7 After ADONAI had spoken these words to Job, ADONAI said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My anger is kindled against you and against your two friends, because you have not spoken about Me what is right, like My servant Job has. 8 So now, take for yourselves seven young bulls and seven rams and go to My servant Job and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, for I will accept Job's prayer †† and not deal with you according to your folly because you have not spoken correctly about Me, like My servant Job."

9 So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did what ADONAI told them; and ADONAI accepted Job's prayer.

10 So ADONAI restored what Job had lost, after he prayed for his friends, and ADONAI doubled everything that Job had before. 11 Then all his brothers, all his sisters, and everyone who had known him before, came to him and ate bread with him in his house. They consoled him and comforted him for all the calamity that ADONAI had brought upon him. Each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring.

¹² So ADONAI blessed Job's latter days more than at his beginning. He had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. ¹³ He also had seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴ He called the name of the first Jemimah, the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-Happuch.

¹⁵ Nowhere in the land were there found women as beautiful as the daughters of Job. Their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.

¹⁶ After this, Job lived 140 years; he saw his children and their children for four generations. ¹⁷ And so Job died, old and full of days.

Psalms Introduction

The book of Psalms is one of the most loved books of the Bible. Although the word “psalms” comes from the Greek word “,” the Hebrew word, , , better describes the content of the book as “praises.” Within the 150 Psalms or songs in this book, one will encounter reflections of life’s varied experiences. Many of the songs of the church were written by composers who used the actual words of the psalms in their worship expression. We are not sure as to the date of the writings of Psalms. However, the length of time covered by this noble book of the Bible encompasses approximately one thousand years. Scholars determine that the writing style, imagery, and parallelism all contribute to this sentiment. The book of Psalms is actually divided into five smaller books. Book 1 includes Psalms 1-41; book 2 includes Psalms 42-72; book 3 includes Psalms 73-89; book 4 includes Psalms 90-106, and book 5 includes Psalms 107–150. The final five chapters of Psalms are rightly called the “Great Hallel,” as each psalm begins and ends with the exclamation of Halleluyah! Praise !

It is said that , King David, wrote most of Psalms. Seventy-three psalms begin with the statement “a Psalm of David.” His writing encompassed lament, penitence and sorrow, praises, imprecatory reflection, and Messianic referrals. As David was a harp player, he was effective in introducing the use of various musical instruments into corporate worship. Psalm 23 is one of the most beloved psalms used in the synagogue and churches today in the 21st century. Psalm 51 denotes David’s repentance after his sin with Bathsheba.

In addition, it is believed that Asaph and the sons of Korah also contributed to the writing of Psalms. Psalm 90 notes that the author is Moses. Solomon was a prolific contributor to the Bible; Psalm 72 and Psalm 127 are credited to his authorship. Approximately fifty psalms indicate no authorship, allowing the reader to only assume and accept the mystery of the source. The longest chapter of the Bible is found in the book of Psalms, Psalm 119. This psalm is unique as each main stanza begins with a letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

The book of Psalms involves almost every aspect of life. Central to this book is the worship of God. Although the genres are different, the unifying element is the adoration and love for God. Psalms 113-Psalms 118 are known as the “Hallel” psalms. These Hallel psalms are recited by Jewish people on Passover, Shavuot and Sukkot. This compilation is also part of the , הרשע הנמש , the “Eighteen Benedictions.”

One of the beautiful aspects of the book of Psalms is that almost half of all of the Old Testament () references in the New Testament are sourced from the book of Psalms. All through the book, the reader is presented with a picture of God. The adds His inspiration to the word, to enliven the reader to the true worship of the one True God.

Torah Is a Tree of Wisdom

1 Happy is the one who has not walked in the advice of the wicked, nor stood in the way of sinners, nor sat in the seat of scoffers.
² But his delight is in the Torah of ADONAI, and on His Torah he meditates day and night.
³ He will be like a planted tree over streams of water, producing its fruit during its season.
 Its leaf never droops—
 but in all he does, he succeeds.
⁴ The wicked are not so.
 For they are like chaff that the wind blows away.
⁵ Therefore, the wicked will not stand during the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
⁶ For ADONAI knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to ruin.

Coronation of Messianic King

2 Why are the nations in an uproar, and the peoples mutter vanity?
² The kings of earth set themselves up † and rulers conspire together †† against ADONAI
 and against His Anointed One: ‡ ³ “Let’s rip their chains apart, and throw their ropes off us!”
⁴ He who sits in heaven laughs!
ADONAI mocks them.
⁵ So He will speak to them in His anger, and terrify them in His fury:
⁶ “I have set up My king upon Zion, My holy mountain.”
⁷ I will declare the decree of ADONAI.
 He said to me: “You are My Son—

today I have become Your Father. ††

⁸ Ask Me,

and I will give the nations as Your inheritance, and the far reaches of the earth as Your possession.

⁹ You shall break the nations with an iron scepter. ††

You shall dash them in pieces like a potter’s jar.” †††

¹⁰ So now, O kings, be wise, take warning, O judges of the earth!

¹¹ Serve ADONAI with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

¹² Kiss the Son, lest He become angry, and you perish along your way—
 since His wrath may flare up suddenly.

Happy is everyone taking refuge in Him!

Magen David

3 (0) A Psalm of David, when he fled from his son Absalom.

² (1) ADONAI, how many are my foes!
 Many are rising up against me!

³ (2) Many are saying to my soul:
 “There is no deliverance for him in God.”

Selah

⁴ (3) But You, ADONAI, are a shield around me, my glory and the lifter of my head.

⁵ (4) I cry out to ADONAI with my voice, and He answers me from His holy mountain.

Selah

⁶ (5) I lie down and sleep.

I awake—for ADONAI sustains me.

⁷ (6) I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people all around

who have taken their stand against me.

⁸ (7) Arise, ADONAI! Deliver me, my God!
 For You strike all my enemies on the cheek.

You shatter the teeth of the wicked.

⁹ (8) Deliverance belongs to ADONAI. †††

Let Your blessing be on Your people.

Selah

Prayer for Sleep in Shalom

4 (0) For the music director, on stringed instruments, a psalm of David.
 2 (1) Answer me when I call,
 God of my righteousness!
 You set me free when I am in distress.
 Be gracious to me and hear my prayer.
 3 (2) O sons of men, how long will you turn my glory into my shame?
 How long will you love worthlessness and pursue falsehood? Selah
 4 (3) But know that ADONAI has set apart the godly for His own.
ADONAI will hear when I call to Him.
 5 (4) Tremble, but do not sin! †
 Search your heart while on your bed, and be silent.
Selah
 6 (5) Offer righteous sacrifices and put your trust in ADONAI.
 7 (6) Many are asking, "Who will show us some good?"
 May the light of Your face shine upon us, ADONAI!
 8 (7) You have put joy in my heart—more joy than when their grain and new wine overflow.
 9 (8) I will lie down and sleep in shalom.
 For You alone, ADONAI, make me live securely.

Morning Prayer for Justice

5 (0) For the music director, on the wind instruments, a psalm of David.
 2 (1) Hear my words, ADONAI, consider my groaning.
 3 (2) Listen to the sound of my cry for help,
 my King and my God, for I pray to You.
 4 (3) ADONAI, in the morning You hear my voice.
 In the morning I order my prayer before You and watch expectantly.
 5 (4) For You are not a God who rejoices in evil.
 No wickedness dwells with You.
 6 (5) Braggarts will not stand before Your eyes.
 You hate all wrongdoers.
 7 (6) You destroy those who speak falsehood.
 A person of bloodshed and deceit ADONAI detests.
 8 (7) But because of Your great lovingkindness, I will enter Your House.
 I will bow toward Your holy Temple, in awe of You.
 9 (8) Lead me, ADONAI, in Your righteousness, because of my enemies.
 Make Your path straight before me.
 10 (9) For nothing upright is in their mouth.
 Inside them is a ruin—their throat an open grave.
 They flatter with their tongue. ††
 11 (10) Declare them guilty, O God!

† cf. Eph. 4:26. †† cf. Rom. 3:13.

Let them fall by their own schemes.
 Banish them because of their many transgressions—for they have rebelled against You.
 12 (11) But let all who take refuge in You rejoice!
 Let them always shout for joy!
 You will shelter them and they exult—those who love
 Your Name.
 13 (12) For You bless the righteous, ADONAI.
 You surround him with favor as a shield.

Prayer for Mercy

6 (0) For the music director, on the eight string lyre, a psalm of David.
 2 (1) ADONAI, do not rebuke me in Your anger!
 Do not discipline me in Your wrath.
 3 (2) Be gracious to me, ADONAI, for I am weak.
 Heal me, ADONAI—for my bones are shuddering with fear, 4 (3) as is my soul—
 and You, ADONAI—how long?
 5 (4) Turn toward me, ADONAI, deliver my soul!
 Save me—because of Your mercy.
 6 (5) For there is no memory of You in death, in Sheol who will praise You?
 7 (6) I am worn out with my groaning.
 Every night I make my bed swim, drenching my pillow with my tears.
 8 (7) My eyes are weakened with grief—they age because of my enemies.
 9 (8) Away from me, all you evildoers!
 For ADONAI heard the sound of my weeping.
 10 (9) ADONAI has heard my cry for mercy.
ADONAI accepts my prayer:
 11 (10) "May all my enemies be ashamed, and stricken with terror.
 May they turn back in sudden disgrace."

ADONAI Magen

7 (0) A passionate song of David, which he sang to ADONAI concerning Cush, a Benjamite.
 2 (1) ADONAI my God, in You I have taken refuge.
 Save me from each of my persecutors, and deliver me.
 3 (2) Otherwise, he will rip me apart like a lion, with no one to rescue me.
 4 (3) ADONAI my God, if I have done this—if there is guilt on my hands, 5 (4) if I have paid back evil to anyone at peace with me, or unjustly attacked my adversary, 6 (5) then let the enemy chase me, overtake me, and trample me into the ground, leaving my honor in the dirt! Selah
 7 (6) Arise, ADONAI, in Your anger, arise against the fury of my enemies!
 Awake for me!
 You decreed justice.

8 (7) Let an assembly of peoples gather around You and return on high, above them.
 9 (8) ADONAI judges the peoples.
 Vindicate me, ADONAI,
 according to my righteousness and integrity in me.
 10 (9) Please, end the evil of the wicked and sustain the righteous.
 A just God examines hearts and minds.
 11 (10) My shield is God—
 Savior of the upright in heart.
 12 (11) God is a righteous judge,
 a God who is indignant every day.
 13 (12) If He does not relent,
 He will sharpen His sword.
 He has bent His bow and made it ready.
 14 (13) He prepares His own deadly weapons.
 He makes His fiery arrows.
 15 (14) Look! The one pregnant with trouble conceives mischief and brings forth deceit. † 16 (15) He digs a pit, scrapes it out, and then falls into the hole he has made.
 17 (16) His mischief will turn on his own head.
 His violence will boomerang on his crown.
 18 (17) I will praise ADONAI for His justice.
 I sing praise to the Name of ADONAI Elyon!

Humanity Is God's Splendor

8 (0) For the music director, upon the Gittite lyre: a psalm of David.
 2 (1) ADONAI our Lord,
 how excellent is Your Name over all the earth!
 You set Your splendor above the heavens.
 3 (2) Out of the mouths of babies and toddlers You established power, †† because of Your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger.
 4 (3) When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You established—
 5 (4) what is man, that You are mindful of him?
 And the son of man, that You care for him? ‡
 6 (5) Yet You made him a little lower than the angels, and crowned him with glory and majesty!
 7 (6) You gave him dominion over the works of Your hands.
 You put all things under their feet: †† 8 (7) all sheep and oxen, and also beasts of the field, 9 (8) birds in the air, and fish in the ocean—all passing through the paths of the seas.
 10 (9) ADONAI our Lord, how excellent is Your Name over all the earth!

Our Righteous Judge

9 (0) For the music director, to the tune of "The Death of the Son," a psalm of David.
 2 (1) I will praise ADONAI with my whole heart.
 I will tell about all Your wonders.
 3 (2) I will be glad and rejoice in You.
 I will sing praise to Your Name, Elyon!
 4 (3) When my enemies turn back,
 they stumble and perish before You.
 5 (4) For You upheld my right and my cause.
 You sat upon the throne, judging righteously.
 6 (5) You rebuked the nations,
 You destroyed the wicked—
 blotting out their name forever and ever.
 7 (6) The enemy is finished, in ruins forever.
 You overturned their cities—
 even the memory of them has perished.
 8 (7) But ADONAI reigns forever.
 He established His throne for judgment.
 9 (8) He judges the world in righteousness and governs the peoples justly.
 10 (9) ADONAI is a stronghold for the oppressed, a high tower in times of trouble.
 11 (10) Those who know Your Name trust You—for You, ADONAI, never have forsaken those who seek You.
 12 (11) Sing praises to ADONAI, who dwells in Zion.
 Declare His deeds among the peoples.
 13 (12) He who avenges blood remembers.
 He will not forget the cry of the afflicted.
 14 (13) Be compassionate to me, ADONAI.
 See my affliction from those hating me.
 Lift me up from the gates of death.
 15 (14) Then I will tell all your praises in the gates of the daughter of Zion, rejoicing in Your salvation.
 16 (15) The nations sank into the pit they made.
 The net they hid caught their own foot.
 17 (16) ADONAI is known for executing judgment.
 The wicked one is trapped in the work of his own hands.
Selah
 18 (17) The wicked will turn to Sheol, as will all the nations that forget God.
 19 (18) For the needy will not forever be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever.
 20 (19) Arise, ADONAI, do not let man triumph.
 Let the nations be judged before You.
 21 (20) Strike them with terror, ADONAI.
 Let the nations know they are only human. Selah

Freedom from Terror

10 Why, ADONAI, are You standing far off?
 Why hide Yourself in times of trouble?
 2 In pride the wicked hotly hunt the poor.
 Let them be caught in the plots they have planned.

† cf. Jacob 1:15. †† cf. Matt. 21:16. ‡ cf. Heb. 2:6. †† cf. 1 Cor. 15:27; Heb. 2:8.

³ For the wicked one boasts about his soul's desire.
The greedy one curses, reviling ADONAI.
⁴ The wicked one, with his nose in the air, never seeks Him.
All his thoughts are: "There is no God."
⁵ His ways are secure at all times.
He haughtily disregards Your judgments.
He snorts at all his adversaries.
⁶ He says in his heart: "I'll never be shaken!
From generation to generation nothing bad will happen."
⁷ His mouth is full of cursing, lies, and oppression.
On his tongue are trouble and iniquity. †
⁸ He lies in ambush near villages.
In hidden places he slays the innocent.
His eyes watch in secret for the helpless.
⁹ He lurks in a hiding place like a lion in a thicket.
He lies in wait to catch the helpless.
He catches the unfortunate one, dragging him away in his net.
¹⁰ The victim is crushed, brought down, and falls into his mighty claws.
¹¹ He says in his heart: "God has forgotten.
He hides His face—He will never see it."
¹² Arise, ADONAI! O God, lift up Your hand.
Do not forget the afflicted.
¹³ Why does the wicked one revile God?
He says in his heart:
"You will never require anything."
¹⁴ You saw—for You see trouble and grief, to take it in Your hand.
The victim puts his trust in You—
You are the helper of the orphan.
¹⁵ Break the arm of the wicked, evil one!
Call him to account for his wickedness—until no more is found.
¹⁶ ADONAI is King forever and ever!
Nations will be wiped off His land.
¹⁷ You hear, ADONAI, the desire of the meek.
You encourage them and incline Your ear.
¹⁸ You vindicate the orphan and oppressed, so that man, who is earthly, may terrify no more.

Judgment from Heaven

11 (0) For the music director, a psalm of David.
(1) In ADONAI I have taken shelter.
How can you say to my soul:
"Fly like a bird to your mountain?"
² For look, the wicked bend the bow.
They fix their arrow on the bowstring so they can shoot from the shadows at those who are upright in heart.
³ If our foundations are destroyed, what should the righteous do?"
⁴ ADONAI is in His holy Temple.
ADONAI's throne is in heaven. ††
His eyes are watching.

His eyelids observe the children of men.
⁵ ADONAI examines the righteous.
But the wicked and one loving violence His soul hates.
⁶ On the wicked He will rain down fire, brimstone, and scorching wind as the portion of their cup!
⁷ For ADONAI is righteous—He loves justice.
The upright will see His face.

Silence the Flattering Lips

12 (0) For the music director, on the eight string lyre, a psalm of David.
² (1) Help, ADONAI! For no one godly exists.
For the faithful have vanished from the children of men.
³ (2) Everyone tells a lie to his neighbor, talking with flattering lips and a divided heart.
⁴ (3) May ADONAI cut off all flattering lips—a tongue bragging big things.
⁵ (4) They say: "With our tongue we'll prevail.
We own our lips—who can master us?"
⁶ (5) "Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the groaning of the needy,
now will I arise," says ADONAI.
"I will put him in the safe place—he pants for it."
⁷ (6) The words of ADONAI are pure words—like silver refined in an earthly crucible, purified seven times.
⁸ (7) You will keep us safe, ADONAI.
You will protect us from this generation forever.
⁹ (8) The wicked strut all around, while vileness is exalted by mankind.

Trust in His Chesed

13 (0) For the music director, a psalm of David.
² (1) How long, ADONAI? Will You forget me forever?
How long will You hide Your face from me?
³ (2) How long must I have cares in my soul and daily sorrow in my heart?
How long will my enemy triumph over me?
⁴ (3) Look at me and answer, ADONAI my God.
Light up my eyes, or I will sleep in death.
⁵ (4) Or else my enemy will say: "I have overcome him!"
and my foes will rejoice because I am shaken.
⁶ (5) But I trust in Your lovingkindness, my heart rejoices in Your salvation.
(6) I will sing to ADONAI, because He has been good to me.

There Is No God?

14 (0) For the music director, of David.
(1) The fool said in his heart:
"There is no God."
They are corrupt; their deeds are vile;
there is no one who does good. ‡

† cf. Job 20:12; Rom. 3:14. †† cf. Matt. 5:34; Acts 7:49; Rev. 4:2.

² ADONAI looked down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there are any who understand,
who seek after God.
³ They all turned aside, became corrupt.
There is no one who does good
—not even one.
⁴ “Will evildoers never understand—those who consume My people as they eat bread—and never call on ADONAI ?”
⁵ There they are, in great dread.
For God is with the righteous generation.
⁶ You would frustrate the plan of the lowly.
Surely ADONAI is his refuge!
⁷ O may He give Israel’s salvation out of Zion!
When ADONAI restores His captive people,
Jacob will rejoice, Israel will be glad!

Walking with Integrity

15 (0) A psalm of David.
(1) ADONAI, who may dwell in Your tent?
Who may live on Your holy mountain?
² The one who walks with integrity, who does what is right,
and speaks truth in his heart, ³ who does not slander with his tongue, does not wrong his neighbor,
and does not disgrace his friend, ⁴ who despises a vile person in his eyes,
but honors those who fear ADONAI , who keeps his oath even when it hurts,
and does not change,
⁵ who lends his money without usury,
and takes no bribe against the innocent.
One who does these things will never be shaken.

The Path of Eternal Life

16 (0) A Michtam of David.
(1) Keep me safe, O God, for in You I have found shelter.
² I said to ADONAI : “You are my Lord—
I have no good apart from You.”
³ As for the kedoshim who are in the land, they are noble—in them is all my delight.
⁴ As for those who run after another god, may their sorrows multiply.
I will not pour out their drink offerings of blood, nor lift up their names with my lips.
⁵ ADONAI is my portion and my cup.
You cast my lot.
⁶ My boundary lines fall in pleasant places
—surely my heritage is beautiful.
⁷ I will bless ADONAI , who counsels me.
Even at night my heart instructs me.
⁸ I have set ADONAI always before me.
Since He is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

‡ cf. Rom. 3:10-12.

⁹ So my heart is glad and my soul rejoices.
My body also rests secure.
¹⁰ For You will not abandon my soul to Sheol nor let Your faithful one see the Pit. †
¹¹ You make known to me the path of life.
Abundance of joys are in Your presence, eternal pleasures at Your right hand. ††

A Plea for Vindication

17 (0) A prayer of David.
(1) Hear, ADONAI , a just plea, listen to my cry!
Give ear to my prayer—from lips with no deceit.
² From Your presence comes my vindication.
Your eyes see what is right.
³ You have examined my heart.
You searched me at night.
Though You test me, You find nothing.
I resolved that my mouth will not sin.
⁴ As for the deeds of mankind—
by the word of Your lips
I have kept out of the ways of the violent.
⁵ My steps have kept on Your paths.
My feet have not slipped.
⁶ I called upon You, O God,
for You will answer me.
Incline Your ear to me,
hear my speech.
⁷ Be wonderful with Your lovingkindness, O Savior of those taking refuge at Your right hand from those rising up against them.
⁸ Protect me like the pupil of the eye.
Hide me in the shadow of Your wings,
⁹ from the wicked who attack me—my enemies, who surround me.
¹⁰ Their callous hearts they shut tight.
With their mouths they speak proudly.
¹¹ Our steps are now surrounded.
They set their eyes to throw us down to the ground, ¹² like a lion eager to tear to pieces, like a young lion crouching in cover.
¹³ Arise, ADONAI ! Confront him!
Make him bow down!
Deliver my soul from the wicked with Your sword, ¹⁴ from men, with Your hand, ADONAI , from men of the world whose portion is in this life.
You fill their belly with Your treasure —with plenty of children—and leave their surplus to their babes.
¹⁵ I in righteousness will behold Your face!
When I awake,
I will be satisfied with Your likeness.

ADONAI Lives! Blessed Be My Rock

18 (0) For the music director: a psalm of David the servant of ADONAI . He chanted the words of this

song to ADONAI on the day ADONAI delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul.
 2 (0) He said, (1) I love You, ADONAI my strength!
 3 (2) ADONAI is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer.
 My God is my rock, in Him I take refuge,
 my shield, my horn of salvation, my stronghold.
 4 (3) I called upon ADONAI, worthy of praise, and I was rescued from my enemies.
 5 (4) Cords of death entangled me.
 Torrents of Belial overwhelmed me.
 6 (5) Cords of Sheol coiled around me.
 Snares of death came before me.
 7 (6) In my distress I called on ADONAI, and cried to my God for help.
 From His Temple He heard my voice,
 my cry before Him came into His ears.
 8 (7) Then the earth rocked and quaked.
 The foundations of mountains trembled.
 They reeled because He was angry.
 9 (8) Smoke rose from His nostrils and consuming fire from His mouth.
 Coals blazed from Him.
 10 (9) He parted the heavens and came down, with thick darkness under His feet.
 11 (10) He rode upon a cheruv and flew.
 He soared on the wings of the wind.
 12 (11) He made darkness His cover,
 His sukkah all around Him—dark waters, thick clouds.
 13 (12) Out of the brilliance before Him passed His thick clouds, hail and fiery coals.
 14 (13) ADONAI also thundered in the heavens, and Elyon gave forth His voice, hail and fiery coals.
 15 (14) He shot His arrows and scattered them, hurled lightning bolts and routed them.
 16 (15) Then ravines of water appeared.
 The foundations of earth were exposed,
 at Your rebuke, ADONAI,
 at a blast of breath from Your nostrils.
 17 (16) He reached down from on high and took hold of me.
 He drew me out of mighty waters.
 18 (17) He saved me from my powerful enemy, from those who hated me—
 for they were much stronger than me.
 19 (18) They came against me in my day of calamity, but ADONAI was my support.
 20 (19) He brought me out to a wide-open place.
 He rescued me since He delighted in me.
 21 (20) ADONAI rewarded me for my righteousness.
 For the cleanness of my hands He repaid me.
 22 (21) For I kept the ways of ADONAI, and did not turn wickedly from my God.
 23 (22) For all His judgments are before me.
 I do not put His rulings away from me.
 24 (23) I also had integrity with Him, and kept myself from my sin.
 25 (24) So ADONAI rewarded me for my righteousness, for the cleanness of my hands in His eyes.

 26 (25) With the loyal You deal loyally.
 With the blameless You are blameless.
 27 (26) With the pure You are pure, and with the crooked You are shrewd.
 28 (27) For You save lowly people, but haughty eyes You humble.
 29 (28) For You light up my lamp.
ADONAI my God shines in my darkness.
 30 (29) For with You I rush on a troop, with my God I scale a wall.
 31 (30) As for God, His way is perfect.
 The word of ADONAI is pure.
 He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
 32 (31) For who is God, except ADONAI?
 And who is a Rock, except our God?
 33 (32) God girds me with strength and makes my way straight.
 34 (33) He makes my feet like those of deer and makes me stand on my heights.
 35 (34) He trains my hands for battle, so my arms can bend a bronze bow.
 36 (35) You gave me the shield of Your salvation.
 Your right hand upholds me,
 Your gentleness makes me great.
 37 (36) You broaden my steps beneath me, so my ankles have not slipped.
 38 (37) I pursue my enemies and overtake them,
 and will not return till they are wiped out.
 39 (38) I will crush them till they cannot rise, till they fall beneath my feet.
 40 (39) For You girded me with strength for battle.
 You made those who rose up against me bow down before me.
 41 (40) You also made my enemies turn their backs to me.
 I cut off those who hate me.
 42 (41) They cry out, but there is none to save —even to ADONAI, but He did not answer them.
 43 (42) Then I beat them as fine as dust before the wind.
 I pour them out like mud in the streets.
 44 (43) You free me from strifes of the people.
 You set me as head of the nations—people I did not know are serving me.
 45 (44) As soon as they hear, they obey me.
 Children of foreigners cringe before me.
 46 (45) Children of foreigners lose heart and come trembling from their hideouts.
 47 (46) ADONAI lives! And blessed be my Rock!
 Exalted be God my salvation!
 48 (47) God—He gives me vengeance and subdues peoples under me.
 49 (48) He delivers me from my enemies.
 Indeed You lift me up above those who rise up against me.
 You deliver me from the violent man.
 50 (49) Therefore, I praise You among the nations,

ADONAI, and sing praises to Your Name. †
 51 (50) Great victories He gives to His king.
 He shows loyal love to His anointed—to David and his seed, forever.

Glory from Heaven and Torah

19 (0) For the music director, a psalm of David.
 2 (1) The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky shows His handiwork.
 3 (2) Day to day they speak, night to night they reveal knowledge.
 4 (3) There is no speech, no words, where their voice goes unheard.
 5 (4) Their voice has gone out to all the earth and their words to the end of the world. ††
 In the heavens He pitched a tent for the sun.
 6 (5) It is like a bridegroom coming out of his bridal chamber.
 It is like a strong man rejoicing to run his course.
 7 (6) It rises at one end of the heavens and makes its circuit to the other end.
 Nothing is hidden from its heat.
 8 (7) The Torah of ADONAI is perfect, restoring the soul.
 The testimony of ADONAI is trustworthy, making the simple wise.
 9 (8) The precepts of ADONAI are right, giving joy to the heart.
 The mitzvot of ADONAI are pure, giving light to the eyes.
 10 (9) The fear of ADONAI is clean, enduring forever.
 The judgments of ADONAI are true and altogether righteous.
 11 (10) They are more desirable than gold,
 yes, more than much pure gold!
 They are sweeter than honey and drippings of the honeycomb.
 12 (11) Moreover, by them Your servant is warned.
 In keeping them there is great reward.
 13 (12) Who can discern his errors?
 Cleanse me of hidden faults.
 14 (13) Also keep Your servant from willful sins.
 May they not have dominion over me.
 Then I will be blameless,
 free from great transgression.
 15 (14) May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable before You, ADONAI, my Rock and my Redeemer.

ADONAI -Nissi

20 (0) For the music director, a psalm of David.
 2 (1) May ADONAI answer you in the day of trouble!

May the Name of the God of Jacob set you up securely on high.

3 (2) May He send you help from the Sanctuary and support you from Zion.
 4 (3) May He remember all your meal offerings and accept the fat of your burnt offering. Selah 5 (4) May He grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans.
 6 (5) We will shout for joy in your victory and lift up our banners in the Name of our God!
 May ADONAI fulfill all your petitions.
 7 (6) Now I know that ADONAI saves His anointed.
 He answers him from His holy heaven with saving strength of His right hand.
 8 (7) Some have chariots, some have horses,
 but we remember the Name of ADONAI our God.
 9 (8) They have collapsed and fallen,
 but we rise up and support each other.
 10 (9) ADONAI, save the king!
 Answer us on the day we call!

The Victorious King

21 (0) For the music director, a psalm of David.
 2 (1) ADONAI, the king rejoices in Your strength!
 How greatly he delights in Your salvation.
 3 (2) You granted him his heart's desire, and You did not withhold the request of his lips. Selah
 4 (3) For You met him with the best blessings.
 You set on his head a crown of pure gold.
 5 (4) He asked You for life, You gave it to him, length of days forever and ever.
 6 (5) His glory is great through Your salvation.
 Honor and majesty You bestow on him.
 7 (6) For You bestow on him eternal blessings, gladden him with joy in Your presence.
 8 (7) For the king trusts in ADONAI, and in the lovingkindness of Elyon
 he will not be shaken.
 9 (8) Your hand will find all Your enemies.
 Your right hand will overtake those who hate You.
 10 (9) You will make them like a fiery furnace at the time of Your appearing.
 In His wrath ADONAI will swallow them up and fire will consume them.
 11 (10) You destroy their offspring from earth, their seed from the children of men.
 12 (11) Though they intended evil against You and devised a plot, they cannot succeed.
 13 (12) For You make them turn their backs.
 You aim Your bowstrings at their faces.
 14 (13) Be exalted, ADONAI, in Your strength!
 We will sing and praise Your might.

Suffering Servant

22 (0) For the music director, on "The Doe of the Dawn," a psalm of David.

† cf. Rom. 15:9. †† cf. Rom. 10:18.

2 (1) My God, my God,
 why have You forsaken me?
 Distant from my salvation are the words of my groaning. † 3 (2) O my God, I cried out by day, but You did not answer, by night, but there was no rest for me.
 4 (3) Yet You are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.
 5 (4) In You our fathers put their trust.
 They trusted, and You delivered them.
 6 (5) They cried to You and were delivered.
 In You they trusted, and were not disappointed.
 7 (6) Am I a worm, and not a man?
 Am I a scorn of men, despised by people?
 8 (7) All who see me mock me.
 They curl their lips, shaking their heads:
 9 (8) "Rely on ADONAI! Let Him deliver him!
 Let Him rescue him—since he delights in Him!" †† 10 (9) Yet You brought me out of the womb, made me secure at my mother's breasts.
 11 (10) From the womb I was cast on You—from my mother's womb You have been my God.
 12 (11) Be not far from me!
 For trouble is near—there is no one to help.
 13 (12) Many bulls have surrounded me.
 Strong bulls of Bashan encircled me.
 14 (13) They open wide their mouths against me, like a tearing, roaring lion.
 15 (14) I am poured out like water, and all my bones are disjointed.
 My heart is like wax—melting within my innards.
 16 (15) My strength is dried up like a clay pot, my tongue clings to my jaws.
 You lay me in the dust of death.
 17 (16) For dogs have surrounded me.
 A band of evildoers has closed in on me.
 They pierced ‡ my hands and my feet.
 18 (17) I can count all my bones.
 They stare, they gape at me.
 19 (18) They divide my clothes among them, and cast lots for my garment. †† 20 (19) But You, ADONAI, be not far off!
 O my strength! Come quickly to my aid!
 21 (20) Deliver my soul from the sword—my only one from the power of the dog.
 22 (21) Save me from the lion's mouth.
 From the horns of the wild oxen rescue me.
 23 (22) I will declare Your Name to my brothers.
 I will praise You amid the congregation. ††
 24 (23) You who fear ADONAI, praise Him!
 All Jacob's descendants, glorify Him!
 Revere Him, all you seed of Israel.

† cf. Matt. 27:46; Mark 15:34. †† cf. Matt. 27:43. ‡ Or like a lion †† cf. Matt. 27:35; Mark 15:24; Luke: 23:34; John 19:24. †† cf. Heb. 2:12.

25 (24) For He has not despised or disdained the suffering of the lowly one.
 Nor has He hidden His face from him,
 but when he cried to Him, He heard.
 26 (25) From You is my praise in the great assembly.
 I will fulfill my vows before those who fear Him.
 27 (26) Let the poor eat and be satisfied.
 Let them who seek after Him praise ADONAI.
 May your hearts live forever!
 28 (27) All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to ADONAI.
 All the families of the nations will bow down before You.
 29 (28) For the kingdom belongs to ADONAI, and He rules over the nations.
 30 (29) All the rich of the earth will feast and worship.
 Everyone who goes down to the dust will kneel before Him—even the one who could not keep his own soul alive.
 31 (30) His posterity will serve him, telling the next generation about my Lord.
 32 (31) They will come and declare His righteousness to a people yet to be born—because He has done it!

ADONAI -Roeh

23 (0) A psalm of David.
 (1) ADONAI is my shepherd, I shall not want.
 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures.
 He leads me beside still waters.
 3 He restores my soul.
 He guides me in paths of righteousness for His Name's sake.
 4 Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil, for You are with me:
 Your rod and Your staff comfort me.
 5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
 You have anointed my head with oil, my cup overflows.
 6 Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the House of ADONAI forever.

The King of Glory

24 (0) A psalm of David.
 (1) The earth is ADONAI's and all that fills it— ††† the world, and those dwelling on it.
 2 For He founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the rivers.
 3 Who may go up on the mountain of ADONAI?
 Who may stand in His holy place?
 4 One with clean hands and a pure heart, who has not lifted his soul in vain,
 nor sworn deceitfully.

††† cf. Deut. 10:24; Ps. 89:11; 1 Cor. 10:26.

⁵ He will receive a blessing from ADONAI, righteousness from God his salvation.
⁶ Such is the generation seeking Him, seeking Your face, even Jacob! Selah ⁷ Lift up your heads, O gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
 that the King of glory may come in.
⁸ "Who is this King of glory?"
ADONAI strong and mighty, ADONAI mighty in battle!
⁹ Lift up your heads, O gates, and lift them up, you everlasting doors:
 that the King of glory may come in.
¹⁰ "Who is this King of glory?"
ADONAI - Tzva'ot —He is the King of glory! Selah

Teach Me Your Paths

25 (0) Of David.
 (1) To You, ADONAI, I lift up my soul.
² O my God, in You I trust,
 so I will not be ashamed, and my enemies will not gloat over me.
³ Surely no one who waits for You will be ashamed.
 But the treacherous without cause will be ashamed.
⁴ Show me Your ways, ADONAI.
 Teach me Your paths.
⁵ Guide me in Your truth, and teach me, for You are God, my salvation, for You I wait all day.
⁶ Remember, ADONAI,
 Your compassions and Your mercies—for they are from eternity.
⁷ Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my rebellion.
 According to Your mercy remember me,
 for the sake of Your goodness, ADONAI.
⁸ Good and upright is ADONAI.
 Therefore, He directs sinners in the way.
⁹ He guides the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble His way.
¹⁰ All ADONAI's ways are lovingkindness and truth to those who keep His covenant and His testimonies.
¹¹ For Your Name's sake, ADONAI, pardon my guilt, for it is great.
¹² Who is this man who fears ADONAI?
 He will instruct him in the way he should choose.
¹³ His soul abides in goodness, and his offspring will inherit the land.
¹⁴ The secret of ADONAI is for those who fear Him.
 He makes His covenant known to them.
¹⁵ My eyes are always looking to ADONAI, for He will pull my feet out of the net.
¹⁶ Turn to me and be gracious to me,
 for I am lonely and afflicted.
¹⁷ The troubles of my heart increase.
 Bring me out of my distress.

¹⁸ See my affliction and my suffering, and take away all my sins.
¹⁹ See my enemies, how many they are—they hate me with violent hatred.
²⁰ Guard my soul and deliver me.
 Let me not be ashamed, for I take refuge in You.
²¹ May integrity and uprightness protect me—for I wait for You.
²² Redeem Israel, O God, from all their troubles.

Walking with Integrity

26 (0) Of David.
 (1) Vindicate me, ADONAI,
 for I have walked in my integrity, and trusted in ADONAI without wavering.
² Probe me, ADONAI, and test me, refine my mind and my heart.
³ For Your love is before my eyes and I have walked in Your truth.
⁴ I have not sat with men of falsehood, nor do I consort with hypocrites.
⁵ I detest the company of evildoers, and do not sit with the wicked.
⁶ I will wash my hands in innocence, so I can walk around Your altar, ADONAI, ⁷ hearing the voice of thanksgiving while proclaiming all Your wonders.
⁸ ADONAI, I love the House where You live,
 the place where Your glory dwells.
⁹ Do not take my soul away with sinners, nor my life with people of bloodshed—¹⁰ in whose hands are wicked schemes, whose right hand is full of bribes.
¹¹ But I—I will walk in my integrity.
 Redeem me and be gracious to me.
¹² My feet stand on level ground.
 In congregations I will bless ADONAI.

Let Your Heart Take Courage

27 (0) Of David.
 (1) ADONAI is my light and my salvation:
 whom should I fear?
ADONAI is the stronghold of my life:
 whom should I dread?
² When evildoers approached me to devour my flesh —my adversaries and my foes—they stumbled and fell.
³ Though an army camp besieges me, my heart will not fear.
 Though war breaks out against me, even then will I be confident.
⁴ One thing have I asked of ADONAI, that will I seek:
 to dwell in the House of ADONAI
 all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of ADONAI, and to meditate in His Temple.

⁵ For in the day of trouble He will hide me in His sukkah, conceal me in the shelter of His tent,
 and set me high upon a rock.
⁶ Then will my head be high above my enemies around me.
 In His Tabernacle I will offer sacrifices with shouts of joy.
 I will sing, yes, sing praises to ADONAI.
⁷ Hear, ADONAI, when I call with my voice, be gracious to me and answer me.
⁸ To You my heart says: "Seek My face."
 Your face, ADONAI, I seek.
⁹ Do not hide Your face from me.
 Do not turn Your servant away in anger.
 You have been my help.
 Do not abandon me or forsake me,
 O God my salvation.
¹⁰ Though my father and my mother forsake me, ADONAI will take me in.
¹¹ Teach me Your way, ADONAI, and lead me on a level path—
 because of my enemies.
¹² Do not turn me over to the desire of my foes.
 For false witnesses rise up against me, breathing out violence.
¹³ Surely I trust that I will see the goodness of ADONAI in the land of the living.
¹⁴ Wait for ADONAI.
 Be strong, let your heart take courage,
 and wait for ADONAI.

Hoshia-na!

28 (0) Of David.
 (1) To You, ADONAI, I call—my Rock, do not be deaf to me.
 If You were silent to me,
 I would become like those going down to the Pit.
² Hear the sound of my pleas,
 when I cry to You for help,
 when I lift up my hands toward Your holy Sanctuary.
³ Do not drag me away with the wicked and with doers of iniquity, who speak peace with their neighbors,
 while evil is in their hearts.
⁴ Repay them for their deeds, their evil acts.
 Repay them for the deeds of their hands.
 Bring back on them what they deserve.
⁵ Since they show no regard for the deeds of ADONAI
 nor the work of His hands,
 He will tear them down and never build them up.
⁶ Blessed be ADONAI, because He has heard the sound of my supplications.
⁷ ADONAI is my strength and my shield. †
 My heart trusts in Him, and I was helped.

† cf. Eph. 6:16.

Therefore, my heart leaps for joy,
 and I will praise Him with my song.
⁸ ADONAI is their strength—
 a stronghold of salvation for His anointed.
⁹ Save Your people, bless Your inheritance, shepherd them and carry them forever.

God Thunders throughout Creation

29 (0) A psalm of David.
 (1) Ascribe to ADONAI, O sons of God,
 ascribe to ADONAI glory and strength.
² Ascribe to ADONAI the glory of His Name.
 Bow down to ADONAI in the beauty of holiness.
³ The voice of ADONAI is over the waters.
 The God of glory thunders—
ADONAI is over mighty waters.
⁴ The voice of ADONAI is powerful.
 The voice of ADONAI is full of majesty.
⁵ The voice of ADONAI breaks the cedars.
 Yes, ADONAI shatters cedars of Lebanon.
⁶ He makes Lebanon skip like a calf,
 Sirion like a young wild ox.
⁷ The voice of ADONAI hews out flames of fire.
⁸ The voice of ADONAI shakes the desert.
ADONAI shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
⁹ The voice of ADONAI makes the deer writhe in birth and strips forests bare,
 and in His Temple all are saying, "Glory!"
¹⁰ ADONAI sits enthroned over the flood.
 Yes, ADONAI sits as King forever.
¹¹ ADONAI gives strength to His people.
ADONAI blesses His people with shalom.

Joy Comes in the Morning

30 (0) A psalm, a song for the dedication of the Temple, of David.
² (1) I will exalt You, ADONAI, for You have lifted me up,
 and did not let my enemies gloat over me.
³ (2) ADONAI my God, I cried to You for help, and You healed me.
⁴ (3) ADONAI, You brought my soul up from Sheol.
 You kept me alive, so I would not go down to the Pit.
⁵ (4) Sing praise to ADONAI, His faithful ones,
 and praise His holy name.
⁶ (5) For His anger lasts for only a moment,
 His favor is for a lifetime.
 Weeping may stay for the night,
 but joy comes in the morning.
⁷ (6) When I felt secure, I said:
 "I will never be shaken."
⁸ (7) ADONAI, in Your favor
 You made my mountain stand strong.
 When You hid Your face,
 I was terrified.
⁹ (8) To You, ADONAI, I called,
 and to my Lord I made my plea:

¹⁰ (9) "What gain is there in my blood,
in my going down to the Pit?
Will the dust praise You?
Will it declare Your truth?"
¹¹ (10) Hear, ADONAI, and be gracious to me.
ADONAI, be my help."
¹² (11) You turned my mourning into dancing.
You removed my sackcloth and clothed me with joy.
¹³ (12) So my glory will sing to You and not be silent.
ADONAI my God, I will praise You forever.

Refuge, Sukkah, Shelter

31 (0) For the music director, a psalm of David.
² (1) In You, ADONAI, have I taken refuge:
Let me never be put to shame.
In Your righteousness, deliver me.
³ (2) Turn Your ear to me, rescue me quickly.
Be a rock of refuge for me, a stronghold for my deliverance.
⁴ (3) Since You are my rock and my fortress,
You lead me and guide me for Your Name's sake.
⁵ (4) Free me from the net they hid for me,
for You are my refuge.
⁶ (5) Into Your hand I commit my spirit. †
You have redeemed me, ADONAI, God of truth.
⁷ (6) I detest those who continue to watch worthless idols, but I trust in ADONAI.
⁸ (7) I will be glad and rejoice in Your lovingkindness, for You saw my affliction.
You knew the troubles of my soul.
⁹ (8) You did not hand me over to the enemy.
You set my feet in a wide-open place.
¹⁰ (9) Be gracious to me, ADONAI, for I am in distress.
My eyes waste away with grief,
my soul and my body as well.
¹¹ (10) For my life is consumed in sorrow and my years in sighing.
My strength fails because of my anguish and my bones waste away.
¹² (11) Because of all my adversaries
I am the contempt of my neighbors and a dread to my acquaintances.
Seeing me on the street, they flee from me.
¹³ (12) I am as forgotten as a dead man.
I have become like a broken vessel.
¹⁴ (13) For I have heard the whispering of many.
There is terror on every side as they conspire against me and plot to take my life.
¹⁵ (14) But I have trusted in You, ADONAI.
I said: "You are my God."
¹⁶ (15) My times are in Your hands.
Deliver me from the hands of my foes and from those who pursue me.
¹⁷ (16) Make Your face shine on Your servant.

† cf. Luke 23:46; Acts 7:59.

Save me in Your lovingkindness.
¹⁸ (17) ADONAI, let me not be ashamed, for I have called upon You.
Let the wicked be ashamed—
let them be silent in Sheol.
¹⁹ (18) Let the lying lips be mute.
For they speak arrogantly against the righteous, with pride and contempt.
²⁰ (19) How great is Your goodness, which You have stored up for those who fear You, which You have given to those who take refuge in You,
before the children of men.
²¹ (20) In the shelter of Your presence
You hide them from people's plots.
You conceal them in a sukkah
from the strife of tongues.
²² (21) Blessed be ADONAI, for He has shown me His wonderful love in a besieged city.
²³ (22) I said in my alarm,
"I have been cut off from Your sight!"
But You heard the sound of my pleas when I cried out to You.
²⁴ (23) Love ADONAI, all His kedoshim!
ADONAI preserves all the faithful,
but the proud He pays back in full.
²⁵ (24) Chazak! Let your heart take courage, †† all you who wait for ADONAI.

Confess, Return and Learn

32 (0) Of David, a contemplative song.
⁽¹⁾ Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is pardoned.
² Blessed is the one whose guilt ADONAI does not count,
and in whose spirit there is no deceit. † ³ When I kept silent, my bones became brittle through my groaning all day long.
⁴ For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me.
My strength was drained as in the droughts of summer.
Selah
⁵ Then I acknowledged my sin to You and did not hide my iniquity. I said:
"I confess my transgressions to ADONAI," and You forgave the guilt of my sin. ††
Selah
⁶ So let everyone who is godly pray to You in a time when You may be found.
When great floodwaters rise, they will not reach him.
⁷ You are my hiding place—
You will protect me from distress.

†† cf. 1 Cor. 16:13; Eph. 6:10. † cf. Rom. 4:7-8. †† cf. 1 John 1:9.

You surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah
 8 "I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go.

I will give counsel—My eye is on you.

9 Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding, and must be held in with bit and bridle or they will not come to you."

10 Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but lovingkindness surrounds the one who trusts in ADONAI.

11 Be glad in ADONAI and rejoice, you righteous, and shout for joy, all who are upright in heart.

All Creation Praise the Creator

33 Sing for joy to ADONAI, you righteous. Praise is fitting for the upright.

2 Praise ADONAI with the harp.

Sing praises to Him with a ten string lyre.

3 Sing to Him a new song! †

Play skillfully amid shouts of joy.

4 For the word of ADONAI is upright and all His work is done in faithfulness.

5 He loves righteousness and justice.

The earth is full of the love of ADONAI.

6 By ADONAI's word were the heavens made, and all their host by the breath of His mouth.

7 He gathers the waters of the sea together in a heap. He lays up deep waters in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear ADONAI.

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of Him.

9 For He spoke, and it came to be.

He commanded, and it stood firm.

10 ADONAI foils the purpose of the nations.

He thwarts the plans of the peoples.

11 The plan of ADONAI stands forever, the purposes of His heart from generation to generation.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is ADONAI, the people He chose for His own inheritance.

13 ADONAI looks down from heaven.

He observes all humanity.

14 From His dwelling place He gazes on all the inhabitants of the earth—

15 He who fashions the hearts of all, who discerns all their deeds.

16 No king is saved by his great army, no warrior is delivered by great strength.

17 A horse is a false hope for victory, nor can its great strength save.

18 Behold, the eyes of ADONAI are on those who fear Him, waiting for His love,

19 to deliver their souls from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul waits for ADONAI—

He is our help and our shield.

21 Our heart rejoices in Him, because we trusted in His holy Name.

22 Let Your lovingkindness, ADONAI, be upon us, as we have waited for You.

Taste and See

34 (0) Of David, when he feigned insanity before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he left.

2 (1) I will bless ADONAI at all times.

His praise is continually in my mouth.

3 (2) My soul boasts in ADONAI.

The humble ones hear of it and rejoice.

4 (3) Magnify ADONAI with me and let us exalt His Name together.

5 (4) I sought ADONAI, and He answered me, and delivered me from all my fears.

6 (5) They who looked to Him were radiant, and their faces will never be ashamed.

7 (6) This poor man cried, and ADONAI heard, and saved him out of all his troubles.

8 (7) The angel of ADONAI encamps around those who fear Him, and delivers them.

9 (8) Taste and see how good ADONAI is.

Blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him.

10 (9) Fear ADONAI, His kedoshim, for those who fear Him lack nothing.

11 (10) Young lions may lack, and go hungry, but those who seek ADONAI want for no good thing.

12 (11) Come, children, listen to me:

I will teach you the fear of ADONAI.

13 (12) Who is the one who delights in life, and loves to see good days?

14 (13) Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking treachery.

15 (14) Depart from evil and do good.

Seek shalom and pursue it. ††

16 (15) The eyes of ADONAI are on the righteous, and His ears are attentive to their cry.

17 (16) The face of ADONAI is against evildoers, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.

18 (17) The righteous cry out and ADONAI hears, and delivers them from all their troubles.

19 (18) ADONAI is close to the brokenhearted, and saves those crushed in spirit.

20 (19) Many are the distresses of the righteous, but ADONAI delivers him out of them all.

21 (20) He keeps all his bones— not one of them is broken. ‡

22 (21) Evil kills the wicked—

those who hate the righteous will be held guilty.

23 (22) ADONAI redeems the soul of His servants—no one who takes refuge in Him will be held guilty.

† cf. Rev. 5:9.

†† cf. 1 Pet. 3:10-12. ‡ cf. John 19:33-36.

Justice for the Oppressed

35 (0) A psalm of David.
 (1) ADONAI, oppose those who oppose me.
 Fight those who fight me.
 2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and rise up to my help.
 3 Draw out also a spear and battle-axe.
 Stop those who pursue me.
 Say to my soul: "I am your salvation."
 4 May those who seek my life be ashamed and disgraced.
 May they be turned back and humiliated
 —those who plot evil against me.
 5 May they be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of ADONAI driving them off.
 6 May their way be dark and slippery,
 with the angel of ADONAI pursuing them.
 7 For without cause they hid their net for me,
 and without cause they dug a pit for my soul.
 8 Let ruin come upon him by surprise.
 Let the net he hid entangle himself —into that same pit let him fall.
 9 Then my soul will rejoice in ADONAI and delight in His salvation.
 10 All my bones will say:
 " ADONAI, who is like You, rescuing the poor from one too strong for him,
 the poor and needy from one who robs him?"
 11 Violent witnesses rise up.
 They question me about things I know nothing about.
 12 They repay me evil for good—my soul is forlorn.
 13 But as for me, when they were sick,
 my clothing was sackcloth.
 I afflicted my soul with fasting,
 my prayer kept returning to my heart.
 14 I went about mourning as though for my own friend or brother.
 I bowed down dressed in black as though for my own mother.
 15 But at my stumbling they gathered in glee.
 Wretches gathered against me whom I did not know, tearing at me without ceasing.
 16 They mocked profanely, as if at a feast,
 they gnashed at me with their teeth.
 17 My Lord, how long will You look on?
 Rescue my soul from their ravages—my solitary existence from the lions.
 18 I praise You in the great assembly, acclaiming You among a throng of people.
 19 Do not let my deceitful enemies gloat over me without cause, nor let those who hate me for nothing wink an eye. † 20 For they never speak shalom, but devise deceitful words against the quiet ones in the land.

21 Yes, they open their mouth wide against me, saying:

"Aha! Aha! Our own eyes have seen it!"

22 You have seen it, ADONAI —be not silent!
ADONAI, be not far from me.

23 Arise, awaken to my defense, to my cause—my God and my Lord!

24 Vindicate me, ADONAI my God, according to Your justice, and do not let them gloat over me.

25 Don't let them say in their heart:
 "Aha! Just what we wanted!"

Don't let them say:

"We swallowed him up!"

26 May they be ashamed and humiliated, those who rejoice over my misery.

May they who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and disgrace.

27 May they shout for joy and be glad, those who delight in my righteous cause.

May they always say:

"Exalted be ADONAI, who delights in His servant's shalom."

28 Then my tongue will declare aloud
 Your justice and Your praises all day.

With God Is the Fountain of Life

36 (0) For the music director, of David the servant of ADONAI.
 2 (1) An oracle of Transgression—within my heart, to the wicked one:
 "There is no fear of God before his eyes. †† 3 (2) For he flatters himself in his own eyes, too much to notice his iniquity—or hate it.
 4 (3) (3) His mouth's words are iniquity and deceit.
 He has ceased to be wise and do good.
 5 (4) Even on his bed he plans sin.
 He puts himself on a path that is no good, never refusing evil."
 6 (5) Your love, ADONAI, is in the heavens,
 Your faithfulness up to the skies.
 7 (6) Your righteousness is like the mountains of God.
 Your judgments are like the great deep.
 You preserve man and beast, ADONAI.
 8 (7) How precious is Your love, O God!
 The children of men find refuge in the shadow of Your wings.
 9 (8) They drink their fill from the abundance of Your House.
 You give them drink from the river of Your delights.
 10 (9) For with You is the fountain of life—
 in Your light we see light.
 11 (10) Continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You,
 and Your justice to the upright in heart.

† cf. John 15:25.

¹² (11) May the foot of pride never tread on me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.

¹³ (12) There the evildoers lie fallen—thrown down, not able to rise!

Inheritance of the Kedoshim

37 (0) Of David.

(1) Do not fret because of evildoers, nor be envious of them who do wrong.
² For like the grass they soon wither and fade like a green herb.
³ Trust in ADONAI and do good.
Dwell in the land, feed on faithfulness.
⁴ Delight yourself in ADONAI, and He will give you the requests of your heart.
⁵ Commit your way to ADONAI.
Trust in Him and He will do it.
⁶ He will bring out your vindication as light, and your cause will shine as noonday.
⁷ Be still before ADONAI and wait patiently for Him.
Do not fret over one prospering in his way, over one carrying out wicked schemes.
⁸ Put away anger and turn from wrath.
Do not fret—it only leads to doing evil.
⁹ For evildoers will be cut off, but those who wait for ADONAI— they will inherit the land.
¹⁰ Yet a little while,
and the wicked will be no more.
Yes, you will look at his place,
but he will not be there.
¹¹ But the meek will inherit the land, and delight in abundant shalom.
¹² The wicked plots against the righteous and gnashes at him with his teeth.
¹³ The Lord laughs at him—for He sees his day is coming.
¹⁴ The wicked have unsheathed their swords and have bent their bows to bring down the poor and needy, to slay those whose conduct is upright.
¹⁵ Their swords will pierce their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.
¹⁶ Better a little that the righteous have than the wealth of many wicked.
¹⁷ For the arms of the wicked will be broken, while ADONAI upholds the righteous.
¹⁸ ADONAI knows the days of the blameless—their inheritance endures forever.
¹⁹ They will not be ashamed in an evil time and in days of famine they will be satisfied.
²⁰ For the wicked will perish, and the enemies of ADONAI will be like the beauty of the fields—
they will vanish—vanish like smoke.
²¹ The wicked borrows and does not repay,
but the righteous is a gracious giver.
²² For His blessed ones inherit the land.

But those He curses will be cut off.

²³ From ADONAI a man's steps are made firm, when He delights in his way.

²⁴ Though he stumble,
he will not fall headlong,
for ADONAI is holding his hand.

²⁵ I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous one forsaken,
nor his children begging for bread.

²⁶ All day long he is gracious and lends.
So his offspring will be a blessing.

²⁷ Turn from evil and do good,
so you may live forever.

²⁸ For ADONAI loves justice and does not abandon His godly ones.

They will be preserved forever,
but the seed of the wicked will be cut off.

²⁹ The righteous will inherit the land and dwell in it forever.

³⁰ The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom and his tongue speaks justice.

³¹ The Torah of his God is in his heart.
His steps do not slip.

³² The wicked lies in wait for the righteous, seeking to slay him.

³³ But ADONAI will not leave him in his hand, or let him be condemned when judged.

³⁴ Wait for ADONAI and keep His way,
and He will exalt you to inherit the land.
When the wicked are cut off, you will see it.

³⁵ I have seen a wicked, ruthless man flourishing like a leafy tree in native soil.

³⁶ But once he passed by, he was no more.
Though I looked for him, he could not be found.

³⁷ Notice the man of integrity and watch the upright—
for the man of shalom has a future.

³⁸ But transgressors will be destroyed altogether.
The future of the wicked will be cut off.

³⁹ Yet the salvation of the righteous is from ADONAI.
He is their stronghold in time of trouble.

⁴⁰ ADONAI helps them and delivers them.
He rescues them from the wicked and saves them—because they take refuge in Him.

A Burden Too Heavy for Me

38 (0) A psalm of David, for a memorial.

² (1) ADONAI, do not rebuke me in Your anger or discipline me in Your wrath.

³ (2) For Your arrows have sunk deep into me and Your hand has pressed down on me.

⁴ (3) There is no health in my flesh because of Your indignation.

There is no wholeness in my bones because of my sin.

⁵ (4) For my iniquities are on my head—like a burden too heavy for me.

⁶ (5) My wounds are foul and festering because of my foolishness.

⁷ (6) I am bent over, bowed down greatly.
 All day I walk about in mourning.
⁸ (7) For my heart is filled with burning pain, and there is no health in my body.
⁹ (8) I am numb and utterly crushed.
 I groan because of anguish in my heart.
¹⁰ (9) My Lord, all my longing is before You,
 and my sighing is not hidden from You.
¹¹ (10) My heart pounds, my strength fails me.
 The light of my eyes—also, not with me.
¹² (11) My friends and my companions stay away from my wound,
 and my kinsmen stand far off.
¹³ (12) They who seek my life set traps.
 Those who seek my hurt threaten destruction, uttering lies all day.
¹⁴ (13) But I, like someone deaf, hear nothing, like a mute, not opening his mouth.
¹⁵ (14) Yes, I am like one who cannot hear, whose mouth has no arguments.
¹⁶ (15) But I wait for You, ADONAI—
 You will answer, O Lord my God.
¹⁷ (16) For I said: “Don’t let them gloat over me or exalt themselves over me, when my foot slips.” ¹⁸ (17) For I am about to fall, and my pain is before me constantly.
¹⁹ (18) So I confess my guilt.
 I am troubled because of my sin.
²⁰ (19) My lively enemies are numerous.
 Many hate me wrongfully.
²¹ (20) Those who repay evil for good oppose me because I pursue what is good.
²² (21) Do not forsake me, ADONAI.
 O my God, be not far from me.
²³ (22) Hurry to my aid, my Lord, my salvation.

Make Me Know the Number of My Days

39 (0) For the music director, for Jeduthun, a psalm of David.
² (1) I said:
 “I will guard my ways, so I will not sin with my tongue.
 I will muzzle my mouth while the wicked are before
 me.”
³ (2) So I became utterly speechless, kept silent even from good,
 but my anguish was stirred up.
⁴ (3) My heart was hot within me, while I was musing, the fire burned.
 Then I spoke with my tongue:
⁵ (4) “Let me know, ADONAI, my end and what the number of my days is.
 Let me know how short-lived I am.
⁶ (5) Behold, You made my days mere handbreadths, and my lifetime as nothing before You.
 Surely all humanity is but vapor. Selah
⁷ (6) Everyone goes about as a mere phantom.

Surely they are making an uproar in vain, heaping up stuff—
 yet not knowing who will gather it. †
⁸ (7) And now, my Lord, what do I wait for?
 My hope is in You.
⁹ (8) Deliver me from all my transgressions.
 Do not make me the scorn of a fool.
¹⁰ (9) I am speechless, not opening my mouth
 —for You have done it.
¹¹ (10) Remove Your scourge from me.
 I perish by the blow of Your hand.
¹² (11) With rebukes You chasten one for iniquity and You consume like a moth what he finds pleasure in.
 Surely all humanity is but a vapor. Selah
¹³ (12) Hear my prayer, ADONAI, and listen to my cry—
 do not keep silent at my tears.
 For with You I am an outsider, a sojourner, as all my fathers were.
¹⁴ (13) Turn your gaze away from me, so I may smile again, before I go, and am no more.”

Written about Me in the Scroll

40 (0) For the music director, a psalm of David.
² (1) I waited patiently for ADONAI.
 He bent down to me and heard my cry.
³ (2) He brought me up out of the slimy pit, out of the mud and mire.
 Then He set my feet on a rock.
 He made my steps firm.
⁴ (3) He put a new song in my mouth—
 a hymn of praise to our God.
 Many will see and fear,
 and trust in ADONAI.
⁵ (4) Blessed is the one who put his confidence in ADONAI, who has not turned to the arrogant,
 nor to those who fall into falsehood.
⁶ (5) Many things You have done, ADONAI my God —Your plans for us are wonderful—there is none to be compared to You!
 If I were to speak and tell of them,
 they would be too many to count!
⁷ (6) Sacrifice and offering You did not desire —my ears You have opened—burnt offering and sin offering You did not require.
⁸ (7) Then I said: “Here I am, I have come—in the scroll of a book it is written about me.
⁹ (8) I delight to do Your will, O my God.
 Yes, Your Torah is within my being.”
¹⁰ (9) I proclaim good news of righteousness in the great assembly.
 Behold, I am not shutting my lips—
ADONAI, You know!

† cf. Luke 12:20.

¹¹ (10) I did not hide Your righteousness within my heart.

Rather I declared Your faithfulness and Your salvation.

I did not conceal Your lovingkindness and Your truth from the great assembly.

¹² (11) ADONAI, do not withhold Your compassions from me.

Let Your mercy and Your truth always protect me.

¹³ (12) For evils beyond number surround me, my sins have overtaken me—I cannot see—they are more than the hairs of my head—and my heart fails me.

¹⁴ (13) ADONAI, please deliver me!

ADONAI, come quickly to help me!

¹⁵ (14) Let those who seek my life to sweep it away be put to shame and humiliated.

Let those who wish me evil be turned back in disgrace.

¹⁶ (15) Let those who say to me, "Aha! Aha!"

be appalled over their own shame.

¹⁷ (16) Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You.

Let those who love Your salvation continually say: "ADONAI be magnified!"

¹⁸ (17) But I—I am poor and needy—yet my Lord is mindful of me.

You are my help and my deliverer—O my God, do not delay!

Even My Close Friend

41 (0) For the music director: a psalm of David.

² (1) Blessed is the one who considers the wretched—

ADONAI will deliver him in the evil day.

³ (2) ADONAI will protect him and keep him alive. He will be made blessed in the land.

You will not give him over to the desire of his foes.

⁴ (3) ADONAI will strengthen him on his sickbed.

May You restore him completely from his bed.

⁵ (4) I said: "ADONAI, have mercy on me.

Heal my soul, for I have sinned against You."

⁶ (5) My enemies speak evil about me:

"When will he die and his name perish?"

⁷ (6) And if someone of them comes to see me, he speaks falsely.

He stores up evil in his heart, then he goes out and chatters.

⁸ (7) All who hate me whisper together about me. They imagine the worst about me:

⁹ (8) "Something evil was poured into him—he will not get up again from the place where he lies."

¹⁰ (9) Even my own close friend, whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has lifted up his heel against me. †

¹¹ (10) But You, ADONAI, have mercy on me, and raise me up, so I may repay them.

¹² (11) By this I know that You delight in me: that my enemy does not shout in triumph over me.

¹³ (12) You uphold me in my integrity and set me before Your face forever.

¹⁴ (13) Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting.

Amen and amen!

My Soul Thirsts for God

42 (0) For the music director, a contemplative song of the sons of Korah.

² (1) As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for You, O God.

³ (2) My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When will I come and appear before God?

⁴ (3) My tears have been my food day and night, while they say to me all day: "Where is your God?"

⁵ (4) These things I remember as I pour out my soul within me.

For I used to go along with the throng, walking with them to the House of God, with a voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a festival.

⁶ (5) Why are you downcast, O my soul?

Why are you murmuring within me?

Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him, for the salvation of His presence.

⁷ (6) My God, my soul is downcast within me!

Therefore, I remember You from the land of Jordan and from the peaks of Hermon, from Mount Mitzar.

⁸ (7) Deep calls to deep in the roar of Your waterfalls.

All Your waves and breakers have swept over me.

⁹ (8) By day ADONAI commands His love, and at night His song is with me—a prayer to the God of my life.

¹⁰ (9) I will say to God my Rock:

"Why have You forgotten me?"

Why do I go about mourning, under the oppression of the enemy?"

¹¹ (10) As with a crushing in my bones, my adversaries taunt me, by saying to me all day, "Where is your God?"

¹² (11) Why are you downcast, O my soul?

Why are you murmuring within me?

Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him,

the salvation of my countenance and my God.

Send Forth Your Light

43 Vindicate me, O God, and champion my cause against an ungodly nation.

From a deceitful and unjust man, deliver me!

² For You are my God, my stronghold.

Why have You spurned me?

Why do I go about gloomy because of the oppression of the enemy?

† cf. Matt. 26:23; Luke 22:21.

³ Send forth Your light and Your truth—let them guide me.
Let them bring me to Your holy mountain and to Your dwelling places.

⁴ Then I will come to the altar of God, to the God of my exceeding joy, and praise You upon the harp
—O God, my God.

⁵ Why are You downcast, O my soul?
Why are you murmuring within me?
Hope in God, for I will yet praise Him,
the salvation of my countenance.

Arise, O God of Our Fathers

44 (0) For the music director, a psalm of the sons of Korah, a contemplative song.

² (1) We have heard with our ears, O God
—our fathers have told us—of a work You did in their days, in days of old.

³ (2) With Your hand You displaced nations, but You planted them.

You afflicted peoples, and You drove them out.

⁴ (3) For it was not by their own sword that they took possession of the land, nor did their own arm save them.

But it was Your right hand, Your arm, and the light of Your face—

for You favored them.

⁵ (4) You are my King, O God—command victories for Jacob!

⁶ (5) Through You we push back our foes.
Through Your Name we trample those rising up against us.

⁷ (6) For I do not trust in my bow, nor can my sword save me.

⁸ (7) For You saved us from our oppressors and put to shame those who hated us.

⁹ (8) In God we make our boast all day and Your Name we praise forever. Selah

¹⁰ (9) Yet You have spurned and humiliated us, and no longer go out with our armies.

¹¹ (10) You make us retreat before the enemy.
Those who hate us have plundered us.

¹² (11) You gave us to be devoured like sheep [†] and have scattered us among the nations.

¹³ (12) You are selling Your people cheaply—not even getting a great price for them.

¹⁴ (13) You made us a taunt for our neighbors, a scorn and ridicule for those around us.

¹⁵ (14) You have made us a byword among the nations,
head-wagging among the peoples.

¹⁶ (15) All day my disgrace is before me, and my face is covered with shame—

¹⁷ (16) because of the sound of taunting and reviling from the face of a vengeful enemy.

¹⁸ (17) All this came upon us, though we did not forget You,

nor were we false to Your covenant.

¹⁹ (18) Our heart did not turn back, nor did our steps stray from Your path.

²⁰ (19) Yet You crushed us in a place of jackals, covered us with the shadow of death.

²¹ (20) If we had forgotten the Name of our God or stretched our hands to a foreign god,

²² (21) would God not have discovered it?
For He knows the secrets of the heart.

²³ (22) But for Your sake we are slain all day.
We are counted as sheep for slaughter. ^{††}

²⁴ (23) Awake! Why do you sleep, my Lord?
Wake up! Do not cast us off forever.

²⁵ (24) Why do You hide Your face and forget our misery and oppression?

²⁶ (25) For our soul sinks down to the dust.
Our belly cleaves to the earth.

²⁷ (26) Arise, be our help, and redeem us
for Your mercy's sake.

A Royal Wedding Song

45 (0) For the music director, according to "Lilies."
Of the sons of Korah, a contemplative song, a love song.

² (1) My heart is stirred with a good word.

I speak my verses to the king.

My tongue is the pen of a skillful writer.

³ (2) You are the most handsome of the sons of men.
Grace pours from your lips.

Therefore, God has blessed you forever.

⁴ (3) Gird your sword on your thigh, O mighty one,
in your splendor and your majesty.

⁵ (4) In your majesty ride victoriously, on behalf of truth, meekness, and justice.

Let your right hand display awesome things.

⁶ (5) Your arrows are sharp.

Peoples fall beneath you—into the heart of the king's enemies.

⁷ (6) Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, and a scepter of justice is the scepter of Your kingdom.

⁸ (7) You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness.

Therefore, God, your God, anointed you with the oil of gladness above your companions. [‡]

⁹ (8) All your robes have myrrh, aloes, and cassia.
From ivory palaces, stringed instruments make you glad.

¹⁰ (9) Kings' daughters are among your honored women.

At your right hand stands the queen in gold of Ophir.

¹¹ (10) "Listen, O daughter, consider and incline your ear.

^{††} cf. Rom. 8:36. [‡] cf. Heb. 1:8-9.

Forget your people and your father's house.
 12 (11) Then the king will desire your beauty.
 Honor him, for he is your lord.
 13 (12) A daughter of Tyre comes with a gift.
 The richest people will court your favor." 14 (13) All glorious is the king's daughter within the palace—
 her gown is interwoven with gold. † 15 (14) She will be led to the king in embroidered garments.
 Her virgins, her companions following her, are coming in to you.
 16 (15) They are led in with joy and gladness—they enter into the palace of the king.
 17 (16) Your sons will take your fathers' place.
 You will make them princes throughout the land.
 18 (17) I will cause your name to be remembered in all generations.
 Therefore, the nations will praise you forever and ever.

He Makes Wars Cease

46 (0) For the music director, of the sons of Korah, according to Alamothe, a song.
 2 (1) God is our refuge and strength, an ever present help in trouble.
 3 (2) Therefore we will not fear, though the earth change, though the mountains topple into the heart of the seas,
 4 (3) though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains quake at their swelling. Selah 5 (4) There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God—
 the holy dwelling place of Elyon. †† 6 (5) God is in the midst of her, she will not be shaken.
 God will help her when morning dawns.
 7 (6) Nations are in uproar, kingdoms totter,
 He utters His voice, the earth melts!
 8 (7) ADONAI -Tzva'ot is with us.
 The God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah
 9 (8) Come, see the works of ADONAI, who brings devastations on the earth.
 10 (9) He makes wars cease to the end of the earth.
 He breaks the bow and shatters the spear.
 He burns chariots with fire.
 11 (10) "Be still, and know that I am God.
 I am exalted among the nations.
 I am exalted in the earth."
 12 (11) ADONAI -Tzva'ot is with us.
 The God of Jacob is our strong tower. Selah

In Celebration of God's Reign

47 (0) For the music director, a psalm for the sons of Korah.

2 (1) Clap your hands, all you peoples!
 Shout to God with the voice of joy!
 3 (2) For ADONAI Elyon is awesome, a great King over all the earth.
 4 (3) He subdues peoples under us,
 and nations under our feet.
 5 (4) He chooses our inheritance for us,
 the glory of Jacob whom He loved. Selah
 6 (5) God is gone up amidst shouting,
ADONAI amidst the sound of the shofar.
 7 (6) Sing praises to God, sing praises!
 Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
 8 (7) For God is the King of all the earth.
 Sing praises with a skillful song.
 9 (8) God reigns over the nations.
 God sits upon His holy throne.
 10 (9) The princes of the peoples are gathered as a people of the God of Abraham.
 For the shields of earth belong to God—
 He is greatly exalted!

Consider Zion's Towers

48 (0) A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah.
 2 (1) Great is ADONAI, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God—His holy mountain.
 3 (2) A beautiful height—the joy of the whole earth—is Mount Zion, on the northern side of the city of the great King. ‡ 4 (3) God, in her palaces, is known as a stronghold.
 5 (4) For behold, the kings assembled,
 they advanced together.
 6 (5) They saw, then they were astounded, they fled in terror.
 7 (6) Trembling seized them there, pain like a woman in labor.
 8 (7) With an east wind
 You broke the ships of Tarshish.
 9 (8) As we have heard, so have we seen, in the city of ADONAI -Tzva'ot,
 in the city of our God.
 God will establish her forever. Selah
 10 (9) We have meditated on Your lovingkindness, O God,
 in the midst of Your Temple.
 11 (10) Like Your Name, O God, so is Your praise
 to the ends of the earth.
 Your right hand is full of righteousness.
 12 (11) Mount Zion is glad,
 the daughters of Judah rejoice,
 because of Your judgments.
 13 (12) Walk about Zion, go around her.
 Count her towers.
 14 (13) Consider her ramparts, go through her palaces,
 so you may describe it to the next generation.

† cf. Exod. 39:2-3; Rev. 19:7-8. †† cf. Ezek. 47:9, 12; Rev. 22:1-2.

‡ cf. Matt. 5:35.

¹⁵ (14) For this God is our God, forever and ever!
He will guide us to the end.

Rich and Poor Alike

49 (0) For the music director: a psalm of the sons of Korah.
² (1) Hear this, all you people.
Give ear, all you inhabitants of the world,
³ (2) both low and high,
rich and poor together.
⁴ (3) My mouth speaks wisdom,
My heart's meditation is understanding.
⁵ (4) I will turn my ear to a proverb.
I will utter my riddle on the harp:
⁶ (5) Why should I fear in evil days?
when the iniquity of my deceivers surrounds me?
⁷ (6) Or those trusting in their wealth, boasting about their great riches?
⁸ (7) No man can redeem his brother, or give to God a ransom for him.
⁹ (8) For the redemption of a soul is costly—so, one should stop trying forever.
¹⁰ (9) Will he live forever—and never see the Pit?
¹¹ (10) Surely he must see, even wise men die.
The fool and the brutish will alike perish, leaving their wealth to others. † ¹² (11) Their inward thought is:
their houses are eternal,
their dwellings for generation after generation.
They name their lands after themselves.
¹³ (12) But the pompous man will not endure—
he is like the beasts that perish.
¹⁴ (13) Such is the way of the self-confident, and their followers who approve their sayings. Selah ¹⁵ (14) Like sheep they are destined for Sheol.
Death will be their shepherd and the upright will rule over them in the morning.
Their image will decay in Sheol— far from its lofty place.
¹⁶ (15) But God redeems my soul from the power of Sheol—for He receives me. Selah ¹⁷ (16) Do not be afraid when a man gets rich, when his house's splendor increases.
¹⁸ (17) For when he dies he takes nothing away.
His splendor will not follow him down.
¹⁹ (18) Though during his life he congratulates himself,
and men praise you when you do well for yourself—²⁰ (19) he will still join his fathers' company, who will never see the light.
²¹ (20) A pompous man, without understanding—
he is like the beasts that perish.

A Sacrifice of Thanks

50 (0) A psalm of Asaph.
(1) God, Elohim ADONAI has spoken and summoned the earth
from the rising of the sun to its setting.
² Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God shines forth.
³ Our God comes, and does not keep silent.
A fire is devouring before Him,
and it storms around Him mightily.
⁴ He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, to judge His people:
⁵ "Gather My kedoshim to Me, who cut a covenant with Me with a sacrifice."
⁶ The heavens declare His righteousness, for God Himself is Judge. Selah
⁷ "Hear, My people, and I will speak,
O Israel, and I will testify against you:
I am God, your God.
⁸ I do not rebuke you for your sacrifices, for your burnt offerings are continually before Me.
⁹ I have no need of a bull from your house nor goats from your pens.
¹⁰ For every beast of the forest is Mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills.
¹¹ I know every bird of the mountains.
Everything moving in the field is Mine.
¹² If I were hungry, I would not tell you—for the world is Mine and all it contains!
¹³ Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?
¹⁴ Offer God a sacrifice of thank offerings, then fulfill your vows to Elyon.
¹⁵ Call upon Me in the day of trouble.
When I rescue you, you will honor Me."
¹⁶ But to the wicked, God says:
"What are you doing, reciting My laws and taking My covenant in your mouth?
¹⁷ For you hate discipline, and you cast My words behind you.
¹⁸ When you see a thief, you are pleased with him, and your portion is with adulterers.
¹⁹ You have unleashed your mouth for evil and harnessed your tongue for deceit.
²⁰ You sit, speaking against your brother, slandering your own mother's son.
²¹ These things you have done—should I keep silent?
You thought I was just like you—but I reprove you,
and set the case before your eyes.
²² Now consider this, you who forget God.
Or else I will tear you in pieces with no one to rescue
you.
²³ A sacrifice of praise honors Me,
and to the one who orders his way,
I will show the salvation of God."

† cf. Ps. 39:7(6); Eccl. 2:16-18, 21; Luke 12:20.

Create in Me a Clean Heart

51 (0) For the music director: a psalm of David, ² (0) when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he went to Bathsheba.

³ (1) Be gracious to me, O God, according to Your mercy.
According to Your great compassion blot out my transgressions.
⁴ (2) Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.
⁵ (3) For I know my transgressions and my sin is ever before me.
⁶ (4) Against You, You only, have I sinned, and done what is evil in Your sight,
so that You are just when You speak,
and blameless when You judge.
⁷ (5) Behold, I was born in iniquity and in sin when my mother conceived me.
⁸ (6) Surely You desire truth in the inner being.
Make me know wisdom inwardly.
⁹ (7) Cleanse me with hyssop and I will be clean.
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
¹⁰ (8) Let me hear joy and gladness,
so the bones You crushed may rejoice.
¹¹ (9) Hide Your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.
¹² (10) Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.
¹³ (11) Do not cast me from Your presence—take not Your Ruach ha-Kodesh from me.
¹⁴ (12) Restore to me the joy of Your salvation and sustain me with a willing spirit.
¹⁵ (13) Then will I teach transgressors Your ways and sinners will return to You.
¹⁶ (14) Deliver me from bloodguilt, O God—
God of my salvation.
Then my tongue will sing for joy of Your righteousness.
¹⁷ (15) O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare Your praise.
¹⁸ (16) For You would not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it,
nor be pleased by burnt offerings.
¹⁹ (17) The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
A broken and a contrite heart, O God,
You will not despise.
²⁰ (18) In Your favor do good to Zion.
Build up the walls of Jerusalem.
²¹ (19) Then You will delight in righteous sacrifices and whole burnt offerings.
Then bulls will be offered on Your altar.

Treacherous Tongue!

52 (0) For the music director: a contemplative song of David, ² (0) when Doeg the Edomite came and reported to Saul telling him, "David went to Ahimelech's house."

³ (1) Why do you brag about evil, mighty man?
God's lovingkindness is every day.
⁴ (2) Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceit.
⁵ (3) You love evil instead of good, lying rather than speaking right. Selah
⁶ (4) You love only devouring words—treacherous tongue!
⁷ (5) God will pull you down forever, and snatch you, rip you out of your tent,
and uproot you from the land of the living. Selah ⁸ (6) Then the righteous will see and fear, and laugh at him:
⁹ (7) "Here is the man who did not make God his stronghold.
Instead he trusted in his great riches—and was strong in his evil desire."
¹⁰ (8) But I—I am like an olive tree flourishing in the House of God.
I trust in God's lovingkindness forever and ever.
¹¹ (9) I will praise You forever for what You have done.
I will hope in Your Name, for it is good,
in the presence of Your kedoshim .

A Fool Denies God

53 (0) For the music director: on Mahalath, a contemplative song of David.
² (1) The fool says in his heart:
"There is no God."
They are corrupt, commit vile injustice.
There is no one who does good.
³ (2) God looks down from the heavens on the children of men, to see if anyone understands, who seeks after God.
⁴ (3) All have turned aside—together they have become corrupt.
There is no one who does good—
no, not even one!
⁵ (4) Will the evildoers never learn?
They consume My people as they would eat bread, and never call upon God.
⁶ (5) There they are in great dread—where there is nothing to fear.
For God has scattered the bones of those besieging
you.
You have put them to shame,
for God has rejected them.
⁷ (6) Who will give salvation for Israel out of Zion?
When God restores His captive people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad!

Surely God Is My Helper

54 (0) For the music director, on stringed instruments, a contemplative song of David, ² (0) when the Ziphites came and said to Saul: "Is not David hiding himself among us?"

³ (1) O God, save me by Your Name, vindicate me by Your might.

⁴ (2) O God, hear my prayer, listen to the words of my mouth.

⁵ (3) For strangers have risen up against me. Violent men seek after my soul.

They do not set God before them. Selah

⁶ (4) Surely God is my helper.

My Lord is the supporter of my soul.

⁷ (5) Let evil return to my foes.

Silence them with Your truth!

⁸ (6) I will sacrifice a freewill offering to You.

I will praise Your name, ADONAI, for it is good.

⁹ (7) For He has delivered me from all trouble, and my eye has gazed upon my enemies.

Betrayal by a Friend

55 (0) For the music director, on stringed instruments, a contemplative song of David.

² (1) Give ear, O God, to my prayer and do not ignore my plea for help.

³ (2) Listen to me and answer me.

I am restless in my complaint and moan—

⁴ (3) because of the voice of the enemy, because of the pressure of the wicked.

For they thrust trouble on me, and in anger bear a grudge against me.

⁵ (4) My heart shudders within me and the terrors of death sweep over me.

⁶ (5) Fear and trembling come upon me and horror has overwhelmed me.

⁷ (6) So I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and find rest.

⁸ (7) Surely I would flee far away.

I would stay in the wilderness. Selah

⁹ (8) I would hurry to my shelter from the rushing wind of the storm."

¹⁰ (9) Lord, confuse and confound their speech, for I see violence and strife in the city.

¹¹ (10) Day and night they make the rounds on her walls.

Iniquity and mischief are within her.

¹² (1) Ruins are in her midst.

Oppression and deceit never leave her square.

¹³ (12) For if it were an enemy taunting me, I could endure it.

If my foe was exalting himself over me, I could hide from him.

¹⁴ (13) But it is you, a man like me—my companion and my close friend!

¹⁵ (14) Together we enjoyed great fellowship.

We used to walk with the throng in the House of God.

¹⁶ (15) Let desolation come upon them, let them go down alive into Sheol—for evil is in their dwelling, among them.

¹⁷ (16) As for me, I will call on God, and ADONAI will save me.

¹⁸ (17) Evening, morning and noon, I complain and moan, then He hears my voice.

¹⁹ (18) He will redeem my soul in shalom from the battle against me.

For many are striving with me.

²⁰ (19) God will hear and humble them—yes, the One enthroned of old. Selah Nothing changes—they do not fear God.

²¹ (20) My companion put forth his hands against those at peace with him, as he violates his covenant.

²² (21) Smoother than butter was his speech, yet war was in his heart.

His words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords.

²³ (22) Cast your burden on ADONAI, and He will sustain you. †

He will never let the righteous be shaken.

²⁴ (23) But You, O God, will bring them down to the Pit of destruction.

Bloodthirsty, deceitful men will not live out half their days.

But I—I will trust in You.

In God I Trust

56 (0) For the music director: "A Silent Dove Far Away," a Michtam of David, when the Philistines had seized him in Gath.

² (1) Be gracious to me, O God!

For man has crushed me, fighting all day he oppresses me.

³ (2) My foes trample me all day.

For many are fighting me arrogantly.

⁴ (3) In a day when I am afraid,

I will put my trust in You.

⁵ (4) In God—I keep praising His word—in God I trust, I will not fear.

What can mere flesh do to me?

⁶ (5) All day they twist my words.

All their thoughts are against me for evil.

⁷ (6) They stir up strife; they lie hidden.

They mark my steps, eager to take my soul.

⁸ (7) In spite of such sin, will they escape?

In fierce anger, O God, cast down such people!

⁹ (8) You have recorded my wanderings.

You put my tears in Your bottle.

Are they not in Your book?

¹⁰ (9) Then my enemies will turn back in the day I call.

This I know—that God is for me.

¹¹ (10) In God—I keep praising His word—

† cf. 1 Pet. 5:7.

in ADONAI—I keep praising His word—12 (11) in God I trust, I will not be afraid.
 What can man do to me?
 13 (12) I am under vows to You, O God.
 I will present thank offerings to You.
 14 (13) For You have delivered my soul from death and my feet from stumbling, that I may walk before God in the light of life.

Be Exalted over All the Earth

57 (0) For the music director, "Do Not Destroy," a Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

2 (1) Be gracious to me, O God, be gracious to me, for in You my soul takes refuge.
 In the shadow of Your wings I take refuge, until destruction passes by.
 3 (2) I will cry out to El Elyon, to God who accomplishes it for me.
 4 (3) He will send from heaven and save me.
 He rebukes the one trampling on me. Selah
 God is sending His mercy and His truth.
 5 (4) My soul is in the midst of lions.
 I lie among those breathing fire—sons of men whose teeth are spears and arrows, whose tongue is a sharp sword.
 6 (5) Be exalted, O God, above the heavens.
 Let Your glory be over all the earth!
 7 (6) They spread a net for my steps,
 my soul is bowed down.
 They have dug a pit before me—they fell into it themselves. Selah
 8 (7) My heart is steadfast, O God,
 my heart is steadfast.
 I will sing, yes, I will make music.
 9 (8) Awake, my glory! Awake, harp and lyre!
 I will awaken the dawn.
 10 (9) I will praise You, my Lord, among the peoples.
 I will sing praises to You among the nations.
 11 (10) For Your lovingkindness is great up to the heavens,
 and Your truth to the skies.
 12 (11) Be exalted, O God, above the heavens.
 Let Your glory be over all the earth!

God Really Judges

58 (0) For the music director: "Do Not Destroy," a Michtam of David.
 2 (1) Do you really speak of justice, O "gods"?
 Do you judge with fairness, sons of man?
 3 (2) No, in heart you devise injustice.
 Your hands weigh out violence on earth.
 4 (3) The wicked are strangers from the womb.
 Speaking lies, they go astray from birth.
 5 (4) Their venom is like a serpent's venom, like a deaf cobra shutting its ear—6 (5) not hearing the voice of charmers, or a cunning spell binder.

 7 (6) O God, break their teeth in their mouths.
 Tear out the fangs of young lions, ADONAI.
 8 (7) Let them flow away like water that runs off.
 When he bends his bow, let the arrows be cut off.
 9 (8) Like a slug melting away as it slithers, like a woman's miscarriage,
 may they never see the sun.
 10 (9) Even before your pots can feel a thorn
 —whether alive or ablaze—
 He will sweep the wicked away.
 11 (10) The righteous one will rejoice when he beholds vengeance, when he washes his feet in the blood of the wicked.
 12 (11) Then men will say:
 "There really is a reward for the righteous.
 There really is a God who judges on earth!"

God Is My Strong Tower

59 (0) For the music director: "Do Not Destroy," a Michtam of David, when Saul sent men to watch the house to kill him.

2 (1) Deliver me from my enemies, my God!
 Set me on high, away from those who rise up against
 me.
 3 (2) Deliver me from workers of iniquity.
 Rescue me from bloodthirsty men.
 4 (3) For behold, they lie in wait for me.
 Defiant men stir up strife against me—not for my transgression or sin, ADONAI.
 5 (4) For no guilt of mine, they run and set things up.
 Awake! Help me! Look!
 6 (5) For You are ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot, the God of Israel!
 Rouse Yourself to punish all the nations.
 Show no mercy to any iniquitous traitors. Selah
 7 (6) They return at evening, snarling like a dog, prowling about the city.
 8 (7) See, they are spewing with their mouth
 —swords in their lips—
 "After all, who is listening?"
 9 (8) But You, ADONAI, are laughing at them.
 You scoff at all the nations.
 10 (9) O my strength, I watch for You—
 for God is my strong tower.
 11 (10) My God in His lovingkindness will go before
 me.
 God will let me look down on my foes.
 12 (11) Do not slay them, lest my people forget.
 With Your power shake them and bring them down, O Lord our shield.
 13 (12) The sin of their mouth is the words of their lips.
 So let them be caught in their pride, and for uttering a curse and a lie.
 14 (13) Consume them in wrath, consume them till they are no more.

Let them know that God rules over Jacob to the ends of the earth. Selah

¹⁵ (14) They return at evening, snarling like a dog, prowling about the city.

¹⁶ (15) They wander around for food.

If they are not full, they stay up all night.

¹⁷ (16) But I—I sing of Your strength!

Yes, in the morning I sing aloud of Your lovingkindness.

For You have been my fortress,
a refuge in the day of my trouble.

¹⁸ (17) O my strength, to You I sing praises.

For God is my strong tower—
my God of lovingkindness.

Song of Victory over Edom

60 (0) For the music director, on the “Lily of the Covenant,” a Michtam of David, for teaching, ² (0) when he fought with Aram-Naharaim and with Aram-Zobah, and Joab returned and struck down twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

³ (1) O God, You have spurned us.

You have broken out against us.

You have been angry. Turn back to us!

⁴ (2) You made earth shake; You split it open.

Heal its fractures—for it shudders.

⁵ (3) You made Your people see hardship.

You made us drink wine of staggering.

⁶ (4) To those who fear You,

You gave a banner, to be unfurled before the archers.

Selah

⁷ (5) Save with Your right hand and answer us, so that Your beloved may be delivered.

⁸ (6) God has spoken in His holiness:

“I will exult!

I will parcel out Shechem and measure off the valley of Succoth.

⁹ (7) Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine, Ephraim is a helmet for my head,
Judah is my scepter.

¹⁰ (8) Moab is my washbasin,
On Edom I toss my sandal, Philistia, cry aloud because of me!”

¹¹ (9) Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?

¹² (10) Should it not be You, O God—who spurned us and no longer goes out with our armies?

¹³ (11) Give us aid against the adversary, for the help of man is worthless.

¹⁴ (12) With God we will do mighty things,
and He will trample our foes.

Lead Me to the Rock

61 (0) For the music director, on string instrument, of David.

² (1) Hear my cry, O God, listen to my prayer.

³ (2) From the end of the earth I call to You when my heart is faint.

Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

⁴ (3) For You have been a refuge for me, a tower of strength before the enemy.

⁵ (4) Let me dwell in Your tent forever.

Let me take refuge in the shelter of Your wings. Selah

⁶ (5) For You have heard my vows, O God.

You have given the inheritance of those who fear
Your Name.

⁷ (6) May You add days to the king's days.

May his years span many generations.

⁸ (7) May he be enthroned before God forever.

Appoint mercy and truth to protect him.

⁹ (8) So I will sing praise to Your Name forever, to fulfill my vows day after day.

My Rock and My Salvation

62 (0) For the music director, on Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

² (1) My soul, wait in stillness, only for God—
from Him comes my salvation.

³ (2) He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress—I will never be moved.

⁴ (3) How long will all of you assault a man, to crush him, like a leaning wall, a fence to be torn down?

⁵ (4) They only plot to topple him from his rank.
Delighting in falsehood, they bless with their mouth, but inwardly they curse. Selah

⁶ (5) My soul, wait in stillness, only for God—for from Him comes my expectation.

⁷ (6) He alone is my rock and my salvation, my strong tower—I will not be moved.

⁸ (7) On God, my salvation and my glory is the rock of my strength.

My refuge is in God.

⁹ (8) Trust in Him at all times, you people.
Pour out your heart in His presence.

God is our refuge. Selah

¹⁰ (9) Sons of Adam are a vapor, sons of man are an illusion.

In balanced scales they go up—altogether they are less than a breath.

¹¹ (10) Do not trust in extortion, and do not put vain hope in plunder.

Though these things increase riches,
do not set your heart on them.

¹² (11) Once God has spoken, twice I have heard this:
might belongs to God.

¹³ (12) Also Yours, O Lord, is lovingkindness.
For You reward a man for his work. †

† cf. Matt. 16:27; Rom. 2:6.

You Are My God

63 (0) A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.
 2 (1) O God, You are my God, earnestly I seek You. My soul thirsts for You. My flesh longs for You in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.
 3 (2) So, I looked for You in the Sanctuary, to see Your power and Your glory.
 4 (3) Since Your lovingkindness is better than life, my lips will praise You.
 5 (4) So I will bless You as long as I live. In Your name I lift up my hands. †
 6 (5) My soul is satisfied as with fat and oil, so my mouth praises You with joyful lips.
 7 (6) When I remember You on my bed, I meditate on You through the night watches.
 8 (7) For You have been my help, and in the shadow of Your wings I sing for joy.
 9 (8) My soul clings to You—Your right hand upholds me.
 10 (9) But those who seek my soul to destroy it will go down to the depths of the earth.
 11 (10) They will be gutted by the sword, and become a prey for jackals.
 12 (11) But the king will rejoice in God. All who swear by Him will boast, when the mouth speaking lies is shut.

Protect Me from Conspiracies

64 (0) For the music director, a psalm of David.
 2 (1) Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint. Protect my life from terror of the enemy.
 3 (2) Hide me from the conspiracy of evildoers, from the tumult of workers of iniquity,
 4 (3) who sharpened their tongue like a sword, and aimed their arrow—bitter words,
 5 (4) to shoot from hiding at the innocent, shooting suddenly at him, with no fear.
 6 (5) They are firming up their evil plan. They talk about setting secret traps. They asked, “Who would see them?”
 7 (6) They are plotting injustices: “We have completed a perfect plot!” A man’s inward part and heart are deep.
 8 (7) But God will shoot them with an arrow—suddenly their wounds will appear.
 9 (8) So their tongue will be their downfall. All who see them will flee away.
 10 (9) Then all men will fear. So they will declare the work of God, and ponder what He has done.
 11 (10) The righteous will be glad in ADONAI and take refuge in Him.

† cf. 1 Tim. 2:8.

Let all the upright in heart give glory!

Praise Is Awaiting You in Zion

65 (0) For the music director, a psalm, a song of David.
 2 (1) Praise is awaiting You in Zion, O God, and to You the vow will be fulfilled.
 3 (2) O You who hear prayer, to You all flesh will come.
 4 (3) Records of sins overwhelm me—You will atone for our transgressions.
 5 (4) Blessed is the one You choose and bring near to dwell in Your courts! We will be satisfied with the goodness of Your House—Your holy Temple.
 6 (5) You respond to us in righteousness with awe-inspiring works—O God of our salvation—hope of all ends of the earth and farthest seas, 7 (6) who establishes mountains by His power, being girded with might,
 8 (7) who stills the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the tumult of the peoples.
 9 (8) Those dwelling in the uttermost parts stand in awe of Your signs. You make morning and evening shout for joy.
 10 (9) You visit the land and make it abundant, greatly enriching it—the stream of God is full of water. You prepare their grain, for so You have prepared the earth.
 11 (10) You drench her furrows, leveling the ridges. You soften her with showers, blessing her growth.
 12 (11) You crown the year with Your goodness. Your wagon tracks drip with abundance.
 13 (12) Pastures of the wilderness overflow and hills are robed with joy.
 14 (13) Meadows are clothed with flocks and valleys are covered with grain—they shout for joy, yes, they sing!

How Awesome Your Deeds

66 (0) For the music director, a song, a psalm.
 (1) Shout joyfully to God, all the earth!
 2 Sing the glory of His Name—make His praise glorious.
 3 Say to God: “How awesome are Your deeds! Because of Your great power, Your enemies cringe before You.
 4 All the earth bows down to You, and sings praises to You. All sing praises to Your Name.” Selah
 5 Come and see the works of God.

How awesome His deeds for the children of Adam!
 6 He turned the sea into dry land.
 They crossed the river on foot.
 There let us rejoice in Him!
 7 He rules by His might forever.
 His eyes keep watch on the nations.
 Let no rebels exalt themselves. Selah
 8 Bless our God, O peoples!
 Let the sound of His praise be heard.
 9 Keeping our soul in life,
 He has not let our foot slip.
 10 For You have tested us, O God—
 You have purified us, as silver is refined.
 11 You brought us into a net.
 You laid a burden on our backs.
 12 You caused men to ride over our heads.
 We went through fire and water.
 Yet You brought us out to superabundance.
 13 With burnt offerings I will come to Your House, fulfilling my vows to You 14 that my lips uttered and mouth spoke, when I was in trouble.
 15 To You I will present burnt offerings of fat animals, with the sweet smoke of rams.
 I will offer bulls with goats. Selah
 16 Come and listen, all you who fear God.
 I will tell what He has done for my soul.
 17 I cried out to Him with my mouth, and exaltation was on my tongue.
 18 If I had cherished iniquity in my heart,
 the Lord would not have listened.
 19 But surely God has heard.
 He has listened to my voice in prayer.
 20 Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer,
 nor His lovingkindness from me.

Let All Peoples Praise You

67 (0) For the music director, with stringed instruments, a psalm, a song.

2 (1) May God be gracious to us and bless us.
 May He cause His face to shine upon us— Selah
 3 (2) so that Your way may be known on earth, and Your salvation among all nations.
 4 (3) Let the peoples praise You, O God.
 Let all the peoples praise You.
 5 (4) Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for You will judge the peoples fairly,
 and guide the nations on the earth. Selah
 6 (5) Let the peoples praise You, O God.
 Let all the peoples praise You.
 7 (6) The earth has yielded its harvest—
 God, our God will bless us.
 8 (7) God will bless us,
 and all the ends of the earth will fear Him.

68 (0) For the music director, a psalm of David, a song.

2 (1) Let God arise!

Let His enemies be scattered!
 Let those who hate Him flee before Him.
 3 (2) As smoke is blown away,
 may You blow them away.
 As wax melts before the fire,
 may the wicked perish before God.
 4 (3) But let the righteous be glad.
 Let them exult before God.
 Let them rejoice with gladness.
 5 (4) Sing to God, sing praises to His Name.
 Prepare the road for Him who rides through the deserts,
 whose Name is ADONAI—
 and rejoice before Him.
 6 (5) A father of orphans, defender of widows, is God in His holy dwelling.
 7 (6) God settles the lonely in a home.
 He leads prisoners out to prosperity.
 But the rebellious live in a parched land.
 8 (7) O God, when You went out before Your people, when You marched through the desert— Selah— 9 (8) the earth shook, the heavens rained at the presence of God—the One of Sinai—at the presence of God, God of Israel.
 10 (9) You poured down abundant rain, O God.
 You sustained Your weary inheritance.
 11 (10) Your community settled in it.
 In Your goodness, O God, You provided for the poor.
 12 (11) The Lord gives the word—
 a great company of women proclaims the good news.
 13 (12) "Kings of armies, flee, flee!"
 She who stays at home divides the spoil.
 14 (13) When you lie among the campfires, wings of a dove were covered with silver and her feathers with shimmering gold.
 15 (14) When Shaddai scattered kings there, it was snowing on Zalmon.
 16 (15) Mount Bashan is a mountain of God.
 Mount Bashan is a mountain of peaks.
 17 (16) Why do you gaze with envy, you mountain peaks,
 at the mountain God desired for His dwelling?
 Yes, ADONAI will dwell there forever!
 18 (17) The chariots of God are thousands and thousands
 —my Lord is among them as at Sinai, in holiness.
 19 (18) You went up on high.
 You led captivity captive.
 You received gifts from humanity, † even from the rebellious—
 so that God might dwell there.
 20 (19) Blessed be my Lord!
 Day by day He bears our burdens—
 the God of our salvation! Selah 21 (20) God is for us—a God of deliverance.
ADONAI my Lord has escapes from death.
 22 (21) Surely God crushes the head of His foes,

the hairy scalp of one walking in his guilt.

²³ (22) My Lord said:

"I will bring them back from Bashan,
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea.

²⁴ (23) So your foot may wade in blood, and your dogs' tongue may have their share of your enemies' blood."

²⁵ (24) They have seen Your processions, O God—the processions of my God, my King, into the Sanctuary:

²⁶ (25) The singers go before, the musicians last, between maidens beating tambourines.

²⁷ (26) "Bless God in the congregations—ADONAI, from the fountain of Israel."

²⁸ (27) There Benjamin, the youngest, is leading them,

there the throng of Judah's princes,

there the princes of Zebulun,

there the princes of Naphtali.

²⁹ (28) Your God commanded your strength.

Strengthen, O God,

You who have acted for us.

³⁰ (29) From Your Temple above Jerusalem, kings bring You tribute.

³¹ (30) Rebuke the beast of the reeds, the herd of bulls with the calves, peoples trampling down pieces of silver.
He has scattered the peoples who delight in war!

³² (31) Nobles come from Egypt.

Cush runs to stretch her hands to God.

³³ (32) Sing to God, kingdoms of the earth, sing praises to the Lord— Selah —

³⁴ (33) to Him who rides upon the ancient heavens of heavens.

Look, He utters His voice, a mighty voice!

³⁵ (34) Ascribe strength to God—

His majesty is over Israel and His strength is in the skies.

³⁶ (35) O God, You are awesome from Your holy places.

The God of Israel gives strength and power to the people.

Blessed be God!

Scorn and Disgrace, Gall and Vinegar

69 (0) For the music director, on "Lilies," of David.

² (1) Save me, O God, for the waters have reached my soul.

³ (2) I have sunk in deep mud,
and there is no footing,
I have come into deep waters,
and a flood sweeps over me.

⁴ (3) I am worn out by my crying, my throat is parched,
my eyes fail, waiting for my God.

⁵ (4) Those who hate me without a cause † outnumber the hairs of my head.

Powerful are my enemies who would destroy me with lies.

What I did not steal, must I restore?

⁶ (5) O God, You know my folly, nor are my trespasses hidden from You.

⁷ (6) May those who hope in You not be ashamed because of me,

my Lord, ADONAI -Tzva'ot .

May those who seek You not be disgraced because of me,
O God of Israel.

⁸ (7) For I have endured scorn for Your sake.
Disgrace has covered my face.

⁹ (8) I have become a stranger to my brothers,
a foreigner to my mother's children.

¹⁰ (9) For zeal for Your House consumed me—the insults of those who insulted You have fallen on
me. ††

¹¹ (10) When I wept and fasted—that became a reproach to me.

¹² (11) When I put on sackcloth,
I became a joke to them.

¹³ (12) Those who sit at the gate chatter about me, and I am the song of the drunkards.

¹⁴ (13) But as for me, my prayer to You, ADONAI , is for a time of favor.

O God, in Your great love, answer me with the truth of Your salvation.

¹⁵ (14) Deliver me from the mire—do not let me sink.

Deliver me from those who hate me, out of the deep waters.

¹⁶ (15) Do not let floodwaters sweep over me, nor the deep swallow me up,
nor the Pit shut its mouth over me.

¹⁷ (16) Answer me, ADONAI , for good is Your mercy.
With Your great compassion, turn to me.

¹⁸ (17) Hide not Your face from Your servant.
For I am in distress—answer me quickly.

¹⁹ (18) Draw near to my soul and redeem it.
Ransom me because of my foes.

²⁰ (19) You know my reproach, my shame, my disgrace.

All my adversaries are before You.

²¹ (20) Scorn has broken my heart, so I am sick.
I looked for sympathy, but there was none, for comforters, but found none.

²² (21) They put gall in my food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. ‡

²³ (22) Let their table before them be a snare, and what should have been for their well-being,
let it be a trap.

²⁴ (23) Let their eyes be darkened so they cannot see and their backs be bent forever. ††

²⁵ (24) Pour out Your indignation on them.

†† cf. John 2:17; Rom. 15:3. ‡ cf. Matt. 27:34, 48; Mark 15:23,
36. †† cf. Rom. 11:9-10.

† cf. John 15:25.

Let Your fierce anger overtake them.
²⁶ (25) Let their encampment be deserted.
 Let none dwell in their tents.
²⁷ (26) For they persecute the one You have smitten, so they tell of the pain of those You have wounded.
²⁸ (27) Add guilt to their guilt—may they not come into Your righteousness.
²⁹ (28) May they be wiped out of the book of life and not be recorded with the righteous. † ³⁰ (29) But I—I am afflicted and in pain.
 Let Your salvation, O God, set me up on high.
³¹ (30) I will praise God's Name with a song, and magnify Him with praise.
³² (31) It will please ADONAI better than an ox or a bull with horns and hoofs.
³³ (32) The humble will see it and be glad.
 You who seek God, let your hearts revive.
³⁴ (33) For ADONAI hears the needy and does not despise His captive people.
³⁵ (34) Let heaven and earth praise Him,
 the seas and everything moving in them.
³⁶ (35) For God will save Zion, and rebuild the cities of Judah.
 Then they will dwell there and possess it.
³⁷ (36) The children of His servants will inherit it and those who love His Name will dwell there.

My Help and My Deliverer

70 (0) For the music director, of David, for a memorial.
² (1) O God, come quickly to deliver me,
ADONAI, to help me.
³ (2) May they be put to shame and disgrace who seek my life.
 May they be turned back in humiliation who delight in my hurt.
⁴ (3) May those who say, "Aha! Aha!"
 be turned away because of their shame.
⁵ (4) But may all who seek You rejoice and be glad in You.
 May those who love Your salvation always say, "Let God be magnified."
⁶ (5) But I am poor and needy—
 God, come quickly to me.
 You are my help and my deliverer—
ADONAI, do not delay.

My Hope When I Am Gray

71 In You, ADONAI, have I taken refuge.
 Let me never be ashamed.
² Deliver me and rescue me in Your justice.
 Turn Your ear to me and save me.
³ Be to me a sheltering rock where I may always go.
 Give the command to save me—
 for You are my rock and my fortress.

⁴ My God, rescue me out of the hand of the wicked, out of the grasp of an evil, ruthless man.
⁵ For You are my hope, ADONAI my Lord—my trust from my youth.
⁶ From my birth I have leaned on You.
 You took me out of my mother's womb.
 My praise is always about You.
⁷ I am like an ominous sign to many,
 but You are my strong refuge.
⁸ My mouth is filled with Your praise and with Your glory all day.
⁹ Do not cast me away in the time of old age.
 When my strength fails, do not forsake me.
¹⁰ For my enemies speak against me,
 Those who watch for my soul conspire together,
¹¹ saying: "God has forsaken him—Pursue and take him, for no one will deliver."
¹² O God, be not far from me!
 My God, come quickly to help me.
¹³ Let the accusers of my soul be disgraced and destroyed.
 Let those who seek to harm me be covered with scorn and confusion.
¹⁴ But I—I will hope continually and will praise You more and more.
¹⁵ My mouth will recount Your justice and Your salvation all day,
 though I do not know the sum of them.
¹⁶ I come because of the mighty deeds of ADONAI my Lord.
 I will remember Your righteousness—Yours alone.
¹⁷ God, You taught me from my youth, and I still keep declaring Your wonders.
¹⁸ So even until I am old and gray, O God, do not forsake me,
 till I tell of Your strong arm to the next generation,
 Your might to all who are to come.
¹⁹ For Your righteousness, O God, reaches to high heaven.
 You have done great things—O God, who is like You?
²⁰ You made me see many troubles and evils
 —You will revive me again—from the depths of the earth
 You will bring me up again.
²¹ You will increase my greatness, and comfort me once again.
²² So I will praise You with the harp for your truth, O
 my God.
 I will sing praises to You with the lyre O Holy One of Israel.
²³ My lips will shout for joy
 —when I sing praises to You—and my soul, which You have redeemed.
²⁴ Also my tongue will tell of Your righteousness all day.
 For those who seek my hurt have been put to shame and confusion.

† cf. Rev. 3:5.

A Powerful King for the Poor

72 (0) Of Solomon.
 (1) Give the king Your judgments, O God, and Your righteousness to the king's son.
 2 May he judge Your people with righteousness, and Your poor ones with justice.
 3 Let the mountains bring shalom to the people, and the hills righteousness.
 4 May he vindicate the poor of the people,
 save the children of the needy,
 and crush the oppressor.
 5 Let them fear You while the sun endures, and while the moon lasts, throughout all generations.
 6 May he be like rain falling on a mown field, like showers watering the ground.
 7 Let the righteous flourish in his days.
 Let shalom abound till the moon is no more.
 8 May he have dominion from sea to sea,
 and from the River to the ends of the earth.
 9 Let desert dwellers bow before him, and his enemies lick the dust.
 10 May kings of Tarshish and the islands bring tribute, kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.
 11 So let all kings bow down before him,
 and all nations serve him.
 12 For he rescues the needy crying for help,
 also the poor and the one with no helper.
 13 He will take pity on the poor and needy, and the souls of the needy he will save.
 14 From oppression and violence he redeems their soul,
 for precious is their blood in his sight.
 15 Long may he live!
 May gold from Sheba be given to him.
 May he pray for him continually, and bless him all day.
 16 Let there be abundance of grain in the land.
 Let it sway on the top of the hills,
 let its fruit be like Lebanon, and let people of the city flourish like grass of the field.
 17 May his name endure forever.
 May his name increase before the sun, and may all nations be blessed by him and call him blessed.
 18 Blessed be ADONAI Elohim, God of Israel, who alone does wonders.
 19 Blessed be His glorious Name forever.
 May all the earth be filled with His glory!
 Amen and Amen!
 20 The prayers of David son of Jesse are complete.

God Is the Strength of My Heart

73 (0) A psalm of Asaph.
 (1) Surely God is good to Israel, to the pure in heart.

 2 But as for me, my feet almost slipped.
 My steps nearly slid out from under me.
 3 For I envied the arrogant,
 when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
 4 For there are no pains at their death, their body is healthy.
 5 They have none of humanity's trouble, nor are they plagued like others.
 6 Therefore, they put on pride as a necklace, and violence wraps around them like a garment.
 7 Their eyes bulge out from fatness.
 The imaginations of their hearts run wild.
 8 They scoff and wickedly plan evil.
 From on high they threaten.
 9 They set their mouth against heaven.
 Their tongue struts through the earth.
 10 Therefore His people return here, while they drink their fill.
 11 So they say: "How does God know?
 And does Elyon have knowledge?"
 12 Behold, such are the wicked—always at ease and amassing wealth.
 13 Surely in vain have I kept my heart pure, and washed my hands in innocence.
 14 For all day I have been stricken, my chastisement comes every morning.
 15 If I had said: "I will speak thus," surely I would have betrayed a generation of Your children.
 16 But when I tried to make sense of this,
 it was troubling in my eyes—17 until I entered the Sanctuary of God, and perceived their end.
 18 Surely You put them in slippery places.
 You hurled them down to destruction.
 19 How suddenly they became a ruin—terminated, consumed by terrors.
 20 Like a dream when one awakes, thus when You arise, my Lord,
 You will despise their form.
 21 When my heart was embittered and I was pierced in my heart, 22 I was brutish and ignorant.
 I was like a beast before You.
 23 Yet I am continually with You.
 You hold my right hand.
 24 You guide me with Your counsel, and afterward You will take me into glory.
 25 Whom have I in heaven but You?
 On earth there is none I desire besides You.
 26 My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
 27 For behold, those far from You will perish.
 You put an end to all who like a harlot are unfaithful to You.
 28 But for me, it is good to be near God.

I have made my Lord ADONAI my refuge.
So I will tell of all Your works.

Intercession for Restoration of Zion

74 (0) A contemplative song of Asaph.
(1) Why have You cast us off forever, O God?
Why does Your anger smolder against the flock of Your pasture?
2 Remember Your congregation, which You purchased of old, redeemed as the tribe of Your inheritance,
and Mount Zion, where You dwell.
3 Lift Your steps toward the perpetual ruins—an enemy has done all evil to the Sanctuary!
4 Your adversaries have roared in the midst of Your meeting place.
They have set up their standards as signs.
5 It seemed like bringing up axes into a thicket of trees—6 and now all its carved work they smash with hatchet and hammers!
7 They set Your Sanctuary on fire, burning it to the ground.
They defiled the dwelling place of Your Name.
8 They said in their hearts: "Let us crush them totally!"
They burned down all the meeting places of God in the land.
9 We do not see our signs.
No longer is there any prophet—and no one among us knows how long.
10 How long, O God, will the adversary mock?
Will the enemy revile Your Name forever?
11 Why do You hold back Your hand, Your right hand?
Draw it out of Your bosom and consume them!
12 Yet God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the land.
13 You split the sea with Your power.
You smashed the monsters' heads in the waters.
14 You crushed the heads of Leviathan, giving him as food to the desert dwellers.
15 You opened up spring and brook.
You dried up ever-flowing rivers.
16 The day is Yours, the night also is Yours.
You provided moon and sun.
17 You set all the borders of earth.
You made summer and winter.
18 Remember how the enemy mocked, ADONAI, and how foolish people despised Your Name.
19 Do not deliver Your turtledove's soul to the wild beast.
Do not forget the life of Your afflicted ones forever.
20 Look upon the covenant—for haunts of violence fill the dark places of earth.
21 Do not let the oppressed turn back in shame.
But let the poor and needy praise Your Name.
22 Rise up O God, and defend Your cause.
Remember how the fool mocks You all day.
23 Do not forget the noise of Your foes,

the uproar of those rising up against You, ascending continually.

He Lowers One and Lifts Another

75 (0) For the music director: "Do not Destroy," a psalm of Asaph, a song.
2 (1) We praise You, we praise God, for Your Name is near.
People declare Your wonders.
3 (2) "When I appoint a set time,
I Myself will judge uprightly.
4 (3) When the earth wavers with living on it,
I Myself hold its pillars firm. Selah
5 (4) I say to the arrogant, 'No more boasting!'
And to the wicked,
'Do not be lifting up your horn.'
6 (5) Do not lift your horn up high.
Do not speak with outstretched neck."
7 (6) For exaltation comes not from the east nor from the west, nor even from the desert.
8 (7) For God is the Judge:
He lowers one and lifts up another.
9 (8) For in the hand of ADONAI is a cup of foaming wine mixed with spices, and He pours it out.
Surely all the wicked of the earth will drink, draining it down to the dregs. †
10 (9) But I—I will declare it forever,
I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
11 (10) I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be lifted up.

Who Can Stand in Your Presence?

76 (0) For the music director, on stringed instruments: a psalm of Asaph, a song.
2 (1) In Judah God is known.
In Israel His Name is great.
3 (2) In Salem is His sukkah and His dwelling place in Zion.
4 (3) There He broke the fiery shafts of the bow, the shield, the sword, and the battle. Selah
5 (4) You are brilliant, more majestic than nourishing mountains.
6 (5) The valiant have been plundered—they slumbered in their sleep.
The mighty could not lift their hands.
7 (6) At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both horse and rider lay dead asleep.
8 (7) You are awesome, yes You are!
Who can stand in Your presence once You are angry?
9 (8) From heaven You pronounced judgment.
The earth feared and was still—10 (9) when God rose up to judgment, to save all the humble of the land. Selah
11 (10) For wrath upon man will bring You praise,

† cf. Rev. 14:10.

a remnant of wrath You put on as a belt.
 12 (11) Make vows to ADONAI your God and fulfill them.

Let all around Him bring tribute to the One who is to be feared.

13 (12) He cuts off the breath of princes.
 The kings of earth are in awe of Him.

Remember the Wonders

77 (0) For the music director, on Jeduthun: a psalm of Asaph.

2 (1) My voice to God—and I cried out, my voice to God—and He heard me!

3 (2) In the day of my trouble I seek my Lord.
 At night my hand stretches out untiringly.

My soul refuses to be comforted.

4 (3) I remember God and I moan.
 I muse, and my spirit grows faint. Selah

5 (4) You hold my eyelids open—
 I am so troubled—I cannot speak.

6 (5) I ponder the days of old,
 the years long ago.

7 (6) In the night I remember my song.
 I meditate with my heart and my spirit is searching.

8 (7) “Will the Lord reject forever and never again show favor?”

9 (8) Has His mercy vanished forever?
 Has His promise come to an end forever?

10 (9) Has God forgotten to be gracious?
 Or has He in anger withdrawn his mercies?” Selah

11 (10) Then I said: “It wounds me—that the right hand of Elyon has changed.”

12 (11) I will remember the deeds of ADONAI.
 Yes, I will muse about Your wonders of old.

13 (12) I will meditate also on all Your work and consider Your deeds.”

14 (13) O God, Your way is holy.
 What god is great like God?

15 (14) You are the God who works wonders.
 You have made Your power known among the peoples.

16 (15) With your arm You redeemed Your people, the children of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

17 (16) The waters saw You, O God, the waters saw You and writhed, even the depths shook.

18 (17) The clouds poured out water,
 the skies resounded,
 Your arrows flashed back and forth.

19 (18) The sound of Your thunder was in the whirlwind.

Lightning lit up the world.
 The earth trembled and shook.

20 (19) Your way was in the sea, and Your path in the mighty waters,
 but Your footprints were not seen.

21 (20) You led Your people like a flock, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Israel from Moses to David

78 (0) A contemplative song of Asaph.

(1) Listen, my people, to my teaching.

Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.

2 I will open my mouth with a parable.

I will utter perplexing sayings from of old,

3 which we have heard and known,

and our fathers have told us.

4 We will not hide them from their children, telling to the next generation the praises of ADONAI
 and His strength and the wonders He has done.

5 For He established a testimony in Jacob and ordained Torah in Israel, which He commanded our fathers to teach their children,

6 so that the next generation might know, even the children yet to be born:

they will arise and tell their children.

7 Then they will put their trust in God, not forgetting the works of God,

but keeping His mitzvot.

8 So they will not be like their fathers—a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that did not prepare its heart,
 whose spirit was not loyal to God.

9 The sons of Ephraim were archers armed with bows, yet they turned back in the day of battle.

10 They did not keep God’s covenant and refused to walk in His Torah.

11 They forgot His deeds and His wonders that He had shown them.

12 He did miracles in front of their fathers in the land of Egypt, in the plain of Zoan.

13 He split the sea and led them through,
 and He made the water stand like a wall.

14 By day He led them with a cloud and all night with a light of fire.

15 He split apart rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink as abundant as the depths.

16 So He brought streams out of a rock, and made waters flow down like rivers. †

17 Yet they added more sinning against Him, rebelling against Elyon in the desert.

18 They put God to the test in their heart by demanding food for their craving.

19 Then they spoke against God, saying,
 “Can God set a table in the wilderness?”

20 See, He struck the rock, waters gushed out, streams overflowed.

But can He give bread?

Will He provide meat for His people?”

21 When ADONAI heard, He was angry.

A fire was kindled against Jacob, and fury also rose against Israel.

22 For they did not believe in God

† cf. 1 Cor. 10:4.

or trust in His salvation.
²³ Yet He commanded the skies above and opened the doors of heaven, ²⁴ and rained down manna upon them to eat, and gave them grain of heaven. †
²⁵ Man did eat the bread of angels.
 He sent them abundant provision.
²⁶ He loosed the east wind in the skies,
 and by His power He drove the south wind.
²⁷ He rained meat upon them like dust, and winged fowl like sand of the seas.
²⁸ And He let it fall amidst their camp,
 all around their tents.
²⁹ So they ate and were very full—for He gave them their desire.
³⁰ No longer a stranger from their desire,
 while their food was still in their mouths, ³¹ the anger of God rose against them and slew the stoutest of them, and struck down young men of Israel.
³² Despite all this they sinned still more,
 and did not trust in His wonders.
³³ So He ended their days in futility and their years in terror.
³⁴ But when He slew them, then they sought Him, and turned back,
 and desired God eagerly.
³⁵ Then they remembered that God was their Rock and El Elyon their Redeemer.
³⁶ But they flattered Him with their mouth and kept lying to Him with their tongue.
³⁷ For their heart was not steadfast with Him, nor were they faithful to His covenant.
³⁸ But He is compassionate, forgives iniquity and does not destroy.
 Yes, many times He restrains His anger, and does not stir up all His wrath.
³⁹ For He remembered that they are but flesh,
 a passing breath that never returns.
⁴⁰ How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness,
 and grieved Him in the desert!
⁴¹ Again and again they tested God, and pained the Holy One of Israel.
⁴² They did not remember His hand—
 the day He redeemed them from the foe, ⁴³ when He displayed His signs in Egypt and His wonders in the plain of Zoan.
⁴⁴ He turned their rivers into blood, so they could not drink from their streams.
⁴⁵ He sent on them flies to devour them,
 and frogs to devastate them, ⁴⁶ and gave their crops to the grasshopper, and their labor to the locust.
⁴⁷ He destroyed their vines with hail,
 and their sycamore trees with frost, ⁴⁸ and gave over their cattle to the hail,

and their flocks to fiery bolts.
⁴⁹ He sent on them the fury of His anger —wrath and indignation and trouble—
 a band of evil angels.
⁵⁰ He cleared a path for His anger.
 He spared not their soul from death,
 but gave their life over to the plague.
⁵¹ He struck down all the firstborn in Egypt,
 the firstfruits of their strength in the tents of Ham.
⁵² But He brought His people out like sheep, and led them in the wilderness like a flock.
⁵³ He led them to safety, so they did not fear, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
⁵⁴ Then He brought them to His holy territory, to the mountain His right hand had gotten.
⁵⁵ He drove out nations before them,
 and allotted them an inheritance.
 He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.
⁵⁶ Yet they tested and rebelled against El Elyon , and did not keep His decrees.
⁵⁷ Like their fathers they turned and were treacherous.
 They turned aside like a faulty bow.
⁵⁸ For they provoked Him with their high places, so they aroused His jealousy with their graven images.
⁵⁹ God heard and was furious, and He greatly detested Israel.
⁶⁰ He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh,
 the tent He pitched among men.
⁶¹ He gave up His strength into captivity, and His glory into the adversary's hand.
⁶² He gave His people over to the sword, when He was angry at His inheritance.
⁶³ Fire consumed their young men, and their virgins had no wedding songs.
⁶⁴ Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows could not weep.
⁶⁵ Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, as a warrior shaking off wine.
⁶⁶ He beat back His foes, putting them to lasting scorn.
⁶⁷ Then He detested Joseph's tent and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.
⁶⁸ Instead He chose the tribe of Judah,
 Mount Zion, which He loved.
⁶⁹ He built His Sanctuary like the heights, like the earth that He established forever.
⁷⁰ He also chose David His servant and took him from the sheepfolds, ⁷¹ from following nursing ewes.
 He brought him to shepherd Jacob His people, and Israel His inheritance.
⁷² So He shepherded them with the integrity of His heart,
 and led them with His skillful hands.

† cf. John 6:31.

A Lament over Jerusalem

79 (0) A Psalm of Asaph.
 (1) God, the nations have invaded Your inheritance, defiled Your holy Temple,
 and reduced Jerusalem to ruins.
 2 They gave the carcasses of Your servants as food to the birds of the skies, the flesh of Your kedoshim to the beasts of the earth.
 3 They poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.
 4 We have become a taunt to our neighbors,
 a scorn and derision to those around us.
 5 How long, ADONAI, will You be angry?
 Forever?
 Will Your jealousy keep blazing like fire?
 6 Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge You, on the kingdoms that do not call on Your name.
 7 For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste his country.
 8 Do not hold against us the sins of our fathers.
 May Your mercies come quickly to meet us,
 for we are brought very low.
 9 Help us, God of our salvation—for the sake of the glory of Your Name.
 Deliver us, and atone for our sins—
 for Your name's sake.
 10 Why should the nations say:
 "Where is their God?"
 Before our eyes, let it be known among the nations that You avenge the shed blood of Your servants.
 11 Let the prisoner's groan come to You.
 By Your great arm preserve those who are doomed to die.
 12 Pay back into the midst of our neighbors sevenfold their reproach—
 the reproach they hurled at You, my Lord.
 13 So we, Your people, the flock of Your pasture, will praise You forever.
 From generation to generation
 we will recount Your praise.

Restore Us, Revive Us

80 (0) For the music director, on "Lilies," † a testimony: a psalm of Asaph.
 2 (1) Give ear, Shepherd of Israel,
 You who lead Joseph like a flock.
 You who are enthroned upon the cheruvim, shine forth!
 3 (2) Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up Your might, and come to save us.
 4 (3) O God, restore us, make Your face shine,
 and we will be saved.

5 (4) ADONAI -Tzva'ot, how long will You be angry with the prayer of Your people?
 6 (5) You have fed them the bread of tears and made them drink a measure of tears.
 7 (6) You make us a contention to our neighbors, and our enemies mock as they please.
 8 (7) Elohei-Tzva'ot, restore us, and make Your face shine,
 and we will be saved.
 9 (8) You pulled out a vine from Egypt.
 You drove out nations and planted it.
 10 (9) You cleared a place for it, and it took deep root and filled the land.
 11 (10) The mountains were covered by its shade,
 the mighty cedars with its branches.
 12 (11) It sent out its branches to the sea, and its shoots to the river.
 13 (12) Why have You broken down its fences, so all who pass by the way pick its fruit?
 14 (13) A boar from the forest ravages it, whatever moves in the field feeds on it.
 15 (14) Elohei-Tzva'ot, please return!
 Look down from heaven and see!
 Now take care of this vine—
 16 (15) the shoot Your right hand planted—the son You strengthened for Yourself.
 17 (16) It is burned with fire, it is cut down.
 They perish from the rebuke of Your face.
 18 (17) Let Your hand be upon the man of Your right hand—
 the son of man
 You made strong for Yourself.
 19 (18) Then we will not turn away from You.
 Revive us, and we will call on Your Name.
 20 (19) ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot, restore us.
 Make Your face shine, and we will be saved.

Hear O Israel

81 (0) For the music director, on the Gittite lyre, of Asaph.
 2 (1) Sing for joy to God our strength, shout to the God of Jacob!
 3 (2) Lift up a song and sound a tambourine, a sweet lyre with a harp.
 4 (3) Blow the shofar at the New Moon,
 at the full moon for the day of our festival.
 5 (4) For it is a decree for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
 6 (5) He set it up as a testimony in Joseph,
 when He went throughout the land of Egypt,
 I heard a language I did not understand.
 7 (6) "I relieved his shoulder of the burden,
 his hands were set free from the basket.
 8 (7) You called out in trouble, and I rescued you.
 I answered you from the hiding place of thunder.
 I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah
 9 (8) Hear, My people, I will admonish you—if you would listen to Me, O Israel!

† Hebrew Shoshanim

¹⁰ (9) Let there be no foreign god among you, and you shall not worship any alien god.
¹¹ (10) I am ADONAI your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.
¹² (11) "But My people did not listen to My voice.
Israel was not willing to be Mine.
¹³ (12) So I gave them over to the stubbornness of their heart, to walk in their own counsels.
¹⁴ (13) Oh that My people would listen to Me, that Israel would walk in My ways!
¹⁵ (14) I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn My hand against their foes.
¹⁶ (15) Those who hate ADONAI would cringe before Him—
their time of doom would be forever.
¹⁷ (16) But you would be fed with the finest wheat, with honey out of a rock would I satisfy you."

A Rebuke for Unjust Judges

82 (0) A psalm of Asaph.
(1) God takes His stand in the assembly of God.
He judges among the "gods":
² "How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah
³ Give justice to the poor and fatherless.
Be just to the afflicted and destitute.
⁴ Rescue the weak and needy.
Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked.
⁵ They know nothing;
they understand nothing—
they walk about in darkness.
All of earth's foundations are shaken.
⁶ I said: 'You are 'gods', and you are all sons of Elyon, † ⁷ yet you will die like men, and will fall like any of the princes."
⁸ Arise, O God, judge the earth!
For You possess all the nations.

Nations Conspire against Israel

83 (0) A song: a psalm of Asaph.
² (1) God, do not keep silent.
Do not hold Your peace, O God.
Do not be still.
³ (2) For look, Your enemies make an uproar.
Those who hate You lift up their head.
⁴ (3) They make a shrewd plot against Your people, conspiring against Your treasured ones.
⁵ (4) "Come," they say, "let's wipe them out as a nation!
Let Israel's name be remembered no more!"
⁶ (5) For with one mind they plot together.
Against You do they make a covenant.
⁷ (6) The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites,

Moab and the Hagrites,
⁸ (7) Gebal, Ammon and Amalek,
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre,
⁹ (8) even Assyria has joined them, becoming a strong arm for Lot's sons. Selah ¹⁰ (9) Do to them as You did to Midian, to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River, ¹¹ (10) who perished at En-dor—they became as dung for the ground.
¹² (11) Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb—all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna, ¹³ (12) who said,
"Let us take possession of the pasturelands of God."
¹⁴ (13) My God, make them like tumbleweed, like chaff before the wind.
¹⁵ (14) As a fire burns a forest, and as a flame sets mountains ablaze, ¹⁶ (15) so pursue them with Your tempest, and terrify them with Your storm.
¹⁷ (16) Cover their faces with shame,
so they may seek Your Name— ADONAI .
¹⁸ (17) Let them be ashamed and dismayed forever.
Let them be humiliated and perish.
¹⁹ (18) Let them know that You alone
—whose Name is ADONAI —
are El Elyon over all the earth.

Pilgrim Road to ADONAI's Courts

84 (0) For the music director, upon the Gittite lyre, a psalm of the sons of Korah.
² (1) How lovely are Your tabernacles, ADONAI -Tzva'ot !
³ (2) My soul yearns, even faints, for the courts of
ADONAI .
My heart and my flesh sing for joy to the living God.
⁴ (3) Even the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young —near Your altars, ADONAI -Tzva'ot — my King and my God!
⁵ (4) Blessed are they who dwell in Your House
—they are ever praising You. Selah
⁶ (5) Blessed is one whose strength is in You, in whose heart are the pilgrim roads.
⁷ (6) Passing through the valley of Baca, they make it a spring.
The early rain covers it with blessings.
⁸ (7) They go from strength to strength—every one of them appears before God in Zion.
⁹ (8) ADONAI -Tzva'ot , hear my prayer, give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah ¹⁰ (9) O God, look at our shield, and look upon the face of Your anointed.
¹¹ (10) For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand anywhere else.
I would rather stand at the threshold of the House of my God
than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

† cf. Luke 6:35; John 10:34.

¹² (11) For ADONAI Elohim is a sun † and a shield.
ADONAI gives grace and glory.
 No good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly.

¹³ (12) ADONAI -Tzva'ot, blessed is the one who trusts in You.

Restore Your People from Captivity

85 (0) For the music director, a psalm of the sons of Korah.

² (1) ADONAI, will you favor Your land?
 Will You restore Jacob from captivity?

³ (2) Will You bear away Your people's iniquity, Will You pardon all their sin? ††

Selah

⁴ (3) Will You withdraw all Your wrath?
 Will You turn from Your burning anger? ‡

⁵ (4) Restore us, O God of our salvation, and renounce Your indignation with us.

⁶ (5) Will You be angry with us forever?
 Will You prolong Your anger from generation to generation?

⁷ (6) Will You not revive us again,
 so Your people may rejoice in You?

⁸ (7) Show us Your mercy, ADONAI, and grant us Your salvation.

⁹ (8) Let me hear what God ADONAI will say.
 For He will speak shalom to His people, and to His kedoshim — but let them not turn back to folly.

¹⁰ (9) Surely His salvation is near those who fear Him, so that glory may dwell in our land.

¹¹ (10) Lovingkindness and truth meet together.
 Righteousness and shalom kiss each other.

¹² (11) Truth will spring up from the earth, and justice will look down from heaven.

¹³ (12) Yes, ADONAI will give what is good, and our land will yield its produce.

¹⁴ (13) Righteousness is going before Him and prepares a way for His feet.

Slow to Anger, Full of Chesed

86 (0) A prayer of David.

(1) Turn Your ear, ADONAI, and answer me,
 for I am weak and needy.

² Watch over my soul, for I am godly.
 You are my God—

save Your servant who trusts in You.
³ Be gracious to me, my Lord,

for to You I cry all day.

⁴ Gladden the soul of Your servant,
 for to You, my Lord, I lift up my soul.

⁵ For You, my Lord, are good, and ready to forgive

and full of mercy to all who call upon You.

⁶ Give ear, ADONAI, to my prayer, listen to the voice of my supplications.

⁷ In the day of my trouble I call upon You,
 for You will answer me.

⁸ There is none like You among the gods,
 my Lord, there are no deeds like Yours.

⁹ All nations You have made will come and bow down before You, my Lord, and they will glorify Your Name.

¹⁰ For You are great, and do wonders—
 You alone are God.

¹¹ Teach me Your way, ADONAI,
 that I may walk in Your truth.

Give me an undivided heart to fear Your Name.

¹² I praise You, O Lord my God, with my whole heart, and glorify Your Name forever.

¹³ For great is Your lovingkindness toward me.

You have delivered my soul from the lowest part of Sheol.

¹⁴ God, the proud have risen up against me and a gang of ruthless people have sought my life, and have not set You before them.

¹⁵ But You, my Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God,
 slow to anger, full of love and truth.

¹⁶ Turn to me and be gracious to me.

Give Your strength to Your servant, and save the son of Your maidservant.

¹⁷ Make me a sign for good, so that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed.

For You, ADONAI, have helped me and comforted me.

This One Was Born in Zion

87 (0) A psalm of the sons of Korah, a song.

(1) His foundation is in the holy mountains.

² ADONAI loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

³ Glorious things are spoken of you,
 city of God. Selah

⁴ "I will mention Rahab and Babylon among those who acknowledge Me—

behold Philistia and Tyre, with Cush:
 "This one was born there.""

⁵ But of Zion it will be said:

"This one and that one were born in her."
 And Elyon Himself will establish her.

⁶ ADONAI will count in the register of the peoples:
 "This one was born there." Selah

⁷ Then singing and dancing—all my fountains of joy are in you!

Cry of Desperation

88 (0) A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah, for the music director, for singing Mahalath, a contemplative song †† of Heman the Ezrahite.

† cf. Rev. 21:23. †† cf. Matt. 9:6; 1 John 1:9. ‡ cf. Rom. 5:9.

‡† Hebrew maskil

2 (1) ADONAI, God of my salvation, day and night I cried out before You.
 3 (2) Let my prayer come before You.
 Turn Your ear to my cry.
 4 (3) For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draws near to Sheol.
 5 (4) I am counted with those who go down into the Pit.
 I have become as one with no strength—6 (5) abandoned among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom You remember no more—cut off from Your hand.
 7 (6) You have laid me in the lowest places, in dark places, in the depths.
 8 (7) Your wrath lies heavily on me.
 You afflicted me with all Your waves. Selah
 9 (8) You have put my companions far from me.
 You have made me repulsive to them.
 I am shut in and I cannot go out.
 10 (9) My eye fails from affliction.
 I call upon You every day, ADONAI.
 I spread out my hands to You.
 11 (10) Will You work wonders for the dead?
 Or will the departed spirits rise up praising You? Se- lah
 12 (11) Will Your love be declared in the grave?
 Or Your faithfulness in the place of ruin?
 13 (12) Will Your wonders be known in the darkness?
 Your righteousness in the land of oblivion?
 14 (13) But I—I cried out to You, ADONAI, and in the morning my prayer meets You.
 15 (14) ADONAI, why do You spurn me?
 Why do You hide Your face from me?
 16 (15) From my youth I have been afflicted and close to death.
 I suffer Your terrors—I am desperate!
 17 (16) Your fury has swept over me.
 Your terrors have cut me off.
 18 (17) Like water they surge around me all day.
 They close in on me together.
 19 (18) Friend and loved one You took far from me.
 Darkness has become my companion.

Covenant with David's Seed

89 (0) A contemplative song of Ethan the Ezrahite.
 2 (1) I will sing of the love of ADONAI forever.
 To all generations I will make known Your faithfulness with my mouth.
 3 (2) For I said, "Let your lovingkindness be built up forever!
 The heavens—let Your faithfulness be made firm
 there!"
 4 (3) "I have made a covenant with My chosen one.
 I have sworn to David My servant:
 5 (4) 'Forever I will establish your seed, and will build your throne from generation to generation.'" †

Selah
 6 (5) The heavens praise Your wonders, ADONAI
 —Your faithfulness, too—
 in the assembly of the kedoshim.
 7 (6) For who in the skies can compare to ADONAI?
 Who is like ADONAI among the sons of gods?
 8 (7) God is greatly feared in the council of the holy ones,
 and awesome above all around Him.
 9 (8) ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot, who is like You, mighty
ADONAI,
 with Your faithfulness all around You?
 10 (9) You rule over the swelling of the sea.
 When its waves mount up, You still them.
 11 (10) You crushed Rahab like a slain one.
 You scattered Your enemies with Your mighty arm.
 12 (11) The heavens are Yours, also Yours the earth
 —the world and its fullness—
 You have founded them.
 13 (12) You created the north and the south.
 Tabor and Hermon sing for joy at Your Name.
 14 (13) Your arm is mighty,
 Your hand is strong,
 exalted is Your right hand. †† 15 (14) Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne.
 Lovingkindness and truth go before You.
 16 (15) Blessed are the people who know the joyful shout, ‡
 They walk in the light of Your presence, ADONAI.
 17 (16) They rejoice in Your Name all day, and by Your righteousness they are exalted.
 18 (17) For You are the glory of their strength, and by Your favor our horn is exalted.
 19 (18) For our shield belongs to ADONAI, and our king to the Holy One of Israel.
 20 (19) Then You spoke in vision to Your godly ones, and said:
 "I have bestowed help on a warrior.
 I have exalted one chosen from among the people.
 21 (20) I have found David My servant.
 With My holy oil I have anointed him.
 22 (21) With him My hand will be established.
 Surely My arm will strengthen him.
 23 (22) No enemy will exact tribute from him,
 no son of wickedness will oppress him.
 24 (23) I will crush his adversaries before him,
 and strike down those who hate him.
 25 (24) My faithfulness and My lovingkindness will be with him,
 and by My Name his horn will be exalted.
 26 (25) I will also set his hand over the sea,
 his right hand over the rivers.
 27 (26) He will call to Me: 'You are my Father, †† my God and the rock of my salvation.'
 28 (27) I also will set him as firstborn— ‡

† cf. Luke 1:33. †† cf. Heb. 1:3. ‡ Hebrew teruah shofar blast †† cf. John 8:54. ‡‡ cf. Rev. 1:5.

the highest of the kings of earth. † †† 29 (28) I will maintain My love for him forever, and My covenant with him will be firm.
 30 (29) His seed I will establish forever, and his throne as the days of heaven.
 31 (30) "If his sons forsake My Torah , and do not walk in My judgments, 32 (31) if they violate My decrees, and do not keep My mitzvot , 33 (32) then I will punish their transgression with the rod,
 and their iniquity with flogging.
 34 (33) But I will not withdraw My lovingkindness from him,
 nor will I betray My faithfulness.
 35 (34) I will not violate My covenant, nor alter what My lips have uttered.
 36 (35) Once for all I have sworn by My holiness
 —surely I will not lie to David—37 (36) his descendants will endure forever, and his throne as the sun before Me, 38 (37) and as the moon, established forever, and a trustworthy witness in the sky." Selah
 39 (38) But You have cast off and spurned,
 You have become furious with Your anointed one.
 40 (39) You have renounced the covenant of Your servant.
 You have defiled his crown even to the ground.
 41 (40) You have broken down all his walls.
 You reduced his strongholds to ruin.
 42 (41) All who pass by have plundered him.
 He has become a taunt to his neighbors.
 43 (42) You exalted the right hand of his foes and made all his enemies rejoice.
 44 (43) You turned back the edge of his sword and have not supported him in battle.
 45 (44) You brought his splendor to an end, and cast his throne down to the ground.
 46 (45) You cut short the days of his youth.
 You covered him with shame. Selah
 47 (46) How long, ADONAI , will You hide Yourself?
 Forever?
 Will Your fury keep burning like fire?
 48 (47) Remember how short my life span is!
 For what futility have You created all the children of men?
 49 (48) What man can live and not see death?
 Can he deliver himself from the clutches of Sheol ?
Selah
 50 (49) Where is Your former lovingkindness, my Lord, which You swore to David in Your faithfulness? ‡ 51 (50) Remember, my Lord, the mockery against Your servants
 that I bear in my heart from so many peoples.
 52 (51) How Your enemies have mocked, ADONAI , how they have mocked

† cf. Rev. 19:16. †† In most English translation, 89:27-28 are verses 26-27. ‡ cf. Acts 13:34.

the footsteps of Your Anointed One! †† 53 (52) Blessed be ADONAI forever.
 Amen and Amen.

Get a Heart of Wisdom

90 (0) A prayer of Moses the man of God.
 (1) My Lord, You have been our dwelling
 from generation to generation.
 2 Before the mountains were born, or You gave birth to the earth and the world,
 even from everlasting to everlasting,
 You are God!
 3 You turn mankind back to dust, saying,
 "Return, children of Adam!"
 4 For a thousand years in Your sight are like a day just passing by, or like a watch in the night.
 5 You sweep them away in their sleep.
 In the morning they are like sprouting grass—6 in the morning it flourishes and springs up, by evening it withers and dries up.
 7 For we are consumed by Your anger and terrified by Your wrath.
 8 You have set our iniquities before You,
 our secret sins in the light of Your presence.
 9 For all our days have passed away under Your wrath.
 We spent our years like a sigh.
 10 The span of our years is seventy —or with strength, eighty—yet at best they are trouble and sorrow.
 For they are soon gone, and we fly away.
 11 Who knows the power of Your anger?
 Your fury leads to awe of you.
 12 So teach us to number our days,
 so that we may get a heart of wisdom.
 13 Relent, ADONAI ! How long?
 Have compassion on Your servants.
 14 Satisfy us in the morning with Your love, so we may sing for joy
 and be glad all our days.
 15 Gladden us for as many days as You have humbled us,
 as many years as we have seen misery.
 16 Let Your work appear to Your servants, and Your splendor on their children.
 17 Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us.
 Establish the work of our hands for us—
 yes, establish the work of our hands.

Dwell in the Shelter of Elyon

91 He who dwells in the shelter of Elyon , will abide in the shadow of Shaddai .
 2 I will say of ADONAI ,
 "He is my refuge and my fortress,
 my God, in whom I trust.

†† cf. Matt. 27:29, 41; Luke 23:36.

3 For He will rescue you from the hunter's trap and from the deadly pestilence.
 4 He will cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you will find refuge.
 His faithfulness is body armor and shield.
 5 You will not fear the terror by night,
 nor the arrow that flies by day, 6 nor the plague that stalks in darkness,
 nor the scourge that lays waste at noon.
 7 A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand,
 but it will not come near you.
 8 You will only look on with your eyes and see the wicked paid back.
 9 For you have made Elyon your dwelling, even ADONAI, who is my refuge, 10 so no evil will befall you nor any plague come near your tent.
 11 For He will give His angels charge over you,
 to guard you in all your ways.
 12 Upon their hands they will lift you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone. † 13 You will tread upon the lion and cobra, trample the young lion and serpent.
 14 "Because he has devoted his love to Me,
 I will deliver him.
 I will set him securely on high,
 because he knows My Name.
 15 When he calls on Me, I will answer him.
 I will be with him in trouble, rescue him, and honor
 him.
 16 With long life will I satisfy him and show him My salvation."

It Is Good to Praise

92 (0) A psalm, a song for the Shabbat.
 2 (1) It is good to praise ADONAI and to make music to Your Name, Elyon, 3 (2) to declare Your love in the morning and Your faithfulness at night, 4 (3) with a ten-string harp, with resounding music on the lyre.
 5 (4) For You made me glad, ADONAI, by Your deeds.
 I sing for joy at the works of Your hands.
 6 (5) How great are Your works, ADONAI!
 How profound are Your thoughts!
 7 (6) A brutish man does not know, nor does a fool understand.
 8 (7) Though the wicked spring up like grass, and all evildoers flourish,
 it is only to be ruined forever.
 9 (8) But You, ADONAI, are exalted forever.
 10 (9) For behold, Your enemies, ADONAI
 —behold Your enemies perish—
 all evildoers are scattered.
 11 (10) But You exalted my horn like that of a wild ox.
 I am anointed with fresh oil.

† cf. Matt. 4:6; Luke 4:10-11.

12 (11) My eye can gaze on those lying in wait for me.
 My ears hear about evildoers rising up against me.
 13 (12) The righteous will flourish like a palm tree.
 He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
 14 (13) Planted in the House of ADONAI, they will flourish in the courts of our God.
 15 (14) They will still yield fruit in old age.
 They will be full of sap and freshness.
 16 (15) They declare, " ADONAI is upright, my Rock
 —there is no injustice in Him."

Majestic and Unshakable

93 ADONAI reigns—He is robed in majesty!
ADONAI has robed and armed Himself with strength.
 Yes, the world is firmly established—unshakable.
 2 Your throne is established from of old.
 You are from everlasting.
 3 The floods have lifted up, ADONAI, the floods have lifted up their voice,
 the floods lift up their crashing waves.
 4 More than the sounds of many waters—more majestic than the breakers of the sea—so majestic is ADONAI on high!
 5 Your testimonies are very sure.
 Holiness befits Your House, ADONAI, for endless days.

He Will Not Abandon His People

94 God of vengeance, ADONAI,
 God of vengeance, shine forth!
 2 Rise up, O Judge of the earth!
 Pay back to the proud what they deserve.
 3 How long will the wicked, ADONAI, how long will the wicked gloat?
 4 They gush out, they speak arrogance—all the evildoers keep boasting.
 5 They crush Your people, ADONAI, and afflict Your heritage.
 6 They slay the widow and the outsider, and murder the fatherless.
 7 So they say: " ADONAI does not see—the God of Jacob pays no attention."
 8 Pay attention, stupid among the people!
 Fools, when will you comprehend?
 9 He who planted the ear, does He not hear?
 He who formed the eye, does He not see?
 10 He who chastens nations, will He not rebuke—
 One who teaches humanity knowledge?
 11 ADONAI knows human thoughts—
 they are but a breath.
 12 Blessed is the one You discipline, ADONAI, and teach him from Your Torah, 13 to give him rest from days of trouble
 —until a pit is dug for the wicked.
 14 For ADONAI will not forsake His people.
 He will never abandon His inheritance. ††

†† cf. Rom. 11:2.

15 For rightness will be restored to justice, and all the upright in heart will follow it.
 16 Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
 Who will stand up for me against evildoers?
 17 Unless ADONAI had been my help, my soul would soon have dwelt in the abode of silence.
 18 If I say: "My foot has slipped,"
 Your mercy, ADONAI, will hold me up.
 19 When my troubling thoughts multiply within me,
 Your consolations comfort my soul.
 20 Can a throne of corruption be aligned with You—planning distress by decree?
 21 They band together against the life of the righteous,
 and condemn innocent blood. † 22 But ADONAI has been my fortress and my God the rock of my refuge.
 23 He will repay them for their wickedness, and will annihilate them in their evil.
ADONAI our God will annihilate them.

Today, Hear His Voice

95 O come, let us sing for joy to ADONAI.
 Let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.
 2 Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving.
 Let us shout joyfully to Him with songs.
 3 For ADONAI is a great God and a great King above all gods.
 4 In His hand are the depths of the earth, the mountain peaks are His also.
 5 The sea is His—He made it,
 and His hands formed the dry land.
 6 Come, let us worship and bow down.
 Let us kneel before ADONAI our Maker. ††
 7 For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture,
 the flock of His hand.
 Today, if you hear His voice:
 8 "Do not harden your heart as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness, 9 when your fathers tested Me, they challenged Me, even though they had seen My work.
 10 For forty years I loathed that generation.
 So I said: 'It is a people whose heart goes astray, who do not know My ways.'
 11 Therefore I swore in My anger,
 'They shall never enter into My rest.'"

Sing a New Song

96 Sing to ADONAI a new song!
 Sing to ADONAI, all the earth.
 2 Sing to ADONAI, bless His Name.
 Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day.

† cf. Matt. 27:4. †† cf. Phil. 2:10.

3 Declare His glory among the nations,
 His marvelous deeds among all peoples.
 4 For great is ADONAI, and greatly to be praised.
 He is to be feared above all gods.
 5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols,
 but ADONAI made the heavens.
 6 Splendor and majesty are before Him.
 Strength and beauty are in His Sanctuary.
 7 Ascribe to ADONAI, O families of peoples.
 Ascribe to ADONAI glory and strength.
 8 Ascribe to ADONAI the glory of His Name.
 Bring an offering and come into His courts.
 9 Bow down to ADONAI in holy splendor.
 Tremble before Him, all the earth.
 10 Say among the nations: " ADONAI reigns!"
 The world is firmly established—it will not move.
 He will judge the peoples with fairness.
 11 Let the heavens be glad, let the earth rejoice.
 Let the sea roar—and all that fills it.
 12 Let the land exult—and all that is in it.
 Then all the trees of the forest will sing for joy—
 13 before ADONAI, for He is coming!
 For He is coming to judge the earth.
 He will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples in His faithfulness. ‡

Exalted above All Gods

97 ADONAI reigns, let the earth rejoice, let the many islands be glad.
 2 Clouds and darkness are all around Him.
 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of His throne.
 3 Fire goes before Him and burns up His adversaries on every side.
 4 His lightning lights up the world—
 the earth sees and trembles.
 5 The mountains melt like wax at the presence of ADONAI, at the presence of the Lord of all earth.
 6 The heavens declare His righteousness, and all the peoples have seen His glory.
 7 Let all who serve graven images be ashamed—who boast in idols.
 Bow down before Him, all you gods!
 8 Zion hears and is glad,
 and the daughters of Judah rejoice,
 because of Your judgments, ADONAI.
 9 For You, ADONAI, are Elyon above all the earth.
 You are exalted far above all gods.
 10 You who love ADONAI, hate evil!
 He watches over the souls of His godly ones.
 He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
 11 Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for the upright in heart.
 12 Rejoice in ADONAI, you righteous ones,
 and praise His holy Name.

‡ cf. Rev. 19:11.

Creation Rejoices in His Salvation

98 (0) A psalm.
 (1) Sing to ADONAI a new song,
 for He has done marvelous things.
 His right hand and His holy arm have won victory for Him.
² ADONAI has made His salvation known.
 He has revealed His righteousness before the eyes of the nations.
³ He has remembered His lovingkindness,
 His faithfulness to the house of Israel.
 All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
⁴ Shout joyfully to ADONAI, all the earth.
 Break forth, sing for joy, and sing praises.
⁵ Sing praises to ADONAI with the harp, with the harp and a voice of melody.
⁶ With trumpets and sound of the shofar blast a sound before the King, ADONAI.
⁷ Let the sea roar and all within it,
 the world and those who dwell in it.
⁸ Let the rivers clap their hands, let the mountains sing for joy together—
⁹ before ADONAI, for He is coming to judge the earth.
 He will judge the world with righteousness
 and the peoples with fairness.

Worship at His Holy Hill

99 ADONAI reigns, let the peoples tremble.
 He is enthroned upon the cheruvim—let the earth shake!
² ADONAI is great in Zion and He is exalted above all the peoples.
³ Let them praise Your great and awesome Name: holy is He.
⁴ The might of a king loves justice.
 You have established fairness.
 You executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.
⁵ Exalt ADONAI our God and worship at His footstool: holy is He.
⁶ Moses and Aaron were among His kohanim— also Samuel among those calling on His Name.
 They called on ADONAI and He answered them.
⁷ He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud.
 They kept His testimonies, and the decree that He gave them.
⁸ ADONAI our God, You answered them.
 A forgiving God You were to them, though You avenged their misdeeds.
⁹ Exalt ADONAI our God, and worship at His holy hill, for holy is ADONAI our God.

Enter His Gates with Thanksgiving

100 (0) A psalm of thanksgiving.
 (1) Shout joyfully to ADONAI, all the earth!

² Serve ADONAI with gladness.
 Come before His presence with joyful singing.
³ Know that ADONAI, He is God.
 It is He who has made us, and we are His.
 We are His people, the sheep of His pasture.
⁴ Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise!
 Praise Him, bless His Name.
⁵ For ADONAI is good.
 His lovingkindness endures forever, and His faithfulness to all generations.

Pledge of Integrity

101 (0) A psalm of David.
 (1) I will sing of lovingkindness and justice.
 To You, ADONAI, I will sing praises.
² I will behave wisely in the way of integrity
 —when will You come to me?
 I walk in my house with integrity in my heart.
³ No base thing will I set before my eyes.
 Twisted behavior I hate—it will not cling to me.
⁴ A perverse heart will depart from me.
 I will know nothing evil.
⁵ Whoever slanders his neighbor in secret
 —him I will silence.
 Who has haughty eyes and a proud heart
 —him I will not tolerate.
⁶ My eyes are on the trustworthy of the land, to be in my company.
 One walking in a blameless way will serve me.
⁷ No one who practices deceit will dwell in my house.
 No one who utters lies will endure before my eyes.
⁸ Each morning I silence all the land's wicked ones—to cut off from ADONAI's city every evildoer.

Prayer in Affliction

102 (0) A prayer of the afflicted one, when he is faint and pours out his lament before ADONAI:
² (1) ADONAI, hear my prayer,
 let my cry come to You.
³ (2) Do not hide Your face from me in the day of my distress.
 Turn Your ear to me—in the day I call,
 answer me quickly.
⁴ (3) For my days vanished like smoke, and my bones were burned like coals.
⁵ (4) My heart is stricken and withered like grass, so that I even forget to eat my bread.
⁶ (5) Because of the sound of my groaning, my bones cling to my flesh.
⁷ (6) I am like a pelican of the desert, like an owl of the waste places.
⁸ (7) I lie awake, like a lonely bird on a roof.
⁹ (8) My enemies taunt me all day.
 My deriders use my name to curse.
¹⁰ (9) For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mixed my drink with tears—

11 (10) because of Your indignation and wrath, for You have picked me up and tossed me aside.
 12 (11) My days are like a lengthening shadow, and I wither away like grass.
 13 (12) But You, ADONAI, sit enthroned forever.
 Your renown is from generation to generation.
 14 (13) You will arise and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to show favor to her,
 for the appointed time has come, 15 (14) for her stones are dear to Your servants, and they cherish her dust.
 16 (15) So the nations will fear ADONAI's Name and all the kings of the earth Your glory.
 17 (16) For ADONAI has rebuilt Zion.
 He has appeared in His glory.
 18 (17) He has turned to the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer.
 19 (18) Let it be written for a generation to come,
 that a people to be created may praise ADONAI.
 20 (19) For He looks down from His holy height, from heaven ADONAI gazes on the earth, 21 (20) to hear the groaning of the prisoner, to set free those condemned to death, 22 (21) to declare the Name of ADONAI in Zion and His praise in Jerusalem, 23 (22) when the peoples and the kingdoms assemble to worship ADONAI.
 24 (23) He brought down my strength in midcourse.
 He shortened my days.
 25 (24) I say, "My God, do not take me up in the middle of my days.
 Your years endure through all generations!
 26 (25) Long ago You founded the earth,
 the heavens are the work of Your hands.
 27 (26) They will perish, but You will remain.
 All of them will wear out like a garment.
 Like clothing You change them, so they change.
 28 (27) But You are the same,
 and Your years will never end.
 29 (28) The children of Your servants will live.
 Their descendants will be established before You."

As a Father Has Compassion

103 (0) Of David.
 (1) Bless ADONAI, O my soul,
 and all that is within me, bless His holy Name.
 2 Bless ADONAI, O my soul,
 and forget not all His benefits:
 3 He forgives all your iniquity.
 He heals all your diseases.
 4 He redeems your life from the Pit.
 He crowns you with lovingkindness and compassions.
 5 He satisfies your years with good things,
 so that your youth is renewed like an eagle.
 6 ADONAI executes justice—judgments for all who are oppressed.
 7 He made His ways known to Moses,
 His deeds to the children of Israel.

8 ADONAI is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, and plentiful in mercy.
 9 He will not always accuse, nor will He keep His anger forever.
 10 He has not treated us according to our sins, or repaid us according to our iniquities.
 11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth,
 so great is His mercy for those who fear Him.
 12 As far as the east is from the west,
 so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
 13 As a father has compassion on his children, so ADONAI has compassion on those who fear Him.
 14 For He knows our frame.
 He remembers that we are but dust.
 15 As for man, his days are like grass—
 he flourishes like a flower of the field, 16 but when the wind blows over it, it is gone, and its place is no longer known.
 17 But the mercy of ADONAI is from everlasting to everlasting on those who revere Him,
 His righteousness to children's children, 18 to those who keep His covenant, who remember to observe His instructions.
 19 ADONAI has set up His throne in the heavens, and His kingdom rules over all.
 20 Bless ADONAI, you angels of His:
 mighty in strength, performing His word,
 upon hearing the utterance of His word.
 21 Bless ADONAI, all you His armies,
 His servants who do His will.
 22 Bless ADONAI, all His works everywhere in His dominion.
 Bless ADONAI, O my soul!

ADONAI Rejoices in His Works!

104 Bless ADONAI, O my soul.
ADONAI my God, You are very great!
 You are clothed with splendor and majesty—
 2 wrapping Yourself in light as a robe, stretching out heaven like a curtain,
 3 laying beams for His upper rooms in waters, making the clouds His chariot, walking on the wings of the wind,
 4 making His angels spirits,
 His servants a flaming fire.
 5 He set the earth upon its foundations, so it should not totter forever and ever.
 6 You covered it with the deep as with a garment—the waters standing above the mountains.
 7 At Your rebuke the waters fled.
 At the sound of Your thunder they hurried away.
 8 The waters go up the mountains, then down to the valleys—
 to the place that You assigned to them.
 9 You set a boundary to the waters that they may not cross over, so they may not return to cover the earth.

10 You make springs gush into the valleys.
 They run between the mountains.
 11 They give drink to all the beasts of the field—
 the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
 12 Beside them the birds of the sky dwell—they sing among the branches.
 13 He waters mountains from His upper rooms.
 The earth is full of the fruit of Your labors.
 14 He causes grass to spring up for the cattle, and vegetation for man to cultivate,
 to bring forth bread out of the earth, 15 wine that makes man's heart glad,
 oil to make his face shine,
 and bread that sustains man's heart.
 16 The trees of ADONAI are satisfied,
 the cedars of Lebanon that He planted, 17 where birds make their nests,
 and the stork—her home is the fir trees.
 18 The high mountains are for wild goats,
 the cliffs a refuge for rock badgers.
 19 He made the moon for appointed times,
 the sun knows its going down.
 20 You bring darkness, so it becomes night,
 when all the beasts of the forest prowl.
 21 The young lions roar for prey, seeking their food from God.
 22 But when the sun rises, they gather and lie down in their dens.
 23 Man goes out to his work,
 and to his labor until the evening.
 24 ADONAI, how countless are Your works!
 In wisdom You made them all—the earth is full of Your creatures.
 25 There is the sea, vast and wide, teeming with gliding things innumerable,
 living creatures, both small and large.
 26 There, ships go to and fro.
 Leviathan—You formed to frolic there.
 27 They all look to You to give them their food at the right time.
 28 When You give it to them, they gather it up.
 When You open Your hand, they are satisfied with good.
 29 But when You hide Your face—they are dismayed.
 You take away their breath—they perish,
 and return to their dust.
 30 You send forth Your Ruach—they are created, and You renew the face of the earth.
 31 May the glory of ADONAI endure forever!
 May ADONAI rejoice in His works!
 32 He looks at the earth, and it trembles.
 He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
 33 I will sing to ADONAI as long as I live!
 I will sing praise to my God yet again!
 34 Let my meditation be sweet to Him.
 I—I will rejoice in ADONAI.
 35 Let sinners vanish from the earth and let the wicked be no more.

Bless ADONAI, O my soul. Halleluyah!

Tell His Wonders for Israel

105 Praise ADONAI, call upon His Name.
 Make known His deeds among the peoples.
 2 Sing to Him, sing praises to Him—tell about all His wonders!
 3 Glory in His holy Name.
 Let the heart of those who seek ADONAI rejoice.
 4 Seek ADONAI and His strength, seek His face always.
 5 Remember His wonders that He has done,
 His miracles and the judgments of His mouth,
 6 O seed of Abraham, His servant,
 O children of Jacob, His chosen ones.
 7 He is ADONAI our God.
 His judgments are in all the earth.
 8 He remembers His covenant forever—
 the word He commanded for a thousand generations—
 9 which He made with Abraham, and swore to Isaac,
 10 and confirmed to Jacob as a decree,
 to Israel as an everlasting covenant, 11 saying, "To you I give the land of Canaan, the portion of your inheritance."
 12 When they were but few in number, few indeed, and foreigners in it, † 13 wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people, 14 He allowed no one to oppress them—
 for their sake He rebuked kings: 15 "Touch not My anointed ones, and do My prophets no harm."
 16 He called down a famine on the land.
 He broke the whole supply of bread.
 17 He sent a man before them—
 Joseph, sold as a slave.
 18 They hurt His feet with shackles,
 he was put in irons—19 till the time that his word came true—
 the word of ADONAI proved him true!
 20 The king sent and released him.
 The ruler of the peoples set him free.
 21 He made him lord of his house, ruler over all his possessions, 22 to discipline his princes at his will,
 and teach his elders wisdom.
 23 Then Israel came into Egypt,
 Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
 24 He made His people very fruitful, and made them more numerous than their foes.
 25 He turned their hearts to hate His people, to deal shrewdly with His servants.
 26 He sent Moses His servant, and Aaron, whom He had chosen.
 27 They performed His signs among them

† cf. Heb. 11:9.

—miracles in the land of Ham.
²⁸ He sent darkness, and it was dark,
 so they did not rebel against His words.
²⁹ He turned their waters into blood, causing their fish to die.
³⁰ Their land swarmed with frogs, even in their royal chambers.
³¹ He spoke, and a swarm of gnats came within all their borders.
³² He gave them a rain of hail, flames of fire throughout their land.
³³ He struck their vines and their fig trees and shattered the trees of their country.
³⁴ He spoke, and the locust came —young locusts without number—³⁵ to eat up every green thing in their land and eat up the fruit of their ground.
³⁶ Then He struck all the firstborn in their land,
 the firstfruits of all their vigor.
³⁷ Then He brought them out with silver and gold, and no one among His tribes faltered.
³⁸ Egypt was glad when they left—for dread of them had fallen on them.
³⁹ He spread a cloud as a covering and fire to give light at night.
⁴⁰ They asked, and He brought quail, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven. † ⁴¹ He opened a rock, and waters gushed out, flowed as a river in dry places.
⁴² For He remembered His holy word to Abraham His servant.
⁴³ So He brought forth His people with joy,
 His chosen ones with singing.
⁴⁴ He gave them the lands of the nations, so they inherited the labor of the peoples ⁴⁵ so that they might keep His statutes and observe His laws.
Halleluyah!

ADONAI Still Faithful to Israel

106 Halleluyah!
 Praise ADONAI, for He is good,
 for His lovingkindness endures forever.
² Who can speak of ADONAI's mighty acts or declare His praise?
³ Blessed are those who maintain justice, who do what is right at all times.
⁴ Remember me, ADONAI, when You show favor to Your people.
 Visit me with Your salvation,
⁵ so I may behold the prosperity of Your chosen ones, exult in the joy of Your nation,
 and give praise with Your inheritance.
⁶ We have sinned with our fathers,
 we have committed iniquity,
 we have acted wickedly.
⁷ Our fathers in Egypt did not ponder Your wonders.

† cf. John 6:31-40.

Nor did they remember Your abundant lovingkind-
 ness,
 but rebelled by the sea—at the Sea of Reeds.
⁸ Yet He saved them for His Name's sake, to make His mighty power known.
⁹ He rebuked the Sea of Reeds and it dried up, and He led them through the depths as through a wilderness.
¹⁰ So He saved them from the hand of those who hated them,
 redeemed them from the enemy's hand.
¹¹ The waters covered their adversaries—not one of them was left.
¹² Then they believed His words.
 They were singing His praise.
¹³ How quickly they forgot His works, and would not wait for His counsel!
¹⁴ In the wilderness they craved ravenously, in the desert they tested God.
¹⁵ So He gave them what they asked for,
 but sent a wasting disease among them.
¹⁶ Then they envied Moses in the camp, and also Aaron, the holy one of ADONAI.
¹⁷ The earth opened up, swallowed Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.
¹⁸ Also a fire blazed in their company, a flame consumed the wicked.
¹⁹ They made a calf in Horeb and worshiped a molten image.
²⁰ Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a grass-eating ox.
²¹ They forgot God their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt—²² miracles in the land of Ham, awesome things by the Sea of Reeds.
²³ So He commanded their extermination, had not Moses, His chosen one, stood in the breach before Him,
 to turn His wrath from destroying them.
²⁴ Then they scorned the pleasing land—
 they did not trust in His word.
²⁵ Instead, they grumbled in their tents.
 They would not listen to ADONAI's voice.
²⁶ Therefore He swore to them that He would make them fall in the desert, ²⁷ and disperse their offspring among the nations, and scatter them through the lands.
²⁸ Then they yoked themselves to Baal of Peor, and ate the sacrifices of dead things.
²⁹ So they provoked Him with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them.
³⁰ But Phinehas stood up and intervened,
 so the plague was stopped.
³¹ It was credited to him as righteousness, from generation to generation forever.
³² By the waters of Meribah they angered Him, and trouble came on Moses because of them.

³³ For they embittered his spirit and he spoke rashly with his lips.
³⁴ They did not destroy the peoples, as ADONAI had commanded them.
³⁵ Instead they mingled with the nations and learned their practices.
³⁶ They worshiped their idols, which became a snare to them.
³⁷ They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
³⁸ They shed innocent blood—
 the blood of their sons and their daughters, sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.
 So the land was desecrated with blood.
³⁹ So they defiled themselves by their deeds, and prostituted themselves by their practices.
⁴⁰ Therefore the anger of ADONAI was kindled against His people,
 and He abhorred His inheritance.
⁴¹ He handed them to the nations—those who hated them ruled over them.
⁴² Their enemies oppressed them, so they were subdued under their hand.
⁴³ Many times He delivered them, but they kept rebelling deliberately,
 and so sank low into their iniquity.
⁴⁴ Yet He saw their distress,
 when He heard their cry, ⁴⁵ remembered His covenant to them, † and relented in the greatness of His mercy.
⁴⁶ He caused them to be pitied in the presence of all their captors.
⁴⁷ Save us, ADONAI our God, and gather us from the nations,
 so we may praise Your holy Name and triumph in Your praise.
⁴⁸ Blessed be ADONAI, the God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting!
 Let all the people say, " Amen! "
Halleluyah!

His Chesed and His Wonders

107 Praise ADONAI, for He is good,
 for His lovingkindness endures forever.
² Let the redeemed of ADONAI say so—whom He redeemed from the hand of the foe, ³ whom He gathered out of the lands, from the east and from the west,
 from the north and from the sea.
⁴ Some wandered in a desert, a wasteland.
 They found no way to an inhabited city.
⁵ Hungry and thirsty, their souls ebbed away.
⁶ So they cried out to ADONAI in their distress,
 and He delivered them out of their troubles.
⁷ Then He led them by a straight way to go to a city where they could live.

† cf. Luke 1:67-79.

⁸ Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy
 and His wonders for the children of men, ⁹ for He satisfies the thirsty soul and fills the hungry soul with goodness.
¹⁰ Some sat in darkness and deep gloom, prisoners in misery and iron chains, ¹¹ for they had defied God's words, and spurned the counsel of Elyon.
¹² So He humbled their heart with trouble.
 They stumbled, and no one was helping.
¹³ So they cried out to ADONAI in their distress,
 and He delivered them out of their troubles.
¹⁴ He brought them out of darkness and deep gloom, breaking their chains.
¹⁵ Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy,
 and His wonders for the children of men, ¹⁶ for He shattered bronze gates, and broke into pieces iron bars.
¹⁷ Some became fools because of their rebellious ways,
 and were afflicted due to their iniquities.
¹⁸ Their soul abhorred all food,
 and they drew near the gates of death.
¹⁹ So they cried out to ADONAI in their distress,
 and He delivered them out of their troubles.
²⁰ He sent His word and healed them,
 and rescued them from their pits.
²¹ Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy,
 and His wonders for the children of men.
²² Let them sacrifice thank offerings and tell of His works with joyful singing.
²³ Some go out to the sea in ships, doing business on the mighty waters.
²⁴ They saw the works of ADONAI, and His wonders in the deep.
²⁵ For He spoke and raised a stormy wind, lifting up towering waves.
²⁶ They mounted up to the sky and plunged down to the depths.
 In their peril their souls melted away.
²⁷ They reeled and staggered like a drunk, and all their skill was bewildered.
²⁸ So they cried out to ADONAI in their distress, and He brought them out of their troubles.
²⁹ He stilled the storm to a whisper—the waves were hushed. †† ³⁰ They were glad when it became calm, and He led them to their desired haven.
³¹ Let them praise ADONAI for His mercy, and His wonders to the children of men.
³² Let them exalt Him in the congregation of the people,
 and praise Him at the assembly of elders.
³³ He turns rivers into a wilderness and springs of water into thirsty ground, ³⁴ and a fruitful land into a salt waste, because of the evil of its inhabitants.

†† cf. Luke 8:24-25.

35 He turns a desert into a pool of water, a dry land into springs of water.
36 There He brings the hungry to live, and they establish a city for a dwelling.
37 So they sow fields and plant vineyards that yield a fruitful harvest.
38 He blesses them, they multiply greatly,
and He does not let their herds diminish, 39 after they were few and crushed by oppression, calamity, and sorrow.
40 He pours contempt on princes, making them wander in trackless waste.
41 But He lifts the needy high above affliction, and makes their families like a flock.
42 The upright see it and are glad,
and all iniquity shuts its mouth.
43 Who is wise?
Let him observe these things, and consider ADONAI's lovingkindness.

With God We Do Valiantly

108 (0) A song, a psalm of David.
2 (1) My heart is steadfast, O God.
I will sing, sing praises with all my soul.
3 (2) Awake, harp and lyre—
I will awaken the dawn!
4 (3) I will give thanks to You, ADONAI, among the peoples,
I will sing praises to You among the nations.
5 (4) For Your love is higher than the heavens,
Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
6 (5) Be exalted, O God, above the heavens,
let Your glory be above all the earth.
7 (6) Let Your beloved ones be delivered.
Save with Your right hand, answer me!
8 (7) God has spoken in His Sanctuary:
"I will triumph! I will parcel out Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succot.
9 (8) Gilead is Mine, Manasseh is Mine.
Also Ephraim is a helmet for My head,
Judah is My scepter.
10 (9) Moab is My washbowl.
I throw My shoe on Edom.
I shout in triumph over Philistia."
11 (10) Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
12 (11) O God, have You not spurned us?
Will You go out no more with our armies?
13 (12) Give us help against the adversary—for useless is deliverance through man.
14 (13) With God we will do valiantly—
and He will trample our foes.

Prayer against an Accuser

109 (0) For the music director, a psalm of David.
(1) O God of my praise, be not silent.
2 For the wicked and the deceitful have opened their mouth against me.

They spoke to me with a lying tongue,
3 with hateful words surrounded me,
and fought against me without cause.
4 In return for my love they are my accusers, but I am in prayer.
5 They repay me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.
6 Set a wicked man over him, let an accuser † stand at his right hand.
7 When he is judged,
let him be found guilty,
and may his prayer be as sin.
8 Let his days be few,
let another take his position.
9 May his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
10 Let his children wander and beg and may they search in their ruins.
11 Let a creditor seize all he has,
and may strangers plunder his labor.
12 Let no one show him mercy, or take pity on his fatherless children.
13 Let his posterity be cut off, and his name be blotted out in the next generation.
14 May the guilt of his fathers be remembered before
ADONAI,
the sin of his mother never blotted out.
15 Let their sins be before ADONAI continually, that He may cut off the memory of them from the earth.
16 For he never remembered to show mercy.
But he persecuted a poor and needy man, crushed in spirit, to put him to death.
17 How he loved cursing—
may it fall on him!
He had no pleasure in blessing—
may it be far from him!
18 He wore cursing like his robe, until it filled his belly like water, and his bones like oil.
19 May it be like a cloak wrapped around him, like a belt tied around him always.
20 Let this be ADONAI's reward to my accusers, and to those who speak evil against me.
21 But You, ADONAI my Lord, deal with me for Your Name's sake.
Because Your lovingkindness is good, deliver me.
22 For I am afflicted and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
23 I fade away like an evening shadow, shaken off like a locust.
24 My knees totter from fasting, and my flesh is lean, with no fat.
25 And I have become a taunt to them.
When they see me, they wag their head.
26 Help me, ADONAI my God,
Save me through Your lovingkindness.

† Hebrew satan

27 Let them know that it is Your hand—that You, ADONAI, have done it.
28 They may curse, but You bless.
When they arise, they will be ashamed,
but Your servant will rejoice.
29 My accusers will be clothed in disgrace, and wrapped in shame as in a cloak.
30 I will greatly thank ADONAI with my mouth, and in the midst of a throng will I praise Him.
31 For He stands at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who condemn his soul.

My Lord Is a Kohen Forever

110 (0) A psalm of David.
(1) ADONAI declares to my Lord:
"Sit at My right hand
until I make your enemies a footstool for Your feet."[†] 2 ADONAI will extend your mighty rod from Zion:
"Rule in the midst of your enemies."^{††} 3 Your people will be a freewill offering in a day of your power.
In holy splendors, from dawn's womb,
yours is the dew of your youth.
4 ADONAI has sworn, and will not change His mind:
"You are a Kohen forever according to the order of Melchizedek."[‡]
5 My Lord is at your right hand.
He will shatter kings in the day of His wrath.
6 He will judge among the nations, heaping up corpses.
He will crush heads over the entire land.
7 He will drink from a stream along the way
—so His head will be exalted.

The Beginning of Wisdom

111 Halleluyah! I praise ADONAI with all my heart in the company and congregation of the upright.
2 Great are the works of ADONAI — searched out by all who delight in them.
3 Glorious and majestic is His work,
and His righteousness endures forever.
4 He made His wonders memorable.
ADONAI is gracious and full of compassion.
5 He gives food to those who fear Him.
He remembers His covenant forever.
6 He shows His people His powerful deeds, giving them the heritage of the nations.
7 The works of His hands are truth and justice.
All His precepts are trustworthy—8 they are upheld forever and ever, made in truth and uprightness.
9 He has sent redemption to His people.
He has ordained His covenant forever.
Holy and awesome is His Name.

[†] cf. Matt. 22:44; Acts 2:34-35; 1 Cor. 15:25; Heb. 1:13. ^{††} cf.
Heb. 1:8; Rev. 12:5; 19:15. [‡] cf. Heb. 5:6, 10; 6:20; 7:17, 21.

10 The fear of ADONAI is the beginning of wisdom.
All who follow His precepts have good understanding.
His praise endures forever!

Blessed Is the Righteous Man

112 Halleluyah! Happy is the man who fears
ADONAI,
who delights greatly in His mitzvot.
2 His offspring will be mighty in the land.
The generation of the upright will be blessed.
3 Wealth and riches are in his house,
and his righteousness endures forever.
4 Light shines in the darkness for the upright.
Gracious, compassionate, and just is he.
5 Good comes to a man who is gracious and lends.
He will order his affairs with fairness.
6 Surely he will never be shaken.
The righteous are remembered forever.
7 He is not afraid of bad news—
his heart is steadfast, trusting in ADONAI.
8 His heart is secure, he will not fear—until he gazes on his foes.
9 He gives freely to the poor.
His righteousness endures forever.
His horn is lifted high in honor.
10 The wicked will see it and be indignant.
He will gnash with his teeth and waste away.
The desire of the wicked will perish.

From the Rising of the Sun

113 Halleluyah! Praise, O servants of ADONAI, praise the Name of ADONAI.
2 Blessed be the Name of ADONAI from now and forever.
3 From the rising of the sun to its going down the Name of ADONAI is to be praised.
4 ADONAI is high above all nations,
His glory is above the heavens.
5 Who is like ADONAI our God, enthroned on high,
6 who brings Himself down to look upon heaven and upon earth?
7 He raises the poor from the dust, lifts up the needy out of the dunghill, 8 to seat him with princes, with the princes of His people.
9 He settles the barren woman in her home as a joyful mother of children.
Halleluyah!

Passover Song

114 When Israel came out of Egypt,
Jacob's house from a people foreign-speaking,
2 Judah became His Sanctuary, Israel His dominion.
3 The sea saw and fled,

the Jordan turned back.
 4 The mountains skipped like rams,
 the hills like lambs.
 5 Why was it, O sea, that you fled?
 O Jordan, that you turned back?
 6 O mountains, that you skipped like rams?
 O hills, like lambs?
 7 Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord,
 at the presence of the God of Jacob, 8 who turned the rock into a pool of water,
 the flint into a spring of water.

Bless the Maker of Heaven and Earth

115 Not to us, ADONAI, not to us, but to Your Name be the glory—
 because of Your love and Your faithfulness.
 2 Why should the nations say:
 “Where is their God now?”
 3 Our God is in the heavens—
 He does whatever pleases Him!
 4 Their idols are silver and gold,
 the work of human hands.
 5 They have mouths, but cannot speak;
 eyes, but cannot see.
 6 They have ears, but cannot hear;
 noses, but cannot smell.
 7 They have hands, but cannot feel;
 feet, but cannot walk,
 nor utter a sound with their throat.
 8 Those making them will become like them
 —everyone trusting in them.
 9 O Israel, trust in ADONAI —
 He is their help and their shield!
 10 O house of Aaron, trust in ADONAI —
 He is their help and their shield!
 11 O you who fear ADONAI, trust in ADONAI —
 He is their help and their shield!
 12 ADONAI has been mindful of us,
 He will bless:
 He will bless the house of Israel;
 He will bless the house of Aaron;
 13 He will bless those who fear ADONAI, the small together with the great.
 14 May ADONAI increase you more and more
 —you and your children.
 15 May you be blessed by ADONAI, Maker of heaven and earth.
 16 The heavens are the heavens of ADONAI,
 but the earth He gave to the children of men.
 17 The dead do not praise ADONAI, nor do any who go down into silence.
 18 But we—we will bless ADONAI
 both now and forever. Halleluyah!

Lift up the Cup of Salvation

116 I love ADONAI, for He hears my voice, my cries.

2 Because He has turned His ear to me,
 I will call on Him all my days.
 3 The ropes of death entangled me,
 and the torments of Sheol found me.
 I found trouble and sorrow.
 4 Then I called upon the Name of ADONAI:
 “ADONAI, save my soul!”
 5 ADONAI is gracious and righteous—
 yes, our God is compassionate.
 6 ADONAI protects the simple-hearted.
 When I was brought low, He saved me.
 7 Return to your rest, my soul,
 for ADONAI has been good to you.
 8 For You delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears,
 my feet from stumbling.
 9 I will walk before ADONAI
 in the lands of the living.
 10 I trusted even when I said,
 “I am very afflicted”—
 11 even when I said in my haste,
 “All men are liars.”
 12 How can I repay ADONAI
 for all His bounties to me?
 13 I will lift up the cup of salvation, and call on the Name of ADONAI.
 14 I will fulfill my vows to ADONAI
 in the presence of all His people.
 15 Precious in the sight of ADONAI is the death of His kedoshim.
 16 O ADONAI! Surely I am Your servant.
 I am Your servant,
 the son of Your maidservant.
 You have freed me from my bonds.
 17 To You I will offer a sacrifice of praise, and will call on the Name of ADONAI.
 18 I will fulfill my vows to ADONAI
 in the presence of all His people, 19 in the courts of the House of ADONAI, in your midst, O Jerusalem. Halleluyah!

Praise Him, All You Nations

117 Praise ADONAI, all you nations!
 Glorify Him, all you people.
 2 For great is His lovingkindness toward us, and ADONAI's truth endures forever.
Halleluyah!

His Chesed Endures Forever

118 Praise † ADONAI, for He is good.
 For His lovingkindness endures forever.
 2 O let Israel say:
 “For His lovingkindness endures forever.”
 3 O let the house of Aaron say:
 “For His lovingkindness endures forever.”
 4 O let those who fear ADONAI say:

† Hebrew hodu Give thanks to

“For His lovingkindness endures forever.”
 5 Out of a tight place I called on ADONAI —
ADONAI answered me with a spacious place.
 6 ADONAI is for me—I will not fear!
 What can man do to me?
 7 ADONAI is for me, as my helper.
 I will see the downfall of those who hate me.
 8 It is better to take refuge in ADONAI
 than to trust in man.
 9 It is better to take refuge in ADONAI
 than to trust in princes.
 10 All nations surrounded me—
 in the Name of ADONAI I cut them off.
 11 They surrounded me, yes, all around me—
 in the Name of ADONAI I cut them off.
 12 They swarmed around me like bees—they were extinguished like burning thorns—
 in the Name of ADONAI I cut them off.
 13 You pushed me hard to make me fall,
 but ADONAI helped me.
 14 ADONAI is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation. † 15 Shouts of joy and victory are in the tents of the righteous:
 “ADONAI’s right hand is mighty! ††
 16 ADONAI’s right hand is lifted high!
ADONAI’s right hand is mighty!”
 17 I will not die, but live, and proclaim what ADONAI has done!
 18 ADONAI has chastened me hard,
 but has not given me over to death.
 19 Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and praise ADONAI .
 20 This is the gate of ADONAI — the righteous will enter through it. ‡ 21 I give You thanks, because You have answered me and have become my salvation.
 22 The stone the builders rejected has become the capstone. †† 23 It is from ADONAI :
 it is marvelous in our eyes!
 24 This is the day that ADONAI has made!
 Let us rejoice and be glad in it!
 25 Hoshia-na! Please, ADONAI , save now!
 We beseech You, ADONAI , prosper us!
 26 Baruch ha-Ba b'Shem ADONAI —
 Blessed is He who comes in the Name of ADONAI . ††
 We bless you from the House of ADONAI .
 27 ADONAI is God, and He has given us light.
 Join the festival with branches, up to the horns of the altar. †††
 28 You are my God, and I praise You.
 You are my God—I exalt You!
 29 Praise ADONAI , for He is good,

ALEPH א

119 Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the Torah of ADONAI .
 2 Happy are those who keep His testimonies, who seek Him with a whole heart,
 3 who also do no injustice, but walk in His ways.
 4 You have commanded that Your precepts be kept diligently.
 5 Oh that my ways were steadfast to observe Your decrees!
 6 Then I would not be ashamed, when I consider all Your mitzvot .
 7 I will praise You with an upright heart as I learn Your righteous judgments.
 8 I will observe Your statutes.
 Never abandon me utterly!

BET ב

9 How can a young man keep his way pure?
 By guarding it according to Your word.
 10 With my whole heart have I sought You —let me not stray from Your mitzvot .
 11 I have treasured Your word in my heart,
 so I might not sin against You.
 12 Blessed are You, ADONAI .
 Teach me Your statutes.
 13 With my lips I rehearse
 all the rulings of Your mouth.
 14 I rejoice in the way of Your testimonies above all wealth.
 15 I will meditate on Your precepts, and regard Your ways.
 16 I will delight in Your decrees.
 I will never forget Your word.

GIMEL ג

17 Do good to Your servant that I may live and keep Your word.
 18 Open my eyes, so I may behold wonders from Your Torah .
 19 I am a temporary dweller on earth—
 do not hide Your mitzvot from me.
 20 My soul is crushed with longing for Your judgments at all times.
 21 You rebuke the proud, who are cursed, who wander from Your mitzvot .
 22 Take scorn and contempt away from me, for I have kept Your testimonies.
 23 Though princes sit and talk against me,
 Your servant meditates on Your decrees.
 24 For Your testimonies are my delight—they are also my counselors.

DALET ט

25 My soul clings to the dust.
 Revive me according to Your word!
 26 I told of my ways and You answered me.
 Teach me Your statutes.
 27 Help me discern the way of Your precepts, so I may meditate on Your wonders.
 28 My soul weeps with grief.
 Make me stand firm with Your word.
 29 Turn me away from the deceitful way, and be gracious to me with Your Torah .
 30 I have chosen the way of faithfulness.
 I have set my heart on Your judgments.
 31 I cling to Your testimonies.
ADONAI , do not put me to shame!
 32 I run the course of Your mitzvot , for You open wide my heart.

HEY ה

33 Teach me the way of Your decrees, ADONAI , and I will follow them to the end.
 34 Give me understanding, that I may keep Your Torah and observe it with all my heart.
 35 Help me walk in the path of Your mitzvot — for I delight in it.
 36 Turn my heart to Your testimonies and not to dishonest gain.
 37 Turn my eyes away from gazing at vanity
 but revive me in Your ways.
 38 Fulfill Your word to Your servant, which leads to reverence for You.
 39 Make the disgrace I dread pass away, for Your judgments are good.
 40 Behold, I long for Your precepts.
 Revive me by Your righteousness.

VAV ו

41 May Your lovingkindnesses come to me, ADONAI —
 Your salvation according to Your word—42 so I may answer the one taunting me, for I trust in Your word.
 43 Never snatch out of my mouth a word of truth, for I hope in Your judgments.
 44 So I may always keep Your Torah ,
 forever and ever,
 45 and walk about in freedom.
 For I have sought Your precepts.
 46 I will speak of Your testimonies before kings, and never be ashamed.
 47 I delight in Your mitzvot , which I love.
 48 I reach out my hands for Your mitzvot ,
 which I love,
 and meditate on Your decrees.

ZAYIN ז

49 Remember the word to Your servant, on which You have made me hope.
 50 My comfort in my affliction is this:
 Your word has kept me alive.
 51 The arrogant have viciously ridiculed me, yet I did not turn away from Your Torah .
 52 I remember Your judgments from of old,
ADONAI , and comfort myself.
 53 Burning indignation grips me, because of the wicked who forsake Your Torah .
 54 Your decrees have become my songs in the house where I dwell.
 55 In the night I remember Your Name, ADONAI , and keep watching over Your Torah .
 56 This is my own:
 that I keep Your precepts.

CHET ח

57 ADONAI is my portion.
 I promised to guard Your words.
 58 I have entreated Your favor with all my heart.
 Be gracious to me according to Your word.
 59 I have considered my ways and turned my feet back to Your testimonies.
 60 I hasten and do not delay to obey Your mitzvot .
 61 The ropes of the wicked are coiled around me, but I did not forget Your Torah .
 62 At midnight I rise to praise You, because of Your righteous rulings.
 63 I am a companion of all who fear You,
 of those who observe Your precepts.
 64 The earth is full of Your lovingkindness.
ADONAI —teach me Your decrees.

TET ט

65 You do good to Your servant,
ADONAI , according to Your word.
 66 Teach me good sense and knowledge, for I trusted in Your mitzvot .
 67 Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep Your word.
 68 You are good and keep doing good—teach me Your decrees.
 69 Though the proud smeared a lie on me,
 with all my heart I keep Your precepts.
 70 Their minds are insensible, but Your Torah is my delight.
 71 It is good for me that I was afflicted,
 so that I may learn Your decrees.
 72 The Torah from Your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

YOD י

73 Your hands have made me and formed me.

Give me understanding that I may learn Your mitzvot

⁷⁴ Those in awe of You see me and rejoice, because I put my hope in Your word.
⁷⁵ I know, ADONAI, Your judgments are just.
In faithfulness You have afflicted me.
⁷⁶ May Your lovingkindness comfort me,
according to Your promise to Your servant.
⁷⁷ Let Your tender mercies reach me,
Let me live, for Your Torah is my delight.
⁷⁸ May the proud be put to shame for wronging me with a lie, but I will meditate on Your precepts.
⁷⁹ Let those in awe of You return to me—
those who know Your testimonies.
⁸⁰ My heart will have integrity in following Your decrees,
so that I would not be ashamed.

KAF כ

⁸¹ My soul faints with longing for Your salvation, but I still hope in Your word.
⁸² My eyes are worn out longing for Your promise, saying, "When will You comfort me?"
⁸³ Though I became like a wineskin dried in smoke,
I do not forget Your decrees.
⁸⁴ How many are the days of Your servant?
When will You execute judgment on my persecutors?
⁸⁵ The proud have dug pits for me—that is not in accord with Your Torah!
⁸⁶ All Your mitzvot are faithful.
They persecute me with a lie—help me!
⁸⁷ They almost finished me off on earth.
But I—I will not forsake Your precepts.
⁸⁸ Revive me with Your lovingkindness, so I may keep Your mouth's testimony.

LAMED ל

⁸⁹ Forever, ADONAI,
Your word stands firm in the heavens.
⁹⁰ Your faithfulness endures from generation to generation.
You established the earth, and it stands.
⁹¹ Your judgments stand today,
for all things are Your servants.
⁹² If Your Torah had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.
⁹³ I will never forget Your precepts.
For with them You have kept me alive.
⁹⁴ I am Yours, save me!
For I have sought out Your precepts.
⁹⁵ The wicked wait for me to destroy me.
But I will study Your testimonies.
⁹⁶ I have seen a limit to all perfection, yet Your commandment is boundless.

MEM מ

⁹⁷ O how I love Your Torah!
It is my meditation all day.
⁹⁸ Your mitzvot make me wiser than my enemies —for they are mine forever.
⁹⁹ I have more insight than all my teachers, for Your testimonies are my meditation.
¹⁰⁰ I have gained more understanding than all my elders,
for I have kept Your precepts.
¹⁰¹ I kept my feet from every evil way,
in order to follow Your word.
¹⁰² I do not turn away from Your rulings, for You Yourself have taught me.
¹⁰³ How sweet is Your word to my taste—
yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
¹⁰⁴ From Your precepts I get discernment, therefore I hate every false way.

NUN נ

¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. † ¹⁰⁶ I have sworn and confirmed to observe Your righteous rulings.
¹⁰⁷ I am severely afflicted.
Keep me alive, ADONAI, according to Your word.
¹⁰⁸ Please accept the freewill offerings of my mouth,
ADONAI,
and teach me Your rulings.
¹⁰⁹ My soul is continually in danger,
yet I have not forgotten Your Torah.
¹¹⁰ The wicked have set a snare for me,
yet I did not stray from Your precepts.
¹¹¹ Your testimonies I have as a heritage forever, for they are my heart's joy.
¹¹² I turned my heart to do Your decrees, forever, to the very end.

SAMECH ס

¹¹³ I hate double-minded ones,
but Your Torah I love.
¹¹⁴ You are my hiding place and my shield
—in Your word I hope.
¹¹⁵ Away from me, evildoers,
so I may keep the mitzvot of my God!
¹¹⁶ Sustain me according to Your word, so I may live, and let me not be ashamed of my hope.
¹¹⁷ Support me and I will be saved, and study Your decrees continually.
¹¹⁸ You despise all who wander from Your decrees, for their deceitfulness is in vain.
¹¹⁹ All the wicked of the earth You remove like dross.
Therefore I love Your testimonies.
¹²⁰ My flesh shudders for fear of You, and I am in awe of Your judgments.

† cf. John 8:12; 12:35.

AYIN ׀

121 I did what is just and right.
 Do not leave me to my oppressors.
 122 Guarantee Your servant's well-being.
 Do not let arrogant ones oppress me.
 123 My eyes fail, longing for Your salvation and for Your righteous word.
 124 Deal with Your servant as befits Your lovingkind-
 ness,
 and teach me Your statutes.
 125 I am Your servant, give me discernment, so I may understand Your testimonies.
 126 It is time for ADONAI to act—
 they have violated Your Torah !
 127 Therefore I love Your mitzvot more than gold, more than pure gold.
 128 Therefore I esteem all Your precepts as right in every way
 —every false way I hate.

PE פ

129 Your testimonies are wonderful.
 Therefore my soul obeys them.
 130 The unfolding of Your words gives light, giving understanding to the simple.
 131 I opened my mouth wide and panted, for I longed for Your mitzvot .
 132 Turn to me and be gracious to me, as is fitting to those who love Your Name.
 133 Direct my footsteps in Your word, and let no iniquity get mastery over me.
 134 Redeem me from human oppression, and I will keep Your precepts.
 135 Make Your face shine on Your servant, and teach me Your decrees.
 136 Streams of water run down from my eyes, because they do not observe Your Torah .

TZADEE צ

137 Righteous are You, ADONAI , and Your judgments are upright.
 138 You have commanded righteousness,
 Your testimonies, and great faithfulness.
 139 My zeal has consumed me, because my foes forgot Your words.
 140 Your word is thoroughly refined,
 and Your servant loves it.
 141 I am insignificant and despised, yet I have not forgotten Your precepts.
 142 Your justice is righteousness forever, and Your Torah is truth.
 143 Trouble and anguish have overtaken me,
 yet Your mitzvot are my delight.
 144 Your testimonies are righteous forever
 —make me understand, so I may live.

KOF ק

145 I cried out with all my heart,
 "Answer me, ADONAI !
 I will keep Your decrees."
 146 I cried out to You, "Save me, and I will keep Your testimonies."
 147 I am up before dawn, crying for help—
 I put my hope in Your word.
 148 My eyes are up before every night watch,
 as I meditate on Your word.
 149 Hear my voice with Your lovingkindness.
 Revive me, ADONAI , with Your judgments.
 150 Pursuers of wicked schemes draw near—they are far from Your Torah .
 151 You are near, ADONAI , and all Your mitzvot are truth.
 152 Long ago I learned from Your testimonies that You founded them firmly forever.

RESH ר

153 See my affliction and rescue me, for I do not forget Your Torah .
 154 Defend my cause and redeem me.
 Restore my life through Your word.
 155 Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek after Your decrees.
 156 Great are Your mercies, ADONAI .
 Restore my life with Your judgments.
 157 Many are my persecutors and my foes.
 Yet I do not turn from Your testimonies.
 158 I see the treacherous and loathe them, because they do not keep Your word.
 159 See how I loved Your precepts.
 Restore my life, ADONAI , with Your lovingkindness.
 160 Truth is the essence of Your word, and all Your righteous rulings are eternal.

SHIN ש

161 Princes persecute me for no reason, but my heart is in awe of Your words.
 162 I rejoice in Your word,
 as one who finds great spoil.
 163 I hate and abhor falsehood,
 but Your Torah I love.
 164 Seven times a day I praise You, because of Your righteous judgments.
 165 Great peace have they who love Your Torah , and nothing causes them to stumble.
 166 I hope for Your salvation, ADONAI , and do Your mitzvot .
 167 My soul has observed Your testimonies and I love them exceedingly.
 168 I observe Your precepts and Your laws, for all my ways are before You.

TAV ך

169 Let my cry come to You, ADONAI.
Grant me understanding by Your word.
170 Let my supplication come before You.
Deliver me, according to Your promise.
171 My lips utter praise, for You teach me Your statutes.
172 My tongue sings of Your word, for all Your mitzvot are righteous.
173 Let Your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen Your precepts.
174 I long for Your deliverance, ADONAI, and Your Torah is my delight.
175 Let my soul live and praise You,
and may Your rulings help me.
176 I have strayed like a lost sheep—seek Your servant.
For I did not forget Your mitzvot.

I Am for Shalom

120 (0) A Song of Ascents.
(1) In my trouble I cried out to ADONAI, and He answered me.
2 ADONAI, deliver my soul from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue.
3 What can be given to you, and what more can be done to you, O deceitful tongue?—
4 sharp arrows of the mighty, with burning coals of a broom tree!
5 Woe to me, for I sojourn in Meshech, for I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
6 My soul has too long dwelt with those who hate shalom.
7 I am for shalom and thus I speak, but they are for war!

He Watches over You

121 (0) A Song of Ascents.
(1) I will lift up my eyes to the mountains—from where does my help come?
2 My help comes from ADONAI, Maker of heaven and earth.
3 He will not let your foot slip.
Your Keeper will not slumber.
4 Behold, the Keeper of Israel neither slumbers nor sleeps.
5 ADONAI is your Keeper.
ADONAI is your shadow at your right hand.
6 The sun will not strike you by day,
nor the moon by night.
7 ADONAI will protect you from all evil.
He will guard your life.
8 ADONAI will watch over your coming and your going from this time forth and forevermore.

Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem

122 (0) A Song of Ascents. Of David.
(1) I rejoiced when they said to me,
“Let us go to the House of ADONAI.”
2 Our feet are standing in your gates, Jerusalem—
3 Jerusalem, built as a city joined together.
4 There the tribes go up,
the tribes of ADONAI
—as a testimony to Israel—
to praise the Name of ADONAI.
5 For there thrones for judgment are set up,
the thrones of the house of David.
6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem—
“May those who love you be at peace!
7 May there be shalom within your walls—quietness within your palaces.”
8 For the sake of my brothers and friends,
I now say: “Shalom be within you.”
9 For the sake of the House of ADONAI our God,
I will seek your good.

Be Gracious to Your Servants

123 (0) A Song of Ascents.
(1) To You I lift up my eyes—
You enthroned in the heavens.
2 Behold, as the eyes of slaves to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a slave-girl to the hand of her mistress—
so our eyes look to ADONAI our God, till He shows us favor.
3 Show us favor, ADONAI, show us favor!
For we have endured much contempt.
4 Our soul has had enough of the scorn of those at ease, the contempt of the proud.

Had He Not Been on Our Side

124 (0) A Song of Ascents. Of David.
(1) “Had ADONAI not been on our side”
—let Israel now say—
2 “Had ADONAI not been on our side,
when men rose up against us, 3 then they would have swallowed us alive,
when their wrath burned against us.
4 Then the waters would have engulfed us,
the torrent would have swept over our soul, 5 then the raging waters would have swept over our soul.” 6 Blessed be ADONAI, who has not given us as prey for their teeth.
7 Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the snare of the trappers—
the snare is broken, and we escaped!
8 Our help is in the Name of ADONAI,

Maker of heaven and earth.

Like the Mountains around Jerusalem

125 (0) A Song of Ascents.
 (1) Those who trust in ADONAI are like Mount Zion—it cannot be moved, but endures forever.
² As the mountains are around Jerusalem, so ADONAI is all around His people, both now and forever.
³ For a scepter of wickedness will not rest over the land of the righteous—lest the righteous set their hands to evil.
⁴ Do good, ADONAI, to the good, and to those upright in their hearts.
⁵ But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways, ADONAI will lead them away with evildoers. Shalom be upon Israel.

Joyful Restoration of Zion

126 (0) A Song of Ascents.
 (1) When ADONAI restored the captives of Zion, it was as if we were dreaming.
² Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with a song of joy. Then they said among the nations, “ADONAI has done great things for them.”
³ ADONAI has done great things for us—we are joyful!
⁴ Restore us from captivity, ADONAI, like streams in the Negev.
⁵ Those who sow in tears will reap with a song of joy.
⁶ Whoever keeps going out weeping, carrying his bag of seed, will surely come back with a song of joy, carrying his sheaves.

He Gives Sleep to His Children

127 (0) A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.
 (1) Unless ADONAI builds the house, the builders labor in vain.
 Unless ADONAI watches over the city, the watchman stands guard in vain.
² In vain you rise up early and stay up late, eating the bread of toil—for He provides for His beloved ones even in their sleep.
³ Behold, children are a heritage of ADONAI—the fruit of the womb is a reward.
⁴ As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children of one’s youth.
⁵ Happy is the man whose quiver is full of them. They will not be put to shame when they speak with their enemies at the gate.

Blessing on Those Who Fear God

128 (0) A Song of Ascents.
 (1) Happy is everyone in awe of ADONAI, who walks in His ways,
² for you will eat the labor of your hands. You will be blessed and it will be good for you.
³ Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house. Your children will be like olive saplings around your table.
⁴ Behold, thus will the man be blessed who fears ADONAI.
⁵ May ADONAI bless you out of Zion, and may you see Jerusalem in prosperity all the days of your life, ⁶ and may you live to see your children’s children. Shalom be upon Israel!

Haters Won’t Prevail

129 (0) A Song of Ascents.
 (1) “How many times they have been hostile to me, even from my youth”—let Israel now say—² “How greatly they have been hostile to me, even from my youth. Yet they have not prevailed against me.
³ Plowmen plowed on my back—they made their furrows long!”
⁴ ADONAI is righteous—He has cut the ropes of the wicked.
⁵ May all who hate Zion be driven back in disgrace.
⁶ Let them be like grass on the roofs, which withers before it springs up—
⁷ with it a reaper cannot fill his hand, nor can a binder of sheaves fill his lap.
⁸ So the passersby may never say: “The blessing of ADONAI be upon you—we bless you in the Name of ADONAI.”

Forgiveness and Full Redemption

130 (0) A Song of Ascents.
 (1) Out of the depths I cry to You, ADONAI!
² Lord, hear my voice! Let Your ears be attentive to the sound of my supplications.
³ If You, ADONAI, kept a record of iniquities—my Lord, who could stand?
⁴ For with You there is forgiveness, so You may be revered.
⁵ I wait for ADONAI, my soul waits, and in His word I hope.
⁶ My soul waits for my Lord, more than watchmen for the morning, watchmen for the morning.

⁷ O Israel, wait for ADONAI.
 For with ADONAI there is lovingkindness, and with Him is full redemption, ⁸ and He will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

Be Still My Soul

131 (0) A Song of Ascents. Of David.
 (1) ADONAI, my heart is not proud, nor my eyes lofty,
 nor do I go after things too great or too difficult for me.
² But I have calmed and quieted my soul—like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me.
³ O Israel, put your hope in ADONAI from this time forth and forever.

Promise of Ben-David

132 (0) A Song of Ascents.
 (1) ADONAI, remember David,
 all his afflictions,
² and how he swore to ADONAI, vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:
³ "I will not enter the tent of my house
 nor lie on my bed,
⁴ nor will I give sleep to my eyes,
 nor slumber to my eyelids, ⁵ till I find a place for ADONAI, a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob."
⁶ Behold, we heard of it in Ephratha, we found it in the fields of Joar.
⁷ Let us go into His dwelling place,
 let us bow at His footstool.
⁸ Arise, ADONAI, to Your resting place—
 You, and the Ark of Your might.
⁹ Let Your kohanim wear righteousness, and let Your godly ones sing for joy.
¹⁰ For Your servant David's sake do not turn away the face of Your anointed. † ¹¹ ADONAI has sworn to David a true promise He will not revoke:
 "From the fruit of your body
 I will set one upon your throne— ††
¹² if your children keep My covenant and My law that I will teach them, then their sons will sit on your throne forever."
¹³ For ADONAI has chosen Zion,
 He has desired it for His dwelling:
¹⁴ "This is My resting place forever.
 Here I dwell, for I have desired it.
¹⁵ I will abundantly bless her food.
 I will satisfy her needy ones with bread.
¹⁶ I will clothe her kohanim with salvation, and her godly ones will sing aloud for joy.
¹⁷ There will I make a horn spring up for David, ‡

I have set up a lamp for My anointed.
¹⁸ His enemies I will clothe with shame, but upon himself his crown will shine."

Blessing of Unity

133 (0) A Song of Ascents. Of David.
 (1) Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity!
² It is like the precious oil upon the head, coming down upon the beard—Aaron's beard—coming down on the collar of his robes.
³ It is like the dew of Hermon, coming down upon the mountains of Zion.
 For there ADONAI commanded the blessing —life forevermore!

Call to Evening Worship

134 (0) A Song of Ascents.
 (1) Behold, bless ADONAI, all servants of ADONAI, who stand by night in the House of ADONAI.
² Lift up your hands to the Sanctuary and bless ADONAI.
³ May ADONAI bless you out of Zion—
 Maker of heaven and earth.

Jacob as His Treasure

135 Halleluyah ! Praise the Name of ADONAI.
 Give praise, O servants of ADONAI — ² standing in the House of ADONAI, in the courts of the House of our God.
³ Praise ADONAI, for ADONAI is good.
 Sing praises to His Name, for it is delightful.
⁴ For ADONAI has chosen Jacob for Himself, Israel as His treasured possession. †† ⁵ For I have known that ADONAI is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.
⁶ Whatever ADONAI pleases, He does,
 in heaven and in earth,
 in the seas and in all deeps.
⁷ He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth.
 He makes lightning for the rain.
 He brings wind out of His storehouses.
⁸ He struck down the firstborn of Egypt, both man and beast.
⁹ He sent signs and wonders among you,
 O Egypt, on Pharaoh and all his servants.
¹⁰ He struck down many nations and slew mighty kings:
¹¹ Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan,
 and all the kingdoms of Canaan, ¹² and gave their land as an inheritance, an inheritance to His people Israel.
¹³ ADONAI, Your Name endures forever,

† Or Messiah †† cf. Acts 2:29-35. ‡ cf. Luke 1:69.

†† cf. 1 Pet. 2:9.

Your renown, ADONAI, from generation to generation.

¹⁴ For ADONAI will vindicate His people, and have compassion on His servants.

¹⁵ The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of human hands.

¹⁶ They have mouths, but cannot speak, eyes, but cannot see;

¹⁷ they have ears, but cannot hear, nor is there any breath in their mouths.

¹⁸ Those who make them will be like them—so will all who keep trusting in them.

¹⁹ O house of Israel, bless ADONAI!

O house of Aaron, bless ADONAI!

²⁰ O house of Levi, bless ADONAI!

You who revere ADONAI, bless ADONAI!

²¹ Blessed be ADONAI out of Zion, who dwells in Jerusalem. Halleluyah!

His Chesed Endures Forever!

136 Praise ADONAI, for He is good, for His lovingkindness endures forever.

² Praise the God of gods, for His lovingkindness endures forever.

³ Praise the Lord of lords, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

⁴ who alone did great wonders, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

⁵ who made the heavens by wisdom, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

⁶ who spread the earth on the waters, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

⁷ who made great lights, for His lovingkindness endures forever—

⁸ the sun to rule by day, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

⁹ the moon and stars to rule by night, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

¹⁰ who struck Egypt in their firstborn, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

¹¹ and led out Israel from among them, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

¹² with a strong hand and outstretched arm, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

¹³ who cut the Sea of Reeds into parts, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

¹⁴ and made Israel pass through the midst of it, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

¹⁵ but hurled Pharaoh and his army into the Sea of Reeds,

for His lovingkindness endures forever,

¹⁶ who led His people through the desert, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

¹⁷ who struck down great kings, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

¹⁸ and slew mighty kings, for His lovingkindness endures forever,

¹⁹ Sihon, king of the Amorites, for His lovingkindness endures forever, ²⁰ and Og, king of Bashan, for His lovingkindness endures forever, ²¹ and gave their land for an inheritance, for His lovingkindness endures forever, ²² an inheritance for Israel His servant, for His lovingkindness endures forever. ²³ He remembered us in our lowly estate, for His lovingkindness endures forever, ²⁴ and separated between us and He delivered us from our adversaries, for His lovingkindness endures forever, ²⁵ who gives food to all flesh, for His lovingkindness endures forever.

²⁶ Praise the God of heaven,

for His lovingkindness endures forever!

By the Rivers of Babylon

137 By the rivers of Babylon, we sat down and wept, when we remembered Zion.

² On the willows there we hung up our harps.

³ For there our captors demanded songs and our tormentors asked for joy:

⁴ How can we sing a song of ADONAI in a foreign land?

⁵ If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand wither.

⁶ May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth if I cease to remember you, if I do not set Jerusalem above my chief joy.

⁷ Remember, ADONAI, the children of Edom, what they said on the day Jerusalem fell:

“Strip her, strip her to her very foundation!”

⁸ O daughter of Babylon, the devastated one, happy is the one who repays you as you have paid us.

⁹ Happy is the one who seizes your little ones and dashes them upon the rock.

Your Right Hand Delivers Me

138 (0) Of David.

(1) I praise You with all my heart.

In the presence of the mighty I will sing praises to You.

² I bow down toward Your holy Temple and praise Your Name for Your love and Your faithfulness.

For You—magnified above all Your Name and Your word.

³ On the day I called, You answered me.

You made me bold with strength in my soul.

⁴ All the kings of the earth will praise You, ADONAI, when they hear Your mouth's speech.

⁵ So they will sing of the ways of ADONAI, for great is the glory of ADONAI.

6 For though ADONAI is exalted, yet He looks upon the lowly,
but the haughty He knows from afar.
7 Though I walk amid trouble,
You revive me.
You stretch out Your hand against the wrath of my enemies,
and Your right hand delivers me.
8 ADONAI will fulfill His purpose for me.
Your lovingkindness, ADONAI, endures forever.
Do not abandon the work of Your hands.

How Precious Your Thoughts!

139 (0) For the music director: a psalm of David.
(1) ADONAI, You searched me and know me.
2 Whenever I sit down or stand up, You know it.
You discern my thinking from afar.
3 You observe my journeying and my resting and You are familiar with all my ways.
4 Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, ADONAI, You know all about it.
5 You hemmed me in behind and before,
and laid Your hand upon me.
6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.
7 Where can I go from Your Ruach?
Where can I flee from Your presence?
8 If I go up to heaven, You are there, and if I make my bed in Sheol,
look, You are there too.
9 If I take the wings of the dawn and settle on the other side of the sea, 10 even there Your hand will lead me,
and Your right hand will lay hold of me.
11 If I say: "Surely darkness covers me, night keeps light at a distance from me," 12 even darkness is not dark for You, and night is as bright as day—darkness and light are alike.
13 For You have created my conscience.
You knit me together in my mother's womb.
14 I praise You, for I am awesomely, wonderfully made!
Wonderful are Your works—
and my soul knows that very well.
15 My frame was not hidden from You when I was made in the secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth.
16 Your eyes saw me when I was unformed, and in Your book were written the days that were formed—
when not one of them had come to be.
17 How precious are Your thoughts, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
18 Were I to count them,
they would outnumber the grains of sand!
When I awake, I am still with You.

19 If only You would slay the wicked, O God!
Away from me, you bloody men!
20 For they speak about You with wicked intent.
Your enemies reproach You in vain.
21 Do I not hate those who hate You, ADONAI?
Do I not loathe those who rise against You?
22 I hate them with total hatred—
I consider them my enemies.
23 Search me, O God, and know my heart.
Examine me, and know my anxious thoughts, 24 and see if there be any offensive way within me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.

Protection from the Wicked

140 (0) For the music director: a psalm of David.
2 (1) Rescue me, ADONAI, from the evil man.
Protect me from the violent men—
3 (2) who devise evil in their heart—every day they stir up wars.
4 (3) They sharpen their tongue like a serpent's —viper's venom is under their lips. †
Selah
5 (4) Keep me safe, ADONAI, from the clutches of the wicked.
Protect me from the man of violence who planned to push me off my feet.
6 (5) The proud have hidden a trap and cords for me.
They spread out a net by the path.
They set snares for me. Selah
7 (6) I said to ADONAI: "You are my God!"
Hear, ADONAI, the sound of my supplications.
8 (7) God my Lord, the strength of my deliverance,
You shield my head in the day of battle.
9 (8) Grant not, ADONAI, the desires of the wicked.
Do not let their evil plan succeed, or they will exalt themselves. Selah
10 (9) As for the head of those surrounding me, may the mischief of their lips overwhelm them.
11 (10) Let burning coals fall upon them.
May they be cast into the fire, into deep pits, never to rise again. ††
12 (11) May a slanderer not endure in the land.
May calamity hunt down a violent man.
13 (12) I know ADONAI will vindicate the poor, and secure justice for the needy.
14 (13) Surely, the righteous ones will praise Your name.
The upright will dwell in Your presence.

Evening Petition for Protection

141 (0) A psalm of David.
(1) ADONAI, I call to You—come quickly to me!
Hear my voice when I call to You.
2 May my prayer be set before You like incense.
May the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice.

† cf. Rom. 3:13. †† cf. John 15:6; Rev. 20:15.

³ Set a guard, ADONAI, over my mouth.
 Keep watch over the door of my lips.
⁴ Let not my heart turn to any evil thing, to practice deeds of wickedness with men that work iniquity, nor let me eat of their delicacies.
⁵ Let the righteous strike me—it is kindness.
 Let him correct me—it is oil on my head
 —my head will not refuse it.
 Yet still my prayer is against their wickedness.
⁶ Their judges are thrown down from a cliff.
 Then they will hear my words, since they are sweet.
⁷ As when one plows and breaks open the earth,
 so our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.
⁸ For my eyes are toward You, God my Lord.
 In You I have taken refuge—do not expose my soul.
⁹ Keep me from the jaws of the trap they have laid for
 me,
 and from the snares of the evildoers.
¹⁰ Let the wicked fall into their own nets,
 while I pass by safely.

A Refuge from Trouble

142 (0) A contemplative poem of David, when he was in the cave, a prayer.
² (1) I cry aloud with my voice to ADONAI.
 With my voice I seek favor from ADONAI.
³ (2) I pour out my complaint before Him, before Him I tell my trouble.
⁴ (3) When my spirit grows faint within me,
 You know my path.
 In the way where I walk they have hidden a trap for
 me.
⁵ (4) Look at my right hand and see,
 for no one cares about me.
 I have no refuge—
 no one cares for my soul.
⁶ (5) I have cried out to You, ADONAI.
 I said: "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."
⁷ (6) Listen to my cry, for I am brought very low.
 Rescue me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.
⁸ (7) Bring my soul out of prison,
 so I may praise Your Name.
 The righteous will triumph through me,
 for You will reward me.

Hide Not Your Face from Me

143 (0) A psalm of David.
 (1) Hear my prayer, ADONAI, give ear to my petitions.
 In Your faithfulness and Your righteousness, answer me!
² Do not bring Your servant into judgment, for in Your eyes no one living is righteous.

³ For an enemy pursues my soul.
 He crushes my life down to the ground.
 He makes me dwell in darkness, like those long dead.
⁴ So my spirit grows faint within me.
 My heart is shocked within me.
⁵ I remember the days of old.
 I meditate on all You have done.
 I ponder the work of Your hands.
⁶ I spread forth my hands to You.
 My soul longs for You as a parched land. Selah
⁷ Answer me speedily, ADONAI—my spirit fails.
 Hide not Your face from me,
 lest I become like those who go down into the Pit.
⁸ Make me hear Your lovingkindness in the morning, for in You I trust.
 Show me the way I should go,
 for to You I lift up my soul.
⁹ Deliver me from my enemies, ADONAI.
 I hide myself in You.
¹⁰ Teach me to do Your will, for You are my God.
 Let Your good Ruach lead me on level ground.
¹¹ For Your Name's sake, ADONAI, revive me.
 In Your justice bring my soul out of trouble.
¹² In Your mercy cut off my enemies and destroy all who harass my soul, for I am Your servant.

Rescue from Battle

144 (0) Of David.
 (1) Blessed be ADONAI my Rock—who trains my hands for war, my fingers for battle.
² He is my lovingkindness, my fortress,
 my strong tower, and my deliverer,
 my shield, in whom I take refuge, who subdues my people under me.
³ ADONAI, what is man, that You take note of him?
 Or the son of man, that You consider him? †
⁴ Man is like a breath—his days are like a passing shadow.
⁵ ADONAI, part Your heavens and come down.
 Touch the mountains, so they smoke.
⁶ Flash forth lightning and scatter them.
 Send out Your arrows and confuse them.
⁷ Stretch forth Your hands from on high.
 Snatch me, deliver me out of deep waters,
 out of the hand of foreigners,
⁸ whose mouth speaks falsehood,
 whose right hand is a right hand of deceit.
⁹ God, I sing a new song to You, on a ten-string harp.
 I sing praises to You—¹⁰ who gives salvation to kings, who rescues Your servant David from the evil sword.
¹¹ Snatch me, deliver me
 out of the hand of foreigners,
 whose mouth speaks falsehood,
 whose right hand is a right hand of deceit.

† cf. Heb. 2:6.

¹² Then our sons will be like plants nurtured in their youth, our daughters like corner pillars carved for the construction of a palace.

¹³ Our storehouses are full, supplying every kind of produce.
Our flocks increase by thousands and ten thousands in our fields.

¹⁴ Our oxen bear a heavy load.
There is no breach,
no going into captivity,
no outcry in our streets.

¹⁵ Happy are such a people!
Blessed are the people whose God is ADONAI!

Glory of the Kingdom

145 (0) A psalm of praise. Of David.
(1) I will exalt You, my God, the King, and I will bless Your Name forever and ever.
² Every day I will bless You, and praise Your Name forever and ever!
³ Great is ADONAI, and greatly to be praised —His greatness is unsearchable.
⁴ One generation will praise Your works to another and declare Your mighty acts.
⁵ I will meditate on the glorious splendor of Your majesty and Your wonders.
⁶ They will speak of the might of Your awesome deeds,
and I will proclaim Your greatness.
⁷ They will pour out the renown of Your great good-
ness,
and sing joyfully of Your righteousness.
⁸ ADONAI is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger and great in lovingkindness.
⁹ ADONAI is good to all.
He has compassion on all His creatures.
¹⁰ All Your works praise You, ADONAI, and Your kedoshim bless You.
¹¹ They declare the glory of Your kingdom and speak of Your might,
¹² to make known to the sons of men His mighty acts and the glory of the majesty of His kingdom.
¹³ Your kingdom is a kingdom for all ages, and Your dominion endures from generation to generation.
¹⁴ ADONAI upholds all who fall and raises up all who are bowed down.
¹⁵ The eyes of all look to You and You give them their food on time.
¹⁶ You open Your hand and satisfy every living thing with favor.
¹⁷ ADONAI is righteous in all His ways and kind in all His deeds.
¹⁸ ADONAI is near to all who call on Him, to all who call on Him in truth.
¹⁹ He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him.
He will hear their cry and save them.

²⁰ ADONAI watches over all who love Him, but all the wicked He will destroy.

²¹ My mouth declares the praise of ADONAI.
Let all flesh bless His holy Name forever and ever!

Justice of the Kingdom

146 Halleluyah! Praise ADONAI, O my soul!
² I will praise ADONAI all my life.
I will praise my God yet again.
³ Do not put your trust in princes—in man, in whom there is no salvation.
⁴ His breath departs,
he returns to his dust.
In that very day his plans perish.
⁵ Happy is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in ADONAI his God, ⁶ who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them,
who keeps truth forever,
⁷ who executes justice for the oppressed, who gives bread to the hungry.
ADONAI sets the prisoners free.
⁸ ADONAI opens the eyes of the blind. †
ADONAI raises up those who are bowed down.
ADONAI loves the righteous.
⁹ ADONAI protects outsiders, upholds the fatherless and the widow,
but thwarts the way of the wicked.
¹⁰ ADONAI will reign forever, your God, O Zion, from generation to generation.
Halleluyah!

He Builds up Jerusalem

147 Halleluyah!
How good it is to sing praises to our God.
How pleasant and fitting is praise.
² ADONAI builds up Jerusalem.
He gathers together the exiles of Israel.
³ He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
⁴ He determines the number of the stars.
He gives them all their names.
⁵ Great is our Lord and mighty in power—
His understanding is infinite!
⁶ ADONAI upholds the humble.
He brings the wicked to the ground.
⁷ Sing to ADONAI with thanksgiving.
Sing praises to our God on the harp.
⁸ He covers the sky with clouds.
He provides rain for the earth.
He makes grass sprout on the hills.
⁹ He gives food to the cattle and to the young ravens which cry.
¹⁰ He delights not in the horse's strength, nor takes pleasure in a man's legs.
¹¹ ADONAI delights in those who revere Him,

† cf. Matt. 9:27-30.

in those who trust in His lovingkindness.
¹² Exalt ADONAI, O Jerusalem!
 Praise your God, O Zion!
¹³ For He strengthens the bars of your gates.
 He blesses your children within you.
¹⁴ He puts shalom within your borders.
 He satisfies you with the finest wheat.
¹⁵ He sends earth His command—
 His word runs swiftly.
¹⁶ He gives snow like wool.
 He scatters frost like ashes.
¹⁷ He hurls down His hail like pebbles—who can stand before His cold?
¹⁸ He sends forth His word and melts them.
 He makes His wind blow and waters flow.
¹⁹ He declares His word to Jacob,
 His decrees and His rulings to Israel.
²⁰ He has not done so with any other nation.
 They have not known His judgments.
Halleluyah!

Praise Him, All Creation!

148 Halleluyah!
 Praise ADONAI from the heavens!
 Praise Him in the highest!
² Praise Him all His angels!
 Praise Him all His armies.
³ Praise Him, sun and moon!
 Praise Him, all stars of light.
⁴ Praise Him, highest heavens, and waters above the heavens.
⁵ Let them praise the Name of ADONAI, for He commanded and they were created.
⁶ He set them in place forever and ever.
 He made a decree that will never pass away.
⁷ Praise ADONAI from the earth, sea monsters and all depths, ⁸ fire and hail, snow and vapor, storm wind doing His bidding, ⁹ mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars, ¹⁰ beasts and all cattle, crawling things and winged birds, ¹¹ kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of earth, ¹² both young men and maidens, old men and children.

¹³ Let them praise the Name of ADONAI, for His Name alone is exalted.
 His glory is above earth and heaven.
¹⁴ He has raised up a horn for His people, a praise for all His kedoshim,[†] for the children of Israel—a people near to Him.
Halleluyah!

Praise with Singing and Dancing

149 Halleluyah! Sing to ADONAI a new song,
 His praise in the assembly of the kedoshim.
² Let Israel rejoice in its Maker.
 Let the children of Zion be glad in their King.
³ Let them praise His Name with dancing.
 Let them sing praises to Him with tambourine and harp.
⁴ For ADONAI takes pleasure in His people.
 He crowns the humble with salvation.
⁵ Let the kedoshim exult in glory.
 Let them sing for joy on their beds.
⁶ Let God's high praises be in their mouth and a two-edged sword in their hand—⁷ to execute vengeance upon the nations and rebukes on the people, ⁸ to bind their kings with chains and their nobles with fetters of iron, ⁹ to carry out the sentence decreed—this is the glory of all His kedoshim.
Halleluyah!

Praise with Shofar and Cymbals

150 Halleluyah! Praise God in His Sanctuary!
 Praise Him in His mighty expanse.
² Praise Him for His acts of power.
 Praise Him for His enormous greatness.
³ Praise Him with the blast of the shofar.
 Praise Him with harp and lyre.
⁴ Praise Him with tambourine and dance.
 Praise Him with string instruments and flute.
⁵ Praise Him with clash of cymbals.
 Praise Him with resounding cymbals.
⁶ Let every thing that has breath praise ADONAI. Halleluyah!

[†] Hebrew kedoshim; righteous holy ones

Proverbs Introduction

The book of Proverbs is known as wisdom literature. It is one of its three selections, also which include the book of Job and the book of Ecclesiastes. Wisdom literature in the Old Testament is vast and addresses many of life experiences. Proverbs takes the esoteric and translates it into the practical, the ethereal into the realistic. The word for Proverbs is Hebrew is, ילשם . A proverb is a saying, a story, or a parable that is proven true over time through experience. Proverbs are not promises or commands, but instructions and words of guidance, timeless in their essence. Proverbs are general principles that, if followed, should bring clarity to life situations. Within the content of Proverbs, one will find deductive and inductive logic, critical thought and an emphasis upon the imperative to gain knowledge. There are many collections of moral sayings within Judaism, especially the Sayings of the Fathers, , תובא יקרפ , however, the book of Proverbs addresses the broad general nature of how life really works.

Although a few different authors penned this book, it is widely believed that the key author of most content was , also known as King Solomon. Even though Agur and Lemuel are noted as authors of a few proverbs, the majority have been written by King Solomon. 1 Kings 5:12 reveals that Solomon is known to have spoken over three thousand proverbs. Perhaps much of this wisdom came from his own writings and songs. One of the most widely used words within the book of Proverbs is , המכח , the Hebrew word for “wisdom.” Throughout the book of Proverbs, one will note the contrast between two ways of living: one way is the way of wisdom and the other way is the way of a fool. The reader is introduced to this aspect in the first chapter 1, 7 verse: “The fear of is the beginning of knowledge; but fools despise wisdom and discipline.” One who follows God’s rules and instructions will find knowledge and wisdom. True wisdom is demonstrated by loving obedience to God. In contrast, the foolish person despises God’s rules, instruction, and wisdom. Worldly wisdom is following one’s own path and pursuing the way of folly, which leads to destruction.

More important than just practical advice, Proverbs truly does give the reader guidance in living an obedient life to God. God desires that we be “naked, face-to-face and unashamed before Him.” Transparency, honesty, and openness should be qualities of those who are in an intimate fellowship with . As there are thirty one chapters of Proverbs, one would be wise to practice reading a chapter a day. If one desires to gain wisdom, such should follow the directives of Proverbs 9:10: “The fear of is the beginning of wisdom. The knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.”

The Value of Wise Sayings

1 The proverbs of Solomon son of David, king of Israel:
 2 to acquire wisdom and discipline,
 to understand the words of insight, 3 to receive instruction in wise behavior, righteousness, justice, and fairness, 4 to give discernment to the naïve, knowledge, and discretion to the youth 5 (let the wise listen and increase learning and the discerning obtain wise counsel) 6 to understand a proverb and a puzzle, the sayings of the wise and their riddles.

The Wisdom of Parents

7 The fear of ADONAI is the beginning of knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and discipline.
 8 Hear, my son, your father's instruction and forsake not your mother's teaching.
 9 For they are a garland of grace for your head and a chain to adorn your neck.

Avoid a Bloodthirsty Gang

10 My son, if sinners entice you, do not give in.
 11 Suppose they say: "Come with us!
 Let's lie in wait for blood!
 Let's ambush the innocent—for no reason!
 12 Let's swallow them alive like Sheol— still healthy, as they go down to the Pit!
 13 We'll find all sorts of valuable things, we'll fill our homes with loot!
 14 Throw your lot in with us—
 we'll all have one wallet."
 15 My son, do not go along with them, keep your foot from their path—16 for their feet run to evil and they are swift to shed blood.
 17 Surely it is useless to spread a net in the eyes of all winged creatures!
 18 But they lie in wait for their own blood.
 They ambush their own lives.
 19 Such is the fate of all gaining by violence.
 It takes the life of its possessor.

