Israel and took possession of the City of Palms. ¹⁴ Bnei-Yisrael became subject to King Eglon of Moab for 18 years.

† Or Scorpion Ascent †† Means weepers

¹⁵ But when Bnei-Yisrael cried out to ADONAI, ADONAI raised up a deliverer for them, Ehud son of Gera the Benjamite—a left-handed man. Now Bnei-Yisrael sent tribute with him to King Eglon of Moab. ¹⁶ Ehud made himself a double-edged sword, a cubit in length, which he girded on his right thigh under his cloak. ¹⁷ Then he presented the tribute to King Eglon of Moab. Eglon was a very fat man. ¹⁸ Now when Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he dismissed the people who had carried the tribute, ¹⁹ but he himself turned back, at the idols that were near Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king."

"Keep silence!" he replied, so all his attendants left him.

²⁴ After he had gone out, his courtiers came and looked, but behold, the doors of the roof chamber were locked. So they said, "He is only relieving himself in the cool chamber." ²⁵ So they waited till they were embarrassed, but behold, he still did not open the doors of the roof chamber. So they took the key and opened them—and behold, their master was lying dead on the floor.

²⁶ But Ehud escaped while they were lingering, passed beyond the idols and escaped to Seirah. ²⁷ When he arrived, he blew the shofar in the hill country of Ephraim, so Bnei-Yisrael went down with him from the hill country, and he was in front of them. ²⁸ He said to them, "Follow me, for ADONAI has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand." So they went down after him and seized the fords of the Jordan opposite Moab, and allowed no one to cross over. ²⁹ Then they struck down at that time about 10,000 men of Moab—all stout men of valor—not a man escaped.

³⁰ So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. Then the land had peace for 80 years.

³¹ After him came Shamgar son of Anath, who struck down 600 Philistine men with an ox-goad. So he also delivered Israel.

Deborah, Barak, and Yael

⁴ But Bnei-Yisrael again did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes after Ehud had died. ² So ADONAI sold them over into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. His army commander was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-Ha-Goyim. ³ So Bnei-Yisrael cried out to ADONAI, for he had 900 iron chariots, and had harshly oppressed Bnei-Yisrael for 20 years.

⁸ But Barak said to her, "If you are going with me, then I will go. But if you aren't going with me, I won't go."

⁹ "Surely I will go with you," she said. "However, no honor will be yours on the way that you are about to go—for ADONAI will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." So Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh. ¹⁰ Then Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh, and 10,000 men marched up after him, and Deborah went up with him.

¹² They told Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor. ¹³ So Sisera ordered all his chariots—900 iron chariots—and all the troops that were with him, from Harosheth-Ha-Goyim to the Kishon.

¹⁴ Then Deborah said to Barak, "Arise! For this is the day in which ADONAI will deliver Sisera into your hand. Has ADONAI not gone out before you?" So Barak came down from Mount Tabor with 10,000 men following him. ¹⁵ ADONAI threw Sisera and all his chariots and all his army into confusion before Barak with the edge of the sword. Then Sisera got down from his chariot and fled away on foot. ¹⁶ But Barak pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth-Ha-Goyim. The whole army of Sisera fell by the sword; not one was left.

¹⁷ Meanwhile, Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Yael the wife of Heber the Kenite, for there was peace between King Jabin of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. ¹⁸ So Yael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, "Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me! Don't be afraid!" So he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with a blanket.

¹⁹ He said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened a skin of milk and made him drink some, and covered him. ²⁰ Then he said to her, "Stand at the entrance of the tent, and if anyone comes and asks you saying, 'Is there a man here?' then you will say, 'There's no one.'"

²¹ Then Yael, Heber's wife, took a tent pin and got a hammer in her hand, approached him stealthily and drove the pin into his temple until it pierced through into the ground—for he was exhausted and in a deep sleep. So he died. ²² Now behold, as Barak was pursuing Sisera, Yael came out to meet him and said to him, "Come, I will show you the man whom you are seeking." So he entered with her, and behold, Sisera was lying dead, with a tent-pin in his temple!

²³ So on that day God subdued King Jabin of Canaan before Bnei-Yisrael. ²⁴ The hand of Bnei-Yisrael pressed hard on King Jabin of Canaan until they had cut off King Jabin of Canaan.

Deborah's Song

5 Then Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang on that day saying:

² "When leaders take the lead in Israel, when people freely offer themselves, bless ADONAI!

³ Listen, O kings! Give ear, O rulers! I, to ADONAI I will sing, I will sing praise to ADONAI, the God of Israel.

⁴ ADONAI, when You came out from Seir, when You marched from Edom's field, the earth trembled, the heavens also dropped, yes, the clouds dropped water.

⁵ The mountains quaked before ADONAI, this Sinai at the presence of ADONAI, the God of Israel!

⁶ In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Yael, the highways were deserted, travelers walked by crooked paths.

⁷ Villages were deserted in Israel, deserted, until I, Deborah, arose, a mother in Israel arose.

⁸ They chose new gods—then war was in the gates. No shield or spear was seen among 40,000 in Israel!

⁹ My heart is with Israel's rulers, who offer themselves freely among the people. Bless ADONAI!

¹⁰ Riders on white donkeys, sitting on saddle blankets, traveling on the road, sing!

¹¹ Louder than the sound of archers, at the watering places! There let them rehearse the righteous acts of ADONAI, the righteous deeds for His villages in Israel.

Then the people of ADONAI went down to the gates.

¹² Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, utter a song!

Arise, Barak, lead away your captives, O son of Abinoam!

¹³ Then a remnant of nobles came down. ADONAI's people came down to me with the mighty ones.

¹⁴ Those with root in Amalek are from Ephraim, following you, Benjamin, with your peoples.

From Machir came down rulers, and from Zebulun wielding the marshal's staff.

¹⁵ Issachar's chiefs were with Deborah. Issachar was with Barak.

Into the valley they rushed at his heels. Among the divisions of Reuben there were great resolves of heart.

¹⁶ Why did you stay in the sheepfolds—to hear the piping for the flocks?

Among the clans of Reuben there was much searching of heart.

¹⁷ Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan, and Dan, why did he stay by the ships?

Asher sat at the seacoast, dwelling by its docks.

¹⁸ Zebulun is a people who jeopardized their lives to death, and Naphtali also, on the heights of the battlefield.

¹⁹ The kings came, they fought, then the kings of Canaan fought, at Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo, but they took no spoil of silver.

²⁰ From heaven, the stars fought, in their courses they fought Sisera.

²¹ The Kishon torrent swept them away—that ancient torrent, the torrent Kishon! O my soul, march on with strength!

²² Then the horses' hooves beat from the dashing, the dashing of his mighty steeds.

²³ 'Curse Meroz!' said the angel of ADONAI, 'Utterly curse its inhabitants, for they came not to the aid of ADONAI, to the aid of ADONAI among the mighty.'

²⁵ Water he asked, milk she gave him. In a lordly bowl she brought him butter.

²⁶ Her hand reached for the tent pin, her right hand to the workmen's hammer, and with the hammer she struck Sisera, she smashed his head—

 yes, she crushed and pierced his temple.
²⁷ At her feet he collapsed, he fell, he lay.
 Between her feet he bowed, he fell.
 Where he bowed, there he fell dead.
²⁸ Through the window, Sisera's mother looked out, through the lattice.
 and lamented shrilly:
 'Why does his chariot delay in coming?
 Why do the wheels of his chariots tarry?'
²⁹ The wisest of her princesses answer her,
 yes, she repeats the words to herself:
³⁰ 'Are they not finding, dividing the spoil?
 A maiden, maidens for every warrior!
 To Sisera a spoil of dyed garments—a spoil of dyed garments of embroidery, double-dyed garments of embroidery for the necks of every spoiler!'
³¹ So let all Your enemies perish, ADONAI!
 But may those who love Him be like the rising of the sun in its might."
 Then the land had peace for 40 years.

Midianite Oppression

6 Then Bnei-Yisrael did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, so ADONAI gave them into the hand of Midian for seven years. ² Midian maintained an upper hand over Israel, and because of Midian Bnei-Yisrael made themselves hideouts in the mountains—caves and strongholds. ³ Whenever Israel had done their sowing, the Midianites, Amalekites and people from the east would come up and raid them. ⁴ They would set up camp by them, destroy the produce of the land as far as Gaza, and leave nothing in Israel to live on—not a sheep, ox, or donkey. ⁵ For they would come up with their cattle and their tents, and invade like a multitude of locusts. Both they and their camels were innumerable, and they would come to the land to ruin it. ⁶ So Israel was brought very low because of Midian, and Bnei-Yisrael cried out to ADONAI.

⁷ Now it came about when Bnei-Yisrael cried out to ADONAI because of Midian, ⁸ that ADONAI sent a prophet to Bnei-Yisrael, and he said to them, "Thus says ADONAI, God of Israel, 'It was I who brought you up from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of bondage. ⁹ Then I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all your oppressors, and drove them out from before you and gave you their land. ¹⁰ Then I said to you, "I am ADONAI your God. You are not to fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are dwelling. But you have not obeyed My voice.'"

Calling of Gideon

¹¹ Then the angel of ADONAI came and sat under the terebinth that was at Ophrah, that belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, while his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress—in order to hide it from the Midianites. ¹² Then the angel of ADONAI appeared to him and said to him, " ADONAI is with you, O mighty man of valor."

¹³ But Gideon said to him, "O my lord, if ADONAI is with us, then why has all this befallen us? So where are all His wonders that our fathers told us about saying 'Didn't ADONAI bring us up from Egypt?' But now ADONAI has abandoned us and given us into the hand of Midian."

¹⁴ Then ADONAI turned toward him and said, "Go in this might of yours and deliver Israel from the hand of Midian. Have not I sent you?" †

¹⁵ Then he said to him, "Me, my Lord? With what would I deliver Israel? Look, my family is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house."

¹⁶ But ADONAI said to him, "Surely I will be with you, and you will strike down Midian as if it were one man."

¹⁷ Then he said to Him, "If now I have found favor in Your eyes, then please, show me a sign that it is really You talking with me. ¹⁸ Please, don't leave from here, until I come to You and bring out my offering and lay it before You."

So He said, "I will stay until you come back."

¹⁹ Then Gideon went in and prepared a kid and matzot from an ephah of flour. He put the meat in a basket and the broth in a pot, and brought them out to Him under the terebinth and presented them. ²⁰ Then the angel of God said to him, "Take the meat and the matzah and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth." So he did so. ²¹ Then the angel of ADONAI put out the end of the staff that was in His hand and touched the meat and the matzah. Fire sprang up from the rock and consumed the meat and the matzah. Then the angel of ADONAI vanished from his sight.

²² When Gideon realized that He was the angel of ADONAI, Gideon said, "Alas, my Lord ADONAI! For I have seen the angel of ADONAI face to face!"

²³ But ADONAI said to him, " Shalom to you. Fear not, you will not die." ²⁴ So Gideon built an altar there to ADONAI and called it ADONAI - shalom. To this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

²⁵ Now it came to pass the same night that ADONAI said to him, "Take the young bull that belongs to your father and a second bull of seven years old, pull down the altar of Baal that belongs to your father, cut down the Asherah that is beside it, ²⁶ build an altar to ADONAI your God on the top of this stronghold in an orderly manner, and take the second bull and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah pole that you will cut down." ²⁷ So Gideon took ten of his male servants and did as ADONAI had spoken to him. But since he was too afraid of his father's household and the townspeople to do it by day, he did it at night.

²⁸ Now when the townspeople arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, the Asherah pole that was beside it was cut down, and the second bull was offered up on the altar that was built. ²⁹ So they said one to another, "Who did this thing?" And when they inquired and asked around, they said: "Gideon son of Joash did this thing." ³⁰ Then the townspeople said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has broken down the altar of Baal, and even cut down the Asherah pole that was beside it."

³¹ But Joash said to all who stood against him, "So you're going to defend Baal? You're going to rescue him? Whoever defends him will be put to death in the morning! If he is a god, let him defend himself—since someone has broken down his altar." ³² So on that day he was called Jerubbaal saying, "Let Baal contend with him, since he broke down his altar."

³³ Now all the Midianites, the Amalekites and the people of the east gathered together, crossed over and camped in the valley of Jezreel. ³⁴ But the Ruach ADONAI clothed Gideon, and he blew the shofar, and Abiezer rallied behind him. ³⁵ Then he sent messengers throughout Manasseh, and they also rallied behind him. Then he sent messengers to Asher, Zebulun, and Naphtali, and they came up to join them.

Signs of the Fleece

³⁶ Then Gideon said to God, "If You are going to deliver Israel by my hand, as You have spoken, ³⁷ see, I am putting a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew only on the fleece, and all the ground is dry, then I will know that You will deliver Israel by my hand, as You have spoken." ³⁸ And it was so. When he rose up early the next day, he squeezed the fleece and wrung dew out of the fleece, a bowlful of water.

³⁹ Then Gideon said to God, "Let not Your anger burn against me if I speak once more. Let me please test once more with the fleece—let it now be dry only on the fleece, but let there be dew over all the ground." ⁴⁰ God did so that night, since it was dry only on the fleece, and there was dew over all the ground.

7 Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him, rose up early and camped beside En-Harod, while the camp of Midian was north of them, by Gibeath-Moreh, in the valley.

² But ADONAI said to Gideon, "Too many are the people who are with you, for Me to give the Midianites into their hand. Otherwise Israel would glorify itself against Me saying, 'My own hand has delivered me.' ¹³ So now, make a proclamation in the ears of the people saying, 'Whoever is afraid or anxious may turn back and leave from Mount Gilead.'" So 22,000 people turned back, while 10,000 remained.

⁴ But ADONAI said to Gideon, "The people are still too many. Bring them down to the water and I will test them for you there. Now it will be that he of whom I say to you, 'This will go with you,' he will go with you, but anyone of whom I say to you, 'This one will not go with you,' he will not go." ⁵ So he brought the troops down to the water, and ADONAI said to Gideon, "You are to set apart everyone who laps the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, and everyone who bows down on his knees to drink." ⁶ Now the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was 300 men, but all the rest of the people bowed down on their knees to drink water. ⁷ Then ADONAI said to Gideon, "With the 300 men who lapped I will deliver you and give the Midianites into your hand. So let all the other people go, every man to his place." ⁸ So the 300 took provisions and their shofarot in their hands. He sent all the other men of Israel each to his tent, but he kept the 300 men.

Now the camp of Midian was below him in the valley. ⁹ It came to pass the same night that ADONAI said to him, "Arise, get down against the camp, for I have given it into your hand. ¹⁰ But if you are afraid to go down, first go down to the camp with your attendant Purah. ¹¹ Then you will hear what they are saying, and after that your hands will be strengthened to attack the camp." So he went down with his attendant Purah to an outpost of the army that was in camp.

¹² Now the Midianites, the Amalekites and all the people of the east were lying in the valley as numerous as locusts; and their camels were countless, as numerous as the sand on the seashore. ¹³ Yet when Gideon came, behold, there was a man relating a dream to his fellow, saying, "Listen, I just now had a dream: there was a loaf of barley bread that came tumbling into the camp of Midian, came up to a tent and struck it so it fell, and turned it upside down, so that the tent lay flat."

¹⁴ His companion answered and said, "This is nothing less than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, a man of Israel—God has delivered Midian and all the camp into his hand!"

¹⁵ Now when Gideon heard the account of the dream and its interpretation, he bowed in worship. Then he returned to the camp of Israel and said, "Arise! For ADONAI has given into your hand the camp of Midian."

¹⁶ Then he divided the 300 men into three columns, and he put into the hands of all of them shofarot and empty pitchers, with torches inside the pitchers.

¹⁷ Then he said to them, "Watch me and do likewise. So behold, when I come to the outskirts of the camp, do just as I do. ¹⁸ When I and all that are with me blow the shofar, then you also blow the shofarot all around the camp, and say, 'For ADONAI and for Gideon!'"

²⁰ When the three columns blew the shofarot and broke the pitchers, they held the torches in their left hands and the shofarot in their right hands to blow, and they shouted, "A sword for ADONAI and for † cf. 2 Cor. 4:7.

Gideon!" ²¹ Each one stood in his place around the camp, and then the entire army ran, shouting as they fled. ²² Now when they blew the 300 shofarot, ADONAI set every man's sword against his fellow throughout the entire army. So the army fled as far as Beth-Shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel-Meholah, by Tabbath.

²³ Then men of Israel were summoned from Naph-tali, Asher and all Manasseh, and they pursued Midian. ²⁴ Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim saying, "Come down against Midian and seize the waters down to Beth-Barah, all along the Jordan." So all the men of Ephraim were summoned and took control of the waterside as far as Beth-Barah by the Jordan. ²⁵ Then they captured the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; they slew Oreb at the Rock of Oreb and they slew Zeeb at the Wine-press of Zeeb. They kept pursuing Midian, and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon from across the Jordan.

Gideon's Victories, Ephod, and Death

8 Now the men of Ephraim said to him, "What is this thing you have done to us, not calling us when you went to fight against Midian?" So they criticized him sharply.

² But he said to them, "What have I now done compared to you? Is not the gleaning of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? ³ God has given into your hand the princes of Midian—Oreb and Zeeb—so what was I able to do compared to you?" Their anger with him subsided after he said this.

⁴ Then Gideon reached the Jordan and crossed over. He and the 300 men with him were exhausted, yet still pursuing. ⁵ He said to the men of Succoth, "Please, give loaves of bread to the people on foot with me, for they are exhausted, and I am chasing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."

⁶ But the officials of Succoth said, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand? So why should we give bread to your army?"

⁷ Gideon replied, "Therefore when ADONAI delivers Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will thresh your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and briers." ⁸ From there he went up to Penuel and spoke to them similarly, but the men of Penuel answered him just as the men of Succoth had answered. ⁹ So he spoke also to the men of Penuel saying, "When I come back safely, I will tear down this tower."

¹³ Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle by the Ascent of Heres. ¹⁴ He captured a boy from the people of Succoth and questioned him, so he wrote down for him the officials of Succoth and its elders—77 men. ¹⁵ When he came to the men of Succoth, he said, "Behold Zebah and Zalmunna—about whom you mocked me saying, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hand? Why should we give bread to your exhausted men?'" ¹⁶ Then he seized the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he punished the men of Succoth. ¹⁷ He also tore down the tower of Penuel and slew the men of the city.

¹⁸ Then he asked Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men did you kill at Tabor?"

"As you are, so they were," they answered. "Each one looked like the children of a king."

¹⁹ "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother," he said. "As ADONAI lives, if only you had let them live, I would not kill you." ²⁰ Then he said to Jeter his first-born, "Arise, kill them!" But the boy could not draw his sword, for he was afraid, since he was still a youth.

²¹ Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise up yourself and fall on us—for as the man is, so is his strength." So Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

²² Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us—you, your son, and your grandson as well. For you have delivered us from the hand of Midian."

²³ But Gideon replied to them, "I will not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you. ADONAI alone will rule over you." ²⁴ Yet Gideon said to them, "I would make a request of you, that you would give me every man an earring from his spoil." (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

²⁵ "We'll certainly give them!" they replied. So they spread out a robe, and each one of them threw an earring from his spoil. ²⁶ So the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was 1,700 shekels of gold—besides the crescent ornaments, the pendants and the purple robes that were on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were on their camels' necks. ²⁷ Gideon made it into an ephod, and put it in his town Ophrah. But all Israel prostituted themselves after it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his household.

²⁸ So Midian was subdued before Bnei-Yisrael, and they lifted up their heads no more. The land had tranquility for 40 years in the days of Gideon. ²⁹ Jerubbaal son of Joash went and lived in his own house. ³⁰ Now Gideon had 70 sons of his own issue, for he had many wives. ³¹ Also his concubine who was in Shechem also bore him a son—he called his name Abimelech.

³² Then Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. ³³ But it came to pass, as soon as Gideon was dead, that Bnei-Yisrael again prostituted themselves after the Baalim, and made Baal-berith their god. ³⁴ So Bnei-Yisrael did not remember ADONAI their God, who had delivered them from the hand of all their enemies on every side. ³⁵ Nor did they show kindness to the household of Jerubbaal, namely Gideon, in accord with all the goodness which he had done for Israel.

Bloodshed of Abimelech and Shechem

9 Now Abimelech son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem, to his mother's brothers, and spoke to them and the whole clan of his mother's father's household saying, ² "Speak now, in the ears of all the leaders of Shechem: Which is better for you, that 70 men—all the sons of Jerubbaal—rule over you, or that a single man rules over you? Remember also that I am your flesh and bone."

³ When his mother's brothers discussed all these words of his in the ears of all Shechem's leaders, their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother." ⁴ So they gave him 70 pieces of silver from the temple of Baal-berith †. Abimelech then hired idle and reckless fellows, who followed him. ⁵ Then he went to his father's house at Ophrah and slew his brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, 70 men, on top of one stone. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived, for he hid himself. ⁶ Then all the leaders of Shechem and all Beth-Millo assembled themselves together and went and made Abimelech king at the terebinth of the pillar that was in Shechem.

⁷ Now when they told Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, lifted up his voice, called out and said to them, "Listen to me, O lords of Shechem, that God may listen to you! ⁸ Once the trees set out to anoint a king over them. So they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us.' ⁹ But the olive tree said to them, 'Should I stop yielding my oil, that honors God and man, and go wave over the trees?' ¹⁰ Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'You come and reign over us.' ¹¹ But the fig tree said to them, 'Should I stop yielding my sweetness and my delicious fruit, and go wave over the trees?' ¹² So the trees said to the vine, 'You come and reign over us.' ¹³ But the vine said to them, 'Should I stop yielding my new wine, which cheers God and man, and go wave over the trees?' ¹⁴ Then all the trees said to the bramble, 'You come and reign over us.' ¹⁵ And the bramble said to the trees, 'If you truly are going to anoint me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shadow; but if not, let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon.'

¹⁶ "So now, if you have acted in truth and integrity by making Abimelech king, and if you have dealt kindly with Jerubbaal and his household, and have done for him as he deserved— ¹⁷ for my father fought for you, and risked his life and delivered you from the hand of Midian, ¹⁸ but you have risen up against my father's household today and have slain his sons—70 men on one stone—and have made Abimelech, son of his maidservant, king over the lords of Shechem just because he is your brother— ¹⁹ if you then have dealt in truth and integrity with Jerubbaal and with his household today, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you. ²⁰ But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech and devour the lords of Shechem and Beth-millo, and let fire come out from the lords of Shechem and from Beth-millo and devour Abimelech!"

²¹ Then Jotham ran away and fled, and went to Beer and remained there because of his brother Abimelech.

²² After Abimelech had ruled over Israel for three years, ²³ God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the lords of Shechem. So the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech— ²⁴ in order that the violence done to Jerubbaal's 70 sons might come due, so their blood might be laid on their brother Abimelech who slew them, and on the lords of Shechem who strengthened his hands to slay his brothers.

²⁵ So the lords of Shechem set up ambushers on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed anyone who passed by them along that road. So it was reported to Abimelech. ²⁶ Now Gaal son of Ebed had come with his relatives and moved to Shechem, and the lords of Shechem put their trust in him. ²⁷ When they went out into the field, they gathered grapes of their vineyards, trod them and had a party. Then they went into the house of their god, ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech.

²⁸ Then Gaal son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Isn't he the son of Jerubbaal? Isn't Zebul his deputy? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem—but why should we serve him? ²⁹ Now, if this people were under my hand, then I would get rid of Abimelech." So he said to Abimelech, "Mustering your army and come out!"

³⁰ When Zebul the governor of the city heard the words of Gaal son of Ebed, his anger burned. ³¹ So he sent messengers to Abimelech in deceit saying, "Watch out, Gaal son of Ebed and his relatives have moved to Shechem, and look, they are inciting the city against you. ³² So now, arise by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field. ³³ So it will be in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you will rise early and advance on the city; and behold, when he and the people who are with him come out against you, then you should do to them whatever your hand finds."

³⁴ So Abimelech and all the people who were with him rose up by night and lay in wait against Shechem in four columns. ³⁵ Now Gaal son of Ebed went out and stood at the entrance of the city gate. Then Abimelech and the people who were with him emerged from the ambush. ³⁶ When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!"

† Meaning Lord of the Covenant

But Zebul said to him, "You're seeing the shadow of the mountains as if they were men."

³⁸ Then Zebul said to him, "Where is your mouth now? With it you said, 'Who is Abimelech that we should serve him?' Isn't this the people that you have trashed? Now go out and fight him!" ³⁹ So Gaal went out ahead of the lords of Shechem and fought with Abimelech. ⁴⁰ But Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many fell wounded up to the entrance of the gate. ⁴¹ While Abimelech stayed in Arumah, Zebul drove Gaal and his relatives out so that they could not stay in Shechem.

⁴² Now it came to pass the next day that the people went out into the field, and it was reported to Abimelech. ⁴³ So he took his people, divided them into three columns, and lay in ambush in the field. When he looked and saw the people were coming out of the city, he pounced on them and struck them down.

⁴⁴ Then Abimelech and the column that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the city gate, and the other two columns rushed on all who were in the open field and struck them down. ⁴⁵ So Abimelech fought against the city all that day, captured the city and killed the people that were in it. Then he razed the city and sowed it with salt.

⁴⁶ Now when all the lords of Shechem's Tower heard about it, they went into the vault of the temple of Elberith. ⁴⁷ When Abimelech was told that all the lords of Shechem's Tower had gathered there, ⁴⁸ he and all the people with him went up to Mount Zalmon. Then Abimelech took an axe in his hand and cut down a branch from the trees and lifted it up and laid it on his shoulder. Then he said to the people who were with him, "What you've seen me do, hurry and do likewise." ⁴⁹ So all the people likewise each cut down his branch and followed Abimelech. He laid them against the vault and set the vault on fire over them. So all the people of Shechem's Tower also died—about a thousand men and women.

⁵⁰ Then Abimelech went to Thebez, camped against Thebez and captured it. ⁵¹ But there was a strong tower in the center of the city, and all the men and women with all the city leaders fled there and shut themselves in, and went up to the roof of the tower. ⁵² So Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it, and approached the door of the tower to burn it with fire. ⁵³ But a certain woman threw an upper millstone on Abimelech's head and crushed his skull. ⁵⁴ Then he called quickly to the young man, his armor-bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest they say of me, 'A woman slew him.'" So his young man thrust him through, and he died. ⁵⁵ So when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they each departed to his place. ⁵⁶ Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech—what he had done to his father by slaying his 70 brothers. ⁵⁷ Also all the wickedness of the men of Shechem God requited on their heads. Thus on them came the curse of Jotham son of Jerubbaal.

Troubles in Gilead

10 After Abimelech, Tola son of Puah son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, arose to deliver Israel. He dwelt in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim. ² He judged Israel for 23 years, then died and was buried in Shamir. ³ After him Jair the Gileadite arose, and judged Israel for 23 years. ⁴ He had 30 sons who rode on 30 donkeys and had 30 towns in the land of Gilead, which are called Jair's Villages to this day. ⁵ Then Jair died and was buried in Kamon. ⁶ Then Bnei-Yisrael again did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes. They worshiped the Baalim, the Ashtaroth, gods of Aram, gods of Zidon, gods of Moab, gods of the children of Ammon and gods of the Philistines. They abandoned ADONAI and did not worship Him. ⁷ So ADONAI's anger burned against Israel, and He sold them over into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the children of Ammon. ⁸ They shattered and crushed Bnei-Yisrael that year—for 18 years all Bnei-Yisrael who were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. ⁹ Then the children of Ammon also crossed over the Jordan to fight against Judah, Benjamin and the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was greatly distressed.

¹⁰ Then Bnei-Yisrael cried out to ADONAI saying, "We have sinned against You, for we have forsaken our God and have worshiped the Baalim."

¹¹ So ADONAI said to Bnei-Yisrael, "Did I not deliver you from the Egyptians, the Amorites, the children of Ammon, the Philistines, ¹² the Zidonians, the Amalekites and the Maonites who oppressed you? When you cried out to Me, I delivered you from their hand. ¹³ Yet you have forsaken Me and worshiped other gods; therefore, I will deliver you no more. ¹⁴ Go and cry out to the gods which you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your distress."

¹⁵ Then Bnei-Yisrael said to ADONAI, "We have sinned. Do to us whatever seems good to You, but please, deliver us this day." ¹⁶ Then they removed the foreign gods from among them, and worshiped ADONAI. So His soul could not bear the misery of Israel.

¹⁷ Then the children of Ammon were summoned and camped in Gilead. Bnei-Yisrael gathered together and camped in Mizpah. ¹⁸ The people of the princes of Gilead said one to another, "Whoever begins to fight against the children of Ammon will be chief over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

Jephthah's Valor and Vow

11 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, [†] but he was the son of a prostitute,

[†] cf. Heb. 11:32.

while Gilead was Jephthah's father. ² But Gilead's wife bore him sons, and when the wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah out and said to him, "You won't inherit in our father's house, for you are a son of another woman." ³ Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Some worthless fellows joined with Jephthah and went out with him.

⁴ Now it came about after a while that the children of Ammon fought with Israel. ⁵ When the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah from the land of Tob. ⁶ They said to Jephthah, "Come and be our chief, so we may fight the children of Ammon."

⁷ Jephthah then said to the elders of Gilead, "Didn't you hate me and drive me out of my father's house? So why are you coming to me now that you're in trouble?"

⁸ "Here is why we're now turning to you," the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah. "Come with us, fight the children of Ammon, and then you will become head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

⁹ So Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you take me back home to fight the children of Ammon, and ADONAI gives them over to me, I should become your head!"

¹⁰ The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Let ADONAI be witness between us if we don't do as you say."

¹² Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon saying, "What have you to do with me, that you have come to me to make war on my land?"

¹⁴ But Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the children of Ammon, ¹⁵ and said to him, "Thus says Jephthah, 'Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the children of Ammon. ¹⁶ For upon departing from Egypt, Israel traveled through the wilderness to the Sea of Reeds and came to Kadesh, ¹⁷ then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom saying, "Please, let me pass through your land," but the king of Edom would not consent. Similarly, he sent word to the king of Moab, but he would not consent. So Israel, after staying at Kadesh, ¹⁸ traveled through the wilderness, around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, came to the east side of the land of Moab and they camped on the other side of the Arnon. But they did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. ¹⁹ Then Israel sent messengers to King Sihon of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, "Please, let us pass through your land to my place." ²⁰ But Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. So Sihon gathered all his troops, camped in Jahaz and fought against Israel. ²¹ But ADONAI God of Israel gave Sihon and all his troops into the hand of Israel, and they defeated them. So Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. ²² Thus they possessed all the territory of the Amorites, from the Arnon as far as the Jabbok, and from the wilderness as far as the Jordan. ²³ So now ADONAI God of Israel dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel. So should you possess their land? ²⁴ Don't you possess what Chemosh your god gives you to possess? Likewise, whatever ADONAI our God has dispossessed from before us, this we will possess. ²⁵ Besides, are you any better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them? ²⁶ While Israel was living in Heshbon and its villages, in Aroer and its villages, and in all the cities on both sides of the Arnon for 300 years, why didn't you try to recover them all that time? ²⁷ So I myself have not transgressed against you, yet you are doing me harm by waging war against me. May ADONAI, the Judge, judge today between Bnei-Yisrael and the children of Ammon."

²⁸ However, the king of the children of Ammon paid no attention to the words of Jephthah that he sent him. ²⁹ Then the Ruach ADONAI came upon Jephthah, so he marched through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from Mizpah of Gilead he crossed over to the children of Ammon. ³⁰ Then Jephthah vowed a vow to ADONAI and said, "If You will indeed give the children of Ammon into my hand, ³¹ then it will be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return safely from the children of Ammon, it will be ADONAI's, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering."

³⁴ Now when Jephthah arrived at his home in Mizpah, behold, his daughter was coming out to meet him with tambourines and with dances. Now she was his only child. Besides her he had no son or daughter.

³⁵ Upon seeing her, he tore his clothes and said, "Alas, my daughter! You made me bow down in grief—you've made me miserable! For I have opened my mouth to ADONAI, and I cannot take it back." †

³⁶ "My father, you have opened your mouth to ADONAI," she said to him. "Do to me what proceeded from your mouth—since ADONAI brought vengeance on your enemies, the children of Ammon." ³⁷ She said further to her father, "Let this thing be done for me. Let me be alone two months, so that I may go on the mountains and mourn my virginity, I and my companions."

³⁸ "Go!" he said. So he sent her away for two months. So she left, she and her companions, and mourned on the mountains because of her virginity. ³⁹ Then at the end of two months she returned to her father, who did with her according to his vow he had made—so she was never intimate with a man. So it became a custom in Israel, ⁴⁰ that the daughters of Israel would go annually to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

12 Then the men of Ephraim were summoned and crossed over to Zaphon. They said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the children of Ammon without calling us to go with you? We will burn your house over you with fire." ² So Jephthah responded to them, "I and my people were in a bitter conflict with the children of Ammon, yet when I called you, you didn't deliver me from their hand. ³ So when I saw that you weren't going to deliver, I put my life in my hand and crossed over against the children of Ammon, and ADONAI gave them into my hand. So why have you come up to me today, to fight me?"

⁴ Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought Ephraim. The men of Gilead defeated Ephraim, because they said, "You Gileadites are just fugitives of Ephraim in the midst of Ephraim and in the midst of Manasseh." ⁵ The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan opposite Ephraim. So when any of the fugitives of Ephraim said, "Let me cross over," the men of Gilead would ask him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No," ⁶ then they would say to him, "Say now, 'Shibboleth,'" and he said "Sibboleth" since he could not pronounce it right, then they would seize him and slay him at the fords of the Jordan. At that time 42,000 of Ephraim fell.

⁷ Jephthah judged Israel 6 years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in one of the towns of Gilead. ⁸ After him Ibzan of Beth-Lehem judged Israel. ⁹ Now he had 30 sons, and 30 daughters—he sent them outside and brought in 30 girls from outside for his sons. He judged Israel 7 years, ¹⁰ then Ibzan died and was buried in Beth-Lehem.

¹¹ Then after him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel. He judged Israel 10 years, ¹² then Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun. ¹³ After him Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel. ¹⁴ He had 40 sons and 30 grandsons who rode on 70 donkeys, and he judged Israel 8 years. ¹⁵ Then Abdon son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Birth of Samson

13 Bnei-Yisrael again did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, and ADONAI gave them into the hand of the Philistines for 40 years. ² Now there was a certain man from Zorah, from a Danite clan, whose name was Manoah. His wife was barren and bore no children.

³ Then the angel of ADONAI appeared to the woman and said to her, "Behold now, you are barren and have not borne children, but you will conceive and bear a son. ⁴ Now therefore be careful not to drink wine or strong drink, or eat any unclean thing. ⁵ For behold, you will conceive and bear a son. Let no razor come upon his head, for the boy will be a Nazirite to God from the womb. ^{††} He will begin to deliver Israel from the hand of the Philistines."

⁶ Then the woman came and told her husband saying, "A man of God came to me and his appearance was like the appearance of the angel of God, very awesome! But I did not ask him where he was from, nor did he tell me his name. ⁷ He said to me, 'Behold, you will conceive and bear a son. So, drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean, for the child will be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.'"

⁸ Then Manoah entreated ADONAI and said, "My Lord, please let the man of God whom You have sent come to us again and teach us what we will do for the boy to be born."

⁹ God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman as she was sitting in the field, but her husband Manoah was not with her.

¹⁰ So the woman ran quickly and told her husband, and said to him, "Look, the man that came to me the other day has appeared to me!"

¹¹ So Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he asked him, "Are you the one who spoke to the woman?"

"I am," he said.

¹² Then Manoah said, "Now may your words come about! What will be the child's rule and his mission?"

¹³ The angel of ADONAI said to Manoah, "Let the woman abstain from all that I mentioned to her. ¹⁴ She should not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, or drink wine or strong drink, or eat any unclean thing. She must observe all that I commanded her."

¹⁵ Then Manoah said to the angel of ADONAI, "Please, let us detain you so that we may prepare a young goat for you."

¹⁶ But the angel of ADONAI said to Manoah, "If you could detain me, I would not eat your food. But if you present a burnt offering, then offer it to ADONAI." For Manoah did not realize that he was the angel of ADONAI.

¹⁷ Then Manoah asked the angel of ADONAI, "What is your name, so that when your words come to pass we may honor you?" ¹⁸ But the angel of ADONAI said to him, "Why do you ask for my name? It is wonderful."

¹⁹ Manoah took the young goat with the meal offering and offered them on the rock to ADONAI, and He did something wonderful as Manoah and his wife were watching. ²⁰ For it came about when the flame went up from off the altar toward heaven that the angel of ADONAI ascended in the flame of the altar. Manoah and his wife were looking on, then they fell on their faces to the ground. ²¹ But the angel of ADONAI appeared no more to Manoah or to his wife.

Then Manoah realized that he was the angel of ADONAI. ²² Manoah said to his wife, "We will surely die, because we have seen God." ²³ But his wife said to him, "If ADONAI had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a meal offering from our hand, nor would He have shown us all these things or let us hear such things as these at this time."

²⁴ Then the woman bore a son, and called his name Samson. So the boy grew up and ADONAI blessed him. ²⁵ The Ruach ADONAI began to stir him in Mahaneh-Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Riddle of the Lion

14 Then Samson went down to Timnah and eyed in Timnah a woman, one of the daughters of the Philistines. ² So he came back and told his father and mother saying, "I have seen a woman in Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines. So now get her for me as a wife."

³ Then his father and his mother said to him, "Is there no woman among the daughters of your kinsmen, or among all our people, that you are going to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?"

But Samson said to his father, "Get her for me, for she is the right one in my eyes."

⁴ But his father and mother did not know that it was of ADONAI, for He was seeking a pretext against the Philistines. For at that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel. ⁵ While his father and mother went down to Timnah, Samson went to the vineyards of Timnah, and behold, a young lion came roaring at him. ⁶ Then the Ruach ADONAI came mightily upon him, and he tore him apart as one would have split a young goat—yet he had nothing in his hand. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.

¹⁰ Then his father went down to the woman, and Samson made a banquet there, for so the young men used to do. ¹¹ Now it came to pass, when they saw him, they brought 30 companions to be with him.

¹² Then Samson said to them, "Let me now propose a riddle to you. If you can indeed solve it for me during the seven days of the banquet, and figure it out, then I will give you 30 linen garments and 30 changes of clothes; ¹³ but if you cannot solve it for me, then you must give me 30 linen garments and 30 changes of clothes."

"Propose your riddle," they said to him. "Let's hear it!"

¹⁴ So he said to them, "Out of the eater came forth food, out of the strong came forth sweet."

But for three days they could not solve the riddle. ¹⁵ Now on the seventh day, they said to Samson's wife, "Coax your husband so that he will explain the riddle to us—or else we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us to impoverish us?"

¹⁶ So Samson's wife wept before him and said, "You only hate me! You don't love me! You proposed a riddle to the sons of my people—yet you haven't explained it to me!"

"Look," he said, "I haven't explained it to my father or my mother, so should I explain it to you?" ¹⁷ But she wept before him the seven days while their banquet lasted. So it was on the seventh day he told her, because she nagged him. Then she told the riddle to the sons of her people. ¹⁸ So the men of the city said to him on the seventh day, before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey?

And what is stronger than a lion?"

But he responded to them, "If you hadn't plowed with my heifer, you wouldn't have solved my riddle."

¹⁹ Then the Ruach ADONAI came mightily upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon and killed 30 of their men, took their spoil, and gave the changes of clothes to those who solved the riddle. Since his rage was burning, he went up to his father's house. ²⁰ But Samson's wife was given to his companion who had been his best man.

Victory with a Jawbone

15 But after a while, during the time of wheat harvest, Samson visited his wife with a young goat. "I am going to my wife in her room," he said.

But her father would not let him enter. ² "I thought for sure you had utterly hated her," her father said, "so I gave her to your best man. Her younger sister— isn't she better than her? Please, let her be yours instead."

³ Then Samson said to them, "This time I am blameless from the Philistines when I do harm to them." ⁴ So Samson went and caught 300 foxes, and took torches, turned the foxes tail to tail and put one torch between every two tails. ⁵ Then he set fire to the torches and released them into the standing grain of the Philistines, thus he burned up both the stacks and the standing grain, along with vineyards and olive trees.

⁶ Then the Philistines asked, "Who did this?" They were told, "Samson, son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his best man." So the Philistines came up and burnt her and her father with fire.

⁷ Then Samson said to them, "Since you have acted like this, surely I will take revenge on you—after that I will quit." ⁸ So he struck them leg upon thigh with a great slaughter. Then he went down and stayed in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

⁹ Then the Philistines went up and camped in Judah and spread out in Lehi. ¹⁰ The men of Judah asked, "Why have you marched against us?"

They replied, "We have come to arrest Samson—to do to him as he did to us."

¹¹ Then 3,000 men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam and said to Samson, "Don't you realize that the Philistines are ruling over us? So what is this that you have done to us?"

He said to them, "As they did to me, so I have done to them."

¹² "We have come down to bind you," they said to him, "so that we may hand you over to the Philistines."

So Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you yourselves won't kill me."

¹³ "No, we won't kill you," they said to him, "but we will bind you fast and hand you over to them." So they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock. ¹⁴ When he arrived at Lehi, the Philistines shouted upon meeting him. But the Ruach ADONAI came mightily upon him so that the ropes that were on his arms became like flax burned with fire and his bonds melted off his wrists. ¹⁵ Then he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out and took it, and killed a thousand men with it. ¹⁶ Then Samson said,

"With the jawbone of a donkey,

a heap . . . two heaps,

with the jawbone of a donkey

I struck down a thousand men."

¹⁷ As soon as he had finished speaking, he threw the jawbone from his hand. Then he named that place Ramat-Lehi. ¹⁸ Then he became very thirsty, so he called to ADONAI and said, "You have granted this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant. So now, will I die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?"

¹⁹ But God split the hollow place that is in Lehi, and water came out of it. When he drank, he regained his strength and revived. Therefore he called it En-Hakore ^{††}, which is in Lehi to this day. ²⁰ Then he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines for 20 years.

Delilah Betrays Samson

16 Once Samson went to Gaza and eyed a prostitute there, so he went to her. ² The Gazites were told, "Samson has come here." So they surrounded him, lay in ambush for him all night at the gate of the city, and kept quiet all night saying, "When morning light comes, then we kill him." ³ But Samson lay in bed till midnight, got up at midnight, grabbed the doors of the city gate along with the two gateposts and pulled them up bar and all. Then he put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of the mountain that is near Hebron.

⁴ It came about afterward that he fell in love with a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. ⁵ So the Philistine lords came up to her and said to her, "Coax him, see where his great strength comes from and by what we may overpower him, so we may bind him to subdue him—then we'll each of us give you 1,100 pieces of silver."

⁶ So Delilah said to Samson, "Tell me please, where does your great strength come from? How could you be bound to subdue you?"

⁷ Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh cords that have never been dried, then I would be weak and be like any other man." ⁸ So the Philistine lords brought up to her seven fresh cords that had never been dried, and she bound him with them, ⁹ while an ambush was waiting in an inner room.

"The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" she said to him. But he broke the cords just as a strand of straw snaps when it touches fire. So his strength remained unknown.

¹⁰ Delilah said to Samson, "Oh, you deceived me! You lied to me! Now tell me please, how you can be bound?"

¹¹ He told her, "If they only bind me with new ropes never used for work, then I will be weak and be like any other man." ¹² So Delilah took new ropes, tied him up with them and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" Yet while the ambush was waiting in the inner room, he snapped them from his arms like a thread.

¹³ So Delilah said to Samson, "Up to now you've mocked me and told me lies! Tell me how you can be bound!"

He told her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web of a loom." ¹⁴ So she pinned it with a pin and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep and pulled away the pin of the loom and the web.

¹⁵ "How can you say, 'I love you,'" she said to him, "when your heart is not with me? This is three times you've deceived me and not told me where your great strength comes from."

¹⁶ Now it came about when she nagged him daily with her speeches and kept bothering him, his soul was annoyed to death. ¹⁷ So he divulged to her all his heart and said to her, "No razor has ever been upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will go from me, and I will be weak and be like any other man."

¹⁸ Now when Delilah realized that he had confided to her all his heart, she sent and called for the Philistine lords saying, "Come up this time, for he has told me all his heart." So the Philistine lords came up to her and brought the silver in their hand. ¹⁹ Then she made him sleep upon her knees, and she called for a man and had the seven locks of his head shaved off. She even began to humiliate him while his strength departed from him. ²⁰ Then she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" When he awoke from his sleep, he thought, "I'll go out as at other times, and shake myself off." He did not comprehend that ADONAI had departed from him.

²¹ Then the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. They brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze chains, and he became a grinder in the prison. ²² However, the hair of his head began to grow again after it was shaved off.

Samson Avenged

²³ Now the Philistine lords gathered to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to celebrate, as they said, "Our god has given our enemy Samson into our hand."

²⁴ When the people saw him, they praised their god, as they said, "Our god has given into our hand our enemy and the destroyer of our country, who has slain many of us."

²⁵ Now it came about when their hearts were merry that they said, "Call for Samson, that he may amuse us." So they called for Samson from the prison, and he did make them laugh, when they made him stand between the pillars.

²⁶ Then Samson said to the lad that held him by the hand, "Let me feel the pillars on which the temple rests, so I may lean on them." ²⁷ Now the temple was full of men and women. All the Philistine lords were there and about 3,000 men and women on the roof looking on while Samson was amusing them.

²⁸ Then Samson called out to ADONAI and said, "My Lord ADONAI, please remember me and please strengthen me only this once, O God, so that I may this once take revenge on the Philistines for my two eyes." ²⁹ Then Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the temple rested and leaned on them, one with his right hand and the other with his left. ³⁰ Then Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" He bent with all his might so that the temple fell on the lords and on all the people who were in it. So the dead whom he killed at his death were more than those whom he killed during his life.

³¹ Then his kinsmen and all his father's household came down, lifted him, brought him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. For he had judged Israel 20 years.

Micah's Idols

17 Now there was a man of the hill country of Ephraim whose name was Micah. ² And he said to his mother, "The 1,100 pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse, which you also repeated it in my ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it." And his mother said, "Blessed be my son of ADONAI." ³ And he returned the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, and his mother said, "I wholly dedicate the silver from my hand to ADONAI for my son to make a graven image and a molten image; now therefore, I will return it to you." ⁴ So when he returned the silver to his mother, his mother took 200 pieces of silver and gave them to the silversmith who made it into a graven image and a molten image; and they were kept in the house of Micah. ⁵ Now the man Micah had a shrine of gods, and he made an ephod and household idols, and consecrated one of his sons to become his priest. ⁶ In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes. ⁷ Now there was a young man from Beth-Lehem of Judah—of the clan of Judah—who was a Levite, and he sojourned there. ⁸ Then the man departed from the town, from Beth-Lehem of Judah, to sojourn wherever he could find a place; and as he journeyed he arrived to the hill country of Ephraim to the house of Micah. ⁹ And Micah said to him, "Where do you come from?" And he replied to him, "I am a Levite from Beth-Lehem of Judah, and I am traveling to stay wherever I may find a place." ¹⁰ So Micah said to him, "Stay with me and be a father and a priest to me, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year, and a suit of apparel, and your provision." So the Levite went in. ¹¹ And the Levite was content to stay with the man, and the young man became to him as one of his sons. ¹² So Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in the house of Micah. ¹³ Then Micah said, "Now I know that ADONAI will do me good, seeing I have a Levite as my priest."

The Danites Seek a New Home

18 In those days there was no king in Israel, and in those days the tribe of Dan was seeking an inheritance for itself to settle in, for to that day no territory had fallen to them for an inheritance in the midst of the tribes of Israel. ² So the children of Dan sent five men from their clan, out of their entire population, men of valor from Zorah and Eshtaol, to spy out the land and explore it, and said to them, "Go, explore the land."

When they came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there. ³ When they were near the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite. So they turned aside there and asked him, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What do you have here?"

⁴ He said to them, "Thus and thus Micah did for me—he hired me and I became his priest."

⁵ "Please inquire of God," they said to him, "so we may know whether our way that we are going will be successful."

⁶ "Go in peace," the priest said to them. "The way that you are going has ADONAI's approval."

⁷ Then the five men left and came to Laish, and saw the people there living securely, like the Zidonians, tranquil and unsuspecting. For there was no humiliation or anything oppressive in the land. Moreover, they were distant from the Zidonians and had no dealings with anybody.

⁸ When they came back to their kinsmen at Zorah and Eshtaol, their kinsmen asked them, "What do you say?"

⁹ "Arise, let's go up against them!" they said. "For we have seen the land—see, it's very good. Yet you're sitting still! Don't be sluggish! Go enter, possess the land! ¹⁰ When you get there, you will come to unsuspecting people. The land is spacious. For God has put it in your hand—a place where there is no lack of anything on the earth."

¹¹ So from the Danite clan from Zorah and Eshtaol, 600 men set out, armed with weapons of war. ¹² They went up and camped at Kiriath-Jearim in Judah. Therefore they called that place Mahaneh-Dan to this day—behold, it is west of Kiriath-Jearim. ¹³ From there they passed on to the hill country of Ephraim and came to Micah's house.

¹⁴ Then the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish said to their kinsmen, "Do you know that in these houses there are an ephod, household idols, a carved image and a molten image? Now therefore, consider what you have to do."

¹⁹ "Be quiet!" they said to him. "Put your hand on your mouth and go with us and be to us a father and a priest! Is it better for you to be priest to the house of one man or to be priest to a tribe and a clan in Israel?" ²⁰ So the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, the household idols and the carved image, and went along among the people.

²⁴ "You have taken away my gods which I made," he said, "and the priest, and walked away! What do I have left? And how then do you say to me, 'What's the matter with you?'"

²⁵ But the children of Dan said to him, "Don't let your voice be heard among us, lest bitter fellows fall upon you, and you lose your life with the lives of your household." ²⁶ Then the children of Dan went on their way, and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

²⁷ Then they took what Micah had made, and his priest, and came to Laish, to a tranquil and unsuspecting people, and struck them with the edge of the sword, and they burned the town with fire. ²⁸ There was no deliverer, because it was far from Zidon and they had no alliance with anyone. It was in the valley near Beth-rehob.

Then they rebuilt the town and lived in it. ²⁹ So they called the name of the town Dan, after the name of their father Dan born to Israel; however, the former name of the town was Laish. ³⁰ The children of Dan set up for themselves the carved image. Jonathan son of Gershom son of Manasseh, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the exile from the land. ³¹ So they set them up Micah's carved image that he had made, all the time that the House of God was in Shiloh.

Crime at Gibeah of Benjamin

19 Now in those days, there was no king in Israel. There was a certain Levite dwelling in a remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, who got himself a concubine out of Beth-Lehem in Judah. ² But his concubine played the harlot against him, and went away from him to her father's house to Beth-Lehem in Judah, and was there for a period of four months.

³ Then her husband arose and went after her to speak kindly to her to bring her back. He had his servant and a pair of donkeys with him. So she brought him into her father's house, and when the father of the young woman saw him, he was glad to meet him. ⁴ His father-in-law, the young woman's father, kept him staying with him three days, eating, drinking and lodging there.

⁵ Now on the fourth day they woke up early in the morning, and he rose up to depart, but the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward you may go." ⁶ So the two of them sat down and ate and drank together. Then the young woman's father said to the man, "Please, be willing to spend the night, and let your heart be merry." ⁷ Then the man rose up to depart, but his father-in-law urged him, so he lodged there again. ⁸ Then he woke up early in the morning on the fifth day to depart, but the young woman's father said, "Please, strengthen yourself and tarry until afternoon!" So both of them ate. ⁹ And when the man rose up to depart, he and his concubine and his servant, his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "Behold now, the day is waning toward evening; please, spend the night. Behold, the day is drawing to a close; lodge here and let your heart be merry. Then tomorrow get up early for your journey so that you may go home."

¹⁰ But the man would not spend that night, so he rose up and departed and came to a place near Jebus—that is, Jerusalem—and with him were a pair of saddled donkeys and his concubine. ¹¹ When they were near Jebus and the day was almost gone, the servant said to his master, "Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites and lodge in it."

¹² But his master said to him, "We will not turn aside into a city of foreigners, who are not of Bnei-Yisrael. Let's go on to Gibeah. ¹³ Come on," he said to his servant, "let's try to reach one of these places—we'll spend the night in Gibeah or in Ramah." ¹⁴ So they passed on and went their way, and the sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin. ¹⁵ Then they turned aside there to enter and lodge in Gibeah. When he went in, he sat down in the town square, for there was no one who took them into his house to spend the night.

¹⁸ "We are passing from Beth-Lehem of Judah," he said to him, "to the remote part of the hill country of Ephraim, for I am from there, and I went to Beth-Lehem of Judah. But now I am going to the House of ADONAI, yet no one has taken me into his house.

¹⁹ Nevertheless, there is both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and also bread and wine for me, your handmaid, and the young man that is with your servants—there is no lack of anything."

²⁰ The old man said, " Shalom to you! Let all your needs be on me—only don't spend the night in the open square!" ²¹ So he brought him into his house and gave the donkeys fodder, and they washed their feet and ate and drank.

²² While they were making their hearts merry, behold, some worthless men of the town surrounded the house. Pounding the door, they shouted to the owner of the house, "Bring out the man that came into your house," they said to the old man, "so we may have relations with him."

²³ But the man, the owner of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my fellows, please don't do this evil. After all, this man has come into my house. Don't commit this disgraceful deed. ²⁴ Look, here is my virgin daughter, and his concubine—I will bring them out to you now, and you may abuse them and do to them whatever pleases you, but don't do such a degrading thing to this man!"

²⁵ But the men would not listen to him. So the man seized his concubine and brought her out to them, and they raped her and abused her all the night until morning. When dawn broke, they let her go. ²⁶ As the morning came, the woman came and fell down at the doorway of the man's house where her master was, until it was full daylight.

²⁹ Now when he entered his house, he took a knife and laid hold of his concubine and cut her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent her to all the territory of Israel. ³⁰ So it was, that everyone who saw it said, "Nothing like this has ever happened or been seen, since the day that Bnei-Yisrael came up from the land of Egypt to this day! Think it over, take counsel and speak up!"

Battle of Gibeah

20 Then all Bnei-Yisrael went out and was assembled as one man, from Dan to Beer-Sheba with the land of Gilead, before ADONAI at Mizpah. ² The chiefs of the people and of the tribes of Israel presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God—400,000 foot soldiers armed with swords. ³ Now the children of Benjamin heard that Bnei-Yisrael had gone up to Mizpah.

Bnei-Yisrael asked, "Tell us, how did this wickedness take place?"

⁴ So the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered and said, "I came with my concubine to Gibeah of Benjamin to spend the night. ⁵ Then men of Gibeah rose against me and surrounded the house over me at night. They intended to kill me, but instead, they raped my concubine until she died. ⁶ So I took my concubine and cut her into pieces and sent her throughout the land of Israel's possession. For they have committed something obscene and degrading in Israel. ⁷ Behold, all you sons of Israel, give your advice and counsel here."

⁸ Then all the people arose as one man saying, "Not one of us will go to his tent, nor will any of us return to his house. ⁹ But now this is what we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot. ¹⁰ We will take ten men of a hundred throughout the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to supply provisions for the troops, so that when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, they may do to them according to all the disgrace that they have committed in Israel."

¹¹ So all the men of Israel were gathered against the town, knit together as one man. ¹² And the tribes of Israel sent men through the tribe of Benjamin saying, "What is this wickedness that has taken place among you?" ¹³ Now therefore, give up the men, the worthless fellows that are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and purge this evil from Israel."

But the children of Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their kinsmen Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁴ So the children of Benjamin were gathered from their towns to Gibeah, to go out to battle against Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁵ On that day the children of Benjamin mustered 26,000 swordsmen from the towns, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who numbered 700 chosen men. ¹⁶ Out of all these troops there were 700 chosen men that were left-handed, each of whom could sling a stone at a hair and not miss. ¹⁷ Meanwhile the men of Israel, apart from Benjamin, numbered 400,000 swordsmen; all men of war.

¹⁸ Then Bnei-Yisrael arose, went up to Beth-El and inquired of God. They asked, "Who is to go up first to battle for us against the children of Benjamin?"

ADONAI replied, "Judah first."

²² But the people of the men of Israel rallied their strength and arrayed for battle again in the same place where they had arrayed themselves the first day.

²³ Yet Bnei-Yisrael went up and wept before ADONAI until evening, then inquired of ADONAI saying, "Shall I again draw near to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother?"

ADONAI said, "Go up against him."

²⁶ Then all Bnei-Yisrael went up, and all the people came to Beth-El and wept and sat there before ADONAI. They fasted that day until evening and they offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before ADONAI. ²⁷ Then Bnei-Yisrael inquired of ADONAI (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, ²⁸ and Pinchas son of Eleazar son of Aaron had ministered before it in those days) saying, "Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or should I cease?"

ADONAI replied, "Go up, for tomorrow I will give him into your hand."

Benjamin came out against the people, but they were drawn away from the town, and they began to strike and kill some of the people (about 30 men of Israel), as at other times, on the highways, of which one goes up to Beth-El and the other to Gibeah. ³² So the children of Benjamin said, "They are defeated before us as before." But Bnei-Yisrael said, "Let us flee and draw them away from the town to the highways." ³³ Then all the troops of Israel rose up from their place and arrayed themselves at Baal-tamar, and the troops of Israel in ambush burst out of their place west of Geba. ³⁴ Then 10,000 troops chosen from all Israel made a frontal attack on Gibeah, and the battle became fierce; but the Benjamites did not know that disaster was about to strike them.

³⁵ Then ADONAI struck Benjamin before Israel— Bnei-Yisrael killed 25,100 of Benjamin that day, all drawing the sword. ³⁶ So the children of Benjamin realized that they were defeated. Now the men of Israel had yielded ground to Benjamin, because they relied on the ambush that they had laid against Gibeah. ³⁷ So the men in ambush rushed suddenly upon Gibeah, then the men in another ambush advanced and struck the whole town with the edge of the sword. ³⁸ Now there was a prearranged sign between the men of Israel and the men in ambush—they would make a great beacon of smoke rise up from the town— ³⁹ then the men of Israel would return to the battle. When Benjamin began to strike, killing about 30 of the men of Israel, they said, "Surely they are defeated before us, as in the first battle." ⁴⁰ But when the beacon began to arise up from the town in a pillar of smoke, Benjamin looked behind them, and behold, the whole town was going up in smoke to the sky. ⁴¹ Then the men of Israel turned back, and the men of Benjamin were terrified, for they realized that disaster had struck them. ⁴² Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel toward the way of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them. Meanwhile those who came from the towns massacred them in their midst. ⁴³ They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them and easily overtook them, near Gibeah toward the east. ⁴⁴ Thus 18,000 men of Benjamin fell, all of them were men of valor. ⁴⁵ Then the rest turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, but they picked off 5,000 of them on the highways. They pressed hard after them to Gidom, and struck down 2,000 more of them. ⁴⁶ So all who fell that day of Benjamin were 25,000 men drawing the sword—all of them were men of valor.

⁴⁷ But 600 men turned and escaped into the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon, and stayed at the rock of Rimmon four months. ⁴⁸ The men of Israel turned back against the children of Benjamin and struck them with the edge of the sword—the entire city, the cattle and all that they found. They also set on fire all the towns that they found.

Israel Preserves the Benjamites

21 Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpah saying, "None of us will give his daughter to Benjamin in marriage." ² So the people came to Beth-El and sat there till evening before God, and lifted up their voices and wept bitterly. ³ They said, "ADONAI God of Israel, why has this happened in Israel, that one tribe should be missing in Israel?"

⁴ Then it was on the next day that the people rose up early and built an altar there, and offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. ⁵ Then Bnei-Yisrael asked, "Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who did not come up to the assembly before ADONAI?" For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who did not come up to ADONAI at Mizpah saying, "He will surely be put to death."

⁶ Now Bnei-Yisrael felt sorry for Benjamin their brother and said, "Today one tribe has been cut off from Israel. ⁷ What should we do about providing wives for those who are left, since we have sworn by ADONAI not to give them any of our daughters in marriage?"

¹³ Then the whole congregation sent and spoke to the children of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed shalom to them. ¹⁴ When Benjamin returned at that time, they gave them the women whom they had spared from the women of Jabesh-Gilead. Yet they were not enough for them.

¹⁷ They said "The survivors of Benjamin must have heirs, so that a tribe would not be blotted out from Israel. ¹⁸ Yet we cannot give them wives of our daughters," for Bnei-Yisrael had sworn saying, "Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin!"

¹⁹ So they said, "Behold, there is the feast of ADONAI from year to year at Shiloh" (which is to the north of Beth-El, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Beth-El to Shechem, and to the south of Lebonah). ²⁰ So they commanded the children of Benjamin saying, "Go and hide in the vineyards, ²¹ and watch, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh should come out to join in the dances, then come out of the vineyards, and let each of you catch his wife from among the daughters of Shiloh. Then go to the land of Benjamin. ²² So it will be, if their fathers or brothers come to complain to us, that we will say to them, 'Grant them graciously for us, because we did not provide each one of them his wife in battle—nor did you give the girls to them, else you would now be guilty.'"

²³ So the children of Benjamin did so, and took the number of wives from the dancers whom they carried off. Then they went and returned to their inheritance, and rebuilt the towns and settled in them.

²⁴ So Bnei-Yisrael departed from there at that time, each man to his tribe and family. Everyone went out from there to his own inheritance.

²⁵ In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

Ruth

Ruth Introduction

Ruth is a poetic story dealing with issues of love, loss, and legacy. It contains some memorable passages and timeless truths. Love between a husband and wife, a daughter-in-law and mother-in-law, and perhaps above all, the love of God for the Jewish people and those who would be “grafted in” to the commonwealth of Israel. Loss permeates the story, as well, in the form of deaths in the family and famine in the land. Finally, legacy is the net result, as the very Messianic line is preserved through the characters in this book.

In a Jewish life, Ruth is typically read at the Feast of Weeks, a Jewish holiday known in the Church world as “Pentecost.” The theme of the harvest is intertwined with those of family relations and Israelite culture.

The name “Ruth” is a contraction for reuth—meaning companion or friend. This is the only place in the Hebrew Bible the name is found. Most Talmud scholars ascribe the authorship to Samuel, although some have suggested Nathan may be the writer. The prevalent view is that Ruth was written between 1011 and 931 BCE, during the time of the Judges—where it served as a bright spot in an otherwise dark period. The book was written to the Israelites, and serves the purpose of establishing David as God’s chosen king.

This book illustrates the sovereignty of God. The main characters move through the story as actors working through a drama on God’s stage. Ruth was led back to Bethlehem and married Boaz in the plan of God. Boaz was sovereignly chosen to overcome the stigma of Ruth’s family history from the outcast tribe of Moab. His willingness to redeem Ruth brought him into the lineage of the future king—David. Not only was Boaz a willing kinsman-redeemer, in so doing he became a type of the Kinsman Redeemer of all mankind. In his compassionate obedience, Boaz helped to fulfill God’s covenantal promise to David (2 Sam. 7) that a king from his line would always rule in Israel. In fact, the ultimate fulfillment will be when the King of Kings sits on the throne of David.

For Messianic believers, the book of Ruth serves as a seminal treatise on the potential within the international church to boldly stand in relationship to the people of Israel. Ruth’s epigrammatic plea, “Do not plead with me to abandon you...where you go I will go...your people will be my people, and your God my God” (Ruth 1:16), stands as an eternal promise and invitation for Gentiles to knit their hearts with the hearts of Israel—the people and place. The meandering that leads the company from and back to Bethlehem (Ruth 1:2) fulfills essential biblical Messianic prophecy about the birthplace of Messiah (Mic. 5:1). The role of the brilliantly foreshadows the future, great kinsman redeemer, Jesus. God’s mercy, in knitting a Moabitess into the lineage of the revered king David and his greater son, foreshadows the gospel of grace. In fact, Ruth yields a deathblow to religiosity and prejudice and opens the door to grace beyond measure, amazing grace indeed! (John 1:17).

Elimelech’s Family in Moab

1 It came to pass in the days when judges were governing, there was a famine in the land. A man went from the town of Beth-Lehem [†] in Judah to dwell in the region of Moab with his wife and his two sons.

[†] Meaning House of Bread

² The man’s name was Elimelech, his wife’s name was Naomi, and his two sons were named Mahlon and Chilion. They were Ephratites from Beth-Lehem in Judah. They came to the region of Moab and remained there.

³ Then Naomi’s husband Elimelech died, so she was left with her two sons. ⁴ They married Moabite women—one was named Orpah and the second was named Ruth, and they dwelt there about ten years.⁵ Then those two, Mahlon and Chilion, also died. So the woman was left without her children and her husband.

⁶ Then she got up, along with her daughters-in-law to return from the region of Moab, because in the region of Moab she had heard that ADONAI had taken note of His people and given them food.⁷ So she left the place where she was, along with her two daughters-in-law, and they started out on the road to return to the land of Judah.

⁸ So Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to your mother's house. May ADONAI show you the same kindness that you have shown to the dead and to me.⁹ May ADONAI grant that you find rest, each of you in the house of her own husband." Then she kissed them and they wept loudly.

¹⁰ "No!" they said to her, "we will return with you to your people."

¹¹ Now Naomi said, "Go back, my daughters! Why should you go with me? Do I have more sons in my womb who could become your husbands?¹² Go home, my daughters! I am too old to have a husband. Even if I were to say that there was hope for me and I could get married tonight, and then bore sons,¹³ would you wait for them to grow up? Would you therefore hold off getting married? No, my daughters, it is more bitter for me than for you—for the hand of ADONAI has gone out against me!"

¹⁴ Again they broke into loud weeping. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law goodbye. But Ruth clung to her.¹⁵ She said, "Look, your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Return, along with your sister-in-law!"

Ruth's Covenant with Naomi

¹⁶ Ruth replied,
"Do not plead with me to abandon you,
to turn back from following you.
For where you go, I will go,
and where you stay, I will stay.
Your people will be my people, and your God my God.

¹⁷ Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried.
May ADONAI deal with me, and worse,
if anything but death comes between me and you!"

¹⁸ When she saw that Ruth was determined to go with her, she no longer spoke to Ruth about it.

¹⁹ So the two of them went on until they arrived in Beth-Lehem. As soon as they arrived in Beth-Lehem the whole city was excited because of them, and the women asked, "Is this Naomi?"

²⁰ "Do not call me Naomi," she told them. "Call me Mara—since Shaddai has made my life bitter.[†]²¹ I went away full, but ADONAI has brought me back empty. Why should you call me Naomi, since ADONAI has testified against me and Shaddai has brought calamity on me?"

²² So Naomi and her daughter-in-law Ruth the Moabite returned from the region of Moab. They arrived in Beth-Lehem at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Gleaning in Boaz's Field

² Now, Naomi had a relative on her husband's side—from Elimelech's family—a prominent man of substance whose name was Boaz.

² Ruth the Moabite, said to Naomi, "Please let me go out to the field and glean grain behind anyone in whose eyes I may find favor."

Naomi said to her, "Go ahead, my daughter."³ So Ruth went out and gleaned in the field behind the reapers. She just so happened to be in the field of Boaz, who was from Elimelech's family.

⁴ Soon after Boaz arrived from Beth-Lehem, he said to the harvesters, "ADONAI be with you."

They replied, "May ADONAI bless you."

⁵ Then Boaz asked the foreman of his harvesters, "Whose young woman is this?"

⁶ "She is a Moabite woman who came back with Naomi from the region of Moab," the foreman replied.

⁷ "She asked 'Please allow me to glean and gather among the barley sheaves behind the harvesters.' So she came and has been working in the field since morning until now, except for a little while in the shelter."

⁸ Then Boaz said to Ruth, "Listen to me, my daughter. Do not go to glean in another field or even pass on from here, but stay close to my female workers.⁹ Keep your eyes on the field that they are harvesting, and follow after them. I strongly ordered the young men not to touch you. When you are thirsty, you can go to the jars and drink from the water the young men have drawn."

¹¹ Boaz replied and said to her, "All that you have done for your mother-in-law since your husband's death has been fully reported to me—how you left your father and mother and the land of your birth, and came to a people you did not know before.¹² May ADONAI repay you for what you have done, and may you be fully rewarded by ADONAI, God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge."

¹³ She said, "May I continue to find favor in your eyes, my lord, for you have comforted me and spoken kindly to your maidservant, even though I am not one of your maidservants."

¹⁴ At mealtime Boaz said to her, "Come over here and eat some bread and dip your piece into the wine vinegar." So she sat beside the harvesters and he held out to her roasted grain. She ate until she was full, and

† Meaning pleasant vs. bitter

some was still left. ¹⁵When she got up to glean, Boaz gave orders to his workers saying, "Let her glean even among the sheaves, do not humiliate her. ¹⁶Also be sure to pull out some grain for her from the sheaves and leave them for her to pick up, and do not rebuke her."

¹⁷So she gleaned in the field until evening. When she thrashed what she had gathered, there was about an ephah of barley. ¹⁸She carried it back to town, where her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Ruth took some out and gave her what was left over after eating her fill.

¹⁹Her mother-in-law asked her, "Where did you glean today? Where did you work? May the one who noticed you be blessed!"

She told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked and she said, "The name of the man for whom I worked is Boaz."

²⁰So Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "May he be blessed by ADONAI who has not stopped his kindness to the living or to the dead." Then Naomi said to her, "This man is closely related to us, one of our kinsmen-redeemers." †

²¹Then Ruth the Moabitess said, "He even said to me, 'Stay close to my workers until they have finished the entire harvest.'"

²²Naomi answered her daughter-in-law Ruth, "It is good, my daughter-in-law, that you go out with his female workers, so that you will not be harmed in another field."

²³So she stayed close to Boaz's female workers, gleaning until both the barley harvest and the wheat harvest were completed. Meanwhile she lived with her mother-in-law.

Naomi the Matchmaker

3 Naomi her mother-in-law said to her "My daughter, should I not be seeking a resting place for you, so it may go well for you? ²Now, is Boaz, with whose female workers you have been, not our relative? Look, he will be winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. ³So bathe and perfume yourself, put on your cloak and go down to the threshing floor. But do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. ⁴Let it be that when he lies down and you know the place where he lies down, go uncover his feet and lie down there. He will tell you what to do."

⁵Ruth answered her, "I will do everything you say." ⁶So she went down to the threshing floor and did everything her mother-in-law had said.

⁷After Boaz ate, drank, and was in a good mood, he went to lie down at the far side of the grain pile. So she came to the grain pile quietly, uncovered his feet, and lay down. ⁸Now in the middle of the night, the man was startled and pulled back—and to his surprise, a woman was lying at his feet!

⁹"Who are you?" he asked.

"I am Ruth, your handmaid," she answered. "Spread the corner of your garment over your handmaid, for you are a goel."

¹⁰"May you be blessed by ADONAI, my daughter!" he replied. "You have made the latter act of loyalty greater than the first, by not running after the young men, whether rich or poor. ¹¹Now my daughter, do not be afraid! Everything you propose, I will do for you, for everyone in town knows that you are a woman of valor. ¹²Although it is true that I am a goel, there is one who is a closer goel than me. ¹³Stay here tonight, and in the morning, if he will be your goel—good! Let him do so. But if he is not willing to be your goel, then I will be your goel myself, as surely as ADONAI lives. Lie down until morning."

¹⁴So she lay at his feet until morning, but got up before one person could be distinguished from another, for he said, "Do not let it be known that the woman came to the threshing floor." ¹⁵Then he said, "Bring the cloak you are wearing and hold it out." She held it out and he poured six measures of barley into it and put it on her. Then he returned to town.

¹⁶When Ruth came back to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, "How did it go, my daughter?"

So Ruth told her all that the man had done for her. ¹⁷She said "He gave me six measures of barley, for he said, 'You shouldn't go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.'"

¹⁸"Wait, my daughter," Naomi said, "until you find out how the matter turns out, for he will not rest until he has settled the matter today."

Who Will Redeem?

4 Meanwhile Boaz had gone up to the gate and sat down there. And all of a sudden, the goel about whom Boaz had spoken passed by. "Come over," he called, "and sit down here, my friend." So he came over and sat down.

²Then Boaz took ten of the town's elders and said, "Sit down here," so they sat down. ³Then he said to the goel, "Naomi, who has returned from the region of Moab, is selling the parcel of land that belongs to our brother Elimelech. ⁴I thought I should inform you saying, 'Buy it in the presence of the people sitting here, and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you want to redeem it, redeem it. But if it will not be redeemed, then tell me, so that I can know, because there is no one else in line to redeem it. I am after you.'"

"I will redeem it," he said.

⁵Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the field from Naomi's hand, you will also acquire Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the deceased, in order to raise up the name of the deceased over his inheritance."

⁶The kinsman said, "Then I cannot redeem it for myself, or else I might endanger my own inheritance.

† Hebrew Goel

You, take my right of redemption for yourself, for I cannot redeem it.”

⁷ Now in the past in Israel, one removed his sandal and gave it to another, in order to finalize the redemption and transfer of a matter. This was a legal transaction in Israel.

⁸ So the kinsman said to Boaz, “Buy it for yourself,” then took off his shoe.

⁹ Boaz announced to the elders and all the people: “You are witnesses today that I have bought from Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and Mahlon. ¹⁰ Moreover, I have acquired Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon to be my wife in order to raise up the name of the deceased over his inheritance, so that the name of the deceased will not be cut off from his brothers or from the gate of his town. You are witnesses today.”

¹¹ All the people at the gate and the elders said, “We are witnesses. May ADONAI make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, who both built up the house of Israel. May you prosper in Ephrath and be renowned in Beth-Lehem. ¹² May your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, † through the seed that ADONAI will give you by this young woman.”

¹³ So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. When he went to her, ADONAI enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son. ¹⁴ Then the women said to Naomi, “Blessed be ADONAI, who has not left you without a goel today. May his name be famous throughout Israel. ¹⁵ Moreover, he will be to you a renewer of life and a sustainer of your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you and is better to you than seven sons, has given birth to him.”

¹⁶ Naomi took the child and held it to her bosom, and took care of him. ¹⁷ The neighboring women gave him a name saying “A son has been born to Naomi!” So they called him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

¹⁸ These are the generations of Perez: Perez fathered Hezron, ¹⁹ Hezron fathered Ram, Ram fathered Amminadab, ²⁰ Amminadab fathered Nahshon, Nahshon fathered Salmon, ²¹ Salmon fathered Boaz, Boaz fathered Obed, ²² Obed fathered Jesse, and Jesse fathered David.

1 Samuel

1 Samuel Introduction

The book of Samuel, or , is named for the text's primary character. Samuel was a prophet and judge over Israel. Until the 15th century, the Hebrew text of Samuel was presented as a single book, inclusive of what we call 1 Samuel and 2 Samuel; but from the time of the Septuagint, it was bifurcated in other Bibles into the two books. The authorship of 1 Samuel is uncertain. Some believe the writing is from the hand of officials within the royal courts of David or Solomon. Though reasonable conjecture exists, much of the first twenty-four chapters could be attributed directly to Samuel himself, as these chapters plainly describe his life and work.

1 Samuel spans the time preceding the birth of Samuel, near the middle of the 12th century BCE, through Saul's death. Birth and death bookmark the approximate 140 years of its storyline.

Like that of several other notables in Scripture, Samuel's story began with a "miracle" birth. Samuel's formerly barren mother, Hannah, thus dedicated the lad to God. He was subsequently nurtured by Eli the High Priest. Eli's progeny were unworthy to judge Israel. In stark contrast to Eli's ungodly sons, Samuel exhibited godly character. Samuel's unblemished career bridged the era from when judges ruled Israel until the people demanded a king. Samuel served at the hinge of this transitory period in Israel's history. He moderated the chaotic array of the Jewish tribes that became an amalgamated nation under a centralized monarchy.

1 Samuel details much of our core knowledge about three of the most important figures in biblical history: Samuel, Saul, and David. The Prophet Samuel is rare, insofar as he may be the only biblical figure, other than , whose biography is declared from before his birth, throughout his career, and is even extended beyond his death. And, like , Samuel's birth narrative contains supernatural elements worthy of a divine call. Within 1 Samuel, students of Scripture learn of the error of King Saul's prideful leadership, which is aptly compared to the humble servant leadership of King David.

Prone to blame, and dissatisfied with corporate, ecclesiastical, or even national leadership, we do well to listen to Samuel's warning. This is what Samuel spoke to a nation that had initially revered God but later rejected Him as their king: "If you fear and worship Him, and listen to His voice and do not rebel against the command of , then both you as well as the king who reigns over you will be following your God. But if you do not listen to the voice of and rebel against the command of , then the hand of will be against you and against your fathers" (1Sam. 12:14-15). Perhaps it is unwise to blame our leaders or rail against the government excessively. Rather, Samuel would have us look inside and identify any resident ungodly attitudes. Seek God; obey God. Samuel suggests that in so doing, both you and the king will turn around and follow God.

A Barren Woman's Petition is Granted

1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim-Zophim, of the hill country of Ephraim—his name was Elkanah son of Jeroham son of Elihu son of Tohu son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. ² He had two wives: the name of the one was Hannah and the name of the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah was childless.

³ Now this man used to go up from his town every year to worship and to sacrifice to ADONAI - Tzva'ot in Shiloh. † (The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were kohanim of ADONAI there.) ⁴ Then on the designated day Elkanah would sacrifice and give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters, ⁵ but to Hannah he would give only one portion—even though he loved Hannah—for ADONAI had closed her womb. ⁶ Her rival would taunt her bitterly to provoke her, because ADONAI had closed her womb. ⁷ So it was year after year, whenever she went up to the House of ADONAI, that she would provoke her; so she wept and would not eat.

⁸ Then her husband Elkanah would say to her, "Hannah, why are you crying? Why won't you eat? Why is your heart so sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

⁹ After eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah got up. Now Eli the kohen was sitting on his seat by the doorpost of the Temple of ADONAI. ¹⁰ While her soul was bitter, she prayed to ADONAI and wept. ¹¹ So she made a vow and said, " ADONAI - Tzva'ot, if You will indeed look upon the affliction of Your handmaid, remember me and not forget Your handmaid, but grant Your

handmaid a son, then I will give him to ADONAI all the days of his life and no razor will ever touch his head."

¹² It came to pass, as she prayed long before ADONAI, that Eli was watching her mouth. ¹³ Now Hannah was praying in her heart—only her lips were moving, but her voice could not be heard. So Eli thought she was drunk. ¹⁴ Then Eli said to her, "How long will you be drunk? Get rid of your wine!"

¹⁵ But in response Hannah said, "No, my lord, I am a woman with an oppressed spirit! I haven't been drinking wine or beer. Instead I've been pouring out my soul before ADONAI. ¹⁶ Don't consider your handmaid a wicked woman. For out of my great anguish and grief I've been praying until now."

¹⁷ Then Eli responded, "Go in shalom, and may the God of Israel grant your petition that you asked of Him." ††

¹⁸ "May your maidservant find favor in your eyes," she said. So the woman went her way; she ate, and her countenance was no longer dejected.

¹⁹ They rose up early in the morning and worshiped before ADONAI, then went back to their home to Ramah. Then Elkanah was intimate with his wife Hannah, and ADONAI remembered her. ²⁰ So it came to pass at the turn of the year that Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son. She called his name Samuel, "because I have asked ADONAI for him."

²¹ When the man Elkanah and all his household went up to offer the annual sacrifice to ADONAI and to fulfill his vow offering, ²² Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "When the child is weaned, I will bring him, so he may appear before ADONAI and stay there forever."

†† cf. Acts 15:33.

²³ So her husband Elkanah said to her, “Do what seems best to you. Stay until you have weaned him—only may ADONAI establish His word.” So the woman stayed home and nursed her son until she weaned him. ²⁴ When she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with three bulls, one ephah of flour, and a jar of wine, and brought him to the House of ADONAI in Shiloh, while the child was still young.

²⁵ After they slaughtered the bull, they brought the boy to Eli. ²⁶ “It’s me, my lord!” she said. “As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman that stood by you here, praying to ADONAI. ²⁷ For this boy I prayed, and ADONAI has granted me my petition that I asked of Him. ²⁸ So I in turn dedicate him to ADONAI—as long as he lives he is dedicated to ADONAI.” Then he bowed in worship there before ADONAI.

Hannah’s Prayer of Exultation

2 Then Hannah prayed and said, †
 “My heart exults in ADONAI, my horn is lifted high in ADONAI.
 I smile wide over my enemies,
 for I rejoice in Your salvation.
² There is none holy as ADONAI, for there is none besides You,
 nor is there any rock like our God.
³ Boast no more so proudly—insolence comes out of your mouth.
 For ADONAI is the all-knowing God, and by Him deeds are weighed.
⁴ The bows of the mighty are broken,
 but the stumbling are girded with strength.
⁵ Those full hire themselves for bread, but those starving hunger no more.
 Even the barren gives birth to seven,
 but she with many sons languishes.
⁶ ADONAI causes death and makes alive,
 He brings down to Sheol and raises up.
⁷ ADONAI makes poor and makes rich,
 He brings low and also lifts up.
⁸ He raises the helpless from the dust.
 He lifts the needy from the dunghill, to make them sit with nobles,
 granting them a seat of honor.
 For the earth’s pillars are ADONAI’s, and He has set the world on them.
⁹ He guards the steps of His godly ones, but the wicked are silenced in darkness.
 For one does not prevail by might.
¹⁰ Those who oppose ADONAI will be shattered.
 He thunders against them in heaven.
 He judges the ends of the earth.
 He gives strength to His king, exalting the horn of His anointed one.” ††

† cf. Luke 1:46-55. †† cf. Luke 1:69.

Eli’s Sons Sin against ADONAI

¹¹ Then Elkanah went home to Ramah, while the boy served ADONAI before Eli the kohen.

¹² Now Eli’s sons were worthless men ‡; they did not acknowledge ADONAI. ¹³ Now this was the custom of the kohanim with the people: whenever any man offered a sacrifice, the kohen’s servant would come along, while the meat was boiling, with a three-pronged fork in his hand, ¹⁴ and he would thrust it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron or pot. Whatever the fork brought up, the kohen would take for himself. This is how they dealt with all the Israelites who came there to Shiloh. ¹⁵ Even before they burned the fat, the kohen’s servant would come and say to the one offering sacrifice, “Give the kohen meat for roasting, since he will not accept boiled meat from you—only raw.”

¹⁶ If the man said to him, “Let them first burn the fat up as smoke, and then take as much as you desire,” he would reply, “No! But you must give it now—otherwise, I will take it by force.” ¹⁷ Thus the sin of the young men was very great before ADONAI, for the men despised the offering of ADONAI.

²² Now Eli had grown very old. He heard all that his sons did to all Israel, and how they slept with the women who served at the doorway of the Tent of Meeting. ²³ So he said to them, “Why do you do such things? For I hear evil reports from all these people concerning you. ²⁴ No, my sons! For this is not a good report that I hear ADONAI’s people spreading around. ²⁵ If a man sins against another, God may pardon him; but if a man sins against ADONAI, who will intercede for him?” But they did not listen to the voice of their father, because ADONAI desired to put them to death. ²⁶ Meanwhile, the child Samuel kept growing and increasing in favor both with ADONAI and also with men. ††

²⁷ Now there came a man of God to Eli and said to him, “Thus says ADONAI: Did I not reveal Myself clearly to the house of your father when they were in Egypt belonging to Pharaoh’s palace? ²⁸ Also did I not choose them from all the tribes of Israel to be My kohanim, to officiate at My altar, to burn incense and to wear an ephod before Me? Did I not give to the house of your father all the fire offerings of Bnei-Yisrael? ²⁹ Why do you kick at My sacrifice and My offering which I have commanded in My dwelling, and honor your sons above Me, by fattening yourselves with the choicest of every offering of Israel My people? ³⁰ Therefore ADONAI God of Israel declares, I indeed said that your house and your father's house should walk before Me forever. But now declares ADONAI, far be it from Me! For I will honor those who honor Me, but those who despise Me will be disdained. ³¹ Behold, the days are coming when I will cut short your strength and the strength of your father's house, so that no one in your household will reach old age. ³² Moreover, you will behold the distress of My dwelling, despite all that is good that has been done to Israel. So no one in your household will reach old age, forever. ³³ Any man of yours that I did not cut off from My altar would make your eyes weep and your soul grieve. So all the increase of your household will die as young men. ³⁴ Now this will be the sign to you that will come on your two sons—Hophni and Phinehas—on the same day both of them will die.

³⁵ "Yet I will raise up for Myself a faithful kohen who will do according to what is in My heart and My mind. Then I will build him an enduring house, and he will walk before My anointed one all the time. ³⁶ Anyone left in your household will come and bow low to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and will say: 'Please, assign me to one of the priestly offices so that I may eat a morsel of bread.'"

Calling of Samuel

3 Now the boy Samuel was in the service of ADONAI under Eli. In those days the word of ADONAI was rare—there were no visions breaking through. ² One day, Eli was lying down in his place—now his eyes had grown dim so that he could not see, ³ and the lamp of God had not yet gone out. Samuel was lying down in ADONAI's Temple, where the ark of God was. ⁴ Then ADONAI called, "Samuel!" So he answered, "Here I am." ⁵ Then he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me."

But he replied, "I didn't call—go back to sleep." So he went back and lay down.

⁶ Then ADONAI called Samuel yet again. So Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me."

But he answered, "I didn't call, my son—go back to sleep." ⁷ Now Samuel had not experienced ADONAI yet, since the word of ADONAI had not yet been revealed to him.

⁸ ADONAI called Samuel again for the third time. So he got up and went to Eli, and said "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that ADONAI was calling the boy.

⁹ So Eli said to Samuel, "Go back to sleep, and if He calls you, say: 'Speak, ADONAI, for Your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went back and lay down in his place. ¹⁰ Then ADONAI came and stood and called as at the other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" Then Samuel said, "Speak, for Your servant is listening."

¹¹ Then ADONAI said to Samuel, "Behold, I am about to do something in Israel at which both ears of everyone that hears it will tingle. ¹² In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. ¹³ For I have told him that I am about to judge his house forever for the iniquity that he knew about, because his sons brought a curse on themselves yet he did not rebuke them. ¹⁴ Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house will never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering."

¹⁵ Then Samuel lay down until the morning, when he opened the doors of the House of ADONAI. But Samuel was afraid to tell Eli about the vision. ¹⁶ Then Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son."

"Here I am," he replied.

¹⁷ "What is the word that He has spoken to you?" he said. "Please don't hide it from me. May God do so to you and even more if you hide anything at all from me that He spoke to you." ¹⁸ So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing. Then Eli said, "He is ADONAI. May He do what is good in His eyes."

¹⁹ So Samuel grew up and ADONAI was with him, and let none of his words fall to the ground. ²⁰ Then all Israel from Dan to Beer-Sheba knew that Samuel was entrusted as a prophet of ADONAI. ²¹ ADONAI started to appear once more in Shiloh, for ADONAI revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of ADONAI.

Defeat and Loss of the Ark

4 So it was that the word of Samuel went forth to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines in battle. They camped at Eben-Ezer while the Philistines camped in Aphek. ² The Philistines drew up in battle array to meet Israel, and when the battle was fought, Israel was defeated before the Philistines, who killed 4,000 men on the battlefield.

³ When the people came back to the camp, the elders of Israel asked, "Why did ADONAI bring defeat on us today before the Philistines? Let's fetch the ark of the covenant of ADONAI from Shiloh that He may come among us and deliver us from the hand of our enemies." ⁴ So the people sent to Shiloh, and from there they carried the ark of the covenant of ADONAI - Tzva'ot who sits above the cheruvim. Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. ⁵ Now when the ark of the covenant of ADONAI entered the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the ground resounded.

⁶ When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they wondered, "What's this noise of a great shout in the camp of the Hebrews?" When they realized that the ark of ADONAI had come into the camp, ⁷ the Philistines were afraid, for they said, "God has come into the camp." So they said, "Woe to us! For nothing like this has ever happened before. ⁸ Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of this mighty God? This is the God that struck down the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. ⁹ Be strong, and conduct yourselves like men, O Philistines, or else you will become enslaved to the Hebrews as they have been to you. Be like men and fight!"

¹⁰ So the Philistines did fight and Israel was defeated—they fled every man to his tent. The slaughter was very great, as 30,000 of Israel's foot soldiers fell.

¹² Now that same day a man of Benjamin ran from the battlefield and came to Shiloh with his clothes torn and dust on his head. ¹³ When he arrived, behold, Eli was sitting on his seat by the wayside watching, for his heart was trembling for the ark of God. When the man arrived to announce it in the town, the entire town cried out. ¹⁴ And when Eli heard the noise of the outcry, he asked, "What's this noisy commotion?" So the man rushed and came and told Eli.

¹⁵ Now Eli was 98 years old, and his eyes were fixed in a blind stare. ¹⁶ Then the man said to Eli, "I am one coming from the battlefield—I escaped from the battlefield today."

"What is happening, my son?" he asked.

¹⁷ And the messenger answered and said, "Israel fled before the Philistines and there has also been a great slaughter among the people. Also your two sons died—Hophni and Phinehas—and the ark of God was captured." ¹⁸ As soon as he mentioned of the ark of God, Eli fell backward from his seat beside the town gate. His neck broke and he died, for he was old and heavy. He had judged Israel 40 years.

¹⁹ Now his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child and about to deliver. When she heard the report that the ark of God was captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she crouched down and gave birth because she was seized with her labor pains. ²⁰ As she was dying, the women attending her said to her, "Don't be afraid, for you have brought forth a son!" But she did not respond or take it to heart. ²¹ Then she named the child Ichabod † saying, "The glory has departed from Israel"—because of the capture of the ark of God, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. ²² So she said, "The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been taken!"

The Ark Afflicts the Philistines

5 Now the Philistines had taken the ark of God and they brought it from Eben-Ezer to Ashdod. ² The Philistines took the ark of God and brought it to the temple of Dagon, and placed it beside Dagon. ³ But when the Ashdodites arose early next morning, to everyone's surprise, Dagon had fallen to his face on the ground before the ark of ADONAI. So they took Dagon up and put him back in his place. ⁴ But when they arose early the following morning, surprisingly,

† Hebrew Ey-ka-vod

no glory

Dagon had fallen to his face on the ground before the ark of ADONAI, and the head of Dagon and both palms of his hands were cut off on the threshold; only Dagon's trunk was left on him. ⁵ That is why to this day neither the priests of Dagon nor any who enter Dagon's house will tread on Dagon's threshold in Ashdod.

⁶ Then the hand of ADONAI was heavy upon the Ashdodites, ravaging them and afflicting Ashdod and its vicinity with tumors. ⁷ When the men of Ashdod saw what was happening they said, "The ark of the God of Israel must not stay with us, for His hand has dealt harshly against us as well as against our god Dagon."

⁸ So they sent word and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them and asked, "What will we do with the ark of the God of Israel?"

They replied, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried over to Gath." So they carried the ark of the God of Israel over. ⁹ But it came about, that after they had carried it around, that the hand of ADONAI was against the city causing very great panic, as He struck the people of the city, from the youngest to the oldest, so that tumors broke out on them.

¹⁰ So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. But it came about as the ark of God came to Ekron that the Ekronites cried out saying, "They've brought around the ark of the God of Israel to us to kill us and our people!"

¹¹ So they sent word and gathered all the lords of the Philistines and said, "Send the ark of the God of Israel away—let it go back to its own place, so it won't kill us and our people!" For a panic of death was throughout the entire city, as God's hand was very heavy there.

¹² The people who did not die were afflicted with tumors, so that the outcry of the city went up to heaven.

Philistines Send the Ark Back

6 After the ark of ADONAI had been in the country of the Philistines seven months, ² the Philistines summoned the priests and the diviners saying, "What should we do with the ark of ADONAI? Tell us how we should send it back to its place."

³ So they said, "If you are going to send the ark of the God of Israel back, do not send it empty. For you must surely return it with a guilt offering. Then you will be healed and it will be revealed to you why His hand has not been removed from you."

⁴ "What guilt offering should we return to Him?" they asked.

So they said, "Five golden tumors and five golden mice—according to the number of the lords of the Philistines, for one plague was on each of you and on your lords. ⁵ So you will make images of your tumors and images of your mice that mar the land, and you must give glory to the God of Israel. Perhaps He will lighten His hand off of you, your gods and your land. ⁶ Why harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He afflicted them, didn't they send them away so they left? ⁷ Now therefore get a new cart ready, two milk cows on which there has never been a yoke, hitch the cows to the cart, and return their calves home, away from them. ⁸ Then take the ark of ADONAI and place it on the cart; also put the golden objects that you return to Him as a guilt offering in a box by its side. Then send it off so it may go. ⁹ Then watch—if it goes up by the way of its own territory to Beth-Shemesh, then it was He who inflicted on us this great harm. But if not, then we will know that it was not His hand that struck us; it just happened to us by chance.”

¹⁰ So the people did so—they took two milk cows and hitched them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home. ¹¹ Then they placed the ark of ADONAI on the cart together with the box, the golden mice, and the models of their tumors. ¹² So the cows took the way straight toward Beth-Shemesh—they kept along the same highway, lowing as they went, and turned aside neither to the right nor to the left. The lords of the Philistines followed them to the border of Beth-Shemesh.

¹⁴ The cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth-Shemesh and stopped there, where there was a large stone. Then they chopped the wood of the cart and offered up the cows as a burnt offering to ADONAI. ¹⁵ The Levites took down the ark of ADONAI and the box that was with it that contained the gold objects, and placed them on the large stone. Then the people of Beth-Shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrifices to ADONAI that day.

¹⁶ Now when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron that same day. ¹⁷ So these are the golden tumors that the Philistines returned as a guilt offering to ADONAI: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath, one for Ekron.

¹⁸ The golden mice also corresponded to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords—both the fortified cities and their country villages—as far as the large stone on which they had set down the ark of ADONAI. It remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth-Shemesh.

¹⁹ Then He struck down some of the men of Beth-Shemesh because they had gazed into the ark of ADONAI. He struck down the people—70 out of 50,000 men—the people mourned because ADONAI had struck the people a great slaughter. ²⁰ So the men of Beth-Shemesh asked, “Who is able to stand before ADONAI—this holy God? To whom should it go up from us?”

²¹ So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-Jearim, saying, “The Philistines have brought back the ark of ADONAI. Come down—bring it up to you.”

Samuel's Victory at Mizpah

⁷ Then the men of Kiriath-Jearim came and fetched up the ark of ADONAI, brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and consecrated Eleazar his son to guard the ark of ADONAI. ² From the day the ark rested in Kiriath-Jearim it was a long time, 20 years, and the whole house of Israel yearned after ADONAI. ³ Then Samuel spoke to the whole house of Israel saying, “If you are returning to ADONAI with all your heart, then remove the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you, direct your hearts to ADONAI and serve Him only. Then He will deliver you from the hand of the Philistines.” ⁴ So Bnei-Yisrael removed the Baalim [†] and the Ashtaroth, and served ADONAI alone.

⁵ Then Samuel said, “Gather all Israel to Mizpah and I will pray to ADONAI for you.” ⁶ So they gathered together at Mizpah, drew water and poured it out before ADONAI. They fasted on that day and said there, “We have sinned against ADONAI.” Then Samuel was judging Bnei-Yisrael at Mizpah.

⁷ Now when the Philistines heard that Bnei-Yisrael had assembled at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines marched against Israel. When Bnei-Yisrael heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. ⁸ So Bnei-Yisrael said to Samuel, “Don't stop crying out to ADONAI our God for us, so He may save us from the hand of the Philistines!”

⁹ Samuel took a nursing lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to ADONAI. Then Samuel cried out to ADONAI for Israel and ADONAI answered him.

¹⁰ As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel. But ADONAI thundered with loud thunder on that day against the Philistines and confused them so that they were defeated before Israel. ¹¹ Then the men of Israel went out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and struck them down all the way to below Beth-Car.

¹² Then Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and named it Eben-Ezer ^{††} saying, “Thus far ADONAI has helped us.” ¹³ So the Philistines were subdued and they did not invade the border of Israel anymore. The hand of ADONAI was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. ¹⁴ The towns that the Philistines had taken from Israel, from Ekron to Gath, were restored to Israel, and Israel recovered its territory from the hand of the Philistines. There was also peace between Israel and the Amorites.

¹⁵ Now Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

¹⁶ He used to go annually on a circuit to Beth-El and Gilgal and Mizpah, and would judge over Israel in all those places. ¹⁷ Then his return was to Ramah, because his home was there, and from there he would judge Israel. So he built an altar to ADONAI there.

Israel Demands a King

8 Now when Samuel grew old, he appointed his sons as judges over Israel. ² The name of his first-born was Joel and the name of his second Abijah—they were judges in Beer-Sheba. ³ His sons, however, did not walk in his ways, but turned aside after dishonest gain—they took bribes and perverted justice.

⁴ Then all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah, ⁵ and said to him, “Behold, you have grown old and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now appoint for us a king to judge us—like all the nations.” ⁶ But the matter was displeasing in Samuel’s eyes when they said, “Give us a king to judge us.” So Samuel prayed to ADONAI.

⁷ Then ADONAI said to Samuel, “Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you. For they have not rejected you, rather they have rejected Me from being king over them. ⁸ Like all the deeds that they have done since the day I brought them out of Egypt to this day—forsaking Me and worshiping other gods—so they are doing to you also. ⁹ So now, listen to their voice. However, you must earnestly forewarn them, and declare to them the rulings of the king who will reign over them.”

¹⁰ Now Samuel reported all the words of ADONAI to the people who were asking him for a king. ¹¹ “This will be the practice of the king that will reign over you,” he said. “He will draft your sons and assign them as his charioteers and horsemen, and they will run before his chariots. ¹² He will appoint them as commanders of thousands and captains of fifties, also some to plow his fields, reap his harvest, make his weapons of war and the equipment for his chariots. ¹³ Also he will take your daughters to be perfumers, cooks and bakers. ¹⁴ He will seize the best of your fields, vineyards, and olive groves, and give them to his courtiers. ¹⁵ He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage and give it to his officials and slaves. ¹⁶ He will also take your male and female servants, your best young men and your donkeys and make them do his work. ¹⁷ He will also take the tenth of your flocks. Then you yourselves will become his slaves. ¹⁸ When the day comes and you cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves, ADONAI will not answer you on that day.”

¹⁹ But the people refused to listen to Samuel, and they said, “No! But a king should be over us!” ²⁰ So we may become like all the nations—having our king who will judge us, go out before us, and fight our battles.”

²¹ After Samuel heard all the words of the people, he reported them back in the hearing of ADONAI. ²² ADONAI said to Samuel, “Listen to their voice and appoint a king to reign for them.” So Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Go, each one to his town.”

Saul Meets Samuel

9 Now there was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish son of Abiel son of Zeror son of Becorath son of Aphiah son of a Benjamite. He was a mighty man of valor ¹² and he had a son whose name was Saul—young and handsome—there was no one among Bnei-Yisrael better than him. From his shoulders and up he was taller than any of the people.

³ Now the donkeys of Kish, Saul’s father, were lost. So Kish said to his son Saul, “Take now one of the servants with you, get up and look for the donkeys.” ⁴ So he passed through the hill country of Ephraim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then he passed through the land of Benjamin, but still did not find them. ⁵ When they arrived in the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant with him, “Come, let’s go back—otherwise my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and start worrying about us.”

⁶ Then his servant said to him, “Behold now, there is a man of God in this town, and he is a man held in honor—everything he says is sure to come true. Now, let’s go there. Perhaps he’ll tell us the way we should go.”

⁷ Then said Saul to his servant, “But look, if we go, what would we bring the man? For the bread is gone from our sacks, and there is nothing to bring to the man of God as a present. What do we have?”

⁸ The servant answered Saul again and said, “Behold, I have in my hand a quarter of a shekel of silver. I will give it to the man of God and he will tell us our way.” ⁹ (Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he said, “Come, let’s go to the seer”—for today’s prophet was formerly called a seer.)

¹⁰ Then Saul said to his servant, “Well said. Come, let’s go!” So they went to the town where the man of God was. ¹¹ As they went up the hill to the town, they found some girls going out to draw water, and they asked them, “Is the seer here?” ¹² They answered them and said, “He is there, ahead of you. Hurry now, for he has come today to the town because people have a sacrifice at the high place today. ¹³ As soon as you enter the town, you’ll find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he must first bless the sacrifice—afterward the guests can eat. So now, get up, for you will find him at once.” ¹⁴ So they went up to the town. As they were entering the town, behold, Samuel was coming out toward them to go up to the high place.

¹⁵ One day before Saul came, ADONAI had revealed to Samuel saying: ¹⁶ “Tomorrow about this time, I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you will anoint him ruler over My people Israel. He will deliver My people from the hand of the Philistines. I have observed My people, because their cry has come to Me."

¹⁷ When Samuel saw Saul, ADONAI spoke to him, "Behold, this is the man I told you about. This one will govern My people." ¹⁸ Then Saul approached Samuel inside the gate and asked, "Tell me, please, where the seer's house is?"

¹⁹ Samuel answered Saul by saying, "I am the seer. Go up ahead of me to the high place. For today you will eat with me. In the morning when I send you off, I will tell you everything that is in your heart. ²⁰ As for the donkeys that you lost three days ago, don't set your heart on them, for they have been found. Now, for whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you and for all your father's household?"

²¹ Saul answered by saying, "Am I not a Benjamite, from the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my clan is the least of all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? So why do you say such things to me?"

²² Then Samuel took Saul and his servant and brought them into the hall, and gave them a place at the head of the guests, who numbered about 30 people. ²³ Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion that I gave you and told you to set aside." ²⁴ So the cook took up the thigh, raised it, and set it before Saul. Then he said, "Here is what has been reserved! Set it before you and eat, because it has been kept until this appointed time for you, since I said, 'I have invited the people.'" So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

²⁵ When they came down from the high place to the town, he spoke with Saul on the roof. ²⁶ They rose early, and at daybreak Samuel called to Saul on the roof saying, "Get up, so I may send you off." So Saul got up, and both of them, he and Samuel, went outside. ²⁷ As they were going down toward the edge of town, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell your servant to go ahead of us and pass on, but as for you, stand still awhile, so that I may proclaim to you the word of God."

Saul Anointed King

10 Then Samuel took the vial of oil and poured it on his head. Then he kissed him and said, "Has ADONAI not anointed you ruler over His inheritance? ² When you leave me today, you will find two men near the tomb of Rachel in the territory of Benjamin at Zelzah, and they will say to you: 'The donkeys you set out to look for have been found—behold, your father has dropped the matter about the donkeys and is worried about you saying, 'What should I do about my son?'" ³ Then you will go on from there until you reach the terebinth of Tabor, and there three men going up to God at Beth-El will meet you, one carrying three young goats, another carrying three loaves of bread, and the other carrying a jug of wine. ⁴ Then they will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you will receive from their hand. ⁵ After that, you will arrive at the hill of God, where the garrison of the Philistines is. It will come about, as soon as you enter the town, that you will meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place, preceded by a harp, a tambourine, and a flute, and they will be prophesying.

⁶ Then the Ruach of ADONAI will seize you and you will prophesy with them—you will turn into another man. ⁷ Now when these signs happen to you, do for yourself what the occasion requires, for God is with you. ⁸ Afterward, you are to go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I will come down to you to offer burnt offerings and sacrifice fellowship offerings. Seven days you will wait, until I come to you and instruct you what you should do."

⁹ Then it happened, as Saul turned his back to leave Samuel, that God transformed his heart, and all those signs came to pass that day. ¹⁰ When they arrived there, at the hill, behold, a band of prophets did meet him, and suddenly, the Ruach of God overtook him, and subsequently, he prophesied among them. ¹¹ So when all who knew him formerly saw him prophesying with the prophets, they said one to another, "What has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?" ¹² (Someone there asked, "Who is their father?") Therefore it became a proverb, "Is Saul also among the prophets?" ¹³ When he finished prophesying, he came to the high place.

¹⁴ Now Saul's uncle asked him and his servant, "Where did you go?" And he said, "To look for the donkeys. But when we saw that they could not be found, we went to Samuel."

¹⁵ Saul's uncle said, "Tell me now, what did Samuel say to you?"

¹⁶ "He assured us that the donkeys had been found," Saul said to his uncle. But concerning the matter of kingship about which Samuel spoke, he told him nothing.

¹⁷ Then Samuel summoned the people to ADONAI at Mizpah. ¹⁸ He said to Bnei-Yisrael, "Thus says ADONAI, God of Israel: I brought Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you from the hand of the Egyptians and from the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you. ¹⁹ But today you have spurned your God, who is your deliverer from all your calamities and your distresses. For you said to Him: 'No! Rather set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before ADONAI by your tribes and by your thousands."

²⁰ So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was chosen. ²¹ Then he brought forward the tribe of Benjamin by its clans, and the clan of the Matrites was chosen. Finally, Saul son of Kish was chosen. But when they looked for him, he could not be found. ²² Therefore, they inquired of ADONAI further, "Has the man come here yet?" ADONAI answered, "He has just hidden himself among the baggage." ²³ So they ran and brought him from there. When he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders up.

²⁴ Then Samuel announced to all the people, “Do you see the one ADONAI has chosen? Surely there is no one like him among all the people!”

Then all the people shouted and said, “Long live the king!” ²⁵ Then Samuel explained to the people the rules of kingship, wrote them in a scroll and placed it before ADONAI. Then Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. ²⁶ Saul also went home to Gibeah, accompanied by men of valor whose hearts God had touched. ²⁷ But certain worthless men said, “How can this one save us?” So they despised him and brought him no present. But he kept silent.

Saul's First Victory

11 Now Nahash the Ammonite marched up and encamped against Jabesh-Gilead. Then all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, “Make a treaty with us, and we will serve you.”

² But Nahash the Ammonite said to them, “Only on this condition will I make a treaty with you—by gouging out the right eye of every one of you, thus I will bring disgrace on all Israel.”

³ So the elders of Jabesh said to him, “Give us seven days’ respite, so we may send messengers throughout all the territory of Israel. If no one comes to deliver us, we will surrender to you.”

⁴ When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and spoke these words in the hearing of the people, all the people lifted up their voice and wept. ⁵ Now behold, Saul was coming from the field behind the oxen, so Saul asked, “Why are the people weeping?” Then they told him the words of the men of Jabesh. ⁶ Then the Ruach of God suddenly rushed upon Saul when he heard those words, and his anger blazed. ⁷ So he took a pair of oxen, cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers saying, “Whoever does not come out after Saul and after Samuel, so will it be done to his oxen.” So the dread of ADONAI fell on the people, and they came out as one man. ⁸ He numbered them in Bezek, and Bnei-Yisrael were 300,000 and the men of Judah 30,000.

⁹ So they said to the messengers who came, “Thus will you say to the men of Jabesh-Gilead: Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will have deliverance.” The messengers came and told the men of Jabesh, and they were glad.

¹⁰ Then the men of Jabesh said, “Tomorrow we will surrender to you and you can do to us whatever seems good to you.” ¹¹ So it was on the following day that Saul divided the people into three columns; they penetrated into the midst of the camp at the morning watch and struck down the Ammonites until the heat of day. It came about that the survivors were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

¹² Then the people said to Samuel, “Who was it who said, ‘Should Saul reign over us?’ Bring the men, so we may put them to death.” †

¹³ But Saul replied, “No man will be put to death this day, for today ADONAI has brought deliverance to Israel.” ¹⁴ Then Samuel said to the people, “Come, let’s go to Gilgal and reaffirm the kingdom there.” ¹⁵ So all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before ADONAI in Gilgal. There they sacrificed fellowship offerings before ADONAI, and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

Samuel Rebukes Israel

12 Then Samuel said to all Israel, “Behold, I have listened to your voice in all you said to me, and have set a king over you. ² Now here is the king who will go before you, while I am old and gray. Also here are my sons with you. I have gone before you from my youth to this day. ³ Here I am. Witness against me before ADONAI and before His anointed. Whose ox have I taken or whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I defrauded or whom have I oppressed? From whose hand have I taken a bribe to look the other way? I will restore it to you.”

⁴ They replied, “You haven’t defrauded us or oppressed us or taken anything from anyone’s hand.”

⁵ Then he said to them, “ADONAI is then a witness against you, and His anointed is a witness this day that you have not found anything in my hand.”

“He is a witness,” they replied.

⁶ Then Samuel said to the people, “It is ADONAI who appointed Moses and Aaron and who brought your fathers up from the land of Egypt. ⁷ So now, stand still, so that I may plead with you before ADONAI concerning all the righteous acts of ADONAI, which He did for you and your fathers. ⁸ When Jacob entered Egypt and your fathers cried out to ADONAI, then ADONAI sent Moses and Aaron who brought your fathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place. ⁹ But they forgot ADONAI their God, so He gave them over into the hand of Sisera, captain of the army of Hazor, into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, who fought against them. ¹⁰ So they cried out to ADONAI and said, ‘We have sinned because we have forsaken ADONAI and have worshiped the Baalim and the Ashtaroth. But now deliver us from the hand of our enemies and we will worship You.’ ¹¹ Then ADONAI sent Jerubbaal, Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you from the hand of your enemies on every side, so that you might live securely. ¹² But when you saw Nahash king of the Ammonites marching against you, you said to me, ‘No! But a king must reign over us!’—even though ADONAI your God is your king.

¹³ “Now therefore, here is the king whom you have chosen and whom you have asked for, and behold, ADONAI has set him as king over you. ¹⁴ If you fear ADONAI and worship Him, and listen to His voice and do not rebel against the command of ADONAI, then both you as well as the king who reigns over you will be following ADONAI your God. ¹⁵ But if you do not listen to the voice of ADONAI and rebel against the command of ADONAI, then the hand of ADONAI will be against you and against your fathers. ¹⁶ Now stand by and see this great thing that ADONAI will do before your eyes. ¹⁷ Is it not wheat harvest season today? I will call to ADONAI, that He may send thunder and rain. Then you will know and see that your wickedness is great which you have done in the sight of ADONAI by asking for yourselves a king."

¹⁸ So Samuel prayed to ADONAI, and ADONAI sent thunder and rain that day. Then all the people greatly feared ADONAI and Samuel, ¹⁹ and all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to ADONAI your God, that we would not die, for we have added to all our sins this evil by asking for ourselves a king."

²⁰ Samuel said to the people, "Fear not! Indeed you have done all this evil, yet do not turn aside from following ADONAI, but worship ADONAI with all your heart. ²¹ Do not turn aside to go after empty things that cannot profit or deliver, for they are futile. ²² For ADONAI will not forsake His people for His great Name's sake, † because it has pleased ADONAI to make you a people to Himself. ²³ Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against ADONAI by ceasing to pray for you! Yet I will keep instructing you in the good and straight way. ²⁴ Only fear ADONAI and worship Him in truth with all your heart, considering how magnificently He has dealt with you. ²⁵ But if you persist in acting wickedly, you will be swept away, both you and your king."

Saul's Misguided Sacrifice

13 Saul was 30 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for 42 years over Israel. ² Now Saul chose for himself 3,000 men of Israel, of which 2,000 were with Saul in Michmas and in the hill country of Beth-El, and 1,000 were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin. The rest of the troops he sent away, each one to his tent.

³ Now Jonathan struck down the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard of it. So Saul blew the shofar throughout the country, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear." ⁴ All Israel heard the news, "Saul had struck down the garrison of the Philistines, so Israel has become a stench to the Philistines." Then the people were summoned to Saul at Gilgal. ⁵ Meanwhile the Philistines assembled themselves to fight with Israel: 30,000 chariots, 6,000 horsemen and troops as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They marched up and camped in Michmas, east of Beth-Aven.

⁶ When the men of Israel saw that they were in trouble, because the people were hard-pressed, they hid in caves, thickets, cliffs, crevices and pits. ⁷ Some of the Hebrews even crossed over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. But as for Saul, he was still in Gilgal, but all the people following him were trembling.

⁸ So he waited seven days—the time set by Samuel—but Samuel had not come to Gilgal so the people began to scatter from him. ⁹ Then Saul said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings," so he offered the burnt offering. ¹⁰ But as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, behold Samuel arrived. Saul went out to meet and greet him. ¹¹ But Samuel asked, "What have you done?"

Saul replied, "Because I saw that the people were scattering from me, and that you had not come within the appointed days, and that the Philistines were assembling at Michmas, ¹² I thought: 'Now the Philistines are about to advance against me at Gilgal, but I have not yet entreated ADONAI.' So I forced myself and offered the burnt offering."

¹³ Samuel said to Saul, "You have acted foolishly by not keeping the commandment of ADONAI your God which He commanded you. For now, ADONAI would have established your kingship over Israel forever. ¹⁴ But now your kingship will not last. ADONAI has sought for Himself a man after His own heart. So ADONAI will appoint him as ruler over His people—because you have not guarded what ADONAI commanded you." ¹⁵ Samuel then departed and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin.

Then Saul numbered the troops that were with him, about 600 men. ¹⁶ Now Saul and his son Jonathan and the people that were present with them were staying in Gibeah of Benjamin, while the Philistines encamped in Michmas. ¹⁷ Raiders started to come out from the camp of the Philistines in three detachments: one detachment turned toward Ophrah, to the land of Shual, ¹⁸ another detachment turned toward Beth-Horon, and the third detachment turned toward the border road overlooking the Zeboim Wadi toward the wilderness.

¹⁹ Now no blacksmith could be found throughout all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, "Otherwise the Hebrews will make swords or spears!" ²⁰ So all the Israelites had to go down to the Philistines, each to sharpen his plowshare, his sickle, his axe, or his hoe. ²¹ The price of sharpening was two-thirds of a shekel for the plowshares, the sickles, the three-pronged forks, or the axes, or to set the oxgoads. ²² So it came about on the day of battle, there was no sword or spear to be found in the hand of any of the troops that were with Saul and Jonathan—only Saul and his son Jonathan had them. ²³ Then the garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmas.

Jonathan's Daring Valor

14 One day Jonathan son of Saul said to the young man carrying his armor, "Come, let's cross over to the Philistines' garrison that's on the other side." But he did not tell his father. ² Now Saul was sitting on the outskirts of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree that is in Migron, and the troops with him were about 600 men. ³ Ahijah son of Ahitub, the brother of Ichabod son of Phinehas son of Eli, the kohen of ADONAI in Shiloh, was wearing an ephod. But the troops did not know that Jonathan was gone. ⁴ Between the crossings by which Jonathan sought to cross over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a rocky crag on one side and another rocky crag on the other side—one was called Bozez and the other Seneh. ⁵ One crag was to the north near Michmas, and the other to the south near Geba.

⁶ Then Jonathan said to the young man carrying his armor, "Come, let's cross over to the garrison of these uncircumcised ones. Perhaps ADONAI will work for us, for nothing restrains ADONAI from delivering whether by many or by few." ⁷ His armor-bearer answered him, "Do whatever is in your heart; go ahead—I'm with you whatever your heart decides."

⁸ Then Jonathan said, "Here, we'll cross over to the men, then let them see us. ⁹ If they say to us: 'Wait till we come to you,' then we'll stand still in our place and will not go up to them. ¹⁰ But if they say, 'Come up to us!' then we will go up, for ADONAI has delivered them into our hand—that will be our sign."

¹¹ So they both let themselves be seen by the Philistine garrison. "Look, some Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they were hiding," the Philistines said. ¹² So the men of the garrison shouted down to Jonathan and his armor-bearer saying, "Come up to us and we'll teach you a lesson!"

Then Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "Follow me, for ADONAI has handed them over to Israel!" ¹³ So Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, with his armor-bearer behind him. Then they fell before Jonathan, his armor-bearer behind him finishing them off. ¹⁴ That first assault that Jonathan and his armor-bearer made struck down about 20 men within about half a furrow in an acre of land. ¹⁵ Terror then spread through the camp, in the field, and among all the troops. Even the outposts and the raiders also trembled, when the earth quaked—it was a trembling from God.

¹⁶ Now Saul's watchmen in Gibeah of Benjamin saw the throng scattering away in every direction. ¹⁷ So Saul said to the people who were with him, "Call the roll now and see who went from us." When they called the roll, behold Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there.

¹⁸ Then Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God here." For the ark of God at that time was with Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁹ But while Saul was talking to the kohen, the commotion in the Philistine camp kept increasing, so Saul said to the kohen, "Withdraw your hand." ²⁰ Then Saul and all the people with him rallied and rushed into the battle. Behold, every man's sword was against his fellow in utter confusion! ²¹ Now there were Hebrews who had defected to the Philistines previously and had gone up with them to their camp round about—even they joined the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan. ²² Also when all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled, they also chased after them in the battle. ²³ So ADONAI delivered Israel that day. The battle spread as far as Beth-Aven.

Saul's Rash Vow

²⁴ Now the men of Israel were hard-pressed that day, for Saul put the people under oath saying, "Cursed be the man that eats any food before evening, until I have avenged myself on my enemies!" So none of the people tasted food. ²⁵ But when all the people of the land entered the forest, there was honey on the ground. ²⁶ When the people entered the forest, indeed, there was a flow of honey, but no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath. ²⁷ But Jonathan had not heard when his father made the people swear the oath. So he put out the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb, put his hand to his mouth—and his eyes brightened. ²⁸ Then, one of the soldiers told him, "Your father strictly put the people under oath saying: 'Cursed be the man that eats food today.' But the troops are exhausted."

²⁹ Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the people. Just look how my eyes have brightened because I tasted a little of this honey. ³⁰ How much more, if only the troops had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies that they found? Wouldn't the slaughter among the Philistines have then been greater?"

³¹ That day they struck down the Philistines from Michmas to Aijalon, though the people were so weary. ³² Then the people rushed greedily upon the plunder, took sheep, oxen, and calves, butchered them on the ground, and the people ate them with the blood. ³³ Then they reported to Saul saying, "Behold, the people are sinning against ADONAI by eating with the blood."

"You have acted faithlessly," he said. "Roll a great stone towards me at once." ³⁴ Then Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people and tell them: 'Each one of you bring me his ox or his sheep, and butcher them here and eat. Don't sin against ADONAI by eating with the blood.'" So all the people each brought his ox with him that night and butchered it there. ³⁵ Then Saul built an altar to ADONAI; it was the first altar that he built to ADONAI.

³⁶ Then Saul said, "Let's go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them until the morning light, we won't leave any survivors among them."

"Do whatever seems good in your eyes," they replied.

Then the kohen said, "Let us draw near to God here."

³⁷ So Saul inquired of God, "Should I go down after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into the hand of Israel?" But He did not answer him that day. ³⁸ Then Saul said, "Draw near here, all you chiefs of the people; investigate and see how this sin was committed today. ³⁹ For as ADONAI—Israel's deliverer—lives, even if it was by my son Jonathan, he will surely die." But not one among all the people answered him.

⁴⁰ So he said to all Israel, "You stand on one side, and I and my son Jonathan will stand on the other side."

"Do what seems good in your eyes," said the people to Saul.

⁴¹ So Saul said to ADONAI, "God of Israel, grant a perfect lot." Jonathan and Saul were chosen, but the people were cleared. ⁴² Then Saul said, "Cast the lots between me and my son Jonathan," and Jonathan was taken. ⁴³ Then Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you've done."

Jonathan told him saying, "I certainly did taste a little honey—with the end of the rod that was in my hand. Here I am—I must die!"

⁴⁴ "May God do so to me and even more," Saul said. "You must surely die, Jonathan."

⁴⁵ But the people said to Saul, "Must Jonathan die? It was he who brought about this great deliverance in Israel! Far be it! As ADONAI lives, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground! For he has worked with God this day." So the people rescued Jonathan and he did not die.

⁴⁶ Then Saul broke off pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their own country. ⁴⁷ After Saul had secured his kingship over Israel, he waged war against all his enemies on every side—against Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he punished them. ⁴⁸ He did so with valor, defeating the Amalekites and delivering Israel from the hands of those who had plundered them.

⁴⁹ Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi, and Malchi-Shua; and the names of his two daughters were: the name of the firstborn Merab and the name of the younger Michal. ⁵⁰ The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the commander of his army was Abner son of Ner, Saul's uncle. ⁵¹ Kish was Saul's father, and Abner's father was Ner son of Abiel.

⁵² Now there was bitter war against the Philistines all the days of Saul. So whenever Saul saw any mighty man or any son of valor, he would gather him to himself.

Saul Spares Agag of Amalek

15 Then Samuel said to Saul, "ADONAI sent me to anoint you as king over His people, over Israel. Now therefore, listen to the voice of the words of ADONAI! ² Thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot: 'I remember what Amalek did to Israel, how he set himself against him on the way while he was coming up from Egypt. ³ Now go and strike down Amalek and put all he has under the ban of destruction—so have no pity on him; but kill both men and women, children and nursing infants, oxen and sheep, camels and donkeys.'"

⁴ So Saul summoned the troops and numbered them in Telaim: 200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 men of Judah. ⁵ Saul advanced to the city of Amalek and lay in wait in the valley. ⁶ Then Saul said to the Kenites, "Go, depart, get down from among the Amalekites, or else I may destroy you with them—for you showed kindness to all Bnei-Yisrael when they came up from Egypt." So the Kenites withdrew from among the Amalekites.

⁷ Then Saul struck down the Amalekites from Havilah until you come to Shur, which is close to Egypt. ⁸ He captured King Agag of Amalek alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

⁹ But Saul and the people spared Agag as well as the best of the sheep, the cattle, even the fatlings and the lambs, and all that was good, since they were not willing to utterly destroy them; everything that was worthless and feeble, they destroyed completely.

¹⁰ Then the word of ADONAI came to Samuel saying:

¹¹ "I regret that I made Saul king, for he has turned back from following Me and has not carried out My commands." So Samuel was troubled and cried out to ADONAI all night long. ¹² Then Samuel rose early in the morning to confront Saul. But it was reported to Samuel saying, "Saul went to Carmel—for some reason, he erected a monument for himself. Then he turned and went down to Gilgal."

¹⁴ But Samuel said, "Then what is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the oxen that I hear?"

¹⁵ "They brought them from the Amalekites," Saul replied, "for the people spared the best of the sheep and oxen to sacrifice to ADONAI your God—but the rest we have utterly destroyed."

¹⁶ "Stop!" Samuel said to Saul. "Let me tell you what ADONAI said to me last night."

"Say on," he said.

¹⁷ Then Samuel said, "Isn't it true, though you were insignificant in your own eyes, that you were made head of the tribes of Israel? ADONAI anointed you king over Israel! ¹⁸ Then ADONAI sent you on a mission and said: 'Go and utterly destroy the Amalekites, the sinners, and wage war against them until you annihilate them.' ¹⁹ Why then did you not obey the voice of ADONAI, but rushed greedily onto the spoil—doing what was evil in ADONAI's eyes?"

²⁰ "But I did obey the voice of ADONAI," Saul said to Samuel. "I went on the mission on which ADONAI sent me, and brought back Agag the king of Amalek—and utterly destroyed the Amalekites. ²¹ But the people took some of the spoil, sheep and oxen—the best of what was under the ban of destruction—to sacrifice to ADONAI your God in Gilgal."

²² Samuel said:

"Does ADONAI delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in obeying the voice of ADONAI? †

† cf. Mark 12:33; Heb. 10:6-9.

Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, to pay heed than the fat of rams.

²³ For rebellion is like the sin of divination and stubbornness is like iniquity and idolatry.

Since you have rejected ADONAI's word, He has also rejected you as king."

²⁴ Then Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned! For I have transgressed against the word of ADONAI and your words—because I feared the people and listened to their voice. ^{†25} So now, please pardon my sin and return with me, that I may worship ADONAI."

²⁶ But Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of ADONAI, and ADONAI has rejected you as king over Israel."

²⁷ As Samuel turned about to go, Saul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore. ²⁸ Then Samuel said to him, "ADONAI has torn the kingship over Israel from you today and has given it to your neighbor who is better than you. ²⁹ Moreover, the Eternal Glory of Israel does not lie or change His mind. ^{††} For He is not human that He should change His mind."

³⁰ Then Saul said, "I have sinned! But please, honor me now before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me until I bow in worship to ADONAI your God." ³¹ So Samuel returned after Saul, and Saul bowed in worship to ADONAI.

³² Then Samuel said, "Bring me Agag the king of Amalek." Agag approached him in chains, thinking, "Surely bitter death has turned back." ³³ Then Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so will your mother be childless among women." Then Samuel cut Agag into pieces before ADONAI in Gilgal.

³⁴ Samuel then went to Ramah, while Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul. ³⁵ Samuel never did see Saul again until the day of his death. Yet Samuel mourned over Saul, while ADONAI regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

Samuel Anoints David

16 Now ADONAI said to Samuel, "How long will you grieve over Saul, since I have rejected him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go. I am sending you to Jesse the Beth-Lehemite, for I have selected for Myself a king among his sons."

² But Samuel replied, "How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me."

ADONAI said, "Take a heifer with you and say: 'I have come to sacrifice to ADONAI.' ³ Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will let you know what you are to do. You will anoint for Me whom I tell you."

⁴ So Samuel did what ADONAI said and went to Beth-Lehem. The elders of the town came out to meet him trembling, and asked, "Do you come in shalom?"

⁵ "In shalom," he said. "I have come to sacrifice to ADONAI. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." He also consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. ⁶ Upon their arrival, he saw Eliab and thought, "Surely, ADONAI's anointed one is before Him."

⁷ But ADONAI said to Samuel, "Do not look at his appearance or his stature, because I have already refused him. For He does not see a man as man sees, for man looks at the outward appearance, but ADONAI looks into the heart."

⁸ Then Jesse called Abinadab and made him pass before Samuel. But he said, "Neither has ADONAI chosen this one." ⁹ Then Jesse made Shammah pass by and again he said, "Neither has ADONAI chosen this one."

¹⁰ Thus Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. But Samuel said to Jesse, "ADONAI has not chosen any of these." ¹¹ Then Samuel asked Jesse, "Are these all the boys you have?"

"There's still the youngest," he replied. "But right now, he's tending the sheep."

"Send and bring him," Samuel said to Jesse, "for we will not sit down until he comes here." ¹² So he sent word and had him come. Now he was ruddy-cheeked, with beautiful eyes and a handsome appearance.

Then ADONAI said, "Arise, anoint him, for this is the one." ¹³ So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. From that day on Ruach ADONAI came mightily upon David. Then Samuel rose up and went to Ramah.

David Soothes Saul's Torment

¹⁴ Now the Ruach ADONAI had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from ADONAI terrified him. ¹⁵ So Saul's courtiers said to him, "Behold now, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you. ¹⁶ Let our lord now command your courtiers in your service to search for a man who is a skillful player on the harp. Then whenever the evil spirit from God comes on you, he will play with his instrument and you will feel better."

¹⁷ So Saul said to his courtiers, "Find me someone who can play well and bring him to me."

¹⁸ One of the young men answered and said, "I have seen a son of Jesse the Beth-Lehemite who is skillful in playing music. He is a mighty man of valor, a warrior, prudent in speech, a handsome man, and ADONAI is with him."

¹⁹ So Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the flock." ²⁰ So Jesse took a donkey, loaded it with bread, a bottle of wine, and a young goat, and sent them with his son David to Saul. ²¹ Then David came to Saul and became one of his attendants. Saul loved him greatly, so David became his armor-bearer. ²² Then Saul sent word to Jesse saying, "Let David now keep attending me, for he has found favor in my eyes." ²³ It came to pass, whenever the spirit from God came upon Saul, David would take the harp and play it with his hand. So Saul would find relief and feel better, as the evil spirit departed from him.

David Slays Goliath with Sling and Stone

17 Now the Philistines assembled their armies to battle. They were gathered at Socoh of Judah, and camped in Ephes-Dammim, between Socoh and Azekah. ² Saul and the men of Israel gathered and camped in the valley of Elah, then lined up in battle array against the Philistines. ³ The Philistines were standing on the mountain on one side, and Israel was standing on the mountain on the other side, with the valley between them. ⁴ Then a champion stepped out from the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, from Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. ⁵ He had a bronze helmet on his head and a breastplate of scale armor; the weight of the bronze breastplate was 5,000 shekels. ⁶ He also had bronze shin-guards on his legs and a bronze javelin slung between his shoulders. ⁷ The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and the head of his spear weighed 600 shekels † of iron; and his shield-bearer was marching ahead of him.

⁸ Then he stood and shouted out to the ranks of Israel saying to them, "Why come out to line up in battle array? Am I not the Philistine and aren't you Saul's servants? Choose for yourselves a man and let him come down to me. ⁹ If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then will we become your slaves; but if I prevail against him and kill him, then will you become our slaves and serve us." ¹⁰ The Philistine added, "Today I defy the ranks of Israel—give me a man, so we may fight together!"

¹¹ But when Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and very terrified.

¹⁶ For forty days that Philistine would come out every morning and evening to present himself. ¹⁷ Then Jesse said to his son David, "Take now, for your brothers, an ephah of this roasted grain and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to your brothers. ¹⁸ Also take these ten slices of cheese to the captain of their thousand—and check out the welfare of your brothers and bring back some token from them. ¹⁹ They are with Saul and all the men of Israel in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines."

²⁰ So David rose up early in the morning, left the flock with a keeper, took the provisions and went as Jesse had commanded him. When he reached the camp, the army was going out to the battle line shouting the war cry. ²¹ Israel and the Philistines drew up their battle lines, army against army. ²² Then David left his baggage in the care of the baggage keeper, and ran to the battle line and entered to check out his brothers' welfare. ²³ But as he was talking with them, behold the champion, the Philistine from Gath named Goliath, was coming up from the ranks of the Philistines, and he spoke these same words; and David heard them.

²⁴ Upon seeing him, all the men of Israel fled from him in great fear. ²⁵ All the men of Israel were saying, "Have you seen this man who keeps coming up? Surely he is coming up to defy Israel! The man who kills him, the king will enrich him with great riches, give him his daughter in marriage, and make his father's house tax-free in Israel!"

²⁶ Then David asked the men who were standing by him saying, "What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the ranks of the living God?"

²⁷ The people answered him with the same speech saying, "Thus it will be done for the man who strikes him down." ²⁸ Now when Eliab his oldest brother heard him speaking to the men, Eliab's anger was kindled against David. "Why have you come down here?" he asked. "So with whom did you leave those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your insolence and the wickedness of your heart! For you've come down here to watch the battle."

²⁹ "What have I done now?" David said. "It was only a question!" ³⁰ Then he turned away from him toward someone else and asked the same question. So the people gave him the same answer as before.

³¹ The words that David said were overheard and reported before Saul. So he was taken to him. ³² David said to Saul, "Let no one's heart fail because of him. Your servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

³³ Then Saul said to David, "You can't go fight this Philistine—for you're just a youth, and he's been a warrior since his youth."

³⁴ But David said to Saul, "Your servant has been tending his father's sheep. When a lion or a bear came and carried off a lamb out of the flock, ³⁵ I went out after it, struck it down, and rescued the lamb out of its mouth. If it rose up against me, I grabbed him by its fur, struck it and killed it. ³⁶ Your servant has killed both the lion and the bear, so this uncircumcised Philistine will become like one of them—since he has defied the ranks of the living God." ³⁷ Then David said, "ADONAI, who has delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine."

"Go!" said Saul to David, "and may ADONAI be with you."

³⁸ Then Saul clothed David with his own garb, put a bronze helmet on his head, and clothed him in armor.

† Equals 125 pounds. †† Equals 15 pounds.

³⁹ David strapped his sword on his garment and tried to walk, but he was not used to it. So David said to Saul, "I cannot walk in these, for I am not used to them." So David took them off. ⁴⁰ Then he took his staff in his hand, chose five smooth stones from the valley, put them in the pocket of the shepherd's bag that he had, and with his sling in his hand, he approached the Philistine.

⁴¹ Meanwhile, the Philistine drew nearer and approached David, with his shield-bearer in front of him. ⁴² Now when the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was just a ruddy boy with a handsome appearance. ⁴³ Then the Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" Then the Philistine cursed David by his gods. ⁴⁴ The Philistine said to David, "Come to me, so I may give your flesh to the birds of the sky and the beasts of the field."

⁴⁵ Then David said to the Philistine, "You are coming to me with a sword, a spear, and a javelin, but I am coming to you in the Name of ADONAI - Tzva'ot, God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. ⁴⁶ This very day ADONAI will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and take your head off you, and I will give the carcasses of the Philistines' camp today to the birds of the sky and the wild beasts of the earth. Then all the earth will know that there is a God in Israel, ⁴⁷ and so all this assembly will know that ADONAI delivers not with sword and spear—for the battle belongs to ADONAI—and He will give you into our hands."

⁴⁸ Then when the Philistine rose and began to advance, drawing near to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine. ⁴⁹ David put his hand in his bag, took from it a stone and slung it, striking the Philistine on his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, so that he fell on his face to the ground.

⁵⁰ So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, struck the Philistine down, and killed him. Since there was no sword in David's hand, ⁵¹ David ran, stood over the Philistine, picked up his sword, drew it from its sheath, slew him, and cut off his head with it.

When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. ⁵² Then the men of Israel and Judah rose up, shouted, and pursued the Philistines all the way to the valley up to the gates of Ekron. The slain Philistines fell down along the way to Shaaraim, even up to Gath and Ekron.

⁵³ When Bnei-Yisrael returned from chasing the Philistines, they plundered their camp. ⁵⁴ David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put his armor in his own tent. ⁵⁵ Now when Saul saw David going out against the Philistine, he asked Abner, the commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is this boy?"

Abner said, "As your soul lives, your majesty, I don't know."

⁵⁶ So the king said, "Then, find out whose son this young man is." ⁵⁷ So when David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

⁵⁸ "Whose son are you, young man?" Saul said to him. David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Beth-Lehemite."

Jonathan's Covenant Love for David

18 Now it came to pass, when David had finished speaking to Saul, Jonathan's soul was knit to David's soul, and Jonathan loved him as himself. ² Saul took him that day and did not let him return to his father's house. ³ Then Jonathan cut a covenant with David, because he loved him as himself. ⁴ Jonathan stripped off the robe that was on him and gave it to David, along with his armor: his sword, bow, and belt.

Saul's Jealousy

⁵ So David went out wherever Saul sent him and had success, so Saul set him over the men of war. It was pleasing in the eyes of all the people as well as in the eyes of Saul's courtiers. ⁶ Upon their coming back, upon David's return from killing the Philistine, the women came out of all the towns of Israel, singing and dancing in circles to greet King Saul, with timbrels, with joy and with three-stringed instruments. ⁷ So the women sang one to another, as they were dancing saying,

"Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands!"

⁸ Then Saul became very angry—this saying was evil in his eyes—and he commented, "They've ascribed to David ten thousands and to me they've ascribed thousands. Now what more does he lack but the kingdom?" ⁹ So Saul eyed David from that day on.

¹⁰ It came about the next day that an evil spirit from God came mightily upon Saul, so that he was raving within the palace. While David was playing music with his hand, as he did day by day, Saul had his spear in his hand, ¹¹ and Saul hurled the spear, thinking, "I'll pin David to the wall!" But David eluded him—twice.

¹² Now Saul became afraid of David, because ADONAI was with him but had departed from Saul. ¹³ Therefore Saul removed him from his entourage by appointing him as a captain of a thousand. So David went out and came in before the troops. ¹⁴ David had success in all his undertakings, since ADONAI was with him. ¹⁵ When Saul saw that he had great success, he dreaded him. ¹⁶ But all Israel and Judah loved David, for he went out and came in before them.

¹⁷ Then Saul said to David, "Here is my older daughter Merab—I give her to you as a wife. Only continue to be my son of valor and fight ADONAI's battles." For Saul thought, "My hand needn't be against him—let the hand of the Philistines be against him."

¹⁸ But David replied to Saul, “Who am I, and what is my life or my father’s family in Israel, that I should become the king’s son-in-law?” ¹⁹ But when it was time to give Saul’s daughter Merab to David in marriage, she was given as wife to Adriel the Meholathite instead.

Michal’s Love for David

²⁰ Now Saul’s daughter Michal loved David. When they told Saul, the matter pleased him. ²¹ Saul thought, “I will give her to him, so that she may become a snare to him—and the hand of the Philistines will be against him.” So Saul said to David, “You can still become my son-in-law, even today, with the second one.”

²² Then Saul commanded his courtiers, “Speak with David privately and say, ‘Behold, the king delights in you and all his courtiers love you. So now, become the king’s son-in-law!’” ²³ So Saul’s courtiers whispered these words in David’s ears.

But David said, “Is it a light thing to you becoming the king’s son-in-law, considering that I am a poor man and of little account?” ²⁴ Saul’s courtiers reported back to him what David had said.

³⁰ When the chiefs of the Philistines marched out, as often as they came out, David proved more successful than all of Saul’s officers. So his name became highly esteemed.

Saul Tries to Kill David

19 Now Saul told his son Jonathan and all his courtiers to kill David. But Saul’s son Jonathan delighted much in David. ² So Jonathan informed David saying, “My father Saul is seeking to kill you. So now, please be on guard in the morning, and stay in a secret place and hide yourself. ³ I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you will be, and I will speak with my father about you. If I notice anything, I will tell you.” ⁴ So Jonathan spoke well of David to his father Saul and said to him, “May the king not sin against his servant David, since he has not sinned against you, and since his deeds have been very beneficial for you; ⁵ For he put his life in his hand and killed the Philistine, and ADONAI won a great victory for all Israel—you saw it and rejoiced. So why would you sin against innocent blood by killing David without a cause?”

⁶ Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swore, “As ADONAI lives, he will not be put to death.”

⁷ So Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these things. Jonathan brought David to Saul and in his presence as before.

¹¹ Then Saul sent agents to David’s house to watch him, in order to kill him in the morning. But David’s wife Michal warned him saying, “If you don’t escape for your life tonight, tomorrow you will be dead!” ¹² So Michal lowered David down through the window, and thus he went, fled and escaped. ¹³ Then Michal took a household idol, laid it in the bed, put a quilt of goats’ hair at the head and covered it with a cloth. ¹⁴ When Saul sent messengers to arrest David, she said, “He’s sick.”

¹⁵ So Saul sent the agents back to see David, saying, “Bring him up to me in the bed so I may put him to death.” ¹⁶ When the messengers came in, behold, the household idol was in the bed with the quilt of goats’ hair at its head. ¹⁷ Saul then said to Michal, “Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy get away, so that he escaped?”

Michal answered Saul, “He said to me, ‘Let me go or I’ll kill you!’”

¹⁸ So David fled and escaped, went to Samuel at Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went and stayed at Naioth. ¹⁹ Saul was told, “Behold, David is at Naioth in Ramah.” ²⁰ So Saul sent agents to seize David, but they saw a band of prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing and presiding over them. Then the Ruach of God came upon Saul’s agents and they too prophesied. ²¹ When Saul was told, he sent other agents and they too prophesied. Then Saul sent a third group of messengers, and they too prophesied. ²² Then he himself went to Ramah, and when he arrived at the great cistern in Secu, he asked, “Where are Samuel and David?”

Someone answered, “Look, they are at Naioth at Ramah.” ²³ So he proceeded there, to Naioth at Ramah, and the Ruach of God came upon him as well, and he prophesied as he kept walking until he arrived to Naioth at Ramah. ²⁴ Then he too stripped off his clothes, and he too prophesied before Samuel, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. That is why people were saying, “Is Saul too among the prophets?”

Reaffirming Covenant Loyalty

20 Then David fled from Naioth at Ramah, came before Jonathan and said, "What have I done? What is my crime? What is my sin against your father that he should be seeking my life?"

2 "Never!" he said to him. "You will not die! Behold, my father does nothing great or small without disclosing it to me. So why should my father hide this matter from me? It cannot be."

3 Then David swore again saying, "Your father knows very well that I have found favor in your eyes. So he must have thought, 'Let's not let Jonathan know about this, else he will be grieved.' But truly as ADONAI lives and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."

4 Then Jonathan said to David, "Whatever you say, I will do for you!"

5 So David said to Jonathan, "Look, tomorrow is the New Moon, when I am supposed to sit down with the king to eat. Instead, let me go hide myself in the countryside until the third evening. 6 If your father misses me at all, then say: 'David earnestly asked my permission to run to Beth-Lehem, his town, for it is the annual sacrifice there for the whole family.' 7 If he says thus, 'Very well,' then your servant is safe; but if he becomes very angry, then know that he is determined to harm me. 8 Therefore deal kindly with your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of ADONAI with you. But if there is any iniquity in me, then kill me yourself! Why should you bring me to your father?"

9 Jonathan replied, "Far be it from you! For if I know for sure that my father has determined evil to come on you, then wouldn't I tell you about it?"

10 Then David asked Jonathan, "Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?"

11 Jonathan said to David, "Come, let's go out to the field." So they both went out to the field. 12 Then Jonathan said to David, "By ADONAI, God of Israel, I will sound out my father about this time tomorrow or the day after. Look, if it is good toward David, wouldn't I then send word to you and disclose it to you? 13 May ADONAI do so to Jonathan and even worse, should my father intend to do you evil, if I don't disclose it to you and send you away, that you may go in shalom. So may ADONAI be with you as He has been with my father.

14 "Now if I am still alive, wouldn't you show me the loyal love of ADONAI so I wouldn't die? 15 Yet also, don't cut off your loyal love from my household ever—not even when ADONAI cuts off all of David's enemies from the face of the earth." 16 So Jonathan cut a covenant with the house of David, "So may ADONAI requite David's enemies." 17 Jonathan made David swear again because of the love he had for him, for he loved him as he loved himself.

18 Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the New Moon. You'll be missed because your seat will be empty. 19 On the third day, you must go down quickly and come to the place where you hid as you did on that day, and remain close to the stone Ezel. 20 I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I were shooting at a target. 21 Now look, I will send a lad saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I specifically say to the lad, 'See, the arrows are on this side of you—get them,' then come; for it is safe for you and no danger, as ADONAI lives. 22 But if I say to the boy: 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' then go your way, for ADONAI has released you. 23 But as for the matter which I and you have spoken about, behold, ADONAI is between me and you forever."

24 So David hid himself in the field, and when the New Moon came, the king sat down to eat a meal. 25 So the king sat on his seat—as usual, the seat by the wall—Jonathan stood up and Abner sat down by Saul's side, but David's place was empty. 26 Nevertheless, Saul said nothing that day, for he thought, "It must be an accident; he must be ceremonially unclean—yes, that's it, he's unclean."

27 Yet it came to pass on the day following the New Moon, the second day, that David's place was still empty. So Saul asked his son Jonathan, "Why didn't Jesse's son come to the meal yesterday or today?"

28 Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-Lehem, 29 as he said, 'Please let me go, for we are going to have a family feast in the town, and my brother has commanded me. So now, if I have found favor in your eyes, let me go, please, to see my brothers. That's why he hasn't come to the king's table.'"

30 Then Saul's rage blazed against Jonathan and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Don't I know that you have chosen the son of Jesse—to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness? 31 For as long as the son of Jesse lives on earth, neither you nor your kingship will be secure. Now, send word and bring him to me, for he is a son of death!"

32 But Jonathan answered his father Saul, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"

33 Then Saul hurled his spear at him to strike him down. So Jonathan knew that his father was determined to put David to death. 34 So Jonathan rose up from the table in fierce anger, and did not eat food the second day of the new month, for he was grieved over David, because his father had dishonored him.

35 It came to pass in the morning that Jonathan went out to the field at the time appointed with David, and a little lad was with him. 36 He said to his lad, "Run, find now the arrows that I am about to shoot." Now as the lad was running, he shot an arrow past him. 37 When the lad reached the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried out after the lad and said, "Isn't the arrow beyond you?" 38 Then Jonathan called out after the lad, "Quick, hurry! Don't stand there!" So Jonathan's lad picked up the arrow and came to his master.³⁹ But the lad knew nothing; only Jonathan and David knew the arrangement.⁴⁰ Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad and said to him, "Go, take them back to the town."

⁴¹ As soon as the lad was gone, David emerged from the south side and fell on his face to the ground and bowed down three times. Then they kissed each other and wept together, though David wept more.⁴² (42a) Then Jonathan said to David, "Go in the shalom that we both have sworn to each other in the Name of ADONAI saying: 'May ADONAI be between me and you, and between my offspring and your offspring, forever.'"

Eating Consecrated Bread

21 (20:42b) Then David got up and left, while Jonathan returned to the town.² (1) David went to Nob to Ahimelech the kohen. Ahimelech was afraid to meet David, so he said to him, "Why are you alone and no one with you?"

³ (2) David said to Ahimelech the kohen, "The king has commissioned me with a matter, and told me: 'Let no one know anything about the mission on which I am sending you, or with what I have commissioned you.' So, I have directed the young men to such and such a place."⁴ (3) So now, what do you have on hand? Give me five loaves of bread or whatever can be found."

⁶ (5) "Of course women have been kept from us, as on previous campaigns," David answered the kohen. "So the young men's vessels were holy, though it was an ordinary mission—how much more so will their vessels be holy today!"⁷ (6) So the kohen gave him consecrated bread, for there was no bread there but the bread of the Presence, which was taken out from the presence of ADONAI in order to replace it with hot bread on the day it was taken away.^{††}

⁸ (7) Now one of Saul's servants was there that day, detained before ADONAI. His name was Doeg the Edomite, chief of Saul's shepherds.

⁹ (8) Then David said to Ahimelech, "Isn't there a spear or sword on hand? For I did not take my sword or my weapons with me, because the king's mission was urgent."

¹⁰ (9) The kohen said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine whom you killed in the valley of Elah—it's here, wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you want to take it for yourself, take it. For there's nothing else here."

"There's nothing like it!" David said. "Give it to me."

David Pretends Insanity

¹¹ (10) Then David got up and fled that day from Saul, and went to Achish, king of Gath.¹² (11) But Achish's courtiers said to him, "Isn't this David king of the land? Isn't he the one they sing about in their dances saying, 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?'"

¹³ (12) David took these words to heart, and he became so afraid of King Achish of Gath¹⁴ (13) that he changed his demeanor before them and acted like a mad man while in their hands—scribbling on the doors of the gate and letting his saliva run down his beard.¹⁵ (14) Then Achish said to his courtiers, "Look, you can see the man is insane. Why did you bring him to me?"¹⁶ (15) Do I have a shortage of crazy people that you've brought this fellow to go crazy on me? Is this one going to come into my house?"

Flight to a Cave and to Moab

22 So David walked from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and all his father's house heard about it, they went down there to him.² Anyone who was in distress, anyone in debt, and anyone embittered rallied around him, and he became their leader. There were about 400 men with him.

³ Then David left from there to Mizpah of Moab, and he said to the king of Moab, "Please, let my father and my mother come and stay with you until I know what God will do for me."⁴ Then he brought them to the king of Moab, and they stayed with him all the time that David was in the stronghold.

⁶ Then Saul heard that David and the men with him were located. Saul was in Gibeah, sitting under the tamarisk tree on the height, spear in his hand, and all his courtiers were attending him.⁷ Saul said to his courtiers standing about him, "Listen now, Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards? Will he make all of you captains of thousands and captains of hundreds?"⁸ Yet all of you have conspired against me, and there was nobody disclosing to me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse! None of you is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me to lie in ambush—as is the case today?"

⁹ Then Doeg the Edomite, who was standing among Saul's courtiers, answered and said, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob—to Ahimelech son of Ahitub—and he inquired of ADONAI for him, gave him provisions and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

¹¹ Then the king sent word to summon the kohen Ahimelech son of Ahitub and all the kohanim of his father's house who were in Nob. So they all came to the king. ¹² "Listen now, son of Ahitub," Saul said.

"Here I am, my lord," he said.

¹³ Then Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me—you and the son of Jesse—by giving him bread and a sword, and by inquiring of God for him, that he should rise against me by lying in ambush, as is the case today?"

¹⁴ Then Ahimelech answered the king saying, "Who among all your servants is as trusted as David, the king's son-in-law, a captain of the royal guard, and honored in your house? ¹⁵ Just today I began to inquire of God for him? Far be it from the king to accuse his servant or to anyone of my father's house. For your servant knows nothing of all this, whether little or much."

¹⁶ But the king said, "You will surely die, Ahimelech, you and all your father's house." ¹⁷ Then the king ordered the guards attending him, "Turn around and kill the kohanim of ADONAI, for they are in cahoots with David, for they knew that he was running away but did not inform me." But the servants of the king were not willing to raise their hand to assault the kohanim of ADONAI. ¹⁸ So the king said to Doeg, "You, turn around and kill the kohanim!" So Doeg the Edomite turned and fell upon the kohanim and on that day killed 85 men who wore the linen ephod. ¹⁹ Nob, the town of the kohanim, he struck with the edge of the sword: men and women, children and infants, oxen, asses, and sheep with the edge of the sword.

²⁰ Yet one of the sons of Ahimelech son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled to David. ²¹ Abiathar told David that Saul had slain ADONAI's kohanim.

²² Then David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I have brought about the death of all the people of your father's house. ²³ Stay with me, and fear not; for the one who is seeking my life is seeking your life too—but with me you will be safe."

David Hides and Saul Seeks

23 Then they reported to David saying, "Look, the Philistines are raiding Keilah and they are plundering the threshing floors." ² So David inquired of ADONAI saying, "Shall I go and attack those Philistines?"

ADONAI said to David, "Go, attack the Philistines and deliver Keilah."

³ But David's fellow men said to him, "Look, we're afraid here in Judah; how much more so if we go to Keilah against the Philistine forces?"

⁴ Once again David inquired of ADONAI, and ADONAI answered him saying, "Arise! Go to Keilah, for I am going to deliver the Philistines into your hand." ⁵ So David and his fellow men went to Keilah and fought against the Philistines, drove off their livestock, and inflicted a great slaughter on them. Thus David rescued the inhabitants of Keilah. ⁶ It came about, when Abiathar son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand.

⁷ Now when Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah, Saul said, "God has delivered him into my hand! For he shut himself in by entering a town with barred gates." ⁸ So Saul summoned all the troops for battle, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his fellow men.

⁹ Now David knew that Saul was plotting evil against him, so he said to Abiathar the kohen, "Bring the ephod." ¹⁰ Then David said, " ADONAI, God of Israel, Your servant has heard for certain that Saul intends to come to Keilah to destroy the town because of me.

¹¹ Will the men of Keilah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down, as Your servant has heard? ADONAI God of Israel, I pray, tell Your servant."

"He will come down," ADONAI said.

¹² Then David asked, "Will the men of Keilah surrender me and my fellow men into the hand of Saul?"

"They will surrender," ADONAI said.

¹⁵ By now David was aware that Saul would come out to seek his life while David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Choresh. ¹⁶ Then Saul's son Jonathan arose and went to David at Choresh and strengthened him in God. ¹⁷ "Don't be afraid," he said to him, "because my father Saul will never find you. You will be king over Israel and I will be second to you. Even my father Saul recognizes that." ¹⁸ Again they cut a covenant before ADONAI. David remained at Choresh, but Jonathan went home.

¹⁹ Then some of the Ziphites went up to Saul in Gibeah, saying, "Isn't David hiding with us in the strongholds at Choresh, in the hill of Hachilah which is south of Jeshimon? ²⁰ Now therefore, O king, come down whenever it is a desire of your soul to come down—our part will be to deliver him into the king's hand."

²¹ "May you be blessed of ADONAI," Saul said, "for you have taken pity on me. ²² Go now, make more sure, investigate and scout out his place where he usually goes and who has seen him there. For I have been told that he is very cunning. ²³ Look around and see in which of all the hiding places he has been hiding, and return to me with certainty, and I will go with you. If he is in the area, I will search him out among all the clans of Judah." ²⁴ Then they got up and went to Ziph ahead of Saul.

But David and his men were then in the wilderness of Maon in the Arabah, to the south of Jeshimon. ²⁵ So when Saul and his men began the search, David was informed. Then he went down to the rocky area and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. On hearing this, Saul pursued David in the wilderness of Maon. ²⁶ Then, while Saul was advancing on one side of the mountain, David and his men were on the other side of the mountain. David was hurrying to elude Saul. Meanwhile Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to seize them. ²⁷ But a messenger came to Saul saying, "Hurry and come, for the Philistines have invaded the land!" ²⁸ So Saul had to return from chasing after David, and go to engage the Philistines. Therefore they called that place the Rock of Separation.

David Spares Saul at En-Gedi

24 (23:29) From there David went up and stayed in the strongholds of En-Gedi. ² (1) Now when Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, they told him saying, "Look, David is in the wilderness of En-Gedi." ³ (2) So Saul took 3,000 chosen men from all Israel and went to search for David and his men near the rocks of the mountain goats. ⁴ (3) When he came across the sheepfolds along the way where there was a cave, Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were already sitting in the innermost parts of the cave. ⁵ (4) So David's men said to him, "Look, it's the day ADONAI spoke to you about, 'Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, so you may do to him as seems good in your eyes.'" Then David crept and cut off the corner of Saul's robe stealthily.

⁶ (5) But afterward, David's conscience bothered him for cutting off the edge of Saul's robe. ⁷ (6) So he said to his fellow men, "ADONAI forbid that I should do such a thing to my lord, ADONAI's anointed, stretching out my hand against him—for he is ADONAI's anointed." ⁸ (7) So David persuaded his fellow men with these words and did not let them rise against Saul. Then Saul left the cave and went on his way.

⁹ (8) David also rose afterward, went out of the cave, and called out after Saul saying, "My lord the king!" When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth and prostrated himself. ¹⁰ (9) Then David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to men's words saying: 'Look, David intends you harm?' ¹¹ (10) Look, today your own eyes should see how ADONAI delivered you today into my hand, in the cave. Some urged me to kill you, but my eye had pity on you, and I said: 'I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is ADONAI's anointed.' ¹² (11) Moreover, my father, see! Yes, look at the corner of your robe in my hand! For in cutting off the corner of your robe, yet not killing you, you should know and realize that there is no evil or rebellion in my hand. I haven't sinned against you, even though you are lying in wait for my life, to take it. ¹³ (12) May ADONAI judge between me and you, and may ADONAI avenge me of you, but my hand will not be against you. ¹⁴ (13) As the old proverb goes, 'Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness'—but my hand will never be on you. ¹⁵ (14) Whom has the king of Israel come after? Who are you chasing? A dead dog? A single flea? ¹⁶ (15) May ADONAI be judge and decide between me and you! And may He see and plead my cause and vindicate me against you."

¹⁷ (16) Now when David finished speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son, David?" Then Saul lifted up his voice and wept aloud. ¹⁸ (17) Then he said to David, "You are more righteous than I, for you have done good to me, while I have done evil to you. ¹⁹ (18) You've told today how well you've dealt with me, for ADONAI had delivered me up into your hand, yet you did not kill me. ²⁰ (19) For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away on a good road? May ADONAI reward you with good in return for what you have done to me today. ²¹ (20) Now behold, I know for certain that you will be king, and that the kingdom of Israel will rise in your hand. ²² (21) Swear now to me by ADONAI that you won't cut off my descendants after me, and that you won't wipe out my name from my father's house." ²³ (22) So David swore to Saul. Then Saul went to his home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

Abigail and Foolish Nabal

25 Then Samuel died, and all Israel gathered and lamented him, and buried him at his house in Ramah. David then arose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

² Now there was a man in Maon, whose business was in Carmel, and the man was so wealthy, he had 3,000 sheep and 1,000 goats. At that time he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. ³ The man's name was Nabal and his wife's name was Abigail. The woman was intelligent and beautiful, but the man, a Calebite, was harsh and evil in his dealings. ⁴ While David was in the wilderness, he heard that Nabal was shearing his sheep. ⁵ So David dispatched ten young men, and said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and when you reach Nabal, greet him in my name. ⁶ Thus you will say: 'Long life! And shalom to you, shalom to your house, and shalom to all that is yours. ⁷ Now I hear that you have shearers. When your shepherds were with us, we did them no harm and nothing of theirs was missing all the time they were in Carmel. ⁸ Ask your young men and they will tell you. Therefore, let the young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come on a festive day. So please, give to your servants and to your son David, whatever you find at hand.'" ⁹ David's young men went and told Nabal all those words in David's name, and waited. ¹⁰ But Nabal answered David's servants by saying, "Who is David? And who is Jesse's son? Nowadays there are many slaves each running away from his master. ¹¹ So should I take my bread, my water, and my meat that I have cooked for my shearers, and give it to men whom I don't know where they come from?"

⁹ David's young men went and told Nabal all those words in David's name, and waited. ¹⁰ But Nabal answered David's servants by saying, "Who is David? And who is Jesse's son? Nowadays there are many slaves each running away from his master. ¹¹ So should I take my bread, my water, and my meat that I have cooked for my shearers, and give it to men whom I don't know where they come from?"

¹⁴ But one of the young men told Nabal's wife Abigail saying, "Look, David had sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master, but he spurned them.

¹⁵ Yet the men were very good to us. We were not harmed, nor were we missing anything as long as we went about with them while we were in the fields.

¹⁶ They were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the time that we were with them tending the sheep.

¹⁸ Then Abigail hurried and took 200 loaves, 2 bottles of wine, 5 dressed sheep, 5 measures of roasted corn, 100 cakes of raisins, and 200 cakes of figs, and put them on donkeys. ¹⁹ Then she said to her young men, "Go on ahead of me—see, I am coming after you." But she did not tell her husband Nabal. ²⁰ As she was riding on the donkey and going down by the hidden pass of the mountain, behold, David and his men were coming down towards her, so she met them.

²¹ Now David had been saying, "Surely in vain I've guarded all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missing of all that belonged to him—yet he has returned me evil for good. ²² May God do so and even more to David's enemies if by the morning I leave even one male of all who belong to him!"

²³ When Abigail saw David, she quickly dismounted from her donkey, fell before David on her face, and bowed down to the ground. ²⁴ As she fell at his feet, she pleaded, "On me, only me, my lord, be the punishment! But please, let your maidservant speak in your ears, and listen to the words of your maidservant.

²⁶ "So now my lord, as ADONAI lives and as your soul lives, since ADONAI has restrained you from shedding blood and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now therefore let your enemies and those who are seeking to harm my lord be as Nabal. ²⁷ Now let this blessing, which your maidservant has brought to my lord, be given to the young men who are accompanying my lord. ²⁸ Please, forgive the trespass of your maidservant. For ADONAI will certainly make an enduring house for my lord ††, because my lord is fighting the battles of ADONAI. So let no wrongdoing be found in you all your days. ²⁹ If anyone rises to pursue you and seek your life, then let my lord's life be bound up in the bundle of the living—with ADONAI your God. But let the soul of your enemies be hurled away as from the hollow of a sling.

³⁰ "So when ADONAI has fulfilled for my lord all the good things that He had spoken concerning you, and has appointed you ruler over Israel, ³¹ then this will not be a stumbling block for you, or offense of heart to my lord, or needless bloodshed by my lord avenging himself. So when ADONAI has dealt graciously with my lord, then remember your handmaid."

³² Then David said to Abigail, "Blessed be ADONAI God of Israel, who sent you to meet me this day! ³³ Blessed be your discernment, and may you be blessed for keeping me this day from shedding blood, from avenging myself with my own hand. ³⁴ Yet as ADONAI God of Israel lives, who restrained me from harming you, unless you had come quickly to meet me, surely not one male of Nabal's line would have been left alive by the morning light!" ³⁵ So David received from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, "Go up in shalom to your house. Look, I have listened to your plea and have granted your request."

³⁶ Then Abigail went to Nabal, and there he was holding a banquet in his house like that of a king—Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was quite drunk. So she told him nothing at all until daybreak. ³⁷ It came to pass in the morning, when the wine had gone out of Nabal, and his wife told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he was paralyzed like a stone. ³⁸ About ten days later, ADONAI struck Nabal and he died.

³⁹ When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be ADONAI who took the case of my insult from the hand of Nabal, yet has restrained His servant from evil! ADONAI has returned Nabal's vileness on his own head." Then David sent word and proposed to Abigail to take her as his wife. ⁴⁰ When David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they told her, "David has sent us to you, to take you as his wife."

⁴³ David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel, and the two of them were his wives. ⁴⁴ Meanwhile, Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

David Again Spares Saul

26 Now the Ziphites came to Saul at Gibeah saying, "Isn't David hiding on the hill of Hachilah which faces Jeshimon?" ² So Saul arose and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, 3,000 chosen men of Israel with him, to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph.

† Meaning disgraceful folly †† cf. Luke 1:32-33.

³ Saul camped in the hill of Hachilah which faces Jeshimon, by the road. But David was staying in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul had come after him into the wilderness. ⁴ So David sent out spies and realized that Saul had already arrived. ⁵ Then David got up and went to the place where Saul had camped. David detected the spot where Saul lay asleep, as well as Abner son of Ner his army commander. Saul was lying inside the barricade and the troops were camped around him.

⁶ Then David spoke and asked Ahimelech the Hittite and Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruah, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?"

"I will go down with you," Abishai answered.

⁷ So David and Abishai approached the troops by night. Behold, Saul was lying asleep within the barricade with his spear stuck in the ground at his head, and Abner and the troops were sleeping around him. ⁸ Then Abishai said to David, "God has delivered your enemy into your hand today. Now let me pin him to the ground with a single thrust of the spear. I will not have to strike him twice."

⁹ But David said to Abishai, "Don't destroy him! For who can lay his hand on ADONAI's anointed and be guiltless?" ¹⁰ David added, "As ADONAI lives, either ADONAI will strike him down, or his day will come to die, or he will go down to battle and be swept away. ¹¹ ADONAI forbid that I should lay my hand on ADONAI's anointed! Now, just take the spear that is at his head and the water jar and let's go." ¹² So David took the spear and the water jar from beside Saul's head. They got away—and no one saw it, or knew it, or woke up—for all were asleep, for a deep sleep from ADONAI had fallen upon them.

¹³ Then David crossed over to the other side and stood on the top of a distant hill with a wide space between them. ¹⁴ David shouted to the troops and to Abner son of Ner saying, "Aren't you going to answer, Abner?"

Then Abner answered saying, "Who are you, who called out to the king?"

¹⁵ "Aren't you a man?" David said to Abner. "Indeed, who is like you in Israel? So, why didn't you guard your lord the king? For one of the troops came in to kill the king your lord. ¹⁶ This thing that you've done is no good. As ADONAI lives, all of you deserve to die, because you have not kept watching over your lord, ADONAI's anointed. So now, look around, where are the king's spear and the water jar that were at his head?"

¹⁷ Saul then recognized David's voice and said, "Is this your voice, David my son?"

"It is my voice, my lord the king," David said, ¹⁸ then added, "yet why is my lord pursuing his servant? What have I done? What evil is in my hand? ¹⁹ Now please, let my lord the king listen to the words of his servant. If ADONAI has stirred you up against me, let Him accept an offering. But if men have done so, then cursed are they before ADONAI, because they have now driven me out that I would not cling to ADONAI's inheritance, saying: 'Go, worship other gods.' ²⁰ So now, let not my blood fall to the ground, away from the presence of ADONAI. For the king of Israel has come out to search for but a single flea, just as one hunts for a partridge in the mountains."

²¹ Then Saul replied, "I have sinned! Return, David my son, for I will no longer do you harm, since my life was precious in your eyes this day. Behold, I've played the fool and erred so seriously."

²² David then answered and said, "There is the king's spear! Let one of the young men cross over and take it. ²³ ADONAI will repay everyone his righteousness and his faithfulness. For ADONAI gave you into my hand today, but I refused to lay my hand on ADONAI's anointed. ²⁴ See, just as your life was highly valued in my eyes today, so let my life be highly valued in ADONAI's eyes, and may He deliver me from all trouble."

²⁵ Then Saul said to David, "Blessed are you, David my son! You will both do mightily and will surely prevail." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

David Settles in Ziklag

27 Then David said in his heart, "One day I'll be swept away by the hand of Saul. There's nothing better for me than to escape immediately to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will give up searching for me in all the territories of Israel, so I'll escape from his hand." ² So David rose and crossed over, he and the 600 men that were with him, to Achish son of Maach, king of Gath. ³ David stayed with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, and David with his two wives—Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal's widow. ⁴ So when Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he no longer searched for him.

⁵ Then David said to Achish, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, let me be given a place in one of the country towns, so I may live there. Why should your servant stay in the royal city with you?" ⁶ So Achish granted him Ziklag that day. Thus Ziklag came to belong to the kings of Judah to this day. ⁷ The number of days that David stayed in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.

⁸ Now David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Gizrites, and the Amalekites, for those were inhabitants of the region from ancient times, as you go all the way from Shur and as far as the land of Egypt. ⁹ David attacked the region and was leaving not a man or woman alive, and took away sheep, oxen, donkeys, camels, and clothing. When he returned and came to Achish, ¹⁰ Achish would ask, "Where have you raided today?"

So David would reply, "Against the Negev of Judah, against the Negev of the Jerahmeelite, and against the Negev of the Kenites." ¹¹ David left no man or woman alive to bring to Gath, thinking, "Unless they should tell about us, saying: 'So did David.'" So was his practice all the time he stayed in the country of the Philistines. ¹² Then Achish trusted David, saying, "He has certainly made himself abhorrent to his people Israel; therefore, he will be my vassal forever."

Saul Consults a Medium

28 At that time, the Philistines gathered their armed forces to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, "You surely know that you and your men must march out with me in the army."

² David said to Achish, "Well then, you know what your servant will do."

"Well then, I appoint you my bodyguard for life," Achish said to David.

³ Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had lamented him and buried him in Ramah, his hometown. Saul had removed from the land those who were mediums and spiritists.

⁷ Then Saul said to his courtiers, "Find me a woman who is a medium, so I may go to her and inquire through her." So his courtiers said to him, "Behold, there is a woman that is a medium at En-Dor." ⁸ So Saul disguised himself, put on other clothes, and went with two other men, and they reached the woman by night. Then he said, "Please conjure up for me a ghost—bring up for me the one I will name to you."

⁹ "Look, you know what Saul has done," she said, "how he has cut off the mediums and spiritists from the land. So why then are you setting a trap for my life to get me killed?"

¹⁰ Saul vowed to her by ADONAI saying, "As ADONAI lives, no punishment will come on you for this thing."

¹¹ "Whom will I bring up for you?" the woman asked. "Bring me up Samuel," he said.

¹² But when the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud shriek. Then the woman spoke to Saul saying, "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!"

¹³ "Don't be afraid!" the king said to her. "What do you see?"

The woman said to Saul, "I see a godlike being coming up from the earth."

¹⁴ "What does he look like?" he asked her.

"An old man is coming up, and he is wrapped with a robe," she said.

Then Saul knew that it was Samuel, so he bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground. ¹⁵ Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?"

"I'm in great distress," Saul answered. "The Philistines are waging war against me, and God has turned away from me—He doesn't answer me anymore, whether by prophets or by dreams. So I called you up to tell me what I should do."

¹⁶ Samuel said, "So why ask me, since ADONAI has turned away from you and become your adversary?"

¹⁷ Now ADONAI has done for Himself just as He foretold through me—ADONAI has torn the kingship out of your hand and has given it to another fellow, to David.

¹⁸ Since you did not obey the voice of ADONAI and did not execute His fierce wrath on Amalek, so ADONAI has done this to you today. ¹⁹ Moreover, ADONAI will also give the Israelites who are with you into the hand of the Philistines. Tomorrow you and your sons will be with me! Yes, ADONAI will give the army of Israel into the hand of the Philistines."

²⁰ Then Saul immediately fell full length upon the ground, and became so terrified because of the words of Samuel that there was absolutely no strength in him, for he had eaten nothing all day and all night.

²¹ Then the woman came to Saul and saw that he was so agitated, so she told him, "Behold, your maidservant obeyed you; I put my life in my hand by listening to your words, which you spoke to me. ²² Please, you too listen to the voice of your maidservant, and let me set a morsel of bread before you, so you can eat and have strength to go on your way."

²³ But he refused and said, "I won't eat." But when his courtiers and the woman urged him, he listened to them. So he got up from the ground and sat on the bed. ²⁴ The woman had a fatted calf in the house, so she hurried and butchered it, and took flour, kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it. ²⁵ She brought it before Saul and his courtiers, and they ate. Then they arose and went away that night.

David Sent Back from Battle

29 Now the Philistines mustered all their armies at Aphek, while the Israelites were camping by the spring in Jezreel. ² As the Philistine lords were proceeding ahead of their hundreds and thousands, David and his men were bringing up the rear with Achish. ³ Then the Philistine commanders said, "What are these Hebrews doing here?"

Achish said to the Philistine commanders, "No! That's David, servant of Israel's King Saul—he's been with me today for over a year, and I've not found any fault in him since the day he defected to me until now."

⁴ But the Philistine commanders got angry with him, and the Philistine commanders said to him, "Make this man go back—back to his place you assigned him. He must not go down with us to the battle, or in the battle he might become our adversary. For how would this fellow appease his lord? Wouldn't it be with the heads of our men? ⁵ Isn't this one David, about whom they were singing in dances saying: 'Saul has slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?'"

⁶ So Achish called David and said to him, "As ADONAI lives, you have been upright and your going out and your coming in with me in the army are pleasing in my eyes. For I never found fault with you since the day of your coming to me up to this day. However, the other lords do not approve of you. ⁷ So now, turn around and go back in peace, and you won't be doing anything to displease the Philistine lords."

⁸ "But what have I done?" David said to Achish. "What have you found in your servant from the day I have been before you to this day, that I shouldn't go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

⁹ "I know," Achish answered saying to David. "You are as pleasing in my eyes as an angel of God. Nevertheless, the Philistine commanders have said, 'He must not go up with us to the battle.' ¹⁰ So now, rise up early in the morning, you and the servants of your lord that came with you, and as soon you rise, early in the morning, once there is light, leave." ¹¹ So David rose up early, he and his men, leaving in the morning to return to the land of the Philistines. Meanwhile, the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

Raid on Amalek

30 Now it came to pass, when David and his men returned to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid on the Negev and on Ziklag, and had attacked Ziklag and burned it with fire; ² taking the women in it captive, young and old, without killing anyone, but carried them off as they went their way. ³ So when David and his men came to the town, behold, it was burned with fire—and their wives, their sons, and their daughters had been taken captives. ⁴ Then David and the troops with him lifted up their voice and wept until there was no more strength in them to weep. ⁵ Even David's two wives were taken captive—Ahinoam of Jezreel, and Abigail of Carmel, Nabal's widow.

⁶ So David was in a serious bind, for the troops were calling for his stoning, for all the troops were bitter of soul, every man for his sons and his daughters. But David strengthened himself in ADONAI his God. ⁷ Then David said to Abiathar the kohen son of Ahimelech, "Please bring me the ephod." So Abiathar brought the ephod to David. ⁸ David inquired of ADONAI saying, "Should I pursue after this raiding band? Shall I overtake them?"

He answered him, "Pursue! For you will surely overtake and you will surely rescue!" ⁹ So David went, he and the 600 men with him, and came to the Wadi Besor, where those left behind remained— ¹⁰ for 200 men stayed behind because they were too exhausted to cross Wadi Besor. Yet David pursued, he and the other 400 men.

¹¹ Then they found an Egyptian in the open field and brought him to David, gave him bread to eat and water to drink, ¹² and they also gave him a piece of fig cake and two cakes of raisins. When he had eaten, his spirit came back to him, for he had eaten no bread and drunk no water for three days and three nights.

¹³ Then David asked him, "To whom do you belong? Where are you from?"

"I am a young Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite," he said. "My master abandoned me three days ago because I fell sick. ¹⁴ We made a raid in the Negev of the Cherethites, and on Judah, and on the Negev of Caleb; also we burned Ziklag with fire."

¹⁵ Then David asked him, "Will you lead me to this raiding band?"

"Swear to me by God that you won't kill me or deliver me into my master's hands," he said, "and I will lead you to this marauding band." ¹⁶ So he led him down, and behold, they were scattered over all the area, eating, drinking, and feasting because of all the great spoil that they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah. ¹⁷ David attacked them from the twilight until the evening of the next day. None of them escaped, except 400 young men who rode on camels and fled.

¹⁸ So David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken, and rescued his two wives. ¹⁹ There was nothing of theirs missing, whether young or old, sons or daughters, spoils, or anything else that had been carried off—David recovered everything. ²⁰ David took all the flocks and the herd that they had driven ahead of the other cattle, so they said, "This is David's spoil."

²³ "You must not do so, my brothers, with what ADONAI has given us," David said. "It is He who has protected us and gave into our hands the raiding band that attacked us. ²⁴ Who would listen to you in this matter? The share of him who went down to the battle is to be the same as that of him who remained by the baggage. They will share alike." ²⁵ So it has been from that day forward—he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.

²⁶ When David arrived at Ziklag, he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, "Look, a blessing for you from the spoil of the enemies of ADONAI," ²⁷ to those in Beth-El, Ramoth-Negev, Jattir, ²⁸ Aroer, Siphmoth, Eshtemoa, ²⁹ Racal, to those in the towns of the Jerahmeelites, to those in the towns of the Kenites, ³⁰ Hormah, Bor-Ashan, Athach, ³¹ Hebron, and to all the places where David and his men had roamed.

Saul Killed on Mt. Gilboa

31 Now the Philistines were fighting against Israel. Israel's men fled before the Philistines and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa. ²The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons, and the Philistines struck down Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. ³When the battle intensified against Saul, the archers hit him, so he was severely wounded by the archers. ⁴Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, or else these uncircumcised will come and thrust me through after torturing me." But his armor-bearer refused, for he was too afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell on it. ⁵When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword and died with him. ⁶So Saul, his three sons, his armor-bearer, and all his men died together that same day.

⁷When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and those across the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned the towns and fled. Then the Philistines came and occupied them.

⁸It was the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹So they cut off his head and stripped off his armor, and sent them throughout the land of the Philistines, to spread the good news to the house of their idols and to the people. ¹⁰Then they put his armor in the house of the Ashtaroth and fastened his body to the wall of Beth-Shan.

¹¹Now when the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, ¹²all their valiant men set out and walked all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-Shan, then went to Jabesh and burned them there. ¹³They took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh and fasted for seven days.

2 Samuel

2 Samuel Introduction

See the introduction to 1 Samuel for name, authorship and dating. For its part, 2 Samuel begins near the end of the 11th century BC with David's ascension to power following the protracted struggle with Saul, which ended in his death. The transition to a monarchical form of government, with David at its head, is chronicled in 2 Samuel in a manner that underscores how David came to power honorably and not stealthily. He emerged as king in Hebron at God's direction; later, over the entire country.

The narrative informs that Saul had been mortally wounded by the Philistines. Fearing abuse, he attempted a botched suicide; then, begged a wandering Amalekite to end his agony. The foreigner euthanized Saul and brought Saul's crown to David who was not happy to celebrate Saul's demise. Though David came to power honorably, sadly, he didn't always manage it as honorably.

David's administration experienced intrigue, internal struggles, and a bitter rebellion launched by his son Absalom—no doubt chagrined that Solomon, son from an affair that began with adultery, was getting the upper hand in the family system. Supernatural deliverance, however, often came to David and God's people through the king's servant leadership. Despite occasional slip-ups, David's reign was marked by a determined pursuit to find and follow God's will, thereby bringing Israel under God's sovereign direction—most of the time. David's dependence on God was monumental. His sporadic abuse of power and betrayal of trust was equally monumental. His affair with Bathsheba, coupled with the conspiracy to cover it up and murder of her husband Uriah, ranks among the worst sins reported in Scripture. Nevertheless, many theologians rightly identify David as a "type" of messiah.

David's reign set a standard of godly leadership. His humble submission to God set a standard of faith.

Through David, we learn that a nation's blessings are often dependent on its leader's decision to obey God. We also learn that because David failed to lead his own family properly, chaos was never far removed from his later years. David's failure to correct his children led to rape, murder, and rebellion that nearly toppled his administration.

Another lesson of 2 Samuel is that bitterness and unforgiveness can last indefinitely and destroy all hope for restoration. When Absalom launched a revolution, his chief advisor was Ahithophel. Ahithophel had formerly been David's trusted friend and counselor. What led to this horrific betrayal of trust? Uriah was not the only man hurt by David's adulterous indiscretion. Ahithophel was Bathsheba's grandfather (see 2 Sam. 11:3 and 23:34). He never forgave David. Ahithophel's bitterness and unforgiveness festered until it manifested in betrayal. It ended in suicide after his support of Absalom's wicked rebellion failed to dethrone David. The pain of David's betrayal was aptly described in Psalms 41:9 and 55:12-13. Therein the betrayal of by his friend Judas was also prophesied. Rejoice in the truth that our deepest pain and darkest sins can be resolved through our Messiah!

David Mourns Saul and Jonathan

1 Now it came to pass after the death of Saul—when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites—that David stayed two days in Ziklag. 2 On the third day, behold, a man came from Saul's camp, with his clothes torn and dust on his head. Now when he approached David, he fell to the ground and prostrated himself.

3 Then David asked him, "Where are you coming from?"

"I've escaped from the camp of Israel," he answered.

4 "How did things go?" David asked him. "Please, tell me."

He answered, "The troops fled the battlefield—also many of the troops fell and died. And even Saul and his son Jonathan are dead."

5 David asked the young man informing him, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

6 The young man informing him answered, "I happened by chance to be on Mount Gilboa, and look, Saul was leaning on his spear, while the chariots and the horsemen were closing in on him. 7 When he turned around and saw me, he called me. So I answered, 'Here I am.' 8 Then he asked me, 'Who are you?'"

"So I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.' 9 So he said to me, 'Stand now over me and kill me! For I'm in agony, yet I'm still alive.' 10 So I stood over him and killed him, because I knew he couldn't survive after he had fallen. Then I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and brought them here—to my lord."

11 Then David took hold of his clothes and tore them, and so did all the men that were with him, 12 and they mourned, wept and fasted until evening for Saul and his son Jonathan, for the troops of ADONAI and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

13 Then David said to the young man who informed him, "Where are you from?"

"I am a son of an Amalekite outsider," he replied.

14 Then David said to him, "How is it that you were not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy ADONAI's anointed one?" 15 Then David called one of the young men and said, "Come and strike him down." And he struck him down and he died. 16 David said to him, "Your blood is on your own head, for your mouth testified against you saying, 'I killed ADONAI's anointed.'"

17 Then David chanted this lament over Saul and his son Jonathan, 18 and ordered that the sons of Judah be taught the "Song of the Bow." (Behold, it is written in the Book of Jashar):

19 "Your glory, O Israel, is slain on your high places!
 How the mighty have fallen!"

20 Tell it not in Gath, proclaim it not in Ashkelon's streets,
 lest Philistine daughters rejoice,
 lest daughters of the uncircumcised gloat!

21 Hills of Gilboa, let no dew or rain be on you, nor on bountiful fields, for there the shield of the mighty ones lay defiled—Saul's shield will no longer be anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain,
 from the fat of the mighty,

Jonathan's bow never turned back,
 Saul's sword never returned empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan, loved and delightful, parted neither in life nor death.
 They were swifter than eagles, stronger than lions.

24 Daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet and finery, who put ornaments of gold on your clothes.

25 How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle!

Jonathan on your heights is slain!

²⁶ I am distressed for you, my brother Jonathan!
Very pleasing were you to me.
Wonderful was your love to me more than the love of women.
²⁷ How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war destroyed!

Judah Anoints David King

2 Now it came to pass after this that David inquired of ADONAI saying, "Should I go up to one of the towns of Judah?"

ADONAI said to him, "Go up."

"Where shall I go up?" David asked.

"To Hebron," He said.

² So David went up there, along with his two wives—Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite. ³ David also brought up his men that were with him, each with his household, and they settled in the towns of Hebron. ⁴ Then the men of Judah came and there anointed David king over the house of Judah.

Then they told David saying, "It was the men of Jabesh-Gilead who buried Saul."

⁵ So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-Gilead and said to them, "Blessed are you of ADONAI for showing this kindness to Saul your lord, by burying him. ⁶ So now may ADONAI show you kindness and faithfulness; and I also will show you goodness because you have done this thing. ⁷ Now therefore, be strong and brave, for Saul your lord is dead, and also the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

Forces of Abner and Joab Battle

⁸ Now Abner son of Ner, Saul's army commander, had taken Saul's son Ish-bosheth, and brought him over to Mahanaim. ⁹ Then he made him king over Gilead, Asher, Jezreel, Ephraim, and Benjamin—over all Israel. ¹⁰ Saul's son Ish-bosheth was 40 years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned for two years. But the house of Judah followed David. ¹¹ The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

¹² Once Abner son of Ner and the troops of Saul's son Ish-bosheth went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon.

¹³ Meanwhile, Joab son of Zeruijah and the troops of David went out—they met each other by the pool of Gibeon, so they sat down, one group on one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

¹⁴ Then Abner said to Joab, "Now let the young men get up and compete before us."

"Let them get up," Joab replied. ¹⁵ Then they got up and came forward by number—12 for Benjamin and for Saul's son Ish-bosheth and 12 from David's servants. ¹⁶ Then each grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they all fell down together. Therefore, that place was called Helkath-Hazzurim †, which is in Gibeon. ¹⁷ The battle was very fierce that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated before David's servants.

¹⁸ Now the three sons of Zeruijah were Joab, Abishai, and Asahel. Asahel was as swift-footed as one of the gazelles of the field. ¹⁹ Asahel pursued Abner, not swerving to the right or to the left from pursuing Abner. ²⁰ Then Abner looked behind him and asked, "Is it you, Asahel?"

"It is I," he answered.

²¹ So Abner said to him, "Turn away to your right or to your left, seize one of the young men and take his armor for yourself." But Asahel would not turn away from following him. ²² Once again Abner warned Asahel, "Turn away from pursuing me! Why should I strike you to the ground? How would I ever look your brother Joab in the face?" ²³ But he refused to turn aside, so Abner struck him with the butt end of the spear in the groin, so that the spear came out through his back, and he fell down there and died on the spot. When all who came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died, they stood still. ²⁴ But Joab and Abishai continued pursuing Abner. As the sun was setting, they reached the hill of Ammah, which faces Giah on the road to the wilderness of Gibeon.

²⁷ "As God lives," Joab replied, "if you had not spoken, then surely the people would have gone up until the morning, everyone after his kinsman." ²⁸ So Joab blew the shofar, and all the soldiers halted, and pursued Israel no more, nor did they continue to fight any longer. ²⁹ So Abner and his men marched all that night through the Arabah, then they crossed over the Jordan, and marched through all morning until they reached Mahanaim. ³⁰ Joab returned from pursuing Abner, and when he had gathered all the troops, 19 of David's soldiers besides Asahel were missing. ³¹ But David's soldiers had struck down many of Benjamin and Abner's men, so that 360 men died. ³² Then they took up Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb, which was in Beth-Lehem. Joab and his men marched all night, until the day dawned on them at Hebron.

Betrayal of Abner

3 Now the war between the house of Saul and the house of David lasted a long time. While David grew steadily stronger, the house of Saul grew steadily weaker. ² Sons were born to David in Hebron: his first-born was Amnon by Ahinoam of Jezreel; ³ his second was Chileab by Abigail, the widow of Nabal the Carmelite; the third was Absalom son of Maacah, daughter of King Talmai of Geshur; ⁴ the fourth was Adonijah son of Haggith; the fifth was Shephatiah son of Abital; ⁵ and the sixth, Ithream, by David's wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

† Meaning, Field of Blades

⁶ During the war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner strengthened his position in the house of Saul. ⁷ Now Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah daughter of Aiah; and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, "Why have you slept with my father's concubine?"

⁸ But Abner became very angry over Ish-bosheth's words and said, "Am I a dog's head from Judah? To this day I've been loyal to the house of Saul your father, to his kinsmen, and to his friends, and I haven't handed you over to David—yet today you are accusing me of wrongdoing with this woman. ⁹ May God do so to Abner and even more if, as ADONAI has sworn to David, I don't accomplish this for him— ¹⁰ to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and establish the throne of David over Israel and Judah, from Dan to Beer-Sheba!" ¹¹ But Ish-bosheth could not respond to Abner another word, because he was afraid of him.

¹² Then Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf saying, "Whose is the land? Make your covenant with me, and see, my hand will be with you to bring all Israel over to you."

¹³ "Good!" said David. "I will cut a covenant with you. But one thing I require of you: you will not see my face unless you first bring Saul's daughter Michal when you come to see my face."

¹⁷ Now Abner had a word with the elders of Israel saying, "In times past you wanted David to be king over you. ¹⁸ So now do it! For ADONAI has spoken of David saying, 'By the hand of My servant David I will deliver My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all their enemies.'"

¹⁹ Abner also spoke in the hearing of Benjamin. Then Abner went to Hebron to speak in the hearing of David about all that was agreeable to Israel and to the whole house of Benjamin.

²⁰ When Abner came to David in Hebron along with 20 other men, David held a banquet for Abner and the men with him. ²¹ Abner said to David, "Let me get up and go rally all Israel to my lord the king, so that they may cut a covenant with you, and you may reign over all that your soul desires." So David sent Abner away, and he departed in shalom.

²² Just then, David's soldiers and Joab came from a raid, bringing with them much spoil. By then Abner was no longer with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he departed in shalom. ²³ When Joab and all the soldiers with him arrived, they told Joab, saying, "Abner son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he has gone in shalom."

²⁴ Then Joab came to the king and said, "What have you done? Look here, Abner came to you—why did you send him away? Now he is getting away! ²⁵ You know Abner son of Ner—surely he came to deceive you, to spy on your goings and comings, and to find out all that you are doing."

²⁶ When Joab left David, he sent messengers after Abner, so they brought him back from the well of Sirah, though David knew nothing about it. ²⁷ Now when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside within the gate to speak with him privately, and there stabbed him in the groin, so that he died—on account of the blood of his brother Asahel. ²⁸ When David heard about it afterward, he said, "I and my kingdom are innocent before ADONAI forever from the blood of Abner son of Ner. ²⁹ May it whirl on Joab's head and on all his father's house. May the house of Joab never be without someone with discharge or tzara'at, lame or one fallen by the sword or one who lacks food." ³⁰ So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in battle.

³¹ Then David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, "Rend your clothes, gird with sackcloth, and lament before Abner." King David walked behind the platform. ³² When they buried Abner in Hebron, the king lifted up his voice and wept aloud at Abner's grave, and all the people wept. ³³ Then the king chanted a lament for Abner and said, "Should Abner die like a senseless fool?"

³⁴ Your hands were not bound, your feet were never put in fetters.
As one falls
before the children of iniquity, so did you fall."

Then all the people wept again over him. ³⁵ Then all the people came to urge David to eat some food while it was still day, but David vowed saying, "May God do so to me and even more if I taste food or anything else before the sun sets." ³⁶ All the people took note of it and it pleased them, just as everything the king did pleased all the people. ³⁷ So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not the king's will to kill Abner son of Ner. ³⁸ Then the king said to his soldiers, "Don't you realize that a prince and a great man has fallen in Israel today? ³⁹ So today I am vulnerable, even though anointed king. These men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too hard for me to handle. May ADONAI reward the evildoer according to his wickedness."

Assassination of Ish-bosheth

4 Now when Saul's son heard that Abner had died in Hebron, his courage sank, and all the Israelites were disturbed. ² Saul's son had two men who were commanders of raiding bands: the name of one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechab, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite of the sons of Benjamin (for Beeroth is also considered part of Benjamin,³ though the Beerothites had fled to Gittaim and live there as outsiders to this day).

⁴ (Saul's son Jonathan had a son whose legs were crippled. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel, and his nurse picked him up and fled. It came about, as she was hurrying to flee, that he fell and was crippled. His name was Mephibosheth.)

⁵ Now the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, set out and came to the house of Ishbosheth at the heat of the day, as he was taking his midday nap. ⁶ When they came within the house, as though to get wheat, they stabbed him in the stomach. Then Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped. ⁷ When they had gotten within the house, he was lying on his bed in his bedroom, they stabbed him and killed him, then beheaded him and took his head, and traveled by the way of the Arabah all night. ⁸ Then they brought the head of Ishbosheth to David in Hebron, and said to the king, "Here is the head of Saul's son Ishbosheth, your enemy, who sought your life. Today ADONAI has avenged my lord the king of Saul and his offspring."

⁹ Then David answered Rechab and his brother Baanah, sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, saying to them, "As ADONAI lives, who redeemed my soul out of all distress, ¹⁰ when someone informed me saying, 'Look, Saul is dead!' thinking he was a bearer of good news, I seized him and killed him in Ziklag, instead of rewarding him for his news. ¹¹ How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous person in his own house and on his bed! Should I not now require his blood from your hands and rid the earth of you?"

¹² Then David commanded the young men, and they slew them, cut off their hands and their legs, and hung them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

All Israel Anoints David King

5 Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and spoke saying, "Here we are, your own flesh and blood. ² Even before, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led Israel out and back. Also ADONAI said to you, 'You will shepherd My people Israel and be ruler over Israel.'" ³ So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David cut a covenant with them at Hebron before ADONAI. Then they anointed David king over Israel. ⁴ David was 30 years old when he began to reign and he reigned 40 years. ⁵ In Hebron he reigned over Judah 7 years and 6 months, and in Jerusalem he reigned 33 years over all Israel and Judah.

Securing Jerusalem

⁶ Now the king and his soldiers marched to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the region. But they said to David, "You'll never get in here! Even the blind and the lame could ward you off," thinking, "David can't get in here." ⁷ Nevertheless, David did capture the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David). ⁸ On that day David said, "Whoever would conquer the Jebusites must strike through the water shaft to those 'lame and blind' whom David's soul despises." That is why they used to say, "The blind or lame couldn't get into the house." ⁹ So David occupied the stronghold and renamed it the City of David. Then David fortified it all round from the Millo inward.

¹⁰ David continued to grow stronger, for ADONAI Elohim - Tzva'ot was with him.

¹³ Then David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem, after he came from Hebron, and more sons and daughters were born to David. ¹⁴ Now these are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ¹⁵ Ibhahar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, ¹⁶ Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

Master of Breakthroughs

¹⁷ Now when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over Israel, all the Philistines marched up searching for David. When David heard about it, he went down to the stronghold. ¹⁸ The Philistines came and spread out in the valley of Rephaim. ¹⁹ Then David inquired of ADONAI saying, "Should I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them over into my hand?"

ADONAI answered David, "Go up, for I will certainly give the Philistines over into your hand."

²⁰ So David came to Baal-Perazim † and David struck them down there. So he said, " ADONAI has broken through my enemies before me like the breakthrough of waters!" That is why he named that place Baal-Perazim. ²¹ They abandoned their idols there, so David and his men removed them.

²² But the Philistines marched up and spread out in the valley of Rephaim again. ²³ When David inquired of ADONAI, He said, "Do not go up; instead circle around behind them and attack them in front of the balsam trees. ²⁴ Now it will be when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you must act, for then ADONAI will have gone out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines. ²⁵ David did just as ADONAI had commanded him, and he struck down the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

† Meaning, Master of breakthroughs

Ark Comes Into Jerusalem

6 Now David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, 30,000. ² Then David and all the people who were with him arose and set out from Baale-Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the Name, [†] the very Name of ADONAI -Tzva'ot who is enthroned between the cheruvim. ³ So they loaded the ark of God on a new cart and carried it out of the house of Abinadab that was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, Abinadab's sons, drove the new cart ⁴ as they brought it from the house of Abinadab (which was on the hill) with the ark of God, and Ahio was walking in front of the ark.

⁵ Meanwhile, David and the whole house of Israel were celebrating before ADONAI with all kinds of instruments made of cypress wood, with harps, lyres, tambourines, three-stringed instruments, and cymbals ^{††}. ⁶ But when they reached the threshing floor of Nahon, Uzzah reached out to the ark of God and grasped it, for the oxen had stumbled. ⁷ Then the anger of ADONAI was kindled against Uzzah. God struck him down there for his irreverence, so that he died there beside the ark of God. ⁸ David was upset because of ADONAI's outburst against Uzzah. That place is called Perez-Uzzah [‡] to this day.

⁹ So David was frightened of ADONAI that day. Then he said, "How can the ark of ADONAI come to me?"

¹⁰ David was unwilling to move the ark of ADONAI to him, to the City of David; instead, David diverted it to the house of Obed-edom the Gittite. ¹¹ So the ark of ADONAI remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months; meanwhile ADONAI blessed Obed-edom and his entire household.

¹² Then it was reported to King David saying, " ADONAI has blessed the house of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, because of the ark of God." So David went and brought the ark of God up from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with joy. ¹³ Now when the bearers of the ark of ADONAI had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. ¹⁴ Meanwhile, David was dancing before ADONAI with all his might while he was wearing a linen ephod. ¹⁵ So David and the entire house of Israel brought up the ark of ADONAI with shouting and with the sound of the shofar. ¹⁶ But as the ark of ADONAI entered the city of David, Saul's daughter Michal looked out of the window and saw King David leaping and dancing before ADONAI, so she despised him in her heart.

¹⁷ They brought in the ark of ADONAI and set it in its place in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it. Then David offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before ADONAI. ¹⁸ When David had finished offering the burnt offering and fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of ADONAI -Tzva'ot. ¹⁹ Then he distributed to all the people—to the whole multitude of Israel, men and women alike—to everyone a loaf of bread, a cake made in a pan and a raisin cake. Then all the people departed, each to his home.

²⁰ David returned to bless his own household. But Saul's daughter Michal came out to meet David and said, "How the king of Israel distinguished himself today, when he uncovered himself today in the eyes of the slave girls of his subjects, as any vulgar fellow would shamelessly uncover himself!"

²¹ "It was before ADONAI," David said to Michal, "who chose me instead of your father and all his household, appointing me ruler over the people of ADONAI, over Israel! So I danced Before ADONAI, ²² and will dishonor myself even more than this, and will be low in my own eyes. Yet in the eyes of the slave girls whom you mentioned, I will be honored." ²³ So Saul's daughter Michal had no children to the day of her death.

ADONAI's Promise to David

7 Now it came about when the king lived in his palace and ADONAI had granted him rest from all his enemies around him, ² that the king said to the prophet Nathan, "See now, I am living in a house of cedar, yet the ark of God remains within curtains."

³ "Go, do all that is in your heart," Nathan said to the king, "for ADONAI is with you."

⁴ But it came to pass the same night that the word of ADONAI came to Nathan saying: ⁵ "Go, tell My servant David: Thus says ADONAI: Are you to build Me a house for Me to dwell in? ⁶ Since the day that I brought up the children of Israel from Egypt to this day I have not dwelt in a house, but have been moving about in a tent, even in a tabernacle. ⁷ In all My journeying among all the children of Israel, did I ever speak a word to any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?' ⁸ So now, thus you shall say to My servant David: Thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people, over Israel. ⁹ I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make your name as great as the greatest on earth. ¹⁰ I will also set up a place for My people Israel and will plant them, so they may dwell in their own place and not be disturbed again. Nor will the children of wickedness afflict them anymore as in the past, ¹¹ since the day that I commanded judges to be over My people Israel. So I will give you rest from all your enemies.

"Moreover, ADONAI declares to you that ADONAI will make a house for you. ¹² When your days are done and you sleep with your fathers, I will raise up your seed, who will come forth from you after you, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹³ He will build a house for My Name, and I will establish his royal throne forever. ¹⁴I will be a father to him, and he will be a son to Me. ¹⁵If he commits iniquity, I will correct him with the rod of men and with the strokes from sons of men. ¹⁶Yet My lovingkindness will not be withdrawn from him as I withdrew it from Saul, whom I removed from before you. ¹⁷So your house and your kingship will be secure forever before you; your throne will be established forever." ¹⁸Just so Nathan spoke all these words and all this vision to David.