Wisdom Calls, But Who Listens?

20 Wisdom calls aloud in the streets,
 she raises her voice in public squares.
 21 She cries out above the commotion.
 At the entrances of the city gates, she utters her speech:
 22 "How long will you naïve ones love simplicity, you scoffers delight in scoffing,
 and you fools hate knowledge?
 23 You are repulsed at my rebuke.
 Behold, I pour out my heart to you.
 I will make my words known to you.

24 Because you refused when I called, and did not pay attention when I stretched out my hand,
 25 since you ignore all my advice and would not accept my rebuke, 26 I in turn will laugh at your calamity.
 I will mock when dread comes on you, 27 when your terror comes like a storm and your calamity sweeps over you like a whirlwind, when trouble and distress overwhelm you!
 28 Then they will cry out to me, but I will not answer!
 They will earnestly seek me, but will not find me.
 29 Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of ADONAI, 30 they would not accept my counsel,
 they spurned all my reproof, 31 so they will eat the fruit of their own way and be filled with their own schemes.
 32 For the backsliding of the naïve will kill them and the complacency of fools will destroy them.
 33 But whoever pays attention to me will live securely, and be free from the fear of evil."

Seek Treasures of Wisdom

2 My son, if you accept my words and treasure my mitzvot within you,
 2 making your ear attentive to wisdom, inclining your heart to discernment, 3 yes, if you call out for insight, lifting up your voice for discernment, 4 if you seek her as silver and search for her as for hidden treasures, 5 then you will know the fear of ADONAI and discover the knowledge of God.
 6 For ADONAI gives wisdom. †
 Out of His mouth comes knowledge and understanding.
 7 He stores up sound wisdom for the upright.
 He is a shield to those who walk in integrity.
 8 He guards the paths of justice, and protects the way of His kedoshim.
 9 Then you will discern what is right and just and fair—every good path.
 10 For wisdom will enter your heart and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
 11 Discretion will watch over you —discernment will guard you—12 to deliver you from the way of evil, from those speaking perverse things, 13 who leave the straight paths to walk in ways of darkness, 14 who rejoice in doing wrong and delight in the perversity of evil, 15 whose paths are crooked and are devious in their ways—16 to deliver you from a seducing woman—a wayward wife with seductive words,

† cf. Jacob 1:5.

17 who forsakes the partner of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God.
18 For her house sinks down to death and her tracks to the dead.
19 None who go to her return nor reach the paths of life.
20 So you will walk in the way of good men and keep to the paths of the righteous.
21 For the upright will dwell in the land and the blameless will remain in it.
22 But the wicked will be cut off from the land and the treacherous uprooted from it.

In All Your Ways Acknowledge Him

3 My son, do not forget my teaching, † but let your heart keep my mitzvot.
2 For length of days and years of life,
and shalom they will add to you.
3 Let kindness and truth never leave you—bind them around your neck,
write them on the tablet of your heart.
4 Then you will gain favor and a good name in the eyes of God and man.
5 Trust in ADONAI with all your heart, lean not on your own understanding.
6 In all your ways acknowledge Him,
and He will make your paths straight.
7 Do not be wise in your own eyes;
fear ADONAI and turn away from evil.
8 It will be healing to your body and refreshment to your bones.
9 Honor ADONAI with your wealth and with the first of your entire harvest.
10 Then your barns will be filled with plenty,
your vats will overflow with new wine.

Discipline as the Father's Love

11 My son, never despise ADONAI's discipline or dread His correction.
12 For ADONAI loves those He reproveth, even as a father, the son in whom he delights. ††

Precious Pearls, A Tree of Life

13 Happy is the man who finds wisdom and the man who gains understanding.
14 For her trade-value is better than silver, and her yield better than fine gold.
15 She is more precious than jewels and nothing you desire compares to her.
16 Length of days is in her right hand.
In her left hand are riches and honor.
17 Her ways are pleasant ways,
and all of her paths are shalom.
18 She is a tree of life to those who embrace her,
and blessed will be all who hold firmly to her.
19 By wisdom ADONAI founded the earth.

By understanding He established the heavens.
20 By His knowledge the deeps were divided,
and the clouds drip dew.
21 My son, hold on to sound wisdom and discernment, do not let them out of your sight.
22 They will be life to your soul,
and an ornament to grace your neck.
23 Then you will walk on your way in safety, and your foot will not stumble.
24 When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
25 Have no fear of sudden terror, or of the devastation of the wicked when it comes.
26 For ADONAI will be your confidence and will keep your foot from a snare.
27 Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due,
when it is in your power to act.
28 Do not say to your neighbor,
"Come back later—I'll give it tomorrow," when you have it with you.
29 Do not plot evil against your neighbor while he lives trustfully beside you.
30 Do not quarrel with a man for no reason
—if he has done you no harm.
31 Do not envy a violent man or choose any of his ways.
32 For the devious are detestable to ADONAI, but He takes the upright into His confidence.
33 ADONAI's curse is on a wicked house,
but He blesses a righteous home.
34 Though He scoffs at the scoffers,
He gives grace to the humble. ‡ 35 The wise inherit honor, but fools are held up in disgrace.

A Father's Lesson: Get Wisdom!

4 Listen, my sons, to a father's instruction.
Pay attention, to gain understanding.
2 For I give you sound learning—do not forsake my instruction.
3 When I was a son to my father, tender and special to my mother, 4 he taught me and said to me:
"Lay hold of my words in your heart,
keep my commands and you will live!
5 Get wisdom! Get understanding!
Do not forget nor turn away from the words of my mouth.
6 Do not forsake her, and she will guard you.
Love her, and she will watch over you.
7 Wisdom is supreme—acquire wisdom!
With all your acquisitions, get understanding.
8 Prize her, and she will exalt you.
She will honor you when you embrace her.
9 She will set a garland of grace on your head.

† Or Torah †† cf. Heb. 12:5-7.

‡ cf. Jacob 4:6; 1 Pet. 5:5.

She will give you a crown of glory.”

Ways of Wisdom and Wickedness

¹⁰ Listen, my son, and accept my words, so the years of your life will be many.
¹¹ I instructed you in the way of wisdom.
I have guided you along straight paths.
¹² When you walk, your step will not be hindered,
and when you run, you will not stumble.
¹³ Hold on tightly to instruction, do not let it go—guard it, for it is your life.
¹⁴ Do not enter the path of the wicked or walk in the way of evil people.
¹⁵ Avoid it—do not travel on it—turn away from it and pass by.
¹⁶ For they cannot sleep until they do evil.
They are robbed of sleep until they make someone fall.
¹⁷ For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
¹⁸ The path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, shining brighter and brighter until the full day.
¹⁹ The way of the wicked is like darkness.
They do not know what makes them stumble.
²⁰ My son, pay attention to my words—incline your ear to my sayings.
²¹ Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within your heart.
²² For they are life to those who find them and health to their whole body.
²³ Guard your heart diligently, for from it flow the springs of life.
²⁴ Put away perversity from your mouth, and keep devious lips far from you.
²⁵ Let your eyes look directly ahead, and fix your gaze straight in front of you.
²⁶ Clear a level path for your feet,
so all your ways will be firm.
²⁷ Do not turn to the right or to the left.
Divert your foot from evil.

Beware of Seduction

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
Incline your ear to my insight,
² that you may maintain discretion and your lips may preserve knowledge.
³ For a seducing woman’s lips drip honey and her mouth is smoother than oil.
⁴ But in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a double-edged sword.
⁵ Her feet go down to death,
her steps lead straight to Sheol.
⁶ She does not keep straight to the path of life, her paths are crooked
—but she does not know it.
⁷ So now, my sons, listen to me and do not turn aside from the words of my mouth.

⁸ Keep your path far from her and do not go near the door of her house—⁹ lest you give your strength to others and your years to one who is cruel; ¹⁰ lest strangers feast on your strength, your labors go to a foreigner’s house.
¹¹ At the end of your life, you will groan, when your flesh and body are spent—¹² and you will say, “How I hated discipline!
How my heart spurned reproof!
¹³ I would not listen to my teacher’s voice or incline my ear to my instructors.
¹⁴ I was almost in utter ruin amid the community and congregation.”
¹⁵ Drink water from your own cistern and running water from your own well.
¹⁶ Should your springs flow in the streets, your streams of water in public squares?
¹⁷ Let them be yours alone and not shared with strangers.
¹⁸ May your fountain be blessed and may you delight in the wife of your youth.
¹⁹ A lovely hind, a graceful doe—may her breasts satisfy you always, may you always be captivated by her love.
²⁰ Why, my son, be captivated by a seducing woman?
Why embrace a foreigner’s bosom?
²¹ For a man’s ways are before the eyes of ADONAI, and He observes all his paths.
²² The iniquities of a wicked man will ensnare him.
The cords of his sin will hold him down.
²³ He will die for lack of discipline, led astray by his own great folly.

Economic Entanglements

6 My son, if you have become a cosigner for your neighbor,
if you have shaken hands in pledge with a stranger,
² if you are trapped by your own words,
ensnared by the words of your mouth,
³ then do this, my son, and free yourself,
since you fell into your neighbor’s hand:
Go, humble yourself, plead with your neighbor!
⁴ Allow no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.
⁵ Escape like a gazelle from the hunter’s hand, like a bird from the snare of the fowler.

Laziness and Perversity

⁶ Go to the ant, you slacker—consider its ways and be wise!
⁷ It has no commander,
no overseer or ruler.
⁸ Yet it prepares its provisions in summer and gathers its food at harvest.
⁹ How long will you lie there, slacker?
When will you get up from your sleep?

¹⁰ A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep—¹¹ and your poverty comes like a bandit and your need like an armed man.
¹² A scoundrel, a wicked man, is one who goes around with a perverse mouth, ¹³ winking his eyes, shuffling his feet, pointing his fingers,
¹⁴ who continually plots evil with deceit in his heart stirring up strife.
¹⁵ Therefore his disaster will come suddenly —in an instant he will be broken, with no remedy.
¹⁶ Six things ADONAI hates, yes, seven are abominations to Him:
¹⁷ haughty eyes,
 a lying tongue,
 hands that shed innocent blood, ¹⁸ a heart that plots wicked schemes, feet that run to evil, ¹⁹ a false witness who spouts lies,
 and one who stirs up strife among brothers.

A Father's Warning against Adultery

²⁰ My son, keep your father's mitzvah ,
 and forsake not your mother's teaching.
²¹ Bind them on your heart continually—tie them around your neck.
²² When you walk, they will guide you.
 When you lie down, they will watch over you,
 and when you wake up, they will speak to you.
²³ For the mitzvah is a lamp, Torah a light, and corrective discipline the way of life, ²⁴ keeping you from the immoral woman, from a wayward wife's smooth tongue.
²⁵ Do not lust in your heart after her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyelids.
²⁶ For on account of a prostitute one is reduced to a loaf of bread;
 a man's wife preys on your precious life.
²⁷ Can a man scoop fire into his lap without burning his clothes?
²⁸ Or can a man walk upon hot coals without scorching his feet?
²⁹ So is he who goes to another man's wife.
 No one who touches her will go unpunished.
³⁰ Men do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy himself when he is starving.
³¹ Yet if he is caught, he must repay sevenfold, giving up all the wealth of his house.
³² He who commits adultery with a woman lacks sense.
 Whoever does so destroys himself.
³³ He will find disease and disgrace.
 His shame will never be wiped away.
³⁴ For jealousy enrages a man and he will show no mercy in the day of revenge.
³⁵ He will not accept any compensation,
 he will not consent,

even if your bribe is great.

Treasure Torah's Teaching

⁷ My son, keep my words
 and treasure my mitzvot within you.
² Keep my mitzvot and live,
 my teaching as the apple of your eye.
³ Bind them on your fingers,
 write them on the tablet of your heart.
⁴ Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call understanding your relative.
⁵ They will keep you from a seducing woman, from the foreign woman with her seductive speech.
⁶ For at the window of my house
 I looked out through my lattice.
⁷ I saw among the naïve,
 I noticed among the youth,
 a young man lacking understanding,
⁸ crossing the street near her corner, walking in the direction of her house, ⁹ in the twilight of the evening, in the darkest hours of the night.
¹⁰ All of a sudden, a woman meets him, dressed as a prostitute and with a cunning heart.
¹¹ She is loud and defiant.
 Her feet never stay at home—¹² now in the streets, now in the squares, at every corner she lurks.
¹³ So she grabs him and kisses him and with a brazen face says to him:
¹⁴ "I had to sacrifice fellowship offerings;
 today I paid my vow.
¹⁵ So I've come out to meet you,
 to seek your presence eagerly—and I found you!
¹⁶ I have spread my couch with tapestry of dyed Egyptian linens.
¹⁷ I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
¹⁸ Come, let's drink our fill of love till morning!
 Let's delight ourselves with love.
¹⁹ For my husband is not at home—
 he's gone on a long journey.
²⁰ He took a bag of money with him—
 he won't come home until full moon."
²¹ With her persistent pleading she entices him, with smooth talk she seduces him.
²² Suddenly he follows her like an ox going to the slaughter, like a stag bounding toward a trap,
²³ till an arrow pierces its liver.
 Like a bird darting into a snare,
 he never considered his own soul!
²⁴ Now then, sons, listen to me, pay attention to the words of my mouth.
²⁵ Do not let your heart turn to her ways or stray onto her paths.
²⁶ For many are the victims she has brought down, and numerous are all her slain.

²⁷ Her house is a highway to Sheol, leading down to the chambers of death.

Wisdom Appeals at the Gates

8 Does not wisdom cry out, and understanding lift her voice?
² On the topmost heights along the way,
at the crossroads, she takes her stand.
³ Beside the gates leading into the city, at the entrances, she cries aloud:
⁴ "To you, O men, I call out!
My cry is to all mankind!
⁵ O naïve ones, learn prudence!
Fools, gain understanding!
⁶ Listen, for I speak excellent things, and my lips utter right things.
⁷ For my mouth speaks truth, and my lips detest wickedness.
⁸ All the words of my mouth are righteous,
Nothing in them is perverse or crooked.
⁹ All of them are straightforward to the discerning, and right to those who find knowledge.
¹⁰ Receive my instruction instead of silver and knowledge rather than choice gold.
¹¹ For wisdom is better than jewels, nothing you desire compares with her.
¹² "I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and acquire knowledge with discretion.
¹³ To fear ADONAI is to hate evil.
I hate pride and arrogance, evil behavior and a perverse mouth.
¹⁴ Counsel and sound wisdom are mine.
I have understanding and power.
¹⁵ By me kings reign and princes decree justice.
¹⁶ By me princes govern, and all nobles who judge righteously.
¹⁷ I love those who love me.
Those who earnestly seek me find me. † ¹⁸ With me are wealth and honor, enduring riches and righteousness.
¹⁹ My fruit is better than refined gold,
my harvest better than choice silver.
²⁰ I walk in the way of righteousness, along paths of justice.
²¹ I endow substance to those who love me and fill their treasuries."

Wisdom before Creation

²² " ADONAI brought me forth, the first of His way,
before His works of old.
²³ From eternity I was appointed from the beginning, before the world began.
²⁴ When there were no depths, I was brought forth, when there were no fountains abounding with water.

²⁵ Before the mountains were shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth.
²⁶ He had not yet made the land,
the fields, or the first dust of the earth.
²⁷ When He set the heavens in place, I was there.
When He inscribed the horizon on the face of the ocean, ²⁸ when He established the skies above,
when He securely fixed the fountains of the deep, ²⁹ when He set the boundaries for the sea,
so that the waters never transgress His command,
when He laid out earth's foundations—³⁰ then I was the craftsman beside Him,
I was His daily delight, always rejoicing before Him, ³¹ rejoicing in His whole world, and delighting in mankind.
³² "So now, children, listen to me!
Blessed are those who keep my ways.
³³ Heed discipline and be wise, and do not neglect it.
³⁴ Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at my doorposts.
³⁵ For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from ADONAI.
³⁶ But whoever fails to find me harms his life—
all who hate me love death."

Wisdom and Folly Invite

9 Wisdom has built her house.
She has carved out her seven pillars.
² She has slaughtered her meat,
she has mixed her wine;
she has also set her table.
³ She has sent out her servant girls.
She calls from the city's heights:
⁴ "Whoever is naïve, turn in here!"
To those who lack understanding, she says:
⁵ "Come, eat my bread and drink the wine I have mixed.
⁶ Abandon your foolish ways and live!
Walk in the way of understanding."
⁷ Whoever corrects a scoffer is asking for insult.
Whoever reproves a wicked man gets abuse.
⁸ Do not correct a scoffer or he will hate you.
Rebuke a wise man and he will love you.
⁹ Instruct a wise man and he will be wiser still.
Teach a righteous man and he will increase in learning.
¹⁰ The fear of ADONAI is the beginning of wisdom and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
¹¹ For through me your days will be many and years will be added to your life.
¹² If you are wise, you are wise to your own advantage,
but if you scoff, you bear it alone.
¹³ The foolish woman is rowdy.
She is naïve and knows nothing.

† cf. Matt. 7:8.

14 So she sits at the door of her house,
 on a seat in the heights of the city, 15 calling to those who pass by,
 who go straight on their way:
 16 "Whoever is naïve, let him turn in here."
 To those who lack understanding, she says:
 17 "Stolen water is sweet and bread eaten in secret is delicious!" 18 But he does not know that the dead are there—her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

Diligence and Laziness

10 The proverbs of Solomon.
 A wise son gives joy to his father,
 but a foolish son grief to his mother.
 2 Ill-gotten treasures profit nothing,
 but righteousness delivers from death.
 3 ADONAI will not let a righteous soul go hungry, but thwarts the cravings of the wicked.
 4 Lazy hands make a man poor,
 but diligent hands bring wealth.
 5 He who gathers crops in summer is a wise son, but he who sleeps during harvest is a disgraceful son.

Sayings of the Mouth Matter

6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
 but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
 7 The memory of the righteous is a blessing,
 but the name of the wicked will rot.
 8 The wise in heart accept commands,
 but a babbling fool comes to ruin.
 9 One who walks in integrity, walks securely,
 but one who takes crooked paths will be discovered.
 10 One who winks an eye maliciously causes grief, while a babbling fool comes to ruin.
 11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life,
 but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
 12 Hatred stirs up strife
 but love covers up all transgressions.
 13 Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning,
 but a rod is for the back of one lacking sense.
 14 Wise men store up knowledge,
 but the mouth of a fool is near ruin.
 15 The wealth of a rich man is a strong city.
 Poverty is the ruin of the poor.
 16 The wages of the righteous are life.
 The income of the wicked is sin. †
 17 One who heeds discipline is on the path of life, but whoever ignores correction goes astray.
 18 One who conceals hatred has lying lips,
 and whoever spreads slander is a fool.
 19 When words abound, transgression is unavoidable, but whoever restrains his lips is wise.
 20 The tongue of the righteous is choice silver.
 The heart of the wicked is of little value.
 21 The lips of the righteous feed many,

but fools die for lack of understanding.

Dread or Hope

22 The blessing of ADONAI brings wealth and He adds no trouble with it.
 23 As doing wickedness is delight to a fool,
 so is wisdom to a man of discernment.
 24 What the wicked dread will fall on them.
 The desire of the righteous will be given.
 25 When the whirlwind passes, the wicked are no more,
 but the foundation of the righteous is everlasting.
 26 Like vinegar to the teeth or smoke to the eyes,
 so is a slacker to those who send him.
 27 The fear of ADONAI prolongs life, but the years of the wicked are cut short.
 28 The prospect of the righteous is joy,
 but the hope of the wicked perishes.
 29 The way of ADONAI is a stronghold to the upright, but it is a ruin to those who do evil.
 30 The righteous will never be uprooted,
 but the wicked will not dwell in the land.
 31 The mouth of the righteous bears the fruit of wisdom,
 but a perverse tongue will be cut out.
 32 The lips of the righteous know what is pleasing, but the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

Integrity of Scales and Soul

11 Dishonest scales are an abomination to ADONAI, but an accurate weight is His delight.
 2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace,
 but with the humble is wisdom.
 3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the crookedness of the treacherous will destroy them.
 4 Riches make no profit in the day of wrath,
 but righteousness delivers from death.
 5 The righteousness of the blameless man makes his way straight,
 but the wicked man is brought down by his wickedness.
 6 The righteousness of the upright delivers them, but the treacherous are trapped by their desire.

Righteousness Builds up a City

7 When the wicked dies, his hope perishes, and the hope of the strong vanishes.
 8 The righteous is rescued from trouble.
 Instead it comes on the wicked.
 9 With his mouth the ungodly destroys his neighbor, but through knowledge the righteous will be delivered.
 10 When the righteous do well, a city rejoices.
 When the wicked perish, there are shouts of joy.
 11 Through the blessing of the upright a city is exalted,

† cf. Rom. 6:23.

but by the mouth of the wicked it is destroyed.
 12 One who despises his neighbor lacks sense, but one with discernment remains silent.
 13 A gossip reveals secrets,
 but one who is trustworthy conceals a matter.
 14 Without guidance people fall, with many counselors there is deliverance.
 15 Whoever puts up security for a stranger will have trouble, but whoever avoids shaking hands on such a deal is secure.

Rewards for Righteous or Ruthless

16 A gracious woman gains honor, but ruthless men seize riches.
 17 A kind man does his own soul good,
 but a cruel man harms his own flesh.
 18 The wicked earn deceptive wages,
 but a sower of righteousness reaps a true reward.
 19 Steadfast righteousness leads to life, but pursuing evil ends in death.
 20 Perverse hearts are an abomination to ADONAI.
 His favor is on those blameless in their ways.
 21 Be sure, † the evil will not go unpunished,
 but the offspring of the righteous will be delivered.
 22 Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.
 23 The desire of the righteous is only good,
 but the hope of the wicked only wrath.
 24 One gives freely, yet gains even more.
 Another withholds unjustly, and comes to poverty.
 25 A soul who blesses will prosper,
 and one who gives water will himself be satisfied.
 26 People curse anyone withholding grain, but blessing is on the head of one who dispenses it.
 27 A person who diligently seeks good finds favor, but to one who searches for evil, evil comes to him!
 28 Whoever trusts in his riches will fall,
 but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf.
 29 Whoever troubles his own household will inherit wind,
 and the fool will be a servant to the wise-hearted.
 30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,
 and whoever wins souls is wise.
 31 If the righteous is rewarded on earth, how much more the wicked and the sinner! ††

The Righteous and the Wicked

12 Whoever loves knowledge loves correction, but whoever hates reproof is stupid.
 2 A good man obtains favor from ADONAI,
 but He condemns a person with evil schemes.
 3 No one is made secure by wickedness, but a righteous root will not be moved.
 4 A virtuous wife is her husband's crown,

† Lit. Hand to hand
 Pet. 4:18.

†† cf. 1

but a dishonoring one is like rottenness in his bones.
 5 The plans of the righteous are just,
 but the counsels of the wicked are deceitful.
 6 The words of the wicked lie in wait for blood,
 but the mouth of the upright delivers them.
 7 The wicked are overthrown and are no more,
 but the household of the righteous will stand.
 8 A man is praised according to his insight, but one with a twisted mind is despised.
 9 Better to have little honor and a servant than to have glory and no bread.

Caring for Animals and Land

10 A righteous person cares for the life of his animal, yet even the compassion of the wicked is cruel.
 11 The one who works his land will have plenty of food,
 but whoever chases daydreams lacks sense.
 12 The wicked covets the loot of evil men, but the root of the righteous flourishes.

Fruit of the Mouth

13 An evil one is ensnared by the sin of lips, but the righteous one escapes trouble.
 14 By the fruit of his mouth a man will be satisfied with good.
 The work of a man's hands will reward him.
 15 A fool's way is right in his own eyes,
 but the wise listen to advice.
 16 A fool shows his irritation immediately,
 but a prudent person overlooks an insult.
 17 A trustworthy witness tells what is right, but a false witness, deceit.
 18 Reckless speech is like the thrusts of a sword,
 but the tongue of the wise brings healing.
 19 Truthful lips endure forever,
 but a lying tongue for only a moment.
 20 Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil,
 but those promoting shalom have joy.
 21 No harm befalls the righteous, but the wicked are full of misery.
 22 Lying lips are detestable to ADONAI, but those who act faithfully are His delight.
 23 A clever person conceals his knowledge, but the heart of a fool blurts out folly.

Diligence or Sloth

24 The hand of the diligent will rule, but the lazy will become forced labor.
 25 An anxious heart weighs one down,
 but a good word cheers him up.
 26 The righteous gives his friend guidance,
 but the way of the wicked leads astray.
 27 A lazy person does not roast his game,
 but a diligent person prizes his possessions.
 28 In the path of righteousness is life—it is a path to immortality.

Guard the Way of Integrity

13 A wise son heeds his father's discipline, but a scoffer does not listen to rebuke.
² From the fruit of a man's mouth he enjoys good things, but the treacherous crave violence.
³ He who watches his mouth protects his life, but whoever opens wide his lips comes to ruin.
⁴ The slacker's soul craves, yet has nothing, but the diligent soul will be satisfied.
⁵ A righteous person hates lying,
but the wicked acts in shameful disgrace.
⁶ Righteousness guards one who walks in integrity, but wickedness overthrows the sinner.
⁷ One pretends to be rich, yet has nothing;
another pretends to be poor, yet has great wealth. † ⁸ A man's riches may ransom his life, but a poor person hears no threat.
⁹ The light of the righteous shines brightly.
The lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.
¹⁰ Arrogance yields nothing but strife.
Wisdom belongs to those who take advice.
¹¹ Wealth gained by fraud dwindles,
but he who gathers by labor increases it.
¹² Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but longing fulfilled is a tree of life.
¹³ Whoever despises instruction will pay a penalty,
but whoever respects a mitzvah will be rewarded.
¹⁴ Wise instruction is a fountain of life, turning one away from snares of death.
¹⁵ Good understanding wins favor, but the way of the unfaithful is hard.
¹⁶ Everyone shrewd acts with knowledge, but a fool flaunts folly.

The Wise and the Foolish

¹⁷ A wicked messenger falls into trouble, but a faithful envoy brings healing.
¹⁸ He who spurns discipline comes to poverty and shame,
but whoever accepts correction will be honored.
¹⁹ A desire fulfilled is sweet to the soul,
but fools detest turning away from evil.
²⁰ He who walks with wise men is wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.
²¹ Misfortune pursues sinners, but prosperity rewards the righteous.
²² A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous.
²³ The fallow field of the poor yields much food, but it is swept away by injustice.
²⁴ He who spares the rod hates his son,
but he who loves him is diligent with discipline. †† ²⁵ The righteous eats to his heart's content,

but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

Wisdom Builds Up, Folly Tears Down

14 A wise woman builds her house, but a foolish one tears it down with her own hands.
² The one who walks uprightly fears ADONAI, but one devious in his ways despises Him.
³ In the mouth of a fool is a rod for his back, but the lips of the wise protect them.
⁴ Where there are no oxen, the stalls are clean, but from the strength of the ox comes an abundant harvest.
⁵ A trustworthy witness does not lie,
but a false witness breathes out lies.
⁶ A scoffer seeks wisdom yet finds none, but knowledge is easy to the discerning.
⁷ Walk away from a fool—
for you will find no knowledge on his lips.
⁸ The wisdom of the prudent is to consider his way, but the folly of fools is deception.
⁹ Fools mock guilt of sin, but among the upright is goodwill.
¹⁰ The heart knows its own bitterness, and no one else can share its joy.
¹¹ The house of the wicked will be demolished, but the tent of the upright will flourish.
¹² There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way to death.
¹³ Even in laughter the heart may ache,
and the end of joy may be grief.
¹⁴ A backsliding heart partakes of its ways, and a good man is rewarded for his.
¹⁵ The naïve believes every word,
but the shrewd discerns his steps.
¹⁶ The wise fears and turns away from evil, but the fool is hotheaded and reckless.
¹⁷ One with a short temper acts foolishly, and one with crafty schemes is hated.
¹⁸ The naïve inherit folly,
but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
¹⁹ Evil men will bow in the presence of the good,
and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

Poverty and Riches

²⁰ The poor is hated even by his neighbor, but many are those who love the rich.
²¹ Whoever despises his neighbor sins, but whoever is gracious to the needy is blessed.
²² Indeed, those who plot evil go astray,
but grace and truth come to those who plan good.
²³ In all hard work there is profit,
but mere talk leads only to poverty.
²⁴ The crown of the wise is their riches,
but the folly of fools is foolishness.
²⁵ A truthful witness saves lives,
but one who utters lies is treacherous.

† cf. 2 Cor. 6:10. †† cf. Heb. 12:7.

26 In the fear of ADONAI one has strong confidence.
It will be a refuge for His children.
27 The fear of ADONAI is a fountain of life, turning one from the snares of death.
28 A large population is a king's glory,
but lack of subjects is a prince's ruin.
29 One who is slow to anger shows great understanding,
but a quick-tempered one exalts folly.
30 A tranquil heart is life to the body, but envy is rottenness to the bones.
31 The one who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker,
but whoever is kind to the needy honors Him.
32 The wicked is brought down in his calamity, yet the righteous has a refuge even in death.
33 Wisdom rests in the heart of the discerning,
and even among fools she is known.
34 Righteousness exalts a nation,
but sin is a disgrace to any people.
35 The king shows favor toward a servant who acts wisely,
but his wrath is on one who is disgraceful.

Tongue of the Wise

15 A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.
2 The tongue of the wise treats knowledge correctly,
but the mouth of fools spouts folly.
3 The eyes of ADONAI are everywhere, observing the wicked and the good.
4 A healing tongue is a tree of life,
but a deceitful one crushes the spirit.
5 A fool despises his father's discipline,
but one who accepts reproof is smart.
6 The house of the righteous has great wealth,
but the income of the wicked brings trouble.
7 The lips of the wise spread knowledge,
but not so the heart of fools.
8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to ADONAI ,
but the prayer of the upright pleases him.

Pursue Righteousness and Reproof

9 ADONAI detests the way of the wicked, but loves those who pursue righteousness.
10 Stern correction awaits one who forsakes the way.
One who hates reproof will die.
11 Sheol and Abaddon † are before ADONAI — how much more the hearts of people!
12 A mocker dislikes one who corrects him;
he will not go to the wise.

Heart Attitude Matters

13 A joyful heart makes the face cheerful, but heartache crushes the spirit.

14 A discerning heart seeks knowledge,
but the mouth of fools feeds on folly.
15 All the days of the afflicted are bad,
but a cheerful heart has a continual feast.
16 Better is little with the fear of ADONAI than great wealth with turmoil.
17 Better a meal of vegetables where there is love, than a fattened ox where there is hatred.
18 A hot-tempered man stirs up strife,
but one who is slow to anger calms a quarrel.
19 The way of the slacker is a hedge of thorns,
but the path of the upright is a highway.
20 A wise child brings joy to his father,
but a foolish person despises his mother.
21 Folly is joy to one who lacks sense, but one with discernment walks straight.
22 Plans fail when there is no counsel,
but with many advisers they succeed.
23 A person has joy in an appropriate answer—
how good is a timely word.
24 The path of life leads upward for the wise to keep him from going down to Sheol .
25 ADONAI tears down a proud man's house,
but He maintains the widow's boundary.
26 Evil thoughts are an abomination to ADONAI , but pleasant words are pure.
27 One greedy for gain troubles his household, but whoever hates bribes will live.
28 A righteous heart thinks before answering,
but a wicked mouth blurts out evil things.
29 ADONAI is far from the wicked, but hears the prayer of the righteous. †† 30 Bright eyes bring joy to the heart.
Good news gives health to the bones.
31 One whose ear heeds
a life-giving reproof dwells among the wise.
32 Whoever avoids correction despises himself, but whoever heeds reproof acquires understanding.
33 The fear of ADONAI is the discipline of wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

Commit Your Heart to ADONAI

16 The plans of the heart belong to man, but the tongue's answer is from ADONAI .
2 All a man's ways are pure in his own eyes,
but ADONAI weighs the motives.
3 Commit whatever you do to ADONAI , and your plans will succeed.
4 ADONAI works everything out for his own purpose—
even the wicked for a day of disaster.
5 ADONAI abhors all the proud in heart.
Be assured, they will not go unpunished.
6 By mercy and truth is iniquity atoned, and by the fear of ADONAI one avoids evil.
7 When one's ways are pleasing to ADONAI ,
he makes even his enemies be at peace with him.
8 Better a little with righteousness

† Or "Death and Destruction"

†† cf. John 9:31.

than much income without justice.

⁹ The heart of man plans his course, but ADONAI directs his steps.

The Delights of a Just King

¹⁰ An oracle is on the lips of the king—let his mouth never be treacherous in judgment.

¹¹ Honest balances and scales are ADONAI's.
All the weights in a bag are His handiwork.

¹² Wrongdoing is an abomination to kings, for a throne is established by righteousness.

¹³ Righteous lips are the delight of kings.
He loves those who speak honestly.

¹⁴ A king's fury is like messengers of death,
but a wise man will appease it.

¹⁵ In the light of a king's face there is life,
and his favor like a cloud of spring rain.

¹⁶ How much better to get wisdom than gold, to choose understanding rather than silver.

¹⁷ The highway of the upright avoids evil.
He who guards his way protects his life.

¹⁸ Pride goes before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall.

¹⁹ Better to be lowly in spirit with the afflicted than to share the spoil with the proud.

²⁰ One prudent in a matter will find good.
Blessed is the one who trusts in ADONAI.

²¹ The wise in heart is called discerning, and sweetness of lips increases persuasiveness.

²² Insight is a fountain of life to one who has it, but folly leads to the discipline of fools.

²³ A wise man's heart teaches his mouth and adds persuasiveness to his lips.

²⁴ Pleasant words are honeycomb—sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.

²⁵ There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way to death.

²⁶ A laborer's appetite works on his behalf, for his hunger drives him on.

Slow to Anger

²⁷ A wicked scoundrel digs up evil, and on his lips is a scorching fire. †

²⁸ A perverse person sows strife, and a gossip separates close friends.

²⁹ A violent person lures his neighbor, leading him down a path that is no good.

³⁰ One who winks his eyes schemes deceit,
one who purses his lips is bent on evil.

³¹ Gray hair is a crown of glory, found on the path of righteousness.

³² Better to be slow to anger than a mighty warrior.
One who controls his temper is better than one who conquers a city.

³³ The lot is cast into the lap, but their very decision is from ADONAI.

Beware of Bribes and Rebellion

17 Better is dry crust with peace and quiet than a house full of feasting with strife.

² A wise servant will rule over a disgraceful son and will share the inheritance with the brothers.

³ A crucible is for silver and a furnace is for gold,
but ADONAI tests the heart.

⁴ An evildoer listens to wicked lips;
a liar listens to a malicious tongue.

⁵ Whoever mocks the poor insults his Maker.
Whoever rejoices at calamity will not go unpunished.

⁶ Grandchildren are the crown of the elderly, and the glory of children is their parents.

⁷ Arrogant lips are not fitting for a fool, much less lying lips for a ruler.

⁸ A bribe is a charm in the eyes of its owner.
Wherever he turns, he succeeds.

⁹ Whoever covers up an offense seeks love. ††
Whoever repeats a matter separates close friends.

¹⁰ A rebuke makes a greater impression on a discerning person than a hundred lashes on a fool.

¹¹ An evil man seeks only rebellion, and so a cruel messenger will be sent against him.

¹² Better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than to deal with a fool in his folly.

¹³ Whoever rewards evil for good—evil will never leave his house.

¹⁴ The beginning of strife is like letting out water—so stop a quarrel before it breaks out.

¹⁵ Acquitting the wicked and condemning the righteous:
both are an abomination to ADONAI.

¹⁶ Of what use is money in the hand of a fool since he has no intention of acquiring wisdom?

¹⁷ A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

¹⁸ A man lacking judgment shakes hands on a deal and puts up financial security for his neighbor.

¹⁹ He who loves sin loves strife.

One who builds a high gate invites destruction.

²⁰ A perverse heart finds nothing good,
a devious tongue falls into trouble.

²¹ Whoever fathers a fool gets grief.

There is no joy for the father of a disgraceful son.

²² A cheerful heart is good medicine,
but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.

²³ The wicked one receives a bribe in secret to pervert the ways of justice.

²⁴ Wisdom is before the person of understanding, but the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.

²⁵ A foolish son is grief to his father and bitterness to her that bore him.

²⁶ Also, to punish a righteous person is not good, nor to beat up an honorable one for his integrity.

† cf. Jacob 3:6.

†† cf. Jacob 5:20; 1 Pet. 4:8.

²⁷ One with knowledge restrains his words, and a discerning person stays calm.

²⁸ Even a fool, who keeps quiet, is considered wise, discerning, if he seals his lips.

A Fool's Big Mouth

18 One who isolates oneself seeks his own desire;
he defies all sound judgment.

² A fool finds no delight in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion.

³ When wickedness comes, so does contempt, and with dishonor comes disgrace.

⁴ The words of one's mouth are deep waters,
a fountain of wisdom, a flowing brook.

⁵ Showing partiality to the wicked is not good,
nor is depriving the innocent of justice.

⁶ The lips of a fool enter into an argument and his mouth invites a beating.

⁷ A fool's mouth is his ruin, and his lips are a snare to his soul.

⁸ The words of a gossip are tasty morsels, going down into one's innermost being.

⁹ One who is slack in his work is brother to one who destroys.

¹⁰ The Name of ADONAI is a strong tower.
The righteous one runs into it and is set safely up high.

¹¹ A rich person's wealth is a strong city or like a high wall—in his imagination.

¹² Before ruin a person's heart is proud, but humility comes before honor.

¹³ One who answers before listening—that is his folly and his shame.

¹⁴ One's spirit sustains him through illness,
but who can bear a crushed spirit?

¹⁵ A discerning heart gains knowledge, the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.

Overcoming Opposition and Offenses

¹⁶ A man's gift makes room for him, and leads him before great men.

¹⁷ The first to state his case seems just, until another comes and cross-examines him.

¹⁸ Casting lots ends quarrels and decides between mighty opponents.

¹⁹ An offended brother is more formidable than a fortified city,
and quarrels are like the bars of a fortress.

²⁰ From the fruit of his mouth a man's stomach is filled—with the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.

²¹ Death and life are in the control of the tongue.
Those who indulge in it will eat its fruit.

²² Whoever finds a wife finds good,
and receives favor from ADONAI.

²³ The poor request favor,

but the rich answer harshly.

²⁴ A man with many friends may be harmed by them, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Better to Be Poor with Integrity

19 Better to be poor, walking with integrity, than be a fool whose lips are corrupt.

² Zeal without knowledge is not good, † or to act hastily and miss the way.

³ A man's folly undermines his way,
and his heart rages against ADONAI.

⁴ Wealth adds many friends, yet a poor man is deserted by his friend.

⁵ A false witness will not go unpunished, one who breathes lies will not escape.

⁶ Many seek the favor of the generous.
Everyone is a friend to a giver of gifts.

⁷ All a poor man's relatives despise him—how much more his friends avoid him.
He pursues them with words, but they are not there.

⁸ One who gets wisdom loves his own soul.
One who treasures understanding prospers.

⁹ A false witness will not go unpunished, and one who breathes lies will perish.

¹⁰ Luxury is not fitting for a fool—how much less for a servant to rule over princes!

Watch Your Temper

¹¹ Prudence makes one slow to anger and his glory is to overlook an offense.

¹² A king's wrath is like a roaring lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

¹³ A foolish son is trouble for his father, and a quarrelsome wife is constant dripping.

¹⁴ House and wealth are an inheritance from fathers, but a prudent wife is from ADONAI.

¹⁵ Laziness brings on deep sleep, and an idle soul will starve.

¹⁶ One who keeps a mitzvah guards his soul,
but one who neglects His ways will die.

¹⁷ One who is kind to the poor lends to ADONAI, and ADONAI will reward him for his good deed.

¹⁸ Discipline your son while there is hope.
Do not set your heart on his death.

¹⁹ One with great rage will pay a penalty.
For if you rescue him, you will have to do it again.

Listen to Wise Counsel

²⁰ Listen to advice and accept instruction, so that in the end you may be wise.

²¹ Many are the plans in a man's heart, but the counsel of ADONAI will stand.

²² What is desired in a man is loyalty, and a poor person is better than a liar.

²³ The fear of ADONAI leads to life, and he who has it rests satisfied, untouched by harm.

† cf. Rom. 10:2.

Sluggards, Scoffers, and Disgraceful Sons

24 The slacker buries his hand in a bowl and will not even bring it back to his mouth!
25 Strike a scoffer and the naïve will learn caution.
rebuke a discerning person and he will gain knowledge.
26 He who robs his father and drives away his mother is a son who brings shame and disgrace!
27 My son, if you stop heeding instruction,
you will stray from words of knowledge.
28 A crooked witness scorns justice, and a wicked mouth devours iniquity.
29 Judgments are prepared for scoffers, and floggings for the back of fools.
20 Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler.
Whoever is led astray by them is unwise.
2 The terror of a king is like a lion's growl.
Whoever provokes him endangers his life.
3 It is honor for one to resolve a dispute, yet every fool quarrels.
4 A slacker will not plow in season,
so at harvest he looks but finds nothing.
5 The intent of a man's heart is deep water, but a man of insight draws it out.

Loyalty, Integrity, Justice

6 Many a man proclaims his loyalty, but a faithful man who can find? † 7 A righteous person walks in integrity.
Blessed are his children after him.
8 A king sitting on the throne to judge separates out all evil with his eyes.
9 Who can say: "I have kept my heart pure;
I am cleansed from my sin"? †† 10 Unequal weights and measures— ‡
both are an abomination to ADONAI.
11 Even a child is known by his actions, whether his conduct is pure and upright.
12 Ears that hear and eyes that see—
ADONAI has made them both.
13 Do not love sleep, lest you become poor.
Open your eyes, and you will be satisfied with food.

ADONAI's Lamp Searches

14 "It's bad, bad!" says the buyer, but then he goes away and boasts.
15 There is gold and abundance of rubies, but lips that speak knowledge are precious.
16 Take a man's garment, who puts up security for a stranger,
and hold it in pledge, as security for a foreign woman.
17 Bread gained by fraud is sweet to a man,
but later his mouth is filled with gravel.

† cf. Luke 18:8. †† cf. John 1:8. ‡ Lit. A stone and a stone, an ephah and an ephah

18 Plans are made by counsel, so wage war with guidance.
19 A talebearer goes about, revealing secrets, so do not associate with a babbler.
20 Whoever curses his father or his mother, †† his lamp will be snuffed out in utter darkness.
21 An estate acquired quickly in the beginning will not be blessed in the end.
22 Do not say, "I will pay back evil!"
Wait for ADONAI, so He may deliver You.
23 Unbalanced weights are detestable to ADONAI, and dishonest scales are wicked.
24 A man's steps are directed by ADONAI.
How then can anyone understand his own way?
25 It is a trap for one to say rashly, "It is holy!"
and only afterward to consider his vows.
26 A wise king winnows out the wicked.
He turns a threshing wheel over them.
27 The spirit of man is the lamp of ADONAI, searching all his inmost being.
28 Lovingkindness and truth preserve the king,
but his throne is upheld by lovingkindness.
29 The glory of young men is their strength, and the splendor of old men is gray hair.
30 Blows that wound scour away evil, and beatings purge the innermost being.

ADONAI Weighs the Heart

21 A king's heart is like a stream of water in the hand of ADONAI;
he directs it wherever He wants. †† 2 All a man's ways seem right in his own eyes, but ADONAI weighs the heart.
3 To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to ADONAI than sacrifice.
4 Haughty eyes and a proud heart—
the lamp of the wicked is sin.
5 Plans of the diligent surely lead to gain,
but all who are hasty come only to loss.
6 Getting treasures by a lying tongue is like a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.

Violence and Ruin of the Wicked

7 The violence of the wicked sweeps them away, because they refuse to act justly.
8 The way of the guilty is crooked,
but the conduct of the pure is upright.
9 It is better to live on a corner of a roof than in a house shared with a quarrelsome wife.
10 A wicked soul craves evil—his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.
11 When a mocker is punished, the naïve become wise.
When a wise person is instructed, he gains knowledge.

†† cf. Matt. 15:4. †† cf. Luke 16:15.

¹² The righteous one considers the house of the wicked, throwing the wicked down to their ruin.
¹³ Whoever shuts his ears to the cry of the poor, will also cry out but not be answered.
¹⁴ A gift in secret soothes anger, and a bribe given secretly, fierce rage.
¹⁵ Doing justice brings joy to the righteous, and terror to those who do evil.
¹⁶ Whoever strays from the path of wisdom ends up in the congregation of the dead.
¹⁷ Whoever loves pleasure becomes poor.
 Whoever loves wine and oil will not be rich.
¹⁸ The wicked is a ransom for the righteous and the faithless for the upright.
¹⁹ It is better to live in a desert land than with a quarrelsome, worrisome wife.
²⁰ Precious treasure and oil are in a wise person's dwelling,
 but a foolish person devours all he has.
²¹ Whoever pursues righteousness and mercy finds life, prosperity, and honor.
²² A wise person scales the city of warriors and brings down the stronghold in which they trust.
²³ Whoever guards his mouth and tongue keeps his soul out of troubles.
²⁴ A proud and haughty man —Mocker is his name—acts with overbearing pride.
²⁵ A slacker's craving will kill him, because his hands refuse to work.
²⁶ All day long he craves greedily, yet the righteous one gives and does not hold back.
²⁷ The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination—how much more when he brings it with evil intent?
²⁸ A false witness will perish, but a man who hears will speak forever.
²⁹ A wicked man puts on a bold face,
 but the upright man considers his ways.
³⁰ There is no wisdom,
 there is no understanding,
 there is no counsel—
 against ADONAI.
³¹ A horse is prepared for the day of battle,
 but victory comes from ADONAI.
22 A good name is to be chosen rather than great wealth,
 and grace rather than silver or gold.
² Rich and poor have this in common—ADONAI is the Maker of them all.
³ A crafty person sees danger and hides, but the naïve keep going and suffer for it.
⁴ The reward of humility and fear of ADONAI is riches, honor, and life.
⁵ Thorns and snares are in the path of the perverse, but one who guards his soul stays far from them.
⁶ Train up a child in the way he should go, when he is old he will not turn from it.

⁷ The rich rule over the poor,
 the borrower is a slave to the lender.
⁸ One who sows injustice will reap trouble, and the rod of his fury will perish.
⁹ One with a bountiful eye will be blessed,
 for he shares his bread with the poor.
¹⁰ Throw out a scoffer and strife will go out, quarreling and disgrace will cease.
¹¹ One who loves purity of heart and whose speech is gracious, will have the king as his friend.
¹² The eyes of ADONAI guard knowledge, but He undermines
 the words of the faithless.
¹³ The slacker says, "There's a lion outside!
 I'll be killed in the streets."
¹⁴ The mouth of a seducing woman is a deep pit—into it will fall one with whom ADONAI is angry.
¹⁵ Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child, but a rod of discipline will drive it far from him.
¹⁶ The one who oppresses the poor to increase his own gain, and the one who gives to the rich—both end in poverty.
¹⁷ Incline your ear and listen to the words of the wise, and apply your heart to my knowledge.
¹⁸ For it is delightful if you keep them within you, ready on your lips.
¹⁹ So that your trust may be in ADONAI,
 I made them known to you this day, even you.
²⁰ Have I not written to you 30 sayings of admonition and knowledge, ²¹ to show you true and reliable words, that you may give a true answer to those who sent
 you?
²² Do not rob a poor person because he is poor, nor crush the needy at the gate, ²³ for ADONAI will plead their case,
 and rob life from those who plunder them.
²⁴ Do not be friends with one given to anger or associate with a hot-tempered person, ²⁵ lest you learn his ways,
 and entangle your soul in a snare.
²⁶ Do not be one who shakes hands or puts up security for debts.
²⁷ If you do not have enough to pay,
 why should your bed be taken from under you?
²⁸ Do not move an ancient boundary stone which your fathers set up.
²⁹ Do you see a man skilled in his work?
 He will stand before kings.
 He will not stand before obscure people.

Advice about Appetites

23 When you sit down to dine with a ruler, consider carefully what is set before you, ² and put a knife to your throat if you possess a large appetite.

³ Do not crave his delicacies, for that food is deceptive.
⁴ Do not wear yourself out to get rich.
Be wise enough to restrain yourself.
⁵ When you cast your eyes on riches, it is gone;
for it surely sprouts wings and flies off into the sky like an eagle.
⁶ Do not eat the food of a stingy person, or desire his delicacies.
⁷ For as he thinks within himself, so is he.
“Eat and drink”, he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.
⁸ You will vomit up the morsel you ate,
and will waste your pleasant words.
⁹ Do not speak in the ears of a fool,
for he will disdain the wisdom of your words.
¹⁰ Do not move an ancient boundary stone, or encroach on fields of the fatherless, ¹¹ for their redeemer is strong.
He will plead their case against you.
¹² Apply your heart to discipline and your ears to words of knowledge.
¹³ Do not withhold correction from a child.
If you strike him with a rod, he will not die.
¹⁴ Punish him with a rod, and deliver his soul from Sheol.

Wisdom's Path to the Future

¹⁵ My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart also will be glad.
¹⁶ Yes, my inmost being will rejoice when your lips speak what is right.
¹⁷ Do not let your heart envy sinners,
but always be in the fear of ADONAI.
¹⁸ For surely there is a future,
and your hope will never be cut off.
¹⁹ Listen, my son, and be wise, and guide your heart in the right way.
²⁰ Do not join those drinking too much wine or gorging on meat, ²¹ for both drunkards and gluttons will be impoverished—
grogginess will clothe them with rags.
²² Listen to your father who begot you and do not despise your mother when she is old.
²³ Acquire truth and do not sell it, acquire wisdom, instruction, and understanding.
²⁴ The father of a righteous one rejoices greatly.
Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him.
²⁵ Let your father and your mother be glad,
let she who bore you rejoice!
²⁶ My son, give your heart to me,
and let your eyes observe my ways.
²⁷ For a prostitute is a deep pit, an adulterous woman is a narrow pit.
²⁸ Indeed, she lies in wait like a robber, and increases the unfaithful among men.

Lingering Long over Wine

²⁹ Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has fights? Who has complaining?
Who has bruises for no reason?
Who has red eyes?
³⁰ Those who linger long over wine, who go looking for mixed wine.
³¹ Do not gaze at wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it glides down smoothly.
³² In the end it bites like a serpent and stings like a viper.
³³ Your eyes will see strange things.
Your heart will utter perverse things.
³⁴ Then you will be like one lying down in the heart of the sea,
or sprawled on the top of a mast.
³⁵ “They hit me! But I was not hurt.
They beat me up! But I did not feel it.
When will I wake up?
I will look for another drink.”
24 Do not envy evil people, or desire to be with them,
² for their hearts contemplate violence, and their lips speak mischief.

Strength through Wise Counsel

³ By wisdom a house is built, by understanding it is prepared,
⁴ and by knowledge its rooms are filled with every rare and pleasing treasure.
⁵ A wise man is strong, and a man of knowledge becomes even stronger.
⁶ For with wise advice you wage war and in many counselors there is victory.
⁷ Wisdom is unattainable for a fool—
he does not open his mouth at the gate.
⁸ One who plots evil will be called a schemer.
⁹ A foolish scheme is sin, and people detest a mocker.

Counsel on Friendship

¹⁰ If you falter in a day of adversity, your strength is small.
¹¹ Rescue those being dragged off to death, hold back those stumbling to slaughter.
¹² If you say, “Look, we didn’t know this.”
Won’t He who weighs hearts perceive it?
Won’t He who guards your soul know it?
Won’t He repay each one according to his deeds? † ¹³ Eat honey, my son, for it is good,
and honeycomb is sweet to your taste.
¹⁴ Likewise know that wisdom is sweet to your soul.

† cf. Rom. 2:6.

If you find it, there will be a future, and your hope will not be cut off.

¹⁵ Do not lurk like the wicked near the dwelling of the righteous.

Do not assault his home.

¹⁶ For though the righteous one may fall seven times, he gets up again, but the wicked stumble in adversity.

¹⁷ Do not rejoice when your enemy falls, or let your heart be glad when he stumbles, ¹⁸ or ADONAI may see it as evil in His eyes, and turn His wrath away from him.

¹⁹ Do not be upset because of evil people, or be envious of the wicked, ²⁰ for the evil person has no future, and the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.

²¹ My son, fear ADONAI and the king, [†] and do not associate with rebels.

²² For their destruction will arise suddenly, and who knows the ruin both ADONAI and the king can bring?

²³ These sayings are also from the wise: Partiality in judgment is not good.

²⁴ Whoever tells the guilty, "You are innocent," people curse him and nations revile him.

²⁵ But for those who convict the guilty there will be delight— good blessing will come upon them.

²⁶ An honest answer is like a kiss on the lips.

²⁷ Finish your outdoor work and get your fields ready.

After that, build your house.

²⁸ Do not be a witness against your neighbor without cause, and do not deceive with your lips.

²⁹ Do not say, "I will do to him what he has done to me;

I will pay him back for his deed!" ^{††}

Lesson of the Lazy

³⁰ I passed by the field of the slacker, by the vineyard of one lacking judgment.

³¹ Surprisingly, it was all overgrown with thorns, the ground was covered with weeds, and its stone wall was broken down.

³² Then I took to heart what I observed and learned a lesson from what I saw:

³³ "A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep,"

³⁴ then your poverty comes tramping in, and your need like an armed soldier.

The Glory of Searching a Matter

²⁵ These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied:

² It is the glory of God to conceal a matter and the glory of kings to search it out.

³ As high as heaven and deep as earth, so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.

⁴ Remove impurities from silver and out comes material for the refiner.

⁵ Remove the wicked from before the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness.

⁶ Do not honor yourself in the king's presence, and do not stand in the place of great men.

⁷ Better for him to say to you, "Come up here," than for you to be humiliated before a nobleman.

What your eyes have seen,

⁸ do not bring hastily to court, or what will you do afterward, when your neighbor puts you to shame?

⁹ Argue your case with your associate, without betraying another's confidence,

¹⁰ or the one who hears it will shame you, and you will never lose your bad reputation.

A Fitting Reproof is Precious

¹¹ Like apples of gold in settings of silver is a word aptly spoken.

¹² Like a gold earring or a gold ornament is a wise reproof to a receptive ear.

¹³ Like the coolness of snow at harvest time is a faithful messenger to those who send him for he refreshes his master's soul.

¹⁴ Like clouds and wind without rain is one who boasts about a gift not given.

¹⁵ Through patience a ruler may be persuaded, and a soft tongue can break a bone.

Proverbs for Daily Life

¹⁶ When you find honey, eat just enough, lest you are stuffed and vomit it.

¹⁷ Seldom set foot in your neighbor's house, lest he become weary of you and loathe you.

¹⁸ Like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow is one who bears false witness against his neighbor.

¹⁹ Like a broken tooth or a lame foot is confidence in the unfaithful in time of trouble.

²⁰ Like taking off a garment on a cold day or like vinegar poured on soda, is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.

²¹ If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink, ²² for you will heap coals of fire on his head [‡] and ADONAI will reward you.

²³ A north wind brings rain, and a backbiting tongue angries faces.

[†] cf. Rom. 13:1-5. ^{††} cf. Matt. 5:39; Rom. 12:17, 19.

[‡] cf. Rom. 12:20.

24 Better to dwell in a corner of a roof than share a house with a quarrelsome wife.
25 Like cold water to a weary soul is good news from a distant land.
26 Like a muddied spring or a polluted well is a righteous person who yields before the wicked.
27 It is not good to eat too much honey, or honorable to seek one's own honor.
28 Like a city whose walls are broken down is one with no control over his temper.

Folly of Fools

26 Like snow in summer or rain at harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.
2 Like a fluttering sparrow or a flying swallow,
so an undeserved curse does not land.
3 A whip for a horse, a bridle for a donkey, and a rod for the back of fools.
4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly, else you also will be like him.
5 Answer a fool according to his folly, else he will be wise in his own eyes.
6 Like cutting off one's feet or drinking violence is sending a message by a fool's hand.
7 Like a lame man's legs that hang limp,
so is a proverb in a fool's mouth.
8 Like tying a stone into a sling,
so is giving honor to a fool.
9 Like a thorn bush in a drunkard's hand is a proverb in a fool's mouth.
10 Like an archer who wounds at random is one who hires a fool or any passer-by.
11 Like a dog that returns to its vomit, so a fool repeats his folly. † 12 Do you see one wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than him.

Folly of Slackers

13 A slacker says,
"There's a lion on the road!
A lion is in the streets!"
14 As a door turns on its hinges so a slacker turns on his bed.
15 The slacker plunges his hand in the dish—
he is too tired to bring it back to his mouth.
16 A slacker is wiser in his own eyes than seven people who answer sensibly.

Folly of Lashon Ha-Ra

17 Like one who takes a dog by the ears is a passer-by who meddles in a quarrel not his own.
18 Like a madman shooting firebrands and deadly arrows so is one who deceives his friend, and says, "I was only joking."
19 Without wood a fire goes out;

without gossip quarrels cease.
21 As coals are to embers and wood to fire,
so is a contentious person to kindling strife.
22 A gossip's words are like tasty morsels—they slide down into the innermost parts of the body.
23 Like silver glaze overlaying earthenware are fervent †† lips with an evil heart.
24 One who hates, disguises it with his lips,
but he stores up deceit within him.
25 When he speaks favorably, do not believe him, for there are seven abominations in his heart.
26 Though his hatred may be concealed by deceit, his evil will be exposed before the assembly.
27 Whoever digs a pit will fall in it, and whoever rolls a stone—it will come back upon him.
28 A lying tongue hates those crushed by it, and a flattering mouth causes ruin.

Do Not Boast

27 Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring. ‡ 2 Let another praise you and not your own mouth, a stranger and not your own lips.
3 A stone is heavy and sand a burden, but provocation by a fool is heavier than both.
4 Wrath is cruel and anger is overwhelming, but who can stand before jealousy?
5 Better is open rebuke than hidden love.
6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend,
but excessive the kisses of an enemy.
7 One who is full loathes honeycomb, but to one who is hungry every bitter thing is sweet.
8 Like a bird that strays from its nest is a man that wanders from his home.

Iron Sharpens Iron

9 As ointment and perfume gladden the heart, so the sweetness of one's friend comes from his sincere counsel.
10 Do not forsake your friend, or your father's friend, nor go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster—better a neighbor nearby than a brother far off.
11 Be wise, my son, make my heart glad,
so I may answer anyone who taunts me.
12 The prudent see danger and hide,
but the naïve keep going and pay the penalty.
13 Take a man's garment, who puts up security for a stranger,
and hold it in pledge, as security for a seductive
woman.
14 If someone blesses his friend with a loud voice early in the morning,
it will be taken as a curse.

† cf. 2 Pet. 2:22.

†† Lit. burning ‡ cf. Jacob 4:13-16.

15 Continual dripping on a day of steady rain and a contentious wife are alike—16 hiding her is like hiding the wind or grasping oil with the right hand.
17 As iron sharpens iron,
so a person sharpens the countenance of his friend.
18 Whoever tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, whoever takes care of his master will be honored.
19 As water reflects the face, so a person's heart reflects the person.
20 Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied, and neither are the eyes of man.
21 A crucible is for silver and a furnace is for gold,
but a person is proved by the praise he receives.
22 Even if you pound the fool along with the grain in a mortar with a pestle, his foolishness would never leave him.
23 Know well the condition of your flocks, pay attention to your herds, 24 for riches are not forever,
nor a crown from generation to generation.
25 When hay is removed and grass appears, and grain from the hills is gathered in, 26 lambs will provide you with clothing, and goats with the price of a field.
27 There will be enough goats' milk for food and food for your household, and sustenance for your maidservants.

Confidence, Discernment, Integrity

28 The wicked flee when no one is pursuing,
but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
2 When a country is in rebellion, it has many rulers, but a man of discernment and knowledge maintains order.
3 A poor man who oppresses the weak is like pounding rain without food.
4 Those who forsake Torah praise the wicked,
but those who keep Torah stir them up.
5 Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek ADONAI understand it fully.
6 Better the poor who walks in his integrity than the rich whose ways are crooked.
7 He who keeps Torah is a discerning son,
but a companion of gluttons disgraces his father.
8 Whoever increases his wealth by exorbitant interest, gathers it for one kinder to the poor.
9 One who turns his ear from hearing Torah
—even his prayer is an abomination.
10 One who leads the upright astray along an evil path will fall into his own pit, but the blameless will inherit good.
11 A rich person is wise in his own eyes,
but a discerning poor person sees through him.
12 When the righteous triumph there is great glory,
but when the wicked rise to power, people hide.
13 One who covers up his transgressions will not prosper, but whoever confesses and forsakes them finds mercy.

14 Blessed is one who is always cautious, but whoever hardens his heart will fall into trouble.
15 Like a roaring lion or a prowling bear is a wicked ruler over helpless people.
16 An oppressive leader lacks judgment.
One who hates unjust gain will prolong his life.
17 A man tormented by the guilt of murder flees to the Pit—let no one support him.
18 Whoever walks blamelessly will be safe, but whoever is perverse in his ways will fall suddenly.

Wisdom about Finances

19 Whoever works his land will be satisfied with food, but whoever chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.
20 A faithful man will have many blessings,
but one eager to get rich will not go unpunished.
21 To show partiality is not good—yet for a piece of bread a man may do wrong.
22 A stingy man † chases after riches,
but does not know that poverty will overtake him.
23 One who rebukes a man will in the end find more favor
than one with a flattering tongue.
24 Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, “It's not a crime,”
is a partner to him who destroys.
25 A greedy soul stirs up strife,
but one who trusts in ADONAI prospers.
26 Whoever trusts in his own heart is a fool,
but he who walks in wisdom will escape.
27 One who gives to the poor will not lack,
but one who shuts his eyes will have many curses.
28 When the wicked rise to power, people hide,
but when they perish, the righteous increase.
29 One who remains stiff-necked after many rebukes will suddenly be destroyed—without remedy.
2 When the righteous thrive, people rejoice.
When the wicked rule, people groan.
3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father,
but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.
4 By justice a king brings stability to a land,
but one who takes bribes brings it ruin.
5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.
6 In an evil man's wrongdoing is a trap,
but the righteous sings and rejoices.
7 A righteous person considers justice for the poor.
The wicked one has no such concern.
8 Mockers incite a city,
but wise men turn away anger.
9 If a wise man argues with a foolish man,
he rants or laughs, with no resolution.
10 Bloodthirsty people hate a man of integrity

† Lit. a man with an evil eye and seek the soul of the upright.

¹¹ A fool gives full vent to his temper, but a wise man holds it back.
¹² If a ruler listens to lies,
 all his servants will be wicked.
¹³ The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
ADONAI gives light to the eyes of both.
¹⁴ If a king judges the poor with truth, his throne will always be secure.
¹⁵ A rod and reproof give wisdom,
 but a child left to himself disgraces his mother.
¹⁶ When the wicked thrive, wrongdoing increases,
 but the righteous will see their downfall.
¹⁷ Correct your son and he will give you rest.
 He will bring delight to your soul.
¹⁸ Where there is no divine vision people cast off restraint,
 but blessed is the one who keeps Torah.
¹⁹ A servant cannot be corrected by words, for though he understands, he will not respond.
²⁰ Do you see someone hasty in his words?
 There is more hope for a fool than him.
²¹ If someone pampers his slave from childhood, in the end he will be ungrateful.
²² An angry man stirs up dissention, and a hotheaded one commits many transgressions.
²³ A man's pride will bring him low,
 but a humble spirit will gain honor.
²⁴ An accomplice of a thief is his own enemy.
 He hears the oath but says nothing.
²⁵ Fear of man will prove to be a snare,
 but one who trusts in ADONAI will be kept safe.
²⁶ Many seek an audience with a ruler,
 but from ADONAI one receives justice.
²⁷ The righteous detest the unjust, and the wicked detest the upright.

What Is the Name of His Son?

30 The words of Agur son of Jakeh—an oracle this man declared to Ithiel, to Ithiel and to Ucal:
² "Surely I am more stupid than any man and do not have a man's understanding.
³ I have not learned wisdom, nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.
⁴ Who has gone up into heaven, and come down? †
 Who has gathered the wind in the palm of His hand?
 Who has wrapped the waters in a cloak?
 Who has established all the ends of the earth?
 What is his name and what is the name of His son—if you know?" ††
⁵ Every word of God is purified.
 He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.
⁶ Do not add to His words, or else He will rebuke You and prove you a liar.
⁷ Two things I ask of You—do not refuse me before I die:

⁸ Keep falsehood and lies far from me.
 Give me neither poverty nor riches,
 but feed me with my allotted bread, ‡ ⁹ lest I become satisfied and deny You and say, "Who is ADONAI?"
 Or lest I become poor, and steal and profane the Name of my God.

A Filthy, Haughty Generation

¹⁰ Do not slander a servant to his master, or he will curse you, and you pay for it.
¹¹ There is a generation that curses its father and does not bless its mother.
¹² There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes, and yet is not cleansed from its filth.
¹³ There is a generation whose eyes are so haughty, whose eyelids are lifted up disdainfully.
¹⁴ There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose molars are knives, to devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among humanity.
¹⁵ The leech has two daughters: "Give! Give!"
 Three things are never satisfied, four never say, "Enough!"—
¹⁶ Sheol, a barren womb, land that is not satisfied with water,
 and fire that never says, "Enough!"
¹⁷ The eye that mocks a father and scorns obeying a mother—
 will be pecked out by ravens of the valley and eaten by young vultures!
¹⁸ Three things are too amazing for me,
 four I do not understand:
¹⁹ the way of an eagle in the sky,
 the way of a serpent upon a rock,
 the way of a ship in the heart of the sea,
 and the way of a man with a maiden.
²⁰ Such is the way of an adulteress:
 she eats, wipes her mouth and says,
 "I have done nothing wrong."
²¹ Under three things the earth trembles, and under four it cannot bear up:
²² under a slave when he becomes a king,
 a fool when he is stuffed with food, ²³ an unloved woman when she is married, and a handmaid when she displaces her mistress.

Lessons from Creatures

²⁴ Four things on earth are small, yet they are exceedingly wise:
²⁵ ants are creatures with little strength,
 yet they store up their food in summer;
²⁶ coney are creatures with little power, yet they make their homes in the cliffs;
²⁷ locusts have no king,

† cf. John 3:13; Eph. 4:8. †† cf. Rev. 19:12.

‡ cf. Matt. 6:11.

yet they advance together in ranks;
²⁸ a lizard you can catch with the hand, yet it is found in kings' palaces.
²⁹ Three things are stately in their stride, four that move with stately bearing:
³⁰ a lion, mighty among beasts, who never backs down from anything;
³¹ a strutting rooster, a male-goat,
 and a king with his army around him.
³² If you have acted foolishly, exalting yourself, or if you have planned evil,
 put your hand over your mouth.
³³ For as churning milk produces butter, and twisting the nose produces blood, so stirring up anger produces strife.

A Mother's Warning

31 The words of King Lemuel, an oracle that his mother taught him:
² O my son, O son of my womb,
 O son of my vows,
³ do not give your vigor to women, or your ways to what ruins kings.
⁴ It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine,
 or for rulers to crave strong drink,
⁵ lest they drink, forget what is decreed, and pervert justice for all the oppressed.
⁶ Give strong drink to one who is dying, and wine to those who are bitterly distressed—⁷ let him drink, forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.
⁸ Open your mouth on behalf of those unable to speak,
 for the justice of all who are destitute.
⁹ Open your mouth, judge righteously, plead the cause of the poor and needy.

A Woman of Valor

¹⁰ An accomplished woman who can find?
 Her value is far beyond rubies.
¹¹ Her husband's heart trusts in her,

and he lacks nothing valuable.
¹² She brings him good and not harm
 all the days of her life.
¹³ She selects wool and flax and her hands work willingly.
¹⁴ She is like merchant ships, bringing her sustenance from afar.
¹⁵ She rises while it is still night and provides food for her household and portions for her servant girls.
¹⁶ She considers a field and buys it.
 From the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.
¹⁷ She girds herself with strength and invigorates her arms.
¹⁸ She discerns that her business is good.
 Her lamp never goes out at night.
¹⁹ She extends her hands to the spindle and her palm grasps the spinning wheel.
²⁰ She spreads out her palms to the poor, and extends her hands to the needy.
²¹ She is not afraid of snow for her house,
 for her whole household is clothed in scarlet wool.
²² She makes her own luxurious coverings.
 Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
²³ Her husband is respected at the city gates,
 when he sits among the elders of the land.
²⁴ She makes linen garments and sells them and supplies sashes to the merchants.
²⁵ Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the days to come.
²⁶ She opens her mouth with wisdom—
 a lesson of kindness is on her tongue.
²⁷ She watches over the affairs of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness.
²⁸ Her children arise and bless her,
 her husband also praises her:
²⁹ "Many daughters have excelled, but you surpass them all."
³⁰ Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears ADONAI will be praised.
³¹ Give her the fruit of her hands.
 Let her deeds be her praise at the gates.

Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes Introduction

The title for the misunderstood book of Ecclesiastes is a feminine participle from the verb, assembled, which means “assemble,” and probably refers to the one who speaks in the congregation, thus, “preacher” or “teacher.” Used with a definite article, as in Ecclesiastes 12:8, it functions as a title, and not a proper name. The title may best be rendered “The Teacher.”

Although the author’s personal name is not mentioned in the text, he is “the son of David, king in Jerusalem” (Eccles. 1:1). References to the author’s wisdom (Eccles. 1:16), wealth (Eccles. 2:7), indulgence (Eccles. 2:3), extensive building activities (Eccles. 2:4–6), and proverbs (Eccles. 12:9) are consistent with the traditional identification of Solomon as the author. This attribution may be found in the Septuagint, and the Talmud (cf. Er. 21b; Shab. 30a); however, the Talmud also ascribes authorship to King Hezekiah and his colleagues (cf. B. Bat. 14b–15a). While dogmatism is unwarranted, preference is to be given to Solomonic authorship, perhaps with evidence of later editorial touches.

If Solomon is accepted as the author, the book was probably written around 930–935 BC in Jerusalem.

Linguistic evidence is cited in support of a date in either the Persian period or the post-exilic period, but such evidence is inconclusive. Ancient fragments of found at Qumran among the Dead Sea Scrolls, dating to approximately 150 BC, and its influence on the apocryphal book, Ecclesiasticus, render any date much after 300 BC most unlikely. The message was directed to the rising generation of the faithful in Israel. Its canonicity was at first disputed, according to the (Yad. 3:5; ‘Eduy. 5:3); however, Hillel’s earlier acceptance of the book prevailed. Likewise, Akiba accepted its canonicity in the second century. It is instructive to note that rabbinic discussion generally revolves around the reason for its inclusion in the canon, not the fact of its inclusion.

The occasion, of course, depends upon authorship and date, but the book purports to have been written late in the king’s life, for it recounts what he has learned and admonishes the reader to be wise and seek that which will be of eternal significance and value, in contrast to that which is vain and transitory (on this, cf. . . 1:1–10). Everything in this life is marred by the curse which lies upon all creation (Eccles. 1:2), but God is sovereign. Ultimately, the reader is to “fear God and keep His commandments” (Eccles. 12:13). This life only has significance when man remembers his Creator (Eccles. 12).

Though the book contains no explicit Messianic predictions or typologies, there may be some vague references. Some have found in 7:28 a reference to the Messiah, the “one man.” Others note that the message is called “words of truth,” (Eccles. 12:10) given by “one Shepherd” (Eccles. 12:11). called Himself “the truth,” “the good shepherd” (John 10:14), and “a greater than Solomon” (Luke 11:31), coming to show the true meaning of life.

Kohelet: the Preacher

1 The words of Kohelet † son of David, king in Jerusalem.
² Futile! Futile! says Kohelet.
 Completely meaningless!
 Everything is futile! ††
³ What does a person gain in all his labor that he toils under the sun?
⁴ A generation comes, and a generation goes,
 but the earth remains forever.
⁵ The sun rises and the sun sets, and hurries back to the place it rises.
⁶ The wind goes toward the south, and circles around to the north.
 Round and round it swirls about,
 ever returning to its circuits.
⁷ All the rivers flow into the sea,
 yet the sea is never full.
 To the place where the rivers flow,
 there they go again.
⁸ All things are wearisome.
 No one can express them.
 The eye is never satisfied with seeing,
 nor the ear filled with hearing.
⁹ What has been is what will be,
 and what has been done will be done again.
 There is nothing new under the sun.
¹⁰ Is there anything about which is said,
 "Look! This is new!"?
 It was already here long ago,
 in the ages long before us.
¹¹ There is no remembrance for former things, and things yet to come will not be remembered by those who follow.

Search for Meaning in Life

¹² I, Kohelet, am king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³ I applied my heart to seek and examine by wisdom all that is done under heaven. What a burdensome task God has given the sons of men to keep them occupied. ¹⁴ I have seen all the deeds done under the sun; and behold, all is meaningless and chasing after the wind.
¹⁵ What is crooked cannot be made straight.

† Hebrew Kohelet preacher; collector of sentences
 †† cf. Rom. 8:20.

What is missing cannot be counted.

¹⁶ I spoke with my heart saying: "I have grown rich and increased in wisdom more than any who were before me over Jerusalem. Indeed, my heart has experienced much wisdom and knowledge." ¹⁷ So I applied my heart to know wisdom as well as to know madness and folly. I learned that this too was pursuit of the wind.

¹⁸ For with much wisdom comes much grief, and whoever keeps increasing knowledge, increases heartache.

Futility of Human Pleasures

2 I said within myself, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure to see what is good." Yet behold, this too was meaningless. ² I said of laughter, "It is madness!" and of pleasure, "What does it accomplish?"

⁴ I increased my possessions. I built myself houses and I planted myself vineyards. ⁵ I made royal gardens and parks for myself, and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them. ⁶ I constructed for myself pools of water to irrigate a forest of flourishing trees. ⁷ I purchased male and female servants and had other servants who were born in my house. I also owned more herds and flocks than all my predecessors in Jerusalem. ⁸ I also amassed silver and gold for myself, as well as the treasure of kings and the provinces. I acquired male and female singers for myself, as well as the luxuries of humankind—vaults and vaults of them. ⁹ So I became far wealthier than all before me in Jerusalem, yet my wisdom stayed with me.

¹⁰ I denied myself nothing that my eyes desired;

I withheld from my heart no enjoyment.

My heart took delight from all my toil—

this was my reward for all my labor.

¹¹ Yet when I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had expended to accomplish it, behold, it all was futile and chasing after the wind.

There was nothing to be gained under the sun.

‡ The word shiddah

Futility of Human Wisdom

¹² Then I turned to consider wisdom, madness, and folly. For what more can the one who succeeds the king do than what he has already done? ¹³ I realized that:

Wisdom is more beneficial than folly as light is better than darkness.

¹⁴ A wise man has his eyes in his head, while the fool walks in the darkness.

Yet, I also came to realize that the same destiny befalls them both.

¹⁵ Then said I in my heart:

"I, even I, will have the same destiny as a fool.

So why have I become so wise?"

I said in my heart, "This too is meaningless."

¹⁶ For the wise man, together with the fool, is not remembered forever.

For in the days to come both will be forgotten.

Alas, the wise, just like the fool, must die!

¹⁷ And so I hated life, because the work done under the sun was grievous to me. All is but vapor and chasing after the wind. ¹⁸ I also hated all the fruit of my toil for which I had labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the one who comes after me. ¹⁹ Who knows if he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will be master over all the fruit of my toil for which I had wisely labored under the sun. This too is futile. ²⁰ So I turned my heart over to despair over all the things for which I had toiled under the sun. ²¹ For sometimes a man, who has labored with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, must hand over as an inheritance to someone who did not work for it. This also is futile and a great misfortune. ²² For what does a man get for all his toil and longing of his heart for which he labors under the sun? ²³ For all his days, his work is pain and grief. Even at night his mind does not rest. This also is futility.

²⁴ There is nothing better for people than to eat and drink, and to find enjoyment in their labor. This too, I perceived, is from the hand of God. ²⁵ For who can eat and who can have joy, apart from Him? ²⁶ For to the one who pleases Him, He gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy, but to the sinner He gives the task of gathering and accumulating wealth to give it to one who pleases God. This also is only vapor and striving after the wind.

A Time for Everything

3 For everything there is a season and a time for every activity under heaven:

² a time to give birth and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot what is planted;

³ a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build up;

⁴ a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance;

⁵ a time to scatter stones and a time to gather stones,

a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;

⁶ a time to seek and a time to lose,
a time to keep and a time to discard;

⁷ a time to tear apart and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak;

⁸ a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

⁹ What gain, then, does the laborer get with his toil?

¹⁰ I have seen the task that God has given to the children of men to keep them occupied.

Yet Eternity in Their Heart

¹¹ He has made everything beautiful in its time. Moreover, He has set eternity in their heart—yet without the possibility that humankind can ever discover the work that God has done from the beginning to the end. ¹² I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and enjoy themselves in their lifetime. ¹³ Also when anyone eats and drinks, and finds satisfaction in all of his labor, it is the gift of God. ¹⁴ I know that everything that God does will endure forever. There is no adding to it or taking from it. God has made it so, that they will revere Him.

¹⁵ Whatever exists, has already been and whatever will be, has already been,
but God recalls what has passed.

¹⁶ I have also seen under the sun:
In the place of justice there was wickedness,
and in the place of righteousness there was wickedness.

¹⁷ I said in my heart:

"The righteous and the wicked,
God will judge.

For there is a time for every activity and for every deed."

Humans Same as Beasts?

¹⁸ I also said in my heart, "As for the sons of man, God tests them so that they may see that they are but animals." ¹⁹ For the destiny of humankind and the destiny of animals are one and the same. As one dies, so dies the other. Both have the same breath—a human has no advantage over an animal—both are fleeting. ²⁰ Both go to one place. Both were taken from the dust, and both return to the dust. ²¹ Who knows that the spirit of the sons of man ascends upward and the animal's spirit descends into the earth?

²² So I perceived that nothing is better than for man to enjoy his works, because that is his portion. For who can bring him back to see what will be in the future?

Futility of Human Labor

4 Again I looked and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun, and behold,
I saw the tears of the oppressed,

but they have no comforter.
 Power is in the hand of their oppressors,
 but they had no comforter.
² So I considered the dead,
 who are already dead,
 more fortunate than the living,
 who are still alive.
³ Yet better than both is one who has not yet been, who has never seen the evil work that is done under the sun.
⁴ Then I saw that all toil and all skill that is done come from man's envy of his neighbor; this too is fleeting and striving after the wind.
⁵ The fool folds his hands together and eats his own flesh.
⁶ Better is a handful with tranquility than two handfuls of toil and striving after the wind.
⁷ Again I saw something futile under the sun:
⁸ There is one who has no one else,
 neither son nor brother,
 yet there is no end to all his toil.
 His eyes are not content with riches.
 "So, for whom am I toiling, and depriving myself of prosperity?"
 This too is meaningless—a grievous task!

Two Are Better than One

⁹ Two are better than one, because they get a good return for their effort.
¹⁰ For if they fall,
 the one will lift up his companion.
 But oy to the one who falls and has no one to lift him up!
¹¹ Furthermore, if two lie together,
 then they will be warm.
 But how can one keep warm alone?
¹² Though a man might overpower one,
 two can stand against him.
 Moreover a threefold cord cannot be quickly broken.
¹³ Better is a poor but wise youth than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to take warning. ¹⁴ For he came out of prison to become king—though he was born poor in his kingdom. ¹⁵ I considered all the living that walk under the sun as well as the next youth who stands in his place. ¹⁶ There is no end to all the people—to all who were before him. Also those who will come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this too is meaningless and striving after the wind.

Watch Your Words before God

¹⁷ (5:1) Watch your feet when you go to the House of God. Draw near to listen, rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they are doing wrong.

⁵ (2) Do not be quick with your mouth nor hasty in your heart to utter a word in God's presence.
 For God is in heaven, and you are on the earth—
 therefore, let your words be few.
² (3) As a dream comes with excessive burdens
 so a fool's voice with too many words.
³ (4) When you swear a vow to God, don't delay in fulfilling it.
 For He takes no delight in fools.
 Pay what you vow!
⁴ (5) It is better for you not to vow than to vow and not pay.
⁵ (6) Don't let your mouth lead your flesh to sin, and don't say before the messenger,
 "It was a mistake!"
 Why should God be angry at your voice and destroy the work of your hands?
⁶ (7) Many dreams and many words are meaningless.
 Therefore, fear God!

Bureaucratic Oppression

⁷ (8) If you see the oppression of the poor or perversion of justice and righteousness in the province, do not be shocked at the matter. For one authority watches over another authority, and higher ones are over them. ⁸ (9) Though the profit of the land is taken by all, a king is served by the fields.

Futility of Wealth

⁹ (10) A lover of money never has enough money, and a lover of wealth is never satisfied with his income.
 This too is futile.
¹⁰ (11) When goods increase,
 so do those who consume them.
 So what advantage are they to the owner except he sees it with his eyes?
¹¹ (12) The sleep of the laborer is sweet, whether he eats little or much—but the excess of the rich permits him no sleep.
¹² (13) There is a grievous wrong that I have seen under the sun: wealth hoarded by its owner to his own hurt, ¹³ (14) or wealth lost in a bad investment, and when he fathers a son, there is nothing in his hand.
¹⁴ (15) As he came from his mother's womb, naked he will return as he came.
 He takes nothing from his labor that he can carry in his hand.
¹⁵ (16) This too is a grievous wrong.
 Just as he came, so will he go,
 so what does he gain,
 from his toiling for the wind?
¹⁶ (17) So, all his days he eats in darkness, and he has much grief, sickness, and humiliation.

¹⁷ (18) Behold, this is what I myself have seen. It is beneficial and good for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy all of his toil that he labors under the sun during the few days of his life that God has given him—for this is his reward. ¹⁸ (19) Additionally, everyone to whom God has given riches and wealth, and empowers him to eat from it, to receive his share, and to rejoice in his labor—this is a gift of God. ¹⁹ (20) For he will not often consider the days of his life, since God keeps him occupied with the joy of his heart.

Futility of Living without God

6 There is a misery that I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy upon humanity. ² God gives a man riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing that his heart desires, yet God does not enable him to eat from it—instead a foreigner will eat it. This is fruitless—an agonizing illness.

³ Even if a man should father a hundred children and live many years, however many the days of his years may be, yet his soul is never satisfied with his prosperity and he does not have a proper burial, then I say that it is better for the stillborn than him. ⁴ Even though it comes in futility and departs into darkness, though its name is shrouded in darkness, ⁵ though it has never seen or experienced the sun, it has more rest than the other. ⁶ Even if the other man were to live a thousand years twice and never enjoy good things—do not all go to the same place?

¹⁰ Whatever exists has already been named, and it has been made known what humanity is. But man cannot contend with the One who is mightier than he. ¹¹ When there are many words, futility increases! How does that benefit anyone?

¹² For who knows what is good for one during his life—during the few days of his fleeting life—that pass like a shadow? For who can tell a person what happens after him under the sun?

Lessons from Mourning

7 Better is a good reputation than precious oil and the day of death than the day of birth.

² Better to go to a house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting, since that is the end of all mankind—and the living should take it to heart.

³ Grief is better than laughter, for though the face is sad, the heart may be glad.

⁴ The heart of the wise is in a house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in a house of pleasure.

Wisdom Better than Folly

⁵ Better to hear a rebuke from the wise than to listen to the song of fools.

⁶ For like the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool.

This too is vapor.

⁷ For extortion drives a wise man crazy, and a bribe corrupts the heart.

⁸ Better the end of a matter than its beginning. Better a patient spirit than a proud one.

⁹ Do not be quickly provoked in your spirit, † for anger settles in the bosom of fools.

¹⁰ Do not say, "Why were the old days better than these?"

For it is not from wisdom that you ask about this.

¹¹ Wisdom is as good as an inheritance, and even better for those who see the sun.

¹² For wisdom is a shelter as money is a shelter, but the advantage of knowledge is this: wisdom preserves the life of the one who possesses it.

¹³ Consider the work of God, for who can straighten what He has bent?

¹⁴ In a time of prosperity, prosper!

But in a time of adversity, consider: God has made one as well as the other.

Therefore man cannot discover anything about his future.

Avoid Extremes

¹⁵ During my fleeting days I have seen both of these things: sometimes a righteous one perishes in his righteousness and sometimes a wicked one lives long in his wickedness.

¹⁶ Do not be overly righteous nor overly wise—why confound yourself?

¹⁷ Do not be overly wicked and do not be a fool—why die before your time?

¹⁸ It is good to grasp the one and not withdraw your hand from the other. For the one who fears God will escape both extremes.

¹⁹ Wisdom makes a wise man stronger than ten rulers in a city.

²⁰ Surely there is not a righteous person on earth who does what is good and doesn't sin. ††

²¹ Also, do not pay attention to every word people say, otherwise you might hear your servant mocking you—

²² for your heart knows that many times

† cf. Matt. 5:22. †† cf. Rom. 3:23.

you too have mocked others.

²³ All this I have tested with wisdom and I said, "I determined to be wise"—but it was far from me. ²⁴ Whatever it may be, it is far off and very profound—who can fathom it? ²⁵ So I turned my heart to understand, to search and seek out wisdom and an explanation of things and to know the stupidity of wickedness and madness of folly.

²⁶ I find more bitter than death the woman who is a snare, whose heart is a trap, and whose hands are chains.
He who pleases God will escape her,
but a sinner will be captured by her.

²⁷ "Look," said Kohelet, "I have discovered this while adding one thing to another to find the scheme of things—²⁸ which my soul is still seeking, but not finding—I found one upright man among a thousand, but one upright woman among them all I have not found. ²⁹ Only this have I discovered: God made mankind upright, but they went seeking after many schemes."

Wisdom's Light and Limits

8 Who is like the wise person?

Who knows the meaning of a matter?
A person's wisdom makes his face shine, transforming the harshness of his face.

² I say: "Obey the king's command, and especially in regard to the oath of God. ³ Do not be hasty to rush out of his presence. Do not stand up for an evil cause, because he will do whatever he desires. ⁴ Since the word of a king has authority, who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'"

⁵ Whoever obeys his command will not experience harm, and a wise person's heart discerns the proper time and procedure. ⁶ For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter, though a person's trouble is heavy upon him.

⁷ Since no one knows what will be,
who can tell when it will happen?

⁸ No one has authority over the wind to restrain it, nor authority over the day of death.

As no one is discharged during a battle,
so wickedness cannot rescue its master.

⁹ I have seen all this while applying my mind to everything done under the sun: sometimes one person dominates another person to his own harm.

¹⁰ Then I saw the wicked buried—they used to come and go from the holy place, but will soon be forgotten in the very city where they did this. This too is meaningless.

¹¹ When the sentence against a crime is not swiftly carried out, the human heart is encouraged to do evil.

¹² Even though a sinner might commit a hundred crimes and prolong his days, yet I know that it will be well for those who fear God, for those who revere Him. ¹³ But it will not go well with the wicked, and he will not lengthen his days like a shadow, because he does not fear God.

¹⁴ There is another enigma that occurs upon the earth: there are righteous people who are requited according to the work of the wicked, and there are wicked people who are requited according to the work of the righteous. I said, "This also is meaningless."

¹⁶ When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to observe the activity that is done upon the earth (his eyes not seeing sleep either day or night), ¹⁷ then I saw all the work of God. No one can comprehend the work that is done under the sun. Despite all human efforts to seek it out, no one comprehends. Even if a wise person claims to know, he cannot really comprehend.

One Destiny for All

9 For all this I laid on my heart and to ascertain all this: that the righteous and the wise, as well as their works are in the hand of God. Whether love or hatred, no one knows—everything awaits them.

² Everyone shares the same destiny: for the righteous and the wicked; for the good, the ritually clean, and the defiled; for one who sacrifices and one who does not sacrifice; as the good person so the sinner; as the one who swears like the one who fears an oath.

³ This is a misery in everything done under the sun: that the same destiny awaits everyone. Moreover, the hearts of all humans are full of evil, and folly is in their hearts during their lives—after that they die. ⁴ Everyone who is among the living has hope—even a living dog is better off than a dead lion.

⁵ For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing.
They have no further reward,
even the memory of them is forgotten.

⁶ Their love, their hatred, and their zeal have already perished;
never again will they have a share in anything that is done under the sun.

⁷ Go! Eat your bread with gladness and drink your wine with a merry heart, for God has already accepted your deeds. ⁸ Let your clothes always be white, and do not spare oil on your head. ⁹ Live joyously with the wife whom you love all the days of your fleeting life that He has given you under the sun during all your fleeting days—for this is your portion in life and in your toil that you labor under the sun.

¹⁰ Whatever your hand finds to do, do with your all strength, for there is no work or planning or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, where you are going.

¹¹ I further observed under the sun:
The race is not to the swift nor the battle to the mighty, nor does bread come to the wise,
or wealth to the discerning,

or favor to the skillful;
 for time and chance befall them all.
¹² Moreover, no man knows his time:
 like fish caught in a fatal net or birds caught in a snare, so people are trapped in a time of calamity, that falls upon them suddenly.
¹³ I also observed this as wisdom under the sun, and it greatly impressed me. ¹⁴ There was a little city with a few people in it and a mighty king came against it, surrounded it, and built great siege works against it.
¹⁵ Now a poor, wise man was found in it, and he delivered the city by his shrewdness. Yet nobody remembered that poor man! ¹⁶ So I said: "Wisdom is better than strength." But the poor man's wisdom is despised and his words are not heeded.
¹⁷ The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than a ruler's shout among fools.
¹⁸ Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner destroys much good.

Wisdom and Folly

10 Dead flies make a perfumer's oil stink, so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.
² The heart of the wise is to his right, and the heart of the fool is to his left.
³ Even as the fool walks along the way, his heart lacks sense and tells everyone what a fool he is.
⁴ If a ruler's spirit rises up against you,
 do not leave your post,
 for composure allays great offences.
⁵ There is a wrong I have seen under the sun like an error proceeding from a ruler.
⁶ Fools are placed in many high positions, while the rich sit in low ones.
⁷ I have seen slaves on horses, and princes walking on the ground like slaves.
⁸ Whoever digs a pit may fall into it, and whoever breaks through a fence may be bitten by a snake.
⁹ Whoever quarries stones may be hurt by them,
 and whoever splits logs may be endangered by them.
¹⁰ If the iron axe is blunt and one doesn't sharpen the edge, then he must exert more force.
 So wisdom has the advantage of giving success.
¹¹ If the snake bites before it is charmed, there is no profit for the charmer.
¹² Words from the mouth of the wise are gracious, but the lips of a fool destroy him.
¹³ The words from his mouth begin as folly and end as grievous madness—¹⁴ and the fool multiplies words.
 No one knows what will happen,
 and who can tell him what will happen after him?
¹⁵ The mischief of fools wearies them for he doesn't know how to go to town.

¹⁶ Oy to you, O land, when your king is a youth † and your princes feast in the morning.
¹⁷ Happy are you, O land, when your king is a son of nobles,
 and your princes eat at the proper time—
 in self-control and not in drunkenness!
¹⁸ By laziness the rafters sag, and by idle hands the house leaks.
¹⁹ A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes life glad—but money is the answer for everything.
²⁰ Do not ridicule the king—even in your thoughts, nor curse the rich in your bedroom.
 For a bird of the air may carry your voice,
 and a winged creature may report your words.

Wisdom of the Long View

11 Cast your bread upon the waters, for after many days you will find it.
² Give portions to seven, or even to eight, for you do not know what disaster may happen upon the earth.
³ If the clouds are full,
 they empty out rain upon the earth.
 Whether a tree falls to south or north,
 the tree lies wherever it falls.
⁴ Whoever keeps watching the wind will not sow and whoever gazes at the clouds will not reap.
⁵ Just as you do not know how the spirit passes into the bones in the womb of a pregnant woman, so you do not know the work of God who makes all things.
⁶ In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening do not let your hand be idle, for you do not know if this or that will succeed, or if both will prosper together.
⁷ Light is sweet,
 and it is pleasant for the eyes to see the sun.
⁸ For if a man lives many years,
 let him rejoice in them all.
 But let him remember the days of darkness—for there will be many.
 Everything to come is obscure.
⁹ Rejoice, young man, in your childhood, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth.
 Walk in the ways of your heart and in the sight of your eyes, but know that for all these things
 God will bring you to judgment.
¹⁰ So banish anxiety from your heart and cast off distress from your body, for youth and prime of life are fleeting.

Ode for the Aging

1 So remember your Creator

† Or servant

¹2 in the days of your youth:
 before the days of misery come,
 and years draw near when you will say:
 "I have no pleasure in them"— ²before the sun and light and moon and the stars grow dark,
 and the clouds dissipate after the rain, ³in the day the keepers of the house tremble,
 and the strong men stoop,
 when grinders stop because they are few,
 and those peering out windows grow dim, ⁴when doors are shut in the street and the sound of the mill fades, when one arises at the chirp of a bird and all their songs grow faint, ⁵when they also are afraid of heights and of dangers on the road, when the almond tree blossoms,
 the grasshopper drags itself along,
 and the caper berry fails to excite—for a man is going to his eternal home, and mourners go about in the street—⁶before the silver cord is snapped, or the golden bowl is crushed,
 or the jug at the cistern is shattered,

or the wheel at the well is broken.

⁷Then the dust returns to the ground it came from,
 and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

⁸"Evanescient vapors," says Kohelet.
 All is futility.

Conclusion: Fear God

⁹Furthermore, Kohelet was not only wise but he also taught the people knowledge. He pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰ Kohelet searched to find delightful words and truthful, accurate sayings. ¹¹ The words of the wise are like goads, their collective sayings are like firmly affixed nails. They have been given by one Shepherd. ¹² Be warned my son of anything in addition to them: There is no end to the making of many books, and excessive study wearies the flesh.

¹³ A final word, when all has been heard:

Fear God and keep His mitzvot!

For this applies to all mankind.

¹⁴ God will bring every deed into judgment, including everything that is hidden,
 whether it is good or evil.

Song of Songs

Song of Songs

Introduction Song of Songs is a true chart topper, the Song of ALL Songs. In contrast to Kohelet's "vanity of vanities, all is vanity" as noted in Ecclesiastes, Song of Songs is a beautiful biblical anthology on the love between a man and a woman. Song of Songs is known as, סִירְיֹשָׁה רִישׁ, in Hebrew. It is a wonderful manual for marriage.

This short book is a portrayal of love, replete with many metaphorical expressions of beauty such as, "My love is to me a spray of henna blooms in the vineyard of En-gedi." (Song of Songs 1:14) or "How lovely you are, my darling, how lovely! Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of ewe goats descending down from Mount Gilead." (Song of Songs 4:1). There are many references to the land of Israel and her beauty in this book.

Although many have tried to spiritualize this book and draw parallels to one's intimate walk with God, for the most part, this book must be taken as it is—a love story between Solomon and the Bride, also known as the Shulamite. There is, of course, the potential of covenant love expressed between the two.

One of the most beautiful expressions in this book of love is "My beloved is mine, and I am his!" (Song of Sg. 2:16), Dodi Lee, V'ani Lo, לֹדִי דָוִד וְאֲנִי לֵי לֹדִי. In the 21st century, sexual love is often confused for lust. However, in the Song of Songs, marital sexual love is biblically celebrated—naked, face-to-face, and unashamed.

A Bride Sings of Her Lover

² Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth!
 For your love is better than wine.

³ Your ointments have a pleasing fragrance.
 Your name is poured out like perfume.
 No wonder maidens love you!

⁴ Draw me after you, let us run!
 The king has brought me into his chambers.

Chorus: Daughters of Zion

Let us rejoice and be glad in you;
 let us extol your love more than wine.
 Rightly do they love you!

† Or the best song

The Bride

⁵ I am black, but beautiful,
 O daughters of Jerusalem,
 like the tents of Kedar,
 like the curtains of Solomon.

⁶ Do not gaze at me because I am dark, because the sun has looked on me.
 My mother's sons were angry with me and made me keeper of the vineyards;
 my very own vineyard I have not kept.

⁷ Tell me, the one my soul loves,
 where you graze your flock,
 where you make it lie down at noon?
 Why should I be as one veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

The Lover and Bride Express Affection

8 If you yourself do not know,
 O most beautiful among women,
 go out yourself in the footsteps of the flock and graze your kids by the shepherds' tents.
 9 I compare you, my darling, to my mare among Pharaoh's chariots.
 10 Your cheeks are lovely with ornaments, your neck with strings of beads.
 11 Ornaments of gold we will make for you with spangles of silver.
 12 While the king is on his couch, my nard spreads its fragrance. † 13 My lover is my pouch of myrrh, passing the night between my breasts.
 14 My love is to me a spray of henna blooms in the vineyards of En-gedi.
 15 How lovely you are, my darling, how lovely!
 Your eyes are doves.
 16 How handsome you are, my lover!
 Oh, so delightful!
 Yes, our couch is luxuriant.
 17 The beams of our houses are cedar trees, our panels are cypress trees.
2 I am a rose of Sharon,
 a lily of the valleys.
 2 Like a lily among thorns,
 so is my darling among the daughters.
 3 Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest,
 so is my lover among the sons.
 In his shadow I delighted to sit,
 and his fruit was sweet to my taste.
 4 He has brought me to the banquet house and his banner over me is love.
 5 Sustain me with raisin cakes, refresh me with apples—
 for I am weak with love.
 6 His left hand is under my head and his right hand embraces me.
 7 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you,
 by the gazelles and does of the field:
 Do not arouse or awaken love until it delights.
 8 The voice of my lover!
 Behold, he is coming—leaping over the mountains, springing over the hills!
 9 My lover is like a gazelle or a young buck among the stags.
 Look! He is standing behind our wall—gazing through the windows, peering through the lattice.
 10 In response my lover said to me:
 "Get yourself up, my darling,
 my pretty one, and come, come! †† 11 For behold, the winter has past, the rain is over, it has gone.

12 Blossoms appear in the land,
 the time of singing has come,
 and the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land.
 13 The fig tree ripens its early figs.
 The blossoming vines give off their fragrance.
 Arise, come, my darling,
 my pretty one, and come, come!
 14 My dove, in the clefts of the rock, in a secret place along the steep path,
 let me see your form,
 let me hear your voice.
 For your voice is sweet and your form is lovely."
 15 Catch the foxes for us—
 the little foxes that ruin the vineyards, for our vineyards are in blossom.

The Bride's Revelry

16 My lover is mine, and I am his!
 He grazes his flocks among the lilies.
 17 Until the day cools
 and the shadows flee away,
 turn about, my lover,
 like a gazelle or like a stag upon the mountains of spices.
3 On my bed in the night
 I longed for the one my soul loves.
 I looked for him but did not find him.
 2 I will get up and go about the city, into the streets and into the squares.
 I must seek the one my soul loves.
 I looked for him but did not find him.
 3 The guards patrolling the city found me.
 "Have you seen the one my soul loves?"
 4 Hardly had I passed beyond them when I found the one my soul loves.
 I held him, and I would not let him go,
 until I brought him to my mother's house,
 to the chamber of her who conceived me.
 5 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you,
 by the gazelles and does of the field:
 Do not arouse or awaken love
 until it delights.

The King on His Wedding Day

6 Who is this—she who is coming up from the wilderness
 like columns of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
 with every powder of the merchant?
 7 Behold, it is Solomon's traveling couch—around it are 60 warriors from the warriors of Israel.
 8 All of them wield a sword, experts in war.
 Each man with his sword on his thigh

† cf. Mark 14:3; John 12:3. †† cf. Acts 7:3.

against terrors of the night.
 9 King Solomon has made for himself a carriage from the trees of Lebanon.
 10 He made its posts of silver, its back of gold,
 its seat of purple cloth, its interior fitted out with love
 by the daughters of Jerusalem.
 11 Go out, daughters of Zion, and gaze upon King Solomon, with a wreath his mother placed on him on the day of his marriage—on the day of his heart's joy.

The King Delights in His Bride

4 How lovely you are, my darling, how lovely!
 Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
 Your hair is like a flock of ewe goats descending down from Mount Gilead.
 2 Your teeth are like a flock of shorn ewes coming up from washing.
 Each of them has a twin,
 and none among them is missing.
 3 Your lips are like a scarlet thread and your speech is lovely.
 Your temple is like a slice of pomegranate
 behind your veil.
 4 Like the tower of David is your neck, built for weapons.
 A thousand shields are hung on it
 —all shields of warriors.
 5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, like twin gazelles grazing among the lilies.
 6 Until the day cools
 and the shadows flee away,
 I will go to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.
 7 You are altogether lovely, my darling, and no blemish is in you. † 8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
 Watch from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir, even Hermon,
 from lions' dens,
 from mountains of leopards.
 9 You have captivated my heart,
 my sister, my bride—
 you captivated me
 with one of your eyes,
 with one jewel from your necklace.
 10 How delightful is your love,
 my sister, my bride!
 How much better is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your oils better than all spices!
 11 Your lips, my bride, drip honey from the honeycomb.

Honey and milk
 are under your tongue.
 The scent of your garments is like the aroma of Lebanon.
 12 A locked garden is my sister, my bride, an enclosed spring, a sealed fountain.
 13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruit, henna with nard 14 —nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon—
 with all the trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes,
 along with all the finest spices—15 a garden spring, a well of living water †† and flowing streams from Lebanon.
 16 Awake, north wind, and come, south wind!
 Blow on my garden,
 Let its fragrance spread out.
 Let my lover come into his garden and eat its choicest fruit.

Awake and Waiting

5 I have come into my garden,
 my sister, my bride.
 I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.
 I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey.
 I have drunk my wine with my milk.
 Eat, O friends,
 Drink, yes, drink your fill, O lovers!
 2 I sleep, but my heart is awake.
 A voice! My lover is knocking!
 "Open to me, my sister, my darling,
 my dove, my perfect one!
 For my head is drenched with dew, my locks with dewdrops of night."
 3 I have stripped off my coat.
 How can I put it on again?
 I have washed my feet.
 How can I soil them?
 4 My lover extended his hand through the opening
 —my heart yearned for him.
 5 I rose to open for my lover.
 My hands dripped with myrrh,
 yes, my fingers with flowing myrrh,
 on the handles of the lock.
 6 I opened to my lover—
 but my lover had departed,
 he was gone!
 My soul went out to him when he spoke.
 I searched for him, but did not find him.
 I called him, but he did not answer me.
 7 The guards making rounds in the city found me.
 They beat me, bruised me.
 The guards on the walls took my veil from me.

† Lit. there is no flaw in you

†† cf. John 4:10.

8 Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge you,
if you should find my lover,
what will you tell him?
That I am sick from love!

9 How is your lover different from other lovers,
O most beautiful among women?
How is your lover different from other lovers
that you charge us so?

10 My lover is dazzling and ruddy, standing out among ten thousand.

11 His head is purest gold, his hair is wavy,
black as a raven.

12 His eyes are like doves beside streams of water, washed with milk,
mounted in their settings.

13 His cheeks are like a bed of spice, towers of sweet-scented perfume.
His lips are lilies, dripping with liquid myrrh.

14 His hands are rods of gold set with jasper.
His abdomen is carved ivory inlaid with sapphires.

15 His legs are pillars of alabaster set on bases of pure gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon—excellent like the cedars.

16 His mouth is sweetness.
Yes, he is totally desirable.
This is my lover! Yes, this is my friend,
O daughters of Jerusalem.

6 Where has your lover gone, most beautiful among women?
Where has your lover turned,
so we may seek him with you?

2 My lover went down to his garden, to the beds of balsam to graze his flocks in the gardens and to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved's and my beloved is mine.
He browses among the lilies.

Acclaiming the Bride's Beauty

4 You are beautiful, my darling, like Tirzah,
lovely as Jerusalem,
awesome as an army with banners.

5 Turn your eyes away from me, for they overwhelm me!
Your hair is like a flock of ewe goats
descending down from Gilead.

6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes that have come up from the washing.
Each of them has a twin,
and none among them is missing.

7 Your temple is like a slice of pomegranate
behind your veil.

8 There are 60 queens, 80 concubines, and young women beyond number.

9 Yet my dove, my perfect one is unique.
She is her mother's only one—
a virtuous child of the one who bore her.
Maidens saw her and called her blessed.
Queens and concubines praised her.

10 Who is this that appears like dawn?
As beautiful as the moon,
bright as the sun,
awesome as an army with banners.

11 I went down into the garden of nut trees to look at the fruit of the valley, to see if the vine had budded,
or the pomegranates had bloomed.

12 Before I was aware, my soul set me among the chariots of my princely people.

7 (6:13) Come back, come back, O Shulammitte!
Come back, come back,
that we may look upon you.
Why do you gaze at the Shulammitte like the dance of Mahanaim?

2 (1) How lovely are your sandaled feet,
O nobleman's daughter!
The curves of your thighs are like jewels,
the work of a craftsman's hand.

3 (2) Your navel is a round goblet, may it not lack mixed wine.
Your belly is a heap of wheat enclosed with lilies.

4 (3) Your two breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle.

5 (4) Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are pools in Heshbon near the gate of Bath-Rabbim.
Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon overlooking Damascus.

6 (5) Your head crowns you like Carmel, and the hair of your head like purple.
The king is captivated in its tresses!

7 (6) How beautiful and how pleasing you are,
O Love, with your delights!

8 (7) Your stature is like a date palm and your breasts like its clusters.

9 (8) I said, "I will climb the date palm and take hold of its fruit."
May your breasts be like clusters of the vine, the fragrance of your breath like apple.

The Bride's Appeal

10 (9) May your mouth be like the best wine, going down smoothly for my beloved,
causing the lips of sleepers to speak.

11 (10) I am my lover's, and his desire is for me.

12 (11) Come, my beloved,
let us go out into the field.
Let us spend the night in the villages.

¹³ (12) Let us go out early to the vineyards,
—let us see if the vine has budded, if their blossoms have opened,
and if the pomegranates have bloomed—
there I will give you my love.
¹⁴ (13) The mandrakes have given off fragrance, and over our door is every choice fruit,
both new and old,
that I have stored up for you, my lover.
8 O, that you were like a brother to me,
who nursed at my mother's breasts.
If I found you outside, I would kiss you,
and no one would despise me.
² I would lead you and bring you into my mother's house—
she who has taught me.
I would give you spiced wine to drink from the nectar of my pomegranate.
³ O that his left hand were under my head, and his right hand embraced me.
⁴ I charge you, daughters of Jerusalem,
Do not arouse or awaken love
until it so delights.

Protecting Love

⁵ Who is this coming up from the wilderness leaning on her lover?
Under the apple tree I roused you.
There your mother travailed with you.
There she who was in labor gave you birth.
⁶ Set me like a seal over your heart,
like a seal on your arm.
For love is as strong as death,

jealousy as cruel as Sheol.
Its flames are bolts of fire,
the flame of ADONAI.
⁷ Many waters cannot quench love,
nor rivers wash it away.
If one gave all the wealth of his house for love,
it would be utterly despised.
⁸ We have a little sister, still without breasts.
What shall we do for our sister on the day when she is spoken for?
⁹ If she is a wall,
we will build on her a turret of silver.
If she is a door,
we will fence her in with cedar plank.
¹⁰ I am a wall,
and my breasts like towers.
Thus I have become in his eyes
as one bringing shalom.
¹¹ Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-Hamon.
He entrusted the vineyard to caretakers.
Each was to bring for his fruit
a thousand pieces of silver.
¹² My very own vineyard is before me.
The thousand are for you, Solomon, and two hundred for those who tend the fruit.
¹³ You who abide in the gardens, friends are listening for your voice.
Let me hear it!
¹⁴ Come quickly, my beloved, and be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

Isaiah

Isaiah Introduction

The Hebrew name of Isaiah's book is simply the prophet's name, , meaning " is salvation." Isaiah prophesied to the Southern Kingdom of Judah. Though he lived in the eighth century BCE, his book covers approximately 740–500 BCE. In this period, the Assyrian and Babylonian Empires rose and fell, and the Persian Empire began to flourish. This was a momentous time in Jewish history: the Northern Kingdom of Israel went into captivity to Assyria in 722 BCE, the Southern Kingdom of Judah was sent into exile in 586 BCE by Babylon, and the Judean exiles returned seventy years later under King Cyrus of Persia.

But Isaiah is not simply a book of history much as it is a book about God. In Isaiah, we discover that Israel's God is unique among the so-called gods of the world. Unlike idols, for example, God can speak forth the future. Neither good times nor hard times are random—not for individuals, and not for entire nations. Our lives and all of history are in God's hands.

Isaiah has a favorite name for God: the "Holy One of Israel." Because He is holy, He judges His people for their sin, which in Isaiah is often faithlessness—trusting someone or something else rather than God. The people and their leaders, the kings, were given the choice of trusting God even in the face of overwhelming adversity (the power of Assyria and Babylon). When they failed to do so, they experienced the judgment of God.

Yet even when He judges, God also holds out hope—something very important in Isaiah. One word of hope is the prophecy of the return from Babylonian exile. But there is an even more magnificent word of hope: the promise of the coming Messiah. He will be a special child who will grow to rule the nations (Isa. 7–11), and he will be the Servant of (chapters 52:13–53:12) whose death will atone for the sins of his people. This is fulfilled in the coming of , and made explicit in the .

In the end, Isaiah tells us that salvation will not be found in human leaders (who in Isaiah are the kings) nor in hanging out with the right crowd (in Isaiah, making political alliances with other nations). It will be found only in God who can save His people from the cause of their problems—human sin. Only He can make us holy and transform us into the kind of people who can be a light to others and show them a way to God.

 A Nation Born in a Day

1 The vision of Isaiah son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah:

A Nation Sick with Sin

² Listen! Heavens, and hear, earth,
 for ADONAI has spoken:
 "Sons I have raised and brought up,
 but they have rebelled against Me.
³ The ox knows its owner, and the donkey its manger,
 but Israel does not know,
 My people do not understand."
⁴ Oy, a sinful nation,
 a people weighed down with iniquity, offspring of evildoers,
 sons dealing corruptly!
 They have abandoned ADONAI.
 They have despised Israel's Holy One.
 They have turned backwards.
⁵ Where will you be struck again,
 as you stray away more and more?
 The whole head is sick,
 the whole heart faint.
⁶ From the foot to the head
 there is no soundness.

Wounds, bruises and raw sores:
 not pressed, nor bandaged,
 nor softened with oil.
⁷ Your land is desolate;
 your cities are burned with fire;
 your fields,
 strangers devour it in your presence—
 a desolation, overthrown by strangers.
⁸ So the Daughter of Zion is left as a sukkah in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers,
 as a besieged city.
⁹ Unless ADONAI -Tzva'ot had left us a small remnant, † we would have been as Sodom, we would have been as Gomorrah.
¹⁰ Hear the word of ADONAI, you rulers of Sodom!
 Give ear to the Torah of our God,
 you people of Gomorrah!

Worthless Offerings

¹¹ "For what is it to Me—the multitude of your sacrifices?"

† cf. Rom. 9:29.

says ADONAI.

"I am full of burnt offerings of rams and fat of fed animals.
I have no delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs or he-goats.

¹² When you come to appear before Me, who has required this at your hand—trampling My courts?

¹³ Bring no more worthless offerings!
Incense is an abomination to Me.
New Moon and Shabbat, the calling of convocations
—I cannot endure it—iniquity with solemn assembly.

¹⁴ Your New Moons and your Festivals
My soul hates!
They are a burden to Me.

I am weary to bear them.
¹⁵ When you spread out your hands,
I will hide My eyes from you.
When you multiply prayers,
I will not hear.
Your hands are full of blood!"

Scarlet Sins as Snow

¹⁶ "Wash and make yourselves clean.
Put away the evil of your deeds from before My eyes.
Cease to do evil.

¹⁷ Learn to do good,
seek justice, relieve the oppressed, defend the orphan,
plead for the widow.

¹⁸ "Come now, let us reason together,"
says ADONAI.

"Though your sins be like scarlet,
they will be as white as snow.
Though they be red like crimson,
they will become like wool.

¹⁹ If you are willing and obey,
you will eat the good of the land.

²⁰ But if you refuse and rebel,
you will be devoured with the sword."
For the mouth of ADONAI has spoken.

Restore the Faithful City

²¹ How the Faithful City became a harlot!
She once was full of justice, righteousness lodged in her—but now murderers!

²² Your silver has become dross, your wine diluted by water.

²³ Your princes are rebellious and friends with thieves.
Everyone loves a bribe and chases after rewards.
They do not defend the orphan,
nor does a widow's case come to them.

²⁴ Therefore says the Lord ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the Mighty One of Israel:

"Oy! I will get relief from My foes and avenge Myself on My enemies.

²⁵ Then I will turn My hand on you, purge away your dross,
and remove all your alloy.

²⁶ I will restore your judges as at first,
your counselors as at the start.
Afterward you will be called

City of Righteousness, Faithful City.
²⁷ Zion will be redeemed with justice, her repentant with righteousness."

²⁸ But there will be a crushing of transgressors and sinners together.

Forsaking ADONAI, they will be consumed.
²⁹ For they will be ashamed of the sacred oaks that you desired, and embarrassed because of the gardens that you have chosen.

³⁰ For you will be like an oak of withering leaf, like a garden that has no water.

³¹ So the strong will become tinder and his work like a spark—both will burn together, and no one will quench them.

2 The word which Isaiah, son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

Torah from Jerusalem

² It will come to pass in the last days that the mountain of ADONAI's House will stand firm as head of the mountains and will be exalted above the hills.
So all nations will flow to it.

³ Then many peoples will go and say:
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of ADONAI,
to the House of the God of Jacob!
Then He will teach us His ways,
and we will walk in His paths."

For Torah will go forth from Zion †
and the word of ADONAI from Jerusalem.

⁴ He will judge between the nations and decide for many peoples.
They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning knives.

Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
nor will they learn war any more.

⁵ Come house of Jacob,
let us walk in the light of ADONAI.

⁶ For You have forsaken Your people,
the house of Jacob.

For they are filled with soothsayers from the east, and they have clapped hands with the children of foreigners.

⁷ Their land also is full of silver and gold, nor is there any limit to their treasures.

† cf. Luke 24:47.

Their land also is full of horses,
 nor is there any limit to their chariots.
 8 Their land also is full of idols.
 They worship the work of their hands,
 what their own fingers have made.
 9 So humanity bows down
 as each one lowers himself.
 Pardon them not!
 10 Enter into the rock and hide in the dust, for fear of ADONAI ,
 and the glory of His majesty.

Lofty Ones Brought Low

11 The man of haughty eyes is humbled, the lofty ones brought low,
 for ADONAI alone will be exalted in that day.
 12 For the day of ADONAI - Tzva'ot will be against anyone proud and haughty, against anyone lifted up—he will be humbled, 13 against all the cedars of Lebanon that are lofty and lifted up, against all the oaks of Bashan, 14 against all the high mountains, against all the exalted hills, 15 against every high tower, against every fortified wall, 16 against all the Tarshish ships, and against all the luxury boats.
 17 The pride of man will be humbled, the arrogance of men abased,
 for ADONAI alone will be exalted in that day.
 18 The idols will completely pass away.
 19 People will go into the caves of the rocks and into the holes of the earth, † because of the fear of ADONAI
 and the splendor of His majesty,
 when He arises to shake the earth.
 20 In that day a man will cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold, which they made to worship,
 to the moles and to the bats!
 21 They go into the clefts of the rocks and the crevices of the crags, because of fear of ADONAI
 and the splendor of His majesty,
 when He arises to shake the earth.
 22 Stop trusting in mankind —whose breath is in his nose—for what is he really worth?

Downfall of Jerusalem and Judah

3 For behold! The Lord, ADONAI - Tzva'ot , takes from Jerusalem and from Judah supply and support, every supply of bread and every supply of water, 2 mighty man and man of war,

 judge, and prophet,
 fortune-teller and elder,
 3 captain of 50 and man of rank, counselor, crafty magician and cunning charmer.
 4 I will set children as their rulers.
 Capricious ones will govern them.
 5 The people will oppress one another—each one by his fellow,
 each one by his neighbor.
 The child will be insolent to the aged,
 and dishonorable to the honorable.
 6 When a man takes hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying:
 “You have a cloak, you be our ruler!
 This ruin is under your charge.”
 7 In that day he will protest, saying:
 “I’m no healer!
 In my house is no bread or cloak.
 Don’t make me a ruler of people!”
 8 For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah is fallen.
 For their tongue and their actions are against ADONAI , defying the eyes of His glory.
 9 The expression of their faces bears witness against them.
 They display their sin like Sodom—they do not hide it.
 Oy , their souls!
 For they brought evil on themselves.

The Judge Arises

10 Say to the righteous, he will be well, eating the fruit of their deeds.
 11 Oy , the wicked! It will be bad for him, for the dealing of his hands will be done to him.
 12 My people! Children are their oppressors and women rule over them.
 My people! Your guides mislead you and destroy the way of your paths.
 13 ADONAI arises to contend a case, and stands to judge the people.
 14 ADONAI will enter into judgment with the elders of His people and with the princes:
 “You have devoured the vineyard.
 The plunder of the poor is in your houses.
 15 What do you mean by crushing My people and grinding the face of the poor?”
 says ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot .
 16 Moreover ADONAI says:
 “Since the Daughters of Zion are proud, and walk with outstretched necks and seductive eyes,
 walking and mincing as they go,
 making a jingling with their feet,

† cf. Luke 23:30; Rev. 6:15-16.

¹⁷ therefore ADONAI will smite with a scab the forehead of the Daughters of Zion.

ADONAI will expose their secret parts.”

¹⁸ In that day ADONAI will strip the finery of anklets, headbands, crescents, ¹⁹ pendants and bracelets, veils, ²⁰ headdresses, armlets, sashes, perfume vials, amulets, ²¹ rings and nose-jewels, ²² festal robes, capes, cloaks, purses, ²³ lace scarves, fine linen, turbans, and veils.

²⁴ Now it will come to pass:

Instead of sweet spices there will be rotteness;
instead of a sash, rags;
instead of curled hair, baldness;
instead of fine clothing, sackcloth;
and branding instead of beauty.

²⁵ Your men will fall by the sword, and your warriors in battle.

²⁶ Her gates will lament and mourn.
Desolate, she will sit on the ground.

4 Seven women will grab hold of one man in that day, saying:

“We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel.
Only let us be called by your name—take away our reproach!”

Zion's End-Time Glory

² In that day the Branch of ADONAI will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land excellent and appealing for Israel's survivors. ³ So it will come to pass that whoever is left in Zion and whoever remains in Jerusalem will be called holy—everyone who is recorded among the living in Jerusalem.

⁴ After ADONAI has washed away the filth of the Daughters of Zion and has purged the blood of Jerusalem from her midst by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning, ⁵ then ADONAI will create over the whole area of Mount Zion and over her convocations, a cloud by day, and smoke and shining of a flaming fire by night. For over all, glory will be a canopy †. ⁶ Then there will be a sukkah for shade by day from the heat, and for refuge and for shelter from storm and from rain.

Song of the Vineyard

5 Let me sing of my beloved,
a song of my beloved, about His vineyard.
My beloved had a vineyard in a very fertile hill. ††

² He dug it out and cleared its stones, planted it with a choice vine, built a tower in the midst of it,
and even cut out a winepress.
He expected it to yield good grapes,
but it yielded worthless grapes.

† Hebrew chuppah of fatness

†† Lit. a horn, the son

³ So now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, please judge

between me and my vineyard.

⁴ What more was there to do for my vineyard that I have not done?

Why then, when I expected it to yield good grapes,
did it yield worthless grapes?

⁵ So now, I will make known to you what I will do to my vineyard:

I will take away the hedge,
and it will be eaten up.

I will break down the fence,
and it will be trodden down.

⁶ I will lay it waste:

it will not be pruned or hoed,
but briars and thorns will come up.

I will also command the clouds not to rain on it.

⁷ For the vineyard of ADONAI - Tzva'ot is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah
the planting of His delight.

He looked for justice,
but behold, bloodshed,
for righteousness,
but behold, a cry!

Judgment for Injustice

⁸ Woe to those who join house to house and merge field to field, until there is no room,
and you will live alone
in the midst of the land!

⁹ In my ears, ADONAI - Tzva'ot has said:
“Surely many houses will be desolate—even grand and fine ones—with no occupants.”

¹⁰ Ten acres of vineyard will yield six gallons, and an omer of seed will yield one ephah. ‡

¹¹ Woe to those who rise up early in the morning—
so they may pursue liquor, who stay up late at night,
until wine inflames them!

¹² Harp and lyre, tambourine and flute, and wine are at their banquets.
They do not notice ADONAI's activity nor see the works of His hands.

¹³ “Therefore My people are in captivity for lack of knowledge.

Their honorable men are famished and their multitudes parched with thirst.

¹⁴ Therefore Sheol has enlarged its gullet and opened its measureless mouth—down goes her glory, her tumult, her uproar, and the revelry in her.

‡ About six bushels yielding just one.

¹⁵ So humanity will be bowed down, mankind will be humbled,
 and the eyes of the lofty humbled."
¹⁶ But ADONAI - Tzva'ot will be exalted through justice, and the Holy God consecrated through righteousness.
¹⁷ Then lambs will graze as if in their own pasture, and nomads will eat in the ruins of the wealthy.
¹⁸ Oy to those that drag iniquity along with cords of deceit,
 and sin as if with a cart rope!
¹⁹ They say: "Let Him hurry up and hasten His work, so we may see it!
 Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come,
 so we may know it!"
²⁰ Oy to those who call evil good and good evil,
 who present darkness as light and light as darkness, who present bitter as sweet,
 and sweet as bitter!
²¹ Oy to those who are wise in their own eyes, and clever in their own sight!
²² Oy to those who are heroes at drinking wine, and valiant at mixing drinks, ²³ who justify the wicked for a bribe,
 and deprive the innocent of justice!
²⁴ Therefore, as a tongue of fire consumes straw, and as chaff collapses into the flame,
 so their root will be like rot,
 and their blossom will go up like dust.
 For they have rejected the Torah of ADONAI - Tzva'ot , and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.
²⁵ Therefore ADONAI 's anger is kindled against His people.
 When He has stretched out His hand against them and struck them, the hills trembled, and their carcasses were like refuse in the streets.
 For all this His anger is not turned away,
 yet His hand is still outstretched.
²⁶ He will lift up a banner to nations far off, and will whistle for them from the ends of the earth.
 Look! Swiftly, speedily they come!
²⁷ None will be weary and none stumble among them;
 none will slumber or sleep;
 no belt will be loose at the waist;
 no strap of sandals be broken.
²⁸ Their arrows are sharp and all their bows bent;
 their horse hooves will be like flint and their wheels like a whirlwind.
²⁹ Their roaring will be like a lion.
 They will growl like young lions—yes, they will roar, seize their prey and carry it away safely—

and there will be none to rescue.
³⁰ They will roar against them like the roaring of the sea.
 If one looks to the land,
 behold, darkness and distress!
 The light is darkened by the clouds.

Judah's Encounter with ADONAI

⁶ In the year of King Uzziah's death, I saw ADONAI sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, [†] and the train of His robe filled the Temple. ² Seraphim were standing above Him. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³ One called out to another, and said:
 "Holy, holy, holy, is ADONAI - Tzva'ot !
 The whole earth is full of His glory." ^{††} ⁴ Then the posts of the door trembled at the voice of those who called, and the House was filled with smoke. [‡]
⁵ Then I said:
 " Oy to me! For I am ruined!
 For I am a man of unclean lips,
 and I am dwelling among a people of unclean lips.
 For my eyes have seen the King, ADONAI - Tzva'ot !"
⁶ Then one of the seraphim flew to me, with a glowing coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷ He touched my mouth with it and said:
 "Behold, this has touched your lips.
 Your iniquity is taken away, and your sins atoned for."
⁸ Then I heard the voice of ADONAI saying:
 "Whom should I send, and who will go for Us?"
 So I said, " Hineni . Send me."
⁹ Then He said:
 "Go! Tell this people:
 'Hear without understanding, and see without perceiving.' ^{††} ¹⁰ Make the heart of this people fat, their ears heavy, and their eyes blind.
 Else they would see with their eyes,
 and hear with their ears,
 and understand with their heart, and return, and be healed." ^{‡‡}
¹¹ Then I said, " ADONAI , how long?"
 He answered,
 "Until cities are laid waste and without inhabitant, houses are without people,
 and the land is utterly desolate.
¹² ADONAI will drive people far away.
 The desertion of the land will be vast.
¹³ Though a tenth still be in it,
 it will again be burned.

so the holy seed will be the stump.”

Reassurance Regarding a Threat

7 Now it came about in the days of Ahaz son of Jotham, son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that King Rezin of Aram and King Pekah, son of Remaliah of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. ² When it was reported to the house of David saying: “Aram is camped in Ephraim,” his heart as well as the heart of his people shook like the trees of the forest shaking with the wind.

³ Then ADONAI said to Isaiah: “Go out now to meet Ahaz—you and Shear-jashub your son, at the end of the aqueduct from the upper pool, in the highway of the fullers’ field †; ⁴ and say to him, ‘Keep calm and be quiet. Do not fear nor be faint-hearted because of these two stubs of smoldering firebrands, because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram, nor of the son of Remaliah, ⁵ because Aram has plotted harm against you, along with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah saying, ⁶ “Let us go up against Judah, terrorize it, divide it for ourselves, and appoint Tabeel’s son as king in the midst of it.”’”

⁷ Thus says ADONAI Elohim :

“It will not stand, nor will it occur.

⁸ For the head of Aram is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin.

Within 65 years Ephraim will be broken and not be a people.

⁹ The head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah’s son. If you do not trust, you will not stand.”

The Sign of Immanuel

¹⁰ Then ADONAI spoke again to Ahaz saying, ¹¹ “Ask for a sign from ADONAI your God—from the depths of Sheol or the heights of Heaven.”

¹² But Ahaz said, “I won’t ask—I wouldn’t test ADONAI!”

¹³ Then he said, “Hear now, house of David! Is it a small thing for you to weary men? Will you also weary my God? ¹⁴ Therefore ADONAI Himself will give you a sign:

“Behold, the virgin †† will conceive.

When she is giving birth to a son, she will call his name Immanuel. ‡

¹⁵ He will be eating curds and honey by the time he knows to refuse evil and choose good.

¹⁶ “For before the boy knows to refuse evil and choose good, the land of the two kings you dread will be abandoned. ¹⁷ ADONAI will bring—on you, on your people, and on your father’s house such days as have never come since the day Ephraim separated from Judah—the king of Assyria!”

¹⁸ In that day ADONAI will whistle for the fly at the source of the Nile of Egypt and for the bee in the land of Assyria. ¹⁹ Then they will come, all of them—and will settle in the steep wadis and in the clefts of the cliffs and in all the thorn bushes and in all the watering holes. ²⁰ In that day ADONAI will shave—with a razor hired beyond the River—with the king of Assyria—the head and the hair of the legs, and even clip off the beard.

²³ In that day it will be that every place where there were 1,000 vines worth 1,000 silver shekels will become briars and thorns. ²⁴ With arrows and bows one will come there, since all the land will become briars and thorns. ²⁵ As for all the hills that were tilled with the hoe—you will not go there for fear of briars and thorns. Instead, it will be for grazing of oxen and roaming of sheep.

Assyria Will Rise to Judah’s Neck

8 Then ADONAI said to me: “Take yourself a great tablet, and write on it with a man’s stylus: ‘Maher-Shalal-Hashbaz.’” ^{†2} So I took for myself trustworthy witnesses—Uriah the kohen and Zechariah son of Jerebemiah.

³ Then I went to the prophetess; and she conceived and bore a son. Then ADONAI said to me: “Call his name Maher-Shalal-Hashbaz. ⁴ For before the child will have knowledge to cry ‘my father!’ or ‘my mother!’ the wealth of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away before the king of Assyria.” ⁵ Then ADONAI spoke to me further, saying:

⁶ “Because these people have refused the softly flowing waters of Shiloah, and rejoice with Rezin and Remaliah’s son, ⁷ therefore behold, ADONAI is bringing on them the waters of the River—mighty and massive—Assyria’s king with all his glory!

It will rise over all its channels and spill over all its banks.

⁸ Then it will sweep through Judah, overflow as it passes through, reaching even to the neck!

So the spread of its wings will be the full breadth of your land! Immanuel!

⁹ “Make an uproar, O peoples—but you will be broken in pieces. Give ear, all you of far countries. Arm yourselves—yet be shattered! Arm yourselves—yet be shattered!

¹⁰ Take counsel together, but it will amount to nothing. Speak a word, but it will not stand.

¹¹ For thus ADONAI spoke to me, with a strong hand, warning me that I should not walk in the way of these people, saying: ¹² "Do not say: 'It's a conspiracy!' about everything that these people call a conspiracy. You must not fear or tremble at what they fear.
¹³ " ADONAI - Tzva'ot, Him will you sanctify, and let Him be your fear, trembling at Him.
¹⁴ He will be a Sanctuary, but a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence † to both the houses of Israel, a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
¹⁵ Many among them will stumble, fall, and be broken, snared and caught.
¹⁶ Bind up the testimony, seal the instruction with My disciples.
¹⁷ I will wait for ADONAI, who is hiding His face from the house of Jacob, and I will look eagerly for Him."

¹⁸ Here I am with the children that ADONAI has given me as signs and wonders in Israel, from ADONAI - Tzva'ot who dwells on Mount Zion. ¹⁹ When they say to you: "Consult the mediums and necromancers who chirp and mutter," shouldn't a people seek their God? Should a people consult the dead on behalf of the living? ²⁰ To Torah and to the testimony!

If they do not speak according to this word, it is because they have no light. ²¹ They will pass this way that are hard-pressed and hungry, and it will turn out that when they are hungry, they will become enraged and curse their king and their God. Whether they turn their faces upward ²² or look to the earth, behold, distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish, and they will be driven into darkness.

A Great Light in Galilee

²³ (9:1) But there is no gloom to her who was in anguish, as in time past. He treated lightly the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the future He will bring glory—by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan—Galilee of the Gentiles.

9 (2) The people walking in darkness will see a great light.
 Upon those dwelling in the land of the shadow of death, light will shine. ††
² (3) You will multiply the nation. You will increase the joy. They will rejoice before You like the joy in the harvest, as they revel when they divide spoil.

† cf. Luke 2:34; 20:18; Rom. 9:32-33; 1 Pet. 2:8. †† cf. Matt. 4:14-16; Luke 1:79.

³ (4) For You will break the burdensome yoke and the rod on his shoulder—the war-club of his oppressor—as in the day of Midian.
⁴ (5) For every stomping boot quaking and cloak rolled in blood will be for burning—fuel for the fire.

Prince of Peace

⁵ (6) For to us a child is born, a son will be given to us, ‡ and the government will be upon His shoulder. †† His Name will be called Wonderful Counselor, †† Mighty God, My Father of Eternity, Prince of Peace. †††
⁶ (7) Of the increase of His government and shalom there will be no end—on the throne of David and over His kingdom—to establish it and uphold it through justice and righteousness from now until forevermore. ††† The zeal of ADONAI - Tzva'ot will accomplish this.

Warning about Defiance

⁷ (8) ADONAI sent a word to Jacob, and it fell upon Israel.
⁸ (9) All the people will know what Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria say in pride and in arrogance of heart:
⁹ (10) "The bricks are fallen, but we will rebuild with cut stones. The sycamores are cut down, but we will replace them with cedars."
¹⁰ (11) Therefore ADONAI raises up Rezin's adversaries against them, and spurs on his enemies.
¹¹ (12) The Arameans from the east and the Philistines from the west—they will devour Israel with open mouth. For all this His anger is not turned away, yet His hand is still outstretched.
¹² (13) Yet the people will not turn back to the One who strikes them, nor will they seek ADONAI - Tzva'ot.
¹³ (14) So ADONAI will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and bulrush in a single day.
¹⁴ (15) The elder and the man of rank—he is the head. The prophet who teaches falsehood—he is the tail.
¹⁵ (16) The leaders of this people lead them astray.

‡ (6a) cf. Luke 2:11; John 3:16. †† (6b) cf. Matt. 28:18; 1 Cor. 15:24-25. ††† (6c) cf. John 14:26; 15:26. †††† (6d) cf. Luke 2:14; John 14:27. ††††† (7a) cf. Luke 1:32-33.

Those they mislead are swallowed up.
¹⁶ (17) Therefore ADONAI will have no joy in their young men, nor will He have compassion on their orphans and widows, for everyone is ungodly and an evildoer,
 and every mouth speaks foolishness.
 For all this His anger is not turned away,
 yet His hand is still outstretched.
¹⁷ (18) For wickedness burns like a fire and consumes the briars and thorns.
 It kindles the thickets of the forest,
 so they roll up in a column of smoke.
¹⁸ (19) By the wrath of ADONAI - Tzva'ot is the land burnt up;
 The people are as fuel for the fire.
 No one spares his brother.
¹⁹ (20) One grabs with the right hand but is hungry, and eats with the left hand
 but is not satisfied.
 Everyone will eat the flesh of his own arm—²⁰ (21) Manasseh will devour Ephraim, and Ephraim, Manasseh, both are against Judah.
 For all this His anger is not turned away,
 yet His hand is outstretched.

Oy to Unjust Legislators

10 Oy to those enacting unjust decrees and recording corrupt legislation, ² to deprive the helpless of justice and rob the rights of the poor of My people, so that widows may be their spoil and orphans their prey!
³ What will you do in the day of visitation, when desolation comes from afar?
 To whom will you flee for help?
 Where will you leave your wealth?
⁴ One can only crouch among the captives or collapse among the slain.
 For all this His anger is not turned away,
 yet His hand is still outstretched.

Assyria, the Rod

⁵ Oy to Assyria, the rod of My anger—
 the club in their hand is My indignation!
⁶ I am sending it against an ungodly nation, and against the people of My fury I am commissioning it,
 to take spoil and plunder, to trample them down
 like mud in the streets.
⁷ Yet that is not what Assyria intends, nor is that what he is thinking about.
 Rather his heart is to destroy,
 and to cut down nations—only a few!

⁸ For he says: "Aren't all my princes kings?
⁹ Isn't Calno like Carchemish?
 Isn't Hamath like Arpad?
 Isn't Samaria like Damascus?
¹⁰ As my hand has reached the kingdoms of the idols—with more graven images than Jerusalem and Samaria—¹¹ as I've done to Samaria and her idols, won't I also do to Jerusalem and her idols?"
¹² Therefore it will come to pass, when ADONAI finishes all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, "I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria, and the glorying of his haughty eyes." ¹³ For he said:
 "By the strength of my own hand I've done it,
 and my own wisdom,
 for I am shrewd!
 I abolished the borders of peoples, and plundered their treasures.
 As a mighty one I cast down inhabitants.
¹⁴ My hand found the riches of the peoples as a nest—like gathering forsaken eggs,
 I have gathered the entire earth.
 Not a wing fluttered,
 not a beak opened or chirped!"
¹⁵ Should the axe boast against the One who chops with it?
 Should the saw magnify itself against the One who wields it?
 It would be like a rod waving the One who lifts it, or like a staff hoisting up the One who is not wood!
¹⁶ Therefore will the Lord ADONAI - Tzva'ot , send leanness among his fat ones.
 Under its glory He will kindle a burning like a blazing fire.
¹⁷ So the light of Israel will become a fire, and its Holy One a flame.
 He will burn and consume its thorns and briars in one day.
¹⁸ Both the glory of his forest and his fruitful field,
 he will consume, both soul and body.
 It will be like a sick man wasting away.
¹⁹ The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so few,
 a child could record them.

A Remnant Will Return

²⁰ Yet it will come about in that day that the remnant of Israel—those of the house of Jacob who escaped—will never again depend on the one who struck them down, but will depend upon ADONAI ,
 the Holy One of Israel, in truth.
²¹ A remnant will return, even the remnant of Jacob, † to the Mighty God.

²² For though your people, O Israel, be as the sand of the sea,
only a remnant of them will return. †† Destruction has been decreed.
Justice overflows.

²³ For a complete destruction, as decreed, will ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot make throughout the whole land. ‡

²⁴ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohei - Tzva'ot :
"O My people dwelling in Zion,
do not be afraid of Assyria, though he strike you with the war-club,
and lift up his rod against you, as Egypt did.

²⁵ "For in a very little while My indignation against you will be spent, and My anger will turn to their destruction." ²⁶ ADONAI - Tzva'ot will stir up against him a scourge, as in the slaughter of Midian at the Rock of Oreb. As His staff was over the sea, so will He lift it up, as He did in Egypt.

²⁷ In that day his burden will be taken off your shoulders,
and his yoke off your neck.
Indeed, the yoke will be broken because of fatness.

Assyria Advancing

²⁸ He has come to Aiath, and passed through Migron.
At Michmas he deposited his supplies.

²⁹ They have crossed over the pass.
They have taken up lodging at Geba.
Ramah is terrified;
Gibeath-shaul has fled.

³⁰ Shriek your cry, daughter of Gallim!
Listen, O Laish! O poor Anathoth!

³¹ Madmenah has fled.
The inhabitants of Gebim take cover.

³² This very day he will halt at Nob.
He shakes his fist at the mountain of the Daughter of Zion,
the hill of Jerusalem.

³³ Behold, the Lord, ADONAI - Tzva'ot will lop off the branches with terror!
So the tall ones will be cut down and the lofty ones laid low.

³⁴ Yes, He will hack down the thickets of the forest with iron,
and Lebanon with its majesty will fall.

The Branch from David

11 Then a shoot will come forth out of the stem of Jesse,
and a branch will bear fruit out of His roots. ††

² The Ruach of ADONAI will rest upon Him, the Spirit of wisdom and insight,
the Spirit of counsel and might,
the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of ADONAI. ††

³ His delight will be in the fear of ADONAI.
He will not judge by what His eyes see,
nor decide by what His ears hear.

⁴ But with righteousness He will judge the poor, and decide with fairness for the poor of the land.
He will strike the land with the rod of His mouth, ††† and with the breath of His lips He will slay the wicked.

⁵ Also righteousness will be the belt around His loins, and faithfulness the belt around His waist.

Messianic Age of Shalom

⁶ The wolf will dwell with the lamb, the leopard will lie down with the kid,
the calf and the young lion and the yearling together,
and a little child will lead them.

⁷ The cow and the bear will graze, their young ones lie down together,
and the lion will eat straw like an ox.

⁸ A nursing child will play by a cobra's hole, and a weaned child will put his hand into a viper's den.

⁹ They will not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain,
for the earth will be full of the knowledge of ADONAI,
as the waters cover the sea.

Second Return from Diaspora

¹⁰ It will also come about in that day that the root of Jesse will stand as a banner for the peoples. †††
The nations will seek for Him, and His resting place will be glorious. §

¹¹ It will also come about in that day that my Lord will again redeem—a second time with His hand—the remnant of His people who remain †† from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, Elam, Shinar, Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

¹² He will lift up a banner for the nations, and assemble the dispersed of Israel, and gather the scattered of Judah from the four corners of the earth. †††

¹³ Ephraim's envy will end, those hostile to Judah will be cut off.
Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah, and Judah will not harass Ephraim.

¹⁴ They will swoop down on the Philistine slope to the west.

Together they will plunder the children of the east—laying their hand on Edom and Moab,

† cf. Rom. 11:5. †† cf. Rom. 9:27. ‡ cf. Rom. 9:28. †† cf. Matt. 1:1; Rev. 5:5.

the children of Ammon obeying them.
¹⁵ Then ADONAI will dry up the gulf of the Egyptian sea.
 He will wave His hand over the River with His scorching wind, and will strike it into seven streams,
 and let men walk over in sandals.
¹⁶ So there will be a highway for the remnant of His people who remain, from Assyria, as there was for Israel in the day they came up out of the land of Egypt.

Wells of Salvation

12 In that day you will say:
 "I will give You thanks, ADONAI, for though You were angry with me,
 Your anger is turned away,
 and You comfort me.
² Behold, God is my salvation!
 I will trust and will not be afraid.
 For the Lord ADONAI is my strength and my song.
 He also has become my salvation." †
³ With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.
⁴ In that day you will say:
 "Give thanks to ADONAI.
 Proclaim His Name!
 Declare His works to the peoples,
 so they remember His exalted Name.
⁵ Sing to ADONAI, for He has done gloriously.
 Let this be known in all the earth.
⁶ Cry out and shout, inhabitant of Zion!
 For great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel."

End of Babylon and the World

13 The burden †† of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw:
² Lift up a banner on a bare mountain, raise a voice to them, wave a hand,
 so that they may enter the gates of the nobles.
³ I have commanded My consecrated ones,
 yes, I have called My mighty ones,
 My proud exulting ones, for My fury.
⁴ A sound of tumult in the mountains like that of many people!
 A sound of uproar of kingdoms, of nations gathered!
ADONAI - Tzva'ot is mustering
 the army for battle.
⁵ They are coming from a far country—from the end of the heavens—ADONAI and the weapons of His wrath, to destroy the whole land.
⁶ Wail, for the day of ADONAI is near!

it will come as destruction from Shaddai.
⁷ Therefore all hands will fall limp, and every man's heart will melt.
⁸ They will be terrified;
 pain and anguish will take hold of them;
 they will writhe as a woman in labor;
 they will look aghast at one another—their faces aflame!
⁹ Behold, the day of ADONAI comes, cruel, full of wrath and fierce fury,
 to make the earth a desolation,
 and destroy its sinners from it.
¹⁰ For the stars of heaven and their constellations will not give their light.
 The rising sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light. ‡ ¹¹ I will punish the world for evil, and the wicked for their iniquity.
 I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud,
 and abase the insolence of tyrants.
¹² I will make people scarcer than gold,
 even than the pure gold of Ophir.
¹³ Therefore I will make heaven tremble, and the earth will shake from its place at the wrath of ADONAI - Tzva'ot, in the day of His fierce fury.
¹⁴ It will be like a hunted gazelle, or like sheep with no one gathering.
 Each will return to his own people,
 each will flee to his own country.
¹⁵ Everyone found will be thrust through.
 Everyone caught will fall by the sword.
¹⁶ Their babes will be dashed in pieces before their eyes.
 Their houses will be plundered,
 and their wives ravished.
¹⁷ Behold, I will stir up against them the Medes, who will not value silver and will take no delight in gold.
¹⁸ Their bows will cut down the young men, with no pity on the fruit of the womb,
 nor will their eye spare children.
¹⁹ So Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of Chaldean pride,
 will be just as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
²⁰ It will never be inhabited, nor will it be dwelt in
 from generation to generation,
 nor will an Arab pitch a tent there,
 nor will shepherds let flocks lie there.
²¹ But desert creatures will lie there.
 Their houses will be full of owls.
 Ostriches will dwell there,
 and goat-demons will dance †† there.
²² Hyenas will howl in their citadels and jackals in their pleasant palaces.

† cf. John 4:10, 14. †† Or weighty oracle

‡ cf. Matt. 24:29; Rev. 8:12. †† Or wild goats will leap about

Her time is near to come—her days will not drag on long.

God's People Restored

14 For ADONAI will have compassion on Jacob and will again choose Israel and settle them in their own land.
The outsider will join himself with them and will cling to the house of Jacob.
²The peoples will take them and escort them to their place.
The house of Israel will possess them in the land of ADONAI as servants and handmaids.
They will take their captors captive, and rule over their oppressors.

Taunt against Babylon's King

³ Now in the day when ADONAI will give you rest from your sorrow and your turmoil, and from the hard service you were forced to do, ⁴ you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon and say:

"How the taskmaster has ceased!
The raging oppressor, exacter of gold, has ceased!

⁵ ADONAI has broken the rod of the wicked,
the scepter of the rulers,

⁶ which struck the people in wrath with continual strokes, which ruled the nations in fury,
with relentless persecution.

⁷ The whole earth is at rest, and quiet.
They break forth with a ringing cry!

⁸ Even the cypress trees rejoice over you, along with the cedars of Lebanon:

'Since you were laid low,
no woodcutter comes up against us.'

⁹ Sheol from below is excited about you, to meet you at your coming!

He stirs up the dead spirits for you,
even the chief ones [†] of the earth.

He makes all the kings of the nations rise up from their thrones.

¹⁰ They all answer and say to you:
'Even you have become as weak as us?
Have you become like us?

¹¹ Your pomp is brought down to Sheol with the music of your harps.

Maggots are spread out under you,
and worms cover you."

Shining One Fallen from Heaven

¹² How you have fallen from heaven,
O bright star ^{††}, son of the dawn! [‡]
How you are cut down to the earth, you who made the nations prostrate!

¹³ You said in your heart:
"I will ascend to heaven,

I will exalt my throne above the stars of God. ^{‡†}

I will sit upon the mount of meeting, in the uttermost parts of the north.

¹⁴ I will ascend above the high places of the clouds—
I will make myself like Elyon."

¹⁵ Yet you will be brought down to Sheol, to the lowest parts of the Pit.

¹⁶ Those who see you will stare at you, reflecting on what has become of you:

"Is this the one who shook the earth,
who made kingdoms tremble,

¹⁷ who made the world a wilderness and destroyed its cities,

who never opened the house of his prisoners?"

¹⁸ All the kings of the nations, all of them, lie in glory, each in his own house.

¹⁹ But you are cast out of your tomb
as a discarded branch, garment of the slain,

pierced with a sword,
dumped into a stony pit,
a corpse trodden underfoot.

²⁰ You will not join with them in burial, because you ruined your land,
you slaughtered your own people.

The offspring of evildoers will never be named.

²¹ Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers, so they would not rise up and possess the land,
or fill the face of the earth with cities.

²² "For I will rise up against them"—it is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot—"and I will cut off from Babylon name and remnant, offshoot and offspring," declares ADONAI. ²³ "I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, with marshes of water, and I will sweep it with the broom of destruction." It is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot.

²⁴ ADONAI Tzva'ot has sworn, saying:
"Surely, as I thought it, so it will be.

As I have purposed, so it will stand.

²⁵ I will break Assyria in My land.

On My mountains I will trample him.

Then his yoke will be taken off them,
his burden removed from their shoulder.

²⁶ This is the purpose planned for the whole earth, and this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations."

²⁷ For ADONAI - Tzva'ot has purposed, so who will annul it?

Since His hand is stretched out, who will turn it back?

Doom of Philistia

²⁸ In the year king Ahaz died came this burden:

²⁹ Do not rejoice, all you of Philistia, that the rod that struck you is broken.

For from the serpent's root comes a viper

[†] Lit. rams ^{††} Or shining one [‡] cf. Luke 10:18.

^{‡†} cf. 2 Thes. 2:3-4.

and its fruit will be a flying serpent.
³⁰ The firstborn of the poor will feed, and the needy will lie down in safety.
 I will kill your root with famine,
 and your survivors will be slain.
³¹ Wail, O gate! Cry, O city!
 Melt away, all you of Philistia!
 For smoke is coming from the north,
 and there is no straggler in its ranks.
³² What will they answer the messengers of the nation?
 For ADONAI has founded Zion, and the afflicted of His people will find refuge in her.

15 The burden of Moab.
 For in the night that Ar is devastated,
 Moab is ruined;
 for in the night that Kir is devastated,
 Moab is ruined.
² He has gone up to the shrine, to Dibon, to the high places to weep.
 Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba.
 Every head is bald, every beard shaven.
³ In their streets they wear sackcloth.
 On their housetops and in their plazas, everyone wails, weeping profusely.
⁴ Heshbon and Elealeh cry out.
 Their voice is heard as far as Jahaz.
 Therefore the soldiers of Moab cry aloud,
 his soul faints within him.
⁵ My heart cries out for Moab.
 Her fugitives are as far as Zoar
 as a three year old heifer, for by the ascent of Luhith
 they go up with weeping, for on the way of Horonaim they raise a cry of distress.
⁶ The waters of Nimrim are desolate.
 The grass is withered away,
 the new grass withers,
 there is nothing green.
⁷ Therefore the riches they had gotten and whatever they have stored, they carry over the Wadi of Willows.
⁸ For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab,
 the wailing to Eglaim,
 and the wailing to Beer-Elim.
⁹ For the waters of Dimon are full of blood, but I will bring on Dimon even more—a lion for those escaping from Moab, and for those remaining in the land.

16 Send lambs to the ruler of the land from Sela in the desert to the mountain of the Daughter of Zion.
² For like fluttering birds, scattered from a nest,
 so will the daughters of Moab be at the fords of Arnon.

³ Give counsel, execute justice.
 Cast your shadow like night at noonday.
 Hide the refugees,
 do not betray the fugitive.
⁴ Let My refugees stay with you.
 Be for Moab a hiding place from the face of the destroyer.
 For the extortion is at an end, devastation ceases,
 oppressors are gone from the land.
⁵ A throne will be established in mercy, and One will sit on it in truth
 —in the tent of David—
 One who seeks justice and is ready for righteousness. † ⁶ We have heard of the pride of Moab—very proud is he—
 of his haughtiness, his arrogance, his insolence, and his dishonest boasting.
⁷ Therefore Moab will wail for Moab—everyone will wail!
 For the sweet cakes of Kir-Hareseth you will moan, utterly stricken.
⁸ For the fields of Heshbon have withered, as well as the vine of Sibmah.
 Rulers of nations have trampled the choice clusters, that reached as far as Jazer and into the desert, its branches spread out and crossed to the sea.
⁹ Therefore I will weep bitterly for Jazer, for the vine of Sibmah.
 I will drench you with my tears,
 O Heshbon and Elealeh.
 For on your summer and your harvest
 the battle cry has fallen.
¹⁰ Gladness and joy are taken away from the fruitful field.
 In the vineyards, no singing for joy, no happy shouting,
 no treading wine in the presses.
 I have made the shouting stop.
¹¹ Therefore my heart moans for Moab like a lyre,
 and my inward part for Kir-Heres.
¹² So it will be, when Moab is weary upon the high place and comes to his sanctuary to pray, it will do him no good.
¹³ This is the word that ADONAI spoke concerning Moab in the past. ¹⁴ But now ADONAI has spoken, saying: “Within three years (as with the years of a hired worker), the glory of Moab will be disgraced; for all his large population, the remnant will be very small and feeble.”

17 The burden of Damascus:
 Behold, Damascus will cease as a city and will become a ruinous heap.

† cf. Luke 1:32.

²The cities of Aroer are forsaken.
They will be for flocks—they will lie down and no one will frighten them.
³The fortress will also cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus.
The remnant of Aram will be like the glory of Bnei-Yisrael.
It is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot.

Jacob's Glory Fades

⁴Now in that day Jacob's glory will fade, and the fatness of his flesh grow lean.
⁵It will be as when the harvester gathers the standing grain and reaps the heads with his arm, as when one gleanes grain in the valley of Rephaim.
⁶Only gleanings will remain, as when beating an olive tree—two or three olives at the very top, four or five on a fruitful tree's branches.
It is a declaration of ADONAI God of Israel.
⁷In that day a man will look to his Maker and his eyes will turn to the Holy One of Israel. ⁸He will not look to the altars, the work of his hands, nor will he look to what his fingers have made—neither the Asherah poles nor the sun-images.
⁹In that day the strong cities will be like forsaken forests and treetops that were abandoned, because of Bnei-Yisrael—they will be laid waste.
¹⁰For you have forgotten the God of your salvation and you have not remembered the Rock of your strength.
Therefore you plant delightful plants and set out exotic vines.
¹¹In the day that you plant, you fence it in,
and in the morning you made your seed to sprout—
but the harvest will be a heap in a day of grief and incurable pain.
¹²Oy! The uproar of many peoples who roar like the roaring of the seas.
The rumbling of nations,
who rush in like the rumbling of mighty waters!
¹³The nations will rush in like the rumbling of many waters,
but He will rebuke them so they will flee far away, chased like chaff on the hills before the wind,
like whirling dust before the storm.
¹⁴At evening time—sudden terror!
Before morning, they are no more.
This is the reward of those who plunder us and the lot of those who pillage us.

Ode of Ethiopia

18 Oy! The land of whirring wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia, ²that sends ambassadors by sea,
in papyrus vessels upon the water.

Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth-skinned, to a people feared far and wide,
a nation powerful and oppressive,
whose land the rivers divide.
³All you inhabitants of the world,
and dwellers on earth,
when a banner is raised on the mountains,
look!
When a shofar is blown,
listen!
⁴For so ADONAI has said to me:
"I will remain quiet, and look from My dwelling place, like shimmering heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in harvest heat."
⁵For before the harvest, as soon as blossoming is over and flower becomes ripening grape,
He will cut off the shoots with pruning knives,
He will cut back and remove the twigs.
⁶They will be left together for the mountain birds of prey
and the beasts of the land.
The birds of prey will summer on them,
and all the beasts of the land will winter upon them.
⁷At that time tribute will be brought to ADONAI - Tz-va'ot
from a nation tall and smooth-skinned, from a people feared far and wide,
a nation powerful and oppressive,
whose land the rivers divide—
to the place of the Name of ADONAI - Tzva'ot—Mount Zion!

Egypt Will Know ADONAI

19 The burden of Egypt:
Behold, ADONAI rides upon a swift cloud and comes to Egypt.
Egypt's idols tremble before Him and Egypt's heart melts within them.
²I will stir up Egyptian against Egyptian.
Everyone will fight against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor—city against city, kingdom against kingdom.
³The spirit of Egypt will drain within it, and I will confuse its counsel.
So they will resort to idols, charmers, mediums and familiar spirits.
⁴I will give the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel master—
a fierce king will rule over them.
It is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot.
⁵The waters from the sea will dry up, and the river will be drained dry.
⁶Then the channels will stink.
The streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up.
Reeds and rushes will rot.

7 The bulrushes by the Nile,
by the mouth of the Nile, and everything sown by the Nile will wither, blow away, and be no more.
8 Then the fishermen will lament.
All who cast hooks in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish.
9 Moreover the workers of fine flax,
and the weavers of white cloth will be ashamed.
10 Her pillars will be crushed,
All hired workers will be grieved in soul.
11 The princes of Zoan are utter fools.
Pharaoh's wisest counselors are stupid.
How can you say to Pharaoh,
"I am the son of the wise,
a son of ancient kings?"
12 Where then are your wise men?
Let them tell you now!
Let them know what ADONAI - Tzva'ot has purposed against Egypt.
13 The princes of Zoan are fools.
The princes of Noph are deceived.
The cornerstone of her tribes have led Egypt astray.
14 ADONAI has mixed within her a spirit of dizziness.
They make Egypt stagger in every work,
as a drunkard staggers in his vomit.
15 There will be no work for Egypt to do, for head or tail, palm branch or rush.
16 In that day Egypt will be like women trembling with fear, because of the shaking hand of ADONAI - Tz-va'ot, which He is about to wave over it. 17 The land of Judah will terrify Egypt. Anyone who mentions it will be afraid, because of what ADONAI - Tzva'ot has surely purposed against it.
18 In that day five cities in the land of Egypt will speak the language of Canaan, swearing allegiance to ADON-AI - Tzva'ot. One used to be called the City of the Sun.
19 In that day there will be an altar to ADONAI in the middle of the land of Egypt, and next to the border a pillar to ADONAI. 20 It will be as a sign and a witness to ADONAI - Tzva'ot in the land of Egypt. For they will cry to ADONAI because of oppressors, and He will send them a savior and defender—and he will deliver them.
21 So ADONAI will make Himself known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know ADONAI in that day. They will worship with sacrifice and offering. They will vow to ADONAI, and fulfill it. 22 So ADONAI will strike Egypt—striking yet healing—so they will return to ADONAI, and He will respond to them and heal them.
23 In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrians will come to Egypt, and the Egyptians to Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

24 In that day Israel will be the third, along with Egypt and Assyria—a blessing in the midst of the earth.

25 For ADONAI - Tzva'ot has blessed, saying:

"Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria My handiwork, and Israel My inheritance."

Sign of Nakedness

20 In the year that the Tartan † came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him and he fought against Ashdod and captured it, 2 at that time ADONAI spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz saying,
"Go, remove the sackcloth from your loins and your sandals from your feet." So he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

3 Then ADONAI said: "Just as My servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years, as a sign and a wonder against Egypt and Ethiopia, 4 so will the king of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, with their buttocks uncovered, to Egypt's shame. 5 So they will be dismayed and ashamed, because they hoped in Ethiopia and boasted in Egypt. 6 Then the inhabitants of the coastland will say in that day, 'Look, such is our hope—there we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria! Now, how will we escape?'"

Watchman, Pay Attention!

21 The burden of the desert by the sea:
As windstorms sweep over the South,
so it comes from the desert,
a terrifying land.

2 A harsh vision has been shown to me:
"The traitor betrays, and the plunderer plunders.
Go up, Elam! Besiege, Media!
I have put an end to all her groaning."

3 Therefore my body is filled with pain.
Pangs have taken hold of me like the pangs of a woman in labor.

I am bewildered by what I hear, terrified by what I see.

4 My heart is bewildered, terror overwhelms me.

The twilight I longed for has been turned into trembling.

5 Set the table, spread out the cloth!
Eat! Drink!

"Rise up, you princes, oil the shield!"

6 For ADONAI has said to me.

"Go, post a watchman—
let him declare what he sees!

7 When he sees a chariot with a pair of horsemen, riders on donkeys,
riders on camels,

† A title, possibly Supreme Commander

let him pay attention—very close attention!”
⁸ Then he cried out like a lion:
 “Upon the watch tower, ADONAI, I stand continually in the daytime,
 and stay at my post every night.
⁹ Look! Here comes a chariot of men,
 with a pair of horsemen.”
 Then one answered and said, “Fallen, fallen is Babylon!
 All the images of her gods are broken on the ground.”
¹⁰ O my people, crushed on the threshing floor, what I heard from ADONAI Tzva’ot, God of Israel,
 I have declared to you.
¹¹ The burden of Dumah †:
 One calls to me from Seir, “Watchman, what is left of the night?
 Watchman, what is left of the night?”
¹² The watchman said, “Morning comes, yet also it is night.
 If you would inquire, inquire.
 Come back again.”
¹³ The burden of Arabia:
 In the desert brush of Arabia you will stay for the night,
 you caravans of Dedanites.
¹⁴ To him who is thirsty bring water, inhabitants of the land of Tema, meet the fugitive with food.
¹⁵ For they fled from swords, from drawn sword,
 from bent bow
 and distress of war.
¹⁶ For thus ADONAI said to me, “Within a year (as with the years of a hired worker), all the glory of Kedar will cease, ¹⁷ and the remainder of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the sons of Kedar, will be few. For ADONAI God of Israel has spoken.”

Vision of Jerusalem’s Catastrophe

22 The burden of the Valley of Vision:
 What is the matter with you now?
 For you have gone up to the rooftops.
² You were full of noise,
 a boisterous city, an exultant town?
 Your dead were not slain with the sword,
 nor dead in battle.
³ All your rulers have fled together, then captured without a bow.
 All who were caught were taken into exile together,
 though they had fled far off.
⁴ Therefore I said, “Look away from me!
 Let me weep bitterly—don’t try to comfort me about the ruin of the daughter of my people.”
⁵ For my Lord ADONAI - Tzva’ot has a day of panic, trampling, and confusion—in the Valley of Vision—of tearing down a wall, a catastrophe on the mountain.

⁶ Elam took up the quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.
⁷ So it will come to pass that your choicest valleys will be full of chariots and horsemen posted at the gate.
⁸ So He will expose Judah’s defense, and in that day you will look for the armor in the Forest House. ⁹ Then you will see the breaches in the walls of the city of David—for they will be many—though you collect the water of the lower pool. ¹⁰ Though you counted the houses of Jerusalem, you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. ¹¹ You even made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool—but you did not look to the Maker, or consider the One who planned it long before.
¹² Now in that day, ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot will call for weeping and wailing, for baldness and putting on sackcloth.
¹³ But instead, there is joy and gladness, slaughtering cattle and killing sheep,
 meat and drinking wine!
 “Let’s eat and drink,
 for tomorrow we will die!”
¹⁴ But ADONAI - Tzva’ot revealed in my ears:
 “Surely this sin will not be atoned for until you die,” says my Lord ADONAI - Tzva’ot .
¹⁵ Thus says my Lord ADONAI - Tzva’ot : “Go, say to this steward, to Shebna, who is over the house: ¹⁶ “What are you doing here, and who are you to be here, that you cut out a grave for yourself, carving out a tomb on the height, chiseling a crypt for yourself in the rock?
¹⁷ Behold, strong man, ADONAI is about to hurl you headlong, and seize you firmly. ¹⁸ He will roll you up tightly and toss you like a ball into a large country.
 There you will die, and your glorious chariots will be the shame of your Master’s house. ¹⁹ I will remove you from your post, and pull you down from your station.
²⁰ “In that day I will summon my servant Eliakim, son of Hilkiyah. ²¹ I will clothe him in your robe and fasten your sash on him. I will give your authority into his hands, so he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. ²² I will set the key †† of the house of David upon his shoulder—what he opens, no one can shut; what he shuts, no one can open. ²³ I will fasten him as a peg in a firm place, and he will be a throne of honor to his father’s house.
²⁴ They will hang all the glory of his father’s house on him—offspring and posterity, all the small vessels, from bowls to all the jars.
²⁵ “In that day,” says ADONAI - Tzva’ot , “the peg that was fastened in a firm place will give way, break away and fall, and the load that was on it will be cut off.” For ADONAI has spoken.

† Meaning silence

†† cf. Rev. 3:7.

Shaking Tyre and Sidon

23 The burden of Tyre.
 Wail, ships of Tarshish!
 For Tyre is destroyed.
 There is no house and no harbor.
 From the land of Cyprus,
 it was revealed to them.
² Be still, inhabitants of the coastland, you merchants of Sidon,
 your messengers crossing the sea.
³ On many waters the grain of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile was her revenue and a marketplace of nations.
⁴ Be ashamed, O Sidon.
 For the sea has spoken,
 the stronghold of the sea, saying,
 "I have not writhed or given birth.
 I have not reared young men or brought up maid-ens."
⁵ When the report reaches Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report about Tyre.
⁶ Cross over to Tarshish.
 Wail, you inhabitants of the island!
⁷ Is this your jubilant city?
 Whose antiquity is from long ago, whose feet have taken her to settle in far off lands?
⁸ Who planned this against Tyre,
 the crowning city,
 whose merchants were princes,
 whose traders were the honored of the earth?
⁹ ADONAI - Tzva'ot has planned it, to defile the pride of all glory,
 to shame all the honored of the earth.
¹⁰ Overflow through your land like the Nile,
 O daughter of Tarshish!
 There is no restraint any more.
¹¹ His hand has stretched out over the sea,
 He has shaken the kingdoms.
ADONAI has given a commandment concerning Canaan, to destroy its strongholds.
¹² He said, "You will exult no more."
 O crushed virgin daughter of Sidon.
 Arise, cross over to Cyprus—even there you will have no rest.
¹³ Look, the land of the Chaldeans—this is the people who no longer exist.
 Assyria set it up for desert animals.
 They set up their siege towers;
 they stripped its palaces;
 they made it a ruin.
¹⁴ Wail, you ships of Tarshish!
 For your stronghold is destroyed.
¹⁵ Then it will come about in that day that Tyre will be forgotten for 70 years, like the days of one king. At the end of 70 years it will happen to Tyre just as in the song of the prostitute:

¹⁶ "Take a harp, stroll about the city, forgotten harlot!
 Skillfully play many songs, so you may be remembered."
¹⁷ Then it will come about after the end of 70 years that ADONAI will take note of Tyre. She will return to her trade and will prostitute herself with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth. ¹⁸ Yet her profit and her wages will be set apart to ADONAI. They will not be stored up or hoarded. For her profit will be for those who dwell in the presence of ADONAI, as ample food and as fine clothing.

Curse of Empty Land

24 Behold, ADONAI makes the land empty and makes it waste, twists its face,
 and scatters its inhabitants.
² So it shall be:
 as with the people, so with the kohen,
 as with a servant, so with his master,
 as with a maid, so with her mistress,
 as with a buyer, so with the seller,
 as with a lender, so with the borrower,
 as with a creditor, so with the debtor.
³ The land will be utterly emptied, and totally plundered.
 For ADONAI has spoken this word.
⁴ The land faints and fades away,
 The world wilts and fades away,
 The exalted people of the earth wilt.
⁵ The land is polluted by its inhabitants, for they have transgressed Torah, violated statutes,
 and broken the everlasting covenant.
⁶ Therefore a curse will devour the land.
 Those dwelling there are found guilty.
 Therefore the inhabitants of the land will be burned up,
 so the people remaining are few.
⁷ The new wine fails, the vine wilts,
 all the merry-hearted sigh.
⁸ The glee of tambourines stops,
 the noise of revelers ends,
 the joy of the harp ceases.
⁹ They no longer drink wine with song.
 Liquor is bitter to those drinking it.
¹⁰ The shattered city is in chaos.
 Every house is shut up, none may enter.
¹¹ In the streets is an outcry for wine;
 all joy becomes dark as evening;
 the mirth of the land is banished.
¹² The city is left in ruins;
 the gate is battered down.

Last Days' Judgments

13 So will it be in the earth and among the nations, as when shaking an olive tree,
or as when gleanings are left after the grape harvest.
14 They will raise their voices,
They will sing for joy, of the majesty of ADONAI
they shout from the sea.
15 Therefore glorify ADONAI in the east, the Name of ADONAI, the God of Israel,
in the isles of the sea.
16 From the ends of the earth we have heard songs:
"Glory to the righteous!"
But I say, "I waste away, I waste away!
Oy to me! Traitors betray!
With treachery traitors betray!"
17 Panic, pit, and trap are upon you,
O inhabitant of the earth.
18 And it shall come to pass:
whoever flees from the sound of panic will fall in the pit, and whoever climbs up out of the pit
will be caught in the trap.
For the windows of heaven are opened and the foundations of the earth shake.
19 The earth is broken apart,
the earth is split open,
the earth is shaken utterly.
20 The earth reels to and fro like a drunk, and sways like a hut.
its transgression is so heavy upon it that it will fall and never rise again.
21 It will come about in that day, ADONAI will punish the host of heaven on high,
and the kings of the earth on the earth.
22 They will be gathered together, like prisoners in the Pit,
and will be shut up in the prison,
and after many days be punished.
23 Then the moon will be abashed and the sun
ashamed,
for ADONAI - Tzva'ot will reign on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem,
and before His elders, gloriously.

Last Days' Deliverance

25 ADONAI, You are my God, I will exalt You,
I will praise Your Name, for You have done wonderful things,
plans of old with steadfast faithfulness.
2 For You have made a city into a heap,
a fortified city into a ruin,
a foreigner's palace a city no more—never to be rebuilt.
3 Therefore a strong people will honor You.
Cities of ruthless nations will fear You.
4 For You have been a stronghold for the poor,

a stronghold for the needy in distress,
a refuge from the rainstorm,
a shade from the heat.
For the breath of the ruthless is like a storm against the wall.
5 Like heat in a dry place,
You subdue the roar of foreigners.
Like heat in the shade of a cloud,
the song of tyrants is brought low.
6 On this mountain, ADONAI - Tzva'ot will prepare a lavish banquet for all peoples—a banquet of aged wine—of rich food, of choice marrow, of aged wine well refined.
7 On this mountain He will swallow up the shroud that enfolds all peoples, the veil spread over all nations.
8 He will swallow up death forever. †
My Lord ADONAI will wipe away tears from every face.
††
He will remove His people's reproach from all the earth.
For ADONAI has spoken.
9 It will be said in that day:
"Behold, this is our God,
We waited for Him—He will save us.
This is ADONAI—we waited for Him.
We will rejoice and be glad in His salvation."
10 For the hand of ADONAI will rest on this mountain.
Moab will be trampled under Him,
as straw is trampled in a manure pile.
11 When he spreads his hands in it as a swimmer spreads his hands to swim, his pride will be brought down low together with the trickery of his hands.
12 He will level your high-fortified walls, lay them low,
and cast them down to the ground,
down to dust.

Trust the Rock of Ages

26 In that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah:
"We have a strong city.
He appoints salvation
as its walls and ramparts.
2 Open the gates! ‡ Let the righteous nation enter—one that keeps faith.
3 You keep in perfect peace
one whose mind is stayed on You, because he trusts in You.
4 Trust in ADONAI forever, for the LORD ADONAI is a Rock of ages.
5 For He humbles those dwelling on high, leveling the lofty city,
leveling it to the ground,

† cf. 1 Cor. 15:54-55. †† cf. Rev. 7:17; 21:4. ‡ cf. Rev. 22:14.

bringing it down to the dust.
⁶ Feet will trample it down, feet of the afflicted,
 the footsteps of the poor.
⁷ The way of the righteous is straight.
 Upright One, You make smooth the path of the righteous.
⁸ Yes, in the way of Your judgments,
ADONAI, we have waited for You.
 Your Name and Your remembrance is the desire of our soul.
⁹ My soul longs for You at night,
 yes, my spirit within me seeks You.
 For when Your judgments are in the earth,
 the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.
¹⁰ Though grace is shown to the wicked,
 he does not learn righteousness.
 Even in a land of uprightness he will act wrongly,
 not perceiving the majesty of ADONAI.
¹¹ ADONAI, Your hand is lifted up,
 yet they do not see it;
 They will see Your zeal for the people and be put to shame.
 Yes, fire will devour Your enemies.

Your Dead Will Live!

¹² “ADONAI, You will establish shalom for us,
 for all our works You have done for us.
¹³ ADONAI Eloheinu, other lords beside You have had dominion over us, but we remember Your Name alone.”
¹⁴ The dead do not live—dead souls do not rise.
 Thus You punished and destroyed them and wiped out all memory of them.
¹⁵ You have increased the nation, ADONAI,
 You have increased the nation.
 You are glorified as You have expanded all the borders of the land.
¹⁶ ADONAI, they sought You in distress, they poured out a whispered prayer
 when Your discipline was upon them.
¹⁷ As a pregnant woman about to give birth writhes and cries out in her pain, so we were before You, ADONAI.
¹⁸ We have been with child,
 we have been in pain,
 yet we gave birth to wind.
 We are accomplishing no deliverance for the earth,
 nor are inhabitants of the world coming to life.
¹⁹ “Yet it will be:
 Your dead will live!
 My corpses will rise!
 Awake and shout for joy,
 you who dwell in the dust!
 Your dew is like the dew of the dawn.
 The land of dead souls will come to life!
²⁰ “Go, my people, enter your rooms, and shut your doors behind you.

 Hide for a little while,
 until the wrath is past.
²¹ For behold, ADONAI is coming out from His place to punish inhabitants of the earth for iniquity.
 The earth will disclose her bloodshed, no longer covering up her slain.”

Leviathan the Dragon

27 In that day ADONAI will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent with His fierce, great, strong sword, Leviathan the twisted serpent!
 He will slay the dragon in the sea.

Second Song of the Vineyard

² “In that day sing to her,
 ‘A vineyard of delight!’
³ I, ADONAI, watch over it,
 I water it every moment.
 I guard it day and night,
 so that no one may harm it.
⁴ It is not that I have wrath.
 Who would give me thorns and thistles?
 Into battle I would march against them!
 I would burn them up altogether!
⁵ Rather let them rely on My strength.
 Let them make peace with Me—make peace with Me.”

Israel Will Blossom Again

⁶ In days to come Jacob will take root, Israel will blossom and bud and fill the face of the world with fruit.
⁷ Did He strike Israel
 as He struck those who struck them?
 Or were they slain
 as their slayers were slain?
⁸ You contended with her by banishing her,
 by driving her away.
 With His fierce wind He expelled them on the day of the east wind.
⁹ So by this will Jacob’s sin be atoned and this the full price to remove his sin:
 When he makes all the altar stones like shattered chalk stones, so that the Asherah poles and incense rise no more.
¹⁰ The fortified city is a lonely habitation, forlorn and forsaken like the desert.
 There the calf will graze, there lie down
 and consume its branches.
¹¹ When the boughs are withered,
 they will be broken off.
 Women come and set them on fire,
 for it is a people of no understanding.

Therefore their Maker will show them no mercy—
 He who formed them will give them no grace.
¹² It will come about in that day, ADONAI will thresh from the channel of the River to the Wadi of Egypt, and you will be gathered one by one, Bnei-Yisrael.
¹³ It will also come about in that day, a great shofar will be blown. † Those perishing in the land of Assyria and the exiles in the land of Egypt will come and worship ADONAI on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

A Cornerstone of Zion

28 Oy, the proud crown of Ephraim's drunks!
 Its glorious beauty is a fading flower, which is at the head of the fertile valleys of those overcome with wine!
² Behold, ADONAI is strong and mighty, like a hailstorm, a destructive tempest,
 like a downpour of overflowing water,
 He hurls it down to earth with His hand.
³ The proud crown of Ephraim's drunks will be trampled underfoot.
⁴ The glorious beauty is a fading flower which is at the head of the fertile valley, like a first-ripe fig before summer—whoever sees it, swallows it up while it is still in his palm.
⁵ In that day ADONAI - Tzva'ot will be a crown of glory, a diadem of beauty
 to the remnant of His people, ⁶ a spirit of judgment for him who sits on the judgment seat, and strength for those turning back the battle at the gate.
⁷ But these also reel from wine and stagger from strong drink
 —the kohen and the prophet reel from strong drink—
 are confused because of wine, they stagger because of strong drink,
 they are muddled in vision,
 they stumble in judgment.
⁸ Since all the tables are full of the filth of vomit, no place is left.
⁹ To whom will He teach knowledge?
 To whom will He explain the message?
 Those just weaned from milk?
 Those just taken from the breast?
¹⁰ For it must be 'precept upon precept, precept upon precept,
 line upon line, line upon line,
 here a little, there a little.'
¹¹ For through stammering lips and a foreign tongue
 He will speak to this people,
¹² To whom He said,

"Here is rest, give rest to the weary, here is repose"—but they would not listen.
¹³ So the word of ADONAI is to them
 'precept on precept, precept on precept,
 line upon line, line upon line,
 here a little, there a little.'
 So they walk, and fall backward, and are broken, trapped, and captured.
¹⁴ Therefore hear the word of ADONAI, you scoffers, who rule this people who are in Jerusalem:
¹⁵ "Because you have said,
 'We cut a covenant with death,
 we made a pact with Sheol, so when the overflowing scourge passes through,
 it won't come for us,
 for we have made lies our refuge, and hid ourselves in falsehood'— ¹⁶ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim :
 'Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone,
 a tested stone,
 a costly cornerstone, †† a firm foundation—
 whoever trusts will not flee in haste. ‡ ¹⁷ But I will make justice the measuring line and righteousness the plumb line.
 Hail will sweep away the refuge of lies,
 and water will overflow the hiding place.
¹⁸ Your covenant with death is annulled, and your pact with Sheol will not stand.
 An overflowing scourge will pass through and you will be its trampling place.
¹⁹ As often as it passes through, it will seize you—morning by morning, by day and by night passing through.
 It will be sheer terror to understand the message."
²⁰ For too short is the bed to stretch on, too narrow the blanket to wrap up in.
²¹ For ADONAI will rise up as at Mount Perazim,
 He will quake with awe as at the valley of Gibeon, to do His deed, His strange deed,
 and to work His work, His extraordinary work.
²² So now, stop your scoffing, lest your shackles be strengthened!
 For I have heard from ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot of destruction determined upon the whole land.
²³ Give ear and hear my voice!
 Pay attention and hear my words.
²⁴ Does a plowman plow all day to sow the seed?
 Does he continually break open and harrow his ground?
²⁵ No! When he has leveled its surface, he scatters dill and sows cumin, plants wheat in rows,
 places barley, and rye on its border.
²⁶ For his God teaches him judgment,

†† cf. Matt. 21:42; Mark 12:10; Luke 20:17; Acts 4:11; Eph. 2:19-20. ‡ cf. Rom. 9:33; 10:11; 1 Pet. 2:6.

²⁷ For dill is not threshed with a sledge, nor is a cart wheel rolled over cumin.
Rather, dill is beaten out with a staff,
and cumin with a rod.

²⁸ Bread grain is crushed, but not endlessly.
Rumbling cart wheels and horses over it would only crush it to powder.

²⁹ This also comes from ADONAI - Tzva'ot :
Wonderful is His counsel, great is His wisdom.

Night Vision of Ariel

29 Oy, Ariel †, Ariel! City where David camped.
Year to year again—festivals in a cycle.

² But I will distress Ariel.

There will be lamenting and moaning—then will she be like Ariel to Me?

³ I will encamp against you all around,
I will set up siege-works against you and will raise up ramps against you.

⁴ You will be brought low, you will speak from the ground.

From the dust where you are prostrate your speech will come.

Your voice will be like a ghost out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust.

⁵ Yet the multitude of your foes will become like fine dust,
and the multitude of the terrifying like chaff that passes away.

It will happen in an instant, suddenly.

⁶ You will be visited by ADONAI - Tzva'ot with thunder, earthquake, huge noise, whirlwind and storm-wind, and the flame of a consuming fire.

⁷ It will be like a dream, a night vision:
the multitude of all the nations warring against Ariel, yes, all warring against her,
the ramparts around her and her besiegers.

⁸ It will be like a hungry man dreaming and behold,
he is eating,

but awakes with his hunger unsatisfied, or like a thirsty man dreaming and behold, he is drinking,

but awakes faint, his soul thirsting.

So it will be with the multitude of all the nations warring against Mount Zion.

⁹ Wait, and be astounded!

Blind yourselves, and be blind!

Drunk, but not with wine,

Stagger, but not with strong drink.

¹⁰ For ADONAI has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has shut your eyes—the prophets,

and covered your heads—the seers.

¹¹ So this entire vision is for you like the words of a sealed scroll, which they give to one who knows books, saying, “Read this, please,” but he says, “I can’t, because it’s sealed.” ¹² Then the scroll is given to one who does not know books, saying, “Read this, please,” but he says, “I don’t know books.”

¹³ So ADONAI says,

“Since these people draw near with their mouths and honor Me with their lips, yet their hearts are far from Me,
and their fear of Me is a mitzvah taught by men. ††

¹⁴ Therefore, behold, once more I will do a marvelous work among this people—a marvel and a wonder—so the wisdom of their wise will perish, and the discernment of their discerning will be concealed.”

¹⁵ Oy, those who go to great depths to hide their plans from ADONAI!

Their works are in the dark.

They say, “Who sees us?”

Who knows us?”

¹⁶ Your perversity!

Should the potter be regarded the same as the clay?
Should the thing made say to its maker,
“You did not make me”?

Or the thing formed say of its former,

“You have no understanding”? ‡

¹⁷ Will it not be just a very little while before Lebanon turns into a garden, and a garden will seem like a forest?

¹⁸ In that day the deaf will hear words of a book, and out of gloom and darkness
the eyes of the blind will see.

¹⁹ The meek will add to their joy in ADONAI, and the needy of humanity will rejoice in the Holy
One of Israel.

²⁰ For the ruthless will come to an end and the scorner will be finished, and all watching to do evil cut off.

²¹ Those who make a man out to be guilty with a word,

and trap him who reproves at the gate,
and deny justice with meaninglessness.

²² Therefore, thus says ADONAI, Redeemer of Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob:

“Jacob will no longer be ashamed,
no longer will his face grow pale;

²³ for when he sees his children,
the work of My hands in his midst,
they will sanctify My Name;

they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob,
and stand in awe of the God of Israel.

²⁴ “Those who go astray in spirit will come to understanding, and those who murmur will learn instruction.”

† Meaning Lion of God

†† cf. Matt. 15:8-9; Mark 7:6-7. ‡ cf. Rom. 9:20.

No Help in Egypt

30 “Oy, the rebellious children”
—it is a declaration of ADONAI—
“Who carry out a plan, but not Mine, and make an alliance, but not of My Ruach,
so they may add sin to sin,
² who go down to Egypt,
but did not consult Me,
to take refuge in Pharaoh’s stronghold,
to seek shelter in Egypt’s shadow.
³ Therefore Pharaoh’s stronghold will become your shame,
and the shelter in Egypt’s shadow will become your disgrace.
⁴ For though their princes are at Zoan and their ambassadors reach Hanes, ⁵ they will all be ashamed of a people who cannot profit them.
They are neither help nor profit,
but shame and disgrace.”
⁶ The burden concerning the beasts of the Negev †:
Through a land of trouble and anguish,
in which are lioness and lion,
viper and flying serpent, they are carrying their riches on the backs of young donkeys,
their treasures on camel humps,
to a people who cannot profit them.
⁷ Egypt’s help is futile and pointless.
Therefore I have called her “Rahab who just sits.”

Witness against False Prophets

⁸ Now go, write it on a tablet for them and inscribe it in a scroll, so that it may be as a witness for the last day, forever.
⁹ For this is a rebellious people, lying children, children unwilling to obey the Torah of ADONAI.
¹⁰ They say to the seers,
“Do not see,”
and to the prophets, “Do not prophesy to us what is right.
Speak to us smooth words.
Prophecy illusions.
¹¹ Get out of the way!
Turn away from the path!
Let’s hear no more about the Holy One of Israel.”
¹² Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:
“Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and rely on perversity, ¹³ therefore this sin will be to you like a crack bulging in a high wall, about to fall—its collapse comes suddenly, in an instant!

¹⁴ Its collapse is like smashing a clay jar, so ruthlessly shattered that a shard will not be found among the pieces to take fire from the hearth or scoop water from the cistern.”

Longing to Be Gracious

¹⁵ For thus says ADONAI Elohim, the Holy One of Israel:
“By repentance and rest you are saved, in quietness and trust is your strength—but you were not willing.”
¹⁶ But you said, “No, we will flee on horses!”
Therefore you will flee.
And, “We will ride on swift horses!”
Therefore your pursuers will be swift.
¹⁷ A thousand will flee at the threat of one,
at the threat of five you will flee, until you are left like a flag on the top of a mountain, and like a banner on a hill.
¹⁸ Therefore ADONAI is longing to be gracious to you.
Thus He will be exalted, so He may have mercy on
you.
For ADONAI is a God of justice.
Blessed are all who wait for Him.
¹⁹ For the people of Zion who are dwelling in Jerusalem will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. When He hears you, He will answer. ²⁰ Though ADONAI gives you the bread of adversity and the water of oppression, your teachers will no longer be hidden, but your eyes will see your teachers. ²¹ Your ears will hear a word behind you saying:
“This is the way, walk in it.
When you turn to the right, or when you turn to the left.”
²² You will defile your graven images overlaid with silver, and your metal images covered with gold. You will throw them away like a menstrual cloth. You will say, “Be gone!”
²³ Then He will give you rain for your seed, which you will sow in the ground, and bread, the produce of the ground, will be rich and plentiful. In that day your cattle will feed in wide-open pasture. ²⁴ The oxen and the young donkeys that till the ground will eat seasoned fodder, which has been winnowed with shovel and pitchfork.
²⁵ There will be, on every high mountain and on every lofty hill, streams running with water—
on a day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.
²⁶ Moreover the light of the moon will be as the light of the sun,
and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter—

† Or the South

like the light of seven days—in the day ADONAI binds up the brokenness of His people,

and heals the wounds He inflicted.

²⁷ Look, ADONAI 's Name comes from afar, burning with His anger, in thick rising smoke,
His lips full of indignation,

His tongue like a consuming fire,

²⁸ His Ruach like an overflowing torrent rising up to the neck,
to sift the nations with the sieve of the worthless, to put in the jaws of the peoples
a bridle that leads away.

²⁹ You will have songs as in the night when you keep a holy festival, and gladness of heart

like one walking with the flute to go to the mountain of ADONAI , to the Rock of Israel.

Punishing Rod

³⁰ ADONAI will make His glorious voice heard, and reveal His arm descending with fierce fury in a consuming fire, in cloudburst, rainstorm, and hailstones.

³¹ For at the voice of ADONAI , Assyria will be terrified—

when He strikes with the rod.

³² Every stroke of His punishing rod that ADONAI brings down on him —with tambourines and harps, and battles brandishing His arm—
He will fight against them.

³³ For Topheth † has long been ready, prepared for the king,
its fire pit made deep and wide,
a pyre of fire with plenty of wood.
The breath of ADONAI , like a torrent of brimstone, sets it aflame.

Egypt's Horses Will Stumble

31 Oy , those going down to Egypt for help.
They are relying on horses, trusting in chariots since they are many,
and in horsemen since they are very mighty, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel nor seek ADONAI !

² Yet He is also wise.

He brings disaster, and does not take back His words.
He rises against the house of evildoers, against help for workers of iniquity.

³ Now Egyptians are men and not God, and their horses are flesh, not spirit.
When ADONAI stretches out His hand, both he who helps will stumble and he who is helped will fall, and both will perish together.

A Lion Protects Zion

⁴ For thus says ADONAI to me:
“As a lion or a young lion growls over its prey, though a company of shepherds is called out against him —their voice does not disturb him, nor does their noise upset him—so ADONAI - Tzva'ot will come down to fight on Mount Zion, on its hill.

⁵ Like hovering birds,
so ADONAI -Tzva'ot will protect Jerusalem.
By protecting, He will deliver.
By passing over, He will save.”

⁶ Return to the One from whom rebellion is so deep, Bnei-Yisrael .

⁷ For in that day everyone will cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold, which you made for yourselves with your hands of sin.

⁸ “Then Assyria will fall, not by a sword of man, so a sword not of man will devour him and he will flee from the sword.

His young men will be put to forced labor.

⁹ His rock will pass away because of fear.
His princes will be afraid of the banner”

—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
His fire is in Zion, and His furnace is in Jerusalem.

Reign in Righteousness

32 Behold, a king will reign in righteousness and princes will rule in justice.

² Each will be like a refuge from the wind and a shelter from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a massive rock in a weary land.

³ Then the eyes of those who see will not be closed, and the ears of those who hear will pay attention.

⁴ The heart of the hasty will understand knowledge, and the tongue of stammerers will speak fluently, clearly.

⁵ No longer will a fool be called noble, or a scoundrel said to be a gentleman.

⁶ For the fool speaks foolishness and his heart works wickedness, to practice ungodliness, and speak error about ADONAI , to deprive the hungry of food and withhold drink from the thirsty.

⁷ The scoundrel's methods are evil—
he makes up wicked schemes to destroy the poor with lies, even when the plea of the needy is just.

⁸ But the noble devises noble plans,

† Lit. high place for burning and for noble causes he stands.

⁹ Rise up, you women at ease,
 And hear my voice.
 You complacent daughters,
 give ear to my words.
¹⁰ Within a year and a few days
 you will shudder, complacent ones.
 For the grape harvest will fail and the gathering will not come.
¹¹ Tremble, you women at ease!
 Shudder, you complacent ones!
 Strip and make yourselves bare,
 and put sackcloth on your waist.
¹² Beat your breasts lamenting for pleasant fields,
 for fruitful vine,
¹³ for the land of my people, where thorns and briars come up,
 for all the joyful houses of the jubilant city.
¹⁴ For the palace will be abandoned;
 the bustling city will be deserted;
 the citadel and watchtower will become a wasteland
 forever,
 a delight of wild donkeys,
 a pasture for flocks, ¹⁵ until the Ruach is poured out on us from on high, † and the desert becomes a garden, and a garden seems like a forest.
¹⁶ Then justice will dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness abide in the garden.
¹⁷ The result of righteousness will be shalom and the effect of righteousness will be quietness and confidence forever.
¹⁸ My people will live in a peaceful place,
 in secure dwellings,
 quiet resting places.
¹⁹ Then hail will flatten the forest;
 and the city will be utterly laid low.
²⁰ Blessed are you, sowing by all waters, letting the feet of the ox and the donkey range free.

Ambassadors of Peace Weep Bitterly

33 Oy, you destroyer, never destroyed, you traitor, never betrayed!
 When you have stopped destroying,
 you will be destroyed;
 and when you finish betraying,
 they will betray you.
² ADONAI, be gracious to us!
 We long for You.
 Be our strength every morning,
 our salvation in time of trouble.
³ From the noise of tumult people will flee;
 When You lift Yourself up, the nations will be scattered.
⁴ Your spoil is gathered as the caterpillar gathers;
 like a swarm of locusts, they are rushing over it.

⁵ ADONAI is exalted, for He dwells on high!
 He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.
⁶ It will be your time of faithfulness, a wealth of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge—
 the fear of ADONAI is His treasure.
⁷ Behold, heroes cry outside.
 Ambassadors of peace weep bitterly.
⁸ Highways are desolate;
 travel has ceased;
 covenant is broken;
 cities are despised;
 there is no regard for humanity.
⁹ The land mourns and languishes;
 Lebanon is shamed and withers;
 Sharon is like a wilderness;
 Bashan and Carmel are shaken bare.

Our Eternal Judge Arises

¹⁰ "Now I will arise," says ADONAI.
 "Now I will be exalted.
 Now I will lift Myself up.
¹¹ You conceive chaff,
 you will give birth to stubble.
 My breath is a fire that will consume you.
¹² Then peoples will be burned as lime, like thorns cut down, burned in the fire.
¹³ Hear, you who are afar off, what I have done, and you who are near, acknowledge My might."
¹⁴ Sinners in Zion are afraid.
 Trembling has seized the godless:
 "Who among us can live with the consuming fire?
 Who among us can live with everlasting burnings?"
¹⁵ One who walks righteously, and speaks uprightly, who refuses unjust gain by extortion, who shakes his hands free of bribes,
 who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed,
 and shuts his eyes from looking on evil.
¹⁶ He will dwell on the heights—his refuge will be an impregnable cliff.
 His bread will be provided,
 his water assured.
¹⁷ Your eyes will see the King in His beauty.
 They will gaze at a far-distant land.
¹⁸ Your heart will meditate on terror:
 "Where is the counter?
 Where is the weigher?
 Where is the counter of towers?"
¹⁹ You will no longer see the fierce people, the people of speech too obscure to comprehend, with a stammering tongue no one understands.
²⁰ Look upon Zion, city of our Festivals.
 Your eyes will see Jerusalem as a quiet home,
 a tent that will never be folded,
 Its stakes never pulled up,
 its cords never broken.
²¹ For there the majestic One, ADONAI, will be for us—a place of rivers and wide canals, on which no boat with oars will go,

† cf. Acts 2:33; Rom. 5:5.

nor any mighty ship will travel by.
²² For ADONAI is our Judge, ADONAI is our Lawgiver,
ADONAI is our King—
 He will save us!
²³ Your cords hang slack, not holding the mast in place firmly,
 nor spreading out the sail.
 Then abundant spoil will be divided—even the lame will carry off plunder.
²⁴ No inhabitant will say, "I am sick."
 The people dwelling there will be forgiven their iniquity.

End-Time Vision

34 Draw near, O nations, to hear, and listen, O peoples!
 Let the earth hear, and all it contains,
 the world, and all its offspring!
² For ADONAI is enraged at all the nations, and furious at all their armies.
 He will utterly destroy them.
 He will give them over to slaughter.
³ So their slain will be thrown out, and the stench of their corpses will rise,
 and the hills will be drenched with their blood.
⁴ Then all the host of heaven will dissolve, and the skies will be rolled up like a scroll—so all their array will wither away, like a leaf drooping from a vine,
 like a fig shriveling from a fig tree.

Seek the Scroll and Read

⁵ For My sword has drunk its fill in the heavens.
 See, it will come down upon Edom, upon the people I have devoted to judgment.
⁶ The sword of ADONAI is filled with blood, gorged with fat—
 the blood of lambs and goats,
 the fat of kidneys of rams.
 For ADONAI has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
 a great slaughter in the land of Edom.
⁷ Wild oxen will go down with them,
 bull calves with mighty steers.
 So their land will be soaked with blood and their dust greasy with fat.
⁸ For ADONAI has a day of vengeance,
 a year of recompense for the hostility against Zion.
⁹ Its streams will be turned into pitch, its dust into brimstone,
 and its land will become burning tar.
¹⁰ It will not be quenched night or day.
 Its smoke will go up forever.
 From generation to generation it will lay waste—forever and ever none will pass through it.
¹¹ But pelican and porcupine will have it, owl and raven will dwell in it.

He will stretch a line of chaos over it and stones of desolation.
¹² As for its nobles, there are none there to call it a kingdom,
 and all its princes will come to nothing.
¹³ Thorns will come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses.
 It will be a haunt of jackals,
 an abode for ostriches.
¹⁴ Wildcats will meet with wolves, the goat-demon will cry to its kind—yes, the night monster will settle there and find itself a resting place.
¹⁵ A tree snake will nest and lay eggs there,
 hatch and gather them under its shadow.
 Surely, hawks are gathered there,
 each one with her mate.
¹⁶ Seek from the scroll of ADONAI, and read!
 Not one of them will be missing;
 none will lack its mate.
 For His mouth commanded it,
 and His Ruach gathered them.
¹⁷ He cast the lot for them, and His hand divided it out to them with the line.
 They will possess it forever,
 and dwell in it from generation to generation.

Highway in the Wilderness

35 The wilderness and dry land will be glad.
 The desert will rejoice and blossom like a lily.
² It will blossom profusely, will rejoice with joy and singing,
 will be given the glory of Lebanon,
 the splendor of Carmel and Sharon.
 They will see the glory of ADONAI,
 the splendor of our God.
³ Strengthen the limp hands, make firm the wobbly knees.
⁴ Say to those with anxious heart,
 "Be strong, have no fear!"
 Behold, your God!
 Vengeance is coming!
 God's recompense—it is coming!
 Then He will save you.
⁵ Then the eyes of the blind will be opened and the ears of the deaf unstopped. † ⁶ Then the lame will leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute will sing. ††
 For water will burst forth in the desert and streams in the wilderness.
⁷ The parched land will become a pool,
 the thirsty ground springs of water.
 In the haunt of jackals, where they rest,
 grass will become reeds and rushes.
⁸ A highway will be there—a roadway.
 It will be called the Way of Holiness.
 The unclean will not travel on it.

† cf. John 9:6-7; Acts 26:18. †† cf. Matt. 9:35-36; Luke 11:14.

It is for the one who walks the way.

Fools will not go astray.

⁹ No lion will be there.

No ravenous beast will go up on it.

They will not be found there.

But the redeemed will walk there.

¹⁰ The ransomed of ADONAI will return

and come to Zion with singing, with everlasting joy upon their heads.

They will obtain gladness and joy,

and sorrow and sighing will flee away.

Sennacherib Dares Jerusalem

36 Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah that King Sennacherib of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. ² The king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh † from Lachish to Jerusalem to King Hezekiah with a massive army. The Rabshakeh stood by the aqueduct of the upper pool in the highway of the washer's field. ³ Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder came out to him.

⁴ So the Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah: 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: "What is this confidence you've relied on? ⁵ I say your strategy and strength for war are only words of a lip. Who do you rely on now, so that you have rebelled against me? ⁶ Behold, you rely on this splintered reed as a staff—Egypt! If a man leans on it, it will go into the palm of his hand and pierce it—thus Pharaoh king of Egypt is to all who trust in him.

⁷ "But if you say to me: 'We trust in ADONAI our God'—is it not He whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, and then said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You must worship before this altar?'

⁸ "So now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria. I'll give you 2,000 horses—if you could put riders of your own on them. ⁹ So, how can you repulse a single lieutenant—the least of my master's servants? Yes, you're relying on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen.

¹⁰ "Moreover, have I now come up against this land to destroy it without ADONAI's approval? ADONAI said to me: 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.'"

¹¹ Then Eliakim and Shebna and Joah said to the Rabshakeh: "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Don't speak to us in the language of the Jews when the people on the wall are listening."

¹² But the Rabshakeh said: "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you to speak these words? Hasn't he sent me to the men who sit on the wall—who will eat their own waste and drink their own urine with you?"

¹³ Then the Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the language of the Jews and said: "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria. ¹⁴ Thus says the king: 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you! ¹⁵ Nor let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in ADONAI by saying, " ADONAI will surely deliver us—this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'"

¹⁶ "Don't listen to Hezekiah! For thus says the king of Assyria: 'Make peace with me and come out to me. Then everyone will eat from his own vine and fig tree, and everyone will drink water from his own cistern, ¹⁷ until I come and take you away to a land like your own land—a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.'

¹⁸ "Beware that Hezekiah does not mislead you by saying, ' ADONAI will deliver us.' Has any one of the gods of the nations delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Indeed, when did they deliver Samaria from my hand? ²⁰ Who among all the gods of these lands have delivered their country out of my hand? So will ADONAI deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"

²¹ But they were silent, and did not answer him a word, for the king's commandment was, "Do not answer him."

²² Then Eliakim son of Hilkiyah, who was in charge of the palace, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Hezekiah Tears His Clothes

37 When King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the House of ADONAI. ² Then he sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and the senior kohanim, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, son of Amoz.

³ Then they said to him: "Thus says Hezekiah: This day is a day of distress, rebuke, and contempt. For children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength for giving birth. ⁴ Perhaps ADONAI your God, will hear the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words which ADONAI your God has heard. So offer prayer for the remnant that is left."

⁵ When the officials of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, ⁶ Isaiah said to them: "Thus you will say to your master, 'Thus says ADONAI: Do not be afraid of the words you have heard, with which the boys of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. ⁷ Behold, I am putting a spirit in him so that he will hear a rumor, and will return to his own country; then I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

⁸ Then the Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard he had withdrawn from Lachish. ⁹ Now he had heard them say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, saying:

"He has come out to fight against you." When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah saying:
¹⁰ "Thus you will say to King Hezekiah of Judah, saying, 'do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying: "Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." ¹¹ Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands—utterly destroying them—so will you be delivered? ¹² Have the gods of the nations delivered those my fathers destroyed—Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, or the children of Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³ Where is the king of Hamath, or the king of Arpad, or the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, or Ivvah?"

Then Hezekiah went up to the House of ADONAI and spread it before ADONAI. ¹⁵ Hezekiah prayed to ADONAI saying: ¹⁶ " ADONAI - Tzva'ot, God of Israel, who is enthroned upon the cheruvim, You alone are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. ¹⁷ Incline Your ear, ADONAI, and hear! Open Your eyes, ADONAI, and see! Listen to all the words of Sennacherib, who was sent to mock the living God. ¹⁸ It is true, ADONAI, the kings of Assyria have devastated all the countries and their lands, ¹⁹ and have cast their gods into the fire—for they were not gods, but the work of human hands, wood and stone. So they have destroyed them. ²⁰ Now, ADONAI our God, save us from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You alone are ADONAI!"

Answered Prayer and Sennacherib's Demise

²¹ Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent word to Hezekiah saying, "Thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: 'Because you prayed to Me about King Sennacherib of Assyria, ²² this is the word that ADONAI has spoken about him:

"The virgin Daughter of Zion will despise you and mock you.
 The daughter of Jerusalem will shake her head at you.

²³ Whom did you taunt and blaspheme?
 Against whom did you raise your voice and haughtily lift up your eyes?
 Against the Holy One of Israel!

²⁴ Through your servants, you have blasphemed my Lord and said:
 'With my many chariots

I have climbed to the heights of the mountains, to the remotest parts of Lebanon!
 I cut down its tall cedars and choice cypress trees.

I have gone to its farthest peak, its thickest forest.

²⁵ I dug and drank water,
 and with the sole of my feet,
 I dried up all the streams of Egypt."

²⁶ "Have you not heard?
 I did it long ago!

From ancient times I planned it.
 Now I have brought it to pass—that you should turn fortified cities into heaps of rubble.

²⁷ Their inhabitants are weak handed, shattered and ashamed.

They are like the grass of the field and green herb,
 like grass on roofs,
 scorched before it is grown up.

²⁸ But I know your sitting down, your going out, and your coming in,
 and your raging against Me.

²⁹ Because your raging against Me and your arrogance reached My ears,
 I will put My hook in your nose,
 and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way that you came."

³⁰ "So this shall be the sign to you: This year you will eat what grows by itself, in the second year what springs from that. But in the third year, you will sow, reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

³¹ "The surviving remnant of the house of Judah will take root downward and bear fruit upward. ³² For from Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and survivors from Mount Zion. The zeal of ADONAI - Tzva'ot shall perform this.

³³ Therefore thus says ADONAI concerning the king of Assyria:

"He will not come to the city,
 or shoot an arrow there,
 or come before it with a shield, or throw up a siege-ramp against it.

³⁴ By the way that he came, by the same he will return, and he will not come into this city"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI.

³⁵ "For I will defend this city to save it, for My own sake, and for My servant David's sake."

³⁶ Then the angel of ADONAI went out and struck down 185,000 men in the Assyrian camp. When the men arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses. ³⁷ So King Sennacherib of Assyria withdrew, and returned home, and stayed in Nineveh. ³⁸ It also came to pass, as he was worshiping in the house of his god Nisroch, that his sons Adrammelech and Sarezer struck him down with the sword, and escaped into the land of Ararat. Then his son Esarhaddon became king in his place.

"Put Your House in Order"

38 In those days Hezekiah became mortally ill. So Isaiah the prophet son of Amoz came to him and said to him, "Thus says ADONAI: Put your house in order. For you are dying, and will not live."

² Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to ADONAI. ³ He said: "Please, ADONAI, remember how I have walked before You in truth and with a whole heart, and have done what is good in Your eyes." And Hezekiah wept bitterly.

⁴ Then it came to pass, the word of ADONAI came to Isaiah saying: ⁵ "Go, and say to Hezekiah, thus says ADONAI, the God of your father David: 'I have heard your prayer and I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add 15 years to your life. ⁶ I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; I will defend this city.'

⁷ "Now this will be the sign to you from ADONAI, that ADONAI will do this word He has spoken: ⁸ Behold, I will cause the shadow on the stairs, which went down with the sun on the sundial of Ahaz, to turn back ten steps." So the sun's shadow went back ten steps on the sundial on which it had gone down.

⁹ A writing of King Hezekiah of Judah, after his illness, when he recovered from his illness:

¹⁰ I said: "In the prime of my life,
I am to enter the gates of Sheol.
I am deprived of the rest of my years."

¹¹ I said: "I will not see ADONAI, ADONAI, in the land of the living.
I will look on humanity no longer among the inhabitants of the world.

¹² Like a shepherd's tent,
my dwelling is pulled up and carried away from me.
Like a weaver I rolled up my life.
He cuts me off from the loom.

From day until night You make my end.

¹³ I stilled my soul till morning.
Like a lion, He will break all my bones.
From day till night You make my end.

¹⁴ Like a swallow or a crane, I whisper,
I moan like a dove.

My eyes are weary, looking upward.
ADONAI, I am oppressed, be my security!

¹⁵ What should I say?

For He has spoken to me—

He Himself has done it!
I will wander about all my years because of the bitterness of my soul.

¹⁶ ADONAI, by such things men live, and my spirit has life in them too.
Restore me to health,
and let me live!

¹⁷ Behold, it was for my own shalom that I had great bitterness.

You have loved my soul out of the Pit of destruction!
For You have flung all my sins behind Your back.

¹⁸ For Sheol cannot thank You, death cannot praise You.

Those who go down to the Pit cannot hope for Your faithfulness.

¹⁹ The living, the living—they praise You—as I do today.

A father makes Your faithfulness known to his children.

²⁰ ADONAI will save me.

So we will play my songs on stringed instruments all the days of our life in the House of ADONAI."

²¹ Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs, and apply it to the boil, and he will live." ²² Hezekiah had said, "What is the sign that I will go up to the House of ADONAI?"

Hezekiah Shows Off

39 At that time Merodach-baladan, son of King Baladan of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that he had been sick and had recovered. ² Now Hezekiah was pleased with them, so he showed them his treasure house—the silver and the gold, the spices and the precious oil—and his whole armory, and everything that was found in his treasuries. There was nothing in his house or in all his dominion that Hezekiah did not show them.

³ Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?"

Hezekiah replied, "They have come to me from a far country, from Babylon."

⁴ Then he asked, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah said, "They have seen everything in my house. There is nothing among my treasuries that I didn't show them."

⁵ Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah: "Hear the word of ADONAI - Tzva'ot, ⁶ Behold, days are coming when everything in your house, which your fathers have stored up to this day, will be carried to Babylon—nothing will be left," says ADONAI. ⁷ "Moreover, some of your descendants—who will issue from you, whom you will father—will be taken away and will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon."

⁸ Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of ADONAI which you have spoken is good." For he thought, "For there will be shalom and security in my days."

Comfort, Proclaim Good News

40 "Comfort, comfort My people," says your God.

² Speak kindly to the heart of Jerusalem and proclaim to her that her warfare has ended, that her iniquity has been removed.
For she has received from ADONAI's hand double for all her sins.

³ A voice cries out in the wilderness,
"Prepare the way of ADONAI, Make straight in the desert
a highway for our God. †

⁴ "Every valley will be lifted up,

† cf. Matt. 3:3; Mark 1:3; Luke 3:4-6; John 1:23.

every mountain and hill made low,
 the rough ground will be a plain and the rugged terrain smooth.
 5 The glory of ADONAI will be revealed, and all flesh will see it together."
 For the mouth of ADONAI has spoken.
 6 A voice is saying, "Cry out!"
 So I said, "What shall I cry out?"
 "All flesh is grass, and all its loveliness is like the flower of the field.
 7 The grass withers, the flower fades.
 For the breath of ADONAI blows on it.
 Surely the people are grass.
 8 The grass withers, the flower fades.
 But the word of our God stands forever." † 9 Get yourself up on a high mountain, you who bring good news to Zion!
 Lift up your voice with strength,
 you who bring good news to Jerusalem!
 Lift it up! Do not fear!
 Say to the cities of Judah:
 "Behold your God!"
 10 Look, ADONAI Elohim comes with might,
 with His arm ruling for Him.
 Behold, His reward is with Him,
 and His recompense before Him. ††
 11 Like a shepherd, He tends His flock. ‡
 He gathers the lambs in His arms carries them in his bosom, and gently guides nursing ewes.

Who Is like Him?

12 Who has measured the waters in the palm of His hand,
 or measured out heaven with a span,
 or calculated the dust of the earth in a measure, or weighed the mountains in scales,
 or the hills in a balance?
 13 Who can fathom the Ruach ADONAI?
 Or instruct Him as His counselor?
 14 With whom did He consult, and who instructed Him?
 Who taught Him in the path of justice or taught Him knowledge?
 Who informed Him about the way of understanding?
 15 Behold, the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and count as a speck of dust on the scales.
 Behold, the islands weigh as fine dust.
 16 Lebanon is not enough to burn, or its animals enough for a burnt offering.
 17 All the nations are as nothing before Him.
 By Him they are accounted null and void.
 18 To whom then will you liken God?
 To what likeness will you compare Him?
 19 To an idol? A craftsman casts it, a goldsmith overlays it with gold and fashions silver chains for it.

 20 One too poor for such an offering chooses wood that will not rot.
 He looks for a skilled craftsman to prepare him an idol that will not totter.
 21 Do you not know?
 Have you not heard?
 Has it not been told to you from the beginning?
 Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 He sits above the circle of the earth—its inhabitants are like grasshoppers—
 He stretches out the skies like a curtain, spreads them out like a tent to dwell in.
 23 He reduces princes to nothing.
 He makes the judges of the earth a confusion.
 24 Scarcely are they planted, scarcely are they sown,
 scarcely their stem takes root in the earth,
 when He blows on them and they wither,
 and a storm carries them off as stubble.
 25 "To whom then will you liken Me?
 Or who is My equal?" says the Holy One.
 26 Lift up your eyes on high, and see!
 Who created these?

The One who brings out their host by number,
 the One who calls them all by name.
 Because of His great strength and vast power, not one is missing.
 27 Why do you say, O Jacob,
 and assert, O Israel,
 "My way is hidden from ADONAI, and the justice due me escapes
 the notice of my God"?"
 28 Have you not known?
 Have you not heard?
ADONAI is the eternal God,
 the Creator of the ends of the earth.
 He does not grow tired or weary.
 His understanding is unsearchable.
 29 He gives strength to the weary, and to one without vigor He adds might.
 30 Even youths grow tired and weary,
 and young men stumble and fall, 31 but they who wait for ADONAI will renew their strength.
 They will soar up with wings as eagles.
 They will run, and not grow weary.
 They will walk, and not be faint.

Coming Conqueror

41 "Be silent before Me, O islands!
 Let peoples renew their strength.
 Let them draw near, then let them speak.
 Let us come together for judgment.
 2 Who has stirred up one from the east?
 He calls justice to His feet.
 He gives nations over to him and subdues kings.

† cf. 1 Pet. 1:22-25. †† cf. Rev. 22:12. ‡ cf. John 10:11.

He makes them like dust with his sword, as driven stubble with his bow.

³ He pursues them, passing on safely, by a path his feet had not traveled.

⁴ Who has performed and done it? Calling forth the generations from the beginning, I, ADONAI, am the first and the last, I am He!"

⁵ The coastlands have seen and fear. The ends of the earth tremble. They draw near and come.

⁶ Each one helps his neighbor and says to his brother, "Be strong!"

⁷ The craftsman encourages the smith, who smooths with the hammer, who strikes with the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It's good!" as he fastens it with nails so that it will not totter.

My Servant, My Friend

⁸ "But you, Israel, My servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, descendant of Abraham, My friend—

⁹ I took hold of you from the ends of the earth, and called from its uttermost parts, and said to you, 'You are My servant—I have chosen you, not rejected you. †

¹⁰ Fear not, for I am with you, be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you. Surely I will help you.

I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.'

¹¹ Behold, all who were angry at you will be ashamed and disgraced. Those who quarrel with you will be as nothing and perish.

¹² Though you will look for those who contended with you, you will not find them.

Those who warred against you will be as nothing at all.

¹³ For I am ADONAI your God who upholds your right hand, who says to you,

'Fear not, I will help you.'

¹⁴ Fear not, you worm Jacob, you men of Israel! I will help you."

It is a declaration of ADONAI, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵ "Look, I will make you a threshing sledge, new, with sharp, double-edged spikes. You will thresh the mountains and grind them up, and will make the hills like chaff.

¹⁶ You will winnow them, and a wind will carry them away, a storm-wind will scatter them.

But you will rejoice in ADONAI.

You will glory in the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁷ "The poor and needy ask for water, but there is none,

Their tongues are parched with thirst. I, ADONAI, will answer them, I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.

¹⁸ I will open rivers on the bare hills and springs in the midst of the valleys. I will make the wilderness a pool of water and the dry land into fountains of water.

¹⁹ I will plant in the wilderness the cedar and the acacia tree, the myrtle and the olive tree.

I will set in the desert the cypress tree and the pine together with the box tree—

²⁰ so they may see and know, consider and understand together, that the hand of ADONAI has done this, the Holy One of Israel has created it."

Challenge to Idolaters

²¹ "Present your case," says ADONAI. "Bring forth your reasons," says the King of Jacob.

²² Let them bring forth and tell us what will happen. The former things, what were they? Tell us, that we may consider them and know their outcome.

Or announce to us things to come. ²³ Declare the things coming afterward, so we may know that you are gods! Indeed, do good or do evil, so we may all see and be awestruck.

²⁴ Behold, you are nothing, and your work is null. Whoever chooses you is loathsome.

²⁵ "I have stirred up one from the north, and he has come.

From the rising of the sun, He will call upon My Name. He will trample rulers as on mortar, like a potter treading clay."

²⁶ Who told this from the beginning, so that we may know?

Or from former times, so we may say, "He is right"?

In fact, no one foretold it,

In fact, no one announced it.

In fact, no one heard Your words.

²⁷ First it was to Zion:

"Behold, here they are!"

And to Jerusalem:

"I will give a herald of good news." ††

²⁸ But when I look, there is no one. There is no counselor among them.

† cf. Rom. 11:1-2.

†† cf. Matt. 4:23; 9:35; Mark 1:14-15.

When I ask them, they have no response.
 29 Indeed, they are all a delusion.
 Their works are null.
 Their molten images are wind and waste.

First Servant Song: Justice

42 Behold My servant †, whom I uphold.
 My Chosen One, †† in whom My soul delights.
 I have put My Ruach on Him, ‡
 He will bring justice to the nations.
 2 He will not cry out or raise His voice, or make His voice heard in the street.
 3 A bruised reed He will not break.
 A smoldering wick He will not snuff out.
 He will faithfully bring forth justice. ‡† 4 He will not be disheartened or crushed until He establishes justice on earth.
 The islands will wait for His Torah.
 5 Thus says God, ADONAI, who created the heavens and stretched them out,
 who spread out the earth and what comes from it,
 who gives breath to the people on it, and Ruach to those who walk in it ‡— 6 “I, ADONAI, called You in righteousness,
 I will take hold of Your hand,
 I will keep You and give You as a covenant to the people, ‡†† as a light to the nations, ‡††† 7 by opening blind eyes, bringing prisoners out of the dungeon, and those sitting in darkness out of the prison
 house. §
 8 “I am ADONAI—that is My Name!
 My glory I will not give to another,
 Or My praise to graven images.
 9 Behold, the former things have come to pass,
 Now I declare new things.
 Before they spring forth
 I announce them to you.”
 10 Sing to ADONAI a new song,
 His praise from the end of the earth,
 you who go down to the sea with all its fullness, islands and their inhabitants.
 11 Let the desert and its cities exult—
 the villages that Kedar inhabits.
 Let the dwellers of Sela sing for joy.
 Let them shout for joy
 from the top of the mountains.
 12 Let them give glory to ADONAI and declare His praise in the islands.
 13 ADONAI goes out as a mighty one.
 He stirs up His zeal like a man of war.
 He will shout, yes, raise a war cry!
 He will prevail over His enemies.
 14 “I have held My peace a long time,

I have been still and restrained Myself.
 Now like a woman in labor I groan, gasping and panting at once.
 15 I will lay waste mountains and hills,
 and dry up all their vegetation.
 I will turn the rivers into islands,
 and dry up the pools.
 16 I will bring the blind by a way they do not know.
 in paths they have not known, I will guide them.
 I will turn darkness before them to light and the rough places smooth.
 These are the things I will do,
 and I will not forsake them.
 17 They will be turned back, utterly put to shame—
 those trusting in idols, who say to molten images, ‘You are our gods.’
 18 Hear, you deaf!
 Look, you blind, so you may see.
 19 Who is blind, but My Servant?
 Or deaf as My Messenger that I send?
 Who is so blind as the one in covenant with Me, blind as ADONAI’s Servant?
 20 You have seen many things,
 but you do not pay attention.
 Though ears are open, no one hears.” §† 21 ADONAI was pleased, for the sake of His righteousness, to make Torah great and glorious.
 22 But this is a people robbed and looted.
 all of them trapped in holes,
 hidden away in prisons.
 They have become a prey with no one to deliver them,
 and plunder,
 with none to say, “Give them back!”
 23 Who among you will give ear to this?
 Who will listen and heed hereafter?
 24 Who gave Jacob to the looter,
 Israel to the plunderers?
 Was it not ADONAI?
 Have we not sinned against Him?
 In His ways they were unwilling to walk and His Torah they did not obey.
 25 So He poured out on him the fury of His anger, and the fierceness of battle.
 It blazed all around him, yet he did not understand it.
 It burned him, yet he did not take it to heart.

Love for Israel

43 But now, thus says ADONAI— the One who created you, O Jacob, the One who formed you, O Israel:
 “Fear not, for I have redeemed you,
 I have called you by name, you are Mine.
 2 When you pass through the waters,
 I will be with you,
 or through the rivers,

† cf. Matt. 20:28. †† cf. Luke 9:35; 1 Pet. 2:4. ‡ cf. Matt. 3:16.
 ‡† cf. Rev. 19:11. ‡†† cf. Gal. 5:25. ‡††† cf. Heb. 9:15. ‡†††† cf.
 Luke 2:32; Acts 13:47; 26:23. § cf. Luke 4:18-21.

§† cf. Matt. 13:13-14.

they will not overflow you.
 When you walk through the fire,
 you will not be burned,
 nor will the flame burn you.
³ For I am ADONAI your God,
 the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.
 I have given Egypt as your ransom,
 Ethiopia and Seba in your place.
⁴ Since you are precious in My eyes, honored, because I love you,
 I will give a man in exchange for you,
 and other peoples for your life.
⁵ Do not fear, for I am with you.
 I will bring your offspring from the east and gather you from the west.
⁶ I will say to the north, 'Give them up!'
 and to the south, 'Do not hold them back.'
 Bring My sons from far and My daughters from the ends of the earth.
⁷ Everyone who is called by My Name, whom I created for My glory,
 I formed him—yes, I made him!"

You Are My Witnesses

⁸ Bring out the people who are blind, yet have eyes, who are deaf, yet have ears.
⁹ All the nations are gathered together,
 and the peoples are assembled.
 Who among them can declare this,
 and proclaim to us former things?
 Let them present their witnesses
 so they may be justified, or let them hear and say, "It's true."
¹⁰ "You are My witnesses"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI —
 "and My Servant whom I have chosen, so that you may know and believe Me,
 and understand that I am He.
 Before Me no God was formed, and there will be none after Me.
¹¹ "I, I am ADONAI — and there is no savior beside Me. † ¹² I alone declared, saved and proclaimed, and not some foreign god among you.
 So you are My witnesses"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI —
 "and I am God.
¹³ From eternity, I am He.
 None can deliver from My hand.
 I act, and who can reverse it?"
¹⁴ Thus says ADONAI ,
 your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
 "For your sake I will send to Babylon and bring down the fleeing Chaldeans, all of them, in the ships in which they exult.
¹⁵ I am ADONAI , your Holy One,
 the Creator of Israel, your King."

† cf. Acts 5:31; 13:23; 1 Tim. 2:3; 4:10.

¹⁶ Thus says ADONAI , who makes a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters.
¹⁷ who drew out chariots and horses,
 the army and the warrior (they will lie down together, and not rise again;
 they are extinguished—quenched like a wick): ¹⁸ "Do not remember former things, nor consider things of the past.
¹⁹ Here I am, doing a new thing;
 Now it is springing up—
 do you not know about it?
 I will surely make a way in the desert, rivers in the wasteland.
²⁰ The field animals honor Me
 —the jackals and the ostriches—because I give waters in the desert, rivers in the wilderness,
 to give drink to My chosen people, ²¹ the people I formed for Myself,
 so they might declare My praise.
²² Yet you have not called on Me, Jacob, for you have been weary of Me, Israel.
²³ You have not brought Me sheep for your burnt offerings;
 nor have you honored Me with your sacrifices.
 I did not compel you to serve offerings nor wearied you with incense.
²⁴ You have not spent money buying Me aromatic cane, nor have you satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices.
 Rather you burdened Me with your sins, wearied Me with your iniquities.
²⁵ I, I am the One who blots out your transgressions for My own sake, and will not remember your sins.
²⁶ Remind me, when we argue our case together—state your case, so you may be proved right.
²⁷ Your first father sinned, and your mediators rebelled against Me.
²⁸ So I profaned the Sanctuary officials, and gave Jacob over to destruction,
 and Israel to scorn.

No Profit in Casting Idols

44 "But now listen, Jacob My servant,
 Israel, whom I have chosen."
² Thus says ADONAI who made you, and formed you from the womb,
 who will help you:
 "Do not fear, Jacob My servant,
 Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
³ For I will pour water on the thirsty land and streams on the dry ground.
 I will pour My Spirit on your offspring, and My blessing on your descendants.
⁴ They will spring up among the grass like willows by flowing streams.

⁵ This one will say, 'I am ADONAI 's.'
That one will be called by the name Jacob.
Another will write on his hand, 'ADONAI 's' and will take the name Israel."

First and Last

⁶ Thus says ADONAI,
Israel's King and his Redeemer, ADONAI - Tzva'ot :
"I am the first, and the last,
and there is no God beside Me. †
⁷ Who is like Me?
Let him proclaim and announce it!
Let him arrange it in order for Me—as I established the ancient nation.
Let them declare to them
what is coming and future events.
⁸ Do not dread or be afraid.
Have I not told you and declared it long ago?
So you are My witnesses!
Is there any God beside Me?
Is there any other Rock?
I know of none.

Folly of Idols

⁹ "Those who fashion idols are empty.
Their precious things do not profit.
Their witnesses do not see or know,
so they will be put to shame.
¹⁰ Who fashions a god or casts an idol for no profit?
¹¹ Behold, all his friends will be ashamed, for the craftsmen are only human.
Let them all assemble.
Let them stand up.
Let them dread.
Let them be put to shame together.
¹² The blacksmith takes a tool and works with it over the coals, fashioning it with hammers and working it with his strong arm.
Yet when he is hungry, his strength fails.
When he drinks no water, he gets tired.
¹³ A carpenter stretches out a line;
he marks it with a pencil;
he shapes it with planes;
he marks it with a compass;
he shapes it like the figure of a man
—like the beauty of a man—
so that it may sit in a shrine.
¹⁴ He chops down cedars for himself, or he takes a cypress or an oak.
He lets it grow strong among the trees of the forest.
He plants a pine and rain nourishes it.
¹⁵ Then it is something for a man to burn.
so he takes one of them and warms himself.

He also makes a fire to bake bread.
He also makes a god and worships it.
He makes an idol and bows before it.
¹⁶ He burns half of it in the fire.
With this half, he eats meat.
He roasts a roast and is satisfied.
He also warms himself and says,
'Ah! I am warm, I have seen the fire.'
¹⁷ Yet with the rest he makes a god, his carved image.
He falls down before it and worships.
He even prays to it and says,
'Deliver me, for you are my god!'
¹⁸ "They do not know or understand!
For He smeared over their eyes, so they cannot see,
and their hearts, so they cannot understand.
¹⁹ No one reflects in his heart, with no knowledge or discernment to say, "I burned half of it in the fire and I also baked bread on its coals.
I roasted meat and ate—and then I make the rest of it an abomination?
Should I bow before a block of wood?"
²⁰ He is feeding on ashes.
A deceived heart has led him astray,
so he cannot deliver his soul, nor say,
'Isn't what is in my right hand a fraud?'
²¹ "Remember these things, Jacob, and Israel, for you are My servant.
I formed you, you are My servant.
Israel, you will not be forgotten by Me!
²² I have blotted out your transgressions like a thick cloud and your sins like a mist.
Return to Me, for I have redeemed you."
²³ Sing, O heavens, for ADONAI has done it!
Shout, depths of the earth!
Break forth into singing, mountains, forest, and every tree in it!
For ADONAI has redeemed Jacob and will be glorified through Israel.
²⁴ Thus says ADONAI,
your Redeemer, who formed you from the womb:
"I am ADONAI, Maker of all things, stretching out the heavens alone,
spreading the earth abroad by Myself, ²⁵ causing the omens of boasters to fail, making fools of diviners,
turning wise men backward,
and making their knowledge foolish, ²⁶ while confirming the word of His servant,
fulfilling the counsel of His messengers, saying of Jerusalem, 'She will be lived in,'
and of the cities of Judah, 'They will be built, and I will raise up their ruins,' ²⁷ while saying to the deep, 'Be dry,
I will dry up your rivers,' ²⁸ while saying of Cyrus, 'He is My shepherd, and he shall fulfill all My purpose,' while saying to Jerusalem, 'You will be built'

† cf. Rev. 1:8, 17; 22:13.

and to the Temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'

Cyrus the Anointed

45 Thus says ADONAI to His anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped,
 to subdue nations before him,
 to loose the belts of kings, to open doors before him
 so that gates may not be shut.
² I will go before you and make crooked places straight.
 I will shatter bronze doors and cut through iron bars.
³ I will give you treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places, so you may know that I am ADONAI,
 the God of Israel, who calls you by your name.
⁴ For the sake of Jacob My servant,
 and Israel My chosen one,
 I have also called you by name,
 I have given you a title of honor,
 though you have not known Me.
⁵ I am ADONAI—there is no other.
 Besides Me there is no God.
 I will strengthen you,
 though you have not known Me,
⁶ so they may know,
 from the rising to the setting of the sun,
 that there is no one besides Me.
 I am ADONAI—there is no other.
⁷ I form light and create darkness.
 I make shalom and create calamity.
 I, ADONAI, do all these things.
⁸ "Rain down, O heavens, from above, and let the clouds pour down justice.
 Let the earth open up,
 let salvation sprout,
 and righteousness spring up with it.
 I, ADONAI, have created it."
⁹ Oy, to one who quarrels with his Maker, like a pot among the pots of the earth!
 Shall the clay say to the potter,
 "What have you made?"
 Or does your work say,
 "It has no handles"? †
¹⁰ Oy, to him who says to his father,
 "What have you begotten?"
 Or to a woman,
 "What have you born?"
¹¹ Thus says ADONAI,
 the Holy One of Israel and its Maker,
 "Ask Me about the things to come upon My children.
 Then you will commit to Me the work of My hands.
¹² I made the earth and created man on it.
 My hands stretched out the heavens and I commanded all their host.

† cf. Rom. 9:20.

¹³ "I stirred Cyrus up in righteousness and I will level all his roads.
 He will build My city and set My exiles free, with no price or bribe,"
 says ADONAI - Tzva'ot.
¹⁴ Thus says ADONAI:
 "Egypt's toil, Ethiopia's merchandise, and the tall Sabeans
 will come over to you and be yours.
 They will walk behind you in chains.
 They will bow down to you, and pray, saying, 'Surely God is with you!'
 There is none else— no other God!"

Mystery of Creation

¹⁵ Truly You are a God who hides Himself,
 O God of Israel, Savior!
¹⁶ All of them will be ashamed, disgraced—idol-makers go in dishonor together.
¹⁷ Israel has been saved by ADONAI with an everlasting salvation.
 You will not be put to shame or disgraced, for ever and ever.
¹⁸ For thus says ADONAI—
 He is God who fashioned the heavens, who formed the earth and made it,
 He established it and did not create it desolate but formed it to be inhabited—
 "I am ADONAI—there is no other!
¹⁹ I have not spoken in secret,
 in a place of a land of darkness.
 I did not say to the seed of Jacob,
 'Seek Me in desolation.'
 I, ADONAI, speak righteousness, declaring uprightly."

No Other God and Savior

²⁰ "Assemble yourselves and come, draw near together, fugitives of the nations!
 Those who carry their wooden idols have no knowledge,
 praying to a god who cannot save.
²¹ Declare and present your case,
 Indeed, let them consult together.
 Who foretold this from ancient time?
 Who has declared it of old?
 Is it not I, ADONAI?
 There is no other God beside Me
 —a righteous God and a Savior—
 there is none besides Me! †† ²² Turn to Me, and be saved, all the ends of the earth.
 For I am God—there is no other.
²³ By Myself I have sworn—

†† cf. Mark 12:29-34; John 17:3; 1 Cor. 8:4-6.

the word has gone forth from My mouth in righteousness, and is irrevocable:

that to Me every knee will bow, every tongue will swear. †

²⁴ They will say of Me,

‘Only in ADONAI is righteousness and strength.’

All who have raged against Him will come to Him and be put to shame.

²⁵ In ADONAI all the seed of Israel will be justified and give praise.”

Idols a Weary Burden

46 Bel bows down; Nebo stoops over.
Their idols are for beasts and cattle.

The things you carry are borne as burdens on weary beasts.

² They stoop, they bow down together, they cannot save the burden,
but themselves go into captivity.

³ “Listen to Me, house of Jacob,
all the remnant of the house of Israel,
borne by Me from birth, carried from the womb.

⁴ Even to your old age I will be the same,
until you are gray I will carry you.

I have done it; I will bear you;
I will carry you; I will deliver you.

⁵ To whom will you liken Me, or make Me equal or compare Me,
that we should be alike?

⁶ They lavish gold from a purse and weigh out silver on the scales.
They hire a goldsmith so he makes a god.
They bow down. Yes, they worship it.

⁷ They lift it upon a shoulder and carry it.
They set it in its place and there it stands.
It does not budge from its place.

Even if one cry to it, it cannot answer, nor save anyone from his trouble.”

Purpose for Cyrus

⁸ “Remember this, and be assured.

Recall it to mind, you transgressors.

⁹ Remember the former things of old:
For I am God—there is no other.

I am God, and there is none like Me—

¹⁰ declaring the end from the beginning, from ancient time, what is yet to come,
saying, ‘My purpose will stand,
and I will accomplish all that I please.’

¹¹ From the east I am calling a bird of prey, a man for My purpose from a far country.

Truly I have spoken; I will bring it to pass;
I have planned it; surely I will do it.

¹² Listen to Me, you stubborn-hearted, who are far from righteousness:

¹³ I bring My justice near, it is not far off.

So My salvation will not delay.

I put salvation in Zion,

My glory in Israel.”

Catastrophe of Babylon

47 Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon.

Sit on the ground without a throne,
daughter of the Chaldeans.

For you will no more be called tender and delicate.

² Take the millstones and grind flour.

Remove your veil, strip off the skirt, uncover the leg, cross the rivers.

³ Your nakedness will be uncovered, and your shame will be exposed.

I will take vengeance,
and will spare no one.

⁴ Our Redeemer, ADONAI - Tzva'ot is His Name, is the Holy One of Israel.

⁵ Sit in silence, go into darkness,
daughter of the Chaldeans.

For you will no more be called the mistress-queen of kingdoms.

⁶ I was angry with My people.

I profaned My heritage.

I gave them into your hand,
but you showed them no mercy.

You made your yoke very heavy on the aged.

⁷ You said, “Forever,

I will be the eternal mistress-queen!”

You did not lay these things to heart or remember their end.

⁸ Now then, hear this, voluptuous one, dwelling securely, saying in your heart,

“I am, and there is no one besides me!

I will not sit as a widow, or know the loss of children,”

⁹ These two things will come upon you in a moment, in one day—

loss of children and widowhood—

they will come upon you in full measure in spite of your many sorceries and your many spells.

¹⁰ You felt secure in your wickedness,

You said, “No one sees me.”

Your wisdom and your knowledge led you astray,

so you have said in your heart,

“I am—there is no one else beside me!”

¹¹ But calamity will come upon you.

You won't know how to charm it away.

Disaster will fall on you,

for which you cannot atone.

Catastrophe you cannot foresee will suddenly come upon you.

† cf. Rom. 14:11; Phil. 2:5-11.

12 Stand fast in your enchantments and your many sorceries, which you have toiled over since your youth.
Perhaps you will succeed?
Perhaps you will cause terror?
13 You are weary of your consultations.
So many!
So let the astrologers, star-gazers, predicting by new moons, stand up and save you from what will come upon
you.
14 Behold, they shall be as stubble.
Fire will consume them.
They cannot deliver themselves from the power of the flame!
It is not a coal for warming by or a fire to sit before!
15 So much have they become to you,
with whom you have toiled, trafficking with you from your youth,
each wandering about his own way.
No one will save you!

Who Foretold These Things?

48 Hear this, house of Jacob, who are called by the Name of Israel,
who came from the wellspring of Judah, who swear by the Name of ADONAI and confess the God of Israel—but not in truth or righteousness.
2 For they call themselves by the holy city,
and lean on the God of Israel,
ADONAI - Tzva'ot is His Name.
3 "I foretold the former things long ago.
They went forth from My mouth,
and I caused them to be heard.
Suddenly I acted, so they came about.
4 For I know that you are obstinate, and your neck is iron sinew,
and your forehead bronze.
5 So I foretold it to you long ago.
before it came about I made you hear,
lest you should say, 'My idol did them,
my carved image, yes,
my molded image commanded them.'
6 You have heard. See all of it.
So will you not admit it?
I proclaim to you new things from now on—hidden things that you have not known.
7 They are created now, not long ago.
Before today you had not heard them.
So you will not say, 'Sure, I knew them.'
8 You have not heard; you never knew;
even from long ago your ear has not been open.
For I knew that you are treacherous, and from birth were called a rebel.
9 For My Name's sake I defer My anger, for My praise I will restrain it for you—otherwise I would cut you off.

10 Behold, I have refined you, though not as silver.
I tested you in the furnace of affliction. †
11 For My own sake, for My own sake, I act.
For how should I be profaned?
I will not give My glory to another.
12 Listen to Me, Jacob, Israel whom I called:
I am He;
I am the first; I am also the last. †† 13 Surely My hand founded the earth,
My right hand spread out the heavens.
When I call to them, they stand together.
14 Assemble, all of you, and listen!
Who among them foretold these things?
ADONAI loves him.
He will do His will against Babylon—
His arm against the Chaldeans.
15 I, I have spoken, yes I called him.
I will bring him, so his ways will succeed.
16 Draw near to Me, hear this:
Since the beginning, I have not spoken in secret.
From the time it existed, I was there.
So now ADONAI Elohim has sent Me, and His Ruach." ‡ 17 Thus says ADONAI, your Redeemer,
the Holy One of Israel:
"I am ADONAI your God, who teaches you to profit,
who leads you in the way you should go.
18 If only you had listened to My commandments!
Then your peace would be like a river,
and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.
19 Your seed would have been like sand, and your offspring like its grains.
Their name would never be cut off or destroyed from before Me.
20 Get out of Babylon, flee from Chaldea!
With a shout of joy,
proclaim this,
send it out to the end of the earth, say:
'ADONAI has redeemed His servant Jacob!
21 They did not thirst when He led them through the deserts.
He caused the water to flow out of the rock for them.
He split the rock also,
and the waters gushed out."
22 "There is no shalom," says ADONAI,
"for the wicked."

Second Servant Song: Light of the Nations

49 Listen, to Me, islands!
Pay attention, peoples far away.
ADONAI called Me from the womb,

† cf. 1 Pet. 1:7-9. †† cf. Rev. 1:17-18; 22:12-18. ‡ cf. John 1:1-5.

from My mother's belly He named Me.
 2 He made My mouth like a sharp sword.
 In the shadow of His hand He hid Me.
 He made Me a polished arrow,
 He has hidden Me in His quiver.
 3 He said to Me, "You are My servant,
 Israel, in whom I will be glorified."
 4 But I said, "I have labored in vain,
 I have spent my strength for nothing and futility.
 Yet surely the justice due to me is with ADONAI, and my reward with My God."
 5 So now says ADONAI, who formed Me from the womb to be His servant,
 to bring Jacob back to Him,
 to gather Israel back to Him.
 For I am honored in the eyes of ADONAI and My God has become my strength.
 6 So He says,
 "It is too trifling a thing that You should be My servant
 to raise up the tribes of Jacob and restore the preserved ones of Israel.
 So I will give You as a light for the nations, that You should be My salvation to the end of the earth." †
 7 Thus says ADONAI,
 the Redeemer of Israel, their Holy One, to the One despised, †† to the One the nation abhors,
 to a servant of rulers:
 "Kings will see and arise, princes will also bow down,
 because of ADONAI who is faithful,
 the Holy One of Israel who has chosen You."

Compassion on Zion's Children

8 Thus says ADONAI:
 "In a time of favor I will answer you.
 In a day of salvation I will help you.
 I will keep You and give You as a covenant to the people,
 to restore the land,
 to make them possess its desolate inheritances, 9 saying to the prisoners, 'Come out!'
 to those in darkness, 'Be shown!'
 Along the roads they will graze—their pasture will be on all the barren heights.
 10 They will not hunger or thirst, nor scorching wind or sun strike them,
 for their compassionate One will lead them,
 and will guide them by springs of water.
 11 I will make all My mountains a road,
 and My highways will be raised up.
 12 "Behold, these shall come from afar.
 behold, these from the north and from the west,
 and from the land of Sinim.
 13 Shout for joy, heavens!

Rejoice, earth!
 Break forth into ringing shouts, O mountains!
 For ADONAI has comforted His people and has compassion on His afflicted." 14 But Zion said: " ADONAI has forsaken me, ADONAI has forgotten me."
 15 "Can a woman forget her nursing baby or lack compassion for a child of her womb?
 Even if these forget,
 I will not forget you.
 16 Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of My hands.
 Your walls are continually before Me.
 17 Your children will come quickly.
 Your destroyers and devastators will go away from
 you.
 18 Lift up your eyes around and see:
 all of them will gather and come to you.
 As I live"
 —it is ADONAI's declaration—
 "you will wear them all as jewelry and bind them on like a bride.
 19 For your waste and desolate places and your destroyed land will now be surely too small for the inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up will be far away.
 20 The children of your bereavement will yet say in your ears,
 'The place is too cramped for me!
 Make room for me to settle in.'
 21 Then you will say in your heart,
 'Who has borne these for me?
 Wasn't I bereaved of my children—barren, an exile and wandering?
 So who has raised these?
 Behold, I was left alone—these, where were they?'"
 22 Thus says ADONAI Elohim:
 "Look, I will lift My hand to the nations,
 and raise My banner to the peoples!
 They will bring your sons on their chest,
 and carry your daughters on their shoulders.
 23 Kings will be your guardians, their princesses your nurses.
 They will bow down to you with their face to the ground,
 and lick the dust of your feet.
 Then you will know that I am ADONAI — those hoping in Me will not be ashamed."
 24 Can plunder be taken from the mighty, or captives of the righteous freed?
 25 For thus says ADONAI:
 "Yes, captives of the mighty will be taken and the prey of the tyrant will be freed.
 For I will oppose your adversary.
 I will save your children.
 26 I will feed your oppressors their flesh.

† cf. Luke 2:28-32; Acts 13:47; 26:22-23. †† cf. Mark 9:12;
 Luke 17:20-36.

They will be drunk with their blood as with sweet wine.

Then all flesh will know that I, ADONAI, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

50 Thus says ADONAI:
“Where is the divorce certificate,
by which I sent your mother away?
Or to whom of My creditors did I sell you?
See, you were sold for your iniquities, and for your transgressions your mother was sent away.

² Why was no one there when I came?
Why was there no one to answer when I called?
Is My hand too short to redeem?
Or have I no power to deliver?
Behold, I dry up the sea at My rebuke,
I make rivers a wilderness—their fish stink for lack of water and die of thirst.

³ I clothe the heavens with blackness and make sackcloth their covering.”

Third Servant Song: Face like Flint

⁴ ADONAI Elohim has given Me the tongue of the learned, † that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.

He awakens Me morning by morning.
He awakens My ear to give heed as a disciple.

⁵ ADONAI Elohim has opened My ear, and I was not rebellious,
nor did I turn back.

⁶ I gave My back to those who strike, and My cheeks to those pulling out My beard;
I did not hide My face from humiliation and spitting. ††

⁷ For ADONAI Elohim will help Me.
Therefore I have not been disgraced.
Therefore I set My face like flint, and I know that I will not be ashamed.

⁸ The One who vindicates Me is near.
Who will accuse Me?

Let us stand up to each other.
Who is My adversary?
Let him confront Me.

⁹ See, ADONAI Elohim will help Me.
Who is he who would condemn Me?
See, they all wear out like a garment.
A moth will eat them up.

¹⁰ Who among you fears ADONAI?
Who hears the voice of His servant?
Who walks in darkness and has no light?
Let him trust in the Name of ADONAI and lean on his God.

¹¹ “Behold, all you who kindle a fire, encircling yourselves with firebrands.

Walk in the light of your fire and among the brands you have lit.
This you will have from My hand:
you will lie down in torment.”

Comfort Zion with Justice

51 “Listen to Me, you who pursue justice, you who seek ADONAI.
Look to the rock from which you were hewn,
and to the quarry from which you were dug.

² Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you.
For when I called him, he was but one,
then I blessed him and multiplied him.”

³ For ADONAI will comfort Zion.
He will comfort all her waste places.
He will make her wilderness like Eden,
her desert like the garden of ADONAI.
Joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and a sound of melody.

⁴ “Pay attention to Me, My people, give ear to Me, My nation.
For Torah will go out from Me,
My justice as a light to the peoples. ‡

⁵ My righteousness is near,
My salvation has gone out,
and My arms will judge the nations.
The coastlands will wait for Me—
for My arm they will wait expectantly.

⁶ Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath.
For the heavens will vanish like smoke,
the earth will wear out like a garment,
and its inhabitants will die like gnats,
but My salvation will be forever,
and My righteousness never wane.

⁷ Listen to Me, you who know justice,
a people with My Torah in their heart:
Do not fear the taunt of men,
nor be dismayed at their insults.

⁸ For the moth will eat them like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool.
But My righteousness will be forever and My salvation for all generations.”

⁹ Awake, awake, put on strength,
O arm of ADONAI, awake, as in days of old, the generations of long ago.

Was it not You who cut Rahab in pieces,
who pierced the dragon?

¹⁰ Was it not You who dried up the sea,
the waters of the great deep,
who made the depths of the sea a path for the redeemed to pass over?

¹¹ Now the ransomed of ADONAI will return,
and come to Zion with singing.

† cf. Matt. 7:28-29; Mark 11:27-33; Luke 4:31-32. †† cf. Matt. 26:57-68; 27:27-31; Mark 14:53-65; 15:16-20; John 19:1-16.

‡ cf. Luke 2:28-32; John 1:1-19; 8:12.

Everlasting joy will be upon their heads.
 They will obtain gladness and joy,
 and sorrow and sighing will flee away.
 12 "I, I am the One who comforts you.
 Who are you that you should fear man, who dies, or a son of man, who is given up like grass?"
 13 But you forgot ADONAI your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth.
 Are you in constant dread all day because of the fury of the oppressor
 as he makes ready to destroy?
 But where is the fury of the oppressor?
 14 Soon one bowed down will be released.
 He will not die and go to the Pit,
 nor will his bread be lacking.
 15 "For I am ADONAI your God, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—
ADONAI - Tzva'ot is His Name.
 16 I have put My words in your mouth, and covered you with the shadow of My hand—
 I who set the heavens in place, who laid the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, "You are My people."
 17 Awake, awake!
 Stand up, Jerusalem!
 From ADONAI's hand you have drunk the cup of His fury,
 the chalice of reeling that you have drained to the dregs.
 18 There is none to guide her among all the sons she has borne, nor is there one to take her by the hand
 among all the sons she has raised.
 19 These two things have befallen you —who will mourn for you?—
 devastation and destruction, famine and the sword.
 How will I comfort you?
 20 Your sons have fainted.
 They lie at every street corner,
 like an antelope in a net.
 They are full of ADONAI's fury,
 the rebuke of your God.
 21 Therefore hear this, you who are afflicted, who are drunk, but not with wine.
 22 Thus says your Lord, ADONAI your God who defends
 His people:
 "Behold, I have taken from your hand the cup of reeling,
 the bowl of My wrath.
 You will never drink it again.
 23 Then I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, who said to you, 'Lie down, so we may walk over you.'
 You have made your back like the ground and like a street for passersby."

Ma Navu : The Song of Salvation

52 Awake, awake!
 Clothe yourself in your strength, Zion!
 Clothe yourself in beautiful garments, Jerusalem, the holy city, for the uncircumcised and the unclean will never invade you again.
 2 Shake off the dust and arise!
 Be enthroned, Jerusalem.
 Loose the bonds off your neck, captive Daughter of Zion.
 3 For thus says ADONAI :
 "You were sold for nothing.
 So you will be redeemed without silver."
 4 For thus says ADONAI Elohim :
 "At first My people went down to Egypt to reside
 there,
 then the Assyrian oppressed them for nothing.
 5 Now therefore, what do I have here?"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI —
 "My people are taken away for nothing?
 Its rulers wail,"
 —it is ADONAI's declaration—
 "and My Name is continually blasphemed all day long. †
 6 Therefore My people will know My Name.
 Therefore in that day,
 I am the One who will be saying, ' Hineni! "' 7 How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who announces shalom , who brings good news of happiness, †† who announces salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns!" 8 The voice of your watchmen—they will lift up their voices.
 Together they are shouting for joy!
 For they will see eye to eye
 when ADONAI returns to Zion.
 9 Break forth in joy, sing together,
 you ruins of Jerusalem,
 for ADONAI has comforted His people.
 He has redeemed Jerusalem.
 10 ADONAI has bared His holy arm before the eyes of all the nations.
 All the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God. ‡ 11 Leave, leave! Get out of there!
 Touch no unclean thing.
 Go out of her midst. Purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of ADONAI .
 12 For you will not go out in haste, nor will you go in flight,
 for ADONAI will go before you,
 and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

Fourth Servant Song: The Lamb

¹³ "Behold, My servant will prosper,
He will be high and lifted up and greatly exalted. †
¹⁴ Just as many were appalled at You—
His appearance was disfigured more than any man,
His form more than the sons of men.
¹⁵ So He will sprinkle many nations.
Kings will shut their mouths because of Him, for what had not been told them they will see,
and what they had not heard they will perceive."

Isaiah 53

53 Who has believed our report? ††
To whom is the arm of ADONAI revealed?
² For He grew up before Him like a tender shoot, like a root out of dry ground.
He had no form or majesty that we should look at Him,
nor beauty that we should desire Him.
³ He was despised and rejected by men,
a man of sorrows, acquainted with grief,
One from whom people hide their faces.
He was despised, and we did not esteem Him. †
⁴ Surely He has borne our griefs †† and carried our pains.
Yet we esteemed Him stricken, struck by God, and afflicted.
⁵ But He was pierced †† because of our transgressions, crushed because of our iniquities.
The chastisement for our shalom was upon Him,
and by His stripes we are healed.
⁶ We all like sheep have gone astray.
Each of us turned to his own way.
So ADONAI has laid on Him the iniquity of us all.
⁷ He was oppressed and He was afflicted yet He did not open His mouth.
Like a lamb led to the slaughter, ††† like a sheep before its shearers is silent, so He did not open His mouth. ††† ⁸ Because of oppression and judgment He was taken away.
As for His generation, who considered?
For He was cut off from the land of the living, for the transgression of my people—
the stroke was theirs.
⁹ His grave was given with the wicked, and by a rich man in His death, §
though He had done no violence, nor was there any deceit in His mouth. §†
¹⁰ Yet it pleased ADONAI to bruise Him.
He caused Him to suffer.

† cf. Phil. 2:5-11. †† cf. John 12:38; Rom. 10:16. ‡ cf. Luke 18:31-33; John 1:10-11. †† Or illnesses ††† Or wounded ††† cf. Acts 8:26-39; 1 Pet. 2:21-25. ††† cf. Matt. 26:57-63; 27:12-14; Luke 23:8-11; John 19:1-16. § cf. Matt. 27:57-60. §† cf. 1 Pet. 2:21-25.

If He makes His soul a guilt offering,
He will see His offspring, He will prolong His days,
and the will of ADONAI will succeed by His hand.
¹¹ As a result of the anguish of His soul
He will see it and be satisfied by His knowledge.
The Righteous One, My Servant will make many righteous
and He will bear their iniquities. §†† ¹² Therefore I will give Him a portion with the great, and He will divide the spoil with the mighty—because He poured out His soul to death, and was counted with transgressors. §†
For He bore the sin of many,
and interceded for the transgressors. §††

Your Husband is Your Maker

54 "Sing, barren one, who has not given birth.
burst into singing and shout,
you who have not travailed.
For more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married one,"
says ADONAI.
² "Enlarge the place of your tent, stretch out your tabernacle curtains.
Do not hold back—lengthen your cords, strengthen your stakes.
³ For you will spread out to the right hand and to the left.
Your offspring will possess the nations and will resettle the desolate cities.
⁴ Fear not, for you will not be ashamed.
Nor cringe, for you will not be disgraced.
For you will forget the shame of your youth, and you will remember the reproach of your widowhood no more.
⁵ For your Maker is your husband §†
— ADONAI - Tzva'ot is His Name—
the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer.
He will be called God of all the earth.
⁶ "For ADONAI has called you back like a wife deserted and grieved in spirit, like a wife of one's youth that is rejected,"
says your God.
⁷ "For a brief moment I deserted you,
but I will regather you with great compassion.
⁸ In a surge of anger
I hid My face from you a moment, but with everlasting kindness
I will have compassion on you," says ADONAI your Redeemer.
⁹ "For this is like the waters of Noah to Me:
for as I swore that the waters of Noah should no more cover the earth,
so I have sworn that I will not be angry with you, §†† cf. Rom. 4:18-25; 5:18-19. §† cf. Mark 15:21-32; Luke 22:37. §†† cf. Luke 23:32-34; Rom. 8:31-39; Heb. 7:23-25. §† cf. Rev. 21:1-4.

nor will I rebuke you.
 10 Though the mountains depart and the hills be shaken,
 My love will not depart from you,
 nor will My covenant of peace be shaken, says ADONAI who has compassion on you.
 11 Afflicted one, storm-tossed, unconsolated, behold, I set your stones in antimony,
 lay your foundations with sapphires, 12 make your pinnacles of rubies, your gates of crystal,
 and all your walls of precious stones.
 13 All your children will be taught by ADONAI.
 Your children will have great shalom.

No Weapon Formed against You

14 "In righteousness you will be established.
 You will be far from oppression —for you will not fear—and from terror—
 for it will not come near you.
 15 Behold, anyone fiercely attacking is not from Me.
 Whoever stirs up strife with you will fall because of you.
 16 Behold, I created the smith who blows the fire of coals and produces a weapon for its work, and I created the destroyer to ruin.
 17 No weapon formed against you will prosper and you will condemn every tongue that rises against you in judgment.
 This is the heritage of ADONAI's servants—their vindication is from Me."
 It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Trees of the Field Will Clap Their Hands

55 "Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the water, †
 and you who have no money, come, buy, and eat.
 Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost!
 2 Why do you spend money for what is not bread?
 Your wages for what does not satisfy?
 Listen diligently to Me, and eat what is good,
 and delight yourself in abundance.
 3 Incline your ear and come to Me.
 Listen, so that your soul may live.
 I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
 the trustworthy loyalty to David.
 4 Behold, I made him a witness to the peoples,
 a leader and commander for the peoples.
 5 Behold, you will summon a nation you do not know, and a nation that did not know you will run to you, because of ADONAI your God and the Holy One of Israel,

for He has glorified you."
 6 Seek ADONAI while He may be found, call on Him while He is near. †† 7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous one his thoughts, let him return to ADONAI, so He may have compassion on him,
 and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.
 8 "For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways."
 It is a declaration of ADONAI.
 9 "For as the heavens are higher than earth,
 so are My ways higher than your ways,
 and My thoughts than your thoughts.
 10 For as the rain and snow come down from heaven, and do not return there without having watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to sow and bread to eat,
 11 so My word will be that goes out from My mouth.
 It will not return to Me in vain,
 but will accomplish what I intend,
 and will succeed in what I sent it for.
 12 "Yes, you will go out with joy and be led forth with peace.
 The mountains and the hills will break forth before you singing, and all the trees of the field will clap their hands!
 13 Instead of the thorn bush, a cypress will come up,
 and instead of the brier, a myrtle will come up,
 and it will be a memorial to ADONAI, as an everlasting sign that will never be cut off."

Foreigners Keeping Shabbat

56 Thus says ADONAI:
 "Preserve justice,
 do righteousness.
 For My salvation is about to come,
 and My righteousness to be revealed.
 2 Blessed is the one who does this,
 the son of man who takes hold of it,
 who keeps from profaning Shabbat,
 and keeps his hand from doing any evil.
 3 Do not let a son of a foreigner who has joined himself to ADONAI ‡ say,
 ' ADONAI will surely exclude me from His people.'
 Nor let the eunuch say,
 'Behold, I am a dry tree.'
 4 For thus says ADONAI,
 "To the eunuchs who keep My Shabbatot, who choose what pleases Me,
 and hold fast My covenant:
 5 I will give to them in My House and within My walls a memorial and a name ††

† cf. John 4:14; 7:37; Rev. 21:6; 22:17.

†† cf. Matt. 7:7; Luke 11:9. ‡ cf. Eph. 2:12-22.

better than sons and daughters.
 I will give them an everlasting name that will not be cut off.
⁶ Also the foreigners who join themselves to ADONAI, to minister to Him,
 and to love the Name of ADONAI, and to be His servants—
 all who keep from profaning Shabbat, and hold fast to My covenant—⁷ these I will bring to My holy mountain, and let them rejoice in My House of Prayer.
 Their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on My altar.
 For My House will be called a House of Prayer for all nations.” † ⁸ ADONAI Elohim, who gathers the dispersed of Israel, declares, “I will gather still others to him, to those already gathered.”
⁹ All you beasts of the field, come to eat, all you beasts in the forest.
¹⁰ His watchmen are all blind.
 All of them know nothing.
 All of them are mute dogs unable to bark, dreamers lying down, lovers of slumber, ¹¹ and the dogs are greedy—
 they never have enough.
 They are shepherds with no discernment.
 They have all turned to their own way,
 each to his own gain, one and all.
¹² “Come, let’s get wine, let’s guzzle strong drink.
 Tomorrow will be like today,
 only even better!”

Remove Every Stumbling Block

57 The righteous one perishes, but no one takes it to heart.
 Godly men are taken away,
 but no one discerns
 that the righteous man is taken from evil.
² He enters into shalom.
 They rest on their beds,
 each who walked in his integrity.
³ But as for you, come here, you children of a sorceress,
 offspring of an adulterer and prostitute.
⁴ Whom are you mocking?
 At whom do you open your mouth wide and stick out your tongue?
 Are you not children of transgression, offspring of deceit?
⁵ You who burn with lust among the oaks
 and under every green tree, who sacrifice your children in the wadis and under the clefts of the rocks?

⁶ Among the smooth stones of the wadi is your portion—
 they are your lot.
 To them you have even poured out a drink offering,
 made a grain offering.
 Shall I relent concerning these things?
⁷ Upon a high and lofty mountain you made your bed.
 You also went up there to offer sacrifice.
⁸ Behind the door and the doorpost you have set up your memorial sign.
 For away from Me, you uncovered, went up and made your bed wide,
 and cut covenant with them.
 You loved their bed—
 you looked on their nakedness.
⁹ You journeyed to the king with oil and multiplied your perfumes.
 You sent your ambassadors far away,
 and made them go down to Sheol.
¹⁰ You wearied of the length of your way, yet you did not say, “It is hopeless!”
 You found renewed strength, so you did not weaken.
¹¹ “Whom was it you dreaded and feared,
 so that you lied.
 But you did not remember Me or take it to heart?
 Have I not kept silent a long time—
 yet you do not fear Me?
¹² I will expose your ‘righteousness’, and your deeds—they will not profit you.
¹³ When you cry out, will your collection of idols save you?
 The wind will carry them off,
 a breath will take them away.
 But he who takes refuge in Me will possess the land, and will inherit My holy mountain.”
¹⁴ Then it will be said:
 “Build up, build up, prepare the way, remove every stumbling block out of the way of My people.”
¹⁵ For thus says the High and Exalted One who inhabits eternity, whose Name is Holy:
 “I dwell in a high and holy place,
 yet also with a contrite and humble spirit,
 to revive the spirit of the humble,
 and revive the heart of the contrite.
¹⁶ For I will not contend forever, nor will I always be angry,
 for the spirit would grow weak before Me,
 the breath of those whom I made.
¹⁷ Because of the iniquity of his unjust gain I was angry;
 I struck him; I hid My face; I was angry—
 but he went on backsliding in the way of his heart.
¹⁸ I have seen his ways, but I will heal him.

† Hebrew Yad Vashem † cf. Matt. 21:12-13; Mark 11:15-17; Luke 19:45-46.

I will lead him and restore comfort to him and his mourners.
¹⁹ Creating the praise of lips:
 ‘Shalom, shalom to him who is far and to him who is near,’
 says ADONAI, ‘and I will heal him.’” ²⁰ But the wicked are like a troubled sea, for it cannot rest,
and its waters toss up mire and dirt.
²¹ “There is no shalom,” says my God
“for the wicked.”

Fasting and Tzedakah

58 “Cry aloud, do not hold back!
Raise your voice like a shofar.
Tell My people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.
² Yet they seek Me day to day and delight to know My ways, as if they were a nation that did right,
and had not forsaken their God’s decree.
They ask Me for righteous judgments;
they delight in the nearness of God.”
³ “Why have we fasted, yet You do not see?
Why have we afflicted our souls,
yet You take no notice?” “Behold, in the day of your fast you seek your own pleasure,
and exploit all your laborers.
⁴ Behold, you fast for strife and contention and to strike with a wicked fist.
You should not fast as you do today to make your voice heard on high.
⁵ Is this the fast I have chosen?
A day for one to afflict his soul?
Is it to bow down his head like a reed,
and spreading out sackcloth and ashes?
Will you call this a fast and a day acceptable to ADONAI?
⁶ “Is not this the fast I choose:
to release the bonds of wickedness,
to untie the cords of the yoke,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to tear off every yoke?
⁷ Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, to bring the homeless poor into your house?
When you see the naked, to cover him,
and not hide yourself from your own flesh and blood?
⁸ Then your light will break forth like the dawn, and your healing will spring up speedily.
Your righteousness will go before you,
the glory of ADONAI as your rear guard.”
⁹ Then you will call, and ADONAI will answer.
You will cry and He will say, “Here I am.”
If you get rid of the yoke among you—finger-pointing and badmouthing—¹⁰ If you give yourself to the hungry, and satisfy the desire of the afflicted,

then your light will rise in darkness,
and your gloom will be like midday.
¹¹ Then ADONAI will guide you continually, satisfy your soul in drought and strengthen your bones.
You will be like a watered garden,
like a spring of water whose waters never fail.
¹² Some of you will rebuild the ancient ruins, will raise up the age-old foundations, will be called Repairer of the Breach, Restorer of Streets for Dwelling.
¹³ If you turn back your foot from Shabbat, from doing your pleasure on My holy day,
and call Shabbat a delight,
the holy day of ADONAI honorable,
If you honor it, not going your own ways,
not seeking your own pleasure,
nor speaking your usual speech, ¹⁴ then You will delight yourself in ADONAI, and I will let you ride over the heights of the earth,
I will feed you with the heritage of your father Jacob.”
For the mouth of ADONAI has spoken.

Separation from God

59 Behold, ADONAI’s hand is not too short to save, nor His ear too dull to hear.
² Rather, your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God.
Your sins have hidden His face from you,
so that He does not hear.
³ For your hands are defiled with blood and your fingers with iniquity.
Your lips have spoken lies,
your tongue mutters wickedness.
⁴ No one sues justly,
and none pleads a case honestly.
They trust in confusion and speak lies.
They conceive mischief,
and bring forth iniquity.
⁵ They hatch adders’ eggs, and weave the spider’s web—whoever eats their eggs dies;
crack one open, a viper breaks out.
⁶ Their webs will not become clothing, nor will they cover themselves with what they make.
Their deeds are works of iniquity, an act of violence is in their hands.
⁷ Their feet run after evil.
They rush to shed innocent blood. †
Their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity.
Violence and ruin are on their highways.
⁸ They do not know the path of peace,
and there is no justice in their tracks.
They have made their paths crooked.
Whoever walks in them will not experience shalom.
⁹ That is why justice is far from us

and righteousness does not reach us.
 We hope for light, but behold darkness,
 for brightness, but walk in gloom.
¹⁰ We grope along the wall like the blind.
 We grope like those with no eyes.
 We stumble at noon as at twilight.
 We are like the dead in desolation.
¹¹ All of us growl like bears or moan like doves.
 We hope for justice, but there is none;
 for salvation, but it is far from us.
¹² For our transgressions are multiplied before You,
 and our sins testify against us,
 for our transgressions are with us,
 and we know our iniquities:
¹³ transgressing and denying ADONAI , turning back from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering lying words from the heart.
¹⁴ Justice is turned back,
 and righteousness stands far off.
 For truth has stumbled in the street,
 and uprightness cannot enter.
¹⁵ So now truth is missing, and whoever shuns evil becomes prey.
 Now when ADONAI saw it, it was displeasing in His eyes
 that there was no justice.
¹⁶ He saw that there was no one—
 He was astonished that no one was interceding. †
 Therefore His own arm brought salvation for Him, and His righteousness upheld Him.
¹⁷ He put on righteousness as a breastplate and a helmet of salvation on His head.
 He clothed Himself in robes of vengeance and wrapped Himself in zeal as a cloak.
¹⁸ According to their deeds,
 so He will repay:
 wrath to His adversaries, retribution to His enemies.
 To the islands He will repay as due.
¹⁹ So from the west they will fear the Name of ADONAI
 and His glory from the rising of the sun.
 For He will come like a rushing stream driven along by the Ruach ADONAI .
²⁰ "But a Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those in Jacob who turn from transgression."
 It is a declaration of ADONAI .
²¹ "As for Me, this is My covenant with them," says ADONAI : "My Ruach who is on you, †† and My words that I have put in your mouth, shall not depart from your mouth, or from the mouth of your offspring, or from the mouth of your children's offspring," says ADONAI , "from now on and forever."

Arise, Shine, O Zion

60 Arise, shine, for your light has come!
 The glory of ADONAI has risen on you.
² For behold, darkness covers the earth, and deep darkness the peoples.
 But ADONAI will arise upon you,
 and His glory will appear over you.
³ Nations will come to your light, kings to the brilliance of your rising.
⁴ Lift up your eyes and look all around:
 they all gather—they come to you—your sons will come from far away, your daughters carried on the hip.
⁵ Then you will see and be radiant, and your heart will throb and swell with joy.
 For the abundance of the sea will be turned over to
 you.
 The wealth of nations will come to you.
⁶ A multitude of camels will cover you,
 young camels of Midian and Ephah,
 all those from Sheba will come.
 They will bring gold and frankincense, ‡ and proclaim the praises of ADONAI .
⁷ All Kedar's flocks will be gathered to you.
 Nebaioth's rams will minister to you.
 They will go up with favor on My altar,
 and I will beautify My glorious House.
⁸ Who are these who fly like a cloud, like doves to their windows?
⁹ Surely the islands will hope in Me, with the ships of Tarshish in the lead,
 to bring your sons from afar,
 their silver and gold with them,
 for the Name of ADONAI your God, and for the Holy One of Israel,
 because He has glorified you.
¹⁰ Foreigners will build up your walls, and their kings will minister to you.
 For in My fury I struck you,
 but in My favor I will show you mercy.
¹¹ Your gates will be open continually.
 They will not be shut day or night, so that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations,
 with their kings led in procession.
¹² For the nation and the kingdom which will not serve you will perish—
 those nations will be utterly ruined.
¹³ The glory of Lebanon will come to you —cypress, elm and pine together—to beautify the place of My Sanctuary.
 I will give to the place of My feet glory.
¹⁴ The sons of those who afflicted you will come bowing to you, and all those who despised you will fall at the soles of your feet.

† cf. Heb. 7:25. †† cf. Matt. 12:17-21; Acts 2:16-21.

‡ cf. Matt. 2:1-12.

They will call you the city of ADONAI,
 Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
 15 Instead of deserted and hated,
 no one passing through,
 I will make you an eternal pride,
 joy from generation to generation.
 16 You will also suck the milk of nations and nurse at the breast of kings.
 Then you will know that I, ADONAI, am your Savior
 and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.
 17 "Instead of bronze I will bring gold, instead of iron I will bring silver,
 instead of wood, bronze,
 and instead of stones, iron.
 I will make shalom your overseer, and righteousness your taskmasters.
 18 No more will violence be heard in your land, devastation nor destruction within your borders.
 But you will call your walls Salvation and your gates Praise.
 19 No more will the sun be your light by day, nor the glow of the moon be your light,
 but ADONAI will be your everlasting light, and your God for your glory. † 20 No more will your sun set,
 nor will your moon wane,
 for ADONAI will be your everlasting light, as the days of your mourning end. ††
 21 Then your people will all be righteous.
 They will possess the land forever—
 the branch of His planting, the work of My hands—
 that I may be glorified.
 22 The smallest will become a thousand,
 and the least a mighty nation.
 I, ADONAI, will hasten it in its time."

Besorah for the Brokenhearted

61 The Ruach of ADONAI Elohim is on me, ‡ because ADONAI has anointed me to proclaim Good News to the poor. ††
 He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound,
 2 to proclaim the year of ADONAI's favor and the day of our God's vengeance, to comfort all who mourn
 3 to console those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, ‡‡ the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, that they might be called oaks of righteousness,
 the planting of ADONAI, that He may be glorified.

† cf. Rev. 21:22-27; 22:1-5. †† cf. Rev. 21:1-4. ‡ cf. Luke
 4:18-19. ‡† cf. Matt. 11:5; Luke 7:22. ‡‡ cf. Heb. 1:9.

4 They will rebuild the ancient ruins.
 They will restore former desolations.
 They will repair the ruined cities,
 the desolations of many generations.
 5 Strangers will stand and shepherd your flocks, children of foreigners will be your plowmen and vinedressers.
 6 But you will be called the kohanim of ADONAI,
 They will speak of you as the ministers of our God.
 You will eat the wealth of nations and boast in their abundance.
 7 Instead of your shame, double portion.
 Instead of disgrace they will sing for joy.
 Therefore in their land they will inherit a double portion;
 they will have everlasting joy.
 8 For I, ADONAI, love justice.
 I hate robbery in the burnt offering.
 In faithfulness I will reward My people and cut an eternal covenant with them.
 9 Then their offspring will be known among the nations,
 their descendants among the peoples.
 All who see them will recognize them,
 for they are the seed that ADONAI has blessed.
 10 I will rejoice greatly in ADONAI.
 My soul will be joyful in my God.
 For He has clothed me with garments of salvation,
 He has wrapped me in a robe of righteousness—like a bridegroom wearing a priestly turban, like a bride adorning herself with her jewels.
 11 For as the earth brings forth its sprouts, and as a garden causes things sown to spring up, so ADONAI Elohim will cause justice and praise to spring up before all the nations.

Watchmen for Jerusalem

62 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness shines out brightly,
 and her salvation as a blazing torch.
 2 Nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory.
 You will be called by a new name, which ADONAI's mouth will bestow.
 3 You will also be a crown of beauty in the hand of ADONAI,
 and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
 4 No longer will you be termed "Forsaken," no longer your land termed "Desolate."
 Instead you will be called, "My Delight is in Her,"
 and your land, "Married."
 For ADONAI delights in you, and your land will be married.
 5 For as a young man marries a virgin,
 so your sons will marry you.
 As a bridegroom rejoices over a bride,
 so your God will rejoice over you.

6 On your walls, Jerusalem, I have set watchmen.
 All day and all night, they will never hold their peace.
 "You who remind ADONAI, take no rest for yourselves, 7 And give Him no rest until He establishes and makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.
 8 ADONAI has sworn by His right hand and by His strong arm:
 "Surely I will never again give your grain
 as food for your enemies, nor will foreigners drink your new wine,
 for which you have labored.
 9 But those who have garnered it will eat it and praise ADONAI, and those who have gathered it will drink it in the courts of My Sanctuary."
 10 Go through, go through the gates.
 Clear the way for the people!
 Build up, build up the highway!
 Remove the stones.
 Lift up a banner over the peoples.
 11 Behold, ADONAI has proclaimed to the end of the earth:
 Say to the Daughter of Zion,
 "Behold, your salvation comes!
 See, His reward is with Him,
 and His recompense before Him." †
 12 Then they will call them "The Holy People,"
 "The Redeemed of ADONAI," and you will be called, "Sought Out,"
 "A City Not Forsaken."

Winepress of Vengeance

63 "Who is this coming from Edom, in crimsoned garments from Bozrah?
 This One splendid in His apparel, pressing forward in His great might?"
 "It is I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."
 2 "Why is Your apparel so red, and Your garments like one who treads in a wine press?" ††
 3 "I have trodden the winepress alone—from the peoples, no man was with Me.
 I trod them in My anger,
 and trampled them in My wrath.
 Their lifeblood spattered My garments,
 so I stained all My robes.
 4 For a day of vengeance was in My heart, and My year of redemption has come.
 5 I looked, but there was no one to help.
 I was amazed, but no one was assisting.
 So My own arm won victory for Me, and My wrath upheld Me.
 6 So I trod down the peoples in My anger, and made them drunk in My wrath,
 and I poured out their lifeblood ‡ on the earth."

Remembering His Chesed

7 I will remember the lovingkindnesses of ADONAI, the praises of ADONAI, according to all that ADONAI has granted us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which He has granted them according to His compassion, and according to the abundance of His lovingkindnesses.
 8 For He said, "Surely they are My people, children who will not deal falsely."
 So He became their Savior.
 9 In all their affliction He was afflicted.
 So the angel of His presence saved them.
 In His love and in His mercy He redeemed them, then He lifted them and carried them all the days of old.
 10 But they rebelled, and grieved His Ruach ha-Kodesh.
 So He turned to become their enemy.
 He Himself fought against them.
 11 Then His people remembered the days of old,
 the days of Moses:
 "Where is He who brought them through the sea with the shepherd of His flock?
 Where is He who put among them
 His Ruach ha-Kodesh ?
 12 Who caused His glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses?
 Who divided the waters before them—
 to make Himself a Name forever?
 13 Who led them through the depths?
 Like a horse in the desert,
 they did not stumble."
 14 Like cattle that go down into a valley,
 the Ruach ADONAI gave them rest.
 So You led Your people, to make Yourself a glorious Name.
 15 Look down from heaven and see from Your holy, glorious, lofty abode.
 Where are Your zeal and mighty deeds?
 Are the yearnings of Your heart,
 Your compassions, withheld from me?
 16 For You are our Father—even if Abraham would not know us or Israel not recognize us.
 You, ADONAI, are our Father, our Redeemer—from everlasting is Your Name.
 17 ADONAI, why do You cause us to stray from Your ways,
 and harden our heart from fearing You?
 Return for Your servants' sake,
 the tribes of Your heritage.
 18 Briefly Your holy people possessed it—our foes have trampled Your Sanctuary.
 19 We have become like those over whom You have never ruled, like those not called by Your Name.

† cf. Rev. 22:12. †† cf. Rev. 19:11-16.

‡ Or juice of grapes

(64:1) Oh, that You would rend the heavens and come down, that the mountains might quake at Your presence!

As Unclean Rags

64 (2) As fire kindles brushwood, as fire causes water to boil,
make Your Name known to Your foes,
so the nations may tremble before You!
2 (3) When You did awesome things that we were not expecting,
You came down—the mountains shook at Your presence!
3 (4) For from days of old no one has heard,
no ear perceived,
no eye has seen God, except You,
who acts on behalf of the one waiting for Him.
4 (5) You meet him who rejoices in doing righteousness,
who remembers You in Your ways.
Behold, You were angry.
When we kept sinning all the time, would we be saved?
5 (6) For all of us have become like one who is unclean,
and all our righteousness is like a filthy garment,
and all of us wither like a leaf,
and our iniquities carry us away, like the wind.
6 (7) No one calls on Your Name, or stirs himself up to take hold of You.
For You have hidden Your face from us,
and have consumed us, because of our iniquities.
7 (8) But now, ADONAI, You are our Father.
We are the clay and You are our potter,
We are all the work of Your hand.
8 (9) Do not be angry much more, ADONAI, or remember iniquity forever.
Oh, please see,
we are all Your people!
9 (10) Your holy cities became a wilderness,
Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a desolation.
10 (11) Our holy and beautiful House, where our fathers praised You,
Has been burned with fire—
all our pleasant things are laid waste.
11 (12) Will You restrain Yourself at these things?
ADONAI, will You stay silent, and afflict us very severely?

Outstretched Hands

65 "I was sought by those who did not ask for Me,
I was found by those who did not seek Me.
I said, 'Hineni, hineni!'
to a nation not called by My Name. † 2 I have stretched out My hands all day to a rebellious people, †† who walk in a way that is not good, following their own thoughts.

3 These people provoke Me continually to My face, sacrificing in gardens,
burning incense on bricks, 4 sitting among graves, spending the night in cave-tombs;
eating swine's flesh,
and the broth of detestable things is in their pots, 5 who say, 'Keep to yourself, don't come to me, for I am holier than you!'
These are smoke in My nostrils, a fire that burns all day.
6 Behold, it is written before Me;
I will not keep silence, but will repay,
even repay into their laps, 7 your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together,"
says ADONAI,
"because they burned incense on the mountains,
and scorned Me on the hills.
So I will measure into their laps full wages for their former deeds."
8 Thus says ADONAI:
"As new wine is found in a cluster,
and one says, 'Do not destroy it,
for a blessing is in it,'
so I will do for My servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.
9 I will bring forth offspring from Jacob, an heir of My mountains from Judah.
My chosen ones will inherit it,
and My servants will dwell there.
10 Sharon will be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down
in,
for My people who seek Me.
11 But you who forsake ADONAI, who forget My holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune,
who fill cups of mixed wine for Fate, 12 I will fate you to the sword, and all of you will kneel to slaughter.
For I called, but you did not answer,
I spoke, but you did not hear.
So you did what was evil in My sight,
and chose what I did not delight in."
13 Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim:
"Behold, My servants will eat,
while you will go hungry.
Behold, My servants will drink,
but you will be thirsty.
Behold, My servants will rejoice,
but you will be put to shame.
14 Behold, My servants will sing for joy

† cf. Rom. 10:20.

†† cf. Rom. 10:21.

with a happy heart,
 but you will cry from pain of heart,
 and wail out of a broken spirit.
 15 You will leave your name behind as a curse for My chosen ones, and ADONAI Elohim will slay you.
 But He will call His servants by another name.
 16 So he who says a bracha in the land will be blessed by the God of truth, and he who swears in the land will swear by the God of truth.
 For the former troubles are forgotten,
 because they are hidden from My sight!

New Heavens and New Earth

17 "For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth. †
 The former things will not be remembered or come to mind.
 18 But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating.
 For behold, I am creating Jerusalem for rejoicing, and her people for joy.
 19 Then I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and be glad in My people.
 No longer will the voice of weeping or the voice of crying be heard in her.
 20 No longer will there be in it an infant who lives but a few days, or an old man who does not fill out his days.
 For the youth will die at a hundred years,
 But one who misses the mark of a hundred must be accursed.
 21 They will build houses and inhabit them.
 They will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
 22 They will not build and another inhabit, nor plant and another eat.
 For like the days of a tree,
 so will be the days of My people, and My chosen ones will long enjoy the work of their hands.
 23 They will not labor in vain nor bear children for calamity.
 For they are the offspring of those blessed by ADONAI
 as well as descendants with them.
 24 "And it will come to pass that before they call,
 I will answer,
 and while they are still speaking,
 I will hear.
 25 The wolf and the lamb will feed together.
 The lion will eat straw like the ox,
 but dust will be the serpent's food.
 They will not hurt or destroy in all My holy mountain," says ADONAI.

Tremble at His Word

66 Thus says ADONAI :
 "Heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool. ††
 Where then is the House you would build for Me?
 Where is the place of My rest?
 2 For My hand has made all these things, so all these things came to be,"
 declares ADONAI .
 "But on this one will I look,
 one humble and of a contrite spirit, who trembles at My word."
 3 One who kills an ox is like one who kills a man;
 one who sacrifices a lamb is like one who breaks a dog's neck;
 one who offers a grain offering is like one who offers swine's blood;
 one who burns incense is like one who blesses an idol.
 They have chosen their own ways,
 so their soul delights in their abominations.
 4 So I will choose their punishments and bring on them what they dread.
 For when I called, no one answered;
 when I spoke, they did not listen.
 But they did what was evil in My eyes,
 and chose what I did not delight in.
 5 Hear the word of ADONAI , you who tremble at His word:
 "Your brothers who hated you,
 excluding you for My Name's sake, have said,
 'Let ADONAI be glorified, that we may see your joy'— but they will be put to shame."
 6 A sound of uproar from the city, a sound from the Temple—
 the sound of ADONAI who fully repays His enemies.

A Nation Born in a Day

7 Before she was in labor,
 she gave birth.
 Before her pain came,
 she delivered a male child.
 8 Who has heard such a thing?
 Who has seen such things?
 Can a land be born in one day?
 Can a nation be brought forth at once?
 For as soon as Zion was in labor,
 she gave birth to her children.
 9 "Will I bring the moment of birth, and not give delivery?" says ADONAI .
 "Will I who cause delivery shut up the womb?" says your God.

† cf. 2 Pet. 3:13; Rev. 21:1.

†† cf. Matt. 5:34-35; Acts 7:49-50.

¹⁰ Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her,
 all you who love her.
 Rejoice for joy with her all you who mourned over her.
¹¹ For you will nurse and be satisfied from her comforting breast.
 You will drink deeply and delight from her glorious abundance.
¹² For thus says ADONAI :
 "Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream.
 You will be nursed, carried on the hip,
 and bounced on her knees.
¹³ As one whom his mother comforts,
 so I will comfort you,
 so you will be comforted in Jerusalem.
¹⁴ You will see, your heart will rejoice, and your bones will flourish like grass.
 So the hand of ADONAI will be known to His servants, and His indignation to His enemies.
¹⁵ For behold, ADONAI will come in fire, and His chariots like the whirlwind,
 to render His anger with fury,
 and His rebuke with flames of fire.
¹⁶ For by fire and His sword ADONAI will execute judgment on all flesh and those slain by ADONAI will be many.
¹⁷ Those who consecrate and purify themselves to enter the groves, following after one in the midst, who eat swine's flesh, vermin, and mice, will come to an end altogether.

It is a declaration of ADONAI . ¹⁸ "For I know their works and their thoughts. It will come about that I will gather all nations and tongues, and they will come and see My glory. ¹⁹ Then I will set up a sign among them, and I will send survivors from them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul and Lud (who pull the bow), to Tubal and Javan, to distant islands that have not heard My fame or seen My glory. Then they will declare My glory among the nations.

²⁰ "Then they will bring all your kinsmen from all the nations, as an offering to ADONAI , on horses and in chariots, and on litters, mules and camels, to My holy mountain Jerusalem," says ADONAI , "just as Bnei-Yis-rael bring their grain offering in a clean vessel to the House of ADONAI . ²¹ I will also take some of them as priests and for Levites," says ADONAI .

²² "For just as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, will endure before Me"—it is a declaration of ADONAI —"so your descendants and your name will endure."

²³ "And it will come to pass, that from one New Moon to another,
 and from one Shabbat to another, all flesh will come to bow down before Me,"
 says ADONAI .

²⁴ "As they leave, they will look on the corpses of the people who rebelled against Me. For their worm will not die, and their fire will not be quenched, and they will be a horror to all flesh."

Jeremiah

Jeremiah Introduction

The Hebrew for Jeremiah is , which could mean: 1) " exalted" or " is exalted"; 2) " founded"; or 3) " cast, threw," but it is impossible to decide with certainty.

Jeremiah is the longest book in the entire Bible. It has a total of 21,673 words, as compared with 20,512 in Genesis, 19,479 in Psalms, and 19,123 in Ezekiel. It is named after the prophet who is responsible for the great bulk (or all) of the material of the book and who appears throughout it, both in first person and third person accounts. The name Jeremiah occurs 131 times in the book, compared to Isaiah, whose name is found just sixteen times in his book, or Hosea, mentioned by name just three times in his book, or Ezekiel, mentioned by name just twice in his book.

Jeremiah's active ministry spanned more than forty years, from 627 BCE to 586 BCE and beyond. He prophesied at a critical time in the history of the Southern Kingdom of Judah, preaching repentance, warning his people of coming judgment from "the north" (referring to the Babylonian incursion from the north), and exposing their idolatry and corruption. Tragically, he was always opposed by the religious establishment (the priests and prophets), the political establishment (all the kings, after Josiah, and the princes), and most of the common people, even in his hometown (Jer. 1:18, 11:18-23). Sadly, his warnings went unheeded. As a result, he witnessed God's judgment in the form of the sacking of the holy city Jerusalem, the destruction of the Temple, and the exile into Babylon of multiplied thousands of people.

But Jeremiah was not simply the "weeping prophet" (see, e.g., Jer. 13:17) who saw Josiah's valiant attempts at reformation fall short (see 2 Chron. 34-35; Josiah died in 608 BCE; for a critique of the Josianic reformation, see Jer. 3:6-10) and his beloved nation fall down before his teary eyes. He was also the prophet of the hopeful new covenant, speaking of a future time in which God would write His on the hearts and minds of His people and remember their sins no more (Jer. 31:31-34). This was part of a larger Messianic vision, one in which Jerusalem would be rebuilt after seventy years in exile (Jer. 30:18-22), the people would serve God with one heart and soul (Jer. 24:5-7), and the Messianic King would rule and reign in their midst (e.g., Jer. 23:5-8). Each of these prophecies has a historic, partial fulfillment, beginning in the 530s BCE, when the first wave of exiles returned home and when Jerusalem was initially rebuilt, continuing into the first century of this era, when inaugurated the Messianic age and instituted the new covenant with his small circle of Jewish disciples. Each of these promises has a future, ultimate fulfillment, which awaits realization in the end of the age.

The Call of Jeremiah

1 The words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the kohanim who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. 2 The word of ADONAI came to him during the days of King Josiah of Judah, son of Amon, in the thirteenth year of his reign. 3 It continued during the days of King Jehoiakim of Judah, son of Josiah, until the end of the eleventh year of King Zedekiah of Judah, son of Josiah—until the exile from Jerusalem in the fifth month.

4 The word of ADONAI came to me, saying:

5 “Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you, and before you were born, I set you apart—I appointed you prophet to the nations.”

6 Then I said, “Alas, ADONAI Elohim! Look, I don’t know how to speak! For I’m still a boy!”

7 But ADONAI answered me, “Do not say ‘I’m only a boy!’ For to everyone I send you, you will go, and all I command you, you will speak.

8 Do not be afraid of them! For I am with you to deliver you.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

9 Then ADONAI stretched out His hand and touched my mouth and ADONAI said to me, “Behold, I have put My words in your mouth.

10 See, today I have appointed you over nations and over kingdoms:

to uproot and to tear down,
 to destroy and to overthrow,
 to build and to plant.”

11 Moreover, the word of ADONAI came to me, saying, “What do you see, Jeremiah?”

I answered, “I see an almond branch.”

12 Then ADONAI said to me, “You have seen correctly, for I am watching over [†] My word to perform it.”

13 The word of ADONAI came to me a second time, saying, “What do you see?”

I replied, “I see a boiling pot that is tilting away from the north.”

14 Then ADONAI said to me:

“From the north, disaster will be poured out on all the inhabitants of the land.

15 Behold! I am calling all the families of the kingdoms of the north.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

“So they will come and each will set up his throne at the entry of the gates of Jerusalem, against all her surrounding walls and against all the cities of Judah.

16 I will pronounce My judgments on them for all their wickedness—

they have forsaken Me, offering incense to other gods,
 worshiping the works of their hands.

17 Now, you, gird up your loins!

Get up and tell them everything that I order you!

Do not be terrified by them,
 or else I will terrify you before them.

18 Look, today I have set you up as a fortified city—an iron pillar and bronze walls—against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, its princes against its kohanim, and against the people of the land.

19 Though they will fight against you, they will not win, for I am with you, to deliver you.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Judah Rebuked for Her Sins

2 Again the word of ADONAI came to me, saying:

2 “Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, thus says ADONAI:

“I remember the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, and the way you followed Me in the wilderness, in a land not sown.

3 Israel was kadosh to ADONAI, the firstfruits of the harvest. ^{††} All who devoured him were held guilty. Catastrophe overtook them.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

4 Hear the word of ADONAI, O house of Jacob and all the families of the house of Israel. 5 Thus says ADONAI:

[†] The Hebrew words for almond watching over

^{††} cf. Jacob 1:18.

“What fault did your fathers find in Me that they strayed so far from Me?
They walked after worthless things, becoming worthless themselves? † 6 They did not ask ‘Where is ADONAI, who brought us up from the land of Egypt and led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and rifts,
through a land of drought and distress, through a land where no one travels, where no one lives?’
7 Yet I brought you into a fertile land, to eat of its fruit and goodness.
When you came, you defiled My land.
You made My heritage an abomination.
8 The kohanim did not ask,
‘Where is ADONAI?’
The Torah experts did not know Me.
The shepherds rebelled against Me.
The prophets prophesied by Baal
and went after unprofitable things.
9 Therefore, I will plead with you again!”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.
“I will contend with your children’s children.
10 Cross to the coasts of Kittim †† and see!
Send to Kedar, and observe carefully.
See if there has been anything like this.
11 Has a nation changed its gods—
even though they are not gods?
Yet My people have exchanged their glory for worthless things.
12 Be appalled at this, O heavens!
Be utterly horrified and dumbfounded.”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.
13 “My people have committed two evils:
They have forsaken Me
—the spring of living water—and they dug their own cisterns—cracked cisterns that hold no water.
14 Is Israel a servant—a slave by birth?
Then why has he become plunder?
15 Young lions have roared at him they have roared loudly.
They made his land a waste—his cities are in ruins and uninhabited.
16 Even the sons of Noph and Tahpanhes have grazed on the crown of your head.
17 Have you not brought this on yourself,
when He led you in the way?
18 But now, what is on the road to Egypt?
Drinking the waters of the Nile?
Or what is on the road to Assyria?
Drinking the waters of the Euphrates?
19 Your own wickedness will rebuke you and your backslidings will chide you.
Know then and see how bad and bitter it is for you

† cf. Rom. 1:21. †† Cyprus nearby coasts to forsake ADONAI your God.

Nor is fear of Me in you.”
It is a declaration of the Lord ADONAI - Tzva’ot.
20 “Indeed, long ago I broke your yoke and tore off your bonds.
You said, ‘I will not serve!’
Instead, on every high hill
and under every green tree
you sprawled out as a prostitute.
21 Yet I had planted you as a choice vine from completely faithful seed.
How then did you become to Me a wandering wild vine?
22 Even though you wash with lye and use an abundance of soap,
the stain of your iniquity is before Me.”
It is a declaration of the Lord ADONAI.
23 “How can you say, ‘I am not defiled—
I have not gone after the Baalim ‡?’
Look at your behavior in the Valley!
Recognize what you have done.
You are a swift young camel galloping aimlessly, 24 a wild donkey used to the wilderness—sniffing the wind in her passion—in her heat, who can restrain her?
All males that pursue her will not tire themselves.
At mating time they will find her.
25 Do not run while your feet are bare and your throat is thirsty.
But you said ‘There is no hope!
No! For I have loved foreign gods and I will go after them.’
26 As a thief is shamed when caught, so the house of Israel is shamed—they, their kings, their princes, their kohanim, and their prophets.
27 They say to wood, ‘You are my father’ and to a stone, ‘You birthed me.’
They have turned their back to Me and not their face.
Yet when they are in trouble
they say, ‘Rise up and save us!’
28 Where are your gods that you made for yourself?
Let them come—if they can save you when you are in trouble!
For you have as many gods as you have cities, O Judah.
29 Why do you strive with Me?
You have all rebelled against Me.”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.
30 “In vain I struck your children.
They took no correction.
Your sword devoured your prophets like a ravaging lion.”
31 You, generation, heed ADONAI’s word!
“Have I been a wilderness to Israel

‡ Plural for Baal; gods

or a land of thick darkness?
 Why do My people say, 'We are free to roam.
 We won't come to You any more'?

³² Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire?
 Yet My people have forgotten Me, days without number.

³³ How clever are your ways of seeking love.
 Therefore, you even taught wicked women your ways.

³⁴ Moreover, on your skirts is found the blood of the innocent poor
 —you did not find them breaking in.
 Yet in spite of all these things,

³⁵ you say, 'I am innocent—surely His anger is turned away from me.'
 See, I will pass judgment on you, since you say: 'I haven't sinned!'

³⁶ Why do you make light of changing your way?
 You will be put to shame by Egypt
 as you were put to shame by Assyria.

³⁷ You will also go out from there with your hands on your head.
 For ADONAI has rejected those in whom you trust—you will not prosper by them."

Unfaithful Judah and Unfaithful Israel

3 "If a man divorces his wife and she leaves him to be with another man, will he return to her again?
 Would not such a land be totally polluted?
 You are a prostitute with many lovers.
 Now are you returning to Me?"

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

² "Lift your eyes to the barren hills and see!
 Where have you not been violated?
 By the wayside you sat waiting for them like a nomad in the desert.
 You have polluted the land with your prostitution and wickedness.

³ Therefore, showers have been withheld and there has been no spring rain.
 You have a harlot's brazen look;
 you refuse to be ashamed.

⁴ Did you not just now call to Me:
 ' Avi! You are a friend of my youth.

⁵ Would He keep a grudge forever?
 Would He keep it to the end?
 So you said—
 yet you have done all the evil things you could."

⁶ Then ADONAI said to me in the days of King Josiah:
 "Have you seen what backsliding Israel did? She went up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there she committed adultery. ⁷ Yet I thought that after she had done all this she would return to Me. But she did not return. Even her unfaithful sister

Judah saw it. ⁸ I noted that when backsliding Israel committed adultery I sent her away and gave her a certificate of divorce. Yet, unfaithful Judah, her sister, did not fear. Instead she also went and committed adultery. ⁹ It happened that through her frivolous prostitution, she polluted the land and committed adultery with stones and with wood. ¹⁰ Yet after all this her unfaithful sister Judah did not return to Me with her whole heart, but only insincerely."

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

¹¹ Then ADONAI said to me, "Backsliding Israel has proved herself more righteous than unfaithful Judah.

¹² Go! Proclaim these words toward the north, saying:
 "Return backsliding Israel," says ADONAI .

"I will no longer frown on you, for I am merciful," says ADONAI .

"I will not keep a grudge forever.

¹³ Only acknowledge your iniquity.

For you sinned against ADONAI your God and scattered your favors to foreign gods under every green tree.

You have not obeyed My voice."

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

Call to Backsliding Children

¹⁴ "Return, O backsliding children," declares ADONAI .

"For I am your Husband.

I will choose you—

one from a city and two from a clan—and will bring you to Zion.

¹⁵ I will give you shepherds after My own heart who will feed you knowledge and understanding.

¹⁶ It will be in those days when you multiply and become fruitful in the land."

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

"They will no longer talk about the ark of the covenant of ADONAI , nor will it come to mind or be remembered. Neither will it be missed or another one made again. ¹⁷ At that time they will call Jerusalem the throne of ADONAI and all the nations will gather into it, to Jerusalem, in the Name of ADONAI . No longer will they walk according to the stubbornness of their evil heart. ¹⁸ In those days the house of Judah will walk with the house of Israel. They will come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave your fathers as an inheritance."

¹⁹ "Then I Myself said:

'How gladly would I make you sons and give you a pleasant land—
 the most beautiful inheritance of the nations!
 I thought you would call Me— Avi!— and would not turn from following Me.

²⁰ Yet as a woman betrays her lover,
 so have you betrayed Me, O house of Israel."

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

²¹ A voice is heard on the barren hills
 —the weeping and supplication of the children of Israel—

because they perverted their way and forgot ADONAI their God.

²² "Return, backsliding children!

I will heal your backsliding."

"Yes, we will come to You for You are ADONAI Eloheinu .

²³ Surely help from the hills is a delusion—the commotion of the mountains!

Surely in ADONAI Eloheinu is the salvation of Israel.

²⁴ But the shame has consumed the labor of our fathers since our youth—their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

²⁵ Let's lie down with our shame and let our disgrace cover us!
For we have sinned against ADONAI Eloheinu
—both we and our fathers—from our youth even to this day.
We have not paid attention to the voice of ADONAI Eloheinu ."

4 "If you will return, O Israel, return to Me," declares ADONAI .

"If you will put your detestable things out of My sight.

Then you will not waver.

² You will swear, 'As ADONAI lives!'
in truth, in justice, and in righteousness.
The nations will bless themselves in Him and in Him they will glory."

³ Thus says ADONAI to the people of Judah and to Jerusalem

"Break up your unplowed ground and do not sow among thorns.

⁴ Circumcise yourselves to ADONAI and remove the foreskins of your heart, men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem.
Else My wrath will break out like fire and blaze,
with no one to quench it,
because of your evil deeds!

Imminent Invasion from the North

⁵ "Declare in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem, saying:

'Blow the shofar in the land!

Cry aloud and say,

'Assemble yourselves!

Let us go into the fortified cities.'

⁶ "Raise a banner toward Zion!

Take refuge! Do not delay!

For I bring calamity from the north,
even terrible destruction.

⁷ A lion has come up from his thicket—
a destroyer of nations has set out.

He has left his place to make your land a wasteland.

Your cities will lie in ruins, without inhabitant.

⁸ Therefore, put on sackcloth—lament and wail!

For the fierce anger of ADONAI has not turned away from us."

⁹ "It will happen in that day"

—it is a declaration of ADONAI —

"that the king's heart will fail, as will the heart of the princes.

The kohanim will be appalled, and the prophets will be stunned."

¹⁰ Then I said, "Alas, ADONAI Elohim ! How completely
You have deceived this people and Jerusalem saying,
'You will have shalom ,' until the sword touches the soul!"

¹¹ At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A scorching wind from the barren hills in the wilderness blows toward My people, but not to winnow or to sift— ¹² a wind too strong for these things will come from Me. Now even I will pronounce judgments against them."

¹³ See, he comes up like clouds, and his chariots like whirlwinds.
His horses are swifter than eagles—
" Oy! We are ruined!"

¹⁴ O Jerusalem, purify your heart from wickedness, so that you may be saved.

How long will your wicked thoughts lodge within
you?

¹⁵ A voice announces from Dan and proclaims calamity from the hills of Ephraim,

¹⁶ "Remind the nations, proclaim over Jerusalem!
Besiegers are soon coming from a far country, raising their voice against the cities of Judah.

¹⁷ Like keepers of a field they surround her, because she has been rebellious against Me."

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

¹⁸ Your conduct and your deeds have brought these things on you.

This is your calamity!

How bitter it is!

How it smites your heart!

¹⁹ My stomach, my stomach!

I writhe in anguish!

The pain of my heart!

My heart is pounding within me!

I cannot keep silent

because I have heard, O my soul, the sound of the shofar ,

the battle cry of war.

²⁰ Disaster on disaster is reported.

So the whole land is ruined.

My tents are suddenly ravaged,
my curtains in an instant.

²¹ How long must I see the battle standard and hear the sound of the shofar ?

²² "For My people are foolish.

They do not know Me.

They are senseless children,
and they have no understanding.
They are wise to do evil,
but to do good they do not know.”
23 I looked at the earth and behold, it was deserted and desolate, and at the heavens
and they had no light.
24 I looked at the mountains—behold, they were shaking and all the hills swaying to and fro.
25 I looked and behold, no people!
All the birds of the sky had fled.
26 I looked and behold, the fruitful field was a wilderness
and all of its cities were in ruins before ADONAI, before His fierce anger.
27 For thus says ADONAI,
“The whole land will be wasteland,
yet I will not totally destroy it.
28 Therefore, the earth will mourn and the heavens above grow black.
For I have spoken, I have purposed, nor will I relent, nor turn from it.
29 At the sound of horsemen and archers
the whole city flees.
They go into the thickets and climb up on the rocks.
The whole city is deserted—
no one dwells in it.
30 And you, O desolate one, what will you do?
Though you dress in scarlet, though you adorn yourself with gold ornaments though you enlarge your eyes with paint—in vain
you make yourself beautiful—your lovers despise you,
they seek your life.
31 For I heard a cry like one in labor, the anguish of one giving birth to her first child—
the cry of the Daughter of Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands saying, “Oy, now to me!
For my soul faints before murderers.”

God's Just Judgment

5 “Roam the streets of Jerusalem, look around and consider,
search through her squares!
If you can find a person,
if there is one who does justice,
who seeks truth,
then I will pardon the city.
2 Though they say, ‘As ADONAI lives!’
surely they swear falsely.”
3 ADONAI, do Your eyes not look for faithfulness?
You struck them, but they did not grieve.

You disciplined them, but they refused correction.
They made their faces harder than stone.
They refused to return.
4 Then I said:
These are only the poor.
They are foolish.
For they do not know the way of ADONAI,
the ordinance of their God.
5 I will go to the distinguished and speak to them.
Surely they know the way of ADONAI,
the ordinance of their God.
But they too had broken the yoke and torn off the bonds.
6 Therefore, a lion from the forest will kill them.
A desert wolf will ravage them.
A leopard watches over their cities.
Everyone who ventures out will be torn to pieces,
For their rebellion is great,
their backslidings frequent.
7 “Why therefore should I forgive you?
Your children have forsaken Me and sworn by those who are not gods.
Even though I fed them well, they committed adultery and thronged to the prostitute houses.
8 They are well-fed, lustful stallions, each neighing for his neighbor's wife.
9 For such, should I not punish them?”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.
“On such a nation as this should I not avenge Myself?
10 Go up into her vines and ravage them, but do not completely destroy them.
Strip away her branches for they are not ADONAI's.
11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly unfaithful to Me.”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.
12 They have lied about ADONAI saying:
“Not He! No harm will come to us.
Nor will we see sword or famine.
13 The prophets are but wind and the word is not in them.
Let what they say be done to them!”
14 Therefore, thus says ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot:
“Because you speak this word, behold,
I will make My words in your mouth fire and this people wood—and it will devour them.
15 See, I am bringing a nation against you from afar, O house of Israel.”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.
“It is an enduring nation,
an ancient nation,
a nation whose language you neither know nor understand what they say.
16 Their quiver is an open grave.

They are all mighty warriors.

¹⁷ They will devour your harvest and your food.
They will devour your sons and your daughters.
They will devour your flocks and your herds.
They will devour your vines and your fig trees.
They will demolish your fortified cities
—the ones in which you trust—with the sword.

¹⁸ “Yet even in those days,” declares ADONAI, “I will not completely destroy you. ¹⁹ So it will come to pass that when you ask, ‘Why has ADONAI Eloheinu done all these things to us?’ you will tell them, ‘As you have forsaken Me and served foreign gods in your land, so will you serve strangers in a land that is not yours.’

²⁰ “Declare this in the house of Jacob and proclaim it in Judah, saying:

²¹ ‘Hear this you foolish people who have no understanding, who have eyes but do not see,
who have ears but do not hear.

²² Do you not fear Me?’ says ADONAI.
‘Do you not tremble in My presence?’
For I made the sand a boundary of the sea,
an everlasting decree that cannot be broken.
Though the waves roll, they cannot prevail.
Though they roar, they cannot cross it.

²³ But this people have a stubborn and rebellious heart.

They have turned aside and gone away.

²⁴ They do not say in their heart, ‘Let us now fear ADONAI Eloheinu, who gives rain in its season
—fall rain and spring rain—who reserves for us the appointed weeks of harvest.’

²⁵ Your iniquities have turned these away, your sins have deprived you of bounty.

²⁶ For among My people are wicked men, watching like bait-layers lying in wait.
They set a trap—they catch men.

²⁷ As a cage is full of birds,
so are their houses full of deceit.
That is why they grew great and rich.

²⁸ They grew fat and sleek.
They also overlooked evil deeds.
They do not uphold a cause
—the cause of an orphan to prosper—nor do they defend the right of the poor.

²⁹ Should I not punish them?” says ADONAI.
“On such a nation
should I not avenge Myself?

³⁰ An appalling and horrible thing has happened in the land.

³¹ The prophets prophesy falsely,
the kohanim rule by their own authority,
and My people love it this way!
But what will you do in the end?”

Jerusalem under Siege

6 Flee for refuge, children of Benjamin, from the midst of Jerusalem!

Blow the shofar in Tekoa and raise a signal in Beth-Cherem!
For disaster looms from the north,
even terrible destruction.

² “The lovely, delicate Daughter of Zion
I will cut off.”

³ Shepherds with their flocks are coming against her.
All around her they pitch their tents,
each pasturing in his own place.

⁴ “Prepare for war against her.
Rise up! Let’s attack at noon.”
“Oy for us! For day is fading—evening shadows are lengthening.”

⁵ “Rise up! Let’s attack at night

⁶ For thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot:
“Chop down her trees!
Raise a siege ramp at Jerusalem.
This city must be punished—
in her midst is only oppression.

⁷ As a well gushes out its waters,
so she pours out her wickedness.
Violence and havoc are heard in her, sickness and wounds ever before Me.

⁸ Be warned, O Jerusalem, lest I abandon you,
lest I make you desolate—an uninhabited land.”

⁹ Thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot: “Glean the remnant of Israel thoroughly as a vine.
Pass your hand over the branches once more,
like a grape-gatherer.”

¹⁰ “To whom can I speak and warn so they would hear?
See, their ears are uncircumcised, unable to hear!

The word of ADONAI has become scorn to them.
They have no delight in it.

¹¹ So I am full of the wrath of ADONAI.
I am weary of holding it in!
Pour it out on a child in the street,
on young men gathered together.
For husband will be taken with wife,
the aged with the very old.

¹² Their homes will be turned over to others —together with their fields and their wives.
For I will stretch out My hand on the inhabitants of the land.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹³ “For from the least to the greatest,
all of them are greedy for gain,
and from prophet even to kohen, everyone practices deceit.

¹⁴ They healed the wound of My people superficially, saying ' Shalom , shalom !' when there is no shalom ."

¹⁵ "Were they ashamed when they committed abomination? No, they were not at all ashamed; they did not know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall; at the time that I punish them, they shall be overthrown," says ADONAI .

¹⁶ Thus says ADONAI :
"Stand in the roads and look. Ask for the ancient paths—where the good way is—and walk in it. Then you will find rest for your souls. † But they said, 'We won't walk in it.'

¹⁷ So I set watchmen over you, saying 'Listen to the sound of the shofar !' But they said, 'We won't listen.'

¹⁸ Therefore hear, O nations and observe, O congregation, what is against them.

¹⁹ Hear, O earth!
See, I will bring disaster on this people—fruit of their schemes—for they did not listen to My words and rejected My Torah .

²⁰ Of what use to Me is frankincense coming from Sheba or sweet cane from a distant country? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor are your sacrifices pleasing to Me."

²¹ Therefore thus says ADONAI :

"Look, I am laying before this people stumbling blocks—and against them they will stumble—fathers and the sons together, a neighbor and his friend,
and they will perish."

Destruction from the North

²² Thus says ADONAI :

"Look, a people coming from a northern land, a great nation roused from the ends of the earth!

²³ They are armed with bow and spear, cruel and with no compassion. They sound like the roaring sea—as they ride on horses as men in battle formation, against you, Daughter of Zion!

²⁴ "We have heard of their fame. Our hands hang limp; anguish has gripped us, pain like a woman in labor.

²⁵ Don't go out into the field or walk on the road. Since the enemy has a sword, there's terror on every side!

²⁶ "Daughter of My people, put on sackcloth and roll in ashes. Mourn as for an only son with bitter lamentation. For suddenly the destroyer will come on us!

²⁷ "I have made you a metal-tester among My people—so you may observe and test their way.

²⁸ They are all stubborn rebels spreading slander. They are bronze and iron, all of them are corrupt.

²⁹ The bellows blow fiercely, blasting away the lead with fire. The refining is completely in vain, for the wicked are not drawn off.

³⁰ They are called 'cast off silver'—for ADONAI has cast them off."

Mend Your Ways!

⁷ The word that came to Jeremiah from ADONAI , saying: ² Stand in the gate of ADONAI 's house and proclaim there this word and say: "Hear the word of ADONAI , all you of Judah that come through these gates to worship ADONAI . ³ Thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot , the God of Israel; mend your ways and your deeds, and I will let you live in this place. ⁴ Do not trust in deceptive words and say 'The Temple of ADONAI , the Temple of ADONAI , the Temple of ADONAI !'

⁵ "No, if you truly mend your ways and your deeds—if you are doing justice between a man and his neighbor, ⁶ not oppressing the sojourner, orphan, and widow, nor shedding innocent blood in this place, nor going after other gods to your own ruin— ⁷ then I will let you dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers forever and ever. ⁸ Look, you are trusting in deceptive words that are empty. ⁹ Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery and perjury, and offer incense to Baal and walk after other gods whom you have not known— ¹⁰ and then come and stand before Me in this house that bears My Name, saying, 'We are saved!'—so that you may keep doing all these abominations? ¹¹ Has this House, which bears My Name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? †† Look, even I have seen it!" It is a declaration of ADONAI .

¹² "Indeed, go now to My place that was in Shiloh, where I first made My Name dwell. Now see what I did to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel.

¹³ While you were doing all these things," declares ADONAI , "I spoke to you early and often, but you did not listen, and I called you but you did not answer.

¹⁴ Therefore, I will do to the House that bears My Name—the one in which you trust, the one that I gave to you and to your fathers—as I have done to Shiloh.

† cf. Matt. 11:29.

¹⁵ And I will cast you out of My sight, just as I cast out all your brothers, all the offspring of Ephraim.

¹⁶ “As for you, do not pray for this people. Do not offer any supplication or petition for them, nor entreat Me, because I will not hear you. ¹⁷ Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁸ The children gather wood, the fathers light the fire, and the women knead the dough to make sacrificial cakes to the queen of heaven. Moreover, they pour out drink offerings to other gods in order to provoke Me to anger. ¹⁹ But am I the One they are provoking?” declares ADONAI. “Are they not vexing themselves to their own shame?”

²⁰ Therefore, thus says ADONAI Elohim: “My anger and My wrath is about to be poured out on this place—on man and beast, and on the trees of the field and the fruit of the land—and it will burn and not be quenched.”

²¹ Thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: “Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices and eat the meat! ²² For on the day that I brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt I did not speak to them nor did I command them concerning burnt offerings and sacrifices, ²³ but I explicitly commanded them: ‘Obey My voice and I will be your God to you and you will be My people. Walk in all the ways that I command you, that it may go well with you.’ ²⁴ But they did not listen or pay attention. Instead, they followed their own counsel, in the stubbornness of their evil heart. They have gone backward and not forward, ²⁵ from the day your fathers left the land of Egypt until today. Although I sent to you all My servants the prophets, daily and persistently, ²⁶ they did not listen to Me or pay attention. Rather, they stiffened their neck, doing more evil than their fathers.

²⁷ “When you tell them all these things, they will not listen to you. When you call to them, they will not answer you. ²⁸ So you will say to them, ‘This nation has not obeyed the voice of ADONAI their God or received correction. Truth has perished and is cut off from their mouth. ²⁹ Cut off your hair and throw it away and take up a lamentation on the barren hills. For ADONAI has spurned and cast off the generation of His wrath.”

Valley of Slaughter

³⁰ “The children of Judah have done what is evil in My sight”—it is a declaration of ADONAI —“They have set their detestable things in the House that bears My Name to defile it. ³¹ They have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire—which I did not command, nor did it even enter My mind. ³² Therefore, the days are soon coming,” declares ADONAI, “when it will no longer be called Topheth, nor the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. For they will bury in Topheth until there is no room. ³³ The carcasses of this people will be food for the birds of the sky and for the beasts of the earth, and no one will frighten them away. ³⁴ Then I will bring an end, from the cities of Judah and from the streets of Jerusalem, to the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. For the land will be desolate.”

8 “At that time”—it is a declaration of ADONAI —“the bones of the kings of Judah and the bones of his princes, the bones of the kohanim and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will be brought out of their graves. ² They will spread them out to the sun, the moon, and all the host of heaven, which they have loved and served, and after which they have walked and sought, and which they have worshiped. They will not be gathered or buried, but will be like dung on the face of the ground. ³ So death will be chosen rather than life by all the remnant that remains of this evil family that remains in all the places to which I have driven them.” It is a declaration of ADONAI -Tzva'ot.

Each Turns His Own Way

⁴ Moreover, you will say to them, thus says ADONAI: “Do men fall and not get up again? Does one turn away and not return?”

⁵ Why then has this people—Jerusalem—turned away in perpetual backsliding? They cling to deceit; they refuse to return.

⁶ I listened attentively, but they have not spoken what is right. No one repents of his wickedness, saying, ‘What have I done?’ Each one turns in his own direction, like a horse charging into battle.

⁷ Even the stork in the sky knows her appointed times, and the turtledove, swallow, and crane observe the time of their migration, but My people do not know the judgments of ADONAI.

⁸ How can you say, ‘We are wise! The Torah of ADONAI is with us?’ In fact, it is the lying pen of the scribes that have made it a lie.

⁹ The wise men will be put to shame—shattered, trapped.

Look! They have rejected ADONAI’s word, so what wisdom do they have?

¹⁰ Therefore, I will give their wives to others and their fields to new owners. For from the least to the greatest everyone is greedy for gain.

From the prophet even to the kohen everyone practices deceit.

¹¹ They heal the fracture of the daughter of My people by treating it superficially—saying, ‘Shalom, shalom,’ when there is no shalom.

¹² Were they ashamed of the abomination they committed?

No, not ashamed, not at all—they do not know how to blush!
So they will fall among the fallen.
At the time of their punishment they will be brought down.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

¹³ “I will utterly consume them,” says ADONAI .
“There will be no grapes on the vine,
and no figs on the fig tree,
and even the leaf will wither,
and what I gave them will pass away.”

¹⁴ “Why are we sitting here?

Assemble!

Let us flee to the fortified cities and perish there!
For ADONAI Eloheinu has silenced us and given us poisoned water to drink.
For we have sinned against ADONAI .

¹⁵ We hoped for shalom , but it is no good,
for a time of healing
—and suddenly, terror!”

¹⁶ From Dan is heard the snorting of his horses.
At the sound of his stallions neighing,
the whole land quakes.
For they come and devour
the land and everything in it—the city and all who live there.

¹⁷ “For I am about to send serpents on you, vipers for which there is no charm,
and they will bite you.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

Weeping for Jerusalem

¹⁸ My joy is overcome by grief, my heart is faint within me.

¹⁹ Listen, the sound of the cry of the daughter of my people

—a voice from a distant land—“Is ADONAI no longer in Zion?
Is her King no longer in her?”

“Why have they provoked Me with their graven images, with foreign idols?”

²⁰ “Harvest is past, summer is over,
yet we are not saved.”

²¹ “Because of the brokenness of the daughter of my people,

I am brokenhearted.
I mourn—desolation grips me.

²² Is there no balm in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Then why has no healing gone up for the daughter of my people?

²³ (9:1) If only my head were water and my eyes a fountain of tears, then I would weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

9 (2) If only I had a traveler’s lodging place in the wilderness, then I might leave my people and get away from them!
For they are all adulterers,
a bunch of traitors.

² (3) They bend their tongue like a bow.
Lies, not faithfulness, prevail in the land.

“For they go from evil to evil and do not know Me,” says ADONAI .

³ (4) Beware, everyone, of your neighbor!
Don’t even trust a brother.
For every brother grabs like Jacob and every neighbor spreads slander.

⁴ (5) Everyone deceives his neighbor and does not speak the truth.
They taught their tongue to speak lies.
They wear themselves out doing wrong.

⁵ (6) “You dwell in the midst of deceit.
In deceit they refuse to know Me.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

⁶ (7) Therefore, thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot :
“I am about to refine them and test them.
For what else can I do
for the daughter of My people?”

⁷ (8) Their tongue is a deadly arrow, speaking deceit.

With his mouth
each says shalom to his neighbor, while inwardly setting a trap for him.

⁸ (9) For such things shall I not punish them?”
It is a declaration of ADONAI .

“Should I not avenge Myself
on such a nation as this?”

⁹ (10) For the mountains I lift up weeping and wailing, a lament for the desert pastures.

For they are so scorched that no one passes through—the lowing of cattle is not heard.
The birds of the air have fled and the animals are gone.

¹⁰ (11) “I will make Jerusalem a heap of ruins, a lair for jackals.

I will make the cities of Judah
a wasteland without inhabitant.

¹¹ (12) Who is the one wise enough to understand this?

To whom has the mouth of ADONAI spoken that he may explain it?

Why is the land ruined, laid waste like a wilderness, so that no one passes through?”

¹² (13) ADONAI said "It is because they have forsaken My Torah that I set before them. They have neither obeyed My voice nor walked according to it, ¹³ (14) but have walked after the stubbornness of their heart, and after the Baalim that their fathers taught them. ¹⁴ (15) Therefore, thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot, the God of Israel, "Look, I will make this people eat wormwood and drink poisoned water. ¹⁵ (16) I will scatter them among the nations whom neither they nor their fathers have known. I will pursue them with the sword, until I have finished with them."

¹⁶ (17) Thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot:
"Pay attention! Call the dirge singers and let them come.

Send for the most skillful wailers and let them come!"

¹⁷ (18) "Let them come quickly and lift up a wailing over us so our eyes may run down with tears and our eyelids gush with water."

¹⁸ (19) For a wailing voice is heard from Zion:
"How we are ruined!
We are utterly ashamed—
we have forsaken the land, for they tore down our dwellings."

¹⁹ (20) Now, hear the word of ADONAI, O women, let your ear receive the word of His mouth.
Teach your daughters wailing and everyone her neighbor a dirge.

²⁰ (21) For death has climbed through our windows.
It has entered into our palaces to cut off children from the street and young men from the squares."

²¹ (22) "Say this," declares ADONAI.
"The carcasses of men will lie like dung on the open field, like cut grain behind the reaper, with no one gathering them."

Boast in Knowing ADONAI

²² (23) Thus says ADONAI:
"Let not the wise boast in his wisdom nor the mighty boast in his might nor the rich glory in his riches.

²³ (24) But let one who boasts boast in this:
that he understands and knows Me.
For I am ADONAI who exercises lovingkindness, justice, and righteousness on earth.
For in these things I delight."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁴ (25) "Days are soon coming," declares ADONAI,
"when I will punish all who are circumcised and yet uncircumcised— ²⁵ (26) Egypt, Judah, Edom and Ammon's children and Moab, and all that have cut the corners of their hair—that dwell in the wilderness. For all the nations are uncircumcised but all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

Idols are Worthless Scarecrows

10 Hear the word that ADONAI speaks to you, house of Israel, ² Thus says ADONAI:
"Do not learn the way of the nations or be frightened by signs of the heavens—though the nations are terrified by them.
³ The customs of the peoples are useless:
it is just a tree cut from the forest,
the work of the hands of a craftsman with a chisel.
⁴ They decorate it with silver and gold, and fasten it with hammer and nails
so it won't totter.
⁵ Like a scarecrow in a cucumber garden, their idols cannot speak.
They must be carried because they cannot walk! †
Do not fear them for they can do no harm
—nor do any good."
⁶ There is none like You, ADONAI!
You are great and great is Your Name in power.
⁷ Who should not fear You,
Ruler of the nations?
For it is your due!
For among all the wise of the nations and in all their kingdoms, there is none like You.
⁸ They are totally stupid and foolish.
Discipline is useless—it's wood!
⁹ Beaten silver is brought from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz.
The work of the craftsman and of the goldsmith's hands is clothed in blue and purple—all the work of skillful men.
¹⁰ But ADONAI Elohim is truth.
He is the living God and eternal King.
At His wrath the earth quakes and the nations cannot endure His indignation.
¹¹ Thus you will say to them: "The gods—which did not make the heavens and the earth—will perish from the earth and from under the heavens.
¹² "He made the earth by His power, established the world by His wisdom,
and stretched out heaven by His understanding.
¹³ When His voice thunders, waters in heaven roar.
He makes clouds rise from the ends of the earth.
He makes lightning for the rain
and brings forth wind from His storehouses.
¹⁴ Everyone is stupid, ignorant.
Every goldsmith is put to shame by his idol!
His molten image is a fraud.
There is no breath in them.
¹⁵ They are futile, a work of mockery.
In the time of their punishment they will perish.

† cf. 1 Cor. 12:2.

¹⁶ Jacob's portion is not like these.
For He is the Maker of all things and Israel, the tribe of His inheritance
— ADONAI -Tzva'ot is His Name."

Coming Pain of Exile

¹⁷ Pick up your bundle from the ground, you who live under siege.
¹⁸ For thus says ADONAI :
"I am about to hurl
the inhabitants out of the land.
At this time I will press hard on them so that they will be found out."
¹⁹ Oy to me because of my brokenness!
My wound is incurable.
Yet I said, "This is simply a sickness and I must bear it."
²⁰ "My tent is destroyed and all my ropes are snapped.
My children are gone from me and are no more.
No one is left to stretch out my tent or set up my tent curtains.
²¹ For the shepherds are stupid!
They have not sought ADONAI .
Therefore, they have not acted wisely and all their flocks are scattered." ²² Listen! The sound of a report is coming—a great commotion out of the land of the north—to make the cities of Judah desolate, a haunt of jackals.
²³ I know, ADONAI , that a man's way is not his own,
nor does man, as he walks, direct his steps.
²⁴ Chasten me, ADONAI , but with justice, not in Your anger,
lest You reduce me to nothing.
²⁵ Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge You and on the families that do not call on Your Name.
For they have devoured Jacob,
devoured and consumed him,
and destroyed his homeland.

Curse of the Covenant

11 The word that came to Jeremiah from ADONAI , saying: ² Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the people of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³ Now say to them, Thus says ADONAI , the God of Israel: "Cursed is the one who does not obey the words of this covenant, ⁴ which I commanded your forefathers in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt—out of the iron furnace—saying: 'Listen to My voice, and do all that I command you. Then you will be My people, and I will be your God. ¹⁵ Then I will fulfill the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is today."

In response I said, "Amen, ADONAI ."

⁶ Then ADONAI said to me: "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying: 'Hear the words of this covenant, and do them.'

⁷ For I earnestly forewarned your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt until this day, forewarning early and often, saying 'Listen to My voice!' ⁸ Yet they would not obey or incline their ear, but each one walked in the stubbornness of his evil heart. Therefore, I brought on them all the words of this covenant—which I commanded them to do, but they did not."

⁹ Then ADONAI said to me, "A conspiracy has been discovered among the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ They have turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers who refused to hear My words.
They have gone after other gods to serve them.

"The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken My covenant which I made with their fathers."

¹¹ Therefore, thus says ADONAI . "I will soon bring a disaster on them that they will not be able to escape.
They will cry out to Me, yet I will not listen to them.

¹² Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they burn incense—but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. ¹³ For as numerous as your cities are your gods, O Judah, and as numerous as the streets of Jerusalem are the altars you have set up to the shameful thing—altars to burn incense to Baal.

¹⁴ As for you, you are not to pray for this people or lift up supplication or prayer for them, for I will not hear them at the time they cry out to Me because of their disaster. ††

Olive Tree with Broken Branches

¹⁵ "What is My beloved doing in My House as she does evil schemes with many?
Can holy meat prevent your disaster?
So you may rejoice?"

¹⁶ ADONAI called your name—a leafy olive tree, † beautiful with well-formed fruit.
With the noise of a great tumult
He has set it on fire, and its branches are broken.

¹⁷ "For ADONAI - Tzva'ot , who planted you, has pronounced evil against you because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done to themselves, provoking Me by offering sacrifices to Baal." ¹⁸ Moreover, ADONAI gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it, then You showed me their deeds.

¹⁹ But I was like a gentle lamb led to slaughter. I did not know they had devised plots against me: "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit. Let us cut him off from † cf. Jer. 7:23; Heb. 8:10.

†† cf. Jer. 7:16; 1 John 5:16. ‡ cf. Rom. 11:17.

the land of the living, so that his name will be no more remembered."

²⁰ But ADONAI - Tzva'ot, who judges righteously, who tests the mind and the heart, let me see your vengeance on them. For to You I have made my cause known.

²¹ Therefore, thus says ADONAI concerning the men of Anathoth who seek your life, saying, "You must not prophesy in the Name of ADONAI, so you would not die by our hand." ²² Therefore, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot: "I am about to punish them! The young men will die by the sword; their sons and their daughters will die by famine. ²³ No remnant will be left to them, for I will bring calamity on the men of Anathoth—the year of their visitation.

Why do the Wicked Prosper?

- 12 Righteous are You, ADONAI,
when I plead my case with You.
Yet I speak with You about justice.
Why does the way of the wicked prosper?
Why do all the treacherous thrive?
² You planted them, so they have taken root.
They are growing, bearing fruit.
You are near in their mouth,
yet far from their mind.
³ But You have known me, ADONAI.
You see me, and examine my heart toward You.
Drag them off like sheep for slaughter.
Set them apart for the day of carnage. †
⁴ How long will the land mourn and the grass of all the field wither?
Because those living in it are evil,
beasts and birds are swept away.
For they said, "He cannot see our end."
⁵ "If you raced with those on foot and they wore you out,
how can you compete with horses?
If you are secure in a land of peace,
how will you do in Jordan's thickets?
⁶ For even your brothers—your father's house—
even they will betray you, even they will shout out after you.
Have no confidence in them,
even if they say nice words to you.
⁷ "I have abandoned My House.
I have forsaken My inheritance.
I have given the beloved of My soul
Into the hand of her enemies.
⁸ My inheritance became to Me like a lion in the forest—her voice roared against Me!
Therefore I despised her.
⁹ Is My inheritance a speckled vulture?
Are vultures circling all around her?
Go, gather all the wild beasts,
bring them for devouring!

ADONAI's Vineyard in Ruins

¹⁰ "Many shepherds ruined My vineyard.
They trampled My property.
They made My pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

¹¹ They made it a wasteland.
It mourns before Me, desolate.
The whole land will be laid waste, because no one takes it to heart."
¹² On all the bare hills in the wilderness destroyers have come.
For the sword of ADONAI is devouring from the one end of the land to the other end of the land.

No flesh has shalom.

¹³ They sowed wheat but reaped thorns.
They wore themselves out, gaining nothing.
So be ashamed of your harvest, because of ADONAI's fierce anger.

¹⁴ Thus says ADONAI, "As for all My evil neighbors who strike at the inheritance that I bequeathed to My people Israel—I am about to uproot them from their land and pluck the house of Judah from them. ¹⁵ Yet it will come to pass, after I have uprooted them, that I will again have compassion on them and I will bring them back, each one to his inheritance and each one to his land.

¹⁶ "So it will come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of My people—to swear by My Name, 'As ADONAI lives,' just as they taught My people to swear by Baal—then they will be built up in the midst of My people. ¹⁷ But if they will not obey, then I will uproot that nation, plucking it up and destroying it." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Linen Waistband and Wine Jugs

13 Thus ADONAI said to me: "Go, and buy yourself a linen waistband and put it around your waist, and do not put it in water."

² So I got a waistband in keeping with the word of ADONAI, and put it on my waist. ³ Then the word of ADONAI came to me a second time, saying: ⁴ "Take the waistband that you bought, which is on your waist, and get up, go to Perath, †† and hide it there in a cleft of the rock."

⁵ So I went and hid it at Perath, as ADONAI commanded me. ⁶ Now it came to pass after many days that ADONAI said to me: "Get up, go to Perath, and take the waistband that I commanded you to hide there." ⁷ So I went to Perath, dug it up and took the waistband from the place where I had hidden it. But to my surprise, the waistband was marred, worth nothing at all.

⁸ Then the word of ADONAI came to me, saying, ⁹ thus says ADONAI: "Just so I will mar the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ This wicked people,

† cf. Jacob 5:5.

†† Possibly Euphrates River

who refuse to hear My words, who walk in the stubbornness of their own heart, and go after other gods to serve them and worship them, will be just like this waistband—worth nothing at all. ¹¹ For just as the waistband clings to a man's waist, so I will make the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah cling to Me," declares ADONAI, "to be to Me a people, a name, a praise, and a glory. But they would not obey.

¹² "Moreover, speak this word to them, thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: "Every jug should be filled with wine. When they say to you, 'Don't we know very well that every jug should be filled with wine?' ¹³ Then you will say to them, thus says ADONAI, 'I am about to fill all the inhabitants of this land—even the kings who sit on David's throne, the kohanim, the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem—with drunkenness.

¹⁴ And I will smash them against each other, even fathers and sons,' says ADONAI. 'I will show no pity, nor regret, nor compassion, to keep Me from destroying them.'"

Darkness and Downfall

¹⁵ Hear and give ear!

Do not be haughty!

For ADONAI has spoken.

¹⁶ Give glory to ADONAI your God, before it grows dark,

and before your feet stumble on mountains at dusk.

When you look for light,

He turns it into the shadow of death, and turns it into deep darkness.

¹⁷ But if you will not listen,

my soul will sob in secret

before such pride,

and my eyes will weep bitterly and overflow with tears,

for ADONAI's flock will be taken captive.

¹⁸ Say to the king and the queen mother:

"Sit down low,

for your glorious crown

has fallen from your head."

¹⁹ The towns of the South will be shut up, with no one to open them.

All Judah is taken into exile—utterly swept into exile.

²⁰ Lift up your eyes and see those coming from the north.

Where is the flock given to you,

Your beautiful sheep?

²¹ What will you say, when He sets up the allies

you cultivated for yourself, over you as head?

Will not labor pains seize you,

like a woman in travail?

²² Suppose you say in your heart,

"Why did these things happen to me?"

Because of your great iniquity, your skirts are uncovered and your heels suffer violence.

²³ Can the Ethiopian change his skin?

Or the leopard his spots?

So, could you do good,

that are accustomed to doing evil?

²⁴ "Therefore I will scatter them like drifting straw in the desert wind.

²⁵ This is your lot, the portion measured for you from Me."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

"For you have forgotten Me and trusted in falsehood.

²⁶ Therefore I will also uncover your skirts over your face, expose your shame.

²⁷ Your adulteries, your lustful neighings, the lewdness of your prostitution—

on the hills in the field

I have seen your loathsome acts.

O you, Jerusalem! You are unclean!

How much longer?"

Physical and Spiritual Drought

14 The word of ADONAI that came to Jeremiah concerning the droughts:

² Judah will mourn, and her gates languish.

They will bow in black to the ground

And Jerusalem's wail will go up.

³ Their nobles will send their lads for water.

They come to the cisterns,

but find no water.

Their jars return empty.

They are ashamed and humiliated;

they cover their heads.

⁴ Because the ground is cracked, since there has been no rain in the land,

the farmers are ashamed—

they cover their heads.

⁵ For even the doe in the field

abandons her newborn fawn, because there is no grass.

⁶ Wild donkeys stand on the barren hills,

as they pant for air like jackals.

Their eyes fail,

since there is no foliage.

⁷ Though our iniquities testify against us,

ADONAI, act for Your Name's sake.

For our backslidings are many.

We have sinned against You.

⁸ O hope of Israel,

Savior in time of trouble,

why are You like a stranger in the land,

or like a traveler who stays for a night?

⁹ Why are You like a man overcome, like a champion who cannot save?

Yet you, ADONAI, are in our midst,

and we are called by Your Name.

Do not forsake us!

¹⁰ Thus says ADONAI to this people:
 "How they loved to wander.
 They did not restrain their feet."
 So ADONAI does not accept them.
 Now will He remember their iniquity, and punish their sins.

¹¹ So ADONAI said to me: "Do not pray for the good of this people. ¹² If they fast, I will not hear their cry. If they offer burnt offering or grain offering, I will not accept them. Instead, I will consume them with sword, with famine, and with plague."

¹³ Then I said: "Oh my Lord, ADONAI! The prophets keep telling them: 'You will not see the sword nor famine, but I will give you true peace in this place.'"

¹⁴ Then ADONAI said to me: "The prophets prophesy lies in My Name! I did not send them, nor commanded them, nor did I speak to them. They are prophesying to you a lying vision, divination, futility, a delusion of their heart."

¹⁵ Therefore, thus says ADONAI: "About the prophets who prophesy in My Name, though I did not send them, yet keep saying, 'Sword and famine will never be in this land'—by sword and famine will those prophets be consumed. ¹⁶ Also the people to whom they prophesy will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem, because of the famine and the sword. They will have no one to bury them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters. For I will pour their disaster on them."

¹⁷ You will say this word to them:
 "Let my eyes overflow with tears.
 Night and day, may they never stop.
 For the virgin daughter of my people is crushed with a great blow, with a sorely infected wound."

Intercessory Confession

¹⁸ If I go out into the field, see, those slain by the sword!
 And if I enter into the city,
 see, the sick with famine!
 For both prophet and kohen will travel to a land they do not know.

¹⁹ Have You utterly rejected Judah?
 Has Your soul loathed Zion?
 Why have You smitten us,
 and there is no healing for us?
 We looked for shalom, but nothing good came,
 and for a time of healing,
 but suddenly, terror! †

²⁰ We acknowledge our wickedness, ADONAI, the iniquity of our fathers,
 for we have sinned against You.

²¹ Do not despise us, for Your Name's sake.
 Do not dishonor Your glorious throne.
 Remember Your covenant with us—

do not break it!
²² Can any of the idols of the nations bring rain?
 Or can the skies grant showers?
 Is it not You, ADONAI our God?
 Do we not wait for You?
 For You have done all these things.

Who Grieves for Jerusalem?

¹⁵ Then said ADONAI to me: "Even if Moses and Samuel stood before Me, My soul could not be toward this people. Cast them out of My presence, and let them go out! ² It will come to pass, when they say to you, 'Where should we go?' Then you will tell them, thus says ADONAI:

"Those for death—to death!
 Those for the sword—to the sword!
 Those for famine—to famine!
 Those for exile—to exile! ††

³ I have appointed over them four kinds"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI —
 "the sword to slay, the dogs to drag, the birds of the sky, and the beasts of the earth to devour and to destroy. ‡

⁴ "So I will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for what he did in Jerusalem.

⁵ "Who will have pity on you, Jerusalem?
 Or who will grieve for you?
 Or who will turn aside to ask about your welfare?"

⁶ You have cast Me off"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI —
 "You keep going backward!
 So I stretch out My hand against you and will destroy you.

I am weary with relenting.

⁷ I will scatter them with a winnowing fork at the gates of the land.

I will bereave them of children and destroy My people, since they do not repent of their ways.

⁸ Their widows will increase before Me more than the sand of the seas,
 I will bring a destroyer at noonday against the mother of a young man.
 Suddenly I will bring down on her anguish and terrors.

⁹ She who bore seven languishes.
 She breathes out her soul.
 Her sun sets while it is yet day.
 She is shamed and humiliated.
 Their survivors I give to the sword before their enemies."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁰ Oy to me, my mother, that you gave birth to me—
 a man of strife and conflict to all the land!
 I did not lend or borrow,

† cf. 1 Thes. 5:3.

†† cf. Rev. 13:10. ‡ cf. Rev. 6:4-8.

yet everyone curses me.

¹¹ ADONAI said:

“Surely I will release you for good.

Surely I will make the enemy appeal to you in a time of trouble, in a time of affliction.

¹² Can anyone smash iron—iron and bronze from the north?

¹³ Your wealth and your treasures
I will give as plunder without cost, for all your sins, in all your borders.

¹⁴ I will take you away with your enemies into a land you do not know, for a fire is kindled in My nostril, which will burn against you.”

¹⁵ ADONAI, you know.

Remember me and think of me.
Avenge me against my persecutors.
Because of Your long-suffering,
do not take me away.

Know that for Your sake I endure scorn.

¹⁶ Your words were found, so I ate them.

Your words were a delight to me and the joy of my heart.

For I am called by Your Name,
ADONAI -Elohei-Tzva'ot.

¹⁷ I never sat in the company of revelers nor made merry.

Because of Your hand I sat alone, for You filled me with indignation.

¹⁸ Why is my pain unending and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed?
Will You be to me like a mirage of water that is undependable?

¹⁹ Therefore, thus says ADONAI :

“If you return, I will restore you,
you will stand before Me.

If you extract the precious from the worthless,
you will be as My mouth.

Let them turn to you,
but you must not turn to them.

²⁰ I will make you a fortified bronze wall to this people.

They will fight against you,
but will not prevail against you,
for I am with you to save you and deliver you.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

²¹ “So I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the grasp of the ruthless.”

Jeremiah's Way of Living

16 The word of ADONAI came to me, saying: ² “You will not take a wife for yourself or have sons or daughters in this place.” ³ For thus says ADONAI about the sons and daughters born in this place, and about their mothers who give birth to them, and about their fathers who father them in this land: ⁴ “They will die of deadly diseases. They will not be lamented or buried, but will be like dung on the surface of the ground. They will be consumed by the sword and famine, and their carcasses will be food for the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth.”

⁵ For thus says ADONAI : “Do not enter a house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them. For I have taken away My shalom from this people”—it is a declaration of ADONAI —“as well as My mercy and compassion. ⁶ Both great and small will die in this land; they will not be buried; neither will anyone lament for them, or cut themselves or shave his head for them. ⁷ No one will break bread for them in mourning, to give comfort for the dead. Nor will anyone offer a cup of consolation to drink for anyone's father or for his mother.

⁸ “You must not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink” ⁹ For thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: “I am about to eliminate from this place, before your eyes and in your days, the sound of joy and the sound of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.

¹⁰ “Now it will come to pass, when You will tell this people all these words, they will say to you: ‘Why has ADONAI pronounced all this great evil against us? So what is our iniquity? So what is our sin that we have committed against ADONAI our God?’ ¹¹ Then will You say to them: ‘Because your fathers have forsaken Me,’ says ADONAI, ‘and have walked after other gods, served them and worshiped them, and have forsaken Me and have not kept My Torah. ¹² Yes, you have done worse than your fathers. For here you are, each of you walking after the stubbornness of his evil heart, not listening to Me. ¹³ So I will cast you out of this land into a land that you have not known—neither you nor your fathers—and there you will serve other gods day and night. For I will give you no grace.’

Returning From All Lands

¹⁴ “Therefore, the days are quickly coming,” declares ADONAI, “when it will no longer be said, ‘As ADONAI lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.’ ¹⁵ Rather, ‘As ADONAI lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north and from all the lands where He had banished them.’ So I will bring them back into their land that I gave to their fathers.

¹⁶ “Behold, I will send for many fishers,” says ADONAI, “and they will fish for them. After that, I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt them down from every mountain and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. ¹⁷ For My eyes are on all their ways. They are not hidden from My face, nor is their iniquity concealed from My eyes. ¹⁸ First, I will repay them double for their iniquity and their sin, because they have profaned My land, and they have filled My possession with the carcasses of their vile things and their abominations.”

¹⁹ ADONAI, my strength, my stronghold, my refuge in the day of affliction, to You will the nations come from the ends of the earth and say:
“Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, futility, and useless things.”
²⁰ Will man make gods for himself?
Yet they are not gods.
²¹ “So I will surely make them know—this time I will make them know My hand and My might—they will know that My Name is ADONAI .

Hearts Engraved with Sin

17 “Judah’s sin is written with an iron pen and with a point of a diamond, engraved on the tablet of their heart and on the horns of your altars.
² So their children remember their altars and their Asherah poles by leafy trees on the high hills.
³ My mountain in the country, your wealth and all your treasures
I will give away as plunder, along with your high places for sin within all your borders.
⁴ So you, on your own,
let go of your heritage that I gave you.
So I will make you serve your enemies in a land that you do not know.
For you have kindled a fire in My nose that will burn forever.”

Planted by the Water Without Fear

⁵ Thus says ADONAI : “Cursed is the one who trusts in man,
and depends on flesh as his arm,
and whose heart turns from ADONAI .
⁶ For he will be like a bush in the desert.
He cannot see goodness when it comes,
but will dwell in parched places in the wilderness—
a salt land where no one lives.
⁷ Blessed is the one who trusts in ADONAI , whose confidence is in ADONAI .
⁸ For he will be like a tree planted by the waters, spreading out its roots by a stream.
It has no fear when heat comes,
but its leaves will be green.
It does not worry in a year of drought,
nor depart from yielding fruit.

A Deceitful Heart is Incurable

⁹ “The heart is deceitful above all things, and incurable—who can know it?
¹⁰ I ADONAI search the heart,
I try the mind,
to give every man according to his ways,

according to the fruit of his deeds.

¹¹ As a partridge that broods over young that she did not lay,
so is one who gets wealth, unjustly.
In the middle of his days it will abandon him, so at his end he will be a fool.” †
¹² Throne of glory on high from the beginning!
Place of our sanctuary,
¹³ ADONAI , You are the hope of Israel!
All who forsake You will be ashamed.
Those who depart from You will be written in the dirt, for they have forsaken ADONAI ,
the fountain of living waters.
¹⁴ Heal me, ADONAI , and I will be healed.
Save me, and I will be saved.
For You are my praise.
¹⁵ Look, they are saying to me,
“Where is the word of ADONAI ?
Let it come now!” ††
¹⁶ As for me, I have not run away from being a shepherd after You,
nor have I desired the woeful day.
What came out of my lips You know—it was before
You.
¹⁷ Be not a ruin to me—
You are my refuge in the evil day.
¹⁸ Let my persecutors be ashamed, yet let me not be ashamed.
Let them be dismayed,
but let me not be dismayed.
Bring on them the evil day,
Destroy them with double destruction.

Carry No Burdens on Shabbat

¹⁹ Thus said ADONAI to me: “Go, stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the kings of Judah come in and go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem, ²⁰ and say to them: ‘Hear the word of ADONAI , kings of Judah, and all Judah and all inhabitants of Jerusalem who enter through these gates! ²¹ Thus says ADONAI , “Guard your souls! Carry no burden on the day of Shabbat or bring it in through the gates of Jerusalem. ²² Nor should you carry a burden out of your houses on Yom Shabbat or do any work, but keep Yom Shabbat holy—as I commanded your fathers.”
²³ Yet they did not listen or incline their ear, but stiffened their neck, not hearing or accepting correction.
²⁴ “However, if you listen attentively to Me,” says ADONAI , “to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on Yom Shabbat , but sanctify Yom Shabbat and do no work on it, ²⁵ then there will enter in through the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses—with their princes, the people of Judah, and those dwelling in Jerusalem—and this city will be inhabited forever. ²⁶ They will come from the cities of Judah and from all around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, from the lowland, from the hill country, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings, frankincense, and sacrifices of thanksgiving to the House of ADONAI.

²⁷ "But if you do not listen to Me to keep Yom Shabbat holy, by not bearing a burden or entering through the gates of Jerusalem on Yom Shabbat, then I will set its gates on fire, and it will consume the citadels of Jerusalem, and not be quenched."

The Potter's House

18 The word came to Jeremiah from ADONAI, saying: ² "Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear My words."

³ So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was making a work on the wheels. ⁴ Whenever the pot that he was making from the clay became flawed in the hand of the potter, he remade it into another pot, as it pleased the potter to make.

⁵ Then the word of ADONAI came to me, saying: ⁶ "O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?" declares ADONAI. "Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in My hand, O house of Israel. ⁷ At one moment I may speak about a nation or about a kingdom, to uproot, to pull down, or to destroy it. ⁸ But if that nation turns from their evil, because of what I have spoken against it, I will relent concerning the calamity that I planned to do to it. ⁹ Or at another time I may speak about a nation or about a kingdom, to build up or to plant it. ¹⁰ But if it does evil in My sight, not listening to My voice, then I will relent of the good that I had said I would do to it.

¹¹ "So now, speak to the people of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, thus says ADONAI: 'I am about to bring calamity against you, and devise disaster against you. Turn back now—everyone from his evil way—and amend your ways and your doings.'

¹² "But they say: 'It's hopeless! So we will walk after our own plans, and each of us will act in the stubbornness of his evil heart.'"

¹³ Therefore thus says ADONAI: "Ask now among the nations, whoever has heard such things? The virgin of Israel has done a most terrible thing.

¹⁴ Does the snow of Lebanon abandon the rock of the field? Or is the cold water flowing from afar pulled back?

¹⁵ Yet My people have forgotten Me. They burn incense to a delusion and stumble in their ways—off the ancient paths—to walk on sidetracks, rather than a built-up highway.

¹⁶ Their land will become a horror, a perpetual hissing—

every one passing by will be stunned and shake his head.

¹⁷ Like an east wind, I will scatter them before the enemy. I will see their back, not their face, in the day of their calamity."

Plots Against Jeremiah

¹⁸ Then they said: "Come, let us devise plans against Jeremiah. Surely Torah from the kohen will not be lost, nor will counsel from the wise, nor will the word from the prophet. Come, let's strike at him with the tongue and pay no attention to any of his words."

¹⁹ Be attentive to me, ADONAI! Listen to the voice of my opponents.

²⁰ Will good be repaid for evil?

For they dug a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before You to speak good on their behalf, to turn Your wrath from them.

²¹ Therefore, give their children to famine and pour out the power of the sword. Let their wives be bereaved of children and widows, and let their men be slain to death, and their young men struck down by the sword in battle.

²² Let a cry be heard from their houses when suddenly You bring a troop on them. For they dug a pit to capture me, and hid snares for my feet.

²³ Yet You know their whole plot, ADONAI, against me to slay me. Do not forgive their iniquity or blot out their sin before You. But make them stumble before You. Act against them in the time of Your anger.

Shattering a Clay Jar

19 Thus said ADONAI: "Go, buy a potter's clay jar, take some elders of the people, some elders of the kohanim, ² and go out to the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate. Proclaim there the words that I will tell you, ³ and say, "Hear the word of ADONAI, kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. Thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: 'I am about to bring such a catastrophe on this place that whoever hears about it, his ears will tingle. ⁴ For they have forsaken Me and have alienated this place, by burning sacrifices in it to other gods, which neither they nor their forefathers, nor the kings of Judah have known. They have also filled this place with the blood of innocents. ⁵ They have built high places for Baal, in order to burn their children in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal—something I never commanded, nor mentioned, nor did it ever come into My mind.'"

⁶“Therefore behold, the days are coming”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“when this place will no longer be called Topheth or The Valley of Ben-Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter. ⁷ So I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place. I will have them fall by the sword before their enemies, by the hand of them that seek their life. I will give their carcasses as food for the birds of the sky and the beasts of the earth. ⁸ And I will make this city a horror and a hissing—every one passing by will be stunned and hiss because of all her wounds. ⁹ And I will make them eat the flesh of their sons and their daughters, and everyone will eat his companion’s flesh during the siege and distress, which their enemies and those who seek their life will inflict on them.

¹⁰“Then you will shatter the jar in the presence of the people who accompany you, ¹¹ and say to them, thus says ADONAI - Tzva’ot: ‘Even so I will shatter this people and this city, as one shatters a potter’s jar, which can never be made whole again. So they will be burying in Topheth, for there will be no other place to bury.’”

¹²“Thus I will do to this place”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“and to its inhabitants, making this city as Topheth. ¹³ The houses of Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be as defiled as the place Topheth—all the houses on whose roofs they burned incense to the whole heavenly host and poured out drink offerings to other gods.”

¹⁴Then Jeremiah came from Topheth, where ADONAI had sent him to prophesy, and he stood in the court of ADONAI’s House, and said to all the people, ¹⁵ thus says ADONAI - Tzva’ot, the God of Israel: “I am about to bring on this city and on all her towns the whole disaster that I pronounced against it, because they stiffened their neck, rather than hearing My words.”

Confronting a False Prophet

20 When Pashhur son of Immer the kohen, who was chief officer in the House of ADONAI, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things, ² Pashhur had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put in the stocks [†] at the Upper Benjamin Gate by the House of ADONAI. ³ The following morning, Pashhur released Jeremiah from the stocks.

Then Jeremiah said to him, “ADONAI no longer calls your name Pashhur, but Magormissabib ^{††}. ⁴ For thus says ADONAI: ‘Behold, I will make you a terror both to yourself and to everyone you love. They will fall by the sword of their enemies, while your eyes look on. So I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will carry them captive to Babylon and will slay them with the sword.

⁵“Moreover, I will give away all the wealth of this city, and all its produce and its precious things, even all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give over to the hand of their enemies, who will plunder them, take them away, and bring them to Babylon.

⁶“As for you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house, you will go into captivity, and you will go to Babylon. So there you will die, and there you will be buried—you and all your friends—to whom you have prophesied falsely.”

Fire Burning in My Bones

⁷ ADONAI, You enticed me, so I was enticed. You overpowered me, and prevailed. I am a laughingstock all day long. Everyone mocks me.

⁸ For whenever I speak, I cry out, I proclaim, “Violence and ruin!” For the word of ADONAI is scorn and ridicule to me all day long.

⁹ But if I say: “I won’t mention Him, or speak any more in His Name,” then it is like fire burning in my heart—shut up in my bones—I weary myself holding it in, but I cannot.

¹⁰ For I heard the whispering of many: “Terror on every side?

Denounce him! Let’s denounce him!”

Even all my close friends are watching for my fall:

“Perhaps he may be deceived, so we’ll get the better of him, and we’ll get our revenge on him.”

¹¹ But ADONAI is with me like a dreadful warrior. Therefore my persecutors will stumble and will not prevail.

Since they are not insightful and not wise, they will be utterly shamed—an everlasting disgrace, never to be forgotten.

¹² Yet, ADONAI -Tzva’ot—testing the righteous, seeing the mind and the heart, let me see Your vengeance on them!

For to You have I presented my case.

¹³ Sing to ADONAI, praise ADONAI!

For He has delivered the soul of the needy one from the hand of evildoers.

¹⁴ Cursed be the day I was born!

The day that my mother bore me—may it never be blessed!

¹⁵ Cursed be the one who brought the news to my father, saying, “A baby boy is born to you!” making him so glad.

¹⁶ Now let that one be like the cities which ADONAI overturned, with no relenting—let him hear a cry in the morning and a shout of alarm at noon, ¹⁷ since he did not kill me in the womb, so my mother might have been my grave—her womb filled forever.

¹⁸ Why did I ever come forth out of the womb to see trouble and sorrow,

[†] cf. Acts 16:23-24. ^{††} Meaning Terror on Every Side and my days end in shame?

Warning to King Zedekiah and Judah

21 The word which came to Jeremiah from ADONAI, when King Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur son of Malchiah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the kohen, saying: ²“Please inquire of ADONAI for us, since Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon is making war against us. Perhaps ADONAI would deal with us according to all His wondrous miracles—so that he would withdraw from us?”

³Then said Jeremiah to them, “Thus will you say to Zedekiah, ⁴thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: ‘I will soon turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, which you use to fight against the king of Babylon and against the Chaldeans, who are besieging you outside the walls—I will assemble them in the center of this city. ⁵I myself will fight against you, with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even with anger, fury, and in great wrath. ⁶I will also strike down the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast—they will die of a great pestilence.”

⁷“Then afterward,” declares ADONAI, “I will deliver King Zedekiah of Judah and his servants, as well as the people—those surviving in this city from the pestilence, the sword and the famine—into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, into the hand of their foes, yes, into the hand of those who seek their life. So he will smite them with the edge of the sword; he will not spare them, nor have pity or compassion.”

⁸Now to this people you will say, thus says ADONAI: “Look, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. ⁹He who remains in this city will die by the sword, by the famine, or by the pestilence. But whoever goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who are besieging you, he will live, and he will have his life as prize.”

¹¹Also to the house of the king of Judah, hear the word of ADONAI, ¹²O house of David, thus says ADONAI: “Render justice by morning, and rescue the one who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor. Otherwise My fury will go forth like fire and burn so none can extinguish it, because of their evil deeds.”

¹³“Here I am, against you, situated in the valley, a rocky plateau,”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“you are saying, ‘Who would come down against us? Who would enter into our lairs?’ ¹⁴I will punish you according to the fruit of your deeds.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

“Also, I will set fire to her forest, and it will consume all around her.”

Warning to David's Heirs

22 Thus said ADONAI: “Go down to the palace of the king of Judah and speak this word:

²“Hear the word of ADONAI, O king of Judah, who sits on the throne of David—you, your servants, and your people who enter by these gates.’ ³Thus says ADONAI: ‘Execute justice and righteousness. Rescue the one who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor. Do not mistreat or do violence to the stranger, the fatherless, or the widow. Do not shed innocent blood in this place. ⁴For if you really carry out this word, then through the gates of this palace will enter kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses—himself, his servants, and his people. ⁵But if you will not obey these words, I swear by Myself,’ declares ADONAI, ‘that this palace will become a ruin.”

⁶For thus says ADONAI concerning the house of the king of Judah:

“You are Gilead to Me—the summit of Lebanon, yet I will surely make you into a wilderness, uninhabited cities.

⁷I will consecrate destroyers against you, each with his own weapons.

They will cut down your choice cedars and cast them into the fire.

⁸Many nations will pass by this city, and they will say, each to his neighbor, ‘Why has ADONAI done such a thing to this great city?’ ⁹Then they will answer: ‘Because they abandoned the covenant of ADONAI their God, and worshiped other gods and served them.”

¹⁰Weep not for the dead or bemoan him.

Weep bitterly for him who departs,

for he will never return,

or see his native country again.

¹¹For thus says ADONAI to Shallum, son of King Josiah of Judah, who became king in place of his father Josiah: “He who went forth from this place will never return there. ¹²Instead, in the place where they led him captive, there will he die—he will see this land no more.”

¹³Oy to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his roof-chambers by injustice, that makes his neighbor work without pay, never giving him his wages,

¹⁴who says: “I will build myself a big house with spacious rooms and cut out my windows for it, and panel it with cedar,

and paint it with vermilion!

¹⁵Did you become king

just to be striving with cedar?

Did your father not eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness?

Then it went well with him.

¹⁶He pled the case of the poor and weak,

so it went well.

Is not this knowledge of Me?"

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁷ "But your eyes and your heart are only on your unjust gain, and on shedding innocent blood, and committing extortion and fraud."

¹⁸ Therefore, thus says ADONAI about Jehoiakim son of King Josiah of Judah:

"They will not lament for him,

'Oy, my brother!' or 'Oy, sister!'

They will not lament for him,

'Oy, master!' or 'Oy, his majesty!'

¹⁹ With a donkey's burial will he be buried, dragged off and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.

²⁰ Go up to Lebanon and cry out, and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim—for all your lovers are broken.

²¹ I spoke to you in your prosperity, but you said, 'I won't listen!'

This has been your way since your youth— for you never listened to My voice.

²² The wind will shepherd away all of your shepherds, and your lovers will go into exile.

Surely then you will be ashamed and humbled by all your wickedness.

²³ O inhabitant of Lebanon, nestled in the cedars, how you will groan when pangs come on you, pain like a woman in travail!

²⁴ "As I live," declares ADONAI, "even if Coniah son of King Jehoiakim of Judah were a signet ring on My right hand, yet I would pull you off, ²⁵ and give you over into the hand of those seeking your life, yes, into the hand of those whom you dread, even into the hand of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and into the hand of the Chaldeans. ²⁶ So I will cast you out, with your mother who bore you, into another country where you were not born—and there will you die. ²⁷ But as for the land where they long to return, they will never return there."

²⁸ Is this man Coniah a despised, shattered pot—a jar with no delight in it?

Why are he and his seed cast out into the land they do not know?

²⁹ O land, land, land, hear the word of ADONAI!

³⁰ Thus says ADONAI:

"Write this man childless, a man who will not prosper in his days. For no man of his seed will prosper, sitting on the throne of David and ruling again in Judah."

Gathering His Flock

23 "Woe to the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of My pasture!" It is a declaration of ADONAI.

² Therefore, thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel, about the shepherds who feed My people: "You have scattered My flock, driven them away, and have not taken care of them. I will soon visit on you the evil of your deeds." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

³ "I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them back to their folds, and they will be fruitful and multiply. ⁴ I will raise up shepherds over them who will feed them. They will no longer be afraid or dismayed, nor will any be missing." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

The Righteous Branch

⁵ "Behold, days are coming"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—

"when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and He will reign as king wisely †, and execute justice and righteousness in the land.

⁶ In His days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell in safety; and this is His Name by which He will be called: ADONAI our righteousness.

⁷ "Therefore, behold, days are coming," says ADONAI, "when they will no longer say: 'As ADONAI lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.' ⁸ Rather, 'As ADONAI lives, who brought up and led the offspring of the house of Israel out of the north country and from all the lands where He had banished them.' So they will dwell in their own soil.

Avoid Ungodly Prophets

⁹ "As for the prophets: My heart within me is broken, all my bones shake.

I am like a drunken man, like a man overcome by wine because of ADONAI, because of His holy words.

¹⁰ For the land is full of adulterers. The land mourns because of a curse. Pastures of the wilderness are dry.

Their running is evil, and their might is not right.

¹¹ For both prophet and kohen are ungodly. Even in My House I found their evil." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹² "Therefore, their way will be for them like slippery places in the gloom.

They will be driven away and fall there, for I will bring calamity on them, even the year of their visitation."

† Or and prosper

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

¹³ “Moreover, I have seen unseemliness in the prophets of Samaria: they prophesied by Baal, and led My people Israel astray.

¹⁴ But in the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen a horrible thing: committing adultery and walking in lies. They strengthen the hands of evildoers. No one turns back from his evil. They are all like Sodom to Me and her inhabitants like Gomorrah.”

¹⁵ Therefore, thus says ADONAI - Tzva’ot concerning the prophets:

“I myself will feed them wormwood and make them drink poisoned water. For from the prophets of Jerusalem pollution has spread into all the land.”

¹⁶ Thus says ADONAI - Tzva’ot :
“Do not listen to the words of prophets who are prophesying to you. They are leading you into illusion, speaking a vision of their own heart and not out of the mouth of ADONAI .

¹⁷ They keep saying to those who despise Me, ‘ADONAI has said, you will have shalom .’ To everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say:

‘No evil will come on you.’”

¹⁸ For who has stood in the council of ADONAI , that he should see and hear His word? Who has heard to His word and obeyed?

¹⁹ Look, a storm of ADONAI goes out in fury, yes, a whirling tempest will swirl down on the head of the wicked.

²⁰ The anger of ADONAI will not turn until He has executed and fulfilled the purposes of His heart. In the last days you will discern it clearly.

²¹ “I did not send those prophets, yet they ran.

I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.

²² If they have stood in My council, then they would have announced My words to My people, and turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their deeds.

²³ Am I God only when near”
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
“and not God when far off?

²⁴ Can anyone hide himself in places so secret that I will not see him?

Do I not fill heaven and earth?”

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

²⁵ “I have heard what the prophets said, who prophesy lies in My Name, saying: ‘I had a dream, I had a dream!’ ²⁶ How long will this continue? Is there anything in the heart of such prophets prophesying lies? These prophets have deception in their heart.

²⁷ Through their dreams that they each tell to his companion, that intend to make My people forget My Name—just as their fathers forgot My Name because of Baal.

²⁸ “The prophet who has a dream may recount a dream, but let the one who has My word speak My word in truth.

For what is straw compared with wheat?”

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

²⁹ “Is not My word like fire?” says ADONAI ,
“or like a hammer that shatters rock?

³⁰ “Therefore here I am against the prophets”—it is a declaration of ADONAI —“who steal My words from each other. ³¹ Indeed, I am against the prophets,” declares ADONAI , “who use their tongues to utter a prophecy, ‘It is a declaration!’ ³² Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams,” declares ADONAI , “and tell them, and so lead My people astray with their lies and with their reckless boasts. Yet I never sent them or commanded them. Nor do they benefit this people at all.” It is a declaration of ADONAI .

³³ “Now when this people or a prophet or a kohen is asking you: ‘What is the burden † of ADONAI ?’ then you are to say to them, ‘What burden? I will cast you off!’” It is a declaration of ADONAI .

³⁴ “As for the prophet or kohen or people who keep saying, ‘The burden of ADONAI !’—I will punish that man and his household. ³⁵ Thus each of you may say to his companion and each one to his brother, ‘What has ADONAI answered?’ or ‘What has ADONAI spoken?’ ³⁶ But you should no longer remember ‘the burden of ADONAI ’—for to each one, his own word is becoming ‘the burden!’ So you have perverted the words of the living God, of ADONAI - Tzva’ot our God.

³⁷ “So you are to say to such a prophet, ‘What has ADONAI answered you?’ and ‘What has ADONAI spoken?’

³⁸ But if you say, ‘The burden of ADONAI ,’ then surely ADONAI says, ‘because you keep saying this word: “The burden of ADONAI ,” when I sent this word to you, you are not to say “The burden of ADONAI ”— ³⁹ therefore, I will surely forget you when I will cast you off, along with the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from My presence. ⁴⁰ Then I will bring everlasting disgrace on you and everlasting shame that will not be forgotten.’”

Parable of the Baskets of Figs

24 ADONAI showed me, all of a sudden, there were two baskets of figs set before the Temple of ADONAI . It was after King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon had taken away into exile Jeconiah son of King Jehoiakim of Judah and the princes of Judah, along with the craftsmen and smiths from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

² One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first ripe, but the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. ³ Then ADONAI said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

So I said, "Figs—the good figs are very good, but the bad are very bad, and cannot be eaten, they are so bad."

⁴ Then the word of ADONAI came to me, saying, ⁵ thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: "Like these good figs, so will I regard the exiles of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place to the land of the Chaldeans, as good.

⁶ I will set My eyes on them as good. I will bring them back to this land, and I will build them up and not pull them down; I will plant them and not uproot them.

⁷ Then I will give them a heart to know Me—for I am ADONAI—and they will be My people, and I will be their God. † For they will return to Me with their whole heart.

⁸ "Now as for the bad figs, which cannot be eaten they are so bad"—surely thus says ADONAI—"so I will give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, his princes and the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, as well as those dwelling in the land of Egypt. ⁹ I will even give them as a horror, as an evil thing, among all the kingdoms of the earth—as a disgrace and a proverb, a taunt and a curse—in all places where I will drive them. ¹⁰ I will also send the sword, famine, and pestilence among them, until they be consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers."

Unheard Voice of the Prophets

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah (which was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon). ² Jeremiah the prophet spoke it to all the people of Judah and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: ³ "From the thirteenth year of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah, until this day—these 23 years—the word of ADONAI has come to me. So I have spoken to you, speaking early and often, but you have not listened. ⁴ Moreover, ADONAI has sent to you all His servants the prophets, sending them early and often—but you have not listened or inclined your ear to hear— ⁵ saying: 'Turn, now, everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your deeds, and dwell in the land that ADONAI has given to you and to your fathers forever and ever. ⁶ Do not go after other gods to serve them, to worship them, and so do not provoke Me with the work of your hands, so I would do you no harm.'

⁷ "Yet you have not listened to Me," declares ADONAI. "So you are provoking Me with the work of your hands, to your own hurt."

⁸ Therefore, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot: "Since you have not heard My words, ⁹ I will soon send for and bring all the families of the north"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"and I will send for King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, My servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations round about, and I will utterly destroy them, and make them a horror, and a hissing, an enduring desolation.

¹⁰ "Moreover, I will silence among them the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, †† the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp.

Seventy Years of Desolation

¹¹ "So this whole land will be a desolate ruin, and these nations will serve the king of Babylon for 70 years. ¹² Then it will come to pass, when 70 years are completed, that I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation," declares ADONAI, "the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity, and I will make it ruins forever. ¹³ I will bring on that land all My words which I pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. ¹⁴ For many nations and great kings will make slaves of them also. So I will repay them according to their deeds and according to the work of their own hands."

Cup of Fury and Reeling

¹⁵ For thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel, to me: "Take this cup of the wine of fury from My hand, and make all the nations to whom I am sending you drink it. ¹⁶ They will drink, and reel to and fro, and be like madmen, because of the sword that I will send among them. ¹⁷ Then I took the cup from ADONAI's hand, and made all the nations drink, to whom ADONAI had sent me: ¹⁸ Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, with its kings and its princes—to make them an appalling horror and hissing, a curse as it is this day; ¹⁹ Pharaoh king of Egypt, with his servants, his princes, and all his people; ²⁰ and all the mingled people, all the kings of the land of Uz, all the kings of the land of the Philistines, Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; ²¹ Edom, Moab, and Ammon's children; ²² all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the coastland across the sea; ²³ Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who shave the corners ‡; ²⁴ all the kings of Arabia and all the kings of the mixed people dwelling in the wilderness; ²⁵ all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of Media; ²⁶ all the kings of the north, either far or close to another; and all the kingdoms of the world which are on the face of the earth. And the king of Sheshach †† will drink after them."

²⁷ And you will say to them, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: "Drink, be drunken, vomit, fall down, and rise no more, because of the sword that I will send among you." ²⁸ And if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then here is what you will

† cf. Heb. 8:10.

†† cf. Rev. 18:23. ‡ Or who live in distant places †† Cryptic name for Babylon say to them: "Thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, you will surely drink! ²⁹ See, I am beginning to bring evil on the city where My name is called, and should you go completely unpunished? You will not go unpunished, for I am summoning a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth." It is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot.

³⁰ Therefore you are to prophesy against them all these words, and say to them:

"ADONAI is roaring from on high,
giving voice from His holy dwelling.
He roars mightily over His sheepfold.
He shouts like those who tread grapes, against all who dwell on the earth.

³¹ A noise has come to the end of the earth,
for ADONAI has a dispute with the nations.
He is passing judgment on all flesh.

As for the wicked, He has given them over to the sword."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

³² Thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot: "Evil will soon go forth from nation to nation. A great storm is being stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. ³³ Those slain by ADONAI on that day will be from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth. They will not be lamented, gathered, or buried; they will be dung on the surface of the ground."

³⁴ Wail, you shepherds, and cry!

Wallow in the dust, you leaders of the flock!
For the days of your slaughter and your dispersions are full.

You will fall like a precious vase.

³⁵ For the shepherds will have no way to flee, nor the leaders of the flock to escape.

³⁶ Hark! The outcry of the shepherds, the wailing of the leaders of the flock!
For ADONAI is ravaging their pasture.

³⁷ The peace of the pasture is stifled because of the fierce anger of ADONAI.

³⁸ He has left His lair, like a lion.
For their land has become a waste,
because of the fury of the oppressor
and because of His fierce anger.

Surviving a Death Sentence

26 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from ADONAI, saying, ² thus says ADONAI: "Stand in the court of ADONAI's House, and speak to all the cities of Judah that come to worship in ADONAI's House all the words that I command you to speak to them. Do not omit a word! ³ Perhaps they will listen, and turn every man from his evil way, so I may relent of the calamity which I am planning to do to them because of the evil of their deeds."

⁴ Then you will say to them, thus says ADONAI: "If you will not listen to Me, by walking in My Torah, which I have set before you, ⁵ and by listening to the words of My servants the prophets, whom I have been sending to you, early and often—but you have not listened—⁶ then I will make this House like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth."

⁷ So the kohanim, the prophets, and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the House of ADONAI.

⁸ Now when Jeremiah finished speaking all that ADONAI had commanded him to speak to all the people, the kohanim and the prophets and all the people laid hold on him, saying: "You will surely die! ⁹ Why have you prophesied in the Name of ADONAI, saying, 'This House will be like Shiloh, and this city will be an uninhabited ruin?'" Then all the people gathered against Jeremiah in the House of ADONAI.

¹⁰ When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's palace to the House of ADONAI, and sat in the entrance of the New Gate of ADONAI's House. ¹¹ The kohanim and the prophets spoke to the princes and to all the people, saying: "A death sentence for this man! For he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

¹² Then Jeremiah spoke to all the princes and to all the people, saying: "ADONAI sent me to prophesy all the words you have heard against this House and against this city. ¹³ So now, mend your ways and your deeds, and obey the voice of ADONAI your God; so ADONAI will relent of the calamity that He has pronounced against you.

¹⁴ "But as for me, here I am in your hand; do with me as is good and right in your eyes. ¹⁵ Only know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, on this city, and on its inhabitants. For in truth ADONAI has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears."

¹⁶ Then said the princes and all the people to the kohanim and to the prophets: "No death sentence for this man! For he has spoken to us in the Name of ADONAI our God."

¹⁷ Then some of the elders of the land rose up and addressed all the assembly of the people, saying: ¹⁸ "Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot:
"Zion will be plowed as a field,
and Jerusalem will become ruins, and the mountain of the House
as the high places of a forest."

¹⁹ "Did King Hezekiah of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Didn't he fear ADONAI and plead for the favor of ADONAI, and then ADONAI relented of the calamity that He had pronounced against them? So we may be committing great evil against our own souls."

²⁰ Now there was a man who had prophesied in the Name of ADONAI, Uriah son of Shemaiah of Kiriath-Jearim. He prophesied against this city and against this land words like all those of Jeremiah. ²¹ When king Jehoiakim with all his mighty men and all the princes heard his words, the king sought to put him to death.

But when Uriah heard it, he was afraid and fled, and went to Egypt. ²² So king Jehoiakim sent men to Egypt—Elnathan son of Achbor and some others with him— ²³ and they brought Uriah back from Egypt, and led him to King Jehoiakim, who slew him with the sword, and threw his corpse into the burial place of the common people.

²⁴ Nevertheless, the hand of Ahikam son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that they did not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

Jeremiah Wears a Yoke

27 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word to Jeremiah from ADONAI, saying— ² thus says ADONAI to me—“Make straps and yoke-bars, and put them on your neck. ³ Then send such to the king of Edom, to the king of Moab, to the king of Ammon’s children, to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of messengers that come to Jerusalem to King Zedekiah of Judah. ⁴ Charge them to their masters, saying, thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot, the God of Israel, thus will you say to your masters: ⁵ ‘I have made the earth, mankind and beast which are on the face of the earth, by My great power and by My outstretched arm—and I give it to whom it seems right to Me. ⁶ So now I have given all these lands into the hand of king Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, My servant. I have even given the beasts of the field to serve him. ⁷ All the nations will serve him—and his son, and his grandson—until the time of his own land comes, and then many nations and great kings will make him their slave.’

⁸ “Now it will be, that the nation or the kingdom which will not serve the same king Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish with the sword, with famine, and with pestilence,” declares ADONAI, “until I have destroyed it by his hand. ⁹ But as for you, do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreams, your soothsayers, or your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon.’ ¹⁰ For they prophesy a lie to you, in order to remove you far from your land, so that I would drive you out and you would perish.

¹¹ “But the nation that will bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, that nation I will let remain in its land, and they will till it and dwell in it.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹² Then I spoke to king Zedekiah of Judah with all these same words, saying: “Put your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, serve him and his people—and live. ¹³ Why should you die—you and your people—by the sword, by famine, or by pestilence, as ADONAI has spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴ Do not listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, ‘You will not serve the king of Babylon,’ for they prophesy a lie to you.

¹⁵ “For I have not sent them,” says ADONAI, “and they prophesy falsely in My Name, with the result that I will drive you out, and that you will perish—you and the prophets that prophesy to you.”

¹⁶ Then I spoke to the kohanim and to all this people, saying, thus says ADONAI: “Do not listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying: ‘See, the vessels of ADONAI’s House will now shortly be brought back from Babylon’—for they prophesy a lie to you. ¹⁷ Do not listen to them. Serve the king of Babylon, and live. Why should this city become a ruin?

¹⁸ But if they are prophets, and if the word of ADONAI is with them, let them now make intercession to ADONAI -Tzva’ot, that the vessels that are left in the House of ADONAI, in the palace of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem, would not go to Babylon.”

¹⁹ For thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot concerning the pillars, the sea, the bases, and the rest of the vessels that remain in this city, ²⁰ which king Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has not taken, when he carried away captive Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem, ²¹ yes, thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the House of ADONAI, in the house of the king of Judah and at Jerusalem: ²² “They will be brought to Babylon, and there will they be until the day that I take note of them”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“and bring them up and restore them to this place.”

A False Prophecy, Too Soon

28 Now it was the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah son of Azzur the prophet from Gibeon spoke to me in the House of ADONAI, in the presence of the kohanim and of all the people, saying, ² thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot, the God of Israel, saying: “I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon! ³ Within two full years I will bring back to this place all the vessels of ADONAI’s House that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place and brought to Babylon. ⁴ I will also bring Jeconiah son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, back to this place with all the captives of Judah that went to Babylon”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.”

⁵ Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the kohanim and in the presence of all the people that stood in ADONAI’s House. ⁶ So the prophet Jeremiah said: “Amen! May ADONAI do so! May ADONAI fulfill your words that you have prophesied, bringing back the vessels of ADONAI’s House and all those who are taken away captive, from Babylon to this place! ⁷ Yet hear now this word that I am speaking in your ears and in the ears of all the people. ⁸ The prophets who have been before me and before you of ancient times prophesied against many countries and against great kingdoms—of war, catastrophe and plague. ⁹ The prophet who prophesies shalom—when the word of the prophet has come to pass, then will the prophet be known as one that ADONAI has truly sent.”

¹⁰ Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke-bar from off the prophet Jeremiah’s neck and broke it.

¹² Then the word of ADONAI came to Jeremiah after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke-bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying: ¹³ “Go, tell Hananiah, saying, thus says ADONAI: ‘You have broken the yoke-bars of wood—but in its place you will make yoke-bars of iron.’” ¹⁴ For thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot, the God of Israel: “I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, so that they may serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. They will serve him, and I have also given him the beasts of the field.”

¹⁵ Then said the prophet Jeremiah to the prophet Hananiah: “Hear now, Hananiah! ADONAI has not sent you, yet you have caused this people to trust in a lie. ¹⁶ Therefore thus says ADONAI: ‘I am about to send you away from off the face of the earth. This year you will die, since you have spoken apostasy against ADONAI.’”

¹⁷ So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

After Seventy Years, a Future Hope

29 Now these are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the elders remaining in exile, as well as to the kohanim, the prophets, and to all the people Nebuchadnezzar had carried off captive from Jerusalem to Babylon ² (after Jeconiah the king, the queen-mother, the officers, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen and the smiths, had to leave Jerusalem). The letter was sent ³ by the hand of Elasah son of Shaphan, and Gemariah son of Hilkiyah, whom king Zedekiah of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, saying, ⁴ thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot, the God of Israel, to all those in captivity, whom I removed as captives into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon:

⁵ “Build houses and live in them; also plant gardens and eat their fruit; ⁶ take wives and have sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, so that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply there, and do not decrease. ⁷ Also seek the shalom of the city where I took you as captives in exile, and pray to ADONAI for it—for in its shalom will you have shalom.”

⁸ For thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: “Do not let your prophets who are among you or your diviners beguile you, and pay no attention to the dreams which you make them keep dreaming. ⁹ For they prophesy falsely to you in My Name; I have not sent them.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁰ For thus says ADONAI: “After 70 years for Babylon are complete, I will visit you, and fulfill My good word toward you—to bring you back to this place. ¹¹ For I know the plans that I have in mind for you,” declares ADONAI, “plans for shalom and not calamity—to give you a future and a hope.

¹² “Then you will call on Me, and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. ¹³ You will seek Me and find Me, † when you will search for Me with all your heart.

¹⁴ Then I will be found by you,” says ADONAI, “and I will return you from exile, and gather you from all the nations and from all the places where I have driven you,” says ADONAI, “and I will bring you back to the place from which I removed you as captives into exile.”

¹⁵ For you have said: “ADONAI has raised up prophets for us in Babylon.” ¹⁶ For thus says ADONAI about the king who sits on the throne of David and about all the people who dwell in this city, your kinsmen who did not go with you into captivity, ¹⁷ thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot: “I am about to send on them the sword, famine, and pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so bad. ¹⁸ I will pursue them with the sword, famine, and pestilence, and will make them a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth—a curse and an astonishment, a hissing and a disgrace—among all the nations where I have driven them, ¹⁹ because they have not listened to My words,” declares ADONAI, “which I sent to them by My servants the prophets, sending them early and often, but you would not hear.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁰ “But you, hear the word of ADONAI, all you of the exile whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon,” ²¹ thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot, the God of Israel, “concerning Ahab son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in My name: I will soon deliver them into the hand of king Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon—and he will slay them before your eyes. ²² So a curse will be taken up by everyone in exile from Judah who are in Babylon, saying: ‘May ADONAI make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire’—²³ because they have been disgraceful in Israel, committing adultery with their neighbors’ wives and speaking words in My Name falsely, which I did not command them. But I am the One who knows and I am witness.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁴ Now concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you will surely say, ²⁵ thus declares ADONAI -Tzva’ot, the God of Israel, saying: “Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the kohen, and to all the kohanim, saying: ²⁶ ‘ADONAI has made you kohen instead of Jehoiada the kohen, so that there should be officers in the House of ADONAI for every madman prophesying and so that you will put him in the stocks and iron collar. ²⁷ So now, why haven't you rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself out to be a prophet to you? ²⁸ For he has sent word to us in Babylon, saying: "The exile will be long—build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat their fruit."''''

²⁹ So Zephaniah the kohen read this letter in the ears of the prophet Jeremiah. ³⁰ Then the word of ADONAI came to Jeremiah, saying: ³¹ "Send word to all of the captivity, saying, thus says ADONAI concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: 'Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, though I did not send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie,' ³² therefore thus says ADONAI, 'I will indeed punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his offspring. There will be none living among this people, and he will not see the good that I will do to My people,' declares ADONAI, 'because he has spoken rebellion against ADONAI.'"''

Return from Exile

30 The word came to Jeremiah from ADONAI, saying: ² thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: "Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a scroll. ³ For behold, the days are coming," declares ADONAI, "when I will return My people Israel and Judah from exile," declares ADONAI. "I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they will possess it."

Dread of Jacob's Trouble

⁴ Now these are the words that ADONAI spoke to Israel and to Judah. ⁵ For thus says ADONAI: "We heard a sound of trembling, of dread—there is no shalom. ⁶ Ask now, and see whether a man can give birth. Why do I see every man with his hands on his loins, like a woman giving birth? Why have all faces turned pale? ⁷ Oy! For that day is monumental. There will be none like it—a time of trouble for Jacob! Yet out of it he will be saved."

A Davidic King Brings Healing

⁸ "It will be in that day" —it is a declaration of ADONAI -Tzva'ot — "that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will tear off your bonds. Foreigners will no longer enslave him. ⁹ Instead they will serve ADONAI their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them. ¹⁰ So now, do not fear, Jacob My servant," says ADONAI, "nor be dismayed, O Israel, for behold, I will save you from afar, your seed from the land of their exile. Jacob will again be quiet and at ease, and no one will make him afraid."

¹¹ For I am with you," declares ADONAI, "to save you, for I will make a full end of all the nations where I scatter you.

But, I will not make a full end of you. For I will discipline you justly, but will not leave you unpunished."

¹² For thus says ADONAI:

"Your hurt is incurable, and your wound is severe.

¹³ No one pleads your cause, for there is no remedy for your wound, no healing for you.

¹⁴ All your lovers have forgotten you.

They are not looking for you.

For I wounded you as an enemy— with cruel punishment— because your iniquity is vast, your sins innumerable.

¹⁵ Why cry about your fracture?

Your pain has no cure.

Because your iniquity is vast, your sins innumerable, I did these things to you.

¹⁶ Yet all who devour you will be devoured, and all your foes—all of them— will go into captivity.

Those plundering you will be plundered, and all preying on you I give as prey.

¹⁷ For I will restore health to you and will heal you of your wounds."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

"For they called you an outcast: 'Zion—no one cares about her.'"

¹⁸ Thus says ADONAI, "Indeed, I will return Jacob's tents from exile, and have compassion on his dwellings.

The city will be rebuilt on her mound †. The citadel will stand in its rightful place.

¹⁹ Out of them will come thanksgiving and the sound of celebration.

I will multiply them, so they will not decrease.

I will also honor them, so they will not be insignificant.

²⁰ His children also will be as formerly —his community set up before Me— and I will punish all his oppressors.

²¹ His noble one will be one of His own.

His ruler will come forth from among His own. I will bring Him near, and He will approach Me.

For who is he who will pledge his heart to approach Me?"

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²² "So you will be My people, and I will be your God."

²³ Look! A storm of ADONAI!

† Hebrew tel

Fury has burst out as a churning storm, whirling about the head of the wicked.
24 ADONAI's fierce anger will not turn back until He has done it, until He fulfills the purposes of His heart.
In the last days you will understand it.

Saving the Remnant

31 "At that time," declares ADONAI,
"I will be God to all families of Israel,
and they will be My people."
2 Thus says ADONAI:
"The people surviving the sword found grace in the wilderness—where I gave Israel rest." † 3 From afar ADONAI appeared to me.
"Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love.
Therefore I have drawn you with lovingkindness.
4 Again I will build you,
so you will be rebuilt, virgin Israel!
Again you will take up your tambourines as ornaments,
and go out to dances of merrymakers.
5 Again you will plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria—planters will plant and use them.
6 For there will be a day when watchmen will call out in the hill country of Ephraim,
'Arise, let us go up to Zion, to ADONAI our God."
7 For thus says ADONAI:
"Sing aloud with joy for Jacob!
Shout with the chief of the nations!
Proclaim, give praise, and say:
'ADONAI, save your people,
the remnant of Israel!' †† 8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and I will gather them from the ends of the earth—among them the blind and the lame, the pregnant together with she who is in labor with child.
A great throng will return here.
9 With weeping and supplications they will come.
I will bring them,
leading them to walk by streams of water on a straight path where they will not stumble.
For I am Israel's father, and Ephraim is My firstborn.
10 Hear the word of ADONAI, O nations, and declare it in the distant islands, and say: 'He who scattered Israel will gather and watch over him, as a shepherd does his flock.'
11 For ADONAI has ransomed Jacob.
He redeemed him from the hand of one stronger than he.
12 They will come and sing on Zion's height, radiant over the bounty of ADONAI — over the grain, the wine, the oil, and the young of the flock.

Their life will be like a watered garden,
and they will never languish again.
13 Then will the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old men together.
For I will turn their mourning into joy, and I will comfort them, and make them rejoice out of their sorrow.
14 I will fill the soul of the kohanim with fatness and My people will be satisfied with My goodness."
It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Grief Turned to Joy

15 Thus says ADONAI:
"A voice is heard in Ramah
—lamentation and bitter weeping—
Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted for her children,
because they are no more." ‡
16 Thus says ADONAI:
"Restrain your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears.
For your work will be rewarded"
—it is declaration of ADONAI —
"when they will return from the land of the enemy.
17 So there is hope for your future"
—it is declaration of ADONAI —
"when your children will return to their own territory.
18 I indeed heard Ephraim grieving:
'You have disciplined me—
I was disciplined like an untrained calf.
Restore me, and I will return,
for you are ADONAI my God.
19 For after I returned, I repented, and after that I was instructed,
I struck my thigh—
I was ashamed and also humiliated, for I bore the disgrace of my youth.'
20 "Is Ephraim a precious son to Me?
Is he a delightful child?
For as often as I spoke against him,
I still certainly remember him.
Therefore My heart yearns for him.
I will surely have compassion on him."
It is a declaration of ADONAI.
21 Erect road markers, set up signposts!
Set your heart toward the highway,
the way by which you traveled!
Return, O virgin Israel, return to your cities.
22 How long will you waver,
O backsliding daughter?
For ADONAI has created a new thing on earth:
a woman surrounds a man.

† cf. Matt. 11:28. †† cf. Matt. 1:21.

‡ cf. Matt. 2:18.

²³ Thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: "Yet again will they use this expression in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I will return them from exile:

"ADONAI bless you,
O dwelling of righteousness,
O mountain of holiness."

²⁴ "Judah and all its cities will dwell there together—the farmer and those who go about with flocks.

²⁵ For I will satisfy the weary soul, and every languishing soul will refresh."

²⁶ At this point I awoke, and looked around, and my sleep was sweet to me.

²⁷ "Behold, days are coming"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"when I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man and with the seed of beast. ²⁸ Now just as I have watched over them to uproot and to pull down, to overthrow, to destroy, and to bring disaster, then I will watch over them to build and to plant," says ADONAI. ²⁹ "In those days they will no longer say:

'The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are blunted.'

³⁰ Rather each will die for his own iniquity:
if anyone eats the sour grapes, his own teeth will be blunted."

New Covenant Foretold

³¹ "Behold, days are coming"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
"when I will make a new covenant † with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah—

³² not like the covenant
I made with their fathers in the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt.
For they broke My covenant, though I was a husband to them."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

³³ "But, this is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after those days"

—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
"I will put My Torah within them.
Yes, I will write it on their heart. ††
I will be their God
and they will be My people.

³⁴ No longer will each teach his neighbor or each his brother, saying: 'Know ADONAI,' for they will all know Me,
from the least of them to the greatest."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

"For I will forgive their iniquity, their sin I will remember no more." ‡

³⁵ Thus says ADONAI, who gives the sun as a light by day and the fixed order of the moon and the stars as a light by night, who stirs up the sea so its waves roar,

ADONAI -Tzva'ot is His Name:

³⁶ "Only if this fixed order departs from before Me"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
"then also might Israel's offspring cease from being a nation before Me—for all time."

³⁷ Thus says ADONAI:

"Only if heaven above can be measured and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then also I will cast off the offspring of Israel

—for all they have done." ††

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

³⁸ "Behold, days are coming"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"when the city will be rebuilt for ADONAI, from the tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. ³⁹ The measuring line will go out farther, straight to the Gareb Hill, then turn to Goah. ⁴⁰ Then the whole valley—the dead bodies and the ashes, and all the fields up to the Kidron Valley to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east—will be holy to ADONAI. It will never be uprooted or thrown down again—forever."

Why Jeremiah Bought Property

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from ADONAI, in the tenth year of king Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

² Now at the time the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the palace of the king of Judah. ³ For king Zedekiah of Judah had shut him up, saying: "Why do you prophesy and say, thus says ADONAI: 'I will soon give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will take it; ⁴ and king Zedekiah of Judah will not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but will surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and will speak with him mouth to mouth and his eyes will behold his eyes; ⁵ and he will lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there will he remain until I take note of him,' says ADONAI —though you fight with the Chaldeans, you will not succeed?"

⁶ So Jeremiah said: "The word of ADONAI came to me, saying: ⁷ 'Hanamel, son of Shallum your uncle, will soon come to you saying: "Buy for yourself my field in Anathoth, for the right of redemption is yours to buy it.'"⁸ So my uncle's son Hanamel came to me in the court of the guard as was the word of ADONAI, and said to me: "Buy my field, please, which is in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself." Then I knew that this was the word of ADONAI. ⁹ So I bought the field that was in Anathoth from the son of my uncle Hanamel, and weighed him the money—17 shekels of silver. ¹⁰ I signed and sealed the deed, called † cf. Luke 22:20; Heb. 8:8-12; 10:16-17. †† cf. 2 Cor. 3:3; Heb. 10:16. ‡ cf. John 6:45; Rom. 11:27; Heb. 10:17.

¹¹ Then I took the purchase deed, both the sealed copy, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy, ¹² and I gave the purchase deed to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my uncle's son Hanamel and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the purchase deed, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the guard. ¹³ Then I charged Baruch before them, saying, ¹⁴ thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot, the God of Israel, "Take these deeds—this purchase deed, both the sealed copy and the open copy—and put them in a clay jar, so they may last many days." ¹⁵ For thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: "Houses and fields and vineyards will yet again be bought in this land."

¹⁶ After I had given the purchase deed to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to ADONAI, saying: ¹⁷ "Ah, my Lord ADONAI! Behold, You have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and by Your outstretched arm—nothing is too hard for You! ¹⁸ You are the One doing mercy to thousands, but repaying the iniquity of the fathers into the lap of their children after them. Great, mighty God, ADONAI -Tzva'ot is His Name!

¹⁹ Great in counsel and mighty in deed, whose eyes are open to all the ways of the children of men, to give each one according to his ways and according to the fruit of his deeds. ²⁰ You set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and even to this day in Israel and among mankind, and made Yourself a Name, as to this day. ²¹ You brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great terror. ²² You gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey. ²³ They came in and possessed it. But they did not obey your voice nor walk in your Torah. They have done nothing of all you commanded them to do. Therefore you caused all this evil to fall on them.

²⁴ Look, the siege ramps have just come up to the city to take it. The city has been handed over to the Chaldeans fighting against it, because of the sword, the famine, and the pestilence. What You have spoken has happened. Here it is, You see it. ²⁵ Yet You said to me, my Lord ADONAI: 'Buy for yourself the field for money and call in witnesses'—even as the city is handed over to the Chaldeans."

²⁶ Then came the word of ADONAI to Jeremiah, saying: ²⁷ "Behold, I am ADONAI, the God of all flesh; is there anything too hard for Me?" ²⁸ Therefore thus says ADONAI: "I am about to give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans and Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he will take it. ²⁹ Then the Chaldeans fighting against this city will come and set this city on fire and burn it, with the houses—where they burned incense to Baal on their roofs and poured out drink-offerings to other gods, to provoke Me. ³⁰ For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done nothing but evil in My sight from their youth; indeed, the children of Israel have done nothing but provoke Me with the work of their hands," declares ADONAI.

³¹ "Indeed this city has caused My anger and of My fury from the day that they built it up to this day, ³² so that I will remove it from before My face, because of all the evil the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done to provoke Me—they, their kings, their princes, their kohanim, their prophets, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

³³ "They have turned their back to Me and not their face. Though I taught them early and often, they have not listened to receive instruction. ³⁴ Instead they set up their abominations in the House where My Name is called, to defile it. ³⁵ They built the high places of Baal in the Valley of Ben-Hinnom, to make their sons and their daughters pass through fire to Molech—something I never commanded them, nor did it enter My mind that they would do this loathsome thing, causing Judah to sin."

³⁷ "See, I will gather them out of all the countries, where I have driven them in My anger, My fury, and great wrath, and I will bring them back to this place and cause them to dwell securely. ³⁸ They will be My people, and I will be their God. ³⁹ I will give them one heart ⁴⁰ and one way, so they may fear Me forever; for their good and for their children after them.

⁴⁰ "I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never turn away from doing good for them. I will put My fear in their hearts, so that they will not depart from Me.

⁴¹ "Yes, I will delight in doing good for them, and with all My heart and all My soul I will in truth plant them in this land."

⁴² For thus says ADONAI: "Just as I have brought all this great evil on this people, so I will bring on them all the good that I have promised them. ⁴³ So fields will be bought in this land, about which you are saying: 'It will be a desolation, without man or beast; it is handed over to the Chaldeans.' ⁴⁴ Men will buy fields for money and sign and seal the deeds and call witnesses in the land of Benjamin and in the areas around Jerusalem, and in the towns of Judah, in the towns of the hill-country, in the towns of the foothills, and in the cities of the South—because I will bring them back from exile." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

The Secret of Redemption

33 Then the word of ADONAI came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still confined in the guard's courtyard, saying:

² Thus says ADONAI the Maker, ADONAI who formed it to make it firm

† cf. Matt. 19:26. †† cf. Matt. 16:27; John 5:29.

‡ cf. Matt. 23:37. †† cf. 2 Cor. 6:16.

— ADONAI is His Name.

³ “Call to Me, and I will answer you—

I will tell you great and hidden things, which you do not know.” †

⁴ For thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: “Concerning the houses of this city and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are torn down against the siege ramps and against the sword, ⁵ they are coming to fight with the Chaldeans, but they are about to fill them with the dead bodies of the people whom I will slay in My anger and in My fury. I have hidden My face from this city because of all their wickedness.

⁶ “Indeed, I will bring it health and healing, and I will surely heal them. I will reveal to them an abundance of shalom and truth. ⁷ I will restore Judah from exile and Israel from exile, and will rebuild them, as in former times. ⁸ I will also cleanse them from all their iniquity †† in which they have sinned against Me, and I will pardon all their wrongs in which they have sinned against Me and in which they have rebelled against Me.

⁹ “Then this city will be to Me for a name of joy, praise, and glory before all the nations of the earth, which will hear all the good that I do for them, so they will fear and tremble because of all the good and for all the shalom that I do for it.”

Voice of the Bridegroom

¹⁰ Thus says ADONAI: “Yet again in this place—which you are saying is a waste without man or beast, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem the desolate, without man, without inhabitant, and without beast—there will be heard ¹¹ the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of them who say:

“Give thanks to ADONAI -Tzva’ot, for ADONAI is good, for His love endures forever!”

“as they bring offerings of thanksgiving into the House of ADONAI. For I will restore the land from the exile as it was at first,” declares ADONAI.

¹² Thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot: “Yet again will there be in this place, which is waste, without man and without beast, and in all its cities, a pasture of shepherds making their flocks lie down. ¹³ In the towns of the hill country, in the towns of the foothills, in the towns of the South, in the land of Benjamin, in the places around Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah, will the flocks again pass under the hands of one who counts them,” declares ADONAI.

Righteous Branch of David

¹⁴ “Behold, days are coming”

—it is a declaration of ADONAI —

“when I will fulfill the good word I spoke concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah.

¹⁵ In those days and at that time,

I will cause a Branch of Righteousness to spring up for David, and He will execute justice and righteousness in the land.

¹⁶ In those days will Judah be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell safely.

And this is the Name by which He will be called: ADONAI our Righteousness.”

¹⁹ And the word of ADONAI came to Jeremiah, saying, ²⁰ thus says ADONAI: “If you can break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night, so that day and night would not be at in their appointed time, ²¹ only then may My covenant be broken with My servant David, that he would not have a son to reign on his throne, and the Levitical kohanim would not be My ministers. ²² As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, nor the sand of the sea measured, so I will multiply the offspring of David My servant, and the Levites who minister to Me.”

²³ The word of ADONAI came to Jeremiah, saying: ²⁴ “Have you not noticed what this people have spoken, saying: ‘The two families which ADONAI did choose, He has rejected them?’ Thus they despise My people—no longer a nation before them.” ²⁵ Thus says ADONAI: “If I have not made My covenant of day and night firm, and the fixed patterns ordering the heavens and earth, ²⁶ only then would I reject the offspring of Jacob, ‡ and of My servant David so that I would not take from his offspring rulers over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore them from their exile, and have compassion on them.”

Warning to Zedekiah

34 The word which came to Jeremiah from ADONAI, when King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion and all the peoples were warring against Jerusalem and its towns, saying, ² thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: “Go, speak to King Zedekiah of Judah and tell him, thus says ADONAI: ‘I am about to give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire, ³ and you will not escape out of his hand, but will surely be captured and given into his hand. Your eyes will behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he will speak with you mouth to mouth, and you will go to Babylon.’”

⁴ Yet hear the word of ADONAI, O Zedekiah king of Judah, thus says ADONAI concerning you: “You will not die by the sword; ⁵ you will die in peace. As there were burning ceremonies for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so they will burn spices for you, and they will lament for you: 'Oy, lord!' For it is a word I have spoken," declares ADONAI.

† cf. 1 Cor 2:7. †† cf. Heb. 9:12.

Covenant Breaking with Slaves

¹² So the word of ADONAI came to Jeremiah from ADONAI, saying, ¹³ thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel: "I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying: ¹⁴ 'At the end of seven years you are to set free every man his brother that is a Hebrew who has been sold to you and has served you six years; you are let him go free from you.' But your fathers did not obey Me, nor inclined their ear. ¹⁵ Now you had repented, and had done that which is right in My eyes, by proclaiming liberty everyone to his neighbor. You even had made a covenant before Me in the House where My Name is called. ¹⁶ But you turned around and profaned My Name, and made everyone his servant and his handmaid, whom you had let go free at their will, return, and you brought them back into subjection, to be your servants and handmaids."

¹⁷ Therefore thus says ADONAI: "You have not obeyed Me, to proclaim liberty, everyone to his brother and everyone to his neighbor. Behold, I proclaim for you a liberty," declares ADONAI, "to the sword, to plague, and to famine! So I will make you a horror to all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸ I will give the men who have transgressed My covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before Me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts ¹⁹—the princes of Judah and the princes of Jerusalem, the officers, the kohanim, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf— ²⁰ I will even give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of them who seek their life, and their dead bodies will be for food to the birds of the sky and to the beasts of the earth. ²¹ King Zedekiah of Judah and his princes I will give into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of them who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, who were withdrawing from you. ²² Indeed, I will command," declares ADONAI, "and cause them to return to this city. They will fight against it, capture it, and burn it down with fire; and I will make the cities of Judah a wasteland, with no one living."

Obedience of Rechabites

35 The word that came to Jeremiah from ADONAI in the days of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying: ² "Go to the house of the Rechabites, speak to them, and bring them into one of the chambers of the House of ADONAI, and give them wine to drink."

³ So I took Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah, his brothers and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites, ⁴ and I brought them into the House of ADONAI to the chamber of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah the man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah son of Shallum, the doorkeeper. ⁵ I set jars full of wine and cups before the sons of the house of the Rechabites, and said to them: "Drink wine!"

⁶ But they said: "We drink no wine, for Jonadab son of Rechab our father commanded us: 'You will drink no wine, not you nor your sons, forever. ⁷ Also you are not to build a house, or sow seed, or plant a vineyard or own one. Instead, all your days you are to dwell in tents, so that you may live many days in the land where you sojourn.' ⁸ So we obeyed the voice of Jonadab son of Rechab our father in all that he charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters, ⁹ nor to build houses for us to dwell in, nor to own a vineyard, field or seed, ¹⁰ and we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. ¹¹ But when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came up against the land, we said: 'Come, let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and for fear of the army of the Arameans.' So we are dwelling in Jerusalem."

¹² Then came the word of ADONAI to Jeremiah, saying, ¹³ thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: "Go, say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 'Will you not receive instruction by listening to My words?'" says ADONAI. ¹⁴ "The words of Jonadab son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are observed, and to this day they drink none, for they listen to their father's commandment. Yet I have spoken to you, early and often, and you have not obeyed Me.

¹⁵ "I have sent also to you all My servants the prophets, sending them early and often, saying: 'Return you now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and you will dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers; but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to Me. ¹⁶ For the sons of Jonadab son of Rechab have kept the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people have not obeyed Me.”

¹⁷ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot, the God of Israel: “I am about to bring on Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them, because I spoke to them but they have not heard, and I have called to them but they have not answered.”

¹⁸ Now Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot, the God of Israel: “Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you,” ¹⁹ therefore thus says ADONAI -Tzva’ot, the God of Israel: “There will never be cut off for Jonadab son of Rechab a man to stand before Me forever.”

Baruch Reads Jeremiah’s Scroll

36 Now it happened in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of King Josiah of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from ADONAI, saying: ² “Take a megillah scroll, and write in it all the words that I have spoken to you about Israel, about Judah, and about all the nations from the day I spoke to you—from the days of Josiah until this day. ³ Perhaps the house of Judah will hear all the calamity that I am planning to do to them, in order that they may turn, each one from his evil way. Then I would forgive their iniquity and their sin.”

⁴ So Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote from Jeremiah’s mouth, all the words that ADONAI had spoken to him, into a megillah scroll. ⁵ Then Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying: “I am detained; I cannot go into the House of ADONAI. ⁶ So you go and read in the megillah—which you have written from my mouth, the words of ADONAI—in the ears of the people, in the House of ADONAI, on a fast day. You should also read them in the ears of all Judah coming from their towns. ⁷ Perhaps they will present their supplication before ADONAI, and each one will turn from his wicked way. For great is the anger and fury that ADONAI has pronounced against this people.”

⁸ So Baruch son of Neriah did according to all that the prophet Jeremiah commanded him, reading from the book the words of ADONAI in the House of ADONAI.

⁹ Now it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of King Josiah of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before ADONAI—all the people in Jerusalem and all the people that came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem. ¹⁰ Then Baruch read from the scroll the words of Jeremiah in the House of ADONAI, in the chamber of Gemariah son of the scribe Shaphan, in the upper court at the entry of the New Gate of the House of ADONAI, in the ears of all the people.

¹¹ Now when Micaiah son of Gemariah son of Shaphan, had heard from the scroll all the words of ADONAI, ¹² he went down to the scribe’s chamber of the king’s palace. All the officials sat there—the scribe Elishama, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Achbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the officials. ¹³ Then Micaiah reported to them all the words that he had heard Baruch reading out of the scroll in the ears of the people.

¹⁴ All the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah son of Shelemiah son of Cush, to Baruch, saying: “Bring in your hand the megillah which you read in the ears of the people and come.”

So Baruch son of Neriah brought the megillah in his hand and went to them. ¹⁵ Then they said to him: “Sit down now, and read it in our ears.” So Baruch read it in their ears.

¹⁶ After they had heard all the words, they turned to each other in fear, then said to Baruch: “We will surely report all these words to the king.” ¹⁷ They also asked Baruch, saying: “Tell us now, how did you write all these words? At his dictation?”

¹⁸ Then Baruch answered them: “He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink into the scroll.”

¹⁹ Then the officials said to Baruch: “Go, hide yourself—you and Jeremiah—and let no one know where you are.”

²⁰ Then they went to the king in the courtyard, after they had deposited the megillah in the chamber of the scribe Elishama. They reported all the words in the ears of the king.

²² Since it was the ninth month, the king was residing in the winter house, with a fireplace burning before him. ²³ Now as soon as Jehudi had read three or four columns, he cut it with the scribe’s knife and tossed it into the fire that was in the fireplace, until the whole megillah was consumed in the fire in the fireplace.

²⁶ Then the king commanded Jerahmeel the king’s son, along with Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel, to seize the scribe Baruch and the prophet Jeremiah—but ADONAI hid them.

²⁷ Then the word of ADONAI came to Jeremiah, after the king had burned the megillah with the words that Baruch had written at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying: ²⁸ “Take yet another megillah, and write in it all the original words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah burned up. ²⁹ About King Jehoiakim of Judah you will say, thus says ADONAI: ‘You have burned this megillah, saying, “Why have you written in it, saying the king of Babylon will surely come and destroy this land and will bring an end to both man and beast from it?”’

³⁰ Therefore thus says ADONAI about King Jehoiakim of Judah: “He will have no one to sit on the throne of David. Moreover, his dead body will be tossed out to the heat of the day and the frost of the night. ³¹ I will also punish him and his offspring and his servants for their iniquity, and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem and the people of Judah all the calamity that I have pronounced against them—but they did not listen.”

³² Then Jeremiah took another megillah and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah, who wrote in it from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll which King Jehoiakim of Judah had burned up in the fire—and added to them many similar words.

Imprisoned for the Word

37 Now Zedekiah son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah son of Jehoiakim, whom King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. ² But neither he nor his servants, nor the people of the land, paid attention to the words of ADONAI which He spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.

³ Yet King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying: “Pray now to ADONAI our God for us.”

⁴ Now Jeremiah was coming in and going out among the people, for they had not put him into prison.

⁶ Then came the word of ADONAI to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, ⁷ “Thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel, ‘thus will you say to the king of Judah, who sent you to Me to inquire of Me: “Now, Pharaoh’s army, which is come forth to help you, will return to Egypt into their own land. ⁸ The Chaldeans will return and fight against this city. Then they will capture it and burn it with fire.”’

¹¹ So it came to pass, when the army of the Chaldeans went up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh’s army, ¹² that Jeremiah went out of Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to claim his property there among the people. ¹³ But when he was at the Benjamin Gate, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah son of Hananiah, who arrested the prophet Jeremiah, saying: “You are deserting to the Chaldeans!”

¹⁴ But Jeremiah said, “That’s a lie! I am not deserting to the Chaldeans!” But Irijah would not listen to him, but arrested Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

¹⁵ The officials were angry with Jeremiah, had him beaten, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe, for they had made that the prison.

¹⁶ For Jeremiah went into a vaulted cell in the dungeon pit, and Jeremiah remained there many days.

¹⁷ Then King Zedekiah sent for him and received him in his palace secretly, and the king asked him: “Is there any word from ADONAI?”

“There is,” Jeremiah said, and he also said, “You shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon.”

¹⁸ Moreover Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah: “How have I sinned against you or against your servants or against this people, that you have put me in prison?

¹⁹ Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying: ‘The king of Babylon will not come against you or against this land?’ ²⁰ So now please listen, my lord the king! Please let my petition come before you and do not make me return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, so I will not die there.”

²¹ Then Zedekiah the king gave a command, and they committed Jeremiah into the courtyard of the guard. They gave him a loaf of bread from the bakers’ street daily, until all the bread in the city was spent. So Jeremiah stayed in the guard’s courtyard.

In a Miry Cistern-Pit

38 Now Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malchiah heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying, ² thus says ADONAI: “He that remains in this city will die by the sword, by famine, and by plague, but anyone who goes out to the Chaldeans will live—so he will keep his life like the spoils of war, and will live.” ³ Thus says ADONAI: “This city will surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.”

⁴ Then the officials said to the king: “This man should now be put to death, since he demoralizes the men of war remaining in this city as well as all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man is not seeking the shalom of this people, but calamity.”

⁵ Then King Zedekiah said: “Here he is in your hand. For the king cannot do anything against you.”

⁶ So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the cistern-pit of Malchiah the king’s son, which was in the courtyard of the guard, lowering Jeremiah down with ropes. Now in the pit there was no water, but only mud, and Jeremiah sank into the mud.

⁷ Now Ebed-Melech †—an Ethiopian official in the king’s palace—heard they had put Jeremiah in the pit. While the king was sitting in the Benjamin Gate,

† Or, a servant of the king

⁸ Ebed-Melech went out from the king's palace and spoke to the king, saying: ⁹ "My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they cast into the pit. He is likely to die right where he is from hunger, for there is no more bread in the city."

¹⁰ Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying: "Take 30 men from here with you, and bring the prophet Jeremiah up out of the cistern, before he dies."

¹¹ So Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went into the king's palace under the storehouse; from there he took worn-out clothes and worn-out rags, and lowered them by ropes into the cistern-pit to Jeremiah. ¹² And Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah: "Now put these worn-out clothes and rags under your armpits under the ropes."

Jeremiah did so. ¹³ Then they pulled Jeremiah up with the ropes, and lifted him up out of the pit. But Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

¹⁴ Then Zedekiah the king sent for the prophet Jeremiah and received him at the third entrance in the House of ADONAI. The king said to Jeremiah: "I am going to ask you something—hide nothing from me."

¹⁵ Jeremiah said to Zedekiah: "If I tell you, won't you surely put me to death? Besides, if I give you counsel, you won't listen to me."

¹⁶ So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying: "As ADONAI lives, that gave us life, I will not put you to death, nor will I give you into the hand of these men seeking your life."

¹⁷ Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah: Thus says ADONAI, Elohei-Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: "If you will go out to the officers of the king of Babylon, then your soul will live, this city will not be burned with fire; and you and your household will survive. ¹⁸ But if you do not go out to the officers of the king of Babylon, then this city will be handed over to the Chaldeans; they will burn it with fire, and you will not escape out of their hand."

¹⁹ Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah: "I am afraid of the Judeans who have deserted to the Chaldeans, lest they hand me over to them and they abuse me."

²⁰ But Jeremiah said: "They will not hand you over. Please, obey the voice of ADONAI, in what I am speaking to you, so it will go well for you, and your soul will live! ²¹ But if you keep refusing to go out, this is the word that ADONAI has shown me: ²² 'Soon, all the women who are left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officers of the king of Babylon, and those women will say:

""Your close friends have misled you, and prevailed over you.

Your feet are sunk in the mire, and they deserted you.""

²³ "Then they will bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans, and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be seized by the hand of the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned down with fire."

²⁴ Then said Zedekiah to Jeremiah: "Let no one know of these words, and you will not die.

²⁵ "But if the officials hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you and say to you: 'Tell us now what you have said to the king—hide nothing from us and we will not put you to death. And what did the king say to you?' ²⁶ Then you will tell them, 'I was presenting my petition before the king, not to make me return to Jonathan's house to die there.'"

²⁷ When all the officials came to Jeremiah and questioned him, he told them with just these words that the king had commanded. So they stopped speaking with him, since the matter was not overheard.

²⁸ Then Jeremiah stayed in the guard's courtyard until the day that Jerusalem was captured.

Judgment on Zedekiah and Jerusalem

39 Now when Jerusalem was captured, in the ninth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, in the tenth month, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and all his army advanced against Jerusalem, and besieged it.

² On the ninth day of the fourth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the city wall was broken through.

⁸ Then the Chaldeans burned the king's palace and the houses of the people with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹ Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away into exile the rest of the people—those who remained in the city and also the deserters who had defected to him, and the rest of the people remaining. ¹⁰ But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the people, who had nothing, behind in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields in that day.

Vindication of Jeremiah

¹⁵ Now the word of ADONAI came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the guard’s courtyard, saying, ¹⁶ “Go, speak to Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian, saying, thus says ADONAI - Tzva’ot, the God of Israel: ‘Listen, I will bring about My words on this city for evil and not for good. They will happen before you in that day. ¹⁷ But I will deliver you in that day—it is a declaration of ADONAI—and you will not be given into the hand of the men whom you dread.

¹⁸ “For I will surely rescue you, so you will not fall by the sword. But you will keep your life as spoils, because you put your trust in Me.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Jeremiah Returns to Judah

40 The word which came to Jeremiah from ADONAI, after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had released him from Ramah. He had taken him bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were being exiled to Babylon. ² Now the captain of the guard had taken Jeremiah and said to him: “ADONAI your God pronounced this evil against this place, ³ and ADONAI brought it about and did just as He said. Because you have sinned against ADONAI and have not listened to His voice, this thing has happened to you. ⁴ But now behold, I am freeing you this day from the chains that are on your hand. If it is good in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you. But if it is evil in your eyes to come with me to Babylon, stop. Look, the whole land is before you—wherever it seems good and right to you to go, there go.”

⁵ But he would not turn back. “Go back then to Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go anywhere it seems right in your eyes to go.”

Then the captain of the guard gave him a ration and a gift, and let him go. ⁶ So Jeremiah went to the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

Gedaliah Appointed Governor

⁷ Now all the commanders of the forces that were in the field—they and their men—heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam over the land, and had put him in charge of the men, and women and children, the poorest of the land who were not carried away captive to Babylon. ⁸ So they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah—including Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah son of the Maacathite—they and their men. ⁹ Then Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying: “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. Stay in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you. ¹⁰ As for me, look, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans who come to us. But as for you, gather wine, summer fruit and oil, and put them in your jars, and dwell in your cities that you have taken over.”

¹¹ Also when all the Jews who were in Moab, among Ammon’s children, in Edom, and in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had appointed over them Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan, ¹² then all the Jews returned out of all places where they had been driven, and came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruit in great abundance.

¹³ Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were in the field came to Gedaliah to Mizpah ¹⁴ and said to him, “Are you aware that Baalis the king of Ammon’s children has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to take your life?” But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them.

¹⁵ Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke privately to Gedaliah at Mizpah, saying, “Let me go now, and I will slay Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and no one will know it. Why should he take your life, so that all the Jews that are gathered to you would be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?”

¹⁶ But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Don’t do this thing! For what you are saying about Ishmael is a lie.”

Gedaliah Assassinated

41 Now it was in the seventh month, that Ishmael son of Nethaniah son of Elishama—of royal descent and one of the chief officers of the king, along with ten men—came to Gedaliah son of Ahikam to Mizpah. While they were eating bread there together in Mizpah, ² Ishmael son of Nethaniah rose up with the ten men that were with him and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam son of Shaphan with the sword—putting to death the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land. ³ Ishmael also slew all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Chaldean soldiers who were found there.

⁷ Yet it was that as soon as they came within the city that Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men with him slaughtered them within the cistern-pit. ⁸ However ten men were found among them that said to Ishmael: "Don't kill us! For we have hidden stores in the field—wheat, barley, oil, and honey!" So he held off and did not kill them along with their companions.

⁹ Now the cistern where Ishmael cast all the corpses of the men whom he killed, because they were on Gedaliah's side, was the one which King Asa had made for fear of King Baasa of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain.

¹¹ But Johanan son of Kareah, and all the commanders of the forces that were with him heard about all the evil that Ishmael son of Nethaniah had done. ¹² So they took all the men and went to fight with Ishmael son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great pool in Gibeon.

¹³ Now when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him, they were glad. ¹⁴ So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went over to Johanan son of Kareah. ¹⁵ But Ishmael son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to Ammon's children. ¹⁶ Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces that were with him took all the remnant of the people whom he had rescued from Ishmael son of Nethaniah from Mizpah, after he had murdered Gedaliah son of Ahikam—the men, the soldiers, women, children, and court officials whom he had brought back from Gibeon—¹⁷ and they left and stayed at Chimham's lodge, which is near Beth-Lehem, in order to go on to enter Egypt, ¹⁸ away from the Chaldeans. For they were afraid of them, since Ishmael son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.

42 Then all the commanders of the forces, Johanan son of Kareah, Jezaniah son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, approached ² and said to the prophet Jeremiah, "Please, let our petition be presented before you, and pray to ADONAI your God on our behalf, [†] for all this remnant—for we who are left are but a few out of many, as you are seeing with your own eyes—³ that ADONAI your God may tell us the way we should go and what we should do."

⁴ Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them: "I have heard you. Agreed: I will pray to ADONAI your God according to your words, and it will be that every word ADONAI will answer you, I will declare it to you—I will not keep a word from you."

⁵ Then they said to Jeremiah: "Let ADONAI be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act in accord with every word that ADONAI your God sends you to us. ⁶ Whether it be good or evil, we will obey the voice of ADONAI our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it may go well with us, when we obey the voice of ADONAI our God."

⁷ Now it was at the end of ten days that the word of ADONAI came to Jeremiah. ⁸ Then he called Johanan son of Kareah, and all the commanders of the forces that were with him, and all the people from the least to the greatest, ⁹ and said to them, "Thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before Him: ¹⁰ 'If you will still stay in this land, then will I build you up and not tear you down, and I will plant you and not uproot you. For I will relent concerning the calamity that I have done to you. ¹¹ Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon, whom you dread—do not be afraid of him'—it is a declaration of ADONAI—'for I am with you to save you, and deliver you from his hand. ¹² I will also show you compassion and he will have compassion on you, and restore you to your own soil. ¹³ But if you say, 'We will not stay in this land,' so that you do not obey the voice of ADONAI your God, ¹⁴ saying: 'No, instead we'll go into the land of Egypt, where we will see no war or hear the sound of a shofar or hunger for food, and live there.' ¹⁵ Now therefore hear the word of ADONAI, O remnant of Judah, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: If you really set your faces to enter Egypt, and go to sojourn there, ¹⁶ then it will come to pass that the sword, which you fear will overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine about which you are anxious will follow hard after you there in Egypt—and there you will die. ¹⁷ So will it be for all the people who set their faces to enter Egypt to sojourn there—they will die by the sword, by famine and by plague. So none of them will remain or escape from the calamity that I will bring on them.'"

¹⁸ For thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: "As My anger and My fury were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so will My fury be poured out on you, if you will enter Egypt. You will be an execration, a horror, a curse, and a disgrace, and you will never see this place again."

¹⁹ ADONAI has spoken concerning you, O remnant of Judah: "Do not go to Egypt. Know for sure that I have forewarned you this day! ²⁰ For you have led your own souls in error, since it was you who sent me to ADONAI your God, saying: 'Pray to ADONAI our God on our behalf, and in accord with all that ADONAI our God will say, so declare to us, and we will do it.' ²¹ So I have this day declared it to you, but you will not obey the voice of ADONAI your God in anything for which He has sent me to you. ²² Now therefore know for sure that you will die by the sword, by famine, and by plague, in the place whither you desired to go to sojourn there."

Chaldeans Invade Egypt

43 But when Jeremiah had made an end of telling all the people all the words of ADONAI their God—all these words for which ADONAI their God had sent him to them— ² then Azariah son of Hoshaiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and all the insolent men responded, saying to Jeremiah: "You are telling a lie! ADONAI our God has not sent you to say. 'You must not go to Egypt to sojourn there.' ³ Rather, Baruch son of Neriah is inciting you against us, to give us over into the hand of the Chaldeans, so they may put us to death or carry us away as captives to Babylon!"

When they arrived at Tahpanhes ⁸ the word of ADONAI came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, ⁹ "Take some large stones in your hand and hide them in the mortar in the brickwork at the entrance of Pharaoh's palace in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah.

¹⁰ "Then say to them, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: 'I am about to send for and bring King Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, My servant, and I will set his throne over these stones where I have hid, and he will spread his royal pavilion over them. ¹¹ Yes, he will come, and will strike the land of Egypt.

"Those for death—to death!

Those for exile—to exile!

Those for the sword—to the sword!

¹² "I will also set fire to the houses of Egypt's gods. He will burn them and carry them off. He will wrap himself up with the land of Egypt as a shepherd wraps himself up with his garment. Then he will depart from there victoriously.

¹³ "He will also shatter the pillars of the temple of the sun [†] in the land of Egypt, while houses of the gods of Egypt He will burn with fire."

Calamity in Egypt

44 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews dwelling in the land of Egypt—at Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at Noph, and in the region of Pathros, ^{††} saying, ² thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: "You have seen all the calamity that I brought on Jerusalem and on all the cities of Judah. Behold, today they are a ruin, and no one lives in them, ³ because of their wickedness which they committed to provoke Me, by continuing to burn sacrifices for and serve other gods, whom they had not known—not they, nor you, nor your fathers. ⁴ Yet I sent you all My servants the prophets, sending them early and often, saying: 'Oh, do not do this loathsome thing that I hate.' ⁵ But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn from their wickedness, to stop making offering to other gods.

⁶ "Therefore My fury and Mine anger was poured out and blazed in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. So they are waste and a ruin, as it is today. ⁷ So now, thus says ADONAI, Elohim - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: Why are you committing this great evil against your own souls? You cut off from yourselves man and woman, infant and nursing child, from the midst of Judah, to leave yourself without a remnant. ⁸ You are provoking Me with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have come to dwell, so that you will be cut off and become a curse and a disgrace among all the nations of the earth. ⁹ Have you forgotten the evils of your fathers, the evils of the kings of Judah, the evils of their wives, and your own evils and the evils of your wives, which were committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰ They have not become contrite even to this day, nor have they feared nor walked in My Torah, My statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers."

¹¹ Therefore thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel: "I will soon set My face against you for calamity, to cut off all Judah. ¹² I will take the remnant of Judah who set their faces to enter the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they will all be consumed, falling in the land of Egypt by the sword and by famine. They will die, from the least to the greatest, by the sword and by famine, and they will be an execration, and a horror, a curse, and a disgrace.

¹³ "So I will punish those dwelling in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by famine, and by plague. ¹⁴ So none of the remnant of [†] Hebrew Beit-Shemesh Heliopolis ^{††} In Upper or Southern Egypt; the other places were in Lower or Northern Egypt.

Judah entering the land of Egypt to sojourn there will escape or remain, to return to the land of Judah, when they are longing with their soul to return to live there; for none will return except as refugees.”

¹⁵ Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning incense to other gods, along with all the women that stood by—a large assembly—with all the people dwelling in Pathros in the land of Egypt, responded to Jeremiah, saying: ¹⁶ “As for the word that you spoke to us in the Name of ADONAI, we are not going to listen to you! ¹⁷ Instead, we will definitely do every word as went out of our mouth—burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, just as we did, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem—for then we had plenty of food, were well off, and saw no calamity. ¹⁸ But since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been consumed by the sword and by famine. ¹⁹ Moreover, when we were burning incense to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink offerings to her, when we made cakes for her in her image and poured out drink offerings to her, were we without our husbands?”

²⁰ Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men and the women, to all the people that were giving him such an answer, saying: ²¹ “The incense-burning that you offered in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem—you and your fathers, your kings, your officials, and the people of the land— ADONAI did remember them, they did come into His heart. ²² Then ADONAI could no longer endure it, because of the evil of your deeds, because of the abominations that you committed! So your land has become a wasteland, a desolation, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day. ²³ Because you have burned incense, because you have sinned against ADONAI and have not listened to the voice of ADONAI, nor walked in His Torah, nor in His statutes, nor in His testimonies—that is why this calamity has befallen you, as it is this day.”

²⁴ Moreover, Jeremiah said to all the people and to all the women: “Hear the word of ADONAI, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt. ²⁵ Thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel, saying: ‘You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths and fulfilled it with your hands, saying: “We will definitely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink-offerings to her.” You surely will confirm your vows and surely will perform your vows!’”

²⁶ Therefore hear the word of ADONAI, all Judah dwelling in the land of Egypt: “Behold, I have sworn by My great Name,” † declares ADONAI, “never more will My Name be invoked in the mouth of anyone of Judah in all the land of Egypt saying: ‘As my Lord ADONAI lives.’ ²⁷ Here I am, watching over them for evil, and not for good. All the people of Judah who are in the land of Egypt will be consumed by the sword and by famine, until there is an end of them. ²⁸ Those escaping the sword will return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah only few in number. Then the remnant of Judah who entered the land of Egypt to sojourn there, will know whose word stands up—Mine or theirs!” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁹ “Moreover, this will be the sign to you: I will visit punishment on you in this place, so that you may know that My words will surely stand against you as calamity.”

³⁰ Thus says ADONAI: “Soon, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them who seek his life, just as I gave King Zedekiah of Judah into the hand of King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon, his enemy who was seeking his life.”

Message for Baruch

45 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a scroll from the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, ² thus says ADONAI, the God of Israel, concerning you, Baruch: “You said: ³ ‘Oy to me now! For ADONAI has added sorrow to my pain. I am worn out with my groaning, and I find no rest.’”

⁴ Thus shall you say to him, thus says ADONAI: “Behold, what I have built I will tear down, and what I have planted I will uproot—the whole land. ⁵ But you, are you expecting great things for yourself? Seek no more! For I am about to bring calamity on all flesh”—it is a declaration of ADONAI —“but I will grant you your soul as spoil in all places where you may go.”

Prophecy against Egypt

46 The word of ADONAI that came to the prophet Jeremiah concerning the nations.

terror on every side!”

† cf. Heb. 6:13.

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

⁶ “The swift cannot flee,
nor the warrior escape.
In the north by the river Euphrates they stumbled and fell.

⁷ Who is this, rising like the Nile,
like the rivers whose waters churn?

⁸ Egypt rises like the Nile,
like the rivers whose waters churn.

He says: ‘I will rise up,
I will cover the earth,
I will destroy the city and its inhabitants!’

⁹ Prance, you horses, and rush madly, you chariots.

Let the warriors go out—
Cush and Put grasping the shield,
Lydians grasping and bending the bow!

¹⁰ For that day belongs to my Lord ADONAI - Tzva’ot, as a day of vengeance, to avenge Himself against His foes.

The sword will devour and be satisfied and will drink its fill of their blood.
For it will be a sacrifice for my Lord ADONAI - Tzva’ot, in the northern land by the river Euphrates.

¹¹ Go up into Gilead and get balm,
O virgin daughter of Egypt.

In vain you use many medicines—
there is no cure for you.

¹² Nations have heard of your shame, and your outcry fills the earth.

For warrior stumbles over warrior—both fall down together.”

¹³ The word that ADONAI spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon to strike the land of Egypt:

¹⁴ “Declare it in Egypt, proclaim in Migdol, and announce in Noph and Tahpanhes.
Say: ‘Stand up and get ready!
For the sword has devoured all around you.’

¹⁵ Why are your strong ones swept away?
They did not stand up,
because ADONAI thrust him down.

¹⁶ They keep stumbling, yes, falling over each other.

Then they said: ‘Get up!
Let’s return to our own people,
to the land of our birth, away from the oppressor’s sword.’

¹⁷ They cried there:
‘Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise!
He let the opportune time pass.’

¹⁸ As I live,” declares the King
—whose Name is ADONAI - Tzva’ot — “like Tabor among the mountains, or like Carmel by the sea,
so surely he will come.

¹⁹ O daughter dwelling in Egypt, get your bags ready for exile!

For Noph will become a ruin laid waste, uninhabited.

²⁰ Egypt is a beautiful heifer—but a biting fly is coming—from the north it is coming!

²¹ Even her mercenaries among her are like stall-fed calves, for they also will turn back—they will flee away together, they will not stand up—for the day of their calamity has come upon them,
the time of their visitation.

²² Its sound will hiss like a snake,
as they march with an army,
and come against her as woodcutters with axes.

²³ They cut down her forest”
—it is a declaration of ADONAI — “though it was impenetrable, for they are worse than the locust
—they are without number.

²⁴ The daughter of Egypt is disgraced, handed over to people of the north.”

²⁵ ADONAI - Tzva’ot, the God of Israel, says: “Behold, I will punish Amon of No, Pharaoh, Egypt, with her gods and her kings—even Pharaoh, and them that trust in him. ²⁶ I will hand them over to those seeking their lives, into the hand of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his servants. Yet afterwards it will be inhabited, as in the days of old.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁷ “But you, fear not, Jacob My servant,
nor be dismayed, O Israel.
For behold, I will save you from afar,
your offspring from the land of their exile.
And Jacob will return and be at peace and secure,
no one frightening him.

²⁸ Fear not, Jacob My servant”
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
“for I am with you.

I will make a full end of all the nations
where I have driven you,
but I will not make a full end of you.
I will discipline you with justice, but will not utterly destroy you.”

Prophecy against the Philistines

47 The word of ADONAI that came to the prophet Jeremiah concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck Gaza. ² Thus says ADONAI:

“Look, waters rising from the north will become an overflowing torrent, and overflow the land and all in it,
the city and those dwelling in it and the men will cry,
and every inhabitant of the land wail.

³ The noise—
the stomping hooves of his stallions, the rumbling of his chariots,

the reverberation of his wheels!
 Fathers will not turn back for their children because of their limp hands.
⁴ For the day is coming to devastate all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every remaining ally.
 For ADONAI will destroy the Philistines,
 the rest of the island of Caphtor.
⁵ Baldness has come upon Gaza,
 Ashkelon is ruined.
 O remnant of their valley,
 how long will you gash yourself?
⁶ O sword of ADONAI, how long until you are quiet?
 Go back into your sheath, rest and be still.
⁷ How can you be quiet
 when ADONAI has commanded?
 He has assigned it against Ashkelon and against the coast of the sea."

Prophecy against Moab

48 Concerning Moab, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot,
 the God of Israel:
 "Oy to Nebo! For it will be ravaged.
 Kiriathaim will be disgraced and captured.
 The fortress will be shamed, shattered.
² There is no more praise for Moab.
 In Heshbon they plotted evil against her:
 'Come, let's cut her off as a nation.'
 You too, Madmen, will be silenced—
 the sword will chase you.
³ The sound of outcry from Horonaim, devastation and great destruction!
⁴ Moab is shattered—her little ones have raised a cry to be heard.
⁵ For at the ascent of Luhith they go up with continual weeping.
 For on the descent to Horonaim they heard the foe's shattering cry.
⁶ Flee! Escape with your lives!
 Be like a tamarisk in the wilderness.
⁷ For because of your trust in your works and your treasures,
 you will be captured, too.
 Chemosh will go into exile,
 together with his priests and princes.
⁸ The destroyer will come to every town.
 No town will escape.
 The valley will perish
 and the plain will be destroyed, as ADONAI has said.
⁹ Give wings to Moab,
 for she must fly and get away.
 Her cities will become a wasteland, with no one living in them.
¹⁰ Cursed is the one who does the work of ADONAI with slackness,

and cursed is the one who withholds his sword from blood.

¹¹ Moab has been at ease since his youth.
 He has settled like wine on its dregs.
 He has not been emptied from jar to jar,
 nor gone into exile.
 Therefore he retains his flavor,
 and his aroma has not changed.
¹² Therefore behold, days are coming"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI —
 "when I will send to him those who will tip him up and over,
 and they will empty his vessels,
 and smash his jars in pieces.
¹³ So Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh just as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-El their confidence.
¹⁴ How can you say: 'We are warriors and men valiant for battle?'
¹⁵ Moab is ravaged, its towns entered, its choice young men gone down to slaughter."
 —It is a declaration of the King, whose Name is ADON- AI - Tzva'ot .

¹⁶ "Moab's calamity will come soon, and his downfall hastens swiftly.
¹⁷ Mourn for him,
 all who are around him,
 all who know his name.
 Say: 'How the mighty scepter,
 the splendid rod, is broken!'
¹⁸ O daughter dwelling in Dibon come down from your glory and sit in thirst!
 For Moab's destroyer has come to you.
 He has devastated your strongholds.
¹⁹ O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the road and watch—ask him fleeing and her escaping,
 'What has happened?'
²⁰ Moab is disgraced, indeed shattered.
 Wail and shriek!
 Declare by the Arnon, Moab is ruined!
²¹ Judgment has come on the tableland
 —on Holon, Jahzah, Mephaath, ²² on Dibon, Nebo, Beth-Diblathaim,
²³ on Kiriathaim, Beth-Gamul, Beth-Meon, ²⁴ on Keriioth, Bozrah, and all the towns of the land of Moab, far and near.
²⁵ The horn of Moab is cut off and his arm is broken!"
 It is a declaration of ADONAI .
²⁶ "Make him drunk,
 for he exalted himself against ADONAI .
 So Moab will wallow in his vomit and also become a laughingstock.
²⁷ After all, Israel is a laughingstock to you.
 Was he ever found among thieves, that whenever you speak of him,

you should wag the head?
²⁸ Inhabitants of Moab, leave the towns and dwell in crags—like a dove nesting in a cave's mouth.
²⁹ We have heard of the pride of Moab—
 —very proud he is—his haughtiness, his arrogance, his insolence,
 and his self-exalted heart.
³⁰ I know his arrogance," says ADONAI,
 "but it is dishonest—
 his boasts really accomplish nothing.
³¹ Therefore I wail for Moab!
 Yes, I cry out for all Moab, for the men of Kir-Heres I moan.
³² More than weeping of Jazer will I weep for you, vine of Sibmah!
 Your branches spread to the sea, reached as far as the sea of Jazer.
 On your summer fruits and your vintage the destroyer has fallen.
³³ So joy and gladness are taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab.
 I stopped wine from the winepresses.
 No one will tread with shouting—any shouting is not a shout of joy.
³⁴ "From the outcry of Heshbon to Elealeh, as far as Jahaz they will raise their voice—from Zoar to Horonaim and a three-year-old heifer †—for the Waters of Nimrim also will be waste. ³⁵ Moreover I will make an end in Moab"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"of the one offering on the high place and the one burning incense to his gods.
³⁶ "That is why my heart is moaning like funeral flutes for Moab, and my heart moans like flutes for the people of Kir-heres.
 Thus the wealth he made is lost.
³⁷ For every head is bald, every beard clipped,
 on all the hands are gashes,
 and around the waist sackcloth.
³⁸ On all the housetops of Moab and in its squares—lamentation everywhere!
 For I have broken Moab like a jar
 In which no one delights."
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI —
³⁹ "How shattered it is!" they wailed!
 'How Moab turned his back in shame!
 So Moab will become a laughingstock and a horror to all around him."
⁴⁰ For thus says ADONAI: "Behold, he will swoop down like a vulture and spread out his wings against Moab.
⁴¹ The towns are captured, the strongholds seized.
 The hearts of Moab's warriors in that day will be like the heart of a woman in labor.

⁴² Moab will be destroyed as a people, because he boasted against ADONAI.
⁴³ Panic, pit, and trap, are upon you, inhabitant of Moab," declares ADONAI.
⁴⁴ "The one who flees from panic will fall into the pit, and one who climbs out of the pit
 will be caught in the trap.
 For I will bring on Moab
 the year of their visitation."
 It is a declaration of ADONAI.
⁴⁵ "In the shadow of Heshbon the fugitives stop, exhausted, for fire breaks out of Heshbon, flame from within Sihon,
 and it singes the foreheads and the scalps of Moab's noisy sons.
⁴⁶ Oy to you, Moab!
 The people of Chemosh have perished!
 For your sons are taken away captive and your daughters into exile.
⁴⁷ Yet I will restore Moab from exile in the end of days."
 It is a declaration of ADONAI.
 "Until then this is the judgment of Moab."

Against Surrounding Nations

49 About Ammon's children, thus says ADONAI:
 "Has Israel no sons?
 Has he no heir?
 Why then did Malcam dispossess Gad and his people settled in its towns?
² Therefore behold, days are coming"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI —
 "when I will sound an alarm of war heard against Rabbah of Ammon!
 It will become a mound of ruins.
 Her villages will be burned with fire.
 Then Israel will dispossess those who dispossessed him."
 It is a declaration of ADONAI.
³ "Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is devastated!
 Cry, daughters of Rabbah!
 Wear sackcloth, lament,
 and run to and fro within the walls,
 for Malcam will go into captivity
 together with his priests and princes.
⁴ Why do you brag about valleys—your flowing valley, faithless daughter?
 Trusting in your treasures:
 'Who will come against me?'
⁵ I am about to bring terror on you"
 —a declaration of my Lord ADONAI - Tzva'ot —
 "from all those around you.
 Each of you will be banished headlong, with no one to gather the fugitives.

† Hebrew Eglat-shlishiyah

⁶ Yet afterward I will restore Ammon's children from exile."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

⁷ About Edom, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot:

"Is there no longer wisdom in Teman?

Is counsel lost to the prudent?

Has their wisdom vanished?

⁸ Flee! Turn back!

Stay low, inhabitants of Dedan, for I will bring Esau's calamity on him at the time that I punish him.

⁹ If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings?

If thieves came at night,
would they not destroy only enough for themselves?

¹⁰ But I will strip Esau bare.

I will uncover his hiding places,
so he will not be able to hide himself.

His offspring has been destroyed with his kinsmen and neighbors.

So he is nothing.

¹¹ Leave your orphans—I will keep them alive, and let your widows trust in Me."

¹² For thus says ADONAI:

"Behold, if those who do not deserve to drink the cup must surely drink,

can you go utterly unpunished?

You will not go unpunished, for you shall surely drink!

¹³ For I have sworn by Myself"

—it is a declaration of ADONAI —

"that Bozrah will become a horror, a disgrace, a waste and a curse.

All its towns will be ruins forever."

¹⁴ I heard a message from ADONAI.

An ambassador is sent to the nations:

"Gather together, come against her,
and rise up for war!

¹⁵ For see, I made you least among nations, despised among men.

¹⁶ Your terrorism has deceived you,
so that your heart is arrogant.

You who live in the clefts of the rock, who occupy the height of the hill.

Though you make your nest as high as an eagle's,
I will bring you down from there."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁷ "Edom will become a desolation.

Everyone passing by will be appalled and hiss at all its plagues.

¹⁸ Like the overthrow of Sodom, Gomorrah and their neighbors," says ADONAI,

"no one will live there,
nor any son of man dwell there.

¹⁹ Look, it is like a lion coming up from the thickets of the Jordan

to a secure pasture—

for abruptly I will make him run away from it.

I appoint over it whomever I choose.

For who is like Me?

Who will summon me to court?

What shepherd stands up to Me?"

²⁰ Therefore hear the plan that ADONAI has drawn up against Edom,

and His strategies that He designed against the inhabitants of Teman.

Surely the least of the flock will be dragged away, Surely He will make their pasture desolate because of them.

²¹ The earth will tremble at the noise of their downfall.

The sound of their outcry will be heard at the Sea of Reeds.

²² Behold, He will mount up and swoop down like an eagle,

and spread out His wings against Bozrah.

The hearts of Edom's warriors in that day will be like a woman's heart in her pangs.

²³ About Damascus: "Hamath and Arpad are ashamed,

for they heard bad news,

They melt away;

in the sea there is trouble that cannot be quiet.

²⁴ Damascus has become feeble.

She turns away to flee,

panic grips her,

anguish and pangs have seized her,

like a woman in travail.

²⁵ How is the city of praise deserted—

the city of my joy?

²⁶ Therefore her young men will fall in her squares—all the warriors will be silenced in that day."

It is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot.

²⁷ "I will set fire to the wall of Damascus—

it will devour Ben-Hadad's palaces."

²⁸ About Kedar and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck. Thus says

ADONAI:

"Arise, go up against Kedar and devastate the children of the east.

²⁹ They will take away their tents and their flocks.

They will carry away their curtains,

all their gear and their camels.

They will cry out against them,

'Terror on every side!'

³⁰ Flee! Scatter far!

Stay low, inhabitants of Hazor!"

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

"For King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and devised a plan against you.

³¹ Arise, go up against a nation at ease, dwelling securely," says ADONAI.

"They have no gates or bars;

they dwell alone.

³² Their camels will become plunder, their many cattle a spoil.

I will scatter to all the winds those who shave the edges.

I bring their calamity from every side."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

³³ "Hazor will be a lair of jackals, a desolation forever—
no one will abide there,
nor any son of man dwell there."

³⁴ The word of ADONAI that came to the prophet Jeremiah about Elam, at the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah, saying, ³⁵ thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot :

"Behold, I will break Elam's bow—the source of their might.

³⁶ I will bring upon Elam the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them to all those winds.
There will be no nation
where the dispersed of Elam will not go.

³⁷ I will shatter Elam before their enemies and before those seeking their soul.
I will bring calamity on them—
My burning anger!"

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

"I will send the sword after them until I have consumed them.

³⁸ Then I will put My throne in Elam and destroy from it king and princes."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

³⁹ "Yet it will be in the end of days, that I will restore Elam from exile."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Against Babylon

50 The word that ADONAI spoke about Babylon, about the land of the Chaldeans, through Jeremiah the prophet:

² "Declare it among the nations and proclaim!
Raise a banner, announce, hide nothing!
Say: 'Babylon will be captured,
Bel put to shame,
Merodach dismayed,
her images disgraced,
her idols shattered!'"

³ For a nation comes up against her out of the land of the north —it will desolate her land.
No one will dwell there—they have fled, gone, both man and beast."

Declaration of Restoration

⁴ "In those days and at that time"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
"the children of Israel will come, together with the children of Judah, weeping as they come,

and will seek ADONAI their God.

⁵ They will ask about Zion, the way—here are their faces! Come!

They will join themselves to ADONAI in an everlasting covenant that will never be forgotten. †

⁶ My people have been lost sheep. ††
Their shepherds led them astray.
Turning around in the mountains,
they went from mountain to hill,
and forgot their resting place.

⁷ Everyone finding them devoured them.
Their foes said: 'We're not guilty!'

Instead, they sinned against ADONAI, the habitation of justice—ADONAI, the hope of their fathers."

Doom of Babylon

⁸ "Flee from within Babylon, † get out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be like he-goats before the flock.

⁹ For I will soon stir up and bring against Babylon an alliance of great nations from the north.
They will form battle lines against her,
from there she will be captured.

Their arrows will be like a warrior who bereaves, not returning empty.

¹⁰ Chaldea will be a spoil—all who plunder her will be satisfied."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹¹ "Because you rejoice, because you exult—you who plunder My inheritance—because you frolic like a trampling heifer and neigh like stallions,

¹² your mother will be utterly ashamed,
she who bore you will be humiliated.
Behold, the least of the nations will be a wilderness,
a dry land, a desert."

¹³ Because of ADONAI's wrath, it will be uninhabited, all waste.
Everyone who passes by Babylon will be appalled, hissing at all her wounds.

¹⁴ Array against Babylon all around,
all you who bend the bow.
Shoot at her! Spare no arrows—for she has sinned against ADONAI.

¹⁵ Raise a war cry against her all around!
She has thrown up her hands,
her bulwarks are fallen,
her walls thrown down.

For it is ADONAI's vengeance:
take vengeance on her,
as she has done, do to her! ††

¹⁶ Cut off the sower from Babylon and the one who wields a sickle in the time of harvest.

† cf. Luke 22:20; Heb. 8:6-10. †† cf. Matt. 9:36; 10:6. ‡ cf. Rev. 18:4. †† cf. Rom. 12:19; Rev. 18:6.

Before the sword of the oppressor they will each turn to his people, each will flee to his own land.
17 Israel is a scattered flock—lions have driven them away.
First, Assyria's king devoured him.
This last one who broke his bones was King Nebuchadrezzar of Babylon.
18 Therefore thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot ,
the God of Israel:
"Indeed, I will punish Babylon's king and his land,
just as I punished Assyria's king.
19 I will bring Israel back to his pasture.
He will feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul will be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and Gilead.
20 In those days and in that time"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
"Israel's guilt will be sought, but there will be none,
also for the sins of Judah,
but they will not be found.
For I will pardon those whom I leave as a remnant.
21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, against the inhabitants of Pekod.
Put them to the sword and utterly destroy them"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
"and do all that I commanded you." 22 The noise of battle is in the land and great crashing.
23 How the hammer of the whole earth has been cut down and smashed!
How Babylon has become a horror among the nations!
24 I set a snare for you, so you were caught,
O Babylon, when you were unaware.
You were found and also caught, because you challenged ADONAI .
25 ADONAI has opened His armory and brought out the weapons of His indignation.
For it is a work that my Lord ADONAI -Tzva'ot has to do in the land of Chaldea.
26 Come against her from afar, open her granaries, pile her up like heaps and utterly destroy her!
Let nothing be left to her.
27 To the sword with all her bulls, going down to the slaughter!
Oy to them! Their day has come—
the time of their visitation.
28 The sound of fugitives, escaping out of the land of Babylon—
declaring in Zion the vengeance of ADONAI our God, vengeance for His Temple.
29 Summon archers to Babylon, all who bend the bow.

Encamp against her all around,
let no one there escape.
Repay her for her deed.
As all she has done, do to her. †
For she was arrogant against ADONAI , against the Holy One of Israel.
30 Therefore her young men will fall in her squares, all her warriors silenced in that day."
It is a declaration of ADONAI .
31 "Look, I am against you, arrogant one"
—declares my Lord ADONAI -Tzva'ot —
"for your day has come,
the time when I will punish you.
32 The arrogant will stumble and fall,
and no one will lift him up.
I will kindle fire in his cities,
and it will devour all who are round about him."
33 Thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot :
"The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together.
All their captors hold them fast.
They refused to let them go.
34 Their Redeemer is strong
— ADONAI - Tzva'ot is His Name—
He will vigorously plead their case, so He may give rest to the earth,
but trembling to the Babylonians.
35 "A sword is on the Chaldeans"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
"and on Babylon's inhabitants, and her officials and wise men.
36 A sword on the diviners—fools!
A sword on her warriors—shattered!
37 A sword on their horses, their chariots, on all the mixed people within her,
so they will become like women!
A sword on her treasures—
so they may be plundered.
38 A drought is on her waters,
so they will be dried up.
For it is a land of idols—
they are mad about horrible things.
39 So wildcats and hyenas will live there and ostriches settle there.
It will never again be inhabited or dwelt in from generation to generation. †† 40 As when Elohim overthrew Sodom, Gomorrah, and their neighbor towns"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
"so no man will live there, nor any son of man dwell in it. ‡ 41 Look! A people coming from the north, a great nation and many kings will rise up from the ends of the earth.
42 They grasp bow and javelin.
They are cruel, with no compassion.
Their voice roars like the sea,

† cf. Rev. 18:6. †† cf. Rev. 18:2. ‡ cf. Matt. 10:15; Jude 7.

as they ride on horses,
 arranged as warriors for battle, against you, daughter of Babylon.
⁴³ Babylon's king heard news of them.
 His hands droop;
 anguish grabs him,
 agony like a woman in labor.
⁴⁴ Look, it is like a lion coming up from the thickets of the Jordan
 to a secure pasture—
 for abruptly I will make him run away from it.
 I appoint over it whomever I choose.
 For who is like Me?
 Who will summon Me to court?
 What shepherd stands up to Me?"
⁴⁵ Therefore hear the plan that ADONAI has drawn up against Babylon,
 and His strategies that He designed against the land of the Chaldeans.
 Surely the least of the flock will be dragged away, Surely He will make their pasture desolate because of
 them.
⁴⁶ The earth will tremble at the noise of Babylon's capture.
 The sound of their outcry will be heard among the nations.

Apocalyptic Vengeance

51 Thus says ADONAI :
 "Look!
 Stirring up against Babylon and those living in Leb-Kamai,
 a spirit of destruction.
² I will send strangers to Babylon to scatter her and empty her land.
 For in the day of trouble
 they will be against her all around.
³ Let the archer bend his bow at her.
 Let him rise up at her in his armor.
 Do not spare her young men.
 Destroy her whole army.
⁴ They will fall down slain in the land of Chaldea, thrust through in her streets.
⁵ For neither Israel nor Judah will be widowed by his God, ADONAI - Tzva'ot , though their land is full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel.
⁶ Flee from within Babylon!
 Each one, escape with his soul!
 Be not silenced in her iniquity!
 For it is a time of vengeance for ADONAI .
 He will repay her recompense. † ⁷ Babylon has been a golden cup in ADONAI 's hand, intoxicating the whole earth.
 The nations drunk her wine—
 so the nations are going crazy.
⁸ Suddenly Babylon is fallen! ††

Shattered! Howl over her!
 Bring balm for her wound.
 Perhaps she may be healed?
⁹ We would have healed Babylon, but she cannot be healed.
 Abandon her!
 Let's go, each one to his own country, for her judgment has reached up to the heavens ‡ and has risen beyond the skies.
¹⁰ ADONAI has brought forth our vindication!
 Come, let us declare in Zion
 the work of ADONAI Eloheinu !
¹¹ Sharpen the arrows.
 Fill the quivers!
ADONAI has roused the spirit of the kings of the Medes.
 For His plan is against Babylon, to destroy it.
 For it is ADONAI 's vengeance, vengeance for His Temple.
¹² Raise a banner at Babylon's walls!
 Strengthen the guard.
 Station watchmen.
 Prepare ambushes.
 For ADONAI has both planned and accomplished what
 He spoke about the Babylonians.
¹³ You dwelling by many waters, rich in treasures, your end has come,
 the measure of your covetousness.
¹⁴ ADONAI - Tzva'ot has sworn by Himself:
 "Surely I will fill you with men like a locust swarm,
 and they will shout cheers over you."

Creator of All, Judge of All

¹⁵ One made the earth by His power, set up the world by His wisdom, and spread out the heavens by His knowledge. †† ¹⁶ At His giving voice—tumult of waters in the skies!
 He causes clouds to rise from the ends of the earth.
 He makes lightning for the rain
 and brings forth wind from His storehouses.
¹⁷ All mankind is stupid, ignorant.
 Every goldsmith is disgraced by an idol, for his molten image is a lie—
 there is no breath in them.
¹⁸ They are futile, a work of delusion.
 In the time of their visitation they will perish.
¹⁹ Jacob's Portion is not like these,
 for He is the former of all things, including the tribe of His heritage
 — ADONAI - Tzva'ot is His Name.
²⁰ "You are My club, a war weapon—with you I shatter nations, with you I destroy kingdoms.
²¹ With you I wreck horse and rider, with you I wreck chariot and rider,
²² with you I break man and woman,

† cf. Rev. 18:4. †† cf. Rev. 1:8; 18:2.

‡ cf. Rev. 18:5. †† cf. Rom. 1:20.

with you I break elder and youth,
 with you I break young man and maid, ²³ with you I scatter shepherd and flock, with you I scatter plowman and ox-team,
 with you I scatter governors and officials.
²⁴ I will repay Babylon and all living in Chaldea for all their evil that they did in Zion,
 before your eyes."

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

²⁵ "Beware! I am against you, destroyer of the Mount!"

—it is a declaration of ADONAI —

"Destroyer of all the land—
 I will stretch out My hand at you, roll you down from the cliffs,
 and make you a burning hill.

²⁶ They will not even take from you a cornerstone or foundation stone, for you will be desolate forever."

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

²⁷ Raise a banner in the land!

Blow a shofar among the nations!
 Consecrate the nations against her.
 Summon against her the kingdoms—Ararat, Minni and Ashkenaz.

Appoint a marshal against her.
 Bring horses up like rough locusts.

²⁸ Consecrate the nations against her,
 the kings of the Medes,
 its governors and all its deputies,
 and all the land of his dominion.

²⁹ Now the land shakes and writhes, for ADONAI 's plans against Babylon arise—to make the land of Babylon a desolation without inhabitant.

³⁰ Babylon's warriors ceased fighting.
 They stay in their strongholds.
 Their might is exhausted.
 They have become like women.
 Her dwellings are set ablaze,
 her gate-bars are broken.

³¹ One runner runs to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to tell Babylon's king that his city has been taken from end to end.

³² The fords have also been seized and the marshes burned with fire, so the warriors are in panic.

³³ For thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, the God of Israel:
 "The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at treading time.

A little longer,
 and the time of harvest for her will come."

³⁴ "Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon has devoured
 me,
 crushed me, set me aside like an empty dish, swallowed me up like a dragon, filled his belly with my delicacies, rinsed me away."

³⁵ The one dwelling in Zion says:

"Let the violence done to me and my flesh be upon Babylon!"

Jerusalem says:

"My blood be on the Chaldeans!"

³⁶ Therefore thus says ADONAI :

"Yes, I will uphold your cause and take vengeance for you.

I will dry up her sea,
 and make her fountain dry.

³⁷ Babylon will become heaps,
 a dwelling for jackals,
 a horror and a hissing, uninhabited.

³⁸ They roar together like young lions, growl like lions cubs.

³⁹ When they become hot,
 I will set out a banquet for them and will make them so drunk that they become merry—and then sleep a perpetual sleep and never awake."

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

⁴⁰ "I will drag them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.

⁴¹ How has Sheshach † been taken,
 the praise of the whole earth seized?

How has Babylon become a horror among the nations!

⁴² The sea has risen over Babylon—
 she is covered with its roaring waves.

⁴³ Her cities became desolation, a dry land, desert, uninhabited land,
 through which no son of man passes.

⁴⁴ I will punish Bel in Babylon—
 What he swallowed I will make him disgorge out of his mouth.

Nations will no longer stream to him.
 Yes, the wall of Babylon has fallen!

⁴⁵ Come out of her, My people!

Each of you,
 save your soul from the fierce anger of ADONAI .

⁴⁶ Do not be faint-hearted, or be intimidated by the rumor heard in the land—

one year one rumor comes, next year, another rumor.

Yet violence will be in the land, with ruler against ruler.

⁴⁷ Therefore behold, days are coming when I will punish Babylon's idols.

Her entire land will be disgraced and all her slain will fall in her midst.

⁴⁸ Then heaven and the earth and all that is in them will sing for joy over Babylon, †† for the destroyers from the north will come to her."

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

† Another name for Babylon †† cf. Rev. 18:20.

⁴⁹ Yes, Babylon is to fall for the slain of Israel, even as the slain of all the earth fell to Babylon.

⁵⁰ Escapees from the sword, go!

Do not stand still!

Remember ADONAI from afar—and make aliyah to Jerusalem in your heart.

⁵¹ “We were shamed
when we heard reproach.

Disgrace has covered our faces, for foreigners entered the holy places of ADONAI’s House.”

⁵² “Therefore behold, days are coming”

—it is a declaration of ADONAI —

“when I will punish her idols, and the wounded will groan throughout all her land.

⁵³ Even if Babylon went up to heaven and even if she fortified the height of her stronghold, from Me destroyers will come to her.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

⁵⁴ The sound of an outcry from Babylon!
Great ruin from the land of Chaldea!

⁵⁵ For ADONAI is devastating Babylon, and will silence her loud voice.

Their waves will roar like many waters.

The noise of their voices will resound.

⁵⁶ For a destroyer is coming against her, against Babylon,

and her warriors will be captured, their bows broken.

For ADONAI is a God of restitution,
He will fully repay.

⁵⁷ “I will intoxicate her officials and sages, her governors, deputies, and warriors,
and they will sleep a perpetual sleep, and not awake.”

It is a declaration of the King,
whose Name is ADONAI - Tzva’ot .

⁵⁸ Thus says ADONAI - Tzva’ot :

“Babylon’s thick wall will be totally razed and her high gates burned with fire.

So the peoples are toiling for nothing, and nations weary themselves for fire.”

⁵⁹ The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, when he went with King Zedekiah of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was quartermaster.

⁶⁰ And Jeremiah wrote in a single scroll all the evil that would come upon Babylon, including all these words that were written about Babylon.

⁶¹ Then Jeremiah said to Seraiah: “When you arrive in Babylon, then see that you read all these words, ⁶² and say: ‘ADONAI, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that nothing will dwell there, neither man nor beast, but that it will be desolate forever.’

⁶³ “Now when you have finished reading this scroll, you will tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates. ⁶⁴ Then you will say: ‘Thus will Babylon sink, and not rise again, because of the calamity that I will bring on her. So they will weary themselves.”

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

Babylon Destroys Jerusalem

52 Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king and he reigned 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ² And he did what was evil in ADONAI’s eyes, just like all Jehoiakim had done. ³ Because of ADONAI’s anger it came to the point in Jerusalem and Judah that He had them cast out of His presence.

So Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ⁴ It came to pass in the ninth year of his reign in the tenth month, the tenth day of the month, that King Neb-uchadrezzar of Babylon came—he and all his army—against Jerusalem, and besieged it. They built a siege wall all around it. ⁵ So the city was besieged until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

⁶ In the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the famine was so severe in the city, that there was no food for the people of the land. ⁷ Then the city was broken into, and all the men of war fled, going out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was near the king’s garden—even though the Chaldeans were all around the city. They were heading along the way of the Arabah.

⁸ But the Chaldean army pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the desert plains of Jericho. Then all his army was scattered from him. ⁹ Then they took the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Ri-blah in the land of Hamath. He passed judgment on him.