¹⁹Then King David went in and sat before ADONAI and said, "Who am I, my Lord ADONAI, and what is my family, that You have brought me this far? ²⁰Yet this was a small thing in Your eyes, my Lord ADONAI—for You have spoken also of Your servant's house for the distant future. This is a revelation ²¹for humanity, my Lord ADONAI. ²²What more can David add in speaking to You? For You already know Your servant, my Lord ADONAI. ²³For the sake of Your word and according to Your own heart, You have done everything great, revealing this to Your servant. ²⁴Therefore You are great, my Lord ADONAI! For there is none like You, and there is no other God besides You, as we all have heard with our ears. ²⁵What one nation on earth is like Your people, like Israel, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make for Himself a Name, to do for You a great thing and awesome deeds for Your land, before Your people whom You redeemed for Yourself from Egypt—driving out nations and their gods? ²⁶So You established for Yourself Your people Israel as Your very own people forever, and You, ADONAI, have become their God.

²⁷"So now, my Lord ADONAI, confirm the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and his house forever, and do as You have promised. ²⁸Let Your Name be magnified forever by saying, 'ADONAI -Tzva'ot is God over Israel!' May the house of Your servant David be established before You. ²⁹For You, ADONAI -Tzva'ot God of Israel, have made a revelation to Your servant saying, 'I will build you a house.' Therefore Your servant has found his heart to pray this prayer to You. ³⁰So now, my Lord ADONAI, You alone are God, and Your words are truth, and You have promised Your servant this good thing. ³¹So now let it please You to bless the house of Your servant, to continue forever before You. For You, my Lord ADONAI, have spoken, and with Your blessing Your servant's house will be blessed forever."

David's Kingdom Expands

8 Now afterward David attacked the Philistines and subdued them, and took Metheg-Ammah ¹from the hand of the Philistines. ²He also defeated Moab. He made them lie down on the ground and measured them with a cord. Every two measures of them were

† cf. Luke 1:32-33. †† cf. Heb. 1:5. ‡ cf. Rev. 11:15. †† Or, instruction law Torah †† Or, the bridle of the mother city put to death, and the third measure was kept alive. So the Moabites became vassals to David, bringing tribute.

³David also defeated King Hadadezer, son of Rehob of Zobah, as he went to restore his dominion along the River ⁴. ⁵David captured from him 1700 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers, and David hamstringed all the chariot horses, while reserving 100 of them for chariots. ⁶When the Arameans of Damascus came to the aid of King Hadadezer of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 Aramean men. ⁷Then David stationed garrisons in Aram of Damascus, and the Arameans became vassals to David, bringing tribute. So ADONAI gave victory to David wherever he went. ⁸David also took the golden shields of Hadadezer's officers and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁹From Bethah and Berothai, towns of Hadadezer, King David took a vast amount of bronze.

¹⁴Then David made a name for himself when he returned from striking 18,000 down from Edom in the Valley of Salt. ¹⁵Then he stationed garrisons in Edom. Throughout all Edom he stationed garrisons, so that all the Edomites became vassals to David. So ADONAI gave victory to David wherever he went.

¹⁶David reigned over all Israel, and David executed justice and righteousness for all his people. ¹⁷Joab son of Zeruiah was commander over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder; ¹⁸Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were kohanim; Seraiah was scribe; ¹⁹Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and David's sons were chief ministers.

Covenant Loyalty to Mephibosheth

9 Then David inquired, "Is there anyone still left from the house of Saul, so that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?" ²Now there was a servant from Saul's house whose name was Ziba, so they summoned him to David. The king asked him, "Are you Ziba?"

"Your servant," he said.

³The king asked him, "Is there still anyone from the house of Saul to whom I may show the kindness of God?"

"There is still a son of Jonathan," Ziba said to the king, "with crippled legs."

††† i.e., Euphrates River

⁴“Where is he?” the king said to him.

Ziba said to the king, “He’s there, in the house of Machir son of Ammiel, in Lo-Debar.” ⁵ So King David sent word and brought him from the house of Machir son of Ammiel, from Lo-Debar.

⁶ Then Mephibosheth, son of Jonathan son of Saul, came to David, fell on his face and prostrated himself. “Mephibosheth!” David said.

“Behold your servant!” he answered.

“Don’t be afraid,” ⁷ David said to him, “for I will surely show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan. I will restore to you all the land of your grandfather Saul, and you will always eat bread at my table.”

⁸ Then he bowed down and said, “What is your servant, that you should turn to look at such a dead dog like me?”

⁹ Then the king summoned Ziba, Saul’s servant, and said to him, “All that belonged to Saul and to all his household I have given to your master’s son. ¹⁰ So you, you and your sons and your servants will till the land for him, and you will bring in the yield so that your master’s son may have food to eat. But Mephibosheth your master’s son will always eat bread at my table.” Now Ziba had 15 sons and 20 servants. ¹¹ Then Ziba said to the king, “According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so will your servant do.” Thus, Mephibosheth used to eat at the table just like one of the king’s sons. ¹² Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. All the members of Ziba’s household were servants to Mephibosheth. ¹³ But Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, for he ate at the king’s table regularly, though he was crippled in both his legs.

Aram Vanquished

10 It came about after this that the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son Hanun reigned in his place. ² Then David thought, “Let me show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent word by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning his father. But when David’s servants arrived at the land of the children of Ammon, ³ the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, “Do you think that David is really honoring your father because he has sent consolers to you? Has not David sent his servants to you in order to explore the city, to spy it out, and to overthrow it?” ⁴ So Hanun seized David’s servants, shaved off one side of their beards, cut off their garments in the middle at their buttocks, and sent them away.

⁵ When they informed David, he sent word to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated. The king said, “Stay in Jericho until your beards grow, then return.” ⁶ Now when the children of Ammon saw that they had become a stench to David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Arameans of Beth-Rehob and the Arameans of Zobah, 20,000 foot soldiers, and the king of Maacah with 1,000 men, plus 12,000 men from Tob.

¹³ So Joab and the troops with him advanced to battle against the Arameans—and they fled before him. ¹⁴ When the children of Ammon saw that the Arameans had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai and withdrew into the city. Then Joab returned from assaulting the children of Ammon, and went to Jerusalem.

¹⁹ When the vassal kings of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with Israel and became servants to them. Then the Arameans were afraid to help the children of Ammon anymore.

David Commits Adultery and Murder

11 Now it came to pass at the turn of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, that David sent Joab and his officials with him and all Israel, and they destroyed the children of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed in Jerusalem. ² One evening David rose from his bed and strolled on the roof of the royal palace. Then from the roof he saw a woman washing—a very beautiful woman. ³ So David sent someone to inquire about the woman, and he reported, “Isn’t this Bath-sheba, daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?”

† Euphrates River

⁴ Then David sent messengers and took her when she came to him, and he lay with her. (She had purified herself from her uncleanness). Then she returned to her house. ⁵ The woman conceived and sent word to David saying, "I'm pregnant."

⁶ So David sent a message to Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." So Joab sent Uriah to David. ⁷ When Uriah came to him, David asked him how Joab was, how the troops fared, and how the war was going. ⁸ Then David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." When Uriah left the royal palace, a present from the king followed him. ⁹ But Uriah slept at the door of the royal palace with all his master's servants, and did not go down to his house. ¹⁰ When they informed David saying, "Uriah did not go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Haven't you come from a journey? Why didn't you go down to your house?"

¹¹ But Uriah answered David, "The ark and Israel and Judah are staying in tents, and my lord Joab and the officers of my lord are camping in the open field. Should I then go to my house to eat and drink and lie with my wife? As you live and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing."

¹² Then David said to Uriah, "Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will send you off." So Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day. The next day, ¹³ David called him, and he ate and drank before him, and he made him drunk. But in the evening he went out to lie on his bed with his master's servants, but did not go down to his house.

¹⁴ So in the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by Uriah's hand. ¹⁵ In the letter he wrote, "Put Uriah in the forefront of the hottest battle and withdraw from him so that he may be struck down and die." ¹⁶ So it came to pass, when Joab was besieging the city, that he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew that valiant men were. ¹⁷ Then the men of the city came out and attacked Joab, and some of the troops of David's officers fell; and Uriah the Hittite also died.

¹⁸ When Joab sent and reported to David all the events of the war, ¹⁹ he charged the messenger saying, "When you finish reporting all the events of the war to the king, ²⁰ if it happens that the king's wrath flares up and he says to you, 'Why did you come so close to the city to fight? Didn't you know that they would shoot from the wall?' ²¹ Who killed Abimelech son of Jerubbesheth? Didn't a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you come so close to the wall?' Then you will say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead, too.'"

²² So the messenger went and came and told David all that Joab had sent him to report. ²³ The messenger said to David, "The men prevailed against us and came out against us in the open field, but we drove them back as far as the entrance of the gate. ²⁴ Then the archers shot at your troops from the wall, and some of the king's officers fell dead, and your servant Uriah the Hittite died, too."

²⁵ Then David said to the messenger, "Thus you shall say to Joab, 'Don't let this matter upset you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Press your attack against the city and overthrow it!' So tell him, chazak!"

²⁶ Now when the wife of Uriah heard that her husband Uriah had died, she mourned over her husband. ²⁷ When the time of mourning was over, David sent someone who brought her to his palace. So she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing David had done was evil in ADONAI's eyes.

Nathan Confronts David

12 Then ADONAI sent Nathan to David. When he came to him, he said to him, "There were two men in the same city—one was rich and the other poor. ² The rich man had an exceedingly huge flock and herd, ³ but the poor man had nothing at all, except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished, and it grew up together with him and his children. It ate from his own morsel and drank from his own cup, and nestled in his bosom, and it was to him like a daughter. ⁴ Now a traveler came to the rich man, but he was unwilling to take one from his own flock or herd to prepare a meal for the wayfarer who had come to him. Rather, he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man that had come to him."

⁵ Then David's anger blazed hot against the man and he said to Nathan, "As ADONAI lives, the man that did this deserves to die! ⁶ So he must make restitution for the lamb fourfold, because he did such a thing and showed no pity."

⁷ Then Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says ADONAI, God of Israel: It is I who anointed you king over Israel, and it is I who delivered you from the hand of Saul. ⁸ I also gave you your master's house and your master's wives into your bosom, and I gave you the house of Israel and of Judah. Now if that were too little, then I would have added to you so much more. ⁹ Why then have you despised the word of ADONAI by doing such evil in My eyes? Uriah the Hittite you have struck down with the sword, and his wife you have taken to be your wife, and him you have slain with the sword of the children of Ammon. ¹⁰ So now the sword will never depart from your house—because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.

¹¹ "Thus says ADONAI: Behold, I am going to raise up evil against you from your own household, and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he will lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. ¹² Indeed, you have done it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel and under the sun."

Nathan replied to David, “ADONAI also has made your sin pass away—you will not die. ¹⁴ However, because by this deed you have made the enemies of ADONAI greatly blaspheme, so even the child born to you will surely die.” ¹⁵ Then Nathan went to his house.

Then ADONAI struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David and he became very sick. ¹⁶ David, therefore, sought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in and lay all night on the floor. ¹⁷ The elders of his household stood beside him in order to get him up from the floor but he was unwilling and would not eat food with them. ¹⁸ Then it came to pass on the seventh day that the child died. But David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they thought, “Behold, while the child was still alive, we spoke to him and he didn't listen to our voice. So how can we tell him that the child is dead? He might do something terrible!”

¹⁹ But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead. So David asked his servants, “Is the child dead?” “He is dead,” they said.

²⁰ Then David got up from the floor, washed and anointed himself, and changed his clothes. Then he went to the House of ADONAI and worshiped. When he came back to his own palace, he asked for food, so they set food before him and he ate.

²¹ His servants asked him, “What is this thing you have done? You fasted and wept while the child was still alive, but as soon as the child died, you got up and ate food.”

²² He replied, “While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept, for I thought, ‘Who knows? ADONAI might be gracious to me and let the child live.’ ²³ But now that he has died, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? It is I who will be going to him, but he will never return to me.”

²⁴ Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba. He went to her and lay with her, and she bore a son and called his name Solomon. ADONAI loved him, ²⁵ and He sent word by the hand of the prophet Nathan. So he called his name Jedidiah †, for ADONAI's sake.

²⁶ Now Joab attacked Rabbah of the children of Ammon and captured the royal city. ²⁷ So Joab sent messengers to David and said, “I have attacked Rabbah and captured the city's water supply. ²⁸ So now gather the rest of the troops together, camp against the city and capture it. Otherwise, I will capture the city myself and it will be named after me.” ²⁹ So David gathered all the troops, went to Rabbah, attacked it, and captured it. ³⁰ Then he took the crown of their king from off his head—its weight was a talent of gold and in it was a precious stone—and then it was placed on David's head. He also brought a vast amount of spoils out of the city. ³¹ Then he brought out the people who were there and put them to work under saws, iron threshing boards and iron axes, and assigned them to brick making; and thus he did to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the troops returned to Jerusalem.

Amnon Attacks Tamar and Absalom's Wrath

13 It came to pass after this that Absalom son of David had a beautiful sister named Tamar, so Amnon, son of David, fell in love with her. ² But Amnon was so frustrated that he fell sick because of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin and it seemed impossible to Amnon to do anything to her. ³ However, Amnon had a friend named Jonadab son of Shimeah, David's brother, and Jonadab was a very shrewd man. ⁴ So he said to him, “Why are you, the king's son, so miserable morning after morning? Won't you tell me?”

Amnon told him, “I'm in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.”

⁵ So Jonadab said to him, “Lie down on your bed and pretend you are sick. When your father comes to see you, say to him, ‘Please let my sister Tamar come and give me some bread to eat. Let her prepare the food in my sight so I may see it and eat from her hand.’”

⁶ So Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick, and when the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, “Please let my sister Tamar come and make me a couple of cakes in front of me so I may eat from her hand.”

⁷ Then David sent someone to the house for Tamar saying, “Go now to your brother Amnon's house and prepare bread for him.” ⁸ So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house while he was lying down. She took dough, kneaded it, made cakes in front of him, and baked the cakes. ⁹ Then she took the pan and poured them out in front of him but he refused to eat.

Then Amnon said, “Everyone, leave me!” So everyone left him. ¹⁰ Then Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the bread into the bedroom that I may eat from your hand.” So Tamar took the cakes she had made and brought them into the bedroom to her brother Amnon. ¹¹ But when she brought them close to him to eat, he grabbed her and said to her, “Come lie with me, my sister.”

¹² “No!” she said to him. “Don't, my brother! Don't rape me, for such a thing should never be done in Israel. Don't do this disgraceful deed! ¹³ I—where could I go with my shame? You—you will be as one of the disgraceful fools in Israel. Now, please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you.”

¹⁴ But he was unwilling to listen to her voice, so he overpowered her, forced her, and lay with her. ¹⁵ Then Amnon loathed her with very intense revulsion—indeed, the hatred that he hated her with was greater than the love in which he had loved her. So Amnon said to her, “Get up, get out!”

¹⁶ But she said to him, “No! Sending me away is even a greater evil than the one you have already done to me!” But again he would not listen to her.

† Meaning, beloved of the Lord

¹⁷ Then he called his servant that attended him and said, "Get this woman away from me now and bolt the door after her."

¹⁸ Now she had on her a long-sleeved garment † for with such robes the king's virgin daughters used to be dressed. When his attendant took her outside and bolted the door after her, ¹⁹ Tamar put ashes on her head and rent her long-sleeved garment that was on her. She laid her hand on her head and was crying aloud as she went away.

²⁰ Then her brother Absalom said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? So now, my sister, keep quiet. He is your brother—don't take this thing to heart." But Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.

²¹ When King David heard about all these things, he was very angry. ²² Absalom did not say a word to Amnon, either good or bad, for Absalom hated Amnon because he had raped his sister Tamar.

²⁴ Then Absalom came to the king and said, "See now, your servant has sheepshearers. Please let the king and his servants come with your servant."

²⁵ But the king said to Absalom, "No, my son. Let's not all go—we don't want to be burdensome to you." Though he urged him, he would not go, though he blessed him.

²⁶ Then Absalom said, "If not, then please let my brother Amnon go with us."

"Why should he go with you?" the king said to him.

²⁷ But when Absalom pressed him, he let Amnon go with him, along with all the king's sons.

²⁸ Then Absalom commanded his young men saying, "Now watch Amnon until his heart is merry with wine. When I tell you, 'Strike Amnon!' then put him to death! Have no fear! Isn't it I who commanded you? Be strong! Be sons of valor!" ²⁹ So Absalom's young men did to Amnon as Absalom had ordered. Then all the king's sons got up, each mounted his mule and fled.

³² But Jonadab son of David's brother Shimeah said in response, "My lord must not think that they have killed all the young men, the king's sons! For only Amnon has died. For from Absalom's mouth this has been determined since the day he raped his sister Tamar. ³³ Now therefore, my lord the king must not take the report to his heart thinking that all the king's sons are dead—for only Amnon is dead."

³⁴ Meanwhile Absalom had fled. When the young watchman lifted up his eyes and looked, behold, there were many people coming down the road behind him on the hillside. ³⁵ Then Jonadab said to the king, "The king's sons have just arrived! It's just as your servant has said." ³⁶ As soon as he finished speaking, behold, the king's sons arrived. They lifted up their voices and wept, and also the king and all his courtiers wept very bitterly.

³⁷ But Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. David mourned for his son every day. ³⁸ So Absalom fled, went to Geshur, and remained there three years. ³⁹ Then King David's soul longed to go out to Absalom; for he was comforted about Amnon, since he was dead.

Joab Brings Absalom to Jerusalem

14 Now Joab son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart was on Absalom. ² So Joab sent word to Tekoa and brought a wise woman from there. He said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner and put on mourning clothes. Do not anoint yourself with oil but be like a woman who has been mourning many days for the dead. ³ Then go to the king and speak to him these words." Then Joab put the words in her mouth.

⁴ When the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, bowed down and said, "Help, O king!"

⁵ "What's the matter with you?" the king said to her.

"Truly, I am a widow, my husband is dead," she said.

⁶ "Your handmaid had two sons, but the two of them fought with each other in the field, where there was no one to separate them. So one struck the other and killed him. ⁷ Now behold, the whole clan has risen against your handmaid and said, 'Hand over the one who struck down his brother so we may put him to death, for the life of his brother whom he slew.' So they will also destroy the heir and extinguish my one remaining ember, leaving to my husband neither name nor remnant on the face of the earth!"

⁸ Then the king said to the woman, "Go to your home. I will issue an order concerning you."

⁹ The woman of Tekoa said to the king, "My lord the king, let the iniquity be on me and on my father's house but may the king and his throne be innocent."

¹⁰ "Whoever speaks to you," the king said, "bring him to me and he shall not touch you anymore."

¹¹ "Please, let the king remember ADONAI your God," she said, "so that the avenger of blood does not destroy any more, so they won't destroy my son."

"As ADONAI lives," he said, "not one hair of your son will fall to the ground."

¹² Then the woman said, "Please, let your handmaid speak a word to my lord the king."

"Say on," he said.

¹³ The woman said, "Why have you devised a situation just like this against God's people? For by speaking this word, the king is like the guilty one—by not bringing back the one he banished. ¹⁴ For we will all surely die and be like water spilt on the ground that cannot be gathered up again. Yet God does not take away life but rather, He devises plans so that a banished person may not remain an outcast from Him. ¹⁵ Now the reason I came to speak this word to my lord the king is because the people have made me afraid. So your handmaid thought, 'I must speak to the king—perhaps the king will fulfill the request of his maidservant. ¹⁶ Surely the king will hear, to deliver his maidservant from the hand of the one who would eliminate both me and my son together out of the inheritance of God.' ¹⁷ Then your handmaid also thought, 'Please let the word of my lord the king bring relief. For like an angel of God so is my lord the king to discern good and evil.' So may ADONAI your God be with you."

¹⁸ Then the king answered and said to the woman, "Please do not hide anything from me concerning what I am about to ask you."

"Please let my lord the king speak," the woman said.

¹⁹ Then the king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?"

"As your soul lives, my lord the king," the woman answered, "no one can turn to the right or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken. Yes, your servant Joab was the one who commanded me and put all these words in the mouth of your handmaid. ²⁰ Your servant Joab did this thing in order to bring about a change in the situation. But my lord is wise—like the wisdom of an angel of God—to know all that goes on in the land."

²¹ Then the king said to Joab, "Behold now, I will do this thing. So go, bring the young man Absalom back."

²² Joab fell on his face to the ground, prostrated himself and blessed the king. Then Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your eyes, my lord the king, since the king has done the word of your servant." ²³ So Joab got up, went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

²⁴ However, the king said, "He may go directly to his own house, but he may not see my face." So Absalom went directly to his own house and did not see the king's face.

²⁵ Now in all Israel there was none as handsome as Absalom—so highly praised. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. ²⁶ When he cut the hair of his head—at the end of every year he would cut it because the hair got so heavy on him that he had to cut it. The weight of the hair from his head was 200 shekels by the royal weight †. ²⁷ To Absalom were born three sons and one daughter, whose name was Tamar—she was a beautiful woman.

²⁸ Now Absalom had lived two full years in Jerusalem but he never saw the king's face. ²⁹ Then Absalom sent for Joab, in order to send him to the king, but he was unwilling to come to him. So he sent word again a second time, but he still would not come. ³⁰ So he said to his servants, "See, Joab's field is next to mine and he has barley there—go and set it on fire." So Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

³¹ Then Joab arose, came to Absalom at his house, and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"

³² "Look, I sent word to you," Absalom said to Joab, "saying, 'Come here, that I may send you to the king to say, 'Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still there.''" So now, let me see the king's face and if there is iniquity in me, let him put me to death." ³³ So Joab went to the king and told him. When he summoned Absalom, he came to the king and bowed down on his face to the ground before the king, and then, the king kissed Absalom.

Absalom's Revolt

15 Now it came about after this that Absalom provided himself with a chariot, horses and 50 men as runners before him. ² Absalom used to rise up early and stand beside the road to the city gate. Whenever anyone had a suit to come to the king for justice, then Absalom would call to him and say, "What town are you from?" Should he answer, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel," ³ Absalom would say to him, "See, your claims are good and right, but there is no one assigned to you by the king to hear you." ⁴ Moreover, Absalom would say, "If only I were appointed judge in the land, then every man who has any suit or case would come to me, and I would get him justice!" ⁵ Also, whenever anyone approached to bow to him, he would stretch his hand, take hold of him, and kiss him. ⁶ So Absalom kept doing this to everyone of Israel who came to the king for judgment. Thus, Absalom stole the hearts of the people of Israel.

⁷ At the end of 40 years Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go to Hebron and pay my vow which I have vowed to ADONAI. ⁸ For your servant vowed a vow while I was still living at Geshur in Aram saying, 'If ADONAI will indeed bring me back to Jerusalem, then I will serve ADONAI.'"

⁹ So the king said to him, "Go in shalom."

Then he rose and went to Hebron. ¹⁰ But Absalom sent spies to all the tribes of Israel to say, "As soon as you hear the sound of the shofar, then you are to say, 'Absalom has become king in Hebron!'" ¹¹ Now 200 men from Jerusalem went with Absalom, who were invited and were going innocently, knowing nothing of the situation. ¹² Also Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor from his town Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. So the conspiracy gained momentum, for the people following Absalom continued to increase.

¹³ Then a messenger came to David saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are following Absalom."

† About five pounds.

David's Exodus from Jerusalem

¹⁴ Then David said to all his officials who were with him in Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee, or else none of us will escape from Absalom. Leave in haste or else he will overtake us quickly and bring disaster down on us and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

¹⁵ Then the king's officials said to the king, "Behold, your servants are ready to do whatever our lord the king chooses." ¹⁶ So the king set out, and his entire household followed him. But the king left behind ten concubines to take care of the palace. ¹⁷ As the king went out and all the people after him, they paused at the last house. ¹⁸ All his servants passed on beside him: all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites—600 men that had come after him from Gath—passed on before the king. ¹⁹ Then the king said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why should you also go with us? Go back and stay with the king, for you are a foreigner and also an exile from your own place. ²⁰ Your arrival was only yesterday—should I make you wander around with us today, to go wherever I may go? Go back and take your kinsmen back with you. Kindness and truth be with you!"

²¹ But Ittai answered the king and said, "As ADONAI lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in whatever place my lord the king will be, whether for death or for life, there also will your servant be." †

²² So David said to Ittai, "Go on and cross over." So Ittai the Gittite passed on, with all his men and all the little children who were with him. ²³ While all the country was weeping with a loud voice, all the people were crossing over as the king was crossing over Kidron Valley. So all the people crossed over toward the road of the wilderness.

²⁴ Then behold, Zadok also came and all the Levites with him, carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set down the ark of God, then Abiathar came up, until all the people had passed by, out of the city.

²⁵ But the king said to Zadok, "Return the ark of God to the city. If I find favor in ADONAI's eyes, He will bring me back, and let me see it and His dwelling. ²⁶ But if He says thus, 'I have no delight in you,' here I am, let Him do to me as seems good in His eyes." ²⁷ The king also said to Zadok the priest, "Do you not see? Return to the city in shalom with your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son and Jonathan son of Abiathar. ²⁸ See, I will wait at the fords of the wilderness, until word comes from you to inform me." ²⁹ Therefore, Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God back to Jerusalem, and they remained there.

³⁰ Then David continued to go up the ascent of the Mount of Olives, weeping as he ascended. He had his head covered and was walking barefoot. So all the people with him each covered his head as they went up, weeping as they ascended.

† cf. John 15:13.

³² Then David went on until he reached the summit—where God was worshiped—and behold, Hushai the Archite met him with his coat rent and dust on his head. ³³ David said to him, "If you pass on with me then you will be a burden to me, ³⁴ but if you return to the city and say to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king—I was your father's servant from then, but now I will be your servant,' then you can thwart Ahithophel's counsel for me. ³⁵ Won't you have with you Zadok and Abiathar the kohanim there? So whatever you hear from the royal palace, you should report it to Zadok and Abiathar the kohanim. ³⁶ See, they have their two sons with them there, Zadok's son Ahimaaz, and Abiathar's son Jonathan—by them you can send to me everything you hear." ³⁷ So David's friend Hushai reached the city just as Absalom was entering Jerusalem.

16 Now when David had passed a little beyond the summit, there was Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth to meet him with a pair of saddled donkeys, and on them 200 loaves of bread, 100 clusters of raisins, 100 fig cakes, and a bottle of wine. ² So the king asked Ziba, "What are you doing with these?"

Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and the figs are for the young men to eat, and the wine is for anyone who faints in the wilderness to drink."

³ Then the king asked, "And where is your master's son?"

"Well, he's staying in Jerusalem," Ziba said to the king, "for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore to me the kingdom of my father.'"

⁴ Then the king said to Ziba, "Behold, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours."

"I bow low," Ziba said. "Let me find favor in your eyes, my lord the king."

⁵ When King David arrived at Bahurim, behold, just coming out from there was a man of the family of the house of Saul—his name was Shimei son of Gera. As he came out, he kept on cursing ⁶ and flinging stones at David and at all King David's servants, while all the people and all the mighty men were at his right hand and on his left. ⁷ Thus, Shimei said as he cursed, "Get out, get out! The man of bloodshed, the good-for-nothing! ⁸ ADONAI has returned on you all the blood of Saul's house, in whose place you've reigned. ADONAI has handed the kingdom over to your son Absalom—so see, your own evil has overtaken you, because you are a man of bloodshed."

⁹ Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why let this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over now and take off his head!"

¹⁰ But the king said, "What have I to do with you, sons of Zeruiah? If he curses, it's because ADONAI has said to him, 'Curse David!' So who should say, 'Why did you do so?'" ¹¹ Then David said to Abishai and to all his officials, "Look, my son who came from my own body is seeking my life—how much more this Benjamite? Leave him alone and let him curse, since ADONAI has told him. ¹² Perhaps ADONAI will look on my affliction and return good to me for his cursing this day." ¹³ So David and his men continued on the way, while Shimei kept walking alongside the hill parallel with him, cursing as he walked, casting stones at him and throwing dirt.

¹⁴ Finally the king and all the people that were with him arrived weary, so he refreshed himself there.

Counselors Divided

¹⁵ Meanwhile Absalom and all the people of the men of Israel arrived in Jerusalem. Ahithophel was with him. ¹⁶ Now when David's friend Hushai the Archite came to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

¹⁷ But Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your loyalty to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

¹⁸ "No!" said Hushai to Absalom. "For the one whom ADONAI has chosen—as well as these people, all the men of Israel—his I will be and with him I will stay.

¹⁹ Besides, whom should I serve? Shouldn't I be in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so I will be in your presence."

²⁰ Then Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give your counsel. What should we do?"

²¹ So Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go to your father's concubines whom he has left to take care of the palace. Then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself abhorrent to your father and the hands of all who are with you will also be strengthened."

²² So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom went to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. ²³ Now, in those days, the counsel that Ahithophel gave was like inquiring for the word of God—so was all of Ahithophel's counsel both with David and with Absalom.

17 Moreover, Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me now choose 12,000 men, and I will arise and pursue David tonight. ² I will attack him while he is weary and weak-handed, and terrify him so that all the people that are with him will flee. Then I will strike down the king when he is alone. ³ Then I will bring all the people back to you—when all will have returned except the man you are seeking, then all the people will be at peace."

⁴ Now the plan seemed right in the eyes of Absalom and all the elders of Israel. ⁵ Then Absalom said, "Call now Hushai the Archite also. Let's hear what he has to say as well." ⁶ When Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom spoke to him saying, "This is what Ahithophel has advised. Should we follow his counsel? If not, you will speak."

⁷ So Hushai said to Absalom, "This time the counsel that Ahithophel has given is not good." ⁸ Hushai then added, "You know your father and his men. They are mighty men, and they are embittered in their souls like a bear robbed of her cubs in the wild. Your father is an expert in warfare, and won't spend the night with the troops. ⁹ Even now, he must be hiding in one of the caves or in some other place. So if he were to fall on them at first, whoever hears of it would say, 'There's a slaughter among the people following Absalom!'"

¹⁰ Then, even one who is valiant, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will utterly melt away—for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty warrior and those who are with him are valiant men. ¹¹ Instead, I counsel that all Israel be gathered altogether to you—from Dan to Beer-Sheba, as abundant as the sand by the sea—and that you personally go into the battle.

¹² Then we will come upon him in one of the places where he can be found and we'll fall upon him as dew falls on the ground. None will be left of all the men who are with him—not even one. ¹³ Moreover, if he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city and drag it into the valley until not even one small stone will be found there."

¹⁴ Then Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For ADONAI had ordained to thwart Ahithophel's good counsel, so that ADONAI might bring evil upon Absalom.

¹⁵ Then Hushai said to Zadok and Abiathar the kohanim, "This and that is what Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel, and this and that is what I advised. ¹⁶ Now, therefore, send word quickly and tell David saying, 'Don't spend the night at the fords in the wilderness but by all means, cross over or else the king and all the people with him may be swallowed up.'" ¹⁷ Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En-Rogel, and a maidservant used to go and pass information along to them. Then they would go and inform King David for they could not be seen entering the city.

¹⁸ But a lad did see them and informed Absalom. So the two of them left quickly and arrived at the house of a man in Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard; so they went down into it. ¹⁹ Then the woman took the cover and spread it over the well's mouth and scattered grain on top of it so that nothing was noticeable. ²⁰ When Absalom's servants came to the woman at the house and said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" the woman said to them, "They crossed over the brook of water." When they had searched and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

²² Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they crossed over the Jordan. By morning light, not even one of them was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

²³ Now when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey, arose, went to his home in his hometown, set his house in order, and hanged himself. So he died and was buried in his father's tomb.

²⁴ David had reached Mahanaim by the time Absalom crossed the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. ²⁵ Now Absalom had set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. (Now Amasa was son of a man whose name was Ithra the Israelite †, who had gone to Abigail daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother.) ²⁶ Israel and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

²⁷ Now when David reached Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, Machir son of Ammiel of Lo-Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim ²⁸ brought beds, basins, clay pots, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, lentils, parched seeds, ²⁹ honey, curd, sheep, and cheese from the herd for David and for the people who were with him to eat. For they said, "The people must be hungry, weary, and thirsty in the wilderness."

Absalom's Demise

18 Then David mustered the people who were with him and set commanders of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. ² Then David sent out the troops, one third under the command of Joab, one third under the command of Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and one third under the command of Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the troops, "I must certainly go out with you also."

³ But the troops said, "You must not go out! For if we were to flee, they would not care about us, even if half of us die, they still wouldn't care about us—but you are worth 10,000 of us. Therefore now, it is better that you be ready to support us from the city."

⁴ Then the king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." So the king stood beside the gate and all the troops went out by their hundreds and thousands. ⁵ Then the king charged Joab, Abishai, and Ittai saying, "Deal gently with the young man Absalom for my sake." Now all the troops heard the king's charge to all the commanders concerning Absalom.

⁶ Then the troops went out to the field to confront Israel but the battle took place in the forest of Ephraim. ⁷ The people of Israel were defeated there before the followers of David, and the slaughter that day was great—20,000 men. ⁸ For the battle there was spread over the face of the entire countryside and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

⁹ Now Absalom encountered some of David's servants. When Absalom was riding on his mule, the mule went under the thick branches of the great oak, and his head got caught in the oak, so that he was left hanging between heaven and earth, while the mule that was under him went on. ¹⁰ Then a certain man saw it and told Joab saying, "Look, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak."

¹¹ Then Joab said to his informant, "Look here, you saw him, so why didn't you strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten pieces of silver and a belt!"

¹² But the man said to Joab, "Even if I had 1,000 pieces of silver in my hand, I would not raise my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king charged you, Abishai, and Ittai saying, 'Watch over the young man Absalom for me.' ¹³ Otherwise, I would have betrayed his soul—and nothing stays hidden from the king—and you yourself would have stood aloof."

¹⁴ "I won't wait for you!" Joab said. So he took three darts in his hand and thrust them through Absalom's heart while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak.

¹⁵ Then ten young men who were Joab's armor-bearers surrounded Absalom, struck, and finished him off.

¹⁶ Then Joab blew the shofar and the troops returned from pursuing Israel, for Joab held back the troops.

¹⁷ They took Absalom and threw him into a deep pit in the forest and piled over him a very large heap of stones. Then all Israel fled, everyone to his tent.

¹⁸ (Now Absalom, in his lifetime, had taken and set up for himself a pillar, which is in the King's Valley, for he said, "I have no son to preserve the memory of my name." So he called the pillar by his name and it has been called Absalom's Monument to this day.)

¹⁹ Then Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, "Let me now run and bring the king news that ADONAI has vindicated him against the hand of his enemies."

²⁰ But Joab said to him, "You are not to be the bearer of news today. You may do it another day, but today you shall bear no news—for the king's son is dead."

²¹ Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go tell the king what you have seen." So the Cushite bowed to Joab and took off running.

²² But Ahimaaz son of Zadok once again said to Joab, "Whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite."

"Why should you run, my son," Joab said, "since you would have no news worth telling?"

²³ "Whatever may come of it, I want to run!"

So he said to him, "Run!" Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain, and so passed the Cushite.

²⁴ Now David was sitting between the two gates. When the watchman on the roof over the gate walked over to the wall, he lifted up his eyes and looked, and all of a sudden, he saw a man running alone. ²⁵ The watchman cried out and told the king. The king said,

"If he is alone, there is good news in his mouth." So he came closer and closer.

²⁶ Then the watchman saw another man running, so the watchman called out to the gatekeeper and said, "Look, another man is running alone."

The king said, "He too is bringing good news."

²⁷ Then the watchman said, "I can see that the running of the first one is like the running of Ahimaaz son of Zadok."

"This is a good man and he comes with good news," the king replied.

²⁸ Then Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, "Shalom." Then he prostrated himself before the king with his face to the ground and said, "Blessed be ADONAI your God, who has given over the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king."

²⁹ Then the king asked, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?"

Ahimaaz answered, "I saw a great tumult when the king's servant Joab sent me, your servant, but I did not know what it was about."

³⁰ "Step aside and stand here," the king said. So he stepped aside and stood still.

³¹ Then the Cushite arrived and said, "Let my lord the king receive good news, for ADONAI has vindicated you today against all who rose up against you."

³² Then the king asked the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?"

The Cushite answered, "Let the enemies of my lord the king and all who rise up against you for evil be as that young man!"

David Weeps Over Absalom

19 (18:33) The king was shaken. So he went up to the chamber over the gate and wept. As he walked he cried, "My son Absalom! O my son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you! Absalom, my son, my son!"

² (1) Then Joab was told, "Look, the king is weeping and mourning over Absalom!" ³ (2) So the victory that day was turned into mourning for all the troops, for the troops heard it said that day, "The king is grieving over his son." ⁴ (3) So the troops entered into the city stealthily that day, like troops who are ashamed after running away in battle.

⁵ (4) The king covered his face and cried with a loud voice, "My son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!"

⁶ (5) Then Joab came into the house to the king and said, "Today you have humiliated all your servants—who this day have saved your life, the lives of your sons and daughters, and the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines— ⁷ (6) by loving those who hate you, and hating those who love you! For you have shown today that officers and officials are nothing to you. For today I realize that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead, then it would have pleased you well. ⁸ (7) So now arise, go out, and speak to the heart of your servants! For I swear by ADONAI that if you do not go out, not a single man will stay with you tonight, and that would be worse for you than all the evil that has befallen you from your youth until now."

⁹ (8) So the king arose and sat in the gate. When they told all the troops saying, "See, the king is sitting at the gate," all the troops presented themselves before the king.

David's Restoration and Grace

Meanwhile, Israel had fled each man to his tent. ¹⁰ (9) All the people throughout all the tribes of Israel were at strife saying, "The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies and he saved us from the hand of the Philistines. Yet now he had to flee from the land because of Absalom, ¹¹ (10) but Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. So why are we silent about restoring the king?"

¹² (11) Then King David sent word to Zadok and Abiathar the kohanim saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah saying, 'Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his palace? The talk of all Israel had reached the king at his residence. ¹³ (12) 'You are my kinsmen, my bone and my flesh! Why then should you be the last to bring back the king?'

¹⁴ (13) 'Also say to Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? May God do so to me and even more if you do not become my army commander before me continually, in place of Joab!'"

¹⁵ (14) Thus he turned the hearts of all the men of Judah as one man, and then they sent word to the king, "Come back, you and all your servants." ¹⁶ (15) So the king returned and reached the Jordan. Meanwhile, Judah came to Gilgal in order to meet the king, to escort the king over the Jordan.

¹⁷ (16) Then Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite who was from Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David ¹⁸ (17) accompanied by 1,000 men of Benjamin. Also Ziba the servant of Saul's household, with his 15 sons and 20 slaves, rushed to the Jordan ahead of the king. ¹⁹ (18) They ferried across the ford to bring the king's household and they did whatever seemed good in his eyes. Now, Shimei son of Gera fell down before the king when he was crossing over the Jordan, ²⁰ (19) so he implored the king, "Let my lord not hold me guilty, and not remember the iniquity that your servant committed on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem. Let the king not take it to his heart. ²¹ (20) For your servant knows that I have sinned. So behold, I have come today, the first of all the house of Joseph, to go down to meet my lord the king."

²² (21) But Abishai son of Zeruiah answered and said, "Shouldn't Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed ADONAI 's anointed?"

²³ (22) But David said, "What have I to do with you sons of Zeruiah that you should be my adversary † today? Should any man be put to death in Israel this day? Don't I know that today I am king over Israel?"²⁴ (23) Then the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die," and the king swore it to him.

²⁵ (24) Then Mephibosheth son of Saul came down to meet the king. Now he had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes from the day the king departed until the day he came home in shalom.²⁶ (25) Now it came to pass when he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king asked him, "Why did you not go with me Mephibosheth?"

²⁷ (26) "My lord the king, my own servant deceived me," he answered. "For your servant had said, 'I will saddle a donkey for myself, ride on it, and go with the king,' because your servant is lame."²⁸ (27) However, he has slandered your servant to my lord the king. But my lord the king is like an angel of God. So do what is good in your eyes.²⁹ (28) For all my father's household deserved only death at the hand of my lord the king; yet you set your servant among those eating at your own table! What right do I have yet to cry to the king?"

³⁰ (29) Then the king said to him, "Why do you still speak of your affairs? I have decreed, 'You and Ziba shall divide the land.'"

³¹ (30) "So let him take all," Mephibosheth replied to the king, "as long as my lord the king has come back to his own home in shalom."

³² (31) Then Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and he approached the Jordan with the king to escort him over the Jordan.³³ (32) Now Barzillai was a very aged man—80 years old—and he had provided for the king during his residence at Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy man.³⁴ (33) The king said to Barzillai, "Cross over with me, and I will provide for you with me in Jerusalem."³⁵ (34) But Barzillai said to the king, "How many years are left of my life that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem?"³⁶ (35) I am now 80 years old. Can I distinguish between good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I listen any more to the voice of singing men and women? Why then should your servant be yet a burden to my lord the king?³⁷ (36) Your servant would merely cross over the Jordan with the king. But why should the king reward me with such a reward?³⁸ (37) Please let your servant go back, and let me die in my own hometown, near the grave of my father and my mother. But look, here is your servant Chimham—let him cross over with my lord the king, and do for him what seems good in your eyes."

³⁹ (38) The king answered, "Chimham will cross over with me, and I will do for him what seems good in your eyes. Whatever you ask of me, I will do for you."

⁴⁰ (39) When all the people had crossed over the Jordan and as the king was about to cross over, the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, so he returned to his own place.

⁴¹ (40) Then the king crossed over to Gilgal, and Chimham and all the people of Judah crossed over with him, and also half the people of Israel escorted the king over.⁴² (41) Then all the men of Israel came to the king and said to him, "Why did our brothers, the men of Judah, steal you away by escorting the king and his household over the Jordan, along with all David's men that were with him?"

⁴³ (42) Then all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is our close relative. So why are you angry over this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's cost? Or has he given us any gifts?"

⁴⁴ (43) Then the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, "We have ten shares in the king, so in David we have even more than you. Why then did you despise us? Weren't we the first to speak of restoring our king?" Yet the words of the men of Judah were harsher than the words of the men of Israel.

Joab the Terminator

20 Now a worthless fellow happened to be there, a Benjamite named Sheba son of Bichri. He blew the shofar and said, "We have no portion in David, no inheritance in the son of Jesse! Every man to his tents, O Israel!"² So all the men of Israel withdrew from following David and followed Sheba son of Bichri, but the men of Judah kept close to their king from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

⁴ Then the king said to Amasa, "Summon to me the men of Judah within three days and be here yourself."⁵ So Amasa went to summon Judah but he took longer than the set time that he had allotted him.

⁶ Then David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom. So take your lord's servants and pursue him lest he find for himself fortified cities and escape from our sight."⁷ So Joab's men went after him, along with the Cherethites, the Pelethites, and all the mighty men, and set out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.⁸ When they were at the great stone that is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Now Joab was dressed in his military uniform, and over it was a belt with a sword in its sheath fastened on his waist; and as he stepped forward, it fell out.⁹ Then Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you my brother?" With his right hand Joab took Amasa by the beard to kiss him.¹⁰ But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's other hand. So he stabbed him with it in the groin and poured out his entrails to the ground, and did not strike him again, for he died.

Then Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bichri.¹¹ Meanwhile, one of Joab's young men stood over Amasa and said, "Whoever favors Joab and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab!"¹² Yet Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the midst of the highway. So when the man saw that all the people stood still, he dragged Amasa from the highway into the field and threw a garment over him because he saw that everyone passing by him paused. ¹³ Once he removed him from the highway, everyone passed on, following Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bichri.

¹⁴ Now he went through all the tribes of Israel, to Abel and Beth-Maacah. All the Berites gathered together and indeed followed him. ¹⁵ They came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-Maacah and cast up a siege ramp against the city. It stood against the outer fortification and all the people with Joab battered the wall in order to topple it.

¹⁶ Then a wise woman cried out from the city, "Listen! Listen! Please tell Joab to come over here that I may speak with him." ¹⁷ When he approached her, the woman asked, "Are you Joab?"

"I am," he answered.

Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your handmaid."

"I'm listening," he answered.

¹⁸ Then she spoke up saying, "They used to say in old time, 'They shall surely seek counsel at Abel' and that's how they settled any dispute. ¹⁹ I am of those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel. Are you seeking to destroy a mother city in Israel? Why would you devour ADONAI's inheritance?"

²⁰ Joab replied saying, "Never! Far be it from me that I would devour up or ruin. ²¹ The matter is not so; but a fellow from the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba son of Bichri his name, has lifted up his hand against King David. Give him up alone and I will withdraw from the city."

So the woman replied to Joab, "Look here, his head will be thrown to you over the wall." ²² Then the woman approached all the people wisely. So they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bichri and threw it over to Joab. He then blew the shofar, and they were dismissed from the city, each to his tent. Then Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

²³ Now Joab remained over all the army of Israel; Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; ²⁴ Adoram was over the forced labor; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was the recorder; ²⁵ Sheba was scribe; Zadok and Abiathar were kohanim; ²⁶ and Ira the Jairite also was a kohen to David.

Justice for the Gibeonites

21 Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year, so David sought the face of ADONAI. ADONAI replied, "It is because of Saul and his bloody house, for he put the Gibeonites to death." ² So the king summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not of Bnei-Yisrael but a remnant of the Amorites; however, Bnei-Yisrael had sworn a covenant with them. Yet Saul had tried to eradicate them in his zeal for Bnei-Yisrael and Judah.) ³ David asked the Gibeonites, "What should I do for you? How may I make atonement so that you would bless the inheritance of ADONAI?"

⁴ The Gibeonites said to him, "It is not a matter of silver or gold between us and Saul or his house; nor is it our right to put any man to death in Israel."

"Whatever you say, I will do for you," he said.

"I will give them over," the king said. ⁷ Now the king spared Mephibosheth, son of Jonathan son of Saul, because of ADONAI's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan son of Saul. ⁸ But the king took the two sons of Rizpah daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul—Armoni and Mephibosheth; also the five sons of Michal † daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite, ⁹ and he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites. So they hanged them on the hill before ADONAI, so that all seven fell together. They were put to death during the days of harvest, at the beginning of barley harvest.

¹⁰ Then Rizpah daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it on the rock for herself, from the beginning of harvest until the rain poured on them from the sky. She did not let the birds of the sky rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night. ¹¹ David was told what Rizpah daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done. ¹² So David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the men of Jabesh-Gilead, who had stolen them from the open square of Beth-Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them on the day that the Philistines killed Saul in Gilboa. ¹³ He had the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan brought up from there, and they gathered the bones of those who were hanged. ¹⁴ So they buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of his father Kish. They did all of what the king commanded. Afterward, God was moved by prayer for the land.

¹⁵ Once again the Philistines made war with Israel, so David went down with his servants and fought against the Philistines. But David became weary. ¹⁶ So Ishbi-benob—who was a descendant of the Rapha, whose spear weighed 300 shekels of bronze, who was girded with new armor—thought to kill David. ¹⁷ But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to his aid, struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, "You must not go out with us to battle anymore. You must not quench the lamp of Israel!"

¹⁸ Now it came to pass after this that there was war again with the Philistines at Gob, and Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, a descendant of the Rapha. ¹⁹ Then there was war again with the Philistines at Gob, and Elhanan son of Jaare-oregim the Beth-

† Or, Merav

Lehemite killed Goliath the Gittite—his spear had a shaft like a weaver's beam. ²⁰ Once again there was war at Gath, where there was a champion that had on every hand six fingers and on every foot six toes— a total of 24, and he also was a descendant of the Rapha. ²¹ When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of David's brother Shimea killed him. ²² These four were born to the Rapha in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

David's Songs of Valor and Last Words

22 David spoke to ADONAI the words of this song in the day that ADONAI delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.

² He said:

" ADONAI is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer.

³ My God is my rock, in Him I take refuge, my shield, my horn of salvation, † my stronghold and my refuge, my Savior—You save me from violence.

⁴ I called upon ADONAI, worthy of praise, and I was rescued from my enemies.

⁵ For waves of death encompassed me. Torrents of Belial overwhelmed me.

⁶ Cords of death entangled me. Snares of death came before me.

⁷ In my distress I called upon ADONAI, yes, I called to my God.

From His Temple He heard my voice, my cry came into His ears.

⁸ Then the earth rocked and quaked, the foundation of heaven trembled. They reeled because He was angry.

⁹ Smoke rose from His nostrils and consuming fire from His mouth. Coals blazed from Him.

¹⁰ He parted the heavens and came down, with thick darkness under His feet.

¹¹ He rode upon a cheruv and flew.

He was seen on the wings of the wind.

¹² He made darkness as a sukkah around Him—a mass of waters, thick clouds of the skies.

¹³ Out of the brilliance before Him coals of fire flamed out.

¹⁴ ADONAI also thundered from heaven and Elyon gave forth His voice.

¹⁵ He shot arrows and scattered them, lightning bolts, and routed them.

¹⁶ Then the ravines of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were exposed by the rebuke of ADONAI, at a blast of the breath of His nostrils.

¹⁷ He reached down from on high and He took hold of me.

He drew me out of mighty waters.

¹⁸ He delivered me from my powerful enemy, from those who hated me—for they were much stronger than me.

¹⁹ They came against me in the day of my calamity, but ADONAI was my support.

²⁰ He brought me out to a wide-open place.

He rescued me since He delighted in me.

²¹ " ADONAI rewarded me for my righteousness.

For the cleanness of my hands

He repaid me.

²² For I kept the ways of ADONAI, and did not turn wickedly from my God.

²³ For all His judgments are before me.

As for His rulings,

I do not turn away from them.

²⁴ I also had integrity with Him, and kept myself from my sin.

²⁵ So ADONAI rewarded me for my righteousness, according to my cleanness in His eyes.

²⁶ With the loyal You deal loyally.

With the blameless You are blameless.

²⁷ With the pure You show Yourself pure, but with the crooked You show Yourself shrewd.

²⁸ You save lowly people.

But Your eyes are on the haughty—

You will humble them.

²⁹ For You are my lamp, ADONAI.

ADONAI shines in my darkness.

³⁰ For with You I rush on a troop, with my God I can leap over a wall.

³¹ As for God, His way is perfect.

The word of ADONAI is pure.

He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

³² For who is God, besides ADONAI?

and who is a Rock, besides our God?

³³ God is my strong fortress and He keeps my way blameless.

³⁴ He makes my legs like a deer and sets me on my heights.

³⁵ Who trains my hands for battle, so my arms can bend a bronze bow.

³⁶ You gave me Your shield of salvation, and Your answering has made me great.

³⁷ You broaden my steps beneath me, so my feet have not slipped.

³⁸ I pursue my enemies and destroy them.

I will not return till they are consumed.

³⁹ I consumed them and crushed them till they cannot rise;

yes, they fall beneath my feet.

⁴⁰ You girded me with strength for battle.

You made those rising up against me bow down before me.

⁴¹ You also made my enemies turn their backs to me. I cut off those who hate me.

⁴² They looked, but there was none to save—to ADONAI, but He did not answer them.

⁴³ Then I beat them as the dust of the earth, I stamped and crushed them like mud of the streets.

⁴⁴ You free me from strifes of my people.

† cf. Luke 1:69.

You kept me as head of the nations—people I did not know are serving me.
⁴⁵ Children of foreigners cringe before me.
 As soon as they hear, they obey me.
⁴⁶ Children of foreigners lose heart and come trembling from their hideouts.
⁴⁷ “ADONAI lives! And blessed be my Rock!
 Exalted be God—the Rock of my salvation!
⁴⁸ God—He gives me vengeance and brings down peoples under me.
⁴⁹ He brings me out from my enemies.
 Indeed You lift me up above those who rise up against me.
 You deliver me from the violent man.
⁵⁰ Therefore I praise You among the nations, ADONAI, and will sing praises to Your name.
⁵¹ He is a tower of salvation to His king,
 He shows loyal love to His anointed—to David and to his seed, forever.”

23 Now these are the last words of David, the utterance of David son of Jesse,
 the utterance of the man raised on high,
 the anointed of the God of Jacob and the sweet singer of Israel:
² “The Ruach ADONAI has spoken through me and His word is on my tongue.
³ The God of Israel has said, the Rock of Israel has spoken to me,
 ‘He who rules over men righteously, he who rules in the fear of God—
⁴ he is like the light of the morning when the sun rises, a cloudless morning of glistening as grass springs from the earth.’
⁵ Is it not true that my house is with God?
 For He made an everlasting covenant with me, ordered and secured in all things.
 Will He not make all my salvation and every desire come to fruition?
⁶ But the worthless, all of them will be thrust aside like thorns,
 for they cannot be picked up by hand.
⁷ But the man who touches them must be armed with iron and the shaft of a spear.
 They must be completely burned up with fire on the spot.”

David's Mighty Men

⁸ These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb-basshebeth a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains—he wielded his spear against 800 and slew them in one encounter. ⁹ Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodo son of an Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David when they defied the Philistines who were gathered there to battle. The men of Israel retreated, ¹⁰ but he stood his ground and struck down the Philistines until his hand became weary and stuck to the sword. So ADONAI brought about a great victory that day, and the people returned after him only to strip the slain.

¹¹ Next to him was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. Now the Philistines were assembled in formation where there was a plot of ground full of lentils, and the people fled from the Philistines. ¹² But he took his stand in the midst of the plot and defended it, and struck down the Philistines—so ADONAI brought about a great victory.

¹³ Once the three of the thirty chiefs went down and came to David at the cave of Adullam during the harvest, while a troop of Philistines was camping in the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁴ David was then in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines was in Beth-Lehem. ¹⁵ David said longingly, “Who would get me water to drink from the well which is by the gate in Beth-Lehem?” ¹⁶ So the three mighty men broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well of Beth-Lehem by the gate, took it and brought it to David. However, he would not drink it but poured it out to ADONAI ¹⁷ and he said, “Far be it from me, ADON-AI, that I should do this—the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?” So he would not drink
 it. These things the three mighty men did.

¹⁸ Now Abishai, the brother of Joab, son of Zeruiah, was chief of the Thirty. Once he wielded his spear against 300 and killed them—he had a reputation among the Three. ¹⁹ He was the most honored of the Thirty, so he was made their commander; however, he did not become one of the Three.

²⁰ Then there was Benaiah son of Jehoiada, son of a valiant man from Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds. He killed the two from Ariel of Moab. Once, on a snowy day, he went down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit. ²¹ He also killed an Egyptian—an impressive man—the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, but Benaiah went down to him with a staff, snatched the spear from the Egyptian’s hand, and killed him with his own spear. ²² These sort of things Benaiah son of Jehoiada did, so that he had a name as famous as that of the Three mighty men. ²³ He was most honorable among the Thirty, but he attained not to the first Three. So David set him over his guard.

²⁴ Asahel brother of Joab was one of the Thirty, also Elhanan son of Dodo of Beth-Lehem, ²⁵ Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite, ²⁶ Helez the Paltite, Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, ²⁷ Aviezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite, ²⁸ Zalmon the Ahohite, Ma-harai the Netophathite, ²⁹ Heleb son of Baanah the Ne-topathite, Ittai son of Ribai of Gibeath of the children of Benjamin, ³⁰ Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai from the wadis of Gaash, ³¹ Abi-albon the Arbathite, Azmavet the Barhumite, ³² Eliahba the Shaalbonite of the sons of Jashen, Jonathan, ³³ Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam son of Sharar the Ararite, ³⁴ Eliphelet son of Ahasbai

David's Unauthorized Census

24 Now the anger of ADONAI again flared up against Israel, so He incited David against them saying, "Go, number Israel and Judah." ² The king said to Joab the commander of the army who was with him, "Go about now through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beer-Sheba, and number the people, so that I may know the sum of the people."

³ But Joab said to the king, "May ADONAI your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king look on! But why does my lord the king desire such a thing?"

⁴ Nevertheless, the king's command to Joab and the army generals remained firm. So Joab and the army generals went out from the king's presence to number the people of Israel. ⁵ They crossed over the Jordan and camped in Aroer, on the right side of the town that is in the middle of the valley of Gad, and toward Jazer. ⁶ Then they went to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi. Then they came to Dan-jaan and round about to Sidon, ⁷ and came to the stronghold of Tyre, to all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites. Then they went out to the south of Judah, to Beer-Sheba. ⁸ So when they had gone throughout all the land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and 20 days. ⁹ Joab reported the sum of the numbering of the people to the king: there were in Israel 800,000 valiant men who drew the sword and the men of Judah were 500,000 men.

¹⁰ But David's heart troubled him after he had numbered the people. So David prayed to ADONAI, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done! But now, ADONAI, please take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have acted very foolishly."

¹¹ When David rose up in the morning, the word of ADONAI came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying: ¹² "Go and speak to David, thus says ADONAI: 'Three things I am proposing to you—choose one of them and I will bring it upon you.'" ¹³ So Gad came to David and told him, saying to him, "Shall seven years of famine come on you in your land? Or will you flee from your adversary for three months while he is pursuing you? Or shall there be three days of pestilence in your land? Now consider and see what answer I should return to Him who sent me."

¹⁴ Then David said to Gad, "I am in a great distress. Let us now fall into the hand of ADONAI, for His mercies are great, and let me not fall into the hand of man." ¹⁵ So ADONAI sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning until the appointed time, so that 70,000 men of the people died from Dan to Beer-Sheba. ¹⁶ When the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, ADONAI relented from the calamity and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "Enough! Now withdraw your hand." The angel of ADONAI was then by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

¹⁷ When David saw the angel that was striking down the people, he spoke to ADONAI saying, "Behold, it is I who have sinned, and it is I who have done wrong! But these sheep, what have they done? Please, let Your hand be against me and against my father's house."

¹⁸ On that day Gad came to David and said to him, "Go up, set up an altar to ADONAI on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." ¹⁹ So David went up according to the word of Gad, as ADONAI had commanded. ²⁰ Now when Araunah looked down and saw the king and his courtiers crossing over toward him, Araunah went out and bowed down before the king with his face to the ground. ²¹ Then Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?"

David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you in order to build an altar to ADONAI, so that the plague may be held back from the people."

²² Then Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good in his eyes. Look here, the oxen for the burnt offering, as well as the threshing sledges and the ox yokes for the wood." ²³ All this Araunah gives to the king." Araunah said further to the king, "May ADONAI your God accept you."

²⁴ But the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will surely buy it from you at a price. I will not offer burnt offerings to ADONAI my God that cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for 50 shekels of silver. ²⁵ Then David built there an altar to ADONAI, and offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. So ADONAI was moved by prayer of entreaty for the land, and restrained the plague from Israel.

1 Kings Introduction

The name of Kings in Hebrew is מלכים, מלכים. The first of two English books of Kings, what we call 1 and 2 Kings, describe the reigns of every king except Saul and synchronize the kings of the Southern and Northern Kingdoms (Judah and Israel). Until the 15th century, the Hebrew text of Kings was a single book. Since the Septuagint, it was divided into two books.

Authorship of 1 and 2 Kings is uncertain, though some believe it was penned by one of three great prophets of that epoch: Ezra, Ezekiel, or possibly Jeremiah. The text of Kings is generally assumed to have been compiled near the latter half of the 6th century BCE.

1 Kings begins at the end of David's reign. It provides a theological account of Israel's history during the transition from the nation's greatest earthly king, David, to lesser men who followed him, but who never quite measured up to David's standard.

At first, David's son Adonijah pursued the throne. Bathsheba, however, stepped in and asked David to keep his promise that her son Solomon would become king. An aged man before exiting the royal scene, David gave instructions for Solomon to mete out political retribution. The inelegant end of David's reign may have helped usher in the violent, fratricidal start to Solomon's. Solomon quickly executed his conspiratorial brother Adonijah and David's military chief of staff Joab. For his part, the legacy of Solomon includes: "Solomon's Temple," volumes of profound writings, and the enduring testimony of his monumental wisdom. While building the Temple, Solomon was passionate in his devotion to God. His later proclivity toward pagan women, however, produced tragic results, inviting spiritual wickedness into the kingdom. Solomon's expensive excesses led to the assessing of unbearable taxes on Israel's citizens. Solomon's son Rehoboam inherited his throne in Jerusalem leading twelve unified tribes. But king Rehoboam met with an immediate demand for tax relief by a charismatic leader from the North, Jeroboam. Rehoboam naively ignored the advice of his father's counselors. Instead of cutting taxes, Rehoboam's cadre of newly installed advisors convinced him to show strength by raising them. Rehoboam's failed diplomacy caused a tax revolt that divided the nation. Jeroboam assumed leadership of the rebel Northern Kingdom, Israel. Rehoboam retained control over the Jerusalem-based Southern Kingdom, Judah, the Temple, the tribe of Judah, and half the tribe of Benjamin. In the short span of two generations, the magnificent kingdom of David was unalterably diminished due to bad economic policy, bad political strategy, and the overreaching, arrogant leadership of his grandson.

The integrity of Scripture is evident in the manner it presents its heroes—warts and all. "For David did what was right in eyes and did not turn aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite" (1 Kings 15:5). David's trust in God was legendary and inspirational. But our greatest hope exists because of his failure. David experienced God's redemption after the cover-up of his adulterous relationship with Bathsheba. The conspiracy to murder Uriah was David's most notable failure. But it revealed God's power to forgive. And through the line of David and Bathsheba, our Messiah was born!

Rivalry for the Throne

1 Now King David was old, advanced in years. Though they covered him with clothes, he could not keep warm. ² So his servants said to him: "Let them seek a young virgin for my lord the king, and let her attend the king and be his nurse; and let her lie by your side, so my lord the king may keep warm."

³ So they sought for a beautiful girl throughout all the territory of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunamite, and brought her to the king. ⁴ The girl was very beautiful. So she became the king's nurse and served him, but the king was not intimate with her.

⁵ Now Adonijah son of Haggith exalted himself, saying: "I'll be king!" So he prepared for himself chariots, horsemen, and 50 men to run before him. ⁶ His father had not scolded him at any time by asking: "Why have you behaved this way?" He was also a very handsome man; and he was born after Absalom.

⁹ Then Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and fattened cattle by the stone of Zoheleth [†], which is beside En-Rogel, and invited all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants, ¹⁰ but he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men, or Solomon. ¹¹ But Nathan spoke to Bath-Sheba, Solomon's mother, saying: "Haven't you heard that Adonijah son of Haggith has assumed the kingship—and our lord David doesn't know it? ¹² Now come, please let me give you advice. Save your own life and the life of your son Solomon! ¹³ Go at once to King David, and say to him: 'My lord the king, haven't you sworn to your handmaid, saying: "Surely your son Solomon will become king after me, and he will sit on my throne"? Then why does Adonijah reign?' ¹⁴ Behold, while you are still there talking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words."

¹⁷ She said to him: "My lord, you swore by ADONAI your God to your handmaid: 'Surely, Solomon your son

[†] Meaning crawling the serpent will be king after me, and he will sit on my throne.'

¹⁸ Yet now, behold, Adonijah reigns, though you do not know it—my lord the king. ¹⁹ He has sacrificed oxen, fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, Abiathar the kohen and Joab the commander of the army, but he has not invited Solomon your servant. ²⁰ As for you, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. ²¹ Otherwise it will come to pass, when my lord the king sleeps with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be considered traitors."

²⁴ Then Nathan said: "My lord the king, did you say: 'Adonijah shall be king after me, and he shall sit on my throne?' ²⁵ For he has gone down today, slain oxen, fattened cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons, the captains of the army and Abiathar the kohen—and behold, they are eating and drinking with him, and they are saying: 'Long live King Adonijah!' ²⁶ But he did not invite me, your servant, Zadok the kohen, Benaiah son of Jehoiada or your servant Solomon. ²⁷ Was this thing done by my lord the king, without letting your servants know who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

²⁸ Then King David answered and said: "Summon Bath-Sheba to me." So she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king. ²⁹ Then the king swore an oath: "As ADONAI lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all distress, ³⁰ as surely as I swore to you by ADONAI, the God of Israel, saying that your son Solomon will be king after me and will sit on my throne in my place. Thus I will surely fulfill it this day!"

³¹ Then Bath-Sheba bowed with her face to the ground and prostrated herself before the king, and said: "Let my lord King David live forever!"

³² Then King David said: "Summon to me Zadok the kohen, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada." When they came before the king, ³³ the king said to them: "Take with you the servants of your lord, and have my son Solomon ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. ³⁴ There let Zadok the kohen and Nathan the prophet anoint him as king over Israel, blow the shofar and say: 'Long live King Solomon!' ³⁵ Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne. For he shall be king in my place, as I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and Judah."

³⁶ Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king and said: "Amen! Thus says ADONAI, the God of my lord the king. ³⁷ As ADONAI has been with my lord the king, so will He be with Solomon and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David!"

³⁸ So Zadok the kohen, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites and the Pelethites went down, and had Solomon ride on King David's mule, and brought him to Gihon. ³⁹ Then Zadok the kohen took the horn of oil out of the Tent and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the shofar, and all the people said: "Long live King Solomon!" ⁴⁰ All the people went up after him, while the people were playing on flutes and rejoicing with great joy, so that the ground shook at their noise.

⁴¹ Now Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it, just as they finished eating. When Joab heard the sound of the shofar, he said: "Why is the city in an uproar?"

⁴³ But Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah: "No, for our lord King David has made Solomon king. ⁴⁴ Also the king has sent with him Zadok the kohen, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and they had him ride on the king's mule. ⁴⁵ Zadok the kohen and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon. From there they have come up rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar—that's the noise that you heard. ⁴⁶ Also Solomon has taken his seat on the royal throne.

⁴⁷ Moreover, the king's courtiers came to bless our lord King David, saying: 'May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and his throne greater than your throne!' Then the king bowed down on the bed. ⁴⁸ Furthermore the king said, 'Blessed be ADONAI, God of Israel, who this day has given one to sit on my throne, while my eyes are seeing it.'"

⁵² Then Solomon said, "If he shows himself a worthy man, then not a hair of him will fall to the ground. But if wickedness is found in him, he shall die."

⁵³ So King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. He came and prostrated himself before King Solomon, and Solomon said to him: "Go to your home."

David's Last Instructions

2 Now when the time of David drew near to die, he charged his son Solomon, saying: ² "I—I am going the way of all the earth. So be strong [†] and be a man.

³ Keep the charge of ADONAI your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, His ordinances, and His decrees, according to what is written in the Torah of Moses, so that you may succeed in all that you do and wherever you turn ⁴ so that ADONAI may fulfill His word which He spoke concerning me, saying: 'If your children watch their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, you shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.'

⁵ "Moreover, you also know what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me—what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether, whom he killed, shedding the blood of war in peacetime, and putting the blood of war on his waistband and on his sandals on his feet. ⁶ So act according to your wisdom, and let his gray hair not go down to Sheol in shalom. ⁷ But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be among those who eat at your table—for they befriended me when I fled from your brother Absalom. ⁸ Also behold, you have with you Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse on the day I went to Mahanaim. But when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by ADONAI saying: 'I will not put you to death with the sword.' ⁹ Now don't let him go unpunished. For you are a wise man, and you will know how to deal with him, and bring his gray hair down to Sheol with blood."

¹⁰ Then David slept with his fathers [†] and was buried in the city of David. ¹¹ The days that David reigned over Israel were forty years—seven years he reigned in Hebron and 33 years he reigned in Jerusalem. ¹² Then Solomon sat upon the throne of his father David, and his kingdom was established firmly.

Solomon's Throne Secured

¹³ Later Adonijah son of Haggith came to Bath-Sheba, Solomon's mother. "Is your coming in shalom?" she asked.

"It is in shalom," he said. ¹⁴ Then he said, "I have something to say to you."

"Speak!" she said.

¹⁵ Then he said, "You know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel looked to me to be the king. However, the kingship has turned about and become my brother's—for it was his from ADONAI. ¹⁶ So now one petition I ask of you; do not deny me."

"Speak!" she said to him.

¹⁷ Then he said, "Please, speak to King Solomon—for he won't turn you down—to give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife."

¹⁸ "Very well," said Bath-Sheba, "I will speak to the king for you."

¹⁹ So Bath-Sheba went to King Solomon to speak to him about Adonijah. The king rose up to greet her and bowed down to her. Then he sat down on his throne and had a throne set up for the king's mother, and she sat at his right hand. ²⁰ Then she said: "I ask one small petition of you; do not deny."

"Ask, my mother," the king said to her, "for I will not turn you down."

²¹ So she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife."

²² King Solomon answered and said to his mother: "So why are you asking Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom as well—for he is my older brother—for him and for Abiathar the kohen, and for Joab son of Zeruiah!" ²³ Then King Solomon swore by ADONAI saying: "May God do so to me and even more, if Adonijah does not pay with his own life for this request! ²⁴ Now therefore, as ADONAI lives who has established me and set me on the throne of my father David, and who has made me a house as He promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death this day."

²⁵ Then King Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada. He struck him down and he died.

²⁶ Also to Abiathar the kohen the king said, "Go to Anathoth, to your own fields, for you deserve death, but I will not put you to death at this time, because you carried the ark of ADONAI Elohim before my father David, and because you were afflicted in everything with which my father was afflicted." ²⁷ So Solomon dismissed Abiathar from being kohen to ADONAI—so fulfilling the word of ADONAI that He spoke at Shiloh about the house of Eli.

²⁸ When the news came to Joab, he fled to the Tent of ADONAI and grasped the horns of the altar—for Joab had defected to Adonijah, though he had not defected to Absalom. ²⁹ It was reported to King Solomon that Joab had fled to the Tent of ADONAI, and behold, he was by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah son of Jehoiada, saying: "Go, strike him down!"

³⁰ So Benaiah came to the Tent of ADONAI and said to him: "Thus says the king: Come out!"

But he replied: "No, for I will die here."

Benaiah reported back to the king saying: "Thus said Joab and thus he answered me."

³¹ Then the king commanded him: "Do as he has said—strike him down. Then bury him. So you will remove the blood that Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father's house. ³² Thus ADONAI will return his blood on his own head, because he struck down two men more righteous and better than he—Abner son of Ner, commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of the army of Judah—and killed them with the sword, without my father David's knowledge. ³³ May the guilt of their blood return upon the head of Joab and upon the head of his offspring forever, but to David and his seed and his house, and his throne, may there be shalom forever from ADONAI."

³⁴ Then Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up, struck him down and killed him, and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. ³⁵ Then the king appointed Benaiah son of Jehoiada in his place over the army, and Zadok the kohen the king appointed in Abiathar's place.

³⁶ Then the king sent and summoned Shimei, and commanded him: "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, and depart not from there anywhere else. ³⁷ For on the day you go out and cross over the Kidron valley, know for certain that you shall surely die—your blood shall be on your own head."

³⁸ "The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." So Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days. ³⁹ But it came about at the end of three years that two of Shimei's servants ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. So they told Shimei, saying: "Behold, your servants are in Gath." ⁴⁰ So Shimei arose, saddled his donkey and went to Gath to Achish, to look for his servants; then Shimei went and brought his servants back from Gath. ⁴¹ But it was reported to Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and back. ⁴² So the king sent someone and summoned Shimei. He said to him: "Didn't I make you swear by ADONAI and forewarned you, saying: 'Know for certain that on the day you depart and go anywhere else, you shall surely die? You even said to me: 'The saying is good; I have heard it.' ⁴³ Why then haven't you kept the oath of ADONAI and the commandment that I charged you with?" ⁴⁴ The king added to Shimei: "You know all the evil, which your heart should acknowledge, that you did to my father David. Therefore ADONAI will return your evil on your own head. ⁴⁵ But King Solomon shall be blessed and the throne of David established before ADONAI forever." ⁴⁶ So the king commanded Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck him down, so that he died. Thus the kingdom was secured in the hand of Solomon.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

3 Then Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt by marriage, taking Pharaoh's daughter, and bringing her to the city of David, until he finished building his own house, the House of ADONAI, and the wall around Jerusalem. ² The people, however, were still sacrificing on the high places, because there was no House built for the Name of ADONAI until those days. ³ Now Solomon loved ADONAI, walking in the statutes of his father David, except he kept sacrificing and burning incense on the high places. ⁴ So the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place. Upon this very altar Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings.

⁵ At Gibeon ADONAI appeared to Solomon in a dream by night, and God said: "Ask for what should I give you?" †

ingkindness for him by giving him a son to sit on his throne, as it is today. ⁷ So now, ADONAI my God, You have made Your servant king in my father David's place. I am but a youth. I don't know how to go out or come in. ⁸ Your servant is amid Your people, whom You have chosen—a great people, too numerous to be numbered or counted. ⁹ So give Your servant a mind of understanding to judge Your people, to discern between good and evil—for who is able to judge this great people of Yours?"

¹⁰ Now it was pleasing in the eyes of ADONAI that Solomon requested this thing. ¹¹ So God said to him: "Because you asked for this thing—and have not asked for yourself long life, nor asked for yourself riches, nor asked for the life of your enemies, but asked for yourself understanding to discern justice— ¹² behold, I have done according to your words. I have given you a wise and discerning mind, so that there has been none like you before you, nor shall anyone like you arise after you. ¹³ Moreover I have also given you what you did not request—both riches and honor—so that no one among the kings will be like you all your days. ¹⁴ Furthermore, if you walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and My commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."

¹⁵ Then Solomon awoke and took note of the dream. So he went to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and offered up burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then he made a feast for all his courtiers.

Judging Between Two Women

¹⁶ Later two prostitutes came to the king and stood before him. ¹⁷ One woman said: "My lord, please! This woman and I live in the same house, and I delivered a child while she was in the house. ¹⁸ On the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth to a child. While we were together with no one else with us in the house, just the two of us in the house, ¹⁹ this woman's child died during the night, because she lay on top of him. ²⁰ Then she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while your handmaid was asleep. She laid him at her breast and laid her dead child at my breast. ²¹ When I rose in the morning to nurse my child, he had just died! But when I looked at him closely in the morning, I realized that he was not the son I had borne!"

²² But the other woman said, "No! For the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son!"

But the first woman said, "No! The dead one is your son and the living one is my son!" Thus they spoke before the king.

²³ Then said the king: "The one says, 'This is my son who is living, and your son is the dead,' while the other says, 'No, but your son is the dead one and my son is the living one.'"

²⁴ Then the king said: "Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword before the king. ²⁵ Then the king said:

“Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one and half to the other.”

²⁶ Then the woman whose son was the living one spoke up to the king—for her heart grew tender for her son—and said, “My lord, please! Give her the living child! Only don’t kill him!”

But the other said, “It will be neither mine nor yours! Cut it in two!”

²⁷ Then the king responded by saying, “Give her the living child and certainly don’t kill him. She is the mother.” ²⁸ When all Israel heard of the verdict that the king had given, they were in awe of the king. For they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

Solomon’s Official Staff

4 Now King Solomon reigned over all Israel, ² and these were his officials: Azariah son of Zadok, the kohen; ³ Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud, the recorder; ⁴ Benaiah son of Jehoiada, in charge of the army; Zadok and Abiathar, kohanim; ⁵ Azariah son of Nathan, in charge of the officers; Zabud son of Nathan the kohen, the king’s personal attendant; ⁶ Ahishar, in charge of the household; Adoniram son of Abda in charge of the forced labor.

²⁰ Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea in abundance, eating and drinking and rejoicing.

Wealth and Wisdom

5 (4:21) Now Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines up to the border of Egypt. They brought tribute and served Solomon all the days of his life. ² (4:22) Solomon’s provision for one day was 30 measures of fine flour, 60 measures of meal, ³ (4:23) 10 fat oxen, 20 pasture-fed oxen, 100 sheep, beside deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fatted geese. ⁴ (4:24) For he had dominion over the entire region west of the River, from Tiphseh even to Gaza, over all the kings west of the River; and he had shalom on all sides around him. ⁵ (4:25) So Judah and Israel lived securely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan to Beer-Sheba, all the days of Solomon.

⁶ (4:26) Solomon had 40,000 stalls of horses for his chariots, and 12,000 horsemen. ⁷ (4:27) So those officers provided food for King Solomon and all who came to King Solomon’s table, each in his month. They let nothing be lacking. ⁸ (4:28) They also brought barley and straw for the horses and swift steeds to the place where it should be, each according to his charge.

⁹ (4:29) God gave Solomon wisdom and discernment in great measure, and a breadth of understanding as vast as the sand on the seashore. ¹⁰ (4:30) Solomon’s wisdom surpassed the wisdom of all the sons of the east and all the wisdom of Egypt. ¹¹ (4:31) For he was wiser than all men—than Ethan the Ezrahite, or Heman, Calcol and Darda, sons of Mahol—and his fame was in all the surrounding nations. ¹² (4:32) He also composed 3,000 proverbs and his songs were 1,005. ¹³ (4:33) He also spoke about trees, from the cedar in Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of the wall, and he spoke about beasts, birds, creeping things, and fish. ¹⁴ (4:34) People came from everywhere to hear the wisdom of Solomon—from all kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

Hiram Offers Materials

¹⁵ (1) Then King Hiram of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon, when he heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father, for Hiram was always a friend of David. ¹⁶ (2) So Solomon sent word to Hiram saying: ¹⁷ (3) “You know how my father David could not build a House for the Name of ADONAI his God because of the wars around him on every side, until ADONAI put them under the soles of my feet. ¹⁸ (4) But now ADONAI my God has given me rest on every side; there is neither adversary nor bad incident. ¹⁹ (5) So behold, I intend to build a House for the Name of ADONAI my God, as ADONAI spoke to my father David saying: ‘Your son, whom I will set upon your throne in your place, he will build the House for My Name.’

²⁰ (6) “So now, command that they cut cedars from Lebanon for me. My servants will be with your servants, and I will give you wages for your servants according to whatever you say; for as you know, there is none among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians.”

† cf. Matt. 22:14; 1 Cor. 15:25.

²¹ (7) When Hiram heard Solomon's words, he rejoiced greatly and said: "Blessed be ADONAI today, who has given to David a wise son over this great people."

²² (8) So Hiram sent word to Solomon saying: "I have heard the message that you sent to me. I will do all you desire concerning the cedar and cypress timber.

²³ (9) My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea, and I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you indicate to me. There I will break them up and you will carry them away. Then you will accomplish my desire by giving food for my household."

²⁷ (13) King Solomon also imposed forced laborers from all Israel—the levy was 30,000 men. ²⁸ (14) He sent them to Lebanon, in shifts of 10,000 a month: they would stay a month in Lebanon, then two months at home. Adoniram was over the forced labor. ²⁹ (15) Solomon had 70,000 porters, and 80,000 stonecutters in the mountains, ³⁰ (16) besides Solomon's chief officers that were over the work—3,300 who supervised the people who were doing the work. ³¹ (17) Then the king commanded, and they quarried great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the House with cut stones. ³² (18) So Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders along with the Gebalites cut them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the House.

Building the Temple

6 Now it came to pass, 480 years after the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv (which is the second month), that he began to build ADONAI's House. ² Now the House that King Solomon built for ADONAI was 60 cubits [†] long, 20 cubits wide, and 30 cubits high. ³ The porch in front of the Sanctuary of the House was 20 cubits in length—corresponding to the breadth of the House—and its depth was 10 cubits from the front of the House. ⁴ Also for the House he made windows with artistic frames. ⁵ Against the wall of the House he built a side-structure surrounding both the Temple and the inner Sanctuary; thus he made side-chambers all around. ⁶ The lowest story was 5 cubits wide, the middle was 6 cubits wide, and the third was seven cubits wide. All around on the outside he provided offset ledges in the wall of the House, so that the beams would not be inserted into the walls of the House. ⁷ For the House, while being constructed, was built of stone finished at the quarry; with neither hammer, axe, nor any iron tool heard in the House during its construction.

⁸ The doorway to the lowest story of the side chambers was on the right side of the House. They went up by winding stairs to the middle story, and from the middle to the third. ⁹ When he finished building the House, he covered the House with beams and planks of cedar. ¹⁰ He built the stories of the side-structure against the whole House, each 5 cubits high, and they were fastened to the House with timbers of cedar.

¹¹ Then the word of ADONAI came to Solomon saying: ¹² "As for this House which you are building, if you will walk in My statutes, execute My ordinances and keep all My mitzvot by walking in them, then I will establish My word with you, which I spoke to your father David, ¹³ I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake My people Israel." ^{††}

²³ In the inner Sanctuary he made 2 cheruvim of olive wood, each ten cubits high. ²⁴ The length of one wing of the cheruv was 5 cubits and the length of the other wing of the cheruv was 5 cubits—10 cubits from the end of one wing to the end of the other, ²⁵ and the other cheruv was also 10 cubits. Both cheruvim were the same in measure and form: ²⁶ the height of the one cheruv was 10 cubits and so the other cheruv. ²⁷ Then he placed the cheruvim inside the inner House. When the wings of the cheruvim extended, the wing of the one touched one wall while the wing of the other cheruv touched the other wall, while their wings in the center of the House touched one another. ²⁸ He also overlaid the cheruvim with gold.

²⁹ Then he carved all the walls surrounding the House with carved engravings of cheruvim, palm trees, and open flowers, in both the inner and outer rooms,³⁰ and he also covered the floor of both the inner and the outer rooms of the House with gold.³¹ For the entrance of the inner Sanctuary he made doors of olive wood, the frame of the doorposts having five angles.³² As for the double doors of olive wood, he carved on them carvings of cheruvim, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold. He beat out gold over the cheruvim and over the palm trees.

³³ He also made for the Temple entrance four-sided doorposts of olive wood³⁴ and double doors of cypress wood. The two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.³⁵ He carved cheruvim, palm trees, and open flowers on them and overlaid them with gold evenly applied on the graven work.³⁶ He built the inner court with three rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams.

³⁷ In the fourth year, in the month of Ziv, the foundation of the House of ADONAI was laid,³⁸ and in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul (which is the eighth month), the House was completed in all its parts and according to all its details. So he was seven years building it.

Solomon's Palace Complex

7 But it took Solomon 13 years to build and complete his own palace.² He also built the Forest House of Lebanon: its length was 100 cubits, its width 50 cubits, and its height 30 cubits, built on 4 rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.³ It was paneled with cedar above the side chambers, which were on 45 pillars—15 in a row.⁴ And there were window frames in 3 rows, with window opposite window in 3 ranks.⁵ And all the doorways had a rectangular frame, and with window opposite to window in 3 tiers.

⁶ He also made a portico of columns, 50 cubits long and 30 cubits wide, with a porch in front, and in front of that were pillars and an overhanging roof.⁷ He also made the Hall of the Throne where he would judge—the Hall of Justice. It was paneled with cedar from the floor to the ceiling.

⁹ All these were made of expensive stones—stones cut to size and sawed with saws inside and outside—from the foundation to the top and from the outside to the great court.¹⁰ The foundation was also made of expensive stones—huge stones, stones 8 cubits and stones 10 cubits.¹¹ Above were expensive stones, cut to measure, and cedar wood.¹² The surrounding great courtyard had 3 rows of cut stone and a row of cedar beams, the same as the inner court of the House of ADONAI and the portico of the House.

Hiram the Bronze Craftsman

¹³ King Solomon sent for and had Hiram brought from Tyre.¹⁴ He was a widow's son from the tribe of Naphtali, while his father was a man of Tyre, a copper-smith, and he was filled with wisdom, understanding, and skill to do any work in bronze. So he came to King Solomon and executed all his work.¹⁵ He fashioned the 2 bronze pillars, 18 cubits high and 12 cubits in circumference each.¹⁶ He also made 2 capitals of molten bronze to set upon the tops of the pillars (the height of each capital was 5 cubits),¹⁷ nettings of latticework and twisted threads of chain work for the capitals were on top of the pillars—7 for the one capital and 7 for the other capital.¹⁸ So he made the pillars with 2 rows of pomegranates all around on the netting covering the capitals on top of each capital.¹⁹ The capitals that were on the top of the pillars in the portico were of lily design, 4 cubits high.²⁰ So also the capitals on the 2 pillars—close to the belly next to the netting were the pomegranates in rows of 200 around both capitals.

²³ Next he made the sea of cast metal, 10 cubits across from brim to brim, circular in form, 5 cubits in its height, and 30 cubits in circumference.²⁴ Under its brim there were gourds encircling it, ten per cubit, completely surrounding the sea. The gourds were cast in two rows in one piece with it.²⁵ It stood on 12 oxen, 3 facing north, 3 facing west, 3 facing south, and 3 facing east; and the sea was set on top of them, and all their rear parts were inward.²⁶ It was a handbreadth thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like the petals of a lily; it held 11,000 gallons.

²⁷ Then he made 10 bases of bronze—the length of each base was 4 cubits, the width 4 cubits, and the height 3 cubits.²⁸ The structure of the bases was as follows: they had borders, and borders between the frames,²⁹ and on the borders that were below the frames were lions, oxen, and cheruvim. On the frames there was a pedestal manner above, and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work.³⁰ Each base had 4 bronze wheels with bronze axles. Its 4 legs had brackets; the brackets were beneath the laver, cast with wreaths at each side.³¹ Its opening inside the crown at the top was a cubit high, and its opening was round like the design of a pedestal, a cubit and a half, and also on its opening were engravings, and their borders were square, not round.³² The 4 wheels were underneath the borders, and the axles of the wheels were in the base. The height of a wheel was a cubit and half.³³ And the structure of the wheels was like the structure of a chariot wheel; their axletrees, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all cast metal. ³⁴ There were 4 brackets at the four corners of each base; each bracket was of one piece with the base itself. ³⁵ On top of the base there was a band half a cubit high encircling it—its braces and its borders were part of it. ³⁶ On the plates of the braces and on its borders, he engraved cheruvim, lions, and palm trees, wherever there was clear space around each, with encircling wreaths. ³⁷ He made the 10 bases like this—all of them cast from the same mold, the same size, and same shape.

³⁸ Then he made 10 basins of bronze: 1 basin held 220 gallons. Each basin was 4 cubits, and on each of the 10 bases was 1 basin. ³⁹ Then he set up the laver stands, 5 on the right side of the House and 5 on the left side of the House, and set up the sea of cast metal on the right side of the House eastward, toward the south. ⁴⁰ Then Hiram made the basins, the shovels, and the sprinkling bowls.

So Hiram finished doing all the work that he performed for King Solomon on ADONAI's House: ⁴¹ the 2 pillars, the 2 bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, the 2 nettings to cover the 2 bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, ⁴² the 400 pomegranates for the 2 nettings, 2 rows of pomegranates for each to cover the 2 bowls of the capitals on top of the pillars, ⁴³ the 10 bases and the 10 basins on the bases, ⁴⁴ the one sea and the 12 oxen under the sea, ⁴⁵ the pots, the shovels, and the basins. All these vessels Hiram made for King Solomon in the House of ADONAI were made of polished bronze. ⁴⁶ The king had them cast in the plain of the Jordan, with clay of the ground between Sukkot and Zarethan. ⁴⁷ Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were too many—the weight of the bronze could not be determined.

⁵¹ When all the work that King Solomon did in ADONAI's House was finished, Solomon brought in the things that his father David had dedicated—the silver, the gold, and the vessels—and put them in the treasuries of the House of ADONAI.

Dedicating the Temple

8 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel—all the heads of the tribes and the ancestral chieftains of the children of Israel—to King Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring the ark of the covenant of ADONAI up from the city of David, which is Zion. ² All the men of Israel assembled themselves to King Solomon at the Feast in the month of Ethanim, which is the seventh month. ³ Then all the elders of Israel came and the kohanim brought up the ark. ⁴ They brought up the ark of ADONAI, the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; the kohanim and the Levites brought them up.

⁵ Now King Solomon—and all the congregation of Israel who were assembled to him—were with him before the ark sacrificing so many sheep and oxen that they could not be numbered or counted. ⁶ The kohanim brought the ark of the covenant of ADONAI to its place, into the inner Sanctuary of the House, to the Holy of Holies, under the wings of the cheruvim. ⁷ For the cheruvim spread out their wings over the place of the ark, and the cheruvim covered the ark and its poles from above. ⁸ But the poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the Holy Place before the inner Sanctuary, but they could not be seen outside; there they are to this day. ⁹ Nothing was in the ark except the two tables of stone that Moses put there at Horeb, † when ADONAI cut a covenant with the children of Israel when they came out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁰ Now when the kohanim came out of the Holy Place, the cloud filled the House of ADONAI, ¹¹ so that the kohanim could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of ADONAI filled the House of ADONAI. ¹² Then Solomon spoke: “ADONAI said that He would dwell in the thick cloud. ¹³ I have surely built You a magnificent House, a place for Your dwelling forever.”

¹⁴ Then the king turned his face about and blessed the whole congregation of Israel while the whole congregation of Israel was standing. ¹⁵ He said: “Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth to my father David, and has fulfilled it by His hand, saying: ¹⁶ ‘Since the day I brought My people Israel out from Egypt, I have not chosen a city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a House where My Name would be there. But I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.’

¹⁷ “Now it was in the heart of my father David to build a House for the Name of ADONAI, the God of Israel. ¹⁸ But ADONAI said to my father David: ‘Because it was in your heart to build a House for My Name, you did well that it was in your heart. ¹⁹ Nevertheless, you will not build the House, but your son who will come out of your loins, he shall build the House for My Name.’ ²⁰ Now ADONAI has fulfilled His word that He spoke, for I have risen in the place of my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, as ADONAI promised. Also I have built the House for the Name of ADONAI, the God of Israel, ²¹ and have set there a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of ADONAI, which He made with our fathers, when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.”

† cf. Heb. 9:4.

²² Then Solomon stood before the altar of ADONAI in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, spread out his hands toward heaven, ²³ and said: “ADONAI, God of Israel, there is no God like You, in heaven above or on earth below, keeping covenant and lovingkindness to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart.

²⁵ “Now therefore, ADONAI, God of Israel, keep with Your servant David my father what You have promised him, saying: ‘You shall not lack a man to sit before Me on the throne of Israel, if only your children watch their way, walking before Me as you have walked before Me.’ ²⁶ Now therefore, God of Israel, please, let Your word be confirmed, which You spoke to Your servant my father David. ²⁷ So will God really dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You! † How much less this House that I have built! ²⁸ Nevertheless, turn to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, ADONAI my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant prays before You this day. ²⁹ Let Your eyes be open toward this House night and day, toward the place of which You have said: ‘My Name shall be there;’ listening to the prayer which Your servant shall pray toward this place.

³⁰ “So listen to the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. Hear in heaven Your dwelling place, and when You hear, forgive! ³¹ If a man sins against his neighbor and is made to take an oath, then comes and swears before Your altar in this House, ³² then hear from heaven and act and judge Your servants, condemning the wicked, bringing his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous, giving him according to his righteousness.

³³ “When Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy, because they have sinned against You, if they turn back to You and confess Your Name and pray and make supplication to You in this House, ³⁴ then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the land which You gave to their fathers.

³⁵ “When the skies are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, yet if they pray toward this place and confess Your Name and turn from their sin because You have afflicted them, ³⁶ then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants and Your people Israel. Teach them the good way in which they should walk, and send rain on Your land which You gave to Your people as an inheritance.

³⁷ “If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there be blight or mildew, locust or caterpillar, if their enemy should besiege them in the land of their cities, whatever plague or sickness, ³⁸ when prayer or supplication is made by anyone or by all Your people Israel—each knowing the plague of his own heart—when one spreads his hands toward this House, ³⁹ then may you hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, forgive and act, and give to each man according to all his ways, as You know his heart to be. For You alone know the hearts of all the children of men. †⁴⁰ Then they will fear You all the days that they live in the land that You gave to our fathers.

⁴¹ “Moreover concerning the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel, when he comes from a distant country because of Your Name— ⁴² for they will hear of Your great Name, of Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm—when he comes to pray toward this House, ⁴³ then may you hear from heaven Your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner asks of You. So all the peoples of the earth may know Your Name, to fear You as Your people Israel do, and know that this House that I have built is called by Your Name.

⁴⁴ “When Your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way You send them, and they pray to ADONAI toward the city which You have chosen and toward the House which I have built for Your Name, ⁴⁵ then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. ⁴⁶ If they sin against You—for there is no man that does not sin ‡—and You become angry with them and deliver them to the enemy, and their captors carry them away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near, ⁴⁷ yet if they take it to the heart in the land which they have been carried captive, and they repent and make supplication to You in the land of their captors, saying: ‘We have sinned, we have committed iniquity, we have acted wickedly,’ ⁴⁸ and they return to You with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies who carried them into exile, and pray to You toward their land that You gave to their fathers, the city that You have chosen and the House which I have built for Your Name, ⁴⁹ then hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven Your dwelling place, maintain their cause, ⁵⁰ and forgive Your people who have sinned against You as well as all their transgressions they have transgressed against You, and grant them mercy before their captors, so they may have mercy on them. ⁵¹ For they are Your people and Your inheritance that You brought out of Egypt, out of the middle of the iron furnace.

⁵² “May Your eyes be open to the supplication of Your servant and to the supplication of Your people Israel, listening to them whenever they cry to You. ⁵³ For You have set them apart from among all the peoples of the earth to be Your inheritance, as You spoke by the hand of Moses Your servant, when You brought our fathers out of Egypt, my Lord ADONAI .”

⁵⁴ When Solomon finished praying this entire prayer and petition to ADONAI, he arose from before the altar of ADONAI, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread out toward heaven. ⁵⁵ Then he stood and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying: ⁵⁶ "Blessed be ADONAI who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. Not a single word has failed of all His good promise, which He promised by the hand of Moses His servant. ⁵⁷ May ADONAI Eloheinu be with us as He was with our fathers. May He not leave us nor forsake us. ⁵⁸ May He incline our hearts to Him, to walk in all His ways and to keep His mitzvot, His statutes and His ordinances, which He commanded our fathers. ⁵⁹ May these words of mine, with which I have made supplication before ADONAI, be near ADONAI Eloheinu day and night, so that He may maintain the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Israel, as each day requires. ⁶⁰ May all the peoples of the earth know that ADONAI, He is God, there is no other! ⁶¹ Let your heart, therefore, be wholly devoted to ADONAI Eloheinu, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments, as it is today."

† cf. Acts 7:48-49.

†† cf. John 2:24; Rev. 2:23. ‡ cf. Rom. 3:9, 23.

⁶² Now the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifice before ADONAI. ⁶³ Solomon offered a sacrifice of fellowship offerings to ADONAI: 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the House of ADONAI. ⁶⁴ On that same day, the king consecrated the middle of the court that was before the House of ADONAI, for there he offered the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat of the fellowship offerings, because the bronze altar that was before ADONAI was too small to accommodate the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat of the fellowship offerings.

⁶⁵ So Solomon and all Israel with him celebrated the Festival at that time—a great congregation from the entrance of Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt—before ADONAI Eloheinu, seven days and then seven more days—14 days in all. ⁶⁶ On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart over all the goodness that ADONAI had shown to His servant David and to His people Israel.

Promise and Warning

9 Now it came to pass, when Solomon had finished building the House of ADONAI, the royal palace and all that Solomon was pleased to do, ² that ADONAI appeared to Solomon a second time, just as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. ³ ADONAI said to him: "I have heard your prayer and your petition that you made before Me. I have consecrated this House, which you have built, to put My Name there forever, and My eyes and My heart will be there every day.

⁴ "As for you, if you will walk before Me as your father David walked—in integrity of heart and uprightness, doing all I commanded you, keeping My statutes and My ordinances—⁵ then I will establish the throne of your kingship over Israel forever, as I promised your father David saying: 'You shall not lack a man on the throne of Israel.'

⁶ "But if you or your sons will indeed turn away from following Me—not keeping My mitzvot and My statutes that I set before you—and go and serve other gods and worship them, ⁷ then will I cut off Israel from the land which I have given them, and this House which I have consecrated for My Name, I will cast out of My sight. So Israel will become a proverb and a by-word among all peoples. ⁸ This House, now so exalted—everyone passing by it will gasp in shock and hiss, saying: 'Why has ADONAI done thus to this land and to this House?' ⁹ They will be told: 'Because they forsook ADONAI their God who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and embraced other gods, worshiped them and served them, therefore ADONAI has brought all this evil on them.'"

Solomon's Economic Achievements

¹⁰ Now at the end of 20 years during which Solomon had built the two houses—ADONAI's House and the royal palace—¹¹ since King Hiram of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar and cypress logs and with gold for all his desire—in return King Solomon gave Hiram 20 cities in the land of Galilee. ¹² So Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given him, but he was not pleased with them. ¹³ He said, "What are these cities that you've given me, my brother?" So they have been called the land of Kabul ^{††} to this day. ¹⁴ (Hiram had also sent to the king 120 talents [‡] of gold.)

²² But Solomon did not make slaves of the children of Israel, for they were the men of war, his servants, his officials, his captains, his charioteers, and his horsemen.

²³ These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work, 550 who supervised the people who did the work. ²⁴ As soon as Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David to her house built for her, he built the Millo.

† cf. Matt. 28:20; Heb. 13:5.

†† Meaning, as good for nothing ‡ About 9,000 pounds.

²⁵ Now three times a year Solomon offered burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar that he built for ADONAI, burning incense with them on the altar that was before ADONAI. When he finished the House, ²⁶ King Solomon also built a fleet of ships in Ezion-Geber, which is near Eloth on the shore of the Sea of Reeds in the land of Edom. ²⁷ Hiram sent his servants with the fleet—sailors who knew the sea—along with Solomon's servants. ²⁸ So they went to Ophir and took from there 420 talents of gold, and brought it to King Solomon.