¹⁰ At Riblah, the king of Babylon slaughtered Zede-kiah’s sons before his eyes, and also all the Judean leaders. ¹¹ Then he put out Zedekiah’s eyes. Then the king of Babylon bound him in bronze chains, and brought him to Babylon, where he put him in prison until the day of his death.

¹² Now in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month—which was the nineteenth year of King Neb-uchadrezzar, king of Babylon—Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard came into Jerusalem to represent the king of Babylon. ¹³ Then he burned the House of ADONAI, the king’s house, and all the houses of Jerusalem.
He burned every large house with fire. ¹⁴ Then all the Chaldean army, which was with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around.

¹⁵ Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried into exile some of the poorest of the people, the rest of the people who were left in the city, the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon, and what remained of the craftsmen. ¹⁶ But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and plowmen.

¹⁷ The Chaldeans smashed the bronze pillars of the House of ADONAI, the stands and the bronze sea that were in the House of ADONAI, and carried all the bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸ The pots, the shovels, the wick trimmers, the basins, the pans, and all the bronze articles for Temple service, they also took away. ¹⁹ The cups, the fire-pans, the basins, the pots, the menorot, the pans, and the drink offering bowls—whatever was gold or silver—the captain of the guard took away.

²⁰ As for the 12 pillars, one sea, and 12 bronze bulls that were under the stands that King Solomon had made for the House of ADONAI—all these articles had bronze beyond weighing. ²¹ The height of one pillar was 18 cubits and it was 12 cubits in circumference and four fingers in its thickness—it was hollow.

²⁴ Then the captain of the guard took Seraiah the kohen gadol, and Zephaniah the second kohen, and the three doorkeepers. ²⁵ From the city he took an officer who had been appointed over the men of war as well as seven men who saw the king's face, who were found in the city, the scribe of the commander of the army, who enlisted people of the land, and 60 men of the people of the land who were found within the city.

²⁶ Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

²⁷ The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Then Judah was led away into exile from its land.

²⁸ These are the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year 3,023 Jews; ²⁹ in Nebuchadrezzar's eighteenth year, 832 people from Jerusalem; ³⁰ in the Nebuchadrezzar's twenty-third year, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard exiled 745 of the Jews—all together 4,600 people.

Release of King Jehoiachin

³¹ Now it came to pass on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Judah's King Jehoiachin, that king Evil-Merodach of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Judah's king Jehoiachin, and released him out of prison. ³² He spoke kindly to him and gave him a throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³ Then he changed out of his prison garments, and dined regularly before him all the days of his life. ³⁴ As for his allowance, a regular allowance was given to him by the king of Babylon, a portion for each day until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Lamentations

Lamentations Introduction

The Hebrew name for Lamentations is Eychah, אֵיךָ כְּהָאֵיךָ, the first word of the book (Lam. 1:1). It means 'alas! how!' as an indication of mourning and is used to begin a funeral dirge (see Isa. 1:21 and Jer. 48:17). The English name comes from the Septuagint and the Latin Vulgate, which get it from the Hebrew אֵיךָ, meaning Lamentations. In classical Judaism, the prophet Jeremiah, יְרֵמְיָהוּ, is traditionally attributed as the author (Bava Batra 15a). We know that he did give lamentations on other occasions (2 Chron. 35:25 and Jer. 7:29). The graphic and heart-wrenching language of mourning the Temple's destruction support the book's writing in the land shortly after the destruction in 586 BC, but no later than 575 BC.

The five chapters provide five laments of twenty two verses each (except the third one, which has sixty six verses). Chapters 1-4 are an alphabetic acrostic. In chapters 1, 2 and 4, each of the 22 verses begins with a successive letter of the Hebrew א-ת; while in chapter 3, there are three verses for each successive Hebrew letter. Chapters 2-4 though reverse the normal order of the Hebrew letters and in the א-ת. This indicates to the Hebrew reader that something is not right and adds to the disruption and mourning over the destruction expressed in the book. The book was written to the Jewish people to express mourning over the destruction of Jerusalem and the First Temple (Lam. 2:5-9), those of all ages who suffered (Lam. 2:6, 9-11, 4:4-5, 9-10), those who lost their lives (Lam. 1:19-20), and those who were taken into captivity (Lam. 1:18). was righteous (Lam. 1:18) in this judgment (Lam. 1:12-15, 2:1-8, 17, 4:11) through the Babylonians due to the peoples' many sins (Lam. 1:5, 8-9, 18, 4:6). lovingkindness and compassion nevertheless offered hope (Lam. 3:21-66) that He would not reject Israel forever (Lam. 3:31). will be just and also judge Judah's enemies who rejoiced in her destruction (Lam. 1:21-22, 3:63-66, 4:21-22). The people needed to repent of their sins and return to (Lam. 3:39-40), then there would be hope for their restoration (Lam. 5:21-22). Thankfully, due to His lovingkindness and forgiveness, there is always hope for restoration in א-ת.

In the midst of this somber book, Lamentations 3:21-26 (especially, Lam. 3:22-23) shine like a bright light of hope expressing some of magnificent attributes. א-ת, loving kindness, and compassion indeed never fail and are new every morning. Great is His faithfulness! Also Lamentations 5:21 is a wonderful prayer for restoration and is part of the beautiful Jewish liturgy, א-ת, meaning "Tree of Life." We do well to consider that He who gave His life on a tree is the ultimate symbol of God's lovingkindness, thus Himself a worthy object of our reverence and devotion.

Song of Jerusalem's Groaning

1 How lonely sits the city, once so full of people!
 She who was once great among the nations has become like a widow.
 The princess among the provinces has become a forced laborer.

² Bitterly she weeps in the night,
 her tears are on her cheeks.
 Among all her lovers,
 there is no one to comfort her.
 All her friends have betrayed her.
 They have become her enemies!
³ Judah is gone into exile under affliction and great servitude.
 She dwells among the nations.

She finds no resting place.
 All her pursuers have overtaken her in the midst of her distress.
⁴The roads to Zion mourn for no one comes to her moadim .
 All her gates are desolate.
 Her kohanim groan, her maidens [†] grieve—
 she is in bitter anguish.
⁵Her foes have become her masters.
 Her enemies are at ease.
 For ADONAI has afflicted her, because of her many transgressions.
 Her children have gone away
 as captives before the adversary.
⁶All her splendor has departed, from the daughter of Zion.
 Her princes are like stags that find no pasture.
 They have fled without strength before the pursuer.
⁷In the days of her affliction and her wandering, Jerusalem remembers all the treasures that were hers from the days of old.
 When her people fell into enemy hands,
 there was no one to help her.
 Her enemies saw her and mocked at her destruction.
⁸Jerusalem has greatly sinned—therefore, she has become niddah .
 All who honored her despise her,
 for they have seen her nakedness.
 She herself groans,
 and turns away.
⁹Her uncleanness was in her skirts.
 She did not consider her future.
 Her demise was astonishing,
 there was no one to comfort her.
 “ADONAI , see my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!” ¹⁰The enemy has stretched his hand over all her treasures.
 She even saw nations enter her sanctuary—those You had commanded not to enter Your congregation.
¹¹All her people groan,
 as they seek bread.
 They traded their treasures for food
 to keep themselves alive.
 “Look, ADONAI , and see!
 For I have become despised!”
¹²“Is it nothing to you,
 all you who pass by on the road?
 Look and see!
 Is any suffering like my suffering that was brought on me, that ADONAI has inflicted in the day of His fierce anger?

¹³From on high He sent fire into my bones and it overcame them.
 He spread out a net for my feet;
 He turned me back.
 He made me desolate,
 faint all the day long.
¹⁴My transgressions are bound into a yoke, woven together by His hand.
 They have come upon my neck and He has sapped my strength.
 The Lord delivered me over to those I cannot withstand.
¹⁵The Lord has rejected
 all the mighty ones in my midst.
 He has summoned an assembly against me to crush my young men.
 In a winepress the Lord has trampled ^{††} the virgin daughter of Judah.
¹⁶Over these things I weep.
 My eyes overflow with water.
 For far from me is a comforter, who might refresh my soul.
 My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.”
¹⁷Zion spreads out her hands—
 there is no one to comfort her.
ADONAI has decreed against Jacob.
 Those surrounding him have become his foes; Jerusalem has become niddah in their eyes.
¹⁸“ ADONAI is righteous, for I have rebelled against His word.
 Hear now, all peoples—
 look at my suffering!
 My maidens and my young men have gone into captivity.
¹⁹I called to my lovers—
 they deceived me!
 My kohanim and my elders perished in the city when they sought food
 to keep themselves alive.
²⁰Look, ADONAI , for I am in distress!
 My stomach churns,
 my heart pounds within me,
 for I have been very rebellious.
 Outside, the sword bereaves, in the house it is like death.
²¹They have heard me groaning.
 There is no one to comfort me.
 All my enemies heard of my distress,
 They rejoice that You have done it.
 May You bring about the day that You proclaimed, so they may become like me!

[†] Lit. virgins

^{††} cf. Rev. 14:19-20.

²² Let all their evil come before You.
Deal with them as you dealt with me,
because of all my transgressions.
For my groans are many and my heart is faint!"

Lament for Zion

2 How my Lord has clouded over the daughter of Zion in His anger!
He hurled down the splendor of Israel from heaven to earth.
He has not remembered His footstool in the day of His anger.
² My Lord has mercilessly swallowed up all the dwellings of Jacob.
He threw down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah in His fury.
He knocked to the ground and humiliated
the kingdom and its princes.
³ In fierce anger He has cut off every horn of Israel.
He has withdrawn His right hand from before the enemy.
He blazed against Jacob like raging fire, devouring everything around.
⁴ He bent His bow like an enemy, set His right hand like a foe,
and killed all those pleasant to the eye.
In the tent of the daughter of Zion
He has poured out His wrath like fire.
⁵ My Lord is like an enemy.
He has swallowed up Israel.
He swallowed up all her citadels, destroyed her fortifications and multiplied mourning and moaning for the daughter of Judah.
⁶ Like the garden He laid waste His dwelling, destroyed His appointed meeting place.
ADONAI has caused moed and Shabbat
to be forgotten in Zion.
In the indignation of His anger
He spurned king and kohen .
⁷ The Lord rejected His altar, despised His Sanctuary.
He has delivered the walls of her citadels into the hand of the enemy.
They raised a shout in the house of ADONAI
as if it were the day of a moed .
⁸ ADONAI resolved to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion.
He stretched out a measuring line.
He did not withdraw His hand from destroying.
He caused rampart and wall to lament—together they languished away.
⁹ Her gates sank into the ground.
Her bars He destroyed and shattered.
Her king and princes are among nations.
There is no more Torah .

Also her prophets find no vision from ADONAI .
¹⁰ The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground in silence.
They threw dust on their heads and girded themselves with sackcloth.
The maidens of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.
¹¹ My eyes are filled with tears.
My stomach is in torment.
My heart † is poured out on the ground over the destruction of the daughter of my people—as young children and infants languish in the city squares.
¹² They say to their mothers,
"Where is grain and wine?"
as they faint like a wounded soldier in the city squares, as their lives ebb away
in their mothers' bosom.
¹³ How can I admonish you?
To what can I compare you,
O daughter of Jerusalem?
To what can I liken you, so that I might console you,
O virgin daughter of Zion?
For your wound is as deep as the sea!
Who can heal you?
¹⁴ Your prophets have seen for you false and worthless visions.
They did not expose your iniquity,
so as to restore your captivity.
Rather, they have seen for you false and worthless oracles.
¹⁵ All who pass your way
clap their hands at you.
They hiss and shake their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem.
"Is this the city of which they said,
'The perfection of beauty,
the joy of the whole earth?'" ¹⁶ All your enemies opened their mouth wide against you;
they hissed and gnashed their teeth,
and say, "We have swallowed her up!
Surely this is the day we have waited for;
we have lived to see it!"
¹⁷ ADONAI has done what He planned;
He has fulfilled His word that He commanded from days of old.
He has overthrown you without pity,
He enabled the enemy to gloat over you.
He has exalted the horn of your foes.
¹⁸ Their heart cried out to the Lord:
O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down
like a river day and night.
Give yourself no relief,

† Lit. liver

your eyes no rest.
 19 Arise! Cry out in the night at the beginning of the watches!
 Pour out your heart like water before the presence of the Lord.
 Lift up your hands to Him for the life of your children who faint from hunger
 at the head of every street.
 20 Look, ADONAI, and consider with whom You have dealt so severely!
 Should women eat their offspring, their healthy newborn infants?
 Should kohen and prophet be slain
 in the Sanctuary of the Lord?
 21 On the ground in the streets lie both young and old.
 My maidens and my young men have fallen by the sword.
 You slew them in the day of Your anger.
 You slaughtered them without pity.
 22 As on a moed day, You summon against me terrors on every side.
 On the day of the wrath of ADONAI
 no one escaped or survived.
 Those whom I bore and raised my enemy has destroyed.

3 I am the strong man who has seen affliction
 by the rod of His wrath.
 2 He has driven me and made me walk in darkness and not light.
 3 Surely, He has turned His hand against me again and again all day long.
 4 He made my flesh and my skin waste away, broken my bones.
 5 He has besieged me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.
 6 He made me dwell in dark places like those long dead.
 7 He has walled me in so I cannot get out.
 He made my chain heavy.
 8 Even when I cry out and call for help,
 He shuts out my prayer.
 9 He walled in my ways with hewn stone.
 He twisted my paths.
 10 He is a lurking bear to me, a lion in hiding.
 11 He turned aside my paths and tore me to pieces.
 He has made me desolate.
 12 He bent His bow and made me
 the target for His arrow.
 13 He shot into my kidneys arrows from His quiver.
 14 I have become a laughing stock to all my people,
 their song all day long.
 15 He has filled me with bitterness and made me drink wormwood.

16 He broke my teeth with gravel.
 He made me wallow in ashes.
 17 My soul has been deprived of shalom,
 I have forgotten goodness.
 18 So I said, "My endurance has perished, and my hope from ADONAI."
 19 Remember my affliction my homelessness, bitterness and gall.
 20 Whenever I remember, my soul is downcast within me.

Our Hope—His Faithfulness

21 This I recall to my heart—
 therefore I have hope:
 22 Because of the mercies of ADONAI
 we will not be consumed, for His compassions never fail.
 23 They are new every morning!
 Great is Your faithfulness.
 24 " ADONAI is my portion," says my soul,
 "therefore I will hope in Him."
 25 ADONAI is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul that seeks Him.
 26 It is good to wait quietly for the salvation of ADONAI.
 27 It is good for a man to bear the yoke in his youth.
 28 Let him sit alone and be silent, since He has laid it upon him.
 29 Let him put his mouth in the dust—
 there may yet be hope.

Intercession for Justice

30 Let him offer his cheek to the one who strikes him. †
 Let him have his fill of disgrace.
 31 For the Lord will not reject forever.
 32 For though He has caused grief, yet He will have compassion
 according to His abundant mercies.
 33 For He does not afflict from His heart or grieve the sons of men.
 34 To crush under His foot
 all the prisoners of the land, 35 to deprive a person of justice before the face of Elyon, 36 to defraud a person in his lawsuit—would the Lord not see?
 37 Who speaks and it comes to pass unless the Lord has decreed it?
 38 Is it not from the mouth of Elyon that both calamities and good things proceed?
 39 Why should any living person complain when punished for his sins?
 40 Let us examine and test our ways, and let us return to ADONAI.

† cf. Matt. 5:39.

41 Let us lift up our heart and hands to God in heaven.
 42 We have transgressed and rebelled—
You have not pardoned.
 43 You covered Yourself with anger and pursued us.
You have slain without pity.
 44 You shrouded Yourself with a cloud so that no prayer can get through.
 45 You have made us scum and refuse in the midst of the peoples.
 46 All our enemies opened their mouth wide against us.
 47 Panic and pitfall have befallen us, devastation and destruction.
 48 Streams of tears run down my eyes because of the destruction of the daughter of my people.
 49 My eye flows unceasingly, without stopping,
 50 until ADONAI looks down from heaven and sees.
 51 My eye torments my soul because of all the daughters of my city.
 52 For no reason, my enemies hunted me down like a bird.
 53 They cut off my life in the Pit, and cast stones upon me.
 54 Waters flowed over my head.
I said, "I have been cut off!"
 55 I called on Your Name, ADONAI, from the depths of the Pit.
 56 You heard my voice,
"Do not close Your ears to my cry for relief."
 57 You drew near on the day I called to You.
You said, "Do not fear!"
 58 Lord, You pled my soul's case,
You redeemed my life. †
 59 ADONAI, You saw the wrong done to me;
judge my cause!
 60 You have seen all their vengefulness, all their schemes against me.
 61 You heard their taunt, ADONAI, all their plots against me.
 62 The lips of my assailants and their whispering are against me all day long.
 63 Look at them, sitting or standing,
they mock me in their song.
 64 Pay them back what they deserve, ADONAI, according to the work of their hands.
 65 Give them a distraught heart.
May Your curse be on them.
 66 Pursue them in anger and destroy them from under the heavens of ADONAI.

Devastation of Jerusalem

4 How dulled is the gold, how tarnished the fine gold.

† cf. 1 John 2:1.

The sacred gems are poured out at the corner of every street.
 2 The precious sons of Zion, once worth their weight in gold—alas! now they are treated like clay jars, the work of a potter's hands!
 3 Even jackals offer their breast to nurse their young.
 The daughter of my people has become cruel,
like ostriches in the desert.
 4 The nursing infant's tongue clings to the roof of his mouth for thirst.
 Little children ask for bread,
but no one gives it to them.
 5 Those who used to eat delicacies are desolate in the streets.
 Those who were brought up in purple embrace trash heaps.
 6 For the iniquities of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, ††
yet no hands turned to her.
 7 Purer than snow were her princes, ‡ whiter than milk,
their bodies more ruddy than rubies,
their appearance like sapphire.
 8 Their form has become darker than soot!
They are not recognized in the street.
 Their skin has shriveled on their bones,
withered like a tree.
 9 Better are those slain by the sword than those struck down by famine—they waste away, racked with pain, for lack of fruits of the field.
 10 The hands of compassionate women boiled their own children.
 They became their food
when the daughter of my people were destroyed.
 11 ADONAI has vented His fury.
He has poured out His burning anger.
 Yes, He kindled a fire in Zion that devoured her foundations.
 12 The kings of the earth did not believe,
nor did the inhabitants of the world, that enemy and foe would enter the gates of Jerusalem.
 13 Yet it happened because of the sins of her prophets,
and the iniquities of her kohanim, who shed in her midst
the blood of the tzaddikim ‡†.
 14 They wander in the streets, like blind men.
 They are so defiled with blood,
no one can touch their garments.
 15 "Turn away! Unclean!"

†† cf. Luke 10:12; 2 Pet. 2:6. ‡ Or Nazirite, consecrated ones ‡† Or just ones the righteous

They cry to them.
 "Turn away, turn away! Don't touch!"
 So they fled and wandered about.
 People among the nations say,
 "They can stay here no longer."
¹⁶ ADONAI Himself has scattered them.
 He will look on them no more.
 They did not respect the kohanim.
 They did not favor the elders.
¹⁷ Even now our eyes waste away looking in vain for our help.
 From our towers we watched for a nation that could not save us.
¹⁸ They hunted our steps,
 so we could not walk in our streets.
 Our end was near.
 Our days were numbered, for our end had come.
¹⁹ Our pursuers were swifter than eagles of the sky;
 they pursued us over the mountains;
 they ambushed us in the wilderness.
²⁰ The anointed of ADONAI, the breath of our nostrils, was captured in their pits,
 of whom we have said,
 "Under His shadow we will live among the nations."
²¹ Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, you who dwell in the land of Uz.
 To you also will the cup be passed.
 You will be drunk and stripped naked.
²² O daughter of Zion, your punishment is accomplished;
 He will exile you no longer.
 But, O daughter of Edom,
 He will punish your iniquity and uncover your sins.

Remember Us!

5 Remember, ADONAI, what has come upon us.
 Look, and see our disgrace!
² Our inheritance is turned over to strangers,
 our homes to foreigners.
³ We have become orphans, fatherless, our mothers are like widows.

⁴ We pay silver for the water we drink;
 our wood comes at a price.
⁵ Our pursuers are at our necks.
 We are weary and have no rest.
⁶ We have held out our hand to Egypt and Assyria to be satisfied with bread.
⁷ Our fathers sinned and are no more,
 but we bear their punishment.
⁸ Slaves rule over us.
 There is no one to deliver us from their hand.
⁹ We get our bread at the peril of our lives because of the sword in the desert.
¹⁰ Our skin is hot as an oven due to fever from famine.
¹¹ The women in Zion have been ravished, maidens in the towns of Judah.
¹² Princes are hung up by their hands;
 elders are dishonored.
¹³ Young men toil at the millstone.
 Boys stagger under loads of wood.
¹⁴ Elders are gone from the gate, young men from their music.
¹⁵ Joy has ceased in our hearts.
 Our dance has turned into mourning.
¹⁶ The crown has fallen from our head.
 Oy to us, for we have sinned!
¹⁷ Because of this our heart is faint, for these things our eyes are dim, ¹⁸ for Mount Zion, which lies desolate, as jackals prowl over it.

Hashiveinu (Restore Us)

¹⁹ You, ADONAI, are enthroned forever;
 Your throne endures from generation to generation.
 †
²⁰ Why do You always forget us and forsake us for so long?
²¹ Bring us back to You, ADONAI, and we will return.
 Renew our days as of old—²² unless You have utterly rejected us and are exceedingly angry with us.

Ezekiel

Ezekiel Introduction

Ezekiel was one of the most controversial of Israel's prophets. He never tickled his recipient's ears; he warned them of God's judgment with the exhortation to repent. His name in Hebrew, לְאֶזְקִיָּאל means "God strengthens." It is believed that Ezekiel began his prophetic office around 590-550 BCE. He was a contemporary of Daniel. His first vision occurred at the river Chebar. Four impressive beings appeared to him, moving only as directed by the Spirit of God. God's glory appeared in the midst of the four beings and four wheels. Ezekiel was so overwhelmed that he fell prostrate in the presence of God.

God commissioned Ezekiel to go to the house of Israel. Throughout chapters 2 and 3, the words "stubborn" and "rebellious house" are frequently used, to impress upon Ezekiel of the seriousness of the mission. He was only to speak what spoke to him. Inaccurate reporting was not to be accepted by God. We must adhere to the same integrity as followers of God. What an encouragement we can glean from Ezekiel's steadfastness in the midst of rejection and pain!

God called Ezekiel to participate in four actions: writing on a brick, lying on each side for a period of time, baking bread with human dung (changed to cattle dung), and parting his hair in thirds. God has His purposes of getting one's attention. The phrase "they will know that I am" appears over sixty times in the book of Ezekiel. God was serious about His warnings.

As it is in this 21st century, so it was in Ezekiel's time that the mountains of Israel were silent participants. Ezekiel issued a prophecy to the mountains. He exhorted the people to be assured that the day of will indeed come, yet they still had time to repent. Their pagan ceremonies and ritual ablutions were empty elaborate demonstrations of vanity. However, the people did not heed Ezekiel; they continued in their idolatrous, heathen worship. In 591 BCE, the prophet had a vision that the glory of God would depart from the Temple. The vision came true and judgment fell hard upon Israel. Ezekiel likened Israel to a rusty pot, contaminated and not fit for use.

Ezekiel continued to exhort the nations: Ammon, Moab, Edom, Philistia, Tyre, Sidon and Egypt—none were spared of his condemnation. Today, these nations may bring threat against Israel, but no weapon formed against her shall prosper.

Ezekiel held out hope that Israel would repent. In chapter 33, Ezekiel was called to be a watchman for God's people. Yet, even as Jerusalem lay in ruins, the people refused to repent. They were indeed a stubborn and rebellious people.

Finally, chapters 40-48 document Ezekiel's vision of Jerusalem restored. Although scholars disagree on the many interpretations of these chapters, one thing is for certain: a New Jerusalem is coming. Her twelve gates will be restored. The name of this city is to be "is there." As followers of , we have this promise "But as it is written: "Things no eye has seen and no ear has heard that have not entered the heart of mankind – these things God has prepared those who love Him" (1 Cor. 2:9, cf. Isa. 64:4). means "God strengthens." It is believed that Ezekiel began his prophetic office around 590-550 BCE. He was a contemporary of Daniel.

¹ In the thirtieth year on the fifth day of the fourth month, as I was among the exiles by the river Chebar, the heavens opened, and I saw visions of God. ² In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, ³ the word of ADONAI came to Ezekiel the kohen, son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar. (The hand of ADONAI was upon him there.)

Vision of Supernatural Beings

⁴ I looked, and behold, a storm wind came from the north, a great cloud with flashing fire and brightness all around it, and something like a glowing alloy [†] out of the fire. ⁵ From within it came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had a likeness of a human, ⁶ but each one had four faces and each one of them had four wings. ⁷ Their legs were straight and the soles of their feet were like the hoof of a calf. They sparkled like the color of burnished bronze. ⁸ They had human hands under their wings on their four sides. The four of them had faces and wings: ⁹ their wings touched one another; they did not turn when they moved; each could move in the direction of any of its faces. ¹⁰ As for the form of their faces, each had a human face, the four had the face of a lion on the right side, the four had the face of an ox on the left side, and the four had the face of an eagle. ¹¹ Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above.

Each creature had two wings touching the wing of another, while another two were covering their bodies. ¹² Now each being could move in the direction of any of its faces; wherever the Ruach would go, they went, without turning as they went.

¹⁷ When they went, they went in any of their four directions without pivoting as they went. ¹⁸ Their rims were high and awesome—all four rims were full of eyes all around. ¹⁹ When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them. When the living creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose. ²⁰ Wherever the Ruach wanted to go, they went, in the direction the Ruach wanted to go. The wheels rose along with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²¹ Whenever the creatures went, the wheels went. When the creatures stood still, these wheels stood still. When the creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

²⁶ Above the expanse over their heads was something like a throne, resembling a sapphire stone. Above the shape of the throne was a figure of human appearance. ²⁷ From what appeared as his waist upward, I saw a glowing metal, looking like a fire encased in a frame. From what was like his waist down, I saw the appearance of fire radiating around him.

²⁸ Like the appearance of the rainbow † in the cloud on a rainy day, so was the appearance of the radiance. It was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of ADONAI. I saw it, fell upon my face, and heard the voice of the One who was speaking.

A Rebellious House

² Then He said to me: “Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you.” ² As He spoke to me, the Ruach came upon me and stood me up on my feet. I heard Him speaking to me again.

³ He said to me, “Son of man, I send you to Bnei-Yisrael, to rebellious nations that have been rebelling against Me. They and their fathers have rebelled against Me to this very day. ⁴ The children have hard faces and stubborn hearts. I am sending you to them, and you are to tell them, ‘Thus says ADONAI Elohim.’ ⁵ Whether they listen, or whether they will refuse to listen—for they are a rebellious house—they will know that a prophet was among them.

⁶ “But you, son of man, do not be afraid of them. Do not fear their words, though thistles and thorns are beside you and you sit among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words or be dismayed by their looks—for they are a rebellious house. ⁷ You will speak My words to them, whether they will listen or whether they will refuse to listen—for they are rebellious. ⁸ Now you, son of man, hear what I say to you: do not be rebellious like that rebellious house. Open your mouth, and eat what I am giving to you.”

⁹ I looked, and behold, a hand was stretched out to me, holding a written scroll. ¹⁰ He spread it out before me. It was written on, front and back. Written on it were lamentations, dirges, and woe.

Eat the Scroll

³ Then He said to me, “Son of man, eat what you find—eat this scroll. Then go, speak to the house of Israel.” ² So I opened my mouth, and He gave me that scroll to eat, ³ as He said to me, “Son of man, feed your belly with this scroll that I am giving you and fill your stomach with it.” I ate it and it tasted as sweet as honey.

⁴ Then He said to me, “Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak My words to them. ⁵ For you are not sent to a people of unintelligible speech and difficult tongue, but to the house of Israel, ⁶ nor to many peoples of unintelligible speech or difficult tongue, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I sent you to such, they would listen to you. ⁷ But the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to Me. Surely the whole house of Israel has a hard forehead and a stubborn heart.

¹⁰ Furthermore, He said to me: “Son of man, receive in your heart and hear with your ears all My words that I will speak to you. ¹¹ Go to the exiles, to the children of your people. Speak to them. Tell them, ‘Thus says ADONAI Elohim.’ Whether they will listen or whether they will refuse to listen.”

¹² Then the Ruach lifted me up. I heard behind me the sound of a great earthquake—“Blessed is the glory of ADONAI from His place!”—¹³ also the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, the sound of the wheels beside them, and the sound of a great earthquake. ¹⁴ The Ruach lifted me up and took me away. I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit. The hand of ADONAI was strong upon me. ¹⁵ I came to the exiles at Tel-Abib who lived by the river Chebar. I sat where they were dwelling. I sat there overwhelmed among them for seven days.

Watchman Must Warn

¹⁶ Now at the end of seven days, the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹⁷ “Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for the house of Israel. When you hear a word from My mouth, give them a warning from Me. ¹⁸ When I say to the wicked, ‘You will surely die,’ and you do not warn him or speak to warn the wicked of his wicked way, to save his life, that wicked person will die in his iniquity, but I will require his blood from your hand. ¹⁹ Yet you, if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness or from his wicked way, he will die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul. ²⁰ When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and acts perversely, I will lay a stumbling block before him and he will die. Because you have not warned him, he will die in his sin. His righteous deeds that he has done will not be remembered—but I will require his blood at your hand. ²¹ If you warn the righteous person not to sin and the righteous person does not sin, he will surely live, because he took warning. You will have delivered your soul."

²² The hand of ADONAI came upon me there. He said to me: "Arise, go out to the valley. I will speak with you there." ²³ So I arose, and went out to the valley. Behold, the glory of ADONAI stood there—like the glory that I saw by the River Chebar—and I fell on my face. ²⁴ The Ruach came into me, and stood me upon my feet. Then He spoke with me and said to me: "Go, shut yourself in your house. ²⁵ You, son of man, behold, ropes will be put on you. You will be bound with them, so that you cannot go out among the people. ²⁶ I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth. You will be mute and unable to reprove them, for they are a rebellious house. ²⁷ But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth. You will say to them: 'Thus says ADONAI Elohim;' he that hears, let him hear. He that refuses to hear, let him refuse—for they are a rebellious house."

Ezekiel Portrays the Siege of Jerusalem

⁴ "Then you are to lie on your left side, and set on it the punishment of the house of Israel; according to the number of days that you lie on it, you will bear their iniquity. ⁵ I have appointed the years of their punishment to you as a number of days—390 days. So you will bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. ⁶ When you have completed these, you will lie on your right side and bear the iniquity of the house of Judah—40 days—a day for each year, I have appointed to you. ⁷ You will set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm bared, and prophesy against it.

⁸ "Behold, I will put ropes upon you. You will not be able to turn from side to side until you have completed the days of your siege. ⁹ Take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and rye, and put them in one bowl. You will make bread from them for the number of days that you will lie on your side; for 390 days, you will eat it. ¹⁰ The food that you will eat will be 20 shekels a day by weight †. You may eat from it from time to time. ¹¹ You are also to drink water by measure, a sixth of a hin ††. You may drink it from time to time. ¹² Eat it as barley cakes. Bake it on human dung before their eyes."

¹³ Then ADONAI said, "This is how Bnei-Yisrael will eat their bread—unclean, among the nations where I will scatter them."

¹⁴ Then I said, "Ah, ADONAI Elohim! Behold, I have never defiled myself. From my youth up until now have I not eaten what died of itself or was torn by beasts. Tainted meat has never come into my mouth."

¹⁵ He said to me, "See, I have given you cow dung instead of human dung. So you will prepare your bread on it." ¹⁶ Then he said to me, "Son of man, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem. They will eat bread by weight, in anxiety, and they will drink water by measure, in horror. ¹⁷ On account of their lack of bread and water they will be appalled at one another and waste away in their iniquity."

Sign of a Shaved Head

⁵ "Now you, son of man, take a sharp sword. Use it as a barber's razor to shave your head and your beard. Then take balances to weigh and divide the hair. ² A third you will burn in fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are complete. Take a third and strike it with the sword all around the city. Scatter a third to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. ³ Take a few from there and tie them up in your garment. ⁴ Again take some of them, throw them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire. A fire will spread from it into all the house of Israel."

⁷ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: "Because you are more turbulent than the surrounding nations, in that you have not walked in My decrees or followed my ordinances, nor have you observed the ordinances of the surrounding nations, ⁸ therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: Behold, I in turn am against you. I will execute judgments among you in the sight of the nations. ⁹ On account of your abominations I will do with you that which I have never done, and the like of which I would never do again. ¹⁰ Therefore the fathers will eat the sons in your midst, and sons will eat their fathers. I will execute judgments on you and I will scatter the remainder of you to all the winds."

¹¹ "Therefore, as I live, says ADONAI Elohim, surely, because you have defiled My Sanctuary with all your detestable things and with all your abominations, therefore I will shave you off. My eye will not spare, and I will have no pity. ¹² A third of you will die with the plague and will be consumed with famine in your midst. A third will fall by the sword all around you. A third I will scatter to all the winds, and draw out a sword after them. ¹³ I will vent all My anger and satisfy My fury on them. Then I will rest. So they will know that I, ADONAI, have spoken in My zeal, when I have satisfied My fury on them.

¹⁴ "Moreover I will make you a ruin and a mockery among the surrounding nations and in the sight of all who pass by. ¹⁵ When I execute judgment upon you in anger, rage, and furious chastisement, you will be a mockery and a taunt, a warning and a horror to the surrounding nations: I, ADONAI, have spoken it.

¹⁶ When I send evil arrows of famine upon them, for destruction I will send them to destroy you, and I will intensify the famine upon you and will break your staff of bread. ¹⁷ I will send on you famine and evil beasts, and they will make you childless. Plague and blood will sweep through you. I will bring the sword upon you. I, ADONAI, have spoken."

Woe to the Mountains

6 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel and prophesy to them. ³ Say: Mountains of Israel, hear the word of ADONAI!" Thus says ADONAI Elohim concerning the mountains and concerning the hills, concerning the wadis and concerning the valleys: "Behold, I will bring a sword on you. I will destroy your high places. ⁴ Your altars will become desolate. Your sun pillars will be broken. I will cast down your slain men before your idols. ⁵ I will lay the corpses of Bnei-Yisrael before their idols. I will scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶ In all your dwellings the cities will be desolate. The high places will be deserted. Your altars will be laid waste and made desolate, your idols broken and destroyed, your sun pillars cut down and your works blotted out. ⁷ The slain will fall in your midst. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.

⁸ "Yet I will leave a remnant, some that escape the sword among the nations, when you have been scattered through the countries. ⁹ The survivors will remember Me among the nations where they are carried captive, how I was crushed by their adulterous heart that has strayed from Me and their eyes which have lusted after their idols. They will loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils that they committed in all their abominations. ¹⁰ They will know that I am ADONAI. I have not warned in vain that I would do this evil to them."

¹¹ Thus says ADONAI Elohim: "Clap your hands, stamp your foot and cry, 'Alas!' because of all the vile abominations of the house of Israel who will fall by the sword, by famine, and by plague. ¹² The one who is far off will die of the plague; the one who is near will fall by the sword. Whoever remains and is spared will die by the famine; this is how I will spend My fury on them. ¹³ You will know that I am ADONAI, when your slain lie among their idols surrounding their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, under every green tree, and under every leafy oak—the places where they offer sweet aroma to all their idols. ¹⁴ I will stretch out My hand over them and make the land desolate and waste, more than the wilderness of Di-blah, wherever they live. Then they will know that I am ADONAI."

A Singular Evil Comes

7 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "You, son of man, thus says ADONAI Elohim concerning the land of Israel:

"An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land. ³ The end is upon you. I will send My anger on you. I will judge you according to your ways. I will bring all your abominations on you. ⁴ My eyes will not spare you nor will I have pity, but I will bring your ways upon you, for your abominations in your midst. Then you will know that I am ADONAI."

⁵ Thus says ADONAI Elohim:

"An evil, a singular evil, behold, it comes. ⁶ An end has come, the end has come! It has awakened against you. Look, it is coming! ⁷ Doom has come upon you, inhabitant of the land! The time has come, the day is near—panic, not joyful shouting on the hills. ⁸ Now, soon, I am about to pour out My fury on you. I will exhaust My anger on you. I will judge you according to your ways. I will bring all your abominations on you. ⁹ My eye will not spare you nor will I have pity—I will repay you for your ways—your abominations are in your midst. Then you will know that it is I, ADONAI, who strikes. ¹⁰ Behold, the day! Look, it is coming! Doom has gone out. The rod has budded, arrogance has blossomed. ¹¹ Violence grows into a rod of wickedness. Nothing will come from them, nothing from their crowd, nothing from their tumult, nothing distinctive among them. ¹² The time has come—the day draws near. The buyer will not rejoice, the seller will not play the mourner, for wrath is on the entire crowd. ¹³ For a seller will not regain what he sold, as long as they are alive. For the vision against her whole crowd will not be revoked. No one will preserve his life, because of his iniquity.

¹⁴ "They have blown the horn. They have made everyone ready. Yet no one goes to the battle. Surely My wrath is on her whole crowd. ¹⁵ Outside is the sword, inside plague and famine. Whoever is in the field will die by the sword. Whoever is in the city will be devoured by famine and plague. ¹⁶ Those survivors who escape will head for the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, each one over his iniquity. ¹⁷ All hands will be feeble. All knees will turn to water. ¹⁸ They will also gird on sackcloth. Horror will cover them. Shame will be upon all faces. Baldness will be upon all their heads. ¹⁹ They will throw their silver in the streets. Their gold will be as garbage. Their silver and their gold cannot deliver them in the day of ADONAI's wrath. They will not satisfy their appetite or fill their bellies, for their iniquity is a stumbling block.

images of their abominations and their detestable idols. Therefore I made it niddah to them. ²¹ I will give it into the hands of the strangers as plunder and to the wicked of the earth as spoil, and they will profane it. ²² I will turn My face from them, as they will profane the place I treasure. Robbers will enter it and profane it.

²³ "Forge the chain! For the land is full of bloodshed. The city is full of violence. ²⁴ I will bring the wicked of the nations. They will possess their houses. So I will end the pride of the strong, when their holy places are profaned. ²⁵ Shuddering comes. They will seek peace but there will be none. ²⁶ Disaster upon disaster will come, and rumor upon rumor. They will seek a vision from a prophet, but Torah will perish from the kohen and counsel from the elders. ²⁷ The king will mourn. The prince will be clothed with despair. The hands of the people of the land will tremble. By their conduct I will deal with them. By their own standards I will judge them. Then they will know that I am ADONAI."

Abomination in the Temple

8 In the sixth year, on the fifth day of the sixth month, I was sitting in my house. The elders of Judah were sitting before me. There the hand of ADONAI fell on me. ² I looked, and behold, a form resembling fire—from the appearance of his waist downward, fire; and from his loins and waist upward, something like the appearance of brightness, as glowing metal. ³ Something like the form of a hand stretched out, and took me by the hair of my head. The Ruach lifted me up between the earth and the heaven. He brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court facing north—where the idol that provokes furious jealousy was.

⁴ Behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, like the vision that I saw in the valley. ⁵ He said to me: "Son of man, lift your eyes toward the north." So I lifted up my eyes toward the north. Behold, north of the gate of the altar, was this image provoking jealousy in the entrance.

⁶ He said to me: "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel is committing here, that drives me far off from My own Sanctuary? But you will see even greater abominations."

⁷ He brought me to the door of the court. When I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. ⁸ Then He said to me, "Son of man, now dig through the wall." When I had dug through the wall, there was a door. ⁹ He said to me: "Go and see the wicked abominations that they do here." ¹⁰ So I went in and saw, behold, every detestable image of creeping things and beasts and all the idols of the house of Israel, engraved on the surrounding walls. ¹¹ Standing there before them were 70 men of the elders of the house of Israel, Jaazaniah son of Shaphan standing in their midst, each man with his censer in his hand. A thick cloud of incense went up.

¹² Then He said to me: "Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his chamber of his carved idol? For they say, 'ADONAI does not see us. ADONAI has forsaken the land.'"

¹³ He said further to me, "You will see still greater abominations that they are doing." ¹⁴ He brought me to the door of the gate of ADONAI's House, which was toward the north. Behold, the women sat there weeping for Tammuz. ¹⁵ He said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? You will again see even greater abominations than these."

¹⁶ So He brought me into the inner court of ADONAI's House. Behold, at the door of the Temple of ADONAI, between the porch and the altar, were about 25 men, with their backs toward the Temple of ADONAI and their faces toward the east—and they were bowing in worship eastward toward the sun.

¹⁷ He said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it too light a thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations they practice here, that they must also fill the land with violence and provoke Me still more? Look, they are putting the twig to My nose! ¹⁸ Therefore I will indeed act in fury. My eye will not spare you nor will I have pity. Though they cry into My ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

Wrath upon Jerusalem

9 Then He called into my ears in a loud voice saying: "Bring near the executioners of the city, each with his weapon of destruction in his hand." ² Behold, six men came from the direction of the upper gate, facing north, each with his war club in his hand. One man among them, clothed in linen, had a scribe's writing case at his side. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar.

³ Then the glory of the God of Israel went up from above the cheruv, where it had been, to the threshold of the House. He called to the man clothed in linen, who had the scribe's inkhorn at his side. ⁴ ADONAI said to him, "Go throughout the city, through the midst of Jerusalem. Make a mark on the foreheads of the people † who sigh and moan over all the abominations that are committed in it." ⁵ To the others He said in my hearing: "Go through the city after him and strike. Show no pity or compassion; ⁶ kill off old men, young men and girls, little children and women. But touch no one who has the mark. Begin at My Sanctuary." Then they began with the elders who were before the House.

⁷ He said to them, "Defile the House and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!" So they went out and began to kill in the city.

⁸ While they were out killing, and I was left alone, I fell on my face and cried out saying, "Alas, ADONAI Elohim! Are you going to destroy all the remnant of Israel by pouring out Your wrath upon Jerusalem?"

⁹ He said to me, "The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is very, very great; the land is full of blood and the city is full of corruption. For they say, 'ADONAI has forsaken the land, ADONAI does not see!' ¹⁰ As for Me, my eye will not show pity nor will I spare. I will bring their conduct upon their head."

¹¹ Behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn at his side, reported saying, "I have done just as You have commanded me."

The Glory Arises

10 Then I looked, and behold, above the expanse over the heads of the cheruvim, there appeared above them something like a sapphire stone, resembling a throne. ² He spoke to the man clothed in linen and said, "Go in between the whirling wheels underneath the cheruvim. Fill your hands with glowing coals from between the cheruvim and scatter them over the city." So he went in before my eyes.

¹⁵ The cheruvim arose—these were the living creatures that I saw by the river Chebar. ¹⁶ As the cheruvim went, the wheels would go beside them. When the cheruvim lifted up their wings to rise from the earth, the wheels would not turn from beside them. ¹⁷ When they stood still, these stood still. When they rose up, these rose up with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

11 Then the Ruach lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of ADONAI's House, facing east. Behold, at the door of the gate, were 25 men. I saw among them Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, leaders of the people. ² He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men that devise sin and give wicked counsel in this city, ³ who say, 'This is not the time to build houses! This city is the cooking pot and we are the meat!' ⁴ Therefore, prophesy against them, prophesy, son of man."

⁵ Then the Ruach ADONAI fell upon me and said to me, "Speak! Thus ADONAI says: So you are thinking, house of Israel—for I know the thoughts that come into your mind. ⁶ You have multiplied your slain in this city and you filled the streets with corpses."

⁷ Therefore, thus says ADONAI Elohim, "Your corpses you have laid in the midst of it, they are the meat and this city is the cooking pot! But I will bring you out of it. ⁸ You feared the sword, so I will bring the sword against you." It is a declaration of ADONAI Elohim.

⁹ "I will bring you out of the midst of it, give you into the hands of strangers, and execute judgments against you. ¹⁰ You will fall by the sword. I will judge you at the border of Israel. So you will know that I am ADONAI. ¹¹ This city will not be your cooking pot nor will you be the meat in the midst of it—I will judge you at Israel's border. ¹² So you will know that I am ADONAI, whose laws you did not follow and whose ordinances you did not obey. Instead, you have acted in accord with the ordinances of the nations around you."

¹³ As I prophesied, Pelatiah son of Benaiah dropped dead. I fell upon my face and cried out with a loud voice and said, "Ah, ADONAI! Are you going to completely eradicate the remnant of Israel?"

¹⁴ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹⁵ "Son of man, as for your kinsmen, your fellow kin, fellow exiles, and the whole house of Israel—all of them—are those about whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem said, 'Keep far away from ADONAI! This land has been given to us for a possession!'" ¹⁶ Therefore say, thus says

ADONAI Elohim, "Though I removed them far away, among the nations, though I scattered them among the countries, yet for a little while I was a sanctuary for them in the countries where they have gone."

Heart of Stone to Heart of Flesh

¹⁷ Therefore say, thus says ADONAI Elohim, "I will gather you from the peoples and collect you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. ¹⁸ When they come there, they will remove all of its detestable things and all of its abominations. ¹⁹ Then I will give them one heart. I will put a new Spirit within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, ²⁰ so that they may follow My laws, keep My ordinances, and practice them. They will be My people and I will be their God. ²¹ As for those whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and abominations, I will bring their ways upon their heads." It is a declaration of ADONAI Elohim.

The Glory Departs Jerusalem

²² Then the cheruvim lifted up their wings. The wheels were beside them. The glory of the God of Israel was over them from above. ²³ The glory of ADONAI went up from within the city and then stood still on the mountain that is to the east of the city. ²⁴ The Ruach Elohim lifted me and brought me in the vision by the Ruach Elohim to Chaldea, to the exiles. Then the vision that I had seen left me. ²⁵ So I told the exiles all the things that ADONAI had shown me.

Baggage for Exile

12 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "Son of man, you live in the midst of the rebellious house. They have eyes to see, but do not see, ears to hear, but do not hear, for they are a rebellious house. ³ You, son of man, prepare supplies for exile. Go into exile by day in their sight, go away as if into exile from your home to another place in their sight—perhaps they will recognize that they are a rebellious house. ⁴ You will bring out your baggage by day in their sight, as baggage for exile. You will go out at evening in their sight, like those going into exile. ⁵ As they watch, dig through the wall and go out through it. ⁶ Bear the burden on your shoulder in their sight. Carry it out in the darkness; cover your face so that you cannot see the ground. For I have made you a sign for the house of Israel." ⁷ I did just as I was commanded: I brought out my baggage by day, as baggage for exile. In the evening, I dug through the wall with my hand. I carried it out in the darkness and bore it on my shoulder, as they watched.

⁸ In the morning, the word of ADONAI came to me saying, ⁹ "Son of man, has the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, 'What are you doing?'"

¹⁰ Say to them, 'Thus says ADONAI Elohim: this burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel there.' ¹¹ Say, 'I am a sign for you. Just as I have done, so it will be done to them—they will go into exile, into captivity. ¹² The prince who is among them will bear a burden on his shoulder, and go out in the darkness. They will dig through the wall to get out; he will cover his face so that he cannot see the land with his eyes. ¹³ I will spread out My net upon him, so he will be caught in My net. I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chaldeans. He will not see it, though he will die there. ¹⁴ I will disperse toward every wind all that surround him to help him and all his troops. I will draw out the sword after them. ¹⁵ So they will know that I am ADONAI when I scatter them among the nations and disperse them among the countries. ¹⁶ But I will let a few of them escape the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, so they may tell about all their detestable practices among the nations where they go. And they will know that I am ADONAI.'" "

²⁰ The inhabited cities will be deserted and the land will become desolate. And you will know that I am ADONAI.'" "

²¹ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²² "Son of man, what is that proverb you people have in the land of Israel saying, 'The days are prolonged and every vision fails'? ²³ Tell them therefore, thus says ADONAI Elohim, 'I will put an end to this proverb. They will not use it anymore as a proverb in Israel.' Say to them, 'The days are at hand as well as the fulfillment of every vision. ²⁴ For no longer will every vision be deceitful and every oracle false in the house of Israel. ²⁵ For I am ADONAI. I will speak whatever word I will speak and it will happen. It will not be delayed anymore; for in your days, rebellious house, I will speak the word and perform it.'" It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁶ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²⁷ "Son of man, behold, the house of Israel says, 'The vision that he sees is for many days from now. He prophesies about times that are far off.' ²⁸ Therefore say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim, 'None of My words will be delayed anymore, but the word that I speak will be fulfilled.'" It is a declaration of ADONAI.

False Prophets

13 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "Son of man, prophesy concerning the prophets of Israel, who are prophesying, say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, hear the word of ADONAI, ³ thus says ADONAI Elohim: 'Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit—except they have seen nothing! ⁴ O Israel, your prophets have been like jackals among ruins. ⁵ You have not gone up into the breaches and repaired the walls for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of ADONAI. ⁶ They have prophesied emptiness and predicted falsely, who say, “ADONAI says.” ADONAI has not sent them, yet they hope for confirmation of their word. ⁷ Did you not see an empty vision and speak a false omen, when you say, “ADONAI says”—when I have not spoken?”

⁸ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: “Because you have spoken falsely and prophesied lies, therefore behold, I am against you.” It is a declaration of ADONAI. ⁹ “My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and utter lying divinations. They will not remain in the assembly of My people, nor will they be recorded in the register of the house of Israel, nor enter into the land of Israel. You will know that I am ADONAI. ¹⁰ Precisely because they have led My people astray saying, ‘Shalom’ when there is no shalom, they build a weak wall, behold, they plaster it over with whitewash. ¹¹ Say to those who plaster it over with whitewash, that it will fall. There will be a down-pouring rain, and on you great hailstones will fall, and a storm wind will break out. ¹² Behold, when the wall has fallen, will it not be said about you, ‘Where is the whitewash that you plastered it with?’”

¹³ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: “I will cause a storm wind to burst out in My fury. There will be a down-pouring rain in My anger and great hailstones in destructive wrath. ¹⁴ I will tear down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation of it is exposed. It will collapse and you will be consumed within it. Then you will know that I am ADONAI. ¹⁵ I will spend My wrath against the wall and against those who plastered it with whitewash. I will say to you, the wall is no more! The whitewashers are no more— ¹⁶ the prophets of Israel who prophesy to Jerusalem and see visions of shalom for her, when there is no shalom.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁰ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim, “Behold, I am against your magic charms with which you hunt people like birds. I will tear them from your arms. I will deliver the people you hunt like birds. ²¹ I will tear off your veils and deliver My people from your hands. They will never again be in your hand to be hunted. So you will know that I am ADONAI. ²² Because you have discouraged the hearts of the righteous with your lies, when I have not grieved him; and strengthened the hands of the wicked so he may not return from his wicked way and live, ²³ therefore you will no longer see false visions or utter lying divinations again. I will deliver My people out of your hand. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.”

14 Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me. ² The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ³ “Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts. They have put the stumbling block of their iniquity right before their faces. Should I let them inquire of me at all? ⁴ Therefore speak to them, and say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Every man from the house of Israel who sets up idols in his heart and puts the stumbling block of his iniquity right before his face, and then comes to the prophet—I, ADONAI, will answer him as he comes with the multitude of his idols, ⁵ so I may take hold of the house of Israel in their hearts. For they have all become estranged from Me through their idols.’

⁹ “When the prophet is deceived and speaks a word, I, ADONAI, have deceived that prophet. I will stretch out My hand against him. I will destroy him from among My people Israel. ¹⁰ They will bear their punishment—the punishment of the prophet will be the same as the punishment of the inquirer— ¹¹ so that the house of Israel will not wander again from Me or defile themselves again with all their transgressions. They will be My people and I will be their God.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁵ “If I cause evil beasts to pass through the land and they ravage it and make it a wasteland, so that no one would pass through because of the beasts, ¹⁶ even if these three men were in it, as I live, says ADONAI, they will not deliver sons or daughters. They would only deliver themselves, but the land will be desolate. ¹⁷ Or if I bring a sword on that land and say: 'Let the sword go through the land,' so that I cut off man and beast from it; ¹⁸ though these three men were in it, as I live, says ADONAI, they will not deliver sons or daughters, for they will only deliver themselves.

¹⁹ "Or, suppose I were to send a plague to that land and pour out My fury upon it in blood, to cut off man and beast from it. ²⁰ Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, says ADONAI, they would not deliver either a son or a daughter. They would deliver only themselves by their righteousness."

²¹ For thus ADONAI says: "How much more if I send My four dreadful judgments against Jerusalem—the sword, the famine, the evil beasts, and the plague—to cut man and beast off from it. ²² Yet behold, survivors would remain in it who would be brought out, both sons and daughters. Behold, when they come to you and you see their ways and their deeds, you would be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought against Jerusalem, all that I have brought on it. ²³ They would comfort you when you see their ways and their deeds. So you will know that I had not done all that I had done without cause." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Vine Wood for the Fire

15 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "Son of man, how can the wood of a vine be better than the branch of any tree that is among the trees of the forest? ³ Can wood be taken from it to make anything useful? Can a peg be made from it to hang anything on? ⁴ Behold, when it is cast in the fire for fuel, both ends are devoured in fire and the middle is charred—is it useful for any work? ⁵ Look, when it was whole, it was not useful for any work—how much less, when the fire has devoured it and it is charred, will it be useful for any work? ⁶ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: Like the vine's wood among the trees of the forest that I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give up the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ⁷ I will set My face against them. Even if they come out of the fire, the fire will yet devour them. So you will know that I am ADONAI, when I set My face against them. ⁸ I will make the land desolate, because they have acted so faithlessly." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Harlot, Hear the Word of ADONAI

16 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her abominations ³ and say, 'thus says ADONAI to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth are from the land of the Canaanite; your father was an Amorite, your mother was a Hittite. ⁴ As for your birth, on the day you were born your umbilical cord was not cut nor were you washed in water for cleansing. You were never rubbed with salt nor were you swaddled at all. ⁵ No eye pitied you enough to do any of these things to you out of compassion. Instead, you were cast out in the open field, for you were detested on the day you were born.

⁶ "When I passed by you, and saw you kicking in your blood, I said to you, 'In your blood, live!' Yes, I said to you, 'In your blood, live!' ⁷ I made you grow as myriads, like a branch of the field. You grew up, got tall and came to full adornment. Your breasts were formed, your hair sprouted. Yet you were naked and bare.

⁸ "Again I passed by and saw you, and behold, you were truly at the time of love. I spread the corner of my garment over you and covered your nakedness. I swore to you and entered into a covenant with you,' says ADONAI. 'So you became Mine. ⁹ Then I washed you with water, rinsed off your blood from on you, and anointed you with oil. ¹⁰ I clothed you with embroidery and put sandals of fine leather on you. I wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk. ¹¹ I adorned you with jewelry, put bracelets on your hands, and a necklace on your neck. ¹² I put a ring in your nose, earrings on your ears, and a crown of glory on your head. ¹³ So you were adorned with gold and silver, and your raiment was of fine linen, silk, and embroidery. You ate fine flour, honey, and oil. You became exceedingly beautiful, and advanced to the kingdom. ¹⁴ Your fame spread among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect, through My splendor, which I bestowed on you.' It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁵ "But you trusted in your beauty and used your fame to become a harlot. You poured out your enticements on everyone who passed by—they were his. ¹⁶ You took your garments, made high places decked out with various colors, and fornicated on them—this should not happen, it should not be! ¹⁷ You also took your jewelry—My gold and My silver, which I gave you—made male images for yourself and committed harlotry with them. ¹⁸ You took your embroidered garments, covered them and placed My oil and My incense before them. ¹⁹ My bread that I gave you, fine flour, oil, and honey that I fed you with, you set before them as a sweet aroma. That is what happened.' It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁰ "You took your sons and your daughters whom you bore for Me, and sacrificed them to be eaten by them. Were your obscene practices not enough? ²¹ You slaughtered My children, making them pass through fire for them. ²² In all your abominations and harlotry, you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, kicking about in your blood. ²³ So it was after all your wickedness— oy, oy to you!" It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁴ "Then you built a mound for yourself. You made a high place for yourself in every square. ²⁵ You built your lofty place at the head of every street. You made your beauty an abomination. You spread your legs for everyone passing by and multiplied your harlotry. ²⁶ You committed immorality with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors. You multiplied your prostitution, to provoke Me.

²⁷ “So behold, I stretched out My hand over you. I diminished your ration. I gave you over to those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who were ashamed of your indecent conduct. ²⁸ Then you also played the harlot with the Assyrians, never being satisfied; you played the harlot with them, and still you were not satisfied. ²⁹ So you multiplied your harlotry toward the land of merchants—Chaldea—yet even with this, you were not satisfied.

³⁰ “How weak is your heart”—it is a declaration of ADONAI Elohim—“while you are doing all these things, the work of a shameless harlot, ³¹ when you build your mound at the head of every road and make your high place in every street. Yet you were not like a harlot, since you scoffed at receiving payment. ³² You adulterous wife, who receives strangers instead of her husband! ³³ To all prostitutes gifts are given—but you gave your gifts to all your lovers! You bribed them to come to you from every side in your harlotry. ³⁴ So you are the opposite of other women—no one runs after you for favors. You give payment and none is given to you. So you are the opposite!

³⁵ “Therefore, harlot, hear the word of ADONAI!
³⁶ Thus says ADONAI Elohim : Because your filth was poured out and your nakedness exposed through your harlotry with your lovers, because of all the idols of your abominations, and because of the blood of your children that you gave to them, ³⁷ therefore behold, I will gather all your lovers—those you have pleased and all those you have loved, with all them that you have hated. I will gather them against you from every side. I will expose your nakedness to them, so they may all see your nakedness. ³⁸ So I will judge you, as women who commit adultery and shed blood are judged. Then I will bring on you the blood of fury and jealousy. ³⁹ I will give you into their hand. They will tear down your mound and break down your high places. They will strip you of your clothes and take your jewelry. They will leave you naked and bare. ⁴⁰ They will also incite an assembly against you, stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. ⁴¹ They will set your houses on fire and execute judgment on you in the sight of many women. So I will cause you to stop your harlotry. You will never again pay for a lover. ⁴² So I will calm My fury against you and My jealousy will turn away from you. Then I will be quiet and angry no longer.

⁴³ “Because you did not remember the days of your youth, but have enraged Me in all these things, behold, I will also bring your way on your head”—it is a declaration of ADONAI . “Have you not committed this wickedness on top of all your abominations? ⁴⁴ Behold, everyone who uses proverbs will say this proverb against you, saying, ‘As the mother, so her daughter.’ ⁴⁵ You are your mother’s daughter, who despises her husband and her children. You are the sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite. Your father was an Amorite. ⁴⁶ Your elder sister who lives to your left is Samaria, she and her daughters. Your younger sister who lives to your right is Sodom, with her daughters. ⁴⁷ You have not only walked in their ways and gone after their abominations, but in a very short time, you have acted more corruptly than them in all your ways.”

⁴⁸ “As I live”—it is a declaration of ADONAI —“your sister Sodom with her daughters have not done as you have done, you and your daughters. ⁴⁹ Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, gluttony, and careless ease—so had she and her daughters—and she did not strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. ⁵⁰ So they were haughty and committed abomination before Me; therefore I removed them when I saw it. ⁵¹ Moreover, Samaria did not commit even half of your sins. You multiplied your abominations beyond theirs. So you made your sisters seem righteous by all your disgusting things you have done. ⁵² You also bear your own shame, since you have interceded for your sisters. Because of your sins that you committed, more treacherous than theirs, they appear more righteous than you. So you also, be ashamed! Bear your disgrace, since you have justified your sisters.

⁵³ “I will return their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and along with them, your own captivity. ⁵⁴ So you will bear your own disgrace and be ashamed of all that you have done in becoming a consolation to them. ⁵⁵ Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, Samaria and her daughters, will return to their former state. You and your daughters will return to your former state.

⁵⁶ “Was not your sister Sodom an object of scorn to you in the day of your pride, ⁵⁷ before your own wickedness was exposed? Now you have become an object of scorn for the daughters of Aram and all that surround her, for the daughters of the Philistines, for all around who despise you. ⁵⁸ You will bear your wickedness and your abominations.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI .

⁵⁹ “For thus says ADONAI Elohim : ‘I will do to you just as you have done, since you despised the oath by breaking the covenant. ⁶⁰ Nevertheless, I will remember My covenant with you in the days of your youth. Moreover, I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. ⁶¹ Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your older and younger sisters. I will give them to you for daughters, yet not because of your covenant. ⁶² So I will establish My covenant with you, and you will know that I am ADONAI . ⁶³ So you will remember, be ashamed, and never open your mouth again because of your disgrace, when I have forgiven you of all that you have done.’” It is a declaration of ADONAI .

Parable of Eagles and Branches

17 The word of ADONAI came to me saying, ²“Son of man, propose a riddle and tell a parable to the house of Israel. ³Say, ‘thus says ADONAI Elohim : A great eagle with large wings and broad wings, full of feathers which had varied colors, came to Lebanon and took hold of the top of the cedar. ⁴He plucked off its topmost twigs, carried them to the land of trade and set it in a city of merchants. ⁵Then he took some of the seed of the land and planted it in fruitful soil. He placed it beside abundant waters. He set it like a willow twig. ⁶Then it sprouted and became a low, spreading vine, with its branches turned toward him, but its roots grew under him. So it became a vine, produced branches, and sent out shoots.

⁷“There was also another great eagle with large wings and many feathers. Behold, this vine bent its roots toward him and shot forth its branches toward him from the bed where it was planted, so that he might water it. ⁸It was planted in good soil by much water, so it would bring forth branches, bear fruit, and be a glorious vine.

⁹“Say, ‘thus says ADONAI Elohim : Will it thrive? Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit so it withers? All its new roots will wither. It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it up by its roots. ¹⁰Behold, though planted, will it thrive? Will it not completely wither when the east wind strikes it? In the beds where it grew it will wither.”

¹⁵“However, he rebelled against him in sending his messengers into Egypt, so they might give him horses and many people. Will he succeed? Will one doing such things escape? Will he break a covenant and escape? ¹⁶As I live’—it is a declaration of ADONAI—‘surely in the place of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, within Babylon he will die. ¹⁷Pharaoh with his mighty army and great throng will be of no help to him in war, when ramps are cast up and siege towers erected, to cut off many lives.

¹⁸“Since he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant, and behold, he had given his hand yet did all these things, he will not escape. ¹⁹Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim : ‘As I live, surely I will bring on his head My oath that he has despised and My covenant that he has broken. ²⁰I will spread My net over him and he will be caught in My snare. Then I will bring him to Babylon, and judge him there for his treachery that he committed against Me. ²¹All the fugitives of all his armies will fall by the sword. Those that remain will be scattered to every wind. Then you will know that I, ADONAI, have spoken.”

²²“Thus says ADONAI Elohim : ‘I, even I, will take from a sprig from the top of the lofty cedar and will plant it. I will crop off a tender twig from the topmost of its young shoots, and I will plant it on a tall and prominent mountain. ²³I will plant it on Israel’s high mountain. It will bring forth branches, bear fruit, and be a magnificent cedar. Birds of every kind will nest under it—they will nest in the shade of its branches. ²⁴Then all the trees of the field will know that I, ADONAI, have brought down the high tree, exalted the lowly tree, dried up the green tree, and made the dry tree flourishing. I, ADONAI, have spoken and I will do it.”

No More Sour Grapes

18 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²“What do you mean by using this proverb in the land of Israel saying,

³“As I live”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“you will never again use this proverb in Israel. ⁴Behold, every living soul is Mine—the soul of father as well as the soul of son—both are Mine. Behold, the soul who sins is the one who will die.

wrong anyone, take pledged property, or commit robbery, but he gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with a garment, ¹⁷ withholds his hand from mistreating the poor, does not take interest or increase, practices My laws and walks in My statutes—he will not die for the iniquity of his father, he will surely live.

¹⁸ “As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, committed robbery from his brother, and did what is not good among his people—behold, he will die for his iniquity. ¹⁹ Yet you say, ‘Why does the son not bear the iniquity of the father with him?’ When the son has done what is lawful and right, has kept all My statutes and has done them, he will surely live. ²⁰ The soul that sins, he will die. The son will not bear the iniquity of the father with him, nor will the father bear the iniquity of the son with him. The righteousness of the righteous will be on him and the wickedness of the wicked will be on him. ²¹ But if the wicked turns from all his sins that he has committed, and keeps all My laws and does what is lawful and right, he will surely live, he will not die. ²² None of his transgressions that he committed will be remembered; because of his righteousness that he practiced, he will live.

²³ “Do I delight at all in the death of the wicked?” It is a declaration of ADONAI. “Rather, should he not return from his ways, and live? ²⁴ But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity and does according to all the detestable acts that the wicked man does, will he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done will be remembered; for his trespass that he trespassed and for his sin that he has sinned, for them he will die. †

²⁵ “Yet you say, ‘ADONAI’s way is unfair!’ Hear now, house of Israel! Is My way not fair? Is it not your ways that are unfair? ²⁶ When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he will die for it; because of his iniquity that he did, he will die. ²⁷ But when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he committed and does what is lawful and right, his soul will live. ²⁸ Because he considers and turns away from all his transgressions that he committed, he will surely live, not die. ²⁹ Yet the house of Israel says, ‘The way of ADONAI is unfair!’ House of Israel, are My ways not fair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?

³⁰ “Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, each one according to his ways.” It is a declaration of ADONAI. “Return, and turn away from all your transgressions, so they would not be a stumbling block of iniquity for you. ³¹ Cast off from you all your transgressions that you have committed. Make yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. Why will you die, house of Israel? ³² For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone who dies”—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“so return, and live!”

Two Lamentation Songs

19 “As for you, raise a lamentation for the princes of Israel,

² and say: ‘What was your mother? A lioness!

Among lions she couched, among young lions she reared her cubs.

³ When she raised up one of her cubs, he became a young lion.

When he learned to tear prey, he devoured people.

⁴ When the nations heard about him, he was caught in their pit.

They brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.

⁵ When she saw that she waited in vain, her hope was lost.

So she took another cub and made him a young lion.

⁶ He prowled among the lions.

He became a young lion, learned to catch prey, devoured men.

⁷ He ravaged their widows and laid waste their cities.

The land and all who were in it were terrified from his roaring.

⁸ The nations gathered against him on every side from the provinces.

They spread their net over him. He was caught in their pit.

⁹ They put him in a cage with hooks and brought him to the king of Babylon.

They brought him in hunting nets. So his roar was no longer heard on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰ “Your mother was like a vine in your blood, planted by the water.

It was fruitful and full of branches because of abundant water.

¹¹ Its strong rods became rulers’ scepters. Its height was exalted above the clouds.

It was seen in its height with the mass of its branches.

¹² But it was uprooted in fury.

It was cast down to the ground.

The east wind dried up its fruit.

Its strong branches were broken off and dried up—fire consumed it.

¹³ Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.

¹⁴ Fire has spread from its main branch and devoured its fruit.

No strong branch is left on it to become a ruler’s scepter.”

This is a lamentation, and it is to be used as a lamentation.

Rebellion and Return

20 On the tenth day of the fifth month of the seventh year, some of the elders of Israel came to seek ADONAI. They sat before me. ² The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ³ "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel. Say to them, 'thus says ADONAI Elohim: Have you come to inquire of Me? As I live—it is a declaration of ADONAI—'I will not be inquired of by you.'

⁴ "Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Make them know the detestable practices of their fathers. ⁵ Say to them, 'thus says ADONAI Elohim: On the day I chose Israel, I lifted up My hand to the seed of the house of Jacob and made Myself known to them in the land of Egypt. I lifted up My hand to them saying, "I am ADONAI your God." ⁶ On that day I lifted up My hand to them, to bring them out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had sought out for them, flowing with milk and honey, the splendor of all lands. ⁷ I said to them, "Each of you must throw away every detestable thing from his eyes, and not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt. I am ADONAI your God."

⁸ "But they rebelled against Me and were unwilling to listen to Me. None of them cast away the detestable things that were before their eyes, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt. So I resolved to pour out My fury upon them, to expend My anger upon them in the midst of the land of Egypt. ⁹ But I acted, for the sake of My Name, to keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations, where they were, in whose sight I made Myself known to them, to bring them out from the land of Egypt. ¹⁰ So I led them out from the land of Egypt and brought them into the wilderness. ¹¹ I gave them My laws and taught them My judgments, which if a man does, he will live by them. ¹² I also gave them My Shabbatot, as a sign between Me and them, so that they would know that I am ADONAI who made them holy.

¹³ "But the house of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not walk in My statutes. They rejected My judgments, which if a man does, he will live by them. They greatly profaned My Shabbatot. Then I resolved to pour out My fury on them in the wilderness to consume them. ¹⁴ But for the sake of My Name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. ¹⁵ Yet I also lifted My hand to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the splendor of all lands. ¹⁶ For they rejected My laws, did not walk in My rulings, and profaned My Shabbatot—for their heart went after their idols. ¹⁷ Nevertheless, My eye spared them from destruction, so I did not make a full end of them in the wilderness.

¹⁸ "I said to their children in the wilderness, "Do not walk in the statutes of your fathers, do not keep their ordinances, do not defile yourselves with their idols.

ordinances, and do them. ²⁰ Keep My Shabbatot holy, so they will be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am ADONAI your God."

²¹ "But the children rebelled against Me; they did not walk in My statutes. They did not keep My ordinances to do them, which if a man does, he will live by them; they profaned My Shabbatot. Then I resolved to pour out My fury on them, to expend My anger on them in the wilderness. ²² Nevertheless, I withheld My hand. For the sake of My Name I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. ²³ I also lifted up My hand to them in the wilderness, to scatter them among the nations and disperse them through the countries. ²⁴ For they had not obeyed My ordinances, but had rejected My statutes and profaned My Shabbatot. Their eyes went after their fathers' idols. ²⁵ I also gave them statutes that were not good, ordinances by which they could not live. ²⁶ I let them become polluted in their own gifts, when they offered up all that opened the womb to pass through the fire, so that I might make them desolate, so that they would know that I am ADONAI."

²⁷ "Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel and say to them, 'thus says ADONAI Elohim: Again your fathers have blasphemed Me, in that they dealt faithlessly with Me. ²⁸ When I brought them into the land, which I lifted up My hand to give to them, they saw every high hill and every leafy tree. There they slaughtered their sacrifices and presented their offensive offering. There they made their soothing aroma and poured out their drink offerings. ²⁹ So I asked them, "What is the high place where you are going?" So the name of it is called Bamah † to this day.

³⁰ Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'thus says ADONAI Elohim: Will you pollute yourselves after the manner of your fathers and go after their abominations? ³¹ When offering your gifts, making your sons pass through the fire, you keep polluting yourselves with all your idols, up to this day. So should I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live—it is a declaration of ADONAI—'I will not be inquired of by you. ³² What comes up in your mind will not happen at all, when you say, "Let us be like the nations, like the families of the countries, worshiping wood and stone."

³³ As I live,'—it is a declaration of ADONAI—'surely with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm and with fury poured out, I will be king over you. ³⁴ I will bring you out from the peoples and gather you out of the countries where you are scattered, with a mighty hand and with an outstretched arm, with fury poured out. ³⁵ I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples. I will judge you there face to face. ³⁶ Just as I judged your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will judge you.' It is a declaration of ADONAI.

³⁷ "I will make you pass under the rod and bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸ I will purge out the rebels from among you and those who transgress against Me. I will bring them out from the land where they dwell, but they will not enter the land of Israel. So you will know that I am ADONAI.

³⁹ "As for you, house of Israel," thus says ADONAI Elohim: "go on serving your idols, all of you! Yet afterward, you will surely listen to Me. My holy Name you will no longer profane with your gifts and your idols. ⁴⁰ For in My holy mountain, Israel's high mountain"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"there the whole house of Israel, all of them, will serve Me in the land. There I will take pleasure in them. There I will receive your offerings, the first of your gifts, with all your holy things. ⁴¹ With your sweet aroma I will accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples and gather you from the countries where you have been scattered. I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. ⁴² You will know that I am ADONAI, when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country where I lifted up My hand to give it to your fathers. ⁴³ There you will remember your ways and all your deeds, by which you defiled yourselves. You will loathe yourselves for all your evil that you have done. ⁴⁴ Then you will know that I am ADONAI, when I deal with you for My Name's sake and not according to your evil ways and your corrupt deeds, house of Israel." It is a declaration of ADONAI."

The Parable of the Sword

21 ^(20:45) The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² ^(20:46) "Son of man, set your face toward Teman and proclaim to the South. Prophecy against the brush land of the Negev. ³ ^(20:47) Say to the brush land of the South: 'Hear the word of ADONAI!' Thus says ADONAI Elohim: 'Behold, I will kindle a fire in you. It will devour every moist tree in you and every dry tree. Its leaping flame will not be extinguished. All faces from the south to the north will be scorched by it. ⁴ ^(20:48) All flesh will see that I, ADONAI, have kindled it; it will not be extinguished.'"

⁵ ^(20:49) Then I said, "Ah, ADONAI! They say of me. 'Isn't he just speaking in parables?'"

⁶ ⁽¹⁾ Then the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ⁷ ⁽²⁾ "Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem and proclaim to the sanctuaries and prophecy against the land of Israel. ⁸ ⁽³⁾ Say to the land of Israel, 'thus says ADONAI Elohim: Behold, I am against you. I will draw My sword from its sheath. I will cut off the righteous and the wicked from you. ⁹ ⁽⁴⁾ Since I will cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked, therefore My sword will come out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north. ¹⁰ ⁽⁵⁾ All flesh will know that I, ADONAI, have drawn My sword from its sheath; it will not return any more. ¹¹ ⁽⁶⁾ "As for you, son of man, groan, with breaking of your sides and with bitterness you will groan before their eyes. ¹² ⁽⁷⁾ Now when they ask you, 'Why are you groaning?' you will say, 'Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt, every hand will be limp, every spirit will be faint, and all knees will turn to water. Behold, it is coming, and it will happen!'" It is a declaration of ADONAI Elohim.

A Sword Sharpened

¹³ ⁽⁸⁾ The word of ADONAI came to me saying, ¹⁴ ⁽⁹⁾ "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'Thus says ADONAI,' and say: 'A sword! A sword! Sharpened and also polished! ¹⁵ ⁽¹⁰⁾ Sharpened to slaughter ruthlessly! Polished so it will flash like lightning! Or should we rejoice? It is the rod, † My son—despising every tree! ¹⁶ ⁽¹¹⁾ It is given to be polished, to be seized. The sword is sharpened, polished, to be put into the hand of the slayer. ¹⁷ ⁽¹²⁾ Cry and wail, son of man! For it is against My people. It is against all the leaders of Israel. They are thrown over to the sword, along with My people. Therefore strike your thigh. ¹⁸ ⁽¹³⁾ For it is a testing. What if they scorn even the rod? It must not be!' It is a declaration of ADONAI. ¹⁹ ⁽¹⁴⁾ You, son of man, prophesy. Strike your hands together. The sword will strike twice, even three times, a sword for the slain, a sword for a great slaughter—it surrounds them! ²⁰ ⁽¹⁵⁾ So that their hearts will melt and many will stumble and fall, I have set the point of the sword against all their gates. Alas! It is made for lightning, it is polished for slaughter. ²¹ ⁽¹⁶⁾ Slash to the right, turn to the left—wherever your blade is meeting! ²² ⁽¹⁷⁾ I also will clap My hands together. So I will satisfy My wrath. I, ADONAI, have spoken."

The Sword of God's Judgment

²³ ⁽¹⁸⁾ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²⁴ ⁽¹⁹⁾ "Now you, son of man, mark two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to come. Both of them should originate from the same land. Mark a signpost; cut it out at the start of the road to the city. ²⁵ ⁽²⁰⁾ You are to mark out a way, so the sword can come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon and to Judah in fortified Jerusalem. ²⁶ ⁽²¹⁾ For the king of Babylon stands at the fork in the road, at the start of the two roads, to seek divination. He shakes the arrows, consults the idols, †† he looks in the liver. ²⁷ ⁽²²⁾ In his right hand is the lot for Jerusalem—to set up battering rams, to open the mouth for slaughter, to lift up the voice with a war cry, to set up battering rams against the gates, to cast up ramps, to build a siege wall. ²⁸ ⁽²³⁾ It will seem to them like a false divination. They have sworn solemn oaths, but he will remember their iniquity, so they may be seized."

²⁹ ⁽²⁴⁾ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: "Because you have caused your iniquity to be remembered, by exposing your transgressions, so that your sins appear in all your deeds—because you have come to remembrance, you will be seized with the hand. ³⁰ ⁽²⁵⁾ So you, wicked one, prince of Israel, the day has come to be slain, the time of final punishment."

³¹ ⁽²⁶⁾ Thus says ADONAI Elohim:

† Or scepter †† Hebrew teraphim

“Remove the turban, take off the crown!

This will no longer be the same.

What is low will be exalted.

What is high will be abased.

³² (27) Ruin, ruin, I will make it a ruin!

Even this will not be,

until He comes to whom belongs the judgment, and I give it to Him.

³³ (28) “Now you, son of man, prophesy and say, thus says ADONAI Elohim concerning the children of Ammon and concerning their taunt, say:

“A sword, a sword,
drawn for slaughter,
polished to consume,
to flash like lightning—

³⁴ (29) while they see false visions for you, while they divine lies for you —to lay you out on the necks of the wicked who are to be slain, whose day has come,
in the time of the final punishment.

³⁵ (30) Return to its sheath!

In the place where you were created,
in the land of your origin,
I will judge you.

³⁶ (31) I will pour out My indignation on you.
I will blow on you with the fire of My fury.
I will hand you over to brutal men, skilled to destroy.

³⁷ (32) You will be fuel for the fire.
Your blood will be throughout the land.
You will not be remembered.
For I, ADONAI, have spoken.”

Blood and Injustice

²² The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² “You, son of man, will you judge? Will you judge the bloody city? So explain to her all her abominations. ³ Say, ‘thus says ADONAI Elohim: City that spills blood in her midst and makes idols for herself that defile—her time has come! ⁴ You have become guilty in your blood that you have spilled, and are defiled by your idols that you have made. So you have brought your days near, and have come up to your years. Therefore I have made you a disgrace to the nations and a mockery to all the lands. ⁵ Those near and far from you will mock you—with a defiled name and full of turmoil.

⁶ “Behold, each prince of Israel has used his own arm’s strength in you to shed blood. ⁷ Father and mother have been treated with contempt; the outsider has been oppressed in your midst; the orphan and the widow have been mistreated in you. ⁸ You have despised My holy things and profaned My Shabbatot. ⁹ Slandering men are in you in order to shed blood. They have eaten at the mountain shrines; they commit immoral acts in your midst. ¹⁰ They have uncovered their fathers’ nakedness in you; they violate women that are in niddah within you. ¹¹ One has been detestable with his neighbor’s wife; another has wickedly defiled his daughter-in-law; yet another has violated his sister, his father’s daughter, in you. ¹² They accept bribes in order to shed blood in you; you have taken usurious interest. You have greedily gained by oppressing your neighbors, and you have forgotten Me.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹³ “Now look, I clap My hands at your dishonest gain that you have made and at your bloodshed in your midst. ¹⁴ Will your heart’s courage stand or your hands be strong in the days when I deal with you? I, ADONAI, have spoken it and will do it. ¹⁵ I will scatter you among the nations and disperse you throughout the lands. I will purge your uncleanness from you. ¹⁶ You will be defiled in the sight of the nations. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.”

¹⁷ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹⁸ “Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to Me—all of them are the copper, tin, iron, and lead left inside a furnace—they are the dross of silver.” ¹⁹ Therefore, “thus says ADONAI Elohim: Because you have all become dross, therefore behold, I will gather you into Jerusalem. ²⁰ As one gathers silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin into the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so I will gather you in My anger and in My fury. I will put you in and melt you. ²¹ I will gather you and blow the fire of My wrath upon you, so you may be melted in the midst of it. ²² As silver is melted in the furnace, so will you be melted within it. So you will know that I ADONAI have poured out My fury on you.”

²³ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²⁴ “Son of man, say to her: ‘You are a land that is not cleansed or rained upon in the day of indignation.’ ²⁵ There is a conspiracy of her prophets in her midst, like a roaring lion tearing prey. They have devoured lives, they take wealth and valuables, they multiply widows in her midst. ²⁶ Her kohanim have done violence to My Torah and have profaned My holy things; they have made no distinction between the holy and the profane, nor have they taught the difference between the unclean and the clean. They shut their eyes to My Shabbatot. So I am profaned among them. ²⁷ Her princes in her midst are like wolves tearing at prey, spilling blood and destroying lives for dishonest gain. ²⁸ Her prophets have plastered them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and predicting lies to them, saying ‘Thus says ADONAI Elohim,’ when ADONAI has not spoken.

No One in the Breach

²⁹ “The people of the land have oppressively blackmailed, plundered in robbery, wronged the poor and needy and abused the outsider unjustly. ³⁰ I searched for someone among them who would build up the wall and stand in the breach before Me for the land, so that I would not destroy it, but I found no one.

³¹ Therefore I have poured out My fury on them; I have consumed them with the fire of My wrath; I have brought their own way upon their heads." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Jerusalem and Samaria Take Lovers

23 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother. ³ They were harlots in Egypt; they were harlots in their youth; their bosoms were caressed there and their virgin breasts were fondled. ⁴ Their names were Oholah, the older one, and Oholibah, † her sister. They became Mine, and they gave birth to sons and daughters. As for their names, Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

¹¹ "Now her sister Oholibah saw this, yet she was more depraved in her lust than her sister and her promiscuous acts worse. ¹² She lusted after the Assyrians, governors and rulers, warriors splendidly clad, horsemen riding on horses, all of them handsome young men. ¹³ I saw that she defiled herself; they both went the same way. ¹⁴ But she kept increasing her harlotry. She saw men carved on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans carved in red, ¹⁵ girded with sashes on their loins, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them had the appearance of officers, the likeness of Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their birth. ¹⁶ As soon as she saw them she lusted after them. She sent messengers to them in Chaldea. ¹⁷ The Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and defiled her with their lust. Yet when she was defiled by them, she turned away from them in disgust. ¹⁸ When she exposed her harlotry and uncovered her nakedness, My soul was disgusted by her, just as My soul was disgusted by her sister. ¹⁹ Yet she multiplied her harlotry—remembering the days of her youth, when she was a harlot in the land of Egypt. ²⁰ She lusted after their paramours, whose flesh is like the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like that of horses. ²¹ So you revisited the promiscuity of your youth, when the Egyptians used to fondle your bosom and youthful breasts.

every side: ²³ the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa and Koa and all the Assyrians with them, handsome young men, governors and rulers all of them, commanders and officers, all of them riding on horses. ²⁴ They will come against you with armed chariots, whirling wheels, and an assembly of people. They will set themselves against you on every side with armor, shield, and helmet. I will delegate judgment to them, so they will judge you according to their standards of justice. ²⁵ I will vent My jealousy against you, letting them deal with you in fury. They will cut off your nose and your ears, and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will take your sons and your daughters, and your survivors will be devoured by fire.

²⁶ They will strip your clothes and take your beautiful jewelry. ²⁷ I will put an end to you and your immorality brought from the land of Egypt. You will no longer lift your eyes toward them or remember Egypt anymore."

²⁸ For thus says ADONAI Elohim: "Behold, I will give you into the hand of those you hate, into the hand of those you turned away from in disgust. ²⁹ They will treat you with hatred, take all your property and leave you naked and exposed. The vulgarity of your prostitutions will be uncovered—your debauchery and your promiscuity. ³⁰ These things will be done to you, for you have gone as a harlot after the nations, so you are defiled with their idols. ³¹ You have walked in the way of your sister, so I will give her cup into your hand."

³² Thus says ADONAI Elohim:

"You will drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and wide. You will be for laughter and ridicule. It holds so much!

³³ You will be filled with drunkenness and agony, a cup of horror and desolation—the cup of your sister Samaria.

³⁴ You will drink it and drain it, gnaw its shards and tear your breasts. For I have spoken."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

³⁵ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: "Because you have forgotten Me and thrust Me behind your back, you will also bear your obscenity and your harlotry."

³⁶ Then ADONAI said to me, "Son of man, will you pass judgment on Oholah and Oholibah? Confront them with their disgusting practices. ³⁷ For they have committed adultery and blood is on their hands. They have committed adultery with their idols and even offered their children, whom they bore for Me, to be devoured. ³⁸ Again, this they have done to Me—they defiled My Sanctuary on the same day and profaned My Shabbatot. ³⁹ On the same day that they slaughtered their children to their idols, they came into My Sanctuary to profane it. See, that is what they have done within My House!

⁴⁰ "Furthermore, they sent for men who come from far away. A messenger was sent to them, and look, they came! For them you bathed, painted your eyes, and decked yourself with jewelry. ⁴¹ You sat on a glorious bed, with a table arranged before it, on which you set out My incense and My oil. ⁴² The sound of a care-free crowd was with her. Many of the men who came from the desert were drunkards. They put bracelets on their hands and beautiful crowns on their heads."

† Meaning Her Tent My Tent is in Her

⁴³ Then I said about her, worn out from harlotry: "Still they commit immorality with her—even her? ⁴⁴ They keep going to her, as they go to a prostitute. So they went to Oholah and to Oholibah—the obscene women. ⁴⁵ Righteous men would judge them as adulteresses are judged and as those who shed blood are judged. For they are adulteresses, and blood is on their hands."

⁴⁶ For thus says ADONAI Elohim: "Bring up an assembly against them. Give them over to terror and plunder. ⁴⁷ The assembly will stone them to death and dispatch them with their swords. They will slaughter their sons and daughters. They will burn down their houses. ⁴⁸ So I will make obscenity cease from the land, that all women may be taught not to imitate your obscenity. ⁴⁹ They will repay you both for wickedness and you will bear the sins of your idols. So you will know that I am ADONAI."

Parable of a Rusted Pot

24 The word of ADONAI came to me in the tenth day of the tenth month of the ninth year saying: ² "Son of man, record this date, this exact day—this very day the king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem. ³ Utter a parable concerning the rebellious house. Say to them, 'thus says ADONAI Elohim:
 "'Put on the pot, put it on and then pour water into it.
⁴ Gather the pieces into it, every good piece—thigh and shoulder.
 Fill it with the choice bones.
⁵ Take the choicest of the flock and pile the bones under it;
 bring it to a rolling boil,
 so that its bones also seethe in it.'
⁶ "Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim:
 'Oy to the city of bloodshed,
 to the pot whose corrosion is in it,
 whose rust will not come off it!
 Draw it out piece by piece
 —no lot would fall for it.
⁷ For her bloodshed is in her midst.
 She put it on the bare rock;
 she did not pour it upon the ground to cover it with dust.
⁸ So it stirs up wrath for taking vengeance.
 I have put her blood on the bare rock, that it may not be covered.'
⁹ "Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim:
 'Oy to the city of bloodshed!
 I will also make the pile great,
¹⁰ heaping on the wood,

kindling the fire,
 boiling the meat well,
 and mixing in spices.

But let the bones be burned!

¹¹ I will set it empty upon the coals until it gets hot and its copper scorches, so its impurity will be melted, its corrosion consumed.

¹² It has wearied toil,
 yet its thick rust will not come out of it.
 Into the fire with its corrosion!

¹³ Because of your filthy obscenity, though I tried to purify you yet you were not made pure, you will never be cleansed from your filth until I have satisfied My fury on you.

¹⁴ I, ADONAI, have spoken—it is coming.
 I will do it, I will not let go, not pity, not relent
 —according to your ways and according to your deeds they will judge you."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Ezekiel's Wife Dies

¹⁵ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹⁶ "Son of man, behold, I am about to take away the desire of your eyes with a single blow. But do not lament, do not weep, or allow any tears to flow. ¹⁷ Sigh silently, do not observe mourning for the dead, keep your turban fastened, and keep your sandals on your feet. Do not cover your upper lip or eat the bread of mourners."

¹⁸ So I spoke to the people in the morning and my wife died in the evening. In the morning I did just as I was commanded. ¹⁹ The people said to me, "Won't you tell us what these things you are doing mean to us?"

²⁰ Then I said to them, "The word of ADONAI came to me saying, ²¹ 'Speak to the house of Israel, thus says ADONAI Elohim: Behold, I will profane My Sanctuary, the pride of your might, the desire of your eyes and the longing of your soul. Your sons and your daughters that you have left behind will fall by the sword. ²² You will do just as I have done: you will not cover your upper lips or eat the bread of mourners. ²³ Your turbans will remain on your heads and your shoes on your feet—you will not lament or weep. But you will pine away in your iniquities and groan to each other. ²⁴ Ezekiel will be a sign for you; just as he has done, you will do. When this comes, you will know that I am ADONAI."

²⁵ "'You, son of man, on the day when I take from them their stronghold, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, the longing of their soul, as well as their sons and their daughters— ²⁶ on that day a fugitive will come to you to tell you the news. ²⁷ On that day your mouth will be opened to him who escaped. You will speak and no longer be mute. So you will be a sign for them, and they will know that I am ADONAI.'"

Vengeance on Nearby Nations

25 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²“Son of man, set your face toward the children of Ammon and prophesy against them. ³Say to the children of Ammon—‘Hear the word of ADONAI, thus says ADONAI Elohim—Because you said, “Aha!” against My Sanctuary when it was defiled, against the land of Israel when it was made desolate and against the house of Judah when they went into exile, ⁴therefore behold, I will give you over to the children of the east as a possession. They will set up their camps among you and make their dwellings among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk. ⁵I will make Rabbah a grazing place for camels and the children of Ammon a resting place for flocks. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.’

⁶“For thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Because you have clapped your hands, stomped your feet, and rejoiced with all the disdain of your soul against the land of Israel, ⁷therefore behold, I will stretch out My hand over you. I will deliver you as plunder for the nations. I will cut you off from the people. I will cause you to perish from among the countries. I will destroy you. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.’

¹²“Thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Because Edom has taken severe vengeance against the house of Judah and has grievously offended by taking revenge upon them, ¹³therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘I will stretch out My hand upon Edom. I will cut off man and beast from it. I will make it desolate. From Teman to Dedan they will fall by the sword. ¹⁴I will take My vengeance upon Edom by the hand of My people Israel. They will do in Edom according to My anger and according to My fury. They will know My vengeance.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁵Thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Because the Philistines have acted in revenge and have taken severe vengeance with scornful soul, destroying in unending hatred, ¹⁶therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: “Behold, I will stretch out My hand over the Philistines. I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the seacoast. ¹⁷I will execute severe vengeance upon them with furious punishments. So they will know that I am ADONAI, when I lay My vengeance upon them.”

Downfall of Tyre

26 On the first day of the month in the eleventh year, the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²“Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, ‘Aha, she is shattered, the gateway of the peoples—she is turned over to me! I will be filled, now that she is laid waste!’ ³Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I am against you, Tyre. I will bring up many nations against you, as the sea brings up its waves. ⁴They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down her towers. I will sweep her dust from her and make her a bare rock. ⁵She will be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea. For I have spoken it.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI. ‘She will become plunder for the nations, ⁶and her daughters in the field will be slain by the sword. So they will know that I am ADONAI.’

⁷“For thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, from the north I will bring against Tyre Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, king of kings, with horses, with chariots, with horsemen and a vast army of troops. ⁸He will slaughter your daughters in the field with the sword. He will build siege works against you, cast up an assault ramp against you and raise up shields against you. ⁹He will thrust his battering engines against your walls. He will tear down your towers with his weapons. ¹⁰You will be covered with dust from the multitude of his horses. At the noise of the horsemen, wheels and chariots, your walls will shake, when he enters your gates, as men enter a breached city. ¹¹With the hoofs of his horses he will trample all your streets. He will kill your people with the sword. The pillars of your strength will come down to the ground. ¹²They will rob your riches and plunder your merchandise. They will tear down your walls and destroy your fine houses. They will cast your stones and your lumber and your dust into the midst of the sea. ¹³I will put an end to the sound of your songs. The sound of your lyres will no longer be heard. ¹⁴I will make you a bare rock; you will be a place for the spreading of nets, you will be built no more; for I, ADONAI, have spoken.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁵“Thus says ADONAI Elohim to Tyre: ‘Will the coastlands not shake at the sound of your downfall—when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in your midst? ¹⁶Then all the princes of the sea will come down from their thrones. They will cast aside their robes. They will take off their richly woven garments; they will clothe themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground. They will tremble every moment and be appalled at you. ¹⁷They will lift a lament for you and say to you:

“How you have perished
—you who were inhabited from the seas,
the renowned city, strong in the sea,
you and your inhabitants, who spread their terror

for all your inhabitants!

¹⁸ Now the coastlands will tremble in the day of your downfall.

The islands of the sea will be terrified at your demise.”

¹⁹ “For thus says ADONAI Elohim: “When I make you a desolate city, like the cities that are uninhabited, when I bring the flood upon you and the great waters cover you— ²⁰ then I will bring you down with them who descend into the Pit, to the people of long ago. I will make you dwell in the lowest parts of the earth, like the waste places of old, with those who go down to the Pit, so that you will not be inhabited or radiate splendor in the land of the living. ²¹ I will make you a horror, and you will no longer exist. Though you are sought for, you will never be found again.” It is a declaration of ADONAI Elohim.

27 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² “You, son of man, lift up a lament for Tyre. ³ Say to Tyre, dwelling at the entrance of the sea, the merchant to the people of many coastlands, thus says ADONAI Elohim:

“Tyre, you said: “I am perfect in beauty!”

⁴ Your borders are in the heart of the seas, your builders perfected your beauty.

⁵ All your planks have been fashioned from cypress trees of Senir.

They took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

⁶ They made your oars from Bashan’s oaks. Of boxwood from the islands of Kittim they made your decks, inlaid with ivory.

⁷ Fine Egyptian linen was your sail, serving as a banner for you.

Your awning was blue and purple from the coasts of Elishah.

⁸ The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers.

Your skilled men, Tyre, were on you—they were your sailors.

⁹ The elders of Gebal and her experts were within you, caulking your leaks.

All the ships of the sea with their sailors were with you to trade for your wares.

¹⁰ Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army, our men of war.

They hung the shield and helmet in you; they gave you splendor.

¹¹ Men of Arvad and Helech were all around on your walls, the Gammadim were in your towers.

They hung their shields all around on your walls. They perfected your beauty.

¹² “Tarshish was your trading partner because of the abundance of all riches. With silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your merchandise. ¹³ Javan, Tubal, and Meshech were your traffickers—they gave lives of people and vessels of bronze for your wares. ¹⁴ Those from the house of Togarmah traded for your merchandise with horses, steeds, and mules. ¹⁵ The men of Dedan traded with you; many coastlands were your customers; they brought you horns of ivory and ebony as your payment. ¹⁶ Aram was your customer because of your abundant goods—they traded for your merchandise with emerald, purple and embroidered cloth, fine linen, coral, and rubies. ¹⁷ Judah and the land of Israel were your customers; they traded for your wares with wheat of Minnith, confections, honey, oil, and balm. ¹⁸ Damascus was your customer because of the abundance of your goods and all your great wealth, with the wine of Helbon and wool of white †. ¹⁹ Vedan and Javan from Uzal traded for your wares—ironwork, cinnamon, and spices were bartered for your merchandise. ²⁰ Dedan was your dealer in saddlecloth for riding. ²¹ Arabia and all the princes of Kedar were your favored trading partners in lambs, rams, and goats; in these they were your customers. ²² The merchants of Sheba and Raamah were your vendors—they traded for your wares with the finest spices, all precious stones, and gold. ²³ Haran and Canneh and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad traded with you. ²⁴ They traded for your merchandise with gorgeous fabrics, garments of blue and richly woven work, carpets of multi-colored material, with cords twisted and tightly knotted. ²⁵ The ships of Tarshish serve as carriers for your wares.

“So you were filled and heavily loaded in the heart of the seas.

²⁶ Your rowers have brought you into great waters.

But the east wind will break you in the heart of the seas.

²⁷ Your riches, your wares, your merchandise, your sailors, your pilots, your caulkers, the traders of your merchandise, all your men of war that are in you, with all your company in your midst will fall into the heart of the seas on the day of your downfall.

²⁸ At the sound of the cry of your pilots the countryside will shake.

²⁹ All the oarsmen, the sailors, and all the mariners of the sea will come down from their ships to stand on the ground.

³⁰ They will raise their voices over you and cry bitterly.

They will throw up dust on their heads. They will roll themselves in ashes.

³¹ They will shave themselves bald for you and put on sackcloth.

They will weep for you with bitter soul, with bitter lament.

³² In their wailing they will take up a lament for you.

† Hebrew Zahar

They will mourn over you:
 “Who was like Tyre—silenced in the midst of the sea?”
³³ When your merchandise came out from the seas, you satisfied many people.
 With the abundance of your wealth and your wares
 you enriched the kings of the earth.
³⁴ Now you are shattered by the seas in the depths of the waters.
 Your merchandise and all your company have fallen in your midst.
³⁵ All the inhabitants of the coastlands are appalled at you.
 Their kings are horribly afraid,
 their faces are convulsed.
³⁶ The merchants among the people hiss at you.
 You have become a horror
 and will be no more.”

Pride for Tyre

28 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² “Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, thus says ADONAI Elohim :
 “So your heart is exalted and you say, “I am a god!
 I sit in the seat of the gods
 in the heart of the seas!”
 Yet you are human, not a god, even if you set up your heart like the heart of a god.
³ See, you are wiser than Daniel!
 No secret is hidden from you!
⁴ By your wisdom and by understanding you have made wealth for yourself and have gathered gold and silver into your treasuries.
⁵ In your great skill, by your trade,
 you have increased your wealth,
 so your heart is exalted
 by your wealth.’
⁶ “Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim :
 ‘Because you have set up your heart
 like the heart of God, ⁷ behold, I will bring strangers against you,
 the ruthless of the nations.
 They will draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom.
 They will defile your splendor.
⁸ They will bring you down to the Pit.
 You will die the death of those slain
 in the heart of the seas.
⁹ Will you still say, “I am a god”
 before the one who slays you?
 Yet you are man, and not a god,
 in the hand of those who pierce you.
¹⁰ You will die the deaths of the uncircumcised at the hand of strangers.
 For I have spoken.”
 It is a declaration of ADONAI .

Lament for Tyre

¹¹ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹² “Son of man, lift up a lament for the king of Tyre. Say to him, thus says ADONAI Elohim :
 “You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty.
¹³ You were in Eden, the garden of God.
 Every precious stone was your covering —ruby, topaz and diamond, beryl, onyx and jasper, sapphire, turquoise and emerald—your settings and your sockets a workmanship of gold
 —in the day you were created they were prepared.
¹⁴ You were an anointed guardian cheruv .
 I placed you on the holy mountain of God.
 You walked among stones of fire.
¹⁵ You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you.
¹⁶ By the abundance of your trade they filled you within with violence.
 So you have sinned.
 So I threw you out as a profane thing
 from the mountain of God.
 I made you vanish, guardian cheruv , from among the stones of fire.
¹⁷ Your heart was exalted because of your beauty.
 You corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor.
 I threw you down to the earth. †
 Before kings I set you up as a spectacle.
¹⁸ “By the multitude of your iniquities, in the injustice of your trade,
 you profaned your sanctuaries.
 So I brought fire out from within you,
 and it has consumed you.
 I have turned you to ashes on the earth
 in the eyes of all who saw you.
¹⁹ All who know you among the people will be appalled at you.
 You have become a horror
 and will be nothing forever.”
²⁰ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²¹ “Son of man, set your face toward Sidon and prophesy against her. ²² Say, thus says ADONAI Elohim : “Behold, I am against you, Zidon. I will be glorified in your midst. They will know that I am ADONAI , when I execute judgments in her, and show my holiness through her. ²³ I will send a plague to her and blood in her streets. The wounded will fall in her midst by the sword on every side. So they will know that I am ADONAI .’ ²⁴ “Never again will there be a briar pricking at the house of Israel or a piercing thorn from any around them who scorn them. They will know that I am the Lord ADONAI .

† cf. Luke 10:18.

²⁵ "Thus says ADONAI Elohim : 'When I have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered and show my holiness through them in the eyes of the nations, then they will live in their own land which I gave to My servant Jacob. ²⁶ They will live safely there, and they will build houses and plant vineyards. They will live securely when I have executed judgments on all those around them that treated them with contempt. So they will know that I am ADONAI their God.'"

Prophecy against Egypt

29 On the twelfth day of the tenth month of the tenth year, the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt. Prophecy against him and against all Egypt, ³ speak and say, "thus says ADONAI Elohim :

"Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great crocodile lying in his rivers, who says:

"My Nile is my own—I made it for myself."

⁴ I will put hooks in your jaws and make the fish of your streams stick to your scales.

I will haul you up from within your rivers and all the fish of your streams will stick to your scales.

⁵ I will leave you in the desert—you and all the fish of your streams. You will fall on the open field.

You will not be gathered or picked up. I will give you as food for the beasts of the earth and the birds of the sky.

⁶ Then all the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am ADONAI , because they were a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

⁸ "Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim : 'Behold, I will bring a sword against you. I will cut off from you man and beast. ⁹ The land of Egypt will become desolate and waste. Then they will know that I am ADONAI . Because he said, 'The Nile is mine—I made it!' ¹⁰ therefore behold, I am against you and against your rivers. I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from Migdol to Syene, as far as the border of Ethiopia. ¹¹ No human foot will pass through it, and no foot of beast will pass through it. It will be uninhabited for 40 years. ¹² I will make the land of Egypt a desolation among devastated countries. Her cities will be a desolation 40 years among ruined cities. I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries.'

¹³ "For thus says ADONAI Elohim : 'At the end of 40 years, I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered. ¹⁴ I will restore the fortunes of Egypt. I will cause them to return to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin. But they will be a lowly kingdom there. ¹⁵ It will be the lowliest of the kingdoms. It will no longer exalt itself above the nations. I will diminish them, so that they no longer rule over the nations. ¹⁶ It will no longer be as security for the house of Israel, bringing to mind the iniquity of their turning after them. So they will know that I am ADONAI .'

¹⁹ "Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim : 'Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will carry off her abundance, take her spoil, and take her prey. It will be the wages for his army. ²⁰ I have given him the land of Egypt as his wages for which he served, because they worked for Me.' It is a declaration of ADONAI .

Messianic Horn

²¹ "In that day I will cause a horn to shoot up for the house of Israel. I will open your mouth among them. They will know that I am ADONAI ."

Doom of Egypt

30 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "Son of man, prophesy, and say, thus says ADONAI Elohim :

"Wail, alas, for the day!

³ For the day is near, the day of ADONAI is near, a day of clouds, a time for the nations.

⁴ A sword will come against Egypt. Anguish will be in Ethiopia when the slain fall in Egypt.

They will take away her abundance. Her foundations will be torn down.

⁵ Ethiopia, Put, and Lud, all the mixed people, Libya, and children of the covenant land will fall with them by the sword.'

⁶ "Thus says ADONAI Elohim : 'Those who support Egypt will fall. The pride of her power will collapse. From Migdol to Syene they will fall within her by the sword.' It is a declaration of ADONAI .

⁷ "They will be desolate among desolate lands. Her cities will be among ruined cities.

⁸ They will know that I am ADONAI, when I have set a fire in Egypt and all her supporters are destroyed.

⁹ "On that day, messengers will go out from before Me in ships to frighten Ethiopians out of complacency. Anguish will come on them as on the day of Egypt—for, behold, it is coming!"

¹⁰ Thus says ADONAI Elohim: "I will put away the pomp of Egypt by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon. ¹¹ He and his people with him, the ruthless of the nations, will be brought in to destroy the land. They will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with the slain. ¹² I will make the rivers dry. I will sell the land into the hand of evildoers. I will make the land desolate, and all that is in it, by the hand of strangers. I, ADONAI, have spoken it."

¹³ Thus says ADONAI Elohim: "I will destroy the idols.

I will destroy the pagan gods from Noph. [†] There will no longer be a prince in the land of Egypt. I will strike terror in the land of Egypt.

¹⁴ I will make Pathros desolate.

I will set a fire in Zoan.

I will execute judgments in No. ^{††}

¹⁵ I will pour My fury on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt.

I will cut off the multitude of No.

¹⁶ I will set a fire in Egypt.

Sin will writhe in anguish.

No will be assaulted.

Noph will face enemies daily.

¹⁷ The young men of Aven and Pi-Beseth will fall by the sword and the women will go into captivity.

¹⁸ In Tehaphnehes the day will grow dark when I break the yokes of Egypt there.

The pride of her power will cease in her—a cloud will cover her.

Her daughters will go into captivity.

¹⁹ So I will execute judgments in Egypt, and they will know that I am ADONAI."

²⁰ On the seventh day of the first month of the eleventh year, the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²¹ "Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt. Behold, it has not been bound up to be healed or put in a splint, so that it is wrapped up with a bandage, to grow strong to wield the sword.

²² "Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: 'I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt. I will break his arms, the strong one and the one that was broken. I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. ²³ I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them throughout the countries. ²⁴ I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put My sword into his hand. I will break the arms of Pharaoh, so he will groan before him like a fatally wounded man. ²⁵ I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but Pharaoh's arms will fall. So they will know that I am ADONAI when I put My sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt. ²⁶ I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries. Then they will know that I am ADONAI."

Fall of the Haughty Cedar 31 On the first day of the third month of the eleventh year, the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude:

"Who is like you in your greatness?

³ Behold, Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches shadowing the forest, of lofty height.

Its top was in leafy branches.

⁴ Water nourished it,

the deep made it tall,

with its rivers going around its planting

as it sent out its water-courses to all the trees of the field.

⁵ Therefore its height was loftier than all the trees of the field.

Its branches multiplied and its boughs became long because of the abundant water in its shoots.

⁶ All the birds of the sky nested in its branches.

All the beasts of the field gave birth to their young under its branches.

All great nations lived under its shade.

⁷ It was beautiful in its greatness,

in the length of its branches,

for its root was in abundant water.

⁸ The cedars in the garden of God could not compare with it.

No cypress trees could rival its boughs.

No plane-trees could match its branches.

No tree in the garden of God could compare to its beauty.

⁹ I made it beautiful with its many limbs.

All the trees of Eden in God's garden envied it.'

¹⁰ "Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim:

'Because you were exalted in height

—its top set up among leafy branches, its heart haughty in its height—

¹¹ I gave it into the hand of a ruler of nations, who surely dealt with it.

I drove it out

as befits its wickedness.

¹² "Ruthless barbarians from the nations cut it down.

They cast it down on the mountains and in all the valleys its branches fell. Its branches have laid broken in all the streambeds of the land. All the people of the earth have come out from its shade and abandoned it.

¹³ "All the birds of the sky lived on its fallen trunk and all the beasts of the field upon its fallen branches.

[†] Or, Memphis ^{††} Or, Thebes

¹⁴“So none of all the trees by the water should exalt themselves in their height or set their top among the leafy boughs. None of their well-watered mighty ones should attain their height.

“For they have all been given to death, to the lowest regions under the earth, among the children of men who go down to the Pit.’

¹⁵“Thus says ADONAI Elohim : ‘In the day when he went down to Sheol
I caused the deep to mourn and cover itself for him.
I restrained his rivers,
so the great waters were stopped.
I made Lebanon mourn for him.
All the trees of the field wilt away for it.

¹⁶I made the nations tremble at the sound of its fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with those who descend into the Pit.

All the well-watered trees of Eden,
the choice and best of Lebanon, were comforted in the lowest parts of the earth.

¹⁷They also went down with him to Sheol , to those slain by the sword,
those who were his mighty arm, who lived in his shadow among the nations.

¹⁸“Who is like you in glory and greatness among the trees of Eden? You will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lowest parts of the earth. You will lie among the uncircumcised, with those slain by the sword.’

“This is Pharaoh and all his multitude.”
It is a declaration of ADONAI .

Lamentations for Pharaoh

32 On the first day of the twelfth month of the twelfth year, the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²“Son of man, lift up a lament for Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him:

“You compare yourself to a young lion of the nations, but you are a crocodile in the waters. You thrash about in your rivers and muddy the water with your feet and foul their streams.”

³“Thus says ADONAI Elohim :
‘I will throw My net over you with a host of many peoples.
They will haul you up in My net.
⁴I will leave you on the land.
I will hurl you on an open field.
I will cause all the birds of the sky to settle upon you.
I will gorge the beasts of the whole earth with you.

⁵I will strew your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your refuse.
⁶I will drench the land with the flow of your blood up to the hills.

The ravines will be full of you.

⁷When I extinguish you,
I will cover the sky and darken the stars.

I will cover the sun with cloud, and the moon will not give her light. †

⁸I will darken all of heaven’s bright lights over you and set darkness on your land.’

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

⁹“I will disturb the hearts of many peoples
when I bring about your destruction among the nations, into lands you have not known.

¹⁰I will make many people appalled at you.
Their kings will be totally aghast at you when I brandish My sword over you.
They will shudder every moment,
every man for his own life,
on the day of your downfall.’

¹¹“For thus says ADONAI Elohim :
‘The sword of the king of Babylon will come upon you.

¹²By the swords of the mighty
I will cause your multitude to fall.
They are all ruthless among the nations.
They will devastate the pride of Egypt.
All of its multitude will be annihilated.

¹³I will destroy all the beasts from beside plentiful water.

No human foot will muddy them again,
nor will hoofs of beasts muddy them.

¹⁴Then I will make their waters settle and make their streams flow like oil.’

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

¹⁵“When I make the land of Egypt desolate and waste when it was previously full, when I strike all that live there,
they will know that I am ADONAI .

¹⁶This is the funeral song—chant it, daughters of the nations, chant for Egypt.
All her multitude will chant it.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI .

¹⁷On the fifteenth day of the month in the twelfth year, the word of ADONAI came to me saying:

¹⁸“Son of man, wail over Egypt’s throng.
Bring them down
—her and the daughters of lofty nations, to the underworld,
to those who go down to the Pit.

¹⁹Who do you surpass in beauty?

Go down, lie with the uncircumcised.

²⁰They fall among those slain by the sword.

She is given over to the sword.

They drag her down with all her throng.

²¹The strongest warriors will speak of him and his allies from the midst of Sheol .

They have gone down,
they lie still, the uncircumcised,
slain by the sword.

²²“Assyria is there and all her company, their graves surround them

† cf. Matt. 24:29.

—all of them slain,
fallen by the sword.
²³ Her graves are set in the deepest parts of the Pit.
Her company surrounds her grave
—all of them slain, fallen by the sword
—who put terror in the land of the living.
²⁴ “There is Elam and all her multitude surrounding her grave
—all of them slain, fallen by the sword
—who went down uncircumcised into the underworld, who caused terror in the land of the living.
They bear their disgrace with those who go down to the Pit.
²⁵ They have made her a bed among the slain with all her throng, her graves about them
—all of them uncircumcised, slain, fallen by the sword—
though they caused terror in the land of the living.
So they bear their disgrace with those who go down to the Pit.
They are laid among the slain.
²⁶ “Meshech-Tubal is there and all her throng, her graves around them
—all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they spread their terror in the land of the living.
²⁷ They do not lie with the mighty,
the fallen from among the uncircumcised,
who went down to Sheol with their weapons of war.
They put their swords under their heads.
Their iniquities rest on their bones because the terror of the mighty ones was in the land of the living.
²⁸ You also will be shattered and lie among the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword.
²⁹ “Edom is there, her kings and all her princes, who for all their might are laid with those slain by the sword.
They lie with the uncircumcised,
with those who go down to the Pit.
³⁰ “The princes of the north are there,
all of them, all the Zidonians, who have gone down with the slain, ashamed for all the terror that they caused by their might.
They lie uncircumcised with those slain by the sword.
They bear their disgrace with those who go down to
the Pit.
³¹ When Pharaoh sees them,
he will be comforted for all his throng, Pharaoh and all his army,
slain by the sword.”
It is a declaration of ADONAI.
³² “For I have put My terror in the land of the living.
He will lie among the uncircumcised,
with those slain by the sword, Pharaoh and all his multitude.”

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Watchman, Blow the Shofar

33 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² “Son of man, speak to the children of your people and say to them: ‘When I bring the sword upon a land, suppose the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him as their watchman. ³ If, when he sees the sword coming upon the land, he blows the shofar and warns the people, ⁴ then whoever hears the sound of the shofar but ignores the warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, his blood will be on his own head. ⁵ He heard the sound of the shofar and ignored the warning; his blood will be on himself. However, if he had taken warning, he would have saved his soul. ⁶ But if the watchman sees the sword come and does not blow the shofar, the people are not warned. Then the sword does come and takes a person from among them—he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman’s hand.’

⁷ “You, son of man, I have set you as a watchman for the house of Israel. When you hear the word from My mouth, warn them from Me. ⁸ When I say to the wicked: ‘Wicked one, you will surely die!’ and you do not speak to warn the wicked about his way—that wicked one will die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. ⁹ If you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it and he does not turn from his way, then he will die in his iniquity—but you have saved your soul.

¹⁰ “You, son of man, say to the house of Israel: ‘You have said, “Surely our transgressions and our sins are upon us and we are pining away in them. So how can we live.’ ¹¹ Say to them: ‘As I live—it is a declaration of ADONAI—I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live.
Return, return from your evil ways. Why will you die, O house of Israel?’

¹² “You, son of man, say to the children of your people: ‘The righteousness of the righteous person will not deliver him in the day of his transgression. Nor will the wickedness of the wicked person make him stumble in it on the day he turns away from his wickedness.
Nor will the righteous person be able to live by it on the day he sins. ¹³ When I tell the righteous that he will surely live, but he trusts in his own righteousness and commits iniquity, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered. But in his iniquity that he has committed, he will die. ¹⁴ When I say to the wicked, “You will surely die,” yet he turns from his sin and does what is just and right— ¹⁵ if the wicked restores a pledge, gives back what he had taken by robbery, walks in the laws of life, committing no iniquity—he will surely live, he will not die. ¹⁶ None of his sins that he has committed will be remembered against him. He has done what is just and right; he will surely live.’

¹⁷“Yet the children of your people say, ‘The way of ADONAI isn’t fair!’ but it is their way, theirs that is unfair. ¹⁸When a righteous person turns from his righteousness and commits iniquity, he will die in it. ¹⁹When a wicked person turns from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live by it. ²⁰Yet you say, ‘The way of ADONAI is not fair!’ House of Israel, I will judge every one of you according to his ways.”

Jerusalem Falls

²¹In the twelfth year of our exile, on the fifth day of the tenth month, a survivor from Jerusalem came to me saying, “The city has been struck down.” ²²The hand of ADONAI had been upon me in the evening, before the survivor came. He had opened my mouth by the time of his coming to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer mute.

²³Then the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²⁴“Son of man, the inhabitants of these ruins in the land of Israel keep saying, ‘Abraham was only one, yet he inherited the land. Since we are many, the land is given to us as a possession.’

²⁵“Therefore say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘You eat with the blood, lift up your eyes to your idols and shed blood. Should you possess the land? ²⁶You rely on your sword, commit abominations, and each of you defiles his neighbor’s wife. Should you possess the land?’ ²⁷Say this to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘As I live, surely those who are in the ruins will fall by the sword. Whoever is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and whoever is in the strongholds and in the caves will die of the plague. ²⁸I will make the land a desolation and a horror. The pride of her power will cease. The mountains of Israel will be desolate, so that no one will pass through.’ ²⁹They will know that I am ADONAI, when I have made the land a desolate waste, because of all their abominations that they have committed.

³⁰“Now as for you, son of man, the children of your people are talking about you by the walls and in the doorways of the houses. Each one speaks to one another, each saying to his brother: ‘Come now, hear what message is coming forth from ADONAI!’ ³¹So they come to you, as people come, and sit before you as My people and hear your words—but they do not do them—for with their mouth they express dotting love, but their heart goes after their own dishonest gain. ³²Look, you are like a love song to them, one who has a beautiful voice and can play well on an instrument. They hear your words, but do not practice them. ³³When this comes to pass—behold, it is coming—they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

ADONAI, Our Shepherd

34 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ²“Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy and say to those shepherds, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Oy, shepherds of Israel who only take care of themselves! Should shepherds not take care of the sheep? ³You eat the fat. You clothe yourself with the wool. You kill the fat ones. But you do not take care of the sheep. ⁴You do not strengthen the weak, heal the sick, bind up the broken, bring back the stray, or seek the lost. Instead, you have ruled over them with force and cruelty. ⁵They were scattered for lack of a shepherd. They became food for all the beasts of the field as they were scattered. ⁶My sheep wandered through all the mountains and on every high hill. Over all the face of the earth My sheep were scattered. No one searched. No one sought.’

⁷“Therefore, shepherds, hear the word of ADONAI: ⁸‘As I live—it is a declaration of ADONAI—as surely as My sheep became prey and My sheep became food for all the beasts of the field, because there was no shepherd, nor did My shepherds search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My sheep,’ ⁹therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of ADONAI, ¹⁰thus says ADONAI Elohim: Behold, I am against the shepherds and I will demand My flock from their hand. I will dismiss them from tending the flock. The shepherds will no longer feed themselves. I will rescue My sheep from their mouth, so they will not be food for them.’

¹¹“For thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Here I am! I Myself will search for My sheep and seek them out. ¹²As a shepherd seeks out his sheep on the day he is among his scattered flock, so I will seek out My sheep. I will rescue them out of all the places where they have been scattered, on a day of cloud and thick darkness. ¹³I will bring them out from the peoples. I will gather them from the countries. I will bring them back to their own land. I will shepherd them upon the mountains of Israel, by the streams and in all the habitable places of the land. ¹⁴I will shepherd them in a good pasture—their grazing place will be on the high mountains of Israel. There they will lie down on good grazing ground. They will feed in a rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵I will tend My flock and make them lie down”’—it is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁶“‘I will seek the lost and bring back the stray, bind up the broken and strengthen the sick. But the fat and the strong I will destroy—I will tend them with justice. ¹⁷As for you, My flock’—thus says ADONAI Elohim—‘behold, I will judge between sheep and sheep, between rams and male goats. ¹⁸Was it too little for you that you were feeding in the good pasture? Must you trample down the rest of your pastures with your feet? You were drinking clear water. Must you muddy the rest with your feet? ¹⁹Yet My sheep must eat what you have trampled with your feet and drink what you have muddied with your feet!’

²⁰“Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim to them: ‘Behold, I Myself will judge between the fat sheep and the

lean sheep. ²¹ Because you thrust with your side and with shoulder and gore all the weak with your horns, until you have scattered them all over, ²² I will save My flock. They will no longer be prey. I will judge between sheep and sheep. ²³ So I will set up One Shepherd over them, My servant David—He will tend them, He will feed them Himself, and be their shepherd. ²⁴ I, ADONAI, will be their God, and My servant David will be Prince among them. I, ADONAI, have spoken.

²⁵ “I will make a covenant of shalom with them. I will remove the evil beasts from the land, so they may dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the forest. ²⁶ I will make them and the places around My hill a blessing. I will cause the rain to come down in its season. There will be showers of blessing. ²⁷ The tree of the field will yield its fruit. The ground will yield its produce. They will be secure in their land. Then they will know that I am ADONAI, when I have broken the bars of their yoke and have delivered them from the hand of those who enslaved them. ²⁸ They will no longer be prey to the nations. The beast of the earth will not devour them. They will live in security. No one will make them afraid. ²⁹ I will make their agriculture renowned. They will no longer be consumed with hunger in the land. They will no longer bear the scorn of the nations. ³⁰ They will know that I, ADONAI their God, am with them. They, the house of Israel, are My people.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI. ³¹ ‘So you, My sheep, the sheep of My pasture, you are human, and I am your God.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI Elohim.

Edom Made Desolate

³⁵ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² “Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it. ³ Say to it, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir. I will stretch out My hand over you and make you utterly desolate. ⁴ I will lay your cities waste. You will be devastated. So you will know that I am ADONAI.

⁵ “Because you have a long-standing hatred and have delivered Bnei-Yisrael to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of their final punishment, ⁶ therefore, as I live—it is a declaration of ADONAI—I will destine you for blood, and bloodshed will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, therefore bloodshed will pursue you. ⁷ I will make Mount Seir an utter desolation. I will cut off from it all who come and go. ⁸ I will fill its mountains with its slain; on your hills, your valleys, and all your streams those slain by the sword will fall. ⁹ I will make you everlasting desolations; your cities will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am ADONAI.

¹⁰ “Because you said: “These two nations and these two lands will be mine! We will possess them”—though ADONAI was there—¹¹ therefore, as I live—it is a declaration of ADONAI—I will deal with you with the same anger and envy that you had because of your hatred against them. I will make Myself known among them, when I judge you. ¹² You will know that I, ADONAI, have heard all your blasphemies that you uttered against the mountains of Israel saying: “They are laid desolate—they are given for us to devour!” ¹³ You have magnified yourselves against Me with your mouth. You multiplied your words against Me. I heard it.’

¹⁴ “Thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. ¹⁵ As you rejoiced over inheriting the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will do to you. You will be desolate, Mount Seir and all Edom—all of it. Then they will know that I am ADONAI.’

Comfort to the Land of Israel

³⁶ “You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel and say: ‘Mountains of Israel, hear the word of ADONAI. ² Thus says ADONAI Elohim: The enemy has said against you, “Aha! Even the ancient high places have become our possession!” ³ Therefore prophesy and say, thus says ADONAI Elohim: Because they ravaged and crushed you from every side, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations and you became the talk and evil gossip of people, ⁴ therefore, mountains of Israel, hear the word of ADONAI, thus says ADONAI Elohim to the mountains, the hills, the streams and the valleys, the desolate wastes, and the cities that are forsaken, which have become prey and derision to the rest of the surrounding nations. ⁵ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: Surely in the fire of My wrath I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, that have taken My land for themselves as a possession with the joy of all their heart and contempt in their souls, in order to seize it as plunder. ⁶ Therefore, prophesy to the land of Israel and say to the mountains and the hills, the streams and the valleys, thus says ADONAI Elohim: Behold, I have spoken in My wrath and in My fury, because you have suffered the scorn of the nations.’ ⁷ Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: I have lifted My hand. Surely the nations that surround you will themselves suffer scorn.

⁸ “But you, mountains of Israel, you will shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit for My people Israel; for their return is near. ⁹ For behold, I am for you. I will turn to you. You will be tilled and sown. ¹⁰ I will settle a large population upon you—the whole house of Israel, all of it. The cities will be inhabited. The desolate places will be built up. ¹¹ I will multiply man and beast upon you. They will increase and be fruitful. I will cause you to be inhabited as you were before. I will do better for you than at your beginnings. You will know that I am ADONAI. ¹² I will cause people, my people Israel, to walk upon you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance. You will no longer deprive them of children.’

¹³ “Thus says ADONAI Elohim : ‘Because they say to you, “You are a devourer of men and you deprive your nation of children,” ¹⁴ therefore you will no longer devour men and you will no longer deprive your nation of children.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI . ¹⁵ ‘I will no longer let the scorn of the nations be heard against you. You will no longer bear disgrace from the peoples. You will no longer cause your nation to stumble.’” It is a declaration of ADONAI .

¹⁶ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹⁷ “Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their deeds. Their way before Me was like the uncleanness of a woman in her niddah . ¹⁸ So I poured out My fury on them for the blood which they had shed upon the land and because they had defiled it with their idols. ¹⁹ I scattered them among the nations, so they were dispersed through the countries. According to their way and their deeds I judged them. ²⁰ Wherever they went among the nations, they profaned My holy Name, since it was said about them, ‘These are the people of ADONAI , yet they had to leave His land.’ ²¹ But I had concern for My holy Name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations wherever they went.

²² “Therefore say to the house of Israel, thus says ADONAI Elohim : ‘I do not do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for My holy Name, which you profaned among the nations wherever you went. ²³ I will sanctify My great Name, which has been profaned among the nations—which you have profaned among them. The nations will know that I am ADONAI ’—it is a declaration of ADONAI —‘when I am sanctified in you before their eyes.

New Heart, New Spirit

²⁴ “For I will take you from the nations, gather you out of all the countries, and bring you back to your own land. ²⁵ Then I will sprinkle clean water on you and you will be clean from all your uncleanness and from all your idols. ²⁶ Moreover, I will give you a new heart. I will put a new spirit within you. I will remove the stony heart from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷ I will put My Ruach within you. Then I will cause you to walk in My laws, so you will keep My rulings and do them. ²⁸ Then you will live in the land that I gave to your fathers. You will be My people and I will be your God.

²⁹ “So I will save you from all your uncleanness. I will call for the grain and make it plentiful. I will not bring a famine upon you. ³⁰ I will multiply the fruit of the tree and the produce of the field, so that you will no longer bear the disgrace of famine among the nations. ³¹ When you remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good, you will be disgusted with yourselves because of your iniquities and your abominations. ³² Not for your sake will I do this’—it is a declaration of ADONAI —‘let that be known to you. Be

³³ “Thus says ADONAI Elohim : ‘In the day that I pronounce you clean from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited and the ruins will be rebuilt. ³⁴ The land that was desolate will be tilled instead of being a wasteland in the sight of all that passed by. ³⁵ They will say, “This land that was a wasteland has become like the garden of Eden. The waste, desolate, and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.” ³⁶ Then the nations that are left all around you will know that I, ADONAI , have rebuilt the ruined places, and replanted what was desolate. I, ADONAI , have spoken it. So I will do it.’

³⁷ “Thus says ADONAI Elohim : ‘I will again be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them—I will populate them with people like a flock. ³⁸ Like the holy flock, like the flock of Jerusalem during her moadim , so the waste cities will be filled with flocks of people. † Then they will know that I am ADONAI .”

Dry Bones Live

37 The hand of ADONAI was upon me. The Ruach ADONAI carried me out and set me down in the middle of the valley. It was full of bones. ² He led me all around them. Behold, there were very many on the floor of the valley. Behold, they were very dry. ³ Then He said to me, “Son of man, can these bones live?” †

I answered, “ADONAI Elohim , You know.”

⁴ “Prophecy over these bones,” He said to me. “Say to them: ‘Dry bones, hear the word of ADONAI !’ ⁵ Thus says ADONAI Elohim to these bones: Behold, I will cause Ruach †† to enter you, so you will live. ⁶ I will attach tendons to you, bring flesh on you and cover you with skin. Then I will put breath in you. You will live. You will know that I am ADONAI .”

⁷ So I prophesied just as I was commanded. As I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, an earthquake. Then the bones came together, bone to its bone. ⁸ I saw, and behold, there were tendons on them, flesh came up and skin covered them above, but there was no breath in them.

⁹ Then He said to me, “Prophecy to the Ruach . Prophecy, son of man, and say to the Ruach , ‘thus says ADONAI Elohim : Come from the four winds, Ruach ! Breathe upon these slain, that they may live.’” ¹⁰ So I prophesied just as He commanded me. The Ruach came into them and they lived. They stood up on their feet, a vast army.

¹¹ Then He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say: ‘Our bones are dried up; our hope is lost; we are cut off—by ourselves.’ ¹² Therefore prophecy and say to them, thus says ADONAI Elohim : ‘Behold, I will open your graves. I will bring you up out of your graves, My people. I will bring you back to the land of Israel.

¹³ You will know that I am ADONAI, when I have opened your graves and brought you up out of your graves, My people. ¹⁴ I will put My Ruach in you and you will live. I will place you in your own land. Then you will know that I, ADONAI, have spoken and that I have done it." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Reunification of Southern and Northern Kingdoms

¹⁵ The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹⁶ "You, son of man, take one stick and write on it, 'For Judah'—for Bnei-Yisrael joined with him. Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph'—the stick of Ephraim and all the house of Israel joined with him. ¹⁷ Join them one to another for yourself, as one stick, so they may become one in your hand.

¹⁸ "When the children of your people speak to you saying, 'Won't you tell us what you mean by these?' ¹⁹ say to them, 'thus says ADONAI Elohim: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph—which is in the hand of Ephraim and the tribes of Israel joined with him—and I will put them together with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick. They will be one in My hand.' ²⁰ The sticks that you write on will be in your hand before their eyes.

²¹ "Then say to them, 'thus says ADONAI Elohim: Behold, I will take Bnei-Yisrael from among the nations, where they have gone. I will gather them from every side and bring them into their own land. ²² I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel, and one king will be king to them all. They will no longer be two nations and never again be divided into two kingdoms. ²³ They will never again be defiled with their idols, their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions. I will save them out of all their dwellings in which they sinned. I will purify them. Then they will be My people and I will be their God. ²⁴ My servant David will be king over them. They will all have One Shepherd. They will walk in My ordinances and observe My rulings and do them. ²⁵ They will live in the land that I gave to My servant Jacob, where your ancestors lived. They will live there—they, their children, and their children's children, forever, and My servant David will be their prince forever. ²⁶ I will cut a covenant of shalom with them—it will be an everlasting covenant with them. I will give to them and multiply them. I will set up My Sanctuary among them forever. ²⁷ My dwelling-place will be over them. I will be their God and they will be My people. ²⁸ Then the nations will know that I am ADONAI who sanctifies Israel, when My Sanctuary is in their midst forever."

Gog's Alliance Invades Israel

38 The word of ADONAI came to me saying: ² "Son of man, set your face toward Gog of the land of Magog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. ^{††} Prophecy against him ³ and say, 'thus says ADONAI Elohim: Behold, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. ⁴ I will turn you about and put hooks into your jaws. I will bring you out, with all your army, horses, and horsemen—all of them splendidly dressed—a vast assembly with breastplate and shield, all of them wielding swords. ⁵ With them will be Persia, Cush, and Put, all of them with shield and helmet, ⁶ Gomer and all his troops, the house of Togarmah from the extreme north and all his troops—many peoples with you.

⁷ "Be prepared, prepare yourself, you and all your company gathered around you. Be a guard for them. ⁸ After many days you will be summoned. In the latter years, you will come against the land that has been brought back from the sword and regathered from many peoples on the mountains of Israel, which had been a continual waste. But they were brought out from the peoples. When all of them are dwelling securely, ⁹ you will come up, you will come like a storm, you will be like a cloud covering the land—you and all your troops and many peoples with you.'

¹⁰ "Thus says ADONAI Elohim: 'It will come to pass in that day that things will come into your heart and you will devise an evil plan. ¹¹ You will say, "I will go up against the land of unwallled villages. I will fall upon the quiet people who live securely, all of them living without walls, having no bars or gates, ¹² in order to seize spoil and carry off plunder, to turn your hand against the waste places now inhabited and against the people gathered from the nations, who have been acquiring livestock and property, who live in the center of the world."

¹³ "Sheba, Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish with all its young lions will say to you: "Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your company to plunder? To carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and property, to make off with immense spoils?"

¹⁴ "Therefore, son of man, prophesy, say to Gog, thus says ADONAI Elohim: "In that day when My people Israel dwell safely, will you not know? ¹⁵ You will come from your place out of the extreme north—you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and mighty army. ¹⁶ You will come up against My people Israel like a cloud covering the land. It will happen in the last days. I will bring you against My land, so that the nations may know Me—when I am sanctified through you, Gog, before their eyes."

¹⁷ "Thus says ADONAI Elohim: 'Are you the one that I spoke about in former times through My servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them? ¹⁸ In that day, when Gog comes against the land of Israel—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"My fury will rise up in My nostrils. ¹⁹ In My jealousy and the fire of My wrath I have spoken! Surely in that day there will be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. ²⁰ The fish of the sea, the birds of the heavens, the beasts of the field, all creeping things that creep upon the ground, and all humans upon the face of the earth will shake at My presence. The mountains will be thrown down. The steep places will fall. Every wall will fall to the ground. ²¹ I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains—it is a declaration of ADONAI—“every man’s sword will be against his brother. ²² I will punish him with pestilence and blood. I will pour out rain on him, on his troops, and on the many peoples with him, a torrential rain, with hailstones, fire, and brimstone. ²³ So I will magnify and sanctify Myself. I will make Myself known in the eyes of many nations, and they will know that I am ADONAI.’

Destruction of Gog

39 “You, son of man, prophesy against Gog and say, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘Behold, I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech and Tubal. ² I will turn you around, drive you along, and lead you up from the extreme north. I will bring you upon the mountains of Israel. ³ Then I will strike your bow from your left hand and make your arrows drop from your right hand. ⁴ You will fall on the mountains of Israel—you, all your troops, and the people that are with you. I will give you as food to all kinds of birds of prey and to the beasts of the field. ⁵ You will fall on an open field, for I have spoken.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI.

⁶ “I will send fire on Magog and on those who live securely in the islands. Then they will know that I am ADONAI. ⁷ So I will make My holy Name known among My people Israel. I will not let My holy Name be profaned anymore. The nations will know that I am ADONAI, the Holy One in Israel. ⁸ Behold, it is coming. It will be done.’—it is a declaration of ADONAI—‘This is the day that I have spoken about.

⁹ “The inhabitants of Israel’s cities will go out and kindle fires with the weapons—shields and breastplates, bows and arrows, war clubs and spears. They will make fires with them for seven years. ¹⁰ They will not take wood out of the field or cut anything from the forests, for they will make fire from the weapons. They will plunder those who plundered them and loot those who looted them.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹¹ “On that day, I will give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the valley of the travelers east of the sea. It will block those who travel through, since they will bury Gog and all his multitude there. Then they will call it the valley of Hamon-Gog. ¹² The house of Israel will bury them for seven months, in order to cleanse the land. ¹³ All the people of the land will bury them. It will be memorable for them, a day when I am glorified.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁴ “Men will be continually set apart to travel through the land and bury the travelers remaining on the face of the land, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months, they will make their search. ¹⁵ When they travel through the land, if any sees a man’s bone, he will set up a sign by it, until the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-Gog. ¹⁶ Hamonah will also be the name of the city. So they will cleanse the land.’

¹⁷ “You, son of man”—thus says ADONAI Elohim—“say to every kind of bird and to every beast of the field: ‘Assemble and come! Gather from all around to My sacrificial feast that I have prepared for you, a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. You will eat flesh and drink blood. ¹⁸ You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth—as rams, lambs, goats, bulls—all of them fatlings of Bashan. ¹⁹ So you will eat fat until you are gorged and you will drink blood until you are drunk, from My sacrificial feast that I have prepared for you. ²⁰ You will be filled at My table with horses and horsemen, with mighty men and all the warriors.’ It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Israel Will Know ADONAI

²¹ “I will put My glory among the nations. All the nations will see My judgment that I will execute and My hand that I will lay on them. ²² The house of Israel will know that I am ADONAI their God, from that day onward. ²³ The nations will know that the house of Israel went into exile for their iniquity, because they broke faith with Me. So I hid My face from them and gave them into the hand of their enemies. All of them fell by the sword. ²⁴ I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their transgressions. I hid My face from them.’

²⁵ “Therefore thus says ADONAI Elohim: “Now I will restore Jacob from exile, when I have compassion on the whole house of Israel. I will be zealous for My holy Name. ²⁶ They will bear their shame and all their disloyalty by which they broke faith with Me, when they were living securely in their land, with no one making them afraid. ²⁷ When I have brought them back from the peoples and have gathered them out of their enemies’ lands, I will be sanctified in them in the eyes of many nations. ²⁸ Then they will know that I am ADONAI their God, since it was I who caused them to go into exile among the nations and I who will gather them back to their own land. I will never again leave them there. ²⁹ I will never again hide My face from them. For I have poured out My Ruach upon the house of Israel.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Measurements of a New Temple

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month—in the fourteenth year after the city was struck down, on that very day—the hand of ADONAI was on me, and He brought me there. ² In visions God brought me to the land of Israel and set me down upon a very high mountain. On it, toward the south, was something like the construction of a city. ³ He brought me there, and behold, there was a man whose appearance was like bronze. † He had a linen cord in his hand and a measuring rod. †† He was standing in the gateway.

† Meaning, Gog’s multitude

⁴ The man said to me, “Son of man, see with your eyes, hear with your ears, set your heart on all that I show you—for I brought you here in order to show you—and report all that you see to the house of Israel.”

⁶ Then he went to the gate that faced east and went up its steps. When he measured the threshold of the gate, it was 1 rod wide. Also the other threshold was 1 rod wide. ⁷ Each guard chamber was 1 rod long and 1 rod wide. The space between the chambers was 5 cubits. The threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate, facing the House, measured 1 rod. ⁸ When he measured the porch of the gate toward the House, it was 1 rod. ⁹ When he measured the porch of the gate, it was 8 cubits; its pillars were 2 cubits. The porch of the gate faced the House. ¹⁰ Now the guard chambers of the east gate were three on this side, and three on the other side—the three had the same measurement. The side pillars had the same measure on this side and on that side. ¹¹ When he measured the width of the entrance of the gate, it was 10 cubits, and the length of the gate was 13 cubits. ¹² A barrier wall was in front of the guard chambers, 1 cubit on each side. Each chamber was 6 cubits on each side. ¹³ When he measured the gate from the roof of the one chamber to the roof of the other, the width was 25 cubits, door facing door. ¹⁴ Then he did the pillars—60 cubits. A gateway extended all around to the pillar of the courtyard. ¹⁵ Now from the front of the gate of the entrance to the front of the inner porch of the gate measured 50 cubits. ¹⁶ There were shuttered windows toward the chambers and toward their pillars within the surrounding gate, and likewise the porches had windows all around inside. On each pillar were palm trees.

¹⁷ Then he brought me to the outer court. †† Behold, there were rooms and pavement, made for the surrounding court, with 30 rooms along the pavement. ¹⁸ The pavement was by the side of the gates, as wide as the gates were long. This was the lower pavement. ¹⁹ He measured the width from the front of the lower gate to the exterior front of the inner court—it was 100 cubits, to the east and to the north.

²⁰ Next he measured the length and width of the gate of the outer court facing toward the north. ²¹ Its guard chambers were three on this side and three on that side. Its pillars and its porches had the same measurements as the first gate—50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ²² Its windows, porches, and palm trees were the same measurements as the gate facing toward the east. Its stairway had seven steps, and its porch was in front of them. ²³ A gate to the inner court was opposite the other gate, northward and eastward. He measured 100 cubits from gate to gate.

²⁴ Then he led me toward the south, and behold, there was a gate toward the south. He measured its pillars and its porches. They had the same measurements. ²⁵ The gate and its porch had windows all around, like the other windows, 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ²⁶ Its stairway had seven steps, and its porches were in front of them. It had palm trees on its pillars, one on this side and another on that side.

²⁸ Then he brought me to the inner court through the south gate. When he measured the south gate, it had the same measurements. ²⁹ Its chambers, pillars, and porch had the same measurements. There were windows in it and in the surrounding porch. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ³⁰ There were porches all around, 25 cubits long and 5 cubits wide. ³¹ Its porch was toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its pillars. Its stairway had 8 steps.

³² Then he brought me into the inner court toward the east. He measured it with the same measurements. ³³ Its chambers, pillars, and porch had the same measurements. There were windows in it and in its surrounding porch. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ³⁴ Its porch was toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its pillars on this side and on that side. Its stairway had 8 steps.

³⁵ He brought me to the north gate. He measured it with the same measurements: ³⁶ its chambers, pillars, and porch. There were windows in it all around. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ³⁷ Its pillars were toward the outer court. Palm trees were on its pillars, on this side and on that side. Its stairway had 8 steps. ³⁸ A chamber with its entry was by the pillars at the gates; there they rinse the burnt offering. ³⁹ In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering. ⁴⁰ Off to the side, on the outside as one goes up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables. On the other side of the porch of the gate were two tables. ⁴¹ Four tables were on one side and four tables were on the other side, by the side of the gate—eight tables, on which they would slaughter. ⁴² There were four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit high. The instruments for the slaughter of the burnt offering and the sacrifice were laid on them. ⁴³ Hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened in the House all around. The flesh of the offering was to be placed upon the tables.

⁴⁴ Outside the inner gate in the inner court were chambers for the singers, one of which was at the side of the north gate, facing south. The one at the side of the east gate faced north. ⁴⁵ He said to me, "This chamber that faces toward the south is for the kohanim who keep charge of the House. ⁴⁶ The chamber that faces toward the north is for the kohanim who keep charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, those from the sons of Levi who come near to ADONAI to minister to Him."

† cf. Rev. 1:15. †† Lit. reed

⁴⁷ Then he measured the court. It was 100 cubits long and 100 cubits wide, a square. The altar was in front of the House. ⁴⁸ He brought me to the porch of the House. He measured each pillar of the porch, 5 cubits on this side and 5 cubits on that side. The width of the gate was 3 cubits on this side and 3 cubits on that side. ⁴⁹ The length of the porch was 20 cubits and the width 11 cubits. It was ascended by way of steps, where pillars stood, one on each side.

The Inner Sanctuary

41 Then he brought me to the Temple, and measured the pillars—6 cubits wide on one side, 6 cubits wide on the other side, which was the width of the tent. ² The width of the entrance was 10 cubits. The sides of the entrance were 5 cubits on the one side and 5 cubits on the other side. He measured its length, 40 cubits and its width, 20 cubits. ³ He went to the inner room and measured each pillar of the entrance, 2 cubits; the doorway, 6 cubits; and the width of the doorway, 7 cubits. ⁴ When he measured the inner room's length, it was 20 cubits, and the width was 20 cubits, in front of the Temple. He said to me, "This is the Holy of Holies."

⁵ When he measured the wall of the House, it was 6 cubits, and the width of every side chamber was 4 cubits, surrounding the House on every side. ⁶ There were 33 side chambers. There were supports in the wall, which belonged to the House for the side chambers all around, so that they were not supported by the wall of the House. ⁷ The side chambers were wider as they wound about higher and higher. Because the winding about of the House went higher and higher round about the house, therefore the width of the House expanded. One went up from the lowest row to the highest by way of the middle. ⁸ I saw also that the House had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers were a full rod of 6 cubits up to the joint. ⁹ The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was 5 cubits. The space between the side chambers of the House ¹⁰ and the outer chambers was 20 cubits wide all around the House on every side. ¹¹ The doors of the side chambers were toward the space, one door toward the north and another door toward the south. The width of the space was 5 cubits all around.

¹² The building that was before the separate area at the side toward the west was 70 cubits wide. The wall of the building was 5 cubits thick all around and its length was 90 cubits. ¹³ When he measured the House, it was 100 cubits long; the separate area and the building with its walls, was 100 cubits long; ¹⁴ and the width of the face of the House and the separate area toward the east was also 100 cubits.

¹⁵ When he measured the length of the building facing the separate area behind it, with its galleries on each side, it was 100 cubits. Now the inner Sanctuary and the porches of the court—¹⁶ the thresholds, the shuttered windows, and the galleries all around in three stories opposite the thresholds—were paneled with wood all around, from the ground up to the windows (even the windows were covered), ¹⁷ over the space above the door, as far as the inner House, and on all the wall outside all around inside and outside, by measurement. ¹⁸ It was made with cheruvim and palm trees. A palm tree was between cheruv and cheruv. Every cheruv had two faces: ¹⁹ the face of a man toward the palm tree on one side and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. Thus was it made on all the House all around. ²⁰ The cheruvim and palm trees were made from the ground up to above the door and on the wall of the Temple.

²³ The Temple and the inner Sanctuary each had double doors. ²⁴ The doors each had two turning leaves—two leaves for one door and two leaves for the other. ²⁵ Cheruvim and palm trees were made on them, on the doors of the Temple, just like those made on the walls. There were thick beams of wood on the face of the porch outside. ²⁶ There were shuttered windows and palm trees on one side and on the other, on the sides of the porch, the side chambers of the House, and the thick beams.

The Outer Courtyard

42 He led me out to the outer courtyard toward the north. He brought me to the chamber that was opposite the separate area and opposite the building toward the north. ² The length of the building with the door on the north was 100 cubits and the width was 50 cubits. ³ Opposite the 20 cubit space belonging to the inner court and opposite the pavement belonging to the outer court was gallery by gallery in three stories. ⁴ In front of the chambers was a walkway 10 cubits wide and 100 cubits long. Their doorways were toward the north. ⁵ The upper chambers were narrower, because the galleries took more away from them than from the lower and the middle ones in the building. ⁶ For they were in three stories and had no pillars like the pillars of the courtyards; therefore more space was taken away than from the lower and the middle floors, in comparison with the ground. ⁷ A wall that was outside by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court in front of the chambers, was 50 cubits in length. ⁸ For the chambers that were toward the outer court were 50 cubits long while those facing the Temple were 100 cubits. ⁹ Below these chambers was the entrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer courtyard.

¹³ Then he said to me, “The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate area, they are the holy chambers, where the kohanim who are near to ADONAI eat the most holy things. There they will put the most holy things—the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering—for the place is holy. ¹⁴ Once the kohanim enter, they are not to go out of the holy place into the outer court without leaving there their garments in which they minister—for they are holy. They will put on other garments and approach the area for the people.”

¹⁵ When he had finished measuring the inner House, he brought me out by way of the gate facing east and measured all around. ¹⁶ When he measured the east side with the measuring rod, it was 500 rods, with the measuring rod round about. ¹⁷ When he measured the north side, it was 500 rods by the measuring rod. ¹⁸ When he measured the south side, it was 500 rods, with the measuring rod. ¹⁹ Then he turned about to the west side and measured 500 rods with the measuring rod. ²⁰ So he measured the four sides. It had a wall all around—the length was 500 and the width was 500—to make a distinction between the holy and the profane.

The Glory Returns

43 Then he led me to the gate, the gate looking east, ² and behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east. His voice was like the sound of many waters. The earth was radiant with His glory. ³ The appearance of the vision that I saw was like the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city. The visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar. So I fell on my face. ⁴ Then the glory of ADONAI came into the House by way of the gate facing the east. ⁵ The Ruach took me up and brought me into the inner court. Then behold, the glory of ADONAI filled the House.

⁶ Then I heard someone speaking to me from the House, while a man was standing beside me. ⁷ He said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of My throne, the place of the soles of My feet, where I will dwell in the midst of Bnei-Yisrael forever. The house of Israel will no longer defile My holy Name—neither they nor their kings—by their prostitution or by the corpses of their kings in their high places. ⁸ Whenever they set their threshold next to My threshold and their doorpost next to My doorpost, with only a wall between Me and them, they defiled My holy Name by their abominations that they committed. So I have finished them off in My fury. ⁹ Now let them put away their prostitution and the corpses of their kings, far from Me. Then I will dwell among them forever.

¹⁰ “You, son of man, describe the House to the house of Israel, so they will be ashamed of their iniquities. Let them measure accurately. ¹¹ If they are ashamed of all they have done, sketch out the House for them, its layout, its exits and its entrances, its complete design, with all its ordinances and all its laws. Write it down in their sight, so they may observe its complete design and all its ordinances and do them. ¹² This is the Torah of the House: the whole territory around it on top of the mountain will be most holy. Behold, this is the Torah of the House.

¹³ “These are the measurements of the altar by cubits (a cubit being a normal cubit plus a handbreadth). Its gutter will be one cubit deep and one cubit wide. Its rim will be one span surrounding the edge. This will be the base of the altar. ¹⁴ From the base on the ground to the lower ledge will be 2 cubits and the width 1 cubit. From the smaller ledge to the larger ledge will be 4 cubits and the width 1 cubit. ¹⁵ The altar hearth will be 4 cubits high. Four horns will project upward from the hearth. ¹⁶ The hearth will be 12 cubits long by 12 wide, with four sides square. ¹⁷ The ledge will be 14 cubits long and 14 wide with four sides square. The border surrounding it will be half a cubit and its bottom will be one cubit all around. Its steps will face east.”

¹⁸ Then he said to me, “Son of man, thus says ADONAI Elohim: ‘These are the statutes for the altar on the day when they will construct it, in order to offer burnt offerings on it and to sprinkle blood on it. ¹⁹ Give a young bull for a sin offering to the Levitical kohanim who are from the offspring of Zadok, who come near to Me to minister to Me’—it is a declaration of ADONAI. ²⁰ “You are to take some of its blood and put it on its four horns, on the four corners of the ledge and on the border around it. So you will purify it and make atonement for it. ²¹ Take the bull of the sin offering and burn it in the appointed place of the House, outside the Sanctuary.

²² “On the second day, offer a male goat without blemish as a sin offering. They will purify the altar as they purified it with the bull. ²³ When you have finished purifying it, offer a young bull without blemish and a ram out of the flock without blemish. ²⁴ Present them before ADONAI. The kohanim will cast salt upon them. They will offer them up as a burnt offering to ADONAI.

²⁵ Every day for seven days, prepare a goat as a sin offering. They will prepare a young bull and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. ²⁶ They will make atonement for the altar and cleanse it for seven days. This is how they will consecrate it. ²⁷ When they have completed the days, from the eighth day and onward the kohanim will make your burnt offerings upon the altar as well as your fellowship offerings. Then I will accept you—it is a declaration of ADONAI.

Prince at the Eastern Gate

44 Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the Sanctuary looking east. It was shut. ² ADONAI said to me: "This gate is to be shut. It must not be opened. No one may enter through it, for ADONAI God of Israel has entered through it. So it is to be kept shut. ³ Only the prince, since he is a prince, will sit there to eat bread before ADONAI. He will enter by way of the porch of the gate and go out the same way."

Levitical Priesthood

⁴ Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the House. I looked, and behold, the glory of ADONAI filled the House of ADONAI. So I fell upon my face. ⁵ ADONAI said to me, "Son of man, set your heart, behold with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of ADONAI's House and all its laws. Set your heart to the entrance of the House, with all exits of the Sanctuary. ⁶ Say to the rebellious, to the house of Israel, 'thus says ADONAI Elohim: Enough of your abominations, house of Israel! ⁷ You brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My Sanctuary, to profane it—My House—when you offer My bread, the fat, and the blood. They have broken My covenant, to add to all your abominations. ⁸ You have not kept charge of My holy things, but you have set keepers of My service in My Sanctuary to please yourselves.'"

⁹ Thus says ADONAI Elohim: "No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, may enter My Sanctuary, not any foreigner who is among Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁰ For the Levites who went far from Me, when Israel went astray after their idols, will bear their iniquity. ¹¹ Yet they will be ministers in My Sanctuary, overseers of the gates of the House and ministering in the House. They will slaughter the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people. They will stand before them to minister to them. ¹² Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel, therefore I have lifted up My hand against them—it is a declaration of ADONAI. "They will bear their iniquity. ¹³ They will not come near to Me, to minister to Me as kohanim, nor come near to any of My holy things, to the things that are most holy. They will bear their shame and their abominations, which they have committed.

¹⁴ "Yet I will appoint them to keep charge of the House, for all its service and for all that will be done in it. ¹⁵ So the Levitical kohanim, the sons of Zadok who kept charge of My Sanctuary when Bnei-Yisrael wandered from Me, will draw near to Me to minister to Me. They will stand before Me to offer Me the fat and the blood"—it is declaration of ADONAI. ¹⁶ "They are ones who will enter My Sanctuary and draw near to My table to minister to Me. They will keep My charge. ¹⁷ It will be that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they will be clothed with linen garments. No wool will come on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. ¹⁸ They will have linen turbans upon their heads and linen underclothes upon their loins; they will not wear anything that causes sweat. ¹⁹ Before they go out to the outer court—to the outer courtyard to the people—they must take off their garments in which they minister and leave them in the holy chambers. They will put on other garments, so they do not consecrate the people while in their garments. ²⁰ They must not shave their heads or let their locks grow long, but must carefully trim the hair of their heads. ²¹ No kohen may drink wine before entering the inner court. ²² None may take a widow or a divorced woman as his wife, for they must take virgins of the offspring of the house of Israel or a widow who is the widow of a kohen.

²³ "They will teach My people the difference between the holy and the common and explain to them the difference between the unclean and the clean. ²⁴ In a lawsuit, they will stand to judge, and judge in accordance with My ordinances. They will keep My laws and My statutes in all My moadim and keep My Shabbat holy. ²⁵ They must not come near a dead person to defile themselves—only for a father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or sister who had no husband may they defile themselves. ²⁶ After he is cleansed, they will count seven days for him. ²⁷ On the day he goes into the Sanctuary, into the inner court to minister in the Sanctuary, he is to offer his sin offering." It is a declaration of ADONAI.

²⁸ "It will be an inheritance for them. I am their inheritance. Do not give them any possession in Israel for I am their possession. ²⁹ They will eat the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering. Every devoted thing in Israel will be theirs. ³⁰ The first of all the first-fruits of everything and every offering of every kind from all your offerings will belong to the kohanim. You will also give the kohen the first of your dough, to make a blessing to rest on your house. ³¹ The kohanim may not eat any carcass, whether bird or beast, that dies of itself or is torn.

Levitical Land

45 "When you allot the land for inheritance, set apart an offering to ADONAI, a holy portion of the land. The length will be 25,000 and the width will be 10,000. † It will be holy within all its surrounding borders. ² Out of this, there will be the Holy Place, 500 long by 500 wide, square all around, and 50 cubits for the open land surrounding it. ³ From this area you are to measure a length of 25,000 and a width of 10,000, in which will be the Sanctuary, which is most holy. ⁴ It is to be the holy portion of the land, for the kohanim ministering in the Sanctuary, who draw near to serve ADONAI. It will be a place for their houses as well as a place consecrated for the Sanctuary. ⁵ An area 25,000 long by 10,000 wide will be for the Levites, the ministers of the House. It will be a possession for themselves—20 chambers.

⁶ “You will give the city possession of an area 5,000 wide by 25,000 long, alongside the offering of the holy allotment. It will be for the whole house of Israel.

The Prince's Allotment

⁷ “The prince will have a portion on either side of the holy allotment and the city's property, adjacent to the holy offering and the city's property, on the west side westward and on the east side eastward. Its length will correspond to one of the tribal portions, from the western boundary to the eastern boundary. ⁸ It will be land for him as a possession in Israel. My princes will no longer oppress My people. They will give land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.”

¹³ “This is the offering that you are to set apart: a sixth of an ephah out of a homer of wheat, a sixth of an ephah out of a homer of barley, ¹⁴ along with the set portion of oil—a bath of oil—as the tithe of the bath for each kor, which is 10 baths (or a homer, since 10 baths are a homer), ¹⁵ and one lamb of the flock out of 200, from the well-watered pastures of Israel. These are for the grain offering, burnt offering, and fellowship offerings, to make atonement for them.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁶ “All the people of the land must give this contribution to the prince in Israel. ¹⁷ It will be the prince's role to give the burnt offerings, grain offerings and drink offerings at the feasts, New Moons, and Shabbatot, in all the moadim of the house of Israel. He will prepare the sin offering, the meal offering, the burnt offering, and the fellowship offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.”

Offerings for Moadim

¹⁸ Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “In the first month, in the first day of the month, take a young bull without blemish and purify the Sanctuary. ¹⁹ The kohen will take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it upon the doorposts of the House and upon the four corners of the ledge of the altar and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court. ²⁰ So you will do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who sins unintentionally or through ignorance. So you will make atonement for the House.

46 Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “The gate of the inner court that faces the east will be shut for the six working days. On Yom Shabbat it will be opened and in the day of the New Moon it will be opened. ² The prince will enter by way of the porch of the gate from outside, and stand by the post of the gate. Then the kohanim will prepare his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings. He will worship at the threshold of the gate, and then go out. The gate will not be shut until the evening. ³ The people of the land will worship at the door of that gate before ADONAI on Shabbatot and New Moons.

⁴ “The burnt offering that the prince offers to ADONAI on Yom Shabbat will be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish. ⁵ The grain offering will be an ephah for the ram. The grain offering for the lambs will be a gift of his hand and a hin of oil for an ephah. ⁶ On the day of the New Moon it will be a young bull without blemish, six lambs, and a ram—they must be without blemish. ⁷ He will prepare a grain offering, an ephah for the bull and an ephah for the ram, for the lambs whatever his hand may reach and a hin of oil for an ephah. ⁸ When the prince enters, he will enter by way of the porch of the gate and he will also exit by that way. ⁹ When the people of the land come before ADONAI at the moadim, whoever enters by way of the north gate to worship will exit by way of the south gate. Whoever enters by way of the south gate must exit by way of north gate. He should not return by the way of the gate where he came in, since he must exit straight ahead. ¹⁰ When they enter, the prince will come in among them. When they go out, they will go out together.

¹¹“At the feasts and the moadim, the grain offering will be an ephah for a bull and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs a gift of his hand and a hin of oil for an ephah. ¹²Now if the prince prepares a freewill offering, burnt offering, or fellowship offerings as a freewill offering to ADONAI, the gate for him facing east must be opened for him. Then he will prepare his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings as he does on Yom Shabbat. Then he will go out. After he exits, the gate should be shut.

¹³You are to prepare a lamb of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering to ADONAI daily—morning by morning you are to prepare it. ¹⁴Also you will prepare a grain offering with it morning by morning, a sixth of an ephah and a third of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour—a grain offering to ADONAI continually. It is perpetual statute. ¹⁵They will prepare the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.”

¹⁶Thus says ADONAI Elohim: “If the prince gives a gift to any of his sons as his inheritance, it will belong to his sons. It will be their possession by inheritance.

¹⁹Then he brought me through the entrance that was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the kohanim, looking north. Behold, there was a place at the far western end. ²⁰He said to me, “This is the place where the kohanim will boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, where they will bake the grain offering, so they do not bring them into the outer court, to consecrate the people.”

²¹Then he brought me out to the outer courtyard and led me past the four corners of the courtyard. Behold, in every corner of the courtyard there was another courtyard. ²²In the four corners of the courtyard there were enclosed courts, 40 cubits long by 30 wide—these four in the corners had the same size. ²³There was a row of masonry surrounding them, surrounding the four. Boiling places were built under the surrounding rows. ²⁴He said to me, “These are the boiling places where the ministers of the House will boil the sacrifices of the people.”

River of Life

47 Then he brought me back to the door of the House. Behold, water was flowing out from under the threshold of the House eastward—for the front of the House faced east. The water was flowing down from under the right side of the House, south of the altar. ²He brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around outside by the way of the outer gate, the way of the gate looking east. Behold, water was trickling out from the right side.

³When the man went out eastward with a line in his hand, he measured 1,000 cubits. Then he led me into the water—water to the ankles. ⁴Again he measured 1,000, and led me into the water—water to the knees. Again he measured 1,000, and he led me into the water—water up to the waist. ⁵Again he measured 1,000, and now it was a river that I could not pass through, for the water had risen, water to swim in—a river that could not be crossed. ⁶He said to me, “Have you seen this, son of man?”

Then he brought me back to the bank of the river. ⁷When I had returned, behold, there were very many trees on one side and on the other, along the bank of the river. ⁸Then he said to me, “These waters go out toward the eastern region. They go down to the Arabah and enter the sea. When they arrive at the sea, the waters of the sea will flow and will become fresh. ⁹It will be that every living creature that swarms will live wherever the rivers go. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because this water goes there and makes the salt water fresh. So everything will be healed and live wherever the river goes. ¹⁰Fishermen will stand by it; from En-Gedi to En-Eglaim, it will be a place for spreading of nets. Their fish will be of many different kinds—like the fish of the Great Sea, a huge quantity. ¹¹Its swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be set aside for salt. ¹²On the river, on its bank, on this side and that side, will grow every kind of tree for food. Its leaf will not wither; its fruit will not fail; it will bear new fruit every month, because its water flows out from the Sanctuary. Its fruit will be for food and its leaf will be for healing.”

Borders of the Holy Land

¹³Thus says ADONAI Elohim, “This will be the border, by which you will divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel, Joseph receiving two portions. ¹⁴You will inherit it, each one like another, as I lifted My hand to give to your fathers. So this land will fall to you as an inheritance.

¹⁸“The east side, between Hauran, Damascus, Gilead, and the land of Israel, will be by the Jordan. You will measure from the northern border to the eastern sea. This will be the eastern side.

† cf. Rev. 22:2. †† Lit. healed

¹⁹“The south side southward will be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth-Kadesh, to the Wadi of Egypt and to the Great Sea. This will be the southern side toward the south.

²¹“You are to divide this land for yourselves to the tribes of Israel. ²² So you are to divide it by lot for an inheritance for you and for the outsiders who dwell among you, whoever bears children among you. They will be to you like the native-born of Bnei-Yisrael; they will be allotted an inheritance along with you among the tribes of Israel. ²³ In whatever tribe the outsider lives, there you will give him his inheritance.” It is a declaration of ADONAI.

⁸“By Judah’s border, from the east side to the west, will be the contribution which you will set aside, 25,000 cubits in width and in length like one of the portions, from the east side to the west. The Sanctuary will be in the midst of it. ⁹ The allotment that you will set apart to ADONAI will be 25,000 in length and 10,000 in width. ¹⁰ The holy allotment will be apportioned for these—for the kohanim. Toward the north it will be 25,000 cubits and toward the west 10,000 in width, toward the east 10,000 in width and toward the south 25,000 in length. ADONAI’s Sanctuary will be in the midst of it. ¹¹ The sanctified portion will be for the kohanim of the sons of Zadok, who kept My charge and did not go astray as the Levites went astray when Bnei-Yisrael went astray. ¹² It will be for them a portion set apart from the offering of the land, most holy, by the border of the Levites.

¹³“Alongside the border of the kohanim, the Levites will have 25,000 in length and 10,000 in width. The entire length will be 25,000 and the width 10,000. ¹⁴ They must not sell or exchange any of it or transfer the choice portion of the land, for it is holy to ADONAI. ¹⁵ The 5,000 that remain in the width, in front of the 25,000, will be for common use, for the city, for living, and for pastureland.

“The city will be in the midst of it, ¹⁶ and will have these measurements: the north side; 4,500; the south side 4,500; the east side, 4,500; and the west side, 4,500. ¹⁷ The city will have open land: toward the north 250, toward the south 250, toward the east 250, and toward the west 250. ¹⁸ The remainder of the length, according to the holy allotment, will be 10,000 eastward and 10,000 westward. It will be alongside the holy allotment. Its produce will be food for those who serve the city. ¹⁹ Those who serve the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, will till it. ²⁰ The whole allotment will be 25,000 by 25,000, square; you will set apart the holy allotment with the property of the city.

²¹“What is remaining from this side and on the other of the holy allotment and the city property will be for the prince. What is adjacent to the 25,000 of the allotment toward the eastern border, and westward adjacent to the 25,000 toward the western border, alongside the portions, will be for the prince. The holy allotment and the Sanctuary of the House will be in the midst of it. ²² The property of the Levites and the property of the city will be in the middle of what belongs to the prince; what belongs to the prince will be between Judah’s border and Benjamin’s border.

³⁰“These are the exits of the city: on the north side, 4,500 by measure, ³¹ will be the gates of the city named after the tribes of Israel—three gates northward—the Reuben Gate, one; the Judah Gate, one; the Levi Gate, one. ³² At the east side, 4,500, will be three gates: the Joseph Gate, one; the Benjamin Gate, one; Dan Gate, one. ³³ At the south side, 4,500 by measure, will be three gates: the Simeon Gate, one; the Issachar Gate, one; the Zebulun Gate, one. ³⁴ At the west side, 4,500, with their three gates: the Gad Gate, one; the Asher Gate, one; the Naphtali Gate, one. ³⁵ It will be 18,000 cubits all around.

“From that day on, the name of the city will be: ‘ADONAI Is There.’”

Daniel

Daniel Introduction

One could say that this book of the Bible is autobiographical as Daniel refers to himself in the first person. Daniel's Hebrew name means "God is my judge", דָּנִיֵּאל. Daniel lived a life separated to God. This book is described as apocalyptic because the literature content describes visions and dreams that are mysterious and symbolic, involving a heavenly host. The purpose of this book is to encourage God's people to be obedient and faithful in times of great difficulty. One of the difficulties in understanding the book of Daniel is that the book contains Aramaic and Hebrew. Even though scholars have tried to determine the purpose of the use of these two languages, the results are purely speculative.

Daniel was deported to Babylon around 605 BCE, and he lived there for over 60 years. He and his three friends lived right-side-up in a very upside-down world. We are introduced to these four characters in the fourth verse of the first chapter "youths without any defect, handsome, proficient in all wisdom, knowledgeable, intelligent and capable of serving in the king's palace." These four young men demonstrated a life of holy living before God in the midst of turmoil and difficulty.

This book is divided into three main sections: the introduction, chapters 2–7, and chapters 8–12. Because of his trustworthiness and respect for king Nebuchadnezzar, Daniel was given a key position within the kingdom. However, the reader soon notes the difficulty facing Daniel and the three Hebrew boys. King Nebuchadnezzar ordered them (and the entire Empire) to bow down and worship the golden idol formed in his likeness. Daniel and the three Hebrew boys refused and the three Hebrew boys were thrown into the fiery furnace. The God of Israel saved them and not even their clothes smelled like fire. (Dan. 3:27). Daniel 4:25 notes a Christophany "[Nebuchadnezzar] said, "Look! I see four men walking about unbound and unharmed in the middle of the fire, and the fourth has the appearance like a son of the gods!"

In king Nebuchadnezzar, we see the self-destructive force of pride. He thought himself to be invincible and yet God brought forth the victory to Daniel. One of the best-loved stories about Daniel was his experience in the lion's den. Even when king Darius the Mede brought the death sentence against Daniel, Daniel proved to be victorious when thrown into the lion's den. God closed the mouth of the lions.

The book of Daniel then makes a crucial turn at chapter 7, verse 12. Daniel is given a series of visions. In chapter 7, the vision of the four beasts can be interpreted as four earthly kingdoms. Many evangelical scholars ascribe to this view. Most crucial of all of the visions is Daniel's vision of the seventy weeks, or the seventy periods of time. Many evangelical scholars adhere to the position that these verses indicate future fulfillment, that fulfillment will occur at the end of history.

What is more important about the book of Daniel is the exhortation to live godly in the midst of earthly kingdom's darkness. Believers are exhorted to live a life of faith, during persecution and even the threat of death. Regardless of the interpretation, the reader is exhorted to live for God, to walk worthy of the high calling of God in Messiah Jesus.

Kashrut as a Test of Faithfulness

1 In the third year of the reign of King Jehoiakim of Judah, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. ² God gave King Jehoiakim of Judah into his hand, along with some of the vessels of the House of God. He brought them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god and put the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

³ Then the king told Ashpenaz the chief of his officials [†] to bring in some of the sons of Israel from royal descent and nobility— ⁴ youths without any defect, handsome, proficient in all wisdom, knowledgeable, intelligent and capable of serving in the king's palace. He was to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans. ⁵ The king allotted them a daily portion from the king's delicacies and from the wine that he drank. They were to be trained for three years, and at the end they were to stand before the king.

⁸ But Daniel resolved not to defile himself with the king's delicacies or with the wine he was drinking, so he entreated the chief official for permission not to defile himself. ⁹ Now God caused the chief official to show mercy and compassion to Daniel. ¹⁰ But the chief official said to Daniel: "I fear my lord the king, who allotted your food and your drink. Why should he see your faces looking poorly, unlike the other youths your age? Then the king would have my head because of you."

¹¹ Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, ¹² "Please test your servants for ten days, giving us just vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³ Then compare our appearance and the appearance of the youths who eat the king's delicacies, and treat your servants according to what you see." ¹⁴ So he listened to them in this matter and tested them for ten days.

[†] Or eunuch passim

¹⁸ At the end of the time set by the king to bring them in, the chief official presented them before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹ When the king spoke with them, he did not find among all of them anyone like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; so they entered the king's service. ²⁰ In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers throughout his realm.

²¹ Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.

The King's Dream and Demand

2 In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams. His spirit was troubled and sleep escaped him. ² So the king issued an order to summon the magicians, astrologers, sorcerers, and Chaldeans in order to explain to the king his dreams. When they came and stood before the king, ³ he said to them, "I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is anxious to understand the dream."

⁴ Then the Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic ^{††}, "May the king live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will declare the interpretation."

⁵ The king answered the Chaldeans saying, "I firmly decree: If you do not make the dream and its meaning known to me, you will be torn limb from limb and your houses reduced to rubble. ⁶ But if you tell the dream and its meaning, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. So tell me the dream and its meaning!"

⁷They responded a second time, saying, "Let the king tell his servants the dream and we will declare the interpretation."

⁸The king replied saying, "I know for sure that you are buying time since you see that I have firmly decreed ⁹that if you do not reveal the dream to me, there is only one verdict [†] for you. You have conspired to say something false and fraudulent, until such a time as things might change. So then, tell me the dream and I will know that you can tell me its meaning."

¹⁰The Chaldeans answered the king saying, "There is no man on earth who can meet the king's demand. For no great king, however great or mighty, has ever asked such a thing from any magician, astrologer, or Chaldean. ¹¹What the king asks is too difficult. There is no one who could declare it to the king, except the gods whose dwelling is not with mortals!"

¹²Because of this, the king became furiously angry and gave orders to execute all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³So the decree went out that the wise men were about to be slaughtered. They also sought Daniel and his companions to execute them. ¹⁴Then Daniel spoke with tact and discretion to Arioch, who was captain of the king's guard and who had set out to execute the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁵He spoke up and said to Arioch, the king's captain, "Why is the king's decree so urgent?" Then Arioch informed Daniel about the matter.

¹⁶So Daniel went in and asked the king to grant him time, so that he might disclose the interpretation to the king. ¹⁷Then Daniel went to his house and informed his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah about the matter ¹⁸so they would request mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his friends would not perish along with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

The Dream Revealed to Daniel

¹⁹During the night the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven ²⁰and answered, saying:

"Blessed be the Name of God forever and ever,
for wisdom and might are His.

²¹He changes times and seasons.

He removes kings and installs kings.

He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the discerning.

²²He reveals deep and hidden things.

He knows what lies in darkness and light dwells with Him.

²³To You, O God of my fathers,

I give thanks and praise!

For You gave me wisdom and power.

You have made known to me what we asked of You.
You revealed to us the word of the king."

Daniel Interprets the Dream

²⁴Then Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon and said to him, "Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon. Bring me in before the king and I will declare the interpretation to the king."

²⁵So Arioch quickly ushered Daniel into the king's presence and said to him, "I have found a man among the sons of the exiles from Judah, who can make known the interpretation to the king."

²⁶The king then asked Daniel (who was renamed Belteshazzar), "Are you able to reveal to me the dream that I saw, as well as its interpretation?"

²⁷Daniel answered the king, saying: "The mystery about which the king inquired is such that neither wise men, astrologers, magicians, or sorcerers can disclose it to the king. ²⁸But, there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He has made known to King Nebuchadnezzar the things that will happen in the latter days. The dream and the visions that went through your head as you lay on your bed are these.

²⁹"To you, O king—as you lay on your bed—came thoughts about what will come to pass in the future. The Revealer of mysteries has made known to you what is going to happen. ³⁰But as for me, this mystery is not revealed to me because I possess more wisdom than any other living person, but in order that the king may know the interpretation and understand the thoughts of your heart.

The Statue of Four Kingdoms

³¹"You looked, O king, and behold, there before you stood a huge statue—an enormous and dazzling image, whose appearance was awesome. ³²The head of that statue was of pure gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, ³³its legs of iron, and its feet partly iron and partly clay. ³⁴While you were watching, a stone was cut out, but not by hands. It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them. ³⁵Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed together, and became like chaff from summer threshing-floors that the wind blows away. Not a trace of them could be found. Then the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

³⁶"This was the dream. Now we will tell the king its interpretation. ³⁷You, O king, are the king of kings to whom the God of heaven has given sovereignty, power, might and glory. ³⁸Wherever mankind, beasts of the field, and fowls of the heaven dwell, He has given them into your hand, and made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.

³⁹"Now after you another kingdom will arise, one inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron—for iron shatters and breaks everything—and just as iron smashes everything, so will it shatter and crush all the others. ⁴¹ Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly potter's clay and partly iron, so this will be a divided kingdom. It will have some of the strength of the iron, for you saw the iron mixed with clay. ⁴² As the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. ⁴³ Just as you saw iron mixed with clay, people will mix with one another, but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay.

⁴⁴ "Now in the days of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will this kingdom be left to another people. It will crush and bring to an end all of these kingdoms. But it will endure forever. ⁴⁵ For just as you saw a stone cut out of a mountain, yet not by hands, crush the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold, the great God has made known to the king what will happen in the future. Now the dream is certain, and its interpretation is trustworthy."

⁴⁶ Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and paid homage to Daniel and gave orders that an offering and incense be provided for him. ⁴⁷ In response the king said to Daniel, "Surely your God is the God of gods, the Lord of kings, [†] and the revealer of mysteries, for you were able to reveal this secret!"

⁴⁸ Then the king promoted Daniel and lavished on him many marvelous gifts and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹ Moreover, at Daniel's request the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego over the administration of the province of Babylon, while Daniel remained at the royal court.

A Gold Idol and a Blazing Furnace

3 King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, ⁶⁰ cubits high and six cubits wide. He set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. ² Then King Nebuchadnezzar summoned the satraps, prefects, governors, counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the authorities of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ³ Then the satraps, administrators, governors, counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the authorities of the provinces assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had erected. They stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁴ Then the herald loudly proclaimed, "You are commanded O peoples, nations, and languages, ⁵ that when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. ⁶ Whoever does not fall down and worship will that same hour be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire." ⁷ Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and pipes, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

⁸ At that time certain Chaldeans came forward and denounced the Jews. ⁹ They spoke up and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "May the king live forever! ¹⁰ You, O king, made a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and all kinds of music, must fall down and worship the golden image, ¹¹ and that whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire. ¹² There are certain Jews whom you appointed over the administration of the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego—those men pay no heed to you, O king. They do not serve your gods, nor will they worship the golden image that you have set up."

¹³ Furious with rage, Nebuchadnezzar ordered Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego to be summoned. When these men were brought before the king, ¹⁴ Nebuchadnezzar responded to them saying, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, that you don't serve my gods or worship the golden image that I set up? ¹⁵ Now if you are ready, at the moment you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp and pipes, and all kinds of music you must fall down and worship the image that I have made. But if you do not worship, you will immediately be thrown into the midst of a furnace of blazing fire! Then what god will be able to deliver you out of my hands?"

¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego replied to the king saying, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to answer you concerning this matter. ¹⁷ If it is so, our God whom we serve is able to save us from the furnace of blazing fire and He will deliver us out of your hand, O king. ¹⁸ Yet even if He does not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image that you set up."

²⁴ Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and leapt to his feet. He asked his ministers, "Didn't we cast three men bound into the middle of the fire?"

† cf. Luke 1:32-33. †† cf. 1 Tim. 6:15; Rev. 17:14; 19:16.

They replied to the king, "Surely, O king."

²⁵ But he answered saying, "Look! I see four men walking about unbound and unharmed in the middle of the fire, and the fourth has the appearance like a son of the gods!

So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego came out from the middle of the fire. ²⁷ When the satraps, administrators, governors, and royal ministers had gathered around, they saw that the fire had no effect on the bodies of these men. Not a hair of their head was singed, nor were their robes scorched, nor was there a smell of fire on them.

²⁸ Nebuchadnezzar exclaimed, "Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, who has sent His angel and delivered His servants who trusted in Him! They defied the king's edict and gave up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. ²⁹ Therefore I hereby decree that any people, nation, or language that says anything slanderous against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego will be torn limb from limb and their house made a pile of rubble, because there is no other god that is able to deliver in this way."

³⁰ Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar Acknowledges God's Kingdom

³¹ (4:1) King Nebuchadnezzar—

To all peoples, nations, and languages who dwell in all the earth: May your peace abound!

³² (4:2) It seemed good to me to declare the signs and wonders that God Most High has done for me.

³³ (4:3) How great are His signs, how mighty are His wonders!
His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
His dominion from generation to generation.

Dream: "Chop down the Tree!"

4 (4) I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and flourishing in my palace. ² (5) I had a dream that frightened me. While on my bed the images and visions in my mind † terrified me. ³ (6) So I issued a decree to bring all the wise men of Babylon before me so that they could make known to me the meaning of the dream. ⁴ (7) When the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and diviners came in, I recounted the dream to them, but they were unable to make known its interpretation to me.

⁵ (8) Finally Daniel—whose name was Belteshazzar after the name of my god and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods—came in before me and I told him the dream.

⁶ (9) I said, "Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery baffles you. Consider my dream that I have seen and tell me its interpretation.

⁷ (10) "These are the visions in my head while I was on my bed: I looked, and behold, there was a tree in the midst of the earth. Its height was enormous. ⁸ (11) The tree grew large and became strong and its top reached to heaven; it was visible to the ends of the earth. ⁹ (12) Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and on it was food for all. Beneath it the beasts of the field found shade and birds of the sky lived in its branches, and from it all creatures were fed.

¹⁰ (13) "I was watching the visions in my mind while on my bed, and behold, a watcher, a holy one, descended from heaven. ¹¹ (14) He called loudly, saying: "Chop down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit!

Let beasts flee from under it, and birds from its branches.

¹² (15) Yet leave a stump with its roots in the earth, in fetters of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field.

Let him be damp with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth.

¹³ (16) Let his mind be altered from that of a man and let an animal's mind be given to him and let seven periods of time pass over him.

¹⁴ (17) This sentence is by the decree of the watchers, this verdict by the command of the holy ones, so that the living may know that the Most High is sovereign over the realm of man and bestows it to whomever He wishes, and may set over them even the lowliest of men.'

¹⁵ (18) "I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw this dream. Now you, Belteshazzar, tell me its meaning, for none of the wise men of my kingdom are able to make known to me its interpretation. But you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

Interpretation: A King Eats Grass

¹⁶ (19) Then Daniel, whose name is also Belteshazzar, was perplexed for a brief time; his thoughts alarmed him. The king answered, and said, "Belteshazzar, don't let the dream or the interpretation disturb you."

But Belteshazzar replied, "My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you and its interpretation for your enemies! ¹⁷ (20) The tree that you saw grow large and strong, whose top reached to heaven and that was visible to all the earth, ¹⁸ (21) whose leaves were beautiful and whose fruit was so abundant that there was food for all in it and beneath which the beasts of the fields lived and in its branches birds of the sky dwelt— ¹⁹ (22) it is you, O king! For you have grown great and mighty. Your greatness reaches to heaven, and your authority extends to the end of the earth.

²⁰ (23) "You, O king, saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, 'Chop down the tree and destroy it! Yet leave a stump with its roots in the ground, in fetters of iron and bronze, in the grass of the field.

Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, until seven time periods pass over him.'

²¹ (24) "This is the interpretation, O king. It is the decree of the Most High that has come upon my lord the king:

²² (25) "You will be driven away from people and will dwell with the wild animals. You will feed on grass like an ox and be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven periods of time will pass over you until you know that the Most High is sovereign over the realm of mankind and gives it to whomever He wishes.

²³ (26) "The command to leave the stump of the tree with its roots means that your kingdom will be restored to you † as soon as you understand that Heaven is sovereign. ²⁴ (27) Therefore, O king, may my counsel be acceptable to you: Renounce your sins through righteousness and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor. Perhaps your prosperity will be prolonged."

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream Fulfilled

²⁸ (31) The words were still in the king's mouth when a voice fell from heaven. "King Nebuchadnezzar, it has been decreed to you that your kingdom has been removed from you! ²⁹ (32) You will be driven away from men and you will live with the beasts of the field. You will feed on grass like an ox and seven periods of time will pass over you until you come to know that the Most High is sovereign over the realm of mankind and gives it to whomever He wishes."

³⁰ (33) Immediately the word about Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven away from men, ate grass like an ox, and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until his hair had grown like eagles' feathers and his nails like birds' claws.

³¹ (34) But at the end of the appointed days, I Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes up to heaven and my sanity returned to me. So I blessed the Most High and I praised and honored Him who lives forever.

"For His dominion is an everlasting dominion, and His kingdom endures from generation to generation!

³² (35) All the inhabitants of earth are counted as nothing.

He does as He wills with the army of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth. No one can hold back His hand, or say to Him, 'What have you done?'

³³ (36) "At that moment my sanity returned to me, and my majesty and my splendor were restored to me, for the glory of my kingdom. My ministers and nobles sought me out and I was reestablished over my kingdom. I became even greater than before. ³⁴ (37) Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt, and honor the King of heaven, because all His works are right and His ways just. He is able to humble those who walk in pride."

Handwriting on the Wall

5 King Belshazzar held a great feast for 1,000 of his nobles and was drinking wine in front of the thousand. ² When Belshazzar tasted the wine, he issued an order to bring in the gold and silver vessels that Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the Temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his consorts and his concubines could drink from them. ³ So they brought the gold vessels that were taken out of the Temple of the House of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, consorts and concubines drank from them. ⁴ They drank the wine and praised the gods made of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

⁵ At that very moment, the fingers of a human hand emerged and wrote on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace opposite the lampstand, so that the king could see the back of the hand that was writing. ⁶ The color drained from the king's face, his thoughts alarmed him, his hips gave way, and his knees began knocking together.

⁷ The king called loudly to summon the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the diviners. The king said to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and tells me what it means will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain around his neck, and will have authority as the third ruler in the kingdom!"

¹⁰ The queen hearing the words of the king and his nobles entered the banquet hall. The queen spoke out and said, "May the king live forever! Do not let your thoughts frighten you, or your face be so pale! ¹¹ There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your father, he was found to have insight and intelligence, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods. So King Nebuchadnezzar your father made him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and diviners. ¹² This man Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, was found to have extraordinary spirit, knowledge, and insight for interpreting dreams, explaining riddles, and solving problems. Now, let Daniel be summoned and he will explain the interpretation."

¹³ So Daniel was brought before the king and the king said to Daniel, "Are you Daniel who is one of the captives of Judah that my father the king brought from Judah? ¹⁴ I have heard about you, how a spirit of the gods is in you and how there has been found in you insight, discernment, and extraordinary wisdom. ¹⁵ Just now the wise men and diviners were brought before me to read this writing and to make its meaning known to me, but they are unable to declare its interpretation. ¹⁶ However, I have heard about you that you are able to provide interpretations and to solve difficult problems. Now if you are able to read the writing and explain to me its meaning, you will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain around your neck and have the authority to rule as the third in the kingdom."

¹⁷ Then Daniel answered the king saying, "You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the king and tell him its meaning. ¹⁸ Your majesty, God Most High gave your father Nebuchadnezzar the kingdom, as well as greatness, glory, and splendor. ¹⁹ Because of the grandeur that He bestowed on him, all the peoples, nations, and languages dreaded and feared him. He killed whomever he wanted and spared anyone he wanted; he raised up whomever he wished and humbled anyone he wished. ²⁰ But when his heart became haughty and his spirit hardened with pride, he was deposed from his royal throne and stripped of his glory. ²¹ He was driven away from among men and his mind became like an animal, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; he fed on grass like an ox, and his body was damp with the dew of heaven until he recognized that God Most High is sovereign over the realm of mankind and that He sets up over it whomever He wills.

²² "But you his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, even though you knew all this. ²³ Instead, you have exalted yourself against the Lord of heaven. You had the vessels of His House brought before you, and you and your nobles, your consorts and your concubines have been drinking wine in them. You have praised the gods made of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which cannot see or hear or understand. Yet you did not honor the God who holds in His hand your very breath and all your ways. ²⁴ Therefore, the hand was sent from Him that wrote this inscription.

²⁵ "Now this is the writing that was inscribed:
MENE, MENE, TEKEL UPHARSIN.

²⁶ "This is the interpretation of the inscription:
MENE: God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.

²⁷ TEKEL: You have been weighed in the balances and found wanting.

²⁸ PERES: Your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

²⁹ Then at Belshazzar's command, they clothed Daniel with purple, put a chain of gold around his neck, and issued a proclamation about him that he would have the authority as third ruler in the kingdom.

³⁰ On that very night King Belshazzar of the Chaldeans was slain.

6 (5:31) So Darius the Mede took over the kingdom at the age of 62.

Delivered from the Lions' Den

² (1) It pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the whole kingdom ³ (2) with three administrators over them, one of whom was Daniel. These satraps were accountable to them so that the king would not be troubled. ⁴ (3) Now this Daniel was distinguishing himself among the supervisors and satraps because he had an extraordinary spirit in him. In fact, the king planned to appoint him over the entire kingdom. ⁵ (4) At this time the supervisors and satraps tried to find ground for a charge against Daniel regarding the kingdom. But they were unable to find fault or corruption, because he was trustworthy and no negligence or dishonesty could be found in him. ⁶ (5) Finally these men said, "We're not going to find any basis for charges against this man Daniel, unless we find something against him regarding the law of his God."

⁷ (6) So these supervisors and satraps went in to the king as a group, and said to him, "King Darius, live forever! ⁸ (7) All the supervisors of the realm, the magistrates and satraps, ministers and governors, have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce a decree that anyone who prays to any god or man for 30 days other than you O king, will be cast into the lions' den. ⁹ (8) Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it may not be altered, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed." ¹⁰ (9) Thereupon King Darius issued the written decree.

¹¹ (10) Now when Daniel learned that a written decree had been issued, he went into his house, where the windows in his upper room opened toward Jerusalem. Three times a day he knelt down, prayed and gave thanks before his God, just as he did before. ¹² (11) Then these men came as a group and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. ¹³ (12) So they approached the king and spoke to him about the royal decree: "Didn't you issue a written decree that anyone who prays to any god or man for 30 days—except for you, O king—shall be cast into the den of lions?"

The king replied, "The decree stands, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."

¹⁴ (13) Then they answered and said to the king: "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or to the decree that you put in writing. He still prays three times a day!" ¹⁵ (14) When the king heard this report, he was deeply distressed, and he set his mind on how he might rescue Daniel. Until sunset he struggled to find a way to save him.

¹⁶ (15) Then these men came as a throng in to the king, and said to the king: "Remember, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no decree or edict which the king issues may be altered."

²² (21) Daniel spoke to the king: "May the king live forever! ²³ (22) My God sent His angel to shut the lions' mouths † so that they haven't harmed me, because I was found innocent before Him. Nor have I committed any crime against you, O king."

²⁴ (23) Then the king was overjoyed, and ordered Daniel taken up out of the den. So Daniel was lifted out of the pit. No injury of any kind was found on him because he had trusted in his God. ²⁵ (24) At the king's command, those men who had maliciously accused Daniel were brought and thrown into the lions' den—they, their children, and their wives. They had not even reached the bottom of the pit before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.

²⁷ (26) "I issue a decree that in all the dominion of my kingdom people are to tremble with fear before the God of Daniel.

"For He is the living God,
enduring forever!

His kingdom will never be destroyed,
His dominion will never end. ††

²⁸ (27) He delivers and rescues.

He performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on earth.

He has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions!"

²⁹ (28) So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel's Vision of Four Beasts

7 In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions passed through his mind as he was on his bed. He wrote down a summary of the dream. ² Daniel said: "I was looking in my vision at night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were churning up the great sea. ³ Four huge beasts came up from the sea, each different from the others.

⁴ "The first was like a lion with eagle's wings. As I watched, its wings were pulled off and it was lifted off the ground. It was made to stand upon two feet like a man, and the heart of a human was given to it.

⁶ "After that I looked, and behold, there was another one like a leopard. On its back it had four wings like those of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and it was given authority to rule.

⁷ "After this in my vision at night, I looked and behold there was a fourth beast—terrifying, frightening, tremendously strong, with large iron teeth. It devoured and crushed—and anything that was left it trampled with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that came before it; it had ten horns. ‡

⁸ "While I was pondering the horns, behold, another horn, a small one, sprang up between them, and three of the first horns were uprooted from before it. And behold, this horn had eyes resembling human eyes and a mouth speaking boastfully. ††

Ancient of Days and Son of Man

⁹ "While I was watching, thrones were set up, and the Ancient of Days took his seat. His garment was as white as snow, and the hair of His head like pure wool. His throne was ablaze with flames, its wheels a burning fire. ‡‡

¹⁰ A river of fire was flowing and coming out from before Him.

Thousands of thousands attended Him and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him. ‡‡‡

The court was seated, and the books were opened. ‡‡‡

¹¹ "I kept watching because of the boastful words that the horn was speaking. I continued watching until the beast was slain and its body destroyed and thrown into the blazing fire. ^{†12} As for the rest of the beasts, their dominion had been taken away, yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

¹³ "I was watching in the night visions.

coming with the clouds of heaven.

He approached the Ancient of Days, and was brought into His presence.

¹⁴ Dominion, glory and sovereignty were given to Him that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him.

His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will never pass away, and His kingdom is one that will not be destroyed. [‡]

Interpretation of the Beasts

¹⁵ "As for me, Daniel, my spirit was disturbed within me, and the visions of my head alarmed me. ¹⁶ I approached one of those standing nearby and asked him the true meaning of all this. So he spoke with me and revealed the interpretation of these things: ¹⁷ "These large beasts, four in number, are four kings that will rise from the earth. ¹⁸ But the kedoshim of the Most High will receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever—yes, forever and ever." ^{††19} "Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast that was different from all the others, exceedingly terrifying with iron teeth and bronze claws, which broke in pieces and devoured and then stomped with its feet anything that remained. ²⁰ Of the ten horns on its head, the other horn that sprang up before which three others fell—that horn had eyes and a mouth speaking arrogant things, and its appearance was more imposing than its companions. ²¹ As I was watching, that horn was waging war against the kedoshim and overpowering them, ²² until the Ancient of Days came and judgment was rendered in favor of the kedoshim of the Most High—when the time came and the kedoshim possessed the kingdom. ^{‡‡}

²³ "Thus he explained: 'The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on earth that will be different from all the other kingdoms. It will devour the whole earth, and trample it and crush it. ²⁴ As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise. Another will arise after them, but he will be different from the previous ones; he will subdue three kings. ^{‡‡25} He will speak words against the Most High, and will continually harass the kedoshim of the Most High, ^{‡‡‡} and will try to change the appointed times and law. The kedoshim will be handed over to him for a time, times, and half a time. [§]

²⁶ But the court will sit and he will be stripped of his power to be destroyed and abolished for all time.

²⁷ Then the kingdom, power, and greatness of the kingdoms under all heaven will be given to the people of the kedoshim of the Most High. ^{§†} Their kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions will serve and obey him.'

²⁸ "This is the conclusion of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly troubled me and the color drained from my face. But I kept the matter in my heart."

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and Goat

8 "In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar, a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that had appeared to me earlier. ² In the vision I saw myself in the citadel ^{§††} of Shushan, ^{§†} which is in the province of Elam. In the vision I saw that I was beside the Ulai Canal. ³ I lifted up my eyes and looked up, behold, a ram with two horns was standing in front of the canal. The two horns were long but one was longer than the other, but the longer one grew up last. ⁴ I saw the ram charging toward the west and north and south. No animal could stand against him—none could deliver from his hand. So he did as he pleased and magnified himself.

⁵ "While I was contemplating this, behold, a male goat came from the west crossing the face of the whole earth without touching the ground! Now the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes. ⁶ He came up to the two-horn ram that I had seen standing beside the canal, and charged it with raging strength. ⁷ I saw him attacking the ram furiously, striking the ram and shattering his two horns. Now the ram was not strong enough to stand against him, so he knocked the ram to the ground and trampled him. No one could rescue the ram from his power.

⁹ "Out of one of them came forth a small horn, which grew extremely large to the south and the east, and toward the beautiful land. ¹⁰ It grew as high as the host of heaven and hurled some of the host and the stars down to the earth and trampled them. ¹¹ It set itself up to be as great as the Prince of the host. It took away from him the daily offering and the place of his sanctuary was thrown down. ¹² The host was given over along with the daily sacrifice, in the course of its rebellion. It will hurl truth to the ground and prosper in what it does.

¹³ "Then I heard a holy one speaking and another holy one said to the one who was speaking, 'How long will the vision last, the daily sacrifice be forsaken because of rebellion, the sanctuary be surrendered, and the host be trampled?' ¹⁴ Then he said to me: 'For 2,300

^{§†} cf. Luke 1:33; Rev. 11:15; 22:5. ^{§††} Narrative from 8:1 switches from Aramaic back to Hebrew. ^{§‡} Or Susa evenings and mornings; then the sanctuary will be vindicated.'

Interpretation of Vision: Persian Ram and Greek Goat

¹⁷ "He came near to where I was standing, and as he approached I was terrified and fell on my face. But he said to me, 'Son of man, understand that the vision pertains to the time of the end.'

¹⁸ "While he was speaking to me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face to the ground. But he touched me and stood me up, ¹⁹ and said: 'Behold, I am going to inform you about what will happen later in the time of wrath, for the vision pertains to the appointed time of the end. ²⁰ The ram that you saw with the two horns stands for the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹ The buck, the male goat, is the king of Greece; and the large horn between his eyes is the first king. ²² The four horns that replaced the one that was broken represent four kingdoms that will arise from this nation, though not with its power.

²³ "Now toward the end of their reign, when the measure of transgressions is completed, a stern-faced king, a master of intrigue, will arise. ²⁴ His power will be mighty, but it will not be by his strength alone. He will cause extraordinary devastation, and succeed in whatever he does. He will destroy both the powerful and the holy people. ²⁵ By his cunning he will cause deceit to prosper under his hand and he will consider himself superior. He will destroy many, taking them unaware. He will even stand up against the Prince of princes, yet he will be broken, but not by human hands.

²⁶ "Now the vision of the evenings and mornings that has been told to you is true, but seal up the vision for it concerns many days from now.'

²⁷ "Then I, Daniel, was stricken and languished for days. Then I got up and went about the king's business, but I was astounded at the vision and no one could explain it.

Daniel Confesses Israel's Sins

9 "In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans, ² in the first year of his reign—I, Daniel, understood from the books that according to the word of ADONAI to Jeremiah the prophet, the number of the years for the fulfilling of the desolation of Jerusalem would be 70 years. ³ So I set my face to the Lord God to seek Him by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

† Alexander the Great

⁴ "I prayed to ADONAI my God and confessed, saying: 'O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and mercy with those who love Him and keep His mitzvot, ⁵ we have sinned; we have committed iniquity; we have acted wickedly; we have rebelled; we have turned away from Your mitzvot and from Your rulings. ⁶ We have not listened to Your servants the prophets, ^{††} who spoke in Your name to our kings, our leaders, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

⁷ "You Lord are righteousness, but shame covers our face to this day—the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, near and far, in all the countries where you have banished them—because they behaved unfaithfully toward you. ⁸ ADONAI, shame covers our face—our kings, our leaders, our fathers—because we have sinned against you. ⁹ The Lord our God is compassionate and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against Him. ¹⁰ We have not obeyed the voice of ADONAI Eloheinu by walking in His Torah that He set before us through His servants the prophets. ¹¹ Yes, all Israel has transgressed Your Torah and has turned away—not obeying Your voice.

"Therefore the curse and sworn judgment written in the Torah of Moses the servant of God has been poured out upon us, for we have sinned against Him. ¹² So He has confirmed His words that he spoke against us and against our rulers who ruled over us by bringing on us a great calamity. Under the whole heaven nothing like this has ever been done to Jerusalem! ^{†††} As it is written in the Torah of Moses, all this calamity came on us, yet we have not sought the favor of ADONAI Eloheinu by turning away from our iniquities and paying attention to Your truth. ¹⁴ So ADONAI was intent on bringing the calamity upon us, for ADONAI Eloheinu is righteous in all His deeds that He has done—while we have not paid attention to His voice.

¹⁵ "So now, ADONAI Eloheinu, who brought Your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and made for Yourself a Name to this day—we have sinned, we have acted wickedly. ¹⁶ Lord, in keeping with all Your righteous acts, let Your anger and Your fury turn away, please, from Jerusalem, Your city, Your holy mountain. Because of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people have become an object of scorn to all those around us.

¹⁷ "So now, our God, listen to the prayers and petitions of Your servant, and cause Your face to shine upon Your devastated Sanctuary, for the sake of my Lord. ¹⁸ Give ear, my God, and hear! Open Your eyes and see our desolation and the city called by Your name. We do not present our supplications before You because of our own righteousness, but because of Your great compassions. ¹⁹ Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! Lord, listen and act! For Your own sake, O my God, do not delay!

The Mashiach and Seventy Weeks

²⁰ "While I was still speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before ADONAI my God on behalf of the holy mountain of my God— ²¹ yes, while I was praying, Gabriel, the one I had seen in the earlier vision, [†] came to me swiftly about the time of the evening offering.

²² "He instructed me and said to me: 'Daniel, I have come now to give you insight and understanding. ²³ At the beginning of your requests, a message went out, and I have come to declare it to you, for you are greatly esteemed. Therefore consider the message and understand the vision:

²⁴ "Seventy weeks ^{††} are decreed concerning your people and your holy city, to put an end to transgression, to bring sin to an end, to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Holy of Holies."

²⁵ So know and understand: "From the issuing of the decree to restore and to build Jerusalem until the time Mashiach, [‡] the Prince, there shall be seven weeks and 62 weeks.

'It will be rebuilt, with plaza and moat, but it will be in times of distress.

²⁶ 'Then after the 62 weeks Mashiach will be cut off and have nothing. ^{††}

'Then the people of a prince who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary. ^{‡‡}

But his end will come like a flood. Until the end of the war that is decreed there will be destruction.

²⁷ 'Then he will make a firm covenant with many for one week, but in the middle of the week he will put an end to sacrifice and offering.

'And on a wing of abominations will come one who destroys, ^{‡‡†} until the decreed annihilation is poured out on the one who destroys.'"

Angelic Princes Battle for 21 Days

10 In the third year of King Cyrus of Persia a message was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar. The oracle was true and concerns a great war. He understood the message and gained insight through a vision.

² "In those days, I, Daniel was mourning for three whole weeks. ³ I ate no rich food, nor did meat or wine enter my mouth, nor did I anoint myself with oil, until the end of three weeks.

⁷ "Only I, Daniel, saw the vision; the men that were with me did not see the vision. Nevertheless, such a great terror fell upon them that they fled and hid themselves. ⁸ So I was left alone to see this great vision. My strength drained from me and my vigor was destroyed; I could not summon any strength. ⁹ Yet I heard the sound of his words. When I heard him speaking, I fell on my face in a deep sleep with my face to the ground. ^{§††}

¹⁰ "Then behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. ¹¹ He said to me, 'Daniel, highly valued man, carefully consider the words I am speaking to you. Stand up! For now I have been sent to you.' When he spoke this word to me, I stood up trembling.

¹² "Then he said to me, 'Don't be afraid, Daniel! For from the first day that you set your heart to understand and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard. I have come because of your words. ¹³ However, the prince of the kingdom of Persia resisted me for 21 days, but behold Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me because I had been detained there with the kings of Persia. ¹⁴ Now I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future days. For the vision concerns days yet to come.'

¹⁵ "While he was speaking these words to me, I bowed my face toward the ground and was speechless. ¹⁶ Then behold, one who resembled a human touched my lips. I opened my mouth and spoke, and said to him that stood before me, 'O my Lord, because of the vision, anguish has overcome me and I have no strength. ¹⁷ For how can this servant of my Lord speak with my Lord since no strength remains in me and no spirit is left in me?'

¹⁸ "Again the one who looked like a man touched me and strengthened me. ¹⁹ Then he said: 'Highly valued man, do not fear! Shalom to you. Be strong, now! Chazak!'

"Even as he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, 'Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me.'

²⁰ "Then he said: 'Do you understand why I have come to you? Now I must return to fight against the prince of Persia! When I go, behold, the prince of Greece will come. ²¹ But first, I will tell you what is recorded in the writing of truth.' (No one strengthened me against these, except Michael your prince. †

Kings of the South and the North

²"Now I will declare the truth. Behold, three more kings will arise in Persia. Then a fourth will be far richer than all. When he becomes powerful through his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the realm of Greece. ³Then a mighty king will arise, who will rule with great authority and do as he pleases. ⁴But as soon as he has arisen, his kingdom will be broken up and distributed to the four winds of heaven—though it will not go to his descendants, nor will it have the authority he exercised, for his kingdom will be uprooted and given to others besides these.

⁶After some years they will form an alliance. The daughter of the king of the south will approach the king of the north to make an agreement. But she will not retain her position of power, nor will his strength endure. Instead she will be given up, together with her escort, her father and the one who supported her in those times. ⁷But another shoot from her roots will arise in his place. He will come against the army of the king of the north and enter his fortress. He will fight against them and prevail. ⁸He will also carry off their gods into captivity to Egypt, along with their metal images and their precious articles of silver and gold. For a few years he will stay away from the king of the north.

¹¹"Then the king of the south, enraged, will march out and fight against the king of the north, who will also muster a massive army. But the army will be defeated. ¹²But when the army is carried off, the heart of the king of the south will become arrogant, and will slaughter thousands and thousands, yet he will not prevail. ¹³The king of the north will raise up another army, one greater than the first. After an interval of some years, he will advance with a great army and with abundant supplies.

¹⁴"In those times many will rise up against the king of the south. The lawless sons among your own people will raise themselves up in order to confirm the vision, but they will stumble. ¹⁵Then the king of the north will come, build a siege-ramp, and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the south will not prevail—not even their select troops will have strength to prevail. ¹⁶But the invader will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to stand against him. He will take his stand in the beautiful land and its devastation in his hand. ¹⁷His intention will be to come with the strength of his entire kingdom, but he will reach an agreement with him. He will give him a daughter in marriage in order to destroy the kingdom, but his plans will not succeed or help him. ¹⁸Then he will turn his attention to the coastlands and capture many. But a commander will put an end to his insolence and pay him back for his insolence. ¹⁹He will then turn his face toward the strongholds of his own land, but he will stumble and fall, not to be found again.

²⁰"In his place will arise one who will dispatch a tax collector to extract tribute for royal glory, but within a few days he will be destroyed, though not in anger or battle.

²¹"Then in his place will arise a despicable person, on whom royal honor has not been conferred. He will come in a time of tranquility, and seize the kingdom through intrigue. ²²Armies will be utterly swept away from before him and will be broken, as well as the leader of the covenant. ²³After an alliance is made with him, he will act deceitfully; he will rise to power with a small force. ²⁴Without warning, he will invade the richest province and accomplish what his fathers or predecessors were unable to do. He will lavish on them plunder, loot, and spoils. He will plot the overthrow of strongholds, though only for a while.

²⁵"He will summon his strength and courage against the king of the south with a great army. The king of the south will wage war with a very large and mighty army, but he will not succeed because of plots devised against him. ²⁶Those who eat his delicacies will destroy him, and his army will be swept away; many will be slain in battle. ²⁷These two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will sit at the same table and speak lies, but to no avail, for the end will still come at the appointed time. ²⁸The king of the north will return to his own land with great wealth, but his heart will be set against the holy covenant. He will take action and then return to his own land.

²⁹"At the appointed time he will invade the south again, only this time the outcome will not be as before. ³⁰The ships of Kittim †† will come against him, and he will lose heart. Then he will turn back and vent his rage against the holy covenant. When he returns, he will favor those who forsake the holy covenant.

³¹"His forces will rise up and profane the fortified Temple; they will stop the daily offering and set up the abomination of desolation. †‡ With smooth words he will seduce those who act wickedly against the covenant, but the people who know their God will stand strong and prevail. ³³Those who are wise among the people will instruct many, though for many days they will fall by the sword, or be burned, captured or pillaged. ³⁴ When they stumble, they will receive a little help, but many will join them deceitfully. ³⁵ Even some of the wise will stumble, so that they may be refined, purified, and made spotless until the time of the end—for it will still come at the appointed time.

An Ungodly King Exalts Himself

³⁶ “So the king will do as he pleases, exalting and magnifying himself above every god. He will even speak outrageous things against the God of gods. He will prosper until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been decided will be done. ³⁷ He will show no regard for the gods [†] of his fathers or the one desired by women, nor will he show regard for any god, but will exalt himself above all. ³⁸ Instead of these, he will honor a god of fortresses—a god his fathers did not acknowledge he will honor with gold, silver, precious stones, and costly things. ³⁹ He will attack strong fortresses with the help of a foreign god and will greatly honor those who acknowledge him. He will give them authority over many and will parcel out land for a price.

⁴⁰ “Now at the time of the end the king of the south will attack him, and the king of the north will storm out against him with chariots, horsemen and many ships. He will invade lands and pass through them like an overflowing river. ⁴¹ He will also invade the Beautiful Land. Many will be overthrown, but these will escape from his hand: Edom, Moab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon. ⁴² He will extend his hand against other countries; the land of Egypt will not escape. ⁴³ He will gain control over the hidden treasures of gold and silver, as well as all of the riches of Egypt. The Libyans and the Cushites will also be under his feet. ⁴⁴ But reports from the east and north will alarm him, and he will set out in a great rage to destroy and annihilate many. ⁴⁵ He will pitch his royal tents between the seas and the beautiful holy mountain. Yet he will meet his doom with no one to help him.’

Resurrection and Judgment

12 “At that time Michael, the great prince who stands guard over the sons of your people, will arise. ^{††} There will be a time of distress such as has never occurred since the beginning of the nation until then. [‡] But at that time your people—everyone who is found written in the book—will be delivered. ^{‡‡} Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake—some to everlasting life, and others to shame and everlasting contempt. ^{‡‡‡} Those who are wise will shine like the brightness of the heavenly expanse. And those who turn many to righteousness will be like the stars forever and ever. ⁴ But you, Daniel, close up the words and seal the book until the time of the end. ^{‡‡‡} Many will run back and forth and knowledge will increase.’

The Final Outcome

⁵ “Then I, Daniel, looked and behold, two others stood there, one on this bank of the river and the one on the other bank of the river. ⁶ One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, ‘How long until the end of the wondrous things?’

⁷ “Then I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, as he raised both his right and left hands toward heaven and swore an oath by Him who lives forever, saying, “It is for a time, times, and a half. Then when the breaking of the power of the holy people comes to an end, all these things will be finished.”

⁸ Now I heard, but I did not understand. So I said, ‘My Lord, what will be the outcome of these things?’

⁹ Then he said: “Go your way, Daniel. For the words are closed up and sealed until the time of the end.

¹⁰ Many will be purified, made spotless and refined, but the wicked will act wickedly. None of the wicked will understand, but the wise will understand.

¹¹ “From the time that the daily burnt offering is taken away, and abomination of desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. ¹² Happy is the one who keeps waiting, and reaches the 1,335 days. ^{‡‡‡‡} But you, go your way till the end. You will rest and then at the end of days you will arise to receive your portion.”

Hosea

Hosea Introduction

The name “Hosea” comes from a Hebrew word meaning “salvation.” The prophet so named lived and wrote during the kingdoms of Uzziah and Jeroboam II, between 750 and 715 BCE. Hosea’s ministry was to the Northern Kingdom of Israel during a time of deep sin and corruption—at a time when they really needed salvation. Prominent in the book of Hosea is the prophet’s scandalous marriage to Gomer, a prostitute. Their relationship was far from an exemplary marriage! After giving birth to several children, Gomer left her prophet-husband to return to a life of a profit-based prostitution. Having every reason to finally let his wife go, Hosea instead chose to go after Gomer and purchase her out of bondage to prostitution. This marvelous picture of commitment and fidelity between Hosea and his then-estranged wife Gomer is an allegory of God’s love and commitment to Israel. Like Gomer, the people of Israel were acting unfaithfully to God, and “playing the harlot.” Hosea’s marriage to Gomer was an object lesson, an attempt to communicate both the depth of sin to which the nation had sunk and also the everlasting love of God as a faithful husband.

Hosea’s purchase of Gomer out of slavery is yet another reminder of the details of redemption. Sin always has a price that will be paid by someone—the redeemer or the redeemed. Throughout the Scriptures, we see redemption being paid. In Egypt the price was the death of an innocent lamb. For Gomer, the price was 15 shekels and one and a half omers of barley. Yesterday, when the Temple stood in Jerusalem, people were forever reminded of redemption’s cost by the slaughter of the lambs. Today, two thousand years later, there is still a price that needs to be paid for sin. Graciously, God Himself has paid that price for us through the death of , our Messiah.

The Unfaithful Wife

¹ The word of ADONAI that came to Hosea son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel. ² When ADONAI first spoke with Hosea, ADONAI said to Hosea:

“Go, get yourself a prostitute as a wife and children with a prostitute!

For the land is an unfaithful prostitute, far from following after ADONAI.”

³ So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. ⁴ Then ADONAI said to him:

“Name him Jezreel [†] for in yet a little while

I will visit the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and I will destroy the kingdom of the house of Israel.

⁵ In that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel."

⁶ Then she conceived again, and bore a daughter. And He said to him:

"Name her Lo-Ruhamah †— for no longer will I have compassion on the house of Israel that I should ever pardon them.

⁷ But on the house of Judah I will have compassion and deliver them by ADONAI, their God, yet not by bow, sword or battle, nor by horses and horsemen."

⁸ After she weaned Lo-Ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. ⁹ Then He said:

"Name him Lo-Ammi ††, for you are not My people and I am not yours."

Restoring the Covenant Promises

2 (1:10) "Yet the number of Bnei-Yisrael will be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or counted. ‡

Instead of 'You are not My people' being said to them, they will be called 'Children of the living God.'

² (1:11) Then the descendants of Judah and descendants of Israel will be gathered together.

They will appoint themselves one head

And they will go up from the land.

For the day of Jezreel will be great.

³ (1) Say you to your brothers, 'Ammi' †† and to your sisters, 'Ruhamah' ††.

⁴ (2) Contend with your mother, contend!

For she is not My wife nor I her husband.

Let her put away her fornications from her face and her adulteries from between her breasts.

⁵ (3) Or else I will strip her naked and expose her as on the day she was born.

Then I will make her like a wilderness.

Yes, I will make her like desert land, and I will let her die of thirst.

⁶ (4) I will have no compassion for her children, for they are children of prostitution.

⁷ (5) For their mother has practiced prostitution.

She who conceived them has been shameful.

For she said, 'Let me go after my lovers, who are giving me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'

⁸ (6) Therefore see, I will hedge her in with thorns, and I will build a wall around her so she cannot find her paths.

⁹ (7) Then she will chase after her lovers, but she will not overtake them.

She will seek them, but not find.

Then she will say:

'Let me go and return to my first husband, for it was better for me then, than now.'

¹⁰ (8) But she did not realize that I Myself gave her the grain, the wine and the fresh oil. I lavished on her silver, also gold— which they made into Baal.

¹¹ (9) Therefore I will return and take back My grain in its season, and My new wine at its appointed time, and I will snatch away My wool and My linen for covering her nakedness.

¹² (10) So now I will uncover her lewdness to the eyes of her lovers, and no one will rescue her from My hand.

¹³ (11) I will also put an end to all her rejoicing— her feasts, her New Moon, her Shabbat, and all her moadim.

¹⁴ (12) I will also devastate her vines and her fig trees, of which she said: 'These are my payment that my lovers have given to me.'

But I will turn them into a thicket and beasts of the field will devour them.

¹⁵ (13) Then I will punish her for the days of the Baalim ††† to whom she would burn incense— adorning herself with her rings and jewelry, going after her lovers— but Me she forgot."

It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Compassion and Covenant Love

¹⁶ (14) "So then, I Myself will entice her, I will bring her into the wilderness and speak to her heart.

¹⁷ (15) I will give her back her vineyards from there and make the valley of Achor a door of hope.

She will respond there—

as in the days of her youth, as in the day she came up out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁸ (16) In that day—it is a declaration of ADONAI— you will proclaim, 'My husband,' and never again call Me, 'My Baal.'

¹⁹ (17) Then I will remove the names of the Baalim out of her mouth, no longer to be mentioned by their name.

²⁰ (18) In that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, the flying creatures in the sky, and the creeping things on the ground.

I will break into pieces the bow and sword and warfare from the land, and I will cause them to lie down securely.

²¹ (19) Then I will betroth you to Me forever— yes, I will betroth you to Me with righteousness, justice, covenant loyalty, and compassion.

† Meaning God will sow God will scatter † Meaning Shown no compassion †† Meaning Not my people ‡ cf. Rom. 9:26.

†† Meaning My people ††† Meaning Shown compassion

††† Hebrew gods

22 (20) I will betroth you to Me with faithfulness, and you will know ADONAI.
23 (21) So it will be in that day, I will respond
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
I will respond to the skies, and they will respond to the earth, 24 (22) and the earth will respond with grain, new wine, and fresh oil—and they will respond with 'Jezreel!' †
25 (23) I will sow her in the land for Myself.
I will have compassion on Lo-Ruhamah.
I will say to Lo-Ammi, 'You are My people!' †† and they will say, 'My God!'"

Buying Back His Wife

3 Then ADONAI said to me: "Go again! Love a woman who is loved by a companion and committing adultery—just as ADONAI has loved the Bnei-Yis-rael, while they were turning to other gods and loving raisin cakes."

2 So I bought her for myself for 15 shekels of silver and an omer and a half of barley. 3 Then I said to her:
"For many days you must stay with me. You must not practice prostitution. You must not have a man, and I will be the same toward you."

4 For Bnei-Yisrael will remain for many days without king, without prince, without sacrifice, without sacred pillar, and without ephod or teraphim. ‡

5 Afterwards, Bnei-Yisrael will return, and they will seek ADONAI their God and David their king. Then they will turn in awe to ADONAI and to His goodness in the last days.

Destroyed For Lack of Knowledge

4 Hear the word of ADONAI, Bnei-Yisrael!
For ADONAI has a dispute with the inhabitants of
the land,
because there is no truth,
no covenant loyalty,
and no knowledge of God in the land.
2 Curse, deceive, murder, steal, commit adultery!
They practice violence,
and bloodshed follows bloodshed.
3 Therefore, the land will mourn, and everyone dwelling in it will languish along with the beasts of the field and the flying creatures of the sky—
even the fish of the sea will be removed.
4 Yet let no one dispute and let no one argue.
Your people are like a kohen who makes quarrels.
5 So you will stumble by day.
Also a prophet will stumble with you by night,

when I destroy your mother.

6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Since you rejected knowledge,
I will also reject you from being My kohen.
Since you forgot the Torah of your God,
just so I will forget your children.

7 The more they multiplied,
the more they sinned against Me.
I will change their glory into disgrace.

8 They feed on the sin of My people and relish their iniquity.

9 But it will be like people, like kohen.
So I will punish them for their ways,
and repay them for their deeds.

10 They have eaten but will not be satisfied.
They have fornicated but will not increase.
For they stopped giving heed to ADONAI.

11 Prostitution and wine—even new wine—it takes away understanding.

12 My people consult their wooden idol and their divining rod informs them.

For a spirit of prostitution leads them astray and they have been a prostitute—out from under their God.

13 They sacrifice on the mountaintops and on the high places they burn incense under oak, poplar, and terebinth—for its shade is good.

Therefore, your daughters are prostitutes and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

14 Will I not punish your daughters for prostitution or your daughters-in-law for adultery?

For they consort with prostitutes, and they sacrifice with cult prostitutes.
A people without understanding will be thrust down.

15 Though you, Israel, are a prostitute, let Judah not become guilty.

But do not come to Gilgal or go up to Beth-Aven, †† and do not swear: "As ADONAI lives!"

16 For Israel is stubborn like a stubborn cow.
Now ADONAI will pasture them like a lamb in the open field.

17 Ephraim is joined to idols;
let him alone!

18 Their liquor has come to an end.
They surely have practiced prostitution.
Her rulers have deeply loved disgrace.

19 A wind will wrap her up in its wings.
They will be ashamed of their sacrifices.

Judgment for Betrayal

5 Hear this, O priests!
Pay attention, O house of Israel!
Give ear, O house of the king!

† Meaning God sows †† cf. Rom. 9:25; 1 Pet. 2:10. ‡ Meaning sacred vest household idols

†† Meaning House of Iniquity

For the judgment applies to you:
 For you were a snare at Mizpah and a net spread on Tabor.
² Rebels were deep in slaughter,
 so I am a chastisement for them all.
³ I myself have known Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from Me.
 For now, Ephraim, you are a prostitute—
 Israel is defiled!
⁴ They will not give up their evil deeds to return to their God.
 For a spirit of prostitution is in them,
 and ADONAI they have not known.
⁵ The Pride of Israel will answer to his face:
 Israel and Ephraim will stagger in their iniquity, Judah also will stumble with them.
⁶ With their flocks and with their herds they will go to seek ADONAI, but they will not find Him—
 He has withdrawn from them.
⁷ They have betrayed ADONAI, for they have begotten foreign children.
 Now the New Moon will devour them, with their portions.
⁸ Blow a shofar in Gibeah, a trumpet in Ramah!
 Sound an alarm at Beth-Aven:
 "Behind you, Benjamin!"
⁹ Ephraim will become desolate in the day of rebuke.
 Among the tribes of Israel
 I made known what is certain.
¹⁰ The princes of Judah were like those who move a boundary mark.
 I pour out My fury on them like water.
¹¹ Oppressed is Ephraim, crushed by judgment,
 for he willingly followed a worthless thing.
¹² So, I will be like a moth to Ephraim and like decay to the house of Judah.
¹³ When Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah his wound, Ephraim went to Assyria and sent envoys to a warring king.
 But he cannot heal you nor will he cure your wound.
¹⁴ For I will be like a lion to Ephraim, and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
 I, even I, will tear them to pieces and go away.
 I will carry them off, and there will be no one to rescue.
¹⁵ I will go and return to My place until they admit their guilt.
 Then they will seek My face.
 In their distress they will seek Me earnestly.

Prayer of Teshuvah

6 Come, let us return to ADONAI.
 For He has torn, but He will heal us.
 He has smitten, but He will bind us up.
² After two days He will revive us.
 On the third day He will raise us up, and we will live in His presence. †
³ So let us know, let us strive to know ADONAI.
 Like dawn His going forth is certain.
 He will come to us like the rain,
 like the latter rain watering the earth.

Covenant Loyalty More Than Sacrifice

⁴ "O Ephraim, what shall I do for you?
 O Judah, what will I do for you?
 For your loyalty is like a morning cloud or like dew rising early, vanishing.
⁵ Therefore, I cut them down by the prophets.
 I slew them by the words of My mouth.
 Now the judgments pronounced against you:
 light will go forth.
⁶ For I delight in loyalty †† and not sacrifice, knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
⁷ But like Adam, they transgressed a covenant.
 There they dealt treacherously with Me.
⁸ Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with bloody footprints.
⁹ Like marauding bands waiting for a man, so a company of priests murders on the way toward Shechem.
 For they have committed crime.
¹⁰ In the house of Israel
 I have seen a horrible thing:
 Ephraim's prostitution is there,
 Israel has become unclean.
¹¹ Also, Judah, there is a harvest for you, when I return My people from captivity."

Iniquity of Senseless Ephraim

7 "When I would have healed Israel, the iniquity of Ephraim was uncovered, even the wickedness of Samaria,
 for they practice fraud.
 So a thief breaks in;
 a marauding band will raid outside.
² But they never admit in their heart that I remember all their evil.
 Now their deeds are all around them.
 They are right before My face.
³ They gladden the king with their evil and the princes with their lies.
⁴ All of them are practicing adultery, as an oven heated by a baker who stops stirring or kneading dough when it is leavened.

† cf. Matt. 16:21; 1 Cor. 15:4. †† Or covenant love mercy

5 On the day of our king, princes become sick from wine.
 His hand drags scorners along.
 6 For their hearts are like an oven,
 as they wait in ambush.
 All night their anger smolders.
 In the morning it burns like a blazing fire.
 7 All of them are hot like an oven, and they devour their rulers.
 All of their kings have fallen.
 None among them calls on Me.
 8 Ephraim mixes himself with the peoples.
 Ephraim has become a pancake that never gets turned over.
 9 Strangers devoured his strength—
 yet he does not know it.
 Gray hairs have spread on him—
 and he does not know it.
 10 Though the Pride of Israel has answered him to his face, yet they did not return to ADONAI their God, nor seek Him about all this.
 11 Ephraim is like a senseless silly dove,
 they call to Egypt; they go to Assyria.
 12 As they are going,
 I will spread out My net over them,
 I will bring them down like a bird from the sky.
 I will chasten them as in the report that comes to their assembly.
 13 Oy to them!
 For they strayed from Me.
 Devastation to them!
 For they rebelled against Me.
 Should I redeem them
 after they spoke lies about Me?
 14 Nor did they not cry to Me in their heart when they were wailing on their beds.
 For the sake of grain and new wine they slash themselves—
 they keep turning away from Me.
 15 I trained and strengthened their arms,
 yet they kept planning evil against Me.
 16 They will turn back—only not upwards.
 They are like a treacherous bow.
 Their princes will fall by the sword because of the insolence with their tongues.
 This will be for their ridicule in the land of Egypt.

Idols Thrown Down

8 "Put a shofar to your mouth!
 Like a vulture he comes against the house of ADONAI .
 For they overstepped My covenant and transgressed My Torah .
 2 Will they cry out to Me,
 'My God, we—Israel—knew You'? †

† cf. Ps. 78:34; Hos. 7:14; Matt. 7:23; Titus 1:16.

3 Israel has rejected goodness—an adversary will pursue him.
 4 They crowned kings, but not by Me.
 They appointed princes
 I did not approve.
 Their silver and gold they made into idols—
 just so they would be cut down.
 5 Samaria! Your calf is thrown down!
 My anger is kindled against them!
 How long will they be incapable of innocence?
 6 For a craftsman from Israel made it,
 so it is no god.
 For the calf of Samaria will be splinters.
 7 "For they sow wind, and reap a whirlwind.
 There is no mature grain—
 the sprout yields no meal.
 Should it produce anything, strangers would swallow it up.
 8 Israel has been swallowed up!
 Now they are among the nations,
 like an ornament with no delight in it.
 9 For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey alone by itself.
 Ephraim has hired lovers.
 10 Although they hire among the nations,
 I will now round them up.
 So they will begin to decrease under the burden of king and princes.
 11 "When Ephraim multiplied altars for making sin offerings, they became his altars for sinning.
 12 Though I were to write out for him ten thousand things from My Torah , they are regarded as something strange.
 13 Sacrifices are gifts for Me—should they sacrifice meat and then eat it?
ADONAI will not accept them.
 Now He will remember their iniquity and punish their sin—
 they will return to Egypt.
 14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built temples,
 while Judah has multiplied fortified cities.
 So I will send fire upon its cities that will consume their citadels."

Days of Desolation Are Coming

9 Do not rejoice, O Israel, do not celebrate like the peoples—
 for so you have gone whoring away from your God.
 You have loved a prostitute's pay,
 on every grain threshing floor.
 2 Threshing floor and winepress will not sustain them,
 and new wine will fail her.
 3 They will not dwell in ADONAI 's land.
 Instead Ephraim will return to Egypt, and eat unclean food in Assyria.
 4 They will pour no wine offerings to ADONAI —

they would not be pleasing to Him.
 Their sacrifices will be like the bread of mourners for them.
 All that eat it will be defiled,
 for their bread is for their appetite, not coming into the House of ADONAI .
⁵ What will you do for a moed or for the day of ADONAI 's feast?
⁶ Look, even if they escape the desolation,
 Egypt will gather them up;
 Memphis will bury them.
 And their precious silver treasures?
 Weeds will possess them.
 Thorns will be in their tents.
⁷ The days of punishment have come;
 the days of retribution have come.
 Let Israel know! The prophet is a fool;
 the man of the spirit is mad!
 For great is your iniquity and great the hostility.
⁸ Ephraim is a watchman with my God,
 a prophet.
 A bird catcher's trap is on all his paths.
 Hostility is in the House of his God.
⁹ They have deeply corrupted themselves as in the days of Gibeah.
 He will remember their iniquity,
 He will punish their sin.
¹⁰ "Like grapes in the wilderness
 I found Israel.
 Like early fruit on a fig tree in its first season
 I saw your fathers.
 They came to Baal-Peor and devoted themselves to shame.
 So they became as detestable
 as the thing they loved.
¹¹ Ephraim's glory flies away like a bird—no birth, no pregnancy, no conception!
¹² For if they should raise their children,
 I would make them childless to the last man.
 Yes, woe to them
 when I depart from them!
¹³ Ephraim, as I have seen, is like Tyre, planted in a meadow,
 but Ephraim will bring his children out to the slayer."
¹⁴ Give them, ADONAI , what will You give?
 Give them a miscarrying womb and dried up breasts.
¹⁵ "All their wickedness is at Gilgal, for there I despised them.
 Because of their wicked practices,
 I will drive them out of My House.
 I will love them no more.
 All their princes are rebellious.
¹⁶ Ephraim is blighted;
 their root is withered;
 they bear no fruit.
 Even if they bring forth children,

I will slay the cherished ones in their wombs."
¹⁷ My God will cast them off, since they did not listen to Him.
 So they will become wanderers among the nations.

Israel to be Shamed in Captivity

10 A luxuriant vine is Israel, who produces fruit for himself.
 Like the abundance of his fruit
 he has multiplied his altars.
 Like the goodness of his land,
 they made beautiful sacred pillars.
² Their heart became smooth †.
 Now they will bear their guilt.
 He will break down their altars.
 He will destroy their sacred pillars.
³ Surely now they will say: "We have no king,
 for we have not feared ADONAI .
 The king—what can he do for us?"
⁴ They spoke words—empty oaths to make a covenant.
 But judgment springs up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.
⁵ The inhabitants of Samaria will quarrel over the calves of Beth-Aven.
 Indeed its people will mourn over it,
 but its priests will tremble over it.
 For its glory will surely depart from it.
⁶ It also will be carried to Assyria as tribute to a warring king.
 Ephraim will receive shame and Israel will be put to shame by its own counsel.
⁷ Samaria is being cut off.
 Her king is like a splinter on the surface of the water.
⁸ The high places of Aven,
 the sin of Israel will be destroyed.
 Thorns and thistles will come up on their altars.
 And they will say to the mountains: "Cover us!"
 And to the hills: "Fall on us!" †† ⁹ "From the days of Gibeah, you have sinned, O Israel.
 There they took their stand.
 Will not war over sons of iniquity overtake them in Gibeah?"
¹⁰ When I desire,
 I will chasten them,
 and peoples will gather against them when they are yoked to their two sins.
¹¹ Though Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh, I put a yoke
 over her fair neck.
 I will make Ephraim pull;
 Judah will plow;
 Jacob will drag a harrow by himself."

† Or faithless divided †† cf. Isa. 2:19; Luke 23:30; Rev. 6:16.

Plow up Your Ground

¹² Sow for yourselves righteousness. †
 Reap in accord with covenant love.
 Break up your unplowed ground.
 For it is time to seek ADONAI, until He comes and showers righteousness on you.
¹³ You have plowed up wickedness,
 you have reaped iniquity.
 You have eaten the fruit of delusion,
 for you have trusted in your own way,
 in the multitude of your mighty men.
¹⁴ A tumult will arise among your people.
 All your strongholds will be demolished,
 as Shalman destroyed Beth-Arbel in the day of battle,
 when a mother was dashed in pieces with her children.
¹⁵ Just so has Beth-El done to you because of your great wickedness.
 At dawn the king of Israel will be utterly cut off.

My Son Called Out

11 “When Israel was a youth I loved him, and out of Egypt I called My son. †† ² They called out to them but they departed from their presence.
 They kept sacrificing to the Baalim and burning incense up to idols.
³ Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk.
 I took them on My arms.
 But they never acknowledged that I had healed them.
⁴ With human cords I was drawing them, with bonds of love, and I became to them as One lifting a yoke from their jaws.
 I bent down to them and fed them.
⁵ He will not return to the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian will be his king—because they refused to return.
⁶ So a sword will fall on his cities, and destroy and devour his gate bars because of their own counsels.
⁷ So My people are bent on turning from Me.
 Although they are being called upwards,
 none will rise up.
⁸ “How can I give you up, Ephraim?
 How can I surrender you, Israel?
 How can I make you like Admah?
 How can I set you as Zeboim?
 My heart is turning over within Me.
 My compassions are kindled.
⁹ I will not vent My fierce anger.
 I will not again destroy Ephraim.

For I am God—not a man—
 the Holy One in the midst of you, and I will not come in fury.”
¹⁰ They will walk after ADONAI.
 He will roar like a lion.
 Indeed, He will roar and the children will come trembling from the west.
¹¹ “They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, like a dove out of the land of Assyria, and I will settle them in their houses.”
 It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Ephraim Multiplies Lies

12 (11:12) “Ephraim surrounded Me with lies and the house of Israel with deceit.”
 Though Judah roams restlessly with God, yet he is faithful with holy things. ‡ ² (1) Ephraim is grazing on wind and pursuing the east wind.
 All day he multiplies lies and ruin:
 making †† a pact with Assyria,
 while carrying oil to Egypt.
³ (2) ADONAI also has a dispute with Judah:
 He will punish Jacob for his ways,
 repaying him for his deeds.
⁴ (3) In the womb he grasped his brother’s heel, and in his vigor he strove with God.
⁵ (4) Yes, he wrestled with the angel and won;
 he wept and sought his favor.
 At Beth-El he will find us,
 and there He will speak with us.
⁶ (5) Even ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot — ADONAI is His memorial-Name.
⁷ (6) So you should return to your God, keep covenant loyalty and justice,
 and wait for your God continually.
⁸ (7) A merchant loves to extort, with deceptive balances in his hand.
⁹ (8) Now Ephraim has said:
 “How rich I have become! I found wealth by myself.
 I won’t be guilty of any sin with any of my property.”
¹⁰ (9) “Yet I have been ADONAI your God,
 since the land of Egypt.
 I will yet again make you dwell in tents,
 as in the days of the moed.
¹¹ (10) I also spoke through the prophets and I multiplied visions.
 Now through the prophets
 I will make parables.
¹² (11) Since Gilead is full of iniquity, they are utterly worthless.
 In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls—even their altars will become heaps of rocks along the furrows of My field.”
¹³ (12) Now Jacob fled to the field of Aram, when Israel served for a wife—

† cf. Gal. 6:7-8. †† cf. Matt. 2:15.

‡ Or to the Holy One †† Lit. they are making yes, he kept watch for a wife.

¹⁴ (13) So by a prophet ADONAI brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was kept.
¹⁵ (14) Ephraim has provoked bitter anger, so his bloodguilt will remain on him—
 his Lord will repay him for his contempt.

No Other Savior

13 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling.
 He exalted himself in Israel,
 but he became guilty through Baal, and died.
² But now, they sin more and more.
 They made themselves molten images, idols skillfully made from their silver,
 all of them the work of the craftsmen.
 They say about them:
 "Let those who sacrifice kiss the calves."
³ Therefore, they will be like morning clouds, like dew passing away early,
 like chaff blown from the threshing floor,
 or like smoke from a chimney.
⁴ "Yet, I have been ADONAI your God
 since the land of Egypt.
 You should know no God but Me, and there is no Savior apart from Me. † ⁵ I Myself knew you in the wilderness, in a land of terrible drought.
⁶ While they were fed, they were satisfied.
 Filled, their hearts became haughty.
 Therefore, they forgot Me.
⁷ So I became like a lion to them—like a leopard lying in wait by the way.
⁸ I will meet them like a bear robbed of her cubs, and I will tear open their chests.
 There I will devour them like a lioness.
 A beast of the field will rip them to shreds.
⁹ It has corrupted you, O Israel, for you are against Me—against your Helper!
¹⁰ Where then is your king?
 So, will he save you in all your cities?
 Or your judges, to whom you said:
 'Give me a king and princes!'
¹¹ I give you a king in My anger, and take him away in My wrath.
¹² Ephraim is bound by iniquity;
 his sin is treasured up.
¹³ Pains of birth come on him.
 He is not a wise son.
 When the time comes,
 he should not delay at the opening of the womb.
¹⁴ Should I ransom them from the hand of Sheol?

Should I redeem them from death?
 O death, where are your plagues?
 O Sheol, where is your sting? †† Comfort is hidden from My eyes."
¹⁵ Because he is the son of kinsmen, he should have been fruitful.
 An east wind will come—the wind from ADONAI, coming up from the wilderness.
 His spring will become dry,
 and his fountain will dry up.
 He will plunder the treasury of every precious vessel.

Salvation Like Dew for Israel

14 (13:16) Samaria will bear her guilt, for she has rebelled against her God.
 They will fall by the sword, their infants dashed to pieces,
 their pregnant women ripped open.
² (1) Return O Israel, to ADONAI your God, for you have stumbled in your iniquity.
³ (2) Take words with you and return to ADONAI.
 Say to Him: "Take away all iniquity, and accept what is good,
 so we may repay with offerings ‡ of our lips:
⁴ (3) 'Assyria will not save us.
 We will not ride on horses, and we will never again say, "Our god,"
 to the work of our hands, for with You, orphans find mercy."
⁵ (4) "I will heal their backsliding,
 I will love them freely,
 for My anger will turn away from him.
⁶ (5) I will be like dew for Israel.
 He will blossom like a lily,
 and thrust out his roots like Lebanon.
⁷ (6) His tender shoots will spread out.
 His beauty will be like an olive tree and his fragrance will be like Lebanon.
⁸ (7) Those dwelling in his shadow will return.
 They will grow grain and bud like a vine.
 His renown will be like the wine of Lebanon.
⁹ (8) Ephraim: "What more are idols to me?
 I have responded and observed Him.
 I will be like a luxuriant cypress tree.
 From me will be found Your fruit."
¹⁰ (9) Who is wise? Let him discern these things.
 Who is intelligent? Let him know them. ††
 For the ways of ADONAI are straight, and the just walk in them,
 but the wicked stumble in them.

Joel

Joel Introduction

Joel is Hebrew for "is God." It is not exactly known when the book of Joel was written. With a late date, Joel's many mentions of Zion seem to indicate he was writing to the Southern and not the Northern Kingdom. Joel's message to the inhabitants of the land seems to indicate his audience was a pre-exilic one. Finally, Joel's reference of coming "darkness and gloominess" is likely a reference to an imminent judgment and not a past experience—an exile, perhaps. For these reasons it is reasonable to consider Joel as a pre-exilic prophet to the Southern Kingdom of Judah.

With visions of a devastating locust plague approaching that would disrupt people's social life and create an economic upheaval for their agrarian economy, Joel casts the vision of a bad day coming. Farmers were going to be wiped out. God gets people's attention by striking at their purses, does He not? This book has that net effect.

While foretelling economic hardship is material, there is also a language in Joel that is particularly theological. Prominent in Joel's book is the mention of the day of . At least five times, this theological term is used in conjunction with both judgment and restoration. The concept of the day of is a complicated one in Scripture. Used throughout the entire Bible, the day of is somewhat of a composite of all judgment and freedom, a day to fear but also a day to hope for and look forward to.

In Joel, the day of is first presented literally as "doom and gloom." Rather than producing despondency in the life of Israel, these judgments were intended to produce repentance and contrition in the people's hearts. Through the prophet Joel, God is heard inviting the nation of Israel to return to Him. Joel continues with a promise of restoration after a time of darkness. At the end of the book, God famously promises that He will "restore the years that the locust have eaten." The most famous passage is Joel 3:1-2 (2:28-30), where God's is mentioned in conjunction with a then-coming outpouring. This was famously referenced by Luke in Acts 2:17-21 when God's was poured out on the disciples.

The New Covenant continues the idea of the "day of " coming like a "thief in the night." Here, it is as an invitation to personal preparedness and repentance. Like the Kingdom of God, the day of has both already come and is eschatologically said to be soon-coming. Its initial coming has already been inaugurated in the Messiah, and it is yet to be ultimately accomplished at His second coming. It is inaugurated but not yet consummated. May it come speedily and in our days!

Mourn the Land's Destruction
The Day is Near!
Call for Blow the Rain and Restoration Promise of the Valley of Jehoshaphat
in Zion

¹ The word of ADONAI that came to Joel the son of Pethuel:

Mourn the Land's Destruction

² Hear this, elders!
Give ear, all inhabitants of the land.
Has this ever happened in your days,

or even in the days of your fathers?

³ Tell your children about it—your children to their children, their children to another generation.

the swarming locust has eaten, and what the swarming locust left,
the canker-worm has eaten, and what the canker-worm left,

 the caterpillar has eaten.
⁵ Awake, drunkards, and weep!
 Wail, all you drinkers of wine—
 on account of sweet wine, for it is denied to your mouth!
⁶ For a nation has invaded my land.
 Vast—yes, without number!
 Its teeth are lion's teeth, with jaw-teeth of a lioness. † ⁷ He has turned my vine to waste and my fig tree to splinters.
 He has stripped off all the bark and flung it down—
 its branches are left white.
⁸ Wail like a virgin dressed in sackcloth for the husband of her youth!
⁹ Grain offering and drink offering are cut off from the House of ADONAI.
Kohanim —ministers of ADONAI —mourn.
¹⁰ The field is ruined, the land grieves, for the grain has been devastated,
 new wine is dried up, oil languishes.
¹¹ Be ashamed, O ploughmen;
 wail, O vinedressers,
 over wheat and over barley,
 for the harvest of the field is lost.
¹² The vine withered, the fig tree wilted.
 Pomegranate, palm, and apple tree
 —all trees of the field—are withered, for joy has withered away from the children of men.
¹³ Gird yourselves and weep, kohanim !
 Howl, ministers of the altar!
 Come, lie in sackcloth all night,
 ministers of my God.
 For grain and drink offering are withheld from the House of your God.

The Day is Near!

¹⁴ Consecrate a fast.
 Proclaim a solemn assembly.
 Gather elders and all living in the land to the House of ADONAI your God, and cry to ADONAI.
¹⁵ Ah, the day!
 The day of ADONAI is near!
 As havoc from Shaddai it will come.
¹⁶ Is food not cut off before our eyes—joy and gladness from God's House?
¹⁷ Seed has shriveled under the dirt clod.
 Storehouses are desolate, granaries are torn down,
 for the grain has withered.
¹⁸ How the animals groan!
 The herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture.

The flocks of sheep also suffer.

¹⁹ To You, ADONAI, I cry!

For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and flame has set ablaze all the trees of the field.

²⁰ Also beasts of the field pant toward You.

For the water of wadis are dried up,
 and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

2 Blow the shofar in Zion!

Sound an alarm on My holy mountain!

Let all living in the land tremble—for the day of ADONAI is coming—surely it is near! ††

² A day of darkness and gloominess,
 a day of clouds and thick darkness,
 as blackness spreads over the mountains.

A great and mighty people—from antiquity there was never anything like it, nor after it ever again from generation to generation.

³ A fire devours before them and behind them flame blazes up.
 Like the Garden of Eden is the land before them,
 and behind them a desolate wilderness.
 Nothing at all ever escapes them.

⁴ Their appearance is like the appearance of horses—they gallop like war horses. ‡

⁵ Like the clatter of chariots, ‡ they leap on the tops of mountains, like crackling flame of fire devouring stubble,
 like a mighty horde in battle array.

⁶ Before them peoples are in anguish.

All faces become ashen gray.

⁷ They run like mighty men.

They climb a wall like men of war.

They each march in line,
 never deviating from their ways.

⁸ One does not crowd another.

Each one marches on his own highway.

They plunge through the weapons, never breaking off.

⁹ They rush on the city,

they run on the wall,

they climb up into the houses,

coming through the windows like a thief.

¹⁰ Before them land quakes, heaven trembles,

sun and moon become dark,

stars withdraw their brightness. ‡‡

¹¹ ADONAI utters His voice before His army.

For His camp is very vast—for mighty is it that carries out His word.

For great is the day of ADONAI — ‡‡‡ very terrifying!

Who can endure it?

† cf. Rev. 9:7-8.

†† cf. 2 Pet. 3:10; Rev. 1:10. ‡ cf. Matt. 24:21. ‡† cf. Rev. 9:7.
 ‡‡ cf. Rev. 9:9. ‡‡† cf. Matt. 24:29; Rev. 8:12. ‡‡‡ cf. Rev. 6:17.

Call for Teshuvah

¹² "Yet even now"

—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
"turn to Me with all your heart, with fasting, weeping, and lamenting."

¹³ Rend your heart, not your garments, and turn to ADONAI, your God.

For He is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, abundant in mercy,
and relenting about the calamity due.

¹⁴ Who knows? He may turn and relent, and may leave a blessing behind Him —so there may be a grain offering and a drink offering for ADONAI, your God.

Blow the Shofar

¹⁵ Blow the shofar in Zion!

Sanctify a fast;
proclaim an assembly.

¹⁶ Gather the people;
sanctify the congregation;
assemble the elders;
gather the children,

even those nursing at breasts.
Let the bridegroom come out from his bedroom and the bride from her chamber.

¹⁷ Between the porch and the altar let the kohanim, ministers of ADONAI, weep, and let them say:

"Have pity, ADONAI, on Your people.
Don't make Your heritage a scorn,
a byword among the nations.

Why should the peoples say,
'Where is their God?'" [†]

¹⁸ ADONAI will be zealous for His land, and have compassion on His people.

¹⁹ ADONAI will answer and say to His people:

"Behold, I will send you the grain,
the new wine, and the fresh oil,
and you will be satisfied with it.

I will no longer make you a mockery among the nations.

²⁰ But I will remove the northern invader far from
you—

yes, I will banish him to a dry and desolate land—his vanguard into the Eastern Sea and his rearguard into the Western Sea.

His odor will go up—

Yes, his stench will rise."
For He ^{††} has done great things!

Rain and Restoration

²¹ Do not fear, O land. Be glad! Rejoice!
For ADONAI has done great things.

²² Do not be afraid, beasts of the field,

[†] cf. Matt. 23:35. ^{††} Deity pronoun referring to ADONAI for the desert pastures have sprouted, for the tree bears its fruit.

Fig tree and vine yield their strength.

²³ So be glad, children of Zion, and rejoice in ADONAI, your God.

For He gives you the early rain [‡] for prosperity,
Yes, He will bring down rain for you,
the early and latter rain as before.

²⁴ The threshing floors will be full of grain and the vats will overflow with new wine and fresh oil.

²⁵ "I shall restore to you the years that the locust, the swarming locust, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar have eaten—
My great army that I sent among you.

²⁶ You will surely eat and be satisfied, and praise the Name of ADONAI your God, who has dealt wondrously with you.

Never again will My people be shamed

²⁷ You will know that I am within Israel.

Yes, I am ADONAI your God—there is no other—
Never again will My people be shamed."

Promise of the Ruach ADONAI

3 (^{2:28}) "So it will be afterward,
I will pour out My Ruach on all flesh: ^{‡‡} your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams,
your young men will see visions.

² (^{2:29}) Also on the male and the female servants will I pour out My spirit in those days. ^{‡‡}

³ (^{2:30}) I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth—
blood, fire, and pillars of smoke. ^{‡‡‡}

⁴ (^{2:31}) The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood, before the great and awesome day of ADONAI comes.

⁵ (^{2:32}) Then all who call on ADONAI's Name ^{‡‡‡} will escape,
for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
there will be rescue, as ADONAI has said, among the survivors whom ADONAI is calling."

Valley of Jehoshaphat

4 "For behold, in those days and at that time, when I restore Judah and Jerusalem from exile,

² I will gather all nations and bring them down to the valley of Jehoshaphat.
I will plead [§] with them there on behalf of My people, even My inheritance, Israel, whom they scattered among the nations and they divided up My land.

³ They cast lots for My people,

[‡] i.e., autumn and spring rain ^{‡‡} cf. Mark 1:8;
Acts 2:17-21; Gal. 3:14. ^{‡‡‡} cf. 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:28. ^{‡‡†} Cf.
Matt. 24:29; Mark 13:24-25; Luke 21:11; Acts 2:19; Rev. 8:7. ^{‡‡‡} Hebrew deliver, save [§] Or enter into judgment

traded a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine, which they drank.”

⁴“Moreover, what are you to Me, Tyre and Sidon † and all regions of Philistia? Did you render retribution for Me? Even if you were rendering retribution for Me, swiftly, speedily, will I return your retribution back on your own head. ⁵ For you took My silver and My gold, and you carried My valuable treasures into your temples.

⁶“The children of Judah and of Jerusalem you sold to the Greeks in order to remove them far from their own territory.

⁷“Behold, I am rousing them from the place where you sold them, and I will return your retribution on your own head. ⁸ I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the men of Sheba ††, to a nation far off—for ADONAI has spoken.”

⁹ Proclaim this among the nations:

Prepare for war.

Stir up the mighty men.

Let the warriors advance and attack.

¹⁰ Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning knives into spears.

Let the weak say, “I am strong.”

¹¹ Rouse yourselves and come,
all nations around, and gather there.

ADONAI, bring Your mighty ones down!

¹²“Let the nations rouse themselves and go up to the valley of Jehoshaphat.

For there will I sit to judge all the surrounding nations.”

¹³ Swing the sickle,

for the harvest is ripe.

Come, tread, for the winepress is full

—the vats overflow—

† cf. Matt. 11:21-22. †† Or into captivity for their wickedness is great! ‡

¹⁴ Multitudes, multitudes,
in the valley of decision!

For the day of ADONAI is near
in the valley of decision.

¹⁵ The sun and the moon become dark,
the stars withdraw their brightness.

¹⁶ ADONAI will roar from Zion and give His voice from Jerusalem.
Heaven and earth will shudder,

Shalom in Zion

but ADONAI will be a refuge for His people, and a safe place for the children of Israel.

¹⁷“So you will know that I am ADONAI, your God, dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain.

Then will Jerusalem be holy,
and foreigners will cross through her no more.

¹⁸ It will be in that day,
the mountains will drip sweet wine,

the hills will flow with milk,

and all the wadis of Judah will flow with water. ††

A spring will flow out from the House of ADONAI and water the Valley of Shittim.

¹⁹ Egypt will become a desolation and Edom a desert wasteland, because of the violence against the children of Judah, because they shed innocent blood in their land.

²⁰ But Judah will be inhabited forever—

Jerusalem from generation to generation.

²¹ I will acquit their bloodguilt that I had not acquitted, †† for ADONAI dwells in Zion.”

‡ cf. Matt. 13:39; Rev. 14:15-20. †† cf. Rev. 22:1-2. †† cf. Heb. 9:14; 10:22.

Amos

Amos Introduction

The name “Amos” comes from the Hebrew word meaning “burden.” It could be said that Amos was Israel’s most unlikely prophet. He was not a religious professional in the classical sense, but he began his life’s work as a shepherd and grower of figs in the fields around Tekoa. However, God had other plans for him. This common man was called to confront a common problem among middle-class men: affluence, indulgence, and indifference. Amos’ message was given to the nation during a time of relative material prosperity, but when Israel was not committed to spiritually. Living just before the time of Hosea, Amos ministered to apathetic Israel during the kings of Uzziah in the south and Jeroboam in the north.

The first half of the book of Amos contains a series of judgments prophesied first to Israel’s neighbors and then to Israel herself. The resounding message of the first half of Amos is that all people—Israel, and the nations alike—are guilty before God and subject to judgment by God for their spiritual indifference. Apathetic Israel would not be spared God’s judgment because they were chosen from among the nations. Rather, Israel would be held accountable. Many Israelites were lulled to sleep perceiving their affluence to be a sign of God’s favor. This was a delusion, far from the truth. At the very end of the book, Amos reminds of the eternal promise of God: that, though He disciplines, He will not forsake His people outright. This gave encouragement to them and gives encouragement to us; but it certainly does not eclipse the responsibility humans have before God—to be true to Him and walk with Him.

Amos gives a stark and sober reminder to those who live in relative ease: God is far less interested in our activities or accomplishments as He is in knowing the character of our being. Enjoying the ease of life and fruits of our labor can foster a sinister deception. Readers of the first three chapters of Revelation are reminded of the judgments on the different congregations and communities of faith—all at ease in one form or another. With Amos in view, readers do well to remember God’s sharpest accusation and punishment was not on the actively sinful, but on those who were stuck in the vagary of the middle, being themselves neither hot nor cold.

The Lion Roars at the Nations

¹ The words of Amos, who was among the shepherds from Tekoa. He perceived these words concerning Israel during the days of Uzziah, king of Judah, and during the days of Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. ² He said:

" ADONAI roars from Zion,
From Jerusalem He gives His voice.
The shepherds’ pastures mourn,
and the top of Mount Carmel withers."

³ Thus says ADONAI :

“For three crimes of Damascus,
even for four, I will not relent.

For they threshed Gilead with iron threshing sledges, ⁴ I will send fire into Hazael's palace.

It will devour Ben-Hadad's citadels.

⁵ I will break the Damascus gate-bar and cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven, wielding Beth-Eden's scepter.

So the people of Aram will go into exile to Kir.”

ADONAI has said it.

⁶ Thus says ADONAI :

“For three crimes of Gaza,
even for four, I will not relent.

For they exiled an entire population, giving them over to Edom.

⁷ So I will send fire on the wall of Gaza
—it will devour its citadels.

⁸ I will cut off Ashdod's inhabitant, wielding Ashkelon's scepter.

I will turn My hand against Ekron and the rest of the Philistines will perish.”

My Lord ADONAI has said it.

⁹ Thus says ADONAI :

“For three crimes of Tyre,
even for four, I will not relent.

For they gave an entire population over to Edom, and did not remember the covenant of brothers.

¹⁰ I will send fire on the wall of Tyre—
it will devour its citadels.”

¹¹ Thus says ADONAI :

“For three crimes of Edom
even for four, I will not relent.

For he pursued his brother with a sword and stifled his compassion.

For his anger tore continually, and he kept his wrath forever.

¹² So I will send fire in Teman—it will devour Bozrah's citadels.”

¹³ Thus says ADONAI :

“For three crimes of the sons of Ammon
even for four, I will not relent.

For they ripped open pregnant women of Gilead to expand their territory.

¹⁴ I will kindle fire on Rabbah's wall and it will devour its citadels, amid shouting on a day of battle, with storm on a day of whirlwind.

¹⁵ Their king will go into exile,
he and his princes together.”

Thus ADONAI has said.

2 Thus says ADONAI :

“For three crimes of Moab
even for four, I will not relent.

For he burned the bones of Edom's king to lime,

² So I will send fire upon Moab—

it will devour Kerioth's citadels.

Moab will die in an uproar, with a shout of alarm and the sound of the shofar .

³ I will cut off the ruler from her midst, and slay all her princes with him.”

Thus ADONAI has said.

As for Judah and Israel

⁴ Thus says ADONAI :

“For three crimes of Judah
even for four, I will not relent.

For they despise ADONAI 's Torah and have not kept His statutes.

Their lies have misled them—those their fathers walked after.

⁵ So I will send fire upon Judah—it will devour Jerusalem's citadels.”

⁶ Thus says ADONAI :

“For three crimes of Israel
even for four, I will not relent.

For they sell the righteous for silver and the needy for a pair of shoes.

⁷ They trample the head of the poor into the dust of the earth and thwart the way of the humble.

A man and his father go to the same girl, † to profane My holy Name.

⁸ Upon garments taken in pledge they stretch out beside every altar, and drink wine confiscated as fines in the house of their gods.

⁹ “I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like cedars and as strong as oaks—yes, I destroyed his fruit from above and his roots from beneath.

¹⁰ It was I also who brought you up from the land of Egypt

and led you 40 years in the wilderness to possess the Amorite's land.

¹¹ I raised up prophets from your sons and Nazirites from your young men.

Is this not so, Bnei-Yisrael ?”
declares ADONAI .

¹² “But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and you commanded the prophets saying,
'Do not prophesy.'

¹³ Behold! I will cause a tottering beneath you as a cart totters when full of sheaves.

¹⁴ Then flight will fail for the swift.

The mighty will not strengthen his power,
The warrior will not save his life.

¹⁵ The archer will not stand,
the fleet-footed will not escape,
the horseman will not save himself.

¹⁶ The valiant among the warriors will flee naked in that day.”

† Or pagan temple prostitute

declares ADONAI.

The Prophet Reveals Destruction

3 Hear this word that ADONAI has spoken against you, Bnei-Yisrael, against the whole family that I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying:

²“Only you have I known from among all the families of the earth.

Therefore, I will punish you for all your iniquities.”

³Can two walk together unless they meet by appointment?

⁴Does a lion roar in the forest when he has no prey?

Does a young lion growl from his den unless he has taken prey?

⁵Does a bird fall into a trap on the ground if it has no bait?

Will a snare spring up from the ground without taking anything?

⁶If a shofar alarm sounds in a city, will people not tremble?

If there is calamity in a city, has not ADONAI caused it?

⁷For the Lord ADONAI, will do nothing, unless He has revealed His counsel to His servants the prophets. †

⁸A lion has roared, who will not fear? My Lord ADONAI has spoken, who shall not prophesy?

⁹Proclaim on the citadels in Ashdod and the citadels in the land of Egypt: “Assemble on Samaria’s mountains: Behold the great tumult within it, even the oppression within it.”

¹⁰“They do not know how to be honest,” —declares ADONAI —

“those who are saving up violence and destruction in their citadels.”

¹¹Therefore thus says my Lord ADONAI: “An adversary will surround the land! He will bring down your strength. Your citadels will be plundered.”

¹²Thus says ADONAI:

“Just as the shepherd snatches out of the mouth of the lion

two legs, or a piece of an ear, so will Bnei-Yisrael dwelling in Samaria escape with the corner of a bed or a head of a couch.

¹³Hear, and testify against the house of Jacob.”

It is the declaration of my Lord ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot.

¹⁴“For in a day I shall punish Israel for the transgressions of Israel, and attend to the altars of Beth-El—the horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.

¹⁵I will also strike the winter house together with the summer house.

The houses of ivory will perish,

and great houses will be demolished.”

It is the declaration of ADONAI.

Word for Worldly Women

4 Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on Samaria’s hill, who oppress the poor,

who crush the needy,

who say to their masters: “Bring, so we may drink.”

²My Lord ADONAI has sworn by His holiness:

“Behold, days are coming upon you when he will drag you away with meat-hooks, the last of you with fishhooks.

³You will go out through breaches— each woman straight ahead, and you will be cast to Harmon.” ††

It is the declaration of ADONAI.

⁴“Come to Beth-El and transgress, in Gilgal multiply transgression.

Every morning bring your sacrifices and your tithes every three days.

⁵Offer up hametz as a thank offering, call out about freewill offerings—boast about it!

For so you love to do, Bnei-Yisrael.”

It is the declaration of my Lord ADONAI.

Yet You Have Not Returned

⁶“So also, I myself have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities and lack of bread in all your places— yet you have not returned to Me,”

declares ADONAI.

⁷“Also I myself have withheld from you the rain—when three months remain to the harvest,

I caused it to rain on one city,

while on another city I sent no rain;

one piece of ground would get rain,

while the portion not rained on would wither.

⁸So two or three cities go staggering to one city to drink water, but would not be satisfied—

yet you have not returned to Me,”

declares ADONAI.

⁹“I struck you with blight and mildew.

Your many gardens and vineyards, your fig trees and olive trees the locust has devoured—

yet you have not returned to Me,”

declares ADONAI.

¹⁰“I sent among you a plague in the manner of Egypt.

I slew your young men by the sword,

† cf. John 15:15.

†† Possibly Mount Hermon a dung heap with your chariot-horses in captivity.

I made the stench of your camp rise up even to your own nostrils—
yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares ADONAI .
11 I overthrew some of you as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah †.
You became like a firebrand snatched from a blaze—
yet you have not returned to Me,”
declares ADONAI .

Prepare to Meet Your God

12 “Therefore here is what I will do to you, Israel.
Because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, Israel!” 13 For behold! He who forms mountains, who creates the wind,
who declares His thoughts to man,
who makes dawn out of darkness, who walks above the heights of the earth—
His Name is ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot !

Seek ADONAI and Live

5 Hear this word that I take up as a lament over you, O house of Israel:
2 “She has fallen, never rising again—virgin Israel—
She is forsaken on her land, with nobody to lift her up.”
3 For thus says ADONAI Elohim :
“The city that sends out a thousand will have a hundred left, and one that sends out a hundred will have ten left for the house of Israel.”
4 For thus says ADONAI to the house of Israel: “Seek Me, and live!
5 But do not seek Beth-El,
do not go to Gilgal,
do not cross over to Beer-Sheba.
For Gilgal will surely go into exile, and Beth-El will come to trouble.”
6 Seek ADONAI , and live—
lest He rush like fire through the house of Joseph.
Yes, it will devour Beth-El,
with no one to quench it. ††

Sins of Injustice

7 You who turn justice to wormwood , threw righteousness to the ground.
8 He who made the Pleiades and Orion, and changes deep darkness to morning,
who darkens the day into night;
who summons the water of the sea and pours it out on the face of the earth
— ADONAI is His Name.
9 He flashes destruction on the mighty, so destruction will come against a fortress.

10 They despise one who reproves at the gate,
so they detest one who speaks with integrity.
11 Therefore, because you trample on the poor, exact from him a burden of grain,
you built houses of hewn stone,
but will not dwell in them,
you planted pleasant vineyards,
but will not drink their wine.

12 For I know your crimes are many and your sins countless—afflicting the righteous, taking bribes, and turning the needy aside at the gate.
13 Therefore the prudent keep silent at such a time —for it is a distressful time.

14 Seek good and not evil,
so you may live,
and so ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot may be with you —just as you said!

15 Hate evil, love good, maintain justice at the gate.
Maybe ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot will extend grace to Joseph’s remnant. ‡

16 Therefore thus said ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot , my Lord:
“There will be wailing in all plazas and in all streets.
They will say: ‘Alas! Alas!’
The farmer will be called to mourning along with those who know the lamentation song.
17 In all vineyards will be wailing, for I will pass through your midst”
— ADONAI has spoken.

Dreadful Day of ADONAI

18 Oy to you—longing for the Day of ADONAI ! ††
What would it be for you?
The Day of ADONAI will be darkness and not light. ‡ 19 It will be as when a man is fleeing from a lion—and meets a bear!
Or he comes home,
leans his hand on the wall,
and a snake bites him!
20 Will not the Day of ADONAI be darkness, not light?
Gloom, not brightness?

Justice Better than Sacrifices

21 “I hate, I despise your festivals!
I take no delight in your sacred assemblies.
22 Even if you offer me burnt offerings and your grain offerings,
I will not accept them, nor will I look at peace offerings of your fattened animals.
23 Take away from Me the noise of your songs!
I will not listen to the melody of your harps.
24 But let justice roll like water and righteousness like an ever-flowing torrent.

† cf. Matt. 10:15; 11:23-24; Luke 17:29. †† cf. Heb. 12:29.

‡ cf. Rom. 12:9. †† cf. 2 Pet. 3:4. †† cf. Acts 2:20.

²⁵ Did you bring sacrifices and offerings to Me in the wilderness for forty years, O house of Israel?
²⁶ But you lifted up your images
—Siccuth your 'king', and Chiun, † your star gods—which you made for yourselves, †† ²⁷ So I will send you into exile, beyond Damascus."
ADONAI has spoken,
Elohei-Tzva'ot is His Name.

At Ease in Zion

6 Oy! You who are at ease in Zion, trusting in Samaria's hill!
Distinguished ones of the foremost of nations—to whom the house of Israel comes ² Go over to Calneh and look.
From there go to great Hamath, go down to Gath of the Philistines.
Are you better than these kingdoms?
Or is their territory larger than yours?
³ Dismissing the day of calamity, you bring near the throne of violence.
⁴ Reclining on beds of ivory, sprawling on their couches, dining on lambs from the flock and calves from amid the stall, ⁵ chanting to the sound of harp like David, inventing their own instruments of song, ⁶ drinking wine from bowls, anointing with choice ointments—yet they are not sickened over the breakdown of Joseph.
⁷ Therefore now they will go into exile at the head of the exiles.
Sprawling revelry will cease.
⁸ My Lord ADONAI has sworn by Himself —declares ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot —
"I loathe the arrogance of Jacob,
I despise his palaces,
so I will shut down the city and everything in it."
⁹ If ten people remain in one house, they will die.
¹⁰ One's beloved—the one burning incense for him—will lift him up to carry the bones out of the house, and he will say to one in the innermost recess of the house: "Is anyone else still with you?" And he will say: "No one." Then he will say, "Hush! For we must not mention the Name of ADONAI."
¹¹ For behold, ADONAI will command,
He will smash the big house to fragments and the little house to splinters.
¹² Will horses run on the cliff?
Will one plow there with oxen?
Yet you turned justice into venom,
the fruit of righteousness into wormwood.
¹³ You are rejoicing for no reason, saying:

"Haven't we taken two horns for ourselves by our own strength?"
¹⁴ "For behold, I am raising up against you,
O house of Israel, a nation, and they will afflict you from Lebo-Hamath ‡ to the Valley of the Arabah," declares ADONAI, the God of Hosts.

Locusts and the Trial by Fire

7 This is what my Lord ADONAI has shown me: Behold, He was forming locusts at the beginning of the spring crop—after the cutting of the king's hay.
² When the locust-swarm had finished devouring the vegetation of the land, I said:
" ADONAI Elohim, please pardon!
How can Jacob stand, for he is small?"
³ ADONAI relented concerning this.
"It shall not be," ADONAI said.
⁴ This is what my Lord ADONAI has shown me: Behold, ADONAI Elohim was calling for the trial by fire, and it would have devoured the great deep, and it would have devoured the territory. ⁵ But I said:
"My Lord ADONAI, stop, please!
How can Jacob stand, for he is small?"
⁶ ADONAI relented concerning this.
"This also shall not happen," says my Lord ADONAI.

Plumb Line on a Wall

⁷ This is what He has revealed to me: Behold, my Lord was standing by a vertical wall, and in His hand was a plumb line. ⁸ Then ADONAI said to me: "What do you see, Amos?"
I said: "A plumb line."
Then my Lord said:
"Behold, I am setting a plumb line among My people
Israel—
I will no longer pass over them.
⁹ So the high places of Isaac will become desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste, and I will rise up against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."
¹⁰ Then Amaziah, the priest of Beth-El, sent word to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying: "Amos has been conspiring against you in the midst of the house of Israel.
The land cannot endure all his words. ¹¹ For this is what Amos has said: 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go captive from his land.'" ¹² Then Amaziah said to Amos: "Seer, go away! Flee back to the land of Judah. Eat bread there, and prophesy there. ¹³ But at Beth-El you are not to prophesy any more—for it is a royal sanctuary and a house of the kingdom."
¹⁴ So Amos responded and said to Amaziah: "I am no prophet, nor am I a son of a prophet. Rather, I am a † Or tabernacle of your Moloch Saturn ††

cf. Acts 7:43.

‡ Or the entrance of Hamat

shepherd tending fig trees. ¹⁵ But ADONAI took me from following the flock and ADONAI said to me: 'Go, prophesy to My people Israel.' ¹⁶ So now, hear the word of ADONAI: You are saying, 'Do not prophesy against Israel and do not preach against the house of Isaac.' ¹⁷ Therefore, this is what ADONAI says: 'Your wife shall become a prostitute in the city, your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword, and your land divided up by a measuring line. Now, as for you—you will die in an unclean land, and Israel will surely be led away captive out of its land.'"

A Basket of Summer Fruit

8 This is what my Lord ADONAI has shown me: See, there was a basket of summer fruit. ² He said: "Amos, what do you see?" "A basket of summer fruit," I said. Then ADONAI said to me: "The end has come to My people Israel. I will not again pass over them. ³ The songs of the palace will become howls in that day." It is a declaration of my Lord ADONAI. "So many corpses flung everywhere! Hush! ⁴ Hear this, you who trample the poor, destroying the afflicted of the land ⁵ saying: 'When will the New Moon be over, so we may sell grain? Or Shabbat, so we may open the wheat market? —Let's reduce the ephah measure and increase the shekel, cheat with deceitful balances, ⁶ buy the poor for silver, the needy for a pair of sandals! We'll even sell the refuse of the grain!" ⁷ ADONAI swore by the Pride of Jacob: "Never will I forget all their deeds! ⁸ Will not the land tremble over this? Will not all who dwell in it mourn? Yes, it will rise up like all the Nile —it will surge and sink again like the Nile of Egypt." ⁹ "It will be in that day" —declares my Lord ADONAI — "I will make the sun go down at noon, yes, I will darken the earth in daylight. ¹⁰ I will turn your festivals into mourning and all your songs into a dirge. † I will pull up sackcloth on every waist and baldness on every head. I will make it like the mourning for an only son— its end a bitter day. †† ¹¹ Behold, days are coming" —declares my Lord ADONAI — "when I will send a famine on the land —not a famine of bread nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of ADONAI. ‡ ¹² So people will wander from sea to sea and roam from north to east, searching for the word of ADONAI, but they will not find it.

¹³ In that day, the fair virgins and the virile young men will faint from thirst. ¹⁴ Those swearing by Samaria's guilt will say, 'As your gods live, Dan!' or 'As the way of Beer-Sheba lives!' But they will fall, never to rise again."

No Escaping His Eyes

9 I saw my Lord standing by the altar, and He said: "Strike the tops of the pillars, so the porches shake! Break all of them off at the head! Then the last of them I will slay with the sword— none of them fleeing will escape and no fugitive will slip away. ² If they should dig down to Sheol, from there My hand will take them. If they should go up to heaven, from there will I bring them down. ³ If they should hide themselves at the top of Carmel, I will search them out and take them from there. If they hide themselves from My eyes at the bottom of the sea, from there I will command the sea serpent to bite them. ⁴ If they should go into captivity before their enemies, from there I will command the sword to slay them. I will set My eyes upon them for calamity and not for prosperity." ⁵ My Lord is ADONAI -Tzva'ot. It is He who touches the land so it melts, and all its inhabitants will mourn. Then it will surge like all the Nile, and sink again like the Nile of Egypt. ⁶ He who builds His upper stories in heaven fitted its vault over the earth. He who summons the waters of the sea and pours them out on the face of the earth — ADONAI is His Name. ⁷ "Are you not like the children of the Cushites to Me, Bnei-Yisrael?" It is the declaration of ADONAI. "Did I not bring Israel up from the land of Egypt, the Philistines from Caphtor, and Aram from Kir?" ⁸ Behold, the eyes of my Lord ADONAI are on the sinful kingdom. "So I will utterly destroy it from the face of the earth. Nevertheless, I will not annihilate the house of Jacob." It is a declaration of ADONAI. ⁹ "For behold, I have commanded, † cf. Jacob 4:9. †† cf. Luke 23:28.

‡ cf. Matt. 4:4.

and I will shake the house of Israel among all the nations, like grain being tossed in a sieve,
 without a pebble falling to the ground.
¹⁰ By the sword shall all the sinners of My people die,
 those who say:
 "The calamity will not overtake or confront us."

David's Sukkah Restored

¹¹ "In that day I will raise up David's fallen sukkah. †
 I will restore its breaches, raise up its ruins,
 and rebuild it as in days of old ¹² —so they may possess the remnant of Edom

† cf. Acts 15:16-18.

and all the nations called by My Name."
 It is a declaration of ADONAI, the One who will do this.
¹³ "Behold, days are soon coming"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI —
 "when the plowman will overtake the reaper and the one treading grapes, the one sowing seed.
 The mountains will drip sweet wine
 and all the hills will melt over.
¹⁴ Yes, I will restore the captivity of My people Israel.
 They will rebuild desolated cities and dwell in them.
 They will plant vineyards and drink their wine.
 They will also make gardens and eat their fruit.
¹⁵ Yes, I will plant them on their land, and they will never again be plucked up out of their land that I have given to them."
ADONAI, your God, has said it.

Obadiah

Obadiah Introduction

Obadiah means “Servant of .” It is the shortest book in the Hebrew Bible. It is not known exactly where Obadiah lived. No explicit kings or time markers are mentioned. It is clear, however, that Obadiah’s message was given to the land of Edom, a kindred but non-Jewish nation located to Israel’s east.

Edom, or “red,” is the shorthand way of referring to the descendants of Esau, the once-estranged brother of Jacob. Located on Israel’s eastern border, Edom had a geographic connection, as well as an ethnic connection to the Jewish people. Given the biological relationship between the nations, higher levels of loyalty were to be expected—but they were ignored. The Edomites were hostile to their Hebrew cousins, forever taking advantage of and forever rejoicing in their misfortune. This prophecy informs that their attacks on Israel were not unnoticed and that they would not go unpunished.

Obadiah’s message of judgment upon Edom reminds the readers that God is not only active in the life of Israel. To be sure He is; it is understood, however, that others outside are held accountable for the way they treat this chosen nation. The wicked and the righteous conflict in every generation—with the wicked seeming to all-too-commonly get the upper hand. Nevertheless, God is the God of all nations. He is the judge of all the earth, and in due time He will arise to render His verdicts. We do well to honor Him as the Savior of all nations now so as not to incur His wrath later.

Edom’s Arrogance and Ruin

The House of Jacob Will Be a Fire

Edom’s Arrogance and Ruin

1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus says ADONAI Elohim concerning Edom:

We have heard a report from ADONAI — and an envoy has been sent among the nations: “Arise and let us rise up against her in battle.”

² “Behold, I will make you least among the nations, you will be greatly despised.

³ The arrogance of your heart has deceived you— living in the clefts of the rock— his dwelling place is lofty, saying in his heart: ‘Who shall bring me down to the earth?’

⁴ Even if you soar like the eagle, and even if you set your nest among the stars, from there I will bring you down.” declares ADONAI .

⁵ “If thieves came to you, if robbers by night— how ruined you would be!— would they keep stealing after they had enough? If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning?

⁶ How Esau will be ransacked, and how his hidden treasures searched out!

⁷ All your allies will force you to the border.

The men that are at peace with you will deceive you and overpower you.

Those who eat your bread will set a trap under you. (He has no discernment.)

⁸ In that day,”—declares ADONAI —

“will I not destroy the wise men from Edom and understanding from the hill country of Esau?

⁹ Then your mighty men, O Teman, will be shattered —so everyone will be cut off from the hill country of Esau by slaughter.

¹⁰ “Because of your violence to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever.

¹¹ On the day that you stood aloof— on the day that strangers carried away his wealth, while foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem—you were just like one of them.

¹² You should not look down on your brother on the day of his disaster, nor should you rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. You should not speak proudly in the day of their distress.

¹³ Do not enter the gate of My people

In the day of their disaster.
 Yes, you. Do not gloat over their misery
 in the day of their disaster.
 Yes, you—do not loot their wealth in the day of their calamity.
¹⁴ Do not stand at the crossroad to cut down his fugitives, and do not imprison his survivors in the day of distress.

The House of Jacob Will Be a Fire

¹⁵ “For the day of ADONAI is near against all the nations.
 As you have done, it shall be done to you.
 Your dealing will return on your own head.
¹⁶ For just as you have drunk on My holy mountain, so all the nations shall drink continually.
 Yes, they will drink and gulp down,
 and then be as though they had never existed.
¹⁷ But on Mount Zion there will be deliverance, and it will be holy.
 Then the house of Jacob will dispossess those who dispossessed them.

¹⁸ The house of Jacob will be a fire, and the house of Joseph aflame, while the house of Esau will be straw—
 they will set them on fire and consume them.
 So there will be no survivors of the house of Esau,”
 —for ADONAI has spoken.
¹⁹ Then those of the Negev † will possess the hill country of Esau,
 and those of the foothills the Philistines.
 Then they will possess the territory of Ephraim and the territory of Samaria, while Benjamin will possess Gilead.
²⁰ The exiles of this army of Bnei-Yisrael will possess what belonged to the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, while the exiles of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev.
²¹ The victorious will go up on Mount Zion to judge the hill country of Esau.
 Then the kingdom shall be ADONAI’s.

Jonah

Jonah Introduction

The word Jonah means “dove.” Interestingly, however, the book of Jonah is best known for the prophet’s association with a big fish and for the reluctant prophet being more given to thundering pronouncements of indictments and judgment. He seems anything but a gentle dove.

Jonah lived between 785 and 755 BCE. Assyria was the largest nation in the Middle East at that time; its capital was Nineveh. Assyria was a real and present danger, a threat to and an enemy of Israel and Judah. Jonah’s reluctance to bring them a reconciling message from God was thus understandable but not forgivable. If God wanted to destroy them, great! This was his attitude. “Why prevent that?”, was his logic. In Jonah, we see a foreign and sinful nation responding to God exactly in the way in which Israel should have responded, but she didn’t.

The book of Jonah is told in four acts. Act 1 begins with Jonah receiving a word of God and going in the opposite direction. The prophet’s response to God is not what God had in mind. Regardless of whatever prompted Jonah to run away—to run from God’s plan and not with it—Jonah finally ended up doing what God wanted. With the help of a “giant fish,” Jonah is brought to the shores nearest Nineveh against his will. Act 2 recounts Jonah’s dialogue and prayer in the belly of the whale. Jonah responds to God with faith and reliance, although he doesn’t have much option. Only time will tell whether his repentance is truly a change of heart or just empty words. Act 3 records Jonah actually going to the city of Nineveh. To the prophet’s surprise and dismay, his message was accepted and God’s judgment upon them averted. Act 4 notes Jonah despondent and brooding. He does not rejoice over their repentance, but seems to have gotten into an adolescent funk. The book ends with God reminding Jonah of His compassion and care—for all human beings.

The book of Jonah is highly debated. How could a person be swallowed up in a fish and survive for three days? How could a city so large and so sinful repent from their sins so quickly? Because of these questions and many more, Jonah is often considered an allegory. The Bible, however, gives us no indication that this ought to be read as an allegory. Jonah is mentioned by as a sign. Jonah’s three days in the belly of a great fish, according to , was a sign of what would happen to Him. Jonah’s experience, therefore, is a type of death, burial, and resurrection. God’s charge to Jonah—that the God of Israel isn’t only for Israel—is a charge for all people in all times to remember that God cares about all of humanity.

Jonah Runs from His Mission

1 Now the word of ADONAI came to Jonah, † son of Amittai, saying: ² “Rise, go to the great city Nineveh and call out to her, for their evil has risen before me.”

³ But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish, from the presence of ADONAI. He went down to Jaffa and found a ship going to Tarshish, paid the fee, and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish—away from the presence of ADONAI.

⁴ Then ADONAI hurled a forceful wind into the sea and there was such a mighty storm on the sea that the ship was about to shatter. ⁵ So the sailors were afraid and cried out, each man to his own god. Then they cast the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten it. But Jonah had gone down into the lowest part of the ship, to lay down and fell fast asleep.

⁶ So the chief sailor came near to him and said to him, “What, are you sleeping? Get up! Call out to your god. Perhaps the gods will consider us, so we will not perish!”

⁷ Then each man said to his companion, “Come, let’s cast lots—so we may know because of whom this evil is happening to us." So they cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah. †

⁸ Then they said to him, "Tell us, now! On whose account is this evil happening to us? What is your profession and where did you come from? What is your land and from what nation are you?"

⁹ He said to them, "I am a Hebrew and I fear ADONAI God of the heavens, who made the sea and the dry land."

¹⁰ Then the men became afraid with an overwhelming fear and they said to him, "What have you done?" For the men knew that he had fled from the presence of ADONAI, because he had told them. ¹¹ So they said to him, "What should we do to you so the sea will become calm for us?"—for the storm was raging on.

¹² "Pick me up and throw me into the sea," he said to them, "then the sea will become calm for you. For I know it is because of me that this great storm is upon you."

¹³ Nevertheless the men rowed hard to return to the land, but they could not, because the sea kept raging against them. ¹⁴ So they cried to ADONAI and said, "Please, ADONAI, don't let us perish on account of the soul of this man and don't put innocent blood on us. For you, ADONAI, have done as you pleased."

¹⁵ So they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea—and the sea stilled from its raging. ¹⁶ Then the men became afraid with an overwhelming fear of ADONAI, and they offered a sacrifice to ADONAI and made vows.

2 (1:17) Now ADONAI prepared a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights. †† ‡

Jonah's Prayer of Distress

² (1) Then Jonah prayed to ADONAI his God from the belly of the fish, ³ (2) saying:

"From my distress I cried to ADONAI and He answered me.

From the belly of Sheol I cried for help and you heard my voice. ††

⁴ (3) For you hurled me from the deep into the heart of the seas, and currents swirled around me.

All your waves and your breakers swept over me.

⁵ (4) And I said, 'I have been banished from before your eyes.

Yet I will continue to look toward your holy Temple.'

⁶ (5) Waters surrounded me up to my soul. The deep sea engulfed me—reeds clung to my head.

⁷ (6) To the bottoms of the mountains I went down. The earth with her bars was around me, forever!

Yet You brought my life up from the Pit,

ADONAI my God.

⁸ (7) As my soul was fading from me, I remembered ADONAI and my prayer came to You, toward Your holy Temple.

⁹ (8) Those who watch worthless empty things forsake their mercy.

¹⁰ (9) But I, with a voice of thanks will sacrifice to you.

What I vowed, I will pay.

Salvation is from ADONAI."

¹¹ (10) Then ADONAI spoke to the fish and it vomited Jonah onto the dry land.

Nineveh Repents

3 Now the word of ADONAI came to Jonah a second time, saying, ² "Rise and go to Nineveh, the great city, and cry out to it the proclamation that I am telling you."

³ So Jonah rose and went to Nineveh according to the word of ADONAI. Now Nineveh was a great city to God—the length of a three day journey. ⁴ So Jonah began to come into the city for one day's journey, and he cried out saying: "Another 40 days and Nineveh will be overthrown!"

⁵ Then the people of Nineveh believed God and called for a fast and wore sackcloth—from the greatest of them to the least of them. ⁶ When the word reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his robe, covered himself in sackcloth, and sat in the ashes. ⁷ He made a proclamation saying:

"In Nineveh, by the decree of the king and his nobles, no man or beast, herd or flock, may taste anything. They must not graze nor drink water. ⁸ But cover man and beast with sackcloth. Let them cry out to God with urgency. Let each one turn from his evil way and from the violence in his hands. ⁹ Who knows? God may turn and relent, and turn back from his burning anger, so that we may not perish."

¹⁰ When God saw their deeds—that they turned from their wicked ways—God relented from the calamity that He said He would do to them, and did not do it.

Jonah's Displeasure at God's Mercy

4 But it greatly displeased Jonah and he resented it. ² So he prayed to ADONAI and said, "Please, Lord, was not this what I said when I was still in my own country? That's what I anticipated, fleeing to Tarshish—for I knew that You are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and full of kindness, and relenting over calamity. ³ So please, ADONAI, take my soul from me—because better is my death than my life."

⁴ Yet ADONAI said, "Is it good for you to be so angry?"

⁵ So Jonah went out from the city and sat east of the city. There he made a sukkah and he sat under it, in the shade, until he saw what would happen in the city.

† cf. Acts 1:26. †† Most translations, 2:1 is 1:17. ‡ cf. Matt. 12:40; 16:4. †† cf. Acts 13:35.

⁶ Then ADONAI God prepared a plant and it grew up over Jonah, to give shade over his head to spare him from his discomfort. So Jonah was very happy about the plant. ⁷ But God at dawn the next day prepared a worm that crippled the plant and it withered away. ⁸ When the sun rose, God prepared a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jonah's head so that he became faint. So he implored that his soul would die, saying, "My death would be better than my life!"

⁹ Then God said to Jonah, "Is it good for you to be so angry about the plant?"

"It is," he said, "I am angry enough to die!"

¹⁰ But ADONAI said, "You have pity on the plant for which you did no labor or make it grow, that appeared overnight and perished overnight. ¹¹ So shouldn't I have pity on Nineveh—the great city that has in it more than 120,000 people who don't know their right hand from their left—as well as many animals?"

Micah

Micah Introduction

If Micah was alive in the 21st century, he would be known as the champion of Social justice. His name מִיכָה means “who is like .” Along with his contemporary, Isaiah, Micah lived in an area southwest of Jerusalem and concentrated his prophetic office primarily in that area. In a culture of heathen paganism and idolatry, Micah spoke out vehemently about the need to return to God and worship only Him. He was burdened to bring forth God’s message and purpose of holy living. We would consider Micah a radical, as he even chose to walk naked to communicate his message to return to God (Mic. 1:8). He spoke out against corruption, unruly leaders and their treatment of the poor. He exhorted the people to follow and to embrace true worship. His lament, in Micah 2:1, expressed his heart: “Oy to them who scheme wickedness, who work out evil upon their beds! In the light of the morning, they do it, for the power is in their hands.”

As it is in the 21st century, so it was in the day of Micah. Individuals had a false sense of security: “Her leaders give judgment for a bribe, her priests give direction for a price and her prophets practice divination for money. Yet they lean on the saying, ‘Is not in our midst? No calamity will come upon us.’” Micah had chutzpah: he brought forth truth and called out the wicked rulers. Micah issued a Messianic precursor in chapter 5, verse 1 (chapter 5, verse 2, in Traditional Christian numbering): “But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, least among the clans of Judah – from you will come out to Me One to be ruler in Israel, One whose goings forth are from of old, from days of eternity.” Micah’s encouragement proclaimed God’s coming Kingdom and God’s coming Messiah—. Micah announced the birth place of the Messiah, Bethlehem, בֵּית לֶחֶם Beit Lechem , “House of Bread,” the birthplace of , the Living Bread (Matthew 2:4-6).

Micah called Israel into judgment. He was God’s mouthpiece “ has a dispute with His people and He will argue His case with Israel. (Mic. 6:2).” Micah spoke straightforward about what required of His people: “He has told you, humanity, what is good, and what is seeking from you: Only to practice justice, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.” (Mic. 6:8) God wants His people to love mercy, רַחֲמֵי in Hebrew. God’s mercy endures forever and His people should emulate His mercy towards their fellow man. Human efforts attain nothing. Recognizing and personally accepting that God has done everything for us in the efficacious eternal atonement of ‘s death on the cross, we can walk as God wants us to walk: desiring to live holy.

This short book of Micah is a dirge, a lament. “Woe is me! For I am like gatherings of produce in summer, like gleanings of a vineyard. There is no cluster to eat, no first-ripe fig that I crave. The pious have perished from the land, there is none upright among mankind. All of them lie in wait for blood. A man hunts his brother with a net.” (Mic. 7:1-2). Micah’s lament is our lament. He experienced a deep sorrow for the sins of God’s people. Yet, even in the midst of his complaint, he found cause to hope: “But I – I will watch for . I will wait for the God of my salvation. My God will hear me. So not rejoice over me, O my enemy. Though I have fallen – I will arise. Though I sit in darkness, is my light.”(Mic. 7:7-8) He closed his lament with a prayer to God to shepherd His people. He proclaimed a reflection of his own name Micah, , מִי־לֵאב רֹמֵךְ יִי, “Who is a God like You?” He concluded with the profession of his own faith in . His profession should be ours as well: to realize that God will indeed give truth and mercy to His people who love and serve Him.

Zion's Vindication
He Will Again Have Compassion

1 The word of ADONAI that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah—visions he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

Smashing Idols in the High Places

2 Hear, O peoples—all of you!
Attention, O land and everything in it!
ADONAI Elohim will be witness against you—
The Lord from His holy Temple.
3 For behold, ADONAI is coming forth out of His place.
He will come down and trample on the high places of the land.
4 The mountains will melt away under Him and the valleys will split apart like wax before the fire, like water being poured down a slope.
5 All this is because of Jacob's transgression and the sins of the house of Israel.
Who is the transgression of Jacob?
Is it not Samaria?
Who are the high places of Judah?
Are they not Jerusalem?
6 "So I will make Samaria into a ruin in the countryside, planting places for a vineyard.
I will hurl her stones into the valley and will lay bare her foundations.
7 All her images will be smashed, all her prostitute's pay burned with fire,
and all her idols I will make desolate.
For from prostitute's pay she collected them and to prostitute's pay they will return."
8 Concerning this let me lament and howl.
Let me walk barefoot and naked.
I will make a howl like jackals and a mourning like ostriches.
9 For her wounds are incurable.
For it has come up to Judah.
It has reached the gate of my people—
even up to Jerusalem!
10 Tell it not in Gath—weep not at all.
At Beth-Le-Aphrah † roll in the dust.
11 Pass on, you who dwell in Saphir —nakedness and shame—
she who dwells in Zaanan will not come out.
Wailing of Beth-Ezel ††:
He will take from you its standing-place.
12 For she who dwells in Maroth has languished for something good.
For calamity has come down from ADONAI to Jerusalem's gate.

13 Harness the chariot to the steed,
O inhabitant of Lachish!
It was the beginning of sin for the Daughter of Zion—because in you were found the rebellions of Israel.
14 Therefore you will give parting gifts to Moresheth-Gath—houses of Achzib as a deception to the kings of Israel.
15 Yet I will bring the possessor to you, inhabitant of Mareshah.
The glory of Israel will come as far as Adullam.
16 Shave yourself bald,
yes shear your hair for the children of your delight.
Enlarge your bald spot like a vulture, for they went from you into exile.

Covetous Schemers

2 Oy to them who scheme wickedness, who work out evil upon their beds!
In the light of the morning, they do it,
for the power is in their hands.
2 They covet fields, so they seize them, or houses, and take them away.
So they oppress a man and his house—
a man and his inheritance.
3 Therefore, thus said ADONAI :
"Behold, I am scheming a calamity against this family from which you cannot remove your necks.
Then you will not walk haughtily, for it will be a time of distress."
4 In that day He will lift up a parable for you, and there will be wailing lamentation, saying: "We have been utterly ruined!
He changes the portion of my people.
How He removes it from me!
To the faithless He apportions our fields!"
5 Therefore you will have no one casting for territory by lot in the congregation of ADONAI .
6 "Do not prophesy," they prophesy.
"Unless they prophesy about such things,
He will not turn back reproaches."
7 Is it said, "O house of Jacob, is the Ruach ADONAI short of patience?
Are these His deeds?"
"Do not My words deal well with one who walks uprightly?"
8 But recently My people arose as an enemy.
You strip off the outer robe of a garment from those passing through confidently—those returning from war.

† Meaning House of Dust †† Meaning the house nearby

⁹ The wives of My people you cast out from their exquisite houses.
From her young children
you take away My splendor, forever.
¹⁰ Arise and go!
For this is not the resting place, because of uncleanness that destroys—a grievous destruction.
¹¹ If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood speaks lies—
‘I will prophesy for you of wine and strong drink’—
Then he would be a spokesman of this people.
¹² “I will surely gather Jacob—all of you!
I will surely gather the remnant of Israel.
I will put them together like sheep in a pen,
like a flock within its pasture.
They will be noisy with people.
¹³ One breaking through will go up before them. †
They will break through, pass through the gate and go out by it. †† Their King will pass through before them
— ADONAI at their head!”

Unjust Leaders, False Prophets

3 Then I said:
“Hear, leaders of Jacob, rulers of the house of Israel.
Is it not for you to know justice?
² You haters of good and lovers of evil, you are robbing their skin from them and their flesh from their bones.”
³ Now that they have eaten the flesh of my people, stripped their skin off from them,
and smashed their bones to bits,
they cut it up like flesh in a pot,
or like meat within a caldron.
⁴ Then they will cry out to ADONAI, but He will not answer them.
Thus He will hide His face from them at that time, because of their evil deeds.
⁵ Thus said ADONAI, “About the prophets who are misleading My people, those who bite with their teeth and cry ‘Shalom’
—a word that He did not put in their mouth—
yet they consecrate war against him:
⁶ Therefore you will have night without vision, and darkness without divination.
The sun shall set on the prophets,
the day shall become dark upon them.’
⁷ So the seers will be ashamed and the diviners will be abashed.
Indeed all of them will cover their lips,
for there will be no answer from God.”
⁸ Nevertheless I myself am filled with power—with the Ruach ADONAI — with judgment, and with might,
to declare to Jacob his transgression,

and to Israel his sin.
⁹ Hear this, leaders of the house of Jacob, rulers of the house of Israel:
You who abhor justice,
and twist everything upright, ¹⁰ who build up Zion with bloodshed, and Jerusalem with injustice.
¹¹ Her leaders give judgment for a bribe.
Her priests give direction for a price.
Her prophets practice divination for money.
Yet they lean on ADONAI by saying:
“Is not ADONAI in our midst?
No calamity will come upon us!”
¹² Therefore, because of you
Zion will become a plowed field.
Yes, Jerusalem will become a heap of ruins, and the Temple Mount will become a high place in a forest.

Torah Will Go Forth from Zion

4 But at the end of days
the mountain of ADONAI’s House will be established as chief of the mountains, and will be raised above the hills.
Peoples will flow up to it.
² Then many nations will go and say:
“Come, let us go up to the mountain of ADONAI,
to the House of the God of Jacob!
Then He will direct us in His ways,
and we will walk in His paths.”
For Torah will go forth from Zion,
and the word of ADONAI from Jerusalem.
³ He will judge between many peoples and decide for mighty nations far off.
They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning shears.
Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
nor will they learn war again.
⁴ But each man will sit under his vine and under his fig tree, with no one causing terror,
for the mouth of ADONAI - Tzva’ot has spoken.
⁵ Though all the peoples will walk each in the name of his god, so we ourselves will walk ‡ in the Name of ADONAI Elo-heinu,
forever and ever.
⁶ “In that day”
—it is a declaration of ADONAI —
“I will gather her who is limping, and her who was banished will I collect,
even those whom I have afflicted.
⁷ I will make her who was limping into a remnant,
and her who was banished a mighty nation.
ADONAI will reign over them on Mount Zion from that time and forever.”
⁸ But you, watchtower of the flock,

† cf. Matt. 11:12. †† cf. John 10:7, 9.

‡ cf. Acts 14:16.

are the hill of the Daughter of Zion.
 To you she will come.
 Even the former dominion will come,
 the kingdom of the Daughter of Jerusalem.
⁹ Why are you crying out aloud now?
 Is there no King within you?
 Has your counselor perished,
 so that agony has gripped you like birth pangs?
¹⁰ Writhe and give birth, Daughter of Zion, like a woman in labor.
 For now you will go forth from a city.
 You will dwell in the field,
 and you will come as far as Babylon.
 There you will be rescued.
 There will ADONAI redeem you from the hand of your enemies.
¹¹ But now many nations have assembled against you,
 those who are saying, "Let her be defiled, and let our eyes gaze on Zion."
¹² But they do not know ADONAI's thoughts, nor understand His plan.
 For He has gathered them like grain to a threshing floor.
¹³ "Arise and tread, Daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn iron,
 and I will make your hooves bronze.
 You will thresh many peoples."
 I will devote their unjust gain to ADONAI, their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.
¹⁴ (5:1) Now gather yourself in troops, O Daughter of Troops.
 He has laid siege against us.
 With a staff they have struck the Judge of Israel on the cheek.

Eternal Ruler from Beth-Lehem

5 (2) "But you, Beth-Lehem Ephrathah †— least among the clans of Judah—from you will come out to Me
 One to be ruler in Israel,
 One whose goings forth are from of old,
 from days of eternity."
² (3) Therefore He will give them up until the time when she who is in labor has given birth.
 Then the remnant of His brothers will return to Bnei-Yisrael.
³ (4) So He will arise and tend His flock with the strength of ADONAI — in the majesty of the Name of ADONAI His God.
 And they will live securely,
 for then He will be great to the ends of the earth.
⁴ (5) This One will be shalom. ††
 When Assyria invades our land, when he treads on our citadels, then we will raise up against him seven shepherds and eight human princes.

⁵ (6) They will devastate the land of Assyria with the sword—
 even Nimrod's land with a drawn blade. ‡
 He will deliver us from Assyria, when he invades our land,
 when he tramples on our territory.

The Remnant of Jacob

⁶ (7) Now the remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples,
 like dew from ADONAI, like abundant showers on grass that does not wait for a man, nor lingers for the sons of men.
⁷ (8) For the remnant of Jacob will be among the nations,
 in the midst of many peoples,
 like a lion among the forest beasts,
 like a young lion among flocks of sheep, who, if he passed through, would trample and tear to pieces,
 and there would be no deliverer.
⁸ (9) May your hand be raised up against your adversaries,
 and may all your foes be cut off.
⁹ (10) "Now in that day"
 —it is a declaration of ADONAI —
 "I will cut off your horses among you, and I will destroy your chariots.
¹⁰ (11) I will cut off the cities of your land, and throw down all your strongholds.
¹¹ (12) I will cut off sorceries from your hand, and you will have no more diviners.
¹² (13) I will cut off your carved images and your sacred pillars from among you, so you will no longer bow down to the work of your hands.
¹³ (14) I will uproot your Asherah poles from among
 you,
 and destroy your cities.
¹⁴ (15) So I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath on the nations that have not listened."

ADONAI Pleads His Case

6 Hear what ADONAI is saying:
 "Arise! Contend with the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice."
² Hear, ADONAI's dispute, O mountains—the enduring foundations of the earth.
 For ADONAI has a dispute with His people and He will argue His case with Israel.
³ "O My people, what have I done to you?
 Or how have I wearied you? Answer Me!
⁴ When I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of bondage,

† cf. Matt. 2:6. †† cf. Luke 2:14; Col. 1:20.

‡ Or at its entrances

I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.
⁵ O My people, remember, please:
 What did Balak, king of Moab, propose?
 What did Balaam son of Beor answer him?
 From Shittim as far as Gilgal, so that you might acknowledge the righteous acts of ADONAI."

What Is ADONAI Seeking from You?

⁶ With what shall I come before ADONAI?
 With what shall I bow myself before God on high?
 Shall I present Him with burnt offerings, with year-old calves?
⁷ Will ADONAI be pleased with thousands of rams, with hordes of rivers of oil?
 Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgression,
 the fruit of my belly for the sin of my soul?
⁸ He has told you, humanity, what is good,
 and what ADONAI is seeking from you:
 Only to practice justice, to love mercy, † and to walk humbly with your God.
⁹ The voice of ADONAI calls to the city—it is wisdom to fear †† Your Name—
 "Pay attention to the rod and to the One who appointed it.

¹⁰ Does the house of the wicked still have treasures of wickedness?
 Or is an undersized ephah denounced?
¹¹ Can I be pure with wicked balances?
 Or with a bag of deceptive weights?
¹² For the rich of the city are full of violence and its inhabitants speak lies.
 Their tongue in their mouth is deceit.
¹³ So also I will strike you severely, desolating you because of your sins.
¹⁴ You will eat but not be satisfied, and emptiness will be within you.
 You will try to escape,
 but you will not reach safety.
 Whatever you make safe,
 I will give to the sword.
¹⁵ You will sow but not reap;
 you will tread olives but not anoint yourself with oil,
 and grapes but not drink wine.
¹⁶ Now, you observe the statutes of Omri and every practice of the house of Ahab, and you walk in their counsels.
 Therefore I will make you a horror, and her inhabitants a hissing,
 so you will bear the scorn of My people."

None Upright among Mankind

7 Woe is me! For I am like gatherings of produce in summer,
 like gleanings of a vineyard.
 There is no cluster to eat,

no first-ripe fig that I crave.
² The pious have perished from the land,
 there is none upright among mankind.
 All of them lie in wait for blood.
 A man hunts his brother with a net.
³ Both hands are diligent at doing evil.
 The official and the judge ask for a bribe.
 The distinguished man utters a desire of his soul.
 Thus they weave it together.
⁴ The best of them is like a prickly bush,
 the most upright like a thorn hedge.
 The day of your watchmen—of your visitation—is coming.
 Then their confusion will occur.
⁵ Do not trust in a friend.
 Do not trust in a close companion.
 Guard the openings of your mouth from her who lies on your breast.
⁶ For son treats father with contempt;
 daughter rises up against mother;
 daughter-in-law against mother-in-law:
 a man's enemies are the people of his own house. ‡

Zion's Vindication

⁷ But I—I will watch for ADONAI.
 I will wait for the God of my salvation.
 My God will hear me.
⁸ Do not rejoice over me, O my enemy.
 Though I have fallen—I will arise.
 Though I sit in darkness, ADONAI is my light.
⁹ I will bear the indignation of ADONAI, because I have sinned against Him,
 until He pleads my cause,
 and executes judgment for me.
 He will bring me out to the light,
 and I will behold His righteousness.
¹⁰ Then my enemy will see it,
 and shame will cover her—she who said to me:
 "Where is ADONAI, your God?"
 My eyes will gaze at her—now she will be trampled like mud in streets.
¹¹ A day to rebuild your walls—
 a day the boundary will be far off, ¹² a day when they will come to you from Assyria to the cities of Egypt, from Egypt to the River,
 from sea to sea,
 and from mountain to mountain.
¹³ Yet the land will become a wasteland because of her inhabitants,
 because of the fruit of their misdeeds.
¹⁴ Tend Your people with Your staff,
 the flock of Your inheritance, dwelling alone, in a forest in the midst of a fertile garden.

† Or lovingkindness

†† Or perceive

‡ cf. Matt. 10:21, 35-36; Mark 13:12; Luke 12:53.

Let them feed in Bashan and Gilead,
 as in the days of old.
¹⁵ "As in the days of your coming out from the land of Egypt
 I will show him wonders."
¹⁶ Nations will see and be put to shame despite all their might.
 They will put a hand on their mouth,
 their ears will be deaf.
¹⁷ They will lick dust like a snake.
 Like crawling things of the land,
 they will come trembling out of their hiding places.
 To ADONAI Eloheinu they will submit in awe—in awe of You.

He Will Again Have Compassion

¹⁸ Who is a God like You pardoning iniquity, overlooking transgression, for the remnant of His heritage?
 He will not retain His anger forever, because He delights in mercy.
¹⁹ He will again have compassion on us.
 He will subdue our iniquities, and You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.
²⁰ You will extend truth to Jacob, mercy to Abraham, that You swore to our ancestors from the days of old.

Nahum

Nahum Introduction

Nahum is the Hebrew word for “comfort” or “consolation.” It seems ironic, however, because Nahum is anything but a prophet of comfort and consolation. Acting as something of a mirror to the book of Jonah, Nahum’s narrative once again draws the attention of those reading the Hebrew Scriptures back to pagan Nineveh and gives an account of what happened since the time Jonah ministered there—one hundred years earlier. The short-term revival, spirited along by Jonah’s ministry among them, had long since run its course. Those interests and energies expended, the people fell back into selfishness and sin and incurred the punishment of God as a result.

The dating of Nahum is somewhat confusing. Though there is not a particular date referenced, there are some clues. Nahum looks forward to the fall of Nineveh in the year 612 BCE; also, in Nahum 3, the prophet looks back to the fall of Thebes in the year 664 BC. The prophet, therefore, must have lived and written somewhere in between these two dates. Importantly, this places Nahum about 100 years after Jonah.

His discomfiting words for Nineveh are some of the sharpest in all of Scripture. There are no words of hope or restoration for Nineveh. The message of the prophet is complete destruction and shame for all who live in the decadent city. The message is clear: God will execute complete and utter judgment on this place. The wicked Assyrians held sway over ancient Near Eastern affairs for quite some time. This time, however, was coming to a close. These oracles of doom actually encouraged the Judeans, minded that their tormentors would soon come to an end at the hands of a sovereign God. He was in control of history: not Assyrians; not mere circumstance. The destruction of Nineveh is a sober reminder of the judgment of God on the wicked. The faithful in all ages have long suffered. Scripture says those who wait upon will be vindicated, when God shows Himself mighty in human affairs. Readers of Nahum, no doubt, took heart in the fact that, though difficult circumstances may beset them for a moment, God will arise in human affairs and exact the retribution so long desired by the disempowered and afflicted.

Judgment of Nineveh

1 The oracle [†] concerning Nineveh—the book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

² A jealous and avenging God is ADONAI.
Yes, ADONAI is the avenger and master of wrath.
ADONAI is avenger to His adversaries,
Yes, a keeper of wrath for His foes.

³ ADONAI is slow to anger and great in power, but He will by no means acquit the guilty.
ADONAI’s way is with a whirlwind or with a storm
wind,

Clouds are the dust of His feet.

⁴ Rebuking the sea, He made it dry, as He has dried up all the rivers.

Bashan and Carmel languished,
Yes, Lebanon’s budding languished.

⁵ Mountains quaked because of Him, and the hills have melted.
The earth has heaved up at His presence—
yes, the world and everything dwelling in it.

⁶ Before His indignation who can stand?
Who can withstand His burning anger?
His wrath is poured out like fire,
and cliffs break down before Him.

⁷ ADONAI is good as a refuge in the day of distress, and He knows those who take refuge in Him.

⁸ But with an overwhelming flood,
He will make that place a total ruin.
Darkness will pursue His enemies.

[†] Or burden

9 What can you scheme against ADONAI?
He will make a complete destruction.
Distress will not arise twice.
10 For even like tangled thorns they will be consumed, or like drunkards who are drunk,
or like stubble that is fully dry.
11 Out of you has come a schemer of evil against ADONAI,
a counselor of Belial. † 12 Thus said ADONAI:
"Though they are strong and numerous, even so they will be mowed down and pass away.
Although I have afflicted you,
I will afflict you no more.
13 I will now break his yoke from you, and tear apart your bonds."
14 ADONAI has issued a command against you:
"No more will your name be spread.
From the house of your gods
I will cut off the idol and metal image.
I will prepare your grave—for you have become worthless."
2 (1:15) Behold, upon the mountains are the feet †† of him bringing good news, ‡ proclaiming shalom.
O Judah, celebrate your festivals!
Fulfill your vows!
For never again will Belial pass through you.
He has been utterly cut off.

Devastation of Nineveh

2 (1) A shatterer has come up against you.
Guard the rampart! Watch the way!
Chazak! Be very courageous!
3 (2) For ADONAI turned aside Jacob's pride like Israel's pride—for spoilers emptied them out and ruined their vine branches.
4 (3) He makes the shield of warriors' red—valiant men are clad in scarlet!
The chariot burns with metal fire on the day of his preparation,
The fir trees are shaken.
5 (4) The chariots dash madly about through the streets,
rushing to and fro in the plazas, their appearance is like torches, darting like flashes of lightning.
6 (5) He will recall his majestic ones.
They will stumble in their march.
They will hasten to her wall.
Now the siege work is set up.
7 (6) The river gates will be opened,
and the palace will melt away.

† Or worthless one bringing ruin †† Christian texts number chapter 2:1-14 as chapter 1:15-2:13. ‡ cf. Acts 10:36; Rom. 10:15.

8 (7) What was erected †† will be exiled and carried away.
Her handmaids are lamenting like the sound of doves, beating their breasts.
9 (8) Nineveh was like a pool of water for days
—now they are fleeing.
"Stop, stop!" Yet no one turns back.
10 (9) Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold!
For there is no end of treasure—glory from everything precious.
11 (10) Emptiness, desolation, waste!
Heart melting, knees buckling, anguish in all the loins,
all their faces grown pale!
12 (11) Where is the lions' den, the feeding place for young lions—where the lion went for a lion's cub—with nothing to disturb them?
13 (12) The lion rips enough for his cubs, strangles prey for his lionesses.
Yes, he fills his den with prey,
his lair with torn flesh.
14 (13) "Here I am against you"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot —
"I will burn up her chariots in smoke.
A sword will devour your young lions.
I will cut them off from the land of your prey, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

City of Corpses

3 Oy, bloody city!
Full of deceit, full of plunder.
The prey never departs.
2 Crack of whip, rattling of wheels,
horse galloping,
chariot jolting,
3 horseman climbing up,
blade of sword and flash of spear, many slain, a mass of corpses
—no end to the corpses—
they stumble over their corpses!

The Harlot Humiliated

4 "Because of the many fornications of the elegant prostitute,
the mistress of sorceries, who sells nations by her fornications, and clans through her sorceries—5 Behold, I am against you"
—it is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot —
"I will lift your skirts over your face,
I will show nations your nakedness and kingdoms your disgrace.

†† Or Hutzav, queen of Nineveh

⁶ Yes, I will fling filth on you.
 I will treat you with contempt and set you up as a spectacle.
⁷ So it will be that all who see you will recoil from you and say, ‘Nineveh has been ravaged!
 Who will lament for her?’
 Where will I find comforters for you?”
⁸ Are you better than No-Amon †, situated among channels of the Nile, water surrounding her,
 whose fortress and wall was water? ††
⁹ Cush and Egypt were her might—unlimited.
 Put and Libya were her allies.
¹⁰ Yet she went off to exile among the captives.
 Even her babes were dashed to pieces
 at the head of every street.
 They cast lots for her dignitaries,

Habakkuk

Habakkuk Introduction

The name “Habakkuk” comes from a Hebrew word meaning “embrace.” He served as a prophet to the Southern Kingdom of Judah and gave voice to judgments about to come upon the recalcitrant people. Habakkuk wrote on the eve of the Babylonian exile—while himself both embraced and displaced by visions of imminent destruction. His warning went unheeded, as is often the case. Just a few short years later, the Kingdom of Judah was taken into captivity by the Babylonians—punishment for their perennial disobedience.

The first half of Habakkuk is conversational. The prophet sees destruction coming, and inquires: “How could this be happening to us?” or “God, how could you allow them to do it to us?” he ponders. Noted is that the coming warring nations were mightier than the Israelites and that nothing was going to stop the rush of their military forces. If they were to be God’s judgment upon Judah for her perennial sinfulness, fair enough: the nation deserved it. The prophet wondered, however: since the foreigners were even more wicked than the Hebrews, how could God use them as His agent of justice upon the Jewish people. Why them? A series of woes were then spoken over the people of Judah—expressions of chagrin for years poorly lived in pride and deceit. The question was: Why was this happening to the nation? The answer was simply put: judgment! The way God meets it out being entirely up to Him.

Interestingly, Habakkuk concludes the short book with a psalm of praise. In the face of pending judgment, the prophet was still able to praise God and find hope in Him, though circumstances were abysmal. Difficulties aside, he knew that God was God and that He ultimately wouldn’t abandon His purposes or His people—though He may indeed discipline at a given moment. Habakkuk tapped into the presence of God in the midst of his pain and sorrow. His experience reminds of Paul’s words: “We are hard-pressed in every way, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed.” (2 Cor. 4:8-9). For those who know the presence of God, there is neither experience too difficult nor despair too dark. This is especially true for those who know the “light of the world.”

Burden for Justice in Judah

1 The oracle [†] that Habakkuk the prophet saw.

² How long, ADONAI, have I cried for help, yet You do not hear?

I cry out to You—“Violence!” yet You do not deliver.

³ Why do You show me wickedness, and why must I behold mischief?

Yes, devastation and violence are before me.

There is strife, and contention arises.

⁴ Therefore, Torah has no effect, and justice never goes forth.

[†] Or burden

For the wicked encircle the righteous, therefore justice comes out perverted.

ADONAI ’s Answer: Chaldeans

⁵ “Look among the nations! Observe!

Astonish yourself! Be astounded!

For a work is being done in your days.

You will not believe it if it were told. ^{††}

⁶ For I am about to raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter, impetuous nation, marching all over the land, to seize dwellings not its own.

⁷ Dreadful and terrifying,

^{††} cf. Acts 13:41.

Its justice and dignity derive from itself.

⁸ Its horses are swifter than leopards, fiercer than wolves at dusk.
Its horsemen come galloping.
Its horsemen are coming from afar.
They fly like a vulture, [†] swooping down to eat.

⁹ All of them come for violence—an assembling of faces to the east.
He gathers captives like sand.

¹⁰ He scoffs at kings, and rulers are a joke to him.
He laughs at every stronghold—
he heaps up dirt and takes it.

¹¹ Then a wind sweeps through and passes on.
He is guilty—This, his strength, is his god.”

Appeal for Justice on Chaldea

¹² Are not You from antiquity—ADONAI my God, my Holy One?
We will not die.

ADONAI, You have ordained him for judgment—
as You, O Rock, have established him to chasten.

¹³ With eyes too pure to see evil
You cannot look at such trouble!

Why do You look at the treacherous?
Why do You remain silent when a wicked one swallows up those more righteous than him?

¹⁴ You made man like the fish of the sea,
like a creeping thing—with no one ruling over him.

¹⁵ He brings up all with hook in jaw, drags away in his dragnet, or gathers with his fishing net.
Therefore he rejoices with glee.

¹⁶ Therefore he sacrifices to his dragnet, and offers incense to his fishing net.
For through them his portion is rich and his food abundant.

¹⁷ Will he empty his net for this reason —continually slaying nations—with no compassion?

2 I will take my stand at my post, and station myself on the rampart, and I will watch to see what He will say to me,
and what I will answer regarding my argument.

Vision for an Appointed Time

² Then ADONAI answered me and said:

“Write down the vision, ^{††} make it plain on the tablets, so that the reader may run with it.

³ For the vision is yet for an appointed time.
It hastens to the end and will not fail.

If it should be slow in coming, wait for it,
For it will surely come—it will not delay. [‡]

Trust, Judgment, and Glory

⁴ “Behold, the puffed up one—his soul is not right within him,
But the righteous will live by his trust. ^{‡†}

⁵ Indeed, because this wine betrays, a proud man never rests.

He enlarges his desire like Sheol,
Like death, he is never satisfied.

So he gathers to himself all nations, and collects all peoples for himself.

⁶ Will not all take up a proverb against him or a scornful riddle about him?

‘Oy to one expanding what isn’t his!
How long?

Oy to one burdening himself with heavy debts!

⁷ Will biting you arise suddenly,
and those shaking you awaken,
as you will become plunder for them?

⁸ Since you looted many nations, all the survivors will plunder you—because of human bloodshed and violence done to the land, the city and all its inhabitants.

⁹ Oy to one surely getting unjust gain for his house—to set his nest on high,
to escape the reach of calamity!

¹⁰ You schemed shame for your house, by cutting off many peoples,
so going wrong yourself.

¹¹ For a stone will cry out ^{‡†} from a wall, and wooden beams will answer.

¹² Oy to him who builds a city by bloodshed, and establishes a town with injustice!

¹³ Behold, is it not from ADONAI - Tzva’ot that peoples toil to fuel a fire, and nations exhaust themselves for emptiness?

¹⁴ For the earth will be filled with knowing the glory of ADONAI,
as the waters cover the sea.

¹⁵ Oy to one who makes his neighbor drink, who pours out Your fury, and even making him drunk
In order to gaze at his nakedness!

¹⁶ You are filled with disgrace rather than glory.
Drink—you too—and be uncircumcised.

The cup of ADONAI’s right hand will surround you,
and disgrace will come upon your glory.

¹⁷ For the violence done to Lebanon will spread over
you,
destruction of beasts terrifying them, because of human bloodshed and violence done to
the land,
the city and to all its inhabitants.

¹⁸ What use is an idol when its craftsman has carved it?

Or a metal image—a teacher of lies?

[†] Or eagle ^{††} cf. Rom. 4:24; Rev. 1:19. [‡] cf. Heb. 10:37b.

^{‡†} Or faithfulness
Luke 19:40.

^{‡‡} cf.

For a craftsman has trusted in the image that he created, to make dumb idols.

¹⁹ Oy to one who says to wood: 'Awake!'

To a dumb stone: 'Rouse yourself!' Can it teach?

Look, it is plated with gold and silver,

but it has no spirit within it.

²⁰ But ADONAI is in His holy Temple.

Let all the land be silent before Him.

Habakkuk's Confidence in ADONAI

3 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, as a passionate song.

² ADONAI, I have heard the report about You and I have come to fear.

ADONAI, revive Your work throughout the years, throughout the years make it known,

In wrath remember compassion.

³ God comes from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah

His majesty covers the heavens, and His praise fills the earth.

⁴ With brilliance like light, rays emanate from His hand.

There His power was hidden.

⁵ Pestilence goes before Him, a fiery bolt goes forth at His feet.

⁶ He stood, and the earth shook.

He looked, and startled nations. Ancient mountains were shattered, hills of antiquity sank down.

His ways are everlasting.

⁷ I saw tents of Cushan under calamity.

The curtains of the land of Midian are trembling.

⁸ ADONAI, is your wrath against rivers?

Or Your anger at the rivers?

Or is Your fury with the sea?

For You ride on Your horses,

Your chariots of salvation!

⁹ Your bow is laid bare.

Sworn are rods—a decree. Selah

You cleave the land with rivers.

¹⁰ The mountains saw You and writhe.

A downpour of water overflows.

The deep gives its voice—

it lifts up hands high.

¹¹ Sun and moon, stand in lofty abode.

At the flash of Your arrows they go,

at the radiance of the lightning of Your spear.

¹² With indignation You pace the land.

With anger You thresh nations.

¹³ You went out for the salvation of Your people—for the deliverance of Your anointed one. †

You shatter the head of the house of the wicked—

to lay it bare from foundation up to the top. Selah

¹⁴ You have pierced his chief rulers with his own staff—

They stormed in to scatter me.

Their exultation is like devouring the weak in secret.

¹⁵ You marched forth,

Your horses in the sea—much water foaming.

¹⁶ I heard, and my belly trembled.

My lips quivered at the sound.

Decay comes into my bones.

I tremble where I stand,

since I must wait quietly for a day of distress to come up against the people who will invade us.

¹⁷ Though the fig tree does not blossom, and there is no yield on the vines,

Though the olive crop fail,

and the fields produce no food,

the flock is cut off from the fold,

and there is no cattle in the stalls.

¹⁸ Yet will I triumph in ADONAI,

I will rejoice in the God of my salvation! ††

¹⁹ ADONAI my Lord, is my strength.

He has made my feet like a deer's,

and will make me walk on my high places.

For the choir director: On my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

Zephaniah Introduction

In Hebrew Zephaniah means “is hidden.” Zephaniah lived during the reign of the revival king Josiah. One of the greatest kings of Judah, Josiah led the nation in a great revival and return to the authorized worship of God. It is not unreasonable to think that Zephaniah played some part in the short-term revival. Tragically, Josiah’s revival seems to have been too short and too late. After his untimely death, the flames of worship flicked out and the torch of wickedness burnt ablaze.

God may indeed have seemed “hidden” to Judah. For, just a few years later, the nation was sacked, the capital was destroyed, and the people were uprooted—with the survivors taken captive to Babylon, far removed from their ancestral homeland. Many may have wondered where was. In this prophetic message, God shows Himself to be anything but hidden. God speaks loud and clear to the nation about the coming judgment. Omnipotent, He is the One who allowed it.

Zephaniah employs some of the same terminology as the prophet Joel. Case in point: the day of . Questions about this day are answered in Zephaniah 1:14-19. Along with the promise of judgment, there is something new. Zephaniah gives the reason for the judgment and captivity. He informs that through the captivity and exile the nation would become purified. All of God’s efforts to get to and through to the nation of Israel failed. Reason, appeals, encouragements, and even threats did not work. Now it was time for action on God’s part. The disciplined nation would be purified, the unrighteous separated out and then a righteous remnant would be returned to the land. At the end of Zephaniah’s prophecy, we see Israel restored and vindicated in the eyes of God and the eyes of the nations. God’s judgment upon the Hebrews thus must not be construed as abandonment, but discipline—temporary and not permanent.

The second half of the book accentuates good news for Jews. God will not always reject His people, and God’s will is, in fact, a general restoration to all nations. Israel’s Messiah will be a principal agent in this restoration. In Him, God has indeed made the way of salvation available to all people—Jews and Gentiles alike.

² “I will totally sweep away everything from the face of the earth,” declares ADONAI .

³ “I will sweep away man and beast, I will sweep away the birds of the sky and the fish of the sea—also the stumbling blocks—the wicked.

I will cut off mankind from the face of the earth,” declares ADONAI . †

⁴ “I will stretch out my hand upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place—the names of the idolatrous priests along with the kohanim ,

⁵ those bowing down on the roofs to the host of the heavens, those bowing down, swearing to ADONAI and also swearing by Molech,

⁶ those turning from following ADONAI , not seeking ADONAI , or consulting Him.”

The Day Is at Hand

⁷ Be silent before ADONAI God.

† cf. Matt. 13:41.

For the day of ADONAI is at hand! †
ADONAI has prepared a sacrifice,
 He has consecrated his guests.
 8 "On the day of ADONAI's sacrifice,
 I will punish the princes,
 the king's sons
 and all who dress in foreign attire.
 9 In that day I will punish all who skip over the threshold while filling their master's House with violence and deceit.
 10 In that day"—declares ADONAI —
 "there will be the sound of screaming from the Fish Gate, wailing from the second district and a loud crash from the heights.
 11 Howl, inhabitants of Maktesh! ††
 For all the people of Canaan ‡ are destroyed.
 All who weigh out silver are cut off.
 12 At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps and punish the men whose spirits have hardened, who say in their hearts,
 ' ADONAI will do neither good nor evil.'
 13 Their wealth will become plunder, their houses a ruin.
 They will build houses
 but not live in them.
 They will plant vineyards
 but not drink their wine."
 14 The great day of ADONAI is near—near and coming very quickly!
 The sound of the day of ADONAI is bitter—the shouting of the warrior is there.
 15 That day is a day of wrath,
 a day of trouble and distress,
 a day of devastating storm and desolation,
 a day of darkness and gloom,
 a day of clouds and thick darkness,
 16 a day of shofar and alarm against the fortified cities and against the high corner towers.
 17 "I will bring such distress upon mankind that they will walk like the blind—for they have sinned against ADONAI .
 Their blood will be poured out like dust,
 and their flesh like dung.
 18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to rescue them on the day of ADONAI's wrath."
 With the fire of His passion the entire earth will be consumed.
 For He will make a total, dreadful annihilation of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Judgment of Nearby Nations

2 Gather together! Gather together,
 O shameless nation—
 2 before the decree is brought forth, before the day passes away like chaff,
 before ADONAI's burning anger comes upon you,
 before the day of ADONAI's anger comes upon you!
 3 Seek ADONAI , all you humble of the land who have executed His judgment.
 Seek righteousness; seek meekness! †† Perhaps you will be hidden
 on the day of ADONAI's wrath.
 4 For Gaza will be abandoned and Ashkelon will be a wasteland.
 Ashdod will be driven out at noon and Ekron will be uprooted.
 5 O y to the inhabitants of the seacoast,
 the nation of Cherethites!
 "The word of ADONAI is against you, Canaan, the land of the Philistines, and I will destroy you until there is no inhabitant."
 6 The seacoast will become pastures, with meadows for shepherds and folds for flocks.
 7 The coast will belong to the remnant of the house of Judah,
 upon which they will graze.
 In the houses of Ashkelon
 they will lie down in the evening.
 For ADONAI their God will visit them and return them from captivity.
 8 "I have heard the taunts of Moab and the jeers of the children of Ammon, who taunted My people and expanded on their border.
 9 Therefore, as I live," declares ADONAI - Tzva'ot God of Israel,
 "Moab will be like Sodom and Ammon like Gomorrah—a possession of weeds and a salt pit, a perpetual wasteland.
 The remainder of My people will plunder them.
 The remnant of My nation will dispossess them."
 10 This is what they will get for their pride, for they have taunted and expanded against the people of ADONAI - Tzva'ot .
 11 ADONAI will be fearsome against them.
 For all the gods of the earth
 He will make waste away.
 To Him will bow, each from its place,
 the islands of the nations.
 12 "You Ethiopians too will be slain by My sword."
 13 He will stretch out his hand against the north and devastate Assyria and make Nineveh as a wasteland—

Downfall of Disobedient Jerusalem

3 Oy to the oppressive city—filthy and defiled!
² She did not obey;
she took no correction.
She did not trust in ADONAI.
She did not draw near to her God.
³ Her princes within her are roaring lions.
Her judges are wolves of the night, leaving nothing but bones for morning.
⁴ Her prophets are reckless, treacherous men.
Her kohanim have profaned what is holy.
They do violence to Torah.
⁵ ADONAI is righteous in her midst.
He will do no injustice.
Morning by morning He brings His justice to light.
He does not fail.
Yet the unjust knows no shame.
⁶ “I have cut off nations.
Their towers have become desolate.
I have destroyed their streets, with no one passing by.
Their cities are laid waste,
with no one—none living there.
⁷ I said, ‘Surely you will fear Me, you will accept correction,
so her dwelling place would not be cut off—all that I appointed against her.’
But they arose early and made all their deeds corrupt.
⁸ Therefore, wait for me,” declares ADONAI, “for the day when I rise up for plunder:
for My decision is to assemble nations, to gather kingdoms, † to pour out My fury upon them—all My burning anger.
For in the fire of My wrath
all the earth will be consumed.

The Future Restoration of Israel’s Remnant

⁹ “For then I will restore to the people pure speech, so that all of them may call upon the Name of ADONAI and serve Him shoulder to shoulder.
¹⁰ From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia,
My worshipers, the daughter of My scattered ones will bring My offering.
¹¹ On that day you will not be ashamed because of all your deeds by which you rebelled against Me.
For then I will remove from your midst your proud, arrogant ones, and you will never again be haughty on My holy mountain.
¹² But I will leave among you a people meek and humble.
They will take refuge in the Name of ADONAI.
¹³ The remnant of Israel will do no injustice nor will they tell lies,
nor will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouths.
††
For they will graze and lie down and no one will make them afraid.”
¹⁴ Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion!

Rejoice and exult wholeheartedly,
O daughter of Jerusalem!
¹⁵ ADONAI has taken away your punishments.
He has turned back your adversary.
The King of Israel, ADONAI, is in your midst.
Never again will you fear harm.
¹⁶ On that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, “Have no fear, O Zion,
do not let your hands fall limp.
¹⁷ ADONAI your God is in your midst—
a mighty Savior!
He will delight over you with joy.
He will quiet you with His love.
He will dance for joy over you with singing ‡.”
¹⁸ “I will gather those among you who grieve over your moadim — it is a burden of shame on you.
¹⁹ Behold, at that time I will deal with all who oppress you.
I will save the lame and gather the outcast.
I will make them a praise and a name throughout all the land where they suffered shame.
²⁰ At that time I will bring you in.
At that time I will gather you.
For I will give you renown and glory among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your captives
before your eyes,”
declares ADONAI.

Haggai

Haggai Introduction

Haggai's name means "festival" or "celebration." Haggai was written after the Babylonian exile and likely during the time of the first return of displaced Judean exiles under Zerubbabel in 536 BCE. In 538 BCE, the Babylonian King, Cyrus, issued an edict that all of the Jewish people could return home to Jerusalem—as could other peoples. Soon after, most of the Jewish people began their return back to Israel. The first group of returnees went back under the aforementioned Zerubbabel. Upon their return, the Jewish people found the city of Jerusalem and the Temple in ruins. As they set out to rebuild the Temple, Haggai records how the novelty of the enterprise had run its course, and how the people were then bested by their own sloth and indolence—not to mention perennial problems with the Samaritans. Tired, discouraged, and anxious to attend to their own estates, many of the Jewish people in and around Jerusalem were giving up the task of rebuilding, preferring instead to attend to their own private matters. Haggai's message was one of an encouragement to keep on rebuilding and to not give up on the task at hand.

Haggai's message focuses much of its attention on the purpose of the Temple in Jerusalem. The Temple was to unite people with their God and allow for the reinstatement of the authorized worship of God. The rebuilding of the Temple had been stated as the reason for the return from Babylon. It would be something of a low to have come all the way back to Israel and not rebuild the Temple. Haggai wanted the nation to see the glory of the Temple and all that it could be, envisioning as he did that proper worship was central to their success.

As followers of the Messiah, we are drawn to the New Testament's portrayal of as the dwelling place of God. John 1:14 says, "And the Word became flesh and tabernacled among us. We looked upon His glory, the glory of the one and only from the Father, full of grace and truth..." 's dwelling in us is similar to God's dwelling with Hebrews in the Temple. In , we see the fullness of God dwelling with man. Let us not be sluggish in attending to His development within us.

A Call to Build the House of ADONAI

1 In the second year of King Darius, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of ADONAI came through Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, † and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol: †† "Thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot: 'This people say the time has not come—the time for the House of ADONAI to be rebuilt.'"

³ Then the word of ADONAI came through Haggai the prophet: ⁴ "Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this House lies in ruins?"

⁵ But now," thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot:

"Set your heart on your ways!

⁶ You sowed much but bring in little.

You eat but are never satisfied.

You drink but not enough to get filled.

You put on clothes but no one is warm.

And whoever earns wages works for a bag full of holes."

⁷ Thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot: "Set your heart on your ways! ⁸ Go up to the hills, bring wood, and build the House. Then I will delight in it and I will be glorified," says ADONAI. ⁹ "You have looked for much, but indeed, there is little. What you have brought home, I have blown away. Why is this?"—it is a declaration of ADONAI -Tzva'ot—"because My House lies in ruins, while you are running, each to his own house. ¹⁰ Therefore, because of you, the sky has withheld dew and the earth has withheld its yield. ¹¹ For I have called for drought on the land, the hills and the grain, on the new wine, the oil, on what the ground brings forth, on mankind and beast, as well as all labor of hands."

¹² Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and all the remnant of the people, heeded the voice of ADONAI their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, since ADONAI their God had sent him. So the people revered ADONAI.¹³ Then Haggai, the messenger of ADONAI, spoke to the people with the message of ADONAI, "I am with you!"—it is a declaration of ADONAI.

¹⁴ Then ADONAI stirred the spirit of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, and they came and did work on the House of ADONAI -Tzva'ot their God,¹⁵ on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

Glory of This Latter House

2 On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the word of ADONAI came through Haggai the prophet:² Speak now to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and to the remnant of the people:³ "Who remains among you who saw this House in its former glory? So how do you see it now? Does it not seem as nothing in comparison in your eyes?⁴ But now, Zerubbabel, chazak!"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"and be strong, Joshua son of Jehozadak, kohen gadol, and all people of the land, chazak!"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"and work! For I am with you!"—it is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot.⁵ "According to the word I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt. My Ruach is standing in your midst. Do not fear!"

⁶ For thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot: "In just a little while I will shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land,⁷ and I will shake all the nations. The treasures of all the nations will come, and I will fill this House with glory," says ADONAI -Tzva'ot.⁸ "The silver is mine and the gold is mine!"—it is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot.⁹ "The glory of this latter House will be greater than the former," says ADONAI -Tzva'ot. "In this place, I will grant shalom"—it is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot.

ADONAI's Promise to Zerubbabel

¹⁰ On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of ADONAI came to

† cf. Heb. 12:26.

Haggai the prophet,¹¹ "Thus says ADONAI -Tzva'ot: 'Ask now the kohanim for a ruling.¹² If a person carries consecrated meat in the corner of his garment, and with his corner he touches bread, stew, wine, oil, or any food, will it become holy too?'"

Then the kohanim answered and said, "No."

¹³ So Haggai said, "If one who is unclean by contact with a corpse touches any of these, does it become unclean?"

The kohanim answered and said, "It does become unclean."

¹⁴ Then, Haggai answered and said, "So it is with this people. So is this nation before Me"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"and so is every work of their hands. What they were offering there was unclean.¹⁵ But now, set your heart back from this day onward. Before stone was set upon stone in the Temple of ADONAI,¹⁶ how were things? When one came to a grain-heap of 20 measures, there were 10; when one came to the wine vat to draw 50 measures, there were 20.¹⁷ I struck you with blight and with mildew and with hail—every work of your hands—so you were nothing to Me"—it is a declaration of ADONAI.¹⁸ "Now, set your heart back from this day on—from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day the Temple of ADONAI was founded, set your heart:¹⁹ Is there still seed in the storehouse? Also the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree—are they still bearing fruit? From this day on I am going to bless you."

²⁰ Then the word of ADONAI came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month,²¹ "Say to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah: 'I am going to shake the heavens and the earth,²² and I will overturn the throne of kingdoms and destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I will overturn the chariot and its rider, so horses and their riders will fall, each by the sword of his brother.

²³ "On that day"—it is a declaration of ADONAI -Tzva'ot—"I will take you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant"—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"and I will set you like a signet ring. For I have chosen you." It is a declaration of ADONAI -Tzva'ot.

Zechariah

Zechariah Introduction

In Hebrew, Zechariah's name means "God Remembers." Like Haggai, Zechariah wrote to the returnees coming back from the Babylonian exile. Also similar to Haggai, Zechariah was commissioned by God to encourage the rebuilding of the Temple in Jerusalem. Rather than simply tender exhortations, Zechariah used visions and dreams, and in the process, painted a picture of the Messianic future. Throughout the entire book, there is a constant refrain of God remembering His people. Israel is not to be forgotten. Though the torrents of hell may sweep against her ramparts, Jerusalem will not be forgotten. Zechariah tells how a "pierced" Messiah will visit Israel and get the better of the hellish forces bent on her utter demise.

The Book of Zechariah is based on eight visions, four messages, and two burdens. All of the visions, messages, and burdens were given to the nation to help with the process of rebuilding, encourage faithfulness, and reminder of its eventual glorious future. Troubled as they were by hostile people roundabout and mindful that they were smaller and weaker than their ancestors, it is not at all surprising to think that the returning exiles would be doubtful of their prospects for a secure future. God, through the prophet Zechariah, wanted to remind the nation that they were not forgotten or forsaken.

In the central section, Zechariah gives the nation the reason for their previous captivity and exile. Zechariah 7:8-14 is one of the clearest reasons for exile in the entire Scripture. The reason for their redemption is similarly and gloriously noted. Central to Zechariah's message is the promise of a coming Messiah. Many specific prophecies about the Messiah are found dominating the second half of the book of Zechariah. Some of the passages pointing to the Messiah are: the Messiah riding into Jerusalem on the back of a donkey; the reinstitution of the Davidic Kingdom; the re-gathering of the nation back to Israel; Judeans accepting the Messiah; the giving of the Holy Spirit; the final judgment; and the international knowledge and celebration of God at the Feast of Tabernacles.

Return to the Lord

1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of ADONAI came to the prophet Zechariah, † son of Berechiah son of Iddo, saying:
 2 " ADONAI has been furious with your fathers.
 3 Therefore tell them, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, 'Return to Me' ††—it is a declaration of ADONAI - Tzva'ot—'and I will return to you,' says ADONAI - Tzva'ot. 4 'Do not be like your fathers to whom the former prophets cried out saying,' thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, 'Turn back now from your evil ways and from your evil deeds. But they did not listen or pay attention to Me.' It is a declaration of ADONAI.
 5 "Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? 6 But My words and My decrees, which I commanded My servants the prophets—did they not overtake your fathers? Then they repented and said 'As He determined, ADONAI - Tzva'ot has dealt with us according to our ways and our deeds.'"

Among the Myrtle Trees

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shevat, in the second year of Darius, the word of ADONAI came to the prophet Zechariah son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, saying: 8 In the night I saw, and behold, a man riding upon a red horse was standing among the myrtle trees that were in the ravine. Behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses.

9 Then I asked, "What are these, my lord?"

Now the angel speaking with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

10 Then the man standing among the myrtle trees answered and said, "These are the ones ADONAI has sent to walk back and forth throughout the earth."

11 They answered the angel of ADONAI who stood among the myrtle trees saying, "We have walked throughout the earth, and behold, all the earth sits quietly and is still."

12 Then the angel of ADONAI answered and said, " ADONAI - Tzva'ot, how long will You withhold compassion on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah with whom You have been angry for 70 years?" 13 ADONAI answered the angel who was speaking to me with pleasant, comforting words.

14 Then the angel speaking to me said, "Cry out saying, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, 'I am exceedingly zealous for Jerusalem and for Zion 15 and I am infuriated with the haughty nations. I was a little angry with them, but they furthered their own calamity.

16 "Therefore,' thus says ADONAI, 'I will return to Jerusalem with compassion. My House will be built there,' declares ADONAI - Tzva'ot 'and a measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.' 17 Again cry out, saying, thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, 'My cities will again overflow with prosperity and ADONAI will again comfort Zion and will again choose Jerusalem.'"

† cf. Matt. 23:35. †† cf. Jacob 4:8. ‡ cf. Rev. 6:2, 4.

Four Horns and Four Craftsmen

2 (1:18) Then I lifted up my eyes and behold, I saw four horns! 2 (1:19) I said to the angel speaking with me, "What are these?"

He said to me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

3 (1:20) Then ADONAI showed me four craftsmen. 4 (1:21) I asked, "What are these coming to do?"

He answered, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no one could raise his head, but the craftsmen have come to frighten them, to cast down the horns of the nations that have lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

Measuring Jerusalem

5 (1) I lifted up my eyes—and behold, I saw a man with a measuring line in his hand. †6 (2) I asked, "Where are you going?"

He answered me, "To measure Jerusalem to see how wide and how long it is." ††

7 (3) Then behold, the angel speaking with me left and another angel went out to meet him, 8 (4) saying to him, "Run, speak to this young man saying: 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as a village without walls because of the great number of men and livestock in it. 9 (5) For I—it is a declaration of ADONAI—'will be a wall of fire around it and I will be the glory inside it. 10 (6) Oy, oy! Flee from the land of the north'—it is a declaration of ADONAI—'because I scattered you like the four winds of heaven'—it is a declaration of ADONAI. 11 (7) 'Oy, Zion! Escape, you who are living with the daughter of Babylon.

12 (8) "For thus says ADONAI - Tzva'ot, He has sent me after glory to the nations that plundered you—because whoever touches you touches the apple of His eye— 13 (9) 'For behold, I will shake My hand against them and they will be plunder to their servants.' Then you will know that ADONAI - Tzva'ot has sent me.

14 (10) "Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion! For behold, I am coming and I will live among you' †††—it is a declaration of ADONAI. 15 (11) 'In that day many nations will join themselves to ADONAI and they will be My people and I will dwell among you.' Then you will know that ADONAI - Tzva'ot has sent me to you. 16 (12) ADONAI will inherit Judah as His portion in the holy land and will once again choose Jerusalem. 17 (13) Be silent before ADONAI, all flesh, for He has aroused Himself from His holy dwelling."

Joshua the Kohen Gadol

3 Then he showed me Joshua the kohen gadol standing before the angel of ADONAI and the satan, † standing at his right hand to accuse him. †† ADONAI said to the satan, “ADONAI rebukes you, the satan. Indeed ADONAI, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebukes you. ‡ Is not this man a brand plucked out of the fire?”

3 Now Joshua was wearing filthy garments and standing before the angel 4 who answered and spoke to those standing before him saying, “Remove the filthy garments from him.” Then to Joshua he said, “See, I have removed your iniquity from you and will dress you with fine clothing.” ‡

5 Then I said, “Place a clean turban on his head.”

So they put a pure turban on his head and clothed him with garments while the angel of ADONAI stood by.

6 The angel of ADONAI exhorted Joshua saying:

7 “Thus says ADONAI - Tzva’ot, ‘If you will walk in My ways and keep My charge, then you will judge My House and watch over My courts and I will give you a place to walk among these standing here. 8 Listen well, Joshua kohen gadol, both you and your companions seated before you, because they are men who are a sign—behold, I will bring forth My servant the Branch. 9 For behold! The stone I have laid before Joshua is one stone with seven facets. On it I will engrave an inscription,’ declares ADONAI -Tzva’ot, ‘that I will remove the iniquity of this land in one day. 10 In that day,’ declares ADONAI -Tzva’ot, ‘every man will invite his neighbor to sit under the vine and under the fig tree.’”

Two Olive Trees and the Capstone

4 Then the angel who had been speaking with me returned and woke me—like a man who is wakened from his sleep.

2 He asked me, “What do you see?”

I replied, “Behold, I see a solid gold menorah with its bowl at the top of it, and its seven lamps on it with seven pipes for the lamps that are on the top of it. 3 Also two olive trees are by it, one on the right side of the bowl and the other on the left side of it.” ‡

4 Then I responded by saying to the angel speaking with me, “What are these, my lord?”

5 The angel who spoke with me responded by asking me, “You do not know what these are?”

I replied, “No, my lord.”

6 Then he responded to me by saying, “This is the word of ADONAI to Zerubbabel saying: ‘Not by might, nor by power, but by My Ruach!’ says ADONAI - Tzva’ot. 7 ‘What are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain. He will bring out the capstone with shouts of “Grace, grace” to it.’”

8 Again the word of ADONAI came to me saying: 9 “The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this House. His hands will also finish it. Then you will know that ADONAI - Tzva’ot has sent me to you. 10 For who despises the day of small things? These seven—which are the eyes of ADONAI that run back and forth throughout the whole earth—will rejoice when they see the plumb line in Zerubbabel’s hand.”

11 Then I responded by asking him, “What are these two olive trees, on the right and on the left of the menorah?” 12 Again I asked him, “What are these two olive branches beside the two golden pipes that empty the golden oil out of them?”

13 He said to me, “You do not know what these are?” I said, “No, my lord.”

14 So he said, “These are the two anointed ones, who are standing by the Lord of the whole earth.”

Flying Scroll and Basket

5 Once again I lifted up my eyes and behold, I saw a flying scroll!

2 Then the angel asked me, “What do you see?”

I replied, “I see a flying scroll 20 cubits long and 10 cubits wide.”

3 He said to me: “This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole land: everyone who steals will be swept away from here according to it, and everyone who swears will be swept away from here according to it. 4 I will send it out”—it is a declaration of ADONAI -Tzva’ot—“and it will enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one who swears falsely by My Name and will reside inside his house destroying it, both its wood and its stones.”

5 Then the angel speaking with me came forward, and said to me, “Now lift up your eyes and see what is appearing.”

6 I asked, “What is it?”

He replied, “This is the measuring basket ‡‡ that goes out.” He continued, “This is their eye in all the land.” 7 Then behold, a lead cover was lifted and a woman was sitting in the middle of the measuring basket. 8 The angel exclaimed, “This is Wickedness!” Then he shoved her back inside the measuring basket, throwing the lead weight over its mouth.

9 After this I lifted up my eyes and behold, I saw two women emerging with the wind in their wings (they had wings like the wings of a stork) and they raised the measuring basket between the earth and the heaven.

10 I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “Where are they taking the measuring basket?”

11 He said, “To build a temple for her in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will live there in her own place.”

Four Chariots

6 Again I lifted up my eyes, and behold, I saw four chariots emerging from between the two mountains—mountains of bronze! 2 The first chariot had red horses, the second chariot black horses, 3 the third

‡‡ Hebrew ephah

chariot white horses, and the fourth chariot had strong dappled horses. †

⁴ Then I responded by saying to the angel speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?"

⁵ The angel answered me saying, "These are the four winds of heaven that go forth from the presence of the Lord of all the earth. ††⁶ The chariot with the black horses is going to the land of the north and the white ones have gone out after them, but the dappled ones have gone out to the land of the south." ⁷ When the strong ones went out, they requested to go to walk throughout the earth. He said, "Go! Walk throughout the earth." So they walked throughout the earth.

⁸ Then he called and spoke to me saying, "Look! Those going toward the land of the north have given rest to My Ruach in the north country."

Crowns for Joshua

⁹ And the word of ADONAI came to me saying: ¹⁰ "Take from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah who have come from Babylon, and go the same day, go to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah! ¹¹ Take silver and gold, make crowns and set on the head of Joshua son of Johozadak, the kohen gadol. ¹² Then speak to him saying, 'Thus says ADONAI- Tzva'ot: Behold, a man whose Name is the Branch will branch out from his place and build the Temple of ADONAI. ¹³ He will build the Temple of ADONAI. He will bear splendor and sit and rule on His throne. Thus He will be a kohen on His throne. So a counsel of shalom will be between them both. ¹⁴ The crowns will be in the Temple of ADONAI as a memorial to Helem, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, and to Chen son of Zephaniah. ¹⁵ Those who are far off will come and build in the Temple of ADONAI.' Then you will know that ADONAI- Tzva'ot has sent me to you. It will come to pass if you diligently obey the voice of ADONAI your God."

Justice and Chesed

⁷ In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of ADONAI came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, in Kislev. ² Now Beth-El sent Sarezzer and Regem-Melech together with his men to seek the favor of ADONAI, ³ and to speak to the kohanim of the House of ADONAI- Tzva'ot and to the prophets saying, "Should I mourn and consecrate myself in the fifth month as I have done for so many years?"

⁴ Then the word of ADONAI- Tzva'ot came to me saying: ⁵ "Speak to all the people of the land and to the kohanim saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh months for the past 70 years, did you really fast for Me? ⁶ When you eat and drink, are you not eating and drinking for yourself? ⁷ Are not these the words that ADONAI proclaimed through the former prophets when Jerusalem with its surrounding cities were inhabited and prosperous, when the Negev and the lowland were inhabited?"

⁸ Again the word of ADONAI came to Zechariah saying, ⁹ "Thus says ADONAI- Tzva'ot: 'Administer true judgment and practice mercy and compassion each to his brother. ¹⁰ Do not oppress the widow or the orphan, the outsider or the poor. Furthermore, do not let any of you devise evil against one another in your heart.'

¹¹ "But they refused to pay attention. They stubbornly turned their backs and stopped their ears from hearing. ¹² Indeed, they made their hearts as hard as flint preventing them from hearing the Torah or the words that ADONAI- Tzva'ot sent by His Ruach through the former prophets. Consequently, great wrath came from ADONAI- Tzva'ot. ¹³ It came about that just as He called and they did not listen, so they would call and I would not listen, says ADONAI- Tzva'ot. ¹⁴ I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations they have not known. Thus the land was left so desolate behind them that no one passed through or returned, for they made the pleasant land desolate."

Zealous for Zion

⁸ Then the word of ADONAI- Tzva'ot came saying: ² "Thus says ADONAI- Tzva'ot, 'I am exceedingly zealous for Zion, I am burning with jealousy for her.' ³ Thus says ADONAI, 'I will return to Zion and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth and the mountain of ADONAI- Tzva'ot will be called the Holy Mountain.' ⁴ Thus says ADONAI- Tzva'ot, "Once again old men and old women will sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each with his staff in his hand because of his age. ⁵ The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

⁶ "Thus says ADONAI- Tzva'ot, 'It may seem difficult in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, but will it also be difficult in My eyes?'—it is a declaration of ADONAI- Tzva'ot. ⁷ Thus says ADONAI- Tzva'ot, 'Behold, I will save My people from the land of the east and from the land of the west. ⁸ I will bring them back and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem. They will be My people and I will be their God, in truth and righteousness.' ⁹ Thus says ADONAI- Tzva'ot, 'Let your hands be strong—you who hear these words spoken by the prophets who were there the day the foundation of the House of ADONAI- Tzva'ot was laid—so that the Temple may be rebuilt. ¹⁰ Before those days there were no wages for man or animal, nor was there any shalom from adversity for those who came or went because I set every one against his neighbor. ¹¹ But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days'—it is a declaration of ADONAI- Tzva'ot.

¹² 'For there will be a sowing of shalom: the vine will yield its fruit, the ground will produce its increase, and the heavens will give their dew. I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. ¹³ It will happen that just as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you and you will be a blessing. Fear not! Let your hands be strong!

‡ cf. Heb. 8:10.

¹⁴“For thus says ADONAI- Tzva’ot, ‘Just as I determined to harm you when your fathers provoked Me to anger,’ says ADONAI- Tzva’ot, ‘and I did not relent, ¹⁵ so I have again determined in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Fear not!

¹⁶These are the things that you are to do: speak the truth one to another; administer the judgment of truth and shalom in your gates; ¹⁷do not let any of you devise evil in your hearts against your neighbor; and do not love false oaths, for I hate all these things,—it is a declaration of ADONAI.”

¹⁸Again the word of ADONAI- Tzva’ot came saying: ¹⁹“Thus says ADONAI- Tzva’ot, ‘The fast of the fourth, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth month will become joy, gladness, and cheerful moadim. Therefore, love truth and shalom!’ ²⁰Thus says ADONAI- Tzva’ot, ‘Peoples and the inhabitants of many cities will again come. ²¹The inhabitants of one city will go to another saying “Let us go to entreat the favor of ADONAI and to seek ADONAI- Tzva’ot. I also am going.” ²²Indeed, many peoples and powerful nations will come to seek ADONAI- Tzva’ot in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of ADONAI.’ ²³Thus says ADONAI- Tzva’ot, ‘In those days it will come to pass that ten men from every language of the nations will grasp the corner of the garment of a Jew saying, “Let us go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.”’”

Judgment on Israel's Enemies

9 The burden ^{††} of the word of ADONAI is against the land of Hadrach and will rest upon Damascus. For the eyes of men and all the tribes of Israel are toward ADONAI — ²and also upon Hamath bordering it, and upon Tyre and Sidon, though they are very shrewd.
³Tyre built herself a fortress and heaped up silver like dust and fine gold like dirt in the streets.
⁴Behold, the Lord will impoverish her and destroy her power on the sea, while she will be devoured by fire.
⁵Ashkelon will see it and fear. Gaza will writhe in pain as will Ekron because her hope will dry up. The king will perish from Gaza and Ashkelon will be uninhabited.
⁶A mongrel people will live in Ashdod and I will cut off the Philistines’ pride.
⁷I will remove the blood from his mouth, forbidden food from between his teeth. Whoever is left will be a remnant for our God.

† cf. Eph. 4:25. †† Or weighty oracle

He will be like a leader in Judah, and Ekron will be like a Jebusite.
⁸But I will camp around My House against marauding forces. No oppressor will overrun them again—for now I watch with My own eyes.

Zion's Coming King

⁹Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion! Shout, daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you, a righteous one bringing salvation. He is lowly, riding on a donkey— on a colt, the foal of a donkey. ‡
¹⁰I will banish chariots from Ephraim and horses from Jerusalem, and the war bow will be broken. He will speak shalom to the nations. His rule will extend from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth.
¹¹As for you also, by the blood of your covenant, † I will release your prisoners from the waterless Pit.
¹²Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope! Today I declare that I will restore twice as much to you.
¹³I will bend Judah as my bow and fill it with Ephraim. I will rouse your sons, O Zion against your sons, O Greece. I will wield you like a warrior’s sword.
¹⁴Then ADONAI will be seen over them as His arrow flashes like lightning. ADONAI Elohim will blow the shofar and march in whirlwinds of the south. ††
¹⁵*ADONAI- Tzva’ot* will defend them. They will consume and conquer with sling stones. They will drink and roar as with wine and be filled like a bowl, like the corners of the altar.
¹⁶*ADONAI* their God will save them on that day as the flock of His people. They will be like gems of a crown sparkling over His land.
¹⁷How good and beautiful it will be! Grain will make the young men thrive and new wine the virgin women.

Good Shepherd Cares for Judah

10 Ask ADONAI for rain in spring! ADONAI makes the storm clouds and will give rain showers and plants of the field to everyone.
²The idols utter deceit and diviners see lies. They relate false dreams and comfort in vain.

 Therefore the people wander like sheep, afflicted because there is no shepherd. † 3 "My anger burns against the shepherds and I will punish the leaders. †† ADONAI- Tzva'ot cares for His flock,
 the house of Judah.
 He will make them His valiant steed in battle.
 4 From Judah will come the cornerstone, ‡ from him the tent peg, from him the battle bow and from him every leader together.
 5 They will be like mighty men treading down muddy streets in war.
 They will fight, because ADONAI is with them and will put horsemen to shame.
 6 I will strengthen the house of Judah and save the house of Joseph.
 I will bring them back,
 for I have compassion on them.
 They will be as though I had never spurned them, for I am ADONAI their God
 and I will answer them!
 7 The Ephraimites will be like a warrior.
 Their hearts will be glad as with wine.
 Their children will see and be glad.
 Their hearts will rejoice in ADONAI.
 8 I will signal for them and gather them.
 Surely I will redeem them and they will be as numerous as before.
 9 Though I scatter them among the peoples,
 they will remember Me in distant places.
 They and their children will survive and return.
 10 I will restore from the land of Egypt and gather them from Assyria.
 I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon
 till there is no room for them.
 11 He will cross the turbulent sea and calm its raging waves.
 All the depths of the Nile will dry up,
 the pride of Assyria brought down,
 the scepter of Egypt removed.
 12 So I will strengthen them in ADONAI and they will walk in His Name."
 It is a declaration of ADONAI.

Devastation of Surrounding Lands

11 Open your gates, Lebanon—fire will devour your cedars!
 2 Wail, cypress tree! For the cedar has fallen.
 Those majestic ones are devastated.
 Wail, oaks of Bashan!
 For the thick forest is cut down!
 3 Listen to the wailing of the shepherds,

† cf. Matt. 9:36; Mark 6:34; John 10:12. †† Lit. male goats for their glory is destroyed!

 Listen to the roaring of young lions,
 for Jordan's thickets are ruined!

Two Staffs

4 Thus said ADONAI my God: "Shepherd the flock marked for slaughter! 5 Their buyers slay them and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be ADONAI, for I am rich!' Their own shepherds do not spare them. 6 I will no longer have compassion on the inhabitants of the land"—it is a declaration of ADONAI.
 "Behold, I will hand everyone over to his neighbor and his king. They will devastate the land, and I will not deliver them from their hand."

7 So I pastured the flock for the slaughter, especially the afflicted of the flock. Then I took two staffs—one I called Favor and the other I called Union—and I pastured the flock. 8 Next I disposed of the three shepherds in one month—for my soul was impatient with them and their soul also detested me. 9 Then I said, "I will not shepherd you! Let the dying die, let the perishing perish, and let those who are left eat one another's flesh!" 10 So I took my staff called Favor and broke it to pieces, in order to break my covenant that I made with all people. 11 It was broken on that day. The afflicted of the flock that were watching me knew that this was the word of ADONAI.

12 Then I said to them, "If it seems good to you, pay me my wages, but if not, don't bother!" So they weighed out my wages—30 pieces of silver. ††

13 Then ADONAI said to me, "Throw it to the potter—that exorbitant price at which they valued Me!" So I took the 30 pieces of silver and threw them into the House of ADONAI, to the potter. †

14 Then I broke my second staff called Union, in order to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.
 15 Again ADONAI said to me, "Once more take up the equipment of a foolish shepherd! 16 For behold, I am going to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not care for the dying, seek out the young, or heal the injured, or nourish the healthy. Instead he will eat the meat of the choice sheep, even tearing off their hoofs.

17 "Woe to the worthless shepherd who deserts the flock! †††

May a sword fell his arm and his right eye!
 May his arm be all withered and his right eye totally blinded!"

Jerusalem, a Cup of Reeling

12 The burden of the word of ADONAI concerning Israel.

A declaration of ADONAI, who stretched out the heavens, laid the foundation of the earth and formed the spirit of man within him: 2 "Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples when they besiege Jerusalem as well as Judah. ³ Moreover, in that day I will make Jerusalem a massive stone for all the people. All who try to lift it will be cut to pieces. Nevertheless, all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against her. ⁴ In that day—it is a declaration of ADONAI—"I will strike every horse with confusion and its rider with madness. I will keep My eyes on the house of Judah but will blind every horse of the peoples. ⁵ Then the leaders of Judah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength through ADONAI- Tzva'ot their God.'

⁶ "In that day I will make the leaders of Judah like a firepot in a woodpile, like a burning torch among sheaves. They will devour on the right and on the left all the surrounding peoples, yet Jerusalem will remain in her place, in Jerusalem. ⁷ ADONAI also will save the tents of Judah first, so that the honor of the house of David and the honor of the inhabitants of Jerusalem will not exceed that of Judah. ⁸ In that day ADONAI will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem so that the weakest among them that day will be like David and the house of David will be like God—like the angel of ADONAI before them. ⁹ It will happen in that day that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

¹⁰ "Then I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and supplication, when they will look toward Me whom they pierced. [†] They will mourn for him as one mourns for an only son and grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for a firstborn. ¹¹ In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, mourning like Hadad-Rimmon in the valley of Megiddo. ¹² The land will mourn clan by clan. The clan of the house of David by itself and their wives by themselves, the clan of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves, ¹³ the clan of the house of Levi by itself and their wives by themselves, the clan of the Shimeites by itself and their wives by themselves. ¹⁴ Each of the remaining clans will mourn by itself and their wives by themselves."

Final Cleansing from Sin

13 "In that day a spring will be opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem to cleanse them from sin and impurity. [‡] It will happen in that day—it is a declaration of ADONAI-Tzva'ot—"that I will erase the names of the idols from the land and they will no longer be remembered. Furthermore, I will remove the prophets and the unclean spirit from the land. ³ If anyone still prophesies, his father and his mother to whom he was born will say to him, 'You cannot live because you tell lies in the Name of ADONAI.' When he prophesies, his own father and mother, the ones who bore him, will pierce him through. ⁴ Therefore, in that day each 'prophet' will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies. He will no longer wear a hairy mantle in order to deceive ⁵ but will say, 'I am not a prophet. I am a farmer—I have been a bondservant from my youth.' ⁶ Then someone will ask him, 'What are these wounds between your hands?'—and he will answer, 'Those that I received in the house of my friends.'

⁷ "Awake, O sword, against My shepherd, against the man who is My companion!"

It is a declaration of ADONAI- Tzva'ot.

"Strike the shepherd

and the sheep will be scattered! [‡]

I will turn My hand against the little ones.

⁸ Then it will happen"

—it is a declaration of ADONAI—

"that in the entire land

two-thirds will be cut off and die,

but a third will be left in it.

⁹ This third I will bring through the fire.

I will refine them as silver is refined,

and will test them as gold is tested.

They will call on My Name

and I will answer them.

I will say, 'They are My people,' and they will answer, 'ADONAI is my God.'" [‡]

Coming to the Mount of Olives

14 Behold, a day of ADONAI is coming when your plunder will be divided in your midst. ² I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to wage war. The city shall be captured, the houses ransacked, and the women ravished. Half of the city will be exiled but the remainder of the people will not be cut off from the city. ³ Then ADONAI will go forth and fight against those nations as He fights in a day of battle. ⁴ In that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives which lies to the east of Jerusalem, and the Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west, forming a huge valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north and half of it toward the south. ⁵ Then you will flee through My mountain valley because the mountain valley will reach to Azel. Yes, you will flee like you fled from the earthquake in the days of king Uzziah of Judah. Then ADONAI my God will come and all the kedoshim with Him. [‡]

⁶ In that day there will be no light, cold, or frost. ⁷ It will be a day known only to ADONAI, neither day nor night—even in the evening time there will be light. ^{‡‡} Moreover, in that day living waters will flow from Jerusalem, half toward the eastern sea and half toward the western sea, both in the summer and in the winter. ^{‡‡‡} ADONAI will then be King over all the earth. In that day ADONAI will be Echad and His Name Echad. [§]

¹⁶ Then all the survivors from all the nations that attacked Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, ADONAI- Tzva'ot, and to celebrate Sukkot. ¹⁷ Furthermore, if any of the nations on earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, ADONAI- Tzva'ot, they will have no rain. ¹⁸ If the Egyptians do not go up and celebrate, they will have no rain. Instead, there will be the plague that ADONAI will inflict on the nations that do not go up to celebrate Sukkot. ¹⁹ This will be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations that do not go up to celebrate Sukkot. ²⁰ In that day "Holy to ADONAI" will be inscribed on the bells of the horses, and the pots in the House of ADONAI will be like the sacred bowls in front of the altar. ²¹ In fact every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to ADONAI- Tzva'ot, so that everyone who comes to sacrifice will take them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite [†] in the House of ADONAI- Tzva'ot. ^{††}

Malachi

Malachi Introduction

Malachi can be translated from the Hebrew as “my messenger” or “my angel.” And what a message he had! Chronologically, Malachi appeared at the end of the post-exilic era and is understood to have been the last of Judah’s prophets. Written to Judean exiles who had returned from the Babylonian captivity to rebuild the Temple, the messenger called these Judean returnees to return to God and repent of their lackluster resolve to serve Him properly.

Malachi was a contemporary of Nehemiah, who also spoke to the newly reconstituted community in the land of Judea. For Malachi’s part, he exhorted the people to build up the ancestral capital, and make necessary religious and social amends. Sacrifices had restarted in the prophet’s day, prompting him to address matters associated with their utilization. Both priestly and civil leaders were in place at the time of his writing, causing him to address issues associated with their poor performances.

From the very first chapter, Malachi reminds the nation that they are loved, valued and not forgotten by God—though they began neglecting Him. With an understanding that religious negligence prompted God to withdraw His protection from their fathers who incurred the previous judgment of exile, it is indeed tragic to discover their offspring slipping back into similar wayward ways.

Here, the Temple priests are accused of taking shortcuts with their worship. The people, in general, are represented as moving into different forms of worship, going after other gods, and neglecting the God of Israel with their hearts, their minds, and their resources. Significant in the book of Malachi is the mention again of marriage. Mirroring the marriage themes discussed in the book of Hosea, Malachi uses this relationship to remind the nation of His commitment to the covenant He made with Abraham. Malachi records that “God hates” divorce.

The book ends with a promise that a forerunner of the Messiah will yet come, Elijah the prophet. He, we are told, will turn people’s hearts back to God. Since this time, on Passover tables around the world, Jews set a place for Elijah, hoping that the prophecy made at the end of Malachi would soon come true. It has. In the New Covenant, when the angel Gabriel spoke to Elizabeth and Zachariah about the birth of their son, it was this passage the Angel quoted. We can have confidence that Elijah has returned.

Jacob Loved ADONAI

1 An oracle: † The word of ADONAI to Israel by Malachi. ††

²“I loved you,” says ADONAI .

But you say: “How have You loved us?”

“Was Esau not Jacob’s brother?”

—it is the declaration of ADONAI —

“Yet I loved Jacob ³ and Esau I hated.

† Or burden †† Or My messenger My angel

I made his hills a wasteland and gave his inheritance to jackals of the wilderness.”

⁴ For Edom may say,

“We have been beaten down,
 but we will return and rebuild the ruins.”

Thus ADONAI - Tzva’ot says:

“They may rebuild but I will tear down.

They will be called a wicked territory,
 the people ADONAI denounced forever.

⁵ So you will see, and you will say:

'May ADONAI be magnified beyond the border of Israel!'

Despicable Sacrifices

⁶"A son honors his father, and a servant his master. So if I am Father, where is My honor? If I am Master, where is My reverence?"—says ADONAI - Tzva'ot—"you, kohanim who despise My Name!"

"But you say, 'How did we despise Your Name?'

⁷"By offering defiled bread on My altar. But you say, 'How did we defile You?' When you say, 'The table of ADONAI is despicable.'

⁸"When you bring a blind one as sacrifice, is it not wrong? Or when you bring a lame or sick one, is it not wrong? Offer them now to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Or will he acknowledge you favorably?" says ADONAI - Tzva'ot .

⁹"So now, implore God's favor! Then, will He be gracious to us? Since this has come from your hands, will He accept any of it from you?" says ADONAI - Tzva'ot .

¹⁰"If just one of you would shut the doors, and not light My altar uselessly! I have no delight in you," says ADONAI - Tzva'ot . "Nor will I accept any offering from your hand.

¹¹"For from sunrise to its setting † My Name will be great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to My Name with a pure grain offering, for My Name will be great among the nations," says ADONAI - Tzva'ot .

¹²"But you are profaning it when you say, 'The table of ADONAI is defiled, and as for its fruit, its food—despicable!' ¹³You also say, 'It's so tedious!'

"And you sniff at it," says ADONAI - Tzva'ot . "So you bring plunder, the lame, and the sick. Then you bring them as the offering. Should I accept this from your hand?" says ADONAI .

¹⁴"Moreover, cursed is a deceiver who has in his flock a male, but makes a vow and sacrifices something blemished to my Lord. For I am a great King," says ADONAI - Tzva'ot , "and My Name shall be revered among the nations."

Warning to the Kohanim and Levites

2 "So now, kohanim , this commandment is for you. ²If you will not listen, and if you will not take to heart to give glory to My Name"

—says ADONAI -Tzva'ot —

"then I will send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings.

Yes, indeed I have cursed them, because you did not take it to heart.

³Behold, I am rebuking the seed on account of you, and will spread dung on your faces—the dung of your festivals—and take you away together with it.

⁴Then you will know that I have sent this command to you, to be My covenant with Levi," says ADONAI -Tzva'ot .

⁵"My covenant was with him for life and shalom , and I gave them to him for reverence. So he revered Me, and he was awestruck by My Name.

⁶Instruction of truth was in his mouth. Injustice was not found on his lips.

In shalom and uprightness he walked with Me, and he turned many from iniquity.

⁷For a kohen's lips should guard knowledge, and instruction must be sought from his mouth. For he is a messenger of ADONAI - Tzva'ot .

⁸But you have turned from the way. You caused many to stumble in Torah by the instruction,

You corrupted the covenant of the Levites," —says ADONAI -Tzva'ot .

⁹"So I also have made you despised and lowly to all the people, because you are not keeping My ways but show favoritism in Torah ."

¹⁰Do we not all have one Father?

Has not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously—a man against his brother—defiling the covenant of our fathers?

¹¹Judah has dealt treacherously, an abomination done in Israel, even in Jerusalem! For Judah has defiled ADONAI 's Sanctuary, which He loves, and married the daughter of a foreign god.

¹² ADONAI will cut off the man who does this, until he is cast from the tents of Jacob, and from offering a gift to ADONAI - Tzva'ot .

Covenant with Your Wife

¹³Secondly, you do this: Tears cover the altar of ADONAI — you are weeping and groaning because He no longer accepts the offering or receives it favorably from your hand.

¹⁴Yet you say, "Why?"

Because ADONAI bears witness between you and the wife of your youth, whom you have treated deceitfully. Yet she had been your companion and your wife by covenant.

¹⁵Did the One not make her with a remnant of Ruach ?

Then what is the One seeking?

Offspring of God!

So protect your spirit—do not betray the wife of your youth.

¹⁶"For I hate †† divorce,"

† cf. Matt. 8:11.

†† Lit. He hates

—says ADONAI the God of Israel—“and the one who covers his garment with injustice,”
 says ADONAI -Tzva’ot .
 So protect your spirit—do not act treacherously.
¹⁷ You wearied ADONAI with your words.
 Yet you say: “How did we weary Him?”
 When you say: “Everyone doing evil is good in the sight of ADONAI, and He delights in them.” Or, “Where is the God of justice?”

My Messenger is Coming

3 “Behold, I am sending My messenger †, and He will clear the way before Me. †† Suddenly He will come to His Temple
 —the Lord whom you seek—and the Messenger of the covenant
 —the One whom you desire—behold, He is coming,”
 says ADONAI -Tzva’ot .
² But who can endure the day of His coming?
 Or who can stand when He appears? ‡ For He will be like a refiner’s fire, †† and like soap for cleaning raw wool.
³ And He will sit as a smelter or a purifier of silver, and He will cleanse the sons of Levi,
 and purify them like gold or silver.
 Then they will become for ADONAI
 those who present an offering in righteousness.
⁴ Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to ADONAI,
 as in days of antiquity and years of old.
⁵ “Then I will draw near to you in judgment, and I will be a swift witness against sorcerers, adulterers, perjurers,
 those who extort a worker’s wage,
 or oppress the widow or an orphan,
 those who mislead a stranger.
 They do not fear Me,”
 says ADONAI - Tzva’ot .
⁶ “For I am ADONAI . I do not change,
 So you, children of Jacob, are not consumed.

Bring the Whole Tithe

⁷ “From the days of your ancestors you have turned aside from My statutes, and have not kept them. Return to Me, and I will return to you,” says ADONAI - Tzva’ot .
 “Yet you say: ‘How should we return?’
⁸ “Will a man rob †† God? For you are robbing Me!”
 “But you say: ‘How have we robbed You?’
 “In the tithe and the offering. ⁹ You have been cursed with the curse, yet you keep robbing Me—the whole nation! ¹⁰ Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse.
 Then there will be food in My House. Now test Me in this”—says ADONAI - Tzva’ot —“if I will not open for you † Hebrew Malachi †† cf. Matt. 3:3; 11:10. ‡ cf. Rev. 6:17.

 †† cf. Matt. 3:10-12; 1 Cor. 3:13-15. †† Or hold back defraud the windows of heaven, and pour out blessing for you, until no one is without enough. ¹¹ I will rebuke the devouring pest for you, so it will not destroy the fruit of your land, nor will your vine be barren in the field,” ADONAI - Tzva’ot says. ¹² “All the nations will call you blessed. For you will be a land of delight,” says ADONAI

 - Tzva’ot .

¹³ “Your words against Me are grievous,” says ADONAI

“Yet you say: ‘What did we say against You?’

¹⁴ “You say: ‘Serving God is worthless.’ Also: ‘What good is it that we kept His service or that we walked as mourners before ADONAI - Tzva’ot ?’ ¹⁵ So now we are calling the proud blessed. Those who practice iniquity are built up. Indeed, they have tested God, and escaped!”

¹⁶ Then those who revere ADONAI spoke with each other, and ADONAI took notice and heard, and a scroll of remembrance ††† was written before Him, for those who revere ADONAI, even those who esteem His Name.

¹⁷ “So they shall be Mine,”—says ADONAI - Tzva’ot — in the day I make My own special possession. So I will spare them, as one spares his son serving him. ¹⁸ Then you will return and distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.”

The Day Is Coming

¹⁹ (4:1) “For behold, the day is coming —it will burn like a furnace—when all the proud and every evildoer will become stubble.

The day that is coming will set them ablaze”

—says ADONAI -Tzva’ot —
 “leaving them neither root nor branch.

²⁰ (4:2) “But for you who revere My Name, the sun of righteousness will rise,
 with healing in its wings.

Then you will go forth and skip about like calves from the stall.

²¹ (4:3) You will trample on the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I am making,”

says ADONAI -Tzva’ot .

²² (4:4) “Remember the Torah of Moses My servant, whom I commanded at Horeb—statutes and ordinances for all Israel.

²³ (4:5) “Behold, I am going to send you Elijah the prophet †††, before the coming of the great and terrible day of ADONAI . ²⁴ (4:6) He will turn the hearts of fathers to the children, and the hearts of children to their fathers—else I will come and strike the land with utter destruction.”

††† cf. Luke 10:20; Rev. 3:5; 20:11-15. ††† cf. Matt. 11:14;

Matthew

Introduction

None of the Gospels originally came with titles, but the Gospel of Matthew was most likely written by Matthew, also called Levi. He was a tax collector and one of the twelve emissaries. The Gospel was written sometime around 70–85 C.E.

Matthew is one of the two most “Jewish” Gospels, along with John. With a first-century Jewish audience in mind and drawing richly on references to the , it paints a picture of as the fulfillment of the Messianic hope, the promised Messiah, and the King of Israel (whose kingdom is both future, yet begun now). In this way Matthew shows that ’s coming, His person, and His work of atonement is the fulfillment of God’s promises given in the Hebrew Bible—the promises of the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Matthew also emphasizes as the One who fulfills the . And as a Jew, Matthew has significant things to say about the Jewish leadership of his day and their attitude toward , as relevant today as in the first century. Though Jewish in its orientation, the Gospel ends with a call to make disciples of nations, thereby showing the worldwide implications of ’s coming. Whereas the shorter Gospel of Mark focuses on ’s deeds, Matthew is richer in giving us ’s teaching and in portraying as the authoritative teacher of Israel. There are five teaching sections, each ending with “when had finished ...” Chief among these are the Sermon on the Mount, the large number of parables, and ’s teaching on the end of the age. Matthew, along with Luke, also tells of the events surrounding ’s virgin birth. The breadth of Matthew’s Gospel makes it suitable for Jewish people willing to study what God has promised in the concerning the Messiah, and also for anyone who wants to learn something about , His relation to the Hebrew Bible, and the dynamics of faith in within the Jewish community.

Forefathers of Yeshua the Messiah

1 The book of the genealogy [†] of Yeshua ha-Mashiach, Ben-David, ^{††} Ben-Avraham: ² Abraham fathered Isaac, Isaac fathered Jacob, Jacob fathered Judah and his brothers, ³ Judah fathered Perez and Zerah by Tamar, [‡] Perez fathered Hezron, Hezron fathered Ram, ⁴ Ram fathered Amminadab, Amminadab fathered Nahshon, Nahshon fathered Salmon, ⁵ Salmon fathered Boaz by Rahab, Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth, ^{††} Obed fathered Jesse, ⁶ and Jesse fathered David the king.

David fathered Solomon by the wife of Uriah, ^{##7} Solomon fathered Rehoboam, Rehoboam fathered Abijah, Abijah fathered Asa, ⁸ Asa fathered Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat fathered Joram, Joram fathered Uzziah, ⁹ Uzziah fathered Jotham, Jotham fathered Ahaz, Ahaz fathered Hezekiah, ¹⁰ Hezekiah fathered Manasseh, Manasseh fathered Amon, Amon fathered Josiah, ¹¹ and Josiah fathered Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

¹² After the Babylonian exile Jeconiah fathered Shealtiel, Shealtiel fathered Zerubbabel, ¹³ Zerubbabel fathered Abiud, Abiud fathered Eliakim, Eliakim fathered Azor, ¹⁴ Azor fathered Zadok, Zadok fathered Achim, Achim fathered Eliud, ¹⁵ Eliud fathered Eleazar, Eleazar fathered Matthan, Matthan fathered Jacob, ¹⁶ and Jacob fathered Joseph the husband of Miriam, from whom was born Yeshua who is called the Messiah. ¹⁷ So all the generations from Abraham to David are 14 generations, from David until the Babylonian exile are 14 generations, and from the Babylonian exile until the Messiah are 14 generations.

The Miraculous Birth of Yeshua

¹⁸ Now the birth of Yeshua the Messiah happened this way. When His mother Miriam was engaged to Joseph but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ¹⁹ And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man and not wanting to disgrace her publicly, made up his mind to dismiss her secretly. ²⁰ But while he considered these things, behold, an angel of ADONAI appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Miriam as your wife, for the Child conceived in her is from the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ²¹ She will give birth to a son; and you shall call His name Yeshua, for He will save His people from their sins."

[†] The Greek term is genesis ^{††} cf. 2 Sam. 7:12-16; Ps. 89:4-5(3-4); Isa. 9:5-6(6-7). [‡] cf. Gen. 38:24-30. ^{††} cf. Ruth 4:12-17. ^{##} cf. 2 Sam. 12:24.

²² Now all this took place to fulfill what was spoken by ADONAI through the prophet, saying, ²³ "Behold, the virgin shall conceive and give birth to a son, and they shall call His name Immanuel," which means "God with us." ^{##†}

²⁴ When Joseph woke up from his sleep, he did as the angel of ADONAI commanded him and took Miriam as his wife. ²⁵ But he did not know her intimately until she had given birth to a Son. And he called His name Yeshua.

Wise Men Follow His Star

2 Now after Yeshua was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, magi from the east came to Jerusalem, ² saying, "Where is the One who has been born King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east and have come to worship Him." ^{##}

³ When King Herod heard, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. ⁴ And when he had called together all the ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, he began to inquire of them where the Messiah was to be born. ⁵ So they told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for so it has been written by the prophet:

⁶ "And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; For out of you shall come a ruler who will shepherd My people Israel." ^{##§}

⁷ Then Herod secretly called the magi and determined from them the exact time the star had appeared. ⁸ And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search carefully for the Child. And when you have found Him, bring word back to me so that I may come and worship Him as well."

^{##†} Isa. 7:14; 8:8, 10. ^{##†} cf. Isa. 9:5-6(6-7); Jer. 23:5; 30:9. [§] Mic. 5:1(2); cf. 2 Sam. 5:2.

⁹ After listening to the king, they went their way. And behold, the star they had seen in the east went on before them, until it came to rest over the place where the Child was. ¹⁰ When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great gladness. ¹¹ And when they came into the house, they saw the Child with His mother Miriam; and they fell down and worshiped Him. Then, opening their treasures, they presented to Him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹² And having been warned in a dream not to go back to Herod, they returned to their own country by another way.

The Angel of ADONAI Appears

¹³ Now when they had gone, behold, an angel of ADONAI appears to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Get up! Take the Child and His mother and flee to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is about to search for the Child, to kill Him." ^{††}

¹⁴ So he got up, took the Child and His mother during the night, and went to Egypt. ¹⁵ He stayed there until Herod's death. This was to fulfill what was spoken by ADONAI through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called My son." [‡]

¹⁶ Then when Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he became furious. And he sent and killed all boys in Bethlehem and in all its surrounding area, from two years old and under, according to the time he had determined from the magi. ¹⁷ Then was fulfilled what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁸ "A voice is heard in Ramah, weeping and loud wailing, Rachel sobbing for her children and refusing to be comforted,
because they are no more." ^{‡†}

²¹ So he got up, took the Child and His mother, and went to the land of Israel. ²² But hearing that Archelaus was king of Judea in place of his father Herod, he became afraid to go there. Then after being warned in a dream, he withdrew to the region of the Galilee. ²³ And he went and lived in a city called Natzeret, ^{‡‡} to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets, that Yeshua shall be called a Natzrati.

John's Witness to Israel's Leaders

³ In those days, John the Immerser came proclaiming in the wilderness of Judea, ² "Turn away from your sins, for the kingdom of heaven is near!" ^{‡‡‡} For he is the one Isaiah the prophet spoke about, saying, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

[†] cf. Ps. 72:10-11. ^{††} cf. Exod. 1:16. [‡] Hos. 11:1. ^{‡†} Jer. 31:14(15). ^{‡‡} From netzer shoot branch
^{‡‡†} cf. Dan. 2:44.

'Prepare the way of ADONAI, and make His paths straight.'" ^{‡‡‡}

⁷ But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his immersion, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸ Therefore produce fruit worthy of repentance; ⁹ and do not think that you can say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father!' For I tell you that from these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. ¹⁰ Already the axe is laid at the root of the trees; therefore every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire!

¹¹ "As for me, I immerse you in water for repentance. But the One coming after me is mightier than I am; I am not worthy to carry His sandals. He will immerse you in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and fire. ¹² His winnowing fork is in His hand, and He shall clear His threshing floor and gather His wheat into the barn; but the chaff He shall burn up with inextinguishable fire." ^{§†}

The Heavens Open at Yeshua's Mikveh

¹³ Then Yeshua came from the Galilee to John, to be immersed by him in the Jordan. ¹⁴ But John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I need to be immersed by You, and You are coming to me?"

¹⁵ But Yeshua responded, "Let it happen now, for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." So John yielded to Him.

¹⁶ After being immersed, Yeshua rose up out of the water; and behold, the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Ruach Elohim ^{§††} descending like a dove and coming upon Him. ¹⁷ And behold, a voice from the heavens said, "This is My Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased!" ^{§†}

Overcoming Temptation with God's Word

⁴ Then Yeshua was led by the Ruach into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ² After He had fasted for 40 days and 40 nights, He was hungry. ³ And when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are Ben-Elohim, tell these stones to become bread."

⁴ But He replied, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" ^{§††}

⁵ Then the devil took Him into the holy city and placed Him on the highest point of the Temple. ⁶ "If You are Ben-Elohim," he said, "throw Yourself down. For it is written,

"He shall command His angels concerning you," ^{§†}

^{‡‡‡} Isa. 40:3. [§] cf. Lev. 11:22. ^{§†} cf. Ps. 1:4; Jer. 7:20. ^{§††} cf. Gen. 1:2. ^{§‡} cf. Ps. 2:7; Prov. 30:4. ^{§‡†} Deut. 8:3. ^{§†} Ps. 91:11.

and 'upon their hands they shall lift you up, so that you may not strike your foot against a stone.'"[†]

⁷ Yeshua said to him, "Again it is written, 'You shall not put ADONAI your God to the test.'" ^{††}

⁸ Again, the devil takes Him to a very high mountain and shows Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. ⁹ And he said to Him, "All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me."

¹⁰ Then Yeshua says to him, "Go away, satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship ADONAI your God, and Him only shall you serve.'" ^{†††} Then the devil leaves Him. And behold, angels came and began to take care of Him.

Yeshua Withdraws to Seek God

¹² Now when Yeshua heard that John had been handed over, He withdrew to the Galilee. ¹³ Leaving Natzeret, He came and settled in Capernaum, which is by the sea in the regions of Zebulun and Naphtali.

¹⁴ This was to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁵ "Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations—

¹⁶ the people sitting in darkness have seen a great light, and those sitting in the region and shadow of death, on them a light has dawned."^{††}

¹⁷ From then on, Yeshua began to proclaim, "Turn away from your sins, for the kingdom of heaven is near."

Raising up Fishers of Men

¹⁸ Now as Yeshua was walking by the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon who was called Peter and Andrew his brother. They were casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹ And He said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men."²⁰ Immediately they left their nets and followed Him.

²³ Yeshua was going throughout all the Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and sickness among the people. ²⁴ News about Him spread throughout all Syria. And they brought to Him all the sick—those tormented by various diseases and afflictions, those plagued by demons, the epileptics, the paralyzed—and He healed them. ²⁵ And large crowds followed Him from the Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

[†] Ps. 91:12. ^{††} Deut. 6:16. [‡] Deut. 6:13. ^{†††} Isa. 8:23-9:1(9:1-2).

Drash on the Mountain

⁵ Now when Yeshua saw the crowds, He went up on the mountain. And after He sat down, His disciples came to Him. ² And He opened His mouth and began to teach them, saying,

³ "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

⁴ "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

⁵ "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

⁶ "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

⁷ "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall be shown mercy.

⁸ "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

⁹ "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

¹⁰ "Blessed are those who have been persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

¹¹ "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, on account of Me.

¹² "Rejoice and be glad, for your reward in heaven is great! For in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."[‡]

Called to Be Salt and Light

¹³ "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt should lose its flavor, how shall it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled under foot by men.

¹⁴ "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵ Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a basket. Instead, they put it on a lampstand so it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, let your light shine before men so they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven."

Filling the Law to the Fullest

¹⁷ "Do not think that I came to abolish the Torah or the Prophets! I did not come to abolish, but to fulfill. ¹⁸ Amen, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or serif ^{†††} shall ever pass away from the Torah until all things come to pass. ¹⁹ Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others the same, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps and teaches them, this one shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰ For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the Pharisees and Torah scholars, you shall never enter the kingdom of heaven!

²¹ "You have heard it was said to those of old, 'You shall not murder, † and whoever commits murder shall be subject to judgment.' ²² But I tell you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be subject to judgment. And whoever says to his brother, ' Raca ' shall be subject to the council ††; and whoever says, 'You fool!' shall be subject to fiery Gehenna.

²³ "Therefore, if you are presenting your offering upon the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, ²⁴ leave your offering there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering.

²⁵ "Make friends quickly with your opponent while you are with him on the way. Otherwise, your opponent may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the assistant, and you will be thrown into prison.

²⁷ "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' ††²⁸ But I tell you that everyone who looks upon a woman to lust after her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹ And if your right eye causes you to stumble, gouge it out and throw it away! It is better for you that one part of your body should be destroyed, than that your whole body be thrown into Gehenna. ††³⁰ And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away! It is better for you that one part of your body should be destroyed, than that your whole body go into Gehenna.

³³ "Again, you have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall carry out your oaths to ADONAI .' †††³⁴ But I tell you, do not swear at all—not by heaven, for it is the throne of God; ³⁵ or by the earth, for it is the footstool of His feet; [§] or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King. ^{§†}³⁶ And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. ³⁷ But let your word 'Yes' be 'Yes' and your 'No,' 'No'—anything more than this is from the evil one."

Overcoming Evil with Good

an evildoer. But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn to him also the other. ⁴⁰ And the one wanting to sue you and to take your shirt, let him also have your coat. ⁴¹ Whoever forces you to go one mile, go with him two. ⁴² Give to the one who asks of you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

⁴³ "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor ^{§†} and hate your enemy.' ⁴⁴ But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵ so that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. ⁴⁶ For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Even the tax collectors do the same, don't they? ⁴⁷ And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than anyone else? Even the pagans do that, don't they? ⁴⁸ Therefore be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect."

Righteous Living

6 "Beware of practicing your righteousness before others to be seen by them; otherwise you have no reward from your Father in heaven. ² So whenever you do zedakah, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, so that they may be glorified by men. Amen, I tell you, they have their reward in full! ³ But when you do zedakah, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴ so that your zedakah may be in secret; and your Father, who sees in secret, shall reward you.

⁵ "When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites; for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners, so that they may be seen by others. Amen, I tell you, they have their reward in full! ⁶ But you, when you pray, go into your inner room; and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, shall reward you. ⁷ And when you are praying, do not babble on and on like the pagans; for they think they will be heard because of their many words. ⁸ Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

⁹ "Therefore, pray in this way:

"Our Father in heaven,
 sanctified be Your name.

¹⁰ Your kingdom come,
 Your will be done

on earth as it is in heaven.

¹¹ Give us this day our daily bread.

¹² And forgive us our debts

as we also have forgiven our debtors.

¹³ And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.' ^{§††}

§† Lev. 19:18. §†† Some mss. add: For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

¹⁴ “For if you forgive others their transgressions, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. ¹⁵ But if you do not forgive others, neither will your Father forgive your transgressions.

¹⁶ “And whenever you fast, do not become sad-faced like the hypocrites, for they neglect their faces to make their fasting evident to men. Amen, I tell you, they have their reward in full! ¹⁷ But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, ¹⁸ so that your fasting won’t be evident to men, but to your Father who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you. †

²² “The eye is the lamp of the body. Therefore, if your eye is good, your whole body will be full of light. ²³ But if your eye is bad, your body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

²⁴ “No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stick by one and look down on the other. You cannot serve God and money.” ‡

Overcoming Worry with Trust

²⁵ “So I say to you, do not worry about your life—what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Isn’t life more than food and the body more than clothing?

³¹ “Therefore, do not worry, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’ ³² For the pagans eagerly pursue all these things; yet your Father in heaven knows that you need all these. ³³ But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. ³⁴ Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.”

Measuring Your Measure

7 “Stop judging, so that you may not be judged. ² For with the judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

⁷ “Ask, and it shall be given to you. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and it shall be opened to you. ⁸ For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it shall be opened.

⁹ “For what man among you, when his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰ Or when he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? ¹¹ If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask Him! ¹² So in all things, do to others what you would want them to do to you—for this is the Torah and the Prophets.

¹³ “Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and those who enter through it are many. ¹⁴ How narrow is the gate and difficult the way that leads to life, and those who find it are few.”

Judging the Fruit

²¹ “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord!’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven. ²² Many will say to Me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, didn’t we prophesy in Your name, and drive out demons in Your name, and perform many miracles in Your name?’ ²³ Then I will declare to them, ‘I never knew you. Get away from Me, you workers of lawlessness!’” †††

††† cf. Deut. 18:20-22; Isa. 28:7-13; Jer. 5:30-31; 6:13-15; 14:13-15; Ezek. 13; Mic. 3:5-8. ††† cf. Ps. 6:9(8).

Building on a Firm Foundation

²⁴ “Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. ²⁵ And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house; and yet it did not fall, for its foundation had been built on the rock. ²⁶ Everyone who hears these words of Mine and does not act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. ²⁷ And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house; and it fell—and great was its fall.”

²⁸ Now when Yeshua had finished these words, the crowds were astounded at His teaching, ²⁹ for He was teaching them as one having authority and not as their Torah scholars.

Healing Those who Trust

8 When He came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him. ² And a man with tzara’at came to Him and bowed down before Him, saying, “Master, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”

³ Yeshua stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing. Be cleansed.” Immediately his tzara’at was cleansed. ⁴ And Yeshua said to him, “See that you tell no one; but go show yourself to the kohen and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.” †

⁵ Now when Yeshua came into Capernaum, a centurion came begging for help. ⁶ “Master,” he said, “my servant is lying at home paralyzed, horribly tormented.”

⁷ Yeshua said to him, “I’ll come and heal him.”

⁸ But the centurion said, “Master, I’m not worthy to have You come under my roof. But just say the word and my servant will be healed. ⁹ For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

¹⁰ Now when Yeshua heard this, He marveled and said to those who were following, “Amen, I tell you, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith! ¹¹ Moreover, I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and they will recline at table with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. ¹² But the sons of the kingdom will be driven out into the outer darkness; in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

¹³ Then Yeshua said to the centurion, “Go. As you have believed, let it be done for you.” And the servant was healed in that same hour.

¹⁴ And when Yeshua came into Peter’s house, He saw Peter’s mother-in-law lying down, sick with a fever. ¹⁵ Yeshua touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and began to take care of Him.

† cf. Lev. 14:2.

¹⁶ When evening came, the people brought to Him many who were afflicted by demons. He forced out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. ¹⁷ So was fulfilled what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

“He Himself took our sicknesses and carried away our diseases.” ††

Following the Call

¹⁸ Now when Yeshua saw a crowd around Him, He gave orders to go to the other side of the sea. ¹⁹ Then a Torah scholar came to Him and said, “Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go.”

²⁰ Yeshua tells him, “Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.”

²¹ Then another of the disciples said, “Master, first let me go and bury my father.”

²² But Yeshua tells him, “Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”

Master of the Storm

²³ As He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him. ²⁴ Suddenly a great storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves. But Yeshua kept on sleeping. ²⁵ So they came and woke Him up, saying, “Master, save us! We’re perishing!”

²⁶ He said to them, “Why are you afraid, O you of little faith?” Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it became totally calm.

²⁷ The men were amazed, saying, “What kind of person is this? Even the winds and the sea obey Him!”

Freedom from Demons

²⁸ When He came to the other side, into the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-plagued men coming from the graveyard ‡ met Him. They were so violent that no one could pass by that way. ²⁹ And they screamed, “What’s between You and us, †† Ben-Elohim? Have You come here to torment us, before the appointed time?”

³⁰ Now a large herd of pigs was feeding some distance away from them. ³¹ The demons kept begging Him, “If You drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs.”

³² And He told them, “Go!” So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the cliff into the sea and drowned. ³³ The herdsmen ran away, went into the town, and told everything, including what had happened to the demon-plagued men. ³⁴ The whole town came out to meet Yeshua. And when they saw him, they begged Him to leave their region.

†† Isa. 53:4. ‡ Lit. tombs †† A Hebrew idiom, lit. What to us and you?

Authority to Pardon Sins

9 After getting into a boat, Yeshua crossed over and came to His own town. ² Just then, some people brought to Him a paralyzed man lying on a cot. And seeing their faith, Yeshua said to the paralyzed man, "Take courage, son! Your sins are forgiven."

³ Then some of the Torah scholars said among themselves, "This fellow blasphemes!"

⁴ And knowing their thoughts, Yeshua said, "Why are you entertaining evil in your hearts? ⁵ For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?' ⁶ But so you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to pardon sins..." Then He tells the paralyzed man, "Get up, take your cot, and go home." ⁷ And he got up and went home. ⁸ When the crowd saw it, they were afraid and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

A Physician for Sinners

⁹ As Yeshua was passing by from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector's booth. He said to him, "Follow Me." And he got up and followed Him.

¹² But when He heard this, Yeshua said, "Those who are healthy have no need for a doctor, but those who are sick do. ¹³ Now go and learn what this means: 'Mercy I desire, and not sacrifice.' [†] For I didn't come to call the righteous, but the sinful."

Teaching New Ways

¹⁴ Then John's disciples came to Him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?" ^{††}

¹⁵ And Yeshua said to them, "The guests of the bridegroom cannot mourn while the bridegroom is with them, can they? But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.

¹⁶ "And no one puts a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch pulls away from the garment and a worse tear happens. ¹⁷ Nor do they put new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise the skins burst, and the wine spills out and the skins are ruined. But they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

Compassion in the Shepherd's Touch

¹⁸ Just as He was saying these things to them, a synagogue leader came and began to bow before Him,

[†] Hos. 6:6; Mic. 6:6-8. ^{††} Some mss. add much often saying, "My daughter has just died, but come lay Your hand on her and she will live." ¹⁹ And Yeshua got up and began to follow him, with His disciples.

²⁰ Just then a woman, losing blood for twelve years, [‡] came from behind and touched the tzitzit of His garment. ²¹ For she kept saying to herself, "If only I touch His garment, I will be healed."

²² But then Yeshua turned and saw her. "Take heart, daughter," He said, "your faith has made you well." That very hour the woman was healed.

²³ When Yeshua came into the synagogue leader's house and saw the flute players and the noisy crowd wailing, ²⁴ He said, "Go away, for the girl isn't dead, but sleeping." And they began jeering at Him. ²⁵ But when the crowd had been cleared out, He went in and took her hand, and the girl got up. ²⁶ And news of this spread all around that region.

²⁷ As Yeshua went on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out, "Ben-David, have mercy on us!"

²⁸ When He went into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Yeshua said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

"Yes, Master," they said to Him.

²⁹ Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith, let it be done for you." ³⁰ And their eyes were opened. And Yeshua warned them sternly, "See that no one knows." ³¹ But they went out and spread the news about Him all around that region.

³² As they were going out, a mute man plagued by a demon was brought to Him. ³³ After the demon was driven out, the mute man started speaking. The crowds were astounded, saying, "Never has anything like this been seen in Israel!" ³⁴ But the Pharisees were saying, "By the prince of demons He drives out demons."

³⁵ Now Yeshua was going around all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the Good News of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and sickness. ³⁶ When He saw the crowds, He felt compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ^{‡‡37} Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. ³⁸ Therefore pray to the Lord of the harvest that He may send out workers into His harvest field."

Instructions to the Twelve

10 Yeshua summoned His twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, so they could drive them out and heal every kind of disease and sickness. ² Now these are the names of the twelve emissaries: first, Simon, called Peter, and his brother Andrew; Jacob the son of Zebedee and John his brother; ³ Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; Jacob, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; ⁴ Simon the Zealot, [†] and Judah the man from Kriot, ^{††} the one who also betrayed Him.

[‡] cf. Lev. 15:25. ^{‡†} cf. Num. 27:17; 2 Chron. 18:16.

¹⁶ "Behold, I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. ¹⁷ But beware of men, for they will hand you over to the courts and flog [‡] you in their synagogues. ¹⁸ You will be brought before governors and kings because of Me, as a witness to them and to the Gentiles. ¹⁹ But when they hand you over, do not worry about how or what you should say, for it shall be given to you in that hour what you should say. ²⁰ For it is not you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

²¹ "Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; and children will rise up against their parents and have them put to death. ²² And you will be hated by all because of My name, but the one who endures to the end shall be saved. ²³ Whenever they persecute you in one city, flee to the next. Amen, I tell you, you will never finish going through the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

²⁶ "So do not fear them, for there is nothing concealed that will not be revealed and nothing hidden that will not be made known. ²⁷ What I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear in your ear, proclaim from the housetops! ²⁸ And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Instead, fear the One who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. ^{‡‡}

Signs and Wonders Bear Witness

11 When Yeshua had finished instructing His twelve disciples, He went on from there to teach and preach in their towns. ² Now when John heard in prison about the works of the Messiah, he sent word through his disciples ³ and said to Yeshua, "Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?"

⁴ Yeshua replied, "Go report to John what you hear and see: ⁵ the blind see and the lame walk, those with tzara'at are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised and the poor have good news proclaimed to them. ⁶ Blessed is the one who is not led to stumble because of Me." ^{§†}

A Prophet without Honor

⁷ Now as they were leaving, Yeshua began to talk to the crowd concerning John. "What did you go out to the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

prophet? Yes, I tell you, even more than a prophet.

¹⁰ This is the one about whom it is written,

“Behold, I send My messenger before You, who will prepare Your way before You.”[†]

¹¹ “Amen, I tell you, among those born of women, none has arisen greater than John the Immerser. Yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.
¹² From the days of John the Immerser until now, the kingdom of heaven is treated with violence, and the violent grasp hold of it. ¹³ For all the prophets and the Torah prophesied until the time of John. ¹⁴ And if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come.

¹⁵ He who has ears, let him hear!

¹⁶ “But to what shall I compare this generation? It’s like children sitting in the marketplaces who call to one other, saying,

¹⁷ “We played the flute for you, but you did not dance.

We wailed,
but you did not mourn.”

¹⁸ “For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon!’ ¹⁹ The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.”^{††}

²⁰ Then Yeshua began to denounce the towns where most of His miracles had happened, because they did not turn from their sins. ²¹ “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, † they would have turned long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²² Nevertheless I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the Day of Judgment than for you. ²³ And you, Caper-naum? Will you be lifted up to heaven? No, you will go down to Sheol! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained to this day. ²⁴ Nevertheless I tell you that it will be more bearable for the land of Sodom on the Day of Judgment than for you.”

Yeshua Teaches the Ways of His Father

²⁵ At that time Yeshua said in response, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and discerning and revealed them to infants. ²⁶ Yes, Father, for this way was pleasing to You.

²⁷ “All things have been handed over to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son^{††} and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him. ²⁸ Come to Me, all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and ‘you will find rest for your souls.’^{‡‡} ³⁰ For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.”

The Lord of Shabbat

¹² At that time Yeshua went through the grain fields on Shabbat. His disciples became hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and eat them. ² But when the Pharisees saw this, they said to Him, “Look,
Your disciples are doing what is not permitted on Shabbat.”

³ But He said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did when he became hungry, and those with him?

⁴ How he entered into the house of God, and they ate the showbread, which was not permitted for him to eat, nor for those with him, but only for the kohanim?
^{‡‡} Or haven’t you read in the Torah that on Shabbat
the kohanim in the Temple break Shabbat and yet are innocent? ⁶ But I tell you that something greater than the Temple is here. ⁷ If you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice,’^{‡‡‡} you wouldn’t have condemned the innocent. ⁸ For the Son of Man is Lord of Shabbat.”

⁹ Leaving from there, He went into their synagogue.
¹⁰ A man with a withered hand was there. And so that they might accuse Him, they questioned Yeshua, saying, “Is it permitted to heal on Shabbat?”

¹¹ He said to them, “What man among you will not grab his sheep and lift it out, if it falls into a pit on Shabbat? ¹² How much more valuable then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is permitted to do good on Shabbat.”

¹³ Then He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.”
And he stretched it out and it was restored, as healthy as the other. ¹⁴ But the Pharisees went out and plotted against Him, how they might destroy Him.

God’s Chosen Servant Brings Hope

¹⁵ Knowing this, Yeshua went away from there. And large crowds followed Him, and He healed them all.

¹⁶ And He sternly warned them not to make Him known. ¹⁷ This was to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

¹⁸ “Here is My servant whom I chose,
the One I love, in whom My soul takes delight.
I will put My Ruach upon Him, and He shall proclaim justice to the nations.

¹⁹ He will not quarrel or cry out,
nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets.

²⁰ A crushed reed He will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out,
until He brings forth justice to victory.

²¹ And in His name the nations shall hope.”[§]

Whose Power Will Rule?

²² Then a demon-plagued man, who was blind and mute, was brought to Yeshua; and He healed him, so that he spoke and saw. ²³ All the crowds were astounded and saying, "This can't be Ben-David, can it?"

²⁴ But hearing this, the Pharisees said, "This fellow drives out demons only by beelzebul, the ruler of demons."

²⁶ If satan drives out satan, he is divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand? ²⁷ And if I drive out demons by beelzebul, by whom do your sons drive them out? For this reason, they will be your judges.

²⁸ But if I drive out demons by the Ruach Elohim, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. ²⁹ Or how can one enter a strong man's house and carry off his property, unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he will thoroughly plunder his house. ³⁰ He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

³¹ "For this reason I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven men, but blasphemy against the Ruach will not be forgiven. ³² Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Ruach ha-Kodesh will not be forgiven, neither in this age nor in the one to come.

³³ "Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree rotten and its fruit rotten; for the tree is known by its fruit. ³⁴ You brood of vipers! How can you who are evil say anything good? For from the overflow of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵ The good man from his good treasury brings forth good, and the evil man from his evil treasury brings forth evil. ³⁶ But I tell you that on the Day of Judgment, men will give account for every careless word they speak. ³⁷ For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

A Sign Greater than Jonah

³⁸ Then some of the Torah scholars and Pharisees answered Him, "Teacher, we want to see a sign from You."

³⁹ But Yeshua replied to them, "An evil and adulterous generation clamors for a sign, yet no sign shall be given to it except the sign of Jonah the prophet. ⁴⁰ For just as Jonah was in the belly of the great fish for three days and three nights, † so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights. ⁴¹ The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah. And behold, something greater than Jonah is here. ⁴² The Queen of the South †† will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon. And behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

⁴³ "Now when an unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places looking for rest and doesn't find it. ⁴⁴ Then it says, 'I'll go back home where I came from.' And when it comes, it finds the house vacant, swept clean, and put in order. ⁴⁵ Then it goes and brings along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and live there. And that man's last condition becomes worse than the first. So also will it be for this evil generation."

Embrace and Refrain

⁴⁶ While Yeshua was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and brothers were standing outside, trying to speak to Him. ⁴⁷ Someone said to Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, trying to speak to You." ‡

⁴⁸ But to the one telling Him this, Yeshua responded, "Who is My mother? And who are My brothers?" ⁴⁹ Stretching out His hand toward His disciples, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers. ⁵⁰ For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven, he is My brother and sister and mother."

Simple Stories, Profound Truths

13 On that day after Yeshua left the house, He was sitting by the sea. ² And large crowds gathered around Him; so He got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood on the shore. ³ And He told them many things in parables, saying, "Behold, a sower went out to spread some seed. ⁴ As he was scattering the seed, some seeds fell by the road; and the birds came and ate them up. ⁵ Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they didn't have much soil. They sprang up immediately, because the soil wasn't deep. ⁶ But when the sun came up, they were scorched; and because they had no roots, they withered away. ⁷ Other seeds fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew and choked them out. ⁸ But others fell on good soil and were producing fruit. They yielded a crop—some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. ⁹ He who has ears, †† let him hear."

¹⁰ Then the disciples came to Him and said, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

¹¹ And He replied to them, "To you has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. ¹² For whoever has, to him more will be given and he will have plenty. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. ¹³ For this reason I speak to them in parables,

"because seeing they do not see,
and hearing they do not hear nor do they understand.

¹⁴ "And in them the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says,

"You will keep on hearing

‡ Some mss. omit this verse. †† Some mss. add to hear

but will never understand;
you will keep looking,
but will never see.

¹⁵ For the heart of this people has become dull, their ears can barely hear, and they have shut their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts.

Then they would turn back,
and I would heal them.[†]

¹⁶ "But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. ¹⁷ Amen, I tell you, many a prophet and tzaddik longed to see what you are seeing and did not see, and to hear what you are hearing and did not hear."

Parable of the Sower Explained

¹⁸ "You then, hear the parable of the sower. ¹⁹ When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and doesn't understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the one having been sown along the road.

²⁰ "The one sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy. ²¹ Yet he has no root himself but lasts only a short while; and when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he falls away.

²² "But the one sown among the thorns, this is the one who hears the word; and the worries of the world and the seduction of wealth choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

²³ "Now the one sown on the good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands. He indeed bears fruit, yielding a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty times what was sown."

Yeshua Tells More Parables

²⁴ He presented to them another parable, saying,
"The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. ²⁵ But while the men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away. ²⁶ Now when the stalk sprouted and produced grain, then the weeds also appeared.
²⁷ So the slaves of the landowner came and said to him, 'Master, didn't you sow good seed in your field?
Then where did the weeds come from?' ²⁸ But he replied, 'An enemy did this.' Now the slaves say to him,
'Do you want us, then, to go out and gather them up?'
²⁹ But he says, 'No, for while you are gathering up the weeds, you may uproot the wheat with them. ³⁰ Let both grow together until the harvest. At harvest time, I will tell the reapers, "First, gather up the weeds and tie them in bundles to burn them up; but gather the wheat into my barn."

[†] Isa. 6:9-10.

³¹ He presented to them another parable, saying,
"The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. ³² It's the smallest of all seeds; yet when it's full grown, it's greater than the other herbs. It becomes like a tree, so that the birds of the air come and nest in its branches."^{††} ³³ He told them another parable, "The kingdom of heaven is like hametz, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened."

³⁴ All these things Yeshua spoke to the crowds in parables. And apart from a parable, He wasn't speaking to them, ³⁵ in order to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet, saying,

"I will open My mouth in parables,
I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the world."[‡]

³⁶ Then He sent the crowds away and went into the house. His disciples came to Him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field."

³⁷ He answered, "The one sowing the good seed is the Son of Man, ³⁸ and the field is the world. And the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the weeds are the sons of the evil one. ³⁹ The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. ⁴⁰ Therefore just as the weeds are gathered up and burned with fire, so shall it be at the end of the age. ⁴¹ The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all stumbling blocks^{‡†} and those who practice lawlessness. ⁴² They will throw them into the fiery furnace^{‡‡}; in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. ⁴³ Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun^{‡‡‡} in the kingdom of their Father. He who has ears, let him hear!

⁴⁴ "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid. And because of his joy, he goes out and sells all that he has and buys that field.

⁴⁵ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls. ⁴⁶ Upon finding a pearl of great value, he went out and sold all that he had and bought it.

⁴⁷ "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was cast into the sea, gathering things of every kind. ⁴⁸ When it was filled, they pulled it ashore; and they sat down and gathered up the good into containers, but threw the bad away. ⁴⁹ So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come forth and separate the wicked from among the righteous⁵⁰ and throw them into the fiery furnace; ^{‡‡‡} in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

⁵¹ "Have you understood all these things?"

They said to Him, "Yes."

⁵² Then He said to them, "Therefore every Torah scholar disciplined for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure both new things and old.”

Unbelief in the Hometown Synagogue

⁵³ Now when Yeshua had finished these parables, He left that place. ⁵⁴ Coming into His hometown, He began to teach them in their synagogue so that they were amazed. “Where did this fellow get this wisdom and these mighty works?” they said. ⁵⁵ “Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t His mother called Miriam, and His brothers Jacob and Joseph and Simon and Judah? ⁵⁶ And His sisters, aren’t they all with us? So where does He get all these things?” ⁵⁷ And they took offense at Him.

But Yeshua said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own house.” ⁵⁸ And He did not do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

Yeshua’s Cousin Beheaded

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Yeshua. ² He said to his servants, “This is John the Immerser—he has risen from the dead! Because of this, these powers are at work in Him.” ³ For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, ⁴ because John had been telling him, “It is not permitted for you to have her.” ⁵ Although Herod wanted to kill John, he feared the crowd because they considered John a prophet.

⁶ But when Herod’s birthday celebration came, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod, ⁷ so much that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask. ⁸ Prompted by her mother, she said, “Give me the head of John the Immerser, here on a platter!” ⁹ The king became sorrowful; but because of his oaths and those reclining with him, he commanded it to be given. ¹⁰ And he sent and had John beheaded in the prison. ¹¹ His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. ¹² John’s disciples came forth and took the body and buried it. Then they went and reported to Yeshua.

Feeding Hungry Followers

¹³ Now when Yeshua heard this, He went away from there privately by boat to an isolated place. But when the crowds heard, they followed Him on foot from the towns. ¹⁴ As Yeshua came ashore, He saw a large crowd and felt compassion for them and healed their sick. ¹⁵ When it became evening, the disciples came to Him, saying, “This place is isolated, and the hour is already late. Send the crowds away so they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

¹⁶ But Yeshua said to them, “They don’t need to leave—you give them something to eat.”

¹⁷ “We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish,” they said to Him.

¹⁸ “Bring them here to Me,” He said.

¹⁹ Ordering the crowd to recline on the grass, He took the five loaves and the two fish; and looking up to heaven, He offered the bracha. After breaking the loaves, He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰ They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve baskets full of broken pieces left over. ²¹ Now those eating were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Testing Peter’s Faith to Walk on Water

²² Right away, Yeshua made the disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He sent the crowds away. ²³ After He had sent the crowds away, He went up on the hillside by Himself to pray. And when evening came, He was there alone. ²⁴ But the boat was already a long way †† from land, tossed around by the waves, for the wind was against it.

²⁵ Now in the fourth watch ‡ of the night, Yeshua came to them, walking on the sea. ²⁶ But when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It’s a ghost!” And they cried out with fear.

²⁷ But immediately, Yeshua spoke to them, saying, “Take courage! I am. Don’t be afraid.”

²⁸ Answering, Peter said to Him, “Master, if it’s You, command me to come to You on the water.”

²⁹ And He said, “Come!”

And Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water to go to Yeshua. ³⁰ But seeing the wind, he became terrified. And beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, “Master, save me!”

³¹ Immediately Yeshua reached out His hand and grabbed him. And He said to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?”

³² When they got into the boat, the wind ceased.

³³ And those in the boat worshiped Him, saying, “You really are Ben-Elohim!” ††

³⁴ After they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. ³⁵ And when the men of that place recognized Yeshua, they sent word into all the surrounding region. And they brought to Him all those who were in bad shape ³⁶ and kept begging Him that they might just touch the tzitzit of His garment—and all who touched it were cured.

Religious Leaders Quiz Yeshua

15 Then some Pharisees and Torah scholars came to Yeshua from Jerusalem. They said, ² “Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not do the ritual handwashing when they eat bread.”

† cf. Lev. 18:16; 20:21.

†† Lit. many stadia
3-6 a.m. †† Prov. 30:4.

‡ Roman time,

³ And answering, He said to them, "Why do you also transgress the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? ⁴ For God said, 'Honor your father and mother' [†] and 'He who speaks evil of father or mother must be put to death.' ^{††5} But you say, 'Whoever tells his father or mother, "Whatever you might have gained from me is a gift to God," ^{††6} he need not honor his father.' On account of your tradition, you made void the word of God. ⁷ Hypocrites! Rightly did Isaiah prophesy about you, saying,

⁸ "This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.

⁹ And in vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men."^{††}

¹⁰ Then Yeshua called the crowd and said to them, "Hear and understand. ¹¹ It's not what goes into the mouth that makes the man unholy; but what comes out of the mouth, this makes the man unholy."^{††}

¹² Then the disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard this saying?"

¹³ But He replied, "Every plant that My heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. ¹⁴ Leave them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit."

¹⁵ Then Peter answered and said to Him, "Explain this parable to us."

¹⁶ "Are you also still lacking understanding?" Yeshua said. ¹⁷ "Don't you grasp that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and then is ejected into the sewer? ¹⁸ But the things that proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart, and those things make the man unholy. ¹⁹ For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, and slander. ^{†††20} These are the things that make the man unholy; but to eat with unwashed hands does not make the man unholy."

A Reward for a Humble Woman

²¹ Now Yeshua left from there and went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon. ²² And behold, a Canaanite woman from that district came out and started shouting, "Have mercy on me, O Master, Ben-David! My daughter is severely tormented by a demon."

²³ But He did not answer her a word. And when His disciples came, they were urging Him, saying, "Send her away, because she keeps shouting at us."

²⁴ But He responded, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

²⁵ So she came and got down on her knees before Him, saying, "Master, help me!"

²⁶ And answering, He said, "It's not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

²⁷ But she said, "Yes, Master, but even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table."

²⁸ Then answering, Yeshua said to her, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed in that very hour.

²⁹ After Yeshua left there, He went along the Sea of Galilee. Then He went up on a mountainside and was sitting there. ³⁰ And large crowds came to Him, bringing with them the lame, blind, disabled, mute, and many others. And they laid them at His feet, and He healed them. ³¹ So the crowd marveled when they saw the mute speaking, the disabled made whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. ^{†††} And they praised the God of Israel.

Feeding More Hungry Followers

³² Yeshua called His disciples and said, "I have compassion for the crowd, because they've stayed with Me for three days now and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away hungry, because they might pass out on the way."

³³ The disciples said to Him, "Where in this wasteland is enough bread to satisfy such a large crowd?"

³⁴ Yeshua said to them, "How many loaves do you have?"

"Seven," they said, "and a few small fish."

³⁵ After directing the crowd to recline on the ground, ³⁶ He took the seven loaves and the fish; and after giving thanks, He broke them. And He began giving them to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds. ³⁷ And they all ate and were satisfied. And they picked up the broken pieces left over—seven baskets full. ³⁸ And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. ³⁹ And after sending away the crowds, Yeshua got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

Religious Leaders Demand Signs

16 Now the Pharisees and Sadducees came up, and testing Yeshua, they asked Him to show them a sign from heaven. ² But He replied to them, "When evening comes, you say, 'Fair weather is coming, for the sky is red,' ³ and in the morning, 'Stormy weather today, for the sky is red and gloomy.' You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you cannot discern the signs of the times! ⁴ An evil and adulterous generation clamors for a sign, yet no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah." ⁵ And leaving them behind, He went away.

⁵ Now when the disciples came to the other side of the sea, they had forgotten to take bread. ⁶ "Watch out," Yeshua said to them, "and beware of the hametz of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

⁷ And they began to discuss among themselves, saying, "We didn't bring any bread."

⁸ But knowing this, Yeshua said, "O you of little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves that you have no bread? ⁹ You still don't get it? Don't you remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets of leftovers you gathered? ¹⁰ Or how about the seven loaves for the four thousand and all the baskets of leftovers you gathered? ¹¹ How is it that you don't understand that I wasn't talking to you about bread? Now beware of the hametz of the Pharisees and Sadducees!" ¹² Then they understood that He wasn't talking about the hametz in the bread, but about the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

The Father Reveals His Son

¹³ When Yeshua came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

¹⁴ They answered, "Some say John the Immerser, others say Elijah, and still others say Jeremiah or one of the other prophets."

¹⁵ He said, "But who do you say I am?"

¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

¹⁷ Yeshua said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven! ¹⁸ And I also tell you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My community [†]

; and the gates of Sheol will not overpower it. ¹⁹ I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you forbid on earth will have been forbidden in heaven and what you permit on earth will have been permitted in heaven." ²⁰ Then He ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that He was the Messiah.

First Prediction: Death and Resurrection

²¹ From that time on, Yeshua began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and be killed, and be raised on the third day.

²³ But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, satan! You are a stumbling block to Me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but the things of men."

²⁴ Then Yeshua said to His disciples, "If anyone wants to follow after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow Me. ²⁵ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. ²⁶ For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world but forfeits his soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? ²⁷ For the Son of Man is about to come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then 'He will repay everyone according to his deeds.' ^{††28} Amen, I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

Two Witnesses and a Voice from Heaven

17 After six days, Yeshua takes with Him Peter and Jacob and John his brother, and brings them up a high mountain by themselves. ² Now He was transfigured before them; His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. ³ And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking with Yeshua. ⁴ Peter responded to Yeshua, "Master, it's good for us to be here! If You wish, I will make three sukkot here—one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah." [‡]

⁵ While He was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them; and behold, a voice from out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased. Listen to Him!" ^{‡†}

⁶ When the disciples heard this, they fell face down, terrified. ⁷ But Yeshua came and touched them. "Get up," He said. "Stop being afraid." ⁸ And lifting their eyes, they saw no one except Yeshua alone.

⁹ As they were coming down from the mountain, Yeshua commanded them, saying, "Do not tell anyone about the vision until the Son of Man is raised from the dead."

¹⁰ The disciples questioned Him, saying, "Why then do the Torah scholars say that Elijah must come first?"

¹¹ Yeshua replied, "Indeed, Elijah is coming and will restore all things. ^{‡†2} I tell you that Elijah already came; and they didn't recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted. In the same way, the Son of Man is about to suffer at their hands." ¹³ Then the disciples understood that He was speaking to them about John the Immerser.

See What Faith Can Do

¹⁴ When they came to the crowd, a man came to Yeshua, falling on his knees before Him and saying, ¹⁵ "Master, have mercy on my son, for he has seizures and suffers badly. For he often falls into the fire and often into the water. ¹⁶ I brought him to Your disciples, but they couldn't heal him."

¹⁷ And answering, Yeshua said, "O faithless and twisted generation! ^{‡††} How long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me." ¹⁸ Yeshua rebuked the demon and it came out of him, and the boy was healed from that very hour.

¹⁹ Then the disciples came to Yeshua in private and said, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

²⁰ And He said to them, "Because you trust so little. Amen, I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you." ^{(21) ‡††}

Second Prediction: Death and Resurrection

²² Now while they were gathering in the Galilee, Yeshua said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men; ²³ and they will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised." And the disciples became greatly distressed.

²⁴ When they came to Capernaum, the collectors of the Temple tax came to Peter and said, "Your teacher pays the Temple tax, † doesn't He?"

²⁵ "Yes," Peter said.

Now when Peter came into the house, Yeshua spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? The kings of the earth, from whom do they collect tolls or tax? From their sons or from strangers?"

²⁶ After Peter said, "From strangers," Yeshua said to him, "Then the sons are free. ²⁷ But so that we do not offend them, go to the sea and throw out a hook, and take the first fish that comes up. And when you open its mouth, you'll find a coin. †† Take that, and give it to them, for Me and you."

Childlike Humility

18 At that hour the disciples came to Yeshua, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

² And He called a child to Himself, set him in the midst of them, ³ and said, "Amen, I tell you, unless you turn and become like children, you shall never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴ Whoever then shall humble himself like this child, this one is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. ⁵ And whoever welcomes one such child in My name, welcomes Me.

⁶ "But whoever causes one of these little ones who trust in Me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone hung around his neck and to be sunk in the depth of the sea! ⁷ Woe to the world because of snares! For snares must come, but woe to that man through whom the snare comes!

⁸ "And if your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. It's better for you to enter into life crippled or lame than, having two hands or two feet, to be thrown into fiery Gehenna. ⁹ If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. It's better for you to enter into life with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into fiery Gehenna.

Parable of the Lost Sheep

¹⁰ "See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven continually see the face of My Father in heaven. (¹¹) ‡

‡ Some manuscripts add verse 11: For the Son of Man has come to save that which was lost

¹² "What do you think? If a certain man has 100 sheep and one of them goes astray, won't he leave the 99 on the mountains and go looking for the one that is straying? ¹³ And if he finds it, amen I tell you, he rejoices over it more than over the 99 that didn't stray.

¹⁴ Even so, it's not the will of your Father in heaven that one of these little ones should be lost."

Restoring a Lost Brother

¹⁵ "Now if your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault while you're with him alone. If he listens to you, you have won your brother. ¹⁶ But if he does not listen, take with you one or two more, so that 'by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may stand.' ††¹⁷ But if he refuses to listen to them, tell it to Messiah's community. And if he refuses to listen even to Messiah's community, let him be to you as a pagan and a tax collector.

¹⁸ "Amen, I tell you, whatever you forbid on earth will have been forbidden in heaven and what you permit on earth will have been permitted in heaven. ¹⁹ Again I say to you, that if two of you agree on earth about anything they may ask, it shall be done for them by My Father in heaven. ²⁰ For where two or three are gathered together in My name, there I am in their midst."

Lessons about Forgiveness

²¹ Then Peter came to Him and said, "Master, how often shall I forgive my brother when he sins against me? Up to seven times?"

²² Yeshua said to him, "No, not up to seven times, I tell you, but 70 times seven! ††²³ Therefore, the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves. ²⁴ When he had begun to settle up, a man was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. ††²⁵ But since he didn't have the money to repay, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. ²⁶ Then the slave fell on his knees and begged him, saying, 'Be patient with me, and I'll repay you everything.' ²⁷ And the master of that slave, filled with compassion, released him and forgave him the debt.

²⁹ "So his fellow slave fell down and kept begging him, saying, 'Be patient with me, and I'll pay you back.' ³⁰ Yet he was unwilling. Instead, he went off and threw the man into prison until he paid back all he owed.

³¹ "So when his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were deeply distressed. They went to their master and reported in detail all that had happened.

³² Then summoning the first slave, his master said to him, 'You wicked slave! I forgave all that debt because you pleaded with me. ³³ Wasn't it necessary for you also to show mercy to your fellow slave, just as I showed mercy to you?' ³⁴ Enraged, the master handed him over to the torturers until he paid back all he owed.

³⁵ "So also My heavenly Father will do to you, unless each of you, from your hearts, forgives his brother."

Marriage and Covenant Faithfulness

19 Now when Yeshua had finished these words, He moved on from the Galilee and entered the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. ² Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there. ³ Pharisees came up to Yeshua, testing Him and saying, "Is it permitted for a man to divorce his wife for any reason at all?"

⁴ "Haven't you read?" He answered. "He who created them from the beginning 'made them male and female' ¹⁵ and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.' ¹⁶ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no man separate."

⁷ They said to Him, "Why then did Moses command to 'give her a certificate of divorce and put her away?'" [‡]

⁸ Yeshua said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart Moses permitted you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. ⁹ Now I tell you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery." ^{††}

¹¹ But He said to them, "Not everyone can accept this saying—only those to whom it has been given. ¹² For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb; and there are eunuchs who were made that way by men; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who can accept this, let him accept it."

Receiving the Kingdom of Heaven

¹³ Then little children were brought to Yeshua so that He might lay hands upon them and pray. Then the disciples rebuked those who brought them. ^{†††} ¹⁴ But Yeshua said, "Let the little children come to Me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these." ¹⁵ After laying His hands upon them, He went on from there.

¹⁶ Now behold, one came to Him and said, "Teacher, what good shall I do to have eternal life?"

† Gen. 1:27. †† Gen. 5:2; 2:24. ‡ Deut. 24:1, 3. †† Some mss. add: and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery except for sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery

¹⁷ "Why do you ask Me about what is good?" Yeshua said to him. "There is only One who is good; but if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

¹⁸ "Which ones?" he said.

Yeshua said, "'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, ¹⁹ honor your father and mother,' and 'love your neighbor as yourself.'" ^{‡††}

²⁰ "All these I've kept," the young man said to Him. "What do I still lack?"

²¹ Yeshua said to him, "If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you own, and give to the poor; and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me." ²² But when the young man heard this statement, he went away grieving, for he had much property.

²³ Then Yeshua said to His disciples, "Amen, I tell you, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. ²⁴ Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁵ When the disciples heard this, they were utterly astonished and said, "Then who can be saved?"

²⁶ And looking, Yeshua said to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." ^{‡†††}

²⁷ Then Peter said to Him, "Look, we've left everything to follow You! So what will we have?"

²⁸ And Yeshua said to them, "Amen, I tell you, when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne in the new world, [§] you who have followed Me shall also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹ And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or property, for My name's sake, will receive a hundred times as much, and will inherit eternal life. ³⁰ But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

Parable of the Day Laborers

20 "For the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household, who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. ² Now when he had agreed with the workers for a denarius per day, he sent them into his vineyard. ³ And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing in the marketplace, idle. ⁴ And to them he said, 'You go into the vineyard too, and I'll give you whatever is right.' ⁵ So they went. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour and did the same. ⁶ And about the eleventh hour, he went out and found others standing around. And he said to them, 'Why have you been standing here idle the whole day?'

⁷ "Because no one hired us," they said to him.

"He said to them, 'You go into the vineyard, too.'

⁸ "Now when evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.'

††† Exod. 20:12-13(12-16); Deut. 5:16-17(16-20); Lev. 19:18b.
 ‡†† cf. Gen. 18:14; Jer. 32:17. § Lit. regeneration

⁹ And those who had come about the eleventh hour each received a denarius. ¹⁰ And when the first came, they supposed that they would receive more; yet they too received a denarius.

¹³ "But answering, he said to one of them, 'Friend, I'm doing you no wrong. Didn't you agree with me on a denarius? ¹⁴ Take what is yours and go. But I want to give this last guy the same as you. ¹⁵ Am I not permitted to do what I want with what belongs to me? Or is your eye evil because I am good?'

¹⁶ "So the last will be first, and the first last."

Third Prediction: Death and Resurrection

¹⁷ Now as Yeshua was going up to Jerusalem, He took the Twelve aside privately; and on the way he told them, ¹⁸ "Look, we're going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the ruling kohanim and Torah scholars. They will condemn Him to death ¹⁹ and hand Him over to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify. Yet on the third day, He will be raised up." †

Leading by Serving

²⁰ Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came with her sons to Yeshua, and she was kneeling down and asking something from Him.

²¹ "What do you want?" He said to her.

She said to Him, "Declare that these two sons of mine might sit, one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your kingdom."

²² But Yeshua replied, "You don't know what you're asking! Are you able to drink the cup I am about to drink?"

"We are able," they say to Him.

²³ He said to them, "You shall indeed drink My cup. But to sit on My right and left, this isn't Mine to grant. Rather, it's for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father."

²⁴ Now when the ten heard, they became indignant with the two brothers. ²⁵ But Yeshua called them over and said, "You know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones play the tyrant over them. ²⁶ It shall not be this way among you. But whoever wants to be great among you shall be your servant, ²⁷ and whoever wants to be first among you shall be your slave— ²⁸ just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many."

What Do You Want Me to Do for You?

²⁹ Now as they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. ³⁰ And here two blind men sitting by the roadside, when they heard that Yeshua was passing by, cried out, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Master, Ben-David!" ³¹ The crowd warned them to be quiet, but they cried out all the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, O Master, Ben-David!" †† ³² Yeshua stopped and called out to them. "What do you want Me to do for you?" He said.

³³ They said to Him, "Master, let our eyes be opened!"

³⁴ Moved with compassion, Yeshua touched their eyes. Instantly they regained their sight and followed Him. ‡

Baruch Ha-Ba! Blessed Is He Who Comes!

21 Now as they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Yeshua sent two disciples, ² saying to them, "Go into the village before you. Right away, you'll find a donkey tied up and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to Me. ³ If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Master needs them.' And right away he will send them."

⁴ This happened to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet, saying,

⁵ "Say to the daughter of Zion, 'See, your King is coming to you, humble and sitting on a donkey, a colt, the foal of a donkey.'" ††

¹² Then Yeshua entered the Temple ††† and drove out all those selling and buying in the Temple. He overturned the tables of the moneychangers ††† and the seats of those selling doves. ¹³ And He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,' ¹⁴ †† but you are making it 'a den of thieves!'" †††

Faith Moves Mountains

¹⁸ Now early in the morning, as He was returning to the city, He became hungry. ¹⁹ Seeing a lone fig tree by the road, He came up to it and found nothing on it except leaves only. And He said to it, "May no fruit ever come from you again!" And the fig tree shriveled up at once.

²⁰ When the disciples saw it they were astonished. "How did the fig tree shrivel on the spot?" they asked.

²¹ Yeshua answered them, "Amen, I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' it will happen. ²² And whatever you ask in prayer, trusting, you shall receive."

Questions about Yeshua's Authority

²³ Now when He entered the Temple, the ruling kohanim and the elders of the people came to Him while He was teaching, saying, "By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority?"

²⁴ Yeshua replied to them, "I also will ask you one question. If you tell Me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵ John's immersion, where was it from? From heaven or from men?"

They began to dialogue among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' ²⁶ But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the crowd, for all hold up John as a prophet." ²⁷ So answering Yeshua, they said, "We don't know."

Then He said to them, "Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things."

A Parable about Intentions and Actions

²⁸ "Now what do you think? A man had two sons, and he went to the first and said, 'Son, go work in the vineyard today.' ²⁹ The son answered, 'I won't,' but afterward he had a change of heart and went. ³⁰ The man went to the second son and said the same thing. But he answered, 'I will, sir,' and didn't go. ³¹ Which of the two did the will of the father?"

"The first," they said.

Yeshua said to them, "Amen, I tell you, the tax collectors and prostitutes are going ahead of you into the kingdom of God. ³² For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and prostitutes did believe him; and even after you saw this, you had no change of heart to believe him."

† Ps. 8:3(2).

Parable of the Vineyard

³³ "Listen to another parable. There was a master of a household who planted a vineyard. He put a hedge around it, dug a winepress in it, and built a tower. † Then He leased it to some tenant farmers and went on a journey. ³⁴ Now when fruit season drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his fruit. ³⁵ But grabbing his servants, the tenants beat up one, killed another, and stoned still another. ³⁶ Again the master sent other servants, even more than the first, and they did the same thing to them. ³⁷ Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

³⁸ "But when the tenants saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir! Come on, let's kill him and get his inheritance!' ³⁹ So grabbing him, they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. ⁴⁰ Therefore when the master of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?"

⁴¹ "He will bring those miserable men to a miserable end," they said to Him, "and will lease the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him his share of the fruits in their seasons." ⁴² Yeshua said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures †?

"The stone which the builders rejected,
this has become the chief cornerstone.

This came from ADONAI, and it is marvelous in our eyes.' ††

⁴³ "Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to people producing its fruits. ⁴⁴ Whoever falls on this stone will be shattered; but the one upon whom it falls, it will crush him." ††

⁴⁵ When the ruling kohanim and Pharisees heard Yeshua's parables, they realized He was talking about them. ⁴⁶ Although they were trying to seize Him, they feared the crowds, because they regarded Him as a prophet.

Invitation to the Wedding Feast

22 Yeshua answered and spoke to them again in parables, saying, ² "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who made a wedding feast for his son. ³ He sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast, but they wouldn't come. ⁴ Again he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who were invited, "Look, I've prepared my meal. My oxen and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast!"'

⁵ "But paying no attention, they went away, one to his own farm, another to his business. ⁶ And the rest grabbed his servants, humiliated them, and killed them. ⁷ Now the king became furious! Sending his troops, he destroyed those murderers and set fire to their city.

†† cf. Isa. 5:1-2. † Lit. Writings †† Ps. 118:22-23 (117:22-23 LXX). †† cf. Isa. 28:16; Dan. 2:34, 44-45. Some manuscripts omit verse 44.

⁸ “Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy. ⁹ So go into the highways and byways, and invite everyone you find to the wedding feast.’ ¹⁰ And those servants went out into the highways and gathered together all they found, both bad and good; and the wedding was filled with guests.

¹¹ “But when the king came in to look over the guests, he saw a man there who wasn’t dressed in wedding clothes. ¹² ‘Friend,’ he said to him, ‘how did you get in here without wedding clothes?’ But the man was silent. ¹³ Then the king said to his servants, ‘Tie him up hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness; in that place will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ ¹⁴ For many are called, but few are chosen.”

A Trap about Paying Taxes

¹⁵ Then the Pharisees went and plotted how they might trap Him with a word. ¹⁶ And they sent to Him some of their disciples, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that You are honest and teach the way of God in truth. And what others think doesn’t concern You, for You do not look at men’s appearance. ¹⁷ Tell us therefore, what do You think? Is it permitted to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

¹⁸ But Yeshua, knowing their wickedness, said, “Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites? ¹⁹ Show Me the tax money.”

So they brought Him a denarius.

²⁰ And He said to them, “Whose image is this? And whose inscription?”

²¹ “Caesar’s,” they said to Him.

Then He said to them, “Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” ²² And hearing this, they were amazed. So they left Him and went away.

Religious Leaders Ask a Tricky Question

²³ On that day, Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came to Yeshua and questioned Him, saying, ²⁴ “Teacher, Moses said, ‘If someone dies having no children, his brother as next of kin shall marry his widow and father children for his brother.’ ²⁵ Now there were seven brothers among us. The first married and died; and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother. ²⁶ In the same way also the second, and the third, down to the seventh. ²⁷ Last of all, the woman died. ²⁸ So in the resurrection, whose wife of the seven will she be? For they all had married her.”

²⁹ But answering, Yeshua said to them, “You’ve gone astray, because you don’t understand the Scriptures or the power of God. ³⁰ For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. ³¹ But concerning the resurrection of the dead, haven’t you read what was spoken to you by God, saying, ³² ‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?’ He is not the God of the dead, but of the living!” ^{††33} When the crowds heard this, they were astounded at His teaching.

The Greatest Mitzvot

³⁴ But the Pharisees, when they heard that Yeshua had silenced the Sadducees, gathered together in one place. ³⁵ And testing Him, one of them, a lawyer, asked, ³⁶ “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Torah?”

³⁷ And He said to him, “‘You shall love ADONAI your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ ³⁸ This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹ And the second is like it, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ ^{††40} The entire Torah and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

Yeshua Overturns the Arguments

⁴¹ Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Yeshua asked them a question, ⁴² saying, “What do you think about the Messiah? Whose Son is He?” ^{††} “David’s,” they say to Him.

⁴³ “Then how is it,” He says to them, “that David by the Ruach calls him ‘Lord’?”

⁴⁴ “For he says, ‘ADONAI said to my Lord, ‘Sit at My right hand,

until I put Your enemies under Your feet.’” ^{†††}

⁴⁵ “If David then calls Him ‘Lord,’ how is He his son?”

⁴⁶ No one was able to answer Him a word. Nor did anyone dare from that day on to question Him any longer.

Seven Woes

23 Then Yeshua spoke to the crowds and to His disciples, ² saying, “The Torah scholars and Pharisees sit on the seat of Moses. ³ So whatever they tell you, do and observe. But don’t do what they do; for what they say, they do not do. ⁴ They tie up heavy loads, hard to carry, ^{†††} and lay them on men’s shoulders; but they themselves aren’t willing to lift a finger to move them. ⁵ All their works they do to be noticed by men. They make their tefillin wide and their tzitziyot long. ⁶ They love the place of honor at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues, ⁷ greetings in the market-places, and to be called rabbi by men.

⁸ “But you are not to be called rabbi; for One is your Teacher, and you are all brothers. ⁹ And call no man on earth your father; for One is your Father, who is in heaven. ¹⁰ Nor are you to be called teachers; for One is your Teacher, the Messiah. ¹¹ But the greatest among you shall be your servant. ¹² Whoever exalts himself shall be humbled, and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted.

¹⁵ “Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel over land and sea to make one convert. And when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as yourself.

¹⁶ “Woe to you, blind guides! You say, ‘Whoever swears by the Temple, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the Temple, he is obligated.’¹⁷ O fools and blind ones! Which is greater, the gold or the Temple that made the gold holy?^{††18} And you say, ‘Whoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the offering on it, he is obligated.’¹⁹ O blind ones! Which is greater, the offering or the altar that makes the offering holy?^{‡20} Therefore, whoever swears by the altar, swears both by the altar and everything on it.²¹ And whoever swears by the Temple, swears both by the Temple and by Him who dwells in it.²² And whoever swears by heaven, swears both by the throne of God and by Him who sits on it.

²⁹ “Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the monuments of the tzaddikim.³⁰ And you say, ‘If we’d been alive in the days of our forefathers, we wouldn’t have been partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’³¹ So you testify against yourselves, that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets.³² Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers!³³ O snakes, you brood of vipers! Holy Temple to Be Destroyed

³⁷ “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem who kills the prophets and stones those sent to her! How often I longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing!³⁸ Look, your house is left to you desolate! †††39 For I tell you, you will never see Me again until you say, ‘Baruch ha-Ba b’Shem ADONAI. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!’”[§]

24 Now when Yeshua went out and was going away from the Temple, His disciples came up to point out to Him the Temple buildings.² “Don’t you see all these?” He responded to them. “Amen, I tell you, not one stone will be left here on top of another—every one will be torn down!”

Signs of the End of Time

³ As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, “Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the age?”

⁴ Yeshua answered them, “Be careful that no one leads you astray!⁵ For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the Messiah,’ and will lead many astray.⁶ You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for this must happen but it is not yet the end.⁷ For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.^{§†}

And there will be famines and earthquakes in various places.⁸ But all these things are only the beginning of birth pains.

⁹ “Then they will hand you over to persecution and will kill you. You will be hated by all the nations because of My name.¹⁰ And then many will fall away and will betray one another and hate one other.¹¹ Many false prophets will arise and lead many astray.¹² Because lawlessness will multiply, the love of many will grow cold.¹³ But the one who endures to the end will be saved.¹⁴ This Good News of the kingdom shall be proclaimed in the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

¹⁵ “So when you see ‘the abomination of desolation,’^{§††} which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the Holy Place (let the reader understand),¹⁶ then those in Judea must flee to the mountains.¹⁷ The one on the roof must not go down to take what is in his house,¹⁸ and the one in the field must not turn back to get his coat.¹⁹ Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! ²⁰ Pray that your escape will not happen in winter, or on Shabbat. ²¹ For then there will be great trouble, † such as has not happened since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever will. ²² And unless those days were cut short, no one would be delivered. But for the sake of the chosen, those days will be cut short.

²³ "Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here's the Messiah,' or 'There He is,' do not believe it. ²⁴ For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up †† and show great signs and wonders so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen. ²⁵ See, I have told you beforehand.

²⁶ "So if they say to you, 'Look, He is in the wilderness,' do not go out. Or, 'Look, He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe it. ²⁷ For just as lightning comes from the east and flashes as far as the west, so also will be the coming of the Son of Man. ²⁸ For wherever the carcass is, there the vultures will gather.

²⁹ "But immediately after the trouble of those days, "the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light and the stars will fall from heaven and the powers of the heavens will be shaken." ‡

³⁰ "Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the land will mourn, and they will see 'the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven' †† with power and great glory. ³¹ He will send out His angels with a great shofar, and they will gather together His chosen from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other." ‡

Watching for Messiah's Return

³² "Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. ³³ So also, when you see all these things, know that it is near, at the door. ³⁴ Amen, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. ³⁵ Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away. ††³⁶ But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven nor the Son, ††† except the Father alone.

³⁷ "For just as the days of Noah were, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸ For in those days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark. ³⁹ And they did not understand until the flood came and swept them all away. § So shall it be at the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰ Then two men will be in the field, one taken and one left. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding at the mill, one taken and one left. §†⁴² Therefore stay alert; for you do not know what day your Lord is coming. ⁴³ But know this, that if the master of the house had known what time the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and not let his house be broken into. ⁴⁴ So you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect."

The Faithful Servant

⁴⁵ "Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master put in charge of his household to give them food at the proper time? ⁴⁶ Blessed is that servant whose master finds him so doing when he comes. ⁴⁷ Amen, I tell you, his master will put him in charge of all his possessions. ⁴⁸ But if that wicked servant says in his heart, 'My master is taking a long time,' ⁴⁹ and he begins to beat his fellow servants, and he eats and drinks with drunkards, ⁵⁰ the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know. ⁵¹ And he will cut him in two and assign his place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

Parable of the Ten Virgins

25 "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. §†² Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. ³ For when the foolish ones took their lamps, they took no oil with them. ⁴ But the wise ones took oil in jars along with their lamps.

⁵ "Now while the bridegroom was taking a long time, they all got drowsy and started falling asleep. ⁶ But in the middle of the night there was a shout, 'Look, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!' ⁷ Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps. ⁸ Now the foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, since our lamps are going out.' ⁹ But the wise ones replied, 'No, there won't be enough for us and for you. Instead, go to those who sell, and buy some for yourselves.'

¹⁰ "But while they were going off to buy, the bridegroom came. And those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast, and the door was shut.

¹¹ Now later, the other virgins came, saying, 'Sir, Sir, open up for us!'

¹² "But he replied, 'Amen, I tell you, I do not know you.' ¹³ Therefore stay alert, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Parable of the Talents

¹⁴ "For it is like a man about to go on a journey. He called his own servants and handed over his possessions to them. ¹⁵ To one he gave five talents, §† to another two, and to another one, each according to his own ability. Then he went on his journey.

more. ¹⁷ In the same way, the one with two gained two more. ¹⁸ But the one who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

¹⁹ "Now after a long time, the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. ²⁰ The one who had received the five talents came up and brought another five talents, saying, 'Master, you handed me five talents. Look, I've gained five more.'

²¹ His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You were faithful with a little, so I'll put you in charge of much. Enter into your master's joy!'

²² "The one who had received the two talents also came up and said, 'Master, you handed me two talents. Look, I've gained two more.' ²³ His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You were faithful with a little, so I'll put you in charge of much. Enter into your master's joy!'

²⁴ "Then the one who had received the one talent also came up and said, 'Master, I knew that you are a hard man, reaping where you didn't sow and gathering where you scattered no seed. ²⁵ So I was afraid, and I went off and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is yours.'

²⁶ "But his master responded, 'You wicked, lazy servant! You knew that I reap where I didn't sow and gather where I scattered no seed? ²⁷ Then you should have brought my money to the brokers, and when I came I would have received it back with interest. ²⁸ Therefore take the talent away from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents. ²⁹ For to the one who has, more shall be given, and he shall have an abundance. But from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away. ³⁰ Throw the worthless servant out, into the outer darkness where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'"

The Righteous Judge

³¹ "Now when the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then He will sit on His glorious throne. ³² All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them from one another, just as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. ³³ And He will put the sheep on His right, but the goats on His left. ³⁴ Then the King will say to those on His right, 'Come, you who are blessed by My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. ³⁵ For I was hungry and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty and you gave Me something to drink; I was a stranger and you invited Me in; ³⁶ I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me.' ††

³⁷ "Then the righteous will answer Him, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You? Or thirsty and give You something to drink? ³⁸ And when did we see You a stranger and invite You in? Or naked and clothe You? ³⁹ When did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?'

⁴⁰ "And answering, the King will say to them, 'Amen, I tell you, whatever you did to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me.' ††† Then He will also say to those on the left, 'Go away from Me, you cursed ones, into the everlasting fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴² For I was hungry and you gave Me nothing to eat; I was thirsty and you gave Me nothing to drink; ⁴³ I was a stranger and you did not invite Me in; naked and you did not clothe Me; sick and in prison and you did not visit Me.'

⁴⁴ "Then they too will answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not care for You?' ⁴⁵ Then He will answer them, saying, 'Amen, I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for Me.' ⁴⁶ These shall go off to everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting life." ††

The Conspiracy Grows

26 Now it happened that when Yeshua had finished all these words, He said to His disciples, ² "You know that Passover comes in two days, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be executed."

³ Then the ruling kohanim and elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the kohen gadol named Caiaphas. ⁴ They plotted together in order that they might seize Yeshua by stealth and kill Him. ⁵ "But not during the festival," they were saying, "so there won't be a riot among the people."

A Woman Anoints Yeshua for Burial

⁶ Now while Yeshua was in Bethany at the house of Simon ha-Metzora, ⁷ a woman came up to Him with an alabaster jar of very expensive oil. And she poured it on His head as He was reclining at the table. ⁸ But when the disciples saw this, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste? ⁹ It could have been sold for a lot, and the money given to the poor!"

¹⁰ But Yeshua, knowing this, said to them, "Why do you cause trouble for this woman? She's done Me a mitzvah. ¹¹ You always have the poor with you, †† but you won't always have Me. ¹² For when she poured this oil on My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial. ¹³ Amen, I tell you, wherever this Good News is proclaimed in all the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

Betrayed and Sold for Silver

¹⁴ Then one of the Twelve, the one called Judah of Kriot, went to the ruling kohanim ¹⁵ and said, "What are you willing to give me if I hand Him over to you?" And they weighed out thirty shekels ††† of silver for him. ¹⁶ From then on, Judah began looking for a chance to hand Him over.

¹⁷ Now on the first day of matzah, [†] the disciples came to Yeshua, saying, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

¹⁸ He said, "Go into the city to a certain man, and tell him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is near; at your house I am to keep the Passover with My disciples."'" ¹⁹ The disciples did as Yeshua had ordered them, and they prepared the Passover. ^{††}

²⁰ Now when it was evening, Yeshua was reclining at the table with the Twelve. ²¹ As they were eating, He said, "Amen, I tell you, one of you will betray Me."

²² And being very sorrowful, they began, each one, to say to Him, "I'm not the one, am I, Master?"

²³ And He replied, "The one who dipped his hand in the bowl with Me, he's the one who will betray Me.

^{‡24} The Son of Man indeed goes, just as it is written about Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! ^{‡†} It would have been better for that man if he had not been born!"

²⁵ And Judah, the one betraying Him, replied, "I'm not the one, am I, Rabbi?"

Yeshua said to him, "You've said it yourself."

²⁶ Now while they were eating, Yeshua took matzah; ^{‡†} and after He offered the bracha, He broke and gave to the disciples and said, "Take, eat; this is My body."

²⁷ And He took a cup; and after giving thanks, He gave to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; ²⁸ for this is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the removal of sins. ^{‡††29} But I say to you, I will never drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in My Father's kingdom."

³⁰ After singing the Hallel, ^{‡††} they went out to the Mount of Olives. ³¹ Then Yeshua said to them, "This night you will all fall away because of Me; for it is written,

"I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered." [§]

³² "But after I am raised up, I will go before you to the Galilee."

³³ But Peter replied to Him, "Though all fall away because of You, I'll never fall away."

³⁴ Yeshua said to him, "Truly, I tell you, this very night, before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."

³⁵ "Even if I must die with You," Peter says to Him, "I'll never deny You!" And so said all the disciples.

"Your Will Be Done"

³⁶ Then Yeshua comes with them to a place called Gethsemane, and He tells the disciples, "Sit here, while I go over there and pray." ³⁷ And He took along Peter and Zebedee's two sons, and He began to be sorrowful and troubled. ³⁸ Then He tells them, "My soul is deeply grieved, even to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with Me." ³⁹ Going a little farther, He fell face down and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me! Yet not as I will, but as You will."

⁴⁰ Then He comes to the disciples and finds them sleeping; and He tells Peter, "So couldn't you keep watch with Me for one hour? ⁴¹ Keep watching and praying, so that you won't enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." ⁴² Again for a second time He went away and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cannot pass away unless I drink it, let Your will be done." ⁴³ And again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. ⁴⁴ So He left them again and prayed a third time, saying the same words once more. ⁴⁵ Then He comes to the disciples and says to them, "Still sleeping? Taking your rest? Look, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is being delivered into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶ Get up, let's go! Look, My betrayer is near."

Taken into Custody

⁵² Then Yeshua said to him, "Put your sword back in its place! For all who take up the sword shall perish by the sword. ^{§††53} Or do you suppose that I cannot call on My Father, and at once He will place at My side twelve legions ^{§‡} of angels? ⁵⁴ How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be so?"

⁵⁵ At that hour Yeshua said to the crowds, "Have you come out with swords and clubs, to capture Me as you would a revolutionary? ^{§††} Every day I sat teaching in the Temple, and you didn't seize Me. ⁵⁶ But all this has happened so that the writings of the prophets would be fulfilled." Then all the disciples fled, abandoning Him.

⁵⁷ Now those who had seized Yeshua led Him away to Caiaphas, the kohen gadol, where the Torah scholars and elders had gathered. ⁵⁸ Peter was following Him from a distance as far as the courtyard of the kohen gadol. And after going inside, he was sitting with the guards, to see the outcome.

Yeshua's Trial Begins

⁵⁹ Now the ruling kohanim and all the Sanhedrin kept trying to get false testimony against Yeshua so they could put Him to death. ⁶⁰ But they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward ⁶¹ and said, "This fellow said, 'I'm able to destroy the Temple of God and rebuild it in three days!'"

⁶² The kohen gadol stood up and said to Yeshua, "Have You no answer? What's this they're testifying against You?" ⁶³ But Yeshua kept silent.

The kohen gadol said to Him, "I charge You under oath by the living God, tell us if You are Mashiach Ben-Elohim!" †

⁶⁴ "As you have said," replied Yeshua. "Besides that, I tell you, soon after you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power and coming on the clouds of heaven." ††

⁶⁵ Then the kohen gadol tore his clothes and said, "Blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, you've heard the blasphemy. ⁶⁶ What's your verdict?" ‡

"Guilty," they answered. "He deserves death!" ⁶⁷ Then they spat in His face and pounded Him with their fists. †† Others slapped Him and demanded, ⁶⁸ "Prophecy to us, you Messiah! Which one hit You?"

Peter Denies Yeshua

⁶⁹ Meanwhile, Peter was sitting in the courtyard. A servant girl came over to him and said, "You also were with Yeshua of the Galilee."

⁷⁰ But he denied it before everyone, saying, "I don't know what you're talking about!"

⁷¹ When he went onto the porch, another servant girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This man was with Yeshua ha-Natzrati."

⁷² Again he denied it with an oath: "I don't know the Man!"

⁷³ A little while later, some of the bystanders approached Peter and said to him, "Surely you're one of them, too—your accent gives you away."

⁷⁴ Then he began to curse ‡ and to swear an oath: "I do not know the Man!" Right then, a rooster crowed. ⁷⁵ Then Peter reminded himself of the word Yeshua had said: "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." And he went away and wept bitterly.

Judah's Remorse

27 When daybreak came, the ruling kohanim and elders of the people conspired against Yeshua to put Him to death. ² And they tied Him up, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate, the governor. ³ Then Judah, His betrayer, saw that Yeshua had been condemned. Feeling remorse, he brought the 30 silver pieces back to the ruling kohanim and elders, ⁴ saying, "I've sinned, betraying innocent blood!"

But they said, "What's that to us? You see to it yourself!" ⁵ After tossing the silver into the Temple sanctuary, he left. Then he went off and hanged himself. ⁶ But the ruling kohanim took the silver pieces and said, "It is not permitted to put these in the treasury, since it is blood money." ⁷ So after they conferred, they bought with them the potter's field, as a cemetery for strangers. ⁸ For this reason that field has been called the "Field of Blood" to this day. ⁹ Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "And they took the thirty silver pieces, the price of Him on whom a price had been set by Bnei-Yisrael; ¹⁰ and they gave them for the potter's field, just as ADONAI arranged for me." †††

"Kill the King!"

¹¹ Now Yeshua stood before the governor. The governor questioned Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

"You say so," Yeshua said. ¹² And while He was accused by the ruling kohanim and elders, He did not answer.

¹³ Then Pilate said to Him, "Don't You hear how many things they testify against you?" ¹⁴ Yeshua did not answer, not even one word, so the governor was greatly amazed.

¹⁵ Now during the feast, the governor was accustomed to release to the crowd one prisoner, anyone they wanted. ¹⁶ At that time they had a notorious prisoner, called Yeshua Bar-Abba. ¹⁷ So when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Which one do you want me to release for you? Yeshua who is Bar-Abba, or Yeshua who is called Messiah?" †††¹⁸ For he knew that they had handed Him over out of envy.

¹⁹ While Pilate was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him a message, saying, "Don't have anything to do with that righteous Man, for today I've suffered many things in a dream because of Him."

²⁰ Now the ruling kohanim and elders persuaded the crowds that they should ask for Bar-Abba and destroy Yeshua. ²¹ But the governor responded, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?"

And they said, " Bar-Abba!"

²² Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do with Yeshua, who is called Messiah?"

"Execute Him!" all of them say.

²³ But Pilate said, "Why? What evil has He done?"

But they kept shouting all the more, saying, "Let Him be executed!"

²⁴ When Pilate saw he was accomplishing nothing, but instead a riot was starting, he took some water and washed his hands in front of the crowd. "I am innocent of this blood," ²⁵ he said. "You see to it yourselves!"

²⁵ All the people answered and said, "His blood be on us and on our children!" †

²⁶ Then he released to them Bar-Abba. And after he had Yeshua scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

Nailed to a Stake

³² As they came out, they found a man from Cyrene, Simon by name. They forced him into service, to carry Yeshua's crossbeam. †³³ And when they came to a place called Golgotha (that is to say, Place of a Skull), ³⁴ they offered Him wine mixed with gall to drink; ‡ but after tasting, He was unwilling to drink it. ³⁵ And when they had crucified Him, they divided His clothing among themselves by casting lots. †³⁶ And they sat down and kept guard over Him there. ³⁷ Over His head they put the charge against Him, which read: "THIS IS YESHUA, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

⁴¹ Likewise the ruling kohanim, along with the Torah scholars and elders, were also mocking Him. ⁴² "He saved others," they were saying, "but He can't save Himself? He's the King of Israel! Let Him come down now from the stake, and we'll believe in Him!" ⁴³ He trusts in God; let God rescue Him now, if He wants Him. ††† For He said, 'I am Ben-Elohim.'" ⁴⁴ Even the outlaws who were executed with Him were ridiculing Him in the same way. †††

Yeshua Lays down His Life

⁴⁵ Now from the sixth hour, darkness fell upon all the land until the ninth hour. ⁴⁶ About the ninth hour Yeshua cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" †† that is, "My God, My God, why have You abandoned Me?"

⁵¹ And behold, the curtain †† of the Temple was split in two, from top to bottom. And the earth quaked and rocks were split apart. ⁵² And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the kedoshim who were sleeping were raised to life. ⁵³ And coming forth out of the tombs after His resurrection, they went into the holy city and appeared to many.

⁵⁴ Now the centurion, and those with him keeping guard over Yeshua, when they saw the earthquake and what was happening, they became terribly frightened and said, "This really was the Son of God!"

The Tomb Is Sealed

⁵⁵ Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Yeshua from the Galilee, serving Him. ⁵⁶ Among them were Miriam from Magdala, Miriam the mother of Jacob and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

⁵⁷ Now when it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had also become a disciple of Yeshua. ⁵⁸ This man went to Pilate and asked for Yeshua's body. Then Pilate ordered it to be given up. ⁵⁹ And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth. ⁶⁰ And he laid it in his own new tomb, ††† which he had cut in the rock. Then he rolled a large stone up to the door of the tomb and went away. ⁶¹ Now Miriam from Magdala was there, and the other Miriam, sitting opposite the tomb.

⁶² Now on the next day, which is after the preparation, the ruling kohanim and Pharisees were gathered before Pilate. ⁶³ "Sir," they said, "we remember how that deceiver said while He was still alive, 'After three days I'm to be raised.'" ⁶⁴ Therefore, order the tomb to be made secure until the third day, so His disciples do not come and steal Him away. They will tell the people, 'He is risen from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first!"