Queen of Sheba marvels

10 Now when the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon because of the Name of ADONAI, she came to test him with hard questions. ¹² So she came to Jerusalem with a very great retinue, with camels carrying spices and gold in great abundance, and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she spoke with him of all that was on her heart. ³ Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from the king that he did not explain to her. ⁴ So when the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon, the palace that he had built, ⁵ the food at his table, the seating of his courtiers, the attendance of his servants and their attire, his cupbearers, and his burnt offering which he offered in the House of ADONAI, she was left breathless.

⁶ Then she said to the king: "It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your deeds and of your wisdom. ⁷ But I didn't believe the reports until I came and my eyes saw it. Indeed, not even the half was told to me. You're way past the report of wisdom and prosperity that I'd heard! ⁸ Blessed are your people, blessed are your courtiers who are standing continually before you, listening to your wisdom. ⁹ Blessed be ADONAI your God, who delighted in you to set you on the throne of Israel. It is because of ADONAI's everlasting love for Israel that He made you king, to do justice and righteousness."

¹⁰ Then she gave the king 120 talents of gold, a great quantity of spices, and precious stones. Never again did such abundance of spices come as what the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

¹¹ Also Hiram's ships that brought gold from Ophir brought from Ophir a great quantity of sandalwood and precious stones. ¹² The king made from the sandalwood a railing for the House of ADONAI and for the royal palace, and also lyres and harps for the singers. Never again did such quantity of sandalwood come in, nor have they been seen to this day.

¹³ So King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire—whatever she asked for—besides what King Solomon gave her out of his royal bounty. Then she and her servants left and returned to her own land.

Solomon's Splendor

¹⁴ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was 666 talents of gold, ¹⁵ besides what was from the merchants from the traffic of the traders, and from all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the region. ¹⁶ King Solomon made 200 full body shields of beaten gold—600 shekels [†] of gold on each shield—¹⁷ and 300 small shields of beaten gold—three minas [‡] of gold on each shield. The king put them in the Forest House of Lebanon. ¹⁸ Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with refined gold. ¹⁹ There were six steps to the throne, and the throne had a back with a rounded top, and there were armrests on each side of the seat, and two lions standing beside the arms. ²⁰ Twelve lions were standing there on the six steps—six on each side—nothing like it had ever been made in any other kingdom.

²¹ All of King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the Forest House of Lebanon were of pure gold. (None was of silver—that did not count for anything in the days of Solomon.)

²² For the king had a Tarshish fleet at sea with Hiram's fleet; once every three years the Tarshish fleet came, bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks. ^{‡†}

²³ So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in wealth as well as in wisdom. ²⁴ All the earth sought an audience with Solomon, to listen to his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. ²⁵ They brought, each man his gift—vessels of silver and gold, robes, weapons, spices, horses and mules—so much year by year. ²⁶ Solomon accumulated chariots and horsemen. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, and he stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. ²⁷ Also the king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem, and cedars as plentiful as sycamore trees in the foothills. ²⁸ Solomon's horses were brought from Egypt and from Keveh. The king's merchants would buy them from Keveh at a price. ²⁹ They imported a chariot from Egypt for 600 shekels of silver, and a horse for 150; and in turn they were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

Decline of Solomon

11 Now King Solomon loved so many foreign women, besides the daughter of Pharaoh—Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites—² from the nations of whom ADONAI had said to the children of Israel: "You shall not associate with them nor they associate with you, for surely they would turn your heart away after their gods." Solomon clung to them for love. ³ So he had 700 wives as

^{††} About 15 pounds. [‡] About four pounds. ^{‡†} Or baboons princesses and 300 concubines—and his women led his heart astray. ⁴ For it came about, as Solomon grew old, that his wives led his heart away after other gods, so that his heart was no longer wholly devoted to ADONAI his God, unlike the heart of his father David. ⁵ For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. ⁶ So Solomon did what was evil in the sight of ADONAI and did not fully follow after ADONAI, unlike his father David.

⁹ So ADONAI became angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from ADONAI, the God of Israel—who had appeared to him twice. ¹⁰ He had commanded him about this, that he should not go after other gods, yet he did not keep what ADONAI had commanded. ¹¹ So ADONAI said to Solomon: “Since you have done this and did not keep My covenant and My statutes that I commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant. ¹² Nevertheless, I will not do it in your days for David your father’s sake; but I will tear it away from the hand of your son. ¹³ Yet I will not tear away the whole kingdom, but will give one tribe to your son for My servant David’s sake, and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen.”

¹⁴ Then ADONAI raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite, of the royal line in Edom. ¹⁵ Earlier, when David was at war with Edom, Joab, commander of the army, went up to bury the slain, and had struck down every male in Edom. ¹⁶ Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom. ¹⁷ But Hadad and some Edomites, servants of his father, had fled to Egypt, while Hadad was a small boy. ¹⁸ Setting out from Midian they came to Paran and took men from Paran along with them, and went to Egypt—to Pharaoh king of Egypt—who gave him a house, allotted him food, and gave him land. ¹⁹ Then Hadad found great favor in Pharaoh’s eyes, so that he gave him his own sister-in-law, the sister of Queen Tahpenes, as wife. ²⁰ The sister of Tahpenes gave birth to his son Genubath. Tahpenes weaned him in Pharaoh’s palace and Genubath remained in Pharaoh’s palace among Pharaoh’s sons.

²¹ Now when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers and that Joab commander of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh: “Let me leave so I may go to my own country.”

²² Then Pharaoh replied to him, “What do you lack with me, that all of a sudden, you seek to go back to your own country?”

“Nothing,” he answered. “Nevertheless, let me go anyway.”

²³ Then God raised up another adversary against him, Rezon son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord King Hadad-Ezer of Zobah, ²⁴ when David killed them. He then gathered men to himself and became the leader of a marauding band that went to Damascus and dwelt there and gained control in Damascus. ²⁵ Rezon was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, adding to the trouble that was Hadad. He despised Israel, while he reigned over Aram.

Prophecy to Jeroboam

²⁶ Then there was Jeroboam son of Nebat (the name of his mother, a widow, was Zeruah), an Ephraimite of Zereda. Though he was Solomon’s servant, he also raised a hand against the king. ²⁷ Now the reason that he raised a hand against the king was this: Solomon built the Millo and closed the breach of the city of his father David. ²⁸ Now the man Jeroboam was mighty of strength, and when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, he appointed him over the entire labor force of the house of Joseph.

²⁹ It was around that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him on the road. Now Ahijah had covered himself in a new cloak, and the two of them were alone in the field. ³⁰ Then Ahijah seized the new cloak that was on him, tore it into twelve pieces, ³¹ and said to Jeroboam, “Take ten pieces for yourself, for thus says ADONAI, God of Israel: ‘Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of Solomon’s hand and will give ten tribes to you. ³² But he will have one tribe, for My servant David’s sake, and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel.

³³ “For they have abandoned Me and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon. They have not walked in My ways, nor done what is right in My eyes, nor kept My statutes and My ordinances, as his father David did. ³⁴ Nevertheless, I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand, but I will keep him as a ruler all the days of his life for the sake of My servant David whom I chose, because he kept My mitzvot and My statutes. ³⁵ Yet I will take the kingdom out of his son’s hand, and I will give it to you—the ten tribes. ³⁶ To his son I will give one tribe so that My servant David may have a lamp every day before Me in Jerusalem, the city that I chose for Myself to put My Name there.

³⁷ “So I will take you and you will reign over all that your soul desires—you will be king over Israel. ³⁸ Then it will be, if you obey everything I command you and walk in My ways, and do what is right in My eyes, keeping My statutes and My mitzvot as My servant David did, then I will be with you, and will establish for you a lasting dynasty, as I did for David—I will give Israel to you. ³⁹ So I will for this afflict David’s seed, but not for all days.’ ” †

† cf. Luke 1:27; John 7:42.

⁴⁰ Therefore Solomon sought to kill Jeroboam, but Jeroboam got up and fled to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt. He remained in Egypt until the death of Solomon. ⁴¹ Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom—are they not recorded in the Book of the Acts of Solomon? ⁴² So the days of Solomon's kingship in Jerusalem over all Israel was 40 years. ⁴³ Then Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David; and his son Rehoboam was king in his place.

Rehoboam's Foolishness

12 Then Rehoboam went to Shechem for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. ² Now when Jeroboam son of Nebat heard about it, he was still in Egypt where he had fled from the face of King Solomon and settled in Egypt. ³ They summoned him, so Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam saying: ⁴ "Your father made our yoke burdensome. Now therefore lighten the harsh labor of your father and his heavy yoke which he laid on us and we will serve you."

⁵ He said to them: "Go away for three more days and then come back to me." So the people departed.

⁶ Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he was still alive, saying, "How do you advise me to respond to these people?"

⁷ They spoke to him, saying: "If you will be a servant to this people today, serving them, granting them their petition, and speaking favorably to them, then they will be your servants forever."

¹⁰ The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him saying: "Thus you should say to these people who spoke to you saying 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you, make it lighter on us!' thus you should say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins! ¹¹ So now, my father laid on you a heavy yoke, and as for me, I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but as for me, I will chastise you with scorpions.'"

¹² Then Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king told them, saying, "Come back to me on the third day." ¹³ The king answered the people harshly. He rejected the counsel the elders had given him, ¹⁴ and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

Ten Tribes Revolt

¹⁵ So the king did not listen to the people. For it was a turn of events from ADONAI fulfilling His word, which ADONAI spoke by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam son of Nebat. ¹⁶ But when all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king saying:

"What share have we in David?

No inheritance in Jesse's son!

To your tents, O Israel!

Now look at your own house, David!"

So the Israelites departed to their tents. ¹⁷ But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. ¹⁸ Then King Rehoboam sent Adoram who was over the forced labor, but all Israel stoned him to death. Then King Rehoboam hurried to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹ Israel has rebelled against the house of David to this day.

²⁰ Now when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they summoned him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. Only the tribe of Judah remained loyal to the house of David. ²¹ When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah as well as the tribe of Benjamin—180,000 select soldiers, to fight against the house of Israel in order to restore the kingship back to Rehoboam son of Solomon.

²² But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying: ²³ "Speak to Rehoboam son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and to the rest of the people saying, ²⁴ Thus says ADONAI: you are not to go up or fight against your brothers, the children of Israel. Turn back every man to his own house, for this matter is from Me."

So they heeded the word of ADONAI. They turned and went back, according to the word of ADONAI.

²⁵ Then Jeroboam rebuilt Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and resided there. From there he went out and built Penuel. †

Jeroboam Resorts to Idolatry

²⁶ But Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom may return to the house of David. ²⁷ If this people keep going up to offer sacrifices in the House of ADONAI at Jerusalem, then the heart of these people will turn back to their lord—to King Rehoboam of Judah. Then they will kill me and return to King Rehoboam of Judah." ²⁸ So the king sought counsel and made two golden calves. He said to them, "You have been going up to Jerusalem long enough! Here are your gods O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt."

²⁹ Then he set up one in Beth-El and the other he put in Dan. ³⁰ Now this thing became a sin, for the people went to worship before the one even up in Dan.

† Hebrew face of God

³¹ He also made shrines on the high places and appointed priests from among the people, who were not sons of Levi. ³² Then Jeroboam instituted a festival in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, imitating the Festival that is in Judah. He went up to the altar that he built in Beth-El, to sacrifice to the calves that he had made. He installed in Beth-El the priests of the high places that he made. ³³ Then he went up to the altar which he had made in Beth-El on the fifteenth day in the eighth month—in the month that he had made up from his own heart—and made up a festival for the children of Israel, and went up to the altar to burn incense.

Prophet Against Beth-El

13 Unexpectedly, a man of God came from Judah to Beth-El with the word of ADONAI while Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. ² He cried out against the altar with the word of ADONAI and said: "O altar, altar, thus says ADONAI, 'Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name, and upon you will he sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and human bones will be burned upon you.'" ³ The same day he gave a sign, saying, "This is the sign that ADONAI has spoken, the altar is about to be split apart and the fat ashes on it will be poured out."

⁴ Now when the king heard the word of the man of God, which he proclaimed against the altar in Beth-El, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar saying: "Seize him!" But the hand which he stretched out against him withered—he could not even draw it back to himself. ⁵ The altar also was split apart and the fat ashes poured out from the altar, just as was the sign that the man of God gave with the word of ADONAI.

⁶ So the king responded by saying to the man of God: "Please seek the face of ADONAI your God, and pray for me, so my hand may be restored to me!" So the man of God sought the face of ADONAI and the king's hand was restored to him, becoming as it was before.

⁷ Then the king said to the man of God: "Come home with me and have something to eat, and then, I will give you a reward."

⁸ But the man of God said to the king: "Even if you give me half your house, I will not go with you nor will I eat bread or drink water in this place. ⁹ For so I was charged by the word of ADONAI, saying, 'You are to eat no bread, nor drink water, nor return by the way by which you came.'" ¹⁰ So he took another road and did not return by the way he had come to Beth-El.

¹¹ Now one old prophet was living in Beth-El. His son came and told him all the deeds that the man of God had done that day in Beth-El and all the words that he had spoken to the king they related to their father.

¹² Then their father asked them: "Which way did he go?" For his sons had seen which way the man of God that came from Judah went.

¹³ Then he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me!" So they saddled the donkey for him and he rode away on it. ¹⁴ Then he went after the man of God and found him sitting under an oak tree. He said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?"

"I am," he said.

¹⁵ "Come home with me," he said to him, "and eat bread!"

¹⁶ But he said: "I cannot return with you nor go with you, nor will I eat bread or drink water with you in this place. ¹⁷ For it was said to me by the word of ADONAI: You shall eat no bread nor drink water there, nor should you return back by the way by which you came."

¹⁸ So he said to him: "I also am a prophet like you. An angel spoke to me with the word of ADONAI saying, 'Bring him back with you to your house that he may eat bread and drink water.'" (He lied to him.) ¹⁹ So he went back with him and ate bread in his house and drank water.

²⁰ Now while they were sitting at the table, the word of ADONAI came to the prophet who had brought him back, ²¹ and he cried to the man of God that came from Judah saying, "Thus says ADONAI: Because you rebelled against the word of ADONAI, and did not keep the commandment which ADONAI your God commanded you, ²² but turned back, ate bread and drank water in the place of which He said to you, 'Eat no bread and drink no water,' your carcass will not enter the tomb of your fathers."

²³ So after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, he saddled the donkey for him, for the prophet he had brought back. ²⁴ But when he was gone, a lion met him along the way and killed him. So his carcass was thrown on the road with both the donkey and the lion standing beside the carcass. ²⁵ Then, men passed by and saw the carcass thrown on the road with the lion standing by the carcass. So they came and told it in the town where the old prophet lived. ²⁶ Now when the prophet who had brought him back from the road heard it, he said: "It is the man of God who defied the word of ADONAI; therefore ADONAI gave him to the lion which mauled him and killed him, according to the word ADONAI spoke to him."

²⁷ Then he spoke to his sons saying: "Saddle the donkey for me!" So they saddled it. ²⁸ Then he went and found his carcass lying on the road, with the donkey and the lion standing by the carcass. The lion had not eaten the carcass nor mauled the donkey. ²⁹ Then the prophet picked up the carcass of the man of God, he laid it on the donkey, and brought it back to the town of the old prophet to mourn and to bury him. ³⁰ He laid his carcass in his own tomb and they mourned over him saying, "Oy, my brother!" ³¹ After burying him, he said to his sons, "When I die, bury me in the tomb where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones. ³² For the message he declared by the word of ADONAI against the altar in Beth-El, and against all the shrines of the high places which are in the towns of Samaria, will surely come to pass."

³³ Even after this, Jeroboam did not turn back from his evil way, but once again, he appointed priests for the high places from among all ranks of the people. Whoever wanted to be a priest, he consecrated him for the high places. ³⁴ So this matter became sin against the house of Jeroboam, in the end, wiping it out and destroying it from the face of the earth.

Curse on House of Jeroboam

14 At that time, Abijah, Jeroboam's son fell sick. ² Jeroboam said to his wife, "Please go disguise yourself, so they won't recognize you as Jeroboam's wife, and go to Shiloh. Look, the prophet Ahijah who told me that I would be king over these people is there. ³ Take with you ten loaves, biscuits, and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy."

⁴ Jeroboam's wife did so. She got up and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see for his eyes were dim because of his age. ⁵ ADONAI had said to Ahijah, "Look! Jeroboam's wife is coming to ask you about her son, for he is sick. You are to say such and such to her, for she will be in disguise."

⁶ As soon as Ahijah heard the sound of her feet as she came through the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why this disguise? But I have been sent to you with a difficult message. ⁷ Go tell Jeroboam, thus says ADONAI, God of Israel: 'I raised you up from among the people and made you leader over My people Israel. ⁸ I tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it you. Yet you have not been like My servant David who kept My commandments and followed Me with all his heart, doing only what was right in My eyes. ⁹ Instead, you have done more evil than all who were before you, and have gone and made yourself other gods—molten images to vex Me—and have cast Me behind your back. ¹⁰ Therefore, I am about to bring evil on the house of Jeroboam. I will cut off to Jeroboam even one man, bond and free, in Israel. I will burn up the house of Jeroboam as one burns the dung until it is all gone. ¹¹ Anyone who belongs to Jeroboam and dies in the city, the dogs will eat, and anyone who dies in the field, the birds of the sky will eat. For ADONAI has spoken it.'

¹² "As for you, arise and go to your house. As soon as you set foot in the town, the boy will die. ¹³ All Israel will lament over him and bury him, for it is only him of Jeroboam's house who will be buried, because in him alone, of all Jeroboam's house, something good was found toward ADONAI, the God of Israel.

¹⁴ "Moreover, ADONAI will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who will cut off the house of Jeroboam that day. So now, what else? ¹⁵ ADONAI will strike Israel until it sways like a reed in the water. He will uproot Israel from this good land that He gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their Asherah poles, provoking ADONAI. ¹⁶ So He will give up Israel because of the sins of Jeroboam which he committed, and caused Israel to commit."

¹⁷ Then Jeroboam's wife got up, left, and went to Tirzah. As soon as she stepped over the threshold of the house, the child died. ¹⁸ They buried him and all Israel lamented over him, just as was the word of ADONAI that He spoke through His servant Ahijah the prophet.

¹⁹ As for the rest of the deeds of Jeroboam, how he made war and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel. ²⁰ The days that Jeroboam reigned were 22 years and then he slept with his fathers. His son Nadab reigned in his place.

Idolatry and Consequences

²¹ Meanwhile, Rehoboam son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was 41 years old when he became king, and he reigned 17 years in Jerusalem—the city where ADONAI had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put His Name. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

²² Judah did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes. They provoked Him to jealousy with more than all that their forefathers had done with the sins that they committed. ²³ They also built for themselves high places, sacred pillars, and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every leafy tree; ²⁴ and there were also male cult prostitutes in the land. They did the same abominations as those of the nations that ADONAI had driven out before the children of Israel.

15 Now in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, son of Nebat, Abijam became king over Judah. ² He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. ³ He walked in all the sins of his father which he had done before him; and his heart was not wholly devoted to ADONAI his God, like the heart of his father David.

⁴ Nevertheless, for David's sake, ADONAI his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, raising up his son after him and establishing Jerusalem. ⁵ For David did what was right in ADONAI's eyes and did not turn aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite.

⁶ As there had been war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life, ⁷ so there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. The rest of the deeds of Abijam and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ⁸ Then Abijam slept with his fathers so they buried him in the city of David, and his son Asa became king in his place.

Asa Starts Out Right

⁹ In the twentieth year of King Jeroboam of Israel, Asa began to reign over Judah. ¹⁰ He reigned 41 years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. ¹¹ Now Asa did what was right in ADONAI's eyes, like his father David. ¹² He also expelled the male prostitutes from the land and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. ¹³ Also he deposed his mother Maacah from being queen mother, because she had made an abominable image as an Asherah pole. So Asa cut down her image and burned it in the Kidron Valley. ¹⁴ But they did not take away the high places.

Nevertheless Asa's heart was wholly devoted to ADONAI all his days. ¹⁵ He brought into the House of ADONAI the consecrated things of his father as well as his own consecrated things of silver, gold, and utensils.

¹⁶ Now there was war between Asa and King Baasa of Israel all their days. ¹⁷ King Baasa of Israel marched against Judah, and he built up Ramah to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to King Asa of Judah. ¹⁸ Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasuries of ADONAI's House and the treasuries of the royal palace, and delivered them into the hand of his officials. King Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad son of Tabrimmon, son of Hezion, king of Aram, who resided in Damascus, saying: ¹⁹ "Let there be a treaty between me and you, as it was between my father and your father. I have just sent you a present of silver and gold; go, break your treaty with King Baasa of Israel, so that he may withdraw from me."

²⁰ So Ben-Hadad listened to King Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel, conquering Ijon, Dan, Abel-Beth-Maacah and all Chinneroth, as well as all the land of Naphtali. ²¹ When Baasa heard it, he stopped fortifying Ramah and remained in Tirzah. ²² Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah—none was exempted—and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber which Baasa had built. Then King Asa built Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah with them.

²³ Now the rest of all the deeds of Asa, all his might, all he did, and the cities that he built—are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? But in his old age he was diseased in his feet.

²⁴ And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David, and his son Jehoshaphat became king his place.

End of Jeroboam's Line

²⁵ Nadab son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of King Asa of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years. ²⁶ He also did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, walking in the way of his father and in his sins that he caused Israel to commit. ²⁷ Then Baasa son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar conspired against him, and Baasa struck him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were besieging Gibbethon. ²⁸ So Baasa slew him, in the third year of King Asa of Judah, and became king in his place. ²⁹ As soon as he became king, he struck down all the household of Jeroboam. He did not spare Jeroboam anything with breath until he had destroyed him, just as was the word of ADONAI that He spoke by the hand of His servant Ahijah the Shilonite, ³⁰ because of the sins Jeroboam had committed and caused Israel to commit, by which he utterly provoked ADONAI, God of Israel. ³¹ Now the rest of the deeds of Nadab and all he did—are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

³² So there was war between Asa and King Baasa of Israel all their days. ³³ In the third year of King Asa of Judah, Baasa son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, reigning 24 years. ³⁴ He did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, and followed the way of Jeroboam and the sin that he had made Israel commit.

Zimri Ends Baasa's Line

16 Now the word of ADONAI came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasa, saying: ² "Since I raised you up from the dust and made you ruler over My people Israel, yet you have walked in the way of Jeroboam and have caused My people Israel to sin, vexing Me with their sins. ³ I am about to consume Baasa and his house. I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat. ⁴ Anyone of Baasa who dies in the city, the dogs will eat, and anyone of his who dies in the field, the birds of the sky will eat."

⁵ Now the rest of the deeds of Baasa and what he did and his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ⁶ Then Baasa slept with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah, and his son Elah became king in his place. ⁷ But the word of ADONAI had already come by the hand of the prophet Jehu son of Hanani against Baasa and against his house, because of all the evil he had done in ADONAI's eyes, vexing Him with the work of his hands, becoming thus like the house of Jeroboam which He struck down.

⁸In the twenty-sixth year of King Asa of Judah, Elah son of Baasa became king over Israel in Tirzah, and reigned two years. ⁹Then his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariotry, conspired against him while he was in Tirzah, making himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was in charge of the palace in Tirzah.

¹⁰Then Zimri went in, struck him down and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of King Asa of Judah, and became king in his place. ¹¹It came about when he became king, as soon as he sat on the throne, he struck down all the household of Baasa, leaving him not even one man, nor his kinsmen nor his friend.

¹²So Zimri destroyed the entire house of Baasa, according to the word of ADONAI which He spoke against Baasa by the prophet Jehu, ¹³for all the sins of Baasa and the sins of his son Elah, which they committed and caused Israel to commit, vexing ADONAI God of Israel with their useless idols. ¹⁴Now the rest of the deeds of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

Rise of Omri

¹⁵In the twenty-seventh year of King Asa of Judah, Zimri reigned for seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were encamped against Gibbethon of the Philistines.

¹⁶When the people encamped heard it said, "Zimri has conspired and even struck down the king," then all Israel proclaimed Omri—the commander of the army—king over Israel that very day in the camp.

¹⁷Then Omri and all Israel with him went up from Gibbethon and besieged Tirzah. ¹⁸When Zimri saw that the city was captured, he went into the citadel of the royal palace, and burned down the royal palace over him with fire. So he died too, ¹⁹because of the sins which he committed, doing what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, walking in the way of Jeroboam and in the sin which he had committed, making Israel sin. ²⁰Now the rest of the deeds of Zimri and his treason that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

²¹Then the people of Israel were divided into two factions: half of the people followed Tibni son of Ginath, making him king, while the other half followed Omri. ²²But the people following Omri prevailed against the people following Tibni son of Ginath. Tibni died, and Omri became king.

²³In the thirty-first year of King Asa of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel, and reigned 12 years, six years in Tirzah. ²⁴Then he bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver, and built a city on the hill. He named the city that he built Samaria, based on the name Shemer, the owner of the hill.

²⁵But Omri did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, and acted more wickedly than all who were before him. ²⁶For he walked in all the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in the sins that he had caused Israel to commit, vexing ADONAI God of Israel, with their useless idols. ²⁷Now the rest of the deeds of Omri that he did and the valiant deeds that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ²⁸So Omri slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria.

Ahab Even Worse

Then his son Ahab became king in his place. ²⁹In the thirty-eighth year of King Asa of Judah, Ahab son of Omri began to reign over Israel; and Ahab son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria 22 years. ³⁰But Ahab son of Omri did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, more than all who were before him. ³¹Now, as if it was a trifling thing to walk in the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, he also took as wife Jezebel the daughter of King Ethbaal of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal and worshiped him. ³²He also erected an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal that he had built in Samaria. ³³Also Ahab made the Asherah pole. So Ahab did yet more to provoke ADONAI the God of Israel than all the kings of Israel who were before him.

Curse of Jericho Rebuilt

³⁴During his days, Hiel of Beth-El rebuilt Jericho. At the cost of Abiram his firstborn, he laid its foundation, and at the cost of his youngest son Segub, he set up its gates—according to the word of ADONAI, which He had spoken through Joshua son of Nun.

Elijah Proclaims Famine

17 Now Elijah the Tishbite, one of the settlers of Gilead, said to Ahab: "As ADONAI God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall be no dew or rain these years, except at my word." †

²Then the word of ADONAI came to him saying: ³"Leave this place, turn eastward, and hide yourself by the Wadi Cherith, east of the Jordan. ⁴It will come about that you will drink from the wadi. I have also commanded the ravens to feed you there."

⁵So he went and did according to the word of ADONAI—he went and lived by the Wadi Cherith, which is east of the Jordan. ⁶The ravens kept bringing him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the wadi. ⁷Then it came to pass after a while that the wadi dried up, because there was no rain in the land.

⁸Then the word of ADONAI came to him saying: ⁹"Arise, go to Zarephath of Sidon and stay there. I have just commanded a widow there to provide for you."

Miracle of Flour and Oil

¹⁰So he arose and went to Zarephath. Now when he came to the town gate, to his surprise, a widow was there gathering sticks. So he called her and said, † cf. Luke 4:25; Jacob 5:17.

"Please bring a little water in a jar that I may drink."

¹¹ As she was going to fetch it, he called her and said, "Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

¹² So she said, "As ADONAI your God lives, I have nothing baked, only a handful of flour in the jar, and a little oil in the jug. Now look, I am gathering a couple of sticks, so that I may go in and prepare it for me and my son, that we may eat it and die."

¹³ Elijah said to her, "Fear not! Go and do as you said, but first make me a little cake from what you have there. Bring it out to me and afterwards, make some for you and for your son. ¹⁴ For thus says ADONAI God of Israel, 'The jar of flour shall not be exhausted nor shall the jug of oil be empty until the day ADONAI sends rain on the land.'"

¹⁵ So she went and did according to the word of Elijah—and she and he, and her household ate for many days. ¹⁶ The jar of flour was not exhausted, nor did the jug of oil become empty, according to the word of ADONAI which He spoke through Elijah.

Resurrection of a Boy

¹⁷ After these things, it came to pass that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house fell sick, and his sickness was getting much worse until he had no breath left in him. ¹⁸ So she said to Elijah, "What do I have to do with you, man of God? Have you come to me to remind me of my sin and kill my son?"

¹⁹ He said to her, "Give me your son." Then he took him from her arms, carried him up to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his own bed. ²⁰ He cried out to ADONAI and said, " ADONAI my God, have You brought such evil even on the widow with whom I am staying, by causing her son to die?" ²¹ Then he stretched himself upon the child three times. He cried out to ADONAI and said, " ADONAI my God, please let this child's soul come back into his body!"

²² ADONAI listened to the cry of Elijah, so the soul of the child came back into his body and he was revived. ²³ Then Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. Elijah said, "See! Your son is alive." †

²⁴ Then the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word in your mouth is truth."

Elijah Confronts Ahab

18 Now it was after many days that the word of ADONAI came to Elijah in the third year saying, "Go, show yourself to Ahab; then I will send rain on the land." ² So Elijah went to show himself to Ahab.

Now the famine was severe in Samaria. ³ Ahab summoned Obadiah who was the steward of the palace. Now Obadiah feared ADONAI greatly— ⁴ for when Jezebel was cutting off the prophets of ADONAI, Obadiah took 100 prophets, hid them 50 to a cave, and provided them with bread and water. ⁵ Then Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the wadis. Perhaps we may find grass and so keep the horses and mules alive and not lose all the animals." ⁶ So they divided the land between them to explore it—Ahab went one way by himself while Obadiah went another way by himself.

⁷ As Obadiah was on the road, all of a sudden, Elijah met him. When he recognized him, he fell on his face and said, "Is it you, my lord Elijah?"

⁸ "It is I," he answered him. "Go tell your lord, 'Look, Elijah is here!'"

⁹ "How have I sinned," he replied, "that you are giving your servant into the hand of Ahab, to put me to death? ¹⁰ As ADONAI your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent to search for you; and when they said, 'He is not here,' he made that kingdom or nation swear that they could not find you.

¹¹ "Now you're saying, 'Go tell your lord, 'Look, Elijah is here!'" ¹² But as soon as I leave you, the Ruach ADONAI may carry you off where I wouldn't know. Then, when I come and tell Ahab and he can't find you, he'll kill me! Now I, your servant, have feared ADONAI since my youth. ¹³ Wasn't my lord told what I did when Jezebel slaughtered the prophets of ADONAI—how I hid 100 of ADONAI's prophets, 50 to a cave and provided them with bread and water? ¹⁴ So now you say, 'Go tell your lord, 'Look, Elijah is here!'" He'll kill me!"

¹⁵ Then Elijah said, "As ADONAI - Tzva'ot lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today."

¹⁶ So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him; then, Ahab went to meet Elijah. ¹⁷ Now when Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, "Is it you, the one who causes trouble for Israel?"

¹⁸ But he answered, "I have not troubled Israel. Rather, it is you and your father's house—by forsaking the mitzvot of ADONAI and going after the Baalim.

¹⁹ Now then, send and gather to me all Israel at Mount Carmel, together with the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of Asherah who eat at Jezebel's table."

Triumph on Mount Carmel

²⁰ So Ahab sent word to all the children of Israel and gathered the prophets together at Mount Carmel.

²¹ Then Elijah approached all the people and said, "How long will you waver between two opinions? If ADONAI is God, follow Him; but if Baal is, follow him." But the people did not answer him, not even a word.

²² Then Elijah said to the people, "I am the only prophet of ADONAI left, but Baal's prophets are 450 men. ²³ Now let them give us two young bulls. Let them choose one bull for themselves, cut it into pieces, lay it on the wood, and put no fire underneath, while I prepare the other bull, lay it on the wood, and put no fire underneath. ²⁴ Then you will call on the name of your god, and then, I will call on the Name of ADONAI. The God who answers with fire, He is God.”

† cf. Heb. 11:23.

All the people responded and said, “It’s a good thing.”

²⁵ Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first—since you are so many. Then call on the name of your god, but put no fire underneath.”

²⁶ So they took the bull that he gave them, prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning till noon, crying, “O Baal, answer us!” But there was no voice—no one was answering. They also danced leaping around the altar that was made.

²⁷ Now when it was about noon, Elijah mocked them and said, “Shout louder! After all, he is a god! Maybe he’s deep in thought, or he’s relieving himself, or he’s off on a journey, or perhaps he’s asleep and must wake up!” ²⁸ So they shouted even louder and cut themselves with swords and spears, as was their custom, until the blood gushed over them. ²⁹ When midday was past, they kept prophesying ecstatically until the time of offering up the evening sacrifice. But there was no voice, no one answering, no one paying attention.

³⁰ Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come near to me.” So all the people came closer to him. Then he repaired the damaged altar of ADONAI. ³¹ Elijah took twelve stones—like the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of ADONAI had come saying, “Israel shall be your name”—³² and with the stones he built an altar in the Name of ADONAI. Then he made a trench around the altar, large enough to contain two measures of seed. ³³ Then he put the wood in order, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood.

³⁴ Then he said, “Fill four jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood.” Then he said, “A second time!” and they did it a second time. Then he said, “A third time!” and they did it a third time. ³⁵ So the water ran around the altar and he also filled the trench with water.

³⁶ Now it was at the time of offering up the evening sacrifice that Elijah the prophet came near and said, “ADONAI, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, † let it be known today that You are God in Israel, that I am Your servant, and that I have done all these things at Your word. ³⁷ Answer me, ADONAI, answer me, so that these people may know that You, ADONAI, are God, and that You have turned their heart back again.”

³⁸ Then the fire of ADONAI fell and consumed the burnt offering—and the wood, the stones, and the dust—and licked up the water that was in the trench.

³⁹ When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces, and they said, “ADONAI, He is God! ADONAI, He is God!”

⁴⁰ Then Elijah said to them, “Seize the prophets of Baal! Let not a single one of them escape.” So they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the Wadi Kishon and slew them there.

⁴¹ Then Elijah said to Ahab, “Go up, eat and drink, for there’s the sound of rain.” ⁴² So Ahab went up to eat and drink. But Elijah went up to the top of Carmel, crouched on the ground, and put his face between his knees. ^{††43} Then he said to his servant, “Go up now, look toward the sea.”

So he went up, looked, and said, “There’s nothing.”

Then he said, “Go back”—seven times—⁴⁴ and it was the seventh time that he said, “Look! A cloud as small as a man’s hand is rising from the sea.”

Then he said, “Go up, say to Ahab, ‘Harness your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.’”

⁴⁵ In a little while the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy rain. Ahab mounted and rode, and headed to Jezreel. ⁴⁶ Now the hand of ADONAI was on Elijah, so he girded up his loins and outran Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

Whisper at the Cave

19 Then Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done and how he had slain all the prophets with the sword. ² Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah saying, “So let the gods do to me and worse if by this time tomorrow I don’t make your life like the life of one of them.” ³ Frightened, he got up and ran for his life. When he came to Beer-Sheba, which belongs to Judah, he left his servant there. ⁴ But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom bush. He prayed that he might die. “It’s too much!” he said. “Now, ADONAI, take my life! For I’m no better than my fathers.”

⁵ Then he lay down and slept under the broom bush. Then behold, an angel touched him, and said to him, “Get up, and eat.” ⁶ So he looked, and to his surprise, there by his head was a cake baked on the hot stones and a jar of water. So he ate and drank, and lay down again. ⁷ Then the angel of ADONAI came again a second time, touched him and said. “Get up and eat, because the journey is too much for you.” ⁸ So he arose and ate and drank, and in the strength of that meal forty days and forty nights went to Horeb, the mountain of God.

⁹ When he arrived there at the cave, he spent the night there. Then behold, the word of ADONAI came to him, and He said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

¹⁰ “I have been very zealous for ADONAI - Tzva’ot,” he said, “for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars and slain Your prophets with the sword—and I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it!” [‡]

¹¹ Then He said, “Come out and stand on the mount before ADONAI.” ^{††} Behold, ADONAI was passing by—a great and mighty wind was tearing at the mountains and shattering cliffs before ADONAI. But ADONAI was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but ADONAI was not in the earthquake. ¹² After the earthquake a fire, but ADONAI was not in the fire. After the fire there was a soft whisper of a voice. ¹³ As soon as Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle, went out and stood at the entrance of the cave.

† cf. Matt. 22:32.

†† cf. Jacob 5:18. ‡ cf. Acts 7:52; Rom. 11:3. †† cf. Matt. 17:1-3.

Then all of a sudden, a voice addressed him and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

¹⁴ "I have been very zealous for ADONAI Tzva'ot," he said, "for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and slain Your prophets with the sword—and I alone am left, and they are seeking to take my life!"

¹⁵ Then ADONAI said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus, and when you get there, anoint Hazael king over Aram, ¹⁶ and anoint Jehu son of Nimshi king over Israel, and anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-Meholah as prophet in your place. ¹⁷ It shall come to pass that whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will slay; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will slay. ¹⁸ Yet I have preserved seven thousand in Israel whose knees have not bowed to Baal and whose mouth has not kissed him."

Calling of Elisha

¹⁹ So he departed from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat while he was plowing with twelve pairs of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth. Then Elijah crossed over to him and threw his mantle on him. ²⁰ So he left the oxen and ran after Elijah saying, "Let me please kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you." †

"Come back," he said to him. "For what have I done to you?" ²¹ So he returned from following him, and took the pair of oxen and sacrificed them and boiled their flesh with the oxen's yoke gear, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he arose, went after Elijah, and became his attendant.

Ahab and the Prophets

20 Now King Ben-Hadad of Aram gathered all his army. With him were 32 kings, along with horses and chariots. He marched up, besieged Samaria, and attacked it. ² Then he sent messengers into the city to King Ahab of Israel, ³ and said to him, "Thus says Ben-Hadad: Your silver and gold are mine! Your best wives and children are also mine."

⁴ The king of Israel replied, "As you say, my lord the king: I am yours, along with all I have."

⁵ Then the messengers came back and said, "Thus says Ben-Hadad: Indeed I sent word to you, ordering you to give me your silver, your gold, your wives, and your children. ⁶ Now I will send my servants to you tomorrow at this time, and they shall search your palace and the houses of your courtiers. Whatever is valuable in your eyes, they shall seize in their hand and take it away."

⁷ Then the king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said, "Please know and see how this man is bent on evil! For he sent someone to me for my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold, and I didn't refuse him."

⁸ All the elders and all the people said to him, "Don't listen to him or consent."

⁹ So he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, "Tell my lord the king: All that you sent to your servant at first, I will do, but this thing I cannot do." The messengers departed and reported it to him.

¹⁰ Then Ben-Hadad sent word to him again saying, "May the gods do so to me and even more, if the dust of Samaria will suffice for handfuls for all the people at my feet."

¹¹ The king of Israel answered and said, "Tell him: 'Let not the one who puts on his armor boast like the one who takes it off.'"

¹² On hearing this reply—while he and the other kings were drinking in the booths—he said to his servants, "Take your positions." So they stationed themselves against the city.

¹³ Then behold, a prophet approached King Ahab of Israel and said, "Thus says ADONAI: Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand this day, and you will know that I am ADONAI."

¹⁴ Ahab asked, "By whom?"

He said, "Thus says ADONAI: By the young men of the rulers of the provinces."

Then he asked, "Who should begin the battle?"

"You!" he answered.

¹⁵ So he mustered the young men of the rulers of the provinces. There were 232. After them he mustered all the people of all the children of Israel, 7,000. ¹⁶ They marched out at noon, while Ben-Hadad was drinking himself drunk in the booths—he and the 32 kings allied with him. ¹⁷ The young men of the rulers of the provinces marched out first. Ben-Hadad sent out scouts, who reported to him saying, "There are men coming out from Samaria."

²² The prophet then approached the king of Israel and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself. Consider carefully what you should do, for at the turn of the year the king of Aram will march up against you."

† cf. Luke 9:61-62.

²³ Meanwhile, the servants of the king of Aram said to him, "Their God is a God of the mountains—that's why they were stronger than us. But let's fight against them in the plain. Then surely we'll be stronger than them." ²⁴ So this is what you should do: remove the kings, each from his post, and appoint governors in their place. ²⁵ Then muster an army like the army that you lost—horse for horse and chariot for chariot—and let's fight against them in the plain, and surely we'll be stronger than them!" He listened to their advice and acted accordingly.

²⁸ Then a man of God approached the king of Israel and spoke to him saying, "Thus says ADONAI: Because the Arameans have said, 'ADONAI is a God of the mountains, but He is not a God of the valleys,' therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am ADONAI."

²⁹ So they encamped one over against the other seven days. On the seventh day the battle was joined, and the children of Israel struck down 100,000 of the Aramean foot soldiers in a single day. ³⁰ The rest fled to Aphek into the city and the wall fell upon 27,000 men that were left. But Ben-Hadad fled into the city, into an inner chamber. ³¹ His officials said to him, "Look now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let's put sackcloth on our loins and ropes on our heads, and surrender to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will spare your life."

³² So they girded sackcloth on their loins, put ropes on their heads, came to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-Hadad says: 'Please let me live.'"

He replied, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

³³ The men took it as a good sign and were quick to catch on, so they said, "Yes, Ben-Hadad is your brother."

"Go, bring him," he said. So Ben-Hadad came out to him and he took him up into his chariot.

³⁴ Then he said to him, "The cities which my father took from your father I will give back, and you may set up markets for yourself in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria."

"Then I will let you go with this covenant." So he made a covenant with him and let him go.

³⁵ Now a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow by the word of ADONAI, "Strike me please!" But the man refused to strike him. ³⁶ Then he said to him, "Because you did not obey the voice of ADONAI, behold, as soon as you leave me, a lion shall kill you." As soon as he left him, a lion found him and killed him.

³⁷ Then he found another man, and said, "Strike me please!" So the man struck him and wounded him.

³⁸ Then the prophet left and waited for the king by the road, disguising himself with a headband over his eyes. ³⁹ As the king was passing by, he cried to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle, and behold, a man turned aside and brought another man to me and said, 'Guard this man! If by any means he is missing, then your life will be for his life, or else you will weigh out a talent of silver.'" ⁴⁰ Then as your servant was busy here and there, he was gone."

The king of Israel said to him, "So will your sentence be—you yourself have decided it."

⁴¹ Then he quickly took the headband away from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets. ⁴² Then he said to him, "Thus says ADONAI: 'Because you have released out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life will be in place of his life and your people in place of his people.'"

⁴³ Then the king of Israel went home to Samaria sullen and resentful.

Naboth Murdered for His Vineyard

21 Now it came about after these things that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard in Jezreel, next to the palace of King Ahab of Samaria. ² Ahab spoke to Naboth saying, "Give me your vineyard, so I may have it for a garden of herbs, since it's right next to my house. I'll give you a better vineyard than it in exchange, or if it seems better to you, I'll give you its price in money."

³ But Naboth said to Ahab, "ADONAI forbid that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers."

⁴ So Ahab went into his house sullen and resentful because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him, when he said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." He lay down on his bed, turned away his face, and would eat no food.

⁵ Then his wife Jezebel came to him and asked him, "Why is your spirit so sullen that you are eating no food?"

⁶ Then he told her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and asked him: 'Give me your vineyard for money, or if it pleases you, I'll give you another vineyard for it,' but he answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

⁷ Then his wife Jezebel said to him, "Now, do you really govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, eat some food, and let your heart be merry! I will get you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite." ⁸ So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who were living with Naboth in his city. ⁹ She wrote in the letters saying, "Proclaim a fast and set Naboth at the head of the people." ¹⁰ Then she set two sons of Belial before him, and let them testify against him saying, "You cursed God and the king.' Then take him out and stone him to death."

¹¹ So the men of his city—the elders and the nobles who lived in his city—did just as Jezebel had bid them, just as was written in the letters that she had sent to them. ¹² They proclaimed a fast then seated Naboth at the head of the people. ¹³ Then the two worthless men came in and sat before him, and the worthless men testified against him, against Naboth, before the people saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king!" Then they carried him out of the city and stoned him to death. ¹⁴ Then they sent word to Jezebel saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is dead."

¹⁵ Now when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite which he refused to sell you for money—for Naboth is not alive, but dead." ¹⁶ As soon as Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite to take possession of it.

¹⁷ Then the word of the ADONAI came to Elijah the Tishbite saying: ¹⁸ "Arise, go down to meet King Ahab of Israel, who is in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth where he has gone down to take possession of it. ¹⁹ You shall speak to him saying, 'Thus says ADONAI: Have you murdered and then taken possession?' You shall also speak to him saying, 'Thus says ADONAI: In the same place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick your blood too.'"

²⁰ Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, my enemy?"

"I have found you," he answered, "because you have sold yourself over to do what is evil in ADONAI's eyes.

²¹ 'Behold, I will bring evil upon you, utterly sweep you away, and will cut off from Ahab every male, both bond and free in Israel. ²² I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasa son of Ahijah because you provoked My anger by leading Israel to sin.'

²⁴ Any of Ahab who die in the city, the dogs will eat; or any who die in the country, the birds of the sky will eat.'"

²⁷ Now when Ahab heard those words, he tore his clothes, put sackcloth on his body, fasted, lay in sackcloth, and walked about subdued. ²⁸ Then the word of ADONAI came to Elijah the Tishbite saying: ²⁹ "Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring the evil in his days, but in his son's days I will bring the evil upon his house."

Ahab's Last Stand

22 Three years remained without war between Aram and Israel. ² Then it came about in the third year that King Jehoshaphat of Judah came down to the king of Israel. ³ The king of Israel said to his courtiers, "Do you know that Ramoth-Gilead is ours, yet we are still doing nothing to recover it from the hand of the king of Aram?" ⁴ Then he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." ⁵ Jehoshaphat said further to the king of Israel, "Please inquire of ADONAI for a word first,"

⁶ So the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about 400 men, and asked them: "Should I march against Ramoth-Gilead to battle or should I refrain?"

They responded, "Go up, for my Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king."

⁷ But Jehoshaphat said: "Is there no longer a prophet of ADONAI here that we may inquire of Him?"

⁸ The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Yes, there is still one by whom we may inquire of ADONAI—Micaiah son of Imlah—but I hate him, because he never prophesies good concerning me, only evil."

But Jehoshaphat said, "May the king not say so!"

⁹ So the king of Israel summoned one of his eunuchs and said, "Bring Micaiah son of Imlah quickly."

¹⁰ Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, at a threshing-floor at the entrance of Samaria's gate. All the prophets were prophesying before them.

¹¹ Now Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made himself horns of iron and said, "Thus says ADONAI: 'With these you will gore the Arameans until they are consumed!'"

¹² Then all the prophets were prophesying so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-Gilead and triumph! For ADONAI will deliver it into the hand of the king!"

¹³ Meanwhile the messenger that went to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, "Behold now, the words of the prophets are uniformly declaring favor to the king. So please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak favorably."

¹⁴ But Micaiah said, "As ADONAI lives, what ADONAI says to me, that will I speak."

¹⁵ Now when he came to the king, the king asked him, "Micaiah, should we march to Ramoth-Gilead in battle or should we refrain?"

"March and triumph!" he answered, "and ADONAI will give it into the hand of the king."

¹⁶ But the king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear to speak to me nothing but the truth in the Name of ADONAI?"

¹⁷ Then he said,

"I saw all Israel scattered on the hills,

as sheep without a shepherd. †

Then ADONAI said, 'These have no master; let each of them return home in peace.'"

¹⁸ And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he wouldn't prophesy good concerning me, only evil?"

¹⁹ Micaiah then continued, "Therefore hear the word of ADONAI. I saw ADONAI sitting on His throne, †† with all the hosts of heaven standing by Him on His right hand and on His left. ²⁰ Then ADONAI said, 'Who will entice Ahab to go up and fall at Ramoth-Gilead?' One suggested this and another that, ²¹ until a certain spirit came forward and stood before ADONAI and said, 'I will entice him.' So ADONAI asked him, 'How?' ²² And he said: 'I will go and be a deceiving spirit ‡ in the mouth of all his prophets.' Then He said: 'You shall entice him and shall prevail also—go and do so.' ²³ Now therefore, behold, ADONAI has put a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and ADONAI has decreed evil upon you."

²⁴ Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah approached Micaiah, struck him on the cheek and said, "Which way did the Ruach ADONAI pass from me to speak to you?"

²⁵ Micaiah replied, "Behold, you will see on that day when you go into an inner chamber to hide."

²⁶ Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah and take him back to Amon the city governor and to Joash the king's son, ²⁷ and say, "Thus says the king: 'Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him only bread and water until I return safely.'"

²⁸ Micaiah then said, "If you ever return safely, then ADONAI has not spoken through me." And he added, "Did you hear, all you people?"

²⁹ So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah marched to Ramoth-Gilead. ³⁰ Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you, put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle.

³² So when the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they said, "He must be the king of Israel!" and they turned aside to do combat with him, but Jehoshaphat cried out. ³³ When the captains of the chariots realized that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

³⁴ But a man drew his bow aimlessly and struck the king of Israel between the lower armor and the breastplate. Then he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I'm wounded." ³⁵ The battle raged that day, and the king remained propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans. But he died at evening—and the blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot. ³⁶ As the sun was setting, a shout went throughout the army, saying, "Each man to his town, and each man to his land!"

³⁷ So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. ³⁸ Then they washed the chariot at the pool of Samaria where the harlots washed and the dogs licked up his blood—just as was the word of ADONAI that He had spoken.

³⁹ Now the rest of Ahab's deeds and all he did, including the ivory palace he built and all the cities he fortified, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ⁴⁰ So Ahab slept with his fathers, and his son Ahaziah became king in his place.

Jehoshaphat of Judah

⁴¹ Now Jehoshaphat son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. ⁴² Jehoshaphat was 35 years old when he became king, and he reigned 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

⁵² (51) Ahaziah son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel. ⁵³ (52) But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes and followed the way of his father, and the way of his mother, and the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat who caused Israel to sin. ⁵⁴ (53) For he worshiped Baal and bowed down to him, vexing ADONAI God of Israel, like all his father had done.

2 Kings

2 Kings Introduction

See introduction to 1 Kings for name, authorship and dating. Beyond noting that 1 and 2 Kings were initially considered one volume, worth mentioning is that both volumes of Samuel and Kings were once “wrapped” together as 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Kingdoms until the 15th BCE; the reason being that books of Kings were recognized as a continuation of the history presented in the books of Samuel. The similarity of style and choice of sources in 1 Kings and 2 Kings suggest that both were the work of a single writer. Jewish sources often attribute the authorship to Jeremiah.

1 Kings notes David’s transfer of a unified kingdom to Solomon who, in turn, passed it off to his son Rehoboam. Rehoboam’s ineptness prompted the secession of the Northern Kingdom, Israel, which was later destroyed by the Assyrians in approximately 722 BCE. True to its name, 2 Kings runs through the rise and demise of kings in both kingdoms, till the Northern Kingdom of Israel was destroyed by the Assyrians in chapter 17, and till the sack of the Southern Kingdom of Judah in 586 BCE, described in chapter 25.

The narrative tells of history as prophecy. Prophet Elijah was God’s messenger fearlessly and ferociously speaking truth to power throughout Ahab’s career. The shift of prophetic influence from Elijah to Elisha took place early in 2 Kings. Kings, in fact, is a biblical Who’s Who of royal and prophetic personages in the post-Davidic years of ancient Jewish monarchies. Wondrous and tragic stories are recounted. Great decisions by godly leaders are highlighted in contrast to horrific choices made by wicked kings. The blessing of obedience to God is juxtaposed against the curse of failure to follow His clearly defined will. The correlation between good leadership and blessings is evident when viewed against the darkness of evil overtaking the people in the years following ungodly leadership.

2 Kings reveals the result of pagan influences on God’s people. Jerusalem was God’s established center of worship for the Jewish nation. The Northern Kingdom established its own religious preeminence by circumventing Jerusalem and creating local worship centers. This deteriorated into pagan practices akin to neighboring peoples. Israel was ruled by a larger number of ungodly kings than Judah. The Northern Kingdom was destroyed for its disobedience. But the Southern Kingdom also experienced ungodly kings who succumbed to idolatry and, consequentially, suffered its own humiliating exile. Sin brought judgment, whereas the obedience of good kings yielded blessings and miraculous provision.

Since the days of Israel’s deliverance from Egypt, the Jewish people repeatedly descended into periods of idolatry. From the time of the “Golden Calf” through the long list of royal failures documented in Kings, idolatry paved the way to the Babylonian Exile. Since that time, such obvious forms of pagan behavior have been eradicated from modern Judaism. Nevertheless, less obvious forms of unbelief and disobedience rob God’s people of His blessings. The words of the prophet, repeated three times in the first chapter of 2 Kings, remain true. Israel’s problems are the direct result of behaving like “there is no God in Israel.” Our proves otherwise and provides perfect deliverance to those who worship Him alone!

Elijah Prophecies to Ahaziah

1 After Ahab's death, Moab rebelled against Israel.
² Now Ahaziah fell down from the balcony of his upper chamber in Samaria and was injured. So he sent messengers and instructed them, "Go inquire of Baal-Zebub † the god of Ekron, whether I will recover from this injury."

³ But an angel of ADONAI said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron?' ⁴ Therefore thus says ADONAI: 'You will not leave the bed you are lying on, for you will surely die.'" And Elijah departed.

⁵ When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, "Why have you returned?"

⁶ They answered him, "A man came up to meet us and said to us: 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and say to him, thus says ADONAI, "Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron? Therefore you will not leave the bed you are lying on, for you will surely die.'""

⁷ Then he said to them, "What kind of man was he that came up to meet you and told you these words?"

⁸ They answered him, "He was a hairy man with a leather belt around his waist."

"It's Elijah the Tishbite," he said.

⁹ So the king sent a captain of 50 with his 50 to Elijah. When the captain went up to him, behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. So he announced to him, "O man of God, by order of the king, come down!"

¹⁰ In response, Elijah said to the captain of 50, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your 50!" Then fire did come down from heaven and consumed him and his 50.

¹¹ So the king again sent to him another captain of 50 with his 50 men, who addressed him and said, "O man of God, by order of the king, come down quickly!"

¹² In response, Elijah said to them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your 50." And the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his 50.

¹³ So the king again sent the captain of a third 50 with his 50. But when the third captain of 50 went up and came near, he knelt before Elijah, and begged him saying, "O man of God, please, let my life and the lives of these 50 servants of yours be precious in your eyes!"

† Meaning Lord of the flies

¹⁴ Behold, fire came down from heaven and consumed the two previous captains of 50 with their 50; but now let my life be precious in your eyes!"

¹⁵ Then the angel of ADONAI said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he arose and went down with him to the king.

¹⁶ Then Elijah said to the king, "Thus says ADONAI: You have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-Zebub the god of Ekron. Is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore you will not leave the bed you are lying on, for you will surely die." ¹⁷ So he died just as was the word of ADONAI that Elijah had spoken.

Then Jehoram became king in his place, because Ahaziah had no son. It was in the second year of Jehoram, son of King Jehoshaphat of Judah. ¹⁸ Now the rest of the deeds of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel?

Elijah in a Chariot of Fire

2 Now it came to pass, when ADONAI was about to take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. ² Elijah said to Elisha, "Stay here please, for ADONAI has sent me on to Beth-El."

But Elisha said, "As ADONAI lives, and as you live, I will not leave you." So they went down to Beth-El.

³ Then the sons of the prophets at Beth-El came out to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that ADONAI is going to take your master away from over you today?"

He said, "Yes, I know. Be silent."

⁴ Then Elijah said to him, "Elisha, stay here please, for ADONAI has sent me on to Jericho."

But he said, "As ADONAI lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho.

⁵ Then the sons of the prophets at Jericho approached Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that ADONAI is going to take away your master from over you today?"

He replied, "Yes, I know. Be silent."

⁶ Then Elijah said to him, "Stay here please, for ADONAI has sent me to the Jordan."

But he said, "As ADONAI lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So both of them went on.

⁷ Then 50 of the sons of the prophets went and stood aside at a distance from them, while the two of them stood by the Jordan. ⁸ Elijah then took his mantle, wrapped it together, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that the two of them crossed over on dry ground. ⁹ Now as they were crossing over, Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what I will do for you before I am taken from you."

So Elisha said, "Please, let a double portion of your spirit be upon me."

¹⁰ He replied, "You have asked a hard thing. Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be so to you; but if not, it will not be so."

¹¹ As they were walking along and talking, behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

¹² As Elisha was watching, he was crying out, "Avi! Avi! The chariot of Israel and its horsemen!" Then he saw him no more. So he took hold of his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

Elisha Takes up the Mantle

¹³ He then picked up the mantle of Elijah that fell from him. When he returned and stood by the bank of the Jordan, ¹⁴ he took the mantle of Elijah that had fallen off him, struck the waters and said, "Where is ADONAI, the God of Elijah?" As he indeed struck the waters, they parted here and there. Then Elisha crossed over.

¹⁵ When the sons of the prophets at Jericho saw him some way off, they said, "The spirit of Elijah has rested on Elisha." So they came to meet him and bowed down to the ground before him. ¹⁶ Then they said to him, "Behold now, there are 50 strong men with your servants. Please let them go and search for your master. Perhaps the Ruach ADONAI has taken him up and cast him onto some mountain or into some valley."

But he said, "Don't send them." ¹⁷ But when they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, "Send them." So they sent 50 men. Though they searched for three days, they did not find him. ¹⁸ When they came back to him while he staying in Jericho, he said to them, "Didn't I tell you not to go?"

¹⁹ Then the men of the city said to Elisha, "Look now, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees, but the water is bad and the land barren."

²⁰ He responded, "Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it." So they brought it to him. ²¹ Then he went out to the spring of water, threw salt in it and said, "Thus says ADONAI, I have healed this water. No longer will there be from there death or barrenness." ²² So the waters were healed to this day, according to the word that Elisha spoke.

²³ From there he went up to Beth-El. As he was going up along the road, some young boys came out of the city. They mocked him saying to him, "Go on up, baldy! Go on up, baldy!" ²⁴ So he turned around and looked at them and cursed them in the Name of ADONAI. Then two she-bears came out of the woods and mauled 42 of the boys.

²⁵ From there he went to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

3 Now Jehoram, Ahab's son, became king of Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of King Jehoshaphat of Judah, and he reigned twelve years. ² He did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, though not like his father and his mother, for he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made. ³ Nevertheless, he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin, not turning away from them.

Moab Revolts against Israel

⁴ Now King Mesha of Moab was a sheep-breeder, and he used to render as tribute to the king of Israel the wool of 100,000 lambs and 100,000 rams. ⁵ But when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. ⁶ So King Jehoram marched out from Samaria at that time and mustered all Israel. ⁷ Then he sent word to King Jehoshaphat of Judah saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you march with me against Moab to battle?"

Jehoshaphat replied, "I will march. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

⁸ And he added, "By which route will we go up?"

He answered, "The route of the wilderness of Edom."

⁹ So the king of Israel, the king of Judah and the king of Edom marched. They kept circling roundabout for seven days, but there was no water for the army or for the animals that followed them. ¹⁰ "Ah!" the king of Israel cried, "ADONAI has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab!"

Elisha Foretells Moab's Defeat

¹¹ But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there a prophet of ADONAI here, that we may inquire of ADONAI by him?"

One of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, "Elisha son of Shaphat, who used to pour water on the hands of Elijah, is here."

¹² Jehoshaphat replied, "The word of ADONAI is with him." So the king of Israel, Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him. ¹³ But Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What do I have to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother!"

"No!" the king of Israel said to him, "For has ADONAI brought these three kings together only to deliver them into the hand of Moab?"

¹⁴ Elisha said, "As ADONAI - Tzva'ot lives, before whom I stand, were it not that I respect the presence of King Jehoshaphat of Judah, I would not look at you or even see you. ¹⁵ Now, bring me a musician."

Now as the musician played, the hand of ADONAI came upon him, ¹⁶ and he said, "Thus says ADONAI: Make this valley full of trenches. ¹⁷ For thus says ADONAI: You will not see wind nor will you see rain, yet this valley will be filled with water. So you will drink, both you and your cattle and your animals. ¹⁸ Yet this is an easy thing in ADONAI's eyes—for He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. ¹⁹ Then you must strike every fortified city and every major town, cut down every good tree, stop up all the springs of water, and ruin every good field with stones."

²⁰ Then it came to pass in the morning, about the time of offering up the sacrifice, behold—water was flowing from the direction of Edom—so that the water covered the land.

²¹ Meanwhile the Moabites heard that the kings had marched to fight against them. So they gathered themselves together, all that were able to put on armor and older, and stood at the border. ²² When they rose up early in the morning and the sun was shining upon the water, the Moabites saw the water from a distance as red as blood! ²³ So they said, "This is blood! The kings have surely clashed swords and slain each other. Now, to the spoil, Moab!"

²⁶ When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him 700 swordsmen to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not. ²⁷ Then he took his firstborn son who should have become king in his place and offered him as a burnt offering on the wall. And there was great wrath against Israel that they withdrew from him and returned to their own land.

Miracle of Multiplying Oil

4 Now a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha saying, "Your servant my husband is dead—you know that your servant feared ADONAI. Now the creditor has come to take my two children to be his slaves."

² "What should I do for you?" Elisha asked her. "Tell me, what do you have in the house?"

She replied, "Your handmaid has nothing in the house except a jar of oil."

³ Then he said, "Go borrow for yourself vessels from all your neighbors—empty jars—not just a few. ⁴ Then go inside and shut the door behind you and behind your sons, and pour into all those vessels, setting aside what is full."

⁵ So she left him and shut the door behind her and behind her sons. They kept bringing the vessels to her and she kept pouring. ⁶ When the vessels were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel."

But he said to her, "There isn't another vessel." So the oil stopped.

⁷ Then she came and told the man of God. So he said, "Go sell the oil and pay your debt, then you and your sons can live on the rest."

Shunammite Hospitality

⁸ One day when Elisha passed through Shunem, where there was a prominent woman who persuaded him to eat some food. And so it was, whenever he passed through, he would stop for a meal. ⁹ Then she said to her husband, "Behold now, I realize that this man who often passes through is a holy man of God. ¹⁰ Please, let's make a little walled room on the roof, and let's put there a bed, a table, a chair, and a lampstand for him. Then whenever he comes to us, he can stay there."

¹¹ One day he came there, and retired to the upper chamber and lay down there. ¹² Then he said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite woman." When he had called her, she stood before him. ¹³ He said to him, "Tell her: Behold, you have gone to all this trouble for us. What can be done for you? Can something be communicated to the king or to the commander of the army for you?"

She answered, "I am living among my own people."

¹⁴ So he asked, "Then what should be done for her?"

Then Gehazi answered, "In fact, she has no son, and her husband is old."

¹⁵ "Call her," he said. And when he had called her, she stood in the doorway. ¹⁶ Then he said, "At this season next year, you will be embracing a son."

But she said, "No, my lord, do not lie to your handmaid, man of God."

¹⁷ Nevertheless, the woman conceived and bore a son during that season the following year, just as Elisha had told her.

¹⁸ Now when the child was grown, one day he went out to his father among the reapers. ¹⁹ Then he said to his father, "My head, my head!" So he said to his servant, "Carry him to his mother." ²⁰ So he picked him up and brought him to his mother. The child sat on her lap until noon, and then died. ²¹ She then went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door on him and went out. ²² Then she called to her husband, and said, "Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys that I may run to the man of God and come back."

²³ But he said, "Why are you going to him today? It is neither New Moon nor Shabbat."

But she said, "It will be well."

²⁴ Then she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, "Move on! Don't slow down riding unless I tell you."

²⁵ So she set out and came near the man of God at Mount Carmel. Upon seeing her from a distance, the man of God said to his servant Gehazi, "Look! There's the Shunammite. ²⁶ Please, run now to meet her and ask her: 'Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the boy?'"

She answered, "It is well." ²⁷ But when she arrived at the mountain, up to the man of God, she caught hold of his feet.

Then Gehazi stepped forward to push her away, but the man of God said, "Leave her alone, for her soul is bitter within her, yet ADONAI has hid it from me and has not told me."

²⁸ "Did I ask my lord for a son?" she said. "Didn't I say, 'Don't deceive me?'"

²⁹ Then he said to Gehazi, "Gird up your loins and take my staff in your hand and go. If you meet anyone, don't greet him. Or if anyone greets you, don't answer him; and lay my staff on the face of the child."

³⁰ But the mother of the child said, "As ADONAI lives and as you live, I won't leave you." So he arose and followed her. ³¹ Gehazi passed on ahead of them and laid the staff on the face of the child, but there was no sound or response. So he returned to meet him and told him, saying, "The boy has not awakened."

³² When Elisha entered the house, there was the child, dead and laying on his bed. ³³ So he entered and shut the door behind the two of them and prayed to ADONAI. ³⁴ Then he got up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth and his eyes on his eyes and his hands on his hands, and he stretched himself upon him. So the flesh of the child became warm.

³⁵ Then he stepped down and walked in the house to and fro, and then he got up on the bed and stretched himself on him. The child sneezed seven times, then the child opened his eyes. ³⁶ He then called Gehazi and said, "Call the Shunammite."

So he called her. When she came in to him, he said, "Pick up your son." ³⁷ She came, fell at his feet and bowed down to the ground. Then she picked up her son and went out.

Elisha Purifies Deadly Stew

³⁸ Afterward Elisha returned to Gilgal. Now there was famine in the land. As the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."

³⁹ Then one of them went out into the field to gather herbs, found a wild vine and picked from it a lapful of wild gourds. Then he came back and sliced them into the stew pot, for they didn't know what they were.

⁴⁰ Then they served it for the men to eat. But it came to pass as they were still eating the stew, they cried out and said, "O man of God, there is death in the pot." So they could not eat it.

⁴¹ But he said, "Bring some flour," and he threw it into the pot and said, "Serve it to the people and let them eat." So there was nothing bad in the pot.

⁴² Now a man came from Baal-Shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the firstfruits—20 loaves of barley bread and fresh ears of corn in his sack. Then he said, "Give them to the people that they may eat."

⁴³ But his attendant said, "What? Will I set this before 100 men?" But he said, "Give them to the people that they may eat, for thus says ADONAI, 'They will eat and will have left over.'" ⁴⁴ So he set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of ADONAI.

Naaman's Tzara'at

5 Now Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man in his master's sight and highly esteemed, because through him ADONAI had given victory to Aram. Though the man was a mighty man of valor, he had tzara'at.

² Aram had gone out in bands, and had taken captive a young girl from the land of Israel. So she served Naaman's wife. ³ Then she said to her mistress, "If only my lord went before the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would cure him of his tzara'at."

⁴ So Naaman went in and told his master, saying, "Thus and thus spoke the girl who is from the land of Israel." ⁵ The king of Aram said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he departed and took with him ten talents of silver, 6,000 pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothes.

⁶ He brought the letter to the king of Israel saying, "When this letter comes to you, behold, I have sent my servant Naaman to you, so you may cure him of his tzara'at."

⁷ Now when the king of Israel read the letter, he ripped his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man is sending to me to cure a man of his tzara'at? But please consider, and see how he is seeking a pretext against me."

⁸ Now when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent word to the king saying, "Why have you rent your clothes? Please, let him come to me, and he will know that there is a prophet in Israel."

⁹ So Naaman came with his horses and his chariots, and stood at the doorway of the house of Elisha. ¹⁰ So Elisha sent him a messenger, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh will be restored, and you will be clean."

¹¹ But Naaman was angered and walked away, saying, "I thought he would surely come out to me, stand and call on the Name of ADONAI his God, and wave his hand over the spot and cure the tzara'at." ¹² Aren't Amanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Couldn't I wash in them and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

¹³ But his servants approached him and spoke to him, and said, "My father, if the prophet had told you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he told you only to 'Wash and be clean?'" ¹⁴ So, he went down and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God. Then his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

¹⁵ When he returned with his entire retinue to the man of God, and came and stood before him, he said, "Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now please, accept a present † from your servant."

† Lit. blessing

¹⁶ But Elisha said, "As ADONAI before whom I stand lives, I will accept nothing." Naaman pressed him to accept, but Elisha refused.

¹⁷ So Naaman said, "If not, then please, let your servant be given two mule loads of soil, for your servant will no longer offer burnt offering or sacrifice to any other god, except ADONAI." ¹⁸ In this matter, may ADONAI pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, leaning on my hand, and I prostrate myself in the house of Rimmon—when I prostrate myself in the house of Rimmon, may ADONAI pardon your servant in this matter."

¹⁹ Elisha said to him, "Go in peace." So Naaman departed from him some distance.

²⁰ But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, thought, "Behold, my master held back from accepting what this Naaman the Aramean brought. As ADONAI lives, I will surely run after him and get something from him."

²² "It's all right, he replied. "My master sent me saying: 'Behold, two young men of the sons of the prophets have just come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothes.'"

²³ Naaman said, "Please, take two talents." He even urged him, and packed two talents of silver in two bags with two changes of clothes, and gave them to two of his servants; and they carried them ahead of him. ²⁴ Now when he arrived at the fortified hill, he took them from their hand and deposited them in the house, and let the men go, so they departed.

²⁵ When he entered and stood before his master, Elisha asked him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?"

So he replied, "Your servant has gone nowhere."

²⁶ Then Elisha said to him, "Didn't my heart go, when the man got down from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to accept money and accept clothes, or olive groves and vineyards, or sheep and oxen, or male and female servants? ²⁷ Therefore, the tzara'at of Naaman will cling to you and to your offspring forever." Then he went out from his presence with tzara'at as white as snow.

Floating Ax-Head

6 Now the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "Behold now, the place where we are living in your presence is too cramped for us. ² So please, let's go to the Jordan and pick from there each one a beam, and make ourselves a place there to live."

"Go," he answered.

³ Then one of them said, "Will you please come with your servants?"

"I will go," he answered. ⁴ So he went with them. And when they came to the Jordan, they began to cut down trees.⁵ But as one of them was cutting down a beam, the ax-head fell into the water; and he cried, and said, "Ah, my master! It was borrowed."

⁶ Then the man of God asked, "Where did it fall?" When he showed him the place, he cut off a stick and threw it there, and made the ax-head float.⁷ Then he said, "Pick it up for yourself." So he reached out his hand and took it.

Fiery Armies of Heaven

⁸ Now the king of Aram was warring against Israel. He consulted with his officers, saying, "In such and such a place will be my camp."

⁹ But the man of God sent word to the king of Israel, saying, "Be careful not to pass this place, for the Arameans are coming down there."¹⁰ So the king of Israel sent word to the place the man of God told him and warned him about, and so he was on his guard there—more than once or twice.

¹¹ His heart upset over this matter, the king of Aram summoned his officers and said to them, "Tell me, which one of us is on the king of Israel's side?"

¹² But one of his officers said, "No, my lord the king. Rather, Elisha the prophet who is in Israel keeps telling the king of Israel the very words that you speak in your bedroom!"

¹³ So he said, "Go, see where he is, so I may send and seize him."

Then it was reported to him, "Behold, he is in Dothan."¹⁴ So he sent horses, chariots, and a great army there. They arrived at night and surrounded the city.

¹⁵ Now when the attendant of the man of God had risen early and gone out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was surrounding the city. So his attendant said to him, "Alas, my master! What are we going to do?"

¹⁶ "Fear not," he replied, "for those who are with us are more than those who are with them."¹⁷ Then Elisha prayed and said, "ADONAI, please open his eyes that he may see." Then ADONAI opened the eyes of the young man and he saw, and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

¹⁸ When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to ADONAI and said, "Please strike this people with blinding light." So He struck them with blinding light according to the word of Elisha.¹⁹ Then Elisha said to them, "This is not the road, nor is this the city. Follow me, and I will lead you to the man whom you seek." So he led them to Samaria.²⁰ Upon their arrival in Samaria, Elisha said, "ADONAI, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." So ADONAI opened their eyes, and they could see—behold, they were in the middle of Samaria.

²¹ When the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, "Shall I surely strike them down, avi?"

²² "Don't strike them down," he replied. "Would you strike down those whom you have captured with your own sword and bow? Set before them bread and water that they may eat and drink and go back to their master."²³ So he prepared a great feast for them. After they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went back to their master. Ever since, the marauding bands of Aram stopped invading the land of Israel.

²⁴ Now it came to pass after this, that King Ben-Hadad of Aram gathered all his army and marched against Samaria and besieged it.²⁵ Now there was a great famine in Samaria, since they were besieging it, until a donkey's head was sold for 80 pieces of silver, and the quarter of a kav[†] of dove's dung for 5 pieces of silver.

²⁶ As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him saying, "My lord the king, help!"

²⁷ But he said, "If ADONAI doesn't help you, how would I help you? From the threshing floor, or from the winepress?"²⁸ Then the king asked her, "What's the matter with you?"

She answered, "This woman said to me: 'Give your son that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'²⁹ So we cooked my son and ate him. The next day I told her: 'Give your son that we may eat him'—but she hid her son."

³⁰ Now it came to pass when the king heard the words of the woman, that he tore his clothes—as he was passing by on the wall, the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth underneath upon his flesh.

³¹ Then he said, "May God do so to me and even more, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today."

³² Now Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king had sent a messenger ahead, yet even before the messenger arrived, Elisha said to the elders, "Do you see, this son of a murderer was sent to take away my head! Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and hold the door fast against him. Is not the sound of his master's footsteps behind him?"³³ While he was yet talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him. So the king said, "Look! This evil is from ADONAI—why should I wait for ADONAI any longer?"

Scattering an Aramean Army

7 Then Elisha said, "Hear the word of ADONAI. Thus says ADONAI: Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine flour will sell for a shekel and two measures of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria."

² Then the officer on whose hand the king was leaning responded to the man of God and said, "Look, even if ADONAI should make windows in heaven, could this thing happen?"

He announced, "Behold, you will see it with your own eyes, but will not eat any of it!"

[†] Quarter of a kav

³ Now there were four men with tzara'at at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, "Why should we sit here till we die? ⁴ If we say: 'Let's go into the city,' then the famine is in the city, so we will die there; but if we sit still here, we'll die also. So come, let's go into the camp of the Arameans. If they spare us, we'll live; and if they kill us, we'll just die."

⁸ When these men with tzara'at came to the edge of the camp, they entered into one tent, ate and drank, and took from there silver, gold, and clothes, then went and hid them. Then they returned and went into another tent, and took from there too, and went and hid them. ⁹ Then they said to each other, "It's not right, what we're doing. This day is a day of good news, and we're keeping silent! If we wait till the morning light, punishment will overtake us. Let's go now and report to the king's household."

¹⁰ So they came and called out to the city gatekeepers, and told them, "We went to the camp of the Arameans, and look, there was not a single soul there, no human voice—just the horses and the donkeys tied up, and the tents just as they were." ¹¹ Then the gatekeepers called out, and it was reported to the royal palace inside.

¹² When the king got up in the night, he said to his courtiers, "Let me tell you now what the Arameans have contrived against us. They know that we are hungry, so they went out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, thinking, 'When they come out of the city, we'll capture them alive and get into the city.'"

¹⁴ So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the army of the Arameans, saying, "Go and see." ¹⁵ They went after them to the Jordan, and behold, all the way was strewn with clothes and equipment, which the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. Then the messengers returned and reported to the king. ¹⁶ So the people went out and ransacked the camp of the Arameans. Then a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel—just as was the word of ADONAI.

¹⁷ Now the king appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned, to have charge of the gate—but the people trampled on him at the gate, and he died—just as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. ¹⁸ For when the man of God had spoken to the king, "Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, will be tomorrow about this time at the gate of Samaria," ¹⁹ that officer had answered the man of God and said, "Look, even if ADONAI should make windows in heaven, could such a thing happen?" and he replied, "Behold, you will see it with your own eyes, but will not eat any of it!" ²⁰ That's what happened to him—for the people trampled on him at the gate, and he died.

The Shunammite's Land Restored

8 Now Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life saying, "Arise and go with your household, and stay wherever you can stay, because ADONAI has called for a famine—indeed it has already come—on the land for seven years." ² So the woman arose and did according to the word of the man of God. She and her household went and stayed in the land of the Philistines for seven years.

³ Now at the end of seven years the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, and she went to the king to appeal for her house and her farm. ⁴ Now the king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, "Please tell me," he was saying, "all the great things that Elisha has done." ⁵ Then it came to pass, just as he was telling the king how he had revived someone who was dead, behold, there was the woman whose son he had revived, appealing to the king for her house and her farm. So Gehazi said, "My Lord the king, this is the woman and this is her son whom Elisha revived."

⁶ When the king asked the woman, she told him the story. So the king assigned to her a court official, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the revenue of the field since the day that she left the land until now."

Elisha Weeps in Damascus

⁷ Then Elisha went to Damascus. At the time King Ben-Hadad of Aram was sick, and he was told, "The man of God has come all the way here." ⁸ So the king said to Hazael, "Take an offering in your hand and go meet the man of God, and inquire of ADONAI by him saying: 'Will I recover from this illness?'"

⁹ So Hazael went to meet him and took an offering in his hand, of every good thing of Damascus—40 camel-loads—then came and stood before him and said, "Your son Ben-Hadad king of Aram has sent me to you saying: 'Will I recover from this illness?'"

¹⁰ Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him: 'You will surely recover.' However, ADONAI has also shown me that he will surely die." ¹¹ Then he fixed his gaze steadily on him until he was ashamed, and then the man of God wept. ¹² When Hazael asked, "Why is my lord weeping?" he answered, "Because I know the evil that you will inflict on the men of Israel: their strongholds you will set on fire, their young men you will slay with the sword, their little ones you will dash into pieces, and their pregnant ones you will rip open."

¹³ Then Hazael said, "But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that he should do anything of such magnitude?"

Elisha answered, "ADONAI has shown me that you will be king over Aram."

¹⁴ Then he departed from Elisha and went to his master, who asked him, "What did Elisha say to you?"

He answered, "He told me that you would surely recover." ¹⁵ But the next day he took a thick cloth, soaked it in water and spread it on his face, so that he died. Then Hazael became king in his place.

Edom Revolts against Jehoram

¹⁷ He was 32 years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ¹⁸ But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did—for Ahab's daughter was his wife—and he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes. ¹⁹ Nevertheless, ADONAI was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of David His servant, since He had promised to give him a lamp for his children all days.

²³ Now the rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁴ Then Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. Then his son Ahaziah became king in his place.

²⁵ In the twelfth year of Joram son of King Ahab of Israel, Ahaziah son of King Jehoram of Judah began to reign. ²⁶ Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of King Omri of Israel. ²⁷ Now he walked in the way of the house of Ahab and did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, as the house of Ahab had done—for he was a son-in-law of the house of Ahab. ²⁸ He marched with Joram son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-Gilead, but the Arameans wounded Joram. ²⁹ So King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramah, when he fought against King Hazael of Aram. Ahaziah son of King Jehoram of Judah went down to see Joram son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

Jehu Avenges Naboth

⁹ Then Elisha the prophet summoned one of the sons of the prophets and told him, "Strap up your cloak, take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-Gilead. ² When you arrive there, look out there for Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi. Then go in, get him to rise up from among his fellows, and bring him to an inner room. ³ Then take the flask of oil and pour it on his head and say, thus says ADONAI: 'I have anointed you king over Israel.' Then open the door and flee—don't wait around."

⁴ So the young man, a young prophet, went to Ramoth-Gilead. ⁵ Now when he arrived, behold, the army commanders were sitting. So he said, "I have a word for you, commander."

Jehu asked, "For which one of us?"

He replied, "For you, commander." ⁶ Then he rose and went inside the house, and the prophet poured the oil on his head and said to him, "Thus says ADONAI, God of Israel: I have anointed you king over the people of ADONAI, over Israel. ⁷ So you will strike down the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of ADONAI shed by Jezebel. ⁸ For the whole house of Ahab will perish, and I will cut off from Ahab every male, slave or free, in Israel. ⁹ I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasa son of Ahijah.

¹⁰ The dogs will eat Jezebel in the field of Jezreel, and there will be none to bury her." Then he opened the door and fled.

¹¹ Then Jehu came out to the officers of his master, and one asked him, "Is everything all right? Why did this crazy fellow come to you?"

He said to them, "You know the man and his babbling."

¹² But they said, "It's a lie! Tell us now."

So he said, "He said something like this to me, saying 'Thus says ADONAI, I have anointed you king over Israel.'"

¹³ Then they hurried and every man took his garment and put it under him on the bare steps, and blew the shofar, saying, "Jehu is king!"

¹⁴ So Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. Now Joram had been defending Ramoth-Gilead, he and all Israel, against King Hazael of Aram. ¹⁵ But King Joram had returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him, when he fought with King Hazael of Aram. Then Jehu said, "If this is your wish, then let no one escape and go out of the city to go to tell the news in Jezreel."

¹⁶ So Jehu mounted a chariot and went to Jezreel, for Joram was lying there. Meanwhile, King Ahaziah of Judah came down to see Joram. ¹⁷ Now the watchman stationed on the tower in Jezreel saw Jehu's troop approaching and said, "I am seeing a troop."

Then Joram said, "Take a horseman and dispatch him to meet them, and let him ask: 'Is it peace?'"¹⁸ So the horse rider went to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'" But Jehu said, "What do you have to do with peace? Turn behind me."

So the watchman reported, saying, "The messenger reached them, but didn't come back."¹⁹ Then he dispatched out another horseman, who went to them and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'" But Jehu answered, "What do you have to do with peace? Turn behind me."

²⁰ So the watchman reported, saying, "He reached them, but didn't come back—and the driving is like the driving of Jehu son of Nimshi, for he is driving on like a maniac!"

²¹ Then Joram ordered, "Hitch up the chariot!" So he hitched up his chariot. Then King Joram of Israel and King Ahaziah of Judah went out each in his chariot to meet Jehu, and found him at the field of Naboth the Jezreelite.²² Now when Joram saw Jehu, he asked, "Is it peace, Jehu?"

So he answered, "What peace, so long as the harlotries of your mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?"

²³ So Joram turned his horses around and fled, crying out to Ahaziah, "Treason, Ahaziah!"

²⁵ Then he said to Bidkar his aide, "Pick him up and throw him on the property of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite. Remember how you and I were riding together behind Ahab his father, when ADONAI took up this burden against him: ²⁶ 'As surely as I have seen the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons yesterday—it is a declaration of ADONAI—I will repay you on this property—it is a declaration of ADONAI.' So now pick him up and throw him onto the property, just as in the word of ADONAI."

²⁷ When King Ahaziah of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. But Jehu pursued him, and said, "Shoot him too!" They shot him in the chariot at Gur Pass near Ibleam. Then he fled to Megiddo, but he died there.²⁸ Then his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David.²⁹ (Ahaziah had become king over Judah in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab.)

³⁰ Now when Jehu arrived at Jezreel, Jezebel heard about it. So she painted her eyes and dressed her hair, and looked out the window.³¹ As Jehu entered the gate, she said, "Is it peace, Zimri, your master's assassin?"³² Then he lifted up his face to the window and called out, "Who is on my side? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked down toward him.³³ Then he said, "Throw her down!" So they threw her down—then her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses, and they trampled her.

³⁴ Then he went inside, ate and drank. Then he said, "Attend now to this cursed woman and bury her, for she was a king's daughter."³⁵ But when they went to bury her, they found no more of her than the skull, the feet, and the palms of her hands.³⁶ So they came back and told him. He said, "This is the word of ADONAI, which He spoke by His servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying: 'In the field of Jezreel will the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel,³⁷ and the carcass of Jezebel will be as dung upon the face of the field in the property of Jezreel, so that they will not say, "This was Jezebel."'"

Jehu Destroys Ahab's Sons and Baal Worshipers

10 Now Ahab had 70 sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, the elders, and to the guardians of Ahab's sons, saying: ² "Now as soon as this letter reaches you—since your master's sons are with you, and you also have chariots and horses, a fortified city and weapons—³ choose the best and the most worthy of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."

⁴ But they were very terrified and said, "Look, two kings couldn't stand before him, how then can we?"⁵ So the steward of the palace, the governor of the city, the elders, and the guardians sent word to Jehu saying, "We are your servants, and will do whatever you tell us to. We won't make any man king. Do whatever is good in your eyes."

⁶ Then he wrote a second letter to them saying, "If you are on my side, and if you will obey me, then bring the heads of the men, your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel at this time tomorrow."

Now the king's sons, 70 people, were with the city's prominent men.⁷ When it came to pass that the letter reached them, they took the king's 70 sons and slaughtered them, put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.⁸ When a messenger came and told him saying, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," he said, "Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."

⁹ It came to pass in the morning that he went out and stood and addressed all the people, "You are innocent. Behold, I conspired against my master and killed him, but who struck down all these?¹⁰ Know then that not a word of ADONAI will fall to the earth—which ADONAI spoke about the house of Ahab—for ADONAI has done what He spoke through His servant Elijah."¹¹ So Jehu struck down all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel—all his nobles, his acquaintances, his priests—until he left him not a survivor.

¹² Then he arose and went on his way to Samaria. As he was at Shearing House † of the Shepherds along the way,¹³ Jehu met with the kinsmen of King Ahaziah of Judah and asked, "Who are you?"

† Hebrew Beth-Eked

"We are the kinsmen of Ahaziah," they replied, "We've come down to greet the children of the king and the children of the queen mother."

¹⁴ "Take them alive!" he said. So they took them alive, then struck them down at the pit of Shearing House, 42 men—he spared not a single one of them.

¹⁵ Now when he left from there, he met Jehonadab son of Rechab coming to meet him. So he greeted him and said to him, "Is your heart right as my heart is with your heart?"

"It is," Jehonadab replied.

"If it is, give me your hand." So he gave him his hand, and Jehu helped him up into the chariot. ¹⁶ Then he said, "Come with me and see my zeal for ADONAI." So he let him ride in his chariot.

¹⁷ When he came to Samaria, he struck down all who remained from Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of ADONAI spoken to Elijah.

¹⁸ Then Jehu gathered all the people together and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu will serve him much! ¹⁹ Now therefore, summon to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshipers, and all his priests, let none be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for Baal—whoever is missing will not live." But Jehu did it in cunning, in order to destroy the worshipers of Baal.

²⁰ Then Jehu said, "Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal." So they proclaimed it. ²¹ Then Jehu sent throughout Israel and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. When they went into the temple of Baal, the temple of Baal was filled from one end to another.

²² Then he said to the one over the wardrobe, "Bring out vestments for all the worshipers of Baal." So he brought out vestments for them. ²³ Then Jehu and Jehonadab son of Rechab went into the temple of Baal, and he said to the worshipers of Baal, "Search and look that there is here with you none of the servants of ADONAI—only servants of Baal." ²⁴ Then they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings.

Now Jehu had already stationed 80 of his men outside and said, "If any of the men whom I am bringing into your hands escapes, your life will be for his life."

²⁵ Then it came to pass, as soon as he had finished offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in, strike them down—let none get out." So they struck them down with the edge of the sword, and the guard and the captains threw them out. Then they proceeded to the inner room of the temple of Baal, ²⁶ brought out the pillars of the temple of Baal, and burned them. ²⁷ Then they demolished the pillar of Baal, tore down the temple of Baal and turned it into latrines—as it is to this day.

²⁸ Thus Jehu eradicated Baal from Israel. ²⁹ However, from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to commit, from these Jehu did not turn away—the golden calves in Beth-El and in Dan. ³⁰ Now

ADONAI had said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in executing what is right in My eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in My heart, your sons of the fourth generation will sit on the throne of Israel."

³¹ Yet Jehu was not careful to walk in the Torah of ADONAI, God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn from the sins of Jeroboam, which he caused Israel to commit. ³² In those days ADONAI began to reduce the size of Israel. For Hazael defeated them throughout the territory of Israel, ³³ from the Jordan eastward in all the land of Gilead—the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites—from Aroer by the Arnon Valley up to Gilead and Bashan.

³⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Jehu and all that he did and all his might, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ³⁵ Then Jehu slept with his fathers and they buried him in Samaria. And his son Jehoahaz became king in his place. ³⁶ The days of Jehu's reign over Israel in Samaria were 28 years.

Wicked Queen Athaliah Overthrown

11 Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal offspring. ² But Jehosheba, daughter of King Joram and sister of Ahaziah, took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being put to death. She put him and his nurse in the bedroom, so he was hidden from Athaliah, so that he was not killed. ³ He remained with her, hidden in the House of ADONAI for six years, while Athaliah was reigning over the country.

⁴ Now in the seventh year, Jehoiada sent and fetched the captains of the hundreds, of both the Carites and the guards, and had them come to him in the House of ADONAI. After he cut a covenant with them and put them under oath in the House of ADONAI, he showed them the king's son. ⁵ Then he commanded them saying, "This is what you will do: one-third of you—those going on duty on Shabbat—keeps watch over the palace. ⁶ Then another third will be stationed at the Sur Gate and the last third will be at the gate behind the guards—so you will keep watch over the House on every side. ⁷ Your other two divisions, who are off duty on Shabbat, will also keep watch over the House of ADONAI for the king. ⁸ So you are to surround the king on every side—every man with his weapons in his hand—whoever breaks through the ranks must be put to death. You must be with the king in his comings and goings."

⁹ So the captains of hundreds did all that Jehoiada the kohen commanded. Each of the captains took his men—those who were on duty on Shabbat and those who were off duty on Shabbat—and presented themselves to Jehoiada the kohen. ¹⁰ The kohen delivered to the captains of hundreds the spear and shields that belonged to King David that were in the House of ADONAI. ¹¹ So the guards stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the House to the left side of the House, by the altar and the House, around the king on every side.

¹² Then he brought out the king's son and put the crown and the insignia on him, and so they proclaimed him king and anointed him. Then they clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"

¹³ When Athaliah heard the noise of the guards and the people, she came to the people in the House of ADONAI. ¹⁴ She looked and behold, the king was standing by the pillar, as was the custom, with the captains and the trumpets beside the king, and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, "Treason, treason!"

¹⁵ Then Jehoiada the kohen ordered the captains of hundreds, appointed over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks—whoever follows her, put him to death with the sword." For the kohen said, "Let her not be put to death in the House of ADONAI."

¹⁶ So they laid hands on her, and brought her to the horses' entry of the royal palace, where she was put to death.

¹⁷ Then Jehoiada cut a covenant between ADONAI and the king and the people—that they would be ADONAI's people—and also between the king and the people.

¹⁸ Next, all the people of the land went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They broke his altars and his images into pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan, the priest of Baal, before the altars. Moreover, the kohen appointed officers over the House of ADONAI. ¹⁹ Then he took the captains over hundreds, the Carites, the guard, and all the people of the land, and they brought the king down from the House of ADONAI, and came by the way of the gate of the guards to the royal palace. So he sat on the royal throne. ²⁰ Then all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet—they had already slain Athaliah with the sword in the royal palace.

Jehoash Restores the Temple

12 (11:21) Jehoash was seven years old when he became king. ² (1) Jehoash began his reign in the seventh year of Jehu and he reigned 40 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-Sheba. ³ (2) Now Jehoash did what was right in ADONAI's eyes all his days, just as Jehoiada the kohen instructed him. ⁴ (3) The high places, however, were not taken away. The people were still sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

⁵ (4) Then Jehoash said to the kohanim, "All the money of the sacred donations brought to the House of ADONAI—the money in exchange for each person's valuation, as well as all the money that anyone's heart prompts him to bring to the House of ADONAI—⁶ (5) let the kohanim receive it, each from one of the treasurers, so they may repair the damage to the House wherever any damage is found."

⁷ (6) But by the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, the kohanim still had not repaired the damage to the House. ⁸ (7) Then King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the kohen and the other kohanim, and said to them, "Why are you not repairing the damage to the House? Now therefore, take no more money from your treasurers, but hand it over for the damage to the House."

⁹ (8) The kohanim agreed that they would take no more money from the people, nor would they repair the damage of the House.

¹⁰ (9) But Jehoiada the kohen took a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and placed it beside the altar, on the right side as one entered the House of ADONAI. The priestly guards of the threshold deposited there all the money that was brought to the House of ADONAI. ¹¹ (10) Whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the royal scribe and the kohen gadol would come up, put the money in bags and count the money that was found in the House of ADONAI. ¹² (11) Then they would give the money that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had been overseeing the House of ADONAI—they, in turn, would pay it out to the carpenters and the builders who worked on the House of ADONAI, ¹³ (12) and to the masons and the stonecutters, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the damage to ADONAI's House, and for all that was laid out for the House to repair it.

¹⁴ (13) But there were no silver cups, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, and no vessels of gold or vessels of silver made for the House of ADONAI from the money brought to the House of ADONAI. ¹⁵ (14) For they gave it to those that did the work, and with it they repaired the House of ADONAI. ¹⁶ (15) They did not check on the men to whom they gave the money to pay the workers, for they dealt faithfully. ¹⁷ (16) The money from the guilt offering and money from the sin offering was not brought into the House of ADONAI—it was for the kohanim.

²⁰ (19) Now the rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²¹ (20) But his courtiers arose, conspired against him and assassinated Joash at Beth-Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla. ²² (21) His courtiers Jozacar son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer struck him down, and he died. Then they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. His son Amaziah became king in his place.

The Reign of Jehoahaz and Jehoash

13 In the twenty-third year of Joash son of King Ahaziah of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned 17 years. ² But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes—he continued in the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to commit, and did not turn away from them. ³ So the anger of ADONAI was kindled against Israel, and He continually gave them into the hand of King Hazael of Aram and into the hand of Ben-Hadad son of Hazael.

⁴ Then Jehoahaz sought ADONAI's face, so ADONAI listened to him, for He saw the oppression of Israel, how the king of Aram oppressed them. ⁵ ADONAI gave Israel a deliverer, so that they escaped from under the hand of the Arameans, and the men of Israel dwelt in their tents as they had before.

¹⁰ In the thirty-seventh year of King Joash of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned 16 years. ¹¹ But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes. He did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to commit, but he walked in them. ¹² Now the rest of the events of Joash's reign and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against King Amaziah of Judah, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ¹³ Then Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne. So Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Victories as Elisha Dies

¹⁴ When Elisha got sick with his illness from which he would die, King Joash of Israel came down to him, wept over him and cried, "Avi, avi, the chariot of Israel and its horsemen!"

¹⁵ Then Elisha said to him, "Take bow and arrows." So he took bow and arrows. ¹⁶ Then he said to the king of Israel, "Mount your hand on the bow!" So he mounted his hand on it. Elisha then laid his hands on the king's hands, ¹⁷ and said, "Open the window to the east," and then Elisha said, "Shoot!" and he shot. Then he said, "ADONAI's arrow of deliverance! Yes, an arrow of victory over Aram! You will strike down the Arameans in Aphek until they are demolished." ¹⁸ Then he said, "Take the arrows!" and he took them. Then he said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground!" and he struck it three times, then stopped. ¹⁹ But the man of God was upset with him and said, "If only you had struck five or six times, then you would have annihilated Aram till you had consumed it. But now you will strike Aram only three times."

²⁰ Then Elisha died, and they buried him. Now bands of Moabite marauders used to invade the land at the spring of the year. ²¹ It came about, as they were burying a man, behold, they saw a marauding band, so they threw the man's body into Elisha's tomb. As soon as the man's body touched Elisha's bones, he came back to life and stood up on his feet!

²² But King Hazael of Aram oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. ²³ Yet ADONAI was gracious to them, had compassion on them, and turned to them because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. So He was not willing to destroy them or cast them from His presence up to now. ²⁴ Then King Hazael of Aram died, and his son Ben-Hadad became king in his place. ²⁵ Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz restored from the hand of Ben-Hadad son of Hazael the towns which he had taken out from the hand of his father Jehoahaz in war. Three times Joash defeated him and recovered the towns of Israel.

Amaziah's Demise

14 In the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah became king. ² He was 25 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. ³ Now he did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI, yet not like his father David—he did like all his father Joash had done. ⁴ Still, the high places were not taken away. The people were still sacrificing and burning incense in the high places.

⁵ Once the kingdom was established in his hand, he killed his courtiers who had assassinated his father the king. ⁶ However, he did not execute the children of the assassins, keeping what is written in the Torah of Moses, where ADONAI commanded saying, "The fathers will not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but each one will be put to death for his own sin."

⁷ He struck down 10,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt, captured Sela in the battle, and renamed it Joktheel, as it is to this day.

⁸ Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come! Let's meet face to face."

⁹ But King Jehoash of Israel sent word to King Amaziah of Judah, saying, "The briar in Lebanon sent word to the cedar in Lebanon saying: 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' But a wild beast in Lebanon passed by and trampled down the briar. ¹⁰ You have indeed defeated Edom, and your heart has become arrogant. Glory and stay at home! Why should you provoke trouble and cause your own downfall—you and Judah with you?"

¹¹ But Amaziah would not listen. So King Jehoash of Israel advanced, and he and Amaziah king of Judah confronted each other at Beth-Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. ¹² Judah was routed before Israel—they fled every man to his home. ¹³ King Jehoash of Israel captured King Amaziah of Judah, son of Jehoash son of Ahaziah, at Beth-Shemesh. Then Jehoash advanced to Jerusalem and breached the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate—400 cubits. ¹⁴ He also took all the gold and silver and all the articles that were found in the House of ADONAI and in the treasuries of the royal palace, as well as hostages, and returned to Samaria.

²³ In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria, and he reigned 41 years. ²⁴ But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes. He did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to commit. ²⁵ It was he who restored Israel's border from the entrance of Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, as was the word of ADONAI, God of Israel, which He spoke by the hand of His servant Jonah son of Amittai, the prophet, who was from Gath-Hepher.

²⁶ For ADONAI saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter and spared no one—whether bond or free—nor was there a helper for Israel. ²⁷ But ADONAI did not say He would blot out the name of Israel from under heaven, so He delivered them by the hand of Jeroboam son of Joash. ²⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam and all that he did, and his might, including how he fought and recovered Damascus and Hamath for Judah in Israel, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ²⁹ Then Jeroboam slept with his fathers with the kings of Israel. His son Zechariah became king in his place.

Menahem Ends Jehu's Line

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah became king. ² He was 16 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. ³ Now he did what was right in ADONAI's eyes, just like all that his father Amaziah had done. ⁴ However, the high places were not taken away—the people were still sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

⁵ Then ADONAI struck the king, so that he had tzara'at until the day of his death, and lived in an isolated house. Meanwhile Jotham, the king's son, was in charge of the palace and governing the people of the land. ⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Azariah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ⁷ Then Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. Then his son Jotham became king in his place.

⁸ In the thirty-eighth year of King Azariah of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria for six months. ⁹ But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, as his fathers had done. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to commit. ¹⁰ Then Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against him and smote him before the people, killed him, and became king in his place. ¹¹ Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

¹² This was the word of ADONAI that He spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your descendants to the fourth generation will sit on the throne of Israel," and so it came to pass. ¹³ Shallum son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirtieth year of King Uzziah of Judah, and he reigned for one month in Samaria. ¹⁴ Then Menahem son of Gadi marched up from Tirzah, reached Samaria, then struck down Shallum son of Jabesh in Samaria, killed him, and became king in his place. ¹⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, including his conspiracy that he contrived, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

¹⁶ Then Menahem struck down Tiphshah and all who were in it, and its territories from Tirzah, because they did not open to him, therefore he attacked it and ripped open all its pregnant women. ¹⁷ In the thirtieth year of King Azariah of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel, and he reigned 10 years in Samaria. ¹⁸ But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes. Throughout his days he never turned away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to commit.

¹⁹ Then King Pul of Assyria invaded the country, so Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver so that his hand might be with him to strengthen his hold on the kingdom. ²⁰ Menahem exacted the money from Israel, from every person of means, each one 50 shekels of silver to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back and stayed no longer in the land.

²¹ Now the rest of the acts of Menahem and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel? ²² Then Menahem slept with his fathers, and his son Pekahiah became king in his place. ²³ In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned two years. ²⁴ But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to commit. ²⁵ Then Pekah son of Remaliah, his aide, conspired against him and assassinated him in Samaria, in the castle of the royal palace, along with Argob, Arieah, and 50 Gileadite men. So he killed him and became king in his place. ²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

Israel and Aram Attack Judah

²⁷ In the fifty-second year of King Azariah of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned 20 years. ²⁸ But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes. He did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, which he caused Israel to commit. ²⁹ In the days of Pekah king of Israel, King Tiglath-Pileser of Assyria invaded and captured Ijon, Abel-Beth-Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee—all the region of Naphtali, and he deported them to Assyria. ³⁰ Then Hoshea son of Elah conspired against Pekah son of Remaliah. He attacked and assassinated him, and then became king in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah. ³¹ Now the rest of the acts of Pekah and all that he did, behold, they are written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Israel.

³² In the second year of Pekah son of King Remaliah of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah king of Judah began to reign. ³³ He was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok. ³⁴ Now he did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI, just as his father Uzziah had done. ³⁵ However, the high places were not taken away, and the people were still sacrificing and burning incense on the high places. It was he who built the upper gate of the House of ADONAI. ³⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ³⁷ In those days ADONAI began to send King Rezin of Aram and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah. ³⁸ Jotham slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David. Then Ahaz his son became king in his place.

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of King Jotham of Judah, began to reign. ² Ahaz was 20 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. But he did not do what was right in the eyes of ADONAI his God, as his father David had done. ³ Instead he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and even made his son pass through the fire, like the abominations of the nations whom ADONAI had dispossessed before Bnei-Yisrael. ⁴ He offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places, on the hills, and under every leafy tree.

⁵ Then King Rezin of Aram and Pekah son of King Remaliah of Israel marched against Jerusalem to wage war. They besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. ⁶ At that time King Rezin of Aram recovered Elath for Aram, and drove the Jews out of Elath. Then the Edomites came to Elath and settled there to this day.

⁷ So Ahaz sent messengers to King Tiglath-Pileser of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and deliver me from the hand of the king of Aram and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me." ⁸ Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the House of ADONAI and in the treasuries of the royal palace, and sent them as a present to the king of Assyria. ⁹ So the king of Assyria responded to him. The king of Assyria marched up against Damascus and captured it, and deported its inhabitants as captives to Kir and put Rezin to death.

Ahaz Remodels the Temple

¹⁰ Then King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet King Tiglath-Pileser of Assyria and saw the altar that was at Damascus. So King Ahaz sent to Urijah the kohen the pattern of the altar and its model needed for its construction. ¹¹ Then Urijah the kohen built an altar according to all that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus, and Urijah the kohen finished it by the time King Ahaz returned from Damascus. ¹² When the king came back from Damascus and saw the altar, the king approached the altar and went up to it. ¹³ Then he burned his burnt offering and his grain offering, poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his fellowship offerings on the altar. ¹⁴ As for the bronze altar that was before ADONAI, he moved it from the forefront of the House, from between his altar and the House of ADONAI, and put it on the north side of his own altar.

¹⁵ Then King Ahaz commanded Urijah the kohen saying, "Upon the great altar you will burn the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering, the king's burnt offering and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land and their grain offering and their drink offering. Also sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifices. But the bronze altar will be for me to inquire by.”

¹⁶ Thus Urijah the kohen did everything just as King Ahaz commanded. ¹⁷ Then King Ahaz cut off the borders of the stands and removed the laver from them. He also took down the sea from the bronze oxen that were under it and put it on a stone pavement. ¹⁸ The covered passageway for Shabbat that they had built in the House as well as the outer entry for the king, he removed from the House of ADONAI, because of the king of Assyria.

¹⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁰ Then Ahaz slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. Then his son Hezekiah became king in his place.

The Israelites are Deported to Assyria

17 In the twelfth year of King Ahaz of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king in Samaria over Israel, and he reigned nine years. ² He did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him. ³ King Shalmaneser of Assyria marched against him, so Hoshea became his vassal and paid him tribute. ⁴ But the king of Assyria caught Hoshea conspiring—he had sent messengers to King So of Egypt, and had not paid the tribute to the king of Assyria as he had done every year. Therefore the king of Assyria seized him and put him in prison. ⁵ Then the king of Assyria invaded the entire country, marched up to Samaria, and besieged it for three years.

⁶ In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and deported the Israelites to Assyria. He placed them in Halah and Habor, on the Gozan River, and in the towns of the Medes. ⁷ Now it was so because the men of Israel had sinned against ADONAI their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods. ⁸ Instead they followed the customs of the nations, whom ADONAI had dispossessed before Bnei-Yisrael, yet which the kings of Israel practiced. ⁹ Bnei-Yisrael secretly did things against ADONAI their God that were not right. They built shrines for themselves in all their settlements—from watchtowers to fortified cities, ¹⁰ and they set up pillars and Asherah poles for themselves on every high hill and under every leafy tree. ¹¹ There they burned incense on all the high places, like the nations whom ADONAI had driven out before them. So they did wicked things to provoke ADONAI. ¹² They worshiped idols, about which ADONAI had said to them, “You shall not do this thing.”

¹³ Yet ADONAI had forewarned Israel and Judah by the hand of every prophet and every seer, saying, “Turn from your evil ways, and keep My commandments and My statutes, according to all the Torah which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by the hand of My servants the prophets.” ¹⁴ Yet they would not listen, but stiffened their neck like their fathers, who did not trust in ADONAI their God. ¹⁵ So they rejected His statutes and His covenant that He had made with their fathers, and His testimonies that He testified against them. Instead they went after futile things and became futile, following the nations that surrounded them, about whom ADONAI had charged them not to emulate. ¹⁶ So they abandoned all the mitzvot of ADONAI their God. So they made for themselves molten images, two calves, and made an Asherah pole, and bowed down to all the host of heavens, and worshiped Baal, ¹⁷ and they made their sons and daughters pass through the fire, practiced divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in ADONAI's eyes, to provoke Him.

¹⁸ So ADONAI became very angry with Israel, and banished them from His presence. There was none left but the tribe of Judah alone.

¹⁹ Even Judah did not keep the mitzvot of ADONAI their God, but followed the customs which Israel had practiced. ²⁰ So ADONAI spurned all the descendants of Israel and afflicted them and delivered them into the hand of plunderers, until He had cast them out of His sight.

²¹ When He had torn Israel from the house of David, they made Jeroboam son of Nebat king. Then Jeroboam drew Israel away from following ADONAI and made them commit a great sin. ²² The men of Israel kept walking in all the sins that Jeroboam committed. They did not turn away from them, ²³ until ADONAI banished Israel from His presence, as He spoke by the hand of all His servants the prophets. So Israel has been exiled from their own land to Assyria to this day.

Origin of the Samaritans

²⁴ Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, instead of the men of Israel. So they possessed Samaria and settled in its cities. ²⁵ When they first began dwelling there, they did not fear ADONAI—so ADONAI sent lions among them, which killed some of them. ²⁶ Then they spoke to the king of Assyria saying, “The nations that you deported and resettled in the towns of Samaria do not know the requirement of the God of the land. Therefore He has sent lions among them, and behold, they are killing them because they don't know the requirement of the God of the land.”

²⁷ Then the king of Assyria commanded saying, “Send there one of the kohanim whom you have exiled from there. Let them go and live there and teach them the requirement of the God of the land.” ²⁸ So one of the kohanim that had been deported from Samaria came and lived in Beth-El, and taught them how they should fear ADONAI.

²⁹ However, every nation kept making its own gods, and put them in the shrines of the high places that the Samaritans had made—every nation in their cities where they settled. ³⁰ So the people of Babylon made Succoth-Benoth, the people of Cuth made Nergal, the people of Hamath made Ashima, ³¹ the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. ³² So they feared ADONAI, while they also appointed for themselves from among themselves priests of the shrines, who officiated for them in the shrines of the high places. ³³ They continued to fear ADONAI, but worshiped their own gods, after the custom of the nations from which they had been deported.

³⁴ Up to this day, they follow their former customs. Nor do they fear ADONAI, or follow the statutes, the ordinances, the Torah or the mitzvot that ADONAI commanded the children of Jacob—whom He had re-named Israel. ³⁵ With them ADONAI had made a covenant, and charged them saying, “You will not fear other gods, or bow down to them, or serve them, or sacrifice to them, ³⁶ but only ADONAI, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm—Him will you fear, and to Him will you bow down and to Him will you sacrifice. ³⁷ The statutes and the ordinances, and the Torah and the mitzvah, which He wrote for you, you will take care to do all the time. You are not to fear other gods. ³⁸ The covenant that I have made with you, you will not forget. Nor will you fear other gods, ³⁹ but ADONAI your God will you fear. Then He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies.”

⁴⁰ Yet they did not listen, but they continued their former practices. ⁴¹ So while these nations feared ADONAI, they also worshiped their idols. Their children and grandchildren do as their fathers did to this day.

Righteous King Hezekiah

18 Now it was in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel that Hezekiah son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. ² He was 25 years old when he became king and he reigned for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Abi daughter of Zechariah. ³ He did what was right in ADONAI’s eyes, according to all his ancestor David had done. ⁴ He removed the high places, smashed the pillars, and cut down the Asherah poles. He also broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made—for up to those days Bnei-Yisrael were still burning incense to it—it was called Nehushtan.

⁵ He trusted in ADONAI, the God of Israel. Indeed, none of all the kings of Judah after him was like him—and none before him. ⁶ For he clung to ADONAI. He did not turn away from following Him, but kept His mitzvot, which ADONAI had commanded Moses. ⁷ So ADONAI was with him. Wherever he went he prospered. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. ⁸ He defeated the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territories, from watchtower to fortified city.

⁹ Now it came to pass in the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of King Elah of Israel, that King Shalmaneser of Assyria marched against Samaria and besieged it, ¹⁰ and at the end of three years they captured it. So Samaria was captured in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of King Hoshea of Israel. ¹¹ The king of Assyria deported Israel to Assyria and placed them in Halah and Habor on the Gozan River, and in the towns of the Medes. ¹² For they had not listened to the voice of ADONAI their God, but transgressed His covenant—all that Moses the servant of ADONAI had commanded—they neither listened nor did it.

Proud Sennacherib Challenges Hezekiah

¹³ Now in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, King Sennacherib of Assyria marched against all the fortified towns of Judah and seized them. ¹⁴ So King Hezekiah of Judah sent word to the king of Assyria at Lachish saying, “I have done wrong. Withdraw from me, whatever you impose on me, I will bear.” So the king of Assyria imposed on King Hezekiah of Judah 300 talents of silver and 30 talents of gold. ¹⁵ Then Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the House of ADONAI as well as in the treasuries of the royal palace. ¹⁶ At that time Hezekiah stripped off the gold from the doors of the Temple of ADONAI and from the doorposts that King Hezekiah of Judah had overlaid, and gave them to the king of Assyria.

¹⁹ So the Rab-Shakeh said to them, “Say now to Hezekiah, thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: ‘What is this confidence you’ve relied on? ²⁰ You say you have a plan and military force for the battle—they are only words of a lip. Who do you rely on now, so that you have rebelled against me? ²¹ Behold, you rely on this splintered reed as a staff—Egypt! If a man leans on it, it will go into the palm of his hand and pierce it—thus Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who trust in him.

²² “But if you say to me: ‘We trust in ADONAI our God’—is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has removed, and then said to Judah and Jerusalem: ‘You must worship before this altar in Jerusalem?’

²³ “So now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria. I’ll give you 2,000 horses—if you could put riders of your own on them! ²⁴ So, how can you repulse a single lieutenant—the least of my master’s servants? Yes, you’re relying on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen.

²⁵ “Moreover, have I now come up against this land to destroy it without ADONAI’s approval? ADONAI said to me: ‘Go up against this land, and destroy it.’”

²⁶ Then Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to the Rab-Shakeh, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Don’t speak to us in the language of the Jews when the people on the wall are listening.”

²⁷ But the Rab-Shakeh said to them, “Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall—who will eat their own wastes and drink their own urine with you?”

²⁸ Then the Rab-Shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the language of the Jews and said: “Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. ²⁹ Thus says the king: “Don’t let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you out of my hand! ³⁰ Nor let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in ADONAI by saying: “ADONAI will surely deliver us—this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.”

³¹ “Don’t listen to Hezekiah! For thus says the king of Assyria: ‘Make peace with me and come out to me. Then everyone will eat from his own vine and fig tree, and everyone will drink water from his own cistern, ³² until I come, and take you away to a land like your own land—a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive oil and honey, that you may live and not die.’

“So don’t listen to Hezekiah when he misleads you by saying: ‘ADONAI will deliver us.’ ³³ Have any of the gods of the nations delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria? ³⁴ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand?

³⁵ Who among all the gods of the lands have delivered their country out of my hand? So will ADONAI deliver Jerusalem from my hand?”

³⁶ But the people were silent and did not answer him a word, for the king’s commandment was, “Do not answer him.”

³⁷ Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rab-Shakeh.

Hezekiah’s Cry of Desperation

19 When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the House of ADONAI. ² Then he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and the senior kohanim, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet son of Amoz.

³ Then they said to him, “Thus says Hezekiah: This day is a day of distress, rebuke and contempt. For children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength for giving birth. ⁴ Perhaps ADONAI your God, hearing all the words of the Rab-Shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to mock the living God, will rebuke the words which ADONAI your God has heard. So offer prayer for the remnant that is left.”

⁵ When the officials of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, ⁶ Isaiah said to them: “Thus you will say to your master, ‘Thus says ADONAI: Do not be afraid of the words you have heard, with which the boys of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. ⁷ Behold, I am putting a spirit in him, and he will hear a rumor, and will return to his own country; then I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.’”

⁸ Then the Rab-Shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that he had withdrawn from Lachish. ⁹ Now he heard a report of Tirhakah, king of Ethiopia saying, “Behold, he has come out to fight against you.” When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah saying: ¹⁰ “Thus will you speak to King Hezekiah of Judah saying: ‘Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying: Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹ Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands—utterly destroying them—so will you be delivered? ¹² Have the gods of the nations delivered those my fathers destroyed—Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Tel-Assar? ¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, or the king of Arpad, or the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, or Ivvah?’”

¹⁴ Then Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the House of ADONAI and spread it before ADONAI.

¹⁵ Hezekiah prayed before ADONAI, saying, “ADONAI, God of Israel, who is enthroned upon the cheruvim. You alone are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made heaven and earth. ¹⁶ Incline Your ear, ADONAI, and hear! Open Your eyes, ADONAI, and see! Listen to the words of Sennacherib that he has sent to mock the living God. ¹⁷ It is true, ADONAI, the kings of Assyria have devastated the nations and their lands, ¹⁸ and have cast their gods into the fire—for they were not gods, but the work of human hands—wood and stone. So they have destroyed them. ¹⁹ Now, ADONAI our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone, ADONAI, are God.”

²⁰ Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah saying, “Thus says ADONAI, God of Israel: ‘Because you prayed to Me about King Sennacherib of Assyria, I have heard you.’ ²¹ This is the word that ADONAI has spoken about him:

“The virgin Daughter of Zion will despise you and mock you.
The Daughter of Jerusalem will shake her head at you.

²² Whom did you taunt and blaspheme?
Against whom did you raise your voice and haughtily lift up your eyes?

Against the Holy One of Israel!
²³ Through your servants,
 you have blasphemed my Lord and said:
 ""With my many chariots I have climbed to the heights of the mountains, to the remotest parts of Lebanon!
 I cut down its tall cedars and choice cypress trees.
 I have gone to its farthest lodge, its thickest forest.
²⁴ I have dug wells and drunk foreign waters, and with the soles of my feet
 I dried up all the streams of Egypt.""
²⁵ Have you not heard? I did it long ago!
 From ancient times I planned it.
 Now I have brought it to pass—that you should turn fortified cities into heaps of rubble.
²⁶ Their inhabitants are weak-handed, shattered and ashamed
 They are like the grass of the field and green herb, like grass on roofs, scorched before it is grown up.
²⁷ But I know your sitting down, your going out, and your coming in,
 and your raging against Me.
²⁸ ""Because your raging against Me and your arrogance reached My ears,
 I will put My hook in your nose,
 and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way you came.""
²⁹ ""So this shall be the sign to you: This year you will eat what grows by itself, in the second year what springs from that. But in the third year, you will sow, reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.
³⁰ ""The surviving remnant of the house of Judah will take root downward and bear fruit upward. ³¹ For from Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and survivors from Mount Zion. The zeal of ADONAI - Tzva'ot will accomplish this.""
³² Therefore thus says ADONAI concerning the king of Assyria:
 "He will not come to this city,
 or shoot an arrow there,
 or come before it with a shield,
 or throw up a siege-ramp against it.
³³ By the way that he came,
 by the same he will return,
 and he will not come into this city"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI .
³⁴ "For I will defend this city to save it, for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake."
³⁵ Then it came about that night that the angel of ADONAI went out and struck down 185,000 men in the Assyrian camp. When the men arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. ³⁶ So King Sennacherib of Assyria withdrew, went away, and returned home, and stayed in Nineveh. ³⁷ One day, as he was worshiping in the house of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sarezer struck him down with the sword, and escaped to the land of Ararat. Then his son Esarhaddon became king in his place.

Put Your House in Order

20 In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill. So Isaiah the prophet son of Amoz came to him and said to him, "Thus says ADONAI : Put your house in order. For you are dying, and will not live."

² Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to ADONAI saying: ³ "Please, ADONAI , remember how I have walked before You in truth and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in Your eyes." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴ Then it came to pass, before Isaiah was gone out of the middle court, that the word of ADONAI came to him, saying: ⁵ "Return, and say to Hezekiah the leader of My people, thus says ADONAI , the God of your father David: 'I have heard your prayer and I have seen your tears. Behold, I am going to heal you. On the third day you will go up to the House of ADONAI .

⁶ Then I will add 15 years to your life. I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; I will defend this city for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake."

⁷ Then Isaiah said, "Take a cake of figs." So they took one and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

⁸ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What will be the sign that ADONAI will heal me, and that I should go up to the House of ADONAI on the third day?"

⁹ Then Isaiah said, "This will be the sign to you from ADONAI , that ADONAI will do this word He has spoken:
 Should the shadow go forward ten steps or go back ten steps?"

¹⁰ Hezekiah answered, "It's easy for a shadow to go forward ten steps; no, let the shadow turn back ten steps."

¹¹ Then Isaiah the prophet cried to ADONAI ; and He brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz.

Hezekiah Shows His Treasury to Babylon

¹² At that time Berodach-Baladan, son of King Bal-adan of Babylon, sent a letter and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick.

¹³ Now Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them his entire treasure house—the silver and the gold, the spices and the precious oil—and his armory, and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

¹⁴ Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?"

Hezekiah replied, "They have come to me from a far country, from Babylon."

¹⁵ Then he asked, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah said, "They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing of my treasures that I didn't show them."

¹⁶ Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of ADONAI: ¹⁷ 'Behold, days are coming when everything in your house, which your fathers have stored up to this day, will be carried to Babylon—nothing will be left,' says ADONAI. ¹⁸ 'Moreover, some of your descendants—who will issue from you, whom you will father—will be taken away and will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"

¹⁹ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "Good is the word of ADONAI which you have spoken." For he thought, "Is it not so, if there will be shalom and security in my days?"

²⁰ Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and all his might—including how he made the pool and the tunnel that brought water into the city—are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²¹ So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and his son Manasseh became king in his place.

Wicked Kings Manasseh and Amon

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned 55 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hephzibah. ² But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, following the abominations of the nations that ADONAI had dispossessed before Bnei-Yisrael. ³ For he rebuilt the shrines that his father Hezekiah had destroyed and he erected altars for Baal and made an Asherah pole, as King Ahab of Israel had done, and bowed down to all the host of heaven and worshiped them. ⁴ He even built altars in ADONAI's House, where ADONAI had said, "In Jerusalem I will put My Name." ⁵ He built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the House of ADONAI. ⁶ He also made his son pass through the fire, practiced soothsaying and divination, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in ADONAI's eyes to provoke Him.

⁷ Then he set up the carved image of Asherah that he made in the House about which ADONAI had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this House and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My Name forever. ⁸ No longer will I cause the feet of Israel to wander from the land which I gave their fathers—if only they will keep doing all I have commanded them and the whole Torah that My servant Moses commanded them."

⁹ But they did not listen, so Manasseh led them astray to do more evil than the nations that ADONAI had destroyed before Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁰ Then ADONAI spoke through His servants the prophets, saying: ¹¹ "Since King Manasseh of Judah has done these abominations, and has outdone in wickedness all that the Amorites who were before him did, and has also made Judah sin with his idols, ¹² therefore thus says ADONAI, God of Israel, behold, I am bringing such evil on Jerusalem and Judah that whoever hears of it, both his ears will tingle! ¹³ I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria and the plummet of the house of Ahab, and I will utterly wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish—wiping it and turning it upside down. ¹⁴ Then I will cast off the remnant of My inheritance and hand them over to their enemies—they will become plunder and spoil to all their enemies. ¹⁵ For they have done such evil in My eyes, and kept provoking Me to anger since the day their fathers came out of Egypt up to this day."

¹⁶ Moreover, Manasseh shed so much innocent blood until he filled Jerusalem with blood from one end to another—in addition to his sin which he made Judah sin, in doing what was evil in ADONAI's eyes. ¹⁷ Now the rest of the deeds of Manasseh, all that he did and his sin that he committed, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ¹⁸ Then Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own palace, in the garden of Uzza.

Then his son Amon became king in his place.

¹⁹ Amon was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. ²⁰ He did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, as his father Manasseh had done. ²¹ So he walked in all the ways that his father had walked in, and worshiped the idols that his father had worshiped, and bowed down to them. ²² He abandoned ADONAI, God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of ADONAI.

²⁵ Now the rest of the deeds of Amon which he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁶ Then he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and his son Josiah became king in his place.

Josiah and a Discovered Torah Scroll

22 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned 31 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. ² Now he did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI and walked in all the ways of his father David, and turned not aside to the right or to the left.

³ It came to pass in the eighteenth year of King Josiah that the king sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam the scribe, to the House of ADONAI, saying. ⁴ "Go up to Hilkiah the kohen gadol and let him weigh the silver that has been brought to the House of ADONAI, which the doorkeepers have gathered from the people. ⁵ Then let them give it into the hand of the workmen appointed to oversee the work on the House of ADONAI and let them in turn give it to the workmen that are in the House of ADONAI to repair the damages to the House: ⁶ to the carpenters, builders and masons, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the House.” ⁷ However, there was no accounting made with them for the silver given into their hand, for they dealt faithfully.

⁸ Hilkiyah the kohen gadol said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found a scroll of the Torah in the House of ADONAI.” So Hilkiyah gave the scroll to Shaphan who read it.

⁹ Then Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to the king and said, “Your servants have emptied out the silver that was found in the House and have given it into the hand of the workmen appointed to oversee the work on the House of ADONAI.” ¹⁰ Shaphan the scribe also told the king, saying, “Hilkiyah the kohen has given me a scroll.” Then Shaphan read it before the king.

¹¹ After the king heard the words of the Torah scroll, he tore his clothes. ¹² Then the king commanded Hilkiyah the kohen, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king’s servant saying: ¹³ “Go, inquire of ADONAI for me, for the people and for all Judah, about the words of this scroll that was found. For great is the wrath of ADONAI that is kindled against us, since our fathers have not obeyed the words of this book, to do everything written here that concerns us.”

Consulting Huldah the Prophetess

¹⁴ So Hilkiyah the kohen, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe—she was living in the Second Quarter of Jerusalem—and spoke with her. ¹⁵ She said to them, “Thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: Tell the man that sent you to me: ¹⁶ ‘Thus says ADONAI, behold, I am bringing disaster on this place and on its inhabitants, as in all the words of the scroll that the king of Judah read. ¹⁷ For they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, in order to provoke Me with all the work of their hands. Therefore My wrath has been kindled against this place and it will not be quenched.’

¹⁸ “But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of ADONAI, thus will you say to him: ‘Thus says ADONAI, God of Israel. As for the words that you have heard, ¹⁹ because your heart was softened and you humbled yourself before ADONAI when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants—that they should become a desolation and a curse—and because you have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard you,’ declares ADONAI. ²⁰ ‘Therefore behold, I will gather you to your fathers and you will be gathered to your grave in shalom. So your eyes will not see all the disaster I am bringing on this place.’” Then they brought back word to the king.

Josiah Renews the Covenant

²³ Then the king sent for and they gathered all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem to him. ² The king went up to the House of ADONAI and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him—the kohanim and the prophets, all the people, young and old—and he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which was found in the House of ADONAI. ³ Then the king stood by the pillar and cut a covenant before ADONAI, to follow ADONAI, keep His mitzvot, His laws and His decrees with all their heart and soul, in order to fulfill the words of this covenant that were written in this scroll. So all the people stood for the covenant.

⁴ Then the king commanded Hilkiyah the kohen gadol, the kohanim of the second order, and the doorkeepers to bring out of the Temple of ADONAI all the vessels made for Baal and Asherah, and all the host of heaven, and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and took their ashes to Beth-El. ⁵ He stopped the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had ordained from burning incense on the high places in the towns of Judah and around Jerusalem, as well those burning incense to Baal, the sun, the moon, the constellations, and to all the host of heaven.

⁷ Then he tore down the quarters of the male cult prostitutes that had been in the House of ADONAI, where the women had been weaving coverings for the Asherah.

¹⁰ Next he defiled Topheth, which is in the Ben-Hinnom Valley, so that no one might make his son or daughter pass through the fire for Molech. ¹¹ Then he did away with the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun, at the entrance of the House of ADONAI, in the colonnades by the chamber of the officer Nethan-Melech, and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

¹² The king also tore down the altars made by the kings of Judah on the roof—the upper chamber of Ahaz and the altars that Manasseh had made in the two courtyards of the House of ADONAI. He smashed them suddenly there and threw their dust into the Kidron Valley. ¹³ The king also desecrated the shrines facing Jerusalem—to the south of the Mount of Destruction—which King Solomon of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. ¹⁴ He smashed the pillars and cut down the Asherah poles and filled their places with human bones.

Prophecy Fulfilled at Beth-El

¹⁵ Moreover, the altar that was at Beth-El and the shrine built by Jeroboam son of Nebat—who caused Israel to sin—that altar and the shrine he demolished, too. He burned the shrine and ground it to dust, and burned up the Asherah. ¹⁶ Then, as Josiah looked around, he saw the burial caves there on the mountain, so he sent and took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar, thus desecrating it—as was the word of ADONAI which the man of God had proclaimed, who foretold it.

¹⁷ Then he asked, “What is this monument I see?”

So the men of the town told him, “It is the tomb of the man of God, who came from Judah and proclaimed these things that you have just done to the altar of Beth-El.”

¹⁸ “Let him rest,” he said. “Let no one disturb his bones.” So they left his bones undisturbed along with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

¹⁹ Josiah also removed all the shrines of the high places that the kings of Israel had built in the towns of Samaria to provoke. He did to them just as he had done in Beth-El. ²⁰ All the priests of the high places there he slaughtered on the altars, and burned human bones on them. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

²⁴ Moreover, Josiah got rid of the necromancers and the mediums, the teraphim and the idols, and all the detestable things that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem—in order to confirm the words of the Torah that were written in the scroll that Hilkiyah the kohen found in the House of ADONAI.

²⁵ Before him there had never been a king like him, who turned to ADONAI with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the Torah of Moses, nor has any king like him risen since him.

Josiah's Death

²⁶ Nevertheless, ADONAI did not turn from the fury of His great wrath which burned against Judah, because of all that Manasseh had provoked Him. ²⁷ ADONAI said, “I will banish Judah also from My presence as I banished Israel, and I have spurned this city, Jerusalem, which I chose, and the House about which I had said: ‘My Name will be there.’”

²⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ²⁹ In his days Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt, went up against the king of Assyria to the Euphrates River. King Josiah marched against him, but Necho killed him at Megiddo when he saw him.

³⁰ So his servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megiddo and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb.

Judah's Decline

Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah, anointed him and made him king in his father's place. ³¹ Jehoahaz was 23 years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ³² But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, as in all that his ancestors had done. ³³ Then Pharaoh Necho imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Hamath, so he would not reign in Jerusalem. He also imposed on the land a fine of 100 talents of silver and a talent of gold.

³⁴ Then Pharaoh Necho installed Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father Josiah, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But he took Jehoahaz away and brought him to Egypt, and he died there. ³⁵ Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh, but he taxed the land to give the money in keeping with Pharaoh's command. He exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, each according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Necho. ³⁶ Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebudah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. ³⁷ But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, just as in all that his ancestors had done.

Judah Exiled to Babylon

24 In his days, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon invaded, so Jehoiakim became his vassal for three years. But he turned and rebelled against him. ² Then ADONAI sent against him marauding bands of the Chaldeans, Arameans, Moabites, and Ammonites—He sent them against Judah to destroy it, as was the word of ADONAI that He had spoken by the hand of His servants the prophets. ³ Surely at the command of ADONAI this happened to Judah, to banish them from His presence, because of all the sins of Manasseh and all that he had committed, ⁴ and also because of the innocent blood that he had shed—for he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood that ADONAI was not willing to pardon. ⁵ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not written in the Book of the Chronicles of the Kings of Judah? ⁶ So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers, and his son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

⁷ No longer did the king of Egypt march out of his country, for the king of Babylon had seized all the land that once belonged to the king of Egypt, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Euphrates River. ⁸ Jehoiachin was 18 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for three months. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnatan of Jerusalem. ⁹ But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, like all his father had done.

¹⁰ At that time, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon's troops marched against Jerusalem and the city fell under siege. ¹¹ Then King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon himself arrived at the city while his troops were besieging it. ¹² Then King Jehoiachin of Judah, his mother, his courtiers, his officials, and his eunuchs surrendered to the king of Babylon. So the king of Babylon took him captive in the eighth year of his reign. ¹³ He also carried off from there all the treasures of ADONAI's House and the treasures of the royal palace, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold that King Solomon of Israel had made in the Temple of ADONAI—just as ADONAI had said. ¹⁴ Then He exiled all Jerusalem—all the captains, all the mighty men of valor, all the craftsmen, and the smiths—10,000 exiles. None was left except the poorest sort of the people of the land.

¹⁵ So he deported Jehoiachin to Babylon, along with the king's mother, the king's wives, his officials and the notables of the land—he deported all as captives from Jerusalem to Babylon. ¹⁶ All the men of valor, 7,000 strong and fit for war, and 1,000 craftsmen and smiths, the king of Babylon also took as captives to Babylon.

¹⁷ Then the king of Babylon appointed Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah. ¹⁸ Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king, and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ¹⁹ But he did what was evil in ADONAI's eyes, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ²⁰ For through the anger of ADONAI it came to a point in Jerusalem and Judah that He finally banished them from His presence.

Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

Destruction of Jerusalem

25 Now it came to pass in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth day of the tenth month, that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his entire army advanced against Jerusalem, set up camp by it, and built a siege wall all around it. ² So the city was under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

³ On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine became so severe in the city that there was no bread for the common people.

⁴ Then the city was broken into, and all the warriors fled by night by the way of the gate between the double walls near the king's garden—though the Chaldeans were all around the city—and they went by the way to the Arabah. ⁵ But the Chaldean army pursued the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his army was scattered from him. ⁶ So they captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, and passed sentence on him. ⁷ They slaughtered Zedekiah's sons before his eyes, then put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and took him to Babylon.

¹⁰ Then the whole Chaldean army that was with the captain of the guard demolished the walls of Jerusalem on every side. ¹¹ Then the remnant of the people who were left in the city—the deserters who had defected to the Babylonian king and the rest of the populace—Nebuzaradan captain of the guard exiled them. ¹² But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and field hands.

¹³ Now the Chaldeans broke into pieces the bronze pillars that were in the House of ADONAI, the stands and the bronze sea that were in the House of ADONAI, and carried their bronze away to Babylon. ¹⁴ They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the pans, and all the bronze vessels that were used in Temple service. ¹⁵ The captain of the guard took away the fire pans and the basins—whatever was gold or silver. ¹⁶ The two pillars, the one sea, and the stands which Solomon had made for the House of ADONAI—the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weight. ¹⁷ The height of each pillar was eighteen cubits, with a bronze capital on top. The height of the capital was three cubits, with a netting of copper pomegranates encircling the capital. The same was true of the second pillar with its netting.

¹⁸ Then the captain of the guard took away Seraiah the chief kohen, Zephaniah the deputy kohen, and the three doorkeepers. ¹⁹ From the city he took an official who had been overseeing the soldiers and five of the royal advisers who were found in the city, and the scribe of the army captain who mustered the people of the land, and 60 men of the common people that were found in the city. ²⁰ Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²¹ The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was exiled from its land.

²² Now as for the people that were left in the land of Judah, whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had left, he appointed over them Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan. ²³ Now when all the captains of the troops, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah as governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite—they and their men. ²⁴ Gedaliah swore to them and to their men and said to them, “Don’t be afraid of the Chaldean officials. Stay in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you.”

²⁵ But it came to pass in the seventh month that Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama, of royal descent, came with ten men and assassinated Gedaliah, so he died along with the Judeans and Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah. ²⁶ So all the people, young and old, and the captains of the troops, got up and fled to Egypt, for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

²⁷ Now it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of King Jehoiachin of Judah, on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month, that King Evil-Merodach of Babylon, in the year he became king, released King Jehoiachin of Judah from prison. ²⁸ He spoke kindly to him and set his throne above the throne of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. ²⁹ So he changed his prison garments, and regularly ate bread in the king’s presence all the days of his life. ³⁰ As for his allowance, a regular allowance was granted to him by the king, an allotment for each day, all the days of his life.

1 Chronicles

1 & 2 Chronicles Introduction

The 1 and 2 books of Chronicles actually are the final books of the Hebrew canon. The Hebrew title of these works is, דברי הימים, meaning “the words of the days.” One can only speculate who was the author of Chronicles. Hebrew tradition asserts that Ezra was its author; other recent scholars view its author as an anonymous writer from the postexilic period. In addition, because of the genealogies, one can only assume its dating. Chronicles was not written until approximately one hundred years after the writing of the book of 1 Kings, yet practiced selectivity, in order to highlight God’s workings among His children.

Chronicles announces that God’s covenant and promises are still true. The chronicler did not attempt to re-write history in any way. The author sourced much content from the books of Kings. His focus was mainly on the reign of David, the reign of Solomon, and the Kingdom of Judah.

1 Chronicles chapters 1-9 are often passed over by readers, as deemed unimportant or boring. Yet, Judaism embraces this ‘tribal’ system even in the 21st century. These tribes denote the purity that God established with the children of Israel. Beginning with chapters 10 through 29 highlight the reign of King David. One can see the faithfulness of God throughout David’s life. 1 Chronicles 17:9 notes “[says] I will establish a place for My people Israel, and plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and shall tremble no more. Violent people will no longer wear them down, as they did formerly...”

The reign of Solomon is chronicled in the second book, chapters 1-9. As the Queen of Sheba noted in 2 Chronicles 9:6: “But I did not believe their reports until I came and saw with my own eyes. And behold, not even half of the greatness of wisdom was described to me – you surpass the report that I heard!” The splendor of Solomon was regally reported by the Chronicler, yet his focus was primarily on the construction of the Temple. One familiar verse is 2 Chronicles 7:14: “...when My people, over whom My Name is called, humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.” The author heralds command to repentance as the prototype for blessing.

The second book of Chronicles is a portrayal of the Kingdom of Judah, chapters 10-36. The Northern Kingdom and Southern Kingdoms were formed, yet the Chronicler focused on the Southern Kingdom of Judah. This book ends with the edict of Cyrus, the end of the exile and the return of the Jewish people to Jerusalem. God had indeed heard from heaven and had begun to heal the Land.

From Adam to Abraham

⁵ The sons of Japheth:
 Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tuval, Meshech, and Tiras.
⁶ The sons of Gomer:
 Ashkenaz, Diphath, and Togarmah.
⁷ The sons of Javan:
 Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Rodanim.
⁸ The sons of Ham:
 Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan.
⁹ The sons of Cush:
 Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raama, and Sabteca.
 The sons of Raama:
 Sheba and Dedan.
¹⁰ Cush fathered Nimrod; he was the first mighty warrior on the earth.
¹¹ Mizraim fathered Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naph-tuhim, ¹² Pathrusim, Casluhim—from whom the Philistines came—and Caphtorim.
¹³ Canaan fathered Zidon his firstborn, Heth, ¹⁴ and the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites, ¹⁵ the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites, ¹⁶ the Arvadites, the Zemarites, and the Hamathites.
¹⁷ The sons of Shem:
 Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud;
 Aram: Uz, Chul, Geter, and Meshech.
¹⁸ Arpachshad fathered Shelah and Shelah fathered Eber.
¹⁹ To Eber were born two sons:
 the name of the one was Peleg †—for in his days the earth was divided—

† Meaning division

and his brother's name was Joktan.

²⁰ Joktan fathered:

Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah; ²¹ Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, ²² Ebal, Abimael, Sheba, ²³ Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were sons of Joktan.

²⁴ Shem, Arpachshad, Shelah,

²⁵ Eber, Peleg, Reu,

²⁶ Serug, Nahor, Terah,

²⁷ Abram—that is Abraham.

Abraham's Descendants

²⁸ The sons of Abraham:

Isaac and Ishmael.

²⁹ These are their descendants:

the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth, then Kedar, Ad-beel, Mibsam, ³⁰ Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, ³¹ Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. These are the sons of Ishmael.

³² The sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine:
 she bore Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah.

The sons of Jokshan:

Sheba and Dedan.

³³ The sons of Midian:

Ephah, Epher, Hanoah, Abida, and Eldaah.

All these were the sons of Keturah.

³⁴ Abraham also fathered Isaac.

The sons of Isaac:

Esau and Israel.

³⁵ The sons of Esau:

Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam, and Korah.

³⁶ The sons of Eliphaz:

Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, Kenaz, Timna, and Amalek.

³⁷ The sons of Reuel:

Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.

³⁸ The sons of Seir:
Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.

³⁹ The sons of Lotan:
Hori and Homam.
Lotan's sister was Timna.

⁴⁰ The sons of Shobal:
Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi, and Onam.

The sons of Zibeon:
Aiah and Anah.

⁴¹ The sons of Anah:
Dishon.

The sons of Dishon:
Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran.

⁴² The sons of Etzer:
Bilhan, Zaavan, Jaakan.

The sons of Dishan:
Uz and Aran.

Edom's Rulers

⁴³ Now these were the kings who ruled in the land of Edom, before any king ruled over Bnei-Yisrael:
Bela the son of Beor, the name of his city was Dinhabah.

⁴⁴ When Bela died, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah ruled in his place.

⁴⁵ When Jobab died, Husham of the land of the Temanites ruled in his place.

⁴⁶ When Husham died, Hadad the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, ruled in his place—the name of his city was Avith.

⁴⁷ When Hadad died, Samlah of Masrekah ruled in his place.

⁴⁸ When Samlah died, Shaul of Rehoboth-on-the-River ruled in his place.

⁴⁹ When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan the son of Achbor ruled in his place.

⁵⁰ When Baal-Hanan died, Hadad ruled in his place—the name of his city was Pai, and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab. ⁵¹ Then Hadad died.

So the tribal chiefs of Edom were: chief Timna, chief Alvah, chief Jetheth ⁵² chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon ⁵³ chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar, ⁵⁴ chief Magdiel, and chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

Israel and Judah's Descendants

2 These are the sons of Israel:
Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, ² Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

³ The sons of Judah:
Er, Onan, and Shelah—the three were born to him by Bath-Shua the Canaanite woman. But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of ADONAI, so He put him to death. ⁴ Then Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Perez and Zerah. Judah had five sons in all.

⁵ The sons of Perez:
Hezron and Hamul.

⁶ The sons of Zerah:
Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara, five in all.

⁷ The sons of Carmi:
Achar, the troubler of Israel who violated the ban of devoted things.

⁸ The sons of Ethan: Azariah.

⁹ The sons of Hezron who were born to him:
Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.

¹⁰ Ram fathered Amminadab;
Amminadab fathered Nahshon, the leader of the children of Judah.

¹¹ Nahshon fathered Salma;
Salma fathered Boaz.

¹² Boaz fathered Obed;
Obed fathered Jesse.

¹³ Jesse fathered Eliab his firstborn, Abinadab was second, Shimea third, ¹⁴ Nethanel fourth, Raddai fifth, ¹⁵ Ozem sixth, and David seventh. ¹⁶ Their sisters were Zeruihah and Abigail. The three sons of Zeruihah were Abishai, Joab, and Asahel. ¹⁷ Abigail bore Amasa, and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.

²¹ Afterward Hezron had relations with the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead—he had married her when he was 60 years old—and she bore him Segub.

²² Segub fathered Jair, who had 23 cities in the land of Gilead. ²³ But Geshur and Aram took the towns of Jair from them, along with Kenath and its surrounding villages, 60 towns. All these were the sons of Machir the father of Gilead.

²⁴ After the death of Hezron in Caleb-Ephrath, Abijah, Hezron's wife, bore him Ashhur the father of Tekoa.

²⁵ Now the sons of Jerahmeel, the firstborn of Hezron: Ram the firstborn, then Bunah, Oren, Ozem and Ahijah. ²⁶ Jerahmeel had another wife whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

²⁷ The sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel:
Maaz, Jamin, and Eker.

²⁸ The sons of Onam:
Shammai and Jada.

The sons of Shammai:
Nadab and Abishur.

²⁹ The name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid.

³⁰ The sons of Nadab:
Seled and Appaim, but Seled died without children.

³¹ The sons of Appaim:
Ishi, who was the father of Sheshan.
Sheshan was the father of Ahlai.

³² The sons of Jada the brother of Shammai:
Jeter and Jonathan—Jeter died without sons.

³³ The sons of Jonathan:

Pelet and Zaza.

These were the sons of Jerahmeel.

³⁴ Now Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. But Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha. ³⁵ So Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as a wife, and she bore him Attai. ³⁶ Then Attai fathered Nathan, and Nathan fathered Zabad. ³⁷ Zabad fathered Ephlal, and Ephlal fathered Obed. ³⁸ Obed fathered Jehu, and Jehu fathered Azariah. ³⁹ Azariah fathered Helez, and Helez fathered Eleasah. ⁴⁰ Eleasah fathered Sisamai, and Sisamai fathered Shallum. ⁴¹ Shallum fathered Jekamiah, and Jekamiah fathered Elishama.

⁴² Now the sons of Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel: Meshah his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and his son Mareshah the father of Hebron.

⁴³ The sons of Hebron:

Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema.

⁴⁴ Shema fathered Raham, the father of Jorkeam. Rekem fathered Shammai. ⁴⁵ The son of Shammai was Maon and Maon was the father of Beth-Zur.

⁴⁶ Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, Moza, and Gazez; and Haran fathered Gazez.

⁴⁷ The sons of Jahdai:

Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.

⁴⁸ Maacah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah. ⁴⁹ She also bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheba the father of Machbenah and the father of Gibeon. The daughter of Caleb was Achsah.

⁵⁰ These were the descendants of Caleb.

The sons of Hur the firstborn of Ephrath:

Shobal the father of Kiriath-Jearim, ⁵¹ Salma the father of Beth-Lehem and Hareph the father of Beth-Gader.

⁵² Shobal the father of Kiriath-Jearim had sons:

Haroeh, half of the Menuhites. ⁵³ The clans of Kiriath-Jearim: the Itrites, the Puhtites, the Shumathites, the Mishraitites; from them came the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites.

⁵⁴ The sons of Salma:

Beth-Lehem, the Netophathites, Atroth-Beth-Joab, half the Manathathites, the Zorites, ⁵⁵ and the clans of scribes who lived at Jabez: the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, and the Sucathites. These were the Kenites who descended from Hammath, the father of the Rechabites.

David's Descendants

3 Now these were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: the firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelite woman; second, Daniel, by Abigail the Carmelite woman; ² third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of King Talmai of Geshur; fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; ³ fifth, Shephatiah by Abital; the sixth, Ithream by his wife Eglah.

⁴ Six were born to him in Hebron. There he reigned seven years and six months; then in Jerusalem he reigned 33 years.

⁵ These were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon. These four were from Bath-Shua † the daughter of Ammiel;

⁶ and the other nine were Ibhar, Elishama, Eliphelet, ⁷ Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁸ Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet. ⁹ All these were sons of David, besides his sons by the concubines. Tamar was their sister.

¹⁰ Solomon's son was Rehoboam.

Abijah was his son,

Asa his son,

Jehoshaphat his son,

¹¹ Joram his son,

Ahaziah his son,

Joash his son,

¹² Amaziah his son,

Azariah his son,

Jotham his son,

¹³ Ahaz his son,

Hezekiah his son,

Manasseh his son,

¹⁴ Amon his son,

and Josiah his son.

¹⁵ The sons of Josiah:

Johanan the firstborn,

Jehoiakim the second,

Zedekiah the third,

and Shallum the fourth.

¹⁶ The sons of Jehoiakim:

Jeconiah was his son,

Zedekiah his son.

¹⁷ The sons of Jeconiah, the captive:

Shealtiel his son, ¹⁸ Malchiram, Pedaiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah.

¹⁹ The sons of Pedaiah:

Zerubbabel and Shimei.

The sons of Zerubbabel:

Meshullam and Hananiah; Shelomith was their sister, ²⁰ and five others:

Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah, and Jushabhesed.

²¹ The sons of Hananiah:

Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, whose son was Rephaiah, whose son was Arnan, whose son was Obadiah, whose son was Shecaniah.

²² The descendants of Shecaniah:

Shemaiah and sons Hatush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat—six in all.

²³ The sons of Neariah: Elioenai, Hizkiah, and Azrikam—three in all.

²⁴ The sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Eliashib, Pelatiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani—seven in all.

† Also known as Bethsheba.

Judah's Descendants

4 The sons of Judah:

Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur and Shobal.

² Reaiah the son of Shobal fathered Jahath, and Jahath fathered Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of the Zorathites.

³ These were the sons of Etam:

Jezeel, Ishma, and Idbash. The name of their sister was Hazleponi.

⁴ Penuel was the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These were the descendants of Hur the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Beth-Lehem.

⁵ Ashhur, the father of Tekoa, had two wives, Helah and Naarah. ⁶ Naarah bore him Ahuzam, Hepher, Timeni, and Ahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah.

⁷ The sons of Helah:

Zereth, Zohar, and Ethnan.

⁸ Koz fathered Anub and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel, the son of Harum.

Prayer of Jabez

⁹ Now Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. His mother named him Jabez saying, "Because I bore him with pain." ¹⁰ Jabez called out to the God of Israel, saying, "If only You would greatly bless me, and enlarge my territory. Let Your hand be with me and keep me from harm so that I might not suffer pain." ADONAI granted what he asked.

Other Descendants of Judah

¹¹ Chelub, the brother of Shuhah, fathered Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. ¹² Eshton fathered Beth-Rapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir-Nahash. These were the men of Recah.

¹³ The sons of Kenaz:

Othniel and Seraiah.

The sons of Othniel:

Hatath ¹⁴ and Meonothai, who fathered Ophrah.

Seraiah fathered Joab, the father of Ge-Harashim †, for they were craftsmen.

¹⁵ The sons of Caleb, son of Jephunneh:

Iru, Elah, and Naam.

The son of Elah:

Kenaz.

¹⁶ The sons of Jehallelel:

Ziph, Ziphah, Tiriah, and Asarel.

¹⁷ The sons of Ezrah:

Jether, Mered, Ephraim, and Jalon. She also bore Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa.

¹⁸ (His Judahite wife bore Jered the father of Gedor, Heber the father of Soho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah.) These were the sons of Bithiah, Pharaoh's daughter whom Mered married.

¹⁹ The sons of Hodiahs wife, the sister of Naham:

the father of Keilah the Garmite and Eshtemoa the Maacathite.

²⁰ The sons of Shimon:

Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan, and Tilon.

The sons of Ishi:

Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.

²¹ The sons of Shelah, son of Judah:

Er the father of Lecah, Ladah the father of Mareshah, the families of the linen workers at Beth-Ashbea, ²² and Jokim, the men of Cozeba, and Joash and Saraph, who had dominion in Moab and Jashubi-Lehem (the records are ancient). ²³ These were the potters and those who lived in Netaim and Gederah; they lived there while doing the king's work.

Descendants of Simeon

²⁴ The sons of Simeon:

Nemuel, Jamim, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul, ²⁵ his son Shalum, his son Mibsam, and his son Mishma.

²⁶ The descendants of Mishma:

Hammuel, Zaccur his son, and Shimei his son. ²⁷ Now Shimei had 16 sons and six daughters. But his brothers did not have many sons, so their family did not become as numerous as the sons of Judah. ²⁸ They dwelt in Beer-Sheba, Moladah, Hazar-Shual, ²⁹ Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, ³⁰ Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, ³¹ Beth-Marcaboth, Hazar-Susim, Beth-Biri, and Shaaraim. These were their towns until the reign of David, ³² together with their villages, Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan—five in all, ³³ along with all the villages that surrounded these towns as far as Baal. These were their habitations.

Registered in their genealogical records were:

³⁴ Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah the son of Amaziah, ³⁵ Joel, Jehu son of Joshibiah, son of Seraiah, son of Asiel, ³⁶ Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshoaiyah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, ³⁷ and Ziza son of Shiphai, son of Al-lon, son of Jedaiah, son of Shimri, son of Shemaiah—³⁸ these mentioned by name were leaders in their families, and their clans increased greatly. ³⁹ Now they went to the entrance of Gedor, to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. ⁴⁰ They found rich and good pasture, and the land was spacious, quiet, and peaceful. The former inhabitants were Hamites. ⁴¹ Now those whose names are recorded came during the days of King Hezekiah of Judah. They attacked the encampments of the Hamites, as well as the Meunim who were found there, and utterly wiped them out to this very day. They settled in their place because there was pasture there for their flocks. ⁴² About 500 of them from the descendants of Simeon, led by Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, went to Mount Seir ⁴³ where they struck down the remaining Amalekites who had escaped, and they live there to this day.

Descendants of Reuben

5 The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel—he was the firstborn, but when he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph son of Israel—so he is not reckoned as the firstborn in the genealogical record. ² Though Judah was the strongest among his brothers, and a ruler came from him, [†] the birthright belonged to Joseph.

³ The sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel:

Enoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi.

⁴ The descendants of Joel:

his son Shemaiah, his son Gog, his son Shimei, ⁵ his son Micah, his son Reaiah, his son Baal, ⁶ and his son Beerah whom Tillegath-Pilneser king of Assyria carried into exile. He was the leader of the Reubenites.

⁷ His kinsmen by their families, as listed in their genealogical records:

the leader Jeiel, Zechariah, ⁸ and Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Joel.

They settled in Aroer as far as Nebo and Baal-Meon, ⁹ while in the east they settled as far as the entrance of the wilderness from this side of the river Euphrates, because their cattle had multiplied in the land of Gilead. ¹⁰ Now in the days of Saul they had made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand. So they lived in their encampments in the entire eastern area of Gilead.

¹¹ Now the sons of Gad lived opposite them in the land of Bashan as far as Salcah:

¹⁴ These were the sons of Abihail son of Huri, son of Jaroah, son of Gilead, son of Michael, son of Jehishai, son of Jahdo, son of Buz. ¹⁵ Ahi son of Abdiel, son of Guni was leader of their ancestral families. ¹⁶ They lived in Gilead, in Bashan and its surrounding villages, and in all the pasturelands of Sharon, up to their borders. ¹⁷ All these were recorded by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

¹⁸ The sons of Reuben and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh had 44,760 warriors ready for war—men who carried shield and sword and drew the bow, and were skilled in battle. ¹⁹ So they made war with the Hagrites, Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab. ²⁰ They received help against them, so that the Hagrites and all who were with them were delivered into their hand, for they cried out to God during the battle. He answered their supplications, because they put their trust in Him. ²¹ They took away their livestock: 50,000 of their camels, 250,000 sheep, and 2,000 donkeys, as well as 100,000 people. ²² For many fell slain, because the war was of God. So they dwelt in their place until the exile.

Manesseh East of Jordan

²⁵ But they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers, and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land whom God had destroyed before them. ²⁶ So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of King Pul of Assyria—the spirit of Tillegath-Pilneser king of Assyria—and he carried away the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and to the river of Gozan, to this day.

6 (16) The sons of Levi:
Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

² (17) These are the names of the sons of Gershom:

Libni and Shimei.

³ (18) The sons of Kohath:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

⁴ (19) The sons of Merari:

Mahli and Mushi.

These are the families of the Levites according to their clans.

⁵ (20) Of Gershom:

Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, ⁶ (21) Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son and Jeatherai his son.

⁷ (22) The sons of Kohath:

Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, ⁸ (23) Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, Assir his son, ⁹ (24) Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uziah his son, and Shaul his son.

¹⁰ (25) The sons of Elkanah:

Amasai and Ahimoth, ¹¹ (26) his son Elkanah, Zophai his son, Nahath his son, ¹² (27) Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son.

¹³ (28) The sons of Samuel:

his first-born Vashni, then Abiah.

¹⁴ (29) The sons of Merari:

Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, ¹⁵ (30) Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son.

¹⁶ (31) Now these are the men David appointed to be in charge of the singing in the House of ADONAI, after the Ark came to rest. ¹⁷ (32) They ministered with song in front of the Tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, until Solomon built the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem. They carried out their avodah according to their regulations.

¹⁸ (33) These are the ones who took their station, with their sons.

Of the sons of the Kohathites:

Heman the singer, son of Joel, son of Samuel, ¹⁹ (34) son of Elkanah, son of Jeroham, son of Eliel, son of Toah, ²⁰ (35) son of Zuph, son of Elkanah, son of Mahath, son of Amasai, ²¹ (36) son of Elkanah, son of Joel, son of Azariah, son of Zephaniah, ²² (37) son of Tahath, son of Assir, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, ²³ (38) son of Izhar, son of Kohath, son of Levi, son of Israel.

²⁴ (39) His kinsman Asaph stood on his right—Asaph son of Berechiah, son of Shimea, ²⁵ (40) son of Michael, son of Baaseiah, son of Malchijah, ²⁶ (41) son of Ethni, son of Zerah, son of Adaiah, ²⁷ (42) son of Ethan, son of Zimmah, son of Shimei, ²⁸ (43) son of Jahath, son of Gershom, son of Levi.

³³ (48) Their fellow Levites were appointed for all the avodah of the tabernacle of the House of God. ³⁴ (49) But Aaron and his sons were the ones presenting offerings on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the service of the Holy of Holies, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

³⁵ (50) Now these are the sons of Aaron:

Eleazar his son, Phineas his son, Abishua his son, ³⁶ (51) Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, ³⁷

(52) Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, ³⁸ (53) Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.

Towns and Lands for Levites

³⁹ (54) Now these are their dwelling places according to their encampments in their territories. To Aaron's sons of the Kohathite families (for theirs was the first lot), ⁴⁰ (55) to them they assigned Hebron in the land of Judah, and the open land around it; ⁴¹ (56) but the fields of the city and the villages, they gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh. ⁴² (57) To sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge: Hebron, also Libnah with its open land, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its open land, ⁴³ (58) Hilen with its open land, Debir with its open land, ⁴⁴ (59) Ashan with its open land, and Beth-Shemesh with its open land. ⁴⁵ (60) From the tribe of Benjamin: Geba with its open land, and Alemeth with its open land, and Anathoth with its open land. They had 13 cities in all among their families.

⁴⁶ (61) To the rest of the sons of Kohath ten cities were assigned by lot from the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh. ⁴⁷ (62) To the sons of Gershom, according to their families, 13 cities were assigned from the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from tribe of Naphtali and from the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan. ⁴⁸ (63) To the sons of Merari, 12 cities were assigned by lot, according to their families, from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zebulun.

⁵¹ (66) Some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their territory from the tribe of Ephraim. ⁵² (67) They assigned to them as cities of refuge: Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim with its open land, Gezer also with its open land, ⁵³ (68) Jokmeam with its open land, Beth-Horon with its open land ⁵⁴ (69) Aijalon with its open land, and Gath-Rimmon with its open land. ⁵⁵ (70) Also from the half-tribe of Manasseh: Aner with its open land and Bileam with its open land, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath. ⁵⁶ (71) To the sons of Gershom were assigned, from the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its open land and Ashtaroth with its open land, ⁵⁷ (72) and from the tribe of Issachar, Kedesh with its open land, Dobrath with its open land, ⁵⁸ (73) Ramoth with its open land, and Anem with its open land, ⁵⁹ (74) and from the tribe of Asher, Mashal with its open land, Abdon with its open land, ⁶⁰ (75) Hukok with its open land, Rehob with its open land, ⁶¹ (76) and from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its open land, Hammon with its open land and Kiriathaim with its open land. ⁶² (77) To the rest—the sons of Merari—were assigned, from the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmono with its open land, Tabor with its open land, ⁶³ (78) and beyond the Jordan at Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness with its open land, Jahaz with its open land, ⁶⁴ (79) Kedemoth with its open land, and Mephaath with its open land ⁶⁵ (80) and from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its open land, Mahanaim with its open land, ⁶⁶ (81) Heshbon with its open land, and Jazer with its open land.

Descendants of Other Tribes

7 The sons of Issachar:

Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron—four.

² The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their clans. The descendants of Tola were mighty men of valor; their number in the days of David was 22,600.

³ The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah, and the sons of Izrahiah:

Michael, Obadiah, Joel, Isshiah—all five of them were leaders.

⁴ Along with them, by their generations after their clans were 36,000 troops of the army for battle, for they had many wives and sons. ⁵ Their kinsmen among all the families of Issachar by genealogical records were mighty men of valor—87,700.

¹⁰ Finally the sons of Jediael:

Bilhan.

The sons of Bilhan:

Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Alishahar. ¹¹ All these were sons of Jediael, heads of their clans, mighty men of valor, 17,200 who were able to go out in the army for war. ¹² Shuppim and Huppim were sons of Ir; Hushim was the son of Aher.

¹³ The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhan.

¹⁴ One of the sons of Manasseh was Asriel, whom she bore; his Aramean concubine bore Machir the father of Gilead. ¹⁵ Machir took a wife from Huppim and Shuppim. His sister's name was Maacah. The name of the second was Zelophehad, and Zelophehad had daughters.

¹⁶ Machir's wife Maacah bore a son and she named him Peresh. His brother's name was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rekem. ¹⁷ Ulam's son was Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead son of Machir, son of Manasseh. ¹⁸ His sister Hammolecheth bore Ish-Hod, Abiezer and Mahlah. ¹⁹ Shemida's sons were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

²⁰ The descendants of Ephraim:

Shuthelah, Bered his son, Tahath his son, Eleadah his son, Tahath his son, ²¹ Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son, also Ezer and Elead. The native-born men of Gath killed them because they came down to raid their cattle. ²² Their father Ephraim mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him. ²³ Then he went in to his wife, and she conceived and bore a son and he called him Beriah †, because evil had befallen his house. ²⁴ His daughter was Sheerah, who built both lower and upper Beth-Horon, and also Uzen-Sheerah. ²⁵ Rephah was his son, Resheph his son, Telah his son, Tahan his son, ²⁶ Ladan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, ²⁷ Nun his son, and Joshua his son.

²⁸ Their possessions and settlements were Beth-El and its villages, and to the east Naaran, and to the west Gezer with its villages, as well as Shechem and its villages, as far as Aiah and its villages, ²⁹ and along the borders of the children of Manasseh, Beth-Shean and its villages, Taanach and its villages, Megiddo and its villages, Dor and its villages. In these lived the children of Joseph son of Israel.

³⁰ The sons of Asher:

Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah.

³¹ The sons of Beriah:

Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith.

³² Heber fathered Japhlet, Shomer, and Hotham, and their sister Shua.

³³ The sons of Japhlet were Pasach, Bimhal, and Asvath. These were the children of Japhlet.

³⁴ The sons of Shemer:

Ahi, Rohgah, Hubbah, and Aram.

³⁵ The sons of his brother Helem:

Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal.

³⁶ The sons of Zophah:

Suah, Harnepher, Shaul, Beri, Imrah, ³⁷ Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran, and Beera.

³⁸ The sons of Jether:

Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara.

³⁹ The sons of Ulla:

Arah, Hanniel, and Rizia. ⁴⁰ All these were the descendants of Asher, heads of the clans, choice and mighty men of valor, chief of the princes. The number of them recorded by genealogy for service in war was 26,000 men.

Descendants of Benjamin

8 Benjamin fathered Bela his firstborn, Ashbel second, Ahrah third, ² Nohah the fourth, and Rapha fifth.

³ Bela's sons were:

Addar, Gera, Abihud, ⁴ Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, ⁵ Gera, Shephuphan, and Hiram.

† Meaning Excellent

⁶ These were the sons of Ehud—the heads of clans of the inhabitants of Geba, who were taken captive to Manahath:

⁷ Naaman, Ahijah, and Gera—he took them captive and fathered Uzza and Ahihud.

⁸ Shahraraim fathered children in the country of Moab after divorcing his wives Hushim and Baara. ⁹ By his wife Hodesh he fathered Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, ¹⁰ Jeuz, Sachiah, and Mirmah. These were his sons, family leaders.

¹¹ By Hushim he fathered Abitub and Elpaal.

¹² The sons of Elpaal:

Eber, Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod with its villages; ¹³ Beriah and Shema, leaders of the clans living in Aijalon and who drove out the inhabitants of Gath.

¹⁴ Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, ¹⁵ Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, ¹⁶ Michael, Ishpah, and Joha were sons of Beriah.

¹⁷ Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber ¹⁸ Ishmerai, Izliah, and Jobab were sons of Elpaal.

¹⁹ Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi, ²⁰ Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, ²¹ Adahiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath were sons of Shimei.

²² Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, ²³ Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, ²⁴ Hananiah, Elam, Anthothiah, ²⁵ Iphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.

²⁶ Shamsherai, Shechariah, Athaliah, ²⁷ Jareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri were sons of Jeroham. ²⁸ These were leaders of the clans listed in their genealogies. These lived in Jerusalem.

³³ Ner fathered Kish and Kish fathered Saul. Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchi-Shua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal.

³⁴ Jonathan's son was Merib-Baal and Merib-Baal fathered Micah.

³⁵ Micah's sons:

Pithon, Melech, Taarea, and Ahaz.

³⁶ Ahaz fathered Jehoaddah, Jehoaddah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri, and Zimri fathered Moza, ³⁷ Moza fathered Binea; Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

³⁸ Azel had six sons and these were their names:

Azrikam, Bocru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan—all these were sons of Azel.

³⁹ The sons of his brother Eshek:

Ulam his firstborn, Jeush second, and Eliphelet third. ⁴⁰ Now the sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor, archers, and had many sons and grandsons—150. All these were descendants of Benjamin.

Kohanim and Levites in Nehemiah's Day

9 So all Israel were registered by genealogies—behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

Judah was carried away captive to Babylon because of their unfaithfulness. ² The first to settle on their property in their towns were Israelites, kohanim, Levites, and the Temple servants. ³ Those from the children of Judah, the children of Benjamin, and the children of Ephraim and Manasseh who settled in Jerusalem were: ⁴ Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, who was a descendant of Perez son of Judah.

⁵ From the Shilonites:

Asaiah the firstborn and his sons.

⁶ From the sons of Zerah: Jeuel and their kinsmen—690.

⁷ From the sons of Benjamin:

Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Hodaviah, son of Hasenuah; ⁸ Ibneiah son of Jeroham; and Elah son of Uzzi, son of Michri; and Meshullam son of Shephatiah, son of Reuel, son of Ibneiah, ⁹ and their kinsmen, according to their genealogies—956. All these men were leaders of their clans.

¹⁰ From the kohanim :

Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin, ¹¹ Azariah son of Hilkiah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the ruler of the House of God; ¹² Adahiah son of Jeroham, son of Pashhur, son of Malchijah and Maa-sai son of Adiel, son of Jahzerah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshillemith, son of Immer, ¹³ and their kinsmen, heads of their clans 1,760 very able men for the work of avodah in the House of God.

¹⁴ From the Levites:

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah, from the sons of Merari; ¹⁵ Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, and Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zichri, son of Asaph; ¹⁶ Obadiah son of Shemaiah, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah son of Asa, son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Ne-tophathites.

¹⁷ The gatekeepers:

Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their brothers. Shallum was the leader; ¹⁸ he serves to this day at the king's gate to the east. These were the gatekeepers for the camp of the descendants of Levi. ¹⁹ Shallum son of Kore, son of Ebiasaph, son of Korah, and his kinsmen from his ancestral clan, the Korahites, were assigned to guard the gates of the Tent. Their ancestors had been responsible for guarding the entrance to the dwelling of ADONAI ²⁰ when Phinehas, son of Eleazar had been ruler over them in time past and ADONAI was with him. ²¹ Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was gatekeeper of the door of the Tent of Meeting.

²² All these chosen to be gatekeepers at the gates were 212. These were registered in the genealogical records of their villages. David and Samuel the seer had appointed them to their offices. ²³ They and their sons were guards of the gates of the House of ADONAI, that is, the Tabernacle. ²⁴ The gatekeepers were posted on the four sides, toward the east, west, north, and south. ²⁵ Their kinsmen in their villages were to come from time to time and serve with them for seven days. ²⁶ For the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, were entrusted over the chambers and over the treasuries in the House of God. ²⁷ They would spend the night around the House of God, because they were assigned to guard it and were in charge of opening it morning by morning.

²⁸ Now some of them had charge of the utensils for avodah, for by count they brought them in and by count they took them out. ²⁹ Some of them were appointed over the equipment and over all the utensils of the sanctuary, as well as over the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the frankincense, and the spices. ³⁰ But some of the sons of the kohanim prepared the mixture of spices. ³¹ Mattithiah, one of the Levites, the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, was in charge of preparing the flat cakes. ³² Some of the relatives of Kohathites were in charge of preparing the rows of bread every Shabbat.

³³ Now these were the singers, patriarchal leaders of the Levites, who stayed in the chambers and were exempt from other service, for they were on duty day and night. ³⁴ These were heads of the Levite families, chiefs in their genealogical records. These lived in Jerusalem.

³⁵ Jeiel, the father of Gibeon, lived in Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah. ³⁶ His firstborn son was Abdon, then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, ³⁷ Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth. ³⁸ Mikloth fathered Shimeam. They also lived with their kinsmen in Jerusalem, opposite their kinsmen.

³⁹ Ner fathered Kish and Kish fathered Saul. Saul fathered Jonathan, Malchi-Shua, Abinadab, and Eshbaal.

⁴⁰ The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal and Merib-Baal fathered Micah.

⁴¹ The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Taharea, and Ahaz.

⁴² Ahaz fathered Jarah and Jarah fathered Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri.

Zimri fathered Moza ⁴³ and Moza fathered Binea; Rephaiah was his son, Eleasah his son and Azel his son.

⁴⁴ Azel had six sons:

Azrikam, Bocru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

Saul Dies on Mount Gilboa

10 Now the Philistines fought against Israel. The men of Israel fled before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. ² The Philistines pursued Saul and his sons. The Philistines killed Saul's sons Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchi-Shua. ³ The battle raged around Saul and the archers spotted him and he was wounded by the archers.

⁴ Then Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword and run me through, so that these uncircumcised will not come and torture me."

But his armor-bearer refused to do it, because he was terrified. Therefore Saul took the sword and fell on it. ⁵ When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died. ⁶ So Saul and his three sons died; his whole household died together. ⁷ Now when all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled. The Philistines then came and lived in them.

⁸ The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. ⁹ They stripped him and took his head and his armor, and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines proclaiming the good news to their idols and to the people. ¹⁰ They put his armor in the house of their gods, and hung his head in the house of Dagon.

¹³ So Saul died because of his unfaithful acts that he committed against the word of ADONAI, which he did not keep, and he even consulted a medium for guidance ¹⁴ rather than inquire of ADONAI. So He put him to death and transferred the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

David's Rise and Capture of Zion

11 Then all Israel gathered to David at Hebron, saying: "Behold, we are your own flesh and blood. ² In the past, even when Saul was king, you were the one that led out and brought in Israel. ADONAI your God also said to you, 'You shall shepherd My people Israel and you shall be ruler over My people Israel.'"

³ When all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, David made a covenant with them in Hebron before ADONAI. They anointed David king over Israel, in keeping with the word of ADONAI by the hand of Samuel.

⁶ David had said, "Whoever strikes down the Jebusites first will be commander-in-chief." So Joab son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became commander. ⁷ David lived in the stronghold; for this reason it is called the city of David. ⁸ He fortified the city all around, from the Millo to the surrounding walls, and Joab repaired the rest of the city. ⁹ David grew more and more powerful because ADONAI - Tzva'ot was with him.

David's Mighty Men

¹⁰ Now these were chiefs of David's mighty men, who strongly supported him in his kingdom, together with all Israel to make him king, according to the word of ADONAI, over Israel. ¹¹ This is the list of David's mighty men: Jashobeam the son of Hachmoni, was the chief of the 30; he wielded his spear against 300 and slew them all at one time. ¹² After him was Eleazar son of Dodo the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men. ¹³ He was with David at Pas-Dammim, when the Philistines assembled there for battle. There was a plot of ground full of barley where the army retreated from before the Philistines, ¹⁴ but they took a stand in the middle of the plot; they defended it and struck down the Philistines. ADONAI delivered a great victory.

¹⁶ At that time, David was in the stronghold, while the garrison of the Philistines was in Beth-Lehem. ¹⁷ David had a craving and said, "If only someone would give me water to drink from the cistern by the gate in Beth-Lehem!" ¹⁸ So the three broke through the Philistine camp and drew water from the cistern by the gate in Beth-Lehem and carried it back to David. But David refused to drink it. He poured it out to ADONAI ¹⁹ and said: "Far be it for me that I should do this before my God! Can I drink the blood of these men who risked their lives?"—for they brought it at the risk of their lives and he would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the Three mighty men.

²⁰ Abishai, Joab's brother, was chief of the Three. He once wielded his spear against 300 and slew them. Thus he won a name among the Three. ²¹ Of the Three, he was more highly esteemed than the other two and became their commander, even though he was not one of the three.

²² Beniah son of Jehoiada was a valiant man from Kabzeel who had done mighty deeds. He killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab, and went down and killed a lion inside a pit on a snowy day. ²³ He also killed the giant Egyptian man who was five cubits tall. In his hand the Egyptian had a spear like a weaver's beam, yet Beniah attacked him with a club. He snatched the spear out of the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

²⁴ These were the exploits of Beniah son of Jehoiada, who gained renown among the three mighty men.

²⁵ Behold, he was more honorable than the 30, yet he was not one of the Three. Nevertheless, David set him over his bodyguard.

²⁶ The mighty men were:

Asael Joab's brother,

Elhanan son of Dodo from Beth-Lehem,

²⁷ Shammoth the Harorite,

Helez the Pelonite,

²⁸ Ira son of Ikkesh the Tekoite,

Abiezer the Anathothite,

²⁹ Sibbecai the Hushathite,

Ilai the Ahohite,

³⁰ Mahrai the Netophathite,

Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite,

³¹ Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeath of the children of Benjamin,

Benaiah the Pirathonite,

³² Hurai of Nahale-Gaash,

Abiel the Arbathite,

³³ Azmaveth the Baharumite,

Eliabba the Shaalbonite,

³⁴ the sons of Hashem the Gizonite,

Jonathan son of Shageh the Hararite,

³⁵ Ahiam son of Sacar the Hararite,

Eliphai son of Ur,

³⁶ Hephher the Meherathite,

Ahijah the Pelonite,

³⁷ Hezro the Carmelite,

Naarai the son of Ezbai,

³⁸ Joel the brother of Nathan,

Mibhar son of Hagri,

³⁹ Zelek the Ammonite,

Nahrai the Berothite, the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah,

⁴⁰ Ira the Ithrite,

Gareb the Ithrite,

⁴¹ Uriah the Hittite,

Zabad son of Ahlai,

⁴² Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and 30 with him,

⁴³ Hanan son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite,

⁴⁴ Uzzijah the Ashterathite,

Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotam the Aroerite,

⁴⁵ Jedaiah son of Shimri and Joha his brother the Tizite,

⁴⁶ Eliel the Mahavite,

Jeribai and Joshaviah, sons of Elnaam,

and Ithmah the Moabite;

⁴⁷ Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

All Israel Rallies to David

12 Now these are the men who came to David at Ziklag when he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish. They were among the warriors who assisted him in battle. ² They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left to sling stones and shoot arrows from the bow. They were Saul's kinsmen from Benjamin. ³ Their chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, Jeziel and Pelet, sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite, ⁴ (4a) Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the 30 and leading the 30, ⁵ (4b) Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite, ⁶ (5) Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah the Hariphite, ⁷ (6) Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam, the Korahites, ⁸ (7) Joelah and Zebadiah, sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

⁹ (8) Some of the Gadites there withdrew to follow David to the stronghold in the wilderness. They were valiant men trained for battle, armed with shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions and were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains. ¹⁰ (9) Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, ¹¹ (10) Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, ¹² (11) Attai the sixth, Eiel the seventh, ¹³ (12) Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, ¹⁴ (13) Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh. ¹⁵ (14) These were the Gadites, leaders of the army. The least was equal to 100 and the greatest to 1,000. ¹⁶ (15) These were the ones who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it was overflowing its banks, routing all those in the valleys to the east and to the west.

¹⁷ (16) Some of the children of Benjamin and also from Judah came to David at the stronghold. ¹⁸ (17) David went out to meet them and answered them saying, "If you come to me in peace to support me, then my heart will be united with you. But if it is to betray me to my adversaries, when my hands have done no wrong, then may the God of our fathers take notice and judge."

¹⁹ (18) Then a spirit came upon Amasai, leader of the 30,

"We are yours, David,
on your side, son of Jesse.
Shalom, shalom to you,
and shalom to him who helps you, for your God supports you!"

So David welcomed them and made them leaders of the troops.

²⁰ (19) Some from Manasseh went over to David when he went with the Philistines to battle against Saul. But they did not help them because the Philistine rulers after consultation sent him away, saying: "It would cost us our heads if he defected to his master Saul."

²⁶ (25) from the sons of Simeon, 7,100 brave warriors ready for war;

²⁷ (26) from the sons of Levi 4,600; ²⁸ (27) Jehoiada the leader of the Aaronides and with him 3,700; ²⁹ (28) Zadok, a young mighty man of valor, with 22 commanders from his clan;

³⁰ (29) from the sons of Benjamin, Saul's kinsmen, 3,000 for up to that time the majority of them had kept their allegiance to Saul's house;

³¹ (30) from the sons of Ephraim 20,800 valliant warriors, famous men in their clan; ³² (31) from the half-tribe of Manasseh 18,000 who were designated by name to come and make David king;

³³ (32) from the sons of Issachar—men who know how to interpret the signs of the times to determine what Israel should do—200 chiefs with all their kinsmen under their command;

³⁴ (33) from Zebulun 50,000 warriors prepared for battle, arrayed with all types of weapons of war, and ready to give their undivided loyalty;

³⁵ (34) from Naphtali 1,000 officers, along with 37,000 with shield and spear;

³⁶ (35) from the Danites, 28,600 equipped for battle;

³⁷ (36) from Asher 40,000 experienced warriors arrayed for battle;

³⁸ (37) and from beyond the Jordan, from the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh 120,000 armed with every type of weapons of war.

³⁹ (38) All these fighting men, prepared for the battle line, came to Hebron with a whole heart to make David king over all Israel. All the rest of Israel were also of one heart to make David king. ⁴⁰ (39) So they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their kinsmen had given them provision. ⁴¹ (40) Moreover those who were near to them, from as far as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought food on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen. There was flour, pressed figs, raisins, wine, oil, cattle, and sheep in abundance—for indeed, there was joy in Israel.

Ark Retrieved from Kiriath-Jearim

13 Then David consulted with the officers of the thousands and of the hundreds, with every leader. ² David said to the entire assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you, and is from ADONAI Eloheinu, let us spread the word to our kinsmen who remain in all the regions of Israel, along with the kohanim and Levites in their towns and pasturelands to come and join us. ³ Let us bring the Ark of our God back to us—for we did not inquire of it in the days of Saul." ⁴ The entire assembly agreed to do so, for the proposal seemed right in the eyes of all the people.

⁵ So David assembled all Israel from the Shihor of Egypt to the entrance of Hamat, to bring the Ark of God from Kiriath-Jearim. ⁶ David and all Israel went up to Baalah, to Kiriath-Jearim, that was in Judah to bring up from there the Ark of God, ADONAI who sits enthroned above the cheruvim, which is called by His Name.

⁷ They transported the Ark of God upon a new cart from the house of Abinadab. Uzza and Ahio guided the cart ⁸ while David and all Israel celebrated before God with all their might, with songs, lyres, harps, tim-

brels, cymbals, and trumpets. ⁹ But when they came to the threshing-floor of Hidon, Uzza reached out his hand to hold the Ark, because the oxen stumbled.

¹⁰ The anger of ADONAI burned against Uzza, and He struck him down, because he reached out his hand and touched the Ark. He died there before God.

¹¹ David was angry because ADONAI had burst out against Uzza. So he called that place Perez-Uzza as it is to this day.

¹² David feared God that day, saying, "How can I ever bring the Ark of God to me?"

¹³ So David did not take the Ark with him to the City of David, but left it in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. ¹⁴ So the Ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months; ADONAI blessed the house of Obed-Edom and everything that he had.

14 Now King Hiram of Tyre sent messengers to David, as well as cedar logs, stonemasons and carpenters, to build a palace for him. ² Then David knew that ADONAI had established him king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.

³ David took more wives in Jerusalem, and David fathered more sons and daughters. ⁴ These are the names of the children born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, ⁵ Ibhah, Elishua, Elpelet, ⁶ Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, ⁷ Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

David Breaks through at Baal-Perazim

⁸ When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up in search of David, but David heard of it and went out before them. ⁹ Now the Philistines had come and raided the Valley of Rephaim. ¹⁰ So David inquired of God, asking, "Should I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them over into my hand?"

Then ADONAI said to him, "Go up! I will give them over into your hand."

¹¹ So they came up to Baal-Perazim, where David defeated them. David said, "God burst out against my enemies by my hand, like waters burst out!" Therefore they called the name of that place Baal-Perazim [†].

¹² They abandoned their gods there, so David ordered and they were burned with fire.

¹³ But the Philistines again raided the valley. ¹⁴ So David again inquired of God, and God said to him, "Do not go up after them, but circle around behind them and come against them in front of the baca trees ^{††}.

¹⁵ As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the baca trees, then go out to battle. For God has gone out before you to strike down the army of the Philistines."

[†] Meaning the lord who breaks through ^{††} Meaning is unclear; sometimes translated as balsam trees, mulberry tree, or shrubs.

¹⁶ David did just as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer.

¹⁷ So the fame of David spread throughout every land, and ADONAI brought the fear of him upon all nations.

Ark Enters Jerusalem

15 David built houses made for himself in the City of David; he then prepared a place for the Ark of God and pitched a tent for it. ² Then David said, "No one should carry the Ark of God except the Levites, for ADONAI has chosen them to carry the Ark of ADONAI and to serve Him forever." ³ David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring the Ark of ADONAI up to its place that he had prepared for it. ⁴ David gathered together the sons of Aaron and the Levites:

⁵ from the sons of Kohath:

Uriel the leader and 120 of his kinsmen;

⁶ from the sons of Merari:

Asaiah the leader and 220 of his kinsmen;

⁷ from the sons of Gershon:

Joel the leader with 130 of his kinsmen;

⁸ from the sons of Elizaphan:

Shemaiah the leader with 200 of his kinsmen;

⁹ from the sons of Hebron:

Eliel the leader with 80 of his kinsmen;

¹⁰ from the sons of Uzziel:

Amminadab the leader and 112 of his kinsmen.

¹¹ David summoned Zadok and Abiathar the kohanim, along with the Levites, Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab. ¹² He told them, "You are the heads of the Levitical families. Sanctify yourselves, you and your kinsmen, so that you may bring up the Ark of ADONAI, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it. ¹³ Because you were not there the first time, ADONAI our God burst out upon us, for we did not seek Him regarding the prescribed way."

¹⁴ So the kohanim and the Levites sanctified themselves in order to bring up the Ark of ADONAI, the God of Israel. ¹⁵ The Levites carried the Ark of God on their shoulders with poles, just as Moses commanded according to the word of ADONAI.

¹⁶ David ordered the leaders of the Levites to appoint their kinsmen, the singers, with musical instruments, harps, lyres, and cymbals, to joyfully make their voices heard. ¹⁷ So the Levites appointed Heman son of Joel; from his brothers, Asaph son of Berechiah; from their brothers the descendants of Merari, Ethan son of Kushaiah; ¹⁸ and with them their relatives second in rank: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphalehu, and Mikneiahu, and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel.

Azariah were to lead with lyres, according to the Sheminith †. ²²Chenaniah, leader of the Levites in music, was to direct the music because he was a master. ²³Berechiah and Elkanah were gatekeepers for the Ark. ²⁴The kohanim Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezez were to blow the trumpets before the Ark of God. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were gatekeepers for the Ark.

²⁵So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of the thousands went to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI out of the house of Obed-Edom with rejoicing. ²⁶Because God helped the Levites who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. ²⁷Now David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who were carrying the Ark, and as were the singers and Henaniah the leader of the songs of the singers. David also wore a linen ephod. ²⁸Thus all Israel brought up the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI with shouting, with the sound of the shofar, trumpets, and cymbals, and the playing of lyres and harps.

²⁹As the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI came to the City of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looked out the window. When she saw King David dancing and celebrating, she despised him in her heart.

Worship in David's Tent

16 They brought the Ark of God and set it in the middle of the tent that David had pitched for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. ²After David finished offering the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of ADONAI. ³He then distributed to everyone in Israel—man and woman alike—to each a loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake.

⁴He appointed some of the Levites as ministers before the Ark of ADONAI, to petition, to thank, and to praise ADONAI, the God of Israel. ⁵Asaph was the chief and second to him were Zechariah, Jehiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom, and Jehiel. They were to play harps and lyres; Asaph was to sound the cymbals, ⁶and the kohanim Benaiah and Jahaziel were to blow trumpets continually before the Ark of the Covenant of God.

⁷On that day David first appointed Asaph and his kinsmen to give thanks to ADONAI:

⁸Give thanks to ADONAI, call upon His Name.

Make His deeds known among the peoples.

⁹Sing to Him! Sing praises to Him!

Tell of all His wonderful acts.

¹⁰Glory in His holy Name!

† Meaning unknown; also thought to be a musical term, some have also speculated it to mean bass alamo

Let the heart of those who seek ADONAI rejoice.

¹¹Seek ADONAI and His strength.

Seek His face always.

¹²Remember the wonders He has done,

His signs and judgments of His mouth,

¹³O descendants of Israel His servant,

O sons of Jacob, His chosen ones!

¹⁴He is ADONAI our God;

His judgments are in all the earth.

¹⁵Remember His covenant forever,

the word that He commanded for a thousand generations—

¹⁶that He made with Abraham, swore to Isaac,

¹⁷and confirmed in a decree with Jacob to Israel as an everlasting covenant,

¹⁸saying: "To you I give the land of Canaan as your allotted inheritance."

¹⁹When you were but a few in number,

very few, and strangers in it,

²⁰and wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another,

²¹He allowed no one to oppress them, but for their sake He reprov'd kings:

²²"Touch not My anointed ones, and do My prophets no harm."

²³Sing to ADONAI, all the earth!

Proclaim His salvation from day to day.

²⁴Declare His glory among the nations,

His wondrous works among all the peoples.

²⁵For great is ADONAI and greatly to be praised.

He is to be feared above all gods.

²⁶For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but ADONAI made the heavens.

²⁷Splendor and majesty are before Him;

strength and joy are in His place.

²⁸Ascribe to ADONAI, O families of the peoples, ascribe to ADONAI glory and strength.

²⁹Ascribe to ADONAI the glory due to His Name.

Bring an offering and come before Him.

Worship ADONAI in the splendor of holiness.

³⁰Tremble before Him, all the earth!

The world is firmly established—it will not be moved.

³¹Let the heavens be glad and the earth rejoice!

Let them say among the nations: " ADONAI reigns!"

³²Let the sea roar and all that is in it.

Let the field rejoice and all that is in it.

³³Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before

ADONAI,

for He comes to judge the earth.

³⁴Give thanks to ADONAI for He is good,

for His mercy endures forever.

³⁵Declare, "Save us, O God of our salvation!

Gather and rescue us from the nations, that we may give thanks to Your holy Name,

that we may glory in Your praise."

³⁶Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.

Then all the people said "Amen," and "Praise ADONAI."

³⁷ So David left Asaph and his kinsmen there before the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI, to minister before the Ark continually, according to each day's requirements, ³⁸ including Obed-Edom and his 68 kinsmen. Obed-Edom son of Jeduthun and Hosah were gatekeepers. ³⁹ Also he left Zadok the kohen and his fellow kohanim before the Tabernacle of ADONAI in the high place that was at Gibeon ⁴⁰ to offer burnt offerings to ADONAI on the altar of burnt offering, regularly morning and evening, according to all that is written in the Torah of ADONAI that He commanded Israel. ⁴¹ Along with them were Heman and Jeduthun and the rest who were chosen, designated by name to give thanks to ADONAI—for His mercy endures forever. ⁴² Heman and Jeduthun had trumpets and cymbals for music and other instruments for praising God. The sons of Jeduthun were to be at the gate.

⁴³ Then all the people departed each one to his home, and David returned to bless his household.

Covenant Promise to David

17 After David settled in his place, David said to Nathan the prophet, "Look! I am living in a house of cedar, while the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI is under a tent."

² Then Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart, for God is with you."

³ But that same night the word of God came to Nathan, saying: ⁴ "Go and tell David My servant, thus says ADONAI, 'You are not to build Me a house in which to dwell. ⁵ For I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought Israel out to this day. I have gone from tent to tent, and from one dwelling to another. ⁶ Wherever I went throughout all Israel, did I ever speak a word to any of the judges of Israel whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, "Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?"'

⁷ "So now, say this to My servant David, 'Thus says ADONAI Tzva'ot, I took you from the pasture and from following the sheep, to be prince over My people Israel. ⁸ I have been with you wherever you went and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make your name like the names of the great ones that are in the earth. ⁹ I will establish a place for My people Israel, and plant them, so that they may dwell in their own place and shall tremble no more. Violent people will no longer wear them down, as they did formerly, ¹⁰ from the days I ordered judges to be over My people Israel. I will subdue all your enemies.'

"Moreover, I declare to you that ADONAI will build you a house. ¹¹ It will be that when your days are fulfilled to go with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring after you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹² He will build a house for Me and I will establish his throne forever. ¹³ I will be a father to him and he will be a son to Me, [†] I will not withdraw My lovingkindness from him, as I withdrew it from the one who ruled before you. ¹⁴ I will appoint him over My House and My kingdom forever, and his throne will be established forever."

¹⁵ According to all these words and according to all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

¹⁶ Then King David went in and sat before ADONAI, and said, "Who am I, ADONAI Elohim, and what is my family, that You have brought me thus far? ¹⁷ And this was not enough in Your eyes, O God! You have spoken about the future of Your servant's household. You have regarded me as the most distinguished of men, ADONAI Elohim .

¹⁸ "What more can David say to You for honoring Your servant? For You know Your servant. ¹⁹ ADONAI, for the sake of Your servant and according to Your own heart, You have done all these great things, to reveal all Your greatness.

²⁰ " ADONAI, there is none like You and there is no other god besides You, as we have heard with our own ears. ²¹ And who is like Your people Israel—the one nation on earth whom God went out to redeem as a people for Himself and to make a Name for Yourself by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people, whom You redeemed from Egypt? ²² You made Your people Israel Your own people forever, and You, ADONAI, became their God.

²³ "Now, ADONAI, may the word that You have spoken concerning Your servant and his house be confirmed forever. Do as You have spoken ²⁴ so that it might be established and Your Name might be magnified forever, saying, ' ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel, is Israel's God.' Then the house of David Your servant will be established before You.

²⁵ "You, my God, have revealed to Your servant that You will build a house for him. So Your servant has found courage to pray before You. ²⁶ Now, ADONAI, You are God! You have promised this good thing to Your servant. ²⁷ Now You are willing to bless the house of Your servant, so that it may continue forever before You, for it is You, ADONAI who have blessed, and it is blessed forever!"

King David's Rule Expands

18 In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them. He took Gath and its villages from the hand of the Philistines. ² He also defeated Moab, and the Moabites became vassals to David and brought tribute.

³ Moreover, David defeated King Hadadezer of Zobah at Hamath, when he went to establish his dominion to the Euphrates River. ⁴ David captured from him 1,000 chariots, 7,000 horsemen, and 20,000 infantrymen. David hamstringed all the chariot horses but reserved 100 of them for chariots.

⁵ When the Arameans of Damascus came to help King Hadadezer of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 of the Arameans. ⁶ David put garrisons in Aram of † cf. Matt. 3:17; 17:5; Heb. 1:5.

Damascus and the Arameans became subject to David and brought tribute. ADONAI gave David victory wherever he went. ⁷ David took the gold shields that were on Hadadezer's servants and brought them to Jerusalem. ⁸ From Tibhath and from Kun, Hadadezer's cities, David took a very large quantity of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze sea, pillars, and bronze vessels.

⁹ When King Tou of Hamath heard that David had defeated the whole army of King Hadadezer of Zobah, ¹⁰ he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet and bless him because he fought against Hadarezer and defeated him—for Hadadezer had many wars with Tou. He also sent all kinds of articles of gold, silver, and bronze.

¹¹ King David dedicated these articles to ADONAI, along with the silver and gold that he had taken from all the nations: from Edom and Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek.

¹² Abishai son of Zeruiah struck down 18,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. ¹³ Then he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became vassals to David. So ADONAI gave David victory wherever he went.

¹⁴ David reigned over all Israel and he administered justice and righteousness to all his people. ¹⁵ Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was secretary. ¹⁶ Zadok son of Ahitub and Abimelech son of Abiathar were kohanim, and Shavsha was scribe. ¹⁷ Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and Pelethites, and David's sons were chief officials in the service of the king.

Defeating the Ammonites

19 Now in the course of time Nahash king of the Ammonites died and his son became king in his place. ² David said: "I will show lovingkindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father dealt loyally with me."

So David sent messengers to console him concerning his father. But when David's emissaries came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to console him, ³ the Ammonite officials said to Hanun, "Do you really think that David is honoring your father, by sending messengers to express sympathy? Have not his servants come to you to explore and spy out the country to overthrow it?" ⁴ So Hanun took David's emissaries and shaved them. He cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks and sent them away.

⁵ When some people came and told David about the men, he sent messengers to meet them for the men were thoroughly humiliated. The king said: "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow and then return."

⁶ When the children of Ammon realized they had made themselves a stench to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent 1,000 talents of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram-Naharaim [†], Aram-Maacah and Zobah. ⁷ So they hired 32,000 chariots along with the king of Maacah and his people, who came and camped before Medeba. The children of Ammon also assembled from their cities and moved out to the battle.

⁸ On hearing this, David sent Joab and the entire army of mighty men. ⁹ The children of Ammon came out and took up battle formation at the city gate, while the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. ¹⁰ When Joab saw that there was a battle line against him both in front and rear, he selected some of Israel's best men and deployed them against the Arameans. ¹¹ He put the rest of the people under the command of his brother Abishai, and arrayed them against the Ammonites. ¹² He said: "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you will help me, but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will help you. ¹³ Chazak! Take courage for the sake of our people and the cities of our God! ADONAI will do what is good in His eyes."

¹⁴ So Joab and the people who were with him advanced to battle against the Arameans, and they fled before him. ¹⁵ When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they likewise fled before his brother Abishai and withdrew into the city. Then Joab went to Jerusalem.

¹⁷ When David was informed he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan. He came against them and took up positions against them. David took up positions against the Arameans in battle and they fought with him. ¹⁸ But the Arameans fled before Israel. David killed 7,000 Aramean charioteers and 40,000 infantrymen. He also killed Shophah the commander of the army.

¹⁹ Now when Hadadezer's vassals saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and served him. Thus the Arameans were no longer willing to help the Ammonites.

Clearing out the Giants

20 At the turn of the year, the season when kings go out to war, Joab led out the army and devastated the land of the Ammonites. He went and besieged Rabbah, while David remained in Jerusalem. Joab smote Rabbah and left it in ruins. ² David took the crown from the head of their king—its weight was found to be a talent [‡] of gold and it was set with precious stones—and it was placed on David's head. He took a vast amount of spoils from the city. ³ Furthermore, he removed the people who were in it and set them to work with saws, sharp iron tools, and axes.

[†] Or northern Mesopotamia

^{††} That is the Euphrates [‡] About 70 pounds.

Thus he did to all the Ammonite cities. Then David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

⁴ Now it came about after this, that war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite struck down Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaim, and they were subdued. ⁵ Again there was war with the Philistines, and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear had a shaft like a weaver's beam. ⁶ Once again there was a battle at Gath, where there was a man of great stature who had 24 fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot. He too also descended from the giants. ⁷ When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David's brother, struck him down.

⁸ These were descendants of the giants in Gath; they fell by the hand of David and his servants.

Census and Plague

21 Then satan stood up against Israel and incited David to count Israel. ² So David told Joab and the leaders of the people, "Go, count Israel from Beer-sheba to Dan. Then bring me a report so I may know their number."

³ But Joab said, "May ADONAI multiply His people 100 times over! But my master the king, are they not all my master's servants? Why does my master require this thing? Why should he be a cause of guilt to Israel?"

⁴ Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. So Joab departed and went throughout all Israel and finally came back to Jerusalem.

⁵ Joab gave the number of the census of the people to David: in all Israel there were 1,100,000 sword-wielding men; Judah had 470,000 sword-wielding men. ⁶ But he did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, for the king's word was detestable to Joab.

⁷ But God was displeased with this thing and He struck Israel.

⁸ Then David said to God, "I have sinned greatly by doing this. But now, I entreat you, take away the guilt of Your servant for I have behaved very foolishly."

⁹ Then ADONAI spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying: ¹⁰ "Go and speak to David, saying, 'Thus says ADONAI, "I offer you three things; choose one of them and I will bring it upon you.'"

¹¹ So Gad went to David and said to him, "Thus says ADONAI: 'Select for yourself ¹² either three years of famine, or three months being swept away from before your adversaries and the sword of your enemies overtaking you, or three days of the sword of ADONAI, pestilence in the land and the angel of ADONAI ravaging throughout all the territories of Israel. Now, consider what I should reply to the one who sent me.'"

¹³ David said to Gad, "I am in a great anguish! Let me fall into the hand of ADONAI for His compassion is very great. But do not let me fall into the hand of man."

¹⁴ So ADONAI sent a plague upon Israel, and 70,000 men of Israel fell. ¹⁵ And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it, but while he was doing so, ADONAI saw and was grieved over the calamity. He said to the destroying angel, "Enough! Now withdraw your hand!"

The angel of ADONAI was then standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁶ David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of ADONAI standing between the earth and the heaven with a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces. ¹⁷ David said to God, "Was it not I who commanded to count the people? I alone am the one who sinned and behaved wickedly. But these sheep, what have they done? Please let Your hand, ADONAI my God, be against me and against my father's house, but do not let the plague be on Your people."

¹⁸ So the angel of ADONAI told Gad to instruct David that David should go up and build an altar to ADONAI on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ¹⁹ So David went up by the word of Gad, which he spoke in the Name of ADONAI. ²⁰ While Ornan was threshing wheat, he turned and saw the angel. His four sons who were with him hid themselves. ²¹ When David came to Ornan, Ornan looked up and saw David. He went out from the threshing floor and bowed to David with his face to the ground.

²² Then David said to Ornan: "Give me the site of this threshing floor that I may build an altar to ADONAI. Sell it to me for full price, so the plague on the people may be stopped."