⁶⁵ "You have a guard," Pilate said to them. "Go, make it as secure as you know how." ⁶⁶ So they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone along with the soldiers of the guard.

The Son Is Risen!

28 Now after Shabbat, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Miriam of Magdala and the other Miriam came to look at the tomb. ² And suddenly there was a great earthquake, for an angel of ADONAI descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. ³ His appearance was like lightning, † and his clothing as white as snow. ⁴ And those keeping watch were shaken for fear of him and became like dead men.

⁵ But the angel answered and said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know you are looking for Yeshua who was crucified. ⁶ He is not here; for He is risen, just as He said. Come, see the place where He †† was lying. ⁷ Go quickly now and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead. And behold, He's going before you to the Galilee. There you will see Him. See, I have told you!" ⁸ They quickly left the tomb, with fear yet with great joy, and ran to bring news to His disciples.

The Good News Cannot Be Hidden

⁹ And behold, Yeshua met them. " Shalom!" He said. They drew near, grasped his feet, and worshiped Him. ¹⁰ "Don't be afraid," Yeshua said to them. "Go tell My brothers to head for the Galilee, and there they will see Me."

† cf. Dan. 10:6. †† Some mss. say the Lord

¹¹ Now while they were going, some of the guard came into the city and reported to the ruling kohanim all that had happened. ¹² And when they had assembled with the elders and consulted together, they gave a large sum of silver to the soldiers, ¹³ saying, "Tell them, 'His disciples came at night and stole Him away while we were sleeping.'" ¹⁴ And if this is heard by the governor, we'll appease him and keep you out of trouble." ¹⁵ So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story was spread among the Judeans to this day.

Authority to Make Disciples Everywhere

¹⁶ Now the eleven disciples went to the Galilee, to the mountain Yeshua had designated. ¹⁷ When they saw Him, they worshiped; but some wavered. ¹⁸ And Yeshua came up to them and spoke to them, saying, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. †¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, immersing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Ruach ha-Kodesh, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all I have commanded you. And remember! I am with you always, even to the end of the age."

Mark

Introduction

Mark, the shortest of the four Gospels, is dated as early as the 40s C.E., though many scholars think it was more likely written in the 50s or 60s. Matthew and Luke may have used Mark's Gospel when constructing their own accounts. John Mark, who traveled with both Barnabas and Paul, authored this account. Though not an eyewitness himself, early tradition tells us that his Gospel was based on the eyewitness testimony of Simon Peter, one of the twelve emissaries. Therefore, this writing becomes another apostolic testimony to the message of the Good News. The Gospel of Mark focuses less on 's teaching than on His deeds, especially His miracles. Events are recounted in an almost breathless fashion. Note the frequent use of "immediately" or equivalent expressions as one event leads into another.

Mark's Gospel issues a strong call to discipleship, often placing the suffering of alongside that call, as in chapters 8-10. As Matthew ends his Gospel with the Great Commission to bring the Good News to all nations, this second Gospel addresses itself to Gentiles, perhaps those living in Rome, the empire's capital. Mark does not display the fullness of theological reflection on the life of that the other Gospels do. Nevertheless, Mark's compact directness carries a significant message in itself. The fulcrum is found in Mark 8:29, when asks, "Who do you say I am?" Peter answers, "You are the Messiah!" Before Peter's confession, the emphasis is on miracles. Afterward, it is on His suffering and death. It is as though once we come to recognize that is the Messiah, we must learn what kind of Messiah He is, something even the disciples could not easily grasp. He is the Messiah who suffers and dies on our behalf—One whose followers must be prepared for costly discipleship as well.

The Kingdom Is Coming Now

¹ The beginning of the Good News of Yeshua ha-Mashiach, Ben-Elohim. ² As Isaiah the prophet has written,

"Behold, I send My messenger before You, who will prepare Your way. †

³ The voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way of ADONAI, and make His paths straight.'" ††

⁶ John wore clothes made from camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷ "After me comes One who is mightier than I am," he proclaimed. "I'm not worthy to stoop down and untie the strap of His sandals! ⁸ I immersed you with water, but He will immerse you in the Ruach ha-Kodesh." ‡

The Spirit Rests on Yeshua

⁹ In those days, Yeshua came from Natzeret in the Galilee and was immersed by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰ Just as He was coming up out of the water, He saw the heavens ripping open and the Ruach as a dove coming down upon Him. ¹¹ And there came a voice from the heavens: "You are My Son, whom I love; with You I am well pleased!" ††

‡ cf. Joel 2:28ff.; Ezek. 36:26; Zech. 12:10. †† cf. Ps. 2:7, 12; Prov. 30:4; Isa. 9:5(6).

¹² That instant, the Ruach drives Him into the wilderness. ¹³ He was in the wilderness 40 days, being tempted by satan. And He was with the wild beasts, and the angels were taking care of Him.

Fishermen Follow Him

¹⁴ Now after John was put in jail, Yeshua came into the Galilee, proclaiming the Good News of God. ¹⁵ "Now is the fullness of time," He said, "and the kingdom of God is near! Turn away from your sins, and believe in the Good News!" ¹⁶ Passing along by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Simon's brother Andrew casting a net in the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷ And Yeshua said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men." ¹⁸ Immediately they left their nets and followed Him. ¹⁹ Going a little farther, He saw Jacob the son of Zebedee and John his brother, who were in their boat mending the nets. ²⁰ Immediately He called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired hands and followed Him.

Demons Flee at His Command

²¹ And they went into Capernaum. Right away, on Shabbat, He entered the synagogue and began to teach. ²² And they were astounded at His teaching, for He was teaching them as one having authority [†] and not as the Torah scholars. ²³ Just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, ²⁴ "What have we to do with You, Yeshua of Natzeret? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are! You're the Holy One of God!" ²⁵ Yeshua rebuked him, saying, "Quiet! Come out of him!" ²⁶ And the unclean spirit, after throwing the man into convulsions and crying out with a loud voice, came out of him. ²⁷ They were all so amazed that they asked among themselves, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him!" ²⁸ And immediately news about Him spread throughout the region surrounding Galilee.

The Hurting Become Whole

²⁹ As soon as they left the synagogue, they went with Jacob and John to the house of Simon and Andrew. ³⁰ Now Simon's mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever. Right away, they told Yeshua about her. ³¹ He came and raised her up by taking her hand. The fever left her, and she began to take care of them. ³² When evening came, at sunset, the people brought to Him all the sick and those who were afflicted by demons. ³³ The whole town gathered together at the door. ³⁴ He healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. And He would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew who He was.

³⁵ Very early, while it was still night, Yeshua got up, left, and went away to a place in the wilderness; and there He was praying. ³⁶ Then Simon and those with him hunted for Yeshua. ³⁷ And when they found Him, they said to Him, "Everybody's looking for You."

³⁸ He said to them, "Let's go somewhere else, to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also—this is what I came for." ³⁹ And He went throughout all the Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and driving out demons.

⁴⁰ A man with tzara'at comes to Him, begging Him and falling on his knees, saying, "If You are willing, You can make me clean."

⁴³ Yeshua sent him away at once, sternly warning him. ⁴⁴ He said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone, but go show yourself to the kohen. ^{††} Then, for your cleansing, offer what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." ⁴⁵ But he went out and began to proclaim and spread the word, so much that Yeshua could no longer enter a town openly but had to stay out in wilderness areas. Still, they kept on coming to Him from everywhere.

Power to Pardon the Paralyzed

2 When He returned to Capernaum after some days, it was heard that He was at the house. ² So many were gathered that there was no longer room for them even outside the door. He kept proclaiming the word to them.

³ Some people came bringing to Him a paralyzed man, carried by four men. ⁴ When they couldn't get near Yeshua because of the crowd, they removed the roof where He was. After digging through, they lowered the mat on which the paralyzed man was lying. ⁵ Yeshua, seeing their faith, said to the paralyzed man, "Son, your sins are forgiven."

⁸ Immediately Yeshua, knowing in His spirit that they were raising questions this way within themselves, said to them, "Why are you questioning these things in your hearts? ⁹ Which is easier, to say to the paralyzed man, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, and take your mat, and walk?' ¹⁰ But so you may know that the Son of Man has authority to pardon sins on earth...." He tells the paralyzed man, ¹¹ "I tell you, get up, take your mat, and go home!"

¹² At once the man got up, took his mat, and walked before them all. They were all astonished and glorified God, saying, "We've never seen anything like this!" †

Fellowship with Sinners

¹³ Again, Yeshua went out by the sea. The whole crowd kept coming to Him, and He continued to teach them. ¹⁴ As He was passing by, He saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax collector's booth. He said to him, "Follow Me." And he got up and followed Him.

¹⁵ Now it happens that Yeshua was reclining at the table in Levi's house, and many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Yeshua and His disciples. For there were many, and they were following Him.

¹⁶ When the Torah scholars of the Pharisees saw Him eating with sinners and tax collectors, they began to say to His disciples, "With tax collectors and sinners He eats?"

¹⁷ And when He heard this, Yeshua said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a doctor, but those who are sick do. I did not come to call the righteous, but the sinful."

Feasting in His Presence

¹⁸ Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. They came and said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

¹⁹ And Yeshua said to them, "The guests of the bridegroom cannot fast while the bridegroom is with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. ²⁰ But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day.

²¹ "No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. Otherwise the patch pulls away from the old, and a worse tear happens. ²² And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wine will burst the skins; and the wine is lost, also the skins. But one puts new wine into fresh wineskins."

Shabbat Restoration

²³ Now it happened on Shabbat that Yeshua was going through the grain fields; and His disciples began to make their way, plucking the heads of grain. ††²⁴ The Pharisees were saying to Him, "Look, why are they doing what is not permitted on Shabbat?" ‡

²⁵ And He said to them, "Haven't you ever read what David did when he was in need, and he and those with him became hungry? ‡†²⁶ How he entered into the house of God when Abiathar was kohen gadol and ate the showbread, which is permitted only for the kohanim to eat, and gave some even to those who were with him?"

† cf. Isa. 53:12. †† cf. Deut. 23:25. ‡ cf. Exod. 20:10; 23:12; Deut. 5:14. ‡† cf. Lev. 24:5-9; 1 Sam. 21:1-6.

²⁷ Then He said to them, " Shabbat was made for man, and not man for Shabbat . ²⁸ So the Son of Man is Lord even of Shabbat ."

A Mitzvah on Shabbat

3 Yeshua entered the synagogue again, and a man with a withered hand was there. ² Now some were carefully watching Him, to see if He would heal him on Shabbat , so that they might accuse Him. ³ He said to the man with the withered hand, "Stand up here in the center." ⁴ Then He said to them, "Is it permitted on Shabbat to do good or to do evil, to save a life or to kill?" ‡ But they kept silent.

⁵ After looking around at them with anger, grieved by their hardness of heart, He says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. ⁶ The Pharisees went out right away with the Herodians and began plotting against Him, how they might destroy Him.

Crowds Clamor for Yeshua

⁷ Yeshua withdrew to the sea with His disciples, and a large crowd from the Galilee followed. From Judea, ⁸ and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and beyond the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon, a great number, hearing all He was doing, came to Him. ⁹ He told His disciples to have a small boat ready for Him because of the crowd, so that they wouldn't mob Him.

¹⁰ For He had healed many, so that all those afflicted fell down before Him in order to touch Him. ¹¹ And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, would fall down before Him and cry out, "You are Ben-Elohim !" ¹² But Yeshua strictly ordered them not to make Him known.

Appointing the Twelve

¹³ Now He climbs up on the mountain and calls those He Himself wanted, and they came to Him. ¹⁴ He appointed twelve (whom He also named emissaries), so that they might be with Him and He might send them to proclaim the Good News, ¹⁵ and to have power to drive out demons. ¹⁶ And He appointed the Twelve: to Simon He gave the name Peter; ¹⁷ to Jacob and his brother John, the sons of Zebedee, He gave the name Boanerges, which is Sons of Thunder; ¹⁸ and Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, Jacob the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot, ‡†¹⁹ and Judah from Kriot, who also betrayed Him.

Binding the Strong Man

²⁰ Then He comes into a house, and again a crowd gathers so they couldn't even eat. ²¹ When His family heard about this, they went out to take hold of Him; for they were saying, "He's out of His mind!"

‡† cf. Exod. 20:10; Lev. 23:12; Deut. 5:14. ‡†† Lit. Cananean zealot, enthusiast

²² The Torah scholars who came down from Jerusalem said, "He's possessed by beelzebul," and, "By the ruler of demons He drives out demons."

²³ He called them and began speaking to them in parables: "How can satan drive out satan? ²⁴ If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. ²⁵ And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. ²⁶ And if satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand but his end has come.

²⁷ "But no one can enter a strong man's house to ransack his property, unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he will thoroughly plunder his house.

²⁸ Amen, I tell you, all things will be forgiven the sons of men, the sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; ²⁹ but whoever slanders † the Ruach ha-Kodesh never has release, but is guilty of an eternal sin!" ³⁰ For they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit."

A Spiritual Family Begins

³¹ Then His mother and brothers come. Standing outside, they sent word to Him, summoning Him. ³² A crowd was sitting around Him, and they tell Him, "Look, Your mother and Your brothers are outside looking for You." ³³ Answering them, He said, "Who are My mother and My brothers?" ³⁴ Looking at those sitting in a circle around Him, He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! ³⁵ For whoever does the will of God, he is My brother and sister and mother."

Storytelling Opens Hearts

4 Again Yeshua began to teach by the sea. A large crowd gathered around Him, so He got into a boat on the sea and sat down. And the crowd was by the sea on the land. ² He began teaching them many things by parables, and in His teaching, He said to them: ³ "Listen! Behold, a sower went out to spread some seed. ⁴ It happened that as he sowed, some fell beside the road; and the birds came and ate it up.

⁵ "Other seed fell on rocky ground, where it didn't have much soil. It sprang up immediately, because the soil wasn't deep. ⁶ But when the sun came up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

⁷ "Other seed fell among the thorns; and the thorns grew and choked it, and it yielded no crop.

⁸ "And others fell into the good soil and were producing fruit, springing up and increasing. They yielded a crop, producing 30, 60, and a hundredfold." ⁹ And He said, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

¹⁰ When Yeshua was alone, those around Him with the Twelve started asking Him about the parables.

¹¹ And He told them, "To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God. But for those who are outside, everything is in parables, †† so that

¹² "Seeing, they may see and not perceive,

and hearing, they may hear and not understand, so they may not turn back and be forgiven." ‡

¹³ He said to them, "Don't you grasp this parable? Then how will you understand all the parables? ¹⁴ The sower sows the word. ¹⁵ These are the ones beside the road where the word is sown. Whenever they hear, satan comes quickly and takes away the word that has been sown in them.

¹⁶ "These are the ones sown on rocky ground. When they hear the word, immediately they receive it with joy. ¹⁷ And they have no root in themselves but last only a short while. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately they fall away.

¹⁸ "And others are the ones sown among the thorns. They have heard the word; ¹⁹ but the worries of the world, the seduction of wealth, and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

²⁰ "And those are the ones sown on the good soil. They hear the word and accept it and produce fruit, 30, 60, and a hundredfold."

Reaping What You Sow

²¹ He also was saying to them, "Is a lamp put under a basket or a bed? No, shouldn't it be placed on a lampstand? ²² For there is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, nor anything kept secret except that it would come to light. ²³ If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear." ²⁴ Then He continued, "Pay attention to what you hear. With the measure you use, it will be measured to you; and more will be added to you. ²⁵ For whoever has, to him more will be given. And whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."

What Is the Kingdom of God Like?

²⁶ And He was saying, "The kingdom of God is like when a man spreads seed on the soil ²⁷ and falls asleep at night and gets up by day, and the seed sprouts and grows. He himself doesn't know how. ²⁸ Automatically, the earth brings forth a crop—first the blade, then the head, then the full grain in the head. ²⁹ But when the grain is ready, at once he sends in the sickle, for the harvest has come."

³⁰ Yeshua also said, "How should we picture the kingdom of God? Or by what story shall we present it? ³¹ It is like a mustard seed when it's planted in the ground. Though the smallest of all seeds in the earth, ³² yet when planted it grows up and becomes the largest of all the herbs. It puts forth big branches, so the birds of the air can nest in its shade." ††

³³ With many such parables He used to tell them the word, as much as they were able to hear. ³⁴ But apart from a parable, He wasn't speaking to them. Yet when they were alone, to His own disciples He would explain everything.

Power over Nature

³⁵ Now on that same day in the evening, He says to them, "Let's cross over to the other side." ³⁶ After leaving the crowd, they take Him along in the boat, just as He was. And other boats were with Him.

³⁷ A great windstorm arises, and the waves were rushing into the boat. The boat was beginning to fill up. ³⁸ But Yeshua was in the back of the boat, sleeping on a pillow. They wake Him up and say to Him, "Teacher, don't you care that we are perishing?"

³⁹ So He woke up and rebuked the wind. And He said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" Then the wind stopped, and it became totally calm. ⁴⁰ And He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Even now you have no faith?"

⁴¹ They were struck with awe and said to one another, "Who is this? Even the wind and the sea obey Him!"

Power over Demons

5 They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. ² As soon as Yeshua got out of the boat, a man from the graveyard [†] with an unclean spirit met Him. ³ He lived among the tombs, and no one could restrain him anymore, even with a chain. ⁴ For he had often been bound with shackles and chains, but the chains had been ripped apart by him and the shackles broken. No one was strong enough to tame him. ⁵ And through it all, night and day, at the graveyard and in the mountains, he kept screaming and gashing himself with stones.

⁶ When he saw Yeshua from a distance, he ran and bowed down before Him. ⁷ Crying out with a loud voice, he said, "What's between You and me, Yeshua, Ben El Elyon? I'm warning you, in the name of God, do not torment me!"

⁸ For Yeshua had said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!" ⁹ Then Yeshua began questioning him, "What is your name?"

And he answered, "My name is Legion, ^{††} for we are many." ¹⁰ He kept begging Him not to send them out of the country. ¹¹ Now a large herd of pigs was feeding on the hillside nearby. ¹² The unclean spirits urged Him, saying, "Send us to the pigs, so we may enter them." ¹³ So Yeshua gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered the pigs. And the herd, about two thousand in number, rushed down the cliff and were drowned in the sea.

¹⁴ The herdsmen ran away and told the town and countryside, and they came to see what had happened. ¹⁵ Now they came to Yeshua and saw the madman who had had the legion. He was sitting there, dressed in clothes, and in his right mind. The people were scared.

¹⁶ Those who had seen it described in detail what had happened to the man plagued by a demon, and they also told about the pigs. ¹⁷ And they began to beg Yeshua to leave their country. ¹⁸ As He was getting into the boat, the man who had been infested with demons kept begging to remain with Him. ¹⁹ Yeshua did not let him, but He told him, "Go home to your friends and tell them how much ADONAI has done for you, how He showed you mercy."

²⁰ So he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis [‡] how much Yeshua had done for him. And all were amazed.

Power in His Touch

²¹ When Yeshua had crossed over in the boat again to the other side, a big crowd gathered around Him; and He was by the sea. ²² Then one of the synagogue leaders, named Jairus, comes. Seeing Him, he falls at His feet. ²³ He begs Him a great deal, saying, "My little daughter is near death! Come and lay hands on her so that she may be healed and live!"

²⁴ So Yeshua went off with him, and a big crowd was following Him and pressing upon Him. ²⁵ And there was a woman with a blood flow for 12 years, ^{‡26} who had suffered much under many doctors. She had spent all that she had without benefit; instead, she grew worse. ²⁷ When she heard about Yeshua, she came through the crowd from behind and touched His garment. ²⁸ For she kept saying, "If I touch even His clothes, I shall be healed."

²⁹ Right away the blood flow stopped, and she felt in her body that she was healed from her disease. ³⁰ At once Yeshua, knowing in Himself that power had gone out from Him, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My clothes?"

³³ But the woman, scared and shaking, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him and told Him the whole truth. ³⁴ And He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in shalom and be healed from your disease."

³⁵ While Yeshua was still speaking, messengers come from the house of the synagogue leader, saying, "Your daughter is dead. Why do you still trouble the Teacher?"

³⁸ They come to the house of the synagogue leader. He sees a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. ³⁹ After entering, He said to them, "Why make such a fuss and weep? The child didn't die, but is sleeping."

⁴⁰ They start jeering at Him. But after sending all of them out, He takes the child's father and mother, and those with Him, and enters where the child was.

41 Then, taking hold of the child's hand, He tells her, "Talitha koum," † which means, "Little girl, I say to you, get up." 42 Immediately, the girl stood up and began to walk around! (She was 12 years old.) And they were overcome with astonishment. 43 But He gave them strict orders that no one should know about this, and He said something to eat should be given to her.

Responding to Rejection

6 Now Yeshua went out from there, and He comes to His hometown, and His disciples follow Him. 2 When Shabbat came, He began to teach in the synagogue. Many listeners were amazed, saying, "Where did this fellow get these things? What's this wisdom given to Him? Such miracles are done by His hands! 3 Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Miriam, and the brother of Jacob and Joseph and Judah and Simon? Aren't His sisters here with us?" And they took offense at Him.

4 Then Yeshua began saying to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown, among his relatives, and in his own house." 5 He was not able to do any miracle, except that He laid hands on a few sick people and healed them. 6 And He was astonished because of their unbelief. †† And He was going around among the villages teaching.

7 Yeshua summoned the Twelve, and He began to send them out two by two. And He gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8 He directed them to take nothing for the journey except a walking stick—no bread, no bag, no copper coin in their belt— 9 but to wear sandals and not to put on two shirts. ‡

10 He was also telling them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that place. 11 And whatever place will not receive you or listen to you, as you leave from there, shake the dust off the bottom of your feet as a witness against them." 12 So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent, 13 and they were driving out many demons and anointing with oil many who were sick and healing them.

14 King Herod heard, for Yeshua's name had become known. Some were saying, "John the Immerser has risen from the dead! Because of this, these powers are at work in Him!" 15 But others were saying, "It's Elijah!" Still others were saying, "It's a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." ††

16 But when Herod heard, he said, "John, the one I beheaded, has been raised!" 17 For Herod himself sent and arrested John and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, because Herod had married her. 18 For John had been telling Herod, "It is not permitted for you to have your brother's wife." †††19 Now Herodias had a grudge against John and wanted to kill him, but she wasn't able. 20 For Herod was in awe of John and kept him safe, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man. When he listened to John he was confused, but he still listened gladly.

21 An opportunity came—when Herod, on his birthday, gave a banquet for his high officials, military brass, and the leaders of the Galilee. 22 When the daughter of Herodias ††† came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those reclining with him. And the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you want, and I'll give it to you!" 23 He vowed to her, "Whatever you ask of me I'll give you, up to half of my kingdom!"

24 She left the room and said to her mother, "What should I ask for?"

Her mother said, "The head of John the Immerser!"

25 Immediately she rushed to the king and requested, "I want you to give me, right now, the head of John the Immerser on a platter!"

26 The king became very sorrowful; but because of his oaths and those reclining with him, he didn't want to refuse her.

27 Immediately the king sent an executioner and gave orders to bring John's head. And the executioner went out and beheaded John in the prison, 28 brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother. 29 When John's disciples heard, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

Feeding Five Thousand Families

30 The twelve emissaries gathered together with Yeshua, and they reported to Him all they had done and taught. 31 There were many coming and going, and they had no time even to eat. So He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to an isolated place and rest awhile." 32 So they left privately by boat to an isolated place. 33 However, the people saw them leaving, and many recognized them. They ran on foot from all the towns to get there ahead of them. 34 As Yeshua came ashore, He saw a large crowd and felt compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. ††† So He taught them many things.

35 When it was already late, His disciples came to Him and said, "This place is isolated, and the hour is already late. 36 Send these people away so they can go into the nearby countryside and the villages and buy themselves something to eat."

37 But He answered and said to them, "You give them something to eat!"

And they said to Him, "Should we go and spend 200 denarii on bread to give them something to eat?"

38 Then He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see."

When they found out, they said, "Five, and two fish."

39 Then Yeshua made them all sit down in groups on the green grass. 40 So they reclined in groups of hundreds and fifties. ⁴¹ And He took the five loaves and the two fish; and looking up to heaven, He offered the bracha. He broke the loaves and kept giving them to the disciples to serve to the people; and He divided the two fish among them all. ⁴² They all ate and were satisfied, ⁴³ and the disciples picked up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and fish. ⁴⁴ Now there were 5,000 men who ate the loaves.

Walking on Water

⁴⁵ Right away, Yeshua made His disciples get into the boat and go ahead of Him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He Himself was sending the crowd away. ⁴⁶ After leaving them, He went up on the hillside to pray.

⁴⁷ And when evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea and He was alone on the land. ⁴⁸ He saw the disciples struggling to row, for the wind was against them. Around the fourth watch in the night, † Yeshua comes to them, walking on the sea; and He wanted to pass by them. ⁴⁹ But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought He was a ghost and cried out— ⁵⁰ for they all saw Him and were terrified.

But immediately, He spoke to them. He said, “Take courage! I am. Do not be afraid.” ⁵¹ Then He got into the boat with them, and the wind stopped. They were utterly dumbfounded, ⁵² for they still hadn’t understood about the loaves. Instead, their hearts were hardened.

Miracles Multiply

⁵³ After they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and set anchor there. ⁵⁴ As they got out of the boat, immediately people recognized Yeshua. ⁵⁵ They ran about the region and began to carry around on their mats all those who were in bad shape, to wherever they heard He was. ⁵⁶ And wherever He entered villages, towns, or countryside, people were placing the sick in the marketplaces and begging Him to let them touch even the tzitzit of His garment—and all who touched it were being healed.

Hearts Harden

7 Now the Pharisees and some of the Torah scholars who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Yeshua. ² And they saw that some of His disciples were eating bread with unclean hands, that is, not washed. ³ (For the Pharisees and all Jewish people do not eat unless they wash their hands up to the elbow, keeping the tradition of the elders. ⁴ And when they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they perform a ritual washing. †† There are many other traditions they have received and hold, such as the washing of cups, pitchers, and copper vessels.) ‡

† Roman time, 3-6 a.m. †† Various mss. say wash immerse
‡ Some mss. add and dining couches

⁵ The Pharisees and Torah scholars questioned Yeshua, “Why don’t Your disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders? Why do they eat bread with unwashed hands?”

⁶ And He said to them, “Rightly did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written, “This people honors Me with their lips but their heart is far from Me.

⁷ And in vain they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’ ††

⁸ “Having left behind the commandment of God, you hold on to the tradition of men.”

⁹ He was also telling them, “You set aside the commands of God, in order that you may validate your own tradition. ¹⁰ For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘He who speaks evil of father or mother must be put to death.’ ††¹¹ But you say if anyone tells his father or mother, ‘Whatever you might have gained from me is korban (that is, an offering to God),’ ¹² then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother, ¹³ making void the word of God with your tradition that you’ve handed down. And you do many such things.” †††

¹⁴ Then Yeshua called the crowd again and began saying to them, “Hear Me, everyone, and understand. ¹⁵ There is nothing outside the man that can make him unholy by going into him. Rather, it is what comes out of the man that makes the man unholy.” ††† (¹⁶) §

¹⁷ When He had left the crowd and entered the house, His disciples questioned Him about the parable. ¹⁸ And He said to them, “Are you then also lacking understanding? Don’t you grasp that whatever goes into the man cannot make him unholy? ¹⁹ For it does not enter into the heart but into the stomach, and then goes out into the sewer, cleansing all foods.” ††

²⁰ And He continued, “It is what comes out of the man that makes the man unholy. ²¹ For from within, out of the heart of men, come evil intentions, sexual immorality, theft, murder, ²² adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lustfulness, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. ²³ All these evil things come from within and make the man unholy.”

Miracles Touch Gentile Lives

²⁴ Yeshua got up and left from there to the region of Tyre. When He had entered a house, He didn’t want anyone to know; but He couldn’t escape notice. ²⁵ A woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him. She came immediately and fell at His feet. ²⁶ The woman was a Greek, from Syrophenicia. And she kept begging Yeshua to drive the demon out of her daughter.

²⁷ He was telling her, "First let the children get their fill, for it's not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

²⁸ "Yes, Master," she said to Him, "but even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

³¹ Again He left the region of Tyre and came through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, within the region of the Decapolis. ³² They bring Him a deaf man who had a speech impediment, and they beg Him to lay His hand on him. ³³ Yeshua took him aside from the crowd to a private place, and He put His fingers in the man's ears. After spitting, He touched the man's tongue. ³⁴ Looking up to heaven, He says to the man, "Ephphatha" † which means "Be opened!"

³⁵ Immediately the man's ears were opened, his tongue was loosened, and he began to speak plainly. ³⁶ Yeshua ordered them not to tell anyone. But the more He ordered them, the more they continued proclaiming it. ³⁷ People were completely astounded, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear and the mute speak!"

Do You Still Not Understand?

8 In those days, there was another large crowd with nothing to eat, and Yeshua called the disciples. He said to them, ² "I have compassion for the crowd, because they've stayed with Me for three days now and have nothing to eat. ³ If I send them home hungry they'll pass out on the way, for some of them have come from very far away."

⁴ His disciples answered Him, "How can anyone satisfy these people with bread here in a wasteland?"

⁵ "How many loaves do you have?" Yeshua was asking them.

"Seven," they said.

⁶ He directed the crowd to recline on the ground. After taking the seven loaves and giving thanks, He broke them and began giving them to His disciples to serve; and they served them to the crowd. ⁷ They also had a few small fish and, after offering a bracha for them, He commanded these to be served as well.

¹⁰ Right away, He got into the boat with His disciples and went to the area of Dalmanutha. ¹¹ The Pharisees came and began to argue with Him, demanding a sign from heaven, to test Him. ¹² Sighing deeply in His spirit, Yeshua said, "Why does this generation demand a sign? Amen, I tell you, no sign will be given to this generation." ¹³ Leaving them, He got back into the boat and crossed to the other side.

† Contraction of the Aramaic etpatach †† 4000 men or families; cf. Matt. 15:32-39.

The Un-Seeing Disciples

¹⁴ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, and they had only one loaf in the boat. ¹⁵ Yeshua was warning them, "Watch out! Beware of the hametz of the Pharisees and the hametz of Herod."

¹⁶ They began to discuss with each other that they had no bread. ¹⁷ And Yeshua, aware of this, said to them, "Why do you discuss that you have no bread? You still don't get it? Don't you understand? Are your hearts hardened? ¹⁸ Having eyes, don't you see? And having ears, don't you hear? And don't you remember? ¹⁹ When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up?"

"Twelve," they say to Him.

²⁰ "When I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up?"

"Seven," they say to Him.

²¹ He said to them, "Do you still not understand?"

Eyes that Need Opening

²² They come to Bethsaida. Some people bring a blind man to Yeshua and beg Him to touch the man.

²³ Taking the blind man by the hand, Yeshua brought him outside the village. After spitting on the man's eyes and laying His hands on him, Yeshua asked the man, "Do you see anything?"

²⁴ The man looked up and said, "I see men! They look like trees walking about." ²⁵ Then Yeshua put His hands on the man's eyes again. The man looked intently, his sight was restored, and he began to see everything clearly.

²⁶ Yeshua sent him straight home, saying, "Don't even enter the village!"

²⁷ Now Yeshua and His disciples went out to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that I am?"

²⁸ They told Him, "John the Immerser; and others Elijah; but others, one of the prophets." ‡

²⁹ Then He asked them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered Him, "You are the Messiah!" ³⁰ And He warned them not to tell anyone about Him.

Revealing the Mission

³¹ Then He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and be killed, and after three days rise again. †‡³² He was speaking openly about this. And Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. ³³ But turning around and looking at His disciples, He rebuked Peter. He said, "Get behind Me, satan! You are not setting your mind on the things of God, but the things of men."

³⁴ Then He called the crowd, along with His disciples, and said to them, "If anyone wants to follow after Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and keep following Me. ³⁵ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the sake of the Good News will save it. ³⁶ For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his soul? ³⁷ For what could a man give in exchange for his soul? ³⁸ For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this unfaithful and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels!"

9 Yeshua was telling them, "Amen, I tell you, there are some standing here who will never taste death until they see the kingdom of God come with power!"

A Glimpse of His Glory

² After six days, Yeshua takes with Him Peter and Jacob and John, and brings them up a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured before them.

³ His clothes became radiant and brilliantly white, whiter than any launderer on earth could bleach them.

⁴ Then Elijah appeared to them with Moses, and they were talking with Yeshua.

⁵ Peter responds to Yeshua, "Rabbi, it's good for us to be here. Let's make three sukkot—one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah." ⁶ (He didn't know what to say, for they were terrified.)

⁹ As they were coming down from the mountain, Yeshua ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen, until the Son of Man rose up from the dead.

¹⁰ They kept this word to themselves, discussing among themselves what it is to rise up from the dead.

¹¹ And they questioned Him, saying, "Why do the Torah scholars say that Elijah must come first?"

¹² Now He told them, "Indeed Elijah comes first; ‡ he restores all things. And how is it written that the Son of Man must suffer much and be treated with contempt? ††† I tell you that Elijah has come, and they did to him whatever they wanted, just as it is written about him." ‡

The Secret of Prayer

¹⁴ When they came to the disciples, they saw a big crowd around them and the Torah scholars arguing with them. ¹⁵ Suddenly, when the whole crowd saw Yeshua, they were amazed and began running to greet Him. ¹⁶ He questioned them, "What are you arguing about with them?"

¹⁷ And a man from the crowd answered Him, "Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a spirit that makes him mute. ¹⁸ Whenever it seizes him, it throws him down; he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes stiff. I told Your disciples to drive it out, but they couldn't!"

¹⁹ And answering them, He said, "Oh faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me."

²⁰ They brought the boy to Yeshua. When the spirit saw Him, immediately it threw the boy into a convulsion. The boy fell to the ground and began rolling around and foaming at the mouth. ²¹ Yeshua asked the father, "How long has this been happening to him?"

"Since he was a child," the man answered. ²² "It has often thrown him into fire or water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion and help us!"

²³ "If You can?" Yeshua said to him. "All things are possible for one who believes!"

²⁴ Immediately the boy's father cried out, "I believe! Help my unbelief!"

²⁵ When Yeshua saw that a crowd was gathering fast, He rebuked the unclean spirit, telling it, "I command you, deaf and mute spirit, come out of him and do not ever enter him again!"

²⁶ After howling and shaking the boy wildly, it came out. The boy became so much like a corpse that many were saying, "He's dead!" ²⁷ But Yeshua took him by the hand and lifted him, and the boy stood up.

²⁸ After Yeshua came into the house, His disciples began questioning Him in private, "Why couldn't we drive it out?"

²⁹ And He said to them, "This kind cannot come out except by prayer." †††

³⁰ They left from there and passed through the Galilee. Yeshua didn't want anyone to know, ³¹ for He was teaching His disciples and telling them, "The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him. And after He is killed, three days later He will rise up." ³² But the disciples didn't understand this statement, and they were afraid to question Him about it.

The Secret of Childlike Humility

³³ Then they came to Capernaum. And when Yeshua was in the house, He began to ask the disciples, "What were you discussing on the way?" ³⁴ But they kept quiet, because on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest.

³⁵ Sitting down, He called the Twelve and said to them, "If any man wants to be first, he shall be least of all and the servant of everyone." ³⁶ Taking a small child, He set him in the midst of them. And taking him in His arms, He said to them, ³⁷ "Whoever welcomes one of these children in My name, welcomes Me; and whoever welcomes Me, welcomes not Me but the One who sent Me."

††† Some manuscripts add and fasting

³⁸ John said to Him, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he wasn't following us."

³⁹ But Yeshua responded, "Don't stop him! No one who does a miracle in My name will be able soon afterward to speak evil about Me. ⁴⁰ He who is not against us is for us. ⁴¹ For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink in My name because you belong to Messiah, amen I tell you, he will never lose his reward."

⁴² "But whoever causes one of these little ones who trust in Me to stumble, it would be better for him to have a heavy millstone put around his neck and to be thrown into the sea!"

The Secret of Salt

⁴³ "And if your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off! It is better for you to enter into life crippled than, having two hands, to go to Gehenna, † into the unquenchable fire. (⁴⁴) ††⁴⁵ And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off! It's better for you to enter life lame than, having your two feet, to be thrown into Gehenna. (⁴⁶) ⁴⁷ If your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out! It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than, having two eyes, to be thrown into Gehenna, ⁴⁸ where

"their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched." ‡

⁴⁹ "For everyone will be salted with fire. ⁵⁰ Salt is good; but if the salt becomes unsalty, with what will you flavor it? Have salt in yourselves, and keep shalom with one another."

Abide in Marriage

10 Then getting up from there, Yeshua goes to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. Again crowds gather around Him, and, as was His custom, He began to teach them once more.

² Pharisees came up, and to test Him they began asking, "Is it permitted for a man to divorce his wife?"

³ And He replied to them, "What did Moses command you?"

⁴ The Pharisees said, "Moses permitted a man to write a bill of divorce and to put her away." ††

⁵ But Yeshua said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment! ⁶ But from the beginning of creation, God 'made them male and female. ⁷ For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, ⁸ and the two shall become one flesh.' †† So they are no longer two, but one flesh. ⁹ Therefore what God has joined together, let no man separate!"

¹⁰ In the house, the disciples began questioning Him about this again. ¹¹ And He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. ¹² And if she divorces her husband and marries another, she is committing adultery."

Let the Little Ones Come!

¹³ Now people were bringing little children to Yeshua so He might touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who brought them. ¹⁴ But when Yeshua saw this, He got angry. He told them, "Let the little children come to Me! Do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁵ Amen, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it!" ¹⁶ And He took them in His arms and began blessing them, laying His hands on them.

The Cost of Discipleship

¹⁷ As Yeshua was setting out on His way, a man ran up to Him, fell on his knees before Him, and asked, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

¹⁸ "Why do you call Me good?" Yeshua said to him. "No one is good except One—that is God. ¹⁹ You know the commandments, 'Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony,' do not cheat, 'honor your father and mother.'" †††

²⁰ The man responded, "Teacher, all these I have kept since my youth!"

²¹ Looking at him, Yeshua loved him and said, "One thing you lack. Go, sell as much as you have, and give to the poor; and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me." ²² But at this statement, the man became sad and went away grieving, for he had much property.

²³ Then looking around, Yeshua says to His disciples, "How hard it will be for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!" ²⁴ The disciples were amazed at His words. But Yeshua answers again and says to them, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁶ The disciples were even more astonished, saying among themselves, "Then who can be saved?"

²⁷ Looking at them, Yeshua said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God!" †††

²⁸ Peter began to say to Him, "Look, we've left everything to follow You!"

²⁹ "Amen, I tell you," Yeshua replied, "there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or property, for My sake and for the sake of the Good News, ³⁰ who will not receive a hundred times as much now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and property, along with persecutions; and in the olam haba, eternal life. ³¹ But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

Death and Resurrection Revealed

³² They were on the way going up to Jerusalem, and Yeshua was going ahead of them. And they were amazed, while those who followed were fearful. Again Yeshua took the Twelve aside and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him.

³³ He said, "Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars. They will condemn Him to death and hand Him over to the Gentiles. ^{†34} They will mock Him and spit on Him, scourge Him and kill Him. Yet after three days, He will rise again!"

³⁵ Then Jacob and John, the sons of Zebedee, come up to Him, saying, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask of You."

³⁶ And He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

³⁷ They said to Him, "Let us sit, one on Your right and one on Your left, in Your glory."

³⁸ But Yeshua answered them, "You don't know what you're asking! Are you able to drink the cup I drink, or endure the immersion I must endure?"

³⁹ They said to Him, "We are able."

And Yeshua said to them, "You will drink the cup I drink, and you will endure the immersion I must endure. ⁴⁰ But to sit on My right or left is not Mine to grant—it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

⁴¹ Now when the ten heard, they started to get angry with Jacob and John. ⁴² And calling them over, Yeshua said to them, "You know those recognized as rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones play the tyrant over them. ⁴³ Yet it is not this way among you. But whoever wants to be great among you shall be your servant, ⁴⁴ and whoever wants to be first among you shall be slave of all. ⁴⁵ For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many."

Ben-David Heals the Blind

⁴⁶ Then they came to Jericho. Now as Yeshua was leaving Jericho with His disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus the son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. ⁴⁷ When he heard that it was Yeshua of Natzeret, he began to cry out, " Ben-David, Yeshua! Have mercy on me!" ⁴⁸ Many were warning him to be quiet; but he kept crying out all the more, " Ben-David, have mercy on me!" ^{††}

⁴⁹ Yeshua stopped and said, "Call him over."

So they call the blind man, saying, "Take heart! Get up, He's calling you!" ⁵⁰ Throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and came to Yeshua.

⁵¹ And answering him, Yeshua said, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

The blind man said, " Rabboni, I want to see again!"

† cf. Isa. 42: 49; 50; 53; Dan. 9:26. †† cf. Isa. 61:1(LXX); Luke 4:18.

⁵² Yeshua said to him, "Go! Your faith has made you well." Instantly he regained his sight and began following Yeshua down the road.

Ben-David Enters Jerusalem

11 Now as they draw near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, to the Mount of Olives, Yeshua sends two of His disciples ² and says to them, "Go into the village ahead of you. Right away as you enter it, you will find a colt tied up that no one has ever sat upon. [‡] Untie it and bring it. ³ If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Master needs it.' And right away he will send it back here." ^{‡†}

⁴ They went and found a colt outside in the street, tied at a door. And they untied it. ⁵ Some people standing there began saying to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?"

⁶ They answered just as Yeshua had told them, and the people let them go. ⁷ And they brought the colt to Yeshua and laid their cloaks on it, and He sat on it.

⁸ Many spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread branches cut from the fields. ^{‡‡9} Those going before and those following kept shouting,

" Hoshia-na! Baruch ha-Ba b'Shem ADONAI!

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!

¹⁰ Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hoshia-na in the highest!" ^{‡‡†}

¹¹ And He entered Jerusalem and went into the Temple. After looking around at everything, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve, since it was already late.

The Fruit of the Faithful

¹² The next day, when they had left Bethany, He became hungry. ¹³ Seeing from a distance a fig tree in leaf, He went to see if He would find any fruit on it. When He came up to it, He found nothing except leaves, because it wasn't the season for figs. ¹⁴ And He said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" And His disciples were listening.

¹⁵ Then they came to Jerusalem. And He entered the Temple and started to drive out those selling and buying in the Temple. He overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of those selling doves, ¹⁶ and He wouldn't let anyone carry goods through the Temple. ¹⁷ And He began to teach them, saying, "Is it not written,

"My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations"? ^{‡‡†} But you have made it a 'den of thieves.'" [§]

¹⁸ The ruling kohanim and Torah scholars heard this and began looking for a way to destroy Him; for they were afraid of Him, because the whole crowd was astonished at His teaching. ¹⁹ Whenever evening came, Yeshua and His disciples would leave the city.

²⁰ As they were passing by in the morning, they saw the fig tree shriveled from the roots. ²¹ Peter remembered and said to Yeshua, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree You cursed has shriveled up!"

²² And Yeshua answered, saying to them, "Have faith in God! ²³ Amen, I tell you, if someone says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart but trusts that what he says is happening, so shall it be for him. ²⁴ For this reason I say to you, whatever you pray and ask, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. ²⁵ Whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your transgressions." ²⁶ †

A Question for a Question

²⁷ Again they come to Jerusalem. While Yeshua was walking in the Temple, the ruling kohanim, Torah scholars, and elders come up to Him. ²⁸ And they start saying to Him, "By what authority are You doing these things? Who gave You this authority to do these things?"

²⁹ Yeshua said to them, "I will put one question to you. Answer Me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ³⁰ The immersion of John—was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me!"

³¹ They began to dialogue among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' ³² But if we say, 'From men'...?" They were afraid of the crowd, for all held that John really was a prophet. ³³ So answering Yeshua, they say, "We don't know."

And Yeshua tells them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

Taking the Kingdom by Force

12 Yeshua began to speak to them in parables: "A man planted a vineyard. He put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the winepress, and built a tower. He leased it to some tenant farmers and went on a journey. ² And at the season, he sent a servant to collect from the tenants part of the vineyard's fruit. ³ But grabbing him, they beat him up and sent him away empty-handed. ⁴ And again the man sent another servant to them, and they wounded his head and treated him shamefully. ⁵ He sent another, and that one they killed; and so on with many others, beating some and killing some. ⁶ He had yet one, a well-loved son. He sent him to them last of all, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

⁷ "But those tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir! Come on, let's kill him and the inheritance will be ours!' ⁸ So grabbing the son, they killed him and threw him out of the vineyard."

† Some mss. add But if you don't forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions

⁹ "What then will the master of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants and give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰ Haven't you read this Scripture?"

"The stone which the builders rejected, this has become the chief cornerstone."

¹¹ This came from ADONAI, and it is marvelous in our eyes." ††

¹² They were trying to seize Yeshua, because they realized that He spoke the parable against them. But they feared the crowd, so they left Him and went away.

A Test of Loyalty

¹³ Then they send some of the Pharisees and Herodians to Yeshua in order to trap Him with a word. ¹⁴ They come and say to Him, "Teacher, we know that You are honest, and what others think doesn't concern You. You don't look at men's appearance, but teach the way of God according to the truth. Is it permitted to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? ¹⁵ Should we pay, or shouldn't we?"

But Yeshua saw through their hypocrisy and said to them, "Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a denarius so I may see it."

¹⁶ They brought one. And He said to them, "Whose image is this? And whose inscription?"

"Caesar's," they said to Him.

¹⁷ Then Yeshua said to them, "Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they were completely amazed at Him.

The Challenge of the Sadducees

¹⁸ Then Sadducees (who say there is no resurrection) came and began questioning Yeshua, saying,

²⁴ Yeshua said to them, "Isn't this the reason you've gone astray, because you don't understand the Scriptures or the power of God? ²⁵ For when they rise up from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. ²⁶ But concerning the dead being raised, haven't you read in the book of Moses about the burning bush? How God said to him, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?' ²⁷ He's not the God of the dead, but of the living. You have gone far astray!"

Love Ends the Argument

²⁸ One of the Torah scholars came and heard them debating. Seeing that Yeshua had answered them well, he asked Him, "Which commandment is first of all?"

²⁹ Yeshua answered, "The first is, ' Shema Yisrael, ADONAI Eloheinu, ADONAI echad. Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God, the LORD is One. ³⁰ And you shall love ADONAI your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' ³¹ The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' ^{††} There is no other commandment greater than these."

³² "Well said, Teacher," the Torah scholar said to Him. "You have spoken the truth, that He is echad, and besides Him there is no other! ^{‡‡‡} And 'to love Him with all the heart, with all the understanding, and with all the strength,' ^{††} and 'to love the neighbor as oneself,' ^{‡‡} is much more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

³⁴ When Yeshua saw that he had answered wisely, He said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared any longer to question Him.

Who Is King David's Lord?

³⁵ While Yeshua was teaching in the Temple, He said, "How is it that the Torah scholars say that the Messiah is Ben-David? ³⁶ David himself, through the Ruach ha-Kodesh, said,

" ADONAI said to my Lord,
"Sit at My right hand,

until I put Your enemies under Your feet." ^{‡‡}

⁴¹ He sat down opposite the treasury and began watching how the people were putting money into the offering box. Many rich people were putting in a lot. ⁴² Then a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, worth less than a penny. ⁴³ Calling His disciples over, He said to them, "Amen, I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those contributing to the box! ⁴⁴ For they all put in from their surplus; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything she had, her whole living."

Signs of the End

13 As Yeshua was going out of the Temple, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher, look! What stones and what buildings!"

² Yeshua said to him, "You see these great buildings? Not one stone here will be left upon another. Every one will be torn down!"

³ As He was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the Temple, Peter, Jacob, John, and Andrew were questioning Him privately, ⁴ "Tell us, when will these things happen? What will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?"

⁵ Yeshua began to tell them, "Watch out that no one leads you astray! ⁶ Many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and they will lead many astray. ⁷ When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed, for this must happen but it is not yet the end. ⁸ For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines. These things are only the beginning of birth pains.

⁹ "Watch out for yourselves! They will hand you over to the courts, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will stand before governors and kings because of Me, as a witness to them. ¹⁰ The Good News must first be proclaimed to all the nations. ¹¹ When they arrest you and hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what to say. Say whatever is given to you in that hour, for it is not you who speaks but the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ¹² Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child. And children will rise up against parents and have them put to death. ¹³ And you will be hated by all because of My name, but the one who endures to the end will be saved."

Birth Pangs before Deliverance

¹⁴ "But when you see 'the abomination of desolation' ^{‡‡‡} standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then those in Judea must flee to the mountains. ¹⁵ The one on the roof must not go down, nor enter to take anything out of his house. ¹⁶ And the one in the field must not turn back to get his cloak. ¹⁷ Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing babies in those days! ¹⁸ Pray that it will not happen in winter.

¹⁹ "For in those days there will be trouble such as has never happened, [§] not since the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will. ²⁰ And unless ADONAI had cut short those days, no one would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom He chose, He cut short the days.

²¹ "And then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here's the Messiah!' or, 'Look, there He is!' do not believe it. ²² For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up ^{§†} and show signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, the chosen. ²³ So be careful! See, I have told you everything beforehand."

Messianic Victory

²⁴ "But in those days, after that trouble, "the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, ²⁵ and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.' †
²⁶ "And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in clouds' †† with great power and glory. ²⁷ Then He will send out the angels and will gather together His chosen from the four winds, from the end of the earth, to the end of heaven."

Keep Watch

²⁸ "Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹ So also, when you see all these things happening, know that it is near, at the door. ³⁰ Amen, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. ³¹ Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away. ³² But of that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven nor the Son, except the Father.

³³ "Keep on the lookout! Stay alert! For you do not know when the time is. ³⁴ It is like a man away on a journey. After leaving his house and putting his servants in charge and giving each his task, he also commanded the doorkeeper to watch. ³⁵ Therefore stay alert, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, at midnight, when the rooster crows, or in the early morning. ³⁶ So watch in case, coming suddenly, he finds you asleep. ³⁷ What I say to you I say to all: 'Stay alert!'"

Anointed for Burial

14 Now it was two days before Passover and the Feast of Matzah. The ruling kohanim and Torah scholars were searching for a way to grab Yeshua by stealth and kill Him. ² "But not during the festival," they were saying, "so there won't be a riot among the people."

³ And while Yeshua was in Bethany at the house of Simon ha-Metzora, reclining at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very expensive oil of pure nard. Breaking open the jar, she poured it over His head. ⁴ But some got angry and said among themselves, "Why was this fragrant oil wasted? ⁵ It could have been sold for over three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor!" And they kept scolding her.

⁶ But Yeshua said, "Leave her alone. Why do you cause trouble for her? She's done Me a mitzvah. ⁷ For you always have the poor with you, and you can do good for them whenever you want; but you won't always have Me. ⁸ She did what she could—she came beforehand to anoint My body for burial. ⁹ Amen, I tell you, wherever the Good News is proclaimed in all the world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

¹⁰ Then Judah from Kriot, one of the Twelve, went out to the ruling kohanim to betray Yeshua to them.

¹¹ They were delighted when they heard this and promised to give him money. And Judah began looking for a chance to hand Him over.

New Covenant at the Last Seder

¹² Now on the first day of matzah, when they were slaughtering the Passover lamb, Yeshua's disciples say to Him, "Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

¹³ He sends two of His disciples and tells them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him, ¹⁴ and wherever he enters, tell the homeowner, 'The Teacher says, "Where is My guest room, where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"' ¹⁵ He will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there."

¹⁶ The disciples went out, came to the city, and found just what Yeshua had told them. And they prepared the Passover. ¹⁷ When it was evening, He came with the Twelve. ¹⁸ As they were reclining and eating, Yeshua said, "Amen, I tell you, one of you who is eating with Me will betray Me."

¹⁹ They began to be sorrowful and to say to Him one by one, "I'm not the one, am I?"

²⁰ He said to them, "It's one of the Twelve, one who dips with Me in the bowl. ²¹ For the Son of Man indeed goes, just as it is written about Him; but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born!"

²² And while they were eating, He took matzah; † and after He offered the bracha, He broke it and gave it to them and said, "Take; this is My body." ²³ And He took a cup; and after giving thanks, He gave to them and they all drank from it. ²⁴ And He said to them, "This is My blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. ²⁵ Amen, I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God."

Denial Predicted

²⁶ After singing the Hallel, ††† they went out to the Mount of Olives. ²⁷ And Yeshua said to them, "You will all fall away, for it is written, "I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’ †

²⁸ “But after I’m raised up, I will go before you to the Galilee.”

²⁹ Peter said to Him, “Even though all fall away, I won’t!”

³⁰ And Yeshua said to him, “Amen, I tell you, today—this very night—before a rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.”

³¹ But Peter kept insisting exceedingly, “Even if I must die with You, I’ll never deny You!” And they all were saying the same.

A Night of Painful Prayer

³² Then they come to a place whose name is Gethsemane; and Yeshua says to His disciples, “Sit here while I pray.” ³³ He takes with Him Peter, Jacob, and John; and He began to be deeply distressed and troubled.

³⁴ And He tells them, “My soul is deeply grieved, even to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch.”

³⁵ Going a little farther, He fell to the ground and began praying that if possible this hour might pass Him by. ³⁶ And He was saying, “Abba, Father, all things are possible for You! Take this cup from Me! Yet not what I will, but what You will.”

³⁷ Then He comes and finds them sleeping; and He tells Peter, “Simon, you’re asleep? Couldn’t you keep watch for one hour? ³⁸ Keep watching and praying, so that you do not enter into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.” ³⁹ Again He went away and prayed, saying the same words. ⁴⁰ And again He came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy. They didn’t know what to answer Him. ⁴¹ And He comes the third time and says to them, “Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Enough! The hour has come. Look, the Son of Man is being delivered into the hands of sinners. ⁴² Get up, let’s go! Look, My betrayer is near.”

Betrayed and Abandoned

⁴³ Right away, while Yeshua was still speaking, Judah comes up, one of the Twelve, and with him a crowd with swords and clubs, from the ruling kohanim, Torah scholars, and elders. ⁴⁴ Now His betrayer had given them a signal, saying, “The One I kiss, He’s the One! Seize Him and lead Him away under guard.”

⁴⁸ Yeshua said to them, “Have you come out with swords and clubs, to capture Me as you would against a revolutionary? ⁴⁹ Every day I was with you in the Temple teaching, and you didn’t seize Me. But this is so that the Scriptures ‡ would be fulfilled.” ⁵⁰ And all fled,

† Zech. 13:7. †† cf. Gen. 44:18. ‡ cf. Matt. 26:56, writings of the prophets abandoning Him. ††⁵¹ A certain young man was following Him, with nothing but a linen cloth around his body, and they grabbed him. ⁵² But he ran away naked, leaving behind the linen cloth.

Falsely Charged

⁵³ Then they led Yeshua away to the kohen gadol. And all the ruling kohanim, elders, and Torah scholars gathered. ⁵⁴ Peter had followed Him from a distance, right into the courtyard of the kohen gadol. He was sitting with the guards, warming himself by the fire.

⁵⁵ Now the ruling kohanim and all the Sanhedrin kept trying to get evidence against Yeshua so they could put Him to death, but they weren’t finding any. ⁵⁶ Many were giving false testimony against Him, but their testimony wasn’t consistent. ⁵⁷ Some stood up and began to give false testimony against Him, saying, ⁵⁸ “We heard Him say, ‘I will destroy this Temple made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.’” ⁵⁹ Yet even then, their testimony didn’t agree.

⁶⁰ The kohen gadol stood up in the middle and questioned Yeshua, saying, “Do You have no answer? What is this they’re testifying against You?”

⁶¹ But keeping silent, Yeshua did not answer. Again the kohen gadol questioned Him, “Are you Mashiach, Son of the Blessed One?” †

⁶² “I am,” said Yeshua, “and you shall see ‘the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Powerful One,’ and ‘coming with the clouds of heaven!’” ††

⁶³ Tearing his clothes, the kohen gadol says, “Why do we still need witnesses? ⁶⁴ You’ve heard the blasphemy. What seems right to you?”

Then all condemned Him as deserving death. ⁶⁵ Some began to spit on Him, to blindfold Him, and to beat Him with their fists, saying, “Prophecy!” Also the guards slapped Him around.

The Rooster Crows

⁶⁶ As Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the kohen gadol comes by. ⁶⁷ Seeing Peter warming himself, she looked straight at him. “You also were with Yeshua of Natzeret,” she says.

⁶⁸ But he denied it, saying, “I don’t know or understand what you’re talking about!” Then he went outside to the gateway, and a rooster crowed.

⁶⁹ Seeing him, the servant girl began again to tell the bystanders, “This is one of them.”

⁷⁰ But again he denied it. And a little while later, the bystanders were again saying to Peter, “Surely you’re one of them, for you’re also a Galilean.”

⁷¹ But he began to curse himself and to swear an oath: “I do not know this Man you’re talking about!”

⁷² Right then, a rooster crowed a second time. Then Peter called to mind the word Yeshua had said to him:

†† cf. Zech. 13:7; Mark 14:27; Matt. 26:31. †† Hebrew Ben-ha-Mvorach ††† cf. Dan. 7:13(LXX); Ps. 110:1(109:1 LXX).

"Before a rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times." And he broke down and began to weep.

Handed over to the Romans

15 Right at daybreak, the ruling kohanim held a meeting to consult with the elders and Torah scholars and the whole Sanhedrin. They tied up Yeshua, led Him away, and handed Him over to Pilate. ² Pilate interrogated Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

Yeshua answers him, "As you say."

³ The ruling kohanim began to accuse Him of many things. ⁴ Again, Pilate asked Him, "Aren't you going to answer? Look how many charges they're bringing against You!" ⁵ But Yeshua did not answer, so Pilate was amazed.

⁶ Now during the feast, he used to release to them one prisoner, anyone they were asking for. ⁷ Now a man named Bar-Abba [†] had been in jail with the rebels who had committed murder during the rebellion. ⁸ The crowd came up and began to request what he was accustomed to do for them. ⁹ But Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?" ¹⁰ For he knew that out of envy the ruling kohanim had handed Him over. ¹¹ But the ruling kohanim stirred up the crowd, so he would release Bar-Abba to them instead.

¹² Then answering again, Pilate said to them, "So what do you want me to do with the One you call the King of the Jews?"

¹³ They shouted back, "Execute Him!"

¹⁴ Pilate responded, "Why? What evil has He done?" But they shouted all the more, "Execute Him!"

¹⁵ Wanting to satisfy the crowd, Pilate released Bar-Abba for them. And after he had Yeshua scourged, he handed Him over to be crucified.

¹⁶ The soldiers took Him away, into the palace, the governor's mansion called the Praetorium. And they call together the cohort ^{††} of soldiers. ¹⁷ They dress Him up in purple. After braiding a crown of thorns, they put it on Him. ¹⁸ And they began to salute Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" ¹⁹ Over and over, they kept hitting Him on the head with a staff and spitting on Him; and kneeling down, they worshiped Him. ²⁰ When they finished mocking Him, they stripped the purple off Him and put His own clothes back on Him. And they led Him out to crucify Him.

Crucified as King of the Jews

²¹ Now Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was coming in from the countryside. The soldiers force this passerby to carry Yeshua's crossbeam. ²² They bring Yeshua to the place called Golgotha (which is translated, Place of a Skull). ²³ They were offering Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He didn't take

it. ²⁴ Then they crucify Him and divide up His clothing among themselves, casting lots for them ^{††} to see who should take what.

²⁵ Now it was the third hour ^{‡‡} when they nailed Him on the stake. ²⁶ And the inscription of the charge against Him was written above: "THE KING OF THE JEWS." ²⁷ And with Him they execute two outlaws, one on His right and one on His left. (²⁸) ^{‡‡‡}

³¹ Likewise the ruling kohanim, along with the Torah scholars, were also mocking Him among themselves. "He saved others," they were saying, "but He can't save Himself? ³² Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, come down now from the stake, so we may see and believe!" Even those executed with Him were ridiculing Him.

Death and Burial

³³ When the sixth hour had come, darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour. ^{‡‡‡‡} ³⁴ At the ninth hour Yeshua cried out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" [§] which is translated, "My God, My God, why have You abandoned Me?" ^{§†}

³⁵ When some of the bystanders heard it, they began saying, "Look, He's calling for Elijah." ³⁶ Then someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine. He put it on a stick and was offering it to Yeshua to drink, saying, "Wait, let's see if Elijah comes to take Him down." ³⁷ But letting out a loud cry, Yeshua breathed His last.

⁴⁰ There were also women watching from a distance. Among them were Miriam from Magdala, Miriam the mother of Jacob the younger and of Joses, ^{§‡} and Salome. ⁴¹ They would follow Him and serve Him when He was in the Galilee. Many other women who had gone one up together with Him to Jerusalem were there also.

⁴² Now evening had already come. Since it was the Day of Preparation, that is, the day before Shabbat, ⁴³ Joseph of Arimathea, a respected council member who himself was waiting for the kingdom of God, went boldly to Pilate and asked for Yeshua's body.

⁴⁴ Pilate was surprised that He was already dead. Summoning the centurion, he asked him whether Yeshua had been dead for long. ⁴⁵ When Pilate learned this from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. ⁴⁶ Joseph bought a linen cloth, took Him down, wrapped Him in the linen, and laid Him in a tomb that had been cut out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. ⁴⁷ Miriam from Magdala and Miriam the mother of Joses were watching where Yeshua's body was placed.

The Empty Tomb

16 When Shabbat was over, Miriam of Magdala, Miriam the mother of Jacob, and Salome bought spices, so that they might come and anoint Yeshua's body. ² Very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they come to the tomb. ³ They were saying to each other, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?"

⁴ Looking up, they see that the stone (it was really huge) had been rolled away. ⁵ As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe; and they were startled. ⁶ But he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You are looking for Yeshua of Natzeret, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here! See the place where they put Him. ⁷ But go, tell His disciples and Peter, 'He is going before you to the Galilee. There you will see Him, just as He told you.'"

⁸ And going outside, they fled from the tomb, gripped by trembling and amazement. They didn't say anything to anybody, for they were afraid.

He Is Risen †

⁹ After He had risen early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Miriam of Magdala, from whom He had driven out seven demons. ¹⁰ She went and brought word to those who had been with Him, while they were mourning and weeping. ¹¹ When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they refused to believe.

† The earliest mss. exclude Mark 16:9-20. A shorter version reads: But, they reported briefly to Peter and those with him all they had been told. And after these things, Yeshua Himself, through them, sent out from east to west the sacred, imperishable proclamation of eternal salvation.

¹² After that, He appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking on their way to the country. ¹³ They went and reported it to the rest, but they did not believe them either. ¹⁴ Later He appeared to them, the 11, as they were reclining at the table. He rebuked them for their unbelief and hardheartedness, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He had been raised.

Tell the World!

¹⁵ He told them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the Good News to every creature. ¹⁶ He who believes and is immersed shall be saved, but he who does not believe shall be condemned. ¹⁷ These signs will accompany those who believe: in My name they will drive out demons; they will speak new languages; ¹⁸ they will handle snakes; and if they drink anything deadly, it will not harm them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will get well."

¹⁹ Then the Lord Yeshua, after He had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. ²⁰ And they went out and proclaimed everywhere, the Lord working with them and confirming the word by the signs that follow.

Luke

Introduction

The Gospel of Luke was written by a doctor—but not a Jewish one! However, Luke may well have been one of the “God-fearers,” a large group of Gentiles who frequented the synagogue and observed some Jewish customs but were not full converts to Judaism.

Luke was a careful historian who researched others’ first-hand accounts before writing his own. He spent time traveling with Paul and also authored the book of Acts, which forms the second volume of what is really a two-part work. The first volume, the Gospel of Luke, is the longest of all the New Covenant books. Luke is unique among the Gospel writers in focusing on the events that took place as he made his way to Jerusalem (9:51-19:27). Some of his teaching is found only in Luke, such as the well-known parable of the Prodigal Son. We would be much the poorer without this material.

Written about 60-85 C.E., Luke addresses an audience not unlike today’s Messianic communities—established by Jewish believers yet with a large Gentile contingent, with great interest and loyalty to the homeland of biblical faith and hope. In the very first paragraph, Luke tells us his purpose for writing: “so you may know for sure the truth of the words you have been taught” (1:4). Luke stresses God’s plan of salvation and the offer of that salvation to both Gentile and Jewish people. Luke resonates with modern Jewish sensibilities, reflecting his concern for the oppressed and downtrodden as well as for justice—issues of, “repairing the world.” Luke is also especially inclusive of women, from Elizabeth to Miriam and Martha and the women who are first to meet the resurrected Messiah.

For readers in today’s diverse, pluralistic world, Luke gently raises questions about truth and why is who He and His followers claim Him to be. He is the fulfillment of Israel’s Messianic hope and the One who gives purpose and dignity to all who put their trust in Him.

1 Now many have undertaken to organize an account of the events fulfilled among us, ² just as they were handed down to us from the start by the eyewitnesses and reporters of the word. ³ Therefore it seemed best to me also, because I have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, to write for you an orderly record, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴ so you may know for sure the truth of the words you have been taught.

Prophecy of Birth to the Barren

⁵ In the days of Herod, King of Judah, there was a kohen named Zechariah from the priestly division of Abijah. [†] Elizabeth, his wife, was from the daughters of Aaron. ⁶ Together they were righteous before ADONAI, walking without fault in all His commandments and instructions. ⁷ But they were childless, because Elizabeth was barren and both of them were elderly.

⁸ Now it happened to be Zechariah's time to serve as kohen before ADONAI in the order of his division. ⁹ According to the custom of the priestly office, it became his lot to enter the Holy Place of ADONAI to burn incense. ^{††10} And the whole crowd of people was praying outside at the hour of incense burning. ¹¹ An angel of ADONAI appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. ¹² Zechariah was in turmoil when he saw the angel, and fear fell upon him. ¹³ But the angel said, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, because your prayer has been heard. Your wife, Elizabeth, will give birth to your son, and you will name him John. ¹⁴ And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵ He will be great before ADONAI; and he should not drink wine and intoxicating beverage, [‡] but he will be filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh just out of his mother's womb. ¹⁶ Many of Bnei-Yisrael will turn to ADONAI their God. ¹⁷ And he will go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of fathers to the children ^{††} and the disobedient ones to the wisdom of the righteous, to make ready for ADONAI a prepared people."

¹⁹ And speaking to him, the angel declared, "I am Gabriel, the one standing in God's presence. I was commissioned to tell you and proclaim to you this good news. ²⁰ So look, you will be silent and powerless to speak until the day these things happen, since you did not believe my words which will be fulfilled in their time."

²¹ The people were waiting for Zechariah and wondering about his long delay in the Holy Place. ²² But when he came out, he couldn't speak to them. Then they realized that he had seen a vision in the Holy Place. He was making signs to them but remained mute. ²³ When the days of his priestly service had been completed, he went home. ²⁴ After these days, his wife Elizabeth became pregnant and hid herself for five months, saying, ²⁵ " ADONAI has done this for me! In these days He looked upon me, to take away my disgrace among the people." ^{‡‡}

Prophecy of Birth to the Virgin

²⁶ Then in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent by ADONAI into a town in the Galilee named Natzeret ²⁷ and to a virgin engaged to a man named Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Miriam. ²⁸ And coming to her, the angel said, " Shalom, favored one! ADONAI is with you." ^{††29} But at the message, she was perplexed and kept wondering what kind of greeting this might be. ³⁰ The angel spoke to her, "Do not be afraid, Miriam, for you have found favor with God. ³¹ Behold, you will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and you shall call His name Yeshua. ^{‡‡‡32} He will be great and will be called Ben-Elyon. ADONAI Elohim will give Him the throne of David, [§] His father. ³³ He shall reign over the house of Jacob for all eternity, and His kingdom will be without end." ^{§†}

³⁴ Miriam said to the angel, "How can this be, since I am not intimate with a man?" ^{§††}

³⁵ And responding, the angel said to her, "The Ruach ha-Kodesh will come upon you, and the power of Elyon will overshadow you. Therefore, the Holy One being born will be called Ben-Elohim. ³⁶ Behold, even your relative Elizabeth has conceived a son in her old age; and the one who was called barren is six months pregnant. ³⁷ For nothing will be impossible with God." ^{§†}

³⁸ So Miriam said, "Behold, the servant of ADONAI. Let it be done to me according to your word." And the angel left her.

Elizabeth Greets Miriam with Joy

³⁹ Now in those days, Miriam got up and quickly traveled into the hill country, to a town in Judah. ⁴⁰ She entered Zechariah's home and happily greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹ When Elizabeth heard Miriam's greeting, the unborn child leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was completely filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ⁴² She then cried out with a great shout, saying, "You are blessed among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. ⁴³ Who am I, that the mother of my Master should come to me? ⁴⁴ For even when I just heard the sound of your greeting in my ear, the unborn child leaped with joy in my womb. ⁴⁵ Blessed is she who trusted that there would be a fulfillment of those things spoken to her by ADONAI."

⁴⁶ Then Miriam said,
⁴⁷ “My soul magnifies ADONAI, †
⁴⁸ and my spirit greatly rejoices in God, my Savior.
⁴⁸ For He has looked with care upon the humble state of His maidservant.
For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed.
⁴⁹ For the Mighty One has done a great thing for me, and holy is His name.
⁵⁰ And His mercy is from generation to generation to the ones who fear Him.
⁵¹ He has displayed power with His arm
He has scattered the proud in the thoughts of their hearts.
⁵² He has brought down rulers from thrones and exalted humble ones.
⁵³ He has filled the hungry with good things and sent away the rich empty-handed.
⁵⁴ He has helped His servant Israel, ††
remembering His mercy, ⁵⁵ just as He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his seed forever.”

Zechariah Breaks His Silence

⁵⁶ Miriam stayed with her for three months and then returned to her home. ⁵⁷ Upon Elizabeth’s full term to deliver, she gave birth to a son. ⁵⁸ Her neighbors and relatives heard how ADONAI had shown her His great mercy, and they began to rejoice with her.

⁵⁹ Now on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, ‡ and they kept trying to call him by his father’s name, Zechariah. ⁶⁰ But his mother declared, “No, he will be called John.”

⁶¹ But they said to her, “No one among your relatives is called by this name.” ⁶² So they began making signs to his father, as to what he wanted him named.

⁶³ Asking for a small tablet, he wrote, “John is his name.” They were all astonished! ⁶⁴ And his mouth was immediately unlocked as well as his tongue, and he began to speak, praising God. ⁶⁵ Fear came on all those who lived around them, and all these matters were talked about throughout the hill country of Judah. ⁶⁶ Everyone who heard pondered these things in their hearts, saying, “What then will this child become?” For the hand of ADONAI was on him.

The Kohen’s Song of Prophecy

⁶⁷ His father Zechariah was filled with the Ruach ha- Kodesh and prophesied, saying,

⁶⁸ “Blessed be ADONAI, God of Israel,
for He has looked after His people and brought them redemption.

⁶⁹ He has raised up a horn of salvation for us from ages past,

⁷¹ salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us!

and remembers His holy covenant, ††

⁷³ the vow which He swore to Abraham our father, to grant us—

⁷⁴ rescued fearlessly from the hand of our enemies †††—to serve Him,

⁷⁵ in holiness and righteousness before Him all our days.

⁷⁶ And you, child, will be called a prophet of Elyon.
For you will go before ADONAI to prepare His ways, †††

⁷⁷ to give knowledge of salvation to His people through removal of their sins. §

⁷⁸ Through our God’s heart of mercy,
the Sunrise from on high will come upon us,

⁷⁹ to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, §†

to guide our feet in the way of shalom.”

⁸⁰ And the child kept growing and became strong in spirit; and he lived in the wilderness until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

Yeshua’s Birth in Bethlehem

2 Now it happened in those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus to register all the world’s inhabitants. ² This was the first census taken when Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³ Everyone was traveling to be registered in his own city.

⁴ Now Joseph also went up from the Galilee, out of the town of Natzeret to Judah, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was from the house and family of David. §†† He went to register with Miriam, who was engaged to him and was pregnant.

⁶ But while they were there, the time came for her to give birth— ⁷ and she gave birth to her firstborn son.
She wrapped Him in strips of cloth and set Him down in a manger, since there was no room for them in the inn.

Shepherds Witness Angelic Praises

⁸ Now there were shepherds in the same region, living out in the fields and guarding their flock at night.

⁹ Suddenly an angel of ADONAI stood before them, and the glory of ADONAI shone all around them; and they were absolutely terrified.

¹⁰ But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid! For behold, I proclaim Good News to you, which will be great joy to all the people. ¹¹ A Savior is born to you today in the city of David, who is Messiah the Lord.

¹² And the sign to you is this: You will find an infant wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger.”

¹³ And suddenly a multitude of heavenly armies appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

¹⁴ "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth shalom to men of good will."

¹⁵ And when the angels departed from them into the heavens, the shepherds were saying to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened which ADONAI has made known to us!" ¹⁶ So they hurried off and found Miriam and Joseph, and the Baby lying in the manger. ¹⁷ When they had seen this, they made known the word that had been spoken to them concerning this Child. ¹⁸ And all those who heard were amazed at the things the shepherds told them. ¹⁹ But Miriam treasured all these things, pondering them in her heart. ²⁰ The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, just as they had been told.

Temple Prophets Rejoice

²¹ When eight days had passed for His brit-milah, [†] He was named Yeshua, the name given by the angel before He was conceived in the womb. ²² And when the days of their purification were fulfilled, ^{††} according to the Torah of Moses, they brought Him to Jerusalem to present to ADONAI. ²³ As it is written in the Torah of ADONAI, "Every firstborn male that opens the womb shall be called holy to ADONAI." ^{‡24} So they offered a sacrifice according to what was said in the Torah of ADONAI: "a pair of turtle doves, or two young pigeons." ^{‡‡}

²⁵ Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon, and this man was just and pious, waiting for the consolation of Israel. ^{‡‡} The Ruach ha-Kodesh was on him. ²⁶ And it had been revealed to him by the Ruach ha-Kodesh that he would not die before he had seen the Anointed One of ADONAI. ²⁷ So in the Ruach, Simeon came into the Temple; and when the parents brought the Child Yeshua to do for Him according to the custom of the Torah, ²⁸ Simeon received Him into his arms and offered a bracha to God, saying,

²⁹ "Now may You let Your servant go in peace, O Sovereign Master, ^{‡‡‡}

according to Your word.

³⁰ For my eyes have seen Your salvation,

³¹ which You have prepared in the presence of all peoples:

³² 'A light for revelation to the nations' ^{‡‡‡} and the glory of Your people Israel."

³³ And His father and mother were marveling at the things that were said about Him. ³⁴ And Simeon offered a bracha over them and said to Miriam His mother, "Behold, this One is destined to cause the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that is opposed, ³⁵ so the thoughts of many hearts may be uncovered. (And even for you, a sword will pierce through your soul.)"

³⁶ Now Anna, a daughter of Phanuel of the tribe of Asher, was a prophetess. She was well advanced in age, having lived with a husband only [§] seven years ³⁷ and then as a widow until age eighty-four. She never left the Temple, serving night and day with fasting and prayers. ³⁸ And coming up at that very instant, she began praising God and speaking about the Child to all those waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem. ^{§†}

³⁹ When Joseph and Miriam had completed everything according to the Torah of ADONAI, they returned to the Galilee, to their own city of Natzeret. ⁴⁰ The Child kept growing and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon Him.

The Boy Astonishes Jerusalem Scholars

⁴¹ Now His parents were going every year to Jerusalem for the Passover feast. ^{§††42} When He became twelve years old, they were going up according to festival custom. ⁴³ As they headed home after completing the days, the boy Yeshua remained in Jerusalem, but His parents didn't know. ⁴⁴ Supposing He was in the caravan, they went a day's journey, then began looking for Him among relatives and friends. ⁴⁵ When they did not find Him, they returned to Jerusalem to search for Him.

⁴⁶ After three days they found Him in the Temple, sitting in the center of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. ⁴⁷ And all those hearing Him were astonished at His understanding and His answers. ⁴⁸ When His parents saw Yeshua, they were overwhelmed. And His mother said to Him, "Child, why did you do this to us? Look! Your father and I were searching for You frantically!"

⁴⁹ He said to them, "Why were you searching for Me? Didn't you know that I must be about the things of My Father?" ⁵⁰ But they did not grasp the message He was telling them.

⁵¹ Then He went down with them to Natzeret and was obedient to them. But His mother treasured all these words in her heart. ⁵² And Yeshua kept increasing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

John the Immerser at the Jordan

3 It was now the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of the Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene. ² During the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came upon John, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. ³ And he came into all the surrounding region of the Jordan, proclaiming an immersion of repentance for the removal of sins. ⁴ As it is written in the scroll of the words of Isaiah the prophet, “The voice of one crying in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of ADONAI, and make His paths straight.

⁵ Every valley shall be filled up and every mountain and hill brought low. The crooked shall be made straight and the rough ways made smooth,

⁶ and all humanity shall see the salvation of God.”[†]

⁷ Therefore John was saying to the crowds that came out to be immersed by him, “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? ⁸ Therefore produce fruits worthy of repentance; and don’t even begin to say among yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father!’ For I tell you that from these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. ⁹ Even now the axe is laid at the root of the trees, so every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire!”

¹⁰ The crowds were asking him, “What should we do?”

¹¹ He answered them, saying, “Whoever has two coats, let him give to the one who has none; and whoever has food, let him do the same.”^{††}

¹² Tax collectors also came to him to be immersed. “Teacher,” they said to him, “what should we do?”

¹³ He said to them, “Do not take more than you are supposed to.”

¹⁴ Also soldiers asked him, saying, “And what should we do?”

He said to them, “Do not take things from anyone by force, do not falsely accuse anyone, and be content with your wages.”[‡]

¹⁵ Now the people were filled with expectation, and all were wondering in their hearts about John, whether he might be the Messiah. ¹⁶ John answered them all, saying, “As for me, I immerse you with water. But One is coming who is mightier than I am; I am not worthy to untie the strap of His sandals! He will immerse you in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and fire. ¹⁷ His winnowing fork is in His hand to clear His threshing floor and gather the wheat into His barn, but the chaff He will burn up with inextinguishable fire.”^{‡‡} ¹⁸ So with many other exhortations, John proclaimed Good News to the people. ¹⁹ But Herod the tetrarch—after being rebuked by John because of Herodias, his brother’s wife, and because of all the evil things Herod had done—²⁰ added even this on top of them all: he shut up John in prison.

²¹ Now when all the people were immersed, Yeshua also was immersed. And while He was praying, heaven was opened ²² and the Ruach ha-Kodesh came down upon Him in bodily form like a dove. And from out of heaven came a voice, “You are My Son, whom I love—with You I am well pleased!”^{‡‡}

The Lineage of Yeshua Ben-David Ben-Elohim

²³ Yeshua was about thirty years old when He began his ministry. He was the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli, ²⁴ the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melki, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, ²⁵ the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, ²⁶ the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Se-mein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, ²⁷ the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, ²⁸ the son of Melki, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, ²⁹ the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, ³⁰ the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, ³¹ the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David, ^{‡‡‡}³² the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, ³³ the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, ³⁴ the son of Jacob, the son of Yitzhak, the son of Abraham, ^{‡‡‡} the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, ³⁵ the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, ³⁶ the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, ³⁷ the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Kenan, ³⁸ the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, [§] the son of God.

Temptation in the Wilderness

4 Yeshua, now filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh, returned from the Jordan. He was led by the Ruach in the wilderness ² for forty days, being tested by the devil. Now He ate nothing during those days, and when they had ended, He was hungry.

³ The devil said to Him, “If You are Ben-Elohim, tell this stone to become bread.”

⁴ Yeshua answered him, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone.’”^{§†}

⁵ And leading Him up, the devil showed Him all the kingdoms of the world in an instant. ⁶ And the devil said to Him, “I’ll give to You all this authority along with its glory, because it has been handed over to me and I can give it to anyone I wish. ⁷ Therefore, if you will worship before me, all this shall be Yours.”

⁸ But answering, Yeshua told him, “It is written, ‘You shall worship ADONAI your God, and Him only shall you serve.’”^{§††}

⁹ Then he brought Yeshua to Jerusalem and placed Him on the highest point of the Temple. He said to Him, “If You are Ben-Elohim, throw Yourself down from here. ¹⁰ For it is written,

12 But answering, Yeshua said to him, “It is said, ‘You shall not put ADONAI your God to the test.’” †13 And when the devil had completed every test, he departed from Him until another occasion.

Isaiah’s Prophecy Fulfilled in Natzeret

14 Yeshua returned in the power of the Ruach to the Galilee, and news about Him went out through all the surrounding region. 15 He taught in their synagogues, and everyone was praising Him. 16 And He came to Natzeret, where He had been raised. As was His custom, He went into the synagogue on Shabbat, and He got up to read. 17 When the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to Him, He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written,

18 “The Ruach ADONAI is on me, because He has anointed me to proclaim Good News to the poor. He has sent me †† to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free the oppressed,

19 and to proclaim the year of ADONAI’s favor.” ††

20 He closed the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. All eyes in the synagogue were focused on Him. 21 Then He began to tell them, “Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your ears.”

22 All were speaking well of Him and marveling at the gracious words coming out of His mouth. And they were saying, “Isn’t this the son of Joseph?”

23 But He said to them, “Doubtless you will say to Me this proverb, ‘Doctor, heal yourself!’ and ‘What we have heard was done at Capernaum, do as much here also in your hometown.’”

24 But He said, “Truly, I tell you, ‘No prophet is accepted in his own hometown.’” 25 But with all truthfulness I say to you, that there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when heaven was closed for three and a half years and there came a great famine over all the land. 26 Elijah was not sent to any of them, but only to Zarephath in the land of Sidon, to a widowed woman. †††27 There were many with tzara’at in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them were purified apart from Naaman the Syrian.” †††

28 Now all in the synagogue were filled with rage upon hearing these things. 29 Rising up, they drove Him out of the town and brought Him as far as the edge of the mountain on which their city had been built, in order to throw Him off the cliff. 30 But passing through the middle of them, He went on His way.

Healing and Deliverance in Capernaum and beyond

31 Yeshua came down to Capernaum, a town in the Galilee. He was teaching them on Shabbat, 32 and they were astounded at His teaching because His message had authority. 33 In the synagogue was a man who had an unclean demonic spirit, and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 “Ah! What have we to do with You, Yeshua of Natzeret? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are! You are the Holy One of God!”

35 Yeshua rebuked him, saying, “Quiet! Come out of him!” And when the demon threw him down in their midst, it came out without hurting him.

36 They were all amazed, and they spoke to one another, saying, “What is this message? For with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out.” 37 So His reputation grew, spreading to every place in that region.

38 After He left the synagogue, Yeshua entered Simon’s home. Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they petitioned Him concerning her. 39 Then standing over her, He rebuked the fever and it left her. Immediately she arose to wait on them.

40 When the sun was setting, they brought to Yeshua all who were sick with various diseases. And He was laying hands on each one and healing them. 41 Even demons were coming out from many, shouting out and saying, “You are Ben-Elohim!” 5 But He was rebuking them and not permitting them to speak, because they knew Him to be the Messiah.

42 Now when it was day, He left and went to a desert place. The crowds were searching for Him, and they came to Him and were trying to keep Him from leaving them. 43 But He said to them, “I must proclaim the Good News of the kingdom of God †† to the other towns also. It was for this purpose I was sent.” 44 So He kept preaching in the synagogues of Judea.

Calling Fishermen at the Kinneret

5 It happened that the crowds were pressing upon Yeshua to hear the word of God as He was standing by the Lake of Kinneret, 2 when He saw two boats standing beside the lake. Now the fishermen had left them and were washing the nets. 3 Getting into one of the boats, Simon’s boat, Yeshua asked him to push out a ways from the land. Then sitting down, He taught the crowds from the boat.

4 When He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, “Go out into the deep water, and let down your nets for a catch.”

5 Simon replied, “Master, we’ve worked hard all night and caught nothing. But at Your word I will let down the nets.” 6 When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets began to break. 7 So they signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came and filled both boats so full that they began to sink. ⁸ But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Yeshua's knees, saying, "Go away from me, Master, for I am a sinful man!" ⁹ For amazement had gripped him and all who were with him, over the catch of fish they had netted; ¹⁰ so also Jacob and John, Zebedee's sons, who were partners with Simon.

But Yeshua said to Simon, "Do not be afraid. From now on, you will be catching men." ¹¹ So when they had brought the boats to the landing, they left everything and followed Him.

Yeshua Heals and News Spreads

¹³ Yeshua stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be cleansed!" Immediately, the tzara'at left him. ¹⁴ Yeshua ordered him to tell no one, but commanded him, "Go and show yourself to the kohen. † Then bring an offering for your cleansing, just as Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

¹⁵ But the news about Yeshua was spreading all the more, and many crowds were coming together to hear and to be healed of their diseases. ¹⁶ Yet He would often slip away into the wilderness and pray.

Crowds Gather from the Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem

¹⁷ Now on one of those days, Yeshua was teaching. Pharisees and Torah scholars were sitting there, who had come from every village of the Galilee and Judea, as well as from Jerusalem. And ADONAI's power to heal was in Him. ¹⁸ And behold, men were carrying a paralyzed man on a stretcher, trying to bring him in and place him before Yeshua. ¹⁹ But when they found no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his stretcher through the tiles, right in the middle before Yeshua. ²⁰ When He saw their faith, He said, "Man, your sins are forgiven."

²¹ Then the Torah scholars and the Pharisees began to question, saying, "Who is this fellow speaking blasphemies? Who can pardon sins but God alone?"

²² Yeshua, knowing their thoughts, replied to them, "Why are you raising questions in your hearts?"

²³ Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk?' ²⁴ But so you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to pardon sins. . . ." He said to the paralyzed one, "I tell you, get up and take your cot, and go home!"

²⁵ Immediately he got up before them, picked up what he had been lying on, and went home, glorifying God. ²⁶ Astonishment took hold of them, and they glorified God and all were filled with awe, saying, "We've seen incredible things today!"

† cf. Lev. 13:1; 14:2-3.

The Banquet at Levi's House

²⁷ After these things, Yeshua went out and observed a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth. He said to him, "Follow Me." ²⁸ And leaving everything, he got up and followed Him.

²⁹ Levi made a great banquet for Yeshua at his house, and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. ³⁰ The Pharisees and their Torah scholars began murmuring to His disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

³¹ And Yeshua answered and said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a doctor, but those who are sick do. ³² I did not come to call the righteous, but the sinful to repentance."

³³ But they said to Him, "John's disciples often fast and offer prayers, as do the disciples of the Pharisees. But Your disciples are eating and drinking."

³⁴ But Yeshua said to them, "You cannot make the guests of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you? ³⁵ But the days will come; and when the bridegroom is taken away from them, then they will fast in those days."

³⁶ Now he was also telling them a parable. "No one tears a patch from a new garment to use it on an old garment. Otherwise he will rip the new, and the patch from the new will not match the old. ³⁷ And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins, it will be spilled out, and the skins will be destroyed. ³⁸ But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins. ³⁹ No man who drinks old wine wants new, because he says, 'The old is fine.'"

Shabbat in the Grain Fields

6 Now during Shabbat, Yeshua was passing through grain fields; and His disciples were picking and eating heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands. ² But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not permitted on Shabbat?"

³ Then answering them, Yeshua said, "Haven't you read what David did when he was hungry, and those with him? ⁴ How he entered into the house of God, took and ate the showbread which only the kohanim are permitted to eat, and even gave it to those with him?" ^{†5} He said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord of Shabbat."

Shabbat Controversy at the Synagogue

⁶ On a different Shabbat, Yeshua entered the synagogue and was teaching. A man was there, whose right hand was paralyzed. ⁷ But closely watching Him were the Torah scholars and Pharisees, to see if He heals on Shabbat, so that they might find grounds to accuse Him. ⁸ But He knew their opinions and said to the man with the paralyzed hand, "Get up and stand in our midst." And getting up, the man stood.

⁹ Yeshua said to them, "I ask you, is it permitted on Shabbat to do good or to do evil, to save or to destroy a life?" ¹⁰ Then looking around at everyone, He said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." The man did, and his hand was restored. ¹¹ But they were filled with fury and discussed among themselves what they might do to Yeshua.

¹² And it was during these days that Yeshua went out to the mountain to pray, and He spent all night in prayer to God. ¹³ When day came, He called His disciples, choosing from among them twelve whom He also named emissaries— ¹⁴ Simon, whom He also named Peter, and Andrew his brother; and Jacob and John; and Philip and Bartholomew; ¹⁵ and Matthew and Thomas; Jacob the son of Alphaeus; Simon who was called the Zealot; ¹⁶ Judah the son of Jacob; and Judah from Kriot, who became a traitor.

The Sermon on the Plain

¹⁷ Then Yeshua came down with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of His disciples and a multitude of people, from all Judea, Jerusalem, and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon, ¹⁸ had come to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases. Even those disturbed by defiling spirits were being healed. ¹⁹ Everyone in the crowd was trying to touch Him, because power flowed from Him and He was healing them all.

²⁰ And looking up at His disciples, He said,
"Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

²¹ Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be satisfied.

Blessed are you who weep now,
for you shall laugh.

²² Blessed are you when people hate you,
and when they exclude you, and revile you,
and spurn your name as evil on account of the Son of Man.

²³ "Rejoice in that day and jump for joy! For behold, your reward is great in heaven! For their fathers used to treat the prophets the same way. †

²⁴ "But woe to you who are rich, for you are receiving your comfort in full.

²⁵ Woe to you who are full,
for you shall be hungry.

Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you shall mourn and weep.

²⁶ Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for their fathers used to treat the false prophets the same way. ††

²⁷ "But I say to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸ bless those who curse you, pray for the ones who mistreat you.

²⁹ To the one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also. And from the one who takes your cloak, do not hold back your shirt. ³⁰ Give to every one who asks you; and whoever takes something of yours, make no demands upon him.

³¹ "Do to others as you would have them do to you.

³² If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

³³ And if you do good to those who are doing good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do this.

³⁴ And if you lend to those from whom you expect to take, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners in order to receive back the same.

³⁵ "But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. ‡ Then your reward will be great and you will be sons of Elyon, for He is kind to the ungrateful and evil ones. ³⁶ Be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate to you.

³⁷ "Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Pardon, and you will be pardoned. ³⁸ Give, and it will be given to you—a good measure, pressed down, shaken together, overflowing, will be given into your lap. For whatever measure you measure out will be measured back to you."

³⁹ He also spoke this parable to them: "The blind cannot show the way to the blind, can he? Won't they both fall into a pit? ⁴⁰ A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

⁴¹ "Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not notice the beam in your own eye?

⁴² How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the speck in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! First take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly the speck in your brother's eye, to take it out.

⁴³ "For there is no good tree that produces rotten fruit, nor again does a rotten tree produce good fruit.

⁴⁴ Each tree comes to be known by its own fruit. For figs are not gleaned out of briars; neither are bunches of grapes gathered from thorn bushes.

⁴⁵ "Out of the good treasure of his heart the good man brings forth good, and out of evil the evil man brings forth evil. For from the overflow of the heart his mouth speaks.

⁴⁶ "Why do you call Me 'Master, Master' and do not do what I say? ⁴⁷ Everyone who comes to Me and hears My words and does them, I will show you what he is like. ⁴⁸ He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock. And when a flood came, the torrent burst against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built.

⁴⁹ "But the one who hears yet does not do is like a man who built a house upon land without a foundation. When the torrent burst against it, immediately it collapsed—and the destruction of that house was great!”

A Centurion's Faith at Capernaum

7 When Yeshua finished all His drash in the hearing of the people, He entered Capernaum. ² Now a certain centurion had a valued slave, who was ill and about to die. ³ When he heard about Yeshua, he sent Jewish elders to Him, asking Him to come and save his slave. ⁴ When they came to Yeshua, they begged Him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy for You to grant this, ⁵ for he loves our people and even built our synagogue.”

⁶ Now Yeshua started to go with them; and when He wasn't far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to Him, “Master, do not trouble Yourself, for I'm not worthy for You to come under my roof. ⁷ That is why I didn't consider myself worthy to come to You. But say the word and let my servant be healed. ⁸ For I also am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes; and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes; and to my servant, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

⁹ Now when Yeshua heard this, He was amazed at him. Turning to the crowd following Him, He said, “I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith.” ¹⁰ When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

An Amazing Report Spreads throughout all Judea

¹¹ The next day Yeshua traveled to a town called Nain, and coming along with Him were His disciples and a large crowd. ¹² Just as He came near the town gate, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, a widow. A considerable crowd from the town was with her.

¹³ When the Lord saw her, He felt compassion for her and said, “Don't cry.” ¹⁴ Then He came up and touched the coffin, and the pallbearers came to a standstill. He said, “Young man! I tell you, get up!” ¹⁵ The dead man sat up and began speaking, and Yeshua gave him to his mother. †

¹⁶ Fear took hold of them all, and they glorified God, saying, “A great prophet has appeared among us, and God has visited His people.” ¹⁷ This report concerning Him spread throughout all Judea and the surrounding region.

John Seeks Confirmation from Prison

¹⁸ John's disciples reported to him about all these things. Calling two of his disciples, ¹⁹ John sent them to the Lord, saying, “Are you the One who is to come, or should we look for another?”

²⁰ When they appeared before Him, the men said, “John the Immerser sent us to you, saying, ‘Are you the One who is to come, or shall we look for another?’”

²¹ At this very hour He was healing many of diseases, sicknesses, and evil spirits; and He granted sight to many who were blind. ²² And answering, He said to them, “Go report to John what you saw and heard: the blind see, the lame walk, those with tzara'at are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news proclaimed to them. ^{†23} Blessed is he who is not led to stumble because of Me.”

²⁴ And after John's messengers left, He began to speak about John to the crowds. “What did you go out to the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? ²⁵ No? So what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine garments? Look, those who wear finery and live in luxury are in the palaces of kings! ²⁶ Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, even more than a prophet. ²⁷ This is the one about whom it is written,

“Behold, I send My messenger before You, who will prepare Your way before You.” ‡

²⁸ “I say to you, there is no one greater than John among those born of women; yet the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”

²⁹ And when all the people heard, even the tax collectors, they affirmed God's justice, because they had been immersed with John's immersion. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and Torah lawyers, not having been immersed by John, declared God's purpose invalid for themselves.

³¹ “So then, to what shall I compare the people of this generation? What are they like? ³² They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to each other, saying,

“We played the flute for you, and you didn't dance.

We sang a dirge, and you didn't weep.’

³³ “For John the Immerser has come not eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon.’

³⁴ The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look, a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ ³⁵ Yet wisdom is vindicated by all her children.”

An Unwelcome Woman Finds Favor

³⁶ Now one of the Pharisees was asking Yeshua if He would eat with him. Upon entering the Pharisee's home, He reclined at the table. ³⁷ And behold, a woman in the town who was a sinner, when she discovered that Yeshua was reclining at the Pharisee's home, brought an alabaster jar of perfume. ³⁸ As she stood behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began to drench His feet with tears and kept wiping them with her head of hair. Then she was kissing His feet and anointing them with perfume.

³⁹ Now when the Pharisee who invited Him saw this, he said to himself, “If this were a prophet, He would know what sort of woman is touching Him—that she's a sinner.”

†† Isa. 35:5-6; 61:1-2a. ‡ Mal. 3:1.

⁴⁰ And answering, Yeshua said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you."

And he said, "Say it, Teacher!"

⁴¹ "A moneylender had two debtors. One owed him five hundred denarii, [†] but the other fifty. ⁴² When neither could repay him, he canceled both debts. So which of them will love him more?"

⁴³ Simon replied, "I suppose the one who had the bigger debt canceled."

"You have judged correctly," Yeshua said. ⁴⁴ Turning toward the woman, He said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you didn't give Me water for My feet. But she has drenched My feet with tears and wiped them with her hair. ^{††45} You didn't greet Me with a kiss; but from the time she entered, she has not stopped kissing My feet. ⁴⁶ You didn't anoint My head with oil, but she has anointed My feet with perfume. ⁴⁷ For this reason I tell you, her sins, which are many, have been forgiven—for she loved much. But the one who is forgiven little, loves little."

⁴⁸ He then said to her, "Your sins have been forgiven."

⁴⁹ But those who were reclining at table with Him began to say to one another, "Who is this, who even forgives sins?"

⁵⁰ Then He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in shalom."

Sowing Good News from Town to Town

8 Soon afterward, Yeshua began traveling throughout towns and villages, preaching and proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom of God. The twelve were also with Him. ² And certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities — Miriam, the one called Magdalene, out of whom seven demons had gone; ³ Joanna, the wife of Kuza, Herod's finance minister; Susanna; and many others—were supporting them out of their own resources.

⁴ And when a large crowd was gathering and those from various towns were traveling to Him, He spoke by means of a parable. ⁵ "The sower went out to spread his seed. As he sowed, some fell beside the road and was trampled; and the birds of the air ate it up. ⁶ And other seed fell on rock; when it came up, that seed withered away because it had no moisture. ⁷ Other seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it. ⁸ And other seed fell into the good soil; and when it came up, it produced fruit a hundredfold." While saying these things, He would call out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

⁹ Now His disciples were asking Him what this parable meant. ¹⁰ Then Yeshua said to them, "To you has been given to know the secrets of the Kingdom of God; but to the others it is given in parables, [‡] in order that

"Seeing, they may not see,

and hearing, they may not understand." ^{‡†}

¹¹ "Now the parable is this: the seed is the word of God. ¹² Those beside the road are the ones who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, so that they may not believe and be saved. ¹³ But those on the rocky places are the ones who, when they hear, accept the word with joy. But these have no root; they believe for a season, and in a time of testing fall away. ¹⁴ Now that which fell into the thorns are those who were hearing; but as they go along the way, they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and they do not bear mature fruit. ¹⁵ But the seed in the good soil are those with a praiseworthy and good heart, who have heard the word and hold it fast and bear fruit with patient endurance.

¹⁶ "Now no one after lighting a lamp covers it with some object or places it under a bed. But he puts it on a lampstand so that all those who enter may be able to see the light. ¹⁷ For nothing is hidden that will not become evident, nor secret that shall not be known and come into open view. ¹⁸ So pay attention how you listen. For whoever has, to him more will be given. And whoever does not have, even what he supposes he has will be taken away from him."

¹⁹ Yeshua's mother and brothers came to Him, but were not able to reach Him through the crowd. ²⁰ Now it was reported to Him, "Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see You."

²¹ But answering, He said to them, "My mother and My brothers are these who are hearing the word of God and doing it."

Crossing a Stormy Sea

²² Now on one of those days Yeshua and His disciples got into a boat, and He said to them, "Let's move to the other side of the lake." So they set out. ²³ Then as they were sailing, He fell asleep. A violent windstorm came down on the lake, and they were swamped with water and in danger.

²⁴ They came to Yeshua and woke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we're perishing!" He got up and rebuked the wind and the surging wave of water. Then they stopped, and it became calm. ^{‡†}

²⁵ Then Yeshua said to them, "Where is your faith?" But they were afraid and marveled, saying to one another, "Who then is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him!"

Not Welcome in the Gerasenes

²⁶ They sailed over to the country of the Gerasenes, which is on the opposite side of the Galilee. ²⁷ A demon-plagued man from the town met Yeshua as He was coming out onto the land. The man hadn't worn any clothing for a long time and was living not in a house but in the tombs.

²⁸ Seeing Yeshua, he cried out and fell down before Yeshua, and with a loud voice said, "What's between You and me, Yeshua, Ben El Elyon? I'm begging You, do not torment me!" ²⁹ For Yeshua commanded the defiling spirit to come out of the man. For many times it had seized him so that, even though he was restrained and bound with chains and shackles, he would break the chains and be driven by the demons into the desert.

³⁰ Yeshua questioned him, "What is your name?" "Legion," he said, for many demons had entered him. ³¹ They kept begging Him not to command them to depart into the abyss. ³² Now a large herd of pigs was feeding on the mountain. The demons urged Yeshua to let them enter these pigs, and He gave them permission. ³³ Then the demons came out of the man and entered into the pigs. The herd rushed down the cliff into the lake and was drowned. ³⁴ But when the herdsmen saw what happened, they ran away and reported it in the town and countryside.

³⁸ The man from whom the demons had gone out begged to go with Yeshua. But Yeshua sent him away, saying, ³⁹ "Return to your home, and describe all that God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole town all that Yeshua had done for him.

Interrupted on the Way to a Miracle

⁴⁰ As Yeshua returned, the crowd welcomed Him, for they were all expecting Him. ⁴¹ And here came a man named Jairus, a leader in the synagogue. Falling at Yeshua's feet, he begged Him to come to his house, ⁴² because his only daughter, about twelve years old, was dying. But as He made His way, the masses were crushing in upon Him.

⁴³ And there was a woman with a blood flow for twelve years, [†] who could not be healed by anyone. ⁴⁴ She came up from behind and touched the tzitzit of Yeshua's garment. Immediately, her blood flow stopped. ⁴⁵ Yeshua said, "Who touched Me?"

When everyone denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds are surrounding You and pressing in!"

⁴⁶ But Yeshua said, "Someone touched Me, for I recognized power going out from Me." ⁴⁷ Then seeing

[†] cf. Rev. 9:1; 20:1-3. ^{††} cf. Lev. 15:25; some mss. add who had spent all her assets on doctors that she did not escape notice, the woman came trembling and fell prostrate before Him. In the presence of all the people, she confessed why she had touched Him and how she had been healed immediately. ⁴⁸ He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in shalom."

⁴⁹ While He was still speaking, someone comes from the house of the synagogue leader, saying, "Your daughter has died. Don't bother the Teacher anymore."

⁵⁰ But hearing this, Yeshua replied to him, "Do not fear—just keep trusting, and she shall be restored."

⁵¹ When Yeshua came into the house, He didn't let anyone enter with Him except Peter, John, Jacob, and the child's father and mother. ⁵² And everyone was weeping and lamenting her; but He said, "Don't weep, for she didn't die but is sleeping." ⁵³ But they were ridiculing Him, knowing she had died.

⁵⁴ But Yeshua, took her by the hand and called out, saying, "Child, get up!" ⁵⁵ Her spirit returned, and she arose immediately. Yeshua ordered food to be given to her to eat. ⁵⁶ Her parents were utterly astonished, but He ordered them to say nothing of what had happened.

Sending Out the Twelve

⁹ Now when Yeshua called the Twelve together, He gave them power and authority over all the demons and to heal diseases. ² He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal. ³ And He said to them, "Take nothing for the journey—no walking stick, no travel bag, no bread, no money, nor even to have two shirts. ⁴ Whatever house you enter, stay there and depart from there. ⁵ And whoever does not receive you, when you leave that town, shake off the dust from your feet as a witness against them." ⁶ So they went out and began traveling throughout the villages, proclaiming the Good News and healing everywhere.

⁷ Now Herod the tetrarch heard all that was happening. He was very confused, because some were saying that John had been raised from the dead, ⁸ but others that Elijah had appeared, and others that some prophet from among the ancients had arisen. ⁹ But Herod said, "I beheaded John, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he kept trying to see Him.

A Hungry Crowd in a Desolate Place

¹⁰ When the emissaries returned, they described to Yeshua all they had done. Then He took them along and withdrew privately to a city named Bethsaida.

¹¹ But the crowds found out and followed Him. So Yeshua welcomed them and began speaking to them about the kingdom of God and curing those in need of healing.

¹² Now the day began to wind down, and the twelve came and said to Yeshua, "Send the crowd away, so they might go into the nearby villages and countryside and find food and lodging; for we are in a desolate place here."

¹³ But Yeshua said to them, "You give them something to eat!"

But they said, "We have no more than five loaves of bread and two fish, unless we go to buy food for all these people." ¹⁴ For there were about five thousand men.

Then Yeshua said to His disciples, "Have the people recline in groups of about fifty each." ¹⁵ They did so, and all reclined. ¹⁶ And He took the five loaves and the two fish; and looking up to heaven, He offered the bracha and broke them. And He kept giving them to the disciples to set before the crowd. ¹⁷ Then they all ate and were satisfied. And what was left over was picked up, twelve baskets of the fragments.

Secrets Revealed to the Disciples Alone

¹⁸ Once when Yeshua was praying alone and His disciples were near, He put a question to them, saying, "Who do the crowds say that I am?"

¹⁹ They replied, "John the Immerser, but others Elijah, and others that some prophet from among the ancients has arisen."

²⁰ Then He said to them, "But who do you that say I am?"

Then Peter answered and said, "The Messiah of God."

²¹ But Yeshua warned them, and He ordered them not to tell this to anyone, ²² saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and be killed, and on the third day be raised."

²³ Then Yeshua was saying to everyone, "If anyone wants to follow Me, he must deny himself, take up his cross every day, and follow Me. ²⁴ For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.

²⁵ "For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world but loses or forfeits himself? ²⁶ For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory and the glory of the Father and the holy angels. ²⁷ But I tell you truthfully, there are some standing here who will never taste death until they see the kingdom of God."

Glorified on a Mountain

²⁸ About eight days after these teachings, Yeshua took Peter, John, and Jacob with Him and went up the mountain to pray. ²⁹ While He was praying, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothing flashed like white lightning. ³⁰ And behold, two men were talking with Him, Moses and Elijah. ³¹ Appearing in glory, they were speaking of Yeshua's departure, which was about to take place in Jerusalem.

³² Now Peter and those with him were overcome with sleep. But when they awakened, they saw Yeshua's glory and the two men standing with Him. ³³ And as they were leaving Yeshua, Peter said to Him, "Master, it's good for us to be here. Let's make three sukkot: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he was saying.

³⁴ While he was yet saying these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. ³⁵ Then a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, the One I have chosen. Listen to Him!" ³⁶ And after the voice happened, Yeshua was found alone. They kept quiet and told no one in those days any of the things they had seen.

Coming down from the Mountaintop

⁴¹ Then answering, Yeshua said, "O faithless and twisted generation, † how long shall I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here." ⁴² And while the boy was still approaching Yeshua, the demon knocked him down to the ground and threw him into convulsions. But Yeshua rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and restored him to his father. ⁴³ And all were amazed at the mighty power of God. But as everyone was marveling at all He was doing, He said to His disciples, ⁴⁴ "Put these words into your ears: the Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men." ⁴⁵ But they did not understand this statement; it was yet concealed from them so they could not grasp it. And they were afraid to ask Him about this statement.

⁴⁶ Now a dispute began between the disciples as to who might be the greatest among them. ⁴⁷ But Yeshua, knowing the reasoning of their heart, took a child and set him by His side. ⁴⁸ He said to them, "Whoever welcomes this child in My name, welcomes Me. And whoever welcomes Me, welcomes the One who sent Me. The one who is the least among all of you is the one who is great."

⁴⁹ John replied, "Master, we saw someone driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him because he doesn't follow along with us."

⁵⁰ Yeshua said to him, "Do not stop him, for he who is not against you is for you."

Samaria Turns Yeshua Away

⁵¹ When the days were approaching for Him to be taken up, Yeshua was determined to go up to Jerusalem. ⁵² He sent messengers before Him, and they went and entered a Samaritan village to make His arrangements. ⁵³ But they did not receive Him, because He was focused on going up to Jerusalem. ⁵⁴ When His disciples Jacob and John saw this, they said, "Master, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" ⁵⁵ But Yeshua turned and rebuked them. ††

⁵⁶ Then they moved on to another village. ⁵⁷ As they were traveling on the road, someone said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go."

⁵⁸ But Yeshua said to him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." ⁵⁹ He said to another, "Follow Me."

But that one said, "First let me go and bury my father."

⁶⁰ But Yeshua said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God."

⁶¹ Then another also said, "I will follow You, Master, but first let me say goodbye to those in my home."

⁶² But Yeshua said to him, "No one who has put his hand to the plow and looked back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Yeshua Sends Out the Seventy

10 Now after these things, the Lord assigned 70 † others and sent them out by twos before Him into every town and place where He Himself was about to go. ² And He was telling them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore, beg the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest."

⁸ "Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what they set before you. ⁹ Then heal the sick in that town, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' ¹⁰ But if you enter a town and they do not welcome you, then go out into its streets and say, ¹¹ 'Even the dust of your town sticking to our feet,

† Some mss. add just as Elijah did †† Some mss. add and said, "You do not know what kind of spirit you have—for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save." ‡ Some mss. say 72

we wipe off as a witness to you. But know this! The kingdom of God has come near.' ¹² I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom † on that day than for that town.

¹³ "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have turned long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹⁴ Yet it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the Judgment than for you! ††¹⁵ And you, Capernaum? You won't be lifted up to heaven, will you? No, you will go down as far as Sheol. ¹⁶ The one who listens to you hears Me, and the one who rejects you rejects Me, and the one who rejects Me rejects the One who sent Me."

Returning with a Good Report

¹⁷ Then the 70 returned with joy, saying, "Master, even the demons submit to us in Your name!"

¹⁸ And Yeshua said to them, "I was watching satan fall like lightning from heaven. ¹⁹ Behold, I have given you authority to trample upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. ²⁰ Nevertheless, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names have been written in the heavens." †††

²¹ In that very hour, He was overjoyed in the Ruach ha-Kodesh and said, "I praise You, Father, Master of the universe, that You have hidden these things from the wise and discerning and revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, for this way was pleasing to You. ²² All things have been handed over to Me by My Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him."

²³ Then turning to the disciples, He said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see! ²⁴ For I tell you, many prophets and kings desired to see what you are seeing yet did not see, and to hear what you are hearing yet did not hear."

Who Is My Neighbor?

²⁵ Now a certain Torah lawyer stood up to entrap Yeshua, saying, "Teacher, what should I do to gain eternal life?"

²⁶ Then Yeshua said to him, "What has been written in the Torah? How do you read it?"

²⁷ And he replied, "You shall love ADONAI your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself." †††

²⁸ Yeshua said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this and you will live."

²⁹ But wanting to vindicate himself, he said to Yeshua, "Then who is my neighbor?"

†† cf. Gen. 19:24-28. †† cf. Ezek. 26-28. ††† cf. Exod. 32:32; Dan. 12:1. ††† cf. Deut. 6:5(6:5 LXX), v'ahavta et ADONAI v'ahavta l'reiacha

³⁰ Yeshua replied, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho. He was attacked by robbers, who stripped him and beat him. Then they left, abandoning him as half dead. ³¹ And by chance, a kohen was going down that road; but when he saw the man, he passed by on the opposite side. ³² Likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the opposite side. ³³ But a Samaritan who was traveling came upon him; and when he noticed the man, he felt compassion. ³⁴ He went up to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on olive oil and wine. Then setting him on his own animal, he brought him to a lodge for travelers and took care of him. ³⁵ The next day he took out two denarii † and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take care of him. And whatever else you spend, upon my return I will repay you myself.' ³⁶ Which of these three seems to you a neighbor to the one attacked by robbers?"

³⁷ And he said, "The one who showed mercy to him." Then Yeshua said to him, "Go, and you do the same."

At Home with Miriam and Martha

³⁸ Now while they were traveling, Yeshua entered a certain village; and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her house. ³⁹ She had a sister called Miriam, who was seated at the Master's feet, listening to His teaching. ⁴⁰ But Martha was distracted with much serving; so she approached Yeshua and said, "Master, doesn't it concern you that my sister has left me to serve alone? Then tell her to help me!"

⁴¹ But answering her, the Lord said, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and bothered about many things; ⁴² but only one thing is necessary. For Miriam has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her." ††

Praying along the Way

11 Now Yeshua was praying in a certain place. When He finished, one of His disciples said to Him, "Master, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."

² Then Yeshua said to them, "When you pray, say, 'Father, sanctified be Your Name, Your kingdom come. ‡

³ Give us each day our daily bread.

⁴ And forgive us our sins,

for we also forgive everyone indebted to us.

And lead us not into temptation.'"

⁵ Then Yeshua said to them, "Which of you has a friend and will go to him in the middle of the night and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, ⁶ because a friend of mine has come to me on his journey and I have nothing to set before him.' ⁷ Then from within he may answer, saying, 'Don't bother me. The door is already locked, and my children and I are in bed. I can't get up to give you anything.' ⁸ I tell you, even if the friend will not get up and give him anything out of friendship, yet because of the man's persistence he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

⁹ "So I say to you, 'Ask, and it shall be given to you. Seek, and you shall find. Knock, and it shall be opened to you. ¹⁰ For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.' ¹¹ What father, if his son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? ¹² And if he asks for an egg, will he give him a scorpion? ¹³ If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Ruach ha-Kodesh †† to those who ask Him!"

Crowds Demand a Sign from Heaven

¹⁴ Now Yeshua was driving out a demon, and it was mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute one spoke and the crowds were amazed. ¹⁵ But some among them said, "By beelzebul, the ruler of demons, He drives out demons." ¹⁶ Others, testing Him, were demanding from Him a sign from heaven.

¹⁷ But Yeshua, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is destroyed, and a house against a house falls. ¹⁸ Now if satan is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say by beelzebul I drive out the demons. ¹⁹ But if by beelzebul I drive out demons, by whom do your sons drive them out? For this reason, they will be your judges. ²⁰ But if by the finger of God †† I drive out demons, then the kingdom of God has come to you.

²¹ "When a strong one, fully-armed, protects his own estate, his possessions are safe. ²² But as soon as someone stronger than he attacks and overpowers him, then he takes away the armor that he had trusted in and divides up his plunder. ²³ He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

²⁴ "When an unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places looking for rest. Not finding any, it says, 'I will return to my house where I came from.' ²⁵ And when it comes, it finds the house swept and put in order. ²⁶ Then it goes and takes along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and settle there. And that man's last condition becomes worse than the first."

²⁷ Then as Yeshua was saying these things, a certain woman in the crowd, raising her voice, said to Him, "Blessed is the womb that carried You and the breasts that nursed You!"

²⁸ But He said, "Rather, blessed are those who hear the word of God and obey it."

²⁹ With the crowds increasing, Yeshua began to say, "This generation is a wicked generation. It demands a sign, yet no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. ³⁰ For just as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, ††† so also the Son of Man will be to this generation.³¹ The Queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon. † And behold, something greater than Solomon is here.³² The men of Nineveh will rise at the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, because they repented at Jonah's proclamation. And indeed, one greater than Jonah is here.

³³ "No one lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on the lampstand so that those entering may see the light.³⁴ Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light. But when it is sick, your body is full of darkness.³⁵ Therefore, watch out that the light in you is not darkness.³⁶ If then your body is full of light, with no part of it dark, it will be as full of light as when a lamp gives you light with its gleam."

Dinner with a Pharisee

³⁷ As He spoke, a Pharisee asked Yeshua to eat with him, so He entered and sat down.³⁸ But the Pharisee was surprised when he saw that Yeshua did not do the ritual handwashing before the meal.³⁹ But the Lord said to him, "You Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and plate, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.⁴⁰ Fools! Didn't He who created the outside also create the inside?⁴¹ But give as tzedakah those things that are within, and indeed everything is pure to you.

⁴² "But woe to you Pharisees, for you tithe mint, rue, and every garden herb, †† yet bypass justice and the love of God. It is necessary to do these things without neglecting the others.⁴³ Woe to you Pharisees, for you love the best seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces.⁴⁴ Woe to you, for you are like unmarked tombs, and people walk over them without knowing."

⁴⁵ But answering, one of the Torah lawyers says to Him, "Teacher, when You say these things, You insult us too."

⁴⁶ Then Yeshua said, "Woe to you Torah lawyers as well, for you weigh the people down with burdens hard to carry, yet you yourselves will not touch the burdens with even a finger.

⁴⁹ "For this reason also the wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and emissaries, and some of them they will kill and persecute,⁵⁰ so that the blood of the prophets shed since the foundation of the world might be required from this generation—⁵¹ from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, the one who perished between the altar and the house of God. ‡

Yes, I tell you, it will be required from this generation.'

⁵² "Woe to you, Torah lawyers, for you have taken away the key of knowledge. You yourselves did not enter, and you stood in the way of those entering."

⁵³ When Yeshua left there, the Torah scholars and the Pharisees began to be very hostile and to interrogate Him on many issues,⁵⁴ plotting against Him to catch Him in His words.

An Aside with the Disciples

12 Meanwhile, when thousands of people had gathered, so many that they were trampling one another, Yeshua began speaking first to His disciples, "Be on guard yourselves against the hametz of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.² There is nothing covered up that will not be revealed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known.³ Therefore, whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in private rooms will be proclaimed from the housetops.

⁴ "I say to you, My friends, you should not be afraid of those who kill the body, since after this they have nothing more they can do.⁵ But I will show you whom you should fear. Fear the One who, after the killing, has authority to cast into Gehenna. Yes, I tell you, fear this One!

⁶ "Aren't five sparrows being sold for two pennies? †† Yet not one of them is forgotten before God.⁷ Indeed, even the hairs of your head are all numbered.⁸ So do not fear; you are more valuable than many sparrows.⁹ Now I tell you, whoever acknowledges Me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge him before the angels of God.¹⁰ But the one who denies Me before men will be denied before the angels of God.¹¹ And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who slanders †† the Ruach ha-Kodesh will not be forgiven.¹² And when they bring you to the synagogues, rulers, and authorities, do not worry about how you should defend yourself or what you should say,¹³ because the Ruach ha-Kodesh will teach you at that time what is necessary to say."

A Request from the Crowd

¹³ Then someone from the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

¹⁴ But Yeshua said to him, "Man, who made Me a judge or arbitrator over you?"¹⁵ Then He said to them, "Watch out! Be on guard against all kinds of greed, because one's life does not consist in the abundance of the material goods he possesses." †††¹⁶ And Yeshua told them a parable, saying, "The land of a certain rich man produced good crops.¹⁷ And he began thinking to himself, saying, 'What shall I do? I don't have a place to store my harvest!'¹⁸ And he said, 'Here's what I'll do! I'll tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I'll store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹ And I'll say to myself, "O my soul, you have plenty of goods saved up for many years! So take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry." ²⁰ But God said to him, "You fool! Tonight your soul is being demanded back from you! And what you have prepared, whose will that be?" ²¹ So it is with the one who stores up treasure for himself and is not rich in God."

Instructions for the Disciples

²² Then Yeshua said to His disciples, "So I say to you, do not worry about life, what you will eat; nor about the body, what you will wear. ²³ For life is more than food and the body more than clothing. ²⁴ Consider the ravens. They do not sow or reap, they have no store-room or barn, yet God feeds them. How much more valuable you are than birds!

²⁵ "And which of you by worrying can add a single hour to his life? ^{†26} So if you cannot do even something very little, why do you worry about other things? ²⁷ Consider the lilies, how they grow. They neither toil nor spin. Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these. ^{‡28} But if God so clothes the grass in the field—which is here today and thrown into the furnace tomorrow—then how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith?

²⁹ "So do not seek what you will eat and what you will drink, and do not keep worrying. ³⁰ For all the nations of the world strive after these things. But your Father knows that you need these things. ³¹ Instead, seek His kingdom, and these things shall be added to you. ³² Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father chose to give you the kingdom.

³⁵ "Have your belt strapped on and lamps burning. ³⁶ Be like people waiting for their master to return from a wedding feast, so that when he comes and knocks, they may open to him immediately.

³⁷ "Happy are those slaves whose master finds them alert when he comes. Amen, I tell you, he will prepare himself and have them recline at table, and will come and serve them.

³⁸ "And if he comes in the second or even the third watch [‡] and finds them so, they will be happy. ³⁹ But understand this, that if the master of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be broken into. ⁴⁰ You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you don't expect."

⁴¹ Then Peter said, "Master, are You telling this parable for us, or for everyone?"

⁴² And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master will put in charge of his servants, to give them their food portion at the proper time? ⁴³ Blessed is that servant whose master finds him so doing when he comes. ⁴⁴ Truly I tell you, his master will put him in charge of all his possessions.

⁴⁵ "But if that servant says in his heart, 'My master is taking a long time to come,' and he begins to beat the young slave boys and girls and to eat and drink and get drunk, ⁴⁶ the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know. And he will cut him in two and assign him a place with the unfaithful.

⁴⁷ "That slave who knew his master's will but did not prepare or act according to his desire will be harshly whipped. ⁴⁸ But the one who did not know and did things worthy of a beating will be whipped lightly. From everyone given much, much will be required; and from the one for whom more is provided, all the more they will ask of him.

⁴⁹ "I came to pour out fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already ablaze! ⁵⁰ But I have an immersion to endure, [‡] and how distressed I am until it is finished!

⁵¹ "Do you suppose that I have come to bring shalom on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. ⁵² From now on there will be five in one house in opposition, three against two and two against three.

⁵³ "They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law." ^{‡‡}

Lessons for the Crowds

⁵⁴ Then He also was saying to the crowds, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, instantly you say, 'A rain-storm is coming'—and so it is. ⁵⁵ And when a south wind is blowing, you say, 'It will be a scorcher'—and so it is. ⁵⁶ Hypocrites! The surface of the earth and sky you know how to interpret yet you don't know how to interpret this present time? ⁵⁷ Why can't you judge for yourselves what is right? ⁵⁸ For while you are going with your accuser to the authorities, make an effort to come to a settlement with him—so he doesn't drag you before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer of the court, and the officer of the court throw you into prison. ⁵⁹ I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid back the last little bit." ^{‡‡‡}

13 Now there were some present at the same time who told Yeshua about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. ² He answered and said to them, "Do you suppose that these Galileans are worse sinners than the rest of the Galileans because they have suffered these things?

³ No, I tell you! But unless you repent, you all will perish the same way.

⁴ “Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and were killed, do you suppose that they are worse sinners than all the people living in Jerusalem?”

⁵ No, I tell you! But unless you repent, you all will perish the same way.”

⁶ Then Yeshua began telling this parable: “A man had a fig tree he had planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. ⁷ So he said to the gardener, ‘Indeed, for three years I’ve come searching for fruit on this fig tree and found none. Remove it! Why does it use up the ground?’

⁸ “But answering, the gardener said to him, ‘Master, leave it alone for this year also, until I dig around it and apply fertilizer. ⁹ And if it bears fruit, good. But if not, cut it down.’”

Teaching by Example at the Synagogue

¹⁰ Now Yeshua was teaching in one of the synagogues on Shabbat. ¹¹ And behold, there was a woman with a disabling spirit for eighteen years, bent over and completely unable to stand up straight.

¹² When Yeshua saw her, He called out to her and said, “Woman, you are set free from your disability.” ¹³ Then He laid hands on her, and instantly she stood up straight and began praising God.

¹⁴ But the synagogue leader, indignant that Yeshua had healed on Shabbat, started telling the crowd, “There are six days in which work should be done †—so come to be healed on those days and not on Yom Shabbat!”

¹⁵ But the Lord answered him and said, “Hypocrites! On Shabbat doesn’t each of you untie his ox or donkey from the stall and lead it away to give it drink? ¹⁶ So this one, a daughter of Abraham incapacitated by satan for eighteen years, shouldn’t she be set free from this imprisonment on Yom Shabbat?” ¹⁷ When Yeshua said these things, all His opponents were put to shame; but the whole crowd was rejoicing at all the glorious things done by Him. ††

Teaching throughout the Towns and Villages

¹⁸ So Yeshua was saying, “What is the kingdom of God like? To what shall I compare it? ¹⁹ It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and dropped into his own garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air nested in its branches.” ²⁰ Again He said, “To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? ²¹ It is like hametz, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened.

²² And He continued on His journey through the towns and villages, teaching and making His way to Jerusalem. ²³ And someone said to Him, “Master, are only a few being saved?”

Then Yeshua said to them, ²⁴ “Make every effort to enter through the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able. ²⁵ Once the Master of the household gets up and shuts the door, and you’re standing outside and begin knocking on the door, saying, ‘Master, open up for us,’ then He will say to you, ‘I don’t know where you come from.’ ²⁶ Then you will start to say, ‘We ate and drank in Your company, and You taught in our streets.’ ²⁷ But He will say, ‘I tell you, I don’t know where you come from. Get away from Me, all of you evildoers!’” †

²⁸ “There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves thrown out. ²⁹ And they will come from the east and west and from the north and south, and they will recline at table in the kingdom of God. ³⁰ And indeed, some are last who shall be first, and some are first who shall be last.”

A Warning to Move on

³² But Yeshua said to them, “Go and tell that fox, ‘Indeed, I’m driving out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach My goal.’ ³³ But I must keep going today and tomorrow because it just can’t be that a prophet would perish outside Jerusalem.

³⁴ “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem who kills the prophets and stones those sent to her! How often I longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing. ³⁵ Look, your house is left to you desolate! † For I tell you, you will never see Me until you say, ‘Baruch ha-Ba b’Shem ADONAI. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD!’” ††

A Dinner Conversation on Shabbat

14 Now when Yeshua went into the home of one of the leaders of the Pharisees to eat a meal on Shabbat, they were watching Him closely. ² And there before Him was a man swollen with fluid. ³ So Yeshua said to the Torah lawyers and the Pharisees, “Is it permitted to heal on Shabbat, or not?”

⁴ But they kept silent. So Yeshua took hold of him and healed him, and He sent him away. ⁵ Then He said to them, “Which of you, with a son or an ox falling into a well on Yom Shabbat, will not immediately pull him out?” ††† And they could not reply to these things.

ing the seats of honor. He said to them, ⁸“When you are invited by someone to a wedding, don’t take the seat of honor, for someone more highly esteemed than you may have been invited by him. ⁹Then the one who invited both of you will come to you and say, ‘Give up this seat.’ And with shame, you would proceed to take the lowest seat. ¹⁰But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest seat so that when the one who invited you comes, he may say to you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ Then you shall be honored in the presence of all those who are dining with you.

¹¹For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” †

¹²Then Yeshua was also saying to the one who invited Him, “When you host a luncheon or dinner, don’t invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors. Otherwise they might invite you in return as your payback. ¹³But when you host a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind; ¹⁴and you will be blessed, since they cannot repay you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

¹⁵Now hearing this, one of those dining with Yeshua said to Him, “Blessed is he who eats bread in the kingdom of God.”

¹⁶But Yeshua said to him, “A certain man was hosting a large banquet, and he invited many. ¹⁷At the time for the banquet, he sent his slave to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, everything is already prepared.’

¹⁸“But every one of them began to beg off. The first said to him, ‘I bought a farm, and I’m obligated to go out to see it. I’m asking you to have me excused.’

¹⁹Then another one said, ‘I’ve purchased five teams of oxen, and I’m going to check them out. I’m asking you to have me excused.’ ²⁰Still another said, ‘I’ve married a wife, so I cannot come.’ ††

²¹“The slave came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house got angry and said to his slave, ‘Quickly go out into the squares and alleys of the city and bring here the poor, the maimed, the blind, and the lame.’

²²“And the slave said, ‘Master, I have done as you instructed, and still there is room.’

²³“So the master said to the slave, ‘Go out into the thoroughfares and fenced areas, and press them to come in so my home may be filled. ²⁴For I tell you, none of those men who were invited will taste my banquet.’”

Telling Parables along the Road

²⁵Now great crowds were traveling with Yeshua; and He turned and said to them, ²⁶“If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters—and yes, even his own life—he cannot be My disciple. ²⁷Whoever does not carry his own cross and follow Me cannot be My disciple.

²⁸“For which of you, wanting to build a tower, doesn’t first sit down and figure out the cost, to see if he has enough to finish it? ²⁹Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and isn’t able to finish everything, all who see it begin to mock him, ³⁰saying, ‘This man began to build and wasn’t able to finish!’

15 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were drawing near to hear Yeshua. ²The Pharisees and the Torah scholars began to complain, saying, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.” ³So He told this parable to them, saying, ⁴“Which man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, will not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the lost one until he finds it? ⁵When he has found it, he puts it on his shoulders, rejoicing. ⁶And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbors and says, ‘Rejoice with me, for I’ve found my sheep that was lost!’ ⁷I tell you, in the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one repenting sinner than over the 99 righteous people who have no need of repentance.

⁸“Or which woman, if she has ten silver coins and loses one coin, † does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search thoroughly until she finds it?

⁹When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I’ve found the coin I had lost!’ ¹⁰In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.”

¹¹Then Yeshua said, “A certain man had two sons, ¹²and the younger of them said to the father, ‘Father, give me the share of the property that comes to me.’ So he divided his wealth between them.

¹³“Not many days later, the younger son gathered everything and traveled to a far country, and there he squandered his inheritance on wild living. ¹⁴Now when he had spent everything, a severe famine came against that country, and he began to be in need. ¹⁵So he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. ¹⁶And he was longing to fill up on the carob pods the pigs were eating, but no one was giving him any.

† cf. Prov. 20:18. †† Lit. drachma

¹⁷ “But when he came to his senses, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired workers have food overflowing, but here I am dying of hunger! ¹⁸ I’ll get up and go to my father, and I’ll say to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your presence. ¹⁹ I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired workers.’”

²⁰ “And he got up and went to his own father. But while he was still far away, his father saw him and felt compassion. He ran and fell on his neck and kissed him. ²¹ Then the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your presence. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

²² “But the father said to his slaves, ‘Quick! Bring out the best robe and put it on him! Put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. ²³ Bring the fattened calf and kill it! Let’s celebrate with a feast! ²⁴ For this son of mine was dead and has come back to life—he was lost and is found!’ Then they began to celebrate.

²⁵ “Now his older son was out in the field. And as he came near the house, he heard music and dancing.

²⁶ And he called out to one of the servants and began to ask what these things could be.

²⁷ “The servant said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he got him back safe and sound.’

²⁸ “But the older son was angry and didn’t want to go in. So his father came outside and pleaded with him.

²⁹ But he answered and said to his father, ‘Look, so many years I’ve slaved away for you—not once did I ignore your order. Yet you’ve never given me a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. ³⁰ But when this son of yours came—the one who has squandered your wealth with prostitutes—for him you killed the fattened calf!’

³¹ “Then the father said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and everything that is mine is yours. ³² But it was right to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead but has come back to life! He was lost, but is found.’”

A Lesson for the Disciples

16 Now Yeshua was also saying to the disciples, “There was a rich man who had a household manager, and this manager was accused of squandering his belongings. ² So he called the manager and said to him, ‘What’s this I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.’

³ “Then the manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I’m not strong enough to dig; I’m ashamed to beg. ⁴ I know what I’ll do, so that when I’m put out of management others will welcome me into their homes.’ ⁵ So he called in each one of his master’s debtors, and he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

⁶ “He said, ‘One hundred units of olive oil.’

“The manager said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write 50.’ ⁷ Then he said to another, ‘Now how much do you owe?’

“He said, ‘A hundred units of wheat.’

“The manager said to him, ‘Take your bill and write 80.’

⁸ “Now the master praised the crooked manager because he had acted shrewdly, for the sons of this age are smarter when dealing with their own generation than the sons of light. ⁹ I say to you, make friends for yourselves from the wealth of the world, so when it runs out, they will welcome you into the eternal shelters.

¹⁰ “One who is faithful in the smallest matters is also faithful in much, and the one unjust in the smallest matters will likewise be unjust in much. ¹¹ So then, if you cannot be trusted with unjust wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? ¹² Now if you have not been trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you anything of your own? ¹³ No servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stick by one and look down on the other. You cannot serve God and money.” †

The Pharisees Listen In

¹⁴ Now the Pharisees, who were lovers of money, were listening to all these things and sneering at Yeshua. ¹⁵ But He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves before the people, but God knows your hearts. †† For what is prized among men is de-stestable in God’s sight.

¹⁶ “The Torah and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since then, the Good News of the kingdom of God is being proclaimed, and everyone tries forcing his way in. ¹⁷ But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for a single serif ‡ of the Torah to fail. ¹⁸ Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery. And he who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.

²² “It happened that the poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham’s side. Then the rich man also died and was buried. ²³ And from Sheol, as he was in torment, he raised his eyes. And he sees Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his side. ††²⁴ So he cried out and said, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me! And send Lazarus so he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool off my tongue, because I am suffering torment in this flame.’ ††

²⁵ "But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that in your life you received your good things, even as Lazarus received the bad things. But now he is comforted here, and you are tormented. ²⁶ Besides all this, between us and you a great chasm is firmly set, so that those who want to cross over to you cannot, nor can those from there cross over to us.

²⁷ "Then the rich man said, 'I beg you then, Father Abraham, send Lazarus to my father's house! ²⁸ For I have five brothers to warn, so that they will not also come to this place of torment.'

²⁹ "But Abraham says, 'They have Moses and the Prophets. Let them listen to them.'

³⁰ "But he said, 'No, Father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.'

³¹ "But Abraham said, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead!'"

Back to Teaching His Own

17 Then Yeshua said to His disciples, "Stumbling blocks are bound to come, but woe to the one by whom they come! ² It would be better for him to have a millstone put around his neck and to be hurled into the sea, than for him to cause one of these little ones to stumble.

³ "Keep yourselves alert! If your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. ⁴ Even if he sins against you seven times a day, and seven times returns to you, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him."

⁵ Then the emissaries said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!"

⁶ Then the Lord said, "If you have faith like a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. ⁷ But if you have a slave who is plowing or tending sheep, who among you will say to him when he comes in from the field, 'Come right in, and recline at table?'

⁸ But won't he instead say to him, 'Prepare something for me to eat! Dress yourself and wait on me while I eat and drink; and afterward, you may eat and drink?'

⁹ He doesn't thank the slave because he did what he was commanded, does he? ¹⁰ So you too, when you've done everything you are commanded, say, 'We are unworthy slaves. We have done only what we were supposed to do.'"

On the Move through Samaria

¹¹ Now while going up to Jerusalem, Yeshua was passing between Samaria and the Galilee. ¹² As He entered a certain village, ten men with tzara'at came toward Him. They stood some distance away ^{†13} and raised their voices, saying, "Yeshua, Master, have mercy on us!"

¹⁴ When He saw them, He said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the kohanim ." ^{††} And as they went,

† cf. Lev. 13:45-46. †† cf. Lev. 14:1-3ff.

they were cleansed. ¹⁵ Now one of them, when he saw that he was healed, came back, glorifying God with a loud voice. ¹⁶ And he fell at Yeshua's feet, facedown, giving Him thanks. And he was a Samaritan.

¹⁷ Then Yeshua answered and said, "Weren't ten cleansed? But where are the nine? ¹⁸ Weren't any found who came back to give glory to God except this foreigner?" ¹⁹ Then Yeshua said to the man, "Stand up and go! Your faith has made you well."

²⁰ Now when Yeshua was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God does not come with signs to be seen. ²¹ Nor will they say, 'Look, here!' or 'There!' For behold, the kingdom of God is in your midst."

²² Then Yeshua said to the disciples, "The days will come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. ²³ They will say to you, 'Look, there!' or 'Look, here!' Do not go and chase after them. ²⁴ For just as the lightning flashes from one part of the sky and lights up another part, so will the Son of Man be in His day. ²⁵ But first He must suffer much and be rejected by this generation. ²⁶ As it was in the days of Noah, [‡] so will it also be in the days of the Son of Man. ²⁷ They were eating, drinking, marrying, and being given in marriage, until the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.

²⁸ "It was just the same in the days of Lot. ^{‡‡} They were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building. ²⁹ But on the day Lot left Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed them all. ³⁰ Things will be the same on the day when the Son of Man is made fully known. ³¹ In that day, the one who is on the roof, and his possessions in the house, must not go down to take them away. In the same way, the one who is in the field must not turn back. ³² Remember Lot's wife! ^{‡‡‡} Whoever tries to keep his life will lose it; but whoever loses his life will preserve it.

³⁴ "I tell you, on that night there will be two in one bed. One will be taken along and the other left.

³⁵ There will be two women grinding at the same place. One will be taken and the other left." (³⁶) ^{‡‡‡}

³⁷ "Where, Lord?" they replied.

And He said to them, "Where there is a corpse, there also will the vultures be gathered." ^{‡‡‡}

18 Then Yeshua told them a parable to show that they should always pray and not be discouraged, ² He said, "There was a judge in a certain city who neither feared God nor respected people. ³ And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him, saying, 'Give me justice against my opponent.'

⁴ "He was unwilling at the time. But afterward he said to himself, 'Although I don't fear God or respect people, ⁵ yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice so she won't wear me out by her incessant coming."

‡ cf. Gen. 6:11-13. †† cf. Gen. 19:24-25. ‡‡ cf. Gen. 19:26. ‡‡‡ Some mss. add There will be two in the field. One will be taken along, and the other left ‡‡‡ cf. Rev. 19:17-19.

⁶ Then the Lord said, "Hear what the unjust judge is saying. ⁷ Won't God do justice for His chosen ones, who cry out to Him day and night? Will He be slow to help them? ⁸ I tell you, He will quickly give them justice. But when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?"

⁹ Then Yeshua spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, while holding others in contempt. ¹⁰ "Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹ The Pharisee stood and was praying this to himself: 'O God, I thank You that I am not like other people—thieving, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. ¹² I fast twice a week and tithe on all that I get.'

¹³ "But the tax collector, standing some distance away, wouldn't even lift his eyes toward heaven, but beat his chest, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, the sinner!' ¹⁴ I tell you, this man, rather than the other, went down to his home declared righteous. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

¹⁵ Now they were bringing even their babies to Yeshua, so He might touch them. But when the disciples saw this, they began rebuking them. ¹⁶ But Yeshua called for them, saying, "Let the little children come to Me and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. ¹⁷ Amen, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it."

¹⁸ And a religious leader inquired of Yeshua, saying, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

¹⁹ "Why are you calling Me good?" Yeshua said to him. "No one is good except One—that is God. ²⁰ You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.'" [†]

²¹ The man said, "All these I have kept since my youth."

²² When Yeshua heard this, He said to him, "One thing you still lack. Sell all, as much as you have, and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow Me." ²³ But upon hearing these things, he became deeply distressed, for he was very rich.

²⁴ Gazing at him, Yeshua said, "How hard it is for the rich to enter into the kingdom of God! ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

²⁶ Then those who heard said, "Then who can be saved?"

²⁷ But Yeshua said, "What is impossible with men is possible with God." [‡]

²⁸ Then Peter said, "Look, we've left everything of our own to follow You."

²⁹ And Yeshua said to them, "Amen, I tell you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, ³⁰ who will not receive many times as much in this age; and in the olam ha-ba, eternal life."

³¹ Then Yeshua took the twelve aside and said to them, "Look, we're going up to Jerusalem, and everything written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be carried out. ³² He will be handed over to the Gentiles, and He will be mocked and insulted and spat upon. ³³ After they have scourged Him, they will kill Him. Yet on the third day, He will rise again." ³⁴ But they understood none of these things; this message was hidden from them, and they did not understand what He was saying.

Approaching Jericho

³⁵ Now as Yeshua was approaching Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting by the road, begging. ³⁶ But when he heard the crowd going by, he asked what was happening. ³⁷ They told him that Yeshua ha-Natzrati was passing by. ³⁸ And he cried out, saying, "Yeshua, Ben-David, have mercy on me!"

³⁹ And those leading the way were scolding him, so he would be quiet. But he kept shouting all the more, "Ben-David, have mercy on me!"

⁴⁰ So Yeshua stopped and ordered the blind man to be brought to Him. And when he came near, Yeshua asked him, ⁴¹ "What do you want Me to do for you?"

And he said, "Master, I want to see again!"

⁴² Yeshua said to him, "Receive your sight. Your faith has made you well." ⁴³ Immediately the man received his sight and began following Yeshua, glorifying God. And when all the people saw it, they also gave praise to God.

Visiting Zacchaeus in Jericho

19 Now Yeshua entered Jericho and was passing through. ² And here was a man by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. ³ Zacchaeus was trying to see who Yeshua was, but he couldn't because of the crowd, for he was short in height. ⁴ So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Yeshua, for He was about to pass through that way.

⁵ When Yeshua came to the place, He looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today."

⁶ Zacchaeus hurried and came down and welcomed Him joyfully.

⁷ But when everyone saw it, they began to grumble, saying, "Yeshua has gone to be the guest of a sinner!"

⁸ But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord. "Look, Master, half of my possessions I give to the poor, and if I have somehow cheated anyone, I repay four times as much!" †

⁹ Then Yeshua said to him, "Today salvation has come to this home, because he also is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰ For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

¹¹ As they were listening to this, Yeshua went on to tell a parable, because He was near Jerusalem and they supposed that the kingdom of God was about to appear at once. ¹² Therefore He said, "A certain nobleman went to a faraway land to receive for himself a kingdom and then return. ¹³ And calling ten of his own slaves, he gave them ten minas † and said to them, 'Do business until I come back.' ¹⁴ But his citizens detested him and they sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We don't want this fellow to reign over us!' ¹⁵ When he returned after receiving the kingdom, he called for those slaves to whom he had given the money. He wanted to know how much business they had done. ¹⁶ Now the first appeared, saying, 'Master, your one mina has made ten.' ¹⁷ The master said to him, 'Well done, good slave! Because you were faithful with so little, take charge over ten cities.' ¹⁸ Also, the second slave came, saying, 'Your mina, Master, made five.' ¹⁹ Then he also said to this one, 'You are likewise over five cities.' ²⁰ But another came, saying, 'Master, here is your mina. I was keeping it safe in a handkerchief, ²¹ for I was afraid of you because you are a strict man. You take what you did not make and reap what you did not sow.' ²² He said to him, 'By the words of your own mouth I will judge you, you wicked slave! You knew that I am strict, taking what I did not make and reaping what I did not sow? ²³ Then why didn't you put my money in the bank, so that when I came back I could have collected it with interest?' ²⁴ Then to the bystanders he said, 'Take the mina from him, and give it to the one who has ten minas.' ²⁵ But they said to him, 'Sir, he has ten minas!' ²⁶ 'I tell you, to everyone who has, more shall be given. But from the one who doesn't have, even what he does have shall be taken away. ²⁷ But those hostile to me, who didn't want me to reign over them, bring them here and execute them before me.'"

Riding into Jerusalem

²⁸ After saying these things, Yeshua was going on ahead, up to Jerusalem. ²⁹ When He got near Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, ‡ He sent two of the disciples, ³⁰ saying, "Go into the village ahead. As you enter, you will find a colt tied up, that no one has ever sat upon. Untie it and bring it. ³¹ And if anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' you shall say, 'The Master needs it.'"

† cf. Exod. 22:1-3(2-4); 2 Sam. 12:6. †† 1 mina
‡ Lit. the mountain called "of Olives."

³² Those who were headed out found things just as He told them. ³³ Then as they were untying the colt, his owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

³⁴ They said, "The Master needs it." ³⁵ Then they brought it to Yeshua, threw their cloaks †† on the colt, and set Yeshua on it. ††³⁶ And as He went along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road. ††³⁷ When Yeshua came near the slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of disciples began to rejoice. They praised God with a loud voice for all the miracles they had seen, ³⁸ saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of ADONAI! †††

Shalom in heaven and glory in the highest!"

³⁹ Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples!"

⁴⁰ But answering, Yeshua said, "I tell you that if these keep silent, the stones will shout out!" §

⁴¹ As He drew near and saw Jerusalem, He wept over her, ⁴² saying, "If only you had recognized this day the things that lead to shalom! But now they are hidden from your eyes. ⁴³ For the days will come upon you when your enemies will surround you with barricades and hem you in on all sides. ††⁴⁴ And they will smash you to the ground—you and your children within you. And they won't leave within you one stone upon another, because you did not recognize the time of your visitation."

Confrontation at the Temple

⁴⁵ Then Yeshua entered the Temple and began to drive out the merchants, ⁴⁶ saying to them, "It is written, "My house shall be a house of prayer," ††† but you have made it a 'den of thieves.'" ††

⁴⁷ And He was teaching every day in the Temple. The ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars, even the leaders of the people, were trying to destroy Him; ⁴⁸ but they could not find any way to do it, because all the people were hanging on His words.

20 On one of the days while Yeshua was teaching the people in the Temple and proclaiming the Good News, the ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars, together with the elders, confronted Him. ² And they spoke, saying to Him, "Tell us by what authority are You doing these things? Or who is the one who gave You this authority?"

³ But answering, Yeshua said to them, "I also will ask you a question, and you tell Me: ⁴ the immersion of John—was it from heaven or from men?"

⁵ They reasoned among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why didn't you believe him?' ⁶ But if we say, 'From men,' then all the people will stone us, because they are convinced that John is a prophet." ⁷ So they answered that they didn't know where it came from.

⁹ Then He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard, [†] leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey for a long time. ¹⁰ And at the season, he sent a servant to the tenants so that they would give him part of the vineyard’s fruit. But the tenants beat him up and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹ So he proceeded to send another servant. They beat him too and treated him shamefully, and they sent him away empty-handed. ¹² And he proceeded to send a third one. They wounded this one too, and they threw him out.

¹³ “Now the master of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my son, whom I love. Probably they will show him respect.’ ¹⁴ But when the tenants saw him, they discussed the matter among themselves, saying, ‘This is the heir! Let’s kill him so the inheritance will be ours.’ ¹⁵ So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the master of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶ He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others.”

But when they heard this, they said, “May it never happen!”

¹⁷ Then Yeshua looked right at them and said, “Then what is this that has been written,

“The stone which the builders rejected, this has become the chief cornerstone?” ^{††}

¹⁸ “Everyone who falls on that stone will be shattered; but the one upon whom it falls, it will crush him.” [‡]

¹⁹ The Torah scholars and the ruling kohanim tried to grab Him that very hour, because they realized that He spoke this parable against them—but they feared the people.

Silencing the Opposition

²⁰ Now they watched Him and sent spies who pretended to be righteous, in order to trap Him in His words so they could hand Him over to the power and authority of the governor. ²¹ And they asked Him, saying, “Teacher, we know that You tell it straight and You teach it straight. You show no partiality, but teach the way of God according to the truth. ²² Is it permitted for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

²³ But carefully considering their treachery, Yeshua said to them, ²⁴ “Show me a denarius. [‡] Whose image and inscription does it have?”

And they said, “Caesar’s.”

²⁵ Then He said to them, “Well then, give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” ²⁶ And they could not trap Him in His words in the presence of the people. Astonished by His answer, they kept silent.

²⁷ Then some of the Sadducees (who deny there is a resurrection) came and questioned Yeshua.

[†] cf. Isa. 5:1-7. ^{††} Ps. 118:22 (117:22 LXX). [‡] cf. Isa. 8:14-15; 28:16; Dan. 2:34, 44-45. ^{‡†} A Roman coin.

²⁸ “Teacher,” they said, “Moses wrote for us that ‘if a man’s brother dies having a wife but no children, then his brother should take the widow and father children for his brother.’ ^{‡‡29} Now there were seven brothers, and the first took a wife and died childless; ³⁰ and the second ³¹ and the third took her, but in this same way, each of the seven brothers died and left no children. ³² Finally the woman died too. ³³ So in the resurrection, whose wife is she? For all seven had married her.”

³⁴ Yeshua said to them, “The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage. ³⁵ But those considered worthy to reach the olam ha-ba and the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶ For they can no longer die, because they are like angels and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. ³⁷ But at the burning bush even Moses revealed that the dead are raised, when he calls ADONAI ‘the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ ^{‡‡‡38} Now He is God not of the dead but of the living, for to Him they all are living.”

³⁹ Some of the Torah scholars replied, “Teacher, You have said it well.” ⁴⁰ For they no longer dared to question Him about anything.

⁴¹ Then Yeshua said to them, “How can they say that the Messiah is Ben-David? ⁴² For David himself says in the Book of Psalms, “ADONAI said to my Lord,

“Sit at My right hand,

⁴³ until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.” ^{‡‡}

⁴⁴ “David then calls Him ‘Lord’; so how is He his son?”

⁴⁵ Then with all the people listening, Yeshua said to the disciples, ⁴⁶ “Beware of the Torah scholars, who like to walk around in long robes. They love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and places of honor at feasts. ⁴⁷ They devour widows’ houses and make long prayers as a show. These men will receive greater condemnation!”

Teaching in the Temple

21 Then Yeshua looked up and saw the rich dropping their gifts into the treasury box. ² He also saw a poor widow dropping in two small copper coins. ³ And He said, “Truly I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all the rest. ⁴ For all these put in their gifts from their surplus. But she, out of her poverty, put in all she had to live on.”

⁵ And while some were talking about the Temple, how it was decorated with beautiful stones and offerings, Yeshua said, ⁶ “As for these things you are looking at, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another. Every one will be torn down!”

⁷ And they questioned Him, saying, “Teacher, so when will these things happen? What will be the sign that these things are about to take place?”

^{‡‡} Deut. 25:5. ^{‡‡†} cf. Exod. 3:4-6. ^{‡‡‡} Ps. 110:1(109:1 LXX).

⁸ And He said, "Watch out that you are not led astray! For many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He' and 'The time is near!' Do not follow them. ⁹ And when you hear of wars and chaos, do not be terrorized. For these things need to happen first, but the end will not come at once."

¹⁰ Then He continued telling them, "Nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹ There will be great earthquakes along with famines and epidemics in various places, and there will be terrors along with great signs from heaven. ¹² But before all these things, they will grab you and persecute you, handing you over to the synagogues and prisons, and leading you away to kings and governors on account of My name. ¹³ This will lead you to be a witness. ¹⁴ So make up your minds not to prepare ahead of time to defend yourselves— ¹⁵ for I Myself will give you speech and wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to resist or refute. ¹⁶ But you will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends—and they will put some of you to death. ¹⁷ And you will be hated by all because of My name. ¹⁸ Yet not a hair of your head will be lost. ¹⁹ By your endurance, you will gain your souls.

²⁰ "But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then recognize that her desolation is near. ²¹ Then those in Judea must flee to the mountains, and those inside the city must get out, and those in the countryside must not enter her. ²² For these are the days of punishment, to fulfill all that has been written. †

²⁵ "There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars. And upon the earth nations will be confused by the roaring of the sea and its waves. ‡²⁶ People will lose heart from fear and anticipation of what is overtaking the earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ††²⁷ And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ††²⁸ Now when these things begin to happen, stand straight and lift up your heads, because your salvation is near!"

²⁹ Then Yeshua told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees. ³⁰ As soon as they sprout their leaves, you see it and you know at once that summer is near. ³¹ So also, when you see these all these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near. ³² Amen, I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things happen. ³³ Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away. †††

³⁴ "But watch out so your hearts are not weighed down by carousing, strong drink, and the worries of life. Do not let that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. ³⁵ For it will come rushing upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶ But stay alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things about to happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."

³⁷ So during the days Yeshua was teaching in the Temple, but in the nights He went out and stayed on the Mount of Olives. ††³⁸ And all the people would come early in the morning to hear Him in the Temple.

The Day before Pesach

22 Now the Feast of Matzah, which is called Passover, was approaching. ² The ruling kohanim and Torah scholars were searching for a way to do away with Yeshua, for they were afraid of the people.

³ Then satan entered into Judah, the one from Kriot, one of the twelve. ⁴ And he went away and talked with the ruling kohanim and officers of the Temple guard about how he might deliver Yeshua over to them. ⁵ They were delighted and agreed to give him money. ⁶ So he agreed and began looking for a chance to hand Yeshua over to them without a crowd.

⁷ Then came the day of matzah when the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. ⁸ Now Yeshua sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, so we may eat."

⁹ Then they said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare?"

¹⁰ And He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house that he enters. ¹¹ And say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with My disciples?"'" ¹² And with that, he will show you a large upper room, fully furnished. Make preparations there." ¹³ So they left and found just what Yeshua had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

The Seder in the Upper Room

¹⁴ When the hour came, Yeshua reclined at table, and the emissaries with Him. ¹⁵ And He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. ¹⁶ For I tell you, I will never eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

¹⁷ And when He had taken a cup and offered the bracha, He said, "Take this and share it among yourselves. ¹⁸ For I tell you that I will never drink of the fruit of the vine from now on, until the kingdom of God comes."

¹⁹ And when He had taken matzah [§] and offered the bracha, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body, given for you. Do this in memory of Me.”

²⁰ In the same way, He took the cup after the meal, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which is poured out for you. ^{†21} But look, the hand of the one betraying Me is with Mine on the table. ^{††22} For indeed, the Son of Man is going as has been predetermined; but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!”

²³ So they began to discuss among themselves which of them it might be who would do this thing. ²⁴ But there was also a quarrel among them about which of them is considered the greatest. ²⁵ And Yeshua said to them, “The kings of the nations have mastery over them, and those exercising authority over them are called ‘benefactors.’ ²⁶ But with you, it is not so. Rather, let the one who is greatest among you become like the youngest, and the one who leads like the one who serves. ²⁷ For who is greater, the one who reclines or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines? But I am among you as one who serves.

²⁸ “You are the ones who have remained with Me in My times of testing. ²⁹ And just as My Father has granted Me a kingdom, so I grant to you ³⁰ that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and you shall sit upon thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

³¹ “Simon, Simon! Indeed, satan has demanded to sift you all like wheat. ³² But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith will not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”

³³ But Simon said to Him, “Master, I am ready to go with You even to prison and to death!”

³⁴ But Yeshua said, “I tell you, Peter, a rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know Me.”

³⁵ And He said to them, “When I sent you out without a money pouch and travel bag and sandals, you didn’t lack anything, did you?”

They said, “No, nothing.”

³⁶ Then He said to them, “But now, whoever has a money pouch must carry it as well as a travel bag. And whoever does not own a sword must sell his cloak and buy one. ³⁷ For I tell you that this which is written must be fulfilled in Me: ‘And he was counted with the lawless.’ [‡] For what is written about Me is being fulfilled.”

³⁸ But they said, “Master, look here! Two swords!”

And He said to them, “It is enough.”

Yeshua Prays at the Mount of Olives

³⁹ And Yeshua came out and went as usual to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed Him.

⁴⁰ When he reached the place, He said to them, “Pray that you will not enter into temptation.” ⁴¹ And He pulled back about a stone’s throw from them, got on His knees, and began to pray, ⁴² saying, “Father, if You are willing, take this cup from Me; yet not My will, but Yours be done.”

⁴³ Now an angel from heaven appeared to Him and strengthened Him. ⁴⁴ And in His anguish, He was praying fervently; and His sweat was like drops of blood falling down on the ground. ⁴⁵ When He rose up from prayer, He came to the disciples and found them asleep, exhausted from grief. ⁴⁶ And He said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray, so that you won’t enter into temptation.”

Betrayed!

⁴⁷ While Yeshua was speaking, suddenly a crowd came, and the one called Judah, one of the Twelve, approached Yeshua to kiss Him. ⁴⁸ But Yeshua said to him, “Judah, with a kiss you betray the Son of Man?” ^{‡†}

⁵¹ But Yeshua answered and said, “Stop this now!” And He touched the man’s ear and healed him.

⁵² Then Yeshua said to the ruling kohanim, officers of the Temple guard, and the elders who had come against Him, “Have you come out with swords and clubs as you would against a revolutionary? ⁵³ Every day I was with you in the Temple, yet you did not lay a finger on Me. But this is yours—the hour and the power of darkness.” ⁵⁴ Then they seized Yeshua and led Him away and brought Him into the house of the kohen gadol. But Peter was following from a distance.

Denied Three Times

⁵⁵ Now they had lit a fire in the center of the courtyard and sat down together, and Peter was sitting among them. ⁵⁶ Then a servant girl saw him sitting at the fire. She looked straight at him and said, “This one was with Him too!”

⁵⁷ But he denied it, saying, “Woman, I don’t know Him!”

⁵⁸ A little later, another saw him and said, “You, too, are one of them.”

But Peter said, “Man, I am not!”

⁵⁹ And about an hour later, another began to insist, saying, “Certainly this fellow was with Him, for he too is a Galilean!”

⁶⁰ But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!” And immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. ⁶¹ And the Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, ‘Before the rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times.’

⁶² And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

Beaten by Roman Soldiers

⁶³ Now the men who were guarding Yeshua began mocking and beating Him. ⁶⁴ They blindfolded Him and kept asking Him, saying, “Prophecy! Who is the one who hit You?"⁶⁵ And reviling Him, they were saying many other things against Him.

Brought before the Council

⁶⁶ As it became day, the elders of the people gathered together, both ruling kohanim and Torah scholars, and they led Him away to their council, saying,⁶⁷ "If You are Mashiach, tell us."

But Yeshua said to them, "If I tell you, you will never believe;⁶⁸ and if I ask you, you will never answer.⁶⁹ But from now on, the Son of Man is seated at the right hand of the power of God."[†]

⁷⁰ Then they all said, "Are You then Ben-Elohim?"

And to them He said, "You say that I am."

⁷¹ Then they said, "What further need do we have for testimony? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth!"

Brought before Pilate

23 Then the entire assembly got up and brought Yeshua to Pilate.² And they began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this fellow subverting our nation, forbidding payment of taxes to Caesar and saying that He Himself is Messiah—a king."

³ So Pilate questioned Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?"

"As you say," Yeshua replied.

⁴ Then Pilate said to the ruling kohanim and the crowds, "I find no case against this Man."

⁵ But they kept insisting, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, starting from the Galilee to as far as here."

⁶ But when Pilate heard this, he asked whether the Man was a Galilean.⁷ And when he learned that Yeshua was from Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time.

Brought before Herod

⁸ Now Herod was overjoyed when he saw Yeshua, for he had wanted to see Him for a long time, because he had heard about Him and was hoping to see some miracle done by Him.⁹ He was questioning Yeshua on many issues, but Yeshua did not answer at all.^{††10} And the ruling kohanim and the Torah scholars stood their ground, strongly accusing Him.

¹¹ Now Herod together with his soldiers were treating Him with contempt and mocking Him.[‡] They put splendid clothing on Him and sent Him back to Pilate.¹² And Herod and Pilate became friends with one another from that very day, for previously they had been enemies with one another.

Pilate's Decree

¹³ Now Pilate called together the ruling kohanim, the leaders, and the people.¹⁴ And he said to them, "You brought this Man to me as one who incites the people to revolt. But having examined Him in your presence, I have found no case against this Man regarding what you accuse Him of doing.¹⁵ Nor did Herod, for he sent Him back to us. Indeed, He has done nothing that is worthy of death.¹⁶ Therefore, I will scourge Him and release Him."⁽¹⁷⁾ ^{‡†}

¹⁸ But they shouted out all together, saying, "Take this fellow away! Release to us Bar-Abba!"^{‡†19} (He was someone who had been thrown into prison for a rebellion in the city and murder.)

²⁰ Again Pilate addressed them, wanting to release Yeshua; ²¹ but they kept shouting out, saying, "Execute, execute Him!"

²² And a third time he spoke to them, "Why? What evil has this One done? I have found in Him no fault deserving of death. Therefore, I will scourge and release Him."

²³ But they were insistent, demanding with loud shouts that He be executed. And their voices prevailed.²⁴ So Pilate decreed that their demand be put into effect.²⁵ And He released the one they were asking for, the one thrown in jail for insurrection and murder. But he handed over Yeshua to their will.

Executed on the Stake

²⁶ As they led Him away, they grabbed a man, Simon of Cyrene, coming in from the countryside. They placed on him the crossbeam,^{‡††} to carry behind Yeshua.

²⁷ Now a great multitude of people was following Him, including women who were mourning and singing dirges for Him.²⁸ But Yeshua, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but for yourselves and your children.²⁹ For indeed, the days are coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never gave birth, and the breasts that did not feed.'

³⁰ "Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!'

and to the hills, 'Cover us!' ^{‡‡†}

³¹ "For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

³² Others, two evildoers, were also led away to be put to death with Him.³³ When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified Him and the evildoers, one on His right and the other on His left.

³⁴ But Yeshua was saying, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." Then they cast lots, dividing up His clothing.[§]

³⁵ The people stood there watching. And even the leaders were sneering at Him, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself if He is the Messiah of God, the Chosen One!" †

³⁶ The soldiers likewise mocked Him, coming up and bringing Him sour wine, ††³⁷ and saying, "If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself."

³⁸ Now there was also an inscription over Him: ‡ THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. ³⁹ One of the evildoers hanging there was jeering at Him, saying, "Aren't You the Messiah? Save Yourself—and us!"

⁴⁰ But the other one, rebuking him, replied, "Don't you fear God, since you are under the same sentence?"

⁴¹ We're getting what we deserve for our actions, and rightly so—but this One has done nothing wrong."

⁴² And he said, "Yeshua, remember me when You come into Your kingdom."

⁴³ Yeshua said to him, "Amen, I tell you, today you shall be with Me in Paradise."

Temple Curtain Torn in Two

⁴⁴ It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness fell over the whole land until the ninth hour, ††⁴⁵ for the sun died out. And the curtain ‡ of the Temple was torn in two.

⁴⁶ And Yeshua, crying out with a loud voice, said, "Father, 'into Your hands I entrust My spirit.'" ††† When He had said this, He breathed His last.

⁴⁷ Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he began glorifying God, saying, "Truly this was a righteous Man."

⁴⁸ And all the crowds assembled for this spectacle, when they saw what had happened, began to turn back, beating their breasts. ⁴⁹ But all Yeshua's acquaintances, and the women who were following Him from the Galilee, were standing at a distance, watching these things.

Buried in a Rich Man's Tomb

⁵⁰ Now there was a man named Joseph, a council member, a good and righteous man. ⁵¹ (He had not been in agreement with the council and their action.) He was from the Judean town of Arimathea, and he was waiting for the kingdom of God. ⁵² This man went to Pilate and asked for Yeshua's body. ⁵³ And he took it down, wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid Him in a tomb ††† cut out of the rock, where no one had ever yet been laid.

⁵⁴ Now it was the Day of Preparation, and Shabbat was approaching. ⁵⁵ The women who had come with Him from the Galilee followed, and they saw the tomb and how His body was laid. ⁵⁶ Then they returned and prepared spices and perfumes. But on Shabbat they rested according to the commandment.

Women Visit the Garden Tomb

24 Now on the first day of the week, at daybreak, the women came to the tomb, carrying the spices they had prepared. ² They found the stone had been rolled away from the tomb; ³ but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Yeshua.

⁴ And while they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. ⁵ The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you search for the living among the dead? ⁶ He is not here, but He is risen! Remember what He told you when He was still in the Galilee, ⁷ saying that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be executed, and on the third day rise up."

⁸ And they were reminded of His words. ⁹ And when they returned from the tomb, they told all these things to the eleven and to everyone else. ¹⁰ Now it was Miriam from Magdala, Joanna, the Miriam of Jacob, and others together with them who were telling these things to the emissaries. ¹¹ But these words appeared to them as nonsense, and they would not believe them. ¹² But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Leaning in, he sees only the linen cloths. And he went away to his home, marveling at what had happened.

Eyes Open in Emmaus

¹³ Now behold, two of them on that very day were traveling to a village named Emmaus, a distance of about seven miles § from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ They were speaking with one another about all the things that had been happening. ¹⁵ While they were talking and discussing, Yeshua Himself approached and began traveling with them. ¹⁶ But their eyes were kept from recognizing Him.

¹⁷ Then He said to them, "What are these things you are discussing with one another as you are walking along?"

They stood still, looking gloomy. ¹⁸ Then the one named Cleopas answered and said to Him, "Are You the only one visiting Jerusalem who doesn't know the things that happened there in these days?"

¹⁹ Yeshua said to them, "What kind of things?"

And they said to Him, "The things about Yeshua from Natzeret, who was a Prophet, powerful in deed and word before God and all the people— ²⁰ how the ruling kohanim and our leaders handed Him over to be sentenced to death, and they executed Him. ²¹ But we were hoping that He was the One about to redeem Israel. Besides all this, today is the third day since these things happened.

²² "But also some women among us amazed us. Early in the morning they were at the tomb. ²³ When they didn't find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said He is alive!"

²⁵ Yeshua said to them, "Oh foolish ones, so slow of heart to put your trust in all that the prophets spoke! ²⁶ Was it not necessary for Messiah to suffer these things and to enter into His glory?" ²⁷ Then beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He explained to them the things written about Himself in all the Scriptures.

²⁸ They approached the village where they were going, and He acted as though He were going farther on. ²⁹ But they urged Him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is already gone." So He went in to stay with them.

³⁰ And it happened that when He was reclining at the table with them, He took the matzah, † offered a bracha and, breaking it, gave it to them. ³¹ Then their eyes were opened and they recognized Him, and He disappeared from them.

Good News for the Disciples in Jerusalem

³² They said to one another, "Didn't our heart burn within us while He was speaking with us on the road, while He was explaining the Scriptures to us?" ³³ And they got up that very hour and returned to Jerusalem. They found the eleven and others with them gathered together, ³⁴ saying, "The Lord is risen indeed! He has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵ Then they began telling about the events on the road and how He became recognized by them in the breaking of the matzah.

³⁶ While they were speaking of these things, Yeshua Himself stood in the midst of them and said, " Shalom Aleichem!" ³⁷ But they were startled and terrified, thinking they were seeing a ghost.

† Lit. bread

³⁸ Then He said to them, "Why are you so shaken? And why do doubts arise in your heart? ³⁹ Look at My hands and My feet—it is I Myself! Touch Me and see! For a spirit doesn't have flesh and bones, as you see I have." ⁴⁰ And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.

⁴¹ But while they were still in disbelief due to joy and wonder, He said to them, "Do you have anything to eat here?"

⁴² They gave Him a piece of broiled fish, ⁴³ and He took it and ate it in their presence. ⁴⁴ Then He said to them, "These are My words which I spoke to you while I was still with you—everything written concerning Me in the Torah of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled."

⁴⁵ Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, ⁴⁶ and He said to them, "So it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, ⁴⁷ and that repentance for the removal of sins †† is to be proclaimed in His name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸ You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹ And behold, I am sending the promise of My Father upon you; but you are to stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high."

Yeshua Ascends into Heaven

⁵⁰ Then Yeshua led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands †† and blessed them. ⁵¹ And while blessing them, He departed from them and was taken up into heaven. ⁵² After worshiping Him, they returned to Jerusalem with great joy. ⁵³ And they were continually in the Temple, praising God.

John

Introduction

John, one of the twelve original emissaries, wrote this fourth Gospel or . He was one of the sons of Zebedee, along with Jacob. Written in a style completely different than the other three, it probably dates from the end of the first century (about 90–95 C.E.). Writing many years after 's resurrection, John includes in his account the kinds of deep insights one would expect of a young student who was present with and has now grown into a mature and wise sage.

At one time, John was believed to be the least Jewish of the Gospels. Now that scholars have learned more about first-century Judaism (including the discovery and study of the Dead Sea Scrolls), John is recognized to be very Jewish indeed. Other Jewish writers of this period also attribute divinity to the Word (in Greek, in Aramaic). Some of the speeches of in John resemble a rabbinic commentary or , and a wealth of references point to the Jewish traditions and institutions dating from the time of the : Jacob's Ladder, , , , the serpent in the wilderness, and all make their appearance here.

John was written at a time when intra-Jewish conflicts over and the claims of His followers were running high. In some instances, Jewish believers in were no longer welcome in the synagogues. In this context, some believe that John wrote to Jewish non-believers to answer the question, "Who is the Messiah?" John's answer, of course, is , seen as both human and divine in nature, the Son of God or . Others think it was written primarily to encourage Jewish believers to pursue a deeper, persevering level of faith in light of the opposition. Either way, the audience appears to be largely Jewish. John works both to encourage those who believe in and to lead to faith those who do not yet put their trust in Him. 's words and deeds reveal who He is: the Word of God who tabernacled among us, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world, the Light of the World, and much more.

The Word Becomes Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word. [†] The Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² He was with God in the beginning. ³ All things were made through Him, and apart from Him nothing was made that has come into being. ⁴ In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. ⁵ The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overpowered it.

⁶ There came a man sent from God, whose name was John. ⁷ He came as a witness to testify about the light, so that through him everyone might believe. ⁸ He was not the light, but he came to bear witness concerning the light. ⁹ The true light, coming into the world, gives light to every man.

[†] cf. Gen. 1:1; Prov. 8:23.

¹⁰ He was in the world, and the world was made through Him; but the world did not know Him. ¹¹ He came to His own, but His own did not receive Him. ¹² But whoever did receive Him, those trusting in His name, to these He gave the right to become children of God. ¹³ They were born not of a bloodline, nor of human desire, nor of man's will, but of God. ¹⁴ And the Word became flesh and tabernacled among us. We looked upon His glory, ^{††} the glory of the one and only [‡] from the Father, full of grace and truth.

¹⁵ John testifies about Him. He cried out, saying, "This is He of whom I said, 'The One who comes after me is above me, because He existed before me.'" ¹⁶ Out of His fullness, we have all received grace on top of grace. ¹⁷ Torah was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Yeshua the Messiah. ¹⁸ No one has ever seen God; but the one and only God, † in the Father's embrace, has made Him known.

John's Witness to Israel's Leaders

¹⁹ This is John's testimony, when the Judean leaders sent kohanim and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

²⁰ He openly admitted and did not deny; he admitted, "I am not the Messiah."

²¹ "What then? Are you Elijah?" they asked him.

"I am not," said John.

"Are you the Prophet?"

"No," he answered.

²² So they said to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer for those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

²³ He said, "I am 'the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of ADONAI,'" †† as the prophet Isaiah said."

²⁴ Now those sent were from the Pharisees. ²⁵ They asked him, "If you're not the Messiah, Elijah, or the Prophet, why then are you immersing?"

²⁶ "I immerse in water," John answered. "Among you stands One you do not know, ²⁷ coming after me, whose sandals I'm not worthy to untie." ²⁸ These things happened in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was immersing.

Behold, the Lamb of God

²⁹ The next day, John sees Yeshua coming to him and says, "Behold, the Lamb ‡ of God who takes away the sin of the world! ³⁰ This is the One about whom I told you, 'He who comes after me is above me, because He was before me.' ³¹ I didn't know Him, but I came immersing with water so that He might be revealed to Israel."

³² Then John testified, "I have seen the Ruach coming down like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on Him. ³³ I did not know Him; but the One who sent me to immerse in water said to me, 'The One on whom you see the Ruach coming down and remaining, this is the One who immerses in the Ruach ha-Kodesh.'"

³⁴ And I have seen and testified that this is Ben-Elohim ." ††

Yeshua's First Disciples

³⁵ Again the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples ³⁶ and watched Yeshua walking by. He said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" ³⁷ The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Yeshua .

³⁸ Yeshua turned around and saw them following. He said to them, "What are you looking for?"

They said to Him, "Rabbi" (which is translated Teacher), "where are you staying?"

³⁹ "Come and see," Yeshua tells them. So they came and saw where He was staying, and they spent that day with Him. It was about the tenth hour. ††

⁴⁰ Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John speak and followed Yeshua . ⁴¹ First he finds his own brother Simon and tells him, "We've found the Messiah!" (which is translated Anointed One).

⁴² Andrew brought Simon to Yeshua . Yeshua looked at him and said, "You are Simon, son of John. You shall be called Kefa (which is translated Peter)."

Disciples Offer Witness

⁴³ The next day, Yeshua decided to go to the Galilee. He finds Philip and says to him, "Follow Me!" ⁴⁴ Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the same town as Andrew and Peter.

⁴⁵ Philip finds Nathanael and tells him, "We've found the One that Moses in the Torah , and also the prophets, wrote about— Yeshua of Natzeret , the son of Joseph!"

⁴⁶ " Natzeret !" Nathanael answered. "Can anything good come from there?"

Philip said to him, "Come and see."

⁴⁷ Yeshua saw Nathanael coming toward Him. He said, "Look, a true Israelite! There's nothing false in him."

⁴⁸ Nathanael said to Him, "How do you know me?"

Yeshua answered, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

⁴⁹ "Rabbi," Nathanael answered, "You are Ben-Elohim ! You are the King of Israel!" †††

⁵⁰ "Because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree, you believe?" Yeshua replied to him. "You will see greater things than that!" ⁵¹ And He said, "Amen, amen I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God going up and coming down on the Son of Man!" †††

Water to Wine

2 On the third day, there was a wedding at Cana in the Galilee. Yeshua's mother was there, ² and Yeshua and His disciples were also invited to the wedding. ³ When the wine ran out, Yeshua's mother said to Him, "They don't have any wine!"

⁴ Yeshua said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with you and Me? My hour hasn't come yet."

⁵ His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever He tells you."

⁶ Now there were six stone jars, used for the Jewish ritual of purification, each holding two to three measures. ⁷ Yeshua said to them, "Fill the jars with water!" So they filled them up to the top. ⁸ Then He said to them, "Take some water out, and give it to the headwaiter." And they brought it.

† Some mss. say the only Son †† Isa. 40:3. ‡ cf. Exod. 12:21; Num. 28:8; Isa. 53:5-7. †† cf. Ps. 2:7; Prov. 30:4.

‡‡ 4 p.m. ††† cf. Ps. 2:6-7. ††† cf. Gen. 28:12-13; Dan. 7:13. § About 20-25 gallons; 1 measure is about 9 gallons.

⁹ Now the headwaiter did not know where it had come from, but the servants who had drawn the water knew. As the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, he calls the bridegroom ¹⁰ and says to him, "Everyone brings out the good wine first, and whenever they are drunk, then the worse. But you've reserved the good wine until now!" ¹¹ Yeshua did this, the first of the signs, in Cana of the Galilee—He revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

Yeshua Purges the Temple

¹² After this Yeshua went down to Capernaum with His mother, brothers, [†] and disciples, and they stayed there a few days. ¹³ The Jewish feast of Passover was near, so Yeshua went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ In the Temple, He found the merchants selling oxen, sheep, and doves; also the moneychangers sitting there. ¹⁵ Then He made a whip of cords and drove them all out of the Temple, both the sheep and oxen. He dumped out the coins of the moneychangers and overturned their tables. ¹⁶ To those selling doves, He said, "Get these things out of here! Stop making My Father's house a marketplace!" ¹⁷ His disciples remembered that it is written, "Zeal for your House will consume Me!" ^{††}

¹⁹ "Destroy this Temple," Yeshua answered them, "and in three days I will raise it up."

²⁰ The Judean leaders then said to Him, "Forty-six years this Temple was being built, and You will raise it up in three days?" ²¹ But He was talking about the temple of His body. ²² So after He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He was talking about this. Then they believed the Scripture and the word that Yeshua had spoken.

²³ Now when He was in Jerusalem for the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name, seeing the signs He was doing. ²⁴ But Yeshua did not entrust Himself to them, because He knew all men. ²⁵ He did not need anyone to testify about man, for He knew what was in man.

A Pharisee Comes Seeking Truth

3 Now there was a man, a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jewish people. ² He came to Yeshua at night and said, "Rabbi, we know that You, a teacher, have come from God. For no one can perform these signs which You do unless God is with Him!"

³ Yeshua answered him, "Amen, amen I tell you, unless one is born from above, [‡] he cannot see the kingdom of God."

⁴ "How can a man be born when he is old?" Nicodemus said to Him. "He cannot enter his mother's womb a second time and be born, can he?"

[†] Some mss. say brethren ^{††} Ps. 69:10(9). [‡] Or born again

⁵ Yeshua answered, "Amen, amen I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, ^{‡†} he cannot enter the kingdom of God. ⁶ What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. ⁷ Do not be surprised that I said to you, 'You all must be born from above.' ⁸ The wind blows where it wishes and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit."

The Father's Love Revealed

⁹ "How can these things happen?" Nicodemus said.

¹⁰ Yeshua answered him, "You're a teacher of Israel and you do not understand these things? ¹¹ Amen, amen I tell you, We speak about what We know and testify about what We have seen. Yet you all do not receive Our testimony! ¹² If you do not believe the earthly things I told you, how will you believe when I tell you about heavenly things? ¹³ No one has gone up into heaven except the One who came down from heaven—the Son of Man. ¹⁴ Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, ^{‡†} so the Son of Man must be lifted up, ¹⁵ so that whoever believes in Him may have eternal life!

¹⁶ "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷ God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through Him. ¹⁸ The one who believes in Him is not condemned; but whoever does not believe has been condemned already, because he has not put his trust in the name of the one and only Ben-Elohim .

¹⁹ "Now this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world and men loved the darkness instead of the light, ^{‡‡†} because their deeds were evil. ²⁰ For everyone who does evil hates the light and does not come to the light, so that their deeds will not be exposed. ²¹ But whoever practices the truth comes to the light, so that it may be made known that his deeds have been accomplished in God."

The Living Word, Source of Life

²² Afterwards, Yeshua and His disciples came to the land of Judea. There He was staying with them and immersing. ²³ Now John also was immersing at Aenon near Salim, because much water was there and many were coming and being immersed; ²⁴ for John had not yet been thrown into prison.

²⁵ Now an argument came up between John's disciples and a Judean concerning purification. ²⁶ They came to John and said, "Rabbi, the One who was with you beyond the Jordan, the One you testified about—look, He is immersing, and all are coming to Him!"

^{‡†} cf. Ezek. 36:24-27. ^{‡‡} cf. Num. 21:8. ^{‡‡†} cf. Isa. 5:20.

²⁷ John answered, "A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven. ²⁸ You yourselves testify that I said, 'I am not the Messiah,' but rather, 'I am sent before Him.' ²⁹ The one who has the bride is the bridegroom, but the best man rejoices when he stands and hears the bridegroom's voice. So now my joy is complete! ³⁰ He must increase, while I must decrease."

³⁴ The One whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God gives the Ruach without limit. ³⁵ The Father loves the Son and has given everything into His hand. ³⁶ He who trusts in the Son has eternal life. He who does not obey the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

Yeshua Offers Living Water

4 Now Yeshua knew that the Pharisees heard that He was making and immersing more disciples than John. ² (Although Yeshua Himself was not immersing, His disciples were.) ³ So He left Judea and went back again to the Galilee.

⁴ But He needed to pass through Samaria. ⁵ So He comes to a Samaritan town called Shechem, near the plot of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. ¹⁶ Now Jacob's well was there. So Yeshua, exhausted from the journey, was sitting by the well. It was midday. ^{††}

⁷ A Samaritan woman comes to draw water. "Give me a drink," Yeshua tells her, ⁸ for His disciples had gone away to the town to buy food.

⁹ Then the Samaritan woman tells Him, "How is it that You, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" (For Jewish people don't deal with Samaritans.)

¹⁰ Yeshua replied to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who is saying to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

¹¹ "Sir," the woman tells Him, "You don't have a bucket, and the well is deep. Then from where do You get this living water? ¹² You're not greater than our father Jacob, are You? He gave us this well. He drank out of it himself, with his sons and his cattle."

¹³ Yeshua replied to her, "Everyone who drinks from this water will get thirsty again. ¹⁴ But whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never be thirsty. The water that I give him will become a fountain of water within him, springing up to eternal life!"

¹⁵ "Sir," the woman tells Him, "give me this water, so I won't get thirsty or have to come all the way here to draw water!"

¹⁶ He tells her, "Go call your husband, and then come back here."

¹⁷ "I don't have a husband," the woman replied.

Yeshua tells her, "You've said it right, 'I have no husband.' ¹⁸ For you've had five husbands, and the man you have now isn't your husband. This you've spoken truthfully!"

¹⁹ "Sir," the woman tells Him, "I see that You are a prophet! ²⁰ Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you all say that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem."

²¹ Yeshua tells her, "Woman, believe Me, an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. ²² You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. ²³ But an hour is coming—it is here now—when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people as His worshipers. ²⁴ God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."

²⁵ The woman tells Him, "I know that Messiah is coming. (He who is called the Anointed One.) [‡] When He comes, He will explain everything to us."

²⁶ Yeshua tells her, "I—the One speaking to you—I am."

Ready for Harvest

²⁷ At this moment, His disciples came back. They were amazed that He was speaking with a woman. Yet no one said, "What do You want?" or "Why are You speaking with her?"

²⁸ So the woman left her water jar and went back to the town. She tells the people, ²⁹ "Come see a man who told me everything I ever did! He couldn't be the Messiah, could He?" ³⁰ The people left the town and began coming to Him.

³¹ Meanwhile, the disciples were pressing Him, "Rabbi, eat!"

³² But He said to them, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about."

³³ So the disciples were saying to each other, "No one brought Him food to eat, did they?"

³⁴ Yeshua tells them, "My food is to do the will of the One who sent Me and to accomplish His work. ³⁵ Don't you say, 'Four more months, and then comes the harvest'? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields! They are white and ready for harvest.

³⁶ "The reaper receives a reward and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that the sower and reaper may rejoice together. ³⁷ For the saying is true, 'One sows and another reaps.' ³⁸ I sent you to reap what you haven't worked for. Others have worked hard, and you have joined in their work."

³⁹ Many of the Samaritans from that town put their trust in Him because of the word of the woman testifying, "He told me everything I ever did!"⁴⁰ So when the Samaritans came to Him, they kept asking Him to stay with them. He stayed there two days,⁴¹ and many more believed because of His word.⁴² They kept telling the woman, "It's no longer because of your words that we believe. We've heard for ourselves! Now we know that this really is the Savior of the world!"

Life for a Dying Son

⁴³ After the two days, He went on from there into the Galilee.⁴⁴ Now Yeshua Himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.⁴⁵ But when He came into the Galilee, they welcomed Him. For they had seen all He had done at the feast in Jerusalem, since they also had gone up to celebrate.

⁴⁶ So He went again to Cana of the Galilee, where He had turned the water into wine. Now there was a nobleman whose son was sick in Capernaum.⁴⁷ When he heard that Yeshua had come from Judea to the Galilee, he went to Him and begged Him to come down and heal his son; for he was about to die.

⁴⁸ Then Yeshua said to him, "Unless you all see signs and wonders, you'll never believe!"

⁴⁹ The nobleman said to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies!"

⁵⁰ Yeshua tells him, "Go! Your son lives!"

The man believed the word that Yeshua said to him and started off.⁵¹ While on his way down, his servants met him, saying that his son was living.⁵² So he asked them the hour when the boy began to get better. They said, "The fever left him yesterday at about the seventh hour."[†]

⁵³ Then the father realized that it was the same hour Yeshua said to him, "Your son lives!" Now he himself believed, along with his whole household.⁵⁴ Yeshua did this as the second sign, after He had come again from Judea into the Galilee.

Healing on Shabbat

5 After this there was a Jewish feast, and Yeshua went up to Jerusalem.² Now in Jerusalem there is a pool by the sheep gate, called Bethzatha in Aramaic,^{††} which has five porches.³ In these a crowd of invalids was lying around—blind, lame, disabled.[‡] (⁴)

⁵ Now a certain man had been an invalid there for 38 years.⁶ Seeing him lying there and knowing he had been that way a long time, Yeshua said to him, "Do you want to get well?"

⁷ The invalid answered Him, "Sir, I have nobody to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up. While I'm trying to get in, somebody else steps down before me!"

[†] One o'clock. ^{††} Lit. in Hebrew. Bethesda House of Mercy. Bethzatha the place of poured out water [‡] ASV adds: They waited for the water to be moved because an angel of the Lord sometimes went to the pool and moved the water. Then, whoever went into the water first was healed from whatever disease he had

⁸ Yeshua tells him, "Get up! Pick up your mat and walk!"

⁹ Immediately, the man was healed! He took up his mat and started walking around. Now that day was Shabbat,¹⁰ so Judean leaders were saying to the man who was healed, "It's Shabbat! It's not permitted for you to carry your mat."

¹¹ But he answered them, "The man who made me well told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"

¹² They asked him, "Who is the man who told you, 'Pick up your mat and walk?'"¹³ But the man who had been healed didn't know who it was, for Yeshua had slipped away into the crowd in that place.

¹⁴ Afterwards, Yeshua finds him in the Temple. He said to him, "Look, you've been healed! Stop sinning, so nothing worse happens to you."¹⁵ The man left and told the Judean leaders that it was Yeshua who had made him well.

Sent by the Father

¹⁶ Because Yeshua was doing these things on Shabbat, the Judean leaders started persecuting Him.

¹⁷ But Yeshua said to them, "My Father is still working, and I also am working."¹⁸ So for this reason the Judean leaders kept trying even harder to kill Him—because He was not only breaking Shabbat,[‡] but also calling God His own Father, making Himself equal with God.

¹⁹ Therefore Yeshua answered them, "Amen, amen I tell you, the Son cannot do anything by Himself. He can do only what He sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise."²⁰ For the Father loves the Son and shows Him everything He does. He will show Him even greater works than these, so that you will be amazed.²¹ For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomever He wants.²² The Father does not judge anyone, but has handed over all judgment to the Son²³ so that all should honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

²⁴ "Amen, amen I tell you, whoever hears My word and trusts the One who sent Me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed over from death into life."²⁵ Amen, amen I tell you, an hour is coming and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of Ben-Elohim. Those who hear will live!²⁶ For just as the Father has life in Himself, so also He has granted the Son to have life in Himself.²⁷ Also He has given the Son authority to judge, because He is the Son of Man.

²⁸ "Do not be amazed at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear His voice²⁹ and come out! ^{‡‡} Those who have done good will come to a resurrection of life, and those who have done evil will come to a resurrection of judgment."³⁰ I can do nothing on My own. Just as I hear, I judge; and My judgment is just, for I do not seek My own will, but the will of the One who sent Me."

The Father Testifies about the Son

³¹ "If I testify about Myself, My witness is not valid. ³² There is another who testifies about Me, and I know that the testimony He gives is true. ³³ You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. ³⁴ I do not receive the testimony of man, but I say these things so that you may be saved. ³⁵ He was the lamp that was burning and shining, and you wanted to rejoice for a while in his light.

³⁶ "But the testimony I have is greater than that from John. The works the Father has given Me to finish—the very works I am doing—testify about Me, that the Father has sent Me. ³⁷ And the Father who sent Me has testified concerning Me. You have never heard His voice nor seen His form. ³⁸ Nor do you have His Word living in you, because you do not trust the One He sent. ³⁹ You search the Scriptures because you suppose that in them you have eternal life. It is these that testify about Me. ⁴⁰ Yet you are unwilling to come to Me so that you may have life!

⁴¹ "I do not accept glory from men. ⁴² But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves. ⁴³ I have come in My Father's name, and you do not receive Me. But if another comes in his own name, you will receive him. ⁴⁴ How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and you do not seek the glory that comes from God alone?

⁴⁵ "Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father. The one who accuses you is Moses, in whom you have put your hope. ⁴⁶ For if you were believing Moses, you would believe Me—because he wrote about Me. ⁴⁷ But since you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My words?" †

New Manna in the Wilderness

6 Afterwards, Yeshua went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also known as the Sea of Tiberias. ² A large crowd kept following Him, because they were watching the signs He was performing on the sick. ³ Then Yeshua went up the mountainside and sat down there with His disciples. ⁴ Passover, the Jewish feast, was near.

⁵ Lifting up His eyes and seeing a large crowd coming to Him, Yeshua said to Philip, "Where will we buy bread so these may eat?" ⁶ Now Yeshua was saying this to test him, for He knew what He was about to do.

⁷ Philip answered Him, "Two hundred denarii †† isn't enough to buy bread for each to get a little bit!"

⁸ One of His disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to Him, ⁹ "There's a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish—but what's that for so many?"

† cf. Deut. 18:15-19. †† One denarius was the daily wage for a laborer.

¹⁰ Yeshua said, "Make the people recline." There was much grass in the area. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. ¹¹ Then Yeshua picked up the loaves. And having given thanks, He distributed bread to everyone who was reclining. He did the same with the fish, as much as they wanted.

¹² When the people were full, Yeshua said to His disciples, "Gather up the leftovers, so nothing is wasted."

¹³ So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had finished eating.

¹⁴ When the people saw the sign that Yeshua performed, they began to say, "This is most certainly the Prophet who is to come into the world!" ¹⁵ Realizing that they were about to come and seize Him by force to make Him king, Yeshua withdrew again to the mountain, Himself alone.

The Savior on the Sea

¹⁶ Now when evening came, Yeshua's disciples went down to the sea. ¹⁷ Getting into a boat, they set out to cross the sea toward Capernaum. By now it had become dark, and still Yeshua had not come to them. ¹⁸ A great wind began to blow, stirring up the sea.

¹⁹ After they had rowed about 25 or 30 stadia, † they catch sight of Yeshua walking on the sea, approaching the boat. They were terrified! ²⁰ But Yeshua says to them, "I am. Don't be afraid." ²¹ Then they wanted to take Him into the boat, and right away the boat reached the shore where they were headed.

The Bread from Heaven

²² The next day, the crowd remaining on the other side of the sea realized that no other boat had been there except the one, and that Yeshua hadn't gone into the boat with His disciples, but that His disciples had gone away alone. ²³ Some other boats from Tiberias came close to the place where they had eaten the bread after the Master had given thanks. ²⁴ So when the crowd realized that neither Yeshua nor His disciples were there, they got into the boats and set off for Capernaum to find Him. ²⁵ When they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said, "Rabbi, when did You get here?"

²⁶ Yeshua responded to them, "Amen, amen I tell you, you seek Me not because you saw signs, but because you ate all the bread and were filled. ²⁷ Don't work for food that spoils, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on Him, God the Father has put the seal of approval."

²⁸ Then they said to Him, "What shall we do to perform the works of God?"

²⁹ Yeshua answered them, "This is the work of God, to trust in the One He sent."

‡ cf. Deut. 18:15. †† About three or four miles, halfway across the sea. †† Lit. I am. Don't be afraid

³⁰ So they said to Him, "Then what sign do You perform, so that we may see and believe You? What work do You do?" ³¹ Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'Out of heaven He gave them bread to eat.'" †

³² Yeshua answered them, "Amen, amen I tell you, it isn't Moses who has given you bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³ For the bread of God is the One coming down from heaven and giving life to the world."

³⁴ So they said to Him, "Sir, give us this bread from now on!"

³⁵ Yeshua said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to Me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in Me will never be thirsty. ³⁶ But I told you that you have seen Me, yet you do not believe.

³⁷ Everyone the Father gives Me will come to Me, and anyone coming to Me I will never reject. ³⁸ For I have come down from heaven not to do My own will but the will of the One who sent Me.

³⁹ "Now this is the will of the One who sent Me, that I lose not one of all He has given Me, but raise each one on the last day. ⁴⁰ For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who sees the Son and trusts in Him may have eternal life; and I will raise him up on the last day."

⁴¹ Some of the Judeans † started to grumble about Him, because He said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." ⁴² They were saying, "Isn't this Yeshua the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can He now say, 'I have come down from heaven?'"

⁴³ Yeshua answered, "Stop grumbling among yourselves! ⁴⁴ No one can come to Me unless My Father who sent Me draws him—and I will raise him up on the last day. ⁴⁵ It is written in the Prophets, 'They will all be taught by God.' ‡ Everyone who has listened and learned from the Father comes to Me. ⁴⁶ Not that anyone has seen the Father except the One who is from God—He has seen the Father.

⁴⁷ "Amen, amen I tell you, he who believes has eternal life. ⁴⁸ I am the bread of life. ⁴⁹ Your fathers ate the manna in the desert, yet they died. ⁵⁰ This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat and not die. ⁵¹ I am the living bread, which came down from heaven. If anyone eats this bread, he will live forever. This bread is My flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

⁵² Then the Jews began arguing with one another, "How can this man give us His flesh to eat?"

⁵³ So Yeshua said to them, "Amen, amen I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves. ⁵⁴ He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.

⁵⁵ "For My flesh is real food and My blood is real drink. ⁵⁶ He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. ⁵⁷ Just as the living Father sent Me and I live because of the Father, so the one who eats of Me will also live because of Me. ⁵⁸ This is the bread that came down from heaven—not like the bread your fathers ate and then died. He who eats this bread will live forever."

⁵⁹ He said these things while teaching at the synagogue in Capernaum.

Fallout from a Hard Teaching

⁶⁰ So when many of His disciples heard this, they said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can listen to it?"

⁶¹ But Yeshua knew His disciples were murmuring, so He said to them, "Does this offend you? ⁶² Then what if you see the Son of Man going back up to the place where He was before? ⁶³ It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is of no benefit. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and are life! ⁶⁴ Yet some of you do not trust." Yeshua knew from the beginning who were the ones who did not trust, as well as which one would betray Him.

⁶⁵ Then He told them, "For this reason I've told you that no one can come to Me unless it has been granted to him by the Father."

⁶⁶ From this time, many of His disciples left and quit walking with Him. ⁶⁷ So Yeshua said to the Twelve, "You don't want to leave also, do you?"

⁶⁸ Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life! ⁶⁹ We have trusted and have come to know that you are the Holy One of God."

⁷⁰ Yeshua answered them, "Didn't I choose you, the Twelve? Yet one of you is the adversary!" ⁷¹ Now He was speaking of Judah, the son of Simon of Kriot—for he, one of the Twelve, was about to betray Him.

Anticipating Hostility at Sukkot

7 After these events, Yeshua was walking about in the Galilee. He did not want to walk in Judea, because the Judean leaders wanted to kill Him. ² Now the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles †† was near. ³ Therefore His brothers said to Him, "Leave here and go to Judea, so Your disciples also may see the works You are doing. ⁴ No one who wants to be well known does everything in secret. If You are doing these things, show Yourself to the world!" ⁵ For not even His brothers were trusting in Him.

⁶ Therefore Yeshua said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always at hand. ⁷ The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I testify that its works are evil. ⁸ You go on up to the Feast. I'm not going to this feast, because My time hasn't yet fully come." ⁹ After saying these things, He stayed in the Galilee.

† Ps. 78:24; cf. Exod. 16:4-36; Neh. 9:15. †† Perhaps Galileans

‡† cf. Deut. 16:16.

¹⁰ But after His brothers went to the Feast, He also went, not openly but secretly. ¹¹ Then the Judean leaders were searching for Him at the Feast and kept asking, "Where is that fellow?" ¹² There was a lot of murmuring about Him in the crowds. Some were saying, "He is good." But others were saying, "Not so! He leads the people astray." ¹³ Yet no one spoke openly about Him for fear of the Judean leaders.

Teaching at the Temple

¹⁴ About halfway through the Feast, Yeshua went up to the Temple and began teaching. ¹⁵ Then the Judean leaders were amazed, saying, "How does this man know so much, having never been taught?" †

¹⁶ Yeshua answered, "My teaching is not from Me, but from Him who sent Me. ¹⁷ If anyone wants to do His will, he will know whether My teaching comes from God or it is Myself speaking. ¹⁸ Whoever speaks from himself seeks his own glory; but He who seeks the glory of the One who sent Him, He is true and there is no unrighteousness in Him. ¹⁹ Hasn't Moses given you the Torah? Yet none of you keeps it. Why are you trying to kill Me?"

²⁰ The crowd answered, "You have a demon! Who's trying to kill you?"

²¹ Yeshua answered, "I did one good work, and all of you are amazed. ²² Because Moses has given you circumcision (though it is not from Moses, but from the patriarchs), you circumcise a man on Shabbat. ²³ If a man receives circumcision on Shabbat so that the Torah of Moses may not be broken, why are you angry that I healed a man's whole body on Shabbat? ²⁴ Do not judge by appearance, but judge righteously."

²⁵ Then some of the people from Jerusalem were saying, "Isn't this the person they're trying to kill? ²⁶ Look, He speaks openly and they're saying nothing to Him. Can it be that the leaders know He is the Messiah? ²⁷ But we know where this person is from. But the Messiah, whenever He may come, no one knows where He is from."

²⁸ Then, while teaching in the Temple courts, Yeshua cried out, "You know both who I am and where I am from! I have not come on My own, but the One who sent Me is true. You do not know Him, ²⁹ but I know Him because I am from Him and He sent Me."

³⁰ Then they were trying to seize Him; but no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come.

³¹ Yet many from the crowd believed in Him and were saying, "When the Messiah comes, He won't perform more signs than this person has, will He?" ³² The Pharisees heard people in the crowd murmuring these things about Him, and the ruling kohanim and Pharisees sent guards to arrest Him.

³³ Yeshua said, "I am with you only a little while longer, and then I am going to the One who sent Me.

³⁴ You will look for Me but will not find Me. Where I am, you cannot come."

† Lit. knows letters, not having learned

³⁵ The Judean leaders then said among themselves, "Where is this person about to go that we shall not find Him? He's not going to the Diaspora to teach the Greeks, is He? ³⁶ What did He mean by saying, 'You will look for Me but will not find Me. Where I am, you cannot come?'"

Satisfying Spiritual Thirst

³⁷ On the last and greatest day of the Feast, Yeshua stood up and cried out loudly, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. ³⁸ Whoever believes in Me, as the Scripture says, 'out of his innermost being will flow rivers of living water.'" †³⁹ Now He said this about the Ruach, whom those who trusted in Him were going to receive; for the Ruach ‡ was not yet given, since Yeshua was not yet glorified.

⁴⁰ When they heard these words, some of the crowd said, "This man really is the Prophet." ⁴¹ Others were saying, "This is the Messiah." Still others were saying, "The Messiah doesn't come from the Galilee, does He? ⁴² Didn't the Scripture say that the Messiah comes from the seed of David and from Bethlehem, David's town?" †⁴³ So a division arose in the crowd because of Yeshua. ⁴⁴ Some wanted to capture Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

Religious Adversaries

⁴⁵ Then the guards returned to the ruling kohanim and Pharisees, who asked them, "Why didn't you bring Him?"

⁴⁶ "Never has anyone spoken like this man," the guards answered.

⁴⁷ The Pharisees responded, "You haven't been led astray also, have you? ⁴⁸ Have any of the rulers or Pharisees believed in Him? ⁴⁹ No, but this mob that doesn't know the Torah —they are cursed!"

⁵⁰ Nicodemus, the one who had come to Yeshua before and was one of them, said to them, ⁵¹ "Our Torah doesn't judge a man unless it first hears from him and knows what he's doing, does it?"

⁵² They answered him, "You aren't from the Galilee too, are you? Search, and see that no prophet comes out of the Galilee!" ‡

⁵³ Then everyone went to his own house.

Mercy for a Sinful Woman

8 But Yeshua went to the Mount of Olives. ² At dawn, He came again into the Temple. All the people were coming to Him, and He sat down and began to teach them.

³ The Torah scholars and Pharisees bring in a woman who had been caught in adultery. After putting her in the middle, ⁴ they say to Yeshua, "Teacher, this woman

†† cf. Isa. 44:3; 55:1; 58:11; Ezek. 47; Zech. 14:8. ‡ Some mss. read Holy Spirit Ruach ha-Kodesh †† cf. Mic. 5:1(2).

‡‡ The earliest manuscripts do not include John 7:53-8:11. Others locate the passage after 7:36 or after 21:25.

has been caught in the act of committing adultery. ⁵ In the Torah, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do You say?" ⁶ Now they were saying this to trap Him, so that they would have grounds to accuse Him.

But Yeshua knelt down and started writing in the dirt with His finger. ⁷ When they kept asking Him, He stood up and said, "The sinless one among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her." ⁸ Then He knelt down again and continued writing on the ground.

⁹ Now when they heard, they began to leave, one by one, the oldest ones first, until Yeshua was left alone with the woman in the middle. ¹⁰ Straightening up, Yeshua said to her, "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?"

¹¹ "No one, Sir," she said.

"Then neither do I condemn you," Yeshua said. "Go, and sin no more."

The Light of the World

¹² Yeshua spoke to them again, saying, "I am the light of the world. The one who follows Me will no longer walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

¹³ Then the Pharisees said to Him, "You are testifying about Yourself, so Your testimony is not valid."

¹⁴ Yeshua answered them, "Even if I testify about Myself, My testimony is valid. For I know where I came from and where I am going. But you don't know where I come from or where I am going. ¹⁵ You judge according to the flesh, but I do not judge anyone. ¹⁶ Yet even if I do judge, My judgment is true, because it is not I alone but I with the Father who sent Me. ¹⁷ Even in your Torah it is written that the testimony of two men is true. ¹⁸ I am one witness for Myself, and the Father who sent Me bears witness for Me."

¹⁹ Then they said to Him, "Where is your Father?"

Yeshua answered, "You know neither Me nor My Father. If you knew Me, you would also know My Father." ²⁰ He spoke these words in the treasury while teaching in the Temple, but no one arrested Him because His hour had not yet come.

²¹ Then again Yeshua spoke to them, "I am going away. You will look for Me and die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come."

²² "He won't kill Himself, will He?" the Judeans asked. "Is that why He says, 'Where I am going, you cannot come'?"

²³ Yeshua said, "You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world.

²⁴ Therefore I told you that you will die in your sins. If you don't believe that I am, you will die in your sins."

²⁵ So they asked Him, "Who are you?"

Yeshua replied, "What have I been telling you from the beginning? ²⁶ I have much to say and judge about you. But the One who sent Me is true, and I tell the world what I heard from Him." ²⁷ They didn't understand that He was talking to them about the Father.

† cf. Deut. 17:6; 19:15.

²⁸ So Yeshua said, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know who I am. I do nothing by Myself, but speak just what the Father has taught Me. ²⁹ The One who sent Me is with Me. He has not left Me alone, because I always do what is pleasing to Him."

³⁰ As He was speaking these things, many people put their trust in Him.

³¹ Then Yeshua said to the Judeans who had trusted Him, "If you abide in My word, then you are truly My disciples. ³² You will know the truth, and the truth will set you free!"

³⁴ Yeshua answered them, "Amen, amen I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin. ³⁵ Now the slave does not remain in the household forever; the son abides forever. ³⁶ So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed! ³⁷ I know you are Abraham's children; yet you are trying to kill Me, because My word has no place in you. ³⁸ I tell of what I have seen with the Father; so also you do what you heard from the Father."

³⁹ "Abraham is our father," they replied to Him.

Yeshua said to them, "If you are Abraham's children, do the deeds of Abraham. ⁴⁰ But now you are seeking to kill Me—a Man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. This Abraham did not do! ⁴¹ You are doing the deeds of your father."

They said to Him, "We were not born as illegitimate children—we have one Father, God Himself!"

⁴² Yeshua said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love Me, for from God I came and now I am here. For I have not come on My own, but He sent Me. ⁴³ Why don't you understand My speech? Because you're not able to hear My word! ⁴⁴ You are of your father the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. Whenever he speaks lies he is just being himself—for he is a liar and the father of lies.

⁴⁵ "But because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me. ⁴⁶ Which one of you convicts Me of sinning? If I am telling the truth, why don't you believe Me? ⁴⁷ He who belongs to God hears the words of God. The reason you don't hear † is because you do not belong to God."

⁴⁸ The Judean leaders responded, "Aren't we right to say you are a Samaritan and have a demon?"

⁴⁹ Yeshua answered, "I do not have a demon! I honor My Father, yet you dishonor Me. ⁵⁰ But I do not seek My own glory; there is One who is seeking and judging. ⁵¹ Amen, amen I tell you, if anyone keeps My word, he will never see death."

⁵² "Now we know You have a demon!" the Judean leaders said to Him. "Abraham and the prophets died. Yet You say, 'If anyone keeps My word, he will never taste death.’⁵³ You are not greater than our father Abraham who died, are You? The prophets also died! Who do You make Yourself out to be?”

⁵⁴ Yeshua answered, “If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father who gives Me glory—the One of whom you say, ‘He is our God.’^{†55} Yet you do not know Him, but I know Him. If I say I do not know Him, I will be a liar like you. Yet I do know Him and keep His Word.⁵⁶ Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day; he saw it and was thrilled.”

⁵⁷ Then the Judeans said to Him, “You’re not even 50 years old and you’ve seen Abraham?”^{††}

⁵⁸ Yeshua answered, “Amen, amen I tell you, before Abraham was, I am!”

⁵⁹ Then they picked up stones to throw at Him, but Yeshua hid Himself and went out from the Temple.[‡]

Bringing Light to the Blind

9 As Yeshua was passing by, He saw a man who had been blind since birth.² His disciples asked Him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?”

³ Yeshua answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned. This happened so that the works of God might be brought to light in him.⁴ We must do the work of the One who sent Me, so long as it is day! Night is coming when no one can work.⁵ While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

⁶ Having said these things, He spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud on the blind man’s eyes.⁷ He told him, “Go, wash in the Pool of Siloam” (which is translated Sent). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing.

⁸ Therefore his neighbors and those who had seen him as a beggar kept saying, “Isn’t this the one who used to sit and beg?”

⁹ “This is the one!” some said.

“No, but it looks like him,” said others.

But the man himself kept saying, “I am!”

¹⁰ So they asked him, “Then how were your eyes opened?”

¹¹ He answered, “The Man who is called Yeshua made mud, rubbed it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So I went away and washed, and then I received my sight!”

¹² “Where is He?” they asked him.

“I don’t know,” he said.

¹³ They bring to the Pharisees the man who once was blind.¹⁴ Now the day was Shabbat when Yeshua made the mud and opened the man’s eyes.¹⁵ So again the Pharisees were asking him how he received his sight. He responded, “He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see!”

¹⁶ So some of the Pharisees began saying, “This man isn’t from God, because He doesn’t keep Shabbat!”

† Some mss. say your God †† Some mss. say has Abraham seen You? ‡ Some mss. add passing through their midst, he went away in this manner

But others were saying, “How can a sinner perform such signs?” So there was a split among them.

¹⁷ Again they say to the blind man, “What do you say about Him, since He opened your eyes?”

And he said, “He’s a prophet.”

¹⁸ So the Judean leaders didn’t believe that he had been blind and received his sight until they called his parents.¹⁹ They questioned them, “Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? Then how does he see now?”

²⁰ Then his parents answered, “We know that this is our son and that he was born blind.²¹ We don’t know how he now sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him—he’s old enough. He will speak for himself.”²² His parents said this because they were afraid of the Judean leaders. For the Judean leaders had already agreed that anyone who professed Yeshua to be Messiah would be thrown out of the synagogue.

²³ That’s why his parents said, “He’s old enough—ask him.”

²⁴ So a second time they called the man who had been blind and said, “Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner!”

²⁵ The man replied, “I don’t know whether He’s a sinner. One thing I do know is that I was blind, but now I see!”

²⁶ So they asked him, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?”

²⁷ “I told you already and you didn’t listen!” the man responded. “What, do you want to hear it again? You don’t want to become His disciples too, do you?”

²⁸ They railed at him and said, “You’re a disciple of that One, but we’re disciples of Moses!²⁹ We know that God has spoken to Moses; but as for this fellow, we don’t know where He is from.”

³⁰ The man replied to them, “That’s amazing! You don’t know where He is from, yet He opened my eyes!

³¹ We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners; but if anyone fears Him and does His will, He hears this one.

³² Since the beginning of the world, no one has ever heard that anyone has opened the eyes of a man born blind.³³ If this man were not from God, He couldn’t do anything.”

³⁴ They replied to him, “You were born completely in sin, and you’re teaching us?” And they threw him out.

Is Seeing Believing?

³⁵ Yeshua heard that they had thrown him out. Finding him, He said, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”^{††}

³⁶ The man answered, “Who is He, Sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in Him!”

³⁷ Yeshua said, “You have seen Him—He is the One speaking with you.”

³⁸ He said, “Lord, I believe!” And he worshiped Him.

³⁹ Yeshua said, “For judgment I came into this world, so that those who don’t see may see, and the ones who do see may become blind.”

†† Some mss. say the Son of God

⁴⁰ Some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard Him say this and asked, "We're not blind too, are we?"

⁴¹ Yeshua said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin. But now you say, 'We see.' So your sin remains."

The Faithful Hear the Shepherd's Voice

10 "Amen, amen I tell you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber. ² But he who enters through the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³ To him the doorkeeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice. The shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

⁴ "When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them; and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. ⁵ They will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers." ⁶ Yeshua told them this parable, but they did not understand what He was telling them.

⁷ So Yeshua said again, "Amen, amen I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸ All those who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹ I am the gate! [†] If anyone comes in through Me, he will be saved. He will come and go and find pasture. ¹⁰ The thief comes only to steal, slaughter, and destroy. I have come that they might have life, and have it abundantly!

¹¹ "I am the Good Shepherd. ^{††} The Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. ¹² The hired worker is not the shepherd, and the sheep are not his own. He sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and flees. Then the wolf snatches and scatters the sheep. ¹³ The man is only a hired hand and does not care about the sheep.

¹⁴ "I am the Good Shepherd. I know My own and My own know Me, ¹⁵ just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father. And I lay down My life for the sheep. ¹⁶ I have other sheep that are not from this fold; those also I must lead, and they will listen to My voice. So there shall be one flock, one Shepherd.

¹⁷ "For this reason the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life, so that I may take it up again. ¹⁸ No one takes it away from Me, but I lay it down on My own. I have the authority to lay it down, and I have the authority to take it up again. This command I received from My Father."

¹⁹ Again a division arose among the Judeans because of these words. ²⁰ Many of them were saying, "He has a demon. He's insane! Why listen to Him?" ²¹ Others said, "These are not the sayings of someone who is plagued by a demon. A demon cannot open the eyes of the blind, can it?"

Some Despise the Light and Harden

²² Then came Hanukkah; [‡] it was winter in Jerusalem. ²³ Yeshua was walking in the Temple around Solomon's Colonnade. ²⁴ Then the Judean leaders surrounded Him, saying, "How long will You hold us in suspense? If You are the Messiah, tell us outright!"

²⁵ Yeshua answered them, "I told you, but you don't believe! The works I do in My Father's name testify concerning Me. ²⁶ But you don't believe, because you are not My sheep. ²⁷ My sheep hear My voice. I know them, and they follow Me. ²⁸ I give them eternal life! They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of My hand. ²⁹ My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all. And no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. ³⁰ I and the Father are one."

³¹ Again the Judean leaders picked up stones to stone Him. ³² Yeshua answered them, "I've shown you many good works from the Father. For which of these are you going to stone Me?"

³³ The Judean leaders answered, "We aren't stoning you for a good work, but for blasphemy. Though You are a man, You make Yourself God!"

³⁴ Yeshua answered them, "Isn't it written in your Writings, ^{††} 'I have said you are gods'? ³⁵ If he called them 'gods,' to whom the Word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), ³⁶ do you say of Him, the One the Father set apart and sent into the world, 'You speak blasphemy,' because I said, 'I am Ben-Elohim'?"

³⁷ "If I don't do the works of My Father, don't believe Me! ³⁸ But if I do, even if you don't trust Me, trust the deeds. Then you may come to know and continue to understand that the Father is in Me, and I am in the Father." ³⁹ Therefore they tried to capture Him again, but He escaped from their hand.

⁴⁰ Again He went back across the Jordan to the place where John first started immersing, and He stayed there. ⁴¹ Many people came to Him and were saying, "John performed no sign, but all John said about this man was true." ⁴² And many trusted in Him there.

Lazarus Is Dead

11 Now a man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village of Miriam and her sister Martha. ² This was the same Miriam who anointed the Master with perfume and wiped His feet with her hair. It was her brother Lazarus who was sick. ³ So the sisters sent a word to Yeshua, saying, "Master, the one you love is sick!"

⁴ When Yeshua heard this, He said, "This sickness will not end in death. It is for God's glory, so that Ben-Elohim may be glorified through it." ⁵ Now Yeshua loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. ⁶ However, when

† Or door †† cf. Gen. 48:15; Ps. 23; Ezek. 37:24.

‡ Lit. Rededication †† Lit. Law

Torah

He heard that Lazarus was sick, He stayed where He was for two more days.

⁷ Then after this, He said to His disciples, "Let's go up to Judea again."

⁸ "Rabbi," the disciples say to Him, "just now the Judean leaders were trying to stone You! And You're going back there again?"

¹¹ After He said this, He tells them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I'm going there to wake him up."

¹² So the disciples said to Him, "Master, if he has fallen asleep, he will get better." ¹³ Now Yeshua had spoken about his death, but they thought He was talking about ordinary sleep.

¹⁴ Then Yeshua told them clearly, "Lazarus is dead! ¹⁵ I'm glad for your sake I wasn't there, so that you may believe. Anyway, let's go to him!"

¹⁶ Then Thomas called the Twin † said to the other disciples, "Let's go too, so that we may die with Him!"

Comforting the Mourners

¹⁷ So when Yeshua arrived, He discovered that Lazarus had been in the tomb already for four days.

²⁰ When Martha heard that Yeshua was coming, she went out to meet Him; but Miriam sat in the house.

²¹ Martha said to Yeshua, "Master, if You had been here, my brother wouldn't have died! ²² But I know, even now, that whatever You may ask of God, He will give You."

²³ Yeshua said to her, "Your brother will rise again."

²⁴ Martha said to Him, "I know, he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."

²⁵ Yeshua said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life! Whoever believes in Me, even if he dies, shall live. ²⁶ And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?"

²⁷ She says to Him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, Ben-Elohim who has come into the world." ²⁸ After she said this, she left and secretly told her sister Miriam, "The Teacher is here, and He's calling for you." ²⁹ As soon as Miriam heard, she quickly got up and was coming to Him. ³⁰ Now Yeshua had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met Him. ³¹ The Judeans, who were with Miriam in the house and comforting her, seeing how quickly she got up and went out, followed her. They thought she was going to the tomb to weep there.

† Grk. Didymus

†† Lit. 15 stadia

³² So when Miriam came to where Yeshua was, she saw Him and fell at His feet, saying to Him, "Master, if You had been here, my brother would not have died!"

³³ When Yeshua saw her weeping, and the Judeans who came with her weeping, He was deeply troubled in spirit and Himself agitated. ³⁴ "Where have you laid him?" He asked.

"Come and see, Master," they tell Him.

³⁵ Yeshua wept. ³⁶ So the Judeans said, "See how He loved him!"

³⁷ But some of them said, "Couldn't this One, who opened the eyes of the blind man, have also kept this man from dying?"

Yeshua's Word Raises the Dead

³⁸ So Yeshua, again deeply troubled within Himself, comes to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. ³⁹ Yeshua says, "Roll away the stone!"

Martha, the dead man's sister, said to Him, "Master, by this time he stinks! He's been dead for four days!"

⁴⁰ Yeshua says to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

⁴¹ So they rolled away the stone. Yeshua lifted up His eyes and said, "Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. ⁴² I knew that You always hear Me; but because of this crowd standing around I said it, so that they may believe that You sent Me."

⁴³ And when He had said this, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" ⁴⁴ He who had been dead came out, wrapped in burial clothes binding his hands and feet, with a cloth over his face. And Yeshua tells them, "Cut him loose, and let him go!"

Better that One Man Die

⁴⁵ Therefore many of the Judeans, who had come to Miriam and had seen what Yeshua had done, put their trust in Him. ⁴⁶ But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Yeshua had done.

⁴⁷ So the ruling kohanim and Pharisees called a meeting of the Sanhedrin. "What are we doing?" they asked. "This Man is performing many signs! ⁴⁸ If we let Him go on like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our holy place and our nation."

⁴⁹ But one of them, Caiaphas, who was kohen gadol that year, said to them, "You know nothing! ⁵⁰ You don't take into account that it is better for you that one man die for the people rather than for the whole nation to be destroyed."

⁵¹ Now he did not say this by himself; but as the kohen gadol that year, he prophesied that Yeshua would die for the nation. ⁵² And not for the nation only, but also so that He might gather together into one the scattered children of God. †

‡ cf. Isa. 53:8. †† cf. Isa. 11:10-11; 56:6-7; Jer. 3:17; Mic. 2:12-13.

⁵³ So from that day on, they plotted to kill Him.
⁵⁴ Therefore Yeshua no longer walked openly among the Judeans, but went from there to the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim. He stayed there with His disciples.

⁵⁵ Now the Jewish Passover was near; and many people went up out of the regions to Jerusalem before Passover, to purify themselves. ⁵⁶ So they were searching for Yeshua, saying to one another as they stood in the Temple, "What do you think? Won't He come to the feast at all?" ⁵⁷ Now the ruling kohanim and Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where He was, he should report it so that they might arrest Him.

Miriam Anoints the Messiah

12 Six days before Passover, Yeshua came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Yeshua had raised from the dead. ² So they prepared a dinner there for Yeshua. Martha was serving, and Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him. ³ Then Miriam took a pound [†] of very expensive oil of pure nard and anointed Yeshua's feet, and she wiped His feet dry with her hair. Now the house was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

⁴ But Judah from Kriot, one of His disciples, the one who was about to betray Him, said, ⁵ "Why wasn't this oil sold for three hundred denarii ^{††} and the money given to the poor?" ⁶ Now he said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief. Since he had the moneybox, he used to steal from what was put in it.

⁷ Therefore Yeshua said, "Leave her alone! She set it aside for the day of My burial. ⁸ You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have Me."

⁹ Now a large crowd of Judeans knew He was there and came, not only for Yeshua but also to see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. ¹⁰ So the ruling kohanim made plans to kill Lazarus also, ¹¹ because on account of him many of the Jewish people were going and putting their trust in Yeshua.

Israel's King Has Come

¹² The next day, the huge crowd that had come up for the feast heard that Yeshua was coming to Jerusalem. ¹³ So they took palm branches and went out to meet Him, shouting,

" Hoshia-na! Baruch ha-Ba b'Shem ADONAI!

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD! [‡]
 The King of Israel!"

¹⁴ Finding a young donkey, Yeshua sat on it, as it is written,

¹⁵ "Fear not, Daughter of Zion!

Look! Your King is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt." ^{‡‡}

[†] a Roman pound, about 12 ounces. ^{††} One denarius was the daily wage for a laborer. [‡] Ps. 118:25a, 26a. ^{‡‡} Zech. 9:9.

¹⁶ His disciples did not understand these things at first. But when Yeshua was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about Him and that the crowd had done these things for Him.

¹⁷ So the crowd, which had been with Yeshua when He called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead, kept on telling everyone about it. ¹⁸ It was also for this reason that the crowd came out to meet Him, because they heard that He had performed this sign. ¹⁹ So the Pharisees said to each other, "You see that you can't do anything. Look, the whole world has taken off after Him!"

Fallen Seed Produces a Harvest

²⁰ Now there were some Greeks among those who were going up to worship at the feast. ²¹ These came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in the Galilee. "Sir," they said, "we want to see Yeshua." ²² Philip comes and tells Andrew; Andrew and Philip come and tell Yeshua.

²³ Yeshua answers them, saying, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified! ²⁴ Amen, amen I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the earth and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it produces much fruit. ²⁵ He who loves his life will lose it, and the one who hates his life in this world will keep it forever. ²⁶ If any man serves Me, he must follow Me; and where I am, there also will My servant be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honor him.

²⁷ "Now My soul is troubled. And what shall I say? 'Father, save Me from this hour?' But it was for this reason I came to this hour. ²⁸ Father, glorify Your name!"

Then a voice came out of heaven, "I have glorified it, and again I will glorify it!"

²⁹ Therefore the crowd that was standing there and heard it was saying that it had thundered. Others were saying, "An angel has spoken to Him."

³⁰ Yeshua responded, "This voice hasn't come for My sake, but for yours. ³¹ Now is the judgment of this world! Now the prince of this world will be driven out! ³² And as I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw all to Myself." ³³ He said this to show the kind of death He was about to die.

³⁴ The crowd answered Him, "We've heard from Scripture ^{‡‡} that the Messiah remains forever. How can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?"

Choose Either the Light or the Darkness

³⁵ Therefore Yeshua said to them, "The light is with you for a little longer. Walk while you have the light, so that the darkness will not overtake you. The one who walks in darkness doesn't know where he is going.

³⁶ While you have the light, believe in the light so that

^{‡‡} Lit. Law

Torah

you may become sons of light." Yeshua spoke these things, then left and hid Himself from them.

³⁷ But even though He had performed so many signs before them, they weren't trusting in Him. ³⁸ This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet, who said, "ADONAI, who has believed our report?

To whom has the arm of ADONAI been revealed?" †

³⁹ For this reason they could not believe, for Isaiah also said,

⁴⁰ "He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, so they might not see with their eyes nor understand with their hearts and turn back, and I would heal them." ††

⁴¹ Isaiah said these things because he saw His glory and spoke of Him.

⁴² Nevertheless many, even among the leaders, put their trust in Him. But because of the Pharisees, they were not confessing Yeshua, ‡ so they would not be thrown out of the synagogue; ††⁴³ for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

⁴⁶ As light I have come into the world, so that everyone who trusts in Me should not remain in darkness.

⁴⁷ "If anyone hears My words but doesn't keep them, I do not judge him; for I came to save the world, not to judge the world. ⁴⁸ The one who rejects Me and doesn't receive My words has a judge; the word I spoke will judge him on the last day. ⁴⁹ For I did not speak on My own, but the Father Himself who sent Me has commanded Me what to say and speak. ⁵⁰ And I know that His commandment is life everlasting. Therefore what I say, I say just as the Father has told Me."

Modeling Servanthood

13 Now it was just before the feast of Passover. Yeshua knew that His hour had come to depart from this world to the Father. Having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them until the end. †

² While the seder meal was happening, the devil had already put in the heart of Judah from Kriot that he should hand over Yeshua. ³ Yeshua knew that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come from God and was returning to God. ⁴ So He gets up from the meal and lays aside His outer garment; and taking a towel, He wrapped it around His waist. ⁵ Then He pours water into a basin. He began to wash the disciples' feet, drying them with the towel wrapped around Him.

⁶ Then He comes to Simon Peter, who says to Him, "Master, are You going to wash my feet?"

⁷ Yeshua responded, "You don't know what I am doing now, but you will understand after these things."

† Isa. 53:1(LXX). †† cf. Isa. 6:10. ‡ cf. John 9:22. †† Lit. from the synagogue

‡‡ cf. John 19:30.

⁸ Peter said to Him, "You shall never wash my feet!"

Yeshua answered him, "If I don't wash you, you have no part with Me."

⁹ Simon Peter said to Him, "Master, then not only my feet, but also my hands and my head!"

¹⁰ Yeshua said to him, "He who has bathed has no need to wash, except the feet; he is completely clean. And you all are clean, though not every one." ¹¹ He knew who was betraying Him; for this reason, He said, "Not all of you are clean."

¹² So after He had washed their feet and put His robe back on and reclined again, He said to them, "Do you understand what I have done for you? ¹³ You call Me 'Teacher' and 'Master'—and rightly you say, for I am. ¹⁴ So if I, your Master and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash each other's feet. ¹⁵ I have given you an example—you should do for each other what I have done for you.

¹⁶ "Amen, amen I tell you, a servant isn't greater than his master, and the one who is sent isn't greater than the one who sent him. ¹⁷ If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them!"

Yeshua Reveals His Betrayer

¹⁸ "I am not speaking to all of you—I know whom I have chosen. But so the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He who eats My bread has lifted up his heel against Me.' ††¹⁹ From now on I am telling you, before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe that I am.

²⁰ Amen, amen I tell you, he who receives the one I send, receives Me; and he who receives Me, receives the One who sent Me."

²¹ After He said these things, Yeshua was agitated in spirit and testified, "Amen, amen I tell you, one of you will betray Me!"

²² The disciples began looking at each other, perplexed—who was He talking about? ²³ One of His disciples, whom Yeshua loved, was reclining at His side.

²⁴ Simon Peter nods to him and says, "Ask Him—who is He talking about?"

²⁵ Then he who leaned on Yeshua's chest says to Him, "Master, who is it?"

²⁶ Yeshua answers, "It's the one I will give this bit of matzah to, after I dip it." After dipping the matzah, ††† He takes it and gives it to Judah from Kriot, the son of Simon. ²⁷ And with that bit, satan entered into him. Then Yeshua tells him, "What you're about to do, do quickly!"

²⁸ But no one reclining at the table knew why Yeshua said this to him. ²⁹ Since Judah had the moneybox, some thought Yeshua was telling him, "Buy what we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor. ³⁰ So after Judah received the bit of matzah, he left immediately. Now it was night.

Leaving a Legacy of Love

³¹ Then when Judah had gone out, Yeshua said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in Him! ³² If God is glorified in Him, [†] God will glorify Him in Himself, and will glorify Him at once. ³³ Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will search for Me; and just as I told the Judean leaders, so I say to you now, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'

³⁴ "I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, so also you must love one another. ³⁵ By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

³⁶ "Master, where are You going?" Simon Peter said to Him.

Yeshua answered, "Where I am going, you cannot follow Me now; but you will follow Me later."

³⁷ Peter said to Him, "Master, why can't I follow You now? I'll lay down my life for You!"

³⁸ Yeshua answers, "Will you lay down your life for Me? Amen, amen I tell you, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times!"

The Way to the Father's House

14 "Do not let your heart be troubled. Trust in God; trust also in Me. ² In My Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? ³ If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and take you to Myself, so that where I am you may also be. ⁴ And you know the way to where I am going." ^{††}

⁵ Thomas said to Him, "Master, we don't know where You are going. How can we know the way?"

⁶ Yeshua said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life! No one comes to the Father except through Me. ⁷ If you have come to know Me, you will know My Father also. From now on, you do know Him and have seen Him."

⁹ Yeshua said to him, "Have I been with you for so long a time, and you haven't come to know Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father?' ¹⁰ Don't you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me? The words I say to you, I do not speak on My own; but the Father dwelling in Me does His works. ¹¹ Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father is in Me—or at least believe because of the works themselves.

¹² "Amen, amen I tell you, he who puts his trust in Me, the works that I do he will do; and greater than these he will do, because I am going to the Father. ¹³ And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴ If you ask Me [‡] anything in My name, I will do it."

[†] Early mss. missing this first part. ^{††} Some mss. say Where I am going you know, and the way you know [‡] Some mss. omit Me

The Believer's Helper

¹⁵ "If you love Me, you will keep My commandments. ¹⁶ I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper ^{††} so He may be with you forever— ¹⁷ the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not behold Him or know Him. You know Him, because He abides with you and will be in you. ¹⁸ I will not abandon you as orphans; ^{‡‡} I will come to you. ¹⁹ In a little while, the world will no longer behold Me, but you will behold Me. Because I live, you also will live!

²⁰ "In that day, you will know that I am in My Father, you are in Me, and I am in you. ²¹ He who has My commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me. He who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and reveal Myself to him."

²² Judah (not the one from Kriot) said to Him, "Master, what has happened, that You are about to reveal Yourself to us and not the world?"

²³ Yeshua answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word. My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our dwelling with him. ²⁴ He who does not love Me does not keep My words. And the word you hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent Me. ²⁵ These things I have spoken to you while dwelling with you. ²⁶ But the Helper, the Ruach ha-Kodesh whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you everything and remind you of everything that I said to you.

²⁷ " Shalom I leave you, My shalom I give to you; but not as the world gives! Do not let your heart be troubled or afraid. ²⁸ You've heard Me say, 'I am going away and I am coming back to you.' If you loved Me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. ²⁹ I have told you now before it happens, so that when it happens you may believe!

³⁰ "I will not talk with you much longer, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has nothing on Me. ³¹ But in order that the world may know that I love the Father, I do exactly as the Father commanded Me.

"Get up, let's go from here!"

Abiding in the Vine

15 "I am the true vine, and My Father is the gardener. ² Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit, He trims so that it may bear more fruit. ³ You are already clean because of the word I have spoken to you. ⁴ Abide in Me, and I will abide in you. The branch cannot itself produce fruit, unless it abides on the vine. Likewise, you cannot produce fruit unless you abide in Me.

⁵ "I am the vine; you are the branches. The one who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for apart from Me, you can do nothing. ⁶ If anyone does not abide in Me, he is thrown away like a branch and is dried up. Such branches are picked up and thrown into the fire and burned.

⁷ "If you abide in Me and My words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it shall be done for you. ⁸ In this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be My disciples.

⁹ "Just as the Father has loved Me, I also have loved you. Abide in My love! ¹⁰ If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love, just as I have kept My Father's commandments and abide in His love.

¹¹ These things I have spoken to you so that My joy may be in you, and your joy may be full.

¹² "This is My commandment, that you love one another just as I have loved you. ¹³ No one has greater love than this: that he lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴ You are My friends if you do what I command you.

¹⁵ "I am no longer calling you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing. Now I have called you friends, because everything I have heard from My Father I have made known to you.

¹⁶ "You did not choose Me, but I chose you. I selected you so that you would go and produce fruit, and your fruit would remain. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in My name.

¹⁷ "These things I command you, so that you may love one another."

The World Hates God's Own

¹⁸ "If the world hates you, know that it has hated Me before you. ¹⁹ If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own. But you are not of the world, since I have chosen you out of the world; therefore the world hates you.

²⁰ "Remember the word I spoke to you: 'A servant is not greater than his master.' ^{††} If they persecuted Me, they will persecute you also. If they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

²¹ "But all these things they will do to you for the sake of My name, because they do not know the One who sent Me. ²² If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin.

²³ "He who hates Me also hates My Father. ²⁴ If I had not done works among them that no one else did, they would have no sin. But now they have seen and have hated both Me and My Father. ²⁵ So is fulfilled the word written in their Scripture, [‡] 'They hated Me for no reason.' ^{‡‡}

²⁶ "When the Helper comes—whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father—He will testify about Me. ²⁷ And you also testify, because you have been with Me from the beginning."

† cf. Lev. 19:18. †† John 13:16. ‡ Lit. Torah the Law
‡‡ cf. Ps. 35:19; 69:5(4); (Hebrew sinat chinam)

16 "I have spoken these things to you so that you may be kept from stumbling. ² They will throw you out of the synagogues. Yes, an hour is coming when whoever kills you will think he is offering service to God. ³ They will do these things because they have never known the Father or Me. ⁴ But I have spoken these things to you so that when their hour comes, you may remember that I told you of them. I did not tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you."

The Ruach Reveals Truth

⁵ "But now I am going to the One who sent Me, and not one of you is asking Me, 'Where are you going?' ⁶ Because I have spoken these things to you, grief has filled your heart. ⁷ But I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away! For if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you.

⁸ "When He comes, He will convict the world about sin, righteousness, and judgment: ⁹ concerning sin, because they do not believe in Me; ¹⁰ concerning righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will no longer see Me; ¹¹ and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

¹² "I still have much more to tell you, but you cannot handle it just now. ¹³ But when the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on His own; but whatever He hears, He will tell you. And He will declare to you the things that are to come. ¹⁴ He will glorify Me, because He will take from what is Mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵ Everything that the Father has is Mine. For this reason I said the Ruach will take from what is Mine and declare it to you."

Death and Resurrection Foretold

¹⁶ "A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again in a little while, you will see Me."

¹⁷ Then some of His disciples said to one another, "What does He mean by telling us, 'A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again in a little while, you will see Me'? And, 'Because I am going to the Father?'"

¹⁹ Yeshua knew that they wanted to question Him, so He said to them, "Are you asking each other about this, that I said, 'A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again in a little while, you will see Me'? ²⁰ Amen, amen I tell you, you will weep and mourn, but the world will celebrate. You will be filled with sorrow, but your sorrow will turn to joy!

²¹ "When a woman is in labor, she has pain because her hour has come. ^{‡‡} But when she gives birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, because of the joy that a human being has been born into the world. ²² So also you have sorrow now; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you!

²³ "In that day, you will ask Me nothing. Amen, amen I tell you, whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you. ²⁴ Up to now, you have not asked for anything in My name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be full.

²⁵ "These things I have spoken to you in metaphors. An hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in metaphors, but will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶ In that day, you will ask in My name—and I'm not telling you that I will ask the Father on your behalf. ²⁷ For the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and have believed that I came forth from God. ²⁸ I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again I am leaving the world and going to the Father."

²⁹ His disciples say, "See, now You're speaking plainly and not in metaphors. ³⁰ Now we know that You know everything and have no need to be asked anything. By this we believe that You came forth from God."

³¹ Yeshua answered them, "Do you now believe? ³² Look, the hour is coming—indeed has come—when you will be scattered, each to his own, and you will abandon Me. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. ³³ These things I have spoken to you, so that in Me you may have shalom. In the world you will have trouble, but take heart! I have overcome the world!"

The Son Glorifies the Father

17 Yeshua spoke these things; then, lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, "Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, so the Son may glorify You. ² Even as You gave Him authority over all flesh, so may He give eternal life to all those You have given Him. ³ And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Yeshua the Messiah, the One You sent. ⁴ I glorified You on earth by finishing the work that You have given Me to do. ⁵ Now, Father, glorify Me together with Yourself, with the glory which I had with You before the world came to be."

Yeshua Prays for His Disciples

⁶ "I have made Your name known to the men of this world that You gave Me. They were Yours; You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your word. ⁷ Now they have come to know that everything You have given Me is from You. ⁸ The words, which You gave Me, I have given to them. They received them and truly understood that I came from You, and they believed that You sent Me. ⁹ I ask on their behalf. Not on behalf of the world do I ask, but on behalf of those You have given Me, for they are Yours. ¹⁰ All Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine; and I have been glorified in them. ¹¹ I am no longer in the world; but they are in the world, and I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name that You have given Me, so that they may be one just as We are. ¹² While I was with them, I was keeping them in Your name that You have given Me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the son of destruction, [†] so that the Scripture would be fulfilled.

¹³ "But now I am coming to You. I say these words while I am still in the world, so that they may have My joy made full in themselves. ¹⁴ I have given them Your word; and the world hated them, because they are not of the world just as I am not of the world. ¹⁵ I am not asking that You take them out of the world, but that You keep them from the evil one. ¹⁶ They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world.

¹⁷ "Make them holy in the truth. Your word is truth. ¹⁸ Just as You sent Me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. ¹⁹ And for their sakes I make Myself holy, so that they also may be made holy in truth."

Interceding for All Believers

²⁰ "I pray not on behalf of these only, but also for those who believe in Me through their message, ²¹ that they all may be one. Just as You, Father, are in Me and I am in You, so also may they be one in Us, so the world may believe that You sent Me. ²² The glory that You have given to Me I have given to them, that they may be one just as We are one— ²³ I in them and You in Me—that they may be perfected in unity, so that the world may know that You sent Me and loved them as You loved Me.

²⁴ "Father, I also want those You have given Me to be with Me where I am, so that they may see My glory—the glory You gave Me, for You loved Me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵ Righteous Father, the world did not know You, but I knew You; and these knew that You sent Me. ²⁶ I made your Name known to them, and will continue to make it known, so that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them."

Betrayed and Arrested

18 When Yeshua had said these things, He went out with His disciples across the Kidron Valley, ^{††} where there was a garden, which He and His disciples entered. ² Now Judah, who was betraying Him, also knew the place, because Yeshua had often met there with His disciples. ³ So Judah, having taken a band of soldiers and some officers from the ruling kohanim and Pharisees, comes there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. ⁴ Then Yeshua, knowing all the things coming upon Him, went forward. He said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

⁵ " Yeshua ha-Natzrati," they answered Him. Yeshua tells them, "I am." Now Judah, the one betraying Him, was also standing with them. ⁶ So when [†] cf. Ps. 41:10(9). ^{††} cf. 2 Sam. 15:23.

Yeshua said to them, "I am," they drew back and fell to the ground.

⁷ So again He asked them, "Who are you looking for?"

And they said, "Yeshua ha-Natzrati."

⁸ Yeshua answered, "I told you, I am! If you're looking for Me, let these men go their way."⁹ This was so the word would be fulfilled that He spoke: "I did not lose one of those You have given Me."[†]

¹⁰ Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the servant of the kohen gadol, and cut off his right ear. Now the servant's name was Malchus.¹¹ So Yeshua said to Peter, "Put the sword into the sheath! The cup the Father has given Me—shall I never drink it?"

Interrogated and Tried

¹² Then the band of soldiers, with the captain and the officers of the Judeans, seized Yeshua and tied Him up.¹³ They led Him first to Annas, for he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the kohen gadol that year.¹⁴ Now Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Judean leaders that it was better for one man to die on behalf of the people.

¹⁵ Simon Peter was following Yeshua with another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the kohen gadol, so he went with Yeshua into the court of the kohen gadol.¹⁶ But Peter was left standing outside by the door. So the other disciple, who was known to the kohen gadol, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper and brought Peter in.

¹⁷ The maidservant at the door says to Peter, "Aren't you one of this Man's disciples too?"

He says, "No, I'm not."¹⁸ The servants and officers were standing around a fire they had made, because it was cold and they were warming themselves. And Peter was also with them, standing and warming himself.

¹⁹ The kohen gadol then questioned Yeshua about His disciples and His teaching.²⁰ "I have spoken openly to the world," Yeshua answered him. "I always taught in the synagogues and the Temple, where all the Jewish people come together. I spoke nothing in secret.²¹ Why question Me? Ask those who have heard what I spoke to them. Look, they know what I said."

²² When He had said this, one of the officers standing nearby gave Yeshua a slap, saying, "Is that the way you answer the kohen gadol?"

²³ Yeshua answered him, "If I have spoken wrongly, give evidence of the wrong; but if rightly, why hit Me?"

²⁴ Then Annas sent Him, still tied up, to Caiaphas, the kohen gadol.

²⁵ Now Simon Peter was standing outside and warming himself. So they said to him, "Aren't you one of His disciples too?"

He denied it and said, "No, I'm not!"

²⁶ One of the servants of the kohen gadol, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with Him?"

²⁷ Again Peter denied it, and immediately a rooster crowed.

²⁸ Then they led Yeshua from Caiaphas to the Praetorium.^{††} It was early. They themselves did not enter the Praetorium, so they would not become unclean but might eat the Passover.²⁹ Therefore Pilate came out to them and said, "What charge do you bring against this man?"

³⁰ They answered, "If He weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have handed Him over to you."

³¹ Then Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves, and judge Him by your Torah!"

The Judean leaders responded, "We are not authorized to put anyone to death."³² This happened so that the word Yeshua spoke would be fulfilled, signifying what kind of death He was about to die.

³³ So Pilate went back into the Praetorium, called for Yeshua, and asked Him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

³⁴ "Are you saying this on your own," Yeshua answered, "or did others tell you about Me?"

³⁵ Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and ruling kohanim handed You over to me! What have You done?"

³⁶ Yeshua answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would be fighting so that I wouldn't be handed over to the Judean leaders. But as it is, My kingdom is not from here."

³⁷ So Pilate said to Him, "Are you a king, then?"

Yeshua answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I was born, and for this reason I came into the world, so that I might testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice."

³⁸ Pilate said to Him, "What is truth?" After he said this, he went out again to the Judean leaders. He said to them, "I find no case against Him.³⁹ But it's your custom that I release someone for you at Passover. So do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

⁴⁰ They shouted back, "Not this One, but Bar-Abba!" Now Bar-Abba[‡] was a revolutionary.

Bound and Sentenced

¹⁹ Then Pilate took Yeshua and had Him scourged.² The soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and dressed Him in a purple robe.³ They kept coming up to Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and slapping Him over and over.

⁴ Pilate came out again. He said to them, "Look, I'm bringing Him out to you, to let you know that I find no case against Him."⁵ So Yeshua came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. "Behold, the Man!" Pilate said to them.

⁶ When the ruling kohanim and officers saw Him, they yelled out, "Execute Him! Execute Him!" †

Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves and execute Him! For I don't find a case against Him."

⁷ The Judean leaders answered him, "We have a law, †† and according to the Torah He must die, because He claimed to be Ben-Elohim!"

⁸ When Pilate heard this word, he became even more fearful. ⁹ He went into the Praetorium again and said to Yeshua, "Where are You from?" But Yeshua gave him no answer. ¹⁰ So Pilate said to Him, "You aren't speaking to me? Don't You know that I have the authority to release You, and I have the authority to crucify You?"

¹¹ Yeshua answered, "You would have no authority over Me if it hadn't been given to you from above. For this reason, the one who handed Me over to you has the greater sin."

¹² Pilate tried to let Him go after this; but the Judean leaders cried out, saying, "If you release this Man, you are no friend of Caesar. Everyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar!"

¹³ So when Pilate heard these words, he brought Yeshua out and sat down on the judge's seat at a place called the Stone Pavement (but in Aramaic, ‡ Gab-batha). ¹⁴ It was the Day of Preparation for Passover, about the sixth hour. †† And Pilate said to the Judean leaders, "Behold, your king!"

¹⁵ They shouted back, "Take Him away! Take Him away! Execute Him!"

Pilate said to them, "Should I execute your king?"

The ruling kohanim answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"

¹⁶ Finally, Pilate handed Yeshua over to be crucified.

A Sacrificial Death

¹⁷ Then they took Yeshua. He went out, carrying His own crossbar, to the Place of a Skull, which in Aramaic †† is called Golgotha. ¹⁸ There they crucified Him, and with Him two others, one on each side and Yeshua in between.

¹⁹ Pilate also wrote a sign and put it on the execution stake. It was written, " YESHUA HA-NATZRATI, THE KING OF THE JEWS." ²⁰ Many Judeans read this sign, because the place where Yeshua was executed was near the city; it was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek.

²¹ The ruling kohanim of the Judeans were saying to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but that He said, 'I am King of the Jews.'"

²² "What I have written, I have written," Pilate answered.

²³ So the soldiers, when they executed Yeshua, took His outer garments and made four parts, a part for each soldier. They took His tunic also, but it was seamless, woven top to bottom in one piece. ²⁴ So they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it will be." This was so the Scripture would be fulfilled,

"They divided My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots." †††
So the soldiers did these things.

²⁸ After this, when Yeshua knew that all things were now completed, to fulfill the Scripture He said, "I am thirsty." †††²⁹ A jar full of sour wine was sitting there, so they put a sponge soaked with the sour wine on a hyssop branch and brought it to His mouth. ³⁰ When Yeshua tasted the sour wine, He said, "It is finished!" And He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.

³¹ It was the Day of Preparation, and the next day was a festival Shabbat. So that the bodies should not remain on the execution stake during Shabbat, the Judean leaders asked Pilate to have the legs broken and to have the bodies taken away.

³² So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and then the other who had been executed with Yeshua. ³³ Now when they came to Yeshua and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. ³⁴ But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. ³⁵ He who has seen it has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also may believe. ³⁶ These things happened so that the Scripture would be fulfilled, "Not a bone of His shall be broken." ³⁷ And again another Scripture says, "They shall look on Him whom they have pierced." ††

³⁸ After these things, Joseph of Arimathea asked Pilate if he could take Yeshua's body away. Joseph was a disciple of Yeshua, but secretly for fear of the Judean leaders. Pilate gave permission, so Joseph came and took the body away. ³⁹ Nicodemus, who had first visited Yeshua at night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. †††⁴⁰ Then they took the body of Yeshua and wrapped it in linen with the spices, as is the Jewish burial custom.

⁴¹ Now in the place where He was executed, there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb †† where no one had yet been buried. ⁴² Because it was the Jewish Day of Preparation and the tomb was nearby, they laid Yeshua there.

The Lamb of God is Resurrected

20 Early in the morning on the first day of the week, while it is still dark, Miriam from Magdala comes to the tomb. She sees that the stone had been rolled away from the tomb. ² So she comes running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Yeshua loved. She tells them, "They've taken the Master out of the tomb, and we don't know where they've put Him!"

³ Then Peter and the other disciple set out, going to the tomb. ⁴ The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and arrived at the tomb first. ⁵ Leaning in, he sees the linen strips lying there. But he didn't go in.

⁶ Then Simon Peter comes following him, and he entered the tomb. He looks upon the linen strips lying there, ⁷ and the face cloth that had been on His head. It was not lying with the linen strips, but was rolled up in a place by itself. ⁸ So then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also entered. He saw and believed. ⁹ For they did not yet understand from Scripture that Yeshua must rise from the dead. ¹⁰ So the disciples went back to their own homes.

Yeshua Appears to Miriam

¹¹ But Miriam stood outside the tomb weeping. As she was weeping, she bent down to look into the tomb. ¹² She sees two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where Yeshua's body had been lying.

¹³ "Woman, why are you crying?" they say to her.

She says to them, "Because they took away my Master, and I don't know where they've put Him." ¹⁴ After she said these things, she turned around. And she sees Yeshua standing there. Yet she didn't know that it was Yeshua.

¹⁵ Yeshua says to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?"

Thinking He's the gardener, she says to Him, "Sir, if You've carried Him away, tell me where You've put Him, and I will take Him away."

¹⁶ Yeshua says to her, "Miriam!"

Turning around, she says to Him in Aramaic, ^{††} "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher).

¹⁷ Yeshua says to her, "Stop clinging to Me, for I have not yet gone up to the Father. Go to My brothers and tell them, 'I am going up to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God.'"

¹⁸ Miriam from Magdala comes, announcing to the disciples, "I've seen the Lord," and what He had said to her.

Yeshua Appears to the Disciples

¹⁹ It was evening on that day, the first of the week. When the doors were locked where the disciples were, for fear of the Judean leaders, Yeshua came and stood in their midst! And He said to them, "Shalom aleichem!" ²⁰ After He said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. ²¹ Yeshua said to them again, "Shalom aleichem! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you."

²² And after He said this, He breathed on them. And He said to them, "Receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh! ²³ If you forgive anyone's sins, they are forgiven; but if you hold back, they are held back."

²⁴ One of the Twelve, Thomas called the Twin, was not with them when Yeshua came. ²⁵ The other disciples were saying to him, "We've seen the Lord!"

But he replied to them, "Unless I see the nail prints in His hands, and put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand in His side, I will never believe!"

²⁶ Eight days later the disciples were again inside, and Thomas was with them. Yeshua comes, despite the locked doors. He stood in their midst and said, "Shalom aleichem!" ²⁷ Then He said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and look at My hands. Reach out your hand and put it into My side. Stop doubting and believe!"

²⁸ Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

²⁹ Yeshua said to Him, "Because you have seen Me, you have believed? Blessed are the ones who have not seen and yet have believed!"

The Reason for Signs and Wonders

³⁰ Yeshua performed many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book. ³¹ But these things have been written so that you may believe that Yeshua is Mashiach Ben-Elohim, and that by believing you may have life in His name.

Fish for Breakfast with the Risen One

21 After these things, Yeshua revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. Now here is how He appeared. ² Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in the Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two of the other disciples were together.

³ Simon Peter said to them, "I'm going fishing."

"We're coming with you too," they said. They went out and got into the boat, and that night they caught nothing.

⁴ At dawn, Yeshua stood on the beach; but the disciples didn't know that it was Yeshua. ⁵ So Yeshua said to them, "Boys, you don't happen to have any fish, do you?"

"No," they answered Him.

† cf. Ps. 16:10. †† Lit. in Hebrew

⁷ Therefore, the disciple whom Yeshua loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tied his outer garment around himself—for he was stripped down for work—and threw himself into the sea. ⁸ But the other disciples came in the boat from about two hundred cubits † offshore, dragging the net full of fish.

⁹ So when they got out onto the land, they saw a charcoal fire with fish placed on it, and bread. ¹⁰ Yeshua said to them, "Bring some of the fish you've just caught." ¹¹ Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net to shore. There were 153 fish, many of them big; but the net was not broken. ¹² Yeshua said to them, "Come, have breakfast." None of the disciples dared ask Him, "Who are You?"—knowing it was the Lord. ¹³ Yeshua comes and takes the bread and gives it to them, and likewise the fish. ¹⁴ This was now the third time that Yeshua was revealed to the disciples after He was raised from the dead.

Love Restores Peter

¹⁵ When they had finished breakfast, Yeshua said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?"

"Yes, Lord," he said to Him, "You know that I love you."

He said to him, "Feed My lambs!"

¹⁶ He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?"

"Yes, Lord," he said, "You know that I love You."

He said to him, "Take care of My sheep!"

† One cubit is about 18 inches.

¹⁷ He said to him a third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?"

Peter was grieved because He said to him for a third time, "Do you love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You know everything! You know that I love You!"

Yeshua said to him, "Feed My sheep!" ††

¹⁸ "Amen, amen I tell you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and walk wherever you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go." ¹⁹ Now this He said to indicate by what kind of death Peter was going to glorify God. And after this, Yeshua said to him, "Follow Me!"

²⁰ Peter, turning around, sees the disciple following. This was the one whom Yeshua loved, who also had reclined against Yeshua's chest at the seder meal and said, "Master, who is the one who is betraying You?"

²¹ Seeing him, Peter said to Yeshua, "Lord, what about him?"

²² Yeshua said to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me!" ²³ Therefore this saying went out among the brothers and sisters, that this disciple would not die. Yet Yeshua did not say to him that he would not die, but, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?"

John's Witness

²⁴ This is the disciple who is an eyewitness of these things and wrote these things. We know that his testimony is true. ²⁵ There are also many other things that Yeshua did. If all of them were to be written one by one, I suppose that not even the world itself will have room for the books being written!

Acts

Introduction

Acts is the second volume of Luke's historical account that began with his Gospel. It falls into two parts: chapters 1–12 focus on Peter in Jewish and Samaritan geographic regions, while chapters 13–28 are concerned with Paul in largely Gentile areas. Rather abruptly, Acts ends with Paul's house arrest in Rome, around 62 C.E.—and with no mention of the destruction of the Temple in 70 C.E., this book was likely written between those two events. Acts is above all about God's work through the , filling and empowering the emissaries and other Jews to spread the Good News. It has been observed that Acts pauses to summarize the growth and spread of God's Word five times (6:7, 9:31, 12:24, 16:5, and 19:20). Thus, Acts shows that 's statement in Acts 1:8 is being fulfilled—a fulfillment whose promise stretches back to Genesis 12:1-3.

Along the way, we see that the inclusion of Gentiles in God's plan—one of Luke's key themes—occurs amidst dissension, debate (including the issue of the place of the for Gentiles), and compromise. Yet through the riots and imprisonments, arguments and personality conflicts, Luke shows that the is at work. In fact, the is another key theme of Luke, as are the ideas that we are living in the "last days" and that salvation comes through forgiveness and the removal of sins.

In writing Acts, Luke may have wanted to help Jewish and Gentile believers reconcile. He may also be spreading the Good News to Romans (much of Acts consists of Paul's trials and defenses), as well as to Jews (to show that Paul was not opposed to Jewish compliance with the written). Luke is also concerned about helping both Gentile and Jewish believers work out the question of their identity in a pluralistic world and vis-à-vis the opposing claims of the Jewish leadership. All this makes Acts relevant for believers today. Luke's message to us is that despite competing religious voices and official opposition to from Jewish leadership, God will continue to fulfill His promised plan of salvation.

When Will Yeshua Restore the Kingdom?

¹ I wrote the first volume, Theophilus, about all that Yeshua began to do and teach—² up to the day He was taken up, after He had given orders by the Ruach ha-Kodesh to the emissaries He had chosen.

³ To them He showed Himself to be alive after His suffering through many convincing proofs, appearing to them for 40 days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

⁴ Now while staying with them, He commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for what the Father promised—which, He said, "You heard from Me. ⁵ For John immersed with water, but you will be immersed in the Ruach ha-Kodesh not many days from now."

⁶ So when they gathered together, they asked Him, "Lord, are You restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time?"

⁷ He said to them, "It is not your place to know the times or seasons which the Father has placed under His own control. ⁸ But you will receive power when the Ruach ha-Kodesh has come upon you; and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and through all Judah, and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

⁹ After saying all this—while they were watching—He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. ¹⁰ While they were staring into heaven as He went up, suddenly two men stood with them in white clothing. ¹¹ They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you keep standing here staring into heaven? This Yeshua, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw Him go into heaven."

Appointing a New Emissary

¹² Then they returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives † (which is near Jerusalem, a Shabbat day's journey ††). ¹³ When they had entered, they went up to the upper room where they were staying—Peter and John and Jacob and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; Jacob son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judah son of Jacob. ¹⁴ All these with one mind were continuing together in prayer—along with the women and Miriam, Yeshua's mother, and His brothers.

¹⁵ In those days, Peter stood up among the brothers and sisters (the number of names all together was about 120) and said, ¹⁶ “Brothers, ‡ the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Ruach ha-Kodesh foretold by the mouth of David, concerning Judah—who became a guide to those who seized Yeshua. ¹⁷ For he was counted among us and received his share of this office.” ¹⁸ (Now this man Judah bought a field with the reward of his wickedness. Falling headfirst, he burst open in the middle and his intestines splattered out. ¹⁹ And it became known to all those living in Jerusalem, so in their own language that field was called Akeldama ††—that is, “Field of Blood.”)

²⁰ For it is written in the Book of Psalms, “Let his dwelling place become desolate, and let there be no one living in it’ †† and ‘Let another take his position.’ †††

²¹ “Therefore, one of the men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Yeshua went in and out among us— ²² beginning with His immersion by John until the day He was taken up from us—must become a witness with us of His resurrection.”

²³ So they nominated two—Joseph, called Barsabbas (also called Justus), and Matthias. ²⁴ And they prayed and said, “You, O Lord, who knows the hearts of all men, show us which of these two You have chosen ²⁵ to take the position in this office as emissary, from which Judah turned aside to go to his own place.”

²⁶ Then they cast lots for them, and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was added to the eleven emissaries.

The Ruach Fills the Disciples

2 When the day of Shavuot ††† had come, they were all together in one place. ² Suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³ And tongues like fire spreading out appeared to them and settled on each one of them. ⁴ They were all filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh and began to speak in other tongues as the Ruach enabled them to speak out.

⁵ Now Jewish people were staying in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation under heaven. ⁶ And when this sound came, the crowd gathered. They were bewildered, because each was hearing them speaking in his own language. ⁷ And they were amazed and astonished, saying, “All these who are speaking—aren't they Galileans? ⁸ How is it that we each hear our own birth language? ⁹ Parthians and Medes and Elamites and those living in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, ⁹ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and parts of Libya toward Cyrene, and visitors from Rome ¹¹ (both Jewish people and proselytes), Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring in our own tongues the mighty deeds of God!” ¹² And they were all amazed and perplexed, saying to each other, “What does this mean?”

¹³ Others, poking fun, were saying, “They are full of sweet new wine!”

Peter Speaks to the Shavuot Crowd

¹⁴ But Peter, standing with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: “Fellow Judeans and all who are staying in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and pay attention to my words. ¹⁵ These men are not drunk, as you suppose—for it's only the third hour of the day! ¹⁶ But this is what was spoken about through the prophet Joel:

¹⁷ “‘And it shall be in the last days,’ says God, ‘that I will pour out My Ruach on all flesh.

Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

¹⁸ Even on My slaves, male and female, I will pour out My Ruach in those days, and they shall prophesy.

¹⁹ And I will give wonders in the sky above and signs on the earth beneath— blood, and fire, and smoky vapor.

²⁰ The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the great and glorious Day of ADONAI comes.

²¹ And it shall be that everyone who calls on the name of ADONAI shall be saved.’ ²² †

²² “Men of Israel, hear these words! Yeshua ha-Natzrati—a Man authenticated to you by God with mighty deeds and wonders and signs God performed through Him in your midst, as you yourselves know— ²³ this Yeshua, given over by God's predetermined plan and foreknowledge, nailed to the cross by the hands of lawless men, you killed. ²⁴ But God raised Him up, releasing Him from the pains of death, since it was impossible for Him to be held by it. ²⁵ For David says about Him,

‘I saw ADONAI always before me, for He is at my right hand so that I might not be shaken.

²⁶ Therefore my heart was glad and my tongue rejoiced;

moreover, my body also will live in hope, ²⁷ because You will not abandon my soul to Sheol or let Your Holy One see decay.

²⁸ You have made known to me the paths of life;
You will fill me with joy in Your presence.[†]

²⁹ “Brothers, I can confidently tell you that the patriarch David died and was buried—his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰ So because he was a prophet and knew God had sworn with an oath to him to seat one of his descendants on his throne,^{††31} David saw beforehand and spoke of Messiah’s resurrection—that He was not abandoned to Sheol, and His body did not see decay.[‡]

³² “This Yeshua God raised up—we all are witnesses!
³³ Therefore, being exalted to the right hand of God and receiving from the Father the promise of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, He poured out this—what you now see and hear. ³⁴ For David did not ascend into the heavens; yet he himself says,

“ADONAI said to my Lord,
“Sit at my right hand,

³⁵ until I make Your enemies a footstool
for Your feet.”^{‡†}

³⁶ “Therefore let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made Him—this Yeshua whom you had crucified—both Lord and Messiah!”

Teshuvah —Thousands Immersed

³⁷ Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the rest of the emissaries, “Fellow brethren, what shall we do?”

³⁸ Peter said to them, “Repent, and let each of you be immersed in the name of Messiah Yeshua for the removal of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ³⁹ For the promise is for you and your children, and for all who are far away—as many as ADONAI our God calls to Himself.”

⁴⁰ With many other words he warned them and kept urging them, saying, “Save yourselves from this twisted generation!”^{‡†41} So those who received his message were immersed, and that day about three thousand souls were added.

New Covenant Community Begins

⁴² They were devoting themselves to the teaching of the emissaries and to fellowship, to breaking bread, and to prayers. ⁴³ Fear lay upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were happening through the emissaries. ⁴⁴ And all who believed were together, having everything in common. ⁴⁵ They began selling their property and possessions and sharing them with all, as any had need. ⁴⁶ Day by day they continued with one mind, spending time at the Temple, and breaking bread from house to house. They were sharing meals with gladness and sincerity of heart,⁴⁷ praising God, and having favor with all the people. And every day the Lord was adding to their number^{‡††} those being saved.

A Lame Beggar Walks

3 Now Peter and John were going up to the Temple at the ninth hour,^{‡††} the time of prayer. ² A man lame from birth was being carried—every day they used to put him at the Temple gate called Beautiful, so he could beg for tzedakah from those entering the Temple. ³ When he saw Peter and John about to go into the Temple, he began asking to receive tzedakah.

⁴ But Peter, along with John, looked straight at him and said, “Look at us!” ⁵ So he gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. ⁶ But Peter said, “Silver and gold I do not have, but what I do have I give to you—in the name of Yeshua ha-Mashiach ha-Natzrati, get up and walk!” ⁷ Then grabbing him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately the man’s feet and ankles were made strong. ⁸ Jumping up, he stood and began walking; and he went with them into the Temple, walking and leaping and praising God!

⁹ Now all the people saw him walking and praising God. ¹⁰ They began to realize he was the one who used to sit begging for tzedakah at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple, and they were filled with wonder and astonishment over what had happened to him.

Peter Speaks at the Temple

¹¹ While he was clinging to Peter and John, all the people together came running toward them in the place called Solomon’s Portico. ¹² But when Peter saw, he responded to the people, “Men of Israel, why are you amazed at this? Why do you stare at us—as if by our own power or godliness we had made this man walk? ¹³ The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His Servant[§] Yeshua—the One you handed over and disowned before Pilate, though he had decided to release Him. ¹⁴ But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be granted to you. ¹⁵ You killed the Author of life—the One God raised from the dead! We are witnesses of it. ¹⁶ Now through faith in the name of Yeshua, His name has strengthened this man whom you see and know. Indeed, the faith through Yeshua has given this man perfect health in front of you all.

¹⁷ “Now brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, just as your leaders did. ¹⁸ But what God foretold through the mouth of all His prophets—that His Messiah was to suffer—so He has fulfilled. ¹⁹ Repent, therefore, and return—so your sins might be blotted out, ²⁰ so times of relief might come from the presence of ADONAI and He might send Yeshua, the Messiah appointed for you. ²¹ Heaven must receive Him, until the time of the restoration of all the things that God spoke about long ago through the mouth of His holy prophets. ²² Moses said, ' ADONAI your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your brothers. Hear and obey Him in all that He shall say to you. ²³ And it shall be that every soul that will not listen to that Prophet shall be completely cut off from the people.' ^{†24} Indeed, all the prophets who have spoken from Samuel on have announced these days. ²⁵ You are the sons of the prophets and also of the covenant that God cut with your fathers, ^{††} saying to Abraham, 'In your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.'

^{‡26} God raised up His Servant and sent Him first to you, to bless you all by turning each of you from your wicked ways."

Standing before the Sanhedrin

4 As Peter and John were speaking to the people, the kohanim and the captain of the Temple and the Sadducees came up to them. ² They were indignant because Peter and John were teaching the people and announcing in Yeshua the resurrection of the dead. ³ So they grabbed them and put them in jail until the next day, for it was already evening. ⁴ But many who heard the message believed, and the number of the men came to about five thousand.

⁵ On the next day, the rulers and elders and Torah scholars were gathered together in Jerusalem. ⁶ Annas the kohen gadol was there, and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all those who were of high-priestly descent. ⁷ When they had placed Peter and John in their midst, they began to inquire, "By what power or in what name did you do this?"

⁸ Then Peter, filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh, said to them, "Rulers and elders of the people! ⁹ If we are on trial today for a mitzvah done for a sick man, as to how this fellow was healed, ¹⁰ let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Yeshua ha-Mashiach ha-Natzrati—whom you had crucified, whom God raised from the dead—this one stands before you whole. ¹¹ This Yeshua is 'the stone—rejected by you, the builders—that has become the chief cornerstone.'
^{‡12} There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to mankind by which we must be saved!"

¹³ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John and figured out they were laymen without training, they were amazed. They began to realize that these men had been with Yeshua. ¹⁴ But seeing the healed man standing with them, they had nothing to say in response. ¹⁵ When they had ordered Peter and John to go out of the council chamber, they began to confer with one another, ¹⁶ saying, "What shall we do with these men? For indeed, it's obvious to everyone living in Jerusalem that a remarkable miracle has happened through them, and we cannot deny it. ¹⁷ But so it won't spread any further among the people, let's warn them not to speak anymore to anyone in this name."

¹⁸ So they called them in and ordered them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Yeshua. ¹⁹ But Peter and John replied, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you decide. ²⁰ For we cannot stop speaking about what we have seen and heard."

²¹ After threatening them again, they let them go—finding no way they could punish them on account of the people, because they all were glorifying God for what had happened. ²² For the man in whom this miracle of healing had happened was more than 40 years old.

Prayer for Courage

²³ As soon as they were released, Peter and John went to their own people and reported all that the ruling kohanim and elders had said to them. ²⁴ When they heard it, they lifted their voices together to God and said, "O Sovereign Master, 'You made heaven and earth and the sea, and everything in them.'
^{‡25} You said by the Ruach ha-Kodesh, through the mouth of our father David Your servant,

"Why did the nations rage and the peoples plot foolish things?"

²⁶ The kings of the earth took their stand and the rulers were gathered together against ADONAI and against His Anointed One.' ^{‡‡}

²⁷ "For truly both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, were gathered together in this city against Your holy Servant Yeshua, whom You anointed. ²⁸ They did whatever Your hand and Your purpose predetermined to happen. ²⁹ And now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant Your servants to speak Your word with utmost courage—³⁰ while You stretch out Your hand to heal, and signs and wonders take place through the name of Your holy Servant Yeshua."

³¹ When they had prayed, the place where they were gathered was shaken. And they were all filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh and began to speak the word of God with boldness.

Ruach-Filled Community Life

³² Now the whole group of those who believed was one in heart and mind. No one would say anything he owned was his own, but they had everything in common. ³³ With great power the emissaries were giving witness to the resurrection of the Lord Yeshua, and abundant favor was upon them all. ³⁴ No one among them was needy, for all who were owners of lands or houses would sell them and bring the proceeds³⁵ and set them at the feet of the emissaries. And the proceeds were distributed according to the need each one had.

³⁶ Now Joseph, also called Barnabas by the emissaries (which is translated Son of Encouragement), was a Levite and native of Cyprus. ³⁷ He sold a field that he owned and brought the money and laid it at the feet of the emissaries.

Ananias and Sapphira Lie to the Ruach

5 On the other hand, a man named Ananias together with his wife, Sapphira, sold a property. ² He kept back some of the proceeds, with his wife's full knowledge, and brought part of it and set it at the feet of the emissaries.

³ But Peter said, "Ananias, why has satan filled your heart to lie to the Ruach ha-Kodesh and keep back part of the proceeds of the land? ⁴ While it remained unsold, it was your own, wasn't it? And after it was sold, wasn't it at your disposal? How did this deed get into your heart? You haven't lied to men but to God."

⁵ As soon as he heard these words, Ananias fell down and died. Great fear came upon all who heard about it. ⁶ The young men got up and wrapped him in a shroud, then carried him out and buried him.

⁷ After an interval of about three hours, his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. ⁸ Peter responded to her, "Tell me if you sold the land for this much."

She said, "Yes, for that much."

⁹ Then Peter said to her, "How did you agree to test the Ruach ADONAI? Look, the feet of those who buried your husband are at the door—they will carry you out, too!"

¹⁰ Immediately she fell down at his feet and died. When the young men came back in, they found her dead and carried her out and buried her beside her husband. ¹¹ And great fear came over the whole community and all who heard these things.

Signs and Wonders, Angelic Jailbreak, and Bold Witness

¹² Meanwhile, through the hands of the emissaries many signs and wonders were happening among the people. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico. ¹³ But no one else dared to join them, though the people continued to think highly of them. ¹⁴ Yet more than ever those trusting in the Lord were added—large numbers of men and women. ¹⁵ They even carried the sick into the streets and laid them on stretchers and cots, so that when Peter passed by at least his shadow might fall on some of them.

¹⁶ Crowds were also gathering from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing those who were sick or tormented by unclean spirits, and they were all being healed.

¹⁷ But the kohen gadol rose up, and all those with him (that is, the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy. ¹⁸ They grabbed the emissaries and put them in a public jail. ¹⁹ But during the night an angel of ADONAI opened the prison doors, and leading them out he said, ²⁰ "Go, stand in the Temple and speak to the people the whole message about this Life." ²¹ Now when they heard that, they entered the Temple at daybreak and began teaching.

When the kohen gadol and those with him arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin, even the council of elders of Bnei-Yisrael, and sent to the prison to have the prisoners brought in. ²² But when the officers came, they did not find them in the prison. So they returned and reported, ²³ saying, "We found the prison locked with maximum security and the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened up, we found no one inside."

²⁴ When the captain of the Temple and the ruling kohanim heard these words, they were perplexed about them, wondering where this would lead. ²⁵ But someone came and reported to them, "The men you put in prison are standing in the Temple and teaching the people!" ²⁶ Then the captain went off with the officers and brought the emissaries—but not with force, because they feared they might be stoned by the people.

²⁷ When they had brought them, they placed them before the Sanhedrin. The kohen gadol questioned them, ²⁸ saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name—and look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring on us the blood of this Man!"

²⁹ Peter and the emissaries replied, "We must obey God rather than men. ³⁰ The God of our fathers raised up Yeshua, whom you seized and had crucified. ³¹ This One God exalted at His right hand as Leader and Savior, ³² to give repentance to Israel and removal of sins. ³³ And we are witnesses of these events—as is the Ruach ha-Kodesh, whom God has given to those who obey Him."

³⁴ Now when they heard this, they became enraged and wanted to kill them. ³⁵ But a certain Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Torah respected by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and gave orders to put the men outside for a little while. ³⁶ Then he said to them, "Men of Israel, be careful what you are about to do with these men. ³⁷ For some time ago Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody; and a number of men, maybe four hundred, joined up with him. He was killed, and all who followed him were scattered and came to nothing. ³⁸ After this fellow, Judah the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and got people to follow him. He also perished, and all who followed him were scattered. ³⁹ So now I tell you, stay away from these men and leave them alone. For if this plan or undertaking is of men, it will come to an end;³⁹ but if it is of God, you will not be able to stop them. You might even be found fighting against God.” They took his advice,⁴⁰ called in the emissaries, flogged them, ordered them not to continue speaking in the name of Yeshua, and let them go.

⁴¹ So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were considered worthy to be dishonored on account of His name.^{†42} And every day, in the Temple and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming Yeshua as the Messiah.

Appointed for Service

6 Now in those days, when the disciples were multiplying, grumbling arose^{††} among the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily support.² So the Twelve called together the whole group of the disciples and said, “It is not right for us to neglect the word of God in order to serve tables.³ So, brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, full of the Spirit and wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this duty.⁴ But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the service of the Word.”

⁷ The word of God kept on spreading, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem greatly multiplied; even a great number of the kohanim were becoming obedient to the faith.

Stephen’s Testimony and Martyrdom

⁸ Now Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people.⁹ But some men from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen—both Cyrenians and Alexandrians, as well as some from Cilicia and Asia^{‡†}—stood up and began arguing with Stephen.¹⁰ But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Ruach by whom he was speaking.

¹¹ Then they secretly instigated men into saying, “We have heard him speaking blasphemous words against Moses and against God!”¹² They also incited the people, the elders, and the Torah scholars; and they rushed at Stephen, seized him, and led him away to the Sanhedrin.¹³ They set up false witnesses who said, “This man never stops speaking words against this holy place and the Torah.¹⁴ For we have heard him saying that this Yeshua ha-Natzrati will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us.”¹⁵ Watching him intently, everyone who was sitting in the Sanhedrin saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

7 Then the kohen gadol said, “Are these things so?”² Stephen declared, “Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran.³ He said to him, ‘Leave your country and your relatives, and come here to the land that I will show you.’⁴ Then he left the land of the Chaldeans and settled in Haran. From there, after his father died, God moved him to this land where you now live.⁵ He gave him no inheritance in it—not even a foothold—yet He promised ‘to give it to him as a possession to him and to his descendants after him,’ even though he had no child.

⁶ “But God spoke in this way, that his ‘descendants would be foreigners in a land belonging to others, and they would enslave and mistreat them for four hundred years.⁷ But I will judge the nation they serve as slaves,’ God said, ‘and afterward they shall come out and serve Me in this place.’^{‡‡}

⁸ “Then God gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision.^{‡‡‡} So he became the father of Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day, and so Isaac with Jacob, and Jacob with the twelve patriarchs.⁹ The patriarchs became jealous of Joseph and sold him into Egypt. Yet God was with him.¹⁰ He rescued him out of all his troubles and granted him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him governor over Egypt and all his household.

¹¹ “Famine and great suffering came over all Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers could find no food.¹² But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent our fathers there the first time.¹³ On the second visit, Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and his family became known to Pharaoh.¹⁴ So Joseph sent and called for Jacob and all his relatives—75 persons.¹⁵ Jacob went down to Egypt and died, he and our fathers.¹⁶ They were carried to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

¹⁷ “But as the time drew near for the promise God had sworn to Abraham, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt—¹⁸ until ‘there arose another king over Egypt who knew nothing about Joseph.’^{‡‡‡‡19} Dealing with our people with cruel cunning, this king mistreated our fathers and forced them to abandon their infants so they would not survive.

²⁰ “At this time Moses was born—extraordinary before God. For three months he was nurtured in his father’s house.²¹ And when he was set outside, Pharaoh’s daughter took him and raised him as her own son.²² Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was powerful in his words and deeds.

²³ “When he was approaching 40 years of age, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, Bnei-Yisrael.²⁴ When he saw one of them being treated unjustly, he went to the defense of the oppressed man and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian.²⁵ He was assuming that his brothers understood that by his hand God was delivering them, but they did not understand.²⁶ So on the next day he appeared to them as they were fighting. He tried to reconcile them in shalom, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?'

²⁷ "But the one doing wrong to his neighbor pushed him away, saying, 'Who appointed you ruler and judge over us?' ²⁸ You don't want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday, do you?' ²⁹ At this remark, Moses fled and became an exile in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

³⁰ "When 40 years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai in the flame of a burning bush. ³¹ When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. But when he came up to look, there came the voice of ADONAI: ³² 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob.' ^{††}

"Moses trembled in fear and did not dare to look. ³³ But ADONAI said to him, 'Take the sandals off your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground. ³⁴ I have surely seen the oppression of My people in Egypt and have heard their groaning, and I have come down to deliver them. Now come—let Me send you to Egypt.'

³⁵ "This Moses—whom they rejected, saying, 'Who appointed you as ruler and judge?'—is the one whom God sent as both ruler and redeemer, by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶ This man led them out, performing wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and at the Red Sea, and in the wilderness for 40 years. ³⁷ This is the Moses who said to Bnei-Yisrael, 'God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your brothers.' [‡]

³⁸ "This is the one who was in the community in the wilderness, with the angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers. He received living words to pass on to us. ³⁹ Our fathers did not want to be obedient to him, but shoved him aside. And in their hearts they turned back to Egypt, ⁴⁰ saying to Aaron, 'Make gods for us who will go before us. For this Moses who led us out of the land of Egypt—we have no idea what has happened to him.' ^{‡†}

⁴¹ "And they made a calf in those days, offered a sacrifice to the idol, and were rejoicing in the works of their hands. ⁴² But God turned and gave them over to serve the host of heaven, just as it is written in the book of the Prophets:

"It was not to Me that you brought sacrifices and offerings for 40 years in the wilderness, was it, O House of Israel?

⁴³ You also took up the tent of Moloch and the star of your god Rephan, the images you made to worship.

† Exod. 2:14. †† Exod. 3:6. ‡ Exod. 12:41; 33:1. †† Exod. 32:1, 23.

And I will deport you beyond Babylon.' ^{‡‡}

⁴⁴ "Our fathers had the Tent of Witness in the wilderness—just as the One speaking to Moses had directed him to make it according to the design he had seen.

⁴⁵ Our fathers received it in turn and brought it in with Joshua when they took possession of the land of the nations that God drove out before our fathers. So it remained until the days of David, ⁴⁶ who found favor in God's sight. He asked to find a dwelling place for the God ^{‡‡†} of Jacob. ⁴⁷ But Solomon built a house for Him. ⁴⁸ However, Elyon does not dwell in man-made houses. As the prophet says,

⁴⁹ "Heaven is My throne, and the earth is the footstool of My feet.

What kind of house will you build for Me, says ADONAI, or what is the place of My rest?

⁵⁰ Did not My Hand make all these things? ^{‡‡‡}

⁵¹ "O you stiff-necked people! You uncircumcised of heart and ears! You always resist the Ruach ha-Kodesh; just as your fathers did, you do as well. ⁵² Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They killed the ones who foretold the coming of the Righteous One. Now you have become His betrayers and murderers— ⁵³ you who received the Torah by direction of angels and did not keep it!"

⁵⁴ When they heard these things, they became enraged and began gnashing their teeth at him. ⁵⁵ But Stephen, full of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God—and Yeshua standing at the right hand of God. ⁵⁶ And he said, "Look, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

⁵⁷ But they covered their ears; and crying out with a loud voice, they rushed at him with one impulse. ⁵⁸ Driving him out of the city, they began stoning him, and the witnesses laid down their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹ They went on stoning Stephen as he was calling out, "Lord Yeshua, receive my spirit!" ⁶⁰ Then he fell on his knees and cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them!" After he said this, he died. [§]

Saul Persecutes Messiah's Community

8 Now Saul was in agreement with Stephen's execution. On that day a great persecution arose against Messiah's community in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the region of Judea and Samaria, except the emissaries. ² Some devout men buried Stephen and mourned deeply for him.

³ But Saul was destroying Messiah's community, entering house after house; and dragging off men and women, he was throwing them into prison.

The Good News Spreads to Samaria

⁴ Now those who had been scattered went around proclaiming the Word. ⁵ Philip went down to the main city of Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah to them. ⁶ The crowds were paying close attention to what Philip was saying—as they both heard and saw the signs that he was doing. ⁷ For unclean spirits were coming out of many who were plagued, shrieking with a loud voice. Many paralyzed and crippled were healed also. ⁸ So there was great joy in that city.

⁹ Now a man named Simon had been practicing magic in the city and astonishing the people of Samaria, saying he was someone great. ¹⁰ They all were paying special attention to him, saying, “This man is the power of God that is called ‘Great.’” ¹¹ And they kept paying attention to him, because for a long time he had astonished them with his magical arts. ¹² But when they believed Philip proclaiming the Good News about the kingdom of God and the name of Messiah Yeshua, both men and women were immersed. ¹³ Even Simon himself believed; and after being immersed, he continued with Philip. And when he saw signs and great miracles happening, he was continually amazed.

¹⁴ Now when the emissaries in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the message of God, they sent Peter and John to them. ¹⁵ They came down and prayed for them to receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ¹⁶ For He had not yet come upon them; they had only been immersed in the name of the Lord Yeshua. ¹⁷ Then they began laying their hands on them, and they were receiving the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

¹⁸ Now when Simon saw that the Ruach ha-Kodesh was given through the laying on of hands by the emissaries, he offered them money, ¹⁹ saying, “Give this power to me, too—so that anyone on whom I lay hands may receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh.”

²⁰ Peter said to him, “May your silver go to ruin, and you with it—because you thought you could buy God’s gift with money! ²¹ You have no part or share in this matter, because your heart is not right before God. ²² Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray to the Lord that, if possible, the intent of your heart may be pardoned. ²³ For I see in you the poison of bitterness and the bondage of unrighteousness!”

²⁴ Simon replied, “Pray for me, so that none of what you have said may come upon me.”

²⁵ So when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, they returned to Jerusalem, proclaiming the Good News to many Samaritan villages.

An Ethiopian Asks about Isaiah 53

²⁶ Now an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, “Get up, and go south on the road going down from Jerusalem to Gaza.” (This is a desert road.) ²⁷ So he got up and went. And behold, an Ethiopian eunuch—an official who was responsible for all the treasure of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians—had traveled to Jerusalem to worship ²⁸ and was now returning. Sitting in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah.

²⁹ The Ruach said to Philip, “Go, catch up with this chariot.”

³⁰ Philip ran up and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah and said, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

³¹ “How can I,” he said, “unless someone guides me?” So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

³² Now the passage of Scripture that he was reading was this:

“He was led as a sheep to slaughter;
and as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so He opens not His Mouth.

³³ In His humiliation justice was denied Him.
Who shall recount His generation?

For His life is taken away from the earth.” ††

³⁴ The eunuch replied to Philip, “Please tell me, who is the prophet talking about—himself or someone else?” ³⁵ Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he proclaimed the Good News about Yeshua.

³⁶ Now as they were going down the road, they came to some water. The eunuch said, “Look, water! What’s to prevent me from being immersed?”

³⁷ ††† He ordered the chariot to stop. They both got down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and Philip immersed him. ³⁹ When they came up out of the water, the Ruach ADONAI snatched Philip away. †† The eunuch saw no more of him, for he went on his way, rejoicing.

⁴⁰ But Philip found himself at Azotus. And as he passed through, he kept proclaiming the Good News to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Saul Turns from Murder to Messiah

9 Now Saul, still breathing out threats and murder against the Lord’s disciples, went to the kohen gadol. ² He requested letters of introduction from him to the synagogues in Damascus, so that if he found any men or women belonging to the Way, he might bring them as prisoners to Jerusalem.

³ As he was traveling, approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. ⁴ Falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?”

⁵ “Who are You, Lord?” Saul said.

“I am Yeshua—whom you are persecuting. ††† But get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.” †††

†† Isa. 53:7-8. † Some mss. include And he said, “If you believe with all your heart, you may.” He replied, “I believe that Yeshua the Messiah is the Son of God!” †† cf. 1 Kings 18:12. †† Some mss. add It is hard for you to kick against the goads ††† Some mss. begin So he, trembling and astonished, said, “Lord, what do You want me to do?” Then the Lord said to him, “But get up...”

⁷ The men traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one. ¹⁸ Saul got up from the ground—but opening his eyes, he could see nothing. They led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. ⁹ For three days he could not see, and he did not eat or drink.

¹⁰ Now there was a disciple named Ananias in Damascus. The Lord said to him, “Ananias.”

He said, “Here I am, Lord.”

¹¹ The Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the street named Straight, and ask in the house of Judah for someone from Tarsus named Saul. For look, he is praying; ¹² and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and laying his hands on him, so that he might regain his sight.”

¹³ But Ananias answered, “Lord, I have heard from many about this man—how much harm he has done to your kedoshim in Jerusalem. ¹⁴ And here he has authority from the ruling kohanim to tie up all who call on Your name.”

¹⁵ But the Lord said to him, “Go, for he is a choice instrument to carry My name before nations and kings and Bnei-Yisrael. ¹⁶ For I will show him how much he must suffer for My name’s sake.”

¹⁷ So Ananias left and entered into the house. Laying hands on Saul, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord—Yeshua, the One who appeared to you on the road by which you were coming—has sent me, so that you might regain your sight and be filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh.”

¹⁸ Immediately, something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was immersed; ¹⁹ and when he had taken food, he was strengthened. Now for several days, he was with the disciples in Damascus. ²⁰ Immediately he began proclaiming Yeshua in the synagogues, saying, “He is Ben-Elohim.”

²¹ All those hearing him were amazed. They were saying, “Isn’t this the one who made havoc in Jerusalem for all those who call on this name? And hasn’t he come here to bring them as prisoners before the ruling kohanim?” ²² But Saul kept growing stronger, and he was confounding the Jewish people living in Damascus by proving that Yeshua is the Messiah. ²³ When many days had passed, these Jewish people plotted to kill him— ²⁴ but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the gates day and night, to kill him. ²⁵ But the disciples took Saul by night and let him down over the wall, lowering him in a basket.

²⁶ When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he made attempts to join up with the disciples—but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. ²⁷ But Barnabas took him in and brought him to the emissaries. He described to them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road and the Lord had spoken to him, and how he had spoken boldly in the name of Yeshua.

† cf. Dan 10:7.

²⁸ So Saul was with them, going in and out in Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord.

²⁹ He was speaking and arguing with the Hellenists, but they were trying to kill him. ³⁰ When the brothers found out, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

³¹ So Messiah’s community throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had shalom and was built up. Walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, it kept multiplying.

Signs and Wonders Follow Peter

³² Peter went here and there among them all. He came down as well to the kedoshim living in Lydda.

³³ There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years—he was paralyzed.

³⁶ In Joppa, there was a disciple named Tabitha (which translates as Dorcas). She was full of mitzvot and zedakah, which she continually did. ³⁷ In those days, she became ill and died. When they had washed her for burial, they placed her in an upstairs room.

³⁸ Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples—hearing that Peter was there—sent two men to him, begging him, “Please come to us without delay!”

³⁹ So Peter got up and went with them. When he arrived, they took him to the upstairs room. All the widows were crying, showing all the tunics and other clothing Dorcas had made while she was with them. ⁴⁰ But Peter sent them all outside, and he got down on his knees and prayed. Then, turning to the body, he said “Tabitha, get up!” She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. ⁴¹ He gave her his hand and raised her up. Then he called the kedoshim and widows and presented her alive. †

⁴² It became known throughout Joppa, and many came to believe in the Lord. ⁴³ So it happened that Peter stayed on in Joppa for several days with Simon, a tanner. ‡

The Centurion’s Vision

10 Now in Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was called the Italian Cohort. ² He was a devout man, revering God with all his household. He gave zedakah generously to the people and prayed to God continually. ³ About the ninth hour of the day, †† he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming and saying to him, “Cornelius!”

⁴ He stared at him in terror and said, “What is it, Lord?”

The angel said to him, “Your prayers and tzedakah have gone up as a memorial offering before God.

⁵ Now send men to Joppa and call for Simon, also named Peter. ⁶ He is being entertained as a guest by Simon the tanner, whose house is beside the sea.”

⁷ When the angel speaking to him had left, he called two of his servants and a soldier from among those attached to his command. ⁸ After he explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter’s Vision

⁹ The next day, as the soldiers were traveling and approaching the city, Peter went up to the rooftop to pray, at about the sixth hour. ¹⁰ Now he became very hungry and wanted to eat; but while they were preparing something, he fell into a trance. ¹¹ He saw the heavens opened, and something ^{††} like a great sheet coming down, lowered by its four corners to the earth. ¹² In it were all sorts of four-footed animals and reptiles and birds of the air.

¹³ A voice came to him, “Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.”

¹⁴ But Peter said, “Certainly not, Lord! For never have I eaten anything unholy or unclean.” [‡]

¹⁵ Again a voice came to him, a second time: “What God has made clean, you must not consider unholy.”

¹⁶ This happened three times, and the sheet was immediately taken up to heaven.

²¹ Going down to the men, Peter said, “Here, I’m the one you’re looking for. What is the reason for your coming?”

²² And they said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous and God-fearing man well-spoken of by all the Jewish people, was directed by a holy angel to summon you to his house and to hear a message from you.”

²³ So Peter invited them in to be his guests. The next day he got up and went with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.

Peter Goes to Cornelius

²⁴ The following day he entered Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them and had called together his relatives and close friends. ²⁵ As Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him.

²⁶ But Peter pulled him up, saying, “Stand up! I too am just a man.”

²⁷ Talking with him, Peter went inside and found many people gathered. ²⁸ He said to them, “You yourselves know that it is not permitted for a Jewish man to associate with a non-Jew or to visit him. Yet God has shown me that I should call no one unholy or unclean. ²⁹ So I came without objection when I was sent for. I ask, then, what is the reason why you sent for me?”

³⁰ Cornelius declared, “Four days ago at this hour, I was praying minchah ^{††} in my house. Suddenly, a man stood in front of me in shining clothes. ³¹ He says, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your tzedakah remembered before God. ³² Therefore send to Joppa and ask for Simon, who is also called Peter. He is staying in the house of Simon the tanner, by the sea.’ ³³ So I sent for you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. Now then, we are all here before God to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord.”

³⁴ Then Peter opened his mouth and said, “I truly understand that God is not one to show favoritism, ^{‡‡} but in every nation the one who fears Him and does what is right is acceptable to Him. ³⁶ You know the message He sent to Bnei-Yisrael, proclaiming shalom through Messiah Yeshua—He is Lord of all.

³⁷ You know the message that has spread throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the immersion that John proclaimed. ³⁸ You know how God anointed Yeshua of Natzeret with the Ruach ha-Kodesh and power—how He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him. ³⁹ We are witnesses to all He did, both in the Judean countryside and in Jerusalem. They put Him to death by hanging Him on a tree, ⁴⁰ but God raised Him up on the third day and caused Him to be visible—⁴¹ not to all the people, but to us, witnesses who were chosen beforehand by God. We ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. ⁴² And He commanded us to proclaim to the people and to testify that He is the One ordained by God as Judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³ All the prophets testify about Him—that everyone who puts his trust in Him receives forgiveness of sins through His name.”

The Ruach Falls on the Gentiles

⁴⁴ While Peter was still speaking these words, the Ruach ha-Kodesh fell on all those hearing the message.

⁴⁵ All the circumcised believers who came with Peter were astonished, because the gift of the Ruach ha-Kodesh had been poured out even on the Gentiles.

⁴⁶ For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and magnifying God.

Then Peter answered, ⁴⁷ “Can anyone refuse water for these to be immersed, who have received the Ruach ha-Kodesh just as we did?” ⁴⁸ So he commanded them to be immersed in the name of Messiah Yeshua. Then they asked him to stay for a few days.

Peter's Report to Jerusalem

11 Now the emissaries and brothers throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. ² But when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision took issue with him, ³ saying, "You went to uncircumcised men and ate with them!"

⁴ So Peter began explaining to them point by point, saying, ⁵ "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision—something like a great sheet coming down, being lowered from heaven by its four corners, and it came right to me. ⁶ I looked inside, considering it carefully, and saw four-footed creatures of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the air. ⁷ I also heard a voice saying, 'Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.'

⁸ "But I said, 'Certainly not, Lord! For never has anything unholy or unclean entered my mouth.' ⁹ But a voice from heaven answered a second time, 'What God has made clean, you must not consider unholy.' ¹⁰ This happened three times, and then everything was pulled up to heaven.

¹¹ "At that very moment, three men arrived at the house where we were, sent to me from Caesarea.

¹² The Ruach told me to go with them without hesitating. These six brothers also went with me, and we entered the man's house. ¹³ He reported to us how he had seen an angel standing in his house and saying, 'Send to Joppa and bring Simon called Peter. ¹⁴ He will speak words to you by which you will be saved—you and all your household.'

¹⁵ "As I began to speak, the Ruach ha-Kodesh fell on them, just as on us at the beginning. ¹⁶ And I remembered the word of the Lord, how He used to say, 'John immersed with water, but you will be immersed in the Ruach ha-Kodesh.' ¹⁷ Therefore if God gave them the same gift as also to us after we put our trust in the Lord Messiah Yeshua, who was I to stand in God's way?"

¹⁸ When they heard this they became quiet, and they glorified God, saying, "Then even to the Gentiles God has granted repentance leading to life!"

Discipling in Diaspora

¹⁹ Now those scattered because of the persecution that happened in connection with Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, telling the message only to Judeans. ²⁰ However, there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch and began speaking to the Hellenists also, proclaiming the Lord Yeshua. ²¹ The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord.

²² News about these things reached the ears of the community in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to

Antioch. ²³ When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he was thrilled. He encouraged them all to remain true to the Lord with heartfelt devotion. ²⁴ For Barnabas was a good man, full of the Ruach ha-Kodesh and faith. And a large number was added to the Lord.

²⁵ Then Barnabas left for Tarsus to look for Saul, ²⁶ and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met together with Messiah's community and taught a large number. Now it was in Antioch that the disciples were first called "Christianoi." †

²⁷ Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸ One of them, named Agabus, stood up and predicted through the Ruach that there was going to be a great famine over all the world. (This took place during the reign of Claudius.) ²⁹ So the disciples decided to send relief to those brothers and sisters living in Judea, each according to his ability. ³⁰ This they did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Persecution and Deliverance

12 Now at that time Herod the king seized some from Messiah's community to do them harm. ² He had Jacob, John's brother, put to death with the sword. ³ Seeing it pleased the Judean leaders, he proceeded to capture Peter as well. This was during the Days of Matzah. ⁴ After seizing him, he put him in prison, handing him over to four squads with four soldiers each to guard him. He was intending to bring him before the people after Passover. ⁵ So Peter was kept in prison, but prayer for him was being offered fervently to God by Messiah's community.

⁶ Now that very night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping—bound with two chains between two soldiers, while guards before the gate were keeping watch over the prison. ⁷ Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell. He poked Peter on the side and woke him up, saying, "Get up! Quick!" And the chains fell off his hands. ⁸ Then the angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals," and he did so. Then he tells him, "Put on your cloak and follow me." ⁹ Peter went out and kept following him—he didn't know that what was happening with the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. ¹⁰ After they passed a first guard and a second, they came to the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them by itself. They went out and walked along a narrow street. Suddenly the angel left him.

¹¹ When Peter came to himself, he said, "Now I know for real that the Lord has sent His angel †† and delivered me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Judean people were expecting." ¹² When he realized this, he went to the house of Miriam, the mother of

John (also called Mark), where many were assembled together and praying. ¹³ When he knocked on the door of the entrance gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer. ¹⁴ Although she recognized Peter's voice, out of joy she did not open the gate but ran in and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gate. ¹⁵ They said to her, "You're crazy!" But she kept insisting it was so. But they were saying, "It is his angel."

¹⁶ But Peter kept on knocking. When they opened the gate, they saw him and were amazed! ¹⁷ But he motioned with his hand for them to be silent, and he explained to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Go tell these things to Jacob and the brothers." Then he left and went to another place.

¹⁸ When day came, there was no small commotion among the soldiers as to what had become of Peter. ¹⁹ After Herod made a search for him and did not find him, he interrogated the guards and commanded that they be led away to execution. Then he went down from Judea and stayed in Caesarea.

Herod Gets His Due

²⁰ Now it happened that Herod was furious with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they came to him, united. Having won over Blastus, the king's personal aide, they began asking for peace—because their country was supplied with food from the king's country.

²¹ On an appointed day, Herod donned his royal robes and, taking his seat upon the throne, began to make a speech to them. ²² The people were shouting, "The voice of a god and not a human!" ²³ Immediately, an angel of the Lord struck him down—because he did not give God the glory. And he was eaten by worms and died.

²⁴ But the word of God kept on growing and multiplying. ²⁵ And Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem when they had fulfilled their service, taking along John (who was also called Mark).

Sent out from Antioch

13 Now in the Antioch community, there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon called Niger, Lucius the Cyrenian, Manaen (brought up since childhood with Herod the Tetrarch), and Saul. ² While they were serving the Lord and fasting, the Ruach ha-Kodesh said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." ³ Then after fasting, praying, and laying hands on them, they sent them off.

⁴ So, sent out by the Ruach ha-Kodesh, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. ⁵ When they arrived at Salamis, they began to proclaim the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They also had John [†] as a helper.

⁶ When they had gone throughout the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a man who was a magician—a Jewish false prophet, whose name was Bar-Yeshua. ⁷ He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God. ⁸ But Elymas the magician (for so his name is translated) was opposing them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. ⁹ But Saul, who is also Paul, filled with the Ruach ha-Kodesh, fixed his gaze on him ¹⁰ and said, "O you, full of all deceit and trickery, son of the devil, enemy of all righteousness—will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord? ^{††11} Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon you, [‡] and you shall be blind and not see the sun for awhile." Immediately, cloudiness and darkness fell upon him, and he went about seeking people to lead him by the hand. ¹² When he saw what had happened, the proconsul believed, because he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

Paul's Message in Diaspora Synagogues

¹³ Setting sail from Paphos, Paul's company came to Perga in Pamphylia. John left them and returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ But they passed on from Perga and came to Antioch of Pisidia. Entering the synagogue on the Shabbat, they sat down. ¹⁵ After the reading of the Torah and the Prophets, the synagogue leaders sent to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, speak."

¹⁶ So Paul, standing up and motioning with his hand, said, "Men of Israel and God-fearers, listen. ¹⁷ The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt, ^{††} and with an outstretched arm He led them out of there. ¹⁸ For about 40 years He put up with them in the wilderness. ^{†††19} And when He had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He gave their land as an inheritance ^{†††}— ²⁰ all of this took about 450 years. After that, he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. ²¹ Then they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul, son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, for 40 years. ²² After removing him, He raised up David to be their king. He also testified about him and said, 'I have found David, the son of Jesse, a man after My heart, who will do My will.' ^{†††}

²³ "From this man's seed, in keeping with His promise, God brought to Israel a Savior [§]— Yeshua. ²⁴ Before His coming, John had proclaimed an immersion of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵ As John was completing his service, he said, 'What do you suppose me to be? I am not He. But behold, One is coming after me, whose sandal I'm not worthy to untie.'

²⁶ "Brothers, sons of the family of Abraham and those among you who are God-fearers, it is to us the message of this salvation has been sent. ²⁷ For those who live in Jerusalem and their rulers—not recognizing Him or the sayings of the Prophets that are read every Shabbat—fulfilled these words by condemning Him. ²⁸ Though they found no charge worthy of a death sentence, they asked Pilate to have Him executed. ²⁹ When they had carried out all that had been written about Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb. ³⁰ But God raised Him from the dead! ³¹ For many days He appeared to those who had come up from the Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now His witnesses to the people.

³² “And we proclaim to you Good News—the promise to the fathers has arrived! ³³ For God has fulfilled this promise to the children—to us—by raising up Yeshua, as it is also written in the second psalm:

“You are My Son.

Today I have become Your Father.’ [†]

³⁴ “But since He raised Him up from the dead, never to return to decay, He has spoken in this way, ‘I will give you the holy and sure mercies of David.’ ^{††35} Therefore He also says in another psalm, ‘You will not permit Your Holy One to see decay.’ ^{‡36} For after David had served God’s purpose in his own generation, he went to sleep and was laid with his fathers and saw decay. ³⁷ But the One whom God raised up did not see decay.

³⁸ “Therefore, let it be known to you, brothers, that through this One is proclaimed to you the removal of sins, including all those from which you could not be set right by the Torah of Moses. ³⁹ Through this One everyone who keeps trusting is made righteous.

⁴⁰ “Be careful, then, so that what is said in the Prophets may not come upon you:

⁴¹ “Look, you scoffers, be amazed and vanish away.

For I am doing a work in your days—

a work you will never believe,

even if someone tells it to you in detail.’ ^{‡‡}

⁴² As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people kept begging them to speak these things to them the next Shabbat. ⁴³ When the synagogue meeting broke up, many of the Jewish people and God-fearing inquirers followed Paul and Barnabas, who were speaking with them and trying to persuade them to continue in the grace of God.

⁴⁴ The following Shabbat, almost the entire city came together to hear the word of the Lord. ⁴⁵ When the Jewish leaders saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and tried to contradict what Paul was saying by reviling him. ⁴⁶ Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, “It was necessary for the word of God to be spoken to you first. Since you reject it and judge yourselves unfit for eternal life—behold, we turn to the Gentiles.

⁴⁷ “For so the Lord has commanded us,

‘I have placed you as a light to the nations, so that you may bring salvation to the end of the earth.’ ^{‡‡‡}

⁴⁸ When the Gentiles heard this, they were thrilled and glorified the word of the Lord; and as many as had been inscribed for eternal life believed. ^{‡‡‡}

⁴⁹ Now the word of the Lord spread throughout the whole region. ⁵⁰ But the Jewish leaders incited the God-fearing women of high standing and the leading men of the city. They stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and they drove them out of their district. ⁵¹ But Paul and Barnabas shook the dust off their feet against them, ^{‡‡‡} and they went on to Iconium. ⁵² And the disciples were filled with joy and the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

Mixed Crowds Believe amidst Persecution

14 Now in Iconium, the same thing happened—they entered as usual into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a large number of Jewish and Greek people believed. ² But the Jewish people who would not believe stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers.

³ So they stayed there a considerable time, speaking boldly in the Lord—who was testifying to the message of His grace, granting signs and wonders to come about by their hands. ⁴ But the population of the city split; some were with the Jewish leaders and some were with the emissaries. ⁵ Now it happened that an attempt was made by both the Gentiles and Jewish people, along with their rulers, to abuse and stone them. ⁶ But they found out about it and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and the surrounding countryside. ⁷ There they proclaimed the Good News.

¹¹ Now the crowd, seeing what Paul had done, lifted up their voices, saying in Lycaonian, “The gods have become like men and come down to us!” ¹² And they began calling Barnabas “Zeus” and Paul “Hermes” (because he was the main speaker).

¹³ The priest of Zeus, whose temple was before the front gate of the city, brought bulls and garlands; he wanted to offer a sacrifice with the people. ¹⁴ But when the emissaries Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their clothes and rushed out among the crowd, crying out ¹⁵ and saying, “Men, why are you doing these things? We too are human, just like you! We proclaim the Good News to you, telling you to turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them. ^{§16} In past generations He allowed all the nations to go their own ways. ¹⁷ Yet He did not leave Himself without a witness—He did good by giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with joy and gladness.” ¹⁸ Even saying these things, they barely restrained the crowd from sacrificing to them.

¹⁹ But Jewish people came from Antioch and Iconium; and after they won the crowd over and stoned Paul, they were dragging him out of the city, supposing him to be dead. ²⁰ But while the disciples surrounded him, he got up and went back into the city. On the next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe. ²¹ After proclaiming the Good News to that city and making many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. ²² They were strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in faith, and saying, “It is through many persecutions that we must enter the kingdom of God.” ²³ When they had hand-picked elders for them in every community, and prayed with fasting, they placed them in the care of the Lord—in whom they had put their trust.

²⁴ Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia. ²⁵ After speaking the message in Perga, they went down to Attalia. ²⁶ From there they sailed back to Antioch (where they had been entrusted to the gracious care of God for the work now completed). ²⁷ When they arrived and gathered together Messiah’s community, they began to report all that God had done in helping them and that He had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. ²⁸ And they stayed quite awhile with the disciples.

Jerusalem Council Rules on Circumcision

15 Now some men coming down from Judea were teaching the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved.” ² When Paul and Barnabas had a big argument and debate with them, the brothers appointed Paul and Barnabas with some others from among them to go up to Jerusalem to the emissaries and elders about this issue.

³ So they were sent on their way by the Antioch community. They were passing through both Phoenicia and Samaria, describing in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and they were bringing great joy to all the brothers and sisters. ⁴ When they arrived in Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the community and the emissaries and the elders. They reported all that God had done in helping them.

⁵ But some belonging to the party of the Pharisees who had believed stood up, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the Torah of Moses.”

⁶ The emissaries and elders were gathered together to examine this issue. ⁷ After much debate, Peter stood up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that in the early days God chose from among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the message of the Good News and believe. ⁸ And God, who knows the heart, testified to them by giving them the Ruach ha-Kodesh—just as He also did for us. ⁹ He made no distinction between us and them, purifying their hearts through faith. ¹⁰ Why then do you put God to the test by putting a yoke on the neck of the disciples—which neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?

† cf. Ps. 81:12; Mic. 4:5. †† cf. Deut. 11:14; Ps. 65:10; Ezek. 34:26; Joel 2:23.

¹¹ But instead, we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Yeshua, in the same way as they are.”

¹² Then the whole group became silent and were listening to Barnabas and Paul as they were describing in detail all the signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles. ¹³ After they finished speaking, Jacob answered, “Brothers, listen to me. ¹⁴ Simon has described how God first showed His concern by taking from the Gentiles a people for His Name. ¹⁵ The words of the Prophets agree, as it is written:

¹⁶ “After this I will return and rebuild the fallen tabernacle of David.
I will rebuild its ruins
and I will restore it,

¹⁷ so that the rest of humanity may seek the Lord—namely all the Gentiles who are called by My name—
says ADONAI,
who makes these things ¹⁸ known from of old.’ ¹⁹

¹⁹ Therefore, I judge not to trouble those from among the Gentiles who are turning to God— ²⁰ but to write to them to abstain from the contamination of idols, and from sexual immorality, and from what is strangled, and from blood. ²¹ For Moses from ancient generations has had in every city those who proclaim him, since he is read in all the synagogues every Shabbat.”

Letter to Diaspora Communities

²² Then it seemed good to the emissaries and elders, with the whole community, to choose men from among themselves to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judah (also called Barsabbas) and Silas, leading men among the brethren, ²³ and this letter along with them:

“The emissaries and the elders, your brothers,
To the Gentile brothers of Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia:
Greetings!

²⁴ “Since we have heard that some from among us have troubled you with words disturbing to your souls, ²⁵ although we gave them no such authorization, ²⁶ it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to select men to send to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul— ²⁷ men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ²⁷ We therefore have sent to you Judah and Silas, who themselves will report to you the same things by word of mouth. ²⁸ It seemed good to the Ruach ha-Kodesh and to us not to place on you any greater burden than these essentials: ²⁹ that you abstain from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality. By keeping away from these things, you will do well.

Shalom!"

³⁰ So when they were sent off, they went down to Antioch; and when they had gathered the whole group together, they delivered the letter. ³¹ The people read it and rejoiced over its encouragement. ³² Judah and Silas, prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers and sisters with a long message and strengthened them.

³³ After spending some time there, they were sent off with shalom by the brothers and sisters to those who had sent them. ³⁴ ^{†35} But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the word of the Lord with many others.

New Teams Strengthen Communities

³⁶ After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's return and visit the brothers and sisters in every city where we have proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are." ³⁷ Barnabas was planning to take along John, called Mark. ³⁸ But Paul was insisting that they shouldn't take him along—the one who had deserted them in Pamphylia, not accompanying them in the work. ³⁹ A sharp disagreement took place, so that they split off from one another. Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus. ⁴⁰ But Paul selected Silas and went out, being entrusted by the brothers and sisters to the gracious care of the Lord. ⁴¹ He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the communities.

16 Now Paul came to Derbe and Lystra. There was a disciple there named Timothy, son of a woman who was a Jewish believer and a Greek father, ² who was well-spoken of by the brothers at Lystra and Iconium. ³ Paul wanted this man to accompany him, and he took him and circumcised him for the sake of the Jewish people in those places—for they all knew that his father was Greek.

⁴ As they were traveling through the cities, they were handing down the rulings that had been decided upon by the emissaries and elders in Jerusalem, for them to keep. ⁵ So Messiah's communities were strengthened in the faith and kept increasing daily in number.

Going West to Macedonia

⁶ They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Ruach ha-Kodesh to speak the word in Asia. ^{††7} When they came to Mysia, they were trying to proceed into Bithynia, but the Ruach of Yeshua would not allow them. ⁸ So they passed by Mysia and went down to Troas.

⁹ Now a vision appeared to Paul in the night. A man from Macedonia was standing and pleading with him, saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us!" ¹⁰ As soon as he had seen the vision, immediately we tried to go to Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to proclaim the Good News to them.

¹¹ So we put out to sea from Troas and made a straight course for Samothrace, the next day on to Neapolis, ¹² and from there to Philippi—which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia as well as a Roman colony. We stayed in this city for several days.

¹³ On Yom Shabbat, we went outside the gate to the river, where we expected a place of prayer to be. We sat down and began speaking with the women who had gathered. ¹⁴ A woman named Lydia—a seller of purple cloth from the city of Thyatira, a God-fearer—was listening. The Lord opened her heart to respond to what Paul was saying.

¹⁵ When she was immersed, along with her household, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my house." And she insisted. [‡]

¹⁶ It so happened that as we were going to prayer, we met a slave girl who had a spirit of divination, who was bringing her masters much profit from her fortune-telling. ^{††17} Following after Paul and us, she kept shouting, saying, "These men are servants of El Elyon, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation."

¹⁸ She kept doing this for many days. But Paul was irritated and turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Messiah Yeshua to come out of her!" And it came out of her that very moment.

¹⁹ But when her masters saw that the hope of profit was gone, they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the authorities.

²⁰ And when they brought them to the chief authorities, they said, "These men are throwing our city into an uproar! Being Jewish, ²¹ they advocate customs which are not permitted for us to accept or practice, [‡] being Romans."

²⁴ Having received this charge, he threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks. ^{†††}

Salvation for a Jailer's Household

²⁵ But about midnight, Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶ Suddenly there was such a great earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. Immediately all the doors were unlocked, and everyone's chains came loose.

²⁷ When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors opened, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing the prisoners had escaped. ²⁸ But Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Don't harm yourself! We're all here!"

²⁹ The jailer called for lights and rushed in; and trembling with fear, he fell down before Paul and Silas.

³⁰ After he brought them out, he said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

³¹ They said, "Put your trust in the Lord Yeshua † and you will be saved—you and your household!"

³² Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him, along with everyone in his household. ³³ He took them that very hour and washed their wounds, and at once he was immersed—he and all his household. ³⁴ The jailer brought them to his house and set food before them, and he was overjoyed that he with his entire household had put their trust in God.

³⁵ When day came, the chief authorities sent their police officers, saying, "Release those men."

³⁶ But the jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The chief authorities have sent orders to release you. So come out now, and go in shalom."

³⁷ But Paul said to the officers, "They have beaten us publicly without a trial—men who are Roman citizens—and have thrown us into prison. And now they are sending us away secretly? No! Let them come themselves and lead us out!"

³⁸ The police officers reported these words to the chief authorities. They became afraid when they heard they were Romans, ³⁹ so they came and apologized to them. After they escorted them out, they kept begging them to leave the city. ⁴⁰ When Paul and Silas went out of the prison, they visited Lydia's house. And when they saw the brothers, they encouraged them and then departed.

Synagogue Responses Vary

17 After passing through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. ² As was his custom, Paul went to the Jewish people; and for three Shabbatot, he debated the Scriptures with them. ³ He opened them and gave evidence that Messiah had to suffer and rise from the dead, saying, "This Yeshua, whom I declare to you, is the Messiah." ⁴ Some of them were convinced and became attached to Paul and Silas, as were a large number of the God-fearing Greeks and no small number of the leading women.

⁵ But some of the Jewish people became jealous. Taking some wicked fellows of the marketplace and gathering a crowd, they stirred the city into an uproar. They attacked Jason's house, trying to bring Paul and Silas out to the mob. ⁶ When they did not find them, they instead began dragging Jason and some of the brethren before the city officials, shouting, "These men who have upset the world have come here too, ⁷ and Jason has welcomed them! They are all acting against the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king, Yeshua." ⁸ Hearing these things, the crowd and the city officials were confused. ⁹ But after receiving bail from Jason and the rest, they released them.

¹⁰ As soon as it was night, the brothers sent Paul and Silas to Berea. Upon arrival, they made their way to the Jewish synagogue. ¹¹ Now these were more noble-minded than those in Thessalonica, because they received the message with goodwill, searching the Scriptures each day to see whether these things were true. ¹² Therefore many of them believed, as well as quite a few prominent Greek women and men.

¹³ But when the Jewish people of Thessalonica learned that the word of God had been proclaimed by Paul in Berea, they came there too, agitating and inciting the people. ¹⁴ Then the brothers immediately sent Paul away to the sea, but Silas and Timothy remained there. ¹⁵ Those escorting Paul brought him as far as Athens. After receiving an order for Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, they left.

An Unknown God in Athens

¹⁶ Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was aroused within him when he saw that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷ So he was debating in the synagogue with the Jewish people and the God-fearers, as well as in the marketplace every day with all who happened to be there. ¹⁸ Also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were conversing with him. Some were saying, "What's this babbler trying to say?" while others, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign deities"—because he was proclaiming the Good News of Yeshua and the resurrection. ¹⁹ So they took Paul to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are talking about? ²⁰ For you are bringing some strange things to our ears, so we want to know what these things mean." ²¹ Now all the Athenians and foreigners visiting there used to pass their time doing nothing but telling or hearing something new.

²² So Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I see that in all ways you are very religious. ²³ For while I was passing through and observing the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: 'To an Unknown God.' Therefore what you worship without knowing, this I proclaim to you. ²⁴ The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, †† does not live in temples made by hands. ††²⁵ Nor is He served by human hands, as if He needed anything, †† since He Himself gives to everyone life and breath and all things. ^{†26} From one He made every nation of men to live on the face of the earth, having set appointed times and the boundaries of their territory. ^{††27} They were to search for Him, and perhaps grope around for Him and find Him. Yet He is not far from each one of us, ^{‡28} for 'In Him we live and move and have our being.'

"As some of your own poets have said, 'For we also are His offspring.' ^{‡†29} Since we are His offspring, we ought not to suppose the Deity is like gold or silver or stone, an engraved image of human art and imagination. ^{‡‡30} Although God overlooked the periods of ignorance, now He commands everyone everywhere to repent. ³¹ For He has set a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness, through a Man whom He has appointed. ^{‡‡†} He has brought forth evidence of this to all men, by raising Him from the dead." ³² Now when they heard about the resurrection of the dead, some began scoffing. But others said, "We will hear from you again about this." ³³ So Paul left from their midst. ³⁴ But some men joined with him and believed—among them Dionysius (a member of the council of the Areopagus), a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Many Respond in Corinth

18 After these things, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. ² There he found a Jewish man named Aquila—a native of Pontus having recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all Jewish people to leave Rome. Paul went to see them; ³ and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and began working, for by trade they were tent-makers. ⁴ And he was debating every Shabbat in the synagogue, trying to persuade both Jewish and Greek people.

⁵ Now when Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul became occupied with the message, urgently testifying to the Jewish people that Yeshua is the Messiah. ⁶ But when they resisted and reviled him, he shook out his garments ^{‡‡} and said, "Your blood be upon your own heads—I am clean! ⁵ From now on, I will go to the Gentiles."

⁹ Now the Lord said to Paul through a vision in the night, "Do not be afraid, but speak and do not be silent! ¹⁰ For I am with you and no one shall attack you to harm you—many people in this city are for Me."

¹¹ So he stayed a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

¹² But while Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jewish leaders made a united attack against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, ¹³ saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the Torah."

¹⁴ But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jewish people, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or a vicious crime, there would be a reason to put up with you, O Jews. ¹⁵ But since it is issues about words, names, and your own law, see to it yourselves. I do not wish to be a judge of these." ¹⁶ And he drove them from the judgment seat. ¹⁷ Then they all grabbed Sosthenes, the synagogue leader, and began beating him in front of the judgment seat. But Gallio paid no attention to these things.

Sailing East to Revisit Communities

¹⁸ Paul, having stayed many more days, said farewell to the brothers and set sail to Syria, and with him were Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchrea Paul had his hair cut off, for he was keeping a vow. ¹⁹ When they arrived at Ephesus, Paul left Priscilla and Aquila there. But he himself went into the synagogue and debated with the Jewish people. ²⁰ When they asked him to stay longer, he declined, ²¹ instead taking leave of them while saying, "God willing, I'll return to you again."

He set sail from Ephesus. ²² After landing at Caesarea, he went up and greeted Messiah's community; then he went down to Antioch. ²³ After spending some time there, he departed and went one place after another throughout the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

Discipling New Leaders

²⁴ Now a Jewish man named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was a learned man, well versed in the Scriptures. ²⁵ He had been instructed in the way of the Lord. With a fervent spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the facts about Yeshua—while only being acquainted with the immersion of John. ²⁶ This man began speaking out boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained the way of God more accurately.

²⁷ When Apollos wanted to cross over to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. Upon arrival, he greatly helped those who by grace had believed. ²⁸ For he powerfully refuted the Jewish people in public, demonstrating through the Scriptures that the Messiah was Yeshua.

19 While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul traveled through the upper region and came to Ephesus. He found some disciples ² and said to them, "Did you receive the Ruach ha-Kodesh when you believed?"

They replied to him, "No, we've never even heard that there is a Ruach ha-Kodesh."

³ He said, "Into what were you immersed?"

They said, "Into John's immersion."

⁴ Paul said, "John immersed with an immersion of repentance, telling the people that they should believe in the One coming after him—that is, in Yeshua."

⁵ When they heard this, they were immersed in the name of the Lord Yeshua. ⁶ And when Paul laid hands upon them, the Ruach ha-Kodesh came upon them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying. ⁷ In all, there were about twelve men.

God's Power Displayed in Ephesus

⁸ Paul went into the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, debating and persuading them about the kingdom of God. ⁹ But when they were hardening and refusing to believe, speaking evil of the Way before the whole group, he withdrew from them, taking the disciples with him, debating daily in the hall of Tyrannus. ¹⁰ This continued for two years, so that all the residents of Asia [†] heard the word of the Lord—Jewish as well as Greek people.

¹³ But some traveling Jewish exorcists also tried to invoke the name of the Lord Yeshua, saying, "I charge you by the Yeshua whom Paul preaches." ¹⁴ Seven sons of a Jewish ruling kohen named Sceva were doing this. ¹⁵ But the evil spirit answered them, "I know Yeshua and I know about Paul, but who are you?"

¹⁶ Then the man with the evil spirit sprang at them, subduing and overpowering all of them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. ¹⁷ This became known to all who lived in Ephesus, both Jewish and Greek people. Fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Yeshua was being magnified.

¹⁸ Many also of those who had believed came confessing and recounting their practices. ¹⁹ And many of those who practiced magic arts brought their books together in a heap, burning them before everyone. They totaled the value of the books and found it to be about 50,000 pieces of silver. ²⁰ So the word of the Lord was growing in power and prevailing.

Idol-Makers Start a Riot

²¹ Now after these things were accomplished, Paul resolved in the Ruach to go to Jerusalem after passing through Macedonia and Achaia, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome." ²² So after sending two who were assisting him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

[†] The Roman province of Asia, in the western part of Asia Minor (now part of Turkey).

²³ Around that time, there arose no small uproar concerning the Way. ²⁴ For a man named Demetrius—a silversmith, a maker of silver shrines of Artemis—was providing no small amount of business to the craftsmen. ²⁵ He gathered these together, along with those of related occupations, and he said, "Men, you know that our wealth is from this business. ²⁶ You see and hear that not only in Ephesus but also throughout all Asia, Paul has persuaded and perverted a considerable crowd, saying that handmade gods are not gods at all. ^{††27} Not only is there a danger that this trade of ours might come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis might be considered as nothing. She whom all Asia and the world worships might even be thrown down from her majesty."

²⁹ The city was filled with confusion. They rushed into the theater, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were travel companions of Paul. ³⁰ Paul was wishing to enter among the crowd, but the disciples would not let him. ³¹ Some of the chiefs of Asia, [‡] being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to surrender himself in the theater.

³² Now some cried out one thing, some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most did not know why they had come together. ³³ Some of the crowd solicited Alexander, whom the Jewish people put forward. Alexander motioned with his hand. He wished to offer a defense to the crowd. ³⁴ But recognizing that he was Jewish, for about two hours they all with one voice cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

³⁵ After the town clerk quieted the crowd, he said, "Men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great Artemis and of her image fallen from heaven?"

³⁶ Since these things are undeniable, you must be calm and do nothing reckless. ³⁷ For you have brought these men here who are neither sacrilegious nor revilers of our goddess. ³⁸ If Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a complaint against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them accuse them.

³⁹ But if you seek anything further, it will be settled in the lawful assembly. ⁴⁰ For we are in danger of being charged with rioting today, there being no reason which we are able to give to justify this mob." Upon saying this, he dismissed the assembly.

Escaping Death

20 After the uproar ended, Paul sent for the disciples; and when he had encouraged them and said farewell, he departed to go to Macedonia. ² When he had passed through these parts and given them a great word of encouragement, he came to Greece, ³ where he spent three months. When a plot was formed against him by the Jewish leaders as he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return via Macedonia. ⁴ Sopater of Berea, son of Pyrrhus, accompanied him; as well as Aristarchus and Secundus of Thessalonica; Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. ⁵ These went on ahead and were waiting for us at Troas. ⁶ But we sailed from Philippi after the Days of Matzah. In five days we came to them in Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

^{††} cf. Deut. 4:28; Isa. 44:10-20; Jer. 10:3-5. [‡] Lit. Asiarchs

⁷ Now on the first day of the week, we gathered to break bread. Paul was talking with them, intending to leave the next day, so he prolonged his speech till midnight. ⁸ There were many lamps in the upper chamber where we were meeting. ⁹ Now a young man named Eutyclus was sitting in a windowsill, sinking into a deep sleep as Paul kept on talking. Overcome by sleep, he fell from the third story and was picked up—dead.

¹⁰ But Paul went down, fell on him, and threw his arms around him. He said, "Don't be upset, for his life is within him." ^{††}

¹¹ After he went back up and broke the bread and ate, he talked with them a long while until daybreak and then left. ¹² So they took the boy away alive, greatly relieved.

Prophetic Warnings

¹³ But we went on ahead to the ship and set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there—for so he had arranged, intending himself to travel there by land. ¹⁴ When he met us at Assos, we took him on board and went to Mitylene. ¹⁵ Sailing from there, we arrived the next day opposite Chios; the next day we crossed over to Samos, and the day after that we came to Miletus. ¹⁶ For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus so that he might not spend much time in Asia, because he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible, by the day of Shavuot.

¹⁷ From Miletus, dispatching someone to Ephesus, he called for the elders of the community. ¹⁸ When they came to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know how I behaved among you all the time from the first day I set foot in Asia, ¹⁹ serving the Lord with all humility and tears and trials which fell upon me through the plots of the Jewish leaders. ²⁰ I did not shrink back from proclaiming to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly as well as from house to house, ²¹ testifying to both Jewish and Greek people repentance to God and trust in our Lord Yeshua."

²² "And now, look, bound by the Ruach, I am going to Jerusalem—not knowing what will happen to me there, ²³ except that the Ruach ha-Kodesh bears witness to me from city to city, saying that bondage and afflictions await me. ²⁴ However, I don't consider my life of any value, except that I might finish my course and the office I received from the Lord Yeshua, to declare the Good News of the grace of God.

²⁵ "Now, look! I know that none of you, among whom I have gone proclaiming the kingdom, will ever see my face again. ²⁶ Therefore, I testify to you this day that I am innocent of the blood of all. ²⁷ For I did not shrink back from declaring to you the whole purpose of God.

²⁸ "Take care of yourselves and all the flock of which the Ruach ha-Kodesh has made you overseers, to shepherd the community of God—which He obtained with the blood of His own. ²⁹ I know that after my departure, savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. ³⁰ Even from among yourselves will arise men speaking perversions, to draw the disciples away after themselves. ³¹ Therefore be alert, remembering that night and day for three years I did not stop warning you with tears.

³² "Now I commit you to God and the word of His grace, which is strong to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all who have been made holy. ³³ I coveted no one's silver or gold or clothing. ³⁴ You yourselves know that these hands of mine have provided for my own needs as well as for those with me. ³⁵ In all things I have shown you an object lesson—that by hard work one must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Yeshua, that He Himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'" ^{‡‡}

³⁶ When he had said these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. ³⁷ They all began weeping and falling upon Paul's neck and kissing him, ³⁸ grieving most of all over the statement he made that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

Going to Jerusalem despite Warnings

21 After tearing ourselves away from them and setting sail, we set a straight course to Cos, the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. ² Finding a ship crossing to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail. ³ When we came in sight of Cyprus, passing it by on the left, we kept sailing to Syria and landed at Tyre—for there the ship was to unload the cargo. ⁴ We looked up the disciples and stayed there seven days. They kept telling Paul through the Ruach not to set foot in Jerusalem.

⁵ When our days there were over, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, accompanied us until we were outside the city. After kneeling down on the shore and praying, ⁶ we said farewell to one another. Then we boarded the ship, and they returned home.

⁷ When we had finished the trip from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers and sisters and stayed with them for one day. ⁸ On the next day, we departed and came to Caesarea. We entered the home of Philip, the proclaimer of Good News, who was one of the seven, and we stayed with him. ⁹ Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied.

¹⁰ While we stayed there for a number of days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. ¹¹ He came to us, took Paul's belt, tied his own hands and feet, and said, "The Ruach ha-Kodesh says this: 'In this way shall the Jewish people in Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

¹² When we heard these things, both we and the local people urged Paul not to go up to Jerusalem.

¹³ Then Paul responded, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound but to die for the name of the Lord Yeshua!"

¹⁴ Since he would not be persuaded, we fell silent, saying only, "May the Lord's will be done."

¹⁵ After these days, we packed and started going up to Jerusalem. ¹⁶ Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing us to Mnason of Cyprus—one of the early disciples by whom we might be hosted.

Advice from Jacob and the Elders

¹⁷ When we arrived in Jerusalem, the brothers and sisters welcomed us gladly. ¹⁸ On the next day, Paul went in with us to Jacob; all the elders were present. ¹⁹ After greeting them, he reported to them in detail what God had done among the Gentiles through his service. ²⁰ And when they heard, they began glorifying God.

They said, "You see, brother, how many myriads there are among the Jewish people who have believed—and they are all zealous for the Torah. ²¹ They have been told about you—that you teach all the Jewish people among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or to walk according to the customs. ²² What's to be done then? No doubt they will hear that you have come.

²³ "So do what we tell you. We have four men who have a vow on themselves. ^{†24} Take them, and purify yourself ^{††} along with them and pay their expenses, so that they may shave their heads. That way, all will realize there is nothing to the things they have been told about you, but that you yourself walk in an orderly manner, keeping the Torah .

²⁵ "As for Gentiles who have believed, however, we have written by letter what we decided—for them to abstain from what is offered to idols, and from blood, and from what is strangled, and from immorality."

²⁶ The next day Paul took the men, purifying himself along with them. He went into the Temple, announcing when the days of purification would be completed and the sacrifice would be offered for each one of them.

Trouble at the Temple

²⁷ When the seven days were about to be completed, the Jewish leaders from Asia [‡] saw Paul in the Temple and began stirring up the whole crowd. They grabbed him, ²⁸ shouting, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who is teaching all men everywhere against our people and the Torah and this place. Besides, he has even brought Greeks into the Temple and defiled ^{‡†} this holy place!"

† cf. Num. 6:13-21. †† cf. Num. 19:17-22; Acts 24:18.

²⁹ For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, and they assumed that Paul had brought him into the Temple. ³⁰ The whole city was stirred up, and the people rushed together. They grabbed Paul and dragged him out of the Temple, and the gates were shut at once.

³¹ As they were trying to kill him, news came to the commander of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in chaos. ³² Immediately he took soldiers and centurions and rushed down to them. Upon seeing the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. ³³ Then the commander came up, arrested Paul, ordered him to be bound with two chains, and began investigating what he had done. ³⁴ Some in the crowd shouted one thing, and some another. As he could not determine the facts because of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into headquarters.

³⁵ When he came to the steps, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd.

³⁶ For the multitude of people that followed kept shouting, "Away with him!"

³⁷ As Paul was about to be brought into the headquarters, he said to the commander, "Can I say something to you?"

The commander said, "You know Greek? ³⁸ Then you're not the Egyptian who stirred up a rebellion some time ago—and led four thousand men of the Assassins out into the desert?"

³⁹ Paul said, "I am a Jewish man from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, let me speak to the people."

⁴⁰ When the commander had given him permission, Paul stood on the steps and motioned to the people with his hand. When there was a great hush, he spoke to them in Aramaic, [‡] saying:

Paul's Testimony on the Temple Stairs

22 "Brothers and fathers, listen to my defense which I now present to you." ² When they heard that Paul was addressing them in Aramaic, they became even more quiet. Then he said, ³ "I am a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, trained strictly according to the Torah of our fathers, being zealous for God just as all of you are today. ⁴ I persecuted this Way to the death, arresting both men and women and throwing them in prisons— ⁵ as the kohen gadol and all the council of elders can testify about me. I also received

‡ The Roman province of Asia, in the western part of Asia Minor (now part of Turkey); cf. Acts 24:19; 27:2. †† Lit. made common or unholy ‡‡ Lit. the Hebrew dialect letters from them to the brothers, and I went to Damascus to bring back to Jerusalem even those who were there in chains—to be punished.

⁶“But it happened that as I was traveling and drawing near to Damascus, about noon a great light from heaven suddenly flashed all around me. ⁷I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?’

⁸“I answered, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

“He said to me, ‘I am Yeshua ha-Natzrati, whom you are persecuting.’

⁹“Now those who were with me saw the light, but did not understand the voice of the One who was speaking to me. ¹⁰ So I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’

“And the Lord said to me, ‘Get up, and go to Damascus. There you will be told all that you have been appointed to do.’

¹¹“But since I could not see because of the brilliance of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me and came into Damascus. ¹² Then a certain Ananias—a devout man according to the Torah, well spoken of by all the Jewish people living there—

¹³ came to me. Standing before me, he said to me, ‘Brother Saul, look up!’ In that very moment, I looked and saw him!

¹⁴“And he said, ‘The God of our fathers handpicked you to know His will—to see the Righteous One and to hear an utterance from His mouth. ¹⁵ For you will be a witness for Him to all people of what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶ Now why are you waiting? Get up and be immersed, and wash away your sins, calling on His Name.’

¹⁷“It happened that when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the Temple, I fell into a trance; ¹⁸ and I saw Him saying to me, ‘Hurry! Get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your witness about Me.’

¹⁹“And I said, ‘Lord, they themselves know that in one synagogue after another, I was imprisoning and beating those trusting in You. ²⁰ Even when the blood of Your witness Stephen was spilled, I too was standing by and approving, and guarding the clothing of those who were killing him.’

²¹“And he said to me, ‘Go! For I will send you far away to the Gentiles.’”

²² Up to this statement they listened to him. Then they raised their voices, saying, “Away from the earth with this fellow! For he’s not fit to live!”

The Romans Intervene

²³ As they were crying out and flinging off their cloaks and throwing dust into the air, ²⁴ the commander ordered Paul to be brought into headquarters. He said Paul should be examined by lashing, so that he might find out why they were shouting against him so. ²⁵ But when they stretched him out with straps, Paul said to the centurion standing there, “Is it legal for you to scourge a man who is a Roman citizen without due process?”

²⁶ Now when the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and reported it, saying, “What are you going to do? For this man is Roman.”

²⁷ The commander came and said to him, “Tell me, are you Roman?”

And he said, “Yes.”

²⁸ The commander answered, “I bought this citizenship for a large sum.”

Paul said, “But I was born so.”

²⁹ Therefore, those who were about to interrogate him instantly drew back from him. And the commander also was afraid when he found out that Paul was a Roman and that he had bound him.

Delivered to the Council

³⁰ But on the next day, desiring to know exactly why Paul had been accused by the Judeans, he released him and commanded the ruling kohanim and all the Sanhedrin to meet together. And he brought Paul and set him before them.

23 Paul, looking intently at the Sanhedrin, said, “Brothers, I have lived my life in all good conscience for God up to this day.” ² But the kohen gadol Ananias ordered those standing by him to strike him on the mouth.

³ Then Paul said to him, “God is going to strike you on the mouth, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit judging me according to the Torah, and yet in violation of the Torah you order me to be struck?” ^{††}

⁴ Those standing nearby said, “Do you insult God’s kohen gadol?”

⁵ Paul said, “I didn’t know, brothers, that he is the kohen gadol. For it has been written, ‘You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.’” [‡]

⁶ But recognizing that one group was Sadducees and the other Pharisees, Paul began crying out in the Sanhedrin, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees! I am on trial because of the hope of the resurrection of the dead!”

⁷ When he said this, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. ⁸ For the Sadducees say there is no resurrection or angel or spirit, but the Pharisees affirm them all.

⁹ Then there was a great uproar. Some of the Torah scholars of the Pharisees’ party stood up and protested sharply, “We find nothing wrong with this man! What if a spirit or angel has spoken to him?”

¹⁰ As a big dispute was developing, the commander was afraid that Paul would be torn to pieces by them. So he ordered the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them and to bring him into headquarters.

¹¹ The following night the Lord stood beside Paul and said, “Take courage! For just as you have testified

† cf. 2 Sam. 16:13.

†† cf. Lev. 19:15; Deut. 25:2. ‡ Exod. 22:28.

about Me in Jerusalem, so you must also testify in Rome!"

Conspiracy to Kill Paul

¹² When it was day, the Judean leaders formed a conspiracy. They bound themselves by an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. ¹³ There were more than 40 who formed this plot. ¹⁴ They went to the ruling kohanim and elders and said, "We have bound ourselves with a solemn oath to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵ So now you and the Sanhedrin serve notice to the commander to bring him down to you—like you are about to investigate his case more thoroughly. But we are ready to kill him before he comes near."

¹⁶ But the son of Paul's sister heard of their ambush. He went into the headquarters and told Paul. ¹⁷ Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has a message for him."

¹⁸ So the centurion took him and led him to the commander and said, "The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, as he has something to say to you."

¹⁹ The commander took him by the hand, stepped aside, and began asking him privately, "What is it that you have to report to me?"

²⁰ And he said, "The Judean leaders have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the Sanhedrin tomorrow—as if they are about to investigate more thoroughly about him. ²¹ But do not give in to them, for more than 40 of them have bound themselves by an oath not to eat or drink until they have killed him. Even now, they are ready and waiting for your consent."

²² So the commander dismissed the young man, charging him, "Tell no one that you have informed me about these things."

Escorted to Caesarea

²³ Calling two of his centurions, he said, "At the third hour of the night, † prepare two hundred soldiers, along with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, to proceed as far as Caesarea. ²⁴ Also provide mounts for Paul to ride, so that he might be brought safely to Felix the governor."

²⁵ He wrote a letter to this effect:

²⁶ "Claudius Lysias,

To the Most Excellent Governor Felix:

Greetings!

²⁷ "This man was seized by the Judean leaders and was about to be killed by them, when I came on the scene with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he is a Roman citizen. ²⁸ Desiring to know the charge of which they were accusing him, I brought him down to their Sanhedrin. ²⁹ I found that he was accused concerning issues of their law, but charged with nothing worthy of death or imprisonment. ³⁰ When I was informed that there was a plot against the man, I sent him to you immediately, also ordering his accusers to state before you what they have against him."

³¹ So the soldiers, in keeping with their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. ³² On the next day, they returned to headquarters, leaving the horsemen to go on with him. ³³ When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul before him. ³⁴ Upon reading the letter, the governor asked what province he was from. When he learned that Paul was from Cilicia, ³⁵ he said, "I will give you a hearing when your accusers have arrived also." Then he gave orders for Paul to be guarded in Herod's Praetorium.

Defense Before Governor Felix

24 After five days, the kohen gadol Ananias came down with some of the elders and an attorney named Tertullus. They brought formal charges against Paul before the governor. ² When Paul was called in, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "We are enjoying much peace through you, and reforms are introduced for this nation because of your foresight. ³ We acknowledge this, most excellent Felix, in every way and every place with all gratitude.

⁴ "But in order that I may not weary you any longer, I beg you in your kindness to hear us briefly. ⁵ For we have found this man to be a pest, stirring up riots among all the Jewish people throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Natzratim. ⁶ He even tried to defile the Temple, but we seized him. (7) †† By examining him yourself, you will be able to learn from him all these things about which we accuse him."

⁹ The Judean leaders also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were true. ¹⁰ When the governor nodded for him to speak, Paul responded: "Knowing that you have been judge over this nation for many years, I gladly make my own defense. ¹¹ As you can verify, it is no more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship. ¹² They did not find me arguing with anyone or inciting a riot—not in the Temple or in the synagogues or anywhere else in the city. ¹³ Nor can they prove to you the charges they now bring against me.

¹⁴ "But this I confess to you, that according to the Way (which they call a sect), I worship the God of our fathers, ‡ believing everything written in the Torah and the Prophets. ¹⁵ In God I have a hope—which these men also wait for—that there will surely be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. ††

†† Some mss. add We wanted to judge him according to our own Torah. But the commander Lysias came along, and with much violence took him out of our hands, ordering his accusers to come before you ‡ cf. Exod. 3:15. †† cf. Dan. 12:2; Isa. 26:19; Ezek. 37:12-14.

¹⁶ “Therefore I do my best always to have a clear conscience before both God and men. ¹⁷ Now after several years, I came to bring tzedakah to my country for the poor and to present offerings. ¹⁸ As I was doing this, they found me in the Temple, having been purified—without any crowd or uproar. ¹⁹ But there were some Jewish people from Asia, who ought to be here before you to press charges if they have anything against me. ²⁰ Or let these men themselves tell what wrongdoing they found when I stood before the Sanhedrin— ²¹ except for this one cry I shouted out while standing among them: ‘It is about the resurrection of the dead that today I am on trial before you.’”

In Prison for Two Years

²² But Felix, having a rather extensive knowledge of the Way, put them off, saying, “When Lysias the commander comes down, I will rule on your case.” ²³ Then he gave the centurion orders for Paul to be kept in custody and yet have some freedom, and not to prevent any of his friends from attending to his needs.

²⁴ Now some days later Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish. He sent for Paul and listened to him speak about faith in Messiah Yeshua. ²⁵ But as he was arguing about righteousness, self-control, and the coming judgment, Felix became afraid and said, “Go away for now! When I find time, I will summon you.”

²⁶ At the same time too, he was hoping that money would be given to him by Paul; so he sent for him frequently and would talk with him. ²⁷ But after two years had passed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and wishing to do the Judean leaders a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.

Appeal to Caesar

25 Three days after Festus arrived in the province, he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. ² There the ruling kohanim and the leading Judeans brought charges against Paul. They were urging him, ³ asking a favor—to have Paul sent to Jerusalem, planning an ambush to kill him on the road.

⁴ Festus then answered that Paul was being guarded at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to go there shortly. ⁵ “So then,” he said, “let the prominent men among you go down with me; and if there is any wrong in the man, let them accuse him.”

⁶ After spending not more than eight to ten days with them, he went down to Caesarea. The next day, he sat on the judgment seat and ordered Paul to be brought in. ⁷ When he arrived, the Judeans who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many serious charges which they could not prove.

⁸ Paul said in his defense, “I have committed no offense against the Torah of the Jewish people, or against the Temple, or against Caesar.”

⁹ But Festus, wanting to do the Jewish leaders a favor, said to Paul, “Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem to be tried before me?”

¹⁰ But Paul said, “I am standing before Caesar’s judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Judeans, as you very well know. ¹¹ If then I am in the wrong and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not seek to escape death. But if there is nothing to their charges, no one can turn me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!”

¹² Then when Festus had consulted with the council, he responded, “You have appealed to Caesar—to Caesar you shall go!”

Festus Seeks Agrippa’s Counsel

¹⁵ When I was in Jerusalem, the ruling kohanim and elders of the Judeans brought charges against him, asking for a judgment against him. ¹⁶ I answered them that it is not Roman practice to turn over anyone before the accused meets his accusers face to face and has an opportunity to make his defense concerning the charges. ¹⁷ So when they came together here, I did not delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat and ordered the man to be brought in. ¹⁸ When the accusers stood up, they were not bringing a charge of what crimes I suspected. ¹⁹ Instead, they had certain issues with him about their own religion and about a certain Yeshua, who had died, whom Paul claimed to be alive.

²⁰ “Since I was at a loss as to how to investigate these matters, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem to be tried there in regard to them. ²¹ But when Paul appealed to be held in custody for the decision of His Majesty the Emperor, I ordered him to be held until I could send him to Caesar.”

²² Then Agrippa said to Festus, “I would like to hear the man myself.”

“Tomorrow,” he said, “you shall hear him.”

²³ So on the next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pageantry. They entered the audience hall with the commanders and the most prominent men of the city. Then at the order of Festus, Paul was brought in.

²⁴ Festus said, “King Agrippa and all present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Judean population petitioned me, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting out that he ought not live any longer. ²⁵ But I found that he had done nothing deserving of death; and when he himself appealed to His Majesty the Emperor, I decided to send him. ²⁶ Yet I have nothing specific to write to my lord about him. Therefore I have brought him before you—and especially before you, king Agrippa—so that after the investigation has taken place, I might have something to write. ²⁷ For it seems illogical to me when sending a prisoner, not to report also the charges against him.”

Defense before King Agrippa

26 Agrippa said to Paul, “It is permitted for you to speak for yourself.”

Then Paul stretched out his hand and began his defense. ²“Concerning all I am accused of by the Judean leaders, I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, that it is before you that I am about to make my defense today— ³since you are especially knowledgeable about all Jewish customs and issues. Therefore I beg you to listen patiently to me.

⁴“Now all the Jewish people have known my manner of life ever since my youth, starting from the beginning in my own nation and also in Jerusalem. ⁵They have known about me for a long time—if they were willing to testify—that according to the strictest sect of our religion, I lived as a Pharisee.

⁶“Yet now I stand here being judged for the hope in the promise made by God to our fathers. ⁷It is the promise that our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship night and day. And for this hope I am accused by Jewish people, O king! ⁸Why is it judged incredible by any of you that God raises the dead?

⁹“In fact, I myself thought it was necessary to do many things in opposition to the name of Yeshua ha-Natzrati. ¹⁰And that is what I did in Jerusalem. Not only did I lock up many of the kedoshim in prisons by the authority I received from the ruling kohanim, but I cast my vote against them when they were being condemned to death. ¹¹I tried to cause them to blaspheme by punishing them often in the synagogues. In furious rage against them, I persecuted them even in foreign cities.

¹²“While journeying to Damascus with the authority and commission of the ruling kohanim, ¹³at midday, O king, I saw on the road a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those traveling with me. ¹⁴When we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against goads!’

¹⁵“Then I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

“And the Lord said, ‘I am Yeshua—whom you are persecuting. ¹⁶But get up, and stand on your feet. † For I have appeared to you for this purpose—to appoint you as a servant and witness to the things you have seen as well as to the things I will yet reveal to you. ¹⁷I will rescue you †† from your own people, and from the Gentiles to whom I am sending you, ¹⁸to open their eyes—so they may turn from darkness to light ‡ and from the power of satan to God, that they may receive release from sins as well as a place among those who are made holy through trusting in Me.’

¹⁹“Therefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision. ²⁰Rather, I kept declaring—first to those in Damascus, and then Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also the Gentiles—that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds consistent with that repentance.

²¹“For this reason some Judeans seized me in the Temple and tried to put me to death. ²²Since I have had God’s help, to this day I have stood here testifying to both small and great. I am saying nothing but what the Prophets and Moses said was going to happen— ²³that the Messiah was to suffer and that, being first to rise from the dead, He would proclaim light both to our people and to the nations. ††”

²⁴As Paul was thus making his defense, Festus says with a loud voice, “You’re crazy, Paul! Your great learning is driving you insane!”

²⁵But Paul declares, “I am not insane, most noble Festus! Rather I am speaking the sober truth. ²⁶For the king knows about these things, and I speak freely to him, since I am convinced that none of these things escape his notice—for this was not done in a corner. ²⁷King Agrippa, do you believe the Prophets? I know that you do believe!”

²⁸Agrippa said to Paul, “In a short time you are trying to persuade me to be Messianic!” ††

²⁹And Paul said, “Whether short or long, I would pray to God that not only you, but also all who hear me today would be such as I am—except for these chains!”

³⁰Then the king stood up, as well as the governor, Bernice, and those sitting with them. ³¹When they had gone away, they began talking among themselves, saying, “This man is doing nothing deserving of death or chains.”

³²Then Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set free, if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

Sailing for Rome

27 When it was decided that we should sail for Italy, they handed Paul and some other prisoners over to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan Cohort. ²So we boarded a ship from Adramyttium, which was about to sail to the ports along the coast of Asia, and we set out to sea—accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica.

³The next day we set down at Sidon. Julius, treating Paul kindly, let him go to his friends to receive care.

⁴Setting out to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were against us.

⁵When we had sailed across the open sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came down to Myra in Lysia. ⁶There the centurion found a ship from Alexandria sailing for Italy and put us on board.

†† cf. Isa. 42:6; 49:6. †† Greek Christianos †† M'shichim

⁷ Sailing slowly for a number of days, with difficulty we made it to Cnidus. As the wind did not allow us to go further, we sailed under the shelter of Crete, off Salmone. ⁸ Coasting along it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

⁹ Since considerable time had passed and the voyage was already dangerous because the Fast [†] had already gone by, Paul kept warning them, ¹⁰ telling them, “Men, I can see that the voyage is about to end in disaster and great loss—not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives!”

¹¹ But the centurion was persuaded more by the pilot and the captain of the ship than by what was said by Paul. ¹² And because the harbor was unsuitable for wintering, the majority reached a decision to set out to sea from there—if somehow they might reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete facing northeast and southeast, and spend the winter there.

Storm and Shipwreck

¹³ When the south wind blew gently, supposing they had obtained their purpose, they raised the anchor and started coasting along the shore by Crete. ¹⁴ But before long, a hurricane-force wind called “the Northeaster” swept down from the island. ¹⁵ When the ship was caught and could not face into the wind, we gave way to it and were driven along. ¹⁶ As we ran under the shelter of a small island called Clauda, we were barely able to get control of the dinghy. ¹⁷ When the crew had hoisted it up, they made use of ropes to undergird the ship. Then fearing they might run aground on the Syrtis, ^{††} they let down the anchor and so were driven along. ¹⁸ But as we were violently battered by the storm, the next day they began throwing cargo overboard. ¹⁹ On the third day, they threw out the ship’s gear with their own hands. ²⁰ With neither sun nor stars appearing for many days, and no small storm pressing on us, all hope of our survival was vanishing.

²¹ As they had long been without food, Paul stood up in their midst and said, “Men, you should have listened to me and not sailed from Crete, to avoid this disaster and loss. ²² Yet now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you—but only of the ship. ²³ For this very night, there came to me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve. ²⁴ He said, ‘Do not fear, Paul. You must stand before Caesar; and indeed, God has granted you all who are sailing with you.’ ²⁵ So take heart, men, for I trust God that it will be exactly as I have been told. ²⁶ But we must run aground on some island.”

²⁷ Now when the 14th night had come, as we were drifting across the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors began to sense that they were nearing some land. ²⁸ So they took soundings and found the water was 20 fathoms deep. [‡] A bit farther along, they took another sounding and found it was 15 fathoms deep. ²⁹ Fearing that we might run aground on the rocks, they threw out four anchors from the stern. They were longing for day to come.

³⁰ Now the sailors were trying to escape from the ship and had lowered the dinghy into the sea, pretending they were going to put out anchors from the bow. ³¹ Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men remain on the ship, you cannot be saved!”

³² Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the dinghy and let it drift away. ³³ As day was about to dawn, Paul urged them all to take some food, saying, “Today is the 14th day that you have kept waiting and going without food, having taken nothing. ³⁴ Therefore, I urge you to take some food—for this is for your survival, since not one of you will lose a hair from his head.”

³⁵ And when he had said these things, he took bread, gave thanks to God before them all, broke it, and began to eat. ³⁶ Then all were encouraged and took some food themselves. ³⁷ (In all we were 276 persons on the ship.)

⁴² The plan of the soldiers was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would escape by swimming away. ⁴³ But the centurion, wanting to save Paul, kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those able to swim to throw themselves overboard first and get to land— ⁴⁴ and the rest to get there on boards and pieces of the ship. And in this way all were brought safely to land.

From Malta to Rome

28 Once safely ashore, we learned that the island was called Malta. ² The natives showed us unusual kindness. Because it had started raining and it was cold, they kindled a fire and welcomed us all.

³ But when Paul had gathered a bundle of brushwood and placed it on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened on his hand. ⁴ When the natives saw the snake hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, “No doubt this man is a murderer! Though he has been saved from the sea, Justice ^{‡†} has not allowed him to live.”

[†] After Yom Kippur
An area known for shallow water and shifting sandbars. [‡] 20 fathoms=120 feet; 15 fathoms=90 feet.

^{‡†} Greek Dike

⁵ However, Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no harm. ⁶ They were expecting him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead—but after they waited a long time and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds and began to say he was a god.

⁷ Now in the vicinity around that place were lands belonging to the most prominent man of the island, named Publius. He welcomed us and hosted us warmly for three days. ⁸ It so happened that the father of Publius was lying in bed sick with a fever and dysentery. Paul visited him and, when he had prayed and laid hands on him, he healed him. ⁹ After this happened, the rest of the sick on the island started coming and getting healed. ¹⁰ They also heaped honors on us; and when we sailed, they put on board all the supplies we needed.

¹¹ After three months, we set sail in a ship from Alexandria that had wintered at the island, with the Twin Brothers † as its figurehead. ¹² Setting down at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. ¹³ From there we got underway †† and reached Rhegium; and a day later a south wind came up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli. ¹⁴ There we found some brothers and sisters, and we were invited to stay with them for seven days. And in this way we came to Rome.

¹⁵ Now the brothers there, when they heard about us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and the Three Taverns to meet us. When Paul saw them, he gave thanks to God and took courage. ¹⁶ When we entered Rome, Paul was permitted to remain in his own quarters, with a soldier guarding him.

Paul Keeps Spreading the Good News

¹⁷ It happened that after three days, Paul called together those who were the prominent Jewish leaders. When they had gathered he said to them, “Brothers, although I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. ¹⁸ When they examined me, they wanted to release me because there was no basis for the death penalty. ¹⁹ But when the Judean leaders protested, I was forced to appeal to Caesar—not that I had any charge to bring against my own nation. ²⁰ For this reason, therefore, I have requested to see you and to speak with you—since it is for the hope of Israel that I am bearing this chain.”

²¹ They said to him, “We have received no letters from Judea about you, and none of the brothers coming here has reported or spoken any evil about you.

²³ They set a day to meet Paul and came to him at his quarters in large numbers. From morning until evening he was explaining everything to them, testifying about the kingdom of God and trying to persuade them about Yeshua from both the Torah of Moses and the Prophets. ²⁴ Some were convinced by what he said, while others refused to believe. ²⁵ So when they disagreed among themselves, they began leaving after Paul had said one last statement: “The Ruach ha-Kodesh rightly spoke through Isaiah the prophet to your fathers, ²⁶ saying,

“Go to this people and say,

“You will keep on hearing but will never understand; you will keep looking, but will never see.

²⁷ For the heart of this people has become dull, their ears can barely hear, and they have shut their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts.

Then they would turn back, and I would heal them.” ‡

²⁸ “Therefore, let it be known to you that this salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles, and they will listen!” ²⁹ ††

³⁰ Paul remained two whole years in his own rented quarters and continued to welcome all who came to him— ³¹ proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Yeshua the Messiah with all boldness and without hindrance.

Romans

Introduction

Romans is considered in many ways to be Paul's greatest letter. In it, Paul outlines his theology in broad, majestic terms while also giving attention to practical matters. We can date Romans with some confidence to the winter of 56-57 C.E., written at the end of Paul's third journey, possibly from Corinth (see 1 Cor. 16:6). Uniquely among New Covenant communities, the Roman community seems to have begun independently of the emissaries, perhaps by Jewish people from Rome who had visited Jerusalem during the of Acts 2 and come to faith there. The Roman historian Suetonius and Acts 18:2 both tell us that there were disturbances in Rome over the proclamation of , and in 49 C.E. the emperor Claudius expelled the Jewish leaders, making little distinction between 's followers and others—thus Priscilla and Aquila came from Rome to Corinth, where they met Paul. By the time Jewish leaders could return about a decade later, two things would have happened: first, the Gentile component of the Messianic communities would have grown considerably; and second, the broader Jewish community would have resented the believers whose "caused" the expulsion. By the time Paul writes, we are dealing with a community with growing tensions: between Gentile and Jewish believers, between Messianic communities and the larger Jewish community, and between believers and the secular society. Paul's audience then is a mixed group of Jewish and Gentile believers, with the latter probably in the majority.

From chapter 15, we learn that Paul will soon be heading to Jerusalem to bring an offering from the Gentile believers. Then it will be on to Spain via Rome in order to continue spreading the Good News there with the support of the community in Rome. Each travel plan underscores an important emphasis in Paul's letter to the Romans. First is the nature of the Good News and its proclamation (1:16-17), which develops into a full discussion of sin, the way to salvation through faith in , the place of the in Messiah's community, and life in the Spirit. Second is the relationship of Jewish and Gentile people living in community and issues regarding those with strong and weak convictions. In matters both theological and practical, the letter provides important instruction for unity within this mixed community. Relating to God and to community—these are two timeless emphases of Paul in all his writings!

Introducing Paul and His Message

¹ Paul, a slave of Messiah Yeshua, called to be an emissary and set apart for the Good News of God, ² which He announced beforehand through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures.

³ Concerning His Son, He came into being from the seed of David according to the flesh.

⁴ He was appointed Ben-Elohim in power

according to the Ruach of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead.

He is Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

⁵ Through Him we have received grace and the office of emissary, to bring about obedience of faith among all the nations on behalf of His name. ⁶ And you also are called to Yeshua the Messiah.

⁷ To all those in Rome, loved by God, called to be kedoshim:

Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

Eager to Visit

⁸ First, I thank my God through Messiah Yeshua for all of you, because your faithfulness is made known throughout the whole world. ⁹ For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the Good News of His Son. How unceasingly I make mention of you, ¹⁰ always pleading in my prayers, if somehow by God's will now at last I will be granted a good journey to come to you. ¹¹ For I long to see you, so I may share with you some spiritual gift to strengthen you. ¹² That is to say, we would be encouraged together by one another's faithfulness—both yours and mine.

¹³ I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, [†] that many times I planned to come to you (though I was prevented until now)—so I might have some fruit among you also, just as I have among the rest of the nations. ¹⁴ I have an obligation to both Greeks and barbarians, to both the wise and the foolish. ¹⁵ So I am eager to proclaim the Good News also to you who are in Rome.

[†] Lit. brothers

The Righteous Shall Live by Faith

¹⁶ For I am not ashamed of the Good News, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who trusts—to the Jew first and also to the Greek. ¹⁷ In it the righteousness of God is revealed, from trust to trust. ^{††} As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by emunah." [‡]

Yet All Are Guilty

²⁴ Therefore God gave them over in the evil desires of their hearts to impurity, to dishonor their bodies with one another. ²⁵ They traded the truth of God for a lie and worshiped and served the creation rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen. ²⁶ For this reason God gave them up to shameful passions. Even their women exchanged natural relations for what is against nature. ²⁷ Likewise the men abandoned natural relations with women and were burning with passion toward one another—men committing shameful acts with other men ^{‡‡‡} and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

²⁸ And just as they did not see fit to recognize God, God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what is not fitting. ²⁹ They became filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, evil. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice. They are gossips, ³⁰ slanderers, God-haters, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents. ³¹ They are foolish,

^{††} Or from trusting-faith to trusting-faith [‡] Greek pistis

^{‡†} cf. Ps. 19:1-6; Jer. 5:21-22. ^{‡‡} cf. 2 Kings 17:15; Isa. 59:1-15; Jer. 2:5; Ps. 14:1-3. ^{‡‡‡} cf. Deut. 4:16-18. ‡‡‡ cf. Lev. 18:22; 20:13.

faithless, heartless, ruthless.³² Though they know God's righteous decree—that those who practice such things deserve death—they not only do them but also approve of others who practice the same.

God's Judgment on Unrighteousness

2 Therefore you are without excuse, O man—every one of you who is judging. For by whatever you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things.¹² We know that God's judgment on those who practice such things is based on truth.³ But you, O man—judging those practicing such things yet doing the same—do you suppose that you will escape the judgment of God?⁴ Or do you belittle the riches of His kindness and tolerance and patience—not realizing that God's kindness leads you to repentance?

⁵ But by your hard and unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment is revealed.¹⁶ He will pay back each person according to his deeds.¹⁷ To those who by perseverance in doing good are seeking glory, honor, and immortality—eternal life.⁸ But to those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness—wrath and fury.⁹ There will be trouble and hardship for every human soul that does evil—to the Jew first and also to the Greek.¹⁰ But there will be glory, honor, and shalom to everyone who does good—to the Jew first and also to the Greek.¹¹ For there is no partiality with God.¹¹

¹² For all who have sinned outside of Torah will also perish outside of Torah, and all who have sinned according to Torah will be judged by Torah.¹³ For it is not the hearers of Torah who are righteous before God; rather, it is the doers of Torah who will be justified.¹⁴ For when Gentiles, who do not have the Torah, do by nature the things of the Torah, they are a law to themselves even though they do not have the Torah.¹⁵ They show that the work of the Torah is written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness and their thoughts switching between accusing or defending them¹⁶ on the day when God judges the secrets of men according to my Good News through Messiah Yeshua.

Jewish People Fall Short Too

¹⁷ But if you call yourself Jewish and rely upon the Torah and boast in God¹⁸ and know His will and determine what matters because you are instructed from the Torah—¹⁹ and you are sure that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,²⁰ a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of the immature, having in the Torah the embodiment of knowledge and the truth—

† cf. 2 Sam. 12:5-7; Matt. 7:1-2. †† cf. Deut. 32:34-35. ‡ cf. Ps. 62:12; Prov. 24:12; Matt. 16:27; 2 Cor. 5:10; Col. 3:25; 2 Tim. 4:14; 1 Pet. 1:17; Rev. 2:23. †† cf. Deut. 10:17.

You who preach not to steal, do you steal?

²² You who say not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery?

²³ You who take pride in the Torah, through your violation of the Torah, do you dishonor God?

²⁴ For as it is written, "the name of God is slandered among the nations because of you."¹¹

²⁵ Circumcision is indeed worthwhile if you keep the Torah; but if you break the Torah, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.¹¹²⁶ Therefore, if the uncircumcised keeps the righteous decrees of the Torah, will not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision?¹¹²⁷ Indeed, the one not circumcised physically who fulfills the Torah will judge you⁵ who—even with the written code^{5†} and circumcision—break the Torah.

²⁸ For one is not a Jew who is one outwardly, nor is circumcision something visible in the flesh.²⁹ Rather, the Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is of the heart—in Spirit, not in letter. His praise is not from men, but from God.^{5††}

No One Is Acceptable

3 Then what is the advantage of being Jewish? Or what is the benefit of circumcision?² Much in every way. First of all, they were entrusted with the sayings of God.³ So what if some did not trust? Will their lack of faith nullify God's faithfulness?⁴ May it never be! Let God be true even if every man is a liar, as it is written,

"that You may be righteous in Your words and prevail when You are judged."^{5†}

⁵ But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? God is not unrighteous to inflict wrath, is He? (I am speaking in human terms.)⁶ May it never be! For otherwise, how will God judge the world?⁷ But if by my lie the truth of God abounds to His glory, why am I still judged as a sinner?⁸ And why not say, "Let us do evil, so that good may come"—just as we are being slandered and as some claim that we say. Their condemnation is deserved!

⁹ What then? Are we better than they? No, not at all.^{5††} For we have already made the case that all—both Jewish and Greek people—are under sin.¹⁰ As it is written,

"There is no one righteous—no, not one.

¹¹ There is no one who understands, no one who seeks after God.

¹² All have turned aside; together they have become worthless.

†† Isa. 52:5b(LXX). ††† cf. Jer. 9:24-26. ††† cf. Deut. 10:16; 30:6; Jer. 4:4. § cf. Matt. 12:41-42; 19:28; Luke 11:31; 22:30. §† Lit. letter §†† cf. Gen. 29:35; 49:8. §‡ Ps. 51:4b(50:6b LXX). §†† Or possibly What then do we hold before ourselves as a defense?

There is no one who does good—no, not even one!
¹³ Their throat is an open grave;
 with their tongues they keep deceiving.
 The poison of vipers is under their lips.
¹⁴ Their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.
¹⁵ Their feet are swift to shed blood.
¹⁶ Ruin and misery are in their paths,
¹⁷ and the way of shalom they have not known.
¹⁸ There is no fear of God before their eyes.” †
¹⁹ Now we know that whatever the Torah says, it says to those within the Torah, so that every mouth may be shut and the whole world may become accountable to God. ²⁰ For no human, on the basis of Torah observance, will be set right in His sight ††—for through the Torah comes awareness of sin.

How God Accepts Us

²¹ But now God’s righteousness apart from the Torah has been revealed, to which the Torah and the Prophets bear witness— ²² namely, the righteousness of God through putting trust in Messiah Yeshua, ‡ to all who keep on trusting. For there is no distinction, ²³ for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.
²⁴ They are set right as a gift of His grace, through the redemption that is in Messiah Yeshua. ‡²⁵ God set forth Yeshua as an atonement, ‡‡ through faith in His blood, to show His righteousness in passing over sins already committed. ²⁶ Through God’s forbearance, He demonstrates His righteousness at the present time—that He Himself is just and also the justifier of the one who puts his trust in Yeshua. ‡‡

²⁷ Where, then, is boasting? It is excluded. By what principle? Of works? No, but by the principle of faith.
 ‡‡²⁸ For we consider a person to be set right apart from Torah observance. ²⁹ Is God the God of the Jewish people only? Is He not also the God of the Gentiles?
 Yes, of the Gentiles also. ³⁰ Since God is One, He will set right the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. ³¹ Do we then nullify the Torah through faithfulness? May it never be! On the contrary, we uphold the Torah.

Abraham Set Right by Faith

4 What then shall we say that Abraham, our forefa-ther according to the flesh, has found? ² For if Abraham was set right by works, he has something to boast about—but not before God. ³ For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness.” §⁴ Now to the one who works, the pay is not credited as a gift, but as what is due. ⁵ But to the one who does not work, but trusts in Him who justifies the ungodly, his trust is credited as righteousness—⁶ just as David also speaks of the blessing on the man to whom God credits righteousness apart from works:

⁷ “Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven and whose sins are covered.

⁸ Blessed is the man whose sin ADONAI will never count against him.” §†

⁹ Is this blessing then only on the circumcised, or also on the uncircumcised? For we say, “trust was credited to Abraham as righteousness.” §††

¹⁰ In what state then was it credited? While circumcised, or uncircumcised? Not while circumcised, but while uncircumcised! ¹¹ And he received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness of the trust he had while he was uncircumcised, so he might be the father of all who are trusting while uncircumcised—that righteousness might be credited to them as well. ¹² Also he is the father of the circumcised, to those not only circumcised but also walking in the footsteps of the trust of our father Abraham before his circumcision. §‡

Trusting in the Promise

¹³ For the promise to Abraham or to his seed—to become heir of the world—was not through law, but through the righteousness based on trust. ¹⁴ For if those who are of the Torah are heirs, trust has become empty and the promise is made ineffective. ¹⁵ For the Torah brings about wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there a violation.

¹⁶ For this reason it depends on trust, so that the promise according to grace might be guaranteed to all the offspring—not only to those of the Torah but also to those of the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all ¹⁷ (as it is written, “I have made you a father of many nations” §††). He is our father in the sight of God in whom he trusted, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence that which does not exist. ¹⁸ In hope beyond hope, he trusted that he would become the father of many nations according to what was spoken—“So shall your descendants be.” §†¹⁹ And without becoming weak in faith, he considered his own body—as good as dead, since he was already a hundred years old—and the deadness of Sarah’s womb.
²⁰ Yet he did not waver in unbelief concerning the promise of God. Rather, he was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God. ²¹ He was fully convinced that what God has promised, He also is able to do. §‡²² That is why “it was credited to him as righteousness.” §††

²³ Now not only for his sake was it written that it was credited to him, ²⁴ but for our sake as well. It is credited to us as those who trust in Him who raised Yeshua our Lord from the dead. ²⁵ He was handed over for our transgressions and raised up for the sake of setting us right. §§†

Shalom with God through Messiah

5 Therefore, having been made righteous by trusting, we have shalom with God through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ¹² Through Him we also have gained access by faith into this grace in which we stand and boast in the hope of God's glory. ³ And not only that, but we also boast in suffering—knowing that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴ and perseverance, character; and character, hope. ⁵ And hope does not disappoint, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Ruach ha-Kodesh who was given to us.

⁶ For while we were still helpless, at the right time Messiah died for the ungodly. ⁷ For rarely will anyone die for a righteous man—though perhaps for a good man someone might even dare to die. ⁸ But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Messiah died for us. ⁹ How much more then, having now been set right by His blood, shall we be saved from God's wrath through Him. ¹⁰ For if, while we were yet enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved by His life. ¹¹ And not only that, but we also boast in God through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

¹² So then, just as sin came into the world through one man and death through sin, in the same way death spread to all men because all sinned. ¹³ For up until the Torah, sin was in the world; but sin does not count as sin when there is no law. ¹⁴ Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned in a manner similar to the violation of Adam, who is a pattern of the One to come.

¹⁸ So then, through the transgression of one, condemnation came to all men; likewise, through the righteousness of one came righteousness of life to all men. ¹⁹ For just as through the disobedience of one man, many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of one Man, many will be set right forever. ^{‡†}

²⁰ Now the Torah came in so that transgression might increase. But where sin increased, grace overflowed even more— ²¹ so that just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness, to eternal life through Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

Who Is Your Master?

6 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin so that grace may abound? ² May it never be! How can we who died to sin still live in it? ³ Or do you not know that all of us who were immersed into Messiah Yeshua were immersed into His death? ⁴ Therefore we were buried together with Him through immersion into death—in order that just as Messiah was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

⁵ For if we have become joined together in the likeness of His death, certainly we also will be joined together in His resurrection— ⁶ knowing our old man was crucified with Him so that the sinful body might be done away with, so we no longer serve sin. ⁷ For he who has died is set free from sin.

⁸ Now if we have died with Messiah, we believe that we shall also live with Him. ⁹ We know that Messiah, having been raised from the dead, no longer dies; death no longer is master over Him. ¹⁰ For the death He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life He lives, He lives to God. ¹¹ So also continually count yourselves both dead to sin and alive to God in Messiah Yeshua.

¹² Therefore do not let sin rule in your mortal body so that you obey its desires. ¹³ And do not keep yielding your body parts to sin as tools of wickedness; but yield yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your body parts as tools of righteousness to God. ¹⁴ For sin shall not be master over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

¹⁵ What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? May it never be! ¹⁶ Do you not know that to whatever you yield yourselves as slaves for obedience, you are slaves to what you obey—whether to sin resulting in death, or to obedience resulting in righteousness? ¹⁷ But thanks be to God that though you were slaves of sin, you wholeheartedly obeyed the form of teaching under which you were placed; ¹⁸ and after you were set free from sin, you became enslaved to righteousness.

¹⁹ I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you yielded your body parts as slaves to uncleanness and lawlessness, leading to more lawlessness, so now yield your body parts as slaves to righteousness, resulting in holiness. ²⁰ For when you were slaves of sin, you were free with regard to righteousness. ²¹ So then, what outcome did † cf. Isa. 54:17. †† Lit. judgment from one to condemnation ... gift from many trespasses to acquittal ‡ cf. Gen. 2:17; 3:6, 19.

‡† Lit. made righteous

you have that you are now ashamed of? For the end of those things is death. ²² But now, having been set free from sin and having become enslaved to God, you have your fruit resulting in holiness. And the outcome is eternal life. ²³ For sin's payment [†] is death, but God's gracious gift is eternal life in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

Two Laws at War

7 Or do you not know, brothers and sisters (for I speak to those who know law), that the law is master over a person as long as he lives? ² For the married woman is bound by law to her husband while he lives; but if the husband dies, she is released from the law concerning the husband. ³ So then, if she is joined to another man while her husband is living, she will be called an adulteress. But if her husband dies, she is free from the law—so she is not an adulteress, though she is joined to another man.

⁴ Therefore, my brothers and sisters, you also were made dead to the Torah through the body of Messiah, so that you might be joined to another—the One who was raised from the dead—in order that we might bear fruit for God. ⁵ For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions that came through the Torah were working in our body parts to bear fruit for death. ⁶ But now we have been released from the law, having died to what confined us, so that we serve in the new way of the Ruach and not in the old way of the letter.

⁷ What shall we say then? Is the Torah sin? May it never be! On the contrary, I would not have known sin except through the Torah. For I would not have known about coveting if the Torah had not said, "You shall not covet." ^{††8} But sin, taking an opportunity, worked in me through the commandment all kinds of coveting. For apart from the Torah, sin is dead.

⁹ Once I was alive apart from the Torah; but when the commandment came, sin came to life ¹⁰ and I died. The commandment meant for life was found to cause death. ^{††11} Sin, taking an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. ^{††12} So then, the Torah is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

¹³ Therefore did that which is good become death to me? May it never be! Rather it was sin working death in me—through that which is good—so that sin might be shown to be sin, and that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful. ¹⁴ For we know that the Torah is spiritual; but I am of the flesh, sold to sin. ¹⁵ For I do not understand what I am doing—for what I do not want, this I practice; but what I hate, this I do. ¹⁶ But if I do what I do not want to do, then I agree with the Torah—that it is good.

¹⁷ So now it is no longer I doing it, but sin dwelling in me. ¹⁸ For I know that nothing good dwells in me—that is, in my flesh. For to will is present in me, but to do the good is not. ¹⁹ For the good that I want, I do not do; but the evil that I do not want, this I practice. ²⁰ But if I do what I do not want, it is no longer I doing it, but sin that dwells in me.

²¹ So I find the principle—that evil is present in me, the one who wants to do good. ²² For I delight in the Torah of God with respect to the inner man, ²³ but I see a different law in my body parts, battling against the law of my mind and bringing me into bondage under the law of sin which is in my body parts. ²⁴ Miserable man that I am! Who will rescue me from this body of death? ²⁵ Thanks be to God—it is through Messiah Yeshua our Lord! ^{‡‡} So then, with my mind I myself serve the Torah of God; but with my flesh, I serve the law of sin.

Life in the Ruach

8 Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Messiah Yeshua. ² For the law of the Spirit of life in Messiah Yeshua has set you free from the law of sin and death. ³ For what was impossible for the Torah—since it was weakened on account of the flesh—God has done. Sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and as a sin offering, He condemned sin in the flesh—⁴ so that the requirement of the Torah might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Ruach.

⁹ However, you are not in the flesh but in the Ruach—if indeed the Ruach Elohim dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Ruach of Messiah, he does not belong to Him. ¹⁰ But if Messiah is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the Spirit is alive because of righteousness. ¹¹ And if the Ruach of the One who raised Yeshua from the dead dwells in you, the One who raised Messiah Yeshua from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Ruach who dwells in you.

¹² So then, brothers and sisters, we do not owe anything to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. ¹³ For if you live according to the flesh, you must die; but if by the Ruach you put to death the deeds of the body, you shall live. ¹⁴ For all who are led by the Ruach Elohim, these are sons of God. ¹⁵ For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall again into fear; rather, you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" ¹⁶ The Ruach Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God. ^{‡‡17} And if children, also heirs—heirs of God and joint-heirs with Messiah—if indeed we suffer with Him so that we may also be glorified with Him.

The Coming Glory

¹⁸ For I consider the sufferings of this present time not worthy to be compared with the coming glory to be revealed to us. ¹⁹ For the creation eagerly awaits the revelation of the sons of God. ²⁰ For the creation was subjected to futility [†]—not willingly but because of the One who subjected it ^{††}—in hope ²¹ that the creation itself also will be set free from bondage to decay into the glorious freedom of the children of God. ²² For we know that the whole creation groans together and suffers birth pains until now—²³ and not only creation, but even ourselves. We ourselves, who have the firstfruits [‡] of the Ruach, groan inwardly as we eagerly wait for adoption—the redemption of our body.

²⁴ For in hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? ²⁵ But if we hope for what we do not see, then we eagerly wait for it with perseverance. ²⁶ In the same way, the Ruach helps in our weakness. For we do not know how to pray as we should, but the Ruach Himself intercedes for us with groans too deep for words. ²⁷ And He who searches the hearts ^{††} knows the mind of the Ruach, because He intercedes for the kedoshim according to the will of God.

²⁸ Now we know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to His purpose. ²⁹ For those whom He foreknew He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, so that He might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. ³⁰ And those whom He predestined, He also called; and those whom He called, He also justified; and those whom He justified, He also glorified.

³¹ What then shall we say in view of these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? ^{‡‡32} He who did not spare His own Son but gave Him up for us all, how shall He not also with Him freely give us all things?

³³ Who shall bring a charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. ^{‡‡‡34} Who is the one who condemns? It is Messiah, ^{‡‡‡} who died, and moreover was raised, [§] and is now at the right hand of God and who also intercedes for us. ³⁵ Who shall separate us from the love of Messiah? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?

³⁶ As it is written,

“For Your sake we are being put to death all day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.” ^{§†}

³⁷ But in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. ³⁸ For I am convinced that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹ nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

The Role of Israel

9 I tell the truth in Messiah—I do not lie, my conscience assuring me in the Ruach ha-Kodesh—² that my sorrow is great and the anguish in my heart unending. ³ For I would pray that I myself were cursed, banished from Messiah for the sake of my people—my own flesh and blood, ^{§††4} who are Israelites. To them belong the adoption, ^{§‡} and the glory, ^{§††} and the covenants, and the giving of the Torah, ^{§†} and the Temple service, ^{§‡} and the promises. ⁵ To them belong the patriarchs—and from them, according to the flesh, the Messiah, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.

⁶ But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all those who are descended from Israel are Israel, ⁷ nor are they all children because they are Abraham's seed; rather, “Your seed shall be called through Isaac.” ^{§§†8} That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God; rather, the children of the promise are counted as seed. ⁹ For the word of promise is this: “At this time I will come, and Sarah shall have a son.” ^{§§†10} And not only this, but also Rebecca having twins, from one act with our father Isaac. ¹¹ Yet before the sons were even born and had not done anything good or bad—so that God's purpose and choice might stand not because of works but because of Him who calls—¹² it was said to her, “The older shall serve the younger.” ^{§§§13} As it is written, “Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.” ¹⁸

¹⁴ What shall we say then? There is no injustice with God, is there? May it never be! ¹⁵ For to Moses He says, “I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.” ¹⁹

¹⁶ So then it does not depend on the one who wills or the one who strives, but on God who shows mercy. ¹⁷ For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, “For this very purpose I raised you up—to demonstrate My power in you, so My name might be proclaimed in all the earth.” ²⁰¹⁸ So then He has mercy on whom He wills, and He hardens whom He wills.

¹⁹ You will say to me then, “Why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His will?” ²⁰ But who in the world are you, O man, who talks back to God? Will what is formed say to the one who formed it, “Why did you make me like this?” ²¹²¹ Does the potter have no right over the clay, to make from the same lump one vessel for honor and another for common use? ²² Now what if God, willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath designed for destruction? ²³ And what if He did so to make known the riches of His glory on vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory?

²⁴ Even us He called—not only from the Jewish people, but also from the Gentiles— ²⁵ as He says also in Hosea,

“I will call those who were not My people,
‘My people,’
and her who was not loved, ‘Beloved.’

²⁶ And it shall be that in the place where it was said to them,

‘You are not My people,’ there they shall be called sons of the living God.” [†]

²⁷ Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, “Though the number of Bnei-Yisrael be as the sand of the sea, only the remnant shall be saved.

²⁸ For ADONAI will carry out His word upon the earth, bringing it to an end and finishing quickly.” ^{††}

²⁹ And just as Isaiah foretold, “Unless ADONAI -Tzva’ot had left us seed,
we would have become like Sodom and resembled Gomorrah.” [‡]

³⁰ What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, attained righteousness—that is, a righteousness of faith. ³¹ But Israel, who pursued a Torah of righteousness, did not reach the Torah.

³² Why? Because they pursued it not by faith, but as if it were from works. They stumbled over the stone of stumbling, ³³ just as it is written,

“Behold, I lay in Zion
a stone of stumbling
and a rock of offense,
and whoever believes in Him shall not be put to shame.” ^{‡†}

Misdirected Zeal

10 Brothers and sisters, my heart’s desire and my prayer to God for Israel is for their salvation.

² For I testify about them that they have zeal for God—but not based on knowledge. ³ For being ignorant of God’s righteousness and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit themselves to the righteousness of God. ⁴ For Messiah is the goal [‡] of the Torah as a means to righteousness for everyone who keeps trusting.

⁵ For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on Torah, “The man who does these things shall live by them.” ^{‡††6} But the righteousness based on faith speaks in this way:

“Do not say in your heart, ^{‡‡}
‘Who will go up into heaven?’ [§]

(that is, to bring Messiah down),
⁷ or, ‘Who will go down into the abyss?’ ^{§†}
(that is, to bring Messiah up from the dead).”

⁸ But what does it say?

“The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart,” ^{§††}
—that is, the word of faith that we are proclaiming:

⁹ “For if you confess with your mouth that Yeshua is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved.

¹⁰ For with the heart it is believed for righteousness, and with the mouth it is confessed for salvation.”

¹¹ For the Scripture says, “Whoever trusts in Him will not be put to shame.” ^{§††12} For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord is Lord of all—richly generous to all who call on Him. ¹³ For “Everyone who calls upon the name of ADONAI shall be saved.” ^{§††}

¹⁴ How then shall they call on the One in whom they have not trusted? And how shall they trust in the One they have not heard of? And how shall they hear without someone proclaiming? ¹⁵ And how shall they proclaim unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim good news of good things!” ^{§††16} But not all heeded the Good News. For Isaiah says, “ADONAI, who has believed our report?” ^{§††17} So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Messiah.

¹⁸ But I say, have they never heard? Indeed they have, for “Their voice has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.” ^{§§†}

¹⁹ But I say, did Israel not understand? First Moses says,

“I will provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a nation, with a nation empty of understanding
I will vex you.” ^{§§†}

²⁰ And Isaiah is so bold as to say,

“I was found by those who did not seek Me;
I became visible to those who did not ask for Me.” ^{§§§}

²¹ But about Israel He says,
“All day long I stretched forth My hands to a disobedient and contrary people.” ¹⁸

Israel Not Rejected

11 I say then, God has not rejected His people, has He? ¹⁹ May it never be! For I too am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

² God has not rejected His people whom He knew beforehand. ²⁰ Or do you not know what the Scripture says about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel? ³ “ADONAI, they have killed your prophets, they have destroyed your altars; I alone am left, and they are seeking my life.” ¹⁴ But what is the divine response to him? “I have kept for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal.” ¹⁵ So in the same way also at this present time there has come to be a remnant [‡] according to God’s gracious choice. ⁶ But if it is by grace, it is no longer by works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

⁷ What then? What Israel is seeking, it has not obtained; but the elect obtained it, and the rest were hardened— ⁸ just as it is written,

“God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes not to see and ears not to hear,
until this very day.” ^{‡†}

⁹ And David says,

“Let their table become a snare and a trap,
a stumbling block and a retribution for them.

¹⁰ Let their eyes be darkened so they do not see, and bend their back continually.” ^{‡†}

¹¹ I say then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they? ^{‡††} May it never be! But by their false step salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke Israel to jealousy. ^{‡†††} Now if their transgression leads to riches for the world, and their loss riches for the Gentiles, then how much more their fullness! ¹³ But I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Insofar as I am an emissary to the Gentiles, I spotlight my ministry ¹⁴ if somehow I might provoke to jealousy my own flesh and blood [§] and save some of them. ¹⁵ For if their rejection leads to the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

¹⁷ But if some of the branches were broken off and you—being a wild olive—were grafted in among them and became a partaker of the root of the olive tree with its richness, ^{§†††} do not boast against the branches. But if you do boast, it is not you who support the root but the root supports you. ¹⁹ You will say then, “Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in.” ²⁰ True enough. They were broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant, but fear— ²¹ for if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will He spare you. ²² Notice then the kindness and severity of God:

severity toward those who fell;
but God’s kindness toward you,
if you continue in His kindness;
otherwise you too will be cut off!

²³ And they also,

if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in;

for God is able to graft them in again.

²⁴ For if you were cut out of that which by nature is a wild olive tree, and grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree?

The Mystery Revealed!

²⁵ For I do not want you, brothers and sisters, to be ignorant of this mystery—lest you be wise in your own eyes ^{§†}—that a partial hardening has come upon Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in; ^{§†††} ²⁶ and in this way ^{§†} all Israel will be saved, as it is written,
“The Deliverer shall come out of Zion.

He shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob.

²⁷ And this is My covenant with them, ^{§†}
when I take away their sins.” ^{§§†}

²⁸ Concerning the Good News, they are hostile for your sake; but concerning chosenness, they are loved on account of the fathers ^{§§†}— ²⁹ for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. ^{§§§} ³⁰ For just as you once were disobedient to God but now have been shown mercy because of their disobedience, ³¹ in like manner these also have now been disobedient with the result that, because of the mercy shown to you, they also may receive mercy. ³² For God has shut up all in disobedience, so that He might show mercy to all.

³³ O the depth of the riches,

both of the wisdom and knowledge of God!
How unsearchable are His judgments and how incomprehensible His ways!

³⁴ For “who has known the mind of ADONAI, or who has been His counselor?” ¹⁸

³⁵ Or “who has first given to Him, that it shall be repaid to him?” ¹⁹

³⁶ For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever! Amen.

Be Dead to Self

12 I urge you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice—holy, acceptable to God—which is your spiritual service. ² Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

³ For through the grace given me, I say to everyone among you not to think more highly of yourself than you ought to think—but to use sound judgment, as God has assigned to each person a measure of faith.

⁴ For just as we have many parts in one body—and all the parts do not have the same function— ⁵ so we, who are many, are one body in Messiah and everyone parts of one another. ⁶ We have gifts that differ according to the grace that was given to us—if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; ⁷ if service, in our serving; or the one who teaches, in his teaching; ⁸ or the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who gives, in generosity; the one who leads, with diligence; the one who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

¹⁴ Bless those who persecute you—bless and do not curse. ¹⁵ Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. [†]

¹⁶ Live in harmony with one another; do not be proud, but associate with the lowly. Do not be wise in your own eyes. ^{††17} Repay no one evil for evil; [‡] give thought to what is good in the eyes of all people. ¹⁸ If possible, so far as it depends on you, live in shalom with all people. ¹⁹ Never take your own revenge, loved ones, but give room for God's wrath—for it is written, "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay," ^{††} says ADONAI. ²⁰ Rather, "If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him a drink. For by doing so you will heap coals of fire upon his head." ^{†††21} Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Respecting Authority

13 Let every person submit himself to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist are put in place by God. ^{††2} So whoever opposes the authority has resisted God's direction, and those who have resisted will bring judgment on themselves. ³ For leaders cause no fear for good behavior, but for bad. Now if you do not want to fear the authority, do what is good and you will get his approval— ⁴ for he is God's servant to you for your good. But if you do evil, be afraid—for he does not carry the sword for no reason; for he is God's servant, an avenger who inflicts punishment on the evildoer. ⁵ Therefore it is necessary to be in submission—not only because of punishment but also because of conscience. ⁶ For this reason you also pay taxes, for the authorities are God's servants, attending diligently to this very thing. ⁷ Pay to everyone what is due them—tribute to whom tribute is due; tax to whom tax is due; respect to whom respect is due; honor to whom honor is due.

⁸ Owe no one anything except to love one another, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the Torah. ⁹ For the commandments—"You shall not commit adultery, you shall not murder, you shall not steal, you shall not covet," ^{†††} and any other commandment—are summed up in this word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ^{§10} Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore love is the fullness of the Torah.

¹¹ Besides this, you know the time—that it is already the hour for you to awaken from sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first came to trust. ¹² The night is almost gone and the day is near, so let us put off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³ Let us walk properly as in the day—not in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and sensuality, not in strife and envy. ¹⁴ Instead, put on the Lord Messiah Yeshua, and stop making provision for the flesh—for its cravings.

Unity in Community

14 Now accept the one who is weak in faith, but not for the purpose of disputes about opinions. ² One person has faith to eat anything, but the weak eats only vegetables. ³ Don't let the one who eats disparage the one who does not eat, and don't let the one who does not eat judge the one who eats, for God has accepted him. ⁴ Who are you to judge another's servant? Before his own master he stands or falls. Yes, he shall stand, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

⁵ One person esteems one day over another while another judges every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶ The one who observes that day does so to the Lord. The one who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and the one who abstains, abstains to the Lord, and he gives thanks to God. ⁷ For none of us lives for himself, and none dies for himself. ⁸ For if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. ⁹ For this reason Messiah died and lived again, so that He might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

¹⁰ But you, why do you judge your brother? ^{§†} Or you too, why do you look down on your brother? For we all will stand before the judgment seat of God. ^{§††11} For it is written,

"As I live, says ADONAI, every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall give praise to God." ^{§†}

¹² So then each one of us shall give account of himself to God.

¹³ Therefore let us not judge one another from now on, but rather decide this—not to put a stumbling block or a trap in the way of a brother. ¹⁴ I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Yeshua, that nothing is unholy in itself; but it is unholy for the one who considers it unholy. ^{§††15} For if your brother is grieved on account of food, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not destroy by your food the one for whom Messiah died. ¹⁶ Therefore do not let what is good for you be spoken of as evil— ¹⁷ for the kingdom of God is not about eating and drinking, but righteousness and shalom and joy in the Ruach ha-Kodesh.¹⁸ For the one who serves Messiah in this manner is pleasing to God and approved by men.

¹⁹ So then let us pursue what makes for shalom and for the building up of one another.¹²⁰ Stop tearing down the work of God for the sake of food. Indeed all things are clean, but wrong for the man who by eating causes stumbling.²¹ It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything by which your brother stumbles.²² The faith you have, keep it to yourself before God. How fortunate is the one who does not condemn himself for what he approves.²³ But the one who has doubts is condemned if he eats, because it is not of faith. And whatever is not of faith is sin.

15 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the powerless and not just please ourselves.² Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, for building him up.³ For even Messiah did not please Himself, but as it is written, “The insults of those who insulted You have fallen on Me.”^{††4} For whatever was written before was written for our instruction, so that through patience and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.⁴⁵ Now may the God of patience and encouragement grant you to be like-minded with one another in the manner of Messiah Yeshua,⁶ so that together with one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Salvation for Gentiles Too

⁷ Therefore accept one another just as Messiah also accepted you, to the glory of God.⁸ For I declare that Messiah has become a servant to the circumcised for the sake of God’s truth, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs⁹ and for the Gentiles to glorify God for His mercy. As it is written,

“For this reason I will give You praise among the Gentiles, and I will sing to Your name.”[‡]

¹⁰ And again it says,

“Rejoice, O Gentiles, with His people.”^{‡‡}

¹¹ And again,

“Praise ADONAI all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples praise Him.”^{‡‡‡}

¹² And again, Isaiah says,

“There shall be a shoot of Jesse; and the One who arises to rule the Gentiles, in Him shall the Gentiles hope.”^{‡‡‡}

¹³ Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and shalom in trusting, so you may overflow with hope in the power of the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

¹⁴ Now I myself am convinced about you, my brothers and sisters, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge and also able to counsel one another.¹⁵ But I have written rather boldly to you on some points as a reminder—because of the grace given to me by God¹⁶ to be a servant of Messiah Yeshua to the Gentiles, in priestly service to the Good News of God—so that the offering up of the Gentiles might be pleasing,[§] made holy by the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

¹⁷ So in Messiah Yeshua, I have reason to boast before God.¹⁸ For I will not dare to speak of anything except what Messiah accomplished through me, to bring about the obedience of the Gentiles by word and deed,¹⁹ in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit of God. So from Jerusalem and around even to Illyricum, I have fully proclaimed the Good News of Messiah.²⁰ In this way I make it my aim to proclaim the Good News not where Messiah was already named, lest I build on another person’s foundation,²¹ but as it is written,

“Those who have never been told shall see, and those who have not heard shall understand.”^{§†}

Going to the Ends of the Earth

²² For this reason I was often hindered from coming to you.²³ But now with no place in these regions, and since I have had a desire for many years to come to you,²⁴ I hope to see you while traveling through when I go to Spain—and to be helped on my journey there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a bit.

²⁵ But now I am going to Jerusalem, bringing aid to the kedoshim.²⁶ For Macedonia and Achaia were pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the believers in Jerusalem.²⁷ Yes, they were pleased to do so, and they are under obligation to them. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual blessings, they also ought to serve them in material blessings.²⁸ So when I have finished delivering the collection safely to them, I will head for Spain by way of you.²⁹ Now I know that when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of Messiah.

³⁰ Now I urge you, brethren, through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah and through the love of the Ruach, to press on together with me—with prayers to God on my behalf.³¹ Pray that I might be rescued from the unbelieving Judeans, and that my service for Jerusalem might be acceptable to the kedoshim.

³² Then, God willing, I may come to you in joy, and together with you find rest.

³³ Now may the God of shalom be with you all. Amen.

Welcome the Apostolic Team

16 Now I recommend to you our sister Phoebe—who is a servant-leader of Messiah’s community at Cenchrea—² so you may receive her in the Lord, in a way worthy of kedoshim, and help her in whatever matter she may need from you. For she herself has become a patroness of many, including me as well.

¹⁵ Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, also Olympas and all the kedoshim with them.

¹⁶ Greet one another with a holy kiss. All of Messiah's communities greet you. ¹⁷ Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, to keep your eye on those who are causing divisions and stumbling blocks, contrary to the teaching that you learned. Turn away from them.

¹⁸ For such people do not serve our Lord the Messiah, but only their own belly. By their smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting.

¹⁹ Your obedience has become known to all, so I rejoice over you—but I want you to be wise about what is good and innocent about what is evil. ²⁰ Now the God of shalom will soon crush satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Yeshua be with you.

²¹ Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you; so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kin.

1 Corinthians

Introduction

Corinth, considered the number three city in the Roman empire after Rome and Alexandria, also sported a major Jewish community. It was listed by Philo as one of the cities of Jewish Diaspora, and it is evident that Paul was conscious of this presence, even if Gentiles were a majority of the community at Corinth (Acts 10:32). The Corinthian community began when Paul visited fellow Jewish believers Priscilla and Aquila. Eventually, Paul's witness led to a local synagogue leader, Crispus, along with his household, coming to faith. As a result, many in the Corinthian community were immersed (Acts 18:1-8, 1 Cor. 1:4). Though the community was majority Gentile, it was likely knowledgeable about Jewish customs and concerns and trying to figure out how Jews and Gentiles could live together in unity and good order. Many Corinthians had come to faith out of a pagan background that still exercised far too much influence on their ethics and social behavior. 1 Corinthians is an intensely personal and practical letter, written about 55 C.E. from Ephesus and addressed to the wider believing community in Corinth.

The letter often seems to jump from one subject to another, as Paul responds to a "laundry list" of issues in the life of Messiah's community:

- Divisions and factionalism (1:10-13). In the culture of that day, sophisticated speakers were put on pedestals. Rather than submitting to one another and to Paul in humility, the Corinthians ran after their favorite pop-stars. Spiritual unity was a hard commodity to come by.
- Ethical issues. The Corinthians were deeply divided over matters such as extramarital sex, incest, lawsuits against fellow believers, and eating food sacrificed to idols. They were not mature enough to effectively resolve them, or to discern at what points their culture was shaping their faith rather than vice-versa.
- Conduct at public meetings of believers. Paul addresses the roles of men and women, the issue of head coverings, the Lord's supper, and spiritual gifts. Notably, the Corinthians valued spiritual gifts and status over love and unity.
- Doctrinal issues. In particular, the resurrection was badly misunderstood. The Corinthians mistakenly thought of themselves as having "arrived" spiritually, thus sanctioning widespread immorality.

Above all, Paul shows us how the Good News challenges us to be shaped by , not by our culture—whether that culture is 1st century Greek paganism, or 21st century Jewish American lifestyle.

Greetings

1 Paul, called as an emissary of Messiah Yeshua by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, ²To God's community in Corinth—having been made holy in Messiah Yeshua, called as kedoshim—with all who everywhere call on the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, both theirs and ours:
³Grace to you and shalom from God our Father, and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

Thanksgiving

⁴I always thank my God for you because of God's grace that was given to you in Messiah Yeshua. ⁵For in Him you were made rich in every way—in all speaking and all knowledge—⁶just as the evidence of Messiah was confirmed among you. ⁷So you are not lacking in any spiritual gift, as you eagerly wait for the revealing of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ⁸He will also strengthen you until the end—blameless in the Day of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ⁹God is faithful, [†] through whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son, Yeshua the Messiah our Lord.

Concern about Disunity

¹⁰Now I urge you, brothers and sisters, through the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. ¹¹For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers and sisters, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are rivalries among you. ¹²I say this because you are each saying, "I follow Paul," or "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Kefa," or "I follow Messiah." ¹³Has Messiah been divided? Paul wasn't crucified for you, was he? Or were you immersed into the name of Paul? ¹⁴I thank God that I immersed none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, ¹⁵so that no one should say that I had immersed you into my own name. ¹⁶(I also immersed the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't recall if I immersed anyone else.) ¹⁷For Messiah sent me not to immerse, but to proclaim the Good News—not with cleverness of speech, so that the cross of Messiah would not be made of no effect.

Whose Wisdom Is Foolish?

¹⁸For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and bring to nothing the understanding of the intelligent." ^{††}

²⁰Where is the wise one? Where is the Torah scholar? Where is the debater of this age? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ^{‡21}For seeing that—in God's wisdom—the world through its wisdom did not know God, God was pleased—through the foolishness of the message proclaimed—to save those who believe. ²²For Jewish people ask for signs and Greek people seek after wisdom, ²³but we proclaim Messiah crucified—a stumbling block to Jewish people and foolishness to Gentile people, ²⁴but to those who are called (both Jewish and Greek people), Messiah, the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

²⁶For you see your calling, brothers and sisters, that not many are wise according to human standards, ^{‡‡} not many are powerful, and not many are born well. ²⁷Yet God chose the foolish things of the world so He might put to shame the wise; and God chose the weak things of the world so He might put to shame the strong; ²⁸and God chose the lowly and despised things of the world, the things that are as nothing, so He might bring to nothing the things that are—²⁹so that no human might boast before God. ³⁰But because of Him you are in Messiah Yeshua, who became to us wisdom from God and righteousness and holiness and redemption—³¹so that, just as it is written, "Let him who boasts, boast in ADONAI." ^{‡‡‡}

Wisdom that Rests on God's Power

2 When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I did not come with excellence of speech or wisdom, proclaiming to you the mystery ^{‡‡‡} of God. ²For I decided not to know about anything among you except Yeshua the Messiah—and Him crucified. ³I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. ⁴My speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power—⁵ so that your faith would not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

⁶ We do speak wisdom, however, among those who are mature—but not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. ⁷ Rather, we speak God's wisdom in a mystery—a wisdom that has been hidden, which God destined for our glory before the ages. ⁸ None of the rulers of this age understood it—for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹ But as it is written,

“Things no eye has seen and no ear has heard, that have not entered the heart of mankind—these things God has prepared for those who love Him.”[†]

¹⁰ But God revealed these things to us through the Ruach.^{††} For the Ruach searches all things—even the depths of God. ¹¹ For who among men knows the things of a man, except the man's spirit within him? In the same way, no one knows the things of God except the Ruach Elohim.^{††} Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God—so we might come to know the things freely given to us by God. ¹³ These things we also speak—not in words taught by human wisdom but in words taught by the Ruach, explaining the spiritual to the spiritual.

¹⁴ Now a natural man does not accept the things of the Ruach Elohim, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned. ¹⁵ But the one who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is discerned by no one. For

“who has known the mind of ADONAI, that he will instruct Him?”[‡]

But we have the mind of Messiah.

Building Together on God's Foundation

3 And I, brothers and sisters, could not speak to you as Spirit-filled but as worldly^{‡†}—as infants in Messiah. ² I gave you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet ready. Indeed, even now you are not yet ready, ³ for you are still worldly. For since there is jealousy and strife among you, aren't you worldly and walking in a human way? ⁴ For when one says, “I follow Paul,” and another, “I follow Apollos,” are you not mere humans^{‡‡}?

⁵ What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? Servants through whom you came to trust—and to each as the Lord gave. ⁶ I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase. ⁷ So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who makes things grow. ⁸ Now he who plants and he who waters work as one, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. ⁹ For we are God's co-workers; you are God's field, God's building.

¹⁰ According to the grace of God which was given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each consider carefully how he builds on it. ¹¹ For no one can lay any other foundation than what is already laid^{‡‡†}—which is Yeshua the Messiah. ¹² Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, ¹³ each one's work will become clear. For the Day will show it, because it is to be revealed by fire; and the fire itself will test each one's work—what sort it is. ¹⁴ If anyone's work built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. ¹⁵ If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss—he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

¹⁶ Don't you know that you are God's temple and that the Ruach Elohim dwells among you? ¹⁷ If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

¹⁸ Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks he is wise in this age, let him become a fool so he may become wise.^{‡‡††} For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the sight of God. For it is written, “He catches the clever in their craftiness.”^{§20} And again, “The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are useless.”^{§†21} So let no one boast about men. For all things are yours—²² whether Paul or Apollos or Kefa, or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come. All are yours,²³ and you are Messiah's, and Messiah is God's.

Learning to Imitate Messiah's Emissary

4 So let each one think of us in this way—as Messiah's helpers and stewards of the mysteries of God. ² In this case, moreover, what is required of stewards is to be found trustworthy. ³ But to me it matters very little to be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. ⁴ For I know of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this. It is the Lord who judges me. ⁵ Therefore do not judge anything before the time—wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light the things hidden in darkness and also make clear the motives of the hearts. Then the praise for each one will come from God.

⁶ Now I have applied these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers and sisters, so you might learn from us not to go beyond what is written. Then none of you will be puffed up in favor of one against the other. ⁷ For who makes you different? And what do you have that you did not receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

⁸ Already you are full! Already you have become rich! Without us you have become kings! Indeed, I wish you were kings, so we also might be kings with you! ⁹ For it seems to me that God has put us, the emissaries, on display last of all—like men sentenced to death. For ‡‡† cf. Isa. 28:16. ‡‡‡ cf. Isa. 5:21; Jer. 8:8-9. § Job 5:13.

we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to people. ¹⁰ We are fools for Messiah's sake, but you are wise in Messiah! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honored, but we are dishonored! ¹¹ To this very hour we are both hungry and thirsty, dressed in rags and mistreated and homeless. ¹² We toil, working with our own hands. When we are cursed, we bless. When we are persecuted, we endure. ¹³ When we are slandered, we speak kindly. We have become the scum of the earth, the dregs of all things—even to this moment.

¹⁴ I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but to warn you as my dearly loved children. ¹⁵ For though you may have ten thousand guardians in Messiah, yet you do not have many fathers. For in Messiah Yeshua, I became your father through the Good News. ¹⁶ I urge you therefore—be imitators of me. ¹⁷ For this reason I have sent you Timothy, my dearly loved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of my ways in Messiah, just as I teach everywhere in every community.

¹⁸ Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. ¹⁹ But I will come to you soon, if the Lord is willing; and I will find out not the talk of those who are puffed up, but their power. ²⁰ For the kingdom of God does not consist of talk but of power. ²¹ What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

Removing the Hametz from Your House

5 It is actually reported that among you there is sexual immorality, and such immorality as is not even among the pagans—that someone has his father's wife. ² And you are puffed up! Shouldn't you have mourned instead, so that the one who did this deed might be removed from among you? ³ For even though I am absent in body, I am present in spirit—I have already passed judgment on the one who has done this thing, as though I were present. ⁴ When you are gathered together in the name of our Lord Yeshua, I am with you in spirit. With the power of our Lord Yeshua, ⁵ you are to turn such a fellow over to satan for the destruction of his fleshly nature, [†] so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Yeshua.

⁶ Your boasting is no good. Don't you know that a little hametz leavens the whole batch of dough? ⁷ Get rid of the old hametz, ^{††} so you may be a new batch, just as you are unleavened—for Messiah, our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed. ⁸ Therefore let us celebrate the feast not with old hametz, [‡] the hametz of malice and wickedness, but with unleavened bread—the matzah of sincerity and truth.

⁹ I wrote to you in my letter not to mix together ^{‡‡} with sexually immoral people— ¹⁰ not at all meaning the sexually immoral people of this world or the greedy or swindlers or idolaters, for then you would have to exit the world. ¹¹ But now I am writing to you not to mix together with anyone who is being called a brother if he is sexually immoral or greedy or an idolater or a slanderer or a drunkard or a swindler—not even to eat with such a fellow. ¹² For what business do I have judging outsiders? Don't you judge those who are inside? ¹³ But those who are outside, God judges. Put away the wicked fellow from among yourselves. ^{‡‡}

Settle Disputes within the Community

6 Does any one of you, when he has a matter against his neighbor, dare to go to court before the unrighteous and not before the kedoshim? ² Don't you know that the kedoshim will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to judge trivial matters? ³ Don't you know that we will judge angels? How much more the matters of this life! ⁴ So if you have courts for matters of this life, why do you appoint as judges those who have no standing in the community? ⁵ I say this to put you to shame! Isn't there even one wise man among you who will be able to settle disputes between his brethren? ⁶ Instead, a brother goes to court against a brother—and before unbelievers at that!

⁷ Therefore, it is already an utter failure for you that you have lawsuits among yourselves. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated? ⁸ But you yourselves do wrong and cheat—and against your brothers and sisters at that!

Morality in the Temple of God

⁹ Or don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Don't be deceived! The sexually immoral, idolaters, adulterers, those who practice homosexuality, ¹⁰ thieves, the greedy, drunkards, slanderers, swindlers—none of these will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹ That is what some of you were—but you were washed, you were made holy, you were set right in the name of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah and by the Ruach of our God.

¹² "Everything is permitted for me"—but not everything is helpful. "Everything is permitted for me"—but I will not be controlled by anything. ¹³ "Food is for the stomach, and the stomach is for food"—but God will do away with both of them. Yet the body is not for sexual immorality but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. ¹⁴ Now God raised up the Lord and will also raise us up by His power. ¹⁵ Don't you know that your bodies are members of Messiah? Shall I then take the members of Messiah and make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! ¹⁶ Or don't you know that the one who joins himself to a prostitute is one body with her? For it is said, "The two shall become one flesh." ^{‡‡‡17} But the one who joins himself to the Lord is one spirit with Him.

[†] cf. Prov. 23:14. ^{††} cf. Exod. 12:19. [‡] cf. Exod. 13:7; Deut. 16:3. ^{‡‡} cf. 2 Thes. 3:14.

¹⁸ Flee from sexual immorality! Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body—but the one committing sexual immorality sins against his own body. ¹⁹ Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Ruach ha-Kodesh who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? ²⁰ For you were bought with a price. Therefore, glorify God in your body. †

Counsel about Marriage

7 Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me, it is good for a man not to touch a woman. ² But because of much immorality, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. ³ Let the husband fulfill his obligation to his wife, and likewise also the wife to her husband. ⁴ The wife does not have the rights to her own body, but the husband. Likewise, also, the husband does not have the rights to his own body, but the wife. ⁵ Do not deprive one another—except by mutual consent for a time, so that you may devote yourselves to prayer. †† Then come together again, so that satan doesn't tempt you because of your lack of self-control. ⁶ But this I say as a concession, not as a command. ⁷ Yet I wish that all men were like me. However, each man has his own gift from God, one in this way, and another that.

⁸ But I say to the unmarried and to widows that it is good for them to remain as I am. ⁹ But if they do not have self-control, let them marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with desire.

¹² But to the rest I say—I, not the Lord—if any brother has a wife who is not a believer, and she agrees to live with him, he must not divorce her. ¹³ And if any woman has a husband who is not a believer, and he agrees to live with her, she must not divorce him. ¹⁴ For the unbelieving husband is made holy through the wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy through her husband. †† Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. ¹⁵ But if the unbeliever separates, let him be separated. The brother or the sister is not bound in such cases, but God has called you to shalom. ¹⁶ For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

Remain as You Were Called

¹⁷ Only, as the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each, let him walk in this way. I give this rule in all of Messiah's communities. ¹⁸ Was anyone called

† Some mss. add and in your spirit, which are God's †† cf. Exod. 19:15; some mss. include fasting and prayer ‡ cf. Matt. 5:32; 19:9. †† Lit. the brother when he already had been circumcised? Let him not make himself uncircumcised. Has anyone been called while uncircumcised? Let him not allow himself to be circumcised. ¹⁹ Circumcision is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing ††—but keeping God's commandments matters. ²⁰ Let each one remain in the calling in which he was called. ²¹ Were you called as a slave? Don't let that bother you—but if indeed you can become free, make the most of the opportunity. ²² For the one who was called in the Lord as a slave is the Lord's freedman. Likewise, the one who was called while free is Messiah's slave. ²³ You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. ²⁴ Brothers and sisters, let each one—in whatever way he was called—remain that way with God.

²⁵ Now concerning virgins I have no command from the Lord, but I give an opinion as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. ²⁶ I think then, because of the present distress, that it is good for a man to remain as he is. ²⁷ Are you bound to a wife? Don't seek a divorce. Are you free from a wife? Don't seek a wife. ²⁸ But if you marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such people will have trouble in this fleshly life, and I am trying to spare you. ²⁹ But this I say, brothers and sisters—the time is short. From now on those who have wives should be as though they had none; ³⁰ and those who weep, as though not weeping; and those who rejoice, as though not rejoicing; and those who buy, as though not possessing; ³¹ and those who use the world, as though not using it to the fullest. For the present form of this world is passing away.

³² But I want you to be free from cares. An unmarried man cares about the things of the Lord—how he may please the Lord; ³³ but the married man cares about the things of the world—how he may please his wife—³⁴ and he is divided. The unmarried woman, as well as the virgin, cares about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But the married woman cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. ³⁵ Now I say this for your own benefit—not to put a restraint on you, but to promote proper and constant service to the Lord without distraction.

³⁶ But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if the time is ripe and it is meant to be, let him do what he decides. He does not sin. Let them marry. ³⁷ But he who stands firm in his heart—who has no pressure, but has power over his own will and has so determined in his own heart to keep her a virgin—he will do well. ³⁸ So then both he who marries the virgin does well, and he who doesn't marry her does better.

³⁹ A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives; but if her husband dies, she is free to be married to anyone she wishes—only in the Lord. ††⁴⁰ But in my judgment she is happier if she stays as she is—and I also think that I have the Ruach Elohim.

Concerning Idol Sacrifices

8 Now concerning idol sacrifices, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. ² If anyone thinks he knows anything, he doesn't yet know as he ought to know. ³ But if anyone loves God, he is known by Him.

⁴ Therefore, concerning the eating of idol sacrifices, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but one. ⁵ For even if there are so-called "gods," whether in heaven or on earth (as indeed there are many "gods" and many "lords"),

⁶ yet for us there is one God, the Father, [†] from whom are all things, and we exist for Him; and one Lord, Yeshua the Messiah, through whom are all things, and we exist through Him.

⁷ But that knowledge is not in everyone—some, so accustomed to idols up until now, eat food as an idol sacrifice; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. ⁸ But food will not bring us before God. We are no worse off if we do not eat and no better off if we do eat. ⁹ But watch out that this freedom of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. ^{†10} For suppose someone sees you—who have this knowledge—dining in an idol's temple. If his conscience is weak, won't he be emboldened to eat idol sacrifices? ¹¹ For the one who is weak is destroyed by your knowledge—the brother for whom Messiah died. ¹² In this way, when you sin against the brothers and sisters and wound their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Messiah. ¹³ For this reason, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, so that I do not cause my brother to stumble.

Servant Leadership Wins over All

9 Am I not free? Am I not an emissary? Have I not seen Yeshua our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? ² If to others I am not an emissary, at least I am to you—for you are the seal of my office of emissary in the Lord.

³ My defense to those who examine me is this. ⁴ Don't we have the right to food and drink? ⁵ Don't we have the right to take along a believing wife, as do the other emissaries and the Lord's brothers and Kefa? ⁶ Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to not work? ⁷ What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not drink its milk?

⁸ I don't say these things merely as a man, do I? Doesn't Torah also say these things? ⁹ For it is written in the Torah of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox

[†] cf. Deut. 4:35, 39; 6:4; some mss. say there is no other God but one ^{††} cf. Deut. 6:4; Isa. 46:9; Jer. 10:6, 7; 1 Cor. 8:4, Mal. 2:10. [‡] cf. Exod. 23:33.

while it is threshing." ^{††} Is it the oxen that concern God, ¹⁰ or is He speaking entirely for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because the one plowing ought to plow in hope and the one threshing in hope of a share in the crop. ¹¹ If we sowed spiritual things into you, is it too much if we reap material things from you? ¹² If others have a share in this claim over you, shouldn't we even more?

Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we put up with all things so that we cause no hindrance to the Good News of Messiah. ¹³ Don't you know that those who perform the holy services eat from the Temple, and those who wait on the altar receive a share at the altar? ^{††14} So also the Lord ordered those who proclaim the Good News to get their living from the Good News.

¹⁵ But I have used none of these things, and I am not writing these things so it will happen this way in my case—for I would rather die than let anyone deprive me of my reason to boast. ¹⁶ For if I proclaim the Good News, I have no reason to boast—for pressure is put on me and woe to me if I don't proclaim the Good News! ¹⁷ For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have been entrusted with a commission. ¹⁸ What then is my reward? That when I preach, I may present the Good News free of charge, not making use of my right ^{†††} in the Good News.

¹⁹ For though I am free from all men, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win over more of them. ²⁰ To the Jewish people I identified ^{††} as a Jew, so that I might win over the Jewish people. To those under Torah I became like one under Torah (though not myself being under Torah), so that I might win over those under Torah; ²¹ to those outside Torah, like one outside Torah (though not being outside God's Torah but in Messiah's Torah), so that I might win over those outside Torah. ²² To the weak I became weak, so that I might win over the weak. I have become all things to all men, so that by all means possible I might save some. ²³ I do it all for the sake of the Good News, so that I might be a fellow partaker of it.

²⁴ Don't you know that in a stadium the runners all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win! ²⁵ Every competitor exercises self-control in all respects. They do it to receive a perishable crown, but we do it to receive an imperishable one. ²⁶ So I run in this way—not aimlessly. So I box in this way—not beating the air. ²⁷ Rather, I punish my body and bring it into submission, so that after I have preached to others, I myself will not be disqualified.

Warnings from History

10 For I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers and sisters, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea. ^{§2} They all were ^{††} Deut. 25:4. ^{†††} cf. Lev. 6:16, 26; 7:6, 31-32; Num. 5:9-10; 18:8-20, 31; Deut. 18:1. ^{††††} cf. 1 Cor. 9:12b, 14. ^{†††††} Or became [§] cf. Exod. 13:21; 14:22, 29; Ps. 105:39; Neh. 9:11.

immersed into Moses in the cloud and in the sea.
³ And all ate the same spiritual food, ⁴ and all drank the same spiritual drink—for they were drinking from a spiritual rock that followed them, and the Rock was Messiah. ⁵ Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the desert.

⁶ Now these things happened as examples for us, so we wouldn't crave evil things, just as they did. ⁷ Do not be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." ^{††8} And let's not commit sexual immorality, as some of them did—and in one day 23,000 fell. ^{††9} And let's not test the Lord, as some of them did—and were destroyed by serpents. ^{††10} And let's not grumble, as some of them did—and were destroyed by the destroying angel. ^{††11} Now these things happened to them as an example, and it was written down as a warning to us—on whom the ends of the ages have come. ¹² Therefore, let the one who thinks that he stands watch out that he doesn't fall. ¹³ No temptation has taken hold of you except what is common to mankind. But God is faithful—He will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you can handle. But with the temptation He will also provide a way of escape, so you will be able to endure it.

Feast with the Lord—Not with Idols

¹⁴ Therefore, my dearly loved ones, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵ I speak as to sensible people—judge for yourselves what I say. ¹⁶ The cup of blessing that we bless— isn't it a sharing of Messiah's blood? The bread which we break— isn't it a sharing of Messiah's body? ¹⁷ Since there is one bread, we who are many are one body—for we all partake of the one bread. ¹⁸ Consider physical Israel. Those who eat the sacrifices— aren't they partners in the altar? [§]

¹⁹ What am I saying then—that an idol sacrifice is anything, or that an idol is anything? ²⁰ No, I'm saying that what the pagans sacrifice is to demons and not to God, and I don't want you to become partners with demons. ^{§†21} You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. ²² Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? ^{§††} We are not stronger than He, are we?

† cf. Exod. 17:6; Num. 20:7-13. †† cf. Num. 14:29-35. ‡ cf. Num. 11:4, 34; Ps. 106:14. †† Exod. 32:6. †† cf. Num. 25:1-9. ††† cf. Num. 21:5-6. ††† cf. Num. 16:41-50. § cf. Lev. 7:6, Deut. 12:17-19. §† cf. Deut. 32:17. §†† cf. Deut. 32:21. §‡ Ps. 24:1.

whatever is set before you, without raising questions of conscience. ²⁸ But if anyone says to you, "This is from an idol sacrifice," do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience— ²⁹ not your own conscience, I mean, but the other person's. For why is my freedom judged by another's conscience? ³⁰ If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of something I give thanks for?

³¹ Therefore, whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. ³² Give no offense either to Jewish or Greek people or to God's community— ³³ just as I also try to please everyone in everything, not seeking my own benefit but the benefit of many, so that they may be saved.

11 Be imitators of me, just as I also am of Messiah.

Headship and Coverings

² Now I praise you because you remember me in everything and hold firm the traditions just as I passed them on to you. ³ But I want you to know that the head of every man is Messiah, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Messiah is God. ⁴ Every man praying or prophesying with his head covered dishonors his head. ⁵ But every woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered dishonors her head. For it is one and the same as having been shaved. ⁶ For if a woman does not cover her head, let her cut off her hair. But if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut off or to be shaved, let her cover her head.

¹³ Judge for yourselves—is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? ¹⁴ Doesn't the natural order of things ^{§†} teach you—if a man has long hair, it is a disgrace for him; ¹⁵ but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory, for her hair was given to her as a covering. ¹⁶ But if anyone intends to be contentious, we have no such custom—nor do God's communities.

Unity at the Lord's Table

¹⁷ But in giving you this instruction I do not praise you, for when you meet together it does more harm than good. ¹⁸ For first of all, when you come together

§†† cf. Gen. 1:26-27. §† cf. Gen. 2:21-23. §‡ Lit. nature itself as Messiah's community, I hear that there are divisions among you; and to some extent I believe it—¹⁹ for there must be factions among you, so that those among you who are tried and true may be evident.²⁰ Therefore, when you meet together in the same place, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper—²¹ for each one takes his own supper beforehand, and one goes hungry while another gets drunk.²² What! It is certainly not that you do not have houses, is it? Don't you have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise God's community and try to humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? I don't praise you for this!

²³ For I received from the Lord what I also passed on to you—that the Lord Yeshua, on the night He was betrayed, took matzah; ^{†24} and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, ^{††} "This is My body, which is for you. Do this in memory of Me."²⁵ In the same way, He also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant [‡] in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in memory of Me."²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes.

²⁷ Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the Lord's cup in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.²⁸ But a man must examine himself, and then let him eat of the bread and drink from the cup.²⁹ For the one who eats and drinks without recognizing the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself.³⁰ For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and quite a few have died.^{‡‡31} For if we were judging ourselves thoroughly, we wouldn't be coming under judgment.³² But when we are judged, we are being disciplined by the Lord so that we might not be condemned along with the world.

³³ So then, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.³⁴ If anyone is hungry let him eat at home, so that when you meet it doesn't lead to judgment. And the rest I will put in order when I come.

Spiritual Gifts for the Body

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be ignorant.² You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed by idols that cannot speak, and you got led astray.^{‡‡3} Therefore, I make known to you that no one speaking by the Ruach Elohim says, "Yeshua be cursed," and no one can say, "Yeshua is Lord," except by the Ruach ha-Kodesh.

⁴ Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Ruach.⁵ There are various kinds of service, but the same Lord.⁶ There are various kinds of working, but the same God who works all things in all people.⁷ But

† Lit. bread

‡‡ cf. Ps. 115:4-5; Jer. 10:5; Hab. 2:18-19.

†† Some mss.
‡ Hebrew Brit

†† Lit. have fallen asleep

to each person is given the manifestation of the Ruach for the benefit of all.⁸ For to one is given through the Ruach a word of wisdom, to another a word of knowledge according to the same Ruach,⁹ to another faith by the same Ruach, to another gifts of healings by the one Ruach,¹⁰ to another workings of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.¹¹ But one and the same Ruach activates all these things, distributing to each person individually as He wills.

¹² For just as the body is one and has many parts, and all the parts of the body—though many—are one body, so also is Messiah.¹³ For in one Ruach we were all immersed into one body—whether Jewish or Greek, slave or free—and all were made to drink of one Ruach.

¹⁴ For the body is not one part, but many.¹⁵ If the foot says, "Since I'm not a hand, I'm not part of the body," is it therefore not part of the body?¹⁶ And if the ear says, "Since I'm not an eye, I'm not part of the body," is it for this reason any less part of the body?

¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?¹⁸ But now God has placed the parts—each one of them—in the body just as He desired.¹⁹ If they were all one part, where would the body be?²⁰ But now there are many parts, yet one body.

²¹ The eye cannot tell the hand, "I don't need you!" or in turn the head to the feet, "I don't need you!"²² On the contrary, those parts of the body that seem to be less important are indispensable.²³ Those parts of the body that we think to be less honorable, we clothe with greater honor; and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty;²⁴ but our presentable parts have no such need. Rather God assembled the body, giving more honor to those who are lacking,²⁵ so that there may be no division in the body, but so that the parts may have the same care for one another.²⁶ If one part suffers, all the parts suffer together. If one part is honored, all the parts rejoice together.

²⁷ Now you are the body of Messiah, and members individually.²⁸ God has put into His community first emissaries, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then healings, helps, leadership, and various kinds of tongues.²⁹ All are not emissaries, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers, are they? All do not work miracles, do they?³⁰ All do not have gifts of healing, do they? All do not speak in tongues, do they? All do not interpret, do they?³¹ But earnestly desire the greater gifts. And still I show you a far better way:

The Superior Way of Love

13 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels but have not love, I have become a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

² If I have the gift of prophecy and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains but have not love,

I am nothing.

³ If I give away all that I own and if I hand over my body so I might boast [†] but have not love,

I gain nothing.

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind,

it does not envy,

it does not brag,

it is not puffed up,

⁵ it does not behave inappropriately,

it does not seek its own way,

it is not provoked,

it keeps no account of wrong,

⁶ it does not rejoice over injustice

but rejoices in the truth;

⁷ it bears all things,

it believes all things,

it hopes all things,

it endures all things.

⁸ Love never fails—

but where there are prophecies, they will pass away;

where there are tongues,

they will cease;

where there is knowledge,

it will pass away.

⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part;

¹⁰ but when that which is perfect has come,

then that which is partial will pass away.

¹¹ When I was a child,

I spoke like a child,

I thought like a child,

I reasoned like a child.

When I became a man,

I put away childish things.

¹² For now we see in a mirror dimly,

but then face to face.

Now I know in part,

but then I will know fully,

even as I have been fully known.

¹³ But now these three remain—faith, hope, and love.

And the greatest of these is love.

Orderly Governing of the Gifts

14 Pursue love and eagerly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. ² For one who speaks in a tongue speaks not to people but to God—for no one understands, but in the Ruach he speaks mysteries. ³ But one who prophesies speaks to people for building up, urging on, and uplifting. ⁴ One who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but one who prophesies builds up the community. ⁵ Now I want you all to speak in tongues, but even more that you would prophesy. ^{††} One who prophesies is greater than one who speaks in tongues—unless he interprets, so that the community may be built up.

⁶ But now, brothers and sisters, if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you—unless I speak to you by way of revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? ⁷ It is the same for lifeless things that make a sound—like a flute or a harp. If they make no distinction in the tones, how will what is played be recognized? ⁸ For if the trumpet [‡] makes an unclear sound, who will prepare himself for battle? ⁹ So also with you with your tongue—unless you utter speech that is intelligible, how will what is spoken be understood? For you will be talking to the wind! ¹⁰ It may be that there are many kinds of languages in the world—and none without meaning. ¹¹ If then I do not understand the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner ^{‡‡} to the speaker, and the speaker will be a foreigner to me. ¹² Likewise with you—since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, keep trying to excel for the building up of the community.

¹³ Therefore, let one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. ¹⁴ For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. ¹⁵ What is it then? I will pray in my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing praises with my spirit, and I will also sing praises with my mind. ¹⁶ Otherwise if you give thanks and praise in the spirit, how will one filling the place of the ungifted say the “Amen” to your thanksgiving, since he has no idea what you’re saying? ¹⁷ For you certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. ¹⁸ I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. ¹⁹ However, in Messiah’s community I would rather speak five words with my mind, so I may also instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

²⁰ Brothers and sisters, stop being children in your thinking—rather, be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature. ²¹ In the Prophets ^{‡‡} it is written, “By those with strange tongues and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. And not even then will they listen to me,” says ADONAI.

²² Therefore, tongues are a sign not for believers but for unbelievers—but prophecy is a sign not for unbelievers but for believers. ²³ So if Messiah’s whole community comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and uninstructed or unbelieving people come in, won’t they say that you are crazy? ²⁴ But if all are prophesying and some unbelieving or ungifted person comes in, he is convicted by all, he is called to account by all. ²⁵ The secrets of his heart become known, and so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring, "God really is among you!" [†]

²⁶ What is it then, brothers and sisters? Whenever you come together, each one has a psalm, a teaching, a revelation, a tongue, an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification. ²⁷ If someone speaks in a tongue, let it be by two or at most three, and each in turn; and let one interpret. ²⁸ But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the community but speak to himself and to God. ²⁹ Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others evaluate. ³⁰ But if something is revealed to another sitting nearby, let the first one become silent. ³¹ For you can all prophesy one by one, so all may learn and be encouraged. ³² The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, ³³ for God is not a God of confusion, but shalom.

As in all the communities of the kedoshim, ³⁴ let women keep silent in the communities, for it is not permitted for them to speak out. Rather let them be in order, as the Torah also says. ^{††35} If they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home—for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak out in the community. ³⁶ Did the word of God originate with you? Or did it reach you alone?

³⁷ If anyone thinks he is a prophet or spiritual, let him recognize that what I write to you is the Lord's command. ³⁸ But if someone does not recognize it, he is not recognized. ³⁹ Therefore, brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. ⁴⁰ But let everything be done decently and in order.

The Victory of the Resurrection

15 Now I make known to you, brothers and sisters, the Good News which I proclaimed to you. You also received it, and you took your stand on it, ² and by it you are being saved if you hold firm to the word I proclaimed to you—unless you believed without proper consideration. ³ For I also passed on to you first of all what I also received—that Messiah died for our sins

according to the Scriptures, [‡]

⁴ that He was buried,

that He was raised on the third day
according to the Scriptures,

⁵ and that He appeared to Kefa, then to the Twelve.

⁶ Then He appeared to over five hundred brothers and sisters at one time—most of them are still alive, though some have died. ^{‡†}

⁷ Then He appeared to Jacob,

then to all the emissaries,

⁸ and last of all, as to one untimely born,
He also appeared to me.

⁹ For I am the least of the emissaries, unworthy to be called an emissary because I persecuted God's community. ¹⁰ But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace toward me was not in vain. No, I worked harder than them all—yet not I, but the grace of God that was with me. ¹¹ Whether then it is I or they, so we proclaim, and so you believed.

¹² Now if Messiah is proclaimed—that He has been raised from the dead—how can some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³ But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Messiah has been raised! ¹⁴ And if Messiah has not been raised, then our proclaiming is meaningless and your faith also is meaningless. ¹⁵ Moreover, we are found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that He raised up Messiah—whom He did not raise up, if in fact the dead are not raised. ¹⁶ For if the dead are not raised, not even Messiah has been raised. ¹⁷ And if Messiah has not been raised, your faith is futile—you are still in your sins. ¹⁸ Then those also who have fallen asleep in Messiah have perished. ¹⁹ If we have hoped in Messiah in this life alone, we are to be pitied more than all people.

²⁰ But now Messiah has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹ For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead also has come through a Man. ^{‡‡22} For as in Adam all die, so also in Messiah will all be made alive.

²³ But each in its own order: Messiah the firstfruits; then, at His coming, those who belong to Messiah; ²⁴ then the end, when He hands over the kingdom to God the Father after He has destroyed all rule and all authority and power. ^{‡‡25} For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet. ^{‡‡26} The last enemy to be destroyed is death. ²⁷ For God has "put all things in subjection underneath His feet." [§] But when the psalmist says that "all" has been put in subjection, it is clear that this does not include God Himself, who put all things under Messiah. ²⁸ Now when all things become subject to Him, then the Son Himself will also become subject to the One who put all things under Him, so that God may be all in all.

²⁹ Otherwise, what will they do who are immersed for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, then why are they immersed for them? ³⁰ And why are we in danger every hour? ³¹ I die every day—yes, as surely as the boast in you, brothers and sisters, which I have in Messiah Yeshua our Lord. ³² If, for human reasons, I fought with "wild animals" at Ephesus, what good is that to me? If the dead are not raised, "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!" ^{§†33} Do not be deceived! "Bad company corrupts good morals."

[†] cf. Isa. 45:14; Dan. 2:47; Zech. 8:23. ^{††} cf. Gen. 3:16. [‡] cf. Isa. 53:8-10; Ps. 16:10-11; 22:15-16; Hos. 6:2; Dan. 9:24. ^{‡†} Lit. most of whom remain until now, but some have fallen asleep

^{‡‡} cf. Rom. 5:12, 21. ^{‡‡†} cf. Dan. 2:44; 7:14, 27. ^{‡‡‡} cf. Ps. 110:1. [§] Ps. 8:6b (LXX); cf. 8:7b(6b); cf. Heb. 2:6-10. ^{§†} cf. Isa. 22:13; 56:12.

³⁴ Come to your senses as you ought, and stop sinning! For some have no knowledge of God—I say this to your shame.

³⁵ But someone will say, “How are the dead raised?” † and, “With what kind of body do they come?” ³⁶ Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. ³⁷ As for what you sow—you are not sowing the body that will be, but a bare seed, maybe of wheat or something else. ³⁸ But God gives it a body just as He planned, and to each of the seeds a body of its own. ³⁹ All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of humans, another flesh of animals, another of birds, and another of fish. ⁴⁰ There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one thing while the earthly is another. ⁴¹ There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.

⁴² So also is the resurrection of the dead:
Sown in corruption, raised in incorruption!

⁴³ Sown in dishonor, raised in glory!
Sown in weakness, raised in power!

⁴⁴ Sown a natural body, raised a spiritual body!
If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵ So also it is written, “The first man, Adam, became a living soul.” †† The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶ However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural; then the spiritual. ⁴⁷ The first man is of the earth, made of dust; the second man is from heaven.

⁴⁸ Like the one made of dust, so also are those made of dust ‡;
and like the heavenly,
so also are those who are heavenly.

⁴⁹ And just as we have borne the image of the one made from dust, so also shall we bear †† the image of the One from heaven.

⁵⁰ Now I say this, brothers and sisters, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, and what decays cannot inherit what does not decay. ⁵¹ Behold, I tell you a mystery:

We shall not all sleep,
but we shall all be changed—⁵² in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last shofar. †

For the shofar will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible,
and we will be changed.

⁵³ For this corruptible must put on incorruptibility, and this mortal must put on immortality.

⁵⁴ But when this corruptible will have put on incorruptibility and this mortal will have put on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written:
“Death is swallowed up in victory.” ††

† cf. Ezek. 37:3. †† cf. Gen. 2:7. ‡ cf. Gen. 3:19. †† Many mss. say let us bear †† Greek. salpigx shofar ††† Isa. 25:8.

⁵⁵ “Where, O Death, is your victory?
Where, O Death, is your sting?” †††

⁵⁶ Now the sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the Torah. ⁵⁷ But thanks be to God, who keeps giving us the victory through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah! ⁵⁸ Therefore, my dearly loved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord—because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain.

Collection for Jerusalem and Final Greetings

16 Now concerning the collection for the kedoshim, as I directed Messiah’s communities in Galatia, you do likewise. ² On the first day of the week, let each of you set something aside, saving up whatever is gained, so no collections take place when I come. ³ Then whenever I arrive, I will send whomever you approve with letters of introduction to carry your gift to Jerusalem. ⁴ If it is advisable for me to go also, they will go with me.

⁵ But I will come to you after I have passed through Macedonia—for I am passing through Macedonia. ⁶ Perhaps I will stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you can help me on my journey—wherever I go. ⁷ For I do not wish to see you now just in passing—for I hope to stay on with you for a while, if the Lord permits. ⁸ But I will stay on at Ephesus until Shavuot, ⁹ for a great door has opened wide for me, though many are in opposition.

¹⁰ Now if Timothy comes, see that he has nothing to fear among you—for he is doing the Lord’s work, just as I am. ¹¹ No one, then, should treat him with disrespect. But set him on his way in shalom, so that he might come to me; for I am expecting him, along with the brothers.

¹² Now about our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers and sisters, and he was quite unwilling to come now—but he will come when he has an opportunity.

¹³ Be on the alert! Stand firm in the faith! Be men of courage! Be strong! ^{§14} Let all that you do be done in love.

¹⁵ Now I urge you, brothers and sisters (you know the household of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves in service to the kedoshim), ¹⁶ also to submit to people such as these, and to everyone working together and laboring. ¹⁷ I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, for they made up for your absence. ¹⁸ For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge such men.

¹⁹ Messiah’s communities in Asia ^{§†} greet you. Aquila and Prisca ^{§††} greet you warmly in the Lord, with the

2 Corinthians

Introduction

2 Corinthians, like 1 Corinthians, is intensely personal. It was written from Macedonia a year or so after the first letter (so around 56-57 C.E.), addressed once again to the troubled believers of Corinth. This time around, the problems are not so much the Corinthians' own behavior and their own questions, but the presence of trouble-makers who put themselves forward as authorities in place of the Paul. In chapters 1–7 it seems that a single person was causing trouble in the community; in chapters 10–13 it is a whole group of “false emissaries.” The false emissaries were proclaiming a message that was not the Good News. On top of that, they claimed that a “real emissary” would have charisma, a “take-charge” attitude. He would be a man who saw visions and performed miracles. The application is not hard to see for believers today. Not only do we have to understand the content of the Good News in order to proclaim it (in contrast to the teaching of the false emissaries), but we also need to be the kind of people God wants to use to proclaim that message—not eloquent, good-looking, flashy superstars, but devoted people who have real problems and real weaknesses.

For this reason, Paul speaks of believers as having a treasure in fragile jars of clay, to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us (4:7). In fact, Paul says that “if I must boast, I will boast of my weakness” (11:30), because God’s power is shown through human weakness. After all, it was the same with Himself: “For though He was crucified in weakness, yet He lives through the power of God” (13:4). The Jewish people should be no strangers to this idea. Every year at Passover, we celebrate how God’s power was used to deliver His weak, downtrodden people. We see that became weak even to the point of death, but through that weakness God showed His power in the resurrection. Today that power enables His people to live transformed lives and even transform the world around them.

Greetings

1 Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To God's community at Corinth, with all the kedoshim who are throughout Achaia:

² Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Encouragement through Hardships

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, the Father of compassion and God of all encouragement. ⁴ He encourages us in every trouble, so that we may be able to encourage those who are in any trouble, through the very encouragement with which we ourselves are encouraged by God. ⁵ For just as the sufferings of Messiah overflow into us, so also through Messiah our encouragement overflows. ⁶ If we are suffering hardship, it is for your encouragement and salvation. Or if we are encouraged, it is for your encouragement, which produces in you the patient endurance of the same sufferings that we also suffer. ⁷ Our hope for you is firm, since we know that as you are partners in our sufferings, so also in our encouragement.

⁸ For we do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, of our trouble that happened in Asia. [†] We were under great pressure—so far beyond our strength that we despaired even of living. ⁹ In fact, we had within ourselves the death sentence—so that we might not rely on ourselves, but on God who raises the dead. ¹⁰ He who rescued us from so great a danger of death will continue to rescue us—we have set our hope on Him that He will rescue us again. ¹¹ You also are helping by your prayer for us, so that from many people thanks may be given on our behalf for the gracious gift given us through the help of many.

¹² For our reason for boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that we behaved in the world, and most especially toward you, with simplicity and godly sincerity—not by human wisdom but by the grace of God. ¹³ For we write nothing to you other than what you can read and understand—and I hope you will understand in full ¹⁴ just as you understood us in part, so that we are your reason for boasting just as you also are ours in the Day of our Lord Yeshua.

Paul's Change of Plans

¹⁵ Because of this confidence, I was planning to come to you first, so that you might have a second benefit—¹⁶ to pass by you on my way to Macedonia and again from Macedonia to come back to you, and to be helped by you on my journey to Judea. ¹⁷ So when I was planning to do this, I didn't do so lightly, did I? Or the things I plan, do I plan according to the flesh—so it might be with me "Yes, yes" and "No, no" at the same time? ¹⁸ But as God is faithful, our message to you is not both "Yes" and "No." ^{††19} For Ben-Elohim — Yeshua the Messiah, who was proclaimed among you by us, by myself and Silvanus [‡] and Timothy—was not "Yes" and "No." Rather, in Him it has always been "Yes." ²⁰ For in Him all the promises of God are "Yes." Therefore also through Him is the "Amen" by us, to the glory of God. ^{‡‡21} Now it is God who establishes us with you in Messiah. He anointed us, ²² set His seal on us, and gave us the Ruach in our hearts as a pledge.

²³ But I call God as my witness ^{‡‡‡}—to spare you, I didn't come to Corinth again. ²⁴ Not that we lord it over you in matters of faith, but we are fellow workers for your joy—for in the faith you are standing firm.

Forgive the Repentant Sinner

2 So I made up my mind that I would not come to you again causing sorrow. ² For if I cause you sorrow, then who is there cheering me on but the one I have made sorrowful? ³ And I wrote this very thing to you, so that when I came I wouldn't have sorrow from those who ought to make me rejoice—having confidence in you all that my joy is yours. ⁴ For out of much distress and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears—not to make you sorrowful, but to let you know the love that I have especially for you.

⁵ But if anyone has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow not to me, but to some extent—not to exaggerate—to all of you. ⁶ For such a person, this punishment by the majority is enough. ⁷ So instead you should forgive him and encourage him. Otherwise such a person might be swallowed up by excessive sorrow. ⁸ Therefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him. ⁹ For to this end I also wrote, that I might know your character, whether you are obedient in all things. ¹⁰ Now anyone you forgive, I also forgive. For indeed, what I have forgiven (if I have forgiven anything), I did it for you in the presence of Messiah, ¹¹ so that we might not be outwitted by satan —for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

Revealing Messiah's Fragrance

¹² Now when I arrived in Troas for the Good News of Messiah, and a door was opened to me by the Lord, ¹³ I had no rest in my spirit, because I didn't find Titus my brother. So I said farewell to them, and I set out for Macedonia. ¹⁴ But thanks be to God, who in Messiah always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us reveals everywhere the aroma ^{‡‡‡} of the knowledge of Himself. ¹⁵ For we are the aroma of Messiah to God, among those who are being saved and those who are perishing—¹⁶ to the one an aroma from death to death, to the other an aroma from life to life. Who is competent for these things? ¹⁷ For we are not like many, peddling the word of God. Rather, in Messiah we speak in the sight of God with sincerity, as persons sent from God.

^{††} cf. Num. 23:19. [‡] Or Silas ^{‡‡} cf. Ps. 72:19. ^{‡‡‡} Lit. as witness against my soul ^{†††} cf. Song 1:3; Ezek. 20:41.

A New Covenant on Hearts of Flesh

3 Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you or from you? ²You are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everyone. ³It is clear that you are a letter from Messiah delivered by us—written not with ink but with the Ruach of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts. [†]

⁴Such is the confidence we have through Messiah toward God—⁵ not that we are competent in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but our competence is from God. ⁶He also made us competent as servants of a new covenant ^{††}—not of the letter, but of the Ruach. For the letter kills, but the Ruach gives life.

⁷Now if the ministry of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such glory that Bnei-Yisrael could not look intently upon Moses's face because of its glory [‡]—although it was passing away—⁸ how will the ministry of the Ruach not be even more glorious? ⁹For if there is glory in the ministry of condemnation, ^{‡‡} the ministry of righteousness overflows even more in glory. ¹⁰For even what was glorious is not glorious in comparison to the glory that surpasses it. ¹¹For if what is passing away is glorious, much more what remains is glorious.

¹²Therefore, having such a hope, we act with great boldness. ¹³We are not like Moses, who used to put a veil over his face in order for Bnei-Yisrael not to look intently upon the end of what was passing away. ¹⁴But their minds were hardened. For up to this very day the same veil remains unlifted at the reading of the ancient covenant, since in Messiah it is passing away. ¹⁵But to this day, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart. ¹⁶But whenever someone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. ^{‡‡‡} Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Ruach ADONAI is, there is freedom. ^{‡‡‡‡} But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory—just as from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

Treasures in Jars of Clay

4 For this reason, since we have this ministry, just as we received mercy, we do not lose heart. ²Instead, we renounced the hidden shameful ways—not walking in deception or distorting the word of God, but commending ourselves before God to everyone's conscience by the open proclamation of the truth.

[†] cf. Exod. 24:12; 31:18; 32:15-16; Prov. 3:3; 7:3; Jer. 31:33; Ezek. 11:19; 36:26. ^{††} cf. Jer. 31:31. [‡] Lit. the glory of his face

³ And even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. ⁴ In their case, the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, so they might not see the light of the Good News of the glory of Messiah, who is the image of God. ⁵ For we do not proclaim ourselves, but Messiah Yeshua as Lord—and ourselves as your slaves for Yeshua's sake. ⁶ For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," ^{‡‡‡} is the One who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Messiah. [§]

⁷ But we have this treasure in jars of clay, ^{§†} so that the surpassing greatness of the power may be from God and not from ourselves. ⁸ We are hard pressed in every way, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not in despair; ⁹ persecuted, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; ¹⁰ always carrying in the body the death of Yeshua, so that the life of Yeshua may also be revealed in our mortal body. ¹¹ For we who live are always being handed over to death for Yeshua's sake, so that the life of Yeshua may be revealed in our mortal body. ¹² So death is at work in us, but life is at work in you. ¹³ But we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke." ^{§††} So we also believe, and therefore we also speak, ¹⁴ knowing that the One who raised the Lord Yeshua will raise us also with Yeshua, and will bring us with you into His presence. ¹⁵ For all things are for your sakes, so that the grace that is spreading through more and more people may cause thanksgiving to overflow—to the glory of God.

¹⁶ Therefore we do not lose heart. Though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. ^{§†‡} For our trouble, light and momentary, is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison, ¹⁸ as we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen. For what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

Earthly Tents, Eternal Dwellings

5 For we know that if the tent, our earthly home, is torn down, we have a building from God—a home not made with human hands, eternal in the heavens. ² For in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our heavenly dwelling—³ if indeed, after we have put it on, we will not be found naked. ⁴ For we groan while we are in this tent—burdened because we don't want to be unclothed but to be clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵ Now the One who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who gave us the Ruach as a pledge. ⁶ Therefore we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord. ⁷ For we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸ We are confident, I say, and prefer rather to be absent from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹ So whether at home or absent, we make it our aim to be pleasing to Him. ¹⁰ For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Messiah, so that each one may receive what is due for the things he did while in the body—whether good or bad.

Ambassadors for Messiah

¹¹ Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, [†] we are trying to persuade people, but what we are is known to God—and I hope it is known to your consciences as well. ¹² For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity for boasting about us, so that you may have something to answer those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart. ^{††13} For if we are out of our minds, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴ For the love of Messiah compels us, since we have concluded that One died for all; as a result all died. ¹⁵ And He died for all so that those who live might no longer live for themselves, but for the One who died for them and was raised.

¹⁶ So from now on we recognize no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Messiah according to the flesh, yet now we no longer know Him this way. ¹⁷ Therefore if anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. ^{†18} Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Messiah and gave us the ministry of reconciliation. ¹⁹ That is, in Messiah God was reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them; and He has entrusted the message of reconciliation to us. ²⁰ We are therefore ambassadors for Messiah, as though God were making His appeal through us. We beg you on behalf of Messiah, be reconciled to God. ²¹ He made the One who knew no sin to become a sin offering on our behalf, [‡] so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

6 Since we are co-laboring, we also urge you not to receive God's grace in vain. ² For He says, "At a favorable time I listened to you, in a day of salvation I helped you." ^{‡‡} Behold, now is the favorable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. ³ We give no cause for offense in anything, so that our ministry may not be blamed. ⁴ But as God's servants, we are commending ourselves in every way—in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, ⁵ in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in troubles, in sleeplessness, in hunger; ⁶ in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Ruach ha-Kodesh, in genuine love, ⁷ in truthful speech, in the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left; ⁸ through honor and dishonor, through evil report and good report. We are regarded as deceivers and yet true; ⁹ as unknown and yet well-known; as dying, yet behold, we live; as disciplined yet not put to death; ^{‡‡10} as grieving yet always rejoicing; as poor yet enriching many; as having nothing yet possessing everything.

¹¹ We have spoken openly to you, O Corinthians; our heart is open wide! ¹² You are not restricted by us, yet you are restricted in your own feelings. ¹³ Now in return—I speak as to my children—open wide to us also.

Preserving Sanctity in God's Living Temple

¹⁴ Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. ^{‡‡} For what partnership is there between righteousness and lawlessness? Or what fellowship does light have with darkness? ¹⁵ What harmony does Messiah have with Belial ^{§?} Or what part does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? ¹⁶ What agreement does God's Temple have with idols? ^{§†} For we are the temple of the living God—just as God said,

"I will dwell in them and walk among them; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. ^{§††}

¹⁷ Therefore, come out from among them, and be separate, says ADONAI.

Touch no unclean thing. ^{§‡}

Then I will take you in. ^{§††} ¹⁸ I will be a father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says ADONAI -Tzva'ot." ^{§†}

7 Therefore, since we have these promises, loved ones, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of body and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

Godly Sorrow and Joy

² Make room for us in your hearts. We wronged no one, ruined no one, took advantage of no one. ³ I do not say this to condemn you, for I have said before that you are in our hearts—to die together and to live together with you. ⁴ Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I have been filled with encouragement. I overflow with joy in all our troubles.

⁵ For even when we came into Macedonia, our body had no rest. But we were hard pressed on every side—conflicts outside, fears within. ⁶ But God, who encourages the downcast, encouraged us with the arrival of Titus; ⁷ and not only by his coming, but also by the encouragement with which he was encouraged by you, as he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your deep concern for me—so that I rejoiced still more.

⁸ For even if I grieved you with my letter, I do not regret it—though I did regret it, for I see that my letter grieved you, but just for a while. ⁹ Now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to the point of repentance. For you were grieved according to God's will, so that you might in no way suffer loss from us. ¹⁰ For the grief that God wills brings a repentance that leads to salvation, leaving no regret. But the world's grief brings death. ¹¹ For see what this very thing—this grieving that God wills—has brought you! What diligence, what defense, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what rendering of justice! In everything you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter. ¹² So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for the sake of the wrongdoer or for the sake of the one who was wronged, but to make known to you your diligence for us in the sight of God. ¹³ For this reason we have been encouraged.

Besides our own encouragement, we rejoiced even more at the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you. ¹⁴ For if I have boasted some to him about you, I was not put to shame. But as we spoke all things truthfully to you, so also our boasting to Titus has proved to be the truth. ¹⁵ His feelings toward you overflow when he remembers everyone's obedience—how you received him with fear and trembling. ¹⁶ I rejoice that in everything I have confidence in you.

Eagerness to Give

8 Now we make known to you, brothers and sisters, the grace God has given to Messiah's communities in Macedonia—² that in much testing by affliction, the abundance of their joy and their extreme poverty overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. ³ For I testify that according to their ability, and even beyond their ability, they gave of their own free will—⁴ begging us with much urging for the favor of sharing in the relief of the kedoshim. ⁵ Moreover, it was not just as we had hoped, but they gave of themselves first to the Lord and then to us in keeping with God's will. ⁶ So we urged Titus that, just as he had made a start before, so he should also complete this gracious service for you. ⁷ But as you excel in everything—in faith and speech and knowledge and all diligence, and in your love for us—also excel in this grace. ⁸ I am saying this not as a command, but I am trying to prove by the diligence of others the genuineness of your love as well. ⁹ For you know the grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah—that even though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, so that through His poverty you might become rich. ¹⁰ Now I give my opinion in this matter, that it is a credit to you that a year ago you were the first to start—not only to do but even to be willing. ¹¹ But now finish doing it, so that just as there was eagerness to be willing, so also to finish it, out of what you have. ¹² For if the eagerness is present, the gift is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he doesn't have. ¹³ For it is not relief for others and hardship for you, but as a matter of equality. ¹⁴ Your abundance at this present time meets their need, so that their abundance may also meet your need—so that there may be equality. ¹⁵ As it is written, "He who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little." †

An Offering by Special Delivery

¹⁶ But thanks be to God, who put into the heart of Titus the same devotion for you. ¹⁷ For indeed he not only accepted our appeal, but went to you with eagerness and on his own initiative. ¹⁸ We are sending along with him the brother whose fame in connection with the Good News has spread throughout all of Messiah's communities. ¹⁹ Not only that, but he has also been appointed by the communities as our travel companion with this gracious gift, which is administered by us for the glory of the Lord Himself and to show our eagerness to help. ²⁰ We are taking this precaution, so that no one will blame us in regard to the way we administer this generous gift. ²¹ We have regard for what is honorable—not only before the Lord, but also before people. ²² Also with them we are sending our brother whom we have tested many times and found to be diligent in many things, but now even more diligent because of his great confidence in you. ²³ As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker among you; as for our brothers, they are the emissaries of the communities, a glory to Messiah. ²⁴ Therefore, before Messiah's communities show them the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.

9 Now about this service to the kedoshim, it is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you—² for I know your eagerness. I boast about it to the Macedonians, that Achaia has been preparing for a year already; and your zeal has stirred up most of them. ³ But I am sending the brothers in order that our boasting about you may not be in vain in this case, so that you may be prepared, just as I kept saying. ⁴ Otherwise, if any Macedonians were to come and find you unprepared, we—not to mention you—would be put to shame in this undertaking. ⁵ So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go on to you and arrange ahead of time your generous gift that had been promised beforehand, so that it would be ready as a gift and not as an extortion.

Sowing and Reaping Generosity

⁶ The point is this: whoever sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully. †† Let each one give as he has decided in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion—for God loves a cheerful giver. ††† And God is able to make all grace overflow to you, so that by always having enough of everything, you may overflow in every good work. ⁹ As it is written,

“He scattered widely, He gave to the poor; His righteousness endures forever.” [†]

¹⁰ Now the One who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed and increase the harvest of your righteousness. ^{††11} You will be enriched in everything for all generosity, which through us brings about thanksgiving to God. ¹² For this service of giving is not only supplying the needs of the kedoshim, but is also overflowing with many thanksgivings to God. ¹³ Because of the evidence of this service, they praise God for the obedience of your affirmation of the Good News of Messiah and for the generosity of your contribution to them and to everyone. ¹⁴ And in their prayer for you, they long for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. ¹⁵ Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

Tearing down Strongholds

10 Now I, Paul, appeal myself to you by the meekness and gentleness of Messiah—I who am humble when face to face with you, but bold toward you when far away. ² I beg of you that when I am present I won't need to be bold with the courage I consider showing against some who judge us as walking in the flesh. ³ For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage war according to the flesh. ⁴ For the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly but powerful through God for the tearing down of strongholds. [‡] We are tearing down false arguments ⁵ and every high-minded thing that exalts itself ^{††} against the knowledge of God. We are taking every thought captive to the obedience of Messiah— ⁶ ready to punish all disobedience, whenever your obedience is complete.

⁷ Look at what is before your eyes. ^{‡‡} If anyone is confident in himself that he belongs to Messiah, let him reconsider that just as he belongs to Messiah, so also do we. ⁸ For even if I boast a little more about our authority—which the Lord gave for building you up and not for tearing you down—I will not be put to shame. ⁹ Not that I would try to terrify you by my letters— ¹⁰ for they say, “His letters are weighty and strong, but his presence in person is weak and his speech of no account.” ¹¹ Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word through letters when we are absent, we also are in action when we are present.

¹² For we do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they have no understanding. ¹³ But we will not boast beyond limits, but within the limits of the area that God has assigned to us—to reach even as far as you. ¹⁴ We are not extending ourselves too far, as if we did not reach you—for we did come even as far as to you with the Good News of Messiah. ¹⁵ Neither are we boasting beyond limits based on the labors of others, but we have hope while your faith is growing for our area among you to be greatly enlarged— ¹⁶ so that we may proclaim the Good News even to regions beyond you, not boasting about what has been accomplished in another's area. ¹⁷ But “let him who boasts boast in the Lord.” ^{‡‡‡18} For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

True and False Apostles

11 I wish that you would put up with a little foolishness from me, but indeed you are putting up with me. ² For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I betrothed you to one husband, to present you to Messiah as a pure virgin. ^{‡‡‡3} But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your minds might be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion and purity to the Messiah. ⁴ For if someone comes and proclaims another Yeshua whom we did not proclaim, or if you receive a different spirit that you did not receive, or a different “good news” that you did not accept, you put up with that well enough!

⁵ For I consider myself in no way inferior to the “super special” emissaries. ⁶ Even if I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not so in knowledge. No, in every way we have made this clear to you in all things. ⁷ Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I proclaimed to you God's Good News free of charge? ⁸ I robbed other communities by taking wages from them for service to you. ⁹ When I was present with you and I was in need, I did not burden anyone; for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my need. In everything I kept myself from being a burden to you, and I will continue to do so. ¹⁰ As the truth of Messiah is in me, this boasting of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹ Why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

¹² But what I am doing I will continue to do, so that I may cut off the opportunity from those who want an opportunity in what they boast about to also be regarded just as we are. ¹³ For such men are false emissaries, deceitful workers masquerading as Messiah's emissaries. ¹⁴ And no wonder, for even satan masquerades as an angel of light. ¹⁵ It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness. Their end will be according to their deeds.

Paul Boasts in the Lord

¹⁶ I say again, let no one consider me to be a fool. But if you do, accept me as a fool, so that I also may boast a little. ¹⁷ What I am saying, I am saying not ac-

ording to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this self-confident boasting. ¹⁸ Since many boast according to the flesh, I too will boast. ¹⁹ For you, being so wise, put up with fools gladly. ²⁰ For you put up with it if someone enslaves you, if someone devours you, if someone takes advantage of you, if someone puts on airs, if someone slaps you on the face. ²¹ To my shame I must say that we have been weak.

Yet whatever anyone else dares to boast about—I speak in foolishness—I dare, too. ²² Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the descendants of Abraham? So am I. ²³ Are they servants of Messiah? I am more so—I speak like I'm out of my mind—in labors much more, in prisons much more, in beatings more brutal, near death often. ²⁴ Five times from the Jewish leaders I received 40 lashes minus one. ²⁵ Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. A night and a day I spent in the open sea. ²⁶ In my many journeys I have been in dangers from rivers, dangers from robbers, dangers from my countrymen, dangers from the Gentiles, dangers in the city, dangers in the desert, dangers in the sea, dangers among false brothers, ²⁷ in labor and hardship, through many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, often without food, in cold and exposure. ²⁸ Besides these other things, there is daily pressure on me of concern for all of Messiah's communities. ²⁹ Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is led into sin, and I do not burn with indignation? ³⁰ If I must boast, I will boast of my weakness. ³¹ The God and Father of the Lord Yeshua, who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. ³² In Damascus the governor under king Aretas was guarding the city of the Damascenes in order to seize me, ³³ and I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped his hands. †

Boasting in Visions and Weakness

12 I must go on boasting—though it does no good, I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord. ² I know a man in Messiah (whether in the body I don't know, or whether out of the body I don't know—God knows)—14 years ago, he was caught up to the third heaven. ³ I know such a man (whether in the body or outside of the body I don't know—God knows)—⁴ he was caught up into Paradise and heard words too sacred to tell, which a human is not permitted to utter. ⁵ On behalf of such a man I will boast—but about myself I will not boast, except in regard to my weaknesses. ⁶ For if I should want to boast, I would not be foolish—for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no one may think more of me than what he sees in me or hears from me—⁷ even in the extraordinary quality of the revelations. So that I would not exalt myself, a thorn in the flesh was given to me—a messenger of satan to torment me, †† so I would not exalt myself. ⁸ I pleaded with the Lord three times about this, that it might leave me. ⁹ But He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly in my weaknesses, so that the power of Messiah may dwell in me. ¹⁰ For Messiah's sake, then, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in distresses, in persecutions, in calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

¹¹ I have become a fool—you drove me to it, for I ought to have been commended by you. For I am in no way inferior to the super-special emissaries—though I am nothing. ¹² Truly the signs of an emissary were worked out among you, with patient endurance, by signs and wonders and mighty miracles. ¹³ For in what respect were you treated worse than the rest of Messiah's communities—except that I myself did not burden you? Pardon me this injustice!