²³ Then Ornan said to David, "Take it! Let my lord the king do whatever seems good in his eyes. Look, I will give the oxen for burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this."

²⁴ King David said to Ornan, "No, I insist on buying it for the full price. For I will not take for ADONAI what is yours, or sacrifice a burnt offering that cost me nothing."

²⁵ So David gave Ornan 600 shekels of gold by weight for the place. ²⁶ David built there an altar to ADONAI and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. He called on ADONAI and He answered him with fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering.

²⁷ Then ADONAI commanded the angel, and he put his sword back in its sheath.

²⁸ At that time, when David saw that ADONAI had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he sacrificed there. ²⁹ For the Tabernacle of ADONAI, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. ³⁰ But David could not go before it to seek God for he was afraid of the sword of the angel of ADONAI.

22 Then David said, "This is the place where the House of ADONAI Elohim will be, along with the altar for burnt sacrifices for Israel."

Preparing for the Temple

² David gave orders to assemble the foreigners in the land of Israel, and assigned them to be masons to quarry stones to build the House of God. ³ David supplied an abundance of iron for nails for the doors of the gates and for the joints, so much bronze that it could not be weighed, ⁴ and cedar logs without number, for the Zidonians and the Tyrians brought an abundance of cedar logs to David.

⁵ David said, "Solomon my son is young and inexperienced and the House that is to be built for ADONAI must be exceedingly magnificent, famous, and glorious throughout all the nations. Therefore I will make preparation for it." So David made extensive preparations before his death.

⁶ Then He called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a House for ADONAI, the God of Israel. ⁷ David said to Solomon, "My son, I had it in my heart to build a House for the name of ADONAI my God. ⁸ But the word of ADONAI came to me, saying, 'You have shed much blood and fought many battles. You will not build a House for My Name because you have shed much blood before Me on the earth. ⁹ Behold, a son will be born to you who will be a man at rest. I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon and I will confer shalom and quietness on Israel in his days. ¹⁰ He will build a House for My name; he will be My son and I will be His Father. [†] I will establish his royal throne over Israel forever.'

¹¹ "Now, my son, may ADONAI be with you, and may you succeed in building the House of ADONAI your God as He spoke concerning you. ¹² Only may ADONAI give you insight and understanding when He gives you charge over Israel so that you may observe the Torah of ADONAI your God. ¹³ Then you will prosper, if you carefully observe the statutes and the ordinances that ADONAI commanded Moses concerning Israel. Chazak! And be courageous! Do not be afraid or dismayed.

¹⁴ "Now behold, with great pain I have provided for the House of ADONAI 100,000 talents of gold, a million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond weighing for there is so much of it. I have also prepared wood and stone, and you must add to them. ¹⁵ Moreover, you have an abundance of workmen: stonecutters, masons, carpenters, and every kind of craftsmen skilled in every kind of material— ¹⁶ in gold, silver, bronze, and iron—beyond number. Arise and work! May ADONAI be with you."

¹⁷ David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help Solomon his son, ¹⁸ "Is not ADONAI your God with you? Has He not given you rest on every side? For He has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand and the land is subdued before ADONAI and before His people. ¹⁹ Now set your hearts and souls to seek after ADONAI your God. Rise up and build the Sanctuary of ADONAI Elohim so that you can bring the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI and the holy vessels of God into the House built for the Name of ADONAI."

Census of Levites

23 When David was old and full of days, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.

² He also gathered together all the leaders of Israel along with the kohanim and the Levites. ³ The Levites 30 years old or more were counted; their head count was 38,000 men. ⁴ Of these, there were 24,000 to oversee the work of the House of ADONAI, 6,000 officers and judges, ⁵ 4,000 gatekeepers, and 4,000 for praising ADONAI "with the instruments which I made for giving praise."

⁶ David organized them into divisions:

The sons of Levi:
Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.

⁷ Of the Gershonites:

Ladan and Shimei.

⁸ The sons of Ladan:

Jehiel the leader, Zetham, and Joel—three.

⁹ The sons of Shimei:

Shelomith, Haziël, and Haran—three.

These were the heads of the clans of Ladan.

¹⁰ The sons of Shimei:

Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah.

These were the sons of Shimei—four.

¹¹ Jahath was the first and Zizah the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, so they were enrolled together as a single clan.

¹² The sons of Kohath:

Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel—four.

¹³ The sons of Amram:

Aaron and Moses.

Aaron, along with his descendants, was set apart to be consecrated as most holy forever, to burn incense before ADONAI, to minister to Him, and to bless in His name forever. ¹⁴ But as for Moses the man of God, his sons are named among the tribe of Levi.

¹⁵ The sons of Moses:

Gershom and Eliezer.

¹⁶ The sons of Gershom:

Shebuel, the leader.

¹⁷ The sons of Eliezer:

Rehabiah the chief. Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous.

¹⁸ The sons of Izhar:

Shelomith the leader.

¹⁹ The sons of Hebron:

Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth.

²⁰ The sons of Uzziel:

Micah the first and Isshiah the second.

²¹ The sons of Merari:

Mahli and Mushi.

The sons of Mahli:

† cf. Matt. 3:17; 17:5; Heb. 1:5.

Eleazar and Kish. ²² Eleazar died having no sons but only daughters; the sons of Kish, their kinsmen, took them as wives.

²³ The sons of Mushi:

Mahli, Eder, and Yeremot—three.

²⁴ These were the sons of Levi by clans, with the heads of clans as they were enrolled and with a list of their names by heads who carried out the task of avodah in the House of ADONAI from 20 years old and upward. ²⁵ For David said: " ADONAI, the God of Israel, has given His people rest and He dwells in Jerusalem forever. ²⁶ Therefore, the Levites need not carry the Tabernacle and all the vessels for avodah." ²⁷ For according to David's final instructions, the Levites 20 years old and upward were counted.

²⁸ For their duty was to help the descendants of Aaron in the avodah of ADONAI's House concerning the courtyards and rooms, the purification of all holy things and the performance of the avodah of God's House, ²⁹ the rows of bread, the fine flour for the grain offering, the matzot, the cake baked on the griddle or mixed, and every measure of capacity and length, ³⁰ and to stand every morning to thank and praise ADONAI. They also did this in the evening ³¹ and whenever burnt offerings were offered to ADONAI on Shabbatot, New Moons, and the moadim. They were to serve regularly before ADONAI, according to the proper number in the manner prescribed for them. ³² They were to keep watch over the Tent of Meeting, the Holy Place, and the sons of Aaron their kinsmen for avodah in the House of ADONAI.

24 Now these were the divisions of the sons of Aaron.

The sons of Aaron were Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. ² But Nadab and Abihu died before their father and had no children, so Eleazar and Ithamar served as kohanim. ³ David, with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them into their offices according to their avodah. ⁴ More leading men were found among the sons of Eleazar than among the sons of Ithamar, so they divided them: the sons of Eleazar had 16 leaders of clans and the sons of Ithamar had eight leaders of clans. ⁵ Thus, they were impartially divided by lot for there were officials of the Holy Place and officials of God, both from the sons of Eleazar and from the sons of Ithamar.

⁷ Now the first lot came for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah, ⁸ the third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim, ⁹ the fifth for Malchijah, the sixth for Mijamin, ¹⁰ the seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for Abijah, ¹¹ the ninth for Jeshua, the tenth for Shecaniah, ¹² the eleventh for Eliashib, the twelfth for Jakim, ¹³ the thirteenth for Huppah, the fourteenth for Heshbeab, ¹⁴ the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer, ¹⁵ the seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for Hapizzez, ¹⁶ the nineteenth for Petahiah the twentieth for Jehezkel, ¹⁷ the twenty-first for Jachin, the twenty-second for Gamul, ¹⁸ the twenty-third for Delaiah, the twenty-fourth for Maaziah.

¹⁹ These were their duties for their avodah upon entering into the House of ADONAI according to the ordinance given to them by the hand of Aaron their father, just as ADONAI the God of Israel had commanded him.

²⁰ As for the rest of the sons of Levi:

from the sons of Amram: Shubael;

from the sons of Shubael: Jehdeiah.

²¹ As for Rehabiah, from the sons of Rehabiah Isshiah was the first.

²² From the Izharites: Shelomoth; from the sons of Shelomoth: Jahath.

²³ The sons of Hebron: Jeriah, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.

²⁴ The sons of Uzziel: Micah;

from the sons of Micah: Shamir.

²⁵ The brother of Micah, Ishiah;

from the sons of Ishiah: Zechariah.

²⁶ The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi;

the sons of Jaaziah: Beno.

²⁷ The sons of Merari:

from Jaaziah: Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri.

²⁸ From Mahli:

Eleazar, who had no sons.

²⁹ From Kish, the sons of Kish: Jerahmeel.

³⁰ The sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth.

These were the sons of the Levites by their clans.

³¹ These also cast lots even as their kinsmen the sons of Aaron did in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of the clans of the kohanim and the Levites—the families of the oldest just like those of his youngest brother.

Orders of Prophetic Levites

25 Moreover, David and the commanders of the army, set apart for avodah the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun who prophesied with lyres, harps, and cymbals. The list of those who performed this work according to their service was: ² from the sons of Asaph:

Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph were under the supervision of Asaph, who prophesied under the hand of the king.

³ As for Jeduthun, from Jeduthun's sons:

Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah—six, under the charge of their father Jeduthun—who prophesied with the harp, giving thanks and praise to ADONAI.

⁴ As for Heman, from Heman's sons:

Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Haniah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. ⁵ All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer according to the promise of God to lift up a horn. God gave Heman 14 sons and three daughters.

⁹ Now the first lot went to Asaph's son Joseph—12 the second to Gedaliah, his brothers and sons—12; ¹⁰ the third to Zaccur, his sons and his brothers—12; ¹¹ the fourth to Izri, his sons and his brothers—12; ¹² the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers—12; ¹³ the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers—12; ¹⁴ the seventh to Jesarelah, his sons and his brothers—12; ¹⁵ the eighth to Jeshaiiah, his sons and his brothers—12; ¹⁶ the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers—12; ¹⁷ the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his brothers—12; ¹⁸ the 11 to Azarel, his sons and his brothers—12; ¹⁹ the 12 to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers—12; ²⁰ the 13 to Shubael, his sons and his brothers—12; ²¹ the 14 to Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers—12; ²² the 15 to Jeremoth, his sons and his brothers—12; ²³ the 16 to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers—12; ²⁴ the 17 to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers—12; ²⁵ the 18 to Hanani, his sons and his brothers—12; ²⁶ the 19 to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers—12; ²⁷ the 20 to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers—12; ²⁸ the 21 to Hothir, his sons and his brothers—12; ²⁹ the 22 to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers—12; ³⁰ the 23 to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers—12; ³¹ the 24 to Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brothers—12.

Gatekeepers and Treasurers

26 The divisions of the gatekeepers: of the Korahites: Meshelemiah son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph.

² Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the firstborn, Jediael the second, Zebadiah the third, Jathniel the fourth, ³ Elam the fifth, Jehohanan the sixth, and Eliehoenai the seventh.

⁴ Obed-Edom had sons: Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, Sacar the fourth, Nethanel the fifth, ⁵ Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, and Peullethai the eighth, (for God had blessed him).

⁶ To his son Shemaiah were born sons who were leaders of their clans, for they were men of great ability. ⁷ The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad. His brothers Elihu and Semachiah were also valiant men. ⁸ All these were descendants of Obed-Edom. They and their sons and their kinsmen were capable men with the strength to do the work—62 of Obed-Edom.

⁹ Meshelemiah had sons and brothers—18 able men.

¹⁰ Also Hosah, a descendant of Merari, had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father made him the first), ¹¹ Hilkiyah the second, Tebaliah the third, and Zechariah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Hosah were 13.

¹² These divisions of the gatekeepers by their chief men had duties corresponding to their kinsmen for avodah in the House of ADONAI. ¹³ So they cast lots, small and great alike, by clans for each gate.

Guard corresponded to guard. ¹⁷ There were six Levites on the east, four a day on the north, four a day on the south, and at the storehouse by pairs. ¹⁸ At the colonnade on the west, there were four on the road and two at the colonnade itself. ¹⁹ These were the divisions of the gatekeepers of the sons of Korah and the sons of Merari.

²⁰ And the Levites: Ahijah was over the treasuries of the House of God and the treasuries of the dedicated things. ²¹ The descendants of Ladan who were sons of Gershon through Ladan and were chiefs of the clans of Ladan the Gershonite were Jehieli, ²² the sons of Jehieli, Zetham, and Joel his brother. They were over the treasuries of the House of ADONAI.

²³ Of the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites, the Uzzielites:

²⁴ Shebuel son of Gershom son of Moses was officer over the treasuries. ²⁵ His relatives through Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiiah his son, Joram his son, Zichri his son, and Shelomith his son.

²⁶ This Shelomith and his kinsmen were over all the treasuries of the dedicated things that King David and the chiefs of the clans and the commanders over thousands and hundreds, and other army commanders had dedicated. ²⁷ They dedicated some of the plunder taken in battles to maintain the House of ADONAI. ²⁸ All that Samuel the seer, Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner, and Joab son of Zeruiah had dedicated, and any other dedicated thing was in the care of Shelomith and his relatives.

²⁹ Of the Izharites: Henaniah and his sons were assigned outside duties as officers and judges over Israel.

³⁰ Of the Hebronites: Hashabiah and his brothers, 1,700 capable men, had oversight of Israel west of the Jordan for all the work of ADONAI and for the king's service. ³¹ As for the Hebronites: Jerijah was the chief of the Hebronites according to the genealogical records of their families. In the fortieth year of David's reign a search was made and found in them were valiant men in Jazer of Gilead. ³² His relatives, 2,700 men of valor, were heads of clans whom King David had appointed over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh in every matter pertaining to God and the affairs of the king.

David's Officers

27 The number of Bnei-Yisrael—heads of clans, officers of thousands and hundreds, and their officers who served the king in all matters of the divisions that came in and went out month by month throughout the year—each division had 24,000.

² Over the first division, for the first month, was Jashobeam son of Zabdiel. His division had 24,000.

³ He was a descendant of Perez, the head of all the officers of the army for the first month.

⁴ Over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite. Mikloth was the chief officer and his division consisted of 24,000.

⁵ The third army commander, for the third month, was Benaiah son of Jehoiada the kohen. He was leader of his division, which consisted of 24,000. ⁶ This was Benaiah, who was a mighty man of the 30 and had charge over the 30. Ammizabad his son was over his division.

⁷ The fourth commander, for the fourth month, was Asahel brother of Joab. Zebadiah, his son, succeeded him. His division consisted of 24,000.

⁸ The fifth commander, for the fifth month, was Shamhuth the Izrahite. His division consisted of 24,000.

⁹ The sixth commander, for the sixth month, was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹⁰ The seventh commander, for the seventh month, was Heletz the Pelonite, from the children of Ephraim. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹¹ The eighth commander, for the eighth month, was Sibbc'ai the Hushathite from the Zerahites. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹² The ninth commander, for the ninth month, was Abiezer the Anathotite, of the Benjamites. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹³ The tenth commander, for the tenth month, was Maharai the Netophathite of the Zerahites. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹⁴ The eleventh commander, for the eleventh month, was Benaiah the Pirathonite a descendant of Ephraim. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹⁵ The twelfth commander, for the twelfth month, was Heldai the Netophathite of Othniel. His division consisted of 24,000.

¹⁶ Furthermore, over the tribes of Israel: of the Reubenites: Eliezer son of Zichri was the chief officer; of the Simeonites: Shephatiah son of Maacah;

¹⁷ of Levi: Hashabiah son of Kemuel;

of Aaron: Zadok;

¹⁸ of Judah: Elihu, one of David's brothers;

of Issachar: Omri son of Michael;

¹⁹ of Zebulun: Ishmaiah son of Obadiah;

of Naphtali: Jerimoth son of Azriel;

²⁰ of the children of Ephraim: Hoshea son of Azaziah; of the half-tribe of Manasseh: Joel son of Pedaiah;

²¹ of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead: Iddo son of Zechariah; of Benjamin: Jaasiel son of Abner;

²² of Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham.

These were the officers of the tribes of Israel.

²³ But David did not count those 20 years old and under, because ADONAI had said He would multiply Israel as the stars of heaven. ²⁴ Joab the son of Zeruiah began to count them, but did not finish. Wrath came upon Israel for this and the number was not entered into the account in the chronicles of King David.

²⁵ Over the king's storehouses: Azmaveth son of Adiel.

Over the storehouses in the fields, in the cities, in the villages, and in the citadels: Jonathan son of Uziah;

²⁶ over the field laborers for tilling the ground: Ezri the son of Chelub;

²⁷ over the vineyards: Shimei the Ramathite; over the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars: Zabdi the Shiphmite;

²⁸ over the olive trees and the sycamore trees in the lowland: Baal-Hanan the Gederite; over the cellars of oil: Joash;

²⁹ over the cattle grazing in Sharon: Shirtai the Sharonite; over the cattle grazing in the valleys: Shaphat son of Adlai;

³⁰ over the camels: Obil the Ishmaelite;

over the donkeys: Jehdeiah the Meronothite;

³¹ and over the flocks: Jaziz the Hagrite.

All these were stewards over the property of King David.

³² Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, learned man, and scribe. Jehiel son of Hachmoni tutored the king's sons. ³³ Ahithophel was the king's counselor. Hushai the Arkite was the king's friend. ³⁴ Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada son of Benaiah and by Abiatar. Joab was the commander of the king's army.

Men and Materials

28 Now David assembled all the leaders of Israel in Jerusalem—the tribal officers, the commanders of the divisions that served the king, the commanders of thousands, and the commanders of hundreds, and the stewards over all the property and livestock of the king and of his sons, along with the high officials, the mighty warriors and all the men of valor.

² Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Listen to me, my brothers and my people! As for me, it was in my heart to build a resting place for the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI and for the footstool of our God. So I made the preparations for the building. ³ But God said to me, 'You will not build a House for My name because you are a man of war and have shed blood.'

⁴ Yet ADONAI, the God of Israel, has chosen me out of all my ancestral house to be king over Israel forever. For He chose Judah as ruler, and of the house of Judah, my father's house, and of my father's sons, He took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel. ⁵ Moreover, of all my sons—for ADONAI has given me many sons—He has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the kingdom of ADONAI over Israel.

⁶ "He said to me, 'Solomon your son will build My House and My courts for I have chosen him to be a son to Me and I will be a father to him. ⁷ I will establish his kingdom forever, if he resolutely observes My mitzvot and My ordinances as at this day.' ⁸ Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of ADONAI and in the hearing of our God, observe and seek all the mitzvot of ADONAI your God so that you may possess this good land and may bequeath it to your children after you forever.

⁹ "Now you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve Him with a whole heart and with a willing mind; for ADONAI searches all hearts and understands every intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will reject you forever. ¹⁰ Consider now, for ADONAI has chosen you to build a House for the Sanctuary. Chazak! And do it!"

¹¹ Then David gave Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, its houses, its storerooms, its upper rooms, its inner rooms, and the place of atonement; ¹² and the plan of all that he had by the Ruach for the courts of the House of ADONAI and all the surrounding rooms, for the storehouses of the House of God and for the treasuries of the dedicated things; ¹³ also for the divisions of the kohanim and the Levites, for all the tasks of the avodah of the House of ADONAI, and for all the vessels of avodah in the House of ADONAI. ¹⁴ For gold, the weight of gold for all vessels of every kind of avo- dah, and silver, the weight of silver for all vessels for every type of avodah; ¹⁵ and the weight for the gold menorot and their gold lamps, including the weight of each menorah and its lamps, for the silver menorot, including the weight of each menorah and its lamps according to the use of each menorah; ¹⁶ also the weight of gold for the tables of the rows of bread, for every table, and silver for the silver tables; ¹⁷ and the forks, the basins, and the pitchers of pure gold, and for the golden bowls with the weight for every bowl, and for the silver bowls with the weight for every bowl; ¹⁸ and for the altar of incense with the weight of refined gold; and gold for the form of the chariot—the cheruvim—that spread out their wings covering the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI.

¹⁹ "All this I put in writing is from the hand of ADONAI upon me as He gave me insight regarding the plan of all the works."

²⁰ Also David said to his son Solomon: " Chazak! And be courageous, and do it! Do not be afraid or dismayed, for ADONAI Elohim my God is with you. He will not fail you or forsake you until all the work for the avodah of the House of ADONAI is finished. ²¹ Now behold, here are the divisions of the kohanim and the Levites for all the avodah of the House of God, and with you in all the work are willing men, skilled in all types of tasks. Also the officials and all the people are at your command."

David Commissions His Son

29 Then King David said to the entire assembly: "My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is young and inexperienced and the task is great, for the palace is not for man but for ADONAI Elohim. ² Now I have made every effort to prepare for the House of my God gold for the golden objects, silver for silver, copper for copper, iron for iron, and wood for wood; onyx stones and inlay stones, stones of anti-mony and varigated colors—every kind of precious stones and marble in abundance. ³ Moreover, in my devotion to the House of my God, I have given over my private treasure of gold and silver to the House of my God, in addition to all that I have already supplied for the holy House: ⁴ 3,000 gold talents of gold from Ophir, and 7,000 talents of refined silver to overlay the walls of the houses— ⁵ gold for golden objects and silver for silver for all the work—into the hands of craftsmen. Who then will offer willingly, consecrating himself this day to ADONAI?"

⁶ Then the leaders of the clans, the officials of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and hundreds and the supervisors over the king's work contributed willingly. ⁷ They gave for the service of the House of God: 5,000 talents and 10,000 darics of gold, 10,000 talents of silver, 18,000 talents of bronze, and 100,000 talents of iron. ⁸ Whoever possessed stones gave them to the treasury of the House of ADONAI in the care of Jehiel the Gershonite. ⁹ Then the people rejoined over their freewill offerings because with a whole heart they offered willingly to ADONAI. King David also rejoiced with great joy.

¹⁰ David blessed ADONAI before the whole congregation saying,

"Blessed are You, ADONAI,
God of Israel our father,
from eternity to eternity!

¹¹ Yours, ADONAI, is the greatness, the power and the splendor, and the victory, and the majesty, indeed everything in heaven and earth.

Yours is the kingdom, ADONAI and You are exalted above all.

¹² Both riches and honor come from You.
You rule over everything.

In Your hand is power and might,
in Your hand, to magnify and give strength to all.

¹³ Now, our God, we give you thanks and praise Your glorious Name.

¹⁴ "But who am I and who are my people that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For everything comes from You, and from Your hand we have given to You. ¹⁵ For we are sojourners before You, mere transients like our fathers. Our days on the earth are like a shadow, without security. ¹⁶ ADONAI Eloheinu, all this abundance that we have laid aside to build You a House for Your holy Name is from Your hand; it all belongs to You. ¹⁷ I know, my God, that You search the heart and take pleasure in uprightness. With integrity of heart I have willingly offered all these things. And now I have seen with joy Your people who are present here willingly contribute to You. ¹⁸ ADONAI, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel our fathers, preserve forever such motives and thoughts in the heart of Your people and make their heart constant toward You. ¹⁹ As for my son Solomon, give him a whole heart to keep Your mitzvot, Your decrees, and Your statutes, and to fulfill them all and to build the Temple for which I have made provision."

²⁰ Then David said to the whole congregation, "Now bless ADONAI your God."

So the whole congregation blessed ADONAI, the God of their fathers. They bowed down and fell prostrate before ADONAI and the king.

Solomon Acclaimed King

²¹ The next day, they sacrificed sacrifices to ADONAI and offered burnt offerings to ADONAI; 1,000 bulls, 1,000 rams, and 1,000 lambs, along with their drink offerings and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel. ²² So they ate and drank before ADONAI on that day with great joy.

Then they designated Solomon the son of David as king a second time, anointing him before ADONAI as ruler and Zadok as kohen. ²³ So Solomon sat on the throne of ADONAI as king instead of his father David. He prospered and all Israel obeyed him. ²⁴ All the officials and mighty men, as well as all the sons of King David, pledged their hand in support of King Solomon. ²⁵ ADONAI highly exalted Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had never been on any king before him in Israel.

²⁶ Now David son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. ²⁷ The length of his reign over Israel was 40 years. He reigned in Hebron seven years and he reigned in Jerusalem 33 years. ²⁸ He died at a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor, and his son Solomon became king in his place.

²⁹ Now the acts of King David, the first and the last, behold, are written in the chronicles of Samuel the seer, in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the chronicles of Gad the seer ³⁰ together with all his reign, his power, and the events that involved him, Israel, and all the kingdoms of the lands.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom at Gibeon

¹ Now Solomon the son of David firmly established himself over his kingdom. For ADONAI his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.

² Solomon spoke to all Israel—to the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges and to every leader in all Israel, the leading patriarchs—³ and Solomon and the whole assembly with him went to the high place that was at Gibeon, for the Tent of Meeting of God was there, which Moses the servant of ADONAI had made in the wilderness. ⁴ Now David had brought up the Ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to the place that David had prepared for it because he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem. ⁵ But the bronze altar that Bezalel son of Uri son of Hur had made was there in front of the Tabernacle of ADONAI, and Solomon and the assembly inquired of Him there. ⁶ So Solomon went up before ADONAI to the bronze altar that was at the Tent of Meeting and offered 1,000 burnt offerings on it.

⁷ That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him, "Ask! What should I give you?"

⁸ Solomon answered God, "You have shown great lovingkindness to my father David and now You have made me king in his place. ⁹ Now, ADONAI Elohim, let Your word to my father David be fulfilled for You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth. ¹⁰ Now give me wisdom and knowledge that I may go out and come in before this people. For who can govern this great people of Yours?"

¹¹ Then God said to Solomon, "Since this was in your heart and you have not asked for riches, possessions or honor, nor for the life of those who hate you and have not even asked for long life but have asked for wisdom and knowledge for yourself—so you can govern My people over whom I have made you king—¹² wisdom and knowledge will be given to you. Moreover, I will give you riches, possessions, and honor, such as none of the kings who were before you ever had and none after you will have."

¹³ Then Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place that was at Gibeon, from in front of the Tent of Meeting. So he reigned over Israel.

Horses and Chariots from Egypt

¹⁴ Solomon accumulated chariots and horsemen. He had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horsemen, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. ¹⁵ The king made silver and gold as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars as plentiful as sycamores in the foothills. ¹⁶ Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Keve—the king's merchants purchased them from Keve at a price. ¹⁷ They imported a chariot from Egypt for 600 talents of silver and a horse for 150. So by the same means they were exported to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

Solomon Prepares to Build

¹⁸ (2:1) Then Solomon vowed to build a House for the Name of ADONAI, as well as a royal palace for himself.

² (2) Solomon recruited 70,000 men as carriers, 80,000 as stonecutters in the mountains and 3,600 supervisors over them.

² (3) Then Solomon sent word to Hiram the king of Tyre saying, "Deal with me as you did with my father David when you sent him cedars to build a house to dwell in. ³ (4) Behold, I am about to build a House for the Name of ADONAI my God and to dedicate it to Him for burning fragrant incense before Him, for regular arrangement of the Bread of the Presence, and for burnt offerings every morning and evening as well as on Shabbatot, New Moons, and moadim of ADONAI Eloheinu. Upon Israel this is forever.

⁴ (5) "The House that I am about to build will be great, because our God is greater than all the gods. ⁵ (6) But who is able to build Him a House, since the heavens, even the highest heavens, cannot contain Him? Who then am I that I should build Him a House—except to burn incense before Him?"

⁶ (7) "So now, send me a man skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, and in purple, crimson, and blue yarn, and experienced in engraving, to work in Judah and Jerusalem with the skilled men who are with me, whom my father David provided. ⁷ (8) Send me also cedar, evergreen, and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants are skilled in cutting timber in Lebanon. Indeed my servants will work with yours ⁸ (9) to prepare an abundance of timber for me, because the House that I am about to build will be large and magnificent. ⁹ (10) Now, behold, I will give to your servants, the woodsmen who cut the timber, 20,000 measures [†] of ground wheat, 20,000 measures of barley, 20,000 vats of wine and 20,000 vats ^{††} of oil.”

¹⁰ (11) Then King Hiram of Tyre, replied in a letter that he sent to Solomon, “Because ADONAI loves His people, He has made you king over them.” ¹¹ (12) Then Hiram continued, “Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth. He gave King David a wise son, endowed with insight and understanding, who will build a House for ADONAI and a royal house for himself. ¹² (13) So now I am sending Hiram-Abi—a skilled man endowed with understanding ¹³ (14) who is the son of a woman from the daughters of Dan and whose father was a man from Tyre—a man skilled to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood, in purple and blue, fine linen and crimson, and to engrave all kinds of engraving, and who can execute any design given to him. He will work with your skilled men and with the skilled men of my lord David your father. ¹⁴ (15) Now let my lord send to his servants the wheat and barley, the oil, and wine he has promised ¹⁵ (16) and we will cut as many logs from Lebanon as much as you need, and float them in rafts by sea to Jaffa. You can then take them up to Jerusalem.”

¹⁶ (17) Solomon counted all the foreign men in the land of Israel, like the census that his father David had taken, and 153,600 were found. ¹⁷ (18) He appointed 70,000 of them to carry loads, 80,000 to quarry stones in the mountains, and 3,600 overseers to supervise the people working.

Solomon Builds the Temple in Jerusalem

3 Then Solomon began to build the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah—where ADONAI appeared to his father David—at the place that David prepared on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. ² He began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign. ³ Now the foundation Solomon laid for the building of the House of God was 60 cubits long and 20 cubits wide, according to the old standard. ⁴ The porch in front of the House along its width was 20 cubits and its height was 120 cubits, and the inside was overlaid with pure gold. ⁵ He paneled the main hall with cypress wood, which he overlaid with fine gold and embossed on it palm trees and chains. ⁶ He adorned the House with precious stones and the gold he used was gold from Parvaim. ⁷ Furthermore He overlaid the beams, thresholds, walls, and doors of the House with gold and carved cheruvim on the walls.

⁸ He made the Holy of Holies, its length corresponding to the width of the House—20 cubits long and 20 cubits wide. He overlaid it with 600 talents of fine gold. ⁹ The weight of the nails was 50 shekels of gold. He also overlaid the upper rooms with gold. ¹⁰ Next he made two sculptured cheruvim in the Holy of Holies and overlaid them with gold. ¹¹ The wingspan of the cheruvim was 20 cubits. One wing of the first cheruv was five cubits long and touched the wall of the House, while the other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cheruv. ¹² Similarly, one wing of the second cheruv was five cubits long and touched the wall of the House, while the other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cheruv. ¹³ Thus the wingspan of these cheruvim was 20 cubits. They stood on their feet facing the main hall. ¹⁴ Furthermore, he made the veil of blue, purple, crimson yarn, and fine linen with cheruvim worked into it.

¹⁵ In the front of the House he made two pillars 35 cubits high, each with a capital on the top measuring five cubits. ¹⁶ He made interwoven chains for the inner Sanctuary and put them on top of the pillars. He also made 100 pomegranates and attached them to the chains. ¹⁷ He erected the pillars in front of the Temple, one to the south and the other to the north. The one to the south he named Jachin and the one to the north Boaz.

The Temple Furnishings

4 Moreover, he made a bronze altar 20 cubits long, 20 cubits wide and ten cubits high. ² He also made the Sea of cast metal ten cubits across from brim to brim, perfectly round. It was five cubits high and its circumference was 30 cubits.

³ Beneath it, figures like bulls were set all around it, ten cubits encircling the Sea. The bulls were in two rows, cast in one piece with it. ⁴ The Sea stood on 12 bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south, and three facing east. The Sea rested upon them and their hindquarters were all turned inward. ⁵ It was a handbreadth thick, and the brim was like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held 3,000 vats. ⁶ He also made ten basins for washing and placed five on the right side and five on the left. In them the items used for the burnt offering were rinsed, but the kohanim washed in “the Sea.”

⁹ Then he made the courtyard of the kohanim and the great courtyard and doors for the courtyard. He overlaid the doors with bronze. ¹⁰ He set the Sea on the south side at the southeast corner.

¹¹ Hiram-Abi also made the pots, the shovels and the bowls. So Hiram-Abi finished the work that he had undertaken for King Solomon in the House of God:

¹² the two pillars, the bowls and the two capitals on the top of the pillars, and the two latticeworks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, ¹³ and the 400 pomegranates for the two latticeworks (two rows of pomegranates for each latticework to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars). ¹⁴ He also made the stands, the basins upon the stands, ¹⁵ and the one Sea with the 12 bulls under it, ¹⁶ as well as the pots, the shovels, and the meat hooks. All the utensils Hiram-Abi made for King Solomon for the House of ADONAI were of polished bronze. ¹⁷ The king had them cast with clay earth from the Jordan Valley between Succoth and Zeredah. ¹⁸ Solomon made all these utensils in such great quantities that the weight of the bronze could not be determined.

¹⁹ Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in the House of God, including the golden altar, the tables on which was the Bread of Presence, ²⁰ the menorot with their lamps of pure gold to burn in front of the inner sanctuary as prescribed ²¹ with the flowers and the lamps and the tongs of gold, the purest gold, ²² and the snuffers, the bowls, the spoons, and the fire-pans of pure gold, and the doors of the House—the inner doors for the Holy of Holies and the doors of the House, that is, the Temple—were of gold.

⁵ When all the work that Solomon undertook for the House of ADONAI was finished, Solomon brought in the things David his father consecrated—the silver, gold, and all the furnishings—and put them in the treasuries of the House of God.

Consecration of the Temple

² Then Solomon gathered to Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes, and the patriarchal leaders of Bnei-Yisrael, in order to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI from the city of David, which is Zion. ³ All the men of Israel gathered together to the king at the feast that is in the seventh month.

⁴ So all the elders of Israel came and the Levites took up the Ark ⁵ and brought up the Ark and the Tent of Meeting along with all the sacred furnishings that were in the Tent. The Levitical kohanim brought them up. ⁶ Meanwhile, King Solomon and the entire congregation of Israel who gathered with him before the Ark, were sacrificing so many sheep and bulls that they could not be counted or numbered.

⁷ The kohanim brought in the Ark of the Covenant of ADONAI to its place, into the inner Sanctuary of the House, into the Holy of Holies under the wings of the cheruvim. ⁸ The cheruvim spread their wings over the place of the Ark so that the cheruvim covered the Ark and its poles from above. ⁹ Now the poles were so long that the ends of the poles extending from the Ark could be seen in front of the inner Sanctuary, though they could not be seen from outside; and they are there to this day. ¹⁰ There was nothing in the Ark except the two tablets that Moses had placed there at Horeb, where ADONAI made a covenant with Bnei-Yisrael when they came out of Egypt.

God's Glory Fills the Temple

¹¹ And it came to pass, when the kohanim came out of the Holy Place—for all the kohanim that were present had consecrated themselves, without regard to divisions— ¹² all the Levite singers—Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, their sons, and their relatives—dressed in fine linen with cymbals, harps, and lyres, were standing at the east end of the altar and with them were 120 kohanim blowing trumpets. ¹³ Then it came to pass that when the trumpeters and singers joined as one to extol and praise ADONAI, and when the sound of the trumpets, cymbals, and musical instruments and the praise of ADONAI—"For He is good, for His mercy endures forever"—grew louder, the Temple, the House of ADONAI, was filled with a cloud. ¹⁴ The kohanim could not stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of ADONAI filled the House of God.

ADONAI Has Chosen Jerusalem

⁶ Then Solomon declared, "ADONAI has said that He would dwell in the thick cloud; ² I have built You a magnificent House and a place for You to dwell forever."

³ Then, while all the congregation of Israel was standing the king turned his face and blessed the whole congregation of Israel. ⁴ He said: "Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, who with His hands has fulfilled what He spoke with His mouth to my father David, saying: ⁵ 'Since the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I did not choose a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a House that My Name might be there. Nor did I choose any man to be a leader over My people Israel. ⁶ But I have chosen Jerusalem that My Name would abide there and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel.'

⁸ But ADONAI said to David my father: 'As for you wanting in your heart to build a House for My Name, you did well that this was in your heart. ⁹ Nevertheless, you will not build the House. Rather your son who will be born to you, he will build the House for My Name.'

¹⁰ "Now ADONAI has confirmed His promise that He spoke. I have succeeded my father David and sit on the throne of Israel, just as ADONAI promised, and I have built the House for the Name of ADONAI, the God of Israel. ¹¹ There have I set the Ark in which is the Covenant of ADONAI that He made with Bnei-Yisrael."

Solomon's Prayer

¹² Then he stood before the altar of ADONAI in front of the entire congregation of Israel and spread forth his hands. ¹³ For Solomon had made a bronze platform, five cubits long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high and placed it in the midst of the court. He stood on it and knelt down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven ¹⁴ and he said,

" ADONAI, God of Israel, there is no God like You in the heavens or in the earth, keeping covenant and showing mercy to Your servants who walk before You with all their heart. ¹⁵ You have kept the promise You made to Your servant David, my father. Surely You spoke with Your mouth and have fulfilled it with Your hand—as it is today.

¹⁶ "Now therefore, ADONAI, God of Israel, keep for Your servant David, my father, that which You have promised him saying: " 'For you will never be cut off, you will not fail to have a man sit before Me on the throne—if only your sons pay attention to their way, to walk in My Torah as you have walked before Me.' †

¹⁷ "Now therefore, ADONAI God of Israel, let Your word, which You spoke to Your servant David, be confirmed.

¹⁸ "But will God indeed dwell with mankind on the earth? Behold—heaven even the highest heaven—cannot contain You. How much less this House that I have built! ¹⁹ Yet attend to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, ADONAI my God, to hear the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You ²⁰ that Your eyes may be open toward this House day and night, toward the place where You have said You would put Your Name there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant will pray toward this place. ²¹ Hear the supplications of Your servant and Your people Israel when they pray toward this place. Hear from Your dwelling place, from heaven, and when You hear, forgive.

²² "If a man sins against his neighbor and is required to swear an oath, and he comes and takes an oath before Your altar in this House, ²³ then hear from heaven and act. Judge Your servants, repaying the wicked by bringing down on his own head what he has done and vindicating the righteous by rewarding him according to his righteousness. ††

²⁴ "If Your people Israel are defeated before an enemy because they have sinned against You, yet when they return and confess Your Name, praying and making supplication before You in this House, ²⁵ then hear from heaven, forgive the sin of Your people Israel and bring them back to the land which You gave to them and to their fathers.

²⁶ "When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, if they pray toward this place and confess Your Name, turning from their sin because You afflicted them, ²⁷ then may You hear from heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel. Indeed, may You teach them the good way in which they should walk. Send rain upon Your land that You have given to Your people for an inheritance.

²⁸ "When there is famine in the land, when there is pestilence, blight, mildew, locust, or grasshopper, when their enemies besiege them in the land by their gates, whatever plague or sickness may come, ²⁹ and any prayer or plea is offered by any individual or by all Your people Israel—each acknowledging his own afflictions and pain, even spreading his hands toward this House— ³⁰ then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place and forgive. May You give to every man according to all his ways, as You know his heart—for You alone know the hearts of the children of men— ³¹ so that they will fear You and walk in Your ways all the days that they live in the land that You gave to our fathers.

³² "Moreover, concerning the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel but comes from a distant land for the sake of Your great Name and Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray toward this House, ³³ then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place and do whatever the foreigner asks of You. Then all the peoples of the earth will acknowledge Your Name and revere You, as Your people Israel do, and they will know that this House which I have built is called by Your Name.

³⁴ "When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, wherever You send them, and they pray to You toward this city that You have chosen and the House that I have built for Your Name, ³⁵ then hear from heaven their prayer and their petition, and uphold their cause.

³⁶ "When they sin against You—for there is no man that does not sin ‡—and You become angry with them and hand them over to the enemy who takes them captive to a land far off or near, ³⁷ when they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and they repent and seek You in the land of their captivity saying,

"We have sinned,
we have committed iniquity,
we have acted wickedly,"

³⁸ "and they return to You with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity where they were taken captive, and they pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers and the city which You have chosen and toward the House which I have built for Your Name, ³⁹ then may You hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, their prayer and their petitions and uphold their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You.

⁴⁰ "Now my God, I pray, let Your eyes be open, and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer made in this place.

† cf. Luke 1:32-33. †† cf. Matt. 16:23.

‡ cf. Rom. 3:10; Eph. 2:3; 1John 1:8-10.

⁴¹ "Now arise, ADONAI Elohim, to Your resting place, You and the Ark of Your might. May Your kohanim, ADONAI Elohim, be clothed with salvation, and may Your godly ones rejoice in goodness. ⁴² ADONAI Elohim, do not reject Your anointed one. Remember the loyalty of Your servant David."

Sukkot and Shemini Atzeret

7 Now when Solomon finished praying the fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of ADONAI filled the House. ² The kohanim could not even enter into the House of ADONAI because the glory of ADONAI filled the House of ADONAI. ³ When all Bnei-Yisrael saw the fire come down and the glory of ADONAI above the House, they bowed down on the pavement with their faces to the ground, prostrating themselves and praising ADONAI,

"For He is good and His mercy endures forever."

⁴ Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before ADONAI. ⁵ King Solomon offered a sacrifice of 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the House of God. ⁶ The kohanim stood at their posts, as did the Levites with the musical instruments of ADONAI that King David had made for praising ADONAI—"for His mercy endures forever"—whenever David offered praise by their hand. Opposite them were the kohanim who sounded trumpets while all Israel was standing.

⁷ Moreover, Solomon consecrated the middle of the courtyard that was before the House of ADONAI, because there he offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, since the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to contain the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the fat. ⁸ At that time, Solomon observed the feast for seven days and all Israel with him—a very great assembly from Lebo-Hamath to the Brook of Egypt.

⁹ On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly, for they had celebrated the dedication of the altar for seven days and the feast for seven days. ¹⁰ On the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that ADONAI had done for David, Solomon and Israel His people.

ADONAI's Promise to Solomon

¹¹ Thus Solomon finished the House of ADONAI and the king's palace. Indeed, all that Solomon had on his heart to accomplish in the House of ADONAI and in his own palace, he successfully completed.

¹² Then ADONAI appeared to Solomon at night and said to him: "I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for Myself for a House of sacrifice. ¹³ If I shut up heaven that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people, ¹⁴ when My people, over whom My Name is called, humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. ¹⁵ Now My eyes will be open and My ears attentive to the prayer offered in this place. ¹⁶ For now I have chosen and consecrated this House so that My Name may be there forever. My eyes and My heart shall be there perpetually.

¹⁷ "As for you, if you walk before Me as your father David walked, doing all that I have commanded you, keeping My statutes and My ordinances, ¹⁸ then I will establish your royal throne as I covenanted with your father David saying, 'You shall not lack a man to be ruler in Israel.' ¹⁹ But if you turn away and forsake My decrees and My mitzvot that I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them, ²⁰ then I will uproot them from My land which I gave them, and this House which I have consecrated for My Name I will cast out of My sight. I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. ²¹ As for this House, which is so exalted, every one passing by it shall be appalled and say, 'Why has ADONAI done this to this land and to this House?' ²² And they will answer, 'Because they have forsaken ADONAI, the God of their fathers who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and clung to other gods, worshiping and serving them. Therefore He has brought all this misery upon them.'"

Solomon's Exploits throughout the Land

8 It came to pass at the end of 20 years, during which Solomon built the House of ADONAI and his own palace, ² that he built the cities which Hiram had given to him and settled Bnei-Yisrael there. ³ Then Solomon marched against Hamath-Zobah and overpowered it. ⁴ He built up Tadmor in the wilderness and all the store cities that he built in Hamath. ⁵ He also built upper Beth-Horon and lower Beth-Horon as fortified cities with walls, gates and bars, ⁶ as well as Baalath and all his store cities, and cities for his chariots and cities for his horsemen—every thing that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the land that he ruled.

⁷ All the people that were left of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, who were not of Israel, ⁸ that is, those of their descendants that were left after them in the land, whom Bnei-Yisrael did not destroy—these Solomon conscripted for forced labor, as it is to this day. ⁹ But Solomon did not make slaves of Bnei-Yisrael for his work. Rather, they were his soldiers, his chief officers and commanders of his chariots and horsemen. ¹⁰ These were the chief officers of King Solomon, 250 who ruled over the people.

¹¹ Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the city of David to the house that he had built for her, for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the palace of King David of Israel, because the places where the Ark of ADONAI has entered are holy."

¹² At that time, Solomon offered burnt offerings to ADONAI on the altar of ADONAI which he had built before the porch, ¹³ according to the daily requirement for offerings commanded by Moses for Shabbatot, for New Moons, and for the moadim three times a year—at the Feast of Matzot, at the Feast of Shavuot, and at the Feast of Sukkot. ¹⁴ Following the ordinance of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the kohanim for their avodah and the Levites for their duties—to praise and minister alongside the kohanim according to the daily assignment—and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate, because this is what David the man of God had commanded. ¹⁵ They did not depart from the king's commandment to the kohanim and Levites in any matter, including the treasures.

¹⁶ Thus all Solomon's work was carried out from the day of the foundation of the House of ADONAI until it was finished. So the House of ADONAI was completed.

¹⁷ Then Solomon went to Ezion-Geber and to Elat on the coast of the land of Edom. ¹⁸ And Hiram sent him ships commanded by his servants and servants that knew the sea. They went with Solomon's servants to Ophir and obtained from there 450 talents of gold and brought them to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Jerusalem

9 When the queen of Sheba heard of Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test Solomon with hard questions. [†] Accompanied by a large caravan train, including camels carrying an abundance of spices and gold, and precious stones, she came to Solomon and spoke with him about all that was in her heart. ² Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was hidden from Solomon which he did not explain to her.

³ When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the palace he had built, ⁴ as well as the food on his table, the seating of his courtiers, the service and attire of his attendants, his cupbearers and their attire, and his procession with which he went up to the House of ADONAI, it took her breath away.

⁵ She said to the king: "The report that I heard in my own land about your achievements and your wisdom is true. ⁶ But I did not believe their reports until I came and saw with my own eyes. And behold, not even half of the greatness of your wisdom was described to me—you surpass the report that I heard! ⁷ How blessed are your men, how blessed are your courtiers who continually stand in your presence and hear your wisdom. ⁸ Blessed be ADONAI your God who delighted in you, setting you on His throne as king before ADONAI your God. Because your God loved Israel, establishing them forever, He made you king over them to execute justice and righteousness."

⁹ Then she gave the king 120 gold talents, large quantities of spices, and precious stones. There had never been such quantities of spices as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon. ¹⁰ The servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon who brought gold from Ophir also brought al gumwood and precious stones. ¹¹ From the sandalwood the king made ramps for the House of ADONAI and for the royal palace, and lyres and harps for the singers—nothing like them had ever been seen before in the land of Judah. ¹² King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for—more than what she had brought to the king. Then she with her courtiers, returned, going back to her own land.

Solomon Exceeds All the Earth's Kings

¹³ Now the weight of gold that Solomon received in one year was 666 gold talents, ¹⁴ besides what the traders and merchants brought and the gold and silver that all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the region brought to Solomon. ¹⁵ King Solomon made 200 shields of beaten gold, 600 shekels of beaten gold for each shield, ¹⁶ and also 300 shields of beaten gold, 300 shekels of gold for each shield. The king put them in the palace of the Lebanon Forest. ¹⁷ Furthermore, the king made a large ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold. ¹⁸ The throne had six steps and a golden footstool attached to it, and arms on each side of the seat. Two lions stood beside the arms ¹⁹ and 12 lions stood on the six steps, one at each end of each step. None like it was ever made for any kingdom. ²⁰ All King Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold and all the vessels of the palace of the Lebanon Forest were of pure gold—silver was not considered valuable in the days of Solomon. ²¹ Because the king's ships sailed to Tarshish with Hiram's servants once every three years, the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold, silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

²⁷ The king made silver as plentiful in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars as plentiful as the sycamore trees that are in the foothills. ²⁸ Horses were brought for Solomon from Egypt and from all countries.

[†] cf. Matt. 13:43; Luke 11:31.

Solomon Buried in David's City

²⁹ Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, the beginning and the end, are they not written in the chronicles of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Jedo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? ³⁰ Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel 40 years. ³¹ Then Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David, and Rehoboam his son became king in his place.

The Revolt against Rehoboam at Shechem

10 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. ² Now it came to pass that when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard this—for he was in Egypt where he had fled from King Solomon—Jeroboam returned from Egypt. ³ So they sent and summoned him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came to Rehoboam and spoke to Rehoboam saying, ⁴ “Your father made our yoke grievous but now lighten the harsh labor of your father and his heavy yoke that he put on us—then we will serve you.”

⁵ He answered them, “Come back to me in three days.” So the people departed.

⁶ Then King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had served his father Solomon while he was alive, saying, “How do you advise me to answer this people?”

⁷ They answered him saying, “If you will be kind to this people and please them and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.”

⁸ But he disregarded the counsel that the elders had given him and consulted with the young men who grew up with him and served him. ⁹ He said to them, “How do you advise me to answer this people who have spoken to me saying, ‘Lighten the yoke that your father put on us?’”

¹⁰ The young men that grew up with him answered him saying: “Speak thus to the people who spoke to you saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, now you make it lighter for us’. Thus shall you say to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s loins. ¹¹ Now, whereas my father laid a heavy yoke on you, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will do so with scorpions.’”

¹² Then Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam on the third day as the king had said to them saying, “Come back to me on the third day.” ¹³ The king answered them harshly. King Rehoboam ignored the counsel of the elders ¹⁴ and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men saying, “I will make your yoke heavy—I will make it even heavier. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with scorpions.”

¹⁵ So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from God so that ADONAI might establish His word that He had spoken through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

¹⁶ When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king saying, “What portion do we have in David?”

We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse!

To your tents, O Israel!

Now look after your own house, David!”

So all Israel departed to their tents. ¹⁷ But Rehoboam continued to reign over Bnei-Yisrael who lived in the cities of Judah. ¹⁸ Then King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the forced labor, but men of Israel pelted him to death with stones. King Rehoboam, however, managed to mount his chariot and to flee to Jerusalem. ¹⁹ So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

11 Now when Rehoboam arrived at Jerusalem, he assembled the House of Judah and Benjamin, 180,000 chosen men who were warriors, to fight against Israel in order to restore the kingdom back to Rehoboam.

² But the word of ADONAI came to Shemaiah the man of God saying: ³ “Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin saying, ⁴ ‘Thus says ADONAI, You shall not go up nor fight against your kinsmen. Let everyone return to his house for this matter is of Me.’” So they listened to the words of ADONAI and returned from marching against Jeroboam.

Reign of Rehoboam

⁵ Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built fortified cities for defense in Judah.

¹³ Moreover, the kohanim and the Levites from all their territories throughout Israel presented themselves to him. ¹⁴ The Levites even abandoned their pastures and their possessions and came to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them as kohanim to ADONAI, ¹⁵ and had appointed his own priests for the high places, for the he-goats and for the calves that he had made. ¹⁶ Those from all the tribes of Israel, who had set their hearts to seek ADONAI, followed the Levites to Jerusalem to sacrifice to ADONAI, the God of their fathers. ¹⁷ So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam the son of Solomon for three years, for they walked in the way of David and Solomon for three years.

¹⁸ Rehoboam married Mahalat the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse. ¹⁹ She bore him sons: Jeush and Shemariah and Zaham. ²⁰ After her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom and she bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza, and Shelomith. ²¹ Now Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom more than all his wives and concubines—for he took 18 wives and 60 concubines and fathered 28 sons and 60 daughters.

²² Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah as chief and commander among his brothers, for he intended to make him king. ²³ He also wisely dispersed some of his sons throughout the territories of Judah and Benjamin to all the fortified cities and he gave them plenty of food and sought many wives for them.

Shishak Attacks Jerusalem

12 Now it came to pass, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established and he had become strong, that he and all Israel with him forsook the Torah of ADONAI. ² It so happened that in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, King Shishak of Egypt marched against Jerusalem—because they had been unfaithful to ADONAI—³ with 1,200 chariots, 60,000 horsemen, and innumerable troops that came with him from Egypt: Lybians, Sukkites, and Cushites. ⁴ He captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.

⁵ Then Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the officers of Judah who had gathered in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, “Thus says ADONAI:

“You have abandoned Me—so I also have abandoned you into the hand of Shishak.”

⁶ Then the officers of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, “ADONAI is just.”

⁷ But when ADONAI saw that they humbled themselves, the word of ADONAI came to Shemaiah saying: “Since they have humbled themselves, I will not destroy them but grant them some measure of deliverance, and My wrath will not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. ⁸ However, they will become subjects to him so that they may learn the difference between serving Me and serving the kings of the earth.”

⁹ So Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem and took away the treasures of the House of ADONAI and the treasures of the king’s palace. He took away everything; he even took away the golden shields that Solomon had made. ¹⁰ So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and entrusted them to the hands of the captains of the royal guard that guarded the entrance to the royal palace. ¹¹ Whenever the king entered into the House of ADONAI, the guards would carry them and then bring them back into the guard chamber. ¹² Because Rehoboam humbled himself, the anger of ADONAI turned from him and He did not destroy him completely. Indeed there were good things in Judah.

¹³ So King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and reigned as king. Rehoboam was 41 years old when he began to reign and he reigned 17 years in Jerusalem—the city that ADONAI had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put His Name there. His mother’s name was Naamah, the Ammonite. ¹⁴ But he did evil because he had not set his heart to seek ADONAI.

¹⁵ Now the acts of Rehoboam, from beginning to end, are they not written in the chronicles of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer for genealogies? There were continuous wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. ¹⁶ Then Rehoboam slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. Then his son Abijah became king in his place.

Abijah’s Bold Speech

13 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah began to reign over Judah. ² He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Micaiah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah.

There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ³ Abijah went into battle with an army of valiant warriors, 400,000 chosen men, while Jeroboam arranged for battle against him 800,000 chosen men, mighty warriors.

⁴ Abijah stood on top of Mount Zemaraim, which is a hill of Ephraim, and said, “Listen to me Jeroboam and all Israel! ⁵ Don’t you know that ADONAI, God of Israel, has given kingship over Israel to David forever—to him and his sons by a covenant of salt? ⁶ Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon son of David, rose up and rebelled against his master. ⁷ Riffraff and scoundrels gathered around him and pressed hard on Rehoboam son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted and could not stand up to them.

⁸ “So now, do you intend to oppose the kingdom of ADONAI, which is in the hand of David’s descendants? Are you indeed a great multitude—and with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made for you as gods? ⁹ Have you not banished the kohanim of ADONAI, the sons of Aaron, as well as the Levites, and then appointed your own priests—just as the peoples of the lands do? Can whoever comes to consecrate himself with a bull from a young cow and seven rams become a priest—for gods of nothing?

¹⁰ “But as for us, ADONAI is our God! And we have not forsaken Him. We have the sons of Aaron ministering as kohanim to ADONAI and the Levites in their work.

¹¹ Every morning and evening they burn to ADONAI burnt offerings and sweet incense. They set the rows of bread on the pure table and they light the golden menorah with its lamps burning every evening—for we keep the service of ADONAI Eloheinu—but you have forsaken Him. ¹² So look, God is with us at our head, and His kohanim with the signal trumpets to sound an alarm against you. O men of Israel, do not fight against ADONAI, the God of your fathers—for you will not succeed!”

¹³ But Jeroboam had commanded the ambush to go around and come from the rear. So while they were in front of Judah, the ambush was behind them. ¹⁴ When Judah turned around, behold, the battle was before and behind them. They cried out to ADONAI and the kohanim blew the trumpets. ¹⁵ Then the men of Judah raised a battle cry, and as the men of Judah shouted, God struck down Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶ Then men of Israel fled before Judah and God delivered them into their hand. ¹⁷ So Abijah and his people defeated them with a great slaughter, and 500,000 chosen men of Israel fell slain. ¹⁸ Thus men of Israel were subdued at that time, while the children of Judah prevailed—because they relied upon ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

²¹ But Abijah grew powerful and took to himself 14 wives and fathered 22 sons and 16 daughters. ²² Now the rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways and his sayings, are written in the chronicles of the prophet Iddo. ²³ (14:1) Then Abijah slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. His son Asa became king in his place. During his days the land was untroubled for ten years.

Asa's Reforms Bring ADONAI's Rest

14 (2) Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of ADONAI his God. ² (3) He removed the foreign altars and the high places, smashed the pillars and cut down the Asherah poles. ³ (4) He commanded Judah to seek ADONAI, the God of their fathers, and to obey the Torah and the mitzvah. ⁴ (5) He also removed the high places and the incense stands out of all the cities of Judah. So the kingdom remained untroubled under him. ⁵ (6) He built up fortified cities in Judah, for the land was untroubled and he was not engaged in warfare during those years because ADONAI had given him rest.

⁶ (7) Then he said to Judah, “Let us build these cities and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is still ours because we have sought ADONAI Eloheinu. We sought Him and He has given us rest all around.” So they built and were successful.

Appeal to Defeat the Cushites

⁷ (8) Now Asa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah who bore shields and spears and 280,000 from Benjamin who bore shields and drew bows. All of these were valiant warriors.

¹⁰ (11) Then Asa cried to ADONAI his God and said, “ADONAI, there is no one like You to help in battle between the mighty and the powerless. Help us, ADONAI Eloheinu, for we rely on You and in Your Name we have come against this multitude. You are ADONAI Eloheinu! Let no man prevail against You.”

¹¹ (12) So ADONAI struck down the Cushites before Asa and before Judah. The Cushites fled ¹² (13) and Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. So many of the Cushites fell that they could not recover because they were shattered before ADONAI and before His army. They carried away very much spoil. ¹³ (14) They destroyed all the cities around Gerar, for the terror from ADONAI came on them. They plundered all the cities, for there was much spoil in them. ¹⁴ (15) They also attacked the tents of herdsmen and carried off many sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

Prophets Encourage Further Reforms

15 The Ruach Elohim came upon Azariah the son of Oded. ² He went out to meet Asa, and said to him, “Listen to me Asa, all Judah and Benjamin. ADONAI is with you as long as you are with Him. If you seek Him, He will be found by you. But if you forsake Him, He will spurn you. ³ For many days Israel was without the true God, without a teaching kohen and without Torah. ⁴ But in their distress they turned to ADONAI, the God of Israel, and sought Him, and He was found by them. ⁵ In those times there was no shalom for anyone coming or going, for there were many conflicts among all the inhabitants of the lands. ⁶ Nation was crushed by nation and city by city, for God troubled them with every kind of distress. ⁷ But you, chazak! Do not let your hands be slack for there is reward for your labor.”

⁸ When Asa heard these words as well as the prophecy of the prophet Oded, he took courage and removed the abominations from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns that he had seized in the hill country of Ephraim. He also repaired ADONAI's altar that was in front of ADONAI's entryway. ⁹ He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, as well as those dwelling with them from Ephraim, Manasseh, and Simeon—for many had defected to him from Israel when they saw that ADONAI his God was with him. ¹⁰ So they assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. ¹¹ On that day they sacrificed to ADONAI 700 bulls and 7,000 sheep from the spoil that they had brought. ¹² They entered into a covenant to seek ADONAI, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and soul. ¹³ Whoever would not seek ADONAI, God of Israel, would be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman. ¹⁴ They also made an oath to ADONAI with a loud voice, with shouting, with trumpets and with shofarot. ¹⁵ All Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and sought Him with all their will and He was found by them. Then ADONAI gave them rest all around. ¹⁶ He also deposed Maacah, the mother of King Asa, from being queen because she had made an abominable image for Asherah. Asa cut down her abominable image, crushed it, and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

¹⁷ Though the high places were not removed from Israel, still Asa's heart was completely committed to ADONAI all his days. ¹⁸ He brought into the House of God his father's consecrated articles, as well as his consecrated articles of silver and gold, and utensils. ¹⁹ So there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

Asa Backslides

16 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign, King Baasha of Israel marched against Judah and fortified Ramah in order to prevent anyone from leaving or coming to King Asa of Judah.

² In response, Asa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries of the House of ADONAI and from the royal palace, and sent them to King Ben-Hadad of Aram who lived in Damascus saying, ³ "Let there be a covenant between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with King Baasha of Israel so that he may withdraw from me."

⁷ At that time the seer Hanani came to King Asa of Judah and said to him: "Because you have depended on the king of Aram, and not depended on ADONAI your God, therefore the army of the king of Aram has escaped out of your hand. ⁸ Were not the Cushites and the Libyans a mighty army with many chariots and horsemen? Yet because you relied on ADONAI, He delivered them into your hand. ⁹ For the eyes of ADONAI range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are wholly His. You have acted foolishly in this matter. Indeed, from now on you will have wars."

¹⁰ Then Asa was angry with the seer and put him in the prison for he was enraged at him for this. Also, Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time. ¹¹ Behold, the acts of Asa, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the Kings of Judah and Israel.

¹³ Finally Asa slept with his fathers, dying in the forty-first year of his reign. ¹⁴ He was buried in his own tomb, which he had hewn out for himself in the city of David. They laid him in his resting place, which was filled with sweet spices and various blended perfumes and they made a very large fire for him.

Jehoshaphat Restores Judah to Torah

17 Jehoshaphat his son became king in his place and took firm hold of his position against Israel. ² He stationed troops in all the fortified cities of Judah and set garrisons throughout the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.

³ ADONAI was with Jehoshaphat because he walked in the first ways of his father David. He did not seek the Baalim ⁴ but sought the God of his father, and walked in His mitzvot rather than the deeds of Israel. ⁵ So ADONAI established the kingdom in his hand, and all Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat so that he had great riches and honor. ⁶ His heart was devoted to the ways of ADONAI. Furthermore he removed the high places and the Asherah poles from Judah.

¹⁰ Now the fear of ADONAI fell on all the kingdoms of the lands around Judah, so that they did not make war with Jehoshaphat. ¹¹ Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents and silver for tribute. The Arabs also brought him flocks—7,700 rams and 7,700 he-goats.

¹² So Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful. He built forts and storage cities in Judah ¹³ and carried out extensive work in the cities of Judah. He had men of war, valiant warriors, in Jerusalem.

¹⁷ From Benjamin: Eliada a valiant warrior with 200,000 men armed with bow and shield; ¹⁸ and next to him Jehozabad with 180,000 equipped for war.

¹⁹ These were the men who served the king besides those whom the king stationed in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

Prophecy of the Deceiving Spirit

18 Now Jehoshaphat had wealth and honor in abundance but he allied himself with Ahab by marriage. ² Some years later he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and bulls for him and the people with him, and urged him to march with him against Ramoth-Gilead.

³ King Ahab of Israel asked King Jehoshaphat of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth-Gilead?"

He replied, "I am as you are and my people as your people, and we will be with you in battle."

⁴ Jehoshaphat then said to the king of Israel, "Please, let us seek, today, the word of ADONAI."

⁵ So the king of Israel assembled the prophets—400 men—and asked them, "Should we go to war against Ramoth-Gilead, or should I hold off?"

They answered, "Go up, for God will give it into the king's hand!"

⁶ But Jehoshaphat asked, "Isn't there another prophet of ADONAI here of whom we should inquire?"

⁷ The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man through whom we can inquire of ADONAI—but I hate him, because he has never prophesied anything good about me but always evil. He is Micaiah son of Imlah."

But Jehoshaphat said, "May the king never say such a thing."

⁸ So the king of Israel called an official and said, "Bring Micaiah son of Imlah quickly!"

⁹ Now the king of Israel and King Jehoshaphat of Judah, wearing their robes, were sitting on their thrones on the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria with all the prophets prophesying before them. ¹⁰ Zedekiah son of Henaanah made for himself iron horns and declared, "Thus says ADONAI, 'With these you will gore the Arameans until they are exterminated!'"

¹¹ All the other prophets were prophesying similarly, saying "March against Ramoth-Gilead and succeed, for ADONAI will give it into the hand of the king."

¹² Now the messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah spoke to him saying, "Look, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king. So please let your word be like one of them and speak favorably."

¹³ But Micaiah replied, "As ADONAI lives, what my God says that is what I will say."

¹⁴ When he came to the king, the king asked him, "Micaiah, should we go to war against Ramoth-Gilead, or should I hold off?"

He replied, "March and be victorious! They will be given into your hand!"

¹⁵ But the king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the Name of ADONAI?"

¹⁶ So he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd, † and ADONAI said, 'These have no master—let each man return home in shalom!'"

¹⁷ So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he never prophesies good about me, only evil?"

¹⁸ Micaiah continued, "Therefore hear the word of ADONAI. I saw ADONAI sitting on His throne with the whole host of heaven standing on His right and on His left. ¹⁹ And ADONAI said: 'Who will entice Ahab king of Israel to go up and fall at Ramoth-Gilead?'"

"Then one said this and another said that, ²⁰ until a spirit came forward and stood before ADONAI and said, 'I will entice him.'"

"So ADONAI said to him, 'How?'"

²¹ "He answered, 'I will go and be a deceiving spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.'"

"Then He said, 'You will entice him and you will also succeed. Go and do so.'"

²² "So now, behold, ADONAI has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these prophets of yours and ADONAI has decreed disaster against you."

²³ Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah approached Micaiah, slapped him on the cheek and said, "How did the spirit of ADONAI pass over me to speak to you?"

²⁴ Micaiah replied, "Behold, you will see on the day that you go to hide in an inner room."

²⁵ Then the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah and turn him over to Amon, governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son, ²⁶ and say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this fellow in prison and make him eat the bread and water of affliction—until I return in shalom.'"'"

²⁷ Then Micaiah said, "If you ever return in shalom, ADONAI has not spoken through me." He added: "Listen, all you people!"

Ahab Dies in Battle

²⁸ So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah marched against Ramoth-Gilead. ²⁹ Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into the battle, but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself and they went into the battle.

³⁰ Now the king of Aram had already ordered his chariot commanders saying: "Don't attack anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel alone."

³¹ So when the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat they thought, "This is the king of Israel." So they turned to attack him but Jehoshaphat cried out. ADONAI helped him and God diverted them from him.

³² When the chariot commanders realized that he was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

† cf. Matt. 9:36; Mark 6:34.

³³ But a man drew his bow aimlessly and struck the king of Israel between the lower armor and the breastplate. The king said to the charioteer, "Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded."

³⁴ The battle raged that day and the king of Israel remained propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans until dusk. Then at sunset he died.

Jehoshaphat's Judicial Reforms

19 Then King Jehoshaphat of Judah returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem. ² Jehu son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him and said to King Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked and love those who hate ADONAI? Because of this, wrath from before ADONAI is against you. ³ Nevertheless, good things are found in you, for you have removed the Asherah poles out of the land and have set your heart to seek God."

⁴ Jehoshaphat dwelt in Jerusalem and he went out again among the people from Beer-Sheba over to the hill country of Ephraim and brought them back to ADONAI, the God of their fathers. ⁵ He also appointed judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city. ⁶ He said to the judges. "Consider what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for ADONAI who is with you when you pass judgment. ⁷ Now then, let the fear of ADONAI be upon you. Be very careful what you do, for there is no injustice or favoritism or bribe-taking with ADONAI Eloheinu."

⁹ He charged them saying, "This is how you shall act: in the fear of ADONAI, faithfully and wholeheartedly. ¹⁰ When any dispute comes to you from your kinsmen who live in their cities, whether bloodshed, or concerning Torah, mitzvot, statutes, or ordinances, you must warn them so that they will not be guilty before ADONAI. Otherwise wrath will come upon you and your kinsmen. Act accordingly and you will not be guilty.

¹¹ "Behold, Amariah the chief kohen will be over you in all matters pertaining to ADONAI, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the House of Judah, in all the matters pertaining to the king. Also the Levites will serve as officials before you. Act courageously and may ADONAI be with the good."

Jehoshaphat's Prayer and the Valley of Bracha

20 Now it happened after this that the Moabites and the Ammonites together with other Ammonites came to make war against Jehoshaphat.

² Some came and reported to Jehoshaphat saying, "A great multitude is coming against you from beyond the sea, from Aram, and are already in Hazazon-Tamar" (that is En-Gedi).

⁵ Then Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem in the House of ADONAI in front of the new courtyard ⁶ and said:

"ADONAI, God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in Your hand and no one can stand against You. ⁷ Are You not our God who drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel and gave it to the descendants of Your friend Abraham forever? ⁸ They settled in it and built You a Temple there for Your Name saying, ⁹ 'If calamity comes upon us—the sword of judgment, pestilence or famine—we will stand before this House and before You—for Your Name is in this House—and cry to You in our distress and You will hear and deliver us.'

¹⁰ "Now behold, the sons of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir—whose land You did not allow Israel to invade when they came from the land of Egypt, instead they turned aside from them and did not destroy them— ¹¹ now behold, how they repay us by coming to drive us out of Your possession that You gave us as an inheritance. ¹² Our God, will You not execute judgment on them? For we have no power to face this great multitude that is attacking us. We do not know what to do—but our eyes are on You."

¹³ All Judah was standing before ADONAI with their infants, their wives, and their children.

¹⁴ Then in the midst of the congregation, the Ruach ADONAI came upon Jahaziel son of Zechariah, son of Benaiah, son of Jeiel, son of Mattaniah the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, ¹⁵ and he said:

"Listen all Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat. Thus ADONAI says to you, 'Do not be afraid or be dismayed because of this great multitude, for the battle is not yours, but God's. ¹⁶ Tomorrow go down against them as they come up the ascent of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the valley in front of the wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷ You will not fight in this battle. Take your positions, stand and see the salvation of ADONAI with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid or be dismayed. Tomorrow go out to face them, for ADONAI is with you.'"

¹⁸ Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face to the ground and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before ADONAI to worship ADONAI. ¹⁹ Levites, from the sons of Kohath and the sons of Korah, stood up to praise ADONAI, the God of Israel, with a very loud voice.

²⁰ Early in the morning they arose and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. As they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, O Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in ADONAI your God and you will be confirmed. Trust in His prophets and you will succeed.”²¹ After consulting with the people, he appointed singers to ADONAI praising the splendor of His holiness, as they went out before the army saying,

“Praise ADONAI,
for His mercy endures forever.”

²² As they began singing and praising, ADONAI set ambushes against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir who had come against Judah, and they were defeated. ²³ For the Ammonites and Moabites rose up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir to exterminate and annihilate them. When they had exterminated the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

²⁵ When Jehoshaphat and his people went to take the plunder, they found an abundance of goods, clothing, and precious articles, which they pillaged, more than they could carry away. For three days they were taking the plunder because there was so much. ²⁶ On the fourth day they assembled in the valley of Bracha[†] where they blessed ADONAI. That is why the name of that place is called the Valley of Bracha to this day.

²⁷ Then every man of Judah and Jerusalem, with Jehoshaphat at their head, returned joyfully to Jerusalem for ADONAI had given them cause to rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸ They came to Jerusalem to the House of ADONAI with harps, lyres, and trumpets. ²⁹ So the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the region because they heard that ADONAI had fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰ So the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was untroubled for his God gave him rest all around.

Jehoshaphat's Last Days

³¹ Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was 35 years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shlihi. ³² He walked in the way of his father Asa and did not stray from it, doing what was right in the eyes of ADONAI. ³³ However, the high places were not removed, nor did the people direct their hearts to the God of their fathers.

³⁴ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from beginning to end, behold, they are written in the annals of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is included in the book of the kings of Israel.

³⁵ Afterward, King Jehoshaphat of Judah allied himself with King Ahaziah of Israel, thereby acting wickedly. ³⁶ He joined with him to construct ships to go to Tarshish, and they constructed the ships in Ezion-Geber.

³⁷ Then Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat saying, “Because you have allied yourself with Ahaziah, ADONAI will break up your works.” So the ships were wrecked and were not able to go to Tarshish.

Jehoram Slays His Brothers

⁴ Now when Jehoram had risen over his father's kingdom and made himself strong, he slew all his brothers with the sword, along with some of the officers of Israel. ⁵ Jehoram was 32 years old when he became king and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. ⁶ He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did (for Ahab's daughter was his wife), and he did evil in the eyes of ADONAI. ⁷ However, ADONAI was not willing to destroy the house of David because of the covenant He had made with David, and since He had spoken a word to give a lamp to him and his sons always.

⁸ In his days Edom rebelled against Judah's rule and set up a king over themselves. ⁹ So Jehoram crossed over with his officers and all his chariots with him. He rose up by night and struck the Edomites who were surrounding him and the chariot commanders. ¹⁰ Thus Edom has been in rebellion against Judah to this day. Then Libnah also revolted from under his hand at that time—because he had forsaken ADONAI, the God of his fathers. ¹¹ Moreover, he built high places on the mountains of Judah and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the harlot and led Judah astray.

Elijah's Letter of Judgment

¹² A letter from Elijah the prophet came to him saying:

“Thus says ADONAI, the God of your father David: Since you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, ¹³ but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, leading Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into prostitution just as the house of Ahab committed prostitution and you have also slain your brothers—your own family, who were better than you—¹⁴ behold, ADONAI is going to strike your people, your children, your wives, and all your possessions with a monumental catastrophe. ¹⁵ You yourself will be stricken by multiple illnesses of your intestines, day after day, until your intestines drop out because of the illness.”

¹⁶ Then ADONAI stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines and the Arabs that neighbored the Cushites. ¹⁷ They rose up against Judah, invaded it, and carried away all the possessions found in the royal palace, as well as his sons and his wives. No son was left to him except Jehoahaz, his youngest.

† i.e., blessing

¹⁸ After all this, ADONAI smote his intestines with an incurable disease, ¹⁹ and it continued day after day for two years, so that at the end his bowels fell out because of his sickness and he died in great agonies. His people made no fire in his honor like the fire of his fathers. ²⁰ He was 32 years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years and he passed away, to no one's regret. He was buried in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

Ahaziah Falls with Ahab

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place for the troops that invaded the camp with the Arabians had slain all the older ones. Thus Ahaziah the son of Jehoram became king over Judah. ² Ahaziah was 22 years old when he became king and he reigned in Jerusalem one year. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. ³ He too walked in the ways of the house of Ahab for his mother counseled him to do evil. ⁴ He did evil in the sight of ADONAI, like the house of Ahab, for they were his counselors after his father's death—to his destruction. ⁵ He also followed their counsel when he went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to wage war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth-Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram, ⁶ so he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds inflicted on him at Ramah when he fought Hazael king of Aram. Then Azariah, the son of Jehoram king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he had been wounded.

⁷ Now through his coming to Joram, God brought about Ahaziah's downfall. Upon his arrival, Ahaziah went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom ADONAI had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. ⁸ So it came to pass that when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, he came upon the officers of Judah and Ahaziah's relatives, who had been attending Ahaziah, and slew them. ⁹ He then searched for Ahaziah who was caught hiding in Samaria. Then they brought him to Jehu, put him to death and buried him, for they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought ADONAI with all his heart." Then there was no one in the house of Ahaziah to hold power over the kingdom.

Athaliah and Joash

¹⁰ Now when Athaliah, Ahaziah's mother, saw that her son had died, she arose and destroyed all the royal offspring of the house of Judah. ¹¹ But Jehoshebeath, the king's daughter, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the king's sons who were being slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. Because Jehoshebeath, daughter of King Jehoram and wife of Jehoiada the kohen, was the sister of Ahaziah, she could hide him from Athaliah so she could not kill him. ¹² He remained hidden with them in the House of God for six years while Athaliah reigned over the land.

23 Now in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself and brought the officers of hundreds—Azariah the son of Jeroham, Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, Azariah the son of Obed, Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri—into a covenant with him. ² They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah and the leading patriarchs of Israel. They came to Jerusalem ³ and the entire congregation made a covenant with the king in the House of God. Then he said to them:

"Behold, the king's son! He must reign as ADONAI promised concerning David's sons. ⁴ This is what you should do: a third of you, kohanim and Levites coming on duty on Shabbat will keep watch at the gates, ⁵ a third of you shall be in the royal palace, and a third at the Foundation Gate, and all the people shall be in the courtyard, and all the people should be in the courtyard of the House of ADONAI. ⁶ But let no one enter into the House of ADONAI except the kohanim and the ministering Levites. They may come in, for they are kadosh, and let all the people observe the service of ADONAI. ⁷ The Levites will surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand, and whoever enters the House, let him be killed. Stay close to the king in his comings and goings."

⁸ So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the kohen commanded. Each took his men, those that were on duty on Shabbat and those who went off duty on Shabbat, for Jehoiada the kohen had not dismissed any of the divisions. ⁹ And Jehoiada the kohen delivered to the officers of hundreds King David's spears, shields and bucklers that were in the House of God. ¹⁰ Then he stationed all the people, each man with his weapon in his hand around the king—from the south side of the House to the north side of the House by the altar and by the House.

¹² When Athaliah heard the shouting of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people to the House of ADONAI. ¹³ She looked, and behold, the king was standing by his pillar at the entrance and the officers and the trumpeters were beside the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing the trumpets, and the singers with their musical instruments were leading the praise. So Athaliah tore her clothes and said, "Treason, treason!"

¹⁴ Jehoiada the kohen brought out the officers of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out from between the ranks and put to the sword anyone who follows her."

For the kohanim said, “Do not put her to death in the House of ADONAI.”

¹⁵ So they seized her as she arrived at the entrance of the Horse Gate of the royal palace and killed her there.

¹⁶ Then Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, all the people and the king to be the people of ADONAI.

¹⁸ Then Jehoiada placed the oversight of the House of ADONAI under the authority of the Levitical kohanim, whom David had assigned over the House of ADONAI to offer the burnt offerings of ADONAI, as it is written in the Torah of Moses, accompanied by rejoicing and singing as ordered by David. ¹⁹ He also stationed gatekeepers at the gates of the House of ADONAI so that no one who was ritually impure for any reason could enter. ²⁰ He took the officers of hundreds, the nobles, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the king down from the House of ADONAI. They came through the upper gate of the royal house and seated the king upon the royal throne, ²¹ and all the people of the land rejoiced. The city was quiet for Athaliah had been slain with the sword.

Joash Repairs the Temple

24 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem 40 years. His mother’s name was Zibiah of Beer-Sheba. ² Joash did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI all the days of Jehoiada the kohen.

³ Jehoiada took two wives by whom he fathered sons and daughters. ⁴ It came to pass after this that Joash had a heart to renovate the House of ADONAI. ⁵ He assembled the kohanim and the Levites and told them, “Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel year by year to repair the House of your God. Do this quickly!”

However, the Levites did not act quickly. ⁶ So the king summoned Jehoiada the chief and asked him, “Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and from Jerusalem the tax of Moses the servant of ADONAI on the congregation of Israel for the Tent of the Testimony?”

⁷ For the sons of wicked Athaliah had broken into the House of God, and had even used all the sacred things of the House of ADONAI for the Baalim †. ⁸ So the king commanded that a box be made and placed outside the gate of the House of ADONAI. ⁹ A proclamation was made throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring in to ADONAI the tax of Moses, God’s servant, upon Israel in the wilderness. ¹⁰ All the officers and all the people rejoiced, and brought in and cast into the chest until it was full. ¹¹ Whenever the chest was brought by the Levites to the king’s officers and when they saw that it was full of money, the royal scribe and the officer of the kohen gadol would come and empty the box and take it back to its place. Thus they did daily and gathered much money. ¹² The king and Jehoiada gave it to workmen who carried out the work for the House of ADONAI. They hired masons and carpenters to renovate the House of ADONAI, as well as craftsmen in iron and bronze to repair the House of ADONAI. ¹³ So the workmen labored and the renovation work progressed in their hands. They restored the House of God to its original design, and strengthened it.

¹⁴ When they had finished, they brought the remainder of the money before the king and Jehoiada and they made it into vessels for the House of ADONAI—vessels for avodah and for burnt offering, pans, and utensils of gold and silver. Then they offered burnt offerings in the House of ADONAI continually all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁵ When Jehoiada reached a ripe old age, he died. He was 130 years old when he died. ¹⁶ So he was buried in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good things in Israel and toward God and His House.

Joash Betrays the Righteous Kohen

¹⁷ Now after the death of Jehoiada, the chiefs of Judah came and bowed down to the king. Then the king listened to them. ¹⁸ They forsook the House of ADONAI, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherah poles and the idols. Wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for their guilt. ¹⁹ ADONAI sent prophets to them to bring them back to Him and although they admonished them, they would not listen.

²⁰ Then the Ruach Elohim came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the kohen. ^{††} He stood above the people and said to them, “Thus says God, ‘Why do you transgress the mitzvot of ADONAI? You will not succeed. Because you have forsaken ADONAI, He has also forsaken you.’”

²¹ But they conspired against him, and by order of the king, they stoned him to death in the courtyard of the House of ADONAI. ²² Thus King Joash disregarded the loyalty which his father Jehoiada had shown to him—and slew Jehoiada’s son. As he was dying, he said: “May ADONAI see and avenge!”

Judgment on Joash and His Chieftains

²³ It came to pass that at the turn of the year, the Aramean army came up against him. They invaded Judah and Jerusalem and massacred all the chieftains of the people, and sent all their plunder to the king of Damascus. ²⁴ Although the Aramean army came with only a small number of men, ADONAI gave over a much larger army into their hands, because they had forsaken ADONAI, God of their fathers. So they executed judgment upon Joash. ²⁵ When they withdrew from him—for they left him very sick—his own servants plotted against him because of the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the kohen, and assassinated him on his bed. He died and was buried in the city of David—but not in the tombs of the kings. ²⁶ These men conspired against him: Zabad son of Shimiath the Ammonitess and Jehozabad son of Shimrith the Moabite.

²⁷ Now concerning his sons and the many prophecies against him and the rebuilding of the House of God, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son became king in his place.

Amaziah Begins Well

25 Amaziah was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jehoaddan from Jerusalem. ² Now he did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI, but not wholeheartedly. ³ Once he had the kingdom firmly secured under him, he executed his courtiers who had assassinated his father the king. ⁴ He did not put their children to death, but acted according to what is written in the Torah, in the book of Moses, which ADONAI commanded saying,

"Parents should not die for the children, neither should the children die for the parents, but every person should die for his own sin."

⁵ Amaziah gathered together the people of Judah and assigned them according to their clans to officers of thousands and officers of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He mustered those from 20 years old and upward, and found 300,000 chosen men, able to go to war, able to handle spear and shield. ⁶ He also hired 100,000 valiant warriors from Israel for 100 talents of silver.

⁷ But a man of God came to him saying, "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for ADONAI is not with Israel—not with any of the children of Ephraim. ⁸ For if you go and fight courageously in battle, God will overthrow you before the enemy, for God has power to help and to bring down."

⁹ But Amaziah said to the man of God, "And what is to be done about the 100 talents that I have given to the Israelite troops?"

The man of God answered, "ADONAI is able to give you much more than that."

¹⁰ So, Amaziah dismissed the troops who had come to him from Ephraim to go back to their homes. Their anger burned greatly against Judah and they returned home in a rage.

¹¹ Amaziah then took courage and leading his army, marched to the Valley of Salt. He struck down 10,000 men of Seir. ¹² The army of Judah also captured 10,000 alive, and brought them to the top of the cliff. They threw them down from the top of the cliff and everyone fell to their death.

¹³ Meanwhile the troops that Amaziah had sent back and not allowed to go with him to battle raided the cities of Judah from Samaria to Beth-Horon. They struck down 3,000 of them and took considerable spoils.

Idolatry and Defiance

¹⁴ Now after Amaziah returned from slaughtering the Edomites, he had the gods of the men of Seir brought and installed as his gods. He prostrated himself before them and burned incense to them. ¹⁵ The anger of ADONAI burned against Amaziah, and He sent a prophet to him, who said to him, "Why have you sought after the gods of the people who could not deliver their own people from your hand?"

¹⁶ But while he was still speaking to him, the king said to him, "Have we appointed you a counselor to the king? Stop! Why should you be struck down?"

So the prophet stopped after he said, "Now I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have acted this way and have not listened to my counsel."

¹⁷ Then Amaziah king of Judah took counsel and sent this message to Joash son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel saying, "Come, let us meet face to face."

¹⁸ Joash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah saying: "The thorn bush in Lebanon sent a message to the cedar in Lebanon saying, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' Then a wild beast of Lebanon passed by and trampled the thorn bush.

¹⁹ You say, 'Behold, I have defeated Edom.' So now your heart has become arrogant and proud. Stay home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah with you?"

²⁰ However, Amaziah would not listen, for it was from God in order that He might deliver them into the hand of Joash because they had sought the gods of Edom.

²⁵ Amaziah the son of King Joash of Judah lived 15 years after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel. ²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, the first and the last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? ²⁷ From the time that Amaziah turned away from following ADONAI, they conspired against him in Jerusalem, so he fled to Lachish. But they sent men after him to Lachish and put him to death there. ²⁸ Then they brought him back on horses and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

Uzziah Strengthens Judah's Defenses

26 Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was 16 years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. ² He built Eloth and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers. ³ Uzziah was 16 years old when he became king, and he reigned 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah from Jerusalem. ⁴ He did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI just as his father Amaziah had done. ⁵ He continued to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding through the visions of God. As long as he sought ADONAI, God made him prosper.

⁶ He went out and fought the Philistines and breached the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod. He built cities in Ashdod and among the Philistines. ⁷ God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabs who dwelt in Gur-Baal, and against the Meunites. ⁸ The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread abroad even to the border of Egypt, for he became exceedingly strong.

¹¹ Uzziah also had a well-trained army ready to go out to battle by divisions, according to the numbers mustered by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the official, under Hananiah, one of the king's chiefs. ¹² The total number of family leaders over the fighting men was 2,600, ¹³ and under their command was an army of 307,500 trained for war with mighty power to support the king against the enemy. ¹⁴ Uzziah provided shields, spears, helmets, body armor, bows, and slingstones for the entire army. ¹⁵ In Jerusalem he made machines designed by skillful men to be used on the towers and on the corners to shoot arrows and hurl large stones. So his fame spread far, for he was marvelously helped until he became strong.

Uzziah Usurps the Kohanim

¹⁶ But when he became strong, his heart grew so haughty that he acted corruptly. For he trespassed against ADONAI his God by entering into the Temple of ADONAI to burn incense upon the altar of incense. ¹⁷ Then Azariah the kohen with 80 valiant kohanim of ADONAI followed him in. ¹⁸ They opposed Uzziah the king and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to ADONAI, but for the kohanim, the descendants of Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the Sanctuary, for you have acted unfaithfully. You will have no honor from ADONAI Elohim."

¹⁹ Then Uzziah, who had a censer in his hand ready to burn incense, became angry. While he was raging at the kohanim, tzara'at broke out on his forehead right in front of the kohanim in the House of ADONAI, beside the incense altar. ²⁰ When Azariah the chief kohen and all the other kohanim stared at him, behold, his forehead had tzara'at! So they rushed him out of there. Indeed, he himself hurried to get out because ADONAI had smitten him.

²¹ King Uzziah had tzara'at until the day of his death. He lived in a separate house with tzara'at, for he was cut off from the House of ADONAI. Jotham his son was in charge of the king's house and governed the people of the land.

²² Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from beginning to end, were recorded by the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz. ²³ So Uzziah slept with his fathers and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial that belonged to the kings, for they said: "He had tzara'at." Then Jotham his son became king in his place.

Good King Jotham Prospers

27 Jotham was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. ² He did what was right in the eyes of ADONAI, just as his father Uzziah had done. But unlike his father, he did not enter into the Temple of ADONAI. The people, however, acted corruptly. ³ He rebuilt the upper gate of the House of ADONAI and did extensive building on the wall of Ophel. ⁴ He also built towns in the Judean hills and forts and towers in the forests.

⁵ Jotham also fought the king of the Ammonites and prevailed against them. That year the Ammonites paid him 100 talents of silver, 10,000 measures of wheat, and 10,000 of barley. The Ammonites brought him the same amount also in the second and third years.

⁶ Jotham became powerful because he ordered his ways before ADONAI his God. ⁷ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham and all his wars and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. ⁸ He was 25 years old when he became king and reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. ⁹ Jotham slept with his fathers and they buried him in the city of David. Ahaz his son became king in his place.

Ahaz's Sin in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom

28 Ahaz was 20 years old when he became king, and he reigned 16 years in Jerusalem. But he did not do what was right in the eyes of ADONAI as his father David had done, ² but followed the ways of the kings of Israel, and even made molten images for the Baalim. ³ Moreover, he burned incense in the valley of Ben-Hinnom and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom ADONAI had driven out before Bnei-Yisrael. ⁴ He offerred sacrifices and burned incense in the high places, on the hills and under every leafy tree.

⁵ Therefore ADONAI his God gave him into the hand of the king of Aram who defeated him and took away from him many prisoners and brought them to Damascus. He was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, who inflicted many casualties on him. ⁶ In one day, Pekah the son of Remaliah killed 120,000 valiant soldiers of Judah—because they had forsaken ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

Mercy Shown to Judah's Captives

⁹ But a prophet of ADONAI named Oded was there and he went out to meet the army on its return to Samaria. He said to them, "Behold, because ADONAI, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, He has given them into your hand and you have slaughtered them in a rage that reaches to heaven. ¹⁰ So now you intend to bring into bondage the children of Judah and Jerusalem as your male and female slaves? Are you not also guilty of transgressions against ADONAI your God? ¹¹ So now, listen to me. Send back the prisoners you have captured from your kinsmen—for the fierce wrath of ADONAI is upon you!"

¹² Then some of the leaders of the sons of Ephraim—Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berechiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai—confronted those coming from the campaign, ¹³ and said to them, "Do not bring the captives in here, for that would cause us to trespass against ADONAI. Do you intend to add to our sins and our guilt? For our guilt is already great, and his fierce anger is already against Israel."

¹⁴ So the soldiers released the captives and the plunder in the presence of the chieftains and the entire congregation. ¹⁵ Then the men designated by name stood up and took the captives, and they clothed all who were naked from the plunder. They gave them clothes and sandals, food and drink, anointed them, led all the feeble ones on donkeys, and brought them back to their kinsmen at Jericho, the city of palm trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

Ahaz Leads Judah into Idolatry

¹⁶ About that time King Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria for help. ¹⁷ Once again the Edomites had come and invaded Judah and taken captives, ¹⁸ while the Philistines had raided the towns in the foothills and in the south of Judah. They captured and occupied Beth-Shemesh, Aijalon, and Gederot, as well as Soho, Tim-nah, and Gimzo with their villages. ¹⁹ For ADONAI humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he threw off restraint in Judah and trespassed against ADONAI. ²⁰ Tilgat-Pilneser king of Assyria came against him and afflicted him instead of strengthening him—²¹ even though Ahaz plundered the House of ADONAI, the house of the king and the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria—it did not help him.

²² In his time of distress, this same King Ahaz acted even more unfaithfully to ADONAI. ²³ He even sacrificed to the gods of Damascus after he had been defeated, for he said, "Because the gods of the kings of Aram helped them, I will sacrifice to them and they will help me." But they caused the downfall of him and all Israel.

²⁴ Ahaz even collected the utensils of the House of God and cut the utensils of the House of God into pieces. He shut the doors of the House of ADONAI and made himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem. ²⁵ In every town of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods—provoking ADONAI, the God of his fathers.

²⁶ Now the rest of his acts and all his ways, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ²⁷ Then Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of Jerusalem, but he was not brought into the tombs of the kings of Israel. Hezekiah his son became king in his place.

Hezekiah Restores the Temple

²⁹ Hezekiah became king when he was 25 years old, and he reigned 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Abijah the daughter of Zechariah. ² He did right in the eyes of ADONAI, just as his father David had done. ³ In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the House of ADONAI and repaired them. ⁴ He brought in the kohanim and the Levites and assembled them into the eastern square.

⁵ Then he said to them: "Listen to me, Levites! Sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the House of ADONAI, the God of your fathers, and remove the defilement out of the holy place. ⁶ Our fathers acted unfaithfully and did evil in the sight of ADONAI Eloheinu and have forsaken Him. They turned their faces away from ADONAI's dwelling place and turned their backs on Him. ⁷ They also shut the doors of the porch and put out the lamps. They did not burn incense or offering any burnt offerings in the Holy Place to the God of Israel. ⁸ Therefore, the wrath of ADONAI was upon Judah and Jerusalem. He has made them an object of horror, dread, and scorn, as you are seeing with your own eyes. ⁹ Behold, for this our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, daughters, and wives are in captivity.

¹⁰ "Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with ADONAI, the God of Israel, so that His fierce anger may turn away from us. ¹¹ My sons, now do not be negligent, for ADONAI has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and to be His ministers and to burn incense to Him."

¹² Then these Levites arose: from the sons of Kohath, Mahath son of Amasai and Joel the son of Azariah; from the sons of Merari, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel; from the sons of Gershon, Joah son of Zimmah and Eden son of Joah; ¹³ from the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; from the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; ¹⁴ from the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and from the sons of Jeduthun, She-maiah and Uzziel.

¹⁵ When they had gathered their brothers and sanctified themselves, they went in, as the king ordered according to the words of ADONAI, to cleanse the House of ADONAI.

¹⁶ So the kohanim went into the inner part of the House of ADONAI to purify it. They brought out to the courtyard of the House of ADONAI every impure thing that they found in the temple of ADONAI. Then the Levites received it and carried it out to Kidron Valley. ¹⁷ They began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and by the eighth day of the month they reached the porch of ADONAI. For eight days they consecrated the House of ADONAI and finished on the sixteenth day of the first month.

¹⁸ Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, "We have purified the entire House of ADONAI—the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, the table of the rows of bread with all the vessels. ¹⁹ We have also prepared and consecrated all the articles that King Ahaz discarded in his unfaithfulness, while he was king. Behold, they are now before the altar of ADONAI."

²¹ They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs, and seven he-goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, the sanctuary, and Judah, and he commanded the kohanim—the sons of Aaron—to offer them on the altar of ADONAI. ²² So they slaughtered the bulls and the kohanim took the blood and sprinkled it against the altar; next they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood against the altar; then they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled the blood against the altar. ²³ The he-goats for the sin offering were brought before the king and the congregation, and they laid their hands on them. ²⁴ The kohanim then slaughtered them and purified the altar with their blood to make atonement for all Israel, for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

²⁵ He stationed the Levites in the House of ADONAI with cymbals, harps, and lyres, according to the command of David, of Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet. For the command was by the authority of ADONAI through His prophets. ²⁶ So the Levites stood with David's instruments and the kohanim with the trumpets.

²⁷ Then Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of ADONAI also began with the trumpets, together with the instruments of King David of Israel. ²⁸ The entire congregation prostrated themselves, while the singers sang and the trumpeters played. All this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

²⁹ Now at the completion of the burnt offering, the king and all who were present with him knelt down and worshiped. ³⁰ Moreover, King Hezekiah and the officials ordered the Levites to sing praises to ADONAI with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness and bowed down and worshiped.

³¹ Then Hezekiah responded and said, "You have now consecrated yourselves to ADONAI. Come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the House of ADONAI." The congregation brought in sacrifices and thank offerings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings.

³³ The animals consecrated as sacrifices were 600 bulls and 3,000 sheep. ³⁴ The kohanim, however, were too few to flay all the burnt offerings, so their kinsmen, the Levites, helped them until the work was completed, and until other kohanim had consecrated themselves. For the Levites had been more conscientious to consecrate themselves than the kohanim. ³⁵ There were also a great many burnt offerings, along with the fat of the peace offerings, and the drink offering at every burnt offering.

Thus the avodah of the House of ADONAI was reestablished. ³⁶ Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because of what God had enabled the people to accomplish, because it happened so suddenly.

Hezekiah and all Israel Celebrate Pesach

30 Hezekiah then sent word to all Israel and Judah, and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh to come to the House of ADONAI at Jerusalem to keep the Passover for ADONAI, the God of Israel. ² The king and his officials and the entire congregation in Jerusalem had decided to celebrate Passover in the second month. ³ For they were not able to celebrate it at the regular time, since not enough kohanim had consecrated themselves, nor had the people assembled in Jerusalem. ⁴ The matter seemed right in the eyes of the king and of the entire community. ⁵ So they decided to issue a decree and to proclaim it throughout all Israel from Beer-Sheba to Dan, calling the people to come to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover for ADONAI, the God of Israel. For it had not been celebrated as prescribed for a long time.

⁶ At the king's command, the couriers went throughout all Israel and Judah with letters from the king and his officials saying:

"You men of Israel, turn back to ADONAI, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, and He will return to the remnant of you who escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria. ⁷ Do not be like your fathers and brothers who acted unfaithfully against ADONAI, the God of their fathers, so that He made them a horror as you see. ⁸ Do not stiffen your neck as your fathers did, but reconcile to ADONAI, and come to His Temple, which He has consecrated forever, and worship ADONAI your God that His burning anger may turn away from you. ⁹ For if you return to ADONAI, your brothers and children will receive compassion before their captors, and will return to this land. For ADONAI your God is compassionate and merciful; He will not turn His face away from you if you return to Him."

¹⁰ As the couriers traveled from town to town through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh and as far as Zebulun, they were scorned and mocked. ¹¹ Nevertheless some men from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

¹² The hand of God was also on Judah to give them one heart to do what the king and the officials commanded by the word of ADONAI.

¹³ Now a very large assembly gathered in Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Matzot in the second month.

¹⁴ They arose and removed the altars and all the incense altars that were in Jerusalem, and threw them into the Kidron Valley. ¹⁵ Then they slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The kohanim and the Levites were ashamed and consecrated themselves and brought burnt offerings into the House of ADONAI. ¹⁶ They stood at their post as prescribed in the Torah of Moses, the man of God. The kohanim sprinkled the blood that they received from the hand of the Levites. ¹⁷ For there were many in the congregation that had not consecrated themselves, therefore the Levites were in charge of slaughtering the Passover lambs for everyone that was not ceremonially clean in order to consecrate them to ADONAI. ¹⁸ Although a great multitude of the people—many of them from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun—had not purified themselves, they still ate the Passover lamb contrary to what is written.

But Hezekiah prayed for them saying: "May ADONAI who is good, atone for ¹⁹ every one who prepares his heart to seek ADONAI, the God of his fathers, even though he is not pure according to rules of the sanctuary." ²⁰ ADONAI heard Hezekiah and healed the people.

²¹ So the children of Israel who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Matzot for seven days with great gladness. The Levites and the kohanim were praising ADONAI every day with loud instruments for ADONAI. ²² Then Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who demonstrated good understanding of the service of ADONAI. For seven days they ate their assigned portions while sacrificing peace offerings and praising ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

²³ Then the whole congregation decided to celebrate seven more days—so for another seven days they celebrated with gladness. ²⁴ Hezekiah king of Judah contributed 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep to the congregation, and the officials contributed 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep to the congregation, and great numbers of kohanim consecrated themselves. ²⁵ The entire assembly of Judah rejoiced with the kohanim and the Levites, and all who had assembled from Israel, both the strangers coming from the land of Israel and the residents of Judah. ²⁶ There was great joy in Jerusalem, for nothing like this had happened in Jerusalem since the time of Solomon son of David king of Israel.

²⁷ Then the Levitical kohanim arose and blessed the people, and ADONAI heard their voice, for their prayer reached heaven, His holy dwelling place.

Restoring the Kohanim and Levites

31 When all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the towns of Judah and smashed the pillars, smashed the Asherah poles, and demolished the high places and the altars throughout all Judah and Benjamin, as well as throughout Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all Bnei-Yisrael returned to their towns, each to their own property.

² Then Hezekiah reestablished the divisions of the kohanim and the Levites together with their divisions, each of the kohanim and Levites according to his service: for burnt offerings, peace offerings, to minister, to praise, or to sing praises in the gates of the courts of ADONAI. ³ The king also contributed a portion of his own assets for the burnt offerings: the morning and the evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for Shabbatot, the New Moons, and the moadim, as it is written in the Torah of ADONAI. ⁴ Moreover, he commanded the people, the residents of Jerusalem, to give the portion allotted to the kohanim and the Levites, so that they might devote themselves to the Torah of ADONAI. ⁵ As soon as the word spread, Bnei-Yisrael gave generously the firstfruits of their grain, wine, oil, honey, and all the produce of the field, as well as tithe of all the abundance. ⁶ The children of Israel and Judah who lived in the towns of Judah, also brought in the tithe of bulls and sheep, and the tithe of the sacred things consecrated to ADONAI their God. They piled them in heaps. ⁷ In the third month the heaps began to accumulate and finished in the seventh month. ⁸ When Hezekiah and the officials came and saw the heaps, they blessed ADONAI and His people Israel.

⁹ Hezekiah asked the kohanim and the Levites about the heaps. ¹⁰ Azariah the chief kohen from the house of Zadok, replied to him saying, "Ever since the gifts began to be brought into the House of ADONAI, we have had enough to eat and more than enough, for ADONAI has blessed His people with plenty left over.”

¹¹ Then Hezekiah ordered them to prepare store-rooms in the House of ADONAI, and they prepared them. ¹² They faithfully brought in the offerings and the tithes and the consecrated gifts. Conaniah the Levite was the leader in charge over them and Shimei his brother was next in rank. ¹³ Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad, Eliel, Ismachiah, Mahath, and Benaiah were supervisors under Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the leader in charge of the House of God. ¹⁴ Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, distributing the offering of ADONAI and the consecrated gifts. ¹⁵ Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah faithfully assisted him in the towns of the kohanim, making allocations to their brothers by divisions—to great and little alike, ¹⁶ only considering genealogical records, to the males three years old and upward—to all who entered into the House of ADONAI, to perform the daily duties according to their responsibilities and their divisions— ¹⁷ to the kohanim who were genealogically registered by their ancestral houses, as well as to the Levites 20 years old and upward, according to their duties and their divisions. ¹⁸ The genealogical registry included all their little ones, their wives and sons and daughters of the entire assembly. Thus in their faithfulness they consecrated themselves as holy.

¹⁹ As for the sons of Aaron, the kohanim, who lived in the fields of the common lands of their towns—in every town—men were designated by name to distribute portions to all the males among the kohanim and to all who were genealogically registered among the Levites. ²⁰ Thus Hezekiah did throughout all Judah. He did what was good, right, and true before ADONAI his God. ²¹ Every work he undertook in the service of the House of God and in the Torah and the mitzvot to seek his God, he did wholeheartedly and succeeded.

The Assyrian's Failed Siege of Jerusalem

32 After these acts of faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and invaded Judah. He encamped against the fortified cities, intending to break into them for himself. ² When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and intended to wage war against Jerusalem, ³ he consulted with his officers and warriors about blocking the waters of the springs outside the city, and they supported him. ⁴ Many people assembled and blocked off all the springs and the raging wadi in the land saying, “Why should the kings of Assyria come and find plenty of water?” ⁵ Then he took courage and rebuilt the entire wall that had been broken down, raised up the towers, added another outer wall, fortified the Millo in the city of David, and made plenty of weapons and shields.

⁶ He also appointed military officers over the people and assembled them before him in the square at the city gate, and encouraged them saying, ⁷ “Chazak! Be courageous! Do not be afraid or dismayed by the king of Assyria and the whole horde that is with him—for we have more with us than he has with him! ⁸ With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is ADONAI Eloheinu to help us and to fight our battles.” So the people were encouraged by the words of King Hezekiah of Judah.

⁹ After this, when King Sennacherib of Assyria, while he and all his forces with him were besieging Lachish, sent his servants to Jerusalem to Hezekiah king of Judah and to all Judah who were in Jerusalem, saying:

¹⁰ “Thus says King Sennacherib of Assyria, ‘What are you relying on that you would stay in Jerusalem, under siege? ¹¹ Is not Hezekiah misleading you, to let you die by famine and thirst, saying, “ADONAI Eloheinu will deliver us from the hand of the king of Assyria?’” ¹² Has not the same Hezekiah removed His high places and His altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem saying, “You shall worship before one altar and upon it you shall burn incense?” ¹³ Do not you know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands ever able to deliver their land out of my hand? ¹⁴ Who among all the gods of these nations—which my fathers utterly destroyed—could deliver his people from my hand? How then is your God able to deliver you from my hand? ¹⁵ So now, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you like this. Do not believe him, for no god of any nation or any kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand and from the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand!”

¹⁶ His servants spoke further against ADONAI Elohim and against His servant Hezekiah. ¹⁷ Sennacherib also wrote letters reviling ADONAI, the God of Israel, speaking against Him saying, “Just as the gods of the nations of the lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the God of Hezekiah shall not deliver His people from my hand.” ¹⁸ Then they cried out loudly in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall to terrify and frighten them, in order to capture the city. ¹⁹ They spoke against the God of Jerusalem as of the gods of the peoples of the earth made by human hands.

²⁰ Then King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz prayed about this and cried out to heaven.

²¹ Then ADONAI sent an angel who annihilated every mighty warrior, commander, and officer in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he withdrew in disgrace to his own land. When he entered the house of his god some of his own children struck him down with the sword. ²² Thus ADONAI delivered Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all, and helped them in every way. ²³ Many brought offerings to ADONAI in Jerusalem and valuable gifts to King Hezekiah of Judah. From then on he was highly regarded in the eyes of all the nations.

Hezekiah's Pride and Humility

²⁴ In those days Hezekiah became deathly ill, but he prayed to ADONAI who responded to him and gave him a sign. ²⁵ But Hezekiah did not respond according to the favor done to him. His heart became haughty, so wrath came upon him and upon Judah and Jerusalem. ²⁶ Then Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride in his heart—both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem—so that the wrath of ADONAI did not fall upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

²⁷ Now Hezekiah had very abundant riches and honor. He even made treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, spices, shields, and for all kinds of valuables, ²⁸ and storehouses for the harvest of grain, wine and oil, and stalls for all kinds of cattle, and sheepfolds for the flocks. ²⁹ Moreover, he built towns and acquired flocks and herds in abundance, for God had given him very many possessions.

³⁰ It was also Hezekiah who stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon and channeled them downward to the west side of the city of David. Hezekiah succeeded in all that he did. ³¹ But when the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon were sent to him to inquire about the wonder that had happened in the land, God left him alone to test him, to know all that was in his heart.

Hezekiah's Death and Honor

³² Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. ³³ So Hezekiah slept with his fathers and they buried him in the upper section of the tombs of the sons of David. All Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. His son Manasseh became king in his place.

King Manasseh's Transgressions

33 Manasseh was 12 years old when he became king, and he reigned 55 years in Jerusalem. ² He did evil in the sight of ADONAI, just like the abominations of the nations that ADONAI had driven out before Bnei-Yisrael. ³ For he rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had demolished, he reerected altars for the Baalim, made Asherah poles, and bowed down to all the host of heaven and worshiped them. ⁴ He built altars in the House of ADONAI—of which ADONAI had said, "My Name will be in Jerusalem forever." ⁵ He also built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courtyards of the House of ADONAI. ⁶ Furthermore, he made his children pass through the fire in the valley of Ben-Hinnom and practiced witchcraft, divination, and sorcery, and consulted ghosts and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of ADONAI, provoking Him to anger.

⁷ Then he placed the carved image of the idol that he had made in the House of God—of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this House and in Jerusalem that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put My Name forever. ⁸ I will never again remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for their fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them—all the Torah, the statutes, and the ordinances delivered by the hand of Moses."

⁹ But Manasseh led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem astray, so that they did more evil than the nations whom ADONAI destroyed before Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁰ ADONAI spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention.

Assyrians Sent to Chasten Manasseh

¹¹ Therefore, ADONAI brought against them the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria, who captured Manasseh with hooks, bound him with bronze shackles, and led him to Babylon.

¹² In his distress, he entreated ADONAI his God and greatly humbled himself before the God of his fathers. ¹³ When he prayed to Him, He was moved by his entreaty, heard his plea, and brought him back to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that ADONAI, He is God.

¹⁵ He also removed the foreign gods and idols from the House of ADONAI, as well as all the altars that he had built on the mount of the House of ADONAI and in Jerusalem and threw them outside the city. ¹⁶ He rebuilt the altar of ADONAI and sacrificed on it sacrifices of fellowship and thanksgiving, and commanded Judah to serve ADONAI the God of Israel. ¹⁷ Nevertheless, the people still sacrificed in the high places, but only to ADONAI their God.

¹⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the Name of ADONAI the God of Israel, behold, they are written in the records of the kings of Israel. ¹⁹ His prayer also, and how God was moved by his entreaty, all his sin and his unfaithfulness, and the sites on which he built high places and erected the Asherah poles and the carved images before he humbled himself, behold, they are written in the records of Hozai. ²⁰ Manasseh slept with his fathers and they buried him in his own house. His son Amon became king in his place.

Wicked King Amon Assassinated

²¹ Amon was 22 years old when he became king and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. ²² He did what was evil in the sight of ADONAI just as his father Manasseh had done. Amon sacrificed to all the carved images that Manasseh his father had made, and worshiped them. ²³ He did not humble himself before ADONAI as his father Manasseh had humbled himself. Instead Amon increased his guilt. ²⁴ So his servants conspired against him and assassinated him in his own house. ²⁵ Then the people of the land struck down all who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

Josiah Restores the Temple

34 Josiah was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned 31 years in Jerusalem. ² He did right in the eyes of ADONAI, and walked in the ways of his father David. He did not turn aside to the right or to the left. ³ In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek after the God of his father David. In the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, the Asherah poles, and the carved and molten images. ⁴ They tore down the altars of the Baal in his presence and chopped down the sun-images that were above them. Also the Asherah poles and the carved and molten images he smashed into pieces, ground into dust, and scattered upon the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. ⁵ Then he burned the bones of the priests on their altars—so he purged Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶ In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim, Simeon, and as far as Naphtali, with their surrounding ruins, ⁷ he broke down the altars, the Asherah poles, crushed the carved images into powder, and chopped down all the sun-images throughout all the land of Israel. Then he returned to Jerusalem.

⁸ Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, after purging the land and the House, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the House of ADONAI his God. ⁹ They came to Hilkiah the kohen gadol and handed over the silver money that was brought into the House of God, which the Levites, the gatekeepers, had collected from Manasseh, Ephraim, and all the remnant of Israel, as well as from all Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ Then they put it in the hands of the workmen who were in charge of the House of ADONAI. The workmen who were working in the House of ADONAI spent it on repairing and restoring the House. ¹¹ They in turn gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy quarried stone as well as timber—for joining and making beams—for the buildings that the kings of Judah had let fall into ruin. ¹² The men did the work faithfully. Over them were appointed Jahath and Obadiah, Levites from the sons of Merari, along with Zechariah and Meshullam from the sons of Kohath, to supervise, while other Levites—all skilled musicians—¹³ were over the burden-bearers and supervised all who worked from task to task. Some of the Levites were also scribes, overseers and gatekeepers.

Torah Scroll Found in the Temple

¹⁴ While they were bringing out the silver that had been brought into the House of ADONAI, Hilkiah the kohen found a Torah scroll of ADONAI given by Moses. ¹⁵ Hilkiah responded by telling Shaphan the scribe, "I have found a scroll of the Torah in the House of ADONAI." Hilkiah gave the scroll to Shaphan.

¹⁶ Then Shaphan brought the scroll to the king and moreover returned a report to the king, saying, "Your servants are doing everything that was committed to them. ¹⁷ They have melted down the silver that was found in the House of ADONAI and handed it over to the overseers and into the hand of the workmen." ¹⁸ Shaphan the scribe also said to the king, "Hilkiah the kohen has given me a scroll." Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

¹⁹ When the king heard the words of the Torah, he tore his clothes. ²⁰ The king commanded Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, ²¹ "Go! Inquire of ADONAI for me and for the remnant in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that has been found. For great is the wrath of ADONAI that will be poured out upon us—because our fathers did not observe the word of ADONAI to do according to all that is written in this scroll."

Huldah the Prophetess

²² So Hilkiah, and those whom the king commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Tokahath, son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe—now she was living in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter—and spoke to her about this.

²³ She said to them, "Thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, ²⁴ "Thus says ADONAI, Behold, I am bringing disaster on this place and on its inhabitants—all the curses that are written in the book that they have read before the king of Judah. ²⁵ For they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other gods in order to provoke Me with all the works of their hands. Therefore, My wrath will be poured out upon this place and it will not be quenched." ²⁶ But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of ADONAI, thus you will say to him, "Thus says ADONAI the God of Israel, Regarding the words which you have heard, ²⁷ because your heart was tender and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His words against this place and against the inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before Me, tore your clothes, and wept before Me, I have heard you,' says

ADONAI. ²⁸ 'Behold, I will gather you to your fathers and you will be buried in your grave in shalom. Your eyes will not see all the evil that I will bring upon this place and upon the inhabitants.'''''''

So they brought her word back to the king.

²⁹ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. ³⁰ The king went up to the House of ADONAI with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the kohanim, the Levites, and all the people from the oldest to the youngest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant that was found in the House of ADONAI.

³¹ Then the king stood in his place and made a covenant before ADONAI—to follow ADONAI and to observe His mitzvot, His regulations, and His decrees with all his heart and with all his soul and to obey the words of the covenant written in this book. ³² Moreover, he made all that were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand with him. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. ³³ Josiah removed all the abominations from the whole territory of Bnei-Yisrael and made all who were found in Israel to worship ADONAI their God. All his days they did not turn away from following ADONAI, the God of their fathers.

Josiah Keeps Pesach

35 Josiah celebrated Passover unto ADONAI in Jerusalem. They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the first month. ² He reinstated the kohanim to their duties and encouraged them in the service of the House of ADONAI. ³ He said to the Levites who taught all Israel and who were consecrated to ADONAI, "Put the holy Ark in the House which Solomon the son of King David of Israel built. Since it is no longer a burden on your shoulders now, serve ADONAI your God and His people Israel. ⁴ Prepare yourselves by your ancestral houses in your divisions, according to the writing of King David of Israel and according to the writing of his son Solomon. ⁵ Stand in the holy place by the divisions of the ancestral houses, by sons of the people and by divisions of ancestral houses of the Levites. ⁶ Now sanctify yourselves, slaughter the Passover lamb and prepare it for your kinsmen, according to the word of ADONAI by the hand of Moses."

⁸ His officials also gave a freewill offering to the people, the kohanim and the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel—the administrators of the House of God—donated to the kohanim 2,600 Passover offerings, and 300 bulls. ⁹ Likewise, Conaniah along with Shemaiah and Nethaniel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel, and Jozabad, leaders of the Levites, provided 5,000 Passover lambs for the Levites and 500 bulls.

¹² Then they removed the portions to be burnt to give them to the divisions of ancestral houses of the people to present to ADONAI, as it is written in the book of Moses. They did the same with the bulls. ¹³ They roasted the Passover lambs with fire according to the ordinance, then boiled the sacred parts in pots, caldrons, and pans, and brought them quickly to all the people.

¹⁴ Afterward, they made preparations for themselves and for the kohanim, because the kohanim, the sons of Aaron, were busy sacrificing the burnt offerings and the fat until nightfall. So the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the kohanim, the sons of Aaron.

¹⁶ So on that day the entire service of ADONAI was prepared to keep the Passover and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of ADONAI according to the command of King Josiah. ¹⁷ The Bnei-Yisrael present celebrated the Passover at that time and observed the Feast of Matzot for seven days. ¹⁸ Passover had not been celebrated like that in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet, and none of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated such a Passover as Josiah did with the kohanim, the Levites, all Judah, and Israel who were present and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹ This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah.

Death of Josiah

²⁰ After all this, when Josiah had set the House in order, King Neco of Egypt came up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates and Josiah went out to engage him. ²¹ But Neco sent messengers to him saying, "What is there between me and you, king of Judah? I am not coming against you today but against the house that wars with me and God has ordered me to hurry. Stop for your sake from meddling with God who is with me, so that He will not destroy you!"

²² Josiah, however, would not turn away from him but disguised himself in order to fight him. He did not listen to Neco's words from the mouth of God and went to fight him in the plain of Megiddo. ²³ Archers shot King Josiah and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, for I am seriously wounded." ²⁴ So his servants carried him out of the chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had. They brought him to Jerusalem where he died and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned over Josiah.

²⁵ Now Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah, and to this day all the singers, male and female, commemorated Josiah in their laments. And they made them an ordinance in Israel and behold, they are written in the lamentations. ²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Josiah and his deeds of devotion as written in the Torah of ADONAI, ²⁷ and his acts, the first and the last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Defiance Leads to Devastation

36 Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in Jerusalem in his father's place. ² Joahaz † was 23 years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. ³ The king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and imposed a fine on the land of 100 talents of silver and a talent of gold. ⁴ The king of Egypt made Eliakim, his brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. But Neco took Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

⁵ Jehoiakim was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. He did evil in the sight of ADONAI his God. ⁶ Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon marched against him and bound him with bronze chains to take him to Babylon. ⁷ Nebuchadnezzar also took some of the vessels of the House of ADONAI to Babylon and put them in his temple in Babylon. ⁸ Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, the detestable things he did, and all that was found against him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.

⁹ Jehoiachin was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. He did evil in the sight of ADONAI. ¹⁰ At the turn of the year, King Nebuchadnezzar sent and had him brought to Babylon along with the precious articles from the House of ADONAI and made his brother Zedekiah king over Judah and Jerusalem.

¹¹ Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. ¹² He did evil in the sight of ADONAI his God and did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet who spoke from the mouth of ADONAI. ¹³ He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar who had made him take an oath by God. He also stiffened his neck and hardened his heart so as not to turn to ADONAI, the God of Israel. ¹⁴ Furthermore, all the leading kohanim and the people became very unfaithful, following all the abominations of the nations. They defiled the House of ADONAI, which He had consecrated in Jerusalem.

¹⁵ ADONAI, the God of their fathers, sent word to them through His messengers again and again, because He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place. ¹⁶ But they mocked the messengers of God and despised His words, and scoffed at His prophets until the wrath of ADONAI rose against His people, until there was no remedy. ¹⁷ Therefore, He brought up against them the king of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the House of their Temple. He had no pity on young man or virgin, elderly or infirm—He gave them all into his hand. ¹⁸ All the vessels of the House of God, large and small, and the treasures of the House of ADONAI, as well as the treasures of the king and his officers were all brought to Babylon. ¹⁹ They burned the House of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned all the palaces with fire and destroyed everything of value. ²⁰ He exiled to Babylon those who had escaped the sword and they became slaves to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia— ²¹ in fulfillment of the word of ADONAI by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had paid back her Shabbat rests—for as long as it lay desolate—the Shabbat rest was kept till 70 years were complete.

Proclamation of Cyrus of Persia

²² Now in the first year of King Cyrus of Persia—fulfilling the word of ADONAI by the mouth of Jeremiah—ADONAI stirred up the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia so that he sent a proclamation throughout all his kingdom and also put it in writing, saying: ²³ "Thus says King Cyrus of Persia ' ADONAI, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build Him a House in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever among you of all His people may go up and may ADONAI his God be with him.'"

Ezra

Ezra Introduction

The books of Ezra and Nehemiah are combined as one book in the Hebrew canon. Ezra's name, עזרא means, "has helped." The period of time that this book covers can be determined to be approximately eighty years. The book of Ezra is divided into two main parts: chapters 1-6, the first return from exile from Babylon to Jerusalem and the beginning of Temple restoration, and chapters 7-10, the second return from exile. This book is one of the most factual books of the Bible as Ezra was a scribe, a , and presented facts, records, royal edicts and memoirs. He wrote during the rule of the Persian Empire and detailed the post-exilic return of the Jewish people to their beloved Jerusalem. He traced the monumental attempts to restore the Temple.

Ezra was greatly troubled about the emergence of religious syncretism which had permeated Israel's lifestyle. Intermarriage, pagan religious practices, and other heathen activities had held sway among Israel. Because Ezra was also a priest, his mantle required him to address the unfaithfulness of Israel contrasted with the faithfulness of God.

One of the most compelling laments can be noted in the third chapter of this book. The Jews began the task of restoring Jerusalem to her former glory. In Ezra 3:1-6, they "gathered together as one man to Jerusalem." They re-established sacrifices and participated in , the Feast of Tabernacles. Constructions began by the Jews to restore the Temple. Yet, cries of praise and cries of weeping could be heard blended together (Ezra 3:12-13). There was sorrow about what had been, yet some were celebrating with expectant hopes. Although restoration progressed, funds grew scarce and building had to cease. The Jews were able to complete the restoration in 516 BC.

Ezra returns to Jerusalem, and chapters 7-10 detail this second return. Ezra pursued God and desired to teach God's ways: "For Ezra had set his heart to seek the of , to observe and to teach its statues and ordinances in Israel" (Ezra 7:10). Upon learning of the vast intermarriages between the Jews and those of other lands, pagan religions, Ezra noted that "[He] tore [his] garment and [his] robe and plucked out some of the hair of [his] head and beard and sat down devastated." (Ezra 9:3) He rebuked the children of Israel for the sin of intermarriage. His deep sorrow provoked them to confess their sins. The book of Ezra concludes with this confession of the sin of intermarriage where the pagan wives were sent away. Ezra's example of obedience to God's commands provoked the children of Israel to turn from their wicked ways and seek .

Cyrus Decrees: Rebuild the Temple

1 Now in the first year of King Cyrus of Persia, in order to accomplish the word of ADONAI from the mouth of Jeremiah, ADONAI stirred up the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his entire kingdom, announcing in a written edict, saying:

²“Thus says King Cyrus of Persia: ADONAI, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth. He has appointed me to build a House for Him in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³Whoever is among you from all His people—may his God be with him—may go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the House of ADONAI, the God of Israel—He is the God who is in Jerusalem. ⁴As for anyone who remains, wherever they may be living, let the people of those places supply him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with freewill offerings for the House of God in Jerusalem.”

⁵So the patriarchal leaders of Judah and Benjamin, along with the kohanim and the Levites—everyone whose spirit God had stirred up—arose to go up to build the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem. ⁶All those around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, gold, goods, cattle, and valuable gifts, besides all that was willingly offered.

⁷Then King Cyrus brought out the vessels from the House of ADONAI that Nebuchadnezzar had brought from Jerusalem and placed in the house of his gods.

⁸King Cyrus of Persia had them brought out by Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out for Sheshbazzar the prince of Judah. ⁹And this was the inventory of them:

- gold basins—30
- silver basins—1,000
- silver utensils—29
- ¹⁰ gold bowls—30
- other silver bowls—410
- other vessels—1,000

¹¹In all there were 5,400 vessels of gold and silver. Sheshbazzar brought them all along when the exiles were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Numbering Those Returning

2 Now these are the people of the province who went up from the captives of the exile, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken captive to Babylon. They returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his town. ²They came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordechai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah.

The number of men of the people of Israel:

- ³ the sons of Parosh—2,172
- ⁴ the sons of Shephatiah—372
- ⁵ the sons of Arah—775
- ⁶ the sons of Pahath-Moab, of the sons of Jeshua and Joab—2,812
- ⁷ the sons of Elam—1,254

the sons of Jedaiah from the house of Jeshua—973
- ³⁷ the sons of Immer—1,052
- ³⁸ the sons of Pashhur—1,247
- ³⁹ the sons of Harim—1,017
- ⁴⁰ The Levites:
the sons of Jeshua and Kadmiel (through the line of Hodaviah)—74
- ⁴¹ The singers:
the sons of Asaph—128
- ⁴² The sons of the gatekeepers:
the sons of Shallum,
the sons of Ater,
the sons of Talmon,
the sons of Akkub,
the sons of Hatita,
and the sons of Shobai—in all 139.
- ⁴³ The Temple servants:
the sons of Ziha, the sons Hasupha, the sons of Tab-baoth, ⁴⁴ the sons of Keros, the sons of Siaha, the sons of Padon, ⁴⁵ the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah, the sons of Akkub, ⁴⁶ the sons of Hagab, the sons of Salmal, the sons of Hanan, ⁴⁷ the sons of Giddel, the sons of Gahar, the sons of Reaiah, ⁴⁸ the sons of Rezin, the sons of Nekoda, the sons of Gazzam, ⁴⁹ the sons of Uzza, the sons of Paseah, the sons of Besai, ⁵⁰ the sons of Asnah, the sons of Meunim, the sons of Nephusim, ⁵¹ the sons of Bakbuk, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Harhur,

⁵² the sons of Batzluth, the sons of Mehida, the sons of Harsha,

⁵³ the sons of Barkos, the sons of Sisera, the sons of Temah, ⁵⁴ the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha.

⁵⁵ The sons of Solomon's servants:

the sons of Sotai, the sons of Hassophereth, the sons of Peruda,

⁵⁶ the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁷ the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-hazzebaim, and the sons of Ami.

⁵⁸ All the Temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants—392.

⁵⁹ The following came up from Tel-Melah, Tel-Harsa, Cherub, Addan, and Immer, but they were not able to prove their family connection † or their ancestry †† whether they were from Israel:

⁶⁰ the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda—652.

⁶² These sought their records in the genealogical lists, but did not find them. So they were disqualified from the priesthood. ⁶³ As a result, the governor said to them that they should not eat any of the most holy food until a kohen was ministering with the Urim and Thummim.

⁶⁴ The entire assembly totaled 42,360, ⁶⁵ not including their male and female servants, who numbered 7,337. They also had 200 male and female singers.

⁶⁶ They had 736 horses, 245 mules, ⁶⁷ 435 camels, 6,702 donkeys.

⁶⁸ When they arrived at the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem, some of the heads of the families gave voluntary offerings toward the rebuilding of the House of God on its foundation. ⁶⁹ According to their ability, they gave to the treasury for this work 61,000 gold drachmas, 5,000 silver minas, and 100 priestly tunics.

⁷⁰ Now the kohanim, the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers and the Temple servants settled in their own towns, and all the rest of Israel in their towns.

Rebuilding the Temple

3 When the seventh month arrived and the sons of Israel were settled in the towns, the people gathered together as one man in Jerusalem. ² Then Jeshua son of Jozadak, his fellow kohanim, Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his associates began to build the altar of the God of Israel, in order to offer burnt offerings on it as written in the Torah of Moses, the man of God. ³ They set up the altar on its fixed resting place despite their fear of the peoples of the lands and they offered burnt offerings on it to ADONAI, both the morning and the evening sacrifices. ⁴ They also kept the Feast of Sukkot as it is written and offered the prescribed number of daily burnt offerings according to the requirement for each day.

⁵ After that they presented the regular burnt offerings, the new moon sacrifices, and the sacrifices for all the sacred moadim of ADONAI, as well as all the freewill offerings brought to ADONAI. ⁶ From the first day of the seventh month, they began to offer burnt offerings to ADONAI, though the foundation of the Temple of ADONAI had not been laid. ⁷ So they gave money to the stone-masons and carpenters, and food, beverages, and oil to the Sidonians and to the Tyrians to bring cedar trees by sea from Lebanon to Joppa, as authorized by King Cyrus of Persia.

⁸ In the second month of the second year after they had come to the House of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers—the kohanim, the Levites, and all who returned from captivity to Jerusalem—began the work. They appointed the Levites from 20 years of age and older to supervise the work on the House of ADONAI.

⁹ Then Jeshua, his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, stood together to supervise those working in the House of God, along with the sons of Henadad, their sons, and their brothers, the Levites.

¹⁰ When the builders had laid the foundation of the Temple of ADONAI, the kohanim, arrayed in their vestments and with clarions, and the Levites sons of Asaph with cymbals, were stationed to praise ADONAI as prescribed by King David of Israel. ¹¹ With praise and thanksgiving they sang to ADONAI,

"For He is good;

For His mercy upon Israel endures forever."

Then all the people gave a great shout of praise to ADONAI because the foundation of the House of ADONAI had been laid. ¹² But many of the kohanim, Levites and patriarchal leaders, older men who had seen the former House, wept loudly at the sight of the founding of this House, while many shouted for joy. ¹³ People could not distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy from the sound of the people's weeping. For the people were shouting so loudly that the sound was heard far away.

Resistance Weakens the People

4 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the returned exiles were building a temple for ADONAI the God of Israel, ² they approached Zerubbabel and the leading patriarchs and said to them, "Let us build with you, for like you we seek your God and have been sacrificing to Him since the days of Esarhaddon, king of Assyria, who brought us here."

† Lit. house of their fathers †† Lit. seed

³ But Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the rest of the prominent patriarchs of Israel said to them, “It is not for you and us to build a House for our God—but we alone will build it for ADONAI the God of Israel, just as Cyrus—king of Persia—has commanded us.”

⁶ During the reign of Ahasuerus at the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. ⁷ Also during the days of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of his associates wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia. The letter was written in Aramaic and translated. ⁸ Rehum the commander and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter concerning Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes as follows:

⁹ From Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates—the judges and the officials, the magistrates, and governors over the Erechites, the Babylonians, the people of Susa (that is, the Elamites) ¹⁰ and the rest of the peoples whom the great and noble Ashurbanipal deported and settled in the city of Samaria and the rest of Trans-Euphrates. ††

(Now ¹¹ this is a copy of the letter they sent to him.)

“To Artaxerxes the king, from your servants, the men of Trans-Euphrates:

“Now ¹² let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up to us from you have gone to Jerusalem and are rebuilding the rebellious and wicked city. They are completing the walls and repairing the foundations.

¹³ “Furthermore, let it be known to the king, that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, no more tribute, taxes, or duty will be paid and the royal revenue will suffer. ¹⁴ Now since we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not proper for us to see the king dishonored, we are sending this message to inform the king ¹⁵ so that a search may be made in the book of records of your fathers and you will discover in the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, harmful to kings and provinces, inciting internal revolts from ancient times. That is why this city was destroyed. ¹⁶ We are informing the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls completed, you will no longer have any possession in Trans-Euphrates.”

¹⁷ The king sent this reply:

“To Rehum the commander, Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their associates who dwell in Samaria and the others in Trans-Euphrates.

“ Shalom!

¹⁸ “The letter that you sent to us has been translated and read in my presence. ¹⁹ At my order a search was made and it was found that this city has from earliest times revolted against kings and that rebellion and sedition continually occur in it. ²⁰ Mighty kings have ruled over Jerusalem governing all the Trans-Euphrates, and tribute, taxes, and duty were paid to them.

²³ Then, as soon as the copy of the letter from King Artaxerxes was read in the presence of Rehum, Shimshai the scribe, and their associates, they hurried off to the Jews in Jerusalem and by force and power compelled them to stop. ²⁴ Thus the work on the House of God in Jerusalem ceased. It remained at a standstill until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Prophets Restart the Project

5 Now Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the prophet, the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them. ² Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua son of Jozadak arose and began to rebuild the House of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets of God were with them supporting them.

³ At that time Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai, and their associates came to them and asked them, “Who gave you the authority to build this House and to complete this structure?” ⁴ They also asked them, “What are the names of the men who are constructing this building?”

⁵ But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, and they were not stopped until a report could go to Darius and a written reply about it be returned.

⁶ This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai, and his colleagues, officials of Trans-Euphrates, sent to King Darius. ⁷ The report they sent to him was written as follows:

“To King Darius.

“All Shalom!

⁸ “Be it known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the House of the great God, which is being built with large stones and timber is being set in the walls. Now this work is being done diligently and is succeeding in their hands.

⁹ “Then we questioned those elders, asking them, ‘Who gave you the authority to build this House and to complete this structure?’ ¹⁰ We also asked them their names in order to inform you, so that we might write the names of the men who were in charge of them.

¹¹ “They responded to us saying,

“We are servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the House that was built many years ago. A great king of Israel built and finished it. ¹² But because our fathers angered the God of heaven, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the Chaldean. He destroyed this House and carried the people away to Babylon.

† Lit. weakening the hands of the people †† passim beyond the river

¹³ However, in the first year of Cyrus, king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this House of God. ¹⁴ Even the gold and silver utensils of the House of God that Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Temple in Jerusalem and had carried away to the temple in Babylon—King Cyrus took those things from the temple in Babylon and gave them to a man named Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor.

¹⁵ Then he said to him, “Take these vessels and go and deposit them in the Temple in Jerusalem and let the House of God be built in its place!” ¹⁶ So this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the House of God in Jerusalem. From that time until now it has been under construction, yet it is not yet finished.’

¹⁷ “Now, if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives there in Babylon, to see if in fact King Cyrus issued a decree to rebuild this House of God in Jerusalem. Then let the king send us his decision about this matter.”

Darius Endorses Rebuilding

6 King Darius then issued an order and a search was made in the archives stored in the treasury at Babylon. ² A scroll was found in the citadel of Ecbatana in the province of Media, and this was written on it:

“Memorandum:

³ “In the first year of Cyrus the king, King Cyrus issued a decree concerning the House of God at Jerusalem.

“Let the House be rebuilt as a place where sacrifices are offered. Let its foundations be laid. Its height is to be 60 cubits and its width 60 cubits ⁴ with three layers of large stones and one layer of timber. Let the expense be paid from the king’s house. ⁵ Also let the gold and silver vessels of the House of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the Temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, be restored and brought to the Temple in Jerusalem; you shall deposit them in the House of God.

⁶ “Now then, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai, and their colleagues, officials of Trans-Euphrates, all of you stay away from there.

⁷ Leave the work of this House of God alone! Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild this House of God in its place.

⁸ “Moreover, I hereby issue a decree as to what you are to do for these elders of the Jews to rebuild this House of God. The complete costs are to be paid to these men from the royal treasury, from the tribute from Trans-Euphrates so that they are not hindered.

⁹ “Whatever is needed—young bulls, rams, or lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven or wheat, salt, wine, and oil, as requested by the kohanim in Jerusalem—must be given to them daily without neglect, ¹⁰ so that they may offer pleasing sacrifices to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons.

¹¹ “Furthermore, I decree that if anyone changes this edict, a beam is to be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and impaled on it, and because of this, his house be made a pile of refuse. ¹² May God, who makes His name to dwell there, overthrow any king or people who lifts his hand to cause such change to destroy this House of God in Jerusalem. I Darius have issued a decree; let it be carried out with diligence.”

Completion and Dedication of the Temple

¹³ Then Tattenai the governor of Trans-Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai, and their associates diligently carried it out, just as King Darius had sent. ¹⁴ So the elders of the Jews continued building and prospering through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. They finished building according to the command of the God of Israel and according to the decrees of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia. ¹⁵ The Temple was completed on the third day of the month of Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

¹⁶ Then the sons of Israel—the kohanim, the Levites, and the rest of the exiles—celebrated the dedication of the House of God with joy. ¹⁷ For the dedication of this House of God they offered 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 male lambs, and, as a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel. ¹⁸ They appointed the kohanim in their divisions and the Levites in their divisions over the service of God at Jerusalem, as it is written in the book of Moses.

¹⁹ The exiles celebrated the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, ²⁰ for every one of the kohanim and the Levites had purified themselves and all of them were ceremonially pure. They slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the exiles, and for their fellow kohanim and for themselves. ²¹ So those of Bnei-Yisrael who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the impurity of the nations of the land to seek ADONAI the God of Israel. ²² They celebrated the Feast of Matzot with joy for seven days, because ADONAI had given them joy and had changed the heart of the king of Assyria toward them so as to strengthen their hands in the work on the House of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra Returns from Babylon

7 Now after these things, during the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah, son of Azariah, son of Hilkiah, ² son of Shallum, son of Zadok, son of Ahitub, ³ son of Amariah, son of Azariah, son of Meraioth, ⁴ son of Zerariah, son of Uzzi, son of Bukki, ⁵ son of Abishua, son of Phinehas, son of Eleazar, son of Aaron the kohen gadol — ⁶ this Ezra came up from Babylon. He was a scribe skilled in the Torah of Moses that ADONAI the God of Israel had given. The king granted him everything he requested, because the hand of ADONAI his God was upon him. ⁷ Some of Bnei-Yisrael and some of the kohanim, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the sanctuary servants also came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.

⁸ He arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king. ⁹ He began his aliyah from Babylon on the first day of the first month and entered Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, because the good hand of his God was upon him. ¹⁰ For Ezra had set his heart to seek the Torah of ADONAI, to observe and to teach its statutes and ordinances in Israel.

King Artaxerxes's Letter to Ezra

¹¹ Now this is a copy of the letter that King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the kohen, the scribe, a teacher of matters pertaining to the mitzvot of ADONAI and His statutes over Israel:

¹² "Artaxerxes, king of kings,

"To Ezra the kohen, a scribe of the Law of the God of heaven.

¹³ "I have now issued a decree that anyone in my kingdom from the people of Israel—even the kohanim and Levites—who wish to go up to Jerusalem with you may go. ¹⁴ For you are sent by the king and his seven counselors to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem with regard to the Law of your God, which is in your hand, ¹⁵ and to bring the silver and gold that the king and his counselors have freely given to the God of Israel, whose dwelling is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶ together with all the silver and gold that you find in the whole province of Babylon, as well as the freewill offerings of the people and the kohanim for the House of their God in Jerusalem. ¹⁷ Furthermore, with this silver you should be sure to buy bulls, rams, and lambs, along with their grain offerings and their drink offerings and offer them on the altar of the House of your God in Jerusalem. ¹⁸ You may do whatever seems good to you and your brothers with the remaining silver and gold, according to the will of your God.

¹⁹ "The vessels that are entrusted to you for the service of the House of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. ²⁰ The rest of the needs for the House of your God that you may have occasioned to supply, you may provide from the royal treasury.

²¹ "I, King Artaxerxes, hereby issue a decree to all the treasurers of Trans-Euphrates to diligently provide all that Ezra the kohen, scribe of the Law of the God of heaven, may ask of you— ²² up to 100 talents of silver, 100 cors of wheat, 100 baths of wine, 100 baths of oil, and salt without limit. ²³ Everything that the God of heaven has required, let it be done with diligence for the House of the God of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? ²⁴ We also notify you that you have no authority to impose tribute, tax, or duty on any of the kohanim, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, sanctuary servants, or attendants at this House of God.

²⁵ "Now you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God that is in your hand, appoint judges and magistrates who may administer justice to all the people in Trans-Euphrates—all who know the laws of your God. And you are to teach those who do not know them.

²⁶ Let anyone who does not observe the Law of your God and the law of the king, be punished with due diligence, whether it is death or banishment, confiscation of goods or imprisonment."

²⁷ Blessed be ADONAI, the God of our fathers, who has put it into the heart of the king to beautify the House of ADONAI in Jerusalem in this way ²⁸ and who has extended lovingkindness to me before the king and his counselors and all the king's mighty princes. I gained strength, as the hand of ADONAI my God was upon me, and I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

A Holy People and Their Witness

8 Now these are the patriarchal leaders, and the genealogical records of those who came up with me from Babylon during the reign of King Artaxerxes:

² from the sons of Phinehas—Gershom;

from the sons of Ithamar—Daniel;

from the sons of David—Hattush;

³ from the sons of Shecaniah, of the sons of Parosh—Zechariah and with him were 150 males enrolled by genealogy;

⁴ from the sons of Pahath-Moab—Eliehoenai the son of Zerariah and with him were 200 males enrolled by genealogy;

⁵ from the sons of Shechaniah—the son of Jahaziel and 300 males with him;

⁶ from the sons of Adin—Ebed the son of Jonathan and 50 males with him;

⁷ from the sons of Elam—Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah and 70 males with him;

⁸ from the sons of Shephatiah—Zebadiah the son of Michael and 80 males with him;

⁹ from the sons of Joab—Obadiah the son of Jehiel and 128 males with him;

¹⁰ from the sons of Shelomith—the son of Josiphiah and 160 males with him;

¹¹ from the sons of Bebai—Zechariah the son of Bebai and 28 males with him;

¹² from the sons of Azgad—Johanan the son of Hakkatan and 110 males with him;

¹³ from the sons of Adonikam (they came later, but these are their names)—Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah and 60 males with them;

¹⁴ from the sons of Bigvai—Uthai and Zaccur and 70 males with him.

¹⁵ I assembled them at the river that flows toward Ahava. We camped there for three days, and I observed the people and the kohanim, but I did not find any Levites there. ¹⁶ So I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, who were leaders and for Joiarib and Elnatan who were men of learning. ¹⁷ I sent them to Iddo, the leader at the place Casiphia. I put words in their mouths to speak to Iddo and his brother, who were sanctuary servants at Casiphia, in order to bring us ministers for the House of our God.

¹⁸ Now as the good hand of our God was upon us, they brought us Sherebiah, a man of insight from the sons of Mahli, son of Levi, son of Israel, along with his sons and his brothers, 18 men. ¹⁹ Also Hashabiah together with Jeshaiiah from the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, 20 men. ²⁰ Also from the sanctuary servants, whom David and his officials had given for the work of the Levites, 220 sanctuary servants, all of them designated by name.

²¹ Then I proclaimed a fast there at the Ahava River so that we might humble ourselves before our God and seek from Him a straight way for us, our little ones, and all of our possessions. ²² For I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and cavalry to protect us from the enemy along the way, because we had spoken to the king saying, "The gracious hand of our God is upon everyone who seeks Him, but His great anger is against everyone who forsakes Him." ²³ So we fasted and sought our God about this, and He responded to our plea.

²⁴ Then I set apart twelve of the leading kohanim—Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and with them ten of their brothers— ²⁵ and I weighed out for them the silver, the gold, and the utensils, the contribution to the House of our God that the king, his counselors, his officials, and all Israel who were present had offered. ²⁶ Specifically, I weighed into their hand 650 talents of silver, silver utensils worth 100 talents, 100 talents of gold, ²⁷ 20 golden bowls valued at 1000 darics, and two exquisite vessels of gleaming bronze, as precious as gold.

²⁸ Then I said to them, "You are holy to ADONAI and the vessels are holy. The silver and the gold are a freewill offering to ADONAI, the God of your fathers. ²⁹ Guard them carefully until you weigh them before the leading kohanim and the Levites and the leading patriarchs of Israel in Jerusalem, in the storerooms of the House of ADONAI." ³⁰ So the kohanim and the Levites received the silver, the gold, and the vessels by weight to bring them to Jerusalem to the House of our God.

³¹ Then we set out from the Ahava River on the twelfth day of the first month to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was upon us and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the way. ³² So we came to Jerusalem and remained there for three days. ³³ On the fourth day the silver, the gold, and the utensils were weighed out in the House of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the kohen. Eleazar the son of Phinehas was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad the son of Jeshua and Noadiah the son of Binnui. ³⁴ Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the total weight was recorded at that time.

³⁵ Then the exiles returning from captivity sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel: 12 bulls for all Israel, 96 rams, 77 lambs and as a sin offering 12 male goats. All of this was a burnt offering to ADONAI.

³⁶ Then they delivered the decrees of the king to the king's Persian governors and to the governors of Trans-Euphrates, who then gave help to the people and the House of God.

Interceding for Unfaithful Remnant

9 Now when these things had been completed, the leaders approached me to say: "The people of Israel, the kohanim, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands who practice detestable things just like the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. ² For they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons and have mingled the holy seed with the peoples of the lands. Indeed, the hand of the leaders and the officials have been at the forefront in this unfaithful act."

³ When I heard this report, I tore my garment and my robe, and pulled out some of the hair from my head and from my beard. Then I sat down devastated. ⁴ Everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel gathered themselves around me because of the unfaithful act of the exiles. Devastated, I sat there until the evening offering.

⁵ At the time of the evening offering, I rose up from my self-abasement with my garment and robe torn, then I bowed down on my knees and spread out my hands to ADONAI my God. ⁶ I prayed, "O my God, I am ashamed and humiliated to lift up my face to You, my God! For our iniquities are higher than our heads and our guilt has reached to the heavens. ⁷ From the days of our fathers to this day our guilt has been great. Because of our iniquities we, our kings, and our kohanim have been subjected to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to humiliation at the hand of the kings of the lands, as it is today.

⁸ "But now for a brief moment ADONAI our God has shown us favor in leaving us a remnant and giving us as a peg in His holy place. Thus our God has enlightened our eyes and has given us a little relief in our bondage. ⁹ Though we are slaves, our God has not forsaken us in our bondage. He has extended lovingkindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, reviving us in order to restore the House of our God, to raise up its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

¹⁰ "So now, our God, what should we say after this? For we have forsaken Your mitzvot ¹¹ that You commanded through Your servants the prophets saying, 'The land that you are entering to possess is a land defiled by the impurities of the peoples of the lands. Through their abominations, they have filled it from one end to the other with their uncleanness. ¹² Therefore, do not give your daughters to their sons nor take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek their shalom or their welfare, so that you may be strong, eat the good things of the land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children forever.'

¹³ "After everything that has happened to us because of our evil deeds and our great guilt—for You, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and given us a remnant such as this— ¹⁴ shall we once again break Your mitzvot and intermarry with the peoples who commit such detestable actions as these? Would You not be angry enough with us to destroy us, leaving us no remnant or survivor? ¹⁵ ADONAI, God of Israel, You are righteous, for we are left this day as a remnant. Behold, here we are before You in our guilt; because of it no one can stand before You."

Putting Away Pagan Wives

10 While Ezra was praying and confessing, weeping and prostrating himself before the House of God, a very large assembly of Israelites—men, women, and children—gathered around him. The people also wept very bitterly. ² Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, "We have been unfaithful to our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Israel. ³ So now let us make a covenant with our God to send away all these women and their offspring, in accordance with the counsel of my lord and of those who fear the commands of our God. Let it be done according to the Torah. ⁴ Arise! For this matter concerns you. We are with you, so be strong and do it!"

⁵ So Ezra rose up and made the leading kohanim, the Levites, and all Israel take an oath to do according to this word; and they took the oath. ⁶ Then Ezra got up from before the House of God and went into the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While he was there, he ate no bread and drank no water, because he continued to mourn over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

⁷ A proclamation was then circulated throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all of the exiles to assemble in Jerusalem. ⁸ Everyone who did not come within three days, would forfeit all his property according to the counsel of the officials and the elders, and would himself be excluded from the assembly of the exiles.

⁹ So within three days all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled in Jerusalem. On the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people were sitting in the plaza before the House of God, trembling because of this matter and because of the rain. ¹⁰ Then Ezra the kohen stood up and said to them, "You have been unfaithful and taken foreign wives, increasing the guilt of Israel. ¹¹ So now, give praise to ADONAI, the God of your fathers, and do His will. Separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from your foreign wives."

¹² The entire assembly answered and said with a loud voice, "Yes, we will do just as you have said. ¹³ However, there are many people here and it is the rainy season, and we are not able to stand outside. Besides, this task cannot be resolved in one or two days, for we have transgressed greatly in this matter. ¹⁴ Let our leaders stand for the whole assembly. Let everyone in our cities who has married a foreign woman come at an appointed time, and with them the elders of each city and its judges, until the burning wrath of our God is turned back from us in this matter." ¹⁵ Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah stood against this, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite. ¹⁶ So the exiles did as proposed. Ezra, the kohen, set apart men who were patriarchal leaders of their fathers' households each designated by name. So they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to consider the matter, ¹⁷ and they were finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women on the first day of the first month.

¹⁸ Among the sons of the kohanim it was found that the following had married foreign women: The sons of Jeshua son of Jozadak and his brothers Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib, and Gedaliah. ¹⁹ They all gave their hands in pledge to put away their wives, and for their guilt, they offered a ram of the flock as a guilt offering.

²⁰ Also from the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah.

²¹ From the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel, and Uziah.

²² From the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasa.

²³ From the Levites: Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah—he is Kelita—Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer.

²⁴ From the singers: Eliashib. From the gatekeepers: Shallum, Telem, and Uri.

²⁵ Also from Israel: From the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah, and Benaiah.

²⁶ From the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth, and Elijah.

²⁷ From the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad, and Aziza.

²⁸ From the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, and Athlai.

²⁹ From the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, Adahiah, Jashub, Sheal, and Ramoth.

³⁰ From the sons of Pahath-Moab: Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui, and Manasseh.

³¹ From the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³² Benjamin, Malluch, and Shemariah.

† Luke 17:12; also the traditional prayer, Aleinu

³³ From the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, and Shimei.

³⁴ From the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, Uel, ³⁵ Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhu, ³⁶ Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷ Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasai, ³⁸ Bani, Binnui, Shimei, ³⁹ Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiah, ⁴⁰ Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, ⁴¹ Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, ⁴² Shallum, Amariah, and Joseph.

⁴³ From the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel, and Benaiah.

⁴⁴ All these had taken foreign women, and some of them had children by these wives.

Nehemiah

Nehemiah Introduction

Nehemiah is the model for Servant Leadership, both in the spiritual realm and for the 21st century organization. Nehemiah practiced “management by walking around.” He not only delegated work; he exemplified the ultimate servant leader. He demonstrated a life of prayer. Everything he did, all of his big decisions were highlighted by Nehemiah 1:4: “Upon hearing these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days. I prayed and fasted before the God of heaven.” Nehemiah’s name, נְהִמְיָהוּ, means “God comforts.” As noted in the introduction to the book of Ezra, the books of Ezra and Nehemiah are combined as one book in the Hebrew canon. Some scholars believe that one author penned both books. The time period is similar and the events in both books appear to have occurred in succession. However, the book of Nehemiah begins with the distressed condition of Jerusalem and in particular, her walls. Nehemiah was a Jew who returned from exile and rose to a high position in the Persian Empire.

We are told that Nehemiah was a cupbearer to king Artaxerxes I. He must have shared many intimate times of fellowship with the King. Upon learning about Jerusalem’s disastrous condition, Nehemiah prayed to God, that access would be given with the King. Miraculously, permission was granted, not only for access to the King, but also for the King to give Nehemiah permission to move to Jerusalem to rebuild the walls. The King even provided letters of approval, protection, and funding for the project.

Thus begins the amazing adventure of Nehemiah in rebuilding the walls of Jerusalem. Nehemiah demonstrated outstanding servant leadership as he labored intensely, traveled at night to survey the walls, and determined what would be the plan of action. He was surrounded by enemies, within his camp and outside his camp. “From that day on, half of my men were doing the work, while half of them took hold of the spears, shields, bows and breast plates, and the leaders were behind the entire house of Judah.... So each of the builders had his sword strapped to his side while they were building... (Neh. 4:10, 12) His battle cry became “Our God will fight for us” (Neh. 4:14)

Whether Nehemiah had to contend with opponents, economic hardship, traitors, conspiracy, or social injustice, Nehemiah rose to the call. He led by example and never compromised. God honored his obedience and prayers, in that the walls were restored in just fifty-two days.

The eighth chapter of Nehemiah notes the public reading of Scripture by Ezra. Ezra began to read the book of the of Moses. Several of the aides to Ezra “read from the scroll of God, distinctly explaining it and giving insight. Thus they understood what was read” (Neh. 8:8). The listeners wept as the words of the were read. Yet, Ezra exhorted them to enjoy the day, “For today is to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of is your strength” (Neh. 8:10). God’s covenant was re-established. Nehemiah 12:27–47 highlights Nehemiah’s work. With much celebration, the walls of Jerusalem were dedicated. This dedication is not the same Feast of Dedication, Hanukkah, הכּוּנָה, that is noted in the inter-testamental period or in John 10:22-23. May the final verse from the book of Nehemiah be our heart cry: “Remember me, O my God, for good!” (Neh. 13:30)

Nehemiah Intercedes for Jerusalem

1 The words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah:
 Now it happened that in the month of Kislev in the twentieth year, while I was in Shushan the capitol, ²that Hanani, one of my brothers, together with some men from Judah, arrived and I asked them about the Judeans, the remnant who had survived the captivity, and about Jerusalem.

³They said to me, "The remnant who have survived the captivity there in the province are in great distress and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down and its gates have been burned with fire."

⁴Upon hearing these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days. I prayed and fasted before the God of heaven. ⁵Then I said:

"ADONAI, God of heaven, the great and awesome God who keeps the covenant and lovingkindness with those who love Him and keep His mitzvot, ⁶ please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open to hear the prayer of Your servant that I am praying before You today both day and night on behalf of Your servants, the Bnei-Yisrael. I am confessing the sins of Bnei-Yisrael that we have sinned against You—yes, I and my ancestral house have sinned. ⁷We have acted very corruptly against You. We have not kept the mitzvot, the statutes, nor the rulings that You commanded Your servant Moses.

⁸"Please recall the word that You commanded Your servant Moses, saying, 'If you act unfaithfully, I will scatter you among the peoples, ⁹ but if you return to Me and obey My mitzvot, and do them, then even if your dispersed people are at the ends of the heavens, I will gather them from there, and bring them back to the place where I have chosen for My Name to dwell.'

¹⁰"They are Your servants and Your people whom You redeemed by Your great strength and by Your mighty hand. ¹¹ Please, my Lord, let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and to the prayer of Your servants who delight in revering Your Name. Give Your servant success today and grant compassion in the presence of this man."

Now I was cupbearer to the king.

Favor with the King

2 Then in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes, when wine was set before him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before. ² So the king said to me, "Why is your face so sad when you are not ill? This can be nothing but sadness of heart."

I was very frightened, ³ but I said to the king, "May the king live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins and its gates have been destroyed by fire?"

⁴ The king asked me, "What is your request?"

Then I prayed to the God of heaven, ⁵ and I answered the king, "If it seems good to the king and if your servant has found favor in your sight, send me to the city in Judah where my ancestors are buried that I may rebuild it."

⁶ Then the king, with the queen sitting beside him, asked me, "How long will your journey take, and when will you return?" Since it pleased the king to send me, I set a time for him.

⁷ I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let him give me letters for the governors of Trans-Euphrates that will enable me to pass through until I arrive in Judah, ⁸ as well as a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king's forest, so he will give me lumber to make beams for the gates of the fortress adjacent to the Temple, for the wall of the city and for the residence I will occupy."

The king granted me the requests because the good hand of my God was upon me.

⁹ Then I went to the governors of Trans-Euphrates and I gave them the king's letters. The king had also sent army officials and cavalry with me.

¹⁰ When Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the Ammonite officials heard all this, they were very displeased that a man had come to seek the welfare of Bnei-Yisrael.

Inspecting the Walls

¹¹ I came to Jerusalem, and after I was there for three days, ¹² I got up during the night along with a few men. But I did not tell anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no animals with me except the animal I was riding. ¹³ By night I went out by the Valley Gate toward Jackal Spring and the Dung Gate, inspecting the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been destroyed by fire. ¹⁴ Then I moved on to the Fountain Gate and to the King's Pool, where there was not enough room for my animal to pass with me; ¹⁵ so I went up the valley by night, examining the wall. Finally, I turned back and returned to the Valley Gate. ¹⁶ The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, but as yet I had not told the Jews, the kohanim, the nobles, the officials, or the rest of the workers.

¹⁷ Then I said to them, "You see the bad situation we are in: Jerusalem is desolate and its gates have been burnt. Come! Let us rebuild the wall of Jerusalem so that we will no longer be a disgrace."

¹⁸ Then I told them how the good hand of my God was on me and the words that the king had said to me. Then they replied, "Let us begin building!" So they prepared themselves for this good work.

¹⁹ But when Sanballat the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us. They said, "What is this you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

²⁰ I responded to them saying, "The God of heaven will bring us success. We His servants will arise and build. But you have no part, right, or historical claim in Jerusalem."

The Builders of the Wall

3 Then Eliashib the kohen gadol and his brothers, the kohanim, arose and built the Sheep Gate. They dedicated it and set up its doors, dedicating it as far as the Tower of the Hundred and as far as the Tower of Hananel. ² The men of Jericho built next to it and Zaccur the son of Imri built next to them.

³ The sons of Hassenaah built the Fish Gate. They laid its beams and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. ⁴ Next to them Meremoth son of Uriah, son of Hakkoz made repairs. Adjacent to them Meshullam son of Berechiah, son of Meshezabel made repairs, and next to them Zadok son of Baana made repairs. ⁵ The men of Tekoa made repairs next to them, but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work of their masters.

¹³ Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. They also repaired a thousand cubits of wall up to the Dung Gate.

¹⁴ Malchijah son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beth-Cherem, repaired the Dung Gate. He built it and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars.

³¹ After him Malchijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs up to the house of the Temple servants, and the merchants opposite the Inspection Gate and as far as the room above the corner. ³² Between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants worked.

Opposition Mocks the Rebuilding

³³ (4:1) Now when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he became very angry and was greatly enraged. He mocked the Jews ³⁴ (4:2) in the presence of his colleagues and the army of Samaria, saying:

"What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they revive the stones from the heaps of rubble that are burnt?"

³⁵ (4:3) Then Tobiah the Ammonite, who was beside him, said: "Even if a fox climbed on what they are building, it would break down their stone wall!"

³⁸ (4:6) So we rebuilt the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to half its height, for the people had a heart to work.

4 (7) Now when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the people of Ashdod heard that restoration of the walls of Jerusalem was proceeding and that the breaches had begun to be closed, they became extremely angry. ² (8) They all conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to stir up trouble against it. ³ (9) But we prayed to our God and stationed a guard against them day and night.

⁴ (10) Meanwhile the people of Judah said, "The strength of the laborers is failing. There is so much rubble that we are unable to rebuild the wall."

⁵ (11) Our adversaries also said, "They will not know or perceive anything, until we come among them and kill them, and put an end to the work!"

⁶ (12) So it happened that the Jews living near them came and told us ten times over, "Wherever you turn, they will attack us!"

Working and Watching

⁷ (13) So I stationed people in the lower places behind the wall in the exposed places. I stationed the people by families with their swords, spears, and bows. ⁸ (14) When I looked things over, I rose up and said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, "Do not be afraid of them. Remember the great and awesome Lord, and fight on behalf of your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives, and your homes."

⁹ (15) Now when our enemies heard that their plan was known to us, and that God had frustrated it, we all returned to the wall, each to his work. ¹⁰ (16) From that day on, half of my men were doing the work, while half of them took hold of the spears, shields, bows, and breastplates, and the leaders were behind the entire house of Judah. ¹¹ (17) Those building the wall and those bearing heavy burdens kept one hand on the work and the other holding a weapon. ¹² (18) So each of the builders had his sword strapped to his side while they were building, and the shofar blower was beside me.

¹³ (19) Then I said to the nobles, the rulers, and the rest of the people, "The work is extensive and spread out, and we are widely separated from one another on the wall. ¹⁴ (20) Wherever you hear the sound of the shofar, join us there. Our God will fight for us!"

¹⁵ (21) So we continued the work with half the men holding spears, from dawn until the stars came out. ¹⁶ (22) Also at that time I said to the people, "Let every man and his helper lodge inside Jerusalem, so they can be guards for us by night and workers by day." ¹⁷ (23) So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my workers, nor the guards who were with me took off our clothes; each man even had his weapon at the water.

Considering the Poor

5 Then there was a great outcry from the people and their wives to their fellow Jews. ² There were those who said, "We and our sons and our daughters are numerous. We must take grain, so we may eat and live."

³ There were others who said, "We are mortgaging our fields, our vineyards, and our houses in order to obtain grain during the famine."

⁴ Still others were saying, "We have borrowed money to pay the king's tax on our fields and vineyards. ⁵ And now, though we share the same flesh as our brothers, and our children are just like their children, still we subject our sons and our daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters have already been enslaved but our hands are tied since our fields and vineyards belong to others."

⁶ I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these words. ⁷ I pondered them in my heart and then I opposed the nobles and the officials, saying to them, "Usury! Each of you is putting his brother in debt!"

So I convened a great assembly to deal with them. ⁸ I said to them, "As much as possible, we have bought back our fellow Jews who had been sold to the nations. Now you also are selling your brothers so that they will be sold back to us?" Then they became silent and could not find anything to say.

⁹ Then I said, "The thing that you are doing is not good! Shouldn't you walk in the fear of our God, in order to avoid the reproach of our Gentile enemies?"

¹⁰ Even I, my brothers, and my servants are lending them money and grain. Let this usury stop, now!

¹¹ Now, return to them this very day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, as well as the hundredth that you have extracted from them on the money, the grain, the new wine, and the fresh oil."

¹² Then they said, "We will restore these and require nothing from them. We will do just as you say."

Then I summoned the kohanim and I made them swear to do according to this promise. ¹³ Also I shook out my garment, and said, "In this way may God shake out from His house and from His property every one that does not keep this promise. In this way may he be shaken out and emptied!"

And all the assembly replied, "Amen!" and they praised ADONAI. So the people did according to this promise.

Nehemiah's Unselfishness

¹⁴ Moreover, from the day when I was appointed to be the governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes—twelve years—neither I, nor my relatives have eaten the bread allocated to the governor. ¹⁵ The earlier governors, those preceding me, placed heavy burdens on the people, and took bread and wine from them, in addition to 40 shekels of silver. Their attendants also lorded over the people. But I did not do so, out of fear of God. ¹⁶ Instead, I devoted myself to the work on this wall, without even buying a field. All my attendants were gathered there for the work.

¹⁷ Furthermore, 150 Judeans and officials, as well as those that came to us from the nations around us, were at my table. ¹⁸ Now, each day one ox and six choice sheep, as well as some fowl, were prepared for me, and every ten days an abundance of every kind of wine was prepared. Despite all this, I did not require the governor's food allowance, because the work was already heavy on this people.

¹⁹ Remember me for good, O my God, for all that I have done for this people.

Attempts to Intimidate Nehemiah

6 Now it was reported to Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and no breach remained in it—even though at that time I had not positioned the doors in the gates. ² Sanballat and Geshem sent word to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together in one of the villages in the plain of Ono."

But they were scheming to do me harm.

³ So I sent messengers to them saying, "I am doing an important work, so I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?"

⁴ They sent me the same message four times, and each time I returned a similar response to them. ⁵ But the fifth time Sanballat sent his young aide to me in this way, he had an open letter in his hand. ⁶ In it was written:

"It has been heard among the nations—and Geshem substantiates it—that you and the Jews are planning to revolt. That is why you are rebuilding the wall. Furthermore, according to these reports, you are to become their king ⁷ and have even appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem saying, 'There is a king in Judah.' Now, the king is going to hear about these reports. So come now! Let us confer together."

⁸ Then I sent a message to him, saying, "Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are devising them from your own heart."

⁹ For they were all trying to intimidate us, thinking, "Their hands will become weak from the work and it will not be done."

So now, strengthen my hands!

¹⁰ Then I went to the house of Shemaiah, son of Delaiah, son of Mehetabel. He was confined to his home. He said, "Let us meet in the House of God, within the Temple. Let us shut the doors of the Temple, for they are coming to kill you. Indeed, they will come to kill you at night."

¹¹ But I said, "Should a man like me flee? Who in my position could go into the Temple and live? I will not go in."

¹² I recognized that God had not really sent him, for he had pronounced the prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³ He had been hired so that I might become so frightened that I would do this and thereby sin. Then they would give me a bad name in order to discredit me.

¹⁴ Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these works of theirs, and also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who have been trying to intimidate me.

¹⁵ So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in just 52 days. ¹⁶ When all our enemies heard, all the surrounding nations were afraid and fell greatly in their own eyes, because they realized that this work had been accomplished by our God.

¹⁷ Also in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah and replies from Tobiah kept coming to them. ¹⁸ For many in Judah were under oath to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah son of Arah, and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berechiah. ¹⁹ Moreover, they kept telling me about his good deeds and then reporting my words to him. Also Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

Hanani, Hananiah, and the Returning Exiles

7 After the wall had been rebuilt, the doors set up, and the gatekeepers, singers, and Levites appointed, ² I put in charge over Jerusalem, my brother Hanani along with Hananiah the commander of the fortress, for he was a man of integrity and feared God more than many. ³ I said to them, "The gates of Jerusalem must not be opened until the sun is hot. While those are still on duty, have them shut and bar the doors. Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their post and some near their homes.”

⁴ Now the city was spacious and large, but there were few people within it and no houses were being built. ⁵ So my God put into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials, and the people to be registered by genealogy. I found the scroll of the genealogical record of those who formerly returned. I found the following written there:

⁶ These are the people of the province who returned from the captivity of the exile, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had taken away, and who returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, each man to his own town. ⁷ Those who came with Zerubbabel were Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of Bnei-Yisrael was:

⁸ The sons of Parosh—2,172

⁹ The sons of Shephatiah—372

¹⁰ The sons of Arah—652

¹¹ The sons of Pahath-Moab, from the sons of Jeshua and Joab—2,818

¹² The sons of Elam—1,254

¹³ The sons of Zattu—845

¹⁴ The sons of Zaccai—760

¹⁵ The sons of Binnui—648

¹⁶ The sons of Bebai—628

¹⁷ The sons of Azgad—2,328

¹⁸ The sons of Adonikam—667

¹⁹ The sons of Bigvai—2,067

²⁰ The sons of Adin—655

²¹ The sons of Ater of Hezekiah—98

²² The sons of Hashum—328

²³ The sons of Bezai—324

²⁴ The sons of Hariph—112

²⁵ The sons of Gibeon—95

²⁶ The men of Beth-Lehem and Netophah—188

²⁷ The men of Anathoth—128

²⁸ The men of Beth-Azmaveth—42

²⁹ The men of Kiriath-Jearim, Kephirah, and Beeroth—743

³⁰ The men of Ramah and Geba—621

³¹ The men of Michmas—122

³² The men of Beth-El and Ai—123

³³ The men of the other Nebo—52

³⁴ The sons of the other Elam—1,254

³⁵ The sons of Harim—320

³⁶ The sons of Jericho—345

³⁷ The sons of Lod, Hadid, and Ono—721

³⁸ The sons of Senaah—3,930

³⁹ The kohanim :

The sons of Jedaiah, of the house of Jeshua—973

⁴⁰ The sons of Immer—1,052

⁴¹ The sons of Pashhur—1,247

⁴² The sons of Harim—1,017

⁴³ The Levites: the sons of Jeshua of Kadmiel from the sons of Hodeiah—74

⁴⁴ The singers: the sons of Asaph—148

⁴⁵ The gatekeepers: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Ater, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, and the sons of Shobai—138.

⁵⁷ The sons of Solomon's servants: the sons of Sotai, the sons of Sophereth, the sons of Perida, ⁵⁸ the sons of Jala, the sons of Darkon, the sons of Giddel, ⁵⁹ the sons of Shephatiah, the sons of Hattil, the sons of Pochereth-Hazzebaim, and the sons of Amon.

⁶⁰ All the Temple servants and the sons of Solomon's servants—392.

⁶¹ Now the following were the ones who came up from Tel-Melah, Tel-Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer—but they were not able to identify their ancestral houses or whether their descendants were from Israel: ⁶² the sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, and the sons of Nekoda—642.

⁶⁴ These sought their names in the genealogies, but were not found; so they were disqualified from the priesthood. ⁶⁵ The governor said to them that they should not eat any of the most holy things until a kohen arose with Urim and Thummim †.

⁶⁸ (69) There were 435 camels and 6,720 donkeys.

⁶⁹ (70) Some from among the family leaders contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury: gold drachmas—1,000; bowls—50; and priestly tunics—500. ⁷⁰ (71) Those from the heads of ancestral lines gave to the treasury for the work: gold drachmas—20,000; silver minas—2,000. ⁷¹ (72) The rest of the people gave gold drachmas—20,000; silver minas—2,000; and priestly tunics—67.

⁷² (73) So the kohanim , the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, and the Temple servants, even all Israel, dwelt in their towns.

Ezra Reads the Torah

Then the seventh month came and Bnei-Yisrael were in their towns.

8 Then all the people were brought as a single body into the plaza that was before the Water Gate. They said to Ezra the scribe, "Bring out the Torah scroll of Moses that ADONAI had commanded Israel."

² Ezra the kohen brought the Torah before the assembly, which included men and women and all who could understand what they heard. This happened on the first day of the seventh month. ³ So he read from it before the plaza in front of the Water Gate from first light until midday, in the presence of the men and women, and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the scroll of the Torah.

⁴ Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform constructed for this purpose. Standing near him at his right hand were Mattitiah, Shema, Anaiyah, Uriah, Hilkiyah, and Maaseiyah and at his left hand were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariyah, and Meshullam.

⁵ Ezra opened the scroll in the sight of all the people for he was above all the people. When he opened it, all the people stood up. ⁶ Ezra blessed ADONAI, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, amen!" as they lifted up of their hands. Then they bowed down and worshiped ADONAI with their faces to the ground.

⁷ The Levites—Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbetai, Hodiah, Maaseiyah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiyah—instructed the people in the Torah while the people were standing in their place.

⁸ They read from the Torah scroll of God, distinctly explaining [†] it and giving insight. Thus they understood what was read.

⁹ Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the kohen-scribe, and the Levites who were teaching the people said to all the people, "Today is kadosh to ADONAI your God. Do not mourn or weep!" For all the people had been weeping when they heard the words of the Torah.

¹¹ Then the Levites quieted all the people, saying, "Hush! For today is kadosh. Do not grieve." ¹² So all the people departed to eat and drink, to send portions, and to celebrate with great joy, because they came to understand the words that were explained to them.

Sukkot Joy

¹³ On the second day, the heads of the families along with the kohanim and the Levites gathered around Ezra to ponder the words of the Torah. ¹⁴ They found written in the Torah that ADONAI had commanded through Moses that Bnei-Yisrael should dwell in sukkot during the feast of the seventh month. ¹⁵ So that they should proclaim and spread this message in all their towns and in Jerusalem saying, "Go out to the hill country and bring olive branches and wild olive branches, myrtle branches, palm branches, and branches of other leafy trees to make sukkot, just as it is written." ¹⁶ So the people went out and brought branches, and made sukkot for themselves, each on their own roof, in their courtyards, in the courtyards of the House of God, in the plaza before the Water Gate and in the plaza of the Ephraim Gate. ¹⁷ The entire assembly who had returned from the captivity made sukkot and dwelt in the sukkot. Since the days of Joshua the son of Nun until that day Bnei-Yisrael had not done so—and the joy was very great.

¹⁸ Day after day from the first day to the last day, he read from the scroll of the Torah of God. So they kept the festival for seven days, and on the eighth day, according to the regulation, there was a solemn assembly.

Levites Tell Israel's Story

9 Now on the twenty-fourth day of this same month, Bnei-Yisrael gathered together, fasting and wearing sackcloth and putting dust on their heads. ² The offspring of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, standing and confessing their sins and the iniquities of their fathers. ³ They stood in their place and read in the scroll of the Torah of ADONAI their God for a quarter of the day; and for another quarter they were confessing and prostrating themselves before ADONAI their God.

⁴ Then the Levites —Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniyah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani—stood on the platform and cried out with a loud voice to ADONAI their God. ⁵ The Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiyah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniyah, and Pethahiyah—said: "Stand up! Bless ADONAI your God, from everlasting to everlasting! May Your glorious Name be blessed; may it be exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶ You alone are ADONAI. You made the heavens, even the highest heaven with all its array, ^{††} the earth and everything on it, the seas and everything in them. You give life to them all, and the multitudes of heaven worship You.

⁷ "You are ADONAI, the God who chose Abram, brought him from Ur of the Chaldeans and gave him the name Abraham. ⁸ You found his heart faithful before You and made the covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, Hittite, Amorite, Perizzite, Jebusite, and the Girgashite to his seed. You have fulfilled Your words, for You are righteous.

⁹ "You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt and heard their cry by the Sea of Reeds. ¹⁰ You gave signs and wonders against Pharaoh, all his servants, and all the people of his land, for You knew how insolently they treated them. You made a name for Yourself which remains to this day. ¹¹ You divided the sea before them, so that they passed through the midst of the sea on dry land! But their pursuers You threw into the depths like a stone into mighty waters. ¹² You led them with a pillar of cloud by day and with a pillar of fire by night to illuminate for them the way they were to go.

¹³ You descended on Mount Sinai and spoke with them from heaven. You gave them just judgments, reliable laws, and good statutes and mitzvot. ¹⁴ You made known to them Your holy Shabbat and ordained for them mitzvot, statutes and Torah by the hand of Your servant Moses. ¹⁵ You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger, and brought them water from the rock for their thirst. You told them to go in to possess the land that You had sworn to give them. †

¹⁶ “But they, our ancestors, became arrogant. They stiffened their neck and did not obey Your mitzvot. ¹⁷ They refused to obey and did not remember Your wonders that You did among them. Instead, they became stiff-necked and in their rebellion, appointed a leader in order to return to their bondage. But You are a God of forgiveness, merciful and compassionate, slow to anger, and abounding in love. Therefore You did not abandon them, ¹⁸ even when they made a cast image of a calf for themselves and said, ‘This is your god who brought you up from Egypt!’ or when they committed great blasphemies.

²² “You gave them kingdoms and peoples and You allotted them their boundaries of the land. They possessed the land of Sihon king of Heshbon and the country of Og king of Bashan. ²³ You multiplied their descendants like the stars of heaven, and You brought them into the land that You told their ancestors to enter and inherit. ²⁴ So the children went in and possessed the land. You subdued before them the Canaanites who were the inhabitants of the land. You delivered them into their hands, along with their kings and the peoples of the land to deal with them as they pleased. ²⁵ They captured fortified cities and fertile land. They took possession of houses full of every good thing—hewn cisterns, vineyards, olive groves, and an abundance of fruit trees. They ate and were satisfied, and grew fat. They enjoyed Your great goodness.

† Lit. raised Your hand

²⁶ “Nonetheless they became contentious and rebelled against You. They cast Your Torah behind their back. They killed Your prophets who warned them †† to return to You; they committed appalling blasphemies. ²⁷ Therefore You delivered them into the hand of their enemies who oppressed them. But in the time of their distress, they cried out to You and You heard from heaven. According to Your great compassion, You gave them deliverers, who rescued them out of the hand of their enemies.

²⁸ “But as soon as they were at rest, they returned to doing evil before You. Therefore You abandoned them into the hand of their enemies who ruled over them. When they repented and cried out to You, You heard from heaven, and according to Your compassion You delivered them many times.

²⁹ “You warned them in order to turn them back to Your Torah, but they became insolent and disobeyed Your mitzvot. They sinned against Your ordinances—those by which if a man does them he will live. They turned a stubborn shoulder and stiffened their neck, and would not listen. ³⁰ You bore with them for many years and admonished them by Your Ruach through the hand of Your prophets. Yet they would not listen, so You handed them over to the peoples of the lands. ³¹ Nevertheless, in Your great compassion, You did not put an end to them or abandon them, for You are a gracious and compassionate God.

³² “So now, our God—the great, mighty and awesome God, who keeps covenant and mercy—do not let all the hardship that has befallen us seem insignificant to you—our kings, our leaders, our kohanim, our prophets, our ancestors, and all Your people, from the time of the kings of Assyria to this day. ³³ You are righteous in all that has come upon us. For You have acted faithfully while we have done wickedly. ³⁴ Our kings, our leaders, our kohanim, and our ancestors have not kept Your Torah or paid attention to Your mitzvot or Your testimonies by which You have admonished them.

³⁵ “Even in their own kingdom with the abundance of Your good things that You gave them, or with the spacious and fertile land that You set before them, they did not serve You or turn back from their evil deeds.

³⁶ “But see, even today we are slaves! Slaves in the land that You gave to our ancestors to eat of its fruit and its bounty. We are slaves in it. ³⁷ Its abundant produce goes to the kings You have set over us due to our sins. They rule over our bodies and over our livestock as they please. We are in great distress!

Renewed Covenant

10 (9:38) “Now because of all this, we are making a binding agreement in writing, and the names of our leaders, our Levites, and our kohanim are affixing their seals on the document. ² (1) On the sealed document were:

†† cf. Matt. 23:30-31.

Nehemiah, the governor, son of Hachaliah, Zedekiah,³ (2) Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah,⁴ (3) Pashhur, Amariah, Malchijah,⁵ (4) Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch,⁶ (5) Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah,⁷ (6) Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch,⁸ (7) Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin,⁹ (8) Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the kohanim.

¹⁰ (9) And the Levites were:

Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui from the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel,

¹¹ (10) and their associates Shebaniah, Hodiah, Keltai, Pelaiah, Hanan,

¹² (11) Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah,

¹³ (12) Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

¹⁴ (13) Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.

¹⁵ (14) The leaders of the people:

Parosh, Pahat-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani,

¹⁶ (15) Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

¹⁷ (16) Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

¹⁸ (17) Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur,

¹⁹ (18) Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai,

²⁰ (19) Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai,

²¹ (20) Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir,

²² (21) Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua,

²³ (22) Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah,

²⁴ (23) Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub,

²⁵ (24) Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek,

²⁶ (25) Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

²⁷ (26) Ahiah, Hanan, Anan,

²⁸ (27) Malluch, Harim, and Baanah."

²⁹ (28) "Now the rest of the people—the kohanim, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Temple servants, and all who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands for the sake of the Torah of God, along with their wives, their sons, and their daughters who were able to understand—³⁰ (29) all join their brothers the nobles, and enter into a curse and an oath to walk in the Torah of God given through Moses the servant of God, and to keep and do all the mitzvot of ADONAI our Lord, along with His ordinances and His statutes.

³¹ (30) "Furthermore, we will not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, and we will not take their daughters for our sons. ³² (31) When the peoples of the land bring merchandise or any kind of grain on Shabbat, we will not buy from them on Shabbat or on a holy day. Also every seventh year we will forego working the land and the debt of every hand. ³³ (32) We also assume responsibility for the mitzvot to give a third of a shekel each year for the work of the House of our God: ¹³⁴ (33) for the rows of bread, the regular grain offering and regular burnt offering, the Shabbatot, the New Moons, for the moadim, for the holy things, for the sin offerings to atone for Israel, and for all the service of the House of our God.

³⁵ (34) "We—the kohanim, the Levites, and the people—have cast lots concerning the offering of wood, to bring it into the House of our God according to our ancestral house at the appointed times year by year to burn on the altar of ADONAI, our God, as it is written in the Torah. ³⁶ (35) Also to bring the firstfruits of our land and the firstfruits of all fruit trees year by year to the House of ADONAI, ³⁷ (36) and the firstborn of our sons and our livestock as written in the Torah; the firstborn of our cattle and our sheep to the House of our God—to the kohanim ministering in the House of our God; ³⁸ (37) and the first of our coarse meal, along with our offerings—the fruit from every kind of tree, new wine, and oil—to the kohanim at the storerooms of the House of our God, as well as a tenth of the crop of our land to the Levites, for they, the Levites, receive tithes in all the towns where we labor.

³⁹ (38) "Also the kohen, a descendant of Aaron, will be with the Levites when the Levites receive the tithe, and the Levites will bring a tenth of the tithes up to the House of our God, to the storerooms of the treasury. ⁴⁰ (39) For Bnei-Yisrael and the sons of Levi will bring the grain offering, new wine, and oil to the storerooms where the utensils for the Sanctuary, and for the ministering kohanim, the gatekeepers, and the singers are kept.

"We will not forsake the House of our God."

Resettlement of the Land

11 So the leaders of the people dwelt in Jerusalem while the remainder of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the other nine remained in the other towns. ² Then the people blessed all the men who volunteered to dwell in Jerusalem.

³ These are the leaders of the province who dwelt in Jerusalem. (Some of Israel, the kohanim, the Levites, the Temple servants, and the children of Solomon's servants dwelt in the towns of Judah, each on his own property in their towns, ⁴ and some of the descendants of Judah and Benjamin dwelt in Jerusalem.)

From the sons of Judah: Athaiah son of Uziah, son of Zechariah, son of Amariah, son of Shephatiah, son of Mahalalel, from the descendants of Perez; ⁵ also Maaseiah son of Baruch, son of Col-Hozeh, son of Hazariah, son of Adaiah, son of Joiarib, son of Zechariah, son of the Shilonite. ⁶ In all, 468 sons of Perez dwelt in Jerusalem—valiant men.

⁷ Now these are the sons of Benjamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Joed, son of Pedaiiah, son of Koliaiah, son of Maaseiah, son of Ithiel, son of Jeshaiiah. ⁸ Following him were 928 valiant men. ⁹ Joel son of Zichri was in charge over them; Judah son of Hassenuah was second over the city.

¹⁰ Of the kohanim: Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jachin, ¹¹ Seraiah son of Hilkiyah, son of Meshullam, son of Zadok, son of Meraioth, son of Ahitub, the ruler of the House of God, ¹² their relatives who performed the work of the House—822. Also Adaiah son of Jeroham, son of Pelaliah, son of Amzi, son of Zechariah, son of

† cf. Matt. 17:24.

Pashhur, son of Malchijah,¹³ and his relatives, leaders of ancestral lines—242. Also Amashsai son of Azarel, son of Ahzai, son of Meshillemoth, son of Immer,¹⁴ and their relatives were 128 valiant warriors. Zabdiel son of Hagedolim was in charge over them.

¹⁵ From the Levites: Shemaiah son of Hasshub, son of Azrikam, son of Hashabiah of Bunni. ¹⁶ From the leaders of the Levites, Shabbethai and Jozabad had oversight over the external business of the House of God. ¹⁷ Mattaniah son of Mica, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, the director who led the thanksgiving prayer. Also Bakbukiah, second among his relatives, and then Abda son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Jeduthun. ¹⁸ In all there were 284 Levites in the holy city.

¹⁹ Also there were 172 gatekeepers—Akkub, Talmon and their brothers—who kept watch at the gates.

²⁰ The rest of Israel, the kohanim, and the Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, each in his own inheritance.

²¹ But the Temple servants dwelt on the Ophel, with Ziha and Gishpa over the Temple servants. ²² The one in charge over the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, son of Hashabiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Mica, from the sons of Asaph who were singers responsible for the service in the House of God. ²³ The king's command concerning them was to provide regular daily support for the singers. ²⁴ Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, from the descendants of Zerah the son of Judah, was the king's agent for any matter concerning the people.

²⁵ Now as for the villages with their fields, some of the people of Judah dwelt in Kiriath-Arba and its towns, in Dibon and its towns, in Jekabzeel and its villages,²⁶ in Jeshua; in Moladah, in Beth-Pelet; ²⁷ in Hazar-Shual, in Beersheba and its towns,²⁸ in Ziklag, in Meconah and its towns,²⁹ in En-Rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth,³⁰ in Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, in Lachish and its fields, and in Azekah and its towns. So they settled from Beersheba to the Hinnom valley.

³¹ The descendants of Benjamin dwelt in Geba, Michmas and Aijah, Beth-El and its towns,³² Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,³³ Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,³⁴ Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,³⁵ Lod, Ono, and Ge-Harashim. ³⁶ Some of the divisions of the Levites of Judah settled with Benjamin.

Identifying the Kohanim and Levites

12 Now these are the kohanim and the Levites who returned with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,² Amariah, Mal-luch, Hattush,³ Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,⁴ Iddo, Ginnethoi, Abijah,⁵ Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,⁶ Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,⁷ Sallu, Amok, Hilkiyah, and Jedaiah. These were the leaders of the kohanim and their brothers in the days of Jeshua.

⁸ The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah—he and his brothers conducted the songs of praise—⁹ and Bakbukiah and Unni, their brothers, were opposite them in ranks.

¹⁰ Jeshua fathered Joiakim, Joiakim fathered Eliashib, Eliashib fathered Joiada,¹¹ Joiada fathered Jonathan, and Jonathan fathered Jaddua.

²² The family heads of the Levites were recorded in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, as well as for the kohanim, up until the reign of Darius the Persian. ²³ The family leaders among the sons of Levi were recorded in the Book of the Chronicles up to the days of Johanan son of Eliashib.

²⁴ So the leaders of the Levites were: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua son of Kadmiel, with their brothers facing them, to give praise and thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, one section responding to the other. ²⁵ Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub were gatekeepers guarding the storehouses at the gates. ²⁶ These served in the days of Joiakim son of Jeshua, son of Jozadak, in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the kohen-scribe.

Dedicating the Wall

²⁷ At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought out Levites from all their places to bring them to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication with joy and thanksgiving, and songs with cymbals, harps, and lyres. ²⁸ The companies of singers were also assembled from the district around Jerusalem and from the Netophathite villages,²⁹ and from Beth-Gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmavet, for the singers had built communities for themselves round about Jerusalem.

³⁰ After the kohanim and the Levites had purified themselves, they purified the people, the gates, and the wall. ³¹ Then I led the leaders of Judah up on the wall, and I appointed two great choirs to give thanks. One of the processions went to the right on the wall toward the Dung Gate,³² and going after them, Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah—³³ Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,³⁴ Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah and Jeremiah,³⁵ some of the kohanim with trumpets, Zechariah son of Jonathan, son of Shemaiah, son of Mattaniah, son of Micaiah, son of Zaccur, son of Asaph,³⁶ and his brothers, Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani—all with the musical instruments of David the man of God—and Ezra the scribe was ahead of them. ³⁷ They went over the Fountain Gate and continued up the stairs of the city of David at the ascent to the wall, and passed,

³⁸ The second thanksgiving choir proceeded to the left. I followed them, along with half of the people on the wall above the Tower of the Furnaces as far as the Broad Wall, ³⁹ over the Ephraim Gate, the gate of the old city, the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, to the Sheep Gate. They stopped at the Gate of the Guard.

⁴⁰ So the two thanksgiving choirs stood in the House of God. ⁴¹ So did I along with half the officials with me, and the kohanim—Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micahiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah with their trumpets—⁴² and also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang under the direction of Jezrahiah. ⁴³ On that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced, for God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The joy in Jerusalem could be heard from far off.

⁴⁴ On that day men were appointed over the storehouses for the offerings, firstfruits, and tithes. They were to gather into them the portions from the fields of the cities required by the Torah for the kohanim and the Levites. For Judah delighted in the kohanim and in the Levites who were ministering. ⁴⁵ They kept the ceremonial functions of their God and the ceremony of the purification according to the command of David and of Solomon his son. ⁴⁶ For of old, in the days of David and Asaph, there were leaders of the singers who sang songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.

⁴⁷ So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel gave daily portions for the singers and the gatekeepers. They also set apart the portion for the Levites, and the Levites set apart the portion for the sons of Aaron.

Please Remember This, My God

13 On that day, the scroll of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people. The command was found written in it that no Ammonite or Moabite should enter into the assembly of God forever. ² For they did not meet Bnei-Yisrael with bread and water, but instead hired Balaam against them to curse them. However, our God turned the curse into a blessing. ³ When they heard the Torah, they separated from Israel all of mixed ancestry.

⁴ Prior to this Eliashib the kohen was given authority over the storerooms in the House of our God. ⁵ He was closely associated with Tobiah and provided him with a large chamber previously used to store the offerings, frankincense, and the Temple vessels, and also the tithes of grain, wine, and oil prescribed for the Levites, singers and gatekeepers, along with the offerings for the kohanim.

⁶ I was not in Jerusalem during all this, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon, I went to the king. After a period of time, I requested to take leave from the king ⁷ and returned to Jerusalem. Then I discovered the evil that Eliashib had done by preparing a chamber for Tobiah in the courts of the House of God. ⁸ It greatly displeased me, so I threw all of Tobiah's household goods outside of the storeroom ⁹ and commanded the storerooms to be cleansed. Then I restored the utensils of the House of God, the offerings, and the frankincense.

¹⁰ I also learned that the portions for the Levites had not been provided, and that each of the Levites and singers who performed the work had gone back to his own field. ¹¹ So I rebuked the leaders and asked, "Why has the House of God been forsaken?" I assembled them and stationed them at their posts.

¹² Then all Judah brought the tithe of grain, new wine, and oil to the storehouses. ¹³ I put Shelemiah the kohen, Zadok the scribe, and Pedaiah from the Levites in charge over the storehouses, and made Hanan son of Zaccur son of Mattaniah their assistant, because these men were considered faithful. They were responsible for distributing to their brothers.

¹⁴ Remember me for this, O my God, and do not blot out my lovingkindness that I have done for the House of my God and for overseeing it.

¹⁵ In those days, I saw in Judah some people treading winepresses on the Shabbat, some bringing and loading heaps of grain on donkeys, as well as wine, grapes, figs and various other burdens, bringing them into Jerusalem on the Shabbat day. So I warned them about selling food on that day. ¹⁶ Men from Tyre who lived there were bringing fish and all kinds of merchandise and were selling it on the Yom Shabbat to the children of Judah, even in Jerusalem.

¹⁷ So I complained to the nobles of Judah and asked them, "What is this evil thing that you are doing? You are profaning Yom Shabbat!" ¹⁸ Didn't your ancestors do exactly the same causing our God to bring all this evil upon us and upon this city? So now you are bringing even more wrath upon Israel by profaning Yom Shabbat."

²⁰ Once or twice the traders and those selling all kinds of merchandise camped outside Jerusalem.

²¹ But I warned them and said to them, "Why are you camping next to the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time they no longer came on the Shabbat.

²² Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves, and to come and guard the gates in order to sanctify Yom Shabbat. Remember this also on my behalf, O my God, and have compassion on me according to the greatness of your lovingkindness.

²³ In those days I also saw Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. ²⁴ Half of their children spoke the dialect of Ashdod or the language of other peoples, but none of them understood the language of Judah. ²⁵ So I rebuked them. I cursed them, beat some of their men and pulled their beards. I made them swear by God, saying, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons—or for yourselves. ²⁶ Didn't Solomon king of Israel sin about these things? Yet among many nations there was never any king like him. Yes, he was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless, the foreign women caused even him to sin. ^{†27} Must we then hear about you doing all this great evil, thereby being unfaithful with our God by marrying foreign women?"

²⁸ Now one of the sons of Joiada, son of Eliashib the kohen gadol, was son-in-law of Sanballat the Horonite. So I drove him from me. ²⁹ O my God, please remember them for the defilement of the priesthood as well as the covenant of the priesthood and the Levites. ³⁰ So I purged them from everything foreign and I assigned duties for the kohanim and the Levites, each to his own task, ³¹ and for the wood offering at appointed times and for the firstfruits.

Remember me, O my God, for good.

† cf. Matt. 6:29.

Esther

Esther Introduction

The name “ester” is apparently derived from the Persian word for star, . Esther’s Hebrew name was Hadassah, meaning “myrtle.”

The Babylonian Talmud attributes the writing of Esther to the men of the Great Synagogue. Josephus affirmed that Mordecai wrote the book of Esther; others affirmed that Mordecai wrote the book of Esther, sometime between 460 and 350 BCE.

Esther was written for the Jewish people, especially to display the providence of God in regard to Israel. Esther records the institution of the Feast of Purim and keeps the memory of God’s salvation alive for future generations. Purim is the plural word for “,” the “lots,” that were used to determine the fate of the Jewish people at the hands of the evil Haman. The Book of Esther is read at the Feast of Purim to commemorate the great deliverance of the Jewish nation brought about by God through Esther. In the Jewish world, “”—plays based on the reading of the “whole” (scroll), are often acted out by young and old alike, drawing the children into recounting the loving care of God for His people—often uncared about.

Commentators throughout the ages have drawn poignant parallels between the characters in the book of Esther and the divine drama that unfolded in their lives. In His sovereignty, God knew that the descendants of the Amalek and Agag would persecute and trouble the Jewish people. Just as Moses and Saul had dealt with these, so it was Mordecai’s turn in his day with their descendant Haman. God is the hero of Esther, although He is never mentioned by name. In fact His divine oversight has been a source of comfort to the Jewish people throughout time. This short tale provides ample evidence of His sovereignty and His commitment to His purposes. When all seems to be lost, God wins the day and preserves His people.

Esther is a brilliant type of the Bride of the Messiah. Mordecai coaxes and challenges her (Esther 4:13) as her natural uncle (Esther 2:7), much as the Holy Spirit prompts individuals to action. With Haman as (“the adversary,” Esther 3:6) in play, the horrible drama is set. God then invites Esther to participate in His response. Today, as yesterday, God is offering another woman (the believing community) an opportunity to participate in His plan for Israel and the Jewish people (Romans 11:18). His New Covenant bride, must recognize her Jewish roots and proclaim her kinship through credible witness, intercession and participate in rescue when appropriate. Thankfully, more believers are coming to understand these issues as the era of Messiah draws near.

Persian King's Banquet

1 This is what happened in the days of Ahasuerus, the Ahasuerus who reigned over 127 provinces from India to Ethiopia. 2 At that time King Ahasuerus sat on his royal throne in the castle in Shushan. 3 In the third year of his reign, he gave a banquet for all his princes and his servants. The military leaders of Persia and Media plus the nobles and officials of the provinces were present.

4 He displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the splendor and glory of his majesty for many days, 180 days. 5 When these days were over, the king gave a banquet, lasting seven days, in the garden court of the king's palace for all the people who were present in the palace at Shushan, for both the greatest to the least. 6 There were white and blue linen curtains hung by cords of fine linen and purple on silver rings and marble columns, gold and silver couches on a mosaic pavement of alabaster, marble, mother-of-pearl and minerals. 7 Wine was served in golden goblets, each of which was different from the other, and the royal wine was abundant according to the king's wealth. 8 In keeping with the law, there were no restrictions on drinking for the king had instructed the supervisors of his household to comply with each person's desire. 9 In addition Queen Vashti held a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Ahasuerus.

Vashti Refuses to Appear

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry from the wine, he commanded Mehuman, Bizzetha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas—the seven eunuchs who attended Ahasuerus the king— 11 to bring Queen Vashti before the king wearing the royal crown. He wanted to show the peoples and the officials her beauty, for she was very attractive. 12 But Queen Vashti refused to come at the king's command conveyed by the eunuchs. Then the king became furious, and burned with anger.

13 So the king consulted the wise men who discerned the times, for it was the king's practice to consult experts in matters of law and justice. 14 Those closest to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media who had access to the king's presence and were the highest in the kingdom.

15 "By law, what is to be done with Queen Vashti, for failing to obey the command of King Ahasuerus conveyed by the eunuchs?"

16 Then Memucan answered in the presence of the king and the princes, "Queen Vashti has wronged not only the king, but also all the princes and peoples who are in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus. 17 For the queen's conduct will go out to all the women making their husbands contemptible in their eyes, by saying, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Queen Vashti to be brought in before him, but she would not come!'

18 This very day the noblewomen of Persia and Media who have heard of the matter concerning the queen will respond similarly to all the king's princes and there will be no end to the contempt and anger. 19 If it pleases the king, let a royal commandment go forth from him, and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be repealed, that Vashti may not come into the presence of King Ahasuerus, and let the king give her royal status to another who is more worthy than she. 20 Then the king's edict, which he will enact, will be proclaimed throughout all his vast kingdom, and all the wives will give their husbands honor from the greatest to the smallest."

21 The matter pleased the king and the princes. So the king did according to the word of Memucan. 22 He sent letters throughout all the royal provinces, to each province in its own script, and to each people in its own language, that every man should be in charge of his own household, and speak the language of his own people.

Esther Wins Favor

2 After these things when King Ahasuerus' anger subsided, he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what had been decreed against her. 2 Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Let a search be made on the king's behalf for beautiful young virgins. 3 Let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom to gather together all the beautiful young virgins to the palace at Shushan in the house of women under the supervision of Hegai the king's eunuch, who oversees the women. Let them be given beauty treatments. 4 Then let the young woman who pleases the king become queen instead of Vashti."

This advice pleased the king and he acted accordingly.

5 There was a Jewish man in the Shushan palace whose name was Mordecai, son of Jair son of Shimei, son of Kish, a Benjamite, 6 who had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the captives that had been carried away with King Jeconiah of Judah, whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon had taken away. 7 He had raised Hadassah—that is Esther—his uncle's daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The girl was attractive and had a beautiful figure. When her father and mother died, Mordecai took her to him as his own daughter.

8 After the king's order and decree became known, many young women were assembled in the palace of Shushan under the supervision of Hegai. Esther also was taken into the king's household under the supervision of Hegai, guardian of the women. 9 This young woman pleased him and found favor with him. He quickly arranged her beauty treatments and provided her special food. He also provided her with seven specially chosen young women from the king's household. Then he moved her and her maids to the best place in the women's house.