¹⁴ Look, I am ready to come to you this third time, and I will not burden you—for I seek not your possessions, but you! For the children are not obliged to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. ¹⁵ I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less? ¹⁶ But be that as it may, I did not burden you myself. Nevertheless, crafty fellow that I am, I caught you with trickery! ¹⁷ I haven't taken advantage of you through any of those I sent to you, have I? ¹⁸ I did urge Titus to visit you, and I sent the brother with him. Titus didn't take any advantage of you, did he? Didn't we walk in the same spirit, in the same footsteps?

¹⁹ All along you've been thinking that we are defending ourselves to you. †† It is before God that we've been speaking in Messiah—and all for building you up, loved ones. ²⁰ For I am afraid that perhaps when I come, I may find you not as I wish, or I may be found by you not as you wish—that there may be strife, envy, outbursts of anger, self-seeking disputes, lashon ha-ra, gossip, arrogance, unruly commotions. ²¹ I am afraid that when I come again my God may humiliate me before you, and I will mourn for many of those who have sinned before and not repented of the impurity and sexual immorality and indecency which they committed.

Final Warnings

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. "By the testimony ††† of two or three witnesses shall every word be established." ††† I spoke a warning, when I was with you the second time. Though now I am away, I am again speaking a warning to those who have sinned before, as well as to all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare anyone—³ since you are demanding proof that Messiah is speaking through me. He is not weak toward you, but powerful among †† Some mss. say Do you think all along that we are defending ourselves to you? ††† Lit. mouth ††† Deut. 19:15; cf. Matt. 18:16; 1 Tim. 5:19.

you. ⁴ For He was crucified in weakness, yet He lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in Him, yet we shall live with Him by God's power toward you.

⁵ Test yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Examine yourselves! Or don't you know yourselves—that Messiah Yeshua is in you? Unless of course you failed the test. ⁶ But I hope that you will realize that we haven't failed the test. ⁷ Now we pray to God that you do no wrong—not so that we may appear to have passed the test, but in order that you may do what is right even if we may seem to have failed. ⁸ For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth. ⁹ For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. We also pray for this—your perfecting. ¹⁰ For this reason I write these things while I am absent, so that when I am present I need not proceed harshly, according to the authority which the Lord gave me—for building up and not for tearing down.

Final Greetings

¹¹ Finally, brothers and sisters, rejoice! Aim for restoration, encourage one another, be of the same mind, live in shalom—and the God of love and shalom will be with you.

¹² Greet one another with a holy kiss.

All the kedoshim greet you. †

¹³ The grace of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah and the love of God and the fellowship of the Ruach ha-Kodesh be with you all. Amen.

Galatians

Introduction

Together with Romans, Paul's letter to the Galatians speaks directly to the pressing issue of Jewish-Gentile relations in the body of Messiah. Written early in Paul's career, sometime in the late 40s, Paul here speaks sharply against those, maybe some variety of -believing Jews, who were teaching Torah observance for Gentiles as a way of justification. In no uncertain terms, he declares that justification comes by faith, not by observance (compare Acts 15). Along the way he draws on illustrations from the Hebrew Bible—Abraham, Sarah, and Hagar—to make his point.

Justification by faith in is a reality for Jews and Gentiles alike. The well-known verse in Galatians 3:28 does not seek to abolish all distinctions between Jews and Gentiles (any more than it abolishes all distinctions between men and women!), but rather tells us that all people have equal access to God and that all come to Him in the same way. As a result, there is a unity in the body of Messiah that transcends the Jewish-Gentile distinction. Moreover, our justification by faith is no license for unethical living, but rather through the we bear the fruit of a righteous and ethical life (chapters 5–6). Paul's opponents were attempting to alienate the Galatians from Paul. In 1 Corinthians 1:11-15, the division came from following various -believing leaders. Here in Galatians the division may come either from outside the body of Messiah or from certain Jewish believers, but the result was a compromise of the Good News for the non-Jewish Galatians.

In Galatians, Paul points us beyond divisions to the unity that we all share in Messiah—a unity of equal opportunity to come into relationship with God (3:28—the same access); a unity of the same way of salvation (2:16—through faith in God's Messiah); and a practical unity that manifests itself in behavior (5:14—love and self-sacrifice).

A Look Inside Galatians

Greetings from Paul

1 Paul, an emissary (sent not from men or by man, but by Yeshua the Messiah and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), 2 and all the brothers with me.

To Messiah's communities of Galatia:

3 Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and our Lord Yeshua the Messiah— 4 who gave Himself for our sins to rescue us from this present evil age, ac-ording to the will of our God and Father— 5 to Him be the glory forever and ever! Amen.

No Other Gospel

6 I am amazed that you are so quickly turning away from the One who called you by the grace of Messiah, to a different "good news"— 7 not that there is another, but only some who are confusing you and want to distort the Good News of Messiah. 8 But even if we (or an angel from heaven) should announce any "good news” to you other than what we have proclaimed to you, let that person be cursed! ⁹ As we have said before, so I now repeat: if anyone proclaims to you “good news” other than what you received, let that person be under a curse! ¹⁰ Am I now trying to win people’s approval, or God’s? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Messiah.

How Paul Was Sent Out

¹¹ Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that the Good News proclaimed by me is not man-made. ¹² I did not receive it from any human, nor was I taught it, but it came through a revelation of Yeshua the Messiah.

¹³ For you have heard of my earlier behavior in Judaism—how I persecuted God’s community beyond measure and tried to destroy it. ¹⁴ I was even advancing within Judaism beyond many my own age among my people, being a more extreme observer of my fathers’ traditions. ¹⁵ But when God—who set me apart from birth and called me through His grace [†]—was pleased ¹⁶ to reveal His Son to me so I would proclaim Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with any human. ¹⁷ I did not go up to Jerusalem to those who were emissaries before me, either. Instead, I went away to Arabia and returned again to Damascus.

¹⁸ Then three years later I went to Jerusalem to visit with Peter, and I stayed with him 15 days. ¹⁹ But I saw no other emissaries except Jacob, the Lord’s brother. ²⁰ (In what I’m writing you, before God, I do not lie.)

²¹ Then I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ²² But I was personally unknown to Messiah’s communities of Judea; ²³ they only kept hearing, “The one who once persecuted us now proclaims the Good News he once tried to destroy!” ²⁴ So they were praising God because of me.

Accepted in Jerusalem

2 Then after 14 years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus with me. ² Because of a revelation, I went up and presented to them the Good News that I proclaim among the Gentiles. But I did so privately to those who seemed to be influential, to make sure I would not run—or had not run—in vain. ^{††} Yet not even Titus who was with me, a Greek, was forced to be circumcised. ⁴ Now this issue came up because of false brothers secretly brought in (who slipped in to spy out our freedom in Messiah, in order to bring us into bondage). ⁵ But we did not give in to them even for a moment, so that the truth of the Good News might be preserved for you.

⁶ But from those who seemed to be influential (whatever they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)—well, those influential ones added nothing to my message. ⁷ On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcised just as Peter was for the circumcised. ⁸ (For the same God who was at work in Peter as an emissary to the Jews, also was at work in me as an emissary to the Gentiles.) ⁹ Realizing the favor that had been given to me, Jacob and Peter [‡] and John—who are the recognized pillars—shook hands in partnership with Barnabas and me, ^{††} so that we would go to the Gentiles and they to the Jews. ¹⁰ They asked only that we remember the poor—something I also was eager to do.

Confronting Hypocrisy

¹¹ But when Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he was clearly in the wrong— ¹² for before certain people came from Jacob, he regularly ate with the Gentiles; but when they came, he began to withdraw and separate himself, fearing those from the circumcision. ¹³ And the rest of the Jews joined him in hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. ¹⁴ But when I saw that they were not walking in line with the truth of the Good News, I said to Peter in front of everyone, “If you—being a Jew—live like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?”

¹⁵ We are Jews by birth and not sinners from among the Gentiles. ¹⁶ Yet we know that a person is set right not by deeds based on Torah, but rather through putting trust in Messiah Yeshua. ^{‡‡} So even we have put our trust in Messiah Yeshua, in order that we might be set right based on trust in Messiah and not by deeds based on Torah—because no human will be justified ^{‡‡‡} by deeds based on Torah. ¹⁷ But if, while seeking to be justified in Messiah, we ourselves also were found to be sinners, is Messiah then an agent of sin? May it never be! ¹⁸ For if I rebuild the very things I tore down, I prove myself to be a law-breaker. ¹⁹ For through law I died to law, so that I might live for God. I have been crucified with Messiah; ²⁰ and it is no longer I who live, but Messiah lives in me. And the life I now live in the body, I live by trusting in Ben-Elohim ^{‡‡‡}—who loved me and gave Himself up for me. ²¹ I do not nullify the grace of God—for if righteousness comes through Torah, then Messiah died for no reason!

By Deeds or by Faith?

3 O foolish Galatians, who cast a spell on you? Before your eyes Yeshua the Messiah was clearly portrayed as crucified. ² I want to find out just one thing from you: did you receive the Ruach by deeds based on Torah, or by hearing based on trust? ³ Are you so foolish? After beginning with the Ruach, will you now reach the goal in the flesh? ⁴ Did you endure so much for nothing—if it really was for nothing? ⁵ So then, the One who gives you the Ruach and works miracles among you—does He do it because of your deeds based on Torah or your hearing based on trust and faithfulness?

⁶ Just as Abraham “believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness,” ^{†7} know then that those who have faith are children of Abraham. ⁸ The Scriptures, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, proclaimed the Good News to Abraham in advance, saying, “All the nations shall be blessed through you.” ^{††9} So then, the faithful are blessed along with Abraham, the faithful one.

¹⁰ For all who rely on the deeds of Torah are under a curse—for the Scriptures say, “Cursed is everyone who does not keep doing everything written in the scroll of the Torah.” ^{††11} It is clear that no one is set right before God by Torah, for “the righteous shall live by emunah.” ^{††12} However, Torah is not based on trust and faithfulness; on the contrary, “the one who does these things shall live by them.” ^{††13} Messiah liberated us from Torah’s curse, having become a curse for us (for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree” ^{†††})— ¹⁴ in order that through Messiah Yeshua the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so we might receive the promise of the Ruach through trusting faith.

¹⁵ Brothers and sisters, I speak in human terms: even with a man’s covenant, once it has been confirmed, no one cancels it or adds to it. ¹⁶ Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. It doesn’t say, “and to seeds,” as of many, but as of one, “and to your seed,” who is the Messiah. ¹⁷ What I am saying is this: Torah, which came 430 years later, does not cancel the covenant previously confirmed by God, so as to make the promise ineffective. ¹⁸ For if the inheritance is based on law, it is no longer based on a promise. But God has graciously given it to Abraham by means of a promise.

¹⁹ Then why the Torah? It was added because of wrongdoings until the Seed would come—to whom the promise had been made. It was arranged through angels by the hand of an intermediary. ²⁰ Now an intermediary is not for one party alone—but God is one. ²¹ Then is the Torah against the promises of God? May it never be! For if a law had been given that could impart life, certainly righteousness would have been based on law. ²² But the Scripture has locked up the whole world under sin, so that the promise based on trust in Messiah Yeshua ^{†††} might be given to those who trust.

²³ Now before faith came, we were being guarded under Torah—bound together until the coming faith

† Gen. 15:6; cf. Rom. 4:3; Jacob 2:23. †† cf. Gen. 12:3; 18:18. ‡ cf. Deut. 27:26(27:26 LXX). †† Hab. 2:4. †† Lev. 18:5. ††† Deut. 21:23. ††† Or the faithfulness of Messiah Yeshua would be revealed. ²⁴ Therefore the Torah became our guardian to lead us to Messiah, so that we might be made right based on trusting. ²⁵ But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian. ²⁶ For you are all sons of God through trusting in Messiah Yeshua. ²⁷ For all of you who were immersed in Messiah have clothed yourselves with Messiah. ²⁸ There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female—for you are all one in Messiah Yeshua. ²⁹ And if you belong to Messiah, then you are Abraham’s seed—heirs according to the promise.

Living as Heirs

4 Now I am saying, so long as the heir is underage, he is no different from a slave, even though he is the owner of everything. ² Instead, he is under guardians and managers until the date set by the father. ³ So also, when we were underage, we were subservient to the basic principles of the world. ⁴ But when the fullness of time came, God sent out His Son, born of a woman and born under law— ⁵ to free those under law, so we might receive adoption as sons. ⁶ Now because you are sons, God sent the Ruach of His Son into our hearts, who cries out, “Abba! Father!” ⁷ So you are no longer a slave but a son—and if a son, also an heir through God. ⁸ But at that time, when you did not know God, you served those who by nature are not gods at all. ⁹ But now you have come to know God—or rather you have come to be known by God. So how can you turn back again to those weak and worthless principles? Do you want to be enslaved to them all over again? ¹⁰ You observe days and months and seasons and years. ¹¹ I fear for you, that perhaps I have labored over you in vain!

¹² I plead with you, brothers and sisters, become like me, for I became like you. You have done me no wrong— ¹³ you know it was because of a physical ailment that I proclaimed the Good News to you the first time; ¹⁴ and though my physical condition was a trial to you, you did not hate or reject me. No, you welcomed me as a messenger of God—or even as Messiah Yeshua. ¹⁵ So where is your sense of joy? For I testify that you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me, if possible. ¹⁶ So have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? ¹⁷ Others zealously court you—not in a good way, but they wish to shut you out so that you will court them. ¹⁸ To be courted is good, but let it always be in a good way—and not just when I am there with you. ¹⁹ My dear children! Again I suffer labor pains until Messiah is formed in you. ²⁰ I wish I could be with you now and change my tone, for I don’t know what to make of you.

Midrash on Abraham’s Two Sons

²¹ Tell me, you who want to be under Torah, don’t you understand st the Torah? ²² For it is written that

§ Some mss. read heir of God through Messiah

Abraham had two sons, one by the slave woman and one by the free woman. ¹²³ But one—the son by the slave woman—was born naturally; ^{††} while the other—the son by the free woman—was through the promise. ²⁴ Now these things are being treated allegorically, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, giving birth to slavery—this is Hagar. ²⁵ But this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery along with her children. ²⁶ But the Jerusalem above is free—she is our mother. ²⁷ For it is written:

“Rejoice, O barren woman who bears no children.

Break forth and shout,

you who suffer no labor pains.

For more are the children of the desolate

than of the one who has a husband.” [‡]

²⁸ Now you, brothers and sisters—like Isaac, you are children of promise. ²⁹ But just as at that time the one born according to the flesh persecuted the one born according to the Ruach, so it is now. ³⁰ But what does the Scripture say? “Drive out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son” ^{‡†} of the free woman. ³¹ So then, brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman but of the free woman.

Freedom Based on Favor

5 For freedom, Messiah set us free—so stand firm, and do not be burdened by a yoke of slavery again. ² Listen—I, Paul, tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised, Messiah will be of no benefit to you. ³ Again I testify to every man who lets himself be circumcised, that he is obligated to keep the whole Torah. ⁴ You who are trying to be justified by Torah ^{‡†} have been cut off from Messiah; you have fallen away from grace. ⁵ For through the Ruach, by faith, we eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. ⁶ For in Messiah Yeshua, neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any meaning—but only trust and faithfulness expressing itself through love.

⁷ You were running a great race! Who blocked you from following the truth? ⁸ This detour doesn't come from the One who calls you. ⁹ A little hametz works its way through the whole batch of dough! ¹⁰ I am confident in the Lord that you will not think otherwise. But the one who is confusing you will pay the penalty, whoever he is. ¹¹ As for me, brothers and sisters, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case, the stumbling block of the cross has been eliminated. ¹² I only wish those who are agitating you would castrate themselves! ^{‡‡†}

§† Or hear, listen to the law †

‡† Gen. 21:10 (LXX). ‡‡ Or made right by Torah ‡‡† cf. Phil. 3:2.

Walking by the Ruach

¹³ Brothers and sisters, you were called to freedom—only do not let your freedom become an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. ¹⁴ For the whole Torah can be summed up in a single saying: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” ^{‡‡†15} But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not destroyed by one another.

¹⁶ But I say, walk by the Ruach, and you will not carry out the desires of the flesh. ¹⁷ For the flesh sets its desire against the Ruach, but the Ruach sets its desire against the flesh—for these are in opposition to one another, so that you cannot do what you want. ¹⁸ But if you are led by the Ruach, you are not under law.

¹⁹ Now the deeds of the flesh are clear: sexual immorality, impurity, indecency, ²⁰ idolatry, witchcraft, hostility, strife, jealousy, rage, selfish ambition, dissension, factions, ²¹ envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, just as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit God's kingdom. ²² But the fruit of the Ruach is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ gentleness, and self-control—against such things there is no law. ²⁴ Now those who belong to Messiah [§] have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

²⁵ If we live by the Ruach, let us also walk by the Ruach. ²⁶ Let us not become conceited—provoking one another, envying one another.

Bearing Burdens

6 Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught doing something wrong, you who are directed by the Ruach, restore such a person in a spirit of gentleness—looking closely at yourself so you are not tempted also. ² Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you fulfill the Torah of Messiah. ³ For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he is fooling himself. ⁴ Rather let each one examine his own work. Then he will have pride in himself alone and not in comparison to anyone else. ⁵ For each one will carry his own load.

⁶ Now let the one who is taught the word share all good things with his teacher. ⁷ Do not be deceived—God is not mocked. For whatever a man sows, that he also shall reap. ⁸ For the one who sows in the flesh will reap corruption from the flesh. ^{§†} But the one who sows in the Ruach will reap from the Ruach eternal life. ⁹ So let us not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we will reap if we don't give up. ¹⁰ Therefore, whenever we have an opportunity, let us do good toward all ^{§††}—especially those who belong to the household of faith.

‡‡‡ Lev. 19:18. § Some mss. add Yeshua §† cf. Job 4:8.
§†† cf. Prov. 3:27.

Living under God's Favor

¹¹ Notice the large letters—I am writing to you with my own hand. ¹² Those wanting to look good outwardly [†] are trying to force you to be circumcised—only so they will not be persecuted for the cross of Messiah. ¹³ For not even the circumcised keep Torah themselves. Yet they want to have you circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh. ¹⁴ But may I never boast—except in the cross of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. Through Him the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵ For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means ^{††} anything—but only a new creation. ¹⁶ Now as many as live by this rule [‡]— shalom and mercy on them and on the Israel of God.

¹⁷ From now on let no one make trouble for me, for I bear on my body the scars ^{‡‡} of Yeshua .

¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Ephesians

Introduction

Ephesians is a wide-ranging and encouraging letter, which is remarkable since Paul wrote it from prison, as said at 3:1, 4:1, and 6:20. This may well be when he was imprisoned in Rome in the early 60s. But Paul apparently looked on his jail time as “for the Lord” (4:1) and “for the sake of you Gentiles” (3:1). Unlike many of Paul’s other letters, Ephesians is not addressed to a specific situation in the Ephesian community. There is no heresy he speaks against, no ethical lapse to correct, no tension between Jewish and Gentile believers who made up the majority. That is not to say that the Ephesians had no problems! But this letter is a positive exposition of teaching and encouragement, applicable to all of Messiah’s communities regardless of their particular situations.

It is almost impossible to give a summary of the rich teachings of Ephesians. One focus is the —the community of those who put their trust in . There is more in Ephesians about the than in any other of Paul’s letters. The existence of this body is a direct result of God’s gracious actions in choosing us as His people. His grace is especially seen in , the great reconciler between Jews and Gentiles and the One who will in fact bring redemption to the entire universe. It is Messiah who is the head of this body and the cornerstone of God’s Temple.

Along with the emphasis on what God has done, come exhortations to grow in the knowledge of God and in His love, which includes living according to His will and striving for unity among believers. ’s followers must live in imitation of Him—particularly in household relationships (husbands/wives; parents/children; masters/slaves) that mirror the various ways we as believers relate to God. Of special interest to Messianic believers are Paul’s remarks in 2:11-22. Here Paul tells his Gentile readers that they have joined the commonwealth of Israel as fellow citizens through the reconciling work of . Likewise, in 3:6 he tells us that the Gentiles who have come to faith inherit the promises with Israel as “joint heirs,” belong to the same people as “fellow members,” and benefit equally as “co-sharers of the promise.” In contrast with supersessionism, which teaches that the church Israel, Paul says that the Gentiles have Israel, receiving blessings and promises from which they were once excluded. Messiah’s community is not a replacement for Israel, but rather the Body that unites Jews and Gentiles together in Messiah . No wonder Paul breaks into a deep and lengthy prayer for the Ephesians at the end of the third chapter!

Greetings

1 Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua by God's will,

To the kedoshim in Ephesus †—those trusting in Messiah Yeshua :

² Grace and shalom to you, from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

God's Glorious Grace

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Messiah. ⁴ He chose us in the Messiah before the foundation of the world, to be holy and blameless before Him in love. ⁵ He predestined us for adoption as sons through Messiah Yeshua , in keeping with the good pleasure of His will— ⁶ to the glorious praise of His grace, with which He favored us through the One He loves!

¹³ After you heard the message of truth—the Good News of your salvation—and when you put your trust in Him, you were sealed with the promised Ruach ha-Kodesh . ¹⁴ He is the guarantee of our inheritance, until the redemption of His possession—to His glorious praise!

God's Glorious Power Working in Us

¹⁵ Therefore, ever since I heard of your trust in the Lord Yeshua and of your love for all the kedoshim , ¹⁶ I never stop giving thanks for you as I mention you in my prayers— ¹⁷ that the God of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, our glorious Father, may give you spiritual wisdom and revelation in knowing Him. ¹⁸ I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what is the richness of His glorious inheritance in the kedoshim , ¹⁹ and what is His exceedingly great power toward us who keep trusting Him—in keeping with the working of His mighty strength.

²⁰ This power He exercised in Messiah when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in heaven. †‡† He is far above any ruler, authority, power, leader, and every name that is named—not only in the olam ha-zeh but also in the olam ha-ba .

† Some mss. omit in Ephesus †† cf. Deut. 9:29; 32:8-9. ‡ cf. Ps. 110:1.

²² God placed all things under Messiah's feet †† and appointed Him as head over all things for His community— ²³ which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

Destined for Wrath, Saved by Grace

2 You were dead in your trespasses and sins. ² At that time, you walked in the way of this world, in conformity to the ruler of the domain of the air—the ruler of the spirit who is now operating in the sons of disobedience. ³ We too all lived among them in the cravings of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and the mind. By nature we were children of wrath, just like the others. ⁴ But God was rich in mercy, † because of His great love with which He loved us. ⁵ Even when we were dead in our trespasses, He made us alive together with Messiah. (By grace you have been saved!) ⁶ And He raised us up with Him and seated us with Him in the heavenly places in Messiah Yeshua — ⁷ to show in the olam ha-ba the measureless richness of His grace in kindness toward us in Messiah Yeshua .

⁸ For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not from yourselves—it is the gift of God. ⁹ It is not based on deeds, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰ For we are His workmanship—created in Messiah Yeshua for good deeds, which God prepared beforehand so we might walk in them.

Jew and Gentile, One in Messiah

¹¹ Therefore, keep in mind that once you—Gentiles in the flesh—were called “uncircumcision” by those called “circumcision” (which is performed on flesh by hand).

¹² At that time you were separate from Messiah, excluded from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. ¹³ But now in Messiah Yeshua , you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of the Messiah. ¹⁴ For He is our shalom , the One who made the two into one and broke down the middle wall of separation. Within His flesh He made powerless the hostility— ¹⁵ the law code of mitzvot contained in regulations. He did this in order to create within Himself one new man from the two groups, making shalom , ¹⁶ and to reconcile both to God in one body through the cross—by which He put the hostility to death. ¹⁷ And He came and proclaimed shalom to you who were far away and shalom to those who were near ††— ¹⁸ for through Him we both have access to the Father by the same Ruach . ¹⁹ So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with God's people and members of God's household. ²⁰ You have been built on the foundation made up of the emissaries and prophets, with Messiah Yeshua Himself being the cornerstone. ¹²¹ In Him the whole building, being fitted together, is growing into a holy temple for the Lord. ²² In Him, you also are being built together into God's dwelling place ^{††} in the Ruach.

The Mystery of the Gentiles Revealed

3 For this reason I, Paul, am a prisoner of Messiah Yeshua for the sake of you Gentiles. ² Surely you have heard about the plan of God's grace given to me for you— ³ that the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote before briefly. ⁴ When you read this, you can understand my insight into the mystery of Messiah— ⁵ which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations, as it has now been revealed by the Ruach to His holy emissaries and prophets. ⁶ This mystery is that the Gentiles are joint heirs and fellow members of the same body and co-sharers of the promise in Messiah Yeshua through the Good News. ⁷ I became a servant of this Good News by the gift of God's favor given to me through the exercise of His power.

⁸ This favor was given to me, the very least of His kedoshim, to proclaim to the Gentiles the endless riches of the Messiah ⁹ and to bring to light the plan of the mystery—which for ages was hidden in God, who created all things. ¹⁰ The purpose is that through Messiah's community the multi-faceted wisdom of God might be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places, ¹¹ which is in keeping with the eternal purpose that He carried out in Messiah Yeshua our Lord. ¹² In Him we have boldness and access with confidence through trusting in Him. ^{†13} So I ask you not to be discouraged by my troubles on your behalf—they are your glory.

Prayer for Power and Understanding

¹⁴ For this reason I bow my knees before the Father [†]— ¹⁵ from Him every family in heaven and on earth receives its name. ¹⁶ I pray that from His glorious riches He would grant you to be strengthened in your inner being with power through His Ruach, ¹⁷ so that Messiah may dwell in your hearts through faith. I pray that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸ may have strength to grasp with all the kedoshim what is the width and length and height and depth, ¹⁹ and to know the love of Messiah which surpasses knowledge, so you may be filled up with all the fullness of God.

²⁰ Now to Him who is able to do far beyond all that we ask or imagine, by means of His power that works in us, ²¹ to Him be the glory in the community of believers and in Messiah Yeshua throughout all generations ^{††} forever and ever! Amen.

† cf. Ps. 118:22-23; Isa. 28:16. †† cf. 1 Kings 8:13, 39, 43. ‡ Or through His faithfulness †† Some mss. add of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah †† cf. Ps. 145:4; 13.

Unity of the Body and of God

4 Therefore I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you were called— ² with complete humility and gentleness, with patience, putting up with one another in love, ³ making every effort to keep the unity of the Ruach in the bond of shalom.

⁴ There is one body and one Ruach, just as you also were called in one hope of your calling;

⁵ one Lord, one faith, one immersion;

⁶ one God and Father of all, ^{††} who is over all and through all and in all.

⁷ But to each one of us grace was given in keeping with the measure of Messiah's gift. ⁸ Therefore it says, "When He went up on high, He led captive a troop of captives and gave gifts to his people." ^{††}

⁹ Now what does "He went up" mean, except that He first went down to the lower regions of the earth?

^{†10} The One who came down is the same One who went up far above all the heavens, in order to fill all things.

¹¹ He Himself gave some to be emissaries, some as prophets, some as proclaimers of the Good News, and some as shepherds and teachers— ¹² to equip the kedoshim for the work of service, for building up the body of Messiah. ¹³ This will continue until we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of Ben-Elohim—to mature adulthood, to the measure of the stature of Messiah's fullness. ¹⁴ As a result, we are no longer to be like children, tossed around by the waves and blown all over by every wind of teaching, by the trickery of men with cunning in deceitful scheming.

¹⁵ Instead, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all ways into Messiah, who is the Head. ¹⁶ From Him the whole body is fitted and held together by every supporting ligament. The proper working of each individual part produces the body's growth, for building itself up in love.

Put off the Old, Put on the New

¹⁷ So I tell you this, indeed I insist on it in the Lord—walk no longer as the pagans do, stumbling around in the futility of their thinking. ¹⁸ They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance in them due to the hardness of their heart. ¹⁹ Since they are past feeling, they have turned themselves over to indecency for the practice of every kind of immorality, with greed for more.

²⁰ However, you did not learn Messiah in this way—²¹ if indeed you have heard Him and were taught in Him, as the truth is in Yeshua. ²² With respect to your former lifestyle, you are to lay aside the old self corrupted by its deceitful desires,²³ be renewed in the spirit of your mind,²⁴ and put on the new self—created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

²⁵ So lay aside lying and “each one of you speak truth with his neighbor,”[†] for we are members of one another.²⁶ “Be angry, yet do not sin.”^{††} Do not let the sun go down on your anger,^{‡27} nor give the devil a foothold.²⁸ The one who steals must steal no longer—instead he must work, doing something useful with his own hands, so he may have something to share with the one who has need.²⁹ Let no harmful word come out of your mouth, but only what is beneficial for building others up according to the need, so that it gives grace to those who hear it.³⁰ Do not grieve the Ruach ha-Kodesh of God,^{‡†} by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.³¹ Get rid of all bitterness and rage and anger and quarreling and slander, along with all malice.³² Instead, be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving each other just as God in Messiah also forgave you.

Walk in the Light

5 Therefore be imitators of God, as dearly loved children;² and walk in love, just as Messiah also loved us^{‡†} and gave Himself up for us as an offering and sacrifice to God for a fragrant aroma.³ But sexual immorality and any impurity or greed—don’t even let these be mentioned among you, as is proper for kedoshim.⁴ Obscene, coarse, and stupid talk are also out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving.⁵ Know for certain that no immoral, indecent, or greedy person—who is really an idol worshipper at heart—has any inheritance in the kingdom of Messiah and God.

⁶ Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of such things God’s judgment comes on the children of disobedience.⁷ Therefore do not be partners with them.⁸ For once you were darkness, but now in union with the Lord you are light. Walk as children of light⁹ (for the fruit of light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth),¹⁰ trying to learn what is pleasing to the Lord.¹¹ Take no part in the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them—¹² for it is disgraceful even to mention the things that are done by them in secret.¹³ Yet everything exposed by the light is being made visible,¹⁴ for everything made visible is light. This is why it says, “Wake up, O sleeper!

Rise from the dead,

and Messiah will shine on you.”^{‡‡}

¹⁵ So pay close attention to how you walk—not as unwise people but as wise.¹⁶ Make the most of your time because the days are evil.¹⁷ For this reason do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord’s will is.¹⁸ And do not get drunk on wine, for that is recklessness.^{‡‡} Instead, be filled with the Ruach,¹⁹ speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making music in your heart to the Lord—²⁰ always giving thanks for everything to God the Father, in the name of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Orderly Relationships: Marriage

²¹ Also submit yourselves to one another out of reverence for Messiah—²² wives to your own husbands as to the Lord.²³ For the husband is head of the wife, as Messiah also is head of His community—Himself the Savior of the body.²⁴ But as Messiah’s community is submitted to Messiah, so also the wives to their husbands in everything.

²⁵ Husbands, love your wives just as Messiah also loved His community and gave Himself up for her²⁶ to make her holy, having cleansed her by immersion[§] in the word.²⁷ Messiah did this so that He might present to Himself His glorious community—not having stain or wrinkle or any such thing, but in order that she might be holy and blameless.²⁸ In the same way, husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

²⁹ For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it—just as Messiah also does His community,³⁰ because we are members of His body.³¹ “For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.”^{§†32} This mystery is great—but I am talking about Messiah and His community.³³ In any case, let each of you love his own wife as himself, and let the wife respect her husband.

Orderly Relationships: Parents

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.^{§†2} “Honor your father and mother” (which is the first commandment with a promise),³ “so that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth.”^{§†4} Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.^{§††}

Orderly Relationships: Workplace

⁵ Slaves, obey your human masters, with respect and reverence, with sincerity of heart, as you would the Messiah—⁶ not just under your master’s eye as people-pleasers, but as slaves of Messiah doing God’s will from the soul.⁷ Serve with a positive attitude, as to the Lord and not to men—⁸ knowing that whatever good each one does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether slave or free.⁹ And masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Stop using threats, knowing that the Master—of them and of you, too—is in heaven,^{§†} and there is no favoritism with Him.

‡‡‡ cf. Prov. 20:1; 23:31ff. § Lit. the washing of the water;
mikveh §† Gen. 2:24. §†† cf. Prov. 1:8; 6:20; 23:22. §‡ Deut.

Put on the Armor of God

¹⁰ Finally, be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power. ¹¹ Put on the full armor of God, so that you are able to stand against the schemes of the devil. ¹² For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the worldly forces of this darkness, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. ¹³ Therefore, take up the full armor of God, so that you may be able to resist when the times are evil, and after you have done everything, to stand firm. ¹⁴ Stand firm then! Buckle the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness. ¹⁵ Strap up your feet in readiness with the Good News of shalom. ¹⁶ Above all, take up the shield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. ¹⁷ And take the helmet of salvation † and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. ††¹⁸ Pray in the Ruach on every occasion, with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, keep alert with perseverance and supplication for all the kedoshim. ¹⁹ And pray for me when I open my mouth to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News, ²⁰ for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may speak boldly, the way I should.

²¹ Now Tychicus, my dearly loved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will give you all the news about me so you may know how I'm doing. ²² I have sent him to you for this very reason, so you may know how we are and he may encourage your hearts.

²³ Shalom to the brothers and sisters, and trusting love from God the Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ²⁴ Grace be with all those who love our Lord Yeshua the Messiah with undying love.

Philippians

Introduction

Philippians is one of Paul's "prison letters," written during one of his confinements in jail—in Rome, Caesarea, or Ephesus—in the late 50s or early 60s. Unlike some other communities, the Philippians seem to have gotten on quite well in their faith. Nevertheless, they are still exhorted to be on guard against false teachers whose lifestyle does not match their message (3:18-19). Even if we are growing in our faith, we need to be alert to influences that will try to disengage us from God. Many consider Philippians 4:4 to be the key verse of the letter: "Rejoice in the Lord always—again I will say, rejoice!" Paul rejoices that the Messiah is proclaimed even if from wrong motives (1:18). He rejoices even though he is in prison, and he encourages the Philippians to do the same (2:17-18). He exhorts them to rejoice in the Lord Himself (3:1 and 4:4). He prays with joy (1:4). There is joy in faith (1:25) and specifically in (1:26). The unity of believers increases his joy (2:2), and the Philippians are Paul's special joy (4:1) as he sees God's work in them.

Finally, Philippians 2:5-11 contains one of the most magnificent pieces of poetry in the New Covenant scriptures—possibly a hymn that had made the rounds among the first believers, which Paul now puts into this letter. was God by nature, yet became a humble and lowly servant, dying in obedience to the Father in order to bring us salvation. Now He has been exalted to the highest place and with the highest name, and someday all humanity will bow to Him.

With as our example and our Savior, we can rejoice even in the midst of suffering. Moreover, we find the motivation to live as God wants us to live—a life which in a mysterious way (2:12-13) is both God's work and yet our responsibility to cultivate (for example, through obedience, prayer, and Scripture reading). There is ample cause to rejoice as we see in Philippians the reality of who is and what He has done for us!

Greetings

To all the kedoshim in Messiah Yeshua who are in Philippi with the overseers and servant-leaders:

² Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

Thanksgiving and Prayers of Joy

³I thank my God at every memory of you, ⁴ always praying with joy in every prayer of mine for you all,

⁵ because of your sharing in the Good News from the first day until now. ⁶I am sure of this very thing—that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the Day of Messiah Yeshua. ⁷It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I have you in my heart—for you all are partakers of grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News. ⁸For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the affection of Messiah Yeshua.

⁹ Now this I pray, that your love might overflow still more and more in knowledge and depth of discernment,¹⁰ in order to approve what is excellent—so that in the Day of Messiah you may be sincere and blameless,¹¹ filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Yeshua the Messiah, to the glory and praise of God.

Even in Chains, Proclaiming Messiah

¹² Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has actually resulted in the advancement of the Good News. ¹³ And so my imprisonment in the cause of Messiah has become well known throughout the whole Praetorian Guard and to everyone else. ¹⁴ Because of my imprisonment, most of the brothers and sisters have become confident in the Lord to dare more than ever to speak the message fearlessly. ¹⁵ Some are proclaiming the Messiah out of envy and strife, but others out of good will. ¹⁶ The latter do so out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News. ¹⁷ The former proclaim Messiah not sincerely, but out of selfishness—expecting to stir up trouble for me in my imprisonment. ¹⁸ But what does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in dishonesty or in truth, Messiah is being proclaimed—and in this I rejoice!

To Live Is Messiah

Yes, and I will keep rejoicing,¹⁹ for I know that this will turn out for my deliverance, through your intercession and the help of the Ruach of Messiah Yeshua.²⁰ My eager expectation and hope is that in no way will I be put to shame, but that with complete boldness Messiah will even now, as always, be exalted in my body—whether through life or through death. ²¹ For to me, to live is Messiah and to die is gain. ²² But if to live on in the body means fruit from my work, what shall I choose? I do not know. ²³ I am torn between the two—having a desire to leave and be with Messiah, which is far better; ²⁴ yet for your sake, to remain in the body is more necessary. ²⁵ Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for the sake of your progress and joy in the faith—²⁶ so that your confidence in Messiah Yeshua might overflow because of me through my coming to you again.

²⁷ Only live your lives in a manner worthy of the Good News of the Messiah. Then, whether I come and see you or I am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit—striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the Good News²⁸ and not being frightened in any way by your opponents. For them this is a sign of destruction, but for you salvation—and that from God. ²⁹ For to you was granted for Messiah's sake not only to trust in Him, but also to suffer for His sake—³⁰ experiencing the same struggle you saw in me and now you are hearing in me.

Messiah's Example of Humility

² Therefore, if there is any encouragement in Messiah, if there is any comfort of love, if there is any fellowship of the Ruach, if there is any mercy and compassion,² then make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love, united in spirit, with one purpose. ³ Do nothing out of selfishness or conceit, but with humility consider others as more important than yourselves,⁴ looking out not only for your own interests but also for the interests of others. ⁵ Have this attitude in yourselves, which also was in Messiah Yeshua,

⁶ Who, though existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal to God a thing to be grasped.

⁷ But He emptied Himself—taking on the form of a slave, becoming the likeness of men and being found in appearance as a man.

⁸ He humbled Himself—becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

⁹ For this reason God highly exalted Him and gave Him the name that is above every name,¹⁰ that at the name of Yeshua every knee should bow,

† in heaven and on the earth and under the earth,¹¹ and every tongue profess that Yeshua the Messiah is Lord—to the glory of God the Father.

Work Out Your Salvation

¹² Therefore, my loved ones, just as you have always obeyed—not only in my presence, but now even more in my absence—work out your salvation with fear and trembling. ¹³ For the One working in you is God—both to will and to work for His good pleasure.

¹⁴ Do everything without grumbling or arguing,¹⁵ so that you might be blameless and innocent, children of God in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation. †† Among them you shine as lights in the world,¹⁶ holding fast to the word of life, so that I may boast in the day of Messiah that I did not run or labor in vain.

¹⁷ But even if I am being poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrifice and the service of your faith, I rejoice and share my joy with you all. ¹⁸ The same way, you also—rejoice and share your joy with me!

Sending and Receiving Encouragement

¹⁹ But I hope in the Lord Yeshua to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too might be encouraged when I know the news about you. ²⁰ I have no one else like him who will genuinely care about you—²¹ for all seek after their own interests, not those of Messiah Yeshua. ²² But you know Timothy's proven character, that he served with me in spreading the Good News like a son with his father. ²³ Therefore, I hope to send him immediately, as soon as I see how things go with me. ²⁴ And I trust in the Lord that soon I too will come myself.

²⁵ But I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus—my brother and co-worker and fellow soldier, as well as your messenger and aide to my need. ²⁶ For he was longing for you all and troubled because you heard that he was sick. ²⁷ He certainly was sick, close to death. But God had mercy on him—and not only on him but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸ Therefore, I have sent him with special urgency, so that when you see him again you might rejoice and I might be less worried about you. ²⁹ So welcome him in the Lord with all joy, and hold men like him in high regard, ³⁰ because he came close to death for the work of Messiah, risking his life to make up for what was lacking in your service to me.

Where Do You Put Your Confidence?

3 Finally, my brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord! To keep writing the same things to you is not troublesome for me—but for you it is a safeguard.

² Beware of the dogs, [†] beware of the evil workers, beware of the mutilation. ^{††3} For it is we who are the circumcision, who worship by the Ruach Elohim and glory in Messiah Yeshua and have not depended on the flesh—⁴ though I myself might have confidence in the flesh also. If anyone else thinks he might depend on the flesh, I far more—⁵ circumcised the eighth day; of the nation of Israel; from the tribe of Benjamin; a Hebrew of Hebrews; in regard to the Torah, a Pharisee; ⁶ as for zeal, persecuting Messiah's community; as for Torah righteousness, found blameless.

⁷ But whatever things were gain to me, these I have considered as loss for the sake of the Messiah. ⁸ More than that, I consider all things to be loss in comparison to the surpassing value of the knowledge of Messiah Yeshua my Lord. Because of Him I have suffered the loss of all things; and I consider them garbage [‡] in order that I might gain Messiah ⁹ and be found in Him not having my righteousness derived from Torah, but one that is through trusting in Messiah—the righteousness from God based on trust. ^{††10} My aim is to know Him and the power of His resurrection and the sharing of His sufferings, becoming like Him in His death—¹¹ if somehow I might arrive at the resurrection from among the dead.

Pursuing the Goal

¹² Not that I have already obtained this or been perfected, but I press on if only I might take hold of that for which Messiah Yeshua took hold of me. ^{††13} Brothers and sisters, I do not consider myself as having tak-

[†] cf. Ps. 22:16, 20. ^{††} cf. Gal. 5:12. [‡] Lit. excrement ^{††} Or one that is through Messiah's faithfulness—the righteousness from God based on faithfulness ^{†††} Lit. I was taken hold of by Messiah Yeshua en hold of this. But this one thing I do: forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, ¹⁴ I press on toward the goal for the reward of the upward calling of God in Messiah Yeshua. ^{††15} Therefore, let all who are mature have this attitude; and if you have a different attitude in anything, this also God will reveal to you. ¹⁶ Nevertheless, let us live up to the same standard we have attained.

¹⁷ Brothers and sisters, join in following my example and notice those who walk according to the pattern you have in us. (¹⁸ For many walk who are enemies of the cross of Messiah—I have often told you about them, and now I am even weeping as I tell you. ¹⁹ Their end is destruction—their god is their belly and their glory is in their shame. They set their minds on earthly things.)

²⁰ For our citizenship is in heaven, and from there we eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

²¹ He will transform this humble body of ours into the likeness of His glorious body, through the power that enables Him even to put all things in subjection to Himself.

4 Therefore, my brothers and sisters whom I love and long for, my joy and crown—stand firm in the Lord in this way, my loved ones.

Rejoice in the Lord Always

² I urge Euodia and Syntyche to be in harmony in the Lord. ³ Yes, and I ask you, true companion, ^{†††} to help these women—they labored side by side with me in spreading the Good News, together with Clement also and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always—again I will say, rejoice! ⁵ Let your gentleness be known to all people. The Lord is near. ⁶ Do not be anxious about anything—but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. ⁷ And the shalom of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Messiah Yeshua. [§]

⁸ Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable—if there is any virtue and if there is anything worthy of praise—dwell on these things. ⁹ What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—put these things into practice, and the God of shalom will be with you.

The Secret of Contentment

¹⁰ I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at last you have revived your concern for me (though you were concerned before but lacked opportunity to show it).

^{†††} cf. 1 Cor. 9:24; Heb. 12:2. ^{††††} Possibly a proper name. [§] cf. Isa. 26:3.

¹¹ I am not saying this because I am in need—for whatever circumstance I am in, I have learned to be content. ¹² I know what it is to live with humble means, and I know what it is to live in prosperity. In any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of contentment—both to be filled and to go hungry, to have abundance and to suffer need. ¹³ I can do all things through Messiah † who strengthens me.

¹⁴ Nevertheless, you have done well to share in my trouble. ¹⁵ Now you Philippians also know that in the beginning of the Good News, when I left Macedonia, not a single community partnered with me in giving and receiving—except you alone. ¹⁶ For even in Thessalonica you sent something for my need more than once. ¹⁷ Not that I am looking for a gift, but for fruit that overflows to your credit. ¹⁸ But I have received everything and have more than enough. I am amply supplied, having received from Epaphroditus what you sent—a fragrant aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God. ††¹⁹ My God will fulfill every need of yours according to the riches of His glory in Messiah Yeshua. ²⁰ To our God and Father be the glory forever and ever!

Amen.

Final Greetings and Blessings

²¹ Greet all the kedoshim in Messiah Yeshua. The brethren who are with me greet you. ²² All the kedoshim greet you, especially those of Caesar's household.

²³ The grace of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with your spirit.

Colossians

Introduction

Written in the late 50s or early 60s from prison, Paul's letter to the Colossians was intended to help Messiah's community in Colossae fight the false teaching that had entered their midst. The false teaching seems to have been a combination of Greek and Jewish ideas, perhaps not unlike today when some in the Jewish community attempt to overlay New Age ideas onto Jewish ways of thinking. An assortment of spiritual "options" was characteristic of the ancient world, where various spiritualities downplay who really is. Therefore, Paul upholds Him as the fully supreme One who reconciled Jews and Gentiles through His atoning death. There is no need for anyone or anything to bring us to God—no special leader, ritual, technique, or spirituality. Paul speaks of principalities, powers, and basic principles of the world that to some degree held sway over the Colossians (2:15, 20). Modern secular people may think that our genes or our upbringing charts the course for our lives. But is victorious over all things that try to stand between us and God.

Finally, Paul emphasizes the unity of Messiah's body—how has reconciled Jews and Gentiles. Yet he also recognizes diversity in the unity, as he speaks to wives, to husbands, to children, to parents, to slaves, to masters. Nevertheless, is Head of the body, His community. Let us do all we can to preserve our unity with all believers. And let us exalt , our Head, both individually and in our communities. Supreme over all, victorious over all, reconciler of all—this is our Messiah!

Further Instructions and Greetings

Greetings

1 Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua by God's will, and Timothy our brother, ²To the kedoshim , the faithful brothers and sisters in Messiah, who are at Colossae:
 Grace and shalom to you from God our Father! †

Thanksgiving and Prayer

³We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, whenever we pray for you. ⁴For we heard of your trust in Messiah Yeshua and the love you have for all the kedoshim ⁵ because of the hope stored up for you in heaven. You heard before about this hope in the true message of the Good News ⁶ that has come to you. In all the world this Good News is bearing fruit and growing, †† just as it has in you since you first heard it and came to truly know God's grace. ⁷You learned it from Epaphras—our dearly loved fellow slave, who is a faithful servant of Messiah on our behalf. ⁸He also made clear to us your love in the Ruach .

⁹For this reason also, ever since we heard about you, we have not stopped praying for you. We keep asking God that you might be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding— ¹⁰to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, to please Him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and growing in the knowledge of God. ¹¹We pray that you may be strengthened with all the power that comes from His glorious might, for you to have all kinds of patience and steadfastness. With joy ¹²we give thanks to the Father, who qualified you to share in the inheritance of the kedoshim in the light. ¹³ He rescued us from the domain of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son whom He loves. ¹⁴ In Him we have redemption—the release of sins.

Ben-Elohim Is Supreme

¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.
¹⁶ For by Him all things were created—in heaven and on earth, the seen and the unseen, whether thrones or angelic powers or rulers or authorities.

All was created through Him and for Him.

¹⁷ He exists before everything, and in Him all holds together.

¹⁸ He is the head of the body, His community. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead—so that He might come to have first place in all things.

¹⁹ For God was pleased to have all His fullness dwell in Him †

²⁰ and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, making peace through the blood of His cross—whether things on earth or things in heaven!

²¹ Once you were alienated from God and hostile in your attitude by wicked deeds. ²² But now He has reconciled you in Messiah's physical body through death, in order to present you holy, spotless and blameless in His eyes— ²³ if indeed you continue in the faith, established and firm, not budging from the hope of the Good News that you have heard. This Good News has been proclaimed throughout all Creation under heaven, and I, Paul, have become its servant.

The Mystery Revealed

²⁴ Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and in my physical body—for the sake of His body, Messiah's community—I fill up what is lacking in the afflictions of Messiah. ²⁵ I became its servant according to God's commission, given to me for you, in order to declare His message in full— ²⁶ the mystery that was hidden for ages and generations, but now has been revealed to His kedoshim. ²⁷ God chose to make known to them this glorious mystery regarding the Gentiles—which is Messiah in you, the hope of glory! ²⁸ We proclaim Him, warning and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present every person complete †† in Messiah. ²⁹ To this end I labor, striving with all His strength which is powerfully at work in me.

2 I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those in Laodicea, as well as for those who have still not seen me face to face. ² My purpose is that their hearts, joined together in love, may be encouraged. May they have all the riches of the full assurance of understanding, leading to a true knowledge of the mystery of God—that is, Messiah.

³ In Him all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden. ⁴ I am telling you this so that no one will deceive you with persuasive-sounding arguments.

⁵ For even though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit—rejoicing to see your good order and the steadfastness of your trust in Messiah.

Living out the Mystery

⁶ Therefore, as you received Messiah Yeshua as Lord, so continue to walk in Him— ⁷ rooted and built up in Him and established in your faith just as you were taught, overflowing with thankfulness. ⁸ See that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception, according to the tradition of men and the basic principles of the world rather than Messiah. ⁹ For all the fullness of Deity lives bodily in Him, ¹⁰ and in Him you have been filled to fullness. He is the head over every ruler and authority.

¹² You were buried along with Him in immersion, through which you also were raised with Him by trusting in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead. ¹³ When you were dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with Him when He pardoned us all our transgressions. ¹⁴ He wiped out the handwritten record of debts with the decrees against us, which were hostile to us. He took it away by nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵ After disarming the principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in the cross. ††

The Danger of False Wisdom

¹⁶ Therefore, do not let anyone pass judgment on you in matters of food or drink, or in respect to a festival or new moon or Shabbat. ††¹⁷ These are a foreshadowing of things to come, but the reality is Messiah. ††¹⁸ Let no one disqualify you by insisting on false humility and worship of angels—going into detail about what he has seen, puffed up without cause by his fleshly mind. ¹⁹ He is not holding fast to the Head. It is from Him that the whole body, nourished and held together by its joints and tendons, grows with a godly increase. ²⁰ If you died with Messiah to the basic principles of the world, why—as though living in the world—do you subject yourselves to their rules?

²¹ "Don't handle! Don't taste! Don't touch!" ²² These all lead to decay with use, based as they are on man-made commands and teachings. ††²³ Indeed, these are matters that have an appearance of wisdom in self-made religion and humility and self-denial of the body—yet none are of any value for stopping indulgence of the flesh.

3 Therefore, if you have been raised up with Messiah, keep seeking the things above—where Messiah is, sitting at the right hand of God. ¹² Focus your mind on things above, not on things on the earth. ^{††3} For you have died, and your life is hidden with Messiah in God. ⁴ When Messiah, who is your [‡] life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him, in glory!

⁵ Therefore, put to death what is earthly in you—sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desire, and greed—for that is idolatry. ⁶ Because of such things God's wrath is coming upon the sons of disobedience. ⁷ At one time you also walked in these ways, when you used to live in these ways. ⁸ But now, set them all aside—anger, rage, malice, slander, and foul language out of your mouth. ⁹ Do not lie to one another. ^{‡†} After all, you have taken off the old self with its practices ¹⁰ and have put on the new self that is being renewed in knowledge, according to the image of the One who created him. ^{‡††11} Here there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, savage, ^{‡††} slave and free; but Messiah is all, and in all.

¹² Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves in tender compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience— ¹³ bearing with one another and forgiving each other, if anyone has a grievance against another. Just as the Lord pardoned you, so also you must pardon others. ¹⁴ But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfect harmony. ¹⁵ Let the shalom of Messiah rule in your hearts—to this shalom you were surely called in one body. Also be thankful. ¹⁶ Let the word of Messiah dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another with all wisdom in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with gratitude in your hearts to God. ¹⁷ And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Yeshua, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Orderly, Mutual Relationships

¹⁸ Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. ¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives and do not become harsh toward them.

²⁰ Children, obey your parents in every respect, for this is pleasing to the Lord. ²¹ Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they will not become discouraged.

²² Slaves, obey your human masters in every respect—not just within your master's sight as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. ²³ Whatever you do, work at it from the soul, as for the 4 Masters, give your slaves what is just and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

Devote Yourselves to Prayer

² Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with thanksgiving. ³ At the same time, keep praying for us as well, that God may open up to us a door for the message, to proclaim the mystery of Messiah—for which I am in prison. ⁴ Pray that I may make the mystery clear, as I ought to speak. ⁵ Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward outsiders, making the most of the opportunity. ⁶ Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, to know how you ought to answer everyone.

Further Instructions and Greetings

⁷ Tychicus—a dearly loved brother and trustworthy servant and fellow slave to the Lord—will tell you all the news about me. ⁸ I sent him to you for this very purpose, so you may know about us and he may encourage your hearts. ⁹ With him I sent Onesimus—a faithful and dear brother, who is one of your own. They will tell you about everything here.

¹⁰ My fellow prisoner Aristarchus sends you his greetings, as does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. (You received instructions about him—if he comes your way, welcome him.) ¹¹ Yeshua who is called Justus also sends his greetings. These are the only fellow workers for the kingdom of God that are from among the circumcision—they have been a comfort to me.

¹² Epaphras, who is one of your own, a slave of Messiah Yeshua, greets you. He is always laboring in prayer on your behalf, so you may stand complete and fully assured about everything that is God's will. ¹³ For I testify that he has gone to much trouble for you and for those in Laodicea and Hierapolis. ¹⁴ Luke, the dearly loved physician, sends you greetings, and so does Demas.

¹⁵ Greet the brothers and sisters in Laodicea, as well as Nympha and the community that meets in her house. ¹⁶ When this letter has been read among you, make sure that it is also read in Messiah's community of Laodicea. In turn, you should read my letter coming from Laodicea.

¹⁷ Tell Archippus, "See to it that you complete the service you have received in the Lord, that you may fulfill it."

¹⁸ This greeting is in my own hand—Paul's. Remember my chains!

Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

Introduction

One of Paul's earliest letters, 1 Thessalonians was written around the year 50 C.E. from the city of Corinth. His readers were largely non-Jewish, as we gather from his remark in 1:9 that they had "turned from idols" to the true God. The letter is a mix of personal, ethical, and pastoral material.

Paul speaks well of the Thessalonians and their faith, especially commending how they initially "welcomed" the message of the Good News (1:4). Several times Paul speaks of "imitating" himself (1:5), God (1:5 also), and other believers (2:14), and says that the Thessalonians have become a "model" of faith to others (1:7). Paul then describes his own behavior while in Thessalonica—sincere, seeking to please God, sharing his own life with them.

The theme of imitation and modeling is a key to the life of the believer. Though we primarily seek to imitate , we also learn how to imitate Him by modeling the lives of mature and godly believers. Paul then moves on to specific ways to imitate God, by showing what ethical, godly living means in the first part of chapter four.

A word about 2:14-16. This passage has sometimes been taken as an example of anti-Semitism in the New Covenant. The same Greek word can be translated as "Jewish" or "Judean," but the use of "Judeans" rather than "Jews" in verse 14 highlights Paul's parallel. The Thessalonians were persecuted by non-believing Thessalonians just like Messiah's communities in Judea were persecuted by non-believing Judeans. The persecution took the form of preventing the preaching of the Good News to Gentiles. In speaking of "heaping up sins to the limit" and "the wrath of God has come upon them at last," Paul is not speaking of the Jewish people, but of opponents of the Good News, Jewish or Gentile, employing ideas taken from the .

The last part of the letter is devoted to helping the Thessalonians work through their thoughts on fellow believers who have recently died. It appears they thought that those who had already passed on would "miss out" on the return of the Lord in some way. Paul comforts them with a word of "hope" (4:13), then reminds them further to live godly lives in light of 's return. The beautiful benediction of 5:23, coming near the end of the letter, is an encouragement to all believers.

Greetings

1 Paul, Silvanus, [†] and Timothy,
To the community of the Thessalonians in God
the Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah:
Grace to you and shalom .

Good News with Power

² We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers—continually ³ remembering, before our God and Father, your work of faith and labor of love and steadiness of hope in our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ⁴ We know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that you are chosen, ⁵ because our Good News did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Ruach ha-Kodesh, and with complete certainty—just as you know what kind of men we proved to be while among you for your sake.

⁶You also became imitators of us and of the Lord, having accepted the message in much tribulation, with the joy of the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ⁷So you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. ⁸For the word of the Lord rang out from you—not just in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faithfulness toward God has gone out, so that we have no need to say anything. ⁹For they themselves bring news about what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God, ¹⁰and to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead— Yeshua, the One delivering us from the coming wrath.

Cherishing Spiritual Children

2 For you yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our visit to you was not in vain. ²On the contrary, after we had first suffered and been mistreated in Philippi, as you know, [†]we had boldness in our God to tell you the Good News of God—even in the midst of much opposition. ³For our urging is not out of deceit or impure motives or trickery. ⁴But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we declare it—not pleasing men but rather God, who examines our hearts. ^{††}

⁵For as you know, and God is witness, we never came with a word of flattery or a motive of greed—⁶or seeking glory from people, whether from you or from others, ⁷even though we could have thrown our weight around as emissaries of Messiah. Rather, we proved to be infants [‡]among you. Like a nursing mother ^{‡†}cherishes her children, ⁸in this way we were yearning for you. We were delighted to share with you not only the Good News of God but also our very souls, because you had become dear to us.

⁹For you recall, brothers and sisters, our labor and hardship—working night and day, so as not to burden any of you while we proclaimed to you the Good News of God. ¹⁰You are witnesses, along with God, of how devoutly and righteously and blamelessly we behaved toward you who believe. ¹¹For you know how, as a father with his own children, ¹²we exhorted and encouraged and urged each one of you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

¹³For this reason, we also thank God constantly that when you received the Word of God which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men, but as it truly is—the Word of God, which does its work in you who believe. ¹⁴For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of God's communities in Messiah Yeshua that are in Judea—for you suffered the same things at the hands of your own countrymen as they did from the Judean leaders, ¹⁵who killed both the Lord Yeshua and the prophets and drove us out. ^{‡‡}They are not pleasing to God and hostile to all people, ¹⁶hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles so that they might be saved. As a result, they constantly fill up the measure of their sins. But wrath has come upon them at last.

Longing to Visit and Reassure

¹⁷But brothers and sisters, after we were orphaned by separation from you for a short time (in person, not in heart), we were all the more eager in our great longing to see you face to face. ¹⁸For we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, more than once—but satan thwarted us. ¹⁹For who is our hope or joy or crown of boasting ^{‡‡†}before our Lord Yeshua at His coming? Is it not you? ²⁰For you are our glory and joy!

3 So when we could stand it no longer, we thought it best to be left behind alone in Athens. ²We sent Timothy, our brother and co-worker for God in proclaiming the Good News of Messiah, in order to strengthen and encourage you in your faith, ³so that no one would be shaken by these afflictions. For you yourselves know we are destined for this. ⁴For even when we were with you, we kept telling you in advance that we were going to suffer persecution—just as has happened, as you know. ⁵For this reason, when I could stand it no longer, I sent to find out about your faithfulness, for fear that the tempter had tempted you and that our labor might be in vain.

⁶But now that Timothy has come to us from you and brought us the good news of your faithfulness and love, and that you always have good memories of us, longing to see us just as we long to see you—⁷because of this, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and trouble, we were comforted about you by your faithfulness. ⁸For now we live, since you are standing firm in the Lord. ⁹For what thanks would be enough to offer to God, in return for all the joy we feel before our God because of you? ¹⁰Night time and day time we keep praying more than ever to see you face to face, ^{‡‡‡}and mend any shortcomings in your faith.

Thanks, Joy, and Love before God

¹¹Now may our God and Father Himself and Yeshua our Lord direct our way to you. ¹²May the Lord also cause you to increase and overflow in love for one another and for all people, just as we also do for you, ¹³in order to strengthen your hearts as blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Yeshua with all His kedoshim. Amen.

Walking in Sanctification

4 Finally then, brothers and sisters, we ask you and appeal in the Lord Yeshua—just as you received from us the way you ought to walk and please God (as in fact you are walking)—that you keep progressing more and more. ^{†2} For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Yeshua. ³ For this is the will of God—your sanctification: ^{††} to abstain from sexual immorality;

⁴ to know, each of you, how to gain control over his own body [‡] in holiness and honor— ⁵ not in the passion of lust like the pagans who do not know God;

⁶ and not to overstep his brother and take advantage of him in this matter—because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, as we told you before and solemnly warned you. ⁷ For God did not call us to impurity, but in holiness. ⁸ Consequently, the one who rejects this is not rejecting man, but God, who gives His Ruach ha-Kodesh to you.

⁹ Now concerning brotherly love, you have no need for anyone to write you—for you yourselves are taught by God ^{††} to love one another. ¹⁰ In fact, you even practice it toward all your brothers and sisters throughout Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, to keep progressing more and more ¹¹ and aspire to lead a quiet life, to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, just as we directed you— ¹² so you may behave properly toward outsiders and not have need of anything.

The Shofar Call of Messiah's Return

¹³ Now we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who are asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest who have no hope. ¹⁴ For if we believe that Yeshua died and rose again, so with Him God will also bring those who have fallen asleep in Yeshua. ^{††15} For this we tell you, by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord shall in no way precede those who are asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord Himself shall come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the blast of God's shofar, ^{††} and the dead in Messiah shall rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive, who are left behind, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air—and so we shall always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore, encourage one another with these words.

Keep Watch for the Day of the Lord

5 Now concerning the times and seasons, ^{†††} brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. ² For you yourselves know very well that the Day of the Lord [§] comes like a thief in the night. ³ When they are saying, "Shalom and safety," ^{§†} sudden destruction comes upon them like a woman having birth pains in the womb—there is no way they will escape. ⁴ But you, brothers and sisters, are not in the dark, so that the Day might overtake you like a thief. ^{§††5} For you all are sons of light and sons of day. We are not of night or of darkness— ⁶ so then, let us not sleep as the others do, but let us remain on the alert and sober-minded. ⁷ For those who sleep, sleep at night; and those who get drunk, get drunk at night. ⁸ But since we are of the day, let us be sober-minded—putting on the breastplate of faithfulness and love, and the hope of salvation as a helmet. ^{§†9} For God did not destine us for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ¹⁰ He died for us so that, whether we may be awake or asleep, ^{§††} we may live together with Him. ¹¹ Therefore, encourage one another and build each other up—just as you in fact are doing.

Instructions for Community Life

¹² Now, we ask you, brothers and sisters, to recognize those who work hard among you and are over you in the Lord and correct ^{§†} you, ¹³ and to esteem them beyond all measure in love because of their work. Keep shalom among yourselves.

¹⁴ We urge you, brothers and sisters, correct the unruly, comfort the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with everyone. ¹⁵ See that no one repays evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good for one another and for all.

¹⁶ Rejoice always,

¹⁷ pray constantly,

¹⁸ in everything give thanks;

for this is God's will for you in Messiah Yeshua.

¹⁹ Do not quench the Spirit,

²⁰ do not despise prophetic messages,

²¹ but test all things, hold fast to what is good,

²² keep away from every kind of evil.

²³ Now may the God of shalom Himself make you completely holy; and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept complete, blameless at the coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ²⁴ Faithful is the One who calls you—and He will make it happen!

Closing Greetings

²⁵ Brothers and sisters, pray for us.

²⁶ Greet all the brothers and sisters with a holy kiss.

²⁷ I charge you under oath, by the Lord, that this letter be read to all the brothers and sisters.

²⁸ The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with you. ^{§†}

2 Thessalonians

Introduction

Paul's second letter to the Thessalonians was written not long after the first one, about 50-51 C.E. The focus this time is on suffering and persecution (1:5), put into perspective by the thought of 's return and judgment on evil. This gives believers a second way to think about the return of the Lord. In 1 Thessalonians, His return was an encouragement to live a godly life; here, it is an encouragement that in the end God will right all wrongs. A second focus of the letter concerns some matters that may be connected to the persecution the Thessalonians were experiencing. First, some believed the Day of the Lord—the time of God's final judgment—had already come (2:2), possibly because that Day would be accompanied by great turmoil (such as their persecution) in the world. Paul reminds them that certain things must take place first; this is not yet the end. Second, there were some in the community who had quit their jobs, probably also because they thought the end of the world was happening now. Paul exhorts them all to work, and as in the first letter, holds himself up as a model of behavior (3:7). Though the Thessalonians were healthy in their faith and even an example for others, that did not mean they were a perfect community. Wrong teaching (concerning the Day of the Lord) and wrong behavior (failing to work for a living) had made inroads. The problem was that some of the Thessalonians had misinterpreted what their sufferings meant. It did not mean the end of the world was upon them. Rather, it meant that they were following and suffering for the kingdom of God (1:5). But on the whole, most of the Thessalonians continued to do well, so that Paul could say that "among God's communities we boast about your perseverance and faith in all the persecutions and trials you are enduring" (1:4). What a wonderful commendation!

Greetings

1 Paul, Silvanus, † and Timothy,
To the community of the Thessalonians in God
our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah:

² Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah!

Troubles from an Eternal Perspective

³ We ought to always thank God for you, brothers and sisters, as is appropriate, because your faithfulness grows wonderfully, and the love of each one of you for one another continually increases. ⁴ Therefore, we ourselves boast of you among the communities of God—about your perseverance and faithfulness through all the persecutions and troubles that you endure. ⁵ This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, so that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering.

(⁶ For after all, it is right in the sight of God to pay back trouble to those who trouble you, ⁷ and relief to you who suffer trouble along with us. At the revelation of the Lord Yeshua from heaven with His mighty angels ⁸ in flaming fire, ^{††} He will command judgment on those who do not know God and do not heed the Good News of our Lord Yeshua. ^{‡9} They will pay the price of eternal ruin, away from the presence of the Lord and the glory of His power ^{‡†}— ¹⁰ on that Day when He comes to be glorified among His kedoshim and marveled at by all who have believed, ^{‡‡} because our testimony to you was believed.)

¹¹ With this in mind, we pray for you constantly, that our God may consider you worthy of the calling, and fulfill with power every good desire and work of faith,

†† cf. Exod. 3:2, 19:18; Isa. 66:15; Ezek. 1:13; Dan. 7:9. ‡ cf. Ps. 79:6; Isa. 66:15; Jer. 10:25. ‡† cf. Isa. 2:10, 19, 21(LXX). ‡‡ cf. Isa. 24:15, 49:3, 66:5; Mal. 1:11.

† Or Silas

¹² so the name of our Lord Yeshua may be glorified in you, and you in Him, in keeping with the grace of our God and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

The Man of Lawlessness

2 Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, concerning the coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah and our gathering together to Him, ² not to get shaken out of your mind or disturbed—either by a spirit or a word or a letter as if through us—as though the Day of the Lord † has come. ³ Let no one deceive you in any way, for the Day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the one destined to be destroyed. ††⁴ He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he sits in the Temple of God, proclaiming himself that he is God. ‡

⁵ Don't you remember that when I was still with you I was telling you these things? ⁶ And you know what now holds you back, for him to be revealed in his own time. ⁷ For the mystery of lawlessness is already operating; only there is one who holds back just now, until he is taken out of the way. ⁸ Then the lawless one will be revealed. The Lord Yeshua will slay him with the breath of His mouth and wipe him out with the appearance of His coming. ††⁹ The coming of the lawless one is connected to the activity of satan, with all power and signs and false wonders, ¹⁰ and with every kind of wicked deception toward those who are perishing. They perish because they did not accept the love of the truth so as to be saved. ¹¹ For this reason God sends them a delusional force, to lead them to believe what is false, ††¹² so that they may be judged—all those who did not believe the truth but delighted in wickedness. †††

Firstfruits of Salvation

¹³ But we should always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters loved by the Lord, because God chose you as firstfruits for salvation ††† through sanctification by the Ruach and belief in the truth. ¹⁴ He called you to this salvation through our proclaiming the Good News, for you to gain the glory of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ¹⁵ So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold on to the traditions which you were taught, whether by word of mouth or by our letter.

† cf. Joel 1:15; 2:1, 11. †† Lit. son of destruction
‡ cf. Isa. 14:14; Ezek. 28:2. †† cf. Isa. 11:4, 30:28; Job 4:9. †† cf. 1 Kings 22:22-23. ††† cf. Exod. 10:1-2; Rom. 9:22.
††† cf. 1 Cor. 15:20-23.

¹⁶ Now may our Lord Yeshua the Messiah Himself and God our Father, who loved us and by grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, ¹⁷ comfort and strengthen your hearts in every good deed and word.

3 Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us that the word of the Lord may spread quickly and be glorified—just as it is with you. ² Also pray that we may be rescued from perverse and evil people, for not all are trustworthy. ³ But the Lord is trustworthy—and He will strengthen and protect you from the evil one. ⁴ We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you are doing and will keep doing what we command. ⁵ May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patience of Messiah.

No Time to Be Lazy

⁶ Now we command you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, to keep away from every brother who behaves irresponsibly and not according to the tradition they received from us. ⁷ For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us, for we did not behave inappropriately among you. ⁸ And we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but worked night and day with labor and hardship, so as not to burden any of you. ⁹ It wasn't that we had no right, but rather to offer ourselves as an example for you to imitate.

¹⁰ For even when we were with you, we would give you this order: if anyone will not work, neither shall he eat. ¹¹ For we hear that some among you are behaving irresponsibly—not busy, but busybodies. ¹² Now such people we command and urge in the Lord Messiah Yeshua to work in a quiet demeanor, so they may eat their own bread. ¹³ But as for you, brothers, do not grow weary of doing good.

¹⁴ If anyone does not obey our message in this letter, take special note of him and do not associate with him, so that he may be put to shame. ¹⁵ Yet do not consider him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

Final Words

¹⁶ Now may the Lord of shalom Himself give you shalom at all times and in every way. The Lord be with you all!

¹⁷ The greeting is in my own hand—Paul's. It is a sign in every letter—in this way I write. §

1 Timothy

Introduction

Timothy was a young leader (4:12), who it seemed, had a timid or introverted side. Paul often entrusted him with a mission (see 1 Thessalonians 3:2, Philippians 2:20), trusted him completely as a fellow worker (see 1 Thessalonians 3:2), saw him as a spiritual son (1 Timothy 1:18), and in many letters brings greetings to Messiah's community from Timothy as well as from himself.

In this letter, Paul addresses Timothy personally in order to encourage him. 1 Timothy is one of Paul's final letters written in the 60s C.E. not long before he died. At this point Timothy is in Ephesus (1:3) overseeing the community there. The letter therefore gives us insight into the life of a community in which we might see our own reflection. Some are teaching falsehoods or arguing over unessential matters (1:3), and Timothy is to tell them to cease. On the positive side, Timothy is to encourage prayer (2:10). Paul also sets out the qualification for community leaders (chapter 3), and the implication is that Timothy is to utilize these criteria in overseeing the selection of those leaders (5:22). Treatment of older people, widows, and elders is included; and since it is a personal letter, Paul also addresses Timothy's diet! (5:23).

The letter contains some well-known exhortations and "trustworthy sayings" (1:15), such as: "Messiah came into the world to save sinners" (1:15), "fight the good fight" (1:18; 6:12), and "the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil" (6:10—note, not money in itself, as it is often misquoted). A poem appears in 3:16 summarizing the amazing nature of the Good News. Above all, Timothy is to "guard" his commission (6:20). Paul over and over encourages Timothy to be the man of God he has been called to be, overcoming his natural timidity by God's gifts, a timidity which perhaps allowed him to be too easily influenced by others (6:20).

The enduring value of the letter is to encourage both men and women, especially those young and a bit uncertain, to live up to their calling and exercise their gifts. All should seek to live a godly life in the sight of the Lord, "who alone is immortal and who lives in unapproachable light" (6:16). 1 Timothy paints a picture of what a healthy community looks like in its leadership, its treatment of members, and its focus on and godliness (6:6).

Greeting

¹ Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua by the command of God our Savior and Messiah Yeshua, our hope.

² To Timothy, a true child in faith:
Grace, mercy, and shalom from God the Father and Messiah Yeshua, our Lord!

Beware of False Teachers

³ As I urged you, when I was leaving for Macedonia, stay in Ephesus to direct certain people not to pass on different instruction, ⁴ or to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies. These give rise to useless speculation rather than God's training which is in faithfulness. ⁵ Now the goal of this command is love from a pure heart and a clear conscience and a genuine faith. ⁶ Some, having missed the mark, have turned away to fruitless discussion— ⁷ wanting to be teachers of Torah, even though they do not understand what they keep saying or what they so dogmatically assert.

⁸ But we know that the Torah is good if one uses it legitimately, ⁹ knowing that the Torah is not given for a tzaddik but for the lawless and rebellious, for the ungodly and sinful, for the unholy and worldly, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰ the sexually immoral, homosexuals, slave-traders, liars, perjurers, and for anything else that opposes sound teaching— ¹¹ in keeping with what was entrusted to me, the glorious Good News of the blessed God.

Mercy to the Worst of Sinners

¹² I thank Messiah Yeshua our Lord, who has strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, appointing me to service— ¹³ even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a violent man. Yet I was shown mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, ¹⁴ and the grace of our Lord overflowed with the faith and love that are in Messiah Yeshua. ¹⁵ Trustworthy is the saying and deserving of complete acceptance: “Messiah Yeshua came into the world to save sinners”—of whom I am foremost. ¹⁶ Yet, for this reason I was shown mercy—so that in me as the foremost, Messiah Yeshua might demonstrate His complete patience, as an example for those about to put their trust in Him for eternal life. ¹⁷ Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, [†] be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Fight the Good Fight

¹⁸ This charge I entrust to you, Timothy my son, in keeping with the prophecies once spoken about you, so that by them you fight the good fight, ¹⁹ holding on to faith and a good conscience. By rejecting these, some have suffered shipwreck regarding their faith. ²⁰ Among these are Hymenaeus and Alexander—whom I have handed over to satan to be disciplined not to blaspheme.

Godliness in Prayer and Worship

² Therefore, first of all I urge that requests, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made on behalf of all people— ² for kings and all who are in authority ^{††}—so we may live a peaceful and quiet life in all godliness and respectfulness. ³ This is good and pleasing in the sight of God our Savior. ⁴ He desires all men to be saved and come into the knowledge of the truth. ⁵ For there is one God ^{††} and there is one Mediator between God and men ^{‡‡}—a human, Messiah Yeshua, ⁶ who gave Himself as a ransom for all ^{‡‡‡}—the testimony at the proper time. ⁷ For this I was appointed a herald and an emissary (I am telling the truth; I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faithfulness and truth.

⁸ So I desire all men to pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands, ^{‡‡‡} without anger and argument. ⁹ Likewise, women are to adorn themselves in appropriate clothing with modesty and sound judgment—not in seductive hairstyles [§] and gold or pearls or costly clothing, ¹⁰ but what is suitable for women claiming godliness, through good deeds. ¹¹ Let a woman receive training in a quiet demeanor with complete respect for order. ¹² But I do not allow a woman to train or dictate to a man, but to be in a quiet demeanor. ¹³ For Adam was formed first, then Eve. ^{§†14} Also Adam was not deceived but the woman—being deceived, she fell into transgression. ^{§††15} Nevertheless, she will be sustained through childbearing ^{§††}—if they continue in faithfulness and love and holiness, with sound judgment.

Qualifications for Oversight and Service

¹⁴ These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly. ¹⁵ But if I delay, I write so you may know how one ought to conduct himself in the household of God—which is the community of the living God, a pillar and foundation of truth. ¹⁶ Now beyond question, great is the mystery of godliness:

He was revealed in the flesh,

† Some mss. read the only wise God †† cf. Ezra 6:10. ‡ cf. Ezek. 18:23, 32. †† cf. Deut. 6:4. ‡‡ cf. Isa. 41:14; 49:7. ‡‡‡ cf. Mark 10:45.

Advice to a Young Leader

4 Now the Ruach clearly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, following deceitful spirits and teachings of demons ² through the hypocrisy of false speakers—whose own conscience has been seared. ³ They forbid people to marry; they command people to abstain from foods that God created for the faithful to share with thanksgiving, having come to know the truth. ⁴ For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving; ⁵ for it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer.

⁶ In pointing out these things to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good servant of Messiah Yeshua, nourished in the words of the faith and the sound teaching that you have been following. ⁷ But avoid godless myths and old wives' tales; instead, train yourself in godliness. ⁸ For physical exercise has some benefit; but godliness is beneficial for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the one to come. ⁹ Trustworthy is the saying and deserving of complete acceptance ¹⁰ (for to this end we work hard and strive): "We have set our hope on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially those who trust." ¹¹ Insist on these things and teach them.

¹² Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but become an example of the faithful—in speech, in conduct, in love, in faithfulness, and in purity. ¹³ Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to encouragement, and to teaching. ¹⁴ Do not neglect the spiritual gift [†] within you, which was given to you through prophecy with the laying on of hands of the elders. ¹⁵ Practice these things—be absorbed in them, so that your progress may be clear to all. ¹⁶ Give attention to yourself and your teaching. Persevere in these things, for in doing so you will save yourself ^{††} and those who hear you.

Giving Honor in the Community

5 Never speak harshly to an older man [‡] but appeal to him as a father; to younger men as brothers; ² older women as mothers; and younger women as sisters—with complete purity.

³ Honor widows who are really widows— ⁴ but if any widow has children or grandchildren, they must first learn to show devotion to their own home and give back to their parents, for this is pleasing before God. ⁵ Now she who is really a widow and has been left alone, has put her hope in God and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. ⁶ But she who is self-indulgent is dead even while she lives. ⁷ Insist on these things, so that they might be beyond criticism. ⁸ But if anyone does not provide for his own, especially those in his own house, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever.

⁹ Let a widow be listed only if she is at least sixty, was the wife of one husband, ¹⁰ well known for good deeds, if she raised children, if she showed hospitality, if she washed the feet of the kedoshim, if she helped those in trouble, and if she devoted herself to every good work.

¹¹ But refuse younger widows; for when their sensual desires draw them away from the Messiah, they want to get married— ¹² facing judgment because they have set aside their previous pledge. ¹³ And at the same time, they also learn to be idle, going around from house to house—and not just idle, but also gossipers and busybodies, saying things they should not.

¹⁴ Therefore, I want the younger widows to get married, have children, manage a household, and give no opportunity to the enemy for slander. ¹⁵ For some have already gone astray after satan. ¹⁶ If any woman of faith has widows in need, let her help them and not let the community be burdened, so it may help the real widows.

¹⁷ The elders who lead well are worthy of honor and honorarium ^{‡‡}—especially those who work hard in the word and teaching. ¹⁸ For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox while he is threshing," ^{‡‡} and, "The worker is worthy of his wage." ^{‡‡††} Do not accept an accusation against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses. ^{‡‡‡} Correct those who continue sinning in the presence of everyone, so that the rest also may fear. [§]

²¹ I solemnly charge you—before God and Messiah Yeshua and the chosen angels—to observe these things without taking sides, doing nothing out of favoritism. ²² Do not lay hands on anyone hastily or take part in the sins of others—keep yourself pure. ²³ (No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach and for your frequent ailments.)

²⁴ The sins of some people are obvious, going before them into judgment; but for others, their sins follow. ²⁵ Likewise, good deeds are obvious, and the others cannot stay hidden.

6 Let all who are under the yoke as slaves consider their own masters worthy of full respect, so that God's name and our teaching may not be slandered. ² And let those who have believing masters not disrespect them because they are brothers, but serve them even more, since those who share in the benefit are believers and loved. Teach and encourage these things.

^{††} Lit. double honor ^{‡‡} Deut. 25:4. ‡‡† Lev. 19:13; Deut. 24:15; cf. Luke 10:7. ‡‡‡ cf. Deut. 17:6; 19:15; Matt. 18:16. § cf. Matt. 18:17.

[†] Greek charisma ^{††} cf. 2 Tim. 4:18. ‡ cf. Lev. 19:32.

Finding True Riches

⁶ Now godliness with contentment is great gain. ⁷ For we brought nothing into this world, so we cannot take anything out of it. ^{††8} But having food and clothing, with these things we shall be content. ⁹ But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and a trap, and many foolish and harmful desires that plunge men into ruin and destruction. ^{††10} For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil—some, longing for it, have gone astray from the faith and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

¹¹ But you, O man of God, flee from these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faithfulness, love, perseverance, and gentleness. ¹² Fight the good fight of faith! Take hold of the eternal life—you were called to it, and you made the good confession for it in the presence of many witnesses. ¹³ I charge you before God who gives life to all things and Messiah Yeshua who testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate, ¹⁴ to keep this command without spot or blame until the appearing of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ¹⁵ This He will reveal in His own time—the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and the Lord of lords, ^{††16} who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no man has seen or is able to see. ^{††} To Him be honor and eternal dominion! Amen.

¹⁷ Direct those who are rich in this present age not to be proud or to fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, ^{††} but rather on God—who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. ¹⁸ Direct them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, to be generous, sharing, ¹⁹ storing up for themselves a good foundation for the future, so they might take hold of the true life.

²⁰ O Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you, turning away from pointless chatter and the contradictions of so-called knowledge— ²¹ by professing it, some have missed the mark concerning the faith.

Grace be with you.

2 Timothy

Introduction

Paul wrote 2 Timothy in the 60s C.E., a short time after 1 Timothy, and in the knowledge that he would soon be executed by Rome (4:6). As in other letters, Paul's own attitude is a model for anyone undergoing persecution or even martyrdom—a situation not common in the West but well known to believers in many other countries. From this letter, we learn that Timothy is a third-generation Jewish believer on his mother's side (1:5; cf. Acts 16:1, 3). As in the first letter, Paul encourages Timothy to use the gifting God has given him, not giving in to his natural timidity but being bold in the Lord (1:6-8).

In the end, Paul focuses not on Timothy's own gifts and personality, but on what God has done in the Messiah. "I know in whom I have trusted," Paul says (1:12), Timothy is to guard the good entrusted to him (1:14) so that it can be passed along to others in a kind of chain of proclamation (2:2). Paul describes the life of a believer with powerful images: we are like soldiers who need to endure hardship and obey our superior; we are like athletes in a spiritual contest who need to follow the rules; we are like farmers who work hard to see a harvest of crops (2:3-6). In other words, the believing life takes work and endurance; it takes obedience to the Lord; it takes following the "rules"—by which Paul means not a list of things to do but the basic unshakeable reality of the Good News which alone can bring us to the "finish line" of life.

Some of Paul's admonitions repeat what he said in the first letter: avoid needless controversies (2:14, 23), false teaching (2:17), and ungodly behavior (2:22). But here in 2 Timothy is also found the well-known verses: "All Scripture is inspired by God and useful for teaching, for reproof, for restoration, and for training in righteousness, so that the person belonging to God may be capable, fully equipped for every good deed" (3:16-17). The believer's life is one of fighting for what is right (4:7), enduring hardships (4:5), and suffering (1:8); but above all, looking to God and "the salvation that is in Messiah with eternal glory" (2:10).

Greeting

¹ Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua through the will of God, according to the promise of life in Messiah Yeshua.

² To Timothy my beloved child:

Grace, mercy, and shalom from God the Father and Messiah Yeshua our Lord!

Stir up God's Charisma in You

³ I thank God, whom I serve with a clear conscience as my forefathers did, when I continually remember you in my prayers night and day. ⁴ I remember your tears, and I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. ⁵ I recall the genuine faithfulness within you, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am sure it is within you as well. ⁶ For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift [†] of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands.

⁷ For God has not given us a spirit of timidity but of power and love and self-discipline.

Suffer with Me—for the Good News!

⁸ Therefore, do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord or of me His prisoner, but share in suffering for the Good News according to the power of God.

⁹ He has saved us and called us with a holy calling—not because of our deeds but because of His own purpose and grace. This grace was given to us in Messiah Yeshua before time began, ¹⁰ but now has been revealed through the appearing of our Savior Messiah Yeshua. Indeed, He nullified the power of death and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News.

¹¹ For this Good News I was appointed a herald and an emissary and a teacher. ¹² For this reason I also am suffering these things—but I am not ashamed, for I know in whom I have trusted and I am convinced He is able to safeguard what I have entrusted to Him until that Day.

¹³ Keep the standard of sound words you have heard from me, in the faithfulness and love that are in Messiah Yeshua. ¹⁴ Guard the good that has been entrusted to you through the Ruach ha-Kodesh who dwells in us.

¹⁵ You are aware that everyone in Asia has turned away from me—including Phygelus and Hermogenes. ¹⁶ May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my imprisonment. ¹⁷ On the contrary, when he was in Rome he zealously searched for me and found me. ¹⁸ May the Lord grant him to find mercy from the Lord in that day! You know very well how much he served in Ephesus.

Disciples from Generation to Generation

2 Therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Messiah Yeshua. ² And what you have heard from me among many witnesses, entrust to faithful people who will be capable to teach others also. ³ Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Messiah Yeshua. ⁴ No one serving as a soldier entangles himself in the activities of everyday life, so that he might please the one who enlisted him. ⁵ Also, if anyone competes as an athlete, he is not crowned victorious unless he competes according to the rules. ⁶ The hard-working farmer ought to receive the first share of the crops. ⁷ Consider what I am saying, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.

⁸ Remember Yeshua the Messiah, raised from the dead, from the seed of David—according to my Good News. ⁹ For this I suffer hardship as a criminal, even to the point of chains—though the word of God is not chained. ¹⁰ Therefore, I endure everything for the sake of the chosen, so they might obtain the salvation that is in Messiah Yeshua with eternal glory.

¹¹ Trustworthy is the saying:

If we died with Him,
we will also live with Him;

¹² if we endure, we will also reign with Him;
if we deny Him, He will also deny us;

¹³ if we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself.

A Workman with the Word

¹⁵ Make every effort to present yourself before God as tried and true as an unashamed worker cutting a straight path with the word of truth. ¹⁶ But avoid godless chatter, for it will lead to further ungodliness ¹⁷ and their words will spread like cancer. Among them are Hymeneaus and Philetus— ¹⁸ men who have missed the mark concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place. They are overturning the faith of some. ¹⁹ Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal: “The Lord knows those who are His,” ^{††} and, “Let everyone who names the name of the Lord keep away from unrighteousness.” ^{‡‡} ²⁰ Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay—some for honor and some for common use. ²¹ Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor—sanctified, useful to the Master, prepared for every good work.

²² Now flee from youthful desires; instead, pursue righteousness, faithfulness, love, and shalom, with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart. ²³ But avoid foolish and ignorant disputes, knowing that they produce quarrels. ²⁴ The Lord’s slave must not be quarrelsome, but be kind to all, able to teach, tolerant. ²⁵ Let him give guidance with humility to those who are in opposition—perhaps God may grant them a change of mind, leading to the knowledge of truth. ²⁶ Then they may regain their senses and escape the devil’s snare, in which they had been held captive by him to do his will.

Opposition in the Last Days

3 But understand this, that in the last days ^{††} hard times will come— ² for people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, ³ hard-hearted, unforgiving, backbiting, without self-control, brutal, hating what is good, ⁴ treacherous, reckless, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, ⁵ holding to an outward form of godliness but denying its power. Avoid these people! ⁶ For among these are those who slip into households and deceive weak women weighed down with sins, led away by various desires, ⁷ always learning yet never able to come to the knowledge of truth. ⁸ Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, ^{‡‡} so do these people oppose the truth, men corrupted in mind and worthless concerning the faith. ⁹ But these people will not make any more progress—for their folly, like that of Jannes and Jambres, will be obvious to everyone.

† cf. Isa. 40:3, 9. †† cf. Num. 16:5. ‡ cf. Num 16:26. †† Hebrew acharit ha-yamim ‡‡ cf. Exod. 7:11-12 (Aramaic, Targum Jonathan)

¹⁰ You, however, closely followed my teaching, manner of life, purpose, faithfulness, patience, love, perseverance—¹¹ as well as persecutions and sufferings that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. What persecutions I endured! And the Lord rescued me from them all! ¹² Indeed, all who desire to live a godly life in Messiah Yeshua will be persecuted. ¹³ But evil men and imposters will go from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

All Scripture Equips God's People

¹⁴ You, however, continue in what you have learned and what you have become convinced of. For you know from whom you have learned, ¹⁵ and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to make you wise, leading to salvation through trusting in Messiah Yeshua. ¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God † and useful for teaching, for reproof, for restoration, and for training in righteousness, ¹⁷ so that the person belonging to God may be capable, fully equipped for every good deed.

4 I solemnly charge you—in the presence of God and Messiah Yeshua, who is about to judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His Kingdom—² proclaim the Word! Be ready when it is convenient or inconvenient. †† Confront, rebuke, encourage—with complete patience and instruction. ³ For the time will come when they will not put up with sound instruction, but they will pile up for themselves teachers in keeping with their own desires, to have their ears tickled. ⁴ And they will turn away from hearing the truth and wander off to myths. ⁵ You, however, keep a clear mind in all things, withstand hardship, do the work of proclaiming the Good News, and fulfill your service.

Finishing the Fight, Receiving the Crown

⁶ For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. ⁷ I

† Or God-breathed †† Lit. in season, out of season have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. ⁸ In the future there is reserved for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not to me only, but also to everyone who has longed for His appearing.

⁹ Do all you can to come to me quickly—¹⁰ for Demas, having loved this world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹ Luke is the only one with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service. ¹² I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³ When you come, bring the cloak which I left with Carpus in Troas, along with the scrolls, and especially the parchments. ¹⁴ Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm—the Lord will repay him according to his deeds. ¹⁵ Be on guard against him too, for he vehemently opposed our message.

¹⁶ At my first defense, no one stood by me; instead, they all deserted me—may it not be counted against them! ¹⁷ But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message might be proclaimed in full measure, and all the nations might hear—and I was rescued from the lion's mouth! ¹⁸ The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and will deliver me safely into His heavenly Kingdom. To Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

¹⁹ Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰ Erastus stayed in Corinth, and I left Trophimus sick in Miletus. ²¹ Do all you can to come before winter. Eubulus sends you greetings, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters. ²² The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

Introduction

Titus is another personal letter of Paul, again probably from the mid-60s C.E., this time written to Titus, who was a Gentile and a longtime co-worker of Paul (Galatians 2:1-3, 2 Corinthians 8:23). Paul had left Titus on the island of Crete to straighten out what was left unfinished and appoint elders in every city. Presumably Paul's unfinished business included putting leadership in place in the various communities, a task now entrusted to Titus.

Much of the letter repeats what we have seen in 1 and 2 Timothy: the criteria for being an elder, the problem of ungodly people insisting on false teaching and useless debates, relationships between young and old. One contrast with Timothy's situation is that the communities in Crete were recently formed, with leadership not even in place. The description of the inhabitants of Crete as "always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons," while sounding harsh to us in the 21st century, reminds us that the Good News can radically transform anyone no matter what their background; and once again we find false teachers, this time belonging to the circumcision group (1:10-12). Perhaps there were some who still insisted that Gentiles needed to become Jews to be saved—but Titus was a case in point that they did not need to.

One of the most well-known biblical phrases to be found in this letter is in 2:13: the "blessed hope," described as the appearing of , who is here called both God and Savior. Until that wonderful day, we are to live according to God's will, both elders Titus is to appoint and the average, everyday person (some of whom were liars and gluttons). Whether leader or follower, it is only God's grace that saves us and sustains us (2:11; 3:7).

with no charge of wild living or rebellion. ⁷ For the overseer must be blameless as God's administrator—not arrogant, not quick-tempered, not addicted to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain. ⁸ Rather he must be hospitable, loving what is good, self-controlled, upright, devout, disciplined. ⁹ He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message in keeping with the teaching, so he can both encourage by instruction what is sound and convict those who speak against it.

¹⁰ For there are many who are rebellious, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those from the circumcision.

¹¹ They must be silenced—those who upset entire households by teaching what they should not, for the sake of dishonest gain. ¹² One of them, one of their own prophets, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons." ¹³ This testimony is true. For this reason rebuke them sharply, so they might be sound in the faith, ¹⁴ not paying attention to Judaic myths and commands of men who turn away from the truth. ¹⁵ To the pure all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure. Both their mind and conscience are defiled. ¹⁶ They claim to know God but their deeds deny Him. They are despicable and disobedient and worthless for any good deed.

Advice for Behavior in Community

² But as for you, speak things that are fitting for sound instruction. ² Older men are to be clear-minded, dignified, self-controlled, sound in faith, in love, in patience. ³ Likewise, older women are to be sanctified in demeanor—not backbiting or enslaved to much wine. Let them be teachers of what is good, ⁴ so that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, ⁵ to be self-controlled, pure, managing their household, kind, submitted to their own husbands, so that God’s word may not be dishonored.

⁹ Urge slaves to submit themselves to their own masters in all things, well-pleasing and not back-talking, ¹⁰ not stealing but showing all good faithfulness, so that they may do credit to the teaching about God our Savior in everything.

¹¹ For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, ¹² training us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires, and to live in a manner that is self-controlled and righteous and godly in the present age. ¹³ We wait for the blessed hope and appearance of the glory of our great God and Savior, Messiah Yeshua .

¹⁴ He gave Himself for us so that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and so that He might purify for Himself a chosen people, zealous for good deeds. ¹⁵ So communicate these things, and encourage and correct with complete authority. Let no one look down on you.

Be Ready for Good Deeds

³ Remind the people to be submitted to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good deed, ² to slander no one, without fighting, gentle, showing every courtesy to all people. ³ For we also once were foolish, disobedient, deluded, enslaved to various desires and pleasures, spending our lives in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

⁴ But when the kindness of God our Savior and His love for mankind appeared—

⁵ not by deeds of righteousness which we had done ourselves, but because of His mercy—

He saved us through the mikveh of rebirth and renewing of the Ruach ha-Kodesh ,

⁶ whom He abundantly poured out on us through Messiah Yeshua our Savior,

⁷ so that being set right by His grace, we might become heirs with the confident hope of eternal life!

⁸ Trustworthy is the saying, and I want you to insist on these things, so that those who have put their trust in God may be careful to devote themselves to good deeds. These things are good and beneficial for people.

⁹ But avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and strife and disputes about Torah , for they are unprofitable and useless. ¹⁰ Dismiss a quarrelsome person after a first and second warning, ¹¹ knowing that such a person is twisted and is sinning—he is self-condemned.

Final Words

¹² When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, hurry to come to me in Nicopolis, for I have decided to winter there. ¹³ Send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey with great care, so that nothing is lacking for them. ¹⁴ And let our people learn to devote themselves to doing mitzvot to meet urgent needs, so they will not be unfruitful.

¹⁵ All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

Introduction

Philemon is a very personal letter, yet one that has application to all believers. In Paul's time, slavery was common, though quite different than the racially-based slavery of in modern times, and it had even less in common with the "human trafficking" of slaves in many countries today. Household slaves—there were other kinds—could work for their freedom and even do well for themselves after freedom. Onesimus, a runaway slave of Philemon, has come to faith in through Paul's ministry. Paul is now returning Onesimus to Philemon. In his letter, Paul asks Philemon, a believer, to receive Onesimus as a brother in the faith, and suggests that he might even free Onesimus to serve in ministry with Paul. At the time of this letter Paul was in prison, most likely in Rome in the early 60s of the first century C.E.

In Philemon, Paul sets an example of godly behavior for all believers. Paul appeals to Philemon to receive back Onesimus—not with a heavy hand but as brother to brother. Paul's hope is that Philemon will act towards Onesimus out of the love of God, not simply out of obedience to authority. All three men must make a personal sacrifice: Paul in giving up Onesimus as a useful partner in ministry; Philemon in giving up his pride and rights as a master and receiving Onesimus back, and perhaps even releasing him from slavery; and Onesimus in risking returning to his master with whatever consequences that would entail.

Then there is the question of slavery. Although different from the slavery of modern America, it was not always humane. How then could Paul not call for its abolition? Some think that it was such a part of life that it could not have been abolished at that time, and so Paul does not speak against it. He is more concerned with the personal relationship between Philemon and Onesimus than with an institution he could not do anything about. It is also possible that a situation, in which a master treated his slaves well and his slaves obeyed without rebelling, could be a picture of what our own relationship of serving God should be like. Philemon certainly stimulates discussion on this subject, while at the same time stressing that love and self-sacrifice should characterize all our relationships in life.

Greetings to a House Group

¹ Paul, a prisoner of Messiah Yeshua, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our beloved and fellow worker.

² To Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the community that meets in your house:

³ Grace to you and shalom from God our Father and the Lord Messiah Yeshua!

Thanks for Love and Comfort

⁴I thank my God always when mentioning you in my prayers, ⁵hearing of your love and the trust you have toward the Lord Yeshua and all the kedoshim. ⁶May the fellowship of your faith become effective, with the recognition of all the good that is ours in Messiah.

⁷For I've received much joy and comfort in your love, brother, because the hearts of the kedoshim have been refreshed through you.

Request for Philemon's Runaway

⁸Therefore, though I have plenty of boldness in Messiah to order you to do what's right, ⁹yet for love's sake I appeal to you instead. I, Paul, am an old man and now also a prisoner belonging to Messiah Yeshua. ¹⁰I beg you for my child Onesimus—for whom I became a spiritual father while in chains. ¹¹He once was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and me. ¹²I sent him back to you—he is my very heart. ¹³I really wanted to keep him with me, so that on your behalf he might serve me while I am in chains for the Good News. ¹⁴But I didn't want to do anything without your consent, so that your goodness wouldn't be by force but by free will.

¹⁵ For perhaps he was separated from you for a while in order that you might have him back forever, ¹⁶ no longer as a slave but more than a slave—as a beloved brother, especially to me but even more so to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

¹⁷ So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. ¹⁸ But if he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge that to my account. ¹⁹ I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay. (Not to mention that you owe me your very self.) ²⁰ Yes, brother, let me have some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Messiah.

Added Request and Farewell

²¹ Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than what I say. ²² At the same time also, prepare a guest room for me—for I hope that through your prayers I will be given back to you. ²³ Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Messiah Yeshua, greets you. ²⁴ So do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers. ²⁵ May the grace of our Lord Messiah Yeshua be with your spirit. Amen.

Hebrews

Introduction

The Letter to the Hebrews—though the title is not original to the book—is written to Jewish believers in of the first century, as we can tell from the content. At one time the author, who is not named, was thought to be Paul; but scholars today agree that the author is unknown. Whoever he is, he is thoroughly skilled in his handling of the Greek language, the Septuagint, and Jewish thought—particularly with reference to the Temple service. The date, though not firmly known, appears to be before 70 C.E. We can conclude this from remarks that the old covenant is “close to vanishing” (8:13) and the question “Would they not have ceased to be offered (10:2), which suggest that the Temple sacrificial system was still operative.

More important than the author or date is the situation of the Jewish believers being addressed. Despite their maturity and sophistication, some were on the road to abandoning their faith altogether and returning to a Judaism minus . They were being treated as outsiders or even traitors to the Jewish people (13:13) and undergoing trials and persecution (12:3, 7)—though apparently no one had yet become a martyr (12:4). Others were following strange teachings (13:9) and had even stopped meeting with other believers for worship (10:25). But returning to traditional Judaism would also mean laying aside the faith that had opened a way into the heavenly sanctuary, allowing for direct access to God and face-to-face prayer (10:19-22).

The author of Hebrews is quite concerned for the faith of these Jewish followers of . Much of the letter is given to showing that , the incarnate God of Israel, is greater than anyone else—greater than the angels, greater than Moses, the bringer of a greater covenant, with a greater priesthood than before and a greater sacrifice that fully atones for our sins. Since this is true, abandoning is equivalent to turning away from the God of Israel. Along with the emphasis on come several passages illustrated from the , warning that turning from trust in will bring consequences. But the author wants to encourage, not scold. He points in chapter 11 to a “hall of fame” of Jewish heroes who followed God despite obstacles and even persecution, setting an example for us today. To those who persevere, a Sabbath rest with the Lord is promised (4:8). And how does perseverance come? By “focusing on , the initiator and perfecter of faith” (12:2). Amen!

Superiority of the Son

1 At many times and in many ways, God spoke long ago to the fathers through the prophets. ²In these last days He has spoken to us through a Son, [†]whom He appointed heir of all things and through whom He created the universe. ³This Son is the radiance of His glory and the imprint of His being, upholding all things by His powerful word. ^{††}When He had made purification for our sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high. ^{‡‡}Thus, He became as far above the angels as the name He has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

⁵For to which of the angels did God ever say, "You are My Son.

Today I have become Your Father"? ^{‡‡}
And again,

"I will be to Him a Father, and He will be to Me a Son"? ^{‡‡}

⁶And again, when He brings the firstborn into the world, He says,

"Let all the angels of God worship Him." ^{‡‡‡}

⁷And regarding the angels He says,

"He makes His angels winds, and His servants a flame of fire." ^{‡‡‡}

⁸But regarding the Son He says,

"Your throne, O God, is forever and ever,
and a scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your Kingdom.

⁹You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;

therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your companions." [§]

¹⁰And,

"In the beginning, ADONAI,
You laid the foundation of the earth,
and the heavens are the works of Your hands.

¹¹They shall pass away, but You remain.

And they will all wear out like clothing. ^{§†}

¹²And like a robe You will roll them up, and like clothing they will be changed;
but You are the same,

and Your years shall never end." ^{§††}

¹³But to which of the angels has He ever said,

"Sit at My right hand,
until I make Your enemies a footstool ^{§‡}
for Your feet"? ^{§††}

¹⁴Are they not all ministering spirits, sent out for service to those about to inherit salvation?

Warning Not to Drift Away

2 For this reason it is necessary for us to pay especially close attention to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away. ²For if the word spoken through angels proved to be firm, and every violation and disobedience received a just payback, ³how shall we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? It was first spoken through the Lord and confirmed to us by those who heard. ⁴At the same time, God was testifying by signs and wonders and various miracles and gifts of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, according to His will.

Yeshua Greater than Angels

⁵For it is not to angels that God has subjected the olam ha-ba—about which we speak. ⁶But somewhere someone has testified, saying,

"What is man, that You are mindful of him,
or the son of man, that You care for him?"

⁷For a little while, You made him lower than the angels.

You crowned him with glory and honor.

⁸You put all things in subjection underneath his feet." ^{§†}

For when He put all things in subjection to him, He left nothing outside his control. But for now we do not yet see all things subjected to him. ⁹But we see One who was made for a little while lower than the angels—namely, Yeshua. He is now crowned with glory and honor, because of the death He suffered so that, by the grace of God, He might taste death for everyone.

¹⁰For it was fitting for God—for whom and through whom all things exist—in leading many sons to glory, to perfect through sufferings the initiator of their salvation. ¹¹For both He who sanctifies and those being sanctified are all from one—so He is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, ^{§†12} saying,

"I will proclaim Your name to My brothers and sisters.

In the midst of the congregation
I will sing praise to You." ^{§§†}

¹³And again,

"I will put My trust in Him." ^{§§‡}

And again,

"Here am I and the children God has given Me." ^{§§§}

¹⁴Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared the same humani-

^{§§†} Ps. 22:23(22) (21:23 LXX); cf. Mark 8:38; Luke 9:26; Heb. 11:16. ^{§§‡} Isa. 8:17; 12:2(LXX). ^{§§§} Isa. 8:18(LXX).

ty—so that through death He might break the power of the one who had the power of death (that is, the devil) ¹⁵ and free those who by fear of death were in bondage all their lives. ¹⁶ For surely He is not concerned about angels, but about the seed of Abraham. ¹⁷ Therefore, He had to be made like His brothers in all things, so He might become a merciful and faithful Kohen Gadol in matters relating to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people. ¹⁸ Because He Himself suffered when put to the test, He is able to help those being tested.

Yeshua Greater than Moses

3 Therefore, holy brothers and sisters, partners in a heavenly calling, take notice of Yeshua—the Emissary and Kohen Gadol we affirm. ² He was faithful to the One who appointed Him in His house—as was Moses also. ^{†3} For He has been considered worthy of more glory than Moses, even as the builder of the house has more honor than the house. ⁴ For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God. ⁵ Now Moses surely was faithful in all God's house as a servant, for a witness of things to be spoken later. ⁶ But Messiah, as Son, is over God's house—and we are His house, if we hold firm to our boldness and what we are proud to hope.

Listen and Obey, or Harden and Fall Away

⁷ Therefore, just as the Ruach ha-Kodesh says, "Today if you hear His voice, ⁸ do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, [‡] on the day of testing ^{‡†} in the wilderness. ⁹ There your fathers put Me to the test, though they saw My works for forty years. ¹⁰ Therefore, I was provoked by this generation, and I said, 'They always go astray in their heart, and they have not known My ways.' ¹¹ As I swore in my wrath, 'They shall not enter My rest.'" [‡] ¹² Take care, brothers and sisters, that none of you has an evil heart of unbelief that falls away from the living God. ¹³ But encourage one another day by day—as long as it is called "Today"—so that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴ For we have become partners of Messiah, if we hold our original conviction firm until the end. ¹⁵ As it is said, "Today if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion." ^{‡‡} ¹⁶ Now which ones heard and rebelled? Indeed, was it not all who came out of Egypt with Moses? ¹⁷ And with whom was He provoked for 40 years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? ¹⁸ And to whom did He swear that they would not enter His rest? Was it not to those who were disobedient? ¹⁹ So we see that they were not able to enter in because of lack of trust.

Make Every Effort to Enter God's Rest

4 Let us fear then! Though a promise of entering His rest is left open, some of you would seem to have fallen short. ² For we also have had Good News proclaimed to us, just as they did. But the word they heard did not help them, because they were not unified with those who listened in faith. ³ For we who have trusted are entering into that rest. It is just as God has said, "So in My wrath I swore, 'They shall never enter My rest,'" ^{‡‡} even though His works were finished since the foundation of the world. ⁴ For somewhere He has spoken about the seventh day in this way: "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works," ^{§5} and again in this passage: "They shall never enter My rest." ^{§†} ⁶ So then it remains for some to enter into it; yet those who formerly had Good News proclaimed to them did not enter because of disobedience. ⁷ Again, God appoints a certain day—"Today"—saying through David after so long a time, just as it has been said before, "Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts." ^{§††} ⁸ For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken of another day later on. ⁹ So there remains a Shabbat rest for the people of God. ¹⁰ For the one who has entered God's rest has also ceased from his own work, just as God did from His. ¹¹ Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one may fall through the same pattern of disobedience. ¹² For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword—piercing right through to a separation of soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³ No creature is hidden from Him, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account. ^{§‡}

Yeshua, Our Compassionate Kohen Gadol

¹⁴ Therefore, since we have a great Kohen Gadol who has passed through the heavens, Yeshua Ben-Elohim, let us hold firmly to our confessed allegiance. ¹⁵ For we do not have a kohen gadol who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all the same ways—yet without sin. ¹⁶ Therefore, let us draw near to the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace for help in time of need.

† cf. Lev. 4:20, 26, 31; 5:10; 16:16, 33-34; Dan. 9:24. †† cf. Num. 12:7. ‡ Meribah ‡† Massah ‡‡ Ps. 95:7c-11. ‡‡† Meribah

‡‡ Ps. 95:11(94:11 LXX). § Gen. 2:2; Exod. 20:11; 31:17. §† Ps. 95:11b(94:11b LXX). §†† Ps. 95:11. §‡ cf. Job 26:6; 34:21; Ps. 33:13-15.

5 For every kohen gadol taken from among men is appointed to act on behalf of people in matters relating to God, † so that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. † He is able to empathize with the ignorant and deluded, since he himself also is subject to weakness. † For this reason he has to make offerings for sins—just as for the people, so also for himself. †† And no one takes this honor for himself, but only when he is called by God, as Aaron was. †

‡ So also Messiah did not glorify Himself to be made Kohen Gadol; rather, it was God who said to Him, “You are My Son;

today I have become Your Father.” ††

¶ And He says in a different passage, “You are a kohen forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.” ††

‡ In the days of His life on earth, ††† Yeshua offered up both prayers and pleas, with loud crying and tears, to the One able to save Him from death; and He was heard because of His reverence. † Though He was a Son, He learned obedience from what He suffered. † And once made perfect, He became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey Him— † called by God Kohen Gadol “according to the order of Melchizedek.” †††

Moving on to Maturity

‡ About this subject there is much for us to say, and it is hard to explain since you have become sluggish in hearing. † For although you ought to be teachers by this time, again you need someone to teach you the basics of God’s sayings. You have come to need milk, not solid food. † For anyone living on milk is inexperienced with the teaching about righteousness—he is an infant. †† But solid food is for the mature, who through practice have their senses trained to discern both good and evil.

6 Therefore, leaving the basic teaching of the Messiah, let us move on toward maturity—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of trust in God, † of teaching about immersions, laying on of hands, resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. † Now this we will do, if God permits.

‡ For it is impossible for those who once were enlightened—having tasted of the heavenly gift and become partakers of the Ruach ha-Kodesh, † and having tasted the good word of God and the powers of the olam ha-ba, † and then having fallen away—to renew again to repentance, since they are again crucifying Ben-Elohim for themselves and publicly disgracing Him. † For the earth—having soaked up the rain frequently falling on it—brings forth vegetation †† useful to those for whom it is farmed; and it shares in God’s blessing. † But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed—its end is to be burned over. ††

† cf. Exod. 28:1. †† cf. Lev. 9:7; 16:6. † cf. Num. 16:40; 18:7; 2 Chron. 26:18. †† Ps. 2:7. †† Ps. 110:4(109:4 LXX). ††† Lit. in the days of His flesh ††† Ps. 110:4(109:4 LXX). § cf. Isa. 7:15. †† cf. Deut. 11:11-15; Gen. 13:10.

‡ But even though we speak like this, loved ones, concerning you we are convinced of better things †—things coming with salvation. † For God is not unjust so as to forget your work and the love that you showed for His name, in having served and continuing to serve the kedoshim. † But we long for each of you to show the same eagerness for the certainty of hope to the very end— † so you will not be sluggish, †† but imitators of those inheriting the promises through trust and perseverance.

The Promise and the Oath

‡ Now when God made His promise to Abraham—since He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, † saying, “Surely I will bless you, and surely I will multiply you.” †† And so after waiting patiently, Abraham reached the promise. ††† For people swear by someone greater; and the oath, as confirmation, is an end to all their disputing. † In the same way God, determining to point out more clearly to the heirs of the promise the unchanging nature of His purpose, guaranteed it with an oath. † So by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, †† we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to take hold of the hope set before us. † We have this hope as an anchor of the soul, both firm and steady—a hope that enters the inner place behind the curtain. ††† Yeshua has entered there as a forerunner on our behalf, having become Kohen Gadol “forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.” †††

Melchizedek, a Kohen Forever

7 For this Melchizedek was king of Salem, kohen of God Most High. He met Abraham returning from the defeat of the kings and blessed him, †† and to him Abraham apportioned a tenth of everything. First, by the translation of his name, he is “king of Righteousness” †; and then also king of Salem, which is “king of Shalom.” † Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life but made like Ben-Elohim, he remains a kohen for all time.

‡ Now see how great this man is! Even Abraham the patriarch gave him a tenth out of the plunder. † Indeed, those sons of Levi who receive the priesthood have, according to Torah, a command to collect a tithe from the people †—that is, from their kin, although they have come out of the loins of Abraham. † But this one—who did not have their genealogy—has collected

††† cf. Deut. 11:16-17, 26-28; Gen. 19:24-26; Deut. 28:15-68; 30:7. †† Deut. 30:1-6. ††† cf. Heb. 2:1; 4:1-2; 5:11. †† Gen. 22:17. †† cf. Gen. 21:5. ††† cf. Num. 23:19. ††† Hebrew parokhet ††† Ps. 110:4(109:4 LXX); Heb. 5:6, 10, 18. See Gen. 14:17-20. †† Hebrew Malki-Tzedek †† cf. Num. 18:21-32.

tithes from Abraham and has blessed him, the one holding the promises. ⁷ Now it is beyond dispute that the lesser is blessed by the greater. ⁸ In one case, dying men receive tithes; but in the other, one about whom it is testified that he lives on. ⁹ Through Abraham even Levi, the one receiving tithes, has paid the tithe, so to speak— ¹⁰ for he was still in his father's loins when Melchizedek met him.

Yeshua , Our Kohen Gadol Forever

¹¹ Now if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for based on it the people had been given the Torah †), what further need was there for a different kohen to arise—designated according to the order of Melchizedek, not according to the order of Aaron?

¹² For whenever the priesthood is altered, out of necessity an alteration †† of law also takes place. ¹³ For the one about whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. ¹⁴ For it is clear that our Lord has sprung forth ‡ from Judah—concerning this tribe, Moses said nothing about kohanim . ¹⁵ And it is even more evident, if another kohen arises like Melchizedek— ¹⁶ one made not by virtue of a Torah requirement of physical descent, †† but by virtue of the power of an indestructible life.

¹⁷ For it is testified,

“You are a kohen forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.” ††

¹⁸ For on the one hand, a former requirement is set aside because of its weakness and ineffectiveness—

¹⁹ for Torah made nothing perfect. But on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.

²⁰ Moreover, it was not without a sworn oath. (Others indeed have become kohanim without a sworn oath, ²¹ but He with an oath—sworn by the One who said to Him, “ ADONAI has sworn and will not change His mind, ‘You are a kohen forever.’” †††) ²² How much more then has Yeshua become the guarantee of a better covenant.

²³ Now on the one hand, many have become kohanim , who through death are prevented from continuing in office. †††²⁴ But on the other hand, the One who does remain forever has a permanent priesthood.

²⁵ Therefore, He is also able to save completely those who draw near to God through Him, always living to make intercession for them.

²⁶ For such a Kohen Gadol was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. ²⁷ He has no need to offer up sacrifices day by day like those other kohanim g'dolim —first for their own sins and then for the sins of the people. [§] For when He offered up Himself, He did this once for all. ²⁸ For the Torah appoints as kohanim g'dolim men who have weakness; but the word of the oath, ^{§†} which came after the Torah , appoints a Son—made perfect forever.

Yeshua , Mediator of a Better Covenant

8 Now here is the main point being said. We do have such a Kohen Gadol , who has taken His seat at the right hand ^{§††} of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens. ² He is a priestly attendant of the Holies and the true Tent—which ADONAI set up, not man. ³ For every kohen gadol is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices, so it is necessary for this One also to have something to offer. ^{§†4} Now if He were on earth, He would not be a kohen at all, since there are those who offer the gifts according to the Torah . ⁵ They offer service in a replica ^{§††} and foreshadower of the heavens—one that is just as Moses was instructed by God when he was about to complete the tabernacle. For He says, “See that you make everything according to the design that was shown to you on the mountain.” ^{§†6} But now Yeshua has obtained a more excellent ministry, insofar as He is the mediator of a better covenant which has been enacted on better promises.

⁷ For if that first one had been faultless, there would not have been discourse seeking a second. ⁸ For finding fault with them, He says, “Behold, days are coming,”

says ADONAI ,

“when I will inaugurate a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

⁹ It will not be like the covenant

I made with their fathers

on the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt.

For they did not remain in My covenant, and I did not care for them,” says ADONAI .

¹⁰ “For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,” says ADONAI .

“I will put My Torah into their mind, and upon their hearts I will write it.

And I will be their God, and they shall be My people. ^{§†}

¹¹ And no more will they teach,

each one his fellow citizen and each one his brother, saying,

‘Know ADONAI ,’

because all will know Me,

from the least of them to the greatest.

¹² For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and their sins I will remember no more.” ^{§§†}

¹³ In saying “new,” He has treated the first as old; but what is being made old and aging is close to vanishing.

Messiah Enters the Heavenly Holies

9 Now even the first one had regulations for worship and the earthly sanctuary. ¹² For a tent was prepared: in the outer ^{††} part were the menorah, the table, and the presentation of the bread [‡]—this is called the Holy Place. ³ Beyond the second curtain [‡] was a dwelling called the Holy of Holies. ^{‡‡} It held a golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant, completely covered with gold. In the ark was a golden jar holding the manna, Aaron’s rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant ^{‡‡}— ⁵ and above it, cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. ^{‡‡‡} But it is not now possible to speak in detail about these things.

⁶ Now with these things prepared this way, the kohanim do continually enter into the outer tent [§] while completing the services; ⁷ but into the inner, ^{§†} once a year, the kohen gadol alone ^{§††}— and not without blood which he offers for himself and for the unintentional sins ^{§†} of the people. ⁸ By this the Ruach ha-Kodesh makes clear that the way into the Holies has not yet been revealed while the first tent is still standing. ⁹ It is a symbol for the present time. Accordingly, gifts and sacrifices are being offered that cannot make the worshiper perfect with respect to conscience. ¹⁰ These relate only to food and drink and various washings ^{§††}—regulations for the body imposed until a time of setting things straight.

¹¹ But when Messiah appeared as Kohen Gadol of the good things that have now come, passing through the greater and more perfect Tent not made with hands (that is to say not of this creation), ¹² He entered into the Holies once for all—not by the blood of goats and calves but by His own blood, having obtained eternal redemption. ¹³ For if the blood of goats and bulls ^{§†} and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled ^{§†} sanctify for the cleansing of the flesh, ¹⁴ how much more will the blood of Messiah—who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God—cleanse our ^{§§†} conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

† cf. Exod. 25:8, 23-29. †† Lit. first ‡ cf. Lev. 24:5-9. ††† cf. 10:20. Hebrew parokhet ‡‡ cf. Exod. 26:31-33; 40:3. ‡‡† cf. Exod. 25:10-16; 1 Kings 8:7. ‡‡‡ cf. place that redeems them from violations under the first covenant. ¹⁶ For where there is a covenant, the death of the one who made it must be established. ^{§§§17} For a covenant is secured upon the basis of dead bodies, since it has no strength as long as the one who made it lives. ¹⁸ That is why not even the first covenant was inaugurated without blood. ¹⁹ For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the Torah, he took the blood of the calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and he sprinkled both the book itself and all the people. ²⁰ He said, “This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded you.” ¹⁸²¹ And in the same way, he sprinkled the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry with the blood. ¹⁹²² And nearly everything is purified in blood according to the Torah, and apart from the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness. ²⁰

²³ Therefore, it was necessary for the replicas of these heavenly things to be purified with these sacrifices—but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴ For Messiah did not enter into Holies made with hands—counterparts of the true things—but into heaven itself, now to appear in God’s presence on our behalf. ²⁵ And He did not offer Himself again and again—as the kohen gadol enters into the Holy of Holies year after year with blood that is not his own. ²⁶ For then He would have needed to suffer again and again from the foundation of the world. But as it is, He has been revealed once and for all at the close of the ages—to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself. ²⁷ And just as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this judgment, ²¹²⁸ so also Messiah, was offered once to bear the sins of many. ²² He will appear a second time, apart from sin, to those eagerly awaiting Him for salvation. ²³

Perfect Pardon in the New Covenant

10 The Torah has a shadow of the good things to come—not the form itself of the realities. For this reason it can never, by means of the same sacrifices they offer constantly year after year, make perfect those who draw near. ² Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, since the worshipers—cleansed once and for all—would no longer have consciousness of sins? ³ But in these sacrifices is a reminder of sins year after year— ⁴ for it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵ So when Messiah comes into the world, He says, “Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but a body You prepared for Me.

⁶ In whole burnt offerings and sin offerings You did not delight.

§§§ cf. Exod. 24:8(LXX); Ps. 50:5(49:5 LXX); Luke 22:29. 18 Exod. 24:8. 19 cf. Exod. 29:12; Lev.8:15. 20 Lit. pardon, cancellation, removal 21 cf. Gen. 3:19; Dan. 12:2. 22 cf. Isa. 53:12. 23 cf. Matt. 1:21; Rom. 11:26-27.

⁷ Then I said, 'Behold, I come to do Your will, O God (in the scroll of the book it is written of Me).'[†]

⁸ After saying above, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin offerings You did not desire, nor did You delight in them" (those which are offered according to Torah), ⁹ then He said, "Behold, I come to do Your will." He takes away the first to establish the second. ¹⁰ By His will we have been made holy through the offering of the body of Messiah Yeshua once for all.

¹¹ Indeed, every kohen stands day by day serving and offering the same sacrifices again and again, which can never take away sins. ^{††12} But on the other hand, when this One offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, He sat down at the right hand of God—¹³ waiting from then on, until His enemies are made a footstool for His feet. ^{†14} For by one offering He has perfected forever those being made holy. ¹⁵ The Ruach ha-Kodesh also testifies to us—for after saying,

¹⁶ "This is the covenant that I will cut with them:

'After those days,' says ADONAI,

'I will put My Torah upon their hearts, and upon their minds I will write it,'" ^{††} then He says,

¹⁷ "I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more." ^{††}

¹⁸ Now where there is removal of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Let Us Pray Boldly in God's Presence

¹⁹ Therefore, brothers and sisters, we have boldness to enter into the Holies by the blood of Yeshua. ²⁰ He inaugurated a new and living way for us through the curtain—that is, His flesh. ²¹ We also have a Kohen Gadol over God's household.

²² So let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and body washed with pure water.

²³ Let us hold fast the unwavering confession of hope, for He who promised is faithful.

²⁴ And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good deeds.

²⁶ For if we keep on sinning willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷ but only a terrifying expectation of judgment and a fury of fire about to devour the enemies of God. ^{†††28} Anyone who rejected the Torah of Moses dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses. ^{§29} How much more severe do you think the punishment will be for the one who has trampled Ben-Elohim underfoot, and has regarded as unholy the blood of the covenant by which he was made holy, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? ³⁰ For we know the One who said, "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay," and again, " ADONAI will judge His people." ^{§†31} It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

Suffering Perfects Yeshua's Followers

³² But remember the former days when, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings. ³³ Sometimes you were publicly exposed to abuses and afflictions, and other times you became partners with those who were treated this way. ³⁴ For you suffered along with the prisoners and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better and lasting possession. ³⁵ Therefore, do not lose your boldness, which has great reward. ³⁶ For you need perseverance so that, after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise. ³⁷ For yet,

"in a very little while, ^{§††} the Coming One will come, and He will not delay. ^{§‡}

³⁸ But My righteous one shall live by emunah;

and if he shrinks back,

My soul takes no pleasure in him." ^{§††}

³⁹ But we are not among the timid ones on the path to destruction, but among the faithful ones on the path to the preservation of the soul.

The Faithful See from Afar

11 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of realities not seen. ² For by it the elders received commendation. ³ By faith we understand that the universe was created by the Word of God, so that what is seen did not come from anything visible.

⁴ By faith Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain. Through faith he was commended as righteous ^{§†} when God approved of his gifts. And through faith he still speaks, although he is dead.

⁵ By faith Enoch was taken so as not to see death, and he was not found because God took him. ^{§†} For before he was taken, he was commended as pleasing to God. ⁶ Now without faith it is impossible to please God. For the one who comes to God must believe that He exists and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

^{§†} Deut. 32:35a, 36a. §†† Isa. 26:20(LXX). §‡ Hab. 2:3(LXX). §†† Hab. 2:4(LXX). §† cf. Matt. 23:35. §‡ cf. Gen. 5:24(5:24 LXX); Greek metathesis transposition, a change in location

⁸ By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place he was to receive as an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he was going. ⁹ By faith he migrated to the land of promise as if it were foreign, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob—fellow heirs of the same promise. ¹⁰ For he was waiting for the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

¹¹ By faith even Sarah herself received ability to conceive [†] when she was barren and past the age, since she considered the One who had made the promise to be faithful. ¹² So from one—and him as good as dead—were fathered offspring as numerous as the stars of heaven, and as uncountable as the sand on the seashore. ^{††}

¹³ These all died in faith without receiving the things promised—but they saw them and welcomed them from afar, and they confessed that they were strangers and sojourners on the earth. ^{†††} ¹⁴ For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. ¹⁵ If indeed they had been thinking about where they had come from, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶ But as it is, they yearn for a better land—that is, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He has prepared a city for them.

¹⁷ By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had received the promises was offering up his one and only son— ¹⁸ the one about whom it was said, “Through Isaac offspring shall be named for you.” ^{††††} ¹⁹ He reasoned that God was able to raise him up even from the dead—and in a sense, he did receive him back from there.

²³ By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw he was an extraordinary child and they were not afraid of the king’s decree. ²⁴ By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter. ²⁵ Instead, he chose to suffer mistreatment along with the people of God, rather than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin. ²⁶ He considered the disgrace of Mes-siah [‡] as greater riches than the treasures of Egypt—because he was looking ahead to the reward. ²⁷ By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king’s anger—for he persevered as if seeing the One who is invisible. ²⁸ By faith he kept the Passover and the smearing of the blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch them. ²⁹ By faith they passed through the Red Sea as if on dry ground. When the Egyptians tried it, they were swallowed up.

³⁰ By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they were circled for seven days. ³¹ By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she welcomed the spies with shalom.

³² And what more shall I say? For time would fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, also of David and Samuel and the prophets. ³³ By faith they conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, ³⁴ quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, and made foreign armies flee.

³⁷ They were stoned, they were sawed in two, they were murdered with the sword. They went around in sheepskins and goatskins; they were destitute, afflicted, mistreated. ³⁸ The world was not worthy of them! They wandered around in deserts and mountains, caves and holes in the ground. ³⁹ And all these, though commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised— ⁴⁰ because God had provided something better for us, so that only with us would they reach perfection.

Running the Race with Discipline

12 Therefore, since we have such a great cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also get rid of every weight and entangling sin. Let us run with endurance the race set before us, ² focusing on Yeshua, the initiator and perfecter of faith. For the joy set before Him, He endured the cross, disregarding its shame; and He has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of God. ^{†††} Consider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you may not grow weary in your souls and lose heart.

⁴ In struggling against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of bloodshed. ⁵ Have you forgotten the warning addressed to you as sons?

“My son, do not take lightly the discipline of ADONAI or lose heart when you are corrected by Him, ⁶ because ADONAI disciplines the one He loves and punishes every son He accepts.” ^{†††}

⁷ It is for discipline that you endure. God is treating you as sons—for what son does a father not discipline? ⁸ But if you are without discipline—something all have come to share—then you are illegitimate and not sons. ⁹ Besides, we are used to having human fathers as instructors—and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? ¹⁰ Indeed, for a short time they disciplined us as seemed best to them; but He does so for our benefit,

[†] cf. Gen. 18:11-14; 21:2. Some mss. add and she bore a child

^{††} cf. Gen. 15:5; 22:17; 32:12. [‡] cf. Gen. 23:4; 47:9. ^{†††} Gen. 21:12(LXX). ^{††††} cf. Ps. 89:50-51.

^{†††} cf. Ps. 110:1(109:1 LXX). ^{††††} Prov. 3:11-12.

so that we may share in His holiness. ¹¹ Now all discipline seems painful at the moment—not joyful. But later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

¹² Therefore, strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are feeble! ¹³ And make straight paths for your feet, ^{††} so that what is lame will not be pulled out of joint but rather be healed. ¹⁴ Pursue shalom with everyone, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord. ¹⁵ See to it that no one falls short of the grace of God; and see to it that no bitter root springs up and causes trouble, and by it many be defiled. ¹⁶ Also see to it that there is no immoral or godless person—like Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal. ¹⁷ For you know that later, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected. He found no chance for repentance, though he begged for it with tears. ^{††}

¹⁸ For you have not come to a mountain ^{††} that can be touched, and to a blazing fire, and to darkness and gloom and storm, ¹⁹ and to the blast of a shofar ^{†††} and a voice whose words made those who heard it beg that not another word be spoken to them. ²⁰ For they could not bear what was commanded: “If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned.” ^{†††21} So terrifying was the sight that Moses said, “I am quaking with fear.” [§]

²² But you have come to Mount Zion—to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, ^{§†} and to myriads of angels, a joyous gathering, ²³ and to the assembly of the firstborn ^{§††} who are written in a scroll in heaven, ^{§†} and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous ones made perfect, ²⁴ and to Yeshua, the Mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks of something better than the blood of Abel.

²⁵ See to it that you do not refuse the One who is speaking! For if they did not escape when they refused the One who was warning them on earth, much less will we escape if we reject the One who warns us from heaven. ²⁶ His voice shook the earth then, ^{§††} but now He has promised, saying, “Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens.” ^{§†27} Now this phrase, “Yet once more,” shows the removal of those things that are shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain. ^{§†28} Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us show gratitude—through this we may offer worship in a manner pleasing to God, with reverence and awe. ²⁹ For our God is a consuming fire.

Brotherly Love in the Community

13 Let brotherly love continue. ² Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers—for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. ³ Remember the prisoners as if you were fellow prisoners, and those who are mistreated as if you also were suffering bodily. ⁴ Let marriage be held in honor among all and the marriage bed kept undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers. ⁵ Keep your lifestyle free from the love of money, and be content with what you have. For God Himself has said, “I will never leave you or forsake you,” ^{§§†6} so that with confidence we say, “The Lord is my helper; I will not fear. What will man do to me?” ^{§§†}

⁷ Remember your leaders, who spoke the word of God to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. ⁸ Yeshua the Messiah is the same yesterday, today, and forever. ⁹ Do not be carried away by all kinds of strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace—not by foods that have not benefited those occupied by them. ¹⁰ We have an altar from which those serving in the tabernacle have no right to eat. ¹¹ For the bodies of those animals—whose blood is brought into the Holies by the kohen gadol as an offering for sin—are burned outside the camp. ^{§§§12} Therefore, to make the people holy through His own blood, Yeshua also suffered outside the gate. ¹³ So let us go to Him outside the camp, bearing His disgrace. ¹⁴ For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the one that is to come. ¹⁵ Through Yeshua then, let us continually offer up to God a sacrifice of praise—the fruit of lips giving thanks to His name. ¹⁶ Do not neglect doing good and sharing, ¹⁸ for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

¹⁷ Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as ones who must give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with groaning, for that would be of no benefit to you.

¹⁸ Pray for us, for we are convinced that we have a clear conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves honorably in all things. ¹⁹ I especially urge you to do this, so that I may be restored to you sooner.

Closing Blessing

²⁰ Now may the God of shalom, who brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep by the blood of an everlasting covenant, ¹⁹ our Lord Yeshua, ²¹ make you complete in every good thing to do His will, accomplishing in us what is pleasing in His sight, through Messiah Yeshua. To Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

²² But I urge you, brothers and sisters, listen patiently to this word of exhortation, for in fact I have written to you in few words. ²³ Know that our brother Timothy has been released. If he comes soon, I will visit you with him.

²⁴ Greet all your leaders and all the kedoshim—those from Italy greet you.

²⁵ Grace be with you all.

Jacob

Introduction

This book often goes by the name “James.” The Greek name of the book, however, is not “Demetrios” which translates as “James,” but “Iacobos” which translates as “Jacob” or “Ya’akov” in Hebrew. Some say the book was renamed to honor King James for funding in 1611 the English translation widely known as the “Authorized Version.”

There are several people named “Jacob” in the New Covenant, but the likely author of this letter is Jacob the brother of , who probably wrote this letter in the 40s C.E.—about the same time his community hosted the Jerusalem Council (Acts 15). He wrote to Jewish believers in , as we gather from the address to the “twelve tribes in the Diaspora” (1:1), and the mention of the synagogue (2:2). These may even have been the believers mentioned in Acts 11:19 who were scattered at the time of persecution following Stephen’s martyrdom. Jacob focuses on ethics—how to live out the life of faith. This resonates with the emphasis of many modern Jews for whom ethics is often at the front of the agenda. The difference is that Jacob says that our life flows from our faith in (2:1). He speaks to such issues as dealing with suffering; handling temptation; treating people fairly rather than playing favorites; showing the reality of one’s faith through deeds; and using one’s tongue properly (avoiding what modern Judaism calls , hurtful speech or gossip).

Jacob does not just “lecture” his readers on these things. Reminiscent of the way the book of Proverbs teaches, Jacob uses vivid images. “The one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind” (1:6). Our tongues are like wild animals that cannot be tamed, like springs of water that have both fresh and salt water (which is never found in nature), like the tiny rudder that can steer a huge ship, like a miniscule spark that manages to burn up an entire forest.

Some wonder if there is a conflict between Jacob and Paul: Paul teaches that we are set right before God, justified by our faith, while Jacob says that this happens from our works (2:24). Actually, Paul and Jacob complement each other. God declares us to be righteous because of our faith, while our faith witnesses to others through our deeds. A true faith will show itself in how we live—Paul and Jacob would both be quick to agree to that. We say we have faith in ; now, let’s live like it!

Praying for the Sick

Greetings

1 Jacob, a slave of God and of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah,
To the twelve tribes in the Diaspora:
Shalom!

Rejoice in Trials

2 Consider it all joy, my brethren, [†] when you encounter various trials, ³ knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. ⁴ And let endurance have its perfect work, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. ⁵ But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, [†] who gives to all without hesitation and without reproach; and it will be given to him. ⁶ But let him ask in faith, without any doubting—for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. ⁷ For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord— ⁸ he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

⁹ But let the brother in humble circumstances boast in his high position— ¹⁰ and the rich person in his humble position, because like the flower of the grass he will pass away. ¹¹ For the sun arises with a scorching heat and withers the grass, and its flower falls off and the beauty of its appearance is destroyed. ^{††} So also the rich man in the midst of his pursuits will wither away.

¹² Happy is the one who endures testing, because when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to those who love Him. ¹³ Let no one say when he is tempted, “I am being tempted by God”—for God cannot be tempted by evil, and He himself tempts no one. ¹⁴ But each one is tempted when he is dragged away and enticed by his own desire. ¹⁵ Then when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when sin is full grown, it brings forth death. ^{‡16} Do not be deceived, my dear brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shifting shadow. ¹⁸ By His will, He brought us forth by the word of truth, so that we might be a kind of firstfruits of all He created. [‡]

Quick to Listen, Slow to Anger

¹⁹ Know this, my dear brothers and sisters: let every person be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger [‡]— ²⁰ for human anger doesn't produce the righteousness of God. ²¹ So put away all moral filth and excess of evil and receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

²⁶ If anyone thinks he is religious and yet does not bridle his tongue ^{‡‡} but deceives his heart, this person's religion is futile. ²⁷ Pure and undefiled religion before our God and Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their distress, ^{‡‡‡} and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Honor the Poor Person

2 My brothers and sisters, do not hold the faith of our glorious Lord Yeshua the Messiah while showing favoritism. ^{§2} For if a man with a gold ring and fine clothes comes into your synagogue, and a poor person in filthy clothes also comes in; ³ and you pay special attention to the one wearing the fine clothing and you say, “Sit here in a good place”; and you say to the poor person, “Stand there,” or “Sit by my footstool”; ⁴ haven't you made distinctions between yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?

⁵ Listen, my dear brothers and sisters. Didn't God choose the poor in this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the Kingdom that He promised to those who love Him? ⁶ But you have dishonored the poor person. Isn't it the rich who oppress you and drag you into court? ⁷ Don't they blaspheme the good name by which you were called? ⁸ If, however, you fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself,” you do well. ⁹ But if you show favoritism, you are committing sin and are convicted by the Torah as transgressors. ¹⁰ For whoever keeps the whole Torah but stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. ¹¹ For the one who said, “Do not commit adultery,” also said, “Do not commit murder.” Now if you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the Torah. ^{§†12} So speak and act as those who will be judged according to a Torah that gives freedom. ¹³ For judgment is merciless to the one who does not show mercy. ^{§††} Mercy triumphs over judgment.

Show Faith with Works

¹⁴ What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith, but does not have works? Can such faith save him? ¹⁵ If a brother or sister is naked and lacks daily food, ¹⁶ and one of you says to them, “Go in shalom, keep warm and well fed,” but you do not give them what the body needs, what good is that? ¹⁷ So also faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself.

¹⁸ But someone will say, “You have faith and I have works.” Show me your faith without works and I will show you faith by my works. ¹⁹ You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe—and shudder! ²⁰ But do you want to know, you empty person, that faith without works is dead? ²¹ Wasn't Abraham our father proved righteous by works when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? ²² You see that faith worked together with his works, and by the works his faith was made complete. ²³ The Scripture was fulfilled that says, “And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness” [†]—and he was called God’s friend. ^{††24} You see that a man is proved righteous by works and not by faith alone. ²⁵ And likewise, wasn’t Rahab the prostitute also proved righteous by works when she welcomed the messengers and sent them out another way? ^{‡26} For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

Dangerous Tongue

3 Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, since you know that we will receive a stricter judgment. ² For we all stumble in many ways. If someone does not stumble in speech, he is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body as well. ³ And if we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole body as well. ⁴ See also the ships—though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. ⁵ So also the tongue is a small member—yet it boasts of great things. [‡] See how so small a fire sets ablaze so great a forest! ⁶ And the tongue is a fire. [‡] The tongue is a world of evil placed among our body parts. It pollutes the whole body and sets on fire the course of life—and is set on fire by Gehenna.

⁷ For every species of beasts and birds, reptiles and sea creatures, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind. ⁸ But no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ^{‡‡9} With it we bless our ADONAI and Father, and with it we curse people, who are made in the image of God. ^{‡‡10} From the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, these things should not be. ¹¹ A spring doesn’t pour out fresh and bitter water from the same opening, does it? ¹² My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree produce olives, or a vine produce figs? Neither can salt water produce fresh water.

4 Where do quarrels and conflicts among you come from? Don’t they come from this, namely your passions that battle within your body parts? ² You crave and have not. You murder and you envy, yet you cannot get it. You fight and you wage war. You do not have because you do not ask. ³ You ask and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives so you may spend it on your passions. ⁴ You adulteresses! ^{§†} Don’t you know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore, whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. ⁵ Or do you think that in vain the Scripture says, “He yearns jealously over the spirit which He made to dwell in us”? ⁶ But He gives greater grace. Therefore it says, “God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.” ^{§††}

⁷ Therefore submit to God. But resist the devil and he will flee from you. ⁸ Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded! ^{§†9} Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy into gloom. ¹⁰ Humble yourselves in the sight of ADONAI, and He shall lift you up. ^{§††11} Do not speak evil against one another, brethren. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the Torah and judges the Torah. But if you judge the Torah, you are not a doer of the Torah, but a judge. ¹² There is only one lawgiver and judge ^{§†}—the One who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you who judges your neighbor?

If the Lord Wills, We Will

¹³ Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a town and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit.” ¹⁴ Yet you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow. What is your life? For you are a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes. ^{§†15} Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we will live and also do this or that.” ¹⁶ But now you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil. ¹⁷ Therefore, whoever knows the right thing to do and does not do it—for him it is sin.

Rotten Riches

5 Come now, you rich, weep and wail over the miseries that are coming upon you. ² Your riches have rotted and your clothes have become moth-eaten. ³ Your gold and your silver have rusted and their rust will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up treasure in the last days. ⁴ Behold, the wages of the workers who mowed your fields—which you kept back by fraud—are crying out against you. And the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of Hosts. ^{†5} You have lived on earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts for a day of slaughter. ^{††6} You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous person [‡]—he does not resist you.

^{§†} cf. Ezek. 16:32. ^{§††} Ps. 138:6; Prov. 3:34. ^{§‡} cf. Isa. 1:16; Ps. 24:3-4; Ps. 119:113. ^{§††} cf. Job 5:11; Ezek. 21:26. ^{§†} cf. Isa. 33:22. ^{§‡} cf. Prov. 27:1; Job 7:7; Ps. 39:5; 144:4.

Be Patient for His Coming

⁷ So be patient, brothers and sisters, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient for it until it receives the early and late rain. ^{††8} You also be patient. Strengthen your hearts because the coming of the Lord is near. ⁹ Do not grumble against one another, brothers and sisters, so that you may not be judged. Behold, the judge is standing at the doors. ¹⁰ As an example of suffering and patience, brothers and sisters, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

¹¹ Behold, we consider blessed those who showed endurance. You have heard of the endurance of Job, [‡] and you have seen the outcome of ADONAI—that ADONAI is full of compassion and mercy. ^{‡‡}

¹² But above all, my dear brothers and sisters, do not swear—either by heaven, or by the earth, or by any other oath. But let your “yes” be “yes,” and your “no” be “no”—so that you may not fall under judgment.

† Isa. 5:9 (LXX); cf. Lev. 19:13; Deut. 24:15; Jer. 22:13. †† cf. Amos 6:1; Jer. 12:3; 25:34. ‡ Or the righteous One †† cf. Deut. 11:14; Jer. 5:24; Hos. 6:3; Joel 2:23. ‡‡ cf. Job 1:21-22. ‡‡† cf. Exod. 34:6; Ps. 103:8.

Praying for the Sick

¹³ Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. ^{‡‡} Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praises. ¹⁴ Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of Messiah’s community, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵ The prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. ¹⁶ So confess your offenses to one another and pray for one another so that you may be healed. The effective prayer of a righteous person is very powerful. ¹⁷ Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain. And it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. ^{§18} He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

¹⁹ My brothers and sisters, if any among you strays from the truth and someone turns him back, ²⁰ let him know that the one who turns a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death and cover a multitude of sins. ^{§†}

1 Peter

Introduction

Peter, one of 's original twelve disciples, wrote this letter around 62-63 C.E. from Rome, to believers living in what today is Turkey. Eusebius, a historian from the fourth century, believed that the letter addressed an audience of Jewish people living in exile. Jewish people in the Diaspora would relate to being addressed as strangers and sojourners (1:1; 2:11). When Peter, writing from Rome, says that "Babylon" sends greetings (5:13), this covert reference to Rome would seem normal to Jewish people living in scattered communities. Peter was known as the emissary to the Jewish people, but perhaps that was not his only audience. In 2:12, exactly who should keep their conduct honorable among the Gentiles? Jewish readers in Diaspora who have contact with non-Jewish people? Gentile believers within the communities? Much of Peter's letter does seem to address Gentiles who have joined the believing community, with talk about the futile way of life (1:18) and advice to stop past pagan lifestyles (1:14; 4:3-5).

Peter includes Gentiles in the people of God by applying to them the language of the . His readers in 1:4 have an inheritance; in 1:15 they are called as to be holy; in 2:9 they are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation; in 4:17 they are the family of God. This is not the church Israel; it is the of Israel to now include Gentiles according to God's plan. It is the same idea we find in Paul's letter to the Ephesians (2:12-13). At the time Peter wrote, these believers were experiencing persecution—if not officially, then certainly in their daily interactions with the pagan world around them. What hope it must have brought them to be included in the promises of God! Peter over and over emphasizes that these promises have come to them through what has done for them. He has brought blessings through His death (1:19) and resurrection (1:3), and His return will be a time of hope fulfilled (1:7). In fact, 's example in the face of His own sufferings encourages us to do the same. Today's readers can first of all rejoice that God has chosen to expand His kingdom to include non-Jews among His people. Secondly, all believers can take hold of that same "living hope" (1:3) in the face of whatever opposition they encounter.

Greetings

1 Peter, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua ,
To the sojourners of the Diaspora in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia—chosen ² according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, set apart by the Ruach for obedience and for sprinkling with the blood [†] of Yeshua the Messiah:

May grace and shalom be multiplied to you.

[†] cf. Exod. 24:3-8.

A Message of Living Hope

³ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah! In His great mercy He caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Messiah Yeshua from the dead. ⁴ An incorruptible, undefiled, and unfading inheritance has been reserved in heaven for you. ⁵ By trusting, you are being protected by God's power for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶ You rejoice in this greatly, even though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been distressed by various trials. ⁷ These trials are so that the true metal [†] of your faith (far more valuable than gold, which perishes though refined by fire) may come to light in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Messiah Yeshua. ⁸ Though you have not seen Him, you love Him. And even though you don't see Him now, you trust Him and are filled with a joy that is glorious beyond words, ⁹ receiving the outcome of your faith—the salvation of your souls. ¹⁰ The prophets, who spoke about the grace that was to be yours, searched for this salvation and investigated carefully. ¹¹ They were trying to find out the time and circumstances the Ruach of Messiah within them was indicating, when predicting the sufferings in store for Messiah ^{††} and the glories to follow. ¹² It was revealed to them that they were providing these messages not to themselves but to you. These messages have now been announced to you through those who proclaimed the Good News to you by the Ruach ha-Kodesh, sent from heaven. Even angels long to catch a glimpse of these things.

A Call to Be Holy

¹³ So brace your minds for action. Keep your balance. And set your hope completely on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Yeshua the Messiah. ¹⁴ Like obedient children, do not be shaped by the cravings you had formerly in your ignorance. ¹⁵ Instead, just like the Holy One who called you, be holy yourselves also in everything you do. ¹⁶ For it is written,

“Kedoshim you shall be, for I am kadosh.” [‡]

¹⁷ If you call on Him as Father—the One who judges impartially according to each one's deeds—then live out the time of sojourning in reverent fear.

¹⁸ You know that you were redeemed from the futile way of life handed down from your ancestors—not with perishable things such as silver or gold, ¹⁹ but with precious blood like that of a lamb without defect or spot, the blood of Messiah. ²⁰ He was chosen before the foundation of the world, but was revealed in these last times for your sake. ²¹ Through Him you are believers in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your trust and hope are in God.

²² Now that you have purified your souls in obedience to the truth, ^{‡†} leading to sincere brotherly love, love one another fervently from a pure heart. ²³ You have been born again—not from perishable seed but imperishable—through the living and enduring word of God. ²⁴ For,

“All humanity is like grass,

And all its glory like a wildflower.

The grass withers, and the flower falls off,

²⁵ But the word of the Lord endures forever.” [‡]

[†] Lit. without alloy; mettle, genuineness, proof ^{††} cf. Luke 24:26-27. [‡] Lev. 11:44-45; 19:2; 20:7. ^{††} Some mss. insert

And this is the word that was proclaimed as Good News to you.

Living Stones

² So get rid of all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all lashon ha-ra. ² As newborn babes, long for pure spiritual milk, ^{‡†} so that by it you may grow toward salvation— ³ now that you have tasted that the Lord is good. ^{‡‡‡} As you come to Him, a living stone [§] rejected by men but chosen by God and precious, ⁵ you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house—a holy priesthood to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Messiah Yeshua. ⁶ For it says in Scripture,

“Behold, I lay in Zion a stone,
a chosen, precious cornerstone.

Whoever trusts in Him will never be put to shame.” ^{§†}

⁷ Now the value is for you who keep trusting; but for those who do not trust,

“The stone which the builders rejected—
this One has become the chief cornerstone,” ^{§††} ⁸ and

and a rock of offense.” ^{§‡}

They stumble because they are disobeying the word—to this they were also appointed. ⁹ But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, so that you may proclaim the praises of the One who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light. ^{§††}

¹⁰ Once you were “not a people,” but now you are “God's people.”

You were shown “no mercy,” but now you have been shown “mercy.” ^{§†}

¹¹ Loved ones, I urge you as strangers and sojourners to keep away from the fleshly cravings that war against the soul. ¹² Keep your conduct honorable among the Gentiles. Then while they speak against you as evildoers, they may—from noticing your good deeds—glorify God in the day of visitation.

Respect and Order

¹³ For the Lord's sake, submit yourselves to every human authority—whether to a king as supreme, ¹⁴ or to governors sent by him for the punishment of those who do evil and the praise of those who do good.

¹⁵ For this is God's will, that you silence the ignorance of foolish men by doing good. ¹⁶ Live as free people, but not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil. Rather, live as God's slaves. ¹⁷ Honor all people. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.

through the Spirit ^{‡‡} cf. Isa. 40:6, 8; the word of our God ^{‡‡†} Or the pure milk of the word logikos ^{‡‡‡} cf.
Ps. 34:8(34:8 LXX). [§] cf. Ps. 118:22; Isa. 28:16. ^{§†} Isa. 28:16.
^{§††} Ps. 118:22. ^{§‡} Isa. 8:14. ^{§††} cf. Exod. 19:5-6; Isa. 42:6.
^{§†} Hos. 1:10; 2:23.

¹⁸ Slaves, with all respect submit yourselves to your masters—not only to those who are good and gentle, but also to those who are harsh. ¹⁹ For this finds favor if, for the sake of conscience toward God, someone endures grief from suffering undeservedly. ²⁰ For what credit is there if, when you sin and get a beating, you endure? But if you endure when you do good and suffer for it, this finds favor with God. ²¹ For you were called to this, because Messiah also suffered for you, leaving you an example so that you might follow in His footsteps:

²² “He committed no sin, nor was any deceit found in His mouth.” †

²³ When He was abused, He did not return the abuse. †† While suffering, He made no threats. Instead, He kept entrusting Himself to the One who judges righteously. ²⁴ He Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, so that we, removed from sins, might live for righteousness. “By His wounds you were healed.” ‡

²⁵ For you like sheep were going astray, †† but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Guardian of your souls.

3 Likewise, wives, be submitted to your own husbands so that—even if some do not obey the message—by the wives’ conduct, without a word they may be won over ² as they observe your pure, reverent conduct. †† Don’t let your beauty †† be external—braiding the hair and wearing gold jewelry or fine clothes. †† Instead, let it be in the hidden person of the heart, with the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God’s sight is very precious. ⁵ For this is the way the holy women, who put their hope in God, used to beautify themselves long ago—being submitted to their own husbands ⁶ just as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. ⁵ You have become her daughters by doing what is good and not fearing intimidation. ⁷ In the same way, husbands, live with your wives in an understanding way. Though they are weaker partners, honor them as equal heirs of the grace of life. In this way, your prayers will not be hindered.

Suffering for Doing Good

⁸ Finally, all of you be harmonious, sympathetic, brotherly, tenderhearted, humble-minded. ⁹ Do not repay evil for evil or insult for insult, but give a blessing instead—it is for this reason you were called, so that you might inherit a blessing. ¹⁰ For,

“The one who loves life, wanting to see good days, must keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit.

¹¹ He must turn away from evil and do good.

He must seek shalom and pursue it.

¹² For the eyes of ADONAI are on the righteous and His ears open to their prayer,

but the face of ADONAI is against those who do evil.” ††

¹⁸ For Messiah once suffered for sins also—the righteous for the unrighteous ††—in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Ruach. ¹⁹ Through the Ruach He also went and preached to the spirits in prison. ²⁰ Long ago they disobeyed while God kept waiting patiently, in the days of Noah as the ark was being built. In that ark a few (that is, eight souls) were brought safely through water.

²¹ Corresponding to that, immersion now brings you to safety—not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but a pledge to God of a good conscience—through the resurrection of Messiah Yeshua. ²² He has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels and authorities and powers subjected to Him.

How to Live in the Last Days

4 Therefore, since Messiah suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same attitude. For the one who has suffered in the flesh is finished with sin. ² As a result, he lives the rest of his time in the flesh no longer for human desires, but for God’s will. ³ For the time that has passed was sufficient for you to carry out the desire of the pagans—living in indecency, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, wild parties, and lawless idolatries. ⁴ They are surprised that you do not run with them into the same riot of recklessness, and they vilify you. ⁵ But they will have to give an account to the One who stands ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶ For this was the reason the Good News was proclaimed even to those now dead, so that though they are judged in the flesh before humans, they might live in the Ruach before God.

⁷ Now the end of all things is near. So be self-controlled and sober-minded for prayer. ⁸ Above all, keep your love for one another constant, for “love covers a multitude of sins.” †† Be hospitable one to another without grumbling. ¹⁰ As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of the many-sided grace of God. ¹¹ Whoever speaks, let it be as one speaking the utterances of God. Whoever serves, let it be with the strength that God supplies. So in all things may God be glorified through Messiah

Yeshua—all glory and power to Him forever and ever! Amen.

¹² Loved ones, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal taking place among you to test you—as though something strange were happening to you. ¹³ Instead, rejoice insofar as you share in the sufferings of Messiah, so that at the revelation of His glory you may also rejoice and be glad. ¹⁴ If you are insulted for the name of Messiah, † you are fortunate, for the Spirit of glory †† and of God rests on you. ¹⁵ For let none of you suffer as a murderer or thief or evildoer or as a troublemaker. ¹⁶ But if anyone suffers for following Messiah, ‡ let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this name. ¹⁷ For the time has come for judgment to begin with the house of God. †† If judgment begins with us first, what will be the end for those who disobey the Good News of God?

¹⁸ Now, “if it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what shall become of the ungodly and the sinner?” ††

¹⁹ So then, those who suffer according to God’s will—let them trust their souls to a faithful Creator while continuing to do good.

Shepherds Lead by Example

5 Therefore I appeal to the elders among you—as a fellow elder and witness of Messiah’s sufferings, and a partaker also of the glory about to be revealed—² shepherd God’s flock among you. Watch over it not under compulsion but willingly before God, not for dishonest gain but eagerly. ³ Don’t lord it over ††† those apportioned to you, but become examples to the flock. ⁴ When the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. ⁵ Likewise, you younger ones, submit yourselves to the elders. And all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for “God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble.” †††

⁶ Therefore, humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, so that He may lift you up at the appropriate time. ⁷ Cast all your worries on Him, ⁸ for He cares for you. ⁸ Stay alert! Watch out! Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, searching for someone to devour. ⁹ Stand up against him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being laid upon your brothers and sisters throughout the world. ¹⁰ After you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace—who has called you into His eternal glory in Messiah—will Himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. ¹¹ All power to Him forever! †† Amen.

Final Greetings

¹² Through Silvanus, ††† whom I consider our faithful brother, I have written to you briefly, encouraging and testifying that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it! ¹³ Messiah’s community in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings. So does my son Mark. ¹⁴ Greet one another with a kiss of love.

Shalom to you all who are in Messiah.
 Amen.

2 Peter

Introduction

While 1 Peter focuses on believers who are undergoing persecution—an external problem—Peter’s second letter addresses an internal one, namely false teaching. This letter was written shortly before 65 C.E., not long before Peter was killed in Emperor Nero’s persecution of Roman believers. Probably he wrote to the same mostly Gentile believers as in 1 Peter.

Second Peter tells us two things about the false teachers. First, they denied the reality of’s return (3:3-4) in judgment. Second, and probably because of this doctrinal error, they led lives of immorality (2:10-20). After all, if is never coming back and if there is no final judgment, why not just live as we please?

2 Peter 2:19 describes these false teachers as promising freedom while really promoting a form of slavery. This remains relevant today when we consider that there are many people who seek personal freedom by pursuing such goals as wealth, pleasure, or fame apart from God. Without Him, though, it is all too easy to end up enslaved to our ambitions. Peter’s second letter reminds us that doctrine and behavior are interconnected. What we believe affects how we live, and how we live can affect what we believe—for sometimes people can change their beliefs to justify an improper lifestyle and, on the other hand, living according to Scripture can strengthen our faith.

Peter often encourages his readers to “remember” what he has taught them (1:12-15; 3:1, 5, 8)—a very Jewish concept. In Scripture, when God “remembers” his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob (Exodus 2:24), it means that He takes action to deliver His people. At the Passover, we remember what God has done for our people to encourage us to worship and live for Him. Peter’s call for his readers to “remember” certain things and “not forget” others is a call not just to bring certain things to mind, but to actively live a godly life in the hope of’s return. The return of the Lord is an encouragement to live a godly life now. How do we do that? By following what Peter says in his final verse: growing “in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior the Messiah.”

Greetings

1 Simon Peter, a slave and emissary of Messiah Yeshua,

To those who have received a faith equal to ours through the righteousness of our God and Savior, Messiah Yeshua:

² May grace and shalom be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Yeshua our Lord.

Qualities for Living Forever

³ His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by His own glory and virtue. ⁴Through

these things He has given us His precious and magnificent promises, [†] so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, since you have escaped the corruption that evil desires have brought into the world. ⁵ Now for this very reason, making every effort, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue, knowledge; ⁶ and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, patience; and to patience, godliness; ⁷ and to godliness, brotherly love; and to brotherly love, love. ^{††8} For if these qualities are in you and increasing, they keep you from becoming idle and unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. ⁹ But anyone who lacks these qualities is blind—nearsighted

because he has forgotten his cleansing from past sins. ¹⁰ Therefore, brothers and sisters, make all the more effort to make your calling and election certain—for if you keep doing these things, you will never stumble. ¹¹ For in this way entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Messiah Yeshua, will be richly provided for you.

¹² Therefore, I intend to keep reminding you of these things, even though you know them and are well-grounded in the truth that you have. ¹³ I think it right to stir you up with a reminder, as long as I remain alive in this “tent” of a body [†]—¹⁴ knowing that my death ^{††} is soon, as our Lord Yeshua the Messiah has made clear to me. ¹⁵ And I will make every effort for you to always remember these things even after my departure.

Distinguishing True Testimony from Tales

¹⁶ For we did not follow cleverly concocted tales when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, but we were eyewitnesses of His majesty. ¹⁷ For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, a voice came to Him from the Majestic Glory: “This is My Son, whom I love; with Him I am well pleased!” ^{†††} And we ourselves heard this voice come out of heaven, when we were with Him on the holy mountain. ^{††††} Furthermore, we have the reliable prophetic word. You do well by paying attention to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. ^{†††††} Above all understand this: no prophecy of Scripture comes about from a person’s own interpretation. ²¹ For no prophecy was ever brought forth by human will; rather, people spoke from God as they were moved by the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ^{†††}

False Teachers Condemned

2 But false prophets also arose among the people, ^{†††} just as there will also be false teachers among you. They will secretly bring in destructive heresies. They will even deny the Master who bought them [§]—bringing swift destruction upon themselves. ² Many will follow their immoral ways, and as a result the way of the truth will be maligned. ³ In their greed they will exploit you with false words. Their judgment from long ago is not idle, and their destruction does not slumber.

⁴ For God did not spare angels when they sinned, but threw them into Sheol. ^{§†} He put them in chains of gloomy darkness, to be held until the judgment. ^{§††} He did not spare the ancient world. He preserved only Noah, a proclaimer of righteousness, along with seven others, when He brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly. ⁶ He devastated the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, reducing them to ashes ^{§†}—making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly. ⁷ He rescued Lot, a righteous man deeply troubled by the shameless immorality of the wicked. ^{§†††} (For that righteous man, while living among them, was tormented in his righteous soul day after day by lawless deeds he saw and heard.) ⁹ Therefore, the Lord certainly knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and how to keep the unrighteous being punished until the Day of Judgment—¹⁰ especially those who follow after the flesh in its unclean desires and who despise the Lord’s authority. ^{§†}

Brazen and arrogant, these people do not tremble while slandering glorious beings; ¹¹ yet even angels, though stronger and more powerful, do not bring a slanderous charge against them before the Lord. ^{§††} But these people are like irrational animals—creatures of instinct born to be captured and killed. They malign what they don’t understand, and in their destruction they will be utterly destroyed. ¹³ They will be paid back for what they have done—evil for evil. ^{§††} They consider carousing in broad daylight a pleasure. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceitful pleasures while feasting together with you. ¹⁴ They have eyes full of adultery that never stop sinning, enticing unstable souls. They have hearts trained in greed—a cursed brood! ¹⁵ They have abandoned the straight way. They have gone astray. They have followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor, ^{§§†} who loved the wages of wickedness. ¹⁶ But he received a rebuke for his own wrongdoing. A dumb donkey spoke with a man’s voice and put a stop to the prophet’s madness. ^{§§§}

¹⁷ These people are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. The gloom of utter darkness has been reserved for them. ¹⁸ For by mouthing grandiosities that amount to nothing, they entice in sensual fleshly passions those who are barely escaping from those who live in error. ¹⁹ They promise them freedom while they themselves are slaves of corruption—for a person is a slave to whatever has overcome him. ²⁰ For if—after escaping the world’s pollutions through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Yeshua the Messiah—they again become entangled in these things and are overcome, the end for them has become worse than the beginning. ²¹ For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than after learning about it, to turn back from the holy commandment passed on to them. ¹⁹²² What has happened to them confirms the truth of the proverb, “A dog returns to its vomit,” ²⁰ and “A scrubbed pig heads right back into the mud.”

The Day of the Lord Is Coming

3 Loved ones, this is now the second letter that I am writing to you. In both I am trying to stir you up by way of a reminder to wholesome thinking—² to remember the words previously proclaimed by the holy prophets and the commandment of our Lord and Savior through your emissaries. ^{†3} First of all, understand that in the last days, scoffers will come scoffing, following after their own desires ^{††4} and saying, “Where is this promise of His coming? [‡] Ever since the fathers died, ^{‡†} everything goes on just as it has from the beginning of creation.” ⁵ For in holding to this idea, it escapes their notice that the heavens existed long ago and the earth was formed out of water and through water by the word of God. ^{‡‡6} Through these, the world of that time was destroyed by being flooded with water. ^{‡‡†7} But by the same word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire—kept until the Day of Judgment and the destruction of ungodly people. ^{‡‡††}

⁸ But don’t forget this one thing, loved ones, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day. ^{§9} The Lord is not slow in keeping His promise, as some consider slowness. ^{§†} Rather, He is being patient toward you—not wanting anyone to perish, but for all to come to repentance.

¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. ^{§††} On that day the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the elements will melt and disintegrate, and the earth and everything done on it shall be exposed. ¹¹ Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what kind of people should you be? Live your lives in holiness and godliness, ¹² looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God. In that day the heavens will be dissolved by fire, and the elements will melt in the intense heat. ^{§†13} But in keeping with His promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness dwells. ^{§††}

Final Advice

¹⁴ Therefore, loved ones, while you are looking for these things, make every effort to be found in shalom, spotless and blameless before Him. ¹⁵ Bear in mind that the patience of our Lord means salvation—just as our dearly loved brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom given to him. ¹⁶ He speaks about these matters in all of his letters. Some things in them are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist (as they also do with the rest of the Scriptures)—to their own destruction.

¹⁷ Since you already know all this, loved ones, be on your guard so that you are not led astray by the error of the lawless and lose your sure footing. ¹⁸ Instead, keep growing in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Yeshua the Messiah. To Him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity!

Amen.

1 John

Introduction

These three brief letters were written by the same author as the gospel of John, but at a later time. The recipients are local communities. 1 John does not state the addressee(s) explicitly; 2 John is written to a “lady,” which is really a community (reporting greetings from “your sister,” another community); while 3 John is sent to one “Gaius.” However, all three address growing problems within the body of Messiah which were beginning to gain ground in the Ephesus area (modern Western Turkey), the likely location from and to which these letters were written.

The three letters encourage believers in their faith, urging them to guard against false teachers who denied: that the human was also divine, that God had really become man, and that their immoral behavior constituted sin. It is hard to pin down one particular heresy, but it could have been an early form of Gnosticism, Docetism, or Cerinthianism. 1 John warns against this false teaching; 2 John advises a community not to welcome teachers peddling false doctrine; while 3 John speaks about a divisive man named Diotrephes, “who loves to be first.” John’s letters show how God’s Word must always be the test of both teaching and behavior. John especially emphasizes love, faith, and obedience, which work out in the lifestyle of believers in their understanding of . 1 John remains a beloved classic of the spiritual life, articulating themes of fellowship with God and assurance of forgiveness of sins.

God’s Manifested Word of Life

1 What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the Word of life— ²the life was revealed, and we have seen and testify and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us. ³What we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so you may have fellowship with us. Indeed, our fellowship is with the Father and His Son, Yeshua the Messiah. ⁴These things we write so our joy may be full.

God's Light Dispels Darkness

⁵ Now this is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you—that God is light and in Him there is no darkness at all. ⁶ If we say we have fellowship with Him and keep walking in the darkness, we are lying and do not practice the truth. ⁷ But if we walk in the light as He Himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another and the blood of His Son Yeshua purifies us from all sin.

Cleansing Begins with Confessing

⁸ If we say we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves and the truth is not in us. ⁹ If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. ^{††10} If we say we have not sinned, we make Him a liar and His word is not in us.

Yeshua Atoned for Our Sin

2 My children, I am writing these things to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Intercessor with the Father—the righteous Messiah Yeshua. ² He is the atonement for our sins, and not only for our sins but also for the whole world. ‡

Loving God Means Obedience

³ Now we know that we have come to know Him by this—if we keep His commandments. ⁴ The one who says, “I have come to know Him,” and does not keep His commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him. ⁵ But whoever keeps His word, in him the love of God is truly made perfect. We know that we are in Him by this— ⁶ whoever claims to abide in Him must walk just as He walked.

Haters Stumble in Darkness

⁷ Loved ones, I am not writing a new commandment for you, but an old commandment—one you had from the beginning. This old commandment is the word you have heard. ⁸ Yet I am writing a new commandment for you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is fading and the true light is already shining.

⁹ The one who says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in the darkness. ¹⁰ The one who loves his brother abides in the light, and in him there is no cause for stumbling. ¹¹ But whoever hates his brother ^{‡†} is in the darkness and walks in the darkness. He doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has made his eyes blind.

† cf. Prov. 2:12-13; Isa. 9:2; 50:10. †† Ps. 32:5; 103:3; Prov. 28:13; Jer. 31:31-32, 34. ‡ Lev. 16:30; 17:11; Isa. 53:11-12. ‡† Lev. 19:17.

Fellowship with God Conquers Evil

¹² I am writing to you, children, because your sins have been forgiven on account of His name. ¹³ I am writing to you, fathers, because you have known the One who is from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. ¹⁴ I have written to you, children, because you have known the Father. I have written to you, fathers, because you have known the One who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

The Fleeting World Opposes Eternal God

¹⁵ Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. ¹⁶ For everything in the world—the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, ^{‡‡} and the boasting of life—is not from the Father but from the world. ¹⁷ The world is passing away along with its desire, but the one who does the will of God abides forever.

Anointed People Cling to the Anointed One

¹⁸ Children, it is the last hour. Just as you heard that the anti-messiah is coming, even now many anti-messiahs have come—by this we know that it is the last hour. ¹⁹ They left us, but they didn't really belong to us. If they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. But they left us so it became clear that none of them belongs to us.

²⁰ But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know. ²¹ I have not written you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie is of the truth.

Father and Son Come as One

²² Who is the liar, if not the one who denies that Yeshua is the Messiah? This one is the anti-messiah—the one who denies the Father and the Son. ²³ No one who denies the Son has the Father; the one who acknowledges the Son also has the Father.

Live in the Anointed One

²⁴ As for you, let what you heard from the beginning remain in you. If what you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will continue to live in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵ Now this is the promise that He Himself has promised us—eternal life. ²⁶ I have written you these things about those who are trying to mislead you. ²⁷ As for you, the anointing you received from Him remains in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you. But as His anointing teaches you about all things—and it is true and not a lie—and just as it has taught you, abide in Him. ²⁸ And now, children, abide in Him, so that when He appears we will have confidence and not be ashamed in His presence at His coming.

Righteous Children Treasure His Purity

²⁹ If you know that He is righteous, you also know that everyone who does what is right is born of Him.

3 See how glorious a love the Father has given us, that we should be called God's children—and so we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know Him. ² Loved ones, now we are God's children; and it has not yet been revealed what we will be. But we do know that when it's revealed, we shall be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is. ³ Everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

⁴ Everyone practicing sin also practices lawlessness—indeed, sin is lawlessness. ⁵ You know that Yeshua appeared in order to take away sins, and in Him there is no sin. ⁶ No one who abides in Him keeps on sinning; no one who sins has seen Him or known Him. ⁷ Children, let no one mislead you! The one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as Yeshua is righteous. ⁸ The one who practices sin is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. Ben-Elohim appeared for this purpose—to destroy the works of the devil. ⁹ No one born of God practices sin, because God's seed remains in him. He cannot sin, because he is born of God.

Loving Children Emulate His Actions

¹⁰ It is clear who are the children of God and who are the children of the devil by this—anyone who does not act righteously or love his brother is not of God. ¹¹ For this is the message you have heard from the beginning—we should love one another. ¹² Do not be like Cain, who was from the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his deeds were evil, while his brother's were righteous. ^{†13} Do not be surprised, brothers and sisters, if the world hates you.

¹⁴ We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love our brothers and sisters. The one who does not love remains in death. ¹⁵ Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer—and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. ¹⁶ We have come to know love by this—Yeshua laid down His life for us, and we also ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ But if someone has material possessions and sees his brother in need and closes his heart against him ^{††}, how does the love of God abide in him? ¹⁸ Children, let us not love with word or talk, but in deed and truth!

¹⁹ By this we shall know that we are of the truth, and set our heart at rest before Him ²⁰ whenever our heart condemns us. For God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. ²¹ Loved ones, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before God; ²² and whatever we ask, we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do what is pleasing in His sight. ²³ Now this is His commandment—that we should believe in the name of His Son, Yeshua the Messiah, and love one another, just as He commanded us. ²⁴ The one who keeps His commandments abides in God, and God in him. We know that He abides in us by this—by the Spirit He has given us.

Yeshua, the Ruach of Truth

4 Loved ones, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see if they are from God. For many false prophets have gone out into the world. ^{†2} You know the Ruach Elohim by this—every spirit that acknowledges that Messiah Yeshua has come in human flesh is from God, ³ but every spirit that does not acknowledge Yeshua is not from God. This is the spirit of the anti-messiah, which you have heard is coming and now is already in the world. ⁴ You are from God, children, and you have overcome them, because greater is He who is in you than he who is in the world. ⁵ They are from the world, so they speak from the world and the world listens to them. ⁶ We are from God; whoever knows God listens to us, but whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

God's Life-Giving Spirit of Love

⁷ Loved ones, let us love one another, for love is from God. Everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. ⁸ The one who does not love does not know God, for God is love. ⁹ The love of God was revealed among us by this—that God sent His one and only Son into the world so that we might live through Him. ¹⁰ This is love—not that we have loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as an atonement for our sins.

¹¹ Loved ones, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. ¹² No one has ever seen God. ^{††} If we love one another, God abides in us and His love is made perfect in us. ¹³ We know that we abide in Him and He in us by this—because He has given us of His Spirit. ¹⁴ We have seen and testify that the Father has sent His Son as Savior of the world. ¹⁵ If anyone acknowledges that Yeshua is Ben-Elohim, God abides in him and he abides in God. ¹⁶ So we have come to know and trust in the love that God has for us. God is love. Now whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

†† Deut. 15:7. ‡ Jer. 14:14; 29:8. †† Exod. 33:20.

God's Fulfilling Love

¹⁷ In this way, love is made perfect among us, so that we should have boldness on the Day of Judgment. For just as He is, so also are we in this world. ¹⁸ There is no fear in love, but perfect love drives out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and the one who fears has not been made perfect in love. ¹⁹ We love, because He first loved us.

Love God—Love God's Family

²⁰ If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar. For the one who does not love his brother, whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. ²¹ And this commandment we have from Him: that the one who loves God should also love his brother. †

5 Everyone who believes that Yeshua is the Messiah is born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves the one born of Him.

Love God—Live God's Word

² We know that we love God's children by this—when we love God and obey His commandments. ³ For this is the love of God—that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome. ⁴ For everyone born of God overcomes the world. And the victory that has overcome the world is this—our faith. ⁵ Who is it that overcomes the world, if not the one who believes that Yeshua is Ben-Elohim?

Believe God's Own Testimony of Yeshua

⁶ Messiah Yeshua is the One who came by water and blood—not by water only, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the One who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷ For there are three that testify—⁸ the Spirit, the water, and the blood—and these three are one.

† Lev. 19:18.

††⁹ If we accept men's testimony, God's testimony is greater—for this it is the testimony that God has given about His Son. ¹⁰ The one who trusts in Ben-Elohim has the testimony in himself; the one who does not trust in God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given about His Son. ¹¹ And the testimony is this—that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. ¹² The one who has the Son has life; the one who does not have Ben-Elohim does not have life.

Walk Now in Eternal Privileges

¹³ I wrote these things to you who believe in the name of Ben-Elohim, so you may know that you have eternal life. ¹⁴ Now this is the confidence we have before Him—that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. ¹⁵ And if we know that He hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have the requests we have asked from Him. ¹⁶ If anyone sees his brother committing a sin not leading to death, he should ask, and God will give life to those who commit sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death—I am not saying you should ask about that. ¹⁷ All unrighteousness is sin, but there is sin not leading to death.

¹⁸ We know that anyone born of God does not keep on sinning; rather, the One born of God keeps him safe, and the evil one cannot touch him. ¹⁹ We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. ²⁰ And we know that Ben-Elohim has come and given us insight, so that we may know Him who is true—and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Yeshua the Messiah. This One is the true God and eternal life.

²¹ Children, guard yourselves from idols. ††

God's Truth and Blessings Abide Forever

1 The elder.
 To the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth—and not I alone, but also all who have come to know the truth— ² because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever:
³ Grace, mercy, and shalom be with us, from God the Father and from Messiah Yeshua, the Father's Son, in truth and love!

Lovingly Walk in God's Truth

⁴ I was overjoyed to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we received as a commandment from the Father. ⁵ Now I ask you, dear lady, that we love one another. It is not as though I am writing you a new command, but the one we have had from the beginning. ⁶ Now this is love: that we walk according to His commands. This is the commandment—just as you heard from the beginning—that you walk in love.

† Lev. 19:18; 19:34.

Protect against Messianic Pretenders

⁷ For many deceivers have gone out into the world—those who do not acknowledge Yeshua as Messiah coming in human flesh. This one is a deceiver and the anti-messiah. ⁸ Watch yourselves, so you do not lose what we have worked for but receive a full reward. ⁹ Anyone who goes too far and does not remain in Messiah's teaching does not have God. Anyone who remains in this teaching has both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰ If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not welcome him into your home or even give him a greeting. ¹¹ For the one greeting him shares in his evil deeds.

Brotherly Fellowship Is Joyful

¹² Although I have much to write to you, I don't want to do it with paper and ink. But I hope to come to you and speak face to face, so that our joy may be full.

¹³ The children of your chosen sister send you greetings. ††

The Joys of Walking out the Truth

1 The elder.

To Gaius the loved one, whom I love in truth:

² Loved ones, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, just as it is well with your soul. ³ For I was overjoyed when some brethren came and testified of the truth in you—how you are walking in truth. ⁴ I have no greater joy than this—to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

Support Faithful Kingdom Truth Tellers

⁵ Loved ones, you are acting faithfully in whatever you do for the brethren and especially for strangers. ⁶ They have testified to your love before Messiah's community. You will do well to send them on their way in a manner worthy of God. ⁷ For on behalf of the Name they went out, accepting nothing from the pagans. ⁸ Therefore, we ought to support such people, so we might become co-workers in the truth.

The Lust for Power Condemned

welcome us. ¹⁰ So if I do come, I will call attention to what he is doing—slandering us with wicked words. Not even content with that, he refuses to welcome the brethren, and even forbids those who want to do so—throwing them out of the community!

Do Good Like God Does

¹¹ Loved ones, do not imitate what is evil but what is good. The one who does good is of God; the one who does evil has not seen God.

Virtue Is Honorable

¹² Demetrius has a good testimony from everyone, even from the truth itself. We also vouch for him—and you know that our testimony is true.

Fellowship Is Desirable

¹³ I have much to write you, but I don't want to write to you with ink and pen. ¹⁴ But I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face.

¹⁵ Shalom aleichem. The friends here send their greetings. Greet the friends there by name.

Judah

Introduction

Two books in this Bible—Judah and Jacob—have Hebrew names rather than their Greek forms—Jude and James. Because both authors are brothers of (Matthew 13:55), it seems only fitting to restore a form that more closely matches the Hebrew— and . Some interpret the Gospels as giving evidence that not even 's brothers understood His deity until after His resurrection and ascension (Mark 6:3; John 7:5; Acts 1:9, 14). Yet later, 's brothers travel abroad, spreading the Good News (1 Corinthians 9:5).

Judah is basically concerned with warning against false teachers. 2 Peter and Judah both share many thoughts in common, describing the false teachers in similar terms. Both books likely date from the same period in the 60s C.E. It is possible that Judah's readers were Jewish believers, since he quotes not only from the but even from Jewish sources not found in the Bible.

As in 2 Peter, these false teachers are living an ungodly lifestyle, using God's grace as an excuse to live as they pleased. In response, Judah's readers are told to "contend for the faith" (verse 3), employing a word that is used to describe athletes in a contest. As in sports, there is a defensive and offensive aspect to the life of faith. Defensively, we need to be on guard against false teaching and the behavior that can result from it. Judah compares the false teachers to the unbelieving generation that died in the wilderness after the Exodus, to the angels who sinned (mentioned in Genesis 6), and to the people of Sodom and Gomorrah. In all three cases, it was the behavior of the people that led to their judgment, and their behavior was intertwined with their faith—or lack of faith. As in 2 Peter, lifestyle and beliefs are inseparable. And like his brother Jacob, Judah uses colorful metaphors, describing the false teachers as waterless clouds, fruitless, and wild waves (verses 12-13). Offensively, believers need to contend, applying the same discipline to their spiritual lives as athletes do in preparing for their events. Judah asks his readers to build themselves up spiritually, to pray, to remain in God's love, and to show mercy to others (verses 20-22). At the end, Judah's focus is on the power of God to keep all of us from falling, and he ends with a rousing doxology of praise to God and an enthusiastic "Amen!"

Greeting

Contend for the Faith with the Ungodly

Hymn to God Our Savior

Greeting

1 Judah, a slave of Yeshua the Messiah and brother of Jacob,

To those who are called, who are loved in God the Father, and kept safe for Yeshua the Messiah:

² May mercy and shalom and love be multiplied to you!

Contend for the Faith with the Ungodly

³ Loved ones, though very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I felt it necessary to write to you urging you to continue to contend for the faith that was once for all handed down to the kedoshim. ⁴ For certain people have secretly slipped in—those who from long ago have been marked out for this judgment. They are ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into indecency and deny our only Master and Lord, Yeshua the Messiah.

⁵ Now I wish to remind you—though you have come to know all things—that the Lord, [†] once having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. ⁶ And the angels—who did not keep their own position of authority but deserted their proper place—He has kept in everlasting shackles under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day. ^{††7} In the same way as these angels, Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them—having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after a different sort of flesh—are displayed as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. And whatever they do understand instinctively—like animals without reason—by these things they are destroyed.

¹¹ Woe to them! For they went the way of Cain; they were consumed for pay in Balaam's error; and in Korah's rebellion they have been destroyed. †¹² These people are hidden rocky reefs at your love feasts—shamelessly feasting with you, tending only to themselves. † They are waterless clouds, carried along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, doubly dead, uprooted; ¹³ wild waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame; † wandering stars, for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved forever. ††

¹⁴ It was also about these people that Enoch, the seventh generation from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord came with myriads of His kedoshim, †††¹⁵ to execute judgment against all. He will convict all the ungodly for all their ungodly deeds that they have done in an ungodly way, and for all of the harsh things ungodly sinners have spoken against Him."

things, showing favoritism for the sake of gain. ¹⁷ But you, loved ones, ought to remember the words previously proclaimed by the emissaries of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah §— ¹⁸ how they kept telling you, "In the last time there will be scoffers, following after their own ungodly desires." §†¹⁹ These are the ones who cause divisions—worldly-minded, not having the Ruach.

²⁰ But you, loved ones, continue building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Ruach ha-Kodesh. ²¹ Keep yourselves in the love of God, eagerly waiting for the mercy of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah that leads to eternal life. ²² And have mercy on those who are wavering— ²³ save them by snatching them out of the fire; §†† but on others have mercy with fear—hating even the garment defiled by the flesh.

Revelations

Introduction

The Book of Revelation is an apocalyptic prophecy—a kind of writing found in many of the prophetic books as well as sections of the New Covenant, in which a supernatural revelation is given through fantastic, symbolic visions. Revelation reads like a waking dream—compare the dreams and visions of Daniel, Ezekiel, and Zechariah. Revelation uses these symbols to show that in the end, with the return of Messiah in fulfillment of the Scriptures, God will be triumphant over all evil in the world. Meanwhile, He is calling His people to stay alert and ready to come out of the world, to be with Him.

Though the author only states that his name is John, many (though not all) scholars are convinced that he is the apostle John who also wrote the fourth gospel and the letters of 1, 2, and 3 John—sharing themes such as the Lamb, the Word and the glory, eternity, and divinity of . He writes from an island called Patmos, where he was sent into exile at a time of persecution against believers sometime in the late first century C.E. The audience for Revelation included seven communities in the Roman province of Asia, which today is called Asia Minor or Turkey. The book begins with letters to each of these seven communities, commending them for their faithfulness, rebuking them where they fall short, and encouraging them to continue living for the Lord. The rest of the book consists of symbolic visions and unusual symbols that stir the reader's imagination. These visions were written to encourage believers to remain faithful in the face of persecution. The message is that God's kingdom will be victorious over all evil in the world. Revelation begins and ends with the promise of 's return. Through Messiah, God rules over everything that happens—past, present, and future. Those who belong to Him (rather than to the world system of Babylon) can rejoice in the glorious wedding feast of the Lamb. Hallelujah!

Yeshua's Revelation to John

1 The revelation of Yeshua the Messiah, which God gave Him to show to His servants the things that must soon take place. He made it known by sending His angel to His servant John, ² who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Yeshua the Messiah—to everything he saw. ³ How fortunate is the one who reads the words of this prophecy, and those who hear and keep what has been written in it—for the time is near.

⁴John,

To Messiah's seven communities in Asia: †

Grace to you and shalom from Him who is and who was and who is to come, as well as from the seven spirits who are before His throne, ⁵ and from Messiah Yeshua, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by His blood ⁶ and made us a kingdom, kohanim to His God and Father—to Him be glory and power forever! Amen!

⁷"Look, He is coming with the clouds, †† and every eye shall see Him, even those who pierced Him.

And all the tribes of the earth shall mourn because of Him. ‡

Yes, amen!"

⁸"I am the Alpha and the Omega," †† says ADONAI Elohim, "Who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty!"

⁹I, John, your brother and fellow partaker with you in the tribulation and kingdom and patient endurance that are in Yeshua, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and the testimony of Yeshua. ¹⁰I was in the Ruach on the Day of the Lord, †† and I heard behind me a loud voice like that of a trumpet, ¹¹ saying, "Write what you see in a scroll, ††† and send it to Messiah's seven communities—to Ephesus

Vision of the Glorious Son of Man

¹² Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me. And when I turned, I saw seven golden menorot. ^{†††13} In the midst of the menorot, I saw One like a Son of Man, clothed in a robe down to His feet, with a golden belt wrapped around His chest. ^{§14} His head and His hair were white like wool, white like snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire. ^{§†15} His feet were like polished bronze refined in a furnace, ††† and His voice was like the roar of rushing waters. ^{§†16} In His right hand He held seven stars, and out of His mouth came forth a sharp, two-edged sword. ††† His face was like the sun shining at full strength. †

¹⁷ When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. †

But He placed His right hand on me, saying, "Do not be afraid! I am the First and the Last, †††18 and the One who lives. I was dead, but look—I am alive forever and ever! Moreover, I hold the keys of death and Sheol. ^{§§†19} Therefore, write down what you have seen, what is, and what will happen after these things. ²⁰ As for the mystery of the seven stars that you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden menorot—the seven stars are the angels of Messiah's seven communities, and the seven menorahs are the seven communities.

Smyrna: Do Not Fear Satan's Testing

⁸ "To the angel of Messiah's community in Smyrna write: 'Thus says the First and Last, who was dead and came to life. ⁹ "I know your tribulation and your poverty (yet you are rich), as well as the slander of those who say they are Jewish and are not, but are a synagogue of satan. ¹⁰ Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Yet you continue to hold firm to My name, and you did not deny your faith in Me even in the days of Antipas, My faithful witness, who was killed among you, where satan resides.

¹⁴ "But I have a few things against you. You have some there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who was teaching Balak to put a stumbling block before Bnei-Yisrael, to eat food sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality. ¹⁵ Likewise you also have those who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans. ¹⁶ Repent then! Thyatira: Do Not Tolerate Jezebel

¹⁸ "To the angel of Messiah's community in Thyatira write: 'Thus says the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire and feet like polished bronze: ¹⁹ "I know your deeds and your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your last deeds are greater than the first.

²⁰ "But this I have against you, that you tolerate that woman Jezebel, ²¹ who calls herself a prophetess—yet she is teaching and deceiving My servants to commit sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols. ²¹ I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her immorality. ²² Behold, I will throw her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation—unless they repent of her doings. ²³ I will also strike her children with a deadly disease. Then all of Messiah's communities will know that I am the One who searches minds and hearts, ²⁴ and I will give to each of you according to your deeds.

²⁴ "But to the rest of you in Thyatira, who do not hold to this teaching and have not learned the so-called 'deep things' of satan—I place on you no other burden. ²⁵ Only hold firm to what you have until I come. ²⁶ To the one who overcomes and guards My deeds until the end,

Sardis: Coming Like a Thief

3 "To the angel of Messiah's community in Sardis write: 'Thus says the One having the seven spirits of God and the seven stars: "I know your deeds—you have a reputation for being alive, but you are dead. ² Wake up, and strengthen what remains that was about to die. For I have not found your deeds complete in the sight of My God. ³ So remember what you have received and heard—keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come upon you.

⁴ "But still, you have a few people in Sardis who have not stained their clothes. They will walk with Me in white, because they are worthy. ⁵ The one who overcomes thus will be dressed in white clothes; I will never blot his name out of the Book of Life, ⁶ and will confess his name before My Father and His angels. ⁶ He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities."

Philadelphia: I Have Loved You

⁷ "To the angel of Messiah's community in Philadelphia write: 'Thus says the Holy One, the True One, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, and who shuts and no one opens: ¹⁸ "I know your deeds. Behold, I have set before you an open door that no one is able to shut—because you have little power, but you have kept My word and have not denied My name. ⁹ Behold, I will cause those of the synagogue of satan—who say they are Jewish and are not, but lie—behold, I will cause them to come and bow down before your feet, ¹¹ so that they acknowledge that I have loved you!

¹⁰ "Because you have kept My word about patient endurance, I will also keep you from the hour of trial that is coming upon the whole world to test those who dwell on the earth. ¹¹ I am coming soon—hold on to what you have, so that no one will take away your crown. ¹² The one who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the Temple of My God, [‡] and he will never leave it. And on him I will write the name of My God and the name of the city of My God—the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from My God—and My own new Name. ¹³ He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities."

Laodicea: Standing at the Door

¹⁴ "To the angel of Messiah's community in Laodicea write: 'Thus says the Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Originator of God's creation: ¹⁵ "I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. Oh, that you were either cold or hot! ¹⁶ So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to spew you out of My mouth. ¹⁷ For you say, 'I am rich, I have made myself wealthy, and I need nothing.' ¹⁸ But you do not know that you are miserable and pitiable and poor and blind and naked. ¹⁸ I advise you to buy from Me gold refined by fire so that you may be rich, and white clothes so that you may dress yourself and so the shame of your nakedness will not be revealed, and eye salve to anoint your eyes so that you may see. ¹⁹ Those whom I love, I rebuke and discipline. Therefore, be zealous and repent.

²⁰ "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him, and he with Me. ²¹ To the one who overcomes I will grant the right to sit with Me on My throne, just as I myself overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne. ²² He who has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach is saying to Messiah's communities."

The Heavenly Throne of ADONAI

⁴ After these things I looked, and behold, a door was standing open in heaven. ^{‡‡} And the first voice, which I had heard speaking with me like a trumpet, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things."

² Immediately I was in the Ruach; ^{‡‡} and behold, a throne was standing in heaven, and One seated on the throne. ^{§§} And the One who was seated was like jasper and carnelian in appearance, and a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald in appearance. ^{§†4} Around the throne were 24 thrones, and seated on the thrones were 24 elders dressed in white clothes with golden crowns on their heads. ⁵ And out from the throne come flashes of lightning and rumblings and clashes of thunder ^{§††}—and seven torches of fire burning before the throne, ^{§†} which are the seven spirits of God. ⁶ And before the throne was something like a sea of glass, like crystal.

 Holy, holy, holy is the LORD God of Hosts, who was, and who is,
 and who is to come!"

⁹ And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to the One seated on the throne, who lives forever and ever, ^{§§†10} the 24 elders fall down before the One seated on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever. And they throw their crowns down before the throne, chanting,

¹¹ "Worthy are You, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power,
 For You created all things, and because of Your will they existed and were created!"

A Scroll with Seven Seals

5 And I saw in the right hand of the One seated up on the throne a scroll, written on both the front and the back, sealed with seven seals. ¹²I also saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to break its seals?” ³No one in heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it. ⁴I began to weep loudly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it.

⁵Then one of the elders tells me, “Stop weeping! Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, ^{††}the Root of David, [‡]has triumphed—He is worthy to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

Worshiping the Lamb

⁶And in the midst of the throne and the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, I saw a Lamb standing, as having been slain—having seven horns and seven eyes, ^{††}which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. ⁷He came and took the scroll from the right hand of the One seated on the throne. ⁸When He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp and golden bowls full of incense—which are the prayers of the kedoshim.

⁹And they are singing a new song, ^{‡‡}saying, “You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals.

For You were slain, and by Your blood
You redeemed for God those from every tribe and tongue and people and nation. ^{‡‡‡}

¹⁰You have made them for our God
a kingdom and kohanim, and they shall reign upon the earth.”

¹¹Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders—their number was myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands. ^{‡‡‡12}They were chanting with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!”

¹³And I heard every creature in heaven and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and everything in them, responding,

“To the One seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and power forever and ever!”

¹⁴And the four living creatures kept saying, “Amen!” And the elders fell down and worshiped.

Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse

6 Then I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, “Come!” ^{§2}I looked, and behold, there was a white horse. ^{§†}The one riding on it had a bow, and a crown was given to him. He went out as a conqueror so he might conquer.

³When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!” ⁴Then another horse came out, fiery red. The one riding on it was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that people would slaughter one another. He was given a great sword.

⁵When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, “Come!” And behold, I saw a black horse. ^{§††}The one riding on it held a balance scale in his hand. ⁶Then I heard something like a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart ^{§†}of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius—but do no harm to the oil and wine!” ^{§††}

⁷When the Lamb opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, “Come!” ⁸Behold, I saw a horse, pale greenish gray. The name of the one riding on it was Death, and Sheol was following with him. Authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill by sword and by famine and by plague and by the wild beasts of the earth. ^{§†}

⁹When the Lamb opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those slaughtered ^{§†}for the sake of the Word of God and for the witness they had.

¹⁰And they cried out with a loud voice, saying, “O Sovereign Master, holy and true, how long before You judge those who dwell on the earth and avenge our blood?”

¹¹Then a white robe was given to each of them, and they were told to rest a little while longer, until the number of their fellow servants was complete—their brothers and sisters who were to be killed as they had been.

¹²I saw when the Lamb opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became as black as sackcloth made of goat’s hair, and the full moon became like blood. ¹³The stars of heaven fell to the earth like a fig tree drops unripe figs when shaken by a great wind. ¹⁴The heaven ripped apart like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved from their places.

¹⁵Then the kings of the earth and the great men and the military commanders and the rich and the mighty and everyone—slave and free—hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains. ¹⁶ And they tell the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us ^{††} from the face of the One seated on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb. ¹⁷ For the great day of their wrath has come, [‡] and who is able to stand?"

144,000 Marked with a Seal

7 After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth [‡] so that no wind would blow on the earth or on the sea or against any tree. ² Then I saw another angel coming up from the east, [‡] having the seal of the living God. He cried out with a loud voice to the four angels who were permitted to harm the earth and the sea, ³ saying, "Do no harm to the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." ^{‡‡}

⁴ Now I heard the number of those marked with the seal:

144,000 from every tribe of Bnei-Yisrael —

⁵ 12,000 from the tribe of Judah;

12,000 from the tribe of Reuben;

12,000 from the tribe of Gad;

⁶ 12,000 from the tribe of Asher;

12,000 from the tribe of Naphtali;

12,000 from the tribe of Manasseh;

⁷ 12,000 from the tribe of Simeon;

12,000 from the tribe of Levi;

12,000 from the tribe of Issachar;

⁸ 12,000 from the tribe of Zebulun;

12,000 from the tribe of Joseph;

12,000 from the tribe of Benjamin.

Countless Worshipers before the Throne

¹¹ And all the angels were standing around the throne, along with the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹² saying, "Amen, blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might belong to our God forever and ever. Amen!"

¹³ Then one of the elders answered, saying to me, "Who are these dressed in white robes, and where have they come from?"

I said to him, "Sir, you know."

¹⁴ Then he said to me, "These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. ⁵ They have washed their robes and made them white ^{5†} in the blood of the Lamb. ¹⁵ For this reason, they are before the throne of God, and they serve Him day and night in His Temple. The One seated on the throne will shelter them.

^{5††16} They shall never again go hungry, nor thirst anymore; the sun shall not beat down on them, nor any scorching heat. ^{5††17} For the Lamb in the midst of the throne shall shepherd them and guide them to springs of living water, and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes." ^{5††}

The Seventh Seal and Seven Trumpets

8 Now when the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. ² Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets ^{5†} were given to them. ³ Another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden incense burner. ^{5†} He was given much incense to offer up along with the prayers of all the kedoshim upon the golden altar before the throne. ⁴ And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the kedoshim, ^{5††} rose before God from the angel's hand. ⁵ Then the angel took the incense burner and filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth; and there were clashes of thunder and rumblings and flashes of lightning and earthquakes. ^{5††}

⁶ Then the seven angels holding the seven trumpets prepared to sound them. ⁷ The first trumpeted, ^{5†††} and there was hail and fire mixed with blood, and they were thrown upon the earth. ¹⁸ A third of the earth burned up, a third of the trees burned up, and all the green grass burned up.

⁸ The second angel trumpeted, and something like a huge mountain ¹⁹ ablaze with fire was thrown into the sea. A third of the sea turned into blood, ⁹ a third of the creatures living in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰ The third angel trumpeted, and a great star fell from the heavens, burning like a torch. It fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. ¹¹ Now the name of the star is Wormwood; and a third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died from the waters that were made bitter. ²⁰

¹² The fourth angel trumpeted, and a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck, so that a third of them were darkened. ²¹ A third of the day would not shine, as well as a third of the night.

¹³ Then I looked, and I heard an eagle crying out with a loud voice as it flew high in the sky, saying, "Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpets the three angels are about to sound!"

9 Then the fifth angel trumpeted, and I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to earth. The key to the bottomless pit was given to him. ² He opened the pit, and smoke rose from the pit like the smoke of a gigantic furnace. [†] The sun and the air were darkened by the smoke from the pit.

³ Then from the smoke came locusts upon the earth, and power was given to them like the scorpions have power over the earth. ^{††}

⁴ They were told to do no harm to the grass of the earth or any green plant or any tree, but only the people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. [‡] And they were permitted not to kill them, but to torment them for five months—and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it stings a person. [§] In those days, people will seek death but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will flee from them. [¶]

⁷ Now the appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle. ^{¶¶} On their heads were something like crowns of gold, and their faces were like human faces. [§] They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions. ^{¶¶¶} They had chests like iron breastplates; and the noise of their wings was like the noise of many horse-drawn chariots rushing into battle. ^{¶¶¶} They have tails like scorpions with stingers; and in their tails is their power to harm people for five months. ^{¶¶¶} They have as king over them the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he has the name Apollyon. [§]

¹² The first woe is past. Behold, two woes are still coming after these things.

¹⁵ So the four angels—who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year—were released to kill a third of mankind. ¹⁶ The number of mounted troops was two hundred million ^{§†}—I heard their number. ¹⁷ Now here is how I saw the horses and those riding on them: they had breastplates that were fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow. The heads of the horses were as heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire and smoke and brimstone. ^{§††}

† cf. Gen. 19:28; Exod. 19:18. †† cf. Exod. 10:12-15. ‡ cf. Ezek. 9:4, 6. †† cf. Job 3:21; Jer. 8:3. †† cf. Joel 2:4. ††† cf. Joel 1:6. ††† cf. Jer. 47:3; Joel 2:5. § Both names mean Destroyer §† cf. Exod. 30:2-3. §†† Or shofar §† Lit. two ten thousands of ten thousands §†† Or sulfur

¹⁸ By these three plagues a third of mankind was killed—by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone that came out of their mouths. ¹⁹ For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents, having heads by which they inflict injuries.

²⁰ But the rest of mankind, those not killed by these plagues, did not repent and turn away from the works of their hands—they would not stop worshiping demons and the idols of gold and silver and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk. ^{§†} And they did not repent and turn away from their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their stealing.

The Angel with a Little Scroll

10 Then I saw another powerful angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in a cloud with a rainbow over his head. His face was like the sun and his feet like pillars of fire. ² He had in his hand a little scroll that was open. He set his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land, ³ and he cried out with a loud voice, just as a lion roars. When he cried out, the seven thunders spoke. ^{§†}

⁴ And when the seven thunders had spoken, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said. Do not write it down!" ^{§††}

⁵ Then the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand toward heaven ⁶ and swore ^{§§†} by the One who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, the sea and what is in it, that there would be no more delay.

⁷ But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel—when he is about to trumpet—the mystery of God is completed, just as He declared to His servants the prophets. ^{§§§} Then the voice that I heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, "Go, take the scroll that is open in the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land."

⁹ So I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little scroll. And he tells me, "Take and eat it. It will be bitter to your stomach, but sweet as honey in your mouth." ¹⁸

¹⁰ So I took the little scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. It was sweet as honey in my mouth; but when I had swallowed it, my stomach was made bitter. ¹¹ And they tell me, "You must prophesy again about many peoples and nations and tongues and kings."

Two Witnesses

11 Then a measuring rod like a staff was given to me, saying, "Get up and measure the Temple of God and the altar, and count those worshiping in it."

§† cf. Ps. 115:4-7; 135:15-17; Dan. 5:23. §† cf. Ps. 29:3-9.
§§† cf. Dan. 12:4, 9. §§† cf. Gen. 14:22. §§§ cf. Amos 3:7. 18 cf. Ezek. 3:1-3.

¹² But do not measure the court outside the Temple—leave it out, because it has been given to the nations, and they shall trample the holy city for 42 months. ^{†13} And I will grant authority to My two witnesses and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, [‡] dressed in sackcloth.”

⁴ These are the two olive trees and the two menorot that are standing before the Lord of the earth. ^{‡15} If anyone wishes to harm them, fire comes out of their mouths and consumes their enemies. If anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this way. ^{‡16} These two have the power to shut the heavens, so that no rain may fall during the days of their prophesying. ^{‡‡} And they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they wish. ^{‡‡‡}

⁷ When they have finished their testimony, the beast that rises from the abyss will make war on them, and overcome them and kill them. ^{§8} And their corpses will lie in the open street ^{§†} of the great city that figuratively is called Sodom and Egypt—where also their ^{§††} Lord was crucified. ⁹ Some from the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will look at their corpses for three and a half days, not allowing them to be placed into a grave. ^{§†10} Those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them. They will celebrate and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.

¹¹ But after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood up on their feet; ^{§††} and great fear fell on those who were watching them. ¹² Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, “Come up here!” And they went up to heaven in a cloud, while their enemies watched them. ^{§†}

¹³ At that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city collapsed. ^{§†} Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴ The second woe is past. The third woe is coming soon.

The Seventh Trumpet

¹⁵ Then the seventh angel trumpeted, and there were loud voices in heaven saying,

“The kingdom of this world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Anointed One.

And He shall reign forever and ever!” ^{§§†}

¹⁶ And the 24 elders seated on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshiped God, ¹⁷ saying, “We thank you, ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot, ^{§§†} who is and who was, because You have taken Your great power and begun to reign.

¹⁸ The nations were enraged, but Your wrath has come ^{§§§} and the time for the dead to be judged—to reward Your servants, the prophets and kedoshim, and those who fear Your name, the small and the great, and to destroy the destroyers of the earth.” ¹⁸

¹⁹ Then the Temple of God in heaven was opened, and the Ark of His Covenant appeared in His Temple. And there were flashes of lightning and rumblings and clashes of thunder and an earthquake and heavy hail. ¹⁹

Mother, Child, Dragon, and War

12 A great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. ²⁰² She is pregnant—crying out in birth pains, in agony to give birth. ²¹

³ Then another sign appeared in heaven: a great fiery red dragon that had seven heads and ten horns, and seven royal crowns on his heads. ²²⁴ His tail sweeps away a third of the stars of heaven—it hurled them to the earth. ²³ Now the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that whenever she gave birth he might devour her child.

⁵ And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with an iron rod. ²⁴ And her child was snatched away to God and to His throne. ⁶ Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God so they might take care of her for 1,260 days.

⁷ And war broke out in heaven, Michael and his angels making war against the dragon. ²⁵ The dragon and his angels fought, ⁸ but they were not strong enough, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. ⁹ And the great dragon was thrown down—the ancient serpent, called the devil and satan, who deceives the whole world. ²⁶ He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. ²⁷¹⁰ Then I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, “Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Anointed One, for the accuser of our brothers and sisters—the one who accuses them before our God day and night ²⁸—has been thrown out. ¹¹ They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives even in the face of death.

¹²“Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! Woe to the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you with great rage, knowing that his time is short.”

¹³Now when the dragon saw that he had been thrown to the earth, he stalked the woman who had given birth to the male child. ¹⁴But the woman was given two wings of the great eagle, [†] so that she might fly away from the presence of the serpent into the wilderness, to the place where she is taken care of—for a time, times, and half a time. ^{††}

¹⁵And from out of his mouth, the serpent spewed water like a river after the woman, in order to sweep her away with a flood. ¹⁶But the earth came to the aid of the woman. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had spewed from his mouth. ¹⁷So the dragon became enraged at the woman and went off to make war with the rest of her offspring—those who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Yeshua. ¹⁸And he stood on the shore of the sea.

Two Beasts

13 Then I saw a beast rising out of the sea, [‡] that had ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten royal crowns, and upon his heads were slanderous names. ²Now the beast that I saw was like a leopard, his feet like a bear’s, and his mouth like a lion’s. And the dragon gave him his power and his throne and great authority. ³One of his heads seemed to have been slain, but the fatal wound was healed. The whole earth was amazed and followed the beast. ⁴And they worshiped the dragon, because he had given authority to the beast. They also worshiped the beast, chanting, “Who is like the beast, and who can make war against him?” ^{‡†}

⁵The beast was given a mouth uttering great boasts and blasphemies. It was given authority to act for 42 months. ⁶Then he opened his mouth with blasphemies against God, to slander His name and His tabernacle—that is, those dwelling in heaven. ⁷He was also permitted to make war against the kedoshim and overcome them, and he was given authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation. ⁸All who dwell on the earth shall worship him—everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the Book of Life of the Lamb who was slain.

⁹If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

¹⁰If anyone is meant for captivity, to captivity he goes.

If anyone is to be killed by the sword,
by the sword he must be killed. [‡]

Here is the perseverance and faith of the kedoshim.

[†] cf. Exod. 19:4. ^{††} cf. Dan. 7:25; 12:7. [‡] cf. Dan. 7:3. ^{‡†} cf. Exod. 15:11; Isa. 46:5. ^{‡‡} cf. Jer. 15:2; 43:11.

¹¹Then I saw another beast rising out of the earth. He had two horns ^{‡‡} like a lamb and spoke like a dragon. ¹²He exercises all the authority of the first beast before him, and he makes the earth and all those who dwell in it worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed. ¹³He performs great signs, even making fire come down from heaven in the sight of men.

^{‡‡‡14}And he deceives those who dwell on the earth through the signs he is permitted to perform, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image in honor of the beast who has the sword wound yet lived. ¹⁵The second beast was permitted to give life to the image of the first beast, so that the image of the beast could even speak and cause all who would not worship the image of the beast to be killed. ¹⁶He also causes all—the small and the great, the rich and the poor, the free and the slave—to receive a mark on their right hand or upon their forehead. ¹⁷And so no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark—either the name of the beast or the number of his name.

¹⁸Here is wisdom: let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is a number of a man, and his number is 666. [§]

A Song for the 144,000

14 Then I looked, and behold, the Lamb was standing on Mount Zion, ^{§†} and with Him were 144,000 who had His name and His Father’s name written on their foreheads. ²And I heard a voice from heaven like the roar of rushing waters and the booming of loud thunder. ^{§††} The voice I heard was like harpists playing on their harps. ³And they are singing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one is able to learn the song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth.

⁴These are the ones who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins.

These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes.

These have been redeemed from among mankind as firstfruits for God and the Lamb.

⁵And in their mouth was found no lie—they are blameless. ^{§‡}

Three Angels with Messages

⁶And then I saw another angel flying high in the sky, having a timeless message of good news to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth—to every nation and tribe and tongue and people. ⁷He said in a loud voice, “Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come. Worship the One who made heaven and earth and sea and springs of water.”

⁸Another angel, a second one, followed, saying, “Fallen, fallen, is Babylon the great, ^{§††}—

^{‡‡†} cf. Dan. 8:3. ^{‡‡‡} cf. 1 Kings 18:38. [§] Some mss. say six hundred sixteen. ^{§†} cf. Ps. 2:6. ^{§††} cf. Ezek. 1:24; 43:2. ^{§‡} cf.

she who made all nations drink of the wine of the fury of her immorality.”

⁹ And another angel, a third one, followed them, saying in a loud voice, “If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰ he shall also drink the wine of God’s fury, poured full strength into the cup of His wrath. [†] And he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone ^{††} before the holy angels and before the Lamb. ¹¹ The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. [‡] Those who worship the beast and its image and those who receive the mark of his name have no rest day or night.”

¹² Here is the perseverance of the kedoshim—those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Yeshua.

¹³ Then I heard a voice from heaven saying, ^{‡‡}

“Write: How fortunate are the dead—those who die in the Lord from now on!”

“Yes,” says the Ruach, “that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them.”

Time to Harvest the Earth

¹⁴ Then I looked, and behold, there was a white cloud—and seated on the cloud was one like a Son of Man. ^{‡‡} He had a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand. ¹⁵ Then another angel came out of the Temple, crying out with a loud voice to the One seated on the cloud,

“Put in your sickle and reap, for the hour to reap has come, because the harvest of the earth is fully ripe.”

¹⁶ So the One seated on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested. ^{‡‡‡}

¹⁷ Then another angel came out of the Temple in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸ Then another angel—the one who has authority over fire—came out from the altar; and he called out with a loud voice to the one holding the sharp sickle, saying, “Put in your sickle and gather the grape clusters from the vineyard of the earth, because her grapes are ripe.”

¹⁹ So the angel swung his sickle over the earth and gathered the clusters from the vineyard of the earth and threw them into the great winepress of the wrath of God. ²⁰ And the winepress was stomped on outside the city, and blood flowed from the winepress as high as a horse’s bridle for 1,600 stadia. ^{‡‡‡}

Song of Moses to the Lamb

15 Then I saw another great and wonderful sign in heaven: seven angels who have seven plagues—the last ones, for with them God’s wrath is finished. ² And I saw something like a sea of glass

Zeph. 3:13; Mal. 2:6; some mss. add before the throne of God ^{§†} cf. Isa. 21:9; Jer. 51:7-8. † cf. Ps. 75:8; Isa. 51:17; Jer. 25:15-17, 27. †† cf. Gen. 19:24; Ezek. 38:22. ‡ cf. Isa. 34:10. ‡† Some mss. add to me ‡‡ Or the Son of Man ‡‡† cf. Joel 3:13-14. ‡‡‡ About 200 miles; 1 stade mixed with fire, and those who had overcome the beast and his image [§] and the number of his name standing by the sea of glass, holding the harps of God. ³ And they are singing the song of Moses ^{§†} the servant of God and the song of the Lamb, saying,

“Great and wonderful are Your deeds,

ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot! ^{§††}

Just and true are Your ways,

O King of the nations! ^{§‡}

⁴ Who shall not fear and glorify Your name, O Lord?

For You alone are Holy.

All the nations shall come and worship before You, ^{§††} for Your righteous acts have been revealed!”

⁵ After these things I looked, and the Temple of the Tent of Witness in heaven was opened. ⁶ Out of the Temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, dressed in pure bright linen and wearing wide gold sashes around their chests.

⁷ Then one of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. ⁸ And the Temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power. ^{§†} No one was able to enter the Temple until the seven angels’ seven plagues were finished.

Seven Bowls of God’s Wrath

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the Temple saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of God’s wrath.” ^{§†2} So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and foul and painful boils ^{§§†} came upon the people having the mark of the beast and worshiping his image.

³ Next the second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood like that of a corpse; and every living thing in the sea died. ^{§§†4} Then the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and they became blood. ^{§§§5} Then I heard the angel of the waters saying,

“Righteous are You—the Holy One, who is and who was—because You have passed these judgments.

⁶ For they have poured out the blood of kedoshim and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink ¹⁸—they are deserving!”

⁷ Then I heard the altar saying,

“Yes, ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot,

true and righteous are Your judgments!” ¹⁹

⁸ The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was permitted to scorch people with fire. ⁹ People were scorched with fierce heat, and they cursed the name of God—the One who has power over these plagues. But they did not repent, to give Him glory.

¹² The sixth angel poured out his bowl over the great river Euphrates; and its water was dried up, to prepare the way for the kings from the east. ¹³ Then I saw—coming from the dragon's mouth and from the beast's mouth and from the false prophet's mouth—three unclean spirits like frogs. ^{‡‡} ¹⁴ For they are demonic spirits performing miraculous signs, who go out to the kings of the whole world—to gather them for battle on the great Day of Elohei-Tzva'ot. ^{‡‡}

¹⁵ "Behold, I am coming like a thief! How fortunate is the one who stays alert and keeps his clothes on, lest he walk around naked and they see his shamefulness."^{‡‡}

¹⁶ Then the spirits gathered the kings to the place called in Hebrew Har-Megiddo. ^{‡‡}

¹⁷ The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came out of the Temple ^{‡‡‡} from the throne, saying, "It is done!" ^{‡‡‡} ¹⁸ And there were flashes of lightning and rumblings and clashes of thunder and a great earthquake—such as never happened since mankind has been on the earth, so mighty was the quake. [§]

²¹ Enormous hail—about a hundred pounds each ^{§††}—falls from heaven on the people. And the people cursed God because of the plague of hail—so extreme was that plague. ^{§†}

The Vile Prostitute and the Beast

17 Then one of the seven angels holding the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the sentencing of the great prostitute, ^{§††} who sits on many waters. ² The earth's kings committed sexual immorality with her, and those who dwell on the earth got drunk with the wine of her immorality."

³ So he carried me away in the Ruach into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names and had seven heads and ten horns. ^{§†} ⁴ The woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls. ^{§†} She was holding a golden cup ^{§§†} in her hand full of detestable things and the filth of her immorality, ⁵ and on her forehead was written a name, a mystery:

"Babylon the Great, the mother of prostitutes and the detestable things of the earth."

⁶ And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the kedoshim and with the blood of the witnesses of Yeshua. When I saw her, I was totally astounded.

⁷ But the angel said to me, "Why are you astonished? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns. ⁸ The beast that you saw was, and is not, and yet is about to rise up from the abyss and head for destruction. Those who dwell on the earth—whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world—will be astonished when they see the beast, because he was, and is not, and is to come.

⁹ "This calls for a mind having wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman is seated. They are also seven kings— ¹⁰ five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while. ¹¹ The beast that was and is not—he himself is the eighth, and is one of the seven, and is heading for destruction. ¹² The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have not yet received royal power, but receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour. ¹³ These kings are of one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴ They will make war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them—because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, ^{§§†} and those with Him are called and chosen and faithful."

¹⁵ Then he tells me, "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. ¹⁶ The ten horns that you saw, and the beast—these will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked, ^{§§§} and devour her flesh and burn her up with fire. ¹⁷ For God has put it into their hearts to do His will, and to be of one mind, and to give their royal power to the beast until the words of God are fulfilled. ¹⁸ And the woman that you saw is the great city exercising kingship over the kings of the earth."

Judgment of Babylon

18 After these things, I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his glory. ² He cried out with a mighty voice, saying:

"Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! ¹⁸
She has become a den for demons, a haunt for every unclean spirit and for every unclean bird and for every unclean and detestable beast. † ³ For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the fury of her immorality.

The kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich off the power of her self-indulgence.”
⁴ Then I heard another voice from heaven saying, “Come out of her, my people, †† lest you participate in her sins and receive her plagues!
⁵ For her sins have piled up to heaven, ‡ and God has remembered her crimes.
⁶ Pay her back just as she has paid out, and give her back double for her deeds! ‡‡ In the cup she has mixed—mix a double dose for her!
⁷ As she has exalted herself and indulged herself in luxury,
so give her the same measure of torment and grief!
For in her heart she says,
‘I sit as a queen—
I am no widow;
I shall never see grief.’ ‡‡
⁸ For this reason her plagues will arrive in a single day—
death and grief and famine—and she shall be burned down with fire. ‡‡‡
For mighty is ADONAI Elohim who judges her!”
⁹ Then the kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and indulged in luxury with her shall weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning ‡‡— ¹⁰ standing far off because of the terror of her torment, saying:
“Alas, alas, O great city—
O Babylon, the mighty city!
For in a single hour your judgment has come!”
¹¹ And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her, [§] because no one buys their merchandise anymore— ¹² shipments of gold, silver, precious stones, and pearls; fine linen, purple, silk, and scarlet; all kinds of citron wood; all kinds of ivory products; all kinds of products made of costly wood, bronze, iron, and marble; ¹³ cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, and frankincense; wine, oil, fine flour, and wheat; cattle, sheep, horses, and chariots; and slaves—that is, human souls.
¹⁴ The fruit of your soul’s desire has gone from you, and all the expensive and beautiful things are lost to
you
—never again will people find them.
¹⁵ The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, shall stand far off for fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, ¹⁶ saying,

“Alas, alas, O great city—clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls!
¹⁷ For in a single hour so much wealth has been ruined!”
And every ship captain and passenger, sailors and all who make their living at sea, stood at a distance ¹⁸ and were crying out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, “What city is like the great city?” ¹⁹ And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning,
“Alas, alas, O great city—
in her all who had ships at sea grew rich from her wealth!
For in a single hour has she been ruined!
²⁰ Rejoice over her, O heaven, ^{§†} and you kedoshim, emissaries and prophets!
For God has judged her condemnation of you!”
²¹ Then a mighty angel picked up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, ^{§††} saying:
“So shall Babylon, the great city, be thrown down with violence,
never to be found again!
²² And the sound of harpists and musicians,
flautists and trumpeters,
shall never be heard in you again! ^{§‡}
And the craftsman of any craft shall never be found in you again!
And the sound of a mill
shall never be heard in you again!
²³ And the light of a lamp shall never shine in you again!
And the voice of the bridegroom and bride shall never be heard in you again! ^{§††}
For your businessmen were the tycoons of the world, for all the nations were deceived by your sorcery! ^{§†} ²⁴ And in her was found the blood of the prophets and kedoshim and all those slaughtered on the earth.”

Victory Songs in Heaven

19 After these things, I heard something like the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, shouting:
“ Halleluyah! ^{§‡}
Salvation and glory and power belong to our God.
² For His judgments are true and just. ^{§§†} For He has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her whoring, and has avenged the blood of His servants caused by her hand.” ^{§§‡}
³ And a second time they shouted,
“ Halleluyah!
The smoke from her goes up forever and ever!” ^{§§§}

⁴ Then the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who is seated on the throne, saying, "Amen! Halleluyah!" †

⁵ Then a voice came from the throne, saying: "Praise our God, all you His servants and all who fear Him, both the small and the great!" ††

Wedding of the Lamb

⁶ Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude—like the roar of rushing waters ‡ or like the rumbling of powerful thunder—saying, "Halleluyah!"

For ADONAI Elohei-Tzva'ot reigns!

⁷ Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him!

For the wedding of the Lamb has come, and His bride has made herself ready, ††

⁸ She was given fine linen to wear, bright and clean! For the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the kedoshim."

⁹ Then the angel tells me, "Write: How fortunate are those who have been invited to the wedding banquet of the Lamb!" He also tells me, "These are the true words of God."

¹⁰ Then I fell down at his feet and worshiped him. But he said to me, "See that you do not do that—for I am only a fellow servant with you and your brothers and sisters who hold to the testimony of Yeshua. Worship God! For the testimony of Yeshua is the Spirit of Prophecy."

Final Battle of this Age

¹¹ Then I saw heaven opened, †† and behold, a white horse! The One riding on it is called Faithful and True, and He judges and makes war in righteousness. ¹² His eyes are like a flame of fire, and many royal crowns are on His head. He has a name written that no one knows except Himself. ¹³ He is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, ††† and the name by which He is called is "the Word of God."

¹⁴ And the armies of heaven, clothed in fine linen, white and clean, were following Him on white horses. ¹⁵ From His mouth comes a sharp sword—so that with it He may strike down the nations—and He shall rule them with an iron rod, and He treads the winepress of the furious wrath of Elohei-Tzva'ot. ††††¹⁶ On His robe and on His thigh He has a name written, "King of kings, and Lord of lords." §

erals and the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and those riding on them, the flesh of all men, both free and slave, both small and great!" §†

¹⁹ Also I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the One who sat on the horse and against His army. ²⁰ Then the beast was captured, and along with him the false prophet who had performed the signs before him by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast, as well as those who had worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire burning with brimstone. §†††²¹ The rest were killed with the sword coming out of the mouth of the One riding on the horse. And all the birds gorged themselves with their flesh.

The First Resurrection

²⁰ Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key to the abyss and a great chain. ² He seized the dragon—the ancient serpent, who is the devil and satan—and bound him for a thousand years. §†³ He also threw him into the abyss and locked and sealed it over him, so that he would not deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were completed. After these things, he must be released for a short while.

⁴ Then I saw thrones, and people sat upon them—those to whom authority to judge was given. §†† And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their testimony for Yeshua and because of the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his image, nor had they received his mark on their forehead or on their hand. And they came to life §† and reigned with the Messiah for a thousand years.

⁵ The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection. ⁶ How fortunate and holy is the one who has a share in the first resurrection! Over such the second death has no authority, but they shall be kohanim of God and the Messiah, and they shall reign with Him for a thousand years.

Judgment After 1000 Years

⁷ When the thousand years has ended, satan shall be released from his prison, ⁸ and he shall come out to deceive the nations at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for the battle. §† Their number is like the sand of the sea. ⁹ And they came up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the kedoshim and the beloved city—but fire fell from heaven and consumed them. §††

¹⁰ And the devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are too, and they shall be tortured day and night forever and ever.

¹¹ Then I saw a great white throne, and the One seated on it. The earth and heaven fled from His presence, but no place was found for them. ¹² And I saw the dead—the great and the small—standing before the throne. The books were opened, and another book was opened—the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to what was written in the books, according to their deeds. ¹³ The sea gave up the dead that were in it, and death and Sheol gave up the dead in them. Then they were each judged, each one of them, according to their deeds.

¹⁴ Then death and Sheol were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death—the lake of fire. ¹⁵ And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

A New Heaven and a New Earth

21 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ^{††}

² I also saw the holy city—the New Jerusalem—coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ I also heard a loud voice from the throne, saying,

“Behold, the dwelling of God is among men, and He shall tabernacle among them.

They shall be His people, and God Himself shall be among them and be their God. [‡]

⁴ He shall wipe away every tear from their eyes, ^{‡‡} and death shall be no more.

Nor shall there be mourning or crying or pain any longer, for the former things have passed away.”

⁵ And the One seated upon the throne said, “Behold, I am making all things new!” Then He said, “Write, for these words are trustworthy and true.”

⁶ Then He said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will freely give from the spring of the water of life.

^{‡‡‡7} The one who overcomes shall inherit these things, and I will be his God and he shall be My son. ^{‡‡‡8} But for the cowardly and faithless and detestable and murderers and sexually immoral and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars—their lot is in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.”

The New Jerusalem

⁹ Then came one of the seven angels holding the seven bowls full of the seven final plagues, and he spoke with me, saying, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb.”

¹⁰ Then he carried me away in the Ruach to a great and high mountain, [§] and he showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, ¹¹ having the glory of God—her radiance like a most precious stone, like a jasper, sparkling like crystal.

¹⁵ The angel speaking with me had a gold measuring rod to measure the city and its gates and walls.

^{§††16} The city is laid out as a square—its length the same as its width. He measured the city with the rod—12,000 stadia. ^{§†} Its length and width and height are equal. ¹⁷ He also measured its wall—144 cubits by human measurement, which is also an angel’s measurement. ¹⁸ The material of the city’s wall was jasper, while the city was pure gold, clear as glass. ¹⁹ The foundations of the city wall were decorated with every kind of precious stone—the first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; ²⁰ the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, carnelian; the seventh, yellow topaz; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. ²¹ And the twelve gates were twelve pearls—each of the gates was from a single pearl. And the street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass.

²² I saw no temple in her, for its Temple is ADONAI Elohei-Tzva’ot and the Lamb. ²³ And the city has no need for the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God lights it up, and its lamp is the Lamb. ^{§††24} The nations shall walk by its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory into it. ^{§†25} Its gates shall never be shut by day, ^{§†} for there shall be no night there! ²⁶ And they shall bring into it the glory and honor of the nations. ²⁷ And nothing unholy ^{§§†} shall ever enter it, nor anyone doing what is detestable or false, ^{§§†} but only those written in the Book of Life.

22 Then the angel showed me a river of the water of life—bright as crystal, ^{§§§} flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb ² down the middle of the city’s street. On either side of the river was a tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. ¹⁸³ No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in the city, and His servants shall serve Him. ⁴ They shall see His face, [†] and His name shall be on their foreheads. ^{††5} Night shall be no more, and people will have no need for lamplight or sunlight—for ADONAI Elohim will shine on them. [‡] And they shall reign forever and ever!

Yeshua Is Coming

⁶ He said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true! ADONAI, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent His angel to show His servants what must happen soon. ^{††7} Behold, I am coming soon! How fortunate is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

⁸ I, John, am the one hearing and seeing these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel showing me these things. ⁹ But he tells me, "See that you do not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets and those keeping the words of this book. Worship God!"

¹⁰ Then he tells me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near. ^{††11} Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do righteousness, and the holy still be holy. ^{††12} Behold, I am coming soon, and My reward is with Me, to pay back each one according to his deeds.

¹³ "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. ^{†††14} How fortunate are those who wash their robes, [§] so that they may have the right to the Tree of Life ^{§†} and may enter through the gates into the city. ¹⁵ Outside are the dogs and the sorcerers and the sexually immoral and the murderers and the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood. ¹⁶ I, Yeshua, have sent My angel to testify these things to you for My communities. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the Bright and Morning Star." ^{§††}

¹⁷ The Ruach and the bride say, "Come!" And let the one who hears say, "Come!" Let the one who is thirsty come—let the one who wishes freely take the water of life! ^{§†18} I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book. If anyone adds to them, God shall add to him the plagues that are written in this book; ¹⁹ and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his share in the Tree of Life and the Holy City, ^{§††} which are written in this book.

²⁰ The One giving testimony to these things says, "Yes! I am coming soon!" Amen! Come, Lord Yeshua!

^{§†21} May the grace of the Lord Yeshua be with all! ^{§‡}