¹⁰ Esther had not disclosed her people or her lineage, because Mordecai had commanded her not to make them known. ¹¹ Every day Mordecai walked in front of the women's courtyard to find out how Esther was, and what might happen to her.

¹⁹ When the virgins were assembled a second time, Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate. ²⁰ Esther had not yet made known her lineage or her people, just as Mordecai had told her. Esther continued to follow Mordecai's instructions as she had done when he was bringing her up.

Mordecai Foils a Plot

²¹ In those days while Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the doorway, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Ahasuerus. ²² But Mordecai found out about the plot and told it to Queen Esther. Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name. ²³ When the matter was investigated and found to be so, they were both hanged on a gallows. It was then written in the book of the chronicles in the king's presence.

Haman Hates the Jews

³ Some time later King Ahasuerus promoted Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite, elevating him and setting his chair above all the officials who were with him. ² All the king's servants who were at the king's gate bowed down and paid honor to Haman, for the king had commanded it. But Mordecai would not bow down or pay him honor.

³ Then the king's servants who were at the king's gate said to Mordecai, "Why are you disobeying the king's command?" ⁴ Day after day, they spoke to him but he would not listen to them. Therefore they told Haman in order to see whether Mordecai's resolve would prevail, for he had told them that he was a Jew.

⁵ When Haman saw that Mordecai was not bowing down or paying him honor, Haman was filled with rage. ⁶ But it was repugnant in his eyes to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had told him the identity of Mordecai's people. So Haman sought to destroy all the Jews, the people of Mordecai, who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus.

⁷ In the first month (that is the month of Nisan), in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast the pur (that is, 'the lot') in the presence of Haman from day to day and month to month, up to the twelfth month, which is the month of Adar.

⁸ Haman then said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom whose laws differ from those of every other people and who do not obey the king's laws. It is not in the king's interest to tolerate them. ⁹ If it pleases the king, let an edict be written to destroy them. I will pay 10,000 talents of silver into the hands of those who carry out this business, to put it into the king's treasuries."

¹⁰ The king took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman—son of Hammedatha the Agagite—enemy of the Jews. ¹¹ The king said to Haman, "The silver and the people are yours—do with them as you please."

¹² The king's scribes were summoned in the first month, on the thirteenth day, and an edict was written as Haman had commanded. Everything Haman commanded was written to the king's provincial governors, and to the officials who were in every province, and to the officials of every people, province by province, according to its script and people by people according to its language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus and sealed with the king's ring. ¹³ Dispatches were sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, stating to destroy, slay, and annihilate all the Jews—from the youth to the elderly, both little children and women—on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, and to plunder their possessions. ¹⁴ A copy of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to all people, so that they would be ready for that day. ¹⁵ The couriers went out hurriedly with the king's command and the edict was issued in the palace in Shushan. The king and Haman then sat down to drink. But the city of Shushan was dumbfounded.

If I Perish!

4 When Mordecai learned all that was done, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the middle of the city crying out in a loud and bitter voice. ² He went only as far as the king's gate, because no one could enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth. ³ In each and every province where the king's edict and law came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many put on sackcloth and ashes.

⁴ When Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her, the queen was greatly distressed. She sent clothes for Mordecai to put on so he would remove his sackcloth, but he refused. ⁵ So Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and ordered him to go to Mordecai to find the cause and reason for this.

⁶ So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the city square in front of the king's gate. ⁷ Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him, even the exact amount of money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews. ⁸ He also gave him a written copy of the decree, which had been distributed in Shushan, for their annihilation, to show to Esther and to explain it to her. He instructed her to go in to the king, to beg his favor and plead before him on behalf of her people. ⁹ Hathach went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said.

¹⁰ Then Esther spoke to Hathach and gave him instructions for Mordecai: ¹¹ "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces fully understand that for anyone, man or woman, who approaches the king in the inner courtyard without being summoned, he has one law—that he be put to death, unless the king extends his golden scepter permitting him to live. But I have not been summoned to come to the king for 30 days." ¹² So they conveyed Esther's words to Mordecai.

¹³ Mordecai told them to reply to Esther with this answer, "Do not think in your soul that you will escape in the king's household more than all the Jews. ¹⁴ For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place—but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows whether you have attained royal status for such a time as this?"

¹⁵ Esther sent this to reply to Mordecai, ¹⁶ "Go! Gather together all the Jews who are in Shushan and fast for me. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will fast in the same way. Afterwards, I will go in to the king, even though it is not according to the law. So if I perish, I perish!"

¹⁷ So Mordecai left and did all that Esther commanded him.

Esther's Request of the King

5 On the third day, Esther put on her royal apparel and stood in the inner court of the palace, in front of the king's hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the entrance. ² When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard, she found favor in his eyes, so the king held out to Esther the golden scepter in his hand and Esther approached and touched the top of the scepter.

³ Then said the king to her, "What is it, Queen Esther? Whatever you request, even as much as half of the kingdom, it will be given to you."

⁴ So Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

⁵ The king replied, "Bring Haman quickly so we may do what Esther said." Then the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther prepared. ⁶ As they were drinking wine, the king said to Esther, "What is your request? It will be granted to you. Whatever you request, even as much as half the kingdom, it will be fulfilled."

⁷ Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request is this: ⁸ If I have found favor in the king's eyes and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and my request, then let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet that I will prepare for them—and then I will do as the king requests."

Gallows for Mordecai

⁹ Haman went out that day happy and in good spirits. However, when Haman saw Mordecai at the king's gate, and he did not rise or tremble before him, Haman was filled with rage against Mordecai. ¹⁰ Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself and went home.

He sent for his friends and his wife Zeresh. ¹¹ Haman boasted to them about his vast wealth, his many sons, and how the king had promoted him and exalted him above the other officials and servants of the king. ¹² Haman added, "And that's not all! Queen Esther invited only me to accompany the king to a banquet that she prepared. And she has also invited me along with the king tomorrow. ¹³ Yet all this does not satisfy me, as long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

¹⁴ Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "Let them set up a gallows 50 cubits high, and in the morning ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it. Then go happily with the king to the banquet." This idea delighted Haman and he ordered the gallows to be built.

The King Honors Mordecai

6 That night sleep deserted the king, so he ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, be brought in and read before the king. ²It was found recorded there that Mordecai had revealed that Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the door, had conspired to kill King Ahasuerus.

³The king asked, "What honor or recognition has been shown to Mordecai for this?"

The king's servants that attended him replied, "Nothing has been done for him."

⁴The king said, "Who is in the courtyard?" Now Haman had just come into the outer court of the king's palace to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

⁵The king's servants answered, "Haman is standing in the courtyard."

The king said, "Let him come in."

⁶When Haman entered, the king asked him, "What should be done for a man whom the king desires to honor?"

Now Haman thought to himself, "Whom would the king desire to honor rather than me?" ⁷So Haman replied, "For the man whom the king desires to honor, ⁸let them bring a royal robe that the king has worn, and a horse on which the king has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on his head. ⁹Then let the robe and the horse be placed into the hand of one of the king's most noble princes. Let them clothe the man whom the king desires to honor and parade him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming, 'This is what is done for a man the king desires to honor!'"

¹⁰The king said to Haman, "Go quickly! Take the robe and the horse, just as you suggested, for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate! Do not neglect anything that you recommended."

¹¹So Haman took the robe and the horse, robed Mordecai, and paraded him through the city streets, proclaiming: "This is what is done for the man whom the king desires to honor." ¹²Afterwards, Mordecai then returned to the king's gate, but Haman rushed to his home, grief-stricken and with his head covered.

¹³Haman recounted to his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him. His advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, "Since Mordecai, before whom you have begun your downfall, is of Jewish descent, you won't be able to stand against him. In fact, you will certainly fall before him!" ¹⁴While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs came and hurried Haman along to the banquet Esther had prepared.

Esther Intercedes for Her People

7 So the king and Haman came to dine with Queen Esther, ²and as they were drinking wine on the second day, the king asked Esther again, "Whatever you request, even as much as half of the kingdom, it will be given to you."

³So Queen Esther answered, "If I have found favor in the eyes of the king, and if it pleases the king, grant me my life—this is my petition. And spare the life of my people—this is my request! ⁴For we have been sold, I and my people, for destruction, slaughter and annihilation. If we had simply been sold as male and female slaves, I would have remained silent, for such distress would not be worth disturbing the king."

⁵King Ahasuerus responded to Queen Esther, "Who is he? Where is the man that presumed to do this?"

⁶Esther replied, "The man—the adversary and foe—is this wicked Haman!"

Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen. ⁷Enraged, the king got up from the banquet of wine and withdrew to the palace garden. But Haman stayed behind to plead with Queen Esther for his life, for he realized that the king had determined a catastrophic end for him.

⁸When the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the same couch where Esther was. The king exclaimed, "Will he also assault the queen while she is with me in the palace?"

As soon as these words came out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. ⁹Harbonah, one of the eunuchs attending the king, said, "Look, a gallows fifty cubits high is standing next to Haman's house. Haman himself made it for Mordecai, who spoke good on behalf of the king!" [†]

The king said, "Hang him on it!" ¹⁰So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's rage subsided.

A Decree to Protect the Jews

8 That same day King Ahasuerus gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Then Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Esther had revealed how he was related to her. ²The king took off his signet ring, which he had taken back from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther then appointed Mordecai over Haman's estate.

³Esther again pleaded with the king, falling at his feet and weeping. She pleaded with him to stop the evil of Haman the Agagite and his plan that he had devised against the Jews. ⁴Then the king extended the golden scepter to Esther, and she arose and stood before the king.

⁵She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor before him and it seems right to the king, and if I am pleasing in his eyes, let an edict be written rescinding the dispatches devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are throughout the king's provinces.

⁶For how can I endure seeing the disaster that will fall on my people? How can I bear to see the destruction of my relatives?"

⁷King Ahasuerus said to Queen Esther and Mordecai the Jew, "I have decided to give Haman's estate to Esther and had him hanged on the gallows, because he stretched out his hand against the Jews. ⁸Now write in the king's name on behalf of the Jews what seems good to you and seal it with the king's signet ring. For a decree that is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, cannot be revoked."

⁹ So the king's scribes were called at that time—on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan. It was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to all the Jews, as well as to the officials, governors and advisors of all the 127 provinces that stretch from India to Ethiopia. To each province it was written in its own script and in its own language, and also to the Jews in their own writing and language.

¹⁰ This decree was written in the name of King Ahasuerus, sealed with the king's ring, and sent on horseback by couriers who rode on the king's horses specially bred for their speed.

¹¹ The king granted the right for Jews in every city to assemble themselves and to protect themselves—to destroy, kill and annihilate any army of any people or province that might attack them and their women and children, and to plunder their possessions. ¹² The day appointed for this in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar. ¹³ A copy of the written edict was distributed to every province and made known to the peoples of every nationality so that the Jews would be ready on that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

¹⁴ The couriers that rode royal horses raced out, pressed on by the king's command. The decree was also given out at the palace at Shushan.

¹⁵ Then Mordecai went out from the king's presence in blue and white royal robes, with a large gold crown, and also a purple robe of fine linen. The city of Shushan shouted and rejoiced. ¹⁶ For the Jews there was light and gladness, joy and honor. ¹⁷ Throughout every province and throughout every city, wherever the king's edict and his law went, the Jews had gladness and joy, banquets and holidays. Many peoples of the land became Jews, because the fear of the Jews had overcome them.

Jews Defend Themselves

9 Consequently, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month (that is the month Adar), the king's edict and his law drew near to be carried out. On that day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, but contrary to expectations the Jews gained the upper hand over those that hated them. ² Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of King Ahasuerus in order to lay hands on those seeking their harm. No one was able to stand against them, for fear of them had fallen on all the peoples. ³ Even all the administrators of the provinces, the officers and governors, and those doing business for the king, helped the Jews, for the dread of Mordecai had fallen on them. ⁴ Mordecai was prominent at the palace, and his fame spread throughout all the provinces. The man Mordecai was growing ever more powerful.

⁵ The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying, and they did whatever they wished to those who hated them. ⁶ In the citadel at Shushan the Jews killed and destroyed 500 people, ⁷ including Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, ⁸ Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, ⁹ Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha, ¹⁰ the 10 sons of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. They slew them but did not lay their hands on the plunder.

¹¹ On that day the number of those that were killed in the citadel at Shushan was brought to the king's attention. ¹² Then the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed 500 men in the citadel of Shushan, including Haman's ten sons. What have they done, in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your request? It shall be granted to you. What other petition do you have? It shall be done."

¹³ "If it please the king," Esther said, "let the Jews in Shushan be allowed to carry out today's edict tomorrow also, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

¹⁸ But the Jews that were in Shushan had assembled on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth and on the fifteenth they rested, making it a day of feasting and gladness. ¹⁹ That is why the rural Jews—those living in unwallled villages—make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, a day of sending presents of food to one another.

Purim Festival

²⁰ Mordecai recorded these events and he sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Ahasuerus, both near and far, ²¹ urging them to celebrate the fourteenth and fifteenth days of Adar every year ²² as the days when the Jews got relief from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into celebration. These were to be days of feasting, celebration and sending presents of food to one another and giving gifts to the poor.

²³ So the Jews agreed to continue the commemoration they had begun, and do what Mordecai had written to them. ²⁴ For Haman, son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the pur—that is, the lot—to ruin and destroy them.²⁵ But when it came to the king's attention, he issued a written edict that the wicked scheme Haman † had devised against the Jews should come back on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. (²⁶ For this reason, these days were called Purim, from the word pur.) Therefore because of everything in this letter and because of what they had seen and what had happened to them,²⁷ the Jews established and took upon themselves, upon their descendants, and upon all who joined with them, that they would commemorate these two days in the way prescribed and at the appointed time every year.²⁸ These days should be remembered and observed in every generation by every family and in every province and every city. These days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor their remembrance perish from their descendants.

²⁹ Then Queen Esther the daughter of Abihail, and also Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter of Purim.³⁰ He sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of shalom and truth,³¹ to establish these days of Purim at their designated times, just as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had decreed for them and just as they had established for themselves and their descendants, matters regarding their times of fasting and lamentations.³² Esther's command confirmed these regulations about Purim and it was written into the records.

10 Now King Ahasuerus imposed a tribute upon the entire land, even to the coastlands of the sea.² All the acts of his power and might, along with the full account of the greatness of Mordecai and the story of how the king promoted him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?³ For Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Ahasuerus, preeminent among the Jews, and held in high esteem by the multitude of his people. He sought their good and spoke for the welfare of his descendants.

Job

Job Introduction

Many scholars believe that the book of Job is the oldest book of the Bible. There is no mention of the Torah or the land of Israel. We are unsure where the land of Uz (Job 1:1) was, so much of the initiatory content is speculation. In the opening verses, we see the stage set for what follows. We are introduced to Job (יֹבִיָּא) who is described as a man who is blameless and upright (יָשָׁר). The content of this book contains speeches from Job, his advisers and God.

The most important subject that the book of Job deals with is the problem of theodicy. Theodicy attempts to justify suffering in light of God's perfect will for man. If God is perfect, why did He allow Job to suffer so severely? Why do good people suffer? Why should one do right if one must suffer as Job did? Why did not God intervene? As Rabbi Harold Kushner addressed in his book, , man does not always have the answers to such perplexing questions.

If God is omniscient and all-powerful, then the presence of evil evokes a philosophical challenge. If evil appears to have the upper hand, then God seems to not be all-powerful or all-loving. Job attempts to reconcile his suffering in light of his own finite knowledge.

In Job 1:6, we see a dialogue between God and . Another perplexing philosophical challenge is: why did God even address to inquire, "Have you noticed my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth – a blameless and upright man, who fears God and spurns evil."(Job 1:8) Satan challenges Job's integrity and God allows him to afflict and torment Job: physically through painful boils, with loss of wealth, and with loss of his children. If that was not bad enough, his wife exhorted him to "curse God and die" (Job 2:9). We are introduced to Job's three friends: Eliphaz, Zophar and Bildad. These fellows try to console him and offer advice about . Each friend has his own view about God and retribution. They were eager to give Job advice thinking that his suffering was because of his sin. Rather than judgment and condemnation, Job needed comfort and compassion. Another friend, Elihu, joins the fray.

Finally, God answers. He initially rebukes Job, then questions him. Were you there at creation? Were you there in the design of the stars in their orbit? Job remained silent. Do you have an arm like God's? (Job 38 - 40). Job came to realize that God was sovereign, divine, infinite and all-knowing. The book of Job has a happy ending in that restored the fortunes of Job when he prayed for his friends (Job 42:10).

If there is one lesson that we learn from this book, it is that "Many are the distresses of the righteous, but delivers him out of them all." (Ps. 34:20).

Job and His Children

¹ There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. Now that man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil. ² He had seven sons and three daughters ³ and his possessions were 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 500 yoke of oxen, and 500 female donkeys, and a very large household. That man was the greatest of all the people of the East.

⁴ Now it was customary for his sons to hold a banquet, each on his own day in his own house. They would send to invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. ⁵ When the round of banquet days was completed, Job would send for them and consecrate them. He would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings, according to the number of them all. For Job said, "Perhaps my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts." Thus Job did everyday.

The Adversary Tests Job

⁶ One day the sons of God came to present themselves before ADONAI, and the satan [†] also came with them. ⁷ ADONAI said to the satan, "Where have you come from?"

The satan responded to ADONAI and said, "From roaming the earth and from walking on it." ^{††}

[†] Lit. the adversary ^{††} cf. 1 Pet. 5:8.

⁸ ADONAI said to the satan, "Did you notice my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth—a blameless and upright man, who fears God and spurns evil."

⁹ Then the satan responded to ADONAI, saying, "Does Job fear God for nothing? ¹⁰ Have you not made a hedge around him, his household, and everything he has? You have blessed the work of his hands and his possessions have increased in the land. ¹¹ But now, stretch out Your hand and strike everything he has, and he will certainly curse You to Your face!"

¹² Then ADONAI said to the satan, "Everything he has is in your hand. Only do not extend your hand against him!" So the satan departed from the presence of ADONAI.

¹³ One day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house, ¹⁴ a messenger came to Job, saying, "The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing near them, ¹⁵ when the Sabeans attacked and carried them off. They also killed the servants with the edge of the sword—I alone escaped to tell you!"

¹⁶ While this one was still speaking another came in and said, "The fire of God has fallen from heaven and has burned up the sheep and servants—it has consumed them, and I—I alone—escaped to tell you!"

¹⁷ While this one was still speaking another came in and said, "The Chaldeans formed three bands and raided the camels and took them all away. They also killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I—only I alone—escaped to tell you!”

¹⁸ While this one was still speaking another came in and said, “Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine at their oldest brother’s house ¹⁹ when suddenly a mighty wind came from beyond the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it collapsed on the young people and they died. And I—only I alone—escaped to tell you!”

²⁰ Then Job got up, tore his robe, shaved his head, fell to the ground, and worshiped. ²¹ Then he said: “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I will return there.

ADONAI gave and ADONAI has taken away; blessed be the Name of ADONAI.” ²² Through all this, Job did not sin nor did he cast reproach on God.

Affliction of the Body

2 Again the day came when the sons of God came to present themselves before ADONAI, and the satan also arrived among them to present himself before ADONAI. ² ADONAI said to him, “Where are you coming from?”

The satan answered ADONAI, “From roaming the earth and from walking on it.”

³ Then ADONAI said to the satan, “Have you noticed My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, who fears God and spurns evil. And he still holds firmly to his integrity, though you incited Me against him to ruin him without any reason.”

⁴ The satan replied to ADONAI saying, “Skin for skin! A man will give up all he has for his own life. ⁵ But now, stretch out Your hand and strike his bone and his flesh, and he will certainly curse You to Your face!”

⁶ ADONAI said to the satan, “Very well, he is in your hand—only spare his life!”

⁷ So the satan departed from the presence of ADONAI, and afflicted Job with painful boils, from the sole of his foot to the top of his head. ⁸ He took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself while he was sitting among the ashes.

⁹ Then his wife said to him, “Are you still holding firmly to your integrity? Curse God and die!”

¹⁰ He said to her, “You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Should we accept the good from God and not accept the bad?”

Through all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Three Friends Sit Shiva

¹¹ When Job’s three friends heard about all this calamity that had come upon him, each of them came from his own place—Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite. They met together to come and mourn with him and to comfort him.

¹² But when they saw him from a distance they did not recognize him, and they raised their voices and wept. Each one tore his robe and threw dust into the air on to their heads. ¹³ Then they sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights. No one spoke a word to him because they saw that his pain was very great.

Job Curses His Own Birth

3 After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed his day. ² Then Job answered and said:

³ “May the day I was born perish, and the night that said, ‘A man is conceived!’

⁴ That day—may it be darkness; may God above not regard it; may no light shine on it.

⁵ May darkness and deep gloom reclaim it; may a cloud settle over it; may whatever blackens the day terrify it.

⁶ That night—may thick darkness seize it; may it not be included among the days of the year, nor be entered among the number of months.

⁷ Indeed, may that night be barren; may no joyful shout enter it.

⁸ May those who curse, curse the day—those ready to awaken Leviathan.

⁹ May its morning stars be darkened; may it hope for light but have none—may it never see the eyelids of dawn.

¹⁰ For it did not shut the doors of the womb on me, nor did it hide trouble from my eyes.

¹¹ Why did I not die at birth and expire as I exited the womb?

¹² Why did the knees welcome me, and breasts that I might nurse?

¹³ For now I would be lying down and quiet; I would be asleep and at rest

¹⁴ with kings and counselors of the earth, who built for themselves places now desolate, ¹⁵ with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver.

¹⁶ Or why was I not hidden like a stillborn, like infants who never saw light?

¹⁷ There the wicked cease from turmoil, and there the weary are at rest.

¹⁸ Prisoners are at ease together; they do not hear the voice of the taskmaster.

¹⁹ Small and great are there; and slave is free from his master.

²⁰ “Why is light given to one who suffers and life to the bitter of soul,

²¹ to those who long for death, but it does not come, who dig for it more than for hidden treasures, ²² who are filled with gladness and rejoice when finding the grave?

²³ Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, and whom God has hedged in?

²⁴ For my sighing comes instead of my bread, and my groans pour out like water.

²⁵ For the thing I dreaded has come upon me, and what I feared has happened to me.

²⁶ I have no ease, no quietness;
I have no rest, but turmoil came."

Eliphaz: God Is Righteous

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded and said:
² "If one attempts a word with you, will you become impatient?

But who can keep from speaking?

³ Behold, you have instructed many;
you have strengthened weak hands.

⁴ Your words have supported those who stumbled, and strengthened buckling knees.

⁵ Yet now it has come to you, and you are discouraged;
it strikes you,

and you are dismayed.

⁶ "Is not your piety your confidence, the integrity of your ways your hope?

⁷ Reflect now:

Who, being innocent, ever perished?
And where were the upright destroyed?

⁸ As I have seen, those who plow iniquity and sow harm, reap them. †

⁹ By the breath †† of God they perish;
by the blast of His anger they vanish. ‡

¹⁰ The lion may roar and the cub growl, but the teeth of young lions are broken.

¹¹ The mighty lion perishes for lack of prey and the lioness' cubs are scattered.

Testimony of an Accusing Spirit

¹² "Now a word was secretly brought to me, and my ear caught a whisper of it.

¹³ Amid unsettling visions in the night, when a deep sleep falls on men,

¹⁴ dread and trembling seized me,
and made my bones shake.

¹⁵ Then a spirit brushed over my face, and the hair of my flesh stood on end.

¹⁶ It stood still,
but I could not recognize its appearance,
A form was before my eyes and I heard a murmur, a voice:

¹⁷ "Can a mortal be righteous before God;
or a man pure before his Creator?

¹⁸ If He puts no trust in His servants and accuses His angels of error,

¹⁹ how much more those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust,
who are crushed before the moth?

²⁰ From morning until evening they are beaten into pieces—
unnoticed, they perish forever.

²¹ Is not their tent cord pulled out, so that they die without wisdom.

Eliphaz: God Is Correcting You

5 "Cry out now! Will anyone answer you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?

² For resentment kills a fool, and envy slays the simple.

³ I myself have seen a fool taking root, but suddenly I cursed his dwelling.

⁴ His sons are far from safety, and crushed at the gate without a deliverer!

⁵ The hungry consumes his harvest, taking it even from among thorns,
and the thirsty pants after their wealth.

⁶ For evil does not come from the dust, nor does trouble sprout from the ground.

⁷ Yet man is born for trouble, as surely as sparks fly upward.

⁸ But as for me, I would seek God;
I would lay my cause before God.

⁹ Who does great things beyond comprehension, wonders without number.

¹⁰ Who gives rain to the earth and sends water over the plains.

¹¹ Who places the lowly on high and lifts mourners to salvation.

¹² Who frustrates the plans of the crafty, so that their hands attain no success.

¹³ Who catches the clever in their craftiness, and thwarts the plan of the cunning.

¹⁴ By day they encounter darkness and grope at noon as if it were night.

¹⁵ But He saves the needy from the sword of their mouth,

and from the clutches of the mighty.

¹⁶ So the helpless have hope and injustice shuts its mouth.

¹⁷ "Behold, happy is the one whom God corrects, so do not despise the discipline of Shaddai.

¹⁸ For He inflicts pain, but He also binds up;
He injures, yet His hands also heal.

¹⁹ From six calamities He will deliver you, even in seven, no harm will touch you.

²⁰ In famine, He will redeem you from death, and in war, from the power of the sword.

²¹ You will be hidden from the lash of the tongue, and not fear when violence comes.

²² You will laugh at violence and famine, and will not fear the beasts of the earth.

²³ For you will have a covenant with the stones of the field,

and the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.

²⁴ You will know shalom in your tent, and you will take stock of your home and find nothing missing.

²⁵ "You will know that your descendants will be numerous,

† cf. Gal. 6:7. †† Hebrew ruach wind ‡ cf. 2 Thes. 2:8.

your offspring like the grass of the earth.
²⁶You will come to the grave in vigor, like sheaves of grain in its season.
²⁷Behold, we have investigated this—it is true.
 Hear it, and apply it to yourself!"

Job Cries for Justice

6 Job responded and said:
²"If only my grief could be weighed and my calamity placed on the scales.
³For it outweighs the sands of the sea;
 that is why my words have been rash.
⁴For the arrows of Shaddai are in me, my spirit drinks in their poison;
 God's terrors line up against me.
⁵Does a wild donkey bray over fresh grass or an ox bellow over his fodder?
⁶Is something bland eaten without salt, is there taste in the white of an egg?
⁷My soul refuses to touch them;
 they are like sickening food to me.
⁸"Oh that my request would be realized, that God would grant my hope;
⁹that God would be willing to crush me, to release His hand, and cut me off!
¹⁰Then I would still be comforted, even rejoice in spite of unrelenting pain, for I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
¹¹"What is my strength, that I should hope?
 What is my end,
 that I should endure?
¹²Is my strength the strength of rock?
 Is my flesh bronze?
¹³Is there no help within me;
 has not success been banished from me?
¹⁴"A despairing person should have the kindness of his friend,
 even if he forsakes the fear of Shaddai.
¹⁵My brothers have acted deceptively, as a seasonal stream,
 as a torrential stream that overflows ¹⁶when darkened by thawing ice, and obscured by snow,
¹⁷but when they are scorched, they dry up,
 and in the heat, they vanish from their place.
¹⁸Caravans turn aside from their course;
 they go up into the wasteland and perish.
¹⁹The caravans of Tema looked intently, the travelers of Sheba hoped for them.
²⁰They were distressed because they had been confident;
 they came so far and were disappointed.
²¹"Indeed, now you have become nothing;
 you see a terror and are afraid.
²²Have I ever said, 'Give to me'
 or 'Pay a bribe for me from your wealth' ²³or 'Save me from the enemy's hand' or 'Redeem me from a ruthless hand'?

²⁴"Teach me, and I will be silent;
 explain to me how I have been wrong.
²⁵Honest words are painful, but what does your arguing prove?
²⁶Do you intend to correct my words, and treat the words of
 a despairing man as wind?
²⁷Would you cast lots for an orphan, and barter over your friend?
²⁸"Now be so kind as to look at me;
 I will not lie to your face.
²⁹Relent, do not be unjust;
 reconsider, for my righteousness is in it.
³⁰Is injustice on my tongue?
 Can my palate not discern evil?

Futility of Days

7 "Does not man have hard labor on earth?
 Are not his days like those of a hired laborer?
²Like a slave longing for the shadow, or a hired man waiting for his pay, ³so I have inherited months of futility, and nights of distress have been appointed to me.
⁴When I lay down I say, 'When will I rise?'
 The night drags on, and I toss until the day dawns.
⁵My flesh is clothed with maggots and clods of dirt;
 My skin is broken and festering.
⁶My days fly faster than a weaver's shuttle and come to an end without hope.
⁷Remember, my life is but a breath;
 my eyes will not see goodness again!
⁸The eye that sees me now will see me no more;
 your eyes will be on me, but I will be no more.
⁹As a cloud vanishes and is gone,
 so one descending into Sheol does not come up; ¹⁰he will never return to his house,
 his place does not know him.
¹¹"So I will not keep silent;
 I will speak in the distress of my spirit,
 I will complain in bitterness of soul.
¹²Am I a sea, or a monster of the deep that You have set a watch over me?
¹³When I say, 'My bed will comfort me, my couch will ease my complaint,' ¹⁴then You frighten me with dreams, and terrify me with visions, ¹⁵so that my soul prefers strangulation, and my bones death.
¹⁶I despise it; I would not live forever.
 Leave me alone, for my days are a vapor.
¹⁷"What is mankind,
 that You magnify him,
 that You set Your heart on him, ¹⁸that You visit him every morning, and test him in every moment?
¹⁹Will You never look away from me, or let me alone until I swallow my spittle?

20 Have I sinned—
 what have I done to You,
 O watcher of men?
 Why have You set me as Your target?
 Have I become a burden to You?
 21 Why do You not pardon my transgression, and take away my iniquity?
 For now I will lie down in the dust,
 and You will search for me,
 but I will be gone.”

Bildad: God Restores the Righteous

8 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:
 2 “How long will you say these things?
 The words of your mouth are like a mighty wind.
 3 Does God pervert justice?
 Does Shaddai pervert justice?
 4 If your children sinned against Him,
 He handed them over to their rebellion.
 5 If you would seek God and plead with Shaddai , 6 if you are pure and upright, even now He will awaken for you and restore your righteous abode.
 7 And though your beginning was small,
 your future would flourish.
 8 “Now ask the previous generation;
 consider the findings of their fathers;
 9 for we were born yesterday and know nothing,
 and our days on earth are but a shadow.
 10 Will they not teach you and tell you?
 Will they not bring forth words from their hearts?
 11 “Can papyrus grow tall without a marsh?
 Can reeds flourish without water?
 12 When still in bloom and uncut,
 it withers more quickly than other grass.
 13 Such are the ways of all who forget God;
 the hope of the godless perishes—14 whose confidence is snapped off, his trust is a spider’s web.
 15 He leans against his house but it does not stand,
 He holds fast to it, but it does not hold up.
 16 He is a well-watered plant in the sun, spreading his shoots over his garden;
 17 he entwines his roots around a heap of stones, and looks for a place between the rocks.
 18 If he is uprooted from his place, it denies him saying, ‘I never saw you.’
 19 Such is his joyous course, and from the earth others spring up.
 20 Surely God does not spurn the blameless or strengthen the hand of evildoers.
 21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy.
 22 Those who hate you will be clothed with shame.
 The tent of the wicked will be no more!”

Job: Who is Righteous before God?

9 Job responded and said:
 2 “Truly I know it is so, but how can one be righteous before God? † 3 If anyone wished to contend with Him, he could not answer Him once in a thousand.
 4 He is wise in heart and mighty in strength.
 Who has resisted Him and come out whole?
 5 “He who moves mountains,
 yet they do not know it,
 who overthrows them in His anger;
 6 who shakes the earth from its place until its pillars tremble;
 7 who speaks to the sun so it does not rise,
 and seals up the stars;
 8 He alone spreads out the heavens, and treads on the waves of the sea;
 9 He makes the Bear, Orion, and Pleiades, and the constellations of the south;
 10 He does great and unfathomable things, wonders beyond number.
 11 If He were to pass by me,
 I would not see Him!
 Were He to move past me,
 I would not perceive Him.
 12 If He were to snatch away,
 who could restrain Him?
 Who could say to Him,
 ‘What are You doing?’
 13 “God does not restrain His anger;
 under Him the helpers of Rahab cower.
 14 How then can I answer Him or choose my words with Him?
 15 Even if I were right, I would not answer;
 I would implore the mercy of my Judge.
 16 Even if I called and He answered me,
 I would not believe that He would listen to my voice.
 17 He who crushes me with a storm and multiplies my wounds for no reason.
 18 He does not allow me to catch my breath, but fills me with bitterness.
 19 If it is a question of strength—certainly, He is the mighty One!
 If it is a matter of justice—
 who will summon me?
 20 Even if I were innocent,
 my mouth would condemn me.
 If I were guiltless,
 it will declare me perverse.
 21 “I am guiltless.
 I have no concern for myself.
 I despise my life.
 22 It is all the same, therefore I say,
 ‘He destroys both the blameless and the wicked.’
 23 If a scourge smites suddenly,
 He mocks the despair of the innocent.”

† cf. Rom. 3:20.

24 If the land falls into the hand of the wicked,
 He blindfolds the faces of its judges.
 If it is not He, then who is it?
 25 "My days are swifter than a runner;
 they flee away without seeing goodness.
 26 They slip by like reed boats, like an eagle swooping down on its prey.
 27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint,
 I will put off my sad face and be cheerful,'
 28 I still dread all my pains, for I know You will not find me innocent.
 29 If I am condemned—
 why should I struggle in vain?
 30 If I wash myself with melted snow and cleanse my hands with lye, 31 then You would plunge me into a pit and my own clothes would detest me.
 32 For He is not a human being, like I am,
 that I could answer Him,
 that we could go to court together.
 33 There is no arbitrator between us, who could lay his hand on us both;
 34 who could remove His rod from me, so that His terror would not frighten me.
 35 Then I would speak and not fear Him —except it is not so with me."

Do Not Condemn Me!

10 "I loathe my own life;
 I will give full vent to my complaint;
 I will speak out of the bitterness of my soul.
 2 I will say to God, 'Do not condemn me;
 tell me why You contend with me.'
 3 Is it good for You to oppress, to despise the work of Your hands,
 while You smile on the plans of the wicked?
 4 Do You have eyes of flesh?
 Do You see as a human being sees?
 5 Are Your days like those of a mortal, or Your years like those of a strong man, 6 that You should seek out my iniquity and search out my sin,
 7 though You know that I am not guilty, yet there is no one to deliver from Your hand?
 8 "Your hands molded and fashioned me, will You now destroy me completely?
 9 Remember You fashioned me like clay;
 will You return me to dust?
 10 Did You not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese, 11 clothe me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews?
 12 You gave me life and steadfast love, and Your care has preserved my spirit.
 13 "Yet these things You have hid in Your heart, for I know that this is with You.
 14 If I sinned, You would watch me, and not acquit me of my iniquity.

15 If I am guilty, woe to me!
 Even if I am innocent,
 I cannot lift my head.
 I am full of shame
 and conscious of my affliction.
 16 If my head is held high,
 You hunt me like a lion,
 and again work wonders against me.
 17 You renew Your witnesses against me, and increase Your anger toward me, change and warfare are with me.
 18 "Why then did You bring me out from the womb?
 I should have died so no eye would have seen me.
 19 If only I had never come into being, or been carried from womb to grave.
 20 Are not my days few?
 Then stop, leave me alone
 so I might have a little joy, 21 before I depart, and never return, to the land of darkness
 and the shadow of death, 22 the land of utter darkness, like the deepest darkness and disorder, where even the light is like darkness."

Zophar: God Sees Iniquity

11 Then, Zophar the Naamathite answered and said:
 2 "Should so many words go unanswered?
 Is a man justified by his lips?
 3 Will your idle talk silence men and will no one rebuke you when you mock?
 4 For you have said,
 'My teaching is flawless'
 and 'I am pure in Your eyes!'
 5 But if only God would speak and open His lips against you, 6 and show you the secrets of wisdom—for sound wisdom has two sides.
 Know that God has forgotten some of your iniquity.
 7 "Can you discover the mysteries of God?
 Can you find the limits of Shaddai?
 8 They are higher than the heavens
 —what can you do?
 They are deeper than Sheol
 —what can you know?
 9 Its measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea.
 10 "If He comes by and imprisons, or convenes a court,
 who can prevent Him?
 11 For He knows deceitful men;
 when He sees wickedness, does he not consider it?
 12 But a witless man will gain understanding when a wild donkey's colt is born a human being?
 13 "If you devote your heart to Him and spread out your hands to Him, 14 if you put away the wickedness that is in your hand, and allow no iniquity to abide in your tent, 15 then you will lift up your face without reproach;

 you will stand firm and without fear.
 16 You will forget your trouble;
 you will remember it like water that has flowed away.
 17 Life will be brighter than noonday;
 darkness like the morning.
 18 You will be confident, because there is hope;
 you will look about you and lie down in safety.
 19 You will lie down with no one to make you afraid, many will seek your favor.
 20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail, and escape will elude them;
 their only hope is their dying breath.” †

Job: Everything Is in His Hand

12 Job responded and said:
 2 “Without a doubt you are the people and wisdom will die with you!
 3 But I have a mind as well as you;
 I am not inferior to you.
 Who does not know these things?
 4 “I have become a laughingstock to my friend, though I called on God and He answered—
 a righteous and blameless man is a laughingstock!
 5 Contempt for calamity is the thought of one at ease, prepared for those whose foot slips.
 6 The tents of marauders prosper, and there is security for those who provoke God—
 for those whom God brings in His hand.
 7 But now ask the animals and they will teach you, or the birds of the sky and they will tell you, 8 or speak to the earth and it will teach you, or the fish of the sea and they will inform you.
 9 Which of these does not know that the hand of ADONAI has done this?
 10 In His hand is the life of every creature, and the breath of all the human race.
 11 Does not the ear test words as the palate tastes food?
 12 Is not wisdom with the aged and understanding bring long life?
 13 “With Him are wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are His.
 14 If He tears down, it cannot be rebuilt;
 one He imprisons cannot be released.
 15 If He holds back the waters, they dry up;
 if He releases them, they destroy the earth.
 16 With Him are power and sound wisdom;
 both deceived and deceiver are His.
 17 He leads counselors away stripped and makes judges into fools.
 18 He loosens the bonds of the kings, and binds a loincloth around their waists.
 19 He leads priests away stripped and overthrows the rulers.

† Lit. to breath out their soul

20 He silences the lips of trusted advisors and removes the discernment of elders.
 21 He pours contempt on nobles and loosens the belts of the mighty.
 22 He reveals the deep things of darkness †† and brings utter darkness into light.
 23 He makes nations great and destroys them.
 He enlarges the nations
 and leads them away.
 24 He deprives the heads of the people of earth of understanding,
 and causes them to wander in a pathless wasteland.
 25 They grope in darkness with no light;
 He makes them stagger like a drunkard.

Job Challenges God

13 “Indeed, my eye has seen it all, my ears have heard and understood it.
 2 What you know, I also know;
 I am not inferior to you.
 3 Still, I desire to speak to Shaddai and to argue my case with God.
 4 You, however, smear me with lies;
 you are worthless doctors—all of you!
 5 If only you would keep completely silent!
 For you, that would be wisdom.
 6 Hear now my argument;
 listen to the contentions of my lips.
 7 Will you speak unjustly on God’s behalf?
 Will you speak deceitfully for Him?
 8 Will you show Him partiality?
 Will you argue the case for God?
 9 Would it turn out well if He examined you?
 Could you deceive Him as you deceive a man?
 10 He would surely rebuke you if you secretly showed favoritism.
 11 Would not His majesty terrify you and the dread of Him fall on you?
 12 Your maxims are proverbs of ashes;
 your defenses are defenses of clay.
 13 “Be silent and let me speak;
 then let come to me what may.
 14 Why should I take my flesh in my teeth and take my life in my hands?
 15 Even if He slays me, I will wait for Him;
 I will surely defend my ways before Him.
 16 This, too, will be my salvation for no godless can come before Him.
 17 “Listen carefully to my words, and let my declaration be in your ears.
 18 See now, I have prepared my case;
 I know that I will be vindicated.
 19 Who will contend with me?
 If so, I will be silent and die.
 20 “Only two things do not do to me;
 then I will not hide from Your face:

†† cf. 1 Cor. 4:5.

21 withdraw Your hand far from me,
 and do not assail me with Your terror.
 22 Then call, and I will answer, or I will speak, and You respond to me.
 23 How many are my iniquities and sins?
 Show me my transgressions and sin.
 24 Why do You hide Your face and consider me Your enemy?
 25 Will You frighten a windblown leaf and chase after dry chaff?
 26 For You write bitter things against me and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth.
 27 You put my feet in shackles and watch all my paths;
 You put marks on the soles of my feet.
 28 "So he wastes away
 like something rotten,
 like a moth-eaten garment.

Death and Resurrection

14 "A mortal born of woman, is of few days and full of turmoil.
 2 Like a flower he comes up and withers;
 like a shadow he flees and does not stay.
 3 Do You fix Your eyes on such a one,
 and bring me for judgment with You?
 4 Who can make something pure out of the impure?
 No one!
 5 Since his days are determined,
 the number of his months is with You,
 You have set his limits,
 which he cannot exceed.
 6 Look away from him and let him alone, until he fulfills his time like a hired laborer.
 7 "At least there is hope for a tree—
 if it is cut down it will sprout again, and its shoots will not cease.
 8 Though its roots grow old in the earth and its stump dies in the dry ground, 9 at the scent of water it will bud and sprout sprigs like a new plant.
 10 But man dies and is powerless.
 Man expires—and where is he?
 11 As water evaporates from the sea and a river drains away and dries up, 12 so a person lies down and does not rise;
 until the heavens are no more,
 people will not awake,
 or be roused from their sleep.
 13 "Oh that You would hide me in Sheol, and conceal me until Your wrath has passed!
 Oh that You would set a time for me and then remember me!
 14 If a man dies, will he live again?
 All the days of my hard labor
 I will wait until my relief comes.
 15 You will call and I—I will answer You;
 You will long for the work of Your hands.
 16 For then You will number my steps;

You will not keep track of my sin;
 17 my transgression will be sealed in a bundle and cover over my iniquity.
 18 "Yet as a mountain falls away and crumbles and a rock is moved from its place, 19 as water wears away stones and torrents wash away the soil, so You destroy a person's hope.
 20 You overpower him—once for all, and he perishes;
 You change his appearance and send him away.
 21 If his sons achieve honor,
 he does not know it;
 if they are brought low,
 he does not perceive it.
 22 He only feels pain for his own flesh, and mourns for his own soul."

Eliphaz Rebukes Job

15 Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded and said:
 2 "Does a wise man answer with empty knowledge,
 or fill his belly with the east wind?
 3 Does he argue with useless talk and words that have no value in them?
 4 You even do away with reverence and hinder devotion before God.
 5 For your iniquity prompts your mouth and you choose the tongue of the crafty.
 6 Your own mouth condemns you—not I;
 your own lips testify against you.
 7 "Are you the first man to be born?
 Were you brought forth before the hills?
 8 Do you listen in on God's counsel?
 Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
 9 What do you know that we do not know?
 What do you understand that we do not understand?
 10 Both gray-haired and aged are with us, men even older than your father.
 11 Are the comforts of God too small for you, or a gentle word toward you?
 12 Why has your heart carried you away and why do your eyes flash, 13 so that you turn your spirit against God and bring such words out of your mouth?
 14 "What is man, that he could be pure, or one born of woman, that he could be righteous?
 15 If He puts no trust in His holy ones,
 if even the heavens are not pure in His eyes, 16 how much less man, who is vile and corrupt, who drinks evil like water!
 17 "I will tell you; listen to me, and what I have seen I will declare, 18 what wise men have declared and did not hide from their ancestors, 19 to whom alone the land was given,
 when no foreigner passed among them:
 20 All his days the wicked suffers torment, and numbered are the years stored up for the tyrant.

²¹ Terrifying sounds are in his ears;
in a time of peace, marauders attack him.
²² He does not expect to escape from darkness;
he is destined for the sword.
²³ He wanders about for bread—'Where is it?'
He knows that the day of darkness is at hand.
²⁴ Distress and anguish terrify him;
they overpower him like a king poised to attack, ²⁵ for he raises his hand against God and flaunts himself against Shaddai, ²⁶ defiantly rushing at Him with a thick, strong shield.
²⁷ Because He covered his face with his fat and made his hips bulge with blubber, ²⁸ he lived in ruined cities, in houses which no one inhabits, which are ready to crumble into heaps.
²⁹ He will not become rich, and his wealth will not endure, nor will his possessions spread over the land.
³⁰ He will not escape from the darkness;
a flame will wither his shoots,
and he will depart by the breath of His mouth.
³¹ "Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself;
for emptiness will be his reward.
³² Before his day it will be paid in full and his branch will not be green.
³³ He will shake off his unripe grapes like a vine, and cast off his blossoms like an olive tree.
³⁴ For the company of the godless is barren, and fire consumes the tents of bribery.
³⁵ They conceive mischief and bring forth evil and their belly prepares deception."

Job Reproves His Friends

16 Job answered, saying:
² "I have heard many things like these;
you are miserable comforters, all of you!
³ Is there no end to your futile words?
What compels you to answer?
⁴ I too could speak like you,
if you were in my place;
I could compose words against you and shake my head at you.
⁵ But I would strengthen you with my mouth and comfort from my lips would bring you relief.
⁶ "Yet, if I speak, my pain is not relieved, and if I refrain, does it not go away from me?
⁷ Surely now He has exhausted me;
You have devastated my entire household.
⁸ You have seized me—
it has become a witness;
my leanness rises against me
and testifies to my face.
⁹ His anger has torn and tormented me;
He gnashes at me with his teeth;

my enemy looks at me with daggers in his eyes.

¹⁰ People open their mouths against me;
they strike my cheek in contempt;
they unite together against me.
¹¹ God has handed me over to the ungodly, and tossed me into the hands of the wicked.
¹² I was at ease, but He shattered me;
He grabbed me by the neck and crushed me.
He has made me His target;
¹³ His archers surround me.
Without mercy He pierces my kidneys and spills my gall on the ground.
¹⁴ He breaks through against me, breach after breach.
He runs after me like a warrior.
¹⁵ "I have sewn sackcloth over my skin and sunk my horn in the dust;
¹⁶ my face is red from weeping, and on my eyelids are deep darkness;
¹⁷ yet no violence is in my hands and my prayer is pure.
¹⁸ "Earth, do not cover my blood, and let my cry find no resting place!
¹⁹ Even now my witness is in heaven, †
my advocate is on high.
²⁰ My intercessor is my friend;
as my eyes pour out tears to God;
²¹ he contends with God on behalf of man as one pleads for a friend.
²² "For the number of years will come to pass, and then I will go the way of no return.

Hope in Sheol?

17 "My spirit is broken, my days have cut short,
the graveyard awaits me.
² Surely mockers are with me,
my eyes must gaze on their hostility.
³ "Make then a pledge for me with You.
Who else would strike hands with me?
⁴ Because You have closed their heart to understanding, therefore You will not exalt them.
⁵ If anyone denounces his friends for profit the eyes of his children will fail.
⁶ He has made me a byword to people,
I am the one in whose face people spit.
⁷ My eyes have grown dim with grief and all my limbs are like a shadow.
⁸ The upright are appalled at this;
the innocent are stirred up against the ungodly.
⁹ But the righteous one holds to his way, and the one with clean hands grows stronger.
¹⁰ "But turn, all of you, come now!
I will not find a wise man among you.
¹¹ My days have passed, my plans are torn apart.
Yet the desires of my heart
¹² turn night into day;

† cf. Rom. 1:9.

in the face of darkness light is near.
¹³ If I hope for Sheol as my home,
 if I make my bed in darkness,
¹⁴ if I say to the pit, 'You are my father,' and to the worm, 'My mother,' or 'My sister,' ¹⁵ where then is my hope?
 And my hope, who sees it?
¹⁶ Will it go down to the gates of Sheol?
 Will we descend together into the dust?"

Bildad Rebukes Job

18 Then, Bildad the Shuhite replied, saying:
² "How long until you end these words?
 Consider, and then we will talk.
³ Why are we regarded as beasts, and stupid in your eyes?
⁴ You, who tear yourself to pieces in anger, will the earth be abandoned for your sake?
 Or must a rock be moved from its place?
⁵ Indeed, the light of the wicked is snuffed out;
 the flame of his fire does not shine.
⁶ The light in his tent grows dark;
 the lamp above him goes out.
⁷ His vigorous stride is shortened, and his own scheme throws him down.
⁸ For he is cast into a net by his feet;
 he wanders into its mesh.
⁹ A trap seizes him by the heel;
 a snare holds him fast.
¹⁰ A rope is hidden for him on the ground, and a trap for him lies on the path.
¹¹ On every side terrors frighten him and harass his every step.
¹² Calamity is hungry for him;
 disaster is ready for his fall.
¹³ It eats away pieces of his skin;
 death's firstborn devours his limbs.
¹⁴ He is torn from the security of his tent, and marched off to the king of terrors.
¹⁵ Nothing of his dwells in his tent;
 brimstone is scattered over his dwelling.
¹⁶ Below his roots dry up, and above his branches wither.
¹⁷ His memory perishes from the earth and he has no name in the land.
¹⁸ He is driven from light into darkness and is banished from the world.
¹⁹ He has no offspring or descendant among his people, no survivor where he once dwelt.
²⁰ People of the west are appalled at his fate;
 people of the east are seized with horror.
²¹ Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked;
 such is the place of one who does not know God."

Job: Have Pity on Me

19 Job responded, saying:

² "How long will you torment my soul and crush me with words?
³ Ten times now you have reproached me;
 you attack me shamelessly.
⁴ But even if it is true that I have erred, my error remains with me.
⁵ If indeed you would exalt yourselves above me and prove my humiliation against me, ⁶ then know that God has wronged me and encircled me with His net.
⁷ "Though I cry out, 'Violence!' I get no response.
 I cry for help, but there is no justice.
⁸ He has blocked my way so I cannot pass, and has shrouded my path in darkness.
⁹ He has stripped me of my honor, and removed the crown from my head.
¹⁰ He tears me down on every side until I am gone;
 He uproots my hope like a tree.
¹¹ His anger burns against me, and He considers me among His enemies.
¹² His troops advance together;
 they build a siege ramp against me and encamp around my tent.
¹³ "He removed my brothers far from me;
 my acquaintances are only strangers to me.
¹⁴ My relatives have gone away and my close friends have forgotten me.
¹⁵ My houseguests and my maidservants consider me a stranger.
 I have become a foreigner in their eyes.
¹⁶ I call my servant but he does not reply though I beg him with my own mouth.
¹⁷ My breath is repulsive to my wife;
 I am loathsome to my children.
¹⁸ Even young children despise me; when I stand, they speak against me. † ¹⁹ All my close friends despise me;
 those I love have turned against me.
²⁰ My bones cling to my skin and my flesh;
 I have escaped only by the skin of my teeth.
²¹ "Have pity on me my friends, have pity, for the hand of God has struck me.
²² Why do you pursue me—like God?
 Are you not satisfied with my flesh?
²³ Oh that my words were written, that they were recorded in a scroll ²⁴ that with an iron pen and lead, they were engraved in stone forever!

My Redeemer Lives!

²⁵ "Yet I know that my Redeemer lives, and in the end, He will stand on earth.
²⁶ Even after my skin has been destroyed, yet in my flesh I will see God; ††
²⁷ I myself will see Him with my own eyes,
 I and not a stranger.
 My heart ‡ grows weak within me.

† cf. John 13:18. †† cf. Matt. 5:8; 1 Cor. 13:12; 1 John 3:2.

²⁸ "If you say, 'How we will pursue him, since the root of the matter is found in him';
²⁹ then you should fear the sword for yourselves;
for wrath brings the punishments of the sword—so that you may know judgment!"

Zophar: Death and Hell for the Wicked

20 Then Zophar the Naamathite responded and said:
² "In truth, my troubled thoughts urge me to answer because of my feelings within me.
³ I hear a rebuke that dishonors me and my understanding inspires me to reply.
⁴ Do you not know that it has been from old, since mankind was put on earth,
⁵ that the triumph of the wicked is short and the joy of the godless is but for a moment?
⁶ Though his pride reaches to the heavens, and his head touches the clouds,
⁷ he perishes forever like his own dung.
Those who have seen him will say,
'Where is he?'
⁸ Like a dream, he flies away and they cannot find him;
like a vision of the night,
he is chased away.
⁹ The eye that saw him will not see him again;
his place will look on him no more.
¹⁰ His children must recompense the poor;
his own hands must give back his wealth.
¹¹ His bones were full of his youthful vigor but it will lie down with him in the dust.
¹² Though evil is sweet in his mouth, though he hides it under his tongue, ¹³ though he cannot bear to let it go and holds it in his mouth, ¹⁴ his food turns sour in his stomach;
it becomes the venom of serpents within him.
¹⁵ He swallows riches and vomits them up;
God empties it out of his stomach.
¹⁶ He sucks the poison of serpents;
fangs of a viper kill him.
¹⁷ He will not look at streams, rivers flowing with honey and butter.
¹⁸ He gives back what he toiled for without swallowing it;
he will not enjoy the riches of his trade.
¹⁹ For he has oppressed and abandoned the poor.
He has seized a house he did not build.
²⁰ For he knows no satisfaction from his greed, he cannot save himself by his desires.
²¹ Nothing remains for him to devour; therefore his prosperity will not last.
²² In the fullness of his plenty, he will be distressed;
the full force of misery will come upon him.
²³ While he is filling his belly,
He will send the anger of His wrath against him, and rain it down on him, on his flesh.

²⁴ Though he flees from an iron weapon,
a bronze bow pierces him through.
²⁵ He pulls and it comes out of his back,
the gleaming point out of his liver.
Terrors come upon him!
²⁶ Total darkness waits for his treasures;
A fire not fanned will devour him;
it will consume what is left in his tent.
²⁷ The heavens will expose his iniquity;
the earth will rise up against him.
²⁸ A flood will carry off his house, rushing waters on the day of His wrath.
²⁹ Such is the wicked man's lot from God,
the heritage appointed to him by God."

Job's Dialogue on the Wicked

21 Then Job replied:
² "Listen carefully to my words;
let this be your consolation.
³ Bear with me as I speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.
⁴ As for me, is my complaint against man?
If so, why should I not be impatient?
⁵ Look at me and be appalled;
put your hand over your mouth.
⁶ When I think of it, I am terrified and my flesh shudders.
⁷ Why do the wicked go on living, growing old and increasing in power?
⁸ Their children are established in their presence, their offspring before their eyes.
⁹ Their homes have peace and are free from fear;
no rod of God is on them.
¹⁰ His bull breeds without fail;
his cow calves and does not miscarry.
¹¹ They send out their little ones like a flock and their children dance.
¹² They sing to the tambourine and harp and rejoice at the sound of the flute.
¹³ They spend their days in prosperity, and in a moment go down to Sheol.
¹⁴ Yet they say to God, 'Leave us alone!
We have no desire to know Your ways.
¹⁵ Who is Shaddai that we should serve Him?
What would we gain if we pray to Him?'
¹⁶ Look, their prosperity is not in their own hands;
the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
¹⁷ "How often is the lamp of the wicked snuffed out or calamity fallen on them?
How often does He allot pain in His anger?
¹⁸ How often are they like straw before the wind;
like chaff swept away by a storm?
¹⁹ You say, 'God stores up the punishment for his children.'
Let Him repay the wicked so he may know it!
²⁰ Let his own eyes see his ruin;
let him drink the wrath of Shaddai .

‡ Lit. kidneys

²¹ For what does he care for his family that he leaves behind, when the number of his months has come to an end?
²² "Can anyone teach God knowledge, since He judges even the highest.
²³ One dies in his full strength, † completely secure and at ease.
²⁴ His pails are full of milk;
 His bones are moist with marrow.
²⁵ Yet another dies in bitterness of soul, never having tasted goodness.
²⁶ Together they lie in the dust and worms cover over them.
²⁷ "Behold, I know your thoughts, the schemes by which you wrong me.
²⁸ For you ask, 'Where is the nobleman's house and the tent where the wicked lived?'
²⁹ Have you not asked travelers?
 Do you not recognize their accounts
³⁰ that the wicked are spared for the day of calamity, that they are brought to the day of wrath?
³¹ Who declares his conduct to his face?
 Who repays him for what he has done?
³² He is brought to the grave, and watch is kept over his tomb.
³³ The soil in the valley is sweet to him;
 everyone follows after him,
 and countless are those before him.
³⁴ "So how will your futility comfort me, for your answers remain nothing but falsehood?"

Eliphaz Keeps Pointing at Sin

22 Then Eliphaz the Temanite responded saying:
² "Can a man be useful to God?
 Can even a wise man benefit Him?
³ What pleasure is it to Shaddai if you are righteous?
 Or what gain if your ways are blameless?
⁴ Is it because of your reverence that He corrects you and He brings judgment against you?
⁵ Is not your wickedness great,
 and is there no end to your iniquity?
⁶ For you took pledges from your brothers for no reason;
 you stripped the naked of their clothing.
⁷ You gave the weary no water to drink and from the hungry you withhold bread, ⁸ Though you were a mighty man, owning land—an honored man living on it.
⁹ You sent widows away empty-handed and crushed the arms of orphans.
¹⁰ "That is why snares surround you,
 and why sudden fear terrifies you,
¹¹ or why it is so dark that you cannot see,
 and why a flood of water covers you.
¹² "Is not God in the heights of heaven?
 And see the lofty stars how high they are?
¹³ Yet you say, 'What does God know?'

† Lit. in the bone of his perfection

Does He judge through such thick darkness?
¹⁴ Thick clouds veil Him so He does not see, as He walks in the vault of heaven.'
¹⁵ Will you keep to the old way that wicked men have trod?
¹⁶ They were snatched away before their time, their foundations washed away by a river.
¹⁷ They said to God, 'Leave us alone!
 What can Shaddai do to us?'
¹⁸ Yet He filled their houses with good things—but the counsel of the wicked is far from me!
¹⁹ The righteous see and rejoice;
 the innocent mock them, saying,
²⁰ 'Surely our foes are cut off, and fire consumes their abundance.'
²¹ "Reconcile now with Him and have shalom — in this way prosperity will come to you.
²² Accept instruction from His mouth and store up His words in your heart.
²³ If you return to Shaddai, you will be restored;
 if you remove iniquity far from your tent ²⁴ and throw your gold in the dust, and the gold of Ophir to the rocks in the wadis, ²⁵ then Shaddai will be your gold and your precious silver.
²⁶ Surely then Shaddai will be your delight and you will lift up your face to God.
²⁷ You will pray to Him and He will hear you, and you will fulfill your vows.
²⁸ What you decide will be done, and light will shine on your ways.
²⁹ When people are brought low, and you say, 'Lift them up!'
 then He will save the downcast.
³⁰ He will deliver even one who is not innocent, who will be delivered by the cleanness of your hands."

Job's Argument with God

23 Then Job answered:
² "Even today my complaint is rebellious;
 His hand is heavy despite my groaning.
³ If only I knew where to find Him;
 if only I could go to His dwelling.
⁴ I would lay out my case before Him and fill my mouth with arguments.
⁵ I would know with what words He would answer me,
 and understand what He would say to me.
⁶ Would He oppose me with great power?
 No, He would only pay attention to me.
⁷ There the upright can reason with Him, and there I would forever be delivered from my Judge.
⁸ But, if I go to the east, He is not there;
 if I go to the west,
 I do not find Him.
⁹ When He is in the north, I cannot perceive Him;

When He turns south, I do not see Him.
¹⁰ Yet He knows the way that I take;
 if He tested me, I would come out as gold.
¹¹ My foot has held closely to His steps;
 I have kept to His way and have not strayed.
¹² I have not departed from the commands of His lips.
 I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my daily bread.
¹³ He is unchangeable, and who can change Him?
 Whatever His soul desires, He does.
¹⁴ For He fulfills the decree against me, and many such things are with Him.
¹⁵ That is why I am terrified at His presence;
 when I consider this, I fear Him.
¹⁶ God has made my heart faint;
Shaddai has terrified me.
¹⁷ Yet I am not silenced because of the darkness, nor by the thick darkness that covers my face.”

Futility of Injustice

24 “Why are times not stored up by Shaddai?
 And why do those who know Him not see His days?
² Some remove the boundary stones;
 they steal flocks and pasture them.
³ They drive away the orphan’s donkey and take the widow’s ox as a pledge.
⁴ They turn the needy off the path;
 they force the poor of the land into hiding.
⁵ Behold, like wild donkeys in the desert, they go about their work,
 foraging prey in the desert as food for their children.
⁶ They reap their fodder in the field and glean in the vineyard of the wicked.
⁷ Without clothing they spend the night naked, without covering against the cold.
⁸ They are drenched by mountain rains, and hug the rock for lack of shelter.
⁹ The orphan is snatched from the breast;
 the infant of the poor is taken as a pledge.
¹⁰ They wander about naked, without clothing and go hungry while they carry sheaves.
¹¹ They press oil between the terraces;
 they tread winepresses, but are thirsty.
¹² From the city men groan, and the souls of the wounded cry out;
 yet God charges no one with folly.
¹³ These are those who rebel against the light, who do not recognize its ways or stay in its paths.
¹⁴ The murderer rises with the light, kills the poor and needy,
 and in the night becomes a thief.
¹⁵ The eye of the adulterer waits for twilight, thinking, ‘No eye will see me,’ and he disguises his face.
¹⁶ When it is dark, they break into houses, but by day, they shut themselves in;
 they do not know the light.

¹⁷ For to all of them, morning is as thick darkness;
 they are familiar with the terrors of thick darkness.
¹⁸ “He is foam on the surface of water;
 their portion of the land is cursed;
 no one turns toward their vineyards.
¹⁹ As heat and drought snatch away the melted snow, so Sheol, takes away those who have sinned.
²⁰ The womb forgets him,
 the worm feasts on him,
 no longer will he be remembered.
 But like a tree, wickedness is broken.
²¹ He feeds on the barren and childless woman, and shows no kindness to the widow.
²² But He drags off the mighty by His power;
 He raises up, yet no one has assurance of life.
²³ He allows him to rest in a sense of security, but His eyes are on their ways.
²⁴ They are exalted for a little while and then they are gone;
 they are brought low
 and gathered up like all others,
 they are like heads of grain—they wither.
²⁵ Now if it is not so, who can prove me a liar, and reduce my speech to nothing?”

Bildad: Justified with God?

25 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered:
² “Dominion and awe are with Him;
 He establishes shalom in His heights.
³ Can His armies be counted?
 On whom does His light not rise?
⁴ How then can a man be righteous with God?
 How can one born of a woman be pure?
⁵ If even the moon is not bright and the stars are not pure in His eyes, ⁶ how much less man who is but a maggot—a son of man who is a worm!”

Job: God Is Awesome

26 Then Job responded and said:
² “How you have helped the powerless!
 How you have saved the arm without strength!
³ How you have counseled the one without wisdom and revealed your abundant insights!
⁴ To whom have you uttered words?
 Whose spirit has come from your mouth?
⁵ “The dead tremble—those beneath the water and all that live in them.
⁶ is naked before Him;
 has no covering. †
⁷ He stretches out the north over the void;
 He suspends the earth over nothing.
⁸ He wraps up the waters in His clouds, yet the clouds do not burst under them.
⁹ He covers the face of the full moon, spreading His clouds over it.

† cf. Heb. 4:13; Rev. 9:11.

¹⁰ He marks out the horizon on the face of the waters, for a boundary between light and dark.
¹¹ The pillars of heaven tremble, astounded at His rebuke!
¹² By His power He churns up the sea;
 by His understanding He smashed Rahab.
¹³ By His Ruach the heavens are clear;
 His hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
¹⁴ Indeed, these are but glimpses of His ways; how faint the whisper, we hear of Him!
 Who then can understand the thunder of His might?"

What Hope Has the Godless?

²⁷ And Job took up his discourse again, saying:
² "As God lives, who has deprived me of justice,
Shaddai who has made my soul bitter,
³ as long as my breath is still in me,
 the Ruach of God in my nostrils,
⁴ my lips will speak no injustice, nor will my tongue mutter deceit.
⁵ Far be it from me to say that you are just;
 until I die, I will not set aside my integrity!
⁶ I will maintain my righteousness, and not let it go;
 my conscience will not reproach me for any of my days.
⁷ "May my enemy be like the wicked, my enemy like the unrighteous.
⁸ For what hope has the godless, when he is cut off,
 when God takes his soul? †
⁹ Will God hear his cry
 when trouble comes upon him?
¹⁰ Will he delight in Shaddai?
 Will he call upon God at all times?
¹¹ I will teach you about the hand of God;
 I will not conceal the ways of Shaddai.
¹² Look, you have all seen this yourselves.
 Why then this meaningless talk?
¹³ "This is the portion of a wicked man with God, the inheritance that ruthless men receive from Shad- dai.
¹⁴ If his children increase—it is for the sword.
 His offspring will never have enough to eat.
¹⁵ Those who survive him will be buried by the plague,
 and their widows will not weep.
¹⁶ Though he piles up silver like dust, and clothing like heaps of mortar,
¹⁷ what he lays up, the righteous will wear, and the upright will divide the silver.
¹⁸ The house he built is like a moth's cocoon, like a hut made for a watchman.
¹⁹ "He lies down wealthy,
 but will gather no more.
 When he opens his eyes,

all is gone!
²⁰ Terrors overtake him like a flood;
 a storm sweeps him away at night.
²¹ The east wind picks him up and he is gone;
 it sweeps him out of his place.
²² It hurls itself at him without pity as he flees headlong from its hand.
²³ It claps its hands at him in derision, and hisses him out of his place."

Where Can Wisdom Be Found?

²⁸ "Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place where gold is refined.
² Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.
³ Man puts an end to darkness;
 he searches to the farthest reaches for ore in gloom and blackest darkness.
⁴ He cuts open a shaft far from dwellings, in places forgotten by feet.
 Far from other people,
 they dangle back and forth.
⁵ The earth, from which food comes,
 is transformed as by fire;
⁶ a place whose rocks are sapphires, its dust contains gold.
⁷ No bird of prey knows the path;
 no falcon's eye has seen it.
⁸ Proud beasts have not set foot on it, and no lion has passed there.
⁹ Man sets his hand against the flinty rock and overturns mountains by the roots.
¹⁰ He carves out tunnels through the rocks;
 his eye sees every precious thing.
¹¹ He dams up streams from flowing.
 And brings hidden things to light.
¹² "But where can wisdom be found?
 Where is the place of understanding?
¹³ No mortal comprehends its worth;
 it cannot be found in the land of the living.
¹⁴ The deep says, 'It is not in me'—
 The sea says, 'It's not with me.'
¹⁵ Pure gold cannot be given for it, nor can its price be weighed in silver.
¹⁶ It cannot be weighed in gold from Ophir, in precious onyx, or sapphire.
¹⁷ Neither gold or crystal can compare with it, nor vessels of fine gold exchanged for it.
¹⁸ No mention will be made of coral or jasper;
 the price of wisdom is more than pearls.
¹⁹ The topaz of Ethiopia cannot compare to it;
 nor can it be valued in pure gold.
²⁰ Where then does wisdom come from?
 Where is the place of understanding?
²¹ It has been hidden from the eyes of all living things,
 concealed from the birds of the sky.
²² Abaddon and Death say,

† cf. Acts 23:1; Rom. 2:15.

'With our ears we have heard a rumor of it.'
²³ "God understands its way and He knows its place.
²⁴ He looks to the ends of the earth, and sees everything under the heavens.
²⁵ When He made the force of the wind, and measured out the waters,
²⁶ when He set a limit for the rain and a path for the thunderstorm,
²⁷ then He looked at it and assessed it, established it and examined it.
²⁸ And He said to mankind,
 'The fear of the Lord—that is wisdom, and to turn away from evil is understanding.'"

Job Remembers Better Days

29 Again Job took up his discourse saying:
² "O that I could be as in the months gone by,
 as in the days when God watched over me,
³ when His lamp shone above my head,
 when by His light I walked through darkness;
⁴ as I was in the days of my prime,
 when God's intimate friendship was upon my tent, ⁵ when Shaddai was still with me, and my children surrounded me;
⁶ when my steps were bathed with butter, and the rock poured out for me streams of oil.
⁷ When I went out to the city gate, and secured my seat in the public square,
⁸ young men would see me and hide, old men would rise and stand;
⁹ princes refrained from talking and put their hand over their mouths;
¹⁰ the voice of the nobles was hushed and their tongue stuck to their palate.
¹¹ "When the ear heard,
 it called me blessed,
 and when the eye saw me,
 it commended me;
¹² for I saved the poor who cried for help, and the orphan who had no one to help him;
¹³ the blessing of the dying man came on me, and I made the widow's heart sing for joy.
¹⁴ I put on righteousness as my clothing;
 justice was as my robe and turban.
¹⁵ I was eyes for the blind and feet for the lame;
¹⁶ I was a father to the needy, and I investigated the case of one I did not know.
¹⁷ I broke the jaws of the unjust, and snatched the prey out of his teeth.
¹⁸ "Then I thought, 'I will die in my nest, and multiply my days like the sand.
¹⁹ My roots reach the water, and dew lies on my branches all night.
²⁰ My glory is fresh within me, and my bow is renewed in my hand.'
²¹ "People listened to me and waited, and kept silent for my advice.

²² After I had spoken, they spoke no more;
 my words fell on them drop by drop.
²³ They waited for me as for the rain, and opened their mouths as for spring rain.
²⁴ When I joked with them, they hardly believed it;
 they did not cause the light of my face to fall.
²⁵ I chose their way and sat as their chief;
 I lived as a king among the troops;
 I was like one who comforts mourners.

Cry of Great Agony

30 "But now they mock me—those younger than me,
 whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.
² Moreover, what use was the strength of their hands to me,
 since their vigor has gone from them.
³ Haggard from want and hunger,
 they gnaw the parched land,
 in former time desolate and waste.
⁴ In the brush they pluck salt herbs, and their food was from the root of the broom tree.
⁵ They were banished from society, shouted at as if they were thieves,
⁶ so they were forced to dwell in wadis, in holes of the earth and among the rocks.
⁷ They brayed among the bushes and huddled under the nettles.
⁸ A senseless and nameless brood, they were cast out from the land.
⁹ "So now I have become their taunt song;
 I have become a byword to them.
¹⁰ They despise me;
 they keep their distance from me;
 they do not hesitate to spit in my face.
¹¹ Because He has loosened my cord and afflicted me, they have cast off restraint in my presence.
¹² On my right the rabble rise up;
 they entangle my feet
 and build up their destructive paths against me.
¹³ They break up my path;
 they succeed in destroying me without anyone helping them.
¹⁴ As through a wide breach they come;
 amid the ruins they come rolling in.
¹⁵ Terrors are turned on me;
 they chase away my honor like the wind,
 and like a cloud my deliverance vanishes.
¹⁶ "And now my soul is poured out within me;
 days of suffering have taken hold of me.
¹⁷ Night pierces my bones within me;
 my gnawing pains never rest.
¹⁸ By great power He seizes my garment;
 He binds me like the collar of my tunic.
¹⁹ He has cast me into the mud, and I have become like dust and ashes.

20 "I cry out to You, but You do not answer me;
I stand up, but You only look at me.
21 You have turned on me cruelly;
You attack me with the might of Your hand.
22 You lift me up on the wind and make me ride on it;
You toss me about in the storm.
23 For I know that You will bring me to death, to the house appointed for all the living.
24 Yet does not one in a heap of ruins stretch out his hand,
and in his distress cry for help?
25 Have I not wept for the unfortunate?
Was not my soul grieved for the poor?
26 Yet, when I hoped for good, evil came;
when I waited for light, then darkness came.
27 "My heart † seethes and never stops;
days of suffering confront me.
28 I walk about blackened, but not by the sun;
I stand in the assembly and cry for help.
29 I have become a brother to jackals, and a companion to ostriches.
30 My skin has turned black on me;
my bones burn with heat.
31 My harp is for mourning and my flute for the sound of weeping.

Job Asks for Judgment

31 "I made a covenant with my eyes not to pay attention to a virgin.
2 For what is one's lot from God above, one's heritage from Shaddai on high?
3 Is it not calamity for the unjust, and disaster for workers of iniquity?
4 Does He not see my ways and count all my steps?
5 "If I have walked in falsehood or my foot has hurried to deceit, 6 then let Him weigh me with honest scales,
then God will know my integrity.
7 If my step has strayed from the way, if my heart has walked after my eyes,
or if any defilement has stuck to my hands, 8 then let me sow and another eat, and let my crops be uprooted.
9 If my heart has been enticed by a woman, or I have lurked at my neighbor's door, 10 then let my wife grind for another and let others sleep with her.
11 For that would be a shameful act, an iniquity to be judged.
12 For it is a fire that devours to destruction, and uproots all my harvest.
13 "If I have denied justice to my male or female servant
when they disputed with me, 14 then what could I do when God rises up;

when He visits, how will I answer Him?
15 Did not He who made me in the womb, make him?
Did not the same one form us in the womb?
16 "If I withheld the desires of the poor or let the eyes of the widow to fail, 17 if I ate my morsel of bread myself, without letting an orphan eat of it 18 (but from my youth I reared him as a father, and from my mother's womb I guided her), 19 if I have seen anyone perishing for lack of clothing or the needy without a covering, 20 if his heart did not bless me as he warmed himself with the fleece of my sheep, 21 if I have raised my hand against the orphan, when I saw my support in the gate, 22 then let my shoulder blade fall from my shoulder, and let my arm be broken off at the joint.
23 For calamity from God was a terror to me, and because of His majesty, I could do nothing.
24 "If I have put my confidence in gold or said to fine gold, 'You are my security,' 25 if I rejoiced because of my great wealth or because of the abundance my hand acquired, 26 if I looked at the sun when it shines or the moon moving in splendor, 27 so that my heart was secretly enticed, and my hand threw a kiss from my mouth, 28 then this also would be iniquity to be judged, for I would have denied God above.
29 "If I rejoiced at my enemy's misfortune or gloated because calamity found him—30 I have not allowed my mouth to sin, by asking for his life with a curse—
31 if anyone in my household has ever said,
'Who has not been filled with his meat?'
32 —but no stranger had to spend the night outside for my door was open to the traveler—33 if I have I covered my transgressions like Adam, by hiding my guilt in my bosom 34 because I feared a great multitude, and the contempt of clans terrified me, so that I kept silent
and would not go outside.
35 O, that I had someone to hear me!
Look, here is my signature,
let Shaddai answer me,
let the accuser write the indictment!
36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder;
I would bind it on me as a crown.
37 I would give Him an account of my steps;
like a prince I would approach Him.
38 "If my land cries out against me,
and its furrows weep together,
39 if I have eaten its fruits without money, or caused the death of its owners, 40 then let briars come up instead of wheat, and stinkweed instead of barley."
The words of Job are ended.

Young Elihu Speaks

32 So these three men stopped answering Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. ² Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite of the clan of Ram became very angry. He was angry with Job for justifying himself rather than God. ³ He was also angry with his three friends because they had not found an answer, and yet had condemned Job. ⁴ Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because they were older. ⁵ When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his anger was aroused.

⁶ Then Elihu son of Barachel the Buzite responded and said:

“I am young in days and you are old;
that is why I was timid and dared not to tell what I know.

⁷ I thought, ‘Let days speak, and many years teach wisdom.’ †

⁸ But there is a spirit in people, the breath of Shaddai that gives them understanding.

⁹ It is not only the aged who are wise or old men who understand justice.

¹⁰ “Therefore I say, ‘Listen to me!
I, even I, will explain what I know.’

¹¹ Look, I waited for your words,
I listened to your reasoning;
while you were searching for words

¹² I gave you my full attention.
But behold, no one proved Job wrong;
none among you, answered his statements.

¹³ Lest you should say, ‘We have found wisdom;
let God refute him, not man!’

¹⁴ Job has not directed his words to me and I will not respond to him with your arguments.

¹⁵ “They are dismayed and no longer reply;
words have failed them.

¹⁶ Must I wait, since they no longer speak, since they stand there with no reply?

¹⁷ I too will answer my part;
I too will declare what I know.

¹⁸ For I am full of words, and the spirit within me compels me;
¹⁹ inside I am like wine that has no opening, like new wineskins ready to burst.

²⁰ I must speak that I may find relief;
I will open my lips that I may answer.

²¹ I will show partiality to no one,
nor will I flatter anyone;

²² for I do not know how to flatter else my Maker would quickly carry me away!

33 “But now, Job, listen to my words and give ear to everything I say.

² See now, I open my mouth;
my tongue in my mouth speaks.

³ My words are from my upright heart;

my lips speak sincerely what they know.

⁴ “The Ruach of God has made me;
the breath of Shaddai gives me life.

⁵ Answer me, if you can;
array yourselves before me;
take your stand!

⁶ Look, I am the same as you before God;
I too am formed from clay.

⁷ See, no fear of me should terrify you, nor should my pressure be heavy on you.

⁸ “Indeed, you have said in my hearing,
—I heard the sound of the words:

⁹ ‘I am pure, without transgression;
I am innocent, without iniquity.’

¹⁰ Yet, He has found fault with me;
He considers me His enemy.

¹¹ He puts my feet in the shackles;
He watches closely all my paths.’

¹² “But in this, you are not right—
I answer you, for God is greater than a mortal.

¹³ Why do you contend against Him that He does not answer all His words.

¹⁴ Indeed, God speaks once, even twice, yet no one perceives it.

¹⁵ “In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, as they slumber in bed,

¹⁶ Then He opens the ears of men and seals their instruction,

¹⁷ in order to turn a man from his conduct and to cover a person’s pride.

¹⁸ He spares his soul from the Pit and his life from perishing by the sword.

¹⁹ Or a person is chastened with pain on his bed, with continual strife in his bones,

²⁰ so that his life loathes bread, and his soul, desirable food.

²¹ His flesh wastes away from sight, and his bones, once unseen, now stick out.

²² His soul draws near to the Pit and his life to the messengers of death.

²³ “If there is an angel beside him, a messenger, one out of a thousand,

to declare to a man his uprightness,

²⁴ then He is gracious to him, and says
‘Deliver him from going down to the Pit—

I have found a ransom’;
²⁵ let his flesh be restored like a child’s;

let him return to the days of his youth.’

²⁶ He entreats God and is accepted by Him;
he sees His face with a shout of joy;
He restores to the man his righteousness.

²⁷ He sings to others, saying,
‘I have sinned and perverted what is right, but I did not get what I deserved.’

²⁸ He redeemed my soul from going down to the Pit, and my life sees the light.’

²⁹ “Indeed, God does all these things,

† cf. Luke 2:47.

twice, even three times with a man, ³⁰ to bring his soul back from the Pit, that he may be illuminated with the light of life.
³¹ Pay attention, Job, listen to me;
 Be silent, and I will speak.
³² If you have anything to say, answer me.
 Speak, for I want to justify you.
³³ If not, then listen to me.
 Be silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

Testing Job's Claims

34 Then Elihu answered:
² "Hear my words, you wise men;
 give ear to me, you men of learning.
³ For the ear tests words
 as the mouth tastes food.
⁴ Let us choose for ourselves what is right;
 Let us learn together what is good.
⁵ "For Job says, 'I am righteous, but God has deprived me of justice.
⁶ Concerning my right, should I lie?
 My wound is incurable, although I am without transgression.'
⁷ What man is like Job,
 who drinks mockery like water,
⁸ who keeps company with evildoers, and walks with wicked men?
⁹ For he says, 'It does not profit a man when he makes his delight with God.'
¹⁰ "Therefore, listen to me, you men of understanding:
 Wickedness is far from God, injustice from Shaddai .
¹¹ For He repays a person for what he has done, and brings on the person what he deserves.
¹² "Truly God does not act wickedly, and Shaddai does not pervert justice.
¹³ Who appointed Him over the earth?
 Who put Him over the whole world?
¹⁴ "If He were to set His heart on it, and gather to Himself His Ruach and breath, ¹⁵ all flesh would perish together and mankind would return to dust. † ¹⁶ "Now if you have understanding, hear this;
 give ear to the sound of my words.
¹⁷ Can someone who hates justice govern?
 Will you condemn the mighty, righteous One?
¹⁸ Who says to a king, 'Worthless man' and to nobles, 'Wicked men!'
¹⁹ Who shows no partiality before princes, and does not favor the rich over the poor, for they are all the work of His hands.
²⁰ They die in a moment, at midnight, people are shaken and they pass away.
 The mighty are removed without a hand.
²¹ "For His eyes are on the ways of man;
 He sees all his steps.
²² There is no gloom and no deep darkness,

† cf. Acts 17:25, 28.

where evildoers can hide themselves.
²³ For He does not consider a man further that he should go before God in judgment.
²⁴ He shatters the mighty without inquiry, and sets others in their place.
²⁵ Thus He recognizes their deeds,
 He overturns them in the night and they are crushed.
²⁶ He strikes them for their wickedness in a place where people can see, ²⁷ because they turned from following Him,
 and have not understood any of His ways.
²⁸ They caused the cry of the poor to come before Him,
 so that He hears the cry of the afflicted.
²⁹ "But if He is quiet, who can condemn Him?
 If He hides His face, who can see Him?
 Yet He is over a nation and an individual alike,
³⁰ so that godless men should not rule, nor lay snares for people.
³¹ "Suppose someone says to God, 'I have born chastisement,
 but I will not act wickedly any more.
³² Teach me what I cannot see.
 If I have done evil, I will not do it again.'
³³ Should He requite it on your terms, because you reject it?
 But you must choose and not I;
 now declare what you know.
³⁴ "Men of understanding declare, wise men who hear me say to me,
³⁵ 'Job speaks without knowledge, and his words lack understanding.'
³⁶ Oh, that Job might be tested to the end, for answering like wicked men.
³⁷ For he adds rebellion to his sin;
 in our midst he claps his hands and multiplies his words against God."
35 Then Elihu answered, saying:
² "Do you think this is just?
 Do you say,
 'My righteousness is greater than God's?'
³ For you ask, 'What will it profit you?'
 and 'What do I gain by not sinning?'
⁴ I will answer you,
 and your friends with you.
⁵ Look up at the heavens and see;
 consider the clouds so high above you.
⁶ If you sin, how does it affect Him?
 If your transgressions are many, what do you do to Him?
⁷ If you are righteous, what do you give Him, or what does He receive from your hand? †† ⁸ Your wickedness is for a man like yourself, and your righteousness for a son of man.
⁹ "Because of a multitude of oppressions, they cry out;

†† cf. Rom. 11:35.

they cry for help because of the power of the mighty.
¹⁰ But no one says, 'Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night,
¹¹ who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, who makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?'
¹² There they cry out, but He does not answer, because of the pride of the wicked.
¹³ Indeed God does not hear an empty cry;
Shaddai pays no attention to it.
¹⁴ How much less when you say that you do not perceive Him, that the case is before Him and you must wait for Him.
¹⁵ And further, that His anger does not punish and that He does not know transgression?
¹⁶ So Job opens his mouth with nonsense, without knowledge he multiplies words."

Elihu Magnifies the Almighty

36 Then Elihu said further:
² "Be patient with me a bit longer and I will show you that there is more to say on God's behalf.
³ I get my knowledge from afar;
 I ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
⁴ For truly, my words are not false;
 One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
⁵ "Indeed, God is mighty, but despises none,
 He is mighty in strength of understanding.
⁶ He does not keep the wicked alive, but gives justice to the afflicted.
⁷ He does not take His eyes from the righteous, but enthrones them with kings and exalts them forever.
⁸ But if they are bound in chains, and held captive by cords of affliction,
⁹ then He declares to them their deed that they have transgressed arrogantly.
¹⁰ And He opens their ear to instruction, and commands that they turn from evil.
¹¹ If they obey and serve, they will end their days in prosperity,
 and their years in happiness.
¹² But if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword,
 and die without knowledge.
¹³ "The godless in heart harbor anger, they do not cry for help even when He binds them.
¹⁴ Their souls die in youth, their life ends among cult prostitutes.
¹⁵ He delivers the afflicted by his affliction and opens their ear in oppression.
¹⁶ "And indeed, He will draw you from the mouth of distress,
 to a spacious place without constraint, and the comfort of a table full of rich food.
¹⁷ But you are full of judgment on the wicked, judgment and justice take hold of you!

¹⁸ Beware lest wrath entice you with riches;
 or a large bribe turn you aside.
¹⁹ Will your wealth sustain you to keep you from distress,
 or even all your mighty efforts?
²⁰ Do not long for the night, when people vanish from their places.
²¹ Be careful, do not turn to iniquity;
 for you have chosen this rather than affliction.
²² "Indeed, God is exalted in His power.
 Who is a teacher like Him?
²³ Who has prescribed His way for Him?
 Or said 'You have done wrong?'
²⁴ Remember to magnify His work, of which people have sung.
²⁵ All mankind has seen it;
 people gaze on it from afar.
²⁶ Behold, God is exalted—beyond our knowledge!
 The number of His years is unsearchable.
²⁷ For He draws up the drops of water;
 they distill rain into its mist,
²⁸ which the clouds pour down and shower mankind abundantly.
²⁹ Indeed, who can understand the spreading of the clouds,
 and the thunder from His pavilion?
³⁰ "See how He scatters His lightning about Him, covering the depths of the sea.
³¹ For by these, He judges peoples and supplies food in abundance.
³² He covers His hands with lightning and commands it to strike its target.
³³ His thunder declares His presence, the cattle also, about what is coming.
37 "At this my heart trembles and leaps from its place.
² Listen carefully to the roar of His voice,
 the rumbling that comes from His mouth.
³ Under the whole heaven He lets it loose, and His light to the ends of the earth.
⁴ After that a voice roars;
 He thunders with His majestic voice.
 He does not hold them back when His voice is heard.
⁵ God thunders wondrously with His voice;
 He does great things beyond our comprehension.
⁶ "For to the snow He says, 'Fall to the earth,' and to the torrential rain—'be a mighty downpour of rain.'
⁷ He seals the hand of every man,
 so that all men will know His work.
⁸ The animals go into their lairs;
 they remain in their dens.
⁹ Out of its chamber comes the storm, and icy cold from the driving wind.
¹⁰ From the breath of God frost is made,
 and the watery expanse freezes.
¹¹ He loads the cloud with moisture;
 He scatters His cloud of lightning.

12 It swirls around by His guidance, to do whatever He commands on the face of the inhabited world.
 13 Whether it is a rod of punishment for His land or for lovingkindness,
 He causes it to happen.
 14 "Listen to this, Job:
 stand and consider God's wonders.
 15 Do you know how God orders them, and makes the lightning flash in His cloud?
 16 Do you know the balancing of clouds,
 the wonders of Him who has perfect knowledge?
 17 "You, whose clothes are hot,
 when the earth is still, because of the south wind, 18 can you, with Him, stretch out the skies, strong as a mirror of molten metal?
 19 Teach us what to say to Him;
 we cannot prepare a case because of the darkness.
 20 Should He be informed that I want to speak?
 If a man speaks, would he be swallowed up?
 21 But now, they do not see the light, bright as it is in the skies,
 until the wind has passed and cleared the clouds away.
 22 Out of the north He comes in golden splendor;
 around God is awesome majesty.
 23 Shaddai, we cannot find Him!
 He is great in power and justice, and abundant righteousness He does not oppress.
 24 Therefore people fear Him;
 He does not regard all the wise of heart."

Word out of the Whirlwind

38 Then ADONAI answered Job out of the whirlwind.
 He said:
 2 "Who is this, who darkens counsel with words without knowledge?
 3 Now gird up your loins like a man;
 I will question you,
 and you will inform Me!
 4 "Where were you when I laid the foundations of earth?
 Tell Me, if you have understanding.
 5 Who set its dimensions—if you know—or who stretched a line over it?
 6 On what were its foundations set, or who laid its cornerstone—7 when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
 8 "And who shut up the sea behind doors when it burst forth from the womb, 9 when I made a cloud its garment and thick darkness its swaddling cloth, 10 when I prescribed my boundary for it,
 and set bars and gates,
 11 when I said, 'This far you may come, but no further;
 here your majestic waves will stop.'

12 "Have you ever in your life commanded the morning,
 or caused dawn to know its place;
 13 that it would take hold of the corners of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?
 14 It changes shape like clay under a seal—they stand out like those of a garment.
 15 And from the wicked their light is withheld, and the upraised arm is broken.
 16 "Have you gone to the springs of the sea, or walked in the recesses of the deep?
 17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
 Have you seen the gates of the deepest darkness?
 18 Have you comprehended the expanses of the earth?
 If you know it all, declare it!
 19 In what direction does light dwell, and darkness, where is its place—20 that you can take it to its borders, and discern the paths to its home?
 21 Surely you know, for you were born then;
 and the number of your days is great!
 22 "Have you entered the storehouses of snow or seen the storehouses of hail, 23 which I reserved for a time of distress, for a day of battle and war?
 24 In what direction is light distributed, or the east wind scattered over the earth?
 25 Who cuts a channel for the flood,
 and a path for the thunderstorm,
 26 to cause it to rain on an uninhabited land,
 a desert with no one in it, 27 to satisfy a devastated and desolate land,
 and cause it to sprout grass?
 28 Does the rain have a father, or who has birthed the drops of dew?
 29 From whose womb comes the ice?
 Who gives birth to the frost of heaven,
 30 when the waters hide like stone, and the surface of the deep is frozen?
 31 "Can you bind the chains of Pleiades or loosen the belt of Orion?
 32 Do you bring out the constellations in their season or guide the Bear with her cubs?
 33 Do you know the ordinances of the heavens?
 Can you set up dominion over the earth?
 34 "Can you raise your voice to the clouds and cover yourself with an abundance of water?
 35 Can you send out lightning bolts, so they go?
 Will they say to you, 'Here we are?'
 36 Who put wisdom in the secret place or gave understanding to the mind?
 37 Who can count the clouds by wisdom, or tip over the water jars of heaven, 38 when dust hardens into a mass and clods of earth stick together?
 39 "Do you hunt prey for the lioness or satisfy the hunger of young lions,

⁴⁰ when they crouch in their dens or lie in wait in the thicket?
⁴¹ Who arranges provision for the raven, when its young cry out to God,
 and wander about for lack of food?
39 "Do you know when the mountain goats give birth?
 Do you observe the calving doe?
² Do you count the months they fulfill and do you know the time when they give birth, ³ when they kneel, bring forth their young,
 and their labor pains end?
⁴ Their young thrive and grow strong in the open field;
 They leave and never return to them.
⁵ "Who sent the wild donkey free?
 Who released the bonds of the wild ass,
⁶ to whom I gave the Arabah as its home,
 the salt land as its dwelling place?
⁷ It scorns the commotion in the town;
 it does not hear the taskmaster's shouts.
⁸ It explores the mountains as its pasture and searches after every green thing.
⁹ "Is the wild ox willing to serve you?
 Will it spend the night at your manger?
¹⁰ Will you bind a wild ox to a furrow with his rope?
 Will it plow valleys behind you?
¹¹ Will you rely on it for its great strength?
 Will you leave your labor to it?
¹² Can you trust it to bring in your seed and gather it to your threshing floor?
¹³ "The wings of the ostrich flap joyously, but are they the pinions and plumage of a stork?
¹⁴ For she leaves her eggs on the ground and lets them warm in the soil, ¹⁵ and forgets that a foot may crush them, that a wild beast may trample them.
¹⁶ She treats her young ones harshly, as if they were not hers;
 She is not concerned that her labor was in vain,
¹⁷ for God did not endow her with wisdom or give her a share of understanding.
¹⁸ When she lifts herself to flee she laughs at the horse and its rider.
¹⁹ "Do you give the horse its strength?
 Do you clothe his neck with a mane?
²⁰ Do you cause him to leap like locust?
 His majestic snorting is terrifying!
²¹ He paws in the valley and exalting in his strength he charges into the fray.
²² He laughs at fear and is not dismayed;
 he does not recoil from the sword.
²³ On him the quiver rattles;
 the spear and javelin flash.
²⁴ With quaking and excitement, he swallows up the ground.
 He cannot stand still when the shofar sounds.
²⁵ At the blast of the shofar, he says, 'Aha!'

From a distance he smells battle, the shout of the captains and the battle cry.
²⁶ "Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, spreading its wings toward the south?
²⁷ Is it by your command that an eagle soars and builds its nest high?
²⁸ It dwells on a cliff and spends the night there, on a rocky crag and stronghold.
²⁹ From there it searches for food;
 its eyes detect it from afar.
³⁰ Its young ones suck up blood, and where the slain are, there it is."

Insignificant before God

40 Then ADONAI answered Job, saying:
² "Will the one who contends with Shaddai correct him?
 Let him who accuses God answer!"
³ Then Job answered ADONAI. He said:
⁴ "Indeed, I am unworthy—what can I reply to You?
 I put my hand over my mouth.
⁵ I spoke once, but I have no answer—twice, but I will say no more."
⁶ Then ADONAI answered Job from the whirlwind:
⁷ "Brace yourself like a man;
 I will question you,
 and you will inform Me!
⁸ "Would you really annul My judgment?
 Would you condemn Me to justify yourself?
⁹ Do you have an arm like God's and can you thunder with a voice like His?
¹⁰ Then adorn yourself in majesty and dignity;
 clothe yourself in splendor and honor.
¹¹ Scatter the fury of your anger.
 Look at every proud person and bring him low;
¹² look at everyone who is proud and humble him;
 tread down the wicked where they stand.
¹³ Hide them together in the dust, bind their faces in the hidden place.
¹⁴ Then I—even I will acknowledge to you, that your own right hand can save you!

Behemoth and Leviathan

¹⁵ "Look now at Behemoth, which I made along with you.
 He eats grass like an ox.
¹⁶ Now look at his strength in his loins, and his power in the muscles of his belly.
¹⁷ He stiffens his tail like a cedar;
 the sinews of his thighs are knit together.
¹⁸ His bones are tubes of bronze;
 His limbs like rods of iron.
¹⁹ He is first among the ways of God,
 Let his Maker draw near with His sword!
²⁰ For the mountains bring him food, and all the wild animals play there.

21 Under the lotus plants he lies down, in the secrecy of the reeds and marsh.
22 The lotuses conceal him in their shade;
the willows of the brook surround him.
23 If the river rages, he is not alarmed.
He is secure, even though the Jordan surges against his mouth.
24 Can anyone capture it by its eyes, or pierce his nose with hooks?
25 (41:1) "Can you pull in Leviathan with a hook, or tie down his tongue with a cord?
26 (41:2) Can you put a reed rope in his nose or pierce his jaw with a hook?
27 (41:3) Will he make many supplications to you,
or speak softly to you?
28 (41:4) Will he make a covenant with you,
so you can take him as a slave forever?
29 (41:5) Can you play with him like a bird, or put him on a leash for your girls?
30 (41:6) Will traders barter for him?
Will they divide him among the merchants?
31 (41:7) Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?
32 (41:8) If you lay your hands on him—
you will remember the battle and never do it again!
41 (9) "See, his hope is wrong, he is laid low, even the sight of him.
2 (10) Is he not fierce when he is roused?
Who then is able to stand before Me?
3 (11) Who has confronted Me that I should repay? †
Everything under heaven belongs to Me.
4 (12) "I will not keep silent about his limbs, or his might or the grace of his arrangement.
5 (13) Who can strip off his outer garment?
Who can penetrate his double armor?
6 (14) Who can open the doors of his face, ringed with fearsome teeth?
7 (15) His rows of shields are his pride, shut up closely as with tight seal;
8 (16) each so close to the next,
that no air can pass between.
9 (17) They are joined one to another;
they clasp each other and cannot be separated.
10 (18) "He sneezes out flashes of light;
his eyes are like the eyelids of dawn.
11 (19) Out of his mouth go flames, sparks of fire shoot out.
12 (20) Smoke pours from his nostrils, as a boiling pot over burning reeds.
13 (21) His breath sets coals ablaze and flames dart from his mouth.
14 (22) "Strength resides in his neck;
dismay runs before him.
15 (23) The folds of his flesh are tightly joined;
they are firm on him, immovable.
16 (24) His heart is hard as rock, hard as a lower millstone.

† cf. Rom. 11:35.

17 (25) "When he rises up, the mighty are afraid;
at his crashing they retreat.
18 (26) A sword that reaches him has no effect—nor with a spear, dart, or javelin.
19 (27) He regards iron as straw, bronze as rotten wood.
20 (28) Arrows do not make him flee;
sling stones become like chaff to him.
21 (29) A club is regarded as stubble;
he laughs at the rattling of a lance.
22 (30) "His undersides are jagged potsherds, leaving a trail like a threshing sledge in mud.
23 (31) He makes the deep boil like a cauldron and stirs up the sea like a pot of ointment.
24 (32) He leaves a shining wake behind him;
one would think the deep had white hair.
25 (33) Nothing on dry land is his equal—a creature without fear.
26 (34) He sees every haughty thing;
he is king over all who are proud."

Job Retracts

42 Job answered ADONAI and said:
2 "I know You can do all things;
no purpose of Yours can be thwarted.
3 You ask, 'Who is this,
who darkens counsel without knowledge?'
Surely I spoke without understanding, things too wonderful for me which I did not know.
4 You said, 'Hear now, and I will speak;
I will question you,
and you will inform Me.'
5 I had heard of You by the hearing of the ear;
but now my eye has seen You.
6 Therefore I despise myself, and repent on dust and ashes."

Job Restored
